(g) Upon a failure to comply with the provisions of this section, the person aggrieved may rescind the contract or agreement in the manner provided by this chapter. When the contract for a consumer credit sale or consumer lease which has been sold and assigned to a financial institution is rescinded pursuant to this subdivision, the consumer shall make restitution to and have restitution made by the person with whom he made the contract, and shall give notice of rescission to the assignee. Notwithstanding that the contract was assigned without recourse, the assignment shall be deemed rescinded and the assignor shall promptly repurchase the contract from the assignee.

(h) A person engaged in a trade or business may submit to the Department of Consumer Affairs and the department shall then verify the accuracy of Spanish-language translations of contracts, agreements, disclosures required by subdivision (b), and notices.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the liability of the Department of Consumer Affairs and its employees in verification of the translation of contracts from English to Spanish is limited to misrepresentations in such translations and the liability of the Department of Consumer Affairs and employees is controlled by Sections 815.2 and 822.2 of the Government Code.

(j) No advertisement, announcement, publication or other representation either oral or written that a contract or agreement translation from English to Spanish has been verified by the Department of Consumer Affairs may be made by any person, business or employee utilizing such translated contracts or agreements.

(k) Immediately upon the enactment of this provision the Department of Consumer Affairs shall prepare a schedule of fees for translation verification as set forth herein.

CHAPTER 1532

An act to add and repeal Section 120224.4 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transit development boards.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 120224.4 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

120224.4. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the award of purchase contracts by the board under competitive bid procedures may not be feasible for products and materials which are undergoing rapid technological changes or for the introduction of new technologies into board operations, and that in these circumstances it is in the public interest to consider the broadest possible range of competing products and materials available, fitness of purpose, manufacturer's warranty, and other similar factors in addition to price in the award of these contracts.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 120222 the board may, after a finding by a two-thirds vote that a particular procurement qualifies under subdivision (g), direct that the procurement be conducted through competitive negotiation under this section. For purposes of this section, competitive negotiation includes, but is not limited to, all of the following requirements:

(1) The request for proposals shall be prepared and submitted to an adequate number of qualified sources, as determined by the board, to permit reasonable competition consistent with the nature and requirements of the procurement. In addition, notice of the request for proposals shall be published at least twice in a newspaper of general circulation, at least 10 days before the date for receipt of the proposals.

(2) The request for proposals shall identify all significant evaluation factors, including price, and their relative importance.

(3) The board shall provide reasonable procedures for technical evaluation of the proposals received, identification of qualified sources, and selection for contract award.

(4) Contract awards shall be made to the qualified proposer whose proposal will be most advantageous to the board, with price and all other factors considered.

(c) The board may reject any and all proposals and request new proposals, at its discretion.

(d) Prior to making an award, the board shall prepare a price analysis and shall find that the final negotiated price is fair and reasonable based upon comparable procurements in the marketplace.

(e) Upon making an award to a qualified proposer, the board, upon request, shall make available to all other proposers and to the public, an analysis of the award which provides the basis for the selection of that particular qualified proposal.

(f) Any proposer may protest any acquisition conducted in accordance with this section by filing with the board, within 10 days after receiving notice of the recommended award, exclusive of Saturdays and Sundays, a full and complete written statement specifying in detail the grounds of the protest and the facts supporting the protest, and shall be granted an opportunity to appear before the board prior to the final award.

(g) This section applies only to the purchase by the board of specialized rail transit equipment, computers, telecommunications equipment, fare collection equipment, microwave equipment, and other related electronic equipment and apparatus, and of rail cars. This section does not apply to contracts for construction or for the procurement of any product available in substantial quantities to the general public.

(h) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 1533

An act to amend Sections 777, 10009, 12822, and 16481 of, and to add Sections 777.1, 10009.1, 12822.1, and 16481.1 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 777 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

777. (a) Whenever an electrical, gas, heat, or water corporation furnishes individually metered residential service to residential occupants in a multiunit residential structure, mobilehome park, or permanent residential structures in a labor camp, as defined in Section 17008 of the Health and Safety Code, where the owner, manager, or operator is listed by the corporation as the customer of record, the corporation shall make every good faith effort to inform the residential occupants, by means of a notice, when the account is in arrears, that service will be terminated at least 10 days prior to termination. The notice shall further inform the residential occupants that they have the right to become customers, to whom the service will then be billed, without being required to pay any amount which may be due on the delinquent account.

(b) The corporation is not required to make service available to the residential occupants unless each residential occupant agrees to the terms and conditions of service and meets the requirements of law and the corporation's rules and tariffs. However, if one or more of the residential occupants are willing and able to assume responsibility for the entire account to the satisfaction of the corporation, or if there is a physical means, legally available to the corporation, of selectively terminating service to those residential occupants who have not met the requirements of the corporation's rules and tariffs, the corporation shall make service available to those residential occupants who have met those requirements.

(c) Where prior service for a period of time is a condition for establishing credit with the corporation, residence and proof of prompt payment of rent or other credit obligation acceptable to the corporation for that period of time is a satisfactory equivalent.

(d) Any residential occupant who becomes a customer of the corporation pursuant to this section whose periodic payments, such as rental payments, include charges for residential electrical, gas, heat, or water service, where those charges are not separately stated, may deduct from the periodic payment each payment period all reasonable charges paid to the corporation for those services during the preceding payment period.

SEC. 2. Section 777.1 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

777.1. (a) Whenever an electrical, gas, heat, or water corporation furnishes residential service to residential occupants through a master meter in a multiunit residential structure, mobilehome park, or permanent residential structures in a labor camp, as defined in Section 17008 of the Health and Safety Code, where the owner, manager, or operator is listed by the corporation as the customer of record, the corporation shall make every good faith effort to inform the residential occupants, by means of a written notice posted on the door of each residential unit at least 15 days prior to termination, when the account is in arrears, that service will be terminated on a date specified in the notice. If it is not reasonable or practicable to post the notice on the door of each residential unit, the corporation shall post two copies of the notice in each accessible common area and at each point of access to the structure or structures. The notice shall further inform the residential occupants that they have the right to become customers, to whom the service will then be billed, without being required to pay any amount which may be due on the delinquent account. The notice also shall specify, in plain language, what the residential occupants are required to do in order to prevent the termination or reestablish service; the estimated monthly cost of service; the title, address, and telephone number of a representative of the corporation who can assist the residential occupants in continuing service; and the address and telephone number of a legal services project, as defined in Section 6213 of the Business and Professions Code, which has been recommended by the local county bar association. The notice shall be in English and, to the extent practical, in any other language that the corporation determines is the primary language spoken by a significant number of the residential occupants.

(b) The corporation is not required to make service available to the residential occupants unless each residential occupant or a representative of the residential occupants agrees to the terms and conditions of service and meets the requirements of law and the corporation's rules and tariffs. However, if one or more of the residential occupants or the representative of the residential occupants are willing and able to assume responsibility for subsequent charges to the account to the satisfaction of the corporation, or if there is a physical means, legally available to the corporation, of selectively terminating service to those residential occupants who have not met the requirements of the corporation's rules and tariffs or for whom the representative of the residential occupants is not responsible, the corporation shall make service available to those residential occupants who have met those requirements or on whose behalf those requirements have been met.

(c) Where prior service for a period of time or other demonstration of credit worthiness is a condition for establishing credit with the corporation, residence and proof of prompt payment of rent or other credit obligation during that period of time acceptable to the corporation is a satisfactory equivalent.

(d) Any residential occupant who becomes a customer of the corporation pursuant to this section whose periodic payments, such as rental payments, include charges for residential electrical, gas, heat, or water service, where those charges are not separately stated, may deduct from the periodic payment each payment period all reasonable charges paid to the corporation for those services during the preceding payment period.

(e) Whenever a corporation furnishes residential service subject to subdivision (a), the corporation may not terminate that service in any of the following situations:

(1) During the pendency of an investigation by the corporation of a customer dispute or complaint.

(2) When the customer has been granted an extension of the period for payment of a bill.

(3) For an indebtedness owed by the customer to any other person or corporation or when the obligation represented by the delinquent account or other indebtedness was incurred with a person or corporation other than the electrical, gas, heat, or water corporation demanding payment therefor.

(4) When a delinquent account relates to another property owned, managed, or operated by the customer.

(5) When a public health or building officer certifies that termination would result in a significant threat to the health or safety of the residential occupants or the public.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and in addition to any other remedy provided by law, if the owner, manager, or operator, by any act or omission, directs, permits, or fails to prevent a termination of service while any residential unit receiving that service is occupied, the residential occupant, the representative of the residential occupants may commence an action for the recovery of all of the following:

(1) Reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the residential occupant or the representative of the residential occupants related to restoration of service.

(2) Actual damages related to the termination of service.

(3) Reasonable attorney's fees of the residential occupants, the representative of the residential occupants, or each of them, incurred in the enforcement of this section, including, but not limited to, enforcement of a lien.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and in addition to any other remedy provided by law, if the owner, manager, or operator, by any act or omission, directs, permits, or fails to prevent a termination of service while any residential unit receiving that service is occupied, the corporation may commence an action for the recovery of all of the following:

(1) Delinquent charges accruing prior to the expiration of the notice prescribed by subdivision (a).

(2) Reasonable costs incurred by the corporation related to the restoration of service.

(3) Reasonable attorney's fees of the corporation incurred in the enforcement of this section or in the collection of delinquent charges, including, but not limited to, enforcement of a lien.

If the court finds that the owner, manager, or operator has paid the amount in arrears prior to termination, the court shall allow no recovery of any charges, costs, damages, expenses, or fees under this subdivision from the owner, manager, or operator.

An abstract of any money judgment entered pursuant to subdivision (f) or (g) shall be recorded pursuant to Section 697.310 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(h) No termination of service subject to this section may be effected without compliance with this section, and any service wrongfully terminated shall be restored without charge to the residential occupants or customer for the restoration of the service. In the event of a wrongful termination by the corporation, the corporation shall, in addition, be liable to the residential occupants or customer for actual damages resulting from the termination and for the costs of enforcement of this section, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees, if the residential occupants or the representative of the residential occupants made a good faith effort to have the service continued without interruption.

(i) The commission shall adopt rules and orders necessary to implement this section and shall liberally construe this section to accomplish its purpose of ensuring that service to residential occupants is not terminated due to nonpayment by the customer unless the corporation has made every reasonable effort to continue service to the residential occupants. The rules and orders shall include, but are not limited to, reasonable penalties for a violation of this section, guidelines for assistance to residents in the enforcement of this section, and requirements for the notice prescribed by subdivision (a), including, but not limited to, clear wording, large and bold face type, and comprehensive instructions to ensure full notice to the resident.

(j) Nothing in this section broadens or restricts any authority of a local agency that existed prior to January 1, 1989, to adopt an ordinance protecting a residential occupant from the involuntary termination of residential public utility service.

(k) This section preempts any statute or ordinance permitting punitive damages against any owner, manager, or operator on account of an involuntary termination of residential public utility service or permitting the recovery of costs associated with the formation, maintenance, and termination of a tenant's association.

SEC. 3. Section 10009 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

10009. (a) Whenever a public utility furnishes individually metered residential light, heat, water, or power to residential occupants in a multiunit residential structure, mobilehome park, or permanent residential structures in a labor camp, as defined in Section 17008 of the Health and Safety Code, where the owner, manager, or operator is listed by the public utility as the customer of record, the public utility shall make every good faith effort to inform the residential occupants, by means of a notice, when the account is in arrears, that service will be terminated in 10 days. The notice shall further inform the residential occupants that they have the right to become customers of the public utility without being required to pay the amount due on the delinquent account.

(b) The public utility is not required to make service available to the residential occupants unless each residential occupant agrees to the terms and conditions of service, and meets the requirements of law and the public utility's rules. However, if one or more of the residential occupants are willing and able to assume responsibility for the entire account to the satisfaction of the public utility, or if there is a physical means, legally available to the public utility, of selectively terminating service to those residential occupants who have not met the requirements of the public utility's rules, the public utility shall make service available to the residential occupants who have met those requirements.

(c) Where prior service for a period of time is a condition for establishing credit with the public utility, residence and proof of prompt payment of rent or other obligation acceptable to the public utility for that period of time is a satisfactory equivalent.

(d) Any residential occupant who becomes a customer of the public utility pursuant to this section whose periodic payments, such as rental payments, include charges for residential light, heat, water, or power, where these charges are not separately stated, may deduct from the periodic payment each payment period all reasonable charges paid to the public utility for those services during the preceding payment period.

SEC. 4. Section 10009.1 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

10009.1. (a) Whenever a public utility furnishes light, heat, water, or power to residential occupants through a master meter in a multiunit residential structure, mobilehome park, or permanent residential structures in a labor camp, as defined in Section 17008 of the Health and Safety Code, where the owner, manager, or operator is listed by the public utility as the customer of record, the public utility shall make every good faith effort to inform the residential occupants, by means of a written notice posted on the door of each residential unit at least 15 days prior to termination, when the account is in arrears, that service will be terminated on a date specified in the notice. If it is not reasonable or practicable to post the notice on the door of each residential unit, the public utility shall post two copies of the notice in each accessible common area and at each point of access to the structure or structures. The notice shall further inform the residential occupants that they have the right to become utility customers, to whom the service will then be billed, without being required to pay the amount due on the delinquent account. The notice also shall specify, in plain language, what the residential occupants are required to do in order to prevent the termination or reestablish service; the estimated monthly cost of service; the title, address, and telephone number of a representative of the public utility who can assist the residential occupants in continuing service; and the address and telephone number of a legal services project, as defined in Section 6213 of the Business and Professions Code, which has been recommended by the local county bar association. The notice shall be in English and, to the extent practical, in any other language that the public utility determines is the primary language spoken by a significant number of the residential occupants.

(b) The public utility is not required to make service available to the residential occupants unless each residential occupant or a representative of the residential occupants agrees to the terms and conditions of service, and meets the requirements of law and the public utility's rules. However, if one or more of the residential occupants or the representative of the residential occupants are willing and able to assume responsibility for subsequent charges to the account to the satisfaction of the public utility, or if there is a physical means, legally available to the public utility, of selectively terminating service to those residential occupants who have not met the requirements of the public utility's rules or for whom the representative of the residential occupants is not responsible, the public utility shall make service available to the residential occupants who have met those requirements or on whose behalf those requirements have been met.

(c) Where prior service for a period of time or other demonstration of credit worthiness is a condition for establishing credit with the public utility, residence and proof of prompt payment of rent or other credit obligation during that period of time acceptable to the public utility is a satisfactory equivalent.

(d) Any residential occupant who becomes a customer of the public utility pursuant to this section whose periodic payments, such as rental payments, include charges for residential light, heat, water, or power, where these charges are not separately stated, may deduct from the periodic payment each payment period all reasonable charges paid to the public utility for those services during the preceding payment period.

(e) Whenever a public utility furnishes residential service subject to subdivision (a), the public utility may not terminate that service in any of the following situations:

(1) During the pendency of an investigation by the public utility of a customer dispute or complaint.

(2) When the customer has been granted an extension of the period for payment of a bill.

(3) For an indebtedness owed by the customer to any other public agency or when the obligation represented by the delinquent account or other indebtedness was incurred with any public agency other than the public utility.

(4) When a delinquent account relates to another property owned, managed, or operated by the customer.

(5) When a public health or building officer certifies that termination would result in a significant threat to the health or safety of the residential occupants or the public.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and in addition to any other remedy provided by law, if the owner, manager, or operator, by any act or omission, directs, permits, or fails to prevent a termination of service while any residential unit is occupied, the residential occupant or the representative of the residential occupants may commence an action for the recovery of all of the following:

(1) Reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the residential occupant or the representative of the residential occupants related to restoration of service.

(2) Actual damages related to the termination of service.

(3) Reasonable attorney's fees of the residential occupants, the representative of the residential occupants, or each of them, incurred in the enforcement of this section, including, but not limited to, enforcement of a lien.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and in addition to any other remedy provided by law, if the owner, manager, or operator, by any act or omission, directs, permits, or fails to prevent a termination of service while any residential unit receiving that service is occupied, the corporation may commence an action for the recovery of all of the following:

(1) Delinquent charges accruing prior to the expiration of the notice prescribed by subdivision (a).

(2) Reasonable costs incurred by the corporation related to the restoration of service.

(3) Reasonable attorney's fees of the corporation incurred in the enforcement of this section or in the collection of delinquent charges, including, but not limited to, enforcement of a lien.

If the court finds that the owner, manager, or operator has paid the amount in arrears prior to termination, the court shall allow no recovery of any charges, costs, damages, expenses, or fees under this subdivision from the owner, manager, or operator.

An abstract of any money judgment entered pursuant to subdivision (f) or (g) shall be recorded pursuant to Section 697.310 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(h) No termination of service subject to this section may be effected without compliance with this section, and any service wrongfully terminated shall be restored without charge to the residential occupants or customer for the restoration of the service. In the event of a wrongful termination by the public utility, the public utility shall, in addition, be liable to the residential occupants or customer for actual damages resulting from the termination and for the costs of enforcement of this section, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees, if the residential occupants or the representative of the residential occupants make a good faith effort to have the service continued without interruption.

(i) The public utility shall adopt rules and regulations necessary to implement this section and shall liberally construe this section to accomplish its purpose of ensuring that service to residential occupants is not terminated due to nonpayment by the customer unless the public utility has made every reasonable effort to continue service to the residential occupants. The rules and regulations shall include, but are not limited to, guidelines for assistance to actual users in the enforcement of this section and requirements for the notice prescribed by subdivision (a), including, but not limited to, clear wording, large and bold face type, and comprehensive instructions to ensure full notice to the actual user.

(j) Nothing in this section broadens or restricts any authority of a local agency that existed prior to to January 1, 1989, to adopt an ordinance protecting a residential occupant from the involuntary termination of residential public utility service.

(k) This section preempts any statute or ordinance permitting punitive damages against any owner, manager, or operator on account of an involuntary termination of residential public utility service or permitting the recovery of costs associated with the formation, maintenance, and termination of a tenant's association.

SEC. 5. Section 12822 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

12822. (a) Whenever a district furnishes individually metered residential light, heat, water, or power to residential occupants in a multiunit residential structure, mobilehome park, or permanent residential structures in a labor camp, as defined in Section 17008 of the Health and Safety Code, where the owner, manager, or operator is listed by the district as the customer of record of the service, the district shall make every good faith effort to inform the residential occupants, by means of a notice, when the account is in arrears, that service will be terminated in 10 days. The notice shall further inform the residential occupants that they have the right to become customers of the district without being required to pay the amount due on the delinquent account.

(b) The district is not required to make service available to the residential occupants unless each residential occupant agrees to the terms and conditions of service, and meets the requirements of the district's rules. However, if one or more of the residential occupants are willing and able to assume responsibility for the entire account to the satisfaction of the district, or if there is a physical means, legally available to the district, of selectively terminating service to those residential occupants who have not met the requirements of the district's rules, the district shall make service available to the residential occupants who have met those requirements.

(c) Where prior service for a period of time is a condition for establishing credit with the district, residence and proof of prompt payment of rent or other credit obligation acceptable to the district for that period of time is a satisfactory equivalent.

(d) Any residential occupant who becomes a customer of the district pursuant to this section whose periodic payments, such as rental payments, include charges for residential light, heat, water, or power, where these charges are not separately stated, may deduct from the periodic payment each payment period all reasonable charges paid to the district for those services during the preceding payment period.

SEC. 6. Section 12822.1 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

12822.1. (a) Whenever a district furnishes residential light, heat, water, or power to residential occupants through a master meter in a multiunit residential structure, mobilehome park, or permanent residential structures in a labor camp, as defined in Section 17008 of the Health and Safety Code, where the owner, manager, or operator is listed by the district as the customer of record of the service, the district shall make every good faith effort to inform the residential occupants, by means of a written notice posted on the door of each residential unit at least 15 days prior to termination, when the account is in arrears, that service will be terminated on a date specified in the notice. If it is not reasonable or practicable to post the notice on the door of each residential unit, the district shall post two copies of the notice in each accessible common area and at each point of access to the structure or structures. The notice shall further inform the residential occupants that they have the right to become customers, to whom the service will then be billed, of the district without being required to pay the amount due on the delinquent account. The notice also shall specify, in plain language, what the residential occupants are required to do in order to prevent the termination or reestablish service; the estimated monthly cost of service; the title, address, and telephone number of a representative of the district who can assist the residential occupants in continuing service; and the address and telephone number of a legal services project, as defined in Section 6213 of the Business and Professions Code, which has been recommended by the local county bar association. The notice shall be in English and, to the extent practical, in any other language that the district determines is the primary language spoken by a significant number of the residential occupants.

(b) The district is not required to make service available to the residential occupants unless each residential occupant or a representative of the residential occupants agrees to the terms and conditions of service, and meets the requirement of law and the district's rules. However, if one or more of the residential occupants or the representative of the residential occupants are willing and able to assume responsibility for subsequent charges to the account to the satisfaction of the district, or if there is a physical means, legally available to the district, of selectively terminating service to those residential occupants who have not met the requirements of the district's rules or for whom the representative of the residential occupants is not responsible, the district shall make service available to the residential occupants who have met those requirements or on whose behalf those requirements have been met.

(c) Where prior service for a period of time, or other demonstration of credit worthiness is a condition for establishing credit with the district, residence and proof of prompt payment of rent or other credit obligation during that period of time acceptable to the district is a satisfactory equivalent.

(d) Any residential occupant who becomes a customer of the district pursuant to this section whose periodic payments, such as rental payments, include charges for residential light, heat, water, or power, where these charges are not separately stated, may deduct from the periodic payment each payment period all reasonable charges paid to the district for those services during the preceding payment period.

(e) Whenever a district furnishes residential service subject to subdivision (a), the district may not terminate that service in any of the following situations:

(1) During the pendency of an investigation by the district of a customer dispute or complaint.

(2) When the customer has been granted an extension of the period for payment of a bill.

(3) For an indebtedness owed by the customer to any other public agency or when the obligation represented by the delinquent account or other indebtedness was incurred with any public agency other than the district.

(4) When a delinquent account relates to another property owned, managed, or operated by the customer.

(5) When a public health or building officer certifies that termination would result in a significant threat to the health or safety of the residential occupants or the public.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and in addition to any other remedy provided by law, if the owner, operator, or manager, by any act or omission, directs, permits, or fails to prevent a termination of service while any residential unit is occupied, the residential occupant or the representative of the residential occupants may commence an action for the recovery of all of the following:

(1) Reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the residential occupant or the representative of the residential occupants related to restoration of service.

(2) Actual damages related to the termination of service.

(3) Reasonable attorney's fees of the residential occupants, the representative of the residential occupants, or each of them, incurred in the enforcement of this section, including, but not limited to, enforcement of a lien.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and in addition to any other remedy provided by law, if the owner, manager, or operator, by any act or omission, directs, permits, or fails to prevent a termination of service while any residential unit receiving that service is occupied, the corporation may commence an action for the recovery of all of the following:

(1) Delinquent charges accruing prior to the expiration of the notice prescribed by subdivision (a).

(2) Reasonable costs incurred by the corporation related to the restoration of service.

(3) Reasonable attorney's fees of the corporation incurred in the enforcement of this section or in the collection of delinquent charges, including, but not limited to, enforcement of a lien.

If the court finds that the owner, manager, or operator has paid the amount in arrears prior to termination, the court shall allow no recovery of any charges, costs, damages, expenses, or fees under this subdivision from the owner, manager, or operator.

An abstract of any money judgment entered pursuant to subdivision (f) or (g) shall be recorded pursuant to Section 697.310 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(h) No termination of service subject to this section may be effected without compliance with this section, and any service wrongfully terminated shall be restored without charge to the residential occupants or customer for the restoration of the service. In the event of a wrongful termination by the district, the district shall, in addition, be liable to the residential occupants or customer for actual damages resulting from the termination and for the costs of enforcement of this section, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees, if the residential occupants or the representative of the residential occupants make a good faith effort to have the service continued without interruption.

(i) The district shall adopt rules and regulations necessary to implement this section and shall liberally construe this section to accomplish its purpose of ensuring that service to the residential occupants is not terminated due to nonpayment by the customer unless the district has made every reasonable effort to continue service to the residential occupants. The rules and regulations shall include, but are not limited to, guidelines for assistance to actual users in the enforcement of this section and requirements for the notice prescribed by subdivision (a), including, but not limited to, clear wording, large and bold face type, and comprehensive instructions to ensure full notice to the actual user.

(j) Nothing in this section broadens or restricts any authority of a local agency that existed prior to January 1, 1989, to adopt an ordinance protecting a residential occupant from the involuntary termination of residential public utility service.

(k) This section preempts any statute or ordinance permitting punitive damages against any owner, manager, or operator on account of an involuntary termination of residential public utility service or permitting the recovery of costs associated with the formation, maintenance, and termination of a tenant's association.

SEC. 7. Section 16481 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

16481. (a) Whenever a district furnishes individually metered residential light, heat, water, or power to residential occupants in a multiunit residential structure, mobilehome park, or permanent residential structures in a labor camp, as defined in Section 17008 of the Health and Safety Code, where the owner, manager, or operator is listed by the district as the customer of record, the district shall make every good faith effort to inform the residential occupants, by means of a notice, when the account is in arrears, that service will be terminated in 10 days. The notice shall further inform the residential occupants that they have the right to become customers of the district without being required to pay the amount due on the delinquent account.

(b) The district is not required to make service available to the residential occupants unless each residential occupant agrees to the terms and conditions of service, and meets the requirements of the district's rules. However, if one or more of the residential occupants are willing and able to assume responsibility for the entire account to the satisfaction of the district, or if there is a physical means, legally available to the district, of selectively terminating service to those residential occupants who have not met the requirements of the district's rules, the district shall make service available to the residential occupants who have met those requirements.

(c) Where prior service for a period of time is a condition for establishing credit with the district, residence and proof of prompt payment of rent or other credit obligation acceptable to the district for that period of time is a satisfactory equivalent.

(d) Any residential occupant who becomes a customer of the district pursuant to this section whose periodic payments, such as rental payments, include charges for residential light, heat, water, or power, where these charges are not separately stated, may deduct from the periodic payment each payment period all reasonable charges paid to the district for those services during the preceding payment period.

SEC. 8. Section 16481.1 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

16481.1. (a) Whenever a district furnishes residential light, heat, water, or power to residential occupants through a master meter in a multiunit residential structure, mobilehome park, or permanent residential structures in a labor camp, as defined in Section 17008 of the Health and Safety Code, where the owner, manager, or operator is listed by the district as the customer of record, the district shall make every good faith effort to inform the residential occupants, by means of a written notice posted on the door of each residential unit at least 15 days prior to termination, when the account is in arrears, that service will be terminated on a date specified in the notice. If it is not reasonable or practicable to post the notice on the door of each residential unit, the district shall post two copies of the notice in each common area and at each point of access to the structure or structures. The notice shall further inform the residential occupants that they have the right to become customers, to whom the service will be billed, of the district without being required to pay the amount due on the delinquent account. The notice also shall specify, in plain language, what the residential occupants are required to do in order to prevent the termination or reestablish service; the estimated monthly cost of service; the title, address, and telephone number of a representative of the district who can assist the residential occupants in continuing service; and the address and telephone number of a legal services project, as defined in Section 6213 of the Business and Professions Code, which has been recommended by the local county bar association. The notice shall be in English and, to the extent practical, in any other language that the district determines is the primary language spoken by a significant number of the residential occupants.

(b) The district is not required to make service available to the residential occupants unless each residential occupant or a representative of the residential occupants agrees to the terms and conditions of service, and meets the requirements of law and the district's rules. However, if one or more of the residential occupants or the representative of the residential occupants are willing and able to assume responsibility for subsequent charges to the account to the satisfaction of the district, or if there is a physical means, legally available to the district, of selectively terminating service to those residential occupants who have not met the requirements of the district's rules or for whom the representative of the residential occupants is not responsible, the district shall make service available to the residential occupants who have met those requirements or on whose behalf those requirements have been met.

(c) Where prior service for a period of time or other demonstration of credit worthiness is a condition for establishing credit with the district, residence and proof of prompt payment of rent or other credit obligation during that period of time acceptable to the district is a satisfactory equivalent.

(d) Any residential occupant who becomes a customer of the district pursuant to this section whose periodic payments, such as rental payments, include charges for residential light, heat, water, or power, where these charges are not separately stated, may deduct from the periodic payment each payment period all reasonable charges paid to the district for those services during the preceding payment period.

(e) Whenever a district furnishes residential service subject to subdivision (a), the district may not terminate that service in any of the following situations:

(1) During the pendency of an investigation by the district of a customer dispute or complaint.

(2) When the customer has been granted an extension of the period for payment of a bill.

(3) For an indebtedness owed by the customer to any other public agency or when the obligation represented by the delinquent account or other indebtedness was incurred with any public agency other than the district.

(4) When a delinquent account relates to another property owned, managed, or operated by the customer.

(5) When a public health or building officer certifies that termination would result in a significant threat to the health or safety of the residential occupants or the public.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and in addition to any other remedy provided by law, if the owner, operator, or manager, by any act or omission, directs, permits, or fails to prevent a termination of service while any residential unit is occupied, the residential occupant or the representative of the residential occupants may commence an action for the recovery of all of the following:

(1) Reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the residential occupant or the representative of the residential occupants related to restoration of service.

(2) Actual damages related to the termination of service.

(3) Reasonable attorney's fees of the residential occupants, the representative of the residential occupants, or each of them, incurred in the enforcement of this section, including, but not limited to, enforcement of a lien.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and in addition to any other remedy provided by law, if the owner, manager, or operator, by any act or omission, directs, permits, or fails to prevent a termination of service while any residential unit receiving that service is occupied, the corporation may commence an action for the recovery of all of the following:

(1) Delinquent charges accruing prior to the expiration of the notice prescribed by subdivision (a).

(2) Reasonable costs incurred by the corporation related to the restoration of service.

(3) Reasonable attorney's fees of the corporation incurred in the enforcement of this section or in the collection of delinquent charges, including, but not limited to, enforcement of a lien.

If the court finds that the owner, manager, or operator has paid the amount in arrears prior to termination, the court shall allow no recovery of any charges, costs, damages, expenses, or fees under this subdivision from the owner, manager, or operator.

An abstract of any money judgment entered pursuant to subdivision (f) or (g) shall be recorded pursuant to Section 697.310 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(h) No termination of service subject to this section may be effected without compliance with this section, and any service wrongfully terminated shall be restored without charge to the residential occupants or customer for the restoration of the service. In the event of a wrongful termination by the district, the district shall, in addition, be liable to the residential occupants or customer for actual damages resulting from the termination and for the costs of enforcement of this section, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees, if the residential occupants or the representative of the residential occupants make a good faith effort to have the service continued without interruption.

(i) The district shall adopt rules and regulations necessary to implement this section and shall liberally construe this section to accomplish its purpose of ensuring that service to the residential occupants is not terminated due to nonpayment by the customer unless the district has made every reasonable effort to continue service to the residential occupants. The rules and regulations shall include, but are not limited to, guidelines for assistance to actual users in the enforcement of this section and requirements for the notice prescribed by subdivision (a), including, but not limited to, clear wording, large and bold face type, and comprehensive instructions to ensure full notice to the actual users.

(j) Nothing in this section broadens or restricts any authority of a local agency that existed prior to January 1, 1989, to adopt an ordinance protecting a residential occupant from the involuntary termination of residential public utility service.

(k) This section preempts any statute or ordinance permitting punitive damages against any owner, manager, or operator on account of an involuntary termination of public utility service or permitting the recovery of costs associated with the formation, maintenance, and termination of a tenant's association.

(l) For purposes of this section, "representative of the residential occupants" does not include a tenants' association.

SEC. 9. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1534

An act to add Article 9 (commencing with Section 674) to Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 9 (commencing with Section 674) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 9. Consultant Contracts

674. All contracts for the performance of appraisal work for assessors by any individual who is not an employee of the state, any county, or any city shall be entered into only after at least two competitive bids and shall be entered into either on a fixed fee basis or on the basis of an hourly rate with a maximum dollar amount .

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act does not mandate a new program or higher level of service on local government. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 17550) of Part 7 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. This act shall apply to contracts entered into on and after January 1, 1989.

SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature that the provisions of this act shall have no effect upon the constitutional, statutory, and regulatory mandates for determining "full cash value" or "fair market value" and it shall remain the primary responsibility of assessors to ensure that appraisals and enrolled values are neither overstated nor understated.

CHAPTER 1535

An act to add Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 2000) to Division 2.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to youth centers and youth shelters.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 2000) is added to Division 2.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2. YOUTH CENTER AND YOUTH SHELTER BOND ACT OF 1988

Article 1. General Provisions

2000. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Youth Center and Youth Shelter Bond Act of 1988.

2001. For purposes of this chapter:

(a) "Acquiring" means obtaining ownership of an existing facility in fee simple for use as a youth center or youth shelter.

(b) "Altering" or "renovating" means making modifications to an existing facility which are necessary for cost-effective use as a youth center or youth shelter, including restoration, repair, expansion, and all related physical improvements.

(c) "Applicant" means any local agency or nonprofit private agency or organization, and any joint venture of public and nonprofit private agencies or organizations.

(d) "Constructing" means the purchase or building of a new facility, including the costs of land acquisition and architectural and engineering fees.

(e) "Department" means the Department of the Youth Authority.

(f) "Equipment" means tangible personal property having a useful life of more than one year and an acquisition cost of three hundred dollars ($300) or more.

(g) "Fund" means the 1988 County Correctional Facility Capital Expenditure and Youth Facility Bond Fund, created pursuant to Section 4496.10 of the Penal Code.

(h) "Nonprofit" means an institution or organization which is owned and operated by one or more corporations or associations with no part of the net earnings benefiting any private shareholder or individual.

(i) "Programs" means a variety of services and activities provided in a youth center, including, but not limited to, recreation, health and fitness, delinquency prevention such as antigang programs and how-to resistance to peer group pressures, counseling for such problems as drug and alcohol abuse and suicide, citizenship and leadership development, and youth employment.

(j) "Services" means those services provided in youth shelters, including, but not limited to, food, shelter, counseling, outreach, basic health screening, referral and linkage to other services offered by public and private agencies, and long-term planning for reunification with the family or in a suitable home where family reunification is not possible.

(k) "Youth center" means a facility where children, ages 6 to 17, inclusive, come together for programs and activities.

(l) "Youth shelter" means a facility that provides a variety of services to homeless minors living on the street to assist them with their immediate survival needs and to help reunite them with their parents or, as a last alternative, find a suitable home.

Article 2. Youth Center and Youth Shelter Bond Act Program

2010. Money in the 1988 County Correctional Facility Capital Expenditure and Youth Facility Bond Fund created pursuant to Section 4496.10 of the Penal Code shall, upon appropriation by the Legislature, be available, for allocation, upon the request of the Director of the Department of the Youth Authority and for the purposes specified in this chapter.

2011. The department shall, upon appropriation pursuant to Section 2010, make awards to public or private nonprofit agencies or joint ventures, or both, for the purpose of acquiring, renovating, constructing, and purchasing equipment for youth centers or youth shelters. This chapter shall not apply to institutions of a type under the jurisdiction of the department prior to the operative date of this act adding this section.

2012. (a) A recipient of a contract for the acquisition of a facility to be used as a youth center or youth shelter shall assure that the facility will be used for that purpose for at least 10 years from the date of acquisition.

(b) A recipient of a contract for the construction of a facility to be used as a youth center or youth shelter shall assure the department the facility will be used for that purpose for at least 20 years after completion of construction.

(c) A recipient of a contract for the renovation of an existing facility to be used as a youth center or youth shelter shall assure the department the facility will be used for that purpose for the following periods:

(1) Not less than three years from the date the contract terminates, where the amount of the award does not exceed thirty thousand dollars ($30,000).

(2) If the award exceeds thirty thousand dollars ($30,000), the fixed period of time shall increase one year for each additional ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or part thereof, to a maximum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

(3) For awards which exceed seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000), the fixed period of time shall not be less than 10 years.

2013. (a) The State of California shall be entitled to recapture a portion of state funds from the owner of a facility if, within 10 years after acquisition, or 20 years after completion of construction, either of the following occurs:

(1) The owner of the facility ceases to be a public or nonprofit agency.

(2) The facility is no longer used for youth center or youth shelter activities.

(b) The amount recovered shall be that proportion of the current value of the facility equal to the proportion of state funds contributed to the original cost. The current value of the facility shall be determined by an agreement between the owner of the facility and the State of California, or by an action in the court in the jurisdiction in which the facility is located.

2014. A facility altered, acquired, renovated, constructed, or equipped using funds allocated under this chapter may not be used and may not be intended to be used for sectarian instruction or as a place for religious worship.

2015. In a youth center or youth shelter facility that is shared with other age groups, funds received under this chapter may support only the following:

(a) That part of the facility used by young people.

(b) A proportionate share of the costs based on the extent of use of the facility by young people.

2016. The department prior to issuing a request for proposal shall create an advisory committee to secure from this committee advice on the request for proposal and the criteria for reviewing and evaluating the responses. In no case shall the department issue a request for proposals for youth centers and youth shelters any later than three months after the money is deposited in the fund for the purposes of this chapter. The advisory committee shall consist of representatives, including, but not limited to, of the Office of Criminal Justice Planning, law enforcement, League of California Cities, County Supervisors Association of California, California Collaboration for Youth, California Child, Youth and Family Coalition, California Park and Recreation Society, YWCA, California Association of Probation Officers, California Parent-Teachers' Association, Girl Scouts of America, two appointees each by the Speaker of the Assembly and Senate Rules Committee representing providers of community youth services including service providers for homeless youth.

The department shall review and evaluate proposals for funding. The proposals shall be consistent with the criteria developed by the department in consultation with its advisory bodies.

2017. Proposals for both youth centers and youth shelters shall do all of the following:

(1) Document the need for the applicant's proposal.

(2) Contain a written commitment and a plan for the delivery of programs, including, where appropriate, plans for innovative nontraditional programs designed to meet the needs of the youth of the targeted community.

(3) (A) Contain a match for funding which is:

(i) Equal to 25 percent of the total amount requested, when the applicant is a public agency or joint venture involving a public agency.

(ii) Equal to 15 pecent of the total amount requested, when the applicant is a private nonprofit agency.

(B) The match may be in cash or in kind.

(4) Document the cost effectiveness of the proposal.

(5) Contain a written commitment and plan to develop and implement a process to receive and consider feedback and suggestions from the community served including a separate mechanism for the youth it serves. A board of directors reflecting broad representation of the community will satisfy the requirement for community input.

(6) Document plans to utilize and coordinate with other organizations serving the same youth population including making available center facilities where possible.

2018. (a) (1) Funds shall be available in response to requests for proposals. The department shall rank the proposals for funding on a priority consideration based on established greatest need in the most heavily populated areas, the most underserved areas, and the most economically disadvantaged areas, both in urban and rural counties.

(2) After ranking the priorities pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), funds shall be given to applicants in the following order of priority taking into consideration the factors set forth in subdivision (b).

(A) Private nonprofit agencies.

(B) Joint ventures between public and private nonprofit agencies.

(C) Public agencies.

(b) In ranking the proposals, the department shall also consider the following factors:

(1) The number of youths to be served.

(2) The cost effectiveness of the proposal.

(3) The utilization of, and coordination with, other agencies serving youth.

(4) Experience in program management, particularly in programs serving the needs of youth.

(5) Experience in programs serving youth.

(c) The department shall, to the extent possible given the amount of funds available, attempt to ensure a broad distribution of the funds consistent with the program priorities, in order to meet the needs of youth.

The department shall consider any protest or objection regarding the award of a contract, whether submitted before or after the award, provided that the protest is filed within the time period established in the request for proposals, made pursuant to Section 2016. All protests or objections shall be filed in writing. The protesting party shall be notified in writing of the final decision on the protest, and the notification shall set forth the rationale upon which the decision is based.

2020. For purposes of administering this chapter and the allocation of bond proceeds, the department shall treat funding for the youth centers and youth shelters as separate programs. In addition to its advisory committee, the department shall seek the cooperation and advice of the Office of Criminal Justice Planning and other appropriate agencies in the administration of the youth shelter program.

2021. No grant made pursuant to this chapter shall exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000).

2022. The committee, as defined in Section 4496.04 of the Penal Code, shall give priority to the issuance of bonds in order to carry out the actions specified in subdivision (b) of Section 4496.12 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 2. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that funds available under the program prescribed by this act shall be distributed as soon as possible in order to maximize the availability of services and programs for youths to the largest number of youths possible.

(b) If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

CHAPTER 1536

An act relating to public works, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Department of General Services shall, out of funds currently available, upgrade the restroom facilities in the State Capitol Park sufficient to accommodate visitors projected to visit the California Vietnam Veterans Memorial and the Capitol grounds. The department shall provide clean and safe facilities, regularly patrolled by security personnel, accessible to the handicapped, and open to the public on weekends. The upgrade for the restrooms required of this section shall be completed before the dedication of the completed California Vietnam Veterans Memorial.

This section shall be repealed on January 1, 1992.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide essential health and safety facilities for visitors to the State Capitol Park as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1537

An act to add Section 199.78 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to AIDS.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Education is the primary means of preventing the spread of acquired immune deficiency syndrome, commonly known as AIDS, a deadly disease which has reached epidemic proportions in California and the rest of the nation.

(b) Cases of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) are increasing rapidly among infants and children. Today, human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) infected infants are being born at the rate of 3,000 a year.

(c) Approximately 79 percent of pediatric AIDS cases are caused by transmission of infection from an HIV infected mother. In many cases, the mothers are symptom free and unaware that they are infected. The number of perinatal AIDS cases is expected to increase significantly as HIV infection becomes more prevalent in the heterosexual population. The federal Centers for Disease Control estimates that by 1991, the number of AIDS cases among children under the age of 13 will increase 450 percent.

(d) In New York City, AIDS is currently the leading cause of death among women aged 25 to 28. The United States Department of Health estimates that between 30,000 and 50,000 of the women in New York City who are of childbearing age now carry the AIDS virus. In Los Angeles, which has the fastest growing rate of AIDS cases in the nation, 18 percent of women who have AIDS do not know how they contracted it.

(e) The only way to prevent the perinatal transmission of AIDS to infants is to prevent HIV infection in women of childbearing age and the avoidance of pregnancy by HIV infected women. This requires a widespread program of education, identification of women who are at high risk for HIV infection, counseling, and the availability of appropriate HIV testing services.

(f) The State Department of Health Services, through a variety of categorical programs, provides various services to women and children who may be at high risk for infection by the human immunodeficiency virus.

(g) These categorial programs include:

(1) The California Childrens Services Program.

(2) Programs under the Maternal and Child Health Branch of the department.

(3) The Child Health Disability Prevention Program.

(4) The Genetic Disease Program.

(5) The Office of Family Planning.

(6) The Rural and Community Health Clinics Program.

(7) The County Health Services Program.

(8) The Sexually Transmitted Disease Program.

(h) In addition, the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs administers programs which serve a large population of women who may be at high risk for HIV infection.

(i) Currently, however, most providers of services under these programs lack the AIDS-related information, training, and testing capacity necessary to effectively educate, counsel, and test clients who are potentially at high risk for HIV infection.

SEC. 2. Section 199.78 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

199.78. (a) The state department shall, in coordination with the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs, develop a plan which assesses the need for, a program of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) primary prevention, health education, testing, and counseling, specifically designed for women and children, which shall be integrated, as the department deems appropriate, into the following programs:

(1) The California Childrens Services Program provided for pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 248).

(2) Programs under the Maternal and Child Health Branch of the department.

(3) The Child Health Disability Prevention Program provided for pursuant to Article 3.4 (commencing with Section 320).

(4) The Genetic Disease Program, provided for pursuant to Sections 309 and 309.5.

(5) The Family Planning Programs, provided for pursuant to Chapter 8.5 (commencing with Section 14500) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(6) The Rural and Community Health Clinics Program.

(7) The County Health Services Program, provided for pursuant to Part 4.5 (commencing with Section 16700) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(8) The Sexually Transmitted Disease Program.

(9) Programs administered by the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs.

(b) The AIDS-related services which shall be addressed in the plan specified in this section shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) A variety of educational materials which are appropriate to the cultural background and educational level of the program clientele.

(2) The availability of confidential HIV antibody testing and counseling either onsite or by referral.

(c) Pursuant to subdivision (a), the plan shall include a method to provide the educational materials specified in subdivision (b) and appropriate AIDS-related training programs for those persons who provide direct services to women and children receiving services under the programs specified in this section.

(d) In order that the AIDS-related services plan provided through the programs specified in this section be as effective as possible, the state department shall ensure that the educational materials and training programs provided for each program specified in subdivision (a) are developed in coordination with, and with input from, each of the respective programs.

(e) Nothing in this section shall preclude the state department from incorporating the plan requirements into the department's annual state AIDS plan, or any other reporting document relating to AIDS deemed appropriate by the department.

SEC. 3. On or before July 1, 1989, the state department shall report to the Governor and the Legislature on the plan developed pursuant to this act, including a cost estimate for implementing the plan.

CHAPTER 1538

An act to add Article 1.9 (commencing with Section 246.1) to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to dental care.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 1.9 (commencing with Section 246.1) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 1.9. Sonoma County Dental Care Pilot Project

246.1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that it is necessary that a special authority be established in Sonoma County in order to meet the problems of the delivery of publicly assisted and indigent dental health care in the county. Because there is no general law under which such an authority could be formed, the adoption of a special act and the formation of a special authority is required.

(b) The Board of Supervisors of Sonoma County may, by ordinance, establish the Sonoma County Dental Health Authority to receive state funds and technical assistance for the purpose of managing a dental health care delivery program for indigent persons and Medi-Cal recipients covered under the Denti-Cal program. The enabling ordinance shall specify the membership of the authority, the qualifications of members, the manner of appointment, selection, or removal of members, and their term of office, and any other matters which the board of supervisors deems necessary or convenient for the conduct of the authority's activities. The authority so established shall be considered an entity separate from the county, shall file the statement required by Section 53051 of the Government Code, and shall have the rights, powers, duties, privileges conferred by this article, the power to acquire, possess, and dispose of real or personal property, as may be necessary for the performance of its functions, to employ personnel and contract for services required to meet its obligations, and to sue or be sued. Any obligations of the authority, statutory, contractual, or otherwise, shall be the obligations solely of the authority and shall not be the obligations of the county or of the state unless expressly provided for in a contract or grant agreement between the authority and the county or the state.

(c) The authority shall bill the Medi-Cal program for services provided to Medi-Cal recipients.

(d) In the event the authority no longer functions for the purposes for which it was established, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, terminate the authority at such time as the authority's then existing obligations have been satisfied or the authority's assets have been exhausted. Prior to the termination of the authority, the board of supervisors shall notify the state department of its intent to terminate the authority and shall provide the state department with an accounting of the assets and liabilities of the authority.

(e) Any assets of the authority shall be disposed of pursuant to provisions contained in the grant agreement entered into between the state and the authority pursuant to this article.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of this article, the state department may not enter into any arrangement with the authority to provide case management or fiscal intermediary services for dental health care provided to Medi-Cal recipients.

246.3. (a) The state department shall allocate any funds appropriated for that purpose to the Sonoma County Dental Health Authority for the provision of dental care and dental hygiene services for Medi-Cal to recipients covered under the Denti-Cal program, and for indigent persons in Sonoma County.

(b) The state department shall permit the Sonoma County Dental Health Authority to impose a fee upon any indigent persons served by the program, commensurate with their ability to pay. An additional fee shall not be imposed upon Medi-Cal recipients for services covered by that program.

246.5. (a) The state department, after consultation with the Sonoma County Dental Health Authority, shall report to the Legislature on or before December 31, 1989, on the effectiveness of the pilot project provided for under this article. The report shall contain recommendations as to whether the program should be continued or expanded.

(b) The report shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following information, which the department shall take into consideration in its recommendation:

(1) The number of indigent patients served.

(2) The number of dentists, dental auxiliaries, and other persons who volunteer in the provision of dental care to the indigent patients.

(3) The dollar amount billed to the Denti-Cal program, which provides reimbursement for dental care services under the Medi-Cal program.

(4) The dollar amount paid to the pilot project by Denti-Cal.

(5) The dollar amount of treatment denied by Denti-Cal.

(6) The dollar amount paid by patients.

(7) The dollar amount of supplies and equipment donated to the program.

(8) The dollar amount paid by the project for overhead.
(9) The number of hours of service by volunteers.

CHAPTER 1539

An act to amend Sections 711, 1528, and 1756 of, to add Sections 1055.3, 1585, 1764, 1765, 1766, 1767.5, 1768, 1769, and 12002.5 to, and to add and repeal Section 1767 of, the Fish and Game Code, relating to wildlife, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 711 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

711. It is the intent of the Legislature to ensure adequate funding from appropriate sources for the department. To this end, the Legislature finds and declares that:

(a) The costs of nongame fish and wildlife programs and free hunting and fishing license programs shall be provided annually in the Budget Act by appropriating money from the General Fund and sources other than the Fish and Game Preservation Fund to the department for these purposes.

(b) The costs of commercial fishing programs shall be provided solely out of revenues from commercial fishing taxes, license fees, and other revenues, and from reimbursements and federal funds received for commercial fishing programs.

(c) The costs of hunting and sportfishing programs shall be provided solely out of hunting and sportfishing revenues and reimbursements and federal funds received for hunting and sportfishing programs. These revenues shall not be used to support commercial fishing programs, free hunting and fishing license programs, or nongame fish and wildlife programs.

(d) The costs of managing lands managed by the department and the costs of wildlife management programs shall be supplemented out of revenues in the Native Species Conservation and Enhancement Account in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund.

(e) The department shall conduct, or contract for, a review, at least every five years, of its programs to ensure consistency with this section.

(f) Hunting, sportfishing, and sport ocean fishing license fees shall be adjusted annually to an amount equal to that computed pursuant to Section 713. However, a substantial increase in the aggregate of hunting and sportfishing programs shall be reflected by appropriate amendments to the sections of this code that establish the base sport license fee levels. The inflationary index provided in Section 713 may not be used to accommodate a substantial increase in the aggregate of hunting and sportfishing programs.

For purposes of this article, "substantial increase" means an increase in excess of 5 percent of the Fish and Game Preservation Fund portion of the department's current year support budget, excluding cost-of-living increases provided for salaries, staff benefits, and operating expenses.

SEC. 2. Section 1055.3 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

1055.3. The department may authorize any person, except a commissioner or an officer or employee of the department, to issue, as an agent of the department, annual wildlife area passes and native species stamps, and to sell promotional materials and nature study aids pursuant to, and subject to the requirements of, this article. Any agent thus authorized may add a handling charge of fifty cents ($0.50) to the fee prescribed in Article 3 (commencing with Section 1760) of Chapter 7.5 of Division 2 for each annual wildlife area pass or native species stamp issued.

SEC. 3. Section 1528 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

1528. Lands, or lands and water, acquired for public shooting grounds or wildlife management areas shall be operated on a nonprofit basis by the department. Multiple recreational use of wildlife management areas is desirable and that use shall be encouraged by the commission. Except for hunting and fishing purposes, only minimum facilities to permit other forms of multiple recreational use, such as camping, picnicking, boating, or swimming, shall be provided. Except as provided in Section 1765, and to defray the costs associated with multiple use, the commission may determine and fix the amount of, and the department shall collect, fees for any use privileges. However, tours by organized youth and school groups are exempt from the payment of those fees. Only persons holding valid hunting licenses may apply for or obtain shooting permits for public shooting grounds or wildlife management areas.

SEC. 4. Section 1585 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

1585. Notwithstanding Section 1580, which sets forth the primary purposes of ecological reserves, the department may construct facilities and conduct programs in ecological reserves it selects to provide natural history education and recreation if those facilities and programs are compatible with the protection of the biological resources of the reserve. As provided in Sections 1764 and 1765, the department may control access, use, and collect fees for selected ecological reserves.

SEC. 5. Section 1756 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

1756. (a) The policy set forth in this chapter is in the public interest without regard to the economic value or the lack of economic value of wildlife or native plants.

(b) It is the policy of the state to require the recreational users of the state's wildlife resources to support the management of lands managed by the department and the management of wildlife consistent with Section 711.

SEC. 6. Section 1764 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

1764. (a) The director shall designate those particular areas of land managed by the department at which possession of a valid annual wildlife pass or day use pass shall be required. No designation shall be effective until a management plan for the area has been presented at a public meeting and the plan has been approved by the director.

(b) No person shall enter the designated area unless that person possesses an annual wildlife area pass or a day use pass issued pursuant to Section 1765, a valid hunting license issued pursuant to Section 3031, a valid trapping license issued pursuant to Section 4006, or a valid sportfishing license issued pursuant to Section 7149, 7149.1, 7150, or 7151, or that person is a member of a tour by an organized youth or school group which has been issued a day use pass.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), possession of a license or pass shall not be required of any person who:

(1) Is passing through the area on a public right-of-way.

(2) Possesses authorization by the commission or the department to conduct scientific or educational research.

(3) Is discharging duties in the course of employment, as specified by the department.

(4) Possesses written authorization from the department to enter the area for a specific purpose.

SEC. 7. Section 1765 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

1765. (a) The department may issue an annual wildlife area pass or a day use pass that authorizes the bearer to enter and use facilities and programs on the department managed lands subject to Section 1764 for the period of a calendar year or, if issued after the beginning of the year, for the remainder thereof. The fee for the annual wildlife area pass is ten dollars ($10). The fee for the day use pass is two dollars ($2); however, a tour by an organized youth or school group is exempt from the payment of this fee. The fees shall be adjusted in the calendar years following 1989 in accordance with Section 713. A person under the age of 16 years is exempt from the payment of fees under this section for an annual wildlife area pass or a day use pass.

(b) Any person eligible for a reduced fee or free sportfishing license pursuant to Section 7150 or 7151 shall be issued an annual wildlife area pass upon application therefor and under the same conditions and for the same fee as provided in those sections. There shall be appropriated in the annual Budget Act from the General Fund, for transfer to the Native Species Conservation and Enhancement Account, a sum equal to two dollars ($2) for each free annual wildlife area pass issued pursuant to this subdivision during the preceding calendar year.

SEC. 8. Section 1766 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

1766. The department may also offer for sale a native species stamp, promotional materials, and nature study aids. The fee for a native species stamp is seven dollars and fifty cents ($7.50), as adjusted in the calendar years following 1989 in accordance with Section 713.

SEC. 8.5. Section 1767 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

1767. (a) The department may enter into contracts for the purpose of producing and printing the native species stamps without complying with Sections 10301, 10339, and 10340 of the Public Contract Code.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 9. Section 1767.5 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

1767.5. (a) The revenues from fees and sales under this article and Section 1055.3 shall be deposited in the Native Species Conservation and Enhancement Account in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund, and shall be available for appropriation for expenditure in the 1988–89 and subsequent fiscal years in the following order of priority:

(1) Repayment of any loan to the account from the Fish and Game Preservation Fund. The amounts repaid annually shall be prorated to complete the repayment with interest on or before July 1, 1993. Interest shall be calculated at the rate earned by the Surplus Money Investment Fund from the date funds for the loan were advanced to the date of repayment.

(2) The costs of ongoing wildlife management programs incurred at any lands managed by the department alone or cooperatively with other governmental agencies, irrespective of their designation pursuant to Section 1764, that are not adequately funded under subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 711.

(3) The costs of natural history education and recreational programs and improvements at areas designated pursuant to Section 1764.

(4) Augmentation of wildlife management programs and acquisition of additional lands at areas designated pursuant to Section 1764.

(b) Until the loans to the account from the Fish and Game Preservation Fund are repaid with interest, the department shall prepare and submit quarterly financial reports to the policy and fiscal committees of both houses of the Legislature for the purpose of reconsideration of the funding for this article.

(c) Revenues from fees and sales under this article and Section 1055.3 shall be used to augment and not to replace money appropriated from existing funds available to the department for the purposes specified in subdivision (a).

SEC. 10. Section 1768 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

1768. The Legislature finds and declares that the revenues from fees and sales under this article are related to the protection and propagation of fish and game within the meaning of Section 9 of Article XVI of the California Constitution.

SEC. 11. Section 1769 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

1769. The department may take all appropriate measures to encourage persons to obtain annual wildlife area passes and day use passes issued pursuant to Section 1765, and to promote the sale of native species stamps, promotional materials, and nature study aids to provide revenue for the support of the department. The measures may include, but are not limited to, the dissemination of public information concerning the status of wildlife, fish, and plant species, conservation activities of the department, and programs and facilities provided by the department for the enjoyment of the lands managed by the department.

SEC. 12. Section 12002.5 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

12002.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 12202, a violation of Section 1764 is an infraction and not a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) and not more than five hundred dollars ($500). If a person convicted of a violation of Section 1764 is granted probation, the court shall impose as a condition of probation that the person pay at least the minimum fine prescribed in this subdivision.

(b) If a person is convicted of a violation of Section 1764 and produces in court a valid wildlife area pass, the court may reduce the fine imposed for the violation of Section 1764 to fifty dollars ($50).

SEC. 13. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 14. (a) The sum of not more than two million six hundred twenty-six thousand dollars ($2,626,000) is hereby appropriated from the Native Species Conservation and Enhancement Account in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund to the Department of Fish and Game for expenditure for the purposes of paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 1767.5 of the Fish and Game Code, to be allocated as follows:

(1) For program support, for expenditure in the 1988–89 fiscal year, the sum of not more than one million six hundred eighty thousand dollars ($1,680,000).

(2) For minor capital outlay projects in ecological reserves and wildlife management areas consistent with management plans adopted pursuant to Section 1764 of the Fish and Game Code, for expenditure in the 1988–89, 1989–90, and 1990–91 fiscal years, the sum of not more than nine hundred forty-six thousand dollars ($946,000).

(b) The Controller shall transfer funds quarterly during the 1988–89 fiscal year only, as a loan from the Fish and Game Preservation Fund to the Native Species Conservation and Enhancement Account, in an amount equal to the difference between the revenues deposited in the account pursuant to Section 1767.5 of the Fish and Game Code and the amount necessary to pay the costs specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 1767.5 of the Fish and Game Code, as determined quarterly by the Department of Finance with the assistance of the Department of Fish and Game, not to exceed in total the sum of two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(c) The Department of Fish and Game shall not encumber any of the funds appropriated in subdivision (a) any sooner than 30 days after written notification regarding any proposed encumbrance is provided to the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, the Chairperson of the Assembly Committee on Water, Parks and Wildlife, and the Chairperson of the Senate Committee on Natural Resources and Wildlife. This notification shall include, for both programmatic and capital outlay projects, a description of each specific project to be funded; the project location, if appropriate; the cost of the project; the workload associated with the project implementation or construction; an estimate of the amount and type of recreational use that will result from funding the project; and an estimate of the annual fee revenue anticipated as a result of the project.

CHAPTER 1540

An act to repeal, add, and repeal Chapter 3.65 (commencing with Section 1597.80) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to child care providers, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 3.65 (commencing with Section 1597.80) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Chapter 3.65 (commencing with Section 1597.80) is added to Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.65. PROFESSIONAL CHILD CARE PROVIDERS

1597.80. (a) A professional child care provider who possesses either a valid California driver's license or a valid identification card issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles may initiate a background examination process pursuant to this chapter.

(b) "Professional child care provider" or "provider" for the purposes of this chapter means a person 18 years of age or older who, at the request and consent of a parent or legal guardian, legally provides care during a part of any 24-hour period for the children of, and is compensated by, the parent or legal guardian, and who is not required to be licensed pursuant to Section 1596.80.

1597.81. Each provider initiating a background examination process pursuant to this chapter shall obtain two sets of fingerprints from a law enforcement agency or other local agency authorized to take fingerprints and shall submit the fingerprints and a completed fingerprint application to the Department of Justice. The authorized fingerprinting agency shall inscribe the serial number from the provider's driver's license or identification card on the fingerprint cards.

1597.82. The Department of Justice shall submit one set of the fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and shall retain the other set to search the Criminal History System and the Child Abuse Central Index.

1597.83. (a) A Child Abuse Central Index technician in the Department of Justice shall review the results produced by the searches of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Criminal History System, and the Child Abuse Central Index and take action as follows:

(1) If no criminal conviction or substantiated child abuse information that would disqualify the provider from being licensed by the State Department of Social Services as a child care provider is found, the technician shall enter a registration record listing of the provider's name and driver's license number or identification card number in the Automated Child Abuse System.

(2) If criminal conviction or substantiated child abuse information for which the provider could not request an exemption from the State Department of Social Services for a license as a child care provider is found, the technician shall notify the provider.

(3) If criminal conviction or substantiated child abuse information for which the provider could request an exemption from the State Department of Social Services for a license as a child care provider is found, the technician shall review the information and either enter a registration record listing of the provider's name and driver's license number or identification card number in the Automated Child Abuse System or deny the registration. If the technician denies the registration, he or she shall advise the provider of the right to appeal. The prospective professional child care provider shall have 15 days to appeal the denial. Upon receipt by the Department of Justice of the appeal, the appeal shall be set for hearing. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the department has all the powers granted in that chapter.

(b) The Department of Justice shall adopt regulations that are parallel to those used by the State Department of Social Services in determining whether a person applying for a day care license may be granted an exemption to work in a day care facility despite a criminal conviction or a determination of substantiated child abuse. If an appeal is requested, the Department of Justice shall make the determination within 30 days, based upon the regulations adopted.

(c) The Department of Justice may charge a provider initiating a background examination a fee not to exceed ten dollars ($10) for this service.

1597.84. (a) The Department of Justice shall, within six months of the effective date of the act enacting this chapter, establish and staff a toll-free telephone line to allow interested parents, employment agencies, and other child care referral groups and registries to give a provider's name and driver's license number or identification card number to the Department of Justice to determine if the provider's name and driver's license number or identification card number is registered in the Automated Child Abuse System.

(b) The Department of Justice shall maintain and continually update an index of reports of substantiated child abuse by, and pertinent criminal convictions of, professional child care providers and shall review the reports received from the Child Abuse Registry pursuant to Section 11170 of the Penal Code to determine if the child abuse of the provider is substantiated.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, including Part 3 (commencing with Section 900) of Division 3.6 of the Government Code, state officers or employees shall not be liable for any damages caused by their conduct pursuant to this chapter except for intentional acts or gross negligence.

1597.85. The Department of Justice shall establish an advisory committee to, at a minimum, consist of one representative from each resource and referral program as described in Article 2 (commencing with Section 8210) of Chapter 2 of Part 6 of the Education Code in the pilot counties one parent from each pilot county and one representative from the private sector. Within six months of the effective date of the act enacting this chapter, the advisory committee shall develop and recommend to the Department of Justice criteria for evaluation of the project, recommend to the Department of Justice a contractor to evaluate the project, and publicize the project. The Department of Justice shall, no later than 60 days after the effective date of the act enacting this chapter, allocate no more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), unless just cause to increase that amount is provided, to the resource and referral program as described in Article 2 (commencing with Section 8210) of Chapter 2 of Part 6 of the Education Code in the pilot counties for the purpose of publicizing the project. The funding shall come from the existing resources provided for the implementation of Chapter 1496 of the Statutes of 1986. The Department of Justice shall allocate the funds, taking into consideration the recommendations made by the advisory committee. The Department of Justice shall establish the criteria for evaluation and shall select a contractor for the evaluation, taking into consideration the recommendations made by the advisory committee.

1597.86. This chapter shall apply only to programs established by the Department of Justice in the City and County of San Francisco and Alameda, Contra Costa, Santa Clara, and San Diego Counties.

1597.87. The contractor selected by the Department of Justice shall evaluate the programs established pursuant to this chapter and report to the Legislature on or before August 1, 1990. The program shall be deemed successful if the number of unlicensed providers total at least 250 over an 18-month period and at least 500 contacts are made to the toll-free telephone line.

1597.88. This chapter shall become inoperative on June 30, 1991, and, on January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

1597.89. A law enforcement agency or other specified local agency may charge a reasonable fee to offset the costs of fingerprinting.

1597.90. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the unexpended balance of the appropriation provided in Chapter 1496 of the Statutes of 1986 is reappropriated for the purposes provided in this chapter.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide the widest range of protective services to children as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1541

An act to amend Section 41701.5 of, to add Sections 39050.7 and 39050.8 to, and to add Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 40950) to Part 3 of Division 26 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 9250.2 to the Vehicle Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39050.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

39050.7. "Sacramento district" means the Sacramento Metropolitan Air Quality Management District created pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 40950) of Part 3.

SEC. 2. Section 39050.8 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

39050.8. "Sacramento district board" means the governing body of the Sacramento district.

SEC. 3. Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 40950) is added to Part 3 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 10. SACRAMENTO METROPOLITAN AIR QUALITY MANAGEMENT DISTRICT

Article 1. General Provisions

40950. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) The Sacramento metropolitan region is a geographical and meteorological entity not reflected by political boundaries.

(b) The region has serious air pollution problems caused by the operation of more than 1,000,000 vehicles in the region, numerous stationary sources of air pollution, and atmospheric and meteorological conditions which are conducive to the formation of a variety of air pollutants.

(c) Despite the implementation of improved emission controls on motor vehicles and stationary sources, rapid population growth and increases in vehicle miles traveled in the region are likely to result in worsening air pollution in future years.

(d) The state and federal governments have adopted ambient air quality standards in order to protect public health, and it is in the public interest that those standards be attained as expeditiously as possible.

(e) In order to achieve and maintain air quality standards and protect public health, a metropolitan air quality improvement strategy is required to be implemented in order to provide the maximum achievable reduction in emissions from existing sources and to provide for the maximum feasible reduction or mitigation of emissions resulting from population growth, increased vehicle mileage, and other new sources of emissions.

(f) In order to successfully achieve improvements in air quality throughout the region, there is a need for greater coordination between land use and transportation planning decisions and the achievement of air quality goals.

(g) In order to successfully develop and implement a comprehensive program for the attainment and maintenance of state and federal ambient air quality standards in the region, the air quality management district in the region must be delegated additional authority and responsibility from the state, particularly with respect to reducing motor vehicle emissions and expanding the use of cleaner burning fuels.

(h) In order to successfully implement a coordinated air quality plan for the region, the responsibilities of local and regional authorities with respect to the implementation of air pollution control strategies, clean fuels programs, and motor vehicle use reduction measures should be fully integrated into an agency with countywide or regional authority, as determined by representatives of the affected county and city governments.

40951. As used in this chapter, "best available control technology" has the meaning provided in Section 40405.

40952. As used in this chapter, "best available retrofit control technology" has the meaning given in Section 40406.

40953. As used in this chapter, "strategy" means the Sacramento district air quality improvement strategy.

Article 2. Creation of the Sacramento Metropolitan Air Quality Management District

40960. There is hereby created the Sacramento Metropolitan Air Quality Management District.

The boundaries of the Sacramento district shall include all of the County of Sacramento and, pursuant to Section 40963, if the board of supervisors of the County of Placer requests to become part of the Sacramento district, shall also include all or a portion of that county, as specified in the resolution of the board of supervisors requesting inclusion in the Sacramento district.

