excluded from change in ownership by the provisions of either subdivision (f) of Section 62 or subdivision (b) of Section 65, unless the transferor qualifies as an original transferor under subdivision (b) of Section 65. In the case of any purchase or transfer subject to this paragraph involving two or more eligible transferors, the transferors may elect to combine their separate one million dollar ($1,000,000) exclusions and, upon making that election, the combined amount of their separate exclusions shall apply to any property jointly sold or transferred by the electing transferors, provided that in no case shall the amount of full cash value of real property of any one eligible transferor excluded under this election exceed the amount of the transferor's separate unused exclusion on the date of the joint sale or transfer.

(c) As used in this section:

(1) "Purchase or transfer between parents and their children" means either a transfer from a parent or parents to a child or children of the parent or parents or a transfer from a child or children to a parent or parents of the child or children.

(2) "Children" means any of the following:

(A) Any child born of the parent or parents, except a child, as defined in subparagraph (D), who has been adopted by another person or persons.

(B) Any stepchild of the parent or parents and the spouse of that stepchild while the relationship of stepparent and stepchild exists. For purposes of this paragraph, the relationship of stepparent and stepchild shall be deemed to exist until the marriage on which the relationship is based is terminated by divorce, or, if the relationship is terminated by death, until the remarriage of the surviving stepparent.

(C) Any son-in-law or daughter-in-law of the parent or parents while the relationship of parent and son-in-law or daughter-in-law exists. For the purposes of this paragraph, the relationship of parent and son-in-law or daughter-in-law shall be deemed to exist until the marriage on which the relationship is based is terminated by divorce or, if the relationship is terminated by death, until the remarriage of the surviving son-in-law or daughter-in-law.

(D) Any child adopted by the parent or parents pursuant to statute, other than an individual adopted after reaching the age of 18 years.

(3) "Full cash value" means full cash value, as defined in Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, with any adjustments authorized by those sections, and the full value of any new construction in progress, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date of a purchase by or transfer to an eligible transferee of real property subject to this section.

(4) "Eligible transferor" means a parent or child of an eligible transferee.

(5) "Eligible transferee" means a parent or child of an eligible transferor.

(6) "Real property" means real property as defined in Section 104. Real property does not include any interest in a legal entity.

(d) The exclusions provided for in subdivision (a) shall not be allowed unless the eligible transferee files a claim with the assessor for the exclusion sought and furnishes to the assessor each of the following:

(1) A written certification by the transferee made under penalty of perjury that the transferee is a parent or child of the transferor.

(2) A copy of a written certification by the transferor, the transferor's legal representative, or the executor or administrator of the transferor's estate made under penalty of perjury that the transferor is a parent or child of the transferee. The written certification shall also include either or both of the following:

(A) If the purchase or transfer of real property includes the purchase or transfer of residential real property, a certification that the residential real property is or is not the transferor's principal residence.

(B) If the purchase or transfer of real property includes the purchase or transfer of real property other than the transferor's principal residence, a certification that other real property of the transferor which is subject to this section has or has not been previously sold or transferred to an eligible transferee, the total amount of full cash value, as defined in subdivision (c), of any real property subject to this section that has been previously sold or transferred by that transferor to eligible transferees, the location of that real property, and the names of the eligible transferees of that property.

(C) If the full cash value of the real property purchased by or transferred to the transferee exceeds the permissible exclusion of the transferor or the combined permissible exclusion of the transferors, in the case of a purchase or transfer from two or more joint transferors, taking into account any previous purchases by or transfers to an eligible transferee of the same transferor or transferors, the transferee shall specify in his or her claim the amount and the allocation of the exclusion he or she is seeking. Within any appraisal unit, as determined in accordance with subdivision (e) of Section 51 by the assessor of the county in which the real property is located, the exclusion shall be applied only on a pro rata basis, however, and shall not be applied to a selected portion or portions of the appraisal unit.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility. Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years after the date of the purchase or transfer of real property for which the claim is filed.

The assessor shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization all purchases or transfers, other than purchases or transfers involving a principal residence, for which a claim for exclusion is made pursuant to this subdivision. Each report shall contain the assessor's parcel number for each parcel for which the exclusion is claimed, the amount of each exclusion claimed, the tax identification number of each eligible transferor, and any other information as the board shall require in order to monitor the one million dollar ($1,000,000) limitation in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(e) This section shall apply to both voluntary transfers and transfers resulting from a court order or judicial decree.

(f) This section shall apply to purchases and transfers of real property completed on or after November 6, 1986, and shall not be effective for any change in ownership, including a change in ownership arising on the date of a decedent's death, which occurred prior to that date.

SEC. 2. The amendments to Section 63.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code made by Section 1 of this act shall apply to purchases and transfers of real property which occur on or after November 6, 1986.

SEC. 3. Section 63.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

63.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a change in ownership shall not include either of the following purchases or transfers for which a claim is filed pursuant to this section:

(1) The purchase or transfer of real property which is the principal residence of an eligible transferor in the case of a purchase or transfer between parents and their children.

(2) The purchase or transfer of the first one million dollars ($1,000,000) of full cash value of all other real property of an eligible transferor in the case of a purchase or transfer between parents and their children

(b) (1) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), "principal residence" means a dwelling for which a homeowner's exemption or a disabled veteran's residence exemption has been granted in the name of the eligible transferor. "Principal residence" includes only that portion of the land underlying the principal residence which consists of an area of reasonable size which is used as a site for the residence.

($1,000,000) exclusions and, upon making that election, the combined amount of their separate exclusions shall apply to any property jointly sold or transferred by the electing transferors, provided that in no case shall the amount of full cash value of real property of any one eligible transferor excluded under this election exceed the amount of the transferor's separate unused exclusion on the date of the joint sale or transfer.

(c) As used in this section:

(1) "Purchase or transfer between parents and their children" means either a transfer from a parent or parents to a child or children of the parent or parents or a transfer from a child or children to a parent or parents of the child or children.

(2) "Children" means any of the following:

(A) Any child born of the parent or parents, except a child, as defined in subparagraph (D), who has been adopted by another person or persons.

(B) Any stepchild of the parent or parents and the spouse of that stepchild while the relationship of stepparent and stepchild exists. For purposes of this paragraph, the relationship of stepparent and stepchild shall be deemed to exist until the marriage on which the relationship is based is terminated by divorce, or, if the relationship is terminated by death, until the remarriage of the surviving stepparent.

(C) Any son-in-law or daughter-in-law of the parent or parents. For the purposes of this paragraph, the relationship of parent and son-in-law or daughter-in-law shall be deemed to exist until the marriage on which the relationship is based is terminated by divorce or, if the relationship is terminated by death, until the remarriage of the surviving son-in-law or daughter-in-law.

(D) Any child adopted by the parent or parents pursuant to statute, other than an individual adopted after reaching the age of 18 years.

(3) "Full cash value" means full cash value, as defined in Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, with any adjustments authorized by those sections, and the full value of any new construction in progress, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date of a purchase by or transfer to an eligible transferee of real property subject to this section.

(4) "Eligible transferor" means a parent or child of an eligible transferee.

(5) "Eligible transferee" means a parent or child of an eligible transferor.

(6) "Real property" means real property as defined in Section 104. Real property does not include any interest in a legal entity.

(7) "Transfer" includes, and is not limited to, any transfer of the present beneficial ownership of property from an eligible transferor to an eligible transferee through the medium of an inter vivos or testamentary trust.

(d) The exclusions provided for in subdivision (a) shall not be allowed unless the eligible transferee files a claim with the assessor for the exclusion sought and furnishes to the assessor each of the following:

(1) A written certification by the transferee made under penalty of perjury that the transferee is a parent or child of the transferor.

(2) A copy of a written certification by the transferor, the transferor's legal representative, or the executor or administrator of the transferor's estate made under penalty of perjury that the transferor is a parent or child of the transferee. The written certification shall also include either or both of the following:

(A) If the purchase or transfer of real property includes the purchase or transfer of residential real property, a certification that the residential real property is or is not the transferor's principal residence.

(B) If the purchase or transfer of real property includes the purchase or transfer of real property other than the transferor's principal residence, a certification that other real property of the transferor which is subject to this section has or has not been previously sold or transferred to an eligible transferee, the total amount of full cash value, as defined in subdivision (c), of any real property subject to this section that has been previously sold or transferred by that transferor to eligible transferees, the location of that real property, and the names of the eligible transferees of that property.

(C) If the full cash value of the real property purchased by or transferred to the transferee exceeds the permissible exclusion of the transferor or the combined permissible exclusion of the transferors, in the case of a purchase or transfer from two or more joint transferors, taking into account any previous purchases by or transfers to an eligible transferee of the same transferor or transferors, the transferee shall specify in his or her claim the amount and the allocation of the exclusion he or she is seeking. Within any appraisal unit, as determined in accordance with subdivision (e) of Section 51 by the assessor of the county in which the real property is located, the exclusion shall be applied only on a pro rata basis, however, and shall not be applied to a selected portion or portions of the appraisal unit.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility. Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years after the date of the purchase or transfer of real property for which the claim is filed.

The assessor shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization all purchases or transfers, other than purchases or transfers involving a principal residence, for which a claim for exclusion is made pursuant to this subdivision. Each report shall contain the assessor's parcel number for each parcel for which the exclusion is claimed, the amount of each exclusion claimed, the tax identification number of each eligible transferor, and any other information as the board shall require in order to monitor the one million dollar ($1,000,000) limitation in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(e) This section shall apply to both voluntary transfers and transfers resulting from a court order or judicial decree.

(f) This section shall apply to purchases and transfers of real property completed on or after November 6, 1986, and shall not be effective for any change in ownership, including a change in ownership arising on the date of a decedent's death, which occurred prior to that date.

SEC. 4. Except for the addition of paragraph (7) to subdivision (c), the amendments to Section 63.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code made by Section 3 of this act shall apply to purchases and transfers of real property which occur on or after November 6, 1986.

SEC. 5. Sections 3 and 4 of this bill incorporate amendments to Section 63.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1736. Sections 3 and 4 of this bill shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 63.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1736, in which case Sections 1 and 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 770

An act to amend Section 104.8 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to state property, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 104.8 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

104.8. (a) The department may provide information regarding, and may lease, airspace under the interchange of Route 4 and Route 5 in San Joaquin County and between 17th Street and the west side of Route 5 between the southbound on ramp and the off ramp near J Street in the City of San Diego and on the northeast corner of Route 101 and De La Vina Street in the County of Santa Barbara, to a city, county, or other political subdivision or another state agency for emergency shelter or feeding program purposes. Property may be leased pursuant to this section only if there is no buyer. The lease shall be for one dollar ($1) per month. The lease amount may be paid in advance of the term covered in order to reduce the administrative costs associated with the payment of the monthly rental fee.

Any lease executed pursuant to this section shall also provide for the cost of administering the lease

The administrative fee shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500) per year unless the department determines that a higher administrative fee is necessary.

(b) The Legislature finds and declares that the lease of real property pursuant to this section serves a public purpose.

(c) Any lease executed pursuant to subdivision (a) for airspace under the interchange of Route 4 and Route 5 in San Joaquin County shall provide for the rescission of existing leases of this airspace between the department and the City of Stockton and for the refunding of any rent paid pursuant to those leases for periods commencing on or after January 1, 1988.

SEC. 2. (a) The Director of General Services, with the approval of the Director of Developmental Services, shall sell to the County of San Joaquin, upon the following terms and conditions and with those reservations and exceptions which in the director's opinion may be in the best interest of the state, that 2.33 acre parcel located in the City of Stockton and described in subdivision (b):

(1) The County of San Joaquin shall, with the concurrence of the Director of Developmental Services, commission an independent appraisal of the parcel. Whatever the appraised value of the property is determined to be, the county shall be permitted to purchase the property at the fair market value of the appraised worth of the property.

(2) The parcel shall be used to construct, maintain, and operate a residential building to house chronically mentally ill adults, and a senior citizen mental health and wellness center. Any other use of the parcel shall be subject to the approval of the Director of Developmental Services.

(3) Any costs or expenses incurred in the sale of the State Hospital land may be reimbursed from the proceeds of the sale.

(4) All of the proceeds of the sale of the State Hospital land, less reimbursements for costs and expenses, shall be paid into the General Fund.

(5) The sale of the State Hospital land is exempt from Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 21100), Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 21150), Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 21160), and Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 21165) of Division 13 of the Public Resources Code.

(b) The parcel referred to in subdivision (a) is a portion of the state hospital grounds located in the City of Stockton, California, and a portion of Section 19 of the C. M. Weber Grant, County of San Joaquin, State of California, more particularly described as follows:

Beginning at the intersection of the southerly line of Harding Way with the easterly line of California Street; running thence along said easterly line of California Street, South 11°41'30" East, 306.00 feet; thence North 78°15'30" East, 330.32 feet to the westerly line of a private street within the State Hospital grounds, known as North American Street; thence along said westerly line of North American Street, the following courses and distances: (1) North 12°07'20" West, 105.00 feet; and (2) along a curve to the right with a radius of 130.00 feet (the long chord of which bears North 15°59'26" East, 122.51 feet) an arc distance of 127.57 feet; thence North 12°23'40" West, 13.49 feet to the fence encompassing a City of Stockton fire station; thence along said fence, the following courses and distances: (1) South 78°08'40" West, 21.49 feet; (2) North 12°23'20" West, 5.03 feet; (3) South 78°06' West, 65.32 feet; and (4) North 10°10' West, 73.61 feet to the aforesaid southerly line of Harding Way; thence along said southerly line of Harding Way, South 87°23'13" West, 301.37 feet to the point of beginning of the therein described parcel, containing 2.33 acres, more or less.

SEC. 3. As to any property sold pursuant to Section 2 of this act containing 10 acres or less, the Director of General Services shall except and reserve to the state all mineral deposits, as defined in Section 6407 of the Public Resources Code, below a depth of 500 feet, without surface rights of entry.

SEC. 4. Nothing in Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 7800) of Division 7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, which is proposed to be added by AB 4279 of the 1987–88 Regular Session, shall affect Section 1 to 3, inclusive, of this act.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the property specified in Section 2 of this act to be used to establish a residential building to house chronically mentally ill adults and a senior citizen mental health and wellness center at the earliest possible time, and in order to facilitate the implementation of the other provision of this bill, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 771

An act to amend Section 25169 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25169 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25169. (a) Every transporter of hazardous waste shall maintain ability to respond in damages resulting from the operation of that business. The ability to respond in damages includes the ability to respond to public liability, as provided in subdivision (c). For purposes of this section only, "public liability" means liability for bodily injury, including injury to the body, sickness, or disease to any person, and death resulting from any such injury, sickness, or disease; for property damage, including damage to, or loss of use of, tangible property; and for environmental restoration, including restitution for the loss, damage, or destruction of natural resources arising out of the accidental discharge, dispersal, release, or escape into or upon the land, atmosphere, watercourse, or body of water, of any commodity transported by a motor carrier. This liability includes the cost of removal and the cost of necessary measures taken to minimize or mitigate damage or potential for damage to human health, the natural environment, fish, shellfish, and wildlife. The ability to respond shall be consistent with whichever of the following requires the highest limits:

(1) The liability limits prescribed pursuant to Section 3631 of the Public Utilities Code.

(2) The liability limits prescribed pursuant to Section 3631.5 of the Public Utilities Code.

(3) A higher limit than that prescribed pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2), when deemed necessary and so established by the department.

(b) The department shall, within two working days of being informed of any violation of subdivision (a), transmit a notice of violation to the transporter suspected of the violation. If the transporter so notified does not present proof of compliance with subdivision (a) to the department's satisfaction within 30 days of transmittal of the notice, the department shall immediately, notwithstanding Section 25186, suspend the transporter's registration. If proof of compliance is not submitted within 60 days, the registration shall immediately be revoked, notwithstanding Section 25186. A transporter whose registration is revoked pursuant to this subdivision may apply again for registration upon furnishing proof of compliance with subdivision (a).

(c) The ability to respond to public liability means having a policy of insurance coverage issued by an insurer or a surety bond issued by a surety, which meets both of the following requirements:

(1) The policy or bond has the liability limits specified for carriers of hazardous wastes by the Department of Transportation in Part 387 (commencing with Section 387.1) of Subchapter B of Chapter 111 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, except that coverage shall be in the amount of one million two hundred thousand dollars ($1,200,000) for waste petroleum in bulk shipments, and six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000) for vehicles under 10,000 pounds gross vehicle weight rating.

(2) The policy's or bond's terms conform to Form MCS-90 or MCS-82, respectively, as defined and set forth in Sections 387.7 to 387.15, inclusive, of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or a written decision, order, or authorization to self-insure that complies with paragraph (3) of subsection (d) of Section 387.7 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, adopted pursuant to Section 30 of the Motor Carrier Act of 1980 (49 U.S.C. Sec. 10927).

(d) As proof of compliance with subdivision (a), an insurer or surety which provides the insurance coverage or surety bond required by this section shall agree to provide the department with 30 days' notice prior to cancellation of the endorsement or termination of the bond defined in subdivision (c). An insurer or surety may demonstrate the ability of the transporter to respond to public liability by submitting a copy of the completed Form MCS-90 or MCS-82, as specified in Section 387.15 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, to the department, along with the agreement required by this subdivision.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 772

An act to amend Section 69051 of, and to add Article 9 (commencing with Section 69111) to Chapter 7 of Division 22 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to the California Pistachio Commission.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 69051 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

69051. The powers and duties of the commission, subject to Sections 69032 and 69033, shall include, but are not limited to, all of the following powers and duties:

(a) To adopt and from time to time alter, rescind, modify, and amend all proper and necessary bylaws, rules, regulations, and orders for carrying out this chapter, including rules for appeals from any bylaw, rule, regulation, or order of the commission.

(b) To administer and enforce this chapter, and to do and perform all acts and exercise all powers incidental to, or in connection with, or determined reasonably necessary for, proper or advisable effectuation of the purposes of this chapter.

(c) To appoint its own officers, including a chairman, one or more vice chairmen, and any other officers as it determines necessary. The officers shall have the powers and duties delegated to them by the commission.

(d) To employ a manager to serve at the pleasure of the commission as president and chief executive officer of the commission, and other personnel, including legal counsel, that is necessary to carry out this chapter. The commission may retain a management firm or the staff from any board, commission, or committee of the state to perform the functions prescribed by this subdivision under the control of the commission. If the manager engages in any conduct which the director determines is not in the public interest or which is in violation of this chapter, the director shall notify the commission of the conduct and request that corrective and, if appropriate, disciplinary action be taken by the commission. If the commission fails or refuses to correct the situation or to take disciplinary action satisfactory to the director, the director may suspend or discharge the manager.

(e) To fix the compensation for all employees of the commission.

(f) To appoint committees composed of both members and nonmembers of the commission, such as a processor advisory committee, to advise the commission in carrying out this chapter.

(g) To establish offices and incur expenses, invest funds in the permissible investments as specified in Section 58939, enter into any and all contracts and agreements, and create liabilities and borrow funds in advance of receipt of assessments as may be necessary, in the opinion of the commission, for the proper administration and enforcement of this chapter and the performance of its duties.

(h) To keep accurate books, records, and accounts of all of its dealings, which books, records, and accounts shall be subject to an annual audit by an auditing firm selected by the commission with the concurrence of the director. The audit shall be made a part of an annual report to all producers of pistachios, copies of which shall also be submitted to the Legislature and the Department of Food and Agriculture. In addition, the director may, as he or she determines necessary, conduct or cause to be conducted a fiscal and compliance audit of the commission. The Department of Finance may audit books, records, and accounts of the commission at any time.

(i) To promote the sale of pistachios by advertising and other promotional means, including cost-sharing advertising, for the purpose of maintaining and expending present markets and creating new and larger intrastate, interstate, and foreign markets for pistachios, and to educate and instruct the public with respect to the uses, healthful properties, and nutritional value of pistachios.

(j) To educate and instruct the wholesale and retail trade with respect to proper methods of handling and selling pistachios, make market surveys and analyses, and present facts to, and negotiate with, state, federal, and foreign agencies on matters which affect the marketing of pistachios.

(k) To make, in the name of the commission, contracts to render service in formulating and conducting plans and programs, and any other contracts or agreements as the commission may determine necessary for the promotion of the sale of pistachios.

research, including the study, analysis, dissemination, and accumulation of information obtained from the research or elsewhere, respecting cultural and production practices, and marketing and distribution of pistachios. In connection with the research, the commission shall have the power to accept contributions of, or to match, private, state, or federal funds that may be available for these purposes, and to employ or make contributions of funds to other persons or state or federal agencies conducting the research.

(m) To publish and distribute, without charge, a bulletin or other communication for dissemination of information relating to the pistachio industry, to producers and processors.

(n) To establish an assessment rate to defray operating costs of the commission. Any assessment rate established pursuant to this chapter may be modified in accordance with Section 69081.

(o) To establish an annual budget according to accepted accounting practices. The budget shall be concurred in by the director prior to disbursement of funds, except for disbursements made pursuant to subdivision (e).

(p) To submit to the director for his or her concurrence, an annual statement of contemplated activities authorized under this chapter, including advertising, promotion, marketing research, and production research.

SEC. 2. Article 9 (commencing with Section 69111) is added to Chapter 7 of Division 22 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 9. Marketing Order Involvement

69111. The commission may recommend to the director that he or she adopt pistachio quality standards, product labeling, or engage in any other activity authorized pursuant to the California Marketing Act of 1937 (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 58601) of Part 2 of Division 21). The adoption of standards or any of these activities shall be in accordance with the procedures specified in that act unless otherwise specified in this article.

69112. Any activity recommended by the commission shall not become operative until approved in the manner specified in Section 69062.

69113. Any activity adopted pursuant to this article shall be implemented by the director at the beginning of the marketing season next succeeding the date on which they are approved by the director.

69114. The commission shall serve as the advisory body to the director on all matters pertaining to this article.

CHAPTER 773

An act to amend Sections 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 525, 526, 527, 528, 530, 531, 532, and 534 of, to amend the heading of Article 4. 5 (commencing with Section 514) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 of, to add Sections 519.5, 520.1, 520.2, 520.3, 520.4, 521.5, and 526.5 to, and to repeal and add Section 529 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to health, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The heading of Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 514) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

Article 4.5. Registration of Environmental Health Specialists

SEC. 2. Section 514 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

514. It is the intent of the Legislature in adopting this article to safeguard the health, safety, and general welfare of the public by the registration of those environmental health professionals practicing as environmental health specialists who have completed an approved environmental health or science curriculum and who are qualified to work, or are working, within the scope of the field of environmental health as defined by this article.

In adopting this article, it is recognized that the field of environmental health is a dynamic field which is continually evolving into new and complex areas of concern. This article recognizes the existence of overlapping functions with other professions carrying out specific activities which may include some aspects of the field of environmental health. The title of a person registered under this article shall be environmental health specialist. Use of the term sanitarian or registered sanitarian in statutes and regulations shall mean registered environmental health specialists. A valid registered sanitarian registration shall on January 1, 1989, be a valid registration as an environmental health specialist. The State Department of Health Services shall provide a new certificate of registration to that effect.

SEC. 3. Section 515 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

515. This article does not require registration of individuals, such as industrial hygienists, health physicists, safety engineers, civil engineers, land surveyors, other registered professional engineers, or others with overlapping functions. This article does not require registration of individuals performing duties described in subdivision (e) of Section 517, unless those individuals represent themselves as registered environmental health specialists. It is not the intent of this article to require city or county health departments or local health districts to employ only registered environmental health specialists, environmental health specialist trainees, or those qualified for registration in jobs involving those overlapping functions. It is the sole purpose of this article to safeguard the health, safety, and general welfare of the public from adverse environmental factors, to register those environmental health professionals practicing as environmental health specialists who have completed an approved environmental health or science curriculum, and are qualified to work, or are working, in the public or private sector in the field of environmental health within the scope of practice as defined in this article, and to protect the public from individuals performing as environmental health specialists without proper qualifications.

SEC. 4. Section 516 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

516. The department may, upon recommendation of the Environmental Health Specialist Registration Committee appointed pursuant to Section 523, adopt any regulations necessary to accomplish the purposes of this article.

SEC. 5. Section 517 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

517. The words and phrases defined in this section shall have the following meaning, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(a) "Department" means the State Department of Health Services.

(b) "Committee" means the Environmental Health Specialist Registration Committee.

(c) "Registered environmental health specialist" means an environmental health professional educated and trained within the field of environmental health who is registered in accordance with the provisions of this article. A registered environmental health specialist registered under this article also meets the requirements for registration as an environmental assessor pursuant to Section 25570.

(d) "Environmental health specialist trainee" means a person who possesses (1) a minimum of a bachelor's degree, including 30 semester units of basic sciences, from a department approved educational institution or an educational institution of collegiate grade listed in the directory of accredited institutions of postsecondary education compiled by the American Council on Education, but who has not completed the specific coursework and experience requirements in the field of environmental health as required by Section 521 for registration, and (2) who is engaged in an approved environmental health training plan.

(e) "Scope of practice in environmental health" means the practice of environmental health by registered environmental health specialists in the public and private sector within the meaning of this article and includes, but is not limited to, organization, management, education, enforcement, consultation, and emergency response for the purpose of prevention of environmental health hazards and the promotion and protection of the public health and the environment in the following areas: food protection; housing; institutional environmental health; land use; community noise control; recreational swimming areas and waters; electromagnetic radiation control; solid, liquid, and hazardous materials management; underground storage tank control; onsite septic systems; vector control; drinking water quality; water sanitation; emergency preparedness; and milk and dairy sanitation pursuant to Section 33113 of the Food and Agricultural Code. Activities of registered environmental health specialists shall be regulated by the department upon the recommendation of the committee.

(f) "Certificate of registration" means a signed document issued by the department as evidence of registration and qualification to practice as a registered environmental health specialist under this article. The certificate shall bear the designation "registered environmental health specialist" and shall show the name of the person, date of issue, registration number, and seal.

(g) "Experience requirement" means on-the-job training and experience, as stated in this article, which all environmental health specialist trainees shall complete prior to obtaining eligibility for the environmental health specialist examination.

(h) "Approved environmental health training plan" means a training program in an organization which plans to utilize environmental health specialist trainees and has on file with the department a copy of its training plan which conforms with the requirements of Section 521.5, and which has been approved by the committee.

(i) "Director" means the State Director of Health Services.

SEC. 6. Section 518 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

518. Except for the design of onsite septic systems, nothing in this article shall authorize registered environmental health specialists to design any of the fixed works defined in Section 6731 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 7. Section 519 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

519. The governing body of a city, county, or local health district may employ on a full-time basis one or more registered environmental health specialists, each of whom shall be a registered environmental health specialist as provided for in this article for the purpose of the enforcement of statutes related to public health, and the rules and regulations of the State Department of Health Services, and any local ordinances of a city, county, or local health district that relate to activities under subdivision (e) of Section 517. However, any person who is known as an environmental health specialist trainee may be employed to work under the supervision of a registered environmental health specialist, until he or she is qualified by examination as provided under Section 522, for a period which shall not exceed three years. Prior to employment, the trainee shall have a current evaluation letter from the department stating that the education qualifications specified in Section 521 have been met.

SEC. 8. Section 519.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

519.5. Any person may make an application to the department to be registered as an environmental health specialist. The department shall accept complete applications if accompanied by the required fees.

(a) Application submission, completion and notification.

(1) Receipt of an application for a certificate of registration as an environmental health specialist shall be deemed to be the date the application is date stamped by the department.

(2) An application for a certificate of registration as an environmental health specialist is considered complete when a completed application form supplied by the department, proof of successful passage of the registered environmental health specialist examination, as specified in Section 522, and the initial biennial registration fee are received by the department.

(3) Written notification by the department to applicants shall be deemed to occur on the date the notifications are postmarked.

(b) Application review period.

The department shall notify the applicant in writing within 15 working days of receipt of an application for a certificate of registration as an environmental health specialist that the application is completed and accepted for filing, or that the application is deficient and what specific information, documentation, or fee, is required to complete the application.

(c) Application decision period.

The department, within three calendar days of filing of a completed application, shall reach a decision regarding the application for a certificate of registration as an environmental health specialist.

(d) The department shall issue certificates of registration to qualified applicants.

(e) Duplicate certificate/card of registration shall be issued to individuals who hold valid registration as an environmental health specialist upon payment of ten dollars ($10) for a duplicate certificate and five dollars ($5) for a duplicate registration card.

SEC. 9. Section 520 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

520. The requirements for registration of environmental health specialists shall be a minimum of a bachelor's degree from a department approved educational institution or an educational institution of collegiate grade listed in the directory of accredited institutions of postsecondary education compiled by the American Council on Education, with coursework prescribed as follows:

SEC. 9.2. Section 520.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

520.1. Educational institutions requesting approval of their environmental health degree program shall first submit their program to the committee for review. If the program meets the prescribed curricula in Section 520 it shall be submitted to the department for approval.

SEC. 9.4. Section 520.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

520.2. Those persons who meet the educational, experience, and training requirements of Section 520 shall be eligible for admission to the examination for registration as an environmental health specialist.

SEC. 9.6. Section 520.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

520.3. Any person who has applied for environmental health specialist registration, or who is enrolled in an approved environmental health science curriculum, or who is certified by his or her employer as serving as an environmental health specialist trainee in an approved environmental health program on or before December 31, 1988, shall be admitted to the written examination on the basis of the requirements existing on December 31, 1988.

SEC. 9.8. Section 520.4 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

520.4. A person who possesses a minimum of a bachelor's degree from a department-approved educational institution or an educational institution of collegiate grade listed in the directory of accredited institutions of postsecondary education compiled by the American Council on Education and has been employed as a certified dairy inspector in the State of California for at least 24 months immediately prior to applying for admission to the environmental health specialist registration examination, shall be eligible for admission to the examination for registration as an environmental health specialist.

SEC. 10. Section 521 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

521. Any person meeting the educational qualifications pursuant to Section 520, but who does not meet the experience requirement of that section, may make application to the department on a form prescribed by the department for acceptance as an environmental health specialist trainee. The department shall accept complete applications if accompanied by the required fees.

SEC. 11. Section 521.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

521.5. An approved environmental health training plan shall include program elements in the training, duration of training, and types of training.

(a) Program elements, duration of training, and experience are as follows:

(1) All environmental health specialist trainees, shall complete a basic training period in an approved program. The training period shall include training in at least six elements, with three of the elements selected from the following basic elements:

(A) Food protection.

(B) Solid or liquid waste management, or both.

(C) Water supply.

(D) Housing and institutions.

(E) Bathing places.

(F) Vector control.

(G) Hazardous materials management or underground tank program, or both.

The remaining three elements may include any other basic element or any of the following elements: air sanitation, safety and accident prevention, land development and use, disaster sanitation, electromagnetic radiation, milk and dairy products, noise control, occupational health, and rabies and animal disease control.

(2) Training in each of three basic elements shall be not less than 20 percent of the total required training hours. Time spent in the remaining three elements shall be not less than 40 percent of the total required training hours. The employer shall designate the methods, elements, and types of training or experience for the remaining part of the time required for entrance to the registered environmental health specialist examination as specified in Section 522. The specified training may be cumulative and scheduled at the discretion of the employing agency over this period.

(3) The training may be accomplished by assignments chosen by the employing agency and under the supervision of a registered environmental health specialist.

(4) For those environmental health specialist trainees requiring more than one year of experience, the additional experience will be in one or more elements of environmental health listed in this section and may be outside of a local environmental health program.

(5) Training and experience gained working for governmental or a nonprofit entity, or both, may be counted toward the first-year training experience requirement if the training and experience is determined by the department to be equivalent to what would be gained in a local environmental health jurisdiction.

(b) Types of training:

The training program shall be integrated into the environmental health specalist trainee's job assignment and shall include items (1) and (2) and may include items (3), (4), and (5):

(1) A minimum of 20 hours per month of field instruction with direct supervision by a registered environmental health specialist for the first six months of employment. (The total minimum requirement in this area shall be 150 hours.)

(2) Independent time with adequate supervision and guidance.

(3) Office training with pretesting and posttesting.

(4) Lectures.

(5) Adequate office time to review and study.

(c) Requirements for certification of training:

(1) Environmental health specialist trainees shall receive their training from the department or agency that has a training plan approved by the committee.

(2) A daily log for the certification of the environmental health specialist trainee shall be maintained by the Director of Environmental Health.

(A) A daily log covering elements and hours spent of all training shall be kept by the environmental health specialist trainees, and verified by the trainer or supervisor on a weekly basis.

(B) Short narrative reports or copies of the monthly schedule of the environmental health specialist trainee's training and progress shall be submitted by the training coordinator to the director every month throughout the traineeship.

(C) The Director of Environmental Health shall review the trainee's records on a monthly basis and shall certify on a quarterly basis that the records of training are accurate.

(D) The Director of Environmental Health shall notify the department within 30 days of the date an environmental health specialist trainee is hired or terminated.

(E) Copies of the environmental health specialist trainee's log, as well as the narrative reports or copies of monthly schedules shall be retained in the personnel file of the environmental health specialist trainee for at least one year after the environmental health specialist trainee successfully completes the registered environmental health specialist examination.

(3) When an environmental health specialist trainee completes the training program, the Director of Environmental Health shall forward certification to the department. This certification shall include the program areas, length of time, dates for the areas of training and a statement that the environmental health specialist trainee followed the approved training plan.

(d) Those jurisdictions that cannot provide the required training elements within their jurisdictions shall initiate a program of training exchange with another jurisdiction having an approved training program.

SEC. 12. Section 522 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

522. (a) On and after January 1, 1989, only persons who meet the educational and experience requirements as established under Section 520 shall be eligible for admission to examination for registration as an environmental health specialist.

(b) The professional examination shall be prescribed by the department with the concurrence of the committee, and a passing score on the examination shall be required prior to registration.

(c) An applicant who twice fails to pass the written examination shall not be eligible to be reexamined a third time until at least one year has elapsed from the date of the second examination. An applicant who fails the third examination shall not be eligible to take the examination a fourth time until two years have elapsed from the date of the third examination. Thereafter, the examination may not be taken more frequently than once in two years. Reapplication shall be made by submitting a new application with the required fee.

SEC. 13. Section 523 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

523. (a) An Environmental Health Specialist Registration Committee shall be appointed to advise and to make recommendations to the department with respect to, and to take other actions as described in this article for the establishment of rules and regulations necessary to ensure, the proper administration and enforcement of the registration of environmental health specialists whose duties in public health and environmental health require knowledge and skills in the physical, biological, and environmental health sciences and whose performance of professional duties is necessary for the promotion of life, health, and well being of the public.

The members of the former Sanitarian Registration Certification Committee shall serve as members of the new committee until the expiration of their terms.

(b) The committee shall consist of the Chief of the Environmental Planning and Local Health Services Branch, State Department of Health Services, or the designee of the chief, who shall serve as executive officer but who shall not vote, and the following 10 members who are residents of the state:

(1) Two members appointed by the director from the California Conference of Directors of Environmental Health who shall be environmental health specialists with at least two years' experience as directors of environmental health in this state.

(2) Three members appointed by the director, each of whom shall be a qualified, practicing environmental health specialist registered in California for a period of five or more years. For purposes of this subdivision:

(A) One member shall be employed in the public sector at the time of appointment.

(B) One member shall be employed in the private sector at the time of appointment.

(C) One member shall be from the California Environmental Health Association.

(3) One member appointed by the director from the California Conference of Local Health Officers.

(4) Two members appointed by the director from the environmental health faculty of those California universities and colleges with approved curricula leading to a degree in environmental health.

(5) Two public members who have not been engaged at any time within five years immediately preceding their appointment in pursuits which lie within the field of environmental health or the profession regulated by the committee of which they are members. The Senate Rules Committee shall appoint one public member and the Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint one public member.

SEC. 14. Section 525 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

525. (a) The members of the committee shall, annually, in the month of April, elect from their number a chairperson and a secretary.

(b) The committee shall meet at least twice annually and at such other times as it may determine to evaluate applications for registration as environmental health specialists, to review and update examinations, to prepare and recommend reports relative to the administration of this article, and to transact all other business as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this article.

(c) The committee may hold informal hearings for denial, suspension, refusal to renew, and revocation of registrations for environmental health specialists as provided in Section 530.

(d) The committee may hold informal hearings for the purpose of administrative items, make the necessary determinations in conjunction therewith, and issue recommendations to the department consistent with the findings. The department may designate the committee to appoint one or more of its members to serve as a hearing agent. The agent or representatives shall conduct hearings in the manner provided by law.

(e) Six members of the committee shall constitute a quorum and special meetings of the committee shall be called by the executive officer upon written request by two members of the committee.

(f) The members of the committee shall serve without compensation, but shall receive their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties on the committee. However, no funds shall be disbursed for those purposes without the prior approval of the department.

SEC. 15. Section 526 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

526. (a) The committee shall keep a record of its proceedings.

(b) The department shall maintain a register of all applications for registration and retain examination papers and records pertaining thereto for a length of time to be determined by the department.

(c) The department shall maintain a current registry of all registered environmental health specialists and all environmental health specialist trainees in the state.

(d) Individuals registered under provisions of this article are responsible for assuring that the department has a current mailing address for them.

SEC. 16. Section 526.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

526.5. A registered environmental health specialist may maintain registration under a retired biennial registration provided the following requirements are met:

(a) Has been a working registered environmental health specialist in California for at least 10 years in an area covered in subdivision (e) of Section 517, unless receiving an on-the-job disability before the 10 years of service as a registered environmental health specialist has elapsed.

(b) Is at least 50 years old or collecting retirement benefits, or both.

(c) Not working in a job requiring registration as an environmental health specialist. A person who pays a retired biennial fee shall be registered only as an inactive retired registered environmental health specialist.

SEC. 17. Section 527 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

527. (a) A nonreturnable fee, shall be paid by a person for each application for registration, application for examination, and biennial renewal.

(b) Fees shall not exceed the actual administrative costs of the program. Fees, except retired and penalty fees, shall be subject to the provisions of Section 113. The actual dollar figure charged shall be rounded to the nearest whole dollar amount. The biennial renewal fee-retired shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

(c) The nonreturnable biennial renewal fee, shall be paid by each registered environmental health specialist on or before the first day of January of every second year, or on any other date which is determined by the department. Each registered environmental health specialist registered pursuant to this article, shall first pay the biennial fee at the time of initial registration to cover the calendar year in which registration is acquired and the following calendar year. Registrations not maintained as required by this subdivision are suspended and remain invalid during the period of suspension. Suspended registrations become revoked three years after the date of suspension. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Government Code, the executive officer shall revoke suspended registrations after three years from the date of suspension for nonpayment of fees.

(d) An additional penalty fee equal to 50 percent of the biennial renewal fee for each year of delinquency or portion thereof shall be paid by each person who fails to pay the fee required by subdivision (c) within 30 days of the established due date. All accumulated penalty fees shall be paid prior to any revalidation of registration.

(e) The department shall receive and account for all money received pursuant to this article and shall deposit it with the Treasurer who shall keep the money in a separate fund to be known as the "Registered Environmental Health Specialist Fund," which fund is hereby created.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, funds collected pursuant to the provisions of this article are continuously appropriated without regard to fiscal year to pay expenses of the department to administer the provisions of this article.

(g) The following fees are hereby established and shall be annually adjusted as required by subdivision (b):

(1) Application fee — sixty-nine dollars ($69).

(2) Examination fee — sixty dollars ($60).

(3) Biennial renewal fee — active eighty-seven dollars ($87).

SEC. 18. Section 528 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

528. The department upon recommendation of the committee, may, by regulation, establish the requirement and standards for continuing education for registered environmental health specialists. The standards shall be established in a manner to assure that a variety of forms of continuing education are available to registered environmental health specialists.

SEC. 19. Section 529 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 20. Section 529 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

529. A valid registration as an environmental health specialist under this article shall only be issued to a person who has:

(a) Met the applicable education and experience requirements.

(b) Successfully passed the examination for registration.

(c) Submitted a complete application in accordance with Section 519.5.

(d) Paid the fees required in Section 527.

(e) Not committed acts specified in subdivision (a) of Section 530.

SEC. 21. Section 530 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

530. (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, the department upon the recommendation of the committee may suspend, deny, refuse to renew, or revoke a registration certificate issued under the provisions of this article after sufficient notice and an opportunity for a hearing and upon findings that the registered environmental health specialist has:

(1) Knowingly made a false statement of fact required to be revealed in the application for registration.

(2) Been convicted of a crime, if the crime is related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of an environmental health specialist.

(3) Knowingly made a false statement of fact required to be revealed in an application for, or renewal of, registration.

(4) Committed an act of deceit, misrepresentation, violation of contract, fraud, negligence, professional incompetence, or unethical practice.

(b) The procedure to deny, suspend, refuse to renew, or revoke an environmental health specialist registration certificate pursuant to this section shall be as follows:

(1) All cases, complaints, or allegations charging a violation of this subdivision shall be made in writing and submitted to the department.

(2) The department shall make a preliminary investigation by:

(A) Obtaining copies of all pertinent written documents (laws, reports, contacts, and correspondence).

(B) Interviewing, in person or by telephone, of all individuals involved with the issue.

(3) The department shall compile the information into a confidential case document which includes:

(A) A description of the complaint.

(B) A chronology of events.

(C) Results of the interviews.

(D) Copies of the written documents.

(4) The case document shall be submitted to each member of the committee requesting their recommendation whether or not the information warrants further investigation and an informal hearing.

(5) The department shall review committee recommendations and the preliminary investigation findings and then decide whether to dismiss the complaint or proceed to an informal committee hearing. Dismissal of the charges shall be followed by a letter to both complainant and the registered environmental health specialist involved explaining the department's action.

(6) If the decision is made to proceed with an informal hearing, the department shall request the committee to appoint one or more hearing officers to hear the case.

(A) All parties shall be notified of the time and place of the hearing.

(B) An investigation of the issue may be made by an independent professional investigator if it is felt warranted by the department and the committee. The investigation results shall be submitted to the department, committee hearing officers, complainant, and respondent prior to the hearing.

(C) The informal hearing shall permit the right to be heard (with an attorney, if desired) and the proceedings recorded.

(D) Upon the finding that a violation of this section occurred, the following disciplinary ranges may be recommended to the department by committee:

(i) Knowingly made a false statement of fact required to be revealed in the application for registration.

(I) Maximum: Revocation.

(II) Minimum: Fifteen-day suspension. Range depends on whether or not the registration was falsely approved.

(ii) Been convicted of a crime, if the crime is related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of a registered environmental health specialist.

(I) Maximum: Deny, refuse to renew, or revocation of registration.

(II) Minimum: Ninety days actual suspension.

(iii) Knowingly made a false statement of fact required to be revealed in an application for, or renewal of registration.

(I) Maximum: Revocation.

(II) Minimum: Seven day actual suspension.

(iv) Committed an act of deceit, misrepresentation, violation of contract, fraud, negligence, professional incompetence, or unethical practice.

(I) Maximum: Revocation.

(II) Minimum: Ninety days suspension stayed for three years on the following conditions of probation.

—Forty-five days actual suspension.

—The respondent shall obey all laws and regulations related to the practice of environmental health.

(c) Department action to implement denial, suspension, refusal to renew, or revocation of registration under this chapter shall be in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the department shall have all the powers granted by those provisions. In the event of conflict between those provisions of the Government Code and the provisions of this article, the provisions of the Government Code shall prevail.

SEC. 22. Section 531 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

531. The department and the committee may use the following criteria to evaluate the potential for rehabilitation or actual rehabilitation of a person prior to denying, suspending, or revoking registration.

(a) The nature and severity of the act, crime, or violation under consideration as grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation.

(b) The time that has elapsed since commission of the act, crime, or violation.

(c) The extent to which the applicant has complied with any terms of parole, probation, restitution, or other sanctions imposed upon the applicant.

(d) Evidence of rehabilitation or lack of rehabilitation of the applicant.

SEC. 23. Section 532 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

532. The department shall, upon application therefor and upon payment of the current application and biennial renewal fees, as determined by the department upon the recommendation of the committee by a two-thirds vote, not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100), issue a certificate of registration as an environmental health specialist to any person who holds a certificate of registration as a sanitarian or an environmental health specialist issued by the proper authority of any state or territory, or possession of the United States, if the requirements for the registration of sanitarians or environmental health specialists under which the certificate was issued are consistent with the provisions of this article and at the time the certificate was granted were at least as stringent as those specified in Section 520.

SEC. 24. Section 534 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

534. Only a person who has qualified as a registered environmental health specialist and who holds a valid registration certificate issued in conformance with Section 529 for use in this state shall have the right and privilege of using the title "registered environmental health specialist" and to use the abbreviation "R.E.H.S." after the person's name. Only a person who has qualified as a registered environmental health specialist trainee and has a letter of acceptance issued by the department shall have the right and privilege of using the title "registered environmental health specialist trainee."

Except as permitted in Section 514 any use of the words "registered sanitarian" or other use of the words "registered environmental health specialist" to denote a working title is prohibited.

A person who violates any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be fined a sum not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned for not more than 180 days, or both.

CHAPTER 774

An act to amend and repeal Section 8651.8 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8651.8 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

8651.8. (a) Notwithstanding Section 8651, the excise tax imposed upon ethanol or methanol containing not more than 15 percent gasoline or diesel fuels shall be one-half the rate prescribed by Section 8651 for each gallon of fuel used.

(b) All references in this code to Section 8651 shall be deemed, with respect to the rate imposed upon ethanol or methanol, to also refer to this section.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 775

An act to amend Sections 4331, 4333, 4334, 4336, and 4339 of, and to amend the heading of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4330) of Part 2 of Division 4 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to brain-damaged persons.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The heading of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4330) of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 4. COMPREHENSIVE ACT FOR FAMILIES AND CAREGIVERS OF BRAIN-IMPAIRED ADULTS

SEC. 1.5. Section 4331 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4331. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Brain damage," "degenerative brain diseases," and "brain impairment" mean significant destruction of brain tissue with resultant loss of brain function. Examples of causes of the impairments are Alzheimer's disease, stroke, traumatic brain injury, and other impairments described in subdivision (f) of Section 4330.

(b) "Brain-impaired adult" means a person whose brain impairment has occurred after the age of 18.

(c) "Respite care" means substitute care or supervision in support of the caregiver for the purposes of providing relief from the stresses of constant care provision and so as to enable the caregiver to pursue a normal routine and responsibilities. Respite care may be provided in the home or in an out-of-home setting, such as day care centers or short-term placements in inpatient facilities.

(d) "Family member" means any relative or court appointed guardian or conservator who is responsible for the care of a brain-impaired adult.

(e) "Caregiver" means any unpaid family member or individual who assumes responsibility for the care of a brain-impaired adult.

SEC. 2. Section 4333 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4333. The director shall do both of the following:

(a) Contract with a nonprofit community agency meeting the requirements of this chapter to act as the Statewide Resources Consultant, to be selected through a bid procedure.

(b) With the advice of the Statewide Resources Consultant and within four years from the effective date of this chapter, contract with nonprofit community resource agencies, selected in a manner determined by the director, to establish regionally based resource centers in order to ensure the existence of an array of appropriate programs and services for brain-impaired adults. Each resource center shall place a high priority on utilizing community resources in creating opportunities for families to maintain a brain-impaired adult at home when possible and in other community-based alternatives when necessary.

SEC. 3. Section 4334 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4334. The Statewide Resources Consultant shall do all of the following:

(a) Serve as the centralized information and technical assistance clearinghouse for brain-impaired adults, their families, caregivers, service professionals and agencies, and volunteer organizations and shall disseminate information, including, but not limited to, the results of research and activities conducted pursuant to its responsibilities set forth in this chapter as determined by the director.

(b) Work closely and coordinate with organizations serving brain-impaired adults, their families, and caregivers in order to ensure, consistent with requirements for quality of services as may be established by the director, that the greatest number of persons are served and that the optimal number of organizations participate.

(c) Develop and conduct training which is appropriate for a variety of persons, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Families.

(2) Caregivers and service professionals involved with brain-impaired adults.

(3) Advocacy and self-help family and caregiver support organizations.

(4) Educational institutions.

(d) Provide service and program development consultation to resource centers and to identify funding sources which are available.

(e) Assist the appropriate state agencies in identifying and securing increased federal financial participation and third party reimbursement, including, but not limited to, Title XVIII (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1395 et seq.) and Title XIX (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1396 et seq.) of the federal Social Security Act.

(f) Conduct public social policy research based upon the recommendations of the Director of Mental Health.

(g) Assist the director, as the director may require, in conducting directly, or through contract, research in brain damage epidemiology and data collection, and in developing a uniform terminology and nomenclature.

(h) Assist the director in establishing criteria for, and in selecting resource centers and in designing a methodology for, the consistent assessment of resources and needs within the geographic areas to be serviced by the resource centers.

(i) Conduct conferences, as required by the director, for families, caregivers, service providers, advocacy organizations, educational institutions, business associations, community groups, and the general public, in order to enhance the quality and availability of high-quality, low-cost care and treatment of brain-impaired adults.

SEC. 4. Section 4336 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4336. (a) The Statewide Resources Consultant shall submit progress reports on its activities as required by the director. These reports shall include, but not be limited to, a summary and evaluation of the activities of the resource centers. Client, caregiver, service, and cost data shall be provided for each operating resource center.

(b) The department, in consultation with the Statewide Resources Consultant, shall report to the Legislature annually on the effectiveness of the resource centers. The report shall be submitted within six months after the end of each fiscal year. The evaluation shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) The costs and amount of each type of service provided.

(2) An assessment of the nature and extent of the demand for services which provide respite, and an evaluation of their success in meeting this demand.

(3) Recommendations for improving the effectiveness of the program in deterring the institutionalization of brain-impaired adults, allowing caregivers to maintain a normal routine and promoting the continuance of quality care for brain-impaired adults.

(4) Recommendations for ensuring that unmet needs of brain-impaired persons and their families are identified and addressed with appropriate programs and services.

SEC. 5. Section 4339 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4339. The director shall establish criteria for client eligibility, including financial liability, pursuant to Section 4339.5. However, persons eligible for services provided by regional centers or the State Department of Developmental Services are not eligible for services provided under this chapter. Income shall not be the sole basis for client eligibility. The director shall assume responsibility for the coordination of existing funds and services for brain-impaired adults, and for the purchase of respite care services, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 4331 and described in subdivision (b) of Section 4336, with other departments that may serve brain-impaired adults, including the Department of Rehabilitation, the State Department of Health Services, the State Department of Social Services, the State Department of Developmental Services, the Department of Aging, the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, and the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Abuse.

An act to add Section 25250.25 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to used oil.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25250.25 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25250.25. (a) Any person who manufactures containers which are produced specifically for the noncommercial storage or transportation of used oil and which are sold in this state to consumers, shall not sell or transfer any of those containers in this state to any person, unless the container meets all of the following requirements:

(1) The used oil cannot leak or unintentionally be spilled from the container with normal handling.

(2) No part of the container that comes in contact with the used oil can absorb any of the used oil being collected and transported.

(3) The following statement shall be printed on a readily visible part of the container in at least 12-point typeface by the manufacturers of the container:

"Used oil is classified as a hazardous waste under California law. Used oil must be recycled properly. Placing used oil into household garbage or commercial dumpsters or pouring it into sewers or onto the ground is prohibited by law."

(b) Any person who manufactures containers which are produced specifically for the noncommercial drainage of used oil and which are sold in this state to consumers, shall not sell or transfer any of those containers in this state to any person unless the container meets the requirements of paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a).

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

An act to amend Section 11005.3 of the Government Code, relating to public leases.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11005.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11005.3. Any state department, board, or commission may lease any real property for the use of the state agency for storage, warehouse, or office purposes provided the lease term does not exceed three years and the annual rental does not exceed twenty-four thousand dollars ($24,000).

Prior approval to engage in any lease activity shall first be obtained from the Department of General Services and the lease agreement shall be subject to approval by the department.

CHAPTER 778

An act to amend Section 39660.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39660.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

39660.5. (a) In evaluating the level of potential human exposure to toxic air contaminants, the state board shall assess that exposure in indoor environments as well as in ambient air conditions.

(b) The state board shall consult with the State Department of Health Services, pursuant to the program on indoor environmental quality established under Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 426) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1, concerning which potential toxic air contaminants may be found in the indoor environment and on the best methodology for measuring exposure to these contaminants.

(c) When the state board identifies toxic air pollutants that have been found in any indoor environment, the state board shall refer all available data on that exposure and the suspected source of the pollutant to the State Department of Health Services, the Division of Occupational Safety and Health of the Department of Industrial Relations, the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, the Department of Housing and Community Development, and the Department of Consumer Affairs.

(d) In assessing human exposure to toxic air contaminants in indoor environments pursuant to this section, the state board shall identify the relative contribution to total exposure to the contaminant from indoor concentrations, taking into account both ambient and indoor air environments.

CHAPTER 779

An act to add Section 20894.3 to the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20894.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

20894.3. An employee of a contracting agency who is or was absent on military service on the effective date of the contract and who would become or would have become a member if he or she were not so absent becomes or became a member on that effective date, with the same status and rights of membership as if he or she were not or had not been so absent on that effective date. The employee and any other employee of a contracting agency who was absent on military service prior to that effective date shall receive credit as prior service for time during which he or she was absent on military service prior to that effective date provided that employee is entitled to receive prior service credit pursuant to Section 20834, 20834.1, or 20867 and he or she returned to employment of the contracting agency within six months of the termination of his or her active service with the armed forces under conditions other than dishonorable or within six months after any period of rehabilitation afforded by the United States government other than a period of rehabilitation for purely educational purposes.

This section shall not apply to any contracting agency nor to the employees of any contracting agency unless and until the agency elects to be subject to this section by amendment to its contract made in the manner prescribed for the approval of contracts or in the case of contracts made after the effective date of this section, by express provision in the contract making the contracting agency subject to this section.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

An act to amend Section 51760.5 of the Education Code, relating to education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 51760.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

51760.5. Notwithstanding Section 51760, attendance in work experience classes or programs maintained by a regional occupational center or regional occupational program shall not receive apportionments from state funds based on average daily attendance unless such classes or programs are in conformance with standards adopted pursuant to Section 52372.

A student enrolled in a vocational education class using the cooperative vocational education methodology conducted by a regional occupational center or program shall not be credited with more than 15 hours of attendance in any calendar week for purposes of the methodology.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that this act may become effective before the beginning of the 1988–89 school year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 781

An act to amend Sections 1030, 1032, 1256, 3701, and 4701 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1030 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1030. (a) Any employer who is entitled under Section 1327 to receive notice of the filing of a new or additional claim may, within 10 days after mailing of the notice, submit to the department any facts within its possession disclosing whether the claimant left the employer's employ voluntarily and without good cause or was discharged from the employment for misconduct connected with his or her work, or whether the discharge or quit from his or her most recent employer was the result of an irresistible compulsion to use or consume intoxicants including alcoholic beverages, or whether the claimant was a student employed on a temporary basis and whose employment began within, and ended with his or her leaving to return to school at the close of, his or her vacation period, or whether the claimant left the employer's employ to accompany his or her spouse to or join her or him at a place from which it is impractical to commute to the employment, to which a transfer of the claimant by the employer is not available. The period during which the employer may submit these facts may be extended by the director for good cause.

(b) Any base period employer who is not entitled under Section 1327 to receive notice of the filing of a new or additional claim and is entitled under Section 1329 to receive notice of computation may, within 15 days after mailing of the notice of computation, submit to the department any facts within its possession disclosing whether the claimant left the employer's employ voluntarily and without good cause or was discharged from the employment for misconduct connected with his or her work, or whether the claimant was a student employed on a temporary basis and whose employment began within, and ended with his or her leaving to return to school at the close of, his or her vacation period, or whether the claimant left the employer's employ to accompany his or her spouse to or join her or him at a place from which it is impractical to commute to the employment, to which a transfer of the claimant by the employer is not available. The period during which the employer may submit these facts may be extended by the director for good cause.

(c) The department shall consider these facts together with any information in its possession. If the employer is entitled to a ruling under subdivision (b) or to a determination under Section 1328, the department shall promptly notify the employer of its ruling as to the cause of the termination of the claimant's employment. The employer may appeal from a ruling or reconsidered ruling to an administrative law judge within 20 days after mailing or personal service of notice of the ruling or reconsidered ruling. The 20-day period may be extended for good cause, which shall include, but not be limited to, mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect. The director shall be an interested party to any appeal. The department may for good cause reconsider any ruling or reconsidered ruling within either five days after the date an appeal to an administrative law judge is filed or, if no appeal is filed, within 20 days after mailing or personal service of notice of the ruling or reconsidered ruling, except that any ruling or reconsidered ruling which relates to a determination which is reconsidered pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1332 may also be reconsidered by the department within the time provided for reconsideration of that determination.

(d) For purposes of this section only, if the claimant voluntarily leaves the employer's employ without notification to the employer of the reasons therefor, and if the employer submits all of the facts within its possession concerning the leaving within the applicable time period referred to in this section, the leaving shall be presumed to be without good cause.

(e) An individual whose employment is terminated under the compulsory retirement provisions of a collective bargaining agreement to which the employer is a party shall not be deemed to have voluntarily left his or her employment without good cause.

SEC. 2. Section 1032 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1032. If it is ruled under Section 1030 or 1328 that the claimant left the employer's employ voluntarily and without good cause or was discharged by reason of misconduct connected with his or her work, or that he or she was a student employed on a temporary basis and whose employment began within, and ended with his or her leaving to return to school at the close of, his or her vacation period, or that he or she left the employer's employ to accompany his or her spouse to or join her or him at a place from which it is impractical to commute to the employment, to which a transfer of the claimant by the employer is not available, benefits paid to the claimant subsequent to the termination of employment due to the voluntary leaving or discharge, or due to the termination of the temporary employment of a student whose employment began within, and ended with his or her leaving to return to school at the close of, his or her vacation period, or due to the termination of employment caused by the leaving to accompany or join a spouse, or if it is shown the claimant's discharge or quit from his or her most recent employer was the result of an irresistible compulsion to use or consume intoxicants including alcoholic beverages, which are based upon wages earned from the employer prior to the date of the termination of employment, shall not be charged to the account of the employer, except as provided by Section 1026, unless he or she failed to furnish the information specified in Section 1030 within the time limit prescribed in that section or unless such ruling is reversed by a reconsidered ruling.

For purposes of this section and Section 1030 "spouse" includes a person to whom marriage is imminent.

SEC. 3. Section 1256 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1256. An individual is disqualified for unemployment compensation benefits if the director finds that he or she left his or her most recent work voluntarily without good cause or that he or she has been discharged for misconduct connected with his or her most recent work.

An individual is presumed to have been discharged for reasons other than misconduct in connection with his or her work and not to have voluntarily left his or her work without good cause unless his or her employer has given written notice to the contrary to the department as provided in Section 1327, setting forth facts sufficient to overcome the presumption. The presumption provided by this section is rebuttable.

An individual whose employment is terminated under the compulsory retirement provisions of a collective bargaining agreement to which the employer is a party, shall not be deemed to have left his or her work without good cause.

An individual may be deemed to have left his or her most recent work with good cause if he or she leaves employment to accompany his or her spouse to a place from which it is impractical to commute to the employment. For purposes of this section "spouse" includes a person to whom marriage is imminent.

An individual shall be deemed to have left his or her most recent work with good cause if he or she elects to be laid off in place of an employee with less seniority pursuant to a provision in a collective bargaining agreement that provides that an employee with more seniority may elect to be laid off in place of an employee with less seniority when the employer has decided to layoff employees.

SEC. 4. Section 3701 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

3701. (a) Any employer who is entitled under Section 3654 to notice of the filing of a primary claim or additional claim and who, within 10 days after mailing of the notice, submits to the department any facts within its possession disclosing whether the exhaustee left the most recent employment with the employer voluntarily and without good cause or was discharged from the employment for misconduct connected with his or her work, or whether the claimant was a student employed on a temporary basis and whose employment began within, and ended with his or her leaving to return to school at the close of, his or her vacation period, or whether the claimant left the employer's employ to accompany his or her spouse to or join her or him at a place from which it is impractical to commute to the employment, to which a transfer of the claimant by the employer is not available or whether the claimant's discharge or quit from his or her most recent employer was the result of an irresistable compulsion to use or consume intoxicants including alcoholic beverages, shall be entitled to a ruling as prescribed by this section. The period during which the employer may submit these facts may be extended by the director for good cause.

For purposes of this section, "spouse" includes a person to whom marriage is imminent.

(b) The department shall consider these facts together with any information in its possession. If the employer is entitled to a determination pursuant to Section 3655, the department shall promptly notify the employer of its ruling as to the cause of the termination of the exhaustee's most recent employment. The employer may appeal from a ruling or reconsidered ruling to an administrative law judge within 20 days after mailing or personal service of notice of the ruling or reconsidered ruling. The 20-day period may be extended for good cause, which shall include, but not be limited to, mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect. The director shall be an interested party to any appeal. The department may for good cause reconsider any ruling or reconsidered ruling within either five days after the date an appeal to an administrative law judge is filed or, if no appeal is filed, within 20 days after mailing or personal service of notice of the ruling or reconsidered ruling, except that any ruling or reconsidered ruling which related to a determination is reconsidered pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1332 may also be reconsidered by the department within the time provided for reconsideration of that determination.

(c) For purposes of this section only, if the claimant voluntarily leaves the employer's employ without notification to the employer of the reasons therefor, and if the employer submits all of the facts within its possession concerning the leaving within the applicable time period referred to in this section, the leaving shall be presumed to be without good cause.

(d) An individual whose employment is terminated under the compulsory retirement provisions of a collective-bargaining agreement to which the employer is a party shall not be deemed to have voluntarily left his or her employment without good cause.

(e) Rulings under this section shall have the effect prescribed by Section 1032.

SEC. 5. Section 4701 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

4701. (a) Any employer who is entitled under Section 4654 to notice of the filing of an application or additional claim and who, within 10 days after mailing of the notice, submits to the department any facts within its possession disclosing whether the individual left the most recent employment with the employer voluntarily and without good cause or was discharged from the employment for misconduct connected with his or her work, or whether the claimant was a student employed on a temporary basis and whose employment began within, and ended with his or her leaving to return to school at the close of, his or her vacation period, or whether the claimant left the employer's employ to accompany his or her spouse to or join her or him at a place from which it is impractical to commute to the employment, to which a transfer of the claimant by the employer is not available or whether the claimant's discharge or quit from his or her most recent employer was the result of an irresistable compulsion to use or consume intoxicants including alcoholic beverages, shall be entitled to a ruling as prescribed by this section. The period during which the employer may submit these facts may be extended by the director for good cause.

For purposes of this section, "spouse" includes a person to whom marriage is imminent.

(b) The department shall consider the facts together with any information in its possession. If the employer is entitled to a determination pursuant to Section 4655, the department shall promptly issue to the employer its ruling as to the cause of the termination of the individual's most recent employment. The employer may appeal from a ruling or reconsidered ruling to an administrative law judge within 20 days after mailing or personal service of notice of the ruling or reconsidered ruling. The 20-day period may be extended for good cause, which shall include, but not be limited to, mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect. The director shall be an interested party to any appeal. The department may for good cause reconsider any ruling or reconsidered ruling within either five days after the date an appeal to an administrative law judge is filed or, if no appeal is filed, within 20 days after mailing or personal service of notice of the ruling or reconsidered ruling, except that any ruling or reconsidered ruling which relates to a determination which is reconsidered pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1332 may also be reconsidered by the department within the time provided for reconsideration of that determination.

(c) For purposes of this section only, if the claimant voluntarily leaves the employer's employ without notification to the employer of the reasons therefor, and if the employer submits all of the facts within its possession concerning the leaving within the applicable time period referred to in this section, the leaving shall be presumed to be without good cause.

(d) An individual whose employment is terminated under the compulsory retirement provisions of a collective-bargaining agreement to which the employer is a party shall not be deemed to have voluntarily left his or her employment without good cause.

(e) Rulings under this section shall have the effect prescribed by Section 1032.

CHAPTER 782

An act to amend Sections 11271, 11272, 11274, 11275, and 11276 of the Government Code, relating to state government.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11271 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11271. The Department of Finance shall determine and may at any time redetermine which funds, other than the General Fund, and which functions or activities of the Department of Water Resources supported by the General Fund, shall be charged a share of administrative costs as to the function supported by any such fund and the amount which shall be charged against any such fund as its fair share of administrative costs. The costs shall be a charge against any fund or special account in the General Fund so designated by the Department of Finance.

For purposes of this section, a special account or fund in the General Fund shall not be considered the General Fund.

SEC. 2. Section 11272 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11272. In determining or redetermining the fair share, the Department of Finance may consider the factors of cost distribution and cost estimation as it deems necessary, except that, as to the proceeds of those taxes, the use of which is restricted by Article XIX of the California Constitution, the Department of Finance shall assess only those administrative costs ascertained as being necessarily incurred in connection with highway purposes as set forth in the article, and except that, as to funds collected pursuant to Section 221 of the Food and Agricultural Code, the Department of Finance shall assess only those administrative costs incurred in connection with the enforcement of the law under which the funds were derived.

SEC. 3. Section 11274 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11274. The Department of Finance shall certify annually to the Controller the amount determined to be the fair share of administrative costs due and payable from each state agency and shall certify forthwith to the Controller any amount redetermined to be the fair share of administrative costs due and payable from any state agency. The Controller shall forthwith transmit to each state agency from which administrative costs have been determined or redetermined to be due, a statement in writing setting forth the amount of the administrative costs due from the state agency, and stating that, unless a written request to defer payment thereof is filed by the state agency with the Controller within 30 days after the mailing of the statement by the Controller to the state agency, the Controller will transfer the amount of the administrative costs from the special fund or funds chargeable therewith to the General Fund. The Controller shall specify on the statement the special fund appropriations to be charged at the time transfers are made covering the administrative costs.

SEC. 4. Section 11275 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11275. If, upon receipt of the statement provided in Section 11274, the state agency does not have funds available by law for the payment of the administrative costs, or if it has any other reason why the payment of those costs should not be made at the time specified on the statement, the state agency shall, prior to the expiration of the 30-day period referred to in the statement, file with the Controller, in duplicate, a written request to defer payment of those administrative costs, which request shall set forth the reasons why that payment should be deferred. Upon receipt of any request filed because of lack of availability of funds, the Controller shall forthwith transmit one copy of that request to the Department of Finance; and shall defer action to effect the transfer of funds covering the administrative costs referred to in the request until the transfer has been approved by the Director of Finance. The Department of Finance shall notify the Controller of the approval of the deferral request. Upon receipt of any request filed because of any reason other than lack of availability of funds, the Controller shall forthwith transmit one copy of that request to the Board of Control; and shall defer action to effect the transfer of funds until that transfer has been approved by the Board of Control.

SEC. 5. Section 11276 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11276. The Department of Finance may certify at any time during the year to the Controller such amount as it determines, based upon experience of the preceding year, to be a reasonable advance for administrative costs to be made from the appropriation of each state agency supported from a fund, designated in accordance with Section 11271. The Controller shall forthwith transmit to each of these state agencies a statement in writing setting forth the amount of the advance and stating that unless a written request to defer payment thereof because of lack of availability of funds is filed by the state agency with the Department of Finance within 30 days after the mailing of the statement by the Controller to the state agency, the Controller will transfer the amount of the advance from the special fund or funds concerned to the General Fund. The Controller shall specify on the statement the special fund appropriation to be charged.

CHAPTER 783

An act to add Section 14087.54 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14087.54 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14087.54. (a) Any county or counties may establish a special commission in order to meet the problems of the delivery of publicly assisted medical care in the county or counties and to demonstrate ways of promoting quality care and cost efficiency.

(b) A county board of supervisors may, by ordinance, establish a commission to negotiate the exclusive contract specified in Section 14087.5 and to arrange for the provision of health care services provided pursuant to this chapter. The boards of supervisors of more than one county may also establish a single commission with the authority to negotiate an exclusive contract and to arrange for the provision of services in those counties. If a board of supervisors elects to enact this ordinance, all rights, powers, duties, privileges, and immunities vested in a county by this article shall be vested in the county commission. Any reference in this article to "county" shall mean a commission established pursuant to this section.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that if a county forms a commission pursuant to this section, the county shall, with respect to its medical facilities and programs occupy no greater or lesser status than any other health care provider in negotiating with the commission for contracts to provide health care services.

(d) The enabling ordinance shall specify the membership of the county commission, the qualifications for individual members, the manner of appointment, selection, or removal of commissioners, and how long they shall serve, and any other matters as a board of supervisors deems necessary or convenient for the conduct of the county commission's activities. A commission so established shall be considered an entity separate from the county or counties, shall file the statement required by Section 53051 of the Government Code, and shall have in addition to the rights, powers, duties, privileges, and immunities previously conferred, the power to acquire, possess, and dispose of real or personal property, as may be necessary for the performance of its functions, to employ personnel and contract for services required to meet its obligations, and to sue or be sued. Any obligations of a commission, statutory, contractual, or otherwise, shall be the obligations solely of the commission and shall not be the obligations of the county or of the state.

(e) Upon creation, a commission may borrow from the county or counties, and the county or counties may lend the commission funds, or issue revenue anticipation notes to obtain those funds necessary to commence operations.

(f) In the event a commission may no longer function for the purposes for which it was established, at such time as the commission's then existing obligations have been satisfied or the commission's assets have been exhausted, the board or boards of supervisors may by ordinance terminate the commission.

(g) Prior to the termination of a commission, the board or boards of supervisors shall notify the State Department of Health Services of its intent to terminate the commission. The department shall conduct an audit of the commission's records within 30 days of the notification to determine the liabilities and assets of the commission. The department shall report its findings to the board or boards within 10 days of completion of the audit. The board or boards shall present a plan to resolve all liabilities of the commission to the department within 30 days upon receipt of these findings.

(h) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, upon termination of a commission by the board or boards, the county or counties shall be responsible for any liabilities of the commission until superseded by a department approved plan.

(i) Any assets of a commission shall be disposed of pursuant to provisions contained in the contract entered into between the state and the commission pursuant to this article.

CHAPTER 784

An act to add Section 323 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to the Public Utilities Commission, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 323 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

323. (a) Commencing January 1, 1989, the commission shall cause the complete text of each of its orders and decisions to be published within a reasonable time, not to exceed one year after issuance. The commission shall, on or before January 1, 1990, publish every decision or order issued, but not published, as of January 1, 1989.

(b) With respect to the order or decision in any proceeding not assigned to an administrative law judge pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 311, the commission may comply with subdivision (a) by publishing the docket number or other identifying number used in its recordkeeping system, the name of the case, the parties to the case, and the ordering language in the case.

(c) If the commission participates in or uses an electronic means of publication of its orders and decisions, the commission shall assure reasonable public access to that system upon the payment of reasonable fees or charges.

SEC. 2. The sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) is hereby appropriated to the Public Utilities Commission to assist the commission in publishing the orders and decisions of the commission, pursuant to the following schedule:

(a) From the Public Utilities Commission Utilities Reimbursement Account in the General Fund, seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

(b) From the Public Utilities Commission Transportation Reimbursement Account in the General Fund, seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

The Public Utilities Commission has been unable to publish its orders and decisions since 1983, with the result that these recent orders and decisions are not readily available to the public and to those who need to research applicable law and relevant precedent. In order for this situation to be corrected as quickly as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 785

An act relating to Medi-Cal, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislative Analyst shall review the discrepancies between Medi-Cal reimbursement rates and payment policies for emergency physician services and nonemergency physician services and report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1989. The report shall include discussion as to whether these discrepancies are warranted, including consideration of physician overhead costs.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide a timely determination of the adequacy of reimbursement for emergency service, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 786

An act to amend Section 1276.2 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1276.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1276.2. Standards and regulations adopted by the State Department of Health Services pursuant to Section 1276 shall not require the use of a registered nurse for the performance of any service or staffing of any position in freestanding skilled nursing or intermediate care facilities which may lawfully be performed or staffed by a licensed vocational nurse pursuant to the Vocational Nursing Practice Act (Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 2840) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code) and applicable federal regulations, when a facility is unable to obtain a registered nurse, except that a licensed vocational nurse employed in accordance with this section shall be a permanent employee of the facility. The facility shall make provision for a registered nurse to be available for consultation and professional assistance during the hours in which a licensed vocational nurse is used as provided by this section. Nothing in this section shall permit a licensed vocational nurse to act as director of nurses or expand the scope of practice of licensed vocational nurses pursuant to the Vocational Nursing Practice Act. The above provisions apply to staffing for the night and p.m. shifts only, except that if the level of care is determined by the department to be inadequate, the department may require the facility to provide additional staffing.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered on or before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 787

An act to add Section 587.1 to the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 587.1 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

587.1. (a) Every person who maliciously moves or causes to be moved, without authorization, any locomotive, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year.

(b) Every person who maliciously moves or causes to be moved, without authorization, any locomotive, when the moving creates a substantial likelihood of causing personal injury or death to another, is guilty of a public offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or in the county jail not exceeding one year.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

An act to add Sections 19581.5 and 19582.5 to the Government Code, relating to state employees.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19581.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

19581.5. Prior to the scheduling of a contested adverse action or rejection on probation for hearing, the board may require or any party may request a prehearing or settlement conference. The administrative law judge presiding over the settlement conference shall not preside over any subsequent hearing on the contested adverse action or rejection on probation unless agreed to by both parties.

SEC. 2. Section 19582.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

19582.5. The board may designate certain of its decisions as precedents. Precedential decisions shall not be subject to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3. The board may provide by rule for the reconsideration of a previously issued decision to determine whether or not it shall be designated as a precedent decision. All decisions designated as precedents shall be published in a manner determined by the board.

CHAPTER 789

An act to add and repeal Section 904.4 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to civil procedure.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 904.4 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

904.4. (a) An appeal may be taken from a superior court judgment, except (1) an interlocutory judgment, other than as provided in subdivisions (h) and (i) of Section 904.1, (2) a judgment of contempt which is made final and conclusive by Section 1222, (3) a judgment on appeal from a municipal court or a justice court or a small claims court, (4) a judgment granting or denying a petition for issuance of a writ of mandamus or prohibition directed to a municipal court or a justice court or the judge or judges thereof which relates to a matter pending in the municipal or justice court, or (5) any order for monetary sanctions, in an amount not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), imposed by a court under Sections 128.5 and 2023. However, an appellate court may, in its discretion, review a judgment granting or denying a petition for issuance of a writ of mandamus or prohibition upon petition for an extraordinary writ.

(b) An appeal may be taken from a municipal or justice court judgment, except (1) an interlocutory judgment, (2) a judgment of contempt which is made final and conclusive by Section 1222, or (3) any order for monetary sanctions, in an amount not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), imposed by a court under Sections 128.5 and 2023.

(c) This section shall apply only in San Diego County. The Legislature finds and declares that, in order to assess the impact of this section on a limited basis before making it applicable on a statewide basis, it is necessary for this section to be applicable for a limited period of time in this county.

(d) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1990, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1990, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 790

An act to add and repeal Sections 17204.5 and 17206.5 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to unfair competition.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17204.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

17204.5. In addition to the persons authorized to bring an action pursuant to Section 17204, the City Attorney of the City of San Jose, with the annual consent of the Santa Clara County District Attorney, is authorized to prosecute those actions.

This section shall remain in effect until such time as the population of the City of San Jose exceeds 750,000, as determined by the Population Research Unit of the Department of Finance, and at that time shall be repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 17206.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

17206.5. In addition to the persons authorized to bring an action pursuant to Section 17206, the City Attorney of the City of San Jose, with the annual consent of the Santa Clara County District Attorney, is authorized to prosecute those actions.

This section shall remain in effect until such time as the population of the City of San Jose exceeds 750,000, as determined by the Population Research Unit of the Department of Finance, and at that time shall be repealed.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds that there are unique circumstances that warrant permitting the City Attorney of San Jose to bring actions based upon a violation of laws relating to unfair competition, with the annual concurrence of the district attorney, as permitted by this act. Although the City of San Jose does not yet have a population of 750,000 and, accordingly, cannot bring those actions under existing law, because the size of the city is close to that population requirement, and because the office of the City Attorney of San Jose has demonstrated its competence, the enforcement of the laws relating to unfair competition will be enhanced by this act.

An act to amend Section 1628 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to blood.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1628 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1628. (a) No person shall prohibit any individual from doing either of the following:

(1) Making blood donations to be used directly for blood transfusions for an individual designated by the donor when blood is prescribed by a physician and surgeon.

(2) Directing that blood donated by the individual pursuant to paragraph (1) be used in any blood transfusion to the individual designated pursuant to paragraph (1) if that blood type is compatible with that individual's blood type and use of that blood, or the drawing of the blood, is not contraindicated, as determined by a physician and surgeon and the donation was specifically requested by the designee, or in the event that the designee is medically or legally incapable of making the request, by the designee's next of kin, legal guardian, or legal representative.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not exempt any person from complying with all requirements of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1600) of Division 2.

(c) Donations pursuant to this section shall be made through a licensed blood bank during the bank's normal working hours.

(d) Blood donated under this section may be used for individuals other than the individual for whom the blood was designated pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) either: (1) when it is determined by that individual's prescribing physician and surgeon, in conjunction with the blood bank, that there is a more immediate need, or, (2) with the donor's consent. The donor may not, however, redesignate the use of his or her blood but may only release it to a licensed blood bank or transfusion service.

When blood is released for use by someone other than the designee under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), only the special costs provided for in subdivision (e) shall be charged to the original designee under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), except that for any unit of blood released at the request of a blood collection center prior to the time the blood is needed by the designee in which case the transfusion service shall bear these costs.

(e) When a blood bank collects a donor unit of blood or blood product whose use is designated by the donor, any additional costs, limited to the actual technical and administrative costs of drawing, storing, and designating the blood, shall be charged to the designee. Charges assessed under this subdivision shall not exceed those charges levied by the blood bank for the costs of drawing, storing, and designating autologous blood or blood products.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 792

An act to add Section 22230.1 to the Education Code, relating to the State Teachers' Retirement System, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22230.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

22230.1. The board shall, commencing on July 1, 1989, send a copy of the benefit payment information to any retirant, disabilitant, or beneficiary who has payments transmitted directly to a financial institution pursuant to Section 22230.

SEC. 2. There is hereby appropriated from the Teachers'

Retirement Fund to the State Teachers' Retirement System the sum of one hundred thirty-four thousand two hundred thirty-eight dollars ($134,238) for expenditure for the implementation of Section 22230.1 of the Education Code.

CHAPTER 793

An act to amend Section 1797.1 of, and to add Section 1797.7 to, the Civil Code, and to amend Sections 18045.5 and 18045.6 of, and to add Section 18021.7 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to mobilehomes, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1797.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1797.1. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Dealer" means any person who is a dealer within the meaning of Section 18002.6 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) "Mobilehome" and "manufactured home" have the meanings, respectively, defined in Sections 18007 and 18008 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) "Substantial defects in materials and workmanship" means defects objectively manifested by broken, ripped, cracked, stained, or missing parts or components, or workmanship resulting in improper function of materials, components, appliances, or systems as installed or manufactured by the dealer or manufacturer.

SEC. 2. Section 1797.7 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1797.7. The manufacturer and dealer shall complete warranty service to correct all substantial defects within 90 days of receiving the buyer's written notice specified in subdivision (b) of Section 1797.3, unless there are circumstances which are beyond the control of the dealer or manufacturer.

SEC. 3. Section 18021.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

18021.7. (a) In addition to other remedies provided in this part, the Director of Housing and Community Development or his or her designee may issue a citation which assesses a civil penalty payable to the department to any licensee violating Section 18035, 18035.1, 18035.2, or 18035.3 or subdivision (d) of Section 18060 or subdivision (j) of Section 18061.5. Each citation and related civil penalty assessment shall be issued no later than six months after discovery of the violation.

(b) The amount of any civil penalty assessed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation, but shall be increased to two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each subsequent violation of the same prohibition for which a citation for the subsequent violation is issued within one year of the citation for the previous violation. The violation or violations giving cause for the citation shall be corrected if applicable, and payment of the civil penalty shall be remitted to the department within 45 days of the date of issuance of the citation. Civil penalties received by the department pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Mobilehome-Manufactured Home Revolving Fund.

(c) Any person or entity served a citation pursuant to this section may petition for, and shall be granted, an informal hearing before the director or his or her designee. The petition shall be a written request briefly stating the grounds for the request. Any petition, to be considered, shall be received by the department within 30 days of the date of issuance of the citation.

(d) Upon receipt of a timely and complying petition, the department shall suspend enforcement of the citation and set a time and place for the informal hearing and shall give the licensee written notice thereof. The hearing shall commence no later than 30 days following receipt of the petition or at another time scheduled by the department pursuant to a request by the licensee or department if good and sufficient cause exists. If the licensee fails to appear at the time and place scheduled for the hearing, the department may notify the licensee in writing that the petition is dismissed and that compliance with terms of the citation shall occur within 10 days after receipt of the notification.

(e) The department shall notify the petitioner in writing of its decision and the reasons therefor within 30 days following conclusion of the informal hearing held pursuant to this section. If the decision upholds the citation, in whole or in part, the licensee shall comply with the citation in accordance with the decision within 30 days after the decision is mailed by the department.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude remedies available under other provisions of law.

SEC. 4. Section 18045.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18045.5. (a) The department shall not issue a manufacturer, distributor, or dealer license to any applicant therefor who does not have an established place of business.

(b) The established place of business shall have an office and, in the case of a manufacturer, shall have a manufacturing area defined by department regulations situated on the same property. When a room or rooms in a hotel, roominghouse, apartment house building, or a part of any single-unit or multiple-unit dwelling house is used as an office or offices of an established place of business, the room or rooms shall be devoted exclusively to, and occupied for, the office or offices of the licensee, shall be located on the ground floor, and shall provide a direct entrance into the room or rooms from the exterior of the building.

(c) The established place of business shall be open for inspection of the premises, pertinent records, and manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or commercial coaches by any department representative during business hours.

SEC. 5. Section 18045.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18045.6. (a) (1) If the manufacturer, distributor, or dealer changes the site or location of his or her established place of business, the manufacturer, distributor, or dealer shall immediately, upon making the change, so notify the department. If a manufacturer, distributor, or dealer for any reason whatsoever, ceases to be in possession of an established place of business from and on which he or she conducts the business for which the manufacturer, distributor, or dealer is licensed, he or she shall immediately notify the department and, upon demand by the department, shall deliver to the department the manufacturer's, distributor's, or dealer's license and all relevant records in his or her possession.

(2) The department may place a manufacturer, distributor, or dealer license on an inactive status upon application of the licensee. An inactive license shall remain valid for six months or for the remaining term of the original license, whichever is less.

(b) If the dealer changes to, or adds, another franchise for the sale of new manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or commercial coaches, or cancels, or, for any cause whatever, otherwise loses a franchise for the sale of new manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or commercial coaches, he or she shall immediately so notify the department.

(c) A dealer's established place of business shall have posted in a place conspicuous to the public the license issued by the department to the dealer and to each salesperson employed by the dealer.

(d) (1) Notwithstanding Section 18050 and this section, a dealer may display manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or commercial coaches at a fair, exposition, or similar exhibit for no more than 30 days. As used in this section, "mobilehome fair or exposition" means a display of manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or commercial coaches not limited to one dealer and not in a mobilehome park.

(2) New manufactured homes or mobilehomes, installed pursuant to Section 18613, may also be displayed and sold within a mobilehome park or mobilehome subdivision by dealers. A display home may be used and equipped only for the sale of the displayed home and shall not be used as an established place of business, unless licensed as an established place of business.

(e) All manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or commercial coaches displayed pursuant to subdivision (d) shall be identified by a sign or device providing information relating to the dealer's name and the location and address of the dealer's established place of business and any other information that is required by the department.

(f) The requirements for an office specified in subdivision (b) of Section 18045.5 shall not apply to a display location authorized by subdivision (d), unless licensed as an established place of business.

CHAPTER 794

An act to add Section 460.5 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to carriers.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 460.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

460.5. (a) The commission shall prohibit any passenger stage corporation from charging any fare to, or imposing any other charge on, any physically disabled or handicapped passenger which is more than the fare or charge imposed on a passenger who is not physically disabled or handicapped for the same transportation or service, and shall approve no schedule of fares or charges which is discriminatory under this section.

(b) Any special provision made by a passenger stage corporation for assisting a physically disabled or handicapped person in using its transportation service is, for purposes of subdivision (a), a part of the same transportation or service offered to passengers who are not physically disabled or handicapped, and is not a separate service for which an additional charge may be made. Nothing in this section, however, requires a passenger stage corporation to furnish any equipment or assistance for a physically disabled or handicapped person different from or in addition to that which may be required under any other law.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 795

An act to amend Section 1804 of, and to repeal Section 1804 of, the Vehicle Code, relating to driving offenses.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1804 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1345 of the Statutes of 1985, is amended to read:

1804. (a) The abstract shall be made upon a form furnished or approved by the department and shall contain all necessary information to identify the defendant, the date and nature of the offense, the license plate number of the vehicle involved in the offense, whether the license is commercial or noncommercial, whether the vehicle was transporting a load required to be transported by a driver certified pursuant to Section 12804.1, whether the operator of the vehicle is required to be certified pursuant to Section 12804.3, the date of hearing, and the judgment.

(b) As to any abstract for which the original arrest and final conviction was for a violation of Section 23101 or 23102, as those sections read before January 1, 1982, or Section 23152 or 23153, the abstract shall contain a statement indicating the percentage of alcohol, by weight, in the person's blood whenever that percentage was determined by a chemical test. The information regarding the chemical test shall be compiled if it is available to the clerk of the court. All information required to be compiled pursuant to this subdivision shall be kept confidential in the records of the department pursuant to Section 1808.5. The department may use the information for research and statistical purposes and for determining the eligibility of any person to operate a motor vehicle on the highways of this state. The information shall not be released to any other public or private agency, except for research and statistical summary purposes and, for those purposes, the name and address of the person and any other identifying information shall not be disclosed.

(c) The Legislature finds and declares that blood-alcohol percentages have valuable research potential in providing statistical summary information on impaired drivers but that a specific blood-alcohol percentage is only an item of evidence for purposes of criminal and licensing sanctions imposed by law. The Legislature recognizes that the accuracy of the determination of a specific blood-alcohol percentage is not the critical determination in a conviction for driving under the influence of an alcoholic beverage if the blood-alcohol percentage exceeds the statutory amount.

SEC. 2. Section 1804 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1345 of the Statutes of 1985, is amended to read:

1804. (a) The abstract shall be made upon a form furnished or approved by the department and shall contain all necessary information to identify the defendant, the date and nature of the offense, the license plate number of the vehicle involved in the offense, whether the vehicle was transporting a load required to be transported by a driver certified pursuant to Section 12804.1, whether the operator of the vehicle is required to be certified pursuant to Section 12804.3, the date of hearing, and the judgment. The abstract shall also indicate whether the vehicle involved in the offense is a commercial motor vehicle, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 15210.

(b) As to any abstract for which the original arrest and final conviction was for a violation of Section 23101 or 23102, as those sections read before January 1, 1982, or Section 23152 or 23153, the abstract shall contain a statement indicating the percentage of alcohol, by weight, in the person's blood whenever that percentage was determined by a chemical test. The information regarding the chemical test shall be compiled if it is available to the clerk of the court. All information required to be compiled pursuant to this subdivision shall be kept confidential in the records of the department pursuant to Section 1808.5. The department may use the information for research and statistical purposes and for determining the eligibility of any person to operate a motor vehicle on the highways of this state. The information shall not be released to any other public or private agency, except for research and statistical summary purposes and, for those purposes, the name and address of the person and any other identifying information shall not be disclosed.

(c) The Legislature finds and declares that blood-alcohol percentages have valuable research potential in providing statistical summary information on impaired drivers but that a specific blood-alcohol percentage is only an item of evidence for purposes of criminal and licensing sanctions imposed by law. The Legislature recognizes that the accuracy of the determination of a specific blood-alcohol percentage is not the critical determination in a conviction for driving under the influence of an alcoholic beverage if the blood-alcohol percentage exceeds the statutory amount.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1804 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1345 of the Statutes of 1985, proposed by both this bill and SB 2594. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 1804 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1345 of the Statutes of 1985, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 2594, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

An act to amend Sections 1522, 1569.17, and 1596.871 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to care facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1522 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1522. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to require the fingerprints of those individuals whose contact with community care clients may pose a risk to the clients' health and safety.

(a) Before issuing a license or special permit to any person or persons to operate or manage a community care facility, the state department shall secure from an appropriate law enforcement agency a criminal record to determine whether the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation. No fee shall be charged by the Department of Justice or the state department for the fingerprinting of an applicant for a license or special permit to operate a facility providing nonmedical board, room, and care for six or less children or for obtaining a criminal record of the applicant pursuant to this section. If it is found that the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has been convicted of a crime, other than a minor traffic violation, the application shall be denied, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (e).

(b) In addition to the applicant, this section shall be applicable to criminal convictions of the following persons:

(1) Adults responsible for administration or direct supervision of staff.

(2) Any person, other than a client, residing in the facility.

(3) Any person who provides client assistance in dressing, grooming, bathing, or personal hygiene.

(4) Any staff person or employee who has frequent and routine contact with the clients. In determining who has frequent contact, any volunteer who is in the facility shall be exempt unless the volunteer is used to replace or supplement staff in providing direct care and supervision of clients. In determining who has routine contact, staff and employees under direct onsite supervision and who are not providing direct care and supervision or who have only occasional or intermittent contact with clients shall be exempt.

(5) Except for staff members of social rehabilitation facilities serving minors with alcohol or drug abuse problems, staff members of social rehabilitation facilities, other than those specified in paragraphs (1) and (2), are exempt from fingerprinting requirements.

(6) If the applicant is a firm, partnership, association, or corporation, the chief executive officer or other person serving in like capacity.

(7) Additional officers of the governing body of the applicant, or other persons with a financial interest in the applicant, as determined necessary by the department by regulation. The criteria used in the development of these regulations shall be based on the person's capability to exercise substantial influence over the operation of the facility.

(c) Subsequent to initial licensure, any person specified in subdivision (b) and not exempted from fingerprinting shall, as a condition to employment, residence, or presence in a community care facility, be fingerprinted and sign a declaration under penalty of perjury regarding any prior criminal convictions. The licensee shall submit these fingerprints to the licensing agency not later than four calendar days following employment, residence, or initial presence in the community care facility. These fingerprints may be on a card provided by the State Department of Social Services or by a local law enforcement office for the purpose of obtaining a permanent set of fingerprints. Upon request of the licensee, who shall enclose a self-addressed stamped postcard for this purpose, the department shall verify receipt of the fingerprints.

Within 10 working days of the receipt of these fingerprints, the State Department of Social Services shall submit them to the Department of Justice. If new fingerprints are required for processing, the department shall notify the licensee within five working days of receipt of the fingerprints. If the department has not received the information required by this section within 45 calendar days, it shall request a status report on the fingerprint clearance from the Department of Justice.

Within five working days of the receipt of the criminal record or information regarding criminal convictions from the Department of Justice, the department shall notify the licensee of the criminal convictions, as provided in this subdivision. If no convictions are recorded, the department shall provide the licensee with a statement of the fact that there are no convictions within 10 working days of receipt of this information from the Department of Justice. If new fingerprints are required for processing, the State Department of Social Services shall notify the licensee within five working days from the date of notification by the Department of Justice that the fingerprints were illegible. Except for persons specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the licensee shall endeavor to ascertain the previous employment history of persons required to be fingerprinted under this subdivision. If it is determined by the State Department of Social Services, on the basis of the fingerprints submitted to the Department of Justice, that the person has been convicted of a sex offense against a minor, or has been convicted for an offense specified in Section 243.4, 273a, 273d, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or has been convicted of a felony, the State Department of Social Services shall notify the licensee to act immediately to terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the community care facility, or bar the person from entering the community care facility. The State Department of Social Services may subsequently grant an exemption pursuant to subdivision (e). If the conviction was for another crime, except a minor traffic violation, the licensee shall, upon notification by the State Department of Social Services, act immediately to either (1) terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the community care facility, or bar the person from entering the community care facility; or (2) seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (e). The State Department of Social Services shall determine if the person shall be allowed to remain in the facility until a decision on the exemption is rendered.

(d) For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, a conviction means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. Any action which the state department is permitted to take following the establishment of a conviction may be taken when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, notwithstanding a subsequent order pursuant to the provisions of Sections 1203.4 and 1203.4a of the Penal Code permitting the person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the record of a conviction, or a copy thereof certified by the clerk of the court or by a judge of the court in which the conviction occurred, shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction.

(e) After review of the record, the director may grant an exemption from disqualification for a license or special permit pursuant to subdivision (a), or for employment, residence, or presence in a community care facility as specified in subdivision (c) if the director has substantial and convincing evidence to support a reasonable belief that the applicant and the person convicted of the crime, if other than the applicant, are of such good character as to justify issuance of the license or special permit or granting an exemption for purposes of subdivision (c). Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, no exemption shall be granted pursuant to this subdivision if the conviction was for an offense specified in Section 220, 243.4, or 264.1, or paragraph (1) of Section 273a, Sections 273d, 288, 289, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or was a conviction of another crime against an individual specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code. The director may grant an exemption if the employee or prospective employee, who was convicted of a crime against an individual in paragraph (1), (2), (7), or (8) of subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code, has been rehabilitated as provided in Section 4852.03 of the Penal Code and has maintained the conduct required in Section 4852.05 of the Penal Code for at least 10 years and has the recommendation of the district attorney representing the employee's county of residence, or if the employee or prospective employee has received a certificate of rehabilitation pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 4852.01) of Title 6 of Part 3 of the Penal Code.

(f) For purposes of compliance with this section, the department may permit an individual to transfer a current criminal records clearance, as defined in subdivision (a), from one facility to another, as long as the criminal record clearance has been processed through a state licensing district office, and is being transferred to another state licensing district office.

SEC. 2. Section 1569.17 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1569.17. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to require the fingerprints of those individuals whose contact with clients of residential care facilities for the elderly may pose a risk to the clients' health and safety.

(a) Before issuing a license to any person or persons to operate or manage a residential care facility for the elderly, the department shall secure from an appropriate law enforcement agency a criminal record to determine whether the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation. If it is found that the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has been convicted of a crime, other than a minor traffic violation, the application shall be denied, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (e).

(b) In addition to the applicant, the provisions of this section shall be applicable to criminal convictions of the following persons:

(1) Adults responsible for administration or direct supervision of staff.

(2) Any person, other than a client, residing in the facility.

(3) Any person who provides client assistance in dressing, grooming, bathing, or personal hygiene.

(4) Any staff person or employee who has frequent and routine contact with the clients. In determining who has frequent contact, any volunteer who is in the facility shall be exempt unless the volunteer is used to replace or supplement staff in providing direct care and supervision of clients. In determining who has routine contact, staff and employees under direct onsite supervision and who are not providing direct care and supervision or who have only occasional or intermittent contact with clients shall be exempt.

(5) If the applicant is a firm, partnership, association, or corporation, the chief executive officer or other person serving in like capacity.

(6) Additional officers of the governing body of the applicant, or other persons with a financial interest in the applicant, as determined necessary by the department by regulation. The criteria used in the development of these regulations shall be based on the person's capability to exercise substantial influence over the operation of the facility.

(c) Subsequent to initial licensure, any person specified in subdivision (b) and not exempted from fingerprinting shall, as a condition to employment, residence, or presence in a residential facility for the elderly, be fingerprinted and sign a declaration under penalty of perjury regarding any prior criminal convictions. The licensee shall submit these fingerprints to the licensing agency not later than 20 days following employment, residence, or initial presence in the residential care facility for the elderly. Except for persons specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the licensee shall endeavor to ascertain the previous employment history of persons required to be fingerprinted under this subdivision. If it is determined by the State Department of Social Services, on the basis of the fingerprints submitted to the Department of Justice, that the person has been convicted of a sex offense against a minor, or has been convicted for an offense specified in Section 243.4, 273a, 273d, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or has been convicted of a felony, the State Department of Social Services shall notify the licensee to act immediately to terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the residential care facility for the elderly, or bar the person from entering the residential care facility for the elderly. The State Department of Social Services may subsequently grant an exemption pursuant to subdivision (e). If the conviction was for another crime, except a minor traffic violation, the licensee shall, upon notification by the State Department of Social Services, act immediately to either (1) terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the residential care facility for the elderly, or bar the person from entering the residential care facility for the elderly; or (2) seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (e). The department shall determine if the person shall be allowed to remain in the facility until a decision on the exemption is rendered.

conviction, or a copy thereof certified by the clerk of the court or by a judge of the court in which the conviction occurred, shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction.

(e) After review of the record, the director may grant an exemption from disqualification for a license pursuant to subdivision (a), or for employment, residence, or presence in a residential care facility for the elderly as specified in subdivision (c) if the director has substantial and convincing evidence to support a reasonable belief that the applicant and the person convicted of the crime, if other than the applicant, are of such good character as to justify issuance of the license or special permit or granting an exemption for purposes of subdivision (c). However, no exemption shall be granted pursuant to this subdivision if the conviction was for an offense specified in Section 220, 243.4 264.1, or paragraph (1) of Section 273a or Section 273d, or Section 288 or 289, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or was a conviction of another crime against an individual specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code.

(f) For purposes of compliance with this section, the department may permit an individual to transfer a current criminal records clearance, as defined in subdivision (a), from one facility to another, as long as the criminal record clearance has been processed through a state licensing district office, and is being transferred to another state licensing district office.

SEC. 3. Section 1596.871 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1596.871. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to require the fingerprints of those individuals whose contact with child day care facility clients may pose a risk to the children's health and safety.

(a) Before issuing a license or special permit to any person to operate or manage a day care facility, the department shall secure from an appropriate law enforcement agency a criminal record to determine whether the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation. No fee shall be charged by the Department of Justice or the department for the fingerprinting of an applicant who will serve six or fewer children or any family day care applicant for a license, or for obtaining a criminal record of such an applicant pursuant to this section. If it is found that the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has been convicted of a crime, other than a minor traffic violation, the application shall be denied, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (e).

(b) In addition to the applicant, this section shall be applicable to criminal convictions of the following persons:

(1) Adults responsible for administration or direct supervision of staff.

(2) Any person, other than a child, residing in the facility.

(3) Any person who provides care and supervision to the children.

(4) Any staff person or employee who has frequent and routine contact with the children. In determining who has frequent contact, any volunteer who is in the facility shall be exempt unless the volunteer is used to replace or supplement staff in providing direct care and supervision of children in care. In determining who has routine contact, staff and employees under direct onsite supervision and who are not providing direct care and supervision or who have only occasional or intermittent contact with clients shall be exempt.

(5) If the applicant is a firm, partnership, association, or corporation, the chief executive officer, other person serving in like capacity, or a person designated by the chief executive officer as responsible for the operation of the facility.

(6) Additional officers of the governing body of the applicant, or other persons with a financial interest in the applicant, as determined necessary by the department by regulation. The criteria used in the development of these regulations shall be based on the person's capability to exercise substantial influence over the operation of the facility.

(7) This section does not apply to adult volunteers or adult staff employed by the applicant on an intermittent basis for less than 10 days per month, provided that these adults are under constant supervision by adults who meet the requirements of this section.

(8) This section does not apply to employees of child care and development programs under contract with the State Department of Education who have completed a criminal records clearance as part of an application to the Commission on Teacher Credentialing, and who possess a current credential or permit issued by the commission. The Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall notify the department upon revocation of a current credential or permit issued to an employee of a child care and development program under contract with the State Department of Education.

(c) Subsequent to initial licensure, any person specified in subdivision (b) and not exempted from fingerprinting shall, as a condition to employment, residence, or presence in a child day care facility be fingerprinted and sign a declaration under penalty of perjury regarding any prior criminal conviction. The licensee shall submit these fingerprints to the licensing agency not later than four calendar days following employment, residence, or initial presence in the child day care facility.

Within 10 working days of the receipt of these fingerprints, the State Department of Social Services shall submit them to the Department of Justice. If new fingerprints are required for processing, the department shall notify the licensee within five working days of receipt of the fingerprints. If the department has not received the information required by this section within 45 calendar days, it shall request a status report on the fingerprint clearance from the Department of Justice. Within five working days of the receipt of the criminal record or information regarding criminal convictions from the Department of Justice, the department shall notify the licensee of the criminal convictions, as provided in this subdivision. If no convictions are recorded, the department shall provide the licensee with a statement of the fact that there are no convictions within 10 working days of receipt of this information from the Department of Justice. If new fingerprints are required for processing, the State Department of Social Services shall notify the licensee within five working days from the date of notification by the Department of Justice that the fingerprints were illegible.

Except for persons specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the licensee shall endeavor to ascertain the previous employment history of persons required to be fingerprinted under this subdivision. If it is determined by the department, on the basis of fingerprints submitted to the Department of Justice, that the person has been convicted of a sex offense against a minor, or has been convicted of an offense specified in Section 243.4, 273a, 273d, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or has been convicted of a felony, the State Department of Social Services shall notify the licensee to act immediately to terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the child day care facility, or bar the person from entering the child day care facility. The department may subsequently grant an exemption pursuant to subdivision (e). If the conviction was for another crime except a minor traffic violation, the licensee shall, upon notification by the State Department of Social Services, act immediately to either (1) terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the child day care facility, or bar the person from entering the child day care facility; or (2) seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (e). The department shall determine if the person shall be allowed to remain in the facility until a decision on the exemption is rendered.

(d) For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, a conviction means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. Any action which the department is permitted to take following the establishment of a conviction may be taken when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, notwithstanding a subsequent order pursuant to Sections 1203.4 and 1203.4a of the Penal Code permitting the person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the record of a conviction, or a copy thereof certified by the clerk of the court or by a judge of the court in which the conviction occurred, shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction.

the director has substantial and convincing evidence to support a reasonable belief that the applicant and the person convicted of the crime, if other than the applicant, are of such good character as to justify issuance of the license or special permit or granting an exemption for purposes of subdivision (c). However, no exemption shall be granted pursuant to this subdivision if the conviction was for an offense specified in Section 220, 243.4, or 264.1, or paragraph (1) of Section 273a or 273d, or Section 288, 289, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or was a conviction of another crime against an individual specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code.

(f) Upon request of the licensee, who shall enclose a self-addressed stamped postcard for this purpose, the department shall verify receipt of the fingerprints.

(g) For the purposes of compliance with this section, the department may permit an individual to transfer a current criminal records clearance, as defined in subdivision (a), from one facility to another, as long as the criminal record clearance has been processed through a state licensing district office, and is being transferred to another state licensing district office.

CHAPTER 797

An act to add Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 1965) to Title 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, and to amend Section 1174 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to tenancies.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that significant but unnecessary friction occurs between landlords and tenants at the termination of a tenancy when each cannot agree upon reasonable procedures for the return of personal property left by a tenant. This disagreement inconveniences the tenant, who needs his or her personal property, and inconveniences the landlord, who is responsible for preserving the property while also attempting to prepare and relet the premises. The Legislature therefore finds that it is necessary to prescribe a reasonable procedure for the return of personal possessions after both voluntary and involuntary terminations of tenancies.

SEC. 2. Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 1965) is added to Title 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4.5. DISPOSITION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY UPON REQUEST OF TENANT

1965. (a) A residential landlord shall not refuse to surrender, to a residential tenant or to a residential tenant's duly authorized representative, any personal property not owned by the landlord which has been left on the premises after the tenant has vacated the residential premises and the return of which has been requested by the tenant or by the authorized representative of the tenant if all of the following occur:

(1) The tenant requests, in writing, within 18 days of vacating the premises, the surrender of the personal property and the request includes a description of the personal property held by the landlord and specifies the mailing address of the tenant.

(2) The landlord or the landlord's agent has control or possession of the tenant's personal property at the time the request is received.

(3) The tenant, prior to the surrender of the personal property by the landlord and upon written demand by the landlord, tenders payment of all reasonable costs associated with the landlord's removal and storage of the personal property. The landlord's demand for payment of reasonable costs associated with the removal and storage of personal property shall be in writing and shall either be mailed to the tenant at the address provided by the tenant pursuant to paragraph (1) or shall be personally presented to the tenant or to the tenant's authorized representative, within five days after the actual receipt of the tenant's request for surrender of the personal property, unless the property is returned first. The demand shall itemize all charges, specifying the nature and amount of each item of cost.

(4) The tenant agrees to claim and remove the personal property at a reasonable time mutually agreed upon by the landlord and tenant but not later than 72 hours after the tender provided for under paragraph (3).

(b) For the purposes of this chapter, "reasonable costs associated with the landlord's removal and storage of the personal property" shall include, but not be limited to, each of the following:

(1) Reasonable costs actually incurred, or the reasonable value of labor actually provided, or both, in removing the personal property from its original location to the place of storage, including disassembly and transportation.

(2) Reasonable storage costs actually incurred, which shall not exceed the fair rental value of the space reasonably required for the storage of the personal property.

(c) This chapter shall not apply when disposition of the personal property has been initiated or completed pursuant to the procedure set forth in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1980) or the occupancy is one defined by subdivision (b) of Section 1940.

(d) A landlord who complies with this chapter shall not be liable to any person with respect to that person's personal property that is given to another person. In the event of conflicting demands, the first timely request for surrender of personal property received by the landlord shall prevail.

(e) Any landlord who retains personal property in violation of this chapter shall be liable to the tenant in a civil action for all the following:

(1) Actual damages not to exceed the value of the personal property, if the personal property is not surrendered by the later of either of the following: (A) within a reasonable time after the tenant's request for surrender of the personal property, or (B) if the landlord has demanded payment of reasonable costs associated with removal and storage and the tenant has complied with the requirements set forth in paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (a), whichever is later. Three days is presumed to be a reasonable time in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

(2) An amount not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each bad faith violation of this section. In determining the amount of the award, the court shall consider proof of matters as justice may require.

(3) The court may award reasonable attorney's fees and cost to the prevailing party.

(f) The remedy provided by this chapter is not exclusive and shall not preclude either the landlord or the tenant from pursuing any other remedy provided by law.

SEC. 3. Section 1174 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1174. (a) If upon the trial, the verdict of the jury, or, if the case be tried without a jury, the findings of the court be in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, judgment shall be entered for the possession of the premises; and if the proceedings be for an unlawful detainer after neglect, or failure to perform the conditions or covenants of the lease or agreement under which the property is held, or after default in the payment of rent, the judgment shall also declare the forfeiture of such lease or agreement if the notice required by Section 1161 states the election of the landlord to declare the forfeiture thereof, but if such notice does not so state such election, the lease or agreement shall not be forfeited.

Except as provided in Section 1166a, in any action for unlawful detainer brought by a petroleum distributor against a gasoline dealer, possession shall not be restored to the petroleum distributor unless the court in the unlawful detainer action determines that the petroleum distributor had good cause under Section 20999.1 of the Business and Professions Code to terminate, cancel, or refuse to renew the franchise of the gasoline dealer.

In any action for unlawful detainer brought by a petroleum distributor against the gasoline dealer, the court may, at the time of request of either party, require the tenant to make rental payments into the court, for the lessor, at the contract rate, pending the resolution of the action.

(b) The jury or the court, if the proceedings be tried without a jury, shall also assess the damages occasioned to the plaintiff by any forcible entry, or by any forcible or unlawful detainer, alleged in the complaint and proved on the trial, and find the amount of any rent due, if the alleged unlawful detainer be after default in the payment of rent. If the defendant is found guilty of forcible entry, or forcible or unlawful detainer, and malice is shown, the plaintiff may be awarded either damages and rent found due or punitive damages in an amount which does not exceed three times the amount of damages and rent found due. The trier of fact shall determine whether damages and rent found due or punitive damages shall be awarded, and judgment shall be entered accordingly.

(c) When the proceeding is for an unlawful detainer after default in the payment of rent, and the lease or agreement under which the rent is payable has not by its terms expired, and the notice required by Section 1161 has not stated the election of the landlord to declare the forfeiture thereof, the court may, and, if the lease or agreement is in writing, is for a term of more than one year, and does not contain a forfeiture clause, shall order that a writ shall not be issued to enforce the judgment until the expiration of five days after the entry of the judgment, within which time the tenant, or any subtenant, or any mortgagee of the term, or any other party interested in its continuance, may pay into the court, for the landlord, the amount found due as rent, with interest thereon, and the amount of the damages found by the jury or the court for the unlawful detainer, and the costs of the proceedings, and thereupon the judgment shall be satisfied and the tenant be restored to the tenant's estate. If payment as provided in this subdivision is not made within five days, the judgment may be enforced for its full amount and for the possession of the premises. In all other cases the judgment may be enforced immediately.

(d) Subject to subdivision (c), the judgment for possession of the premises may be enforced as provided in Division 3 (commencing with Section 712.010) of Title 9 of Part 2.

(e) Personal property remaining on the premises which the landlord reasonably believes to have been lost shall be disposed of pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 2080) of Chapter 4 of Title 6 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code. The landlord is not liable to the owner of any property which is disposed of in this manner. If the appropriate police or sheriff's department refuses to accept such property, it shall be deemed not to have been lost for the purposes of this subdivision.

(f) The landlord shall give notice pursuant to Section 1983 of the Civil Code to any person (other than the tenant) reasonably believed by the landlord to be the owner of personal property remaining on the premises unless the procedure for surrender of property under Section 1965 of the Civil Code has been initiated or completed.

(g) The landlord shall store the personal property in a place of safekeeping until it is either released pursuant to subdivision (h) or disposed of pursuant to subdivision (i).

(h) The landlord shall release the personal property pursuant to Section 1965 of the Civil Code or shall release it to the tenant or, at the landlord's option, to a person reasonably believed by the landlord to be its owner if the tenant or other person pays the costs of storage as provided in Section 1990 of the Civil Code and claims the property not later than the date specified in the writ of possession before which the tenant must make his or her claim or the date specified in the notice before which a person other than the tenant must make his or her claim.

(i) Personal property not released pursuant to subdivision (h) shall be disposed of pursuant to Section 1988 of the Civil Code.

(j) Where the landlord releases personal property to the tenant pursuant to subdivision (h), the landlord is not liable with respect to that property to any person.

(k) Where the landlord releases personal property pursuant to subdivision (h) to a person (other than the tenant) reasonably believed by the landlord to be its owner, the landlord is not liable with respect to that property to:

(2) Any other person, unless such person proves that, prior to releasing the property, the landlord believed or reasonably should have believed that such person had an interest in the property and also that the landlord knew or should have known upon reasonable investigation the address of such person.

(l) Where personal property is disposed of pursuant to Section 1988 of the Civil Code, the landlord is not liable with respect to that property to:

(1) The tenant or to any person to whom notice was given pursuant to subdivision (f); or

(2) Any other person, unless such person proves that, prior to disposing of the property pursuant to Section 1988 of the Civil Code, the landlord believed or reasonably should have believed that such person had an interest in the property and also that the landlord knew or should have known upon reasonable investigation the address of such person.

(m) For the purposes of subdivisions (e), (f), (h), (k), and (l), the terms "owner," "premises," and "reasonable belief" have the same meaning as provided in Section 1980 of the Civil Code.

CHAPTER 798

An act to amend Section 1063.5 of, and to add Section 1063.145 to, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1063.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1063.5. Each time an insurer becomes insolvent then, to the extent necessary to secure funds for the association for payment of covered claims of that insolvent insurer and also for payment of reasonable costs of adjusting the claims, the association shall collect premium payments from its member insurers sufficient to discharge its obligations. The association shall allocate its claim payments and costs, incurred or estimated to be incurred, to one or more of the following categories: (a) workers' compensation claims; (b) automobile claims, which shall include: automobile material damage, automobile liability (both personal injury and death and property damage), medical payments and uninsured motorist claims; and (c) claims other than workers' compensation and automobile, as above defined. Separate premium payments shall be required for each category. The premium payments for each category shall be used to pay the claims and costs allocated to that category. The rate of premium charged shall be a uniform percentage of net direct written premium in the preceding calendar year applicable to that category. The rate of premium charges to each member in the appropriate categories shall initially be based on the written premium of each insurer as shown in the latest year's annual financial statement on file with the commissioner. The initial premium shall be adjusted by applying the same rate of premium charge as initially used to each insurer's written premium as shown on the annual statement for the second year following the year in which the initial premium charge is made. The difference between the initial premium charge and the adjusted premium charge shall be charged or credited to each member insurer by the association as soon as practical after the filing of the annual statements of the member insurers with the commissioner for the year on which the adjusted premium is based. "Net direct written premiums" shall mean the amount of gross premiums, less return premiums and policyholder's dividends paid or allowed, received in that calendar year upon business done in this state, other than premiums received for reinsurance. In cases of a dispute as to the amount of any such net direct written premium between the association and one of its members the written decision of the commissioner shall be final. The premium charged to any member insurer for any of the three categories or a category established by the association shall not be more than 1 percent of the net direct premium written in that category in this state by that member insurer. However, in no event shall the total premium charged a member insurer in one calendar year exceed 1 percent of the net direct premium written by the member insurer in one calendar year. The association may exempt or defer, in whole or in part, the assessment of any member insurer, if the assessment would cause the member insurer's financial statement to reflect an amount of capital or surplus less than the minimum amounts required for a certificate of authority by any jurisdiction in which the member insurer is authorized to transact insurance. However, during the period of deferment, no dividends shall be paid to shareholders or policyholders by the company whose assessment was deferred. Deferred assessments shall be paid when the payment will not reduce capital or surplus below required minimums. These payments shall be credited against future assessments to those companies receiving larger assessments by virtue of the deferment. The premium charges shall be recognized in the ratemaking procedures for insurance rates in the same manner that losses are recognized or as otherwise provided in this article. After all covered claims of the insolvent insurer and expenses of administration have been paid, any unused premiums and any reimbursements or claims dividends from the liquidator remaining in any category shall be retained by the association and applied to reduce future premium charges in the appropriate category. However, an insurer which ceases to be a member of the association shall have no right to a refund of any premium previously remitted to the association. The commissioner may suspend or revoke the certificate of authority to transact business in this state of a member insurer which fails to pay a premium when due and after demand has been made.

Interest at a rate equal to the current federal reserve discount rate plus 2½ percent per annum shall be added to the premium of any member insurer which fails to submit the premium requested by the association within 30 days after such mailing request. However, in no event shall the interest rate exceed the legal maximum.

SEC. 2. Section 1063.145 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1063.145. The statement of the amount of surcharge required to be provided under subdivision (b) of Section 1063.14 shall include a description of, and purpose for, the California Insurance Guarantee Association, as follows:

Companies writing property and casualty insurance business in California are required to participate in the California Insurance Guarantee Association. If a company becomes insolvent the California Insurance Guarantee Association settles unpaid claims and assesses each insurance company for its fair share.

California law requires all companies to surcharge policies to recover these assessments. If your policy is surcharged, "CA Surcharge" with an amount will be displayed on your premium notice."

An act to amend Sections 18203.2, 18205, 18210, 18251, 18252, 18253, 18254, 18300, 18300.1, 18300.5, 18301, 18303, 18400, 18401, 18402, 18403, 18404, 18406, 18500, 18505, 18506, 18507, 18510, 18550, 18551, 18554, 18601, 18602, 18603, 18604, 18610, 18612, 18620, 18630, 18640, 18670, 18690, and 18691 of, to amend the heading of Article 2 (commencing with Section 18610) of Chapter 5 of Part 2.1 of Division 13 of, and to add Sections 18214.1, 18216.1, and 18250.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to mobilehomes.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18203.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18203.2. "Camping party" means a person or group of not more than 10 persons occupying a campsite for not more than 30 days annually.

SEC. 2. Section 18205 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18205. "Conditional permit" means a construction, reconstruction, or operation permit issued by the enforcement agency which may prescribe conditions on the use or occupancy of a mobilehome park or special occupancy park, subject to the provisions of this part.

SEC. 3. Section 18210 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18210. "Lot" means any area or tract of land or portion of a mobilehome park or special occupancy park, designated or used for the occupancy of one manufactured home, mobilehome, recreational vehicle, tent, camp car, or camping party.

SEC. 4. Section 18214.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

18214.1. "Park" means any mobilehome park or special occupancy park.

SEC. 5. Section 18216.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

18216.1. "Special occupancy park" means a recreational vehicle park, temporary recreational vehicle park, incidental camping area, or tent camp.

SEC. 6. Section 18250.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

18250.5. The Legislature finds and declares that increasing numbers of Californians own and use recreational vehicles for recreation, vacations, and temporary housing. Because these vehicles are highly mobile and use various facilities throughout the state, there is a need for consistent and uniform statewide regulations for special occupancy parks to assure their health, safety, and general welfare, and a decent living environment.

SEC. 7. Section 18251 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18251. The Legislature finds and declares that the standards and requirements established for construction, maintenance, occupancy, use, and design of parks should guarantee park residents maximum protection of their investment and a decent living environment. At the same time, the standards and requirements should be flexible enough to accommodate new technologies and to allow designs that reduce costs and enhance the living environment of park residents.

SEC. 8. Section 18252 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18252. The Legislature finds and declares that inclusion of specific standards within a statute often precludes the rapid and flexible action needed to correct substandard conditions, and that it is desirable to delete outdated requirements, and to add new and useful requirements designed to protect the health, safety, and general welfare of park residents or to encourage use of new technologies in the development of parks.

SEC. 9. Section 18253 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18253. The Legislature finds and declares that the specific requirements relating to construction, maintenance, occupancy, use, and design of parks are best developed by the department in accordance with the criteria established by this part. Placing this responsibility with the department will allow for modifications of specific requirements in a rapid fashion and in a manner responsive to the needs of park residents and owners.

SEC. 10. Section 18254 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18254. (a) It is the purpose of this part to accomplish both of the following:

(1) Assure protection of the health, safety, and general welfare of all park residents.

(2) Allow modifications in regulations adopted pursuant to this part in a manner consistent with the criteria established in this part.

(b) The regulations adopted by the department pursuant to the authority granted in this part shall provide equivalent or greater protection to residents of parks than the statutes and regulations in effect prior to January 1, 1978.

SEC. 11. Section 18300 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18300. (a) This part applies to all parts of the state and supersedes any ordinance enacted by any city, county, or city and county, whether general law or chartered, applicable to this part. Except as provided in Section 18930, the department may adopt regulations to interpret and make specific this part and when adopted the regulations shall apply to all parts of the state.

(b) Upon 30 days' written notice from the governing body to the department, any city, county, or city and county may assume the responsibility for the enforcement of this part and the regulations adopted pursuant to this part following approval by the department for the assumption.

(c) The department shall adopt regulations which set forth the conditions for assumption and may include required qualifications of local enforcement agencies. The conditions set forth and the qualifications required in the regulations which set forth the conditions for assumption shall relate solely to the ability of local agencies to enforce properly this part and the regulations adopted pursuant to this part. The regulations which set forth the conditions for assumption shall not set requirements for local agencies different than those which the state maintains for its own enforcement program. When assumption is approved, the department shall transfer the responsibility for enforcement to the city, county, or city and county, together with all records of parks within the jurisdiction of the city, county, or city and county.

(d) (1) In the event of nonenforcement of this part or the regulations adopted pursuant to this part by a city, county, or city and county, the department shall enforce this part and the regulations adopted pursuant to this part in the city, county, or city and county, after the department has given written notice to the governing body of the city, county, or city and county, setting forth in what respects the city, county, or city and county has failed to discharge its responsibility, and the city, county, or city and county has failed to initiate corrective measures to carry out its responsibility within 30 days of the notice.

(2) Where the department determines that the local enforcement agency is not properly enforcing this part, the local enforcement agency shall have the right to appeal the decision to the director of the department.

(e) Any city, city and county, or county, upon written notice from the governing body to the department, may cancel its assumption of responsibility for the enforcement of this part. The department, upon receipt of the notice, shall assume responsibility within 30 days.

(f) Every city, county, or city and county, within its jurisdiction, shall enforce this part and the regulations adopted pursuant to this part, as they relate to manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or recreational vehicles and to accessory buildings or structures located both in or outside of parks.

(g) This part shall not prevent local authorities of any city, county, or city and county, within the reasonable exercise of their police powers, from doing any of the following:

(1) From establishing, subject to the requirements of Sections 65852.3 and 65852.7 of the Government Code, certain zones for manufactured homes, mobilehomes, mobilehome parks, and special occupancy parks within the city, county, or city and county, or establishing types of uses and locations, including family mobilehome parks, adult mobilehome parks, mobilehome condominiums, mobilehome subdivisions, or mobilehome planned unit developments within the city, county, or city and county, as defined in the zoning ordinance, or from adopting rules and regulations by ordinance or resolution prescribing park perimeter walls or enclosures on public street frontage, signs, access, and vehicle parking or from prescribing the prohibition of certain uses for mobilehome parks or special occupancy parks.

(2) From regulating the construction and use of equipment and facilities located outside of a manufactured home, mobilehome, or recreational vehicle used to supply gas, water, or electricity thereto, except facilities owned, operated, and maintained by a public utility, or to dispose of sewage or other waste therefrom when the facilities are located outside a park for which a permit is required by this part or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(3) From requiring a permit to use a manufactured home, mobilehome, or recreational vehicle outside a park for which a permit is required by this part or by regulations adopted pursuant thereto, and require a fee therefor by local ordinance commensurate with the cost of enforcing this part and local ordinance with reference to the use of manufactured homes, mobilehomes, and recreational vehicles, which permit may be refused or revoked if the use violates this part or Part 2 (commencing with Section 18000), any regulations adopted pursuant thereto, or any local ordinance applicable to that use.

(4) From requiring a local building permit to construct an accessory structure for a manufactured home or mobilehome when the manufactured home or mobilehome is located outside a mobilehome park, recreational vehicle park, or temporary recreational vehicle park, under circumstances which the provisions of this part or Part 2 (commencing with Section 18000) and the regulations adopted pursuant thereto do not require the issuance of a permit therefor by the department.

(h) (1) A city, including a charter city, county, or city and county, shall not require the average density in a new park to be less than that permitted by the applicable zoning ordinance, plus any density bonus, as defined in Section 65915 of the Government Code, for other affordable housing forms.

(2) A city, including a charter city, county, or city and county, shall not require a new park to include a clubhouse. Recreational facilities, recreational areas, accessory structures, or improvements may be required only to the extent that the facilities or improvements are required in other types of residential developments containing a like number of residential dwelling units.

SEC. 12. Section 18300.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18300.1. Any person may file an application with the governing body of any city, city and county, or county for a conditional use permit for a manufactured home, mobilehome, or park. The governing body, or the planning commission if designated by the governing body, shall hold a public hearing on any such application. Notice of the time and place of the hearing, including a general explanation of the matter to be considered and including a general description of the area affected, shall be given at least two weeks before the hearing and shall be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation, published and circulated in the city, city and county, or county, as the case may be. When any hearing is held on an application for a conditional use permit for a manufactured home, mobilehome, or park, a staff report with recommendations and the basis for such recommendations shall be included in the record of the hearing. The decision of the governing body shall be final and the reasons for the decision shall be included in the record.

SEC. 13. Section 18300.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18300.5. (a) In any city, county, or city and county, which has imposed a time limitation for occupancy of spaces in special occupancy parks, any special occupancy park owner may apply for an exemption to that limitation. The exemption shall be granted unless the city, county, or city and county, makes a substantial finding that based on, but not limited to, the lack of needed overnight or tourist spaces in those special occupancy parks in the city, county, or city and county, that the exemption of the applicant's special occupancy park from the time limitation would cause specific adverse impacts which cannot be mitigated or avoided by providing partial exemptions as set forth in subdivision (b) or by imposing conditions pursuant to subdivision (c).

(b) The requirements of subdivision (a) may be satisfied by partial exemption if either of the following apply:

(1) A number of spaces in a special occupancy park are set aside for short-term occupancy, and the remaining spaces are exempted by the city, county, or city and county, from the occupancy limitation.

(2) A city, county, or city and county, finds that by increasing the maximum length of stay to a specified additional period of time for the applicant, the problems raised by the applicant for an exemption are satisfied.

(c) As an alternative to granting a partial exemption pursuant to subdivision (a), in approving a request for an exemption from special occupancy park time limitations, a city, county, or city and county may:

(1) Impose conditions to assure there will be no adverse impact on local school districts due to the additional enrollment of residents of a special occupancy park.

(2) Assure that a special occupancy park is in compliance with the requirements of Subchapter 2 (commencing with Section 2000) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Title 25 of the California Administrative Code.

(d) If an exemption to a time limitation for occupancy of spaces in a special occupancy park is applied for pursuant to subdivision (a) and the special occupancy park for which the exemption is requested is located within the coastal zone, as defined in Section 30103 of the Public Resources Code, the exemption shall be granted, only, if in addition to meeting the requirements set forth in subdivision (a) the city, county, or city and county, finds that granting the exemption is consistent with its certified local coastal program. If granting the exemption would be inconsistent with an approved or certified local coastal program, the applicant for the exemption may petition the appropriate city, county, or city and county, to seek an amendment to its certified local coastal program. If, after consultation with the California Coastal Commission, it is determined that an amendment to the certified local coastal program is required in order to grant the exemption, the city, county, or city and county, may request an amendment to the certified local program within 90 days of the applicant's filing of the petition. This request may be made without regard to the limitation on the number of the amendments that can be requested during any year, pursuant to Section 30514 of the Public Resources Code. The California Coastal Commission shall certify the amendment to the local coastal program unless it finds that the certification would not be consistent with Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 30200) of Division 20 of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 14. Section 18301 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18301. (a) The provisions of this part applicable to mobilehome parks shall apply equally to special occupancy parks, except where specifically exempted by regulations adopted by the department pursuant to this part.

(b) The department shall adopt regulations for special occupancy parks which shall take into consideration such special conditions as location, physical environment, density of usage, type of operation, type of vehicles to be accommodated, and duration of occupancy. The department may vary the requirements for special occupancy parks according to conditions. These regulations shall establish requirements which are determined by the department to be reasonable and necessary for the protection of life and property.

SEC. 15. Section 18303 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18303. This part does not apply to any park or camping area owned, operated, and maintained by any of the following:

(a) The federal government.

(b) The state.

(c) Any agency or political subdivision of the state.

(d) Any city, county, or city and county.

SEC. 16. Section 18400 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18400. (a) The department shall enforce this part and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this part, except as provided in Section 18300.

(b) The officers or agents of the enforcement agency may do either of the following:

(1) Enter public or private property to determine whether there exists any park to which this part applies.

(2) Enter and inspect all parks, wherever situated, and inspect all accommodations, equipment, or paraphernalia used in connection therewith, including the right to examine any registers of occupants maintained therein in order to secure the enforcement of this part and the regulations adopted pursuant to this part.

SEC. 17. Section 18401 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18401. The enforcement agency shall notify the owner or occupant of any manufactured home, mobilehome, recreational vehicle, or other structure of any violations of this part relating to parks, or of any other rules or regulations adopted pursuant to this part applicable to a manufactured home, mobilehome, recreational vehicle, accessory structure, or other structure or appurtenance owned, occupied, or under such person's control. The notification shall include a statement that any willful violation is a misdemeanor under Section 18700.

SEC. 18. Section 18402 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18402. The owner or operator of a park shall abate any nuisance in the park within five days, or within such longer period of time as may be allowed by the enforcement agency, after he has been given written notice to remove the nuisance. If he fails to do so within that time, the district attorney of the county in which the park, or the greater portion of the park, is situated shall bring a civil action to abate the nuisance in the superior court of the county in the name of the people of the State of California.

SEC. 19. Section 18403 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18403. In any action or proceeding to abate a nuisance in a park, proof of any one of the following facts is sufficient for a judgment or order for the abatement of the nuisance, violation, or operation of the park:

(a) A previous conviction of the owner or operator of a violation of this part or a regulation adopted pursuant to this part which constitutes a nuisance or failure on the part of the owner or operator to correct the violation after the conviction.

(b) The violation is the basis for the proceeding.

SEC. 20. Section 18404 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

agency may institute any appropriate action or proceeding to prevent, restrain, correct, or abate the violation.

(b) The superior court may make any order for which application is made pursuant to this part.

SEC. 21. Section 18406 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

Any public access route or routes required to be provided by the owner shall be expressly designated on a map filed with the county recorder of the county in which the park lies, and the map shall specify the name of the owner of, and particularly describe the property involved, and designate the governmental entity to which the route or routes are dedicated. A governmental entity shall accept the dedication within three years after the recordation or the dedication shall be deemed abandoned.

Any public access required pursuant to this section need not be provided through or across the park if the city, county, or city and county having jurisdiction has made a finding that reasonable public access is otherwise available within a reasonable distance from the park. Any such findings shall be set forth on the recorded map required by this section.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring a park owner to improve any access route or routes which are primarily for the benefit of nonresidents of the park.

SEC. 22. Section 18500 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18500. It is unlawful for any person to do any of the following unless he or she has a valid permit issued by the enforcement agency:

(a) Construct a park.

(b) Construct additional buildings or lots, alter buildings, lots, or other installations, in an existing park.

(c) Operate, occupy, rent, lease, sublease, let out, or hire out for occupancy any lot in a park that has been constructed, reconstructed, or altered without having obtained a permit as required herein.

(d) Operate a park or any portion thereof.

This section shall not apply to any labor camp having a valid annual permit to operate.

SEC. 23. Section 18505 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18505. A permit to operate shall be issued by the department following notification by the local enforcement agency of completion of construction of a new park or additional lots to an existing park. The local enforcement agency shall, by approving the application for a permit to operate, authorize occupancy of the newly constructed facilities. Upon approval by the local enforcement agency, one copy of the permit application shall be provided to the applicant and one copy shall be forwarded to the department.

SEC. 24. Section 18506 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18506. Permits to operate shall be issued by the enforcement agency. A copy of each permit to operate shall be forwarded to the department. No permit to operate shall be issued for a park when the previous operating permit has been suspended by the enforcement agency until the violations which were the basis for the suspension have been corrected. No park which was in existence on September 15, 1961, shall be denied a permit to operate if the park complied with the law which this part supersedes. Permits to operate shall be issued for a 12-month period and invoiced according to a method and schedule established by the department. Permit applications returned to the enforcement agency 30 days after the due date shall be subject to a penalty fee equal to 10 percent of the established fee. The penalty fee for submitting a permit application 60 or more days after the due date shall equal 100 percent of the established permit fee. These penalties and the established permit fees shall be paid prior to issuance of the permit, and the fee and 100 percent penalty shall be due upon demand of the enforcement agency for any park which has not applied for a permit.

SEC. 25. Section 18507 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18507. (a) The enforcement agency shall be notified by the new owner or operator of any park of any change in the name or ownership or possession thereof. The notice shall be in written form and shall be furnished within 30 days from and after any such change in name or transfer of ownership or possession. The notice shall be accompanied by the appropriate fees to the enforcement agency. Following receipt of the notice and fee, the enforcement agency shall record the change of ownership or possession and shall issue an amended permit to operate, except as provided in Section 18506.

(b) In case of any change in name or transfer of ownership or possesion prior to completion of construction, no additional fee for a construction permit is required, provided the new owner completes construction in accordance with prior enforcement agency approved plans and specifications. However, if there is any substantial deviation from the approved plans and specifications, a new application for a permit to construct shall be submitted, accompanied by revised plans and specifications and the appropriate fees.

SEC. 26. Section 18510 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18510. If any person who holds a permit to operate violates the permit or this part, the permit may be suspended by the enforcement agency. This section does not, however, authorize the suspension of a permit of any park existing on September 15, 1961, for any violation of this part which was not a violation of the law which this part supersedes.

SEC. 27. Section 18550 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18550. It is unlawful for any person to use or cause, or permit to be used for occupancy, any of the following manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or recreational vehicles, wherever the manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or recreational vehicles are located:

(a) Any manufactured home, mobilehome, or recreational vehicle supplied with fuel, gas, water, electricity, or sewage connections, unless the connections and installations conform to regulations of the department.

(b) Any manufactured home, mobilehome, or recreational vehicle which is permanently attached with underpinning or foundation to the ground, except for manufactured homes or mobilehomes which bear a department insignia or federal label, and which are installed on a foundation system, pursuant to Section 18551 or an earthquake resistant bracing system pursuant to Section 18613.5.

(c) Any manufactured home or mobilehome which does not conform to the registration requirements of the department.

(d) Any manufactured home or mobilehome in an unsafe or unsanitary condition.

(e) Any manufactured home, mobilehome, or recreational vehicle which is structurally unsound and does not protect its occupants against the elements.

SEC. 28. Section 18551 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18551. (a) The department shall establish regulations for manufactured home, mobilehome, and commercial coach foundation systems which shall be applicable throughout the state. When established, these regulations supersede any ordinance enacted by any city, county, or city and county applicable to manufactured home, mobilehome, and commercial coach foundation systems. The department may approve alternate foundation systems to those provided by regulation where the department is satisfied of equivalent performance. The department shall document approval of alternate systems by its stamp of approval on the plans and specifications for the alternate foundation system.

(b) Prior to installation of a manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach on a foundation system, the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach owner or a licensed contractor shall obtain a building permit from the appropriate enforcement agency. To obtain a permit, the owner or contractor shall provide the following:

(1) Written evidence acceptable to the enforcement agency that the manufactured home, mobilehome, or, commercial coach owner owns, holds title to, or is purchasing the real property where the mobilehome is to be installed on a foundation system. A lease held by the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach owner, which is transferable, for the exclusive use of the real property where the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach is to be installed, shall be deemed to comply with this paragraph if the lease is for a term of 35 years or more, or if less than 35 years, for a term mutually agreed upon by the lessor and lessee, and the term of the lease is not revocable at the discretion of the lessor except for cause, as described in subdivisions 2 to 5, inclusive, of Section 1161 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(2) Written evidence acceptable to the enforcement agency that the registered owner owns the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach free of any liens or encumbrances or, in the event that the legal owner is not the registered owner, or liens and encumbrances exist on the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach, written evidence provided by the legal owner and any lienors or encumbrancers that the legal owner, lienor, or encumbrancer consents to the attachment of the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach upon the discharge of any personal lien, which may be conditioned upon the satisfaction by the registered owner of the obligation secured by the lien.

(3) Plans and specifications required by department regulations or a department-approved alternate for the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach foundation system.

(4) The manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach manufacturer's installation instructions, or plans and specifications signed by a California licensed architect or engineer covering the installation of an individual manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach in the absence of the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach manufacturer's instructions.

(5) Building permit fees established by ordinance or regulation of the appropriate enforcement agency.

(6) A fee payable to the department in the amount of eleven dollars ($11) for each transportable section of the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach, which shall be transmitted to the department at the time the certificate of occupancy is issued with a copy of the building permit and any other information concerning the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach which the department may prescribe on forms provided by the department.

(c) (1) On the same day that the certificate of occupancy for the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach is issued by the appropriate enforcement agency, the enforcement agency shall record with the county recorder of the county in which the real property is situated, on which the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach has been installed, a document naming the owner of the real property, describing the real property with certainty, and stating that a manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach has been affixed to that real property by installation on a foundation system pursuant to this section.

(2) When recorded, the document referred to in paragraph (1) shall be indexed by the county recorder to the named owner and shall be deemed to give constructive notice as to its contents to all persons thereafter dealing with the real property.

(3) Fees received by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be deposited in the Mobilehome-Manufactured Home Revolving Fund established under subdivision (a) of Section 18016.5. To the extent these fees are utilized for enforcement of consumer protections, subdivision (b) of Section 18016.5 does not apply.

(d) The department shall adopt regulations providing for the cancellation of registration of a manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach which is permanently attached to the ground on a foundation system pursuant to this section. The regulations shall provide for the surrender to the department of the certificate of title and other indicia of registration. For the purposes of this subdivision, permanent affixation to a foundation system shall be deemed to have occurred on the day a certificate of occupancy is issued to the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach owner and the document referred to in paragraph (6) of subdivision (b) is recorded. Cancellation shall be effective as of that date and the department shall enter the cancellation on its records upon receipt of a copy of the certificate of occupancy. This subdivision shall not be construed to affect the application of existing laws, or the department's regulations or procedures with regard to the cancellation of registration, except as to the requirement therefor and the effective date thereof.

(e) Once installed on a foundation system in compliance with subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), a manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach shall be deemed a fixture and a real property improvement to the real property to which it is affixed. Physical removal of the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach shall thereafter be prohibited without the consent of all persons or entities who, at the time of removal, have title to any estate or interest in the real property to which the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach is affixed.

(f) For the purposes of this part:

(1) "Physical removal" shall include, without limitation, the unattaching of the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach from the foundation system, except for temporary purposes of repair or improvement thereto.

(2) Consent to removal shall not be required from the owners of rights-of-way or easements or the owners of subsurface rights or interests in or to minerals, including, but not limited to, oil, gas, or other hydrocarbon substances.

(g) At least 30 days prior to a legal removal of the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach from the foundation system and transportation away from the real property to which it was formerly affixed, the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach owner shall notify the department and the county assessor of the intended removal of the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach. The department shall require written evidence that the necessary consents have been obtained pursuant to this section and shall require application for either a transportation permit or manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach registration, as the department may decide is appropriate to the circumstances. Immediately upon removal, as defined in this section, the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach shall be deemed to have become personal property and subject to all laws governing the same as applicable to a manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach installed on a foundation system, attached, or otherwise permanently affixed to, real property without compliance with subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), shall not be deemed a fixture or improvement to the real property. This subdivision shall not be construed to affect the application of sales and use or property taxes.

(i) Once installed on a foundation system, a manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach shall be subject to state enforced health and safety standards for manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or commercial coaches enforced pursuant to Section 18020.

(j) No local agency shall require that any manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach currently on private property be placed on a foundation system.

(k) No local agency shall require that any manufactured home or mobilehome located in a mobilehome park be placed on a foundation system, so as to be permanently affixed to real property.

(l) No local agency shall require, as a condition for the approval of the conversion of a rental mobilehome park to a resident-owned park, including, but not limited to, a subdivision, cooperative, or condominium for mobilehomes, that any manufactured home or mobilehome located there be placed on a foundation system, so as to be permanently affixed to real property. This subdivision shall only apply to the conversion of a rental mobilehome park which has been operated as a rental mobilehome park for a minimum period of five years.

SEC. 29. Section 18554 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18554. It is unlawful to permit any waste water or material from any plumbing fixtures in a manufactured home, mobilehome, or recreational vehicle to be deposited upon the surface of the ground. Except as provided in Section 18930, the department may adopt any rules and regulations which it determines are reasonably necessary for the protection of life and property and to carry out the purposes of this section.

SEC. 30. Section 18601 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18601. The department shall adopt regulations to ensure adequate animal control within parks.

SEC. 31. Section 18602 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18602. In every park there shall be installed and kept burning from sunset to sunrise sufficient artificial light to adequately illuminate every building containing toilets and showers, and roadways and walkways within the park.

SEC. 32. Section 18603 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18603. There shall be a person available who shall be responsible for the operation and maintenance of the park. In every park with 50 or more units, the person or his or her designee shall reside in the park and shall have knowledge of emergency procedures relative to utility systems and common facilities under the ownership and control of the owner of the park.

SEC. 33. Section 18604 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18604. No manufactured home, mobilehome, or recreational vehicle within a park shall be rented or leased unless it bears a department insignia of approval issued pursuant to Section 18026, or a federal label issued pursuant to the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 5401 et seq.).

SEC. 34. The heading of Article 2 (commencing with Section 18610) of Chapter 5 of Part 2.1 of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

Article 2. Mobilehome and Special Occupancy Park Lots

SEC. 35. Section 18610 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18610. Except as provided in Section 18930, the department shall adopt regulations to govern the construction, use, occupancy, and maintenance of parks and lots within the parks. The regulations adopted by the department shall establish standards and requirements which protect the health, safety, and general welfare of the residents of parks. The regulations adopted by the department shall provide equivalent or greater protection to the residents of parks than the statutes and regulations in effect on December 31, 1977.

SEC. 36. Section 18612 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18612. Except as provided in Section 18930, the department shall adopt regulations to govern lot access and driveways within parks. The regulations adopted by the department shall establish standards or requirements which protect the health, safety, and general welfare of the residents of parks and shall require proper maintenance of lot access and driveways. The regulations adopted by the department shall provide equivalent or greater protection to the residents of parks than the statutes and regulations in effect on December 31, 1977.

SEC. 37. Section 18620 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18620. The department shall promulgate the rules and regulations regarding the construction of buildings in parks which the department determines are reasonably necessary for the protection of life and property and to carry out the purposes of this part. The department shall adopt and submit building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 for the purposes described in this section. The building standards published in the State Building Standards Code and the other rules and regulations adopted by the department shall be applicable to the construction of all permanent buildings in a park, except in a park in a city, county, or city and county which has adopted and is enforcing a building code imposing restrictions equal to or greater than the restrictions imposed by the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code and the other rules and regulations adopted by the department and which city, county, or city and county is the enforcement agency.

SEC. 38. Section 18630 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18630. The department shall adopt the rules and regulations regarding plumbing in parks which the department determines are reasonably necessary for the protection of life and property and to carry out the purposes of this part. The department shall adopt and submit building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 for the purposes described in this section. The building standards published in the State Building Standards Code and the other rules and regulations adopted by the department shall be applicable to all plumbing within permanent buildings, except a park in a city, county, or city and county which has adopted and is enforcing a plumbing code imposing restrictions equal to or greater than the restrictions imposed by the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code and the other rules and regulations adopted by the department and which city, county, or city and county is the enforcement agency.

SEC. 39. Section 18640 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18640. The department shall adopt regulations for toilets, shower, and laundry facilities in parks. The department shall adopt and submit building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 for the purposes described in this section. The building standards published in the State Building Standards Code and the other regulations adopted by the department shall establish standards and requirements which protect the health, safety, and general welfare of the residents of parks, and shall require proper maintenance of those facilities. The building standards published in the State Building Standards Code and the other regulations adopted by the department shall provide equivalent or greater protection to the residents of parks than the statutes and regulations in effect on December 31, 1977.

SEC. 40. Section 18670 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18670. The department shall adopt the rules and regulations regarding electrical wiring, fixtures, and equipment installed in parks which the department determines are reasonably necessary for the protection of life and property and to carry out the purposes of this part. The department shall adopt and submit building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 for the purposes described in this section. The building standards published in the State Building Standards Code and the other rules and regulations adopted by the department shall be applicable to all electrical wiring, fixtures, and equipment installed within permanent buildings, except within a park in a city, county, or city and county which has adopted and is enforcing an electrical code imposing restrictions equal to or greater than the restrictions imposed by the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code and the other rules and regulations adopted by the department and which city, county, or city and county is the enforcement agency.

SEC. 41. Section 18690 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18690. The department shall adopt the rules and regulations regarding fuel gas equipment and installations in parks which the department determines are reasonably necessary for the protection of life and property and to carry out the purposes of this part. The department shall adopt and submit building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 for the purposes described in this section. The building standards published in the State Building Standards Code and the other rules and regulations adopted by the department shall be applicable to all fuel gas equipment and installations within permanent buildings, except within a park in a city, county, or city and county which has adopted and is enforcing a gas code imposing restrictions equal to or greater than the restrictions imposed by the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code and the other rules and regulations adopted by the department and which city, county, or city and county is the enforcement agency.

SEC. 42. Section 18691 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18691. The department shall adopt rules and regulations which it determines are reasonably consistent with generally recognized fire protection standards, governing conditions relating to the prevention of fire or for the protection of life and property against fire in parks. The department shall adopt and submit building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 for the purposes described in this section within permanent buildings.

The regulations adopted by the department shall be applicable in all parks, except in a park within a city, county, or city and county which has adopted and is enforcing a fire prevention code imposing restrictions equal to or greater than the restrictions imposed by such building standards published in the State Building Standards Code and the other state regulations adopted by the department and which city, county, or city and county is the enforcement agency.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the rules and regulations adopted by the department relating to the installation of water supply and fire hydrant systems shall not apply within parks constructed, or approved for construction, prior to January 1, 1966.

SEC. 43. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 800

An act to amend Section 2960 of, and to add Sections 2930.5 and 2987.3 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to psychologists, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2930.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2930.5. (a) Any psychologist, who as a sole proprietor, or in a partnership, group, or professional corporation, desires to practice under any name that would otherwise be a violation of subdivision (q) of Section 2960 may practice under that name if the proprietor, partnership, group, or corporation obtains and maintains in current status a fictitious-name permit issued by the committee under this section.

(b) The committee shall issue a fictitious-name permit authorizing the holder thereof to use the name specified in the permit in connection with his, her, or its practice if the committee finds to its satisfaction that:

(1) The applicant or applicants or shareholders of the professional corporation hold valid and current licenses and no charges of unprofessional conduct are pending against any such licensed person.

(2) The place, or portion thereof, in which the applicant's or applicants' practice, is owned or leased by the applicant or applicants.

(3) The professional practice of the applicant or applicants is wholly owned and entirely controlled by the applicant or applicants.

(4) The name under which the applicant or applicants propose to practice contains one of the following designations: "psychology group" or "psychology clinic."

(c) Fictitious-name permits issued by the committee shall be subject to Article 7 (commencing with Section 2980) pertaining to renewal of licenses.

(d) The committee may revoke or suspend any permit issued if it finds that the holder or holders of the permit are not in compliance with this section or any regulations adopted pursuant to this section. A proceeding to revoke or suspend a fictitious-name permit shall be conducted in accordance with Section 2965.

(e) The committee may also proceed to revoke the fictitious-name permit of a licensee whose license has been revoked, but no proceeding may be commenced unless and until the charges of unprofessional conduct against the licensee have resulted in revocation of the license.

(f) The committee may delegate to the executive director, or to another official of the board, its authority to review and approve applications for fictitious-name permits and to issue those permits.

SEC. 2. Section 2960 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2960. The committee may order the denial of an application for licensure, or issue a license with terms and conditions, or, as to any licensee, order the suspension for a period not exceeding one year, or the revocation of, or the imposition of probationary conditions upon, a licensee for any of the following causes:

(a) Conviction of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions or duties of a psychologist or psychological assistant.

(b) Use of any controlled substance as defined in Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code, or dangerous drug, or any alcoholic beverage to an extent or in a manner dangerous to himself or herself, any other person, or the public, or to an extent that such use impairs his or her ability to perform the work of a psychologist with safety to the public.

(c) Fraudulently or neglectfully misrepresenting the type or status of license or registration actually held.

(d) Impersonating another person holding a psychology license or allowing another person to use his or her license or registration.

(e) Using fraud or deception in applying for a license or registration or in passing the examination provided for in this chapter.

(f) Accepting commissions or rebates or other forms of remuneration for referring persons to other professionals.

(g) Violating Section 17500.

(h) Willful, unauthorized communication of information received in professional confidence.

(i) Violating any rule of professional conduct promulgated by the committee and set forth in regulations duly adopted under this chapter.

(j) Being grossly negligent in the practice of his or her profession.

(k) Violating any of the provisions of this chapter or regulations duly adopted thereunder.

(l) The aiding or abetting of any person to engage in the unlawful practice of psychology.

(m) The suspension, revocation or imposition of probationary conditions by another state of a license or certificate to practice psychology or as a psychological assistant issued by that state to a person also holding a license or registration issued under this chapter if the act for which the disciplinary action was taken constitutes a violation of this section.

(n) The commission of any dishonest, corrupt, or fraudulent act or any act of sexual abuse, or sexual relations with a patient, or sexual misconduct which is substantially related to the qualifications, functions or duties of a psychologist or psychological assistant.

(o) Functioning outside of his or her particular field or fields of competence as established by his or her education, training, and experience.

(p) Willful failure to submit, on behalf of an applicant for licensure, verification of supervised experience to the committee.

(q) Using any fictitious, false, or assumed name, or any name other than his or her own by a licensee either alone, in conjuction with a partnership or group, or as the name of a professional corporation, in any public communication, advertisement, sign, or announcement of his or her practice without a fictitious-name permit obtained pursuant to Section 2920.5.

SEC. 3. Section 2987.3 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2987.3. The following fees apply to fictitious-name permits issued under Section 2930.5.

(a) The initial permit fee is an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect at the beginning of the current renewal cycle. If the permit will expire less than one year after its issuance, then the initial permit fee is an amount equal to 50 percent of the fee in effect at the beginning of the current renewal cycle.

(b) The biennial renewal fee shall be fixed by the committee at an amount not to exceed fifty dollars ($50). The amount of this fee shall not exceed the actual cost of issuing a fictitious-name permit.

(c) The deliquency fee is twenty dollars ($20).

CHAPTER 801

An act to add Section 8107 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mental health.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8107 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

8107. Any weapon unlawfully possessed pursuant to this chapter shall be subject to disposition pursuant to Sections 12028 and 12032 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 802

An act to add Section 31520.3 to the Government Code, relating to the County Employees Retirement Law of 1937.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31520.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

31520.3. Notwithstanding Section 31520.1, the board of retirement of a county of the 13th class or of the 16th class, as defined by Sections 28020, 28034, and 28037, as amended by Chapter 1204 of the Statutes of 1971, may, by majority vote, appoint, from a list of nominees submitted by an organization consisting solely of retired members, an alternate retired member to the office of the eighth member, who shall serve until the expiration of the current term of the current eighth member and thereafter the alternate retired member shall be elected by the retired members of the association in the same manner and at the same time as the eighth member is elected. The term of office of the alternate retired member shall run concurrently with the term of office of the eighth member. The alternate retired member shall vote as a member of the board only in the event the eighth member is absent from a board meeting for any cause. If there is a vacancy with respect to the eighth member, the alternate retired member shall fill that vacancy until a successor qualifies. The alternate retired member shall be entitled to the same compensation as the eighth member only in the event the alternate retired member is present and acting for the eighth member during the entire meeting. In the event that this section is made applicable in any county, by the appointment of an alternate eighth member, the alternate safety member shall not sit and act for the eighth member.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

An act to amend Sections 44976, 67062, and 67140 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to avocados, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44976 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

44976. The moneys which are received pursuant to this chapter shall be used only for the administration and enforcement of this chapter, including, but not limited to, payments to the county agricultural commissioners and to institutions of scientific research for improving the inspection and certification methods required by this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 67062 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

67062. The state is not liable for the acts of the commission or its contracts, except for state-directed supervision of the avocado inspection program, as specified in Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 44971) of Division 17, which is performed under an agreement that specifies that each of the parties shall be responsible and liable for that party's decisions made pursuant to the agreement, and that each of the parties shall not be held liable for the decisions made pursuant to the agreement by the other party. Payment of all claims arising by reason of the administration of this chapter or acts of the commission shall be limited to the funds collected by the commission. No member of the commission or alternate member, or any employee or agent thereof, shall be personally liable on the contracts of the commission nor shall a commissioner, alternate member, or employee of the commission be responsible individually in any way to any producer or handler or any other person for error in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as principal, agent, or employee, except for his or her own individual acts of dishonesty or crime. No commissioner or alternate member shall be held responsible individually for any act or omission of any member of the commission. The liability of the commissioners shall be several and not joint, and no commissioner shall be liable for the default of any other commissioner.

SEC. 3. Section 67140 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

67140. The commission may recommend to the director the adoption of avocado quality standards or any other activity authorized pursuant to the California Marketing Act of 1937 (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 58601) of Part 2 of Division 21) that is in accordance with the procedures specified in that act, unless otherwise specified in this article.

CHAPTER 804

An act to amend Section 16005 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, and to add Section 4334.5 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to seniors.

[Approved by Governor September 9, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16005 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

16005. Programs which shall be considered for provision by eligible service delivery areas pursuant to the state's implementation of the federal Job Training Partnership Act of 1982 shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) Programs which increase the involvement of the private sector in training older workers, through use of business and industry facilities, equipment, and trainers in preparing older individuals for employment.

(b) Programs which communicate among private sector employers effective methods for training and hiring older workers, including materials suitable for use by small businesses.

(c) Utilization of ridesharing and other transportation alternatives to expand the range of employment opportunities available to older workers.

(d) New approaches to the use of alternate work schedules to expand private sector employment opportunities for older workers. These alternatives might include part-time work, flexible scheduling, or job sharing.

(e) Implementation of programs at the worksite or senior service site which foster sharing of skills, knowledge, and capabilities among seniors and youth.

(f) Projects which involve older workers and youth jointly in employment and training opportunities while also delivering necessary community, human, and personal services.

(g) Programs developing existing resources, such as aging network focal points, which have high involvement of senior citizens as workers, volunteers, and participants, and which foster either of the following:

(1) An increased ability on the part of these programs to train, employ, serve, and provide skills to older persons.

(2) An increase in contact and cooperation between these programs and the private sector.

(h) Programs that train older workers to meet the growing demand for respite care by families caring for frail elderly or disabled adults in the home. "Respite care" for purposes of this subdivision, means intermittent or regularly scheduled substitute care for adults with chronic physical or mental limitations with the primary purpose of relieving the caregivers and helping to support them in their caregiving responsibilities.

(i) On-the-job training vouchers which offset the added costs of hiring and training older workers.

(j) Additional innovative approaches which encourage greater private sector participation in providing employment and training opportunities for older workers and which promote more stable employment for these workers.

(k) Programs fostering coordination with other resources, public and private, enhancing employment and training opportunities for older Californians.

SEC. 2. Section 4334.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

4334.5. The Statewide Resources Consultant, pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 4334, shall do the following:

(a) Develop respite care training materials on or before June 30, 1989, with consultation by other appropriate organizations including the California Association of Homes for the Aging, and under the direction of the director, for distribution to all resource centers established under this chapter.

(b) On or before August 1, 1989, provide the respite care training materials described in subdivision (a) to other appropriate state entities, including the Department of Aging, the State Department of Health Services, and the State Job Training Coordinating Council, for distribution to their respective services and programs.

(c) Pursuant to the requirements of Section 4336, report on the utilization of the respite care training materials, developed pursuant to subdivision (a), by all the resource centers for the period ending December 31, 1990, only, and make recommendations for the future use of these materials.

CHAPTER 805

An act to amend, repeal, and add Section 45 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to child custody.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 45 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

45. (a) An appeal from a judgment freeing a minor who is a dependent child of the juvenile court from parental custody and control shall have precedence over all cases in the court to which an appeal in the matter is taken. In order to make placement of the child permanent and stable and to minimize the anxiety to all parties, the appellate court shall grant an extension of time to a court reporter or to counsel only upon an exceptional showing of good cause.

(b) The Judicial Council shall implement a four-year pilot project in the trial and appellate courts of Orange County to assure that any appeal that is subject to subdivision (a) that is filed on or after January 1, 1989, from a judgment of the Orange County Superior Court is finally determined within 250 days of the filing of the notice of appeal.

(c) This section shall remain operative until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed. However, the Judicial Council shall report to the Legislature on the effectiveness of the pilot project, and that report shall be made no later than April 1, 1993.

SEC. 2. Section 45 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

45. An appeal from a judgment freeing a minor who is a dependent child of the juvenile court from parental custody and control shall have precedence over all cases in the court to which an appeal in the matter is taken. In order to enable the child to be available for adoption as soon as possible and to minimize the anxiety to all parties, the appellate court shall grant an extension of time to a court reporter or to counsel only upon an exceptional showing of good cause.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this act shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

CHAPTER 806

An act to amend Sections 11475.1 and 11476 of, and to add Section 14008.6 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public assistance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11475.1. (a) Each county shall maintain a single organizational unit located in the office of the district attorney which shall have the responsibility for promptly and effectively enforcing child and spousal support obligations and determining paternity in the case of a child born out of wedlock. The district attorney shall take appropriate action, both civil and criminal, to enforce this obligation when the child is receiving public assistance, including Medi-Cal, and when requested to do so by the individual on whose behalf the enforcement efforts will be made when the child is not receiving public assistance, including Medi-Cal. To the extent required by federal law, actions brought by the district attorney to establish or enforce support obligations in all cases, other than paternity cases or those cases involving complex issues, shall be completed within the following time limits: (1) 90 percent of the actions shall be completed within three months from the date of service; (2) 98 percent of the actions shall be completed within six months from the date of service; and (3) 100 percent of the actions shall be completed within 12 months from the date of service. As used in this section, "service" means the service of process required by law for the particular proceeding. This responsibility applies to spousal support only where the spousal support obligation has been reduced to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction. In any action brought for modification or revocation of an order that is being enforced under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, the effective date of the modification or revocation shall be as prescribed by federal law (42 U.S.C. Sec. 666(a)(9)), or any subsequent date. In any action brought or enforcement proceedings instituted by the district attorney pursuant to this section for payment of child or spousal support, an action to recover an arrearage in support payments may be maintained by the district attorney at any time within the period otherwise specified for the enforcement of a support judgment, notwithstanding the fact that the child has attained the age of majority. The county shall undertake an outreach program to inform the public that this service is available to persons not receiving public assistance. There shall be prominently displayed in every public area of every office of the units established by this section a notice, in clear and simple language prescribed by the Director of Social Services, that child and spousal support enforcement services are provided to all individuals whether or not they are recipients of public social services.

In any action for child support brought by the district attorney in the performance of duties under this section, the district attorney may make a motion for an order effective during the pendency of that action, for the support, maintenance, and education of the child or children that are the subject of the action. This order shall be referred to as an order for temporary support. This order shall have the same force and effect as a like or similar order under the Family Law Act (Part 5 (commencing with Section 4000) of Division 4 of the Civil Code).

The district attorney shall file a motion for an order for temporary support within the following time limits:

(1) If the defendant is the mother, a presumed father under subdivision (a) of Section 7004 of the Civil Code, or any father where the child is at least six months old when the defendant files his answer, the time limit is 90 days after the defendant files an answer.

(2) In any other case where the defendant has filed an answer prior to the birth of the child or not more than six months after the birth of the child, then the time limit is nine months after the birth of the child.

If more than one child is the subject of the action, the limitation on reimbursement shall apply only as to those children whose parental relationship and age would bar recovery were a separate action brought for support of that child or those children.

If the district attorney fails to file a motion for an order for temporary support within time limits specified in this section, the district attorney shall be barred from obtaining a judgment of reimbursement for any support provided for that child during the period between the date the time limit expired and the motion was filed, or, if no such motion is filed, when a final judgment is entered.

Nothing in this section prohibits the district attorney from entering into cooperative arrangements with other county departments as necessary to carry out the responsibilities imposed by this section pursuant to plans of cooperation with the departments approved by the State Department of Social Services.

Nothing in this section shall otherwise limit the ability of the district attorney from securing and enforcing orders for support of a spouse or former spouse as authorized under any other provision of law.

As used in this subdivision, "complex issues" means issues arising in the following types of cases: (1) any case which could directly result in a person's incarceration; (2) any case involving the right to jury trial; and (3) any case so deemed by a commissioner, a referee, or a superior court judge.

In counties which operate an expedited process in accordance with Section 640.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure, commissioners and referees shall order a temporary support obligation under the expedited process in complex cases, as defined in this section, prior to referring those cases to the full judicial system.

(b) As used in this article, "enforcing obligations" includes, but is not limited to, (1) the use of all interception and notification systems operated by the State Department of Social Services for the purposes of aiding in the enforcement of support obligations and (2) the obtaining by the district attorney of an initial order for child support, by civil or criminal process, without regard to whether the child is receiving public assistance.

(c) As used in this section "out of wedlock" means that the biological parents of the child were not married to each other at the time of the child's conception.

(d) The district attorney is the public agency responsible for administering wage withholding for the purposes of Title IV-D of the Social Security Act. The district attorney shall seek a wage assignment in any case as soon as the obligor is in arrears in payment in a sum equal to the amount of support payable for one month pursuant to Section 4701 of the Civil Code.

SEC. 2. Section 11476 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11476. It shall be the duty of the county department to refer all cases where a parent is absent from the home, or where the parents are unmarried and parentage has not been determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, to the district attorney immediately at the time the application for public assistance, including Medi-Cal benefits, or certificate of eligibility, is signed by the applicant or recipient. If an applicant is found to be ineligible, the applicant shall be notified in writing that the referral of the case to the district attorney may be terminated at the applicant's request. The county department shall cooperate with the district attorney and shall make available to him or her all pertinent information as provided in Section 11478.

Upon referral from the county department, the district attorney shall investigate the question of nonsupport or paternity and shall take all steps necessary to obtain child support for the needy child, enforce spousal support as part of the state plan under Section 11475.2, and determine paternity in the case of a child born out of wedlock. Upon the advice of the county department that a child is being considered for adoption, the district attorney shall delay the investigation and other actions with respect to the case until advised that the adoption is no longer under consideration. The granting of public assistance or Medi-Cal benefits to an applicant shall not be delayed or contingent upon investigation by the district attorney.

Where a court order has been obtained, any contractual agreement for support between the district attorney or the county department and the noncustodial parent shall be deemed null and void to the extent that it is not consistent with the court order.

Whenever a family which has been receiving public assistance, including Medi-Cal, ceases to receive assistance, including Medi-Cal, the district attorney shall, to the extent required by federal regulations, continue to enforce support payments from the noncustodial parent until such time as the individual on whose behalf the enforcement efforts are made sends written notice to the district attorney requesting that enforcement services be discontinued.

The district attorney shall, where appropriate, utilize reciprocal arrangements adopted with other states in securing support from an absent parent. In individual cases where utilization of reciprocal arrangements has proven ineffective, the district attorney may forward to the Attorney General a request to utilize federal courts in order to obtain or enforce orders for child or spousal support. If reasonable efforts to collect amounts assigned pursuant to Section 11477 have failed, the district attorney may request that the case be forwarded to the Treasury Department for collection in accordance with federal regulations. The Attorney General, where appropriate, shall forward these requests to the Secretary of Health and Human Services, or a designated representative.

SEC. 3. Section 14008.6 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14008.6. As a condition of eligibility for medical services provided under this chapter or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 14200), and to the extent required by federal law, each applicant or beneficiary shall:

(a) Assign to the state any rights to medical support and to payments for medical care from a third party that an individual may have in his of her own behalf or in behalf of any other family member for whom that individual has the legal authority to assign such rights, and is applying for or receiving medical services. Receipt of medical services under this chapter or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 14200) shall operate as an assignment by operation of law. If those rights are assigned pursuant to this subdivision, the assignee may become an assignee of record by the district attorney or other public official filing with the court clerk an affidavit showing that an assignment has been made or that there has been an assignment by operation of law. This procedure does not limit any other means by which the assignee may become an assignee of record.

(b) Cooperate with the county welfare department and the district attorney in establishing the paternity of a child born out of wedlock with respect to whom medical services are requested or claimed, and for whom that individual can legally assign the rights described in subdivision (a), and in obtaining any medical support, as provided in Section 11475.1, and payments, as described in subdivision (a), due any person for whom medical services are requested or obtained.

(c) Cooperate with the state in identifying and providing information to assist the state in pursuing any third party who may be liable to pay for care and services available under the Medi-Cal program.

(d) The State Department of Health Services shall establish an exclusive list of acts, in accordance with federal law, which shall be the only acts deemed to be a refusal to offer reasonable cooperation and assistance. The county welfare department shall verify that the applicant or recipient refused to offer reasonable cooperation prior to determining that the applicant or recipient is ineligible. The granting of medical services shall not be delayed or denied if the applicant is otherwise eligible, if the applicant completes the necessary forms and agrees to cooperate with the district attorney in securing medical support and determining paternity, where applicable.

(e) An applicant or beneficiary shall be considered to be cooperating with the county welfare department or the district attorney's office and shall be eligible for medical services, if otherwise eligible, if the applicant or beneficiary cooperates to the best of his or her ability or has good cause for refusal to cooperate with the requirements in subdivisions (b) and (c). The State Department of Health Services, in accordance with federal law, shall establish standards for determining good cause for refusal to cooperate.

The county welfare department shall insure that all applicants for or beneficiaries of medical services under this chapter or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 14200) are properly notified of the conditions imposed by this section.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to comply with the newly enacted federal requirement that California provide child support enforcement services to all families which are Medi-Cal eligible, it is essential that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 807

An act to amend Section 6981 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to fruit and nut trees, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6981 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

6981. (a) Until April 1, 1989, an annual assessment of one-quarter of 1 percent shall be levied on the gross sales of all pome and stone fruit trees, nut trees, and grapevines, including seedlings and root-stocks, except ornamental varieties, produced and sold within the state or produced within and shipped from the state by any licensed nursery dealer during that dealer's applicable license period. After April 1, 1989, the annual assessment shall increase to 1 percent.

(b) The director may set the assessment at a lower percent to cover the costs necessary to implement and carry out all department programs established pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 5821) of Chapter 8 of Part 1 concerning the registration and certification of pome and stone fruit trees, nut trees, and grapevines; the University of California foundation plant materials service activities concerning pome and stone fruit trees, nut trees, and grapevines; and other activities related to the development of planting materials for pome and stone fruit trees, nut trees, and grapevines.

CHAPTER 808

An act to add Chapter 23 (commencing with Section 22700) to Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to tanning facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 23 (commencing with Section 22700) is added to Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 23. TANNING FACILITIES

22700. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Filante Tanning Facility Act of 1988.

22701. The Legislature finds and declares:

(a) Many physicians and scientists now warn that the risks associated with suntanning are greater when tanning with artificial ultraviolet light.

(b) These risks include, but are not limited to, sunburn, premature aging, skin cancer, retinal damage, formation of cataracts, suppression of the immune system, and damage to the vascular system.

(c) Certain medications, cosmetics, and foods are "photosensitizing," which means that in some people they react unfavorably with ultraviolet light to produce skin rashes or burns.

(d) Sunlamps and other artificial sources of ultraviolet light are known to intensify these effects.

(e) The creation of state law to protect and promote the public health safety, and welfare is needed concerning tanning with artificial ultraviolet light.

22702. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Tanning facility" means any location, place, area, structure, or business which provides persons access to any tanning device.

(b) "Department" means the Department of Consumer Affairs.

(c) "Phototherapy device" means equipment that emits ultraviolet radiation used by a health care professional in the treatment of disease.

(d) "Tanning device" means any equipment that emits electromagnetic radiation with wavelengths in the air between 200 and 400 nanometers used for tanning of the skin, including, but not limited to a sunlamp, tanning booth, or tanning bed. Tanning device also means any accompanying equipment, including, but not limited to, protective eyewear, timers, and handrails.

22703. This chapter does not apply to a phototherapy device used by or under the direct supervision of a licensed physician who is trained in the use of phototherapy devices.

22704. Any tanning device used by a tanning facility shall comply with all applicable federal laws and regulations.

22705. A tanning facility shall give each customer a written statement warning that:

(1) Not wearing the eye protection provided to the customer by the tanning center may cause damage to the eyes.

(2) Over exposure causes burns.

(3) Repeated exposure may cause premature aging of the skin and skin cancer.

(4) Abnormal skin sensitivity or burning may be caused by certain:

(A) Foods.

(B) Cosmetics.

(C) Medications, including, but not limited to, the following:
(i) Tranquilizers.
(ii) Diuretics.
(iii) Antibiotics.
(iv) High blood pressure medicines.
(v) Birth control pills.

(5) Any person taking a prescription or over-the-counter drug should consult a physician before using a tanning device.

(b) A tanning facility shall post a warning sign in any area where a tanning device is used. The sign shall read as follows:

DANGER: ULTRAVIOLET RADIATION

1. Follow instructions.
2. Avoid too frequent or too lengthy exposure. As with natural sunlight, exposure can cause eye and skin injury and allergic reactions. Repeated exposure may cause chronic sun damage characterized by wrinkling, dryness, fragility and bruising of the skin, and skin cancer.
3. Wear protective eyewear.

FAILURE TO USE PROTECTIVE EYEWEAR MAY RESULT IN SEVERE BURNS OR LONG-TERM INJURY TO THE EYES.

4. Ultraviolet radiation from sun lamps will aggravate the effects of the sun. Therefore, do not sunbathe before or after exposure to ultraviolet radiation.
5. Medications or cosmetics may increase your sensitivity to ultraviolet radiation. Consult a physician before using a sunlamp if you are using medications, have a history of skin problems, or believe you are especially sensitive to sunlight. Pregnant women or women on birth control pills who use this product may develop discolored skin.

IF YOU DO NOT TAN IN THE SUN YOU WILL NOT TAN FROM USE OF THIS DEVICE.

(d) A tanning facility shall not claim, or distribute promotional materials that claim, that using a tanning device is safe or free from risk.

(e) The liability of a tanning facility operator or a manufacturer of a tanning device is not changed by giving the warning under this section.

22706. (a) A tanning facility shall:

(1) Have an operator present during operating hours who is sufficiently knowledgeable in the correct operation of the tanning devices used at the facility so that he or she is able to inform and assist each customer in the proper use of the tanning devices.

(2) Before each use of a tanning device, provide each customer with properly sanitized protective eyewear that protects the eye from ultraviolet radiation and allows adequate vision to maintain balance; and not allow a person to use a tanning device if that person does not use the protective eyewear.

(3) Show each customer how to use suitable physical aids, such as handrails and markings on the floor, to maintain proper exposure distance as recommended by the manufacturer.

(4) Use a timer that has an accuracy of plus or minus 10 percent of any selected timer interval.

(5) Limit each customer to the maximum exposure time as recommended by the manufacturer.

(6) Control the interior temperature of a tanning facility so that it does not exceed 100 degrees F.

(b) (1) Every person who uses a tanning facility shall sign a written statement acknowledging that he or she has read and understood the warnings before using the device; and agrees to use the protective eyewear that the tanning facility provides. The statement of acknowledgment shall be retained by the tanning facility until the end of the calendar year at which time each person who is a current customer of the facility shall be required to renew that acknowledgment.

(2) Whenever using a tanning device a person shall use the protective eyewear that the tanning facility provides.

(3) Before any person between the ages of 14 and 18 uses a tanning device, he or she shall give the tanning facility a statement signed by his or her parent or legal guardian stating that the parent or legal guardian has read and understood the warnings given by the tanning facility, consents to the minor's use of a tanning device, and agrees that the minor will use the protective eyewear that the tanning facility provides.

(4) A person under the age of 14 shall be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian when using a tanning device.

22707. If a patron is injured whereupon he or she must seek medical attention, a tanning facility shall do the following:

(a) Report any injury to the department.

(b) Send a copy of the injury report to the person who is injured.

(c) Send a copy of the injury report to the Federal Food and Drug Administration.

22708. A violation of this chapter is a misdemeanor. Each day a violation continues constitutes a separate offense.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 809

An act to add Section 1242 to the Government Code, relating to state employees, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1242 is added to the Government Code, to read:

1242. (a) A state employee, as defined by Section 3513 or employed by the state as provided for in Article VI of the Constitution, may elect to participate in a State Employees' Dependent Care Assistance Program or a Health Care Reimbursement Account, or both, administered by the Department of Personnel Administration, under which program the value thereof, to the extent permissible by Sections 105(b), 129, and 213(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be excluded from gross income, in lieu of his or her compensation and shall be transmitted to the State Employees' Dependent Care Assistance and Health Care Assistance Fund. A participant in the program shall, during enrollment, be subject to the applicable federal statutes and related administrative regulations adopted by the Department of Personnel Administration.

(b) There is in the State Treasury the State Employees' Dependent Care Assistance and Health Care Assistance Fund which is, notwithstanding Section 13340, continuously appropriated without regard to fiscal years to the Department of Personnel Administration for expenditure to implement the State Employees' Dependent Care Assistance Program and the Health Care Reimbursement Account and to pay the related administrative costs. The fund shall consist of the amounts received pursuant to subdivision (a) and amounts appropriated therefor in the annual Budget Act and other statutes.

An act to amend Sections 4830.5 and 4875.6 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to veterinarians.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4830.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4830.5. Whenever any licensee under this chapter has reasonable cause to believe that a dog has been injured or killed through participation in a staged animal fight, as prescribed in Section 597b of the Penal Code, it shall be the duty of the licensee to promptly report the same to the appropriate law enforcement authorities of the county, city, or city and county in which the same occurred.

No licensee shall incur any civil liability as a result of making any report pursuant to this section or as a result of making any report of a violation of Section 596, subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 597, or Section 597b, 597f, 597g, 597n, or 597.5 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 2. Section 4875.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4875.6. (a) If a veterinarian or an unlicensed person desires to administratively contest a civil citation or the proposed assessment of a civil penalty therefor, he or she shall, within 10 business days after service of the citation, notify the executive officer in writing of his or her request for an informal conference with the executive officer or his or her designee. The executive officer or his or her designee shall hold, within 60 days from the receipt of the request, an informal conference. At the conclusion of the informal conference, the executive officer may affirm, modify, or dismiss the citation or proposed assessment of a civil penalty, and he or she shall state with particularity in writing his or her reasons for the action, and shall immediately transmit a copy thereof to the board, the veterinarian or unlicensed person, and the person who submitted the verified complaint. If the veterinarian or unlicensed person desires to administratively contest a decision made after the informal conference, he or she shall inform the executive officer in writing within five business days after he or she receives the decision resulting from the informal conference.

If the veterinarian or unlicensed person fails to notify the executive officer in writing that he or she intends to contest the citation or the proposed assessment of a civil penalty therefor or the decision made after an informal conference within the time specified in this subdivision, the citation or the proposed assessment of a civil penalty or the decision made after an informal conference shall be deemed a final order of the board and shall not be subject to further administrative review.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, where a fine is paid to satisfy an assessment based on the finding of a violation, payment of the fine shall be represented as satisfactory resolution of the matter for purposes of public disclosure.

(b) A veterinarian or an unlicensed person may, in lieu of contesting a citation pursuant to this section, transmit to the board the amount assessed in the citation as a civil penalty, within 10 business days after service of the citation. An unlicensed person may notify the board that he or she wishes to proceed directly to a judicial hearing which may be brought by the board under subdivision (e), without engaging in an informal conference or administrative hearing. If a hearing is not requested pursuant to this section, payment of any fine shall not constitute an admission of the violation charged.

(c) If a veterinarian or an unlicensed person has notified the executive officer within 30 days of the issuance of the assessment or citation that he or she intends to contest the decision made after the informal conference, the executive officer shall arrange a hearing to be held in accordance with Section 11512 of the Government Code. After the hearing, the board and administrative law judge shall issue a decision, based on findings of fact, affirming, modifying, or vacating the citation, or directing other appropriate relief which shall include, but need not be limited to, a notice that the failure of a veterinarian or unlicensed person to comply with any provision of the board's decision constitutes grounds for suspension, or denial of licensure, or both. The proceedings under this section shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the board shall have all the powers granted therein.

(d) After the exhaustion of the review procedures provided for in this section, the board may bring an action in the appropriate court in the county in which the offense occurred to recover the civil penalty and obtain an order compelling the cited person to comply with the order of abatement. In that action, the complaint shall include a certified copy of the final order of the board, together with the factual findings and recommendation of the board's designee. The findings of the board's designee shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein, and in the absence of contrary evidence may serve as the basis for the issuance of the judgment and order.

(e) Failure of a licensee to pay a fine within 30 days of the date of assessment, unless the citation is being appealed, may result in disciplinary action being taken by the board. When a citation is not contested and a fine is not paid, the full amount of the assessed fine shall be added to the fee for renewal of the license. A license shall not be renewed without payment of the renewal fee and fine.

(f) Any civil penalties received under this chapter shall be deposited in the Board of Examiners in Veterinary Medicine Contingent Fund.

CHAPTER 811

An act to amend Section 1170.95 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1170.95 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1170.95. (a) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1 relating to the maximum total of subordinate terms for consecutive offenses which are not "violent felonies," the total of the subordinate terms for consecutive offenses which are all residential burglaries may exceed five years but shall not exceed 10 years.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1, the term of imprisonment may exceed twice the number of years imposed by the trial court as the base term pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170 if the defendant stands convicted of at least two residential burglaries.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1, relating to the maximum total of subordinate terms for consecutive offenses that are not "violent felonies," the total of the subordinate terms for consecutive offenses that are all residential robberies may exceed five years but shall not exceed 10 years.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1, the term of imprisonment may exceed twice the number of years imposed by the trial court as the base term pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170 if the defendant stands convicted of at least two residential robberies.

(e) When a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed pursuant to Sections 669 and 1170 which involves two or more convictions for robbery where it is charged and found that in each of those robberies that the defendant personally used a deadly or dangerous weapon in the commission of that robbery, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 12022, and each of those robberies is not a violent felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, the aggregate term shall be calculated as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 1170.1, except that the subordinate term for each subsequent robbery conviction shall consist of one-third of the middle term of imprisonment and one-third of the enhancement provided in subdivision (b) of Section 12022. Notwithstanding Section 1170.1, the total number of subordinate terms imposed under this subdivision may exceed five years but shall not exceed 10 years.

(f) As used in this section, "residential burglary" means burglary of an inhabited dwelling house or trailer coach, as defined in Section 635 of the Vehicle Code, or the inhabited portion of any other building.

(g) As used in this section, "residential robbery" means a robbery that is perpetrated in an inhabited dwelling house or trailer coach, as defined in Section 635 of the Vehicle Code, or the inhabited portion of any other building.

SEC. 2. Section 1170.95 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1170.95. (a) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1 relating to the maximum total of subordinate terms for consecutive offenses which are not "violent felonies," the total of the subordinate terms for consecutive offenses which are all residential burglaries may exceed five years but shall not exceed 10 years.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1, the term of imprisonment may exceed twice the number of years imposed by the trial court as the base term pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170 if the defendant stands convicted of at least two residential burglaries.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1, relating to the maximum total of subordinate terms for consecutive offenses that are not "violent felonies," the total of the subordinate terms for consecutive offenses that are all residential robberies may exceed five years but shall not exceed 10 years.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1, the term of imprisonment may exceed twice the number of years imposed by the trial court as the base term pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170 if the defendant stands convicted of at least two residential robberies.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1 relating to the maximum total of subordinate terms for consecutive offenses that are not "violent felonies," the total of the subordinate terms for consecutive offenses that are all residential arsons may exceed five years but shall not exceed 10 years.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1, the term of imprisonment may exceed twice the number of years imposed by the trial court as the base term pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170 if the defendant stands convicted of at least two residential arsons.

(g) When a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed pursuant to Sections 669 and 1170 which involves two or more convictions for robbery where it is charged and found that in each of those robberies that the defendant personally used a deadly or dangerous weapon in the commission of that robbery, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 12022, and each of those robberies is not a violent felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, the aggregate term shall be calculated as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 1170.1, except that the subordinate term for each subsequent robbery conviction shall consist of one-third of the middle term of imprisonment and one-third of the enhancement provided in subdivision (b) of Section 12022. Notwithstanding Section 1170.1, the total number of subordinate terms imposed under this subdivision may exceed five years but shall not exceed 10 years.

(h) As used in this section, "residential burglary" means burglary of an inhabited dwelling house or trailer coach, as defined in Section 635 of the Vehicle Code, or the inhabited portion of any other building.

(i) As used in this section, "residential robbery" means a robbery that is perpetrated in an inhabited dwelling house or trailer coach, as defined in Section 635 of the Vehicle Code, or the inhabited portion of any other building.

(j) As used in this section, "residential arson" means arson committed in violation of subdivision (b) of Section 451 where it is charged and proved that the defendant intentionally set fire to or burned or caused the burning of a distinct inhabited structure or a distinct inhabited property in the commission of that offense.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1170.95 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2750. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 1170.95 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2750, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 812

An act to amend Sections 10781, 16421, 20221, 21057, and 21058 of, and to add Section 21068 to, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to animals, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10781 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

10781. The director may adopt regulations to control or eradicate hog cholera, swine brucellosis, pseudorabies, and other swine diseases in any of the following ways:

(a) Through limitations on the movement of swine.

(b) Through the use of hog cholera vaccine, or other biologics.

(c) Through tests or vaccinations.

(d) Any other similar means that he or she finds and determines is necessary.

SEC. 1.5. Section 16421 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

16421. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this part or in subdivision (b), every person that violates this part is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), by imprisonment of not less than 10 days nor more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment. Each violation during any day shall constitute a separate offense.

(b) Every person who violates the following is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), by imprisonment of not less than 10 days nor more than six months, or by both the fine and imprisonment. Each violation during any day shall constitute a separate offense:

(1) Article 1 (commencing with Section 16501) of Chapter 3.

(2) Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16801).

(3) Article 5 (commencing with Section 17121) of Chapter 7.

(4) Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 17150).

SEC. 2. Section 20221 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

20221. Every person that violates this division is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment of not less than 10 days nor more than one year, or by both that fine and imprisonment. Each violation during any day constitutes a separate offense.

SEC. 3. Section 21057 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

21057. Except as provided in Section 21206, inspection is not required prior to slaughter at a licensed slaughterhouse when the cattle are being shipped direct from one of the following:

(a) A registered feedlot in this state.

(b) A public salesyard or cattle sales market in this state that is licensed pursuant to Section 21733 or posted by the United States Department of Agriculture under the Packers and Stockyards Act of 1921 (7 U.S.C. Sec. 181 et seq.).

(c) Out-of-state when accompanied by proper documents.

SEC. 4. Section 21058 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

21058. All cattle shipped pursuant to Section 21057 shall be accompanied by one of the following:

(b) A saleyard invoice meeting the requirements of Sections 21744 and 21745.

(c) A certificate of consignment on an approved form giving the date of sale, the loading point, the name and address of the owner or consignor or both, the destination, the number of animals, the certificate number on which the animals were inspected into the feedlot, the lot number, if any, the name and address of the buyer, the name of the transporter or carrier and the license number of the vehicle used to transport the animals, and the signature of the owner or his or her authorized agent.

(d) A brand inspection certificate or, for states with no inspection, a bill of sale or health certificate.

SEC. 5. Section 21068 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

21068. (a) The director may issue a special permit to allow cattle to be transported out-of-state directly for immediate slaughter only, without the brand inspection required pursuant to this article, if all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The cattle were previously inspected in a registered feedlot.

(2) The cattle are transported to a licensed slaughterer.

(3) The cattle are accompanied by a permit document issued by the director.

(b) The director may charge a fee to cover the costs of issuing or renewing an annual permit. The fee may not exceed one hundred dollars ($100).

(c) The director may, at any time, revoke the permit and require a brand inspection if the director determines that this action is necessary to enforce this division.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 813

An act to amend Section 26463 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to AIDS.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26463 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

26463. It is unlawful for any person to advertise any drug or device represented to have any effect in any of the following conditions, disorders, or diseases:

(a) Appendicitis.

(b) Blood disorders.

(c) Bone or joint diseases.

(d) Kidney disease or disorders.

(e) Cancer.

(f) Carbuncles.

(g) Disease, disorder, or condition of the eye.

(h) Diabetes.

(i) Diphtheria.
(j) Gall bladder disease or disorder.
(k) Heart and vascular diseases.
(l) High blood pressure.
(m) Diseases or disorders of the ear or auditory apparatus, including hearing loss and deafness.
(n) Measles.
(o) Meningitis.
(p) Mental disease or mental retardation.
(q) Paralysis.
(r) Pneumonia.
(s) Poliomyelitis.
(t) Prostate gland disorders.
(u) Conditions of the scalp, affecting hair loss, or baldness.
(v) Alcoholism.
(w) Peridontal diseases.
(x) Epilepsy.
(y) Goiter.
(z) Endocrine disorders.
(aa) Sexual impotence.
(ab) Sinus infection.
(ac) Encephalitis.
(ad) Tumors.
(ae) Venereal disease.
(af) Tuberculosis.
(ag) Ulcers of the stomach.
(ah) Varicose ulcers.
(ai) Scarlet fever.
(aj) Typhoid fever.
(ak) Whooping cough.
(al) Acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS).
(am) AIDS-related complex (ARC).
(an) Diseases, disorders, or conditions of the immune system.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 814

An act to amend Section 72247 of, and to add Section 72247.1 to, the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 72247 of the Education Code is amended to read:

72247. (a) The governing board of a community college district may require of students in attendance in grades 13 and 14 and employees of the district, the payment of a fee, in an amount not to exceed forty dollars ($40) per semester and twenty dollars ($20) per intersession to be fixed by the board, for parking services.

To encourage ridesharing and carpooling, for a student who certifies, in accordance with procedures fixed by the board, that he or she regularly has two or more passengers commuting to the community college with him or her in the vehicle parked at the community college, the fee shall not exceed thirty dollars ($30) per semester and ten dollars ($10) per intersession.

The fee shall only be required of students and employees using parking services. Students who receive financial assistance pursuant to any of the programs described in subdivision (g) of Section 72252 shall be exempt from parking fees in excess of twenty dollars ($20) per semester.

(b) The governing board of a community college district may also require the payment of a fee, to be fixed by the governing board, for the use of parking services by persons other than students and employees.

(c) All parking fees collected shall be deposited in the designated fund of the district in accordance with the California Community Colleges Budget and Accounting Manual and shall be expended only for parking services or for purposes of reducing the costs to students and employees of the college of using public transportation to and from the college.

Fees collected for use of parking services provided for by investment of student body funds under the authority of Section 76064 shall be deposited in a designated fund in accordance with the California Community Colleges Budget and Accounting Manual for repayment to the student organization.

"Parking services," as used in this section, means the purchase, construction, and operation and maintenance of parking facilities for vehicles and motor vehicles as defined by Sections 415 and 670 of the Vehicle Code, and the reduction of costs to students and employees of using public transportation to and from the college.

In no event may the fee required pursuant to this section exceed the actual cost of providing parking services.

SEC. 2. Section 72247.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

72247.1. Notwithstanding Section 72247, and except as otherwise provided in Section 72247.5, no community college district shall increase its parking fees above forty dollars ($40) per year to an amount within an authorized level pursuant to Section 72247 until the board of trustees of the community college district has made sufficient findings that a fee increase is necessary. The findings shall be based, at a minimum, on all of the following:

(a) A community college's ability to adequately finance its parking program.

(b) A demonstration that the community college has exhaustively explored all other options for financing the parking program, including entering into arrangements with local governments.

(c) A demonstration that the community college actively promotes modes of public transportation.

CHAPTER 815

An act to amend Section 38370 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 38370 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

38370. (a) The Department of Motor Vehicles shall not identify any new off-highway motor vehicle, which is subject to identification and which produces a maximum noise level that exceeds the following noise limit, at a distance of 50 feet from the centerline of travel, under test procedures established by the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

(1) Any such vehicle manufactured before January 1, 1973	92 dbA
(2) Any such vehicle manufactured on or after January 1, 1973, and before January 1, 1975	88 dbA
(3) Any such vehicle manufactured on or after January 1, 1975, and before January 1, 1986	86 dbA
(4) Any such vehicle manufactured on or after January 1, 1986	82 dbA

(b) The department may accept a dealer's certificate as proof of compliance with this section.

(c) Test procedures for compliance with this section shall be established by the Department of the California Highway Patrol, taking into consideration the test procedures of the Society of Automotive Engineers.

(d) No person shall sell or offer for sale any new off-highway motor vehicle which is subject to identification and which produces a maximum noise level that exceeds the noise limits in subdivision (a), and for which noise emission standards or regulations have not been adopted by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the Federal Noise Control Act of 1972 (P.L. 92-574).

(e) No person shall sell or offer for sale any new off-highway motor vehicle which is subject to identification and which produces a noise level that exceeds, or in any way violates, the noise emission standards or regulations adopted for such a motor vehicle by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the Federal Noise Control Act of 1972 (P.L. 92-574).

(f) As used in this section, the term "identify" is equivalent to the term "licensing" as used in Section 6(e)(2) of the Federal Noise Control Act of 1972 (P.L. 92-574).

(g) Any off-highway motor vehicle, when operating pursuant to Section 38001, shall at all times be equipped with a silencer, or other device, which limits noise emissions to not more than 101 dbA if manufactured on or after January 1, 1975, or 105 dbA if manufactured before January 1, 1975, when measured from a distance of 20 inches using test procedures established by the Society of Automotive Engineers under Standard J-1287, as revised January 1988.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 816

An act to amend Sections 241 and 243 of, and to repeal Section 243.6 of, the Penal Code, relating to assault and battery.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 241 of the Penal Code, as amended by Chapter 160 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

241. (a) An assault is punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) When an assault is committed against the person of a peace officer, firefighter, emergency medical technician, mobile intensive care paramedic, lifeguard, process server, traffic officer, or animal control officer engaged in the performance of his or her duties, or a physician or nurse engaged in rendering emergency medical care outside a hospital, clinic, or other health care facility, and the person committing the offense knows or reasonably should know that the victim is a peace officer, firefighter, emergency medical technician, mobile intensive care paramedic, lifeguard, process server, traffic officer, or animal control officer engaged in the performance of his or her duties, or a physician or nurse engaged in rendering emergency medical care, the assault is punishable by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(c) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(1) Peace officer means any person defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2.

(2) "Emergency medical technician" means a person possessing a valid course completion certificate from a program approved by the State Department of Health Services for the medical training and education of ambulance personnel, and who meets the standards of Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 1797) of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) "Mobile intensive care paramedic" refers to those persons who meet the standards set forth in Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 1797) of the Health and Safety Code.

(4) "Nurse" means a person who meets the standards of Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 1797) of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) "Lifeguard" means a person who is:

(A) Employed as a lifeguard by the state, a county, or a city, and is designated by local ordinance as a public officer who has a duty and responsibility to enforce local ordinances and misdemeanors through the issuance of citations.

(B) Wearing distinctive clothing which includes written identification of the person's status as a lifeguard and which clearly identifies the employing organization.

(6) "Process server" means any person who meets the standards or is expressly exempt from the standards set forth in Section 22350 of the Business and Professions Code.

(7) "Traffic officer" means any person employed by a county or city to monitor and enforce state laws and local ordinances relating to parking and the operation of vehicles.

(8) "Animal control officer" means any person employed by a county or city for purposes of enforcing animal control laws or regulations.

SEC. 2. Section 243 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

243. (a) A battery is punishable by a fine of not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(b) When a battery is committed against the person of a peace officer, custodial officer, firefighter, emergency medical technician, mobile intensive care paramedic, lifeguard, process server, traffic officer, or animal control officer engaged in the performance of his or her duties, whether on or off duty, including when the peace officer is in a police uniform and is concurrently performing the duties required of him or her as a peace officer while also employed in a private capacity as a part-time or casual private security guard or patrolman, or a physician or nurse engaged in rendering emergency medical care outside a hospital, clinic, or other health care facility, and the person committing the offense knows or reasonably should know that the victim is a peace officer, custodial officer, firefighter, emergency medical technician, mobile intensive care paramedic, lifeguard, process server, traffic officer, or animal control officer engaged in the performance of his or her duties, or a physician or nurse engaged in rendering emergency medical care, the battery is punishable by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(c) When a battery is committed against a peace officer, custodial officer, firefighter, emergency medical technician, mobile intensive care paramedic, lifeguard, process server, traffic officer, or animal control officer engaged in the performance of his or her duties, whether on or off duty, including when the peace officer is in a police uniform and is concurrently performing the duties required of him or her as a peace officer while also employed in a private capacity as a part-time or casual private security guard or patrolman, or a physician or nurse engaged in rendering emergency medical care outside a hospital, clinic, or other health care facility, and the person committing the offense knows or reasonably should know that the victim is a peace officer, custodial officer, firefighter, emergency medical technician, mobile intensive care paramedic, lifeguard, process server, traffic officer, or animal control officer engaged in the performance of his or her duties, or a physician or nurse engaged in rendering emergency medical care, and an injury is inflicted on that victim, the battery is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

(d) When a battery is committed against any person and serious bodily injury is inflicted on the person, the battery is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than one year or imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years.

(e) As used in this section:

(1) "Peace officer" means any person defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2.

(2) "Emergency medical technician" means a person possessing a valid course completion certificate from a program approved by the State Department of Health Services for the medical training and education of ambulance personnel, and who meets the standards of Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 1797) of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) "Mobile intensive care paramedic" means any person who meets the standards set forth in Section 1797.84 of, and Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 1797) of, the Health and Safety Code.

(4) "Nurse" means a person who meets the standards of Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 1797) of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) "Serious bodily injury" means a serious impairment of physical condition, including, but not limited to, the following: loss of consciousness; concussion; bone fracture; protracted loss or impairment of function of any bodily member or organ; a wound requiring extensive suturing; and serious disfigurement.

(6) "Injury" means any physical injury which requires professional medical treatment.

(7) "Custodial officer" means any person who has the responsibilities and duties described in Section 831 and who is employed by a law enforcement agency of any city or county or who performs those duties as a volunteer.

(8) "Lifeguard" means a person defined in paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 241.

(9) "Traffic officer" means any person employed by a city, county, or city and county, to monitor and enforce state laws and local ordinances relating to parking and the operation of vehicles.

(10) "Animal control officer" means any person employed by a city, county, or city and county for purposes of enforcing animal control laws or regulations.

It is the intent of the Legislature by amendments to this section at the 1981–82 and 1983–84 Regular Sessions to abrogate the holdings in cases such as People v. Corey, 21 Cal. 3d 738, and Cervantez v. J.C. Penney Co., 24 Cal. 3d 579, and to reinstate prior judicial interpretations of this section as they relate to criminal sanctions for battery on peace officers who are employed, on a part-time or casual basis, while wearing a police uniform as private security guards or patrolmen and to allow the exercise of peace officer powers concurrently with that employment.

SEC. 3. Section 243.6 of the Penal Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 817

An act to amend Section 8726 of, and to add Section 8726.2 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to surveying.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8726 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8726. A person, including any person employed by the state or by a city, county, or city and county within the state, practices land surveying within the meaning of this chapter who, either in a public or private capacity, does or offers to do any one or more of the following:

(a) Locates, relocates, establishes, reestablishes, or retraces the alignment or elevation for any of the fixed works embraced within the practice of civil engineering, as described in Section 6731.

(b) Determines the configuration or contour of the earth's surface, or the position of fixed objects thereon or related thereto, by means of measuring lines and angles, and applying the principles of trigonometry or photogrammetry.

(c) Locates, relocates, establishes, reestablishes, or retraces any property line or boundary of any parcel of land, right-of-way, easement, or alignment of those lines or boundaries.

(d) Makes any survey for the subdivision or resubdivision of any tract of land. For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "subdivision" or "resubdivision" shall be defined to include, but not limited to, the definition in the Subdivision Map Act (Division 2 (commencing with Section 66410) of Title 7 of the Government Code) or the Subdivided Lands Law (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 11000) of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code).

(e) By the use of the principles of land surveying determines the position for any monument or reference point which marks a property line, boundary, or corner, or sets, resets, or replaces any such monument or reference point.

(f) Geodetic or cadastral surveying.

(g) Determines the information shown or to be shown on any map or document prepared or furnished in connection with any one or more of the functions described in subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f).

(h) Indicates, in any capacity or in any manner, by the use of the title "land surveyor" or by any other title or by any other representation that he or she practices or offers to practice land surveying in any of its branches.

(i) Procures or offers to procure land surveying work for himself, herself, or others.

(j) Manages, or conducts as manager, proprietor, or agent, any place of business from which land surveying work is solicited, performed, or practiced.

(k) Coordination of the work of professional, technical, or special consultants in connection with the activities authorized by this chapter.

(l) Determines the information shown or to be shown within the description of any deed, trust deed, or other title document prepared for the purpose of describing the limit of real property in connection with any one or more of the functions described in subdivisions (a) to (f), inclusive.

Any department or agency of the state or any city, county, or city and county which has an unregistered person in responsible charge of land surveying work on the effective date of the amendments made to this section at the 1984–85 Regular Session of the Legislature shall be exempt from the requirement that the person be licensed as a land surveyor until such time as the person currently in responsible charge is replaced.

The review, approval, or examination by a governmental entity of documents prepared or performed pursuant to this section shall be done by, or under the direct supervision of, a person authorized to practice land surveying.

SEC. 2. Section 8726.2 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

8726.2. A licensed land surveyor may also perform land planning in connection with the land surveying activities authorized by this chapter.

SEC. 3. Nothing contained in this act is intended to restrict the ability of a local agency to use nonlicensed persons to perform administrative or business activities related to land surveying.

SEC. 4. The amendment in Section 1 of this act is declaratory of existing law and is not intended to restrict the scope of practice of registered professional engineers within their respective scope of practice.

SEC. 5. The amendment in Section 1 of this act is declaratory of existing law and is not intended to restrict the practice of persons licensed to practice law in California, nor is it intended to be applicable to persons licensed pursuant to Part 6 (commencing with Section 12340) of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, nor to persons licensed pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 10000) of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code, so long as those persons engage in the respective practice of their profession, but who may coordinate work pursuant to subdivision (k) of Section 8726 of the Business and Professions Code.

An act to add Sections 17540.14, 17540.15, and 17540.16 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to travel promoters.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17540.14 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

17540.14. "Travel certificate," as used in this article, means a writing that represents the holder is entitled to air or sea transportation or lodging, to a discount or reduced price for that transportation or lodging, or to purchase that transportation or lodging from a specified source, whether or not the holder is required to pay additional money or fulfill any requirements in order to utilize the certificate.

SEC. 2. Section 17540.15 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

17540.15. (a) Not less than 10 days prior to doing business in this state, a travel promoter shall register with the office of the Attorney General by filing with the Consumer Law Section the information required by Section 17540.16 and a filing fee of fifty dollars ($50). A travel promoter shall be deemed to do business in this state if the travel promoter solicits prospective purchasers from locations in this state or solicits prospective purchasers who are located in this state.

(b) Registration shall be valid for one year from the effective date thereof and may be annually renewed by making the filing required by Section 17540.16 and paying a filing fee of fifty dollars ($50).

(c) Whenever, prior to expiration of a travel promoter's annual registration, there is a material change in the information required by Section 17540.16, the travel promoter shall, within 10 days, file an addendum updating the information with the Consumer Law Section of the office of the Attorney General.

SEC. 3. Section 17540.16 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

17540.16. Each filing pursuant to Section 17540.15 shall contain the following information:

(a) The name or names of the travel promoter, including the name under which the travel promoter is doing or intends to do business, if different from the name of the travel promoter.

(b) The travel promoter's business form and place of organization and, if operating under a fictitious business name, the location where the fictitious name has been registered.

(c) The complete street address or addresses of all locations from which the travel promoter will be conducting business, including, but not limited to, locations at which telephone calls will be received from, or made to, prospective purchasers. The statement shall designate which location is the principal place of business.

(d) The complete business and residential address, the driver's license number and state of issuance, and the date of birth of each owner and principal of the travel promoter. "Owner" means a person who owns or controls 10 percent or more of the equity of, or otherwise has claim to 10 percent or more of the net income of, a travel promoter. "Principal" means an owner, an officer of a corporation, a general partner of a partnership, or a sole proprietor of a sole proprietorship.

(e) A statement as to whether any owner or principal has had entered against him or her a final judgment or order in a civil or administrative action, including a stipulated judgment or order, if the complaint or petition in the civil or administrative action alleged acts constituting a violation of this article, or alleged acts which would constitute acting as a travel promoter, as defined in Section 17540.1. The statement shall identify the person, the court or administrative agency rendering the judgment or order, the docket number of the matter, and the date of the judgment or order.

(f) A copy of the travel certificates, if any, which are or will be sold, marketed, or distributed to any person or entity by the travel promoter.

(g) The location and number of all trust accounts required by Section 17540.10 to be maintained by the travel promoter or, if a bond is maintained in lieu of the trust account as provided by Section 17540.10, a copy of that bond.

(h) A statement signed by each owner and principal granting permission to the office of the Attorney General to obtain from any bank or savings and loan association at which any trust account required by Section 17540.10 is maintained information relating to that trust account.

The information required by this section shall be verified by a declaration signed by each owner and principal of the travel promoter under penalty of perjury. The declaration shall specify the date and location of signing.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 819

An act to amend Sections 1740, 1742, 1744, 1745, and 1745.5 of the Civil Code, relating to fine art.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1740 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1740. As used in this title:

(a) "Fine art multiple" or "multiple" for the purposes of this title means any fine print, photograph (positive or negative), sculpture cast, collage, or similar art object produced in more than one copy. Pages or sheets taken from books and magazines and offered for sale or sold as art objects shall be included, but books and magazines shall be excluded.

(b) "Fine print" or "print" means a multiple produced by, but not limited to, engraving, etching, woodcutting, lithography, and serigraphy, and means multiples produced or developed from photographic negatives, or any combination thereof.

(c) "Master" is used in lieu of and has the same meaning as a printing plate, stone, block, screen, photographic negative, or mold or other process as to a sculpture, which contains an image used to produce fine art objects in multiples.

(d) "Artist" means the person who created the image which is contained in, or constitutes, the master or conceived of, and approved the image which is contained in, or constitutes, the master.

(e) Whether a multiple is "signed" or "unsigned" as these terms are used in this title relating to prints and photographs, depends upon whether or not the multiple was autographed by the artist's own hand, and not by mechanical means, after the multiple was produced, irrespective of whether it was signed or unsigned in the plate.

(f) "Impression" means each individual fine art multiple made by printing, stamping, casting, or any other process.

(g) "Art dealer" means a person who is in the business of dealing, exclusively or nonexclusively, in the fine art multiples to which this title is applicable, or a person who by his or her occupation holds himself or herself out as having knowledge or skill peculiar to these works, or to whom that knowledge or skill may be attributed by his or her employment of an agent or other intermediary who by his or her occupation holds himself or herself out as having that knowledge or skill. The term "art dealer" includes an auctioneer who sells such works at public auction, but excludes persons, not otherwise defined or treated as art dealers herein, who are consignors or principals of auctioneers.

(h) "Limited edition" means fine art multiples produced from a master, all of which are the same image and bear numbers or other markings to denote the limited production thereof to a stated maximum number of multiples, or are otherwise held out as limited to a maximum number of multiples.

(i) "Proofs" means multiples which are the same as, and which are produced from the same master as, the multiples in a limited edition, but which, whether so designated or not, are set aside from and are in addition to the limited edition to which they relate.

(j) "Certificate of authenticity" means a written or printed description of the multiple which is to be sold, exchanged, or consigned by an art dealer. Every certificate shall contain the following statement:

"This is to certify that all information and the statements contained herein are true and correct."

(k) "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other entity, however organized.

SEC. 2. Section 1742 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1742. (a) An art dealer shall not sell or consign a multiple into or from this state unless a certificate of authenticity is furnished to the purchaser or consignee, at his or her request, or in any event prior to a sale or consignment, which sets forth as to each multiple, the descriptive information required by Section 1744 for any period. If a prospective purchaser so requests, the certificate shall be transmitted to him or her prior to the payment or placing of an order for a multiple. If payment is made by a purchaser prior to delivery of such a multiple, this certificate shall be supplied at the time of or prior to delivery. With respect to auctions, this information may be furnished in catalogues or other written materials which are made readily available for consultation and purchase prior to sale, provided that a bill of sale, receipt, or invoice describing the transaction is then provided which makes reference to the catalogue and lot number in which this information is supplied. Information supplied pursuant to this subdivision shall be clearly, specifically and distinctly addressed to each of the items listed in Section 1744 unless the required data is not applicable. This section is applicable to transactions by and between art dealers and others considered to be art dealers for the purposes of this title.

(b) An art dealer shall not cause a catalogue, prospectus, flyer, or other written material or advertisement to be distributed in, into, or from this state which solicits a direct sale, by inviting transmittal of payment for a specific multiple, unless it clearly sets forth, in close physical proximity to the place in such material where the multiple is described, the descriptive information required by Section 1744 for any time period. In lieu of this required information, the written material or advertising may set forth the material contained in the following quoted passage, or the passage itself, if the art dealer then supplies the required information prior to or with delivery of the multiple. The nonobservance of the terms within the following passage shall constitute a violation of this title:

"California law provides for disclosure in writing of information concerning certain fine prints, photographs, and sculptures prior to effecting a sale of them. This law requires disclosure of such matters as the identity of the artist, the artist's signature, the medium, whether the multiple is a reproduction, the time when the multiple was produced, use of the plate which produced the multiple, and the number of multiples in a "limited edition." If a prospective purchaser so requests, the information shall be transmitted to him or her prior to payment, or the placing of an order for a multiple. If payment is made by a purchaser prior to delivery of the multiple, this information will be supplied at the time of or prior to delivery, in which case the purchaser is entitled to a refund if, for reasons related to matter contained in such information, he or she returns the multiple in the condition in which received, within 30 days of receiving it. In addition, if after payment and delivery, it is ascertained that the information provided is incorrect, the purchaser may be entitled to certain remedies, including refund upon return of the multiple in the condition in which received."

This requirement is not applicable to general written material or advertising which does not constitute an offer to effect a specific sale.

(c) In each place of business in the state where an art dealer is regularly engaged in sales of multiples, the art dealer shall post in a conspicuous place, a sign which, in a legible format, contains the information included in the following passage:

"California law provides for the disclosure in writing of certain information concerning prints, photographs, and sculpture casts. This information is available to you, and you may request to receive it prior to purchase."

(d) If an art dealer offering multiples by means of a catalogue, prospectus, flyer or other written material or advertisement distributed in, into or from this state disclaims knowledge as to any relevant detail referred to in Section 1744, he or she shall so state specifically and categorically with regard to each such detail to the end that the purchaser shall be enabled to judge the degree of uniqueness or scarcity of each multiple contained in the edition so offered. Describing the edition as an edition of "reproductions" eliminates the need to furnish further informational details unless the edition was allegedly published in a signed, numbered, or limited edition, or any combination thereof, in which case all of the informational details are required to be furnished.

(e) Whenever an artist sells or consigns a multiple of his or her own creation or conception, the artist shall disclose the information required by Section 1744, but an artist shall not otherwise be regarded as an art dealer.

SEC. 3. Section 1744 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1744. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (c), (d), (e), and otherwise in this title, a certificate of authenticity containing the following informational details shall be required to be supplied in all transactions covered by subdivisions (a), (b), and (e) of Section 1742:

(1) The name of the artist.

(2) If the artist's name appears on the multiple, a statement whether the multiple was signed by the artist.

If the multiple was not signed by the artist, a statement of the source of the artist's name on the multiple, such as whether the artist placed his signature on the multiple or on the master, whether his name was stamped or estate stamped on the multiple or on the master, or was from some other source or in some other manner placed on the multiple or on the master.

(4) If the multiple or the image on or in the master constitutes, as to prints and photographs, a photomechanical or photographic type of reproduction, or as to sculptures a surmoulage or other form of reproduction of sculpture cases, of an image produced in a different medium, for a purpose other than the creation of the multiple being described, a statement of this information and the respective mediums.

(5) If paragraph (4) is applicable, and the multiple is not signed, a statement whether the artist authorized or approved in writing the multiple or the edition of which the multiple being described is one.

(6) If the purported artist was deceased at the time the master was made which produced the multiple, this shall be stated.

(7) If the multiple is a "posthumous" multiple, that is, if the master was created during the life of the artist but the multiple was produced after the artist's death, this shall be stated.

(8) If the multiple was made from a master which produced a prior limited edition, or from a master which constitutes or was made from a reproduction or surmoulage of a prior multiple or the master which produced the prior limited edition, this shall be stated as shall the total number of multiples, including proofs, of all other editions produced from that master.

(9) As to multiples produced after 1949, the year, or approximate year, the multiple was produced shall be stated. As to multiples produced prior to 1950, state the year, approximate year or period when the master was made which produced the multiple and when the particular multiple being described was produced. The requirements of this subdivision shall be satisfied when the year stated is approximately accurate.

(10) Whether the edition is being offered as a limited edition, and if so: (i) the authorized maximum number of signed or numbered impressions, or both, in the edition; (ii) the authorized maximum number of unsigned or unnumbered impressions, or both, in the edition; (iii) the authorized maximum number of artist's, publisher's or other proofs, if any, outside of the regular edition; and (iv) the total size of the edition.

(11) Whether or not the master has been destroyed, effaced, altered, defaced, or canceled after the current edition.

(b) If the multiple is part of a limited edition, and was printed after January 1, 1983, the statement of the size of the limited edition, as stated pursuant to paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) of Section 1744 shall also constitute an express warranty that no additional multiples of the same image, including proofs, have been produced in this or in any other limited edition.

(c) If the multiple was produced in the period from 1950 to the effective date of this section, the information required to be supplied need not include the information required by paragraphs (5) and (8) of subdivision (a).

(d) If the multiple was produced in the period from 1900 to 1949, the information required to be supplied need only consist of the information required by paragraphs (1), (2), (3), and (9) of subdivision (a).

(e) If the multiple was produced before the year 1900, the information to be supplied need only consist of the information required by paragraphs (1), (3), and (9) of subdivision (a).

SEC. 4. Section 1745 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1745. (a) An art dealer, including a dealer consignee, who offers or sells a multiple in, into or from this state without providing the certificate of authenticity required in Sections 1742 and 1744 of this title for any time period, or who provides information which is mistaken, erroneous or untrue, except for harmless errors, such as typographical errors, shall be liable to the purchaser of the multiple. The art dealer's liability shall consist of the consideration paid by the purchaser for the multiple, with interest at the legal rate thereon, upon the return of the multiple in the condition in which received by the purchaser.

(b) In any case in which an art dealer, including a dealer consignee, willfully offers or sells a multiple in violation of this title, the person purchasing such multiple may recover from the art dealer, including a dealer consignee, who offers or sells such multiple an amount equal to three times the amount required under subdivision (a).

(c) No action shall be maintained to enforce any liability under this section unless brought within one year after discovery of the violation upon which it is based and in no event more than three years after the multiple was sold.

(d) In any action to enforce any provision of this title, the court may allow the prevailing purchaser the costs of the action together with reasonable attorneys' and expert witnesses' fees. In the event, however, the court determines that an action to enforce was brought in bad faith, it may allow such expenses to the seller as it deems appropriate.

(e) These remedies shall not bar or be deemed inconsistent with a claim for damages or with the exercise of additional remedies otherwise available to the purchaser.

(f) In any proceeding in which an art dealer relies upon a disclaimer of knowledge as to any relevant information set forth in Section 1744 for any time period, such disclaimer shall be effective unless the claimant is able to establish that the art dealer failed to make reasonable inquiries, according to the custom and usage of the trade, to ascertain the relevant information or that such relevant information would have been ascertained as a result of such reasonable inquiries.

SEC. 5. Section 1745.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1745.5. (a) Any person performing or proposing to perform an act in violation of this title within this state may be enjoined in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Actions for injunction pursuant to this title may be prosecuted by the following persons:

(1) The Attorney General.

(2) Any district attorney.

(3) Any city attorney.

(4) With the consent of the district attorney, a city prosecutor in any city or city and county having a full-time city prosecutor in the name of the people of the State of California upon their own complaint, or upon the complaint of any board, officer, person, corporation, or association.

(5) Any person acting in his or her own interests, or in the interests of the members of a corporation or association, or in the interests of the general public.

(c) Any person who violates any provision of this title may also be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation, which may be assessed and recovered in a civil action brought in the name of the people of the State of California by the Attorney General or by any district attorney or any city attorney, and, with the consent of the district attorney, by a city prosecutor in any city or city and county having a full-time city prosecutor in any court of competent jurisdiction.

If the action is brought by the Attorney General, one-half of the penalty collected shall be paid to the treasurer of the county in which the judgment was entered, and one-half to the General Fund. If brought by a district attorney, the penalty collected shall be paid to the treasurer of the county in which the judgment was entered. If brought by a city attorney or city prosecutor, one-half of the penalty collected shall be paid to the treasurer of the city in which the judgment was entered, and one-half to the treasurer of the county in which the judgment was entered.

(d) Any person who violates any provision of this title may also be liable for a civil penalty surcharge not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation which shall be assessed and recovered in the manner provided in subdivision (c). Any penalty surcharge collected shall be applied to the costs of enforcing this title by the prosecuting officer.

CHAPTER 820

An act to amend Section 66801 of the Government Code, relating to the Tahoe Regional Planning Compact.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66801 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66801. The provisions of this interstate compact executed between the States of Nevada and California are as follows:

TAHOE REGIONAL PLANNING COMPACT

ARTICLE I. FINDINGS AND DECLARATIONS OF POLICY

(a) It is found and declared that:

(1) The waters of Lake Tahoe and other resources of the region are threatened with deterioration or degeneration, which endangers the natural beauty and economic productivity of the region.

(2) The public and private interests and investments in the region are substantial.

(3) The region exhibits unique environmental and ecological values which are irreplaceable.

(4) By virtue of the special conditions and circumstances of the region's natural ecology, developmental pattern, population distribution and human needs, the region is experiencing problems of resource use and deficiencies of environmental control.

(5) Increasing urbanization is threatening the ecological values of the region and threatening the public opportunities for use of the public lands.

(6) Maintenance of the social and economic health of the region depends on maintaining the significant scenic, recreational, educational, scientific, natural and public health values provided by the Lake Tahoe Basin.

(7) There is a public interest in protecting, preserving and enhancing these values for the residents of the region and for visitors to the region.

(8) Responsibilities for providing recreational and scientific opportunities, preserving scenic and natural areas, and safeguarding the public who live, work and play in or visit the region are divided among local governments, regional agencies, the States of California and Nevada, and the federal government.

(9) In recognition of the public investment and multistate and national significance of the recreational values, the federal government has an interest in the acquisition of recreational property and the management of resources in the region to preserve environmental and recreational values, and the federal government should assist the states in fulfilling their responsibilities.

(10) In order to preserve the scenic beauty and outdoor recreational opportunities of the region, there is a need to insure an equilibrium between the region's natural endowment and its manmade environment.

(b) In order to enhance the efficiency and governmental effectiveness of the region, it is imperative that there be established a Tahoe Regional Planning Agency with the powers conferred by this compact including the power to establish environmental threshold carrying capacities and to adopt and enforce a regional plan and implementing ordinances which will achieve and maintain such capacities while providing opportunities for orderly growth and development consistent with such capacities.

(c) The Tahoe Regional Planning Agency shall interpret and administer its plans, ordinances, rules and regulations in accordance with the provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE II. DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Region," includes Lake Tahoe, the adjacent parts of Douglas and Washoe Counties and Carson City, which for the purposes of this compact shall be deemed a county, lying within the Tahoe Basin in the State of Nevada, and the adjacent parts of the Counties of Placer and El Dorado lying within the Tahoe Basin in the State of California, and that additional and adjacent part of the County of Placer outside of the Tahoe Basin in the State of California which lies southward and eastward of a line starting at the intersection of the basin crestline and the north boundary of Section 1, thence west to the northwest corner of Section 3, thence south to the intersection of the basin crestline and the west boundary of Section 10; all sections referring to Township 15 North, Range 16 East, M.D.B. & M. The region defined and described herein shall be as precisely delineated on official maps of the agency.

(b) "Agency" means the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency.

(c) "Governing body" means the governing board of the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency.

(d) "Regional plan" means the long-term general plan for the development of the region.

(e) "Planning commission" means the advisory planning commission appointed pursuant to subdivision (h) of Article III.

(f) "Gaming" means to deal, operate, carry on, conduct, maintain or expose for play any banking or percentage game played with cards, dice or any mechanical device or machine for money, property, checks, credit or any representative of value, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, faro, monte, roulette, keno, bingo, fan-tan, twenty-one, blackjack, seven-and-a-half, big injun, klondike, craps, stud poker, draw poker or slot machine, but does not include social games played solely for drinks, or cigars or cigarettes served individually, games played in private homes or residences for prizes or games operated by charitable or educational organizations, to the extent excluded by applicable state law.

(g) "Restricted gaming license" means a license to operate not more than 15 slot machines on which a quarterly fee is charged pursuant to NRS 463.373 and no other games.

(h) "Project" means an activity undertaken by any person, including any public agency, if the activity may substantially affect the land, water, air, space or any other natural resources of the region.

(i) "Environmental threshold carrying capacity" means an environmental standard necessary to maintain a significant scenic, recreational, educational, scientific or natural value of the region or to maintain public health and safety within the region. Such standards shall include but not be limited to standards for air quality, water quality, soil conservation, vegetation preservation and noise.

(j) "Feasible" means capable of being accomplished in a successful manner within a reasonable period of time, taking into account economic, environmental, social and technological factors.

(k) "Areas open to public use" means all of the areas within a structure housing gaming under a nonrestricted license except areas devoted to the private use of guests.

(l) "Areas devoted to private use of guests" means hotel rooms and hallways to serve hotel room areas, and any parking areas. A hallway serves hotel room areas if more than 50 percent of the areas of each side of the hallway are hotel rooms.

(m) "Nonrestricted license" means a gaming license which is not a restricted gaming license.

ARTICLE III. ORGANIZATION

(a) There is created the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency as a separate legal entity.

The governing body of the agency shall be constituted as follows:

(1) California delegation:

(A) One member appointed by each of the County Boards of Supervisors of the Counties of El Dorado and Placer and one member appointed by the City Council of the City of South Lake

Tahoe. Any such member may be a member of the county board of supervisors or city council, respectively, and shall reside in the territorial jurisdiction of the governmental body making the appointment.

(B) Two members appointed by the Governor of California, one member appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly of California and one member appointed by the Senate Rules Committee of the State of California. The members appointed pursuant to this subparagraph shall not be residents of the region and shall represent the public at large within the State of California. A member appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly or the Senate Rules Committee may, subject to confirmation by his or her appointing power, designate an alternate to attend meetings and vote in the absence of the appointed member. The designation of a named alternate, which shall be in writing and contain evidence of confirmation by the appointing power, shall be kept on file with the agency. An appointed member may change his or her alternate from time to time, with the confirmation of the appointing power, but shall have only one designated alternate at a time. An alternate shall be subject to those qualifications and requirements prescribed by this compact that are applicable to the appointed member.

(2) Nevada delegation:

(A) One member appointed by each of the boards of county commissioners of Douglas and Washoe Counties and one member appointed by the Board of Supervisors of Carson City. Any such member may be a member of the board of county commissioners or board of supervisors, respectively, and shall reside in the territorial jurisdiction of the governmental body making the appointment.

(B) Two members appointed by the Governor of Nevada, one member appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly and one member appointed by the Majority Leader of the Nevada Senate. All members appointed pursuant to this subparagraph shall not be residents of the region and shall represent the public at large within the State of Nevada. A member appointed by the Speaker of the Nevada Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Nevada Senate may, subject to confirmation by his or her appointing power, designate an alternate to attend meetings and vote in the absence of the appointed member. The designation of a named alternate, which shall be in writing and contain evidence of confirmation by the appointing power, shall be kept on file with the agency. An appointed member may change his or her alternate from time to time, with the confirmation of the appointing power, but shall have only one designated alternate at a time. An alternate shall be subject to those qualifications and requirements prescribed by this compact that are applicable to the appointed member.

(3) If any appointing authority under paragraph (1) (A), (1) (B), (2) (A) or (2) (B) fails to make such an appointment within 60 days after the effective date of the amendments to this compact or the occurrence of a vacancy on the governing body, the governor of the state in which the appointing authority is located shall make the appointment. The term of any member so appointed shall be 1 year.

(4) The position of any member of the governing body shall be deemed vacant if such a member is absent from three consecutive meetings of the governing body in any calendar year.

(5) Each member and employee of the agency shall disclose his economic interests in the region within 10 days after taking his seat on the governing board or being employed by the agency and shall thereafter disclose any further economic interest which he acquires, as soon as feasible after he acquires it. As used in this paragraph, "economic interests" means:

(A) Any business entity operating in the region in which the member or employee has a direct or indirect investment worth more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(B) Any real property located in the region in which the member or employee has a direct or indirect interest worth more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(C) Any source of income attributable to activities in the region, other than loans by or deposits with a commercial lending institution in the regular course of business, aggregating two hundred fifty dollars ($250) or more in value received by or promised to the member within the preceding 12 months; or

(D) Any business entity operating in the region in which the member or employee is a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or holds any position of management.

No member or employee of the agency shall make, or attempt to influence, an agency decision in which he knows or has reason to know he has an economic interest. Members and employees of the agency must disqualify themselves from making or participating in the making of any decision of the agency when it is reasonably foreseeable that the decision will have a material financial effect, distinguishable from its effect on the public generally, on the economic interests of the member or employee.

(b) The members of the agency shall serve without compensation, but the expenses of each member shall be met by the body which he represents in accordance with the law of that body. All other expenses incurred by the governing body in the course of exercising the powers conferred upon it by this compact unless met in some other manner specifically provided, shall be paid by the agency out of its own funds.

(c) The members of the governing body serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority in each case, but each appointment shall be reviewed no less often than every 4 years. Members may be reappointed.

(d) The governing body of the agency shall meet at least monthly. All meetings shall be opened to the public to the extent required by the law of the State of California or the State of Nevada, whichever imposes the greater requirement, applicable to local governments at the time such meeting is held. The governing body shall fix a date for its regular monthly meeting in such terms as "the first Monday of each month," and shall not change such date more often than once in any calendar year. Notice of the date so fixed shall be given by publication at least once in a newspaper or combination of newspapers whose circulation is general throughout the region and in each county a portion of whose territory lies within the region. Notice of any special meeting, except an emergency meeting, shall be given by so publishing the date and place and posting an agenda at least 5 days prior to the meeting.

(e) The position of a member of the governing body shall be considered vacated upon his loss of any of the qualifications required for his appointment and in such event the appointing authority shall appoint a successor.

(f) The governing body shall elect from its own members a chairman and vice chairman, whose terms of office shall be 2 years, and who may be reelected. If a vacancy occurs in either office, the governing body may fill such vacancy for the unexpired term.

(g) Four of the members of the governing body from each state constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of the agency. The voting procedures shall be as follows:

(1) For adopting, amending or repealing environmental threshold carrying capacities, the regional plan, and ordinances, rules and regulations, and for granting variances from the ordinances, rules and regulations, the vote of at least four of the members of each state agreeing with the vote of at least four members of the other state shall be required to take action. If there is no vote of at least four of the members from one state agreeing with the vote of at least four of the members of the other state on the actions specified in this paragraph, an action of rejection shall be deemed to have been taken.

(2) For approving a project, the affirmative vote of at least five members from the state in which the project is located and the affirmative vote of at least nine members of the governing body are required. If at least five members of the governing body from the state in which the project is located and at least nine members of the entire governing body do not vote in favor of the project, upon a motion for approval, an action of rejection shall be deemed to have been taken. A decision by the agency to approve a project shall be supported by a statement of findings, adopted by the agency, which indicates that the project complies with the regional plan and with applicable ordinances, rules and regulations of the agency.

(3) For routine business and for directing the agency's staff on litigation and enforcement actions, at least eight members of the governing body must agree to take action. If at least eight votes in favor of such action are not cast, an action of rejection shall be deemed to have been taken.

Whenever under the provisions of this compact or any ordinance, rule, regulation or policy adopted pursuant thereto, the agency is required to review or approve any project, public or private, the agency shall take final action by vote, whether to approve, to require modification or to reject such project, within 180 days after the application for such project is accepted as complete by the agency in compliance with the agency's rules and regulations governing such delivery unless the applicant has agreed to an extension of this time limit. If a final action by vote does not take place within 180 days, the applicant may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to compel a vote unless he has agreed to an extension. This provision does not limit the right of any person to obtain judicial review of agency action under subdivision (h) of Article VI. The vote of each member of the governing body shall be individually recorded. The governing body shall adopt its own rules, regulations and procedures.

(h) An advisory planning commission shall be appointed by the agency. The commission shall include: the chief planning officers of Placer County, El Dorado County, and the City of South Lake Tahoe in California and of Douglas County, Washoe County and Carson City in Nevada, the executive officer of the Lahontan Regional Water Quality Control Board of the State of California, the executive officer of the Air Resources Board of the State of California, the Director of the State Department of Conservation and Natural Resources of the State of Nevada, the Administrator of the Division of Environmental Protection in the State Department of Conservation and Natural Resources of the State of Nevada, the Administrator of the Lake Tahoe Management Unit of the United States Forest Service, and at least four lay members with an equal number from each state, at least half of whom shall be residents of the region. Any official member may designate an alternate.

The term of office of each lay member of the advisory planning commission shall be 2 years. Members may be reappointed.

The position of each member of the advisory planning commission shall be considered vacated upon loss of any of the qualifications required for appointment, and in such an event the appointing authority shall appoint a successor.

The advisory planning commission shall elect from its own members a chairman and a vice chairman, whose terms of office shall be 2 years and who may be reelected. If a vacancy occurs in either office, the advisory planning commission shall fill such vacancy for the unexpired term.

A majority of the members of the advisory planning commission constitutes a quorum for the transaction of the business of the commission. A majority vote of the quorum present shall be required to take action with respect to any matter.

(i) The agency shall establish and maintain an office within the region, and for this purpose the agency may rent or own property and equipment. Every plan, ordinance and other record of the agency which is of such nature as to constitute a public record under the law of either the State of California or the State of Nevada shall be opened to inspection and copying during regular office hours.

(j) Each authority charged under this compact or by the law of either state with the duty of appointing a member of the governing body of the agency shall by certified copy of its resolution or other action notify the Secretary of State of its own state of the action taken.

ARTICLE IV. PERSONNEL

(a) The governing body shall determine the qualification of, and it shall appoint and fix the salary of, the executive officer of the agency, and shall employ such other staff and legal counsel as may be necessary to execute the powers and functions provided for under this compact or in accordance with any intergovernmental contracts or agreements the agency may be responsible for administering.

(b) Agency personnel standards and regulations shall conform insofar as possible to the regulations and procedures of the civil service of the State of California or the State of Nevada, as may be determined by the governing body of the agency; and shall be regional and bistate in application and effect; provided that the governing body may, for administrative convenience and at its discretion, assign the administration of designated personnel arrangements to an agency of either state, and provided that administratively convenient adjustments be made in the standards and regulations governing personnel assigned under intergovernmental agreements.

(c) The agency may establish and maintain or participate in such additional programs of employee benefits as may be appropriate to afford employees of the agency terms and conditions of employment similar to those enjoyed by employees of California and Nevada generally.

ARTICLE V. PLANNING

(a) In preparing each of the plans required by this article and each amendment thereto, if any, subsequent to its adoption, the planning commission after due notice shall hold at least one public hearing which may be continued from time to time, and shall review the testimony and any written recommendations presented at such hearing before recommending the plan or amendment. The notice required by this subdivision shall be given at least 20 days prior to the public hearing by publication at least once in a newspaper or combination of newspapers whose circulation is general throughout the region and in each county a portion of whose territory lies within the region.

The planning commission shall then recommend such plan or amendment to the governing body for adoption by ordinance. The governing body may adopt, modify or reject the proposed plan or amendment, or may initiate and adopt a plan or amendment without referring it to the planning commission. If the governing body initiates or substantially modifies a plan or amendment, it shall hold at least one public hearing thereon after due notice as required in this subdivision.

If a request is made for the amendment of the regional plan by:

(1) A political subdivision a part of whose territory would be affected by such amendment; or

(2) The owner or lessee of real property which would be affected by such amendment, the governing body shall complete its action on such amendment within 180 days after such request is accepted as complete according to standards which must be prescribed by ordinance of the agency.

(b) The agency shall develop, in cooperation with the States of California and Nevada, environmental threshold carrying capacities for the region. The agency should request the President's Council on Environmental Quality, the United States Forest Service and other appropriate agencies to assist in developing such environmental threshold carrying capacities. Within 18 months after the effective date of the amendments to this compact, the agency shall adopt environmental threshold carrying capacities for the region.

(c) Within 1 year after the adoption of the environmental threshold carrying capacities for the region, the agency shall amend the regional plan so that, at a minimum, the plan and all of its elements, as implemented through agency ordinances, rules and regulations, achieves and maintains the adopted environmental threshold carrying capacities. Each element of the plan shall contain implementation provisions and time schedules for such implementation by ordinance. The planning commission and governing body shall continuously review and maintain the regional plan. The regional plan shall consist of a diagram, or diagrams, and text, or texts setting forth the projects and proposals for implementation of the regional plan, a description of the needs and goals of the region and a statement of the policies, standards and elements of the regional plan.

The regional plan shall be a single enforceable plan and include all of the following correlated elements:

(1) A land use plan for the integrated arrangement and general location and extent of, and the criteria and standards for, the uses of land, water, air, space and other natural resources within the region, including but not limited to, an indication or allocation of maximum population densities and permitted uses.

(2) A transportation plan for the integrated development of a regional system of transportation, including but not limited to parkways, highways, transportation facilities, transit routes, waterways, navigation facilities, public transportation facilities, bicycle facilities, and appurtenant terminals and facilities for the movement of people and goods within the region. The goal of transportation planning shall be:

(A) To reduce dependency on the automobile by making more effective use of existing transportation modes and of public transit to move people and goods within the region and

(B) To reduce to the extent feasible air pollution which is caused by motor vehicles.

Where increases in capacity are required, the agency shall give preference to providing such capacity through public transportation and public programs and projects related to transportation. The agency shall review and consider all existing transportation plans in preparing its regional transportation plan pursuant to this paragraph.

The plan shall provide for an appropriate transit system for the region.

The plan shall give consideration to:

(A) Completion of the Loop Road in the States of Nevada and California;

(B) Utilization of a light rail mass transit system in the South Shore area; and

(C) Utilization of a transit terminal in the Kingsbury Grade area.

Until the regional plan is revised, or a new transportation plan is adopted in accordance with this paragraph, the agency has no effective transportation plan.

(3) A conservation plan for the preservation, development, utilization, and management of the scenic and other natural resources within the basin, including but not limited to, soils, shoreline and submerged lands, scenic corridors along transportation routes, open spaces, recreational and historical facilities.

(4) A recreation plan for the development, utilization, and management of the recreational resources of the region, including but not limited to, wilderness and forested lands, parks and parkways, riding and hiking trails, beaches and playgrounds, marinas, areas for skiing and other recreational facilities.

(5) A public services and facilities plan for the general location, scale and provision of public services and facilities, which, by the nature of their function, size, extent and other characteristics are necessary or appropriate for inclusion in the regional plan.

In formulating and maintaining the regional plan, the planning commission and governing body shall take account of and shall seek to harmonize the needs of the region as a whole, the plans of the counties and cities within the region, the plans and planning activities of the state, federal and other public agencies and nongovernmental agencies and organizations which affect or are concerned with planning and development within the region.

(d) The regional plan shall provide for attaining and maintaining federal, state, or local air and water quality standards, whichever are strictest, in the respective portions of the region for which the standards are applicable.

The agency may, however, adopt air or water quality standards or control measures more stringent than the applicable state implementation plan or the applicable federal, state, or local standards for the region, if it finds that such additional standards or control measures are necessary to achieve the purposes of this compact. Each element of the regional plan, where applicable, shall, by ordinance, identify the means and time schedule by which air and water quality standards will be attained.

(e) Except for the Regional Transportation Plan of the California Tahoe Regional Planning Agency, the regional plan, ordinances, rules and regulations adopted by the California Tahoe Regional Planning Agency in effect on July 1, 1980, shall be the regional plan, ordinances, rules and regulations of the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency for that portion of the Tahoe region located in the State of California. Such plan, ordinance, rule or regulation may be amended or repealed by the governing body of the agency. The plans, ordinances, rules and regulations of the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency that do not conflict with, or are not addressed by, the California Tahoe Regional Planning Agency's plans, ordinances, rules and regulations referred to in this subdivision shall continue to be applicable unless amended or repealed by the governing body of the agency. No provision of the regional plan, ordinances, rules and regulations of the California Tahoe Regional Planning Agency referred to in this subdivision shall apply to that portion of the region within the State of Nevada, unless such provision is adopted for the Nevada portion of the region by the governing body of the agency.

(f) The regional plan, ordinances, rules and regulations of the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency apply to that portion of the region within the State of Nevada.

(g) The agency shall adopt ordinances prescribing specific written findings that the agency must make prior to approving any project in the region. These findings shall relate to environmental protection and shall insure that the project under review will not adversely affect implementation of the regional plan and will not cause the adopted environmental threshold carrying capacities of the region to be exceeded.

(h) The agency shall maintain the data, maps and other information developed in the course of formulating and administering the regional plan, in a form suitable to assure a consistent view of developmental trends and other relevant information for the availability of and use by other agencies of government and by private organizations and individuals concerned.

(i) Where necessary for the realization of the regional plan, the agency may engage in collaborative planning with local governmental jurisdictions located outside the region, but contiguous to its boundaries. In formulating and implementing the regional plan, the agency shall seek the cooperation and consider the recommendations of counties and cities and other agencies of local government, of state and federal agencies, of educational institutions and research organizations, whether public or private, and of civic groups and private persons.

ARTICLE VI. AGENCY'S POWERS

(a) The governing body shall adopt all necessary ordinances, rules, and regulations to effectuate the adopted regional plan. Except as otherwise provided in this compact, every such ordinance, rule or regulation shall establish a minimum standard applicable throughout the region. Any political subdivision or public agency may adopt and enforce an equal or higher requirement applicable to the same subject of regulation in its territory. The regulations of the agency shall contain standards including but not limited to the following: water purity and clarity; subdivision; zoning; tree removal; solid waste disposal; sewage disposal; land fills, excavations, cuts and grading; piers, harbors, breakwaters or channels and other shoreline developments; waste disposal in shoreline areas; waste disposal from boats; mobile-home parks; house relocation; outdoor advertising; flood plain protection; soil and sedimentation control; air pollution; and watershed protection. Whenever possible without diminishing the effectiveness of the regional plan, the ordinances, rules, regulations and policies shall be confined to matters which are general and regional in application, leaving to the jurisdiction of the respective states, counties and cities the enactment of specific and local ordinances, rules, regulations and policies which conform to the regional plan.

The agency shall prescribe by ordinance those activities which it has determined will not have substantial effect on the land, water, air, space or any other natural resources in the region and therefore will be exempt from its review and approval.

Every ordinance adopted by the agency shall be published at least once by title in a newspaper or combination of newspapers whose circulation is general throughout the region. Except an ordinance adopting or amending the regional plan, no ordinance shall become effective until 60 days after its adoption. Immediately after its adoption, a copy of each ordinance shall be transmitted to the governing body of each political subdivision having territory within the region.

(b) No project other than those to be reviewed and approved under the special provisions of subdivisions (d), (e), (f) and (g) may be developed in the region without obtaining the review and approval of the agency and no project may be approved unless it is found to comply with the regional plan and with the ordinances, rules and regulations enacted pursuant to subdivision (a) to effectuate that plan.

The agency may approve a project in the region only after making the written findings required by this subdivision or subdivision (g) of Article V. Such findings shall be based on substantial evidence in the record.

Before adoption by the agency of the ordinances required in subdivision (g) of Article V, the agency may approve a project in the region only after making written findings on the basis of substantial evidence in the record that the project is consistent with the regional plan then in effect and with applicable plans, ordinances, regulations and standards of federal and state agencies relating to the protection, maintenance and enhancement of environmental quality in the region.

(c) The Legislatures of the States of California and Nevada find that in order to make effective the regional plan as revised by the agency, it is necessary to halt temporarily works of development in the region which might otherwise absorb the entire capability of the region for further development or direct it out of harmony with the ultimate plan. Subject to the limitation provided in this subdivision, from the effective date of the amendments to this compact until the regional plan is amended pursuant to subdivision (c) of Article V, or until May 1, 1983, whichever is earlier:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, no new subdivision, planned unit development, or condominium project may be approved unless a complete tentative map or plan has been approved before the effective date of the amendments to this compact by all agencies having jurisdiction. The subdivision of land owned by a general improvement district, which existed and owned the land before the effective date of the amendments to this compact, may be approved if subdivision of the land is necessary to avoid insolvency of the district.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3), no apartment building may be erected unless the required permits for such building have been secured from all agencies having jurisdiction, prior to the effective date of the amendments to this compact.

(3) During each of the calendar years 1980, 1981, and 1982 no city or county may issue building permits which authorize the construction of a greater number of new residential units within the region than were authorized within the region by building permits issued by that city or county during calendar year 1978. For the period of January through April, 1983 building permits authorizing the construction of no more than ⅓ of that number may be issued by each such city or county. For purposes of this paragraph a "residential unit" means either a single family residence or an individual residential unit within a larger building, such as an apartment building, a duplex or a condominium.

The Legislatures find the respective numbers of residential units authorized within the region during calendar year 1978 to be as follows:

1. City of South Lake Tahoe and El Dorado County (combined)	252
2. Placer County	278
3. Carson City	0
4. Douglas County	339
5. Washoe County	739

(4) During each of the calendar years 1980, 1981 and 1982, no city or county may issue building permits which authorize construction of a greater square footage of new commercial buildings within the region than were authorized within the region by building permits for commercial purposes issued by that city or county during the calendar year 1978. For the period of January through April, 1983 building permits authorizing the construction of no more than ⅓ the amount of that square footage may be issued by each such city or county.

The Legislatures find the respective square footages of commercial buildings authorized within the region during calendar year 1978 to be as follows:

1. City of South Lake Tahoe and El Dorado County (combined)	64,324
2. Placer County	23,000
3. Carson City	0
4. Douglas County	57,354
5. Washoe County	50,600

(5) No structure may be erected to house gaming under a nonrestricted license.

(6) No facility for the treatment of sewage may be constructed or enlarged except:

(A) To comply, as ordered by the appropriate state agency for the control of water pollution, with existing limitations of effluence under the Clean Water Act, 33 U.S.C. S1251 et seq., and the applicable state law for control of water pollution; or

(B) To accommodate development which is not prohibited or limited by this subdivision; or

(C) In the case of Douglas County Sewer District #1, to modify or otherwise alter sewage treatment facilities existing on the effective date of the amendments to this compact so that such facilities will be able to treat the total volume of effluence for which they were originally designed which is 3.0 mgd. Such modification or alteration is not a "project"; is not subject to the requirements of Article VII; and does not require a permit from the agency. Before commencing such modification or alternative, however, the district shall submit to the agency its report identifying any significant soil erosion problems which may be caused by such modifications or alterations and the measures which the district proposes to take to mitigate or avoid such problems.

The moratorium imposed by this subdivision does not apply to work done pursuant to a right vested before the effective date of the amendments to this compact. Notwithstanding the expiration date of the moratorium imposed by this subdivision, no new highway may be built or existing highway widened to accommodate additional continuous lanes for automobiles until the regional transportation plan is revised and adopted.

The moratorium imposed by this subdivision does not apply to the construction of any parking garage which has been approved by the agency prior to May 4, 1979, whether that approval was affirmative or by default. The provisions of this paragraph are not an expression of legislative intent that any such parking garage, the approval of which is the subject of litigation which was pending on the effective date of the amendments to this compact, should, or should not, be constructed. The provisions of this paragraph are intended solely to permit construction of such a parking garage if judgment sustaining the agency's approval to construct that parking garage has become final and no appeal is pending or may lawfully be taken to a higher court.

(d) Subject to the final order of any court of competent jurisdiction entered in litigation contesting the validity of an approval by the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency, whether that approval was affirmative or by default, if that litigation was pending on May 4, 1979, the agency and the States of California and Nevada shall recognize as a permitted and conforming use:

(1) Every structure housing gaming under a nonrestricted license which existed as a licensed gaming establishment on May 4, 1979, or whose construction was approved by the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency affirmatively or deemed approved before that date. The construction or use of any structure to house gaming under a nonrestricted license not so existing or approved, or the enlargement in cubic volume of any such existing or approved structure is prohibited.

(2) Every other nonrestricted gaming establishment whose use was seasonal and whose license was issued before May 4, 1979, for the same season and for the number and type of games and slot machines on which taxes or fees were paid in the calendar year 1978.

(3) Gaming conducted pursuant to a restricted gaming license issued before May 4, 1979, to the extent permitted by that license on that date. The area within any structure housing gaming under a nonrestricted license which may be open to public use (as distinct from that devoted to the private use of guests and exclusive of any parking area) is limited to the area existing or approved for public use on May 4, 1979. Within these limits, any external modification of the structure which requires a permit from a local government also requires approval from the agency. The agency shall not permit restaurants, convention facilities, showrooms or other public areas to be constructed elsewhere in the region outside the structure in order to replace areas existing or approved for public use on May 4, 1979.

(e) Any structure housing licensed gaming may be rebuilt or replaced to a size not to exceed the cubic volume, height and land coverage existing or approved on May 4, 1979, without the review or approval of the agency or any planning or regulatory authority of the State of Nevada whose review or approval would be required for a new structure.

(f) The following provisions apply to any internal or external modification, remodeling, change in use, or repair of a structure housing gaming under a nonrestricted license which is not prohibited by subdivision (d):

(1) The agency's review of an external modification of the structure which requires a permit from a local government is limited to determining whether the external modification will do any of the following:

(A) Enlarge the cubic volume of the structure;

(B) Increase the total square footage of area open to or approved for public use on May 4, 1979;

(C) Convert an area devoted to the private use of guests to an area open to public use;

(D) Increase the public area open to public use which is used for gaming beyond the limits contained in paragraph (3); and

(E) Conflict with or be subject to the provisions of any of the agency's ordinances that are generally applicable throughout the region.

The agency shall make this determination within 60 days after the proposal is delivered to the agency in compliance with the agency's rules or regulations governing such delivery unless the applicant has agreed to an extension of this time limit. If an external modification is determined to have any of the effects enumerated in subparagraphs (A) through (C), it is prohibited. If an external modification is determined to have any of the effects enumerated in subparagraphs (D) or (E), it is subject to the applicable provisions of this compact. If an external modification is determined to have no such effect, it is not subject to the provisions of this compact.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3), internal modification, remodeling, change in use or repair of a structure housing gaming under a nonrestricted license is not a project and does not require the review or approval of the agency.

(3) Internal modification, remodeling, change in use or repair of areas open to the public use within a structure housing gaming under a nonrestricted license which alone or in combination with any other such modification, remodeling, change in use or repair will increase the total portion of those areas which are used for gaming by more than the product of the total base area, as defined below, in square feet existing on or approved before August 4, 1980, multiplied by 15 percent constitutes a project and is subject to all of the provisions of this compact relating to projects. For purposes of this paragraph and the determination required by subdivision (g), base area means all of the area within a structure housing gaming under a nonrestricted license which may be open to public use, whether or not gaming is actually conducted or carried on in that area, except retail stores, convention centers and meeting rooms, administrative offices, kitchens, maintenance and storage areas, rest rooms, engineering and mechanical rooms, accounting rooms and counting rooms.

(g) In order to administer and enforce the provisions of subdivisions (d), (e) and (f), the State of Nevada, through its appropriate planning or regulatory agency, shall require the owner or licensee of a structure housing gaming under a nonrestricted license to provide:

(1) Documents containing sufficient information for the Nevada agency to establish the following relative to the structure:

(A) The location of its external walls;

(B) Its total cubic volume;

(C) Within its external walls, the area in square feet open or approved for public use and the area in square feet devoted to or approved for the private use of guests on May 4, 1979;

(D) The amount of surface area of land under the structure; and

(E) The base area as defined in paragraph (3) of subdivision (f) in square feet existing on or approved before August 4, 1980.

(2) An informational report whenever any internal modification, remodeling, change in use, or repair will increase the total portion of the areas open to public use which is used for gaming.

The Nevada agency shall transmit this information to the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency.

(h) Gaming conducted pursuant to a restricted gaming license is exempt from review by the agency if it is incidental to the primary use of the premises.

(i) The provisions of subdivisions (d) and (e) are intended only to limit gaming and related activities as conducted within a gaming establishment, or construction designed to permit the enlargement of such activities, and not to limit any other use of property zoned for commercial use or the accommodation of tourists, as approved by the agency.

(j) Legal actions arising out of or alleging a violation of the provisions of this compact, of the regional plan or of an ordinance or regulation of the agency or of a permit or a condition of a permit issued by the agency are governed by the following provisions:

(1) This subdivision applies to:

(A) Actions arising out of activities directly undertaken by the agency.

(B) Actions arising out of the issuance to a person of a lease, permit, license or other entitlement for use by the agency.

(C) Actions arising out of any other act or failure to act by any person or public agency.

Such legal actions may be filed and the provisions of this subdivision apply equally in the appropriate courts of California and Nevada and of the United States.

(2) Venue lies:

(A) If a civil or criminal action challenges an activity by the agency or any person which is undertaken or to be undertaken upon a parcel of real property, in the state or federal judicial district where the real property is situated.

(B) If an action challenges an activity which does not involve a specific parcel of land (such as an action challenging an ordinance of the agency), in any state or federal court having jurisdiction within the region.

(3) Any aggrieved person may file an action in an appropriate court of the State of California or Nevada or of the United States alleging noncompliance with the provisions of this compact or with an ordinance or regulation of the agency. In the case of governmental agencies, "aggrieved person" means the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency or any state, federal or local agency. In the case of any person other than a governmental agency who challenges an action of the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency, "aggrieved person" means any person who has appeared, either in person, through an authorized representative, or in writing, before the agency at an appropriate administrative hearing to register objection to the action which is being challenged, or who had good cause for not making such an appearance.

(4) A legal action arising out of the adoption or amendment of the regional plan or of any ordinance or regulation of the agency, or out of the granting or denial of any permit, shall be commenced within 60 days after final action by the agency. All other legal actions shall be commenced within 65 days after discovery of the cause of action.

(5) In any legal action filed pursuant to this subdivision which challenges an adjudicatory act or decision of the agency to approve or disapprove a project, the scope of judicial inquiry shall extend only to whether there was prejudicial abuse of discretion. Prejudicial abuse of discretion is established if the agency has not proceeded in a manner required by law or if the act or decision of the agency was not supported by substantial evidence in light of the whole record. In making such a determination the court shall not exercise its independent judgment on evidence but shall only determine whether the act or decision was supported by substantial evidence in light of the whole record. In any legal action filed pursuant to this subdivision which challenges a legislative act or decision of the agency (such as the adoption of the regional plan and the enactment of implementing ordinances), the scope of the judicial inquiry shall extend only to the questions of whether the act or decision has been arbitrary, capricious or lacking substantial evidentiary support or whether the agency has failed to proceed in a manner required by law.

(6) The provisions of this subdivision do not apply to any legal proceeding pending on the date when this subdivision becomes effective. Any such legal proceeding shall be conducted and concluded under the provisions of law which were applicable prior to the effective date of this subdivision.

(7) The security required for the issuance of a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction based upon an alleged violation of this compact or any ordinance, plan, rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto is governed by the rule or statute applicable to the court in which the action is brought unless the action is brought by a public agency or political subdivision to enforce its own rules, regulations and ordinances in which case no security shall be required.

(k) The agency shall monitor activities in the region and may bring enforcement actions in the region to ensure compliance with the regional plan and adopted ordinances, rules, regulations and policies. If it is found that the regional plan, or ordinances, rules, regulations and policies are not being enforced by a local jurisdiction, the agency may bring action in a court of competent jurisdiction to ensure compliance.

(l) Any person who violates any provision of this compact or of any ordinance or regulation of the agency or of any condition of approval imposed by the agency is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000). Any such person is subject to an additional civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) per day, for each day on which such a violation persists. In imposing the penalties authorized by this subdivision, the court shall consider the nature of the violation and shall impose a greater penalty if it was willful or resulted from gross negligence than if it resulted from inadvertence or simple negligence.

(m) The agency is hereby empowered to initiate, negotiate and participate in contracts and agreements among the local governmental authorities of the region, or any other intergovernmental contracts or agreements authorized by state or federal law.

(n) Each intergovernmental contract or agreement shall provide for its own funding and staffing, but this shall not preclude financial contributions from the local authorities concerned or from supplementary sources.

(o) Every record of the agency, whether public or not, shall be open for examination to the Legislature and Controller of the State of California and the Legislative Auditor of the State of Nevada.

(p) Approval by the agency of any project expires 3 years after the date of final action by the agency or the effective date of the amendments to this compact, whichever is later, unless construction is begun within that time and diligently pursued thereafter, or the use or activity has commenced. In computing the 3-year period any period of time during which the project is the subject of a legal action which delays or renders impossible the diligent pursuit of that project shall not be counted. Any license, permit or certificate issued by the agency which has an expiration date shall be extended by that period of time during which the project is the subject of such legal action as provided in this subdivision.

(q) The governing body shall maintain a current list of real property known to be available for exchange with the United States or with other owners of real property in order to facilitate exchanges of real property by owners of real property in the region.

ARTICLE VII. ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENTS

(a) The Tahoe Regional Planning Agency when acting upon matters that have a significant effect on the environment shall:

(1) Utilize a systematic, interdisciplinary approach which will insure the integrated use of the natural and social sciences and the environmental design arts in planning and in decisionmaking which may have an impact on man's environment;

(2) Prepare and consider a detailed environmental impact statement before deciding to approve or carry out any project. The detailed environmental impact statement shall include the following:

(A) The significant environmental impacts of the proposed project;

(B) Any significant adverse environmental effects which cannot be avoided should the project be implemented;

(C) Alternatives to the proposed project;

(D) Mitigation measures which must be implemented to assure meeting standards of the region;

(E) The relationship between local short-term uses of man's environment and the maintenance and enhancement of long-term productivity;

(F) Any significant irreversible and irretrievable commitments of resources which would be involved in the proposed project should it be implemented; and

(G) The growth-inducing impact of the proposed project;

(3) Study, develop and describe appropriate alternatives to recommended courses of action for any project which involves unresolved conflicts concerning alternative uses of available resources;

(4) Make available to states, counties, municipalities, institutions and individuals, advice and information useful in restoring, maintaining and enhancing the quality of the region's environment; and

(5) Initiate and utilize ecological information in the planning and development of resource-oriented projects.

(b) Prior to completing an environmental impact statement, the agency shall consult with and obtain the comments of any federal, state or local agency which has jurisdiction by law or special expertise with respect to any environmental impact involved. Copies of such statement and the comments and views of the appropriate federal, state and local agencies which are authorized to develop and enforce environmental standards shall be made available to the public and shall accompany the project through the review processes. The public shall be consulted during the environmental impact statement process and views shall be solicited during a public comment period not to be less than 60 days.

(c) Any environmental impact statement required pursuant to this article need not repeat in its entirety any information or data which is relevant to such a statement and is a matter of public record or is generally available to the public, such as information contained in an environmental impact report prepared pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act or a federal environmental impact statement prepared pursuant to the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. However, such information or data shall be briefly described in the environmental impact statement and its relationship to the environmental impact statement shall be indicated.

In addition, any person may submit information relative to a proposed project which may be included, in whole or in part, in any environmental impact statement required by this article.

(d) In addition to the written findings specified by agency ordinance to implement the regional plan, the agency shall make either of the following written findings before approving a project for which an environmental impact statement was prepared:

(1) Changes or alterations have been required in or incorporated into such project which avoid or reduce the significant adverse environmental effects to a less than significant level; or

(2) Specific considerations, such as economic, social or technical, make infeasible the mitigation measures or project alternatives discussed in the environmental impact statement on the project.

A separate written finding shall be made for each significant effect identified in the environmental impact statement on the project. All written findings must be supported by substantial evidence in the record.

(e) The agency may charge and collect a reasonable fee from any person proposing a project subject to the provisions of this compact in order to recover the estimated costs incurred by the agency in preparing an environmental impact statement under this article.

(f) The agency shall adopt by ordinance a list of classes of projects which the agency has determined will not have a significant effect on the environment and therefore will be exempt from the requirement for the preparation of an environmental impact statement under this article. Prior to adopting the list, the agency shall make a written finding supported by substantial evidence in the record that each class of projects will not have a significant effect on the environment.

ARTICLE VIII. FINANCES

(a) On or before September 30 of each calendar year the agency shall establish the amount of money necessary to support its activities for the next succeeding fiscal year commencing July 1 of the following year. The agency shall apportion seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) of this amount among the counties within the region on the same ratio to the total sum required as the full cash valuation of taxable property within the region in each county bears to the total full cash valuation of taxable property within the region. In addition, each county within the region in California shall pay eighteen thousand seven hundred fifty dollars ($18,750) to the agency and each county within the region in Nevada, including Carson City, shall pay twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500) to the agency, from any funds available therefor. The State of California and the State of Nevada may pay to the agency by July 1, of each year any additional sums necessary to support the operations of the agency pursuant to this compact. If additional funds are required, the agency shall make a request for the funds to the States of California and Nevada. Requests for state funds must be apportioned two-thirds from California and one-third from Nevada. Money appropriated shall be paid within 30 days.

(b) The agency may fix and collect reasonable fees for any services rendered by it.

(c) The agency shall submit an itemized budget to the states for review with any request for state funds, shall be strictly accountable to any county in the region and the states for all funds paid by them to the agency and shall be strictly accountable to all participating bodies for all receipts and disbursement.

(d) The agency is authorized to receive gifts, donations, subventions, grants, and other financial aids and funds; but the agency may not own land except as provided in subdivision (i) of Article III.

(e) The agency shall not obligate itself beyond the moneys due under this article for its support from the several counties and the states for the current fiscal year, plus any moneys on hand or irrevocably pledged to its support from other sources. No obligation contracted by the agency shall bind either of the party states or any political subdivision thereof.

ARTICLE IX. TRANSPORTATION DISTRICT

(a) The Tahoe transportation district is hereby established as a special purpose district. The boundaries of the district are coterminous with those of the region.

(b) The business of the district shall be managed by a board of directors consisting of:

(1) One member of the county board of supervisors of each of the counties of El Dorado and Placer;

(2) One member of the city council of the City of South Lake Tahoe;

(3) One member each of the board of county commissioners of Douglas County and of Washoe County;

(4) One member of the board of supervisors of Carson City.

(c) The vote of at least four of the directors must agree to take action. If at least four votes in favor of an action are not cast, an action of rejections shall be deemed to have been taken.

(d) The Tahoe transportation district may by resolution establish procedures for the adoption of its budgets, the appropriation of its money and the carrying on of its other financial activities. These procedures must conform insofar as is practicable to the procedures for financial administration of the State of California or the State of Nevada or one or more of the local governments in the region.

(e) The Tahoe transportation district may in accordance with the adopted transportation plan:

(1) Own and operate a public transportation system to the exclusion of all other publicly owned transportation systems in the region.

(2) Acquire upon mutually agreeable terms any public transportation system or facility owned by a county, city or special purpose district or any privately owned transportation system or facility within the region.

(3) Hire the employees of existing public transportation systems that are acquired by the district without loss of benefits to the employees, bargain collectively with employee organizations, and extend pension and other collateral benefits to employees.

(4) Contract with private companies to provide supplementary transportation or provide any of the services needed in operating a system of transportation for the region.

(5) Fix the rates and charges for transit services provided pursuant to this subdivision.

(6) Issue revenue bonds and other evidence of indebtedness and make other financial arrangements appropriate for developing and operating a public transportation system.

(7) By resolution, determine and propose for adoption a tax for the purpose of obtaining services of the district. The tax proposed must be general and of uniform operation throughout the region, and may not be graduated in any way, except for a sales and use tax which, if approved by the voters, may be administered through the States of California and Nevada respectively in accordance with the laws that apply within their respective jurisdictions. The district is prohibited from imposing any other tax measured by gross or net receipts on business, an ad valorem tax, a tax or charge that is assessed against people or vehicles as they enter or leave the region, and any tax, direct or indirect, on gaming tables and devices. Any such proposition must be submitted to the voters of the district and shall become effective upon approval of a majority of the voters voting on the proposition. The revenues from any such tax must be used for the services for which it was imposed, and for no other purpose.

(8) Provide service from inside the region to convenient airport, railroad and interstate bus terminals without regard to the boundaries of the region.

(f) The Legislatures of the States of California and Nevada may, by substantively identical enactments, amend this article.

ARTICLE X. MISCELLANEOUS

(a) It is intended that the provisions of this compact shall be reasonably and liberally construed to effectuate the purposes thereof. Except as provided in subdivision (c), the provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining state and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

(b) The agency shall have such additional powers and duties as may hereafter be delegated or imposed upon it from time to time by the action of the Legislature of either state concurred in by the Legislature of the other.

(c) A state party to this compact may withdraw therefrom by enacting a statute repealing the compact. Notice of withdrawal shall be communicated officially and in writing to the Governor of the other state and to the agency administrators. This provision is not severable, and if it is held to be unconstitutional or invalid, no other provision of this compact shall be binding upon the State of Nevada or the State of California.

(d) No provision of this compact shall have any effect upon the allocation, distribution or storage of interstate waters or upon any appropriative water right.

CHAPTER 821

An act to amend Section 742 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 742 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

742. Upon receipt of a timely petition for reassessment, the board shall set a time and place within the state for hearing on the petition. Notice thereof shall be mailed to the assessee at its address as shown in the records of the board, not less than 10 working days in advance of the date of the hearing.

CHAPTER 822

An act to add Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 9380) to Part 1 of Division 8.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to nutrition, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 9380) is added to Part 1 of Division 8.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4.5. HOME-DELIVERED MEALS ACT OF 1988

9380. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Home-Delivered Meals Act of 1988.

9381. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that many elderly persons do not eat adequately because: (1) they cannot afford to do so; (2) they lack the ability to select and prepare nourishing and well-balanced meals; (3) they have limited mobility which may impair their capacity to shop and cook for themselves; and (4) they have feelings of rejection and loneliness which lessen the incentive necessary to prepare and eat a meal alone. These problems, and other physiological, psychological, social, and economic changes that occur with aging, result in a pattern of living which causes malnutrition and further physical and mental deterioration. Furthermore, these problems often result in premature and unnecessary institutionalization.

(b) Accordingly, the Legislature declares that the Home-Delivered Meals Act of 1988 is enacted to provide for the best possible physical and mental health of California's elderly and, whenever possible, to maintain the elderly in their home environment with maximum independence and dignity.

This act provides for increasing the availability of home-delivered meal services to the elderly in order to begin to meet the vast unmet need of home-bound seniors throughout California.

9382. (a) The department shall allocate any new funds to area agencies on aging based upon the existing intrastate funding formula, but without regard to subdivision (b) of Section 9315 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(b) In consultation with area agencies on aging and nutrition providers, the department shall develop criteria for identifying unmet need. The department shall standardize the definition of "unmet need" for home-delivered meals, develop uniform procedures for documenting unmet need, and require all area agencies on aging and all nutrition programs to report at least annually the unmet need in their planning and service areas according to the department's standard definition and uniform documentation procedures. The department shall make this information available to the Legislature at least annually, or more often upon request.

(c) Funds may be expended by area agencies on aging for any of the following purposes:

(1) To serve seniors on waiting lists.

(2) To increase the number of days per week that meals are provided under the Home-Delivered Meals Program from five to seven.

(3) To provide modified diets specific to the needs of individuals being served by the Home-Delivered Meals Program.

(4) To establish an active outreach program to ensure that California's elderly are aware of the availability of home-delivered meals services.

(5) For capital outlay to expand the physical capacity of local needs programs to serve unmet need.

(6) To fund transportation costs related to the delivery of home-delivered meals.

(7) To otherwise deal with the unmet home-delivered nutrition needs identified by the area agency on aging in accordance with the criteria developed by the department pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) The department shall encourage area agencies on aging to include in the home-delivered meals programs alternative service models designed to reduce the social isolation of economically and nutritionally disadvantaged elderly persons living in residential hotels.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

This act uses state funding sources to augment federal funds which can be used to address the substantial unmet hunger and nutritional needs of California's elderly, and in order to solve the problem of unmet needs at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 823

An act to add Section 17206.1 to the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Sections 1761 and 1780 of, and to add Section 3345 to, the Civil Code, relating to senior citizens and disabled persons.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17206.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

17206.1. (a) In addition to any liability for a civil penalty pursuant to Section 17206, any person who violates this chapter, and the act or acts of unfair competition are perpetrated against one or more senior citizens or disabled persons, may be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for each violation, which may be assessed and recovered in a civil action as prescribed in Section 17206.

Subject to subdivision (d), any civil penalty shall be paid as prescribed by subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 17206.

(b) As used in this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Senior citizen" means a person who is 65 years of age or older.

(2) "Disabled person" means any person who has a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities.

(A) As used in this subdivision, "physical or mental impairment" means any of the following:

(i) Any physiological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss substantially affecting one or more of the following body systems: neurological; muscoloskeletal; special sense organs; respiratory, including speech organs; cardiovascular; reproductive, digestive; genitourinary; hemic and lymphatic; skin; or endocrine.

(ii) Any mental or psychological disorder, such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities. The term "physical or mental impairment" includes, but is not limited to, such diseases and conditions as orthopedic, visual, speech and hearing impairment, cerebral palsy, epilepsy, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis, cancer, heart disease, diabetes, mental retardation, and emotional illness.

(B) "Major life activities" means functions such as caring for one's self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, and working.

(c) In determining whether to impose a civil penalty pursuant to subdivision (a) and the amount thereof, the court shall consider, in addition to any other appropriate factors, the extent to which one or more of the following factors are present:

(1) Whether the defendant knew or should have known that his or her conduct was directed to one or more senior citizens or disabled persons.

(2) Whether the defendant's conduct caused one or more senior citizens or disabled persons to suffer: loss or encumbrance of a primary residence, principal employment, or source of income; substantial loss of property set aside for retirement, or for personal or family care and maintenance; or substantial loss of payments received under a pension or retirement plan or a government benefits program, or assets essential to the health or welfare of the senior citizen or disabled person.

(3) Whether one or more senior citizens or disabled persons are substantially more vulnerable than other members of the public to the defendant's conduct because of age, poor health or infirmity, impaired understanding, restricted mobility, or disability, and actually suffered substantial physical, emotional, or economic damage resulting from the defendant's conduct.

(d) Any court of competent jurisdiction hearing an action pursuant to this section may make orders and judgments as may be necessary to restore to any senior citizen or disabled person any money or property, real or personal, which may have been acquired by means of a violation of this chapter. Restitution ordered pursuant to this subdivision shall be given priority over recovery of any civil penalty designated by the court as imposed pursuant to subdivision (a), but shall not be given priority over any civil penalty imposed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 17206. If the court determines that full restitution cannot be made to those senior citizens or disabled persons, either at the time of judgment or by a future date determined by the court, then restitution under this subdivision shall be made on a pro rata basis depending on the amount of loss.

SEC. 2. Section 1761 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1761. As used in this title:

(a) "Goods" means tangible chattels bought or leased for use primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, including certificates or coupons exchangeable for such goods, and including goods which, at the time of the sale or subsequently, are to be so affixed to real property as to become a part of such real property, whether or not severable therefrom.

(b) "Services" means work, labor, and services for other than a commercial or business use, including services furnished in connection with the sale or repair of goods.

(c) "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other group, however organized.

(d) "Consumer" means an individual who seeks or acquires, by purchase or lease, any goods or services for personal, family, or household purposes.

(e) "Transaction" means an agreement between a consumer and any other person, whether or not the agreement is a contract enforceable by action, and includes the making of, and the performance pursuant to, that agreement.

(f) "Senior citizen" means a person who is 65 years of age or older.

(g) "Disabled person" means any person who has a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities.

(1) As used in this subdivision, "physical or mental impairment" means any of the following:

(A) Any physiological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss substantially affecting one or more of the following body systems: neurological; muscoloskeletal; special sense organs; respiratory, including speech organs; cardiovascular; reproductive; digestive; genitourinary; hemic and lymphatic; skin; or endocrine.

(B) Any mental or psychological disorder, such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities. The term " physical or mental impairment" includes, but is not limited to, such diseases and conditions as orthopedic, visual, speech and hearing impairment, cerebral palsy, epilepsy, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis, cancer, heart disease, diabetes, mental retardation, and emotional illness.

(2) "Major life activities" means functions such as caring for one's self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, and working.

SEC. 3. Section 1780 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1780. (a) Any consumer who suffers any damage as a result of the use or employment by any person of a method, act, or practice declared to be unlawful by Section 1770 may bring an action against such person to recover or obtain any of the following:

(1) Actual damages, but in no case shall the total award of damages in a class action be less than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(2) An order enjoining such methods, acts, or practices.

(3) Restitution of property.

(4) Punitive damages.

(5) Any other relief which the court deems proper.

(b) Any consumer who is a senior citizen or a disabled person, as defined in subdivisions (f) and (g) of Section 1761, as part of an action under subdivision (a), may seek and be awarded, in addition to the remedies specified therein, up to five thousand dollars ($5,000) where the trier of fact (1) finds that the consumer has suffered substantial physical, emotional, or economic damage resulting from the defendant's conduct, (2) makes an affirmative finding in regard to one or more of the factors set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 3345, and (3) finds that an additional award is appropriate. Judgment in a class action by senior citizens or disabled persons under Section 1781 may award each class member such an additional award where the trier of fact has made the foregoing findings.

(c) An action under subdivision (a) or (b) may be commenced in the county in which the person against whom it is brought resides, has his or her principal place of business, or is doing business, or in the county where the transaction or any substantial portion thereof occurred.

If within any such county there is a municipal or justice court, having jurisdiction of the subject matter, established in the city and county or judicial district in which the person against whom the action is brought resides, has his or her principal place of business, or is doing business, or in which the transaction or any substantial portion thereof occurred, then such court is the proper court for the trial of such action. Otherwise, any municipal or justice court in such county having jurisdiction of the subject matter is the proper court for the trial thereof.

In any action subject to this section, concurrently with the filing of the complaint, the plaintiff shall file an affidavit stating facts showing that the action has been commenced in a county or judicial district described in this section as a proper place for the trial of the action. If a plaintiff fails to file the affidavit required by this section, the court shall, upon its own motion or upon motion of any party, dismiss any such action without prejudice.

(d) The court shall award court costs and attorney's fees to a prevailing plaintiff in litigation filed pursuant to this section. Reasonable attorney's fees may be awarded to a prevailing defendant upon a finding by the court that the plaintiff's prosecution of the action was not in good faith.

SEC. 4. Section 3345 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

3345. (a) This section shall apply only in actions brought by, on behalf of, or for the benefit of senior citizens or disabled persons, as those terms are defined in subdivisions (f) and (g) of Section 1761, to redress unfair or deceptive acts or practices or unfair methods of competition.

(b) Whenever a trier of fact is authorized by a statute to impose either a fine, or a civil penalty or other penalty, or any other remedy the purpose or effect of which is to punish or deter, and the amount of the fine, penalty, or other remedy is subject to the trier of fact's discretion, the trier of fact shall consider all of the following factors, in addition to other appropriate factors, in determining the amount of fine, civil penalty or other penalty, or other remedy to impose. Whenever the trier of fact makes an affirmative finding in regard to one or more of the following factors, it may impose a fine, civil penalty or other penalty, or other remedy in an amount up to three times greater than authorized by the statute, or, where the statute does not authorize a specific amount, up to three times greater than the amount the trier of fact would impose in the absence of that affirmative finding:

(2) Whether the defendant's conduct caused one or more senior citizens or disabled persons to suffer: loss or encumbrance of a primary residence, principal employment, or source of income; substantial loss of property set aside for retirement, or for personal or family care and maintenance; or substantial loss of payments received under a pension or retirement plan or a government benefits program, or assets essential to the health or welfare of the senior citizen or disabled person.

(3) Whether one or more senior citizens or disabled persons are substantially more vulnerable than other members of the public to the defendant's conduct because of age, poor health or infirmity, impaired understanding, restricted mobility, or disability, and actually suffered substantial physical, emotional, or economic damage resulting from the defendant's conduct.

CHAPTER 824

An act to add Chapter 5.4 (commencing with Section 41980) to Part 24 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 5.4 (commencing with Section 41980) is added to Part 24 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5.4. DESIGNATION OF JOINT POWERS ENTITIES AS SINGLE SCHOOL DISTRICTS

41980. Any separate joint powers entity formed pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code that has as its sole function the provision of school transportation services may, subject to prior approval by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, be designated a single school district for purposes of receiving state apportionments or allowances in support of those services or programs. Those school transportation apportionments or allowances shall be allocated to a separate joint powers entity under this section in any fiscal year only to the extent that the governing board of the school district or districts that would otherwise receive those state apportionments or allowances expressly approves that allocation under a resolution adopted on or before June 30 preceding that fiscal year.

41981. For purposes of this chapter, and notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6505.5 of the Government Code, the fiscal officer of the joint powers entity shall be the county superintendent of schools. If the joint powers entity is situated partly within two or more counties, in terms of its participating school districts, the fiscal officer shall be the county superintendent of schools of the county in which the greatest area of the joint powers entity lies.

41982. The joint powers entity shall be subject to the same budget, expenditure, appropriation, accounting, auditing, and program requirements as school districts and county superintendents of schools generally with respect to school transportation programs.

41983. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may adopt regulations for the implementation of this chapter, including, but not limited to, standards and requirements relating to applications, approvals, reports, apportionments, and allowances, and changes in membership of the joint powers entity.

CHAPTER 825

An act to amend Sections 1337.2, 1337.3, 1337.4, and 1337.8 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1337.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1337.2. (a) An applicant for certification as a certified nurse assistant shall comply with each of the following:

(1) Be at least 16 years of age.

(2) Have successfully completed a training program approved by the department, which includes an examination to test the applicant's knowledge and skills related to basic patient care services.

(3) Not be subject to denial of certification under this article.

(4) Pay the application fee established by the department pursuant to this article.

(b) The state department may establish procedures for issuing certificates which recognize certification programs in other states and countries.

(c) Upon written application and receipt of the required application fee, the state department may issue a certificate to any applicant who possesses a valid state license as either a licensed vocational nurse or a registered nurse issued by any other state or foreign country, and who, in the opinion of the state department, has the qualifications specified in this article.

(d) Upon written application, receipt of the required application fee, and documentation of passing an approved examination administered by an approved certification training program, the state department may issue a certificate to any applicant who has completed the fundamentals of nursing courses in a school for registered nurses, approved by the Board of Registered Nursing, or in a school for licensed vocational nurses, approved by the Board of Vocational Nurse and Psychiatric Technician Examiners, which are substantially equivalent to the certification training program specified in this article.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, any person holding a nurse assistant certificate issued by the state department prior to the enactment of this article, shall be issued a certificate under this article if the holder meets all of the following requirements:

(1) Submits an application on a form provided by the state department.

(2) Has not committed acts or crimes constituting grounds for denial of certification under this article.

(3) Pays the renewal fee established by the state department pursuant to this article.

(f) Certified nurse assistants, renewing according to subdivision (e), whose year of birth was in an odd-numbered year, shall submit an application for renewal on or before their date of birth during calendar year 1989, and those whose year of birth was in an even-numbered year shall submit an application for renewal on or before their date of birth during calendar year of 1990.

(g) Every person certified under this article may be known as a "certified nurse assistant" and may place the letters CNA after his or her name.

(h) Any person holding a nurse assistant certificate issued by the state department prior to January 1, 1988, may continue to hold himself or herself out as a certified nurse assistant until January 1, 1991. Thereafter, it shall be unlawful for any person not certified under this article to hold himself or herself out to be a certified nurse assistant. Any person willfully making any false representation as being a certified nurse assistant is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(i) Any person who violates this article is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon a conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 180 days, or by a fine of not less than twenty dollars ($20) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 2. Section 1337.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1337.3. (a) The state department shall prepare and maintain a list of approved training programs for nurse assistant certification. The list shall include training programs conducted by skilled nursing or intermediate care facilities, as well as local agencies and education programs. Clinical portions of the training programs may be obtained as on-the-job training, supervised by a qualified director of staff development or licensed nurse.

(b) It shall be the duty of the state department to inspect a representative sample of training programs. If the state department determines that any training program is not complying with regulations, notice thereof in writing shall be immediately given to the program. If the program has not been brought into compliance within a reasonable time, the program may be removed from the approved list and notice thereof in writing given to it. Programs removed under this article shall be afforded an opportunity to request reinstatement of program approval at any time.

(c) Notwithstanding provisions of Section 1337.1, the approved training program shall consist of at least the following:

(1) A 16-hour orientation program to be given to newly employed nurse assistants, eight hours of which shall be given prior to providing direct patient care.

(2) A certification training program consisting of at least 50 classroom hours of training on basic nursing skills, patient safety and rights, and the social and psychological problems of patients, as well as at least 100 hours supervised and on-the-job training clinical practice. The 100 hours may consist of normal employment as a nurse assistant under the supervision of either the director of staff development or a licensed nurse. The 50 classroom hours of training may be conducted within a skilled nursing or intermediate care facility, or in an educational institution.

(d) The state department, in consultation with the State Department of Education and other appropriate organizations, shall develop criteria for approving training programs, which includes program content for orientation, training, in-service and the examination for testing knowledge and skills related to basic patient care services and shall develop a plan that identifies and encourages career ladder opportunities for certified nurse assistants. This group shall also recommend, and the department shall promulgate, regulation changes necessary to provide for patient care when facilities utilize noncertified nurse assistants who are performing direct patient care. The requirements of this subdivision shall be established by January 1, 1989.

(e) This article shall not apply to a program conducted by any church or denomination for the purpose of training the adherents of the church or denomination in the care of the sick in accordance with its religious tenets.

SEC. 3. Section 1337.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1337.4. Every skilled nursing or intermediate care facility shall designate a licensed nurse as a director of staff development who shall be responsible for the management of the approved training program.

SEC. 4. Section 1337.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1337.8. (a) Every certified nurse assistant may be disciplined as provided in this article.

(b) The state department may discipline the holder of any certificate, whose default has been entered or who has been found by the state department to be guilty, by any of the following methods:

(1) Suspending judgment.

(2) Placing the holder's certificate on probation.

(3) Suspending the right to practice as a certified nurse assistant for a period not exceeding one year.

(4) Revoking the certificate.

(c) If a certificate is suspended, the holder shall not be entitled to practice as a certified nurse assistant during the term of suspension, and shall return his or her certificate to the state department.

Upon the expiration of the term of suspension, he or she shall be reinstated by the state department and shall be entitled to resume practice unless it is established to the satisfaction of the state department that the person has practiced as a certified nurse assistant in California during the term of suspension. In this event, the state department shall revoke the person's certificate.

(d) The state department may deny, suspend, or revoke a certificate issued under this article for any of the following:

(1) Unprofessional conduct, which includes incompetence or gross negligence in carrying out usual nursing functions.

(2) Procuring a certified nurse assistant certificate by fraud or misrepresentation, or mistake.

(3) Violating or attempting to violate, directly or indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violating of, or conspiring to violate any provision or term of, this article.

(4) Making or giving any false statement or information in conjunction with the application for issuance of a certified nurse assistant certificate.

(5) Conviction of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of a certified nurse assistant, in which event the record of the conviction shall be conclusive evidence thereof.

(6) Impersonating any applicant, or acting as proxy for an applicant, in any examination required under this article for the issuance of a certificate.

(7) Impersonating another certified nurse assistant, a licensed vocational nurse, or a registered nurse, or permitting or allowing another person to use a certificate for the purpose of nursing the sick or afflicted.

(8) Aiding or assisting, or agreeing to aid or assist, any person or persons, whether a licensed physician or not, in the performance of, or arranging for, a violation of Article 12 (commencing with Section 2220) of Chapter 5.

(e) In addition to other acts constituting unprofessional conduct within the meaning of this article, it is unprofessional conduct for a person certified under this article to do any of the following:

(1) Conviction for, or use of, any narcotic drug, as defined in Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000), or any dangerous drug, as defined in Article 7 (commencing with Section 4211) of Chapter 9, or alcoholic beverages, to an extent or in a manner dangerous or injurious to the certified nurse assistant, or any other person, or the public, to the extent that this use impairs the ability to conduct, with safety to the public, the practice authorized by a certificate.

(2) Abuse, whether verbal, physical, or mental, of a patient in a health care facility.

(f) A plea or verdict of guilty, or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere, made to a charge substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of a certified nurse assistant shall be deemed a conviction within the meaning of this article. The state department may order the certificate suspended or revoked or may decline to issue a certificate when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment or conviction has been affirmed on appeal, or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, irrespective of a subsequent order under Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code allowing the person to withdraw a plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment.

(g) The state department shall notify the certificateholder of his or her right to an appeal of the suspension or revocation of the certificate pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 826

An act to amend Section 56854 of, to repeal Section 56845 of, and to repeal and add Sections 56428 and 56857 of, the Government Code, relating to local agency formation commissions.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 56428 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 56428 is added to the Government Code, to read:

56428. (a) Any person or local agency may file a written request with the executive officer requesting amendments to a sphere of influence or urban service area adopted by the commission. The request shall state the nature of the proposed amendment, state the reasons for the request, include a map of the proposed amendment, and contain any additional data and information as may be required by the executive officer.

(b) After complying with the California Environmental Quality Act, Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code, the executive officer shall place the request on the agenda of the next meeting of the commission for which notice can be given. The executive officer shall give notice in the manner provided by Section 56427. On the date and time provided in the notice, the commission may do either of the following:

(1) Without further notice, consider the amendments to a sphere of influence.

(2) Set a future date for the hearing on the request.

(c) The executive officer shall review each requested amendment and prepare a report and recommendation. The report shall be completed not less than five days before the date specified in the notice of hearing. The executive officer shall send copies of the report to the person or agency making the request, each affected local agency, and each person who has filed a request for a report.

(d) At its meeting, the commission shall consider the request and receive any oral or written testimony. The consideration may be continued from time to time but not to exceed 70 days from the date specified in the original notice. The person or agency which filed the request may withdraw it at any time prior to the conclusion of the consideration by the commission.

(e) At the conclusion of its consideration, the commission may approve or disapprove with or without amendment, wholly, partially, or conditionally, the request. The commission shall follow the procedures in Sections 56425 and 56426.

(f) The commission may require the person or agency making a request pursuant to this section to pay a fee to cover the commission's costs. The fee shall not exceed the estimated reasonable cost of providing the service and shall be set pursuant to Section 56383. The commission may waive the fee if it finds that the request can be considered and studied as part of the periodic review of spheres of influence required by Section 56425. In addition, the commission may waive the fee if it finds that payment would be detrimental to the public interest.

(g) The commission and executive officer may review and act on any request to amend a sphere of influence or urban service area concurrently with their review and determination on any related change of organization or reorganization. In case of a conflict between the provisions of this section and any other provisions of this part, the other provisions shall prevail.

SEC. 3. Section 56845 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 56854 of the Government Code is amended to read:

56854. Any conducting authority may, before the completion of a proceeding, on good cause being shown, correct clerical errors or mistakes made through inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect that may be contained in the resolution adopted by the commission making determinations, if it first obtains the written consent of either the executive officer or the commission. The commission may likewise make those corrections before the completion of proceedings upon written request by any member of the commission, by the executive officer, or by any affected agency. A correction made pursuant to this section shall not be cause for filing a request pursuant to Section 56857.

SEC. 5. Section 56857 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 56857 is added to the Government Code, to read:

56857. (a) Any person or affected agency may file a written request with the executive officer requesting amendments to or reconsideration of any resolution adopted by the commission making determinations.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 56106, the deadlines set by this section are mandatory. The person or agency shall file the written request within 30 days of the adoption of the initial or superseding resolution by the commission making determinations or prior to the adoption of a resolution by the conducting authority pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 57075), whichever is earlier. If no person or agency files a timely request, the commission shall not take any action pursuant to this section.

(c) Upon receipt of a timely request, the executive officer shall immediately notify the conducting authority which shall not take any further action until the commission acts on the request.

(d) Upon receipt of a timely request by the executive officer, any provisions of Part 4 (commencing with Section 57000) governing the time within which the conducting authority is to act shall be tolled for the time that the commission takes to act on the request.

(e) The executive officer shall place the request on the agenda of the next meeting of the commission for which notice can be given pursuant to this subdivision. The executive officer shall give notice of the consideration of the request by the commission in the same manner as for the original proposal The executive officer may give notice in any other manner as he or she deems necessary or desirable.

(f) At that meeting, the commission shall consider the request and receive any oral or written testimony. The consideration may be continued from time to time but not to exceed 35 days from the date specified in the notice. The person or agency which filed the request may withdraw it at any time prior to the conclusion of the consideration by the commission.

(g) At the conclusion of its consideration, the commission may approve or disapprove with or without amendment, wholly, partially, or conditionally, the request. If the commission disapproves the request, it shall not adopt a new resolution making determinations, but shall direct the executive officer to notify the conducting authority of its action. If the commission approves the request, with or without amendment, wholly, partially, or conditionally, the commission shall adopt a resolution making determinations which shall supersede the resolution previously issued.

(h) The determinations of the commission shall be final and conclusive. No person or agency shall make any further request for the same change or a substantially similar change, as determined by the commission.

(i) Notwithstanding subdivision (h), clerical errors or mistakes may be corrected pursuant to Section 56854.

SEC. 7. In enacting this act, the Legislature does not intend to make any statement regarding any pending litigation.

SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 827

An act to amend Section 226 of the Labor Code, relating to employment, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 226 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

226. (a) Every employer shall semimonthly, or at the time of each payment of wages, furnish each of his or her employees either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately when wages are paid by personal check or cash, an itemized statement in writing showing: (1) gross wages earned; (2) total hours worked by each employee whose compensation is based on an hourly wage; (3) all deductions; provided, that all deductions made on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item; (4) net wages earned; (5) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid; (6) the name of the employee and his or her social security number; and (7) the name and address of the legal entity which is the employer.

The deductions made from cash payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement, or a record of the deductions, shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of employment or at a central location within the State of California.

An employer who is required by this code or any regulation adopted pursuant to this code to keep the information required by this section shall afford current and former employees the right to inspect or copy the records pertaining to that current or former employee, upon reasonable request to the employer. The employer may take reasonable steps to assure the identity of a current or former employee. If the employer provides copies of the records, the actual cost of reproduction may be charged to the current or former employee.

This section shall not apply to any employer of any person employed by the owner or occupant of a residential dwelling whose duties are incidental to the ownership, maintenance, or use of the dwelling, including the care and supervision of children, or whose duties are personal and not in the course of the trade, business, profession, or occupation of the owner or occupant.

(b) Any employee suffering injury as a result of a knowing and intentional failure by an employer to comply with subdivision (a) shall be entitled to recover all actual damages or one hundred dollars ($100), whichever is greater, plus costs and reasonable attorney fees.

(c) This section shall not apply to the state, or any city, county, city and county, district, or any other governmental entity.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the maximum number of California residents to establish their eligibility under the federal Immigration Reform and Control Act (Public Law 99-603), it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 828

An act to amend Sections 1370 and 1370.1 of the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 11512.09 to the Insurance Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1370 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1370. Every plan shall establish procedures in accordance with department regulations for continuously reviewing the quality of care, performance of medical personnel, utilization of services and facilities, and costs. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, there shall be no monetary liability on the part of, and no cause of action for damages shall arise against, any person who participates in quality of care or utilization reviews by plan or provider peer review committees which are composed chiefly of physicians and surgeons, dentists, optometrists, or any of the above, for any act performed during the reviews if the person acts without malice, has made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter, and believes that the action taken is warranted by the facts, and neither the proceedings nor the records of the reviews shall be subject to discovery, nor shall any person in attendance at the reviews be required to testify as to what transpired thereat. Disclosure of the proceedings or records to the governing body of a plan or to any person or entity designated by the plan to review activities of the committees shall not alter the status of the records or of the proceedings as privileged communications.

The above prohibition relating to discovery or testimony shall not apply to the statements made by any person in attendance at such a review who is a party to an action or proceeding the subject matter of which was reviewed, or to any person requesting hospital staff privileges, or in any action against an insurance carrier alleging bad faith by the carrier in refusing to accept a settlement offer within the policy limits, or to the commissioner in conducting surveys pursuant to Section 1380.

This section shall not be construed to confer immunity from liability on any health care service plan. In any case in which, but for the enactment of the preceding provisions of this section, a cause of action would arise against a health care service plan, the cause of action shall exist notwithstanding the provisions of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 1370.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1370.1. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a plan from utilizing subcommittees to participate in peer review activities, nor to prevent a plan from delegating the responsibilities required by Section 1370, as it determines to be appropriate, to subcommittees including subcommittees composed of a majority of nonphysician health care providers licensed pursuant to the Business and Professions Code, so long as the plan controls the scope of authority delegated and may revoke all or part of this authority at any time. Persons who participate in the subcommittees shall be entitled to the same immunity from monetary liability and actions for civil damages as persons who participate in plan or provider peer review committees pursuant to Section 1370.

SEC. 3. Section 11512.09 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

11512.09. Every nonprofit hospital service plan which issues comprehensive health care contracts under subdivision (e) of Section 11493 shall establish procedures in accordance with those regulations that the department may issue for continuously reviewing the quality of care, performance of medical personnel, utilization of services and facilities, and costs. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, there shall be no monetary liability on the part of, and no cause of action for damages shall arise against, any person who participates in quality of care or utilization reviews by plan or provider peer review committees which are composed chiefly of physicians and surgeons, dentists, optometrists, or any of the above, for any act performed during the reviews, if the person acts without malice, has made reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter, and believes that the action taken is warranted by the facts, and neither the proceedings nor the records of the reviews shall be subject to discovery, nor shall any person in attendance at the reviews be required to testify as to what transpired thereat. Disclosure of the proceedings or records to the governing body of a plan or to any person or entity designated by the plan to review activities of the committees shall not alter the status of the records or of the proceedings as privileged communications.

The above prohibition relating to discovery or testimony shall not apply to the statements made by any person in attendance at such a review who is a party to an action or proceeding the subject matter of which was reviewed, or to any person requesting hospital staff privileges, or any action against an insurance carrier alleging bad faith by the carrier in refusing to accept a settlement offer within the policy limits, or to the commissioner in conducting surveys applicable to these provisions.

This section shall not be construed to confer immunity from liability on any nonprofit hospital service plan. In any case in which, but for the enactment of the preceding provisions of this section, a cause of action would arise against a nonprofit hospital service plan, the cause of action shall exist notwithstanding the provisions of this section.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a nonprofit hospital service plan from utilizing subcommittees to participate in peer review activities, nor to prevent a nonprofit hospital service plan from delegating the responsibilities required by this section, as it determines to be appropriate, to subcommittees including subcommittees composed of a majority of nonphysician health care providers licensed pursuant to the Business and Professions Code, so long as the nonprofit hospital service plan controls the scope of authority delegated and may revoke all or part of this authority at any time. Persons who participate in the subcommittees shall be entitled to the same immunity from monetary liability and actions for civil damages as persons who participate in plan or provider peer review committees pursuant to this section.

An act to amend Sections 51401 and 51659 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 51401 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

51401. Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, as used in this chapter:

(a) "Mortgage loan" means any residential mortgage loan or multifamily rental housing loan.

(b) "Multifamily rental housing" means any existing structure of more than four dwelling units or any work or undertaking of more than four units of new construction, improvement, or rehabilitation for the provision of housing.

(c) "Multifamily rental housing loan" means a mortgage loan secured by a mortgage on multifamily rental housing.

(d) "Residence" means any existing structure of one to four dwelling units or any work or undertaking of one to four dwelling units of new construction, improvement, or rehabilitation for the provision of housing.

(e) "Residential mortgage loan" means a mortgage loan secured by a mortgage on a residence.

(f) "Taxable securities" means securities bearing interest that is otherwise taxable under the personal income tax provisions of federal tax law and which are issued to finance the purchase or making of mortgage loans pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 51659 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

51659. (a) The obligation of the agency and of the state to pay any insurance benefit pursuant to contracts of insurance insuring loans or bonds shall not exceed amounts deposited in the insurance fund which are made available therefor under the respective contracts of insurance. Nothing in this part shall require the Legislature to appropriate moneys from the General Fund in the State Treasury to the Housing Insurance Fund on account of these obligations. The insurance of loans or bonds under the provisions of this part shall not directly, indirectly, or contingently obligate the state or any political subdivision thereof to levy or to pledge any form of taxation whatever therefor or to make any appropriation for their payment.

(b) All contracts of insurance insuring loans or bonds pursuant to this part shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the following effect: "Neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the State of California is pledged to the payment of the principal of or interest on this contract of insurance."

(c) Moneys in the insurance fund may not be transferred to any other fund of the agency except as necessary to pay the expenses of operating the program of loan and bond insurance authorized by this part, nor shall the agency utilize any moneys under the direction and control of the agency, other than moneys in the insurance fund, to satisfy liabilities arising from contracts of insurance authorized by this part.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the agency may on behalf of the Housing Insurance Fund borrow moneys from the California Housing Finance Fund, or from any other state fund available by law for this purpose to meet a pledge or obligation for insurance reserves if insufficient funds therefor exist in the Housing Insurance Fund and if authorized by a resolution of the board. The agency may also on behalf of the Housing Insurance Fund borrow moneys from any other state fund, as may be authorized by law, order to create reserves in the insurance fund for loan or bond insurance as provided in this part and as authorized by board resolution.

SEC. 3. In enacting the changes in subdivision (d) of Section 51659 of the Health and Safety Code made by Section 2 of this act, it is the intent of the Legislature (1) to facilitate the initial rating of the Housing Insurance Fund's claims-paying ability by the Standard and Poor's Corporation and Moody's Investors Service by clarifying the agency's authority to make an enforceable general pledge of support on behalf of the Housing Insurance Fund, (2) that this pledge not be used to increase the amount of insurance the Housing Insurance Fund is authorized to transact through inclusion in the risk-to-capital ratios established for the agency by these rating services of moneys transferred to the Housing Insurance Fund pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 51659 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) that these changes not result in an dimunition of effort or reduction in the funds now allocated by the agency to its special programs, including: the deferred-low-interest-loan program for multifamily rental developments, the matching-down-payment program for single-family home ownership and self-help housing, and the reduced-mortgage-interest program for self-help housing.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide for adequate insurance reserves in the Housing Insurance Fund without delay and to facilitate issuance by the California Housing Finance Agency of revenue bonds under federal tax laws, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 830

An act to amend Section 12419.8 of the Government Code, to amend Sections 75.70, 95, 175, 2821, 2921.5, 2922.5, 3455, 3691.4, 3712, 3725, 3809, 3811, 4105, 4222, 4674, 4831, 4837.5, 5086, and 5832 of, to amend and renumber Section 2770 of, and to repeal Sections 157, 176, 406, 2929, 3521, 4104.4, and 4104.5 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12419.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12419.8. The Controller may, in his or her discretion, offset any amount due a county from a person or entity, against any amount owing the person or entity by a state agency on a claim for a refund from the Franchise Tax Board under the Personal Income Tax Law or the Bank and Corporation Tax Law. Standards and procedures for submission of requests for offsets shall be as prescribed by the Controller. Whenever insufficient funds are available to satisfy an offset request, the Controller, after first applying the amounts available to any amount due a state agency, may allocate the balance among any other requests for offset.

The Controller shall deduct and retain from any amount offset in favor of a county an amount sufficient to reimburse the Controller and the Franchise Tax Board for their administrative costs of processing the offset payment.

The provisions of this section shall apply only where amounts have been reduced to judgment, are contained in an order of a court, or are delinquent unsecured property taxes on which a certificate lien has been filed for record in the office of the county recorder pursuant to Section 2191.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

Upon the tax collector's request for taxpayer identification numbers required by the Controller's procedures, the assessor shall immediately notify the appropriate assessee, by registered or certified mail, that the request has been made for the purpose of intercepting refunds from the state government due the taxpayer, in order to offset the delinquent property tax obligation. The letter shall state that if the assessee does not pay the outstanding tax amount to the tax collector within 20 days, the required taxpayer identification number will be so provided.

The assessor shall not be named in any action that may be brought as a result of compliance with this provision.

SEC. 2. Section 75.70 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

75.70. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the 1983–84 fiscal year, each county auditor shall allocate to all elementary, high school, and unified school districts within the county in proportion to each district's average daily attendance, as certified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction for purposes of the advance apportionment of state aid in the then current fiscal year, without respect to the allocation of property tax revenues pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 95) of Part 0.5, and without respect to allocation and payment of funds as provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code, an amount equal to the additional revenues generated by the rate levied pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution applied to the increased assessments for the current roll under this chapter. Additional revenues generated by a rate or rates levied in excess of the limitation prescribed by subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution shall be allocated to the fund for which the tax rate or rates were levied.

(b) For the 1984–85 fiscal year, the county auditor shall, without respect to the allocation of property tax revenues pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 95) of Part 0.5, do all of the following:

(1) Make the allocation and payment of funds as provided in Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) Allocate to the county the amount determined pursuant to Section 75.60.

(3) Allocate to the county an amount equal to the total amount of additional revenues generated by the rate levied pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution applied to the increased assessments under this chapter, less the amount determined pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2), the remainder multiplied by the county's property tax apportionment factor determined pursuant to Section 97.5.

(4) Allocate to each community college district and county superintendent of schools within the county an amount equal to the total amount of additional revenues generated by the rate levied pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution applied to the increased assessments under this chapter, less the amount determined pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2), the remainder multiplied by each county superintendent of schools' and community college district's property tax apportionment factor determined pursuant to Section 97.5.

(5) Allocate to each city within the county an amount equal to the total amount of additional revenue generated by the rate levied pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution applied to the increased assessments under this chapter, less the amount determined pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2), the remainder multiplied by each city's property tax apportionment factor determined pursuant to Section 97.5.

(6) Allocate to each special district within the county an amount equal to the total amount of additional revenues generated by the rate levied pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution applied to the increased assessments under this chapter, less the amount determined pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2), the remainder multiplied by each special district's property tax apportionment factor determined pursuant to Section 97.5. The amount allocated to each special district which is governed by the board of supervisors of a county or whose governing board is the same as the board of supervisors of a county, shall be subject to Section 98.6.

(7) Allocate the remaining revenues generated by the rate levied pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution applied to the increased assessments under this chapter to all elementary, high school, and unified school districts within the county in proportion to each district's average daily attendance, as certified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction for purposes of the advance apportionment of state aid in the then current fiscal year.

(8) Allocate additional revenues generated by a rate levied in excess of the limitation prescribed by subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution to the fund or funds for which the tax rate or rates were levied.

These allocations shall be made on a timely basis but no later than 30 calendar days after the close of the preceding monthly or four-weekly accounting period.

(c) For the 1985–86 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter, the county auditor shall, without respect to the allocation of property tax revenues pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 95) of Part 0.5, do all of the following:

(1) Make the allocation and payment of funds as provided in Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) Allocate and pay to the county an amount equal to the total amount of additional revenues generated by the rate levied pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution applied to the increased assessments under this chapter, less the amount determined pursuant to paragraph (1), the remainder multiplied by the county's property tax apportionment factor determined pursuant to Section 97.5.

(3) Allocate and pay to each county superintendent of schools and community college district within the county an amount equal to the total amount of additional revenues generated by the rate levied pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution applied to the increased assessments under this chapter, less the amount determined pursuant to paragraph (1), the remainder multiplied by each county superintendent of schools' and community college district's property tax apportionment factor determined pursuant to Section 97.5.

(4) Allocate and pay to each city within the county an amount equal to the total amount of additional revenues generated by the rate levied pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution applied to the increased assessments under this chapter, less the amount determined pursuant to paragraph (1), the remainder multiplied by each city's property tax apportionment factor determined pursuant to Section 97.5.

(5) Allocate and pay to each special district within the county an amount equal to the total amount of additional revenues generated by the rate levied pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution applied to the increased assessments under this chapter, less the amount determined pursuant to paragraph (1), the remainder multiplied by each special district's property tax apportionment factor determined pursuant to Section 97.5. The amount allocated to each special district which is governed by the board of supervisors of a county or whose governing body is the same as the board of supervisors of a county, shall be subject to Section 98.6.

(6) Allocate and pay the remaining revenues generated by the rate levied pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution applied to the increased assessments under this chapter to all elementary, high school, and unified school districts within the county in proportion to each district's average daily attendance, as certified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the purposes of the advance apportionment of state aid in the then current fiscal year.

(7) Allocate and pay additional revenues generated by a rate levied in excess of the limitation prescribed by subdivision (a) of Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution to the fund or funds for which the tax rate or rates were levied.

These allocations and payments shall be made on a timely basis but no later than 30 calendar days after the close of the preceding monthly or four-weekly accounting period. For a county with a population of 500,000 or less, the allocations may be made on a biannual basis.

(d) For purposes of the certification made by the Superintendent of Public Instruction pursuant to subdivision (a), the average daily attendance of the following districts shall be deemed to be zero:

(1) In the case of multicounty districts, the portions of the districts located other than in the county of control.

(2) Any district which received two thousand four hundred dollars ($2,400) or one hundred twenty dollars ($120) per average daily attendance, whichever is greater, in the prior fiscal year.

(e) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall certify the appropriate counts of average daily attendance pursuant to subdivision (a) to each county auditor no later than July 15 of each applicable fiscal year.

(f) On or before November 15 and April 15, the auditor of each county shall furnish to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the estimated amount of tax receipts pursuant to this section of each school district situated within his or her county.

(g) In the event property tax revenues under this chapter are generated by a change in ownership or completed new construction which occurred on or before May 31, 1984, but are collected subsequent to the 1983–84 fiscal year, the revenues for the current roll shall be allocated to school districts as if they had been collected and allocated during this 1983–84 fiscal year. Any of the aforementioned revenues which are collected in the 1984–85 fiscal year shall be applied to school apportionments for the 1984–85 fiscal year.

SEC. 3. Section 95 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

95. For the purpose of this chapter:

(a) "Local agency" means a city, county, and special district.

(b) "Jurisdiction" means a local agency, school district, community college district, or county superintendent of schools.

For jurisdictions located in more than one county, the county auditor of each county in which that jurisdiction is located shall, for the purposes of computing the amount for that jurisdiction pursuant to this chapter, treat the portion of the jurisdiction located within that county as a separate jurisdiction.

(c) "Property tax revenue" includes the amount of state reimbursement for the homeowners' exemption.

"Property tax revenue" does not include the amount of property tax levied for the purpose of making payments for the interest and principal on (1) general obligation bonds or other indebtedness approved by the voters prior to July 1, 1978, including tax rates levied pursuant to Part 10 (commencing with Section 15000) of Division 1 of, and Sections 39308 and 39311 and former Sections 81338 and 81341 of the Education Code, and Section 26912.7 of the Government Code, and (2) bonded indebtedness for the acquisition or improvement of real property approved by two-thirds of the voters on or after June 4, 1986.

(d) "Taxable assessed value" means total assessed value minus all exemptions other than the homeowners' and business inventory exemptions.

(e) "Jurisdictional change" includes a change of organization, as defined in Section 35027 of the Government Code, an incorporation, as defined in Section 35037 of the Government Code, a municipal reorganization, as defined in Section 35042 of the Government Code, a change of organization, as defined in Section 56028 of the Government Code, a formation, as defined in Section 56042 of the Government Code, and a reorganization, as defined in Section 56068 of the Government Code. "Jurisdictional change" also includes any change in the boundary of those special districts which are not under the jurisdiction of a local agency formation commission.

Jurisdictional change shall also include a functional consolidation where two or more local agencies, except two or more counties, exchange or otherwise reassign functions and any change in the boundaries of a school district or community college district or county superintendent of schools.

(f) "School entities" means school districts, community college districts, and county superintendents of schools.

(g) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, "tax rate area" means a specific geographic area all of which is within the jurisdiction of the same combination of local agencies and school entities for the current fiscal year.

In the case of a jurisdictional change pursuant to Section 99, the area subject to the change shall constitute a new tax rate area, except that if the area subject to change is within the same combinations of local agencies and school entities as an existing tax rate area, the two tax rate areas may be combined into one tax rate area.

Existing tax rate areas having the same combinations of local agencies and school entities may be combined into one tax rate area. For the combination of existing tax rate areas, the factors used to allocate the annual tax increment pursuant to Section 98 shall be determined by calculating a weighted average of the annual tax increment factors used in the tax rate areas being combined.

(h) "State assistance payments" means:

(1) For counties, amounts determined pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 16260 of the Government Code, increased by the amount specified for each county pursuant to Section 94 of Chapter 282 of the Statutes of 1979, with the resultant sum reduced by an amount derived by the calculation made pursuant to Section 16713 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) For cities, 82.91 percent of the amounts determined pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (i) of Section 16250 of the Government Code plus for any city an additional amount equal to one-half of the amount of any outstanding debt as of June 30, 1978, for "museums" as shown in the Controller's "Annual Report of Financial Transactions of Cities for Fiscal Year 1977–78."

(3) For special districts, 95.24 percent of the amounts received pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 16270) of Part 1.5 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, Section 35.5 of Chapter 332 of the Statutes of 1978, and Chapter 12 of the Statutes of 1979.

(i) "City clerk" means the clerk of the governing body of a city or city and county.

(j) "Executive officer" means the executive officer of a local agency formation commission.

(k) "City" means any city whether general law or charter, except a city and county.

(l) "County" means any chartered or general law county. "County" includes a city and county.

(m) "Special district" means any agency of the state for the local performance of governmental or proprietary functions within limited boundaries. "Special district" includes a county service area, a maintenance district or area, an improvement district or improvement zone, or any other zone or area, formed for the purpose of designating an area within which a property tax rate will be levied to pay for a service or improvement benefiting that area. "Special district" includes the Bay Area Air Quality Management District. "Special district" does not include a city, a county, a school district or a community college district. "Special district" does not include any agency which is not authorized by statute to levy a property tax rate. However, any special district authorized to levy a property tax by the statute under which the district was formed shall be considered a special district.

SEC. 4. Section 157 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 175 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

175. All deeds heretofore and hereafter issued to any taxing agency, including taxing agencies which have their own system for the levying and collection of taxes, by reason of the delinquency of property taxes or assessments levied by any taxing agency or revenue district, shall be conclusively presumed to be valid unless held to be invalid in an appropriate proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction to determine the validity of the deed commenced within one year after the execution of the deed, or within one year after the effective date of this section, whichever is later. These proceedings may be prosecuted within the time limits specified above in the manner and subject to the provisions of Sections 3618 to 3636, inclusive.

SEC. 6. Section 176 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 406 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 2770 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended and renumbered to read:

2610.6. When the tax collector sends a tax bill to any person respecting property which has been assessed to another and who has the power, pursuant to written or oral authorization, to pay the taxes on behalf of another, the tax collector shall send to the assessee an information copy of the tax bill, except, that the copy shall state plainly that the copy is not a bill and that the original bill has been sent to another person for payment.

SEC. 9. Section 2821 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2821. Any person filing an affidavit of interest may apply to the tax collector to have any parcel separately valued on the current roll for the purpose of paying taxes. A county may, upon approval of the board of supervisors, require that the applicant notify the property owner.

The application shall be made during the current fiscal year, and shall set forth the fact that a duly executed and recorded deed, purchase contract, deed of trust, mortgage, or final decree of court describes the parcel sought to be separately valued. A county may, upon approval of the board of supervisors, prohibit these applications during the 10 working days preceding each tax installment delinquency date and during the 10 working days preceding June 30th of each year.

The application may request that the tax created by the assessment of personal property, or leasehold improvements, or possessory interests on the whole assessment be allowed to remain as a lien on the parcel sought to be separately valued.

If any lien not determined by the application of a tax rate on a valuation of property has been levied or placed on the whole assessment, the application may be accompanied by the certification of the taxing agency or revenue district authorized by law to levy or place the lien, setting forth the specific amount of that portion of the lien levied or placed on the whole assessment which is to continue to be levied or placed on the parcel sought to be separately valued.

The board of supervisors may provide that a parcel with a lien against it and other property, pursuant to the Improvement Act of 1911, Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Streets and Highways Code, or the Improvement Bond Act of 1915, Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code, will not be separately valued unless a request has been made to the agency levying the bond lien for a division of land and bond. A copy of the requested division of land and bond shall accompany the request for separate property tax valuation.

Any separations of property pursuant to this section are for valuing property for tax purposes only, and are not intended to create a legal building site or to supersede requirements pursuant to zoning, building, lot split or subdivision ordinances.

Once created, an individual interest parcel may be entered as a separate assessment on subsequent assessment rolls until such time as ownership of the interest is conveyed or until the original applicant or his or her agent requests that the parcel be recombined.

Upon authorization by ordinance by the board of supervisors, the tax collector may charge an application fee for actual costs incurred for the processing of an application for the separate valuation of any parcel on the current roll. Fees shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 12.5 (commencing with Section 54985) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 10. Section 2921.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2921.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), taxes, penalties, and costs on unsecured property as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 134, shall be transferred from the "secured roll" to the "unsecured roll" of the corresponding year by the county auditor on order of the board of supervisors with the written consent of the county legal advisor pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 5081) of Chapter 4 of Part 9 at the same time the taxes are canceled on the property, and shall be collected in the same manner as other delinquent taxes on the "unsecured roll."

(b) No delinquent penalty shall attach to taxes transferred pursuant to subdivision (a), except to those taxes which carried delinquent penalty on the secured roll at the time the property involved was acquired by a public entity.

SEC. 11. Section 2922.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2922.5. Notwithstanding Section 2922, with respect to taxes on the unsecured roll where an application for reduction in assessment has been filed pursuant to Section 1607 and the board reduces the assessment in dispute, Section 4985 shall apply.

If a taxpayer does not pay by the delinquency date established by Section 2922 and indicated on the unsecured assessment roll, interest at the rate of 1 percent per month on the unpaid tax shall be charged from that date to the date of correction. Taxes unpaid by 5 p.m. on the date established by Section 4985 are delinquent and thereafter a delinquent penalty of 10 percent attaches to them.

If taxes are not paid by 5 p.m. of the last day of the second succeeding month after the 10 percent penalty attaches, an additional penalty of 1½ percent attaches to them on the first day of each month thereafter until the time of payment or until the time a court judgment is entered for the amount of the unpaid taxes and penalties, whichever occurs first.

This section is not applicable to assessments made pursuant to Section 501, or to assessments made pursuant to Section 531.2 where the escape is the result of an act or omission of the assessee and to assessments made pursuant to Sections 531.3, 531.4, and 531.5.

SEC. 12. Section 2929 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 3455 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3455. If any negotiable paper is not paid on due presentation for any reason, any record of payment made on any official record because of its acceptance shall be canceled, and the bid upon which the negotiable paper was accepted shall be voided as if no bid had been made, and the original owner's right of redemption is revived.

SEC. 14. Section 3521 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 3691.4 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3691.4. The notice to the Controller shall be recorded with the county recorder. After recordation, the notice shall be forwarded to the Controller. The recorder shall make no charge for the recording.

SEC. 16. Section 3712 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3712. The deed conveys title to the purchaser free of all encumbrances of any kind existing before the sale, except:

(a) Any lien for installments of special assessments, which installments will become payable upon the secured roll after the time of the sale.

(b) The lien for taxes or assessments or other rights of any taxing agency which does not consent to the sale under this chapter.

(c) Liens for special assessments levied upon the property conveyed which were, at the time of the sale under this chapter, not included in the amount necessary to redeem the tax-defaulted property, and, where a taxing agency which collects its own taxes has consented to the sale under this chapter, not included in the amount required to redeem from sale to the taxing agency.

(d) Easements constituting servitudes upon or burdens to the property; water rights, the record title to which is held separately from the title to the property; and restrictions of record.

(e) Unaccepted, recorded, irrevocable offers of dedication of the property to the public or a public entity for a public purpose, and recorded options of any taxing agency to purchase the property or any interest therein for a public purpose.

(f) Unpaid assessments under the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 (Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code) which are not satisfied as a result of the sale proceeds being applied pursuant to Chapter 1.3 (commencing with Section 4671) of Part 8.

(g) Any federal Internal Revenue Service liens which, pursuant to provisions of federal law, are not discharged by the sale, even though the tax collector has provided proper notice to the Internal Revenue Service before that date.

SEC. 17. Section 3725 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3725. A proceeding based on alleged invalidity or irregularity of any proceedings instituted under this chapter can only be commenced within one year after the date of execution of the tax collector's deed.

Sections 351 to 358, inclusive, of the Code of Civil Procedure do not apply to the time within which a proceeding may be brought under this section.

SEC. 18. Section 3809 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3809. A proceeding based on alleged invalidity or irregularity of any agreement or deed executed under this article can only be commenced within one year after the execution of the instrument.

Sections 351 to 358, inclusive, of the Code of Civil Procedure do not apply to the time within which a proceeding may be brought under this section.

SEC. 19. Section 3811 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3811. On execution of the deed to the taxing agency or nonprofit organization, and on receipt of a notice of resale of the property by the taxing agency the tax collector shall report the following within 10 days to the Controller, the assessor, and the auditor:

(a) The name of the purchaser.

(b) The date of the deed to the taxing agency or nonprofit organization, or in the event of resale the date of the deed by the taxing agency.

(c) The amount for which the property was sold or in the event of resale the net amount after deducting allowable expenses.

(d) The description of the property conveyed.

SEC. 20. Section 4104.4 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 21. Section 4104.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 22. Section 4105 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4105. The tax collector shall be the redemption officer of the county. Application to redeem shall be made to the tax collector.

SEC. 23. Section 4222 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4222. If all payments are not made on or before the dates prescribed, the property may become subject to a power of sale pursuant to Section 3691 in the same manner as if no election to pay delinquent taxes in installments had been made. In the event that the default occurs at the time the second or subsequent installment is due and the assessee or agent of the assessee can, by substantial evidence, convince the tax collector that the payment was not made through any fault of the assessee, the tax collector may reinstate the account upon receipt of a payment in an amount reflecting the installment due plus interest under Section 4221 to the date of reinstatement, provided the payment is physically received by the tax collector prior to the time the property becomes subject to the tax collector's power to sell or prior to June 30 of the current fiscal year, whichever occurs earlier.

SEC. 24. Section 4674 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4674. Any excess in the proceeds deposited in the delinquent tax sale trust fund remaining after satisfaction of the amounts distributed under Sections 4672, 4672.1, 4672.2, 4673, and 4673.1 shall be retained in the fund on account of, and may be claimed by parties of interest in the property as provided in, Section 4675. At the expiration of one year following the recordation of the tax deed to the purchaser, any excess proceeds not claimed under Section 4675 shall be distributed as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 4673.1, except prior to the distribution, the tax collector may deduct those costs of maintaining the redemption and tax-defaulted property files which have not been recovered under any other provision of law.

SEC. 25. Section 4831 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4831. (a) Any error resulting in incorrect entries on the roll may be corrected under this article. The correction may be made at any time after the roll is delivered to the auditor but shall be made within four years after the making of the assessment which is being corrected. This section does not apply to either of the following:

(1) Errors involving the exercise of value judgments.

(2) Escape assessments caused by the assessee's failure to report the information required by Article 2 (commencing with Section 441) of Chapter 3 of Part 2.

If any error referred to in this subdivision is discovered as the result of an audit of a taxpayer's books and records, that error may be corrected at any time prior to the expiration of six months after the completion of the audit.

(b) Taxes which are not a lien or charge on the property assessed may be transferred from the secured roll to the unsecured roll of the corresponding year by the county auditor on order of the board of supervisors with the written consent of their legal counsel. These taxes shall be collected in the same manner as other delinquent taxes on the unsecured roll and shall be subject to delinquent penalties in the same manner as taxes transferred to the unsecured roll under Section 5090. The statute of limitations for the collection of those taxes shall commence to run from the date of transfer.

SEC. 26. Section 4837.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4837.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, taxes due, whether secured or unsecured, on escape assessments for prior fiscal years, where the error causing the escape assessment was not that of the assessee, or taxes due because of the correction of any assessor's error for prior fiscal years under this article, where that error was made without fault on the part of the assessee, may be paid over a four-year period at the option of the assessee if: (1) the additional tax is over one hundred dollars ($100), and (2) a written request for installment payment is filed by the assessee with the tax collector prior to the time the second installment of taxes on the secured roll becomes delinquent, or by the last day of the month following the month in which the tax bill is mailed, whichever is later. The tax collector shall include with the property tax bill a notice of the payment provisions of this section.

If payment by installments is requested, 20 percent of the tax shall be paid no later than the deadline for filing the written request. The current taxes and prior year taxes with penalties and costs thereon shall be paid with or prior to the initial installment payment. In each succeeding fiscal year, the assessee shall pay, before the delinquency date of the second installment of current taxes on the secured roll, all current year taxes. and a sum at least sufficient to reduce the outstanding balance of the tax by 20 percent of the original amount.

No penalties shall be charged so long as installment payments are made timely. If any installment is not paid timely, or if the property on the secured roll becomes tax defaulted, or if the property changes ownership, or if taxes for the property on the unsecured roll are not paid before becoming delinquent, the balance of the tax remaining to be paid shall immediately become due and payable, no further installment payments for that escape assessment or correction shall be authorized, and the remaining balance of the tax shall become subject to all of the provisions of this division applicable to delinquent taxes.

The tax collector shall maintain records listing the current status of all the installment accounts authorized under this section and the fact of each installment account shall be entered on the current roll.

SEC. 27. Section 5086 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

5086. If exempt property is acquired by negotiated purchase, gift, devise, or eminent domain after commencement of the fiscal year for which the current taxes are a lien on the property:

(a) The portion of the current taxes and any penalties and costs that are allocable to the part of the fiscal year that ends on the day before the date of apportionment shall be paid through escrow at the close of escrow or from the award in eminent domain.

(b) The portion of the current taxes and any penalties and costs that are allocable to the part of the fiscal year that begins on the date of apportionment shall be canceled and are not collectible either from the person from whom the property was acquired or from the public entity that acquired the property.

(c) If the amount of taxes or special assessment liens is unknown, the portion of the current taxes attributable to the period of the fiscal year that ends on the day before the date of apportionment shall be ascertained by the auditor on a pro rata basis of the previous year's taxes, and shall be paid to the tax collector. The auditor shall adjust the assessment roll and the tax charge accordingly.

SEC. 28. Section 5832 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

5832. (a) Upon application, the county tax collector shall issue a tax clearance certificate or a conditional tax clearance certificate. Any tax clearance certificate issued shall be used to permit registration of used manufactured homes or mobilehomes and for any other purposes which may be prescribed by the Controller. The certificate may indicate that the county tax collector finds that no local property tax is due or is likely to become due, or that any applicable local property taxes have been paid or are to be paid in a manner not requiring the withholding of registration or the transfer of registration. Any conditional tax clearance certificate issued shall indicate that the county tax collector finds that a tax liability exists, the amount due, and the final date that amount may be paid before a further tax liability is incurred. The certificate shall be in such form as the Controller may prescribe, and shall be executed, issued, and accepted for clearance of registration or permit issuance on the conditions which the Controller may prescribe.

(b) Within five working days of receipt of the written demand for a conditional tax clearance certificate or tax clearance certificate, the county tax collector shall forward the conditional tax clearance certificate or tax clearance certificate, showing no tax liability exists, to the requesting escrow officer. In the event the final due date of the tax clearance certificate or conditional tax clearance certificate expires within 30 days of the date of its issuance, an additional conditional tax clearance certificate or tax clearance certificate shall be completed, which has a final due date of at least 30 days beyond the date of issuance.