40961. The Sacramento district is the local agency within the boundaries of the Sacramento district with the primary responsibility for the development, implementation, monitoring, and enforcement of air pollution control strategies, clean fuels programs, and motor vehicle use reduction measures, and shall represent the citizens of the Sacramento district in influencing the decisions of other public and private agencies whose actions may have an adverse impact on air quality within the Sacramento district.

40962. The Sacramento district shall commence operation on July 1, 1989, and on that date shall assume the authority, functions, employees, and responsibilities of the Sacramento County Air Pollution Control District.

40963. (a) The Sacramento district board may, by resolution, include all or a portion of the County of Placer within the Sacramento district, upon receipt of a resolution from the board of supervisors of the county requesting inclusion and specifying the portion of the county to be included in the Sacramento district. All territory included within the Sacramento district shall be contiguous.

(b) The inclusion of any county, or portion thereof, in the Sacramento district shall become effective on the July 1 immediately following the adoption of the resolution of inclusion by the Sacramento district board.

(c) A copy of the resolution of inclusion shall be transmitted by the Sacramento district board to the board of supervisors and to the state board.

Article 3. Governing Body

40980. (a) The Sacramento district shall, at a minimum, be governed by a district board composed of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Sacramento.

(b) If the County of Placer submits a resolution of inclusion, pursuant to Section 40963, one or more elected officials from that county shall be included on the Sacramento district board, pursuant to agreement between that county and the Sacramento district board.

40981. The Sacramento district board shall elect a chairperson every two years from its membership. No member shall serve more than two consecutive terms as chairperson.

Article 4. General Powers and Duties

41010. (a) The Sacramento district board shall adopt rules and regulations that are not in conflict with state and federal laws and rules and regulations that reflect the best available technological and administrative practices. Upon adoption and approval of the air quality improvement strategy, the rules and regulations shall be amended, if necessary, to conform to the strategy.

(b) The rules and regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) shall require the use of best available control technology for new and modified sources and the use of best available retrofit control technology for existing sources.

(c) The rules and regulations of the Sacramento County Air Pollution Control District shall remain in effect and shall be enforced by the Sacramento district, until superseded or amended by the Sacramento district board.

41011. (a) After a public hearing, the Sacramento district may adopt regulations to require owners or operators of public or commercial motor vehicle fleets, or both, including those operated by the state, to periodically submit information to the Sacramento district on the number and type of vehicles operated within the Sacramento district, including, but not limited to, the amount and type of fuel used, for use by the Sacramento district in ascertaining the contribution of these vehicles to air pollution emissions within the Sacramento district.

(b) After a public hearing, the Sacramento district may adopt regulations to require operators of public and commercial fleet vehicles, when adding vehicles to, or replacing vehicles in, an existing fleet or when purchasing vehicles to form a new fleet, to purchase low-emission motor vehicles and to require, to the maximum extent feasible or appropriate, that those vehicles be operated on a cleaner burning alternative fuel. Rules and regulations adopted under this section shall be applicable to vehicles operated by the state only when funds necessary to pay the costs to the state to comply with those rules and regulations have been appropriated for that purpose.

(c) For purposes of this section, "motor vehicle fleet" means 15 or more vehicles under common ownership or operation.

41012. In consultation with the Department of Transportation and other appropriate state and local public agencies, after a public hearing, the Sacramento district may adopt regulations to encourage ridesharing, van pooling, peak shifting, or flexible work hours, in order to improve air quality within the Sacramento district.

41013. The Sacramento district may adopt regulations to limit or mitigate the impact on air quality of indirect or areawide sources.

41014. The Sacramento district may conduct public education, marketing, demonstration, monitoring, research, and evaluation programs or projects with respect to transportation emission control measures.

41015. This chapter does not constitute an infringement on the existing authority of local governments to plan or control land use, and nothing in this chapter provides or transfers new authority over such land use to the Sacramento district.

41016. This chapter does not limit or restrict any authority of the City of Sacramento to adopt and implement any transportation system improvement program or air quality improvement program. The Sacramento district and the City of Sacramento may enter into a contract to implement any such program.

Article 5. Sacramento Metropolitan Air Quality Coordinating Council

41040. The Sacramento district may, pursuant to agreement with one or more local agencies within the district, establish the Sacramento Metropolitan Air Quality Coordinating Council to provide for coordinated air quality planning within the Sacramento district.

Article 6. Air Quality Improvement Strategy

41060. Not later than January 1, 1990, the Sacramento district shall adopt an air quality improvement strategy to reduce public exposure to air pollution and toxic air contaminants and to achieve and maintain state and federal ambient air quality standards by the earliest practicable date.

41061. The strategy shall provide for the enforcement of regulations adopted pursuant to Section 41011 or 41013 and shall provide for the implementation and enforcement of the transportation control measures included in the state implementation plan, as required by state and federal law.

41062. (a) The strategy shall include a clean fuels program to provide, to the extent feasible and necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter, a schedule for the introduction of cleaner burning alternative fuels and low-emmission motor vehicles or control measures providing equivalent emission reductions within the district, a program to encourage the establishment of the necessary infrastructure to support the introduction of cleaner burning fuels, and demonstration programs and incentives to encourage the purchase of clean fueled vehicles and the use of cleaner burning fuels.

(b) In developing the clean fuels program, the district shall consider projects utilizing methanol fuel; fuel cells; liquid petroleum gas; natural gas, including compressed natural gas; combination fuels; synthetic fuels; electricity, including electric vehicles; ethanol; and other cleaner burning fuels.

(c) Nothing in this section authorizes the Sacramento district to require the sale or supply of any specific motor vehicle fuel.

41063. The strategy shall provide for the implementation of all feasible measures to improve transportation system management and reduce or mitigate increases in motor vehicle use within the Sacramento Valley region.

41064. In preparing, evaluating, and amending the strategy, the district may contract with the Sacramento Area Council of Governments or with any private organization or consultant for the preparation of analyses of the availability and effectiveness of transportation controls and motor vehicle use reduction measures.

41065. The strategy shall include a public education program designed to achieve effective implementation of all feasible transportation system management measures.

41066. The strategy shall be consistent with any nonattainment area plan required by state or federal law, or any requirement imposed on a local agency with respect to the preparation or administration of a plan.

Article 7. Financial Provisions

41080. The Sacramento district may adopt a schedule of fees, levied on permitted and other sources of air pollution, subject to regulation by the Sacramento district, to recover its costs of implementing this chapter.

41081. (a) Subject to Article 3.7 (commencing with Section 53720) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, or with the approval of the board of supervisors of each county included, in whole or in part, within the Sacramento district, the Sacramento district board may adopt a surcharge on the motor vehicle registration fees applicable to all motor vehicles registered in those counties within the Sacramento district whose boards of supervisors have adopted a resolution approving the surcharge. The surcharge shall be collected by the Department of Motor Vehicles and, after deducting the department's administrative costs, the remaining funds shall be transferred to the Sacramento district. Prior to the adoption of any surcharge pursuant to this subdivision, the district board shall make a finding that any funds allocated to the district as a result of the adoption of a county transportation sales and use tax are insufficient to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(b) The surcharge shall not exceed two dollars ($2) for each motor vehicle whose registration expires on or after December 31, 1989, and prior to December 31, 1990. For each motor vehicle whose registration expires on or after December 31 1990, the surcharge shall not exceed four dollars ($4).

(c) After consulting with the Department of Motor Vehicles on the feasibility thereof, the Sacramento district board may provide, in the surcharge adopted pursuant to subdivision (a), to exempt from all or part of the surcharge any category of low-emission motor vehicle.

(d) Funds received by the Sacramento district pursuant to this section shall be used to implement the strategy with respect to the reduction in emissions from vehicular sources, including, but not limited to, a clean fuels program and motor vehicle use reduction measures. Not more than 5 percent of the funds collected pursuant to this section shall be used by the district for administrative expenses.

41082. Pursuant to Section 41081, the district may undertake programs which may include, but are not limited to, financial assistance to fleet operators for the purchase, conversion, or operation of low-emission motor vehicles, financial assistance or other incentives to encourage the sale and distribution of cleaner burning fuels, and financial assistance or other incentives for the purchase and operation of ridesharing vehicles.

SEC. 4. Section 41701.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

41701.5. (a) Neither the state board nor any district shall impose a discharge requirement on emissions of visible smoke from diesel pile-driving hammers which is more stringent than the requirements of this section, except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c).

(b) A district shall issue a permit to the operator of a diesel pile-driving hammer if the operator submits a completed application for a permit to the district and the district determines, on the basis of information provided in the application, that the proposed use will comply with one of the following requirements:

(1) Meets the Ringlemann 1 limit, as published by the United States Bureau of Mines, and does not exceed that limit for more than four minutes during the driving of a single pile.

(2) Meets the Ringlemann 2 limit, as published by the United States Bureau of Mines, does not exceed that limit for more than four minutes during the driving of a single pile, and uses kerosene fuel, smoke suppressing fuel additives, and synthetic lubricating oil. A district may establish other requirements for compliance with this paragraph if the requirements are technologically and economically feasible. A district may consider the type of soil in which the pile driving is to occur and the number of blows required to drive a pile in determining the technological and economic feasibility of other conditions to be imposed by the district.

(c) A permit issued by a district shall be valid until the pile driving work has been approved or accepted by the person or entity for which the work is being performed. Upon request of an operator or of a person or entity for which the pile driving work is performed, a district may extend the time period for which the permit is valid if the operator continues to comply with this section.

SEC. 5. Section 9250.2 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

9250.2. The department shall, if requested by the Sacramento Metropolitan Air Quality Management District pursuant to Section 41081 of the Health and Safety Code, impose and collect a surcharge on the registration fees for every motor vehicle registered in that district, not to exceed either of the following amounts, whichever is applicable, as specified by the governing body of that district:

(a) For each motor vehicle registered in that district whose registration expires on or after December 31, 1989, and prior to December 31, 1990, two dollars ($2).

(b) For each motor vehicle registered in that district whose registration expires on or after December 31, 1990, not to exceed four dollars ($4).

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction and because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 1542

An act to add Article 4 (commencing with Section 17755) to Chapter 22 of Part 10 of the Education Code, relating to school facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(a) Highly urbanized areas exist in this state that contain no vacant land. In those areas, it is extremely costly, both in dollars and in mental anguish, to take property for public purposes through the eminent domain process, which moves and relocates current inhabitants of residential, commercial, or industrial structures.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature to establish methods that provide for the use of land for school purposes while causing the least disruption.

(c) It is further the desire of the Legislature that a pilot program be instituted to provide, pursuant to the purpose set forth above, the construction of two model elementary or junior high schools in the northern portion of the state and two model elementary or junior high schools in the southern portion of the state.

SEC. 2. Article 4 (commencing with Section 17755) is added to Chapter 22 of Part 10 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 4. Space-Saver Schools

17755. (a) The board shall authorize project funding under this chapter for the construction, in urban areas in which the construction of schools would ordinarily require the removal of residential, commercial, or industrial structures, of four elementary or junior high schools, or any combination thereof, none of which serve any of the grades 10 to 12, inclusive. Two of the funded model schools shall be located in the northern portion of the state, and the other two funded schools in the southern portion of the state.

(b) The construction funded pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be designed to minimize the need for the relocation of inhabitants of residential, commercial, or industrial structures. The design features of the schools may include, but should not be limited to, the use of below-ground facility construction, multistory construction, multiuse construction where single-use construction currently exists, the joint use of facilities that otherwise involve such uses as a shopping center, office complex, or apartment building, the joint or dual use of land that otherwise involves park or other uses, overhead or underground parking, or the use of areas above or below streets or freeways.

17756. Any school district that is a project applicant under this chapter may apply for the funding of a school specifically under this article, pursuant to which it may be approved by the board for funding only to the extent of its project eligibility under this chapter. The governing board of each district for which that funding is approved by the board shall do all of the following, in the order specified:

(a) Identify an area within the district that it determines to be appropriate for the construction of a school that meets the purposes of this article.

(b) Establish criteria for the purpose of identifying the school design that will most effectively accomplish the purposes of this article and the needs of the district. The district shall thereupon issue, in a manner approved by the board, a request for architectural design proposals incorporating those criteria.

(c) Evaluate the proposals, and, no later than January 1, 1990, or any other date designated by the board pursuant to an action taken by the board on or before January 1, 1990, submit to the board the three proposals that it determines to most effectively accomplish the purposes of this article and the needs of the district in accordance with the criteria established under subdivision (b). The governing board shall prioritize those three proposals in order of its preferences, and shall include a brief explanation for its recommendations.

17757. (a) The board shall select, from the architectural design proposals submitted by school districts pursuant to Section 17756, proposals for the design and location of the four schools that it determines to most effectively accomplish the purposes of this article.

(b) In addition, the board may pay to any applicant district that is eligible for funding under this article, as described in subdivision (a) of Section 17756, and that applied for that funding in accordance with that section, an amount not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for the purchase of architectural design plans that were not approved pursuant to subdivision (a), but that the board determines to effectively accomplish the purposes of this article, for use in the development of design criteria for future project funding under this chapter. The board may expend no more than one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) pursuant to this subdivision.

17758. Except as provided under subdivision (b) of Section 17757, the cost of any project funded under this article shall not exceed the maximum cost that would otherwise be allowable for a project funded under this chapter.

CHAPTER 1543

An act to amend Sections 2430, 2432, 2432.5, 2444, and 2500 of the Civil Code, and to amend Section 9701 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2430 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2430. As used in this article:

(a) "Durable power of attorney for health care" means a durable power of attorney to the extent that it authorizes an attorney in fact to make health care decisions for the principal.

(b) "Health care" means any care, treatment, service, or procedure to maintain, diagnose, or treat an individual's physical or mental condition.

(c) "Health care decision" means consent, refusal of consent, or withdrawal of consent to health care.

(d) "Health care provider" means a person who is licensed, certified, or otherwise authorized or permitted by the law of this state to administer health care in the ordinary course of business or practice of a profession.

(e) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, the state, a city, county, city and county, or other public entity or governmental subdivision or agency, or any other legal entity.

(f) "Community care facility" means a community care facility as defined in Section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code.

(g) "Residential care facilities for the elderly" means a residential care facility for the elderly as defined in Section 1569.2 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 2. Section 2432 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2432. (a) An attorney in fact under a durable power of attorney may not make health care decisions unless all of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) The durable power of attorney specifically authorizes the attorney in fact to make health care decisions.

(2) The durable power of attorney contains the date of its execution.

(3) The durable power of attorney is witnessed by one of the following methods:

(A) The durable power of attorney is signed by at least two witnesses each of whom witnessed either the signing of the instrument by the principal or the principal's acknowledgment of the signature or of the instrument, each witness making the following declaration in substance: "I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of California that the person who signed or acknowledged this document is personally known to me to be the principal, that the principal signed or acknowledged this durable power of attorney in my presence, that the principal appears to be of sound mind and under no duress, fraud, or undue influence, that I am not the person appointed as attorney in fact by this document, and that I am not a health care provider, an employee of a health care provider, the operator of a community care facility, an employee of an operator of a community care facility, the operator of a residential care facility for the elderly, nor an employee of an operator of a residential care facility for the elderly." At least one of the witnesses must also have signed the following declaration: "I further declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of California that I am not related to the principal by blood, marriage, or adoption, and, to the best of my knowledge, I am not entitled to any part of the estate of the principal upon the death of the principal under a will now existing or by operation of law."

(B) The durable power of attorney is acknowledged before a notary public at any place within this state, the notary public certifying to the substance of the following:

State of California }
County of _____ } ss.

On this _____ day of _____, in the year _____, before me,

_____,
( Insert name of notary public) personally appeared _____ , (Insert name of principal) personally known to me (or proved to me on the basis of satisfactory evidence) to be the person whose name is subscribed to this instrument, and acknowledged that he or she executed it. I declare under penalty of perjury that the person whose name is subscribed to this instrument appears to be of sound mind and under no duress, fraud, or undue influence.

NOTARY SEAL _____
(Signature of Notary Public)

(b) Except as provided in Section 2432.5:

(1) Neither the treating health care provider nor an employee of the treating health care provider, nor an operator of a community care facility or residential care facility for the elderly nor an employee of an operator of a community care facility or residential care facility for the elderly, may be designated as the attorney in fact to make health care decisions under a durable power of attorney.

(2) A health care provider or employee of a health care provider may not act as an attorney in fact to make health care decisions if the health care provider becomes the principal's treating health care

(c) A conservator may not be designated as the attorney in fact to make health care decisions under a durable power of attorney for health care executed by a person who is a conservatee under the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act, Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, unless (1) the power of attorney is otherwise valid, (2) the conservatee is represented by legal counsel, and (3) the lawyer representing the conservatee signs a certificate stating in substance: "I am a lawyer authorized to practice law in the state where this power of attorney was executed, and the principal was my client at the time this power of attorney was executed. I have advised my client concerning his or her rights in connection with this power of attorney and the applicable law and the consequences of signing or not signing this power of attorney, and my client, after being so advised, has executed this power of attorney."

(d) None of the following may be used as a witness under subdivision (a):

(1) A health care provider.

(2) An employee of a health care provider.

(3) The attorney in fact.

(4) The operator of a community care facility.

(5) An employee of an operator of a community care facililty.

(6) The operator of a residential care facility for the elderly.

(7) An employee of an operator of a residential care facility for the elderly.

(e) At least one of the persons used as a witness under subdivision (a) shall be a person who is not one of the following:

(1) A relative of the principal by blood, marriage, or adoption.

(2) A person who would be entitled to any portion of the estate of the principal upon his or her death under any will or codicil thereto of the principal existing at the time of execution of the durable power of attorney or by operation of law then existing.

(f) A durable power of attorney for health care is not effective if the principal is a patient in a skilled nursing facility as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code at the time of its execution unless one of the witnesses is a patient advocate or ombudsman as may be designated by the State Department of Aging for this purpose pursuant to any other applicable provision of law. The patient advocate or ombudsman shall include in the declaration required by subdivision (a) a declaration that he or she is serving as a witness as required by this subdivision. It is the intent of this subdivision to recognize that some patients in skilled nursing facilities are insulated from a voluntary decisionmaking role, by virtue of the custodial nature of their care, so as to require special assurance that they are capable of willfully and voluntarily executing a durable power of attorney for health care.

SEC. 3. Section 2432.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2432.5. An employee of the treating health care provider or an employee of an operator of a community care facility or an employee of a residential care facility for the elderly may be designated as the attorney in fact to make health care decisions under a durable power of attorney if (a) the employee so designated is a relative of the principal by blood, marriage, or adoption, and (b) the other requirements of this article are satisfied.

SEC. 4. Section 2444 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2444. (a) Notwithstanding Section 2433, on and after January 1, 1986, a printed form of a durable power of attorney for health care may be sold or otherwise distributed if it complies with Section 2433 as amended by Section 5 of Chapter 312 of the Statutes of 1984, or with Section 2433 as in effect at the time of sale or distribution. However, any printed form of a durable power of attorney for health care printed on or after January 1, 1986, that is sold or otherwise distributed in this state for use by a person who does not have the advice of legal counsel shall comply with Section 2433 as in effect at the time of printing.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 2432, a printed form of a durable power of attorney for health care may be sold or otherwise distributed if it complies with Section 2432 as originally enacted, or with Section 2432 as subsequently amended. However, any printed form of a durable power of attorney for health care printed on or after January 1, 1986, shall comply with the requirements of Section 2432 in effect at the time of printing.

(c) A durable power of attorney for health care executed on or after January 1, 1986, is not invalid if it complies with Section 2432 as originally enacted or as subsequently amended. A durable power of attorney for health care executed on or after January 1, 1986, using a printed form that complied with Section 2433 as amended by Section 5 of Chapter 312 of the Statutes of 1984, is as valid as if it had been executed using a printed form that complied with Section 2433 as thereafter amended.

SEC. 5. Section 2500 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2500. The use of the following form in the creation of a durable power of attorney for health care under Article 5 (commencing with Section 2430) of Chapter 2 is lawful, and when used, the power of attorney shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and shall be subject to the provisions of Article 5 (commencing with Section 2430) of Chapter 2.

STATUTORY FORM DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR HEALTH CARE
(California Civil Code Section 2500)

WARNING TO PERSON EXECUTING THIS DOCUMENT

THIS IS AN IMPORTANT LEGAL DOCUMENT WHICH IS AUTHORIZED BY THE KEENE HEALTH CARE AGENT ACT. BEFORE EXECUTING THIS DOCUMENT, YOU SHOULD KNOW THESE IMPORTANT FACTS:

THIS DOCUMENT GIVES THE PERSON YOU DESIGNATE AS YOUR AGENT (THE ATTORNEY IN FACT) THE POWER TO MAKE HEALTH CARE DECISIONS FOR YOU. YOUR AGENT MUST ACT CONSISTENTLY WITH YOUR DESIRES AS STATED IN THIS DOCUMENT OR OTHERWISE MADE KNOWN.

EXCEPT AS YOU OTHERWISE SPECIFY IN THIS DOCUMENT, THIS DOCUMENT GIVES YOUR AGENT THE POWER TO CONSENT TO YOUR DOCTOR NOT GIVING TREATMENT OR STOPPING TREATMENT NECESSARY TO KEEP YOU ALIVE.

NOTWITHSTANDING THIS DOCUMENT, YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO MAKE MEDICAL AND OTHER HEALTH CARE DECISIONS FOR YOURSELF SO LONG AS YOU CAN GIVE INFORMED CONSENT WITH RESPECT TO THE PARTICULAR DECISION. IN ADDITION, NO TREATMENT MAY BE GIVEN TO YOU OVER YOUR OBJECTION AT THE TIME, AND HEALTH CARE NECESSARY TO KEEP YOU ALIVE MAY NOT BE STOPPED OR WITHHELD IF YOU OBJECT AT THE TIME.

THIS DOCUMENT GIVES YOUR AGENT AUTHORITY TO CONSENT, TO REFUSE TO CONSENT, OR TO WITHDRAW CONSENT TO ANY CARE, TREATMENT, SERVICE, OR PROCEDURE TO MAINTAIN, DIAGNOSE, OR TREAT A PHYSICAL OR MENTAL CONDITION. THIS POWER IS SUBJECT TO ANY STATEMENT OF YOUR DESIRES AND ANY LIMITATIONS THAT YOU INCLUDE IN THIS DOCUMENT. YOU MAY STATE IN THIS DOCUMENT ANY TYPES OF TREATMENT THAT YOU DO NOT DESIRE. IN ADDITION, A COURT CAN TAKE AWAY THE POWER OF YOUR AGENT TO MAKE HEALTH CARE DECISIONS FOR YOU IF YOUR AGENT (1) AUTHORIZES ANYTHING THAT IS ILLEGAL, (2) ACTS CONTRARY TO YOUR KNOWN DESIRES, OR (3) WHERE YOUR DESIRES ARE NOT KNOWN, DOES ANYTHING THAT IS CLEARLY CONTRARY TO YOUR BEST INTERESTS.

UNLESS YOU SPECIFY A SHORTER PERIOD IN THIS DOCUMENT, THIS POWER WILL EXIST FOR SEVEN YEARS FROM THE DATE YOU EXECUTE THIS DOCUMENT AND, IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO MAKE HEALTH CARE DECISIONS FOR YOURSELF AT THE TIME WHEN THIS SEVEN-YEAR PERIOD ENDS, THIS POWER WILL CONTINUE TO EXIST UNTIL THE TIME WHEN YOU BECOME ABLE TO MAKE HEALTH CARE DECISIONS FOR YOURSELF.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REVOKE THE AUTHORITY OF YOUR AGENT BY NOTIFYING YOUR AGENT OR YOUR TREATING DOCTOR, HOSPITAL, OR OTHER HEALTH CARE PROVIDER ORALLY OR IN WRITING OF THE REVOCATION.

YOUR AGENT HAS THE RIGHT TO EXAMINE YOUR MEDICAL RECORDS AND TO CONSENT TO THEIR DISCLOSURE UNLESS YOU LIMIT THIS RIGHT IN THIS DOCUMENT.

UNLESS YOU OTHERWISE SPECIFY IN THIS DOCUMENT, THIS DOCUMENT GIVES YOUR AGENT THE POWER AFTER YOU DIE TO (1) AUTHORIZE AN AUTOPSY, (2) DONATE YOUR BODY OR PARTS THEREOF FOR TRANSPLANT OR THERAPEUTIC OR EDUCATIONAL OR SCIENTIFIC PURPOSES, AND (3) DIRECT THE DISPOSITION OF YOUR REMAINS.

THIS DOCUMENT REVOKES ANY PRIOR DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR HEALTH CARE.

YOU SHOULD CAREFULLY READ AND FOLLOW THE WITNESSING PROCEDURE DESCRIBED AT THE END OF THIS FORM. THIS DOCUMENT WILL NOT BE VALID UNLESS YOU COMPLY WITH THE WITNESSING PROCEDURE.

IF THERE IS ANYTHING IN THIS DOCUMENT THAT YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND, YOU SHOULD ASK A LAWYER TO EXPLAIN IT TO YOU.

YOUR AGENT MAY NEED THIS DOCUMENT IMMEDIATELY IN CASE OF AN EMERGENCY THAT REQUIRES A DECISION CONCERNING YOUR HEALTH CARE. EITHER KEEP THIS DOCUMENT WHERE IT IS IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE TO YOUR AGENT AND ALTERNATE AGENTS OR GIVE EACH OF THEM AN EXECUTED COPY OF THIS DOCUMENT. YOU MAY ALSO WANT TO GIVE YOUR DOCTOR AN EXECUTED COPY OF THIS DOCUMENT.

DO NOT USE THIS FORM IF YOU ARE A CONSERVATEE UNDER THE LANTERMAN-PETRIS-SHORT ACT AND YOU WANT TO APPOINT YOUR CONSERVATOR AS YOUR AGENT. YOU CAN DO THAT ONLY IF THE APPOINTMENT DOCUMENT INCLUDES A CERTIFICATE OF YOUR ATTORNEY.

1. DESIGNATION OF HEALTH CARE AGENT. I, _____

(Insert your name and address)

do hereby designate and appoint _____

(Insert name, address, and telephone number of one individual only as your agent to make health care decisions for you. None of the following may be designated as your agent: (1) your treating health care provider, (2) a nonrelative employee of your treating health care provider, (3) an operator of a community care facility, (4) a nonrelative employee of an operator of a community care facility, (5) an operator of a residential care facility for the elderly, or (6) a nonrelative employee of an operator of a residential care facility for the elderly.)

as my attorney in fact (agent) to make health care decisions for me as authorized in this document. For the purposes of this document, "health care decision" means consent, refusal of consent, or withdrawal of consent to any care, treatment, service, or procedure to maintain, diagnose, or treat an individual's physical or mental condition.

2. CREATION OF DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR HEALTH CARE. By this document I intend to create a durable power of attorney for health care under Sections 2430 to 2443, inclusive, of the California Civil Code. This power of attorney is authorized by the Keene Health Care Agent Act and shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of Sections 2500 to 2506, inclusive, of the California Civil Code. This power of attorney shall not be affected by my subsequent incapacity.

3. GENERAL STATEMENT OF AUTHORITY GRANTED. Subject to any limitations in this document, I hereby grant to my agent full power and authority to make health care decisions for me to the same extent that I could make such decisions for myself if I had the capacity to do so. In exercising this authority, my agent shall make health care decisions that are consistent with my desires as stated in this document or otherwise made known to my agent, including, but not limited to, my desires concerning obtaining or refusing or withdrawing life-prolonging care, treatment, services, and procedures.

(If you want to limit the authority of your agent to make health care decisions for you, you can state the limitations in paragraph 4 ("Statement of Desires, Special Provisions, and Limitations") below. You can indicate your desires by including a statement of your desires in the same paragraph.)

4. STATEMENT OF DESIRES, SPECIAL PROVISIONS, AND LIMITATIONS.

(Your agent must make health care decisions that are consistent with your known desires. You can, but are not required to, state your desires in the space provided below. You should consider whether you want to include a statement of your desires concerning life-prolonging care, treatment, services, and procedures. You can also include a statement of your desires concerning other matters relating to your health care. You can also make your desires known to your agent by discussing your desires with your agent or by some other means. If there are any types of treatment that you do not want to be used, you should state them in the space below. If you want to limit in any other way the authority given your agent by this document, you should state the limits in the space below If you do not state any limits, your agent will have broad powers to make health care decisions for you, except to the extent that there are limits provided by law.)

In exercising the authority under this durable power of attorney for health care, my agent shall act consistently with my desires as stated below and is subject to the special provisions and limitations stated below:

(a) Statement of desires concerning life-prolonging care, treatment, services, and procedures:

(b) Additional statement of desires, special provisions, and limitations: _____

(You may attach additional pages if you need more space to complete your statement. If you attach additional pages, you must date and sign EACH of the additional pages at the same time you date and sign this document.)

5. INSPECTION AND DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION RELATING TO MY PHYSICAL OR MENTAL HEALTH. Subject to any limitations in this document, my agent has the power and authority to do all of the following:

(a) Request, review, and receive any information, verbal or written, regarding my physical or mental health, including, but not limited to, medical and hospital records.

(b) Execute on my behalf any releases or other documents that may be required in order to obtain this information.

(c) Consent to the disclosure of this information.

(If you want to limit the authority of your agent to receive and disclose information relating to your health, you must state the limitations in paragraph 4 ("Statement of Desires, Special Provisions, and Limitations") above.)

6. SIGNING DOCUMENTS, WAIVERS, AND RELEASES. Where necessary to implement the health care decisions that my agent is authorized by this document to make, my agent has the power and authority to execute on my behalf all of the following:

(a) Documents titled or purporting to be a "Refusal to Permit Treatment" and "Leaving Hospital Against Medical Advice."

(b) Any necessary waiver or release from liability required by a hospital or physician.

7. AUTOPSY; ANATOMICAL GIFTS; DISPOSITION OF REMAINS. Subject to any limitations in this document, my agent has the power and authority to do all of the following:

(a) Authorize an autopsy under Section 7113 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) Make a disposition of a part or parts of my body under the Uniform Anatomical Gift Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 7150) of Part 1 of Division 7 of the Health and Safety Code).

(c) Direct the disposition of my remains under Section 7100 of the Health and Safety Code.

(If you want to limit the authority of your agent to consent to an autopsy, make an anatomical gift, or direct the disposition of your remains, you must state the limitations in paragraph 4 ("Statement of Desires, Special Provisions, and Limitations") above.)

8. DURATION.

(Unless you specify a shorter period in the space below, this power of attorney will exist for seven years from the date you execute this document and, if you are unable to make health care decisions for yourself at the time when this seven-year period ends, the power will continue to exist until the time when you become able to make health care decisions for yourself.)

This durable power of attorney for health care expires on _____

(Fill in this space ONLY if you want the authority of your agent to end EARLIER than the seven-year period described above.)

9. DESIGNATION OF ALTERNATE AGENTS.

(You are not required to designate any alternate agents but you may do so. Any alternate agent you designate will be able to make the same health care decisions as the agent you designated in paragraph 1, above, in the event that agent is unable or ineligible to act as your agent. If the agent you designated is your spouse, he or she becomes ineligible to act as your agent if your marriage is dissolved.)

If the person designated as my agent in paragraph 1 is not available or becomes ineligible to act as my agent to make a health care decision for me or loses the mental capacity to make health care decisions for me, or if I revoke that person's appointment or authority to act as my agent to make health care decisions for me, then I designate and appoint the following persons to serve as my agent to make health care decisions for me as authorized in this document, such persons to serve in the order listed below:

A. First Alternate Agent _____

(Insert name, address, and telephone number of first alternate agent)

B. Second Alternate Agent _____

(Insert name, address, and telephone number of second alternate agent)

10. NOMINATION OF CONSERVATOR OF PERSON.

(A conservator of the person may be appointed for you if a court decides that one should be appointed. The conservator is responsible for your physical care, which under some circumstances includes making health care decisions for you. You are not required to nominate a conservator but you may do so. The court will appoint the person you nominate unless that would be contrary to your best interests. You may, but are not required to, nominate as your conservator the same person you named in paragraph 1 as your health care agent. You can nominate an individual as your conservator by completing the space below.)

If a conservator of the person is to be appointed for me, I nominate the following individual to serve as conservator of the person _____

(Insert name and address of person nominated as conservator of the person)

11. PRIOR DESIGNATIONS REVOKED. I revoke any prior durable power of attorney for health care.

STATEMENT OF PATIENT ADVOCATE OR OMBUDSMAN

(If you are a patient in a skilled nursing facility, one of the witnesses must be a patient advocate or ombudsman. The following statement is required only if you are a patient in a skilled nursing facility--a health care facility that provides the following basic services: skilled nursing care and supportive care to patients whose primary need is for availability of skilled nursing care on an extended basis. The patient advocate or ombudsman must sign both parts of the "Statement of Witnesses" above AND must also sign the following statement.)

I further declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of California that I am a patient advocate or ombudsman as designated by the State Department of Aging and that I am serving as a witness as required by subdivision (f) of Section 2432 of the Civil Code.

SEC. 6. Section 9701 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

9701. Unless the contrary is stated or clearly appears from the context, the following definitions shall govern the interpretation of this chapter:

(a) "Long-term care facility" means any of the following:

(1) Any long-term health care facility, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1418 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) Any community care facility, as defined in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code, whether licensed or unlicensed.

(3) Any swing bed in an acute care facility, or any extended care facility.

(4) Any adult day health care facility as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1570.7 of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) Any residential care facility for the elderly as defined in Section 1569.2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) "Approved organization" means any public agency or other appropriate organization which has been designated by the department to hear, investigate, and resolve complaints made by or on behalf of patients, residents, or clients of long-term care facilities relating to matters which may affect the health, safety, welfare, and rights of these patients, residents, or clients.

(c) "Office" means the Office of the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman, including approved organizations.

(d) "State Ombudsman" means the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman.

(e) "Director" means the Director of the Department of Aging.

(f) "Department" means the Department of Aging.

(g) "Medical training" or "medical records training" means the completion of training as a physician, registered nurse, nurse practitioner, licensed vocational nurse, pharmacist, medical social worker, medical records technician, physician's assistant, or discharge planner.

(h) "Ombudsman coordinator" means the individual selected by the governing board or executive director of the approved organization to manage the day-to-day operation of the ombudsman program, including the implementation of federal and state requirements governing the office.

CHAPTER 1544

An act to amend Sections 9886, 9886.1, 9886.2, and 9886.4 of, and to repeal Chapter 20.4 (commencing with Section 9889.50) of Division 3 of, the Business and Professions Code, to amend Sections 43204, 44001, 44003.5, 44010, 44011, 44012, 44013, 44014, 44015, 44016, 44017, 44021, 44030.5, 44031, 44031.5, 44032, 44033, 44034, 44035, 44037, 44038, 44039, 44050, 44051, 44051.5, 44053, 44054, 44060, 44061, 44070, and 44071 of, to add Sections 39037.5, 43205, 43205.5, 43210.5, 44001.5, 44011.5, 44011.6, 44022, 44040, and 44062 to, and to repeal and add Sections 44000, 44003, 44019, 44030, and 44036 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 4000.1, 4000.2, 4000.3, 24007, and 42001 of, and to add Section 42001.2 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9886 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9886. All fees and revenues collected pursuant to this chapter and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 44000) of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code shall be paid into the State Treasury to the credit of the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund, which is hereby created.

SEC. 2. Section 9886.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9886.1. The director shall report to the Controller at the beginning of each month, for the month preceding, the amount and source of all fees and revenues received by the department pursuant to this chapter and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 44000) of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, and at that time shall pay the entire amount of those fees and revenues into the State Treasury for credit to the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund.

SEC. 3. Section 9886.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9886.2. The money in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund necessary for the administration of this chapter and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 44000) of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code is available to the department, when appropriated for those purposes.

SEC. 4. Section 9886.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9886.4. All salaries, expenses, or costs incurred or sustained pursuant to this chapter and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 44000) of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code shall be payable only out of the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund.

SEC. 5. Chapter 20.4 (commencing with Section 9889.50) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 39037.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

39037.5. "Medium duty" means a heavy-duty vehicle having a manufacturer's gross vehicle weight rating under a limit established by the state board.

SEC. 12. Section 43204 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

43204. (a) The manufacturer of each motor vehicle or motor vehicle engine manufactured prior to the 1990 model-year shall warrant to the ultimate purchaser and each subsequent purchaser that the motor vehicle or motor vehicle engine is:

(1) Designed, built, and equipped so as to conform, at the time of sale, with the applicable emission standards specified in this part.

(2) Free from defects in materials and workmanship which cause such motor vehicle or motor vehicle engine to fail to conform with applicable regulations for its useful life, determined pursuant to subdivision (b).

(b) As used in subdivision (a), "useful life" of a motor vehicle or motor vehicle engine means:

(1) In the case of light-duty motor vehicles, and motor vehicle engines used in such motor vehicles, a period of use of five years or 50,000 miles, whichever first occurs, except that, in the case of fuel metering and ignition systems and their component parts which are contained in the state board's "Emissions Warranty Parts List" dated December 14, 1978 (items I(A), I(C), III(A), III(C), III(E), IX(A), and IX(B)), and which are contained in vehicles or vehicle engines certified to the optional standards pursuant to Section 43101.5 and subject to subdivision (a) of Section 43009.5, "useful life" means a period of use of two years or 24,000 miles, whichever occurs first.

(2) In the case of any other motor vehicle or motor vehicle engine, a period of use of five years or 50,000 miles, whichever first occurs, unless the state board determines that a period of use of greater duration or mileage is appropriate.

SEC. 13. Section 43205 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

43205. (a) Commencing with the 1990 model-year, the manufacturer of each light-duty and medium-duty motor vehicle and motor vehicle engine shall warrant to the ultimate purchaser and each subsequent purchaser that the motor vehicle engine meets all of the following requirements:

(1) Is designed, built, and equipped so as to conform with the applicable emissions standards specified in this part for a period of use of five years or 50,000 miles, whichever first occurs.

(2) Is free from defects in materials and workmanship which cause the motor vehicle or motor vehicle engine to fail to conform with applicable requirements specified in this part or to fail to pass a test established under Section 44012 for three years or 50,000 miles, whichever first occurs.

(3) Is free from defects in materials and workmanship in emission related parts which, at the time of certification by the state board, are estimated by the manufacturer to cost individually more than three hundred dollars ($300) to replace, for a period of seven years or 70,000 miles, whichever first occurs.

(b) The state board shall, by regulation, periodically revise the three hundred dollar ($300) repair cost level specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) in accordance with the consumer price index, as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics.

SEC. 14. Section 43205.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

43205.5. Commencing with the 1990 model-year, the manufacturer of each motor vehicle and motor vehicle engine, other than a light-duty or medium-duty motor vehicle or motor vehicle engine, shall warrant to the ultimate purchaser and each subsequent purchaser that the motor vehicle or motor vehicle engine meets all of the following requirements:

(a) Is designed, built, and equipped so as to conform with the applicable emission standards specified in this part for a period of use determined by the state board.

(b) Is free from defects in materials and workmanship which cause the motor vehicle or motor vehicle engine to fail to conform with applicable requirements specified in this part for the same or lesser period of use established under subdivision (a).

SEC. 15. Section 43210.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

43210.5. The state board shall, by regulation, require manufacturers of motor vehicles and motor vehicle engines to determine the extent to which emissions-related defects exist in each engine family and to recommend the diagnostic and repair procedures that can result in the identification and correction of these defects under vehicle inspection and maintenance programs.

SEC. 16. Section 44000 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 17. Section 44000 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44000. (a) The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(1) Motor vehicle inspection and maintenance programs can significantly reduce vehicle emissions and thereby contribute to the attainment and maintenance of ambient air quality standards.

(2) The effectiveness of motor vehicle inspection and maintenance programs depends on effective monitoring and enforcement of program requirements.

(3) The complexity of vehicle emission control systems has increased to the extent that it is necessary for the qualifications of inspectors and the capabilities of test equipment to be improved.

(4) Organizational changes to achieve more effective coordination between the new motor vehicle emission control program and the motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program will enhance the effectiveness of both programs.

(5) Emission reductions due to motor vehicle inspection and maintenance programs can be substantially increased through the implementation of more effective inspection and repair requirements.

(6) Air pollution problems in many areas of the state are of such severity and persistence that all reasonable motor vehicle air pollution control measures will be required for the indefinite future.

(b) It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature in adopting amendments to this chapter in 1988 to establish a more effective motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program as a continuing element of the state's vehicular air pollution control program.

SEC. 18. Section 44001 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44001. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 19. Section 44001.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44001.5. (a) There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a Bureau of Automotive Repair under the supervision and control of the director. A duty of enforcing and administering this chapter is vested in the chief of the bureau who is responsible to the director.

(b) The department shall take those actions consistent with its statutory authority to ensure that the reduction in emissions of hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide is 25 percent or more, and the reduction in emissions of oxides of nitrogen is 10 percent or more, than would have occurred without a motor vehicle inspection program. The department shall endeavor to achieve these emission reductions as expeditiously as practicable, but not later than January 1, 1994.

(c) In areas of the state where testing for oxides of nitrogen emissions is conducted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 44003, the department shall take all actions to ensure that the reduction in emissions of hydrocarbons is 40 percent or more, the reduction in carbon monoxide is 25 percent or more, and the reduction in oxides of nitrogen is 20 percent or more, than would have occurred without the amendments to this chapter enacted in 1988. The department shall endeavor to achieve these reductions as expeditiously as practicable, but not later than four years after the commencement of testing for oxides of nitrogen emissions pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 44003.

SEC. 20. Section 44003 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 21. Section 44003 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44003. (a) Any district may request the department to implement within its area of jurisdiction a motor vehicle inspection program which meets the requirements of this chapter. The area subject to the program shall include the entire standard metropolitan statistical area in which any violation of ambient air quality standards related to motor vehicle emissions exists and any other areas within the district specified by the requesting district or determined by the state board, in consultation with the districts, to contribute to violations of the ozone or carbon monoxide air quality standards in the district or in an adjacent district.

(b) At the time of the initial request pursuant to subdivision (a), or at any time thereafter, testing for oxides of nitrogen emissions shall be included at the option of the district requesting the program or upon a determination by the state board, after a hearing held within the district, that testing for oxides of nitrogen emissions will contribute to improved air quality.

(c) If testing for oxides of nitrogen emissions is requested pursuant to subdivision (b), the department shall implement a testing program within the district as soon as the department can develop a procedure for testing for oxides of nitrogen emissions that will be feasible and more effective than the testing program existing in 1988. The implementation date for testing for oxides of nitrogen emissions shall be the earliest date which provides sufficient lead time for the development, production, and installation of testing equipment. The department shall endeavor to implement testing within two years of the district's request. If the department determines that more time is required, the department shall provide the district with a detailed implementation schedule and shall periodically report to the district on the progress being made to implement testing.

SEC. 22. Section 44003.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44003.5. (a) Any district that is not, or does not contain, a federally designated nonattainment area, but desires to utilize a motor vehicle inspection program meeting the requirements of this chapter as an air pollution control strategy, may request the department to implement the program within the district if the requesting district finds, and the department concurs in, both of the following:

(1) The requesting district adjoins a district that has a motor vehicle inspection program.

(2) The adjoining district is the regular destination of a significant number, as determined by the department, of commuter trips which originate in the requesting district and which contribute a significant amount, as determined by the department, of pollutants from motor vehicles.

(b) The area of the district to be included in the program shall be specified by the requesting district.

SEC. 23. Section 44010 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44010. The motor vehicle inspection program shall provide for privately operated stations which shall be referred to as smog check stations and are authorized to issue certificates of compliance or noncompliance to vehicles which meet the requirements of this chapter.

SEC. 24. Section 44011 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44011. All motor vehicles powered by internal combustion engines which are registered within an area designated for program coverage shall be required biennially to obtain a certificate of compliance or noncompliance, except for all of the following:

(a) Every motorcycle, every vehicle powered by liquid petroleum gas which is not part of a fleet of 15 or more vehicles, and every diesel-powered vehicle, until the department determines that the inclusion of those vehicles is technologically and economically feasible.

(b) Any motor vehicle which has been issued a certificate of compliance or noncompliance or a waiver upon a change of ownership or initial registration in this state during the preceding 12 months.

(c) Any motor vehicle manufactured prior to the 1966 model-year.

(d) Any other motor vehicle which the department determines would present prohibitive inspection or repair problems.

(e) Any vehicle registered to the owner of a fleet licensed pursuant to Section 44020 if the vehicle is garaged exclusively outside the area included within the program.

(f) Those motor vehicles subject to the program consisting of 1971 and earlier model-years as a group, 1972 to 1974, inclusive, model-years as a group, and 1975 to 1979, inclusive, model-years as a group for which the state board determines that the emission reductions for a single group, on an individual pollutant basis, are less than 2 percent of the total emission reductions achieved by the program.

SEC. 25. Section 44011.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44011.5. Documentation that a motor vehicle is exempt from the requirements of Section 44011 may not be based solely on the owner's statement that the vehicle is in an exempt category. Physical inspection of the vehicle by the department is required unless alternative documentation satisfactory to the department is available.

SEC. 26. Section 44011.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44011.6. (a) As expeditiously as possible, the state board shall develop a test procedure for the detection of excessive smoke emissions from heavy-duty diesel motor vehicles that is feasible for use in an intermittent roadside inspection program. During the development of the test procedure, the state board shall cooperate with the Department of the California Highway Patrol in conducting roadside inspections. The state board may also specify visual or functional inspection procedures to determine the presence of tampering or defective emissions control systems in heavy-duty diesel or heavy-duty gasoline motor vehicles. The chairperson of the state board shall appoint an ad hoc advisory committee which shall include, but not be limited to, representatives of heavy-duty engine manufacturers, carriers of property for compensation using heavy-duty gasoline or diesel motor vehicles, and the Department of the California Highway Patrol. The advisory committee shall cooperate with the state board to develop a test procedure pursuant to this subdivision and shall advise the state board in developing regulations to implement test procedures and inspection of heavy-duty commercial motor vehicles.

(b) The state board shall, by regulation, prohibit the use of heavy-duty motor vehicles which are determined to have excessive smoke emissions or other emissions-related defects, using the test procedure established pursuant to subdivision (a). However, visual or functional inspection procedures for heavy-duty gasoline vehicles shall not be more stringent than those prescribed by the department for heavy-duty gasoline vehicles subject to biennial inspection pursuant to Section 44013. The state board may issue a citation to the owner or operator for any vehicle in violation of regulations adopted under this subdivision. These regulations may require the operator of a vehicle to submit to a test procedure adopted pursuant to subdivision (a), may specify that refusal to so submit is a violation of the regulations, and shall require that, when a citation has been issued, the owner of a vehicle in violation of the regulations shall immediately correct every deficiency specified in the citation.

(c) The department may develop criteria for one or more classes of smog check stations capable of determining compliance with regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) and may authorize those stations to issue certificates of compliance to vehicles in compliance with the regulations. The department may contract for the operation of smog check stations for heavy-duty vehicles pursuant to this subdivision, and only heavy-duty vehicles may be inspected at these stations.

(d) In addition to the corrective action required by subdivision (b), the owner of a motor vehicle in violation of the regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) is subject to a civil penalty of not more than one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) per day for each day that the vehicle is in violation. The state board may adopt a schedule of reduced civil penalties to be applied in cases where violations are corrected in an expeditious manner. The schedule of reduced civil penalties shall not, however, apply where there have been repeated incidents of emissions control system tampering. All civil penalties imposed pursuant to this section shall be collected by the state board and deposited in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund. Funds in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund shall, when appropriated by the Legislature, be available to the state board and the Department of the California Highway Patrol for the conduct of intermittent roadside inspections of heavy-duty vehicles pursuant to this section.

(e) Following the adoption of regulations pursuant to subdivision (b), the state board and the Department of the California Highway Patrol shall commence inspecting heavy-duty motor vehicles. With the concurrence of the Department of the California Highway Patrol, these inspections may be conducted in conjunction with the safety and weight enforcement activities of the Department of the California Highway Patrol or at other locations selected by the state board or the Department of the California Highway Patrol. Inspection locations may include private facilities where fleet vehicles are serviced or maintained. The state board and the Department of the California Highway Patrol may conduct these inspections either cooperatively or independently, and the state board may contract for assistance in the conduct of these inspections.

(f) The state board shall inform the Department of the California Highway Patrol whenever a vehicle owner cited pursuant to subdivision (b) fails to take a required corrective action or to pay the civil penalty levied pursuant to subdivision (d) in a timely manner, and the Department of the California Highway Patrol may, upon receipt of that information, require that the vehicle be removed from service until the civil penalty is paid and the corrective action taken.

(g) The state board, in consultation with the Department of the California Highway Patrol, shall, within two years of the adoption of regulations pursuant to subdivision (b), prepare and submit to the Legislature a report on the smoke emissions enforcement program conducted under this section, including, but not limited to, its assessment of the effectiveness of the program, the impact of the program on the operations of the Department of the California Highway Patrol, and its recommendations for changes in, alternatives to, or termination of, the program.

SEC. 27. Section 44012 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44012. The test at the smog check stations shall include all of the following:

(a) A determination that emission control devices and systems required by state and federal law are installed and functioning correctly in accordance with the test procedure adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 44013.

(b) A preconditioning of the motor vehicle to ensure representative and stablilized operation of the vehicle's emission control system.

(c) For other than diesel-powered vehicles, a test of the vehicle's exhaust emissions of hydrocarbons, carbon monoxide, and carbon dioxide in an idle mode or loaded mode in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the department. Testing for oxides of nitrogen emissions shall be included if the district has requested testing for oxides of nitrogen and the department has implemented a testing program pursuant to Section 44003.

(d) For diesel-powered vehicles when the department determines that the inclusion of those vehicles is technologically and economically feasible, a test of the vehicle's exhaust emissions in an idle mode or loaded mode in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the department. The test may include testing of emissions of any or all of the pollutants specified in subdivision (b) and, upon the adoption of applicable standards, measurement of emissions of smoke or particulates, or both.

(e) A determination as to whether the motor vehicle complies with the emission standards for that vehicle's class and model-year as prescribed by the department.

SEC. 28. Section 44013 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44013. (a) The department, in cooperation with the state board, shall prescribe maximum emission standards to be applied in inspecting motor vehicles under this chapter.

In prescribing the standards, the department shall undertake studies and experiments which are necessary and feasible, evaluate available data, and confer with automotive engineers.

The standards shall be set at a level reasonably achievable for each class and model of motor vehicle when operating in a reasonably sound mechanical condition, allowing for the effects of installed motor vehicle pollution control devices and the motor vehicle's age and total mileage. The standards shall be designed so that motor vehicles will be operated, as soon as possible, with a substantial reduction in emissions, and shall be revised from time to time as experience justifies.

(b) The department, in cooperation with the state board, shall research and prescribe test procedures to be applied in inspecting motor vehicles under this chapter, which procedures shall be simple, cost effective, and consistent with the requirements of Section 44012. The department may revise the test procedures from time to time as experience justifies. To the extent that any test procedure revision requires new equipment, or a change in equipment, at licensed smog check stations, the department shall provide a reasonable period of time for the acquisition and installation of that new or changed equipment.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the maximum emission standards and test procedures prescribed in subdivisions (a) and (b) for a motor vehicle class and model-year shall not be more stringent than the emission standards and test procedures under which that motor vehicle's class and model-year was certified. Emission standards and test procedures prescribed by the department shall ensure that not more than 5 percent of the vehicles or engines, which would otherwise meet the requirements of this part, will fail the inspection and maintenance test for that class of vehicle or engine.

SEC. 29. Section 44014 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44014. (a) The testing and repair portion of the program shall be conducted by smog check stations licensed by the department, and by smog check mechanics who have qualified pursuant to this chapter, if the repairs are performed for compensation.

(b) A smog check station may be licensed by the department as a smog check test only station and, when so licensed, need not comply with the requirement for onsite availability of current service and adjustment procedures specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 44030. A smog check mechanic employed by a smog check test only station shall be qualified in accordance with this section.

(c) Smog check mechanics are qualified to test and repair only those classes and categories of vehicles for which they have passed a qualification test administered by the department. The department shall provide for smog check mechanics to be qualified for different categories of motor vehicle inspection based on vehicle classification and model-year.

(d) The consumer protection-oriented quality assurance portion of the program, shall be conducted by more than one private entity pursuant to contracts with the department.

SEC. 30. Section 44015 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44015. (a) A licensed smog check station shall not issue a certificate of compliance or noncompliance for a motor vehicle which does not meet the requirements of Section 44012.

(b) If a vehicle meets the requirements of Section 44012, a licensed smog check station shall issue a certificate of compliance or a certificate of noncompliance. The certificate shall be signed by a licensed inspector.

(c) A certificate of compliance or noncompliance may be issued by the department or a referee facility when it is determined that no adjustment or repair can be made that will reduce emissions from the inspected motor vehicle without exceeding the cost limitation established by the department and that every defect specified by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 43204, and by paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 43205, have been corrected.

(d) A certificate of compliance or noncompliance shall be valid for 90 days.

(e) A test may be made at any time within three months prior to the date otherwise required.

SEC. 31. Section 44016 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44016. The department shall, with the cooperation of the state board and after consultation with the motor vehicle manufacturers and representatives of the service industry, research, establish, and update as necessary, specifications and procedures for motor vehicle maintenance and tuneup procedures and for repair of motor vehicle pollution control devices and systems. Licensed repair stations and qualified mechanics shall perform all repairs in accordance with specifications and procedures so established.

SEC. 32. Section 44017 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44017. (a) The department shall set cost limitations for repairs required under the program, including parts and labor. On and after January 1, 1990, the cost limitations shall be as follows:

(1) For motor vehicles of 1971 and earlier model-years, fifty dollars ($50).

(2) For motor vehicles of 1972 to 1974, inclusive, model-years, ninety dollars ($90).

(3) For motor vehicles of 1975 to 1979, inclusive, model-years, one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125).

(4) For motor vehicles of 1980 to 1989, inclusive, model-years, one hundred seventy-five dollars ($175).

(5) For motor vehicles of 1990 and later model-years, three hundred dollars ($300).

(b) The department shall periodically revise the cost limitations specified in subdivision (a) in accordance with changes in the Consumer Price Index, as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics. No limit shall be imposed in those cases where emissions control equipment is missing or is partially or totally inoperative as a result of tampering.

(c) The review committee established pursuant to Section 44021 shall prepare and submit to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1992, a report on the effect of the cost limitations established in subdivision (a) on reductions in air pollution accomplished pursuant to this chapter and on the extent of compliance with motor vehicle registration laws.

SEC. 33. Section 44019 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 34. Section 44019 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44019. (a) Every public agency, including, but not limited to, a publicly owned public utility, owning or operating any motor vehicle that is exempt from annual renewal of registration, and is otherwise subject to this chapter, shall obtain for the vehicle a certificate of compliance with the same frequency as is required for vehicles subject to renewal of registration. The cost limitations specified in Section 44017 do not apply to any vehicle owned or operated by a public agency.

(b) Certificates of compliance required by subdivision (a) shall be issued after a test of the motor vehicle utilizing a test analyzer system meeting the requirements of Section 44036. Any certificate so issued shall be indexed by vehicle license plate number or vehicle identification number and retained by the public agency for not less than three years, and shall be available for inspection by the department.

(c) Every public agency subject to subdivision (a) shall annually report to the department the number of certificates issued, the number of motor vehicles owned, and the schedule under which the motor vehicles were issued certificates of compliance.

(d) The department may accept proof of compliance with this section other than by a certificate of compliance.

SEC. 35. Section 44021 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44021. (a) The department shall conduct ongoing cost benefit analyses and other evaluations of the motor vehicle inspection program, including, but not limited to, observed patterns of malfunctions in inspected motor vehicles' emissions control systems, inquiries from the public regarding emissions system warranties, inspection and repair costs, the failure rate after repairs, and recommendations for legislation to improve the inspection program.

The department shall prepare and submit an annual report to the Legislature on the analyses and evaluations of the program. The department shall conduct at least one public hearing prior to submitting each report and shall include pertinent information which it receives from the public hearing in that report.

Commencing in 1989, and every year thereafter, the department shall include the following information in its annual report:

(1) A narrative description of what actions have been taken by the department, since the last report, to implement recommendations contained in the reports of the review committee submitted pursuant to subdivision (b). The description shall indentify the funds expended to implement the recommendations, the sources of those funds, and how those funds and sources have changed since the department's last report.

(2) A quantitative assessment of the impact of these actions, since the last report, on all of the following:

(A) The waiver rate.

(B) The percentage of all inspections performed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 44012 which were incorrectly or incompletely performed.

(C) The percentage of repairs to emission control devices and systems which were incorrectly or incompletely performed.

(D) The percentage of enforcement investigations which result in issuance of a citation or imposition of any other penalty.

(3) An identification and assessment of whether any additional actions or funds are required to achieve any specific performance or emission reduction objectives identified in the review committee report.

The department shall provide the review committee and the state board an opportunity to comment on the draft annual report prepared under this subdivision, and any written comments of the state board or the review committee shall be included in the final report submitted to the Legislature.

(b) A review committee is hereby created to analyze the effect of the program on motor vehicle emissions and air quality. The review committee shall consist of a representative from the state board and a representative from each of the districts in which the motor vehicle inspection program has been implemented.

(1) The committee shall elect one of its members as its chairperson. The members of the committee shall receive no compensation, but shall be reimbursed by the department for their actual and necessary expenses in performing committee duties. The state board and the department shall provide the committee the necessary technical and clerical support in its evaluation of program effectiveness.

(2) The committee shall schedule and conduct periodic meetings in the performance of its duties, and shall meet and consult with local, state, and federal officials involved in the evaluation of motor vehicle inspection and maintenance programs.

(c) The committee shall conduct at least one public hearing prior to submitting its report to the Legislature and shall include pertinent information which it receives from the public hearings in its report. The first report shall be submitted not later than 36 months following the implementation of the program. Thereafter, the committee shall submit periodic written reports to the Legislature on the program at least every 24 months. The committee's reports shall quantify the reduction in emissions and improvement in air quality attributed to the program.

(d) In those areas where testing for oxides of nitrogen emissions has not been implemented, the committee shall determine whether the average emissions of hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide from inspected vehicles is at least 25 percent less than the average of those emissions without the program.

(e) In those areas where testing for oxides of nitrogen emissions has been implemented, the committee shall determine whether the average emissions from inspected motor vehicles is at least 40 percent less for hydrocarbons, at least 25 percent less for carbon monoxide, and at least 20 percent less for oxides of nitrogen, than the average of those emissions without the program. If the committee determines that the average percentage reduction in emissions from inspected motor vehicles is less than the percentages specified in subdivision (d) or (e), as the case may be, the report shall include specific recommendations for improving the emissions reduction effectiveness and administration of the program. Where possible, specific recommendations shall include quantitative performance objectives which the committee has determined are reasonably achievable and which are based on the program's achieving the maximum emissions reduction. The department shall take all feasible actions to implement the committee's recommendations as expeditiously as practical.

SEC. 35.5. Section 44022 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44022. (a) On and after Janaury 1, 1990, no license issued to an official motor vehicle pollution control device installation and inspection station or to a motor vehicle pollution control device installer under Section 9887.1 of the Business and Professions Code shall be valid. On and after that date, every such station and installer shall be licensed under this chapter.

(b) The department may specify requirements for emission test analyzers that are different from the requirements contained in subdivision (b) of Section 44036.

SEC. 36. Section 44030 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 37. Section 44030 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44030. (a) The department shall develop standards for the licensing of smog check stations. Tests, service, and adjustment at smog check stations shall be performed by a qualified smog check mechanic.

(b) The licensing standards for smog check stations may include, but are not limited to, requirements for all of the following:

(1) Use of computerized and tamper-resistant testing equipment, including, but not limited to, test analyzer systems meeting the current requirements of the department.

(2) Annual license renewal.

(3) Onsite availability of current emission control system information and service and adjustment procedures.

SEC. 38. Section 44030.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44030.5. The department shall develop standards for certification of institutions and instructors for purposes of providing training of smog check mechanics. The standards shall include criteria for applications, manuals, textbooks, laboratory equipment, laboratory exercises, hands-on work, examinations, and other matters the department determines necessary for a certified course of instruction.

The standards shall also specify the conditions under which an institution or instructor may be decertified, and under which a decertified institution or instructor may regain certification.

SEC. 39. Section 44031 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44031. (a) The owner or manager of every licensed smog check station shall be a licensed inspector.

(b) Every licensed inspector either shall have completed training courses meeting the standards developed under Section 44031.5 or shall be a qualified smog check mechanic.

(c) The license of a licensed inspector shall be issued for a period of two years, commencing January 1, 1988, and is subject to renewal every two years thereafter. The department shall establish initial and renewal license fees, which shall not exceed the reasonable costs of administering the licensed inspector program.

SEC. 40. Section 44031.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44031.5. (a) No smog check mechanic may perform tests or make repairs required by this chapter, for compensation, unless qualified by the department for the class and category of vehicle being tested or repaired.

(b) No person may perform the duties of a licensed inspector, including, but not limited to, the signing of certificates, unless that person is licensed and has met the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 44031. This subdivision applies to every licensed inspector upon the first renewal of the inspector's license after January 1, 1988, and upon each renewal thereafter.

(c) The department shall prescribe training and periodic retraining courses for licensed inspectors and for smog check mechanics.

(d) Whenever the department determines, through investigation, that a previously qualified smog check mechanic may lack the skills to reliably and accurately perform the test or repair functions within the required qualification, it may prescribe for the mechanic one or more retraining courses which have been certified by the department. The smog check mechanic may request and be granted a hearing, pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, on the department's determination. The request for a hearing shall be submitted within 30 days of the department's notification of its determination. A failure to complete the prescribed retraining course within the time designated by the department, or to request a hearing within 30 days of the department's notification of its determination, shall result in loss of qualification. Upon a later completion of the prescribed department certified retraining course, the department may reinstate the smog check mechanic's qualification.

(e) Smog check mechanics shall have the option to do hands-on work in lieu of written work in order to successfully complete the department certified training and retraining courses. The institution administering the department certified training or retraining courses shall issue a certificate of completion to each person successfully completing the certified courses. The certificate shall be valid for two years.

(f) There is hereby created a training course advisory board to assist and advise the department in recommending the form and content of training courses. The advisory board shall consist of five members appointed by the director, of whom two shall represent smog check station owners or managers, two shall represent smog check mechanics, and one shall be a public member. The members of the advisory board shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses in performing their duties under this subdivision.

SEC. 41. Section 44032 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44032. No person shall perform, for compensation, tests or repairs of emission control devices or systems of motor vehicles required by this chapter unless the person performing the test or repair is a qualified smog check mechanic and the test or repair is performed at a licensed smog check station. Qualified mechanics shall perform tests of emission control devices and systems in accordance with Section 44012.

SEC. 42. Section 44033 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44033. (a) Any facility meeting the requirements established by the department pursuant to this chapter may be licensed as a smog check station. A licensed smog check station shall display an identifying sign prescribed by the department in a manner conspicuous to the public.

(b) No licensed smog check station shall require, as a condition of performing the test, that any needed repairs or adjustment be done by the person, or at the facility of the person, performing the test.

(c) If a motor vehicle is tested at a facility licensed to perform tests and repairs pursuant to this chapter, the facility shall provide the customer with a written estimate pursuant to Section 9884.9 of the Business and Professions Code. The written estimate shall contain a notice to the customer stating that the customer may choose another smog check station to perform needed repairs, installations, adjustments, or subsequent tests.

(d) Charges for testing or repair, or both, shall be separately stated.

(e) The department shall require the posting of station licenses, inspector licenses, and qualified mechanics certificates prominently in each place of business so as to be readily visable to the public.

SEC. 43. Section 44034 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44034. Annual license fees for smog check stations and smog check mechanics may be imposed by the department, but shall not exceed the reasonable cost of administering the qualifications and licensing program.

SEC. 44. Section 44035 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44035. A smog check station's license, an inspector's license, or a qualified smog check mechanic's qualification may be suspended or revoked by the department, after a hearing, for failure to meet or maintain the standards prescribed for qualification, equipment, performance, or conduct. The department shall adopt rules and regulations governing the suspension, revocation, and reinstatement of licenses and qualifications and the conduct of the hearings.

SEC. 45. Section 44036 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 46. Section 44036 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44036. (a) The consumer protection-oriented quality assurance portion of the motor vehicle inspection program shall ensure uniform and consistent tests and repairs by all qualified smog check mechanics and licensed smog check stations throughout the district, and shall include a number of referee stations available to consumers. Sufficient referee stations shall be provided to accommodate at least 2 percent of the motor vehicles subject to the requirements of this chapter.

(b) All licensed smog check stations shall utilize equipment which has been certified by the department. The department shall adopt, and may from time to time revise, standards for certification of the equipment, which may include a device for testing of emissions of oxides of nitrogen. As expediously as possible, the department shall adopt equipment standards which shall include a test analyzer system containing all of the following:

(1) A microprocessor to control test sequencing, selection of proper test standards, the automatic pass or fail decision, and the format for the test report and the recorded data file. The microprocessor shall be capable of using a standardized programming language specified by the department.

(2) An exhaust gas analysis portion with an analyzer for hydrocarbons, carbon monoxide, and carbon dioxide which is designed to accommodate an optional oxides of nitrogen analyzer.

(3) A device to accept and record motor vehicle identification information, including a device capable of reading bar code information affixed to vehicles pursuant to regulations of the state board.

(4) A device to provide a printed record of the test process and diagnostic information for the motorist.

(5) A device capable of measuring engine speed from all models of vehicles using spark ignition at the time the specification is adopted by the department.

(6) A mass storage device capable of storing not less than the minimum amount of program software and data specified by the department.

(7) A device to provide for the periodic modification of all program and data files contained on the mass storage device, using a standarized form of removable media conforming to specifications of the department.

(8) A device which provides for the storage of test records on a standardized form of removable media conforming to specifications of the department.

(9) One or more communications ports conforming to the specifications established by the department.

(10) An interface capable of monitoring equipment used with loaded mode testing.

(11) Any other features that the department determines will increase the effectiveness of the program.

(c) The department shall require all smog check stations to use equipment meeting the requirements of subdivision (b) as soon as possible after July 1, 1990, but not later than January 1, 1992. Prior to a requirement for equipment meeting the requirements of subdivision (b), every smog check station shall use equipment meeting the specifications of the department in effect on January 1, 1988. Any equipment required may be supplied by a single supplier in any nonattainment area if it is determined that there would be a demonstrable cost savings as shown through the solicitation and evaluation of competitive bids for each nonattainment area. If it is determined that any equipment required shall be supplied by a single supplier, the supplier shall enter into a master agreement with the department specifying the prices, terms, and conditions under which the supplier will provide equipment in a uniform manner within the nonattainment area. The master agreement shall contain terms consistent with the bid upon which it is based.