(c) If the tax collector fails to comply with the demand within 30 days from the date the demand is mailed, the escrow officer may close the escrow in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (m) of Section 18035 of the Health and Safety Code.

(d) Notwithstanding any provisions of law requiring the tax collector to issue a tax clearance certificate or conditional tax clearance certificate within a specified period of time, when an escrow information demand is made pursuant to Section 18035 of the Health and Safety Code for a mobilehome that has not been enrolled in the county, the tax collector shall be afforded the number of working days necessary for the assessor to determine the value of the mobilehome and for the auditor to extend tax liability.

(e) The issuance, alteration, forgery, or use of any tax clearance certificate or conditional certificate in a manner contrary to the requirements of the Controller constitutes a misdemeanor.

SEC. 29. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

SEC. 30. (a) Every act and proceeding heretofore taken by any taxing agency or revenue district or the officers thereof relative to preparing, transmitting, computing, determining, or fixing the budget or the tax rate or taxes of any taxing agency or revenue district, or to the assessment or equalization of property or to the levy of taxes thereon or to tax collection, sales, or certificates of tax sales, tax deeds, or other conveyances, are hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective.

(b) As used in this section, "revenue district" includes every city and district for which the county officers assess property and collect taxes or assessments.

As used in this section, "taxing agency" includes the county and city. "Taxing agency" also includes every district that assesses property for taxation purposes and levies taxes or assessments on the property so assessed.

(c) This section is limited to the correction of defects, irregularities, and ministerial errors which the Legislature originally could have omitted from the statutory requirements of law under which the acts hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective were taken.

(d) This section is limited to the validating of acts and proceedings to the extent of which this validating can be effectuated under the California and United States Constitutions.

(e) This section shall not operate to confirm, validate, or legalize any act, proceeding, or other matter the legality of which is being contested or inquired into in any legal proceeding, now pending and undetermined or which may be pending and undetermined during the period of 30 days from and after the effective date of this act, and shall not operate to confirm, validate, or legalize any act, proceeding, or other matter which has heretofore been determined in any legal proceeding to be illegal, void, or ineffective.

(f) Nothing in this section shall operate to make valid any property tax rate which is in excess of that permitted by law.

(g) If any provisions of this section or its application to any person or circumstances are held invalid, the remainder of the section and application of its provisions to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

SEC. 31. This act shall be applicable to the 1989–90 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter.

CHAPTER 831

An act to amend Section 666 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 666 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

666. Every person who, having been convicted of petit theft, grand theft, auto theft under Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code, burglary, robbery, or a felony violation of Section 496 and having served a term therefor in any penal institution or having been imprisoned therein as a condition of probation for that offense, is subsequently convicted of petit theft, then the person convicted of that subsequent offense is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or in the state prison.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 832

An act to add and repeal Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 33130) of Chapter 2 of Part 20 of, and to add and repeal Section 37222 of, the Education Code, relating to education, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(1) Each child in California has a right to quality education without regard to which school in this state that child attends.

(2) There are schools in this state that perform at a higher level than other schools with similar demographic characteristics, which differences in performance are not necessarily related to the resources available to the schools.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature, pursuant to this act, to foster the development of model criteria for identifying at-risk schools, and to develop recommendations for a plan to identify, assist, and hold accountable at-risk public schools in this state, to the end that every public school reaches or exceeds an acceptable level of school performance.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that subsequent legislation be enacted to implement a plan to identify, assist, and hold accountable at-risk public schools in this state, using the recommendations developed by the task force established under this act.

SEC. 2. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 33130) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 20 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 2.5. School Performance

33130. (a) The Governor and the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall jointly establish and convene an advisory task force on at-risk schools. The State Department of Education shall provide staff assistance to the task force. The task force shall do all of the following:

(1) Develop model criteria for identifying at-risk schools and for recommending to the Legislature a plan to identify, assist, and hold accountable at-risk public schools in this state. In developing those criteria, the task force shall consider the use of a variety of data and shall seek advice from elementary and high school districts.

(2) Consider, and make recommendations to the Legislature and the Governor regarding a variety of statutory strategies for encouraging and assisting the improvement of schools identified as at-risk. The task force shall submit a copy of those recommendations to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The strategies to be considered for this purpose shall include targeted assistance from experienced educational practitioners, intensive staff training in subject matter knowledge, a staged intervention process, the use of school-based management teams, and any other strategies deemed appropriate by the task force. Pursuant to his purpose, the task force shall consider all of the following:

(A) Existing statutes addressing public school performance and intervention.

(B) Available reports regarding the improvement of at-risk schools, including the report presented to the Senate Education Committee by the Task Force on Schools with Underachieving Students and recommendations made by the California Commission on Educational Quality.

(C) Proposals and recommendations made by education groups throughout the state for the improvement of at-risk schools.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that all members of the task force be persons having recent experience working with at-risk schools. The task force shall consist of 13 members, as follows:

(1) Seven persons appointed by the Governor, at least two of whom shall be practicing school administrators. It is the intent of the Legislature that the other five persons be experienced educators, including one or more of the following: classroom teachers, administrators, school district governing board members, school nurses, school psychologists, school counselors, or educational consultants who work specifically on the improvement of at-risk schools. The Governor shall designate one of the members appointed pursuant to this subdivision as the chairperson of the task force.

(2) Two persons appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, and two persons appointed by the Senate Rules Committee, all four of whom shall be currently practicing classroom teachers with experience in at-risk schools.

(3) Two persons appointed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, one of whom shall be a classroom teacher with experience in at-risk schools.

(c) No later than February 15, 1989, the task force shall submit recommendations to the Legislature and the Governor regarding statutory criteria for the identification of at-risk schools, and for a variety of statutory strategies for the improvement of those schools. The task force shall submit a copy of those recommendations to the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

(d) All meetings of the task force shall be subject to Article 9 (commencing with Section 11120) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(e) Members of the task force shall be reimbursed for actual expenses associated with serving on the task force, as determined by the Department of Personnel Administration.

(f) This article shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before June 30, 1989, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 37222 is added to the Education Code, to read:

37222. The second Wednesday in May is designated and set apart as the Day of the Teacher.

All public schools and educational institutions are encouraged to observe the day with suitable exercises commemorating and directing attention to teachers and the teaching profession. It is the intent of the Legislature that the exercises required in this section be integrated into the regular school program, and be conducted by the school or institution within the amount otherwise budgeted for educational programs.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. The sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the 1988–89 fiscal year to provide assistance to the task force for the purposes of Sections 1 and 2 of this act, and for the payment of expenses incurred by the task force.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that model criteria for identifying at-risk schools and strategies for improving those schools may be developed at the earliest time possible, and to encourage public schools to commence necessary preparations for the observance of the Day of the Teacher in the 1988–89 school year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 833

An act relating to parks and recreation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the County of San Bernardino may, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 5626 of the Public Resources Code, grant an easement for road purposes across lands within the Glen Helen Regional Park acquired with grant moneys received pursuant to the Roberti-Z'berg Urban Open-Space and Recreation Program Act (Chapter 3.2

(commencing with Section 5620)) of Division 5 of the Public Resources Code, subject to an exchange for, or acquisition of, property of equal or greater recreation value, as determined by the Department of Parks and Recreation, and at no cost to the state. Any property acquired shall be utilized solely for park purposes and, shall be subject to all applicable requirements of the Roberti-Z'berg Urban Open-Space and Recreation Program Act.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to authorize the granting of urgently needed easements for road purposes in Glen Helen Regional Park at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 834

An act to add Chapter 12.4 (commencing with Section 54984) to Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, relating to standby charges.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 12.4 (commencing with Section 54984) is added to Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 12.4. UNIFORM STANDBY CHARGE PROCEDURES ACT

54984. This chapter shall be known as the Uniform Standby Charge Procedures Act.

54984.2. Any local agency which is authorized by law to provide water, sewer, or water and sewer service, and which is providing either or both of those services within its jurisdiction, may fix, before either (a) August 10 of any given year with respect to local agencies the taxes or assessments of which are collected for the local agency by the county or (b) the start of the fiscal year with respect to local agencies the taxes or assessments of which are collected by the local agency, a water or sewer standby charge, or both, on land within the jurisdiction of the local agency to which water, sewer, or water and sewer services are made available for any purpose by the agency, whether the water or sewer services are actually used or not. The governing body of the agency which fixes the charge may establish schedules varying the charge according to land uses, benefit derived or to be derived from the use or availability of facilities to provide water, sewer, or water and sewer service, or the degree of availability or quantity of the use of the water, sewer, or water and sewer services to the affected lands, and may restrict the assessment to one or more improvement districts or zones of benefit established within the jurisdiction of the agency. The charge may be imposed on an area, frontage, or parcel basis, or a combination thereof.

54984.3. The governing body of the local agency shall adopt a resolution to initiate proceedings to fix a standby charge. The resolution shall contain all of the following:

(a) A statement that the report of a qualified engineer is on file with the agency and that a standby charge is proposed based upon the report. The report shall include all of the following:

(1) A description of the charge and the method by which it will be imposed.

(2) A compilation of the amount of the charge proposed for each parcel subject to the charge.

(3) A statement of the methodology and rationale followed in determining the degree of benefit conferred by the service for which the charge is made.

(4) The other factors listed in Section 54984.2.

(b) A description of the lands upon which the charge is to be imposed. Assessor parcel numbers shall constitute sufficient description for this purpose.

(c) The amount of the charge for each of the lands so described.

54984.4. The local agency shall cause notice of a time and place of hearing on the charge to be published, pursuant to Section 6066, prior to the date set for hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published within the jurisdiction of the entity, if there is one, and if not, then in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the county. In addition, the local agency shall cause a notice in writing to be mailed, at least 14 days prior to the date set for hearing, to each owner of land described in the resolution initiating proceedings. The notice shall be mailed to the address shown on the last equalized assessment roll, or known to the secretary or clerk of the local agency.

54984.5. At the time and place stated in the notice, the governing body shall conduct the hearing, and shall hear and consider all objections or protests, if any, to the resolution referred to in the notice, and may continue the hearing from time to time. Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the governing board may adopt, revise, change, reduce, or modify, or withdraw a charge. The governing board shall make its determination upon each assessment or charge described in the resolution, which determination shall be final.

(c) If the governing body receives written protests which are not withdrawn at the time of the determination by the governing body, which protests represent 15 percent or more of the parcels subject to the charges authorized by this chapter the governing body may still adopt, revise, change, reduce, or modify a charge, but all the charges are ineffective until collectively approved by a majority of the vote in an election within the affected territory in which the owner of one or more parcels may cast one vote for each parcel owned within the affected territory.

54984.7. If the procedures set forth in this chapter have been followed in a given year, the governing body may, by resolution, continue the charge in successive years at the same rate and in the same manner, but dispensing with the requirement for mailed notice. The local agency shall cause notice of the intent to adopt the resolution to be published pursuant to Section 6066, prior to the date set for adoption, and shall hear any and all objections at the time and place set forth in the notice. The governing body shall, at the time and place specified, conduct the hearing and consider all objections or protests to the assessment, if any. The governing body may, thereafter, adopt, revise, reduce, or modify the assessment or charge, but may not increase the charge, or may overrule any and all objections. The determination of the governing body shall be final. This section shall not apply if the amount of the assessment is increased, or if the governing body makes any change in the areas subject to the assessment, compared to the prior year's assessment.

54984.8. After the making of a final determination pursuant to Sections 54984.5 and 54984.7 and after any required majority approval by the voter within affected territory the local agency shall cause the charge to be collected at the same time, and in the same manner, as is available to it under applicable law.

(b) A lien under this section attaches when the district files for recordation in the office of the county recorder a certificate specifying the amount of the delinquent charges together with interest and penalties thereon; the name of the owner of record of the property which is subject to the charges; and the assessor's parcel number and legal description of the property. Within 30 days of receipt of payment of all amounts due, including recordation fees paid by the district, the district shall file for recordation a release of the lien.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 835

An act to add Sections 4764.1, 4764.2, 4764.3, and 4764.4 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4764.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

4764.1. The Legislature finds that there is a significant loss of revenue to local governments due to the present inability of the department to collect unpaid parking violation penalties in cases where the ownership of a vehicle has been transferred. It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature that the department, in cooperation with parking citation processing agencies, shall develop a plan to establish a pilot program by which parking violation penalties and administrative fees may be collected without regard to whether a vehicle is transferred.

SEC. 2. Section 4764.2 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

4764.2. Notwithstanding Section 4764, the department shall, in cooperation with parking citation processing agencies, develop a plan to establish a pilot program by which parking penalties and administrative fees may be collected without regard to whether a vehicle is transferred. The plan shall address, but not be limited to, a review of the following:

(a) A method by which parking violators with 25 or more notices of parking violations on file with the department can be identified and be made responsible for payment of their parking penalties. The director may establish a lower numerical threshold if it is determined to be cost-effective.

(b) A system by which a common identifier can assist the department in identifying any vehicles owned by the same owner if a common identifier is deemed desirable.

SEC. 3. Section 4764.3 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

4764.3. The department, pursuant to Section 4763, shall assess a fee to cover the costs of the pilot program.

SEC. 4. Section 4764.4 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

4764.4. The department shall report on the plan developed pursuant to Section 4764.2 to the Legislature on or before March 31, 1989. The report shall examine whether the costs of the pilot program can be recovered from fees and whether the pilot program will result in a net revenue gain for all local agencies which participate in the program. If the pilot program is shown to be cost-effective, then the department may request funding for the program in the 1989–90 Governor's Budget. Upon appropriation of funds for the pilot program in the 1989–90 Budget Act, the department may implement a 24-month pilot program on or before December 31, 1989. The department shall submit an interim report to the Legislature evaluating the results of the pilot program by January 1, 1991, and a final report, with recommendations, by July 1, 1991.

CHAPTER 836

An act to repeal and reenact the Solano County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act (Chapter 1656 of the Statutes of 1951), relating to the Solano County Flood Control and Water Conservation District.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

PART 1. INTRODUCTORY PROVISIONS

CHAPTER 1. SHORT TITLE

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Solano County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Act.

CHAPTER 2. LEGISLATIVE INTENT

SEC. 20. The Legislature hereby finds that water problems in the County of Solano require countywide water conservation, development of water resources, and flood control; that these problems are not general or statewide; that the county for many years has made investigations and engineering surveys of the county's water resources by private, public, and federal engineers; that various water districts and municipalities now exist within portions of the county which have acquired property and works, have developed a limited water supply, and have incurred indebtedness, but have been and are unable alone to economically develop an adequate water supply; that the existing Solano County Flood Control and Water Conservation District has made progress in addressing the water needs of the county; that to adequately and feasibly conserve the water supply and control the floods of the county, it is necessary to continue to have a political entity coextensive with the geographical limits of the entire county; that there is increasing demand for water within the county for municipal, irrigation, military, and other uses, and there is an urgent need that an adequate supply of water be obtained. Investigation has shown conditions in the county to be peculiar to it and it is hereby declared that general law cannot be applicable to the county and that the enactment of this special law is necessary for the conservation, development, control, and use of water for the public good and for the protection of life and property therein.

CHAPTER 3. CREATION AND TERRITORY

SEC. 30. A district is hereby created to be known as the Solano County Flood Control and Water Conservation District. The district shall consist of all of the territory within the County of Solano lying within the exterior boundaries thereof, the area of the Davis Campus of the University of California, and that portion of the territory of any participating agency lying outside the exterior boundaries of the County of Solano.

CHAPTER 4. DEFINITIONS

SEC. 40. "Board of directors" or "board" means the board of directors of the district.

SEC. 41. "Board of supervisors" means the board of supervisors of the county.

SEC. 42. "County" means the County of Solano of the State of California.

SEC. 43. "District" means the Solano County Flood Control and Water Conservation District.

SEC. 44. "Elector" or "qualified elector" or "voter" or "qualified voter" means any registered voter residing within the district.

SEC. 45. "May" is permissive and "shall" is mandatory.

SEC. 46. "Member unit," for the purpose of the contract between the United States and the Solano County Flood Control and Water Conservation District for Water Service and for Operation and Maintenance of Certain Works of the Solano Project by the district, dated June 7, 1955, means participating agency as defined in Section 47.

SEC. 47. "Participating agency" means any county water district, reclamation district, irrigation district, water conservation district, municipality, flood control district, other agency, city, or political subdivision of the state empowered by law to appropriate water and to deliver water to water users, the territory of which lies principally within the county, which partipating agency enters into a contract with the district for (a) the repayment in whole or part to the district or any other person, corporation, public agency, the state, or the United States of any or all of the construction costs of any works constructed by or on behalf of the district, (b) the underwriting in whole or part of any or all of those construction costs, (c) the repayment in whole or in part to the district or any other person, corporation, public agency, the state, or the United States of any or all of the cost of furnishing water or a water supply to the district or the underwriting in whole or in part of that cost, or (d) the payment in whole or in part for water to be furnished or sold to that participating agency by the district, the state, or the United States.

SEC. 48. "Participating zone" means one or two or more zones benefiting from the same project or projects.

SEC. 49. "Project" means a work and all of the activities related to or necessary for acquisition, construction, operation, and maintenance of a work, including, but not limited to, planning, design, financing, and administration.

SEC. 50. "State" includes the State of California and all bureaus, commissions, divisions, departments, boards, agencies, and officers of the State of California.

SEC. 51. "United States" includes the United States of America, and all bureaus, commissions, divisions, departments, boards, agencies, and officers of the United States of America.

SEC. 52. "Work" or "works" includes, but is not limited to, any of the following: reservoirs, dams, and all conduits and facilities for the control, conservation, diversion, and transmission of water for beneficial uses; drains, levees, and all ditches and facilities for the control and disposal of drainage, storm, and flood waters within the district; powerplants, transmission lines, and all facilities for the generation and distribution of electric power; and all necessary property interests and rights-of-way.

SEC. 53. "Zone" means an improvement district, assessment district, or zone of benefit of the district.

SEC. 54. "Zone of benefit" means a zone of benefit formed under Part 6 (commencing with Section 600).

CHAPTER 5. GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 60. Neither the establishment and continuation of the district, nor any provision of this act shall affect, restrict, or supersede the existence, property, right, or power of any municipality, or public agency now or hereafter established in or partially within the limits of the district for the purpose or purposes in whole or part of flood control or for the purpose or purposes in whole or part of reclamation, conservation, storage, distribution, sale, use, or development of water. The Legislature because of conditions special to the county hereby expressly declares its intent to permit within the limits of the district the existence of more than one public agency or municipality having similar powers over similar territory in regard to flood control, reclamation, water conservation, storage, distribution, sale, use, and development.

SEC. 61. The formation of the district or the enactment of this act shall not impair the vested right of any person, association, corporation, municipality, or public agency in or to water or the use of water.

SEC. 62. The legal title to all property acquired under this act shall immediately and by operation of law vest in the district, and shall be held by the district, in trust for, and is hereby dedicated and set apart to, the uses and purposes set forth in this act. The board of directors may hold, use, acquire, manage, occupy, and possess the property, as provided in this act. The board of directors may determine, by resolution duly passed and entered in its minutes, that any property, real or personal, held by the district is no longer necessary to be retained for the uses and purposes thereof, and may thereafter sell or otherwise dispose of the property, or lease the same, in the manner provided by law for the disposition and sale of property of counties, subject to Section 206, except that the title to water rights or water conservation works shall not be conveyed or alienated except by a vote of the electors at an election held for that purpose.

SEC. 63. The rights-of-way, ditches, flumes, pipe lines, and other conduits, drains, water, water rights, reservoirs, dams, franchises, works, and all other property used for the purposes of the district and belonging to it shall not be taxed nor assessed for state, county, municipal, or any district purpose.

SEC. 64. Any judicial action or proceeding to attack, review, set aside, void, annul, or challenge the validity or legality of the formation of a zone, any contract entered into by the district or a zone, any bond or evidence of indebtedness of the district or a zone, or any assessment, rate, or charge of the district or a zone shall be commenced within 60 days of the effective date thereof.

The action or proceeding shall be brought pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 860) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

The district may bring an action pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 860) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure to determine the validity of any of the matters referred to in this section.

SEC. 65. Claims for money damages against the district shall be governed by Part 3 (commencing with Section 900) and Part 4 (commencing with Section 940) of Division 3.6 of Title 1 of the Government Code, except as provided therein. Claims not governed by those provisions or by other statutes or by ordinances or regulations authorized by law and expressly applicable to those claims shall be prepared and presented to the board, and all claims shall be audited and paid, in the same manner and with the same effect as are similar claims against the county.

SEC. 66. The boundaries of the district shall be automatically changed in the event of a change in the boundaries of the county, and any such boundary change shall not be governed by the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985 (Division 3 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 6 of the Government Code).

SEC. 67. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

PART 2. INTERNAL ORGANIZATION

CHAPTER 1. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SEC. 200. (a) The board of directors shall consist of 15 directors. Each member of the board of supervisors of the county shall serve as a director. The mayor of each of the Cities of Benicia, Dixon, Fairfield, Rio Vista, Suisun City, Vacaville, and Vallejo shall serve as a director representing each city.

(b) Each city referred to in subdivision (a) shall appoint an alternate director to serve in the place of the mayor. The alternate director shall be a member of the city council during the term of appointment.

(c) The Solano Irrigation District, the Maine Praire Water District, and Reclamation District No. 2068 shall each appoint a director, which director shall be a member of the governing board of the appointing agency during the term of the appointment. Each agency shall further appoint an alternate director to serve in the place of the director. The alternate may be a member of the governing board of, or the manager of, the appointing agency. The directors and alternates who are appointed shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing board.

SEC. 201. Directors and alternates shall be entitled to receive from the district the sum of fifty dollars ($50) for each meeting attended as a member of the board, not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per month for all meetings attended, plus actual, necessary and reasonable traveling expenses. The basis for compensation of the directors, and the amount thereof, may be altered only by a two-thirds vote of the directors.

SEC. 202. The board may adopt reasonable rules and regulations to carry out its powers and duties.

SEC. 203. The board shall elect a chairperson and a vice chairperson. The chairperson shall preside at all meetings of the board and the vice chairperson shall act as chairperson in the absence of the chairperson elected by the board. In the case of the absence or inability to act of both the chairperson and the vice chairperson, the directors present shall, by an order entered in their records, select one of their number as temporary chairperson. Any member of the board may administer oaths when necessary in the performance of that member's official duties.

SEC. 204. A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but no act of the board shall be valid or binding unless a majority of all members concur therein. Such a majority vote of the board shall be sufficient to transact business of the district except as otherwise provided in this act.

SEC. 205. A vote of two-thirds of the members of the board shall be required for passage by the board of any of the following measures:

(a) A measure which provides for a renewal of a water supply contract by the district to a participating agency allocating a decreased supply or lower priority to water than is provided by a contract existing on January 1, 1988. Notwithstanding this vote requirement, the board may take no action which would impair the existing contractual rights of a participating agency.

(b) A measure which provides for a different pricing formula than that utilized by the district on January 1, 1988, in that participating agency's contract for water unless the affected participating agency consents in writing to the change.

(c) A measure which provides for the incurrence of a debt, except within a zone as described in Part 6 (commencing with Section 600), payable over more than one year and in an amount in excess of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000).

(d) A measure which provides for the sale, distribution, or disposal of major capital assets of the district which are valued by the board in an amount in excess of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000).

CHAPTER 2. ADVISORY COMMISSION

SEC. 220. There is hereby created an advisory commission to advise the board of directors. The advisory commission shall consist of one representative appointed by each of the Cities of Benicia, Dixon, Fairfield, Rio Vista, Suisun City, Vacaville, and Vallejo. The board of supervisors of the county, the Solano Irrigation District, the Maine Prairie Water District, and Reclamation District No. 2068 shall each appoint one representative. The advisory commission shall meet at least monthly, and shall make reports and recommendations to the board of directors. The members of the advisory commission shall be the chief administrative officers of the agency which the member represents or a chief of technical staff of the agency. An alternate member of the advisory commission shall also be appointed by each agency, who shall work under either the chief administrative officer or the chief of technical staff of the appointing agency.

CHAPTER 3. OTHER OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

SEC. 260. The board may employ agents, superintendents, engineers, attorneys, and employees necessary to carry out this act. The board shall appoint a general manager and may appoint a treasurer, secretary, and such other officers, agents, and employees for the board as in its judgment may be deemed necessary, prescribe their duties, and fix their compensation. The officers, agents, and employees so appointed shall hold their respective offices or positions at the pleasure of the board.

SEC. 261. In addition to those officers and employees employed by the board pursuant to Section 260, the board may provide that any employee of the county or of an entity having representation on the board of directors, which it may designate, may be an ex officio employee of the district, and shall perform, unless otherwise provided by the board, the same various duties for the district as for his or her employer in order to carry out this act.

SEC. 262. In addition, the board may contract for the provision of services by participating agencies or other public or private agencies as necessary to carry out this act. The work shall be provided in the most efficient and economical manner. Contracts for the provision of services in effect as of January 1, 1989, shall be continued by the district regardless of the terms of this section unless the board determines, by a two-thirds vote, that the contracting party has evidenced a failure to perform the required services in a competent, economic, or expeditious manner. When entering into new contracts for operation or maintenance and repair of facilities of the district for which the district is obligated by contract to operate or maintain and repair, the district shall give preference to the participating agency which is the primary beneficiary and user of the facility, in the case of water delivery and storage facilities. In the case of flood control and drainage works, preference shall be given to the participating agency in which the largest portion of the flood control project is located. If the participating agency entitled to that preference is unwilling to provide the required operation or maintenance and repair, or both, or if the board determines by a two-thirds vote of its members that the work may be performed in a more economical, competent, or expeditious manner by an entity other than the participating agency entitled to that preference, the board may provide for the contracts for the performance of operation or maintenance and repair of facilities, or both, with other participating agencies, the county, or public or private contractors. Only if no other participating agency and neither the county nor a qualified public or private contractor is willing to contract for the performance of those services in a competent, economical, and expeditious manner, may the board provide for the performance of that work directly by the district.

PART 3. ELECTIONS

CHAPTER 1. DISTRICT ELECTIONS

SEC. 300. All district elections shall be conducted in conformance with the Uniform District Election Law (Part 3 (commencing with Section 23500) of Division 14 of the Elections Code), to the extent applicable, unless otherwise provided in this act.

SEC. 301. Except as otherwise provided in this act, the county clerk shall conduct all elections within the district. The board may, by resolution, determine that the district shall conduct an election, and an officer designated by the district shall perform the duties of the county clerk in conducting the election.

SEC. 302. The board may, by resolution, direct that any district election be conducted by all-mailed ballot under the procedure for mailed ballot elections set forth in the Elections Code. If an election is to be conducted by all-mailed ballot, it may be conducted in accordance with Section 23509.5 of the Elections Code or it may be conducted on any Tuesday, unless it is the day before or the day after a state holiday, or unless it is one of the established election dates set forth in Section 2500 of the Elections Code.

SEC. 303. Elections shall be held on one of the established election dates set forth in Section 2500 of the Elections Code or, if conducted by all-mailed ballot, in the manner provided in Section 302.

CHAPTER 2. ZONE ELECTIONS

SEC. 320. In the alternative to calling an election within a zone under the Uniform District Election Law, the board may call a zone election to vote on proposals for the issuance of bonds, the approval of projects, or the levy of benefit assessments affecting the zone. A zone election may be held on any Tuesday, unless it is the day before or the day after a state holiday, or unless it is one of the established election dates set forth in Section 2500 of the Elections Code. A zone election shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by the board in its resolution calling the zone elections. The resolution shall, among other things, set forth the notice requirement for the election, and whether the election will be conducted by all-mailed ballot. Unless otherwise provided in the resolution, the zone election shall be conducted in the same manner as district elections.

PART 4. POWERS AND PURPOSES

CHAPTER 1. POWERS GENERALLY

SEC. 400. The district shall have the powers enumerated in this act and such other powers as the law may provide. The powers of the district, except as otherwise provided, shall be exercised by the board of directors.

SEC. 401. The district has perpetual succession.

SEC. 402. The district may adopt a seal and alter it at its pleasure.

SEC. 403. The district may sue and be sued, except as otherwise provided in this act or by law, in all actions and proceedings in all courts, commissions, boards, and tribunals of competent jurisdiction.

SEC. 404. The district may, within or outside the district within the state, acquire by purchase, condemnation, or other legal means all property or rights in property necessary or proper for district works and purposes of the district. Eminent domain proceedings may be brought by the district for these purposes pursuant to Title 7 (commencing with Section 1230.010) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure. No action in eminent domain to acquire property or interests in property outside the boundaries of the county shall be commenced unless the board of supervisors of each affected county has consented to the acquisition by resolution.

SEC. 405. The district may take, absolutely or on condition, by grant, purchase, gift, devise, or lease, with or without the privilege of purchasing, or otherwise, real and personal property of any kind, or any interest in real property, within or without the district, necessary to the full exercise of its powers, and to hold, use, enjoy, and lease or dispose of the property or interest.

SEC. 406. The district may make contracts, employ labor, and do all acts necessary for the full exercise of its purposes and powers. The board may cause construction or other work to be performed or carried out by contracts or by the district with its own forces as provided in this act.

SEC. 407. The district may, subject to any limitations in this act, do any and every lawful act necessary to be done, that sufficient water may be available for any present or future beneficial use or uses of the lands or inhabitants within the district, including, but not limited to, irrigation, domestic, fire protection, municipal, commercial, industrial, and all other beneficial uses.

SEC. 408. The district may control flood and storm waters within the district and the flood and storm waters of streams outside of the district which flow into the district; conserve those waters by storage in surface reservoirs; divert and transport those waters for beneficial uses within the district; release those waters from surface reservoirs to replenish and augment the supply of waters in natural underground reservoirs; and otherwise reduce the waste of water and protect life and property from floods within the district.

SEC. 409. The district may, within or outside the district, construct, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire works, and purchase, lease, appropriate, or otherwise acquire surface waters and water rights, useful or necessary to make use of water for any purposes authorized by this act.

SEC. 410. The district may, subject to Section 262, operate, repair, improve, maintain, renew, replace, and extend all works and property of the district.

SEC. 411. The district may make surveys and investigations for works and projects and of the water supply and resources of the district, and carry on and perform technical and other investigations of all kinds, make measurements, collect data, and make analyses, studies, and inspections pertaining to water supply, water, water rights, control of floods, and use of water both within and outside the district, subject to the limitation set forth in Section 416. For these purposes the district shall have the right of access through its authorized representatives to all properties within the district.

SEC. 412. The district may construct its pipes, pipe lines, canals, flumes, tunnels, and other conduits, along, under, or across any public road, street, alley, avenue, highway, or sidewalk, or across any stream of water, watercourse, railway, canal, ditch, or flume which the route of those pipes, pipe lines, canals, flumes, tunnels, or other conduits may intersect or cross; provided the works are constructed in such manner as to afford security for life and property. The district shall restore at its own expense any such crossings and intersections to their former state as near as may be, or in a manner not to have impaired unnecessarily their usefulness. Every company, municipality, or public agency whose right-of-way shall be intersected or crossed by those pipes, pipe lines, canals, flumes, tunnels, or other conduits shall unite with the district in forming these intersections and crossings and grant the rights necessary therefor to the district.

SEC. 413. There is hereby granted to the district the right-of-way for the location, construction, and maintenance of any and all of its works in, over, and across public lands of the state, not otherwise disposed of or in use, not in any case exceeding in length or width that which is necessary for the construction of the works and adjuncts or for the protection thereof. Whenever any selection of a right-of-way for those works or adjuncts thereto is made by the district, the board shall transmit to the State Lands Commission, the Controller, and the recorder of the county in which the selected lands are situated, a plat of the lands so selected, giving the extent thereof and the uses for which the lands are claimed or desired, duly verified to be correct. If the State Lands Commission approves the selection so made, it shall endorse its approval upon the plat and issue to the district a permit to use those rights-of-way and lands.

SEC. 414. The district may, in addition to the other powers vested in it by this act, acquire, maintain, operate, and install recreational facilities or landscaping in connection with any dam, reservoir, flood control, or storm drainage facility or work of improvement, or other property owned or controlled by the district, or in connection with any flood control or water conservation project in which the district participates in the cost of construction, operation, or maintenance thereof or in the cost of land acquisition thereof.

SEC. 415. The district may undertake engineering investigations and report on any existing or potential flood control, water supply, or groundwater problems, in all or any portion of the district, except that no study shall be conducted within the boundaries of those cities or agencies listed in Section 200 which relates to a power held by that city or agency without its consent or without authorization by a two-thirds vote of the board.

SEC. 416. By a two-thirds vote of the board, the district may construct, operate, and maintain works to develop electric energy and transmission lines for the conveyance thereof. The power generated may be used by the district for its own purposes, or for the production or transmission of water, but shall not be offered for sale directly by the district to customers other than a public utility or public agency. The power to construct, operate, and maintain works to develop electric energy shall not include, and nothing in this act shall be construed to permit, the acquisition of property already employed in the generation of electric energy for public utility purposes, or the interference by the district in any existing contracts for the production or sale of electric energy, except by mutual agreement between the district and the owner of that property, or the contracting parties.

SEC. 417. The district may disseminate information to the public concerning the rights, properties, and activities of the district.

CHAPTER 2. CONTRACTS WITH PARTICIPATING AGENCIES

SEC. 430. The district may enter into contracts with any participating agency or with any municipality, public agency, or other political subdivision which thereby becomes a participating agency for any of the following purposes:

(a) The lease, purchase, or other acquisition by the district of any of the works of the participating agency or of the state or the United States.

(b) The construction of works by the district for the conservation, regulation, or transmission of water for the benefit of the participating agency, or for the generation and transmission of electric power, or for the furnishing or sale by the district, the state, or the United States to the participating agency or by the participating agency to the district of water or a water supply for any purpose; or for the assumption, by either the district or the participating agency, as principal or guarantor or underwriter of indebtedness incurred on account of works or water furnished or sold to the district or participating agency.

(c) The sale, lease, or other disposition of water, water rights, and water storage facilities, or interests therein, by the district or by the participating agency.

(d) The operation of works and the delivery of water by the district or by the participating agency subject to the following:

(1) The works shall be operated in conformity with the vested rights and appropriations of each of its participating agencies having an interest therein.

(2) There shall be delivered to each participating agency all water to which the participating agency is entitled under the contract entered into by the district and the participating agency.

(3) There shall not be delivered to any participating agency more water than the amount to which the participating agency is entitled under the contract entered into by the district and the participating agency, without the prior written consent of the district, except that the lease of water from any reservoir in the amount required to satisfy any vested right shall not constitute a delivery of water, and that any quantity of water assigned under Section 435 or released under Section 436 by one participating agency to another participating agency shall be delivered to the latter.

(e) The construction, operation, maintenance, and repair of flood control works and facilities.

SEC. 431. The district may contract to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of water or of any right to use the works of the district for the conservation, control, or transportation of water, only to participating agencies or to agencies of the State of California and of the United States for use within the boundaries of the district. The district may fix rates and charges for those purposes. The district may contract for those purposes with other parties only upon written approval of all participating agencies having right to the water or interest in the works for which a contract is being entered into.

SEC. 432. Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, the district may suspend delivery of water conserved by the district or obtained by, or on behalf of, the district or participating agency to any participating agency during the period which the participating agency is delinquent in its payments for, or obligations due in respect of, that water under any contract entered into by it with the district upon 30 days' written notice, except that no suspension of water shall be made unless the participating agency has been delinquent for a period of 90 days from the date of billing from the district to the participating agency.

SEC. 433. (a) The liability of each participating agency, as distinguished from the liability of its taxpayers and property therein for taxes, or assessments levied by the district for district purposes, shall be limited to that portion of the total cost for water or water supply or to that portion of the total cost of construction and the operation and maintenance cost of works acquired or constructed by or on behalf of the district or participating agency which the participating agency agrees to bear.

(b) The liability of each participating agency shall be set forth fully in a written contract which shall be legally approved by that participating agency in accordance with the laws governing the participating agency. No such contract shall be altered or modified without the consent of the district and the legal approval of the participating agency.

(c) Each contract may provide, among other things, the following:

(1) The total capital obligation which the participating agency agrees to bear.

(2) The minimum annual payment which the participating agency shall make in amortization of its capital obligation.

(3) The quantity or pro rata portion of water which shall be delivered to, or held in storage for, the participating agency.

(4) The basis of allocation of operation and maintenance costs to be borne by the participating agency.

(5) The quantity of water supply or water agreed to be acquired by, or furnished or sold to, the participating agency and the cost thereof to the participating agency.

(d) Each participating agency contract shall be fair and equitable to each contracting party, and no participating agency shall receive any undue advantage over any other participating agency having proper regard for all factors and conditions involved.

(e) Each participating agency contract shall be executed in accordance with the laws governing that participating agency.

SEC. 434. (a) In the event of any reduction in the principal of any debt of the district underwritten by one or more participating agencies, other than by payment thereof, the amounts to be paid to the district by each participating agency in amortization of its remaining portion of the debt shall be reduced proportionately so that the relative obligations of each participating agency shall be unchanged.

(b) In the event of any reduction in the rate of interest being paid on any part of a debt of the district for which one or more participating agencies are responsible, the amounts to be paid the district by each participating agency shall be reduced proportionately so that the relative obligation of each participating agency remains unchanged in respect to its obligation to pay any remaining interest.

SEC. 435. Any participating agency may reduce its obligations under its contract with the district by assignment to another participating agency of any part of its right to receive water under its contract, subject to the following:

(a) The assignment is legally approved, in accordance with the laws governing the participating agency, by each participating agency which is a party to the assignment.

(b) The total of all payments to be made by the participating entities to the district shall not be reduced by virtue of the assignments.

(c) The assignor participating agency may be required by the district to guarantee the payments assumed by the assignee participating agency.

SEC. 436. (a) Any participating agency may elect that any water to which it is entitled be held in storage in the district's reservoirs if there is unfilled capacity in the reservoirs from which the water would otherwise be withdrawn for delivery to it. If two or more participating agencies desire simultaneously to store water and there is not sufficient capacity to accommodate those participating agencies, the storage capacity shall be apportioned between them in accordance with the amount of capital cost of the reservoir they have respectively underwritten, or in accordance with the amount of water they have respectively contracted to purchase during the period of that storage.

(b) Any participating agency may release for the use of any other participating agency any amount of water which may then be held temporarily in storage for its account, and in that event, the district shall deliver that water to the other participating agency, but that delivery shall be deemed to be for the account of the participating agency releasing the water.

SEC. 437. (a) If any capital asset of the district is sold or otherwise disposed of, the net proceeds therefrom shall be distributed to the participating agencies, or applied against any liability of the participating agencies to the district, as by contract may be provided, in a proportion which the amount contributed by each participating agency to the cost of the capital asset bears to the total cost of the capital asset.

(b) If any liability on the part of the district or its participating agencies for the original cost or any subsequent improvement or refinancing of the capital asset is not completely extinguished at or before the time of the sale or other disposal thereof, the district may apply as much of the proceeds of the sale toward the extinguishment of that liability as may be necessary. In extinguishing the liability, the proceeds of the sale shall be applied only as the interests and liabilities of the district and its participating agencies shall appear.

CHAPTER 3. CONTRACTS WITH THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER AGENCIES

SEC. 450. (a) The district may cooperate, act in conjunction, and contract with the United States, the state, municipalities, and public agencies of any kind, in the purchase and sale of water, the acquisition of water or a water supply, the construction of any works for the controlling of flood or storm waters in the district, or for the protection of property, watersheds, watercourses, highways, and life, or for the purpose of conserving and transporting those waters for beneficial use, and for the use, operation, management, purchase, and ownership of the works. The district also may make and perform any agreement with the United States, the state, any county, municipality, public agency, public corporation, person, or any combination of them for the acquisition, disposition, or operation of any property or works or water or water supply.

(b) Any county water district, water conservation district, municipality, flood control district, or other public agency or political subdivision of the state authorized by law to appropriate water and deliver water to users may (1) cooperate, act in conjunction, and contract with the district for all the purposes for which the district is authorized to cooperate, act in conjunction, and contract with public agencies, municipalities, and political subdivisions, and (2) carry out the terms of those contracts.

SEC. 451. Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, the district may contract with agencies of the state and the United States in all respects as the district may contract with its participating agencies, except that any such contract with agencies of the state or the United States shall provide that any payment to be made to the district shall be in advance of any service, delivery, construction, or use to be provided by the district under the contract.

SEC. 452. The district may cooperate and contract with the United States under the Federal Reclamation Act of 1902, and all acts amendatory or supplementary thereto, or any other act of Congress permitting cooperation or contracting for the purposes of constructing works, whether for irrigation, drainage, or flood control, or for the acquisition, purchase, extension, operation, or maintenance of the works, or for a water supply for any purpose, or for the assumption as principal or guarantor of indebtedness to the United States, or for carrying out any of the purposes of the district, and may carry out and perform the terms of any contract so made. For those purposes the district shall have, in addition to the powers expressly set forth in this act, all powers, rights, and privileges possessed by irrigation districts, as set forth in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23175) of Part 6 of Division 11 of the Water Code, not inconsistent with this act.

SEC. 453. (a) Each contract providing for repayment of the cost of any works, the purchase of any works, or for the payment for any water or water supply, which is entered into with the United States pursuant to this act, shall be authorized at an election, unless by a resolution adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members of the board, the board shall determine that all liabilities of the district thereby incurred can be repaid and liquidated, both as to principal and interest, from revenue derived from taxes or special benefit assessments, or both, levied pursuant to this act or from payments to be made to the district by participating agencies pursuant to written contracts which at the time of the board's determination provide for the payment of whatever amounts may be necessary to amortize the portion of that cost underwritten by the participating agencies or provide for the payment of whatever amounts may be necessary to pay the portion of the cost of any water or water supply to be furnished or sold to the participating agencies. Upon the adoption of that resolution the board may, on behalf of the district, without the necessity of an election, enter into the repayment contract, contract for the purchase of any works, or contract for the purchase of water or a water supply with the United States, subject to all provisions of this act applicable to those contracts, except the provisions requiring an election to authorize the contracts.

(b) Notice of any election shall contain a statement of the maximum amount of money to be payable to the United States for construction purposes and cost of water supply and acquisition of property, exclusive of penalties and interest, and a general statement of the property, if any, to be conveyed by the district pursuant to the contract.

(c) The ballots at any election shall contain a brief statement of the general purpose of the contract substantially as stated in the notice of election and the extent of the obligation to be assumed, with the words "Contract—Yes" and "Contract—No" or "Contract and bonds—Yes" and "Contract and bonds—No," whichever may be applicable. A favorable majority of two-thirds of the votes cast at the election shall be necessary to authorize the execution of the contract or issuance of the bonds, or both, except as set forth in subdivision (a).

SEC. 454. (a) All payments to the United States under any contract between the district and the United States, including payments of interest and principal on bonds deposited with or transferred to the United States, shall be paid so far as possible from revenue other than that derived from district taxes and assessments, unless otherwise provided by the contract or this act, and the balance, if any, of those payments shall be paid from revenue derived from annual taxes upon all taxable property within the district assessible for district purposes under the laws of the state and assessments levied pursuant to this act, and the property shall be and remain liable to be assessed and levied upon for the payments.

(b) Public land of the United States within the district shall be subject to assessment and tax for all purposes of contracts with the United States to the extent provided by the Act of Congress approved August 11, 1916, entitled "An act to promote reclamation of arid lands," or any other law which may be enacted by Congress, upon full compliance therewith by the district.

(c) All money collected pursuant to the contract with the United States shall be deposited to the credit of the district and held in a fund to be known as the "United States Contract Fund" to be used for payments due to the United States under the contract.

CHAPTER 4. RULES AND REGULATIONS

SEC. 460. (a) All ordinances, resolutions, and other legislative acts of the district shall be adopted by the board, and certified to, recorded, and published, in the same manner, except as otherwise expressly provided in this act, as are ordinances, resolutions, or other legislative acts for the county.

(b) The initiative and referendum powers are hereby granted to the voters of the district to be exercised in relation to the enactment or rejection of district ordinances in accordance with the procedure established for the exercise of those powers in relation to counties.

SEC. 461. The board may adopt, by ordinance, reasonable rules and regulations to implement this act. Violation of any provision of the rules and regulations of the district or any ordinance of the district shall constitute a misdemeanor.

PART 5. FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

CHAPTER 1. FUNDS AND ACCOUNTS

SEC. 500. Any funds of the district may be deposited or invested and drawn out as provided in Article 2 (commencing with Section 53630) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code. References in that chapter to "treasurer" shall mean the treasurer of the district. Funds of the district may also be deposited in the county treasury subject to disbursement as county funds are disbursed, except that the disbursal shall be pursuant to the provisions of this act, under the direction of the county treasurer or any other fiscal officer appointed by the board.

SEC. 501. The district may establish and maintain any separate funds and accounts which it deems necessary in carrying out its powers and purposes under this act.

SEC. 502. The district may make any transfers, for the purposes of a loan, from one fund to another fund of the district, or from one fund to another fund of a zone, upon terms and conditions that the board deems appropriate and to the extent permitted by law.

SEC. 503. The fiscal officer appointed by the board, or in the absence of any such appointment, the county treasurer may invest any funds of the district or zone in any security, debenture, bond, or deposit permitted by law for the investment of funds of a political subdivision of the state

CHAPTER 2. CONTRIBUTION OF FUNDS

SEC. 510. (a) The district may expend any or all of its funds as contributions in aid of any of the following:

(1) The construction or payment of the cost of works.

(2) The purchase or obtaining of water or a water supply.

(3) The payment of any liabilitity assumed as principal, guarantor, or underwriter on any indebtedness in connection with that construction, payment, purchase, or obtaining, if the works are constructed or the water or water supply is obtained for, or on behalf of, the district or its participating agencies.

(b) Unless, by resolution adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members of the board, the board determines that facts exist which make a different allocation preferable in the best interests of the district, the contributions in aid of construction or of the payment of works or any liability assumed in connection therewith shall be in proportion to and for the same purposes as payments made in the same year by each participating agency in amortization of a portion of the cost of the works, and the contributions in aid of the purchase or obtaining of water or a water supply or any liability assumed in connection therewith shall be in proportion to and for the same purposes as payments made in the same year by each participating agency.

SEC. 511. (a) Regardless of any other provision of this act, if in the judgment of the board the cost and expense of a supply of water to any participating agency is greater than the ability of that participating agency to pay, and the board finds that a supply of water to that participating agency will be of general benefit to the district, the board may by a two-thirds vote of its members direct the district to contribute from whatever funds may be available financial assistance to the extent that the board determines the district as a whole will be benefited. For the foregoing purpose, the board may contract with the participating agency or with the United States, the state, or any public agency supplying water or contracting to supply water to the participating agency, to make that contribution and assistance annually for such period of time as the board may determine, not to exceed 40 years.

(b) In addition to any other revenues that may be available to the district, not otherwise designated for any other purpose, the board may raise revenues as provided in this act for the purpose of raising sufficient moneys to pay this contribution of financial assistance.

SEC. 512. The district shall cause to be prepared on its behalf, by an independent auditor, quarterly financial statements and an annual audit disclosing the financial information of the district which shall promptly be made available to all participating agencies.

CHAPTER 3. GENERAL BOND PROVISIONS

SEC. 520. Any defect or irregularity in the proceedings in the calling or conduct of a bond election shall not affect the validity of the bonds authorized by the election.

SEC. 521. The board shall, pursuant to this act, prescribe by resolution the form of the bonds, which shall include a designation of the district, zone, or participating zone affected, and of the interest payable on bonds. The interest on the bonds shall be payable annually or semiannually at the discretion of the board each and every year on a day and date at a place or places to be fixed by the board and designated in the bonds.

SEC. 522. The board may divide the principal amount of any issue into two or more series and fix different dates for the bonds of each series. The bonds of one series may be made payable at different times from those of another series. The maturity of each series shall comply with this section. The board may fix a date not more than two years from the date of issuance for the earliest maturity of each issue or series. The maximum term of the bonds to be issued shall not exceed 40 years.

SEC. 523. The bonds shall be issued in denominations as determined by the board.

SEC. 524. The principal on the bonds shall be payable on the date and at the place fixed in the bonds, and at the interest rate specified in the bonds, and shall be made payable annually or semiannually.

SEC. 525. The bonds shall be registered, numbered consecutively, contain an identification number, and shall be signed by the chairperson of the board and countersigned by the county treasurer or other fiscal officer of the district, and the seal of the district shall be affixed thereto. Either or both signatures may be printed, engraved, or lithographed.

SEC. 526. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds shall be paid into the district treasury, placed to credit of the project fund, and expended only for the purpose for which the bonds were issued.

In the alternative, the proceeds of the sale of the bonds may be placed in the treasury of the county to the credit of the district and the respective zone, or participating zones thereof, for the uses and purposes of the district, zone, or participating zones. The proper record of the transaction shall be placed upon the books of the county treasurer, and the bond proceeds shall be applied exclusively to the purposes and objects mentioned in the resolution calling for the bond election, subject to this act.

Payments from bond proceeds shall be made upon demands prepared, presented, allowed, and audited in the same manner as demands upon the funds of the district. Unexpended bond proceeds may be invested in any manner permitted by law for district investments, and any interest earned thereon shall be credited to the project fund and expended only for the purpose for which the indebtedness was created, including, but not limited to, operation and maintenance of the project.

SEC. 527. Whenever bonds have been authorized by the district, the proceeds of the sale thereof have been expended as authorized, and the board, by resolution, determines that additional bonds shall be issued for carrying out any of the purposes of this act, the board may again proceed as provided in this act for the issuance of additional bonds.

SEC. 528. The board may, by resolution, determine that new bonds should be issued for the purpose of refunding any or all of the outstanding bonds of the district or any zone or participating zone. The procedure to issue refunding bonds shall be the same as the procedure used to issue the original bonds to be refunded. The refunding bonds may be issued and sold in the manner and form prescribed for an original issue of bonds, and may, if the holders of bonds of an original issue and the board so agree, be exchanged for the original bonds. The face value of the refunding bonds so exchanged shall not exceed the face value of the original bonds. The board may raise money to pay principal and interest of the refunding bonds in the same manner as prescribed for the payment of bonds of an original issue.

SEC. 529. Any bonds, original or refunding, may be made callable by resolution of the board adopted at, or prior to, the time of issuing the bonds, and providing for the calling and redemption of the bonds in any manner provided therein on any interest payment date prior to their stated maturity, at a premium not to exceed 6 percent above the par value thereof and accrued interest. If any bonds are so made callable, a statement to that effect shall be set forth on the face of the bond.

Notice of any redemption shall be published in the district pursuant to Section 6063 of the Government Code. The first publication of the notice shall be not less than 30 nor more than 90 days prior to the date for the redemption.

After the date fixed for the redemption, if the district has provided funds for payment of the principal and interest of the bonds so called, interest on the bonds shall thereafter cease.

SEC. 530. (a) The bonds may be sold at public or private sale at the determination of the board.

(b) The manner of making, submitting, and opening bids, and conducting the sale, and the terms thereof, if the sale is public, shall be determined by the board. The board may reject any and all bids which in the judgment of the board are not in the best interest of the district. If no bids are received, or if all bids are rejected, the board may either readvertise or sell the bonds at private sale.

SEC. 531. If a proposition for issuing bonds submitted at any election under this act fails to receive the requisite number of votes of the eligible voters voting at the election to incur the indebtedness for the purpose specified, the board shall not, for six months after the election, call or order another election in the same area for incurring indebtedness and issuing bonds under this act for the same objects and purposes.

SEC. 532. Any bonds issued under this act shall be free and exempt from all taxation within the State of California. It is hereby declared that the district is a local government within the meaning of Section 26 of Article XIII of the California Constitution.

SEC. 533. Any bonds issued under this act shall be legal investments for all trust funds, and for the funds of all insurance companies, banks, and trust companies, for state school funds, and whenever any money or funds may by law now or hereafter enacted be invested in bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts, or municipalities in the State of California, the money or funds may be invested in bonds of the district, issued in accordance with this act, and whenever bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts, or municipalities may, by law now or hereafter enacted, be used as security for the performance of any act, the bonds of the district may be so used.

SEC. 534. The repeal or amendment of this act, or the dissolution or change in the boundaries of the district or any zone or participating zone shall not in any way affect or release any of the land in the district or zone from its liability on or from the obligations of any outstanding bonds or indebtedness or contracts for which the land is in any way security, until all of the bonds and outstanding indebtness and contracts have been fully paid or discharged.

SEC. 535. This chapter shall apply to the issuance of all bonds issued in accordance with this act.

CHAPTER 4. IMPROVEMENT BONDS

SEC. 540. The district may issue improvement bonds in accordance with, and pursuant to, the Improvement Act of 1911 (Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Streets and Highways Code), the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 (Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code), the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 (Division 12 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Streets and Highways Code), or the Refunding Assessment Bond Act of 1935 (Chapter 732 of the Statutes of 1935).

CHAPTER 5. MELLO-ROOS BONDS

SEC. 550. The district shall have all the powers authorized by the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982 (Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 53311) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code).

CHAPTER 6. SPECIAL BENEFIT BONDS

SEC. 560. The board may determine that a bonded indebtedness should be incurred to pay the cost of any project which will confer a special benefit on the district as a whole, or a special benefit on any zone or participating zone. The principal of, and interest on, the special benefit bonds shall be paid by revenue derived from an annual benefit assessment levied on the land benefited by the project for which the bonds were issued in the manner set forth in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 700) of Part 7.

Before adopting a resolution issuing special benefit bonds, the board shall adopt a resolution of intention stating the intention to issue the special benefit bonds, the proposed amount of the bonds, the proposed denomination and maximum rate of interest of the bonds, a description of the proposed project for which the bonds shall be issued, and a description of the area which shall receive a special benefit from the proposed project and in which special assessments shall be levied to pay the principal and interest on the bonds.

The resolution shall also state the time and place for a hearing by the board on the proposal, at which time any interested person may appear and be heard.

SEC. 561. Notice of the hearing shall be given by publishing a copy of the resolution of intention in a newspaper of general circulation published in the district, pursuant to Section 6066 of the Government Code, the first publication to be at least 14 days prior to the time fixed for the hearing.

The hearing may be consolidated with a hearing on any other proposal affecting the same area. At the time and place so fixed, or at any time or place to which the hearing is continued, the board shall hold the hearing provided for by the resolution, at which time any interested person may appear and be heard concerning any matter set forth in the resolution or any matter material thereto.

Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the board may abandon the proposal, or order the election on the proposal within the area affected.

The notice and hearing requirements in this chapter may be consolidating with any notice and hearing requirements undertaken by the district pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 700).

SEC. 562. If the board determines by a resolution duly adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members of the board that a bonded indebtedness to pay the cost of acquisition or construction of any works for any of the purposes of the district or refunding any outstanding bonds should be incurred and can be repaid and liquidated as to both principal and interest from revenues derived from special benefit assessments or taxes, or both, levied pursuant to this act and from payments required to be made to the district by participating agencies pursuant to written contracts providing for the payment of whatever amounts may be necessary to amortize the portion of the cost underwritten by those participating agencies, the board may issue bonds of the district in such amounts as can be so repaid and liquidated. Thereafter the board may issue bonds without the necessity of an election, subject to all applicable provisions of this act pertaining to bonds and bonded indebtedness, except provisions requiring authorization of bonded indebtedness by an election.

SEC. 563. Any bonds issued under this chapter, and the interest thereon, shall be paid solely by revenue derived from taxes and special benefit assessments levied as provided in this act or from payments under contracts with participating agencies, or both. No zone nor the property therein shall be liable for the bonded indebtedness of any other zone, nor shall any moneys derived from special assessments or taxes in any of the several zones be used in payment of principal, or interest, or otherwise, of the bonded indebtedness chargeable to any other zone.

CHAPTER 7. REVENUE BONDS

SEC. 565. If the board, by resolution, determines that bonds to pay for the acquisition or construction of any project or work for any purposes of the district, zone, or participating zone or for refunding any outstanding bonds, should be issued and can be repaid and liquidated as to both principal and interest from revenues designated by the board, the district may define the project or work as an "enterprise" consistent with the definition in Section 54309 of the Government Code, and issue revenue bonds all in the manner of and as provided in the Revenue Bond Law of 1941 (Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code). For that purpose the district is a "local agency," as defined in Section 54307 of the Government Code If the project or work is determined by the board to be for a zone or zones comprising less than all the district, the election at which the proposition to issue the revenue bonds is submitted shall be held only in the zone or zones. Proceeds from the sale of any such revenue bonds shall be expended only in the zone or zones in which the proposition to issue the revenue bonds is approved.

SEC. 566. (a) Notwithstanding Section 565, and subject to the requirements of subdivisions (b) and (c), if the board makes the determination authorized in Section 565, and each participating agency which would provide all or a portion of the revenues to repay the bonds to be issued also makes that determination by resolution, the district may define the project or work as an "enterprise" consistent with the definition in Section 54309 of the Government Code, and issue revenue bonds all in the manner of and as provided in the Revenue Bond Law of 1941 (Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code), except those provisions requiring authorization of the revenue bonds by election. For that purpose the district is a "local agency," as defined in Section 54307 of the Government Code.

(b) The board may proceed under this section for the issuance of bonds to pay for the refinancing, purchase, reconstruction, replacement, acquisition, or improvement of all or any part of the reservoirs, dams, conduits, appurtenances, and improvements necessary or related to the Noonan Reservoir project and the Solano project.

sell revenue bonds as provided by this section for any purpose of the district or zone. If the proposition fails to carry at the election, the proposition shall not again be voted upon until at least six months have elapsed since the date of the last election at which the proposition was submitted. The resolution calling the election shall fix the date on which the election is to be held, the proposition to be submitted, the manner of holding the election and of voting for or against the proposition, and shall state that in all other particulars, the election shall be held and the votes canvassed as provided by law for the holding of elections within the district. The election may be held separately or may be consolidated with any other election authorized by law at which the voters of the district may vote. The resolution calling the election shall be published and no other notice of the election need be given.

CHAPTER 8. SHORT-TERM BORROWING

SEC. 570. The district may borrow money and incur indebtedness in the manner set forth in this chapter by action of the board and without the necessity of calling and holding an election in the district.

SEC. 571. Indebtedness may be incurred pursuant to this chapter for any purpose for which the district is authorized to expend funds.

SEC. 572. Indebtedness incurred under this chapter shall be evidenced by warrants or notes of the district payable not to exceed five years from their date and bearing interest at a rate not to exceed the maximum interest permitted for the sale of bonds of the district.

SEC. 573. The warrants or notes shall be issued by the district after the adoption by a two-thirds vote of all of the members of the board of a resolution setting forth the form of the warrants or notes, the maturity date of dates thereof, and the manner of execution thereof, except that if less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) shall be incurred, a majority vote of the board shall be sufficient to adopt the resolution.

SEC. 574. The board may, in its resolution, provide that the warrants or notes shall be subject to call and redemption prior to their stated maturity, at the option of the district, at such price as may be fixed in the resolution, not exceeding a premium of 6 percent of the par value of the warrants so subject to redemption. The resolution shall fix a method of giving notice of redemption to the holders of warrants to be redeemed and the price at which the warrants shall be subject to redemption. Warrants so subject to call and redemption prior to maturity shall contain a recital to that effect on their face.

SEC. 575. The warrants issued may be offered for private or public sale. Any public sale shall be upon notice inviting sealed bids therefor. The notice shall be given by publication once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, and the sale shall not be held before 10 days after publication. The board may reject all bids received on public sale and either readvertise or sell the warrants at private sale. The district may sell the warrants at a price below par value not to exceed 6 percent of the par value thereof.

CHAPTER 9. COUNTY FUNDING

SEC. 580. For the purpose of supplementing the general operating revenues of the district, upon request made by the board, the board of supervisors may grant funds from the county general fund to the district without reimbursement from the district, for use for any purpose of the district for which the county is itself authorized to expend funds, and including, but not limited to, expenses incurred or estimated to be incurred during the next fiscal year for each of the following:

(a) The administration of the district.

(b) The preparation of a comprehensive water resources and drainage management plan for the district for coordinating and managing the supply and distribution of water for all beneficial uses within the district and for coordinating and managing the control and disposal of drain, flood, and storm water within the district, and the formation of zones within the district for those purposes.

(c) The acquisition, development, distribution, and sale of water to the inhabitants of the district for all beneficial uses, including the acquisition of water rights by purchase or condemnation and the acquisition, construction, repair, operation, and maintenance of works therefor.

(d) The acquisition, construction, repair, operation, and maintenance of works for control and disposal of drain, storm, and flood water within the district.

SEC. 581. The district shall keep any county funds received pursuant to Section 580 in a separate account and, upon demand of the county, shall demonstrate that all expenditures made therefrom were used only for the purposes enumerated in this chapter.

CHAPTER 10. TAXING AUTHORITY

SEC. 585. The district shall have the power as provided by law to cause taxes to be levied for the purpose of paying any obligation of the district and to accomplish the purposes of the district and of this act.

SEC. 586. The provisions of the law of this state, prescribing the priority, time, and manner of levying, assessing, equalizing, and collecting county property taxes, including the sale of property for delinquency, and the redemption from that sale, and the duties of the several county officers with respect thereto, are, so far as they are applicable, and not in conflict with the specific provisions of this act, hereby adopted for the district and made a part hereof. The officers shall be liable upon their several official bonds for the faithful discharge of the duties imposed upon them by this act.

PART 6. ZONES

CHAPTER 1. FORMATION OF ZONES

SEC. 600. Improvement districts may be formed in the district in the same manner as improvement districts are formed in irrigation districts under Part 7 (commencing with Section 23600) of Division 11 of the Water Code. In the alternative, improvement districts may be formed in the same manner as zones of benefit. Assessment districts may also be formed in the district under the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 (Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code), and the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 (Division 12 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Streets and Highways Code). Improvement districts and assessment districts may be formed within the boundaries of any zone of benefit.

SEC. 601. If at any time it is desired to annex land to, or detach land from, a zone, a petition for that purpose signed by 100 percent of the record owners of the land to be annexed or detached shall be filed with the board, which shall commence proceedings thereon. In the alternative, the board may initiate a proposal for a zone annexation or detachment. The board shall conduct a hearing on the proposal with the same notice and in the same manner as the hearing on the affected zone. For purposes of protests and an election on the proposal, the affected area shall consist of the land to be annexed to, or detached from, the zone. The board may prescribe any reasonable condition to which the annexation or detachment shall be subject, if approved.

SEC. 602. The board may establish zones of benefit within the district without reference to the boundaries of other zones. The land comprising a zone of benefit need not be contiguous. A zone of benefit shall be established only with respect to a project for the benefit of the zone of benefit, and proceedings for the establishment of the zone of benefit may be conducted concurrently with, and as a part of, proceedings for the instituting of projects relating to the zone of benefit, the issuance of special benefit bonds, and the levy of benefit assessments.

SEC. 603. Whenever the board determines that a zone of benefit should be formed for the purposes set forth in this chapter, the board shall adopt a resolution of intention which shall state the following:

(a) The intention of the board to form the proposed zone of benefit.

(b) The purpose for which the proposed zone of benefit is to be formed and a finding that the participating agencies within the zone of benefit participating in the proposed facility or activity have consented to formation of the zone.

(c) The estimated expense of carrying out the purpose.

(d) That the special benefit assessment levied for carrying out the purpose shall be levied exclusively upon the lands in the proposed zone of benefit.

(e) That a map showing the exterior boundaries of the proposed zone of benefit, which map shall govern for all details as the extent of the proposed zone of benefit, is on file with the district secretary and is available for inspection by any interested person or persons.

(f) The time and place for a hearing by the board on the formation of the proposed zone of benefit, the extent thereof, the purpose for which it is to be formed, the benefit to land within the proposed zone of benefit from carrying out that purpose, the estimated expense of carrying out that purpose, if known, and any other matter relating to any of the foregoing.

(g) That at a time and place specified any interested person, including all persons owning land in the district or in the proposed zone of benefit, may appear and be heard.

SEC. 604. Notice of the hearing shall be given by publishing a copy of the resolution of intention in a newspaper of general circulation published in the district, pursuant to Section 6066 of the Government Code, the first publication to be at least 14 days prior to the time fixed for the hearing.

SEC. 605. At the time and place so fixed, or at any time or place to which the hearing is continued, the board shall hold the hearing provided for by the resolution of intention, at which time any interested person may appear and be heard concerning any matter set forth in the resolution of intention or any matters material thereto. Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the board may abandon the proposal, modify it, order an election on the proposal, or proceed with the proposal to create the zone without an election, unless, prior to the conclusion of the hearing, or any continued hearing, written protests against the proposal signed by more than 25 percent of the number of landowners within the proposed zone of benefit are filed with the board, in which case, an election shall be held on the proposal. If prior to the conclusion of the hearing, or any continued hearing, written protests against the proposal signed by more than 50 percent of the number of landowners within the proposed zone of benefit filed with the board, further proceedings relating to the proposal shall be suspended for not less than six months following the date of the conclusion of the hearing.

SEC. 606. At the conclusion of the hearing, the board may, by resolution, order the zone of benefit formed for the purpose and with the exterior boundaries described therein. The resolution ordering formation shall state the estimated expense of carrying out the purpose described therein. The resolution shall also number and designate the zone of benefit substantially as "Zone of Benefit Number _____ of the Solano County Flood Control and Water Conservation District."

SEC. 607. Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, the governing body of any participating agency at any time after the location and extent of zones and the percentages to be raised therefrom in each of the zones for the purpose of assessment have been finally fixed and determined by the board, but before the calling of any bond election if one is to be held, may, with the consent of the board, enter into a contract with the district to pay to the district for the benefit of the bond fund thereof, if a bond issue is to be authorized and bonds are to be issued, an amount which shall be equal to the total amount assessed against all zones situated entirely within the participating agency. Thereupon the charges against the zone or zones shall be canceled to the extent of that amount so agreed to be paid, and thereafter the voters residing within the zone or zones shall not be entitled to vote at any election held for the purpose of issuing bonds which would be repaid by the charges. The contract shall contain such other or additional provisions as the board shall deem necessary or advisable in order to protect the interest of the district and to substitute the contract in lieu and instead of the assessments which would have been levied within the participating agency or agencies.

CHAPTER 2. SELECTION OF PROJECTS

SEC. 610. The board shall determine which projects shall be carried out and shall determine, as to each project, that it is either: (1) for the common benefit of the district as a whole, (2) for the benefit of a single zone, whether in existence or not, or (3) for the common benefit of participating zones, whether in existence or not.

SEC. 611. The district may institute districtwide projects, projects for single zones, and joint projects for participating zones for studying, planning, financing, constructing, acquiring, maintaining, operating, extending, or repairing any work of common benefit to the district as a whole, to the zone, or to the participating zones, as the case may be. All powers of the district may be exercised or performed on behalf of and within a zone. Before proceeding with any project, the board shall adopt a resolution of intention setting forth the proposed boundaries, designating the benefited area, and stating its intention to undertake the project, together with an estimate of the cost of the project to be borne by the district as a whole, or a particular zone, or participating zones, as the case may be, and fixing a time and place for public hearing on the resolution. The resolution shall refer to a map or maps showing the general location of the project and shall generally describe the project. Notice of the hearing shall be given in the same manner as for a resolution of intention to form a zone of benefit. The proceedings on the resolution proposing the project may be consolidated with the proceedings on a resolution proposing formation of a zone of benefit.

SEC. 612. The hearing may be consolidated with a hearing on the formation of a zone of benefit, the issuance of special benefit bonds, or the levy of benefit assessments affecting the same geographic area. At the time and place so fixed, or at any time or place to which the hearing is continued, the board shall hold the hearing provided for by the resolution, at which time any interested person may appear and be heard concerning any matter set forth in the resolution or any matters material thereto. Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the board may abandon the proposal, modify it, order an election on the proposal within the area affected, or proceed with the proposal without an election, unless, prior to the conclusion of the hearing, or any continued hearing, written protests against the proposal signed by more than 25 percent of the number of landowners within the affected area are filed with the board, in which case, an election shall be held on the proposal. If prior to the conclusion of the hearing, or any continued hearing, written protests against the proposal signed by more than 50 percent of the number of landowners within the affected area are filed with the board, further proceedings relating to the proposal shall be suspended for not less than six months following the date of the conclusion of the hearing.

PART 7. ASSESSMENTS

CHAPTER 1. BENEFIT ASSESSMENTS

SEC. 700. The district may levy benefit assessments on a districtwide basis or within any zone or participating zone. The benefit assessment may be levied in any manner which reasonably reflects the benefit that will accrue to the area being assessed for the purpose of the assessment, including, but not limited to, per acre or fraction thereof bases, or for benefit assessments related to drain, storm, or flood control purposes, the proportionate water runoff from each parcel assessed.

SEC. 701. (a) Benefit assessments may be levied for expenditures made, or expenditures estimated to be required during the next calendar or fiscal year, for any lawful purpose of the district, including, but not limited to, the following purposes:

(1) The administration expenses of the district.

(2) The formation and administration expenses of any zone.

(3) Engineering and other expenses in connection with the investigation and preparation of a resource management plan or plan for any work or project.

(4) Acquisition or construction of any work or project.

(5) Operation and maintenance of any work or project.

(6) Payment of principal and interest on any bonds issued by the district.

(b) The revenues derived from the special benefit assessment shall be used for no purpose other than the purpose specified in the resolution at the time of levy of the assessment.

SEC. 702 The board may adopt a resolution of intention to levy an assessment on land only. The resolution shall set forth the proposed amount of the special benefit assessment, manner of levy, purpose of the proposed assessment, the duration of the district's authority to levy the benefit assessment for the stated purpose, and shall designate by a map or otherwise the boundaries of the area proposed for assessment, and shall designate a time and place of hearing on the resolution.

SEC. 703. Notice of the hearing shall be given by publishing a copy of the resolution of intention in a newspaper of general circulation published in the district pursuant to Section 6066 of the Government Code, the first publication to be at least 14 days prior to the time fixed for the hearing.

SEC. 704. At the time and place so fixed, or at any time or place to which the hearing is continued, the board shall hold the hearing provided for by the resolution, at which time any interested person may appear and be heard concerning any matter set forth in the resolution or any matters material thereto. Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the board may terminate further proceedings on the proposed assessment, modify the proposed assessment, order an election on the assessment within the area to be assessed, or levy the assessment without an election, unless, prior to the conclusion of the hearing, or any continued hearing, written protests against the proposal signed by more than 25 percent of the number of landowners within the area affected are filed with the board, in which case, an election shall be held on the proposal. If an election is held, a majority vote in favor of the benefit assessment shall be required to approve the proposed benefit assessment. If 12 or more registered voters reside within the area to be assessed, the vote shall be by the registered voters with each voter having one vote. Otherwise, the vote shall be by the landowners with each landowner having one vote for each acre of land or portion of an acre of land that he or she owns within the area. The proposal may take effect without a vote if there are less than 12 registered voters and a petition or other written consent to the levy of the assessment, executed by owners of at least 60 percent in area of the lands within the area to be assessed, is filed with the board during the hearing or any continued hearing. If, prior to the conclusion of the hearing, written protests against the proposal signed by more than 50 percent of the number of the landowners within the affected area are filed with the board, further proceedings relating to the proposal shall be suspended for not less than six months following the date of the conclusion of the hearing.

SEC. 705. After its approval, the benefit assessment shall be levied, collected, and enforced at the same time and in the same manner as county taxes.

SEC. 706. The district may levy a special assessment pursuant to this part on property in any participating agency whenever that participating agency is delinquent in any payment due the district by the participating agency under any contract entered into by them. The district may levy these assessments regardless of whether or not written protests against the proposed assessment signed by a majority in number of the eligible voters within the area to be assessed shall be filed with the board.

SEC. 800. Chapter 1656 of the Statutes of 1951 is repealed.

SEC. 801. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act, and because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 837

An act to amend Sections 69899.5 and 72190 of the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 69899.5 of the Government Code, as added by Section 1.1 of Chapter 526 of the Statutes of 1986, is amended to read:

69899.5. In the County of Orange, a majority of the judges of the superior court may appoint the following officers and employees whose monthly salaries shall be:

2	Systems analyst IV	A64
10	Typist clerk II	D34

The references to a numbered salary range in this section are to the salary schedule in the salary resolution of the County of Orange.

All personnel appointed pursuant to this section shall serve at the pleasure of the majority of the judges and may at any time be removed by the majority of the judges in their discretion.

With the approval of the board of supervisors, the majority of the judges may establish such additional titles and pay rates as are required, and, with the approval of the board of supervisors, may appoint and employ such additional commissioners, officers, assistants, and other employees as it deems necessary for the performance of the duties and exercise of the powers conferred by law upon the court and its members. Rates of compensation of all officers, assistants, and other employees, except those of court commissioners, may be adjusted by joint action and approval of the board of supervisors and a majority of the judges of the court.

All personnel shall be entitled to such step advancement, vacation, sick leave, holiday benefits, other leaves of absence, lump-sum payments for sick leave and vacation when separated from the service, inclusion in the retirement system of the County of Orange and other benefits as may be directed by rules adopted by a majority of the judges as are provided to county employees of such county.

Superior court commissioners shall be entitled to such benefits as may be directed by rules adopted by the majority of the judges.

Where statutes require implementation by local ordinances for the extension of such benefits to local officers and employees, these may be made applicable, by rule, to such employees.

Rules of the court may include other matters pertaining to the general administration of the court, including conditions of employment of such personnel. When such rules are adopted by a majority of the judges and filed with the Judicial Council they shall have the same status as other rules of court adopted pursuant to Section 68070.

When requested to do so by the court, the county shall furnish to the judges such services as may be required in connection with the recruitment and employment of such personnel.

All such personnel and judges shall be allowed actual traveling and necessary expenses incurred while engaged in the duties of their employment or office outside of the county.

SEC. 2. Section 72190 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72190. Within the jurisdiction of the court and under the direction of the judges, commissioners of municipal courts shall exercise all the powers and perform all of the duties authorized by law to be performed by commissioners of superior courts and such additional powers and duties as may be prescribed by law. At the direction of the judges, commissioners may have the same jurisdiction and exercise the same powers and duties as the judges of the court with respect to any infraction or small claims action. The commissioners of municipal courts shall possess the same qualifications the law requires of a judge and shall hold office during the pleasure of the court appointing them and shall not engage in the private practice of law. They shall be ex officio deputy clerks.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a commissioner of a municipal court of any judicial district in Los Angeles County, San Diego County, San Bernardino County, Orange County, or Monterey County who has been duly appointed and has thereafter been retired for service, or a commissioner of a superior court in this state who has been duly appointed and has thereafter been retired for service, may be assigned by the presiding judge of a municipal court to serve as a court commissioner of such court for such periods of time as he is needed for the prompt and efficient discharge of the business of that court. While so serving, he shall be paid the full compensation of a court commissioner, payable as follows: He shall continue to receive his retirement allowance, and in addition the county shall pay him the amount equal to the difference between such retirement allowance and such full compensation. Such employment shall not operate to reinstate him as a member of the county retirement system or to terminate or suspend his retirement rights or allowance, and no deductions shall be made from his compensation as contributions to the retirement system.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

CHAPTER 838

An act to add Division 12.7 (commencing with Section 18000) to the Public Resources Code, relating to solid waste.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Division 12.7 (commencing with Section 18000) is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

DIVISION 12.7. PLASTIC WASTE

CHAPTER 1. LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS

18000. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) Facilitating the recycling of plastics is in the best interests of the state.

(b) This division is intended to require all plastic products sold in California on and after January 1, 1992, to have a molded label indicating the plastic resin used to produce the product.

CHAPTER 2. CONTAINERS AND PACKAGING

18010. "Rigid plastic container" means any formed or molded article comprised predominantly of plastic resin and having a relatively inflexible finite shape or form intended primarily as a single service container with a capacity of eight ounces or more and less than five gallons.

18011. "Rigid plastic bottle" means any rigid plastic container with a neck that is smaller than the container body with a capacity of 16 ounces or more and less than five gallons.

18012. "Label" means a code label described in Section 18015 molded into the bottom of the plastic product.

18015. (a) All rigid plastic bottles and rigid plastic containers sold in California on and after January 1, 1992, shall be labeled with a code which indicates the resin used to produce the rigid plastic bottle or rigid plastic container. Rigid plastic bottles or rigid plastic containers with labels and basecups of a different material shall be coded by their basic material. The code shall consist of a number placed inside a triangle, and letters placed below the triangle. The triangle shall be equilateral, formed by three arrows with the apex of each point of the triangle at the midpoint of each arrow, rounded with a short radius. The pointer (arrowhead) of each arrow shall be at the midpoint of each side of the triangle with a short gap separating the pointer from the base of the adjacent arrow. The triangle, formed by the three arrows curved at their midpoints shall depict a clockwise path around the code number. The numbers and letters used shall be as follows:

1 = PETt (polyethylene terephthalate)
2 = HDPE (high density polyethylene)
3 = V (vinyl)
4 = LDPE (low density polyethylene)
5 = PP (polypropylene)
6 = PS (polystyrene)
7 = OTHER (includes multilayer)

(b) A "7" shall appear below the resin abbreviation when the bottle or container is composed of more than one layer of that resin.

(c) On and after January 1, 1989, the Division of Recycling of the Department of Conservation shall maintain a list of abbreviations used on labels pursuant to subdivision (a) and shall provide a copy of that list to any person upon request.

18016. On and after January 1, 1992, it is unlawful to manufacture for use in this state any rigid plastic container which is not labeled in accordance with Section 18015. A violation of this section is a crime punishable by a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

18017. The Legislative Analyst shall review compliance with this chapter and shall submit a report of its evaluation to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1993.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 839

An act to amend Section 3370 of the Labor Code, relating to workers' compensation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3370 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3370. (a) Each inmate of a state penal or correctional institution shall be entitled to the workers' compensation benefits provided by this division for injury arising out of and in the course of assigned employment and for the death of the inmate if the injury proximately causes death, subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The inmate was not injured as the result of an assault in which the inmate was the initial aggressor, or as the result of the intentional act of the inmate injuring himself or herself.

(2) The inmate shall not be entitled to any temporary disability indemnity benefits while incarcerated in a state prison.

(3) No benefits shall be paid to an inmate while he or she is incarcerated. The period of benefit payment shall instead commence upon release from incarceration. If an inmate who has been released from incarceration, and has been receiving benefits under this section, is reincarcerated in a state penal or correctional institution, the benefits shall cease immediately upon the inmate's reincarceration and shall not be paid for the duration of the reincarceration.

(4) This section shall not be construed to provide for the payment to an inmate, upon release from incarceration, of temporary disability benefits which were not paid due to the prohibition of paragraph (2).

(5) In determining temporary and permanent disability indemnity benefits for the inmate, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at not less than the minimum amount set forth in Section 4453.

(6) Where a dispute exists repecting an inmate's rights to the workers' compensation benefits provided herein, the inmate may file an application with the appeals board to resolve the dispute. The application may be filed at any time during the inmate's incarceration.

(7) After release or discharge from a correctional institution, the former inmate shall have one year in which to file an original application with the appeals board, unless the time of injury is such that it would allow more time under Section 5804 of the Labor Code.

(8) The percentage of disability to total disability shall be determined as for the occupation of a laborer of like age by applying the schedule for the determination of the percentages of permanent disabilities prepared and adopted by the administrative director.

(9) This division shall be the exclusive remedy against the state for injuries occurring while engaged in assigned work. Nothing in this division shall affect any right or remedy of an injured inmate for injuries not compensated by this division.

(b) The Department of Corrections shall present to each inmate of a state penal or correctional institution, prior to his or her first assignment to work at the institution, a printed statement of his or her rights under this division, and a description of procedures to be followed in filing for benefits under this section. The statement shall be approved by the administrative director and be posted in a conspicuous place at each place where an inmate works.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, the Department of Corrections shall have medical control over treatment provided an injured inmate while incarcerated in a state prison, except, that in serious cases, the inmate is entitled, upon request, to the services of a consulting physician.

(d) Paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of subdivision (a) shall also be applicable to an inmate of a state penal or correctional institution who would otherwise be entitled to receive workers' compensation benefits based on an injury sustained prior to his or her incarceration. However, temporary and permanent disability benefits which, except for this subdivision, would otherwise be payable to an inmate during incarceration based on an injury sustained prior to incarceration shall be paid to the dependents of the inmate. If the inmate has no dependents, the temporary disability benefits which, except for this subdivision, would otherwise be payable during the inmate's incarceration shall be paid to the State Treasury to the credit of the Uninsured Employers Fund, and the permanent disability benefits which would otherwise be payable during the inmate's incarceration shall be held in trust for the inmate by the Department of Corrections during the period of incarceration.

For purposes of this subdivision, "dependents" means the inmate's spouse or children, including an inmate's former spouse due to divorce and the inmate's children from that marriage.

CHAPTER 840

An act to add Section 273.7 to the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 273.7 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

273.7. (a) Any person who maliciously publishes, disseminates or otherwise discloses the location of any domestic violence shelter or any place designated as a domestic violence shelter, without the authorization of that domestic violence shelter, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) (1) For purposes of this section, "domestic violence shelter" means a confidential location which provides emergency housing on a 24-hour basis for victims of sexual assault, spouse abuse, or both, and their families.

(2) Sexual assault, spousal abuse, or both, includes but is not limited to, those crimes described in Sections 240, 242, 243.4, 261, 261.5, 264.1, 266, 266a, 266b, 266c, 266f, 273.5, 273.6, 285, 288, and 289.

(c) Nothing in this section shall apply to confidential communications between an attorney and his or her client.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 841

An act to amend Sections 9889.71, 9889.72, 9889.73, and 9889.74 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to consumer disputes.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9889.71 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9889.71. The bureau shall establish a program for certifying each third party dispute resolution process used for the arbitration of disputes pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) of Section 1793.2 of the Civil Code In establishing the program, the bureau shall do all of the following:

(a) Prescribe and provide forms to be used to apply for certification under this chapter.

(b) Establish a set of minimum standards which shall be used to determine whether a third party dispute resolution process is in substantial compliance with paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 1793.2 of the Civil Code and this chapter.

(c) Prescribe the information which each manufacturer, or other entity, that operates a third party dispute resolution process shall provide the bureau in the application for certification. In prescribing the information to accompany the application for certification, the bureau shall require the manufacturer, or other entity, to provide only that information which the bureau finds is reasonably necessary to enable the bureau to determine whether the third party dispute resolution process is in substantial compliance with paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 1793.2 of the Civil Code and this chapter.

(d) Prescribe the information that each qualified third party dispute resolution process shall provide the bureau, and the time intervals at which the information shall be required, to enable the bureau to determine whether the qualified third party dispute resolution process continues to operate in substantial compliance with paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 1793.2 of the Civil Code and this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 9889.72 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9889.72. (a) Each manufacturer may establish, or otherwise make available to buyers or lessees of new motor vehicles, a qualified third party dispute resolution process for the resolution of disputes pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) of Section 1793.2 of the Civil Code. A manufacturer that itself operates the third party dispute resolution process shall apply to the bureau for certification of that process. If the manufacturer makes the third party dispute resolution process available to buyers or lessees of new motor vehicles through contract or other arrangement with another entity, that entity shall apply to the bureau for certification. An entity that operates a third party dispute resolution process for more than one manufacturer shall make a separate application for certification for each manufacturer that uses that entity's third party dispute resolution process. The application for certification shall be accompanied by the information prescribed by the bureau.

(b) The bureau shall review the application and accompanying information and, after conducting an onsite inspection, shall determine whether the third party dispute resolution process is in substantial compliance with paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 1793.2 of the Civil Code and this chapter. If the bureau determines that the process is in substantial compliance, the bureau shall certify the process. If the bureau determines that the process is not in substantial compliance, the bureau shall deny certification and shall state, in writing, the reasons for denial and the modifications in the operation of the process that are required in order for the process to be certified.

(c) The bureau shall make a final determination whether to certify a third party dispute resolution process or to deny certification not later than 90 calendar days following the date the bureau accepts the application for certification as complete.

SEC. 3. Section 9889.73 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9889.73. (a) The bureau, in accordance with the time intervals prescribed pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 9889.71, but at least once annually, shall review the operation and performance of each qualified third party dispute resolution process and determine, using the information provided the bureau as prescribed pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 9889.71 and the monitoring and inspection information described in subdivision (c) of Section 9889.74, whether the process is operating in substantial compliance with paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 1793.2 of the Civil Code and this chapter. If the bureau determines that the process is in substantial compliance, the certification shall remain in effect.

(b) If the bureau determines that the process is not in substantial compliance with paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 1793.2 of the Civil Code or this chapter, the bureau shall issue a notice of decertification to the entity which operates the process and shall send a copy of that notice to any manufacturer affected by the decertification. The notice of decertification shall state the reasons for the issuance of the notice and prescribe the modifications in the operation of the process that are required in order for the process to retain its certification.

(c) A notice of decertification shall take effect 180 calendar days following the date the notice is served on the manufacturer, or other entity, which uses the process that the bureau has determined is not in substantial compliance with paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 1793.2 of the Civil Code or this chapter. The bureau shall withdraw the notice of decertification prior to its effective date if the bureau determines, after a public hearing, that the manufacturer, or other entity, which uses the process has made the modifications in the operation of the process required in the notice of decertification and is in substantial compliance with paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 1793.2 of the Civil Code and this chapter.

SEC. 4. Section 9889.74 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9889.74. In addition to any other requirements of this chapter, the bureau shall do all of the following:

(a) Establish procedures to assist owners or lessees of new motor vehicles who have complaints regarding the operation of a qualified third party dispute resolution process.

(b) Establish methods for measuring customer satisfaction and to identify violations of this chapter, which shall include an annual random postcard or telephone survey by the bureau of the customers of each qualified third party dispute resolution process.

(c) Monitor and inspect, on a regular basis, qualified third party dispute resolution processes to determine whether they continue to meet the standards for certification. Monitoring and inspection shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Onsite inspections of each qualified third party dispute resolution process not less frequently than twice annually.

(2) Investigation of complaints from consumers regarding the operation of qualified third party dispute resolution processes and analyses of representative samples of complaints against each process.

(3) Analyses of the annual surveys required by subdivision (b).

(d) Notify the Department of Motor Vehicles of the failure of a manufacturer to honor a decision of a qualified third party dispute resolution process to enable the department to take appropriate enforcement action against the manufacturer pursuant to Section 11705.4 of the Vehicle Code.

(e) Submit a biennial report to the Legislature evaluating the effectiveness of this chapter, make available to the public summaries of the statistics and other information supplied by each qualified third party dispute resolution process, and publish educational materials regarding the purposes of this chapter.

(f) Adopt regulations as necessary and appropriate to implement this chapter.

CHAPTER 842

An act to amend Section 1185 of the Civil Code, and to amend Section 8206 of the Government Code, relating to acknowledgment of instruments.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1185 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1185. (a) The acknowledgment of an instrument shall not be taken unless the officer taking it personally knows, or has satisfactory evidence that the person making the acknowledgment is, the individual who is described in and who executed the instrument.

(b) For purposes of this article, "personally knows" means having an acquaintance, derived from association with the individual in relation to other people and based upon a chain of circumstances surrounding the individual, which establishes the individual's identity with at least reasonable certainty.

(c) For the purposes of this section "satisfactory evidence" means the absence of any information, evidence, or other circumstances which would lead a reasonable person to believe that the person making the acknowledgment is not the individual he or she claims to be and any one of the following:

(1) The oath or affirmation of a credible witness personally known to the officer that the person making the acknowledgment is personally known to the witness.

(2) The oath or affirmation under penalty of perjury of two credible witnesses, whose identities are proven to the officer upon the presentation of satisfactory evidence, that each of the following are true:

(A) The person making the acknowledgment is the person named in the document.

(B) The person making the acknowledgment is personally known to the witnesses.

(C) That it is the reasonable belief of the witnesses that the circumstances of the person making the acknowledgment are such that it would be very difficult or impossible for that person to obtain another form of identification.

(D) The person making the acknowledgment does not possess any of the identification documents named in paragraphs (3) and (4).

(E) The witnesses do not have a financial interest in the document being acknowledged and are not named in the document.

(3) Reasonable reliance on the presentation to the officer of any one of the following, if the document is current or has been issued within five years:

(A) An identification card or driver's license issued by the California Department of Motor Vehicles.

(B) A passport issued by the Department of State of the United States.

(4) Reasonable reliance on the presentation of any one of the following, provided that a document specified in subparagraphs (A) to (E), inclusive, shall either be current or have been issued within five years and shall contain a photograph and description of the person named on it, shall be signed by the person, shall bear a serial or other identifying number, and, in the event that the document is a passport, shall have been stamped by the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service:

(A) A passport issued by a foreign government.

(B) A driver's license issued by a state other than California or by a Canadian or Mexican public agency authorized to issue drivers' licenses.

(C) An identification card issued by a state other than California.

(D) An identification card issued by any branch of the armed forces of the United States.

(E) An inmate identification card issued on or after January 1, 1988, by the Department of Corrections, if the inmate is in custody.

(F) An inmate identification card issued prior to January 1, 1988, by the Department of Corrections, if the inmate is in custody.

(d) An officer who has taken an acknowledgment pursuant to this section shall be presumed to have operated in accordance with the provisions of law.

(e) Any party who files an action for damages based on the failure of the officer to establish the proper identity of the person making the acknowledgment shall have the burden of proof in establishing the negligence or misconduct of the officer.

(f) Any person convicted of perjury under this section shall forfeit any financial interest in the document.

SEC. 8. Section 8206 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8206. A notary public shall keep a sequential journal of all official acts performed as a notary public. The journal shall be in addition to and apart from any copies of notarized documents which may be in the possession of the notary public and shall include:

(a) Date, time and type of each official act.

(b) Character of every instrument acknowledged or proved before the notary.

(c) The signature of each person whose signature is being notarized.

(d) A statement as to whether the identity of a person making an acknowledgment was based on personal knowledge or satisfactory evidence. If identity was established by satisfactory evidence pursuant to Section 1185 of the Civil Code, then the journal shall contain the signature of the credible witness swearing or affirming to the identity of the individual or the type of identifying document, the governmental agency issuing the document, the serial or identifying number of the document, and the date of issue or expiration of the document.

(e) If the identity of the person making the acknowledgment was established by the oaths or affirmations of two credible witnesses whose identities are proven upon the presentation of satisfactory evidence, the type of identifying documents, the identifying numbers of the documents and the dates of issuance or expiration of the documents presented by the witnesses to establish their identity.

(f) The fee charged for the notarial service.

Upon written request of any member of the public, which request shall include the name of the parties, the type of document, and the month and year in which notarized, the notary shall supply a photostatic copy of the line item representing the requested transaction at a cost of not more than thirty cents ($0.30) per page.

CHAPTER 843

An act to amend Sections 233, 21655, and 22406 of, and to add Sections 636 and 2818 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 233 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

233. A "bus" is any vehicle, including a trailer bus, designed, used, or maintained for carrying more than 10 persons including the driver, except a vanpool vehicle, as defined in Section 668, and a vehicle designed, used, or maintained for carrying not more than 15 persons, including the driver, when the driver is transporting only members of the immediate family of the owner thereof, shall not be considered to be a bus for the purposes of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 636 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

636. A trailer bus is a motor truck or truck tractor drawing a trailer or semitrailer designed, used, or maintained for the transportation of more than 10 persons, including the driver.

SEC. 3. Section 2818 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

2818. It is unlawful to traverse a flare pattern, cone pattern, or combination thereof, provided for the regulation of traffic, or provided in any situation where public safety personnel are engaged in traffic control or emergency scene management.

SEC. 4. Section 21655 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

21655. (a) Whenever the Department of Transportation or local authorities with respect to highways under their respective jurisdictions determines upon the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that the designation of a specific lane or lanes for the travel of vehicles required to travel at reduced speeds would facilitate the safe and orderly movement of traffic, the department or local authority may designate a specific lane or lanes for the travel of vehicles which are subject to the provisions of Section 22406 and shall erect signs at reasonable intervals giving notice thereof.

(b) Any trailer bus, except as provided in Section 21655.5, and any vehicle subject to the provisions of Section 22406 shall be driven in the lane or lanes designated pursuant to subdivision (a) whenever signs have been erected giving notice of that designation. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, when a specific lane or lanes have not been so designated, any of those vehicles shall be driven in the right-hand lane for traffic or as close as practicable to the right edge or curb. If, however, a specific lane or lanes have not been designated on a divided highway having four or more clearly marked lanes for traffic in one direction, any of those vehicles may also be driven in the lane to the immediate left of that right-hand lane, unless otherwise prohibited under this code. When overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction, the driver shall use either the designated lane, the lane to the immediate left of the right-hand lane, or the right-hand lane for traffic as permitted under this code.

This subdivision does not apply to a driver who is preparing for a left- or right-hand turn or who is entering into or exiting from a highway or to a driver who must necessarily drive in a lane other than the right-hand lane to continue on his or her intended route.

SEC. 5. Section 22406 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22406. No person shall drive any of the following vehicles on a highway at a speed in excess of 55 miles per hour:

(a) A motortruck or truck tractor having three or more axles or any motortruck or truck tractor drawing any other vehicle.

(b) A passenger vehicle or bus drawing any other vehicle.

(c) A schoolbus transporting any school pupil.

(d) A farm labor vehicle when transporting passengers.

(e) A vehicle transporting explosives.

(f) A trailer bus, as defined in Section 636.

SEC. 6 No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 844

An act to amend Section 593c of the Penal Code, relating to pipelines.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 593c of the Penal Code is amended to read:

593c. Every person who willfully and maliciously breaks, digs up, obstructs, interferes with, removes or injures any pipe or main or hazardous liquid pipeline erected, operated, or maintained for the purpose of transporting, conveying or distributing gas or other hazardous liquids for light, heat, power or any other purpose, or any part thereof, or any valve, meter, holder, compressor, machinery, appurtenance, equipment or apparatus connected with any such main or pipeline, or used in connection with or affecting the operation thereof or the conveying of gas or hazardous liquid therethrough, or shuts off, removes, obstructs, injures, or in any way interferes with any valve or fitting installed on, connected to, or operated in connection with any such main or pipeline, or controlling or affecting the flow of gas or hazardous liquid through any such main or pipeline, is guilty of a felony.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 845

An act to amend Section 6 of Chapter 1137 of the Statutes of 1987, relating to urban impact aid, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6 of Chapter 1137 of the Statutes of 1987 is amended to read:

Sec. 6. (a) There is hereby established a task force on urban impact aid, which shall consist of five members appointed by the Governor, two members appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, and two members appointed by the Senate Rules Committee. The task force shall do all of the following:

(1) Review the rationale and purposes of urban impact aid. As part of this review, the task force shall identify the increased costs, if any, associated with providing educational services in school districts with high concentrations of educationally disadvantaged, low-income, welfare-dependent, or limited English-proficient pupils.

(2) Review those factors and the formulas used as the basis for providing urban impact aid to school districts in recognition of high concentrations of those pupils, and determine whether those factors and formulas accurately and fairly measure the educational and fiscal needs associated with that impaction. In completing this review, the task force shall consider the relationship between the allocation of funds pursuant to Sections 54060 and 54060.2 and any increases or reductions in demonstrated need for funding in each school district and statewide since the enactment of Chapter 894 of the Statutes of 1977.

(3) Propose, if appropriate, for consideration by the Legislature, criteria for the allocation of general aid to school districts in recognition of the impaction of educationally disadvantaged pupils. If criteria are proposed, the task force shall identify the relationship between increases or decreases in the allocation of funds to each school district and the pupil or district characteristics that reflect educational and fiscal needs in that district.

(b) The task force shall report its findings and recommendations to the fiscal and education policy committees of the Senate and the Assembly on or before March 1, 1988.

(c) The members of the task force shall be reimbursed for expenses.

SEC. 2. The sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Education for the purposes of defraying the expenses incurred by the task force on urban impact aid established pursuant to Section 6 of Chapter 1137 of the Statutes of 1987.

An act to add Section 16077 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16077 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

16077. (a) The department, upon application and payment of a fifty dollar ($50) fee and a penalty fee of two hundred dollars ($200), may issue a restricted license to an applicant with serious health problems when his or her privilege to drive is otherwise suspended under this chapter, to enable the applicant to drive a motor vehicle for the purpose of receiving medical treatments of a prolonged and repetitive nature, if the person files and maintains proof of financial responsibility on file with the department pursuant to Section 16021.

The application shall set forth the nature of the health problem, the nature of the treatments, the duration and location of the treatments, and the schedule for visits. The applicant shall submit documentation signed by the treating physician or surgeon as necessary to assist the department in its decision to grant or deny the restricted license. Upon reviewing the application, the department may determine that an investigation as to the person's fitness to operate a motor vehicle is warranted. If the department makes this determination, the department may conduct an investigation in a manner provided for in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 13800) of Division 6.

In reviewing the application, the department shall give due consideration to the circumstances set forth in the application and shall be guided by principles of fairness and humanity.

(b) Notwithstanding Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 42200) of Division 18, all revenues derived from the penalty fees provided in subdivision (a) shall be deposited in the Financial Responsibility Penalty Account in the General Fund.

SEC. 2. This act shall become operative July 1, 1989.

CHAPTER 847

An act to amend Sections 73433, 73433.1, 73434, 73435, 73436, 73437, 74604, 74607, 74610, 74921.5, 74921.6, 74922, 74922.5, 74923, and 74924 of, and to add Section 73433.2 to, the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 73433 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73433. There shall be one clerk-administrator in each municipal court who shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of a majority of the judges of the court to which the clerk-administrator is appointed. In a court with less than three judges, the presiding judge shall appoint the clerk-administrator of the court. The clerk-administrator of the East Kern Municipal Court shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 50.1 of the salary schedule. The clerk-administrator of the West Kern Municipal Court shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 54.1 of the salary schedule. The salary of the West Kern Municipal Court clerk-administrator shall be not less than 12 full range steps higher than the salary range in which the position of chief deputy court clerk is compensated.

SEC. 2. Section 73433.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73433.1. There shall be one assistant clerk-administrator in the West Kern Municipal Court who shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the majority of the judges of the court. The assistant clerk-administrator shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 50.1 of the salary schedule.

SEC. 2.5. Section 73433.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

73433.2. There shall be one assistant clerk-administrator in the East Kern Municipal Court who shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the majority of the judges of the court. The assistant clerk-administrator shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 46.1 of the salary schedule.

SEC. 3. Section 73434 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73434. There shall be one judicial secretary in the West Kern Municipal Court who shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of a majority of the judges of the court. The judicial secretary shall receive a biweekly salary specified in range 40.7 of the salary schedule.

SEC. 4. Section 73435 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73435. The clerk-administrator of the West Kern Municipal Court may appoint:

(a) Three chief deputy court clerks who shall act as the supervisors of the civil, criminal, and traffic divisions of the court and each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 41.2 of the salary schedule.

(b) Five deputy court clerks III, each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 39.3 of the salary schedule.

(c) Sixteen municipal courtroom clerks or junior municipal courtroom clerks, each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in ranges 39.3 and 36.5, respectively, of the salary schedule.

Junior municipal courtroom clerk shall be the entrance position to courtroom clerk. The clerk-administrator, with the concurrence of the presiding judge, may advance any junior municipal courtroom clerk to the position of municipal courtroom clerk without further examination, if the junior municipal courtroom clerk has served for six months and otherwise meets the qualifications for municipal courtroom clerk and if the presiding judge is satisfied with the junior municipal courtroom clerk's performance during the six-month period.

(d) One data entry operator IV who shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 38.2 of the salary schedule.

(e) Three data entry operators II or I, each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in ranges 34.2 and 32.2, respectively, of the salary schedule. Data entry operator I shall be the entrance position to the data entry operator series. The clerk-administrator may advance any data entry operator I to the position of data entry operator II without further examination if the data entry operator I has served for one year and otherwise meets the qualifications for data entry operator II.

(f) One account clerk IV who shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 39.2 of the salary schedule.

(g) One account clerk III who shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 36.4 of the salary schedule.

(h) Seven account clerks II or I each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in ranges 33.7 and 30.9, respectively, of the salary schedule. Account clerk I shall be the entrance position to the account clerk series. The clerk-administrator may advance any account clerk I to the position of account clerk II without further examination if the account clerk I has served for one year and otherwise meets the qualifications for account clerk II.

(i) Twenty-nine full-time deputy court clerks II, I, or junior deputy court clerks, each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in ranges 36.5, 32.5, and 29.7, respectively, of the salary schedule.

Junior deputy court clerk shall be the entrance position to the clerk's staff. The clerk-administrator may advance any junior deputy court clerk to the position of deputy court clerk I without further examination, if the junior deputy has served for six months and otherwise meets the qualifications for deputy court clerk I. The clerk-administrator may advance any deputy court clerk I to the position of deputy court clerk II without further examination if the deputy court clerk I has served for six months and otherwise meets the qualifications for deputy court clerk II.

(j) One senior secretary who shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 39.3 of the salary schedule.

(k) One legal clerk I who shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 37.9 of the salary schedule.

(l) One records clerk who shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 36.0 of the salary schedule.

(m) One accountant III who shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 48.4, of the salary schedule.

(n) Two recording technicians, each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 37.5 of the salary ordinance.

(o) One collection clerk II who shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 37.2 of the salary schedule.

SEC. 5. Section 73436 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73436. The clerk-administrator of the East Kern Municipal Court may appoint:

(a) Three deputy court clerks III, each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in range 39.3 of the salary schedule.

(b) Ten full-time and three part-time deputy court clerks II, I, or junior deputy court clerks, each of whom shall receive the biweekly salary specified in ranges 36.5, 32.5, and 29.7, respectively, of the salary schedule.

Junior deputy court clerk shall be the entrance position to the clerk's staff. The clerk-administrator may advance any junior deputy court clerk to the position of deputy court clerk I without further examination, if the junior deputy has served for six months and otherwise meets the qualifications for deputy court clerk I. The clerk-administrator may advance any deputy court clerk I to the position of deputy court clerk II without further examination if the deputy court clerk I has served for six months and otherwise meets the qualifications for deputy court clerk II.

SEC. 6. Section 73437 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73437. (a) Whenever reference to a numbered salary range of the salary schedule is made in any section of this article, the schedule of salary ranges found in the salary ordinance of the County of Kern in effect on December 1, 1987, shall apply. The employees of the municipal courts shall be paid biweekly pursuant to the payroll procedures in effect in the County of Kern.

(b) The minimum salary for each position shall normally be "step A" for the position. If it is difficult to secure qualified personnel at that step or if a person of unusual qualifications is engaged, the court or the clerk-administrator may hire at any step of the salary range applicable to the position.

(c) Any employee who is promoted or whose position is reclassified from one class position to a higher class position shall be placed in the step level of the higher class salary range which most closely approximates a one-step increase from the former position, except that such increase shall not exceed an amount equivalent to 1.4 steps in the salary schedule. In the event the "A" step of the higher class position is greater than a 1.4-step increase over the salary of the employee in the lower class position, the employee shall be placed at the "A" step in the salary range of the higher class position.

(d) The Board of Supervisors of the County of Kern may adjust the salaries paid to employees of the municipal courts as part of its county employee compensation plan. Such adjustment shall be effective on the same date as the effective date of the action of the board of supervisors to adjust compensation of other county employees. Any adjustment shall be effective only until January 1 of the second year following the year in which the adjustment is made, unless ratified by the Legislature.

(e) In addition to the compensation provided in this article, the attachés of the municipal court shall receive, and they shall be entitled to, the same vacations, sick leaves, and similar privileges and benefits as are now or may hereafter be provided for the employees of the County of Kern, including the right to participate in any group, accident, health or life insurance plan adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Kern.

SEC. 7. Section 74604 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74604. There shall be one clerk of the court known as the court executive officer, who shall be appointed by the presiding judge with the concurrence of a majority of the judges of the court, and shall hold office at the pleasure of the majority of the judges. The monthly compensation to be paid to the court executive officer shall be Range 2191, Step 5, of the San Luis Obispo County Salary Table. In addition to any other duties imposed on such officer by law, the court executive officer shall have the following duties:

(a) To direct and coordinate the nonjudicial activities of the court.

(b) To coordinate the personnel practices in compliance with rules of the court.

(c) To prepare and administer the budget of the court.

(d) To coordinate with other county agencies the acquisition, utilization, maintenance and disposition of county facilities, equipment and supplies necessary for operation of the court.

(e) To initiate studies and prepare appropriate recommendations and reports to the presiding judge relating to the business of the court, including, but not limited to, such matters as standardization of forms, procedures, and classification and compensation of officers and employees.

(f) To collect, compare, and analyze statistical data on a continuing basis concerning the status of judicial and nonjudicial business of the court and to prepare periodic reports and recommendations based on such data.

(g) To serve as liaison for the court with other persons, committees, boards, groups, and associations as directed by the presiding judge.

(h) To provide for and conduct a program of in-service training for the personnel of the municipal court.

SEC. 8. Section 74607 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74607. (a) The presiding judge may make appointments to the following authorized positions:

Number	Classification	Salary Range
1	Assistant Clerk Administrator	1397

In the event that the salary for any classification which is shown above is increased by the board of supervisors, a commensurate increase shall be made in the salary for the comparable court classification. Salary adjustments made pursuant to this section shall be effective the same date as the effective date of action of the board of supervisors applicable to the respective and comparable county classifications, but shall remain effective only until January 1 of the second year following the year in which such an adjustment in salary is made.

(b) Upon recommendation of the judges of the court, and with the approval of the board of supervisors, the court may appoint additional employees as it deems necessary for the performance of the duties and exercise of the powers conferred by law upon the court and its members. Any appointment made pursuant to this section shall be on an interim basis and shall expire January 1st of the second calendar year following the year in which the appointment is made unless ratified by the Legislature. This section shall not affect the application of Section 72150.

SEC. 10. Section 74921.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74921.5. In the Porterville Judicial District there shall be one clerk of the municipal court who shall also act as administrator and secretary of the court. The clerk may appoint one assistant clerk of the municipal court, two court clerks III, two court clerks II, two court clerks I and four office assistants II, each of whom shall receive a salary in accordance with Sections 74923 and 74924.

SEC. 11. Section 74921.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74921.6. In the Tulare-Pixley Judicial District there shall be one clerk of the municipal court who shall also act as administrator and secretary of the court. The clerk may appoint one assistant clerk of the municipal court, two court clerks III, three court clerks II, three court clerks I and four office assistants II, each of whom shall receive a salary in accordance with Sections 74923 and 74924.

SEC. 12. Section 74922 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74922. In the Visalia Judicial District there shall be one clerk of the municipal court who shall also act as administrator and secretary of the court. The clerk may appoint one assistant clerk of the municipal court, three court clerks III, five court clerks II, two court clerks I, one account clerk, and eight office assistants II, each of whom shall receive a salary in accordance with Sections 74923 and 74924.

SEC. 13. Section 74922.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74922.5. There shall be one marshal for each municipal court who shall receive a biweekly salary of one thousand two hundred ninety-one dollars and twenty cents ($1,291.20). The marshal of the Visalia Judicial District may appoint five deputy marshals, one office assistant II, and one account clerk. The marshals of the Porterville and Tulare-Pixley Judicial Districts may each appoint three deputy marshals and one account clerk, each of whom shall receive a salary in accordance with Sections 74923 and 74924. In the Tulare-Pixley and Porterville Judicial Districts one deputy marshal in each district shall serve on a half-time basis.

SEC. 14. Section 74923 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74923. The biweekly salaries for the following classes of positions shall be 80 times the hourly rate set forth in the following schedule:

TITLE	RANGE	A	B	C	D	E
Clerk municipal court ..	178	11 520	12.105	12 720	13 367	14 047

SEC. 15. Section 74924 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74924. Subject to the provisions of Section 72001, the compensation of officers and attachés shall be governed as follows:

(a) The initial hiring rate for each position shall be at step A. If it is difficult to secure qualified personnel at such rate, or if a person of unusual qualifications is hired, the appointing authority, with the approval of the board of supervisors, may employ such person at one of the higher salary steps provided for the position.

(b) All step increases shall not be given as a matter of right but only when the presiding judge of the court determines that the officer or employee is properly entitled to receive it. Each person employed in the office of the clerk or marshal, including the clerk, may be advanced from step A to step B of a position after the completion of 13 full pay periods of service in the position. A person may be advanced to steps C, D and E upon completion of 26 full pay periods of service in the same position.

(c) Certain classes of positions in the municipal courts in Tulare County are deemed to be comparable in job and salary level to certain positions in the service of the County of Tulare, or in some instances to such positions with a range adjustment on the salary schedule of the County of Tulare. Whenever the salary of a classification in the service of Tulare County is adjusted by the board of supervisors the salary of the comparable classification in the municipal courts shall be adjusted an equal number of ranges on the currently effective salary schedule established by the board of supervisors. Such adjustments shall be effective on the same date as the effective date of the action by the board of supervisors as it applies to classifications in the county service, but such adjustments shall be effective only until January 1 of the second year following the year in which such adjustments are made, unless ratified by the Legislature. The following table sets forth the municipal court classification with the comparable county classification with appropriate range adjustment, if any, shown opposite thereto:

Municipal court classification	County classification
Clerk of the municipal court	Chief deputy court clerk plus 7 ranges
Assistant clerk, municipal court	Chief deputy court clerk minus 3 ranges
Court clerk III	Courtroom clerk
Court clerk II	Courtroom clerk minus 15 ranges

Office assistant II	Office assistant II

Marshal	Sheriff's sergeant
Deputy marshal	Bailiff
	plus 2 ranges

SEC. 16. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

CHAPTER 848

An act to amend Section 1347 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health care service plans.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1347 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1347. (a) There is established in the Department of Corporations a Health Care Service Plan Advisory Committee consisting of 20 members. The members shall consist of the commissioner or the commissioner's designee; a physician and surgeon with five years' experience in providing services to enrollees of a health care service plan; a person with expertise and five years' experience in an administrative capacity of a hospital-based plan; a person with five years' experience with a corporation formed under Section 9201 of the Corporations Code; a person with five years' experience with a non-hospital-based independent practice association; a person with expertise and five years' experience in a health care service plan which is a hospital-based independent practice association; a person with five years' experience in an administrative capacity with a non-hospital-based health care service plan; a person with five years' experience in an administrative capacity with a specialized health care service plan; a certified public accountant with five years' experience in auditing plans; and six public members having no financial interest in the delivery of health care services or in plans except for being enrolled in a health care service plan or specialized health care service plan.

The members shall also include two persons with five years' experience in an administrative capacity with a dental service plan, two persons with five years' experience in an administrative capacity with a vision service plan, and one person with five years' experience in an administrative capacity with a mental health service plan, all of whom shall be appointed by the commissioner for a term of three years commencing January 1, 1989. With respect only to one of the members appointed who is required to have five years' experience in an administrative capacity with a vision service plan, until January 1, 1996, the commissioner may at his or her discretion substitute for the five years' experience requirement compensating factors such as professional education, experience in related fields, and other factors as the commissioner deems relevant.

The members shall be appointed by the commissioner for a term of three years, except that of the members first appointed, four shall serve for a term of one year and five shall serve for a term of two years, as designated by the commissioner.

The committee shall meet at least quarterly and at the call of the chairperson. The commissioner or the commissioner's designee shall be chairperson of the committee. The committee may establish its own rules and procedures. All members shall serve without compensation, but the six public members shall be reimbursed from department funds for expenses actually and necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties.

(b) The purpose of the committee is to assist and advise the commissioner in the implementation of the commissioner's duties under this chapter. The commissioner shall consult with the advisory committee on regulations and the recommendations of the committee shall be made a part of the record with regard to such regulations. The committee shall be given at least 45 days to review and comment on regulations prior to setting a notice of hearing for proposed regulations. Nothing in this subdivision prohibits the commissioner from promulgating urgency regulations pursuant to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act.

CHAPTER 849

An act to amend Section 6250 of the Penal Code, relating to correctional institutions.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6250 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

6250. (a) The Director of Corrections may establish and operate facilities to be known as community correctional centers.

(b) No later than 30 days after the department has designated a site as a potential site, the director shall notify the county board of supervisors or city council in whose jurisdiction the center may be located. The notification shall set forth the specifics of the site location, design, and operational characteristics for the facility. The department shall not contract for the facility until it has received and reviewed the comments of every local agency notified under this section or the expiration of 60 days after having given notice to the local agency, whichever occurs first.

Upon receipt of the notice, the city, county, or city and county may hold a public hearing concerning the impact of the facility on the community. At the conclusion of the public hearing, the city, county, or city and county may make a recommendation to the department as to the appropriateness of the proposed site, specific design and operational features to help make the facility more compatible with the community, and alternative locations, if appropriate.

Upon receipt of comments and recommendations, the department shall determine whether to proceed with the facility, to modify the proposal, or to select an alternative site. If the department selects a site recommended by the local agency after a hearing conducted pursuant to this section, no further review or hearings are required by this subdivision.

(c) The notice referred to in subdivision (b) may be delivered by hand or sent by any form of mail requiring a return receipt. Failure to provide the notice shall be grounds for extinguishing the contract upon motion of the board of supervisors or city council.

(d) The Director of Corrections shall not change the use of or significantly increase the capacity of a community correctional center established pursuant to subdivision (a) unless the director has first notified the county board of supervisors or city council in whose jurisdiction the center is located at least 30 days prior to the change of use or capacity. Failure to provide the notice shall be grounds for enjoining the change in use or capacity.

CHAPTER 850

An act to add Sections 2003.5 and 2003.6 to the Fish and Game Code, and to add Section 5080.39 to the Public Resources Code, relating to fish.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2003.5 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

2003.5. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the fish of this state are a vital, renewable resource which provides recreation, outdoor experiences, and food for many of this state's citizens. Therefore, it is in the state's best interests to promote volunteer private rehabilitation and improvement of fisheries, fish habitat, and resources.

(b) The Legislature declares it is the policy of this state to encourage cooperation by local, regional, state, and federal governmental agencies with jurisdiction over inland waters with private groups and associations in order to do fish habitat and restoration work. This policy shall be pursued through the implementation of a program known as the "Adopt a Lake Program."

SEC. 2. Section 2003.6 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

2003.6. The department may implement the "Adopt a Lake Program" to facilitate private groups' and associations' undertaking volunteer efforts to rehabilitate and improve fisheries, fish habitat, and resources. In implementing this program, the department shall prepare and periodically update a plan for the volunteer efforts to be undertaken. The plan shall be prepared cooperatively by the department, the private group or association, and the public agency with jurisdiction over the inland water to be affected by the plan. The plan shall be consistent with the management plan and management objectives of the department and the public agency with jurisdiction over the inland water.

SEC. 3. Section 5080.39 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5080.39. The department and other appropriate state and local agencies, and federal agencies to the extent permitted by federal law, with jurisdiction over inland waters are encouraged to cooperate with private groups and associations in order to do fish habitat and restoration work to implement the Adopt a Lake Program pursuant to Section 2003.5 of the Fish and Game Code.

CHAPTER 851

An act to amend, repeal, and add Section 1237.5 of the Penal Code, relating to criminal procedure.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1237.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1237.5. No appeal shall be taken by a defendant from a judgment of conviction upon a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, or a revocation of probation following an admission of violation, except where the defendant has filed as part of the notice of appeal a written statement, executed under oath or penalty of perjury showing reasonable constitutional, jurisdictional, or other grounds going to the legality of the proceedings.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 1237.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1237.5. No appeal shall be taken by the defendant from a judgment of conviction upon a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, or a revocation of probation following an admission of violation, except where both of the following are met:

(a) The defendant has filed with the trial court a written statement, executed under oath or penalty of perjury showing reasonable constitutional, jurisdictional, or other grounds going to the legality of the proceedings.

(b) The trial court has executed and filed a certificate of probable cause for such appeal with the county clerk.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1992.

CHAPTER 852

An act to amend Section 54734 of the Education Code, relating to schools, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 54734 of the Education Code is amended to read:

54734. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall do all of the following:

(a) Assist school districts and schools, upon request, to design, implement, or evaluate school plans authorized by this article.

(b) Apportion funds in accordance with the provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 52850) of Chapter 12 of Part 28 and this article.

(c) Conduct program quality and fiscal reviews to:

(1) Ensure that funds allocated pursuant to this article are expended for the purposes intended.

(2) Provide information helpful to schools in improving their programs.

(3) Provide information and technical assistance helpful to schools in improving the school-based pupil motivation and maintenance programs.

(d) Establish an information dissemination repository, including, but not limited to, model programs, instructional strategies, and effective practices for working with high-risk pupils and increasing the pupil retention of schools and school dropout recovery programs. This repository shall be made available to school districts.

(e) Request that school plans submitted pursuant to Article 3

(commencing with Section 52850) of Chapter 12 of Part 28 by school district governing boards be in compliance with this article and any implementing administrative regulations.

(f) Contract for independent evaluation of the school-based pupil motivation and maintenance programs, and report the evaluation results, together with any policy recommendations, to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1990, and, again, on or before January 1, 1992. The State Department of Education shall make available, for this purpose, a request for proposal that specifies the scope, work plan, and other necessary information. Each of the reports shall address, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) The resulting reduction in absence, truancy, tardiness, and dropout rates.

(2) Staff development programs for persons working with high-risk pupils.

(3) The utilization of pupil study teams in working with high-risk pupils.

(4) The coordination of services from other funding sources.

(5) The effectiveness of the outreach consultant position.

(6) The effectiveness of instructional and auxiliary services for high-risk pupils, including, but not limited to, pupils with no, or limited, proficiency in speaking English and educationally disadvantaged pupils.

SEC. 2. Of those funds to be allocated by the Superintendent of Public Instruction under Item 6110-230-001 of the Budget Act of 1988 for the purpose of implementing pupil dropout prevention programs based upon model programs approved for use by the State Department of Education, the sum of ninety thousand dollars ($90,000) shall be available for expenditure for the purposes of contracting for independent evaluation of pupil motivation and maintenance programs, and reporting the results of those evaluations, pursuant to Section 54734 of the Education Code.

An act to amend Sections 19533, 19596.5, and 19596.6 of, and to add Section 19617.6 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19533 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 6 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

19533. (a) Any license granted to an association other than a fair shall be only for one type of racing, thoroughbred, harness, or quarter horse racing as the case may be, except that the board may, by regulation, authorize the entering of thoroughbred horses in quarter horse races at a distance of 870 yards at quarter horse meetings, mixed breed meetings, and fair meetings.

(b) If the board adopts regulations authorizing the entering of thoroughbred horses in quarter horse races, the regulations shall provide that the association which conducts the meeting shall, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 19613, pay to the horsemen's organization representing thoroughbred horsemen an amount for administrative expense and services rendered to horsemen equivalent to 1.5 percent of the amount available to thoroughbred horses for purses, and an amount for a pension plan for backstretch personnel to be administered by that horsemen's organization equivalent to an additional 1 percent of the amount available to thoroughbred horses for purses. The remainder of the portion shall be distributed as purses. The regulations shall also provide that any redistributable money paid to the board pursuant to Section 19641 which is paid to a welfare fund established by a horsemen's organization from races with both thoroughbred and quarter horses be divided pro rata between the two welfare funds based on the number of thoroughbreds and quarter horses in the race.

SEC. 2. Section 19596.5 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 138 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

19596.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may authorize an association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the northern zone to operate a satellite wagering facility for wagering on races conducted in the northern zone at its racetrack inclosure, except during the part of the day racing is being conducted at its racetrack, and may, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, authorize any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair in the northern zone eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, but which is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting or authorized pursuant to Section 19596.7, to locate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds for wagering on races conducted in the northern zone, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) An organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 has executed agreements, which are approved by the board, with the association conducting a racing meeting in the northern zone and the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide, among other things, the conditions for transmission of the signal and that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility will be included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any agreement under this subdivision, for purposes of determining license fees and breakage at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted, wagers at a satellite wagering facility shall not be included in the conventional or exotic pools of the association conducting the racing meeting.

(2) The horsemen's organization which represents the horsemen at the association which conducts the racing meeting on which wagers are accepted consents to the acceptance of wagers at the satellite wagering facility, except that the association or fair operating the satellite wagering facility may appeal the withholding of consent to the board which may determine that consent is not required.

(3) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.

(4) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering has been approved by the board.

(5) Except as provided in Section 19596.9, any association or fair which conducts satellite wagering shall conduct wagering on all racing offered to the satellite wagering facility, as long as the satellite wagering facility is not sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or night meeting, as determined by the board, and, if sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or night meeting, as long as that loss is reimbursed by either an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 or an association.

In calculating the loss, if any, for operating a satellite wagering facility for a night meeting, only the expenses incurred by the satellite wagering facility because of acceptance of night wagers shall be considered, and no overhead expenses or expenses which would be incurred regardless of the acceptance of night wagers shall be considered.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), during periods of the day when there is no night racing in the northern zone, the live audiovisual signal of night harness or quarter horse races in the central or southern zone may be offered to satellite wagering facilities in the northern zone, provided, however, (1) that racing associations may accept that audiovisual signal, but are not required to do so and (2) that satellite wagering facilities located at fairs are not required to accept more than five night racing programs per week.

(c) The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities shall be the same as the deductions for wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(1) On thoroughbred meetings only, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4.0 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c)

of Section 19596.4, and 0.4 of 1 percent shall be distributed to the breeders in the form of breeders' awards, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(2) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3.0 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 6 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and, in the case of quarter horses, 0.4 of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6, and, in the case of Appaloosas, 0.4 of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas and, in the case of standardbreds, 0.4 of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(3) In addition to the distributions in paragraph (1) or (2), on thoroughbred meetings and harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities. Any of the promotion funds that are not distributed in the year in which they are collected may be distributed in the following year, and if promotion funds distributed in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds distributed in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount. Additionally, 0.33 of 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(d) On thoroughbred meetings only, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (c) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent as purses to the horsemen participating in the racing meeting, except that owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(e) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, and fair meetings, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (c) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent to the horsemen in the form of purses at the association conducting the racing meeting, except that, for meetings commencing on or after the effective date of the amendments to this subdivision enacted at the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature, owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(f) Except as provided in subdivisions (g) and (h), all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, are hereby continuously appropriated from that account to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the Director of Food and Agriculture, in his or her discretion, for the following purposes, except that the concurrence of the Director of Finance shall be obtained for allocations for the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2):

(1) For repayment of the principal of, and interest on, bonds issued by a joint powers agency, or of other debt service or expense incurred, for the purpose of constructing improvements only at a fair's racetrack inclosure, for the purpose of construction of satellite wagering facilities at fairs, and for health and safety repair projects and handicapped access compliance at fairs. Notwithstanding any other law, the department may also commit any funds available for allocation under Article 10 (commencing with Section 19620) to complete projects funded under this paragraph in the priority described in this paragraph.

(2) For repayment of expenses incurred by fairs in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities.

(3) For health and safety repair projects at fairs.

(4) For support purposes of fairs generally.

(g) Seven and one-half percent of all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in the General Fund.

(h) Up to 10 percent of all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a special account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for supplementing purses at fair meetings to achieve the purposes of subdivision (i). The department shall annually determine the percentage of revenues payable to the special account under this subdivision based on the amount necessary to achieve the purposes of subdivision (i).

(i) It is the intent of the Legislature that funds allocated pursuant to subdivision (h) be used primarily at fair racing meetings in the northern zone with a daily average handle of more than three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000). The Legislature further finds that its intent is that these allocations be used to bring the purses at these fairs, exclusive of purses for stakes races and special events, to a level of at least 80 percent of purses for similar classes of horses at private racing associations in the northern zone. The funds shall be used among all breeds. For fair racing meetings in the northern zone with a daily average handle of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) or less, it is the intent of the Legislature to bring the purses to a level of at least 25 percent of purses for similar classes of horses at private racing associations in the northern zone.

SEC. 3. Section 19596.6 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 138 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

19596.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, subject to the conditions and limitations set forth in this section and Section 19596.7, the following entities in the central or southern zone are eligible to be licensed to operate a satellite wagering facility for wagering on races conducted in the central or southern zone:

(1) Any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair which conducted general fair activities in 1986 within the central or southern zone, and which is eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, but which is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting, may locate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds.

(2) Any association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the central or southern zone.

(b) The board may authorize an eligible association or, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, an eligible fair, to operate a satellite wagering facility under all of the following conditions:

(1) A racing association licensed to conduct a racing meeting shall conduct satellite wagering only within its racing inclosure.

(2) An organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 has executed an agreement approved by the board with the association conducting a racing meeting and the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide, among other things, the conditions for transmission of the signal and that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility are included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted.

(3) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.

(4) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering have been approved by the board.

(5) Any association or fair that operates a satellite wagering facility shall conduct wagering on all racing conducted in the central or southern zone that is offered to that satellite wagering facility, as long as the satellite wagering facility is not sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or a night meeting, as determined by the board, and, if sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or a night meeting, as long as that loss is not reimbursed by either an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 or an association.

In calculating the loss, if any, for operating a satellite wagering facility for a night meeting, only the expenses incurred by the satellite wagering facility because of acceptance of night wagers shall be considered, and no overhead expenses or expenses of the satellite wagering facility which would be incurred regardless of the acceptance of night wagers shall be considered.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a satellite wagering facility may not be located within the County of Los Angeles or within the County of Orange, except as follows:

(1) If all other conditions in subdivision (b) are met, the Fiftieth District Agricultural Association may be authorized to operate a satellite wagering facility upon its fairgrounds in the City of Lancaster and to accept wagers on races conducted in the southern and central zones.

(2) If all other conditions are met, any fair or association licensed to conduct racing meetings in the County of Los Angeles and any racing association other than a fair which is licensed to conduct racing in the County of Orange may be authorized to operate a satellite wagering facility for the limited purpose of conducting satellite wagering on races conducted at the Twenty-Second District Agricultural Association fairgrounds at Del Mar in the County of San Diego, except that, when a fair in Orange County is licensed for a racing meeting, a satellite wagering facility located within the racing inclosure where the racing meeting is conducted may not operate on the days that racing is conducted.

(d) The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities shall be the same as the percentage deducted from wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted by a satellite wagering facility under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(1) On thoroughbred meetings only, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4.0 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and 0.40 of 1 percent shall be distributed to the breeders in the form of breeders' awards, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(2) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3.0 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, and 6 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and, in the case of quarter horses, 0.4 of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6, and, in case of Appaloosas, 0.4 of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas and, in the case of standardbreds, 0.4 of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(3) In addition, on thoroughbred meetings and harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1 percent shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities. Any of the promotion funds that are not distributed in the year in which they are collected may be distributed in the following year, and if promotion funds distributed in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds distributed in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount. Additionally, 0.33 of 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(e) On thoroughbred meetings only, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts in subdivision (d) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent as purses to the horsemen participating in the racing meeting, except that owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting. All of the funds distributed for purses from satellite wagering facilities shall go to the purse program of the association conducting the racing meeting except that all sums for distribution as purses at satellite wagering facilities which are racing fairs in the County of Los Angeles shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for supplementing purses at fair meetings in Los Angeles and Orange Counties. The department shall distribute these funds on an equal basis to each racing fair in these counties for distribution in all nonstakes races and among all breeds.

(f) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, and fair meetings, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (d) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent to the horsemen in the form of purses participating in the racing meeting, except that, for meetings commencing on or after the effective date of the amendments to this subdivision enacted at the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature, owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (e), when satellite wagering is conducted on thoroughbred meetings, an amount, not to exceed 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by all satellite wagering facilities, shall be deducted from the funds otherwise allocated for distribution as commissions, purses, and owners' premiums and instead distributed to an organization formed and operated by thoroughbred racing associations, fairs conducting thoroughbred racing, and the organization representing thoroughbred horsemen, with each party having meaningful representation on the board of the organization, to administer, pursuant to supervision of the board, a fund to provide reimbursement for offsite stabling at board-approved auxiliary training facilities of licensed racing associations for additional stalls beyond the number of usable stalls the association is required to make available and maintain pursuant to Section 19535, and for the vanning of starters from these additional stalls on race days for thoroughbred horses.

(h) The funds distributed to the organization formed pursuant to subdivision (g) shall be used to reimburse racing associations who are operating offsite stabling providing additional stalls for the incremental increase in operating costs directly resulting from providing the stabling. Neither the organization administering the offsite stabling and vanning program nor any of the entities forming and operating the organization, except the entity operating the offsite stabling facility where the injury occurred, shall be liable for any injury to any jockey, exercise person, owner, trainer, or any employee or agent thereof, or any horse occurring at any offsite stabling facility.

The funds shall also reimburse horsemen for the cost of vanning starting horses from a board-approved auxiliary training facility operated by a licensed racing association to the track conducting the racing meeting. Horsemen may use carriers of their own choice, except that the amount of reimbursement to horsemen is limited to the amount that the organization determines is generally charged by carriers for vanning from the auxiliary training facility to the track conducting the racing meeting. Neither the organization administering the offsite stabling and vanning program nor any of the entities forming and operating the organization, except the entity actually engaged in vanning horses, shall be liable for any injury occurring to any individual or horse during vanning from an offsite stabling facility.

The training facilities and amenities provided for offsite stabling and training purposes shall be equivalent in character to those provided during racing meetings of the association.

Upon the request of any party within the organization, the board shall adjudicate any dispute regarding costs, or other matters relating to the furnishing of offsite stabling or vanning. The board may, if necessary, appoint an independent auditor to assist in the resolution of disputes. The auditor shall be reimbursed from the funds of the organization.

The organization may maintain a reserve fund of up to 10 percent of the total estimated annual vanning and stabling costs. In addition to the reserve fund, if the funds generated for offsite stabling and vanning are insufficient to fully reimburse racing associations for expenses incurred during the offsite vanning and stabling program, the organization is entitled to accumulate sufficient funds to fully reimburse these expenses.

The amount initially deducted and distributed to the organization shall be 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by satellite wagering facilities authorized under this section on thoroughbred racing, but that allocation may be adjusted by the board, in its discretion, but the adjusted amount may not exceed 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by satellite wagering facilities, to pay expenses and maintain the reserve fund for the continuing support of the program.

(i) Forty-two percent of the revenue payable to the state from license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs under the authority of this section shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated from that account to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the Director of Food and Agriculture, in his or her discretion, for the following purposes, except that the concurrence of the Director of Finance shall be obtained for allocations for the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2):

(1) For repayment of the principal of, and interest on, bonds issued by a joint powers agency, or of other debt service or expense incurred for the purpose of constructing improvements only at a fair's racetrack inclosure, or for the purpose of construction of satellite wagering facilities at fairs, and for health and safety repair projects and handicapped access compliance at fairs. Notwithstanding any other law, the department may also commit any funds available for allocation under Article 10 (commencing with Section 19620) to complete projects funded under this paragraph in the priority described in this paragraph.

(2) For repayment of expenses incurred by fairs in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities.

(3) For health and safety repair projects at the fair.

(4) For support purposes of the fair generally.

(j) The remaining 58 percent of the revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities at fairs and all revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities located under the authority of this section at sites other than fairs shall be deposited in the General Fund.

(k) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 19641, the state shall receive as additional license fees 50 percent of any redistributable money in a parimutuel pool arising from wagers at a satellite wagering facility, subject to payment to a claimant pursuant to Section 19598, but not successfully claimed within that period, and the funds shall be deposited in the General Fund. The remaining 50 percent of redistributable money in a parimutuel pool arising from wagers at a satellite wagering facility shall be paid to a welfare fund established by the horsemen's organization contracting with the association conducting the racing meeting for the benefit of horsemen, and that organization shall make an accounting to the board within one calendar year of the receipt of the payment.

(l) Of the total breakage arising in a parimutuel pool which includes wagers at satellite wagering facilities, that percentage of breakage equal to the percentage that wagers placed at satellite wagering facilities constitute of the total parimutuel pool shall be distributed equally among the state as an additional license fee deposited in the General Fund, the track conducting the racing meeting as a commission, and the horsemen participating in the racing meeting in the form of purses. The remainder of the breakage shall be distributed in the same manner as breakage arising from wagers at the track conducting the racing meeting.

(m) Notwithstanding subdivision (c) of Section 19596.5 and subdivision (d) of this section, if the total revenues from horseracing for deposit in the General Fund for the 1988–89 fiscal year, as determined by the board, do not equal or exceed one hundred fifteen million dollars ($115,000,000), the license fees distributed to the state for all wagers under subdivision (c) of Section 19596.5 and subdivision (d) of this section shall be increased by one-half of 1 percent for meetings commencing after July 1, 1989. The board shall determine if the total revenues from horseracing for deposit in the General Fund during the 1989–90 fiscal year and subsequent fiscal years equal or exceed one hundred fifteen million dollars ($115,000,000), and in fiscal years when that amount is not equaled or exceeded, the license fees distributed to the state for all wagers under subdivision (c) of Section 19596.5 and subdivision (d) of this section shall be increased by one-half of 1 percent for meetings commencing after July 1 of the following fiscal year.

SEC. 4. Section 19617.6 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19617.6. (a) The board shall designate the officially recognized organization representing quarter horsemen to administer this section and to distribute any amounts which are made available for distribution under this section. The organization may, with the approval of the board, make a deduction for expenses, which shall not exceed 10 percent of the total amount available for distribution under this section.

(b) A breeders' award equal to 5 percent of the winning horse's share of the purse won by a California-bred quarter horse in any race at any meeting held in the state, other than a fair or mixed breed meeting, shall be paid to the breeder of the winning horse.

(c) The amount remaining for distribution under this section, if any, after the payments are made under subdivision (b) shall be used for the payment of quarter horse stallion awards as provided in this subdivision.

At the end of the calendar year, stallion awards shall be made under this subdivision on a prorated percentage based on the win and second place shares of the purse, exclusive of all purse money not derived from the parimutuel pools, to the owners of sires of quarter horses who have been officially placed first or second in one or more races other than maiden or claiming races at a quarter horse meeting, or in a nonmaiden claiming race at a quarter horse meeting in races having a total purse value equal to, or in excess of, the average purse value for races, other than stakes races, won by California-bred quarter horses during the previous year, or in any quarter horse stakes race run at the California Exposition and State Fair, or at any county or district agricultural association fair or mixed meeting.

Stallion awards shall not be made to the owner of a sire which has been out of the state for breeding purposes during the calendar year.

Stallion awards shall not be made for any race run outside the State of California.

(d) If there are insufficient funds to make all of the distributions in this section, there shall be no assessments made against any association to fund the deficiencies.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the provisions in this act may apply during the 1988 racing season, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 854

An act to amend Sections 626.9 and 626.10 of the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 626.9 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

626.9. Any person, except a duly appointed peace officer as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, a full-time paid peace officer of another state or the federal government who is carrying out official duties while in California, any person summoned by any of these officers to assist in making arrests or preserving the peace while he or she is actually engaged in assisting the officer, a member of the military forces of this state or the United States who is engaged in the performance of his or her duties, a person holding a valid license to carry the firearm pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 12050) of Chapter 1 of Title 2 of Part 4, or an armored vehicle guard, who is engaged in the performance of his or her duties, as defined in Section 7521 of the Business and Professions Code, who brings or possesses a firearm upon the grounds of any public school, including the University of California, the California State University, and the California Community Colleges, or within any public school, including the University of California, the California State University, and the California Community Colleges, unless it is with the written permission of the school district superintendent, his or her designee, or equivalent school authority, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for one, two, or three years.

SEC. 2. Section 626.10 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

626.10. (a) Any person, except a duly appointed peace officer as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, a full-time paid peace officer of another state or the federal government who is carrying out official duties while in this state, a person summoned by any officer to assist in making arrests or preserving the peace while the person is actually engaged in assisting any officer, or a member of the military forces of this state or the United States who is engaged in the performance of his or her duties, who brings or possesses any dirk, dagger, knife having a blade longer than 3½ inches, folding knife with a blade that locks into place, a razor with an unguarded blade, a taser, or a stun gun, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 244.5, upon the grounds of, or within, any public school providing instruction in kindergarten or any of grades 1 through 12, inclusive, is guilty of a public offense punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year or by imprisonment in the state prison for one, two, or three years.

(b) Any person, except a duly appointed peace officer as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, a full-time paid peace officer of another state or the federal government who is carrying out official duties while in this state, a person summoned by any officer to assist in making arrests or preserving the peace while the person is actually engaged in assisting any officer, or a member of the military forces of this state or the United States who is engaged in the performance of his or her duties, who brings or possesses any dirk, dagger, or knife having a fixed blade longer than 3½ inches upon the grounds of, or within, the University of California, the California State University, or the California Community Colleges is guilty of a public offense punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year or by imprisonment in the state prison for one, two, or three years.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall not apply to any person who brings or possesses a knife having a blade longer than 3½ inches or a razor with an unguarded blade upon the grounds of, or within, a public school providing instruction in kindergarten or any of grades 1 through 12 or any university, state university, or community college at the direction of a faculty member of the university or state university or a certificated or classified employee of the school for use in a university, state university, or a school-sponsored activity or class.

(d) Subdivisions (a) and (b) do not apply to any person who brings or possesses a knife having a blade longer than 3½ inches or a razor with an unguarded blade upon the grounds of, or within, a public school providing instruction in kindergarten or any of grades 1 through 12, inclusive, or any university, state university, or community college for a lawful purpose within the scope of the person's employment.

(e) Subdivision (b) shall not apply to any person who brings or possesses a knife having a fixed blade longer than 3½ inches upon the grounds of, or within, any university, state university, or community college, for lawful use in or around a residence or residential facility located upon those grounds or for lawful use in food preparation or consumption.

(f) Any certificated or classified employee or school peace officer of a public school providing instruction in kindergarten or any of grades 1 through 12, inclusive, may seize any of the weapons described in subdivision (a), and any faculty member of the university or state university or a certificated or classified employee or school peace officer of any university, state university, or community college may seize any of the weapons described in subdivision (b) from the possession of any person upon the grounds of, or within, the school if he knows or has reasonable cause to know the person is prohibited from bringing or possessing the weapon upon the grounds of, or within, the school.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 855

An act to repeal Section 11202 of the Government Code, to amend Section 1751.6 of, to add Section 12921.6 to, and to repeal Sections 12975.1, 12975.7, and 12995 of, the Insurance Code, and to repeal Sections 10 and 11 of Chapter 722 of the Statutes of 1982, relating to insurance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11202 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 1751.6 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1751.6. The commissioner may prepare a list of all currently licensed agents, brokers, and solicitors. All such lists shall be at the expense of the insurer, organization, or person requesting this service, except that special lists which are a part of the regulatory responsibility of the department may be at the expense of the state in the discretion of the commissioner. The costs and expenses of all such lists shall be paid from the support appropriation for the Department of Insurance current at the time of the preparation of the list but shall be charged to and collected from the insurer, organization, or person requesting the list. All list preparation expense moneys collected by the Department of Insurance under the provisions of this section are hereby appropriated to the department and shall be deposited in the Insurance Fund to the credit of the support appropriation for the department current at the time of the deposit. If any such insurer, organization, or person refuses to pay such costs and expenses promptly when due, the commissioner may refuse to issue its certificate of authority, certificate of exemption, or license, as the case may be, and may revoke any existing certificate of authority, certificate of exemption, or license.

SEC. 3. Section 12921.6 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

12921.6. (a) (1) If no fee is designated in this code for the review of filings required to be made pursuant to this code, the commissioner may establish a fee to permit the department to recover the actual cost of review of those filings. The fee so established shall not be increased by more than twenty-five dollars ($25), unless the increase is made by law.

(2) If this code designates a fee for any required filing, which fee the commissioner determines to be inadequate to cover the actual cost of review, the commissioner may assess an additional fee pursuant to this section not to exceed 25 percent of the fee designated by the code for the filing.

(3) Any person assessed a fee under this section shall be entitled, upon request, to receive reasonable substantiation from the department for the fee assessed, based upon the cost records of the department.

(4) As used in this section, "filings" means those items which the insurers are required to file with the department or commissioner pursuant to this code

(b) The fee provided for by this section shall be assessed without regard to the requirements of Section 12978 as to uniformity of increase, but shall be based upon the actual cost to the department for the review of the filing.

(c) As used in this section, "person" means any person or entity subject to examination by the commissioner, or purporting to do insurance business in this state, or in the process of organization with intent to do insurance business in this state, or from whom the commissioner's certificate of authority is required for the transaction of business, or whose certificate of authority is revoked or suspended.

SEC. 4. Section 12975.1 of the Insurance Code, as added by Section 2 of Chapter 722 of the Statutes of 1982, is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 12975.7 of the Insurance Code, as added by Section 4 of Chapter 722 of the Statutes of 1982, is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 12995 of the Insurance Code, as added by Section 8 of Chapter 722 of the Statutes of 1982, is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 10 of Chapter 722 of the Statutes of 1982, as amended by Section 34 of Chapter 770 of the Statutes of 1985, is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 11 of Chapter 722 of the Statutes of 1982, as amended by Section 35 of Chapter 770 of the Statutes of 1985, is repealed.

SEC. 9. Sections 4 to 8, inclusive, of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1989.

CHAPTER 856

An act relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any contrary provision in any allocation agreement, any vehicle or other equipment acquired by any entity with funds allocated to it from the Transportation Planning and Development Account in the State Transportation Fund by the Secretary of the Business and Transportation Agency pursuant to Section 99312 of the Public Utilities Code, as added by Section 34.5 of Chapter 161 of the Statutes of 1979, shall become the property of that entity when the department determines that the entity has completed the demonstration project for which the property was acquired and that the equipment has been in service for its normal useful service life, as established by the most recent depreciation standards of the federal Internal Revenue Service. Any proceeds derived from the subsequent sale of the property shall be retained by the entity so long as the proceeds are applied to the purchase or lease of transit vehicles or operation of transportation services.

CHAPTER 857

An act relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 When requested by resolution of the board of supervisors of any county or city council of any city, the State Board of Equalization shall provide to the county or city a summary of the total amount of sales and use tax revenue reported to the board on sales and use tax returns from the types of businesses located in the city or unincorporated area of the county, segregated by each ZIP Code area within the city or unincorporated area of the county for any calendar quarter. Counties or cities who request this information shall be charged their pro rata share of the costs based on the population of the city or the unincorporated area of the county as determined by the board. For the first five years of the program, the costs shall include both startup and ongoing costs. After five years, the costs shall include only ongoing costs.

SEC. 2. The resolution by the board of supervisors of any county or city council of any city, issued pursuant to Section 1, shall state that the county or city agrees to pay its share of the costs, as determined by the State Board of Equalization.

The board shall not be required to make the information described in Section 1 available to any county or city until the end of the first calendar quarter which begins at least six months following receipt of such request from any combination of at least 40 counties of any population and cities with a population of greater than 10,000. After the first 40 requests have been received, each of those counties or cities shall contract with the board to pay its share of the actual costs of developing a statewide ZIP Code data retrieval system and preparing the summary of sales and use tax revenue which is required by Section 1.

CHAPTER 858

An act to add Section 998 of the Civil Code, relating to electronic data processing and telecommunications goods and services.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 998 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

998. Any private vendor of electronic data processing equipment or telecommunications goods and services may sell or lease equipment, goods, or services to a private school for the same price and on similar terms as the vendor sells or leases the equipment, goods, or services to a public school or school district.

CHAPTER 859

An act to amend Section 65353 of the Government Code, relating to land use planning.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65353 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65353. (a) When the city or county has a planning commission authorized by local ordinance or resolution to review and recommend action on a proposed general plan or proposed amendments to the general plan, the commission shall hold at least one public hearing before approving a recommendation on the adoption or amendment of a general plan. Notice of the hearing shall be given pursuant to Section 65090.

(b) If a proposed general plan or amendments to a general plan would affect the permitted uses or intensity of uses of real property, notice of the hearing shall also be given pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 65091.

(c) If the number of owners to whom notice would be mailed or delivered pursuant to subdivision (b) is greater than 1,000, a local agency may, in lieu of mailed or delivered notice, provide notice by publishing notice pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 65091.

(d) If the hearings held under this section are held at the same time as hearings under Section 65854, the notice of the hearing may be combined.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 860

An act to add Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 22520) to Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to bakery trays and baskets.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 22520) is added to Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 22. BAKERY TRAYS AND BASKETS

22520. For the purpose of this chapter:

(a) "Bakery tray or basket" means a plastic or metal container which holds bread or other baked goods and is used by a distributor, retailer, or his or her agent as a means to transport, store, or carry those products.

(b) Section 22521 shall apply when a bakery tray or basket has a sign permanently affixed to it that identifies the owner of the property, notifies the public that the unauthorized possession of the tray or basket is a violation of state law, and lists an address or telephone number for returning the tray or basket to the owner.

22521. (a) As to any containers marked pursuant to this chapter the following acts are punishable under Sections 487 and 488 of the Penal Code:

(1) Possession or use of the marked bakery tray or basket by an unauthorized person.

(2) Obliteration of the mark on the bakery tray or basket, except by the owner thereof.

(b) "Unauthorized person" with respect to possession of a bakery tray or basket marked pursuant to this chapter includes any person in possession of that equipment except the owner or a person who, with the consent of the owner or any other authorized person, has temporary possession of the bakery tray or basket as a result of the sale, distribution, or purchase of goods packaged and transported in the containers.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 861

An act to amend Section 13144 of, and to add Section 12410.5 to, the Government Code, relating to public funds, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12410.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

12410.5. The Controller shall receive every audit report prepared for any local public agency in compliance with the federal Single Audit Act of 1984 (P.L. 98-502; 31 U.S.C. Sec. 7501 et seq.) and required under any law to be submitted to any state agency, and shall, after ascertaining its compliance with that federal act, transmit the report to the designated state agency.

SEC. 2. Section 13144 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13144. Any fee or payment subject to refund under this article, and any excess payment to a revolving fund as defined in Section 13140, may be refunded by the state agency collecting the fee or erroneous or excess payment (a) before deposit in the State Treasury from any unremitted balance of receipts of the same nature in the state agency's checking account or (b) if deposited in the State

Treasury, from any appropriation made for the refund or from any unremitted balance of receipts of the same nature in the state agency's checking account. If there is an insufficient balance of unremitted receipts of the same nature in the state agency's checking account, there is hereby appropriated from the fund to which the payment was credited, a sufficient amount to make the refunds. Individual refunds under this article which exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000), to be made from fees or payments deposited in the State Treasury, shall require prior approval of the Department of Finance and the Controller. Claims for refunds made under (b) of this section shall be charged to the account to which the original entry was made when the funds were deposited in the State Treasury.

Whenever any fee or payment subject to refund under (b) of this section has been paid into the State Treasury to the credit of two or more funds, the agency may file a single claim against one of the funds with the Controller, covering the total amount to be refunded from each of the funds credited. The claim shall be supported by such detail as the Controller may require. At least quarterly the agency shall certify to the Controller the amounts so paid from one fund which are properly chargeable to other funds and upon order of the Controller the amounts so required shall be transferred from those funds to the credit of the appropriate funds.

CHAPTER 862

An act to amend Section 6157 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 987.76 and 988.3 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to veterans farm and home purchases, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6157 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6157. (a) The state, and each city, whether general law or chartered, county, and district, each subdivision, department, board, commission, body, or agency of the foregoing, shall accept personal checks drawn in its favor or in favor of a designated official thereof, in payment for any license, permit, or fee, or in payment of any obligation owing to the public agency or trust deposit, if the person issuing the check furnishes to the person authorized to receive payment satisfactory proof of residence in this state and if the personal check is drawn on a banking institution located in this state.

(b) If any personal check offered in payment pursuant to this section is returned without payment, for any reason, a reasonable charge for the returned check not to exceed ten dollars ($10) may be imposed, which charge may be added to and become part of any underlying obligation other than an obligation which constitutes a lien on real property, and a different method of payment for that payment and future payments by such person may be prescribed.

(c) The acceptance of a personal check pursuant to this section constitutes payment of the obligation owed to the payee public agency to the extent of the amount of the check as of the date of acceptance when, but not before, the check is duly paid.

(d) The provisions in subdivision (b) prohibiting a returned check charge being added to and becoming a part of an obligation which constitutes a lien on real property do not apply to obligations under the Veterans' Farm and Home Purchase Act of 1974 (Article 3.1 (commencing with Section 987.50) of Chapter 6 of Division 4 of the Military and Veterans Code).

SEC. 2. Section 987.76 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.76. Notwithstanding Section 6157 of the Government Code, the department shall be the sole judge of all of the following:

(a) The legality or validity of taxes, assessments, charges, or encumbrances, and the amount necessary to be paid in satisfaction or discharge thereof.

(b) The amount of insurance to be placed upon the buildings, fences, other permanent improvements, and crops and the amount necessary to be paid for the premiums for that insurance.

(c) The necessity and nature of the work required to keep the buildings, fences, and other improvements in good order and repair, and the amount to be paid therefor.

SEC. 3. Section 988.3 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

988.3. The Department of Finance may make advances of money to the department, needed to meet contingent expenses, of not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), as the Department of Finance determines necessary, and may make advances of money to the department, needed to carry out Articles 3 (commencing with Section 984), 3.1 (commencing with Section 987.50), and 3.5 (commencing with Section 988) of this chapter of not more than twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000), as the Department of Finance determines necessary, and these advances shall be administered as revolving funds. The Controller may draw warrants upon the Veterans' Farm and Home Building Fund for these advances, and the Treasurer may pay them.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to expedite the administrative procedures of the Department of Veterans Affairs with respect to the Veterans' Farm and Home Purchase Act of 1974, and the handling of funds in that connection, as quickly as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 863

An act to amend Section 14499.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14499.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14499.5. (a) In carrying out the intent of this article, the director shall contract for the operation of one local pilot program. Special consideration shall be given to approving a program contracted through county government in Santa Barbara County.

(b) The establishment of a pilot program pursuant to this section shall be contingent upon the availability of state and federal funding. The program shall include the following components:

(1) Local authority for administration, fiscal management, and delivery of services, but not including eligibility determination.

(2) Physician case management.

(3) Cost containment through provider incentives and other means.

(c) The program for the pilot project shall include a plan and budget for delivery of services, administration, and evaluation. During the first year of the pilot program, the amount of the state contract shall equal 95 percent of total projected Medi-Cal expenditures for delivery of services and for administration based on fee-for-service conditions in the program county. During the remaining years of the pilot project, Medi-Cal expenditures in the program county shall be no more than 100 percent of total projected expenditures for delivery of services and for administration based on any combination of the following paragraphs:

(1) Relevant prior fee-for-service Medi-Cal experience in the program county.

(2) The fee-for-service Medi-Cal experience in comparable counties or groups of counties.

(3) Medi-Cal experience of the pilot project in the program county if, as determined by the state department, the scope, level, and duration of, and expenditures for, any services used in setting the rates under this paragraph would be comparable to fee-for-service conditions were they to exist in the program county and would be more actuarially reliable for use in ratesetting than data available for use in applying paragraph (1) or (2).

The projected total expenditure shall be determined annually according to an acceptable actuarial process. The data elements used by the department shall be shared with the proposed contractor.

(d) The director shall accept or reject the proposal within 30 days after the date of receipt. If a decision is made to reject the proposal, the director shall set forth the reasons for this decision in writing. Upon approval of the proposal, a contract shall be written within 60 days. After signature by the local contractor, the State Department of Health Services, the Department of General Services, and the Department of Finance shall execute the contract within 60 days.

(e) The director shall seek the necessary state and federal waivers to enable operation of the program. If the federal waivers for delivery of services under this plan are not granted, the department is under no obligation to contract for implementation of the program.

(f) For purposes of Section 1343 of the Health and Safety Code, the Santa Barbara County Special Health Care Authority shall be considered to be a county-operated pilot program contracting with the State Department of Health Services pursuant to this article, and notwithstanding any other provision of law, during the period that this contract is in effect, the contractor shall be exempt from the provisions of the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act of 1975, Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, relative to the services provided to Medi-Cal beneficiaries under the terms and provisions of the pilot program.

(g) Nothing in this section shall be construed to include dental services within the services provided in this pilot program.

(h) Any federal demonstration funding for this pilot program shall be made available to the county within 60 days upon notification of the award without the state retaining any portion not previously specified in the grant application as submitted.

(i) An independent evaluation of the program shall be conducted and a report submitted to the Legislature and the director by January 1, 1988. The independent evaluation of the program commissioned by the federal Health Care Financing Administration may fulfill the purposes of this part. This evaluation and report shall include, but is not limited to, the following:

(1) An assessment of the cost of medical services as compared to the cost of the existing Medi-Cal fee-for-service delivery mode.

(2) An assessment of utilization levels of specialist and emergency services.

(3) An assessment of the quality of care.

(4) Recommendations for future policy on delivery of services.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1990, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered before June 30, 1990, deletes or extends that date

CHAPTER 864

An act to amend Section 4987.8 of, and to add Section 4980.46 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to marriage, family, and child counselors.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4980.46 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4980.46. Any licensed marriage, family, and child counselor who conducts a private practice under a fictitious business name shall not use any name which is false, misleading, or deceptive, and shall inform the patient, prior to the commencement of treatment, of the name and license designation of the owner or owners of the practice.

SEC. 2. Section 4987.8 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4987.8. The name of a marriage, family, and child counseling corporation shall contain one or more of the words "marriage," "family," and "child" together with one or more of the words "counseling" or "counselor," and wording or abbreviations denoting corporate existence. A marriage, family, and child counseling corporation that conducts business under a fictitious business name shall not use any name which is false, misleading or deceptive, and shall inform the patient, prior to the commencement of treatment, that the business is conducted by a marriage, family, and child counseling corporation.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 865

An act to add Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 35580) to Chapter 5 of Division 15 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 35580) is added to Chapter 5 of Division 15 of the Vehicle Code, to read:

Article 1.5. Intermodal Weight Determination Program

35580. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that a substantial number of container trailers using California highways exceed weight limitations authorized for California highways. Intermodal container trailers are containers which have been unloaded from ships or trains and placed on truck chassis, or are piggyback trailers unloaded from trains, for subsequent transport upon the highways. Container trailers are usually loaded by shippers in other states or foreign countries where gross and axle weight restrictions imposed by this code are of no concern to the loader. These loading practices often result in overweight vehicles traveling on California highways, which contributes to highway deterioration.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that the continued growth of intermodal transportation within the United States and the Pacific Rim makes it important for California to initiate a program to allow intermodal freight to be weighed at major terminal locations prior to operation on the highways, to ensure that these vehicles are within the established weight limits. The Legislature finds that the imposition of heavy fines and assessments is one means of reducing the number of overweight vehicles on the highways. A more effective, and preferable, alternative is to assure that intermodal container trailers are properly loaded at the outset by the party responsible for loading goods into the container trailer, so that vehicles meet weight requirements prior to their operation on the highways.

35581. (a) The Department of Transportation, in cooperation with the Department of California Highway Patrol, shall develop a plan for implementing or identifying new or existing scale facilities at major intermodal terminals which may serve as intermodal weighing facilities for weighing commercial vehicles which transport intermodal freight, prior to their entry onto any highway which is not specifically exempted from weight limitations by a local authority. The plan shall be developed in cooperation with a task force consisting of representatives of ports, local government entities, shippers, labor organizations, and the trucking, steamship, and railroad industries. The plan shall include consideration of options for financing the construction of required intermodal weighing facilities. The plan shall be submitted to the Legislature not later than August 1, 1989.

(b) The Department of Transportation may enter into agreements with local authorities or private entities to provide for exemption from weight restrictions for short distance movement to an intermodal weighing facility.

(c) The Department of Transportation shall submit an annual report not later than August 1, 1990, and August 1 each year thereafter, describing its progress in developing the intermodal weight determination program, and its recommendations for the future of the program.

CHAPTER 866

An act to amend Section 20134 of the Public Contract Code, relating to contracts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20134 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

20134. (a) In cases of great emergency, including, but not limited to, states of emergency described in Section 8558 of the Government Code, when repair or replacements are necessary to permit the continued conduct of county operations or services, or to avoid danger to life or property, the board of supervisors, by majority consent, may proceed at once to replace or repair any and all structures without adopting the plans, specifications, strain sheets, or working details or giving notice for bids to let contract. The work may be done by day labor under the direction of the board, by contract, or by a combination of the two. If the work is done wholly or in part by contract, the contractor shall be paid the actual cost of the use of machinery and tools and of material, and labor and of workers' compensation insurance expended by him or her in doing the work, plus not more than 15 percent to cover all profits and administration. No more than the lowest current market prices shall be paid for materials whenever possible.

(b) In a county of the first, second, third, or fourth class, which is under court order to relieve jail overcrowding or in which the sheriff certifies that the inmate capacity of the county jail system is exceeded by more than 20 percent and that the overpopulation is likely to continue and poses a threat to public safety, health, and welfare, the board of supervisors may contract for the construction or expansion of jail facilities without the formality of obtaining bids, adopting plans and specifications, or complying with other requirements of this article, except as required by this subdivision. The person to whom the contract is awarded shall execute a bond for faithful performance in accordance with Section 20129. Any plans and specifications adopted by the board may only be altered or changed in accordance with Section 20135 and all contracts awarded pursuant to this subdivision may only be altered or changed in accordance with Sections 20136, 20137, and 20138. The award of the contract shall be made after a public hearing on the basis of a request for proposals advertised in accordance with Section 6062 or 6062a of the Government Code. The contract may be awarded only to a contractor who has responded to the request for proposals and who is licensed to do the work in accordance with Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code. The contract shall be upon terms which the board determines are necessary for the expeditious completion of the work. A contract shall not be entered into unless at least three proposals to do the work have been evaluated by a competitive process established by the board and the lowest bid is selected.

(c) In any county that has agreed to permit the transfer of prisoners or parole violators under Section 2910 or 2910.5 of the Penal Code or of wards under Section 1753.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the board of supervisors may contract for the construction or expansion of the facilities to be used for that purpose without the formality of obtaining bids, adopting plans and specifications, or complying with other requirements of this article, except as required by this subdivision. The person to whom the contract is awarded shall execute a bond for faithful performance in accordance with Section 20129. Any plans and specifications adopted by the board may only be altered or changed in accordance with Section 20135 and all contracts awarded pursuant to this subdivision may only be altered or changed in accordance with Sections 20136, 20137, and 20138. The award of the contract shall be made after a public hearing on the basis of a request for proposals advertised in accordance with Section 6062 or 6062a of the Government Code. The contract may be awarded only to a contractor who has responded to the request for proposals and who is licensed to do the work in accordance with Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code. The contract shall be upon terms which the board determines are necessary for the expeditious completion of the work. A contract shall not be entered into unless at least three proposals to do the work have been evaluated by a competitive process established by the board and the lowest bid is selected.

(d) Proposed construction or expansion of jail or return-to-custody facilities as authorized under subdivision (b) or (c) shall not commence in a county of the third class without the affirmative vote of a majority of the city council of the incorporated city within which the construction or expansion is proposed.

(e) The board of supervisors may waive the requirements of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 5100) of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code for work performed pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c).

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to permit Alameda County to immediately proceed with urgently needed jail expansion, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 867

An act to amend Section 100.21 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to state highways, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 100.21 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

100.21. (a) Whenever a street or highway closing agreement is required by Section 100.2, the department shall not acquire, except by gift, and except in hardship or protective cases as determined by the department or the commission, any real property for a freeway through a city until an agreement is first executed with the city council, or for a freeway through unincorporated territory in a county until an agreement is first executed with the board of supervisors. The department shall give notice to the city council or the board of supervisors, as the case may be, of any acquisition of real property prior to the execution of an agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a city council may, by resolution, authorize the purchase of rights-of-way prior to approval of an agreement if the purchase is limited to the main line corridor of the proposed freeway and the alignment of the freeway is not at issue.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that freeway rights-of-way may be acquired in a timely fashion to reduce acquisition costs, pending final execution of a freeway agreement by affected public entities, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 868

An act to amend Sections 73075, 73084, 70384.6, and 73085 of the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 73075 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73075. Each of the municipal court districts established in Alameda County shall have the number of judges set out below opposite the name of the judicial district over which such court has jurisdiction:

Alameda Judicial District	1
Berkeley-Albany Judicial District	4
Oakland-Piedmont-Emeryville Judicial District	14
San Leandro-Hayward Judicial District	8
Fremont-Newark-Union City Judicial District	4
Livermore-Pleasanton-Dublin Judicial District	2

SEC. 2. Section 73084 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73084. (a) In each municipal court established in Alameda County one clerk who shall also be known as the court administrative officer shall be appointed by the judge or judges of each court.

(b) The clerk and administrative officers of the following districts shall receive a bi-weekly salary at the rate set forth for that classification in the ordinance established for municipal courts in Alameda County:

	Ordinance Class No.
Alameda Judicial District	1690M
Berkeley-Albany Judicial District	1691M
Fremont-Newark-Union City Judicial District	1692M
Livermore-Pleasanton-Dublin Judicial District	1693M
Oakland-Piedmont-Emeryville Judicial District	1694M
San Leandro-Hayward Judicial District	1695M

SEC. 3. Section 73084.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73084.6. The clerk and administrative officer of the municipal court for the Livermore-Pleasanton-Dublin Judicial District may appoint the following deputy clerks:

(a) One chief deputy clerk.

(b) Three deputy clerks, municipal courtroom clerk.

(c) Three deputy clerks, supervising municipal court clerk I.

(d) Two deputy clerks, senior municipal court clerk.
(e) Eight and one-half deputy clerks, municipal court clerk.
(f) One deputy clerk, accounting technician.
(g) One deputy clerk, secretary I.

Not more than two such deputy clerks may be assigned as court interpreter at the additional percentage compensation provided for county employees required to possess bilingual capabilities.

SEC. 4. Section 73085 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73085. Chief deputy clerks of the following districts shall receive a bi-weekly salary at the rate set forth for that item number classification in the ordinance established for municipal courts:

	Ordinance Class No.
Oakland-Piedmont-Emeryville Judicial District	1675M
Hayward-San Leandro Judicial District	1676M
Fremont-Newark-Union City Judicial District	1677M
Berkeley-Albany Judicial District	1678M
Livermore-Pleasanton-Dublin Judicial District	1679M

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

CHAPTER 869

An act to amend Sections 1569.49 and 1775.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to residential care facilities for the elderly.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1569.49 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1569.49. (a) In addition to suspension or revocation of a license issued under this chapter, the department may levy a civil penalty in addition to the penalties of suspension or revocation. The department shall adopt regulations setting forth the appeal procedures for deficiencies.

(b) The amount of the civil penalty shall not be less than twenty-five dollars ($25) or more than fifty dollars ($50) per day for each violation of this chapter except where the nature or seriousness of the violation or the frequency of the violation warrants a higher penalty or an immediate civil penalty assessment, or both, as determined by the department. In no event, shall a civil penalty assessment exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per day.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 1569.33, any residential care facility for the elderly that is cited for repeating the same violation of this chapter within 12 months of the first violation is subject to an immediate civil penalty of one hundred fifty dollars ($150) and fifty dollars ($50) for each day the violation continues until the deficiency is corrected.

(d) Any residential care facility for the elderly that is assessed a civil penalty pursuant to subdivision (c) which repeats the same violation of this chapter within 12 months of the violation subject to subdivision (c) is subject to an immediate civil penalty of one hundred fifty dollars ($150) for each day the violation continues until the deficiency is corrected.

The department shall adopt regulations implementing this section.

SEC. 2. Section 1775.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1775.5. (a) The Legislature foresees the need to protect transferors who have entered into life care contracts which provide for substantial refunds of entrance fee payments. Without reasonable assurance of the providers' abilities to pay the refunds, in consideration of possible competitive disadvantages, such as aging of the facility, the transferors or their estates would risk the loss of substantial entrance fee refunds. It is the policy of the State of California to limit these risks for the benefit of the general population of elderly persons. Therefore, the department shall impose requirements with respect to entrance fee refunds.

(b) Each provider, or other entity assuming responsibility, shall provide satisfactory evidence of the ability to pay refunds of entrance fees if the proposed or current life care contract form includes promises, express or implied, to pay refunds of entrance fees or to repurchase the transferors' units, membership, stock, or other interest in the project or facility, after the end of the trial residence period, in the event of the death of the surviving resident, or in the event of voluntary termination by the transferor or residents, when the specified refund right is not fully amortized within the first six years of residency.

(c) Satisfactory evidence of the ability to pay refunds shall be the maintenance of a refund reserve, deposited in a special trust fund which shall remain intact to accumulate interest earnings resulting from investments of liquid reserves in accordance with Section 1775.

(1) The "refund reserve" referred to in this subdivision shall be calculated based on the following assumptions:

(A) The facility will no longer receive entry fee income after a period of 40 years starting with the commencement of operation.

(B) Approved long-term investments, such as treasury notes, will earn 3 percent more than the rate of inflation.

(C) Entrance fees will increase at the rate of inflation.

(D) Land values will increase at the rate of inflation.

(E) Investments in the refund reserve trust will increase at the rate for approved long-term investments.

(2) The refund reserve referred to in this subdivision shall be calculated as follows:

(A) Calculate the number of units to be turned over each year at the approved rate of turnover.

(B) Determine the mean entrance fee, as of the current date.

(C) Determine the factor for inflating the mean entrance fee at the rate of 3 percent below the rate of interest on new 30-year treasury bonds, for the time interval from the current date to the 40th year of operation and for each preceding year, until all units have been turned over.

(D) Calculate the inflated mean entrance fees for the 40th year and for each preceding year, until all units have been turned over.

(E) (i) Multiply the inflated mean entrance fee for the 40th year, as specified in subparagraph (D), by the annual turnover, as specified in subparagraph (A).

(ii) Multiply the inflated mean entrance fee for each preceding year by the annual turnover, until the total of the annual turnovers used in the calculations equals the total number of units in the facility.

(iii) The projected refund liability shall be the sum of the products obtained pursuant to clauses (i) and (ii), multiplied by the rate of refund for the seventh year of residency, specified by current contracts, multiplied by the percentage of current life care contracts which specify this rate of refund. The projected refund liability shall be calculated for each rate, if existing contracts specify several rates.

(F) The projected refund liability, or the aggregate of these liabilities, if several rates are obtained pursuant to clause (iii) of subparagraph (E), may be reduced by the value of the land used for the facility, as determined by an appraiser approved by the department, inflated to the 40th year of operation, as determined pursuant to subparagraph (C), if the provider agrees to a lien pursuant to Section 1772 to secure this commitment.

(G) Calculate the present value of the projected refund liability at the rate of interest for new 30-year treasury bonds. The result is the required refund reserve.

(3) The amount of the refund reserve shall be revised annually by the provider and submitted to the department in conjunction with the annual audit and reports required by Section 1782.5.

(d) Any provider who has a certificate of authority or permit to sell deposit subscriptions issued by the department pursuant to this chapter on or before September 23, 1986, shall be exempt from the refund reserve requirement established by this section if the provider or other entity assuming responsibility has an equity balance of five times the amount of the refund reserve calculated pursuant to subdivision (c), as verified by one or more of the following means: the "stockholders' equity," or equivalent amount, as reflected on the most recent Form 10K (which may be on a consolidated basis or on a consolidated and combined basis) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission; the "total fund balances or net worth," or equivalent amount, as reflected on the most recent Form 990 or Form 990-PF filed with the Internal Revenue Service; or the "total net worth," or equivalent amount, as reflected on the most recent Form 109 filed with the Franchise Tax Board.

(1) The amount of the requirement for the equity balance shall be revised annually pursuant to subdivision (c).

(2) Compliance shall be based on review, by the department, of financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, accompanied by an unqualified opinion by a licensed certified public accountant.

(3) If the equity balance is determined by the department to be less than the required amount, the provider or other entity assuming responsibility shall post, in a form satisfactory to the department, an amount equal to the refund reserve required within 60 days.

(e) Any life care provider who (1) has a certificate of authority or a permit to sell deposit subscriptions issued by the department pursuant to this chapter on or before the date the Governor signs the bill enacting this section or, if the bill becomes a statute without the Governor's signature, September 30, 1986, whichever date is earlier, and (2) qualifies for the exemption set forth in subdivision (d) of this section shall not be required to provide any further refund reserve or security pursuant to this section or the regulations promulgated hereunder.

CHAPTER 870

An act to amend Section 6254 of the Government Code, relating to public records.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6254 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6254. Except as provided in Section 6254.7, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require disclosure of records that are any of the following:

(a) Preliminary drafts, notes, or interagency or intraagency memoranda which are not retained by the public agency in the ordinary course of business, provided that the public interest in withholding those records clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure.

(b) Records pertaining to pending litigation to which the public agency is a party, or to claims made pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810), until the pending litigation or claim has been finally adjudicated or otherwise settled.

(c) Personnel, medical, or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

(d) Contained in or related to:

(1) Applications filed with any state agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of the issuance of securities or of financial institutions, including, but not limited to, banks, savings and loan associations, industrial loan companies, credit unions, and insurance companies.

(2) Examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of, any state agency referred to in paragraph (1).

(3) Preliminary drafts, notes, or interagency or intraagency communications prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of, any state agency referred to in paragraph (1).

(4) Information received in confidence by any state agency referred to in paragraph (1).

(e) Geological and geophysical data, plant production data, and similar information relating to utility systems development, or market or crop reports, which are obtained in confidence from any person.

(f) Records of complaints to, or investigations conducted by, or records of intelligence information or security procedures of, the office of the Attorney General and the Department of Justice, and any state or local police agency, or any such investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local police agency, or any such investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local agency for correctional, law enforcement, or licensing purposes, except that state and local law enforcement agencies shall disclose the names and addresses of persons involved in, or witnesses other than confidential informants to, the incident, the description of any property involved, the date, time, and location of the incident, all diagrams, statements of the parties involved in the incident, the statements of all witnesses, other than confidential informants, to the victims of an incident, or an authorized representative thereof, an insurance carrier against which a claim has been or might be made, and any person suffering bodily injury or property damage or loss, as the result of the incident caused by arson, burglary, fire, explosion, larceny, robbery, vandalism, vehicle theft, or a crime as defined by subdivision (c) of Section 13960, unless the disclosure would endanger the safety of a witness or other person involved in the investigation, or unless disclosure would endanger the successful completion of the investigation or a related investigation; provided, however, that nothing in this division shall require the disclosure of that portion of those investigative files which reflect the analysis or conclusions of the investigating officer.

Other provisions of this subdivision notwithstanding, state and local law enforcement agencies shall make public the following information, except to the extent that disclosure of a particular item of information would endanger the safety of a person involved in an investigation or would endanger the successful completion of the investigation or a related investigation:

(1) The full name, current address, and occupation of every individual arrested by the agency, the individual's physical description including date of birth, color of eyes and hair, sex, height and weight, the time and date of arrest, the time and date of booking, the location of the arrest, the factual circumstances surrounding the arrest, the amount of bail set, the time and manner of release or the location where the individual is currently being held, and all charges the individual is being held upon, including any outstanding warrants from other jurisdictions and parole or probation holds.

(2) The time, substance, and location of all complaints or requests for assistance received by the agency and the time and nature of the response thereto, including, to the extent the information regarding crimes alleged or committed or any other incident investigated is recorded, the time, date and location of occurrence, the time and date of the report, the name, age and current address of the victim, except that the address of the victim of any crime defined by Section 261, 264, 264.1, 273a, 273d, 286, 288, 288a, or 289 of the Penal Code shall not be disclosed, the factual circumstances surrounding the crime or incident, and a general description of any injuries, property, or weapons involved. The name of a victim of any crime defined by Section 261, 264, 264.1, 273a, 273d, 286, 288, 288a, or 289 of the Penal Code may be withheld at the victim's request, or at the request of the victim's parent or guardian if the victim is a minor. When a person is the victim of more than one crime, information disclosing that the person is a victim of a crime defined by Section 261, 264, 264.1, 273a, 273d, 286, 288, 288a, or 289 of the Penal Code may be deleted at the request of the victim, or the victim's parent or guardian if the victim is a minor, in making the report of the crime, or of any crime or incident accompanying the crime, available to the public in compliance with the requirements of this paragraph.

(g) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a licensing examination, examination for employment, or academic examination, except as provided for in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 99150) of Part 65 of the Education Code.

(h) The contents of real estate appraisals or engineering or feasibility estimates and evaluations made for or by the state or local agency relative to the acquisition of property, or to prospective public supply and construction contracts, until all of the property has been acquired or all of the contract agreement obtained, provided, however, the law of eminent domain shall not be affected by this provision.

(i) Information required from any taxpayer in connection with the collection of local taxes which is received in confidence and the disclosure of the information to other persons would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the person supplying the information.

(j) Library circulation records kept for the purpose of identifying the borrower of items available in libraries, and library and museum materials made or acquired and presented solely for reference or exhibition purposes. The exemption in this subdivision shall not apply to records of fines imposed on the borrowers.

(k) Records the disclosure of which is exempted or prohibited pursuant to provisions of federal or state law, including, but not limited to, provisions of the Evidence Code relating to privilege.

(l) Correspondence of and to the Governor or employees of the Governor's office or in the custody of or maintained by the Governor's legal affairs secretary, provided that public records shall not be transferred to the custody of the Governor's legal affairs secretary to evade the disclosure provisions of this chapter.

(m) In the custody of or maintained by the Legislative Counsel.

(n) Statements of personal worth or personal financial data required by a licensing agency and filed by an applicant with the licensing agency to establish his or her personal qualification for the license, certificate, or permit applied for.

(o) Financial data contained in applications for financing under Division 27 (commencing with Section 44500) of the Health and Safety Code, where an authorized officer of the California Pollution Control Financing Authority determines that disclosure of the financial data would be competitively injurious to the applicant and the data is required in order to obtain guarantees from the United States Small Business Administration. The California Pollution Control Financing Authority shall adopt rules for review of individual requests for confidentiality under this section and for making available to the public those portions of an application which are subject to disclosure under this chapter.

(p) Records of state agencies related to activities governed by Chapter 10.3 (commencing with Section 3512) of Division 4 of Title 1, Chapter 10.5 (commencing with Section 3525) of Division 4 of Title 1, and Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1, which reveal a state agency's deliberative processes, impressions, evaluations, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work products, theories, or strategy, or which provide instruction, advice, or training to employees who do not have full collective bargaining and representation rights under the above chapters. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the disclosure duties of a state agency with respect to any other records relating to the activities governed by the employee relations acts referred to in this subdivision.

(q) Records of state agencies related to activities governed by Articles 2.6 (commencing with Section 14081), 2.8 (commencing with Section 14087.5), and 2.91 (commencing with Section 14089) of Chapter 7 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, which reveal the special negotiator's deliberative processes, discussions, communications, or any other portion of the negotiations with providers of health care services, impressions, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work product, theories, or strategy, or which provide instruction, advice, or training to employees.

Except for the portion of a contract containing the rates of payment, contracts for inpatient services entered into pursuant to these articles, on or after April 1, 1984, shall be open to inspection one year after they are fully executed. In the event that a contract for inpatient services which is entered into prior to April 1, 1984, is amended on or after April 1, 1984, the amendment, except for any portion containing the rates of payment, shall be open to inspection one year after it is fully executed. If the California Medical Assistance Commission enters into contracts with health care providers for other than inpatient hospital services, those contracts shall be open to inspection one year after they are fully executed.

Three years after a contract or amendment is open to inspection under this subdivision, the portion of the contract or amendment containing the rates of payment shall be open to inspection.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the entire contract or amendment shall be open to inspection by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee. The Joint Legislative Audit Committee shall maintain the confidentiality of the contracts and amendments until such time as a contract or amendment is fully open to inspection by the public.

(r) Records of Native American graves, cemeteries, and sacred places maintained by the Native American Heritage Commission.

(s) A final accreditation report of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals which has been transmitted to the State Department of Health Services pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1282 of the Health and Safety Code.

(t) Records of a local hospital district, formed pursuant to Division 23 (commencing with Section 32000) of the Health and Safety Code, which relate to any contract with an insurer or nonprofit hospital service plan for inpatient or outpatient services for alternative rates pursuant to Section 10133 or 11512 of the Insurance Code. However, the record shall be open to inspection within one year after the contract is fully executed.

(u) Information contained in applications for licenses to carry concealed weapons issued by the sheriff of a county or the chief or other head of a municipal police department which indicates when or where the applicant is vulnerable to attack or which concerns the applicant's medical or psychological history or that of members of his or her family.

Nothing in this section prevents any agency from opening its records concerning the administration of the agency to public inspection, unless disclosure is otherwise prohibited by law.

Nothing in this section prevents any health facility from disclosing to a certified bargaining agent relevant financing information pursuant to Section 8 of the National Labor Relations Act.

SEC. 2. Section 6254 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6254. Except as provided in Section 6254.7, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require disclosure of records that are any of the following:

(a) Preliminary drafts, notes, or interagency or intraagency memoranda which are not retained by the public agency in the ordinary course of business, provided that the public interest in withholding those records clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure.

(b) Records pertaining to pending litigation to which the public agency is a party, or to claims made pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810), until the pending litigation or claim has been finally adjudicated or otherwise settled.

(c) Personnel, medical, or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

(d) Contained in or related to:

(1) Applications filed with any state agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of the issuance of securities or of financial institutions, including, but not limited to, banks, savings and loan associations, industrial loan companies, credit unions, and insurance companies.

(2) Examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of, any state agency referred to in paragraph (1).

(3) Preliminary drafts, notes, or interagency or intraagency communications prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of, any state agency referred to in paragraph (1).

(4) Information received in confidence by any state agency referred to in paragraph (1).

(e) Geological and geophysical data, plant production data, and similar information relating to utility systems development, or market or crop reports, which are obtained in confidence from any person.

(f) Records of complaints to, or investigations conducted by, or records of intelligence information or security procedures of, the office of the Attorney General and the Department of Justice, and any state or local police agency, or any such investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local police agency, or any such investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local agency for correctional, law enforcement, or licensing purposes, except that state and local law enforcement agencies shall disclose the names and addresses of persons involved in, or witnesses other than confidential informants to, the incident, the description of any property involved, the date, time, and location of the incident, all diagrams, statements of the parties involved in the incident, the statements of all witnesses, other than confidential informants, to the victims of an incident, or an authorized representative thereof, an insurance carrier against which a claim has been or might be made, and any person suffering bodily injury or property damage or loss, as the result of the incident caused by arson, burglary, fire, explosion, larceny, robbery, vandalism, vehicle theft, or a crime as defined by subdivision (c) of Section 13960, unless the disclosure would endanger the safety of a witness or other person involved in the investigation, or unless disclosure would endanger the successful completion of the investigation or a related investigation. However, nothing in this division shall require the disclosure of that portion of those investigative files which reflect the analysis or conclusions of the investigating officer.

Other provisions of this subdivision notwithstanding, state and local law enforcement agencies shall make public the following information, except to the extent that disclosure of a particular item of information would endanger the safety of a person involved in an investigation or would endanger the successful completion of the investigation or a related investigation:

(1) The full name, current address, and occupation of every individual arrested by the agency, the individual's physical description including date of birth, color of eyes and hair, sex, height and weight, the time and date of arrest, the time and date of booking, the location of the arrest, the factual circumstances surrounding the arrest, the amount of bail set, the time and manner of release or the location where the individual is currently being held, and all charges the individual is being held upon, including any outstanding warrants from other jurisdictions and parole or probation holds.

(2) The time, substance, and location of all complaints or requests for assistance received by the agency and the time and nature of the response thereto, including, to the extent the information regarding crimes alleged or committed or any other incident investigated is recorded, the time, date and location of occurrence, the time and date of the report, the name, age and current address of the victim, except that the address of the victim of any crime defined by Section 261, 264, 264.1, 273a, 273d, 286, 288, 288a, or 289 of the Penal Code shall not be disclosed, the factual circumstances surrounding the crime or incident, and a general description of any injuries, property, or weapons involved. The name of a victim of any crime defined by Section 261, 264, 264.1, 273a, 273d, 273.5, 286, 288, 288a, or 289 of the Penal Code may be withheld at the victim's request, or at the request of the victim's parent or guardian if the victim is a minor. When a person is the victim of more than one crime, information disclosing that the person is a victim of a crime defined by Section 261, 264, 264.1, 273a, 273d, 286, 288, 288a, or 289 of the Penal Code may be deleted at the request of the victim, or the victim's parent or guardian if the victim is a minor, in making the report of the crime, or of any crime or incident accompanying the crime, available to the public in compliance with the requirements of this paragraph.

(g) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a licensing examination, examination for employment, or academic examination, except as provided for in Chapter 3

(commencing with Section 99150) of Part 65 of the Education Code.

(h) The contents of real estate appraisals or engineering or feasibility estimates and evaluations made for or by the state or local agency relative to the acquisition of property, or to prospective public supply and construction contracts, until all of the property has been acquired or all of the contract agreement obtained. However, the law of eminent domain shall not be affected by this provision.

(i) Information required from any taxpayer in connection with the collection of local taxes which is received in confidence and the disclosure of the information to other persons would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the person supplying the information.

(j) Library circulation records kept for the purpose of identifying the borrower of items available in libraries, and library and museum materials made or acquired and presented solely for reference or exhibition purposes. The exemption in this subdivision shall not apply to records of fines imposed on the borrowers.

(k) Records the disclosure of which is exempted or prohibited pursuant to provisions of federal or state law, including, but not limited to, provisions of the Evidence Code relating to privilege.

(l) Correspondence of and to the Governor or employees of the Governor's office or in the custody of or maintained by the Governor's legal affairs secretary, provided that public records shall not be transferred to the custody of the Governor's legal affairs secretary to evade the disclosure provisions of this chapter.

(m) In the custody of or maintained by the Legislative Counsel.

(n) Statements of personal worth or personal financial data required by a licensing agency and filed by an applicant with the licensing agency to establish his or her personal qualification for the license, certificate, or permit applied for.

(o) Financial data contained in applications for financing under Division 27 (commencing with Section 44500) of the Health and Safety Code, where an authorized officer of the California Pollution Control Financing Authority determines that disclosure of the financial data would be competitively injurious to the applicant and the data is required in order to obtain guarantees from the United States Small Business Administration. The California Pollution Control Financing Authority shall adopt rules for review of individual requests for confidentiality under this section and for making available to the public those portions of an application which are subject to disclosure under this chapter.

(p) Records of state agencies related to activities governed by Chapter 10.3 (commencing with Section 3512) of Division 4 of Title 1, Chapter 10.5 (commencing with Section 3525) of Division 4 of Title 1, and Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1, which reveal a state agency's deliberative processes, impressions, evaluations, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work products, theories, or strategy, or which provide instruction, advice, or training to employees who do not have full collective bargaining and representation rights under the above chapters. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the disclosure duties of a state agency with respect to any other records relating to the activities governed by the employee relations acts referred to in this subdivision.

(q) Records of state agencies related to activities governed by Articles 2.6 (commencing with Section 14081), 2.8 (commencing with Section 14087.5), and 2.91 (commencing with Section 14089) of Chapter 7 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, which reveal the special negotiator's deliberative processes, discussions, communications, or any other portion of the negotiations with providers of health care services, impressions, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work product, theories, or strategy, or which provide instruction, advice, or training to employees.

Except for the portion of a contract containing the rates of payment, contracts for inpatient services entered into pursuant to these articles, on or after April 1, 1984, shall be open to inspection one year after they are fully executed. In the event that a contract for inpatient services which is entered into prior to April 1, 1984, is amended on or after April 1, 1984, the amendment, except for any portion containing the rates of payment, shall be open to inspection one year after it is fully executed. If the California Medical Assistance Commission enters into contracts with health care providers for other than inpatient hospital services, those contracts shall be open to inspection one year after they are fully executed.

Three years after a contract or amendment is open to inspection under this subdivision, the portion of the contract or amendment containing the rates of payment shall be open to inspection.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the entire contract or amendment shall be open to inspection by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee. The Joint Legislative Audit Committee shall maintain the confidentiality of the contracts and amendments until such time as a contract or amendment is fully open to inspection by the public.

(r) Records of Native American graves, cemeteries, and sacred places maintained by the Native American Heritage Commission.

(s) A final accreditation report of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals which has been transmitted to the State Department of Health Services pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1282 of the Health and Safety Code.

(t) Records of a local hospital district, formed pursuant to Division 23 (commencing with Section 32000) of the Health and Safety Code, which relate to any contract with an insurer or nonprofit hospital service plan for inpatient or outpatient services for alternative rates pursuant to Section 10133 or 11512 of the Insurance Code However, the record shall be open to inspection within one year after the contract is fully executed.

(u) Information contained in applications for licenses to carry concealed weapons issued by the sheriff of a county or the chief or other head of a municipal police department which indicates when or where the applicant is vulnerable to attack or which concerns the applicant's medical or psychological history or that of members of his or her family.

Nothing in this section prevents any agency from opening its records concerning the administration of the agency to public inspection, unless disclosure is otherwise prohibited by law.

Nothing in this section prevents any health facility from disclosing to a certified bargaining agent relevant financing information pursuant to Section 8 of the National Labor Relations Act.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 6254 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and SB 2523. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 6254 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 2523, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 871

An act to amend Section 987.8 of the Penal Code, relating to counties.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 987.8 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

987.8. (a) Upon a finding by the court that a defendant is entitled to counsel but is unable to employ counsel, the court may hold a hearing or, in its discretion, order the defendant to appear before a county officer designated by the court, to determine whether the defendant owns or has an interest in any real property or other assets subject to attachment and not otherwise exempt by law. The court may impose a lien on any real property owned by the defendant, or in which the defendant has an interest to the extent permitted by law. The county shall have the right to enforce its lien for the payment of providing legal assistance to an indigent defendant in the same manner as other lienholders by way of attachment, except that a county shall not enforce its lien on a defendant's principal place of residence pursuant to a writ of execution.

(b) In any case in which a defendant is provided legal assistance, either through the public defender or private counsel appointed by the court, upon conclusion of the criminal proceedings in the trial court, or upon the withdrawal of the public defender or appointed private counsel, the court may, after notice and a hearing, make a determination of the present ability of the defendant to pay all or a portion of the cost thereof. The court may, in its discretion, hold one such additional hearing within six months of the conclusion of the criminal proceedings. The court may, in its discretion, order the defendant to appear before a county officer designated by the court to make an inquiry into the ability of the defendant to pay all or a portion of the legal assistance provided.

(c) In any case in which the defendant hires counsel replacing a publicly provided attorney; in which the public defender or appointed counsel was required by the court to proceed with the case after a determination by the public defender hat the defendant is not indigent; or, in which the defendant, at the conclusion of the case, appears to have sufficient assets to repay, without undue hardship, all or a portion of the cost of the legal assistance provided to him or her, by monthly installments or otherwise; the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay as provided in subdivision (b), and may, in its discretion, make other orders as provided in that subdivision.

This subdivision shall be operative in a county only upon the adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors to that effect.

(d) If the defendant, after having been ordered to appear before a county officer, has been given proper notice and fails to appear before a county officer within 20 working days, the county officer shall recommend to the court that the full cost of the legal assistance shall be ordered to be paid by the defendant. The notice to the defendant shall contain all of the following:

(1) A statement of the cost of the legal assistance provided to the defendant as determined by the court.

(2) The defendant's procedural rights under this section.

(3) The time limit within which the defendant's response is required.

(4) A warning that if the defendant fails to appear before the designated officer, the officer will recommend that the court order the defendant to pay the full cost of the legal assistance provided to him or her.

(e) At a hearing, the defendant shall be entitled to, but shall not be limited to, all of the following rights:

(1) The right to be heard in person.

(2) The right to present witnesses and other documentary evidence.

(3) The right to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses.

(4) The right to have the evidence against him or her disclosed to him or her.

(5) The right to a written statement of the findings of the court.

If the court determines that the defendant has the present ability to pay all or a part of the cost, the court shall set the amount to be reimbursed and order the defendant to pay the sum to the county in the manner in which the court believes reasonable and compatible with the defendant's financial ability. Failure of a defendant who is not in custody to appear after due notice is a sufficient basis for an order directing the defendant to pay the full cost of the legal assistance determined by the court. The order to pay all or a part of the costs may be enforced in the manner provided for enforcement of money judgments generally but may not be enforced by contempt.

Any order entered under this subdivision is subject to relief under Section 473 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(f) Prior to the furnishing of counsel or legal assistance by the court, the court shall give notice to the defendant that the court may, after a hearing, make a determination of the present ability of the defendant to pay all or a portion of the cost of counsel. The court shall also give notice that, if the court determines that the defendant has the present ability, the court shall order him or her to pay all or a part of the cost. The notice shall inform the defendant that the order shall have the same force and effect as a judgment in a civil action and shall be subject to enforcement against the property of the defendant in the same manner as any other money judgment.

(g) As used in this section:

(1) "Legal assistance" means legal counsel and supportive services including, but not limited to, medical and psychiatric examinations, investigative services, expert testimony, or any other form of services provided to assist the defendant in the preparation and presentation of the defendant's case.

(2) "Ability to pay" means the overall capability of the defendant to reimburse the costs, or a portion of the costs, of the legal assistance provided to him or her, and shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(A) The defendant's present financial position.

(B) The defendant's reasonably discernible future financial position. In no event shall the court consider a period of more than six months from the date of the hearing for purposes of determining the defendant's reasonably discernible future financial position. Unless the court finds unusual circumstances, a defendant sentenced to state prison shall be determined not to have a reasonably discernible future financial ability to reimburse the costs of his or her defense.

(C) The likelihood that the defendant shall be able to obtain employment within a six-month period from the date of the hearing.

(D) Any other factor or factors which may bear upon the defendant's financial capability to reimburse the county for the costs of the legal assistance provided to the defendant.

(h) At any time during the pendency of the judgment rendered according to the terms of this section, a defendant against whom a judgment has been rendered may petition the rendering court to modify or vacate its previous judgment on the grounds of a change in circumstances with regard to the defendant's ability to pay the judgment. The court shall advise the defendant of this right at the time it renders the judgment.

(i) This section shall apply to all proceedings, including contempt proceedings, in which the party is represented by a public defender or appointed counsel.

CHAPTER 872

An act to amend Section 341 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 341 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

341. The Director of Health Services shall establish and administer a program for the medical care of persons with genetically handicapping conditions, including cystic fibrosis, hemophilia, sickle cell disease, Huntington's disease, Friedreich's Ataxia, Joseph's disease, Von Hippel-Landau syndrome, and the following hereditary metabolic disorders: phenylketonuria, homocystinuria, branched chain amino acidurias, disorders of propionate and methylmalonate metabolism, urea cycle disorders, hereditary orotic aciduria, Wilson's Disease, galactosemia, disorders of lactate and pyruvate metabolism, tyrosinemia, hyperornithinemia, and other genetic organic acidemias which require specialized treatment or service available from only a limited number of program-approved sources.

The program shall also provide access to social support services, which may help ameliorate the physical, psychological, and economic problems attendant to genetically handicapping conditions, in order that the genetically handicapped person may function at an optimal level commensurate with the degree of impairment.

The medical and social support services may be obtained through physicians and surgeons, genetically handicapped person's program specialized centers, and other providers that qualify pursuant to the regulations of the department to provide the services. "Medical care," as used in this section, is limited to noncustodial medical and support services.

The director, with the guidance of the Advisory Committee on Genetically Handicapped Person's Program, may, by regulation, expand the list of genetically handicapping conditions covered under this article. The director shall adopt rules and regulations which are necessary for the implementation of this article. The director, with the approval of the advisory committee, shall establish priorities for the use of funds and provision of services under this article.

CHAPTER 873

An act to amend Section 14165.9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14165.9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14165.9. The commission shall report to the Legislature on January 1 and May 1 of each year. The January report shall include all of the following:

(a) The number and type of health service contracts.

(b) The persons served, cost per service, and other relevant and statistical information.

(c) The projected contract services and estimated costs.

(d) The average per diem rate received by contract hospitals, as of December 1 of the preceding year, shall be reported in the following categories:

(1) Statewide.

(2) By standard consolidated statistical area, as defined by the most recent United States Census.

(3) By that portion of the state not included within a standard consolidated statistical area.

(4) Statewide by hospitals with 1–99 beds, 100–299 beds, and over 300 beds.

(e) The total number of hospitals receiving a net increase, a net decrease, or having a contract rate tied to patient volume during the preceding 12 months.

(f) A discussion of the effects of selective contracting on access to, and quality of, services. In preparing this portion of the report, the commission shall solicit comments from representatives of beneficiaries and providers

The May report shall serve as an update of information contained in subdivisions (a) to (c), inclusive, of the January report.

CHAPTER 874

An act to amend Section 9701 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 13, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9701 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

9701. Unless the contrary is stated or clearly appears from the context, the following definitions shall govern the interpretation of this chapter:

(a) "Long-term care facility" means any of the following:

(1) Any long-term health care facility, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1418 of the Health and Safety Code.

(h) "Ombudsman coordinator" means the individual selected by the governing board or executive director of the approved organization to manage the day-to-day operation of the ombudsman program, including the implementation of federal and state requirements governing the office.

CHAPTER 876

An act to add Section 25283.5 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25283.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25283.5. An underground storage tank which meets all of the following criteria is exempt from the requirements of this chapter:

(a) All exterior surfaces of the tank, including connected piping, and the floor directly beneath the tank, can be monitored by direct viewing.

(b) The structure in which the tank is located is constructed in such a manner that the structure provides for secondary containment of the contents of the tank, as determined by the local agency designated pursuant to Section 25283.

(c) The owner or operator of the underground storage tank conducts daily inspections of the tank and maintains a log of inspection results for review by the local agency, designated pursuant to Section 25283, as requested by the local agency.

(d) The local agency designated pursuant to Section 25283 determines without objection from the State Water Resources Control Board that the underground storage tank meets requirements which are equal to or more stringent than those imposed by this chapter.

(e) The underground storage tank is located in a county of the third class, as defined in Section 28024 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 877

An act to amend Sections 605, 27459.6, and 36101 of, and to add and repeal Section 27459.5 of, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 605 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

605. (a) "Tire chains" are chains or other devices which are designed for use on tires to improve stopping, traction, and cornering ability upon snow or ice-covered surfaces and which meet all of the following criteria:

(1) Crossmembers are spaced to provide at least one crossmember in contact with the roadway at all times.

(2) Each crossmember extends across at least 85 percent of the width of the tread.

(3) Major traction elements at least $\frac{9}{32}$ inch in height on each crossmember at time of manufacture.

(4) At least four separate steel elements are in contact with the roadway at all times on each crossmember.

(5) Each crossmember is connected to two circular loops, one on each side of the tire, except for mechanisms designed to deploy and retract metal crossmembers under the tire when the vehicle is in motion.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1990, at which time it is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1990, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 27459.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

27459.5. (a) No person shall sell, offer for sale, lease, install, or replace on a vehicle for use on a highway, any tire chains which are not in compliance with requirements specified in Section 605.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1990, at which time it is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1990, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 27459.6 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

27459.6. The department shall study the effectiveness of tire chains meeting the criteria of Section 605. The study shall include, but not be limited to, the effects on winter driving in chain control areas. The department may utilize funds from private sources in the conduct of the study. The study shall be submitted to the Legislature not later than December 31, 1989.

SEC. 4. Section 36101 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

36101. The following farm vehicles are exempt from registration, if they have and display an identification plate as specified in Section 5014, and the vehicles shall not be deemed to be implements of husbandry and they shall be subject to all equipment and device requirements as if registered:

(a) A motor vehicle of a size so as to require a permit under Section 35780 owned and operated by a farmer, designed and used exclusively for carrying or returning empty from carrying feed and seed products of farming, and used on a highway between one part of a farm to another part thereof or from one farm to another farm.

(b) A vehicle equipped with a water tank owned by a farmer and used exclusively to service his or her own implements of husbandry.

(c) A water tank truck, which is owned by a farmer, not operated for compensation, and used extensively in the conduct of agricultural operations, when used exclusively (1) for sprinkling water on dirt roads providing access to agricultural fields or (2) transportation of water for irrigation of crops or trees.

(d) A cotton module mover, as defined in Section 36012.

(e) A trailer which is equipped with a plenum chamber for the drying of agricultural commodities.

(f) Except as provided in subdivision (j) of Section 36005, a trap wagon, as defined in Section 36016, which is equipped with a fuel tank or tanks. The fuel tank or tanks shall not exceed 3,000 gallons total capacity.

(g) A forklift truck, operated by a farmer not for compensation. For purposes of this section, a hay-squeeze shall be deemed a forklift.

(h) A truck tractor or truck tractor and semitrailer combination specified in this subdivision which is owned by a farmer and operated on the highways only incidental to a farming operation and not for compensation. This subdivision applies only to truck tractors with a manufacturer's gross vehicle weight rating over 10,000 pounds that are equipped with all-wheel drive and off-highway traction tires on all wheels, and only to semitrailers used in combination with such a truck tractor and exclusively in the production or harvesting of melons. The vehicles specified in this subdivision shall not be operated in excess of 25 miles per hour on the highways and may be operated on the highways by a person holding a valid class 3 driver's license.

The Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol may, by regulation, prohibit the vehicles specified in this subdivision from operating on specific routes. These vehicles shall not be operated laden on the highway for more than two miles from the point of origin and shall not be operated for more than 30 miles unladen on the highway from the point of origin. These vehicles shall not be operated for more than 15 miles unladen on the highway from the point of origin, unless accompanied by an escort vehicle to the front, and an escort vehicle to the rear.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 878

An act to amend Sections 99244, 130052, 130108, and 180100 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 99244 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99244. Each transportation planning agency shall annually identify, analyze, and recommend potential productivity improvements which could lower the operating costs of those operators who operate at least 50 percent of their vehicle service miles, as defined in subdivision (i) of Section 99247, within the area under its jurisdiction. However, where a transit development board created pursuant to Division 11 (commencing with Section 120000) or a county transportation commission exists, the board or commission, as the case may be, shall have the responsibility of the transportation planning agency with respect to potential productivity improvements. The recommendations for improvements and productivity shall include, but not be limited to, those recommendations related to productivity made in the performance audit conducted pursuant to Section 99246.

A committee for the purpose of providing advice on productivity improvements may be formed by the responsible entity. The membership of this committee shall consist of representatives from the management of the operators, organizations of employees of the operators, and users of the transportation services of the operators located within the area under the jurisdiction of the responsible entity.

Prior to determining the allocation to an operator for the next fiscal year, the responsible entity shall review and evaluate the efforts made by the operator to implement such recommended improvements.

If the responsible entity determines that the operator has not made a reasonable effort to implement the recommended improvements, the responsible entity shall not approve the allocation to the operator for the support of its public transportation system for the next fiscal year which exceeds the allocation to the operator for such purposes for the current fiscal year.

SEC. 2. Section 130052 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

130052. The Orange County Transportation Commission shall consist of eight members appointed as follows:

(a) Three members of the Orange County Board of Supervisors appointed by that board, to serve ex officio, one of whom shall serve on the Board of Directors of the Orange County Transit District.

(b) Three members appointed by the Orange County City Selection Committee, one of whom shall serve on the Board of Directors of the Orange County Transit District. Each member appointed by the city selection committee shall be a resident of a different supervisorial district and shall be a mayor or a city councilman serving within the county, to serve ex officio.

(c) One member appointed by a majority vote of the other six voting members of the commission, which member shall be a resident of Orange County who is not then serving, and has not within the last four years served, as an elected official of a city within the county, as an elected official of the county, or as a public member on the Board of Directors of the Orange County Transit District.

(d) One nonvoting member appointed by the Governor.

(e) Appointments of members pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall be made in a manner so that at all times each of the five supervisorial districts of Orange County shall be represented by at least one supervisor or one mayor or city councilman.

SEC. 3. Section 130108 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

130108. Each member of a commission may be compensated at a rate not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) for any day attending to the business of the commission, but not to exceed four hundred dollars ($400) in any month, and the necessary traveling and personal expenses incurred in the performance of his duties as authorized by the commission.

SEC. 4. Section 180100 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

180100. The authority at its first meeting, and thereafter annually at the meeting designated by the authority, shall elect a chairperson who shall preside at all meetings, and a vice chairperson who shall preside in the absence of the chairperson. In the event of their absence or inability to act, the members present, by an order entered in the minutes, shall select one of their members to act as chairperson pro tempore, who, while so acting, shall have all the authority of the chairperson.

CHAPTER 879

An act to amend Section 9409 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to elderly persons.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9409 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

9409. This chapter shall remain in effect until the state establishes a new local long-term care delivery system pursuant to the Torres-Felando Long-Term Care Reform Act (Chapter 1453 of the Statutes of 1982) or until June 30, 1990, whichever comes first and as of that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute chaptered prior to that date extends or deletes that date.

CHAPTER 880

An act to amend Section 218 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 218 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

218. (a) "Electrical corporation" includes every corporation or person owning, controlling, operating, or managing any electric plant for compensation within this state, except where electricity is generated on or distributed by the producer through private property solely for its own use or the use of its tenants and not for sale or transmission to others.

(b) "Electrical corporation" does not include a corporation or person employing cogeneration technology or producing power from other than a conventional power source for the generation of electricity solely for any one or more of the following purposes:

(1) Its own use or the use of its tenants.

(2) The use of or sale to not more than two other corporations or persons solely for use on the real property on which the electricity is generated or on real property immediately adjacent thereto, unless there is an intervening public street constituting the boundary between the real property on which the electricity is generated and the immediately adjacent property and one or more of the following applies:

(A) The real property on which the electricity is generated and the immediately adjacent real property is not under common ownership or control, or that common ownership or control was gained solely for purposes of sale of the electricity so generated and not for other business purposes.

(B) The useful thermal output of the facility generating the electricity is not used on the immediately adjacent property for petroleum production or refining.

(C) The electricity furnished to the immediately adjacent property is not utilized by a subsidiary or affiliate of the corporation or person generating the electricity.

(3) Sale or transmission to an electrical corporation or state or local public agency, but not for sale or transmission to others, unless the corporation or person is otherwise an electrical corporation.

(c) "Electrical corporation" does not include a corporation or person employing landfill gas technology for the generation of electricity for any one or more of the following purposes:

(1) Its own use or the use of not more than two of its tenants located on the real property on which the electricity is generated.

(2) The use of or sale to not more than two other corporations or persons solely for use on the real property on which the electricity is generated.

(3) Sale or transmission to an electrical corporation or state or local public agency.

(c) The amendments made to this section at the 1987 portion of the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature do not apply to any corporation or person employing cogeneration technology or producing power from other than a conventional power source for the generation of electricity which physically produced electricity prior to January 1, 1989, and furnished that electricity to immediately adjacent real property for use thereon prior to January 1, 1989.

CHAPTER 881

An act to add Title 9.3 (commencing with Section 1298) to Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to arbitration.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Title 9.3 (commencing with Section 1298) is added to Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

TITLE 9.3. REAL ESTATE CONTRACT ARBITRATION

1298. (a) Whenever any contract to convey real property, or contemplated to convey real property in the future, including marketing contracts, deposit receipts, real property sales contracts as defined in Section 2985 of the Civil Code, leases together with options to purchase, or ground leases coupled with improvements, but not including powers of sale contained in deeds of trust or mortgages, contains a provision for arbitration of any dispute between the principals in the transaction, the contract shall have such provision clearly titled "ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES."

If a provision for arbitration is included in a printed contract, it shall be set out in at least 10-point bold type or in contrasting red in at least 8-point type, and if the provision is included in a typed contract, it shall be set out in capital letters.

(b) Whenever any contract or agreement between principals and agents in real property sales transactions, including listing agreements, as defined in Section 1086 of the Civil Code, contains a provision requiring arbitration of any dispute between the principals and agents in the transaction, the contract or agreement shall have that provision clearly titled "ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES."

If a provision for arbitration is included in a printed contract, it shall be set out in at least 10-point bold type or in contrasting red in at least 8-point type, and if the provision is included in a typed contract, it shall be set out in capital letters.

(c) Immediately before the line or space provided for the parties to indicate their assent or nonassent to the arbitration provision described in subdivision (a) or (b), and immediately following that arbitration provision, the following shall appear:

"NOTICE: BY INITIALLING IN THE SPACE BELOW YOU ARE AGREEING TO HAVE ANY DISPUTE ARISING OUT OF THE MATTERS INCLUDED IN THE 'ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES' PROVISION DECIDED BY NEUTRAL ARBITRATION AS PROVIDED BY CALIFORNIA LAW AND YOU ARE GIVING UP ANY RIGHTS YOU MIGHT POSSESS TO HAVE THE DISPUTE LITIGATED IN A COURT OR JURY TRIAL. BY INITIALLING IN THE SPACE BELOW YOU ARE GIVING UP YOUR JUDICIAL RIGHTS TO DISCOVERY AND APPEAL, UNLESS SUCH RIGHTS ARE SPECIFICALLY INCLUDED IN THE 'ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES' PROVISION. IF YOU REFUSE TO SUBMIT TO ARBITRATION AFTER AGREEING TO THIS PROVISION, YOU MAY BE COMPELLED TO ARBITRATE UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE CALIFORNIA CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE. YOUR AGREEMENT TO THIS ARBITRATION PROVISION IS VOLUNTARY."

"WE HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THE FOREGOING AND AGREE TO SUBMIT DISPUTES ARISING OUT OF THE MATTERS INCLUDED IN THE 'ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES' PROVISION TO NEUTRAL ARBITRATION."

If the above provision is included in a printed contract, it shall be set out either in at least 10-point bold type or in contrasting red print in at least 8-point bold type, and if the provision is included in a typed contract, it shall be set out in capital letters.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to diminish the authority of any court of competent jurisdiction with respect to real property transactions in areas involving court supervision or jurisdiction, including, but not limited to, probate, marital dissolution, foreclosure of liens, or eminent domain.

(e) In the event an arbitration provision is contained in an escrow instruction, it shall not preclude the right of an escrowholder to institute an interpleader action.

1298.5. Any party to an action who proceeds to record a notice of pending action pursuant to Section 409 shall not thereby waive any right of arbitration which that person may have pursuant to a written agreement to arbitrate, nor any right to petition the court to compel arbitration pursuant to Section 1281.2, if, in filing an action to record that notice, the party at the same time presents to the court an application that the action be stayed pending the arbitration of any dispute which is claimed to be arbitrable and which is relevant to the action.

1298.7. In the event an arbitration provision is included in a contract or agreement covered by this title, it shall not preclude or limit any right of action for bodily injury or wrongful death, or any right of action to which Section 337.1 or 337.15 is applicable.

1298.8. This title shall become operative on July 1, 1989, and shall only apply to contracts or agreements entered into on or after that date.

CHAPTER 882

An act to add Section 4028.5 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4028.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

4028.5. (a) When a well, which is used as a source of drinking water for a public water system, is discovered to include, or is closed due to the presence of, a contaminant in excess of a maximum contaminant level or an action level established by the department, the person operating the public water system shall notify the governing body of the local agency in which users of the drinking water reside within 30 days of the discovery or closure.

(b) The notification required by subdivision (a) shall include the location of any affected well, its name, its type, the origin, if known, of the contaminant, the maximum contaminant level or action level for the contaminant detected and the operational status of the well immediately prior to its closure.

(c) For purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Action level" means the concentration level of a contaminant in potable water which the department has determined, based on available scientific information, provides an adequate margin of safety to prevent potential risks to human health.

(2) "Local agency" means a city or county, or a city and county.

CHAPTER 883

An act to amend Section 439.3 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health planning.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 439.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

439.3. Commencing on January 1, 1986, and continuing by January 1 of each year thereafter, the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall prepare and submit to the Governor and to the Legislature a State Health Plan.

(a) In odd-numbered years, the State Health Plan shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) A description of the distribution of health care services in the state with an emphasis on areas of shortages of health facilities, services, and manpower.

(2) A forecast of the future community need for health facilities, services, manpower, and capital.

(3) All elements of the Health Manpower Plan required by Section 429.94. Compliance with this section shall be deemed compliance with Sections 429.94 and 429.96. However, the office shall consult with the entities set forth in Section 429.95 when preparing this portion of the State Health Plan.

(4) All elements of the Statewide Health Facilities and Services Plan specified in subdivision (b) of Section 437.7 after the plan is formally adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 437.7.

(b) In even-numbered years, the State Health Plan shall include, but need not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) An evaluation of the costs and benefits of regulation, deregulation, and competition on health care, including an assessment of their impact on the availability, access, cost, and quality of services.

(2) Any policy recommendations that may facilitate the development of needed health care resources.

(3) An evaluation of the effects of regulation, deregulation, and competition on cardiac catheterization services and open heart surgery with extra-corporeal bypass, including an assessment of their impact on the availability, access, cost, and quality of service. The office shall utilize existing data sources and develop indicators of quality of service for cardiac catheterization services and open heart surgery with extra-corporeal bypass.

(4) When preparing the evaluation required by paragraph (3), the director shall seek the advice of the technical advisory committee established pursuant to Section 444.6 or 444.39. For the purposes of this subdivision, the director shall temporarily appoint two additional members to the technical advisory committee, one of whom shall be a representative of a hospital that offers open heart surgery with extra-corporeal bypass and one of whom shall be a representative of a hospital that plans to offer that surgery.

(5) Any recommendations resulting from the evaluation and assessment required by paragraph (3) shall be included in the State Health Plan and submitted to the Governor and to the Legislature. No additional regulation, and no action to restrict new or existing providers of cardiac surgery or cardiac catheterization services from providing the surgeries or services specified in paragraph (3), shall occur as a result of the evaluation, assessment, and recommendations, if any, unless specific regulatory authority is subsequently granted by the Legislature.

(c) In both even and odd years, the State Health Plan shall include an evaluation of the effects of competition, regulation and deregulation on special populations, including the uninsured, underinsured, unemployed, and those who are otherwise disadvantaged.

Notwithstanding subdivision (b), the evaluation required by paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) shall be reported only in the 1990 state plan with the option for reporting in the 1992 plan at the discretion of the office.

CHAPTER 884

An act to amend Section 5353 of the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5353 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

5353. (a) Each city, county, school district, community college district, county board of education, and special district may hold, at its discretion, an advisory election on any date on which that respective jurisdiction is currently permitted to hold a regular or special election for the purpose of allowing voters within the respective jurisdiction, or a portion thereof, to voice their opinion on substantive issues or to indicate to the local legislative body approval or disapproval of the ballot proposal.

(b) An advisory vote will be indicated as such on the ballot as a heading above the ballot proposal and by only the following description: "Advisory Vote Only."

(c) As used in this section, "advisory vote" means an indication of general voter opinion regarding the ballot proposal. The results of the advisory vote will in no manner be controlling on the sponsoring legislative body.

(d) An advisory election may be held in territory outside of the jurisdiction of the local entity calling the advisory election if the ballot proposal affects the residents of the territory. The sponsoring legislative body shall determine the territory in which the advisory election shall be held. However, the conduct of an advisory election in territory outside of the jurisdiction of the local entity shall only be held if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) A regular election or special election is to be held in that territory.

(2) The advisory election can be consolidated with it.

(3) The board of supervisors of the county in which the outside territory is located approves the consolidation.

(e) An advisory election shall not be permitted to be consolidated with an election if the ballot's capacity will be exceeded because of the addition of the advisory election.

CHAPTER 885

An act to amend Section 25208.13 of, and to add and repeal Sections 25208.20 and 25208.21 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25208.13 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25208.13. (a) If the regional board determines that certain mining wastes have properties so that the wastes do not pollute or threaten to pollute the waters of the state when discharged into a surface impoundment which is in compliance with all applicable regulations adopted by the state board pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code, the regional board may exempt a surface impoundment into which these mining wastes are discharged from Sections 25208.4 and 25208.5, pursuant to subdivision (b).

(b) A person may apply to a regional board authorized pursuant to subdivision (a) for an exemption from Section 25208.4 or 25208.5, or from both sections, for a surface impoundment, into which mining wastes are discharged by filing an application with the regional board. If the surface impoundment was constructed before January 1, 1984, the person shall file the application with a regional board by January 1, 1986. Except as provided in subdivision (c), the initial application for exemption shall include a completed hydrogeological assessment report which contains the accurate data and documentation specified in Section 25208.8. A regional board may grant the applicant an exemption from Section 25208.4 or 25208.5, or both, if the regional board makes both of the following findings:

(1) The applicant for the exemption has fully complied with all the applicable regulations adopted by the state board for mining waste.

(2) The surface impoundment does not pollute or threaten to pollute the waters of the state.

(c) If the regional board grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (b), the regional board shall revise the waste discharge requirements prescribed pursuant to Section 13263 of the Water Code for that surface impoundment based upon a review of the report and shall include conditions in the waste discharge requirement to ensure that the waters of the state will not be polluted or threatened with pollution. Except as hereafter provided, if the regional board does not grant the exemption within two years of the date of application, the applicant shall comply with the requirements specified in either Section 25208.4 or 25208.5, or with both sections, whichever is applicable, within three years from the initial date of application. If the applicant submitted the hydrogeologic assessment report on or before January 1, 1986, and the regional board determines that the report submitted contains insufficient information to allow the regional board to complete a reasoned evaluation and the applicant did not receive notice in writing of the deficiencies on or before January 1, 1988, the applicant may be granted up to a maximum of one year from the date of written notification of the deficiencies for the sole purpose of providing the information necessary to correct the deficiencies. Upon receipt of the additional information, the regional board shall complete the evaluation and may grant an exemption in accordance with this section within 60 days. If the regional board denies the exemption, the applicant shall comply with the requirements specified in either Section 25208.4 or 25208.5, or with both sections, whichever is applicable, within one year of the date of denial.

(d) An exemption granted pursuant to subdivision (b) shall not be effective for more than five years. A regional board shall not renew the exemption unless the regional board makes the findings specified in subdivision (b).

(e) Applications for an exemption or renewal of an exemption shall be accompanied by the fee specified in the fee schedule adopted by the state board pursuant to Section 25208.3.

(f) If a regional board determines that a surface impoundment granted an exemption pursuant to subdivision (b) is polluting the waters of the state, the regional board shall take all of the actions specified in Section 25208.6.

SEC. 2. Section 25208.20 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25208.20. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the regional board may grant a person an exemption from the requirements and prohibitions of this article for a surface impoundment if the applicant demonstrates, and the regional board determines, that the surface impoundment meets the criteria listed in subdivision (b), the person complies with the procedures specified in subdivisions (c) and (d), and that the environmental benefit of discharging to the surface impoundment as a remedial measure outweighs any threat to water quality posed by the surface impoundment.

(b) The regional board may grant an exemption pursuant to this section only if the surface impoundment meets both of the following requirements:

(1) The surface impoundment was used or constructed at the direction of the state board or regional board to cleanup or abate a condition of pollution or nuisance resulting from discharges of mining waste to surface waters from a mine which ceased operations prior to January 1, 1988.

(2) The regional board has issued waste discharge requirements for the operation of the surface impoundment, or waived the issuance of waste discharge requirements. The regional board shall adopt findings in support of its action if it has waived the issuance of waste discharge requirements.

(c) To qualify for an exemption under this section, the person shall apply to the regional board for an exemption and shall file a technical report with the regional board on or before July 1, 1989. The technical report shall contain sufficient information for the regional board to determine if the surface impoundment is polluting or threatening to pollute waters of the state, and if hazardous waste constituents are migrating from the surface impoundment. The technical report shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following information:

(1) Characterization of the waste constituents.

(2) An analysis of the effectiveness of the containment structure.

(3) Operation plans to prevent the migration of hazardous waste to groundwater.

(4) Groundwater monitoring data.

(d) The regional board shall notify an applicant, not later than 60 days after the receipt of an application and technical report submitted pursuant to subdivision (c), if either the application or technical report do not comply with this section. If the regional board determines that the application or technical report does not comply with this section, the applicant shall provide additional information to the regional board within 90-days after receiving notice of noncompliance. The regional board shall not consider for exemption the application or technical report if the additional information required is received after the 90-day period.

(e) The regional board shall act on an exemption application within 180 days of receipt of a complete technical report. If the exemption application is approved, the regional board shall conduct annual inspections of the surface impoundment.

(f) If a regional board determines that the surface impoundment exempted pursuant to this section is polluting or threatening to pollute waters of the state, the person who received the exemption shall take all feasible steps to abate that threat.

(g) If the regional board finds that the surface impoundment exempted pursuant to this section is not in compliance with any of the requirements of this section, the regional board shall revoke the exemption. If the exemption is revoked, all of the requirements and prohibitions of this article shall apply to the surface impoundment.

(h) Nothing in this section alters or diminishes any authority of the state board or regional boards under Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code, including any regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted on or before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 25208.21 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25208.21. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the regional board may grant a person an exemption from the requirements and prohibitions of this article for a surface impoundment if the applicant demonstrates, and the regional board determines, that the surface impoundment meets the criteria listed in subdivision (b), and the person complies with the procedures specified in subdivisions (c) and (d), and the surface impoundment is used as part of a mineral mining operation.

(b) The regional board may grant an exemption pursuant to this section only if the surface impoundment meets all of the following requirements:

(1) The hazardous constituents contained in the surface impoundment originated from the groundwater underlying the surface impoundment.

(2) The surface impoundment is not within one-half mile of a potential source of drinking water.

(3) The surface impoundment is used for purposes of recharging groundwater levels, as required by the Bureau of Land Management.

(4) The regional board has issued waste discharge requirements as of January 1, 1985, for the operation of the surface impoundment.

(c) To qualify for an exemption under this section, the person shall apply to the regional board for an exemption and shall file a technical report with the regional board on or before July 1, 1989, together with an initial filing fee of three thousand dollars ($3,000). The regional board shall deposit the fee revenues in the Surface Impoundment Assessment Account in the General Fund. The technical report shall contain sufficient information for the regional board to determine if the surface impoundment is polluting or threatening to pollute a potential source of drinking water. The technical report shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following information:

(1) Characterization of the waste constituents.

(2) An analysis of the containment structure.

(3) Groundwater monitoring data, including depth, flow direction, and chemical characterization.

(d) The regional board shall notify an applicant, not later than 60 days after the receipt of an application and technical report submitted pursuant to subdivision (c), if either the application or technical report do not comply with this section. If the regional board determines that the application or technical report does not comply with this section, the applicant shall provide additional information to the regional board within 90 days after receiving notice of noncompliance. The regional board shall not consider for exemption the application or technical report if the additional information required is received after the 90-day period.

(e) The regional board shall act on an exemption application within 180 days of receipt of a complete technical report. If the exemption application is approved, the regional board shall conduct annual inspections of the surface impoundment.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 25208.3, each person granted an application for an exemption pursuant to subdivison (e) shall pay only the application fee provided in subdivision (c) and any additional fees assessed by the state board to recover actual costs incurred by the state board and regional boards to administer this section. A person filing an application pursuant to subdivision (c) is not required to pay any fees assessed pursuant to Section 25208.3.

(g) If a regional board determines that the surface impoundment exempted pursuant to this section is polluting or threatening to pollute a potential source of drinking water, the person who received the exemption shall take all feasible steps to abate that threat.

(h) If the regional board determines that the surface impoundment exempted pursuant to this section is not in compliance with any of the requirements of this section, the regional board shall revoke the exemption. If the exemption is revoked, all provisions of this article shall apply to the surface impoundment.

(i) Nothing in this section alters or diminishes any authority of the state board or regional boards under Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code, including any regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted on or before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 886

An act to amend Section 901 of, and to add Section 936.7 to, the Penal Code, relating to grand juries.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 901 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

901. (a) The persons whose names are so returned shall be known as regular jurors, and shall serve for one year and until other persons are selected and returned.

(b) If the superior court so decides, the presiding judge may name up to 10 regular jurors not previously so named, who served on the previous grand jury and who so consent, to serve for a second year.

(c) The court may also decide to select grand jurors pursuant to Section 908.2.

SEC. 2. Section 936.7 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

936.7. (a) In a county of the eighth class, as defined by Sections 28020 and 28029 of the Government Code, upon a request by the grand jury, the presiding judge of the superior court may retain, in the name of the county, a special counsel to the grand jury. The request shall be presented to the presiding judge in camera, by an affidavit, executed by the foreperson of the grand jury, which specifies the reason for the request and the nature of the services sought, and which certifies that the appointment of the special counsel is reasonably necessary to aid the work of the grand jury. The affidavit shall be confidential and its contents may not be made public except by order of the presiding judge upon a showing of good cause. The special counsel shall be selected by the presiding judge following submission of the name of the nominee to the board of supervisors for comment.

The special counsel shall be retained under a contract executed by the presiding judge in the name of the county. The contract shall contain the following terms:

(1) The types of legal services to be rendered to the grand jury; provided, (i) that the special counsel's duties shall not include any legal advisory, investigative, or prosecutorial service which by statute is vested within the powers of the district attorney, and (ii) that the special counsel may not perform any investigative or prosecutorial service whatsoever except upon advance written approval by the presiding judge which specifies the number of hours of these services, the hourly rate therefor, and the subject matter of the inquiry.

(2) The hourly rate of compensation of the special counsel for legal advisory services delivered, together with a maximum contract amount payable for all services rendered under the contract during the term thereof, and all service authorizations issued pursuant thereto.

(3) That the contract may be canceled in advance of the expiration of its term by the presiding judge pursuant to service upon the special counsel of 10 days' advance written notice.

(b) The maximum contract amount shall be determined by the board of supervisors and included in the grand jury's annual operational budget. The maximum amount shall be subject to increase by the presiding judge through contract amendment during the term thereof, subject to and in compliance with the procedure prescribed by Section 914.5.

(c) The contract shall constitute a public record and shall be subject to public inspection and copying pursuant to the provisions of the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code). However, at the sole discretion of the board of supervisors, any or all of the following steps may be taken:

(1) The nomination by the presiding judge, and any or all actions by the board of supervisors in commenting upon the nominee and the comments, may be made confidential.

(2) The deliberations and actions may be undertaken in meetings from which the public is excluded, and the communication containing comments may constitute a confidential record which is not subject to public inspection or copying except at the sole discretion of the board of supervisors. Moreover, any written authorization by the presiding judge pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) shall constitute a confidential record which is not subject to public inspection or copying except in connection with a dispute concerning compensation for services rendered.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

SEC. 4. Section 2 of this act is necessary since special facts and circumstances applicable to Sacramento County and not generally applicable, make the accomplishment of this purpose impossible by any general law. Special legislation is therefore necessary applicable to Sacramento County only. The special facts are as follows:

Sacramento County has an exceedingly large, urbanized unincorporated area population requiring high levels of police and fire protection, garbage and refuse collection, recreational and park and other similar public services. Such services are delivered by the county and by a multiplicity of special taxing districts. The grand jury, in the exercise of its power to investigate the county and special taxing districts pertaining to delivery of such services, requires a higher level of legal advisory assistance than the Sacramento County Counsel is staffed to provide.

CHAPTER 887

An act to add and repeal Article 5.6 (commencing with Section 389.10) to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to professional nurse recruitment centers, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 5.6 (commencing with Section 389.10) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 5.6. Regional Model Professional Nurse Recruitment Centers

389.10. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

Registered nurses are the largest single group of healthcare professionals in the United States.

Eighty percent of the hospitals in California are reporting vacancies in registered nurse positions.

The demand for registered nurses is outstripping the supply as a result of a rising acuity of patients, an increasing aging population, and the development of alternative health delivery systems creating additional needs for registered nurses.

The number of applicants to all types of nursing programs has been dropping since 1983. There has been a 20 percent decline in enrollment.

Women represent the majority of undergraduate enrollment in colleges but are increasingly pursuing careers in business, medicine, engineering, and science.

Nursing recruitment efforts must be enhanced and should include recruitment of men and women who are choosing other fields, and should also include recruitment of men and women who are members of ethnic or racial minorities.

It has been a federal priority to recruit persons into other professions while the need for additional nurses has been overlooked. Unless action is taken to encourage more qualified individuals to enter the nursing profession, the shortage of registered nurses is likely to continue and worsen for the foreseeable future.

It is estimated that California hospitals will spend two hundred ninety-four million dollars ($294,000,000) recruiting nurses in 1988.

Approximately 97 percent of nurses are women and approximately 80 percent of all nurses are actively employed in health care, whereas only 54 percent of American women are employed. It is the highest labor participation rate of any female group of workers.

389.15. (a) The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall develop a comprehensive plan to improve the recruitment of persons to enter education programs for training as registered nurses. The plan shall identify and review existing efforts by educational institutions, hospitals, other health facilities, and community organizations that are currently recruiting individuals for training as registered nurses. The review of existing recruitment activities shall include all of the following:

(1) How programs identify potential applicants, including male applicants.

(2) How programs recruit persons from the following groups:

(A) Individuals attending school in any of the grades 7 to 12, inclusive.

(B) Individuals enrolled in colleges and universities who have not declared a major field of study.

(C) Adults who are not attending school and may desire to enter nursing.

(D) Adults seeking a career change.

(E) College graduates unable to find employment in their field of study.

(3) How programs ensure that individuals from underrepresented members of racial and ethnic minorities are included among individuals recruited.

(4) How programs identify employment opportunities that are available for graduates of nursing programs.

(5) How programs make use of community and professional associations, hospitals, career and guidance counselors, and the print and broadcast media, in disseminating information about the opportunities of a nursing career.

(b) The comprehensive plan shall be submitted to the Legislature by July 1, 1989, and shall include recommendations for supporting and improving existing recruitment efforts of individuals to enter education programs for training as registered nurses.

389.20. (a) The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development is authorized to make grants and enter into contracts with public and nonprofit entities to support and improve programs that have the purpose of recruiting of individuals to enter education programs for training as registered nurses.

(b) The office shall develop an application process that provides for solicitation of proposals from public and nonprofit entities whose purpose is the recruiting of individuals to enter education programs for training as registered nurses. No grant may be made and no contract may be entered into under this article unless an application therefor is submitted to the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

389.25. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. The sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) is hereby appropriated from the California Health Data and Planning Fund to the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development for activities pursuant to Article 5.6 (commencing with Section 389.10) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, for the 1988–89 fiscal year.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the sums as may be necessary for grants and contracts under Section 389.20 of the Health and Safety Code for each of the 1989–90 and 1990–91 fiscal years be appropriated in the annual Budget Act.

CHAPTER 888

An act to amend Sections 1317.2, 1317.3, 1317.6, 1317.7, and 1798.172 of, and to repeal Section 1317.9 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hospital emergency patient transfer, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1317.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1317.2. No person needing emergency services and care may be transferred from a hospital to another hospital for any nonmedical reason (such as the person's inability to pay for any emergency service or care) unless each of the following conditions are met:

(a) The person is examined and evaluated by a physician and surgeon, including, if necessary, consultation, prior to transfer.

(b) The person has been provided with emergency services and care so that it can be determined, within reasonable medical probability, that the transfer or delay caused by the transfer will not create a medical hazard to the person.

(c) A physician and surgeon at the transferring hospital has notified and has obtained the consent to the transfer by a physician and surgeon at the receiving hospital and confirmation by the receiving hospital that the person meets the hospital's admissions criteria relating to appropriate bed, personnel, and equipment necessary to treat the person.

(d) The transferring hospital provides for appropriate personnel and equipment which a reasonable and prudent physician and surgeon in the same or similar locality exercising ordinary care would use to effect the transfer.

(e) All the person's pertinent medical records and copies of all the appropriate diagnostic test results which are reasonably available are transferred with the person.

(f) The records transferred with the person include a "Transfer Summary" signed by the transferring physician and surgeon which contains relevant transfer information. The form of the "Transfer Summary" shall, at a minimum, contain the person's name, address, sex, race, age, insurance status, and medical condition; the name and address of the transferring physician and surgeon or emergency department personnel authorizing the transfer; the time and date the person was first presented at the transferring hospital; the name of the physician and surgeon at the receiving hospital consenting to the transfer and the time and date of the consent; the time and date of the transfer; the reason for the transfer; and the declaration of the signor that the signor is assured, within reasonable medical probability, that the transfer creates no medical hazard to the patient. Neither the transferring physician and surgeon nor transferring hospital shall be required to duplicate, in the "Transfer Summary," information contained in medical records transferred with the person.

(g) The transfer conforms with regulations established by the state department. These regulations may prescribe minimum protocols for patient transfers.

(h) Nothing in this section shall apply to a transfer of a patient for medical reasons.

(i) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the transfer or discharge of a patient when the patient or the patient's representative requests a transfer or discharge and gives informed consent to the transfer or discharge against medical advice.

SEC. 2. Section 1317.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1317.3. (a) As a condition of licensure, each hospital shall adopt, in consultation with the medical staff, policies and transfer protocols consistent with this article and regulations adopted hereunder.

(b) As a condition of licensure, each hospital shall adopt a policy prohibiting discrimination in the provision of emergency services and care based on race, ethnicity, religion, national origin, citizenship, age, sex, preexisting medical condition, physical or mental handicap, insurance status, economic status, or ability to pay for medical services, except to the extent that a circumstance such as age, sex, preexisting medical condition, or physical or mental handicap is medically significant to the provision of appropriate medical care to the patient.

(c) As a condition of licensure, each hospital shall require that physicians who serve on an "on-call" basis to the hospital's emergency room cannot refuse to respond to a call on the basis of the patient's race, ethnicity, religion, national origin, citizenship, age, sex, preexisting medical condition, physical or mental handicap, insurance status, economic status, or ability to pay for medical services, except to the extent that a circumstance such as age, sex, preexisting medical condition, or physical or mental handicap is medically significant to the provision of appropriate medical care to the patient. If a contract between a physician and hospital for the provision of emergency room coverage presently prevents the hospital from imposing those conditions, the conditions shall be included in the contract as soon as is legally permissible. Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring that any physician serve on an "on-call" basis.

(d) As a condition of licensure, all hospitals shall inform all persons presented to an emergency room or their representatives if any are present and the person is unable to understand verbal or written communication, both orally and in writing, of the reasons for the transfer or refusal to provide emergency services and care and of the person's right to emergency services and care prior to transfer or discharge without regard to ability to pay. Nothing in this subdivision requires notification of the reasons for the transfer in advance of the transfer where a person is unaccompanied and the hospital has made a reasonable effort to locate a representative, and because of the person's physical or mental condition, notification is not possible. All hospitals shall prominently post a sign in their emergency rooms informing the public of their rights. Both the posted sign and written communication concerning the transfer or refusal to provide emergency services and care shall give the address of the department as the government agency to contact in the event the person wishes to complain about the hospital's conduct.

(e) If a hospital does not timely adopt the policies and protocols required in this article, the hospital, in addition to denial or revocation of any of its licenses, shall be subject to a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) each day after expiration of 60 days' written notice from the state department that the hospital's policies or protocols required by this article are inadequate unless the delay is excused by the state department upon a showing of good and sufficient cause by the hospital. The notice shall include a detailed statement of the state department's reasons for its determination and suggested changes to the hospital's protocols which would be acceptable to the state department.

(f) Each hospital's policies and protocols required in or under this article shall be submitted for approval to the state department by December 31, 1988.

SEC. 3. Section 1317.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1317.6. (a) Hospitals found by the state department to have committed or to be responsible for a violation of this article or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto shall be subject to a civil penalty by the state department in an amount not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each hospital violation. In determining the amount of the fine for a hospital violation, the state department shall take into account all of the following:

(1) Whether the violation was knowing or unintentional.

(2) Whether the violation resulted or was reasonably likely to result in a medical hazard to the patient.

(3) The frequency or gravity of the violation.

(4) Other civil fines which have been imposed as a result of the violation under Section 1395 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(b) Notwithstanding this section, the director shall refer any alleged violation by a hospital owned and operated by a health care service plan involving a plan member or enrollee to the Department of Corporations unless the director determines the complaint is without reasonable basis. The Department of Corporations shall have sole authority and responsibility to enforce this article with respect to violations involving hospitals owned and operated by health care service plans in their treatment of plan members or enrollees.

(c) Physicians and surgeons found by the board to have committed, or to be responsible for, a violation of this article or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto shall be subject to any and all penalties which the board may lawfully impose and may be subject to a civil penalty by the board in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each violation. A civil penalty imposed under this subdivision shall not duplicate federal fines, and the board shall credit any federal fine against a civil penalty imposed under this subdivision.

(d) The board may impose fines when it finds any of the following:

(1) The violation was knowing or willful.

(2) The violation was reasonably likely to result in a medical hazard.

(3) There are repeated violations.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature that the state department has primary responsibility for regulating the conduct of hospital emergency departments and that fines imposed under this section should not be duplicated by additional fines imposed by the federal government as a result of the conduct which constituted a violation of this section. To effectuate the Legislature's intent, the Governor shall inform the Secretary of the federal Department of Health and Human Services of the enactment of this section and request the federal department to credit any penalty assessed under this section against any subsequent civil monetary penalty assessed pursuant to Section 1395dd of Title 42 of the United States Code for the same violation.

(f) There shall be a cumulative maximum limit of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) in fines assessed against hospitals under this article and under Section 1395dd of Title 42 of the United States Code for the same circumstances. To effectuate this cumulative maximum limit, the state department shall do both of the following:

(1) As to state fines assessed prior to the final conclusion, including judicial review, if available, of an action against a hospital by the federal Department of Health and Human Services under Section 1395dd of Title 42 of the United States Code (for the same circumstances finally deemed to have been a violation of this article or the regulations adopted hereunder, because of the state department action authorized by this article), remit and return to the hospital within 30 days after conclusion of the federal action, that portion of the state fine necessary to assure that the cumulative maximum limit is not exceeded.

(2) Immediately credit against state fines assessed after the final conclusion, including judicial review, if available, of an action against a hospital by the federal Department of Health and Human Services under Section 1395dd of Title 42 of the United States Code, which results in a fine against a hospital (for the same circumstances finally deemed to have been a violation of this article or the regulations adopted hereunder, because of the state department action authorized by this article), the amount of the federal fine, necessary to assure the cumulative maximum limit is not exceeded.

(g) Any hospital found by the state department pursuant to procedures established by the state department to have committed a violation of this article or the regulations adopted hereunder may have its emergency medical service permit revoked or suspended by the state department.

(h) Any administrative or medical personnel who knowingly and intentionally violates any provision of this article, may be charged by the local district attorney with a misdemeanor.

(i) Notification of each violation found by the state department of the provisions of this article or the regulations adopted hereunder shall be sent by the state department to the Joint Commission for the Accreditation of Hospitals, the state emergency medical services authority, and local emergency medical services agencies.

(j) Any person who suffers personal harm and any medical facility which suffers a financial loss as a result of a violation of this article or the regulations adopted hereunder may recover, in a civil action against the transferring or receiving hospital, damages, reasonable attorney's fees, and other appropriate relief. Transferring and receiving hospitals from which inappropriate transfers of persons are made or refused in violation of this article and the regulations adopted hereunder shall be liable for the reasonable charges of the receiving or transferring hospital for providing the services and care which should have been provided. Any person potentially harmed by a violation of this article or the regulations adopted hereunder, or the local district attorney or the Attorney General, may bring a civil action against the responsible hospital or administrative or medical personnel, to enjoin the violation, and if the injunction issues, the court shall award reasonable attorney's fees. The provisions of this subdivision are in addition to other civil remedies and do not limit the availability of the other remedies.

(k) The civil remedies established by this section do not apply to violations of any requirements established by any county or county agency.

SEC. 4. Section 1317.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1317.7. This article does not preempt any county or any other governmental agency acting within its authority from regulating emergency care or patient transfers, including the imposition of more specific duties, consistent with the requirements of this article and its implementing regulations. Any inconsistent requirements imposed by the Medi-Cal program shall preempt this article with respect to Medi-Cal beneficiaries. To the extent hospitals and physicians enter into contractual relationships with county or other governmental agencies which impose more stringent transfer requirements, those contractual agreements shall control.

SEC. 5. Section 1317.9 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 1798.172 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1798.172. (a) The local EMS agency shall establish guidelines and standards for completion and operation of formal transfer agreements between hospitals with varying levels of care in the area of jurisdiction of the local EMS agency consistent with Sections 1317 to 1317.9a, inclusive, and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1798). Each local EMS agency shall solicit and consider public comment in drafting guidelines and standards. These guidelines shall include provision for suggested written agreements for the type of patient, initial patient care treatments, requirements of interhospital care, and associated logistics for transfer, evaluation, and monitoring of the patient.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), and in addition to Section 1317, a general acute care hospital licensed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2 shall not transfer a person for nonmedical reasons to another health facility unless that other facility receiving the person agrees in advance of the transfer to accept the transfer.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to alleviate the problems in patient transfers at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

SEC. 2. Pursuant to Section 13822 of the Water Code, the Department of Water Resources is hereby authorized to make a grant from the California Safe Drinking Water Bond Fund, in accordance with the California Safe Drinking Water Bond Law of 1984 (Chapter 10.2 (commencing with Section 13810) of Division 7 of the Water Code), to the following agency for purposes of financing a proposed project and investigation to identify alternatives for system improvements therefor.

(1) Phillipsville Community Services District.

SEC. 3. The Department of Water Resources shall determine eligibility for and the amount of any grant authorized in this act, in accordance with the California Safe Drinking Water Bond Law of 1986 (Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 13895) of Division 7 of the Water Code) and may make those grants in accordance with the bond law.

SEC. 4. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that, in order to meet the minimum safe drinking water standards, there are critical needs within the entities identified in this act, to immediately undertake certain improvements necessary to enable residents of those communities to have a dependable and potable water supply.

SEC. 5. The Legislature further finds and declares that the water systems of the entities identified in this act have critical deficiencies in the areas of treatment, storage, and distribution which pose a serious threat to the public health and welfare of all consumers within those communities and that each entity is only barely meeting the demand for water within the community.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Department of Water Resources may, at its discretion, prepare the information on each grant application required to be submitted to the Legislature under Section 13896.2 of the Water Code in the form of one annual report to the Legislature. The report shall be filed on or before January 31 of each year for grant commitments made or grant contracts entered into by the department during the previous calendar year. The report shall be filed with the Legislature, if it is in session or, if it is not in session, with the Joint Rules Committee.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to authorize grants from the California Safe Drinking Water Fund to the entities identified in this act to resolve the critical water supply problems of those communities at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 890

An act to add Section 4515 to the Civil Code, relating to family law.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4515 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4515. (a) In an action for dissolution of marriage under this part, the court, upon noticed motion, may sever and grant an early and separate trial on the issue of the dissolution of the status of the marriage apart from other issues.

(b) The court may impose upon a party any of the following conditions on granting a severance of the issue of the dissolution of the status of the marriage, and in the event of that party's death, an order of any of the following conditions shall continue to be binding upon his or her estate:

(1) The party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any and all taxes, reassessments, interest and penalties payable by the other party in the event the dissolution of the marriage prior to the division of the parties' community property results in a taxable event to either of the parties by reason of the ultimate division of their community property, which taxes would not have been payable if the parties were still married at the time the division was made.

(2) Until judgment has been entered on all remaining issues and has become final, the party shall maintain all existing health and medical insurance coverage for the other party and the minor children as named dependents, so long as he or she is legally able to do so. At the time the party is no longer legally eligible to maintain the other party as a named dependent under the existing health and medical policies, the party or his or her estate shall, at his or her sole expense, purchase and maintain health and medical insurance coverage that is comparable to the existing health and medical insurance coverage. If comparable insurance coverage is not obtained, the party or his or her estate shall be responsible for any and all health and medical expenses incurred by the other party which would have been covered by the insurance coverage, and shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any adverse consequences resulting from the lack of insurance.

(3) Until judgment has been entered on all remaining issues and has become final, the party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any and all adverse consequences resulting to the other party in the event the bifurcation results in a termination of the other party's right to a probate homestead in the residence in which the other party resides at the time the severance is granted.

(4) Until judgment has been entered on all remaining issues and has become final, the party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any and all adverse consequences resulting to the other party in the event that the bifurcation results in the loss of the rights of the other party to a probate family allowance as the surviving spouse of the party.

(5) Until judgment has been entered on all remaining issues and has become final, the party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any and all adverse consequences resulting to the other party in the event bifurcation results in the loss of the other party's rights to pension benefits, elections, or survivors' benefits under the party's pension or retirement plan to the extent that the other party would have been entitled to those benefits or elections as the surviving spouse of the party.

(6) The party shall cause his or her retirement or pension plan to be joined as a party to the action for dissolution, and if the party has a private pension plan covered by ERISA, then he or she shall cause a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in Section 1056 of Title 29 of the United States Code, to be served upon the party's pension plan.

(7) The party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any and all adverse consequences in the event bifurcation results in the loss of rights to social security benefits or elections to the extent the other party would have been entitled to those benefits or elections as the surviving spouse of the party.

(8) Any other condition which the court determines is just and equitable.

(c) A judgment granting a dissolution of the status of the marriage shall expressly reserve jurisdiction for later determination of all other pending issues.

CHAPTER 891

An act to add Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 38045) to Division 25 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to state contracts.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 38045) is added to Division 25 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6. CONTRACT REFORM PROCESS

38045. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to ensure that nonprofit organizations that enter into human services contracts with the state are provided with the appropriate information to enable them to faithfully execute the contracts and meet the audit standards that are established by the various departments of state government which contract for services through local assistance funding.

(b) The Auditor General shall review the contract-reform, appeals, and audit processes set forth in this division and Division 25.1 (commencing with Section 38050), with respect to their application to direct service contracts with nonprofit organizations, and shall report thereon to the Legislature on or before July 1, 1989. The report shall contain recommendations to achieve a reduction in the number of audit exceptions and appeals so as to improve the efficient administration of direct service contracts with nonprofit organizations.

CHAPTER 892

An act to amend Section 11488.1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to controlled substances.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11488.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11488.1. Property seized pursuant to Section 11488 may, where appropriate, be held for evidence. The state or any city, county, or city and county may initiate forfeiture proceedings with respect to any property seized pursuant to Section 11488 by a peace officer employed by its law enforcement agency. The Attorney General or the district attorney for the jurisdiction involved shall file and maintain the proceedings. In the County of Los Angeles, in cases where the value of the seized property is twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or less, and the Attorney General, or the district attorney, or both, have declined to institute forfeiture proceedings, the city attorney for the jurisdiction involved, with the consent of the Attorney General, or the district attorney, or both, may institute and maintain the proceedings.

CHAPTER 893

An act to amend Section 45273 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 45273 of the Education Code is amended to read:

45273. Examinations shall be administered objectively, and shall consist of test parts that relate to job performance.

For classes of positions deemed by the commission or by the authority responsible for the administration of classified employee examinations to require an oral examination, the oral examination board shall include at least two members. Where a structured objective examination is to be administered to the entire field of candidates in an entrance level classification, a single member oral examination board may be utilized. A "structured objective examination" means, for this purpose, an examination for which the examiner exercises no discretion in the selection of the questions or in the evaluation of the answers.

Unless specifically directed to evaluate candidates' technical knowledge and skills, the oral examination board shall confine itself to evaluating general fitness for employment in the class. When the oral examination board is directed to evaluate technical knowledge and skills, at least two members of the board shall be technically qualified in the specified occupational area. Members of the governing board or personnel commission shall not serve on an oral examination board. A district employee may serve on an oral examination board if he or she is not at the first or second level of supervision over a vacant position in the class for which the examination is held.

The personnel commission shall provide for the proceedings of all oral examinations to be electronically recorded. In no case will an oral examination board be provided with confidential references on employees of the district who are competing in promotional examinations. Scores achieved by the candidate on other parts of the examination shall not be made available to the oral examination board.

CHAPTER 894

An act to amend Section 6103.4 of the Government Code, to amend Sections 113, 4025, and 25198 of, to amend and repeal Section 25198.2 of, to add Sections 25298.5 and 25358.4 to, to add Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 1010) to Part 2 of Division 1 of, and to repeal Sections 25198.3, 25198.4, 25198.5, 25198.6, and 25198.7 of, the Health and Safety Code, to amend Section 13176 of the Water Code, and to amend Section 2 of Chapter 1520 of the Statutes of 1985, relating to laboratories.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

The accreditation or licensing of environmental laboratories is a public service to protect the public health and the environment. It is presently carried out under two separate sections of the Health and Safety Code for laboratories performing analyses of drinking water and hazardous wastes and also has been authorized under the Water Code for laboratories performing analyses of waste water. Consolidation of these statutes under this act will prevent the duplication of state services and facilitate a fair and reasonable allocation of the cost of this service.

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Environmental Laboratory Improvement Act of 1988.

SEC 2. Section 6103.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6103.4. Section 6103 does not apply to any fee or charge for official services required by Section 1017 of the Health and Safety Code, or Part 5 (commencing with Section 4999) of Division 2, or subdivision (d) of Section 13260, or Section 13609, of the Water Code.

SEC. 3. Section 113 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

113. (a) The fees or charges for the issuance or renewal of any permit, license, or registration pursuant to Sections 436.53, 527, 1017, 1616, 1676, 1677, 4042, 4042.2, 4042.3, 4083, 11887, 23013, 25694, 25696, 25697, 25816, 25817, 26506.2, 26688, 27010, 27011, 28126, 28410, 28411, and 28702 shall be adjusted annually by the percentage change printed in the Budget Act for those items appropriating funds to the department. After the first annual adjustment of fees or charges pursuant to this section, the fees or charges subject to subsequent adjustment shall be the fees or charges for the prior calendar year. The percentage change shall be determined by the Department of Finance, and shall include at least the total percentage change in salaries and operating expenses of the department. However, the total increase in amounts collected under this section shall not exceed the total increased cost of the program or service provided.

(b) The department shall publish annually a list of the actual numerical fee charges for each permit, license, certification, or registration governed by this section. The adjustment of fees and publication of the fee list pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 1017 shall not be subject to the requirements of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code until January 1, 1992.

SEC. 3.5. Section 113 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 1 of Assembly Bill 4114, is amended to read:

113. (a) The fees or charges for the issuance or renewal of any permit, license, or registration pursuant to Sections 403, 436.53, 527, 1017, 1616, 1676, 1677, 2202, 2805, 4042, 4042.2, 4042.3, 4083, 11887, 23013, 25694, 25696, 25697, 25816, 25817, 26506.2, 26688, 27010, 27011, 28126, 28410, 28411, and 28702 shall be adjusted annually by the percentage change printed in the Budget Act for those items appropriating funds to the state department. After the first annual adjustment of fees or charges pursuant to this section, the fees or charges subject to subsequent adjustment shall be the fees or charges for the prior calendar year. The percentage change shall be determined by the Department of Finance, and shall include at least the total percentage change in salaries and operating expenses of the department. However, the total increase in amounts collected under this section shall not exceed the total increased cost of the program or service provided.

(b) The state department shall publish annually a list of the actual numerical fee charges for each permit, license, certification, or registration governed by this section. The adjustment of fees and publication of the fee list pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 1017 shall not be subject to the requirements of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code until January 1, 1992.

SEC. 4. Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 1010) is added to Part 2 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7.5. ENVIRONMENTAL LABORATORIES

1010. (a) The state department may accredit laboratories which perform for regulatory purposes analyses of drinking water, waste water, hazardous wastes, and contaminated soils or sediments, or any combination of these, through the issuance of certificates of accreditation. Laboratory activities regulated under Section 12591 of the Food and Agricultural Code shall be exempt from accreditation.

(b) In any arrangement between laboratories, which involves the transfer of samples or portions of samples, the analyzing laboratory shall be identified in all sample reports and shall be the laboratory for purposes of accreditation.

(c) For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Certificate" means a certificate of accreditation issued under this chapter.

(2) "Laboratory" means any facility or vehicle which is owned by a person or persons, or by a public or private entity, and which is equipped and operated to carry out environmental analyses, as determined by the department.

1011. The department shall adopt regulations governing the administration and enforcement of this chapter. Until regulations are adopted under this chapter, regulations adopted under Sections 4025 and 25198 shall remain in effect. Regulations adopted by the department under this chapter shall specify conditions for recognizing on the basis of reciprocity the accreditation of laboratories located outside of the State of California for activities regulated under this chapter by another state or by an agency of the United States government. Accreditation by another jurisdiction may be recognized for purposes of this chapter with regard to one or several program activities, including, but not limited to, onsite inspections, the analysis of performance evaluation samples, or the evaluation of personnel qualifications.

1012. The department by regulation may establish minimum standards for the following:

(a) Quality assurance programs in effect at the laboratory.

(b) Laboratory facilities.

(c) Methods.

(d) Equipment.

(e) Qualifications of laboratory directors and other laboratory personnel.

(f) Any other area concerning the operation or maintenance of a laboratory not inconsistent with this chapter as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

1013. Any laboratory desiring accreditation under this chapter shall file with the department a verified application on forms prescribed by the department containing all of the following:

(a) The names of the applicant and the laboratory.

(b) The location of the laboratory.

(c) A list of fields of testing for which the laboratory is seeking accreditation, selected from the activities listed in subdivision (a) of Section 1017.

(d) Evidence satisfactory to the department that the applicant has the ability to comply with this chapter and the rules and regulations adopted under this chapter.

(e) Any other information as may be required by the department for administration or enforcement of this chapter or rules and regulations adopted under this chapter.

1014. (a) Each certificate issued pursuant to this chapter shall be issued to the owner of the laboratory and shall expire 24 months from the date of issuance. Application for renewal shall be filed with the department within a time period specified by regulation. Failure to make timely application for renewal shall result in expiration of the certificate.

(b) A certificate shall be forfeited by operation of law prior to its expiration date when one of the following occurs:

(1) The owner sells or otherwise transfers the ownership of the laboratory, except that accreditation shall remain in force 90 days, if the department receives written assurance and appropriate documentation within 15 days after the change has occurred that one or more of the conditions in subdivision (c) are met. The department shall accept or reject the assurance in writing within 30 days after it has been received.

(2) There is a change in the location of the laboratory (except a mobile laboratory) or structural alteration which may affect adversely the quality of analysis in the fields of testing for which the laboratory is accredited or is seeking accreditation, without prior written approval by the department.

(3) The certificateholder surrenders the certificate to the department.

(c) Upon change of ownership of a laboratory, the department may extend accreditation to the expiration date of the original certificate upon written assurance by the new owner that the operation of the laboratory will continue so as not to affect the conditions regulated by this chapter. A similar extension may be granted upon a change of director or other person in responsible charge, if the new person in charge was the director or person in charge of a laboratory accredited under this chapter immediately preceding the appointment, or was promoted from a position within the laboratory or demonstrates qualifications satisfactory to the department. Regulations shall specify procedures by which operation of a laboratory may continue for a period not to exceed 90 days during a change in directorship or while deficiencies are being corrected.

1015. (a) Upon the filing of an application for accreditation and after a finding by the department that the applicant is in full compliance with the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations adopted under this chapter, the department shall issue to the applicant a certificate in the fields of testing identified in Section 1017.

(b) The department shall deny accreditation, or revoke a certificate of accreditation if it finds one of the following:

(1) The laboratory fails to report acceptable results in the analysis of performance evaluation samples.

(2) The laboratory fails to pass an onsite inspection.

(3) The laboratory is not in compliance with any other provision of this chapter or regulations adopted under this chapter.

(c) Provided that the applicant complies with all other provisions of this chapter, accreditation may be restricted to the fields of testing of Section 1017 or subgroups thereof as defined by regulation for which acceptable results have been produced and onsite inspection was passed.

1016 Upon denial of any application for accreditation, or revocation of accreditation, the department shall immediately notify the applicant by certified mail, return receipt requested, of the denial and the reasons for the denial. Within 20 days of receipt, the applicant may present the department with a written petition for a hearing. Upon receipt in proper form by the department, the petition shall be set for hearing. The proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code and the department has all the powers granted therein.

1017. (a) At the time of application and annually thereafter, any private entity or public entity shall pay a nonrefundable annual accreditation fee. The fee shall consist of a basic fee of eight hundred seventy-nine dollars ($879) and an additional fee of three hundred ninety-six dollars ($396) for accreditation in each of the following fields of testing for which accreditation is sought: (1) microbiology of drinking water and waste water, (2) inorganic chemistry and physical properties of drinking water excluding toxic chemical elements, (3) analysis of toxic chemical elements in drinking water, (4) organic chemistry of drinking water (measurement by gc/ms combination), (5) organic chemistry of drinking water (excluding measurements by gc/ms combination), (6) radiochemistry, (7) shellfish sanitation, (8) aquatic toxicity bioassays, (9) physical properties testing of hazardous waste, (10) inorganic chemistry and toxic chemical elements of hazardous waste, (11) extraction tests of hazardous waste, (12) organic chemistry of hazardous waste (measurement by gc/ms combination), (13) organic chemistry of hazardous waste (excluding measurements by gc/ms combination),

(14) bulk asbestos analysis, (15) substances regulated under the California Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act and not included in other listed groups, (16) waste water inorganic chemistry, nutrients, and demand, (17) toxic chemical elements in waste water, (18) organic chemistry of waste water (measurements by gc/ms combination), (19) organic chemistry of waste water (excluding measurements by gc/ms combination), (20) operation of a mobile laboratory in any one of the above fields of testing in addition to activity in the same field of testing in an accredited stationary laboratory under the same owner.

(b) In addition to the payment of accreditation fees, laboratories located outside the State of California shall reimburse the department for travel and per diem necessary to perform onsite inspections.

(c) If reciprocity is established by regulation as described in Section 1011, the regulations may provide for the waiver of accreditation fees for program activities considered equivalent.

(d) Fees collected under this section shall be adjusted annually as specified in Section 113. In addition, the department shall increase or decrease the fees collected under this section, as necessary, in order to support the full program costs of this chapter.

(e) State and local government-owned laboratories in California established under Section 1000 or performing work only in a reference capacity as a reference laboratory are exempt from the payment of the fee prescribed under subdivision (a).

For the purpose of this section, a reference laboratory is a laboratory owned and operated by a governmental regulatory agency for the principal purpose of analyzing samples referred by other laboratories for confirmatory analysis. Reference laboratories carry out quality assurance functions relative to other laboratories and may carry out unusual, highly specialized, and difficult analyses not generally available through commercial laboratories, and a limited amount of routine analyses, for regulatory purposes only, and without assessing per-sample fees for the services.

1018. In order to carry out the purpose of this chapter, any duly authorized representative of the department may do the following:

(a) Enter and inspect a laboratory which is accredited pursuant to this chapter or which has applied for accreditation.

(b) Inspect and photograph any portion of the laboratory, equipment, any activity, or any samples taken, copy and photograph any records, reports, test results, or other information related solely to accreditation under this chapter or regulations promulgated pursuant to this chapter.

(c) It shall be a misdemeanor for any person to prevent, interfere with, or attempt to impede in any way, any duly authorized representative of the department from undertaking the activities authorized by this section.

1019. The department shall require any laboratory which is accredited or has applied for accreditation, or for renewal of accreditation under this article, to analyze performance evaluation samples provided by the department. The samples shall be tested by the laboratory according to methods specifically approved for this purpose by the United States government or the department, or alternate methods of demonstrated adequacy or equivalence, as determined by the department. Results of the testing shall be submitted to the department on forms provided by the department on or before the date specified by the department, and shall be used in determining the competency of the laboratory. The department shall not be charged a fee for the analysis of the performance evaluation samples.

1020. Whenever the department determines that any person has violated or is violating this chapter or any certificate, regulation, or standard issued or adopted pursuant to this chapter, the director may issue an order directing compliance forthwith or directing compliance in accordance with a time schedule set by the department.

1021. If the department determines that a laboratory is in violation of this chapter or any regulation or order issued or adopted thereunder, the department may issue a citation to the owner of the laboratory.

(a) The citation shall be served personally or by registered mail

(b) Each citation shall be in writing and shall describe with particularity the nature of the violation, including a reference to the statutory provision, order, or regulation alleged to have been violated.

(c) The citation shall fix the earliest feasible time for elimination or correction of the condition constituting the violation.

(d) Citations issued pursuant to this section shall specify a civil penalty for each violation, not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), for each day that the violation occurred.

(e) If the owner fails to correct a violation within the time specified in the citation, the department may assess a civil penalty as follows:

(1) For failure to comply with any citation issued for a violation of this chapter or regulation, an amount not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each day that the violation continues beyond the date specified for correction in the citation.

(2) For failure to comply with any citation issued for failure of any department-issued order, an amount not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200) per day for each day the violation continues beyond the date specified for correction in the citation.

1022. (a) Any person who operates an environmental laboratory which performs work, for which accreditation under this chapter is required, without holding an unrevoked certificate to do so, may be enjoined from so doing by any court of competent jurisdiction at the suit of the department.

(b) When the department determines that any person has engaged in, or is engaged in, any act or practice which constitutes a violation of this chapter, or any regulation or order issued or adopted thereunder, the department may bring an action in the superior court for an order enjoining these practices or for an order directing compliance and affording any further relief which may be required to ensure compliance with this chapter.

1023. (a) Any person who knowingly makes any false statement or representation in any application, record, or other document submitted, maintained, or used for purposes of compliance with this chapter, may be liable, as determined by the court, for a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each separate violation or, for continuing violations, for each day that violation continues.

(b) Any person who operates an environmental laboratory for purposes requiring accreditation under this chapter without a certificate issued by the department pursuant to this chapter may be liable, as determined by the court, for a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each separate violation, or, for continuing violations, for each day that violation continues.

(c) A laboratory that advertises or holds itself out to the public or its clients as having been issued a certificate of accreditation for any of the fields of testing referred to in Section 1017 without having a valid and current certificate in each field of testing identified by the advertisement or other representation may be liable, as determined by the court, for a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) or, for continuing violations, for each day that violation continues.

(d) Each civil penalty imposed for any separate violation pursuant to this section shall be separate and in addition to any other civil penalty imposed pursuant to this section or any other provision of law.

1024. (a) Any person who knowingly does any of the following acts may, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each day of violation, or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment:

(1) Makes any false statement or representation in any application, record, report, or other document submitted, maintained, or used for the purposes of compliance with this chapter.

(2) Has in his or her possession any record required to be maintained pursuant to this chapter which has been altered or concealed.

(3) Destroys, alters, or conceals any record required to be maintained pursuant to this chapter.

(4) Withholds information regarding an imminent and substantial danger to the public health or safety when the information has been requested by the department in writing and is required to carry out the department's responsibilities pursuant to this chapter.

(b) If the conviction under subdivision (a) is for a violation committed after a first conviction of the person under this section, the person may be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for up to 24 months, or in the county jail for not to exceed one year, or for a fine of not less than two thousand dollars ($2,000) or more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per day of violation, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

1025. The remedies provided by this chapter are cumulative and shall not be construed as restricting any remedy, provisional or otherwise, provided by law for the benefit of any party, and no judgment under this chapter shall preclude any party from obtaining additional relief based upon the same facts.

1026. The department may suspend or revoke any certificate issued under the provisions of this chapter for any of the following reasons:

(a) Violation by the owner of the laboratory of any of the provisions of this chapter or any rule or regulation adopted under this chapter.

(b) Aiding, abetting, or permitting the violation of any provision of this chapter or the rules or regulations adopted under this chapter.

(c) Proof that the certificateholder or owner has made false statements in any material regard on the application for accreditation.

(d) The conviction of an owner of the laboratory of any crime which is substantially related to the qualifications or duties of the owner of the laboratory which is related to the functions of the laboratory. For purposes of this subdivision, a "conviction" means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. An action to revoke or suspend the certificate may be taken when the time for appeal has elapsed or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, notwithstanding a subsequent order pursuant to Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code permitting withdrawal of a plea of guilty and entry of a plea of not guilty, or setting aside a verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment. The department shall take into account all judicial decisions on rehabilitation furnished by the owner of the laboratory.

1027. Proceedings for the suspension or revocation of a certificate under this chapter shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the department shall have all powers granted therein.

1028. The department may temporarily suspend a certificate prior to any hearing, when it has determined that this action is necessary to protect the public. The department shall notify the owner of the temporary suspension and the effective date thereof and at the same time shall serve the owner with an accusation. Upon receipt of a notice of defense by the owner, the matter shall within 15 days be set for hearing. The hearing shall be held as soon as possible but no later than 30 days after receipt of the notice. The temporary suspension shall remain in effect until the time that the hearing is completed and the department has made a final determination on the merits. However, the temporary suspension shall be deemed vacated if the department fails to make a final determination on the merits within 60 days after the original hearing has been completed.

1029. Fees and civil penalties collected under this chapter shall be deposited in the Environmental Laboratory Improvement Fund, which is hereby created. Moneys in the fund shall be available for expenditure by the department for the purposes of this chapter, upon appropriation by the Legislature.

SEC. 5. Section 4025 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

4025. (a) No laboratory, other than a laboratory operated by the department, shall perform tests required pursuant to this chapter for any public water system without first obtaining a certificate of accreditation issued by the department pursuant to Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Part 2 of Division 1, except that laboratories previously issued a certificate under this section shall be deemed accredited until accreditation under Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Part 2 of Division 1 has been either granted or denied, but not beyond the expiration date shown on the certificate previously issued under this section.

(b) No person or public entity of the state shall contract with a laboratory for environmental analyses for which the department requires accreditation pursuant to this section, unless the laboratory holds a valid certificate of accreditation.

SEC. 6. Section 25198 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25198. (a) The analysis of any material required by this chapter shall be performed by a laboratory accredited by the department pursuant to Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Part 2 of Division 1, except that laboratories previously issued a certificate under this section shall be deemed accredited until the time that accreditation under Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Part 2 of Division 1 has been either granted or denied, but not beyond the expiration date shown on the certificate previously issued under this section.

(b) No person or public entity of the state shall contract with a laboratory for environmental analyses for which the department requires accreditation pursuant to this chapter, unless the laboratory holds a valid certificate of accreditation.

SEC. 6.5. Section 25198.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25198.2. (a) The department shall adopt regulations governing the criteria for certification, the certification process, and the procedures to be used by hazardous waste laboratories to analyze and identify waste samples.

(b) The regulations shall include minimum standards for the following:

(1) Types of tests to be performed.

(2) Quality assurance programs.

(3) Equipment.

(4) Methods.

(5) Personnel qualifications.

(6) Any additional requirements, not inconsistent with this chapter, as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

(c) Whenever feasible, the tests and laboratory procedures adopted by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) shall either be tests and procedures recognized and endorsed by professional, standard-setting or regulatory organizations, or shall be specific tests and laboratory procedures developed by the department

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 7. Section 25198.3 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 25198.4 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 25198.5 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 25198.6 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 25198.7 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 25298.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25298.5. The analysis of any material which is required to demonstrate compliance with this chapter shall be performed by a laboratory accredited by the department pursuant to Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Part 2 of Division 1.

SEC. 13. Section 25358.4 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25358.4. The analysis of any material which is required to demonstrate compliance with this chapter shall be performed by a laboratory accredited by the department pursuant to Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Part 2 of Division 1.

SEC. 14. Section 13176 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13176. (a) The analysis of any material required by this division shall be performed by a laboratory registered by the State Department of Health Services under the provisions of Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, except that the terms "accreditation" and "certificate of accreditation" in Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, shall mean "registration" and "certificate of registration" respectively, and except that paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 1015 of the Health and Safety Code shall not apply. This subdivision shall remain operative until January 1, 1991, or one year after regulations pursuant to Section 1010 have taken effect, whichever occurs later, after which time subdivision (b) of this section shall apply.

(b) The analysis of any material required by this division shall be performed by a laboratory accredited by the State Department of Health Services under Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) No person or public entity of the state shall contract with a laboratory for environmental analyses for which the department requires registration or accreditation pursuant to this chapter, unless the laboratory holds a valid certificate of registration or accreditation

SEC. 15. Section 2 of Chapter 1520 of the Statutes of 1985 is amended to read.

Sec. 2. The sum of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Water Resources Control Board for the program established in Section 13176 of the Water Code for the 1985–86 fiscal year.

The State Water Resources Control Board shall not be required to reimburse the General Fund for the appropriation made pursuant to this section, and the State Department of Health Services shall, not later than January 1, 1992, reimburse the General Fund for the amount appropriated by this section, from moneys deposited in the Environmental Laboratory Improvement Fund pursuant to Section 1029 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 16. Section 3.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 113 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 4114. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 113 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 4114, in which case Section 113 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by AB 4114, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 3.5 of this bill shall become operatave, and Section 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 17. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because: (1) the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction, or (2) because the local agency has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 895

An act to amend Section 26592 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26592 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

26592. (a) The department shall adopt and enforce the regulations it determines are reasonably necessary to ensure that all bottled water, vended water, water from water haulers, water from retail water treatment plants, and water from private water sources which is sold or otherwise distributed in this state is pure, wholesome, potable, and contains no inorganic chemicals or organic chemicals, including pesticides and plasticizers in concentrations which may have an adverse effect on public health and safety. The regulations shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Minimum standards for the sanitary production and distribution of bottled, vended, and hauled water, and water from retail water treatment plants and private water sources within this state. The standards shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(A) Standards for the sanitary production, packaging, and distribution of bottled water shall not be less stringent than those standards prescribed by Part 110 and Part 129 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(B) Standards to ensure that, prior to bottling, bottled water shall be subject to effective germicidal treatment by ozone, ultraviolet, or an equivalent disinfection process approved by the state department. The standards developed pursuant to this category for bottled water which contains carbon dioxide shall prescribe that sufficient compliance includes meeting the microbiological requirements described in Section 103.35 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(C) Standards to ensure that dispensers for bottled water, which are furnished by the water bottler or distributor shall be delivered to the consumer's premises in a clean, sanitary condition, protected from dust or other contamination.

(D) Standards to ensure that ollas or other water-holding dispensers, both refrigerated and nonrefrigerated, shall be examined for cleanliness each time the dispenser is serviced by the representative of the distributor or bottler. When necessary, these dispensers shall be sanitized in place or returned to the bottler or distributor for cleaning or sanitizing before reuse according to the methods described in Part 129 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(E) Standards for sanitary transfer of water from any source to storage or vehicle tanks, and from storage or vehicle tanks to customer owned or used storage tanks, vehicles, or other containers, or to water-vending machines, retail water treatment plants, or to water bottling plants.

(F) Standards for water quality and for sanitation of vehicle tanks, storage tanks, and distribution systems used by water haulers.

(G) Standards for sanitation and processing of water by retail water treatment plants.

(H) Standards for protection and sanitation of private water sources.

(2) Quality standards for bottled water, mineral water, vended water, water distributed by water haulers, water from retail water treatment plants, and water from private water sources. The quality standards of bottled water, including mineral water, vended water, water distributed directly to consumers by water haulers, water from retail water treatment plants, and water distributed directly to consumers from private water sources shall not be less stringent than those standards prescribed by Section 103.35 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations, except that mineral waters shall exceed 500 milligrams per liter of total dissolved solids. The quality standards shall include all drinking water maximum contaminant levels and may include any additional standards that the department determines are reasonably necessary to protect public health and safety. In addition, bottled water shall not exceed 10 parts per billion of total trihalomethanes or five parts per billion of lead unless the department establishes a lower level by regulation. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the quality standards shall ensure that bottled water, vended water, water from retail water treatment plants, water distributed by water haulers, and water from private water sources contain no inorganic or organic chemicals, including pesticides and plasticizers, in concentrations which may have an adverse effect on public health and safety.

Mineral water producers which bottle 5,000 gallons, or less, per week shall have until February 1, 1990, to comply with the quality standards for bottled water pursuant to this paragraph. Mineral water producers may present to the State Department of Health Services data on consumption of mineral water and the health effects of inorganic elements which may be present as listed in the bottled water quality standards of Part 103.35 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(3) Polycarbonate resins manufactured after January 1, 1988, and intended for use in fabricating containers for water products defined in this article shall not contain in excess of three parts per million residual methylene chloride or in excess of 200 parts per million residual monochlorobenzene unless the department establishes a lower level by regulation. For the purpose of monitoring compliance with this section, the concentration of methylene choride and monochlorobenzene shall not exceed one part per billion in water. "Polycarbonate resins" mean the substances defined by Section 177.1580 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations except as modified by this section.

(4) Minimum standards of design, construction, and sanitation for any water-vending machine. Those water-vending machines, other than coin-operated self-service devices, from which any operator or customer dispenses unit servings in bulk may be exempted by the department from the requirements of subparagraphs (G), (M), and (O). The minimum standard shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(A) Provide that water-vending machines shall be in compliance with the construction and performance standards established by the department or by an independent authority approved by the department.

(B) Provide that all water-vending machines shall be designed and constructed to permit easy cleaning and maintenance of all exterior and interior surfaces.

(C) Provide that water-vending machines shall have all parts and surfaces which come into contact with the water constructed of approved, corrosive-resistant and nonabsorbent material capable of withstanding repeated cleaning and sanitizing treatment.

(D) Provide that water-vending machines shall have a recessed or guarded corrosion-resistant dispensing spout.

(E) Provide that water-vending machines be designed so all treatment of the vended water by distillation, ion exchange, filtration, ultraviolet light, reverse osmosis, mineral addition, or any other acceptable process is done in an effective manner.

(F) Provide that water-vending machines shall have an effective system of handling drip, spillage, and overflow of water.

(G) Provide that water-vending machines shall have a backflow prevention device approved by the department for all connections with the water supply

(H) Provide for disinfecting vended water by ultraviolet light or other method approved by the department prior to delivery into the customer's container.

(I) Provide that water-vending machines shall be equipped with monitoring devices designed to shut down operation of the machine when the disinfection unit fails to function.

(J) Provide that water-vending machines shall be equipped with a self-closing, tight-fitting door on the vending compartment.

(K) Provide that water-vending machines shall comply with the American Water Works Association (AWWA) specifications for granular activated carbon if used in the treatment of potable water (AWWA B604-74).

(L) Provide that water-vending machines shall be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition, free from dirt and vermin.

(M) Provide that water-vending machines shall be connected to a state approved and regulated public water supply.

(N) Provide that water-vending machines shall be located in an area that can be maintained in a clean condition and in a manner that avoids insect and rodent harborage.

(O) Provide that the water-vending machine shall be equipped with monitoring devices designed to shut down the labeled purified water delivery system if treatment of water by the machine does not result in a total dissolved solids content of less than 10 milligrams per liter in the purified water.

(5) Standards for labeling and advertising of bottled water, vended water, water distributed by a water hauler, water from a retail water treatment plant, and water from private water sources.

(6) Standards for processing bottled water through a line or lines used for any other food product.

(b) The department, upon the request of a local health officer, may authorize the local health officer to implement and enforce those provisons of this chapter which relate to water-vending machines, and retail water treatment plants under the terms and conditions specified by the department.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide for the extension of time for mineral water producers to comply with quality standards for bottled water at the earliest possible time, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 896

An act to add Section 484.1 to the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 484.1 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

484.1. (a) Any person who knowingly gives false information or provides false verification as to the person's true identity or as to the person's ownership interest in property or the person's authority to sell property in order to receive money or other valuable consideration from a pawnbroker or secondhand dealer and who receives money or other valuable consideration from the pawnbroker or secondhand dealer is guilty of theft.

(b) Upon conviction of the offense described in subdivision (a), the court may require, in addition to any sentence or fine imposed, that the defendant make restitution to the pawnbroker or secondhand dealer in an amount not exceeding the actual losses sustained pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (c) of Section 13967 of the Government Code, if the defendant is denied probation, or Section 1203.04 of the Penal Code, if the defendant is granted probation.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 897

An act to add Section 11320.61 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to aid to families with dependent children.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11320.61 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11320.61. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person who is not required to register under this article but who volunteers to participate in the program established by this article and fails to appear for a scheduled appointment prior to entering into the basic contract shall be deemed to not be subject to the requirements of this article and the conciliation efforts and sanction requirements established under Section 11320.6 shall not apply.

CHAPTER 898

An act to amend and repeal Section 11166.3 of the Penal Code, relating to minors.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11166.3 of the Penal Code, as amended and renumbered by Chapter 531 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

11166.3. (a) The Legislature intends that in each county the law enforcement agencies and the county welfare or social services department shall develop and implement cooperative arrangements in order to coordinate existing duties in connection with the investigation of suspected child abuse cases. The local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over a case reported under Section 11166 shall report to the county welfare department that it is investigating the case within 36 hours after starting its investigation. The county welfare department or social services department shall, in cases where a minor is a victim of actions specified in Section 288 of this code and a petition has been filed pursuant to Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code with regard to the minor, in accordance with the requirements of subdivision (c) of Section 288, evaluate what action or actions would be in the best interest of the child victim. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the county welfare department or social services department shall submit in writing its findings and the reasons therefor to the district attorney on or before the completion of the investigation. The written findings and the reasons therefor shall be delivered or made accessible to the defendant or his or her counsel in the manner specified in Sections 859 and 1430. The child protective agency shall send a copy of its investigative report and any other pertinent materials to the licensing agency upon the request of the licensing agency.

(b) The local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over a case reported under Section 11166 shall report to the district office of the State Department of Social Services any case reported under this section if the case involves a facility specified in paragraph (5) or (6) of Section 1502 or in Section 1596.750 or 1596.76 of the Health and Safety Code and the licensing of the facility has not been delegated to a county agency. The law enforcement agency shall send a copy of its investigation report and any other pertinent materials to the licensing agency upon the request of the licensing agency.

SEC. 2. Section 11166.3 of the Penal Code, as amended and renumbered by Chapter 1122 of the Statutes of 1986, is repealed.

CHAPTER 899

An act to amend Section 15200.7 of, and to add and repeal Section 15200.6 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to paternity, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15200.6 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

15200.6. (a) (1) The department shall provide payments to each county at a rate of ninety dollars ($90) per child for each paternity established pursuant to Section 11475.1. In no event shall payments made under this section exceed the amount annually appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Social Services under subdivision (a) of Section 15200.7.

(2) For purposes of this section the definition of "paternity established" shall be given a meaning consistent with the meaning of that term when used by the department for statistical reporting.

(b) (1) The State Department of Social Services shall, prior to June 30, 1991, study and report to the Legislature on the effect of the incentive payment provided by this section upon paternity establishment efforts by the counties as well as review child support enforcement incentive provisions in existing law.

(2) The department shall also make recommendations as to needed revisions to, or extension of, the effective period of this section and make similar recommendations with regard to this section and other existing child support enforcement incentive sections as to whether there exist other or more effective means of providing counties with child support enforcement incentives.

(c) This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 15200.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

15200.7. (a) In addition to funds appropriated pursuant to Sections 15200.1 and 15200.2, there is hereby annually appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Social Services, beginning in fiscal year 1984–85, and based on the increase in fiscal year 1983–84 Aid to Families with Dependent Children child support collections above Aid to Families with Dependent Children child support collections in fiscal year 1982–83, a sum equal to 50 percent of the state's share of those increased collections. The sum shall be computed after payment of the incentive pursuant to Sections 15200.1 and 15200.2 has been taken out of the state share. The sum to be appropriated shall be computed in a similar manner annually thereafter.

(b) The sum appropriated pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be allocated by the department to each county which increased its collections and shall be based on each county's percentage of the total increased collections in those counties.

(c) Subdivision (b) shall be inoperative from January 1, 1989, until June 30, 1991.

(d) For the period of January 1, 1989, to June 30, 1991, inclusive, funds appropriated pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be allocated by the department to each county pursuant to Section 15200.6.

CHAPTER 900

An act to amend Section 1785.13 of, to amend and repeal Section 4751 of, and to add Sections 4709 and 4752 to, the Civil Code, and to amend Section 683.160 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to civil law.

[Approved by Governor September 12, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1785.13 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1785.13. (a) Except as authorized under subdivision (b) no consumer credit reporting agency shall make any consumer credit report containing any of the following items of information:

(1) Bankruptcies which, from the date of adjudication, antedate the report by more than 14 years.

(2) Suits and judgments which, from the date of entry, antedate the report by more than seven years or until the governing statute of limitations has expired, whichever is the longer period.

(3) Unlawful detainer actions where the person against whom the action was filed was adjudged the prevailing party.

(4) Paid tax liens which, from the date of payment, antedate the report by more than seven years.

(5) Accounts placed for collection or charged to profit and loss which antedate the report by more than seven years.

(6) Records of arrest, indictment, information, misdemeanor complaint, or conviction of a crime which, from the date of disposition, release, or parole, antedate the report by more than seven years. Such items of information shall no longer be reported if at any time it is learned that in the case of a conviction a full pardon has been granted, or in the case of an arrest, indictment, information, or misdemeanor complaint a conviction did not result.

(7) Any other adverse information which antedates the report by more than seven years.

(b) The provisions of subdivision (a) are not applicable in the case of any consumer credit report to be used in the following transactions:

(1) A credit transaction involving, or which may reasonably be expected to involve, a principal amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more.

(2) The underwriting of life insurance, involving or which may reasonably be expected to involve, an amount of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or more.

(3) The employment of any individual at an annual salary which equals, or may reasonably be expected to equal, thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) or more.

(4) The rental of a dwelling unit which exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000) per month.

SEC. 2. Section 4709 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4709. A court may require a parent who alleges that his or her default in an order issued pursuant to this title is due to his or her unemployment to submit to the appropriate child support enforcement agency or any other entity designated by the court, including, but not limited to, the court itself, each two weeks, or at a frequency deemed appropriate by the court, a list of at least five different places he or she has applied for employment.

SEC. 3. Section 4751 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4751. The Legislature finds and declares that in order to comply with Section 466(a)(7) of the Social Security Act, the State Department of Social Services shall implement procedures which provide that information regarding an amount of past due child support owed by an absent parent residing in this state shall be made available to any consumer reporting agency (as defined in Section 603(f)) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. Sec. 1681 a(f)) upon the request of that agency; except that (a) if the amount of the past-due support involved in any case is less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), information regarding the amount shall be made available only at the option of the department, (b) any information with respect to an absent parent shall be made available under these procedures only after the parent has been notified of the proposed action and given a reasonable opportunity to contest the accuracy of the information, (and after full compliance with all procedural due process requirements contained in the laws of this state), and (c) a fee for furnishing the information, in an amount not exceeding the actual cost thereof, may be imposed on the requesting agency by the department.

This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1990, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 4752 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4752. (a) By July 1, 1990, the State Department of Social Services shall design and develop a statewide automated system for the reporting of court-ordered support obligations to credit reporting agencies.

The department shall design and develop standards for the system in conjunction with representatives of the California Family Support Council and the credit reporting industry. These standards shall be consistent with credit reporting industry standards and reporting format and with the department's statewide central automated system for support enforcement.

(b) The standards shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Court-ordered support obligations and delinquent payments, including amounts owed and by whom. The California district attorneys, on a monthly basis, shall update this information, and then submit it to the department which, in turn, shall consolidate and transmit it to the credit reporting agencies.

(2) Prior to the initial reporting of a court-ordered support obligation or a delinquent payment, the district attorney shall attempt to notify the obligor parent of the proposed action and give 30 days to contest in writing the accuracy of the information, or to pay the arrearage, if any, in compliance with the due process requirements of the laws of this state. Neither the department, nor the district attorneys shall be liable for any consequences of the failure of a parent to contest the accuracy of the information within the time period.

(c) The department and the district attorneys shall be responsible for the accuracy of information provided pursuant to this section, and the information shall be based upon the data available at the time the information is provided. Each of these organizations and the credit reporting agencies shall follow reasonable procedures to ensure maximum possible accuracy of the information provided.

(d) Prior to July 1, 1990, each district attorney may implement systems for reporting all obligors to credit reporting agencies in accordance with the credit reporting agencies' standards.

SEC. 5. Section 683.160 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

683.160. (a) The judgment creditor shall serve a notice of renewal of the judgment on the judgment debtor. Service shall be made personally or by first-class mail and proof of service shall be filed with the court clerk. The notice shall be in a form prescribed by the Judicial Council and shall inform the judgment debtor that the judgment debtor has 30 days within which to make a motion to vacate or modify the renewal.

(b) Until proof of service is filed pursuant to subdivision (a), no writ may be issued, nor may any enforcement proceedings be commenced to enforce the judgment, except to the extent that the judgment would be enforceable had it not been renewed.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

CHAPTER 901

An act to amend Sections 19405 and 25962 of, and to add Sections 19133 and 25782 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 13, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19133 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

19133. (a) (1) The executive officer or chief counsel, if authorized by the executive officer, of the Franchise Tax Board may recommend to the Franchise Tax Board, itself, a settlement of any civil tax matter disputes.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board itself, shall not participate in the settlement of these tax matters, except as provided in subdivision (c).

(b) Whenever a recommendation for settlement involves a reduction of tax in excess of five hundred dollars ($500) is made pursuant to this section, there shall be placed on file in the office of the executive officer of the Franchise Tax Board a statement with respect to that settlement by the executive officer or the chief counsel of the Franchise Tax Board, if so authorized by the executive officer. The statement shall include, but need not be limited to, all of the following information:

(1) The name or names of the parties.

(2) The total amount involved.

(3) The amount actually paid or refunded.

(4) A summary of the reasons why the settlement is in the best interests of the State of California.

(c) (1) Any recommendation for settlement shall be approved or disapproved by the Franchise Tax Board, itself.

(2) Any recommendation for settlement involving a combined reduction in tax, interest, additions to tax, or penalties in excess of five thousand dollars ($5,000) shall be approved only at a public meeting and shall require a disclosure of the legal and factual basis supporting a finding that the settlement is in the best interests of the state. Section 19282 shall not apply to any disclosures required to be made at this public meeting.

(3) Upon approval or disapproval of the recommendation for settlement, the matter shall be referred back to the executive officer or chief counsel of the Franchise Tax Board for ordinary processing in accordance with the decision of the members of the Franchise Tax Board, itself.

(d) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), a settlement made pursuant to this section constitutes confidential tax information for the purpose of Article 2 (commencing with Section 19281) of Chapter 21.

(e) This section shall apply to tax liabilities relating to returns required to be filed on or after April 15, 1989.

SEC. 2. Section 19405 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19405. (a) Any person who—

(1) Willfully makes and subscribes any return, statement, or other document, which contains or is verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury, and which he does not believe to be true and correct as to every material matter,

(2) Willfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, or advises the preparation or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising under, the Personal Income Tax Law, of a return, affidavit, claim, or other document, which is fraudulent or is false as to any material matter, whether or not that falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present that return, affidavit, claim, or document,

(3) Simulates or falsely or fraudulently executes or signs any bond, permit, entry, or other document required by the provisions of the Personal Income Tax Law, or by any regulation made in pursuance thereof, or procures the same to be falsely or fraudulently executed or advises, aids in, or connives at that execution thereof,

(4) Removes, deposits, or conceals, or is concerned in removing, depositing, or concealing, any goods or commodities for or in respect whereof any tax is or shall be imposed, or any property upon which levy is authorized by Chapter 19 (commencing with Section 18801) of this part; or Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 706.010) of Division 2 of, and Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 688.010) of Division 1 of, Title 9 of the Code of Civil Procedure, with intent to evade or defeat the assessment or collection of any tax imposed by this part, or

(5) In connection with any settlement under Section 19133, or offer of that settlement, or in connection with any closing agreement under Section 19132 or offer to enter into any such agreement, willfully does any of the following:

(A) Conceals from any officer or employee of this state any property belonging to the estate of a taxpayer or other person liable in respect of the tax.

(B) Receives, withholds, destroys, mutilates, or falsifies any book, document, or record, or makes any false statement, relating to the estate or financial condition of the taxpayer or other person liable in respect of the tax, shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or imprisoned not more than three years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

(b) The fact that an individual's name is signed to a return, statement, or other document filed shall be prima facie evidence for all purposes that the return, statement, or other document was actually signed by him or her.

SEC. 3. Section 25782 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

25782. (a) (1) The executive officer or chief counsel, if authorized by the executive officer, of the Franchise Tax Board may recommend to the Franchise Tax Board, itself, a settlement of any civil tax matter dispute.

(2) The members of the Franchise Tax Board shall not participate in the compromise of these tax matters, except as provided in subdivision (c).

(b) Whenever a recommendation for settlement involves a reduction of tax in excess of five hundred dollars ($500) is made pursuant to this section, there shall be placed on file in the office of the executive officer of the Franchise Tax Board a statement with respect to that settlement by the executive officer or the chief counsel of the Franchise Tax Board, if so authorized by the executive officer. The statement shall include, but need not be limited to, all of the following information:

(1) The name or names of the parties.

(2) The total amount involved.

(3) The amount actually paid or refunded.

(4) A summary of the reasons why the settlement is in the best interests of the State of California.

(c) (1) Any recommendation for settlement shall be approved or disapproved by the Franchise Tax Board, itself.

(2) Any recommendation for settlement involving a combined reduction in tax, interest, additions to tax, or penalties in excess of five thousand dollars ($5,000) shall be approved only at a public meeting and shall require a disclosure of the legal and factual basis supporting a finding that the settlement is in the best interests of the state. Section 26451 shall not apply to any disclosures required to be made at this public meeting.

(3) Upon approval or disapproval of the recommendation for settlement, the matter shall be referred back to the executive officer or chief counsel of the Franchise Tax Board for ordinary processing in accordance with the decision of the Franchise Tax Board, itself.

(d) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), a settlement made pursuant to this section constitutes confidential tax information for the purpose of Article 2 (commencing with Section 26451) of Chapter 24.

(e) This section shall apply to tax liabilities relating to returns required to be filed on or after March 15, 1989.

SEC. 4. Section 25962 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25962. (a) Any person who—

believe to be true and correct as to every material matter,

(2) Willfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, or advises the preparation or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising under, the Bank and Corporation Tax Law, of a return, affidavit, claim or other document, which is fraudulent or is false as to any material matter, whether or not that falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present that return, affidavit, claim, or document,

(3) Simulates or falsely or fraudulently executes or signs any bond, permit, entry, or other document required by the provisions of the Bank and Corporation Tax Law, or by any regulation made in pursuance thereof, or procures the same to be falsely or fraudulently executed or advises, aids in, or connives at that execution thereof,

(4) Removes, deposits, or conceals, or is concerned in removing, depositing, or concealing, any goods or commodities for or in respect whereof any tax is or shall be imposed, or any property upon which levy is authorized by Chapter 23 (commencing with Section 26131) of this part, with intent to evade or defeat the assessment or collection of any tax imposed by this part, or

(5) In connection with any settlement under Section 25782, or offer of that settlement, or in connection with any closing agreement under Section 25781 or offer to enter into any such agreement, willfully does any of the following:

(A) Conceals from any officer or employee of this state any property belonging to the estate of a taxpayer or other person liable in respect of the tax.

(B) Receives, withholds, destroys, mutilates, or falsifies any book, document, or record, or makes any false statement, relating to the estate or financial condition of the taxpayer or other person liable in respect of the tax, shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more that one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or imprisoned not more than three years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

(b) The fact that an individual's name is signed to a return, statement, or other document filed shall be prima facie evidence for all purposes that the return, statement, or other document was actually signed by him or her.

SEC. 5. Part 301.7122-1 of Title 26 of the Code of Federal Regulations (relating to compromises), as that part existed as of July 1, 1988, shall be applicable to the extent not in conflict with Sections 1 and 3 of this act with due account for differences in federal and state terminology and other obvious differences.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 902

An act to amend Section 22308 of the Education Code, and to amend Section 20206.5 of the Government Code, relating to public retirement systems.

[Approved by Governor September 13, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22308 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22308. The annual report of the board required under Section 22218 shall include a description of all securities held and a comprehensive report of transactions involving the investment of the retirement fund similar to that required of a life insurance company licensed to do business in California.

In the matter of stock exchange commission fees and other fees paid to persons not employed by the state for services in connection with investments under this chapter, the names of those persons to whom those fees are paid and the amounts paid shall be clearly identified in the report

The board shall also submit by November 1 of each year to the Assembly and the Senate, a report of the unaudited data compiled for the preparation of the report required by this section.

SEC. 2. Section 20206.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20206.5. The annual report of the board required under Section 20232 shall include a description of all securities held and a comprehensive report of transactions involving the investment of the retirement fund similar to that required of a life insurance company licensed to do business in California.

The annual report shall also include a detailed statement of the expenses of operating the retirement fund, including compensation paid, fees paid, operating ratios, and net profit and loss statements, including the acquisition cost, the book value, and market value of the total fund as of the date of the report.

In the matter of commission fees and other fees paid to persons not employed by the state for services in connection with investments under this article, the names of those persons to whom those fees are paid and the amounts paid shall be clearly identified in the report.

The board shall also submit by November 1 of each year to the Assembly and the Senate, a report of the unaudited data compiled for the preparation of the report required by this section.

CHAPTER 903

An act to amend Section 800 of the Government Code, relating to administrative proceedings.

[Approved by Governor September 13, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 800 of the Government Code is amended to read:

800. In any civil action to appeal or review the award, finding, or other determination of any administrative proceeding under this code or under any other provision of state law, except actions resulting from actions of the State Board of Control, where it is shown that the award, finding, or other determination of the proceeding was the result of arbitrary or capricious action or conduct by a public entity or an officer thereof in his or her official capacity, the complainant if he or she prevails in the civil action may collect reasonable attorney's fees, computed at one hundred dollars ($100) per hour, but not to exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500), where he or she is personally obligated to pay the fees, from the public entity, in addition to any other relief granted or other costs awarded.

This section is ancillary only, and shall not be construed to create a new cause of action.

Refusal by a public entity or officer thereof to admit liability pursuant to a contract of insurance shall not be considered arbitrary or capricious action or conduct within the meaning of this section.

CHAPTER 904

An act to amend Section 6366.4 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 13, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6366.4 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6366.4. (a) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use or other consumption in this state of tangible personal property purchased by a nonprofit museum regularly open to the public which is operated by or for a local or state government entity, or operated by a nonprofit organization which has qualified for exemption pursuant to Section 23701d, provided the property is purchased and used exclusively for display purposes within the museum.

(b) The exemption provided by this section extends only to items which have value as museum pieces and does not extend to display cases, shelving, lamps, lighting fixtures, or other items of tangible personal property utilized in the operation of a museum.

(c) For purposes of this section, a "museum" includes only any of the following:

(1) A museum which has a significant portion of its space open to the public without charge.

(2) A museum open to the public without charge for not less than six hours during any month the museum is open to the public.

(3) A museum which is open to a segment of the student or adult population without charge.

(d) This section applies only to the San Diego Aero-Space Museum and the California Museum of Science and Industry.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 3. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 90 days after the effective date of this act.

CHAPTER 905

An act to add Section 6403 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 13, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6403 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6403. The storage, use, or other consumption in this state of property donated by any retailer to any organization described in Section 170(b) (1) (A) of the Internal Revenue Code and located in California, is exempt from the use tax.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 3. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 90 days after the effective date of this act.

CHAPTER 906

An act to amend Sections 19815 and 19883 of, and to add Section 22825.3 to, the Government Code, relating to state employees, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 14, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19815 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19815. As used in this part:

(a) "Department" means the Department of Personnel Administration.

(b) "Director" means the Director of the Department of Personnel Administration.

(c) "Division" means the Division of Labor Relations.

(d) "Employee" or "state employee," except where otherwise indicated, means employees subject to the State Employer-Employee Relations Act (Chapter 10.3 (commencing with Section 3512), Division 4, Title 1), supervisory employees as defined in Section 3522.1, managerial employees as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 3513, confidential employees as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 3513, employees of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, employees of the Public Employment Relations Board, employees of the California Maritime Academy, conciliators employed by the State Conciliation Service within the Department of Industrial Relations, employees of the Department of Personnel Administration, professional employees of the Department of Finance engaged in technical or analytical state budget preparation other than audit staff, intermittent athletic inspectors who are employees of the State Athletic Commission, professional employees in the Personnel/Payroll Services Division of the Controller's office and all employees of the executive branch of government who are not elected to office.

SEC. 2. Section 19883 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19883. (a) Discretionary deductions of the employee, including those for coverage under a state health benefits plan in which the employee is enrolled, shall be deducted from the disability benefits under this article unless canceled by the employee. If an employee deduction under a state health benefits plan is continued, the state employer contribution shall also continue.

An employee shall not receive service credit under the Public Employees' Retirement System or the State Teachers' Retirement System during the period of receipt of disability benefits under this article and contributions to the Public Employees' Retirement System or the State Teachers' Retirement System shall not be deducted. State employer contributions shall also not be made to either system during such period.

An employee shall not accrue sick leave or vacation credit or service credit for any other purpose during the period of receipt of disability benefits under this article, except, when provided by a rule or regulation adopted by the department, an employee receiving nonindustrial disability insurance benefits pursuant to Section 19879.1 may accrue these credits to the extent that annual leave or sick leave credits are used to supplement nonindustrial disability insurance benefits.

(b) If the provisions of this section are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Section 3517.5, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if such provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 3. Section 22825.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

22825.3. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 22825, 22825.1, and 22825.2, state employees who become state members after January 1, 1989, and who are members in state bargaining units for which a memorandum of understanding to become subject to this section has been agreed to by the state employer and the recognized employee organization shall not receive any portion of the employer's contribution payable for annuitants, pursuant to Section 22825.1, unless these employees are credited with 10 years of state service as defined by this section, at the time of retirement

(b) The percentage of employer contribution payable for postretirement health benefits for an employee subject to this section shall be based on the member's completed years of credited state service at retirement as shown in the following table:

Credited Years of Service	Percentage of Employer Contribution
10	50
11	55
12	60
13	65
14	70
15	75

16	80
17	85
18	90
19	95
20 or more	100

(c) This section shall apply only to state employees who retire for service.

(d) Benefits provided to an employee subject to this section shall be applicable to all future state service.

(e) For the purposes of this section, "state service" shall mean service rendered as an employee or an appointed or elected officer of the state for compensation.

(f) This section shall not apply to employees of the California State University.

SEC. 4. The provisions of the following memoranda of understanding prepared pursuant to Section 3517.5 of the Government Code and entered into by the state employer and the following employee organizations on the dates listed below, which require the expenditure of funds, are hereby approved for the purposes of Section 3517.6 of the Government Code:

(a) Unit 4 - California State Employees' Association dated August 30, 1988.

(b) Unit 7 - California Union of Safety Employees dated August 30, 1988.

(c) Unit 11 - California State Employees' Association dated August 30, 1988.

(d) Unit 14 - California State Employees' Association dated August 30, 1988.

(e) Unit 15 - California State Employees' Association dated August 30, 1988.

(f) Unit 19 - American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees dated August 31, 1988.

(g) Unit 20 - California State Employees' Association dated August 30, 1988.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 3517.6 of the Government Code, the provisions of any memorandum of understanding that require the expenditure of funds shall become effective even if the provisions of the memorandum of understanding are approved by the Legislature in legislation other than the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the provisions of this act to be applicable as soon as possible in the 1988–89 fiscal year, and so facilitate the orderly administration of state government at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

SEC. 7. Any provision in a memorandum of understanding approved by any section in this act and Assembly Bill No. 2599 which is scheduled to take effect on or after July 1, 1988, and which requires the expenditure of funds, shall not take effect unless funds for these provisions are specifically appropriated by the Legislature. In the event that funds for these provisions are not specifically appropriated by the Legislature, all or any part of any such memorandum of understanding may be declared null and void by any affected employee organization.

CHAPTER 907

An act to amend Section 9252 of, and to add Sections 9711, 29009, and 34507.5 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9252 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

9252. (a) In addition to the registration fee specified in Section 9250 and any weight fee, there shall be paid a service fee of ten dollars ($10) for the registration within this state of every vehicle purchased new outside this state or previously registered outside this state. If the vehicle has been registered and operated in this state during the same registration year in which application for registration is made, a fee of six dollars ($6) shall be paid.

(b) This section does not apply to vehicles registered as fleet vehicles under Article 5 (commencing with Section 8150) of Chapter 4, except upon application for a certificate of ownership.

SEC. 2. Section 9711 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

9711. This article does not apply to any owner or lessor of a commercial vehicle based in a foreign jurisdiction which does not grant reciprocity or proportionate registration to residents of this state while operating within that jurisdiction.

SEC. 3. Section 29009 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

29009. The requirements of Section 29004 do not apply to a dolly used to support a portion of special construction equipment, as defined in Section 565, which, due to its size or weight is being operated under the authority of a permit issued by the Department of Transportation, if the dolly is secured to the construction equipment, and the construction equipment is secured to the towing vehicle, by chain, cable, or equivalent devices of sufficient strength to control the construction equipment and dolly.

SEC. 4. Section 34507.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

34507.5. (a) Every motor carrier shall obtain a carrier identification number from the department. Application for a carrier identification number shall be on forms furnished by the department. Information provided in connection with applications for carrier identification numbers shall be updated by motor carriers upon request from the department.

(b) (1) The carrier identification number shall be displayed on both sides of each vehicle set forth in Section 34500, or on both sides of at least one motor vehicle in each combination of vehicles.

(2) The display of the carrier identification number shall be in sharp contrast to the background, and shall be of such size, shape, and color as to be readily legible during daylight hours from a distance of 50 feet.

(3) The carrier identification number shall be removed before sale, transfer, or other disposal of the vehicle.

(c) This section does not apply to vehicles which are regulated by, and which display a valid operating authority or identification number assigned by, the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Public Utilities Commission, or the United States Department of Transportation.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 908

An act to add Sections 12649 and 12674 to, and to repeal and add Section 12648 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect imediately.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12648 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 12648 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

12648. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, a site within this state that has been treated with, or a plant, crop, or commodity, whether grown in this state or elsewhere, that has been treated with, or grown on a site treated with, an economic poison that is not registered for use on that plant, crop, commodity, or site is a public nuisance and may be seized by order of the director.

(b) The unlawful treatment described in subdivision (a) creates, in favor of the director, rebuttable presumptions affecting the burden of producing evidence pursuant to Section 604 of the Evidence Code (1) that the treated plant, crop, commodity, or site, or any plant, crop, or commodity grown on the treated site, presents a hazard to human health or the environment, and (2) that the economic poison was used to gain an unfair business advantage for the owner or person in possession or control of the plant, crop, commodity, or site.

(c) The director shall provide notice to the owner or person in possession or control of the plant, crop, commodity, or site prior to seizure, unless the director has reason to believe that prior notice would result in the director's loss of control of that plant, crop, commodity, or site, in which case, notice shall be given as soon as practical, but, in any event within five days of the seizure. The notice shall specify the grounds for the seizure and provide that the owner or person in possession or control, within 15 days of receipt of the notice, may request a hearing before the director to contest the seizure or rebut the presumptions specified in subdivision (b). The hearing shall be held not later than five days from the date the owner or person's request is received by the director. The director shall render a written decision within five days of the hearing or within five days of the expiration of the time to request a hearing if no hearing was requested. The decision shall either release the plant, crop, commodity, or site from seizure or make any of the following orders:

(1) Destruction of the plant, crop, or commodity.

(2) Prohibition of harvest or sale of the plant, crop, or commodity grown on the site.

(3) Prohibition of the use or planting of the site, which may be for the period of any plant back time specified for the economic poison used on the site.

(4) Any other appropriate action or measure.

(d) Review of the decision of the director may be sought by the owner or person in possession or control of the plant, crop, commodity, or site pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 3. Section 12649 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

12649. The director may bring an action to enjoin the violation or the threatened violation of any order made pursuant to Section 12648 in the superior court in the county in which the order was issued or the violation has occurred or is threatening to occur. The court may enjoin the violation or threatened violation upon this showing and without evidence of irreparable injury. The court may compel specific performance of any acts or course of conduct necessary to implement any order made pursuant to Section 12648.

SEC. 4. Section 12674 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

12674. It is unlawful for any person to harvest, pack, ship, sell, transport, destroy, or dispose of any plant, crop, or commodity which has been seized pursuant to Section 12648, except in accordance with the decision of the director issued pursuant to Section 12648, unless the person otherwise has received written permission from the director.

SEC. 5. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The proper, safe, and legal use of pesticides is essential for the production of food and fiber and for the protection of the public health and safety.

(b) The illegal use of pesticides on plants, crops, commodities, or sites not included in the pesticide's registered labeling can pose a serious threat to the environment and to the public health and can cause serious market disruption because of loss of consumer confidence.

(c) When a plant, crop, commodity, or site has received an illegal pesticide application, laboratory analysis cannot always guarantee that every individual fruit or vegetable within the plant, crop, commodity, or site is free of illegal pesticide and metabolite residues.

(d) Because harvest of a crop may occur very rapidly after the discovery of an illegal pesticide application, and once harvested the individual crop is difficult to trace in the wholesale and retail markets, immediate action may be necessary to ensure that produce with illegal residues does not reach the marketplace.

(e) Illegal pesticide applications are often made to gain an unfair advantage in the market, and it is unjust that those who illegally use pesticides should profit by planting or using the illegally treated site or harvesting, selling, and marketing the plant, crop, or commodity.

(f) It is necessary, because of the foregoing, to provide the Director of Food and Agriculture with the authority to seize plants, crops, commodities, or sites which have received illegal pesticide applications and order destruction of the plants, crops, or commodities.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to enable the Director of Food and Agriculture to better safeguard the public's health in the production and consumption of raw agricultural products from the unlawful use of pesticides in this state during the 1988 growing season, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 909

An act to amend Section 313.1 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 313.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

313.1. (a) Every person who, with knowledge that a person is a minor, or who fails to exercise reasonable care in ascertaining the true age of a minor, knowingly distributes, sends, causes to be sent, exhibits, or offers to distribute or exhibit any harmful matter to the minor is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) Every person who misrepresents himself to be the parent or guardian of a minor and thereby causes the minor to be admitted to an exhibition of any harmful matter is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(c) Any person who knowingly displays, sells, or offers to sell in any coin- or slug-operated vending machine or mechanically or electronically controlled vending machine which is located in a public place, other than a public place from which minors are excluded, any harmful matter displaying to the public view photographs or pictorial representations of the commission of any of the following acts is guilty of a misdemeanor: sodomy, oral copulation, sexual intercourse, masturbation, bestiality, or a photograph of an exposed penis in an erect and turgid state.

(d) Nothing in this section invalidates or prohibits the adoption of an ordinance by a city, county, or city and county which restricts the display of material which is harmful to minors, as defined in this chapter, in a public place, other than a public place from which minors are excluded, by requiring the placement of devices commonly known as blinder racks in front of the material, so that the lower two-thirds of the material is not exposed to view.

SEC. 2. Section 313.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

313.1. (a) Every person who, with knowledge that a person is a minor, or who fails to exercise reasonable care in ascertaining the true age of a minor, knowingly distributes, sends, causes to be sent, exhibits, or offers to distribute or exhibit by any means, including, but not limited to, live or recorded telephone messages, any harmful matter to the minor is guilty of a misdemeanor.

It does not constitute a violation of this section for a telephone corporation, as defined by Section 234 of the Public Utilities Code, to carry or transmit messages described in this chapter or perform related activities in providing telephone services.

(b) Every person who misrepresents himself to be the parent or guardian of a minor and thereby causes the minor to be admitted to an exhibition of any harmful matter is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(c) Any person who knowingly displays, sells, or offers to sell in any coin- or slug-operated vending machine or mechanically or electronically controlled vending machine which is located in a public place, other than a public place from which minors are excluded, any harmful matter displaying to the public view photographs or pictorial representations of the commission of any of the following acts is guilty of a misdemeanor: sodomy, oral copulation, sexual intercourse, masturbation, bestiality, or a photograph of an exposed penis in an erect and turgid state.

(d) Nothing in this section invalidates or prohibits the adoption of an ordinance by a city, county, or city and county which restricts the display of material which is harmful to minors, as defined in this chapter, in a public place, other than a public place from which minors are excluded, by requiring the placement of devices commonly known as blinder racks in front of the material, so that the lower two-thirds of the material is not exposed to view.

(e) It shall be a defense in any prosecution for a violation of subdivision (a) by a person who knowingly distributed any harmful matter by the use of telephones or telephone facilities to any person under the age of 18 years that the defendant has taken either of the following measures to restrict access to the harmful matter by persons under 18 years of age:

(1) Required the person receiving the harmful matter to use an authorized access or identification code, as provided by the information provider, before transmission of the harmful matter begins, where the defendant has previously issued the code by mailing it to the applicant after taking reasonable measures to ascertain that the applicant was 18 years of age or older and has established a procedure to immediately cancel the code of any person after receiving notice, in writing or by telephone, that the code has been lost, stolen, or used by persons under the age of 18 years or that the code is no longer desired.

(2) Required payment by credit card before transmission of the matter.

(f) Any list of applicants or recipients compiled or maintained by an information-access service provider for purposes of compliance with paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) is confidential and shall not be sold or otherwise disseminated except upon order of the court.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 313.1 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3568. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 313.1 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3568, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 910

An act to amend Sections 65863.7 and 65863.8 of the Government Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65863.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65863.7. (a) Prior to the conversion of a mobilehome park to another use, except pursuant to the Subdivision Map Act (Division 2 (commencing with Section 66410) of Title 7), or prior to closure of a mobilehome park or cessation of use of the land as a mobilehome park, the person or entity proposing the change in use shall file a report on the impact of the conversion, closure, or cessation of use upon the displaced residents of the mobilehome park to be converted or closed. In determining the impact of the conversion, closure, or cessation of use on displaced mobilehome park residents, the report shall address the availability of adequate replacement housing in mobilehome parks and relocation costs.

(c) When the impact report is filed prior to the closure or cessation of use, the person or entity proposing the change shall provide a copy of the report to a resident of each mobilehome in the mobilehome park at the same time as the notice of the change is provided to the residents pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 798.56 of the Civil Code.

(d) When the impact report is filed prior to the closure or cessation of use, the person or entity filing the report or park resident may request, and shall have a right to, a hearing before the legislative body on the sufficiency of the report.

(e) The legislative body, or its delegated advisory agency, shall review the report, prior to any change of use, and may require, as a condition of the change, the person or entity to take steps to mitigate any adverse impact of the conversion, closure, or cessation of use on the ability of displaced mobilehome park residents to find adequate housing in a mobilehome park. The steps required to be taken to mitigate shall not exceed the reasonable costs of relocation.

(f) If the closure or cessation of use of a mobilehome park results from an adjudication of bankruptcy, the provisions of this section shall not be applicable.

(g) The legislative body may establish reasonable fees pursuant to Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 54990) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 to cover any costs incurred by the local agency in implementing this section and Section 65863.8. Those fees shall be paid by the person or entity proposing the change in use.

(h) This section is applicable to charter cities.

SEC. 2. Section 65863.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65863.7. (a) Prior to the conversion of a mobilehome park to another use, except pursuant to the Subdivision Map Act (Division 2 (commencing with Section 66410) of Title 7), or prior to closure of a mobilehome park or cessation of use of the land as a mobilehome park, the person or entity proposing the change in use shall file a report on the impact of the conversion, closure, or cessation of use upon the displaced residents of the mobilehome park to be converted or closed. In determining the impact of the conversion, closure, or cessation of use on displaced mobilehome park residents, the report shall address the availability of adequate replacement housing in mobilehome parks and relocation costs.

(b) The person proposing the change in use shall provide a copy of the report to a resident of each mobilehome in the mobilehome park at least 15 days prior to the hearing, if any, on the impact report by the advisory agency, or if there is no advisory agency, by the legislative body.

(c) When the impact report is filed prior to the closure or cessation of use, the person or entity proposing the change shall provide a copy of the report to a resident of each mobilehome in the mobilehome park at the same time as the notice of the change is provided to the residents pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 798.56 of the Civil Code.

(d) When the impact report is filed prior to the closure or cessation of use, the person or entity filing the report or park resident may request, and shall have a right to, a hearing before the legislative body on the sufficiency of the report.

(e) The legislative body, or its delegated advisory agency, shall review the report, prior to any change of use, and may require, as a condition of the change, the person or entity to take steps to mitigate any adverse impact of the conversion, closure, or cessation of use on the ability of displaced mobilehome park residents to find adequate housing in a mobilehome park. The steps required to be taken to mitigate shall not exceed the reasonable costs of relocation.

(f) If the closure or cessation of use of a mobilehome park results from an adjudication of bankruptcy, the provisions of this section shall not be applicable.

(g) The legislative body may establish reasonable fees pursuant to Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 54990) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 to cover any costs incurred by the local agency in implementing this section and Section 65863.8. Those fees shall be paid by the person or entity proposing the change in use.

(h) This section is applicable to charter cities.

(i) This section is applicable when the closure, cessation, or change of use is the result of a decision by a local governmental entity or planning agency not to renew a conditional use permit or zoning variance under which the mobilehome park has operated, or as a result of any other zoning or planning decision, action, or inaction. In this case, the local governmental agency is the person proposing the change in use for the purposes of preparing the impact report required by this section and is required to take steps to mitigate the adverse impact of the change as may be required in subdivision (e).

SEC. 3. Section 65863.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65863.8. A local agency to which application has been made for the conversion of a mobilehome park to another use shall, at least 30 days prior to a hearing or any other action on the application, inform the applicant in writing of the provisions of Section 798.56 of the Civil Code and all applicable local requirements which impose upon the applicant a duty to notify residents and mobilehome owners of the mobilehome park of the proposed change in use, and shall specify therein the manner in which the applicant shall verify that residents and mobilehome owners of the mobilehome park have been notified of the proposed change in use. Neither a hearing on the application, nor any other action thereon, shall be taken by the local agency before the applicant has satisfactorily verified that the residents and mobilehome owners have been so notified, in the manner prescribed by law or local regulation.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 65863.7 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3085. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 65863.7 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3085, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 911

An act to amend Sections 246 and 247 of the Penal Code, relating to crime, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 246 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

246. Any person who shall maliciously and willfully discharge a firearm at an inhabited dwelling house, occupied building, occupied motor vehicle, occupied aircraft, inhabited housecar, as defined in Section 362 of the Vehicle Code, or inhabited camper, as defined in Section 243 of the Vehicle Code, is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for three, five, or seven years, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not less than six months and not exceeding one year.

As used in this section, "inhabited" means currently being used for dwelling purposes, whether occupied or not.

SEC. 2. Section 247 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

247. (a) Any person who willfully and maliciously discharges a firearm at an unoccupied aircraft is guilty of a felony.

(b) Any person who discharges a firearm at an unoccupied motor vehicle or an uninhabited building or dwelling house is guilty of a public offense punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or in the state prison. This subdivision does not apply to shooting at an abandoned vehicle, unoccupied vehicle, uninhabited building, or dwelling house with the permission of the owner.

As used in this section and Section 246 "aircraft" means any contrivance intended for and capable of transporting persons through the airspace.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to make the malicious and willful discharge of a firearm at an occupied aircraft a misdemeanor or felony offense and in order to make it a misdemeanor to discharge a firearm at uninhabited buildings and dwelling houses at the earliest possible time, thereby minimizing damage to real and personal property and the possibility of great bodily injury and death, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 912

An act to amend, and amend and renumber, Section 53077.5 of the Government Code, relating to development fees.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53077.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53077.5. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), any local agency which imposes any fees or charges on a residential development for the construction of public improvements or facilities shall not require the payment of those fees or charges, notwithstanding any other provision of law, until the date of the final inspection, or the date the certificate of occupancy is issued, whichever occurs first, provided, that utility service fees may be collected at the time an application for utility service is received. If the residential development contains more than one dwelling, the local agency may determine whether the fees or charges shall be paid on a pro rata basis for each dwelling when it receives its final inspection or certificate of occupancy, whichever occurs first; on a pro rata basis when a certain percentage of the dwellings have received their final inspection or certificate of occupancy, whichever occurs first; or on a lump-sum basis when the first dwelling in the development receives its final inspection or certificate of occupancy, whichever occurs first.

(c) (1) If any fee or charge specified in subdivision (a) is not fully paid prior to issuance of a building permit for construction of any portion of the residential development encumbered thereby, the local agency issuing the building permit may require the applicant, as a condition of issuance of the building permit, to execute a contract to pay the fee or charge, or applicable portion thereof, within the time specified in subdivision (a). If the fee or charge is prorated pursuant to subdivision (a), the obligation under the contract shall be similarly prorated.

(2) The obligation to pay the fee or charge shall inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the local agency that imposed the fee or charge, regardless of whether it is a party to the contract. The contract shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county and, from the date of recordation, shall constitute a lien for the payment of the fee or charge, which shall be enforceable against successors in interest to the initial holder of the building permit. The contract shall be recorded in the grantor-grantee index in the name of the public agency issuing the building permit as grantee and in the name of the building permit holder as grantor.

(3) The contract may require the building permitholder to provide appropriate notification of the opening of any escrow for the sale of the property for which the building permit was issued and to provide in the escrow instructions that the fee or charge be paid to the local agency imposing the same from the sale proceeds in escrow prior to disbursing proceeds to the seller.

(d) "Local agency," as used in this section, means a county, city, or city and county, whether general law or chartered, or district. "District" means an agency of the state, formed pursuant to general law or special act, for the local performance of governmental or proprietary functions within limited boundaries.

(e) This section applies only to fees collected by a local agency to fund the construction of public improvements or facilities. It does not apply to fees collected to cover the cost of code enforcement or inspection services, or to other fees collected to pay for the cost of enforcement of local ordinances or state law.

(f) "Final inspection" or "certificate of occupancy," as used in this section, have the same meaning as described in Sections 305 and 307 of the Uniform Building Code, International Conference of Building Officials, 1985 Edition.

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 53077.5 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

66007. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), any local agency which imposes any fees or charges on a residential development for the construction of public improvements or facilities shall not require the payment of those fees or charges, notwithstanding any other provision of law, until the date of the final inspection, or the date the certificate of occupancy is issued, whichever occurs first. However, utility service fees may be collected at the time an application for utility service is received. If the residential development contains more than one dwelling, the local agency may determine whether the fees or charges shall be paid on a pro rata basis for each dwelling when it receives its final inspection or certificate of occupancy, whichever occurs first; on a pro rata basis when a certain percentage of the dwellings have received their final inspection or certificate of occupancy, whichever occurs first; or on a lump-sum basis when the first dwelling in the development receives its final inspection or certificate of occupancy, whichever occurs first.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the local agency may require the payment of those fees or charges at an earlier time if (1) the local agency determines that the fees or charges will be collected for public improvements or facilities for which an account has been established and funds appropriated and for which the local agency has adopted a proposed construction schedule or plan prior to final inspection or issuance of the certificate of occupancy or (2) the fees or charges are to reimburse the local agency for expenditures previously made. "Appropriated," as used in this subdivision, means authorization by the governing body of the local agency for which the fee is collected to make expenditures and incur obligations for specific purposes.

(c) (1) If any fee or charge specified in subdivision (a) is not fully paid prior to issuance of a building permit for construction of any portion of the residential development encumbered thereby, the local agency issuing the building permit may require the applicant, as a condition of issuance of the building permit, to execute a contract to pay the fee or charge, or applicable portion thereof, within the time specified in subdivision (a). If the fee or charge is prorated pursuant to subdivision (a), the obligation under the contract shall be similarly prorated.