(d) The quality assurance portion shall provide for inspections of licensed smog check stations, data collection and forwarding, equipment accuracy checks, operation of referee stations, and other necessary functions. In contracting for services pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 44014, the department shall prepare detailed specifications and solicit bids from private entities for the implementation of the quality assurance functions.

(e) The department may revise the specifications for equipment annually if the cost thereof is less than 20 percent of the total system cost. A more comprehensive revision to the specifications may be required not more often than every five years.

SEC. 47. Section 44037 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44037. The department shall compile and maintain records, using the sampling methodology necessary to ensure their scientific validity and reliability, of tests and repairs performed by qualified smog check mechanics at licensed smog check stations pursuant to this chapter on all of the following information:

(a) The motor vehicle identification information and the test data collected at the station.

(b) The number of maintenance and repair operations performed on motor vehicles which fail to pass a test conducted pursuant to this chapter.

(c) The correlation between maintenance and repairs recommended by the department pursuant to Section 44016 and maintenance and repairs performed.

(d) The charges assessed for the service and repairs.

(e) Any other information deemed essential by the department.

A written summary of all the above information shall be published quarterly for the mechanics and smog check stations in each district and shall be available to the public upon request.

SEC. 48. Section 44038 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44038. Each smog check station shall transmit vehicle data and emission test results to the department. Each smog check station shall also transmit to the department vehicle data and emission measurements made before and after repair. The department shall establish, by regulation, the form, manner, and frequency of the data transmittals.

SEC. 49. Section 44039 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44039. A written summary of the required information applicable to smog check stations in each district shall be published semiannually by the department and made available upon request to the owner of any motor vehicle subject to this chapter.

SEC. 50. Section 44040 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44040. The department may require certificates of compliance and certificates of noncompliance to contain a unique number encoded in bar code. These certificates may be sold to licensed smog check stations by the department or be printed by test analyzer systems. The department, with the cooperation of the Department of Motor Vehicles, shall periodically check certificates to determine their validity.

SEC. 51. Section 44050 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44050. (a) If, upon investigation, the department has probable cause to believe that a licensed smog check station, a licensed inspector, or a fleet owner licensed under Section 44020 has violated this chapter, or any regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter, the department may issue a citation to the licensee or fleet owner. The citation shall specify the nature of the violation and may specify a civil penalty assessed by the department pursuant to Section 44051 or 44051.5.

(b) If, upon investigation, the department has probable cause to believe that a qualified smog check mechanic has violated Section 44012, 44015, 44016, or 44032, or any regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter, the department may issue a citation to the mechanic. The citation shall specify the nature of the violation and, in addition, whichever of the following applies:

(1) For a first citation, the smog check mechanic shall successfully complete one or more retraining courses prescribed by the department pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 44031.5.

(2) For a second citation, the smog check mechanic shall successfully complete one or more retraining courses prescribed by the department pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 44031.5 and the mechanic shall perform no inspection or repair pursuant to this chapter until that completion.

(3) For a third citation, the smog check mechanic shall successfully complete an advanced retraining course prescribed by the department and shall perform no inspection or repair pursuant to this chapter until that completion.

(4) For a fourth citation, the smog check mechanic's qualification shall be permanently revoked.

(c) The citation shall be served pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 11505 of the Government Code.

SEC. 52. Section 44051 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44051. The civil penalty for a violation of the specified provisions of this chapter is as follows:

| Section | Short Description of Violation | Civil Penalty Minimum | Civil Penalty Maximum |
|---|---|---|---|
| 44002 | Smog check estimates and invoices | $ 50 | $ 500 |
| 44012(a) | No emission control system inspection | 250 | 1,500 |
| 44012(b) | No emissions test | 250 | 1,500 |
| 44014(a) | Unlicensed smog check station or mechanic | 250 | 1,500 |
| 44015(a,b,c) | Failure to issue certificate signed by licensed inspector | 150 | 1,000 |
| 44016 | Failure to follow established repair procedures | 150 | 1,000 |
| 44017 | Cost limitation requirement | 150 | 1,000 |
| 44031.5(a) | Test/repair by unlicensed smog check station or nonqualified smog check mechanic | 250 | 1,500 |
| 44033(a) | Smog check station requirement | 100 | 500 |
| 44033(b) | Test on condition of mandatory repair waiver | 250 | 1,500 |
| 44033(d) | Test/repair charges separate | 100 | 500 |
| 44036(b) | Smog check station certified equipment requirement | 150 | 1,500 |
| 44060 | Sale, transfer, or purchase of certificate | 250 | 1,500 |

SEC. 53. Section 44051.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44051.5. The civil penalty for a violation of the specified sections of Title 16 of the California Administrative Code is as follows:

| Section | Short Description of Violation | Civil Penalty Minimum | Civil Penalty Maximum |
|---|---|---|---|
| 3340.15(a–j) | Smog check station general requirements | $100 | $ 500 |
| 3340.16 | Smog check station equipment and testing procedures | 150 | 1,000 |
| 3340.16.5 | Smog check station equipment and testing procedures | 150 | 1,000 |
| 3340.17 | Smog check station equipment maintenance and calibration | 150 | 1,000 |
| 3340.22 | Smog check station sign requirement | 100 | 500 |
| 3340.23 | Smog check cease operations | 250 | 1,500 |
| 3340.25 | Licensed inspector requirement | 150 | 1,000 |
| 3340.30 | Qualified mechanic's training and certification requirement | 100 | 500 |
| 3340.35 | Certification of compliance and noncompliance requirement | 250 | 1,500 |
| 3340.37 | NOx device/sticker requirement | 100 | 500 |
| 3340.41 | Inspection/test/repair requirement | 150 | 1,000 |
| 3340.42 | Inspection standards, test procedures, and exhaust emissions requirement | 100 | 500 |
| 3340.45 | Cost limitation requirement | 100 | 500 |

SEC. 54. Section 44053 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44053. (a) Any person issued a citation pursuant to Section 44050 may request a hearing in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. A request for a hearing shall be submitted in writing within 30 days of service of the citation, and shall be delivered to the office of the department in Sacramento. Hearings and related procedures under this section shall be conducted in the same manner as proceedings for adjudication of an accusation under that Chapter 5, except as otherwise specified in this article.

(b) If, within 30 days from service of the citation, the licensee or qualified mechanic fails to request a hearing, the citation shall be deemed the final order of the department.

SEC. 55. Section 44054 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44054. In assessing a civil penalty pursuant to a citation issued pursuant to Section 44050, the director shall give due consideration to the gravity of the violation, including, but not limited to, a consideration of whether any of the following apply to the licensee:

(a) A failure to perform work for which money was received.

(b) The making of any false or misleading statement in order to induce a person to authorize repair work or pay money.

(c) The commission of numerous or repeated violations.

(d) A failure to make restitution to customers affected by the licensee's violation.

SEC. 56. Section 44060 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44060. (a) The department shall prescribe the form of the certificate of compliance or noncompliance. The department shall charge a fee to licensed smog check stations for the issuance by the department to the stations of certificate of compliance or noncompliance forms. The fee charged shall be calculated to allow funding of the department and any other state agency directly involved in the implementation of the motor vehicle inspection program, and shall not exceed the amount reasonably necessary to fund the operation of the program, including all responsibilities, requirements, and obligations imposed upon the department or any of those state agencies by this chapter, which are not otherwise recoverable by license fees pursuant to Section 44034. Except for adjustments to reflect changes in the Consumer Price Index, as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, the fee for each certificate of compliance or noncompliance shall not exceed six dollars ($6). It is the intent of the Legislature that the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund shall maintain a prudent surplus. If the surplus exceeds reasonable costs of administration of the programs specified in this chapter and in Chapter 20.3 (commencing with Section 9880) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, the department shall, by regulation, prescribe a lower fee for the certificate of compliance or noncompliance.

(b) The sale or transfer of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance by a licensed smog check station to any other licensed smog check station or any other person, and the purchase or acquisition of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance by any person, other than from the department, the department's designee, or pursuant to a vehicle inspection or repair conducted pursuant to this chapter, is prohibited.

SEC. 56.3. Section 44061 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44061. The fees and penalties collected by the department pursuant to this chapter shall be deposited in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund in accordance with the procedures established by the department, and is available to the department, as specified by Section 9886.2 of the Business and Professions Code, and, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to any other state agency directly involved in the implementation of the motor vehicle inspection program, to carry out its functions and duties specified in this chapter or in any other law.

SEC. 56.6. Section 44062 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44062. The Vehicle Inspection Fund and the Automotive Repair Fund are hereby abolished. The balances in those funds are hereby transferred to the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund.

All fees collected by the department under this chapter and Chapter 20.3 (commencing with Section 9880) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code shall be deposited in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund and are available to the department as specified by Section 9886.2 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 57. Section 44070 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44070. (a) The department shall develop within the Bureau of Automotive Repair, with the advice and technical assistance of the state board, a public information program for the purpose of providing information designed to increase public awareness of the smog check program throughout the state and emissions warranty information to motor vehicle owners subject to an inspection and maintenance program required pursuant to this chapter. The department shall provide, upon request, either orally or in writing, information regarding emissions related warranties and available warranty dispute resolution procedures.

(b) The telephone number and business hours, and the address if appropriate, of the emissions warranty information program shall be noticed on the vehicle inspection report provided by the test analyzer system for any vehicle which fails the analyzer test.

SEC. 57.5. Section 44071 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44071. For purposes of implementing the smog check public awareness and emissions warranty information programs, the department shall use funds from the fee charged for each certificate of compliance or noncompliance which are deposited in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund pursuant to Section 44060.

SEC. 58. Section 4000.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4000.1. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of this section, or subdivision (b) of Section 43654 of the Health and Safety Code, the department shall require upon initial registration, and upon transfer of ownership and registration, of any motor vehicle subject to Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, and upon registration of a motor vehicle previously registered outside this state which is subject to those provisions of the Health and Safety Code, a valid certificate of compliance or a certificate of noncompliance, as appropriate, issued in accordance with Section 44015 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) With respect to new vehicles certified pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 43100) of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, the department shall accept a statement completed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 24007 in lieu of the certificate of compliance.

(c) For purposes of determining the validity of a certificate of compliance or noncompliance submitted in compliance with the requirements of this section, the definitions of new and used motor vehicle contained in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 39010) of Part 1 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code control.

(d) Subdivision (a) does not apply to a transfer of ownership and registration under any of the following circumstances:

(1) The transferor is either the parent, grandparent, child, grandchild, or spouse of the transferee.

(2) A vehicle registered to a sole proprietorship is transferred to the proprietor as owner.

(3) The transfer is between companies whose principal business is leasing vehicles, if there is no change in the lessee or operator of the vehicle or between the lessor and the person who has been, for at least one year, the lessee's operator of the vehicle.

(4) The transfer is between the lessor and lessee of the vehicle, if there is no change in the lessee or operator of the vehicle.

(5) On and after January 1, 1993, the vehicle is subject to Section 43652 of the Health and Safety Code.

(e) The State Air Resources Board, under Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, may exempt designated classifications of motor vehicles from subdivision (a) as it deems necessary, and shall notify the department of that action.

SEC. 59. Section 4000.2 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4000.2. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b) of Section 43654 of the Health and Safety Code, the department shall require upon registration of a motor vehicle subject to Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, previously registered outside this state, a valid certificate of compliance or a certificate of noncompliance, as appropriate, issued in accordance with Section 44015 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) For the purposes of determining the validity of a certificate of compliance or noncompliance submitted in compliance with the requirements of this section, the definitions of new and used motor vehicle contained in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 39010) of Part 1 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code shall control.

SEC. 60. Section 4000.3 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4000.3. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 44011 of the Health and Safety Code, following implementation in a district of a motor vehicle inspection program pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 44000) of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, the department shall require biennially, upon renewal of registration of any motor vehicle subject to Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, a valid certificate of compliance issued in accordance with Section 44015 of the Health and Safety Code. The department shall develop a schedule under which vehicles shall be required biennially to obtain certificates of compliance.

(b) The Department of Consumer Affairs may, subject to Section 44011.5 of the Health and Safety Code, exempt designated classifications of motor vehicles from subdivision (a) pursuant to Section 44011 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) The Department of Consumer Affairs shall provide the department with information on program area boundaries and vehicle classes that are subject to the motor vehicle inspection and maintenance program.

SEC. 61. Section 24007 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

24007. (a) No dealer or person holding a retail seller's permit shall sell a new or used vehicle which is not in compliance with this code and departmental regulations adopted pursuant to this code, unless the vehicle is sold to another dealer, sold for the purpose of being wrecked or dismantled, or sold exclusively for off-highway use.

(b) (1) Except as provided in Section 24007.5, no person shall sell, or offer or deliver for sale, to the ultimate purchaser or to any subsequent purchaser a new or used motor vehicle, as those terms are defined in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 39010) of Part 1 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, subject to Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of that Division 26 which is not in compliance with that Part 5 and the rules and regulations of the State Air Resources Board, unless the vehicle is either sold to a dealer or sold for the purpose of being wrecked or dismantled.

(2) Prior to or at the time of delivery for sale, the seller shall provide the purchaser a valid certificate of compliance or certificate of noncompliance, as appropriate, issued in accordance with Section 44015 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) (1) With each application for initial registration of a new motor vehicle or transfer of registration of a motor vehicle subject to that Part 5, a dealer, the purchaser, or his or her authorized representative, shall transmit to the Department of Motor Vehicles a valid certificate of compliance or noncompliance, as appropriate, issued in accordance with Section 44015 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subdivision, with respect to new vehicles certified pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 43100) of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, a dealer may transmit, in lieu of a certificate of compliance, a statement, in a form and containing information deemed necessary and appropriate by the Director of Motor Vehicles and the Executive Officer of the State Air Resources Board, to attest to the vehicle's compliance with that Chapter 2. The statement shall be certified under penalty of perjury, and shall be signed by the dealer or the dealer's authorized representative.

SEC. 62. Section 42001 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

42001. (a) Except as provided in Section 42000.5, 42001.1, 42001.2, 42001.3, 42001.5, 42001.7, 42001.8, 42001.9, or 42001.11, or subdivision (b) or (c) of this section, or Article 2 (commencing with Section 42030), every person convicted of an infraction for a violation of this code or of any local ordinance adopted pursuant to this code shall be punished as follows:

(1) By a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100).

(2) For a second infraction occurring within one year of a prior infraction which resulted in a conviction, a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200).

(3) For a third or any subsequent infraction occurring within one year of two or more prior infractions which resulted in convictions, a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(b) Every person convicted of a misdemeanor violation of Section 2800, 2801, or 2803 insofar as they affect failure to stop and submit to inspection of equipment or for an unsafe condition endangering any person, shall be punished as follows:

(1) By a fine not exceeding fifty dollars ($50) or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding five days.

(2) For a second conviction within a period of one year, a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding 10 days, or both that fine and imprisonment.

(3) For a third or any subsequent conviction within a period of one year, a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or both that fine and imprisonment.

(c) A pedestrian convicted of an infraction for a violation of this code or of any local ordinance adopted pursuant to this code shall be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars ($50).

SEC. 63. Section 42001.2 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

42001.2. Every person convicted of an infraction for a violation of Section 27153.5 with a motor vehicle having a manufacturer's maximum gross vehicle weight rating of 6,001 or more pounds shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500).

SEC. 64. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government

Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1545

An act to add Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 6900) to Part 1 of Division 6 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds that the Advisory Committee on Salmon and Steelhead Trout, reestablished by Resolution Chapter 141 of the Statutes of 1983, has conducted a thorough inquiry into the decline of the naturally spawning salmon and steelhead trout resources of the state and has presented to the public its findings and recommendations for legislative and administrative actions to protect and increase those resources. As a result of the advisory committee's inquiry, findings, and recommendations, the Legislature has recommended the establishment of a salmon, steelhead trout, and anadromous fisheries program set forth in Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 6900) of Part 1 of Division 6 of the Fish and Game Code.

SEC. 2. Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 6900) is added to Part 1 of Division 6 of the Fish and Game Code, to read:

CHAPTER 8. SALMON, STEELHEAD TROUT, AND ANADROMOUS FISHERIES PROGRAM ACT

Article 1. Citation and Legislative Findings

6900. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Salmon, Steelhead Trout, and Anadromous Fisheries Program Act.

6901. The Legislature, for purposes of this chapter, finds as follows:

(a) According to the department, the natural production of salmon and steelhead trout in California has declined to approximately 1,000,000 adult chinook or king salmon, 100,000 coho or silver salmon, and 150,000 steelhead trout.

(b) The naturally spawning salmon and steelhead trout resources of the state have declined dramatically within the past four decades, primarily as a result of lost stream habitat on many streams in the state.

(c) Much of the loss of salmon and steelhead trout and anadromous fish in the state has occurred in the central valley.

(d) Protection of, and an increase in, the naturally spawning salmon and steelhead trout resources of the state would provide a valuable public resource to the residents, a large statewide economic benefit, and would, in addition, provide employment opportunities not otherwise available to the citizens of this state, particularly in rural areas of present underemployment.

(e) Proper salmon and steelhead trout resource management requires maintaining adequate levels of natural, as compared to hatchery, spawning and rearing.

(f) Reliance upon hatchery production of salmon and steelhead trout in California is at or near the maximum percentage that it should occupy in the mix of natural and artificial hatchery production in the state. Hatchery production may be an appropriate means of protecting and increasing salmon and steelhead in specific situations; however, when both are feasible alternatives, preference shall be given to natural production.

(g) The protection of, and increase in, the naturally spawning salmon and steelhead trout of the state must be accomplished primarily through the improvement of stream habitat.

(h) Funds provided by the Legislature since 1978 to further the protection and increase of the fisheries of the state have been administered by the Department of Fish and Game in a successful program of contracts with local government and nonprofit agencies and private groups in ways that have attracted substantial citizen effort.

(i) The department's contract program has demonstrated that California has a large and enthusiastic corps of citizens that are eager to further the restoration of the stream and fishery resources of this state and that are willing to provide significant amounts of time and labor to that purpose.

(j) There is need for a comprehensive salmon, steelhead trout, and anadromous fisheries plan, program, and state government organization to guide the state's efforts to protect and increase the naturally spawning salmon, steelhead trout, and anadromous fishery resources of the state.

6902. The Legislature, for purposes of this chapter, declares as follows:

(a) It is the policy of the state to significantly increase the natural production of salmon and steelhead trout by the end of this century. The department shall develop a plan and a program that strives to double the current natural production of salmon and steelhead trout resources.

(b) It is the policy of the state to recognize and encourage the participation of the public in privately and publicly funded mitigation, restoration, and enhancement programs in order to protect and increase naturally spawning salmon and steelhead trout resources.

(c) It is the policy of the state that existing natural salmon and steelhead trout habitat shall not be diminished further without offsetting the impacts of the lost habitat.

Article 2. Definitions

6910. Unless the context clearly requires a different meaning, the definitions in this article govern the construction of this chapter.

6911. "Production" means the survival of fish to adulthood as measured by the abundance of the recreational and commercial catch together with the return of fish to the state's spawning streams.

Article 3. Salmon, Steelhead Trout, and Anadromous Fisheries Program

6920. (a) The department shall, with the advice of the Advisory Committee on Salmon and Steelhead Trout and the Commercial Salmon Trollers Advisory Committee, prepare and maintain a detailed and comprehensive program for the protection and increase of salmon, steelhead trout, and anadromous fisheries.

(b) The department shall consult with every public agency whose policies or decisions may affect the goals of this program to determine if there are feasible means for those public agencies to help the department achieve the goals of this program.

6921. The program shall identify the measures the department will carry out to achieve the policies set forth in Section 6902.

6922. The program shall include, but is not limited to, all of the following elements:

(a) Identification of streams where the natural production of salmon and steelhead trout can be increased primarily through the improvement of stream and streambank conditions without effect on land ownership, land use practices, or changes in streamflow operations.

(b) Identification of streams where the natural production of salmon and steelhead trout can be increased only through the improvement of land use practices or changes in streamflow operations.

(c) Identification of streams where the protection of, and increase in, salmon and steelhead trout resources require, as a result of significant prior loss of stream habitat, the construction of artificial propagation facilities.

(d) A program element for evaluating the effectiveness of the program.

(e) Recommendations for an organizational structure, staffing, budgeting, long-term sources of funding, changes in state statutes and regulations and federal and local government policy and such other administrative and legislative actions as the department finds to be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this chapter.

(f) Identification of measures to protect and increase the production of other anadromous fisheries consistent with policies set forth in Section 6902.

(g) Identification of alternatives to, or mitigation of, manmade factors which cause the loss of juvenile and adult fish in California's stream system.

6923. Measures which are the responsibility of other agencies or persons, such as the repair or replacement of dysfunctional fish screens, are not eligible for funding under the program.

6924. The department shall determine the initial elements of the program and transmit a report describing those elements to the Legislature and the Advisory Committee on Salmon and Steelhead Trout within six months of the effective date of this chapter.

SEC. 3. The Department of Fish and Game shall determine the initial elements of the salmon, steelhead trout, and anadromous fisheries program initiated pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 6900) of Part 1 of Division 6 of the Fish and Game Code, shall coordinate existing programs, and shall implement the elements of the program. In addition to the personnel positions authorized in the Budget Act of 1988, the department shall use moneys allocated to the salmon, steelhead trout, and anadromous fisheries program, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to provide three additional personnel years for the purposes of maintaining a salmon, steelhead trout, and anadromous fisheries program. The department shall annually submit a budget for the purpose of continuing this program.

SEC. 4. The sum of one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000) is hereby appropriated from the Environmental License Plate Fund, and the sum of one hundred sixty-six thousand dollars ($166,000) is hereby appropriated from the Fish and Game Preservation Fund to the Department of Fish and Game to establish the salmon, steelhead trout, and anadromous fisheries program pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 6900) of Part 1 of Division 6 of the Fish and Game Code. The department may also utilize its allocation of funds received pursuant to Chapter 10B (commencing with Section 777) of Title 16 of the United States Code for this program.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The decline of naturally spawning salmon, steelhead trout, and other anadromous fish resources is occurring at such a rate that some segments of these native California fish may be threatened with extinction. In order to stop the decline and restore the fishery resource at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1546

An act to amend and renumber Section 40404 of, and to add Sections 40404, 40448.5, and 40512 to, the Health and Safety Code, to add Section 25310.2 to the Public Resources Code, to add Section 738.6 to the Public Utilities Code, and to add and repeal Section 9250.11 of the Vehicle Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40404 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

40405. As used in this chapter, "plan" means the south coast district air quality management plan.

SEC. 2. Section 40404 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40404. The Legislature further finds and declares that the south coast district shall take a leadership role to sponsor, coordinate, and promote projects which increase the use of clean-burning fuels in the transportation and stationary source sectors, and that it is the intent of the Legislature that the district establish voluntary programs to accelerate the utilization of clean-burning fuels within the South Coast Air Basin.

SEC. 3. Section 40448.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40448.5. (a) The south coast district shall establish a program to encourage voluntary participation in projects to increase the utilization of clean-burning fuels. The district shall coordinate its program with the state board, the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, and other appropriate state and federal agencies and private organizations that are conducting activities to promote the use of clean-burning fuels.

(b) After holding at least two public hearings to solicit public comment on a clean-burning fuels program, the district shall adopt, on or before August 1, 1989, a five-year program of activities for increasing the use of clean-burning fuels in the transportation and stationary source sectors.

(c) The five-year program shall include an identification of potential funding sources, including, but not limited to, state and federal funds; private-sector funds; revenues from district permit, variance, and emission fees; proceeds from district penalty settlements and judgments; and funds from other sources under the jurisdiction of the district.

(d) In developing its five-year program, the district shall consider promoting projects in the transportation and stationary source sectors utilizing methanol fuel, fuel cells, liquid petroleum gas, natural gas, including compressed natural gas, combination fuels, synthetic fuels, electricity, including electric vehicles, and other clean-burning fuels.

(e) When considering which clean fuels projects to promote, the district shall consider, among other factors, the current and projected economic costs and availability of fuels, the cost effectiveness of emission reductions associated with clean fuels compared with other pollution control alternatives, the use of new pollution control technologies in conjunction with traditional fuels as an alternative means of reducing emissions, potential effects on public health, ambient air quality, visibility within the region, and other factors deemed relevant by the district.

(f) When implementing clean fuels projects, the district shall consider limiting the use of clean fuels to specific seasons, time of day, and locations if these limitations are found by the district to further the goals of the five-year program.

(g) The district shall coordinate the clean-burning fuels program with transportation control measures adopted pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 40440 to reduce traffic congestion, air pollution, and motor vehicle fuel consumption.

SEC. 4. Section 40512 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40512. The south coast district board may impose a fee surcharge based on a formula associated with quantity of emissions and the effect of these emissions on ambient air quality within the south coast district to generate sufficient revenues to pay for any of its costs associated with the development and implementation of Section 40448.5.

The total amount of funds collected from these surcharge fees may not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) in each of the first two fiscal years of the development or implementation of Section 40448.5. All surcharge fees received by the south coast district pursuant to this section shall be deposited in a clean fuels and transportation control measures account which shall be established and maintained by the south coast district. In subsequent fiscal years, the total amount of funds collected from these surcharge fees may not exceed 25 percent of the amount of fees received the previous fiscal year from registered motor vehicle owners pursuant to Section 9250.11 of the Vehicle Code. The surcharge fees received by the south coast district pursuant to this section shall be used to pay for the initial costs incurred by the Department of Motor Vehicles to implement the motor vehicle fee program established by Section 9250.11 of the Vehicle Code.

All fees received by the south coast district pursuant to Section 9250.11 of the Vehicle Code shall be deposited in the clean fuels and transportation control measures account. Not more than 5 percent of the funds in the account may be used for the south coast district administrative costs.

SEC. 5. Section 25310.2 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25310.2. The report required by Section 25310 shall also include, to the extent funds are available in the existing budget of the commission, information relating to methanol, fuel cells, liquid petroleum gas, natural gas, and electricity.

The report shall also describe the availability, economic cost, and air quality benefits associated with the use of clean-burning fuels in the stationary source and transportation sectors of California and shall consider the use of new pollution control technologies in conjunction with traditional fuels in comparison with the use of clean-burning fuels. This segment of the report shall be developed in consultation with the Public Utilities Commission, the State Air Resources Board, and the air pollution control districts and air quality management districts.

SEC. 6. Section 738.6 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

738.6. In establishing rates for a public utility operating any portion of its line, plant, or system within a federally designated nonattainment area, the commission shall determine which expenses related to compliance with state and local air pollution control requirements for using clean-burning fuels in that area are reasonable and necessary and shall approve those expenses.

SEC. 7. Section 9250.11 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

9250.11. (a) Commencing on January 1, 1990, in addition to any other fees specified in this code and the Revenue and Taxation Code, a fee of one dollar ($1) may be imposed by the Counties of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino and shall be paid to the department, upon renewal of registration of any motor vehicle subject to Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, registered in the South Coast Air Quality Management District, except those vehicles that are expressly exempted under this code from the payment of registration fees.

(b) A county specified in subdivision (a) may impose the one dollar ($1) fee only if the board of supervisors of the county adopts a resolution providing for the fee.

(c) After deducting all costs incurred pursuant to this section, the department shall distribute the additional fees collected pursuant to subdivision (a) to the South Coast Air Quality Management District, which shall use the fees to reduce air pollution from motor vehicles and other sources through implementation of Section 40448.5 of the Health and Safety Code, in those counties in the South Coast Air Basin that have adopted the fees pursuant to subdivision (b).

(d) This section shall become inoperative on August 1, 1994, and, as of January 1, 1995, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

---

CHAPTER 1547

An act to amend Section 4024.2 of the Penal Code, relating to prisoners.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

SECTION 1. Section 4024.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

4024.2. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board of supervisors of any county may authorize the sheriff or other official in charge of county correctional facilities to offer a voluntary program under which any person committed to the facility may perform a minimum of 8 and a maximum of 10 hours of labor on levees or on the public works or ways in lieu of one day of confinement under the direction of a responsible person appointed by the sheriff or other official in charge. The hours of labor to be performed pursuant to this section shall be uniform for all persons committed to those facilities in a county and may be determined by the sheriff or other official in charge of county correctional facilities, within the minimum and maximum herein set forth, in accordance with the normal working hours of county employees assigned to supervise the labor of such persons.

As used in this section "labor on levees or on the public works and ways" means manual labor to improve or maintain levees or public facilities, including, but not limited to, streets, parks, and schools.

(b) The board of supervisors may prescribe reasonable rules and regulations under which such labor is to be performed and may provide that such persons wear clothing of a distinctive character while performing such work. As a condition of participating in a work release program, a person shall give his or her promise to appear for work by signing a notice to appear before the sheriff at a time and place specified in the notice and shall sign an agreement that the sheriff may immediately retake such person into custody to serve the balance of his or her sentence if such person fails to appear for work at the time and place agreed to, does not perform the work assigned, or for any other reason is no longer a fit subject for release under this section. A copy of the notice shall be delivered to the person and a copy shall be retained by the sheriff. Any person who willfully violates his or her written promise to appear at the time and place specified in the notice is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Whenever a peace officer has reasonable cause to believe the person has failed to appear at the time and place specified in the notice or fails to appear or work at the time and place agreed to or has failed to perform the work assigned, the peace officer may, without a warrant, retake the person into custody, or the court may issue an arrest warrant for the retaking of the person into custody, to complete the remainder of the original sentence. A peace officer may not retake a person into custody under this subdivision, without a warrant for arrest, unless the officer has a written order to do so, signed by the sheriff or other person in charge of the program, which describes with particularity the person to be retaken.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the sheriff or other such official to assign labor to a person pursuant to this section if it appears from the record that such person has refused to satisfactorily perform labor as assigned or has not satisfactorily complied with the reasonable rules and regulations governing such assignment or any other order of the court.

A person shall be eligible for work release under this section only if the sheriff or other official in charge concludes that such person is a fit subject therefor.

(d) If the court sentences the defendant to a period of confinement of 15 days or more, it may restrict or deny his or her eligibility for the work release program.

(e) The board of supervisors may prescribe a program administrative fee, not to exceed the pro rata cost of administration, to be paid by each such person according to his or her ability to pay.

SEC. 2. Section 4024.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

4024.2. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board of supervisors of any county may authorize the sheriff or other official in charge of county correctional facilities to offer a voluntary program under which any person committed to the facility may perform a minimum of 8 and a maximum of 10 hours of labor on levees or on the public works or ways in lieu of one day of confinement under the direction of a responsible person appointed by the sheriff or other official in charge. The hours of labor to be performed pursuant to this section shall be uniform for all persons committed to those facilities in a county and may be determined by the sheriff or other official in charge of county correctional facilities, within the minimum and maximum herein set forth, in accordance with the normal working hours of county employees assigned to supervise the labor of such persons.

As used in this section, "labor on levees or on the public works and ways" means manual labor to improve or maintain levees or public facilities, including, but not limited to, streets, parks, and schools.

(b) The board of supervisors may prescribe reasonable rules and regulations under which such labor is to be performed and may provide that such persons wear clothing of a distinctive character while performing such work. As a condition of participating in a work release program, a person shall give his or her promise to appear for work by signing a notice to appear before the sheriff at a time and place specified in the notice and shall sign an agreement that the sheriff may immediately retake such person into custody to serve the balance of his or her sentence if such person fails to appear for work at the time and place agreed to, does not perform the work assigned, or for any other reason is no longer a fit subject for release under this section. A copy of the notice shall be delivered to the person and a copy shall be retained by the sheriff. Any person who willfully violates his or her written promise to appear at the time and place specified in the notice is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Whenever a peace officer has reasonable cause to believe the person has failed to appear at the time and place specified in the notice or fails to appear or work at the time and place agreed to or has failed to perform the work assigned, the peace officer may, without a warrant, retake the person into custody, or the court may issue an arrest warrant for the retaking of the person into custody, to complete the remainder of the original sentence. A peace officer may not retake a person into custody under this subdivision, without a warrant for arrest, unless the officer has a written order to do so, signed by the sheriff or other person in charge of the program, which describes with particularity the person to be retaken.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the sheriff or other such official to assign labor to a person pursuant to this section if it appears from the record that such person has refused to satisfactorily perform labor as assigned or has not satisfactorily complied with the reasonable rules and regulations governing such assignment or any other order of the court.

A person shall be eligible for work release under this section only if the sheriff or other official in charge concludes that such person is a fit subject therefor.

(d) The board of supervisors may prescribe a program administrative fee, not to exceed the pro rata cost of administration, to be paid by each such person according to his or her ability to pay.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 4024.2 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3997. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 4024.2 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3997, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1548

An act to add Section 7106 to the Public Contract Code, relating to public works.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7106 is added to the Public Contract Code, to read:

7106. Any public works contract of a public entity shall include an affidavit, in the following form:

"NONCOLLUSION AFFIDAVIT TO BE EXECUTED BY BIDDER AND SUBMITTED WITH BID

State of California
County of _____ } ss.

_____, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he or she is _____ of _____ the party making the foregoing bid that the bid is not made in the interest of, or on behalf of, any undisclosed person, partnership, company, association, organization, or corporation; that the bid is genuine and not collusive or sham; that the bidder has not directly or indirectly induced or solicited any other bidder to put in a false or sham bid, and has not directly or indirectly colluded, conspired, connived, or agreed with any bidder or anyone else to put in a sham bid, or that anyone shall refrain from bidding; that the bidder has not in any manner, directly or indirectly, sought by agreement, communication, or conference with anyone to fix the bid price of the bidder or any other bidder, or to fix any overhead, profit, or cost element of the bid price, or of that of any other bidder, or to secure any advantage against the public body awarding the contract of anyone interested in the proposed contract; that all statements contained in the bid are true; and, further, that the bidder has not, directly or indirectly, submitted his or her bid price or any breakdown thereof, or the contents thereof, or divulged information or data relative thereto, or paid, and will not pay, any fee to any corporation, partnership, company association, organization, bid depository, or to any member or agent thereof to effectuate a collusive or sham bid."

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1549

An act to amend Section 131100 of, and to add Section 99268.19 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to transit.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 99268.19 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

99268.19. If fare revenues are insufficient to meet the applicable ratio of fare revenues to operating cost required by this article, an operator may satisfy that requirement by supplementing its fare revenues with local funds. "Local funds" means revenues derived from taxes imposed by the operator or by a county transportation commission created pursuant to Division 12 (commencing with Section 130000) of the Public Utilities Code.

SEC. 2. Section 131100 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

131100. (a) The Legislature, by the enactment of this chapter intends a county transportation authority or the commission, pursuant to a county transportation expenditure plan adopted pursuant to Section 131055, to use any additional funds provided by this chapter to supplement existing local revenues being used for public transportation purposes listed in the plan. The Legislature further intends that the funds provided pursuant to this chapter shall not replace funds previously provided by property tax revenues for public transportation purposes. The nine-county San Francisco Bay area is further encouraged to maintain its existing commitment of local funds for public transportation purposes.

(b) Any tax revenue generated pursuant to this chapter shall be expended in the county of origin, except that tax revenue generated in the County of San Mateo may be expended within and outside that county if so provided in the adopted county transportation expenditure plan. However, the tax revenues may be exchanged for federal or state funds available to another county or local government for transportation purposes if the exchange will benefit the county of origin.

(c) (1) In order to receive funds from the Counties of Alameda and Contra Costa and the City and County of San Francisco pursuant to this chapter, the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District shall agree to match from federal, state, or other funds available to the district, at least as much as it receives from the additional funds provided by this chapter from those counties.

(2) The funds the district received pursuant to this chapter, and its matching funds therefor, shall be used only for capital expenditures.

CHAPTER 1550

An act to amend Sections 4351.5, 4600.5, 4601, 4601.5, 4607, and 5181 of, and to add Section 4607.1 to, the Civil Code, relating to family law.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4351.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4351.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 4351, in proceedings under Sections 4450 and 4503, the superior court has jurisdiction to award reasonable visitation rights to a person who is a party to the marriage that is the subject of the proceeding with respect to a minor child of the other party to the marriage, if visitation by that person is determined to be in the best interests of the minor child.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in proceedings under Sections 4450 and 4503, the superior court has jurisdiction pursuant to Section 4601 to award reasonable visitation rights to a person who is a grandparent of a minor child of a party to the marriage, if visitation by that person is determined to be in the best interests of the minor child.

(c) If a stepparent or grandparent has petitioned or otherwise applied for an order of reasonable visitation rights pursuant to this section, the court shall set the matter of visitation rights for mediation. The purpose of the mediation proceeding shall be to effect a settlement of the issue of visitation rights of all parties that is in the best interests of the child. The mediator shall meet the minimum qualifications required of a counselor of conciliation as provided in Section 1745 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(d) Mediation proceedings shall be held in private and shall be confidential, and all communications, verbal or written, from the parties to the mediator made in a proceeding pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be official information within the meaning of Section 1040 of the Evidence Code.

(e) The mediator shall have the authority to exclude counsel from participation in the mediation proceedings where, in the discretion of the mediator, exclusion of counsel is deemed by the mediator to be appropriate or necessary. The mediator shall have the duty to assess the needs and interests of the child involved in the controversy and shall be entitled to interview the child when the mediator deems that the interview is appropriate or necessary.

(f) The mediator may, consistent with local court rules, render a recommendation to the court as to the visitation of the child. The mediator may, in cases where the parties have not reached agreement as a result of the mediation proceeding, recommend to the court that an investigation shall be conducted to assist the parties to effect a resolution of the controversy prior to any hearing on the issues. The mediator may, in appropriate cases, recommend that mutual restraining orders shall be issued, pending determination of the controversy, to protect the well-being of the child involved in the controversy. Any agreement reached by the parties as a result of the mediation shall be reported to counsel for the parties by the mediator on the day set for mediation or as soon thereafter as practical, but prior to its being reported to the court. The terms of any agreement shall be limited to the resolution of issues relating to visitation. No agreement shall be confirmed or otherwise incorporated in an order of the court unless each party, in person or by his or her counsel of record, has affirmed and assented to the agreement in open court or by written stipulation. An agreement also may be so confirmed or incorporated if a party fails to appear at a noticed hearing on the issue involved in the agreement. All such visitation agreements may be modified at any time at the discretion of the court, subject to the provisions of subdivision (a).

(g) A natural or adoptive parent who is not a party to the proceeding shall not be required to participate in the mediation proceedings; however, failure to participate shall be a waiver of that parent's right to object to any settlement reached by the other parties during mediation or to require a hearing on the matter.

(h) If the issue of visitation rights of all parties is not settled by agreement of all parties who participate in mediation, the mediator shall so inform the court in writing and the court shall set the matter of visitation rights for hearing. Each natural or adoptive parent and the stepparent or grandparent seeking visitation rights shall be given an opportunity to appear and be heard on that issue.

(i) Notice of mediation and of any hearing to be held pursuant to this section shall be given to the stepparent or grandparent seeking visitation rights, to each of the parents of the child, and to the counsel of record of each of the parents in any proceeding under Section 4450 or 4503 with regard to their marriage. The notice shall be given by certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to the last known address of each of the parents and his or her counsel.

(j) Any visitation right granted to a stepparent or grandparent pursuant to this section shall not conflict with any visitation or custodial right of a natural or adoptive parent who is not a party to the proceeding.

(k) There shall be a rebuttable presumption affecting the burden of proof that the visitation of a grandparent is not in the best interests of a minor child if the parties to the marriage agree that the grandparent should not be awarded visitation rights.

(l) In making an award of visitation pursuant to this section, if an order has been directed to a stepparent or grandparent pursuant to paragraph (2), (3), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 4359 or Sections 7020 and 7021 of this code, or Section 546 or 547 of the Code of Civil Procedure, during the pendency of the proceeding, the court shall consider whether the best interests of the child require that any visitation by that stepparent or grandparent should be denied.

SEC. 2. Section 4600.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4600.5. (a) There shall be a presumption, affecting the burden of proof, that joint custody is in the best interests of a minor child, subject to Section 4608, where the parents have agreed to an award of joint custody or so agree in open court at a hearing for the purpose of determining the custody of a minor child of the marriage.

(b) Upon the application of either parent, joint custody may be awarded in the discretion of the court in other cases, subject to Section 4608. For the purpose of assisting the court in making a determination whether an award of joint custody is appropriate under this subdivision, the court may direct that an investigation be conducted pursuant to Section 4602.

(c) Whenever a request for joint custody is granted or denied, the court, upon the request of any party, shall state in its decision the reasons for granting or denying the request. A statement that joint physical custody is, or is not, in the best interests of the child shall not be sufficient to meet the requirements of this subdivision.

(d) For the purposes of this part:

(1) "Joint custody" means joint physical custody and joint legal custody.

(2) "Sole physical custody" means that a child shall reside with and under the supervision of one parent, subject to the power of the court to order visitation.

(3) "Joint physical custody" means that each of the parents shall have significant periods of physical custody. Joint physical custody shall be shared by the parents in such a way so as to assure a child of frequent and continuing contact with both parents.

(4) "Sole legal custody" means that one parent shall have the right and the responsibility to make the decisions relating to the health, education, and welfare of a child.

(5) "Joint legal custody" means that both parents shall share the right and the responsibility to make the decisions relating to the health, education, and welfare of a child.

(e) In making an order of joint legal custody, the court shall specify the circumstances under which the consent of both parents is required to be obtained in order to exercise legal control of the child and the consequences of the failure to obtain mutual consent. In all other circumstances, either parent acting alone may exercise legal control of the child. An order of joint legal custody shall not be construed to permit an action that is inconsistent with the physical custody order unless the action is expressly authorized by the court.

(f) In making an order of joint physical custody, the court shall specify the rights of each parent to physical control of the child in sufficient detail to enable a parent deprived of that control to implement laws for relief of child snatching and kidnapping.

(g) In making an order for custody with respect to both parents, the court may award joint legal custody without awarding joint physical custody.

(h) In making an order of joint physical custody or joint legal custody, the court may specify one parent as the primary caretaker of the child and one home as the primary home of the child, for the purposes of determining eligibility for public assistance.

(i) Any order for joint custody may be modified or terminated upon the petition of one or both parents or on the court's own motion if it is shown that the best interests of the child require modification or termination of the order. The court shall state in its decision the reasons for modification or termination of the joint custody order if either parent opposes the modification or termination order.

(j) Any order for the custody of a minor child of a marriage entered by a court in this state or any other state may, subject to the jurisdictional requirements set forth in Sections 5152 and 5163, be modified at any time to an order of joint custody in accordance with this section.

(k) In counties having a conciliation court, the court or the parties may, at any time, pursuant to local rules of court, consult with the conciliation court for the purpose of assisting the parties to formulate a plan for implementation of the custody order or to resolve any controversy which has arisen in the implementation of a plan for custody.

(l) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, access to records and information pertaining to a minor child, including, but not limited to, medical, dental, and school records, shall not be denied to a parent because that parent is not the child's custodial parent.

(m) In making an order for custody, if the court does not deem it inappropriate, the court may specify that a parent shall notify the other parent if he or she plans to change the residence of the child for more than 30 days, unless there is prior written agreement to the removal. The notice shall be given prior to the contemplated move, by mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to the last known address of the parent to be notified. A copy of the notice shall also be sent to that parent's counsel of record. To the extent feasible, the notice shall be provided within a minimum of 45 days prior to the proposed change of residence so as to allow time for mediation of a new agreement concerning custody. This subdivision shall not be deemed to affect orders made prior to January 1, 1989.

SEC. 3. Section 4601 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4601. In making an order pursuant to Section 4600.5, the court shall order reasonable visitation rights to a parent unless it is shown that the visitation would be detrimental to the best interests of the child. In the discretion of the court, reasonable visitation rights may be granted to any other person having an interest in the welfare of the child.

SEC. 4. Section 4601.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4601.5. In making an award authorizing visitation pursuant to Section 4601, if an order has been directed to a parent pursuant to paragraph (2), (3), or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 4359 during the pendency of the proceeding or pursuant to Section 4516, the court shall consider whether the best interests of the child require that any visitation granted to that parent shall be limited to situations in which a third person, specified by the court, is present. The court shall include a consideration of the nature of the acts from which the parent was enjoined and the period of time that has elapsed since that order in its deliberations.

A parent may submit the name of a person to the court that he or she deems suitable to be present during visitation.

SEC. 5. Section 4607 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4607. (a) In any proceeding where there is at issue the custody of or visitation with a minor child, and where it appears on the face of the petition or other application for an order or modification of an order for the custody or visitation of a child or children that either or both issues are contested, as provided in Section 4600, 4600.1, or 4601, the matter shall be set for mediation of the contested issues prior to or concurrent with the setting of the matter for hearing. Upon the adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors authorizing the procedure, a petition also may be filed pursuant to this section for the mediation of a dispute relating to any existing order for custody or visitation; the mediation of a dispute concerning an existing order shall be set not later than 60 days after the filing of the petition. The purpose of the mediation proceeding shall be to reduce acrimony which may exist between the parties and to develop an agreement assuring the child or children's close and continuing contact with both parents. The mediator shall use his or her best efforts to effect a settlement of the custody or visitation dispute that is in the best interests of the child or children, pursuant to Section 4608. Mediation shall not be denied to the parties on the basis that paternity is an issue in a proceeding before the court.

(b) Each superior court shall make available a mediator. The mediator may be a member of the professional staff of a family conciliation court, probation department, or mental health services agency, or may be any other person or agency designated by the court. In order to provide mediation services, the court shall not be required to institute a family conciliation court. The mediator shall meet the minimum qualifications required of a counselor of conciliation as provided in Section 1745 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) Mediation proceedings shall be held in private and shall be confidential, and all communications, verbal or written, from the parties to the mediator made in a proceeding pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be official information within the meaning of Section 1040 of the Evidence Code.

(d) The mediator shall have the authority to exclude counsel from participation in the mediation proceedings where, in the discretion of the mediator, exclusion of counsel is deemed by the mediator to be appropriate or necessary. The mediator shall have the duty to assess the needs and interests of the child or children involved in the controversy and shall be entitled to interview the child or children when the mediator deems the interview appropriate or necessary.

(e) The mediator may, consistent with local court rules, render a recommendation to the court as to the custody or visitation of the child or children. The mediator may, in cases where the parties have not reached agreement as a result of the mediation proceeding, recommend to the court that an investigation be conducted pursuant to Section 4602, or that other action be taken to assist the parties to effect a resolution of the controversy prior to any hearing on the issues. The mediator may, in appropriate cases, recommend that mutual restraining orders be issued, pending determination of the controversy, to protect the well-being of the children involved in the controversy. Any agreement reached by the parties as a result of mediation shall be reported to counsel for the parties by the mediator on the day set for mediation or as soon thereafter as practical, but prior to its being reported to the court. The terms of any agreement shall be limited to the resolution of issues relating to parenting plans, custody, or visitation, or any combination thereof. No agreement shall be confirmed or otherwise incorporated in an order of the court unless each party, in person or by his or her counsel of record, has affirmed and assented to the agreement in open court or by written stipulation. An agreement also may be so confirmed or incorporated if a party fails to appear at a noticed hearing on the issue involved in the agreement. All such custody or visitation agreements may be modified at any time at the discretion of the court, subject to the provisions of Sections 4600, 4600.5, and 4601.

(f) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the mediator from recommending to the court that counsel be appointed pursuant to Section 4606 to represent the minor child or children. In making any recommendation, the mediator shall inform the court of the reasons why it would be in the best interests of the minor child or children to have counsel appointed.

SEC. 6. Section 4607 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4607. (a) In any proceeding where there is at issue the custody of or visitation with a minor child, and where it appears on the face of the petition or other application for an order or modification of an order for the custody or visitation of a child or children that either or both such issues are contested, as provided in Section 4600, 4600.1, or 4601, the matter shall be set for mediation of the contested issues prior to or concurrent with the setting of the matter for hearing.

Upon the adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors authorizing the procedure, a petition also may be filed pursuant to this section for the mediation of a dispute relating to any existing order for custody or visitation; the mediation of a dispute concerning an existing order shall be set not later than 60 days after the filing of the petition. The purpose of the mediation proceeding shall be to reduce acrimony which may exist between the parties and to develop an agreement assuring the child or children's close and continuing contact with both parents. The mediator shall use his or her best efforts to effect a settlement of the custody or visitation dispute that is in the best interests of the child or children, pursuant to Section 4608. Mediation shall not be denied to the parties on the basis that paternity is an issue in a proceeding before the court.

(b) Each superior court shall make available a mediator. The mediator may be a member of the professional staff of a family conciliation court, probation department, or mental health services agency, or may be any other person or agency designated by the court. In order to provide mediation services, the court shall not be required to institute a family conciliation court. The mediator shall meet the minimum qualifications required of a counselor of conciliation as provided in Section 1745 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) Mediation proceedings shall be held in private and shall be confidential, and all communications, verbal or written, from the parties to the mediator made in a proceeding pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be official information within the meaning of Section 1040 of the Evidence Code.

(d) The mediator shall have the authority to exclude counsel from participation in the mediation proceedings where, in the discretion of the mediator, exclusion of counsel is deemed by the mediator to be appropriate or necessary. The mediator shall have the duty to assess the needs and interests of the child or children involved in the controversy and shall be entitled to interview the child or children when the mediator deems the interview appropriate or necessary. The mediator shall have the authority to meet with the parties separately when a request for separate mediation is made by one of the parties in any proceeding where there has been a history of domestic violence between the parties, as domestic violence is defined in subdivision (b) of Section 542 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(e) The mediator may, consistent with local court rules, render a recommendation to the court as to the custody or visitation of the child or children. The mediator may, in cases where the parties have not reached agreement as a result of the mediation proceeding, recommend to the court that an investigation be conducted pursuant to Section 4602, or that other action be taken to assist the parties to effect a resolution of the controversy prior to any hearing on the issues. The mediator may, in appropriate cases, recommend that mutual restraining orders be issued, pending determination of the controversy, to protect the well-being of the children involved in the controversy. Any agreement reached by the parties as a result of mediation shall be reported to counsel for the parties by the mediator on the day set for mediation or as soon thereafter as practical, but prior to its being reported to the court. The agreement shall be limited to the resolution of issues relating to parenting plans, custody, or visitation, or any combination thereof. No agreement shall be confirmed or otherwise incorporated in an order of the court unless each party, in person or by his or her counsel of record, has affirmed and assented to the agreement in open court or by written stipulation. An agreement also may be so confirmed or incorporated if a party fails to appear at a noticed hearing on the issue involved in the agreement. All such custody or visitation agreements may be modified at any time at the discretion of the court, subject to the provisions of Sections 4600, 4600.5, and 4601.

(f) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the mediator from recommending to the court that counsel be appointed pursuant to Section 4606 to represent the minor child or children. In making any recommendation, the mediator shall inform the court of the reasons why it would be in the best interests of the minor child or children to have counsel appointed.

SEC. 7. Section 4607.1 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4607.1. The Legislature finds and declares that the mediation of cases involving custody and visitation concerning children should be governed by uniform standards of practice, which shall be adopted by the Judicial Council. The standards of practice shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) Provision for the best interests of the child and the safeguarding of the rights of the child to frequent and continuing contact with both parents.

(b) Facilitation of the transition of the family by detailing factors to be considered in decisions concerning the child's future.

(c) The conducting of negotiations in such a way as to equalize power relationships between the parties.

In adopting the standards of practice, the Judicial Council shall consider standards developed by recognized associations of mediators and attorneys and other relevant standards governing mediation of proceedings for the dissolution of marriage. The Judicial Council shall adopt the standards by January 1, 1990, and at that time, shall offer training with respect to the standards to mediators.

SEC. 9. Section 5181 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

5181. The Judicial Council shall do all of the following:

(a) Assist counties in implementing Sections 4351.5 and 4607.

(b) Establish and implement a uniform statistical reporting system relating to actions brought pursuant to this part, including, but not limited to, a custody disposition survey.

(c) Administer a program of grants to public and private agencies submitting proposals for research, study, and demonstration projects in the area of family law, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(1) The development of conciliation and mediation and other newer dispute resolution techniques, particularly as they relate to child custody and to avoidance of litigation.

(2) The establishment of criteria to insure that a child support order is adequate.

(3) The development of methods to insure that a child support order is paid.

(4) The study of the feasibility and desirability of guidelines to assist judges in making custody decisions.

(d) Administer a program for the training of court personnel involved in family law proceedings, which shall be available to the court personnel and which shall be totally funded from funds specified in Section 5183. The training shall include, but not be limited to, the order of preference set forth in Section 4600 and the meaning of the custody arrangements described in Sections 4600 and 4600.5.

SEC. 10. Section 6 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 4607 of the Civil Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2698. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 4607 of the Civil Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2698 in which case Section 5 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1551

An act relating to public utilities, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(1) One of the primary obligations of public utilities, including both privately owned and publicly owned electrical utilities, is to provide reliable service with due regard to public safety.

(2) A number of scientific studies are beginning to indicate that electromagnetic fields associated with electrical utility facilities may present a significant cancer risk.

(3) These studies show that exposure to electromagnetic fields may be related to an increased incidence of leukemia and other cancers in children.

(4) It is also possible that exposure to electromagnetic fields may be related to an increased risk of cancer for electrical utility workers.

(b) It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to require that further investigation and research be undertaken to establish whether exposure to electromagnetic fields caused by electrical utility generating and transmission facilities presents an unreasonable cancer risk, and whether legislation is needed to reduce that risk.

SEC. 2. The Public Utilities Commission, in cooperation with the State Department of Health Services, shall, on or before March 15, 1989, with due consideration to any research already performed by, or under contract for, the commission; after consulting with representatives of state agencies, including, but not limited to, the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, the federal government, other states, academia, the electric utility industry, and public interest groups; and after holding public meetings in San Francisco, Los Angeles, and other communities selected by the commission; prepare and submit a report to the Legislature on its findings on all of the following matters:

(a) A comprehensive description of any cancer or other medical risks determined to be associated with exposure to electromagnetic fields caused by electrical utility facilities. The commission shall accompany this description with a summary and bibliography of all completed and ongoing research projects and studies, including those undertaken by the federal government, other states, academic institutions, and the electric utility industry, that are identified by the commission and the department as being associated with cancer or other medical risks which may be related to exposure to electromagnetic fields.

(b) A description of any higher incidence of leukemia or other cancers experienced by children who reside or attend school in close proximity to electrical utility facilities.

(c) A description of any increased incidence of cancer for workers employed by electrical utilities.

(d) A listing of high-priority research projects that still need to be undertaken to identify cancer or other medical risks which may be related to exposure to electromagnetic fields.

SEC. 3. The Public Utilities Commission and the State Department of Health Services shall jointly conduct the high-priority research projects identified in the report submitted pursuant to Section 2 of this act. Subject to the overall coordination of the commission, the department shall design and manage the research projects identified in the report required by Section 2 of this act. The department shall select qualified research personnel and oversee the review process to assure that the design, conduct, and analysis of the research are of high quality and applicable to regulatory needs. As part of its research program, the commission and department shall do the following:

(a) Coordinate its research efforts with similar federal, state, academic, and industry research projects, and, where feasible, secure funding from the entities funding that research to supplement the state's research efforts.

(b) On or before December 1, 1990, submit a report to the Legislature on the status of the joint research program, on additional research funding needs, if any, and on recommendations, if any, for legislation to limit exposure to electromagnetic fields.

SEC. 4. For purposes of conducting the study and research program and for preparing the reports, as required by Sections 2 and 3 of this act, the Public Utilities Commission shall calculate a fee to be paid by every electrical corporation and publicly owned electrical utility in this state with operating revenues over twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000) per year, in the proportion that each utility's total distribution of electricity to its customers bears to the total distribution of electricity statewide, in a sufficient amount that the total of all fees so calculated does not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000). The Public Utilities Commission shall report to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission the amount of fees calculated for payment by publicly owned electric utilities. The Public Utilities Commission shall then collect the calculated fees from electrical corporations, and the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall collect the fees from publicly owned electric utilities. All fees so collected shall be deposited in the State Department of Health Services Electromagnetic Fields Study Fund, which is hereby created in the State Treasury. The money in the fund is hereby continuously appropriated, until June 30, 1992, to the department for purposes of its expenses and the expenses of the Public Utilities Commission under Sections 2 and 3 of this act.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction and because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 1552

An act to amend Section 830.3 of the Penal Code, relating to peace officers.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 830.3 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.3. The following persons are peace officers whose authority extends to any place in the state for the purpose of performing their primary duty or when making an arrest pursuant to Section 836 of the Penal Code as to any public offense with respect to which there is immediate danger to person or property, or of the escape of the perpetrator of that offense, or pursuant to Section 8597 or 8598 of the Government Code. These peace officers may carry firearms only if authorized and under those terms and conditions as are specified by their employing agencies:

(a) Persons employed by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control for the enforcement of Division 9 (commencing with Section 23000) of the Business and Professions Code and designated by the Director of Alcoholic Beverage Control, provided that the primary duty of these peace officers shall be the enforcement of the laws relating to alcoholic beverages, as that duty is set forth in Section 25755 of the Business and Professions Code.

(b) Persons employed by the Division of Investigation of the Department of Consumer Affairs and investigators of the Board of Medical Quality Assurance and the Board of Dental Examiners, who are designated by the Director of Consumer Affairs, provided that the primary duty of these peace officers shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in Section 160 of the Business and Professions Code.

(c) Voluntary fire wardens as are designated by the Director of Forestry pursuant to Section 4156 of the Public Resources Code, provided that the primary duty of these peace officers shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in Section 4156 of that code.

(d) Employees of the Department of Motor Vehicles designated in Section 1655 of the Vehicle Code, provided that the primary duty of these peace officers shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in Section 1655 of that code.

(e) Investigators of the California Horse Racing Board designated by the board, provided that the primary duty of these peace officers shall be the enforcement of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 19400) of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code and Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 330) of Title 9 of Part 1 of the Penal Code.

(f) The State Fire Marshal and assistant or deputy state fire marshals appointed pursuant to Section 13103 of the Health and Safety Code, provided that the primary duty of these peace officers shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in Section 13104 of that code.

(g) Inspectors of the food and drug section as are designated by the chief pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 216 of the Health and Safety Code, provided that the primary duty of these peace officers shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in Section 216 of that code.

(h) All investigators of the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement, as designated by the Labor Commissioner, provided that the primary duty of these peace officers shall be enforcement of the law as prescribed in Section 95 of the Labor Code.

(i) All investigators of the State Departments of Health Services, Social Services, Mental Health, Developmental Services, Alcohol and Drug Programs and the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, and the Public Employees' Retirement System, provided that the primary duty of these peace officers shall be the enforcement of the law relating to the duties of his or her department, or office. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, investigators of the Public Employees' Retirement System shall not carry firearms.

(j) Marshals and police appointed by the Board of Directors of the California Exposition and State Fair, pursuant to Section 3332 of the Food and Agricultural Code, provided that the primary duty of the peace officer shall be the enforcement of the law as prescribed in that section.

(k) The Chief of the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims of the Department of Insurance and those investigators as designated by the chief, provided that the primary duty of those investigators shall be enforcement of Section 556 of the Insurance Code.

(l) Employees of the Department of Housing and Community Development designated under Section 18023 of the Health and Safety Code, provided that the primary duty of these peace officers shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in Section 18023 of that code.

(m) Investigators of the office of the Controller, provided that the primary duty of these investigators shall be the enforcement of the law relating to the duties of that office. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the peace officers designated pursuant to this subdivision shall not carry firearms.

(n) Investigators of the Department of Corporations designated by the Commissioner of Corporations, provided that the primary duty of these investigators shall be enforcement of the provisions of law administered by the Department of Corporations. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the peace officers designated pursuant to this subdivision shall not carry firearms.

CHAPTER 1553

An act to amend Sections 23166 and 23175 of the Vehicle Code, relating to driving offenses.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23166 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

23166. If the court grants probation to any person punished under Section 23165, in addition to the provisions of Section 23206 and any other terms and conditions imposed by the court, the court shall impose as conditions of probation that the person be subject to either subdivision (a) or (b), as follows:

(a) Be confined in the county jail for at least 10 days but not more than one year and pay a fine of at least three hundred ninety dollars ($390) but not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000). The person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle shall be suspended by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 13352.

(b) All of the following:

(1) Be confined in the county jail for at least 48 hours but not more than one year.

(2) Pay a fine of at least three hundred ninety dollars ($390) but not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(3) If the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages as defined in Section 16430 to the Department of Motor Vehicles, have the privilege to operate a motor vehicle be restricted by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to Section 13352.5, for one year, to necessary travel to and from that person's place of employment and to and from the applicable treatment program described in paragraph (4), and if driving a motor vehicle is necessary to perform the duties of the person's employment, restricted to driving in that person's scope of employment. The Department of Motor Vehicles shall not suspend the person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle under Section 13352, as provided in Section 13352.5, unless the offense occurred in a vehicle requiring a driver with a class 1 or class 2 driver's license or with a certificate specified in Section 12804.1.

(4) Either of the following:

(A) Participate, for at least one year subsequent to the underlying conviction and in a manner satisfactory to the court, in a program approved pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 11837) of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as designated by the court. The program shall provide for persons who cannot afford the program fee pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 11837.4 of the Health and Safety Code in order to enable those persons to participate.

(B) Participate, for at least 30 months subsequent to the underlying conviction and in a manner satisfactory to the court, in a program approved pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 11837) of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code. A person ordered to treatment pursuant to this subparagraph shall apply to the court or to a board of review, as designated by the court, at the conclusion of the program to obtain the court's order of satisfaction. Only upon the granting of that order of satisfaction by the court may the program issue its certificate of successful completion and report the completion to the Department of Motor Vehicles. A failure to obtain an order of satisfaction at the conclusion of the program is a violation of probation. In order to enable all required persons to participate, each person shall pay the program costs commensurate with the person's ability to pay as determined pursuant to Section 11837.4 of the Health and Safety Code. No condition of probation required pursuant to this subparagraph is a basis for reducing any other probation requirement or for avoiding the mandatory license revocation provisions of paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 13352.

SEC. 2. Section 23175 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

23175. If any person is convicted of a violation of Section 23152 and the offense occurred within seven years of three or more separate violations of Section 23103 as specified in Section 23103.5 which occurred on or after January 1, 1982, 23152, or 23153, or any combination thereof, which resulted in convictions, that person shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or in the county jail for not less than 180 days nor more than one year, and by a fine of not less than three hundred ninety dollars ($390) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000). The person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle shall be revoked by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (a) of Section 13352.

CHAPTER 1554

An act to add Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 18990) to Part 6 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to child care, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988 ]

I am deleting the $75,000 appropriation contained in Section 2 of Assembly Bill No. 953.

This bill would require the Department of Aging to establish six Grandparent Phonefriend Pilot Projects in selected counties. The bill appropriates $75,000 to fund loans to the projects and to cover state administrative costs

The demands placed on budget resources require all of us to set priorities The budget enacted in July 1988 appropriated nearly $44 billion in state funds This amount is more than adequate to provide the necessary essential services provided for by State Government. It is not necessary to put additional pressure on taxpayer funds for programs that fall beyond the priorities currently provided

Thus, after reviewing this legislation, I have concluded that its merits do not sufficiently outweigh the need this year for funding top priority programs and continuing a prudent reserve for economic uncertainties

It is more appropriate to consider funding the provisions of this bill during the budget process for Fiscal Year 1989-90. Only at that time can we review the relative merits of this program in comparison to all other funding projects The budget process enables us to weigh all demands on the state's revenues and direct our resources to programs, either new or existing, that have the most merit

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No. 953

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 18990) is added to Part 6 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 13. GRANDPARENT PHONEFRIEND PILOT PROJECTS PROGRAM

18990. The Legislature finds both of the following:

(a) Older citizens have a great deal to offer children who might not have a close-knit family relationship. A program which utilizes the resources of older citizens as persons providing support or information, or both, to unsupervised children after school hours, and known as "phonefriends," would enhance the self-esteem of the participating older citizens while filling a great societal need.

(b) "Older citizens," as used in this article, means individuals 60 years of age or older.

18991. (a) The Department of Aging shall establish six pilot projects to provide after school telephone help lines for children in kindergarten through 6th grade. The department shall establish two of these projects in Los Angeles County, and one each in Alameda, Butte, Marin, and Riverside Counties. Each pilot project shall be conducted by a public or private entity, selected by the department, which provides services to older citizens. The department shall provide one-time only loans, of up to fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) to each entity so selected for startup costs of the project, which shall be limited to the costs of telephone installation and operation; the printing of informational material; a full-time, salaried coordinator; a 20-hour per week secretary; liability insurance; and fingerprinting costs.

(b) The Department of Aging in its operation and administration of the program shall select a coordinator. The coordinator shall work with phonefriend projects already in existence to assist new programs through the developmental stages.

(c) Within one year from the date of obtaining private sector funding, each pilot project coordinator shall submit a report to the Department of Aging citing the effectiveness of the program, the number of children assisted, and the type of assistance provided.

(d) The Department of Aging shall report to the Legislature prior to January 1, 1992. This report shall contain each individual report received pursuant to subdivision (b), along with an overview of the programs and an assessment of the ability of the programs to meet the objectives of this article.

(e) All loans made by the department pursuant to this section shall be repaid to the General Fund with interest equal to that earned by funds of the Pooled Money Investment Board.

(f) The Department of Aging shall notify all eligible parties through the network of providers of service to older citizens, of the availability of funds pursuant to this article.

(g) Prior to April 1, 1989, the Department of Aging shall select the six participants and shall, within six weeks from the selection distribute startup funds, not to exceed fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) to each of the participants.

(h) Each pilot project shall meet the following requirements, as verified by the department:

(1) Services shall be provided through telephone help lines created for the purpose of providing information or support, or both, to children in kindergarten through 6th grade, when the children are without adult supervision after school hours.

(2) The telephone help lines shall be staffed on a volunteer basis by older citizens, who shall be known as "grandparent phonefriends" for purposes of publicizing the project.

(3) Volunteers answering the phone lines shall as a minimum be trained to: make appropriate referrals in cases of emergency or in other cases necessitating the assistance of another agency; listen to children who express feelings of loneliness or fear; provide practical information to callers about common household, school, or other problems, as determined by the department and the entity conducting the project; and inquire of children with problems.

(4) Each project shall include procedures for contacting parents in appropriate cases, and procedures to ensure that confidentiality is respected. A caller's phone number shall be requested only if the volunteer believes it might be necessary to call back the child.

(5) The coordinator for the Department of Aging shall arrange with local entities for fingerprinting volunteer older citizens before the volunteers can begin any training on the phonefriend lines.

(6) Each pilot project shall work with the local school boards and any parent or teacher group in determining training procedures described in paragraph (3).

SEC. 2. (a) The sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Aging for expenditure pursuant to Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 18990) of Part 6 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(b) From the amount appropriated in this act, the Department of Aging shall allocate ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for the operation and administrative costs of the Grandparent Phonefriend Pilot Projects Program, including the selection of a coordinator for the program pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 18991 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(c) Any portions of this appropriation which have not been loaned to pilot projects pursuant to Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 18990) of Part 6 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code prior to July 1, 1989, shall revert to the General Fund on that date. All loan payments, plus interest, shall be deposited in the General Fund.

CHAPTER 1555

An act to amend Sections 199.45, 199.47, 199.50, and 199.51 of, to add Section 199.78 to, and to repeal Section 199.49 of, the Health and Safety Code, to amend Section 14132 of, and to add Section 14132.45 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, and to amend Section 2 of Chapter 1463 of the Statutes of 1986, relating to AIDS.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 199.45 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

199.45. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The rapidly spreading AIDS epidemic poses an unprecedented major public health crisis in California, and threatens, in one way or another, the life and health of every Californian.

(b) The best hope of stemming the spread of the AIDS virus among the general public is the development of an AIDS vaccine to develop an immunity to exposure.

(c) No vaccine has yet been fully developed, tested, or approved for AIDS. An effective vaccine, especially when directed at high-risk groups of unexposed persons, will virtually eliminate the risk of contracting AIDS, just as the risk of contracting polio and smallpox have been virtually eliminated by earlier vaccine development, production, and use among the general public.

(d) Private industry today has the capability of conducting the vaccine research, biological research, immunology, and genetic engineering of appropriate viral components needed to formulate, develop, produce, and test an AIDS vaccine. Whenever these and other appropriate expertise cannot be found within a single company, the formation of multiinstitutional research groups should be encouraged and prioritized, as it is in the public interest to encourage efforts toward vaccine production.

(e) It is of the highest importance and in the public interest to maximize public protection by developing an AIDS vaccine and by establishing high levels of immunization, initially among high-risk populations.

(f) The continuous spread of AIDS and especially the threat of infection spreading among population groups previously considered low-risk demands that the highest of priorities be given to the development of a universal immunoprophylaxis.

(g) The use of vaccines to control the spread of infectious pathogens is recognized as one of the genuinely decisive technologies of modern medicine. Recent advances in pharmaceutical technology combined with better understanding of the immune process offer the hope of an AIDS vaccine that is effective, safe, relatively inexpensive, and relatively easy to administer.

(h) Utilization of this new science may be forestalled, however, by problems that have recently deterred the development of vaccines by traditional means. These problems must be resolved before the full public health benefits of new approaches to vaccine development can be fully and expeditiously realized.

(i) The marketplace conditions facing vaccine manufacturers and developers today have changed considerably over the past 30 years. Private manufacturers and developers of vaccines cannot be forced to produce vaccines, and may choose, under the free enterprise system, not to produce them if marketplace conditions are unfavorable.

(j) Certain market conditions are slowing and threatening to halt the development of an AIDS vaccine. Any delay in the discovery, testing, approval, and production of the vaccine because of these secondary considerations may cost tens of thousands of human lives annually, unnecessary pain and suffering for hundreds of thousands of infected Americans, and billions of dollars in medical costs and in lost productivity.

(k) Resource constraints in the public and private sectors and the time required to bring vaccines to market presently limit investments in vaccines research and development. Although universities constitute a significant resource in AIDS research in particular and vaccines research in general, university funding limitations and conflicting research priorities make reliance on the resources and expertise of the private pharmaceutical industry a necessary supplement to public funding of AIDS research.

(l) There has been a decrease in the willingness of pharmaceutical companies to become involved in vaccine research, development, and manufacturing because of uncertain profitability and perceived and actual marketplace risks and disincentives.

(m) It is clearly in the public interest to provide appropriate and necessary incentives toward the timely development and production of an effective and safe AIDS vaccine.

(n) The development of an AIDS vaccine provides an exceptionally important benefit, making its availability highly desirable. However, certain conditions may preclude that development, including the following:

(1) There is a high cost for capital expenditures for vaccine development (estimated to be from ten million dollars ($10,000,000) to thirty million dollars ($30,000,000)). Testing costs of clinical trials (twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) per vaccine, by some estimates) are particularly burdensome, especially for smaller firms.

(2) There is an uncertain market demand for a vaccine once development costs have been invested and FDA marketing approval has been secured.

(o) Without state intervention to assure minimal profitability of an AIDS vaccine, inadequate incentives may exist for the private sector to commit resources and expertise to the accelerated development of an AIDS vaccine.

(p) In light of the dangers inherent in the AIDS epidemic to the general public of California, it is crucial that to the extent possible any serious obstacles to the development of such a vaccine be removed.

(q) Because an AIDS vaccine provides an exceptionally important public benefit, it is in the public interest to take uncommon action to facilitate the development and production of such a vaccine.

(r) It is as well in the public interest to assure fair compensation, if necessary at public expense, to any innocent victim who may be injured by an AIDS vaccine, as a part of implementing the socially beneficial policy of establishing high levels of AIDS immunization.

(s) In light of the high incidence of AIDS amongst Californians, the California Legislature must lead our country into the 20th century in this effort.

(t) It is therefore fitting and proper that the State of California enact uncommon and exceptional legislation in order to prevent the further spread of the AIDS epidemic.

SEC. 2. Section 199.47 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

199.47. The Legislature further finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The average cost per patient in the treatment of AIDS until death is now one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000). It is estimated that total costs including health care of the first 10,000 AIDS cases in the United States totaled more than six billion three hundred million dollars ($6,300,000,000). By 1990, according to the State Department of Health Services, Californians will spend almost five billion dollars ($5,000,000,000) in medical costs alone in care and treatment of 30,000 AIDS patients, with no realistic hope for their remission or cure. This cost does not include money spent on education, research, and lost income.

(b) To date, the costs of caring for people with AIDS related complex (ARC) has not been officially calculated. However, it is safe to assume the costs are substantial over time. Experts fear that the illnesses of ARC patients, although they may not be fatal, are severe. For example, the virus invades the brain rendering the patients incapable of caring for themselves. It is, therefore, plausible that a percentage of ARC patients will need to be institutionalized.

(c) The Legislature intends by this chapter to take uncommon action to remove the impediments to the expeditious development of an AIDS vaccine.

(d) It is further the intent of the Legislature to provide to any person, whose injury is proximately caused by the use of the vaccine, except to the extent the injuries are attributable to the comparative negligence of the claimant in the use of the vaccine, all of the following:

(1) Compensation for related medical costs associated with the care and treatment of the injury.

(2) Compensation for the loss of any and all earnings caused by the injury.

(3) Compensation for pain and suffering caused by the injury, except that in no action shall the amount of damages for noneconomic losses exceed five hundred fifty thousand dollars ($550,000).

(e) It is further the intent of the Legislature to establish the AIDS Clinical Trials Testing Fund which will be available to not more than three California manufacturers of an AIDS vaccine approved by the federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for clinical trials with humans. The funds are to be appropriated to the manufacturers specified in the FDA approved protocol for administering the clinical trials.

SEC. 3. Section 199.49 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 199.50 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

199.50. (a) There is hereby created the AIDS Vaccine Victims Compensation Fund.

(b) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "AIDS vaccine" means a vaccine which (A) has been developed by any manufacturer and (B) is approved by the FDA as a safe and efficacious vaccine for the purpose of immunizing against AIDS.

(2) "Board" means the State Board of Control.

(3) "Damages for personal injuries," means the direct medical costs for the care and treatment of injuries to any person, including a person entitled to recover damages under Section 377 of the Code of Civil Procedure, proximately caused by an AIDS vaccine, the loss of earnings caused by the injuries, and the amount necessary, but not to exceed five hundred fifty thousand dollars ($550,000), to compensate for noneconomic losses, including pain and suffering caused by the injuries.

(4) "Fund" means the AIDS Vaccine Victims Compensation Fund.

(c) The board shall pay from the fund, contingent entirely upon the availability of moneys as provided in subdivision (o), damages for personal injuries caused by an AIDS vaccine that is sold in or delivered in California, and administered or dispersed in California to the injured person except that no payment shall be made for any of the following:

(1) Damages for personal injuries caused by the vaccine to the extent that they are attributable to the comparative negligence of the person making the claim.

(2) Damages for personal injuries in any instance in which the manufacturer has been found to be liable for such injuries in a court of law.

(3) Damages for personal injuries due to a vaccination administered during a clinical trial.

(d) An application for payment of damages for personal injuries shall be made on a form prescribed by the board, which application may be required to be verified, within one year of the date that the injury and its cause are discovered. Upon receipt, the board may require the submission of additional information necessary to evaluate the claim.

(e) (1) Within 45 days of the receipt of the application and the submission of any additional information, the board shall do either of the following:

(A) Allow the claim in whole or part.

(B) Disallow the claim.

(2) In those instances of unusual hardship to the victim, the board may grant an emergency award to the injured person to cover immediate needs upon agreement by the injured person to repay in the event of a final determination denying the claim.

(3) If the claim is denied in whole or part, the victim may apply within 60 days of denial for a hearing. The hearing shall be held within 60 days of the request for a hearing unless the injured person requests a later hearing.

(f) At the hearing the injured person may be represented by counsel and may present relevant evidence as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 11513 of the Government Code. The board may consider additional evidence presented by its staff. If the injured person declines to appear at the hearing, the board may act solely upon the application, the staff report, and other evidence that appears on the record.

(g) The board may delegate the hearing of applications to hearing examiners.

(h) The decision of the board shall be in writing and shall be delivered or mailed to the injured person within 30 days of the hearing. Upon the request by the applicant within 30 days of delivery or mailing, the board may reconsider its decision.

(i) Judicial review of a decision shall be under Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and the court shall exercise its independent judgment. A petition for review shall be filed as follows:

(1) If no request for reconsideration is made, within 30 days of personal delivery or mailing of the board's decision on the application.

(2) If a timely request for reconsideration is filed and rejected by the board, within 30 days of personal delivery or mailing of the notice of rejection.

(3) If a timely request for reconsideration is filed and granted by the board, or reconsideration is ordered by the board, within 30 days of personal delivery or mailing of the final decision on the reconsidered application.

(j) The board shall adopt rules and regulations to implement this section, including those governing discovery.

(k) The fund is subrogated to any right or claim that any injured person may have who receives compensation pursuant to this section, or any right or claim that such person's personal representative, legal guardian, estate, or survivor may have, against any third party who is liable for the personal injuries caused by the AIDS vaccine, and the fund shall be entitled to indemnity from that third party. The fund shall also be entitled to a lien on the judgment, award, or settlement in the amount of any payments made to the injured person.

(l) In the event that the injured person, or his or her guardian, personal representative, estate, or survivors, or any of them, bring an action for damages against the person or persons liable for the injury or death giving rise to an award by the board under this section, notice of institution of legal proceedings and notice of any settlement shall be given to the board in Sacramento except in cases where the board specifies that notice shall be given to the Attorney General. All notices shall be given by the attorney employed to bring the action for damages or by the injured person, or his or her guardian, personal representative, estate, or survivors, if no attorney is employed.

(m) This section is not intended to affect the right of any individual to pursue claims against the fund and lawsuits against manufacturers concurrently, except that the fund shall be entitled to a lien on the judgment, award, or settlement in the amount of any payments made to the injured party by the fund.

(n) There is hereby created the AIDS Vaccine Injury

Compensation Policy Review Task Force consisting of 14 members. The task force shall be composed of 10 members appointed by the Governor, of which two shall be from a list provided by the California Trial Lawyers Association, one from the State Department of Health Services, the Director of Finance, one unspecified member, and one attorney with experience and expertise in products liability and negligence defense work, two representing recognized groups which represent victims of vaccine induced injuries or AIDS victims, or both, and two representing manufacturers actively engaged in developing an AIDS vaccine. In addition four Members of the Legislature or their designees shall be appointed to the task force, two of which shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly and two of which shall be appointed by the Senate Rules Committee. The chairperson of the task force shall be appointed by the Governor from the membership of the task force. The task force shall study and make recommendations on the legislative implementation of the fund created by subdivision (a). These recommendations shall at least address the following issues:

(1) The process by which victims are to be compensated through the fund.

(2) The procedures by which the fund will operate and the governance of the fund.

(3) The method by which manufacturers are to pay into the fund and the amount of that payment.

(4) The procedural relationship between a potential victim's claim through the fund and a court claim made against the manufacturer.

(5) Other issues deemed appropriate by the task force.

The task force shall make its recommendations to the Legislature on or before June 30, 1987.

(o) The fund shall be funded wholly by a surcharge on the sale of an FDA-approved AIDS vaccine in California in an amount to be determined by the State Department of Health Services. The surcharge shall be levied on the sale of each unit of the vaccine sold or delivered, administered, or dispensed in California. The appropriate amount of the surcharge shall be studied by the AIDS Vaccine Injury Compensation Policy Review Task Force which shall recommend the appropriate amount as part of its report, with the amount of the surcharge not to exceed ten dollars ($10) per unit of vaccine. Expenditures of the task force shall be made at the discretion of the Director of Finance or the director's designee.

(p) For purposes of this section, claims against the fund are contingent upon the existing resources of the fund as provided in subdivision (o), and in no case shall the state be liable for any claims in excess of the resources in the fund.

SEC. 5. Section 199.51 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

199.51. (a) Because the development of a vaccine now costs somewhere between twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) and forty million dollars ($40,000,000), and because the last vaccine produced and marketed did not sell well, vaccine manufacturers are hesitant to proceed to invest their resources in such a risky venture. It is, therefore, in the public health interest of California to assure that manufacturers proceed to develop this vaccine and protect Californians against this dread disease and protect the State of California against the enormous fiscal costs of treatment for persons getting AIDS. It is a sound and worthwhile investment to provide a guarantee of a market to lessen the risk of loss and assure the development of an AIDS vaccine.

It is anticipated that this AIDS vaccine will consist of a three-unit series. The State of California is willing to guarantee that at least 175,000 persons will be vaccinated, and to guarantee the purchase, within three years after the FDA approves marketing of an AIDS vaccine, of at least 500,000 units, at a cost of no more than twenty dollars ($20) per dosage, by all companies, anywhere in the United States.

Therefore, the State of California, by moneys to be appropriated later through the Budget Act, commits itself to purchasing, at the end of three years after the FDA has approved the marketing on a competitive basis, at not more than twenty dollars ($20) per dosage, the difference between 500,000 units and the actual amount sold, delivered, administered, or dispensed by all companies throughout the United States, including units sold to or reimbursed by Medi-Cal, Medicare, or other public programs, providing that less than 500,000 units are sold, delivered, administered, or dispensed.

(b) The AIDS Vaccine Guaranteed Purchase Fund is hereby established and shall be administered by the State Department of Health Services, which may develop necessary regulations to carry out the purpose of this section.

(c) The State Department of Health Services is hereby authorized to carry out this section, when such funds are appropriated through the state budget. In determining which vaccine shall be purchased by the state from among those manufacturers selling or distributing in California, an FDA-approved AIDS vaccine, the State Department of Health Services shall take into consideration at least all of the following factors:

(1) The length of time each AIDS vaccine has been in the marketplace in California.

(2) Each AIDS vaccine's history of efficacy since FDA approval.

(3) Each AIDS vaccine's history of side effects experienced by previous recipients of the vaccine.

(4) The relative cost of each competing manufacturer's AIDS vaccine.

SEC. 6. Section 199.78 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

199.78. (a) The state department may use funds appropriated to it to pay the costs, including reimbursements to contractors for administrative costs, of providing home and community-based services to eligible persons with a diagnosis of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) or AIDS related conditions (ARC) when the funds are appropriated for that purpose.

(b) To the extent that federal financial participation is available, each department within the Health and Welfare Agency, including departments designated as single state agencies for public social services programs, shall waive regulations and general policies and make resources available when necessary for the provision of home and community-based care services to eligible persons with a diagnosis of AIDS or ARC.

SEC. 7. Section 14132 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14132. The following is the schedule of benefits under this chapter:

(a) Outpatient services are covered as follows:

Physician, hospital or clinic outpatient, surgical center, optometric, chiropractic, psychology, podiatric, occupational therapy, physical therapy, speech therapy, audiology, acupuncture to the extent federal matching funds are provided for acupuncture, and services of persons rendering treatment by prayer or healing by spiritual means in the practice of any church or religious denomination insofar as these can be encompassed by federal participation under an approved plan, subject to utilization controls.

(b) Inpatient hospital services, including, but not limited to, physician and podiatric services, physical therapy and occupational therapy, are covered subject to utilization controls.

(c) Skilled nursing facility services, including podiatry, physician, nurse practitioner services, and prescribed drugs, as described in subdivision (d), are covered subject to utilization controls. Physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, and audiology services for patients in skilled nursing facilities are covered subject to utilization controls.

(d) Purchase of prescribed drugs is covered subject to the Medi-Cal Drug Formulary and utilization controls.

(e) Outpatient dialysis services and home hemodialysis services, including physician services, medical supplies, drugs and equipment required for dialysis, are covered, subject to utilization controls.

(f) Anesthesiologist services when provided as part of an outpatient medical procedure, nurse anesthetists services when rendered in an inpatient or outpatient setting under conditions set forth by the director, outpatient laboratory services, and X-ray services are covered, subject to utilization controls. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to require prior authorization for anesthesiologist services provided as part of an outpatient medical procedure or for portable X-ray services in an intermediate care facility or a skilled nursing facility.

(g) Blood and blood derivatives are covered.

(h) Emergency and essential diagnostic and restorative dental services, except for orthodontic, fixed bridgework, and partial dentures that are not necessary for balance of a complete artificial denture, are covered, subject to utilization controls. The utilization controls shall allow emergency and essential diagnostic and restorative dental services and prostheses that are necessary to prevent a significant disability or to replace previously furnished prostheses which are lost or destroyed due to circumstances beyond the beneficiary's control. The department's utilization controls shall not require X-rays as a condition of reimbursement for fillings for children under 18 years of age. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the director may by regulation provide for certain fixed artificial dentures necessary for obtaining employment or for medical conditions which preclude the use of removable dental prostheses, and for orthodontic services in cleft palate deformities administered by the department's crippled children services program.

(i) Medical transportation is covered, subject to utilization controls.

(j) Home health care services are covered, subject to utilization controls.

(k) Prosthetic and orthotic devices and eyeglasses are covered, subject to utilization controls. Utilization controls shall allow replacement of prosthetic and orthotic devices and eyeglasses necessary because of loss or destruction due to circumstances beyond the beneficiary's control. Frame styles for eyeglasses replaced pursuant to this subdivision shall not change more than once every two years, unless the department so directs.

Orthopedic and conventional shoes are covered when provided by a prosthetic and orthotic supplier on the prescription of a physician and when at least one of the shoes will be attached to a prosthesis or brace, subject to utilization controls. Modification of stock conventional or orthopedic shoes when medically indicated, is covered subject to utilization controls. When there is a clearly established medical need that cannot be satisfied by the modification of stock conventional or orthopedic shoes, custom-made orthopedic shoes are covered, subject to utilization controls.

(l) Hearing aids are covered, subject to utilization controls. Utilization controls shall allow replacement of hearing aids necessary because of loss or destruction due to circumstances beyond the beneficiary's control.

(m) Durable medical equipment and medical supplies are covered, subject to utilization controls. The utilization controls shall allow the replacement of durable medical equipment and medical supplies when necessary because of loss or destruction due to circumstances beyond the beneficiary's control.

(n) Intermediate care facility services, including physician services, nurse practitioner services pursuant to Section 14115.6, and prescribed drugs as described in subdivision (d) are covered, subject to utilization controls. Physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy and audiology services for patients in intermediate care facilities are covered subject to utilization controls.

(o) Family planning services are covered, subject to utilization controls.

(p) Inpatient intensive rehabilitation hospital services in a general acute care hospital are covered, subject to utilization controls, when the following criteria are met:

(1) A patient with a permanent disability or severe impairment requires an inpatient intensive rehabilitation hospital program as described in Section 14064 to develop function beyond the limited amount that would occur in the normal course of recovery; or

(2) A patient with a chronic or progressive disease requires an inpatient intensive rehabilitation hospital program as described in Section 14064 to maintain the patient's present functional level as long as possible.

(q) Adult day health care is covered in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 8.7 (commencing with Section 14520) of this part.

(r) Application of fluoride, or other appropriate fluoride treatment as defined by the department, other prophylaxis treatment for children 17 years of age and under, are covered.

(s) Paramedic services performed by a city, county, or special district, or pursuant to a contract with a city, county, or special district, and pursuant to a program established under Article 3 (commencing with Section 1480) of Chapter 2.5 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code by a paramedic certified pursuant to that article, and consisting of defibrillation and those services specified in subdivision (3) of Section 1482 of the article.

This subdivision shall be in effect only to the extent federal financial participation is available as set forth in Section 14106.6.

(t) In-home medical care services are covered when medically appropriate and subject to utilization controls, for beneficiaries who would otherwise require care for an extended period of time in an acute care hospital at a cost higher than in-home medical care services. The director shall have the authority under this section to contract with organizations qualified to provide in-home medical care services to such persons. These services may be provided to patients placed in facilities such as skilled nursing or intermediate care facilities, or to persons in shared or congregate living arrangements, if a home setting is not medically appropriate or available to the beneficiary. As used in this section, "in-home medical care service" includes utility bills directly attributable to continuous, 24-hour operation of life-sustaining medical equipment, to the extent that federal financial participation is available.

As used in this subdivision, in-home medical care services, include, but are not limited to:

(1) Level of care and cost of care evaluations.

(2) Expenses, directly attributable to home care activities, for materials.

(3) Physician fees for home visits.

(4) Expenses directly attributable to home care activities for shelter and modification to shelter.

(5) Expenses directly attributable to additional costs of special diets, including tube feeding.

(6) Medically related personal services.

(7) Home nursing education.

(8) Emergency maintenance repair.

(9) Home health agency personnel benefits which permit coverage of care during periods when regular personnel are on vacation or using sick leave.

(10) All services needed to maintain antiseptic conditions at stoma or shunt sites on the body.

(11) Emergency and nonemergency medical transportation.

(12) Medical supplies.

(13) Medical equipment, including, but not limited to, scales, gurneys, and equipment racks suitable for paralyzed patients.

(14) Utility use directly attributable to the requirements of home care activities which are in addition to normal utility use.

(15) Special drugs and medications.

(16) Home health agency supervision of visiting staff which is medically necessary, but not included in the home health agency rate.

(17) Therapy services.

(18) Household appliances and household utensil costs directly attributable to home care activities.

(19) Modification of medical equipment for home use.

(20) Training and orientation for use of life support systems, including, but not limited to support of respiratory functions.

Beneficiaries receiving in-home medical care services are entitled to the full range of services within the Medi-Cal scope of benefits as defined by this section, subject to medical necessity and applicable utilization control. Services provided pursuant to this subdivision, which are not otherwise included in the Medi-Cal schedule of benefits, shall be available only to the extent that federal financial participation for these services is available in accordance with a home and community-based services waiver.

(u) Home and community-based services approved by the United States Department of Health and Human Services may be covered to the extent that federal financial participation is available for such services under waivers granted in accordance with Section 1915 of the federal Social Security Act. The director may seek waivers for any or all home and community-based services approvable under Section 1915 of the federal Social Security Act. Coverage for such services shall be limited by the terms, conditions, and duration of the federal waivers.

The department shall submit a report, as provided in Section 28 of the 1982 Budget Act, 30 days prior to providing these services as Medi-Cal benefits. The report shall be submitted to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and the fiscal committees and shall address the cost effectiveness of services provided pursuant to this subdivision.

(v) Comprehensive perinatal services, as provided through an agreement with a health care provider designated in Section 14134.5 and meeting the standards developed by the department pursuant to Section 14134.5, subject to utilization controls.

The department shall seek any federal waivers necessary to implement the provisions of this subdivision. The provisions for which appropriate federal waivers cannot be obtained shall not be implemented. Provisions for which waivers are obtained or for which waivers are not required shall be implemented notwithstanding any inability to obtain federal waivers for the other provisions. No provision of this subdivision shall be implemented unless matching funds from Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act are available.

(w) Early and periodic screening, diagnosis, and treatment for any individual under 21 years of age is covered, consistent with the requirements of Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act.

(x) Hospice service which is Medicare-certified hospice service is covered, subject to utilization controls. Coverage shall be available only to the extent that no additional net program costs are incurred.

(y) When a claim for treatment provided to a beneficiary includes both services which are authorized and reimbursable under this chapter, and services which are not reimbursable under this chapter, that portion of the claim for the treatment and services authorized and reimbursable under this chapter shall be payable.

(z) Home and community-based services approved by the United States Department of Health and Human Services for beneficiaries with a diagnosis of AIDS or ARC, who require an intermediate care facility or a higher level of care.

Services provided pursuant to a waiver obtained from the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services pursuant to this subdivision, and which are not otherwise included in the Medi-Cal schedule of benefits, shall be available only to the extent that federal financial participation for these services is available in accordance with the waiver, and subject to the terms, conditions, and duration of the waiver. These services shall be provided to individual beneficiaries in accordance with the client's needs as identified in the plan of care, and subject to medical necessity and applicable utilization control.

The director may under this section contract with organizations qualified to provide, directly or by subcontract, services provided for in this subdivision to eligible beneficiaries. Contracts or agreements entered into pursuant to this division shall not be subject to the Public Contract Code.

SEC. 8. Section 14132.45 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14132.45. Regulations implementing, interpreting, or making specific the provisions of subdivision (z) of Section 14132 shall not be subject to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 9. Section 2 of Chapter 1463 of the Statutes of 1986 is amended to read:

Sec. 2. The sum of six million fifty thousand dollars ($6,050,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) For expenditures in fiscal year 1986–87 for purpose of subsidizing any clinical trials with humans for an acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) vaccine which are approved by a federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA) protocol. The funds shall be allocated by the State Department of Health Services in amounts up to one million dollars ($1,000,000) for each of up to three sites or manufacturers with management or officers based in this state and operations for the research and manufacture of an AIDS vaccine in this state, who receive FDA approval for clinical trials. The funds shall be provided to the state department for disbursement to the sites or manufacturers approved in the FDA protocol and for the purposes set forth in the protocol. The funds shall be disbursed to FDA approved sites or manufacturers within 90 days of a request from the FDA approved sites or manufacturers. The unencumbered and unexpended balance of funds appropriated pursuant to this subdivision, on June 30, 1987, shall be carried over for expenditure pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section .... $3,000,000

(b) For expenditure and allocation in the same manner and for the same purposes as described in subdivision (a) of this section, in fiscal year 1987–88 ..... $3,000,000

(c) For purposes of the AIDS Vaccine Injury Compensation Policy Review Task Force, established pursuant to Section 199.50, to be expended at the discretion of the Director of Finance or the director's designee ..... $ 50,000

CHAPTER 1556

An act to amend Section 597 of the Penal Code, relating to animals.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 597 of the Penal Code, as amended by Chapter 127 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

597. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), every person who maliciously and intentionally maims, mutilates, tortures, or wounds a living animal which is the property of the person or which is the property of another, or maliciously and intentionally kills an animal which is the property of the person or which is the property of another, is guilty of an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment, or, alternatively, by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (a) or (c), every person who overdrives, overloads, drives when overloaded, overworks, tortures, torments, deprives of necessary sustenance, drink, or shelter, cruelly beats, mutilates, or cruelly kills any animal, or causes or procures any animal to be so overdriven, overloaded, driven when overloaded, overworked, tortured, tormented, deprived of necessary sustenance, drink, shelter, or to be cruelly beaten, mutilated, or cruelly killed; and whoever, having the charge or custody of any animal, either as owner or otherwise, subjects any animal to needless suffering, or inflicts unnecessary cruelty upon the animal, or in any manner abuses any animal, or fails to provide the animal with proper food, drink, or shelter or protection from the weather, or who drives, rides, or otherwise uses the animal when unfit for labor, is, for every such offense, guilty of an offense punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(c) Every person who maliciously and intentionally maims, mutilates, or tortures any mammal, bird, reptile, amphibian, or fish as described in subdivision (d), is guilty of an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment, or, alternatively, by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(d) Subdivision (c) applies to any mammal, bird, reptile, amphibian, or fish which is a creature described as follows:

(1) Endangered species or threatened species as described in Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 2050) of Division 3 of the Fish and Game Code.

(2) Fully protected birds described in Section 3511 of the Fish and Game Code.

(3) Fully protected mammals described in Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 4700) of Part 3 of Division 4 of the Fish and Game Code.

(4) Fully protected reptiles and amphibians described in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 5050) of Division 5 of the Fish and Game Code.

(5) Fully protected fish as described in Section 5515 of the Fish and Game Code.

This subdivision does not supersede or affect any provisions of law relating to taking of the described species, including, but not limited to, Section 12008 of the Fish and Game Code.

(e) For the purposes of subdivision (c), each act of malicious and intentional maiming, mutilating, or torturing a separate specimen of a creature described in subdivision (d) is a separate offense. If any person is charged with a violation of subdivision (c), the proceedings shall be subject to Section 12157 of the Fish and Game Code.

(f) Upon the conviction of a person charged with a violation of this section by causing or permitting an act of cruelty, as defined in Section 599b, all animals lawfully seized and impounded with respect to the violation by a peace officer, officer of a humane society, or officer of a pound or animal regulation department of a public agency shall be adjudged by the court to be forfeited and shall thereupon be awarded to the impounding officer for proper disposition. A person convicted of a violation of this section by causing or permitting an act of cruelty, as defined in Section 599b, shall be liable to the impounding officer for all costs of impoundment from the time of seizure to the time of proper disposition.

Mandatory seizure or impoundment shall not apply to animals in properly conducted scientific experiments or investigations performed under the authority of the faculty of a regularly incorporated medical college or university of this state.

SEC. 2. Section 597 of the Penal Code, as amended by Chapter 127 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

597. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), every person who maliciously and intentionally maims, mutilates, tortures, or wounds a living animal which is the property of the person or which is the property of another, or maliciously and intentionally kills an animal which is the property of the person or which is the property of another, is guilty of an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment, or, alternatively, by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (a) or (c), every person who overdrives, overloads, drives when overloaded, overworks, tortures, torments, deprives of necessary sustenance, drink, or shelter, cruelly beats, mutilates, or cruelly kills any animal, or causes or procures any animal to be so overdriven, overloaded, driven when overloaded, overworked, tortured, tormented, deprived of necessary sustenance, drink, shelter, or to be cruelly beaten, mutilated, or cruelly killed; and whoever, having the charge or custody of any animal, either as owner or otherwise, subjects any animal to needless suffering, or inflicts unnecessary cruelty upon the animal, or in any manner abuses any animal, or fails to provide the animal with proper food, drink, or shelter or protection from the weather, or who drives, rides, or otherwise uses the animal when unfit for labor, is, for every such offense, guilty of a crime punishable as a misdemeanor or as a felony or alternatively punishable as a misdemeanor or felony and by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).

(c) Every person who maliciously and intentionally maims, mutilates, or tortures any mammal, bird, reptile, amphibian, or fish as described in subdivision (d), is guilty of an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment, or, alternatively, by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(d) Subdivision (c) applies to any mammal, bird, reptile, amphibian, or fish which is a creature described as follows:

(1) Endangered species or threatened species as described in Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 2050) of Division 3 of the Fish and Game Code.

(2) Fully protected birds described in Section 3511 of the Fish and Game Code.

(3) Fully protected mammals described in Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 4700) of Part 3 of Division 4 of the Fish and Game Code.

(4) Fully protected reptiles and amphibians described in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 5050) of Division 5 of the Fish and Game Code.

(5) Fully protected fish as described in Section 5515 of the Fish and Game Code.

This subdivision does not supersede or affect any provisions of law relating to taking of the described species, including, but not limited to, Section 12008 of the Fish and Game Code.

(e) For the purposes of subdivision (c), each act of malicious and intentional maiming, mutilating, or torturing a separate specimen of a creature described in subdivision (d) is a separate offense. If any person is charged with a violation of subdivision (c), the proceedings shall be subject to Section 12157 of the Fish and Game Code.

(f) Upon the conviction of a person charged with a violation of this section by causing or permitting an act of cruelty, as defined in Section 599b, all animals lawfully seized and impounded with respect to the violation by a peace officer, officer of a humane society, or officer of a pound or animal regulation department of a public agency shall be adjudged by the court to be forfeited and shall thereupon be awarded to the impounding officer for proper disposition. A person convicted of a violation of this section by causing or permitting an act of cruelty, as defined in Section 599b, shall be liable to the impounding officer for all costs of impoundment from the time of seizure to the time of proper disposition.

Mandatory seizure or impoundment shall not apply to animals in properly conducted scientific experiments or investigations performed under the authority of the faculty of a regularly incorporated medical college or university of this state.

SEC 3. Section 597 of the Penal Code, as amended by Chapter 127 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

597. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c) of this section or Section 599c, every person who maliciously and intentionally maims, mutilates, tortures, or wounds a living animal, or maliciously and intentionally kills an animal , is guilty of an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment, or, alternatively, by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (a) or (c), every person who overdrives, overloads, drives when overloaded, overworks, tortures, torments, deprives of necessary sustenance, drink, or shelter, cruelly beats, mutilates, or cruelly kills any animal, or causes or procures any animal to be so overdriven, overloaded, driven when overloaded, overworked, tortured, tormented, deprived of necessary sustenance, drink, shelter, or to be cruelly beaten, mutilated, or cruelly killed; and whoever, having the charge or custody of any animal, either as owner or otherwise, subjects any animal to needless suffering, or inflicts unnecessary cruelty upon the animal, or in any manner abuses any animal, or fails to provide the animal with proper food, drink, or shelter or protection from the weather, or who drives, rides, or otherwise uses the animal when unfit for labor, is, for every such offense, guilty of an offense punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(c) Every person who maliciously and intentionally maims, mutilates, or tortures any mammal, bird, reptile, amphibian, or fish as described in subdivision (d), is guilty of an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment, or, alternatively, by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(d) Subdivision (c) applies to any mammal, bird, reptile, amphibian, or fish which is a creature described as follows:

(1) Endangered species or threatened species as described in Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 2050) of Division 3 of the Fish and Game Code.

(2) Fully protected birds described in Section 3511 of the Fish and Game Code.

(3) Fully protected mammals described in Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 4700) of Part 3 of Division 4 of the Fish and Game Code.

(4) Fully protected reptiles and amphibians described in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 5050) of Division 5 of the Fish and Game Code.

(5) Fully protected fish as described in Section 5515 of the Fish and Game Code.

This subdivision does not supersede or affect any provisions of law relating to taking of the described species, including, but not limited to, Section 12008 of the Fish and Game Code.

(e) For the purposes of subdivision (c), each act of malicious and intentional maiming, mutilating, or torturing a separate specimen of a creature described in subdivision (d) is a separate offense. If any person is charged with a violation of subdivision (c), the proceedings shall be subject to Section 12157 of the Fish and Game Code.

(f) Upon the conviction of a person charged with a violation of this section by causing or permitting an act of cruelty, as defined in Section 599b, all animals lawfully seized and impounded with respect to the violation by a peace officer, officer of a humane society, or officer of a pound or animal regulation department of a public agency shall be adjudged by the court to be forfeited and shall thereupon be awarded to the impounding officer for proper disposition. A person convicted of a violation of this section by causing or permitting an act of cruelty, as defined in Section 599b, shall be liable to the impounding officer for all costs of impoundment from the time of seizure to the time of proper disposition.

Mandatory seizure or impoundment shall not apply to animals in properly conducted scientific experiments or investigations performed under the authority of the faculty of a regularly incorporated medical college or university of this state.

SEC. 4. Section 597 of the Penal Code, as amended by Chapter 127 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

597. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c) of this section or Section 599c, every person who maliciously and intentionally maims, mutilates, tortures, or wounds a living animal, or maliciously and intentionally kills an animal , is guilty of an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment, or, alternatively, by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (a) or (c), every person who overdrives, overloads, drives when overloaded, overworks, tortures, torments, deprives of necessary sustenance, drink, or shelter, cruelly beats, mutilates, or cruelly kills any animal, or causes or procures any animal to be so overdriven, overloaded, driven when overloaded, overworked, tortured, tormented, deprived of necessary sustenance, drink, shelter, or to be cruelly beaten, mutilated, or cruelly killed; and whoever, having the charge or custody of any animal, either as owner or otherwise, subjects any animal to needless suffering, or inflicts unnecessary cruelty upon the animal, or in any manner abuses any animal, or fails to provide the animal with proper food, drink, or shelter or protection from the weather, or who drives, rides, or otherwise uses the animal when unfit for labor, is, for every such offense, guilty of a crime punishable as a misdemeanor or as a felony or alternatively punishable as a misdemeanor or a felony and by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).

(c) Every person who maliciously and intentionally maims, mutilates, or tortures any mammal, bird, reptile, amphibian, or fish as described in subdivision (d), is guilty of an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment, or, alternatively, by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, by a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(d) Subdivision (c) applies to any mammal, bird, reptile, amphibian, or fish which is a creature described as follows:

(1) Endangered species or threatened species as described in Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 2050) of Division 3 of the Fish and Game Code.

(2) Fully protected birds described in Section 3511 of the Fish and Game Code.

(3) Fully protected mammals described in Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 4700) of Part 3 of Division 4 of the Fish and Game Code.

(4) Fully protected reptiles and amphibians described in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 5050) of Division 5 of the Fish and Game Code.

(5) Fully protected fish as described in Section 5515 of the Fish and Game Code.

This subdivision does not supersede or affect any provisions of law relating to taking of the described species, including, but not limited to, Section 12008 of the Fish and Game Code.

(e) For the purposes of subdivision (c), each act of malicious and intentional maiming, mutilating, or torturing a separate specimen of a creature described in subdivision (d) is a separate offense. If any person is charged with a violation of subdivision (c), the proceedings shall be subject to Section 12157 of the Fish and Game Code.

(f) Upon the conviction of a person charged with a violation of this section by causing or permitting an act of cruelty, as defined in Section 599b, all animals lawfully seized and impounded with respect to the violation by a peace officer, officer of a humane society, or officer of a pound or animal regulation department of a public agency shall be adjudged by the court to be forfeited and shall thereupon be awarded to the impounding officer for proper disposition. A person convicted of a violation of this section by causing or permitting an act of cruelty, as defined in Section 599b, shall be liable to the impounding officer for all costs of impoundment from the time of seizure to the time of proper disposition.

Mandatory seizure or impoundment shall not apply to animals in properly conducted scientific experiments or investigations performed under the authority of the faculty of a regularly incorporated medical college or university of this state.

SEC. 5. (a) Section 2 of this bill incorporates, in substantial part, amendments to Section 597 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and SB 2136. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 597 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 2863 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 2136, in which case Sections 1, 3, and 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 597 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2863. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 597 of the Penal Code, (3) SB 2136 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 2863 in which case Sections 1, 2, and 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 4 of this bill incorporates, in substantial part, amendments to Section 597 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, SB 2136, and AB 2863. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective January 1, 1989, (2) all three bills amend Section 597 of the Penal Code, (3) this bill is enacted after SB 2136 and AB 2863, in which case Sections 1, 2, and 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1557

An act to amend Section 4709 of the Labor Code, relating to firefighters.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4709 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4709. (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, each dependent of any chief of police, police officer, sheriff, deputy sheriff, marshal or deputy marshal of the municipal courts, or member of the California Highway Patrol who is killed in the performance of duty or who dies or is totally disabled as a result of an accident or an injury caused by external violence or physical force, incurred in the performance of duty, when the death, accident, or injury is compensable under this division or Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 6100) shall be entitled to a scholarship at any one of the institutions of collegiate grade located in California if the institution offers a two-year junior college or four-year college course and is accredited or is a candidate for accreditation by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges. The scholarship is to include payment of tuition and fees, monthly allowance, books, and supplies. If the dependent attends a four-year college or university, the scholarship award shall not exceed six thousand dollars ($6,000) over a period not to exceed six years, with a maximum of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) per year if he or she has demonstrated his or her financial need for the scholarship. If the dependent attends a community college, the scholarship award shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500) per year for a period not to exceed four years. This shall not preclude any other benefits provided by law.

(b) Each dependent of an officer or employee of the Department of Corrections or the Department of Youth Authority described in Section 20017.77 of the Government Code who is killed in the performance of duty, or who dies or is totally disabled as a result of an accident or an injury incurred in the performance of duty, when the death, accident, or injury is caused by the direct action of an inmate, and is compensable under this division or Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 6100), shall also be entitled to a scholarship specified in this section.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, each dependent of any firefighter employed by counties, cities, cities and counties, districts and other political subdivisions of the state, who is killed in the performance of duty or who dies or is totally disabled as a result of an accident or injury incurred in the performance of duty, when the death, accident, or injury is compensable under this division or Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 6100), shall also be entitled to a scholarship specified in this section. The scholarship provided for by this subdivision shall be paid out of funds annually appropriated in the Budget Act to the Student Aid Commission established by Article 2 (commencing with Section 69510) of Chapter 2 of Part 42 of the Education Code.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to allow the admittance of the dependent into a college or university unless the dependent is otherwise qualified to gain admittance to the college or university.

As used in this section, "dependent" means the children (natural or adopted), at the time of his or her death, of the peace officer, law enforcement officer, or firefighter who is killed, or who receives injuries which result in his or her subsequent death.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1558

An act to add and repeal Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 15399.40) of Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of, and to add and repeal Section 16429.51 of, the Government Code, relating to economic development, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 15399.40) is added to Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 10. SUPERCOMPUTER CENTER

15399.40. It is the intent of the Legislature to provide an investment package of up to two million dollars ($2,000,000) annually, for the 1989–90, 1990–91, and 1991–92 fiscal years, for the graphics and animations facility at the San Diego Supercomputer Center and seventy thousand dollars ($70,000), including forty-five thousand dollars ($45,000) in private sector matching funds, for a study regarding the development and operation of an additional supercomputer center in coordination with the Technology Center of Silicon Valley and the San Diego Supercomputer Center.

15399.41. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that there be established in the state, based on recommendations of the study required by this section, a supercomputer center in coordination with the Technology Center of Silicon Valley and the San Diego Supercomputer Center.

(b) The purpose of the study shall be to do all of the following:

(1) Identify the supercomputer needs in the state considering the availability of existing supercomputers.

(2) Identify the most cost-effective methods for establishing a center pursuant to this section.

(3) Identify potential sources of funding for establishing a center pursuant to this section.

(4) Identify any additional needs and costs for the San Diego Supercomputer Center.

(5) Identify the potential of attracting more business to California as a result of supercomputer capabilities.

(c) The Department of Commerce shall contract for the preparation of the study described in this section and shall submit the completed study to the Legislature no later than September 30, 1989.

15399.42. The sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) is hereby appropriated from the moneys deposited in the California Unitary Fund to the Department of Commerce for the purpose of contracting for the study pursuant to Section 15399.41. This appropriation shall be contingent upon the receipt of forty-five thousand dollars ($45,000) in private sector matching funds by the department.

15399.43. This chapter shall become inoperative on June 30, 1992, and, as of January 1, 1993, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes operative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 16429.51 is added to the Government Code, to read:

16429.51. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, there is hereby transferred annually to the Supercomputer Center Account, which is hereby created in the General Fund, on July 1 for each of the 1989–90, 1990–91, and 1991–92 fiscal years the amount of two million dollars ($2,000,000) from the moneys deposited in the California Unitary Fund. Funds so transferred to the account are hereby appropriated for the purposes of Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 15399.40) of Part 6.7.

(b) The Legislature declares the following:

(1) The moneys transferred pursuant to this section are for the one-time purchase of a graphics facility and shall not be used for operating expenses.

(2) The total expenditure of six million dollars ($6,000,000) is being distributed over a three-year period for financing purposes and to diffuse the impact on the California Unitary Fund.

(3) The graphics facility will promote economic development in this state and is an appropriate use of moneys in the California Unitary Fund.

(c) This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1992, and, as of January 1, 1993, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

CHAPTER 1559

An act to add Section 226 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 226 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

226. (a) Personal property consisting of qualified computer equipment shall be exempt from taxation.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified computer equipment" means all computer equipment of the San Diego Supercomputer Center located on the campus of the University of California, San Diego.

(2) "Computer equipment" includes, but is not limited to, any supercomputer and all peripheral computer and other equipment related to the system of which the supercomputer is the principal component and all other equipment that becomes a part of that supercomputer system.

SEC. 2. The Legislature, in enacting Section 1 of this act, finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution due to the following unique circumstances:

The Integrated Supercomputer System located at the San Diego Supercomputer Center on the San Diego campus of the University of California is one of only five supercomputer centers in the United States which is established to fulfill objectives set by the National Science Foundation and is the only center of its kind in this state. This center provides a significant computational resource for research and related educational activities conducted by state-funded public universities and colleges. Funding for the operation of this center comes primarily from the National Science Foundation and the State of California, with the state having also contributed the site for the center and capital improvements for its operation.

SEC. 3. This act would make a classification or exemption of property for purposes of ad valorem property taxation within the meaning of Section 2229 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 4. This act shall be applicable to property taxes levied for the 1988–89 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the exemption provided by this act may be made applicable to the 1988-89 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1560

An act to amend the heading of Division 4.1 (commencing with Section 8301) of, to add a chapter heading to Division 4.1 (commencing with Section 8301) of, to amend Section 8301 of, to add Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 8321) to Division 4.1 of, and to repeal Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 1361) of Part 1 of Division 1 of, the Public Utilities Code, relating to electricity.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 1361) of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Public Utilities Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. The heading of Division 4.1 (commencing with Section 8301) of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

DIVISION 4.1. PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO PRIVATELY OWNED AND PUBLICLY OWNED PUBLIC UTILITIES

SEC. 3. A chapter heading is added to Division 4.1 (commencing with Section 8301) of the Public Utilities Code, immediately preceding Section 8301 thereof, to read:

CHAPTER 1. NUCLEAR POWERPLANT COMMUNITIES INFORMATION

SEC. 4. Section 8301 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

8301. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Nuclear Powerplant Communities Information Act of 1985.

SEC. 5. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 8321) is added to Division 4.1 of the Public Utilities Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2. DECOMMISSIONING OF NUCLEAR FACILITIES

8321. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Nuclear Facility Decommissioning Act of 1985.

8322. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The citizens of California should be protected from exposure to radiation from nuclear facilities.

(b) It is in the best interests of all citizens of California that the costs of electricity generated by nuclear facilities be fairly distributed among present and future California electric customers so that customers are charged only for costs that are reasonably and prudently incurred.

(c) The costs of electricity generated by nuclear facilities, including the costs of their decontamination and decommissioning, should be reduced to the lowest level consistent with public health and safety.

(d) The ultimate costs of the decommissioning of nuclear facilities are of significant magnitude, and introduce an element of financial risk to both electric customers and investors unless prudent provision is made for defraying those costs.

(e) In order to reduce both risk and ultimate costs for all of its citizens, the State of California should establish a comprehensive framework for timely payment of the costs of decommissioning, and provide for allocation of risks and costs among the respective interests.

(f) The principal considerations in establishing a state policy respecting the economic aspects of decommissioning are as follows:

(1) Assuring that the funds required for decommissioning are available at the time and in the amount required for protection of the public.

(2) Minimizing the cost to electric customers of an acceptable level of assurance.

(3) Structuring payments for decommissioning so that electric customers and investors are treated equitably over time so that customers are charged only for costs that are reasonably and prudently incurred.

(g) Decommissioning nuclear facilities causes electric utility employees to become unemployed through no fault of their own, and these employees are entitled to reasonable job protection the costs of which are properly includable in the costs of decommissioning.

8323. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this chapter to protect electric customers, both present and future, from the risks of unreasonable costs associated with ownership and operation of nuclear powerplants. To that end, the commission or board with respect to each electric utility owning or operating a nuclear powerplant, shall develop regulations and guidelines that promote realism in estimating costs, provide periodic review procedures that create maximum incentives for accurate cost estimations, and provide for decommissioning cost controls.

8324. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this section govern the construction of this chapter.

(a) "Board" means the board of directors or other governing body of a publicly owned public utility owning or operating a nuclear power plant.

(b) "Commission" means the Public Utilities Commission.

(c) "Electrical utility" includes both an electrical corporation subject to the jurisdiction and control of the commission and a publicly owned public utility subject to the jurisdiction and control of its board, in either case owning or operating nuclear facilities for the generation of electricity.

(d) "Decommissioning" means to remove nuclear facilities safely from service and to reduce residual radioactivity to a level that permits release of the property for unrestricted use and termination of license, or as otherwise defined by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission or its successor. Decommissioning includes other activities and costs, if any, which may be included in Internal Revenue Service regulations implementing Section 468A of the United States Internal Revenue Code.

(e) "Nuclear facilities" means the site, building and contents, and equipment associated with any activity licensed by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, or as may be otherwise defined by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission or its successor.

8325. (a) Each electrical corporation owning, in whole or in part, or operating nuclear facilities, located in California or elsewhere, shall establish an externally managed, segregated fund for the purposes of this chapter. In addition, each electrical corporation may establish other funds, as appropriate, for payment of decommissioning costs of nuclear facilities.

(b) The externally managed, segregated fund established pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be a fund which qualifies for a tax deduction pursuant to Section 468A of the United States Internal Revenue Code, and applicable regulations of the Internal Revenue Service adopted pursuant thereto, if that tax treatment is determined by the commission to be in the best long-term interests of the customers of the electrical utility.

(c) The commission shall authorize an electrical corporation to collect sufficient revenues in rates to make the maximum contributions to the fund established pursuant to Section 468A of the United States Internal Revenue Code and applicable regulations, that are deductible for federal and state income tax purposes, and to otherwise recover the revenue requirements associated with reasonable and prudent decommissioning costs of the nuclear facilities for purposes of making contributions into other funds established pursuant to subdivision (a).

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, an electrical utility, which is a publicly owned public utility subject to the jurisdiction and control of its board, shall establish and may manage a separate fund for purposes of this chapter. The board shall provide that the amounts of all payments into this fund are recoverable through the utility's electric rates.

8326. (a) Each electrical utility owning, in whole or in part, or operating a nuclear facility, located in California or elsewhere, shall provide a decommissioning cost estimate to the commission or the board for all nuclear facilities which shall include all of the following:

(1) An estimate of costs of decommissioning.

(2) A description of changes in regulation, technology, and economics affecting the estimate of costs.

(3) A description of additions and deletions to nuclear facilities.

(4) Upon request of the commission or the board, other information required by the Nuclear Regulatory Commission regarding decommissioning costs.

(b) The decommissioning costs estimate study shall be periodically revised in accordance with procedures adopted by the commission or the board pursuant to Section 8327.

8327. The commission or the board shall review, in conjunction with each proceeding of the electrical utility held for the purpose of considering changes in electrical rates or charges, the decommissioning costs estimate for the electrical utility in order to ensure that the estimate takes account of the changes in the technology and regulation of decommissioning, the operating experience of each nuclear facility, and the changes in the general economy. The review shall specifically include all cost estimates, the basis for the cost estimates, and all assumptions about the remaining useful life of the nuclear facilities.

8328. The expenses associated with decommissioning of nuclear facilities shall be paid from the funds established pursuant to Section 8325. If the money in the funds is insufficient for payment of all decommissioning costs, the commission or the board shall determine whether the costs incurred in excess of the money in the funds are reasonable in amount and prudently incurred. If the commission or the board determines that the excess costs are reasonable in amount and prudently incurred, the commission or the board shall authorize these costs to be charged to the customers of the electric utility.

8329. The commission or the board shall, for purposes of establishing rates or charges, review and approve the estimated service life and estimated retirement date of all nuclear facilities.

8330. Every electrical utility involved in decommissioning, closure, or removal of nuclear facilities, shall provide assistance in finding comparable alternative employment opportunities for its employees who become unemployed as the result of decommissioning, closure, or removal. The commission or the board shall authorize the electrical utility to collect sufficient revenue through electric rates and charges to recover the cost, if any, of compliance with this section.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 1561

An act to add Sections 16759 and 66474.3 to the Government Code, relating to bonds.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16759 is added to the Government Code, to read:

16759. The Treasurer shall submit to the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, after each sale of bonds authorized to be sold under this chapter, an update as to the percentage of general fund moneys that would be used to service the resulting general obligation bond obligations.

SEC. 2. Section 66474.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

66474.3. (a) If the legislative body of a city or county finds, based upon substantial evidence in the record, that any project for which a tentative map or a vesting tentative map has been approved will be affected by a previously enacted initiative measure to the extent that there is likely to be a default on land-secured bonds issued to finance infrastructure on the project, the legislative body shall allow that portion of the project served by that infrastructure to proceed in a manner consistent with the approved tentative map or vesting tentative map.

(b) For purposes of this section, land-secured bond means any bond issued pursuant to the Improvement Act of 1911 (Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Streets and Highways Code), the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 (Division 12 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Streets and Highways Code), the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 (Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code), or the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982 (Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 53311) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5, so long as the bond was issued and sold at least 90 days before the proposed initiative was adopted by either popular vote at an election or by ordinance adopted by the legislative body.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the legislative body may condition or deny a permit, approval, extension, or entitlement if it determines any of the following:

(1) A failure to do so would place the residents of the subdivision or the immediate community, or both, in a condition dangerous to their health or safety, or both.

(2) The condition or denial is required, in order to comply with state or federal law.

(d) An approved or conditionally approved tentative or vesting tentative map shall be subject to the periods of time set forth in Section 66452.6.

(e) The rights conferred by this section shall expire if a final map is not approved prior to the expiration of the tentative map or of the vesting tentative map.

(f) An approved or conditionally approved tentative map or vesting tentative map shall not limit a legislative body from imposing reasonable conditions on subsequent required approvals or permits necessary for the development and authorized by the ordinances, policies, and standards described in Section 66474.2 or 66498.1.

CHAPTER 1562

An act to amend Section 3 of Chapter 7 of the 1987–88 First Extraordinary Session, and to amend Section 11.80 of the Budget Act of 1988 (Ch. 313, Stats. 1988), relating to earthquake relief.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3 of Chapter 7 of the 1987–88 First Extraordinary Session is amended to read:

Sec. 3. (a) The sum of forty-six million five hundred thousand dollars ($46,500,000) is hereby transferred from the Special Fund for Economic Uncertainties to the Disaster Response-Emergency Operations Account for allocation by the Director of Finance in accordance with Section 8690.6 of the Government Code and this section.

(b) Of the funds transferred pursuant to subdivision (a), the sum of thirty-four million five hundred thousand dollars ($34,500,000) shall be allocated to the 1987 Southern California Earthquake Account for assistance to local agencies.

(c) Of the funds transferred pursuant to subdivision (a), the sum of one million eight hundred thousand dollars ($1,800,000) shall be allocated to the 1987 Southern California Earthquake Account for assistance to state agencies.

(d) In addition to any other amounts appropriated in this or any other statute, of the funds appropriated pursuant to subdivision (a), the sum of ten million two hundred thousand dollars ($10,200,000) shall be allocated to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for allocation to school districts and county offices of education.

These funds may only be expended for expenses incurred as a result of the October 1, 1987, earthquake and aftershocks that do not qualify for funding under Section 7 of Public Law 81-874, 20 USC Section 241-1, and do not qualify as minimum school facilities under the regulations implementing Section 16 of Public Law 81-815, 20 USC Section 646.

(e) The funds appropriated in this section shall be available for expenditure until June 30, 1991.

SEC. 2. Section 11.80 of the Budget Act of 1988 (Ch. 313, Stats. 1988) is amended to read:

SEC. 11.80. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, on June 30, 1988, the State Controller shall transfer the amount of twenty-six million fifty-nine thousand dollars ($26,059,000) to the General Fund from the following appropriations:

|---|---|
| Disaster Response—Emergency Operations Account: | |
| (1) Chapter 1, 1987–88 First Extraordinary Session, Community Colleges | 1,200,000 |
| (2) Chapter 1, 1987–88 First Extraordinary Session, State University Program | 569,000 |
| (3) Chapter 2, 1987–88 First Extraordinary Session, Department of Social Services | 8,800,000 |
| (4) Chapter 7, 1987–88 First Extraordinary Session, Local Agency Program | 15,300,000 |
| (5) Chapter 7, 1987–88 First Extraordinary Session, State Agency Program | 190,000 |

(b) There is hereby appropriated the sum of one million six hundred ninety-one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,691,500) from the funds made available by the reversions specified above in augmentation of the appropriation for the Private Non-Profit Program in Section 2 of Chapter 3 of the 1987–88 First Extraordinary Session.

(c) There is hereby appropriated the sum of three million three hundred ninety thousand dollars ($3,390,000) from the funds made available by the reversions specified above in augmentation of the appropriation for the K-12 School Program in subdivisions (d) and (e) of Section 3 of Chapter 7 of the 1987–88 First Extraordinary Session, as amended by the Statutes of 1988.

CHAPTER 1563

An act to add Sections 33334.8, 33760.7, 34312.6, 50744.5, 50962, and 52087 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33334.8 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33334.8. The same notice requirements as specified in Section 65863.10 of the Government Code shall apply to multifamily rental housing that receives financial assistance pursuant to Sections 33334.2, 33334.3, and 33334.6.

SEC. 2. Section 33760.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33760.7. The same notice requirements as specified in Section 65863.10 of the Government Code shall apply to multifamily rental housing that receives financial assistance pursuant to Section 33760 or 33760.5.

SEC. 3. Section 34312.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

34312.6. The same notice requirements as specified in Section 65863.10 of the Government Code shall apply to multifamily rental housing that receives financial assistance pursuant to Section 34312.3.

SEC. 4. Section 50744.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

50744.5. The same notice requirements as specified in Section 65863.10 of the Government Code shall apply to rental housing developments that receive financial assistance pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 5. Section 50962 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

50962. The same notice requirements as specified in Section 65863.10 of the Government Code shall apply to rental housing developments that receive financial assistance pursuant to this part.

SEC. 6. Section 52087 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

52087. The same notice requirements as specified in Section 65863.10 of the Government Code shall apply to multifamily rental housing that receives financial assistance pursuant to this chapter.

CHAPTER 1564

An act to amend Section 33334.2 of, and to add Sections 33136 and 33334.9 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to redevelopment.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33136 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33136. An agency may finance the cost of premiums necessary for the provision of insurance during the construction or rehabilitation of properties that are administered by governmental entities or nonprofit organizations to provide housing for lower income households, as defined in Section 50079.5, including rental properties, emergency shelters, transitional housing, or special residential care facilities.

SEC. 2. Section 33334.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33334.2. (a) Not less than 20 percent of all taxes which are allocated to the agency pursuant to Section 33670 shall be used by the agency for the purposes of increasing and improving the community's supply of low- and moderate-income housing available at affordable housing cost, as defined by Section 50052.5, to persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined in Section 50093, and very low income households, as defined in Section 50105, unless one of the following findings is made annually by resolution:

(1) That no need exists in the community to improve or increase the supply of low- and moderate-income housing in a manner which would benefit the project area and that this finding is consistent with the housing element of the community's general plan required by Article 10.6 (commencing with Section 65580) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code.

(2) That some stated percentage less than 20 percent of the taxes which are allocated to the agency pursuant to Section 33670 is sufficient to meet the housing needs of the community and that this finding is consistent with the housing element of the community's general plan required by Article 10.6 (commencing with Section 65580) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code.

(3) That the community is making a substantial effort to meet its existing and projected housing needs, including its share of the regional housing needs, with respect to persons and families of low and moderate income, particularly very low income households, as identified in the housing element of the community's general plan required by Article 10.6 (commencing with Section 65580) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code, and that this effort, consisting of direct financial contributions of local funds used to increase and improve the supply of housing affordable to persons and families of low or moderate income and very low income households, is equivalent in impact to the funds otherwise required to be set aside pursuant to this section. In addition to any other local funds, these direct financial contributions may include federal or state grants paid directly to a community and which the community has the discretion of using for the purposes for which moneys in the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund may be used. The legislative body shall consider the need which can be reasonably foreseen because of displacement of persons and families of low or moderate income or very low income households from within, or adjacent to, the project area, because of increased employment opportunities, or because of any other direct or indirect result of implementation of the redevelopment plan. No finding under this subdivision may be made until the community has provided or ensured the availability of replacement dwelling units as defined in Section 33411.2 and until it has complied with the provisions of Article 9 (commencing with Section 33410).

(b) Within 10 days following the making of a finding under subdivision (a), the agency shall send the Department of Housing and Community Development a copy of the finding, including the factual information supporting the finding.

(c) In any litigation to challenge or attack a finding made under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a), the burden shall be upon the agency to establish that the finding is supported by substantial evidence in light of the entire record before the agency.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed as relieving any other public entity or entity with the power of eminent domain of any legal obligations for replacement or relocation housing arising out of its activities.

(e) In carrying out the purpose of this section, the agency may exercise any or all of its powers, including the following:

(1) Acquire land or building sites.

(2) Improve land or building sites with onsite or offsite improvements, but only if the improvements directly and specifically improve or increase the community's supply of low- or moderate-income housing.

(3) Donate land to private or public persons or entities.

(4) Finance insurance premiums pursuant to Section 33136.

(5) Construct buildings or structures.

(6) Acquire buildings or structures.

(7) Rehabilitate buildings or structures.

(8) Provide subsidies to, or for the benefit of, very low income households, as defined by Section 50105, lower income households, as defined by Section 50079.5, or persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined by Section 50093, to the extent those households cannot obtain housing at affordable costs on the open market. Housing units available on the open market are those units developed without direct government subsidies. Subsidies for the purpose of this paragraph include any costs or reduced income resulting from below-market-rate sale or lease, grant, or donation of land to private for-profit and nonprofit organizations for the purpose of providing low- and moderate-income housing, if at least half the units provided as a result of each transfer are affordable to lower income households, as defined in Section 50079.5.

(9) Develop plans, pay principal and interest on bonds, loans, advances, or other indebtedness, or pay financing or carrying charges.

(10) Maintain the community's supply of mobilehomes.

(11) Preserve the availability to lower income households of affordable housing units in housing developments which are assisted or subsidized by public entities and which are threatened with imminent conversion to market rates.

(f) The agency may use these funds to meet, in whole or in part, the replacement housing provisions in Section 33413. However, nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting in any way the requirements of that section.

(g) The agency may use these funds inside or outside the project area. The agency may only use these funds outside the project area upon a resolution of the agency and the legislative body that such use will be of benefit to the project. The determination by the agency and the legislative body shall be final and conclusive as to the issue of benefit to the project area. The Legislature finds and declares that the provision of replacement housing pursuant to Section 33413 is always of benefit to a project. Unless the legislative body finds before the redevelopment plan is adopted, that the provision of low- and moderate-income housing outside the project area will be of benefit to the project, the project area shall include property suitable for low- and moderate-income housing.

(h) The costs of undertaking activities authorized in subdivision (e) may be paid from an agency's Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund to the extent that those activities result in the provision or preservation of housing units which are consistent with this section.

(i) Any reduced income resulting from the below-market-rate sale or lease, grant, or donation of land to private for-profit and nonprofit organizations, as specified in paragraph (8) of subdivision (e), may be debited to an agency's Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund. The amount of any debit shall not be subject to any transfer required by law for failure to expend or encumber the moneys held in a Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund.

(j) The Legislature finds and declares that expenditures or obligations incurred by the agency pursuant to this section shall constitute an indebtedness of the project.

(k) The requirements of this section shall only apply to taxes allocated to a redevelopment agency for which a final redevelopment plan is adopted on or after January 1, 1977, or for any area which is added to a project by an amendment to a redevelopment plan, which amendment is adopted on or after the effective date of this section. An agency may, by resolution, elect to make all or part of the requirements of this section applicable to any redevelopment project for which a redevelopment plan was adopted prior to January 1, 1977, subject to any indebtedness incurred prior to the election.

(l) (1) Notwithstanding Sections 50079.5, 50093, and 50105, for purposes of providing assistance to mortgagors participating in a homeownership residential mortgage revenue bond program pursuant to Section 33750, or a home financing program pursuant to Section 52020, or a California Housing Finance Agency home financing program, "area median income" means the highest of the following:

(A) Statewide median household income.

(B) Countywide median household income.

(C) Median family income for the area, as determined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development with respect to either a standard metropolitan statistical area or an area outside of a standard metropolitan statistical area.

Nothing in Section 50093 shall prevent the agency from adopting separate family size adjustment factors or programmatic definitions of income to qualify households, persons, and families for the programs of the agency.

(2) To the extent that any portion of the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund is expended to provide assistance to mortgagors participating in programs whose income exceeds that of persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined in Section 50093, the agency shall, within two years, expend or enter into a legally enforceable agreement to expend twice that sum exclusively to increase and improve the community's supply of housing available at affordable housing cost, as defined in Section 50052.5, to lower income households, as defined in Section 50079.5, of which at least 50 percent shall be very low income households, as defined in Section 50105.

(3) In addition to the requirements of subdivision (c) of Section 33413, the agency shall require that the lower and very low income dwelling units developed pursuant to this subdivision remain available at affordable housing cost to lower and very low income households for at least 30 years, except as to dwelling units developed with the assistance of federal or state subsidy programs which terminate in a shorter period and cannot be extended or renewed.

(4) The agency shall include within the report required by Section 33080 information with respect to compliance by the agency with the requirements of this subdivision.

SEC. 2.5. Section 33334.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33334.2. (a) Not less than 20 percent of all taxes which are allocated to the agency pursuant to Section 33670 shall be used by the agency for the purposes of (A) increasing and improving the community's supply of low- and moderate-income housing available at affordable housing cost, as defined by Section 50052.5, to persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined in Section 50093, and very low income households, as defined in Section 50105 and (B), if there is no need for housing funds or there are adequate housing funds, provision of child care facilities, unless one of the following findings is made annually by resolution:

(1) That no need exists in the community to (A) improve or increase the supply of low- and moderate-income housing in a manner which would benefit the project area and that this finding is consistent with the housing element of the community's general plan required by Article 10.6 (commencing with Section 65580) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code or (B) no need exists in the community for child-care facilities that would benefit the project area.

(2) That some stated percentage less than 20 percent of the taxes which are allocated to the agency pursuant to Section 33670 is sufficient to meet the housing and child-care needs of the community and that this finding, with respect to housing needs, is consistent with the housing element of the community's general plan required by Article 10.6 (commencing with Section 65580) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code.

(3) That the community is making a substantial effort to meet its existing and projected child care and housing needs, including its share of the regional housing needs, with respect to persons and families of low and moderate income, particularly very low income households, as identified in the housing element of the community's general plan required by Article 10.6 (commencing with Section 65580) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code, and that this effort, consisting of direct financial contributions of local funds used to increase and improve the supply of housing affordable to persons and families of low or moderate income and very low income households and to provide child-care facilities, is equivalent in impact to the funds otherwise required to be set aside pursuant to this section. In addition to any other local funds, these direct financial contributions may include federal or state grants paid directly to a community and which the community has the discretion of using for the purposes for which moneys in the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund may be used. The legislative body shall consider the need which can be reasonably foreseen because of displacement of persons and families of low or moderate income or very low income households from within, or adjacent to, the project area, because of increased employment opportunities, or because of any other direct or indirect result of implementation of the redevelopment plan. No finding under this subdivision may be made until the community has provided or ensured the availability of replacement dwelling units as defined in Section 33411.2 and until it has complied with the provisions of Article 9 (commencing with Section 33410).