(2) The obligation to pay the fee or charge shall inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the local agency that imposed the fee or charge, regardless of whether it is a party to the contract. The contract shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county and, from the date of recordation, shall constitute a lien for the payment of the fee or charge, which shall be enforceable against successors in interest to the initial holder of the building permit. The contract shall be recorded in the grantor-grantee index in the name of the public agency issuing the building permit as grantee and in the name of the building permit holder as grantor.

(3) The contract may require the building permitholder to provide appropriate notification of the opening of any escrow for the sale of the property for which the building permit was issued and to provide in the escrow instructions that the fee or charge be paid to the local agency imposing the same from the sale proceeds in escrow prior to disbursing proceeds to the seller.

(d) This section applies only to fees collected by a local agency to fund the construction of public improvements or facilities. It does not apply to fees collected to cover the cost of code enforcement or inspection services, or to other fees collected to pay for the cost of enforcement of local ordinances or state law.

(e) "Final inspection" or "certificate of occupancy," as used in this section, have the same meaning as described in Sections 305 and 307 of the Uniform Building Code, International Conference of Building Officials, 1985 Edition.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution, because this act does not mandate a new program or higher level of service on local government. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 17550) of Part 7 of Division 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 4. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 53077.5 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3980. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends, or amends and renumbers, Section 53077.5 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3980, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 913

An act to add and repeal Section 12804.4 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12804.4 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

12804.4. (a) If the holder of a class 1 or class 2 driver's license is required to have any medical certificate in his or her immediate possession pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12804, a copy of the medical certificate shall be on file with the department, otherwise the license shall be valid only for operating class 3 vehicles and class 4 vehicles if so endorsed.

(b) If the holder of a special driver certificate is required to have any medical certificate in his or her immediate possession pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 12804, a copy of the medical certificate shall be on file with the department, otherwise the special driver certificate shall not be valid.

SEC. 2. Section 12804.4 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

12804.4. (a) If the holder of a class 1 or class 2 driver's license is required to have any medical certificate in his or her immediate possession pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12804, a copy of the medical certificate shall be on file with the department, otherwise the license shall be valid only for operating class 3 vehicles and class 4 vehicles if so endorsed.

(b) If the holder of a special driver certificate is required to have any medical certificate in his or her immediate possession pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 12804, a copy of the medical certificate shall be on file with the department, otherwise the special driver certificate shall not be valid.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute which is enacted on or before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill shall become operative only if Senate Bill 2594 is enacted and amends and repeals Section 12804 of the Vehicle Code, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 914

An act to amend Sections 14036, 14060, 14066, 14524.5 of, and to add Sections 14036.1 and 14037 to, the Government Code, to amend Sections 99233.4, 99234.9, 99317.2, 99317.4, 99317.6, 99317.8, and 99400 of, to add Section 99317.10 to, and to repeal Section 99233.6 of, the Public Utilities Code, and to add Section 199.7 to the Streets and Highways Code, relating to transportation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14036 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14036. The department shall prepare a rail passenger development plan annually for submission to the Legislature, the Governor, the Public Utilities Commission, and the California Transportation Commission. The plan shall be submitted to the commission by each January 1 for its advice and consent and to the Legislature, the Governor, and the Public Utilities Commission by the following March 1 The plan shall consist of all of the following:

(a) For capital and operating subsidies, all actual encumbrances for the prior year; and for state operations, all actual expenditures for the prior year. All revenues shall be identified by source. Variances in expenditures from the prior year's plan for capital and operating subsidies shall be identified for each route.

(b) For capital and operating subsidies, estimated encumbrances and revenues for the current year; and for state operations, estimated expenditures for the current year. The department shall use the same format as is required for prior year expenditures pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) For the budget year and the four following fiscal years, proposed encumbrances for capital and operating subsidies shall be reported in the same format as is required for prior year's expenditures. For state operations, proposed expenditures for the budget year shall be reported.

(d) The identification and cost of capital facilities necessary to enhance competitiveness of rail passenger services, including, for each intercity route, a list of at least the three highest priority capital improvement projects, with cost estimates and a funding plan.

(e) A performance evaluation of all services in operation, including performance trends, potential for efficiency and effectiveness, possible improvements, and strategies to achieve that potential.

(f) A recommendation of a level of and program for services over a five-year period, including a list of service enhancements on existing and additional routes, with funding and priority recommendations.

(g) An evaluation of reports by regional planning agencies and county transportation commissions on commuter service alternatives in their regions, including presentation of their recommendations.

(h) A map showing all existing intercity and commuter passenger rail routes and services, all proposed intercity and commuter passenger rail routes and services, and all intercity and commuter passenger rail routes and services that are the subject of feasibility studies.

This report shall be prepared in consultation with the Public Utilities Commission and the National Rail Passenger Corporation. The department may consult with other agencies, organizations, and persons with expertise. The department shall employ realistic assumptions, using Public Utilities Commission cost data whenever possible, with respect to the level of services it can provide and the cost of these services when developing the plan.

SEC. 2. Section 14036.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14036.1. As part of its ongoing marketing activities to increase the utilization and performance of rail and bus services operated pursuant to this article, the department may seek to increase awareness of these services on the part of students attending public and private colleges and universities located in cities served by these trains and feeder buses. The department, in cooperation with public college and university systems, may develop suitable materials for regular distribution to students at the beginning of academic terms. The department may also work with the National Railroad Passenger

Corporation (Amtrak) to implement student multiride discount ticketing programs designed for home to college trips, similar to programs already implemented in other states by Amtrak and the state agency responsible for intercity rail passenger service.

The Legislature finds that college students, while potentially a natural market for these public transportation services, are frequently unaware of these services. Marketing activities should recognize the highly transient nature of college students and the need to continuously publicize available services using inexpensive media where appropriate.

The department shall report on its marketing activities, including activities conducted pursuant to this section, in the rail passenger development plan prepared pursuant to Section 14036.

SEC. 3. Section 14037 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14037. Funds which are available to the department for rail and bus operations may be used by the department for maintenance of capital facilities related to rail or bus services provided, or for minor capital improvement projects related to rail and bus services provided, if the department determines that this use of funds would improve the operation of a service. As used in this section, a "minor capital improvement project" means a project within the limits of expenditure and scope equivalent to the standards established pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 14529 for minor highway projects.

SEC. 4. Section 14060 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14060. The following definitions apply to this article:

(a) "Equipment" means rail passenger cars, locomotives, other rail vehicles, bus and van fleets, and ferryboats.

(b) "Equipment obligations" means notes, equipment trust certificates, or other obligations, including grant anticipation notes, issued by the department pursuant to this article to finance the acquisition of equipment.

(c) "Grant anticipation notes" means notes issued by the department in anticipation of the receipt of funds from the federal or a local government as the proceeds of grants or participation funding for which funds have been appropriated and committed to the department for equipment acquisition.

(d) "Passenger rail capital improvements" includes, but is not limited to, crossings, stations, parking facilities, trackwork, maintenance facilities, and other similar facilities.

SEC. 5. Section 14066 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14066. (a) The Passenger Equipment Acquisition Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. Notwithstanding Section 13340, all moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated to the department to pay the principal of, interest on, and redemption premium, if any, on equipment obligations, to pay all costs of issuance and sale of equipment obligations, to purchase new and rehabilitate existing equipment, and for passenger rail capital improvements.

(b) The net proceeds derived from the sale and leaseback of equipment made pursuant to this article shall be deposited in the fund.

SEC. 6. Section 14524.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14524.5. The estimate of the department and the estimate of the commission shall include an estimate of the funds from the State Highway Account and the Transportation Planning and Development Account in the State Transportation Fund that will be available for exclusive public mass transit guideway projects and the other transit capital improvements authorized by Section 99317 of the Public Utilities Code. The estimate of funds from the State Highway Account shall be consistent with the funding levels specified in Section 164 of the Streets and Highways Code.

SEC. 7. Section 99233.4 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99233.4. Allocations shall be made for rail passenger service operations and capital improvements pursuant to Section 99234.5 or 99234.9.

SEC. 8. Section 99233.6 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 99234.9 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99234.9. Any county, city, county transportation commission, or operator may file claims with the transportation planning agency for rail passenger service operation expenditures and capital improvement expenditures. These funds may be used as the entity's required contribution toward the cost of providing these services or capital improvements. The capital expenditure requirements of Section 99267 shall not apply to allocations made for purposes of this section.

SEC. 10. Section 99317.2 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99317.2. Funds made available pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 99317 shall be allocated for the acquisition of only those rights-of-way of abandoned railroad lines that can be developed for busway or exclusive public mass transit guideway projects.

SEC. 11. Section 99317.4 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99317.4. Funds made available pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 99317 shall be allocated to operators for the acquisition and rehabilitation of used or debilitated buses to extend their service life.

Section 4500 of the Government Code does not apply to any bus rehabilitated pursuant to this section if, prior to rehabilitation, the bus did not conform to that section.

SEC. 12. Section 99317.6 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99317.6. Funds made available pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 99317 shall be allocated to the department, public entities in counties which have approved a proposition pursuant to Section 4 of Article XIX of the California Constitution, and public entities in nonurbanized areas within the jurisdiction of a statutorily created transportation planning agency having jurisdiction over portions of two counties, for public mass transit guideways and rolling stock.

SEC. 13. Section 99317.8 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99317.8. Funds made available pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 99317 shall be allocated for grade separation projects on only those railroad lines over which four or more railroad passenger trains operate daily, but only if the affected railroad corporation contributes funds to finance each grade separation project in an amount at least equal to 5 percent of the cost of the project.

SEC. 14. Section 99317.10 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

99317.10. A public entity shall not be eligible to receive an allocation for funding of an intermodal transfer station pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 99317 unless it first agrees that, upon any future request of the department, it will authorize a state-funded bus service to use the station without any charge to the department or its contractors and it will assist the department in the placement of signs and informational material designed to alert the public to the availability of the state-funded bus service. For the purpose of this section, "state-funded bus service" means any bus service funded pursuant to Section 99316.

SEC. 15. Section 99400 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99400. Claims may be filed under this article with the transportation planning agency by counties and cities for the following purposes and by transit districts for the purposes specified in subdivisions (c) to (e), inclusive:

(a) Local streets and roads, and projects which are provided for use by pedestrians and bicycles.

(b) Payments to the National Railroad Passenger Corporation for passenger rail service operations and capital improvements under Section 403(b) of the Federal Rail Passenger Service Act (45 U.S.C. Sec. 563(b)).

(c) Payment to any entity which is under contract with a county, city, or transit district for public transportation or for transportation services for any group, as determined by the transportation planning agency, requiring special transportation assistance.

If the county, city, or transit district is being served by an operator, the contract entered into by the county, city, or transit district shall specify the level of service to be provided, the operating plan to implement that service, and how that service is to be coordinated with the public transportation service provided by the operator. Prior to approving any claim filed under this section, the transportation planning agency, or the county transportation commission in a county with such a commission, shall make a finding that the transportation services contracted for under subdivision (c) are responding to a transportation need not otherwise being met within the community or jurisdiction of the claimant and that, where appropriate, the services are coordinated with the existing transportation service.

(d) Payments to counties, cities, and transit districts for their administrative and planning cost with respect to transportation services under subdivision (c).

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a claimant for funds pursuant to subdivision (c) may also receive payments for capital expenditures to acquire vehicles and related equipment, bus shelters, bus benches, and communication equipment for the transportation services.

SEC. 16. Section 199.7 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

199.7. A local entity may request the department to submit an application for funding of a project pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 199 of the Streets and Highways Code, if the project is designed to improve an exclusive public mass transit guideway which the state, rather than the local entity, operates or contracts to have operated.

CHAPTER 915

An act to amend Sections 308, 1202.1, 1300, 1301, 1306, 3502, 3520, 5350, 5354, 10219, 14810, 14811, 14820, 14821, 27210, and 27211 of, and to add Sections 1304.5, 1305.5, and 24005 to, the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 308 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

308. No county clerk may refuse to deputize any person to register voters because of race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, marital status, disability, religious or political affiliation, or age.

SEC. 2. Section 1202.1 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

1202.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, a special absentee voter who qualifies pursuant to this section may apply for a special absentee voter ballot. Any application made pursuant to this section which is received by the clerk prior to the 60th day before the election shall be kept and processed on or after the 60th day before the election.

(b) If a special absentee voter submits an application containing a statement that provides that due to military or other contingencies that preclude normal mail delivery, as specified by the voter, the voter cannot vote an absentee ballot during the normal absentee voting period, and the voter is otherwise qualified to vote as a special absentee voter, the clerk shall immediately send the voter a ballot in a form prescribed and provided by the Secretary of State, or a ballot and voter registration card if required by Section 1200. The clerk shall send with the ballot a list of all candidates who have qualified for the ballot by the 60th day before the election and a list of all measures which are to be submitted to the voters and to which the voter is qualified to vote. The voter shall be entitled to write in the name of any specific candidate seeking the nomination or election to any office listed on the ballot.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 17101 or any other provision of law, any name written upon a ballot for a particular office pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be counted for the office or nomination.

(d) The clerk shall receive and canvass special absentee voter ballots described in this section under the same procedure as absent voter ballots, insofar as that procedure is not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, except that prior to election day, special absentee voter ballots shall be secured separately in a sealed ballot box reserved for that purpose.

(e) In the event that a voter executes a special absentee ballot pursuant to this section and the military or other contingency does not exist during the normal absentee voting period, that voter may make an application for an absentee ballot pursuant to Sections 1200 and 1201. If an application is made pursuant to this subdivision, the clerk shall reject the voted ballot previously cast and process the application in accordance with Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1000).

SEC. 3. Section 1300 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

1300. It is the intent and purpose of the Legislature that the provisions set forth in this chapter are designed to facilitate the federal mandate of the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act (Public Law 99-410).

SEC. 4. Section 1301 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

1301. As used in this chapter, "federal election" means any presidential election, general election, primary election, or special election held solely or in part for the purpose of selecting, nominating, or electing any candidate for the office of President, Vice President, presidential elector, Member of the United States Senate, or Member of the United States House of Representatives. "Overseas voter" includes uniformed and overseas voters.

SEC. 5. Section 1304.5 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

1304.5. (a) A voter described in Section 1303 may apply for an absent voter ballot Any application made pursuant to this section which is received by the clerk prior to the 60th day before the election shall be kept and processed on or after the 60th day before the election.

(b) If the voter submits an application containing a statement that provides that due to contingencies that preclude normal mail delivery, as specified by the voter, the voter cannot vote an absentee ballot during the normal absentee voting period, and the voter is otherwise qualified to vote as provided in this chapter, the clerk shall immediately send the voter a ballot in a form prescribed and provided by the Secretary of State, or a ballot and voter registration card if required by Section 1306. The clerk shall send with the ballot a list of all candidates who have qualified for the ballot by the 60th day before the election and for whom the voter is qualified to vote. The voter shall be entitled to write in the name of any specific candidate seeking the nomination or election to any office listed on the ballot.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 17101 or any other provision of law, any name written upon a ballot for a particular office pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be counted for the office or nomination.

(d) The clerk shall receive and canvass the absent voter ballots described in this section under the same procedure as other absent voter ballots, insofar as that procedure is not inconsistent with this section, except that prior to election day, the absent voter ballots described in this section shall be secured separately in a sealed ballot box reserved for that purpose.

SEC. 6. Section 1305.5 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

1305.5. Any absent voter ballot application by a qualified voter, as described in this chapter, for a primary election shall also be deemed an application for an absent voter ballot for the subsequent general election.

SEC. 7. Section 1306 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

1306. (a) As soon as possible after the 60th day before the federal election, the county clerk shall mail or deliver a ballot to each person who has requested registration as an overseas voter since the last regularly scheduled federal election.

(b) If the overseas voter has not correctly completed and returned a federal application for an absentee ballot or a special affidavit of registration as an overseas voter since the last regularly scheduled federal election the clerk shall enclose an affidavit with the ballot.

(c) The overseas voter shall be informed of the following:

(1) That the affidavit must be correctly completed and returned with the ballot in order for the vote to be tallied.

(2) That the voter's registration will be valid through the next general election, and that the ballots for these elections will be sent to the voter at the mailing address provided by the voter, but that following the general election, the voter must reapply in order to again receive an overseas voter ballot.

(d) The affidavits of registration mailed or delivered pursuant to this section shall conform to Section 506, except as modified pursuant to regulations adopted by the Secretary of State to reflect the requirements of this chapter.

(e) Absent voter ballots mailed or delivered pursuant to this section shall be modified pursuant to regulations adopted by the Secretary of State so as to show only those offices for which the overseas resident is entitled to vote.

SEC. 8. Section 3502 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

3502. Prior to the circulation of any initiative or referendum petition for signatures, a draft of the proposed measure shall be submitted to the Attorney General with a written request that a title and summary of the chief purpose and points of the proposed measure be prepared. The title and summary shall not exceed a total of 100 words.

The persons presenting the request shall be known as the "proponents."

The Attorney General shall preserve the written request until after the next general election.

SEC. 9. Section 3520 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

3520. (a) Each section of the petition shall be filed with the clerk or registrar of voters of the county or city and county in which it was circulated, but all sections circulated in any county or city and county shall be filed at the same time.

(b) Within five days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, after the filing of the petition, the clerk or registrar of voters shall determine the total number of signatures affixed to the petition and shall transmit this information to the Secretary of State. If the total number of signatures filed with all county clerks is less than 100 percent of the number of qualified voters required to find the petition sufficient, the Secretary of State shall so notify the proponents and the county clerks and no further action shall be taken in regard to the petition.

(c) If the number of signatures filed with all county clerks is 100 percent or more of the number of qualified voters needed to declare the petition sufficient, the Secretary of State shall immediately so notify the county clerks.

(d) Within 15 days after this notification, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, the clerk or registrar of voters shall determine the number of qualified voters who have signed the petition. If more than 500 names have been signed on sections of the petition filed with a county clerk, the clerk shall use a random sampling technique for verification of signatures, as determined by the Secretary of State. The random sample of signatures to be verified shall be drawn in such a manner that every signature filed with the county clerk shall be given an equal opportunity to be included in the sample. Such a random sampling shall include an examination of at least 500 or 5 percent of the signatures, whichever is greater. In determining from the records of registration what number of qualified voters have signed the petition, the clerk or registrar of voters may use the duplicate file of affidavits of registered voters or the facsimiles of voter's signatures, provided that the method of preparing and displaying the facsimiles complies with law.

(e) The clerk or registrar, upon the completion of the examination, shall immediately attach to the petition, except the signatures thereto appended, a certificate properly dated, showing the result of the examination and shall immediately transmit the petition, together with the certificate, to the Secretary of State. A copy of this certificate shall be filed in the clerk's office.

(f) If the certificates received from all county clerks by the Secretary of State establish that the number of valid signatures does not equal 95 percent of the number of qualified voters needed to find the petition sufficient, the petition shall be deemed to have failed to qualify, and the Secretary of State shall immediately so notify the proponents and the county clerks.

(g) If the certificates received from all county clerks by the Secretary of State total more than 110 percent of the number of qualified voters needed to find the petition sufficient, the petition shall be deemed to qualify as of the date of receipt by the Secretary of State of certificates showing the petition to have reached the 110 percent, and the Secretary of State shall immediately so notify the proponents and the county clerks.

SEC. 10. Section 5350 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

5350. All arguments concerning measures filed pursuant to this division shall be accompanied by the following form statement, to be signed by each author of the argument:

SEC. 11. Section 5354 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

5354. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person may engage in good faith bargaining between competing interests to secure legislative approval of matters embraced in a state or local initiative or referendum measure, and the proponents may, as a result of these negotiations, withdraw the measure at any time before filing the petition with the appropriate elections official.

(b) Withdrawal of state measures shall be effective upon receipt by the Secretary of State of a written notice of withdrawal signed by all proponents of the measure.

(c) Withdrawal of local measures shall be effective upon receipt by the appropriate local elections official of a written notice of withdrawal signed by all proponents of the measure.

SEC. 12. Section 10219 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

10219. In an election at which state, county, city, or other local measures are submitted to a vote of the voters, all state measures shall be numbered in numerical order, as provided in this chapter or division. All county, city, or other local measures shall be designated by a letter, instead of a figure, printed on the left margin of the square containing the description of the measure, commencing with the letter "A" and continuing in alphabetical order, one letter for each such measure appearing on the ballot.

An elections official may commence designating local measures with any letter of the alphabet following the letter "A" and continuing in alphabetical order in order to avoid voter confusion that might result from different local measures carrying the same letter designation in successive elections.

Where two or more counties or cities submitting measures to the voters are in close proximity, the clerks of those counties or cities may mutually agree to use letter designation for ballot measures that will not conflict or confuse the voter.

SEC. 13. Section 14810 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

14810. (a) The following provisions shall apply to those elections where candidates for one or more of the following offices are voted upon: President, Vice President, United States Senator, and United States Representative.

(b) The packages containing the following ballots and identification envelope shall be kept by the elections official, unopened and unaltered, for 22 months subsequent to the date of the declaration of the result of the election:

(1) Voted polling place ballots.

(2) Voted absent voter ballots.

(3) Absent voter identification envelopes.

(4) Spoiled ballots.

(5) Canceled ballots.

(6) Unused absent voters ballots surrendered by the voter pursuant to Section 1012.

(7) Ballot receipts.

(c) If a contest is not commenced within the 22-month period, or if a criminal prosecution involving fraudulent use, marking or falsification of ballots or forgery of absent voters' signatures is not commenced within the 22-month period, either of which may involve the vote of the precinct from which voted ballots were received, the elections official may have the ballots destroyed or recycled.

SEC. 14. Section 14811 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

14811. (a) The following provisions shall apply to all state or local elections not provided for in subdivision (a) of Section 14810. An election is not deemed a state or local election if votes for candidates for federal office may be cast on the same ballot as votes for candidates for state or local office.

(b) The packages containing the following ballots and identification envelopes shall be kept by the elections official, unopened and unaltered, for six months subsequent to the date of the declaration of the result of the election:

(1) Voted polling place ballots.

(2) Voted absent voter ballots.

(3) Absent voter identification envelopes.

(4) Spoiled ballots.

(5) Canceled ballots.

(6) Unused absent voter ballots surrendered by the voter pursuant to Section 1012.

(7) Ballot receipts.

(c) If a contest is not commenced within the six-month period, or if a criminal prosecution involving fraudulent use, marking or falsification of ballots or forgery of absent voters' signatures is not commenced within the six-month period, either of which may involve the vote of the precinct from which voted ballots were received, the elections official may have the packages destroyed or recycled.

SEC. 15. Section 14820 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

14820. (a) The following provisions shall apply to those elections where candidates for one or more of the following offices are voted upon: President, Vice President, United States Senator, and United States Representative.

(b) The elections official shall preserve the package or packages containing the following items for a period of 22 months:

(1) Two tally sheets.

(2) The copy of the index used as the voting record.

(3) The challenge lists.

(4) The assisted voters list.

(c) All voters may inspect the contents of the package or packages at all times following commencement of the official canvass of the votes.

(d) If a contest is not commenced within the 22-month period, or if a criminal prosecution involving fraudulent use, marking, or falsification of ballots or forgery of absent voters' signatures is not commenced within the 22-month period, either of which may involve the vote of the precinct from which voted ballots were received, the elections official may have the packages destroyed or recycled.

SEC. 16. Section 14821 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

14821. (a) The following provisions shall apply to all state or local elections not provided for in subdivision (a) of Section 14820. An election is not deemed a state or local election if votes for candidates for federal office may be cast on the same ballot as votes for candidates for state or local office.

(b) The elections official shall preserve the package or packages containing the following items for a period of six months:

(1) Two tally sheets.

(2) The copy of the index used as the voting record.

(3) The challenge lists.

(4) The assisted voters list.

(c) All voters may inspect the contents of the package or packages at all times following commencement of the official canvass of the votes.

(d) If a contest is not commenced within the six-month period, or if a criminal prosecution involving fraudulent use, marking or falsification of ballots, or forgery of absent voters' signatures is not commenced within the six-month period, either of which may involve the vote of the precinct from which voted ballots were received, the election official may have the packages destroyed or recycled.

SEC. 17. Section 24005 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

24005. Notwithstanding Section 5012 of the Education Code, if a declaration of candidacy for an incumbent member of a school district or community college district governing board or of a county board of education is not filed by 5 p.m. on the 88th day before the election, any person, other than the person who was the incumbent on the 88th day, shall have until 5 p.m. on the 83rd day before an election to file a declaration of candidacy for the elective office.

This section is not applicable where there is no incumbent eligible to be elected.

SEC. 18. Section 27210 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

27210. A recall petition shall be submitted to the clerk for filing in his or her office during normal office hours as posted within the following number of days after the clerk or, in the case of a recall of a state officer, the Secretary of State, notifies the proponents that the form and wording of the petition meets the requirements of Article 3 (commencing with Section 27030) of Chapter 1 of this division:

(a) Forty days if the electoral jurisdiction has less than 1,000 registered voters.

(b) Sixty days if the electoral jurisdiction has less than 5,000 registered voters but at least 1,000.

(c) Ninety days if the electoral jurisdiction has less than 10,000 registered voters but at least 5,000.

(d) One hundred twenty days if the electoral jurisdiction has less than 50,000 registered voters but at least 10,000.

(e) One hundred sixty days if the electoral jurisdiction has 50,000 registered voters or more.

The number of registered voters shall be that which was reported at the last report of registration by the county clerk to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 607 and prior to a finding of the clerk or Secretary of State that no alterations are required in the form of the recall petition pursuant to Section 27031.5.

SEC. 19. Section 27211 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

27211. The number of qualified signatures required in order to qualify a recall for the ballot shall be as follows:

(a) In the case of an officer of a city, county, school district, community college district, county board of education, or resident voting district, the number of signatures shall be equal in number to not less than the following percent of the registered voters in the electoral jurisdiction:

(1) Thirty percent if the registration is less than 1,000.

(2) Twenty-five percent if the registration is less than 10,000 but at least 1,000.

(3) Twenty percent if the registration is less than 50,000 but at least 10,000.

(4) Fifteen percent if the registration is less than 100,000 but at least 50,000.

(5) Ten percent if the registration is 100,000 or above.

The number of registered voters shall be calculated as of the time of the last report of registration by the county clerk to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 607, and prior to the finding by the clerk or Secretary of State that no alterations are required in the form of the recall petition pursuant to Section 27031.5.

(b) In the case of a state officer, including judges of courts of appeal and trial courts, the number of signatures shall be as provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 14 of Article II of the California Constitution. In the case of a judge of a superior, municipal, or justice court, which office has never appeared on the ballot since its creation, or did not appear on the ballot at its last election pursuant to Section 25304, the number of signatures shall be as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 14 of Article II of the California Constitution except that the percent shall be based on the number of votes cast within the judicial jurisdiction for the countywide office which had the least number of votes in the most recent general election in the county in which the judge holds his or her office.

(c) In the case of a landowner voting district, signatures of voters owning at least 10 percent of the assessed value of land within the electoral jurisdiction of the officer sought to be recalled.

SEC. 20. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates

Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 916

An act to add Sections 1033.7, 1042, 3710, 3774.5, 3942, 5229, 5285.5, 5374.5, and 5378.5 to, and to repeal Section 5380 of, the Public Utilities Code, relating to carriers, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Public Utilities Commission Enforcement Act of 1988.

SEC. 2. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that it is the policy of this state to achieve increasing levels of safety of operation in the performance of transportation services by carriers using the highways of this state for the transportation of persons and property for compensation.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this act, to confirm that the Department of the California Highway Patrol has primary authority to regulate safety of operations of carriers of persons and property for compensation and that the Public Utilities Commission cooperate fully with the department in ensuring the safe operation of these carriers.

SEC. 3. Section 1033.7 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

1033.7. (a) Upon receipt of a written recommendation from the Department of the California Highway Patrol that the certificate of a passenger stage corporation be suspended for consistent failure to maintain any vehicle used in transportation for compensation in a safe operating condition or to comply with the Vehicle Code or with regulations contained in Title 13 of the California Code of Regulations relative to motor vehicle safety, the commission shall, pending a hearing in the matter pursuant to subdivision (c), suspend the corporation's certificate. The department's written recommendation shall be made under oath, and shall specifically indicate compliance with subdivision (b). The department's written recommendation shall include a statement that the corporation's continued operation presents an immediate danger to the safety of the public and of its employees. The commission shall reinstate the corporation's certificate suspended under this subdivision promptly upon receipt of a written recommendation from the department that the corporation's safety compliance has improved to the satisfaction of the department, unless the certificate is suspended for another reason. A corporation whose certificate has been suspended may request that the department reinspect its terminal and vehicles.

Upon receipt of a request, the department shall perform a reinspection within a reasonable time.

(b) Before transmitting a recommendation pursuant to subdivision (a) to the commission, the Department of the California Highway Patrol shall notify the passenger stage corporation in writing of all of the following:

(1) That the department has determined that the corporation's safety record is unsatisfactory, furnishing a copy of any documentation or summary of any other evidence supporting the determination.

(2) That the determination may result in a suspension or revocation of the corporation's certificate by the commission.

(3) That the corporation may request a review of the determination by the department within five days of its receipt of the notice required under this subdivision. If a review pursuant to this paragraph is requested by the corporation, the department shall conduct and evaluate that review prior to transmitting any notification to the commission pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) Whenever the commission suspends the certificate of any passenger stage corporation pursuant to subdivision (a), the commission shall furnish the corporation written notice of the suspension and shall hold a hearing within a reasonable time, not to exceed 21 days after a written request therefor is filed with the commission, with a copy thereof furnished to the Department of the California Highway Patrol. At the hearing, the corporation shall show cause why the suspension should not be continued. At the conclusion of the hearing, the commission may, in addition to any other applicable penalty provided in this part, terminate the suspension, continue the suspension in effect, or revoke the certificate.

SEC. 4. Section 1042 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

1042. (a) Every passenger stage corporation shall furnish the commission annually, as specified by the commission, a list, prepared under oath, of all vehicles used in transportation for compensation during the preceding year. The commission shall furnish a copy of this list to the Department of the California Highway Patrol and to the corporation's insurer, if the corporation's accident liability protection is provided by a policy or policies of insurance.

(b) If the passenger stage corporation's insurer informs the commission that the corporation has failed to obtain insurance coverage for any vehicle reported on the list, the commission may, in addition to any other applicable penalty provided in this part, for a first occurrence, suspend the corporation's certificate or impose a fine, or both, and for a second or subsequent occurrence may suspend or revoke the certificate or impose a fine, or both.

SEC. 5. Section 3710 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

3710. (a) Every highway permit carrier shall furnish the commission annually, as specified by the commission, a list, prepared under oath, of all vehicles used in transportation for compensation during the preceding year. The commission shall furnish a copy of this list to the Department of the California Highway Patrol and to the carrier's insurer, if the carrier's accident liability protection is provided by a policy of insurance.

(b) If the highway permit carrier's insurer informs the commission that the carrier has failed to obtain insurance coverage for any vehicle reported on the list, the commission may, in addition to any other applicable penalty provided in this chapter, for a first occurrence, suspend the carrier's permit or impose a fine, or both, and for a second or subsequent occurrence may suspend or revoke the permit or impose a fine, or both.

SEC. 6. Section 3774.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

3774.5. (a) Upon receipt of a written recommendation from the Department of the California Highway Patrol that the permit of a highway permit carrier be suspended for consistent failure to maintain any vehicle used in transportation for compensation in a safe operating condition or to comply with the Vehicle Code or with regulations contained in Title 13 of the California Code of Regulations relative to motor vehicle safety, the commission shall, pending a hearing in the matter pursuant to subdivision (c), suspend the carrier's permit. The written recommendation shall be made under oath, and shall specifically indicate compliance with subdivision (b). The department's written recommendation shall include a statement that the carrier's continued operation presents an immediate danger to the safety of the public and of its employees. The commission shall reinstate the carrier's permit suspended under this subdivision promptly upon receipt of a written recommendation from the department that the carrier's safety compliance has improved to the satisfaction of the department, unless the permit is suspended for another reason. A carrier whose permit has been suspended may request that the department reinspect its terminal and vehicles. Upon receipt of a request, the department shall perform a reinspection within a reasonable time.

(b) Before transmitting a recommendation pursuant to subdivision (a) to the commission, the Department of the California Highway Patrol shall notify the highway permit carrier in writing of all of the following:

(1) That the department has determined that the carrier's safety record is unsatisfactory, furnishing a copy of any documentation or summary of any other evidence supporting the determination.

(2) That the determination may result in a suspension or revocation of the carrier's permit by the commission.

(3) That the carrier may request a review of the determination by the department within five days of its receipt of the notice required under this subdivision. If a review pursuant to this paragraph is requested by the carrier, the department shall conduct and evaluate that review prior to transmitting any notification to the commission pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) Whenever the commission suspends the permit of any highway permit carrier pursuant to subdivision (a), the commission shall furnish the carrier written notice of the suspension and shall hold a hearing within a reasonable time, not to exceed 21 days after a written request therefor is filed with the commission, with a copy thereof furnished to the Department of the California Highway Patrol. At the hearing, the carrier shall show cause why the suspension should not be continued. At the conclusion of the hearing, the commission may, in addition to any other applicable penalty provided in this chapter, terminate the suspension, continue the suspension in effect, or revoke the permit.

SEC. 7. Section 3942 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

3942. The commission shall assist the Department of the California Highway Patrol in the removal from service of any vehicle of any highway carrier which the carrier has failed or refused to register with the commission pursuant to this chapter. In this connection, the commission may direct employees of the commission to be in attendance at weigh stations and highway checkpoints, if requested by the department, and furnish commission records and information related to highway carriers for the purpose of ascertaining the status of a highway carrier's registration.

SEC. 8. Section 5229 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

5229. (a) Every household goods carrier shall furnish the commission annually, as specified by the commission, a list, prepared under oath, of all vehicles used in transportation for compensation during the preceding year. The commission shall furnish a copy of this list to the Department of the California Highway Patrol and to the carrier's insurer, if the carrier's accident liability protection is provided by a policy of insurance.

(b) If the household goods carrier's insurer informs the commission that the carrier has failed to obtain insurance coverage for any vehicle reported on the list, the commission may, in addition to any other applicable penalty provided in this chapter, for a first occurrence, suspend the carrier's permit or impose a fine, or both, and for a second or subsequent occurrence may suspend or revoke the permit or impose a fine, or both.

SEC. 9. Section 5285.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

5285.5. (a) Upon receipt of a written recommendation from the Department of the California Highway Patrol that the permit of a household goods carrier be suspended for consistent failure to maintain any vehicle used in transportation for compensation in a safe operating condition or to comply with the Vehicle Code or with regulations contained in Title 13 of the California Code of Regulations relative to motor vehicle safety, the commission shall suspend the carrier's permit. The written recommendation shall be made under oath, and shall specifically indicate compliance with subdivision (b). The department's written recommendation shall include a statement that the carrier's continued operation presents an immediate danger to the safety of the public and of its employees.

The commission shall reinstate the carrier's permit suspended under this subdivision promptly upon receipt of a written recommendation from the department that the carrier's safety compliance has improved to the satisfaction of the department, unless the permit is suspended for another reason. A carrier whose permit has been suspended may request that the department reinspect its terminal and vehicles. Upon receipt of a request, the department shall perform a reinspection within a reasonable time.

(b) Before transmitting a recommendation pursuant to subdivision (a) to the commission, the Department of the California Highway Patrol shall notify the household goods carrier in writing of all of the following:

(1) That the department has determined that the carrier's safety record is unsatisfactory, furnishing a copy of any documentation or summary of any other evidence supporting the determination.

(2) That the determination may result in a suspension or revocation of the carrier's permit by the commission.

(3) That the carrier may request a review of the determination by the department within five days of its receipt of the notice required under this subdivision. If a review pursuant to this paragraph is requested by the carrier, the department shall conduct and evaluate that review prior to transmitting any notification to the commission pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) Whenever the commission suspends the permit of any household goods carrier pursuant to subdivision (a), the commission shall furnish the carrier written notice of the suspension and shall hold a hearing within a reasonable time, not to exceed 21 days after a written request therefor is filed with the commission, with a copy thereof furnished to the Department of the California Highway Patrol. At the hearing, the carrier shall show cause why the suspension should not be continued. At the conclusion of the hearing, the commission may, in addition to any other penalty provided in this chapter, terminate the suspension, continue the suspension in effect, or revoke the permit.

SEC. 10. Section 5374.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

5374.5. (a) At the time of each bus terminal inspection conducted by the Department of the California Highway Patrol pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 34501 of the Vehicle Code, every charter-party carrier of passengers shall furnish both the Department of the California Highway Patrol and the commission a list, prepared under oath, of all vehicles used in transportation for compensation during the period since the last inspection. The commission shall furnish a copy of the list to the carrier's insurer, if the carrier's accident liability protection is provided by a policy of insurance.

other penalty provided in this chapter, for a first occurrence, suspend the carrier's certificate or permit or impose a fine, or both, and for a second or subsequent occurrence may suspend or revoke the certificate or impose a fine, or both.

SEC. 11. Section 5378.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

5378.5. (a) Upon receipt of a written recommendation from the Department of the California Highway Patrol that the certificate or permit of a charter-party carrier be suspended for consistent failure to maintain any vehicle used in transportation for compensation in a safe operating condition or to comply with the Vehicle Code or with regulations contained in Title 13 of the California Code of Regulations relative to motor vehicle safety, the commission shall suspend the carrier's certificate or permit. The written recommendation shall be made under oath, and shall specifically indicate compliance with subdivision (b). The department's written recommendation shall include a statement that the carrier's continued operation presents an immediate danger to the safety of the public and of its employees. The commission shall reinstate the carrier's certificate or permit suspended under this subdivision promptly upon receipt of a written recommendation from the department that the carrier's safety compliance has improved to the satisfaction of the department, unless the certificate or permit is suspended for another reason. A carrier whose certificate or permit has been suspended may request that the department reinspect its terminal and vehicles. Upon receipt of a request, the department shall perform a reinspection within a reasonable time.

(b) Before transmitting a recommendation pursuant to subdivision (a) to the commission, the Department of the California Highway Patrol shall notify the charter-party carrier in writing of all of the following:

(1) That the department has determined that the carrier's safety record is unsatisfactory, furnishing a copy of any documentation or summary of any other evidence supporting the determination.

(2) That the determination may result in suspension or revocation of the carrier's certificate or permit by the commission.

(3) That the carrier may request a review of the determination by the department within five days of its receipt of the notice required under this subdivision. If a review pursuant to this paragraph is requested by the carrier, the department shall conduct and evaluate that review prior to transmitting any notification to the commission pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) Whenever the commission suspends the certificate or permit of any charter-party carrier pursuant to subdivision (a), the commission shall furnish the carrier written notice of the suspension and shall hold a hearing within a reasonable time, not to exceed 21 days after a written request therefor is filed with the commission, with a copy thereof furnished to the Department of the California Highway Patrol. At the hearing, the carrier shall show cause why the suspension should not be continued. At the conclusion of the hearing, the commission may, in addition to any other penalty provided in this chapter, terminate the suspension, continue the suspension in effect, or revoke the certificate or permit.

SEC. 12. Section 5380 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. The commission shall immediately investigate every business listed in every classified directory of telephone subscribers as furnishing limousine-for-hire or passenger charter transportation service for compensation in motor vehicles. Pursuant to this investigation, the commission shall do all of the following:

(a) Determine which businesses, if any, are required to have in effect a passenger charter-party carrier certificate or permit pursuant to Section 5371 of the Public Utilities Code but do not have the required certificate or permit.

(b) Inform any business not having a required certificate or permit that it is in violation of law.

(c) Within 60 days of informing the business pursuant to subdivision (b), institute civil or criminal proceedings, or both, pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 5411) of Chapter 8 of Division 2 of the Public Utilities Code or any other applicable law.

SEC. 14. The sum of forty-five thousand dollars ($45,000) is hereby appropriated to the Public Utilities Commission for purposes of this act, including, but not limited to, the establishment of three clerical positions for the processing of lists of carrier vehicles used in transportation for compensation pursuant to Sections 1042, 3710, 5229, and 5374.5 of the Public Utilities Code, as follows:

(a) Sixteen thousand dollars ($16,000) from the Public Utilities Commission Transportation Reimbursement Account in the General Fund.

(b) Twenty-nine thousand dollars ($29,000) from the Transportation Rate Fund.

CHAPTER 917

An act to amend Section 11225 of the Penal Code, relating to nuisance.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11225 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11225. (a) Every building or place used for the purpose of illegal gambling as defined by state law or local ordinance, lewdness, assignation, or prostitution, and every building or place in or upon which acts of illegal gambling as defined by state law or local ordinance, lewdness, assignation, or prostitution, are held or occur, is a nuisance which shall be enjoined, abated, and prevented, and for which damages may be recovered, whether it is a public or private nuisance.

Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to apply the definition of a nuisance to a private residence where illegal gambling is conducted on an intermittent basis and without the purpose of producing profit for the owner or occupier of the premises.

(b) Every building or place used as a bathhouse which as a primary activity encourages or permits conduct that according to the guidelines of the federal Centers for Disease Control can transmit AIDS, including, but not limited to, anal intercourse, oral copulation, or vaginal intercourse, is a nuisance which shall be enjoined, abated, and prevented, and for which damages may be recovered, whether it is a public or private nuisance.

For purposes of this subdivision, a "bathhouse" means a business which, as its primary purpose, provides facilities for a spa, whirlpool, communal bath, sauna, steam bath, mineral bath, mud bath, or facilities for swimming.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 918

An act to amend Sections 4141, 4350.5, 4367, and 4368 of the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Sections 11153.5 and 11209 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to pharmacy.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4141 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4141. (a) A certificate, license, permit, registration, or exemption issued pursuant to Section 4080, 4084, or 4084.6 shall be considered a permit within the meaning of Section 4140.

(b) The board may, in its discretion, issue a permit to any person authorizing the sale and dispensing of hypodermic syringes and needles for use for animals and poultry.

(c) The application for a permit shall be made in writing on a form to be furnished by the board. The board may require such information as the board deems reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes of this article.

(d) A separate permit shall be required for each of the premises of any person who sells or dispenses hypodermic syringes or needles at more than one location.

(e) A permit shall be renewed annually, on or before January 1 of each year and shall not be transferable.

(f) The board may deny, revoke, or suspend any permit issued pursuant to the provisions of this article for any violation of this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 4350.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4350.5. The board shall take action against any holder of a certificate, license, permit, registration or exemption, who is guilty of unprofessional conduct which has been brought to its attention, or whose certificate, license, permit, registration or exemption has been procured by fraud or misrepresentation or issued by mistake. Unprofessional conduct shall include, but is not limited to, the violating or attempting to violate, directly or indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violation of or conspiring to violate any provision or term of this chapter or of the applicable federal and state laws and regulations governing pharmacy, including regulations established by the board. Unprofessional conduct shall also include, but is not limited to, the following:

(a) Gross immorality.

(b) Incompetence.

(c) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, fraud, deceit, or corruption, whether the act is committed in the course of relations as a licensee or otherwise, and whether the act is a felony or misdemeanor or not.

(d) Gross negligence.

(e) The clearly excessive furnishing of controlled substances in violation of subdivision (a) of Section 11153 or subdivision (a) of Section 11153.5 of the Health and Safety Code. Factors to be considered in determining whether the furnishing of controlled substances is clearly excessive for purposes of subdivision (a) of Section 11153.5 of the Health and Safety Code shall include, but not be limited to, the amount of controlled substances furnished, the previous ordering pattern of the customer (including size and frequency of orders), the type and size of the customer, and where and to whom the customer distributes its product.

(f) Actions or conduct which would have warranted denial of a certificate, license, permit, registration or exemption.

SEC. 3. Section 4367 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4367. Any person who has been denied a license, permit, or registration, or whose license, permit, or registration has been revoked or is under suspension, or who has failed to renew his or her license, permit, or registration while it was under suspension, or who has been a manager, administrator, owner, member, officer, director, associate, or partner of any partnership, corporation, firm, or association whose application for a license, permit, or registration has been denied or revoked, is under suspension or has been placed on probation, and while acting as such manager, administrator, owner, member, officer, director, associate, or partner had knowledge of or knowingly participated in any conduct for which the license, permit, or registration was denied, revoked, suspended, or placed on probation, shall be prohibited from serving as a manager, administrator, owner, member, officer, director, associate, or partner of a licensee, permittee, or registrant. Where a probationary license, permit, or registrant is issued or where an existing license, permit, or registration is placed on probation, this prohibition shall remain in effect for a period not to exceed five years. Where the license, permit, or registration is denied or revoked, the prohibition shall continue until the license, permit, or registration is issued or reinstated.

SEC. 4. Section 4368 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4368. Whenever a person is prohibited from serving as a manager, administrator, owner, member, officer, director, associate, or partner of a licensee, permittee, or registrant as provided for by Section 4367, the board shall, in each case where it has such information, notify in writing each licensee, permittee, or registrant for whom the person is a manager, administrator, owner, member, officer, director, associate, or partner of the prohibition. The board shall send the notification to the licensee, permittee, or registrant's address of record. The licensee, permittee, or registrant shall have 30 days from the date that the notice is sent to remove and replace the prohibited person and, where appropriate, file a change of permit to reflect that change. Failure to file a change of permit within the 30-day period shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action.

SEC. 5. Section 11153.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11153.5. (a) No wholesaler or manufacturer, or agent or employee of a wholesaler or manufacturer, shall furnish controlled substances for other than legitimate medical purposes.

(b) Anyone who violates this section knowing, or having a conscious disregard for the fact, that the controlled substances are for other than a legitimate medical purpose shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both a fine and imprisonment.

(c) Factors to be considered in determining whether a wholesaler or manufacturer, or agent or employee of a wholesaler or manufacturer, furnished controlled substances knowing or having a conscious disregard for the fact that the controlled substances are for other than legitimate medical purposes shall include, but not be limited to, whether the use of controlled substances was for purposes of increasing athletic ability or performance, the amount of controlled substances furnished, the previous ordering pattern of the customer (including size and frequency of orders), the type and size of the customer, and where and to whom the customer distributes the product.

SEC. 6. Section 11209 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11209. (a) No person shall deliver Schedule II, III, or IV controlled substances to a pharmacy or pharmacy receiving area, nor shall any person receive controlled substances on behalf of a pharmacy unless, at the time of delivery, a pharmacist or authorized receiving personnel signs a receipt showing the type and quantity of the controlled substances received. Any discrepancy between the receipt and the type or quantity of controlled substances actually received shall be reported to the delivering wholesaler or manufacturer by the next business day after delivery to the pharmacy.

(b) The delivery receipt and any record of discrepancy shall be maintained by the wholesaler or manufacturer for a period of three years.

(c) A violation of this section is a misdemeanor.

(d) Nothing in this section shall require a common carrier to label a package containing controlled substances in a manner contrary to federal law or regulation.

CHAPTER 919

An act to amend Sections 109, 317, 401, 510, 1101, 1311, 1312, 2007, 2304, 9915, and 13402 of, and to add Sections 203.5 and 1202 to, the Corporations Code, relating to corporations.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 109 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

109. (a) Any agreement, certificate or other instrument relating to a domestic or foreign corporation filed pursuant to this division may be corrected with respect to any misstatement of fact contained therein, any defect in the execution thereof or any other error or defect contained therein, by filing a certificate of correction entitled "Certificate of Correction of _____ (insert here the title of the agreement, certificate or other instrument to be corrected and name(s) of corporation or corporations)"; provided, however, that no such certificate of correction shall alter the wording of any resolution or written consent which was in fact adopted by the board or the shareholders or effect a corrected amendment of articles which amendment as so corrected would not in all respects have complied with the requirements of this division at the time of filing of the agreement, certificate, or other instrument being corrected.

(b) If the certificate of correction corrects original articles, the certificate of correction shall be either an officers' certificate or a certificate signed and verified by the incorporators, or a majority of them. If the certificate of correction corrects an agreement of merger or an officers' certificate accompanying an agreement of merger, the certificate of correction shall be an officers' certificate of the surviving corporation only. In all other instances, the certificate of correction shall be either an officer's certificate or a certificate signed and verified as provided in this division with respect to the agreement, certificate or other instrument being corrected.

(c) A certificate of correction shall set forth the following:

(1) The name or names of the corporation or corporations.

(2) The date the agreement, certificate or other instrument being corrected was filed.

(3) The provision in the agreement, certificate or other instrument as corrected and, if the execution was defective, wherein it was defective.

(4) If applicable, that the certificate does not alter the wording of any resolution or written consent which was in fact adopted by the board or the shareholders.

(d) A provision of the articles, amended articles, restated articles, or certificate of determination being corrected by a certificate of correction shall be identified in the certificate of correction in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 907.

(e) The filing of the certificate of correction shall not alter the effective time of the agreement, certificate or instrument being corrected, which shall remain as its original effective time, and such filing shall not affect any right or liability accrued or incurred before such filing, except that any right or liability accrued or incurred by reason of the error or defect being corrected shall be extinguished by such filing if the person having that right has not detrimentally relied on the original instrument.

SEC. 2. Section 203.5 is added to the Corporations Code, to read:

203.5. (a) If the articles include the designation and number of shares of one or more series within a class, the stated number of shares for all series within the class shall not exceed, and may be less than, the stated number of shares for the class.

(b) If so authorized in the articles and if the articles state the number of shares of the class, the articles may be amended by approval of the board alone to increase or decrease (but not below the number of shares of the series then outstanding) the number of shares of a series.

(c) If the articles authorize a class of shares which is stated to be issuable in series, the articles shall include either the designation and number of shares for at least one series within that class or an authorization of common shares.

SEC. 3. Section 317 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

317. (a) For the purposes of this section, "agent" means any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or other agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or was a director, officer, employee or agent of a foreign or domestic corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of the predecessor corporation; "proceeding" means any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative; and "expenses" includes without limitation attorneys' fees and any expenses of establishing a right to indemnification under subdivision (d) or paragraph (4) of subdivision (e).

(b) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor) by reason of the fact that the person is or was an agent of the corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the proceeding if that person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of the person was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

(c) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was an agent of the corporation, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by that person in connection with the defense or settlement of the action if the person acted in good faith, in a manner the person believed to be in the best interests of the corporation and its shareholders.

No indemnification shall be made under this subdivision for any of the following:

(1) In respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which the person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation in the performance of that person's duty to the corporation and its shareholders, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the proceeding is or was pending shall determine upon application that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for expenses and then only to the extent that the court shall determine.

(2) Of amounts paid in settling or otherwise disposing of a pending action without court approval.

(3) Of expenses incurred in defending a pending action which is settled or otherwise disposed of without court approval.

(d) To the extent that an agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits in defense of any proceeding referred to in subdivision (b) or (c) or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, the agent shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the agent in connection therewith.

(e) Except as provided in subdivision (d), any indemnification under this section shall be made by the corporation only if authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the agent is proper in the circumstances because the agent has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subdivision (b) or (c), by any of the following:

(1) A majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to such proceeding.

(2) If such a quorum of directors is not obtainable, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

(3) Approval of the shareholders (Section 153), with the shares owned by the person to be indemnified not being entitled to vote thereon.

(4) The court in which the proceeding is or was pending upon application made by the corporation or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering services in connection with the defense, whether or not the application by the agent, attorney or other person is opposed by the corporation.

(f) Expenses incurred in defending any proceeding may be advanced by the corporation prior to the final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the agent to repay that amount if it shall be determined ultimately that the agent is not entitled to be indemnified as authorized in this section.

(g) The indemnification authorized by this section shall not be deemed exclusive of any additional rights to indemnification for breach of duty to the corporation and its shareholders while acting in the capacity of a director or officer of the corporation to the extent the additional rights to indemnification are authorized in an article provision adopted pursuant to paragraph (11) of subdivision (a) of Section 204. The indemnification provided by this section for acts, omissions, or transactions while acting in the capacity of, or while serving as, a director or officer of the corporation but not involving breach of duty to the corporation and its shareholders shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, to the extent the additional rights to indemnification are authorized in the articles of the corporation. An article provision authorizing indemnification "in excess of that otherwise permitted by Section 317" or "to the fullest extent permissible under California law" or the substantial equivalent thereof shall be construed to be both a provision for additional indemnification for breach of duty to the corporation and its shareholders as referred to in, and with the limitations required by, paragraph (11) of subdivision (a) of Section 204 and a provision for additional indemnification as referred to in the second sentence of this subdivision. The rights to indemnity hereunder shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of the person. Nothing contained in this section shall affect any right to indemnification to which persons other than the directors and officers may be entitled by contract or otherwise.

(h) No indemnification or advance shall be made under this section, except as provided in subdivision (d) or paragraph (4) of subdivision (e), in any circumstance where it appears:

(1) That it would be inconsistent with a provision of the articles, bylaws, a resolution of the shareholders, or an agreement in effect at the time of the accrual of the alleged cause of action asserted in the proceeding in which the expenses were incurred or other amounts were paid, which prohibits or otherwise limits indemnification.

(2) That it would be inconsistent with any condition expressly imposed by a court in approving a settlement.

(i) A corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any agent of the corporation against any liability asserted against or incurred by the agent in that capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against that liability under this section. The fact that a corporation owns all or a portion of the shares of the company issuing a policy of insurance shall not render this subdivision inapplicable if either of the following conditions are satisfied: (1) if the articles authorize indemnification in excess of that authorized in this section and the insurance provided by this subdivision is limited as indemnification is required to be limited by paragraph (11) of subdivision (a) of Section 204; or (2) (A) the company issuing the insurance policy is organized, licensed, and operated in a manner that complies with the insurance laws and regulations applicable to its jurisdiction of organization, (B) the company issuing the policy provides procedures for processing claims that do not permit that company to be subject to the direct control of the corporation that purchased that policy, and (C) the policy issued provides for some manner of risk sharing between the issuer and purchaser of the policy, on one hand, and some unaffiliated person or persons, on the other, such as by providing for more than one unaffiliated owner of the company issuing the policy or by providing that a portion of the coverage furnished will be obtained from some unaffiliated insurer or reinsurer.

(j) This section does not apply to any proceeding against any trustee, investment manager, or other fiduciary of an employee benefit plan in that person's capacity as such, even though the person may also be an agent as defined in subdivision (a) of the employer corporation. A corporation shall have power to indemnify such a trustee, investment manager, or other fiduciary to the extent permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 207.

SEC. 4. Section 401 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

401. (a) Before any corporation issues any shares of any class or series of which the rights, preferences, privileges, and restrictions, or any of them, or the number of shares constituting any series or the designation of the series, are not set forth in its articles but are fixed in a resolution adopted by the board pursuant to authority given by its articles, an officers' certificate setting forth a copy of the resolution, the number of shares of the class or series and that none of the shares of the class or series has been issued shall be executed and filed.

(b) After any certificate of determination has been filed, but before the corporation issues any shares of the class or series covered thereby, the board may alter or revoke any right, preference, privilege, or restriction fixed or determined by the resolution set forth therein by the adoption of another resolution appropriate for that purpose and the execution and filing of an officers' certificate setting forth a copy of the resolution, and stating that none of the shares of the class or the series affected has been issued.

(c) After any certificate of determination has been filed, the board may, if authorized in the articles pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 202, increase or decrease the number of shares constituting any series, by the adoption of another resolution appropriate for that purpose and the execution and filing of an officers' certificate setting forth a copy of the resolution, the number of shares of the series then outstanding and the increase or decrease in the number of shares constituting the series. If any such certificate of determination has been incorporated in restated articles filed pursuant to Section 910, the action authorized by this subdivision may, notwithstanding Section 902, be accomplished by an amendment of the articles approved by the board alone.

(d) After shares of a class or series have been issued, the provisions of the resolution set forth in a certificate of determination may be amended only by the adoption and approval of an amendment in accordance with Section 902, 903, or 904 and the filing of a certificate of amendment in accordance with Sections 905 and 908. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, a certificate to increase or decrease the number of shares of a series also may be filed as permitted by subdivision (c).

(e) A provision in a certificate of determination being amended pursuant to subdivision (b), (c), or (d) shall be identified in the amendment in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 907.

(f) If a certificate is filed pursuant to subdivision (c) to decrease the number of shares of a series to zero, the certificate of determination whereby the series was established is thereupon no longer in force and the series is no longer an authorized series of the corporation.

SEC. 5. Section 510 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

510. (a) When a corporation purchases, redeems, acquires by way of conversion to another class or series, or otherwise acquires its own shares, those shares are restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares, unless the articles prohibit the reissuance thereof.

(b) If the articles prohibit the reissue of shares upon acquisition thereof by the corporation, then upon the acquisition the authorized number of shares of the class and series, if any, to which the shares belonged is reduced by the number of shares so acquired. Thereupon the articles shall be amended to reflect the reduction in authorized shares and, if all of the authorized shares of any class or series are acquired and their reissue is prohibited by the articles, then the articles shall also be amended to eliminate therefrom any statement of rights, preferences, privileges, and restrictions relating solely to the class or series. A certificate of amendment shall be filed in accordance with the requirements of Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 900), except that approval by the outstanding shares (Section 152) shall not be required to adopt any such amendment.

SEC. 6. Section 1101 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

1101. The board of each corporation which desires to merge shall approve an agreement of merger. The constituent corporations shall be parties to the agreement of merger and other persons, including a parent party corporation (Section 1200), may be parties to the agreement of merger. The agreement shall state all of the following:

(a) The terms and conditions of the merger.

(b) The amendments, subject to Sections 900 and 907, to the articles of the surviving corporation to be effected by the merger, if any; if any amendment changes the name of the surviving corporation the new name may be the same as or similar to the name of a disappearing domestic or foreign corporation, subject to subdivision (b) of Section 201.

(c) The name and place of incorporation of each constituent corporation and which of the constituent corporations is the surviving corporation.

(d) The manner of converting the shares of each of the constituent corporations into shares or other securities of the surviving corporation and, if any shares of any of the constituent corporations are not to be converted solely into shares or other securities of the surviving corporation, the cash, property, rights, or securities of any corporation which the holders of those shares are to receive in exchange for the shares, which cash, property, rights, or securities of any corporation may be in addition to or in lieu of shares or other securities of the surviving corporation, or that the shares are canceled without consideration.

(e) Such other details or provisions as are desired, if any, including, without limitation, a provision for the payment of cash in lieu of fractional shares or for any other arrangement with respect thereto consistent with the provisions of Section 407.

Each share of the same class or series of any constituent corporation (other than the cancellation of shares held by a constituent corporation or its parent or a wholly owned subsidiary of either in another constituent corporation) shall, unless all shareholders of the class or series consent and except as provided in Section 407, be treated equally with respect to any distribution of cash, property, rights or securities. Notwithstanding subdivision (d), except in a short-form merger, and in the merger of a corporation into its subsidiary in which it owns at least 90 percent of the outstanding shares of each class, the nonredeemable common shares of a constituent corporation may be converted only into nonredeemable common shares of the surviving corporation or a parent party if a constituent corporation or its parent owns, directly or indirectly, shares of another constituent corporation representing more than 50 percent of the voting power of the other constituent corporation prior to the merger, unless all of the shareholders of the class consent and except as provided in Section 407.

SEC. 7. Section 1202 is added to the Corporations Code, to read:

1202. (a) In addition to the requirements of Section 1201, the principal terms of a merger reorganization shall be approved by all the outstanding shares of a corporation if the agreement of merger provides that all the outstanding shares of that corporation are canceled without consideration in the merger.

(b) In addition to the requirements of Section 1201, if the terms of a merger reorganization or sale-of-assets reorganization provide that a class or series of preferred shares is to have distributed to it a lesser amount than would be required by applicable article provisions, the principal terms of the reorganization shall be approved by the same percentage of outstanding shares of that class or series which would be required to approve an amendment of the article provisions to provide for the distribution of that lesser amount.

(c) If a parent party within the meaning of Section 1200 is a foreign corporation (other than a foreign corporation to which subdivision (a) of Section 2115 is applicable), any requirement or lack of a requirement for approval by the outstanding shares of the foreign corporation shall be based, not on the application of Sections 1200 and 1201, but on the application of the laws of the state or place of incorporation of the foreign corporation.

SEC. 8. Section 1311 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

1311. This chapter, except Section 1312, does not apply to classes of shares whose terms and provisions specifically set forth the amount to be paid in respect to such shares in the event of a reorganization or merger.

SEC. 9. Section 1312 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

1312. (a) No shareholder of a corporation who has a right under this chapter to demand payment of cash for the shares held by the shareholder shall have any right at law or in equity to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger, or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, except in an action to test whether the number of shares required to authorize or approve the reorganization have been legally voted in favor thereof; but any holder of shares of a class whose terms and provisions specifically set forth the amount to be paid in respect to them in the event of a reorganization or short-form merger is entitled to payment in accordance with those terms and provisions or, if the principal terms of the reorganization are approved pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1202, is entitled to payment in accordance with the terms and provisions of the approved reorganization.

(b) If one of the parties to a reorganization or short-form merger is directly or indirectly controlled by, or under common control with, another party to the reorganization or short-form merger, subdivision (a) shall not apply to any shareholder of such party who has not demanded payment of cash for such shareholder's shares pursuant to this chapter; but if the shareholder institutes any action to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, the shareholder shall not thereafter have any right to demand payment of cash for the shareholder's shares pursuant to this chapter. The court in any action attacking the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded shall not restrain or enjoin the consummation of the transaction except upon 10 days' prior notice to the corporation and upon a determination by the court that clearly no other remedy will adequately protect the complaining shareholder or the class of shareholders of which such shareholder is a member.

(c) If one of the parties to a reorganization or short-form merger is directly or indirectly controlled by, or under common control with, another party to the reorganization or short-form merger, in any action to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, (1) a party to a reorganization or short-form merger which controls another party to the reorganization or short-form merger shall have the burden of proving that the transaction is just and reasonable as to the shareholders of the controlled party, and (2) a person who controls two or more parties to a reorganization shall have the burden of proving that the transaction is just and reasonable as to the shareholders of any party so controlled.

SEC. 10. Section 2007 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

2007. (a) If the corporation in process of winding up has both preferred and common shares outstanding, a plan of distribution of the shares, obligations or securities of any other corporation, domestic or foreign, or assets other than money which is not in accordance with the liquidation rights of the preferred shares as specified in the articles may nevertheless be adopted if approved by (1) the board and (2) by approval of the outstanding shares (Section 152) of each class. The plan may provide that such distribution is in complete or partial satisfaction of the rights of any of such shareholders upon distribution and liquidation of the assets.

(b) A plan of distribution so approved shall be binding upon all the shareholders except as provided in subdivision (c). The board shall cause notice of the adoption of the plan to be given by mail within 20 days after its adoption to all holders of shares having a liquidation preference.

(c) Shareholders having a liquidation preference who dissent from the plan of distribution are entitled to be paid the amount of their liquidation preference in cash if they file written demand for payment with the corporation within 30 days after the date of mailing of the notice of the adoption of the plan of distribution, unless the plan of distribution is abandoned. The demand shall state the number and class of the shares held of record by the shareholder in respect of which the shareholder claims payment.

(d) If any such demand for cash payment is filed, the board in its discretion may abandon the plan without further approval by the outstanding shares (Section 152), and all shareholders shall then be entitled to distribution according to their rights and liquidation preferences in the process of winding up.

(e) This section shall not apply to a distribution in accordance with a reorganization the principal terms of which have been approved pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1202.

SEC. 11. Section 2304 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

2304. The effect of a difference between the articles and bylaws in the statement of the number of directors shall not be governed by subdivision (a) of Section 212 of the new law for a corporation existing on the effective date, which shall continue to be governed by the prior law, unless and until an amendment of its articles is filed pursuant to Section 2302. If such amendment makes any change in the number of directors or the maximum or minimum number of directors or makes a change from a fixed to a variable board or vice versa, it shall also be approved by the outstanding shares (Section 152).

SEC. 12. Section 9915 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

9915. (a) Subdivision (a) of Section 5151 of the new public benefit corporation law does not apply to subject corporations governed by the public benefit corporation law, subdivision (a) of Section 7151 of the new mutual benefit corporation law does not apply to subject corporations governed by the mutual benefit corporation law, and subdivision (a) of Section 9151 of the new religious corporation law does not apply to subject corporations governed by the religious corporation law, but those corporations shall continue to be governed by the prior nonprofit law unless and until an amendment of the articles is filed pursuant to Section 9913. If an amendment makes any change in the number of directors or the maximum or minimum number of directors or makes change from a fixed to a variable board or vice versa, it shall also be approved by the members (Section 5034).

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the new public benefit corporation law, the new mutual benefit corporation law, or the new religious corporation law, as appropriate, rather than the provisions of the prior nonprofit law apply with the respect to determining the limits on the number of directors.

SEC. 13. Section 13402 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

13402. (a) This part shall not apply to any corporation now in existence or hereafter organized which may lawfully render professional services other than pursuant to this part, nor shall anything herein contained alter or affect any right or privilege, whether under any existing or future provision of the Business and Professions Code or otherwise, in terms permitting or not prohibiting performance of professional services through the use of any form of corporation permitted by the General Corporation Law.

(b) The conduct of a business in this state by a corporation pursuant to a license or registration issued under any state law, except laws relating to taxation, shall not be considered to be the conduct of a business as a professional corporation if the business is conducted by, and the license or registration is issued to, a corporation which is not a professional corporation within the meaning of this part, whether or not a professional corporation could conduct the same business, or portions of the same business, as a professional corporation.

CHAPTER 920

An act to amend Sections 25208.4 and 25208.5 of, and to add and repeal Section 25208.18 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Federal, state, and local agencies are conducting general research and specific studies directed at agricultural drainage water surface impoundments and the proper method of operation to prevent adverse impacts to the environment.

(b) In order to better understand the character of agricultural drainage water, its behavior in surface impoundments, and the manner in which the discharge of this water should be regulated to prevent adverse environmental impacts, it is necessary that the California regional water quality control boards are given the authority to extend the deadlines imposed pursuant to the Toxic Pits Cleanup Act of 1984 (Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 25208) of Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code).

SEC. 2. Section 25208.4 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1366 of the Statutes of 1985, is amended to read:

25208.4. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, unless granted an exemption pursuant to subdivision (b) or Section 25208.13 or 25208.18, a person shall not discharge liquid hazardous wastes or hazardous wastes containing free liquids into a surface impoundment after June 30, 1988, if the surface impoundment, or the land immediately beneath it, contains hazardous wastes and is within one-half mile upgradient from a potential source of drinking water.

A person who owns a surface impoundment which meets the conditions specified in this subdivision shall close the impoundment.

(b) A person may apply to a regional board to exempt a surface impoundment from subdivision (a) pursuant to this subdivision. A person shall submit the application for exemption to the regional board on or before January 1, 1986.

(1) A regional board shall either grant or deny an exemption from subdivision (a) on or before December 31, 1987. A regional board may grant an exemption from subdivision (a) only if the regional board makes both of the following findings:

(A) No extremely hazardous wastes are currently being discharged into the surface impoundment, and either one of the following applies:

(i) The records of the person applying for an exemption indicate that no extremely hazardous wastes have been discharged into the surface impoundment.

(ii) Extremely hazardous wastes are not present in the surface impoundment, in the vadose zone, or in the waters of the state.

(B) The surface impoundment is in compliance with Section 25208.5, and a report has been filed pursuant to Section 25208.8.

(2) An exemption granted pursuant to this subdivision shall not be effective for more than five years. Applications for an exemption or a renewal of an exemption shall be accompanied by the fee specified in the fee schedule adopted by the state board pursuant to Section 25208.3. A regional board shall not renew the exemption unless the regional board makes both of the following findings:

(A) No hazardous waste constituents have migrated from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone or the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute the vadose zone, or pollute, or threaten to pollute, the waters of the state.

(B) Continuing the operation of the surface impoundment does not pose a significant potential of hazardous waste constituents migrating from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone or the waters of the state, thus polluting the vadose zone, or polluting, or threatening to pollute, these waters.

(3) Except as provided in paragraph (4), the regional board shall revoke an exemption granted pursuant to this subdivision and require the person granted the exemption to comply with subdivision (a) if the regional board determines that the surface impoundment granted the exemption is polluting, or threatening to pollute, the waters of the state or that hazardous waste constituents are migrating from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone or the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute these waters. The regional board shall also issue a cease and desist order pursuant to Section 13301 of the Water Code and require appropriate removal and remedial actions by the person granted the exemption, or the responsible parties, to clean up any pollution which may have occurred.

(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (3), a regional board may continue in effect an exemption granted pursuant to this subdivision if the regional board orders the person to double line the surface impoundment, equip the surface impoundment with a leachate collection system, and conduct groundwater monitoring, as specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25208.5, within one year after granting this continuance, and if the regional board makes all of the following findings:

(A) The surface impoundment granted the exemption has hazardous waste constituents, in concentrations which threaten to pollute the waters of the state, which are migrating from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone, but no hazardous waste constituents have migrated into the waters of the state.

(B) Installing double liners and a leachate collection system and conducting groundwater monitoring, as specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25208.5, will abate the threat to the waters of the state before any hazardous waste constituents migrate to the waters.

(C) All removal and remedial actions necessary to abate the threat specified in subparagraph (A) can be completed prior to the migration of any hazardous waste constituents into the waters of the state.

(5) Notwithstanding paragraph (4), the regional board shall revoke the exemption continued pursuant to paragraph (4) and shall require the person granted this continuance to comply with subdivision (a) if the regional board determines either of the following:

(A) The surface impoundment is polluting the waters of the state or that hazardous waste constituents are migrating from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone or the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute, or threaten to pollute, these waters.

(B) The person does not comply with the board's order or conduct the necessary removal or remedial actions, as required by paragraph (4).

The regional board shall also issue a cease and desist order pursuant to Section 13301 of the Water Code and require appropriate removal and remedial actions by the person granted the exemption, or the responsible parties, to clean up any pollution which may have occurred, upon making either of these determinations.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person shall not do either of the following, unless the person is granted an exemption pursuant to Section 25208.13 or 25208.16, or unless the person is granted a variance for the discharge of a restricted hazardous waste pursuant to subdivision (d) by the department:

(1) On or after January 1, 1985, discharge restricted hazardous wastes containing cyanide wastes or polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs), in the concentrations specified in paragraphs (1) and (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 25122.7, into a surface impoundment.

(2) On or after January 1, 1986, discharge any restricted hazardous waste, not otherwise specified in paragraph (1), into a surface impoundment.

(d) The department may grant a variance, in accordance with Section 66930 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, except as specified in paragraph (2) of this subdivision, from the requirements of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) for restricted hazardous wastes which do not contain cyanide wastes or polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs), in the concentrations specified in paragraphs (1) and (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 25122.7, if the department determines the discharge is in compliance with the provisions of this article and that sufficient recycling or treatment capacity for a particular restricted hazardous waste stream or category of restricted hazardous waste is not available in this state.

(1) No variance shall be granted by the department unless the application is accompanied by a demonstration, satisfactory to the department, that the surface impoundment will be equipped, on or before January 1, 1986, and before the issuance of the variance, with double liners, a leachate collection system, and a groundwater monitoring program, as specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25208.5, and that the applicant has done one of the following:

(A) Entered into a binding commitment to, and has applied for all required permits to, construct, or to otherwise provide for, alternative treatment or recycling facilities.

(B) If the variance is for an onsite facility, the applicant is making changes in the operations of the onsite facility which will eliminate the discharge of the restricted hazardous waste stream or category of restricted hazardous waste into the surface impoundment.

(2) All applications for a variance pursuant to this subdivision shall be filed with the department on or before September 30, 1985.

(3) Any person applying for a variance shall, on or before January

1, 1986, do one of the following:

(A) Submit a hydrogeological assessment report to the regional board, as set forth in Section 25208.8.

(B) If the surface impoundment meets the conditions specified in subdivision (a), the applicant may apply for an exemption pursuant to subdivision (b).

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the regional board shall give the highest priority to acting upon any exemption application or hydrogeological assessment report filed pursuant to this subdivision. The regional board shall review the exemption application or the hydrogeological assessment report and shall approve or disapprove the report or exemption application within nine months after receiving the report or exemption application.

(5) Any person applying for a variance for a discharge pursuant to this subdivision shall make available to the department and to the regional board any records concerning the discharge which are relevant to the findings required to be made by the department or regional board pursuant to this subdivision.

(6) Notwithstanding subdivision (d) of Section 66930 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, a variance issued pursuant to this subdivison shall become effective only when the variance is issued by the department, and the variance shall not be deemed issued if the department fails to issue a decision approving or denying the variance petition within the time specified in subdivision (d) of Section 66930 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations. The department may grant a variance only for a limited period of time, but for a period of no longer than one year. The variance shall include a date by which the generator or disposal facility receiving a variance shall construct recycling or treatment facilities or cease the discharge into the surface impoundment. The variance shall specify the date when the restricted hazardous waste stream or category of restricted hazardous waste shall be subject to the requirements specified in subdivision (c). The department may annually extend the variance of an individual applicant for an additional time, but not more than twice, if the applicant demonstrates to the department, and the department makes a written finding that, the applicant is making reasonable progress towards the reduction and final elimination of the discharge into the surface impoundment.

(7) The department shall, within 30 days after granting a variance pursuant to this subdivision, submit a copy of the variance to the appropriate regional board, to each Member of the Legislature in whose district is located the discharge to be exempted by the variance, to the Senate Committee on Toxics and Public Safety Management, and to the Assembly Committee on Environmental Safety and Toxic Materials.

(8) All variances granted pursuant to this subdivision are subject to review at the discretion of the department and may be revoked at any time. The department shall revoke a variance granted pursuant to this subdivision if either the regional board or the department determines that the discharge of restricted hazardous wastes is polluting, or threatens to pollute, the waters of the state or that hazardous waste constituents are migrating from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone or the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute these waters.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1989, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 25208.4 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 1366 of the Statutes of 1985, is amended to read:

25208.4. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, unless the person was granted an exemption pursuant to subdivision (b) on or before December 31, 1987, pursuant to Section 25208.4, as it read on December 31, 1988, or pursuant to Section 25208.13 or 25208.18, a person shall not discharge liquid hazardous wastes or hazardous wastes containing free liquids into a surface impoundment, if the surface impoundment, or the land immediately beneath it, contains hazardous wastes and is within one-half mile upgradient from a potential source of drinking water.

A person who owns a surface impoundment which meets the conditions specified in this subdivision shall close the impoundment.

(b) A person may apply to a regional board to exempt a surface impoundment from subdivision (a) pursuant to this subdivision. A person shall submit the application for exemption to the regional board on or before January 1, 1986.

(1) A regional board shall either grant or deny an exemption from subdivision (a) on or before December 31, 1987. A regional board may grant an exemption from subdivision (a) only if the regional board makes both of the following findings:

(A) No extremely hazardous wastes are currently being discharged into the surface impoundment, and either one of the following applies:

(i) The records of the person applying for an exemption indicate that no extremely hazardous wastes have been discharged into the surface impoundment.

(ii) Extremely hazardous wastes are not present in the surface impoundment, in the vadose zone, or in the waters of the state.

(B) The surface impoundment is in compliance with Section 25208.5, and a report has been filed pursuant to Section 25208.8.

(2) An exemption granted pursuant to this subdivision shall not be effective for more than five years. Applications for an exemption or a renewal of an exemption shall be accompanied by the fee specified in the fee schedule adopted by the state board pursuant to Section 25208.3. A regional board shall not renew the exemption unless the regional board makes both of the following findings.

(A) No hazardous waste constituents have migrated from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone or the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute the vadose zone, or pollute, or threaten to pollute, the waters of the state.

(B) Continuing the operation of the surface impoundment does not pose a significant potential of hazardous waste constituents migrating from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone or the waters of the state, thus polluting the vadose zone, or polluting, or threatening to pollute, these waters.

(3) Except as provided in paragraph (4), the regional board shall revoke an exemption granted pursuant to this subdivision and require the person granted the exemption to comply with subdivision (a) if the regional board determines that the surface impoundment granted the exemption is polluting, or threatening to pollute, the waters of the state or that hazardous waste constituents are migrating from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone or the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute these waters. The regional board shall also issue a cease and desist order pursuant to Section 13301 of the Water Code and require appropriate removal and remedial actions by the person granted the exemption, or the responsible parties, to clean up any pollution which may have occurred.

(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (3), a regional board may continue in effect an exemption granted pursuant to this subdivision if the regional board orders the person to double line the surface impoundment, equip the surface impoundment with a leachate collection system, and conduct groundwater monitoring, as specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25208.5, within one year after granting this continuance, and if the regional board makes all of the following findings:

(A) The surface impoundment granted the exemption has hazardous waste constituents, in concentrations which threaten to pollute the waters of the state, which are migrating from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone, but no hazardous waste constituents have migrated into the waters of the state.

(B) Installing double liners and a leachate collection system and conducting groundwater monitoring, as specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25208.5, will abate the threat to the waters of the state before any hazardous waste constituents migrate to the waters.

(C) All removal and remedial actions necessary to abate the threat specified in subparagraph (A) can be completed prior to the migration of any hazardous waste constituents into the waters of the state.

(5) Notwithstanding paragraph (4), the regional board shall revoke the exemption continued pursuant to paragraph (4) and shall require the person granted this continuance to comply with subdivision (a) if the regional board determines either of the following:

(A) The surface impoundment is polluting the waters of the state or that hazardous waste constituents are migrating from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone or the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute, or threaten to pollute, these waters.

(B) The person does not comply with the board's order or conduct the necessary removal or remedial actions, as required by paragraph (4).

The regional board shall also issue a cease and desist order pursuant to Section 13301 of the Water Code and require appropriate removal and remedial actions by the person granted the exemption, or the responsible parties, to clean up any pollution which may have occurred, upon making either of these determinations.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person shall not discharge any restricted hazardous waste into a surface impoundment, unless the person is granted an exemption pursuant to Section 25208.13 or 25208.16.

(d) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1989.

SEC. 4. Section 25208.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25208.5. (a) Unless granted an exemption pursuant to subdivision (c) or Section 25208.13 or 25208.18, on or after January 1, 1989, no person shall discharge any liquid hazardous waste or hazardous wastes containing free liquids into a surface impoundment, unless the surface impoundment is double lined, as specified in subdivision (b), equipped with a leachate collection system, and groundwater monitoring is conducted, in accordance with the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, the regulations and guidance documents adopted pursuant thereto, and the regulations adopted by the state board and the department.

(b) Until the regulations and guidance documents specified in subdivision (a) relating to double liners for surface impoundments go into effect, the requirement of installing double liners in subdivision (a) may be satisfied by installing a top liner which is designed, operated, and constructed of materials to prevent the migration of any constituents into the top liner during the period the facility remains in operation, including any postclosure monitoring period, and by installing a lower liner which is designed, operated, and constructed to prevent the migration of any constituents through the lower liner during the same period, and is constructed of at least a three-foot thick layer of recompacted clay or other natural materials which have a permeability of not more than 1×10^{-7} centimeter per second.

(c) A person may apply for an exemption from subdivision (a) for a surface impoundment for which construction had begun on or before July 1, 1984, and which was issued waste discharge requirements by filing an application with the regional board on or before January 1, 1986. The initial application for exemption shall include a completed hydrogeological assessment report which contains the accurate data and documentation specified in Section 25208.8. An application for renewal of an exemption shall include the report only if required by the regional board. If the regional board has not granted the exemption by June 30, 1988, the person shall then comply with the requirements specified in subdivision (a), except that if the regional board denies the application for exemption but determines that a reasonable person would have applied for an exemption, the regional board may temporarily exempt the applicant from subdivision (a), for up to one year from the date of the denial of the exemption, for the sole purpose of bringing the surface impoundment into compliance with subdivision (a).

(d) The regional board may grant an exemption upon reviewing the application and making all of the following findings:

(1) The applicant has fully complied with subdivision (c).

(2) No hazardous waste constituents have migrated from the surface impoundment into the vadose zone or the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute the waters of the state.

(3) Continuing the operation of the surface impoundment without the requirements specified in subdivision (a) does not pose a significant potential of hazardous waste constituents migrating from the surface impoundments into the vadose zone or the waters of the state, in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute the waters of the state.

(e) If the regional board grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (d), the regional board shall revise the waste discharge requirements prescribed pursuant to Section 13263 of the Water Code for that surface impoundment based upon a review of the report and shall include conditions in the waste discharge requirements to ensure that the waters of the state will not be threatened with pollution or polluted.

(f) An exemption granted pursuant to subdivision (d) or (g) shall not be effective for more than five years. A regional board shall not renew the exemption unless the regional board makes the findings specified in subdivision (d).

(g) If a regional board does not take any action by June 30, 1988, on a completed application for an exemption that was filed on or before January 1, 1986, the person who filed the application may file a request with the state board on or before July 31, 1988, to review the application. The state board shall deny or grant the exemption pursuant to the findings specified in subdivision (d) within four months after the request for review is filed, and, if the board grants the exemption, the state board shall revise the waste discharge requirements pursuant to subdivision (e). An exemption granted pursuant to this subdivision is subject to the requirements specified in subdivision (f). The state board shall act on an application for exemption on or before November 30, 1988. A person who files a request for a review of an application with the state board is exempt from subdivision (a) until the state board acts on the application, and, if the state board denies the exemption, the applicant is exempt from subdivision (a) for one year from the date of the denial of the exemption for the sole purpose of bringing the surface impoundment into compliance with subdivision (a).

(h) Applications for an exemption or a renewal of an exemption shall be accompanied by the fee specified in the fee schedule adopted by the state board pursuant to Section 25208.3.

SEC. 5. Section 25208.18 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25208.18. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, a regional board may grant a person an exemption from this article for a surface impoundment if the applicant demonstrates and the regional board determines that the surface impoundment contains only agricultural surface or subsurface drainage waters, that the surface impoundment meets all of the criteria in subdivision (b), and that the person complies with the requirements of subdivision (c). A surface impoundment located in a federal or state wildlife refuge or area is not eligible for an exemption under this section.

(b) A regional board may grant an exemption pursuant to subdivision (a) only if the surface impoundment, at the time an extension is granted, meets all of the following criteria:

(1) The surface impoundment is a drainage water management unit, as defined in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 13452 of the Water Code.

(2) The regional board has issued waste discharge requirements for the operation of the surface impoundment, or waived the issuance of waste discharge requirements. The regional board shall adopt findings in support of its action if it has waived the issuance of waste discharge requirements.

(3) The surface impoundment is operated in a manner acceptable to the regional board, it is in compliance with waste discharge requirements, if issued, and it is not adversely affecting a potential source of drinking water.

(4) The person who owns the surface impoundment demonstrates to the satisfaction of the regional board that measures to prevent adverse impacts to wildlife have been implemented or will be implemented pursuant to a schedule adopted by the regional board.

(5) The person who owns the surface impoundment demonstrates to the satisfaction of the regional board that a groundwater quality monitoring program designed to detect lateral seepage has been implemented or will be implemented pursuant to a schedule adopted by the regional board.

(c) To qualify for an exemption under this section, the person shall file an application for an exemption with the regional board within 180 days after the surface impoundment becomes subject to this article, together with an initial filing fee of three thousand dollars ($3,000). The fee revenues shall be deposited in the Surface Impoundment Assessment Account in the General Fund. The application shall contain the names of persons who own or operate each surface impoundment for which the exemption is sought and the location of each surface impoundment for which the exemption is sought. The application shall be accompanied by a technical report containing all of the following information:

(1) Information fully characterizing the waste constituents in the drainage water.

(2) A description of the installed features of the surface impoundment, including a description of engineering design.

(3) A description of the precipitation and drainage controls for the surface impoundment.

(4) Operation plans for waste containment.

(5) Estimates of the rate of waste water percolation.

(6) Information on groundwater quality immediately underlying and adjacent to the surface impoundment.

(d) The regional board shall act on an exemption application within 180 days of receipt of a complete application and technical report. The regional board shall notify an applicant not later than 30 days after receipt of an application and technical report if either the application or technical report do not fully comply with the requirements of this section. If an application or technical report is determined by the regional board to be in noncompliance, the applicant shall provide additional information to the regional board within 60 days of notification of the regional board's determination of noncompliance. A regional board shall not take action on the application if the additional information required by the regional board is received after this 60-day period.

If the exemption is granted, the regional board shall conduct annual inspections of the surface impoundment. Except as provided in subdivision (e), an exemption granted pursuant to this section shall be effective for four years from the date it is granted, or until January 1, 1993, whichever is earlier.

(e) If a regional board finds that a surface impoundment granted an exemption pursuant to this section does not comply with the criteria specified in subdivision (b) or with the report filed pursuant to subdivision (c), the regional board shall revoke the exemption. If an exemption is revoked, all of the provisions of this article, as applicable, apply to the surface impoundment.

(f) The state board shall provide guidance to the regional boards to ensure the uniform administration of this section.

(g) On or before January 1, 1992, the state board shall submit a report to the Legislature on the status of compliance with this section, including, but not limited to, all of the following information:

(1) The number of surface impoundments for which applications have been filed pursuant to this section.

(2) The number of surface impoundments which were exempted from this article under this section.

(3) The status of completed or ongoing studies of technologies and methods for the management of agricultural drainage water.

(4) Using existing studies and reports, a description of options for the management of agricultural drainage water and any relevant findings.

(h) This section does not alter or diminish the authority of the state board, or a regional board, under Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code, including any regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(i) Notwithstanding Section 25208.3, each person granted an exemption pursuant to subdivision (c) shall pay only the application fee provided in subdivision (c) and any additional fees assessed by the state board to recover actual costs incurred by the state board and regional boards to administer this section. If the exemption is revoked pursuant to subdivision (c) or the application is denied, the person shall pay the fees assessed pursuant to Section 25208.3.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, extends or deletes that date.

CHAPTER 921

An act relating to the Youth Authority, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of fifty-five million dollars ($55,000,000) is appropriated to the Department of the Youth Authority as follows:

(a) The sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000) is appropriated from the 1986 Prison Construction Fund for site development for a 600-bed facility at the Northern California Youth Center.

(b) The sum of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) is appropriated from the 1988 Prison Construction Fund to the Department of the Youth Authority without regard to fiscal years for the purpose of completing construction work of and equipment acquisition for the 600-bed institution at the Northern California Youth Center.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Facilities of the Youth Authority are severely overcrowded and this bill is necessary to expedite the construction of facilities which would alleviate existing critically crowded facilities.

CHAPTER 922

An act to amend Sections 12024.2, 12246, and 12701 of, and to add Section 12736 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to weights and measures.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12024.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

12024.2. (a) It is unlawful for any person to compute, at the time of sale of a commodity, a value which is not a true extension of a price per unit which is then advertised, posted, or quoted or to charge, at the time of sale of a commodity, a value which is more than the price which is then advertised, posted, or quoted.

A violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding one year, or by both, if the violation is willful or grossly negligent, or when the difference between the value actually computed and the total true value of the commodity offered for sale (pursuant to the advertised, posted, or quoted price per unit) is more than one dollar ($1) greater than the total true value of the commodity offered for sale.

(b) A violation of this section is an infraction when the difference between the value actually computed and the total true value of the commodity offered for sale (pursuant to the advertised, posted, or quoted price per unit) is not more than one dollar ($1) greater than the total true value of the commodity offered for sale. The violation is punishable by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100).

SEC. 2. Section 12246 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

12246. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 12701 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

12701. The following persons are not weighmasters:

(a) Retailers weighing, measuring, or counting commodities for sale by them in retail stores in the presence of, and directly to, consumers.

(b) Except for persons subject to Section 12730, producers of agricultural commodities or livestock, who weigh commodities produced or purchased by them or by their producer neighbors, when no charge is made for the weighing, or when no signed or initialed statement or memorandum is issued of the weight upon which a purchase or sale of the commodity is based.

(c) Common carriers issuing bills of lading on which are recorded, for the purpose of computing transportation charges, the weights of commodities offered for transportation, including carriers of household goods when transporting shipments weighing less than 1,000 pounds.

(d) Milk samplers and weighers licensed pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 35161) of Chapter 12 of Part 1 of Division 15 of the Food and Agricultural Code, when performing the duties for which they are licensed.

(e) Persons who measure the amount of oil, gas, or other fuels for purposes of royalty computation and payment, or other operations of fuel and oil companies and their retail outlets.

(f) Newspaper publishers weighing or counting newspapers for sale to dealers or distributors.

(g) Textile maintenance establishments weighing, counting, or measuring any articles in connection with the business of those establishments.

(h) Garbage and refuse disposal districts operating pursuant to Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 4170) of Part 2 of Division 5 of the Health and Safety Code, county sanitation districts operating pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4700) of Part 3 of Division 5 of the Health and Safety Code, and solid waste facilities, as defined in Section 66720.1 of the Government Code.

(i) Persons who purchase scrap metal or salvage materials pursuant to a nonprofit recycling program.

(j) Pest control operators licensed pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11701) of Division 6 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(k) Retailers, or recycling centers established solely for the redemption of empty beverage containers, as that phrase is defined in Section 14512 of the Public Resources Code, who are weighing, measuring, or counting salvage or returnable materials for purchase or redemption by them in retail stores, or, in the case of recycling centers, on the retail store premises or on a parking lot immediately adjacent to a retail store which is used for the purpose of parking by the store customers, directly from and in the presence of the seller. "Retailer" means an entity which derives 90 percent or more of its income from the sale of small quantities of food or nonfood items, or both, directly to consumers. "Salvage materials" means used paper products and used containers made of aluminum, tin, glass, or plastic.

SEC. 4. Section 12736 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

12736. The director may adopt necessary rules and regulations regarding the accuracy of automated systems for retail commodity price charging referred to as "scanners."

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 923

An act to amend Section 87304 of the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 87304 of the Government Code is amended to read:

87304. If any agency fails to submit a proposed conflict of interest code or amendments within the time limits prescribed pursuant to Section 87303 or 87306, the code reviewing body may issue any appropriate order directed to the agency or take any other appropriate action, including the adoption of a conflict of interest code for the agency If the code reviewing body does not issue an appropriate order or take other action within 90 days of the deadline imposed on the agency as prescribed in Section 87303 or 87306, the commission may issue any appropriate order directed to the agency or take any other appropriate action, including the adoption of a conflict of interest code for the agency. The commission shall consult with the agency before ordering the adoption of a conflict of interest code for the agency.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 924

An act to amend Sections 615, 660, 4014, 5201, 12110, 12111, 21100, 22513, 22520, 22520.5, 24600, 24603, 24605, 25110, 25253, 27700, 27907, 29000, and 29004 of, and to amend the heading of Article 6 (commencing with Section 27700) of Chapter 5 of Division 12 of, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 615 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

615. (a) A "tow truck" is a motor vehicle which has been altered or designed and equipped for, and primarily used in the business of, transporting vehicles by means of a crane, hoist, tow bar, tow line, or dolly or is otherwise primarily used to render assistance to other vehicles. A "roll-back carrier" designed to carry up to two vehicles is also a tow truck. "Tow truck" does not include an automobile dismantlers' tow vehicle.

(b) Persons licensed as a repossession agency pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 7500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code may utilize a tow truck when repossessing vehicles.

(c) "Automobile dismantlers' tow vehicle" means a tow vehicle which is registered by an automobile dismantler licensed pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 11500) of Division 5 and which is used exclusively to tow vehicles owned by that automobile dismantler in the course of the automobile dismantling business.

SEC. 2. Section 660 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

660. The "unladen weight" of a vehicle is the weight equipped and ready for operation on the road including the body, fenders, oil in motor, radiator full of water, with five gallons of gasoline or equivalent weight of other motor fuel; also equipment required by law, and unless exempted under Section 661, any special cabinets, boxes or body parts permanently attached to the vehicle, and any machinery, equipment or attachment which is attendant to the efficient operation of the body or vehicle. Unladen weight shall not include any load or any machinery or mechanical apparatus, such as, but not limited to, wood saws, well-drilling machines, spray apparatus, tow truck cranes, and grinding equipment. The unladen weight of a vehicle shall have no application in determining any fee under this code or the Revenue and Taxation Code other than Section 9400.

SEC. 3. Section 4014 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4014. Any portable or collapsible dolly carried in a tow truck or in a truck used by an automobile dismantler and used upon a highway exclusively for towing disabled vehicles is exempt from registration.

SEC 4. Section 5201 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

5201. License plates shall at all times be securely fastened to the vehicle for which they are issued so as to prevent the plates from swinging and shall be mounted in a position to be clearly visible, and shall be maintained in a condition so as to be clearly legible. The rear license plate shall be mounted not less than 12 inches nor more than 60 inches from the ground, and the front license plate shall be mounted not more than 60 inches from the ground, except as follows:

(a) The rear license plate on a tow truck may be mounted on the left-hand side of the mast assembly at the rear of the cab of the vehicle, not less than 12 inches nor more than 90 inches from the ground.

(b) The rear license plate on a tank vehicle hauling hazardous waste, as defined in Section 25117 of the Health and Safety Code, or asphalt material may be mounted not less than 12 inches nor more than 90 inches from the ground.

(c) The rear license plate on a truck tractor may be mounted at the rear of the cab of the vehicle, not less than 12 inches nor more than 90 inches from the ground.

(d) The rear license plate of a vehicle designed by the manufacturer for the collection and transportation of garbage, rubbish, or refuse and which is used regularly for the collection and transportation of such material by any person or governmental entity employed to collect, transport, and dispose of garbage, rubbish, or refuse may be mounted not less than 12 inches nor more than 90 inches from the ground.

(e) No covering shall be used on license plates. However, the installation of a cover over a lawfully parked vehicle to protect it from the weather and the elements does not constitute a violation of this subdivision. Any peace officer or other regularly salaried employee of a public agency designated to enforce laws, including local ordinances, relating to the parking of vehicles may temporarily remove so much of such a cover as is necessary to inspect any license plate, tab, or indicia of registration on a vehicle.

SEC. 5. Section 12110 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12110. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), no towing service shall provide and no person or public entity shall accept any direct or indirect commission, gift, or any compensation whatever from a towing service in consideration of arranging or requesting the services of a tow truck. As used in this section, "arranging" does not include the activities of employees or principals of a provider of towing services in responding to a request for towing services.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not preclude a public entity otherwise authorized by law from requiring a fee in connection with the award of a franchise for towing vehicles on behalf of that public entity. However, the fee in such cases shall not exceed the amount necessary to reimburse the public entity for its actual and reasonable costs incurred in connection with the towing program.

SEC. 6. Section 12111 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12111. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), no city or city and county may impose a business license tax for revenue-raising purposes on the operation of a tow truck in its jurisdiction if the vehicle tower maintains no fixed place of business within the boundaries of the city or city and county.

according to gross receipts attributable to work done within the city or city and county.

SEC. 7. Section 21100 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

21100. Local authorities may adopt rules and regulations by ordinance or resolution regarding the following matters:

(a) Regulating or prohibiting processions or assemblages on the highways.

(b) Licensing and regulating the operation of vehicles for hire and drivers of passenger vehicles for hire.

(c) Regulating traffic by means of traffic officers.

(d) Regulating traffic by means of official traffic control devices meeting the requirements of Section 21400.

(e) Regulating traffic by means of any person given temporary or permanent appointment for such duty by the local authority whenever official traffic control devices are disabled or otherwise inoperable, at the scenes of accidents or disasters, or at such locations as may require traffic direction for orderly traffic flow.

No person shall, however, be appointed pursuant to this subdivision unless and until the local authority has submitted to the commissioner or to the chief law enforcement officer exercising jurisdiction in the enforcement of traffic laws within the area in which such person is to perform such duty, for review, a proposed program of instruction for the training of a person for such duty, and unless and until the commissioner or such other chief law enforcement officer approves the proposed program. The commissioner or such other chief law enforcement officer shall approve such a proposed program if he reasonably determines that the program will provide sufficient training for persons assigned to perform the duty described in this subdivision.

(f) Regulating traffic at the site of road or street construction or maintenance by persons authorized for such duty by the local authority.

(g) Licensing and regulating the operation of tow truck service or tow truck drivers whose principal place of business or employment is within the jurisdiction of the local authority, excepting the operation and operators of any auto dismantlers' tow vehicle licensed under Section 11505 or any tow truck operated by a repossessing agency licensed under Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 7500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code and its registered employees. Nothing in this subdivision shall limit the authority of a city or city and county pursuant to Section 12111.

(h) Operation of bicycles, and, as specified in Section 21114.5, electric carts by physically disabled persons, or persons 50 years of age or older, on the public sidewalks.

(i) Providing for the appointment of nonstudent school crossing guards for the protection of persons who are crossing a street or highway in the vicinity of a school or while returning thereafter to a place of safety.

(j) Regulating the methods of deposit of garbage and refuse in streets and highways for collection by the local authority or by any person authorized by the local authority.

(k) Regulating cruising. The ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to this subdivision shall regulate cruising, which shall be defined as the repetitive driving of a motor vehicle past a traffic control point in traffic which is congested at or near the traffic control point, as determined by the ranking peace officer on duty within the affected area, within a specified time period and after the vehicle operator has been given an adequate written notice that further driving past the control point will be a violation of the ordinance or resolution. No person is in violation of an ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to this subdivision unless (1) that person has been given the written notice on a previous driving trip past the control point and then again passes the control point in that same time interval and (2) the beginning and end of the portion of the street subject to cruising controls are clearly identified by signs that briefly and clearly state the appropriate provisions of this subdivision and the local ordinance or resolution on cruising.

(l) Regulating or authorizing the removal by peace officers of vehicles unlawfully parked in a fire lane, as described in Section 22500.1, on private property. Any removal pursuant to this subdivision shall be consistent to the extent possible with the procedures for removal and storage set forth in Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 22650).

SEC. 8. Section 22513 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22513. The owner or operator of a tow truck who complies with the requirements of this code relating to tow trucks may stop or park the tow truck upon a highway for the purpose of rendering assistance to a disabled vehicle, except that the person may not stop or park upon a freeway which has full control of access and no crossing at grade unless the tow truck has been summoned to render assistance to a disabled vehicle.

SEC. 9. Section 22520 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22520. No person shall stop, park, or leave standing any vehicle upon a freeway which has full control of access and no crossings at grade except:

(a) When necessary to avoid injury or damage to persons or property.

(b) When required by law or in obedience to a peace officer or official traffic control device.

(c) Any person actually engaged in maintenance or construction on freeway property or any employee of a public agency actually engaged in the performance of official duties.

(d) Any vehicle which is so disabled that it is impossible to avoid temporarily stopping and any vehicle which has been summoned to render assistance to a vehicle or person, including a vehicle owned by the donor of free emergency assistance, which has been summoned by display upon or within a disabled vehicle of a placard or sign given to the driver of the disabled vehicle by the donor for the specific purpose of summoning assistance, other than towing service, from the donor.

(e) In locations where stopping, standing or parking is specifically permitted; provided, however, that buses may not stop on freeways unless sidewalks are provided with shoulders of sufficient width to permit stopping without interfering with the normal movement of traffic and without the possibility of crossing over fast lanes to reach the bus stop.

(f) Any person reporting a traffic accident or other situation or incident to a peace officer or any person specified in subdivision (c), either directly or by means of an emergency telephone or similar device.

(g) The owner or operator of a tow truck operating under an agreement with the Department of the California Highway Patrol for the purpose of rapid removal of impediments to traffic.

SEC. 10. Section 22520.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22520.5. (a) No person shall solicit, display, sell, offer for sale, or otherwise vend or attempt to vend any merchandise or service while being wholly or partly within any of the following:

(1) The right-of-way of any freeway, including any on ramp, off ramp, or roadway shoulder which lies within the right-of-way of the freeway.

(2) Any roadway or adjacent shoulder within 500 feet of a freeway off ramp or on ramp.

(3) Any sidewalk within 500 feet of a freeway off ramp or on ramp, when vending or attempting to vend to vehicular traffic.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to a roadside rest area or vista point located within a freeway right-of-way which is subject to Section 22520.6, to a tow truck or service vehicle rendering assistance to a disabled vehicle, or to a person issued a permit to vend upon the freeway pursuant to Section 670 of the Streets and Highways Code.

(c) A violation of this section is an infraction. A second or subsequent conviction of a violation of this section is a misdemeanor.

SEC. 11. Section 24600 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

24600. During darkness every motor vehicle which is not in combination with any other vehicle and every vehicle at the end of a combination of vehicles shall be equipped with lighted taillamps mounted on the rear as follows:

(a) Every vehicle shall be equipped with one or more taillamps.

(b) Every vehicle, other than a motorcycle, manufactured and first registered on or after January 1, 1958, shall be equipped with not less than two taillamps, except that trailers and semitrailers manufactured after July 23, 1973, which are less than 30 inches wide, may be equipped with one taillamp which shall be mounted at or near the vertical centerline of the vehicles. If a vehicle is equipped with two taillamps, they shall be mounted as specified in subdivision (d).

(c) Every vehicle or vehicle at the end of a combination of vehicles, subject to subdivision (a) of Section 22406 shall be equipped with not less than two taillamps.

(d) When two taillamps are required, at least one shall be mounted at the left and one at the right side respectively at the same level.

(e) Taillamps shall be red in color and shall be plainly visible from all distances within 500 feet to the rear except that taillamps on vehicles manufactured after January 1, 1969, shall be plainly visible from all distances within 1,000 feet to the rear.

(f) Taillamps on vehicles manufactured on or after January 1, 1969, shall be mounted not lower than 15 inches nor higher than 72 inches, except that a tow truck, in addition to being equipped with the required taillamps, may also be equipped with two taillamps which may be mounted not lower than 15 inches nor higher than the maximum allowable vehicle height and as far forward as the rearmost portion of the driver's seat in the rearmost position. The additional taillamps on a tow truck shall be lighted whenever the headlamps are lighted.

SEC. 12. Section 24603 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

24603. Every motor vehicle which is not in combination with any other vehicle and every vehicle at the end of a combination of vehicles shall at all times be equipped with stoplamps mounted on the rear as follows:

(a) Every such vehicle shall be equipped with one or more stoplamps.

(b) Every such vehicle, other than a motorcycle, manufactured and first registered on or after January 1, 1958, shall be equipped with two stoplamps, except that trailers and semitrailers manufactured after July 23, 1973, which are less than 30 inches wide, may be equipped with one stoplamp which shall be mounted at or near the vertical centerline of the trailer. If such vehicle is equipped with two stoplamps, they shall be mounted as specified in subdivision (d).

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (h), stoplamps on vehicles manufactured on or after January 1, 1969, shall be mounted not lower than 15 inches nor higher than 72 inches, except that a tow truck, in addition to being equipped with the required stoplamps, may also be equipped with two stoplamps which may be mounted not lower than 15 inches nor higher than the maximum allowable vehicle height and as far forward as the rearmost portion of the driver's seat in the rearmost position.

(d) Where two stoplamps are required, at least one shall be mounted at the left and one at the right side, respectively, at the same level.

(e) Stoplamps on vehicles manufactured on or after January 1, 1979, shall emit a red light. Stoplamps on vehicles manufactured before January 1, 1979, shall emit a red or yellow light. All stoplamps shall be plainly visible and understandable from a distance of 300 feet to the rear both during normal sunlight and at nighttime, except that stoplamps on a vehicle of a size required to be equipped with clearance lamps shall be visible from a distance of 500 feet during such times.

(f) Stoplamps shall be activated upon application of the service (foot) brake and the hand control head for air, vacuum, or electric brakes. In addition, all stoplamps may be activated by a mechanical device designed to function only upon sudden release of the accelerator while the vehicle is in motion. Stoplamps on vehicles equipped with a manual transmission may be manually activated by a mechanical device when the vehicle is downshifted if the device is automatically rendered inoperative while the vehicle is accelerating.

(g) Any vehicle may be equipped with supplemental stoplamps mounted to the rear of the rearmost portion of the driver's seat in its rearmost position in addition to the lamps required to be mounted on the rear of the vehicle. Supplemental stoplamps installed after January 1, 1979, shall be red in color and mounted not lower than 15 inches above the roadway. The supplemental stoplamp on that side of a vehicle toward which a turn will be made may flash as part of the supplemental turn signal lamp.

A supplemental stoplamp may be mounted inside the rear window of a vehicle, if it is mounted at the centerline of the vehicle and is constructed and mounted so as to prevent any light, other than a monitorial indicator emitted from the device, either direct or reflected, from being visible to the driver.

(h) Any supplemental stoplamp installed after January 1, 1987, shall comply with Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 108 (49 C.F.R. 571.108). Any vehicle equipped with a stoplamp which complies with the federal motor vehicle safety standards applicable to that make and model vehicle shall conform to that applicable safety standard unless modified to comply with the federal motor vehicle safety standard designated in this subdivision.

SEC. 13. Section 24605 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

24605. (a) A tow truck or an automobile dismantler's tow vehicle used to tow a vehicle shall be equipped with and carry a taillamp, a stoplamp, turn signal lamps, and a portable electrical extension cord for use in displaying the lamps on the rear of a towed vehicle.

(b) Whenever a tow truck or an automobile dismantler's tow vehicle is towing a vehicle and a stoplamp and turn signal lamps cannot be lighted and displayed on the rear of the towed vehicle, the operator of the tow truck or the automobile dismantler's tow vehicle shall, by means of an extension cord, display to the rear a stoplamp and turn signal lamps mounted on the towed vehicle, except as provided in subdivision (c). During darkness, if a taillamp on the towed vehicle cannot be lighted, the operator of the tow truck or the automobile dismantler's tow vehicle shall, by means of an extension cord, display to the rear a taillamp mounted on the towed vehicle. No other lighting equipment need be displayed on the towed vehicle.

(c) Whenever any motor vehicle is towing another motor vehicle, stoplamps and turn signal lamps are not required on the towed motor vehicle, but only if a stoplamp and a turn signal lamp on each side of the rear of the towing vehicle is plainly visible to the rear of the towed vehicle. This subdivision does not apply to driveaway-towaway operations.

SEC. 14. Section 25110 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

25110. (a) The following vehicles may be equipped with utility flood or loading lamps mounted on the rear, and sides, which project a white light illuminating an area to the side or rear of the vehicle for a distance not to exceed 75 feet at the level of the roadway:

(1) Tow trucks which are used to tow disabled vehicles may display utility floodlights but only during the period of preparation for towing at the location from which a disabled vehicle is to be towed.

(2) Ambulances used to respond to emergency calls may display utility flood and loading lights but only at the scene of an emergency or while loading or unloading patients.

(3) Firefighting equipment designed and operated exclusively as such may display utility floodlamps only at the scene of an emergency.

(4) Vehicles used by law enforcement agencies or organizations engaged in the detoxification of alcoholics may display utility flood or loading lights when loading or unloading persons under the influence of intoxicants for transportation to detoxification centers or places of incarceration.

(5) Vehicles used by law enforcement agencies for mobile blood alcohol testing, drug evaluation, or field sobriety testing in the enforcement of Sections 23101, 23102, 23105, and 23106.

(6) Vehicles used by publicly or privately owned public utilities may display utility flood or loading lights when engaged in emergency roadside repair of electric, gas, telephone, telegraph, water, or sewer facilities.

(b) Lamps permitted under subdivision (a) shall not be lighted during darkness, except while the vehicle is parked, nor project any glaring light into the eyes of an approaching driver.

SEC. 15. Section 25253 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

25253. Tow trucks used to tow disabled vehicles shall be equipped with flashing amber warning lamps.

The tow trucks may display flashing amber warning lamps while providing service to a disabled vehicle. A flashing amber warning lamp upon a tow truck may be displayed to the rear when such tow truck is towing a vehicle and moving at a speed slower than the normal flow of traffic.

SEC. 16. The heading of Article 6 (commencing with Section 27700) of Chapter 5 of Division 12 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

Tow Trucks

SEC. 17. Section 27700 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

27700. (a) Tow trucks shall be equipped with and carry all of the following:

(1) One or more brooms, and the driver of the tow truck engaged to remove a disabled vehicle from the scene of an accident shall remove all glass and debris deposited upon the roadway by the disabled vehicle which is to be towed.

(2) One or more shovels, and whenever practical the tow truck driver engaged to remove any disabled vehicle shall spread dirt upon that portion of the roadway where oil or grease has been deposited by the disabled vehicle.

(3) One or more fire extinguishers of the dry chemical or carbon dioxide type with an aggregate rating of at least 4-B, C units and bearing the approval of a laboratory nationally recognized as properly equipped to make the approval.

(b) A person licensed as a repossession agency pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 7500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code is exempt from this section.

SEC. 18. Section 27907 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

27907. There shall be displayed in a conspicuous place on both the right and left side of a tow truck or an automobile dismantler's tow vehicle used to tow or carry vehicles a sign showing the name of the company or the owner or operator of the tow truck or the automobile dismantler's tow vehicle. The sign shall also contain the business address and telephone number of the owner or driver. The letters and numbers of the sign shall not be less than 2½ inches in height and shall be in contrast to the color of the background upon which they are placed.

A person licensed as a repossession agency pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 7500) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, or a registered employee of the agency, may use the license number issued to the agency by the Department of Consumer Affairs in lieu of a name, business address, and telephone number.

SEC. 19. Section 29000 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

29000. Unless specified, this chapter does not apply to tow trucks or to the drawbar or other connection between a motor vehicle and a pole or pipe dolly or logging dolly or to any lawful trailer used as a pole or pipe dolly.

SEC. 20. Section 29004 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

29004. (a) Every towed vehicle shall be coupled to the towing vehicle or tow truck by means of a safety chain, cable, or equivalent device in addition to the regular drawbar, tongue or other connection.

(b) All safety connections and attachments shall be of sufficient strength to control the towed vehicle in event of failure of the regular hitch, coupling device, drawbar, tongue or other connection.

(c) No more slack shall be left in a safety chain, cable or equivalent device than is necessary to permit proper turning. When a drawbar, as defined in Section 300, is used as the towing connection, the safety chain, cable or equivalent device shall be connected to the towed and towing vehicle and to the drawbar so as to prevent the drawbar from dropping to the ground if the drawbar fails.

(d) The requirement of subdivision (a) does not apply to a semitrailer having a connecting device composed of a fifth wheel and kingpin assembly, nor to a towed motor vehicle when steered by a person who holds a license for the type of vehicle being towed.

SEC. 21. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 925

An act to amend Section 594.1 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 594.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

594.1. (a) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation, except a parent or legal guardian, to sell or give or in any way furnish to another person, who is in fact under the age of 18 years, any aerosol container of paint that is capable of defacing property without first obtaining bona fide evidence of majority and identity.

For purposes of this subdivision, "bona fide evidence of majority and identity" is any document evidencing the age and identity of an individual which has been issued by a federal, state, or local governmental entity, and includes, but is not limited to, a motor vehicle operator's license, a registration certificate issued under the federal Selective Service Act, or an identification card issued to a member of the armed forces.

This subdivision shall not apply to the furnishing of six ounces or less of an aerosol container of paint to a minor for the minor's use or possession under the supervision of the minor's parent, guardian, instructor, or employer.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person under the age of 18 years to purchase an aerosol container of paint that is capable of defacing property.

(c) Every retailer selling or offering for sale in this state aerosol containers of paint capable of defacing property shall post in a conspicuous place a sign in letters at least three-eighths of an inch high stating: "Any person who maliciously defaces real or personal property with paint is guilty of vandalism which is punishable by a fine, imprisonment, or both."

(d) It is unlawful for any person to carry on his or her person and in plain view to the public an aerosol container of paint while in any posted public facility, park, playground, swimming pool, beach or recreational area, other than a highway, street, alley or way, unless he or she has first received valid authorization from the governmental entity which has jurisdiction over the public area.

As used in this subdivision "posted" means a sign placed in a reasonable location or locations stating it is a misdemeanor to possess a spray can of paint in such public facility, park, playground, swimming pool, beach or recreational area without valid authorization.

(e) It is unlawful for any person under the age of 18 years to possess an aerosol container of paint for the purpose of defacing property while on any public highway, street, alley, or way, or other public place, regardless of whether that person is or is not in any automobile, vehicle, or other conveyance.

(f) Violation of any provision of this section is a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 926

An act to amend Section 54995 of, and to amend and renumber Section 53077 of, the Government Code, and to amend Section 31053 of the Water Code, relating to local agencies.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53077 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

66006. (a) If a local agency requires the payment of a fee specified in subdivision (b) in connection with the approval of a development project, the local agency receiving the fee shall deposit it with the other fees for the improvement in a separate capital facilities account or fund in a manner to avoid any commingling of the fees with other revenues and funds of the local agency, except for temporary investments, and expend those fees solely for the purpose for which the fee was collected. Any interest income earned by moneys in the capital facilities account or fund shall also be deposited in that account or fund and shall be expended only for the purpose for which the fee was originally collected.

(b) For purposes of this section, "fee" means any fee imposed to provide for an improvement to be constructed to serve a development project, or which is a fee within the meaning of subdivision (b) of Section 66000, and that is imposed by the local agency as a condition of approving the development project.

(c) Any person may request an audit of any local agency fee or charge that is subject to Section 54997, including fees or charges of school districts, in accordance with that section.

(d) The Legislature finds and declares that untimely or improper allocation of development fees hinders economic growth and is, therefore, a matter of statewide interest and concern. It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature that subdivision (a) shall supersede all conflicting local laws and shall apply in charter cities.

SEC. 2. Section 54995 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54995. Any judicial action or proceeding to attack, review, set aside, void, or annul an ordinance, resolution, or motion levying a new fee or service charge, or modifying or amending an existing fee or service charge, duly enacted by a local agency, as defined in Section 54994, shall be commenced within 120 days of the effective date of the ordinance, resolution, or motion.

If an ordinance, resolution, or motion provides for an automatic adjustment in a fee or service charge, and the automatic adjustment results in an increase in the amount of a fee or service charge, any action or proceeding to attack, review, set aside, void, or annul the increase shall be commenced within 120 days of the effective date of the increase.

SEC. 3. Section 31053 of the Water Code is amended to read:

31053. No publicly owned utility shall commence to provide any service for, on, or to any land within a county water district which is subject to the lien of a general obligation bonded indebtedness or which was the subject of a lease-purchase, revenue, or other type of debt incurred for capital improvements by or on behalf of the district incurred by the district for the purpose of providing a service similar to that which the utility proposes to provide.

However, a publicly owned utility may commence to provide service, otherwise prohibited, upon either of the following conditions:

(a) If the board of directors of the county water district, by resolution permits the service.

(b) In any portion of such a county water district proposed to be served by the publicly owned utility in which the total number of registered voters residing therein exceeds 200, if at least two-thirds of the voters voted at a special county water district election to permit the service The election shall be called and held as an initiative measure pursuant to Section 30830.

SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature that the amendment and renumbering of Section 53077 of the Government Code purposed by Section 1 of this bill shall prevail over the amendment and renumbering of Section 53077 by Section 2 of Assembly Bill No 3980 of the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature.

CHAPTER 927

An act to amend Sections 8007, 33400, 33403, 33404, and 33406 of, to add Section 33407 to, and to repeal Sections 33401 and 33405 of, the Education Code, relating to educational evaluations.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8007 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8007 The State Department of Education and the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges shall submit the following reports each year to the Legislature:

(a) An annual descriptive report containing information on vocational education and technical training programs, including regional occupational centers and programs. The report shall be coordinated with federal evaluation requirements pursuant to Public Law 98-524 and shall contain all of the following:

(1) Enrollment defined in terms of secondary students, postsecondary students, and adults.

(2) The number of graduates of programs and dropout rates

(3) The number of students trained for specific entry level occupations.

(4) Fiscal information, including income by source and expenditure by category.

(5) Other factors as determined in Budget Act language pursuant to Section 33404.

(b) An annual individual program evaluation derived from a representative sample of participating districts and schools containing information on program effectiveness as measured by:

(1) The extent to which program completers:

(A) Find employment in occupations related to their training.

(B) Are considered by their employers to be well trained and prepared for employment.

(2) Other factors as determined in Budget Act language pursuant to Section 33404.

(c) A copy of the annual state plan for vocational education.

SEC. 2. Section 33400 of the Education Code is amended to read:

33400. It is the intention of the Legislature in enacting this article that:

(a) Evaluations shall be performed in such a manner as to minimize the resources required of school districts in the collection, analysis, and reporting of evaluation information. In order to achieve this goal, program evaluations shall require only that information which is essential to the State Department of Education for carrying out statutorily mandated functions, and shall be conducted only as necessary for the conduct of those functions. In addition, in evaluations of state-funded programs, the department may use sampling procedures as it determines to be appropriate based on professional standards.

(b) Evaluations shall be performed and reported in such a manner as to maximize their utility to decisionmakers in the Legislature.

SEC. 3. Section 33401 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 33403 of the Education Code is amended to read:

33403. The State Department of Education shall perform evaluations of those educational programs as determined to be necessary by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to carry out the purposes of this article or as required by the Legislature. Program evaluations determined to be necessary by the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be carried out in accordance with Section 33400.

SEC. 5. Section 33404 of the Education Code is amended to read:

33404. It is the understanding of the Legislature that the evaluation needs of the educational programs change over a period of time and during the progress of the programs and, therefore, the Legislature may require through supplemental language to the Budget Act:

(a) That additional types of information or reporting formats be employed.

(b) That the evaluation be altered to reflect current needs.

(c) That an evaluation shall be conducted by contracted, independent evaluators.

SEC. 6. Section 33405 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 33406 of the Education Code is amended to read:

33406. The State Department of Education shall conduct special studies as determined to be necessary by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to carry out the purposes of this article or as required by the Legislature.

The department shall utilize existing information to the maximum extent feasible in conducting the special studies. The special studies shall address topics determined by the Legislature or the Superintendent of Public Instruction to be of current policy significance.

SEC. 8. Section 33407 is added to the Education Code, to read:

33407. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall annually, not later than February 15, submit to the State Board of Education and the Legislature a proposal for the initiation or continuance for the succeeding fiscal year of special studies and evaluation activities.

CHAPTER 928

An act relating to foreign corporations.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that when foreign corporations do not respond diligently to consumer complaints, the available remedies are often inadequate to resolve the problems presented by the complaints.

(b) The Attorney General shall study methods of enforcement of the law as it relates to consumer complaints against foreign corporations. The study shall analyze and recommend better methods for resolving consumer complaints against foreign corporations.

(c) The cost of the study shall not exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(d) The Attorney General shall make a report of the findings of the study to the Legislature no later than July 1, 1989.

CHAPTER 929

An act to amend Section 2987 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to psychology, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2987 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2987. The amount of the fees prescribed by this chapter shall be determined by the committee subject to the review and approval of the Board of Medical Quality Assurance, and shall be as follows:

(a) The application fee for a psychologist shall not be more than fifty dollars ($50).

(b) The examination fee for a psychologist shall not be more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(c) The initial license fee is an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the license is issued, except that if the license will expire less than one year after its issuance, then the initial license fee is an amount equal to 50 percent of the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the license is issued.

(d) The biennial renewal fee for a psychologist shall not be more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150)

(e) The application fee for registration and supervision of a psychological assistant by a supervisor under Section 2913, which is payable by such supervisor, shall not be more than seventy-five dollars ($75).

(f) The annual renewal fee for registration of a psychological assistant shall not be more than seventy-five dollars ($75).

(g) The duplicate license or registration fee is five dollars ($5)

(h) The delinquency fee is twenty-five dollars ($25).

(i) The endorsement fee is five dollars ($5).

CHAPTER 930

An act to add Article 1.7 (commencing with Section 7690) to Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 6 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to commercial fishing.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the cost of covering losses for hull and machinery for the commercial fishing fleet in California has changed greatly from year to year. In some years, the cost has been as much as 8 percent of the value of the hull and machinery if the coverage for the losses was available from private companies at all.

The Legislature further finds that hull and machinery loss pools for the commercial fishing fleet have operated successfully in Washington for over 50 years and are now permitted to operate in Alaska and Oregon.

The Legislature further finds and declares that the number of individuals seeking to form a cooperative pool to cover losses for hull and machinery in California is small and that the existing retention requirements by the Department of Insurance for private insurance companies is unnecessary to protect the members of a hull and machinery pool and has the effect of preventing the creation of these pools.

The Legislature further finds that it is preferable for the commercial fishing fleet to have coverage for hull and machinery losses and that they should be regulated by the state with the funds held in California financial institutions.

SEC. 2. Article 1.7 (commencing with Section 7690) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 6 of the Fish and Game Code, to read:

Article 1.7. Vessel, Hull, and Machinery Loss Pooling

7690. (a) Any person engaged in the business of licensed commercial fishing may enter into an arrangement with other authorized persons for the pooling of funds to pay claims or losses arising out of loss or damage to a vessel or machinery used in the business of commercial fishing and owned by a member of the pool.

A pool established pursuant to this section is not, and shall not be, subject to the Insurance Code and is not a member of the California Insurance Guarantee Association under Article 14.2 (commencing with Section 1063) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code.

(b) The pool established pursuant to this section shall have initial pooled resources of not less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) and the pool shall operate under generally acceptable accounting principles.

(c) All participating persons in any pool established pursuant to this section shall agree to pay premiums or make other mandatory financial contributions or commitments necessary to ensure a financially sound risk pool.

(d) For the purpose of this section, "person engaged in the business of licensed commercial fishing" and "authorized person" mean any natural person, partnership, corporation, or other person or entity engaged in the business of fishing for commercial purposes for which that person or its agents or employees are required to be licensed.

CHAPTER 931

An act to add Section 12517.5 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12517.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

12517.5. Any person who possesses a class 1 or class 2 driver's license and a certificate to operate a schoolbus or school pupil activity bus may also operate a tour bus, and shall not be required to obtain a tour bus driver's certificate.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Certification requirements for tour bus drivers are being imposed on school bus drivers who already must comply with licensing standards which exceed those required of tour bus drivers. In order to correct this inconsistency at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 932

An act to add Chapter 6.92 (commencing with Section 25420) to Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 2775.6 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to gas.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that it is the policy of this state to encourage and facilitate the production and safe utilization of gas generated in conjunction with sanitary landfill projects, and that this is consistent with the established policy of this state relating to cogeneration technology.

SEC. 2. Chapter 6.92 (commencing with Section 25420) is added to Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6.92. LANDFILL GAS

25420. For purposes of this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Person" means an individual, trust, firm, joint stock company, partnership, association, business concern, or corporation. "Person" also includes any city, county, district, and the state or any department or agency thereof, or the federal government or any department or agency thereof to the extent permitted by law.

(b) "Department" means the State Department of Health Services.

(c) "Gas corporation" has the same meaning as defined in Section 222 of the Public Utilities Code and is subject to rate regulation by the Public Utilities Commission.

25421. (a) Until the rule or order specified in subdivision (b) is adopted, no gas producer shall knowingly sell, supply, or transport landfill gas to a gas corporation, and no gas corporation shall knowingly purchase landfill gas, if that gas contains vinyl chloride in a concentration that exceeds the operative no significant risk level set forth in Article 7 (commencing with Section 12701) of Chapter 3 of Division 2 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(b) On or before January 1, 1990, the Public Utilities Commission shall, by rule or order, specify the maximum amount of vinyl chloride that may be found in landfill gas pursuant to the requirements of subdivision (a).

(c) No gas corporation shall knowingly and intentionally expose any customer, employee, or other person to gas from a landfill if that gas contains any chemical known to the state to cause cancer or reproductive toxicity without first giving clear and reasonable warning to that individual, except as provided by Section 25249.10.

(d) Every person who produces, sells, supplies, or releases landfill gas for sale offsite to a gas corporation shall, twice each month, sample and test the gas at the point of distribution for the presence of chemicals known to the state to cause cancer or reproductive toxicity in accordance with the test guidelines prepared under Section 41805.5. The air pollution control district or air quality management district within which the landfill is situated shall review the testing procedures for compliance with the guidelines and require the correction of any deficiencies. The district shall require, among other things, that the gas be analyzed by a laboratory certified by the department and shall transmit the results of the analysis to the department for its determination of compliance or noncompliance with subdivisions (a) and (b). The department shall fix and impose upon the gas producer a fee to cover its costs under this subdivision. The results of each sample and test shall be reported promptly to the gas corporation to which the landfill gas is sold, and any person or public agency requesting a copy of the report.

(e) Nothing in this section prohibits the direct delivery of landfill gas for the generation of electricity, the production of steam, or other industrial application.

(f) The gas corporation shall obtain the results of the test conducted pursuant to subdivision (d) and shall purchase no gas which the test shows to contain vinyl chloride that exceeds the amount permitted in subdivision (a), or if the rule or order has been adopted, as specified in subdivision (b).

(g) This section applies only to landfill gas delivered to the pipeline of a gas corporation.

25422. (a) Any person violating, or threatening to violate, Section 25421 may be enjoined in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Any person who has violated Section 25421 shall be liable for a penalty not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per day for each violation. The civil penalty may be assessed and recovered in a civil action brought in any court of competent jurisdiction. The actions may be brought by the Attorney General in the name of the people of the State of California or by any district attorney or by any city attorney of a city having a population in excess of 750,000 or with the consent of the district attorney by a city prosecutor. The penalties may also be assessed administratively pursuant to Section 25189.3.

SEC. 3. Section 2775.6 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

2775.6. Every request for the recovery in rates of any costs or liability incurred by a gas corporation and resulting from any violation of Section 25241 of the Health and Safety Code, or of any costs, damages, penalties, or other liabilities incurred in connection with the sale of landfill gas containing chemicals known to the state to cause cancer or reproductive toxicity shall be reviewed by the commission for the purposes of establishing rates for the gas corporation. If the commission finds that the gas corporation, on or after January 1, 1989, knowingly and intentionally violated Section 25241 of the Health and Safety Code, the costs and liability shall be disallowed by the commission for purposes of determining rates.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 933

An act to amend Section 8151 of, to add Section 8153 to, and to add and repeal Section 8150.8 of, the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8150.8 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

8150.8. (a) Any sardine quota established by the department under Section 8150.7 shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Twenty percent of the quota shall be reserved for fishermen landing their catches north of Point Buchon in San Luis Obispo County.

(2) Eighty percent of the quota shall be reserved for fishermen landing their catches south of Point Buchon.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 8151 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8151. (a) Notwithstanding Section 8150.5, the tolerance for sardines taken incidentally to other fishing operations and mixed with other fish in a load shall be 25 percent if, using the mackerel fishery as an indicator, the overall percentage of incidentally taken sardines mixed with jack mackerel and Pacific mackerel during the preceding month exceeded 5 percent. Thereafter, the tolerance shall increase by additional 10-percent increments whenever the overall percentage of incidentally taken sardines during the preceding month exceeded one-third of the previously established tolerance. The overall percentage of incidentally taken sardines shall be determined monthly by dividing the weight of sardines taken incidentally with jack mackerel and Pacific mackerel by the weight of all jack mackerel, Pacific mackerel, and sardines taken by the mackerel fishery.

(b) If the overall percentage of incidentally taken sardines has been less than one-fourth of the tolerance in effect during the preceding three-month period and the tolerance has not been adjusted during this three-month period, the tolerance for incidentally taken sardines shall be decreased by deducting one 10-percent increment from the tolerance.

(c) Under no circumstances shall the tolerance be more than 45 percent or less than 15 percent.

(d) The department shall inform the commission of any change in the status of the tolerance for incidentally taken sardines, and the commission shall immediately direct the department to notify commercial fishermen of the status of the tolerance by broadcasting on VHF Channel 16 between 0800 hours and 1000 hours during the first five business days of each calendar month. It is the responsibility of commercial fishermen to monitor this radio channel during the specified hours or otherwise to be aware of the status of the tolerance for incidentally taken sardines.

(e) The commission shall hold public hearings to consider the implementation of this section and shall report annually to the Legislature on the status of the sardine resource and may also make recommendations to the Legislature regarding this section or its implementation.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 8153 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

8153. (a) In addition to any other provision of this article, 250 tons of sardines may be taken, possessed, and landed for dead bait purposes during the period March 1 to February 28. Sardines may not be taken for dead bait purposes except by fishermen operating under permits issued by the department pursuant to Section 8150.7.

(b) Whenever the department, under Section 8150.7, establishes a quota of 2,500 tons or more for the sardine fishery, the quota for dead bait provided for in subdivision (a) shall be 500 tons.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to enable the Department of Fish and Game to more accurately adjust the percentage of sardines taken incidentally to other fishing operations for the current fishing season, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 934

An act to amend Section 15071 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to seismic safety.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15071 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15071. New construction of buildings specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 15026 shall conform to the provisions of the latest edition of Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations. The statewide office, with the advice of the Building Safety Board, shall adopt and administer regulations for the independent review of these structures.

The statewide office may also exempt from the plan review process or expedite those projects undertaken by an applicant for a hospital building which the statewide office determines do not materially alter the mechanical, electrical, architectural, or structural integrity of the facility. The statewide office shall set forth criteria to expedite projects or to implement any exemptions made pursuant to this paragraph.

The Legislature recognizes the relative safety of single-story, wood frame, and light steel frame construction for use in housing patients requiring skilled nursing and intermediate care services and it is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature to provide for reasonable flexibility in seismic safety standards for these structures.

The statewide office shall, by July 1, 1989, set forth and implement criteria to exempt from the plan review process or expedite those projects for alterations of buildings specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 15026, which may include, but are not limited to, renovations, remodeling, or installations of necessary equipment such as hot water heaters, air-conditioning units, dishwashers, laundry equipment, handrails, lights, television brackets, small emergency generators (up to 25 kilowatts), storage shelves, and similar plant operations equipment; and decorative materials such as wall coverings, floor coverings, and paint.

The statewide office shall include provisions for onsite field approvals by available office construction advisers and the preapproval of projects which comply with the requirements for which the office has developed standard architectural or engineering detail, or both standard architectural and engineering detail.

CHAPTER 935

An act to amend Sections 13862 and 13863 of, and to add Section 1191.15 to, the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1191.15 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1191.15. (a) The court may permit the victim of any crime, or his or her parent or guardian if the victim is a minor, or the next of kin of the victim if the victim has died, to file with the court a written, audiotaped, or videotaped statement expressing his or her views concerning the crime, the person responsible, and the need for restitution, in lieu of or in addition to such person personally appearing at the time of judgment and sentence. The court shall consider any such statement filed with the court prior to imposing judgment and sentence.

Whenever an audio or video statement is filed with the court, a written transcript of the tape shall also be provided by the person filing the statement, and shall be made available as a public record of the court after the judgment and sentence have been imposed.

(b) Whenever such a written, audio, or video statement is filed with the court, it shall remain sealed until the time set for imposition of judgment and sentence except that the court, the probation officer, and counsel for the parties may view and listen to such statements not more than two court days prior to the date set for imposition of judgment and sentence.

(c) No person may, and no court shall, permit any person to duplicate, copy, or reproduce by any audio or visual means any audiotaped or videotaped statement submitted to the court under the provisions of this section.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the prosecutor from representing to the court the views of the victim or his or her parent or guardian or the next of kin.

(e) In the event the court permits an audio or video statement to be filed, the court shall not be responsible for providing any equipment or resources needed to assist the victim in preparing the statement.

SEC. 2. Section 13862 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13862. Law enforcement agencies and school districts receiving funds under this chapter shall concentrate enhanced apprehension, prevention, and education efforts and resources on drug abuse and drug trafficking in and around school campuses.

(a) These enhanced apprehension, prevention, and education efforts shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) Drug traffic intervention programs.

(2) School and classroom-oriented programs, using tested drug abuse education curriculum that provides indepth and accurate information on drugs, which may include the participation of local law enforcement agencies and qualified drug abuse prevention specialists and which are designed to increase teachers' and students' awareness of drugs and their effects.

(3) Family oriented programs aimed at preventing drug abuse which may include the participation of community-based organizations experienced in the successful operation of such programs.

(4) The establishment of a Local Suppression of Drug Abuse in Schools Advisory Committee. The committee shall be established and appointed by the board of supervisors of each county and city and county. However, if the agency receiving funds under this chapter is a city agency and the program does not involve any county agency, or if a county agency is involved and the county board of supervisors consents, the committee shall be established and appointed by the city council. The committee may be a newly created committee or an existing local drug abuse committee as designated by the board or city council. The committee shall be composed of, at a minimum, the following:

(A) Local law enforcement executives.

(B) School district executives.

(C) Schoolsite staff, which includes administrators, teachers, or other credentialed personnel.

(D) Parents.

(E) Students.

(F) School peace officers.

(G) County drug program administrators designated pursuant to Section 11962 of the Health and Safety Code.

(H) Drug prevention program executives.

(5) Development and distribution of appropriate written and audio-visual aids for training of school and law enforcement staff for handling drug-related problems and offenses. Appropriate existing aids may be utilized in lieu of development of new materials.

(6) Development of prevention and intervention programs for elementary school teachers and students, including utilization of existing prevention and intervention programs.

(7) Development of a coordinated intervention system that identifies students with chronic drug abuse problems and facilitates their referral to a drug abuse treatment program.

(b) Enhanced apprehension, prevention, and education efforts commenced under this section shall be a joint effort between local law enforcement and local school districts in cooperation with county drug program offices. These efforts shall include, but not be limited to, the concentration of apprehension efforts in "problem" areas identified by local school authorities.

(c) Funds appropriated pursuant to this chapter may be used in part to support state-level development and statewide distribution of appropriate written and audio-visual aids for public awareness and training of school and law enforcement staff for handling drug-related problems and offenses. When existing aids can be identified, these aids may be utilized in lieu of the development of new aids.

SEC. 3. Section 13863 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13863. Criteria for the selection of law enforcement agencies and school districts to receive Suppression of Drug Abuse in Schools Program funding shall be developed by the State Suppression of Drug Abuse in Schools Advisory Committee.

(a) The State Suppression of Drug Abuse in Schools Advisory Committee shall be composed of two police chiefs, two sheriffs, two district attorneys, one attorney primarily engaged in criminal defense, one representative of parent groups, one representative of the Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs, one county drug program administrator designated pursuant to Section 11962 of the Health and Safety Code, a school peace officer, and a representative of community-based drug abuse programs, all of whom are appointed by the Governor. In addition, the Attorney General shall designate one member representing the Department of Justice and the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall designate four members, one representing the State Department of Education, and three schoolsite personnel. Staff services to the committee shall be provided by the Executive Director of the Office of Criminal Justice Planning. Committee members shall be reimbursed for actual expenses involved in the conduct of committee business. The committee shall review applications for grant awards and shall recommend approval for those applications which are deemed appropriate and are consistent with the guidelines and administrative procedures established pursuant to this section and this chapter.

(b) Each committee member or his or her designee shall be personally present to cast a vote or be counted toward a quorum. An appointed member of the committee unable to attend any meeting may designate a representative to attend the meetings on his or her behalf. The representative shall be accorded full privilege to address the committee on any matter under consideration and shall have the right to vote on any motions entertained by the committee.

(c) The State Suppression of Drug Abuse in Schools Advisory Committee shall develop specific guidelines and administrative procedures for the Suppression of Drug Abuse in Schools Program.

(d) These guidelines and administrative procedures shall set forth the terms and conditions upon which the Office of Criminal Justice Planning is prepared to offer grants of funds pursuant to statutory authority. The guidelines and administrative procedures do not constitute rules, regulations, orders, or standards of general application.

(e) Administration of the overall program and the evaluation and monitoring of all grants made under this chapter shall be performed by the Office of Criminal Justice Planning.

(f) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall, to the extent possible, coordinate the administration of the Suppression of Drug Abuse in Schools Program with those of the Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs and the State Department of Education established pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 11965) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(g) Local assistance grants made pursuant to this chapter shall not be subject to review pursuant to Section 14780 of the Government Code.

(h) Funds disbursed under this chapter shall not be used for the acquisition of equipment.

(i) Funds disbursed under this chapter shall not be used to purchase information or drugs.

(j) In the interest of maximizing the use of funds for program support and implementation, local law enforcement agencies and school districts receiving funds under this chapter are expressly discouraged from using Suppression of Drug Abuse in Schools Program funds for personnel costs. Where it can be demonstrated that personnel costs are essential to the success of the program and that sufficient law enforcement and school personnel are not available to carry out the program, exceptions to this section may be requested through the Executive Director of the Office of Criminal Justice Planning.

(k) No more than 5 percent of the total amount of funds disbursed under this chapter shall be used for administrative costs.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 936

An act relating to the Public Utilities Commission.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) California's agricultural industry has faced rising costs of electricity over the last decade while the demands of agricultural electric customers for electricity over that same period has remained relatively stable.

(2) These demand, growth, and operational characteristics of the agricultural class of electric customers are of great importance in the setting of agricultural rates.

(3) Upcoming general rate cases for electrical corporations represent an opportunity for these issues to be addressed and for a final resolution of the agricultural electricity issue.

(b) It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to ensure that the demand, growth, and operational characteristics of agricultural electric customers and rural residential customers are given consideration in an appropriate proceeding when an investigation of these issues is conducted.

SEC. 2. (a) The Public Utilities Commission shall investigate the existing methods of allocation of revenues and expenses to customer classes in the establishment of electric rates, including, but not limited to, rates for agricultural classes of electric customers and rural residential customers.

(b) The investigation shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) An examination of the allocation of expenses by the commission for purposes of establishing rates, with particular consideration and comparison of equipment and facilities used in urban service and that which is used in rural service and of equipment and facilities used for overhead transmission and distribution and that which is used in underground transmission and distribution. This examination shall include a statistical work order analysis of rural overhead facilities as compared to urban overhead and underground facilities.

(2) A consideration of the marginal cost of electric plant capacity needed to serve customers requiring a consistently high usage as compared to customers whose high usage is seasonal only.

(3) A consideration of the financial impacts of access- and demand-related costs upon nongrowth classes of electric service which the electrical corporations have incurred as a result of classes of service which have been experiencing growth.

(4) An examination and consideration of various methods of allocating the difference between an electrical corporation's marginal costs and its revenue requirements, including, but not limited to, a discussion of how each of these methods should be accounted for in the corporation's rate structure.

(c) The commission may conduct the investigation in the next scheduled general rate case for the electrical corporations affected by this act, or in another regularly scheduled proceeding involving those corporations. The commission shall report to the Legislature on its conclusions within 30 days of completion of the investigation, but not later than December 31, 1989.

CHAPTER 937

An act to add Section 2197 to, and to add and repeal Section 2197.5 of, the Civil Code, relating to common carriers.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2197 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

2197. (a) Liability for storage or equipment rental charges assessed against a motor carrier by a railroad or steamship company shall be as follows if the charges arise out of a delay caused by the consignor or consignee of the freight:

(1) The consignor is liable to the motor carrier for the charges if the consignor caused the delay.

(2) The consignee is liable to the motor carrier for the charges if the consignee caused the delay.

(b) Nothing in this section shall affect the rights, duties, and obligations between a railroad or steamship company and a motor carrier.

SEC. 2. Section 2197.5 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

2197.5. (a) In addition to the liability established by Section 2197, the consignee is liable to the motor carrier for the charges if the freight is shipped prepaid and the delay was caused by either the consignor or the consignee.

(b) Nothing in this section shall affect the rights, duties, and obligations between a railroad or steamship company and a motor carrier.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 938

An act to add Sections 20017.81, 20803.94, and 22013.75 to the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20017.81 is added to the Government Code, to read:

20017.81. "State safety member" also includes officers and employees with the State Department of Mental Health in the following classifications:

Classification Code	Classification Title
8254	Prelicensed Psychiatric Technician (forensic facility)
8253	Psychiatric Technician (forensic facility)
8252	Senior Psychiatric Technician (forensic facility)

"State safety member" also includes an officer or employee of the State Department of Mental Health at Patton State Hospital or Atascadero State Hospital, who either is excluded from the definition of state employee in subdivision (c) of Section 3513, is a supervisory employee as defined by Section 3522.1, or is a nonelected officer or employee of the executive branch of government who is not a member of the civil service. An officer or employee may be a state safety member under this paragraph only if the person has responsibility for the direct supervision of state safety personnel specified in the classifications listed in this section and if the State Personnel Board determines that these officers and employees meet the state safety membership criteria established pursuant to Section 18717. The Department of Personnel Administration shall determine which classes meet the above conditions and report its findings to the Public Employees' Retirement System, whereupon the change in membership categories shall take effect.

Any person so designated pursuant to this section may elect, within 90 days of notification by the board, to remain subject to the miscellaneous service retirement benefit and contribution rate by filing an irrevocable notice of election with the board. A member who so elects shall be subject to the reduced benefit factors specified in Section 21251.13 only for service also included in the federal system.

SEC. 2. Section 20803.94 is added to the Government Code, to read:

20803.94. "State safety service" does not include service in classes specified in Section 20017.81 prior to the effective date of that section.

SEC. 3. Section 22013.75 is added to the Government Code, to read:

22013.75. "Policeman," as used in this part, also includes persons employed in positions identified in Section 20017.81, provided that designation is not contrary to any definition, ruling, or regulation relating to the term "policeman" issued by the federal agency for the purposes of Section 218(d)(5)(A) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 418(d)(5)(A)).

CHAPTER 939

An act to amend Sections 23103.5, 23185, and 23190 of the Vehicle Code, relating to driving offenses.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23103.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

23103.5. (a) When the prosecution agrees to a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a charge of a violation of Section 23103 in satisfaction of, or as a substitute for, an original charge of a violation of Section 23152, the prosecution shall state for the record a factual basis for the satisfaction or substitution, including whether or not there had been consumption of any alcoholic beverage or ingestion or administration of any drug, or both, by the defendant in connection with the offense. The statement shall set forth the facts which show whether or not there was a consumption of any alcoholic beverage or the ingestion or administration of any drug by the defendant in connection with the offense.

(b) The court shall advise the defendant, prior to the acceptance of the plea offered pursuant to a factual statement pursuant to subdivision (a), of the consequences of a conviction of a violation of Section 23103 as set forth in subdivision (c).

(c) If the court accepts the defendant's plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a charge of a violation of Section 23103 and the prosecutor's statement under subdivision (a) states that there was consumption of any alcoholic beverage or the ingestion or administration of any drugs by the defendant in connection with the offense, the resulting conviction shall be a prior offense for the purposes of Section 23165, 23170, 23175, 23185, 23190, or 23200, as specified in those sections.

(d) The court shall notify the Department of Motor Vehicles of each conviction of Section 23103 which shall be a prior offense for purposes of Section 23165, 23170, 23175, 23185, 23190, or 23200, as provided in this section.

SEC. 2. Section 23185 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

23185. If any person is convicted of a violation of Section 23153 and the offense occurred within seven years of a separate violation of Section 23103, as specified in Section 23103.5 and which occurred on or after January 1, 1982, 23152, or 23153 which resulted in a conviction, that person shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or in the county jail for not less than 120 days nor more than one year, and by a fine of not less than three hundred ninety dollars ($390) nor more than five thousand dollars ($5,000). The person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle shall be revoked by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 13352.

SEC. 3. Section 23190 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

23190. If any person is convicted of a violation of Section 23153 and the offense occurred within seven years of two or more separate violations of Section 23103, as specified in Section 23103.5 and which occurred on or after January 1, 1982, 23152, or 23153, or any combination of these violations which resulted in convictions, that person shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term of two, three, or four years and by a fine of not less than one thousand fifteen dollars ($1,015) nor more than five thousand dollars ($5,000). The person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle shall be revoked by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 13352.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 5. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1989.

CHAPTER 940

An act to amend Section 39667 of, and to add Section 39663 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to toxic air contaminants.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares:

(a) That the State Air Resources Board has classified, or has under review for classification, several substances as toxic air contaminants which are emitted primarily from vehicular sources.

(b) That, with respect to some of these substances, the state board and the Scientific Review Panel on Toxic Air Contaminants have been unable to identify a level of exposure below which no adverse health effects may be expected to occur.

(c) That existing state law requires that public exposure to toxic air contaminants for which no threshold of exposure has been identified should be reduced to the lowest level achievable through the application of the best available control technology or more effective control methods.

(d) That, in order to reduce public exposure to known and suspected toxic air contaminants emitted from vehicular sources through the application of the best available control technology or more effective control methods, it is necessary to clarify and enhance the authority of the state board with respect to the control of vehicular fuel composition and new vehicle emissions.

(e) That, in order to reduce public exposure to harmful toxic air contaminants as expeditiously as possible, and to provide affected industries with the necessary lead time for compliance with regulations, it is necessary for the Legislature to direct the state board to adopt, as soon as practicable, regulations which the state board determines to be necessary and technologically feasible.

SEC. 2. Section 39663 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

39663. (a) Not later than June 30, 1989, the state board shall hold a public hearing to review the potential nature, extent, and severity of public exposure to known and suspected toxic air contaminants emitted by vehicular sources in California. Prior to the hearing, the board shall prepare a report that includes the following:

(1) The identification of known and suspected toxic air contaminants emitted by vehicular sources, including, but not limited to, benzene, polycylic aromatic hydrocarbons, formaldehyde, and diesel smoke.

(2) The identification of the probable sources and precursors of these toxic air contaminants, based on available data.

(3) An estimate of the level of exposure that may be occurring due to emissions of all known and suspected toxic air contaminants from vehicular sources.

(4) The potential risk to public health associated with the estimated level of exposure, based on available unit risk factors.

(5) The identification of available and projected control measures which may reduce public exposure to known and suspected toxic air contaminants emitted by vehicular sources.

(b) Following the hearing, the state board shall reassess the pollutant review schedule under the toxic air contaminant program to determine whether sufficient emphasis has been placed on pollutants emitted by motor vehicles. The state board shall revise the schedule, as necessary, to give due weight to public health risks caused or potentially caused by motor vehicle emissions.

(c) Not later than June 30, 1990, the state board shall hold a public hearing to consider a plan for reducing public exposure to known and suspected toxic air contaminants emitted by motor vehicles.

(d) Nothing in this section restricts the authority of the state board to adopt regulations to control toxic air contaminant emissions from motor vehicles or to delay the exercise of that authority.

SEC. 3. Section 39667 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

39667. Based on its determinations pursuant to Section 39662 or 39663, the state board shall consider the adoption of revisions in the emission standards for vehicular sources and regulations specifying the content of motor vehicle fuel, in order to achieve the maximum possible reduction in public exposure to toxic air contaminants. Except for regulations affecting new motor vehicles which shall be based upon the most advanced technology feasible for the model year, regulations developed pursuant to this section shall be based on the utilization of the best available control technologies or more effective control methods, unless the state board determines, based on an assessment of risk, that an alternative level of emission reduction is adequate or necessary to prevent an endangerment of public health. Those regulations may include, but are not limited to, the modification, removal, or substitution of vehicle fuel, vehicle fuel components, or fuel additives, or the required installation of vehicular control measures on new motor vehicles.

CHAPTER 941

An act to amend Sections 1640, 1641, 17089, and 27023 of, and to add Section 5357 to, the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1640 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

1640. Following the appointment of members of precinct boards, the clerk shall instruct inspectors so appointed concerning their duties in connection with the conduct of the election which instruction shall include (a) a summary of the rights of voters, (b) the lawful grounds for challenge, (c) the proper tabulating procedures, (d) specific directions that the polls shall be kept open to the public during voting hours and throughout the period required for the tabulation of the vote, (e) a digest of election laws, and (f) such other subjects as shall assist the inspectors in carrying out their duties.

No person shall serve as an inspector of a precinct board at the election unless instruction has been received in accordance with this section, except that in the case of the emergency disability of a regular inspector, substitute inspectors shall be given such instruction as may be found necessary by the clerk.

At the request of the clerk, the legislative body may contract with any qualified person or organization for purposes of instructing inspectors in accordance with this section.

SEC. 2. Section 1641 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

1641. Upon filing the list of names and addresses of those who have been appointed members of the precinct board, the clerk shall immediately mail or deliver to each voter so appointed, a notice stating the appointment and the position to which assigned, the penalty for failure to serve, and any other matter that the clerk determines.

SEC. 3. Section 5357 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

5357. A county clerk who is required, pursuant to this division, to examine signatures on an initiative, referendum, recall, nomination, or other election petition, may employ temporary assistants as required to complete the necessary procedure. The costs for the temporary assistants shall be paid by the jurisdiction in which the election on the proposition is intended to be held.

SEC. 4. Section 17089 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

17089. The statement of the result shall show:

(a) The total number of ballots cast.

(b) The number of votes cast at each precinct for each candidate and for and against each measure.

(c) The total number of votes cast for each candidate and for and against each measure

The statement of the result shall also show the number of votes cast in each city, Assembly district, congressional district, senatorial district, State Board of Equalization district, and supervisorial district located in whole or in part in the county, for each candidate for the offices of presidential elector and all statewide offices, depending on the offices to be filled, and on each statewide ballot proposition.

SEC. 5. Section 27023 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

27023. Within seven days after the filing of the notice of intention, the officer sought to be recalled may file with the clerk, or in the case of a state officer, the Secretary of State, an answer, in not more than 200 words, to the statement of the proponents. If an answer is filed, the officer shall, within seven days after the filing of the notice of intention, also serve a copy of it, by personal delivery or by certified mail, on one of the proponents named in the notice of intention. The answer shall include the preprinted name, signature, and business or residence address of the officer sought to be recalled.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 942

An act to amend Section 830.5 of the Penal Code, relating to peace officers.

[Approved by Governor September 15, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 830.5 of the Penal Code, as amended by Chapter 386 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

830.5. The following persons are peace officers whose authority extends to any place in the state while engaged in the performance of the duties of their respective employment and for the purpose of carrying out the primary function of their employment or as required under Sections 8597, 8598, and 8617 of the Government Code. Except as specified in this section, these peace officers may carry firearms only if authorized and under those terms and conditions specified by their employing agency:

(a) A parole officer of the Department of Corrections or the Department of the Youth Authority, probation officer, or deputy probation officer, or a board coordinating parole agent employed by the Youthful Offender Parole Board. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the authority of the parole or probation officer shall extend only (1) to conditions of parole or of probation by any person in this state on parole or probation; (2) to the escape of any inmate or ward from a state or local institution; (3) to the transportation of such persons; and (4) to violations of any penal provisions of law which are discovered in the course of and arise in connection with his or her employment. A parole officer of the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, or the Youthful Offender Parole Board is authorized to carry firearms but only as determined by the director on a case-by-case or unit-by-unit basis and only under those terms and conditions specified by the director or chairperson.

(b) A correctional officer employed by the Department of Corrections or any employee of the Department of the Youth Authority having custody of wards or any employee of the Department of Corrections designated by the Director of Corrections or any medical technical assistant series employee designated by the Director of Corrections or designated by the Director of Corrections and employed by the State Department of Mental Health to work in the California Medical Facility or employee of the Board of Prison Terms designated by the Secretary of the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency or employee of the Department of the Youth Authority designated by the Director of the Youth Authority or any superintendent, supervisor, or employee having custodial responsibilities in an institution operated by a probation department, or any transportation officer of a probation department.

(c) The following persons may carry a firearm while not on duty: a parole officer of the Department of Corrections or the Department of the Youth Authority, a correctional officer employed by the Department of Corrections or any employee of the Department of the Youth Authority having custody of wards or any employee of the Department of Corrections designated by the Director of Corrections. A parole officer of the Youthful Offender Parole Board may carry a firearm while not on duty only when so authorized by the chairperson of the board and only under the terms and conditions specified by the chairperson. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to require licensure pursuant to Section 12025. The director or chairperson may deny or revoke for good cause a person's right to carry a firearm under this subdivision. That person shall, upon request, receive a hearing, as provided for in the negotiated grievance procedure between the exclusive employee representative and the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, or the Youthful Offender Parole Board, to review the director's or the chairperson's decision.

(d) Persons permitted to carry firearms pursuant to this section, either on or off duty, shall meet the training requirements of Section 832 and shall qualify with the firearm at least quarterly. It is the responsibility of the individual officer to maintain his or her eligibility to carry firearms off-duty.

CHAPTER 943

An act to add Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1830) to Division 8 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to POW/MIA Recognition Day, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1830) is added to Division 8 of the Military and Veterans Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3. PRISONERS OF WAR AND MISSING IN ACTION

1830. In enacting this chapter, the Legislature recognizes all of the following:

(a) California citizens have fought for their nation in many wars.

(b) Hundreds of Californians who served in those wars were captured by the enemy or are missing in action.

(c) Two hundred forty-three Californians who served in the Vietnam War remain unaccounted for.

(d) Nine hundred family members of Vietnam era POW/MIAs reside in California.

(e) The uncertain fate of the 2,400 American citizens still held as POWs or listed as missing in action causes their families acute hardship and pain.

1831. (a) So that the people of California will not forget the sacrifices of those members of the United States armed forces who, after the termination of hostilities, remain prisoners of war or missing in action, September 16, 1988, and the third Friday of September of every year thereafter is and shall be known throughout California as POW/MIA Recognition Day.

(b) The Governor and the Legislature are authorized and requested to issue proclamations calling upon the people, schools, and local governments of California to recognize POW/MIA Recognition Day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to establish POW/MIA Recognition Day as quickly as possible so that the people of California will remember the sacrifices of those members of the United States armed forces who remain prisoners of war and missing in action, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 944

An act to add Sections 77200.5 and 77202.5 to the Government Code, to add and repeal Section 1463.28 to the Penal Code, to amend Sections 97, 97.5, 98, and 11005 of, to add Sections 97.37, 97.38, 97.39, 97.52, and 99 6 to, and to repeal and add Section 97.35 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to add Items 0250-101-159, 0250-111-001, 0420-102-001, 0450-101-001, and 0450-101-495 to the Budget Act of 1988 (Chapter 313 of the Statutes of 1988), relating to local government financing, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 77200.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

77200.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 77200, the Controller shall reduce the block grant owing to the County of Contra Costa in each fiscal year by the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) and shall reduce the block grant owing to the County of Alameda in each fiscal year by the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(b) The amount of the reduction made each fiscal year pursuant to subdivision (a), shall be allocated by the Controller to an eligible city as defined in Section 97.52 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 2. Section 77202.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

77202.5. (a) In any option year commencing with the 1989–90 fiscal year, in which the net county benefit for the County of Ventura is less than the sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000), increased each fiscal year by the same percentage adjustment as is applied to the block grant pursuant to Section 77201, the Controller shall allocate to the county a special supplemental subvention of vehicle license fee revenues pursuant to Section 11005 of the Revenue and Taxation Code in an amount equal to the amount by which the net county benefit is less than five million dollars ($5,000,000), as adjusted for the applicable fiscal year.

(b) For purposes of this section, the net county benefit for each fiscal year beginning in the 1989–90 fiscal year is the sum of the amount of the annual block grant to the county, as specified in Sections 77200 and 77201, and the supplemental block grant provided in subdivision (b) of 68206 for that fiscal year reduced by the amount subtracted from the county's proportionate share of property tax revenue pursuant to Section 97.38 of the Revenue and Taxation Code for that fiscal year.

SEC. 3. Section 1463.28 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1463.28. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for each option county, as defined by Section 77004 of the Government Code, which has adopted the resolution specified in subdivision (b), that portion of fines and forfeitures, whether collected by the courts or by other processing agencies, which are attributable to an increase in the bail amounts adopted subsequent to the resolution pursuant to subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 1269b which would otherwise be divided between the county and cities within the county shall be deposited into the county general fund up to the annual limit listed in subdivision (b) for that county. Fine and forfeiture increments which exceed the specified annual limit shall be divided between the county and the cities within the county as otherwise provided by law. Until December 31, 1992, the scheduled bail amounts in such a county may exceed any limit established pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 1269b.

(b) The counties which may adopt a resolution directing that future increments in fines and forfeitures as specified in subdivision (a) be deposited in the county general fund and the annual limit applicable to those counties is as follows:

County	Annual Limit
Alpine	$ 300,000
Amador	200,000
Butte	900,000
Calaveras	300,000
Contra Costa	100,000
Del Norte	200,000
Fresno	700,000
Humboldt	200,000
Kings	300,000
Lake	400,000
Lassen	200,000
Los Angeles	15,000,000
Madera	600,000
Mariposa	200,000
Mendocino	600,000
Modoc	200,000
Mono	200,000
Plumas	200,000
San Benito	300,000
San Diego	5,200,000
San Joaquin	1,000,000
Santa Clara	3,200,000
Sierra	300,000
Stanislaus	1,900,000
Sutter	800,000
Trinity	200,000
Tulare	2,000,000
Tuolumne	400,000
Yolo	700,000
Yuba	900,000

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1992, and on that date is repealed. After that date fines and forfeitures shall be distributed as otherwise provided by law.

SEC. 4. Section 97 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

97. Except as otherwise provided in Sections 97.3, 97.32, 97.35, 97.37, and 97.38 for the 1980–81 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, property tax revenues shall be apportioned to each jurisdiction pursuant to this section and Section 97.5 by the county auditor, subject to allocation and payment of funds as provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code, to each jurisdiction in the following manner:

(a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), for each tax rate area, each jurisdiction shall be allocated an amount of property tax revenue equal to the amount of property tax revenue allocated pursuant to this chapter to each jurisdiction in the prior fiscal year, modified by any adjustments required by Section 99 or 99.4.

(b) For each tax rate area, each special district shall be allocated an amount of property tax revenue equal to the amount of property tax revenue which would have been allocated pursuant to this chapter to such district in the prior fiscal year if no adjustment had been made pursuant to Section 98.6. This amount shall then be adjusted for the current year pursuant to Section 98.6.

(c) The difference between the total amount of property tax revenue and the amounts allocated pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be allocated pursuant to Section 98, and shall be known as the "annual tax increment."

(d) For purposes of this section, the amount of property tax revenue referred to in subdivision (a) shall not include amounts generated by the increased assessments under Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75).