(b) Within 10 days following the making of a finding under subdivision (a), the agency shall send the Department of Housing and Community Development a copy of the finding, including the factual information supporting the finding.

(c) In any litigation to challenge or attack a finding made under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a), the burden shall be upon the agency to establish that the finding is supported by substantial evidence in light of the entire record before the agency.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed as relieving any other public entity or entity with the power of eminent domain of any legal obligations for replacement or relocation housing arising out of its activities.

(e) In carrying out the purpose of this section, the agency may exercise any or all of its powers, including the following:

(1) Acquire land or building sites.

(2) Improve land or building sites with onsite or offsite improvements, but only if the improvements directly and specifically improve or increase the community's supply of low- or moderate-income housing.

(3) Donate land to private or public persons or entities.

(4) Finance insurance premiums pursuant to Section 33136.

(5) Construct buildings or structures.

(6) Acquire buildings or structures.

(7) Rehabilitate buildings or structures.

(8) Provide subsidies to, or for the benefit of, very low income households, as defined by Section 50105, lower income households, as defined by Section 50079.5, or persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined by Section 50093, to the extent those households cannot obtain housing at affordable costs on the open market. Housing units available on the open market are those units developed without direct government subsidies. Subsidies for the purpose of this paragraph include any costs or reduced income resulting from below-market-rate sale or lease, grant, or donation of land to private for-private and nonprofit organizations for the purpose of providing low- and moderate-income housing, if at least half the units provided as a result of each transfer are affordable to lower income households, as defined in Section 50079.5.

(9) Develop plans, pay principal and interest on bonds, loans, advances, or other indebtedness, or pay financing or carrying charges.

(10) Maintain the community's supply of mobilehomes.

(11) Preserve the availability to lower income households of affordable housing units in housing developments which are assisted or subsidized by public entities and which are threatened with imminent conversion to market rates.

(f) The agency may use these funds to meet, in whole or in part, the replacement housing provisions in Section 33413. However, nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting in any way the requirements of that section.

(g) The agency may use these funds inside or outside the project area. The agency may only use these funds outside the project area upon a resolution of the agency and the legislative body that such use will be of benefit to the project. The determination by the agency and the legislative body shall be final and conclusive as to the issue of benefit to the project area. The Legislature finds and declares that the provision of replacement housing pursuant to Section 33413 is always of benefit to a project. Unless the legislative body finds before the redevelopment plan is adopted, that the provision of low- and moderate-income housing outside the project area will be of benefit to the project, the project area shall include property suitable for low- and moderate-income housing.

(h) The costs of undertaking activities authorized in subdivision (e) may be paid from an agency's Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund to the extent that those activities result in the provision or preservation of housing units which are consistent with this section.

(i) Any reduced income resulting from the below-market-rate sale or lease, grant, or donation of land to private for-profit and nonprofit organizations, as specified in paragraph (8) of subdivision (e), may be debited to an agency's Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund. The amount of any debit shall not be subject to any transfer required by law for failure to expend or encumber the moneys held in a Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund.

(j) The Legislature finds and declares that expenditures or obligations incurred by the agency pursuant to this section shall constitute an indebtedness of the project.

(k) The requirements of this section shall only apply to taxes allocated to a redevelopment agency for which a final redevelopment plan is adopted on or after January 1, 1977, or for any area which is added to a project by an amendment to a redevelopment plan, which amendment is adopted on or after the effective date of this section. An agency may, by resolution, elect to make all or part of the requirements of this section applicable to any redevelopment project for which a redevelopment plan was adopted prior to January 1, 1977, subject to any indebtedness incurred prior to the election.

(l) (1) Notwithstanding Sections 50079.5, 50093, and 50105, for purposes of providing assistance to mortgagors participating in a homeownership residential mortgage revenue bond program pursuant to Section 33750, or a home financing program pursuant to Section 52020, or a California Housing Finance Agency home financing program, "area median income" means the highest of the following:

(A) Statewide median household income.

(B) Countywide median household income.

(C) Median family income for the area, as determined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development with respect to either a standard metropolitan statistical area or an area outside of a standard metropolitan statistical area.

Nothing in Section 50093 shall prevent the agency from adopting separate family size adjustment factors or programmatic definitions of income to qualify households, persons, and families for the programs of the agency.

(2) To the extent that any portion of the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund is expended to provide assistance to mortgagors participating in programs whose income exceeds that of persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined in Section 50093, the agency shall, within two years, expend or enter into a legally enforceable agreement to expend twice that sum exclusively to increase and improve the community's supply of housing available at affordable housing cost, as defined in Section 50052.5, to lower income households, as defined in Section 50079.5, of which at least 50 percent shall be very low income households, as defined in Section 50105.

(3) In addition to the requirements of subdivision (c) of Section 33413, the agency shall require that the lower and very low income dwelling units developed pursuant to this subdivision remain available at affordable housing cost to lower and very low income households for at least 30 years, except as to dwelling units developed with the assistance of federal or state subsidy programs which terminate in a shorter period and cannot be extended or renewed.

(4) The agency shall include within the report required by Section 33080 information with respect to compliance by the agency with the requirements of this subdivision.

SEC. 3. Section 33334.9 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33334.9. Notwithstanding Sections 33334.2 and 33334.3, assistance provided by an agency to preserve the availability to lower income households of affordable housing units which are assisted or subsidized by public entities and which are threatened with imminent conversion to market rates may be credited and offset against an agency's obligations under Section 33334.2.

SEC. 4. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 33334.2 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3358. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 33334.2 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3358, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1565

An act to amend Section 34312.5 of, and to add Sections 33080.7, 33334.10, and 33334.12 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to redevelopment.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Polanco-Ferguson Housing Assistance Act.

SEC. 2. Section 33080.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33080.7. For puposes of compliance with subdivision (c) of Section 33080.1 and in addition to the requirements of Section 33080.4, the description of the agency's activities shall identify the amount of excess surplus, as defined in Section 33334.10, which has accumulated in the agency's Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund. Of the total excess surplus, the description shall also identify the amount that has accrued to the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund during each fiscal year. This component of the annual report shall also include any plan required to be reported by subdivision (c) of Section 33334.10.

SEC. 3. Section 33334.10 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33334.10. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, not later than six months following the close of any fiscal year of an agency in which excess surplus accumulates in the agency's Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund, the agency may adopt a plan pursuant to this section for expenditure of all moneys in the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund within five years from the end of that fiscal year. The plan may be general and need not be site-specific, but shall include objectives respecting the number and type of housing to be assisted, identification of the entities, which will administer the plan, alternative means of ensuring the affordability of housing units for the longest feasible time, as specified in subdivision (e) of Section 33334.3 the income groups to be assisted, and a schedule by fiscal year for expenditure of the excess surplus.

(b) The agency shall separately account for each excess surplus either as part of or in addition to a Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund.

(c) If the agency develops a plan for expenditure of excess surplus or other moneys in the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund, a copy of that plan and any amendments thereto shall be included in the agency's annual report required by Article 6 (commencing with Section 33080).

SEC. 4. Section 33334.12 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33334.12. (a) Upon failure of the agency to expend or encumber excess surplus in the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund within five years from the date the moneys become excess surplus, within the meaning defined in Section 33334.10, the agency shall disburse that excess surplus to the county housing authority or other housing authority operating within the agency's jurisdiction or another public agency exercising housing development powers within the territorial jurisdiction of the agency in accordance with subdivision (b). The housing authority shall utilize the moneys for the purposes and subject to the same restrictions as applicable to the redevelopment agency under this part, and for that purpose may exercise all of the powers of a housing authority under Part 2 (commencing with Section 34200) to the extent not inconsistent with these limitations.

Notwithstanding Section 34209 or any other provision of law, for the purpose of accepting a transfer of, and using, moneys pursuant to this section, the housing authority of a county may exercise its powers within the territorial jurisdiction of a city redevelopment agency in the county.

(c) The amount of excess surplus which shall be transferred to the housing authority because of failure of the agency to expend or encumber excess surplus within five years shall be the amount of the excess surplus that is not so expended or encumbered.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit any authority a redevelopment agency may have under other provisions of this part to contract with a housing authority for increasing or improving the community's supply of low- and moderate-income housing.

(e) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Excess surplus" means any unexpended and unencumbered amount in an agency's Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund that exceeds the greater of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) or the aggregate amount deposited into the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund pursuant to Sections 33334.2 and 33334.6 during the agency's preceding five fiscal years.

(2) Moneys shall be deemed encumbered if committed pursuant to a legally enforceable contract or agreement for expenditure for purposes specified in Section 33334.2 or 33334.3.

SEC. 5. Section 34312.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

34312.5. (a) An authority may provide leased housing to persons of low income throughout the county in which it operates, except:

(1) No commitment to provide leased housing outside the area of operation may be made in advance of construction without approval of the local governing body of the city or, if an unincorporated area, the county with jurisdiction of the site of construction; and

(2) Leased housing may not be provided within the area of operation of another authority if the local governing body of the other authority disapproves in advance.

(b) An authority may contract with the redevelopment agency of any city within the county to exercise its powers in the city pursuant to a contract with the redevelopment agency funded from the redevelopment agency's Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund for the purpose of increasing or improving the city's supply of low- and moderate-income housing.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1566

An act to amend Sections 50533.2, 50533.5, 50668.5, and 50884 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50533.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50533.2. (a) The department shall administer the Senior Citizens' Shared Housing Program and select eligible sponsors to establish or continue programs that (1) assist seniors in finding other seniors and nonseniors with whom to share existing housing units or (2) establish and implement the operation of shared group residences for seniors.

(b) Not less than 90 percent of the funds available pursuant to this chapter shall be allocated by the department for the establishment or continuance of programs described in subdivision (a). The department may make up to 10 percent of the funds available to eligible sponsors that have operational shared housing programs and which demonstrate the capability to provide technical assistance to other eligible sponsors inexperienced in the operation of shared housing programs, which intend to establish, or already operate those programs as of January 1, 1987, in areas where there is a demonstrated need for those programs.

(c) "Eligible sponsors," as used in this chapter, means nonprofit corporations, as defined in Section 50091, and local public entities, as defined in Section 50079.

(d) "Shared group residence" as used in this chapter, means a dwelling unit occupied by three or more unrelated adults, capable of independent living, and sharing the responsibilities of operating and maintaining the dwelling unit. Shared group residence shall not include any of the facilities defined in Section 1502.

SEC. 2. Section 50533.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50533.5. Funds allocated to eligible sponsors pursuant to this chapter shall be utilized only for staff and office operation costs or for reasonable and necessary costs incurred in the establishment of shared group residences for seniors, including, but not limited to, first and last months' rent, damage, cleaning, security and utility deposits, insurance, vacancy reserve, and related administrative costs. No eligible sponsor shall receive more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in any calendar year. The department may utilize funds appropriated for the purposes of this chapter for administrative costs incurred in order to implement this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 50668.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50668.5. For the purpose of providing financial assistance pursuant to this chapter utilizing bond proceeds transferred to the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 53130 and paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 53130 and Sections 8878.20 and 8878.21 of the Government Code, deferred payment loans made with these funds shall be subject to all of the following special provisions, which shall prevail over conflicting provisions of this chapter:

(a) (1) Applications for fund commitments shall be accepted by the department at any time. Fund commitments shall be based on a ranking of applications, which shall occur at least once every three months until there are insufficient funds available to commit according to this ranking. In making this ranking for rental housing developments, priority shall be given to those projects which (A) serve the greater number of eligible households as defined in Section 50105 with the lowest incomes, (B) provide the greater number of units with three or more bedrooms, (C) are located in areas where the housing need is great as determined by the department, taking into consideration, among other factors, low vacancy rates, high market rents, long waiting lists for subsidized housing, the stock of substandard housing, and the potential loss of subsidized rental housing to market-rate housing through demolition, foreclosure, or subsidy termination, (D) complement the implementation of an existing housing program, (E) maximize private local and other funding sources, and (F) maximize long-term benefits for eligible households, as defined in Sections 50079.5 and 50105. Subparagraph (B) above shall not apply to applications for fund commitments submitted pursuant to Section 50670 or to any application for a residential hotel project submitted pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 50661. In making this ranking for owner-occupied housing, priority shall be given to those applications which (A) serve the greater number of eligible households, as defined in Section 50105, with the lowest income, (B) provide the greater number of units with three or more bedrooms, (C) are located in areas where the need for rehabilitation is great as determined by the department, taking into consideration, among other factors, the amount of substandard owner-occupied housing, low vacancy rates, and limited availability of affordable housing, (D) complement the implementation of an existing housing program, and (E) maximize available and appropriate private, local, and other funding sources. The department shall also evaluate the capability of the sponsor to rehabilitate, own, and manage the rental housing development or the capability of the applicant for funding for owner-occupied housing to implement the proposed program.

(2) Loans for rental housing developments may be reviewed, approved, and funded by the department directly to the sponsor. In these cases, the department shall ensure that the sponsor notifies the local legislative body of the sponsor's loan application prior to a funding award. Loans to owner-occupants may be made by local public entities or nonprofit corporations which have received fund commitments from the department. When the department certifies a local public entity or nonprofit corporation as being capable of making these loans, the department shall delegate responsibility for reviewing and approving these loans to the local public entity or nonprofit corporation.

(3) A sponsor may apply for loans for one or more rental housing developments.

(b) (1) A housing development may utilize any combination of federal, state, local, and private financial resources necessary to make the development affordable, for the term of the state's regulatory agreement, to the eligible households.

(2) In the case of nonprofit sponsors, loans for rental housing developments, when combined with other indebtedness against the property shall not exceed 100 percent of the after-rehabilitation value of the property, as determined by an appraisal of the property conducted pursuant to guidelines established in regulations of the department.

(3) The maximum loan amounts per unit established in regulations pursuant to Section 50670 shall also apply to rental housing developments rehabilitated or acquired and rehabilitated pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 50661, except that there shall not be a maximum loan amount established per project. These dollar limitations may be increased by the department, as necessary, in high-cost areas of the state or where the correction of severe health and safety defects or the provisions of handicapped accessibility standards necessitate greater assistance.

(4) (A) Loans made to sponsors of rental housing developments for acquisition and rehabilitation shall be for terms of not less than 30 years. Loans made to sponsors of rental housing developments for rehabilitation only shall be for terms of not less than 20 years. However, the term shall not exceed the useful life of the rental housing development for which the loan is made. The sponsor may elect to begin to repay the loan at any time in accordance with the prepayment plan established in accordance with paragraph (6), if it is determined by the department, that the sponsors can continue to maintain the rents at levels affordable to eligible households.

(B) The term of the loan and the time for repayment may be extended by the department for additional 10-year terms as long as the rental housing development is operated in a manner consistent with the regulatory agreement and the sponsor requires an extension in order to continue to operate in a manner consistent with this chapter.

(5) In the case of loans made for rental housing developments, rehabilitation costs shall include those costs relating to (A) real property acquisition; (B) rehabilitation or reconstruction, including the conversion of nonresidential structures to residential use; (C) general property improvements which are necessary to correct unsafe, unhealthy, or unsanitary conditions, including renovations and remodeling, including, but not limited to, remodeling of kitchens and bathrooms, installation of new appliances, landscaping, and purchase or installation of central air conditioning; (D) necessary and related onsite improvements; (E) reasonable administrative expenses in connection with the planning and execution of the project, as determined by the department; (F) reasonable consulting costs; (G) rent-up costs; (H) seismic rehabilitation improvements; and (I) any other costs of rehabilitation authorized by the department. "Rent-up costs," as used in this section, means costs incurred while a unit is on the housing market but not rented to its first tenant. "Seismic rehabilitation improvements," as used in this section, means improvements which are designed to increase seismic structural safety in accordance with a plan developed by a civil engineer, a structural engineer, or an architect for a particular building that has been identified as hazardous by the city or county in which the building is located in accordance with the criteria established by the Seismic Safety Commission pursuant to Section 8875.1 of the Government Code or in accordance with a previously adopted city or county seismic safety ordinance adopted pursuant to Section 19163.

(6) Upon request of the sponsor, the department may permit repayment of a sponsor's loan on the basis of net cash flow. The department shall develop a prepayment plan in conjunction with the sponsor which will ensure the maintenance of affordable rents and the fiscal integrity of the rental housing development. As an incentive to encourage the prepayment of loans, the department may permit the sponsor to retain one-half of the net cash flow. The department shall determine the method for calculating net cash flow, which may include a factor for excess debt service coverage or a return on cash investment to the sponsor.

(7) If a loan is made pursuant to this chapter for both seismic rehabilitation improvements and other eligible rehabilitation costs, only those costs related to the seismic rehabilitation improvements shall be counted and included for purposes of the fund reservation made by Section 8878.20 of the Government Code.

(c) Principle and accumulated interest is due and payable upon completion of the term of the loan.

(1) "Maintain affordable rent levels," as used in this section, means rents may be automatically increased by the sponsor on an annual basis pursuant to an inflation index to be determined by the department. The inflation index shall reflect anticipated annual changes in rental housing development operating costs from a base year when the rents are initially established. Any sponsor may appeal to the department for a greater adjustment in rents necessary to ensure the fiscal integrity of the rental housing development. If the department does not respond within 60 days, the request shall be deemed approved. A 30-day written notice shall be given to each eligible household prior to an adjustment in the amount of rent.

(2) Upon prior written approval by the department, a sponsor may set income limits for incoming tenants at a level below the limit specified in Section 50079.5. If a tenant's income exceeds this income limit established by the sponsor, but does not exceed the limit specified in Section 50079.5, that fact alone shall neither constitute cause for the tenant's eviction, nor be a violation of the sponsor's loan agreement. If a tenant's income exceeds the income limit for a household specified in Section 50079.5, the tenant shall be required to vacate the assisted unit within six months from the date of income recertification or notice to the sponsor of an increase in income over the permissible income level. That period may be extended by the sponsor for an additional six-month period in high cost rental areas with low vacancy rates, as determined by the department. Any vacant units shall be rented to eligible households until the required residency by eligible households is attained.

(d) Prior to disbursement of any funds for loans to rental housing developments made pursuant to this section, the department shall enter into a regulatory agreement with the sponsor in accordance with subdivision (d) of Section 50670, except that (1) the term of the regulatory agreement shall be for the original term of the loan and the agreement shall be binding upon the sponsor and successors in interest upon sale or transfer of the rental housing development or prepayment of the loan and (2) a nonprofit sponsor, other than a governmental agency, may maintain a debt service coverage ratio of 115 percent and distribute earnings in an amount no greater than 8 percent of the nonprofit sponsor's actual investment. The regulatory agreement also shall contain provisions requiring annual inspections and review of year-end fiscal audits and related reports by the department and provisions to maintain affordable rent levels to serve eligible households.

(e) Where loans will be used in conjunction with federal or other housing assistance or tax credits and a conflict exists between the other state or federal program requirements and those of this chapter with respect to the calculation of rents, the requirements of the Deferred Payment Rehabilitation Loan Program and the Special User Housing Rehabilitation Program may be waived only to the extent necessary to permit federal or other state financial participation or eligibility for tax credits.

(f) "Sponsor," for purposes of this section, has the same meaning as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 50669.

(g) The department shall adopt emergency regulations to implement this chapter with respect to loans made with funding subject to this section. The regulations shall be conclusively presumed to be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety, or general welfare within the meaning, and or purposes, of Section 11346.1 of the Government Code.

Notwithstanding conflicting provisions of this chapter, the department may elect to make these regulations additionally applicable until January 1, 1990, to all other deferred payment loan programs authorized by this chapter, except the programs specified in Sections 50662.5 and 50671, if the department determines that the uniformity achieved thereby will avoid significant additional administrative costs.

SEC. 4. Section 50884 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50884. The department shall implement the program enacted by this chapter after adopting rules and regulations in a manner which will ensure that the initial requests for proposals for assistance to community housing developments and congregate housing developments can be released on or before March 7, 1989.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to implement Proposition 77 to make bond moneys available in an expeditious manner and to expand the housing options that local housing entities provide to seniors in their communities, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1567

An act to add Sections 17980.6 and 17980.7 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17980.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

17980.6. (a) If any building is maintained in a manner which violates any provisions of this part, the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to the provisions of this part, or any other rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to the provisions of this part, and the violations are so extensive and of such a nature that the health and safety of residents or the public is substantially endangered, the enforcement agency may issue an order or notice to repair pursuant to this part.

(b) If the owner does not correct the condition that caused the violation within a reasonable time after issuance of the notice or order, the enforcement agency may, in addition to any other remedies provided by law, seek the remedies provided for in Section 17980.7 if the court finds the owner responsible for a violation of this part and orders repairs as part of a civil or criminal judgment against the owner, or in a stipulation to a judgment by the owner which includes provisions governing repairs.

SEC. 2. Section 17980.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

17980.7. If the owner fails to comply with the terms of the order or notice pursuant to Section 17980.6, the following provisions shall apply:

(a) The enforcement agency may seek and the court shall order imposition of the penalties provided for under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 17995).

(b) The enforcement agency may seek and the court may order the owner to not claim any deduction with respect to state taxes for interest, taxes, expenses, depreciation, or amortization paid or incurred with respect to the cited structure, in the taxable year of the initial order or notice, in lieu of the enforcement agency processing a violation in accordance with Sections 17274 and 24436.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

If the owner fails to comply with the terms of the order or notice to correct the condition that caused the violation pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 17980.5, the court may order the owner to not claim these tax benefits for the following year.

(c) If the court finds that a building is in a condition which substantially endangers the health and safety of residents pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 17980.6, upon the entry of any order or judgment the court shall do all of the following:

(1) Order the owner to pay all reasonable and actual costs of the enforcement agency including, but not limited to, inspection costs, investigation costs, enforcement costs, attorney fees or costs, and all costs of prosecution.

(2) Order that the local enforcement agency shall provide the tenant with notice of the court order or judgment.

(d) The initiation of a proceeding or entry of a judgment pursuant to this section or Section 17980.6 shall be deemed to be a "proceeding" or "judgment" as provided by paragraph (4) or (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 1942.5 of the Civil Code.

(e) The term "owner," for the purposes of this section, shall include the owner, including any public entity that owns residential real property, at the time of the initial notice or order and any successor in interest who had actual or constructive knowledge of the notice, order, or prosecution.

(f) These remedies shall be in addition to any other remedies provided by law.

(g) Nothing in this section or in Section 17980.6 shall impair the rights of an owner exercising his or her rights established pursuant to Chapter 12.75 (commencing with Section 7060) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

Moreover, no reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for other costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) and any other provisions of law for those other costs.

CHAPTER 1568

An act to amend Sections 39607, 40001, 40400, 40510, 41500, 42301, 42311, 42352, and 43013 of, to amend the heading of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 41600) of Part 4 of Division 26 of, to add Sections 39608, 39609, 39610, 39611, 40522.5, 40716, 40717, 40717.5, 41503.1, 41503.2, 41503.3, 41503.4, 41503.5, 41712, 42301.1, 42302.1, 42311.2, 42402.5, 43000.5, 43018, and 43019 to, to add Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 40910) to Part 3 of Division 26 of, to amend and renumber Section 41604 of, to add and repeal Sections 39612 and 42311.1 of, to repeal and add Section 41503 of, and to repeal Sections 41600, 41601, 41602, and 41603 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) This act shall be known as the California Clean Air Act of 1988.

(b) The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(1) That the State Air Resources Board has adopted ambient air quality standards, based upon the recommendation of the State Department of Health Services, and that attainment of these health-based standards is necessary to protect public health, particularly of children, older people, and those with respiratory diseases.

(2) That it is therefore in the public interest that these standards be attained at the earliest practicable date.

(3) That the basinwide air pollution control plans to attain and maintain the state standards which were prepared by air pollution control districts and air quality management districts and the basinwide coordinating councils and implemented under the supervision of the state board have achieved progress, but are in need of revision to more accurately reflect changes in emission sources, technology, energy availability, and forecasts of population and economic growth, and that the requirements for preparation of the plans and deadlines for attainment should reflect the nature and extent of the air pollution problems of each region.

(4) That most urban areas of the state have not attained federal ambient air quality standards by August 31, 1988, as required by federal law, and that Congress has not extended the deadlines or removed the requirements for sanctions, and does not appear likely to resolve these issues in a timely manner.

(5) That in order to ensure the future health and welfare of the people of the State of California, and the state's environment and economy, are protected despite lack of action or direction from the federal government, it is necessary for the State of California to develop and implement its own program to attain air quality standards through the application of best available control technology and operating methods, improved motor vehicle maintenance and inspection, control of indirect and areawide sources of emissions, the required use of cleaner burning fuels, the implementation of stricter new vehicle emission standards and warranty requirements, the design and implementation of transportation control and vehicle fleet management measures, and the incorporation of air quality considerations into local land use planning decisions.

(c) It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this act, that the state board and the districts, to the maximum extent practicable, shall coordinate activities required under this act with similar activities undertaken pursuant to federal law.

SEC. 2. Section 39607 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

39607. The state board shall:

(a) Establish a program to secure data on air quality in each air basin established by the state board.

(b) Inventory sources of air pollution within the air basins of the state and determine the kinds and quantity of air pollutants, including, but not limited to, the contribution of natural sources of emissions, to the extent feasible and necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The state board shall use, to the fullest extent, the data of local agencies and other state and federal agencies in fulfilling this purpose.

(c) Monitor air pollutants in cooperation with districts and with other agencies to fulfill the purpose of this division.

(d) Adopt test procedures to measure compliance with its nonvehicular emission standards and those of districts.

(e) Establish criteria for designating an air basin attainment or nonattainment for any state ambient air quality standard set forth in Section 70200 of Title 17 of the California Code of Regulations. In developing these criteria, the state board shall consider instances where there is poor or limited ambient air quality data, highly irregular or infrequent violations, or projections of substantial growth in population or industrial activity. The state board shall provide an opportunity for public comment on the proposed criteria, and shall adopt the criteria after a public hearing.

(f) Evaluate, in consultation with the districts, air quality-related indicators which may be used to measure or estimate progress in the attainment of state standards and establish a list of approved indicators. The state board shall establish an initial list on or before December 31, 1989, and shall update the list at least every three years thereafter.

SEC. 3. Section 39608 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

39608. (a) On or before September 30, 1989, the state board, in consultation with the districts, shall identify, pursuant to subdivision

(e) of Section 39607, and classify each air basin which is in attainment and each air basin which is in nonattainment for any state ambient air quality standard. This identification and classification shall be made on a pollutant-by-pollutant basis. Where the state board finds that data is not sufficient to determine the attainment or nonattainment status for an air basin, the state board shall identify the air basin as unclassified.

(b) The state board may assign an attainment, nonattainment, or unclassified designation to one or more areas within any air basin unless the state board finds and determines that the pollutant for which the designation applies affects the entire region or is produced by emission sources throughout the region.

(c) Designations made by the state board shall be reviewed annually and updated as new information becomes available.

SEC. 4. Section 39609 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

39609. On or before December 31, 1989, and at least every five years thereafter, the state board shall complete a study on the feasibility of employing air quality models and other analytical techniques to distinguish between emission control measures on the basis of their relative ambient air quality impact. The state board shall consult with districts and affected groups in conducting this study, and, after a public hearing, shall prepare and transmit its findings to each district for its use in developing plans pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 40910).

SEC. 5. Section 39610 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

39610. (a) Not later than December 31, 1989, the state board shall identify each district in which transported air pollutants from upwind areas outside the district cause or contribute to a violation of the state ambient air quality standard for ozone and shall identify the district of origin of the transported pollutants, based upon the preponderance of available evidence. The state board shall identify and determine the priorities of information and studies needed to make a more accurate determination, including, but not limited to, emission inventories, pollutant characterization, ambient air monitoring, and air quality models.

(b) The state board shall, in cooperation with the districts, assess the relative contribution of upwind emissions to downwind ambient pollutant levels to the extent permitted by available data, and shall establish mitigation requirements commensurate with the level of contribution.

(c) The state board shall make every reasonable effort to supply air pollutant transport information to heavily impacted districts prior to the development of plans to attain the state ambient air quality standards, shall consult with affected upwind and downwind districts, and shall adopt its findings at a public hearing.

(d) The state board shall review and update its transport analysis at least once every three years.

(e) The state board shall conduct appropriate studies to carry out its responsibilities under this section.

SEC. 6. Section 39611 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

39611. Not later than January 1, 1991, the state board shall report to the Legislature on the prospects for achieving the state ambient air quality standards for suspended particulate matter, visibility reducing particles, lead, hydrogen sulfide, and sulfates. The report shall include, for each pollutant and for each air basin, a consideration of all of the following:

(a) The present and anticipated extent of nonattainment.

(b) Adopted and proposed measures to reduce emissions of the pollutant or its precursors, or both, and their anticipated effectiveness.

(c) The availability of additional control measures, and their potential effectiveness.

(d) The earliest practicable attainment date.

(e) Any legal, technological, or administrative impediments to developing and implementing an attainment plan.

(f) The relative significance of both natural and windblown emissions.

(g) Any additional information needed with respect to ambient air monitoring and air quality computer modeling, and the estimated budgetary requirements to obtain this information.

SEC. 6.5. Section 39612 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

39612. (a) In addition to funds which may be appropriated by the Legislature to the state board to carry out the additional responsibilities and to undertake necessary technical studies required by this chapter, the state board, beginning July 1, 1989, may require districts to impose additional permit fees on nonvehicular sources within their jurisdiction.

(b) The permit fees imposed pursuant to this section shall be expended only for the purposes of recovering costs of additional state programs related to nonvehicular sources.

(c) The permit fees imposed pursuant to this section shall be collected from nonvehicular sources which are authorized by district permits to emit 500 tons or more per year of any nonattainment pollutant or its precursors.

(d) The permit fees collected by a district pursuant to this section, after deducting the administrative costs to the district of collecting the fees, shall be transmitted to the Controller for deposit in the Air Pollution Control Fund.

(e) The total amount of funds collected by fees imposed pursuant to this section, exclusive of district administrative costs, shall not exceed three million dollars ($3,000,000) in any fiscal year.

(f) On or before January 1, 1993, the state board shall prepare and submit to the Legislature a report on the amounts of fees collected and the purposes for which the fees were expended.

(g) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1997, and, as of January 1, 1998, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 40001 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40001. Subject to the powers and duties of the state board, the districts shall adopt and enforce rules and regulations to achieve and maintain the state and federal ambient air quality standards in all areas affected by emission sources under their jurisdiction, and shall enforce all applicable provisions of state and federal law.

The rules and regulations may, and at the request of the state board shall, provide for the prevention and abatement of air pollution episodes which, at intervals, cause discomfort or health risks to, or damage to property of, a significant number of persons or class of persons.

SEC. 8. Section 40400 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40400. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Lewis-Presley Air Quality Management Act."

SEC. 8.2. Section 40510 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40510. The south coast district board may adopt a fee schedule for the issuance of variances and permits to cover the cost of planning, inspection, and monitoring related thereto. Every person applying for a variance or a permit, notwithstanding Section 6103 of the Government Code, shall pay the fees required by the schedule.

The fees may be varied according to the quantity of emissions and the effect of those emissions on the ambient air quality within the south coast district.

SEC. 8.5. Section 40522.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40522.5. (a) In addition to any other fees authorized by this article, the south coast district may adopt, by regulation, a schedule of fees to be assessed on areawide or indirect sources of emissions which are regulated, but for which permits are not issued, by the south coast district to recover the costs of district programs related to these sources.

(b) The south coast district shall not, however, impose any fee under this section for either of the following:

(1) Wildland vegetative management burning, as described in subdivision (c) of Section 39011.

(2) Emergency incident training necessary for the protection of the community and public safety personnel.

SEC. 9. Section 40716 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40716. (a) In carrying out its responsibilities pursuant to this division with respect to the attainment of state ambient air quality standards, a district may adopt and implement regulations to accomplish both of the following:

(1) Reduce or mitigate emissions from indirect and areawide sources of air pollution.

(2) Encourage or require the use of ridesharing, vanpooling, flexible work hours, or other measures which reduce the number or length of vehicle trips.

(b) Nothing in this section constitutes an infringement on the existing authority of counties and cities to plan or control land use, and nothing in this section provides or transfers new authority over such land use to a district.

SEC. 10. Section 40717 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40717. (a) A district shall adopt, implement, and enforce transportation control measures for the attainment of state or federal ambient air quality standards to the extent necessary to comply with Section 40918, 40919, or 40920.

(b) A district which has entered into an agreement with a council of governments or a regional agency to jointly develop a plan for transportation control measures shall develop the plan in accordance with all of the following:

(1) The district shall establish the quantity of emission reductions from transportation sources necessary to attain state and federal ambient air standards.

(2) The council of governments or regional agency, in cooperation with the district and any other person or entity authorized by the council of governments or regional agency, shall develop and adopt a plan to control emissions from transportation sources which will achieve the emission reductions established under paragraph (1). The plan shall include, at a minimum, a schedule for implementing transportation control measures, identification of potential implementing agencies and any agreements entered into by agencies to implement portions of the plan, and procedures for monitoring the effectiveness of and compliance with the measures in the plan. The council of governments or regional agency shall submit the plan to the district for its adoption according to a reasonable schedule developed by the district in consultation with the council of governments or regional agency.

(3) Upon receipt of the plan submitted by the council of governments or regional agency, the district shall review and approve or disapprove the plan in the following manner:

(A) The district shall review, adopt, and enforce the plan if it meets the criteria established by the district pursuant to paragraph (1) and has been submitted pursuant to the schedule established under paragraph (2).

(B) If the district determines that the plan does not meet the criteria established pursuant to paragraph (1), the district shall return the plan to the council of governments or regional agency with comments which identify the reasons the plan does not meet the criteria established pursuant to paragraph (1). Within 45 days, the council of governments or regional agency shall review the district's comments, revise the plan to meet the criteria established under paragraph (1), and resubmit the plan to the district. The district shall review and approve the revised plan if it meets the criteria established by the district pursuant to paragraph (1) and has been resubmitted to the district within 45 days.

(C) If the plan is not submitted pursuant to the schedule established under paragraph (2), or if a plan revised by a council of governments or regional agency and resubmitted to a district pursuant to this subparagraph does not meet the criteria established under paragraph (1), the district shall develop, adopt, and enforce an alternative plan for transportation control measures.

(4) Whenever the district revises its establishment of the quantity of emission reductions from transportation sources necessary to attain state and federal ambient air standards, the plan shall be revised, adopted, and enforced in accordance with paragraphs (1), (2), and (3).

(c) Subdivision (b) shall not apply to the Sacramento County Air Pollution Control District if Assembly Bill 4355 of the 1987–88 Regular Session is enacted, in which case Assembly Bill 4355 shall govern preparation and enforcement of that plan for transportation control measures. However, if Assembly Bill 4355 is not enacted, subdivision (b) shall govern preparation and enforcement of that plan.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), a district located in a county of the third class shall develop a plan for transportation control measures as follows:

(1) The district, in consultation with the council of governments, shall develop, approve, and adopt criteria under which the plan shall be developed.

(2) The council of governments shall develop and adopt a plan for transportation control measures which meets the criteria established by the district, and shall submit the plan to the district for its review and adoption according to a reasonable schedule developed by the district in consultation with the council of governments.

(3) Upon receipt of the plan submitted by the council of governments, the district shall review and approve the plan if it meets the criteria established by the district pursuant to paragraph (1) and has been submitted pursuant to the schedule established under paragraph (2). If the district determines that the plan does not meet the criteria established pursuant to paragraph (1) or if the plan is not submitted pursuant to the schedule established under paragraph (2), the district shall develop and adopt an alternative plan for transportation control measures.

(e) A district may delegate any function with respect to implementation of transportation control measures to any local agency, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The local agency submits to the district an implementation plan which provides adequate resources to adopt and enforce the measures, and the district approves the plan.

(2) The local agency adopts and implements measures at least as stringent as those in the district plan.

(3) The district adopts procedures to review the performance of the local agency in implementing the measures to ensure compliance with the district plan.

(f) A district may revoke an authority granted under this section if it determines that the performance of the local agency is in violation of this section or otherwise inadequate to implement the district plan.

(g) For purposes of this section, "transportation control measures" means any strategy to reduce vehicle trips, vehicle use, vehicle miles traveled, vehicle idling, or traffic congestion for the purpose of reducing motor vehicle emissions.

SEC. 10.5. Section 40717.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40717.5. (a) The state board, the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, and the Department of the California Highway Patrol, using existing resources, shall jointly establish a technical advisory group which shall include, but not be limited to, representatives of the trucking industry, organized labor, shippers, retailers, and districts for the purpose of developing model guidelines and procedures for traffic control measures affecting heavy-duty trucks for use by districts. The technical advisory group shall consult with any interested person or entity in developing the model guidelines and procedures.

(b) The model guidelines and procedures shall, among other things, take into account any requirements of federal or state law which affect safety of operation of heavy-duty trucks, which require heavy-duty trucks and drivers to operate at certain times of day for the protection of public health and safety, and which are established under Section 25633 of the Business and Professions Code.

(c) Upon completion of the model guidelines by the technical advisory group established under subdivision (a), every district shall review and consider the model guidelines and procedures prior to adopting or revising any regulation imposing traffic control measures for heavy-duty trucks.

(d) This section does not apply to the south coast district, and nothing in this section limits or abridges the authority of the south coast district to adopt regulations affecting heavy-duty trucks pursuant to Section 40447.5.

SEC. 11. Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 40910) is added to Part 3 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 10. DISTRICT PLANS TO ATTAIN STATE AMBIENT AIR QUALITY STANDARDS

40910. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this chapter that districts shall endeavor to achieve and maintain state ambient air quality standards for ozone, carbon monoxide, sulfur dioxide, and nitrogen dioxide by the earliest practicable date. In developing attainment plans and regulations to achieve this objective, districts shall consider the full spectrum of emission sources and focus particular attention on reducing the emissions from transportation and areawide emission sources. Districts shall also consider the cost effectiveness of their air quality programs, rules, regulations, and enforcement practices in addition to other relevant factors, and shall strive to achieve the most efficient methods of air pollution control. However, priority shall be placed upon expeditious progress toward the goal of healthful air.

40911. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), each district which has been designated a nonattainment area for state ambient air quality standards for ozone, carbon monoxide, sulfur dioxide, or nitrogen dioxide shall prepare and submit a plan for attaining and maintaining the standards to the state board not later than December 31, 1990.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), any district which is a receptor or contributor of transported air pollutants, as determined by the state board pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 39610, shall prepare and submit its plan to the state board not later than June 30, 1991.

40912. The plans for districts responsible for or affected by air pollutant transport shall provide for attainment and maintenance of the state and federal standards in both the upwind and downwind district. Each upwind district's plan shall contain, at a minimum, all mitigation requirements established by the state board pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 39610. Each downwind district's plan shall contain sufficient measures to reduce emissions originating in the district below the level at which violations of state ambient air quality standards would occur in the absence of the transport contribution.

40913. (a) Each district plan shall be designed to achieve and maintain the state standards by the earliest practicable date, as determined by the district and subject to the approval of the state board, and in consideration of all relevant factors, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Present and projected maximum ambient pollutant concentration.

(2) Distribution and frequency of violations.

(3) Transport contributions.

(4) Projected emission increases based on industrial, vehicular, or population growth.

(5) Emission inventory characteristics.

(6) Anticipated effectiveness of available and potential control measures.

(7) Emission reductions occurring in, or expected to occur in, the district.

(b) Each district plan shall be based upon a determination by the district board that the plan is a cost-effective strategy to achieve attainment of the state standards by the earliest practicable date.

40914. (a) Each district plan shall be designed to achieve a reduction in districtwide emissions of 5 percent or more per year for each nonattainment pollutant or its precursors, averaged every consecutive three-year period, unless an alternative measure of progress is approved pursuant to Section 39607.

(b) A district may use an alternative emission reduction strategy which achieves less than an average of 5 percent per year reduction in districtwide emissions if the district demonstrates to the state board, and the state board concurs in, either of the following:

(1) That the alternative emission reduction strategy is equal to or more effective than districtwide emission reductions in improving air quality.

(2) That despite the inclusion of every feasible measure in the plan, and an expeditious adoption schedule, the district is unable to achieve at least a 5 percent annual reduction in districtwide emissions.

(c) For purposes of this section and Section 41503.1, reductions in emissions shall be calculated with respect to the actual level of emissions which exist in each district on December 31, 1987. All reductions in emissions occurring after December 31, 1987, including, but not limited to, reductions in emissions resulting from measures adopted prior to December 31, 1987, shall be included in this calculation.

40915. Each district plan shall contain contingency measures to be implemented upon a finding by the state board, pursuant to Section 41503.3, that the district is failing to achieve interim goals or maintain adequate progress toward attainment. Any regulations necessary to implement the contingency measures shall be adopted by the district within 180 days following the state board's determination of inadequate progress.

40916. (a) The state board shall make technical assistance available to a district, at its request, to support attainment planning and air pollutant transport planning and associated analyses. If the state board lacks sufficient resources to make technical assistance available to each district which requests assistance, the state board shall give priority to districts which have limited financial or technical capabilities.

(b) The state board shall develop guidelines for use by the districts to prepare emission inventories, develop monitoring networks, and develop methods for the validation of air quality models.

40917. Two or more districts within the same air basin shall cooperate to the extent reasonable and appropriate in developing plan elements of mutual concern. These elements may include, but are not limited to, emission inventories, air quality models, and growth projections.

40918. (a) Each district with moderate air pollution shall, to the extent necessary to meet the requirements of the plan developed pursuant to Section 40913, include the following measures in its attainment plan:

(1) A permitting program designed to achieve no net increase in emissions of nonattainment pollutants or their precursors from new or modified stationary sources which emit or have the potential to emit 25 tons per year or more of nonattainment pollutants or their precursors.

(2) Reasonably available control technology for all existing sources.

(3) Reasonably available transportation control measures.

(4) Provisions to develop area source and indirect source control programs.

(5) Provisions to develop and maintain an emissions inventory system to enable analysis and progress reporting and a commitment to develop other analytical techniques to carry out its responsibilities pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 40924.

(6) Provisions for public education programs to promote actions to reduce emissions from transportation and areawide sources.

(b) A district's air pollution is moderate if the state board finds and determines that the district can attain and maintain the applicable state standard by not later than December 31, 1994.

40919. (a) Each district with serious air pollution shall, to the extent necessary to meet the requirements of the plan adopted pursuant to Section 40913, include the following measures in its attainment plan:

(1) All measures required for moderate nonattainment areas, as specified in Section 40918.

(2) A permitting program designed to achieve no net increase in emissions of nonattainment pollutants or their precursors from all permitted new or modified stationary sources.

(3) Transportation control measures to substantially reduce the rate of increase in passenger vehicle trips and miles traveled per trip.

(4) A requirement for the application of the best available retrofit control technology, as defined in Section 40406, to existing stationary sources.

(b) A district's air pollution is serious if the state board finds and determines that the district cannot attain and maintain the applicable state standard until after December 31, 1994, but can attain and maintain the standard by not later than December 31, 1997.

40920. (a) Each district with severe air pollution shall, to the extent necessary to meet the requirements of Section 40913, include the following measures in its attainment plan:

(1) All measures required for moderate and serious nonattainment areas, as specified in Sections 49018 and 40919.

(2) Transportation control measures to achieve an average during weekday commute hours of 1.5 or more persons per passenger vehicle by 1999, and no net increase in vehicle emissions after 1997.

(3) Measures to achieve the use of a significant number of low-emission motor vehicles by operators of motor vehicle fleets.

(4) Measures sufficient to reduce overall population exposure to ambient pollutant levels in excess of the standard by at least 25 percent by December 31, 1994, 40 percent by December 31, 1997, and 50 percent by December 31, 2000, based on average per capita exposure and the severity of the exceedences, so as to minimize health impacts, using the average level of exposure experienced during 1986 through 1988 as the baseline.

(b) A district's air pollution is severe if the state board finds and determines that the district cannot attain and maintain the applicable state standard until after December 31, 1997, or is unable to identify an attainment date.

40921. For the purposes of Sections 40918, 40919, and 40920, the designation of a district's air pollution as "moderate," "serious," or "severe" for an area which is a receptor of transported air pollutants shall be based on violations of state ambient air quality standards which would occur without regard to the transport contribution.

40922. (a) Each plan prepared pursuant to this chapter shall include an assessment of the cost effectiveness of available and proposed control measures and shall contain a list which ranks the control measures from the least cost-effective to the most cost-effective.

(b) In developing an adoption and implementation schedule for a specific control measure, the district shall consider the relative cost effectiveness of the measure, as determined under subdivision (a), as well as other factors including, but not limited to, technological feasibility, total emission reduction potential, the rate of reduction, public acceptability, and enforceability.

40923. (a) Upon the state board's approval of a district's attainment plan, and annually thereafter, the district shall publish a list of regulatory measures scheduled or tentatively scheduled for consideration during the following year. The district shall not propose a regulatory measure for consideration during any year that is not contained in the district's most recently published list of proposed regulatory measures unless earlier consideration is necessary to satisfy federal requirements, to abate a substantial endangerment to public health or welfare, or to comply with Section 39666 or 40915.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to any modification of existing rules which the district finds and determines is necessary to preserve the original intent of the rules, as stated upon their adoption.

40924. (a) Each year following the state board's approval of a district's attainment plan, the district shall prepare and submit a report to the board summarizing its progress in meeting the schedules for developing, adopting, or implementing the air pollution control measures contained in the plan.

(b) Every third year following the state board's approval of the district's attainment plan, the district shall assess the overall effectiveness of its air quality program, the quantity of emission reductions actually achieved in the preceding three-year period, and the rate of population and industrial- and vehicular-related emissions growth experienced in the district and projected for the future, and shall contrast all of the preceding to the assumptions and goals contained in the district's attainment plan. The district shall also assess the extent of air quality improvement achieved during the preceding three years, based upon ambient pollutant measurements and best available modeling techniques. Upon completion of each triennial analysis, the district shall adopt its findings at a public hearing and report its findings to the state board.

40925. (a) Every district shall review its attainment plan at least once every three years to correct for deficiencies in meeting the interim measures of progress incorporated into the plan pursuant to Section 40914, and to incorporate new data or projections into the plan.

(b) A district may modify the emission reduction strategy or alternative measure of progress for subsequent years based on this assessment if the district demonstrates to the state board, and the state board finds, that the modified strategy is at least as effective in improving air quality as the strategy which is being replaced.

(c) Each district which will not attain the state standard for ozone within five years after approval of its plan by the state board, and which cannot demonstrate attainment by January 1, 2000, shall prepare and submit a comprehensive update of its plan to the state board not later than December 31, 1998. The revised plan shall include an interim air quality improvement goal or an equivalent emission reduction strategy, subject to review and approval by the state board, to be achieved in the subsequent five-year period.

40926. Nothing in this chapter restricts the authority of the state board or a district to adopt regulations to control suspended particulate matter, visibility reducing particles, lead, hydrogen sulfide, or sulfates, or their precursors.

SEC. 12. Section 41500 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

41500. To coordinate air pollution control activities throughout the state, and to ensure that the entire state is, or will be, in compliance with the standards adopted pursuant to Section 39606, the state board shall do all of the following:

(a) Review the district attainment plans submitted pursuant to Section 40911, and the revised plans submitted pursuant to Section 40925, to determine whether the plans will achieve and maintain the state's ambient air quality standards by the earliest practicable date.

(b) Review the rules and regulations and programs submitted by the districts pursuant to Section 40704 to determine whether they are sufficiently effective to achieve and maintain the state ambient air quality standards.

(c) Review the enforcement practices of the districts and local agencies delegated authority by districts pursuant to Section 40717 to determine whether reasonable action is being taken to enforce their programs, rules, and regulations.

SEC. 13. Section 41503 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 41503 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41503. (a) Within 12 months of receiving each district's attainment plan developed pursuant to Section 40911, the state board shall determine whether the attainment date specified in the plan represents the earliest practicable date and whether the measures contained in the plan are sufficient to achieve and maintain state ambient air quality standards.

(b) Where regional air pollution is involved, the state board shall conduct its review to include the plans of every district in the air basin, and shall determine whether the combination of measures in all the plans is sufficient to achieve and maintain state ambient air quality standards throughout the air basin. The state board shall hold at least one public hearing in each affected air basin prior to reaching a final determination of the sufficiency of the plans. The state board shall require control measures for the same emission sources to be uniform throughout the air basin to the maximum extent feasible, unless a district demonstrates to the satisfaction of the state board that adoption of the measure within its jurisdiction is not necessary to achieve or maintain the state ambient air quality standard.

(c) Where air pollutant transport is a factor, the state board shall determine whether the attainment plan is sufficient to satisfy the requirements of Section 40912.

(d) If a district is unable to specify an attainment date and the state board concurs that projecting an attainment date is not feasible, the state board shall determine whether the plan contains every feasible control strategy or measure to ensure progress toward attainment is maintained.

(e) In making determinations under subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d), the state board shall consider any emission reductions occurring in, or expected to occur in, the district or air basin.

SEC. 15. Section 41503.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41503.1. The state board may approve an attainment plan which achieves less emission reductions than 5 percent per year, or less than 15 percent every three years, as specified in Section 40914, if the state board determines that the district is unable to meet these requirements, despite the expeditious adoption of all feasible controls, or if the state board determines that the equivalent air quality improvement will be achieved through an alternate level of emissions reduction.

SEC. 16. Section 41503.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41503.2. (a) If the state board concludes that a district's plan does not meet the requirements of Section 41503, the state board shall notify the district of all deficiencies in writing. The district shall correct the deficiencies identified by the state board, and shall submit its revised plan to the state board for approval.

(b) If the district does not concur with the state board's findings and determinations of deficiency, or the state board determines that the district's plan revisions are inadequate to remedy identified deficiencies, the state board and the district shall attempt to resolve the differences within three months of the board's disapproval. The state board and the districts shall develop a uniform conflict resolution procedure, for purposes of this subdivision, prior to any district's submittal of its attainment plan to the state board.

(c) If a conflict between the state board and district cannot be resolved, the state board shall take all of the following actions:

(1) Conduct a public hearing in the air basin containing the affected district for purposes of hearing testimony on the plan and the deficiencies identified by the state board pursuant to subdivision (a).

(2) Prior to conducting the hearing, provide a 45-day written notice to the affected district and to the public of the date, time, location, and subject of the hearing.

(3) After conducting the public hearing on the plan and the deficiencies identified by the state board, revise the district's plan as it finds and determines necessary.

SEC. 17. Section 41503.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41503.3. Upon receipt of a district's triennial progress report and plan revisions prepared pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 40924, the state board shall determine whether the district has achieved the minimum rate of progress under Section 40914 or as adjusted by the board pursuant to Section 41503.1. The state board shall require the adoption of one or more contingency measures when the minimum rate of progress has not been achieved, unless the district demonstrates to the satisfaction of the state board that the discrepancy will be corrected and the deficiency restored during the next reporting period.

SEC. 18. Section 41503.4 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41503.4. All actions of the state board to approve, revise and approve, or disapprove a district's attainment plan or plan revision shall be taken at a noticed public hearing.

SEC. 19. Section 41503.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41503.5. The state board shall ensure that a district's attainment plan and plan revisions meet the requirements of this part and of Part 3 (commencing with Section 40000), and that every reasonable action is taken to achieve the state ambient air quality standards for ozone, carbon monoxide, nitrogen dioxide, and sulfur dioxide at the earliest practicable date.

SEC. 20. The heading of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 41600) of Part 4 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 2. BASINWIDE MITIGATION FOR COGENERATION AND RESOURCE RECOVERY PROJECTS

SEC. 21. Section 41600 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 22. Section 41601 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 23. Section 41602 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 24. Section 41603 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 25. Section 41604 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

41600. (a) The districts shall provide for, and shall periodically revise as appropriate, the growth allowances necessary to accommodate the net air quality impact, if any, of cogeneration technology projects and resource recovery projects expected to be permitted by January 1, 1987, and subsequent periods thereafter, pursuant to Section 42314, so that state and federal ambient air quality standards may be achieved and maintained or that reasonable further progress be made toward attainment.

(b) If appropriate, the districts shall submit to the state board, for inclusion in the next state implementation plan revisions, the necessary control measures for the growth allowances for federally approved nonattainment pollutants and precursors required by subdivision (a).

(c) Any district which lacks a federally approved demonstration of attainment with the national ambient air quality standard for ozone or nitrogen dioxide is not required to provide a growth allowance for any pollutant under this section until two years after the district makes both demonstrations. Federal approval shall be determined, based on regulations adopted by the Environmental Protection Agency, after public notice and opportunity for comment. After a district demonstrates attainment, the district may establish a growth allowance by allocating an air quality increment within the ambient air quality standard or through adoption of further control measures.

SEC. 26. Section 41712 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41712. (a) On or before January 1, 1992, the state board shall adopt regulations to achieve the maximum feasible reduction in reactive organic compounds emitted by consumer products, if the state board determines that adequate data exists for it to adopt the regulations.

(b) The state board shall not adopt regulations pursuant to subdivision (a) unless the regulations are technologically and commercially feasible, and necessary to carry out this division.

(c) For purposes of this section, a "consumer product" means a chemically formulated product used by household and institutional consumers, including, but not limited to, detergents; cleaning compounds; polishes; floor finishes; cosmetics; personal care products; home, lawn, and garden products; disinfectants; sanitizers; and automotive speciality products but do not include paint, furniture coatings, or architectural coatings.

(d) Prior to January 1, 1994, a district shall adopt no regulation relating to a consumer product which is different than any regulation adopted by the state board for that purpose.

SEC. 27. Section 42301 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

42301. A permit system established pursuant to Section 42300 shall do all of the following:

(a) Ensure that the article, machine, equipment, or contrivance for which the permit was issued shall not prevent or interfere with the attainment or maintenance of any applicable air quality standard.

(b) Prohibit the issuance of a permit unless the air pollution control officer is satisfied, on the basis of criteria adopted by the district board, that the article, machine, equipment, or contrivance will comply with all applicable orders, rules, and regulations of the district and of the state board and with all applicable provisions of this division.

(c) Require, upon annual renewal, that each permit be reviewed to determine that permit conditions are adequate to ensure compliance with, and the enforceability of, district rules and regulations applicable to the article, machine, equipment, or contrivance for which the permit was issued which were in effect at the time the permit was issued or modified, or which have subsequently been adopted and made retroactively applicable to an existing article, machine, equipment, or contrivance, by the district board and, if the conditions are not consistent, require that the permit be revised to specify the permit conditions in accordance with all applicable rules and regulations.

(d) Provide for the reissuance or transfer of a permit to a new owner or operator of an article, machine, equipment, or contrivance. An application for transfer of ownership only, or change in operator only, of any article, machine, equipment, or contrivance which had a valid permit to operate within the two-year period immediately preceding the application is a temporary permit to operate. Issuance of the final permit to operate shall be conditional upon a determination by the district that the criteria specified in subdivisions (b) and (c) are met, if the permit was not surrendered as a condition to receiving emission reduction credits pursuant to banking or permitting rules of the district. However, under no circumstances shall the criteria specify that a change of ownership or operator alone is a basis for requiring more stringent emission controls or operating conditions than would otherwise apply to the article, machine, equipment, or contrivance.

SEC. 28. Section 42301.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42301.1. Whenever necessary and appropriate to ensure compliance with all applicable conditions prior to issuance of a permit to operate an article, machine, equipment, or contrivance, a district may issue a temporary permit to operate. The temporary permit to operate shall specify a reasonable period of time during which the article, machine, equipment, or contrivance may be operated in order for the district to determine whether it will operate in accordance with the conditions specified in the authority to construct.

SEC. 28.5. Section 42302.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42302.1. Within 10 days of any decision or action pertaining to the issuance of a permit by a district, any aggrieved person who, in person or through a representative, appeared, submitted written testimony, or otherwise participated in the action before the district may request the hearing board of the district to hold a public hearing to determine whether the permit was properly issued. Within 30 days of the request, the hearing board shall hold a public hearing and shall render a decision on whether the permit was properly issued.

SEC. 29. Section 42311 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

42311. (a) A district board may adopt, by regulation, a schedule of annual fees for the evaluation, issuance, and renewal of permits to cover the cost of district programs related to permitted stationary sources authorized or required under this division that are not otherwise funded. The fees assessed under this section shall not exceed, for any fiscal year, the actual costs for district programs for the immediately preceding fiscal year with an adjustment not greater than the change in the annual California Consumer Price Index, as determined pursuant to Section 2212 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the preceding year. Any revenues received by the district pursuant to the fees, which exceed the cost of the programs, shall be carried over for expenditure in the subsequent fiscal year, and the schedule of fees shall be changed to reflect that carryover. Every person applying for a permit, notwithstanding Section 6103 of the Government Code, shall pay the fees required by the schedule. Nothing in this subdivision precludes the district from recovering, through its schedule of annual fees, the estimated reasonable costs of district programs related to permitted stationary sources.

(b) The district board may require an applicant to deposit a fee in accord with the schedule adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) prior to evaluating a permit application, if the district accounts for the costs of its services and refunds to the applicant any significant portion of the deposit which exceeds the actual, reasonable cost of evaluating the application.

(c) Except as provided in Section 42313, all the fees shall be paid to the district treasurer to the credit of the district.

(d) This section does not apply to the south coast district board which is governed by Section 40510.

(e) In addition to providing notice as otherwise required, before adopting a regulation establishing fees pursuant to this section, the district board shall hold at least one public meeting, at which oral or written presentations can be made, as part of a regularly scheduled meeting. Notice of the time and place of the meeting, including a general explanation of the matter to be considered, and a statement that the information required by this section is available, shall be mailed at least 14 days prior to the meeting to any interested party who files a written request with the district board. Any written request for the mailed notices shall be valid for one year from the date on which it is filed unless a renewal request is filed. Renewal requests for the mailed notices shall be filed on or before April 1 of each year. The district board may establish a reasonable annual charge for sending the notices based on the estimated cost of providing that service. At least 10 days prior to the meeting, the district board shall make available to the public information indicating the amount of cost, or estimated cost, required to provide the service for which the fee is charged and the revenue sources anticipated to provide the service. Any costs incurred by the district board in conducting the required meeting may be recovered from fees charged for the programs which were the subject of the meeting.

(f) In addition to any other fees authorized by this section, a district board may adopt, by regulation, a schedule of annual fees to be assessed against permitted nonvehicular sources emitting toxic air contaminants identified pursuant to the procedure set forth in Sections 39660, 39661, and 39662. A district board shall demonstrate that the fees assessed under this subdivision do not exceed the reasonable, anticipated costs of funding district activities mandated by Section 39666 related to nonvehicular source emissions. In making the demonstration, the district shall account for all direct and indirect costs of district activities related to each toxic air contaminant. If the district does not make this demonstration, it shall make reimbursement for that portion of the fee not determined to be reasonable.

(g) A district may adopt, by regulation, a schedule of fees to be assessed on areawide or indirect sources of emissions which are regulated, but for which permits are not issued, by the district to recover the costs of district programs related to these sources.

(h) A district board may adopt, by regulation, a schedule of fees to cover the reasonable costs of the hearing board incurred as a result of appeals from district decisions on the issuance of permits. However, the hearing board may waive all or part of these fees if it determines that circumstances warrant that waiver.

(i) Nothing in the amendments to this section enacted in 1988 limits or abridges any previously existing authority of a district to vary fees according to quantity of emissions, nor affects any pending litigation which might affect that previous authority.

SEC. 29.2. Section 42311.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42311.1. (a) On or before July 1, 1990, and at least once every two years thereafter, the state board shall prepare a report on the sources of funding for each district with an annual budget which exceeds one million dollars ($1,000,000). The report shall include all of the following:

(1) The annual budget of each district, based upon the most recent fiscal year for which data are available.

(2) A description of each district's budgetary process, including, but not limited to, criteria for allocating costs.

(3) A description of current funding sources for district programs, including, but not limited to, fees, state subventions, federal grants, and local tax revenues, and the approximate amount each source contributes to the district's annual budget.

(4) A comparison of the fees paid by different industries within each district, to the extent these data are available.

(5) A description of program needs, if any, which are not met by current funding levels.

(6) For a district which adopts a schedule of fees for issuance of permits for activities described under Section 42311.2, a comparison between the fees paid by persons or entities issued a permit and district administrative costs for issuing and enforcing those permits.

(b) Every district included within subdivision (a) shall provide data and analyses to the state board for inclusion in the report.

(c) The state board shall consult with districts and other interested parties prior to preparing the report required under subdivision (a).

(d) Upon adoption of the report described in subdivision (a), the state board shall transmit copies of the report to the Governor and the Legislature.

(e) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1997, and, as of January 1, 1998, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 29.4. Section 42311.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42311.2. (a) Notwithstanding Section 42311, a district shall not adopt or impose fees which exceed actual district administrative costs for processing or enforcing permits applicable to any of the following:

(1) Prescribed burning operations on state responsibility lands conducted under the terms of a permit issued by the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 4491) of Chapter 7 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Public Resources Code when the purpose of the operation is prevention of high-intensity wildland fires through reduction of the volume and continuity of wildland fuels.

(2) Burning of vegetation or disposal of slash following timber operations required under regulations adopted by the State Board of Forestry pursuant to Section 4551.5 or 4562 of the Public Resources

Code and for the purpose of reducing the incidence and spread of fires on timberlands.

(3) Wildland vegetation management burns. For purposes of this subdivision, "wildland vegetation management burn" means the use of prescribed burning conducted by a public agency, or through a cooperative agreement or contract involving a public agency to burn land predominantly covered with chaparral, trees, grass, or standing brush. For purposes of this subdivision, "prescribed burning" is the planned application of fire to vegetation to achieve any specific objective on lands selected in advance of that application. The planned application of fire may include natural or accidental ignition.

(b) Prior to adopting or revising fees for the activities described in paragraph (1), (2), or (3), a district shall hold a public hearing and shall consider the following:

(1) The costs of the fees on private landowners and other persons who engage in activities specified in paragraph (1), (2), or (3).

(2) Any revenues currently provided to the county for general government by public agencies which administer public lands.

SEC. 30. Section 42352 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

42352. No variance shall be granted unless the hearing board makes all of the following findings:

(a) That the petitioner for a variance is, or will be, in violation of Section 41701 or of any rule, regulation, or order of the district.

(b) That, due to conditions beyond the reasonable control of the petitioner, requiring compliance would result in either (1) an arbitrary or unreasonable taking of property, or (2) the practical closing and elimination of a lawful business.

(c) That the closing or taking would be without a corresponding benefit in reducing air contaminants.

(d) That the applicant for the variance has given consideration to curtailing operations of the source in lieu of obtaining a variance.

(e) During the period the variance is in effect, that the applicant will reduce excess emissions to the maximum extent feasible.

(f) During the period the variance is in effect, that the applicant will monitor or otherwise quantify emission levels from the source, if requested to do so by the district, and report these emission levels to the district pursuant to a schedule established by the district.

SEC. 31. Section 42402.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42402.5. In addition to any civil and criminal penalties prescribed under this article, a district may impose administrative civil penalties for a violation of this part, or any order, permit, rule, or regulation of the state board or of a district, including a district hearing board, adopted pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 39000) to Part 4 (commencing with Section 41500), inclusive, if the district board has adopted rules and regulations specifying procedures for the imposition and amounts of these penalties. No administrative civil penalty levied pursuant to this section may exceed five hundred dollars ($500) for each violation. However, nothing in this section is intended to restrict the authority of a district to negotiate mutual settlements under any other penalty provisions of law which exceed five hundred dollars ($500).

SEC. 32. Section 43000.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

43000.5. The Legislature further finds and declares:

(a) That despite the significant reductions in vehicle emissions which have been achieved in recent years, continued growth in population and vehicle miles traveled throughout California have the potential not only to prevent attainment of the state standards, but in some cases, to result in worsening of air quality.

(b) That the attainment and maintenance of the state air quality standards will necessitate the achievement of substantial reductions in new vehicle emissions and substantial improvements in the durability of vehicle emissions systems.

(c) That the burden for achieving needed reductions in vehicle emissions should be distributed equitably among various classes of vehicles, including both on- and off-road vehicles, light-duty cars and trucks, and heavy-duty vehicles, to accomplish improvements in both the emissions level and in-use performance and durability of all new motor vehicles.

(d) That the state board should take immediate action to implement both short- and long-range programs of across-the-board reductions in vehicle emissions which can be relied upon by the districts in the preparation of their attainment plans or plan revisions pursuant to Sections 40911, 40902, and 40925.

(e) That in order to attain the state and federal standards as expeditiously and equitably as possible, it is necessary for the authority of the state board to be clarified and expanded with respect to the control of motor vehicles and motor vehicle fuels.

SEC. 33. Section 43013 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

43013. (a) The state board may adopt and implement motor vehicle emission standards, in-use performance standards, and motor vehicle fuel specifications for the control of air contaminants and sources of air pollution which the state board has found to be necessary, cost-effective, and technologically feasible to carry out the purposes of this division.

(b) The state board may, consistent with subdivision (a), adopt standards and regulations for light-duty and heavy-duty motor vehicles; medium-duty motor vehicles, as determined and specified by the state board; motorcycles; off-highway vehicles; construction equipment; farm equipment; utility engines; locomotives; and, to the extent permitted by federal law, marine vessels.

(c) Prior to adopting standards and regulations for farm equipment, the state board shall hold a public hearing and find and determine that the standards and regulations are necessary, cost-effective, and technologically feasible. The state board shall also consider the technological effects of emission control standards on the cost, fuel consumption, and performance characteristics of mobile farm equipment.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), the state board shall not adopt any standard or regulation affecting locomotives until the final study required under Section 5 of Chapter 1326 of the Statutes of 1987 has been completed and submitted to the Governor and Legislature.

SEC. 34. Section 43018 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

43018. (a) The state board shall endeavor to achieve the maximum degree of emission reduction possible from vehicular and other mobile sources in order to accomplish the attainment of the state standards at the earliest practicable date.

(b) Not later than January 1, 1992, the state board shall take whatever actions are necessary, cost-effective, and technologically feasible in order to achieve, not later than December 31, 2000, a reduction in the actual emissions of reactive organic gases of at least 55 percent, a reduction in emissions of oxides of nitrogen of at least 15 percent from motor vehicles. These reductions in emissions shall be calculated with respect to the 1987 baseline year. The state board also shall take action to achieve the maximum feasible reductions in particulates, carbon monoxide, and toxic air contaminants from vehicular sources.

(c) In carrying out this section, the state board shall adopt standards and regulations which will result in the most cost-effective combination of control measures on all classes of motor vehicles and motor vehicle fuel, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Reductions in motor vehicle exhaust and evaporative emissions.

(2) Reductions in emissions from in-use emissions from motor vehicles through improvements in emission system durability and performance.

(3) Requiring the purchase of low-emission vehicles by state fleet operators.

(4) Specification of vehicular fuel composition.

(d) In order to accomplish the purposes of this division, and to ensure timely approval of the district's plans for attainment of the state air quality standards by the state board, the state board shall adopt the following schedule for workshops and hearings to consider the adoption of the standards and regulations required pursuant to this section:

(1) Workshops on the adoption of vehicular fuel specifications for aromatic content, diesel fuel quality, light-duty vehicle exhaust emission standards, and revisions to the standards for new vehicle certification and durability to reflect current driving conditions and useful vehicle life shall be held not later than March 31, 1989. Hearings of the state board to consider adoption of proposed regulations pursuant to this subdivision shall be held not later than

November 15, 1989.

(2) Workshops on the adoption of regulations governing gasoline Reid Vapor Pressure, and standards for heavy-duty and medium-duty vehicle emissions, shall be held not later than January 31, 1990. Hearings of the state board to consider adoption of proposed regulations pursuant to this subdivision shall be held not later than November 15, 1990.

(3) Workshops on the adoption of regulations governing detergent content, emissions from off-highway vehicles, vehicle fuel composition, emissions from construction equipment and farm equipment, motorcycles, locomotives, utility engines, and to the extent permitted by federal law, marine vessels, shall be held not later than January 31, 1991. Hearings of the state board to consider adoption of proposed regulations pursuant to this subdivision shall be held not later than November 15, 1991.

SEC. 35. Section 43019 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

43019. The state board may adopt, by regulation, a schedule of annual fees for the certification of motor vehicles and engines sold in the state to cover the costs of state programs authorized or required under this chapter related to mobile sources. The total amount of funds collected pursuant to this section shall not exceed four million five hundred thousand dollars ($4,500,000) in the 1989-90 fiscal year, and in any subsequent year shall not increase by an amount greater than the annual increase in the California Consumer Price Index, as determined pursuant to Section 2212 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the preceding year. The fees collected by the state board pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Air Pollution Control Fund.

SEC. 36. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 1569

An act to add Section 40233 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to improve traffic congestion and air quality in the San Francisco Bay Area by implementing transportation control measures which reduce vehicle trips, vehicle use, vehicle miles traveled, and vehicle idling.

SEC. 2. Section 40233 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40233. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the bay district shall adopt, implement, and enforce transportation control measures for the attainment of state or federal ambient air quality standards, in accordance with all of the following procedures:

(1) The bay district shall estimate, by June 30, 1989, the quantity of emission reductions from transportation sources necessary to attain and maintain state and federal ambient air standards.

(2) The Metropolitan Transportation Commission, in cooperation with the bay district, the Association of Bay Area Governments, local entities, and employers, shall develop and adopt a plan to control emissions from transportation sources which will achieve the emission reductions established pursuant to paragraph (1). The plan shall include, at a minimum, a schedule for implementing transportation control measures, identification of potential implementing agencies and any agreements entered into by agencies to implement portions of the plan, and a procedure for monitoring the effectiveness of and compliance with the measures. The commission shall submit the plan to the bay district for its adoption according to a reasonable schedule developed by the bay district in consultation with the commission, but not later than June 30, 1990.

(3) Upon receipt of the plan submitted by the commission, the bay district shall review the plan to determine if it will achieve the emission reductions specified in paragraph (1). If the bay district determines that the plan will achieve those reductions, the bay district shall adopt the plan and implement it immediately. If the bay district determines that the plan will not achieve the emission reductions specified in paragraph (1), it shall notify the commission of the specific deficiencies in the plan and return the plan to the commission for revision. Within 60 days after receipt of the plan, the commission shall revise it and return it to the bay district. If the bay district determines that the revised plan will achieve necessary emission reductions, the bay district shall adopt the plan and implement it immediately. If the bay district determines that the revised plan still will not achieve the emission reductions specified in paragraph (1), or if the plan is not submitted pursuant to the schedule established under paragraph (2), the bay district shall develop and adopt a plan to control emissions from transportation sources.

(4) As the bay district periodically revises its estimates of the emission reductions from transportation sources necessary to attain state and federal ambient air standards specified in paragraph (1), the plan for transportation control measures shall also be revised, adopted, and enforced according to the procedure established pursuant to paragraphs (1), (2), and (3).

(b) The bay district may delegate any function with respect to transportation control measures to any local agency, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The local agency submits to the bay district an implementation plan which provides adequate resources to adopt and enforce the measures, and the bay district approves the plan.

(2) The local agency agrees to adopt and implement measures at least as stringent as those in the district air quality management plan to attain state standards.

(3) The bay district adopts procedures to review the performance of the local agency in implementing the measures to ensure compliance with the district air quality management plan to attain state standards.

(c) The bay district may revoke a delegation under this section if it determines that the performance of the local agency is in violation of this section or is otherwise inadequate to implement the district air quality management plan.

(d) For purposes of this section, "transportation control measures" means any strategy to reduce vehicle trips, vehicle use, vehicle miles traveled, vehicle idling, or traffic congestion for purposes of reducing motor vehicle emissions.

(e) The bay district and the commission shall report, not later than June 30, 1991, to the Legislature on the effectiveness of this section.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1570

An act to amend Section 50841 of, and to repeal Section 50843 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50841 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50841. There is hereby created in the State Treasury the California Housing Trust Fund which shall only be available for the exclusive trust purposes specified in Section 50842 upon appropriation by the Legislature. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all money in the fund is continuously appropriated for the purposes of Section 50842. There shall be paid into the fund any fees, repayments, or reimbursements received by the department on account of a loan or grant made or to be made with moneys derived from the California Housing Trust Fund, unless the loan or grant was made from another fund or account and conflicting provisions of law require those moneys to be deposited into that other fund or account. The California Housing Trust Fund shall also consist of bond proceeds or any other moneys which may be made available to the fund for the purposes of the fund from any other source or sources.

All interest or other increment resulting from investment or deposit of moneys in the fund shall be deposited in the fund, notwithstanding Section 16305.7 of the Government Code. Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, or unless specifically appropriated by the Legislature to other funds established pursuant to this division, moneys in the fund shall not be subject to transfer to any other fund pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 16300) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, except the Surplus Money Investment Fund.

When utilizing moneys appropriated from the California Housing Trust Fund, the department shall give priority to projects that cannot be financed from bond proceeds, or that complement capital expenditures from bond proceeds.

SEC. 2. Section 50843 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by Chapter 888 of the Statutes of 1986, is amended to read:

6217. With the exception of revenues derived from state school lands and from sources described in Sections 6217.6, 6301.5, 6301.6, 6855, and 8551 to 8558, inclusive, and Section 6406 (insofar as the proceeds are from property that has been distributed or escheated to the state in connection with unclaimed estates of deceased persons), the commission shall deposit in the State Treasury all revenues, moneys, and remittances received by it under this division, and under Chapter 138 of the Statutes of 1964, First Extraordinary Session, and these sums shall be applied to the following obligations in the following order:

(a) To the General Fund the revenue necessary to provide in any fiscal year for the following:

(1) Payment of refunds, authorized by the commission and approved by the State Board of Control, out of appropriations made for that purpose by the Legislature.

(2) Payment of expenditures of the commission as provided in the annual Budget Act approved by the Legislature.

(3) Payments to cities and counties of the amounts specified in Section 6817 for the purposes specified in that section, and the revenues so deposited are appropriated for such purpose.

(4) Payments to cities and counties of the amounts agreed to pursuant to the provisions of Section 6875.

(b) To the California Water Fund each fiscal year the amount of twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000).

(c) To the Central Valley Water Project Construction Fund each fiscal year the amount of five million dollars ($5,000,000).

(d) To the Resources Agency, the amount of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) for each of the fiscal years 1984–85, 1985–86, 1986–87, 1987–88, and 1988–89 for distribution for public and private higher education for use as up to two-thirds of the local matching share for projects under the National Sea Grant College and Program Act of 1966 (P.L. 89-688) approved, upon the recommendation of the advisory panel appointed pursuant to this section, by the Secretary of the Resources Agency or his or her designee. During the 1988–89 fiscal year, the Legislature shall consider recommendations from the Secretary of the Resources Agency and other interested parties on the benefits to the people of the State of California derived from this program and shall determine whether or not to continue similar appropriations for subsequent fiscal years.

There shall be an advisory panel to the Secretary of the Resources Agency consisting of 13 members, which shall do all of the following:

(1) Identify state needs that might be met through Sea Grant research projects, including, but not limited to, such fields as living marine resources, aquaculture, ocean engineering, marine minerals, public recreation, coastal physical processes and coastal and ocean resources planning and management, and marine data acquisition and dissemination, establish priorities for those needs, and transmit those needs and priorities to the Legislature not later than January 1 of each year and include them in all announcements of proposals for grants in the following fiscal year.

(2) Review all applications for funding under this section and make recommendations based upon the priorities it establishes.

(3) Periodically review progress on Sea Grant research projects subsequent to their approval and funding under this section.

(4) Make recommendations to the Secretary of the Resources Agency with respect to the implementation of this section.

The Secretary of the Resources Agency shall appoint the following members of the advisory panel, who shall serve at the pleasure of the secretary:

(A) A representative of the Department of Boating and Waterways.

(B) A representative of the Department of Conservation.

(C) A representative of the Department of Fish and Game.

(D) The executive director of the California Coastal Commission or his or her designee.

(E) A representative of the fish industry.

(F) A representative of the aquaculture industry.

(G) A representative of the ocean engineering industry.

(H) A representative of the University of California.

(I) A representative of the California State University.

(J) A representative of a private California institution of higher education which is participating in the National Sea Grant Program.

(K) A representative of the State Lands Commission.

The Senate Committee on Rules shall appoint one Member of the Senate to the panel, who shall serve at the pleasure of the Senate Committee on Rules.

The Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint one Member of the Assembly to the panel, who shall serve at the pleasure of the Speaker. This member shall not be of the same political party as the member appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules.

The Secretary of the Resources Agency shall designate one member of the panel to serve as its chairman. Panel members shall serve without compensation.

The Sea Grant research projects selected for state support under this section shall have a clearly defined benefit to the people of the State of California. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the funding provided by this section is needed to stimulate the development and utilization of ocean and coastal resources by working constructively with private sector firms and individuals. Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude the application for funding of any project that would be eligible for funding under the terms of the National Sea Grant College and Program Act of 1966.

(e) To the Capital Outlay Fund for Public Higher Education for the 1984–85 fiscal year the amount of one hundred two million one hundred sixty-eight thousand dollars ($102,168,000), and for each fiscal year thereafter, the amount necessary to provide for an unencumbered balance available for appropriation on July 1 of each fiscal year of one hundred twenty-five million dollars ($125,000,000).

(f) (1) To the State School Building Lease-Purchase Fund, for each of the fiscal years 1985–86, 1986–87, 1987–88, 1988–89, 1989–90, and 1990–91, the amount of one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000).

(2) For the fiscal years 1984–85, 1985–86, 1986–87, 1987–88, 1988–89, 1989–90, and 1990–91, up to 5 percent of the amounts deposited in the State School Building Lease-Purchase Fund pursuant to this section or any other provision of law may be spent in accordance with Sections 17785 to 17795, inclusive, of the Education Code (Emergency School Classroom Law of 1979).

(g) To the Energy and Resources Fund each fiscal year, commencing with the 1985–86 fiscal year, the amount of sixty-five million dollars ($65,000,000).

(h) To the California Housing Trust Fund established pursuant to Section 50841 of the Health and Safety Code, for fiscal year 1989–90, the amount of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000).

(i) To the Special Account for Capital Outlay, the balance of all revenues in excess of the amount distributed under subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h).

The commission may, with the approval of the State Board of Control, authorize the refund of moneys received or collected by it illegally or by mistake, inadvertence, or error. Claims authorized by the commission and approved by the State Board of Control shall be filed with the Controller and the Controller shall draw his or her warrant against the General Fund in payment of the refund from any appropriation made for that purpose.

All references in any law to Section 6816 shall be deemed to refer to this section.

SEC. 4. Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by Section 3 of this act, is amended to read:

6217. With the exception of revenues derived from state school lands and from sources described in Sections 6217.6, 6301.5, 6301.6, 6855, and 8551 to 8558, inclusive, and Section 6406 (insofar as the proceeds are from property that has been distributed or escheated to the state in connection with unclaimed estates of deceased persons), the commission shall deposit in the State Treasury all revenues, moneys, and remittances received by it under this division, and under Chapter 138 of the Statutes of 1964, First Extraordinary Session, and these sums shall be applied to the following obligations in the following order:

(a) To the General Fund the revenue necessary to provide in any fiscal year for the following:

(1) Payment of refunds, authorized by the commission and approved by the State Board of Control, out of appropriations made for that purpose by the Legislature.

(2) Payment of expenditures of the commission as provided in the annual Budget Act approved by the Legislature.

(3) Payments to cities and counties of the amounts specified in Section 6817 for the purposes specified in that section, and the revenues so deposited are appropriated for such purpose.

(4) Payments to cities and counties of the amounts agreed to pursuant to the provisions of Section 6875.

(b) To the California Water Fund each fiscal year the amount of twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000).

(c) To the Central Valley Water Project Construction Fund each fiscal year the amount of five million dollars ($5,000,000).

(d) To the General Fund, the amount of five hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($525,000) for each of the 1989–90, 1990–91, 1991–92, 1992–93, and 1993–94 fiscal years for distribution for public and private higher education for use as up to two-thirds of the local matching share for projects under the National Sea Grant College and Program Act of 1966 (P.L. 89-688) approved, upon the recommendation of the advisory panel appointed pursuant to this section, by the Secretary of the Resources Agency or his or her designee. The Secretary of the Resources Agency shall submit a report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1993, which evaluates this program and makes recommendations on whether changes should be made to the program or whether it should be continued. The Legislature shall consider recommendations from the Secretary of the Resources Agency and other interested parties on the benefits to the people of the State of California derived from this program and shall determine whether or not to continue similar appropriations for subsequent fiscal years.

There shall be an advisory panel to the Secretary of the Resources Agency consisting of 16 members, which shall do all of the following:

(1) Identify state needs that might be met through Sea Grant research projects, including, but not limited to, such fields as living marine resources, aquaculture, ocean engineering, marine minerals, public recreation, coastal physical processes and coastal and ocean resources planning and management, and marine data acquisition and dissemination, establish priorities for those needs, and transmit those needs and priorities to the Legislature not later than January 1 of each year and include them in all announcements of proposals for grants in the following fiscal year.

(2) Review all applications for funding under this section and make recommendations based upon the priorities it establishes.

(3) Periodically review progress on Sea Grant research projects subsequent to their approval and funding under this section.

(4) Make recommendations to the Secretary of the Resources Agency with respect to the implementation of this section.

The Secretary of the Resources Agency shall appoint the following members of the advisory panel, who shall serve at the pleasure of the secretary:

(A) A representative of the Department of Boating and Waterways.

(B) A representative of the Department of Conservation.

(C) A representative of the Department of Fish and Game.

(D) The Executive Director of the California Coastal Commission or his or her designee.

(E) A representative of the fish industry.

(F) A representative of the aquaculture industry.

(G) A representative of the ocean engineering industry.

(H) A representative of the University of California.

(I) A representative of the California State University.

(J) A representative of a private California institution of higher education which is participating in the National Sea Grant Program.

(K) A representative of the State Lands Commission.

(L) A representative of the State Department of Health Services.

(M) A representative of the State Water Resources Control Board.

The Senate Committee on Rules shall appoint one Member of the Senate to the panel, who shall serve at the pleasure of the Senate Committee on Rules.

The Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint one Member of the Assembly to the panel, who shall serve at the pleasure of the speaker. This member shall not be of the same political party as the member appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules.

The Secretary of the Resources Agency, or the secretary's designee, shall serve as chairperson of the panel. Panel members shall serve without compensation.

The Sea Grant research projects selected for state support under this section shall have a clearly defined benefit to the people of the State of California. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the funding provided by this section is needed to stimulate the development and utilization of ocean and coastal resources by working constructively with private sector firms and individuals. The Legislature further recognizes the high productivity of the California Sea Grant program, the only statewide program systematically devoted to supporting fundamental research, education, and extension activities on the diversity of problems related to marine resource protection and development. Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude the application for funding of any project that would be eligible for funding under the terms of the National Sea Grant College and Program Act of 1966.

(e) To the Capital Outlay Fund for Public Higher Education for the 1984–85 fiscal year the amount of one hundred two million one hundred sixty-eight thousand dollars ($102,168,000), and for each fiscal year thereafter, the amount necessary to provide for an unencumbered balance available for appropriation on July 1 of each fiscal year of one hundred twenty-five million dollars ($125,000,000).

(f) (1) To the State School Building Lease-Purchase Fund, for each of the fiscal years 1985–86, 1986–87, 1987–88, 1988–89, 1989–90, and 1990–91, the amount of one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000).

(2) For the fiscal years 1984–85, 1985–86, 1986–87, 1987–88, 1988–89, 1989–90, and 1990–91, up to 5 percent of the amounts deposited in the State School Building Lease-Purchase Fund pursuant to this section or any other provision of law may be spent in accordance with Sections 17785 to 17795, inclusive, of the Education Code (Emergency School Classroom Law of 1979).

(g) To the Energy and Resources Fund each fiscal year, commencing with the 1985–86 fiscal year, the amount of sixty-five million dollars ($65,000,000).

(h) To the California Housing Trust Fund established pursuant to Section 50841 of the Health and Safety Code, for fiscal year 1989–90, the amount of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000).

(i) To the Special Account for Capital Outlay, the balance of all revenues in excess of the amount distributed under subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h).

The commission may, with the approval of the State Board of Control, authorize the refund of moneys received or collected by it illegally or by mistake, inadvertence, or error. Claims authorized by the commission and approved by the State Board of Control shall be filed with the Controller and the Controller shall draw his or her warrant against the General Fund in payment of the refund from any appropriation made for that purpose.

All references in any law to Section 6816 shall be deemed to refer to this section.

SEC. 5. Section 4 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3223. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1989, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3223, in which case Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by Section 3 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 3223, at which time Section 4 of this bill shall become operative.

CHAPTER 1571

An act to amend Section 65852.3 of the Government Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65852.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65852.3. (a) A city, including a charter city, county, or city and county, shall allow the installation of manufactured homes certified under the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 5401 et seq.) on a foundation system, pursuant to Section 18551 of the Health and Safety Code, on lots zoned for conventional single-family residential dwellings. Except with respect to architectural requirements, a city, including a charter city, county, or city and county, shall only subject the manufactured home and the lot on which it is placed to the same development standards to which a conventional single-family residential dwelling on the same lot would be subject, including, but not limited to, building setback standards, side and rear yard requirements, standards for enclosures, access, and vehicle parking, aesthetic requirements, and minimum square footage requirements. Any architectural requirements imposed on the manufactured home structure itself, exclusive of any requirement for any and all additional enclosures, shall be limited to its roof overhang, roofing material, and siding material. These architectural requirements may be imposed on manufactured homes even if similar requirements are not imposed on conventional single-family residential dwellings. However, any architectural requirements for roofing and siding material shall not exceed those which would be required of conventional single-family dwellings constructed on the same lot. At the discretion of the local legislative body, the city or county may preclude installation of a manufactured home in zones specified in this section if more than 10 years have elapsed between the date of manufacture of the manufactured home and the date of the application for the issuance of a permit to install the mobilehome in the affected zone. In no case may a city, including a charter city, county, or city and county, apply any development standards which will have the effect of precluding manufactured homes from being installed as permanent residences.

(b) At the discretion of the local legislative body, any place, building, structure, or other object having a special character or special historical interest or value, which is regulated by a legislative body pursuant to Section 37361, may be exempted from this section provided the place, building, structure, or other object is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

CHAPTER 1572

An act to add Section 65852.4 to the Government Code, relating to land use.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65852.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

65852.4. A city, including a charter city, a county, or a city and county, shall not subject an application to locate or install a manufactured home certified under the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 5401 et seq.) on a foundation system, pursuant to Section 18551 of the Health and Safety Code, on a lot zoned for a single-family residential dwelling, to any administrative permit, planning, or development process or requirement, which is not identical to the administrative permit, planning, or development process or requirement which would be imposed on a conventional single-family residential dwelling on the same lot. However, a city, including a charter city, county, or city and county, may require the application to comply with the city's, county's, or city and county's architectural requirements permitted by Section 65852.3 even if the architectural requirements are not required of conventional single-family residential dwellings.

CHAPTER 1573

An act to add Part 10.7 (commencing with Section 21001) to Division 2 of, and to repeal Sections 19276.5 and 26428.5 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19276.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Part 10.7 (commencing with Section 21001) is added to Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

21001. This part shall be known and may be cited as the "Katz-Harris Taxpayers' Bill of Rights Act."

21002. The Legislature finds and declares that taxes are the most sensitive point of contact between citizens and their government, and that there is a delicate balance between revenue collection and freedom from government oppression. It is the intent of the Legislature to place guarantees in California law to ensure that the rights, privacy, and property of California taxpayers are adequately protected during the process of the assessment and collection of taxes.

The Legislature further finds that the California tax system is based largely on self-assessment, and the development of understandable tax laws and taxpayers informed of those laws will both improve self-assessment and the relationship between taxpayers and government. It is the further intent of the Legislature to promote improved taxpayer self-assessment by improving the clarity of tax laws and efforts to inform the public of the proper application of those laws.

21003. The Franchise Tax Board shall administer this part. Unless the context indicates otherwise, the provisions of this part shall apply to Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

For purposes of this part, "board" means the Franchise Tax Board.

21004. (a) The board shall establish the position of the Taxpayers' Rights Advocate. The advocate or his or her designee shall be responsible for coordinating resolution of taxpayer complaints and problems, including any taxpayer complaints regarding unsatisfactory treatment of taxpayers by board employees. The advocate shall report directly to the executive officer of the board.

(b) The advocate or his or her designee shall give highest priority to reviewing and taking prompt and appropriate action, including staying actions where taxpayers have suffered or will suffer irreparable loss as the result of board action. Applicable statutes of limitation shall be tolled during the pendency of a stay. Any penalties and interest which would otherwise accrue shall not be affected by the granting of a stay.

21005. (a) The board, in consultation with the Taxpayers' Rights Advocate, shall develop and implement a taxpayer education and information program directed at, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Taxpayer or industry groups identified in the annual report described in Section 21006.

(2) Board audit and compliance staff.

(3) (A) Identifying forms, procedures, regulations, or laws which are confusing and lead to taxpayer errors.

(B) Taking appropriate action, including recommending remedial legislation to change those items identified pursuant to subparagraph (A).

(b) The education and information program shall include all of the following:

(1) Communication with the taxpayer groups specified in Section 21006 which explains in simplified terms the most common errors made by the taxpayers or industry group and how those errors may be avoided or corrected.

(2) Participating in small business seminars and similar programs organized by state and local agencies.

(3) Revision of taxpayer educational materials currently produced by the board to explain in simplified terms the most common errors made by taxpayers and how those errors may be avoided or corrected.

(4) Implementation of a continuing education program for audit personnel to include the application of new legislation to taxpayer activities and to minimize recurrent taxpayer noncompliance or inconsistency of administration.

21006. (a) The board shall perform annually a systematic identification of areas of recurrent taxpayer noncompliance and shall report its findings to the Legislature on October 1 of each year.

(b) As part of the identification process described in subdivision (a), the board shall do both of the following:

(1) Compile and analyze sample data from its audit process, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(A) The statute or regulation violated by the taxpayer.

(B) The amount of tax involved.

(C) The industry or business engaged in by the taxpayer.

(D) The number of years covered in the audit period.

(E) Whether professional tax preparation assistance was utilized by the taxpayer.

(F) Whether income tax or bank and corporation tax returns were filed by the taxpayer.

(2) Conduct an annual hearing before the board itself where industry representatives and individual taxpayers are allowed to present their proposals on changes to the Personal Income Tax Law or the Bank and Corporation Tax Law which may further facilitate achievement of the legislative findings.

(c) The board shall include in its report recommendations for improving taxpayer compliance and uniform administration, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Changes in statute or board regulations.

(2) Improvement of training of board personnel.

(3) Improvement of taxpayer communication and education.

(4) Increased enforcement capabilities.

21007. The board shall prepare and publish brief but comprehensive statements in simple and nontechnical language which explain procedures, remedies, and the rights and obligations of the board and taxpayers. As appropriate, these statements shall be provided to taxpayers with the initial notice of audit, the notice of proposed additional taxes, any subsequent notice of tax due, or other substantive notices. Additionally, the board shall include an appropriate statement in the tax booklets which are mailed annually to individuals and corporations.

21008. (a) The amount of revenue collected or assessed by the board shall not be used for any of the following:

(1) To evaluate individual officers or employees.

(2) To impose or suggest production quotas or goals.

(b) The board shall annually certify by letter to the Legislature that revenue collected or assessed is not used in a manner prohibited by subdivision (a).

21009. (a) The board shall develop and implement a program which will evaluate an individual employee's or officer's performance with respect to his or her contact with taxpayers. The development and implementation of the program shall be coordinated with the Taxpayers' Rights Advocate.

(b) The board shall report to the Legislature on the implementation of this program in its annual report.

21010. No later than July 1, 1989, the board shall, in cooperation with the State Board of Equalization, the State Bar of California, the California Society of Certified Public Accountants, the Taxpayers' Rights Advocate, and other interested taxpayer-oriented groups, develop a plan to reduce the time required to resolve amended return claims for refund, protests, and appeals. The plan shall include determination of standard time frames and special review of cases which take more time than the appropriate standard time frame.

21011. Procedures of the board, relating to protest hearings before board audit staff or legal staff, shall include all of the following:

(a) Any hearing shall be held at a reasonable time at a board office which is convenient to the taxpayer when possible.

(b) The hearing may be recorded only if prior notice is given to the taxpayer and the taxpayer is entitled to receive a copy of the recording.

(c) The taxpayer shall be informed prior to any hearing that he or she has a right to have present at the hearing his or her attorney, accountant, or other designated agent.

21012. (a) If a person's failure to make a timely return or payment is due to the person's reasonable reliance on written advice from the board, the person may be relieved of the taxes assessed or any interest, additions to tax, and penalties added thereto, as follows:

(1) Taxes shall only be relieved, and any interest, additions to tax, and penalties added thereto, if the person's failure to make a timely return or payment was due to a person's reasonable reliance on the written advice of a legal ruling by the chief counsel, and only if the board itself finds all the conditions satisfied.

(2) In the event that the person relied on written advice of other than a chief counsel ruling, taxes shall not be relieved. Interest, additions to tax, and penalties may be waived if the board staff finds all the conditions satisfied.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), all of the following conditions shall be satisfied:

(1) The person or the person's representative requested in writing that the board advise him or her whether a particular activity or transaction is subject to tax under the tax laws administered by that agency, and the specific facts and circumstances of the activity or transaction were fully described in the request. If the request is for a legal ruling, the request shall specifically so state.

(2) The board responded in writing to the person regarding the written request for advice, stating whether or not the described activity or transaction is subject to tax, or stating the conditions under which the activity or transaction is subject to tax. In the case where a chief counsel ruling is issued, the ruling shall be signed by the chief counsel or his or her designee.

(3) In reasonable reliance on the board's written advice, the person did not remit the tax due.

(4) The liability for taxes applied to a particular activity or transaction which occurred before the board rescinded or modified the advice so given, by sending written notice to the person of the rescinded or modified advice.

(5) The tax consequences expressed in the board's written advice were not subsequently changed by any of the following:

(A) A change in statutory law or case law.

(B) A change in federal interpretation in cases where the board's written advice was predicated upon federal interpretation.

(C) A change in material facts or circumstances relating to the taxpayer.

(c) Any person seeking relief under this section shall file with the board all of the following:

(1) A copy of the person's written request to the board and a copy of the board's written advice.

(2) A statement signed under penalty of perjury, setting forth the facts on which the claim is based.

(3) Any other information which the board may require.

(d) Only the person making the written request shall be entitled to rely on the board's written advice to that person.

(e) If written advice is issued pursuant to this section, it shall include a declaration that the tax consequences expressed in the advice may be subject to change for any of the reasons specified in paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) and that it is the duty of the taxpayer to be aware of any of these possible changes.

(f) This section does not apply if the taxpayer's request for written advice pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) contained a misrepresentation or omission of one or more material facts.

(g) For purposes of subdivision (a), the board shall waive only that portion of tax, penalties, interest, and additions to tax attributable to the actions taken by the taxpayer after receipt of the written advice of the board which were in reasonable reliance on the written advice.

(h) Chief counsel rulings shall be issued as provided in published guidelines.

21013. (a) Every taxpayer is entitled to be reimbursed for any reasonable fees and expenses related to a hearing before the State Board of Equalization if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The taxpayer files a claim for the fee and expenses with the State Board of Control.

(2) The State Board of Equalization, in its sole discretion, finds that the action taken by the Franchise Tax Board staff was unreasonable.

(3) The State Board of Equalization makes a recommendation to the State Board of Control that the taxpayer be awarded a specific amount of fees and expenses related to the hearing, which shall be determined by the State Board of Equalization.

(4) The State Board of Control concurs with the recommendation and orders the Franchise Tax Board to provide reimbursement of fees and expenses to the taxpayer.

(b) To determine whether the Franchise Tax Board staff has been unreasonable, the State Board of Equalization shall consider whether the taxpayer has established that the position of the Franchise Tax Board staff was not substantially justified.

(c) The amount of reimbursed fees and expenses shall be limited to the following:

(1) Fees and expenses incurred after the date of filing an appeal of a notice of action with respect to a deficiency assessment or jeopardy assessment, or denials of claims for refunds.

(2) If the State Board of Equalization finds that the Franchise Tax Board staff was unreasonable with respect to certain issues but reasonable with respect to other issues, the amount of reimbursed fees and expenses shall be limited to those which relate to the issues where the Franchise Tax Board staff was unreasonable.

21014. (a) An officer or employee of the board acting in connection with any law administered by the board shall not knowingly authorize, require, or conduct any investigation of, or surveillance over, any person for nontax administration related purposes.

(b) Any person violating subdivision (a) shall be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the State Civil Service Act, including dismissal from office or discharge from employment.

(c) This section shall not apply with respect to any otherwise lawful investigation concerning organized crime activities.

(d) The provisions of this section are not intended to prohibit, restrict, or prevent the exchange of information where the person is being investigated for multiple violations which include income or franchise tax violations.

(e) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Investigation" means any oral or written inquiry directed to any person, organization, or governmental agency.

(2) "Surveillance" means the monitoring of persons, places, or events by means of electronic interception, overt or covert observations, or photography, and the use of informants.

(f) This section shall not be construed to prohibit audits by the board on behalf of the Fair Political Practices Commission for purposes of administering and enforcing the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code). This section also shall not be construed to prohibit the board from carrying out its duties with respect to other nontax laws.

21015. The Franchise Tax Board may settle any tax matter disputes involving a disputed tax liability of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or less. The settlement shall be approved by the State Board of Control, and the terms of the settlement shall be available to the public. The Franchise Tax Board may delegate the authority provided by this section to its executive officer. The Auditor General shall, on a periodic basis, monitor agreements made pursuant to this section and report its findings to the Legislature.

21016. (a) The board shall release any levy issued pursuant to Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) of Division 2 on any property in the event of any of the following:

(1) The expense of the sale process to the state exceeds the liability for which the levy is made.

(2) The Taxpayers' Rights Advocate orders the release of the levy upon his or her finding that the levy threatens the health or welfare of the taxpayer or his or her spouse and dependents or family.

(3) The proceeds from the sale would not result in a reasonable reduction of the debt.

(b) The board shall not sell any seized property until it has first notified the taxpayer in writing of the exemptions from levy under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Title 9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) This section shall not apply to the seizure of any property as a result of a jeopardy assessment.

21017. Exemptions from levy under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Title 9 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be adjusted for purposes of enforcing the collection of debts under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) of Division 2 to reflect changes in the California Consumer Price Index whenever the change is more than 5 percent higher than any previous adjustment.

21018. (a) A person may file a claim with the board for reimbursement of bank charges incurred by the taxpayer as the direct result of an erroneous levy by the board. Bank charges include a financial institution's customary charge for complying with the levy instructions and reasonable charges for overdrafts that are a direct consequence of the erroneous levy, and are paid by the person and not waived or reimbursed by the financial institution. Each claimant applying for reimbursement shall file a claim with the board which shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the board. In order for the board to grant a claim, the board shall determine that both of the following conditions have been satisfied:

(1) The erroneous levy was caused by an error made by the board.

(2) Prior to the levy, the taxpayer responded to all contacts by the board and provided the board with any requested information or documentation sufficient to establish the taxpayer's position. This provision may be waived by the board for reasonable cause.

(b) Claims pursuant to this section shall be filed within 90 days from the date of the levy. Within 30 days from the date the claim is received, the board shall respond to the claim. If the board denies a claim, the taxpayer shall be notified in writing of the reason or reasons for the denial of the claim.

21019. (a) At least 30 days prior to the filing or recording of liens under Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 7150) or Chapter 14.5 (commencing with Section 7220) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the board shall mail to the taxpayer a preliminary notice. The notice shall specify the statutory authority of the board for filing or recording the lien, indicate the earliest date on which the lien may be filed or recorded, and state the remedies available to the taxpayer to prevent the filing or recording of the lien. In the event tax liens are filed for the same liability in multiple counties, only one preliminary notice shall be sent.

(c) If after filing or recording the lien, the board determines that its action was in error, it shall mail a release to the taxpayer and the entity recording the lien as soon as possible, but not later than seven working days, after this determination or the receipt of the lien recording information, whichever is later. The release shall contain a statement that the lien was filed in error. If the erroneous lien is obstructing a lawful transaction, the board shall immediately issue a release of lien to the appropriate party. Upon the request of the taxpayer, a copy of the release shall be mailed to the major credit reporting companies in the county where the lien was filed.

21020. For the purposes of Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) of Division 2 only, a taxpayer shall not be suspended pursuant to Section 23301, 23301.5, or 23775 unless the board has mailed a notice preliminary to suspension which indicates that the taxpayer will be suspended by a date certain pursuant to Section 23301, 23301.5, or 23775, as the case may be. The notice preliminary to suspension shall be mailed to the taxpayer at least 60 days before the date certain.

21021. (a) If any officer or employee of the board recklessly disregards board published procedures, a taxpayer aggrieved by that action or omission may bring an action for damages against the State of California in superior court.

(b) In any action brought under subdivision (a), upon a finding of liability on the part of the State of California, the state shall be liable to the plaintiff in an amount equal to the sum of all of the following:

(1) Actual and direct monetary damages sustained by the plaintiff as a result of the actions or omissions.

(2) Reasonable litigation costs, as defined for purposes of Sections 19420 and 26491.

(c) In the awarding of damages under subdivision (b), the court shall take into consideration the negligence or omissions, if any, on the part of the plaintiff which contributed to the damages.

(d) Whenever it appears to the court that the taxpayer's position in the proceedings brought under subdivision (a) is frivolous, the court may impose a penalty against the plaintiff in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000). A penalty so imposed shall be paid upon notice and demand from the board and shall be collected as a tax imposed under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

21022. (a) A taxpayer shall be granted an extension of time for filing a return pursuant to Section 18433 if the taxpayer's timely filed state application for an extension indicates that the taxpayer requested a timely federal extension to file and that the taxpayer paid in full any balance due in order to obtain the federal extension.

(b) An extension of time granted pursuant to subdivision (a) is not an extension of time for payment of tax required to be paid on or before the due date of the return without regard to extension. Underpayment of tax penalties shall be imposed as provided by law without regard to any extension granted under subdivision (a).

(c) This section shall apply to returns required to be filed on or after April 15, 1989.

SEC. 3. Section 26428.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect only if Assembly Bill 2833 is chaptered and takes effect.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature that the cost of implementing the provisions of this act shall be covered by the existing resources of state agencies. However, this restriction is not intended to limit any requests for additional resources in future years.

CHAPTER 1574

An act to add Article 3 (commencing with Section 7080) to Chapter 8 of Part 1 of Division 2 of, and to add Section 7156 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 3 (commencing with Section 7080) is added to Chapter 8 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 3. The California Taxpayers' Bill of Rights

7080. This article shall be known and may be cited as "The Harris-Katz California Taxpayers' Bill of Rights."

7081. The Legislature finds and declares that taxes are the most sensitive point of contact between citizens and their government, and that there is a delicate balance between revenue collection and freedom from government oppression. It is the intent of the Legislature to place guarantees in California law to ensure that the rights, privacy, and property of California taxpayers are adequately protected during the process of the assessment and collection of taxes.

The Legislature further finds that the California tax system is based largely on voluntary compliance, and the development of understandable tax laws and taxpayers informed of those laws will both improve voluntary compliance and the relationship between taxpayers and government. It is the further intent of the Legislature to promote improved voluntary taxpayer compliance by improving the clarity of tax laws and efforts to inform the public of the proper application of those laws.

7082. The board shall administer this article. Unless the context indicates otherwise, the provisions of this article shall apply to this part.

7083. (a) The board shall establish the position of the Taxpayers' Rights Advocate. The advocate or his or her designee shall be responsible for facilitating resolution of taxpayer complaints and problems, including any taxpayer complaints regarding unsatisfactory treatment of taxpayers by board employees, and staying actions where taxpayers have suffered or will suffer irreparable loss as the result of those actions. Applicable statutes of limitation shall be tolled during the pendency of a stay. Any penalties and interest which would otherwise accrue shall not be affected by the granting of a stay.

(b) The advocate shall report directly to the executive officer of the board.

7084. (a) The board shall develop and implement a taxpayer education and information program directed at, but not limited to, all of the following groups:

(1) Taxpayers newly registered with the board.

(2) Taxpayer or industry groups identified in the annual report described in Section 7085.

(3) Board audit and compliance staff.

(b) The education and information program shall include all of the following:

(1) Mailings to, or appropriate and effective contact with, the taxpayer groups specified in subdivision (a) which explain in simplified terms the most common areas of noncompliance the taxpayers or industry groups are likely to encounter.

(2) A program of written communication with newly registered taxpayers explaining in simplified terms their duties and responsibilities as a resale permitholder and the most common areas of noncompliance encountered by participants in their business or industry.

(3) Participation in small business seminars and similar programs organized by state and local agencies.

(4) Revision of taxpayer educational materials currently produced by the board which explain the most common areas of taxpayer nonconformance in simplified terms.

(5) Implementation of a continuing education program for audit personnel to include the application of new legislation to taxpayer activities and areas of recurrent taxpayer noncompliance or inconsistency of administration.

(c) Electronic media used pursuant to this section shall not represent the voice, picture, or name of members of the board or of the Controller.

7085. (a) The board shall perform annually a systematic identification of areas of recurrent taxpayer noncompliance and shall report its findings in its annual report submitted pursuant to Section 15616 of the Government Code.

(b) As part of the identification process described in subdivision (a), the board shall do both of the following:

(1) Compile and analyze sample data from its audit process, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(A) The statute or regulation violated by the taxpayer.

(B) The amount of tax involved.

(C) The industry or business engaged in by the taxpayer.

(D) The number of years covered in the audit period.

(E) Whether or not professional tax preparation assistance was utilized by the taxpayer.

(F) Whether sales and use tax returns were filed by the taxpayer.

(2) Conduct an annual hearing before the full board where industry representatives and individual taxpayers are allowed to present their proposals on changes to the Sales and Use Tax Law which may further facilitate achievement of the legislative findings.

(c) The board shall include in its report recommendations for improving taxpayer compliance and uniform administration, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Changes in statute or board regulations.

(2) Improvement of training of board personnel.

(3) Improvement of taxpayer communication and education.

7086. The board shall prepare and publish brief but comprehensive statements in simple and nontechnical language which explain procedures, remedies, and the rights and obligations of the board and taxpayers. As appropriate, statements shall be provided to taxpayers with the initial notice of audit, the notice of proposed additional taxes, any subsequent notice of tax due, or other substantive notices. Additionally, the board shall include the statement in the annual tax information bulletins which are mailed to taxpayers.

7087. (a) The amount of revenue collected or assessed pursuant to this part shall not be used for any of the following:

(1) To evaluate individual officers or employees.

(2) To impose or suggest production quotas or goals.

(b) The board shall certify in its annual report submitted pursuant to Section 15616 of the Government Code that revenue collected or assessed is not used in a manner prohibited by subdivision (a).

7088. (a) The board shall develop and implement a program which will evaluate an individual employee's or officer's performance with respect to his or her contact with taxpayers. The development and implementation of the program shall be coordinated with the Taxpayers' Rights Advocate.

(b) The board shall report to the Legislature on the implementation of this program in its annual report.

7089. No later than July 1, 1989, the board shall, in cooperation with the State Bar of California, the California Society of Certified Public Accountants, the Taxpayers' Rights Advocate, and other interested taxpayer-oriented groups, develop a plan to reduce the time required to resolve petitions for redetermination and claims for refunds. The plan shall include determination of standard time frames and special review of cases which take more time than the appropriate standard time frame.

7090. Procedures of the board, relating to protest hearings before board hearing officers, shall include all of the following:

(a) Any hearing shall be held at a reasonable time at a board office which is convenient to the taxpayer.

(b) The hearing may be recorded only if prior notice is given to the taxpayer and the taxpayer is entitled to receive a copy of the recording.

(c) The taxpayer shall be informed prior to any hearing that he or she has a right to have present at the hearing his or her attorney, accountant, or other designated agent.

7091. (a) Every taxpayer is entitled to be reimbursed for any reasonable fees and expenses related to a hearing before the board if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The taxpayer files a claim for the fee and expenses with the State Board of Control.

(2) The board, in its sole discretion, finds that the action taken by the board staff was unreasonable.

(3) The board makes a recommendation to the State Board of Control that the taxpayer be awarded a specific amount of fees and expenses related to the hearing, which shall be determined by the board.

(4) The State Board of Control concurs with the recommendation and orders the board to provide reimbursement of fees and expenses to the taxpayer.

(b) To determine whether the board staff has been unreasonable, the board shall consider whether the taxpayer has established that the position of the board staff was not substantially justified.

(c) The amount of reimbursed fees and expenses shall be limited to the following:

(1) Fees and expenses incurred after the date of filing petitions for redetermination and claims for refund.

(2) If the board finds that the staff was unreasonable with respect to certain issues but reasonable with respect to other issues, the amount of reimbursed fees and expenses shall be limited to those which relate to the issues where the staff was unreasonable.

7092. (a) An officer or employee of the board acting in connection with any law administered by the board shall not knowingly authorize, require, or conduct any investigation of, or surveillance over, any person for nontax administration related purposes.

(b) Any person violating subdivision (a) shall be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the State Civil Service Act, including dismissal from office or discharge from employment.

(c) This section shall not apply with respect to any otherwise lawful investigation concerning organized crime activities.

(d) The provisions of this section are not intended to prohibit, restrict, or prevent the exchange of information where the person is being investigated for multiple violations which include sales and use tax violations.

(e) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Investigation" means any oral or written inquiry directed to any person, organization, or governmental agency.

(2) "Surveillance" means the monitoring of persons, places, or events by means of electronic interception, overt or covert observations, or photography, and the use of informants.

7093. The board's executive officer or his or her designee may settle any tax matter disputes involving a disputed tax liability of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or less. The settlement shall be approved by the State Board of Control, and the terms of the settlement shall be available to the public. The Auditor General shall, on a periodic basis, monitor agreements made pursuant to this section and report its findings to the Legislature.

7094. (a) The board shall release any levy issued pursuant to this part on any property in the event of any of the following:

(1) The expense of the sale process exceeds the liability for which the levy is made.

(2) The Taxpayers' Rights Advocate orders the release of the levy upon his or her finding that the levy threatens the health or welfare of the taxpayer or his or her spouse and dependents or family.

(b) The board shall not sell any seized property until it has first notified the taxpayer in writing of the exemptions from levy under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Title 9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) This section shall not apply to the seizure of any property as a result of a jeopardy assessment.

7095. Exemptions from levy under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Title 9 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be adjusted for purposes of enforcing the collection of debts under this part to reflect changes in the California Consumer Price Index whenever the change is more than 5 percent higher than any previous adjustment.

7096. (a) A taxpayer may file a claim with the board for reimbursement of bank charges incurred by the taxpayer as the direct result of an erroneous levy by the board. Bank charges include a financial institution's customary charge for complying with the levy instructions and reasonable charges for overdrafts that are a direct consequence of the erroneous levy. The charges are those paid by the taxpayer and not waived or reimbursed by the financial institution. Each claimant applying for reimbursement shall file a claim with the board which shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the board. In order for the board to grant a claim, the board shall determine that both of the following conditions have been satisfied:

(1) The erroneous levy was caused by board error.

(2) Prior to the levy, the taxpayer responded to all contacts by the board and provided the board with any requested information or documentation sufficient to establish the taxpayer's position. This provision may be waived by the board for reasonable cause.

(b) Claims pursuant to this section shall be filed within 90 days from the date of the levy. Within 30 days from the date the claim is received, the board shall respond to the claim. If the board denies the claim, the taxpayer shall be notified in writing of the reason or reasons for the denial of the claim.

7097. (a) At least 30 days prior to the filing or recording of liens under Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 7150) or Chapter 14.5 (commencing with Section 7220) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the board shall mail to the taxpayer a preliminary notice. The notice shall specify the statutory authority of the board for filing or recording the lien, indicate the earliest date on which the lien may be filed or recorded, and state the remedies available to the taxpayer to prevent the filing or recording of the lien. In the event tax liens are filed for the same liability in multiple counties, only one preliminary notice shall be sent.

(b) The preliminary notice required by this section shall not apply to jeopardy determinations issued under Article 4 (commencing with Section 6536) of Chapter 5.

(c) If the board determines that filing a lien was in error, it shall mail a release to the taxpayer and the entity recording the lien as soon as possible, but no later than seven days, after this determination and the receipt of lien recording information. The release shall contain a statement that the lien was filed in error. In the event the erroneous lien is obstructing a lawful transaction, the board shall immediately issue a release of lien to the taxpayer and the entity recording the lien.

(d) When the board releases a lien erroneously filed, notice of that fact shall be mailed to the taxpayer and, upon the request of the taxpayer, a copy of the release shall be mailed to the major credit reporting companies in the county where the lien was filed.

7098. For the purposes of this part only, a taxpayer shall not be suspended pursuant to Section 6070 or 6072 unless the board has mailed a notice preliminary to suspension which indicates that the taxpayer will be suspended by a date certain pursuant to that section. The notice preliminary to suspension shall be mailed to the taxpayer at least 60 days before the date certain.

7099. (a) If any officer or employee of the board recklessly disregards board-published procedures, a taxpayer aggrieved by that action or omission may bring an action for damages against the State of California in superior court.

(b) In any action brought under subdivision (a), upon a finding of liability on the part of the State of California, the state shall be liable to the plaintiff in an amount equal to the sum of all of the following:

(1) Actual and direct monetary damages sustained by the plaintiff as a result of the actions or omissions.

(2) Reasonable litigation costs, as defined for purposes of Section 7156.

(c) In the awarding of damages under subdivision (b), the court shall take into consideration the negligence or omissions, if any, on the part of the plaintiff which contributed to the damages.

(d) Whenever it appears to the court that the taxpayer's position in the proceedings brought under subdivision (a) is frivolous, the court may impose a penalty against the plaintiff in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000). A penalty so imposed shall be paid upon notice and demand from the board and shall be collected as a tax imposed under this part.

SEC. 2. Section 7156 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

7156. (a) In the case of any civil proceeding which is—

(1) Brought by or against the State of California in connection with the determination, collection, or refund of any tax, interest, or penalty under this part, and

(2) Brought in a court of record of this state, the prevailing party may be awarded a judgment for reasonable litigation costs incurred in that proceeding.

(b) (1) A judgment for reasonable litigation costs shall not be awarded under subdivision (a) unless the court determines that the prevailing party has exhausted the administrative remedies available to that party under this part.

(2) An award under subdivision (a) shall be made only for reasonable litigation costs which are allocable to the State of California and not to any other party to the action or proceeding.

(3) No award for reasonable litigation costs may be made under subdivision (a) with respect to any declaratory judgment proceeding.

(4) No award for reasonable litigation costs may be made under subdivision (a) with respect to any portion of the civil proceeding during which the prevailing party has unreasonably protracted that proceeding.

(c) For purposes of this section—

(1) The term "reasonable litigation costs" includes any of the following:

(A) Reasonable court costs.

(B) Based upon prevailing market rates for the kind or quality of services furnished any of the following:

(i) The reasonable expenses of expert witnesses in connection with the civil proceeding, except that no expert witness shall be compensated at a rate in excess of the highest rate of compensation for expert witnesses paid by the State of California.

(ii) The reasonable cost of any study, analysis, engineering report, test, or project which is found by the court to be necessary for the preparation of the party's case.

(iii) Reasonable fees paid or incurred for the services of attorneys in connection with the civil proceeding, except that those fees shall not be in excess of seventy-five dollars ($75) per hour unless the court determines that an increase in the cost of living or a special factor, such as the limited availability of qualified attorneys for the proceeding, justifies a higher rate.

(2) (A) The term "prevailing party" means any party to any proceeding described in subdivision (a) (other than the State of California or any creditor of the taxpayer involved) which—

(i) Establishes that the position of the State of California in the civil proceeding was not substantially justified, and

(ii) (I) Has substantially prevailed with respect to the amount in controversy, or

(II) Has substantially prevailed with respect to the most significant issue or set of issues presented.

(B) Any determination under subparagraph (A) as to whether a party is a prevailing party shall be made—

(i) By the court, or

(ii) By agreement of the parties.

(3) The term "civil proceeding" includes a civil action.

(d) For purposes of this section, in the case of—

(1) Multiple actions which could have been joined or consolidated, or

(2) A case or cases involving a return or returns of the same taxpayer which could have been joined in a single proceeding in the same court, these actions or cases shall be treated as one civil proceeding regardless of whether the joinder or consolidation actually occurs, unless the court in which the action is brought determines, in its discretion, that it would be inappropriate to treat these actions or cases as joined or consolidated for purposes of this section.

(e) An order granting or denying an award for reasonable litigation costs under subdivision (a), in whole or in part, shall be incorporated as a part of the decision or judgment in the case and shall be subject to appeal in the same manner as the decision or judgment.

(f) For purposes of this section, "position of the State of California" includes either of the following:

(1) The position taken by the State of California in the civil proceeding.

(2) Any administrative action or inaction by the State Board of Equalization (and all subsequent administrative action or inaction) upon which that proceeding is based.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature that the costs of implementing the provisions of this act shall be covered by the existing resources of state agencies. However, this restriction is not intended to limit any requests for additional resources in future years.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect only if Assembly Bill 2788 is chaptered and takes effect.

CHAPTER 1575

An act to amend Section 1491 of, and to repeal Section 1490 of, the Health and Safety Code, to amend Sections 13823.5, and 13823.95 of, to amend and renumber Section 13823.6 of, and to add Section 13823.12 to, the Penal Code, relating to victims of crime.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1490 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 1491 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1491. In addition to any examination performed without charge to a victim of rape or other sexual assault pursuant to Section 13823.95 of the Penal Code, a county hospital shall, without charge, provide the victim of rape, or other sexual assault, with testing for venereal disease and pregnancy.

SEC. 3. Section 13823.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13823.5. (a) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning, with the assistance of the advisory committee established pursuant to Section 13836, shall establish a protocol for the examination and treatment of victims of sexual assault and attempted sexual assault, including child molestation, and the collection and preservation of evidence therefrom. The protocol shall contain recommended methods for meeting the standards specified in Section 13823.11.

(b) In addition to the protocol, the office shall develop informational guidelines, containing general reference information on evidence collection, examination of victims and psychological and medical treatment for victims of sexual assault and attempted sexual assault, including child molestation.

In developing the protocol and the informational guidelines, the office and the advisory committee shall seek the assistance and guidance of organizations assisting victims of sexual assault; qualified health care professionals, criminalists, and administrators who are familiar with emergency room procedures; victims of sexual assault; and law enforcement officials.

(c) The office, in cooperation with the State Department of Health Services and the Department of Justice, shall adopt a standard and a complete form or forms for the recording of medical and physical evidence data disclosed by a victim of sexual assault or attempted sexual assault, including child molestation.

Each qualified health care professional who conducts an examination for evidence of a sexual assault or an attempted sexual assault, including child molestation, shall use the standard form adopted pursuant to this section, and shall make such observations and perform such tests as may be required for recording of the data required by the form. The forms shall be subject to the same principles of confidentiality applicable to other medical records.

The office shall make copies of the standard form or forms available to every public or private general acute care hospital, as requested.

The standard form shall be used to satisfy the reporting requirements specified in Sections 11160 and 11161 in cases of sexual assault, and may be used in lieu of the form specified in Section 11168 for reports of child abuse.

(d) The office shall distribute copies of the protocol and the informational guidelines to every general acute care hospital, law enforcement agency, and prosecutor's office in the state.

(e) As used in this chapter, "qualified health care professional" means a physician and surgeon currently licensed pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, or a nurse currently licensed pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 2700) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code and working in consultation with a physician and surgeon who conducts examinations or provides treatment as described in Section 13823.9 in a general acute care hospital or in a physician and surgeon's office.

SEC. 4. Section 13823.6 of the Penal Code is amended and renumbered to read:

13826.25. The Office of Criminal Justice Planning through its programs established under Title 1.5 (commencing with Section 11500) shall provide special training for prosecutors in the areas of gang violence, vertical prosecution, gang identification, and witness intimidation.

This section shall be operative until January 1, 1991, and on that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5. Section 13823.12 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

13823.12. Failure to comply fully with Section 13823.11 or with the protocol or guidelines, or to utilize the form established by the Office of Criminal Justice Planning pursuant to Section 13823.5, shall not constitute grounds to exclude evidence, nor shall the court instruct or comment to the trier of fact in any case that less weight may be given to the evidence based on the failure to comply.

SEC. 6. Section 13823.95 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13823.95. No costs incurred by a qualified health care professional, hospital, or other emergency medical facility for the examination of the victim of a sexual assault, as described in the protocol developed pursuant to Section 13823.5, when the examination is performed, pursuant to Sections 13823.5 and 13823.7, for the purposes of gathering evidence for possible prosecution, shall be charged directly or indirectly to the victim of the assault. Those costs shall be treated as local costs and charged to the appropriate local government agency as follows:

(a) If the examination is provided at a county or city hospital, or hospital district facility, the county shall pay the expenses.

(b) If the examination is performed at a private hospital or in the office of a qualified health care professional, the expenses shall be paid by the local governmental agency in whose jurisdiction the alleged offense was committed.

Bills for these costs shall be submitted to the law enforcement agency in the jurisdiction in which the alleged offense was committed which requests the examination.

The law enforcement agency in the jurisdiction in which the alleged offense was committed which requests the examination has the option of determining whether or not the examination will be performed in the office of a physician and surgeon.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1576

An act to add and repeal Chapter 3.25 (commencing with Section 44695) of Part 25 of the Education Code, and to amend Item 6110-230-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 (Chapter 313, Statutes of 1988), relating to education, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) Teens are increasingly participating in risk-taking behavior which has potential long-term negative emotional, social, physical, and economic consequences for themselves and their families.

(b) These behaviors include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Drug and alcohol abuse.

(2) Demonstration of negative attitudes towards family, school, and authority.

(3) Little personal initiative.

(c) The results of the behaviors include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) School drop-out.

(2) Teenage pregnancy leading to welfare dependency.

(3) Teen prostitution.

(4) Alcoholism and drug dependency.

(5) Runaways.
(6) Crime and violence.

SEC. 2. Chapter 3.25 (commencing with Section 44695) is added to Part 25 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.25. STAFF DEVELOPMENT IN IDENTIFICATION OF RISK-TAKING BEHAVIOR IN SECONDARY SCHOOL PUPILS

44695. (a) Although families assume the primary responsibility for instilling values in their children, school personnel also share the responsibility to assist our young people in becoming productive individuals.

(b) Eligible school districts, as specified in Section 44696, on behalf of interested schools, may apply for funding to provide in-service training to all certificated personnel who work with pupils in schools that operate school-based pupil motivation and maintenance programs pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 54720) of Chapter 9 of Part 29. Participating school districts shall have the option of providing this training to classified personnel who work with pupils as well. This training shall be sensitive to the socioeconomic, ethnic, and cultural needs of each distinctive community. The purposes of this training are to increase staff knowledge, awareness, and sensitivity to youth in need.

(c) This training shall include, but not be limited to, components which do the following:

(1) Increase personal sensitivity to risk-taking behavior of youth.
(2) Facilitate identification of characteristics of risk-taking behavior.
(3) Inform about legal responsibilities of school personnel.
(4) Provide methods of approaching pupils in need.
(5) Identify referral sources in the school and community.
(6) Inform about the successful program strategies of programs that are currently assisting high-risk youth.

44696. This chapter applies only to school districts that are currently funded and operating pupil motivation and maintenance and dropout recovery programs pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 54720) of Chapter 9 of Part 29.

44697. The Superintendent of Public Instruction, with funds appropriated for the purposes of this chapter, shall do all of the following:

(a) Develop application criteria, including, but not limited to, the duration and intensity of training pursuant to this chapter.
(b) Approve applications for funding.
(c) Grant to each approved school for purposes of this chapter an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) per participating school and two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) total.

44698. Funding for the purposes of this chapter shall be provided in the annual Budget Act.

44699. This chapter shall become inoperative on June 30, 1990, and, as of January 1, 1991, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 3. Item 6110-230-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 (Chapter 313, Statutes of 1988) is amended to read:

6110-230-001—For local assistance, Department of Education, for transfer to Section A of the State School Fund, for allocation by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to school districts and county offices of education for the purposes of educational programs funded in the 1987–88 fiscal year, for school districts and county offices of education to carry out these purposes, in lieu of amounts otherwise provided by statute.....12,099,593,000

Provisions:

1. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall take necessary and appropriate actions to ensure the orderly administration of local assistance programs for school districts, county offices of education, and other agencies participating in state-subsidized programs during the 1987–88 and 1988–89 fiscal years, and to carry out the purposes of this act. Actions of the superintendent pursuant to this item shall reflect the policies of state as expressed by statute. For purposes of calculating the allocation of these funds to each school district and county office of education, the superintendent shall make the following computations:
   (a) The superintendent shall calculate the amount allocated to each school district and county office of education, including any deficits which were funded, for the 1987–88 fiscal year.
   (b) The superintendent shall compute an amount of funds for each school district and county office of education to reflect allowable growth or decline in enrollment which would be provided under statute in effect as of January 1, 1988, plus an amount to reflect growth or decline which effectuates the intent of the 1988–89 Governor's Budget as introduced.
   (c) (1) In lieu of the amount provided pursuant to law for annual cost-of-living adjustments, the superintendent shall compute an amount for each school district and county office of education to reflect an inflation adjustment for those programs which receive an adjustment pursuant to statute in effect as of January 1, 1988, except that this adjustment shall not exceed 2.1 percent.

(2) For the 1989–90 fiscal year, the superintendent shall calculate the base and the inflation adjustment as if the 1989 base and inflation adjustment were made pursuant to statute as of June 30, 1988.

(d) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), $300,000,000 of the amount in this item shall be available for the purpose of providing cost-of-living adjustments up to 4.1 percent. However, these funds shall not be available for expenditure if the Director of Finance fails to certify to the Controller by August 1, 1988, that the amount of General Fund revenues available for the 1988–89 fiscal year is at least $36,100,000,000 not counting the enactment of any legislation which would increase General Fund revenues.

(2) The superintendent shall calculate an amount for each school district and county office of education to reflect an inflation adjustment for those programs which would receive an adjustment pursuant to statute in effect as of January 1, 1988, except that this adjustment shall not exceed 4.1 percent, including the amount in subdivision (c).

(e) The allocation of each school district and county office of education shall be first the amount computed pursuant to subdivision (a), then the amount computed pursuant to subdivision (b), and last the amount computed pursuant to subdivisions (c) and (d).

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the county superintendent shall reduce the total revenue limit computed pursuant to Section 42238 of the Education Code by the amount of the decreased employer contributions to the Public Employees' Retirement System resulting from the enactment of Chapter 330 of the Statutes of 1982, adjusted for any changes in those contributions resulting from subsequent changes in employer contribution rates, excluding rate changes due to the direct transfer of the state-mandated portion of the employer contributions to the Public Employees' Retirement System, through the 1988–89 fiscal year.

The reduction shall be calculated as follows:

(a) Determine the amount of employer contributions which would have been made in the 1988–89 fiscal year if the applicable Public Employees' Retirement System employer contribution rate in effect immediately prior to the enactment of Chapter 330 of the Statutes of 1982 were in effect during the 1988–89 fiscal year.

For purposes of this calculation, no school district shall have a contribution rate higher than 13.020 percent.

(b) Subtract from the amount determined in subdivision (a) the actual amount of employer contributions made to the Public Employees' Retirement System in the 1988–89 fiscal year.

(c) For the purposes of this provision, employer contributions to the Public Employees' Retirement System for any of the following positions shall be excluded from the calculation specified above.

(1) Positions supported totally by federal funds which are subject to supplanting restrictions.

(2) Positions supported by funds received pursuant to Section 42243.6 of the Education Code.

(3) Positions supported, to the extent of employer contributions not exceeding $25,000 by any single educational agency, from a revenue source determined on the basis of equity to be properly excludable from this subdivision by the Superintendent of Public Instruction with the approval of the Director of Finance.

(d) For accounting purposes, the reduction made by this provision may be reflected as an expenditure from appropriate sources of revenue as directed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

It is the intent of the Legislature to make adjustments to school district revenue limits for the 1988–89 fiscal year to reflect savings that these districts will realize in the contributions to the Public Employees' Retirement System due to a reduced contribution rate for the 1988–89 fiscal year.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the county superintendent shall recompute the adjustment to total revenue limits pursuant to Provision 6.3 of Item 6100-101-001 of Section 37 of Chapter 917 of the Statutes of 1987, excluding rate changes due to the direct transfer of the state-mandated portion of the employer contributions to the Public Employees' Retirement System, through the 1987–88 fiscal year. Funds appropriated in this item shall be available to reimburse local education agencies in the event that the recomputation pursuant to this provision demonstrates that an excessive amount was reduced from total revenue limits under Provision 6.3 of Item 6100-101-001 of Section 37 of Chapter 917 of the Statutes of 1987.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the county superintendent shall reduce the total revenue limit computed pursuant to Section 2558 of the Education Code by the amount of the decreased employer contributions to the Public Employees' Retirement System resulting from the applicable employer contributions rate reductions made through the 1988–89 fiscal year, excluding rate changes due to the direct transfer of the state-mandated portion of the employer contributions to the Public Employees' Retirement System.

The reduction shall be calculated as follows:

(a) Determine the amount of employer contributions which would have been made in the 1988–89 fiscal year if the applicable Public Employees' Retirement System employer contribution rate were in effect immediately prior to July 1, 1988.

(b) Subtract from the amount determined in subdivision (a) the actual amount of employer contributions made to the Public Employees' Retirement System in the 1988–89 fiscal year.

(c) For the purposes of this provision, employer contributions to the Public Employees' Retirement System for any of the following positions shall be excluded from the calculation specified above.

(1) Positions supported totally by federal funds which are subject to supplanting restrictions.

(2) Positions supported by funds received pursuant to Section 42243.6 of the Education Code.

(3) Positions supported, to the extent of employer contributions not exceeding $25,000 by any single educational agency, from a revenue source determined on the basis of equity to be properly excludable from this subdivision by the Superintendent of Public Instruction with the approval of the Director of Finance.

(d) For accounting purposes, the reduction made by this provision may be reflected as an expenditure from appropriate sources of revenue as directed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

It is the intent of the Legislature to make adjustments to county office of education revenue limits for the 1988–89 fiscal year to reflect savings that these districts will realize in the contributions to the Public Employees' Retirement System due to a reduced contribution rate for the 1988–89 fiscal year.

4. Of the funds appropriated in this item, $1,000,000 shall be allocated for a sixth technology demonstration site to be located at the Port Hueneme Elementary School District. The funds shall be utilized for a program of research, development, and evaluation of interactive instructional technology, which shall be compatible with the provisions of the Educational Technology Local Assistance Program, created pursuant to Article 15 (commencing with Section 51870) of Chapter 5 of Part 28. Prior district expenditures on interactive technology shall count toward any required local funding match. No funds shall be expended until a program plan has been approved by the State Board of Education.

5. Of the funds appropriated in this item, in addition to any other amounts authorized for the Administrator Training and Evaluation Program, $600,000 shall be available for the expansion of the Administrator Training and Evaluation Program in 1988–89.

6. Of the funds appropriated in this item, $500,000 shall be available for a grant to the Exploratorium in San Francisco for exhibit-based teacher training.
7. Of the funds appropriated in this item, $9,096,000 shall be available for the purpose of recomputing adjustments to district revenue limits in 1987–88 pursuant to Provisions 2 and 3 of this item.
8. Of the funds appropriated in this item, $200,000 shall be available for matching funds with the Department of Rehabilitation to provide coordinated services to handicapped pupils through an interagency agreement to continue the Transition Partnership Program.
9. (a) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Chapter 249 of the Statutes of 1988, at the first principal apportionment of the 1988–89 fiscal year, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall report to the Director of Finance and the Controller the amounts by which the actual 1987–88 local revenues received by the county offices of education for revenue limit purposes, by county offices of education for special education programs, and by school districts for revenue limit purposes, as reported at the 1987–88 annual apportionment, exceed the amount of local revenues received by county offices of education and school districts, as reported at the 1987–88 second principal apportionment.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Chapter 249 of the Statutes of 1988, at the first principal apportionment of the 1988–89 fiscal year, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall report to the Director of Finance and the Controller the amounts by which the actual reductions in the Public Employees' Retirement System employer contributions, required by Provision 6.3 of Item 6100-101-001 of Section 37 of Chapter 917 of the Statutes of 1987, excluding rate changes due to the direct transfer of the state-mandated portion of the employer contributions to the Public Employees' Retirement System, exceed the amount of the reductions in the Public Employees' Retirement System employer contributions as reported at the 1987–88 second principal apportionment, as adjusted pursuant to Provisions 2 and 3 of this item.

(3) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Chapter 249, of the Statutes of 1988, the Controller shall transfer the amounts calculated pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2), as adjusted pursuant to subdivision (b), from the funds appropriated in this item to the unappropriated balance of the General Fund.

(b) The local revenue increases and reductions to the Public Employees' Retirement System employer contributions specified in subdivision (a) may be adjusted by the following amounts:

(1) The net amounts of any adjustment made to county offices of education and district revenue limits and to special education entitlements, pursuant to Section 41341 of the Education Code, between the 1987–88 second principal apportionment and the 1987–88 annual apportionment.

(2) The net amounts of any adjustments necessary to fund entitlements authorized by this item as certified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

10. In the event the funds appropriated in this item are insufficient to fully fund the allocations required pursuant to subdivisions (c) and (d) of Provision 1 and Provisions 2 through 8, inclusive, the Superintendent shall prorate these allocations such that the total amount of funds allocated for subdivisions (c) and (d) of Provision 1 and Provisions 2 through 8, inclusive, does not exceed the funds available for those allocations.