SEC. 5. Section 97.35 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 97.35 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

97.35. (a) In each county, other than the County of Mono and the County of Ventura, having within its boundaries a qualifying city, the computations made pursuant to Section 97, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, shall be modified as follows:

With respect to tax rate areas within the boundaries of a qualifying city, there shall be excluded from the aggregate amount of "property tax revenue allocated pursuant to this chapter to local agencies, other than for a qualifying city, in the prior fiscal year," an amount equal to the sum of the amounts calculated pursuant to the TEA formula.

(b) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, each qualifying city shall, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each year thereafter, be allocated by the auditor an amount determined pursuant to the TEA formula.

(2) For each qualifying city, the auditor shall, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each year thereafter, allocate the amount determined pursuant to the TEA formula to all tax rate areas within that city in proportion to each tax rate area's share of the total assessed value in the city for the applicable fiscal year, and the amount so determined shall be subtracted from the county's proportionate share of property tax revenue for that fiscal year within those tax rate areas.

(3) After making the allocations pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2), but before making the calculations pursuant to Section 98, the auditor shall, for all tax rate areas in the qualifying city, calculate the proportionate share of property tax revenue allocated pursuant to this section and Section 97 in the 1989–90 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter to each jurisdiction in the tax rate area.

(4) In lieu of making the allocations of annual tax increment pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 98, the auditor shall, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each year thereafter, allocate the amount of property tax revenue determined pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 98 to jurisdictions in the tax rate area using the proportionate shares derived pursuant to paragraph (3).

(5) For purposes of the calculations made pursuant to Section 97, in the 1990–91 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the amounts that would have been allocated to qualifying cities pursuant to this subdivision shall be deemed to be the "amount of property tax revenue allocated in the prior fiscal year."

(c) "TEA formula" means Tax Equity Allocation formula, and shall be calculated by the auditor for each qualifying city as follows:

(1) For the 1988–89 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the auditor shall determine the total amount of property tax revenue to be allocated to all jurisdictions in all tax rate areas within the qualifying city, before the allocation and payment of funds in that fiscal year to a community redevelopment agency within the qualifying city, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) The auditor shall determine the total amount of funds allocated in each fiscal year to a community redevelopment agency in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) The auditor shall determine the total amount of funds paid in each fiscal year by a community redevelopment agency within the city to jurisdictions other than the city pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33401 and Section 33676 of the Health and Safety Code, and the cost to the redevelopment agency of any land or facilities transferred and any amounts paid to jurisdictions other than the city to assist in the construction or reconstruction of facilities pursuant to an agreement entered into under Section 33401 or 33445.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(4) The auditor shall subtract the amount determined in paragraph (3) from the amount determined in paragraph (2).

(5) The auditor shall subtract the amount determined in paragraph (4) from the amount determined in paragraph (1).

(6) The amount computed in paragraph (5) shall be multiplied by the following percentages in order to determine the TEA formula amount to be distributed to the qualifying city in each fiscal year:

(A) For the first fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 1 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(B) For the second fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 2 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(C) For the third fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 3 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(D) For the fourth fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 4 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(E) For the fifth fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 5 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(F) For the sixth fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 6 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(G) For the seventh fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter in which the city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 7 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(d) "Qualifying city" means any city, except a qualifying city as defined in Section 97.3, which incorporated prior to June 5, 1987, and had an amount of property tax revenue allocated to it pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 97 in the 1988–89 fiscal year which is less than 7 percent of the amount of property tax revenue computed as follows:

(1) The auditor shall determine the total amount of property tax revenue allocated to the city in the 1988–89 fiscal year.

(2) The auditor shall subtract the amount in the 1988–89 fiscal year determined in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) from the amount determined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c).

(3) The auditor shall subtract the amount determined in paragraph (2) from the amount of property tax revenue determined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c).

(4) The auditor shall divide the amount of property tax revenue determined in paragraph (1) of this subdivision by the amount of property tax revenue determined in paragraph (3) of this subdivision.

(5) If the quotient determined in paragraph (4) of this subdivision is less than 0.07, the city is a qualifying city. If the quotient determined in that paragraph is equal to or greater than 0.07, the city is not a qualifying city.

(e) The auditor may assess each qualifying city its proportional share of the actual costs of making the calculations required by this section, and may deduct that assessment from the amount allocated pursuant to subdivision (b). For purposes of this subdivision, a qualifying city's proportional share of the auditor's actual costs shall not exceed the proportion it receives of the total amounts excluded in the county pursuant to subdivision (a).

(f) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), in any fiscal year in which a qualifying city is to receive a distribution pursuant to this section, the auditor shall reduce the actual amount distributed to the qualifying city by the sum of the following:

(1) The amount of property tax revenue which was exchanged between the county and the qualifying city as a result of negotiation pursuant to Section 99.6.

(2) The amount of revenue not collected by the qualifying city in the first fiscal year following the city's reduction after January 1, 1988, of the tax rate or tax base of any locally imposed general or special tax. The amount so computed by the auditor shall constitute a reduction in the amount of property tax revenue distributed to the qualifying city pursuant to this section in each succeeding fiscal year. That amount shall be aggregated with any additional amount computed pursuant to this paragraph as the result of the city's reduction in any subsequent year of the tax rate or tax base of the same or any other locally imposed general or special tax.

(3) The amount of property tax revenue received pursuant to this chapter in excess of the amount allocated for the 1986–87 fiscal year by all special districts which are governed by the city council of the qualifying city or whose governing body is the same as the city council of the qualifying city with respect to all tax rate areas within the boundaries of the qualifying city.

(g) If the auditor determines that the amount to be distributed to a qualifying city pursuant to subdivision (b), as modified by subdivisions (e) and (f), would result in a qualifying city having proceeds of taxes in excess of its appropriation limit, the auditor shall reduce the amount, on a dollar-for-dollar basis, by the amount which exceeds the city's appropriations limit.

(h) The amount not distributed to the tax rate areas of a qualifying city as a result of this section shall be distributed by the auditor to the county.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, no qualifying city shall be distributed an amount pursuant to this section which is less than the amount the city would have been allocated without the application of the TEA formula.

(j) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the auditor shall not distribute any amount determined pursuant to this section to any qualifying city which has in the prior fiscal year used any revenues or issued bonds for the construction, acquisition, or development, of any facility which is defined in Section 103(b)(4), 103 (b)(5), or 103(b)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 prior to the enactment of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 (P.L. 99-514) and is no longer eligible for tax exempt financing.

(k) A qualifying city, as defined in subdivision (d), shall not receive an allocation pursuant to this section in the 1989–90 fiscal year or in any succeeding fiscal year with respect to which the county in which the qualifying city is located has failed to notify the state pursuant to Sections 77300 and 77301 of the Government Code of the county's intent to opt into the system established by the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act of 1988 for that fiscal year.

(l) Each qualifying city shall receive its fiscal year allocation pursuant to this section in the first fiscal year with respect to which the county in which it is located has notified the state of its intent to opt into the system.

SEC. 7. Section 97.37 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

97.37. (a) In the County of Mono, the computations made pursuant to Section 97, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each year thereafter, shall be modified as follows:

With respect to tax rate areas within the boundaries of a qualifying city, there shall be excluded from the aggregate amount of "property tax revenue allocated pursuant to this chapter to local agencies, other than for a qualifying city, in the prior fiscal year," an amount equal to the sum of the amounts calculated pursuant to the TEA formula.

(b) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, each qualifying city shall, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, be allocated by the auditor an amount determined pursuant to the TEA formula.

(2) For each qualifying city, the auditor shall, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each year thereafter, allocate the amount determined pursuant to the TEA formula to all tax rate areas within the city in proportion to each tax rate area's share of the total assessed value in the city for the applicable fiscal year, and the amount so determined shall be subtracted from the county's proportionate share of the property tax revenue for that fiscal year within those tax rate areas.

(3) After making the allocations pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2), but before making the calculations pursuant to Section 98, the auditor shall, for all tax rate areas in the qualifying city, calculate the proportionate share of property tax revenue allocated pursuant to this section and Section 97 in the 1989–90 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter to each jurisdiction in the tax rate area.

(4) In lieu of making the allocations of annual tax increment pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 98, the auditor shall, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each year thereafter, allocate the amount of property tax revenue determined pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 98 to jurisdictions in the tax rate area using the proportionate shares derived pursuant to paragraph (3).

(5) For purposes of the calculations made pursuant to Section 97, in the 1990–91 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the amounts that would have been allocated to qualifying cities pursuant to this subdivision shall be deemed to be the "amount of property tax revenue allocated in the prior fiscal year."

(c) "TEA formula" means the Tax Equity Allocation formula, and shall be calculated by the auditor for each qualifying city as follows:

(1) For the 1988–89 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the auditor shall determine the total amount of property tax revenue to be allocated to all jurisdictions in all tax rate areas within the qualifying city, before the allocation and payment of funds in that fiscal year to a community redevelopment agency within the qualifying city, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) The auditor shall determine the total amount of funds allocated in each fiscal year to a community redevelopment agency in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) The auditor shall determine the total amount of funds paid in each fiscal year by a community redevelopment agency within the city to jurisdictions other than the city pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33401 and Section 33676 of the Health and Safety Code, and the cost to the redevelopment agency of any land or facilities transferred and any amounts paid to jurisdictions other than the city to assist in the construction or reconstruction of facilities pursuant to an agreement entered into under Section 33401 or 33445.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(4) The auditor shall subtract the amount determined in paragraph (3) from the amount determined in paragraph (2).

(5) The auditor shall subtract the amount determined in paragraph (4) from the amount determined in paragraph (1).

(6) The amount computed in paragraph (5) shall be multiplied by the following percentages in order to determine the TEA formula amount to be distributed to the qualifying city in each fiscal year:

(A) For the first fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 1 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(B) For the second fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 2 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(C) For the third fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 3 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(D) For the fourth fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 4 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(E) For the fifth fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 5 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(F) For the sixth fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 6 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(d) "Qualifying city" means any city which incorporated prior to June 5, 1987, and had an amount of property tax revenue allocated to it pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 97 in the 1988–89 fiscal year which is less than 6 percent of the amount of property tax revenue computed as follows:

(1) The auditor shall determine the total amount of property tax revenue allocated to the city in the 1988–89 fiscal year.

(2) The auditor shall subtract the amount in the 1988–89 fiscal year determined in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) from the amount determined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c).

(3) The auditor shall subtract the amount determined in paragraph (2) from the amount of property tax revenue in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c).

(4) The auditor shall divide the amount of property tax revenue determined in paragraph (1) of this subdivision by the amount of property tax revenue determined in paragraph (3) of this subdivision.

(5) If the quotient determined in paragraph (4) of this subdivision is less than 0.06, the city is a qualifying city. If the quotient determined in that paragraph is equal to or greater than 0.06, the city is not a qualifying city.

(e) The auditor may assess each qualifying city its proportional share of the actual costs of making the calculations required by this section, and may deduct that assessment from the amount allocated pursuant to subdivision (b). For purposes of this subdivision, a qualifying city's proportional share of the auditor's actual costs shall not exceed the proportion it receives of the total amounts excluded in the county pursuant to subdivision (a).

(f) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), in any fiscal year in which a qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, the auditor shall reduce the actual amount distributed to the qualifying city by the sum of the following:

(1) The amount of revenue not collected by the qualifying city in the first fiscal year following the city's reduction after January 1, 1988, of the tax rate or tax base of any locally imposed general or special tax. The amount so computed by the auditor shall constitute a reduction in the amount of property tax revenue distributed to the qualifying city pursuant to this section in each succeeding fiscal year. That amount shall be aggregated with any additional amount computed pursuant to this paragraph as the result of the city's reduction in any subsequent year of the tax rate or tax base of the same or any other locally imposed general or special tax.

(2) The amount of property tax revenue received pursuant to this chapter in excess of the amount allocated for the 1986–87 fiscal year by all special districts which are governed by the city council of the qualifying city or whose governing body is the same as the city council of the qualifying city with respect to all tax rate areas within the boundaries of the qualifying city.

(g) If the auditor determines that the amount to be distributed to a qualifying city pursuant to subdivision (b), as modified by subdivisions (e) and (f), would result in a qualifying city having proceeds of taxes in excess of its appropriation limit, the auditor shall reduce the amount, on a dollar-for-dollar basis, by the amount which exceeds the city's appropriations limit.

(h) The amount not distributed to the tax rate areas of a qualifying city as a result of this section shall be distributed by the auditor to the county.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, no qualifying city shall be distributed an amount pursuant to this section which is less than the amount the city would have been allocated without the application of the TEA formula.

(j) A qualifying city, as defined in subdivision (d), shall not receive an allocation pursuant to this section in the 1989–90 fiscal year or in any succeeding fiscal year with respect to which the county in which the qualifying city is located has failed to notify the state pursuant to Sections 77300 and 77301 of the Government Code of the county's intent to opt into the system established by the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act of 1988 for that fiscal year.

(k) Each qualifying city shall receive its fiscal year allocation pursuant to this section in the first fiscal year with respect to which the county in which it is located has notified the state of its intent to opt into the system.

SEC. 8. Section 97.38 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

97.38. (a) In the County of Ventura, the computations made pursuant to Section 97, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each year thereafter, shall be modified as follows:

With respect to tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, within the boundaries of a qualifying city, there shall be excluded from the aggregate amount of "property tax revenue allocated pursuant to this chapter to local agencies, other than for a qualifying city, in the prior fiscal year," an amount equal to the sum of the amounts calculated pursuant to the TEA formula.

(b) (1) Each qualifying city shall, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, be allocated by the auditor an amount determined pursuant to the TEA formula.

(2) For each qualifying city, the auditor shall, for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each year thereafter, distribute the amount determined pursuant to the TEA formula to all tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, within that city in proportion to each tax rate area's share of the total assessed value in the city for the applicable fiscal year, and the amount so determined shall be subtracted from the county's proportionate share of the property tax revenue for that fiscal year within those tax rate areas.

(3) After making the allocations pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2), but before making the calculations pursuant to Section 98, the auditor shall, for all tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, in the qualifying city, calculate the proportionate share of property tax revenue allocated pursuant to this section and Section 97 in the 1989–90 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter to each jurisdiction in the tax rate area.

(4) In lieu of making the allocations of annual tax increment pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 98, the auditor shall for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, allocate the amount of property tax revenue determined pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 98 to jurisdictions in the tax rate area, except an excluded tax rate area, using the proportionate shares derived pursuant to paragraph (3).

(5) For purposes of the calculations made pursuant to Section 97, in the 1990–91 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the amounts that would have been allocated to all tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, of qualifying cities pursuant to this subdivision shall be deemed to be the "amount of property tax revenue allocated to those tax rate areas in the prior fiscal year."

(c) "TEA formula" means the Tax Equity Allocation formula, and shall be calculated by the auditor for each qualifying city as follows:

(1) For the 1988–89 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the auditor shall determine the total amount of property tax revenue to be allocated to all jurisdictions in all tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, within the qualifying city, before the allocation and payment of funds in that fiscal year to a community redevelopment agency within the qualifying city, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) The auditor shall determine the amount of funds allocated in each fiscal year to those tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, within a community redevelopment agency in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) (A) The auditor shall determine the total amount of funds paid in each fiscal year by a community redevelopment agency within the city to jurisdictions other than the city pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33401 and Section 33676 of the Health and Safety Code, and the cost to the redevelopment agency of any land or facilities transferred and any amounts paid to jurisdictions other than the city to assist in the construction or reconstruction of facilities pursuant to an agreement entered into under Section 33401 or 33445.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(B) Of the total amount determined in subparagraph (A), the auditor shall compute a proportionate amount to be attributed to all tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, within the community redevelopment agency. That proportionate amount shall be equal to that proportion which the amount determined in paragraph (2) in each fiscal year bears to the total amount of funds allocated in each fiscal year to a community redevelopment agency in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code.

(4) The auditor shall subtract the amount determined in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (3) from the amount determined in paragraph (2).

(5) The auditor shall subtract the amount determined in paragraph (4) from the amount determined in paragraph (1).

(6) The amount computed in paragraph (5) shall be multiplied by the following percentages in order to determine the TEA formula amount to be distributed to the qualifying city in each fiscal year:

(A) For the first fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 1 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(B) For the second fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 2 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(C) For the third fiscal year in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 3 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(D) For the fourth fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter in which the qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, 4 percent of the amount determined in paragraph (5).

(d) For purposes of this section, "excluded tax rate area" means either of the following:

(1) Any tax rate area included in territory annexed by the qualifying city and allocated a prescribed percentage of property tax revenue pursuant to an existing agreement between the qualifying city and the county.

(2) Any tax rate area described in paragraph (1) which was detached from the county library district and which is also allocated an additional prescribed percentage of property tax revenue pursuant to an existing agreement between the qualifying city and the county.

(e) (1) For any fiscal year in which the county opts into the system established by the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act of 1988, all existing agreements between the qualifying city and the county covering the allocation of property tax revenues to tax rate areas described in subdivision (d) shall remain in force.

(2) For any fiscal year in which the county opts into the system established by the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act of 1988, all existing agreements between the qualifying city and the county covering the allocation of property tax revenues to tax rate areas which were detached from the county library district but are not included in territory which was annexed by the qualifying city shall remain in force.

(3) All allocations to those tax rate areas described in subdivision (d), including allocations of annual tax increments, made pursuant to the existing agreements between the qualifying city and the county shall be governed by subdivision (a) of Section 97 and Section 98.

(4) All allocations to those tax rate areas described in paragraph (2), including allocations of annual tax increments, made pursuant to the existing agreements between the qualifying city and the county shall be governed by subdivision (a) of Section 97 and Section 98. However, the tax rate areas referred to in this paragraph shall also be distributed an amount of property tax revenue determined pursuant to the TEA formula which is over and above the amount allocated as provided in the preceding sentence.

(f) "Qualifying city" means any city which incorporated prior to June 5, 1987, and had an amount of property tax revenue allocated to it pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 97 in the 1988–89 fiscal year which is less than 4 percent of the amount of property tax revenue computed as follows:

(1) The auditor shall determine the total amount of property tax revenue allocated to all tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, in the city in the 1988–89 fiscal year.

(2) The auditor shall subtract the amount in the 1988–89 fiscal year determined in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) from the amount determined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c).

(3) The auditor shall subtract the amount determined in paragraph (2) from the amount of property tax revenue in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c).

(4) The auditor shall divide the amount of property tax revenue determined in paragraph (1) of this subdivision by the amount of property tax revenue determined in paragraph (3) of this subdivision.

(5) If the quotient determined in paragraph (4) of this subdivision is less than 0.04, the city is a qualifying city. If the quotient determined in that paragraph is equal to or greater than 0.04, the city is not a qualifying city.

(g) The auditor may assess each qualifying city its proportional share of the actual costs of making the calculations required by this section, and may deduct that assessment from the amount allocated pursuant to subdivision (b). For purposes of this subdivision, a qualifying city's proportional share of the auditor's actual costs shall not exceed the proportion it receives of the total amounts excluded in the county pursuant to subdivision (a).

(h) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), in any fiscal year in which a qualifying city receives a distribution pursuant to this section, the auditor shall reduce the actual amount distributed to the qualifying city by the amount of revenue not collected by the qualifying city in the first fiscal year following the city's reduction after January 1, 1988, of the tax rate or tax base of any locally imposed general or special tax. The amount so computed by the auditor shall constitute a reduction in the amount of property tax revenue distributed to the qualifying city pursuant to this section in each succeeding fiscal year. That amount shall be aggregated with any additional amount computed pursuant to this paragraph as the result of the city's reduction in any subsequent year of the tax rate or tax base of the same or any other locally imposed general or special tax.

(i) If the auditor determines that the amount to be distributed to a qualifying city pursuant to subdivision (b), as modified by subdivisions (g) and (h), would result in a qualifying city having proceeds of taxes in excess of its appropriation limit, the auditor shall reduce the amount, on a dollar-for-dollar basis, by the amount which exceeds the city's appropriations limit.

(j) The amount not distributed to tax rate areas, except excluded tax rate areas, of a qualifying city as a result of this section shall be distributed by the auditor to the county.

(k) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, no qualifying city shall be distributed an amount pursuant to this section which is less than the amount the city would have been allocated without the application of the TEA formula.

(l) The amount not distributed as a result of this section to the tax rate areas, except excluded tax areas, in each qualifying city shall be allocated by the auditor to the county.

(m) A qualifying city, as defined in subdivision (d), shall not receive an allocation pursuant to this section in the 1989–90 fiscal year or in any succeeding fiscal year with respect to which the county in which the qualifying city is located has failed to notify the state pursuant to Sections 77300 and 77301 of the Government Code of the county's intent to opt into the system established by the Trial Court Funding Act of 1985 for that fiscal year.

(n) Each qualifying city shall receive its first fiscal year allocation pursuant to this section in the first fiscal year with respect to which the county in which it is located has notified the state of its intent to opt into the system.

SEC. 9. Section 97.39 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

97.39. For purposes of Section 97.35, the definition of qualifying city contained in subdivision (d) of that section shall not include the City of Foster City.

SEC. 10. Section 97.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

97.5. Except as otherwise provided in Section 97.51 or 97.52, for the purpose of apportioning property tax revenues each fiscal year:

(a) The amount of property tax revenue allocated pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 96 or subdivision (a) of Section 97, modified by any adjustments made pursuant to Section 99 or 99.4, and subdivision (e) of Section 98, shall be combined to compute the total amount of property tax revenue allocated to the jurisdiction with respect to the tax rate area.

(b) The total amount of property tax revenue allocated to each jurisdiction with respect to all tax rate areas as determined pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be added to compute a total amount of property tax revenue for a jurisdiction in all tax rate areas.

(c) Each amount determined pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be divided by the total of all such amounts computed. The quotient determined shall be used to apportion actual property tax collections and shall be known as the "property tax apportionment factors."

(d) For 1980–81 and each year thereafter, the property tax apportionment factors for the current year shall be used to apportion the total amount paid to a county annually for reimbursement of tax loss from business inventory exemptions pursuant to Chapter 1150 of the Statutes of 1979.

(e) For 1980–81 and each year thereafter, prior years' property tax revenues shall be apportioned using the factors determined pursuant to subdivision (c) for the immediately preceding fiscal year.

(f) For 1979–80, prior years' property tax revenues shall be apportioned using the tax allocation factors computed pursuant to Section 26912 of the Government Code.

(g) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section property tax revenues may be apportioned by tax rate area.

(h) Supplemental property tax revenues for 1985–86 and each year thereafter, generated by Sections 75 to 75.80, inclusive, shall be apportioned using the property tax apportionment factors for the current year.

SEC. 11. Section 97.52 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

97.52. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, in any county with an eligible city, the apportionment of property tax revenues made pursuant to Section 97.5, for the 1988–89 fiscal year only, shall be modified as follows:

(1) The auditor shall increase the total amount of property tax revenues apportioned to an eligible city by an amount equal to 20 percent of the "additional amount" provided to that city pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 95.

(2) The auditor shall reduce by the amount determined in paragraph (1) the total amount of property tax revenues apportioned to an eligible local agency authorized to maintain vehicular recreation areas pursuant to Section 5541.1 of the Public Resources Code.

(b) For the 1988–89 fiscal year only, the allocation of annual tax increment pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 98 to the eligible city and the eligible local agency shall be adjusted correspondingly to reflect the modifications made by subdivision (a).

(c) For purposes of the calculations made pursuant to Section 97, in the 1989–90 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter, the amounts that are allocated to any eligible city and any eligible local agency pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be included in the "amount of property tax revenue allocated pursuant to this chapter in the prior year."

(d) For the purposes of this section, "eligible city" means any city which received an additional amount of state assistance payments in accordance with paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 95.

(e) The amount allocated to an eligible city pursuant to this section shall be expended for zoo purposes only.

SEC. 12. Section 98 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

98. The difference between the total amount of property tax revenue computed each year using the equalized assessment roll and the sum of the amounts allocated pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 96 or subdivision (a) of Section 97 shall be known and may be cited as the annual tax increment, and shall be allocated, subject to allocation and payment of funds as provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code, and modified by any adjustments made pursuant to Section 99 or 99.4, as follows:

(a) For each tax rate area, the auditor shall determine an amount of property tax revenue by multiplying the value of the change in taxable assessed value from the equalized assessment roll for the prior fiscal year to the equalized assessment roll for the current fiscal year by a tax rate of four dollars ($4) per one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed value. When computing the change in taxable assessed value between the 1980–81 fiscal year and the 1981–82 fiscal year, the assessed values for the 1980–81 fiscal year shall be multiplied by four. Starting with the 1981–82 fiscal year, the tax rate used in this calculation shall be one dollar ($1) per one hundred dollars ($100) of full value.

(b) Each amount determined pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be divided by the total of all such amounts computed for all tax rate areas within the county.

(c) The difference between the total amount of property tax revenue for the county and the sum of the amounts allocated pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 96 or subdivision (a) of Section 97 shall be computed.

(d) The amount determined pursuant to subdivision (c) shall be multiplied by the quotients determined pursuant to subdivision (b) to derive, for each tax rate area, the amount of property tax revenue attributable to changes in assessed valuation.

(e) Except as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 97.3 in the 1984–85 fiscal year only, in subdivision (d) of Section 97.32 in the 1985–86 fiscal year only, and in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Sections 97.35, 97.37, and 97.38 in the 1989–90 fiscal year only, the amount of property tax revenue determined pursuant to subdivision (d) shall be allocated to the jurisdictions in the tax rate area in the same proportion that the total property tax revenue determined pursuant to subdivision (d) for the prior year was allocated to all such jurisdictions in the tax rate area except that those proportions within each tax rate area may be adjusted for affected agencies pursuant to the provisions of Section 99 or 99.4.

(f) For the 1979–80 fiscal year only:

(1) The amount of property tax revenue, attributable to the tax rate area, for each jurisdiction for the prior fiscal year shall be considered to be the total property tax revenue for such jurisdiction for fiscal year 1978–79 allocated among tax rate areas in the same proportion which the taxable assessed valuation for fiscal year 1978–79 in each tax rate area bears to the total taxable assessed valuation of all tax rate areas in which the jurisdiction was located in fiscal year 1978–79.

(2) Property tax revenue received by local agencies in the prior fiscal year shall include the amount of state assistance payments allocated to each local agency, allocated among tax rate areas in proportion to the jurisdiction's taxable assessed valuation within each tax rate area for the 1978–79 fiscal year.

(3) Property tax revenue received by school entities in the prior fiscal year shall be reduced by the adjustments required by subdivision (b) of Section 96, allocated among tax rate areas, in proportion to the school entity's taxable assessed valuation within each tax rate area for the 1978–79 fiscal year.

(g) Any agency which has not filed a map of its boundaries by January 1, in compliance with Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 54900) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, shall not receive any allocation pursuant to this section for the following fiscal year.

(h) For the purpose of this section, for the 1980–81 fiscal year, the 1979–80 taxable assessed valuation shall be adjusted to delete the amounts reflecting prior years' taxable business inventories.

SEC. 13. Section 99.6 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

99.6. (a) For the purposes of Section 99, in the case of a jurisdictional change which results in a qualifying city, as defined in Section 97.35, providing its own fire protection services in accordance with Section 25643 of the Government Code in lieu of the county providing those services, the negotiated exchange of property tax revenues between the county and the qualifying city pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 99 as a result of that jurisdictional change may also provide for a negotiated adjustment in the amount of property tax revenue distributed by the auditor to the qualifying city in accordance with Section 97.35. The negotiated adjustment may be made in any amount which does not exceed the amount of property tax revenue exchanged between the county and the qualifying city.

(b) This section applies only to exchanges of property tax revenue affecting the County of Riverside and qualifying cities within the county.

SEC. 13.5. Section 11005 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

11005. (a) After payment of refunds therefrom and after making the deductions authorized by Section 11003 and reserving the amount determined necessary by the Pooled Money Investment Board to meet the transfers ordered or proposed to be ordered pursuant to Section 16310 of the Government Code, commencing with the 1989–90 fiscal year, the Controller shall deduct that amount which is necessary to make the allocation provided for in Section 77202.5 of the Government Code. Eighty-one and one-quarter percent of the balance of all motor vehicle license fees and any other money appropriated by law for expenditure pursuant to this section and deposited to the credit of the Motor Vehicle License Fee Account in the Transportation Tax Fund and remaining unexpended therein at the close of business on the last day of the calendar month shall be allocated by the Controller by the 10th day of the following month in the manner provided by subdivisions (c) and (d).

(b) Eighteen and three-quarters percent of the balance shall be allocated, as follows:

(1) (A) Commencing with the 1988–89 fiscal year, the Controller shall allocate to each city that existed but did not levy a property tax in the 1977–78 fiscal year, other than for voter-approved indebtedness, an amount equal to the total amount which each of those cities would have received in that fiscal year pursuant to Section 25761 of the Business and Professions Code, Section 4306 of the Public Utilities Code, and Section 26483 of this code, as if those sections were operative in that fiscal year in the form in which they existed on June 1, 1981. For each fiscal year thereafter, the Controller shall increase the amount for each city computed pursuant to this paragraph by the percent by which the revenue to the Motor Vehicle License Fee Account increased over the revenue for the previous fiscal year.

(B) (i) For each fiscal year following the 1988–89 fiscal year in which a city subject to subparagraph (A) receives a distribution of property tax revenue pursuant to Section 97.35, 97.37, or 97.38, the amount to be allocated to the city pursuant to subparagraph (A) shall be reduced by the amount of the distribution made pursuant to those sections.

(ii) No allocation shall be made to a city pursuant to subparagraph (A) in the first fiscal year in which the amount distributed to a city pursuant to Section 97.35, 97.37, or 97.38 equals or exceeds the amount that would have been allocated to that city pursuant to subparagraph (A) or in any fiscal year thereafter.

(iii) Any amount not allocated to a city pursuant to subparagraph (A) as a result of the operation of this subparagraph shall be allocated to eligible cities in accordance with clause (iv).

(iv) Commencing with the 1989–90 fiscal year, the Controller shall allocate the amount determined in clause (iii) for each fiscal year to each eligible city in the proportion that the population of each eligible city bears to total population of all eligible cities.

For purposes of this clause, "eligible city" means any city which incorporated prior to June 5, 1987, and had an amount of property tax revenue allocated to it pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 97 in the 1987–88 fiscal year which is less than 10 percent of the amount of property tax revenue computed for the 1987–88 fiscal year in accordance with the method described in subdivision (c) of Section 97.35.

The auditor shall notify the Controller of his or her determination of those cities within the county which are eligible cities.

(2) Each month the Controller shall allocate the remainder of the amount determined pursuant to this subdivision to counties and cities and counties in an amount for each county and city and county equal to the revenue received in the 1982–83 fiscal year pursuant to former Section 16111, subdivision (c) of former Section 16113, and former Section 16113.7 of the Government Code. These amounts shall be determined by the Controller with the concurrence of the Director of Finance. The Controller shall allocate any remaining amount determined pursuant to this subdivision to counties and cities and counties in the proportion that the population of each county or city and county bears to the total population of all the counties and cities and counties of the state, as determined pursuant to subdivision (d).

(c) Fifty percent of the payments required by subdivision (a) shall be paid to the cities and cities and counties of this state in the proportion that the population of each city or city and county bears to the total population of all cities and cities and counties in this state, as determined by the population research unit of the Department of Finance. For the purpose of this subdivision, the population of each city or city and county is that determined by the last federal decennial or special census, or a subsequent census validated by the population research unit or subsequent estimate prepared pursuant to Section 2107.2 of the Streets and Highways Code. In the case of a city incorporated subsequent to the last federal census, or a subsequent census validated by the population research unit, the population research unit shall determine the population of the city. In the case of unincorporated territory being annexed to a city subsequent to the last federal census, or a subsequent census validated by the population research unit, the population research unit shall determine the population of the annexed territory by the use of any federal decennial or special census, or estimate prepared pursuant to Section 2107.2 of the Streets and Highways Code. In the case of the consolidation of one city with another subsequent to the last federal census, or a subsequent census validated by the population research unit, the population of the consolidated city, for the purpose of this subdivision, is the aggregate population of the respective cities as determined by the last federal census, or a subsequent census or estimate validated by the population research unit.

(d) Fifty percent of the payments required by subdivision (a) shall be paid to the counties and cities and counties of the state in the proportion that the population of each county or city and county bears to the total population of all the counties and cities and counties of the state, as determined by the population research unit. For the purpose of this subdivision, the population of each county or city and county is that determined by the last federal census, or subsequent census validated by the population research unit, or as determined by Section 11005.6.

(e) Money disbursed by the Controller to cities and counties pursuant to this section may be used for county or city purposes and may, but need not necessarily, be used for purposes of general interest and benefit to the state.

(f) Population changes based on a federal special census or a subsequent census validated by the Department of Finance shall be accepted by the Controller only if certified to him at the request of the city, city and county, or county for which the census was made and shall become effective on the first day of the month following receipt of the certification.

SEC. 14 It is the intent of the Legislature that Section 13 of this act apply only to those qualifying cities, as defined in Section 97.35 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, within the County of Riverside which have notified the county that they are providing their own fire protection services in lieu of the county fire protection district providing those services.

SEC. 15. Section 0250-101-159 is added to Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988, to read:

0250-101-159—For local assistance, Judicial Council, for trial court improvement grants pursuant to Section 77207 of the Government Code, payable from the Trial Court Improvement Fund 1,000,000

SEC. 16. Item 0250-111-001 is added to Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988, to read:

0250-111-001—For local assistance, Judicial Council, for transfer by the State Controller from the General Fund to the Trial Court Improvement Fund 1,000,000

SEC. 17. Item 0420-102-001 is added to Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988, to read:

0420-102-001—For local assistance, for the state's share of salaries and health, dental and vision benefits of judges of the superior courts, and for payment of the state's block grant supplement for salaries of judges of municipal courts in counties participating in the Trial Court Funding Program established in Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 77000) of Title 8 of the Government Code, as provided by Section 68206 of the Government Code 22,609,000

Schedule:

(a) State share and advances per Section 68206 of the Government Code for superior court judges	2,580,000
(b) Reimbursements	−79,000
(c) State block grant supplement and advances per Section 68206 of the Government Code, for municipal court judges	20,739,000
(d) Reimbursements	−631,000

SEC. 18. Item 0450-101-001 is added to Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988, to read:

0450-101-001—For transfer by the State Controller from the General Fund to the Court Funding Account for transfer to Item 0450-101-495 for implementation of the Trial Court Funding Program authorized in Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 77000) of Title 8 of the Government Code 182,262,000

SEC. 19. Item 0450-101-495 is added to Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988, to read:

0450-101-495—For implementation of the Trial Court Funding Program authorized in Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 77000) of Title 8 of the Government Code, transferred from Item 0450-101-001, payable from the Court Funding Account 182,262,000
Schedule:
(a) 10-Block Grants for Trial Court Funding 177,762,000
(b) 20-New Judgeship Grants 4,500,000

SEC. 20. The sum of six hundred two thousand dollars ($602,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in accordance with the following schedule in augmentation of, and for the purposes of, the listed items of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988:

(a) To Item 0390-101-001, $322,000.

(b) To Item 0840-001-001, $280,000.

SEC. 21. The Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of unique circumstances in the Counties of Alameda, Mono, Riverside, San Mateo, and Ventura. The Legislature finds, therefore, that this special act is necessary. The facts constituting this necessity are:

(a) In the County of Alameda, the poor fiscal condition of the William Knowland Zoo operated by the City of Oakland requires additional funding. Because the zoo serves residents from throughout the East Bay, this act is needed to provide additional regional funding sources.

(b) In the County of Mono, 70 percent of the total population of the county lives within one qualifying city. The distribution of property tax revenues to that one city will cause unique problems which must be dealt with by a special formula.

(c) In the County of Riverside, the financing of fire protection and fire suppression activities requires unusually close cooperation between the county and the cities within the county. This act is necessary because their fiscal relationships require mutually acceptable agreements.

(d) In the County of San Mateo, the City of Foster City is the only city in California which receives substantially all of its municipal services from a single subsidiary special district which already receives property tax revenues to support those services. This subsidiary special district is called the Estero Municipal Improvement District and is governed by a board of directors whose members are the members of the City Council of the City of Foster City. Further, its boundaries are substantially the same as the land area within the city limits of Foster City. This act is needed because of the unique conditions of Foster City.

(e) In the County of Ventura, there is a higher percentage of residents who live within qualifying cities than in any other county which includes urban areas. Distributing relatively large amounts of property tax revenues to those qualifying cities would have created unique fiscal problems for the County of Ventura. Accordingly, this act is needed to create the special formulas for local agencies in the County of Ventura.

SEC. 22. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

SEC. 23. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the financial relief to cities contemplated by this act may be made available to them for the provision of vital municipal services for the entire 1988–89 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 945

An act to amend Sections 69596, 70047.5, 76000, and 76006 of, to amend, repeal, and add Section 68206 of, to add Sections 7.9a, 3501.5, and 68202.5 to, and to repeal and add Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 77000) of Title 8 of, the Government Code, to amend Section 1797.98a of the Health and Safety Code, to amend Sections 1463 and 1465 of the Penal Code, and to amend Section 50 of Chapter 1211 of the Statutes of 1987, relating to courts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 16, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7.9a is added to the Government Code, to read:

7.9a. At the request of the Controller, two employees of that officer, in addition to those provided for in Section 7.9, shall be classified and compensated as career executives at category level IV or category level V.

SEC. 1.5. Section 3501.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

3501.5. As used in this chapter, "public employee" also means an employee of any superior court or an employee of any municipal court, except those employees whose job classification confers safety retirement status. These municipal and superior court employees shall be considered employees of the county for all matters within the scope of representation.

The county's established labor relations office shall represent the county in negotiations with any employee organization recognized to represent the municipal court or superior court employees.

SEC. 2. Section 68202.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

68202.5. (a) In an option county the judge of a full-time justice court shall receive the same salary as a judge of the municipal court. A judge of a part-time justice court in an option county shall receive a percentage of that amount which equals the proportion of a full-time work week required to serve the court to which the judge is appointed or elected, as determined by the Judicial Council and as provided for in the Budget Act.

(b) This section shall become operative July 1, 1989.

SEC. 3. Section 68206 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68206. (a) Of the annual salary of each superior court judge the county for which he is elected or appointed shall pay the amount prescribed below and the remainder shall be paid by the state:

(1) Nine thousand five hundred dollars ($9,500) for a county of 250,000 or more.

(2) Seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) for a county of more than 40,000 and less than 250,000.

(3) Five thousand five hundred dollars ($5,500) for a county of 40,000 or less.

(b) For each option county under the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act, the state shall supplement the block grant for the second half of the 1988–89 fiscal year, as specified in Section 77200, by an amount equal to one-half of the annual salary of each municipal court judge in an option county, less the following amount per municipal court judge:

(1) Four thousand seven hundred fifty dollars ($4,750) for a county of 250,000 or more.

(2) Three thousand seven hundred fifty dollars ($3,750) for a county of more than 40,000 and less than 250,000.

(3) Two thousand seven hundred fifty dollars ($2,750) for a county of 40,000 or less.

(c) This section shall be repealed on July 1, 1989.

SEC. 4. Section 68206 is added to the Government Code, to read:

68206. (a) Of the annual salary of each superior court judge the county for which he is elected or appointed shall pay the amount prescribed below and the remainder shall be paid by the state:

(1) Nine thousand five hundred dollars ($9,500) for a county of 250,000 or more.

(2) Seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) for a county of more than 40,000 and less than 250,000.

(3) Five thousand five hundred dollars ($5,500) for a county of 40,000 or less.

(b) For each option county under the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act, the state shall supplement the block grant for the 1989–90 fiscal year, and for each option year thereafter, by an amount equal to the annual salaries of each municipal and justice court judge in an option county, less the following amount per judge:

(1) Nine thousand five hundred dollars ($9,500) for a county of 250,000 or more.

(2) Seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) for a county of more than 40,000 and less than 250,000.

(3) Five thousand five hundred dollars ($5,500) for a county of 40,000 or less.

(c) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1989.

SEC. 5. Section 69596 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69596. In the City and County of San Francisco there are 29 judges of the superior court, any one or more of whom may hold court.

SEC. 6. Section 70047.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

70047.5. (a) In Sonoma County, for the 1987–88 fiscal year each regular official reporter shall be paid an annual salary of thirty-seven thousand seven hundred forty dollars ($37,740), which salary shall include payment for services in reporting all proceedings in the superior court, before the grand jury and the coroner. In order that the salary provided for in this section shall remain equitable and competitive, the salary provided for in this section shall be adjusted and increased by the same, general across-the-board salary adjustment enacted by the county in the salary ordinance for other unrepresented employees.

(b) Reporters pro tempore serving in the superior and municipal courts shall receive a per diem equal to 90 percent of the gross hourly wage of a regular official superior court reporter, exclusive of benefits, for each full day, and one-half the per diem rate for each half day, when actually on duty under order of the court, and shall receive from the county their necessary traveling and other expenses when necessarily called from other counties.

(c) Regular official reporters shall be entitled to the same privileges with respect to retirement, vacation, sick leave and other benefits allowed to employees in the clerical nonsupervisory representation unit of the county.

(d) In Sonoma County the fee required by Section 70053 shall be twenty dollars ($20).

(e) In addition to any fee otherwise required, in civil cases that last longer than one judicial day, a fee equal to one hundred ten dollars ($110) shall be charged per day of service to the parties, on a pro rata basis, for the services of an official reporter for the second and each succeeding day a reporter is required. This fee shall be adjusted and increased by the same, general across-the-board salary adjustment enacted by the county in the salary ordinance for regular official court reporters.

(f) All parties shall deposit their pro rata share of such fees with the clerk at the beginning of the second and each succeeding day's court session.

(g) The fees shall be taxed as costs in favor of any party paying the same and to whom costs are awarded by the judgment of the court.

SEC. 7. Section 76000 of the Government Code is amended to read:

76000. (a) In each county, provided that the board of supervisors has adopted a resolution stating that the provisions of this section and Section 76001, 76002, 76004, 76005, 76006, 76008, or 76009 are necessary to the establishment of adequate facilities in the county, the following surcharges and assessments shall be collected, except that a resolution adopted pursuant to Section 76004 may limit the collection to the assessments specified in paragraph (2) or (3), as applicable, a resolution adopted pursuant to Section 76005 or 76008 shall limit the collection to the assessments specified in paragraph (2), and a resolution adopted pursuant to Section 76009 shall limit the collection to the assessments specified in paragraph (4):

(1) Except as limited by resolution pursuant to this subdivision, with respect to each fund established pursuant to Section 76001, 76002, 76004, or 76006, for every parking offense where a fine or forfeiture is imposed, a surcharge of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) shall be included in the fine or forfeiture.

The judges of the county shall increase the bail schedule amounts as appropriate to reflect the surcharge provided for by this subdivision.

In those cities, districts, or other issuing agencies which elect to receive, deposit, accept forfeitures, and otherwise process the posting of bail for parking violations pursuant to subdivision (3) of Section 1463 of the Penal Code, that city, district, or issuing agency shall observe the increased bail amounts as established by the court reflecting the surcharge provided for by this paragraph.

(2) With respect to each fund established pursuant to Section 76001, 76002, 76004, 76005, or 76008, except in the counties listed in paragraph (3), there shall be levied an additional amount of one dollar ($1) for every ten dollars ($10) or fraction thereof which shall be collected together with and in the same manner as the assessment established by Section 1464 of the Penal Code, upon every fine, penalty, or forfeiture imposed and collected by the courts for criminal offenses, including all offenses involving a violation of the Vehicle Code or any local ordinance adopted pursuant to the Vehicle Code, except offenses relating to parking or registration or offenses by pedestrians or bicyclists, or where an order is made to pay a sum to the general fund of the county pursuant to clause (iii) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 258 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This amount shall be deposited with the county treasurer and placed in the fund established pursuant to Section 76001, 76002, 76004, 76005, or 76008.

(3) Except as provided in subdivision (h) of Section 76006, but notwithstanding any other provision of law, in Alameda, Contra Costa, Fresno, Kern, Los Angeles, Marin, Monterey, Orange, Placer, Riverside, Sacramento, San Bernardino, San Diego, San Joaquin, San Luis Obispo, San Mateo, Santa Barbara, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Solano, Sonoma, Stanislaus, Ventura, and Yolo Counties, with respect to each fund established pursuant to Section 76004 or 76006, there shall be levied an additional amount of two dollars ($2) for every ten dollars ($10) or fraction thereof which shall be collected together with and in the same manner as the assessment established by Section 1464 of the Penal Code, upon every fine, penalty, or forfeiture imposed and collected by the courts for criminal offenses, including all offenses involving a violation of the Vehicle Code or any local ordinance adopted pursuant to the Vehicle Code, except offenses relating to parking or registration or offenses by pedestrians or bicyclists, or where an order is made to pay a sum to the general fund of the county pursuant to clause (iii) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 258 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. These amounts shall be deposited with the county treasurer and placed in the funds established pursuant to Sections 76004 and 76006.

(4) With respect to each fund established pursuant to Section 76009, there shall be levied an additional amount of fifty cents ($.50) for every ten dollars ($10) or fraction thereof which shall be collected together with and in the same manner as the assessment established by Section 1464 of the Penal Code, upon every fine, penalty, or forfeiture imposed and collected by the courts for criminal offenses, including all offenses involving a violation of the Vehicle Code or any local ordinance adopted pursuant to the Vehicle Code, except offenses relating to parking or registration or offenses by pedestrians or bicyclists, or where an order is made to pay a sum to the general fund of the county pursuant to clause (iii) paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 258 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This amount shall be deposited with the county treasurer and placed in the fund established pursuant to Section 76009.

(b) The surcharge and assessment increase imposed pursuant to this section shall continue so long as deposits to the funds are required pursuant to Section 76001, 76002, 76004, 76005, 76006, 76008, or 76009.

(c) No county, city and county, city, district or other issuing agency shall be required to contribute revenues to any fund in excess of those revenues generated from the surcharges and assessments established in the resolution adopted pursuant to this section, except as otherwise agreed upon by the local governmental entities involved.

SEC. 8. Section 76006 of the Government Code is amended to read:

76006. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (h), but notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the purpose of assisting the Alameda, Contra Costa, Fresno, Kern, Marin, Monterey, Orange, Placer, Riverside, Sacramento, San Bernardino, San Diego, San Joaquin, San Luis Obispo, San Mateo, Santa Barbara, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, Solano, Sonoma, Stanislaus, Ventura, or Yolo County in the acquisition, rehabilitation, construction, and financing of courtrooms or of a courtroom building or buildings containing facilities necessary or incidental to the operation of the justice system, the board of supervisors shall establish in the county treasury a Courthouse Temporary Construction Fund into which shall be deposited the amounts collected pursuant to subdivisions (d), (e), and (f). The moneys of the Courthouse Temporary Construction Fund shall be payable only for the purposes set forth in subdivision (b) and at the time necessary therefor.

(b) In conjunction with the acquisition, rehabilitation, construction, or financing of courtrooms or of a courtroom building or buildings referred to in subdivision (a), the county may use the moneys of the Courthouse Temporary Construction Fund (1) to rehabilitate existing courtrooms or an existing courtroom building or buildings for other uses if a new courtroom or a courtroom building or buildings are acquired, constructed, or financed or (2) to acquire, rehabilitate, construct, or finance excess courtrooms or an excess courtroom building or buildings if such excess is anticipated to be needed at a later time.

(c) Any excess courtroom or excess courtroom building or buildings that are acquired, rehabilitated, constructed, or financed pursuant to subdivision (b) may be leased or rented for uses other than the operation of the justice system until such time as such excess courtrooms or excess courtroom building or buildings are needed for the operation of the justice system. Any amount received as lease or rental payments pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the Courthouse Temporary Construction Fund.

(d) Except in Marin, Monterey, Riverside, San Luis Obispo, Solano, Sonoma, Stanislaus, Ventura, and Yolo Counties, the county treasurer shall place in the fund one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) for each parking case presented to or filed in the courts of the county. Such moneys shall be taken from fines and forfeitures deposited with the treasurer prior to any division pursuant to Section 1463 of the Penal Code.

(e) Except in Marin, Monterey, Riverside, San Luis Obispo, Solano, Sonoma, Stanislaus, Ventura, and Yolo Counties, each city, district, or other issuing agency which elects to receive, deposit, accept forfeitures, and otherwise process the posting of bail for parking violations pursuant to subdivision (3) of Section 1463 of the Penal Code, shall pay one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) for each bail deposit collected on each violation which is not filed in court to the county treasurer. Such payments to the county treasurer shall be made monthly, and the treasurer shall deposit all such sums in the fund.

(f) The county treasurer shall place all additional assessment amounts collected on nonparking offenses pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 76000 in the fund.

The fund moneys shall be held by the treasurer separate from any funds subject to transfer or division pursuant to Section 1463 of the Penal Code.

Deposits to the fund in accordance with subdivisions (d), (e), and this subdivision shall continue through and including the 20th year after the initial calendar year in which the surcharge is collected.

(g) Subdivisions (a) to (f), inclusive, of this section shall become operative upon the adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors stating that the provisions of this section are necessary to the establishment of adequate courtroom facilities in the county setting forth the surcharge or surcharges, and the manner in which such surcharge or surcharges shall be collected, and instructing the county clerk to transmit, on the next business day following the adoption of the resolution, a copy of the resolution to the clerk of the municipal court.

(h) Alameda County may collect those funds only so long as the county maintains the Berkeley-Albany Municipal Court. In the event that the Berkeley-Albany Municipal Court is closed, Alameda County may not collect funds pursuant to this section.

SEC. 9. Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 77000) of Title 8 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 77000) is added to Title 8 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 13. STATE FUNDING OF TRIAL COURTS

Article 1. General Provisions

77000. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act.

77001. As used in this chapter, "block grant" means the amount of state funds to be provided to a participating county for the support of the operation of the trial courts, as determined by the product of the rate of reimbursement under Section 77200 multiplied by the number of reimbursable positions.

77002. As used in this chapter, "board" means the board of supervisors of a county.

77003. As used in this chapter, "court operations" means the county share of superior and municipal court judges' salaries, benefits, and public agency retirement contributions, and the salary, benefits, and public agency retirement contributions for justice court judges, subordinate judicial officers, other court staff including all municipal court staff positions specifically prescribed by statute, those deputy marshals, constables, and sheriffs as the court deems necessary for court operations, court-appointed counsel in juvenile court dependency proceedings, services and supplies relating to court operations, collective bargaining under the

Meyers-Milias-Brown Act with respect to court employees specified in Section 3501.5, and actual indirect costs, not to exceed 18 percent of the block grant, for county general services attributable to court operations, but specifically excluding, but not limited to, law library operations conducted by a trust pursuant to statute; courthouse construction; district attorney services; probation services; indigent criminal defense; grand jury expenses and operations; and pretrial release services. However, in a county with a population of 350,000 or less as determined by the Department of Finance, to the extent that the block grant for a given fiscal year exceeds the 1987–88 funding level for the trial courts in that county, as adjusted by the current consumer price index, "court operations" includes probation services, indigent criminal defense, and pretrial release services.

77004. As used in this chapter, "option county" means a county which has adopted the provisions of this chapter for the current fiscal year.

77005. As used in this chapter, "state-mandated local program" means any and all reimbursements owed or owing by operation of either Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution, or Section 17561 of the Government Code, or both.

77006. As used in this chapter, "subordinate judicial officer" means a court commissioner or referee authorized by statute.

77007. As used in this chapter, "trial court" means a superior court, municipal court, or justice court.

77008. As used in this chapter, "filing fees" means any and all fees and charges, liberally construed, collected or collectible for filing, processing, including service of process, copying, endorsing, or for any other service related to court operations as defined in Section 77003. However, with respect to a county with a population of 350,000 or less as determined by the Department of Finance, "filing fees" do not include any fees collected for probation services, indigent criminal defense, or pretrial release services.

77010. As used in this chapter, "forfeiture" means all money forfeited by a person charged or cited for a violation of law, to the extent it would otherwise accrue to the benefit of a county, including bail, any penalty assessments or surcharges, whether collected by a court or agency of a county and regardless of the stage of the process after citation at which it is collected.

77011. As used in this chapter, "penalty assessment" means any amount charged as a proportion of any fine or forfeiture and collected in addition thereto, to the extent it would otherwise accrue to the benefit of a county.

77012. As used in this chapter, "county" includes a city and county.

77013. As used in this chapter, "Controller" means the State Controller.

Article 2. Legislative Findings

77100. The Legislature finds and declares that:

(a) The trial of civil and criminal actions is an integral and necessary function of the judicial branch of state government under Article VI of the California Constitution.

(b) All citizens of this state should enjoy equal and ready access to the trial courts.

(c) Local funding of trial courts may create disparities in the availability of the courts for the resolution of disputes and the dispensation of justice.

(d) The method of funding trial courts should not create financial barriers to the fair and proper resolution of civil and criminal actions.

(e) Many people defend their personal and property rights in the courts, and seek redress through the judicial system only when compelled by sheer necessity of circumstance.

(f) This chapter is enacted to promote the general welfare and to protect the public interest in a viable and accessible judicial system.

77101. The Legislature further finds and declares that the expenditure of the state funds under the provisions of this chapter is in the public interest and necessary to the accomplishment of the purposes set forth above.

Article 3. State Finance Provisions

77200. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c) with respect to newly-created judgeships, the Controller shall transmit to each option county quarterly payments on the block grant owing to that county based upon the number of judges, court commissioners, and referees in the county, as determined pursuant to Section 77202, multiplied each quarter by the sum of fifty-three thousand dollars ($53,000), as adjusted pursuant to Section 77201.

(b) With respect to judgeships authorized by Chapter 1211 of the Statutes of 1987, for any new judgeship in excess of 10 new judgeships for a particular option county, if the county's average quarterly appropriation for court operations for the 1987–88 fiscal year, as determined by the Controller, divided by the number of judges, referees, and court commissioners determined pursuant to Section 77202 for that year (the base year quarterly cost per judge), exceeds the applicable sum specified in subdivision (a) as adjusted pursuant to Section 77201 (the base year quarterly block grant), instead of the quarterly multiplier determined pursuant to subdivision (a), the quarterly multiplier for each such new judgeship shall be:

(1) For the first four quarters following the creation of that judgeship, the base year quarterly cost per judge.

(2) For the second four quarters thereafter, the applicable sum specified in subdivision (a) as adjusted pursuant to Section 77201 (the standard current quarterly block grant), plus 75 percent of the difference between the base year quarterly cost per judge and the base year quarterly block grant.

(3) For the third four quarters thereafter, the standard current quarterly block grant, plus 50 percent of the difference between the base year quarterly cost per judge and the base year quarterly block grant.

(4) For the fourth four quarters thereafter, the standard current quarterly block grant, plus 25 percent of the difference between the base year quarterly cost per judge and the base year quarterly block grant.

For purposes of this subdivision, a judgeship created upon the adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors shall be deemed to be created in the quarter in which the resolution is adopted.

(c) With respect to judgeships authorized by statutes which take effect on or after January 1, 1990, if the county's average quarterly appropriation for court operations for the fiscal year preceding the effective date of that statute, as determined by the Controller, reduced by the average quarterly amount of funds, if any, received during that fiscal year pursuant to Section 77207, divided by the number of judges, referees, and court commissioners determined pursuant to Section 77202 for that year (the base year quarterly cost per judge), exceeds the quarterly multiplier for the fiscal year in which the statute takes effect (the comparison year quarterly block grant), instead of the quarterly multiplier determined pursuant to subdivision (a), the quarterly multiplier for each such new judgeship shall be:

(1) For the first fiscal year following the effective date of the statute authorizing that judgeship, the base year quarterly cost per judge.

(2) For the second fiscal year thereafter, the applicable sum specified in subdivision (a) for each quarter of the current fiscal year as adjusted pursuant to Section 77201 (the standard current quarterly block grant), plus 75 percent of the difference between the base year quarterly cost per judge and the comparison year quarterly block grant.

(3) For the third fiscal year thereafter, the standard current quarterly block grant, plus 50 percent of the difference between the base year quarterly cost per judge and the comparison year quarterly block grant.

(4) For the fourth fiscal year thereafter, the standard current quarterly block grant, plus 25 percent of the difference between between the base year quarterly cost per judge and the comparison year quarterly block grant.

(c) Quarterly payments shall be transmitted by the Controller on or before the 15th day of that quarter, except that payments for the quarter beginning January 1, 1989, shall be made no later than February 15, 1989.

77201. The sum set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 77200 shall be adjusted each fiscal year by a percentage equal to the average percentage salary increase for the previous fiscal year for California state employees, as determined pursuant to Section 68203, beginning with an adjustment for the 1989–90 fiscal year based on the 1988–89 state employees' average percentage salary increase.

77202. The number of judges, court commissioners, and referees for the purpose of calculating the block grant for a county shall be as follows:

(a) The number of superior and municipal court judges for purposes of calculating the block grant shall be those authorized by Section 4 of Article VI of the California Constitution and those authorized by statute. For purposes of this chapter, a judgeship created upon the adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors shall be deemed to be "authorized by statute" beginning with the fiscal year next following the adoption of that resolution.

(b) The number of justice court judges for purposes of calculating the block grant shall be the number of positions in effect on January 1, 1988, as revised thereafter by statute. However, the block grant for a part-time justice court judgeship shall be prorated according to the percentage of a full-time work week, as determined pursuant to Section 68202.5.

(c) The number of subordinate judicial officers for purposes of calculating the block grant shall be the number of full-time equivalent court commissioners and referees authorized by statute, funded, filled, and reported to the Judicial Council on or before January 1, 1987, plus any such positions thereafter created on or before September 27, 1987, plus any such positions specifically authorized by statute enacted after January 1, 1988, funded, filled, and reported to the Judicial Council.

77203. Reimbursement to an option county pursuant to this chapter shall be in lieu of any sixty thousand dollar ($60,000) block amount traditionally provided by the Legislature for superior court judgeships established since January 1, 1973, for which such grants would otherwise be provided, payment for any prior or current program for which reimbursement of state-mandated local programs for the trial courts is claimed, and payment as provided in Section 77203.5. However, this section shall not apply to a proportional, thirty thousand dollar ($30,000) block amount provided by the Legislature for the first half of the 1988–89 fiscal year.

77203.5. (a) The initial decision by a county to opt into the system pursuant to Section 77300 shall constitute a waiver of all claims for reimbursement for state-mandated local programs not theretofore approved by the State Board of Control, the Commission on State Mandates, or the courts to the extent the Governor, in his discretion, determines that waiver to be appropriate; provided, that a decision by a county to opt into the system pursuant to Section 77300 beginning with the second half of the 1988–89 fiscal year shall not constitute a waiver of a claim for reimbursement based on a statute chaptered on or before the date the act which added this chapter is chaptered, which is filed in acceptable form on or before the date the act which added this chapter is chaptered. A county may petition the Governor to exempt any such claim from this waiver requirement; and the Governor, in his discretion, may grant the exemption in whole or in part. The waiver shall not apply to or otherwise affect any claims accruing after initial notification. Renewal, renegotiation, or subsequent notification to continue in the program shall not constitute a waiver.

(b) The initial decision by a county to opt into the system pursuant to Section 77300 shall constitute a waiver of any claim, cause of action, or action whenever filed, with respect to the Trial Court Funding Act of 1985, Chapter 1607 of the Statutes of 1985, or Chapter 1211 of the Statutes of 1987.

77204. Beginning with the 1989–90 fiscal year, an option county shall: (a) appropriate and authorize for expenditure each fiscal year for court operations an amount not less than the amount appropriated for court operations for the first full fiscal year in which the county is an option county, as adjusted each fiscal year by the percentage determined pursuant to Section 77201 for adjustment of the block grant; (b) provide the trial courts with at least the same proportionate level of indirect services as was provided in the 1986–87 fiscal year; (c) fulfill its shared financial and other obligations pursuant to Section 68073 of the Government Code; and (d) provide for judicial arbitration and court mediation and conciliation services at a level of service at least proportionate to the number of cases filed subject to such programs in the 1986–87 fiscal year.

77205. (a) An option county shall receive block grant disbursement from the state quarterly.

(b) The Controller shall adopt appropriate regulations for recordkeeping, accounting, and reporting by an option county in order to determine all county revenues, including filing fees, fines, and forfeitures, and all expenditures relating to court operations.

(c) The county shall submit to the Controller for each full fiscal year that the option county participates in the program, in the form and manner prescribed by the Controller, a report of all revenues, including filing fees, fines, and forfeitures, and all expenditures relating to court operations, for the prior 12-month period ending June 30. The report shall be submitted by each option county to the Controller on or before October 1 of the fiscal year following the reporting year.

The Controller shall compile and submit to the Legislature reports of the financial transactions of each option county relating to court operations.

Following the October 1 reporting deadline for an option county, the Controller shall not make any quarterly payment to that county until the report is submitted.

(d) Regulations, rules, and reporting requirements adopted pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be exempt from review and approval or other processing by the Office of Administrative Law as provided for in Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3.

(e) The Controller shall perform and publish financial and compliance audits of the reports submitted by option counties under this chapter for the first full fiscal year for each county opting under this chapter. The Controller shall report the results of these audits to the Legislature.

77205.5. Except as to matters covered by Section 77205, the Judicial Council shall adopt pertinent rules to further the implementation of this chapter.

The Judicial Council shall certify to the Controller at least 30 days before the beginning of each quarter the salaries of justice court judges in option counties, and the number of reimbursable positions by category as provided in Section 77202 in each county for purposes of calculating the block grant as provided in Section 77200.

77206. A decision by an option county to opt into the system constitutes an agreement by the county that the appropriations limit of the state shall be increased and the appropriations limit of the county shall be decreased, by the amount specified below during the period of participation, to reflect the transfer to the state of financial responsibility for court services funded by the proceeds of taxes. The change in the appropriations limits shall be determined by the Department of Finance for the county's initial year of participation. The amount of the transfer shall be equal to the net amount of increased state funding, considering the increased funding for block grants and judges' salaries offset by reduced funding for trial court mandates and superior court sixty thousand dollar ($60,000) block grants. For counties whose initial year of participation is the 1988–89 fiscal year, the Department of Finance shall determine the additional amount of appropriations limit to be transferred from the counties to the state in the 1989–90 fiscal year to reflect full-year program funding. If the option county ceases to participate, the appropriations limits of the county and state shall revert to the amounts that would have been applicable if no adjustment had been made under this section.

77207. (a) There is in the State Treasury the Trial Court Improvement Fund.

(b) The sum of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) shall be appropriated annually in the Budget Act to the Trial Court Improvement Fund for purposes of this section. Of that sum, any funds unencumbered at the end of that fiscal year shall revert to the Court Funding Account in the General Fund.

(c) Funds appropriated to the Trial Court Improvement Fund shall be disbursed to option counties through grants administered by the Judicial Council to improve court management and efficiency, case processing, and speedy trials as provided in subdivision (d).

(d) These funds shall be allocated or reallocated by order of the Judicial Council to trial courts for equipment, personnel, education, demonstration projects, research, programs, and facilities, to improve trial court operations. However, any allocation or reallocation by the Judicial Council shall be reported to the Director of Finance. Not more than 50 percent of the annual Trial Court Improvement Fund allocation may be used for court facilities construction.

Allocations for court facilities construction shall be based upon use of trial court improvement funds in an amount not to exceed 70 percent, and a local contribution not less than 30 percent, of the total cost of the project.

(e) Moneys in the Trial Court Improvement Fund shall be disbursed to option counties for allocation to trial courts beginning January 1, 1989, pursuant to procedures adopted by the Judicial Council.

(f) The Judicial Council shall present an annual report to the Legislature on the use of the Trial Court Improvement Fund. The report shall include appropriate recommendations.

77208. The board of supervisors of an option county may, at county cost, provide municipal court judges serving in any municipal court in the county on or after October 1, 1987, with retiree health benefits substantially equal to the retiree health benefits provided to superior court judges.

Article 4. County Option Procedure

77300. (a) An option county shall notify the state of its decision to opt into the system, as follows:

(1) For the second half of the 1988–89 fiscal year, on or before January 15, 1989.

(2) For the 1989–90 fiscal year, on or before March 1, 1989.

(3) For any fiscal year thereafter, on or before November 15 of the preceding fiscal year.

(b) However, a county which has reached its constitutional spending limit pursuant to Article XIII B of the California Constitution may notify the state of its decision to opt into the system after a successful override election allowing the county to utilize state funding for local trial courts, to be effective commencing with the next quarter following notification.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the state and an option county, by mutual agreement between the Director of Finance and the parties signing the option resolution, from entering into a two-year option term.

By accepting state funding of trial courts, the county agrees to perform all duties and provide services required by this chapter and all other provisions of law.

77301. A county shall notify the state of its decision to opt into the system by transmitting to the Secretary of State and the Controller a resolution, agreeing without qualification or condition to be bound by the provisions of this chapter in consideration for state funding of trial courts in that county.

The resolution shall be signed by the chairperson of the board of supervisors, the presiding judge of the superior court, and the presiding judge of the municipal court district in which the county seat is located, if there is a municipal court, or if there is no such municipal court district, the judge of the justice court district in which the county seat is located, and shall certify that a majority of each of the board of supervisors, the judges of the superior court, and the judges of the municipal and justice courts in the county requests state funding. However, for fiscal year 1988–89, in a county having only one superior court judge, no municipal court judge, and only one justice court judge who serves less than halftime, as determined by the Judicial Council, only the superior court judge may so sign and certify for the judges of the county.

The option notification for the second half of the 1988–89 fiscal year shall be deemed effective on January 1, 1989. In subsequent years, the option notification shall become effective for the full fiscal year on the July 1 following notification, provided that sufficient moneys have been appropriated in the Budget Act for that fiscal year to adequately fund the program.

Article 5. Nonseverability

77400. If any portion of this chapter is declared to be unconstitutional or void, the entire chapter shall become inoperative.

SEC. 10.5. Section 1797.98a of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1797.98a. Each county may establish an Emergency Medical Services Fund, upon adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors. The money in the fund shall be available for the reimbursements required by this chapter. The fund shall be administered by each county, except that a county electing to have the state administer its medically indigent services program may also elect to have its Emergency Medical Services Fund administered by the state. Costs of administering the fund shall be reimbursed by the fund, up to 10 percent of the amount of the fund. The fund shall be utilized to reimburse physicians and hospitals for patients who do not make payment for emergency medical services and for other emergency medical services purposes as determined by each county. Fifty-eight percent of the money in the fund shall be distributed to physicians for emergency services provided by all physicians, except those physicians employed by county hospitals or district hospitals, in general acute care hospitals that provide basic or comprehensive emergency services up to the time the patient is stabilized, 25 percent of the fund shall be distributed only to hospitals providing disproportionate trauma and emergency medical care services, and 17 percent of the fund shall be distributed for other emergency medical services purposes as determined by each county. The source of the money in the fund shall be the penalty assessment made for this purpose, as provided in Section 1465 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 11. Section 1463 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1463. Except as otherwise specifically provided by law:

(a) All fines and forfeitures including Vehicle Code fines and forfeitures collected upon conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail, together with moneys deposited as bail, in any municipal court or justice court, shall, as soon as practicable after the receipt thereof, be deposited with the county treasurer of the county in which the court is situated. The moneys so deposited shall be distributed as follows:

(1) Once a month there shall be transferred into the proper funds of the county an amount equal to the fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon the conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail following arrests made by officers or other persons employed by the state or by the county in which the court is situated, exclusive of fines or forfeitures or forfeitures of bail collected from any person arrested by a state officer and charged with the commission of a misdemeanor under the Vehicle Code within the limits of a city within the county.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, once a month there shall be transferred into the traffic safety fund of each city in the county an amount equal to 50 percent of all fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon the conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail from any person arrested by a state officer and charged with the commission of a misdemeanor under the Vehicle Code within that city, and an amount equal to the remaining 50 percent shall be transferred to the special road fund of the county. However, the board of supervisors of the county may, by resolution, provide that not more than 50 percent of the amount otherwise to be transferred to the special road fund of the county, be transferred into the general fund of the county; and the Board of Supervisors of Merced or Yolo County may provide, by resolution, that until July 1, 1994, up to 100 percent of the amount otherwise to be transferred to the special road fund of the county shall be transferred into the general fund of the county for the purpose of funding court operations.

Once a month there shall be transferred into the general fund of the county an amount equal to that percentage of the fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon the conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail from any person arrested by a state officer and charged with the commission of a misdemeanor under the Vehicle Code on state highways constructed as freeways whereon city police officers enforced the provisions of the Vehicle Code on April 1, 1965, within the limits of a city within the county which is set forth in the schedule appearing in paragraph (3). If this paragraph is applicable within a city, it shall apply uniformly throughout the city to all freeways regardless of the date of freeway construction or completion.

(3) Once a month there shall be transferred into the general fund of the county an amount equal to that percentage of the fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail following arrests made by officers or other persons employed by each city in the county which is set forth in the following schedule:

In any county for which a county percentage is set forth in the above schedule and which contains a city which is not listed or which is hereafter created, there shall be transferred to the county general fund the county percentage. In any county for which no county percentage is set forth, and in which a city is hereafter created, there shall be transferred to the county general fund 15 percent.

A county and a city therein may, by mutual agreement, adjust the percentages herein.

(4) Once a month there shall be transferred to each city in the county an amount equal to the total sum remaining after the transfers provided for in paragraphs (2) and (3) have been made of the fines and forfeitures collected during the preceding month upon conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail following arrests made by officers or other persons employed by that city or arrests made by state officers for misdemeanor violations of the Vehicle Code.

(b) Any money deposited with the court or with the clerk thereof which, by order of the court or for any other reason, should be returned, in whole or in part, to any person, or which is by law payable to the state or to any other public agency, shall be paid to that person or to the state or to the other public agency by warrant of the county auditor, which shall be drawn upon the requisition of the clerk of such court.

All money deposited as bail which has not been claimed within one year after the final disposition of the case in which the money was deposited, or within one year after an order made by the court for the return or delivery of the money to any person, shall be apportioned between the city and the county and paid or transferred in the manner provided above for the apportionment and payment of fines and forfeitures. This paragraph controls over any conflicting provisions of law.

(c) This section does not require any county or municipal or justice court to process a parking penalty under Article 3 (commencing with Section 40200) of Chapter 1 of Division 17 of the Vehicle Code for a city, district, or any other issuing agency prior to the filing of a complaint.

SEC. 12. Section 1465 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1465. In addition to the assessments levied by Section 1464, an additional assessment of two dollars ($2) for every ten dollars ($10) or fraction thereof, upon every fine, penalty, or forfeiture imposed and collected by the courts for criminal offenses, including all offenses involving a violation of a section of the Vehicle Code or any local ordinance adopted pursuant to the Vehicle Code, except offenses relating to parking or registration, or offenses by pedestrians or bicyclists, or where an order is made to pay a sum to the general fund of the county pursuant to clause (iii) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 258 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, may be imposed by each county upon the adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors. An assessment imposed by this section shall be collected and disbursed as provided in Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 1797.98a) of Division 2.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 13. Section 50 of Chapter 1211 of the Statutes of 1987 is amended to read:

Sec. 50. Sections 5 to 40, inclusive, of this act shall become individually operative only upon the notification to the state by the county affected by that particular section of its decision to opt into the system under the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act, as specified in Sections 77300 and 77301 of the Government Code.

SEC. 14. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 15. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

SEC. 16. The Legislature finds that the duties of the Controller pursuant to the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act will require a significant increase in the number of highly qualified and specialized deputies, and enacts Section 1 of this act to assist the Controller in this respect.

SEC. 17. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to clarify the rights of trial court personnel to collective bargaining under the Meyers-Milias-Brown Act, to ensure adequate court reporter services in Sonoma County, to clarify the number of superior court judges in San Francisco, to increase certain penalty assessments collected by the trial courts, as needed, to provide needed staffing for the Controller, and to provide needed state funding for trial courts, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 946

An act to repeal Section 2805 of the Labor Code, relating to employers.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2805 of the Labor Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 947

An act to add Section 1797.187 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1797.187 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1797.187. A peace officer as described in Section 830.1, subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 830.2, or subdivision (g) of Section

830.3 of the Penal Code, while in the service of the agency or local agency which employs him or her, shall be notified by the agency or local agency if the peace officer is exposed to a known carcinogen, as defined by the International Agency for Research on Cancer, or as defined by its director, during the investigation of any place where any controlled substance, as defined in Section 11007 is suspected of being manufactured, stored, transferred, or sold, or any toxic waste spills, accidents, leaks, explosions, or fires.

The Commission on Peace Officers Standards and Training basic training course, and other training courses as the commission determines appropriate, shall include, on or before January 1, 1990, instruction on, but not limited to, the identification and handling of possible carcinogenic materials and the potential health hazards associated with these materials, protective equipment, and clothing available to minimize contamination, handling, and disposing of materials and measures and procedures that can be adopted to minimize exposure to possible hazardous materials.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 948

An act to amend Section 1506 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to social workers, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1506 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1506. (a) (1) Any holder of a valid license issued by the department which authorizes the licensee to engage in any foster family agency functions, may place children only in a certified family home which has been certified by that agency or in any licensed foster family home selected.

(2) Any home selected and certified for the reception and care of children placed by that licensee shall not, during the time it is certified and used only by that agency for these placements or care, be subject to the provisions of Section 1508. A certified family home may not be concurrently licensed as a foster family home or as any other licensed residential facility.

(b) (1) A foster family agency shall certify to the department that such home has met the department's licensing standards.

(2) The foster family agency shall issue a certificate of approval to the certified family home upon its determination that it has met the standards established by the department and before the placement of any child in the home.

(3) If the agency determines that the home no longer meets the standards, it shall notify the department and the local placing agency.

(c) The department shall, develop licensing regulations differentiating between foster family agencies which provide treatment of children in foster families and those which provide nontreatment services.

(d) As used in this chapter, "certified family home" means a family residence certified by a licensed foster family agency and issued a certificate of approval by that agency as meeting licensing standards, and used only by that foster family agency for placements.

(e) Education requirements for social work personnel for a foster family agency shall be a master's degree from an accredited or state approved graduate school in social work or social welfare, marriage, family, and child counseling, child psychology, child development, counseling psychology, social psychology, or equivalent education and experience, as determined by the state department.

(f) In addition to the degree specifications in subdivision (e), all of the following master's level coursework and field practice shall be required of all new hires for the position of social work personnel effective January 1, 1992:

(1) At least 100 days of field practice in a social service agency setting.

(2) At least nine units of coursework related to children and families.

(3) At least three semester units in working with minority populations.

(4) At least three semester units in child welfare.

Persons who are hired as social work personnel on or after the effective date of this subdivision, as added by the Statutes of 1988, but prior to January 1, 1992, who do not meet the masters level coursework and 100-day field practice requirement listed in this subdivision shall be required to successfully complete that coursework and field practice by December 31, 1991, in order to remain employed as social work personnel in a foster family agency. For those employees who were hired prior to the effective date of this subdivision, they shall not be required to meet the requirements of this subdivision in order to remain employed as social work personnel in a foster family agency.

(g) The State Department of Social Services shall be required to complete the process for the exception to minimum education requirements for social work personnel within 30 days of receiving the exception application of social work personnel qualifications from the foster family agency.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that adequate educational standards exist for social workers in foster and group homes, at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 949

An act to amend Section 1250.9 of, and to add Section 1250.10 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to health, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1250.9 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1250.9. (a) The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall conduct a demonstration project to evaluate the accommodation of postsurgical care patients for periods not exceeding two days, except that the attending physician may require that the stay be extended to no more than three days.

(b) The demonstration project shall operate for a period not to exceed three years, for no more than 12 project sites, one of which shall be located in Fresno County. Any of the 12 project sites may be distinct parts of health facilities, or any of those sites may be physically freestanding from health facilities. None of the project sites that are designated as distinct parts of health facilities, shall be located in the service area of any one of the six freestanding project sites. None of the project sites that are designated as distinct parts of health facilities shall have a service area that overlaps with any one or more service areas of the freestanding pilot sites. For the purposes of this section, service area shall be defined by the office.

(c) (1) The office shall establish standards for participation, commensurate with the needs of postsurgical care patients requiring temporary nursing services following outpatient surgical procedures.

(2) In preparing the standards for participation, the office may, as appropriate, consult with the department and with a technical advisory committee which may be appointed by the Director of Statewide Health Planning and Development. The committee shall have no more than eight members, all of whom shall be experts in health care, as determined by the director. One of the members of the committee shall, as determined by the director, have specific expertise in the area of pediatric surgery and recovery care.

(3) If a technical advisory committee is established by the director, members of the committee shall be reimbursed for any actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with their duties as members of the committee.

(d) Not later than six months prior to the conclusion of the demonstration project, the office shall submit an evaluation of the demonstration project to the Legislature on the effectiveness and safety of the demonstration project in providing recovery services to patients receiving outpatient surgical services. The office, as part of the evaluation, shall include recommendations regarding the establishment of a new license category or amendment of existing licensing standards.

(e) The office shall establish and administer the demonstration project in facilities with no more than 20 beds which continuously meet the standards of skilled nursing facilities licensed under subdivision (c) of Section 1250, except that the office may, as appropriate and unless a danger to patients would be created, eliminate or modify the standards. This section shall not prohibit general acute care hospitals from participating in the demonstration project. The office may waive those building standards applicable to a project site which is a distinct part of a health facility which are inappropriate, as determined by the office, to the demonstration project. Notwithstanding health facility licensing regulations found in Division 5 (commencing with Section 70001) of Title 22 of the California Adminstrative Code, a project site which is a distinct part of a health facility shall comply with all standards for participation established by the office and with all regulations adopted by the office to implement this section. A project site which is a distinct part of a health facility shall not, for the duration of the pilot project, be subject to the provisions of Division 5 (commencing with Section 70001) of Title 22 of the California Administrative Code which conflict, as determined by the office, with the demonstration project standards or regulations.

(f) The department shall issue a facility identification number to each facility selected for participation in the demonstration project.

(g) Persons who wish to establish recovery care programs shall make application to the office for inclusion in the pilot program. Applications shall be made on forms provided by the office and shall contain sufficient information determined as necessary by the office.

(h) As a condition of participation in the pilot program, each applicant shall agree to provide statistical data and patient information that the office deems necessary for effective evaluation. It is the intent of the Legislature that the office shall develop procedures to assure the confidentiality of patient information and shall only disclose patient information, including name identification, as is necessary pursuant to this section or any other law.

(i) Any authorized officer, employee, or agent of the office or the state department may, upon presentation of proper identification, enter and inspect any building or premises and any records, including patient records, of a pilot project participant at any reasonable time to review compliance with, or to prevent any violation of, this section or the regulations and standards adopted thereunder.

(j) The office may suspend or withdraw approval of any or all pilot projects with notice, but without hearing if it determines that patient safety is being jeopardized.

(k) The office may charge applicants and participants in the program a reasonable fee to cover its actual cost of administering the pilot program and the cost of any committee created under this section.

(l) The office may contract with a medical consultant or other advisers as necessary, as determined by the office. Due to the necessity to expedite the demonstration project and its extremely specialized nature, the contracts shall be exempt from the provisions of Section 10373 of the Public Contract Code, and shall be considered sole-source contracts.

(m) The office may adopt emergency regulations to implement this section in accordance with Section 11346.1 of the Government Code, except that the regulations shall be exempt from the requirements of subdivisions (e), (f), and (g) of that section. The regulations shall be deemed an emergency for the purposes of Section 11346.1.

Applications to establish any of the four project sites authorized by the amendments made to this section during the 1987–88 Regular Session of the California Legislature shall be considered by the office from among the applications submitted to it in response to its initial request for proposal process.

SEC. 2. Section 1250.10 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1250.10. (a) In addition to the 12 postsurgical care demonstration project sites authorized in Section 1250.9, the office may approve one additional freestanding demonstration project, in accordance with the requirements of Section 1250.9, in a site that is in a rural area. For the purposes of this section, "rural area" means any area of the state which is not in a metropolitan statistical area as described in the publication "State and Metropolitan Area Data Book," 1986, published by the United States Department of Commerce.

(b) In order to receive applications for this one additional rural project site, the office shall accept additional applications until October 31, 1988.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The postsurgical care demonstration project governed by this act is a limited-term project which is currently being developed by the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development. In order for the office to collect the level of fees necessary to pay for the cost of development, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 950

An act to add Section 56161 to the Government Code, relating to annexation.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 56161 is added to the Government Code, to read:

56161. In addition to the requirements of notice prescribed in this chapter or by other provisions of law, in the case of a proposed annexation to a city of affected territory consisting of 75 acres or less, that city shall mail, pursuant to Sections 56155 to 56157, inclusive, to each landowner within the affected territory, notice of the conducting authority hearing on the proposed annexation.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 951

An act to amend Section 18897.2 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to building standards.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18897.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18897.2. (a) Except as provided in Section 18930, the Director of Health Services shall adopt, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division

3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, rules and regulations establishing minimum standards for organized camps and regulating the operation of organized camps that the director determines are necessary to protect the health and safety of the campers. Organized camps shall also comply with the building standards of the jurisdiction in which the camp is located, to the extent that those standards are not contrary to, or inconsistent with, the building standards adopted by the Director of Health Services. The Director of Health Services shall adopt and submit building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 for the purposes described in this section. The State Department of Health Services shall enforce building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to organized camps and such other rules and regulations adopted by such director pursuant to the provisions of this section as such director determines are necessary to protect the health and safety of campers. In adopting building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 and in adopting such other rules and regulations pursuant to the provisions of this section, the Director of Health Services shall consider the Camp Standards of the American Camping Association.

(b) The Director of Health Services shall adopt and submit building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 and shall adopt such other rules and regulations pursuant to the provisions of this section establishing minimum standards for intermittent short-term organized camps operated by a city or a county as the director deems necessary to protect the health and safety of campers. For the purposes of this subdivision, "intermittent short-term organized camps" means a site for camping by any group of people for a period of not more than 72 consecutive hours for such group.

CHAPTER 952

An act to amend Sections 37700 and 37705 of the Education Code, relating to education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) Due to some of the most severe temperature extremes faced by any school district in the state and the unusually long daily commute distances of 130 to 150 miles for some of its pupils, the Death Valley Unified School District spends an inordinate amount of its budget on heating, cooling, and transportation costs.

Due to these costs and the lack of appropriated funds to support general education, the district is bordering on financial insolvency and extinction.

(b) The Pacific Elementary School District is currently faced with a severe financial deficit and significant pupil attendance problems, both of which are exacerbated by the need to transport its pupils to school from areas in the district that require a travel time in excess of one hour in each direction.

(c) The Needles Unified School District is similarly faced with some of the most severe temperature extremes faced by any school district in the state and some of its pupils have unusually long daily commutes to school with distances of up to 150 miles in nonair-conditioned buses. The Needles Unified School District spends an inordinate amount of its budget on cooling and transportation costs.

(d) In order for these districts to continue to provide education to widely dispersed populations, it is necessary that they be permitted to operate schools on the basis of a four-day school week.

SEC. 2. Section 37700 of the Education Code is amended to read:

37700. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Death Valley Unified School District, the Needles Unified School District, and the Pacific Elementary School District may each operate one or more schools in the district on a four-day school week during the 1988–89 school year and each year thereafter through the 1992–93 school year, so long as the district complies with the instructional time requirements specified in Section 37701 and the other requirements of this chapter.

(b) If a school district operates a four-day week pursuant to this section and the program for the school year provides less than the 180 days of instruction required under Section 46200, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall reduce the base revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for that fiscal year by the amount the school district would have received for the increase received pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 46200, as adjusted in fiscal years subsequent to the 1984–85 fiscal year. If a school district operates a four-day school week pursuant to this section and the program provides less than the minimum instructional minutes required under Section 46201, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall reduce the base revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for that fiscal year in which the reduction occurs by the amount the school district would have received for the increase in the 1987–88 fiscal year base revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 42238, as adjusted in the 1987–88 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter.

SEC. 3. Section 37705 of the Education Code is amended to read:

37705. On or before November 15, 1989, and annually on or before November 15 of each year thereafter through 1993, the district shall report to the Legislature and to the State Department of Education regarding the following:

(a) The impact of the experimental program on pupil achievement.

(b) The impact of the experimental program on district operating costs.

(c) The reactions of parents, pupils, and staff to the experimental program.

SEC. 4. Due to the unique circumstances regarding the Death Valley Unified School District, Needles Unified School District, and the Pacific Elementary School District, as set forth in Section 1, the Legislature hereby finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to authorize the Pacific Elementary School District and Needles Unified School District to commence, and the Death Valley Unified School District to continue, the operation of schools on a four-day school week, as essential to respond to the critical circumstances described in Section 1 of this act, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 953

An act to amend Section 2115 of the Corporations Code, relating to corporations.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2115 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

2115. (a) A foreign corporation (other than a foreign association or foreign nonprofit corporation but including a foreign parent corporation even though it does not itself transact intrastate business) is subject to this section if the average of the property factor, the payroll factor and the sales factor (as defined in Sections 25129, 25132 and 25134 of the Revenue and Taxation Code) with respect to it is more than 50 percent during its latest full income year and if more than one-half of its outstanding voting securities are held of record by persons having addresses in this state. The property factor, payroll factor and sales factor shall be those used in computing the portion of its income allocable to this state in its franchise tax return or, with respect to corporations the allocation of whose income is governed by special formulas or which are not required to file separate or any tax returns, which would have been so used if they were governed by such three-factor formula. The determination of these factors with respect to any parent corporation shall be made on a consolidated basis, including in a unitary computation (after elimination of intercompany transactions) the property, payroll and sales of the parent and all of its subsidiaries in which it owns directly or indirectly more than 50 percent of the outstanding shares entitled to vote for the election of directors, but deducting a percentage of the property, payroll, and sales of any subsidiary equal to the percentage minority ownership, if any, in the subsidiary. For the purpose of this subdivision, any securities held to the knowledge of the issuer in the names of broker-dealers, nominees for broker-dealers, (including clearing corporations) or banks, associations, or other entities holding securities in a nominee name or otherwise on behalf of a beneficial owner (collectively "Nominee Holders"), shall not be considered outstanding. However, if the foreign corporation requests all Nominee Holders to certify, with respect to all beneficial owners for whom securities are held, the number of shares held for those beneficial owners having addresses (as shown on the records of the Nominee Holder) in this state and outside of this state, then all shares so certified shall be considered outstanding and held of record by persons having addresses either in this state or outside of this state as so certified, provided that the certification so provided shall be retained with the record of shareholders and made available for inspection and copying in the same manner as is provided in Section 1600 with respect to that record. A current list of beneficial owners of a foreign corporation's securities provided to the corporation by one or more Nominee Holders or their agent pursuant to the requirements of Rule 14b-1(c) or 14b-2(e) as adopted on December 9, 1986, promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 shall constitute an acceptable certification with respect to beneficial owners for the purposes of this subdivision.

(b) The following chapters and sections of this division shall apply to a foreign corporation subject to this section (to the exclusion of the law of the jurisdiction in which it is incorporated):

Chapter 1 (general provisions and definitions), to the extent applicable to the following provisions;

Section 301 (annual election of directors);

Section 303 (removal of directors without cause);

Section 304 (removal of directors by court proceedings);

Section 305, subdivision (c) (filing of director vacancies where less than a majority in office elected by shareholders);

Section 309 (directors' standard of care);

Section 316 (excluding paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (3) of subdivision (f)) (liability of directors for unlawful distributions);

Section 317 (indemnification of directors, officers and others);

Sections 500 to 505, inclusive (limitations on corporate distributions in cash or property);

Section 506 (liability of shareholder who receives unlawful distribution);

Section 600, subdivisions (b) and (c) (requirement for annual shareholders' meeting and remedy if same not timely held);

Section 708, subdivisions (a), (b) and (c) (shareholder's right to cumulate votes at any election of directors);

Section 1001, subdivision (d) (limitations on sale of assets);

Section 1101 (provisions following subdivision (e)) (limitations on mergers);

Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 1200) (reorganizations);

Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 1300) (dissenters' rights);

Sections 1500 and 1501 (records and reports);

Section 1508 (action by Attorney General);

Chapter 16 (commencing with Section 1600) (rights of inspection).

(c) Subdivision (a) shall become applicable to any foreign corporation only upon the first day of the first income year of the corporation commencing on or after the 30th day after the filing by it of the report pursuant to Section 2108 showing that the tests referred to in subdivision (a) have been met or on or after the entry of a final order by a court of competent jurisdiction declaring that such tests have been met.

(d) Subdivision (a) shall cease to be applicable at the end of any income year during which a report pursuant to Section 2108 shall have been filed showing that at least one of the tests referred to in subdivision (a) is not met or a final order shall have been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction declaring that one of such tests is not met, provided that such filing or order shall be ineffective if a contrary report or order shall be made or entered before the end of such income year.

(e) This section does not apply to any corporation (1) with outstanding securities listed on the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange, or (2) with outstanding securities designated as qualified for trading as a national market security on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automatic Quotation System (or any successor national market system) if such corporation has at least 800 holders of its equity securities as of the record date of its most recent annual meeting of shareholders, or (3) if all of its voting shares (other than directors' qualifying shares) are owned directly or indirectly by a corporation or corporations not subject to this section. For purposes of determining the number of holders of a corporation's equity securities under clause (2) of this subdivision, there shall be included, in addition to the number of recordholders reflected on the corporation's stock records, the number of holders of the equity securities held in the name of any Nominee Holder which furnishes the corporation with a certification pursuant to subdivision (a) provided that the corporation retains the certification with the record of shareholders and makes it available for inspection and copying in the same manner as is provided in Section 1600 with respect to that record.

CHAPTER 954

An act to amend Sections 3705.5, 3709, 3711, 4009.5, 4010, and 4011 of the Elections Code, relating to initiatives.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3705.5 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

3705.5. (a) During the circulation of the petition or before taking either action described in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 3709, or Section 3711, the board of supervisors may refer the proposed initiative measure to any county agency or agencies for a report on any or all of the following:

(1) Its fiscal impact.

(2) Its effect on the internal consistency of the county's general and specific plans including the housing element, the consistency between planning and zoning, the limitations on county actions under Section 65008 of the Government Code, and Chapters 4.2 (commencing with Section 65913) and 4.3 (commencing with Section 65915) of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code.

(3) Any other matters the board of supervisors request to be in the report.

(b) The report shall be presented to the board of supervisors within the time prescribed by the board of supervisors but no later than 30 days after the clerk certifies to the board of supervisors the sufficiency of the petition.

SEC. 2. Section 3709 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

3709. If the initiative petition is signed by voters not less in number than 20 percent of the entire vote cast within the county for all candidates for Governor at the last gubernatorial election preceding the publication of the notice of intention to circulate an initiative petition, and contains a request that the ordinance be submitted immediately to a vote of the people at a special election, the board of supervisors shall either:

(a) Pass the ordinance without alteration either at the regular meeting at which it is presented or within 10 days after it is presented.

(b) Immediately call a special election at which the ordinance, without alteration, shall be submitted to a vote of the voters of the county.

(c) Order a report pursuant to Section 3705.5 at the regular meeting at which the ordinance is presented. When the report is presented to the board of supervisors, it shall either adopt the ordinance within 10 days or order an election pursuant to subdivision (b).

SEC. 3. Section 3711 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

3711. If the initiative petition is signed by voters not less in number than 10 percent of the entire vote cast in the county for all candidates for Governor at the last gubernatorial election preceding the publication of the notice of intention to circulate an initiative petition, and the ordinance petitioned for is not required to be, or for any reason is not, submitted to the voters at a special election, and is not passed without change by the board of supervisors, the ordinance, without alteration, shall be submitted by the board to the voters at the next statewide election occurring not less than 88 days after the date of the order, or after the board of supervisors is presented with a report prepared pursuant to Section 3705.5.

SEC. 4. Section 4009.5 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

4009.5. (a) During the circulation of the petition, or before taking either action described in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 4010, or Section 4011, the legislative body may refer the proposed initiative measure to any city agency or agencies for a report on any or all of the following:

(1) Its fiscal impact.

(2) Its effect on the internal consistency of the city's general and specific plans including the housing element, the consistency between planning and zoning, the limitations on city actions under Section 65008 of the Government Code, Chapters 4.2 (commencing with Section 65913) and 4.3 (commencing with Section 65915) of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code.

(3) Any other matters the council requests to be in the report.

(b) The report shall be presented to the legislative body within the time prescribed by the legislative body but no later than 30 days after the clerk certifies to the legislative body the sufficiency of the petition.

SEC. 5. Section 4010 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

4010. If the initiative petition is signed by not less than 15 percent of the voters of the city according to the last report of registration by the county clerk to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 607 effective at the time the notice specified in Section 4002 was published, or in a city with 1,000 or less registered voters the signatures of 25 percent of the voters or 100 voters of the city, whichever is the lesser number, and contains a request that the ordinance be submitted immediately to a vote of the people at a special election, the legislative body shall either:

(a) Introduce the ordinance without alteration at the regular meeting at which it is presented and adopt the ordinance within 10 days after it is presented; or

(b) Immediately order a special election, to be held not less than 88 nor more than 103 days after the date of the order, at which the ordinance, without alteration, shall be submitted to a vote of the voters of the city.

(c) Order a report pursuant to Section 4009.5 at the regular meeting at which the ordinance is presented. When the report is presented to the legislative body, the legislative body shall either adopt the ordinance within 10 days or order an election pursuant to subdivision (b).

SEC. 6. Section 4011 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

4011. If the initiative petition is signed by not less than 10 percent of the voters of the city according to the last report of registration by the county clerk to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 607 effective at the time the notice specified in Section 4002 was published, or in a city with 1,000 or less registered voters by the signatures of 25 percent of the voters or 100 voters of the city, whichever is the lesser number, and the ordinance petitioned for is not required to be, or for any reason is not, submitted to the voters at a special election, and is not passed without change by the legislative body, then the ordinance, without alteration, shall be submitted by the legislative body to the voters at the next regular municipal election occurring not less than 88 days after the order of the legislative body, or after the legislative body is presented with a report prepared pursuant to Section 4009.5.

CHAPTER 955

An act to amend Sections 14998.1, 14998.2, and 15335.22 of, to add Sections 14999.20, 14999.21, and 14999.35 to, and to repeal Sections 14998.15 and 14998.17 of, the Government Code, relating to film permits.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14998.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14998.1. The Legislature finds that motion picture production in California provides unique and significant contributions to the economy of California and to the cultural enrichment of its citizens, as well as providing a unique form of entertainment for the state, country, and the world at large. The Legislature finds that expenditures for hotels, catered food, leases of equipment and property, transportation, and wages and salaries paid to individuals in California as a result of motion picture production benefit the California economy directly and indirectly.

However, the Legislature finds that the significant benefits provided to California by motion picture production are in jeopardy as a result of the concerted efforts of other states and countries to lure this production away from California.

Therefore, the Legislature finds a need for concerted efforts by California state and local governments to provide an environment supportive of, and conducive to, the undertakings of the motion picture industry in this state. A key element of this effort is to make California as unifom as possible in the local regulation and permitting of the film industry; as close to a "one-stop permitting" approach as possible.

SEC. 2. Section 14998.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14998.2. (a) There is in the Department of Commerce, the California Film Commission consisting of 26 members. The Governor shall appoint 13 members, the Senate Rules Committee shall appoint four members, the Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint four members, and five members shall be ex officio. The members of the commission appointed by the Governor may include representatives of state and local government, motion picture development companies, employee and professional organizations composed of persons employed in the motion picture industry, and other appropriate members of this or related industries.

All members of the commission, except legislators who are appointed either by the Senate Rules Committee or by the Speaker of the Assembly, shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority for a term of two years from the effective date of the appointment.

(b) One of the members appointed by the Senate Rules Committee shall, and another one may, be a Senator and one of the members appointed by the Speaker shall, and another one may, be a Member of the Assembly. Such persons shall be appointed for terms of four years.

Of the legislators appointed to the commission, no more than three legislators from the same political party may be appointed to or serve on the commission at the same time.

(c) Any legislator appointed shall serve as a voting member of the commission, and shall meet with, and participate in the activities of, the commission to the extent that participation is not incompatible with his or her position as a Member of the Legislature, but shall only serve in that capacity while concurrently serving as a Member of the Legislature. Whenever a legislator vacates an office, the appointing power shall appoint another person for a new full term.

(d) Six of the 13 members appointed by the Governor shall be as follows:

(1) One shall be a person who is a member or employee of a union or guild of motion picture artists.

(2) One shall be a person who is a member or employee of a union or guild representing motion picture craftsmen, technicians, or photographers.

(3) Two shall be from major motion picture studios.

(4) One shall be a member of the city council or a member of the county board of supervisors of a city or a county with a population of at least two million people.

(5) One shall be a member of the city council or a member of the county board of supervisors of a city or a county with a population of less than two million people.

(e) The Director of Transportation shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

(f) The Director of Parks and Recreation shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

(g) The Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

(h) The State Fire Marshal shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

(i) The director of the commission shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

SEC. 3. Section 14998.15 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC 4. Section 14998.17 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 14999.20 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14999.20. The California Film Commission shall, with input from the motion picture industry and local and state government, develop and adopt a 'model process for granting film permits." The process shall contain but not be limited to the following provisions:

(a) A designated person to deal with industry whose responsibilities shall include but not be limited to:

(1) The attraction of motion picture production to the jurisdiction.

(2) Assistance in expediting to the greatest extent possible the issuances of all use permits necessary for motion picture production.

(b) Maximum time requirements to grant permits.

(c) Permits shall be valid for the period of time necessary to film a specific shot or sequence of shots. Minor additions, corrections or alterations to a permit shall be made available by way of application for a "rider." Significant changes to the original permit shall require a new permit application.

(d) Coordinating of multijurisdictional filming.

(e) A suggested fee schedule for motion picture permits which is reasonably related to the cost of providing services occasioned by motion picture production, including administrative, police, fire, sanitation, and other necessary services.

(f) A uniform permit application-permit form.

If the California Film Commission has not adopted a model process for granting film permits by July 1, 1989, the existing "model film ordinance" and the uniform film permit application form drafted by the California Film Commission staff shall be used for the purposes of this chapter until the time as a model process is adopted.

SEC. 6. Section 14999.21 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14999.21. (a) The California Film Commission shall send to each city and county a copy of the model process for granting film permits for local consideration. Not later than December 31, 1989, each jurisdiction shall adopt this process or inform the California Film Commission in writing as to why they cannot or need not adopt this model process.

(b) At least 30 days prior to the adoption of or an amendment to the written filming policy of a local government, the local government shall submit a draft of the ordinance or amendment to the California Film Commission director. The California Film Commission shall review drafts submitted to it and report its findings to the local government within five working days of receipt of the draft. The local legislative body shall consider the California Film Commission's findings prior to final adoption of the ordinance or amendment unless the commission's findings are not available within the above prescribed time limits. Any and all findings made by the commission pursuant to this section shall be advisory to local government.

(c) Each local government shall provide the commission with a copy of its adopted filming ordinance or amendments.

SEC. 7. Section 14999.35 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14999.35. No fee which is greater than the actual cost incurred shall be charged by any county, city, city and county, or special district for film production which occurs entirely on private property.

SEC. 8. Section 15335.22 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15335.22. (a) (1) The California Film Commission shall develop and implement a Cooperative Motion Picture Marketing Plan. The plan shall increase the marketing efforts of the commission, and offer state resources to local film commissions and local government liaisons to the film industry for the purpose of marketing their locales to the motion picture industry.

(2) In addition to paragraph (1), the resources offered under the plan for marketing shall be used to recruit local government participation in, and development of, local film commissions.

(3) For purposes of this section, resources offered to local film commissions and local government liaisons to the motion picture industry shall include all of the following:

(A) Grants for partial or full funding of the cost to develop or participate in workshops, trade shows, seminars, or meetings that assist local governments to promote and market the use of their locales by the motion picture industry. Eligible meetings shall also include those called or approved by the director to further the purposes of the Cooperative Motion Picture Marketing Plan.

(B) The services of a professional photographer, including material and expenses, to take still photographs of motion picture locations for inclusion in the location resource library established pursuant to Section 15335.21. Whenever possible, the photographer shall be hired from the local area participating in the Cooperative Motion Picture Marketing Plan.

(C) Appropriate promotional and informational materials for the purpose of mailing or distributing to the motion picture industry. The materials shall include, but not be limited to, brochures, print ads, and direct marketing materials which state the benefits and advantages of producing motion pictures within the state or the locales participating in the Cooperative Motion Picture Marketing Plan.

(b) Any resource requested under the provisions of the Cooperative Motion Picture Marketing Plan not specified in this section shall be subject to the approval of the California Film Commission.

(c) The California Film Commission, pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 15335.21, shall expand and upgrade the location resource library through the use of a librarian, a computerized catalog system, and a professional photographer.

(d) As a condition of eligibility for the use of resources pursuant to this section, a local government shall demonstrate substantial compliance with the model process for granting film permits described in Section 14499.20.

(e) The commission shall adopt additional guidelines as needed for the implementation of the plan.

(f) The purpose of the Cooperative Motion Picture Marketing Plan is in no way to discourage, limit, or impede the participation of local governments in the Film Liaisons in California, Statewide, commonly referred to as F.L.I.C.S.

(g) As used in this section, "motion picture" shall include, but not be limited to, production in film, video, television, commercial, and still photography.

SEC. 9. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 956

An act to add Section 14132.34 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mothers' milk banks, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Mothers' Milk Act.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that mothers' milk banks, as defined in Section 14132.34 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall be providers subject to reimbursement under the Medi-Cal program.

SEC. 3. Section 14132.34 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14132.34. (a) Human milk and human milk derivatives supplied by a mothers' milk bank for human consumption are a covered service under this chapter.

(b) For purposes of this section, "mothers' milk bank" means any person, firm, or corporation which engages in the not-for-profit procurement, processing, storage, distribution, or use of human milk, contributed by volunteer donors, in compliance with standards prescribed by the Human Milk Banking Association of North America.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to make mothers' milk available under the Medi-Cal program as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 957

An act relating to drought assistance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(a) 1987 and 1988 have been successive critically dry years and water shortages are now occurring in some areas of the state.

(b) If 1989 is also dry, there will be widespread areas of water shortage. These shortages, especially shortages affecting urban areas, agricultural areas with permanent crops, and fisheries would have a serious impact on California's economy.

(c) The Department of Water Resources is taking action to assist areas of water shortage this year. The department has established a statewide Drought Center as a clearinghouse of the technical and financial assistance information which is available to address and lessen drought impacts and has formed an Interagency Drought Task Force to identify and coordinate existing drought assistance measures. The department is now beginning to concentrate on actions that may be needed in 1989 should the current drought continue.

SEC. 2. The Legislature directs the Department of Water Resources to identify the areas of the state in which a third year of drought could impose severe health, economic, and environmental hardship. The department, in coordination with local representatives and other state and federal agencies, including the Department of Fish and Game, shall develop options for addressing the water supply shortages in the identified areas of potential need, and for protection of fish and wildlife. In its consideration of water supply options, the department shall consider, among other things, water conservation, expanded use of local groundwater supplies, emergency and temporary water quality protection facilities such as temporary barriers in the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta, water transfers of developed supplies, and temporary interconnections that facilitate exchanges between surface water distribution systems. The department shall also identify the need for legislative or regulatory actions that may be needed to implement the emergency water supply options in a timely manner. The department should consider, in consultation with appropriate local, state, and federal agencies, regulatory or legislative actions including, but not limited to, reevaluating existing drinking water standards where those standards hamper implementation of emergency water supply options; accelerating regulatory processes; implementation of the California Environmental Quality Act; the processing of applications by existing water rights permit holders or licensees for temporary changes; and establishing an emergency financial assistance program that could include loans, loan guarantees, or grants to assist drought-stricken areas. The financial assistance could be used to finance the construction of temporary distribution system interconnections, the drilling of new wells, or other temporary drought related programs. The department shall report to the Legislature on its findings by January 21, 1989.

SEC. 3. The Legislature directs the Department of Water Resources to assist local representatives in the areas identified as potentially having severe shortages next year in implementing the emergency water supply options developed pursuant to Section 2 which are currently authorized. The department shall provide assistance through the department's Drought Center to any water user needing help implementing an emergency drought related action. The department shall provide technical and financial expertise and shall assist water users through the state's regulatory system so necessary drought emergency actions are not unreasonably slowed by that system. All state agencies shall cooperate fully with the department in this effort.

SEC. 4. This act shall become inoperative if the May 1, 1989, forecast in the Department of Water Resources' Bulletin 120 indicates that the 1988–89 hydrologic year in the Sacramento River Basin is an above normal or wet year or upon a subsequent finding by the Director of Water Resources that the drought is over.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide effective drought relief at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 958

An act to amend Sections 66561, 66562, 66564, 66566, 66581, 66581.5, 66585, 66621, 66623, 66644, 66645, and 66646 of, and to add Section 66507 to, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to lettuce.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66507 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

66507. A commission form of administration created by this chapter is designed to deal with the broad fields of advertising, promotion, and marketing research.

SEC. 2. Section 66561 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

66561. There is hereby created the California Iceberg Lettuce Commission to be thus known and designated. The commission is composed of 19 members, of which 14 are handlers as defined in Section 66532, four are members-at-large of which two may be grower-handlers from Arizona who otherwise qualify pursuant to Section 66532, and one is a person who is neither a producer nor a handler and who is appointed specifically to represent the public generally.

SEC. 3. Section 66562 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

66562. The commission shall be and is hereby declared and created a corporate body. It shall have the power to sue and be sued, to contract and be contracted with, and to have and possess all of the powers of a corporation. It shall adopt a corporate seal. Copies of its proceedings, records, and acts, when certified by the secretary, shall be admissible in evidence in all courts of the state, and shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of all statements therein.

SEC. 4. Section 66564 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

66564. Except as provided in Section 66561, each member of the commission is required to be a citizen and a resident of this state. Additionally:

(a) Each handler member is required to be currently engaged in the handling of iceberg lettuce. Not more than two handler members shall be employed by, or have a proprietary interest in, the same corporation, firm, partnership, association, or business organization. However, not more than one handler member in any one district shall be so employed or have such a proprietary interest.

(b) Each member-at-large is required to be a person, whether or not engaged in the production or marketing of iceberg lettuce, whose qualifications are appropriate to the needs of the commission. The person may be a handler who is not appointed as a handler member but who nevertheless is qualified under subdivision (a) to serve as a handler member.

(c) The person appointed to represent the public generally is required to be any person who is neither a producer nor a handler, whose qualifications are appropriate to the needs of the commission.

(d) The qualifications of members of the commission, as set forth in this section, shall continue during their term of office.

SEC. 5. Section 66566 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

66566. The regular term of office for handler members of the commission is three years, commencing April 1 of any year in which they are appointed, and, except with respect to the first of the members, each serves as follows:

(a) District 1: one serves for three years.

(b) District 2: one serves for one year, one serves for two years, and one serves for three years.

(c) District 3: two serve for two years and one serves for three years.

(d) District 4: one serves for one year, two serve for two years, and two serve for three years.

(e) District 5: one serves for two years and one serves for three years.

SEC. 6. Section 66581 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

66581. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), nine members of the commission, of which at least eight are handler members, constitute a quorum at any meeting for the transaction of all business and the carrying out of the duties of the commission. However, pending the appointment of initial members-at-large and the public representative, eight handler members constitute the quorum. Members-at-large who are handlers may be deemed handler members, if necessary, to fulfill the requirements of a quorum. Unless otherwise provided by this chapter or fixed by the commission, the vote of a majority of the commission members present at the meeting and constituting a quorum shall constitute the act of the commission.

(b) Ten members of the commission, of which at least nine are handler members, constitute a quorum during any period in which the commission is increased to 19 members pursuant to Section 66561. All other provisions of subdivision (a) otherwise apply to this subdivision.

SEC. 7. Section 66581.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

66581.5. The director or his or her representatives shall be notified and may attend each meeting of the commission and any committee meeting of the commission.

SEC. 8. Section 66585 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

66585. The powers and duties of the commission include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

(a) To elect a chairman and, from time to time, any other officers that it may deem advisable and to delegate to these officers any administrative duties that may appear advisable.

(b) To adopt and, from time to time, alter, rescind, modify, and amend all proper and necessary administrative bylaws, rules, regulations, and orders for the exercise of its powers and the performance of its duties, including rules for regulation of appeals from any bylaw, rule, regulation, or order of the commission.

(c) To administer and enforce this chapter, and to do and perform all acts and exercise all powers incidental to, or in connection with, or deemed reasonably necessary, proper, or advisable to effectuate this chapter.

(d) To employ a person to serve, at the pleasure of the commission, as president and chief executive officer of the commission and other personnel, including legal counsel, that is necessary to carry out this chapter. The Attorney General shall aid and assist the commission upon its request and shall undertake judicial proceedings requested by the commission to undertake on its behalf.

(e) To establish offices and incur expense, and to enter into any and all contracts and agreements, and to create any liabilities and borrow any funds in advance of receipt of assessments that may be necessary, in the opinion of the commission, for the proper administration and enforcement of this chapter and the performance of its duties.

(f) To keep accurate books, records, and accounts of all of its dealings, which books, records, and accounts are subject to an annual private audit by an auditing firm selected by the commission and approved by the director. The audit shall be made a part of an annual report to all handlers of iceberg lettuce, copies of which shall also be submitted to the Legislature. In addition, the director may, as he or she determines necessary, conduct, or cause to be conducted, a fiscal and compliance audit of the commission.

(g) To investigate and prosecute civil violations of this chapter and to file complaints with appropriate law enforcement agencies or officers for criminal violations of this chapter.

(h) To maintain or expand the demand for iceberg lettuce nationally and abroad by means of promotional, educational, and similar programs and activities, including, but not limited to, the advertising and publicizing of iceberg lettuce in all forms of media, providing merchandising services and materials, conducting educational meetings and demonstrations, and sponsoring or participating in appropriate trade and food conferences.

(i) To undertake market, transportation, and other pertinent studies and surveys; to present facts to, and negotiate with, private and governmental bodies and agencies on matters affecting sales and distribution and other concerns of iceberg lettuce production and marketing; and to undertake any other similar activities which the commission may determine appropriate for the maintenance and expansion of present markets and the creation of new and larger markets for iceberg lettuce.

(j) To make, in the name of the commission, contracts to render service in formulating and conducting plans and programs, and any other contracts or agreements that the commission may deem necessary for the promotion of the sale of iceberg lettuce.

(k) To conduct, or contract with others to conduct, research as authorized by this chapter. In connection with this research, the commission may accept contributions of, or may match, private, state, or federal funds that may be available for these purposes, and may employ or make contributions of funds to other persons or state or federal agencies conducting this research.

(l) To determine, subject to the limitations provided in Section 66621, not later than March 31 of each year, the assessment for the following 12-month period beginning April 1 and ending March 31.

(m) To publish and distribute without charge bulletins or other communications for dissemination of information relating to the iceberg lettuce industry to producers, shippers, and handlers.

(n) To enter into cost-sharing advertising and sales promotion with organizations representing other products, and with producers, handlers, and other persons involved in marketing iceberg lettuce, either individually or collectively, who are not subject to this chapter.

(o) To fix the compensation for all employees of the commission.

(p) To appoint committees composed of both members and nonmembers of the commission to advise the commission in carrying out this chapter.

(q) To administer any state or federal program engaged in activities affecting iceberg lettuce.

SEC. 9. Section 66621 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

66621. (a) There is hereby levied and imposed upon all iceberg lettuce harvested and marketed in each fiscal year, an assessment to be paid by the handlers of the lettuce and fixed by not less than 10 of the 14 handler members of the commission at the amount determined by these commissioners as reasonably necessary to pay all obligations incurred, or expected to be incurred, in accordance with this chapter and as reasonably necessary to carry out the objects and purposes of this chapter.

(b) The assessment shall not exceed two and one-half cents ($0.025) per standard carton of packed iceberg lettuce or five cents per hundred pounds ($0.05 per cwt.) of iceberg lettuce prepared for market or equivalent basis.

(c) A fee greater than the amount provided for in subdivision (b) may not be charged unless and until a greater fee is approved by handlers, as defined in Section 66532, under the procedures in Section 66601.

(d) There shall be exempt from the assessments all shipments of 150 pounds or less of iceberg lettuce sold or shipped by a handler directly to the consumer.

SEC. 10. Section 66623 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

66623. Every handler shall, at such times as the commission may by rule or regulation require, file with the commission a report, under oath, on forms to be prescribed and furnished by the commission, stating the quantity of iceberg lettuce handled by him or her during the period or periods of time prescribed by the commission, the names of the producers in each district for which the handling was done, and further information as may be necessary in the discretion of the commission to carry out the object and purposes of this chapter.

SEC. 11. Section 66644 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

66644. Any proceeding by the commission to enforce this chapter or by a handler applying for relief from rules, orders, or regulations of the commission may be commenced either in the county in which the defendant or any of the defendants reside or in which any act or omission or part thereof complained of occurred, or in the county of the principal office of the commission. The commission may be sued only in the county of its principal office.

SEC. 12. Section 66645 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

66645. It shall be a misdemeanor to do any of the following:

(a) For any person to violate or aid in the violation of this chapter or any rule or regulation of the commission.

(b) For any person to willfully render or furnish a false or fraudulent report, statement, or record required by the commission pursuant to this chapter or any rules or regulations of the commission.

(c) For any person engaged in the handling of iceberg lettuce to fail or refuse to furnish to the commission or its duly authorized agents, upon request, information concerning the names and addresses of the persons from whom he or she has received iceberg lettuce and the quantity of the commodity so received.

(d) For any person to secrete, destroy, or alter records required to be kept under this chapter.

SEC. 13. Section 66646 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

66646. The commission shall have the right to inspect the premises, books, records, documents, and all other instruments of any carrier, railroad, truck, boat, grower, shipper, handler, dealer, or retailer, to the extent the premises, books, records, documents and other instruments pertain to persons subject to the chapter for the purpose of enforcing this chapter and collecting the assessments levied under authority of this chapter. In the event of refusal of any person to allow the inspection, the commission may apply to any court for the issuance of a subpoena to compel such an inspection.

SEC. 14. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 959

An act to amend Sections 8687, 8803, 8806, 8807, 8808, 8830, 8832, 8833, 8834, 22625, and 22629 of, and to add Sections 8833.5 and 8836 to, the Streets and Highways Code, relating to improvement bonds.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8687 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8687. Any assessment, except an assessment on land which has been ordered to judicial foreclosure pursuant to Section 8830, may be paid by depositing with the treasurer the total unpaid balance due on the assessment together with the total interest which would become due on the assessment if it were paid in the regular way. If the amount of the payment, along with prepayments of other assessments and other available amounts, is sufficient to provide surplus moneys with which to redeem any bond outstanding and not due on the next succeeding second day of September, the treasurer shall then give the proper notice for redeeming the bond, by advancing its maturity in accordance with Part 11 (commencing with Section 8750) upon which redemption the person paying the assessment shall be entitled to credit and reimbursement for the par value of any interest payments thereon which shall be canceled but not paid less any accrued interest paid thereon and less the premium paid on the bond, and less any costs incurred for administering the retirement of the bond, including costs in connection with the addendum specified in this section. The treasurer shall also record an addendum to the notice of assessment recorded pursuant to Section 3114 which shall state that the recorded assessment against the identified parcel or parcels has been paid in full, and that the associated lien against those parcels has been fully discharged. The addendum and its recording have no effect on the powers of the legislative body with respect to any identified parcel by reason of its inclusion in the assessment district or assessment for the work, acquisitions, or improvements, and a statement to that effect shall be included in the addendum recorded pursuant to this section.

SEC. 2. Section 8803 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8803. If a county or a city whose taxes are collected by the county is conducting the proceedings and sales for nonpayment of the taxes are made to the state, the state shall be the purchaser at any sale hereunder, but shall hold the title acquired at the sale upon behalf of the county or the city and shall account to the county or the city for any moneys received upon redemption or from the sale of the property. In that case, for the purposes of this division, the county or the city shall be deemed to be the real purchaser. In other cases where under the law the city is not always the purchaser at sales for delinquent city taxes, the city shall become the purchaser at any delinquent sale hereunder where there is no other purchaser, except that this requirement shall not apply to sales of property for the nonpayment of assessments securing bonds with respect to which the city has determined to limit its obligations pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 8769.

SEC. 3. Section 8806 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8806. Notwithstanding Section 8805, if a city purchases property at a delinquent sale pursuant to this part, the city shall, unless a resale has been made by it, from time to time when due, pay and transfer into the redemption fund the amount of any future delinquent installments of the assessment and interest thereon pending redemption, and no redemption shall be made until any subsequent payments, with interest and penalties, are paid.

SEC. 4. Section 8807 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8807. Except as otherwise provided by Section 8836, the purchaser, at the tax collector's sale, or at a resale by the city if the city has become the purchaser, or at a foreclosure sale by order of court, shall take the property subject to all unpaid installments of principal or interest on any assessment or reassessment, interest and penalties, costs, fees, and other charges under the same proceeding which are not satisfied by application of the sales proceeds, and subject to all public improvement assessments which may have priority thereover.

SEC. 5. Section 8808 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8808. The city shall have the right to advance and pay any other taxes wherever necessary to protect its interest in property against which there is a delinquent assessment. It may also, at its discretion, temporarily transfer moneys into the redemption fund from other funds in which the moneys are not immediately needed. If the city has determined to obligate itself to use available funds to cure any deficiency in the redemption fund pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 8769, it shall temporarily transfer available funds to the redemption fund upon determining that a deficiency exists. The moneys so transferred are to be used to pay sums due from the redemption fund and to be retransferred therefrom out of the first available receipts.

SEC. 6. Section 8830 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8830. (a) As a cumulative remedy, if any assessment or reassessment or installment thereof, or of any interest thereon, together with any penalties, costs, fees, and other charges accruing under applicable taxation provisions are not paid when due, the legislative body may order that the same be collected by an action brought in the superior court to foreclose the lien thereof as provided by this part.

(b) The legislative body may, by resolution adopted prior to issuance of bonds under this division, covenant for the benefit of bondholders to commence and diligently prosecute to completion any foreclosure action regarding delinquent installments of any assessments or reassessments which secure the bonds that are to be issued. The resolution may specify a deadline for commencement of the foreclosure action and other terms and conditions as the legislative body may determine to be reasonable regarding the foreclosure action.

(c) Except as provided in Section 8836, all installments, interest, penalties, costs, fees, and other charges that are delinquent at the time of the ordering of a foreclosure action shall be collected in the action. In the event that a lot or parcel of property has not been sold pursuant to judgment in the foreclosure action at the time that subsequent installments and interest become delinquent, the court may include the subsequent installments, interest, penalties, costs, fees, and other charges in the judgment or modified judgment.

SEC. 7. Section 8832 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8832. (a) The court shall have the power to adjudge and decree a lien against the lot or parcel of property covered by the assessment or reassessment for the amount of the judgment and to order the premises to be sold on execution as in other cases of the sale of real property by the process of the court.

(b) Except as provided in Section 8836, the lot or parcel may not be sold unless the amount to be paid pursuant to the bid equals or exceeds the sum of all of the following amounts:

(1) The amount of the judgment with costs and interest thereon.

(2) Costs and interest on the judgment accruing after issuance of the writ pursuant to which the sale is conducted.

(3) The levying officer's costs.

(4) Any other amounts which are required by law to be bid in order that the lot or parcel may be sold.

(c) The city may bid at the price provided for by subdivision (b) by giving the levying officer a written receipt crediting all or part of the amount required to satisfy the judgment, except that the city shall pay all of the following amounts in cash or by certified or cashier's check:

(1) The levying officer's costs remaining unsatisfied.

(2) The amount of any preferred labor claims.

(3) Exempt proceeds.

(4) Any other claim that is required by law to be satisfied.

(d) If the city becomes the purchaser pursuant to bid as provided for by subdivision (c), the city shall pay the amount that is required to satisfy the judgment into the redemption fund. From the amount that the city is required to pay into the redemption fund, the city shall reimburse the special reserve fund, if any, the amount, if any, of funds advanced from the special reserve fund to the redemption fund to cover delinquent installments of the assessment or reassessment and interest with respect to the lot or parcel of property which is sold. To the extent that the city has advanced funds other than, or in addition to, funds from a special reserve fund and the funds are included in the judgment, the obligation of the city to pay into the redemption fund is reduced by a corresponding amount.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (d), the city is not required to pay into the redemption fund any amount that exceeds in the aggregate the sum of all of the following:

(1) The amount required to bring current delinquent installments of the assessment or reassessment and interest with respect to which the lot or parcel of property is sold.

(2) Simple interest on all the amounts from the dates of delinquencies until the date of sale, at the rate or rates of the bonds.

(f) If the lot or parcel of property is sold at the execution sale to a purchaser other than the city, the city shall pay the sale proceeds that it receives into the redemption fund. From the amount that the city is required to pay into the redemption fund, the city shall reimburse the special reserve fund, if any, the amount, if any, of funds advanced from the special reserve fund to the redemption fund to cover delinquent installments of the assessment or reassessment and interest with respect to the lot or parcel of property which is sold. If the special reserve fund, if any, is thereby reimbursed, the city may reimburse other funds advanced by the city to cover delinquent installments and interest, and may pay interest and penalties, costs, fees, and other charges, to the extent that they are included in the sale proceeds received.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (f), attorney fees and costs awarded by the judgment and postjudgment interest are not required to be paid into the redemption fund.

(h) The foreclosure action shall be governed and regulated by this division, and where not in conflict with this division, by the applicable laws of this state.

SEC. 8. Section 8833 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8833. When any foreclosure actions are ordered, or when subsequent installments and interest that are also to be made the subject of a foreclosure action thereafter become delinquent, the tax collector shall be credited upon the assessment roll then in his or her hands with the amount charged against him or her on account of the assessments or reassessments to be sued on, and he or she shall be relieved of further duty in regard thereto. The tax collector, in addition to the costs recovered in foreclosure, may charge the actual costs incurred in removing these sums from the tax roll. Thereafter, the assessment or reassessment or installment thereof or interest thereon, and the penalties, costs, fees, and other charges accrued under applicable taxation provisions, that are ordered or are otherwise to be collected in a foreclosure action, shall no longer be collectible by the tax collector, but shall be collectible in the manner and to the extent provided by this part. Installments, interest, penalties, costs, fees, and other charges that do not become the subject of a foreclosure action shall remain collectible by the tax collector as otherwise provided by applicable law.

SEC. 9. Section 8833.5 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

8833.5. At any time after the tax collector has been relieved of further duty with regard to amounts charged against him or her on account of the assessments or reassessments described by Section 8833 and prior to a judgment of foreclosure, the city shall dismiss the foreclosure action upon payment of the sum of all of the following amounts:

(a) The amount of any delinquent installments of principal or interest of the assessment or reassessment, together with interest and penalties, costs, fees, and other charges accrued thereon to the same extent that they accrue against real property for nonpayment of general property taxes, to the date of payment.

(b) Costs of suit, including, but not limited to, service and recording fees and the costs of abstract or report of search of, or litigation guaranty with respect to, all claims of interest in the land.

(c) Attorneys fees authorized by the city.

(d) The tax collector's costs authorized by Section 8833.

SEC. 10. Section 8834 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8834. The foreclosure action shall be brought in the name of the city, and may be brought at any time prior to the expiration of four years subsequent to the last maturity of the principal of bonds secured by the assessment or reassessment. The complaint may be brief and include substantially only the following allegations with reference to the assessment or reassessment sought to be collected:

(a) That, on a date stated, the legislative body passed its resolution ordering certain work to be done, without describing the same.

(b) If the assessment was levied pursuant to the Improvement Act of 1911 (Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000)), that work was done pursuant to the resolution.

(c) That an assessment to pay the cost of the work was duly made and was authorized to be collected, but remained unpaid on a stated date.

(d) That certain property (describing it) was assessed or reassessed a stated amount and that bonds upon the security of the assessment or reassessment were duly issued under this division, giving the date or dates of the bonds, their interest rate or rates, and the number of years the last maturity of the bonds were to run, but it is not necessary to state the amount, number, denomination, or other terms of the bonds.

(e) That, on a date stated, a certain sum came due against the described property on the assessment or reassessment and had not been paid and that the legislative body had ordered the action to foreclose.

SEC. 11. Section 8836 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

8836. (a) In the event a lot or parcel of property fails to sell for the minimum price required by Section 8832, the city may petition the court to modify its judgment and authorize the property to be sold at a lesser minimum price or without a minimum price.

(b) Written notice of hearing on the petition under subdivision (a) shall be given by certified or registered mail to all registered owners of any outstanding bonds secured, in whole or in part, by the delinquent assessment or reassessment, to the original purchaser of any of the bonds from the city, to the city treasurer, and to any authenticating agents, transfer agents, registrars, and paying or other agents of the city appointed with respect to any of the bonds. If any of the outstanding bonds are payable to bearer and not registered to other than bearer, notice of the hearing shall also be given by publication at least once in a financial publication with national circulation and additionally as the court shall reasonably require. The hearing shall be held not earlier than 10 days after the notice is given.

(c) The court may, after a hearing held pursuant to notice as provided for by subdivision (b), modify the judgment and authorize the property to be sold at a lesser minimum price or without a minimum price, if the court determines, based on the evidence introduced at the hearing, any of the following:

(1) Sale at the lesser minimum price or without a minimum price will not result in an ultimate loss to the bondholders.

(2) Owners or holders of 75 percent or more of the outstanding bonds, by principal amount, have consented to the petition and the sale will not result in an ultimate loss to the nonconsenting bondholders.

(3) Owners or holders of 75 percent or more of the outstanding bonds, by principal amount, have consented to the petition and all of the following apply:

(A) By reason of determination pursuant to Section 8769, the city is not obligated to advance available funds to cure a deficiency.

(B) No bids equal to or greater than the minimum price have been received at the foreclosure sale.

(C) No funds remain in the special reserve fund, if any.

(D) The city has reasonably determined that a reassessment and refunding proceeding is not practicable, or has in good faith endeavored to accomplish a reassessment and refunding and has not been successful, or has completed reassessment and refunding arrangements which will, to the maximum extent feasible, minimize the ultimate loss to the bondholders.

(E) No other remedy acceptable to owners or holders of 75 percent or more of the outstanding bonds, by principal amount, is reasonably available.

(d) The assessment or reassessment lien upon property sold pursuant to this section at a lesser price than the minimum price shall be reduced by the difference between the minimum price and the sale price.

(e) The court shall permit participation by the bondholders in its consideration of the petition as necessary to its determinations.

(f) Neither the property owner nor the holder of a security interest in the property, nor any other defendant in the foreclosure action, nor any agent thereof, may purchase the property at the foreclosure sale for less than the minimum price determined pursuant to Section 8832. Each purchaser at less than the minimum price shall certify in writing to the levying officer at the sale the purchaser's compliance with the requirements of this subdivision.

(g) The court may make provisions for the payment of attorney fees and costs incurred in proceedings pursuant to this section as the court deems proper, and need not require that the fees and costs be paid out of the proceeds of any sale authorized pursuant to this section.

SEC. 12. Section 22625 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

22625. The date, hour, and place of the hearing is hereby fixed as the date, hour, and place of a regular meeting before August 10, as specified in any ordinance, resolution, or order of the legislative body fixing the time and place of its regular meetings.

SEC. 13. Section 22629 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

22629. The legislative body shall hold the hearing at the time and place specified in the resolution and in any order continuing the hearing. All interested persons shall be afforded the opportunity to hear and be heard. The legislative body shall consider all oral statements and all written protests made or filed by any interested person. The legislative body may continue the hearing from time to time, provided, that no continuance shall be made to a date subsequent to August 10 without the prior consent of the county auditor.

CHAPTER 960

An act to amend Section 1373.62 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 12692 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1373.62 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1373.62. Except in the case of a specialized health care service plan contract, on and after January 1, 1985, every health care service plan that covers hospital, medical, or surgical expenses on a group basis shall offer to group contract holders a continuation benefit, which, if selected, shall have a duration of at least 90 days and which shall be offered consecutively to any federal requirement for continuation benefits. The terms and conditions shall include continuation benefit coverage for widows, widowers, divorced or legally separated spouses, spouses of covered employees becoming entitled to benefits under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, and their dependents, including dependent children who cease to be dependent children under the plan, who were covered by the group contract on the date of termination of coverage. However, any existing provisions of law regarding termination of a dependent child status shall not be affected by this section.

The continuation of coverage shall be available only under the following conditions:

(a) Those eligible remain within the State of California, although the departure of a dependent child to another state shall not invalidate the continuation provisions for any other family members.

(b) Those eligible do not marry or remarry, although the marriage of any dependent child shall not invalidate the continuation provisions for other family members.

(c) Those eligible are not eligible for any comparable state, federal, or private group medical plan, although the eligibility of any dependent child shall not invalidate the continuation provisions for other family members.

(d) Those eligible do not find employment with an employer that has a group plan of its own, even if the plan is less substantive, although the entry into such an employee plan by a dependent child shall not invalidate the continuation provisions for other family members.

(e) The group contract is not terminated or the employer's participation in the group contract is not terminated.

(f) Those eligible do not knowingly furnish incorrect information or otherwise improperly obtain the benefits of the plan.

(g) The continuing individual shall pay the premium amount in the manner specified in the group contract for both his or her share of the premium and the group contract holder's share, if any.

(h) Eligible persons under this section shall be notified in the same manner required for conversion notification pursuant to Section 1373.6. Every plan shall communicate the availability of such coverage to all group contract holders and to all prospective group contract holders with whom they are negotiating.

SEC. 2. Section 12692 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12692. On and after January 1, 1985, every insurer and nonprofit hospital service plan issuing group disability insurance which covers hospital, medical, or surgical expenses shall offer to group policyholders a continuation benefit which, if selected, shall have a duration of at least 90 days and which shall be offered consecutively to any federal requirement for continuation benefits. The terms and conditions shall include continuation benefit coverage for widows, widowers, divorced or legally separated spouses, spouses of covered employees becoming entitled to benefits under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, and their dependents, including dependent children who cease to be dependent children under the plan, who were covered by the group contract on the date of termination of coverage. However, any existing provisions of law regarding termination of a dependent child status shall not be affected by this section.

The continuation of coverage shall be available only under the following conditions:

(a) Those eligible remain within the State of California, although the departure of a dependent child to another state shall not invalidate the continuation provisions for any other family members.

(b) Those eligible do not marry or remarry, although the marriage of any dependent child shall not invalidate the continuation provisions for other family members.

(c) Those eligible are not eligible for any comparable state, federal, or private group medical plan, although the eligibility of any dependent child shall not invalidate the continuation provisions for other family members.

(d) Those eligible do not find employment with an employer that has a group plan of its own, even if the plan is less substantive, although the entry into such an employee plan by a dependent child shall not invalidate the continuation provisions for other family members.

(e) The group policy is not terminated or the employer's participation in the group policy is not terminated.

(f) Those eligible do not knowingly furnish incorrect information or otherwise improperly obtain the benefits of the plan.

(g) The continuing individual shall pay the premium amount in the manner specified in the group policy for both his or her share of the premium and the group policyholder's share, if any.

(h) Eligible persons under this section shall be notified in the same manner required for conversion notification pursuant to Section 12689. Every insurer shall communicate the availability of such coverage to all group policyholders and to all prospective group policyholders with whom they are negotiating.

CHAPTER 961

An act to amend Section 25210.4f of the Government Code, relating to county service areas.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25210.4f of the Government Code is amended to read:

25210.4f. (a) In Orange County, a county service area, in addition to other services which it is empowered to provide, may exercise the powers of a harbor improvement district pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 5800) of Division 8 of the Harbors and Navigation Code and the Orange County Flood Control District pursuant to Chapter 723 of the Statutes of 1927 and as subsequently amended. Notwithstanding Sections 25210.10 and 25210.10a, the county service area may include all of the territory, both incorporated and unincorporated, within the County of Orange without the adoption of resolutions of consent adopted by the legislative bodies of the cities. These services and facilities shall be deemed "miscellaneous extended services."

(b) In the event one or more special districts, one of which is a harbor improvement district or a district formed pursuant to

Chapter 723 of the Statutes of 1927 governed by a county board of supervisors, is dissolved, the county may form a county service area or areas to include both the incorporated and unincorporated territory of the former district or districts. The county may exercise the same powers and continue to provide the facilities and services of the former district or districts under the authority and in the manner provided in either the statutes governing the county or those governing the district which formerly provided those facilities and services, including, but not limited to, the authority to adopt ordinances pursuant to Section 5900 of the Harbors and Navigation Code and Section 3 of the Orange County Flood Control Act (Chapter 723 of the Statutes of 1927), and the authority to adopt flood plain regulations under Section 8414 of the Water Code.

(c) The provisions of Sections 25210.10, 25210.10a, and 25210.90 shall not apply to the county service area or service areas referred to in this section.

CHAPTER 962

An act to amend Section 15975 of, and to add Sections 15975.1 and 15984 to, the Government Code, and to amend Section 180205 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act is in response to the following legislative findings:

(a) There is a great need for specialized transportation services (paratransit) throughout the state, in both urban and rural areas. A true and complete extent of the need is presently unknown.

(b) In many cases throughout the state, increased coordination of specialized transportation services can result in more efficient and cost-effective provision of services.

(c) Specialized transportation services were improved and expanded in many areas of the state as a result of the social service transportation inventories and the action plans that were developed by regional transportation planning agencies as a result of Chapter 1120 of the Statutes of 1979. However, that legislation did not require any updates of those two documents or implementation of the action plans.

SEC. 2. Section 15975 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15975. Upon completion of the report required pursuant to Section 15973, the transportation planning agencies and the county transportation commissions shall prepare, adopt, and submit an action plan to the Director of Transportation, not later than December 31, 1981, that describes in detail the steps required to accomplish the consolidation of social service transportation services. The action plan shall substantiate that one or more of the benefits indicated in Sections 15951 and 15952 are feasible for the services in a given geographic area. The action plan shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) The designation of consolidated transportation service agencies within the geographic area of jurisdiction of the transportation planning agency or county transportation commission. The action plan may designate more than a single agency or multiple agencies as consolidated transportation service agencies, if improved coordination of all services is demonstrated within the geographic area.

The action plan may also specify that the consolidation of some services and the coordination of other services is the most feasible approach, at the time the action plan is submitted, which will provide improved efficiency and effectiveness of those services.

(b) The identification of the social service recipients to be served, of funds available for use by the consolidated or coordinated services, and of an orderly strategy and schedule detailing the steps required to develop the financial program and management structure necessary to implement consolidated or coordinated services.

(c) Measures to coordinate the services provided under subdivision (a) with existing fixed route service provided by public and private transportation providers.

(d) Measures for the effective coordination of specialized transportation service from one provider service area to another.

(e) Measures to insure that the objectives of the action plan are consistent with the legislative intent declared in Section 15951.

SEC. 3. Section 15975.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15975.1. Transportation planning agencies and county transportation commissions shall every four years update the social services transportation inventory prepared pursuant to Section 15973 and every two years shall update the action plan prepared pursuant to Section 15975, except that, in the case of an action plan which has been implemented, a report on the progress of the implementation may be substituted for an updated action plan. The update shall include a discussion of the progress by the transportation planning agency and the county transportation commission in implementing its action plan, any obstacles that have been encountered, and proposed actions to be taken to overcome the obstacles, and any other proposed actions needed to further implement the action plan.

SEC. 4. Section 15984 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15984. The Department of Transportation shall provide technical assistance to paratransit providers who may wish to explore coordination strategies but lack the capability to develop and implement those strategies.

SEC. 5. Section 180205 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

180205. The revenues from the taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter may be allocated by the authority for the construction and improvement of state highways, the construction, maintenance, improvement, and operation of local streets, roads, and highways, and the construction, improvement, and operation of public transit systems. For purposes of this section, "public transit systems" includes paratransit services.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 963

An act to amend Sections 20020.8, 21205, 21224.5, 21296.01, and 21340 of the Government Code, relating to public retirement.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20020.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20020.8. "Local policeman" also includes any officer or employee of a school district or a community college district which has established a police department pursuant to Section 39670 or 72330 of the Education Code, whose principal duties consist of active law enforcement service, except persons whose principal duties are clerical or otherwise clearly do not fall within the scope of active law enforcement, even though such a person is subject to occasional call, or is occasionally called upon, to perform duties within the scope of active law enforcement.

This section shall only apply to any school district or any community college district which, prior to the effective date of this section, had amended its contract to provide membership for local policemen.

SEC. 2. Section 21205 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21205. The designation of a beneficiary under optional settlements 2 and 3, or if a benefit involving the life contingency of the beneficiary is provided, then under optional settlement 4, is irrevocable from the time of the first payment on account of any retirement allowance. Otherwise a designation of beneficiary under this system is revocable at the pleasure of the member who made it. A member's marriage, dissolution of marriage, annulment of his or her marriage, the birth of his or her child, or his or her adoption of a child shall constitute an automatic revocation of his or her previous revocable designation of beneficiary. A member's termination of employment and withdrawal of contributions shall constitute an automatic revocation of the previous revocable designation of beneficiary and subsequent reemployment in employment covered by this retirement system shall not reinstate the previous designation of beneficiary. Any revocable designation of beneficiary in effect on the operative date of this section which was filed prior to the occurrence of any of the conditions specified in this section shall become void and of no effect on that date.

Upon revocation of any beneficiary designation, a member may designate the same or another beneficiary by a writing filed with the board.

SEC. 2.5. Section 21205 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21205. The designation of a beneficiary under optional settlements 2 and 3, or if a benefit involving the life contingency of the beneficiary is provided, then under optional settlement 4, is irrevocable from the time of the first payment on account of any retirement allowance. Otherwise a designation of beneficiary under this system is revocable at the pleasure of the member who made it. A member's marriage, dissolution of marriage, annulment of his or her marriage, the birth of his or her child, or his or her adoption of a child shall constitute an automatic revocation of his or her previous revocable designation of beneficiary. A member's termination of employment and withdrawal of contributions shall constitute an automatic revocation of the previous revocable designation of beneficiary and subsequent reemployment in employment covered by this retirement system shall not reinstate the previous designation of beneficiary. Any revocable designation of beneficiary in effect on the operative date of this section which was filed prior to the occurrence of any of the conditions specified in this section shall become void and of no effect on that date.

Upon revocation of any beneficiary designation, a member may designate the same or another beneficiary by a writing filed with the board, except as otherwise provided in Section 21204.

SEC. 3. Section 21224.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21224.5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this article, the monthly allowance for service credited under the Second Tier shall be adjusted annually beginning with the second calendar year following retirement for time commencing on April 1 and payable on the first day of May. The adjusted monthly allowance shall be equal to the base allowance increased by 3 percent per year compounded for the number of years intervening between the end of the base year and the beginning of the calendar year in which the adjustment is made.

SEC. 4. Section 21296.01 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21296.01. The disability retirement pension for state miscellaneous or state industrial service subject to Section 21251.146 shall be one of the following:

(a) Ninety percent of the factor applicable at age 65 as set forth in Section 21251.146 times final compensation multiplied by the number of years of service credited to him or her.

(b) If the disability retirement allowance computed under subdivision (a) does not exceed one-third of his or her final compensation, 90 percent of the benefit which would be payable to the member had the member continued in employment until age 65, but in such case the retirement allowance shall not exceed one-third of the final compensation. This subdivision is not applicable to members who are not entitled, at the time of retirement, to be credited with at least 10 years of state service.

(c) If the disability retirement allowance is derived from this section and Section 21296, and would otherwise exceed the maximums provided by these sections, the pension payable with respect to each section shall be reduced in the same proportion as the allowance bears to the total allowance computed as though there was no limit, so that the total of such pensions shall equal the maximum allowed.

SEC. 5. Section 21340 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21340. Notwithstanding any provision of this part, a retired member who chose no optional settlement or optional settlement 1 at retirement may elect to have the actuarial equivalent, as of the date of the election, of the allowance payable for the remainder of his or her lifetime applied to a lesser allowance during his or her remaining lifetime under one of the optional settlements specified in this article and name his or her spouse as beneficiary.

The election provided by this section is irrevocable and shall be made within 12 months following a member's marriage if the spouse is named as beneficiary, or, in the case of a member who married prior to January 1, 1988, the election shall be made by January 1, 1989. The election shall become effective on the date specified on the election, provided that this date is not earlier than the day following receipt of the election in the system pursuant to this section.

A member who married prior to or after January 1, 1988, who fails to elect within 12 months, shall retain the right to make an election under this section; however, the election shall become effective no earlier than 12 months after the date it is filed with the board, provided that neither the member nor the designated beneficiary die prior to the effective date of the election.

This section shall not be construed to mean that designation of a new beneficiary causes the selection of an optional settlement. An optional settlement shall be selected by a member in a writing filed by the member with the board.

SEC. 6. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 21205 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1190. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 21205 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1190, in which case Section 21205 of the Government Code, as amended by SB 1190, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 2.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 964

An act to amend Section 54221 of, and to add Section 54222.3 to, the Government Code, relating to local government.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 54221 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54221. (a) As used in this article, the term "local agency" means every city, whether organized under general law or by charter, county, city and county, and district, including school districts of any kind or class, empowered to acquire and hold real property.

(b) As used in this article, the term "surplus land" means land owned by any agency of the state, or any local agency, that is determined to be no longer necessary for the agency's use, except property being held by the agency for the purpose of exchange.

(c) As used in this article, the term "open-space purposes" means the use of land for public recreation, enjoyment of scenic beauty, or conservation or use of natural resources.

(d) As used in this article, the term "persons and families of low or moderate income" means the same as provided under Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code.

(e) As used in this article, the term "exempt surplus land" means surplus land which is (1) less than 5,000 square feet in area, (2) less than the minimum legal residential building lot size for the jurisdiction in which the parcel is located, or 5,000 square feet in area, whichever is less, or (3) has no record access and is less than 10,000 square feet in area; and is not contiguous to land owned by a state or local agency which is used for park, recreational, open-space, or low- and moderate-income housing purposes and is not located within an enterprise zone pursuant to Section 7073 nor a designated program area as defined in Section 7082. If the surplus land is not sold to an owner of contiguous land, it is not considered exempt surplus land and is subject to the provisions of this article.

(f) Notwithstanding subdivision (e), the following properties are not considered exempt surplus land and are subject to the provisions of this article:

(1) Lands within the coastal zone.

(2) Lands within 1,000 yards of a historical unit of the State Parks System.

(3) Lands within 1,000 yards of any property that has been listed on, or determined by the State Office of Historic Preservation to be eligible for, the National Register of Historic Places.

(4) Lands within the Lake Tahoe region as defined in Section 66905.5.

SEC. 2. Section 54222.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

54222.3. Section 54222 shall not apply to the disposal of exempt surplus land as defined in Section 54221 by an agency of the state or any local agency.

CHAPTER 965

An act to amend Sections 25120 and 25540.6 of, and to add Section 25140 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to energy resources, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25120 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25120. "Thermal powerplant" means any stationary or floating electrical generating facility using any source of thermal energy, with a generating capacity of 50 megawatts or more, and any facilities appurtenant thereto. Exploratory, development, and production wells, resource transmission lines, and other related facilities used in connection with a geothermal exploratory project or a geothermal field development project are not appurtenant facilities for the purposes of this division.

"Thermal powerplant" does not include any wind, hydroelectric, or solar photovoltaic electrical generating facility.

SEC. 2. Section 25140 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25140. "Solar thermal powerplant" means a thermal powerplant in which 75 percent or more of the total energy output is from solar energy and the use of backup fuels, such as oil, natural gas, and coal, does not, in the aggregate, exceed 25 percent of the total energy input of the facility during any calendar year period.

SEC. 3. Section 25540.6 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25540.6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no notice of intention is required, and the commission shall issue its final decision on the application, as specified in Section 25523, within 12 months after the filing of the application for certification of the powerplant and related facility or facilities, or at any later time as is mutually agreed by the commission and the applicant, for any of the following:

(a) A thermal powerplant which will employ cogeneration technology, or a solar thermal powerplant. Such a facility may not exceed 300 megawatts unless the commission, by regulation, authorizes a greater capacity.

(b) A modification of an existing facility.

(c) A thermal powerplant which it is only technologically or economically feasible to site at or near the energy source.

(d) A thermal powerplant with a generating capacity of up to 100 megawatts.

(e) A thermal powerplant designed to develop or demonstrate technologies which have not previously been built or operated on a commercial scale. Such a research, development, or commercial demonstration project may include, but is not limited to, the use of renewable or alternative fuels, improvements in energy conversion efficiency, or the use of advanced pollution control systems. Such a facility may not exceed 300 megawatts unless the commission, by regulation, authorizes a greater capacity. Section 25524 does not apply to such a powerplant and related facility or facilities.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure and expedite the development of solar energy facilities, which are nonpolluting, environmentally safe forms of renewable energy resources, to reduce the state's dependence on depletable fuel supplies, and to reduce the economic impact of future oil shortages and price increases, it is necessary that his act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 966

An act to amend Section 2943 of the Civil Code, relating to mortgages.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2943 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2943. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Beneficiary" means a mortgagee or beneficiary of a mortgage or deed of trust, or his or her assignees.

(2) "Beneficiary statement" means a written statement showing:

(A) The amount of the unpaid balance of the obligation secured by the mortgage or deed of trust and the interest rate, together with the total amounts, if any, of all overdue installments of either principal or interest, or both.

(B) The amounts of periodic payments, if any.

(C) The date on which the obligation is due in whole or in part.

(D) The date to which real estate taxes and special assessments have been paid to the extent the information is known to the beneficiary.

(E) The amount of hazard insurance in effect and the term and premium of that insurance to the extent the information is known to the beneficiary.

(F) The amount in an account, if any, maintained for the accumulation of funds with which to pay taxes and insurance premiums.

(G) The nature and, if known, the amount of any additional charges, costs, or expenses paid or incurred by the beneficiary which have become a lien on the real property involved.

(H) Whether the obligation secured by the mortgage or deed of trust can or may be transferred to a new borrower.

(3) "Delivery" means depositing or causing to be deposited in the United States mail an envelope with postage prepaid, containing a copy of the document to be delivered, addressed to the person whose name and address is set forth in the demand therefor.

(4) "Entitled person" means the trustor or mortgagor of, or his or her successor in interest in, the mortgaged or trust property or any part thereof, any beneficiary under a deed of trust, any person having a subordinate lien or encumbrance of record thereon, the escrow holder licensed as an agent pursuant to Division 6 (commencing with Section 17000) of the Financial Code, or the party exempt by virtue of Section 17006 of the Financial Code who is acting as the escrow holder.

(5) "Payoff demand statement" means a written statement, prepared in response to a written demand made by an entitled person or authorized agent, setting forth the amounts required as of the date of preparation by the beneficiary, to fully satisfy all obligations secured by the loan that is the subject of the payoff demand statement. The written statement shall include information reasonably necessary to calculate the payoff amount on a per diem basis for the period of time, not to exceed 30 days, during which the per diem amount is not changed by the terms of the note.

(b) (1) A beneficiary, or his or her authorized agent, shall, within 21 days of the receipt of a written demand by an entitled person or his or her authorized agent, prepare and deliver to the person demanding it a true, correct, and complete copy of the note or other evidence of indebtedness with any modification thereto, and a beneficiary statement.

(2) A request pursuant to this subdivision may be made by an entitled person or his or her authorized agent at any time before, or within two months after, the recording of a notice of default under a mortgage or deed of trust, or may otherwise be made more than 30 days prior to the entry of the decree of foreclosure.

(c) A beneficiary, or his or her authorized agent, shall, on the written demand of an entitled person, or his or her authorized agent, prepare and deliver a payoff demand statement to the person demanding it within 21 days of the receipt of the demand. However, if the loan is subject to a recorded notice of default or a filed complaint commencing a judicial foreclosure, the beneficiary shall have no obligation to prepare and deliver this statement as prescribed unless the written demand is received prior to the first publication of a notice of sale or the notice of the first date of sale established by a court.

(d) (1) A beneficiary statement or payoff demand statement may be relied upon by the entitled person or his or her authorized agent in accordance with its terms, including with respect to the payoff demand statement reliance for the purpose of establishing the amount necessary to pay the obligation in full. If the beneficiary notifies the entitled person or his or her authorized agent of any amendment to the statement, then the amended statement may be relied upon by the entitled person or his or her authorized agent as provided in this subdivision.

(2) If notification of any amendment to the statement is not given in writing, then a written amendment to the statement shall be delivered to the entitled person or his or her authorized agent no later than the next business day after notification.

(3) Upon the dates specified in subparagraphs (A) and (B) any sums that were due and for any reason not included in the statement or amended statement shall continue to be recoverable by the beneficiary as an unsecured obligation of the obligor pursuant to the terms of the note and existing provisions of law.

(A) If the transaction is voluntary, the entitled party or his or her authorized agent may rely upon the statement or amended statement upon the earlier of (i) the close of escrow, (ii) transfer of title, or (iii) recordation of a lien.

(B) If the loan is subject to a recorded notice of default or a filed complaint commencing a judicial foreclosure, the entitled party or his or her authorized agent may rely upon the statement or amended statement upon the acceptance of the last and highest bid at a trustee's sale or a court supervised sale.

(e) The following provisions apply to a demand for either a beneficiary statement or a payoff demand statement:

(1) Where an entitled person or his or her authorized agent requests a statement pursuant to this section and does not specify a beneficiary statement or a payoff demand statement the beneficiary shall treat the request as a request for a payoff demand statement.

(2) Where the entitled person or the entitled person's authorized agent includes in the written demand a specific request for a copy of the deed of trust or mortgage, it shall be furnished with the written statement at no additional charge.

(3) The beneficiary may, before delivering a statement, require reasonable proof that the person making the demand is, in fact, an entitled person or an authorized agent of an entitled person, in which event the beneficiary shall not be subject to the penalties of this section until 21 days after receipt of the proof herein provided for. A statement in writing signed by the entitled person appointing an authorized agent when delivered personally to the beneficiary or delivered by registered return receipt mail shall constitute reasonable proof as to the identity of an agent. Similar delivery of a policy of title insurance, preliminary report issued by a title company, original or photographic copy of a grant deed or certified copy of letters testamentary, guardianship, or conservatorship shall constitute reasonable proof as to the identity of a successor in interest, provided the person demanding a statement is named as successor in interest in the document.

(4) If a beneficiary for a period of 21 days after receipt of the written demand willfully fails to prepare and deliver the statement, he or she is liable to the entitled person for all damages which he or she may sustain by reason of the refusal and, whether or not actual damages are sustained, he or she shall forfeit to the entitled person the sum of three hundred dollars ($300). Each failure to prepare and deliver the statement, occurring at a time when, pursuant to this section, the beneficiary is required to prepare and deliver the statement, creates a separate cause of action, but a judgment awarding an entitled person a forfeiture, or damages and forfeiture, for any failure to prepare and deliver a statement bars recovery of damages and forfeiture for any other failure to prepare and deliver a statement, with respect to the same obligation, in compliance with a demand therefor made within six months before or after the demand as to which the award was made. For the purposes of this subdivision, "willfully" means an intentional failure to comply with the requirements of this section without just cause or excuse.

(5) If the beneficiary has more than one branch, office, or other place of business, then the demand shall be made to the branch or office address set forth in the payment billing notice or payment book, and the statement, unless it specifies otherwise, shall be deemed to apply only to the unpaid balance of the single obligation named in the request and secured by the mortgage or deed of trust which is payable at the branch or office whose address appears on the aforesaid billing notice or payment book.

(6) The beneficiary may make a charge not to exceed sixty dollars ($60) for furnishing each required statement. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to mortgages or deeds of trust insured by the Federal Housing Administrator or guaranteed by the Administrator of Veterans Affairs.

CHAPTER 967

An act to amend Section 511.5 of the Elections Code, relating to elections, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 511.5 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

511.5. (a) Affidavits of registration in possession of an elections official for purposes of filing pursuant to Section 511 shall be maintained on file as a public record.

(b) Any person filing with the county clerk or registrar of voters a new affidavit of registration or reregistration may have the information relating to his or her residence address and telephone number appearing on the affidavit, or any list or roster or index prepared therefrom, declared confidential upon order of a superior court issued upon a showing of good cause that a life threatening circumstance exists to the voter or a member of the voter's household, and naming the county clerk or registrar of voters as a party.

(c) Any person granted confidentiality under subdivision (b) shall:

(1) Be considered an absent voter for all subsequent elections or until the county clerk or registrar of voters is notified otherwise by the court or in writing by the voter. A voter requesting termination of absent voter status thereby consents to placement of his or her residence address and telephone number in the roster of voters.

(2) In addition to the required residence address, provide a valid mailing address to be used in place of the residence address for election, scholarly or political research, and government purposes.

The elections official, in producing any list, roster, or index may, at his or her choice, use the valid mailing address or the word "confidential" or some similar designation in place of the residence address.

(d) No action in negligence may be maintained against any government entity or officer or employee thereof as a result of disclosure of the information which is the subject of this section unless by a showing of gross negligence or willfulness.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to clarify ambiguities in the law, and to preserve the confidentiality of certain affidavits of registration and reregistration, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 968

An act to amend, and to amend and renumber, Section 65958 of the Government Code, relating to fees.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65958 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65958. (a) Any party on whom a fee, tax, assessment, dedication, reservation, or other exaction has been imposed, the payment or performance of which is required to obtain governmental approval of a development, as defined by Section 65927, or development project, as defined by Section 65928, may protest, as provided in Sections 65913.5 and 66475.4, the establishment or imposition of the fee, tax, assessment, dedication, reservation, or other exaction. If a party files a protest under both Sections 65913.5 and 66475.4, Section 66475.4 shall prevail over Section 65913.5 to the extent of any conflict between those two sections.

(b) The protest procedures of subdivision (a) do not apply to the protest of any tax or assessment (1) levied pursuant to a principal act which contains protest procedures or (2) that is pledged to secure payment of the principal of, or interest on, bonds or other public indebtedness.

SEC. 2. Section 65958 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

of a development, as defined by Section 65927, or development project may protest, as provided in Sections 66008 and 66475.4, the establishment or imposition of the fee, tax, assessment, dedication, reservation, or other exaction. If a party files a protest under both Sections 66008 and 66475.4, Section 66475.4 shall prevail over Section 66008 to the extent of any conflict between those two sections.

(b) The protest procedures of subdivision (a) do not apply to the protest of any tax or assessment (1) levied pursuant to a principal act which contains protest procedures or (2) that is pledged to secure payment of the principal of, or interest on, bonds or other public indebtedness.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 65958 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3980. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends, or amends and renumbers, Section 65958 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3980, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 969

An act to amend Section 4801.6 of the Civil Code, and to amend Section 1218 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to civil law.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4801.6 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4801.6. (a) In any proceeding where the court has ordered a party to pay any amount of spousal support to the other party, the court, may order the party required to make a payment of spousal support to assign to an assigned payee that portion of his or her salary or wages due or to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for spousal support. The order shall operate as an assignment and shall be binding upon any existing or future employer of the party required to make the payment of spousal support upon whom a copy of the order is served. Any such order may be modified or revoked at any time by the court.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), in any proceeding after January 1, 1989, where the court has ordered a party to pay any amount of spousal support to the other party, that order shall contain a provision assigning the wages of the obligor to the assigned payee. Any order for the modification of support entered after January 1, 1989, which does not otherwise contain a provision for wage assignment, shall also contain a provision assigning the wages of an obligor to the assigned payee. All provisions for wage assignment required pursuant to this subdivision shall be effective only upon an application signed under penalty of perjury by the assigned payee that the obligor is in arrears in payment in a sum equal to the amount of support payable for one month. Upon receipt of the application, the court shall issue, without notice to the obligor, an order requiring the obligor to assign to the payee that portion of the salary or wages of the obligor due or to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for spousal support. The order shall operate as an assignment and shall be binding upon any existing or future employer of the obligor ordered to pay support upon whom a copy of the order is served.

(2) In cases in which the order for support does not contain a provision for wage assignment, the application shall state that the assigned payee has given the obligor a written notice of his or her intent to seek a wage assignment in the event of a default in support payments and that the notice was transmitted by certified mail or personally served at least 15 days prior to the date of the filing of the application. The written notice of intent to seek a wage assignment required by this paragraph may be given at the time of filing a petition or complaint for support or at any time subsequent thereto. In addition to any other penalty provided by law, the filing of the application with knowledge of the falsity of the declaration of notice is punishable as a contempt pursuant to Section 1209 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The obligor may at any time waive the written notice required by this subdivision.

(3) The assigned payee shall notify the employer of the obligor, by any form of mailing requiring a return receipt, of any change of address within a reasonable period of time after the change. In instances in which payments have been ordered to be made to the district attorney, the party to whom support has been ordered to be paid shall notify the court and the district attorney, by any form of mail requiring a return receipt, of any address change within a reasonable period of time after any such change. If the employer or district attorney is unable to deliver payments under the assignment for a period of six months due to the failure of the individual to whom support has been ordered to be paid to notify the employer or district attorney of a change of address, the employer or district attorney shall not make any further payments under the assignment and shall return all undeliverable payments to the employee.

(4) An assignment order made pursuant to this subdivision shall not become effective until 10 days after service of the order on an employer.

(5) Within 10 days of service of an assignment order issued pursuant to this subdivision on an employer, the employer shall deliver a copy of the assignment order to the obligor, together with a written statement of the obligor's rights under the law to move to quash the assignment. The Judicial Council shall adopt a form for the statement.