11. From the funds appropriated in this item, a school eligible for funding pursuant to Section 42281, Section 42282, or Section 42284 of the Education Code, shall be allowed to claim during 1988–89 the level of average daily attendance claimed in 1987–88 or the actual amount of average daily attendance.
12. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a school district which was a direct service school district in 1987–88 pursuant to the provisions of Section 2557 of the Education Code shall be treated for funding purposes in 1988–89 as a direct service district for the purposes of Section 2557.
13. The State Department of Education shall allow full replacement value for any schoolbus purchased prior to July 1, 1983. Any schoolbus purchased after July 1, 1987, and which does not meet the 1977 federal safety standards, may receive a replacement grant of no more than the purchase price of the used bus at the time it was purchased by the replacing school district.

CHAPTER 1577

An act to amend Sections 196, 4700, and 7010 of the Civil Code, to amend Sections 10061, 10125, and 10125.5 of, and to add Section 10125.6 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to parent and child.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that it is in the best interest of the State of California to improve the condition of children's lives. This bill is not intended to restrict the existing rights of children under common law or statute.

SEC. 2. Section 196 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

196. (a) The father and mother of a child have an equal responsibility to support and educate their child in the manner suitable to the child's circumstances, taking into consideration the respective earnings or earning capacities of the parents.

(b) A judgment or order for support may, in appropriate circumstances, based on all relevant facts, require one parent to pay to the other parent a reasonable amount for the cost of the support of the child for the shortest of the following periods prior to the filing of the action:

(1) Three years.

(2) The date of the mailing of the birth certificate or the mailing of the written notification by the custodial parent, pursuant to subdivision (c).

(3) The date of separation of the parties until the date of the filing of the action.

This subdivision shall only apply to a child born on or after January 1, 1989.

(c) In circumstances where paternity has not been legally established or the parties were married but separated before the date of the child's date of birth, the court shall not award child support under subdivision (b), under any circumstances, unless the father has received a copy of the birth certificate from the State Registrar as provided in Section 10061 of the Health and Safety Code, or the custodial parent has provided written notification by first-class mail, with return receipt requested, to the father of his paternity and of his obligation to support the child. In determining whether the judgment or order may be awarded, the court shall consider the diligence on the part of the custodial parent in bringing the action for support. Any support ordered pursuant to subdivision (b) shall not be in an amount that reduces a parent's ability to provide appropriate support for any other child for whom a duty of support is owed if the support is actually being paid. The court shall review the incomes and expenses of the parents each year, or other relevant period of time, for which support is being requested and may apply its guidelines and the child support laws in effect for each period. This subdivision shall only apply to a child born on or after January 1, 1989.

(d) As used in this section, "relevant facts" has the meaning given in subdivision (d) of Section 7010.

SEC. 3. Section 4700 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4700. (a) (1) In any proceeding where there is at issue the support of a minor child or a child for whom support is authorized under Section 206, the court may order either or both parents to pay any amount necessary for the support, maintenance, and education of the child. At the request of either party, the court shall make appropriate findings with respect to the circumstances on which the order for the support of a minor child is based. Upon a showing of good cause, the court may order the parent or parents required to make the payment of support to give reasonable security therefor. All payments of support shall be made by the person owing the support payment prior to the payment of any debts owing to creditors. Any order for child support may be modified or revoked as the court may deem necessary, except as to any amount that may have accrued prior to the date of the filing of the notice of motion or order to show cause to modify or revoke. Any order for child support, as well as any order of modification or revocation of such an order, may be made retroactive to the date of the filing of the notice of motion or order to show cause therefor, or to any subsequent date, except as provided by federal law (42 U.S.C. Sec. 666(a)(9)). An order of modification or revocation may include an award of attorney fees and court costs to the prevailing party.

(2) A judgment or order for support may, in appropriate circumstances, based on all relevant facts, require one parent to pay to the other parent a reasonable amount for the cost of the support of the child for the shortest of the following periods prior to the filing of the action:

(A) Three years.

(B) The date of the mailing of the birth certificate or the mailing of the written notification by the custodial parent, pursuant to paragraph (3).

(C) The date of separation of the parties until the date of the filing of the action.

This paragraph shall only apply to a child born on or after January 1, 1989.

(3) In circumstances where paternity has not been established or the parties were married but separated before the child's date of birth, the court shall not award child support under paragraph (2), under any circumstances, unless the father has received a copy of the birth certificate from the State Registrar as provided in Section 10061 of the Health and Safety Code, or the custodial parent has provided written notification by first-class mail, with return receipt requested, to the father of his paternity and of his obligation to support the child. In determining whether the judgment or order may be awarded, the court shall consider the diligence on the part of the custodial parent in bringing the action for support. Any support ordered pursuant to paragraph (2) shall not be in an amount that reduces a parent's ability to provide appropriate support for any other child for whom a duty of support is owed if the support is actually being paid. The court shall review the incomes and expenses of the parents each year, or other relevant period of time, for which support is being requested and may apply its guidelines and the child support law in effect for each period. This paragraph shall only apply to a child born on or after January 1, 1989.

As used in this paragraph, "relevant facts" has the meaning given in subdivision (d) of Section 7010.

(b) The court may order financial compensation for periods when a parent fails to assume the caretaker responsibility, or when a parent has been thwarted by the other parent when attempting to exercise visitation or custody rights, contemplated by a custody or visitation order entered pursuant to this part, including, but not limited to, an order for joint physical custody or by a written or oral agreement between the parents. The compensation shall be limited to (1) the reasonable expenses incurred for, or on behalf of, a child, resulting from the other parent's failure to assume his or her caretaker responsibility or (2) reasonable expenses incurred by a parent for, or on behalf of, a child resulting from the other parent's thwarting his or her efforts to exercise visitation or custody rights. These expenses may include the value of caretaker services, but are not limited to the cost of services provided by a third party during the relevant period.

The compensation may be requested by noticed motion or an order to show cause and shall allege, under penalty of perjury, a minimum of one hundred dollars ($100) of expenses so incurred or, at least three occurrences of failure to exercise visitation or custody rights or at least three occurrences of the thwarting of efforts to exercise visitation or custody rights within the six months prior to filing of the motion or order.

Attorney's fees shall be awarded to the prevailing party, upon a showing of the nonprevailing party's ability to pay.

(c) When a court orders a person to make specified payments for support of a child during the child's minority, or until the child is married or otherwise emancipated, or until the death of, or the occurrence of a specified event as to, a child for whom support is authorized under Section 206, the liability of the person ordered to pay support terminates upon the happening of the contingency. If the custodial parent or other person having physical custody of the child, to whom payments are to be made, fails to notify the person ordered to make those payments, or the attorney of record of the person ordered to pay support, of the happening of the contingency, and continues to accept support payments, the person shall refund any and all moneys received which accrued after the happening of the contingency, except that the overpayments shall first be applied to any and all support payments which are then in default. The court may, in the original order for support, order the custodial parent or other person to whom payments are to be made to notify the person ordered to make the payments, or his or her attorney of record, of the happening of the contingency.

(d) In the event obligations for support of a child are discharged in bankruptcy, the court may make all proper orders for the support, maintenance, and education of the child, as the court may deem just.

SEC. 4. Section 7010 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

7010. (a) The judgment or order of the court determining the existence or nonexistence of the parent and child relationship is determinative for all purposes except for actions brought pursuant to Section 270 of the Penal Code.

(b) If the judgment or order of the court is at variance with the child's birth certificate, the court shall order that a new birth certificate be issued as prescribed in Article 6 (commencing with Section 10450) of Chapter 8 of Division 9 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) (1) The judgment or order may contain any other provision directed against the appropriate party to the proceeding, concerning the duty of support, the custody and guardianship of the child, visitation privileges with the child, the furnishing of bond or other security for the payment of the judgment, or any other matter in the best interest of the child. The judgment or order may direct the father to pay the reasonable expenses of the mother's pregnancy and confinement.

(2) The judgment or order may, in appropriate circumstances, based on all relevant facts, require one parent to pay to the other parent a reasonable amount for the cost of the support of the child for the shortest of the following periods prior to the filing of the action:

(A) Three years.

(B) The date of the mailing of the birth certificate or the mailing of the written notification by the custodial parent, pursuant to paragraph (3).

(C) The date of separation of the parties until the date of the filing of the action.

This paragraph shall only apply to a child born on or after January 1, 1989.

(3) In circumstances where paternity has not been legally established or the parties were married but separated before the child's date of birth, the court shall not award child support under paragraph (2), under any circumstances, unless the father has received a copy of the birth certificate from the State Registrar as provided in Section 10061 of the Health and Safety Code, or the custodial parent has provided written notification by first-class mail, with return receipt requested, to the father of his paternity and of his obligation to support the child. In determining whether the judgment or order may be awarded, the court shall consider the diligence on the part of the custodial parent in bringing the action for support. Any support ordered pursuant to paragraph (2) shall not be in an amount that reduces a parent's ability to provide appropriate support for any other child for whom a duty of support is owed if the support is actually being paid. The court shall review the incomes and expenses of the parents each year, or other relevant period of time, for which support is being requested and may apply its guidelines and the child support laws in effect for each period. This paragraph shall only apply to a child born on or after January 1, 1989.

(d) In determining the amount to be paid by a parent for support of the child and the period during which the duty of support is owed, a court enforcing the obligation of support shall consider all relevant facts, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Any agreements made between the parents before the date of the filing of the action.

(2) Any previous payments made for the support of the child by the parent from whom support is sought.

(3) Any bad faith on the part of either parent.

(4) Any undue delay in seeking to establish an order for child support; the reasons for the undue delay; and whether either parent has been prejudiced as a result of the delay.

(5) Any other factors deemed relevant by the court.

SEC. 5. Section 10061 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

10061. (a) The local registrar of births and deaths shall transmit each week to the State Registrar all original certificates accepted for registration by him during the preceding week.

(b) Upon receipt of an original certificate of birth pursuant to subdivision (a), the State Registrar shall only mail a copy of the certificate to the father identified in the certificate upon the written or in-person request of the mother. A mother requesting such a mailing shall provide the State Registrar with the mailing address of the father and shall be charged a fee for the mailing in an amount not to exceed the State Registrar's actual cost for mailing the certificate by first-class, return receipt requested, mail.

SEC. 6. Section 10125.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

10125.5. (a) The second section of the certificate of live birth as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 10125 shall be confidential. Access to such portion of any certificate of live birth shall be limited to the following:

(1) State Department of Health Services staff.

(2) Local registrar's staff and local health department staff when approved by the local registrar or local health officer, respectively.

(3) Persons with a valid scientific interest as determined by the State Registrar, who are engaged in demographic, epidemiological or other similar studies related to health, and who agree to maintain confidentiality as prescribed by this division and by regulation of the State Registrar.

(4) The mother or father identified in the certificate.

(5) The person named on the certificate.

(6) Any person who has petitioned to adopt the person named on the certificate, subject to the provisions of Section 10439 of the Health and Safety Code and Section 227 of the Civil Code.

(b) The State Department of Health Services shall maintain an accurate record of all persons who are given access to the confidential portion of the certificate. Such record shall include: the name of the person authorizing access; name, title, and organizational affiliation of persons given access; dates of access; and specific purpose for which information is to be used. The record of access shall be open to public inspection during normal operating hours of the State Department of Health Services.

(c) All research proposed to be conducted using the confidential medical and social information on the birth certificate shall first be reviewed by the appropriate committee constituted for the protection of human subjects which is approved by the federal Department of Health, Education, and Welfare and has a general assurance pursuant to Part 46 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations. No information shall be released until the request for information has been reviewed by the Vital Statistics Advisory Committee and such committee has recommended to the State Registrar that such information shall be released.

SEC. 7. Section 10125.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

10125.6. (a) The State Registrar of Vital Statistics and the State Department of Social Services shall cooperatively develop an informational notice which advises the mother of a newborn child of her right to retroactive child support as provided by Sections 196, 4700, and 7010 of the Civil Code. The notice shall also advise the mother of her right to have an original certificate of birth mailed to the father pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 10061.

(b) The State Registrar of Vital Statistics and the State Department of Social Services shall distribute copies of the notice formulated pursuant to subdivision (a) to each health facility licensed pursuant to Division 2 (commencing with Section 1200) that provides care and treatment relating to pregnancy. Each such health facility shall provide a copy of the notice to each pregnant woman at the time she is admitted for care or treatment relating to her pregnancy.

(c) The State Registrar shall provide a copy of this notice to each mother with each original birth certificate.

SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, nothwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1578

An act to amend Section 4104 of, and to repeal Section 4100.5 of, the Public Contract Code, relating to public works.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds that the practices of bid shopping and bid peddling in connection with the construction, alteration, and repair of public improvements often result in poor quality of material and workmanship to the detriment of the public, deprive the public of the full benefits of fair competition among prime contractors and subcontractors, and lead to insolvencies, loss of wages to employees, and other evils.

SEC. 2. Section 4100.5 of the Public Contract Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 4104 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

4104. Any officer, department, board or commission taking bids for the construction of any public work or improvement shall provide in the specifications prepared for the work or improvement or in the general conditions under which bids will be received for the doing of the work incident to the public work or improvement that any person making a bid or offer to perform the work, shall, in his or her bid or offer, set forth:

(a) The name and the location of the place of business of each subcontractor who will perform work or labor or render service to the prime contractor in or about the construction of the work or improvement, or a subcontractor licensed by the State of California who, under subcontract to the prime contractor, specially fabricates and installs a portion of the work or improvement according to detailed drawings contained in the plans and specifications, in an amount in excess of one-half of 1 percent of the prime contractor's total bid or, in the case of bids or offers for the construction of streets or highways, including bridges, in excess of one-half of 1 percent of the prime contractor's total bid or ten thousand dollars ($10,000), whichever is greater.

(b) The portion of the work which will be done by each subcontractor under this act. The prime contractor shall list only one subcontractor for each portion as is defined by the prime contractor in his or her bid.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

CHAPTER 1579

An act to add Section 199.222 to the Health and Safety Code, and to add Title 8 (commencing with Section 7500) to Part 3 of the Penal Code, relating to AIDS, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 199.222 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately preceding Section 199.23, to read:

199.222. Actions taken pursuant to Title 8 (commencing with Section 7500) of Part 3 of the Penal Code shall not be subject to subdivisions (a) to (c), inclusive, of Section 199.21. In addition, the requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 199.22 shall not apply to testing performed pursuant to that title.

SEC. 2. Title 8 (commencing with Section 7500) is added to Part 3 of the Penal Code, to read:

TITLE 8. MEDICAL TESTING OF PRISONERS

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

7500. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The public peace, health, and safety is endangered by the spread of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) within state and local correctional institutions.

(b) The spread of AIDS within prison and jail populations presents a grave danger to inmates within those populations, law enforcement personnel, and other persons in contact with a prisoner infected with the AIDS virus, both during and after the prisoner's confinement. Law enforcement personnel and prisoners are particularly vulnerable to this danger, due to the high number of assaults and other violent acts which occur within correctional institutions.

(c) AIDS has the frightening potential of spreading more rapidly within the closed society of correctional institutions than outside these institutions. This major public health problem is compounded by the further potential of rapid spread of communicable disease outside correctional institutions, through contacts of an infected prisoner who is not treated and monitored upon his or her release.

(d) New diseases of epidemic proportions, such as AIDS may suddenly and tragically infect large numbers of people. This title primarily addresses a current problem of this nature, the spread of AIDS among those in correctional institutions and among the people of California.

(e) AIDS and AIDS-related conditions pose a major threat to the public health and safety of those governmental employees and others whose responsibilities bring them into most direct contact with persons afflicted with those illnesses, and the protection of the health and safety of these personnel is of equal importance to the people of the State of California as is the protection of the health of those afflicted with the diseases who are held in custodial situations.

(f) Testing described in this title of individuals housed within state and local correctional facilities for evidence of infection by the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), AIDS, or AIDS-related complex would help provide a level of information necessary for effective disease control within these institutions and would help preserve the health of public employees, inmates, and persons in custody, as well as that of the public at large. This testing is not intended to be, and shall not be construed as, a prototypical method of disease control for the public at large.

7501. In order to address the public health crisis described in Section 7500, it is the intent of the Legislature to do all of the following:

(a) Establish a procedure through which custodial and law enforcement personnel are required to report certain situations and may request and be granted a confidential HIV test of an inmate convicted of a crime, or a person arrested or taken into custody, if the custodial or law enforcement officer has reason to believe he or she has come into contact with the blood or semen of an inmate or in any other manner has come into contact with the inmate in a way that could result in HIV infection, based on the latest determinations and conclusions by the federal Centers for Disease Control and the State Department of Health Services on means for the transmission of AIDS, and if appropriate medical authorities, as provided for in this title, reasonably believe there is good medical reason for the test.

(b) Permit inmates to file similar requests stemming from contacts with other inmates.

(c) Require that probation and parole officers be notified when an inmate being released from incarceration is infected with AIDS, and permit these officers to notify certain persons who will come into contact with the parolee or probationer, if authorized by law.

(d) Authorize prison medical staff authorities to require tests of a jail or prison inmate under certain circumstances, if they reasonably believe, based upon the existence of supporting evidence, that the inmate may be suffering from AIDS or AIDS-related diseases and is a danger to other inmates or staff.

(e) Require supervisory and medical personnel of correctional institutions to which this title applies to notify staff if they are coming into close and direct contact with persons in custody who have tested positive or who have AIDS, and provide appropriate counseling and safety equipment.

7502. As used in this title, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Correctional institution" means any state prison, county jail, city jail, California Youth Authority facility, county or city-operated juvenile facility, including juvenile halls, camps, or schools, or any other state or local correctional institution.

(b) "Counseling" means counseling by a licensed physician and surgeon, registered nurse, or other health professional who meets guidelines which shall be established by the State Department of Health Services for purposes of providing counseling on AIDS to inmates, persons in custody, and other persons pursuant to this title.

(c) "Law enforcement employee" means correctional officers, peace officers, and other staff of a correctional institution, California Highway Patrol officers, county sheriff's deputies, city police officers, parole officers, probation officers, and city, county, or state employees including but not limited to, judges, bailiffs, court personnel, and public defenders, who, as part of the judicial process involving an inmate of a correctional institution, or a person charged with a crime, including a minor charged with an offense for which he or she may be made a ward of the court under Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, are engaged in the custody, transportation, or care of these persons.

(d) "AIDS" means acquired immune deficiency syndrome.

(e) "Human immunodeficiency virus" or "HIV" means the etiologic virus of AIDS.

(f) "HIV test" or "HIV testing" means any clinical laboratory test approved by the federal Food and Drug Administration for HIV, component of HIV, or antibodies to HIV.

(g) "Inmate" means any of the following:

(1) A person in a state prison, or city and county jail, who has been either convicted of a crime or arrested or taken into custody, whether or not he or she has been charged with a crime.

(2) Any person in a California Youth Authority facility, or county- or city-operated juvenile facility, who has committed an act, or been charged with committing an act specified in Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(h) "Bodily fluids" means blood, semen, or any other bodily fluid identified by either the federal Centers for Disease Control or State Department of Health Services in appropriate regulations as capable of transmitting HIV.

(i) "Minor" means a person under 15 years of age.

7503. The State Department of Health Services shall adopt guidelines permitting a chief medical officer to delegate his or her medical responsibilities under this title to other qualified physicians and surgeons, and his or her nonmedical responsibilities to other qualified persons, as appropriate. The chief medical officer shall not, however, delegate the duty to determine whether mandatory testing is required as provided for in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7510).

7504. Actions taken pursuant to this title shall not be subject to subdivisions (a) to (c), inclusive, of Section 199.21 of the Health and Safety Code. In addition, the requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 199.22 of the Health and Safety Code, shall not apply to testing performed pursuant to this title.

CHAPTER 2. PROCEDURES FOR REQUIRING HIV TESTING

7510. (a) A law enforcement employee who believes that he or she came into contact with bodily fluids of either an inmate of a correctional institution, a person not in a correctional institution who has been arrested or taken into custody whether or not the person has been charged with a crime, including a person detained for or charged with an offense for which he or she may be made a ward of the court under Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or a person on probation or parole due to conviction of a crime, shall report the incident through the completion of a form provided by the State Department of Health Services. The form shall be directed to the chief medical officer, as defined in subdivision (c), who serves the applicable law enforcement agency. Utilizing this form the law enforcement employee may request an HIV test of the person who is the subject of the report. The forms may be combined with regular incident reports or other forms used by the correctional institution or law enforcement agency.

(b) The report required by subdivision (a) shall be submitted by the end of the law enforcement employee's shift during which the incident occurred, or if not practicable, as soon as possible, but no longer than two days after the incident, except that that the chief medical officer may waive this filing period requirement if he or she finds that good cause exists. The report shall include names of witnesses to the incident, names of persons involved in the incident, and if feasible, any written statements from these parties. The law enforcement employee shall assist in the investigation of the incident, as requested by the chief medical officer.

(c) For purposes of this section and Section 7511, "chief medical officer" means:

(1) In the case of a report filed by a staff member of a state prison, the chief medical officer of that facility.

(2) In the case of a parole officer filing a report, the chief medical officer of the nearest state prison.

(3) In the case of a report filed by an employee of the California Youth Authority, the chief medical officer of the facility.

(4) In the case of a report filed against a subject who is an inmate of a city or county jail or a county- or city-operated juvenile facility, or who has been arrested or taken into custody whether or not the person has been charged with a crime, but who is not in a correctional facility, including a person detained for or charged with an offense for which he or she may be made a ward of the court under Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the county health officer of the county in which the individual is jailed or charged with the crime.

(5) In the case of a report filed by a probation officer, the county health officer of the county in which the probation officer is employed.

(6) In any instance where the chief medical officer, as determined pursuant to this subdivision, is not a physician or surgeon, the chief medical officer shall designate a physician or surgeon to perform his or her duties under this title.

7511. (a) The chief medical officer shall, regardless of whether a report filed pursuant to Section 7510 contains a request for HIV testing, decide whether or not to require HIV testing of the inmate or other person who is the subject of the report filed pursuant to Section 7510, within five calendar days of receipt of the report. If the chief medical officer decides to require HIV testing, he or she shall specify in his or her decision the circumstances, if any, under which followup testing will also be required.

(b) The chief medical officer shall take the following factors into account in determining whether to order an HIV test and followup testing:

(1) Whether an exchange of bodily fluids occurred which could have resulted in AIDS infection, based on the latest written guidelines and standards established by the federal Centers for Disease Control and the State Department of Health Services.

(2) Whether the person exhibits medical conditions or clinical findings categorizing him or her as a possible AIDS victim.

(3) Whether the health of the institution staff or inmates may have been endangered as to AIDS infection resulting from the reported incident.

(c) Prior to reaching a decision, the chief medical officer shall receive written or oral testimony from the law enforcement employee filing the report, from the subject of the report, and from witnesses to the incident, as he or she deems necessary for a complete investigation. The decision shall be in writing and shall state the reasons for the decision. A copy shall be provided by the chief medical officer to the law enforcement employee who filed the report and to the subject of the report, and where the subject is a minor, to the parents or guardian of the minor, unless the parent or guardian of the minor cannot be located.

7512. (a) An inmate of a correctional institution may request HIV testing of another inmate of that institution if he or she has reason to believe that he or she has come into contact with the bodily fluids of that inmate, in situations, which may include, but are not limited to, rape or sexual contact with a potentially infected inmate, tattoo or drug needle sharing, an incident involving injury in which bodily fluids are exchanged, or confinement with a cellmate under circumstances involving possible mingling of bodily fluids. A request may be filed under this section only within two calendar days of the date when the incident causing the request occurred, except that the chief medical officer may waive this filing period requirement when he or she finds that good cause exists.

(b) An inmate in a California Youth Authority facility or any county- or city-operated juvenile facility who is 15 years of age or older, may file a request for a test of another inmate in that facility, in the same manner as an inmate in a state prison, and is subject to the same procedures and rights. An inmate in a California Youth Authority facility or a county- or city-operated juvenile facility who is a minor may file such a request through a staff member of the facility in which he or she is confined. A staff member may file this request on behalf of a minor on his or her own volition if he or she believes that a situation meeting the criteria specified in subdivision (a) has occurred warranting the request. The filing of a request by staff on behalf of an inmate of a California Youth Authority facility or a local juvenile facility shall be within two calendar days of its discovery by staff, except that the chief medical officer may waive this filing period requirement if he or she finds that good cause exists.

When a request is filed on behalf of a minor, the facility shall notify the parent or guardian of the minor of the request and seek permission from the parent or guardian for the test request to proceed. If the parent or guardian refuses to grant permission for the test, the Director of the Youth Authority may request the juvenile court in the county in which the facility is located, to rule on whether the test request procedure set forth in this title shall continue. The juvenile court shall make a ruling within five days of the case being brought before the court.

If the parent or guardian cannot be located, the superintendent of the facility shall approve or disapprove the request for a test.

(c) Upon receipt of a request for testing as provided in this section, a law enforcement employee shall submit the request to the chief medical officer, the identity of which shall be determined as if the request had been made by an employee of the facility. The chief medical officer shall follow the procedures set forth in Section 7511 with respect to investigating the request and reaching a decision as to mandatory testing of the inmate who is the subject of the request. The inmate submitting the request shall provide names or testimony of witnesses within the limits of his or her ability to do so. The chief medical officer shall make his or her decision based on the criteria set forth in Section 7511. A copy of the chief medical officer's decision shall be provided to the person submitting the request for HIV testing, to the subject of the request, and to the superintendent of the correctional institution. In the case of a minor, a copy of the decision shall be provided to the parents or guardian of the minor, unless the parent or guardian of the minor cannot be located.

7512.5. In the absence of the filing of a report pursuant to Section 7510 or a request pursuant to Section 7512, the chief medical officer, may order a test of an inmate if he or she concludes there are clinical symptoms of AIDS or AIDS-related complex, as recognized by the Centers for Disease Control,.

A copy of the decision shall be provided to the inmate, and where the inmate is a minor, to the parents or guardian of the minor, unless the parent or guardian of the minor cannot be located. Any decision made pursuant to this section shall not be appealable to a three-member panel provided for under Section 7515.

7514. It shall be the chief medical officer's responsibility to see that personal counseling is provided to a law enforcement employee filing a report pursuant to Section 7510, an inmate filing a request pursuant to Section 7512, and any potential test subject, at the time the initial report or request for tests is made, at the time when tests are ordered, and at the time when test results are provided to the employee, inmate, or test subject.

The chief medical officer may provide additional counseling to any of these individuals, upon his or her request, or whenever the chief medical officer deems advisable, and may arrange for the counseling to be provided in other jurisdictions. The chief medical officer shall encourage the subject of the report or request, the law enforcement employee who filed the report, the person who filed the request pursuant to Section 7512, or in the case of a minor, the minor on whose behalf the request was filed, to undergo voluntary HIV testing if the chief medical officer deems it medically advisable. All testing required by this title or any voluntary testing resulting from the provisions of this title, shall be at the expense of the appropriate correctional institution.

7515. (a) A decision of the chief medical officer made pursuant to Section 7511, 7512, or 7516 may be appealed, within three calendar days of receipt of the decision, to a three-person panel, either by the person required to be tested, or his or her parent or guardian when the subject is a minor, the law enforcement employee filing a report pursuant to either Section 7510 or 7516, or the person requesting testing pursuant to Section 7512, whichever is applicable, or the chief medical officer, upon his or her own motion. If no request for appeal is filed under this subdivision, the chief medical officer's decision shall be final.

(b) A panel required pursuant to subdivision (a) shall consist of three members, as follows:

(1) The chief medical officer making the original decision.

(2) When the decision arises out of a report filed pursuant to Section 7510, a supervisory representative from the law enforcement agency employing the person who filed the report. When a decision arises out of a chief medical officer's decision made pursuant to Section 7512.5, a supervisory representative of the correctional institution appointed by the institution's superintendent. When the decision arises out of a request filed pursuant to Section 7512, a supervisory representative of the law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the facility.

(3) A physician and surgeon not on the staff of, or under contract with, a state, county, or city correctional institution or with an employer of a law enforcement employee as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 7502, and who has knowledge of the diagnosis and treatment of AIDS. The physician and surgeon appointed pursuant to this paragraph shall be selected by the State Department of Health Services from among a list of persons to be compiled by that department. The State Department of Health Services shall adopt standards for selecting persons for the list required by this paragraph, as well as for their reimbursement, and shall, to the extent possible, utilize its normal process for selecting consultants in compiling this list. The physician and surgeon appointed pursuant to this paragraph shall preside at the hearing and serve as chairperson.

A correctional institution or a county may create an ongoing panel or panels to hear appeals under this section, except that one member each shall meet the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (3).

No panel shall be created under this paragraph by a state correctional institution except with the prior approval of the State Department of Health Services, and no panel shall be created pursuant to this paragraph by a county or city correctional institution except with the prior approval of the county health officer.

(c) A hearing conducted pursuant to this section shall be closed, except that each of the following persons shall have the right to attend the hearing, speak on the issues presented at the hearing, and call witnesses to testify at the hearing:

(1) The chief medical officer, who may also bring staff essential to the hearing, as well as the other two members of the panel.

(2) The subject of the chief medical officer's decision, except that a subject who is a minor may attend only with the consent of his or her parent or guardian, and if the subject is a minor, his or her parent or guardian.

(3) The law enforcement employee filing the report pursuant to Section 7510, or the person requesting HIV testing pursuant to Section 7512, whichever is applicable, and if the person is a minor, his or her parent or guardian.

(d) The subject of the test, or the person requesting the test pursuant to Section 7512, or who filed the report pursuant to Section 7510, whichever is applicable, may appoint a representative to attend the hearing in order to assist him or her.

(e) When a hearing is sought pursuant to this section, the decision shall be rendered within 10 days of the date upon which the appeal is filed pursuant to subdivision (a). A unanimous vote of all the panel shall be necessary in order to require that the subject of the hearing undergo HIV testing.

The criteria specified in Section 7511 for use by the chief medical officer shall also be utilized by the panel in making its decision.

The decision shall be in writing, stating reasons for the decision, and shall be signed by the members. A copy shall be provided by the chief medical officer to the person requesting the test, or filing the report, whichever is applicable, to the subject of the test, and, when the subject is in a correctional institution, to the superintendent of the institution, except that when the subject of the test or the person upon whose behalf the request for the test was made is a minor, copies shall also be provided to the parent or guardian of the person, unless the parent or guardian cannot be located.

7516. (a) When a custodial officer or staff person of a correctional institution, observes or is informed of activity in a correctional institution that is classified as causing, or known to cause, the transmission of the AIDS virus, as described in subdivision (b), he or she may file a written report with the facility's chief medical officer which, in the case of city or county jails, shall be the county health officer.

(b) Reportable activities within a correctional institution for which a report may be filed pursuant to subdivision (a) include, but are not limited to, all of the following activities, if they could result in the transmission of AIDS, according to the standards provided for in this chapter:

(1) Sexual activity resulting in exchange of bodily fluids.

(2) IV drug use.

(3) Incidents involving injury to inmates or staff in which bodily fluids are exchanged.

(4) Tampering with medical and food supplies or medical or food equipment.

(5) Tattooing among inmates.

(c) The medical officer may investigate the report, conduct interviews, and determine whether the situation reported caused the probable exchange of body fluids in a manner that could result in the transmission of HIV, utilizing the criteria set forth in Section 7511, and pose a danger to the health and safety of the institution's staff and inmate population.

If the chief medical officer concludes this may have occurred, he or she shall require HIV testing of any inmate which he or she deems necessary pursuant to the investigation. Whenever an inmate is required to undergo an HIV test pursuant to this subdivision, he or she may appeal that decision as provided for in Section 7515.

(d) Testing under this section may only be required by a unanimous vote of all three members of the panel. The rights guaranteed inmates under Section 7515 shall apply.

When a hearing is convened pursuant to this section, the hearing shall be closed, except that both the person filing the original report and the chief medical officer as well as other panel members may also call witnesses to testify at the hearing.

When a hearing is sought pursuant to this section, the decision shall be rendered within 20 days of the date the hearing is sought by the medical officer.

(e) This section shall apply to situations involving individual inmates or group situations but shall not be utilized to require testing of all inmates in a correctional institution.

(f) The findings of the panel shall be set forth in writing, including reasons for the panel's decision, and shall be signed by the members of the panel. A copy of the decision shall be provided to the superintendent of the correctional institution, the subjects of the report and to any inmates or officers whom the panel concludes may have been exposed to HIV infection as established by provisions of this title.

7516.5. Any decision by a panel pursuant to Section 7515 or 7516 may be appealed to the superior court, either by a law enforcement employee filing a report pursuant to Section 7510, a person requesting an HIV test pursuant to Section 7512, a medical officer convening a panel pursuant to Section 7516, or any person required to be tested pursuant to a panel's decision. A person required to be tested pursuant to Section 7512.5 may also appeal the decision to the superior court.

The court shall schedule a hearing as expeditiously as possible to review the decision of the panel or a decision made pursuant to Section 7512.5. The court shall uphold the decision being appealed if that decision is based upon substantial evidence.

7516.8. It shall be the responsibility of the chief medical officer to see that copies of the hearing decision are distributed in accordance with requirements of this chapter.

7517. Except as otherwise permitted by this title or any provision of law, any records, including decisions of a chief medical officer or an appeals panel, compiled pursuant to this chapter shall be confidential.

7518. (a) The State Department of Health Services shall, in consultation with local and state law enforcement agencies, county health officers, and federal health authorities, adopt guidelines for the making of decisions pursuant to this chapter.

(b) Oversight responsibility for implementation of Section 7515 in state prisons shall be vested with the Chief of Medical Services in the Department of Corrections. Oversight responsibility for implementation of Section 7515 in California Youth Authority facilities shall be vested with the Chief of Medical Services in the Department of the Youth Authority. Oversight responsibility for implementation of Section 7515 with respect to reports involving parole or probation officers shall be vested with the Chief of Parole and Community Services Division in the Department of Corrections.

Oversight responsibility at the county level shall rest with the county health officer.

7519. (a) When an individual, including a minor charged with an offense for which he or she may be made a ward of the court under Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, has either been charged with a crime, but is not being held in a correctional institution due to his or her release, either through the granting of bail, a release on the individual's own recognizance, or for any other reason, or been convicted of a crime, but not held in a correctional institution due to the imposition of probation, a fine, or any other alternative sentence, and the individual is required to undergo initial or followup testing pursuant to this title, the failure of the individual to submit to the test may be grounds for revocation of the individual's release or probation or other sentence, whichever is applicable.

(b) Any refusal by a parolee or probationer to submit to testing required pursuant to this title may be ruled as a violation of the person's parole or probation.

CHAPTER 3. NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENT

7520. Upon the release of an inmate from a correctional institution, a medical representative of the institution shall notify the inmate's parole or probation officer, where it is the case, that the inmate has tested positive for infection with HIV, or has been diagnosed as having AIDS or AIDS-related conditions. The representative of the correctional institution shall obtain the latest available medical information concerning any precautions which should be taken under the circumstances, and shall convey that information to the parole or probation officer.

When a parole or probation officer learns from responsible medical authorities that a parolee or probationer under his or her jurisdiction has AIDS, or AIDS-related conditions, or has tested positive for HIV infection, the parole or probation officer shall be responsible for ensuring that the parolee or probationer contacts the county health department in order to be, or through his or her own physician and surgeon is, made aware of counseling and treatment for AIDS commensurate with that available to the general population of that county.

7521. (a) When a parole or probation officer learns from responsible medical authorities that a parolee or probationer in his or her custody has any of the conditions listed in Section 7520, but that the parolee or probationer has not properly informed his or her spouse, the officer may ensure that this information is relayed to the spouse only through either the chief medical officer of the institution from which the person was released or the physician and surgeon treating the spouse or the parolee or probationer. The parole or probation officer shall seek to ensure that proper counseling accompanies release of this information to the spouse, through the person providing the information to the inmate's spouse.

(b) If a parole or probation officer has received information from appropriate medical authorities that one of his or her parolees or probationers has AIDS or AIDS-related conditions, and the parolee or probationer has a record of assault on a peace officer, and the officer seeks the aid of local law enforcement officers to apprehend or take into custody the parolee or probationer, he or she shall inform the officers assisting him or her in apprehending or taking into custody the parolee or probationer, of the person's condition, to aid them in protecting themselves from contracting AIDS.

(c) Local law enforcement officers receiving information pursuant to this subdivision shall maintain confidentiality of information received pursuant to subdivision (b). Willful use or disclosure of this information is a misdemeanor. Parole or probation officers who willfully or negligently disclose information about AIDS infection, other than as prescribed under this title or any other provision of law, shall also be guilty of a misdemeanor.

7522. (a) Supervisory and medical personnel in correctional institutions shall notify all law enforcement employees when those employees have had direct contact with the bodily fluids of, inmates or persons charged or in custody who either have tested positive for infection with HIV, or been diagnosed as having AIDS or AIDS-related conditions.

(b) Supervisory and medical personnel at correctional institutions shall provide to employees covered by this section the latest medical information regarding precautions to be taken under the circumstances, and shall furnish proper protective clothing and other necessary protective devices or equipment, and instruct staff on the applicability of this title.

7523. Information obtained by a law enforcement employee pursuant to this chapter shall be confidential, and shall not be disclosed except as specifically authorized by this chapter. Information obtained by a member of a panel pursuant to Section 7515 or 7516 shall not be disclosed except as authorized by this title.

CHAPTER 4. TESTING PROCEDURES

7530. The following procedures shall apply to testing conducted under this title:

(a) The withdrawal of blood shall be performed in a medically approved manner. Only a physician, registered nurse, licensed vocational nurse, licensed medical technician, or licensed phlebotomist may withdraw blood specimens for the purposes of this title.

(b) The chief medical officer, as specified in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7510), shall order that the blood specimens be transmitted to a licensed medical laboratory which has been approved by the State Department of Health Services for the conducting of HIV testing, and that tests including all readily available confirmatory tests, be conducted thereon for medically accepted indications of exposure to or infection with HIV. The State Department of Health Services shall adopt standards for the approval of medical laboratories for the conducting of HIV testing under this title. The State Department of Health Services shall adopt standards for the conducting of tests under Section 7530.

(c) Copies of the test results shall be sent by the laboratory to the chief medical officer who made the decision under either Section 7511 or 7512 or who convened the panel under Section 7515 or 7516. The laboratory shall be responsible for protecting the confidentiality of these test results. Willful or negligent breach of this responsibility shall be grounds for a violation of the contract.

(d) The test results shall be sent by the chief medical officer to the designated recipients with the following disclaimer:

"The tests were conducted in a medically approved manner but tests cannot determine exposure to or infection by AIDS or other communicable diseases with absolute accuracy. Persons receiving this test result should continue to monitor their own health and should consult a physician as appropriate."

(e) If the person subject to the test is a minor, copies of the test result shall also be sent to the minor's parents or guardian.

(f) All persons, other than the test subject, who receive test results shall maintain the confidentiality of personal identifying data relating to the test results, except for disclosure which may be necessary to obtain medical or psychological care or advice, or to comply with this title.

(g) The specimens and the results of the tests shall not be admissible evidence in any criminal or disciplinary proceeding.

(h) Any person performing testing, transmitting test results, or disclosing information in accordance with this title shall be immune from civil liability for any action undertaken in accordance with this title.

7531. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no positive test results obtained pursuant to this title shall be disclosed to any person unless the initial positive test result has been confirmed by appropriate confirmatory tests for positive reactors.

CHAPTER 5. PENALTIES

7540. A person committing any of the following acts shall be guilty of a misdemeanor:

(a) Willful false reporting in conjunction with a report or a request for testing under this title.

(b) Willful use or disclosure of test results or confidential information in violation of any of the provisions of this title.

CHAPTER 6. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

7550. The State Department of Health Services shall prepare standardized forms for the reports, notices, and findings required by this title, and distribute these forms to the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, and to each county health officer within three months of the effective date of this title.

7551. A correctional, custodial, or law enforcement agency to which this title applies shall be responsible for informing staff of the provisions of this title, and assisting in its implementation as it applies to the respective agency.

7552. (a) It is recommended that every city or county correctional, custodial, and law enforcement agency to which this title applies have a comprehensive AIDS and HIV prevention and education program in operation, by March 31, 1989. Recommended goals for the programs include all of the following:

(1) Education. Implementation of an educational plan which includes education and training for officers, support staff, and inmates on the prevention and transmission of HIV, with regular updates, at least every three months, with all persons held in custody for at least 12 hours in a correctional institution being provided at least with a pamphlet approved by the county health officer, with more detailed education for persons kept beyond three days.

(2) Body fluid precautions. Because all bodily fluids are considered as potentially infectious, supplying all employees of correctional institutions with the necessary equipment and supplies to follow accepted universal bodily fluids precautions, including gloves and devices to administer cardiopulmonary resuscitation, when dealing with infected persons or those in high-risk groups for HIV infection.

(3) Separate housing for infected individuals. Making available adequate separate housing facilities for housing inmates who have tested positive for HIV infection and who continue to engage in activities which transmit HIV, with facilities comparable to those of other inmates with access to recreational and educational facilities, commensurate with the facilities available in the correctional institution.

(4) Adequate AIDS medical services. The provision of medical services appropriate for the diagnosis and treatment of HIV infection.

(5) These guidelines are advisory only and do not constitute a state mandate.

(b) The program shall require confidentiality of information in accordance with this title and other provisions of the law.

(c) The Board of Corrections and the State Department of Health Services shall assist in developing the programs.

7553. With the approval of the county health officer, the State Department of Health Services, as it deems necessary for HIV detection and prevention, may conduct periodic anonymous unlinked serologic surveys of all or portions of the inmate population or persons under custody within a city or county.

SEC. 2. The Department of Corrections and the California Youth Authority, respectively, shall report to the Legislature and the Joint Prisons Committee within three months of the effective date of this act, regarding the use of AIDS protective equipment or devices and AIDS educational programs at each prison, including, but not limited to, the following: (1) the number and percentage of staff, wards, and inmates who have seen videos on AIDS; (2) the number of pamphlets and educational materials distributed to staff, wards, and inmates; and (3) the number of training and education sessions held for staff and inmates, and the number of staff, wards, and inmates attending these sessions. The report shall be accompanied with samples of pamphlets and educational materials.

SEC. 3. (a) The office of the Legislative Analyst, in cooperation with the State Department of Health Services, shall, within six months of the effective date of this act, report to the Legislature on both of the following:

(1) Whether the Department of Corrections and the Department of the Youth Authority have adequate AIDS education, prevention, and treatment programs for staff and inmates and, where warranted, for visitors.

(2) Whether, based on a random analysis of the programs in at least six state prisons and six California Youth Authority facilities, the programs are being properly implemented.

(b) The Legislative Analyst, in cooperation with the Board of Corrections, shall within eight months of the effective date of this act, provide a report to the Senate and Assembly health committees and the Senate and Assembly fiscal committees on the quality of AIDS education and prevention programs in local correctional facilities, based on a sampling of 15 counties and 15 cities and the guidelines established in this act.

SEC. 4. Except as otherwise provided in this act, any regulations or guidelines required to be adopted by a state agency shall be adopted as emergency regulations within three months from the effective date of this act in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, except that for the purpose of adopting emergency regulations, any regulations adopted pursuant to this act are hereby deemed to be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety or general welfare, and no additional agency findings to that effect shall be required. Except as otherwise provided in this act, state and local agencies shall implement their responsibilities under this act within two months from the date upon which the emergency regulations are adopted by the State Department of Health Services.

SEC. 5. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

SEC. 7. This act shall remain operative only until July 1, 1991, and as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates upon which the bill becomes inoperative and is repealed.

Notwithstanding this section, whenever, prior to July 1, 1991, a law enforcement agency employee has filed a report pursuant to Section 7510 of the Penal Code, or a request for a human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) test has been filed pursuant to Section 7512 of the Penal Code, or any other procedure for requiring a test has been commenced pursuant to Title 8 (commencing with Section 7500) of the Penal Code, the proceedings shall be permitted to continue on or after July 1, 1991, until they have been concluded.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to reduce the spread of AIDS in correctional institutions, as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1580

An act to amend Sections 11165.8, 11166, and 11167.5 of, and to add Sections 11166.7 and 11166.8 to, the Penal Code, relating to crimes, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11165.8 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11165.8. As used in this article, "health practitioner" means a physician and surgeon, psychiatrist, psychologist, dentist, resident, intern, podiatrist, chiropractor, licensed nurse, dental hygienist, optometrist, or any other person who is currently licensed under Division 2 (commencing with Section 500) of the Business and Professions Code; a marriage, family and child counselor; any emergency medical technician I or II, paramedic, or other person certified pursuant to Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 1797) of the Health and Safety Code; a psychological assistant registered pursuant to Section 2913 of the Business and Professions Code; a marriage, family and child counselor trainee, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 4980.03 of the Business and Professions Code; an unlicensed marriage, family and child counselor intern registered under Section 4980.44 of the Business and Professions Code; a state or county public health employee who treats a minor for venereal disease or any other condition; a coroner; a medical examiner, or any other person who performs autopsies; or a religious practitioner who diagnoses, examines, or treats children.

SEC. 2. Section 11166 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11166. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), any child care custodian, health practitioner, or employee of a child protective agency who has knowledge of or observes a child in his or her professional capacity or within the scope of his or her employment whom he or she knows or reasonably suspects has been the victim of child abuse shall report the known or suspected instance of child abuse to a child protective agency immediately or as soon as practically possible by telephone and shall prepare and send a written report thereof within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident. A child protective agency shall be notified and a report shall be prepared and sent even if the child has expired, regardless of whether or not the possible abuse was a factor contributing to the death, and even if suspected child abuse was discovered during an autopsy. For the purposes of this article, "reasonable suspicion" means that it is objectively reasonable for a person to entertain such a suspicion, based upon facts that could cause a reasonable person in a like position, drawing when appropriate on his or her training and experience, to suspect child abuse. For the purpose of this article, the pregnancy of a minor does not, in and of itself, constitute the basis of reasonable suspicion of sexual abuse.

(b) Any child care custodian, health practitioner, or employee of a child protective agency who has knowledge of or who reasonably suspects that mental suffering has been inflicted on a child or his or her emotional well-being is endangered in any other way, may report such known or suspected instance of child abuse to a child protective agency.

(c) Any commercial film and photographic print processor who has knowledge of or observes, within the scope of his or her professional capacity or employment, any film, photograph, video tape, negative or slide depicting a child under the age of 14 years engaged in an act of sexual conduct, shall report such instance of suspected child abuse to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the case immediately or as soon as practically possible by telephone and shall prepare and send a written report of it with a copy of the film, photograph, video tape, negative or slide attached within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident. As used in this subdivision, "sexual conduct" means any of the following:

(1) Sexual intercourse, including genital-genital, oral-genital, anal-genital, or oral-anal, whether between persons of the same or opposite sex or between humans and animals.

(2) Penetration of the vagina or rectum by any object.

(3) Masturbation, for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer.

(4) Sadomasochistic abuse for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer.

(5) Exhibition of the genitals, pubic or rectal areas of any person for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer.

(d) Any other person who has knowledge of or observes a child whom he or she knows or reasonably suspects has been a victim of child abuse may report the known or suspected instance of child abuse to a child protective agency.

(e) When two or more persons who are required to report are present and jointly have knowledge of a known or suspected instance of child abuse, and when there is agreement among them, the telephone report may be made by a member of the team selected by mutual agreement and a single report may be made and signed by such selected member of the reporting team. Any member who has knowledge that the member designated to report has failed to do so, shall thereafter make the report.

(f) The reporting duties under this section are individual, and no supervisor or administrator may impede or inhibit the reporting duties and no person making such a report shall be subject to any sanction for making the report. However, internal procedures to facilitate reporting and apprise supervisors and administrators of reports may be established provided that they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this article.

The internal procedures shall not require any employee required to make reports by this article to disclose his or her identity to the employer.

(g) A county probation or welfare department shall immediately or as soon as practically possible report by telephone to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the case, to the agency given the responsibility for investigation of cases under Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and to the district attorney's office every known or suspected instance of child abuse as defined in Section 11165.6, except acts or omissions coming within subdivision (b) of Section 11165.2, which shall only be reported to the county welfare department. A county probation or welfare department shall also send a written report thereof within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident to any agency to which it is required to make a telephone report under this subdivision.

A law enforcement agency shall immediately or as soon as practically possible report by telephone to the agency given responsibility for investigation of cases under Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and to the district attorney's office every known or suspected instance of child abuse reported to it, except acts or omissions coming within subdivision (b) of Section 11165.2, which shall only be reported to the county welfare department. A law enforcement agency shall report to the county welfare department every known or suspected instance of child abuse reported to it which is alleged to have occurred as a result of the action of a person responsible for the child's welfare, or as the result of the failure of a person responsible for the child's welfare to adequately protect the minor from abuse when the person responsible for the child's welfare knew or reasonably should have known that the minor was in danger of abuse. A law enforcement agency shall also send a written report thereof within 36 hours of receiving the information concerning the incident to any agency to which it is required to make a telephone report under this subdivision.

SEC. 3. Section 11166.7 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

11166.7. (a) Each county may establish an interagency child death team to assist local agencies in identifying and reviewing suspicious child deaths and facilitating communication among persons who perform autopsies and the various persons and agencies involved in child abuse cases. Interagency child death teams have been used successfully to ensure that incidents of child abuse are recognized and other siblings and nonoffending family members receive the appropriate services in cases where a child has expired.

(b) Each county may develop a protocol that may be used as a guideline by persons performing autopsies on children to assist coroners and other persons who perform autopsies in the identification of child abuse, in the determination of whether child abuse contributed to death or whether child abuse had occurred prior to but was not the actual cause of death, and in the proper written reporting procedures for child abuse, including the designation of the cause and mode of death.

(c) In developing an interagency child death team and an autopsy protocol, each county, working in consultation with local members of the California State Coroner's Association and county child abuse prevention coordinating councils, may solicit suggestions and final comments from persons, including but not limited to, the following:

(1) Experts in the field of forensic pathology.

(2) Pediatricians with expertise in child abuse.

(3) Coroners and medical examiners.

(4) Criminologists.

(5) District attorneys.

(6) Child protective services staff.

(7) Law enforcement personnel.

(8) Representatives of local agencies which are involved with child abuse reporting.

(9) County health department staff who deals with children's health issues.

(10) Local professional associations of persons described in paragraphs (1) to (9), inclusive.

SEC. 4. Section 11166.8 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

11166.8. Subject to available funding, the Attorney General, working with the California Consortium of Child Abuse Councils, shall develop a protocol for the development and implementation of interagency child death teams for use by counties, which shall include relevant procedures for both urban and rural counties. The protocol shall be designed to facilitate communication among persons who perform autopsies and the various persons and agencies involved in child abuse cases so that incidents of child abuse are recognized and other siblings and nonoffending family members receive the appropriate services in cases where a child has expired. The protocol shall be completed on or before January 1, 1991.

SEC. 5. Section 11167.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11167.5. (a) The reports required by Sections 11166 and 11166.2 shall be confidential and may be disclosed only as provided in subdivision (b). Any violation of the confidentiality provided by this article shall be a misdemeanor punishable by up to six months in jail or by a fine of five hundred dollars ($500) or by both.

(b) Reports of suspected child abuse and information contained therein may be disclosed only to the following:

(1) Persons or agencies to whom disclosure of the identity of the reporting party is permitted under Section 11167.

(2) Persons or agencies to whom disclosure of information is permitted under subdivision (b) of Section 11170.

(3) Persons or agencies with whom investigations of child abuse are coordinated under the regulations promulgated under Section 11174.

(4) Multidisciplinary personnel teams as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 18951 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(5) Persons or agencies responsible for the licensing of facilities which care for children, as specified in Section 11165.7.

(6) The State Department of Social Services, as specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 11170, when an individual has applied for a community care license or child day care license, or for employment in an out-of-home care facility, or when a complaint alleges child abuse by an operator or employee of an out-of-home care facility.

(7) Hospital scan teams. As used in this paragraph, "hospital scan team" means a team of three or more persons established by a hospital, or two or more hospitals in the same county, consisting of health care professionals and representatives of law enforcement and child protective services, the members of which are engaged in the identification of child abuse. The disclosure authorized by this section includes disclosure among hospital scan teams located in the same county.

(8) Coroners and medical examiners when conducting a postmortem examination of a child.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to require the Department of Justice to disclose information contained in records maintained under Section 11169 or under the regulations promulgated pursuant to Section 11174, except as otherwise provided in this article.

(d) This section shall not be interpreted to allow disclosure of any reports or records relevant to the reports of child abuse if the disclosure would be prohibited by any other provisions of state or federal law applicable to the reports or records relevant to the reports of child abuse.

SEC. 6. The sum of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Justice for expenditure from January 1, 1989, through June 30, 1989, for the purpose of developing the interagency child death team protocol pursuant to Section 11166.8 of the Penal Code. Any additional moneys needed from July 1, 1989, to January 1, 1991, to complete the protocol shall be funded through the Budget Act.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1581

An act to amend Section 4300 of the Civil Code, and to amend Sections 199.21, 199.22, 199.27, and 1603.1 of, and to add Sections 26 and 199.215 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to AIDS.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4300 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4300. (a) Before any person, who is authorized to issue marriage licenses, shall issue the license, each applicant therefor shall file with him or her a certificate from a duly licensed physician stating that the applicant has been given the examination, including a standard serological test, as may be necessary for the discovery of syphilis, made not more than 30 days prior to the date of issuance of the license, and that, in the opinion of the physician, the person either is not infected with syphilis, or if so infected, is not in a stage of that disease which is or may become communicable to the marital partner.

(b) The certificate shall also state whether the female applicant has laboratory evidence of immunological response to rubella (German measles). The certificate shall not contain evidence of response to rubella where the female applicant (1) is over 50 years of age, or (2) has had a surgical sterilization or (3) presents laboratory evidence of a prior test declaring her immunity to rubella.

(c) The certificate shall indicate that an HIV test, as defined in Section 26 of the Health and Safety Code, including any appropriate confirmatory tests for positive reactors, was offered. It is the intention of the Legislature that the results of the tests shall be transmitted to the marriage license applicant, and that followup counseling by a knowledgeable and experienced person shall be made available.

(d) Disclosure of the results of any test performed in accordance with subdivision (c) shall not be made except as provided in Chapter 1.11 (commencing with Section 199.20) of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code.

(e) Any person who by law is validly able to obtain a marriage license in the State of California is validly able to give consent to any examinations and tests required by this article. In submitting the blood specimen to the laboratory the physician shall designate that this is a premarital test.

SEC. 2. Section 26 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

26. As used in this code:

(a) "AIDS" means acquired immune deficiency syndrome.

(b) "Human immunodeficiency virus" or "HIV" means the etiologic virus of AIDS.

(c) "HIV test" means any clinical laboratory test approved by the federal Food and Drug Administration for HIV, component of HIV, or antibodies to HIV.

SEC. 3. Section 199.21 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

199.21. (a) Any person who negligently discloses results of an HIV test to any third party, in a manner which identifies or provides identifying characteristics of the person to whom the test results apply, except pursuant to a written authorization, as described in subdivision (h), or except as provided in Section 1603.1 or 1603.3, shall be assessed a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) plus court costs, as determined by the court, which penalty and costs shall be paid to the subject of the test.

(b) Any person who willfully discloses the results of an HIV test to any third party, in a manner which identifies or provides identifying characteristics of the person to whom the test results apply, except pursuant to a written authorization, as described in subdivision (g), or except as provided in Section 1603.1 or 1603.3, shall be assessed a civil penalty in an amount not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) plus court costs, as determined by the court, which penalty and costs shall be paid to the subject of the test.

(c) Any person who willfully or negligently discloses the results of an HIV test to a third party, in a manner which identifies or provides identifying characteristics of the person to whom the test results apply, except pursuant to a written authorization, as described in subdivision (g), or except as provided in Section 1603.1 or 1603.3, which results in economic, bodily, or psychological harm to the subject of the test, is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed one year or a fine of not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or both.

(d) Any person who commits any act described in subdivision (a) or (b) shall be liable to the subject for all actual damages, including damages for economic, bodily, or psychological harm which is a proximate cause of the act.

(e) Each disclosure made in violation of this chapter is a separate and actionable offense.

(f) The results of a blood test to detect antibodies to the probable causative agent of acquired immune deficiency syndrome, which identifies or provides identifying characteristics of the person to whom the test results apply, shall not be used in any instance for the determination of insurability.

(g) The results of an HIV test shall not be used in any instance for the determination of suitability for employment.

(h) "Written authorization," as used in this section, applies only to the disclosure of test results by a person responsible for the care and treatment of the person subject to the test. Written authorization is required for each separate disclosure of the test results, and shall include to whom the disclosure would be made.

(i) Nothing in this section limits or expands the right of an injured subject to recover damages under any other applicable law. Nothing in this section shall impose civil liability or criminal sanction for disclosure of the results of tests performed on cadavers to public health authorities or tissue banks.

(j) Nothing in this section imposes liability or criminal sanction for disclosure of results of an HIV test in accordance with any reporting requirement for a diagnosed case of AIDS by the state department or the Centers for Disease Control under the United States Public Health Service.

(k) The state department may require blood banks and plasma centers to submit monthly reports summarizing statistical data concerning the results of tests to detect the presence of viral hepatitis and of HIV. This statistical summary shall not include the identity of individual donors or identifying characteristics which would identify individual donors.

(l) "Disclosed," as used in this section, means to disclose, release, transfer, disseminate, or otherwise communicate all or any part of any record orally, in writing, or by electronic means to any person or entity.

SEC. 4. Section 199.215 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

199.215. (a) Notwithstanding Section 199.21, the results of an HIV test which identifies or provides identifying characteristics of the person to whom the test results apply may be recorded by the physician who ordered the test in the test subject's medical record or otherwise disclosed without written authorization of the subject of the test, or the subject's representative as set forth in Section 199.27, to the test subject's providers of health care, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 56.05 of the Civil Code, for purposes of diagnosis, care, or treatment of the patient, except that for purposes of this section "providers of health care" does not include a health care service plan regulated pursuant to Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2.

(b) Recording or disclosure of HIV test results pursuant to subdivision (a) does not authorize further disclosure unless otherwise permitted by law.

SEC. 5. Section 199.22 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

199.22. (a) No person shall order an HIV test of another person without obtaining the informed consent of the subject of the test. Except where otherwise required by law, any person may refuse to submit to an HIV test.

This requirement does not apply to a test performed at an alternative site, as established pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 1630) of Chapter 4 of Division 2. This requirement also does not apply to any blood and blood products specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 1603.1. This requirement does not apply when testing is performed as part of the medical examination performed pursuant to Section 7152.5.

(b) Nothing in this section shall preclude a medical examiner or other physician from ordering or performing an HIV test on a cadaver when an autopsy is performed or body parts are donated pursuant to the Uniform Anatomical Gift Act, provided for pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 7150) of Part 1 of Division 7.

(c) The requirements of subdivision (a) do not apply when blood is tested as part of a scientific investigation conducted either by medical researchers operating under institutional review board approval or by the state department in accordance with a protocol for unlinked testing. For purposes of this section, unlinked testing means that blood samples are obtained anonymously or that the individual's name and other identifying information is removed in a manner that precludes the test results from ever being linked to a particular individual in the study.

SEC. 6. Section 199.27 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 1427 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

199.27. (a) (1) When the subject of an HIV test is not competent to give consent for the test to be performed, written consent for the test may be obtained from the subject's parents, guardians, conservators, or other person lawfully authorized to make health care decisions for the subject. For purposes of this paragraph, a minor shall be deemed not competent to give consent if he or she is under 12 years of age.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), when the subject of the test is a minor adjudged to be a dependent child of the court pursuant to Section 360 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, written consent for the test to be performed may be obtained from the court pursuant to its authority under Section 362 or 369 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(b) Written consent shall only be obtained for the subject pursuant to subdivision (a) when necessary to render appropriate care or to practice preventative measures.

(c) The person authorized to consent to the test pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be permitted to do any of the following:

(1) Notwithstanding Sections 199.20 and 199.21, receive the results of the test on behalf of the subject without written authorization.

(2) Disclose the test results on behalf of the subject in accordance with Sections 199.20 and 199.21.

(3) Provide written authorization for the disclosure of the test results on behalf of the subject in accordance with Sections 199.20 and 199.21.

SEC. 7. Section 1603.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1603.1. (a) Except as provided in this subdivision, no blood or blood components shall be used in vivo for humans in this state, unless the blood or blood components have been tested and found nonreactive for HIV or the blood or blood components are used for research or vaccination programs pursuant to an informed consent.

Additional exceptions to the requirement of this subdivision are as follows:

(1) Frozen red blood cells of a rare type, as determined by the blood bank or plasma center, collected prior to the effective date of this paragraph, for which no specimen is available.

(2) Inventories of blood and blood components collected prior to 60 days after the effective date of this paragraph or the date of licensing of a test by the Federal Drug Administration to determine exposure to the antibodies to the probable causative agent of AIDS, whichever is later.

(3) Blood or blood products released for transfusion in emergency circumstances, as determined by the state department.

(4) Blood used for autologous purposes.

(b) Blood banks and plasma centers shall make laboratory tests of all human whole blood and plasma received to detect the presence of viral hepatitis and HIV in the manner specified in Section 1603.3. If the blood bank or plasma center finds the presence of viral hepatitis, or an antigen thereof, in the blood tested, it shall report that finding, the date of the human whole blood donation, the name, address, and social security number of the person who donated the blood, and the name and address of the blood bank which received the human whole blood from the person and any additional information required by the department, to the department and the county health officer within 72 hours of the confirmation of the presence of viral hepatitis, or an antigen thereof, in the blood tested.

(c) As soon as practicable following diagnosis, a physician shall report to the department and the county health officer the name, date of birth, address, and social security number of all carriers of viral hepatitis under his or her treatment, the type of viral hepatitis contracted if known, and any additional information required by the department and shall report immediately all transfusion-associated hepatitis and transfusion-associated AIDS cases to the county health officer for investigation.

(d) As soon as practicable following hospitalization, a hospital shall report to the department and to the county health officer the name, date of birth, address, and social security number of all confirmed cases of AIDS carriers, as determined by a person responsible for the care and treatment of a person with AIDS, and all carriers of viral hepatitis hospitalized for treatment of viral hepatitis or AIDS, the name of the hospital, the date of hospitalization, the type of viral hepatitis contracted if known, and any additional information required by the department and shall report immediately all transfusion-associated hepatitis and all confirmed transfusion-associated AIDS cases, as determined by a person responsible for the care and treatment of a person with AIDS, to the county health officer for investigation.

(e) The county health officer shall investigate all transfusion-associated hepatitis cases and transfusion-associated AIDS cases and shall, if possible, trace the sources of human whole blood which was transfused. The county health officer shall report to the department within 72 hours following an investigation the name, date of birth, address, and social security number of carrier donors, possible carrier donors and carriers of viral hepatitis and any additional information required by the department.

(f) The department shall compile two times each month a list of carrier donors, possible carrier donors, and carriers of viral hepatitis and persons who test reactive for HIV and shall distribute the list to blood banks and plasma centers two times each month. The list shall include the name, date of birth, address, and social security number of people who are carrier donors, possible carrier donors and carriers of viral hepatitis and persons who test reactive for HIV, and confirmed cases of AIDS, as determined by a person responsible for the care and treatment of a person with AIDS, the date of the human whole blood donation if applicable, the name and address of the blood bank who received the human whole blood donation if applicable, and any other information which the department deems necessary to protect the public health and safety. This list shall be known as the Donor Deferral Register and shall include names of individuals who are indefinitely deferred from blood donations without identifying the reasons for the deferral. The state department may develop guidelines governing the instances when a person is to be removed from the register. These guidelines may include, but shall not be limited to nor be required to include, death of an identified donor or the licensure by the Federal Food and Drug Administration of a new, confirmatory test for AIDS which would allow the state department to more accurately determine if a person should be kept on the registry due to any threat to the state's blood supply that the prospective donor may represent.

(g) The department shall, if possible, contact carrier donors to inform them that they may be carriers of viral hepatitis and should not make blood donations, and shall suggest appropriate treatment alternatives. County health or state department officials shall contact all persons who have confirmed cases of AIDS, as determined by a person responsible for the care and treatment of the person with AIDS, to suggest appropriate treatment alternatives and for the purposes of epidemiological studies and followup.

(h) The department may adopt regulations governing the procedures in this section as it deems necessary to protect the public health and safety.

(i) "Plasma center," as used in this chapter, means any place where the process of plasmapheresis is conducted, as defined in Section 1025 of Title 17 of the California Code of Regulations and includes a place where leukopheresis or platelet pheresis, or both, is conducted.

(j) "AIDS," as used in this chapter, means acquired immune deficiency syndrome.

(k) "Blood components," as used in this chapter, means preparations separated from single units of whole blood or prepared for hemapheresis and intended for use as final products for transfusions.

(l) The department or a county health officer may disclose to a blood bank, on a confidential basis, any information reported pursuant to subdivision (b), (c), or (d). This information shall be used by the blood bank solely to determine whether blood previously transfused may have been donated by a person infected with HIV, in order to implement the blood bank's program to notify a recipient of blood which might have transmitted HIV and which was donated prior to implementation of testing procedures for the presence of antibodies to the probable causative agent of HIV. The blood bank shall not disclose information which would identify a donor to which this subdivision applies and shall destroy information communicated to it as authorized by this subdivision immediately after reviewing its records as necessary to implement this program.

CHAPTER 1582

An act to amend Sections 199.21 and 199.22 of, and to add Section 199.24 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to health, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 199.21 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

199.21. (a) Any person who negligently discloses results of a blood test to detect antibodies to the probable causative agent of acquired immune deficiency syndrome to any third party, in a manner which identifies or provides identifying characteristics of the person to whom the test results apply, except pursuant to a written authorization, as described in subdivision (g), or except as provided in Section 1603.1 or 1603.3, shall be assessed a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) plus court costs, as determined by the court, which penalty and costs shall be paid to the subject of the test.

(b) Any person who willfully discloses the results of a blood test to detect antibodies to the probable causative agent of acquired immune deficiency syndrome to any third party, in a manner which identifies or provides identifying characteristics of the person to whom the test results apply, except pursuant to a written authorization, as described in subdivision (g), or except as provided in Section 1603.1 or 1603.3, shall be assessed a civil penalty in an amount not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) plus court costs, as determined by the court, which penalty and costs shall be paid to the subject of the test.

(c) Any person who willfully or negligently discloses the results of a blood test to detect antibodies to the probable causative agent of acquired immune deficiency syndrome to a third party, in a manner which identifies or provides identifying characteristics of the person to whom the test results apply, except pursuant to a written authorization, as described in subdivision (g), or except as provided in Section 1603.1 or 1603.3, which results in economic, bodily, or psychological harm to the subject of the test, is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed one year or a fine of not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or both.

(d) Any person who commits any act described in subdivision (a) or (b) shall be liable to the subject for all actual damages, including damages for economic, bodily, or psychological harm which is a proximate cause of the act.

(e) Each disclosure made in violation of this chapter is a separate and actionable offense.