(6) An obligor alleged to be in default may move to quash an assignment order issued under this subdivision within 10 days after service on the obligor of notice of the assignment order by his or her employer if the obligor states under oath that there is an error in the amount of current or overdue support, that the alleged obligor is not the obligor from whom support is due, or that the amount to be withheld exceeds that allowable under federal law in subdivision (b) of Section 1673 of Title 15 of the United States Code, to the extent that the amount required to be withheld exceeds the limits specified in federal law. The obligor may also move to quash the assignment if he or she states under oath that a default in payment in a sum equal to the amount of support payable for one month has not occurred. The motion and notice of motion to quash the assignment order shall be filed with the court issuing the assignment order within 10 days after service on the obligor of notice of the order by the employer. The clerk of the court shall set the motion to quash for hearing within not less than 15 days, nor more than 20 days, after receipt of the notice of motion and shall mail to the petitioner at the return address contained in the petition a copy of the notice of motion by first-class mail within five days after receipt of the notice of motion. If a finding of an error in the amount of overdue support results in an amount due which is less than one month's support, the assignment of wages shall be quashed accordingly. However, if a finding of an error in the amount of overdue support results in an amount in excess of one month's support, such a finding in the amount of overdue support shall not affect the assignment of that portion of the obligor's wages withheld to pay for current support. A finding of an error in the amount of current support subject to withholding does not affect the assignment of that portion of the obligor's wages withheld to pay overdue support.

(7) The employer shall continue to withhold and forward support as ordered by the court until served with notice that the motion to quash under this subdivision has been granted. The employer shall send the amounts withheld to the assigned payee within 10 days of the date the obligor is paid. An employer who willfully fails to withhold and forward support pursuant to a currently valid order entered and served upon the employer pursuant to this section is liable to the assigned payee for the amount of support not withheld, forwarded, or otherwise paid to the assigned payee. Willful failure by an employer to comply with such an order is punishable as a contempt pursuant to Section 1218 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(8) The due date of support payments under this subdivision shall be the date specifically stated in the order of support or if no date is stated in the support order, then it shall be the last day of the month in which the support payment is to be paid.

(9) For purposes of this subdivision, arrearages of payment shall be computed on the basis of the payments owed and unpaid on the date that the obligor has been given notice of the order of assignment and the fact that the obligor may have subsequently paid the arrearages shall not relieve the court of its duty under this subdivision to enter the order for the assignment.

(10) Upon a notice of motion by the obligor, the court shall terminate an order of assignment entered pursuant to this subdivision if past due support has been paid in full and if one of the following conditions exists: (A) The employer or district attorney has been unable to deliver payments under the assignment for a period of six months due to the failure of the person to whom spousal support has been ordered to be paid to notify the employer or district attorney of a change of address; or (B) the death or remarriage of the spouse to whom support is owed; or (C) the assignment has continued for 24 months after payment in full of any past due support. However, if the assignment was pursuant to a second or subsequent application, it shall not be terminated unless, upon a petition by the party ordered to pay support, the court determines that there is good cause to terminate the assignment.

(11) The amounts withheld under this subdivision shall include both current support and payments towards the liquidation of arrearages. However, priority shall be given to the current support obligation.

(c) The Judicial Council shall prescribe forms for the orders for wage assignment required or authorized by this section. The employer may deduct from the salary or wages of the employee the sum of one dollar ($1) for each payment made pursuant to the order. Any such assignment made pursuant to court order shall have priority as against any attachment, execution, or other assignment, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(d) The employer shall cooperate with and provide relevant employment information to the district attorney for the purpose of enforcing the support obligation. The state agency or the local agency designated to enforce child and spousal support obligations, as required by federal law shall allow employers to simplify the process of wage withholding by forwarding, as ordered by the court, the amounts of support withheld under more than one court order in a consolidated check.

(e) Orders for wage assignment required or authorized by this section shall include a requirement that the obligor notify the assigned payee of any change of employment and of the name and address of his or her new employer.

(f) No employer shall use any assignment authorized by this section as grounds refusing to hire a person or for discharging or taking disciplinary action against an employee. An employer who engages in the conduct prohibited by this subdivision may be assessed a civil penalty of a maximum of five hundred dollars ($500).

(g) As used in this section "employer" includes the United States government and any public entity as defined in Section 811.2 of the Government Code.

(h) On declaration or affidavit of the party to whom spousal support has been ordered to be paid to the court that: (1) the party ordered to make support payments is in default in the payment in the amount specified in subdivision (b), and (2) the whereabouts of the defaulting party or the identity of his or her employer are unknown to the party to whom support has been ordered to be paid, the district attorney shall contact the central registry maintained by the Department of Justice in the manner prescribed in Section 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and upon receiving the requested information, notify the court of the last known address of the absent party and the name and address of the absent party's last known employer. The court shall then order the defaulting party to make support payments pursuant to subdivision (b).

(i) Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the district attorney to utilize any and all civil and criminal remedies to enforce spousal support obligations.

(j) This section applies to the money and benefits described in Sections 704.110 and 704.113 of the Code of Civil Procedure to the extent that the money and benefits are subject to a wage assignment for support under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(k) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when a certified copy of any order of assignment is served on any public entity described in Section 704.110 of the Code of Civil Procedure other than the United States government, that entity shall comply with any request for a return of employee contributions by an employee named in order by delivering the contributions to the clerk of the court from which the order issued, unless the entity has received a certified copy of an order terminating the order of assignment. Upon receipt of moneys pursuant to this section, the clerk of the court, within 10 days, shall send written notice of the fact to the parties, and any agency through whom payments have been ordered under Section 4801.7. These moneys shall be subject to any procedure available to enforce an order for spousal support, but if no enforcement procedure is commenced after 30 days have elapsed from the date the notice of receipt is sent, the clerk shall, upon request, return the moneys to the public entity that delivered the moneys to the court unless the public entity has informed the court in writing that the moneys shall be released to the defaulting obligor. A court shall not directly or indirectly condition the issuance, modification, or termination of, or condition the terms or conditions of, any order for spousal support upon the issuance of such a request by such an employee.

(l) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), in any case where support is ordered to be paid through the district attorney for those purposes, or upon the district attorney's or obligor's request, the court shall issue an order for a wage assignment pursuant to this section.

In any such case in which an arrearage is alleged, the party ordered to pay support may move to quash the order for wage assignment in the manner specified in subdivision (b), but a finding of error in the amount of the arrearage is not sufficient in and of itself to quash the wage assignment for that portion of the obligor's wages withheld to pay current support.

As used in this subdivision, "wage assignment" has the same meaning as "assignment" and "wage assignment" in subdivisions (a) and (b).

(m) As used in this section, "assigned payee" means either the person to whom support has been ordered to have been paid or the district attorney so long as the district attorney is otherwise required under existing law to enforce that support and is designated by the court to receive the payment. For the purposes of this section, the district attorney shall be the assigned payee for all cases in which an application for services has been filed under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, so long as otherwise authorized by law.

(n) The procedures specified in this section are applicable to any proceeding where the court has ordered a party to pay any amount for family support.

(o) Any reference to the district attorney in this section shall apply only when the district attorney is otherwise ordered or required to act pursuant to existing law. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to mandate additional enforcement or collection duties upon the district attorney beyond those imposed under existing law.

SEC. 2. Section 1218 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1218. Upon the answer and evidence taken, the court or judge must determine whether the person proceeded against is guilty of the contempt charged, and if it be adjudged that he or she is guilty of the contempt, a fine may be imposed on him or her not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or he or she may be imprisoned not exceeding five days, or both.

No party, who is in contempt of a court order or judgment in a dissolution of marriage or legal separation action, shall be permitted to enforce such an order or judgment, by way of execution or otherwise, either in the same action or by way of a separate action, against the other party. This restriction shall not affect nor apply to the enforcement of child or spousal support orders.

CHAPTER 970

An act to amend Sections 17280, 18688, 19053.1, 23301, and 26221 of, and to add Section 18681.7 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17280 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17280. (a) No deduction shall be denied as provided by Section 265 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to expenses and interest relating to tax-exempt income.

(b) No deduction shall be allowed for any of the following:

(1) Any amount otherwise allowable as a deduction which is allocable to one or more classes of income other than interest (whether or not any amount of income of that class or classes is received or accrued) wholly exempt from the taxes imposed by this part, or any amount otherwise allowable under Section 212 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to expenses for production of income) which is allocable to interest (whether or not any amount of such interest is received or accrued) wholly exempt from the taxes imposed by this part.

(2) Interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations the interest on which is wholly exempt from the taxes imposed by this part. The proper apportionment and allocation of the deduction with respect to taxable and nontaxable income shall be determined under rules and regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(3) Interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry shares of stock of a management company or series thereof which during the taxable year of the holder thereof distributes exempt-interest dividends.

(c) For purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b):

(1) "Interest" includes any amount paid or incurred—

(A) By any person making a short sale in connection with personal property used in that short sale, or

(B) By any other person for the use of any collateral with respect to that short sale.

(2) If—

(A) The taxpayer provides cash as collateral for any short sale, and

(B) The taxpayer receives no material earnings on that cash during the period of the sale, subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) shall not apply to that short sale.

(d) No deduction shall be denied under this section for interest on a mortgage on, or real property taxes on, the home of the taxpayer by reason of the receipt of an amount as either of the following:

(1) A military housing allowance.

(2) A parsonage allowance excludable from gross income under Section 107 of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 2. Section 18681.7 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18681.7. For purposes of collecting any penalty, and any interest thereon, imposed under this part against any bank or corporation, as defined under Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), the penalty, and the interest thereon, shall constitute a liability imposed under Part 11, and shall be collected in accordance with and in the manner provided in Part 11.

SEC. 3. Section 18688 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read.

18688. (a) Interest upon the amount assessed as a deficiency shall be assessed, collected and paid in the same manner as the tax at the adjusted annual rate established pursuant to Section 19269 from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax until the date the tax is paid. If any portion of the deficiency is paid prior to the date it is assessed, interest shall accrue on such portion only to the date paid.

(b) If the Franchise Tax Board makes or allows a refund or credit which it determines to be erroneous, in whole or in part, the amount erroneously made or allowed may be assessed and collected after notice and demand pursuant to Section 18601 (pertaining to mathematical errors), except that the rights of protest and appeal shall apply with respect to amounts assessable as deficiencies without regard to the running of any period of limitations provided elsewhere in this article. Notice and demand for repayment must be made within two years after the refund or credit was made or allowed, or during the period within which the Franchise Tax Board may mail a notice of proposed additional assessment, whichever period expires the later. Interest on amounts erroneously made or allowed shall not accrue until 30 days from the date the Franchise Tax Board mails a notice and demand for repayment as provided by this subdivision.

(c) (1) In the case of any assessment of interest, the Franchise Tax Board may abate the assessment of all or any part of that interest for any period in either of the following circumstances:

(A) Any deficiency attributable in whole or in part to any error or delay by an officer or employee of the Franchise Tax Board (acting in his or her official capacity) in performing a ministerial act.

(B) Any payment of any tax described in Section 18583 to the extent that any delay in that payment is attributable to that officer or employee being dilatory in performing a ministerial act.

For purposes of this paragraph, an error or delay shall be taken into account only if no significant aspect of that error or delay can be attributed to the taxpayer involved, and after the Franchise Tax Board has contacted the taxpayer in writing with respect to that deficiency or payment.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board shall abate the assessment of all interest on any erroneous refund for which an action for recovery is provided under Section 19111 until the date demand for repayment is made, unless either of the following has occurred:

(A) The taxpayer (or a related party) has in any way caused that erroneous refund.

(B) That erroneous refund exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

SEC. 4. Section 19053.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19053.1. For purposes of Section 19053, a return filed within four years from the last day prescribed for filing the return showing a credit for (a) tax withheld under Section 18805 of this code or Section 13020 of the Unemployment Insurance Code or (b) estimated tax paid pursuant to Section 18682 in excess of the tax due, shall be considered a claim for refund of such excess if the amount thereof is more than one dollar ($1). No refund of tax withheld or estimated tax paid shall be allowed to an employee or taxpayer who fails to file a return for the taxable year in respect of which the tax withheld or estimated tax was allowable as a credit.

SEC. 5. Section 23301 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23301. Except for the purposes of filing an application for exempt status or amending the articles of incorporation as necessary either to perfect that application or to set forth a new name, the corporate powers, rights and privileges of a domestic taxpayer, may be suspended, and the exercise of the corporate powers, rights and privileges of a foreign taxpayer in this state may be forfeited if any of the following conditions occur:

(a) If any tax, penalty, or interest, or any portion thereof, which is due and payable either at the time the return is required to be filed, or on or before the 15th day of the ninth month following the close of the income year, is not paid on or before 6 p.m. on the last day of the 12th month after the close of the income year.

(b) If any tax, penalty, or interest, or any portion thereof, due and payable upon notice and demand from the Franchise Tax Board, or due and payable under Section 25936, is not paid on or before 6 p.m. on the last day of the 11th month following the due date of the tax.

(c) If any liability, or any portion thereof, which is due and payable under Article 5 (commencing with Section 18681) of Chapter 18 of Part 10, is not paid on or before 6 p.m. on the last day of the 11th month following the date that the tax liability is due and payable.

SEC. 6. Section 26221 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

26221. (a) At any time within which an action can be brought to collect any delinquent amounts as provided in Article 5 (commencing with Section 26251) of Chapter 23 of this part or Article 2 (commencing with Section 18831) of Chapter 19 of Part 10, the Franchise Tax Board may collect the tax, together with penalties and interest, in the following manner: The Franchise Tax Board shall seize any personal property owned by the taxpayer against whom the tax is assessed, and thereafter sell at public auction the property so seized, or a sufficient portion thereof, to pay the tax due hereunder, together with any interest, and any penalty or penalties imposed hereby for that delinquency, and any and all costs that may have been incurred on account of the seizure and sale. Notice of the intended sale and the time and place thereof, shall be given to the delinquent taxpayer and to all persons appearing of record to have an interest in the property, in writing, at least 10 days before the date set for the sale by enclosing the notice in an envelope addressed to the taxpayer at its last known place of business in this state if any, and, in the case of any person appearing of record to have an interest in the property, addressed to that person at the last known place of residence, if any, and depositing the same in the United States mail, postage prepaid, and by publication for at least 10 days before the date set for the sale in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the property seized is to be sold; provided, however, that if there be no newspaper of general circulation in that county then by the posting of the notice in three public places in the county for the 10-day period. The notice shall contain a description of the property to be sold, together with a statement of the amount of the taxes, interest, penalties, and costs, the name of the taxpayer, and the further statement that, unless the taxes, interest, penalties, and costs are paid on or before the time fixed in the notice for the sale, the property, or so much thereof as may be necessary, will be sold in accordance with law and the notice.

(b) For purposes of this section, the term tax shall include any liability imposed against a bank or corporation pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 18681) of Chapter 18 of Part 10, and any interest imposed thereon.

CHAPTER 971

An act to add Section 1062 to the Water Code, relating to water, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1062 is added to the Water Code, to read:

1062. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(1) The watershed of the San Francisco Bay/Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta Estuary supplies a large percentage of water used in California.

(2) The State Water Resources Control Board and the California regional water quality control boards are responsible for protecting all beneficial uses of those waters. Beneficial uses include those defined in subdivision (f) of Section 13050.

(3) The board is engaged in a hearing process to consider revisions to the water quality standards contained in the existing water quality control plan for the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta and Suisun Marsh and to consider new standards for San Francisco Bay.

(4) There is a broad diversity of viewpoints regarding appropriate water quality standards and priorities with respect to the various beneficial uses.

(5) Any new or revised standards and plans that derive from the hearing process will have a substantial impact on the people of California, and there is significant public interest in these deliberations.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that the hearing process shall provide for the involvement of all those who wish to participate in these deliberations. It is further the intent of the Legislature that members of the general public shall have full access to the proceedings and to all official records of the hearings.

(c) The board shall lodge one copy of the transcripts of the hearings referred to in subdivision (a) for inspection and use by the general public at the following locations: the headquarters of the State Water Resources Control Board in Sacramento; the headquarters of the regional water quality control boards in Los Angeles, Fresno, and San Diego; and the headquarters of the Environmental Protection Agency in San Francisco. The transcripts shall be updated on a timely basis throughout the course of the board's bay-delta hearing process. At the conclusion of the hearing process, one transcript shall be maintained at the headquarters of the board in Sacramento.

(d) The board shall provide for staff services at the headquarters of the board in Sacramento and at the headquarters at each of the regional water quality control boards listed in subdivision (c) to assist the public in utilizing the transcripts and other documents and to facilitate participation by interested parties in the hearing process.

(e) During the course of the board's bay-delta hearing process, the board shall provide for public access to an electronic data retrieval system capable of displaying the text of the hearing transcript at the following locations: The headquarters of the board in Sacramento; the headquarters of the regional water quality control boards in Oakland, Los Angeles, Fresno, Redding, Riverside, and San Diego; and the headquarters of the Environmental Protection Agency in San Francisco.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure effective public participation in the hearing process established by the State Water Resources Control Board for the adoption of water quality standards for the San Francisco Bay/Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta Estuary at the earliest possible time and to thereby protect the public interest in those waters, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 972

An act to add and repeal Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 8216) of Chapter 2 of Part 6 of the Education Code, relating to child care, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988.]

I am deleting the $37,500 appropriation contained in Section 2 of Assembly Bill No 4336.

This bill would establish a three-year, Parent-Child Information Pilot Program. Under this program, the State Department of Education would award grants to Resource and Referral agencies to hire extra counselors and volunteers to respond to parental inquiries on a variety of issues relating to normal child behavior and development and reinforcement of realistic adult expectations The bill appropriates $37,500 to begin implementation during the 1988–89 fiscal year.

The demands placed on budget resources require all of us to set priorities The budget enacted in July 1988 appropriated nearly $44 billion in state funds. This amount is more than adequate to provide the necessary essential services provided for by State Government. It is not necessary to put additional pressure on taxpayer funds for programs that fall beyond the priorities currently provided

Thus, after reviewing this legislation, I have concluded that its merits do not sufficiently outweigh the need this year for funding top priority programs and continuing a prudent reserve for economic uncertainties

It is more appropriate to consider funding the provisions of this bill during the budget process for Fiscal Year 1989–90. Only at that time can we review the relative merits of this program in comparison to all other funding projects The budget process enables us to weigh all demands on the state's revenues and direct our resources to programs, either new or existing, that have the most merit.

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No 4336

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 8216) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 6 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 2.5. Parent-Child Information Pilot Program

8216. The purposes of this article are as follows:

(a) To provide a consistent and reliable source of information, principally through telephone contact, to parents of young children and child care providers on normal development and behavior, and reinforcement of realistic adult expectations.

(b) To provide support to parents and providers under stress, thus minimizing the risk of child abuse.

(c) To provide guidance to parents toward their own solutions in child rearing matters, thus strengthening parental self-esteem and validating their best instincts and judgment.

(d) To facilitate networking among parents with similar concerns.

(e) To identify and involve parents who could benefit from parenting classes, and to offer those classes in locations throughout the community.

(f) To provide ongoing assessment of community service needs related to child care providers and parents of young children.

(g) To build community support for broad-based parent education and quality, affordable child care.

(h) To build a public and private partnership that supports parent education efforts, both financially and as a public policy priority.

8217. (a) The State Department of Education, through its child development division, shall administer the program established under this article.

(b) Child care resource and referral programs established to serve a defined geographic area may apply to the State Department of Education, through its child development division, for a grant for the purposes of developing, implementing, and maintaining a parent-child information pilot project pursuant to this article. Three three-year pilot projects shall be assigned and funded under this article, beginning on January 1, 1989, with one each to be located in the northern, central, and southern areas of the state. Any state funding granted under this article shall be applied to the grant recipient to the support of paid staff who are assigned to provide continuity and stability of programs, maximum flexibility in delivering services and building community support, and maximum latitude in developing and maintaining an adequate local match.

(c) In order to qualify for a grant under this article, a program applicant shall do all of the following:

(1) Provide a matching contribution in funds or in-kind contributions from local resources, not including any source of state funding, of at least 25 percent of the state grant in the first year, and at least 50 percent of the state grant in each subsequent year, and demonstrate the ability to comply with that matching requirement.

(2) Demonstrate successful delivery of all services required under contract with the State Department of Education through its child development division.

(3) Have a demonstrated capability to coordinate and work successfully with existing community resources.

(4) Participate in state orientation and technical assistance activities conducted under this article.

(5) Submit a plan outlining the proposed development and delivery of services in accordance with Section 8216 over the life of the contract, including the identification of resources in the community to be utilized and methods for securing the use of those resources; the manner in which the pilot project would be integrated into the program operated under Article 2 (commencing with Section 8210).

8218. The State Department of Education shall evaluate the pilot program authorized under this article and shall submit the evaluation to the Legislature on or before May 30, 1992. The evaluation of the program shall include, but not be limited to, the department's determination of all of the following:

(a) The extent to which the program meets the legislative purposes and intent set forth in this article.

(b) Whether the program provides preventative, proactive, social, or educational services.

(c) Whether there is a need to expand the program to a statewide basis, and whether the services provided by the program are duplicative of other state or local services.

(d) The direct and indirect program benefits to the parents and children who are participants in the program.

(e) The effectiveness of the program in preventing family crises, child abuse, and neglect.

(f) The characteristics of the targeted service population.

8219. This article shall become inoperative on June 30, 1992, and, as of January 1, 1993, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. The sum of thirty-seven thousand five hundred dollars ($37,500) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Education for the purposes of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 8216) of Chapter 2 of Part 6 of the Education Code for the period of January 1, 1989, to June 30, 1989, inclusive. It is the intent of the Legislature that funds necessary in future years for the purpose of the Parent-Child Information Pilot Project as added to Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 8216) of Chapter 2 of Part 6 of the Education Code, be appropriated in the Budget Act of subsequent fiscal years.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to initiate the system provided for under Section 1 of this act in response to current critical needs related to child care and development, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 973

An act to amend Sections 66701, 71000, 71001, 78205, 84381, 84713, 87102, 87104, 87454, 87457, 87602, 87663, and 87743 of, to add Sections 71020.5, 71090.5, 78212.5, 84750, 84755, 87001, 87107, 87482.6, 87608.5, 87610.1, 87615, 87743.1, 87743.2, 87743.3, 87743.4, and 87743.5 to, to add Article 5 (commencing with Section 87150) to Chapter 1 of Part 51 of, to add Chapter 9.2 (commencing with Section 66720) to Part 40 of, and Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 87350) to Part 51 of, to add Part 43.5 (commencing with Section 70900) to Division 7 of, to repeal and add Sections 71020, 72411.5, 87458, 87605, 87608, 87609, 87610, and 87611 of, to repeal Sections 71023, 71025, 71026, 71027, 71028, 71062, 71063, 71064, 71066, 71068, 71069, 71070, 71071, 71072, 71073, 71075, 71076, 71079, 71080, 71091, 72201, 72230, 72231.5, 72233, 72282, 72284, 72285, 72286, 72287, 72288, 72289, 72290, 72291, 72292, 72300, 78200, 87455, and 87456 of, and to repeal Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 87200) of Part 51 of, the Education Code, relating to community colleges, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows, with regard to the general background and intent of this act:

(a) The California Community Colleges face an unprecedented challenge in the coming two decades, as California undergoes a major demographic, social, and economic transformation. The community colleges are at the center of this change, and the state's future as a healthy and free, diverse, and creative society depends in major part upon the commitments expressed through and in the community colleges.

(b) The community colleges educate hundreds of thousands of Californians every year, are the route to higher education for the majority of our people, provide access to language and citizenship for tens of thousands of immigrants annually, retrain workers in an economy changing more rapidly than any in history, and are the last hope for older citizens seeking skills and involvement in their communities. To do these things well, to bring excitement and power into the lives of students so diverse and needing so much, to serve the economy and society through its service of these students, requires a deep commitment from all who teach and learn, from those who administer and counsel, from those who fund and regulate.

(c) The community colleges embody an historic commitment to provide an opportunity for college instruction for all Californians capable of benefiting from instruction. The community colleges have historically found their mission in the statewide scheme for higher education, the Master Plan for Higher Education, and in local commitments to meet the needs of different communities—urban and rural, middle class and poor. From these sources have come the conviction, and the fact, that the community colleges ought to provide high quality lower division instruction for purposes of transfer to baccalaureate institutions, and a wide range of courses and programs to meet vocational and basic education needs. The community colleges have been notable because they are local and accessible, diverse in their responsiveness to local needs, and yet have maintained standards capable of placing students in any of the state's universities or in any of the state's industries.

(d) Since the development of the original master plan, there has been a significant change in the populations served by the community colleges, and in the anticipated needs of the state as we move into the 21st century. The state's population will grow by 22 percent between 1986 and 2000, from 27 million to roughly 33 million. By the turn of the century, California will have a cultural and ethnic pluralism unknown elsewhere in the mainland United States. Fifty-one percent of the schoolage children in 1989 will be minorities; the majority of the population will be nonwhite in the following decade. However, there is no one "minority community;" rather there will be recent immigrants from Asia and Central America, the children of today's urban ghettos, and members of the "working poor." These communities of Californians will turn increasingly to the community colleges for language training, job reskilling, technical education, or the liberal arts.

(e) By the year 2000, California will be proportionally older; 20 percent will be senior citizens. California will have more elderly citizens than any other state in the nation. These citizens will turn, as they have already, to the community colleges for continuing education and job skills.

(f) By the turn of the century, increasingly more working men and women will come to the community colleges to acquire job skills and retraining. In an economy of rapid change and intense international competition, there will be much job displacement, sometimes on a massive scale. The periodic recessions and the unpredictable collapse of one or more markets, or industries will cause new students to matriculate to the community colleges. But inside the economic center—not just at its margins—the workers of the future will need new literacy skills, and more ability to communicate and learn on their own. When analysts predict a labor shortage in California by 2000, the real issue will not be numbers but quality. The important questions will be whether working men and women will have the skills required for jobs of rapid transformation, and whether California will be able to compete economically with other states now making massive investment in their educational systems.

(g) The convergence of these tendencies—both demographic and economic—lead to the possibility of an increasingly stratified society. This can include what has been called a "permanent underclass;" mostly minority, and a semipermanent, semiemployable stratum of low-skilled workers. The consequences of this development would be dire: the permanent underutilization of the energies and talents of our people, the deepening of racial resentments and fears, and the constant anxiety among more and more of us that the future has no place for us.

(h) The Legislature is committed to an alternative vision in which California remains a place of opportunity and hope—where innovation and creativity mark our economy and our culture, and where the minds and spirits of all our communities contribute to our common future. The community colleges will be at the heart of whatever effort we make to insure that the future is equitable and open, that California's economy remains healthy and growing, and that both rural towns and rapidly expanding urban centers have educational resources close at hand. The community colleges are not the only place in which Californians will make their investment for an expansive and decent future, but they will have to be one such essential place.

(i) The community colleges—once envisaged as "junior colleges" devoted primarily to providing middle-class youth with a local option to the lower-division years of college—will be called upon for the tasks of retraining workers, teaching English to those recently among us, providing skills and opportunities for the elderly, providing a second chance to those who were failed by our secondary schools, and still providing lower division transfer education of quality and integrity for all who want it.

(j) The majority of people in California welcome this new epoch as a challenge of unprecedented opportunity. The Legislature shares this view, and expresses the intent that sufficient funding and resources of this state be provided to forge into a new range of educational engagements for our people. It is important in this regard to honor those who teach basic skills and literacy, as well as those who teach Shakespeare and Plato, to facilitate effective communication between "vocational" and "liberal arts" departments in an epoch where all vocations will require deeper and more subtle forms of literacy, and to build a new and diverse curriculum which engages all our diverse students, and demands the best of their minds and spirits.

(k) The people of California should have the opportunity to be proud of a system of community colleges which instills pride among its students and faculty, where rigor and standards are an assumed part of a shared effort to educate, where the hugely diverse needs of students are a challenge rather than a threat, where the community colleges serve as models for the new curricula and innovative teaching, where learning is what we care about most.

(l) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act, to strengthen the capacity of the community colleges to meet the emerging needs of our state, and in particular, to better ensure that all Californians are offered a chance, challenged and taught with imagination and inspiration, offered assistance and counseling, and held to honest standards.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares the following with regard to the problems facing the California Community Colleges, and their mission and functions in resolving those problems:

(a) As the Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education noted in its report, and as others have noted, the decline in the number of students seeking to transfer from the California Community Colleges to four-year educational institutions is attributable to a variety of factors, including, but not limited to, a decreased number of high school graduates, a lack of coordination among postsecondary segments and between postsecondary and secondary institutions, and the inadequate provision of student financial aid. This decline represents a serious threat to the historical objective of the community college system to provide access to quality education regardless of personal circumstance. The Legislature finds and declares that transfer between the California Community Colleges and California's four-year public universities is a matter of statewide concern.

(b) If the community college system is to fulfill its role in meeting the educational needs of this state in future years, there is a need for a reinvigorated transfer program in that system, involving a closer articulation between the community colleges and the other segments of public postsecondary education as to educational programs, expectations, and responsibilities, and involving the communication of the respective educational expectations of those segments to the high schools. The provision of quality transfer education is a primary mission of the community colleges.

(c) There is also a growing need in this state for quality courses and programs of baccalaureate program quality in the community college system for students who either do not desire to transfer to a four-year educational institution or who already possess a baccalaureate degree.

(d) Vocational and technical education is a primary mission of the California Community Colleges, and programs of study leading to employment meet the needs of both students and society. The dramatic changes in California's economy will require, however, an ongoing and thorough review of the relevance and responsiveness of current vocational education programs, as well as the relationship between those programs throughout the state.

(e) It is necessary that the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges initiate, through the chancellor's office, a detailed examination of the implications of current economic developments and trends for the development of vocational education programs. In the agriculture, manufacturing, and services sectors, new technologies, the reorganization of production, and the shifting international context require that review.

(f) Current vocational programs in the California Community Colleges appropriately include both academic certificate or degree programs and short-term jobs skills and retraining programs. Both are essential to meet the rapidly shifting needs within the economy. Within many of those programs, however, there is a need for greater continuity between the high schools, the community colleges, and the four-year colleges or universities.

(g) Vocational "tracks" should have as much connection as possible with courses in the liberal arts and general education. This ensures the greatest variety of career options for students, and addresses a growing conviction on the part of industry that vocational training must include a broad variety of literacy skills beyond technical expertise. The chancellor's office should initiate a review of the curricular relationships between vocational and general education programs.

(h) As indicated by the Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education, there exist patterns of gender and ethnic underrepresentation in a number of vocational education programs. For example, in 15 of the 30 largest community college vocational education programs, over 80 percent of the students are of the same gender.

(i) There is a massive and growing demand in this state for remedial education, resulting from a decline in high school academic standards, the increasing dropout rate, restrictions on funding of adult education programs in the public schools, and the growing number of adults seeking basic skills, language, and literacy training. This need exists in all ethnic groups, and affects students from all socioeconomic backgrounds, whether or not high school graduates. The provision of remedial education is an essential and important mission of the community colleges.

(j) The success of the assessment, counseling, and placement system in the community colleges depends upon the ability of community college districts to provide a full range of courses of remedial instruction and related support services.

(k) The effectiveness of a program of remedial instruction in offering educational opportunity to underprepared students requires better coordination between adult education programs and community college programs, based upon locally negotiated agreements between those institutions for the provision of remedial instruction.

(l) Courses in English as a second language are vital to California's transition to a future as a multicultural society in which men and women of diverse backgrounds can share a common language, and to the opportunity for hundreds of thousands of recent immigrants to become participants in our society. The provision of English as a second language is an essential and important mission of the ommunity colleges.

(m) English as a second language is needed by students having enormously varied backgrounds as to place of origin and level of preexisting educational skills, and is therefore necessary as a means of applying their abilities in an English-speaking culture, rather than as an effort to provide remediation or retraining.

(n) Because the programs in English as a second language currently offered in the California Community Colleges and the adult schools are inadequate to meet the growing need in this state for those programs, it is essential that the community colleges seek to coordinate those programs with local adult education schools, if any.

(o) Adult literacy training and basic skills education are among the most difficult challenges facing California education in the next 15 years, based upon 1980 census figures showing that over four million adults in this state, and perhaps up to 25 percent of California's adult population, may be illiterate.

(p) Illiteracy prevents those Californians from reading newspapers, work manuals, and labels on cans of poison, and results in incalculable costs to this state in terms of lost economic productivity, higher welfare and public assistance expenditures, unemployment, crime, social isolation, and personal exclusion.

(q) Whereas democracy depends upon an informed and engaged population, the percentage of our citizens voting in elections is among the lowest of any democracy in the entire world, a fact that may be related to our rate of literacy, which is lower than that of any other industrial democracy.

(r) Programs in noncredit adult education, including adult literacy and citizenship programs conducted in the California Community Colleges are important and essential functions of that system. The relationship between those programs and similar programs offered by other institutions, governed by a variety of authorities, requires clarification.

(s) The Legislature should require that local agreements be entered into between various educational entities for the provision of adult literacy training and basic skills education.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature that the California Community Colleges be governed under an efficient and flexible system, providing adequate fiscal oversight and development of educational standards at the state level, and incentive to design programs meeting the particular needs of each district at the local level. The Legislature recognizes that the California Community Colleges is a statewide system with common standards and practices governing local initiative and control. The Legislature therefore finds and declares that clarifying and strengthening the respective roles of the Board of Governors and the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges will enhance the efficiency and flexibility of the system.

SEC. 4. The Legislature finds and declares the following with regard to faculty, administrators, and staff of the California Community Colleges:

(a) The California Community Colleges will face a severe hiring crisis in the next 15 years. It is estimated that fully 55 percent of the current full-time faculty will retire in that period. In this regard there are three major interlocking issues which must be considered:

(1) There must be guarantees that the full-time positions which become open because of the retirement of these faculty members not be divided into part-time positions that are less expensive to fill than the full-time positions. The division of full-time positions that become vacant into part-time positions is currently occurring all too frequently. The maintenance of a fully staffed, full-time faculty is an essential element of a coherent program.

(2) Competition for qualified persons is intense, from both other sectors of education and private business.

(3) Given the emerging turnover in faculty vacancies, the next 15 years represent the last major "window of opportunity" to significantly change the ethnic mix of the faculty during the next 30 years. It will be imperative for the faculty to be sympathetic and sensitive to cultural diversity in the colleges especially when the student body is continually changing. One means of ensuring this is for the faculty to be culturally balanced and more representative of the state's diversity.

(b) If the community colleges are to respond creatively to the challenges of the coming decades, they must have a strong and stable core of full-time faculty with long-term commitments to their colleges. There is proper concern about the effect of an overreliance upon part-time faculty, particularly in the core transfer curricula. Under current conditions, part-time faculty, no matter how talented as teachers, rarely participate in college programs, design departmental curricula, or advise and counsel students. Even if they were invited to do so by their colleagues, it may be impossible if they are simultaneously teaching at other colleges in order to make a decent living.

(c) However, in many areas the employment of part-time temporary faculty is both appropriate and necessary, especially in vocational programs where part-time faculty members may be practicing professionals in the field.

(d) Decisions regarding the appropriateness of part-time faculty should be made on the basis of academic and program needs, however, and not for financial savings. The Legislature's concern about abuses in this regard led to the establishment of the current statutory cap on part-time employment.

(e) There is widespread concern about the current tendency to fill "retiring" full-time positions with multiple part-time positions, and that there is a financial incentive to do so. Under current formulae, part-time faculty receive less money than do full-time faculty, and do not receive benefits. Thus, proposals concerning the status and conditions of part-time faculty will depend upon changes in the pay structure as well as the overall financing of the colleges.

(f) Changes in the governance of the California Community Colleges will affect, and be affected by, current collective bargaining agreements and the statutes governing those agreements, and that with regard to jurisdictional matters and questions of process, there can be considerable confusion regarding the relationship between collective bargaining agents, academic units organized through the colleges including departments and schools, and the academic senates.

(g) Community college instructors, recruited directly from graduate school or from some form of employment other than teaching, may not be prepared to deal effectively with the wide range of student abilities and attitudes found in community college classrooms. As larger numbers of students from many different cultural backgrounds and with significant English language and other deficiencies are enrolled, the problem will become more serious for both administrators and faculty. The proposed establishment of a student assessment, counseling, and placement program on each campus will also require additional training and assistance for both faculty and administrators.

(h) Professional development for faculty, support staff, student services staff, and administrators is vital. Further, the success of the assessment, counseling, and placement programs will depend upon the effectiveness of this training.

(i) The recruitment of faculty into the community colleges, and the maintaining of morale and enthusiasm among the faculty depends in large part upon the intellectual and personal environment within which faculty work. Much of that environment is created by their own authority over the substantive direction of the programs and courses in which they work, through the quality of their relationship with the college administration, and in the quality of their interactions with the communities of students they teach. At the same time, it is apparent that faculty morale comes from their engagement in the development of new and innovative programs, from their engagement in professional and discipline-based associations, and from an active, intellectual life as scholars and teachers.

(j) Community colleges have less resources available for faculty professional and intellectual development than do other segments of the system of higher education, and this disparity may become a substantial barrier to the future recruitment of quality faculty. Yet, faculty in the community colleges should be no less intellectually engaged than their colleagues in the other segments. Their primary commitment to teaching makes it imperative that they have a vibrant and rich intellectual life.

(k) The success of the assessment, counseling, and placement system in the California Community Colleges will depend upon the commitment and dedication of trained student services staff. The importance of their role stretches across all aspects of community college life—including: counseling, reading and computational assessment and evaluation, financial aid assistance, providing and directing tutorial services, providing outreach into the local community, providing information to continuing students, and assisting the faculty in designing and providing courses of study which meet the particular needs of very different students. It is essential that the college have adequate service staff, and that they be superbly trained, especially in view of the current diversity of student educational needs in the community colleges.

(l) The tenure system is an important prerequisite for the maintenance of academic freedom, continuity in academic and vocational programs, and development of a faculty committed to the long-term health of the community colleges. At the same time, the tenure system is a central part of the governance of the colleges. Thus, the determination of standards for tenure, procedures governing tenure, and the actual granting of tenure determine in large part the substantive direction of the colleges.

(m) The current tenure system lacks adequate participation by the faculty, provides an inadequate probationary period for the evaluation of permanent faculty, and does not provide uniform systemwide procedures for due process and grievance.

(n) It is a general purpose of this act to improve academic quality, and to that end the Legislature specifically intends to authorize more responsibility for faculty members in duties that are incidental to their primary professional duties. It is the intent of the Legislature that, in exercising these increased responsibilities, faculty members are not deprived of their status as employees under Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 3540) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code. It is also the intent of the Legislature that the exercise of this increased responsibility shall not make these faculty members managerial or supervisory employees, as those terms are defined in that chapter.

There has been a great deal of uncertainty as a result of the decision of the United States Supreme Court in National Labor Relations Board v. Yeshiva University, 444 U.S. 672, 63 L. Ed. 2d 115, regarding whether increased faculty involvement in institutional governance and decisionmaking might subject the faculty members to legal challenges in connection with their rights of collective bargaining. This act is intended to enable faculty members who perform the duties described in subdivision (e) of Section 87610.1 of the Education Code to avoid having to choose between collective bargaining and greater participation in these functions by ensuring that increased participation in the tenure system, which occurs as an outgrowth of this act, shall not subject faculty members to losing their status as employees under Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 3540) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(o) Any set of laws, regulations, directives, or guidelines regarding community college faculty and administrator qualifications, evaluation, hiring, or retention should promote the efforts of local community colleges to ensure that their faculty and administration consists of:

(1) Teachers who can teach and who are experts in the subject matter of their curriculum.

(2) Counselors, librarians, and other instructional and student service faculty who can foster college effectiveness and who are experts in the subject matter of their specialty.

(3) Administrators who can lead, organize, plan, and supervise; who understand the needs of faculty and the learning process; and who value institutional governance based upon a genuine sharing of responsibility with faculty colleagues.

(p) (1) The laws regulations, directives, or guidelines should help the community colleges ensure that the faculty and administrators they hire and retain are people who are sympathetic and sensitive to the racial and cultural diversity in the colleges, are themselves representative of that diversity, and are well prepared by training and temperament to respond effectively to the educational needs of all the special populations served by community colleges.

(2) All state and local policies, rules, and regulations regarding community college faculty and administrator qualifications, evaluation, hiring, or retention should strengthen faculty, administration, and board cooperation in matters related to those topics. They should also strengthen the role of the faculty as an authoritative, professional collegiate body.

(q) (1) In general, the appropriate focus of minimum qualifications is in helping the colleges to ensure that they will select faculty who are competent in subject matter and possess the basic academic preparation needed to work effectively at the college level. The minimum qualifications for all faculty should be the same except where the application of qualifications without differentiation would be clearly unreasonable or impractical.

(2) The minimum qualifications for administrators should help the colleges to ensure that they will select individuals who are competent to perform the kind of administrative responsibilities that administrators are normally required to assume, such as supervision, organizational planning, and budget development and administration, and who understand the needs of faculty and the learning process.

(r) (1) The pool of underrepresented individuals interested in faculty and administrative positions in the community colleges should be increased. Furthermore, practical and effective ways of finding and recruiting those individuals should be developed and maintained. The state's leadership in this effort is appropriate and urgently needed.

(2) The hiring process for administrators and faculty (both temporary and permanent) should be designed so that both faculty and administrators take real responsibility for meeting affirmative action goals and ensuring that affirmaive action considerations effectively influence hiring decisions.

(s) (1) No single approach to hiring faculty can guarantee attainment of the colleges' affirmative action goals and consistent selection of qualified individuals. Nevertheless, any hiring process adopted by a college should require the joint and cooperative exercise of responsibility by the faculty, administration, and board and should reflect the differing source of each participant's authority and the kind of responsibility that authority conveys.

(2) The governing board of a community college district derives its authority from statute and from its status as the entity holding the institution in trust for the benefit of the public. As a result, the governing board and the administrators it appoints have the principal legal and public responsibility for ensuring an effective hiring process.

(3) Faculty members derive their authority from their expertise as teachers and subject matter specialists and from their status as professionals. As a result, the faculty has an inherent professional responsibility in the development and implementation of policies and procedures governing the hiring process.

(4) Beyond requiring a joint and cooperative exercise of responsibility, the hiring process should be focused on ensuring that the community colleges will select teachers who can teach and who are experts in the subject matter of their curriculum; and counselors, librarians, and other instructional and student services faculty who can foster community college effectiveness and who are experts in the subject matter of their specialty. This means that the colleges may establish criteria for hiring that go well beyond the minimum qualifications set by regulation. The establishment of additional criteria of this sort should be expected and encouraged.

(5) The focus of the hiring process for administrators is slightly different from the focus in hiring teachers. In hiring teachers, the goal is to find people who can teach, but in hiring administrators the goal is to ensure that the community colleges will select administrators who are competent to perform the kind of administrative responsibilities that administrators are normally required to assume in the context of the operation and programs of the community colleges.

(t) The state should provide the community colleges with enough resources and a sufficiently stable funding environment to enable them to predict their staffing needs and to establish highly effective hiring processes. While the precise nature of the hiring process for faculty should be subject to local definition and control, each community college should, in a way that is appropriate to its circumstances, establish a hiring process that ensures that:

(1) Emphasis is placed on the responsibility of the faculty to ensure the quality of their faculty peers.

(2) Both faculty members and administrators participate effectively in all appropriate phases of the process.

(3) Positions to be filled are normally identified through a well defined, thoughtful, planning process.

(4) The time between the announcement of each position and the selection of a candidate for hire is long enough to allow a thorough, complete, and thoughtful search.

(5) Clear and complete job descriptions, including all job-related skills requirements and any additional qualifications recommended by the faculty when appropriate, are prepared for each position, and these job descriptions are reviewed before each position is announced, to ensure conformity with the community college's affirmative action and nondiscrimination commitments.

(6) All participants in the process are given appropriate training in affirmative action procedures and the affirmative action goals and timetables of the community college so that success in reaching those goals is better assured.

(7) Individuals, preferably minorities or women, who are knowledgeable about and responsible to the community college's affirmative action goals are included on all selection committees or similar groups.

(8) Final hiring decisions are, whenever reasonably possible, made during the regular academic year and promptly communicated to the faculty; the expectation that faculty recommendations regarding the hiring of faculty will normally be accepted is reinforced; and only in exceptional circumstances, and for compelling reasons communicated to the selection committee and to the president of the academic senate of the college, will someone be hired as a faculty member who has not been found to be among the best qualified by the faculty.

(u) The state should provide the community colleges with enough resources and a sufficiently stable funding environment to enable them to predict their staffing needs and to establish highly effective hiring processes. While the precise nature of the hiring process for administrators should be subject to local definition and control, each community college should, in a way that is appropriate to its circumstances, establish a hiring process which ensures that:

(1) Representatives of the faculty and other employees whose circumstances at work will be directly affected by the employment of the administrator participate effectively in all appropriate phases of the process.

(2) Positions to be filled are normally identified through a well defined, thoughtful, planning process.

(3) The time between the announcement of each position and the selection of a candidate for hire is long enough to allow a thorough, complete, and thoughtful search.

(4) Clear and complete job descriptions that include all job-related skills requirements are prepared for each position and these job descriptions are reviewed before each position is announced, to ensure conformity with the community college's affirmative action and nondiscrimination commitments.

(5) All participants in the process are given appropriate training in affirmative action procedures and goals and timetables of the community college, so that success in reaching those goals is better assured.

(6) Individuals, preferably minorities or women, who are knowledgeable about and responsive to the college's affirmative action goals are included on all selection committees or similar groups.

(7) Final hiring decisions are, whenever reasonably possible, made during the regular academic year and promptly communicated to the faculty and staff.

(v) (1) The evaluation process should promote professionalism, enhance performance, and be closely linked with staff development efforts.

(2) The evaluation process should be effective in yielding a genuinely useful and substantive assessment of performance. Among other things, this requires an articulation of clear, relevant criteria on which evaluations will be based.

(3) The evaluation process should be timely. This requires that evaluations be performed regularly at reasonable intervals.

(4) The specific purposes for which evaluations are conducted should be clear to everyone involved. This requires recognition that the principal purposes of the evaluation process are to recognize and acknowledge good performance, to enhance satisfactory performance and help employees who are performing satisfactorily further their own growth, to identify weak performance and assist employees in achieving needed improvement, and to document unsatisfactory performance.

(5) A faculty member's students, administrators, and peers should all contribute to his or her evaluation, but the faculty should, in the usual case, play a central role in the evaluation process and, together with appropriate administrators, assume principal responsibility for the effectiveness of the process.

(6) The procedures defined by negotiations should foster a joint and cooperative exercise of responsibility by the faculty, administration, and governing board of the community college and should reflect faculty and administrator expertise and authority in evaluating professional work as well as the governing board's legal and public responsibility for the process.

(w) Faculty tenure fosters academic freedom and should be maintained. For administrators, the need for job security justifies appointments of reasonable duration, but no one should obtain tenure or permanent status in an administrative position. A person should be granted tenure as a faculty member only after it has been determined through a process of evaluation that he or she is, and will likely continue to be, a positive asset to the community college. In other words, the award of tenure should be an affirmative act, rather than the result of default. The faculty's inherent professional reponsibility to ensure the quality of their faculty peers requires faculty review to be at the heart of the evaluation process leading to tenure decisions.

SEC. 4.5. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges be broadly and equitably representative of the general public and that appointments to the board of governors include adequate representation on the basis of sex and on the basis of the major racial, ethnic, and economic groups in the state.

SEC. 5. The Legislature finds and declares the following with regard to access to the California Community Colleges, and the importance and value of success to those who participate in the system:

(a) It is the responsibility of this state to provide to every Californian the opportunity to realize his or her intellectual, emotional, and vocational potential. To fulfill this responsibility, and to ensure that California enjoys a healthy economy and society, open access to a quality community college system must be affirmed for a diverse student population, which includes, but is not limited to, recent high school graduates, senior citizens, persons who are Caucasian, Black, Asian, and Hispanic, disabled men and women, persons at a variety of income levels, businessmen and businesswomen, single parents, women reentering the work force, high school dropouts, and persons with baccalaureate degrees.

(b) It is the joint responsibility of the student and the community college to realize the student's goals and aspirations, which often change during the educational experience and which include such diverse purposes as literacy training, English acquisition and development both for persons whose primary language is English and persons having other primary languages, vocational training, job reskilling, skills enhancement, and education oriented toward transfer to a four-year college or university.

(c) Open access to community colleges must be assured for all adults who can benefit from instruction, which access is meaningful only if supported by a system of assessment, counseling, and placement that assists students in identifying their talents and abilities, directs them to courses that meet their needs, and maintains standards designed to ensure their success.

SEC. 6. Section 66701 of the Education Code is amended to read:

66701. (a) Public community colleges shall offer instruction through but not beyond the second year of college. These institutions may grant the associate in arts and the associate in science degree.

(b) Authorized instruction in the community colleges shall include standard collegiate courses for transfer to other institutions, vocational and technical courses leading to or upgrading, or leading to and upgrading, employment, general or liberal arts courses, adult noncredit courses, and community services programs and courses. However, priorities in the instructional programs shall be as follows:

(1) The primary mission of the community colleges is the provision of rigorous, high quality degree and certificate curricula in lower division arts and sciences and in vocational and occupational fields.

(2) The provision of remedial instruction, English as a second language instruction, and support services which help students succeed at the postsecondary level are essential and important functions of the community colleges.

(3) The provision of adult noncredit education curricula in areas defined as being in the state's interest is an essential and important function of the community colleges.

(4) The provision of community services courses and programs is an authorized function of the community colleges so long as their provision is compatible with an institution's ability to meet its obligations in its primary missions.

SEC. 7. Chapter 9.2 (commencing with Section 66720) is added to Part 40 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 9.2. STUDENT TRANSFER

66720. The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, the Regents of the University of California, and the Trustees of the California State University, with appropriate consultation with the Academic Senates of the respective segments, shall jointly develop, maintain, and disseminate a common core curriculum in general education courses for the purposes of transfer. Any person who has successfully completed the transfer core curriculum, shall be deemed to have thereby completed all lower division general education requirements for the University of California and the California State University.

66721. Upon development of the transfer core curriculum pursuant to Section 66720, and upon any subsequent joint revision of that curriculum, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, the Regents of the University of California, and the Trustees of the California State University shall jointly cause the curriculum to be published and distributed to each public school in this state that provides instruction in any of the grades 7 to 12, inclusive, and to each community college in this state, with an emphasis on the communication of that information to each school or college having a high proportion of students who are members of one or more ethnic minorities. In addition, the Board of Governors shall distribute that transfer core curriculum to the State Board of Education, which shall apply that information to ensure, through its curriculum development activities, that public school pupils enrolled in any of the grades 9 to 12, inclusive, are aware of the academic requirements for preparation for higher education and may receive any necessary academic remediation in a timely manner.

66723. No provision of this chapter shall apply to the University of California except to the extent that the Regents of the University of California, by appropriate resolution, makes that provision applicable.

SEC. 8. Part 43.5 (commencing with Section 70900) is added to Division 7 of the Education Code, to read:

PART 43.5. THE CALIFORNIA COMMUNITY COLLEGES

70900. There is hereby created the California Community Colleges, a postsecondary education system consisting of community college districts heretofore and hereafter established pursuant to law and the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges. The board of governors shall carry out the functions specified in Section 70901 and local districts shall carry out the functions specified in Section 70902.

70901. (a) The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges shall provide leadership and direction in the continuing development of the California Community Colleges as an integral and effective element in the structure of public higher education in the state. The work of the board of governors shall at all times be directed to maintaining and continuing, to the maximum degree permissible, local authority and control in the administration of the California Community Colleges.

(b) Subject to, and in furtherance of, subdivision (a), and in consultation with community college districts and other interested parties as specified in subdivision (e), the board of governors shall provide general supervision over community college districts, and shall, in furtherance thereof, perform the following functions:

(1) Establish minimum standards as required by law, including, but not limited to, the following:

(A) Minimum standards to govern student academic standards relating to graduation requirements and probation, dismissal, and readmission policies.

(B) Minimum standards for the employment of academic and administrative staff in community colleges.

(C) Minimum standards for the formation of community colleges and districts.

(D) Minimum standards for credit and noncredit classes.

(E) Minimum standards governing procedures established by governing boards of community college districts to ensure faculty, staff, and students the right to participate effectively in district and college governance, and the opportunity to express their opinions at the campus level and to ensure that these opinions are given every reasonable consideration, and the right of academic senates to assume primary responsibility for making recommendations in the areas of curriculum and academic standards.

(2) Evaluate and issue annual reports on the fiscal and educational effectiveness of community college districts according to outcome measures cooperatively developed with those districts, and provide assistance when districts encounter severe management difficulties.

(3) Conduct necessary systemwide research on community colleges and provide appropriate information services, including, but not limited to, definitions for the purpose of uniform reporting, collection, compilation, and analysis of data for effective planning and coordination, and dissemination of information.

(4) Provide representation, advocacy, and accountability for the California Community Colleges before state and national legislative and executive agencies.

(5) Administer state support programs, both operational and capital outlay, and those federally supported programs for which the board of governors has responsibility pursuant to state or federal law. In so doing, the board of governors shall do the following:

(A) Annually prepare and adopt a proposed budget for the California Community Colleges. The proposed budget shall, at a minimum, identify the total revenue needs for serving educational needs within the mission, the amount to be expended for the state general apportionment, the amounts requested for various categorical programs established by law, the amounts requested for new programs and budget improvements, and the amount requested for systemwide administration.

The proposed budget for the California Community Colleges shall be submitted to the Department of Finance in accordance with established timelines for development of the annual Budget Bill.

(B) To the extent authorized by law, establish the method for determining and allocating the state general apportionment.

(C) Establish space and utilization standards for facility planning in order to determine eligibility for state funds for construction purposes.

(6) Establish minimum conditions entitling districts to receive state aid for support of community colleges. In so doing, the board of governors shall establish and carry out a periodic review of each community college district to determine whether it has met the minimum conditions prescribed by the board of governors.

(7) Coordinate and encourage interdistrict, regional, and statewide development of community college programs, facilities, and services.

(8) Facilitate articulation with other segments of higher education with secondary education.

(9) Review and approve comprehensive plans for each community college district. The plans shall be submitted to the board of governors by the governing board of each community college district.

(10) Review and approve all educational programs offered by community college districts, and all courses that are not offered as part of an educational program approved by the board of governors.

(11) Exercise general supervision over the formation of new community college districts and the reorganization of existing community college districts, including the approval or disapproval of plans therefor.

(12) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, be solely responsible for establishing, maintaining, revising, and updating, as necessary, the uniform budgeting and accounting structures and procedures for the California Community Colleges.

(13) Establish policies regarding interdistrict attendance of students.

(14) Advise and assist governing boards of community college districts on the implementation and interpretation of state and federal laws affecting community colleges.

(15) Carry out other functions as expressly provided by law.

(c) Subject to, and in furtherance of, subdivision (a), the board of governors shall have full authority to adopt rules and regulations necessary and proper to execute the functions specified in this section as well as other functions that the board of governors is expressly authorized by statute to regulate.

(d) Wherever in this section or any other statute a power is vested in the board of governors, the board of governors, by a majority vote, may adopt a rule delegating that power to the chancellor, or any officer, employee, or committee of the California Community Colleges, or community college district, as the board of governors may designate. However, the board of governors shall not delegate any power that is expressly made nondelegable by statute. Any rule delegating authority shall prescribe the limits of delegation.

(e) In performing the functions specified in this section, the board of governors shall establish and carry out a process for consultation with institutional representatives of community college districts so as to ensure their participation in the development and review of policy proposals. The consultation process shall also afford community college organizations, as well as interested individuals and parties, an opportunity to review and comment on proposed policy before it is adopted by the board of governors.

70901.5. (a) The board of governors shall establish procedures for the adoption of rules and regulations governing the California Community Colleges. Among other matters, the procedures shall implement the following requirements:

(1) Written notice of a proposed action shall be provided to each community college district and to all other interested parties and individuals, including the educational policy and fiscal committees of the Legislature and the Department of Finance, at least 45 days in advance of adoption. The regulations shall become effective no earlier than 30 days after adoption.

(2) The proposed regulations shall be accompanied by an estimate, prepared in accordance with instructions adopted by the Department of Finance, of the effect of the proposed regulations with regard to the costs or savings to any state agency, the cost of any state-mandated local program as governed by Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, any other costs or savings of local agencies, and the costs or savings in federal funding provided to state agencies.

(3) The board of governors shall ensure that all proposed regulations of the board meet the standards of "necessity," "authority," "clarity," "consistency," "reference," and "nonduplication," as those terms are defined in Section 11349 of the Government Code. A district governing board or any other interested party may challenge any proposed regulatory action regarding the application of these standards.

(4) Prior to the adoption of regulations, the board of governors shall consider and respond to all written and oral comments received during the comment period.

(5) The effective date for a regulation shall be suspended if, within 30 days after adoption by the board of governors, at least two-thirds of all governing boards vote, in open session, to disapprove the regulation. With respect to any regulation so disapproved, the board of governors shall provide at least 45 additional days for review, comment, and hearing, including at least one hearing before the board itself. After the additional period of review, comment, and hearing, the board may do any of the following:

(A) Reject or withdraw the regulation.

(B) Substantially amend the regulation to address the concerns raised during the additional review period, and then adopt the revised regulation. The regulation shall be treated as a newly adopted regulation, and shall go into effect in accordance with those procedures.

(C) Readopt the regulation as originally adopted, or with those nonsubstantive, technical amendments deemed necessary to clarify the intent of the original regulation. If the board of governors decides to readopt a regulation, with or without technical amendments, it shall also adopt a written declaration and determination regarding the specific state interests it has found necessary to protect by means of the specific language or requirements of the regulation. A readopted regulation may then be challenged pursuant to existing law in a court of competent jurisdiction, and shall not be subject to any further appeal within the California Community Colleges.

(6) As to any regulation which the Department of Finance determines would create a state-mandated local program cost, the board of governors shall not adopt the regulation until the Department of Finance has certified to the board of governors and to the Legislature that a source of funds is available to reimburse that cost.

(7) Any district or other interested party may propose a new regulation or challenge any existing regulation.

(b) Except as expressly provided by this section, and except as provided by resolution of the board of governors, the provisions of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code shall not apply to regulations adopted by the board of governors.

70902. (a) Every community college district shall be under the control of a board of trustees, which is referred to herein as the "governing board." The governing board of each community college district shall establish, maintain, operate, and govern one or more community colleges in accordance with law. In so doing, the governing board may initiate and carry on any program, activity, or may otherwise act in any manner that is not in conflict with or inconsistent with, or preempted by, any law and that is not in conflict with the purposes for which community college districts are established.

The governing board of each community college district shall establish rules and regulations not inconsistent with the regulations of the board of governors and the laws of this state for the government and operation of one or more community colleges in the district.

(b) In furtherance of the provisions of subdivision (a), the governing board of each community college district shall do all of the following:

(1) Establish policies for, and approve, current and long-range academic and facilities plans and programs and promote orderly growth and development of the community colleges within the district. In so doing, the governing board shall, as required by law, establish policies for, develop, and approve, comprehensive plans. The governing board shall submit the comprehensive plans to the board of governors for review and approval.

(2) Establish policies for and approve courses of instruction and educational programs. The educational programs shall be submitted to the board of governors for approval. Courses of instruction that are not offered in approved educational programs shall be submitted to the board of governors for approval. The governing board shall establish policies for, and approve, individual courses that are offered in approved educational programs without referral to the board of governors.

(3) Establish academic standards, probation and dismissal and readmission policies, and graduation requirements not inconsistent with the minimum standards adopted by the board of governors.

(4) Employ and assign all personnel not inconsistent with the minimum standards adopted by the board of governors and establish employment practices, salaries, and benefits for all employees not inconsistent with the laws of this state.

(5) To the extent authorized by law, determine and control the district's operational and capital outlay budgets. The district governing board shall determine the need for elections for override tax levies and bond measures and request that those elections be called.

(6) Manage and control district property. The governing board may contract for the procurement of goods and services as authorized by law.

(7) Establish procedures not inconsistent with minimum standards established by the board of governors to ensure faculty, staff, and students the opportunity to express their opinions at the campus level and to ensure that these opinions are given every reasonable consideration, and the right to participate effectively in district and college governance, and the right of academic senates to assume primary responsibility for making recommendations in the areas of curriculum and academic standards.

(8) Establish rules and regulations governing student conduct.

(9) Establish student fees as it is required to establish by law, and, in its discretion, fees as it is authorized to establish by law.

(10) In its discretion, receive and administer gifts, grants, and scholarships.

(11) Provide auxiliary services as deemed necessary to achieve the purposes of the community college.

(12) Within the framework provided by law, determine the district's academic calendar, including the holidays it will observe.

(13) Hold and convey property for the use and benefit of the district. The governing board may acquire by eminent domain any property necessary to carry out the powers or functions of the district.

(14) Participate in the consultation process established by the board of governors for the development and review of policy proposals.

(c) In carrying out the powers and duties specified in subdivision

(b) or other provisions of statute, the governing board of each community college district shall have full authority to adopt rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the regulations of the board of governors and the laws of this state, that are necessary and proper to executing these prescribed functions.

(d) Wherever in this section or any other statute a power is vested in the governing board, the governing board of a community college district, by majority vote, may adopt a rule delegating the power to the district's chief executive officer or any other employee or committee as the governing board may designate; provided, however, that the governing board shall not delegate any power that is expressly made nondelegable by statute. Any rule delegating authority shall prescribe the limits of the delegation.

SEC. 9. Section 71000 of the Education Code is amended to read:

71000. There is in the state government a Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, consisting of all of the following:

(a) Thirteen members, who are appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of two-thirds of the Senate. Of the members appointed by the Governor, two shall be current or former elected members of local community college district governing boards. The Governor shall appoint the current or former members of the governing board of a community college district for staggered six-year terms. The voting members who are current or former members of the governing board of a community college district shall first be appointed no later than January 15, 1990, and January 15, 1992, respectively.

(b) One voting student who is enrolled in a community college with a minimum of five semester units, or its equivalent, at the time of the appointment and throughout the period of his or her term of appointment, or until a replacement has been named. A student member shall be enrolled in a community college at least one semester prior to his or her appointment and shall meet and maintain the minimum standards of scholarship prescribed for community college students. The student member shall be appointed by the Governor for a one-year term commencing on June 1.

(c) Two voting tenured faculty members from a community college, who shall be appointed by the Governor for two-year terms. The Governor shall appoint each faculty member from a list of names of at least three persons furnished by the Academic Senate of the California Community Colleges. The first voting tenured faculty member appointed to the board shall occupy the seat on the board that is made available by the next full-term vacancy of a four-year term that exists after January 1, 1984. The first voting tenured faculty member appointed to the additional voting tenured faculty member seat on the board provided by the amendments to this section enacted by the Statutes of 1987 shall occupy the second seat on the board that is made available by the next full-term vacancies that exist after January 1, 1988. Thereafter, each seat shall be designated as a voting tenured faculty member seat and shall in the future be filled by a tenured faculty member from a community college pursuant to this section and Section 71003.

(d) Commencing with appointments made on or after January 1, 1990, all members of the board shall be appointed for staggered six-year terms, except in the case of the faculty appointments, which shall be two years, and the student appointment, which shall be one year, and the ex officio members, who shall serve during the period of their tenure in their respective state offices.

SEC. 9.5. Section 71001 of the Education Code is amended to read:

71001. (a) Except for the student member and the faculty member, the terms of office of the members of the board appointed by the Governor shall be as follows:

(1) To the positions expiring on December 1, 1985, the Governor shall appoint two persons whose terms shall expire on January 15, 1989.

(2) To the positions expiring on November 30, 1986, the Governor shall appoint three persons whose terms shall expire on January 15, 1988; three persons whose terms shall expire on January 15, 1990; and one person whose term shall expire on January 15, 1991.

(3) To the position expiring on January 2, 1987, the Governor shall appoint one person whose term shall expire on January 15, 1991.

(4) Commencing January 15, 1987, all terms of office of the members of the board, except the terms of the student member and the faculty members appointed by the Governor, shall be four years, and, commencing January 1, 1990, six years.

(b) Each term of office shall commence at the expiration of the preceding term.

(c) A member whose term has expired shall continue to discharge the duties of office until his or her successor is appointed by the Governor.

SEC. 10. Section 71020 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 71020 is added to the Education Code, to read:

71020. The board of governors shall develop and submit to the Governor, every three years, commencing July 1, 1989, an affirmative action paper concerning its own membership, providing the board's assessment of its role in statewide representation of minorities, women, and the disabled.

SEC. 11.5. Section 71020.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

71020.5. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to foster the creation, implementation, and phase-in of a comprehensive community college accountability system which describes the performance of community colleges in meeting the postsecondary educational needs of students. This educational and fiscal accountability system shall provide performance data on students, programs, and institutions.

It is further the intent of the Legislature that this accountability system assist all participants in the community college system, including students, faculty, staff, administrators, local governing boards, the chancellor, the state board of governors, the public, and other interested constituencies, in identifying the educational and fiscal strengths and weaknesses of colleges in order to improve educational quality in community colleges.

(b) The board of governors shall develop and implement a comprehensive community college educational and fiscal accountability system. In developing and implementing this system, the board of governors shall solicit consultation from institutional and organizational representatives of the California Community Colleges, including statewide faculty and staff organizations. At a minimum, the system shall:

(1) Be consistent with the Legislature's intent as expressed in this act, Chapter 136 of the Statutes of 1987, and Chapter 1465 of the Statutes of 1986.

(2) Draw from, and build upon, the system proposed in the report entitled "AB 3409 Community College Accountability Report," prepared pursuant to Chapter 1465 of the Statutes of 1986.

(3) Be designed to promote student success in community colleges.

(4) Define and measure, quantitatively and qualitatively, accountability information, including:

(A) Student access to community colleges.

(B) The extent to which the community college student body reflects proportionately the adult population of the state.

(C) Student transfer rates and programs.

(D) Academic standards and student achievement.

(E) Student goal satisfaction and success in courses and programs.

(F) Completion rates of courses and programs.

(G) Occupational preparation relative to state and local workforce needs and for entry-level employment, occupational advancement, and career changes of students.

(H) Adequacy of basic skills and English as a Second Language courses and instruction in preparing students to succeed in collegiate level work.

(I) Adequacy of and student satisfaction with student services.

(J) The extent to which the community college workforce reflects proportionately the adult population of the state.

(K) Fiscal conditions of community college districts.

(5) Be designed to streamline the use of multiple performance measures from appropriate sources of data, including, but not limited to, matriculation evaluations, categorical program evaluations, the community college management information system, and other existing data collection and evaluation systems.

(6) Provide feedback to individual colleges in order to improve access to community colleges, student performance, and educational programs where needed.

(7) Produce a published report of community college accountability.

(c) The Legislature finds and declares that successful implementation of a comprehensive educational and fiscal accountability system is, in part, dependent upon an adequate data collection and reporting system. The accountability system developed and implemented pursuant to this section shall be phased in, to the extent necessary, with the funding and local implementation of the community college management information system.

(d) The chancellor shall provide a written report on the accountability system developed pursuant to this section to the Legislature and Governor on or before July 1, 1990. This report shall not only delineate the accountability system and how it would be phased in, but shall differentiate between those portions of the system which can be implemented without imposing additional mandates on community college districts and those which can be implemented when additional funds are provided to reimburse the mandates on districts.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the accountability system be implemented over a three-year period, beginning not later than the 1991–92 academic year, which will provide student performance, program effectiveness, and institutional effectiveness information so that the accountability system, when fully implemented, will encompass the full range of information for effective decisionmaking, planning and budgeting.

(a) Career resource and placement centers having the purposes of maintaining information on vocational, technological and educational opportunities, and facilitating career employment.

(b) Programs to instruct appropriate staff and faculty members in the performance of matriculation services.

(c) Orientation programs designed to explain to new students academic requirements and other regulations of the community college, and the available student support services.

(d) A publicity program designed to inform the community served by the community college that the purposes of the mandatory matriculation process are intended to facilitate, rather than restrict, student access to community college instruction, and to enhance each student's awareness of his or her abilities, skills, and potential.

(e) A publicity program designed to inform high schools in the community served by the community college, through orientation programs and other means, of student skill levels, and of available student support services.

SEC. 19. Section 84381 of the Education Code is amended to read:

84381. There is hereby created in the State Treasury the Community College Fund for Instructional Improvement. The fund shall consist of a revolving loan program and a direct grant program to support alternative educational programs and services within or on behalf of the California Community Colleges, including:

(a) Nontraditional forms, content, and methods of instruction, including, but not limited to, the following.

(1) Instructional programs which involve internships and experiential learning opportunities.

(2) Individualized instructional programs which require student development of learning objectives through learning contracts.

(3) Instructional programs which focus on the development of interpersonal skills.

(4) Instructional programs involving independent study.

(b) Programs for improving teaching abilities of faculty members.

(c) Programs addressing special learning needs of educationally disadvantaged students.

(d) Educational services for new clientele, including older, working adults.

(e) Efforts to improve traditional instructional programs.

(f) Programs for the improvement of the intellectual development of faculty and staff, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Intersegmental summer programs including research projects and seminars.

(2) College programs bringing visiting scholars to local districts.

(3) Interdisciplinary programs involving local noncollege institutions in the arts and sciences.

(4) Intersegmental research and public information projects on topics of special concern to rural and urban California regarding the environment, social history, and culture.

(5) Summer "bridge" programs for the transition period into college life.

SEC. 20. Section 84713 of the Education Code is amended to read:

84713. This article shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 21. Section 84750 is added to the Education Code, to read:

84750. The board of governors, in accordance with the statewide requirements contained in subdivisions (a) to (j), inclusive, and in consultation with institutional representatives of the California Community Colleges and statewide faculty and staff organizations, so as to ensure their participation in the development and review of policy proposals, shall develop criteria and standards for the purposes of making the annual budget request for the California Community Colleges to the Governor and the Legislature, and for the purpose of allocating the state general apportionment revenues, beginning with the budget request for the 1991–92 fiscal year.

In developing the criteria and standards, the board of governors shall utilize and strongly consider the guidelines and work products of the Task Force on Community College Financing as established pursuant to Chapter 1465 of the Statutes of 1986, and shall complete the development of these criteria and standards, accompanied by the necessary procedures, processes, and formulas for utilizing its criteria and standards, by March 1, 1990, and shall submit on or before that date a report on these items to the Legislature and the Governor.

The board of governors shall develop the criteria and standards within the following statewide minimum requirements:

(a) The calculations of each community college district's revenue level for each fiscal year shall be based on the level of general apportionment revenues (state and local) the district received for the prior year plus any amount attributed to a deficit of minimum workload growth, with revenue adjustments being made for increases or decreases in workload, for program improvement as authorized by this section or by any other provision of law, for inflation, and for other purposes authorized by law.

(b) (1) For credit instruction, the funding mechanism developed pursuant to this section shall recognize the needs among the major categories of operation of community colleges, with categories established for instruction, instructional services and libraries, student services, maintenance and operations, and institutional support.

(2) The board of governors may propose to the Legislature, for enactment by statute, other cost categories when adequate data exist.

(3) Funding for noncredit classes shall be determined as follows:

(A) The preliminary amount per noncredit full-time equivalent student (FTES) for 1991–92 shall be equal to the comparable amount for 1990–91 with increases corresponding to the cost of living adjustment (COLA) specified in subdivision (e) and corresponding to any program improvement provided to the maintenance and operations category for 1991–92.

(B) Funds for maintenance and operations shall be included in the funds derived under paragraph (4) of subdivision (c).

(C) Funds for institutional support will be derived as part of the computation under paragraph (5) of subdivison (c).

(D) From the preliminary amount described in subparagraph (A), a deduction shall be made corresponding to the amounts derived in subparagraphs (B) and (C), and the remainder shall be the funded amount per noncredit FTES for 1991–92.

(E) Changes in noncredit FTES shall result in adjustments to revenues as follows:

(i) Increases in noncredit FTES shall result in an increase in revenues in the year of the increase and at the average rate per noncredit FTES.

(ii) Decreases in noncredit FTES shall result in a revenue reduction as follows:

(I) District revenue shall be adjusted at the average rate per noncredit FTES.

(II) Revenue adjustments shall be over a three-year period beginning in the year following the initial year of decrease in noncredit FTES.

(iii) Districts shall be entitled to restore any reductions in apportionment revenue due to decrease in noncredit FTES during the three years following the initial year of decrease in noncredit FTES if there is a subsequent increase in FTES.

(4) Except as otherwise provided by statute, current categorical programs providing direct services to students, including extended opportunity programs and services, and disabled students programs and services, shall continue to be funded separately through the annual Budget Act, and shall not be assumed under budget formulas of program-based funding.

(5) District revenues shall be determined based on systemwide funding standards within the categories, and revenue adjustments shall occur based on distinct measures of workload applicable to each category.

(c) Workload measures applicable to each category shall be established with the following measures to be provided:

(1) For credit instruction, the workload measure shall be the credit FTES. Changes in credit FTES shall result in adjustments in revenues as follows:

(A) Increases in FTES shall result in an increase in revenues in the year of the increase and at the statewide average per FTES.

(B) Decreases in FTES shall result in a revenue reduction as follows:

(i) High revenue districts (those at the statewide average or higher) shall be adjusted at the statewide average per FTES.

(ii) Low revenue districts (those below the statewide average) shall be adjusted at one-half of the district's average per FTES.

(iii) Revenue adjustments shall be made over a three-year period beginning in the year following the initial year of decrease in FTES.

(C) Districts shall be entitled to restore any reductions in apportionment revenue due to decrease in FTES during the three years following the initial year of decrease in FTES if there is a subsequent increase in FTES.

(2) For instructional services and libraries, the workload measure shall be the credit FTES. Changes in credit FTES with respect to instructional services and libraries shall result in adjustments to revenues as follows:

(A) Increases in FTES shall result in an increase in revenues in the year of the increase and at the statewide average rate per FTES.

(B) Decreases in FTES shall result in a revenue reduction as follows:

(i) High revenue districts (those at the statewide average or higher) shall be adjusted at the full amount of the statewide average per FTES.

(ii) Low revenue districts (those below the statewide average) shall be adjusted at one-half of the district's average per FTES.

(iii) Revenue adjustments shall be made over a three-year period beginning in the year following the initial year of decrease in FTES.

(C) Districts shall be entitled to restore any reductions in apportionment revenue due to decreases in FTES during the three years following the initial year of decreases in FTES if there is a subsequent increase in FTES.

(3) For student services, the workload measure shall be based on the numbers of credit students enrolled (headcount).

Changes in headcount shall result in adjustments to revenues as follows:

(A) Increases in headcount shall result in an increase in revenues in the year of the increase at the statewide average per headcount.

(B) Decreases in headcount shall result in a revenue reduction as follows:

(i) High revenue districts (those at the statewide average or higher) shall be adjusted at the full amount of the statewide average per headcount.

(ii) Low revenue districts (those below the statewide average) shall be adjusted at one-half of the district's average per headcount.

(iii) Revenue adjustments shall be made over a three-year period beginning in the year following the initial year of decrease in headcount.

(C) Districts shall be entitled to restore any reductions in apportionment revenue due to decrease in headcount during the three years following the initial year of decrease in headcount if there is a subsequent increase in headcount.

(4) For maintenance and operations, the workload measure shall be based on the number of square feet of owned or leased facilities. Changes in the number of square feet shall be adjusted as follows:

(A) Increases in the number of square feet shall result in an increase in revenue in the year that the increase occurs and at the average per square foot.

(B) Decreases in the number of square feet shall result in a decrease in revenue beginning July 1 of the first full year in which the square feet are no longer owned or leased and at the average rate per square foot.

(5) For institutional support, a single fixed percentage which shall apply to all districts shall be established based on the pattern from the most recent data. The percentage shall be obtained from statewide data by comparing expenditures for this category with the total revenue for all five categories.

(d) Funding standards, subject to the conditions and criteria of this section, shall be established by the board for the various categories of operation established pursuant to subdivision (b). In consultation as required by subdivision (e) of Section 70901, the board of governors shall annually request program improvement moneys to assist districts in meeting these standards.

(e) Annual revenue adjustments shall be made to reflect cost changes, using the Implicit Price Deflator for State and Local Government Purchases of Goods and Services for the United States as published by the United States Department of Commerce, and using the ratio for the fourth calendar quarter of the latest available year to the fourth calendar quarter of the prior year rounded up to the next hundredth.

(f) An adjustment for economies of scale for districts and colleges shall be provided.

(g) The statewide increase in workload of FTES and headcount shall be, at a minimum, the rate of change of the adult population as determined by the Department of Finance, and may be increased through the budget process to reflect such other factors as statewide priorities, the unemployment rate, and the number of students graduating from California high schools. The allocation of changes on a district-by-district basis shall be determined by the board of governors.

(h) For fiscal year 1991–92, all districts shall receive at least the amount of revenue to which they would have been entitled pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 84700) of Chapter 5 of Part 50. Thereafter, allocations shall be made pursuant to this section, as implemented by the board of governors pursuant to the annual State Budget.

(i) Except as specifically provided by statute, regulations of the board of governors for determining and allocating the state general apportionment to the community colleges shall not require district governing boards to expend the allocated revenues in specified categories of operation or according to the workload measures developed by the board of governors.

(j) As used in this section:

(1) "Criteria" means the definitions of elements of institutional practice or activity to be included in the categories of operation of community college districts.

(2) "Program improvement" means an increase in revenue which is allocated to all districts to fund standards adopted pursuant to subdivision (d). Program improvement also means an increase in revenue allocated to low revenue districts to bring them closer to the statewide average.

(3) "Standard" means the appropriate level of service in a category of operation of the community college districts.

SEC. 21.7. Section 84755 is added to the Education Code, to read:

84755. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that program-based funding, once implemented, will more adequately and accountably fund the costs of providing quality community college education. Given that program-based funding will not be implemented until fiscal year 1991–92, given that community colleges will be entering a period of major reform and incurrence of new state mandates commencing in January 1989, and given that community colleges will be entering this period of reform having lost purchasing power since the 1977–78 fiscal year, the Legislature recognizes the need to create a transitional funding mechanism for program improvement and mandate funding that can operate until program-based funding is implemented.

(b) For the purpose of improving the quality of community college educational programs and services, for the purpose of reimbursing state-mandated local program costs imposed by this act, and for the purposes of initially implementing specified reforms, the board of governors shall, from amounts appropriated for purposes of this section, allocate program improvement revenues to each district on the basis of an amount per unit of average daily attendance generated in the 1987–88 fiscal year. However, this amount shall be increased or decreased to provide for equalization in a manner determined by the Board of Governors, consistent with the provisions of Sections 84703 to 84705, inclusive.

Each community college district shall use its allocation to initially reimburse state-mandated local program costs, and then to implement specified reforms and make authorized program and service improvements as follows:

(1) Developing articulated programs provided for in Section 70 of Assembly Bill 1725 of the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature with school districts and campuses of the University of California and California State University.

(2) Applying minimum qualifications to all newly hired faculty and administrators, including candidates for these positions as required by Section 87356.

(3) Developing and administering a process for waiver of minimum qualifications as required by Section 87359.

(4) Establishing and applying local hiring criteria as required by Section 87360.

(5) Establishing and applying faculty service areas and competency criteria as required by Sections 87743 to 87743.5, inclusive.

(6) Evaluating temporary employees, instituting peer review evaluation, and widely distributing evaluation procedures as required by Section 87663.

(7) Establishing and applying new processes for tenure evaluation required by Section 87610.1.

(8) Establishing and applying the tenure denial grievance procedure required by Section 87610.1.

(9) Establishing and applying a process for moving administrators into faculty positions as required by Sections 87454 to 87458, inclusive.

(10) Publishing and distributing a report on the affirmative action success rate as required by Section 87102.

(11) Improving instruction by reducing the ratio of full-time equivalent students to full-time equivalent instructors.

(12) Improving instruction by increasing the hiring of full-time instructors and limiting the practice of hiring part-time instructors.

(13) Augmenting budgets for college libraries and learning resources.

(14) Augmenting budgets for plant maintenance and operations.

(15) Adding new courses or programs to serve community need.

(16) Making progress towards affirmative action goals and timetables established by the district.

(17) Developing and maintaining programs and services authorized by Section 78212.5.

(18) Augmenting budgets for student services in the areas of greatest need.

(19) Providing for release time for faculty and staff as deemed appropriate by community college district governing boards, to enable faculty and staff participation in implementing reforms.

(c) Except as provided by Section 87482.6, and except as necessary to reimburse the costs of new state mandates, district governing boards shall have full authority to expend program improvement allocations for any or all of the authorized purposes specified in subdivision (b).

(d) As required by the board of governors, the governing board of each community college district shall submit to the board of governors a plan for using the resources allocated pursuant to this section. The board of governors shall review each plan to ensure that proposed expenditures are consistent with the listing of authorized expenditures provided in this section, and the board of governors shall approve all plans to the full extent that expenditures are authorized by this section. To the extent that a community college district expends its program improvement allocation consistent with its plan, the board of governors shall include the district's allocation as part of the district's base budget for subsequent years.

(e) The board of governors, through the annual systemwide budget submitted pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 70901, shall request necessary resources for the purposes of this section. It is the intent of the Legislature that the appropriation and allocation of program improvement money not otherwise provided pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section shall be accomplished through the annual state budget process beginning with the 1989–90 fiscal year. After June 30, 1991, if Section 84750 is implemented, it is the intent of the Legislature to fund the ongoing operations of community college districts pursuant to the provisions of Section 84750.

SEC. 22. Section 87001 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87001. The board of governors shall adopt regulations defining positions subject to minimum qualifications as set forth in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c). Unless and until amended pursuant to Section 87357, the regulations shall initially establish the definitions as the following:

(a) "Administrator" means any person employed by the governing board of a community college district in a supervisory or management position as defined in Article 5 (commencing with Section 3540) of Chapter 10.7 of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(b) "Instructional or student services administrator" means an administrator who is employed in a position designated by the governing board of the district as having direct responsibility for supervising the operation of or formulating policy regarding the instructional or student services program of the college or district. Instructional and student services administrators include, but are not limited to, chancellors, presidents, and instructional or student services managers.

(c) "Faculty" means those employees of a community college district who are employed in positions that are not designed as supervisory or management for the purposes of Article 5 (commencing with Section 3540) of Chapter 10.7 of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code and for which minimum qualifications for hire have been specified in the regulations of the board of governors adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 87356. Faculty include, but are not limited to, instructors, librarians, counselors, community college health services professionals, handicapped student programs and services professionals, extended opportunity programs and services professionals, and individuals employed to perform a service that, before July 1, 1990, required nonsupervisorial, nonmanagement certification qualifications.

SEC. 23. Section 87102 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87102. (a) The governing board of each community college district shall periodically submit, to the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges an affirmation of compliance with the provisions of this article. The affirmative action employment program shall have goals that ensure participation in, and commitment to, the program by district personnel, and timetables, for its implementation. The affirmative action plan shall include steps that the district will take in meeting and improving hiring goals for both full-time faculty and part-time faculty pursuant to Section 87482.6, and the development of the plan shall be a condition for receipt of allowances pursuant to that section.

The governing board of each community college district shall be held accountable pursuant to this article and other applicable provisions of law for the success or failure of its affirmative action employment program. The plans shall be a public record within the meaning of the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

(b) The governing board of each community college district shall publish and distribute a record of the success rate of measurable progress, with respect to its goals and timetables, in hiring employees through its affirmative action employment program. This publication shall be a public record within the meaning of the California Public Records Act, and shall include data and information specified by the board of governors.

SEC. 24. Section 87104 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87104. (a) The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, out of funds appropriated for these purposes, (1) shall provide assistance to local community colleges in adopting and maintaining high-quality affirmative action programs; (2) report to the Legislature regarding the number of districts which have adopted and are maintaining affirmative action programs, including the effectiveness of the programs in meeting the intent of this article; (3) develop and disseminate to public community college districts guidelines to assist these agencies in developing and implementing affirmative action employment programs; and (4) shall establish a technical assistance team to review the affirmative action plan of each community college district which fails to make measurable progress in meeting the goals and timetables of its adopted plan. The technical assistance team shall recommend appropriate actions to assure reasonable progress in improving success rates. The board of governors shall prescribe those conditions necessary to assure reasonable progress and otherwise meet the legal requirements of affirmative action. The conditions may include the withholding of allowances made pursuant to Sections 87482.6 and 87107.

(b) The board of governors shall establish, by July 1, 1989, within the chancellor's office or through other means as deemed necessary, a major service function to assist community college districts in identifying, locating, and recruiting qualified members of underrepresented groups, and in establishing and maintaining effective affirmative action hiring procedures.

(c) The board of governors shall, by March 15, 1989, develop and adopt a systemwide plan for strengthening faculty and staff affirmative action policies and programs in the California Community Colleges.

SEC. 25. Section 87107 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87107. (a) There is hereby created in the State Treasury a fund which shall be known as the Faculty and Staff Diversity Fund. The money in the fund shall be available to the board of governors upon appropriation by the Legislature for the purpose of enabling the California Community Colleges as a system to address the goal that by the year 2005 the system's work force will reflect proportionately the adult population of the state. For the purpose of administering this fund, the board of governors shall develop and apply availability data and factors for measuring district progress in contributing to this goal for the system. Also for the purpose of administering this fund, it is the intent of the Legislature that the board of governors take the steps which are necessary to reach the goal that by fiscal year 1992–93, 30 percent of all new hires in the California Community Colleges as a system will be ethnic minorities.

(b) By December 1, 1993, the board of governors shall report upon and assess the extent to which the California Community Colleges as a system have met or begun to meet the goals specified in this section. The report shall include conclusions regarding any necessary revisions to these goals. Unless provided otherwise by the Legislature by statute, the board of governors may, on or after September 30, 1994, adopt regulations to revise these goals.

(c) The board of governors shall utilize up to 25 percent of the fund to do all of the following:

(1) Reimburse districts for the costs of publishing, distributing, and reporting affirmative action success rates as provided in Section 87102.

(2) Reimburse districts for the cost of preparing and updating affirmative action plans.

(3) Carry out the assistance, service, monitoring, and compliance functions specified in Section 87104.

(d) The remainder of the fund shall be allocated to districts, in accordance with regulations of the board of governors, to provide for extended outreach and recruitment of underrepresented groups, for incentives to hire members of underrepresented groups, for in-service training and for other related staff diversity programs.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature that the board of governors, in administering this fund, shall, pursuant to the provisions of this article, give funding priority and shall afford flexibility and discretion in the use of these funds to districts which have made or are making reasonable progress in contributing to the achievement of the goals of this fund.

SEC. 26. Article 5 (commencing with Section 87150) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 51 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 5. Community College Faculty and Staff Development Fund

87150. There is hereby created in the State Treasury the Community College Faculty and Staff Development Fund, to be administered by the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, the purpose of which is to provide state general funds to community colleges for supporting locally developed and implemented faculty and staff development programs.

87151. The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges shall annually allocate funds appropriated for the purposes of this article to each community college district whose chief executive officer has submitted to the chancellor an affidavit which includes:

(a) A statement that each campus within the district has an advisory committee, composed of administrators, faculty, and staff representatives, which has assisted in the assessment of the faculty and staff development needs and in the design of the plan to meet those needs.

(b) A campus human development resources plan has been completed for the current and subsequent fiscal years.

(c) A report of the actual expenditures for faculty and staff development for the preceding year.

87152. (a) The initial allocation to each district, from funds appropriated by the Legislature therefor, shall be an amount equivalent to one-half of one percent of the fiscal year revenues, as defined by Section 84700, received by the district, for the 1987–88 fiscal year.

(b) In subsequent fiscal years, no district shall receive an allocation greater than 2 percent of its fiscal year revenues, as defined in Section 84700, for the prior fiscal year.

87153. The authorized uses of funds allocated under this article shall include all of the following:

(a) Improvement of teaching.

(b) Maintenance of current academic and technical knowledge and skills.

(c) In-service training for vocational education and employment preparation programs.

(d) Retraining to meet changing institutional needs.

(e) Intersegmental exchange programs.

(f) Development of innovations in instructional and administrative techniques and program effectiveness.

(g) Computer and technological proficiency programs.

(h) Courses and training implementing affirmative action and upward mobility programs.

(i) Other activities determined to be related to educational and professional development pursuant to criteria established by the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, including, but not necessarily limited to, programs designed to develop self-esteem.

87154. This article shall be operative during any fiscal year only if funds are provided therefor in the annual Budget Act for that fiscal year or other legislation.

SEC. 27. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 87200) of Part 51 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 28. Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 87350) is added to Part 51 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2.5. QUALIFICATIONS FOR COMMUNITY COLLEGE PERSONNEL

Article 1. General Provisions

87350. The plan for a new mechanism of faculty qualifications being developed by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges pursuant to Chapter 1465 of the Statutes of 1986 shall include all of the following:

(a) A transition provision which would grandfather existing bargaining unit definitions.

(b) Consideration of projected California demographics.

(c) Consideration of affirmative action policies and programs.

Article 2. Minimum Qualifications and Hiring Criteria

87355. Any person employed under a credential as of June 30, 1990, including an instructor, librarian, counselor, student personnel worker, supervisor, administrator, or chief administrative officer, shall be entitled to serve under the terms of that credential until it terminates, and during the period the credential is effective, shall not be required to meet the minimum qualifications applicable after July 1, 1990. The board of governors shall adopt regulations as necessary to implement this exemption within 120 days of the effective date of this act.

(1) Possession of a master's degree from an accredited institution, or equivalent foreign degree, in the discipline of the faculty member's assignment.

(2) Possession of a master's degree from an accredited institution, or equivalent foreign degree, in a discipline reasonably related to the faculty member's assignment and possession of a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution, or equivalent foreign degree, in the discipline of the faculty member's assignment.

(3) For faculty assigned to teach courses in disciplines where the master's degree is not generally expected or available, which are, generally, disciplines in specialized technical, trade, or industrial fields, either of the following:

(A) Possession of a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution, or equivalent foreign degree, in a discipline reasonably related to the faculty member's assignment, plus two years of professional experience, plus appropriate certification to practice or licensure or its equivalent, if available.

(B) Possession of an associate degree from an accredited institution in a discipline reasonably related to the faculty member's assignment, plus six years of professional experience, plus appropriate certification to practice or licensure or its equivalent, if available.

(b) The board of governors shall adopt regulations establishing appropriate minimum qualifications for extended opportunity programs and services workers, pursuant to Section 69648.7.

(c) The board of governors shall adopt regulations establishing appropriate minimum qualifications for handicapped student programs and services workers, pursuant to Section 78440.5.

(d) The board of governors shall adopt regulations to establish and maintain the minimum qualifications for hire as an instructional or student services administrator. Unless and until amended pursuant to the process described in Section 87357, the regulations shall establish the minimum qualifications for hire as an instructional or student services administrator as all of the following:

(1) Possession of a master's degree.

(2) One year of formal training, internship, or leadership experience reasonably related to the administrator's administrative assignment, which may, but need not be, concurrent with the required full-time service.

(e) The Legislature finds and declares that this section does not create a state-mandated local program cost because compensation of faculty will continue to be determined through the collective bargaining process or meet and confer sessions.

87357. (a) In establishing and maintaining minimum qualifications pursuant to Section 87356, the board of governors shall do all of the following:

(1) With regard to minimum qualifications for faculty, consult with, and rely primarily on the advice and judgment of, the statewide Academic Senate, and with regard to minimum qualifications for instructional or student service administrators, consult with, and rely primarily on the advice and judgment of, an appropriate statewide organization of administrators. In either case, the board of governors shall provide a reasonable opportunity for comment by other statewide representative groups.

(2) The board of governors shall establish a process to review at least every three years the continued appropriateness of the minimum qualifications, and the adequacy of the means by which they are administered. The process shall provide for the appointment of a representative group of community college faculty, administrators, students, and trustees to conduct or otherwise assist in the review, including particularly, representatives of academic senates, collective bargaining organizations, and statewide faculty associations. In addition, the group shall be broadly representative of academic and vocational programs in the curriculum from both urban and rural districts, and representative of ethnic minority communities.

(b) The board of governors, relying primarily upon the advice and judgment of the statewide Academic Senate, shall prescribe by regulation a working definition of the term "discipline" and shall prepare and maintain a list of disciplines that are "reasonably related" to one another, as that phrase is used in the minimum qualifications. The initial list shall be distributed to the community college districts by July 1, 1989, for their use in applying the minimum qualifications for hire.

In formulating advice and recommendations to the board of governors regarding the definition of the term "discipline," the statewide Academic Senate shall consult with appropriate statewide organizations representing administrators and faculty collective bargaining agents. The statewide Academic Senate shall incorporate the advice of those groups into its recommendations to the board of governors, particularly as it relates to the practical ramifications of any proposed definition of the term "discipline" on issues of reassignment, transfer, and reduction in force.

The board of governors, relying primarily upon the advice and judgment of the statewide Academic Senate, shall prepare and maintain a list of disciplines in which the master's degree is not generally expected or available. The initial list shall be distributed to the community college districts by July 1, 1989, for their use in applying the minimum qualifications for hire.

87358. The board of governors shall periodically designate a team of community college faculty, administrators, and trustees to review each community college district's application of minimum qualifications to faculty and administrators.

87359. The board of governors shall adopt regulations setting forth a process authorizing local governing boards to employ faculty members, instructional administrators, and student services administrators who do not meet the applicable minimum qualifications specified in the regulations adopted by the board pursuant to Section 87356. Unless and until amended pursuant to the process described in Section 87357, the regulations shall require all of the following:

(a) No one may be hired to serve as a community college faculty member, instructional administrator, or student services administrator under the authority granted by the regulations unless the governing board determines that he or she possesses qualifications that are at least equivalent to the minimum qualifications specified in regulations of the board adopted pursuant to Section 87356. The criteria used by the governing board in making the determination shall be reflected in the governing board's action employing the individual.

(b) The process, as well as criteria and standards by which the governing board reaches its determinations, shall be developed and agreed upon jointly by representatives of the governing board and the academic senate, and approved by the governing board. The agreed upon process shall include reasonable procedures to ensure that the governing board relies primarily upon the advice and judgment of the academic senate to determine that each individual employed under the authority granted by the regulations possesses qualifications that are at least equivalent to the applicable minimum qualifications specified in regulations adopted by the board of governors. The process shall further require that the governing board provide the academic senate with an opportunity to present its views to the governing board before the board makes a determination; and that the written record of the decision, including the views of the academic senate, shall be available for review pursuant to Section 87358.

(c) Until a joint agreement is reached and approved pursuant to subdivision (b), the district process in existence on January 1, 1989, shall remain in effect.

87359.5. By May 1, 1989, the board of governors shall have reviewed or contracted for review of, the job relevance of the requirements of Sections 87408, 87408.5, 87408.6, and any other physical fitness tests or examinations, and other conditions of employment, applicable to community college personnel.

Article 3. Hiring Criteria

87360. (a) In establishing hiring criteria for faculty and administrators, district governing boards shall, no later than July 1, 1990, develop criteria that include a sensitivity to and understanding of the diverse academic, socioeconomic, cultural, disability, and ethnic backgrounds of community college students.

(b) No later than July 1, 1990, hiring criteria, policies, and procedures for new faculty members shall be developed and agreed upon jointly by representatives of the governing board, and the academic senate, and approved by the governing board.

(c) Until a joint agreement is reached and approved pursuant to subdivision (b), the existing district process in existence on January 1, 1989, shall remain in effect.

SEC. 29. Section 87454 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87454. A tenured employee, when assigned from a faculty position to an administrative position, or assigned any special or other type of work, or given special classification or designation, shall retain his or her status as a tenured faculty member.

SEC. 30. Section 87455 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 31. Section 87456 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 32. Section 87457 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87457. Whenever a person employed in an administrative position is assigned to a faculty position, the governing board of the community college district shall give the employee, when requested by him or her, a written statement of the reasons for the transfer.

SEC. 33. Section 87458 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 34. Section 87458 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87458. A person employed in an administrative position that is not part of the classified service, who has not previously acquired tenured status as a faculty member in the same district, shall have the right to become a first year probationary faculty member once his or her administrative assignment expires or is terminated if all of the following apply:

(a) The process by which the governing board reaches the determination shall be developed and agreed upon jointly by representatives of the governing board and the academic senate, and approved by the governing board. The agreed upon process shall include reasonable procedures to ensure that the governing board relies primarily upon the advice and judgment of the academic senate to determine that the administrator possesses the minimum qualifications for employment as a faculty member. The process shall further require that the governing board provide the academic senate with an opportunity to present its views to the governing board before the board makes a determination; and that the written record of the decision, including the views of the academic senate, shall be available for review pursuant to Section 87358.

(b) Until a joint agreement is reached pursuant to subdivision (a), the district process in existence on January 1, 1989, shall remain in effect.

(c) The administrator has completed at least two years of satisfactory service, including any time previously served as a faculty member, in the district.

(d) The termination of the administrative assignment is for any reason other than dismissal for cause.

SEC. 35. Section 87482.6 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87482.6. (a) Until the provisions of Section 84750 regarding program-based funding are implemented by a standard adopted by the board of governors that establishes the appropriate percentage of hours of credit instruction that should be taught by full-time instructors, the Legislature wishes to recognize and make efforts to address longstanding policy of the board of governors that at least 75 percent of the hours of credit instruction in the California Community Colleges, as a system, should be taught by full-time instructors. To this end, community college districts which have less than 75 percent of their hours of credit instruction taught by full-time instructors shall apply a portion of the program improvement allocation received pursuant to Section 84755 as follows:

(2) Districts which, in the prior fiscal year, had less than 67 percent of their hours of credit instruction taught by full-time instructors shall apply up to 40 percent of their program improvement allocation as necessary to reach the 75 percent standard. If a district in this category chooses instead not to improve its percentage, the board of governors shall withhold 40 percent of the district's program improvement allocation.

Districts which maintain 75 percent or more of their hours of credit instruction taught by full-time instructors shall otherwise be free to use their program improvement allocation for any of the purposes specified in Section 84755.

(b) The board of governors shall adopt regulations for the effective administration of this section. Unless and until amended by the board of governors, the regulations shall provide as follows:

(1) In computing the percentage of hours of credit instruction taught by full-time instructors, the hours of overload teaching by full-time instructors shall be excluded from both the total hours of credit instruction taught by full-time and part-time instructors and the total hours of instruction taught by full-time instructors.

(2) A full-time instructor shall be defined as any regular and contract faculty member teaching credit instruction.

(3) The chancellor shall compute and report to each community college district the number of full-time faculty (FTF) which are to be secured through the use of the prescribed portion of program improvement revenue allocated to each district. This computation shall be made by dividing the applicable portion of program improvement revenue (0 percent, 33 percent, or 40 percent of the program improvement allocation), by the statewide average "replacement cost" (a figure which represents the statewide average faculty salary plus benefits, minus the statewide average hourly rate of compensation for part-time instructors times the statewide average full-time teaching load). If the quotient is not a whole number, then the quotient shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number. If this quotient, once applied, will result in the district exceeding the 75 percent standard, the chancellor shall further reduce the quotient to a whole number that will leave the district as close as possible to, but in excess of, the 75 percent standard.

By March 15th of each year, the chancellor shall report to each district an estimate of the number of FTF to be secured based upon the appropriation of revenues contained in the annual Budget Bill.

(4) On or before December 31, 1991, the chancellor shall determine the extent to which each district, by September 30, 1991, has hired the number of FTF determined pursuant to paragraph (3) for the 1989–90 and 1990–91 fiscal years. To the extent that the cumulative number of FTF have not been retained, the chancellor shall reduce the district's base budget for 1991–92 and subsequent fiscal years by an amount equivalent to the average replacement cost times the deficiency in the number of FTF.

SEC. 36. Section 87602 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87602. For the purposes of other provisions of law:

(a) A contract employee is a probationary employee.

(b) A regular or tenured employee is a permanent employee.

SEC. 37. Section 87605 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 38. Section 87605 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87605. The governing board of a district shall employ faculty for the first academic year of his or her employment by contract. Any person who, at the time an employment contract is offered to him or her by the district, is neither a tenured employee of the district nor a probationary employee then serving under a second or third contract entered into pursuant to Section 87608 shall be deemed to be employed for "the first academic year of his or her employment." A faculty member shall be deemed to have completed his or her first contract year if he or she provides service for 75 percent of the first academic year.

SEC. 39. Section 87608 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 40. Section 87608 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87608. If a contract employee is working under his or her first contract, the governing board, at its discretion and not subject to judicial review except as expressly provided in Sections 87610.1 and 87611, shall elect one of the following alternatives:

(a) Not enter into a contract for the following academic year.

(b) Enter into a contract for the following academic year.

(c) Employ the contract employee as a regular employee for all subsequent academic years.

SEC. 41. Section 87608.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87608.5. If a contract employee is working under his or her second contract, the governing board, at its discretion and not subject to judicial review except as expressly provided in Sections 87610.1 and 87611, shall elect one of the following alternatives:

(a) Not enter into a contract for the following academic year.

(b) Enter into a contract for the following two academic years.

(c) Employ the contract employee as a regular employee for all subsequent academic years.

SEC. 42. Section 87609 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 43. Section 87609 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87609. If a contract employee is employed under his or her third consecutive contract entered into pursuant to Section 87608.5, the governing board shall elect one of the following alternatives:

(a) Employ the probationary employee as a tenured employee for all subsequent academic years.

(b) Not employ the probationary employee as a tenured employee.

SEC. 44. Section 87610 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 45. Section 87610 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87610. (a) The governing board shall give written notice of its decision under Section 87608 or 87608.5 and the reasons therefor to the employee on or before March 15 of the academic year covered by the existing contract. The notice shall be by registered or certified mail to the most recent address on file with the district personnel office. Failure to give the notice as required to a contract employee under his or her first or second contract shall be deemed an extension of the existing contract without change for the following academic year.

(b) The governing board shall give written notice of its decision under Section 87609 and the reasons therefor to the employee on or before March 15 of the last academic year covered by the existing contract. The notice shall be by registered or certified mail to the most recent address on file with the district personnel office. Failure to give the notice as required to a contract employee under his or her third consecutive contract shall be deemed a decision to employ him or her as a regular employee for all subsequent academic years.

SEC. 46. Section 87610.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87610.1. (a) In those districts where tenure evaluation procedures are collectively bargained pursuant to Section 3543 of the Government Code, the faculty's exclusive representative shall consult with the academic senate prior to engaging in collective bargaining on these procedures.

(b) Allegations that the community college district, in a decision to grant tenure, made a negative decision that to a reasonable person was unreasonable, or violated, misinterpreted, or misapplied, any of its policies and procedures concerning the evaluation of probationary employees shall be classified and procedurally addressed as grievances. Allegations that the community college district in a decision to reappoint a probationary employee violated, misinterpreted, or misapplied any of its policies and procedures concerning the evaluation of probationary employees shall be classified and procedurally addressed as grievances. If there is no contractual grievance procedure resulting in arbitration, these allegations shall proceed to hearing in accordance with Section 87740.

Arbitration as used in this section refers to advisory arbitration, as well as final and binding arbitration.

(c) Any grievance brought pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (b) may be filed by an employee on his or her behalf, or by the exclusive bargaining representative on behalf of an employee or a group of employees in accordance with Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 3540) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code. The exclusive representative shall have no duty of fair representation with respect to taking any of these grievances to arbitration, and the employee shall be entitled to pursue a matter to arbitration with or without the representation by the exclusive representative. However, if a case proceeds to arbitration with respresentation by the exclusive representative, the resulting decision shall not be considered a precedent for purposes of interpreting tenure procedures and policies, or the collective bargaining agreement, but instead shall affect only the result in that particular case. When arbitrations are not initiated by the exclusive representative, the district shall require the employee submitting the grievance to file with the arbitrator or another appropriate party designated in the collective bargaining agreement, adequate security to pay the employee's share of the cost of arbitration.

(d) The arbitrator shall be without power to grant tenure, except for failure to give notice on or before March 15 pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 87610. The arbitrator may issue an appropriate make-whole remedy, which may include, but need not be limited to, back pay and benefits, reemployment in a probationary position, and reconsideration. Procedures for reconsideration of decisions not to grant tenure shall be agreed to by the governing board and the exclusive representative of faculty pursuant to Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 3540) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(e) Any employees who are primarily engaged in faculty or other bargaining unit duties, who perform "supervisory" or "management" duties incidental to their performance of primary professional duties shall not be deemed supervisory or managerial employees as those terms are defined in Section 3540.1 of the Government Code, because of those duties. These duties include, but are not limited to, serving on hiring, selection, promotion, evaluation, budget development, and affirmative action committees, and making effective recommendations in connection with these activities. These employees whose duties are substantially similar to those of their fellow bargaining unit members shall not be considered supervisory or management employees.

SEC. 47. Section 87611 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 48. Section 87611 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87611. A final decision reached following a grievance or hearing conducted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 87610.1 shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 49. Section 87615 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87615. Commencing July 1, 1990, the minimum degree requirement for tenure as a community college faculty member shall be a bachelor's degree or equivalent from an accredited institution, or an equivalent foreign degree, as determined by the board of governors, except that in the case of vocational faculty, this requirement shall commence January 1, 1994. The board of governors shall monitor the effects and anticipated effects of this provision upon hiring practices within the districts, analyze the results, and make a report and recommendation to the Legislature no later than January 1, 1993.

The governing board may grant tenure to faculty members who do not meet the minimum degree requirement for tenure specified in this section if both of the following are met:

(a) The governing board determines that rare and compelling reasons exist justifying the action. The reasons for the governing board's determination shall be reflected in its action granting tenure to the individual.

(b) The process by which the governing board reaches the determination has been developed and agreed upon jointly by representatives of the governing board and the academic senate, and approved by the governing board. The agreed upon process shall include reasonable procedures to ensure that the governing board relies primarily upon the advice and judgment of the academic senate to determine that rare and compelling reasons exist to grant tenure. The process shall further require that the governing board provide the academic senate with an opportunity to present its views to the governing board before the board makes a determination; and that the written record of the decision, including the views of the academic senate, shall be available for review pursuant to Section 87358.

(c) Until a joint agreement is reached pursuant to subdivision (b), the district process in existence on January 1, 1989, shall remain in effect.

SEC. 51. Section 87663 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87663. (a) Contract employees shall be evaluated at least once in each academic year. Regular employees shall be evaluated at least once in every three academic years. Temporary employees shall be evaluated within the first year of employment. Thereafter, evaluation shall be at least once every six regular semesters, or once every nine regular quarters, as applicable.

(b) Whenever an evaluation is required of a certificated employee by a community college district, the evaluation shall be conducted in accordance with the standards and procedures established by the rules and regulations of the governing board of the employing district.

(c) Evaluations shall include, but not be limited to, a peer review process.

(d) The peer review process shall be on a departmental or divisional basis, and shall address the forthcoming demographics of California, and the principles of affirmative action. The process shall require that the peers reviewing are both representative of the diversity of California and sensitive to affirmative action concerns, all without compromising quality and excellence in teaching.

(e) The Legislature recognizes that faculty evaluation procedures may be negotiated as part of the collective bargaining process.

(f) In those districts where faculty evaluation procedures are collectively bargained, the faculty's exclusive representative shall consult with the academic senate prior to engaging in collective bargaining regarding those procedures.

(g) It is the intent of the Legislature that faculty evaluation include, to the extent practicable, student evaluation.

(h) A probationary faculty member shall be accorded the right to be evaluated under clear, fair, and equitable evaluation procedures locally defined through the collective bargaining process where the faculty has chosen to elect an exclusive representative. Those procedures shall ensure good-faith treatment of the probationary faculty member without according him or her de facto tenure rights.

(i) Governing boards shall establish and disseminate written evaluation procedures for administrators. It is the intent of the Legislature that evaluation of administrators include, to the extent possible, faculty evaluation.

SEC. 51.5. Section 87743 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87743. No tenured employee shall be deprived of his or her position for causes other than those specified in Sections 87453, 87467, and 87484, and Sections 87732 to 87739, inclusive, and no probationary employee shall be deprived of his or her position for cause other than as specified in Section 87740 except in accordance with the provisions of Section 87463 and Sections 87743 to 87762, inclusive.

Whenever in any school year the average daily attendance in all of the schools of a district for the first six months in which school is in session shall have declined below the corresponding period of either of the previous two school years, or whenever a particular kind of service is to be reduced or discontinued not later than the beginning of the following school year, and when in the opinion of the governing board of the district it shall have become necessary by reason of either of these conditions to decrease the number of tenured employees in the district, the governing board may terminate the services of not more than a corresponding percentage of the employees of the district, tenured as well as probationary, at the close of the school year. However, the services of no tenured employee may be terminated under this section while any probationary employee, or any other employee with less seniority, is retained to render a service in a faculty service area in which the records of the district maintained pursuant to Section 87743.4 reflect that the tenured employee possesses the minimum qualifications prescribed by the board of governors and is competent to serve under district competency criteria.

Notice of the termination of services either for a reduction in attendance or reduction or discontinuance of a particular kind of service to take effect not later than the beginning of the following school year, shall be given before the 15th of May in the manner prescribed in Section 87740 and services of the employees shall be terminated in the inverse of the order in which they were employed, as determined by the board in accordance with Sections 87413 and 87414. In the event that a tenured or probationary employee is not given the notices and a right to a hearing as provided for in Section 87740, he or she shall be deemed reemployed for the ensuing school year.

The board shall make assignments and reassignments in a manner that employees shall be retained to render any service which their seniority and qualifications entitle them to render.

SEC. 52. Section 87743.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87743.1. As used in this chapter, "faculty service area" means a service or instructional subject area or group of related services or instructional subject areas performed by faculty and established by a community college district.

SEC. 53. Section 87743.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87743.2. Not later than July 1, 1990, each community college district shall establish faculty service areas. The establishment of faculty service areas shall be within the scope of meeting and negotiating pursuant to Section 3543.2 of the Government Code. The exclusive representative shall consult with the academic senate in developing its proposals.

SEC. 54. Section 87743.3 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87743.3. Each faculty member shall qualify for one or more faculty service areas at the time of initial employment. A faculty member shall be eligible for qualification in any faculty service area in which the faculty member has met both minimum qualifications pursuant to Section 87356 and district competency standards. After initial employment, a faculty member may apply to the district to add faculty service areas for which the faculty member qualifies. The application shall be received by the district on or before February 15 in order to be considered in any proceeding pursuant to Section 87743 during the academic year in which the application is received. Any dispute arising from an allegation that a faculty member has been improperly denied a faculty service area shall be classified and procedurally addressed as a grievance. If the district has no grievance procedure, fair and equitable procedures for the resolution of the disputes shall be developed by the academic senate and representatives of the governing board.

SEC. 55. Section 87743.4 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87743.4. Each district shall maintain a permanent record for each faculty member employed by the district of each faculty service area for which the faculty member possesses the minimum qualifications for service and in which he or she has established competency pursuant to district competency standards. The record shall be contained in the faculty member's personnel file.

SEC. 56. Section 87743.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

87743.5. To determine competency to serve in a faculty service area for the purposes of Section 87743, each community college district shall, not later than July 1, 1990, establish competency criteria for faculty members employed by the district. The development and establishment of such competency criteria shall be within the scope of meeting and negotiating pursuant to Section 3543 of the Government Code.

SEC. 57. The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges shall conduct a thorough review of all statutes affecting the administration and operation of the California Community Colleges, and recommend to the Legislature the amendment or repeal of those provisions affected by this act. The review shall be submitted to the Legislature no later than January 31, 1989.

SEC. 58. The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges shall review the Education Employment Relations Act, Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 3540) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, with regard to the delineation of roles and responsibilities of the academic senate and the faculty bargaining agents, especially in light of proposed changes in the role of faculty concerning hiring, peer review and evaluation, and curricular design. The results of this review including the recommendations of the board of governors shall be submitted to the Legislature no later than January 1, 1993. The board of governors shall convene a committee, for the purpose of conducting the review. The committee shall include representatives from faculty and employee groups, collective bargaining organizations, and academic senates.

This section shall become operative only if funds are specifically appropriated to the board of governors for purposes of this section.

SEC. 59. The California Postsecondary Education Commission and the State Department of Education shall jointly agree on a coordinated research framework to be utilized by each agency in a review of the programs in English as a second language offered through the California Community Colleges, the University of California, the California State University, and adult education programs, and of the future educational needs in this area, and to report its recommendations for programs of effective cooperation between those institutions in this respect. The California Postsecondary Education Commission shall have responsibility for reviewing the programs of the postsecondary segments and the State Department of Education shall have responsibility for reviewing the programs offered by school districts. Both the commission and the State Department of Education shall report the results of their review to the Legislature no later than January 1, 1990. The purpose of the study provided for under this section shall be to assess the ongoing role of the California Community Colleges, in relation to the respective roles of the University of California and the California State University in conducting programs in English as a second language.

This section shall become operative only if funds are specifically appropriated for the purposes of conducting the work specified in this section.

SEC. 60. The Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall conduct a study, with the participation of one or more community college districts, on the feasibility of establishing, on a pilot basis, "interdisciplinary colleges" within selected community colleges—with a special concern with the integration of vocational and academic study. The study shall include exploration of the possibilities, through the establishment of these colleges, of the integration of work experience and study, and the provision of a more cooperative learning environment as a model for all colleges. On or before January 1, 1990, the chancellor shall submit to the Legislature a report summarizing the findings and recommendations which result from the study conducted pursuant to this section.

This section shall become operative only if funds are specifically appropriated for the purposes of this section.

SEC. 61. The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges shall, by January 1, 1990, do all of the following:

(a) Develop policies and guidelines for strengthening the role of the academic senate with regard to the determination and administration of academic and professional standards, course approval and curricula, and other academic matters.

(b) In cooperation with community college district and student representatives, develop a plan for encouraging greater student participation in appropriate aspects of campus, district, and statewide governance.

SEC. 62. The Student Aid Commission shall conduct a study of student aid programs which have as their purpose increasing the number of students entering into the teaching profession at the community college level, and shall report the results of this study to the Legislature and to the California Postsecondary Education Commission on or before January 1, 1990. Prior to March 15, 1990, the California Postsecondary Education Commission shall review and comment on this report to the Legislature, and shall propose any recommendations for revisions to improve these programs.

This section shall become operative only if funds are specifically appropriated for purposes of this section.

SEC. 63. The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, on or before January 1, 1990, shall provide ongoing information to community college districts relative to the design and operation of vocational education programs. This information shall include, but is not necessarily limited to, summaries and analyses of current economic trends and employment projections, as indicated by industry groups and other sources, and the curriculum implications of that data.

This section shall become operative only if funds are specifically appropriated for purposes of this section.

SEC. 64. The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges and the State Board of Education shall each determine the extent to which students are underrepresented in vocational education programs in the community colleges and in public schools, respectively, on the basis of gender or ethnic origin, and shall jointly undertake to encourage students to enter those vocational education programs in which they are underrepresented. On or before July 1, 1990, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges and the State Board of Education jointly shall file a report with the education policy committees of the Legislature on their findings.

This section shall become operative only if funds are specifically appropriated for purposes of this section.

SEC. 65. (a) The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges shall develop a pilot program regarding the employment of part-time temporary faculty by option-rollover contracts in selected areas of specialization. The board of governors shall select three community college districts to implement the two-year pilot program. Community college districts eligible to participate in this pilot program shall be those whose proposal for participation has the concurrence of the local exclusive bargaining representative. In districts having no exclusive bargaining representative, the plan must have the concurrence of the local academic senate.

(b) The community college districts participating in the pilot program established pursuant to subdivision (a) shall employ part-time temporary faculty for a duration of two years under an option-rollover contract. At the end of the two-year period, the community college district shall have, under the pilot program, the option of retaining the part-time temporary employee by rolling over the contract an additional two years.

(c) The pilot program shall be reviewed by the full-time faculty, the part-time temporary employees participating in the pilot program, and the students of the community college district.

(d) Upon the completion of the pilot program, the board of governors shall evaluate the review conducted pursuant to subdivision (c) and shall determine whether the pilot program regarding the employment of part-time temporary faculty under option-rollover contracts is beneficial to the community college and its students.

(e) If the pilot program is deemed to be beneficial to the community college and its students, the board of governors, in consultation with the faculty, shall establish policy directed at, and shall develop standards for, employing part-time temporary faculty under option-rollover contracts for periods ranging from two to five years. At the conclusion of the contractual period, the employing community college district shall have the option of retaining the employee for a period equal to the duration of the original contract by rolling over the contract for the stated period.

(f) It is the intent of the Legislature that the development of option-rollover contracts for part-time temporary employees not frustrate the policy of the community colleges to strengthen the core of their full-time faculty, including the recruitment and hiring of full-time faculty members.

(g) The board of governors shall develop standards requiring part-time temporary employees who have contractual status under an option-rollover contract to participate in student advisement and curriculum-related development, in addition to classroom instruction. Part-time temporary employees shall be compensated according to these standards.

This section shall become operative only if funds are specifically appropriated for purposes of this section.

SEC. 66. (a) The governing board of each district may determine whether it would be beneficial for various community college departments to enter into agreements with the analogous graduate department at the University of California or California State University campus closest in proximity to the community college, to provide part-time temporary teaching positions in the district for advanced university graduate students.

(b) In determining whether the development of part-time temporary teaching positions would be beneficial for the district, the governing board shall consider that the part-time temporary teaching positions, if implemented, would be limited to the following individuals:

(1) Advanced graduate students with prior proven teaching experience.

(2) Advanced graduate students teaching in areas consistent with the subject area of their graduate program.

(3) Advanced graduate students who qualify for employment in positions requiring certification.

(4) Advanced graduate students selected by the pertinent community college department and administrators from among a list of candidates provided by the University of California or the California State University graduate department.

(c) The governing board shall also consider whether the following intended purposes would be served by the development of part-time temporary teaching positions:

(1) Be a form of financial aid to the graduate students, especially for minority and disadvantaged students.

(2) Provide access to graduate students who wish to enter into the teaching profession at the community college level.

(3) Guarantee community college departments one or two part-time positions each year.

(d) In the event that part-time temporary teaching positions are established, graduate students who would teach on a temporary part-time basis shall not displace persons then currently teaching part-time or full-time.

SEC. 67. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates

Claims Fund.

SEC. 68. On or before January 1, 1990, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges shall adopt regulations which substantially incorporate the following policy:

No more than 30 semester units, or 45 quarter units, in course credit may be assigned to any student for remedial coursework, except as to any student who is enrolled in one or more courses in English as a second language or who is identified as having a learning disability. This limit may be waived by the community college district pursuant to regulations of the board of governors, based upon the student's showing of significant, measurable progress toward the development of skills appropriate to his or her enrollment in college level courses. Students needing remedial instruction beyond the course credit restrictions set forth in this section shall be referred to appropriate noncredit adult basic education programs conducted by the community college or an adult school, or to appropriate community services.

The board of governors shall examine and review the effects of the limit under this regulation on the students taking remedial courses, including their success rates, attrition rates, and movement into other programs of study or employment. The review shall include an analysis of the composition by ethnicity and gender of the students reaching this limit, as well as a review of district efforts to use faculty and support service personnel to promote the success rate of students in remedial courses. A report concerning this review shall be delivered to the education policy committees of the Senate and Assembly on or before December 31, 1991.

SEC. 69. Pursuant to paragraph (8) of subdivision (b) of Section 70901 of the Education Code:

(a) The board of governors and the State Board of Education shall jointly assist school districts and community college districts in the development and maintenance of articulated programs that coordinate vocational education over the final two years in high school and two years in community college to effectively meet student and employer needs.

(b) The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges and the Trustees of the California State University, shall jointly develop and maintain articulated programs that expand upon the articulated programs developed pursuant to subdivision (a) to include the attainment of the baccalaureate degree where appropriate. These programs shall provide for the transfer of students in vocational education programs in community colleges to the California State University.

(c) Plans for the implementation of these programs shall be completed by July 1, 1991.

(d) This section shall become operative only if funds are specifically appropriated for purposes of this section.

SEC. 70. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the reforms enacted through this act form a mutually dependent and related set of provisions. While some few provisions could be enacted independently, other sections of this act depend upon adequate support for the programs of the community colleges. There is a direct linkage between those sections of this act which constitute the further professionalization of the faculty and the moneys required to enhance the programs of the community colleges for "transitional program improvement," as specified in Section 84755 of the Education Code.

For instance, the elimination of credentials must be accompanied by the establishment of minimum qualifications by the board of governors. Minimum qualifications in turn must be implemented by districts through the establishment of faculty service areas, competency criteria, and various waiver processes. The extension of the tenure probationary period to four years as well as the revisions to layoff procedures also depend upon the establishment of tenure denial grievance processes as well as the establishment of faculty service areas and competency criteria. Similarly, because so many of the reforms call for faculty involvement in the determination and implementation of policy, and because the quality, quantity, and composition of full-time faculty have the most immediate and direct impact on the quality of instruction, overall reform cannot succeed without sufficient members of full-time faculty with sufficient opportunities for continued staff development, and with sufficient opportunity for participation in institutional governance.

The Legislature further finds that, absent resources to reimburse the state-mandated costs of this act, new full-time faculty to replace part-time faculty, and expanded programs for staff development, the viability or success, or both, of many of the reforms in this act will be jeopardized. The Legislature recognizes that due to unanticipated fiscal conditions the State cannot immediately fund all of the reforms contained in this act. The Legislature also recognizes, however, that if minimal funding is not soon provided that it would be inappropriate to proceed with many reforms.

(b) The Legislature finds and declares that the California Community Colleges are entering a period of major reform, but require further assistance in regaining prior purchasing power in order to fully carry out major reforms. The Legislature intends that the reform process be phased in over a reasonable and logical period of time, and that the institution of major reform be based upon the community colleges' ability to deliver enhanced quality in their programs. Pursuant to this act, the Legislature finds and declares that the transitional stage of reform process shall consist of two phases:

(1) "Phase I of transitional program improvement," as used in this section, means a period of reform during which community college programs are improved and enhanced to prepare an appropriate environment for the subsequent professionalization of faculty. In this connection, the Legislature finds and declares that it would be an unsound and wasteful policy to expend moneys to professionalize faculty without first making the program changes necessary to enable that faculty to assume a more effective role in the educational process. It is the intent of the Legislature that those changes, combined in proper sequence with the professional improvement of faculty, will improve the overall quality of education within the system. It is the intent of the Legislature that moneys appropriated during Phase I fully fund any state-mandates created pursuant to this section.

(2) "Phase II of transitional program improvement" means a period of reform following initial program improvement and professionalization of faculty. During that period, the new educational environment created under Phase I, including such reforms as innovative training programs, evaluation procedures, and minimum qualifications, may be utilized to the fullest extent in hiring new full-time faculty. The Legislature finds that this latter step is a major component of successful reform and the eventual attainment of the highest possible quality in the educational programs of the California Community Colleges. It is the intent of the Legislature that moneys appropriated during Phase II fully fund any state-mandate created pursuant to this section.

(c) The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of subdivisions (d) and (e) address an essential policy issue at the core of the system created by this act. The reforms with delayed operative dates pursuant to subdivisions (d) and (e) will be fiscally and substantively meaningful only if other enumerated reforms, on which the reforms with delayed operative dates depend, are adequately funded as an initial step in the process of improving the structure and quality of the California Community Colleges.

(d) Sections 27 to 34, inclusive, and Sections 51 to 56, inclusive, of this act shall be implemented by the board of governors and be mandatory with regard to implementation by community college districts only if the board of governors certifies in writing to the Governor and to the Legislature that adequate funding has been provided for Phase I of transitional program improvement and for any applicable state mandates, as authorized in Section 84755 of the Education Code. If the board of governors so certifies, each of these sections shall be implemented on the date of certification, or upon any operative date specified for the particular section in this act, whichever is later. For purposes of this subdivision, "adequate funding" means those moneys required to provide an increased quality of instruction and programs, and to carry out applicable mandates of this act, within the California Community Colleges. Based upon estimates provided by the board of governors and exhaustive review of the community colleges' operations by the Joint Committee for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education, the Legislature finds and declares that its estimate of this funding amount is seventy million dollars ($70,000,000).

(e) Sections 21, and 36 to 49, inclusive, of this act shall be implemented by the board of governors and be mandatory with regard to implementation by community college districts only if the board of governors certifies in writing to the Governor and to the Legislature that adequate funding has been provided for Phase II of transitional program improvement and for any applicable state mandates, as authorized in Section 84755. If the board of governors so certifies, each of these sections shall be implemented on the date of certification, or upon any operative date specified for the particular section in this act, whichever is later. For purposes of this subdivision, "adequate funding" means those moneys required to provide an increased quality of instruction and programs, and to carry out applicable state mandates of this act, within the California Community Colleges. Based upon estimates provided by the board of governors and exhaustive review of the community colleges' operations by the Joint Committee for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education, the Legislature finds and declares that its estimate of this funding amount is seventy million dollars ($70,000,000), in addition to the seventy million dollars ($70,000,000) estimated under subdivision (d).

(f) Notwithstanding this section, the board of governors, commencing January 1, 1989, may develop criteria and standards, as may be necessary to prepare for implementation of Section 84750 of the Education Code. However, the board of governors may not implement that section until the terms of this section have been met.

SEC. 71. Section 70901.5 of the Education Code, as added by Section 8 of this act, shall become operative on January 1, 1990.

SEC. 72. The sum of seven million two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($7,250,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges for expenditure pursuant to this act in the 1988–89 fiscal year in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) For expenditure pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 87150) of Chapter 1 of Part 51 of the Education Code. Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 87152, the board of governors shall allocate these funds to community college districts on a per average daily attendance (ADA) basis, using the funded ADA levels for the 1987–88 fiscal year, so that seven dollars ($7) per ADA, or as near thereto as possible, is allocated, and so that each district receives at least five thousand dollars ($5,000). Before computing the per ADA amount the board of governors may set aside up to 2 percent of the allocation of this subdivision for statewide administration $5,000,000

(b) For expenditure pursuant to Section 87107 of the Education Code $1,000,000

(c) For purposes of the administration of this act, including the administration of Section 84755 of the Education Code, the adoption of regulations as required by Sections 70901.5, 87356, 87359, 87107, and 87482.6 of the Education Code and Section 69 of this act, the development of a list of disciplines, as required by Section 87357 of the Education Code, and the review required by Section 87359.5 of the Education Code $300,000

(d) For purposes of commencing implementation of Section 84750 of the Education Code, during the period of January 1, 1989, through June 30, 1990 ..... $300,000

(e) For purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 87104 of the Education Code $300,000

(f) For purposes of Section 71020.5 of the Education Code $150,000

(g) To the Community College Fund for instructional improvement pursuant to Section 84381 of the Education Code $200,000

CHAPTER 974

An act to amend and supplement Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 by augmenting Items 0540-001-001, 2200-001-001, 2240-001-001, 3360-001-465, 3720-001-001, 4170-101-001, 4200-101-001, 4260-101-001, 4260-111-001, 4260-121-001, 4440-101-001, 4440-111-001, 5240-001-001, 5450-001-001, 5460-001-001, 7980-111-001, 7980-121-001, 8260-001-001, 8300-001-001, 8570-001-001, 9800-001-001, 9800-001-494, and 9800-001-988 thereof, amending Items 6440-025-001 and 6610-025-001 thereof, and adding Items 0820-301-001, 2200-001-036, 2200-101-036, and 9210-102-001 thereto, relating to the support of the State of California, and making an appropriation therefor, to take effect immediately, usual current expenses.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988.]

I am deleting the $3 million transfer to the General Fund contained in Section 17 of Assembly Bill No. 1903 This action is necessary due to the lack of funds in the Special Account for Capital Outlay

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No 1903

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

2. It is the intent of the Legislature that resident fees for the 1988–89 school year shall not be increased as a result of the reduction.

SEC. 5.5. Item 9210-102-001 is added to Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988, to read:

9210-102-001—For local assistance, for payment by the Controller pursuant to Section 15 of this act. 10,000,000

Provisions:

1. When the Director of Finance determines that receipt of an amount specified in those subdivisions would result in a county or city and county having proceeds of taxes in excess of its appropriations limit pursuant to Article XIII B of the California Constitution, the Director of Finance shall reduce the amount accordingly. In the case of a reduction pursuant to this subdivision, and if the electors of the local jurisdiction subsequently raise the 1988–89 fiscal year appropriations limit of the jurisdiction, county, or city and county, the county or city and county shall notify the Director of Finance on or before June 30, 1989. The Director of Finance shall certify a supplemental amount to the Controller within 15 days of receiving notice. The Controller shall issue a warrant in that amount to the county or city and county within 30 days of receiving the certification. In the case of a reduction pursuant to this subdivision where there is no certification of a supplemental amount to the Controller on or before July 15, 1989, the Controller shall distribute the amount of the reduction to all other counties and cities and counties.

SEC. 6. The sum of one hundred thirty-seven million six hundred thirty-three thousand dollars ($137,633,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in accordance with the following schedule in augmentation of, and for the purposes of, the listed items of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988:

SEC. 6.5. The sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) is hereby appropriated from unallocated special funds in augmentation of, and for the purposes of, Item 9800-001-494 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988.

SEC. 6.7. The sum of three hundred thirty-five thousand dollars ($335,000) is hereby appropriated from unallocated nongovernmental cost funds in augmentation of, and for the purposes of, Item 9800-001-988 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988.

SEC. 7. The amount augmenting Item 4170-101-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 6 shall be used for new Alzheimer's day care resource centers in accordance with Provision 2 of Item 4170-101-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988. Of this amount, $150,000 shall be allocated to existing Alzheimer's Day Care Resource Centers.

SEC. 8. The amount augmenting Item 4200-101-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 6 shall be allocated to counties with the highest number of AIDS cases with a history of intravenous drug use, to increase treatment to intravenous drug users at risk of contracting or spreading HIV infection and to their partners. The Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs shall ensure that those served hereby are at greatest risk.

SEC. 9. (a) $4,000,000, in addition to $4,000,000 of federal matching funds, of the amount augmenting Item 4260-101-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 6 shall be allocated to fund increases for basic emergency services authorized by Assembly Bill 4563 of the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature.

(b) $3,300,000, in addition to $3,300,000 of federal matching funds, of the amount augmenting Item 4260-101-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 6 shall be allocated to fund rate increases for maternity care providers authorized by Senate Bill 2579 of the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature.

(c) The Department of Health Services shall allocate $15,000,000 of the amount augmenting Item 4260-101-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 6 to Los Angeles County for settlement of Medi-Cal audit issues.

SEC. 10. The amount augmenting Item 4260-111-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 6 shall be allocated by the Department of Health Services as follows:

(a) $400,000 in additional contracts for AIDS education in publicly funded clinics. In allocating these funds, the department shall give priority to the clinics serving high-risk populations.

(b) $200,000 for increased early intervention services to intravenous drug users.

(c) $1,500,000 to fund health screening programs for asymptomatic HIV-infected people as authorized by Assembly Bill 4475 of the 1987–88 Regular Session.

(d) $800,000 to expand home health care, attendant care, and hospice services to persons with AIDS.

(e) $500,000 to fund outreach to high-risk pregnant women, as authorized by Senate Bill 2579 of the 1987–88 Regular Session.

(f) $200,000 to expand services under the Adolescent Family Life Program.

SEC. 11. The amount augmenting Item 4260-121-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 6 shall be allocated by the Department of Health Services as follows:

(a) $600,000 to increase grants for existing Alzheimer's diagnostic and treatment centers.

(b) $750,000 for new Alzheimer's diagnostic and treatment centers.

SEC. 12. The amount augmenting Item 4440-101-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 pursuant to subdivision (j) of Section 6 shall be allocated by the Department of Mental Health as follows:

(a) $1,500,000 exclusively for Children's Services which shall be used to continue existing community service delivery models, such as that exemplified by Chapter 1361 of the Statutes of 1987, the Ventura County Model for Children's Mental Health Services, or to develop new and alternative community mental health services for children who are mentally ill and their families or for primary prevention activities, to inlcude coordinated, interagency services for infants and preschoolers who are at high risk of becoming emotionally disturbed, or who are currently exhibiting delays in interpersonal, social/emotional, language, and/or cognitive development emanating from psychosocial causes.

(b) $2,500,000 shall be allocated for the Residential Supplemental Rate Program.

(c) $500,000 for AIDS community mental health services, to include provision of professional mental health service through funding to county mental health or private organizations, innovative programs to conduct mental health outreach, support of volunteer facilitators for counseling groups, and assurance that the needs of ethnic minorities will be addressed.

(d) $200,000 to fund two mental health day treatment demonstration projects for persons with AIDS or ARC, or who are HIV positive, but who do not have severe medical complications.

(e) $100,000 to the Hemophilia Council of California for outreach activities, crisis intervention, and case management.

SEC. 13. The amount augmenting Item 4440-111-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 pursuant to subdivision (k) of Section 6 shall be allocated by the Department of Mental Health as follows:

These funds shall provide increased support for the statewide resources consultant, the Regional Resources Center for Brain Impaired Adults, and the Department of Mental Health pursuant to Chapter 1658 of the Statutes of 1984. The highest priority for the use of these funds shall be to expand services to underserved geographic areas and provide vouchered services, such as respite care for clients on waiting lists.

SEC. 14. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the number of new Cal Grant (b) awards paid pursuant to Item 7980-121-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 shall be increased by 1,500 to a total of 10,750 each year.

SEC. 15. Of the amount appropriated in Item 9210-102-001, the SEC. 17. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, on the effective date of this act, the Controller shall transfer three million dollars ($3,000,000) from the Special Account for Capital Outlay to the General Fund.

SEC. 18. This act makes an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the state within the meaning of Article IV of the California Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 975

An act to amend Section 13967 of the Government Code, to amend and repeal Section 1203.1 of the Penal Code, and to amend Sections 730.6 and 886.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to local government.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13967 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13967. (a) Upon a person being convicted of any crime in the State of California, the court shall, in addition to any other penalty provided or imposed under the law, order the defendant to pay restitution in the form of a penalty assessment in accordance with Section 1464 of the Penal Code. In addition, if the person is convicted of one or more felony offenses, the court shall impose a separate and additional restitution fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) and not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000). In setting the amount of the fine for felony convictions, the court shall consider any relevant factors including, but not limited to, the seriousness and gravity of the offense and the circumstances of its commission, any economic gain derived by the defendant as a result of the crime, and the extent to which others suffered losses as a result of the crime. Such losses may include pecuniary losses to the victim or his or her dependents as well as intangible losses, such as psychological harm caused by the crime. Except as provided in Section 1202.4 of the Penal Code and subdivision (c) of this section, under no circumstances shall the court fail to impose the separate and additional restitution fine required by this section. This fine shall not be subject to penalty assessments as provided in Section 1464 of the Penal Code.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), the fine imposed pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Restitution Fund in the State Treasury. Notwithstanding Section 13340, the proceeds in the Restitution Fund are hereby continuously appropriated to the board for the purpose of indemnifying persons filing claims pursuant to this article. However, the funds appropriated pursuant to this section for administrative costs of the State Board of Control shall be subject to annual review through the State Budget process.

(c) In cases in which a victim has suffered economic loss as a result of the defendant's criminal conduct, and the defendant is denied probation, in lieu of imposing all or a portion of the restitution fine, the court shall order restitution to be paid to the victim. Notwithstanding subdivision (a), restitution shall be imposed in the amount of the losses, but not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000). A restitution order imposed pursuant to this subdivision shall identify the losses to which it pertains, and shall be enforceable as a civil judgment. The making of a restitution order pursuant to this subdivision shall not affect the right of a victim to recovery from the Restitution Fund in the manner provided elsewhere, except to the extent that restitution is actually collected pursuant to the order. Restitution collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be credited to any other judgments for the same losses obtained by the victim against the defendant arising out of the crime for which the defendant was convicted.

(d) At its discretion, the board of supervisors of any county may impose a fee to cover the actual administrative cost of collecting the restitution fine, not to exceed 10 percent of the amount ordered to be paid, to be added to the restitution fine and included in the order of the court, the proceeds of which shall be deposited in the general fund of the county.

SEC. 2. Section 1203.1 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 897 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

1203.1. The court or judge thereof, in the order granting probation, may suspend the imposing, or the execution, of the sentence and may direct that the suspension may continue for a period of time not exceeding the maximum possible term of the sentence, except as hereinafter set forth, and upon those terms and conditions as it shall determine. The court, or judge thereof, in the order granting probation and as a condition thereof may imprison the defendant in the county jail for a period not exceeding the maximum time fixed by law in the case; however, where the maximum possible term of the sentence is five years or less, then the period of suspension of imposition or execution of sentence may, in the discretion of the court, continue for not over five years; may fine the defendant in a sum not to exceed the maximum fine provided by law in the case; or may in connection with granting probation, impose either imprisonment in county jail, or fine, or both, or neither; shall provide for restitution in proper cases; and may require bonds for the faithful observance and performance of any or all of the conditions of probation.

The court shall consider whether the defendant as a condition of probation shall make restitution to the victim or the Restitution Fund. Any restitution payment received by a probation department in the form of cash or money order shall be forwarded to the victim within 30 days from the date the payment is received by the department. Any restitution payment received by a probation department in the form of a check or draft shall be forwarded to the victim within 45 days from the date the payment is received by the department, provided, that payment need not be forwarded to a victim until 180 days from the date the first such payment is received, if the restitution payments for that victim received by the probation department total less than fifty dollars ($50). In cases where the court has ordered the defendant to pay restitution to multiple victims and where the administrative cost of disbursing restitution payments to multiple victims involves a significant cost, any restitution payment received by a probation department shall be forwarded to multiple victims when it is cost effective to do so, but in no event shall restitution disbursements be delayed beyond 180 days from the date the payment is received by the probation department. In counties or cities and counties where road camps, farms, or other public work is available the court may place the probationer in such a road camp, farm, or other public work instead of in jail; Section 25359 of the Government Code shall apply to probation and the court shall have the same power to require adult probationers to work, as prisoners confined in the county jail are required to work, at public work. Each county board of supervisors may fix the scale of compensation of the adult probationers in that county. In all cases of probation the court may require as a condition of probation that the probationer go to work and earn money for the support of his or her dependents or to pay any fine imposed or reparation condition, to keep an account of his or her earnings, to report them to the probation officer and apply those earnings as directed by the court.

The court shall also consider whether the defendant as a condition of probation shall make restitution to a public agency for the costs of an emergency response pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 53150) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Government Code.

In all such cases if as a condition of probation a judge of the superior court sitting by authority of law elsewhere than at the county seat requires a convicted person to serve his or her sentence at intermittent periods the sentence may be served on the order of the judge at the city jail nearest to the place at which the court is sitting, and the cost of his or her maintenance shall be a county charge.

Upon conviction of any offense involving child abuse or neglect, the court may require, in addition to any or all of the above-mentioned terms of imprisonment, fine, and other reasonable conditions, that the defendant shall participate in counseling or education programs, or both, including, but not limited to, parent education or parenting programs operated by community colleges, school districts, other public agencies, or private agencies.

The court may impose and require any or all of the above-mentioned terms of imprisonment, fine, and conditions, and other reasonable conditions, as it may determine are fitting and proper to the end that justice may be done, that amends may be made to society for the breach of the law, for any injury done to any person resulting from that breach, and generally and specifically for the reformation and rehabilitation of the probationer, and that should the probationer violate any of the terms or conditions imposed by the court in the matter, it shall have authority to modify and change any and all such terms and conditions and to reimprison the probationer in the county jail within the limitations of the penalty of the public offense involved. Upon the defendant being released from the county jail under the terms of probation as originally granted or any modification subsequently made, and in all cases where confinement in a county jail has not been a condition of the grant of probation, the court shall place the defendant or probationer in and under the charge of the probation officer of the court, for the period or term fixed for probation. However, upon the payment of any fine imposed and the fulfillment of all conditions of probation, probation shall cease at the end of the term of probation, or sooner, in the event of modification. In counties and cities and counties in which there are facilities for taking fingerprints, those of each probationer shall be taken and a record of them kept and preserved.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, except as provided in Sections 13967 and 13967.5 of the Government Code and Sections 1202.4, 1203.04, 1463.16, paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 1463.18, and Section 1464, all fines collected by a county probation officer in any of the courts of this state, as a condition of the granting of probation or as a part of the terms of probation, shall be paid into the county treasury and placed in the general fund for the use and benefit of the county.

If the court orders restitution to be made to the victim, the board of supervisors may add a fee to cover the actual administrative cost of collecting restitution but not to exceed 10 percent of the total amount ordered to be paid. The fees shall be paid into the general fund of the county treasury for the use and benefit of the county.

SEC. 3. Section 1203.1 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 897 of the Statutes of 1987, is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 730.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

730.6. (a) When a minor is found to be a person described in Section 602, in addition to any other disposition authorized by law, the court shall levy a restitution fine which shall be deposited in the Restitution Fund, the proceeds of which shall be distributed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 13967 of the Government Code.

(b) The restitution fine imposed pursuant to this section shall be in the form of a penalty assessment in accordance with Section 1464 of the Penal Code. In addition, if the person is found to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the commission of one or more felony offenses, the court shall impose a separate and additional restitution fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000). In setting the amount of the fine for felony offenses, the court shall consider any relevant factors including, but not limited to, the seriousness and gravity of the offense and the circumstances of its commission, any economic gain derived by the minor as a result of the offense, and the extent to which others suffered losses as a result of the offense. Such losses may include pecuniary losses to the victim or his or her dependents as well as intangible losses, such as psychological harm caused by the offense.

(c) The restitution fine shall be imposed in every case in which a minor is found to be a person described in Section 602. Such restitution fine shall be in addition to any other disposition or fine imposed and shall be imposed regardless of the minor's present ability to pay. Except as provided in this section, under no circumstances shall the court fail to impose the separate and additional restitution fine in felony cases required by this section. This fine shall not be subject to penalty assessments pursuant to Section 1464 of the Penal Code. In a case in which the minor is a person described in Section 602 by reason of having committed a felony offense, if the court finds that there are compelling and extraordinary reasons, the court may waive imposition of the restitution fine. When such a waiver is granted, the court shall state on the record all reasons supporting the waiver.

(d) In any case in which the minor is ordered to pay restitution as a condition of probation, the order to pay the restitution fine may be stayed pending the successful completion of probation, and thereafter the stay shall become permanent.

(e) If the restitution fine has been stayed pending successful completion of probation, upon revocation of probation and imposition of sentence the stay shall be lifted. The amount of the restitution fine shall be offset by any restitution payments actually made as a condition of probation. However, probation shall not be revoked for failure of a person to make restitution pursuant to Section 729.6 as a condition of probation unless the court determines that the person has willfully failed to pay or failed to make sufficient bona fide efforts to legally acquire the resources to pay.

(f) At its discretion, the board of supervisors of any county may impose a fee to cover the actual administrative cost of collecting the restitution fine, not to exceed 10 percent of the amount ordered to be paid, to be added to the restitution fine and included in the order of the court, the proceeds of which shall be deposited in the general fund of the county.

SEC. 5. Section 886.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

886.5. Notwithstanding Section 886, a juvenile home, ranch, camp, or forestry camp may receive or contain a maximum of 125 children at any one time if the county has submitted a request for approval for expanded capacity to the Department of the Youth Authority demonstrating a consistent need for juvenile home, ranch, camp, or forestry camp placements which exceeds the beds available in the county, and the department has approved that request. Any request from a county to expand the capacity of a juvenile home, ranch, camp, or forestry camp pursuant to this section shall certify that the facility to be expanded will continue to meet the minimum standards adopted and prescribed pursuant to Section 885 during the period of expanded capacity. The department shall approve any such request only after confirming by inspection of the facility sought to be expanded that the expansion will not result in overcrowding of structures and that the facility will comply with the minimum standards during its period of expanded capacity.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 976

An act to add Section 14105.97 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988]

I am reducing the appropriation contained in Section 3 of Senate Bill No 2563 from $8,000,000 to $5,000,000

The provisions of this bill reflect the agreement reached between the Legislature and the Administration to complete the 1988–89 Budget process $5,000,000 was determined by all parties to be the appropriate level of funding for this program and a reduction of $3,000,000 is necessary to conform the provisions of this bill with the agreement

With this reduction, I approve Senate Bill No. 2563

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows.

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) That many hospitals provide a disproportionate share of health care services to Medi-Cal recipients and indigent persons; however, there are insufficient funds for these disproportionate providers to most effectively provide outpatient health care services to the indigent population of this state.

(b) Since federal law requires state Medicaid plans to take into account the special needs of hospitals that serve a disproportionate share of low-income persons, the pattern of underreimbursement for outpatient services to the Medi-Cal population should be corrected for hospitals that serve large numbers of the poor.

(c) Hospitals serving a disproportionate share of low-income patients serve as a health care "safety net" for those who are economically disadvantaged.

(d) Public policies of the State of California should contain incentives to provide medical goods and services at the most appropriate level of care and at the lowest cost possible.

(e) State and local governments should develop health care programs which opt for federal matching funds whenever available.

SEC. 2. Section 14105.97 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14105.97. (a) The department shall develop an outpatient disproportionate provider factor for each hospital during the first quarter of each year using the most recent annual disclosure data administered by the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development. The department shall permit hospitals to certify to changes in relevant data subsequent to the most recent state report in order to ensure that the factor reflects the hospital's most recent experience.

(b) The factor described in subdivision (a) shall be the proportion of total outpatient gross revenue attributable to Medi-Cal gross revenue and "other" outpatient deductions from revenue, as defined in the Medicare cost report prepared pursuant to 42 U.S.C.A. 1395g and 42 C.F.R. 405.406(b). Hospitals that previously did not submit the necessary data elements shall be permitted to amend their most recent report or submit more recent data prior to implementation of this section. An outpatient disproportionality threshold shall be established by the department at the mean, which in the most recent 1984–85 data is 22.5 percent of total outpatient gross revenue.

(c) Augmentation levels may be based on the degree to which hospitals exceed the outpatient disproportionality threshold, as follows:

(1) Threshold to Threshold	+ 4.99%
(2) Threshold	+ 5% to Threshold + 9.99%
(3) Threshold	+ 10% to Threshold + 14.99%
(4) Threshold	+ 15% to Threshold + 19.99%
(5) Threshold	+ 20% and above

(d) The hospital outpatient augmentation levels shall be incorporated into the rate adjustment made subsequent to enactment of the annual Budget Act and shall not exceed usual and customary charges.

(e) Augmentation rates shall be applied to hospitals with all inclusive rates at the point of final audit settlement and shall be included in subsequent interim reimbursement rates.

(f) The director shall adopt regulations implementing this section as emergency regulations, if so required, in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The adoption of the regulations shall be deemed to be an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, or general welfare. Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, emergency regulations adopted by the director in order to implement this act shall not be subject to the review and approval of the Office of Administrative Law. These regulations shall become effective immediately upon filing with the Secretary of State.

The director may, on an emergency basis as provided in this subdivision, periodically amend the regulations for the implementation of this section in order to refine, improve, make specific or otherwise enhance the administration and the intent of this section, or to limit expenditures to stay within the amounts appropriated.

(g) The department shall seek federal approval for this section, if necessary.

(h) Subject to the limitations contained in this section, rate increases granted pursuant to this section shall become effective October 1, 1988.

SEC. 3. The sum of eight million dollars ($8,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Health Services to fund the rate increases authorized by Section 2 of this act for the 1988–89 fiscal year.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Because of the severe financial plight of disproportionate share providers, augmentation to their outpatient reimbursement is an immediate necessity, and, consequently, it is essential that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 977

An act to add Chapter 1.8 (commencing with Section 185) to Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to AIDS, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988.]

I am reducing the appropriation contained in Section 2 of Assembly Bill No. 4437 from $2,800,000 to $2,500,000.

The provisions of this bill reflect the agreement reached between the Legislature and the Administration to complete the 1988–89 Budget process. $2,500,000 was determined by all parties to be the appropriate level of funding for this program and a reduction of $300,000 is necessary to conform the provisions of this bill with the agreement.

With this reduction, I approve Assembly Bill No 4437

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1.8 (commencing with Section 185) is added to Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.8. PROVISION OF AZIDOTHYMIDINE

185. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

The drug azidothymidine (AZT) improves and prolongs the quality of life for those suffering from acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) or AIDS-related conditions, is believed to reduce the infectiousness of a person infected with human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), and is the only drug approved by the federal Food and Drug Administration for treatment of AIDS and AIDS-related conditions;

Hundreds of Californians infected with HIV are receiving AZT due to a subsidy for AZT made available by the federal government for low-income people;

The State Department of Health Services estimates that it will have sufficient federal funds to maintain those enrolling in the program prior to October 1, 1988, through April 1989, if it terminates new enrollees beginning October 1, 1988;

The State Department of Health Services intends to direct counties to cease accepting new enrollees for the subsidy program beginning October 1, 1988, because of the exhaustion of these federal funds;

The federal government has an obligation to continue to support the subsidy program that it has initiated because of the horrendous moral consequences of terminating the access of low-income infected people to the drug;

The funding cycle for federal programs precludes appropriating additional funds to maintain this program until June of 1989.

186. It is the intent of the Legislature that the State of California continue to provide temporary funding for the program to ensure that those whose health depends on obtaining access to AZT and who are unable to afford it can receive the drug during this interim period.

187. The State Department of Health Services shall continue through June 1989, the AZT subsidy program established in 1987 with federal funds. The department shall maintain the eligibility standards used for the program as of August 1988. The department shall allocate to local health jurisdictions the funds appropriated to support the subsidy program. The department may reallocate funds among these local health jurisdictions as needed to ensure that persons requiring the subsidy receive it through June 1989.

SEC. 2. The sum of two million eight hundred thousand dollars ($2,800,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Health Services for purposes of this act.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Federal funds for the drug AZT will cease to be available on October 1, 1988, and in order to assure the health and safety of numerous citizens who require this drug, it is necessary for this act to take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 978

An act to add Sections 1632.5 and 1634 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to AIDS, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988]

I am deleting the $1 2 million appropriation contained in Section 3 of Assembly Bill No 4475

AB 1903 contains funds to implement this program The provisions of this bill and the appropriation in AB 1903 reflect the agreement reached between the Legislature and the Administration to complete the 1988–89 Budget process $1 5 million was determined by all parties to be the appropriate level of funding for this program and is contained in AB 1903 Thus, the appropriation contained in this bill is duplicative and unnecessary.

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No. 4475

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1632.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1632.5. (a) In order to protect the public health, the director shall designate counties agreeing to participate pursuant to this section, to establish followup programs, in not more than six counties, for persons who have tested positive for the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV). Services shall be provided on an anonymous basis, as required by Section 1632, unless anonymity is waived by the client. Expansion of the use of followup programs shall be targeted at those communities with the largest number of diagnosed cases of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS).

A county shall be eligible for reimbursements for the cost of providing services upon submission of a plan and budget by the county health officer in accordance with the format prescribed by the department. Any funds received by a county shall only be expended for HIV followup services for individuals testing HIV positive.

The plan shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) A scope of work.

(2) A description of proposed HIV followup services.

(3) A description of how community-based service and support organizations traditionally serving the individuals who are HIV positive will be utilized in providing HIV followup services.

(4) A plan of operation.

(5) A system of evaluation.

(b) Each county designated by the director shall make the followup program available within its jurisdiction. Counties may charge for the program's costs based on an individual's ability to pay. The program shall be made available by the county either directly or by contract with a physician or surgeon or with any clinic or health facility licensed by the department. A county may subcontract with individuals or entities to provide information and referral services.

(c) The followup programs shall provide services to people who indicate that they have tested positive for HIV. Followup programs shall provide health assessments and behavior change programs.

(d) Health screening provided by each followup program shall include all of the following:

(1) A physical examination.

(2) An immunologic laboratory workup.

(3) An assessment of the frequency with which the person engages in high-risk behaviors.

(4) Information on treatment of HIV and the availability of treatment in the area.

(5) Information on health insurance.

(6) Referral for medical and psychological treatment, if appropriate.

(7) Behavior change programs.

(e) Repeat screens shall be offered to infected persons at medically appropriate intervals until an individual has been referred on for medical treatment. Referrals for medical treatment shall be made when a physician concludes that the individual's immune system has been seriously compromised.

(f) Followup programs shall not dispense or prescribe sterile needles or syringes to intravenous drug users.

(g) The state department shall also make behavior change programs for HIV infected people available to those who receive their health care from private physicians who serve large numbers of infected people.

(h) The state department shall establish a reimbursement process for counties within 60 days after the effective date of this section for all the services detailed in subdivision (c). The state department shall establish the amounts to be reimbursed for these services, but the amounts shall be established at a level to ensure that the purposes of this article are carried out.

(i) A participating county or the state department may accept grants, donations, and in-kind services for purposes of carrying out this article. The department shall agressively pursue federal funding to fund the health screening followup program.

(j) Reports of examinations, cases, investigations, and all records thereof made under this section shall be confidential and not open to public inspection. If the client has waived the anonymity provided for in this section, disclosures may be made only in accordance with Section 199.21.

SEC. 2. Section 1634 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1634. (a) The department shall ensure that counties participating in the programs established under Section 1632.5 collect data on the medical needs of persons referred for medical treatment and their ability to pay for the treatment they require. The department shall analyze the data and provide an assessment of the treatment and funding requirements to the Legislature upon request.

(b) The director may establish outpatient treatment programs, as found to be necessary, for persons referred for medical treatment by the health screening programs established pursuant to Section 1632.5. Funding for the programs shall be obtained either from the federal government or from funds appropriated in the annual Budget Act. When the department notifies the Legislature of its intention to expend federal funds, in accordance with any requirements in the annual Budget Act, in the notification, the director shall describe state and county responsibilities for the program, detail services to be funded, specify whether a county match is being required, and describe program costs and funding sources.

(c) Counties shall consider utilizing existing services and programs with which they currently contract, or which are currently in operation, prior to establishing new programs pursuant to this section and Section 1632.5. A description of the process used in considering the utilization of existing services and programs shall be included in any reports, assessments, and evaluations required pursuant to subdivision (a).

SEC. 3. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Health Services the sum of one million two hundred thousand dollars ($1,200,000) in order to implement this act.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Due to the increasing severity of the AIDS epidemic and the need to ensure that persons infected with the AIDS virus receive treatment and behavior change information, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 979

An act to add Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 309.100) to Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 309.100) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 3.2. California Adolescent Family Life Act of 1988

309.100. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that:

(a) Adolescent pregnancy and parenthood is a problem with significant social, medical, educational, and economic consequences to the teen parent and child, her family, and the State of California.

(b) In an attempt to address the problems of pregnant and parenting adolescents, the Governor, in 1985, created the Adolescent Family Life Demonstration Program, which was designed to bring pregnant and parenting teenagers into programs that provide services of demonstrated cost benefit and effectiveness by organizing networks of local agencies focused on providing services to adolescents and ensuring the most timely and effective utilization of services.

(c) Independent evaluations indicate that the program has been successful and effective in achieving its intended goals of providing pregnant adolescents with prenatal care, reducing the incidence of low birthweight babies born to adolescent mothers, keeping or reenrolling pregnant and parenting adolescents in school, and reducing the rate of repeat teen pregnancies.

309.200. (a) The State Department of Health Services may conduct the Adolescent Family Life Program to assure that pregnant adolescents receive comprehensive continuous prenatal care in order to deliver healthy babies; to establish networks within regions to provide to pregnant and parenting teens and their children necessary services including medical care, psychological and nutritional counseling, maternity counseling, adoption counseling, academic and vocational programs, and day care; to provide a continuous case manager to each family unit; and to maintain a data base to measure outcomes of adolescent pregnancies. Specific procedures to operate this program will be defined and carried out through standards and guidelines established by the department.

(b) No grant funds may be used for essential services to pregnant adolescents or schoolage parents unless the services are not available in the county or are insufficient to meet the basic needs of the population to be served; in which case, funds may be used for essential services only as set forth in the approved grant application. No grant funds may be expended for abortions, abortion referrals, or abortion counseling.

309.300. Funding for the purpose of this article shall be provided through funds appropriated to the State Department of Health Services through the annual Budget Act.

CHAPTER 980

An act to amend Section 285 of the Health and Safety Code, and to add Article 4.7 (commencing with Section 14148) to Chapter 7 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to health, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares perinatal care is the most effective preventive measure against infant mortality and lifetime disabilities caused by low birthweight. By providing perinatal care which lowers an infant's risk of serious health problems, the high health care costs to the state are lessened considerably.

(b) The Legislature also finds and declares that access to perinatal care is being diminished because providers are dropping out of the maternity care system. Measures should, therefore, be taken to encourage provider participation and reverse the provider dropout trend.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature to do all of the following:

(1) Streamline and make more efficient the delivery of perinatal care services for low-income women.

(2) Reduce Medi-Cal provider and state administrative paperwork and overhead.

(3) Enable the state to make maximum use of federal financial participation.

(4) Ensure that low-income pregnant women have access to perinatal care services.

(5) Expand Medi-Cal eligibility for pregnant women and infants up to and including 185 percent of the federal poverty level within the existing resources of the State Department of Health Services.

(6) Ensure that maternity care providers take all necessary steps to seek Medi-Cal eligibility and reimbursement for those clients eligible under these provisions.

SEC. 2. Section 285 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

285. (a) The State Department of Health Services shall develop and maintain a statewide comprehensive community-based perinatal services program and enter into contracts, grants, or agreements with health care providers to deliver these services in a coordinated effort to the extent permitted under federal law and regulation. These contracts, grants, or agreements shall be made in medically underserved areas or areas with demonstrated need. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent reallocation of resources or use of new moneys for the development of new community-based comprehensive perinatal systems in underserved areas or areas with demonstrated need, and supplementation of systems already in existence.

(b) As a condition of receiving funds from the Maternal and Child Health program, contractors shall bill the Medi-Cal program for services provided to Medi-Cal recipients.

SEC. 3. Article 4.7 (commencing with Section 14148) is added to Chapter 7 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 4.7. Perinatal Services Program

14148. (a) The department shall adopt the federal option provided under Section 4101 of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987 (Public Law 100-203) to extend eligibility for medical assistance under Medicaid to all pregnant women and infants with family incomes not in excess of 185 percent of the federal poverty level. If a premium is imposed, the amount of the premium shall not exceed 10 percent of the amount by which the family's income, less actual child care costs, exceeds 150 percent of the federal poverty level as required by Section 4101 (a) of the 1987 Medicaid Budget Reconciliation Agreement. The department shall implement this section by emergency regulation.

The department shall advise the Chairperson of the Assembly Ways and Means Committee, the Senate Budget and Fiscal Review Committee, the Assembly Health Committee, and the Senate Committee on Health and Human Services, on a quarterly basis, regarding the identification and redirection of existing department funds or General Fund money necessary to implement this section. The department shall notify these committees 30 days prior to redirecting those funds to implement this section.

(b) Upon order of the Department of Finance, the State Controller shall transfer funds from Item 4260-101-001 of the Budget Act of 1988 to Item 4260-111-001 of the 1988 Budget Act of 1988 during the 1988-89 fiscal year for the purpose of funding outreach efforts for perinatal services.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the state may limit implementation of this section during the 1988–89 fiscal year, based upon the availability of department funds. The department may use maternal and child health funds to finance the increased costs of implementing an expansion of Medi-Cal eligibility to women and children with incomes of up to 185 percent of federal poverty levels if both of the following conditions exist:

(1) The department has allocated for expenditure at least sixteen million dollars ($16,000,000) in funds redirected from the Medi-Cal program for that expansion.

(2) If, and to the extent, the department determines that estimates of costs based on actual data indicate that the funds are needed to cover costs.

(d) This section shall be fully implemented no later than April 1, 1990.

(e) To assist Medi-Cal eligible pregnant women in receiving prenatal care promptly, all pregnant women applying for Medi-Cal shall be determined to have an immediate need. Counties, within existing resources, shall expedite the eligibility determination process for all pregnant women on the basis of their immediate needs. Upon determination of eligibility, a Medi-Cal card shall be issued immediately.

14148.1. To maximize federal financial participation, the department shall seek flexibility in implementing the requirements of Section 121 of the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 (Public Law 99-603) for Medi-Cal eligible women with confirmed pregnancies.

14148.2. In order to assure access to obstetrical providers in the Medi-Cal program, the state department shall explore and adopt policies which improve provider relations with Medi-Cal maternity care providers. Policies to be considered shall include, but not be limited to, those which reduce the annual percentage of obstetrical billings going to the department's suspense file, simplify provider claim forms, establish toll-free telephone lines for the exclusive use of maternity care providers, and establish clear reimbursement guidelines. In addition, the department shall explore policies to assure that obstetrical claims are processed on a prompt and predictable basis, the feasibility of establishing a special claims processing unit for obstetrical claims, and the adequacy of current reimbursement levels and services reimbursed. The department shall advise the Chairs of the Assembly Health Committee and the Senate Health and Human Services Committee by July 1, 1989, on steps taken to improve provider relations and the impact these steps have had on provider participation.

14148.3. The department shall seek federal approval to implement obstetrical case management for Medi-Cal eligible pregnant women when provided through the Child Health and Disability Prevention program authorized under Article 3.4 (commencing with Section 320) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of the Health and Safety Code.

14148.4. (a) The department may increase the reimbursement rates in effect on January 1, 1989, for non-Caesarean-section obstetric services under the Medi-Cal program by up to 18 percent. In the event that rates for non-Caesarean-section services equal or exceed rates for Caesarean section services, rates for Caesarean section services shall be increased at the same percentage as rates for non-Caesarean-section services. The department shall implement this section by emergency regulation which shall be effective for services provided on or after January 1, 1989.

(b) The department may limit the increase in reimbursement rates for obstetric services, as provided in subdivision (a), based on the availability of funds appropriated to the department in each budget year.

14148.5. The department shall determine the feasibility of providing perinatal services to pregnant women with family incomes above 185 percent, and not more than 200 percent of the federal poverty level, in the same manner that these services are being provided to the Medi-Cal population, including integration of eligibility determinations and payment of claims.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund

An act relating to hospitals.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that continuing federal approval of the Medi-Cal state plan and the selective contracting waiver requires adoption of changes in the reimbursement of hospitals which "treat a disproportionate share of low-income people with special needs" due to provisions in the federal Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987 (Public Law 100-203). Section 4112 of that act requires changes in the state's existing method for identifying disproportionate share hospitals and mandates adoption of a rate adjustment methodology.

SEC. 2. The Medi-Cal state plan and regulations governing the selective contracting and peer grouping hospital reimbursement systems shall be amended:

(a) To incorporate the optional methods of hospital qualification for disproportionate share hospital status specified in Section 4112 of the federal Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987.

(b) To adopt the payment adjustments which conform to the federal requirements specified in Section 4112(c)(2) of the federal Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987.

SEC. 3. The California Medical Assistance Commission is hereby authorized to negotiate contract rate increases not to exceed an annualized amount of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) total funds for additional reimbursement to disproportionate share hospitals which operate basic emergency rooms and to other disproportionate share hospitals as required by the federal Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987 (Public Law 100-203) as implemented by the State Medicaid Plan and as otherwise determined by the California Medical Assistance Commission.

SEC. 4. Nothing in this act shall be construed to mean that hospitals may not request the California Medical Assistance Commission for further consideration.

CHAPTER 982

An act to add Part 3 (commencing with Section 5800) to Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mental health, making an appropriation in augmentation of Items 4440-001-001 and 4440-101-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Part 3 (commencing with Section 5800) is added to Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

PART 3. MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES ACT FOR SERIOUSLY MENTALLY DISORDERED ADULTS

CHAPTER 1. A COUNTY INTERAGENCY SYSTEM FOR SERIOUSLY MENTALLY DISORDERED ADULTS

Article 1. Short Title and Legislative Findings and Intent

5800. This part shall be known and may be cited as the Wright, McCorquodale, and Bronzan Act of 1988.

5800.5. (a) The Legislature finds that there is no comprehensive county interagency system for the delivery of mental health services to seriously mentally disordered adults and older adults, hereafter referred to as seniors. Specifically:

(1) The adult and senior population which should receive the highest priority for services has not been defined.

(2) The minimum range of treatment, case management, and community support services required by the seriously mentally disordered has not been identified and implemented.

(3) Service delivery standards which ensure uniform, appropriate care directed specifically to the needs of the seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors and their families, including ethnic minorities and persons with multiple disabilities, have not been specified and required.

(4) Although seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors usually have multiple disabilities, the many different state and county public agencies with responsibilities for these individuals do not always collaborate to jointly develop integrated and cost-effective programs.

(5) The current mental health system lacks accountability. There are neither methods nor criteria for evaluating the value received for the mental health dollar the Legislature invests. The success of treatment for specific clients over the course of their illness and the cost effectiveness of mental health systems are not regularly monitored and reported.

(b) The Legislature further finds that Ventura County has implemented a model system of care for children and youth pursuant to the Children's Mental Health Services Act, Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 5565.10) of Part 1, hereafter referred to as the Ventura Model, which can be expanded to serve seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors.

(c) Therefore, using the Venture Model guidelines, it is the intent of the Legislature to accomplish the following:

(1) Establish at least one county demonstration project to develop a comprehensive county interagency system for the delivery of mental health services to seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors that can be replicated in other counties.

(2) Establish a mission statement for county interagency systems of care for seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors in the proposed demonstration projects, including a philosophy of service delivery, to guide the development of mental health programs and services.

(3) Define and establish target populations of seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors for the proposed demonstration projects pursuant to subdivisions (a) to (e), inclusive, of Section 5831.

(4) Require that 100 percent of new funds appropriated for demonstration project counties shall be dedicated to the target population as defined in subdivisions (a) to (e), inclusive, of Section 5831. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to reduce funds available for mental health services to children and youth.

(5) Determine the client and cost outcome and interagency collaboration benefits that can be expected if the Ventura Model system of care were implemented statewide.

(6) Begin phasing in the county interagency system of care statewide during or by the end of the demonstration project, contingent on the finding of substantial benefit to seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors, effective cost control and accountability for the use of funds.

Article 2. Establishing Demonstration Counties and Their Mission

5801. (a) The State Department of Mental Health shall contract with one or more counties for at least one, but not more than three, county demonstration projects to develop and implement the model adult and senior county interagency mental health service system beginning in July 1, 1989, and ending June 30, 1993.

(b) The State Department of Mental Health shall adopt as part of its overall mission for the proposed demonstration projects, the development of community-based, county interagency systems of mental health care for seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors that result in the highest benefit to the client, family, and community while ensuring that the public sector meets its legal responsibility and fiscal liability at the lowest possible cost. The underlying philosophy for these systems of care includes the following:

(1) Mental health care is a basic human service, no less so than food and shelter programs, adult protective services, medical care, education, or vocational training.

(2) Seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors are citizens of a community with all the rights, privileges, opportunities, and responsibilities accorded other citizens.

(3) Seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors usually have multiple disorders and disabling conditions and should have the highest priority for mental health services.

(4) Seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors should have an interagency network of services with multiple points of access and be assigned a single person or team who is responsible for all treatment, case management, and community support services.

(5) The client should be fully informed and volunteer for all treatment provided, unless a danger to self or others or grave disability requires temporary involuntary treatment.

(6) Clients and families should directly participate in making decisions about services and resource allocations that affect their lives.

(7) Local communities are the most knowledgeable regarding their particular environments, issues, gaps, strengths, and opportunities.

(8) State and county government agencies each have responsibilities and fiscal liabilities for seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors.

(9) Mental health services should address the unique needs among the seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors including the needs of minority and ethnic groups, elderly persons, and people with multiple disorders.

(10) For the majority of the seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors, treatment is best provided in the client's natural setting in the community. Treatment, case management, and community support services should be designed to prevent inappropriate removal from the natural environment to more restrictive and costly placements.

(11) Mental health systems of care must have measurable goals and be fully accountable by providing measures of client outcomes and cost of services.

Article 3. Demonstration County Selection and Target Population

5802. (a) The State Department of Mental Health shall issue a request for proposals to develop the demonstration projects no later than February 1, 1989. County demonstration projects shall be awarded no later than June 1, 1989. Nothing in this part shall be construed to restrict a demonstration county from contracting for part or all services included in the demonstration project proposal. The request for proposals shall include the following specifications:

(1) Proposals may be submitted as a regional system of care by smaller counties acting jointly, independent countywide proposals, and proposals to serve discrete geographic areas within counties. The department shall establish reporting requirements for direct and indirect administrative overhead. Guidelines for reporting administrative charges shall be included in the request for proposals. Weight shall be given to counties with lower administrative overhead costs but in no case shall administrative costs exceed those of existing county mental health programs and services.

(2) The demonstration projects shall identify all members of the target population as defined in subdivisions (a) to (e), inclusive, of Section 5831, in their respective region, county, or service area. The proposal shall identify the number of target population clients to be served through the demonstration project. Weight shall also be given to applicant counties to the extent that resources from county agencies other than the mental health department are used to develop interagency services for the target population during the demonstration period.

(3) Proposals shall identify county staff and resources necessary to meet requirements established by the State Department of Mental Health to measure client and cost outcome and interagency collaboration for the system of care.

(b) Proposals must be approved by the board of supervisors and the local mental health advisory board.

(c) Upon selection of the demonstration counties, the State Department of Mental Health shall enter into annual performance contracts with the selected counties. Pursuant to Section 5707.1, the contracts shall be exempt from the requirements of the Public Contract Code and the State Administrative Manual and shall be exempt from approval by the Department of General Services.

Article 4. Demonstration County Service Requirements

5803. The State Department of Mental Health shall require demonstration counties to use available resources for the target population to develop the following services, including, but not limited to:

(a) Mental health treatment services, including, but not limited to:

(1) Comprehensive assessment of mental and physical conditions which identify strengths and assets, impairments in functioning and psychosocial stressors.

(2) Medication management including strategies to maximize the client's cooperation with the medication plan.

(3) 24-hour crisis response services including, but not limited to, hotline, walk-in and mobile crisis response capability, crisis residential and acute inpatient beds, day stabilization, and brief intensive psychotherapy.

(4) In-home treatment services and services provided in other agency environments. This includes but is not limited to jails and homeless shelter programs.

(5) Treatment services for dual-diagnosed persons where the serious mental disorder is the primary treatment focus including, but not limited to, services for persons with secondary diagnosis of drug and alcohol abuse, and jail diversion programs for offenders.

(6) Outreach services when necessary to ensure that services are provided to difficult to treat members of the target population including ethnic minorities, seniors, and persons with multiple disabilities.

(b) Case management services including:

(1) The identified, single point of contact with responsibility for all services, including mobile outreach, that is available 24 hours each day.

(2) Transportation to essential services.

(3) Consultation to individuals and agencies in frequent contact with the client with the intent of maintaining him or her in living and working arrangements, including family, employers, landlords, police, hospitals, and significant others.

(4) Ascertain eligibility and providing access to income support and entitlements, housing, food medical and dental care, vocational services, educational services, community recreational services, legal assistance, and veterans benefits.

(5) Money management as substitute or protective payee.

(c) Community support services including:

(1) Socialization services or drop-in centers.

(2) Family consultation and support services including respite care, education on the nature of the disorder, medications, handling daily problems and crises, identification and reduction of stress, and linkage to regional resource centers, other family support services and advocacy organizations.

(3) Peer support or self-help groups.

(4) Consultations to agencies and individuals in frequent contact with groups of clients with the intent of developing and maintaining a system of care including, but not limited to, housing resources, employers, community and public agencies, and local businesses.

(5) A full range of residential options must be available, from supported independent living through restrictive, supervised settings. In-home support must be available. Demonstration counties shall plan the most effective residential system given the local resources and problems.

(d) Rehabilitative services including:

(1) Social rehabilitative programs that provide assessment of impairments and strengths, and training to develop skills of daily living, money management, personal hygiene, use of public transportation, social skills, and others.

(2) Vocational rehabilitative services that provide functional assessment of the person's skills, collaborative arrangements with educational and vocational rehabilitation agencies to perform vocational assessments, job readiness skill development, sheltered employment, supported work and on-the-job training opportunities, and evaluation of achievement of goals and skills.

(e) Protection and advocacy services including patient rights services, grievance procedures, and coordination with other existing advocacy services for seniors such as the ombudsman program for seniors.

Article 5. Demonstration County Service Standards

5804. The State Department of Mental Health shall establish service standards that assure members of the target population are identified and can choose, get, and keep environments where they can live, learn, and work. These standards include, but are not limited to:

(a) A systemwide county, region, or area service planning process that is target population based and includes the following:

(1) Estimates the numbers of the target population clients to be served and the programs and services that will be provided to meet their needs. The local director of mental health shall consult with the Mental Health Advisory Board, contractors, the local chapter of the Alliance for the Mentally Ill, client constituency groups, ethnic minority constituency, and others as determined by the director to help identify all of the persons in the target populations and determine their needs.

(2) Provides for services to meet the cultural, linguistic, and special needs of minorities in the target populations which may require outreach for identification. Provides for staff with the cultural background and linguistic skills necessary to remove barriers to mental health services due to a limited-English speaking ability and cultural differences.

(3) Provides for services to meet the needs of target population clients who are physically disabled.

(4) Provides for services to meet the special needs of seniors, including problems arising from the increased interaction of physical and mental disorders, the need for accurate assessment of the role of brain impairment in psychiatric disorders being treated, and other specialized services.

(5) Provides for methods and procedures to identify underserved members of the target population.

(6) Provides, pursuant to paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 5803, for availability of family support and consultation services within three days of a client's admission to psychiatric inpatient treatment for the first psychotic "break," and requires assignment of a case manager and referral to a peer support or self-help group prior to discharge.

(b) The average caseload for each case management staff person shall not exceed 25 members.

(c) Each client shall have either a clearly designated mental health case manager or a multidisciplinary treatment team who is responsible for providing or assuring needed services through the course of the illness. Responsibilities include complete assessment of the client's case management needs, development of the client's Personal Services Plan (PSP) and following the client through the system of care, including when in the care or custody of another agency such as the jail or when hospitalized. If the person is admitted to crisis or acute inpatient care the responsible mental health staff shall be notified and included in the member's treatment planning, discharge, and community reentry.

(d) The responsible case manager or the treatment team shall ensure that each client has a single, systemwide personal services plan that provides for the services in subdivisions (a) to (e), inclusive, of Section 5803 specifying methods to be used. Each client shall participate in the development of his or her personal services plan, and responsible staff shall consult with the conservator and, with the consent of the client, consult with the family and other significant persons in the development of the personal services plan. The personal services plan shall be directed at the goals of assuring clients:

(1) Have a reduction, to the extent possible, of the disabling symptoms of mental illness.

(2) Live in the most normal housing feasible in the local community.

(3) Have an adequate income and an appropriate level of work or vocational training.

(4) Are in good health.

(5) Have a support system, with friendships and participation in community activities.

(6) Have freedom from dangerous, addictive substances.

(7) Maintain socially responsible behavior.

(8) Obtain an appropriate level of education and learning.

(9) Receive culturally appropriate services.

(10) For members who reside with their family, the PSP should provide for respite care which is designed to give family needed relief from difficult behavior and decrease the duration of hospital stay.

Article 6. Demonstration County Interagency Collaboration

5805. The State Department of Mental Health shall require demonstration counties to develop systems of interagency collaboration which identify joint responsibilities for services specified in Section 5803 and achievement of the client and cost outcome goals and interagency collaboration goals pursuant to Section 5834. Each demonstration county shall accomplish the following:

(a) The local mental health director shall form or facilitate the formation of a county interagency policy and planning committee. Members may include directors or key policymaking staff from the local mental health department, the local mental health advisory board, and other agencies such as social services, the sheriff's department, superior court, county alcohol and drug programs, probation services, local state and county housing authorities, and other key state and county agencies whose service policies will significantly affect members. The duties of the committee shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) Identify those agencies that have a significant joint responsiblity for the target population and ensure collaboration on countywide planning and policy.

(2) Identify gaps in services to members of the target population, develop policies to assure service effectiveness and continuity, and set priorities for interagency services.

(3) Implement public and private collaborative programs whenever possible to better serve the target population.

(4) Provide for a countywide interagency case management council whose function is to coordinate resources to target population members who are using the services of more than one agency concurrently.

(b) The local mental health director shall develop written interagency agreements or memoranda of understanding with agencies identified in paragraph (a). Written interagency agreements or memoranda shall specify jointly provided or integrated services, staff tasks and responsibilities, facility and supply commitments, budget considerations, and linkage and referral services. The agreements shall be reviewed and updated annually. Agreements may be established with the following:

(1) Housing resource agencies, including federal Housing and Urban Development Agency, city and county planning departments with access to housing and community development funds, local chapters of residential care provider organizations.

(2) Health and entitlement agencies including public sector agencies administering health funds for medically indigent adults and Medi-Cal eligibility services, public health departments, county drug and alcohol departments, public guardian or conservator, county welfare departments, elder abuse agencies, senior nutrition, health and home health care programs, and aging network representatives, including the area agency on aging.

(3) Educational institutions and agencies such as special education, adult education programs, community colleges, colleges and universities, city and county recreation and parks departments, and senior multipurpose service centers.

(4) Rehabilitation programs and agencies such as the Department of Rehabilitation, Private Industry Council, Job Training Partnership Act programs, and regional resource centers for the brain-impaired.

(5) Criminal justice agencies such as county jails, local police and sheriff departments, courts, and probation.

(6) Ethnic specific agencies.

(c) Joint resources and services not specified in the interagency agreements but needed by the target population shall be purchased from other public, private nonprofit, or private agencies.

Article 7. State Interagency Collaboration

5806. The Secretary of Health and Welfare shall establish a State Human Services Interagency Task Force to coordinate statewide policy and planning of county interagency services for the members of the target population.

(a) The task force shall include representatives of the state departments which have responsibility for meeting the needs of the target population. The task force shall also include representatives from the Assembly Health Committee, the Assembly Ways and Means Committee, the Senate Health and Human Services Committee, the Senate Appropriations Committee, and other appropriate persons, as determined by the secretary.

(b) The duties of the task force include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Ensure the collaboration of state level human services agencies to meet the needs of the target population.

(2) Develop interagency agreements as necessary to facilitate collaboration among state and local agencies, including the sharing of data and information on the target population.

(3) Ensure ongoing communication between the executive and legislative branches of government relative to meeting the needs of the target population.

Article 8. Requirement to Collect Reimbursements

5807. In order to offset the cost of services, demonstration counties shall be required to collect reimbursement for services during the demonstration period from the following sources:

(a) Fees paid by members or their families, which shall be the same as patient fees established pursuant to Section 5718.

(b) Fees paid by private or public third-party payors.

(c) Categorical funds from programs established in state or federal law, for which persons with serious mental disorders are eligible.

(d) The department shall immediately seek to obtain authorizations which may be required to obtain federal financial participation for services rendered through demonstration counties.

CHAPTER 2. AN INTEGRATED SERVICE SYSTEM FOR THE SERIOUSLY MENTALLY DISORDERED

Article 1. Legislative Findings and Intent

5808. The Legislature finds that in the two decades since enactment of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act utilization of state hospitals has been substantially reduced. However, the intended transition to a locally operated effective comprehensive system of services for persons with severe mental disorders has not yet been achieved.

Studies by the Legislature and the Task Force for the Seriously Mentally Ill have documented fundamental defects in the organization and financing of programs for persons who prior to 1969 would have been committed to state hospitals, including the following:

(a) Responsibility and accountability for treatment, care, and rehabilitation is scattered among too many independent agencies, providers, and levels of government.

(b) Federal, state, and county funds are allocated to numerous autonomous agencies and cannot be readily consolidated or used in flexible ways to meet an individual's need. Clinical effectiveness is frustrated because professionals responsible for prescribing and giving treatment and rehabilitation have little or no authority to direct the allocation of resources.

(c) Few standards govern the service system. The mere existence of many different programs does not guarantee that persons with complex changing needs will receive continuity of attention and timely, useful services.

(d) Clients and their families have too few opportunities to participate in determining the treatment, care, and resource allocations that will affect their lives.

(e) The quality and availability of essential services varies greatly among the 58 counties.

(f) The mandated functions of county mental health departments have expanded without a practical plan for financing the growth of these multiple responsibilities. Resources have not followed clients in the shift from state hospital to community-based responsibility for the seriously mentally disordered.

5809. (a) The purposes of this part are the following:

(1) To establish a pilot model to test and evaluate an integrated service system for a limited number of persons with serious mental disorders.

(2) To provide the State Department of Mental Health with an evaluation of proposed standards for the organization and financing of community services for the seriously mentally disordered and for redirecting expenditures pursuant to the Short-Doyle Act (Part 2 (commencing with Section 5600)) if necessary to improve standards of service provided by counties, as authorized in Sections 5600.5 and 5600.6.

(3) To provide counties with information about alternative ways of organizing and allocating resources for services for the seriously mentally disordered.

(4) To provide the federal government with an opportunity to test a new method of consolidating the funding of federal, categorical human service programs.

(b) The pilot integrated service system established by this part is based upon features found in exemplary human service delivery systems in California and other states.

It is the intent of the Legislature that by this part California may evaluate proposed new methods of organizing and financing services for the seriously mentally disordered which may, over the next decade, result in cost-effective system of comprehensive services, responsive to the needs of the seriously mentally disordered and their families, in every part of the state.

It is the intent of the Legislature that a pilot agency maintain a continuity of services and financial responsibility for their members.

Article 2. Establishing Pilot Agencies

5810. The State Department of Mental Health shall establish at least two, but not more than six, pilot integrated service agencies for the seriously mentally disordered beginning July 1, 1989, and ending June 30, 1993, hereafter referred to in this part as pilot agencies.

Article 3. Pilot Agency Selection and Funding Policy

5811. (a) No later than February 1, 1989, the director, with advice from the advisory committee established pursuant to Section 5832, shall prepare, publish, and disseminate a request for proposals for four-year contracts to operate pilot agencies. The panel of advisers shall participate in the review of proposals and shall advise the director prior to his or her selection of contractors to operate four-year pilot agencies. Pilot agency performance contracts shall be awarded no later than June 1, 1989.

(b) The director shall prepare a method for rating proposals to assure objectivity and selection of the best qualified applicants.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that pilot agencies be used to test and evaluate different methods within the limitations established by this chapter. It is further the intent of the Legislature that pilot agencies be selected in different regions of the state. At least one pilot agency shall be established in a rural region.

(d) When selecting from among proposals of equal merit, preference shall be given to proposals emanating from counties that receive lower per capita state support for mental health services.

(e) There shall be no requirement for the redirection of county funds to support pilot agency activities. Weight shall be given to proposals which document host county's willingness to provide resources in support of pilot agencies. It is intended that the provision of host county resources to the pilot agency not diminish services to the county mentally disordered population not served by the pilot agency.

5812. (a) Any public or private agency, organization, or corporation, including a county, may respond to the request for proposals and be considered as a contractor to operate a pilot agency. Two or more counties, agencies, organizations, or corporations may respond jointly. A pilot agency or its satellite shall be located within a reasonable distance to its members.

(b) The director shall award contracts effective July 1, 1989, to implement the four-year pilot agencies. Each contract shall ensure that the number of persons in the pilot agencies remain constant and that the population served meets the criteria established in this part. No pilot agency shall serve more than 200 clients or fewer than 100 clients.

Contracts entered into pursuant to this part shall start July 1, 1989, and end June 30, 1993, unless the director or the contractor terminates the contract earlier.

Article 4. Policy Committee

5813. (a) Agencies other than county mental health departments applying to operate a pilot agency shall include in their proposals a statement of agreement to establish an integrated service policy committee, consisting of 15 members, with no other functions than to assist the governing board of the applicant agency in setting policies and overseeing the operation of the pilot agencies. County mental health department applicants may delegate these functions to county mental health advisory boards established pursuant to Section 5604.

(b) The integrated service policy committee shall consist of persons with demonstrated interest in and knowledge of serious mental disorders, shall reflect the ethnic characteristics of members to be served, and shall not have a financial conflict of interest as a result of membership on the policy committee, except as consumers of services of the pilot agency. When selecting persons to serve on the committee, the governing board of the applicant agency shall seek recommendations from appropriate professional and consumer organizations in the community in which the pilot agency is to be located.

(c) One-third of the members of the committee shall be persons who are receiving services from the pilot agencies or persons who have experienced serious mental disorders, as defined in subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, of Section 5831.

One-third of the members of the policy committee shall be persons whose children, spouses, siblings, or parents are receiving services from the pilot agencies or persons whose family members have or have had a serious mental disorder, but are not receiving services from the pilot agencies.

One-third shall be persons with demonstrated expertise in management or the provision of services for persons with severe mental disorders.

(d) The policy committee shall participate in making decisions, including, but not limited to, establishing program policies and minimum personnel qualifications, monitoring expenditures, participating in grievance procedures, and evaluating agency operations. Final authority and responsibility for decisions which affect operation of the pilot service agency remains with the governing board.

Article 5. County Letter of Understanding

5814. In order to assure cooperation with county governments in communities in which pilot agencies are established, applications shall be approved by the local mental health advisory board and applicants shall include in their proposal to operate a pilot agency, a letter signed by the chairperson of the county board of supervisors as follows:

To the Director of the California State Department of Mental Health, from the County of _____.

After consultation with the Director of Mental Health this county affirmatively approves the establishment within the county of a pilot integrated service agency for the seriously mentally disordered. Be it understood that by this statement our board of supervisors is not endorsing any particular proposal which may emanate from this county in response to the state's request for competitive proposals to operate a pilot integrated service agency for the seriously mentally disordered.

We understand that if a pilot agency is established within this county, there will be no required county match, redirection of existing mental health resources, or other costs to the county now or in the future for the pilot agency.

We further understand that establishment of a pilot agency within our county would be an expansion of services for the mentally disordered and is not intended to supplant or result in any reduction in the county's support for other services for the mentally disordered.

Signed: _____

Chairperson, Board of Supervisors

Article 6. Responsibilities and Service Requirements

5815. In addition to other requirements as may be included in the department's request for proposals, pilot agencies shall have the following responsibilities and perform the following functions.

(a) Serve a specified number and representative mix of persons, hereafter referred to in this chapter as "members," as further defined in subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, of Section 5831.

(b) Prepare a personal service plan, on an annual basis, with the participation of all of the following:

(1) The member and the member's conservator or guardian, as appropriate.

(2) Members of the staff team, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5816.

(3) Family members who know the member, if agreed to by the member.

(4) Any person of the member's choosing. The personal services plan shall include goals, specific objectives, and the strategies and services needed to achieve goals and objectives. The personal services plan shall include an assessment of the member's strengths, capabilities, and interests. The personal service plan is a service contract between the member and the agency. The member, or the member's legally designated conservator or guardian on behalf of the member, shall agree by signature to each service element of the plan. There shall be mutual agreement to each and every element of the plan. Acceptance of one service shall not be contingent upon acceptance of another service. Personal service plans may be modified by agreement between the agency and the member, or his or her conservator or guardian on behalf of the member, at any time as required.

(c) Maintain records as may be required by the department regarding each member's social health and mental health needs, services provided, and costs of services. Records shall be available to the member for review and comment, except for records state or federal law may require to be kept confidential.

(d) Ascertain the member's eligibility for all health, mental health, housing, rehabilitation, social service, income maintenance, and other publicly funded services.

(e) Secure as needed, by providing directly or through purchase of services or other means, appropriate services as specified in the personal service plans of members, including, but not limited to:

(1) Diagnosis and assessment of mental and physical conditions.

(2) Treatment of mental disorders, including medication.

(3) Crisis response, which shall be available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

(4) Self-help and peer support services.

(5) Emergency care.

(6) A continuum of residential services.

(7) Vocational assessment, supported employment, and other employment services.

(8) Socialization and recreation.

(9) Transportation for essential services.

(10) Daily living skills training.

(11) Information, counseling and other services for the parents, children, or other relatives of members.

(12) Respite for families and for members.
(13) Legal assistance and patients' rights services.
(14) Money management, including substitute payee services.
(15) Consultation with landlords and employers.
(16) Hospitalization in community or state hospitals.
(17) Drug and alcohol rehabilitation.
(18) Formal education including high school, college or vocational.
(19) Motivational activities to encourage educational, vocational, and community participation.
(20) Physical, nutritional, and dental health care.
(21) Income maintenance.

(f) Provide or purchase alternative services appropriate to the needs of the enrollee, only if the pilot agency is unable to provide or purchase any service as specified in the service plan, and only upon approval of the policy committee established pursuant to Section 5813.

(g) Maintain regular, personal contact with members, providing assistance whenever needed, in the home, on the streets, or in residential facilities, hospitals, or jails.

(h) Provide consultation to service providers to improve the quality of services for members; provide information to school personnel, police, judges, and community agencies and professionals to enable them to cooperate with and utilize the integrated service agency.

(i) Assist in creating new programs when necessary services are inadequate or unavailable, including services to ethnic minorities.

Article 7. Request for Proposals Requirements

5816. In addition to any other requirements which may be included in the department's request for proposals, proposals to operate a pilot agency shall include the following:

(a) A description of the staff team that will conduct the comprehensive services defined in Section 5815, the amount of time each staff person will devote to working for the pilot agency and the staffing arrangements that will assure compliance with the programmatic requirements of this part.

Persons employed or under contract to provide services pursuant to this part shall be subject to all applicable requirements of law respecting professional licensure, and no person shall be employed to provide services for which a license is required unless the person possesses a currently valid license.

Each staff team shall include, at a minimum, a psychiatrist, a psychologist, a social worker, and a registered nurse with the formal training and the practical experience to work effectively with clients with serious mental disorders.

The staff team may include unlicensed personnel to provide services for which licenses are not required.

To the fullest extent feasible members should be involved in self-help organized by members, peer support, and other activities in support of the purposes of the pilot agencies on a paid or an unpaid basis. Pilot agencies are encouraged to make the fullest possible use of all community resources, including, but not limited to, the use of volunteers to raise funds; provide technical assistance to member-operated businesses; or assist with the day-to-day operations of the agency.

Nothing in this part shall preclude members from retaining their own therapists consistent with Section 5815. The agency shall have the option of paying or not paying for the cost of any services secured independently by the client or the client's family, and shall make every effort to collaborate with the providers of these services to prevent duplicative or conflicting efforts.

(b) A plan for serving minority members. The plan should include estimates of the numbers of minority members to be served and the ways by which the agency intends to respond to the language and cultural needs of minority members. It is the intent of the Legislature that the membership of each agency approximate the racial and ethnic mix of the general population of the community in which members of the agency reside.

(c) A plan for the provision of services described in Section 5815. The plan shall include methods to be used, including identification of services to be provided directly by the pilot agencies and those to be secured by contract or other means.

(d) If the applicant owns or operates a hospital or residential facility and intends to utilize the facility for purposes of the pilot agencies, the plan should identify the anticipated cost of this use and justify the cost effectiveness. The plan should also specify the conditions under which other hospital or residential facilities not owned or operated by the applicant will be used, and the anticipated amount of use.

(e) A plan describing the residential resources the applicant intends to use, ranging from crisis residential facilities to independent living arrangements. The plan for residential services should describe methods to be used to assure that members are assisted and supported to live as independently as possible, outside specialized institutions or facilities for the mentally disordered. For members who may require care in specialized institutions or residential facilities, the plan shall describe methods to be used to assure that these facilities shall be staffed with sufficient expertise to assist members in achieving the objectives in their personal service plans, and that the daily activities of the members shall be constructive, purposeful, productive, and consistent with their intellectual, cultural, and personal interest.

(f) The plan for residential services should also include provisions for offering consultation, technical assistance, and other support as needed, to the operators of residential services for members or their family caregivers.

(g) A plan for the provision of services for members who may require services on an involuntary basis under the provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act, Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000).

The plan shall include agreements with hospitals from which pilot agencies purchase hospital services. Payment for hospital services shall be an obligation of the pilot agency if a member is hospitalized involuntarily, regardless of the existence of a payment agreement.

All of the following persons shall participate in determining the treatment and discharge of members placed voluntarily or involuntarily in local or state hospitals:

(1) The director of the pilot agency or his or her designee.

(2) The member or the member's conservator or guardian, if any.

(3) The attending staff responsible for treatment of the member within the local or state hospital.

(h) A plan for services to members admitted to the pilot service agency following a first psychotic "break." The plan shall include the provision of family information and counseling services pursuant to paragraph (11) of subdivision (c) of Section 5815, within three days of a member's admission. If admission procedures are initiated while the person is in a psychiatric inpatient facility, the plan shall include assignment of a case manager and referral to a peer support or self-help group prior to discharge from the psychiatric inpatient facility.

(i) A plan for the provision of vocational skills training and employment services. The plan shall include reference to the employment, educational, and skills training services to be provided directly by the pilot agencies and those to be secured by purchase of service or other means. A pilot agency shall utilize community college programs for the seriously mentally disordered where available and shall offer consultation to community colleges in the development of these programs.

Article 8. Pilot Agency Target Population

5817. The pilot agencies shall serve members of the target population, as defined in subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, of Section 5831.

Article 9. Pilot Agency Membership Provisions

5818. (a) Membership to a pilot agency may result from outreach activities of the pilot agency, by self-referral of persons with serious mental disorder and by referral from friends, family members, conservators, judges, state and local hospitals, county mental health agencies, or other agencies or professionals. The pilot agencies shall maintain a record of all referrals for membership, including those which have been rejected.

(b) For purposes of selecting members for the pilot system, the State Department of Mental Health shall establish an independent selection panel comprised of representatives from the Integrated Service Agency, the local county mental health department, and the State Department of Mental Health. The selection panel shall determine who is eligible for admissions to the pilot agency. Persons admitted shall be a representative sample of seriously mentally disordered persons in the county that meet the target population criteria pursuant to subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, of Section 5831.

5819. No later than March 15, 1989, the department shall do all of the following:

(a) Establish a method for screening or auditing by the department to assure that pilot programs are serving members, as defined in subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, of Section 5831, including ethnic minorities and minors. The department's screening or auditing activities shall include monitoring to assure that pilot agencies are accepting and are not rejecting clients with severe mental disorders requiring extensive treatment and rehabilitation services.

(b) Establish a method for determining admission criteria for persons with a dual diagnosis of serious mental illness and substance abuse, mental retardation, or other physical or mental disability.

(c) Service contracts, as defined in Section 5815, with each member shall be for a minimum period of six months. Contracts shall hold the pilot agency responsible for the provision of services, pursuant to the member's personal service plan, and shall hold the member responsible for participating in the programs and services specified in the member's personal service plan.

5820. (a) Members of a pilot agency shall be subject to the same laws as all other persons, including the provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act, Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000), governing involuntary treatment.

If, after all other alternatives have been exhausted, a pilot agency finds that a member needs to be served involuntarily, the director of the pilot agency may be designated as authorized to carry out Section 5150 subject to the standard policies and procedures of the host county or counties.

This authority shall be discussed with members when they become members. They shall also be advised of their legal rights and of the availability of patients' rights to services.

(b) If a member is involuntarily detained by anyone, under the provisions of the state's mental health law, the pilot agencies shall be notified. As the member's service and financial agent, the pilot agencies shall be involved in the determination of payment, treatment, and discharge of the member pursuant to Section 5816.

(c) A member of a pilot agency may terminate membership at any time. In these cases, the pilot agencies shall make every effort to assist the member in finding alternative services and, if necessary, shall pay for these services until a new member has been admitted to fill the vacancy, after which the agency's financial responsibility for the former member shall cease. Alternative services shall be one of the services described in Section 5815 and payment shall not exceed established rates for those services pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 5822.

If a member who has terminated membership wishes to return, the pilot agency shall make every effort to resume the provision of services to the member.

5821. (a) Members of a pilot agency shall have all the protections and rights guaranteed to mental health clients in Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) and Part 2 (commencing with Section 5600) of this division, and in Public Law 99-319, the Protection and Advocacy for Mentally Ill Individuals Act of 1986 (42 U.S.C.A. Secs. 2471, 10801, 10802–10807, 10821–10827, 10841, and 10851).

Members shall have access to the services of county patients' rights advocates as provided in Chapter 6.2 (commencing with Section 5514) of Part 1.

Members shall be notified orally and in writing regarding their legal rights at the time of commencing their membership with the pilot agencies.

(b) In addition to all rights established in existing law, the director shall, with the advice of the panel of advisers, establish requirements for additional protections and grievance procedures to the extent permitted by federal law as may be necessary to assure that the needs and concerns of members with respect to a pilot agency are heard and resolved in a fair manner. All requirements shall be included in the contract between the department and the pilot agencies.

Article 10. Service Delivery Provisions

5822. (a) Pilot agencies shall negotiate with providers for the amount, type, and quality of service needed. Within the limit of funds available, pilot agencies may negotiate rates of payment to providers using procedures for negotiated rates established in Section 5705.2.

(b) A pilot agency shall not contract with any provider if the direct result of the contract is a reduction of necessary services for persons with serious mental illness who are not members of the pilot agency.

(c) Pilot agencies shall recommend to the director modification of any law, regulation, or policy which interferes with the provision of effective services. The director shall consolidate these recommendations and report them annually to the Secretary of Health and Welfare and to the appropriate legislative committees.

Article 11. Participation in Information and Evaluation System

5823. (a) Pilot agencies shall participate in the information and evaluation system pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 5833 and subdivision (b) of Section 5836. Each pilot agency shall be provided a personal computer and the software to the extent necessary to produce at least the following information:

(1) The number of members who are eligible for various state and federal sources of funding.

(2) Continuous updates on the implementation of each member's personal service plan.

(3) A cumulative file of services received and expenditures.

(4) Contract compliance reports for the department.

(5) Reports required by the independent program evaluator.

(6) Current files on all expenditures, financial commitments, and budget status.

(b) The department shall provide pilot agencies with the hardware and software programs and training needed to produce standardized information for a centralized finance and program reporting system.

Article 12. Other Research and Evaluation Activities

5824. In addition to the systemwide evaluation pursuant to Chapter 5, pilot agencies may, with the approval of the director, conduct their own evaluation activities. Pilot agencies may develop collaborative projects with colleges and universities for the purpose of evaluating new diagnostic, treatment, and rehabilitative methods, and for the purpose of providing training opportunities for students in the methods of an integrated service system. Members shall have the right to accept or refuse participation in the research projects.

Article 13. Funding Level and Performance Contracts

5825. Unless requested by the department and approved by the Legislature, the total annual amount requested in each fiscal year for the budgets of the contracted pilot agencies, serving no more than 400 clients, shall not exceed either one-fourth the average annual estimated cost of serving 400 patients in state hospitals in the same year, or the average annual estimated cost of serving 400 clients in the conditional release program in the same year, whichever is less. The base budget for the integrated service system shall not include, and is in addition to, any income received by clients from SSI/SSP, SSDI, or other public income maintenance cash grants.

Pilot agencies shall be funded through annual performance contracts with the department. The department shall negotiate performance contracts to:

(a) Provide for the prepayment of a fixed capitated amount for all members to be served per annum without regard to the type or amount of services to be provided to any individual member. The department may contract for different prepaid amounts with each of the pilot agencies. Funding amounts may be adjusted in future years consistent with Section 5828.

(b) Provide pilot agencies with periodic advance payments for a specified number of members. No advance payment shall exceed 25 percent of the total annual contracted amount, to be paid when performance pursuant to stipulation of the contract has been affirmed by the department. Pilot agencies shall be evaluated at least once annually, and shall be monitored regularly by the department.

(c) Provide the department with all the information needed to evaluate the financial and program performance of the pilot agencies.

5826. The department shall organize and provide training to pilot agency personnel on a regular basis. Training shall include consultation with, and presentations from, experts with experience in the operation of model systems of service for the seriously mentally disordered in California and other states.

5827. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of state law, absent a finding of fraud, abuse, or failure to perform as contracted, no restrictions, other than any contained in the contract, shall be placed upon a pilot agency's expenditures or retention of funds received pursuant to this part.

(b) Should the department contract with one or more profitmaking organizations for the purposes of this part, the contract or contracts shall include a limitation on the percentage of the total annual contracted amount that may be retained as profit.

Article 14. Financing

5828. (a) In order to offset the cost of services, pilot agencies shall collect reimbursement for services during the pilot period from the following sources:

(1) Fees paid by members or their families, which shall be the same as patient fees established pursuant to Section 5718.

(2) Fees paid by private or public third-party payers.

(3) Categorical funds from programs established in state or federal law, for which persons with serious mental disorders are eligible.

(4) The department shall immediately seek to obtain authorizations which may be required to obtain federal financial participation for services rendered through the pilot agencies.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature to maximize the use of federal funds currently available only in separate categorical programs for the purposes of supporting the costs of an integrated system. The Secretary of Health and Welfare is hereby authorized to transfer each fiscal year during which the pilot agency is in effect those funds identified in the State Departments of Health Services, Social Services, Mental Health, Alcohol and Drug Programs, and the Departments of Rehabilitation and Housing and Community Development for which seriously mentally disabled persons are eligible. To the extent that the secretary does transfer funds, the amount transferred shall not exceed the average amount expended on 400 persons with serious mental disorders by each separate categorical program, including costs involved in determining eligibility and other administrative functions.

(c) The secretary may delegate eligibility determination to pilot agencies.

(d) The Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency may waive any state regulatory obstacles to the integration of public responsibilities and resources as required herein, for the members within the pilot system.

(e) The Secretary of Health and Welfare, and those departments designated as single state agencies administering federal programs, shall make every effort to secure federal waivers and any other changes in federal policy or law necessary to assure full implementation of this section.

(f) The Secretary of Health and Welfare shall undertake studies to assess the level of services provided for the severely mentally ill by all departments within the Health and Welfare Agency. These studies shall include the source and amount of funding expended on this population, the types of services provided, and the eligibility requirements for each program. The secretary shall also make recommendations regarding the feasibility of consolidating these state and federal categorical funds and identify any federal statutory and regulatory obstacles to the integration of public responsibilities and resources for pilot services agencies.

5829. The secretary shall submit a report to the appropriate legislative committees on an annual basis summarizing the actions taken by the secretary pursuant to Section 5828.

Article 15. Contingency Funding

5830. (a) The director shall set aside 10 percent of the budget request for the budgets for the fiscal years 1989–90, 1990–91, 1991–92, and 1992–93 for contingencies.

Contingency expenditures may include the following:

(1) Small loans or grants to pilot agencies for the initial costs of establishing new services needed by members.

(2) Emergency assistance to pilot agencies for unusual unanticipated costs.

(b) The department shall develop policies for resolving problems related to unanticipated catastrophic costs. The policies may include the purchase of private insurance.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of state law, funds allocated to the department for the purposes of this part shall remain with the department until the purposes for which they have been appropriated by this part have been achieved.

CHAPTER 3. DEFINITION OF SERIOUS MENTAL DISORDER, TARGET POPULATIONS, and HIGH RISK

5831. (a) For purposes of this part, "serious mental disorder" means a mental disorder which is severe in degree and persistent in duration, which may cause behavioral functioning which interferes substantially with the primary activities of daily living, and which may result in an inability to maintain stable adjustment and independent functioning without treatment, support, and rehabilitation for a long or indefinite period of time. Serious mental disorders include schizophrenia, as well as major affective disorders or other severely disabling mental disorders. This section shall not exclude dual-diagnosed persons with a primary diagnosis of a serious mental disorder and secondary diagnoses of substance abuse or developmental disability or other physical or mental disorder.

(b) The State Department of Mental Health shall define the "target populations of seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors" who have priority for services for the demonstration counties and pilot service agencies, hereafter known as the target population. It shall promulgate a document with specific criteria, including the requirement that a member of the target population shall meet all three of the following:

(1) A mental disorder as defined by the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual III-R, other than a primary substance use disorder or developmental disorder.

(2) As a result of the mental disorder the person has substantial functional impairments or symptoms, or a psychiatric history demonstrating that without treatment there is an imminent risk of decompensation to having substantial impairments or symptoms. "Functional impairment" means being substantially impaired as the result of a mental disorder in one of the following: independent living, social relationships, vocational skills, or physical condition.

(3) As a result of the functional impairment the person is eligible for public assistance, services, or entitlements or is otherwise legally a public responsibility or fiscal liability.

(c) This target population explicity includes ethnic minorities and other disadvantaged persons.

(d) Target population members include, but may not be limited to, persons who are:

(1) Criminal justice offenders.

(2) Homeless.

(3) Receiving ongoing public assistance related to their severe mental disorder, including, but not limited to, SSI/SSD, General Relief, AFDC, and Unemployment Insurance.

(4) In local acute inpatient facilities, state hospitals, or locked skilled nursing for the psychiatrically disordered.

(5) Receiving public services related to their severe mental disorder, including, but not limited to, the public guardian/conservator, regional resource center, or adult protective services.

(6) Require acute treatment as a result of a first psychotic "break" and who are expected to meet target population requirements within this section.

(e) Demonstration counties shall also provide services to persons at "high risk" of entering the target population. "High risk" means the person requires acute psychiatric inpatient care or outpatient crisis intervention because of a mental disorder with symptoms of psychoses, suicidality, or violence, and clinical judgment determines with reasonable certitude that without treatment the client will decompensate to the target population.

(f) Demonstration counties shall be required to use demonstration project funds provided for in this part to develop services and programs for the target population. Counties shall also be required to commit to the demonstration project those state and local funds already identified with existing services to the target population.

(g) Nothing in this part shall be construed to prohibit the expenditure of existing categorical funds to identify and serve the target populations except as the funds are explicitly intended for nontarget populations.

CHAPTER 4. ADVISORY COMMITTEE

5832. (a) An advisory committee is hereby established to advise and consult with the Director of Mental Health on all aspects of the demonstration county and pilot service agency projects.

(b) The committee shall include representatives from the Conference of Local Mental Health Directors, the California Council on Mental Health, the Organization of Mental Health Advisory Boards, the California Alliance for the Mentally Ill, the California Network of Mental Health Clients, the Public Guardian's Association, the California Council of Community Mental Health Contractors, the Task Force for the Seriously Mentally Ill and representatives from organizations or groups representing older adults and ethnic minorities, and other appropriate constituency and consumer groups as determined by the Director of Mental Health. The panel of advisers shall also include a psychiatrist and a social worker, with distinguished experience in the provision of services to persons with serious mental disorders, who shall be appointed by the Senate Rules Committee; a nurse and a psychologist, with distinguished experience in the provision of services to persons with serious mental disorders, who shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly; and two persons who have experienced mental disorders, as defined in subdivisions (a) to (e), inclusive, of Section 5831, and two family members, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 5813, who shall be appointed by the Governor. No person shall be appointed to the panel of advisers who would have a financial conflict of interest as a result of the appointment

(c) The functions of the advisory committee may include, but are not limited to, assistance in the development of the request for proposals, consultation to the demonstration counties and pilot agencies, reviews of the annual progress reports, and participation in determining if demonstration counties and pilot agencies have provided substantial progress toward the goals listed in Section 5834, and other duties as determined by the Director of Mental Health.

(d) The director or his or her designee shall chair meetings of the advisory committee, which shall be called at his or her discretion at least four times annually. Panel members shall be reimbursed for necessary travel and per diem costs at customary state rates.

CHAPTER 5. CLIENT AND COST OUTCOME EVALUATION

5833. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that client and cost outcome and interagency collaboration for demonstration counties and pilot agencies be evaluated and compared.

(b) A primary purpose of this part is to evaluate the feasibility of expanding the pilot integrated service agencies or the demonstration county interagency systems for seriously mentally disordered adults and seniors and to utilize the conclusions of an evaluation for the purpose of modifying state policies.

(c) In order to facilitate comparison of client and cost outcomes, demonstration counties and pilot agencies shall conform to the reporting requirements of the State Department of Mental Health, including those of the Client Data System, the Cost Reporting/Data Collection Manual and the Short-Doyle requirements for clinical recordkeeping, and any other data collection and reporting requirements deemed necessary by the department.

(d) To assure an adequate comparison with the existing public mental health system, the department may select a nondemonstration comparison entity for each pilot agency and demonstration county. For pilot agencies, the host counties shall be the comparison entities. For demonstration counties, a comparison county which reflects demographics and other characteristics of the demonstration county shall be selected as a comparison entity.

5834. The State Department of Mental Health shall define and establish client and cost outcome and interagency collaboration goals and negotiate the expected level of attainment with demonstration counties and pilot agencies. In addition, the department shall evaluate the impact of the pilot agencies on target population members in the county that are not served by the pilot agencies. The actual outcomes and evaluation findings shall be the basis for estimating the expected client and cost and interagency collaboration benefits if either county interagency systems of care or integrated service agencies were implemented statewide. Expected levels of attainment shall be specified for the following goals and other goals that may be identified by the department:

(a) Client improvement/maintenance outcome goals that measure the benefit of services:

(1) Reduction in the rate at which clients use state hospital bed days.

(2) Reduction in the rate at which clients use local acute inpatient bed days.

(3) Decrease in the rate at which clients are admitted to acute care facilities under the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act, Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000).

(4) Reduction in the rate at which clients spend time in the local jails.

(5) Increase in the rate at which clients receive income support entitlements.

(6) Increase in the rate at which homeless persons accept services.

(7) Increase in the rate at which clients remain in the least restrictive, most normal housing consistent with their capabilities for at least one year.

(8) Increase in the rate at which clients are actively engaged in the community support network as measured by participation in peer support or self-help groups or socialization center programs, or other meaningful social support activities.

(9) Increase in the rate at which clients are participating in a rehabilitation program, as measured by membership in a psychiatric rehabilitation program, a supported employment program or a competitive employment program for at least one year.

(10) Increase in the rate at which multiproblem clients, including those with a secondary diagnosis of substance abuse and seniors with special needs, are receiving a comprehensive program of treatment that addresses their dual-diagnostic needs.

(11) Minimize the rate at which clients are more dependent and living in more restrictive environments.

(12) Decrease in the rate at which clients with a secondary diagnosis of substance abuse are abusing dangerous drugs.

(b) Cost savings, cost avoidance, and cost-effectiveness outcomes shall measure any short-term or long-term cost savings and cost avoidance achieved:

(1) All major public costs for clients, including mental health, housing social services, vocational rehabilitation, health services (including Medi-Cal), and adult protective services and public guardianship.

(2) Costs for crisis residential, local acute, and state hospital care.

(3) Costs for criminal recidivism.

(4) Other short-term and long-term costs related to client outcome goals.

(c) System of care effectiveness outcome goals shall measure the extent to which the target population is being served.

(1) The percentage of clients who meet the target population definition.

(2) The percentage of noncategorical local assistance funds that are spent on nontarget populations.

(3) The extent to which the joint responsibilities specified in the interagency agreements have been fulfilled.

(4) The extent to which ethnic minorities are served in proportion to their numbers in the general population.

5835. The State Department of Mental Health shall assign technical and program staff and resources with assistance as necessary from private contractors to work jointly with demonstration counties and pilot agencies in developing a model for client outcome evaluation that will provide full accountability for client and cost outcomes and interagency collaboration at the state and local level. The model may include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) Identify and collect baseline measures and other information needed to determine progress toward client and cost outcome goals and interagency collaboration goals during the demonstration project.

(b) Determine the extent to which target population members including seniors, ethnic minorities, and persons with multiple disabilities are underserved.

(c) Evaluate the demonstration project caseload standards and make recommendations for statewide standards.

(d) Develop methods to monitor the entry, movement, and exit of an individual client in the system of care in order to determine the cost and outcome of treatment over time. Identify statutory and regulatory changes needed to track clients across programs.

(e) Develop client and cost outcome measures that can be externally monitored at both the state and county level and reported on a regular basis.

(f) Develop methodologies that determine the average cost to serve each client in the target population and also estimate the maximum number of persons in the target population that each demonstration county can serve with available project resources. Methodologies shall permit estimates of resources needed to serve members of the target population in all counties.

5836. (a) No later than 180 days from the effective date of this part, the director shall contract with one or more qualified persons or organizations to assist the department in fulfilling its responsibilities pursuant to Section 5834 and Section 5835. Assistance provided by the contractors may include, but is not limited to:

(1) Designing evaluation and comparison methodologies.

(2) Monitoring implementation of the methodologies.

(3) Providing oversight and technical assistance on demonstration projects aspects pertaining to evaluation and comparison of those projects.

(4) Analysis of outcome data.

(b) The evaluator shall secure approval of the director and his or her advisory board regarding the issues and questions to be included in the comparison and methodology to be used.

(c) The contractor shall provide periodic independent progress reports at least annually, and shall provide an independent report addressing the result of the evaluation which shall be included in the final report of the director pursuant to Section 5837.

(d) As necessary, the contractor shall assist the department in designing the information system that will permit continuous monitoring of client and cost outcomes and interagency collaboration for both the demonstration counties and pilot agencies. To the extent possible, this information system shall be compatible with existing data collection systems within the State Department of Mental Health.

5836.1. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, nothing shall preclude the department from entering into sole-source contracts to fulfill its responsibilities pursuant to Article 11 (commencing with Section 5823) of Chapter 2, and this chapter.

5837. (a) The State Department of Mental Health shall monitor the demonstration counties and pilot agencies for adherence to caseload standards, accurate and timely data reporting, adherence to state quality assurance standards and take sanctions if it is determined that the conditions of the performance contract are not being met. Sanctions shall be invoked as provided for in Section 5655.

(b) Demonstration counties and pilot agencies shall report to the State Department of Mental Health progress toward client and cost outcome and interagency collaboration goals pursuant to Section 5834.

(c) The State Department of Mental Health shall review the demonstration counties and pilot agencies project findings and may proceed to implement additional demonstration counties or pilot agencies prior to the end of the demonstration period if the director finds that the demonstration counties or the pilot agencies have resulted in substantial progress toward the goals listed in Section 5834.

(d) No later than December 1, 1992, the Director of Mental Health shall submit a written report to the appropriate legislative committees comparing and evaluating the demonstration counties and the pilot agencies, and determining the feasibility of implementing additional county interagency systems and integrated service agencies throughout the state after June 30, 1993. The report shall include the recommendations of the director pursuant to Sections 5834 and 5835 and the reports of the independent evaluator hired pursuant to Section 5836.

(e) These committees shall make their recommendations to the Legislature by January 31, 1993.

CHAPTER 6. EMERGENCY REGULATIONS

5838. By July 1, 1989, the State Department of Mental Health shall develop regulations as necessary to implement the county demonstration and pilot agency projects enabled by Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 5800) and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 5808). The Director of Mental Health shall adopt regulations pursuant to this section as emergency regulations, in accordance with provisions of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. For purposes of the Administrative Procedure Act, the adoption of the regulations shall be deemed to be an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, or general welfare. These regulations shall not be subject to the review and approval of the Office of Administrative Law and shall not be subject to automatic repeal until 180 days after the regulations take effect, and shall become effective immediately upon filing with the Secretary of State. Regulations adopted pursuant to this section shall be developed with the maximum feasible opportunity for public participation and comments.

CHAPTER 7. FINANCIAL PARTICIPATION

5839. The cost requirements for local financial participation pursuant to Section 5705 shall be waived for funds appropriated to support the demonstration projects established by Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 5800) and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 5808) of this part.

CHAPTER 8. APPROPRIATIONS

5840. (a) The sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Mental Health in augmentation of the Budget Act of 1988 in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) Five hundred eleven thousand dollars ($511,000) in augmentation of Item 4440-001-001 to provide for departmental support for startup costs.

(2) Four hundred eighty-nine thousand dollars ($489,000) in augmentation of Item 4440-101-001 to provide for the Ventura County Children's Program.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that this act be funded annually for the 1989–90, 1990–91, 1991–92, and 1992–1993 fiscal years, and that funds appropriated through the budget process be apportioned 80 percent to the county demonstration projects pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 5800) and the pilot agencies pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 5808) of this part, and 20 percent for programs pursuant to the Children's Mental Health Services Act, Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 5565.10) of Part 1 of Division 5.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to begin testing the effectiveness and feasibility of new systems of care for seriously mentally disordered persons as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 983

An act to amend Section 11751.4 of, and to add Division 10.6 (commencing with Section 11998) to, the Health and Safety Code, and making an appropriation in augmentation of Item 4200-001-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 (Ch. 313, Stats. 1988), relating to drug and alcohol abuse.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Alcohol problems cost the State of California eleven billion seven hundred million dollars ($11,700,000,000) each year in lost worker productivity, health and medical costs, motor vehicle accidents, violent crimes, social responses, and fire losses.

(b) Comparable losses due to drug abuse are an additional six billion dollars ($6,000,000,000).

(c) Approximately 2,500 Californians will die in 1988 in alcohol-related accidents, and there will be over 70,000 alcohol-related traffic injuries. This will occur despite approximately 325,000 misdemeanor arrests and 7,000 felony arrests for persons driving while intoxicated.

(d) Currently there are approximately 68,000 licensed retail liquor outlets in the state. In the 1986–87 fiscal year, the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control filed accusations against 2,227 vendors for selling alcoholic beverages to minors.

(e) It is conservatively estimated that 3.8 percent of all Californians abuse drugs to the degree that services are needed. The 1986 incidence data reveals that there are 991,000 active drug abusers in this state, and 27 percent of this number are heroin users. Active drug abusers are defined as persons using drugs for nonmedical purposes on a daily basis.

(f) In 1986, the Attorney General's office recorded approximately 60,000 arrests for controlled substance offenses. Furthermore, in 1986, the Attorney General's office estimated that there were at least 975 clandestine laboratories operating in California.

(g) Currently, there are over 38,000 adults on parole in California, of which 79 percent or approximately 8 out of 10 have a history of alcohol or drug abuse. In addition, during a recent 12-month period, at least 8,000 adult parolees were reported in violation of their parole as a result of drug or alcohol abuse.

(h) The Superintendent of Public Instruction reported that in the 1986–87 school year there were 4,377,989 California children registered in public school. The Attorney General, based on a recent survey of 11th graders, indicated that 78 percent of these youngsters had consumed alcohol by age 14, and 51 percent had tried illegal drugs by the 11th grade.

(i) The State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs reports that in San Francisco, Los Angeles, and San Diego, 27 children between the ages of 6 and 17 died in 1986 from alcohol or drug-related incidents.

(j) There are approximately 225,000 habitual needle-using drug addicts and an additional 200,000 recreational intravenous drug users in the state. The increasing costs associated with the spread of the AIDS virus is largely caused by the intravenous drug user. Currently, in California, approximately 10 percent of the people suffering from AIDS report a history of injecting illegal drugs.

(k) Every dollar spent on drug and alcohol abuse prevention and treatment produces economic benefits several times greater than cost. For example:

(1) Thirty-one dollars ($31) in benefits are gained for every one dollar ($1) spent on prevention services.

(2) Eleven dollars and fifty-four cents ($11.54) in benefits are gained for every one dollar ($1) spent on drug abuse treatment services.

(3) Cost savings are realized in such areas as courts, jails, and emergency rooms. Additional benefits not reflected in the above figures include reductions of cost in such areas as loss of life; medical costs, personal suffering, and property damage associated with drug-related vehicle accidents, violence, or drug trafficking; or expenditures related to crime prevention.

(l) One hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) is the current cost estimate of unmet needs for drug and alcohol services statewide. Implementation of just the top fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) of unmet needs would result in benefits to California of almost two hundred forty-two million dollars ($242,000,000).

(m) Currently, there is no consistent coordination between the 14 different state agencies that provide some type of drug or alcohol services. There is no established mechanism to prevent or eliminate unnecessary duplication of efforts.

(n) Therefore, with insufficient resources to fully address the drug and alcohol abuse problem, it is imperative that all services and resources are coordinated and that all unnecessary duplication is eliminated.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this act, to do all of the following:

(a) Establish a five-year master plan with specific goals for all segments of society to strive toward, as California wages the war on drug and alcohol abuse.

(b) Establish lines of communication and avenues of coordination that eliminate unnecessary duplication and facilitate networking and the development of a united approach to the problem.

(c) Maximize and more effectively use existing resources invested in the tremendous efforts to reduce drug and alcohol abuse.

(d) Provide new funding sources to supplement current financial commitments.

(e) Provide direction for legislative, budgetary, and public policy decisions affecting drug and alcohol services.

SEC. 3. Section 11751.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11751.4. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to assure the integrity and separate identity of state alcohol and drug programs.

(b) The Legislature recognizes, however, that state alcohol and drug programs have many areas of common concern. Therefore, the State Advisory Board on Alcohol-Related Problems, as created pursuant to Section 11780, and the State Advisory Board on Drug Programs, as created pursuant to Section 11862, shall meet jointly at least twice each calendar year. Furthermore, if a county has established separate advisory bodies for alcohol and drug issues, these local advisory bodies also shall meet jointly on a regular basis and at least two times per year.

SEC. 4. Division 10.6 (commencing with Section 11998) is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

DIVISION 10.6. DRUG AND ALCOHOL ABUSE MASTER PLANS

CHAPTER 1. LONG-RANGE GOALS

11998. This chapter sets forth the long-range goals of a five-year master plan to eliminate drug and alcohol abuse in California. The goals of this chapter are advisory, but it is the intent of the Legislature that the goals be addressed to the extent possible by each county and by state government. These advisory goals do not amend existing law. Implementation of the goals of the master plan, after the state plan has been developed and issued, shall be subject to the budget review process.

11998.1. It is the intent of the Legislature that the following long-term five-year goals be achieved:

(a) With regard to education and prevention of drug and alcohol abuse programs, the following goals:

(1) Drug and alcohol abuse education has been included within the mandatory curriculum in kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, in every public school in California.

(2) Basic training on how to recognize, and understand what to do about, drug and alcohol abuse has been provided to administrators and all teachers of kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive.

(3) All school counselors and school nurses have received comprehensive drug and alcohol abuse training.

(4) Each public school in kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, has appointed an onsite drug and alcohol abuse advisory team of school administrators, teachers, counselors, students, parents, and community representatives, and health care professionals, all of whom have expertise in drug and alcohol abuse prevention. The team coordinates with and receives consultation from the county alcohol and drug program administrator.

(5) Every school board member has received basic drug and alcohol abuse information.

(6) Each school district has a drug and alcohol abuse specialist to assist the individual schools.

(7) Each school in grades 7 to 12, inclusive, has student peer group drug and alcohol abuse programs.

(8) Every school in kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, has updated written drug and alcohol abuse policies and procedures including disciplinary procedures which will be given to every school employee, every student, and every parent.

(9) The California State University and the University of California have evaluated and, if feasible, established educational programs and degrees in the area of drug and alcohol abuse.

(10) Every school in kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, has an established parent teachers group with drug and alcohol abuse prevention goals.

(11) Every school district has instituted a drug and alcohol abuse education program for parents.

(12) Drug and alcohol abuse training has been imposed as a condition for teacher credentialing and license renewal, and knowledge on the issue is measured on the California Basic Education Skills Test.

(13) Drug and alcohol abuse knowledge has been established as a component on standardized competency tests as a requirement for graduation.

(14) Every school district has established a parent support group.

(15) Every school has instituted policies which address the special needs of children who have been rehabilitated for drug or alcohol abuse problems and who are reentering school. These policies shall consider the loss of school time, the loss of academic credits, and the sociological problems associated with drug and alcohol abuse, its rehabilitation, and the educational delay it causes.

(16) The number of drug and alcohol abuse related incidents on school grounds has decreased by 20 percent.

(b) With regard to community programs, the following goals:

(1) Every community-based social service organization that receives state and local financial assistance has drug and alcohol abuse information available for clients.

(2) All neighborhood watch, business watch, and community conflict resolution programs have included drug and alcohol abuse prevention efforts.

(3) All community-based programs that serve school-aged children have staff trained in drug and alcohol abuse and will give a clear, drug and alcohol-free message.

(c) With regard to drug and alcohol abuse programs of the media, the following goals:

(1) The state has established a comprehensive media campaign that involves all facets of the drug and alcohol abuse problem, including treatment, education, prevention, and intervention.

(2) The department on a statewide basis, and the county board of supervisors or its designees at the local level, have:

(A) Assisted the entertainment industry in identifying ways to effectively use the entertainment industry to encourage lifestyles free of substance abuse.

(B) Assisted the manufacturers of drug and alcohol products in identifying ways to effectively use product advertising to discourage substance abuse.

(C) Assisted television stations in identifying ways to effectively use television programming to encourage lifestyles free of substance abuse.

(3) A statewide cooperative fundraising program with recording artists and the entertainment industry has been encouraged to fund drug and alcohol abuse prevention efforts in the state.

(d) With regard to drug and alcohol abuse health care programs, the following goals:

(1) The number of drug and alcohol abuse-related medical emergencies has decreased by 4 percent per year.

(2) All general acute care hospitals and AIDS medical service providers have provided information to their patients on drug and alcohol abuse.

(3) The Board of Medical Quality Assurance, the Psychology Examining Committee, the Board of Registered Nursing, and the Board of Behavioral Science Examiners have developed and implemented the guidelines or regulations requiring drug and alcohol abuse training for their licensees, and have developed methods of providing training for those professionals.

(e) With regard to private sector drug and alcohol abuse programs, the following goals:

(1) A significant percentage of businesses in the private sector have developed personnel policies that discourage drug and alcohol abuse and encourage supervision, training, and employee education.

(2) Noteworthy and publicly recognized figures and private industry have been encouraged to sponsor fundraising events for drug and alcohol abuse prevention.

(3) Every public or private athletic team has been encouraged to establish policies forbidding drug and alcohol abuse.

(4) The private sector has established personnel policies that discourage drug and alcohol abuse but encourage treatment for those employees who require this assistance.

(f) With regard to local government drug and alcohol abuse programs, the following goals:

(1) Every county has a five-year master plan to eliminate drug and alcohol abuse developed by the county designated alcohol and drug program administrator and reviewed and approved by the advisory body set forth in paragraph (2). In those counties which do not have an established advisory body as provided in paragraph (2), the county designated alcohol and drug program administrator has assumed responsibility for developing the plan, with assistance from representatives of the county's population as designated in paragraph (2). To the degree possible, all existing local plans relating to drug or alcohol abuse shall be incorporated into the master plan.

(2) Every county has a multidisciplinary drug and alcohol abuse advisory body. The membership of the local advisory body is representative of the county's population, geographically balanced, and consists of representatives of each of the following:

(A) Law enforcement.

(B) Education.

(C) The treatment and recovery community, including a representative with expertise in AIDS treatment services.

(D) The judiciary.

(E) County alcohol and drug administrators or their designees.

(F) Student groups.

(G) Parent groups.

(H) Private industry.

(I) Other community organizations involved in drug and alcohol services.

To the maximum extent possible, the county advisory board on alcohol problems and the county advisory board on drug problems have been modified to meet this goal.

(3) Every county public social service agency has established direct service policies that discourage drug and alcohol abuse and encourage rehabilitation treatment when necessary.

(4) Every local unit of government has an employee assistance program that addresses drug and alcohol abuse problems.

(5) Every local unit of government has considered the potential for drug and alcohol abuse problems when developing zoning ordinances and issuing conditional use permits.

(6) Every county master plan includes treatment and recovery services.

(6.5) Every county master plan includes specialized provisions to ensure optimum alcohol and drug abuse service delivery for handicapped and disabled persons.

(7) Every local unit of government has been encouraged to establish an employee assistance program that includes the treatment of drug and alcohol abuse related programs.

(8) Every local governmental social service provider has established a referral system under which clients with drug and alcohol abuse problems can be referred for treatment.

(9) Every county drug and alcohol abuse treatment or recovery program gives priority for services to pregnant women.

(10) Every alcohol and drug abuse program provides acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) information to all program participants.

(g) With regard to state and federal government drug and alcohol abuse programs, the following goals:

(1) The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control has informed all alcohol retailers of the laws governing liquor sales and has provided training available to all personnel selling alcoholic beverages, on identifying and handling minors attempting to purchase alcohol.

(2) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning has required all applicants for crime prevention and juvenile justice and delinquency prevention funds to include drug and alcohol abuse prevention efforts in their programs.

(3) All county applications for funding from the department include a prevention component.

(4) The Superintendent of Public Instruction has employed drug and alcohol abuse school prevention specialists and assisted local school districts with the implementation of prevention programs.

(5) The State Department of Mental Health has staff trained in drug and alcohol abuse prevention who can assist local mental health programs with prevention efforts.

(6) The Department of the California Highway Patrol has established routine statewide sobriety check points for driving while under the influence.

(7) The Department of Corrections and the Department of the Youth Authority have provided drug and alcohol abuse education and prevention services for all inmates, wards, and parolees. Both departments have provided drug and alcohol abuse treatment services for any inmate, ward, or parolee determined to be in need of these services, or who personally requests these services.

(8) The Department of Motor Vehicles has distributed prevention materials with each driver's license or certificate of renewal and each vehicle registration renewal mailed by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

(9) Federal prevention programs have been encouraged to follow the master plan.

(10) State licensing and program regulations for drug and alcohol abuse treatment programs have been consolidated and administered by one state agency.

(11) State treatment funding priorities have been included to specially recognize the multiple diagnosed client who would be eligible for services from more than one state agency.

(12) Every state agency has formalized employee assistance programs that include the treatment of drug and alcohol abuse-related problems.

(13) The state master plan includes specialized provisions to ensure optimum drug and alcohol abuse service delivery for handicapped and disabled persons.

(h) With regard to private sector direct service providers, the following goals:

(1) Drinking drivers programs have provided clear measurements of successful completion of the program to the courts for each court-ordered client.

(2) All drug and alcohol abuse treatment programs provide poly drug abuse services or have an established referral system to ensure clients receive all needed services.

(3) Adequate nonresidential and residential services, are available statewide for juveniles in need of alcohol or drug abuse services.

(4) Each provider of alcohol or drug services has been certified by the state.

(5) Drug and alcohol abuse treatment providers provide general acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) information during treatment.

(i) With regard to supply regulation and reduction in conjunction with drug and alcohol abuse, the following goals:

(1) Each county has a drug and alcohol abuse enforcement team, designated by the board of supervisors, as a part of the overall drug and alcohol abuse advisory committee. This team includes all components of the criminal justice system.

This team shall be responsible to the board of supervisors and shall advise the drug and alcohol abuse advisory committee and the county on all criminal justice matters relating to drug and alcohol abuse.

(2) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning, the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency, the Department of the California Highway Patrol, the Office of Traffic Safety, and the Department of Justice have established a state level drug and alcohol abuse enforcement team that includes representatives from all facets of criminal justice. The lead agency for the enforcement team has been designated by the Governor. This team advises the state and assists the local teams.

(3) State career criminal apprehension and community crime prevention programs have included drug and alcohol abuse prevention components.

(4) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning, Youth and Adult Correctional Agency, and the Department of Justice have as a priority when determining training subjects, prevention seminars on drug and alcohol abuse.

(5) The Department of the California Highway Patrol, as permitted by the United States Constitution, will in conjunction with establishing sobriety check points statewide, assist local law enforcement agencies with the establishment of local programs.

(6) Counties with more than 10 Superior Court judgeships have established programs under which drug cases receive swift prosecution by well-trained prosecutors before judges who are experienced in the handling of drug cases.

(7) The courts, when determining bail eligibility and the amount of bail for persons suspected of a crime involving a controlled substance, shall consider the quantity of the substance involved when measuring the danger to society if the suspect is released.

(8) Drunk driving jails have been established that provide offender education and treatment during incarceration.

(9) All probation and parole officers have received drug and alcohol abuse training, including particular training on drug recognition.

(10) All parolees and persons on probation with a criminal history that involves drug or alcohol abuse have conditions of parole or probation that prohibit drug and alcohol abuse.

(11) The Judicial Council has provided training on drug and alcohol abuse for the judges.

(12) The courts, when sentencing offenders convicted of selling drugs, consider "street value" of the drugs involved in the underlying crime.

(13) Judges have been encouraged to include treatment and prevention services in sentences for all offenders. Judges are requiring, as a condition of sentencing, education and treatment services for all persons convicted of driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

(14) Juvenile halls and jails provide clients with information on drug and alcohol abuse.

(15) The estimated number of clandestine labs operating has decreased by 10 percent per year.

(16) Each local law enforcement agency has developed, with the schools, protocol on responding to school drug and alcohol abuse problems.

(17) Every county has instituted a mandatory driving while under the influence presentence offender evaluation program.

11998.2. (a) "Department," as used in this division, means the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs.

(b) The board of supervisors of each county, or its designee, may, and is encouraged to, prepare and adopt a county drug and alcohol abuse master plan, developed by the county alcohol and drug program administrator and reviewed and approved by the advisory body set forth in Section 11998, that addresses as many of the long-range goals set forth in Section 11998.1 as possible. It is the intent of the Legislature that every county master plan include quantitative outcome objectives that, at a minimum, measure progress in the areas of prevention, education, enforcement, and treatment. It is the intent of the Legislature that these objectives include measurements of:

(1) The reduction of driving under the influence of drugs or alcohol arrests, or both.

(2) The reduction of drug-related arrests.

(3) Increased public education on the dangers of substance abuse and the available prevention techniques including specific measurements of children, parents, and teachers who have received this education.

(4) The reduction of alcohol and drug-related deaths and injuries.

(5) The increased number of successful drug and alcohol rehabilitated clients.

If a county master plan is adopted, the board of supervisors or its designee shall, in conjunction with the advisory body, annually assess the progress of the county in reaching its long-range goals.

(c) Every county or public or private agency within a county that applies or reapplies for state or local assistance funds for drug and alcohol abuse efforts, including, but not limited to, funds provided under Division 10.5 (commencing with Section 11750), in their program, may address, to the extent possible, any long-range goals set forth in a county drug and alcohol abuse master plan pursuant to subdivision (b), and funding priority may be given to those entities which address these goals within their respective programs.

(d) The Governor shall designate one state agency to act as the lead agency on all drug and alcohol abuse matters.

(e) Every state agency that contracts or grants money to local jurisdictions or programs for drug and alcohol abuse services shall require the submission and shall review the contents of an approved county drug and alcohol abuse master plan, to the extent a plan has been adopted pursuant to subdivision (b).

(f) Commencing on January 1, 1990, every state agency that offers drug and alcohol abuse services or financial assistance shall report to the Legislature annually on its efforts to achieve the master plan goals provided in Section 11998.1.

(g) The department shall send copies of this division to all state-funded social service programs that provide drug and alcohol abuse services.

(h) The department shall maintain copies of every county drug and alcohol abuse master plan for review by other state agencies and the Legislature.

(i) The Governor shall designate one statewide resource center to coordinate efforts of other resource centers statewide and to coordinate with local government and assist in their preparation of drug and alcohol abuse master plans.

(j) The Senate Office of Research shall prepare, on or before June 30, 1989, a summary of drug and alcohol abuse laws for use by the Legislature, the department, and all other related state agencies in oversight of drug and alcohol abuse programs, and in evaluating the need for statutory changes. To the degree possible this summary shall be available to the public.

(k) Commencing June 30, 1989, the department shall maintain an annually updated listing of all drug and alcohol abuse programs provided or funded by the state. Every other state agency shall regularly provide the department with current information on programs they fund or provide.

(l) The Governor's Policy Council on Drug and Alcohol Abuse shall review and consider all of the goals contained in Section 11998.1.

After January 1, 1992, the Auditor General shall audit the department to determine the state's progress and to the degree possible, the counties' progress toward meeting the master plan objectives set forth by this division. On or before January 1, 1993, the Auditor General shall report the findings resulting from these audits to the Legislature.

11998.3. Priority in allocating state funds for substance abuse law enforcement agencies shall be given to those counties which have established a drug and alcohol abuse enforcement team, comprised of representatives of all law enforcement agencies within the county, including the courts. The drug and alcohol abuse enforcement team shall adopt measures to coordinate the efforts of drug and alcohol abuse law enforcement agencies within the county.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act does not mandate a new program or higher level of service on local government. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 17550) of Part 7 of Division 2 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 6. The sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in augmentation of Item 4200-001-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 (Ch. 313, Stats. 1988). The funds so appropriated shall be expended by the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs only upon completion and public issuance of the master plan as set forth by this act, as the State Master Plan to Reduce Drug and Alcohol Abuse.

CHAPTER 984

An act to amend Sections 16312, 16475, 53692, 58751, and 58752 of, and to add Section 91554 to, the Government Code, relating to fiscal affairs, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988]

I am reducing the $7,465,000 General Fund appropriation to $250,000, and I am deleting the $5,000,000 Federal Trust Fund appropriation contained in Section 7 of Senate Bill No 2172 to reflect the elimination of duplicate or inappropriate funding requests as follows

I am deleting the $5,000,000 General Fund and $5,000,000 Federal Trust Fund appropriations to the Department of Health Services for the purpose of providing increased funding for disproportionate share hospitals that operate trauma centers or basic emergency rooms I am signing SB 2563 (Maddy) which will provide the same level of funding to the Department of Health Services to facilitate the funding of specified disproportionate share hospitals SB 2563 reflects the agreement reached between the Legislature and the Administration to complete the 1988–89 Budget process, and contains an appropriation for this purpose Therefore, the General and Federal Fund appropriations contained in this bill are unnecessary

I am also deleting the augmentation of $225,000 General Fund to Item 4260-111-001,

Department of Health Services AB 1903 contains funds to implement this program Thus, the appropriation contained in this bill is duplicative and unnecessary

I am reducing the $1,150,000 General Fund appropriation to the Department of Veterans Affairs to $250,000 for the purpose of funding County Veterans Service Officers program The County Veterans Service Officers program has always been a county program and as such has been dependent primarily upon county support State support is, therefore, supplemental and not related to the level of program activity As such, I believe that the issue of funding for the County Veterans Service Officers program should primarily be addressed at the county level I am signing legislation to provide the counties an additional $216 5 million for the fiscal year Sufficient funds will be available to the counties to maintain County Veterans Service Officers programs I am, however, retaining $250,000 of the augmentation which will allow the state to assist the counties in maintaining services to veterans through County Veteran Services Offices This augmentation recognizes the increased costs associated with the reestablishment of the San Diego Veteran service office which has reduced the level of state subventions to the other 53 offices These funds will allow counties to maintain the current level of service to veterans Moreover, the 1988–89 Budget provides $28 2 million in state funds and $10 1 million in federal funds to provide services to California veterans

I am deleting the augmentation of $1,100,000 to Item 8260-111-001, California Arts Council, intended to fund the California Challenge Program I have retained the $1,000,000 augmentation included in AB 1903 for this purpose Thus, the appropriation contained in this bill is duplicative and unnecessary.

With these reductions, I approve Senate Bill No 2172

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16312 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16312. (a) Notwithstanding and in addition to any other provision of law permitting withdrawal of moneys from the General Fund for deposit into a special fund for the purpose of carrying out a program or project with repayment to the General Fund to come from the proceeds of the later sale of state bonds or notes, the Pooled Money Investment Board may instead make a loan from the Pooled Money Investment Account directly to any such special fund, on such terms and conditions as the board may determine, upon request made to the board by an appropriate official. Any official authorized by law to seek, authorize, or approve a withdrawal of moneys from the General Fund for these purposes may in the alternative request a loan from the board as provided in this section and execute such documents as are required by the board to obtain and repay the loan. Interest on the loan shall be determined as provided in Section 16314.

(b) The Pooled Money Investment Board may also make a loan from the Pooled Money Investment Account to any special fund for the purpose of carrying out a program or project that is authorized to be financed by issuing bonds, notes, or other evidence of indebtedness, where the special fund does not qualify under subdivision (a). Any loan shall be subject to those terms and conditions as the board shall determine and interest shall be determined as provided in Section 16314.

Any state agency or other entity of state government that has authority to issue bonds may request a loan from the Pooled Money Investment Account and execute such documents as are required by the board to obtain and repay the loan.

(c) When a loan is made pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) to a special fund to carry out a state general obligation bond program, other than a program adopted pursuant to an initiative statute prior to August 22, 1988, or Chapter 27, 30, 48, or 49 of the Statutes of 1988, the special fund shall pay the loan interest out of the proceeds derived from bond sales. For non-self-liquidating programs adopted pursuant to an initiative statute prior to August 22, 1988, or Chapter 27, 30, 48, or 49 of the Statutes of 1988, the General Fund shall pay the loan interest.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 13340, amounts required to pay interest on loans made to non-self-liquidating general obligation bond programs are hereby continuously appropriated from the General Fund.

The Legislature hereby finds and declares that these appropriations for interest payments regarding general obligation bond programs are appropriations for debt service as defined in Section 8 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and therefore are exempt from the appropriations limit set by that article.

SEC. 2. Section 16475 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16475. As of December 31 and June 30 all interest earned and other increment derived from investments made pursuant to this article shall, on order of the Controller, be deposited in the Surplus Money Investment Fund. The Controller, after deducting expenses incurred under this article by the Treasurer in investing in securities or time bank or savings and loan association deposits and in collecting bonds and bond coupons, shall apportion, as of December 31st and June 30th of each year, to the following funds in the Treasury, all interest earned or increment derived from the investments authorized by this article for the six calendar months ending with those dates:

(a) The General Fund.

(b) Each fund into which are deposited or which contains moneys collected from any tax now or hereafter imposed by this state upon the manufacture, sale, distribution, or use of motor vehicle fuel, for use in motor vehicles upon the public streets and highways.

(c) Each fund into which are deposited or which contains moneys collected from motor vehicle and other vehicle registration license fees or from any other tax or license fee now or hereafter imposed by the state upon vehicles, motor vehicles or the operation thereof, except those taxes and license fees which, by the provisions of Section 7 of Article XIX of the Constitution are exempted from the provisions of Section 2 of Article XIX.

(d) Each fund into which are deposited or which contains moneys collected under the provisions of any law of this state relating to the protection, conservation, propagation, or preservation of fish, game, mollusks, or crustaceans, and fines imposed by any court for the violation of any of those laws.

(e) Each fund into which are deposited or which contains moneys available for construction, repair, replacement, maintenance or operation of public works of the state, including, but not limited to, the facilities of the State Water Resources Development System, as defined in Section 12931 of the Water Code, toll facilities financed, built, or acquired pursuant to the California Toll Bridge Authority Act, or moneys available for the payment of principal or interest on bonds issued to provide for the construction of those facilities.

(f) Every other fund in respect to which the Board of Control on the advice of the Attorney General determines that the operation of the California Constitution or the United States Constitution prohibits the expenditure of interest received under this article and allocated on the basis of amounts in that fund for General Fund purposes.

(g) Each fund not included within subdivisions (a) to (f), inclusive.

The apportionments shall be made by the Controller in the following manner:

(1) All money not apportioned to the funds referred to in subdivisions (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g) shall be apportioned to the General Fund.

(2) There shall be apportioned to each of the funds referred to in subdivisions (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g), an amount directly proportionate to the respective amounts transferred from those funds to the Surplus Money Investment Fund and the length of time the amounts remained therein.

(3) Interest accrued or paid to the Pooled Money Investment Account from the proceeds of tax-exempt obligations on loans made pursuant to Section 16312 or 16313, to the extent thereof, shall be deemed apportioned to the State Highway Account or such other accounts as may be designated by the Controller pursuant to Section 16654, but only to the extent of its proportionate earnings as determined under paragraph (2). This paragraph shall neither increase nor decrease the amount of earnings apportioned to any fund or account in accordance with this section. These moneys shall be deemed expended (or applied to reimburse expenditures previously paid) first following the allocation of these interest earnings of the Surplus Money Investment Fund to the State Highway Account or such other accounts as may be designated by the Controller pursuant to Section 16654. It is the intent of the Legislature that this paragraph shall authorize the Treasurer and the Controller to monitor the expenditure of the proceeds of tax-exempt obligations in order to comply with federal tax laws and shall neither increase nor decrease the amount of bonds, notes, or other obligations to be issued by the state or any subdivision thereof, nor shall this paragraph be interpreted to indicate that the allocation is contrary to any bond act.

SEC. 3. Section 53692 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53692. In addition to any other requirement imposed by law, at least 15 days prior to the sale of any public securities which exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000) at a public sale, an issuer shall publish notice of the intention to sell the securities in a financial publication generally circulated throughout the state or reasonably expected to be disseminated among prospective bidders for the securities. The notice shall include the date, time, and place of the intended sale and the amount of the securities to be sold.

SEC. 4. Section 58751 of the Government Code is amended to read:

58751. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

"Assessed value" means, in the case of (i) a district, the total assessed value of real property within the entire territory of the district, and (ii) a subdistrict, the total assessed value of real property within such subdistrict. The assessed value shall be determined from the last equalized assessment roll or rolls of the county or counties within which any such district or subdistrict is located, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 135 of the Revenue and Taxation Code If the boundaries of any district or subdistrict do not conform to the property lines shown on the roll or rolls, the county assessor shall furnish the district or the State Treasurer with estimated assessed values as may be necessary to comply with this chapter.

"Bonds" means (i) any "security", as defined in subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, of Section 8102 of the Commercial Code, that has been or is proposed to be issued by a district or any officer thereof, the principal and interest of which is payable, in whole or in part, from any ad valorem taxes or ad valorem assessments upon real or personal property, or both, and, (ii) in addition, any bonds issued or proposed to be issued under the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 (commencing with Section 8500, Streets and Highways Code). "Bonds" does not include:

(a) Any bonds, the entire principal of which is payable within a period of less than five years from the date of issuance thereof, except where any such bonds shall be a part of a larger issue or series of bonds some of which are payable after said five-year period;

(b) Any bonds, payable to or to be purchased or held by the state, the United States of America, or any city, city and county, county or district, or any agency, department or officer thereof; or

(c) Any bonds, issued under any special assessment act or law where the sole remedy of the bondholder is the enforcement of a specific lien on a specific parcel of land, or where a determination has been made pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 8769 of the Streets and Highways Code.

"District" means any agency of the state, formed pursuant to general law or special act, for the local performance of governmental or proprietary functions within limited boundaries. "District" shall not include the state, any city, city and county, county, school district, any district the majority of members of whose governing body is composed of members of boards of supervisors or city councils, or any combination of either, or is composed of members the majority of which are appointed by boards of supervisors or city councils, or any district which proposes to issue bonds pursuant to any law requiring the approval of or an investigation and report by the State Treasurer prior to the issuance of such bonds.

"District bonds" means (i) any bonds issued or proposed to be issued by the district which are payable, in whole or in part, from ad valorem taxes or ad valorem assessments to be levied upon real or personal property, or both, within the entire territory of the district, and (ii) any bonds issued or proposed to be issued by the district under the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 in a proceeding where the entire territory of the district comprises the special assessment district.

"Investigation, report, and approval" means the making of an investigation and report and the approval of bonds for certification, in the manner and as provided in Division 10 (commencing with Section 20000) of the Water Code.

"Issue" or "issuance" means any award or contract which obligates the district, or any of its officers, to execute and deliver bonds to any purchaser or other person entitled thereto.

"Outstanding district indebtedness" means the unpaid principal amount of all issued and outstanding (i) district bonds and (ii) subdistrict bonds issued under the Improvement Bond Act of 1915.

"Subdistrict" means any lands, consisting of less than the entire territory of a district, which have been or are proposed to be formed by the district into a special assessment district or any improvement district, zone or area within the district.

"Subdistrict bonds" means (i) any bonds issued or proposed to be issued by the district which are payable, in whole or in part, from taxes or ad valorem assessments to be levied upon real or personal property, or both, within the territory of a subdistrict, and (ii) any bonds issued or proposed to be issued by the district under the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 in a proceeding where less than the entire territory of the district comprises the special assessment district.

SEC. 5. Section 58752 of the Government Code is amended to read:

58752. The issuance of any proposed district bonds shall be subject to prior investigation, report, and approval by the State Treasurer whenever either of the following conditions are present:

(a) In the event that the proposed bonds are to be secured by a tax or assessment on land and improvements, when the amount of outstanding district indebtedness plus the principal amount of the proposed district bonds exceed the assessed value of the land and improvements within the district as shown on the last equalized county assessment roll.

(b) In the event that the proposed bonds are to be secured by a tax or assessment on land only, when the amount of outstanding district indebtedness plus the principal amount of the proposed district bonds shall exceed the assessed value of the land within the district as shown on the last equalized county assessment roll.

Whenever either of the foregoing conditions exist, no district bonds shall be issued until after investigation, report, and approval by the State Treasurer.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to bonds issued pursuant to the Improvement Act of 1911 (Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Streets and Highways Code) or the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 (Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code).

SEC. 6. Section 91554 is added to the Government Code, to read:

91554. Upon order of the commission, any surplus in the Industrial Development Fund not required for the expenses of the commission shall be transferred, in accordance with the commission's order, to common reserve funds established by the commission pursuant to Section 91560. These moneys may be used, without further appropriation by the Legislature, for the purposes authorized by Section 91560.

SEC. 7. The sum of seven million four hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($7,475,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund and five million dollars ($5,000,000) is appropriated from the Federal Trust Fund in augmentation of the following specified items of the Budget Act of 1988, Chapter 313 of the Statutes of 1988, in accordance with the following schedule:

1960-101-001—For augmentation of Department of Veterans Affairs		1,150,000

8260-111-001—For augmentation of the California Arts Council 1,100,000
Funds appropriated for the California Challenge Program shall not be expended unless the grant recipient provides matching funds through new and increased private contributions based on criteria established by the California Arts Council specifically for this program.

SEC. 8. The sum of eight hundred seven thousand dollars ($807,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in augmentation of Item 8550-001-191 (b) of the Budget Act of 1988, Chapter 313 of the Statutes of 1988.

SEC. 9. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to enable the state to market bonds under recent federal tax law changes and for the funds appropriated by this act to be available for expenditure as soon as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 985

An act to amend Sections 7001 and 7002.5 of, and to add Section 24702.1 to, the Education Code, relating to public schools, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7001 of the Education Code is amended to read:

7001. (a) The county superintendent of schools, school district, or community college district shall annually select a one-month period during which persons described by Section 7000 may elect to enroll in, respectively, the health and welfare benefit plan or the dental care benefit plan or change their enrollment from one to another health and welfare plan or dental care benefit plan, respectively.

(b) A certificated school employee who is retired on August 25, 1986, or the surviving spouse of a certificated employee retired as of August 25, 1986, shall be permitted to enroll in any district health and dental care plan during the 1986, 1987, and 1988 enrollment periods.

(c) A certificated school employee who retires after August 24, 1986, or the surviving spouse of a certificated employee whose death occurs after August 25, 1986, shall be allowed to enroll in the coverage provided by this article within 30 days of losing active employee coverage, but if the retiree or the surviving spouse does not enroll in a district health or dental care plan during this initial enrollment period, the retiree or surviving spouse may be denied further opportunity to do so.

The enrollment period for retirees and surviving spouses under this subdivision shall correspond to that provided to active employees, unless a district chooses to offer an additional enrollment period.

(d) This article shall permit enrollment into any district health and dental care plan only once. A retiree or spouse or surviving spouse of a certificated employee who has been previously covered under this article and who has voluntarily terminated that coverage, may be excluded from again obtaining coverage under this article thereafter. This subdivision does not apply to a person who is changing plans within a district during an open enrollment period.

(e) Retirees or surviving spouses of certificated employees may be enrolled in a medical care plan pursuant to this section during periods other than those specified therein if they lose their coverage. With documentation of prior coverage, they may be allowed to enroll in a medical care plan, if they do so within 31 days of losing their other coverage.

SEC. 2. Section 7002.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

7002.5. (a) This article does not create a vested retirement right in health and dental care benefits.

(b) The individual districts, the county office, a health plan, an entity proving or arranging a health plan, and the State Teachers' Retirement System do not have any legal duty to contact retired teachers or surviving spouses of certificated employees with regard to this article.

SEC. 3. Section 24702.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

24702.1. Notwithstanding Section 24702, revenues from school lands or lieu lands related to the claim of the State of California to the school lands within the area referred to as the Elk Hills Naval Petroleum Reserve, shall be deposited in the School Land Bank Fund established by Section 8711 of the Public Resources Code. Interest earnings from this source of revenue deposited in the School Land Bank Fund shall be transmitted to the Teachers' Retirement Fund pursuant to Section 6217.5 of the Public Resources Code and shall be distributed pursuant to Section 24702.

CHAPTER 986

An act relating to veterans, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Veterans Affairs for allocation to the California Veterans Board for expenditure during the 1989 calendar year for the purpose of reimbursing the members of the Prisoners of War Committee of the California Veterans Board for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in carrying out their committee duties.

SEC. 2. The Prisoners of War Committee shall prepare and submit to the Department of Veterans Affairs an accounting of all funds received and expended pursuant to Section 1 of this act. The Department of Veterans Affairs shall prepare and submit a report to the Legislature, on or before January 1, 1991, on the expenditure of funds by the Prisoners of War Committee pursuant to Section 1 of this act.

CHAPTER 987

An act to add and repeal Section 11019.6 of, and to amend, add, and repeal Section 15202 of, the Government Code, and to amend Section 2 of Chapter 1469 of the Statutes of 1984, relating to county finance.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11019.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

11019.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, but to the extent consistent with applicable federal law and to the extent that funds are available, the Department of Finance, after receiving a request by the board of supervisors of any county with a population of 150,000 or less at the time of the 1980 decennial census may waive for one fiscal year the county's legal obligation to meet a matching fund requirement or otherwise to provide a share of the cost of the program for reimbursement of homicide trial costs in small counties pursuant to Section 15202. Any request by a board of supervisors shall be made by resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the board after a public hearing. The resolution shall contain findings regarding the financial condition of the county government which constitute the basis for the board's request.

The determination of whether to grant a waiver shall be based on standards developed by the Department of Finance, and any determination to grant a waiver shall be based on conditions of actual necessity. The waiver of a matching fund requirement may not be authorized sooner than 30 days after notification in writing of the necessity therefor to the chairpersons of the fiscal committees in each house of the Legislature and the chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, or not sooner than whatever lesser time the chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee may in each instance determine.

(b) The waiver of any matching funds pursuant to subdivision (a) shall not result in any decrease in the total expenditure of funds for any program. The amount of any matching fund requirement that is waived pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be paid by the state from the Item 8180 of the annual Budget Act.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered before January 1, 1991, extends or deletes that date.

SEC. 2. Section 15202 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 46 of Chapter 323 of the Statutes of 1983, is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 15202 of the Government Code, as amended by Chapter 32 of the Statutes of 1986, is amended to read:

15202. (a) A county with a population of 300,000 or less, at the time of the 1980 decennial census, which is responsible for the cost of a trial or trials or any hearing of a person for the offense of homicide may apply to the Controller for reimbursement of 90 percent of the costs incurred by the county for each such trial or hearing, without regard to fiscal year, in excess of the amount of money derived by the county from a tax of 0.00625 of 1 percent of the full value of property assessed for purposes of taxation within the county.

(b) (1) A county with a population of 150,000 or less, at the time of the 1980 decennial census, which is responsible for the cost of two or more trials or hearings within a fiscal year of a person or persons for the offense of homicide may apply to the Controller for reimbursement of 90 percent of the costs incurred in a fiscal year by the county for the conduct of the first trial within a fiscal year and 85 percent of the costs incurred in a fiscal year by the county for the conduct of any and all subsequent trials or hearings, in excess of the amount of money derived by the county from a tax of 0.00625 of 1 percent of the full value of property assessed for purposes of taxation within the county.

(2) A county with a population of 150,000 or less, at the time of the 1980 decennial census, which, within a fiscal year, is reimbursed for costs incurred by the county for the conduct of only one trial or hearing pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be reimbursed for that one trial or hearing in subsequent fiscal years for costs incurred in those subsequent fiscal years without again being required to expend county funds equal to 0.00625 of 1 percent of assessed valuation of property within the county so long as all reimbursements to the county under this paragraph are for only that one trial or hearing.

For purposes of this subdivision, in determining the costs of a homicide trial, trials, hearing, or hearings, the costs shall include, all pretrial, trial, and posttrial costs incurred in connection with the investigation, prosecution, and defense of a homicide case or cases within a fiscal year, including, but not limited to, the costs incurred by the district attorney, sheriff, public defender, and witnesses, which were reasonably required by the court and participants in the case or cases, and other extraordinary costs associated with the investigation in homicide cases.

(c) A county with a population exceeding 300,000 at the time of the 1980 decennial census which is responsible for the cost of a trial or trials or any hearing of a person for the offense of homicide may apply to the Controller for reimbursement of 80 percent of the costs incurred by the county in excess of the amount of money derived by the county from a tax of 0.00625 of 1 percent, and not in excess of the amount of money derived from a tax of 0.0125 of 1 percent, and for reimbursement of 100 percent of the costs incurred in excess of the amount of money derived from a tax of 0.0125 percent, of the full value of property assessed for purposes of taxation within the county.

(d) The Controller shall not reimburse any county for costs that exceed the standards for travel and per diem expenses set forth in Sections 700 to 715, and 718, of Title 2 of the California Administrative Code. The Controller may reimburse extraordinary costs in unusual cases if the county provides sufficient justification of the need for such expenditures.

(e) The Legislature recognizes that the conduct of trials for persons accused of homicide should not be hampered or delayed because of a lack of funds available to the counties for that purpose. While this section is intended to provide an equitable basis for determining the allocation to the state of the costs of homicide trials in any particular county, the rising costs of those trials necessitate an objective study to assure reasonable financial restraints and incentives for cost-effectiveness that do not place an unreasonable burden on the treasury of the smaller counties.

This section shall remain operative only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 15202 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15202. A county which is responsible for the cost of a trial or trials or any hearing of a person for the offense of homicide may apply to the Controller for reimbursement of the costs incurred by the county in excess of the amount of money derived by the county from a tax of 0.0125 of 1 percent of the full value of property assessed for purposes of taxation within the county.

The Controller shall not reimburse any county for costs that exceed the State Board of Control's standards for travel and per diem expenses. The Controller may reimburse extraordinary costs in unusual cases if the county provides sufficient justification of the need for these expenditures.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1991.

SEC. 5. Section 2 of Chapter 1469 of the Statutes of 1984 is amended to read:

Sec. 2. Section 1 of this act applies to any case in which a final judgment was not entered prior to January 1, 1985. All reimbursements made, pursuant to Section 1 of this act, shall be based upon financial need.

SEC. 6. The Legislative Analyst shall evaluate the findings made by the Office of Planning and Research in its study which was undertaken in accordance with the former provisions of Section 15202 of the Government Code, and the Legislative Analyst shall, no later than July 1, 1989, provide his or her recommendations as to possible legislative changes to the existing homicide reimbursement formula. In undertaking the study, and making his or her recommendations, the Legislative Analyst shall consider, among other things, the following: rural county fiscal conditions, actual resources available to rural counties, burden on rural county finances, and incentives for reasonable cost containment.

CHAPTER 988

An act to amend Section 1269b of the Penal Code, relating to bail.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1269b of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1269b. (a) The officer in charge of a jail where an arrested person is held in custody, an officer of a sheriff's department or police department of a city who is in charge of a jail or employed at a fixed police or sheriff's facility and is acting under an agreement with the agency which keeps the jail wherein an arrested person is held in custody, an employee of a sheriff's department or police department of a city who is assigned by such department to collect bail, the clerk of the justice or municipal court of the judicial district in which the offense was alleged to have been committed, and the clerk of the superior court in which the case against the defendant is pending may approve and accept bail in the amount fixed by the warrant of arrest, schedule of bail, or order admitting to bail in cash or surety bond executed by a certified, admitted surety insurer as provided in the Insurance Code, to issue and sign an order for the release of the arrested person, and to set a time and place for the appearance of the arrested person before the appropriate court and give notice thereof.

(b) If a defendant has appeared before a judge of the court on the charge contained in the complaint, indictment, or information, the bail shall be in the amount fixed by the judge at the time of the appearance; if that appearance has not been made, the bail shall be in the amount fixed in the warrant of arrest or, if no warrant of arrest has been issued, the amount of bail shall be pursuant to the uniform countywide schedule of bail for the county in which the defendant is required to appear, previously fixed and approved as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d).

(c) It is the duty of the superior, municipal and justice court judges in each county to prepare, adopt, and annually revise, by a majority vote, at a meeting called by the presiding judge of the superior court of the county, a uniform countywide schedule of bail for all bailable felony offenses.

In adopting a uniform countywide schedule of bail for all bailable offenses the judges shall consider the seriousness of the offense charged. In considering the seriousness of the offense charged the judges shall assign an additional amount of required bail for each aggravating or enhancing factor chargeable in the complaint, including, but not limited to, additional bail for charges alleging facts which would bring a person within any of the following sections: Section 667.5, 667.51, 667.6, 667.8, 667.85, 667.9, 667.10, 12022, 12022.1, 12022.2, 12022.3, 12022.4, 12022.5, 12022.6, 12022.7, 12022.8, or 12022.9 of the Penal Code, or Section 11356.5, 11370.2, or 11370.4 of the Health and Safety Code.

In considering offenses wherein a violation of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 11350) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code is alleged, the judge shall assign an additional amount of required bail for offenses involving large quantities of controlled substances.

(d) The municipal and justice court judges in each county shall prepare, adopt, and annually revise, subject to Section 40310 of the Vehicle Code, by a majority vote, at a meeting called by the presiding judge of the municipal court or the senior judge of the justice court at each county seat, a uniform, countywide schedule of bail for all misdemeanor and infraction offenses. For nonparking Vehicle Code offenses where a personal appearance is not required, the bail for each offense shall be no more than 20 percent above or below the amount set forth by the Uniform Traffic Bail Schedule approved by the Judicial Council. The Judicial Council shall revise the Uniform Traffic Bail Schedule by January 1, 1989. The revision shall include the assignment of increased bail amounts for repeat offenders.

(e) Each countywide bail schedule shall contain a list of the offenses and the amounts of bail applicable thereto as the judges determine to be appropriate. If the schedules do not list all offenses specifically, they shall contain a general clause for designated amounts of bail as the judges of the county determine to be appropriate for all the offenses not specifically listed in the schedules. A copy of the countywide bail schedule shall be sent to the officer in charge of the county jail, to the officer in charge of each city jail within the county, to each superior, municipal and justice court judge and commissioner in the county, and to the Judicial Council.

(f) Upon posting bail the defendant or arrested person shall be discharged from custody as to the offense on which the bail is posted.

All money and surety bonds so deposited with an officer authorized to receive bail shall be transmitted immediately to the judge or clerk of the court by which the order was made or warrant issued or bail schedule fixed. If, in the case of felonies, an indictment is filed, the judge or clerk of the court shall transmit all of the money and surety bonds to the county clerk.

(g) If a defendant or arrested person so released fails to appear at the time and in the court so ordered upon his or her release from custody, Sections 1305 and 1306 apply.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that this act does not limit the establishment of bail for local ordinances, or offenses involving stopping, standing, or the parking of vehicles, by the municipal and justice court judges in each county.

CHAPTER 989

An act to amend Sections 24411, 25110, 25111, 25112, and 25115 of, to add Section 25401d to, to repeal and add Section 25114 of, and to repeal Section 25113 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 24411 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24411. (a) For purposes of those taxpayers electing to compute income under Section 25110, 100 percent of the qualifying dividends described in subdivisions (c) and (h), 75 percent of the qualifying dividends described in subdivision (b), and 75 percent of the partially excluded dividends described in subdivision (d) to the extent not otherwise allowed as a deduction or eliminated from income. "Qualifying dividends" means those received by the water's-edge group from corporations if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The average of the property, payroll, and sales factors within the United States for the corporation is less than 20 percent.

(2) More than 50 percent of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote is owned directly or indirectly by the water's-edge group.

(b) Qualifying dividends equal to the greatest amount of qualifying dividends as described in subdivision (a) received by the water's-edge group in any one of the income years constituting the base period.

(c) The amount of fully excluded qualifying dividends, if the greatest foreign payroll factor for any income year in the base period exceeds the foreign payroll factor for the income year, shall be determined as follows:

(1) The foreign payroll factor in the income year shall be subtracted from the greatest foreign payroll factor for any income year in the base period.

(2) The amount determined pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be divided by the greatest foreign payroll factor for any income year in the base period.

(3) The percentage determined in paragraph (2) shall be multiplied by the total qualifying dividends. The amount so determined shall be the amount of fully excluded qualifying dividends.

(4) The amount determined in paragraph (3) shall not exceed the amount of qualifying dividends in excess of the base dividends determined in subdivision (b).

(5) If the amount of fully excluded qualifying dividends determined pursuant to paragraph (3) is less than the amount of qualifying dividends in excess of the amount of base dividends determined pursuant to subdivision (b), the difference shall be added to the base dividends and the exclusion determined pursuant to subdivision (b).

(d) The amount of partially excluded qualifying dividends, if the greatest foreign payroll factor for any income year in the base period is the same as or less than the foreign payroll factor in the income year, shall be determined as follows:

(1) The greatest foreign payroll factor for any income year in the base period shall be subtracted from the foreign payroll factor in the income year.

(2) The amount determined pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be divided by the foreign payroll factor in the income year.

(3) The percentage determined in paragraph (2) shall be multiplied by the total qualifying dividends.

(4) The amount determined in paragraph (3) shall be subtracted from the amount of qualifying dividends in excess of the amount of base dividends determined in subdivision (b).

(5) The balance shall be the amount of partially excluded qualifying dividends. In no event shall that amount be less than zero.

(e) The base period shall consist of the 12-month income year ending before January 1, 1987, and the two immediately preceeding 12-month income years. No short income years shall be considered.

(f) The foreign payroll factor for an income year shall be a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid outside the United States during the income year for compensation by the water's-edge group and corporations which would have been combined with the water's-edge group had the election pursuant to Section 25110 not been made, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid everywhere by the water's-edge group and corporations which would have been combined with the water's-edge group had the election pursuant to Section 25110 not been made during the income year. The amount and location of compensation shall be determined pursuant to Section 25133 and the regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(g) The water's-edge group consists of banks or corporations whose income and apportionment factors are taken into account pursuant to Section 25110.

(h) The amount of fully excluded qualifying dividends derived from construction projects, the locations of which are not subject to the taxpayer's control.

For purposes of this subdivision:

(1) "Construction project" means any activity which meets the following requirements:

(A) Is undertaken for any entity, including a governmental entity, which is not affiliated with the taxpayer.

(B) The majority of its cost of performance is attributable to an addition to real property or an alteration of land or any improvement thereto as those terms are utilized for purposes of this code.

"Construction project" does not include the operation, rental, leasing, or depletion of real property, land, or any improvement thereto.

(2) "Locations of which are not subject to the taxpayer's control" means that the place at which the majority of the construction takes place results from the nature or character of the construction project and not as a result of the terms of the contract or agreement governing the construction project.

SEC. 2. Section 25110 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25110. (a) Notwithstanding Section 25101, a qualified taxpayer, as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) which is subject to the tax imposed under this part, may elect to determine its income derived from or attributable to sources within this state pursuant to a water's-edge election in accordance with the provisions of this part, as modified by this article. A taxpayer which makes a water's-edge election shall take into account the income and apportionment factors of the following affiliated entities only:

(1) Affiliated banks or corporations which are eligible to be included in a federal consolidated return as described in Sections 1501 to 1505, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code, other than corporations making an election under Section 936 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) Domestic international sales corporations, as described in Sections 991 to 994, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code and foreign sales corporations as described in Sections 921 to 927, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Any corporation, regardless of the place where it is incorporated if the average of its property, payroll, and sales factors within the United States is 20 percent or more.

(4) Banks and corporations which are incorporated in the United States, excluding corporations making an election pursuant to Sections 931 to 936, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code, of which more than 50 percent of their stock is controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests, which are not included in paragraph (1).

(5) A bank or corporation which is not described in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, or paragraph (6), but only to the extent of its income derived from or attributable to sources within the United States and its factors assignable to a location within the United States in accordance with paragraph (3) of subdivision (b). Income of such a bank or corporation derived from or attributable to sources within the United States as determined by federal income tax laws shall be limited to and determined from the books of account maintained by the bank or corporation with respect to its activities conducted within the United States.

(6) Export trade corporations, as described in Sections 970 to 972, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code.

(7) Any affiliated bank or corporation which is a "controlled foreign corporation", as defined in Section 957 of the Internal Revenue Code, if all or part of the income of that affiliate is defined in Section 952 of Subpart F of the Internal Revenue Code ("Subpart F income"). The income and apportionment factors of any affiliate to be included under this paragraph shall be determined by multiplying the income and apportionment factors of that affiliate without application of this paragraph by a fraction (not to exceed one), the numerator of which is the "Subpart F income" of that bank or corporation for that income year and the denominator of which is the "earnings and profits" of that bank or corporation for that income year, as defined in Section 964 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(8) (A) The income and factors of the above-enumerated banks and corporations shall be taken into account only if the income and factors would have been taken into account under Section 25101 if this section had not been enacted.

(B) The income and factors of a bank or corporation which is not described in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, and (6) and which is an electing taxpayer under this subdivision shall be taken into account in determining its income only to the extent set forth in paragraph (5).

(b) For purposes of this article and Section 24411:

(1) An "affiliated bank or corporation" means a bank or corporation which is related to a bank or corporation, required to file under this part, because of any of the following:

(A) It owns directly or indirectly more than 50 percent of the voting stock of the bank or corporation required to file under this part.

(B) More than 50 percent of its voting stock is owned directly or indirectly by a bank or corporation required to file under this part.

(C) More than 50 percent of voting stock of both it and the bank or corporation required to file under this part is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by any bank or person (as defined in Section 7701(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code).

(2) A "qualified taxpayer" means a bank or corporation which does both of the following:

(A) Files with the state tax return on which the water's-edge election is made a consent to the taking of depositions at the time and place most reasonably convenient to all parties from key domestic corporate individuals and to the acceptance of subpoenas duces tecum requiring reasonable production of documents to the Franchise Tax Board as provided in Section 26423 or by the State Board of Equalization as provided in Title 18, California Code of Regulations, Section 5005, or by the courts of this state as provided in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1985) of Title 3 of Part 4 of, and Section 2025 of, the Code of Civil Procedure. The consent relates to issues of jurisdiction and service and does not waive any defenses a taxpayer may otherwise have. The consent shall remain in effect so long as the water's-edge election is in effect and shall be limited to providing that information necessary to review or to adjust income or deductions in a manner authorized under Sections 482, 861, Subpart F of Part III of Subchapter N, or similar provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, together with the regulations adopted pursuant to those provisions, and for the conduct of an investigation with respect to any unitary business in which the taxpayer may be involved.

(B) Agrees that for purposes of this article, dividends received by any bank or corporation whose income and apportionment factors are taken into account pursuant to subdivision (a) from either of the following are functionally related dividends and shall be presumed to be business income:

(i) A bank or corporation of which more than 50 percent of the voting stock is owned, directly or indirectly, by members of the unitary group and which is engaged in the same general line of business.

(ii) Any bank or corporation which is either a significant source of supply for the unitary business or a significant purchaser of the output of the unitary business, or which sells a significant part of its output or obtains a significant part of its raw materials or input from the unitary business. "Significant," as used in this subparagraph, means an amount of 15 percent or more of either input or output.

All other dividends shall be classified as business or nonbusiness income without regard to this subparagraph.

(3) The definitions and locations of property, payroll, and sales shall be determined under the laws and regulations which set forth the apportionment formulas used by the individual states to assign net income subject to taxes on or measured by net income in that state. If a state does not impose a tax on or measured by net income or does not have laws or regulations with respect to the assignment of property, payroll, and sales, the laws and regulations provided in Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) shall apply.

Sales shall be considered to be made to a state only if the bank or corporation making the sale may otherwise be subject to a tax on or measured by net income under the Constitution or laws of the United States, and shall not include sales made to a bank or corporation whose income and apportionment factors are taken into account pursuant to subdivision (a) in determining the amount of income of the taxpayer derived from or attributable to sources within this state.

(4) "The United States" means the 50 states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(c) All references in this part to income determined pursuant to Section 25101 shall also mean income determined pursuant to this section.

SEC. 3. Section 25111 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25111. (a) A water's-edge election shall be made by contract with the Franchise Tax Board in the original return for a year and shall be effective only if every taxpayer which is a member of the water's-edge group and which is subject to tax under this part makes the election. A single taxpayer which is engaged in more than one business activity subject to allocation and apportionment as provided in Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 may make a separate election for each business. The form and manner of making the water's-edge election shall be prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board. Each contract making a water's-edge election shall be for an initial term of five years, except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c). Each contract shall provide that on the anniversary date of the contract or any other annual date specified by the contract a year shall be added automatically to the initial term unless notice of nonrenewal is given as provided in subdivision (e). Each contract shall be conditioned by an agreement to pay the amount specified in Section 25115. Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), the Franchise Tax Board shall enter into a contract as provided by this section with any qualified taxpayer which wishes to make a water's-edge election. An affiliated bank or corporation which is a member of the water's-edge group and subsequently becomes subject to tax under this part shall be deemed to have elected. No water's-edge election shall be made for an income year beginning prior to the operative date of this article.

(b) A water's-edge election may be terminated by a taxpayer prior to the end of the five-year period if any of the following occurs:

(1) The taxpayer is acquired directly or indirectly by a nonelecting entity which alone or together with those affiliates included in its combined report is larger than the taxpayer as measured by equity capital.

(2) The taxpayer ceases to be affiliated with any bank or corporation whose income and apportionment factors the taxpayer would be required to take into account in determining its income under Section 25101 but for the election and the taxpayer is not itself a bank or corporation doing business within and without the United States.

(3) With the permission of the Franchise Tax Board.

(4) Pursuant to a Franchise Tax Board audit determination, as evidenced by a notice of the deficiency proposed to be assessed or a notice of tax change, a substantial modification is made to the composition of the water's-edge group as filed, in which case the election may be terminated only with respect to income years beginning on or after January 1 of the year in which the audit determination is made.

No refund of any amounts paid pursuant to Section 25115 shall be made for those years during which the election was in effect.

(c) A water's-edge election may be disregarded by the Franchise Tax Board, only if any of the following occurs:

(1) A bank or corporation willfully fails to comply substantially with Section 25401d or any federal law requiring the filing of domestic spreadsheets.

(2) After a reasonable adjustment of transfer prices, royalty rates, the allocation of common expenses, and similar adjustments, the return filed pursuant to this section fails to prevent the wilful evasion of taxes.

(3) An otherwise qualified taxpayer willfully fails to do any of the following:

(A) Retain and make available upon request the documents and information, including any questionnaires completed and submitted to the Internal Revenue Service or qualified states, which are necessary to audit issues involving attribution of income to the United States or foreign jurisdictions under Sections 482, 861, 863, 902, and 904, and Subpart F of Part III of Subchapter N, or similar sections of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) Identify, upon request, principal officers or employees who have substantial knowledge of, and access to, documents and records which discuss pricing policies, profit centers, cost centers, and the methods of allocating income and expense among these centers. The information shall include the employees' titles and addresses.

(C) Retain and make available upon request all documents and correspondence ordinarily available to a bank or corporation included in the water's-edge election which are submitted to or obtained from the Internal Revenue Service, foreign countries or their territories or possessions, and competent authority pertaining to ruling requests, rulings, settlement resolutions, and competing claims involving jurisdictional assignment and sourcing of income that affect the assignment of income to the United States. The documents shall include all ruling requests and rulings on reorganizations involving foreign incorporation of branches, all ruling requests and rulings on changing a bank or corporation's jurisdictional incorporation, and all documents which are ordinarily available to a bank or corporation included in the water's-edge election which pertain to the determination of foreign tax liability, including examination reports issued by foreign taxing administrations. If the documents have been translated, the translations shall be furnished.

(D) Upon request, prepare and make available for each bank or corporation included in the disclosure spreadsheet referred to in Section 25401d in which the taxpayer is included, a list of each state of the United States, including the District of Columbia, territories or possessions, and each foreign country in which it has payroll, property, or sales. The sales shall be determined by destination whether or not the taxpayer is taxable in the destination jurisdiction.

(E) Retain and make available, upon request, forms filed with the Internal Revenue Service to comply with Sections 6038, 6038A, and 6041 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(F) Upon request, prepare and make available for each bank or corporation organized or created under the laws of the United States or a political subdivision thereof, of which 50 percent or more of its voting stock is directly or indirectly owned or controlled, the information which would be included in the forms described in subparagraph (E) if those forms were required for United States corporations.

(G) Retain and make available, upon request, all state tax returns filed by each bank or corporation included under subdivision (a) in each state, including the District of Columbia.

(H) Comply with reasonable requests for information necessary to determine or verify its net income, apportionment factors, or the geographic source of that income pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code.

(I) For purposes of this subdivision, information for any year shall be retained for that period of time in which the taxpayer's income or franchise tax liability to this state may be subject to adjustment, including all periods in which additional income or franchise taxes may be assessed or during which an appeal is pending before the State Board of Equalization or a lawsuit is pending in the courts of this state or the United States with respect to California franchise or income tax.

(d) The taxpayer shall be provided 90 days' prior written notice that the Franchise Tax Board intends to disregard a water's-edge election under subdivision (c). The taxpayer shall have the right to seek review in the superior court of the Franchise Tax Board's intended decision to disregard the election.

(e) In disregarding an election or in granting a change of election, the Franchise Tax Board shall impose any conditions which are necessary to prevent the avoidance of tax or clearly reflect income for the period the election was, or was purported to be, in effect.

These conditions may include a requirement that income, including dividends paid from income earned while a water's-edge election was in effect, which would have been included in determining the income of the taxpayer from sources within and without this state pursuant to Section 25101 but for the water's-edge election shall be included in income in the year in which the election is changed or disregarded.

(f) If the taxpayer desires in any year not to renew the contract, the taxpayer shall serve written notice of nonrenewal of the contract upon the board in advance of the annual renewal date of the contract. Unless that written notice is served by the taxpayer at least 90 days prior to the renewal date, the contract shall be considered renewed as provided in subdivision (a).

(g) If the taxpayer serves notice of intent in any year not to renew the contract, the existing contract shall remain in effect for the balance of the period remaining since the original execution or the last renewal of the contract, as the case may be.

SEC. 4. Section 25112 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25112. (a) If a taxpayer electing under Section 25110 fails to supply any required information, in addition to being subject to disqualification by the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to Section 25111 and to any penalties otherwise provided by this part, the taxpayer shall pay a penalty of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each income year with respect to which the failure occurs.

(b) If the failure continues for more than 90 days after the date on which the Franchise Tax Board mails notice of that failure to the taxpayer, the taxpayer shall pay a penalty (in addition to the amount required under subdivision (a)) of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each 30-day period (or fraction thereof) during which the failure continues after the expiration of the 90-day period. The increase in any penalty under this subdivision shall not exceed twenty-four thousand dollars ($24,000).

(c) If the taxpayer fails to comply substantially with any formal document request arising out of the examination of the tax treatment of any item (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "examined item") before the 90th day after the date of the mailing of the request, any court having jurisdiction of a civil proceeding in which the tax treatment of the examined item is an issue may, upon motion by the Franchise Tax Board, prohibit the introduction by the taxpayer of documentation covered by that request.

(d) For purposes of this section, the time in which information is to be furnished (and the beginning of the 90-day period after notice by the Franchise Tax Board) shall be treated as beginning not earlier than the last day on which reasonable cause existed for failure to furnish the information.

(e) This section shall not apply with respect to any requested documentation if the taxpayer establishes that the failure to provide the documentation, as requested by the Franchise Tax Board, is due to reasonable cause. For purposes of subdivision (c), the fact that a foreign jurisdiction would impose a civil or criminal penalty on the taxpayer (or any other person) for disclosing the requested documentation is not reasonable cause unless, after in camera review of the documentation, the court finds otherwise.

(f) For purposes of this section, the term "formal document request" means any request (made after the normal request procedures have failed to produce the requested documentation) for the production of documentation which is mailed by registered or certified mail to the taxpayer at its last known address and which sets forth all of the following:

(1) The time and place for the production of the documentation.

(2) A statement of the reason the documentation previously produced (if any) is not sufficient.

(3) A description of the documentation being sought.

(4) The consequences to the taxpayer of the failure to produce the documentation described in this section.

(g) Notwithstanding any other law or rule of law, any taxpayer to whom a formal document request is mailed may begin a proceeding to quash that request not later than the 90th day after the date the request was mailed. In any such proceeding, the Franchise Tax Board may seek to compel compliance with the request.

(h) The superior courts of the State of California for the Counties of Los Angeles, Sacramento, and San Diego, and for the City and County of San Francisco shall have jurisdiction to hear any proceeding brought under subdivision (g). An order denying the petition shall be deemed a final order which may be appealed.

The running of the 90-day period referred to in subdivision (b) shall be suspended during any period during which a proceeding brought under subdivision (g) is pending.

(i) For purposes of this section, "documentation" means any documentation which may be relevant or material to the tax treatment of the examined item.

(j) The Franchise Tax Board, and any court having jurisdiction over a proceeding under subdivision (g), may extend the 90-day period referred to in subdivision (b).

(k) If any bank or corporation takes any action as provided in subdivision (g), the running of any period of limitations under Sections 25663 to 25663d, inclusive (relating to the assessment and collection of tax), or under Section 25964 (relating to criminal prosecutions) with respect to that bank or corporation shall be suspended for the period during which the proceedings under subdivision (g) and appeals thereto are pending.

SEC. 5. Section 25113 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed:

SEC. 6. Section 25114 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 25114 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

25114. (a) The Franchise Tax Board, for purposes of administering the provisions of this article, shall examine the returns filed by taxpayers subject to these provisions. Where this examination reveals potential noncompliance, a detailed examination shall be made, notwithstanding the potential net revenue benefit to the state, unless the taxpayer is being examined by the Internal Revenue Service for the same year or years on the same issues.

(b) (1) In any case of two or more organizations, trades, or businesses (whether or not organized in the United States and whether or not affiliated) owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests, the Franchise Tax Board may distribute, apportion, or allocate gross income, deductions, credits, or allowances between or among these organizations, trades, or businesses, if the board determines that the distribution, apportionment, or allocation is necessary in order to prevent evasion of taxes or clearly to reflect the income of any of these orga izations, trades, or businesses. In the case of any transfer (or li ense) of intangible property (within the meaning of Section 936(h) (3) (B) of the Internal Revenue Code), the income with respect to that transfer or license shall be commensurate with the income attributable to the intangible property.

(2) In making distributions, apportionments, and allocations under this section, the Franchise Tax Board shall generally follow the rules, regulations, and procedures of the Internal Revenue Service in making audits under Section 482 of the Internal Revenue Code. Any of these rules, regulations, and procedures adopted by the Franchise Tax Board shall not be subject to review by the Office of Administrative Law.

(3) If the Internal Revenue Service has conducted a detailed audit under Section 482 of the Internal Revenue Code and has made adjustments pursuant to that section, it shall be presumed that no further adjustments are necessary for this state's purposes. If the Internal Revenue Service has conducted a detailed audit under Section 482 of the Internal Revenue Code and has made or proposed no adjustments to the transaction examined, it shall be presumed that no adjustment is necessary for this state's purposes. These presumptions shall be overcome if the Franchise Tax Board or the taxpayer demonstrates that an adjustment or a failure to make an adjustment was erroneous, if it demonstrates that the results of such an adjustment would produce a minimal tax change for federal purposes because of correlative or offsetting adjustments or for other reasons, or if substantially the same federal tax result was obtained under other sections of the Internal Revenue Code. No inference shall be drawn from an Internal Revenue Service failure to audit international transactions under Section 482 of the Internal Revenue Code and it shall not be presumed that any of those transactions were correctly reported.

SEC. 8. Section 25115 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25115. (a) Each contract described in Section 25111 shall provide that a taxpayer making a water's-edge election pursuant to this article shall pay an annual amount to the Franchise Tax Board for deposit in the California Unitary Fund created pursuant to Section 16429.30 of the Government Code. One-third of the amount shall be deposited in the Local Project Account for Non-Transient Spending in the California Unitary Fund, and two-thirds of the amount shall be deposited in the Future Infrastructure State Targeted Account in the California Unitary Fund.

(b) The amount shall be equal to thirty-thousandths of 1 percent of the sum of the taxpayer's property and payroll assigned to this state for an income year of 12 full months ending during the calendar year 1986 and its sales assigned to this state for the current income year. A single corporation which is engaged in more than one business for which it is making separate elections shall determine the amount as provided in this section for each business for which it is electing to determine its income pursuant to Section 25110.

(c) The sum of the property, payroll, and sales, as calculated pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be reduced by the cumulative amount expended since January 1, 1987, for investment in new plants or facilities in this state, as defined in subdivision (d), and shall further be reduced by the amount expended for new employees in this state as defined in subdivision (f).

(d) A new plant or facility is property described in Section 70, constructed by or for the taxpayer, or new tangible personal property, the original use of which commences with the taxpayer in this state, provided that it is not a replacement, in whole or in part, for an existing plant or facility in this state. For purposes of this subdivision, "new tangible personal property" means the current year's acquisition of personal property classified as "machinery and equipment for industry, profession, or trade," "tools, molds, dies, jigs," and "computers and related equipmment," as reported to either the county assessor pursuant to Section 441 or the State Board of Equalization pursuant to Section 826. A plant or facility shall be deemed a replacement if the taxpayer, or an affiliated bank or corporation, as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 25110, closes. takes out of service, sells, or leases to an unrelated party, in either the three immediately preceding or the three immediately succeeding years from the time the new plant or facility is operational, a plant or facility with a cost basis equal to 25 percent or more of the cost basis of the new plant or facility.

(e) The number of new employees in this state for any income year shall be determined by comparing the total number of work years in this state for the income year to the greater of (1) the average of the total number of work years in this state for the income years ending in 1985, 1986, and 1987, or (2) the total number of work years in this state for the income year ending in 1987. A "work year" means, in the case of workers who are paid an hourly wage, 2,000 paid hours, and in the case of salaried employees, a total of 12 paid months.

(f) The amount expended for new employees shall be equal to the product of the number of new employees determined pursuant to subdivision (e) and the average wages paid for each work year in this state for the income year.

(g) Each contract shall provide that the amount described in this section shall not be subject to any statutory changes, for the period the contract is in effect, without the consent of the taxpayer. Any statutory change shall be applicable for any renewal year beginning five years after that statutory change.

(h) Amounts determined pursuant to this section shall be collected and refunded in the same manner as the taxes imposed by this part and shall be subject to interest and penalties as provided in this part.

(i) In no event shall the amount determined pursuant to this section be less than ten-thousandths of 1 percent of the sum of the taxpayer's property, payroll, and sales in this state for the current year.

(j) For purposes of this section, the bank's or corporation's property, payroll, and sales in this state shall be determined pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, except that both of the following shall apply:

(1) Property shall include only property defined in Sections 25129 to 25131, inclusive.

(2) Sales shall not include gross receipts from the sale of real property and improvements thereto and the sale of the stock of a subsidiary unless that activity occurs as a regular part of the taxpayer's business.

(k) The annual amount otherwise determined pursuant to this section and payable under a contract described in Section 25111 shall not be imposed for an income year in which a taxpayer incurs no tax liability under Sections 25101 and 25110.

(l) If a taxpayer is reorganized into two or more separate entities, the 1986 property and payroll factors for the new entities shall be determined by the ratio of current property and payroll factors, excluding intangible property, for each new entity subject to tax in California to the total for all entities subject to tax in California for the year in which those entities are created. This ratio shall be applied to 1986 property and payroll and each entity shall be allocated a portion of the 1986 payments and payroll based on this ratio.

(m) Notwithstanding Section 24345, the amount imposed by this section shall be allowed as a deduction in computing the taxes imposed by this part.

SEC. 9. Section 25401d is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

25401d. (a) Any taxpayer making the election under Section 25110 shall file with the Franchise Tax Board within six months after the bank or corporation files its California return required under this part a domestic disclosure spreadsheet if it and its related banks' or corporations' payroll, property, or sales in foreign countries exceeds ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or if it and its related banks' or corporations' total assets exceed two hundred fifty million dollars ($250,000,000), or such higher levels as may be subsequently established by regulation.

(b) The domestic disclosure spreadsheet shall be filed once every three years, unless there is a substantial change in the taxpayer's business activities, in which case it shall be filed for the year in which the change occurs.

(c) For purposes of this section, banks and corporations are related if more than 50 percent of the voting stock of one is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by the other or if more than 50 percent of the voting stock of both is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by the same interest.

(d) The spreadsheet shall provide for full disclosure as to the income reported to each state, the state tax liability, and the method used for apportioning or allocating income to the states, and any other information as provided for by regulations as may be necessary to determine the amount of taxes due to each state and to identify the corporate parent and those of its affiliates of which more than 20 percent of the voting stock is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by the parent.

(e) The spreadsheet shall be reviewed for completeness by the Franchise Tax Board and if it is not properly completed shall not be accepted and shall be subject to penalties.

(f) This section shall not apply to any bank or corporation with regard to any year if that bank's or corporation's payroll, property, and sales within the United States are each less than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(g) The Auditor General shall review the utility of the spreadsheet to the Franchise Tax Board's audits and shall submit a preliminary report of its findings to the Legislature by December 31, 1991, and a final report by December 31, 1994.

SEC. 10. The provisions of this act shall be applicable in the computation of taxes for income years commencing on or after January 1, 1988.

SEC. 11. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 990

An act to amend Section 12024.12 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to kosher food, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12024.12 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

12024.12. (a) Any person who sells fresh meat or poultry advertised or represented to be kosher shall retain, on the premises, for one year, a true and legible copy of all invoices and records of cash or charge transactions from the packer or producer of the kosher meat or poultry and shall make these documents, and other evidence of the source of the meat being housed or sold by that person, available for inspection by the Department of Food and Agriculture or its representatives, upon request.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Director of Food and Agriculture shall enforce this section, as a pilot program in the Counties of Alameda, Los Angeles, Orange, San Diego, and Santa Clara and the City and County of San Francisco if adequate funding, as determined by the director, is made available.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. The Department of Food and Agriculture shall evaluate the effectiveness of the pilot program conducted pursuant to Section 12024.12 of the Business and Professions Code, and shall report to the Legislature on its effectiveness by January 1, 1994. The effectiveness of the pilot program shall be demonstrated by a reduction of not less than 75 percent in allegations of fraudulent kosher meat products made to the Attorney General and to appropriate consumer agencies since the program's inception on August 1, 1985. The evaluation shall include a determination of the cost effectiveness of the pilot program and recommendations regarding whether it should be continued, reduced, expanded, or modified. The department shall use not more than 7 percent of the program's final year appropriation for purposes of preparing the report to the Legislature.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 4. The sum of seventy thousand dollars ($70,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Food and Agriculture to carry out Section 12024.12 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure a continuing supply of genuine, high-quality kosher meat in this state, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 991

An act to amend Section 5497 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to outdoor advertising.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5497 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5497. A city or county, whose ordinances or regulations were introduced or adopted after March 12, 1983, or any amendments to those ordinances and regulations, is not in violation of Section 5491 if it elects to require the removal, without compensation, of any on-premise advertising display which meets any of the following criteria:

(a) Any advertising display erected without first complying with all ordinances and regulations in effect at the time of its construction and erection or use.

(b) Any advertising display which was lawfully erected anywhere in this state, but whose use has ceased, or the structure upon which the display has been abandoned by its owner, for a period of not less than 90 days. Costs incurred in removing an abandoned display may be charged to the legal owner.

(c) Any advertising display which has been more than 50 percent destroyed, and the destruction is other than facial copy replacement, and the display cannot be repaired within 30 days of the date of its destruction

(d) Any advertising display whose owner, outside of a change of copy, requests permission to remodel and remodels that advertising display, or expand or enlarge the building or land use upon which the advertising display is located, and the display is affected by the construction, enlargement, or remodeling, or the cost of construction, enlargement, or remodeling of the advertising display exceeds 50 percent of the cost of reconstruction of the building.

(e) Any advertising display whose owner seeks relocation thereof and relocates the advertising display.

(f) Any advertising display for which there has been an agreement between the advertising display owner and the city or county, for its removal as of any given date.

(g) Any advertising display which is temporary.

(h) Any advertising display which is or may become a danger to the public or is unsafe.

(i) Any advertising display which constitutes a traffic hazard not created by relocation of streets or highways or by acts of any city or county.

(j) Ordinances adopted by a city within three years of its incorporation, which incorporation occurs after March 12, 1982, shall not be subject to Section 5491 except as provided by Section 5494.

(k) Notwithstanding subdivision (j), for any city or county incorporated after January 1, 1989, an ordinance initially adopted within three years of incorporation, or any amendment thereto within that three-year period, may require removal without compensation, except that no removal without compensation may be required within 15 years from the effective date of that ordinance or amendment.

CHAPTER 992

An act to amend Sections 75006, 75033.5, 75060.6, 75075, 75076, and 75076.5 of, and to add Section 75006.6 to, the Government Code, relating to the Judges' Retirement System.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 75006 of the Government Code is amended to read:

75006. Any allowance payable to a retired judge or to a surviving spouse or to an eligible surviving child which has accrued and remained unpaid at the time of the judge's or the surviving spouse's or surviving child's death, or any unclaimed warrant issued prior to the date of death and returned to the system, shall be paid to:

(a) The survivor entitled to an allowance payable by this system.

(b) The beneficiary designated by the surviving spouse, eligible surviving child, or retired judge if there is no eligible survivor.

(c) The estate of the deceased, if there is no one entitled under subdivision (a) or (b).

SEC. 2. Section 75006.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

75006.6. The surviving spouse or eligible surviving child of a deceased judge who is receiving a monthly allowance from the Judges' Retirement System, or a retired judge, if there is no spouse or eligible child, may designate a beneficiary to receive the pro rata allowance remaining payable in the month of his or her death. The designation may be made, changed or revoked at any time, provided that it is made in writing and filed with the Judges' Retirement System.

SEC. 3. Section 75033.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

75033.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any judge with at least five years of service, and prior to attaining age 70, may retire, and upon his or her application therefor to the Judges' Retirement System after reaching the age which would have permitted him or her to retire for age and length of service under Section 75025 had he or she remained continuously in service as a judge up to such age, receive a retirement allowance based upon the judicial service as a judge of a court of record, with which he or she is credited, in the same manner as other judges, except as otherwise provided by this section the retirement allowance is an annual amount equal to 3.75 percent of the compensation payable, at the time payments of the allowance fall due, to the judge holding the office which the retired judge last held prior to his or her discontinuance of his or her service as judge, multiplied by the number of years and fractions of years of service with which the retired judge is entitled to be credited at the time of his or her retirement, not to exceed 20 years.

If a judge has served more than five years but less than 12 years, the above percentage of compensation payable shall be reduced 0.25 percent for each year that the service of the judge is less than 12 years.

No judge shall be eligible to receive an allowance pursuant to this section until the attainment of at least age 63 unless the judge is credited with 20 years of judicial service and has attained age 60.

The surviving spouse of any judge who has so elected to retire under this section shall receive for life an allowance equal to one-half of the retirement allowance that would be payable to the judge were he or she living and receiving the benefits accorded by this section, commencing with the day following the date of the death, if the judge dies after commencement of receipt of benefits, or the date the judge would have been able to commence receipt of benefits but for his or her death, if his or her death occurs prior to commencement of receipt of benefits.

An election to retire under this section shall be made in writing and filed with the Judges' Retirement System, and shall be without right of revocation, and upon such filing said judge shall be deemed retired with receipt of benefits deferred until herein provided, and the judicial office from which he or she has retired shall become vacant. Said notice and election of retirement shall be sufficient if it states in substance that said judge elects to retire under the benefits of this section.

A judge who leaves his or her office to accept any lucrative office under the United States within the purview of Section 7 of Article VII of the Constitution shall have any benefits receivable hereunder reduced by the amount of any salary or retirement benefits he or she receives by virtue of his or her service in such office.

SEC. 4. Section 75060.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

75060.6. The Commission on Judicial Performance, in its discretion, and from time to time, may require any judge who is receiving an allowance under this section and who is under the age of 65 years to undergo medical examination. The examination shall be made by one or more physicians or surgeons, appointed by the Commission on Judicial Performance, at the place of residence of the judge or other place mutually agreed upon. Upon the basis of the examination the commission shall determine whether he or she is still incapacitated, physically or mentally, for service as a judge. If the commission determines, on the basis of the results of the medical examination, that he or she is not so incapacitated, he or she shall be a judicial officer of the state, but shall not exercise any of the powers of a justice or judge except while under assignment to a court by the Chairman of the Judicial Council. The allowance of the judge shall cease if he or she refuses an assignment while he or she is not so incapacitated. The provisions of Section 68543.5 are applicable to such a judge. The provisions of this section and of Section 75060 are applicable to all judges of courts of record in this state.

SEC. 5. Section 75060.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

75060.6. The Comission on Judicial Performance, in its discretion, but not more often than once every two years, may require any judge who is receiving an allowance under this section and who is under the age of 65 years to undergo medical examination. The examination shall be made by one or more physicians or surgeons, appointed by the Commission on Judicial Performance, at the place of residence of the judge or other place mutually agreed upon. Upon the basis of the examination the commission shall determine whether he or she is still incapacitated, physically or mentally, for service as a judge. If the commission determines, on the basis of the results of the medical examination, that he or she is not so incapacitated, he or she shall be a judicial officer of the state, but shall not exercise any of the powers of a justice or judge except while under assignment to a court by the Chairman of the Judicial Council. The allowance of the judge shall cease if he or she refuses an assignment while he or she is not so incapacitated. The provisions of Section 68543.5 are applicable to such a judge. The provisions of this section and of Section 75060 are applicable to all judges of courts of record in this state.

SEC. 6. Section 75075 of the Government Code is amended to read:

75075. Any judge hereafter retiring pursuant to the provisions of Section 75025 or 75060 may elect to receive the benefits accorded by this article (a) if he or she retires for service or disability on the day of attainment of the age of 70 years, or prior thereto, or (b) regardless of age at retirement, if he or she is a judge on September 18, 1959, or his or her commission was issued on or before that date and (1) retires within five years after such date or (2) if not eligible to retire within said five-year period, he or she retires within two years after he or she attains eligibility or (c) if he or she retires for disability after the attainment of age 70.

Every judge who qualifies under this section shall be deemed to elect to receive the benefits accorded by this article, unless he or she makes an election to the contrary by filing written notice thereof with the Judges' Retirement System at or prior to retirement.

Any judge whose service would qualify him or her for any benefits under this article if the total of the service included an additional 30 days, shall be deemed to have credited to him or her, sufficient service to qualify for the benefit.

SEC. 7. Section 75076 of the Government Code is amended to read:

75076. (a) A judge who qualifies, as prescribed in Section 75075, to receive the benefits accorded by this article shall receive a retirement allowance equal to 65 percent of the salary payable, at the time payment of the allowance falls due, to the judge holding the judicial office to which he or she was last elected or appointed; except that if upon retirement a judge has received credit for 20 or more years of service rendered prior to the expiration of the time within which the judge is eligible to elect to receive the benefits accorded by this article and for which he or she has contributed to the Judges' Retirement Fund his or her retirement allowance shall equal 75 percent of such salary or if he or she retires pursuant to Section 75060 after he or she attains age 70, his or her retirement allowance shall equal 50 percent unless he or she elects an actuarially reduced allowance based on his or her life and that of his or her spouse as provided under Section 75070.

(b) Any judge retiring after the effective date of this subdivision who has or shall become entitled to credit for service as a judge of a court of record prior to the inclusion of the judges of such courts, or of all such courts, under the Judges' Retirement Law, or as a "judge of an excluded court" as defined by Section 75029, or as a "constitutional officer" or "public legal officer" as defined by Section 75030.5, without having contributed therefor to the Judges' Retirement Fund, may at any time prior to retirement contribute for all or any part of such service by paying into the fund a sum of money computed by applying to the rate of salary which he or she actually received during his or her first year of service as a judge the rate of deduction first applicable to his or her salary as a judge after the inclusion of the judges of his or her court under the Judges' Retirement Law, multiplied by the period of service for which contributions are elected to be made, plus interest at 3 percent a year to the date of his or her payment upon the amounts of such deductions and from the respective dates they would have been made if he or she had been the holder of a judicial office subject to the provisions of the Judges' Retirement Law at the time of the rendition of the services for which he or she has received or hereafter receives such credit.

This subdivision shall apply also to any judge who has retired prior to the effective date of this subdivision and subsequent to September 18, 1959, provided such judge shall file his or her election and make such contribution with respect to prior service, as authorized hereunder, within one year after the effective date of this subdivision. Any change in the retirement benefits to any such judge which results from such contribution on prior service shall become effective and shall accrue from the date of filing such election and payment of such contribution as authorized hereunder.

The amount of any contribution hereunder and interest thereon shall be determined by the Judges' Retirement System in accordance with this subdivision.

(c) If the judge retires pursuant to Section 75025, the allowance is payable during the remainder of his or her life; if pursuant to Section 75060, it is payable as provided in Section 75060.6.

SEC. 8. Section 75076.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

75076.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in no event shall an allowance payable pursuant to this chapter to a retired member on the effective date of a reduction in judges' salaries ever be reduced to an amount less than the amount produced by multiplying the amount of the highest salary the retired member was paid while serving as a judge by the following percentages:

(a) For an allowance computed pursuant to Section 75032, 50 percent.

(b) For an allowance computed pursuant to the first clause of subdivision (a) of Section 75076, 65 percent.

(c) For an allowance computed pursuant to the second clause of subdivision (a) of Section 75076, 75 percent.

(d) For an allowance computed pursuant to Section 75033 or 75033.5, the percentage used to calculate the original retirement allowance pursuant to Section 75033 or 75033.5.

SEC. 9. Section 5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 75060.6 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1562. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 75060.6 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1562, in which case Section 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 993

An act to amend Sections 75060.6 and 75061 of, and to add Sections 75033.2, 75062, 75063, and 75064 to, the Government Code, relating to judges.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 75033.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

75033.2. A judge who pleads guilty or no contest or is found guilty of a crime committed while holding judicial office which is punishable as a felony under California or federal law and which either involves moral turpitude under that law or was committed in the course and scope of performing the judge's duties, and the conviction becomes final shall not receive any benefits from the Judges' Retirement System, except that the amount of his or her accumulated contributions shall be paid to him or her by the Judges' Retirement System.

SEC. 2. Section 75060.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

75060.6. Except as provided in Section 75060.5, every judge who retires pursuant to Section 75060 shall during the remainder of his or her life, receive an allowance equal to one-half of the salary payable, at the time the allowance falls due, to the judge holding the judicial office to which he or she was last elected by the people. The allowance shall be paid by the state at the times and in the manner provided for the payment of salaries of justices of the Supreme Court.

The Commission on Judicial Performance, in its discretion, but not more often than once every two years, may require any judge who is receiving an allowance under this section and who is under the age of 65 years to undergo medical examination. The examination shall be made by one or more physicians or surgeons, appointed by the Commission on Judicial Performance, at the place of residence of the judge or other place mutually agreed upon. Upon the basis of the examination the commission shall determine whether he or she is still incapacitated, physically or mentally, for service as a judge. If the commission determines, on the basis of the results of the medical examination, that he or she is not so incapacitated, he or she shall be a judicial officer of the state, but shall not exercise any of the powers of a justice or judge except while under assignment to a court by the Chairman of the Judicial Council. The allowance of the judge shall cease if he or she refuses an assignment while he or she is not so incapacitated. The provisions of Section 68543.5 are applicable to such a judge. The provisions of this section and of Section 75060 are applicable to all judges of courts of record in this state.

SEC. 3. Section 75060.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

75060.6. The Commission on Judicial Performance, in its discretion, but not more often than once every two years, may require any judge who is receiving an allowance under this section and who is under the age of 65 years to undergo medical examination. The examination shall be made by one or more physicians or surgeons, appointed by the Commission on Judicial Performance, at the place of residence of the judge or other place mutually agreed upon. Upon the basis of the examination the commission shall determine whether he or she is still incapacitated, physically or mentally, for service as a judge. If the commission determines, on the basis of the results of the medical examination, that he or she is not so incapacitated, he or she shall be a judicial officer of the state, but shall not exercise any of the powers of a justice or judge except while under assignment to a court by the Chairman of the Judicial Council. The allowance of the judge shall cease if he or she refuses an assignment while he or she is not so incapacitated. The provisions of Section 68543.5 are applicable to such a judge. The provisions of this section and of Section 75060 are applicable to all judges of courts of record in this state.

SEC. 4. Section 75061 of the Government Code is amended to read:

75061. A judge shall not be eligible to be retired for disability unless the judge is credited with at least four years of judicial service or unless the disability is a result of injury or disease arising out of and in the course of judicial service.

SEC. 5. Section 75062 is added to the Government Code, to read:

75062. A judge who applies for disability retirement and against whom there is pending a criminal charge of the commission of, or who has been convicted of, a felony under California or federal law (allegedly committed or committed while holding judicial office), prior to the approval of the application:

(a) Shall be presumed not to be disabled and this presumption is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(b) Shall, in a disability retirement proceeding before the commission, be subject to the standard of proof of clear and convincing evidence sufficient to sustain a claim to a reasonable certainty.

(c) Shall support the application with written statements described in subdivision (c) of Section 75060 from each of at least two physicians or two psychiatrists.

SEC. 6. Section 75063 is added to the Government Code, to read:

75063. A judge against whom there is pending a disciplinary proceeding which could lead to his or her removal from office or who has been removed from office for judicial misconduct, prior to the approval of his or her application for disability retirement:

(a) Shall be presumed not to be disabled and this presumption is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(b) Shall, in a disability retirement proceeding before the commission, be subject to the standard of proof of clear and convincing evidence sufficient to sustain a claim to a reasonable certainty.

(c) Shall support the application with written statements described in subdivision (c) of Section 75060 from each of at least two physicians or two psychiatrists.

SEC. 7. Section 75064 is added to the Government Code, to read:

75064. A member who is defeated at an election and who either had submitted, prior to the date of the election, an application for disability retirement or submits, on or after the date of the election, an application for disability retirement:

(a) Shall be presumed not to be disabled and this presumption is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(b) Shall, in a disability retirement proceeding before the commission, be subject to the standard of proof of clear and convincing evidence sufficient to sustain a claim to a reasonable certainty.

(c) Shall support the application with written statements described in subdivision (c) of Section 75060 from each of at least two physicians or two psychiatrists.

SEC. 8. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 9. Section 3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 75060.6 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and AB 4384. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 75060.6 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 4384, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 994

An act relating to off-highway vehicles, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of two hundred one thousand dollars ($201,000) is hereby appropriated from the Off-Highway Vehicle Fund to the Division of Off-Highway Motor Vehicle Recreation in the Department of Parks and Recreation for a grant pursuant to Chapter 1.25 (commencing with Section 5090.01) of Division 5 of the Public Resources Code to the County of Los Angeles for completion of master planning and environmental reports for the proposed Whitney Canyon Off-Highway Vehicle Park and its link to the off-highway vehicle trails system of the Angeles National Forest.

SEC. 2. The environmental impact report under Section 1 of this act shall include a dust assessment and an off-highway noise assessment by an acoustical consulting company.

The testing for impact on film and television production shall be comprehensive and extend beyond the sensitivity for a human residential environment. Impacts on the nearby film or television production sites shall be assessed by criteria accounting for identifiable intrusive noise. At a minimum, ambient sound at production sites shall be monitored on an hourly basis to determine the lowest hourly background noise levels against which maximum hourly intrusive noise shall be assessed.

The ambient sound shall be measured in the loudest frequency ranges produced by off-highway vehicle park operations. All measurements shall comply with American National Standards S 1.13 as then currently in effect, using the slow time constant, and 24-hour noise monitoring shall be required at a minimum of three typical recording locations at each production sites.

The consulting company shall work in cooperation with sound department personnel and outside sound consultants hired in connection with the management of production sites.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the planning of a proposed off-highway vehicle park to be completed at the earliest opportunity, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 995

An act to amend Sections 51010, 51014.3, 51014.5, 51015, 51018, 51019, and 51019.1 of, and to repeal Sections 51016, 51017, 51018.5, and 51020 of, the Government Code, relating to pipeline safety.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 51010 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51010. It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this chapter, that the State Fire Marshal shall exercise exclusive safety regulatory and enforcement authority over intrastate hazardous liquid pipelines and, to the extent authorized by agreement between the State Fire Marshal and the United States Secretary of Transportation, and may act as agent for the United State Secretary of Transportation to implement the federal Hazardous Liquid Pipeline Safety Act (49 U.S.C. Sec. 2001 et seq.) and federal pipeline safety regulations as to those portions of interstate pipelines located within this state, as necessary to obtain annual federal certification.

SEC. 2. Section 51014.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51014.3. (a) Each pipeline operator shall notify the State Fire Marshal and the local fire department having fire suppression responsibilities at least three working days prior to conducting a hydrostatic test which is required by this chapter. The notification shall include all of the following information:

(1) The name, address, and telephone number of the pipeline operator.

(2) The specific location of the pipeline section to be tested and the location of the test equipment.

(3) The date and time the test is to be conducted.

(4) The test medium.

(5) The name and telephone number of the independent testing firm or person responsible for certification of the test results.

(b) The State Fire Marshal may observe tests conducted pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 51014.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51014.5. (a) When hydrostatic testing is required by Section 51013.5, the test results shall be certified by an independent testing firm or person who is selected from a list, provided by the State Fire Marshal, of independent testing firms or persons approved annually by the State Fire Marshal. The State Fire Marshal may charge a fee for consideration and approval of an independent testing firm or person pursuant to this subdivision, not to exceed the reasonable costs of that consideration and approval.

(b) The results of the tests required by Section 51013.5 shall be submitted by the independent testing firm or person within 30 days after completion of the test to the State Fire Marshal, who may review the results. The report shall show all of the following information:

(1) The date of the test.

(2) A description of the pipeline tested including a map of suitable scale showing the route of the pipeline.

(3) The results of the test.

(4) Any other test information that may be specifically requested by the State Fire Marshal.

(c) The State Fire Marshal shall not supervise, control, or otherwise direct the testing.

SEC. 4. Section 51015 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51015. (a) Every pipeline operator shall provide to the fire department having fire suppression responsibilities a map or suitable diagram showing the location of the pipeline and a contingency plan for pipeline emergencies.

(b) A pipeline operator shall make available to the State Fire Marshal, or any officers or employees authorized by the State Fire Marshal, upon presentation of appropriate credentials, any records, maps, and written procedures that are required, by this chapter, to be kept by the pipeline operator and which concern accident reporting, design, construction, testing, or operation and maintenance.

The State Fire Marshal, or any officer or employee authorized by the State Fire Marshal, may enter, inspect, and examine, at reasonable times and in a reasonable manner, the records and properties of any pipeline operators that are required to be inspected and examined to determine whether the pipeline operator is in compliance with this chapter.

(c) Every pipeline operator shall offer to meet with the local fire department having fire suppression responsibilities at least once each calendar year to discuss and review contingency plans for pipeline emergencies.

SEC. 5. Section 51016 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 51017 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 51018 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51018. (a) Every rupture, explosion, or fire involving a pipeline, including a pipeline system otherwise exempted by subdivision (a) of Section 51010.5, and including a pipeline undergoing testing, shall be immediately reported to the fire department having fire suppression responsibilities and to the Office of Emergency Services.

(b) For purposes of this section, "rupture" includes every unintentional liquid leak, except that a crude oil leak of less than five barrels from a pipeline or flow line in a rural area, or any crude oil leak in any in-plant piping system, when no fire, explosion, or bodily injury results or no waterway is contaminated thereby, does not constitute a rupture for purposes of the reporting requirements of subdivision (a).

(c) This section does not preempt any other applicable federal or state reporting requirement.

SEC. 8. Section 51018.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 51019 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51019. The State Fire Marshal may assess and collect from every pipeline operator an annual fee for the purpose of carrying out this chapter. The State Fire Marshal may assess this fee for expenses which will be incurred during the following year. A pipeline operator shall pay this fee when billed by the State Fire Marshal. The State Fire Marshal may impose a delinquency fee of 10 percent of the annual fee if the pipeline operator does not pay the fee within 60 days after receipt of the bill, and, in addition, the pipeline operator shall pay interest on that portion of its annual fee not paid within 60 days at the rate of 15 percent per annum from the date of receipt of the bill until paid. The total amount of the fee collected shall not exceed the actual expenses incurred, or the estimated expenses which will be incurred, by the State Fire Marshal in carrying out this chapter.

SEC. 10. Section 51019.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51019.1. (a) There is hereby created the California Hazardous Liquid Pipeline Safety Fund, consisting of the Local Training Account, the Intrastate Pipeline Operations Account, and the Interstate Pipeline Operations Account.

(b) All fees collected pursuant to Section 51019 shall be deposited in the Intrastate Pipeline Operations Account. The money in the account is available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to the State Fire Marshal for the purpose of carrying out this chapter with respect to intrastate pipelines.

(c) All fees collected pursuant to Section 51019.05 shall be deposited in the Interstate Pipeline Operations Account. The money in the account is available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to the State Fire Marshal for the purpose of carrying out the federal Hazardous Liquid Pipeline Safety Act of 1979 (49 U.S.C. Sec. 2001 et seq.) and federal pipeline safety regulations pursuant to this chapter with respect to interstate pipelines.

SEC. 11. Section 51020 of the Government Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 996

An act to amend Section 1610 of the Penal Code, and to add Item 4440-302-036 to Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988, relating to mental health, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1610 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1610. (a) Upon the filing of a request for revocation under Section 1608 or 1609 and pending the court's decision on revocation, the person subject to revocation may be confined in a facility designated by the community program director when it is the opinion of that director that the person will now be a danger to self or to another while on outpatient status and that to delay confinement until the revocation hearing would pose an imminent risk of harm to the person or to another. The facility so designated shall continue the patient's program of treatment, shall provide adequate security so as to ensure both the safety of the person and the safety of others in the facility, and shall, to the extent possible, minimize interference with the person's program of treatment. Upon the request of the community program director or a designee, a peace officer shall take, or cause to be taken, the person into custody and transport the person to a facility designated by the community program director for confinement under this section. Within one judicial day after the person is confined in a jail under this section, the community program director shall apply in writing to the court for authorization to confine the person pending the hearing under Section 1608 or Section 1609 or subdivision (c). The application shall be in the form of a declaration, and shall specify the behavior or other reason justifying the confinement of the person in a jail. Upon receipt of the application for confinement, the court shall consider and rule upon it, and if the court authorizes detention in a jail, the court shall actually serve copies of all orders and all documents filed by the community program director upon the prosecuting and defense counsel. The community program director shall notify the court in writing of the confinement of the person and of the factual basis for the opinion that the immediate confinement in a jail was necessary. The court shall supply a copy of these documents to the prosecutor and defense counsel.