(f) The results of a blood test to detect antibodies to the probable causative agent of acquired immune deficiency syndrome, which identifies or provides identifying characteristics of the person to whom the test results apply, shall not be used in any instance for the determination of insurability or suitability for employment.

(g) "Written authorization," as used in this section, applies only to the disclosure of test results by a person responsible for the care and treatment of the person subject to the test. Written authorization is required for each separate disclosure of the test results, and shall include to whom the disclosure would be made.

(h) Nothing in this section limits or expands the right of an injured subject to recover damages under any other applicable law. Nothing in this section shall impose civil liability or criminal sanction for disclosure of the results of tests performed on cadavers to public health authorities or tissue banks.

(i) Nothing in this section imposes liability or criminal sanction for disclosure of a blood test to detect antibodies to the probable causative agent of AIDS in accordance with any reporting requirement for a diagnosed case of AIDS or ARC by the state department or the Centers for Disease Control under the United States Public Health Service.

(j) The state department may require blood banks and plasma centers to submit monthly reports summarizing statistical data concerning the results of tests to detect the presence of viral hepatitis and antibodies to the probable causative agent of AIDS. This statistical summary shall not include the identity of individual donors or identifying characteristics which would identify individual donors.

(k) "Disclosed," as used in this section, means to disclose, release, transfer, disseminate, or otherwise communicate all or any part of any record orally, in writing, or by electronic means to any person or entity.

(l) When the results of the blood test to detect antibodies to the probable causative agent of AIDS are included in the medical record of the patient who is the subject of the test, the inclusion is not a disclosure for purposes of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 199.22 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

199.22. (a) Except in the case of a person treating a patient, no person shall test a person's blood for evidence of antibodies to the probable causative agent of AIDS without the written consent of the subject of the test or the written consent of the subject, as provided in Section 199.27, and the person giving the test shall have a written statement signed by the subject or conservator or other person, as provided in Section 199.27 confirming that he or she obtained the consent from the subject. In the case of a physician and surgeon treating a patient, the consent required under this subdivision shall be informed consent, by the patient, conservator, or other person provided for in Section 199.27.

This requirement does not apply to a test performed at an alternative site, as established pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 1630) of Chapter 4 of Division 2. This requirement also does not apply to any blood and blood products specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 1603.1. This requirement does not apply when testing is performed as part of the medical examination performed pursuant to Section 7152.5.

(b) Nothing in this section shall preclude a medical examiner or other physician from ordering or performing a blood test to detect antibodies to the probable causative agent of AIDS on a cadaver when an autopsy is performed or body parts are donated pursuant to the Uniform Anatomical Gift Act, provided for pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 7150) of Part 1 of Division 7.

(c) The requirements of subdivision (a) do not apply when blood is tested as part of a scientific investigation conducted either by medical researchers operating under institutional review board approval or by the state department in accordance with a protocol for unlinked testing. For purposes of this section, unlinked testing means that blood samples are obtained anonymously or that the individual's name and other identifying information is removed in a manner that precludes the test results from ever being linked to a particular individual in the study.

SEC. 3. Section 199.24 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

199.24. Notwithstanding Section 199.20 or 199.21, the results of a blood test to detect antibodies to the probable causative agent of AIDS may be disclosed to any of the following persons without written authorization of the subject of the test:

(a) To the subject of the test or the subject's legal representative, conservator, or to any person authorized to consent to the test pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 199.22.

(b) To a test subject's provider of health care, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 56.05 of the Civil Code, except that for purposes of this section, "provider of health care" does not include a health care service plan regulated pursuant to Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2.

(c) To an agent or employee of the test subject's provider of health care who provides direct patient care and treatment.

(d) To a provider of health care who procures, processes, distributes, or uses a human body part donated pursuant to the Uniform Anatomical Gift Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 7150) of Part 1 of Division 7).

CHAPTER 1583

An act to amend Sections 430, 665, 11713 and 11713.1 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 430 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

430. A "new vehicle" is a vehicle constructed entirely from new parts that has never been sold or registered with the department, or registered with the appropriate agency of authority, or sold and operated upon the highways of any other state, District of Columbia, territory or possession of the United States, or foreign state, province, or country. The word "sold" does not include or extend to: (1) any sale made by a manufacturer or a distributor to a dealer, or (2) any sale by a new motor vehicle dealer franchised to sell a particular line-make to another new motor vehicle dealer franchised to sell the same line-make, or (3) any sale by a dealer to another dealer licensed under this code involving a mobilehome, as defined in Section 396, a recreational vehicle, as defined in Section 18010.5 of the Health and Safety Code, a commercial coach, as defined in Section 18012 of the Health and Safety Code, an off-highway motor vehicle subject to identification, as defined in Section 38012, or a commercial vehicle, as defined in Section 260.

A vehicle shall be considered new, if previously unregistered, for financing purposes only.

SEC. 2. Section 665 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

665. A "used vehicle" is a vehicle that has been sold, or has been registered with the department, or has been sold and operated upon the highways, or has been registered with the appropriate agency of authority, of any other state, District of Columbia, territory or possession of the United States or foreign state, province or country, or unregistered vehicles regularly used or operated as demonstrators in the sales work of a dealer or unregistered vehicles regularly used or operated by a manufacturer in the sales or distribution work of such manufacturer. The word "sold" does not include or extend to: (1) any sale made by a manufacturer or a distributor to a dealer, (2) any sale by a new motor vehicle dealer franchised to sell a particular line-make to another new motor vehicle dealer franchised to sell the same line-make, or (3) any sale by a dealer to another dealer licensed under this code involving a mobilehome, as defined in Section 396, a recreational vehicle, as defined in Section 18010.5 of the Health and Safety Code, a commercial coach, as defined in Section 18012 of the Health and Safety Code, an off-highway motor vehicle subject to identification, as defined in Section 38012, or a commercial vehicle, as defined in Section 260.

SEC. 3. Section 11713 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11713. It is unlawful and a violation of this code for the holder of any license issued under this article to do any of the following:

(a) To make or disseminate, or cause to be made or disseminated, before the public in this state, in any newspaper or other publication, or any advertising device, or by public outcry or proclamation, or in any other manner or means whatever, any statement which is untrue or misleading, and which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue or misleading; or to so make or disseminate, or cause to be so disseminated, any such statement as part of a plan or scheme with the intent not to sell any vehicle or service so advertised at the price stated therein, or as so advertised.

(b) To advertise or offer for sale or exchange in any manner, any vehicle not actually for sale at the premises of the dealer or available to the dealer from the manufacturer or distributor of the vehicle at the time of the advertisement or offer. However, a dealer not franchised to sell new motor vehicles of a particular line-make, may advertise that it has the ability to purchase for resale, vehicles available from franchised dealers provided that any such advertisement or offer clearly and conspicuously states: "Dealer is not franchised to sell or service new vehicles. All vehicles purchased directly from dealer must be purchased as used and are subject to availability from a franchised dealer."

(c) To fail, within 48 hours, in writing to withdraw any advertisement of a vehicle that has been sold or withdrawn from sale.

(d) To advertise or represent a vehicle as a new vehicle if the vehicle falls within the purview of Section 665.

(e) To engage in the business for which the licensee is licensed without having in force and effect a bond as required by this article.

(f) For any licensed dealer to engage in the business for which the dealer is licensed without at all times maintaining an established place of business as required by this code.

(g) To include, as an added cost to the selling price of a vehicle, an amount for licensing or transfer of title of the vehicle, which amount is not due to the state unless, prior to the sale, that amount has been paid by a dealer to the state in order to avoid penalties that would have accrued because of late payment of the fees. However, a dealer may collect from the second purchaser of a vehicle a prorated fee based upon the number of months remaining in the registration year for that vehicle, if the vehicle had been previously sold by the dealer and the sale was subsequently rescinded and all the fees that were paid, as required by this code and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10751) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, were returned to the first purchaser of the vehicle.

(h) To employ any person as a salesperson who has not been licensed pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 11800), and whose license is not displayed on the premises of the dealer as required by Section 11812, or to fail to willfully notify the department by mail within 10 days of the employment or termination of employment of a salesperson.

(i) To deliver, following sale, a vehicle for operation on California highways, if the vehicle does not meet all of the equipment requirements of Division 12 (commencing with Section 24000).

(j) To use, or permit the use of, the special plates assigned to him or her for any purpose other than as permitted by Section 11715.

(k) To advertise or otherwise represent, or knowingly to allow to be advertised or represented on behalf of, or at the place of business of, the license holder that no downpayment is required in connection with the sale of a vehicle when a downpayment is in fact required and the buyer is advised or induced to finance the downpayment by a loan in addition to any other loan financing the remainder of the purchase price of the vehicle.

(l) To participate in the sale of a vehicle reported to the Department of Motor Vehicles under Section 5900 or 5901 without making the return and payment of any sales tax due and required by Section 6451 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(m) To permit the use of the dealer's license, supplies, or books by any other person for the purpose of permitting that person to engage in the sale of vehicles required to be registered under this code, or to permit the use of the dealer's license, supplies, or books to operate a branch location to be used by any other person, whether or not the licensee has any financial or equitable interest or investment in the vehicles sold by, or the business of, or branch location used by, the other person.

(n) To violate any provisions of Article 10 (commencing with Section 28050) of Chapter 5 of Division 12.

(o) To sell a previously unregistered vehicle without disclosing in writing to the purchaser the date on which any manufacturer's or distributor's warranty commenced.

(p) To accept a purchase deposit relative to the sale of a vehicle, unless the vehicle is present at the premises of the dealer or available to the dealer directly from the manufacturer or distributor of the vehicle at the time the dealer accepts the deposit. A purchase deposit relative to the sale of a vehicle by a dealer not franchised to sell new motor vehicles of a particular line-make shall be subject to all of the following conditions: (i) there is a written purchase order; (ii) the deposit shall not exceed 2.5 percent of the total purchase price specified in the written purchase order; (iii) the deposit shall be deposited in a federally insured depository institution in a trust account held in favor of the purchaser; (iv) the deposit is entirely refundable upon written notice to the dealer; (v) the purchaser is advised in writing of his right to rescind the transaction prior to the delivery of the vehicle; and, (vi) each purchase agreement shall contain a provision for liquidated damages in the event of default under the purchase agreement, which shall not limit the dealer's right of offset against funds held in favor of the purchaser in the trust account.

(q) To consign for sale to another dealer a new vehicle.

SEC. 4. Section 11713.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11713.1. It is unlawful and a violation of this code for the holder of any dealer's license issued under this article to do any of the following:

(a) To advertise any specific vehicle for sale without identifying the vehicle by either its vehicle identification number or license number.

(b) To advertise the total price of a vehicle without including all costs to the purchaser at time of sale, except sales tax, vehicle registration fees, certificate of compliance or noncompliance fees not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25) pursuant to any statute or a certificate of waiver pursuant to Section 9889.56 of the Business and Professions Code, finance charges, and any dealer documentary preparation charge. The dealer documentary preparation charge shall not exceed twenty-five dollars ($25).

(c) To exclude from the newspaper display advertisement of a vehicle for sale that there will be added to the advertised total price at the time of sale, charges for sales tax, vehicle registration fees, the fee charged by the state for the issuance of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute or a certificate of waiver pursuant to Section 9889.56 of the Business and Professions Code, finance charges, and any dealer documentary preparation charge.

For purposes of this subdivision, "newspaper display advertisement" means any advertisement in a newspaper which is two or more newspaper columns in width or one newspaper column in width and more than seven inches in length.

(d) To represent the dealer documentary preparation charge or certificate of compliance or noncompliance fee, as a governmental fee.

(e) To fail to sell a vehicle to any person at the advertised total price, exclusive of sales tax, vehicle registration fees, the fee charged by the state for the issuance of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute or a certificate of waiver pursuant to Section 9889.56 of the Business and Professions Code, finance charges, mobilehome escrow fees, the amount of any city, county, or city and county imposed fee or tax for a mobilehome, and any dealer documentary preparation charge, which charges shall not exceed twenty-five dollars ($25) while the vehicle remains unsold, unless the advertisement states the advertised total price is good only for a specified time and the time has elapsed.

(f) To advertise for sale or sell as new any vehicle of a line-make for which the dealer does not hold a franchise.

This subdivision does not apply to any transaction involving a mobilehome as defined in Section 396 of this code, a recreational vehicle as defined in Section 18010.5 of the Health and Safety Code, a commercial coach as defined in Section 18012 of the Health and Safety Code, an off-highway motor vehicle subject to identification as defined in Section 38012, or a commercial vehicle as defined in Section 260.

(g) To sell a park trailer, as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 799.24 of the Civil Code, without disclosing in writing to the purchaser that a park trailer is required to be moved by a transporter or a licensed manufacturer or dealer under a permit issued by the Department of Transportation or a local authority with respect to highways under their respective jurisdictions.

SEC. 5. It is not the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to change the so-called hold for resale registration exemption procedure between automobile dealers in effect on and after January 1, 1988.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1584

An act to amend Section 11713.1 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11713.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11713.1. It is unlawful and a violation of this code for the holder of any dealer's license issued under this article to do any of the following:

(a) To advertise any specific vehicle for sale without identifying the vehicle by either its vehicle identification number or license number.

(b) To advertise the total price of a vehicle without including all costs to the purchaser at time of sale, except sales tax, vehicle registration fees, certificate of compliance or noncompliance fees not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25) pursuant to any statute or a certificate of waiver pursuant to Section 9889.56 of the Business and Professions Code, finance charges, and any dealer documentary preparation charge. The dealer documentary preparation charge shall not exceed twenty-five dollars ($25).

(c) To exclude from the newspaper display advertisement of a vehicle for sale that there will be added to the advertised total price at the time of sale, charges for sales tax, vehicle registration fees, the fee charged by the state for the issuance of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute or a certificate of waiver pursuant to Section 9889.56 of the Business and Professions Code, finance charges, and any dealer documentary preparation charge.

For purposes of this subdivision, "newspaper display advertisement" means any advertisement in a newspaper which is two or more newspaper columns in width or one newspaper column in width and more than seven inches in length.

(d) To represent the dealer documentary preparation charge or certificate of compliance or noncompliance fee, as a governmental fee.

(e) To fail to sell a vehicle to any person at the advertised total price, exclusive of sales tax, vehicle registration fees, the fee charged by the state for the issuance of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute or a certificate of waiver pursuant to Section 9889.56 of the Business and Professions Code, finance charges, mobilehome escrow fees, the amount of any city, county, or city and county imposed fee or tax for a mobilehome, and any dealer documentary preparation charge, which charges shall not exceed twenty-five dollars ($25) while the vehicle remains unsold, unless the advertisement states the advertised total price is good only for a specified time and the time has elapsed.

(f) To advertise for sale as new any new vehicle of a line-make for which the dealer does not hold a franchise, unless the dealer discloses, prior to the sale of the new vehicle, that the dealer is not franchised to sell the vehicle and that the dealer will receive a commission or other compensation as a result of the sale.

This subdivision does not apply to any transaction involving a mobilehome as defined in Section 396 of this code, a recreational vehicle as defined in Section 18010.5 of the Health and Safety Code, a commercial coach as defined in Section 18012 of the Health and Safety Code, an off-highway motor vehicle subject to identification as defined in Section 38012, or a commercial vehicle as defined in Section 260.

(g) To sell a park trailer, as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 799.24 of the Civil Code, without disclosing in writing to the purchaser that a park trailer is required to be moved by a transporter or a licensed manufacturer or dealer under a permit issued by the Department of Transportation or a local authority with respect to highways under their respective jurisdictions.

(h) To advertise free merchandise, gifts, or services provided by a dealer contingent on the purchase of a vehicle. The term "free" includes merchandise or services offered for sale at a price less than the seller's cost of the merchandise or services.

(i) To advertise vehicles and related goods or services with intent not to supply reasonably expectable demand, unless the advertisement discloses a limitation of quantity.

(j) To use the term "rebate" or similar words such as "cash back" in advertising the sale of a vehicle unless the rebate is expressed in a specific dollar amount and is in fact a rebate offered by the vehicle manufacturer or distributor directly to the retail purchaser of the vehicle or to the assignee of the retail purchaser.

(k) To require a person to pay a higher price for a vehicle and related goods or services for receiving advertised credit terms than the cash price the same person would have to pay to purchase the same vehicle and related goods or services. For the purpose of this subdivision, "cash price" has the meaning as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 2981 of the Civil Code.

(l) To advertise a guaranteed trade-in allowance unless the guarantee is provided by the manufacturer or distributor.

(m) To misrepresent the authority of a salesperson, representative, or agent to negotiate the final terms of a transaction.

(n) To advertise a vehicle at a specified amount above, below, or at the manufacturer's or distributor's invoice price to the dealer, unless the advertisement clearly and conspicuously states that the invoice amount may exceed the actual dealer cost because of allowances provided to the dealer by the manufacturer or distributor.

(o) To violate any law prohibiting bait and switch advertising, including, but not limited to, the guides against bait advertising set forth in Part 238 (commencing with Section 238) of Title 16 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as those regulations read on January 1, 1988.

(p) To make any untrue or misleading statement indicating that a vehicle is equipped with all the factory installed optional equipment the manufacturer offers, including, but not limited to, a false statement that a vehicle is "fully factory equipped."

(q) To affix on any new vehicle a supplemental price sticker containing a price that represents the dealer's asking price which exceeds the manufacturer's suggested retail price unless all of the following occur:

(1) The supplemental sticker clearly and conspicuously discloses in the largest print appearing on the sticker, other than the print size used for the dealer's name, that the supplemental sticker price is the dealer's asking price, or words of similar import, and that it is not the manufacturer's suggested retail price.

(2) The supplemental sticker clearly and conspicuously discloses the manufacturer's suggested retail price.

(3) The supplemental sticker lists each item which is not included in the manufacturer's suggested retail price, and discloses the additonal price of each item. If the supplemental sticker price is greater than the sum of the manufactuer's suggested retail price and the price of the items added by the dealer, then the supplemental sticker price shall set forth that difference and describe it as "added mark-up."

(r) To advertise any underselling claim, such as "we have the lowest prices" or "we will beat any dealer's price," unless the dealer has conducted a recent survey showing that the dealer sells its vehicles at lower prices than any other dealer in its trade area and maintains records to adequately substantiate the claims. The substantiating records shall be made available to the department upon request.

(s) To advertise any incentive offered by the manufacturer or distributor if the dealer is required to contribute to the cost of the incentive as a condition of participating in the incentive program, unless the dealer discloses in a clear and conspicuous manner that dealer participation may affect consumer cost.

For purposes of this subdivision "incentive" means anything of value offered to induce people to purchase a vehicle, including, but not limited to, discounts, savings claims, rebates, below-market finance rates, and free merchandise or services.

SEC. 2. Section 11713.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11713.1. It is unlawful and a violation of this code for the holder of any dealer's license issued under this article to do any of the following:

(a) To advertise any specific vehicle for sale without identifying the vehicle by either its vehicle identification number or license number.

(b) To advertise the total price of a vehicle without including all costs to the purchaser at time of sale, except sales tax, vehicle registration fees, certificate of compliance or noncompliance fees not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25) pursuant to any statute or a certificate of waiver pursuant to Section 9889.56 of the Business and Professions Code, finance charges, and any dealer documentary preparation charge. The dealer documentary preparation charge shall not exceed twenty-five dollars ($25).

(c) To exclude from the newspaper display advertisement of a vehicle for sale that there will be added to the advertised total price at the time of sale, charges for sales tax, vehicle registration fees, the fee charged by the state for the issuance of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute or a certificate of waiver pursuant to Section 9889.56 of the Business and Professions Code, finance charges, and any dealer documentary preparation charge.

For purposes of this subdivision, "newspaper display advertisement" means any advertisement in a newspaper which is two or more newspaper columns in width or one newspaper column in width and more than seven inches in length.

(d) To represent the dealer documentary preparation charge or certificate of compliance or noncompliance fee, as a governmental fee.

(e) To fail to sell a vehicle to any person at the advertised total price, exclusive of sales tax, vehicle registration fees, the fee charged by the state for the issuance of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute or a certificate of waiver pursuant to Section 9889.56 of the Business and Professions Code, finance charges, mobilehome escrow fees, the amount of any city, county, or city and county imposed fee or tax for a mobilehome, and any dealer documentary preparation charge, which charges shall not exceed twenty-five dollars ($25) while the vehicle remains unsold, unless the advertisement states the advertised total price is good only for a specified time and the time has elapsed.

(f) To advertise for sale as new any new vehicle of a line-make for which the dealer does not hold a franchise.

This subdivision does not apply to any transaction involving a mobilehome as defined in Section 396 of this code, a recreational vehicle as defined in Section 18010.5 of the Health and Safety Code, a commercial coach as defined in Section 18012 of the Health and Safety Code, an off-highway motor vehicle subject to identification as defined in Section 38012, or a commercial vehicle as defined in Section 260.

(g) To sell a park trailer, as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 799.24 of the Civil Code, without disclosing in writing to the purchaser that a park trailer is required to be moved by a transporter or a licensed manufacturer or dealer under a permit issued by the Department of Transportation or a local authority with respect to highways under their respective jurisdictions.

(h) To advertise free merchandise, gifts, or services provided by a dealer contingent on the purchase of a vehicle. The term "free" includes merchandise or services offered for sale at a price less than the seller's cost of the merchandise or services.

(i) To advertise vehicles and related goods or services with intent not to supply reasonably expectable demand, unless the advertisement discloses a limitation of quantity.

(j) To use the term "rebate" or similar words such as "cash back" in advertising the sale of a vehicle unless the rebate is expressed in a specific dollar amount and is in fact a rebate offered by the vehicle manufacturer or distributor directly to the retail purchaser of the vehicle or to the assignee of the retail purchaser.

(k) To require a person to pay a higher price for a vehicle and related goods or services for receiving advertised credit terms than the cash price the same person would have to pay to purchase the same vehicle and related goods or services. For the purpose of this subdivision, "cash price" has the meaning as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 2981 of the Civil Code.

(m) To misrepresent the authority of a salesperson, representative, or agent to negotiate the final terms of a transaction.

(n) To advertise a vehicle at a specified amount above, below, or at the manufacturer's or distributor's invoice price to the dealer, unless the advertisement clearly and conspicuously states that the invoice amount may exceed the actual dealer cost because of allowances provided to the dealer by the manufacturer or distributor.

(o) To violate any law prohibiting bait and switch advertising, including, but not limited to, the guides against bait advertising set forth in Part 238 (commencing with Section 238) of Title 16 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as those regulations read on January 1, 1988.

(p) To make any untrue or misleading statement indicating that a vehicle is equipped with all the factory installed optional equipment the manufacturer offers, including, but not limited to, a false statement that a vehicle is "fully factory equipped."

(q) To affix on any new vehicle a supplemental price sticker containing a price that represents the dealer's asking price which exceeds the manufacturer's suggested retail price unless all of the following occur:

(1) The supplemental sticker clearly and conspicuously discloses in the largest print appearing on the sticker, other than the print size used for the dealer's name, that the supplemental sticker price is the dealer's asking price, or words of similar import, and that it is not the manufacturer's suggested retail price.

(2) The supplemental sticker clearly and conspicuously discloses the manufacturer's suggested retail price.

(3) The supplemental sticker lists each item which is not included in the manufacturer's suggested retail price, and discloses the additonal price of each item. If the supplemental sticker price is greater than the sum of the manufactuer's suggested retail price and the price of the items added by the dealer, then the supplemental sticker price shall set forth that difference and describe it as "added mark-up."

(r) To advertise any underselling claim, such as "we have the lowest prices" or "we will beat any dealer's price," unless the dealer has conducted a recent survey showing that the dealer sells its vehicles at lower prices than any other dealer in its trade area and maintains records to adequately substantiate the claims. The substantiating records shall be made available to the department upon request.

(s) To advertise any incentive offered by the manufacturer or distributor if the dealer is required to contribute to the cost of the incentive as a condition of participating in the incentive program, unless the dealer discloses in a clear and conspicuous manner that dealer participation may affect consumer cost.

For purposes of this subdivision "incentive" means anything of value offered to induce people to purchase a vehicle, including, but not limited to, discounts, savings claims, rebates, below-market finance rates, and free merchandise or services.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 11713.1 of the Vehicle Code proposed by both this bill and AB 582. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 11713.1 of the Vehicle Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 582, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1585

An act to amend Sections 25503, 25506, 25507, 25509, and 25513 of, and to add Sections 13143.9, 25501.4, 25503.1, 25503.8, 25505.5, and 25507.1 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous materials.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13143.9 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

13143.9. The State Fire Marshal shall, in carrying out Section 13143, prepare, adopt, and submit building standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 of Division 13 establishing minimum requirements for the storage and handling in commercial buildings of acutely hazardous materials, as defined in Section 25532. The State Fire Marshal shall seek the advice of the Office of Emergency Services in establishing these requirements. This section does not prohibit a city, county, or district from adopting an ordinance, resolution, or regulation imposing stricter or more stringent requirements than a standard adopted pursuant to this section.

SEC. 2. Section 25501.4 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25501.4. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (c) of Section 25501, "business" also includes the federal government, to the extent authorized by federal law, or any agency, department, office, board, commission, or bureau of state government, including, but not limited to, the campuses of the California Community Colleges, the California State University, and the University of California.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (d) of Section 25505, and except as provided in subdivision (c), any public agency which is a business pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be in compliance with this chapter on or before January 1, 1990.

(c) From January 1, 1990, to January 1, 1992, the campuses of the California community colleges, the California State University, and the University of California are not required to include in their annual inventory, prepared pursuant to Section 25509, any quantity of a hazardous material which is handled in quantities less than the quantities specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25503.5. The campuses of the California community colleges, the California State University, and the University of California shall, until January 1, 1992, post signs in accordance with the standards and orders adopted by the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board pursuant to Section 142.3 of the Labor Code.

SEC. 3. Section 25503 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25503. (a) Not later than September 1, 1986, the office shall adopt, after public hearing and consultation with the office of the State Fire Marshal and other appropriate public entities, regulations for minimum standards for business plans and area plans. All business plans and area plans shall meet the standards adopted by the office.

(b) The standards for business plans in the regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) shall do all of the following:

(1) Set forth minimum requirements of adequacy, and not preclude the imposition of additional or more stringent requirements by local government.

(2) Take into consideration and adjust for the size and nature of the business, the proximity of the business to residential areas and other populations, and the nature of the damage potential of its hazardous materials in establishing standards for subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 25504.

(3) Take into account the existence of local area and business plans which meet the requirements of this chapter so as to minimize the duplication of local efforts, consistent with the objectives of this chapter.

(4) Define what releases and threatened releases are required to be reported pursuant to Section 25507. The office shall consider the existing federal reporting requirements in determining a definition of reporting releases pursuant to Section 25507.

(c) An administering agency shall establish an area plan for emergency response to a release or threatened release of a hazardous material within its jurisdiction. An area plan is not a statute, ordinance, or regulation for purposes of Section 669 of the Evidence Code. The standards for area plans in the regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) shall provide for all of the following:

(1) Procedures and protocols for emergency rescue personnel, including the safety and health of those personnel.

(2) Preemergency planning.

(3) Notification and coordination of onsite activities with state, local, and federal agencies, responsible parties, and special districts.

(4) Training of appropriate employees.

(5) Onsite public safety and information.

(6) Required supplies and equipment.

(7) Access to emergency response contractors and hazardous waste disposal sites.

(8) Incident critique and followup.

(9) Requirements for notification to the office of reports made pursuant to Section 25507.

(d) The administering agency shall submit a copy of its proposed area plan, within 180 days after adoption of regulations by the office establishing area plan standards, to the office for review. The office shall notify the administering agency as to whether the area plan is adequate and meets the area plan standards. The administering agency shall within 45 days of this notice submit a corrected area plan.

The administering agency shall certify to the office every three years that it has conducted a complete review of its area plan and has made any necessary revisions. Any time an administering agency makes any substantial changes to its area plan, it shall forward the changes to the office within 14 days after the changes have been made.

(e) An administering agency shall submit to the office, along with its area plan, both of the following:

(1) The basic provisions of a plan to conduct onsite inspections of businesses subject to this chapter by either the administering agency or other designated entity. These inspections shall ensure compliance with this chapter and shall identify existing safety hazards that could cause or contribute to a release and, where appropriate, enforce any applicable laws and suggest preventative measures designed to minimize the risk of the release of hazardous material into the workplace or environment. The requirements of this paragraph do not alter or affect the immunity provided a public entity pursuant to Section 818.6 of the Government Code.

(2) A plan to institute a data management system which will assist in the efficient access to and utilization of information collected under this chapter. This data management system shall be in operation within two years after the business plans are required to be submitted to the administering agency pursuant to Section 25505.

(f) The regulations adopted by the office pursuant to subdivision (a) shall include an optional model reporting form for business and area plans.

SEC. 4. Section 25503.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25503.1. The office and each administering agency shall adopt reporting requirements, in cooperation with the Chemical Emergency Planning and Response Commission, established by the Governor as the state emergency response commission pursuant to subsection (a) of Section 11001 of Title 42 of the United States Code, which are consistent with the intent and provisions of this chapter and with Chapter 116 (commencing with Section 11001) of Title 42 of the United States Code, for the purpose of eliminating duplicative reporting requirements, to the extent achievable and practicable.

SEC. 5. Section 25503.8 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25503.8. (a) Any business not subject to subdivision (a) of Section 25503.5 which is required to submit chemical inventory information pursuant to Section 11022 of Title 42 of the United States Code, as that section reads on January 1, 1989, or as it may be subsequently amended, shall establish and implement a business plan in accordance with Section 25503.5 and Section 25505.

(b) Any business required to establish and implement a business plan pursuant to subdivision (a) shall not be deemed to be in violation of this chapter until the date of the next reporting period, specified in subdivision (d) of Section 25505, which occurs after the business becomes subject to subdivision (a), unless the administering agency requests the business to establish and implement the business plan at an earlier date.

SEC. 6. Section 25505.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25505.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no public entity shall be held liable for any injury or damages resulting from an inadequate or negligent review of a business plan conducted pursuant to Section 25505.

SEC. 7. Section 25506 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25506. (a) The administering agency shall maintain records of all business plans received and shall index them by street address and company name. The business plan and revisions shall be available for public inspection during the regular working hours of the administering agency, except that those portions of the business plan specifying the precise location where hazardous materials are stored and handled onsite, including any maps of the site, as required by paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 25509, shall not be available for inspection. The administering agency shall transmit copies of the entire business plan or any information contained in the business plan to any requesting state or local agency.

(b) Any person who files an inventory form required under Section 25509 with the administering agency shall be deemed to have filed the inventory form required by subsection (a) of Section 11022 of Title 42 of the United States Code with the state emergency response commission and emergency planning committee established pursuant to Section 11001 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(c) The administering agency shall, upon request, transmit the information collected pursuant to this chapter to the Chemical Emergency Planning and Response Commission, established by the Governor as the state emergency response commission pursuant to subsection (a) of Section 11001 of Title 42 of the United States Code, and to the local emergency planning committee established pursuant to subsection (c) of Section 11001 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

SEC. 8. Section 25507 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25507. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the handler or any employee, authorized representative, agent, or designee of a handler shall, upon discovery, immediately report any release or threatened release of a hazardous material to the administering agency, and to the office, in accordance with the regulations adopted pursuant to Section 25503. Each handler and any employee, authorized representative, agent, or designee of a handler shall provide all state, city, or county fire or public health or safety personnel and emergency rescue personnel with access to the handler's facilities.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to any person engaged in the transportation of a hazardous material on a highway which is subject to, and in compliance with, the requirements of Sections 2453 and 23112.5 of the Vehicle Code.

SEC. 9. Section 25507.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25507.1. (a) Any business required to submit a followup emergency notice pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 11004 of Title 42 of the United States Code, as that section reads on January 1, 1989, or as it may be subsequently amended, shall submit the notice on a form approved by the office.

(b) The office may adopt guidelines for the use of the forms required by subdivision (a).

SEC. 10. Section 25509 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25509. (a) The annual inventory form shall include, but shall not be limited to, information on all of the following which are handled in quantities equal to or greater than the quantities specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25503.5:

(1) A listing of the chemical name and common names of every hazardous substance or chemical product handled by the business.

(2) The category of waste, including the general chemical and mineral composition of the waste listed by probable maximum and minimum concentrations, of every hazardous waste handled by the business.

(3) A listing of the chemical name and common names of every other hazardous material or mixture containing a hazardous material handled by the business which is not otherwise listed pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2).

(4) The maximum amount of each hazardous material or mixture containing a hazardous material disclosed in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) which is handled at any one time by the business over the course of the year.

(5) Sufficient information on how and where the hazardous materials disclosed in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) are handled by the business to allow fire, safety, health, and other appropriate personnel to prepare adequate emergency responses to potential releases of the hazardous materials.

(6) The SIC Code number of the business if applicable.

(7) The name and phone number of the person representing the business and able to assist emergency personnel in the event of an emergency involving the business during nonbusiness hours.

(b) The administering agency may permit the reporting of the amount of hazardous material under this section by ranges, rather than a specific amount, as long as those ranges provide the information necessary to meet the needs of emergency rescue personnel, to determine the potential hazard from a release of the materials, and meets the purposes of this chapter.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (d), the annual inventory form required by this section shall also include all inventory information required by Section 11022 of Title 42 of the United States Code, as that section reads on January 1, 1989, or as it may be subsequently amended.

The office may adopt or amend existing regulations specifying the inventory information required by this subdivision.

(d) If, pursuant to federal law or regulation, as it currently exists or as it may be amended, there is a determination that the inventory information required by subdivisions (a) and (b) is substantially equivalent to the inventory information required under the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act of 1986 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 11001 et seq.), the requirements of subdivision (c) shall not apply.

SEC. 11. Section 25513 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25513. Each administering county or city may, upon a majority vote of the governing body, adopt a schedule of fees to be collected from each business required to submit a business plan pursuant to this chapter which is within its jurisdiction. The governing body may provide for the waiver of fees when a business, as defined in Section 25501.4, submits a business plan. The fee shall be set in an amount sufficient to pay only those costs incurred by the county or city in carrying out this chapter. In determining the fee schedule, the administering agency shall consider the volume and degree of hazard potential of the hazardous materials handled by the businesses subject to this chapter.

SEC. 12. The Office of Emergency Services shall report to the Legislature, on or before July 1, 1989, on the implementation of Chapter 6.95 (commencing with Section 25500) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 13. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII E of the California Constitution because either (1) the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act or (2), the costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1586

An act to add Section 3557 to the Public Utilities Code, and to amend Sections 612, 1808.1, 2807.2, 12810.5, 34506, 40000.6, and 40000.21 of, to amend, repeal, and add Section 40000.22 of, and to add Sections 1808.3, 34501.12, 34505.5, 34505.6, and 40000.26 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the California Commercial Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1988.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Unannounced roadside checks of commercial motor vehicles by the Department of the California Highway Patrol over the last several years have revealed an unacceptable number of mechanical defects, requiring the immediate withdrawal from service of a significant percentage of vehicles so inspected until necessary repairs could be made.

(b) There is an urgent need to check the safety of commercial trucks on a regular and systematic basis, similar to existing programs which help ensure proper maintenance of schoolbuses and tour buses.

(c) In addition, there is a concomitant need to ensure that drivers of heavy vehicles are properly licensed and that those who employ drivers are cognizant of the driving records of the people in their employ.

SEC. 2.3. Section 3557 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

3557. (a) The commission shall establish a classification of highway carriers known as owner-operators.

(b) As used in this section, and in Sections 1808.3 and 34501.12 of the Vehicle Code, an owner-operator is a person who meets all of the following:

(1) Holds a class 1 or class 2 driver's license.

(2) Owns, leases, or otherwise operates not more than one heavy power unit and not more than three towed vehicles.

(3) Holds highway carrier operating authority from the commission under Part 1 (commencing with Section 201) of Division 1 of this chapter, or Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 5101) of this division.

(c) As used in this section, "heavy power unit" is a motor vehicle described in subdivision (a), (b), or (g) of Section 34500 of the Vehicle Code and "towed vehicle" is a nonmotorized vehicle described in subdivision (d), (e), (f), or (g) of that section.

(d) On and after January 1, 1990, the commission shall forward, at least annually, an updated list of owner-operators, along with their driver's license numbers, to the Department of Motor Vehicles. The commission, upon notification by the Department of Motor Vehicles that an owner-operator's driving privilege is suspended or revoked, shall suspend the carrier's operating authority, unless the carrier within 15 days shows good cause as to why the operating authority should not be suspended.

SEC. 2.5. Section 612 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

612. "Tour bus" means a bus designed for carrying more than 10 passengers, including the driver, which is operated by or for a charter-party carrier of passengers, as defined in Section 5360 of the Public Utilities Code.

SEC. 3. Section 1808.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

1808.1. (a) The prospective employer of a driver who drives a vehicle requiring a class 1 or class 2 driver's license, or a certificate issued pursuant to Section 2512, 12517, 12519, 12519.5, 12521, 12523, 12524, 12804.1, or 12804.3, shall obtain a report showing the driver's current public record as recorded by the department.

(b) (1) The employer of a driver who drives a vehicle requiring a class 1 or class 2 driver's license, or a certificate issued pursuant to Section 2512, 12517, 12519, 12519.5, 12521, 12523, 12524, 12804.1, or 12804.3, shall make a request to the department to participate in a pull notice system, which is a process for the purpose of providing the employer with a report showing the driver's current public record as recorded by the department, and any subsequent convictions, failures to appear, accidents, driver's license suspensions, driver's license revocations, or any other actions taken against the driving privilege or certificate, added to the driver's record while the employer's notification request remains valid and uncanceled.

(2) Each transit operator, as defined in Section 99210 of the Public Utilities Code, which employs any person as a driver of a bus, shall make a request to the department to participate in a pull notice system, which is a process for the purpose of providing the employer with a report showing the driver's current public record as recorded by the department, and any subsequent convictions, failures to appear, accidents, driver's license suspensions, driver's license revocations, or any other actions taken against the driving privilege or certificate, added to the driver's record while the employer's notification request remains valid and uncanceled.

(c) The employer of a driver of a vehicle requiring a class 1 or class 2 driver's license or of a tour bus requiring a certificate issued pursuant to Section 12519.5, and each transit operator employing bus drivers shall, additionally, obtain a periodic report from the department at least every six months, except that an employer who employs more than 500 drivers shall obtain a report no less than annually. The employer shall verify that each employee's driver's license has not been suspended or revoked, the employee's traffic violation point count, and whether the employee has been convicted of a violation of Section 23152 or 23153. The report shall be signed and dated by the employer and maintained at the employer's principal place of business. The reports shall be presented upon demand to any authorized representative of the Department of the California Highway Patrol during regular business hours.

(d) Upon the termination of a driver's employment, the employer shall notify the department to cancel any reports required by this section.

(e) An employer who, after receiving any driving record pursuant to this section, employs or continues to employ as a driver any person against whom a disqualifying action has been taken regarding his or her driving privilege or required driver's certificate, is guilty of a public offense, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(f) As part of its inspection of bus maintenance facilities and terminals required at least once every 13 months pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 34501, the Department of the California Highway Patrol shall determine whether each transit operator is then in compliance with this section, and shall certify each operator found to be in compliance. No funds shall be allocated under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 99200) of Part 11 of Division 10 of the Public Utilities Code to a transit operator which the Department of the California Highway Patrol has not certified under this section.

(g) A request to participate in the pull notice system established by this section shall be accompanied by a fee determined by the department to be sufficient to defray the entire actual cost to the department for the notification service. For the receipt of subsequent reports, the employer shall also be charged a fee established by the department pursuant to Section 1811. Any employer who qualifies under Section 1812 shall be exempt from any fee required under this section.

SEC. 3.5. Section 1808.3 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

1808.3. Based on the list of owner-operators which the Public Utilities Commission is required, pursuant to Section 3557 of the Public Utilities Code, to periodically submit to the department, the department shall promptly notify the Public Utilities Commission whenever an owner-operator's driving privilege is suspended or revoked.

SEC. 4. Section 2807.2 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

2807.2. The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall, by regulation, provide for a preventive maintenance inspection guide for use by operators of tour buses, motor vehicles specified in Sections 2807 and 2807.1, and vehicles described in subdivisions (a), (b), (d), (e), (f), and (g) of Section 34500. The regulations shall provide that the record of inspection shall be signed by the person making the inspection, and the record of the inspections shall be retained on file by the operator for review and inspection by the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

SEC. 5. Section 12810.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12810.5. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), any person whose driving record shows a violation point count of four or more points in 12 months, six or more points in 24 months, or eight or more points in 36 months shall be prima facie presumed to be a negligent operator of a motor vehicle. In applying the provisions of this subdivision to a driver, if the driver requests a hearing and appears at a hearing conducted by the department, the department shall give due consideration to the amount of use or mileage traveled in the operation of a motor vehicle.

(b) (1) Any class 1 or class 2 driver, except persons holding certificates pursuant to Section 2512, 12517, 12519, 12519.5, 12521, 12523, 12804.1, or 12804.3, who is presumed to be a negligent operator pursuant to subdivision (a), and who requests a hearing and appears at a hearing, shall be allowed a driving record violation point count of six points in 12 months, eight points in 24 months, or 10 points in 36 months. However, the higher point count shall not apply if the department reasonably determines that more than four points in 12 months, six points in 24 months, or eight points in 36 months are attributable to the driver's operation of a vehicle requiring only a class 3 or class 4 license, and not requiring a certificate.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, each point assigned pursuant to Section 12810 shall be valued at one and one-half times the value otherwise required by that section for each violation reasonably determined by the department to be attributable to the driver's operation of a vehicle requiring a class 1 or class 2 license, or requiring any certificate described in this subdivision.

SEC. 5.5. Section 12810.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12810.5. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), any person whose driving record shows a violation point count of four or more points in 12 months, six or more points in 24 months, or eight or more points in 36 months shall be prima facie presumed to be a negligent operator of a motor vehicle. In applying the provisions of this subdivision to a driver, if the person requests a hearing and appears at a hearing conducted by the department, the department shall give due consideration to the amount of use or mileage traveled in the operation of a motor vehicle.

(b) Any class 1 or class 2 licensed driver, except persons holding certificates pursuant to Section 2512, 12517, 12519, 12519.5, 12521, 12523, 12804.1, or 12804.3, who is presumed to be a negligent operator pursuant to subdivision (a), and who requests a hearing and appears at a hearing, shall be allowed a driving record violation point count of six points in 12 months, eight points in 24 months, or 10 points in 36 months. However, the higher point count shall not apply if the department reasonably determines that more than four points in 12 months, six points in 24 months, or eight points in 36 months are attributable to the driver's operation of a vehicle requiring only a class 3 or class 4 license, and not requiring a certificate.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, each point assigned pursuant to Section 12810 shall be valued at one and one-half times the value otherwise required by that section for each violation reasonably determined by the department to be attributable to the driver's operation of a vehicle requiring a class 1 or class 2 license, or requiring any certificate described in this subdivision.

(c) On and after July 1, 1989, the department may require a negligent operator whose driving privilege is suspended or revoked pursuant to this section to submit proof of ability to respond in damages as defined in Section 16430. The proof of ability to respond in damages shall be filed on or before the date of reinstatement following the suspension or revocation. The proof of ability to respond in damages shall be maintained with the department for three years following that date of reinstatement.

SEC. 6. Section 34501.12 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

34501.12. (a) The department shall inspect, at least every 25 months, every maintenance facility or terminal, as defined in Section 34515 of any person who, at any time, operates any vehicle described in subdivision (a), (b), (d), (e), (f), or (g) of Section 34500.

(b) (1) It is the responsibility of the motor carrier to schedule with the department the inspection required by subdivision (a). The motor carrier shall submit an application form supplied by the department, accompanied by the required fee. The fee shall be four hundred dollars ($400) per terminal, except in the case of an owner-operator, as defined in Section 3557 of the Public Utilities Code, or a nonregulated motor carrier who owns, leases, or otherwise operates not more than one heavy power unit and not more than three towed vehicles described in subdivision (a), (b), (d), (e), (f), or (g) of Section 34500, for which the fee shall be one hundred dollars ($100).

(2) Every motor carrier subject to the requirements of this section shall submit an application for the initial inspection required by subdivision (a) on or before July 1, 1989. The inspection term for a motor carrier shall expire 25 months from the date the department conducts the motor carrier's first terminal inspection, and every 25 months thereafter. Applications and fees for subsequent inspections shall be submitted not later than seven months before the expiration of the motor carrier's then current inspection term. If the motor carrier has submitted the inspection application and the required accompanying fees, but the department is unable to complete the inspection within the 25 month inspection period, then no additional fee shall be required for the inspection requested in the original application.

(3) All fees collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund. An amount equal to the fees collected shall be available for appropriation by the Legislature from the Motor Vehicle Account to the department for the purpose of conducting truck terminal inspections and for the additional roadside safety inspections required by Section 34514.

(c) On and after July 1, 1989, it shall be unlawful for any motor carrier to operate any vehicle subject to this section without having submitted an inspection application and the required fees to the department as required by paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(d) On and after January 1, 1992, it shall be unlawful for any motor carrier to operate any vehicle subject to this section after submitting an inspection application to the department, without the inspection described in subdivision (a) having been performed and a safety compliance report having been issued to the motor carrier within the 25-month inspection period.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature that the department make its best efforts to inspect terminals within the resources provided. In the interest of the state, the Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol may extend for a period not to exceed six months the inspection terms beginning prior to July 1, 1990.

(f) The department shall report to the Legislature not later than September 1, 1991, on the mandates of the California Commercial Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1988 and the mandates of Section 34514. The department shall recommend any program adjustments that may be desirable, and shall report on any fee adjustments that may be required to fully fund biennial terminal inspections of all California truck terminals. The department shall also consider the feasibility of implementing an incentive program which would benefit truck operators with excellent safety records.

SEC. 7. Section 34505.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

34505.5. (a) Every operator of any vehicle described in subdivision (a), (b), (d), (e), (f), or (g) of Section 34500 shall, in addition to the systematic inspection, maintenance, and lubrication services required of all motor carriers, require the vehicle to be inspected at least every 45 days, or more often if necessary to ensure safe operation. This inspection shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Brake adjustment.

(2) Brake system components and leaks.

(3) Steering and suspension systems.

(4) Tires and wheels.

(5) Vehicle connecting devices.

(b) No vehicle subject to this section shall be operated on the highway other than to a place of repair until all defects listed during the inspection conducted pursuant to subdivision (a) have been corrected and attested to by the signature of the operator's authorized representative.

(c) Records of inspections conducted pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be kept at the operator's maintenance facility or terminal where the vehicle is regularly garaged. The records shall be retained by the operator for two years, and shall be made available for inspection upon request by any authorized employee of the department. Each record shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Identification of the vehicle, including make, model, license number, company vehicle number or other means of positive identification.

(2) Date and nature of each inspection and any repair performed.

(3) Signature of operator's authorized representative attesting to the inspection and to the completion of all required repairs.

(d) The department may, by regulation, provide for alternative inspection intervals for particular types of vehicles or particular trucking operations, based on mileage traveled or appropriate similar measures, as determined by the department.

SEC. 8. Section 34505.6 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

34505.6. (a) Upon determining that an operator of any vehicle described in subdivision (a), (b), (d), (e), (f), or (g) of Section 34500 has failed to comply with the vehicle inspection requirements in this code, has failed to comply with the pull notice system or periodic report requirements required by Section 1808.1, or that the operator's terminal is rated unsatisfactory, the department shall recommend to the Public Utilities Commission or the Interstate Commerce Commission that the carrier's operating authority be denied, suspended, or revoked, whichever is appropriate. The department shall retain a record, by operator, of every recommendation made pursuant to this section.

(b) Upon receiving the recommendation from the department, the Public Utilities Commission shall immediately deny, suspend, or revoke the carrier's permit or certificate. Applications for reissuance or reinstatement of a permit or certificate denied, suspended, or revoked pursuant to this section shall be accompanied by a filing fee of five hundred dollars ($500).

SEC. 9. Section 34506 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

34506. It is a misdemeanor to fail to comply with any rule or regulation adopted by the Department of the California Highway Patrol pursuant to Section 34501, 34501.5, 34508, or 34513 regarding any of the following:

(a) Hours of service of drivers.

(b) Hazardous material transportation.

(c) Schoolbus constructions, design, color, equipment, maintenance, or operation.

(d) Youth bus equipment, maintenance, or operation.

(e) Tour bus equipment, maintenance, or operation.

(f) Equipment, maintenance, or operation of any vehicle described in subdivision (a), (b), (d), (e), (f), or (g) of Section 34500.

SEC. 10. Section 40000.6 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

40000.6. A violation of subdivision (e) of Section 1808.1, relating to employment of disqualified drivers, is a misdemeanor and not an infraction.

SEC. 11. Section 40000.21 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

40000.21. A violation of any of the following provisions is a misdemeanor, and not an infraction:

(a) Subdivision (a) of Section 34506, relating to the hours of service of drivers.

(b) Subdivision (b) of Section 34506, relating to the transportation of hazardous materials.

(c) Subdivision (c) of Section 34506, relating to schoolbuses.

(d) Subdivision (d) of Section 34506, relating to youth buses.

(e) Section 34505 or subdivision (e) of Section 34506, relating to tour buses.

(f) Section 34505.5 or subdivision (f) of Section 34506, relating to vehicles described in subdivisions (a), (b), (d), (e), (f), and (g) of Section 34500.

(g) Subdivision (a) of Section 34501.3, relating to unlawful scheduling of runs by motor carriers.

SEC. 12. Section 40000.22 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

40000.22. A violation of subdivision (e) of Section 34501, relating to inspections, is a misdemeanor and not an infraction.

This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1989, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 40000.22 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

40000.22. A violation of subdivision (e) of Section 34501 or subdivision (c) of Section 34501.12, relating to applications for inspections, is a misdemeanor and not an infraction.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1989.

SEC. 13.5. Section 40000.26 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

40000.26. A violation of subdivision (d) of Section 34501.12, relating to inspections, is a misdemeanor and not an infraction. This section shall become operative on January 1, 1992.

SEC. 14. Sections 3, 4, 5, 7, and 9 of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1989.

SEC. 14.5. Sections 3.5, 8, and 10 of this act shall become operative on January 1, 1990.

SEC. 15. This bill shall become operative only if Senate Bill 2876 of the 1987–88 Regular Session becomes operative and adds Sections 34514 and 34515 to the Vehicle Code.

SEC. 16. Section 5.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12810.5 of the Vehicle Code proposed by this bill and AB 3026. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 12810.5 of the Vehicle Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3026, in which case Section 12810.5 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by AB 3026, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 5.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 5 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 17. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1587

An act to add Section 7008 to the Education Code, relating to health insurance coverage.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7008 is added to the Education Code, to read:

7008. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a member of the State Teachers' Retirement System who is disabled as a result of an injury that is a direct consequence of a violent act perpetrated on his or her person while performing duties in the scope of employment, and the employment is creditable under the provisions of the State Teachers' Retirement Law (Part 13 (commencing with Section 22000)), may, upon qualifying for a disability under Section 23902 and while receiving an allowance under Section 23903, continue in the district's health care plan and dental care plan, by paying all of the employer's and employee's premiums and all of the related administrative costs of the employer.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a school member as defined in Section 20013 of the Government Code, or a local policeman as defined in Section 20020.8 of the Government Code, who is disabled as a result of an injury that is a direct consequence of a violent act perpetrated on his or her person while performing duties in the scope of employment, and the employment is creditable under the Public Employees' Retirement Law (Part 3 (commencing with Section 20000) of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code), may, upon qualifying for a disability and while receiving an allowance under Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 20950) of Part 3 of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code, continue in the employer's health care plan and dental care plan, by paying all of the employer's and employee's premiums and all of the related administrative costs of the employer.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 1588

An act to amend Section 66796.32 of the Government Code, relating to solid waste.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66796.32 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66796.32. (a) Upon receipt of an application or report required by Section 66796.30, the enforcement agency shall submit a copy of the application or report to the board within seven days.

(b) The enforcement agency shall not issue, modify, or revise a solid waste facilities permit unless it has, at least 45 days in advance, provided the board and the applicant with a copy of the proposed permit, which shall contain the terms and conditions the enforcement agency proposes to establish and unless the city or county in which the site is located has issued a land use permit authorizing the establishment or expansion of the site.

(c) Any solid waste facility permit for any new landfill, for laterally expanding or otherwise increasing the permitted capacity of an existing landfill, for any new waste-to-energy facility, or for increasing the capacity of an existing waste-to-energy facility, shall include a permit condition which precludes the solid waste facility from accepting any solid waste originating in a county which has not submitted a plan to the board meeting the requirements of subdivision (f) of Section 66780.5. This subdivision applies to a county on and after the date which occurs after January 1, 1990, that the county's solid waste management plan is required to be revised as specified in subdivision (c) of Section 66780.5.

(d) Prior to forwarding a copy of the proposed solid waste facilities permit, the enforcement agency shall certify all of the following findings:

(1) The proposed solid waste facilities permit is consistent with the county solid waste management plan prepared pursuant to Section 66780.1.

(2) The proposed solid waste facilities permit is consistent with the standards adopted by the board.

(3) The city or county has found the proposed solid waste facility, if for a new or expanded site, consistent with its general plan pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 65300) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7.

(e) A decision to issue or not issue the permit shall be made by the enforcement agency within 120 days of the time application is filed unless waived by the applicant.

(f) The board shall, in writing, concur or object to the issuance, modification, or revision of any solid waste facilities permit within 40 days of the board's receipt of any proposed solid waste facilities permit submitted under subdivision (b). If the board determines that the permit would not be consistent with the county solid waste management plan or the state standards or if the city or county has not found, or has failed to make the finding that, the proposed solid waste facility is consistent with the applicable general plan, pursuant to Section 66796.41, the board shall object to provisions of the permit, and shall submit those objections to the enforcement agency for its consideration. If the board fails to concur or object in writing within that 40 days, it is deemed to have concurred in the issuance of the permit as submitted to it.

SEC. 2. Section 66796.32 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66796.32. (a) Upon receipt of an application or report required by Section 66796.30, the enforcement agency shall submit a copy of the application or report to the board within seven days.

(b) The enforcement agency shall not issue, modify, or revise a solid waste facilities permit unless it has, at least 45 days in advance, provided the board and the applicant with a copy of the proposed permit, which shall contain the terms and conditions the enforcement agency proposes to establish and unless the city or county in which the site is located has issued a land use permit authorizing the establishment or expansion of the site.

(c) Any solid waste facility permit for any new landfill, for laterally expanding or otherwise increasing the permitted capacity of an existing landfill, for any new waste-to-energy facility, or for increasing the capacity of an existing waste-to-energy facility, shall include a permit condition which precludes the solid waste facility from accepting any solid waste originating in a city, county, or city and county, which has not submitted a plan meeting the requirements of Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 15000) of Division 12.1 of the Public Resources Code. This subdivision applies to a city, county, or city and county on and after the date which occurs after January 1, 1990, that the county's solid waste management plan is required to be revised as specified in subdivision (c) of Section 66780.52.

(d) Prior to forwarding a copy of the proposed solid waste facilities permit, the enforcement agency shall certify all of the following findings:

(1) The proposed solid waste facilities permit is consistent with the county solid waste management plan prepared pursuant to Section 66780.1.

(2) The proposed solid waste facilities permit is consistent with the standards adopted by the board.

(3) The city or county has found the proposed solid waste facility, if for a new or expanded site, consistent with its general plan pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 65300) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7.

(e) A decision to issue or not issue the permit shall be made by the enforcement agency within 120 days of the time application is filed unless waived by the applicant.

(f) The board shall, in writing, concur or object to the issuance, modification, or revision of any solid waste facilities permit within 40 days of the board's receipt of any proposed solid waste facilities permit submitted under subdivision (b). If the board determines that the permit would not be consistent with the county solid waste management plan or the state standards or if the city or county has not found, or has failed to make the finding that, the proposed solid waste facility is consistent with the applicable general plan, pursuant to Section 66796.41, the board shall object to provisions of the permit, and shall submit those objections to the enforcement agency for its consideration. If the board fails to concur or object in writing within that 40 days, it is deemed to have concurred in the issuance of the permit as submitted to it.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill No. 3298 of the 1988–89 Regular Session enacts Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 15000) of Division 12.1 of the Public Resources Code and becomes operative on July 1, 1989, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1589

An act to add Section 65850.2 to the Government Code, to amend Sections 25535 and 25540 of, and to add Sections 13872.5, 25534.1, 25534.5, 42301.6, 42301.7, 42301.8, 42301.9, and 42450.1 to, the Health and Safety Code, and to add Sections 21151.3 and 21151.4 to the Public Resources Code, relating to hazardous materials and emissions.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that there have been incidents of health threats and nuisances at schoolsites throughout the state causing children to evacuate schools, report ill, and require medical attention. These incidents have been caused in large part by the inappropriate siting of schools and certain facilities with the potential for routine and accidental releases of hazardous and acutely hazardous air emissions.

It is the intent of the Legislature to do all of the following:

(a) Correct deficiencies in existing law, and strengthen, clarify, and expand the law in order to protect the public health and safety.

(b) Provide a mechanism for local governmental agencies to determine and mitigate risks posed by routine and accidental hazardous and acutely hazardous emissions from new and existing sources with regard to the siting of new schools and new and existing facilities.

(c) Strengthen the enforcement mechanisms and correct other deficiencies in laws effecting acutely hazardous air emissions.

(d) Provide a means to prevent the release of hazardous or acutely hazardous air emissions that could adversely affect the health and safety of persons at a schoolsite.

(e) Improve coordination among agencies regarding the siting of schools and certain facilities near schools.

(f) Clarify and augment the authority of local agencies and not to restrict or preempt existing local authority.

SEC. 2. Section 65850.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

65850.2. (a) Not later than July 1, 1989, each city and each county shall include in its application for a building permit a place for the applicant to indicate whether the applicant or future building occupant will need to comply with the applicable requirements of Sections 25505, 25533, and 25534 of the Health and Safety Code and the requirements for a permit for construction or modification from the air pollution control district or air quality management district exercising jurisdiction in the area governed by the city or county. This subdivision does not apply to applications for residential construction.

(b) Not later than July 1, 1989, no city or county shall issue a final certificate of occupancy unless the applicant has met or is meeting the applicable requirements of Sections 25505, 25533, and 25534 of the Health and Safety Code and the requirements for a permit from the air pollution control district or air quality management district exercising jurisdiction in the area governed by the city or county or has provided proof from the appropriate district that the permit requirements do not apply to the applicant. This section shall not apply to applications for residential construction.

(c) On and after July 1, 1989, no city or county shall permit a facility to be contructed within 1,000 feet from the outer boundary of a school without meeting the requirements of Sections 25534 and 42303 of the Health and Safety Code. The risk management and prevention program and information required by Section 42303 shall not be accepted by the city or county unless approved by the administering agency. The information required by Section 42303 shall not be accepted by the city or county unless the air pollution control officer certifies that the applicant is in compliance with the required disclosures.

(d) The city or county, after considering the recommendations of the air pollution control district or air quality management district, shall decide whether, and under what conditions, to allow construction at the site.

(e) Nothing in this section limits any existing authority of a district to require compliance with its rules and regulations.

(f) Counties and cities may adopt a schedule of fees for building permit applications sufficient to recover their reasonable costs of carrying out this section.

SEC. 3. Section 13872.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

13872.5. The fire chief of a city, city and county, or county fire department, or his or her authorized representative, has the same authority as specified in Sections 13870 to 13872, inclusive, to issue a written order to correct or eliminate a fire hazard or life hazard, hold hearings and modify, vacate, or affirm those orders, and issue citations if so authorized by ordinance of the city, city and county, or county. This section does not limit or affect any authority of a fire chief or authorized representative of a fire chief under any local ordinance.

SEC. 4. Section 25534.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25534.1. Every RMPP prepared pursuant to Section 25534 shall give consideration to the proximity of the facility to schools, general acute care hospitals, and long-term health care facilities. For purposes of this section, "general acute care hospital" has the meaning provided by subdivision (a) of Section 1250 and "long-term health care facility" has the meaning provided by subdivision (a) of Section 1418.

SEC. 5. Section 25534.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25534.5. In reviewing an RMPP pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25535, the administering agency may have access to and review all technical information in the handler's possession which is reasonably necessary to allow the administering agency to make a determination regarding the sufficiency of the RMPP. That information may include any study or analysis conducted pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 25534. Information conducted pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 25534 shall not be disclosed by the administering agency except as provided in Section 25511.

SEC. 6. Section 25535 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25535. (a) An owner or operator of a facility submitting an RMPP pursuant to Section 25534 shall submit the RMPP to the administering agency after the RMPP is certified as complete by a qualified person and the facility operator. The administering agency may authorize the air pollution control district or air quality management district in which the facility is located to conduct a technical review of the RMPP. If, after review by the administering agency or the air pollution control district or air quality management district exercising jurisdiction in the area of the facility, the administering agency determines that the handler's RMPP is deficient in any way, the administering agency shall notify the handler of these defects. The handler shall submit a corrected RMPP within 60 days of the notice.

(b) Upon implementation of a risk management and prevention program pursuant to subdivision (k) of Section 25534, the handler shall notify the administering agency that the RMPP has been implemented and shall summarize the steps taken in preparation and implementation of the RMPP.

(c) The handler shall continue to carry out the program and activities specified in the risk management and prevention program at the business after the administering agency has been notified pursuant to subdivision (b).

(d) The owner or operator shall implement all programs and activities in the RMPP before operations commence, in the case of a new facility, or before any new activities involving acutely hazardous materials are taken, in the case of a modified facility.

SEC. 7. Section 25540 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25540. (a) Any business that violates this article shall be civilly liable to the administering agency in an amount of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) for each day in which the violation occurs. If the violation results in, or significantly contributes to, an emergency, including a fire, the business shall also be assessed the full cost of the county or city emergency response, as well as the cost of cleaning up and disposing of the hazardous materials.

(b) Any business that knowingly violates this article after reasonable notice of the violation shall be civilly liable to the administering agency in an amount not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each day in which the violation occurs and upon conviction, may be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year.

SEC. 8. Section 42301.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42301.6. (a) Prior to approving an application for a permit to construct or modify a source that may emit air contaminants located within 1,000 feet from the outer boundary of a school, the air pollution control officer shall prepare a public notice in which the proposed project or modification for which the application for a permit is made is fully described.

(b) The air pollution control officer shall, at the permit applicant's expense, distribute the public notice to the parents of children in any school within one-quarter mile of the source and to each address within a radius of 750 feet from the outer property line of the proposed new or modified source at least 30 days prior to the date final action on the application is to be taken by the officer. The officer shall review and consider all comments received during the 30 days after the notice is distributed, and shall include written responses to the comments in the permit application file prior to taking final action on the application.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), an air pollution control officer may require the applicant to distribute the notice if the district had such a rule in effect prior to January 1, 1989.

(d) The requirements for public notice pursuant to subdivision (b) or a district rule in effect prior to January 1, 1989, are fulfilled if the air pollution control officer or applicant responsible for giving the notice makes a good faith effort to follow the procedures prescribed by law for giving the notice, and, in such circumstances, failure of any person to receive the notice shall not affect the validity of any permit subsequently issued by the officer.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit any existing authority of any district.

SEC. 9. Section 42301.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42301.7. (a) If the air pollution control officer determines there is a reasonably foreseeable threat of a release of an air contaminant from a source within 1,000 feet of the boundary of a school that would result in a violation of Section 41700 and impact persons at the school, the officer shall, within 24 hours, notify the administering agency and the fire department having jurisdiction over the school.

(b) The administering agency may, in responding to a reasonably foreseeable threat of a release, do any of the following:

(1) Review the facility's risk management and prevention plan prepared pursuant to Section 25534 to determine whether the program should be modified, and, if so, require submission of appropriate modifications. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the administering agency may order modification and implementation of a revised risk management and prevention plan at the earliest feasible date.

(2) If the facility has not filed a risk management and prevention plan with the administering agency, require the preparation and submission of a plan to the administering agency pursuant to Section 25534. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the administering agency may require the filing of a risk management and prevention plan and its implementation at the earliest feasible date.

(c) The air pollution control officer may, in responding to a reasonably foreseeable threat of a release, do any of the following:

(1) If necessary, issue an immediate order to prevent the release or mitigate the reasonably foreseeable threat of a release in violation of Section 41700 pending a hearing pursuant to Section 42450 when there is a substantial probability of an injury to persons at a school resulting from a release that makes it reasonably necessary to take immediate action to prevent, reduce, or mitigate that injury. The officer may not issue such an order unless there is written concurrence to issue the order by a representative of the administering agency.

(2) Apply to the district board for issuance of an order for abatement pursuant to Section 42450.

(d) Nothing in this section limits any existing authority of any district.

SEC. 10. Section 42301.8 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42301.8. Upon receiving a request, for good cause, from the principal or an authorized representative of the principal of a school, the district shall, within 24 hours, respond to the request and notify the administering agency and the fire department having jurisdiction over the school. The administering agency, upon receiving such a request, shall notify the district within 24 hours.

SEC. 11. Section 42301.9 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42301.9. For the purposes of Sections 42301.4 to 42301.8, inclusive:

(a) "School" means any school used for purposes of the education of children in kindergarten or any of grades 1 to 12, inclusive.

(b) "Air contaminant" has the same meaning as provided in Section 39013.

(c) "Administering agency" means an administering agency as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 25532.

SEC. 12. Section 42450.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42450.1. This article applies to any order for abatement issued pursuant to a determination made under Section 42301.7.

SEC. 13. Section 21151.3 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21151.3. No environmental impact report or negative declaration shall be approved for any project involving the purchase of a schoolsite or the construction of a new elementary or secondary school by a school district unless both of the following occur:

(a) The lead agency preparing the environmental impact report or negative declaration has consulted with the city in which the proposed schoolsite is located, or with the county in which the proposed schoolsite is located if the proposed site is in an unincorporated area, and with any air pollution control district or air quality management district having jurisdiction in the area, to identify facilities within one-fourth of a mile of the proposed school site which might reasonably be anticipated to emit hazardous or acutely hazardous air emissions.

(b) The governing board of the school district makes either of the following written findings:

(1) Consultation identified no such facilities.

(2) Those facilities exist, but the health risks from the facilities do not and will not constitute an actual or potential endangerment of public health to persons who would attend or be employed at the school.

(c) As used in this section:

(1) "Hazardous air emissions" means any substance released into the ambient air which is on the list required to be prepared pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25532 and Section 44321 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) "Acutely hazardous air emissions" means any substance released into the ambient air which is an acutely hazardous material as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 25532 of the Health and Safety

Code.

SEC. 14. Section 21151.4 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21151.4. No environmental impact report or negative declaration shall be approved for any project involving the construction or alteration of a facility within one-fourth of a mile of a school which might reasonably be anticipated to emit hazardous or acutely hazardous air emissions as defined in Section 21151.3 unless both of the following occur:

(a) The lead agency preparing the environmental impact report or negative declaration has consulted with the school district having jurisdiction regarding the potential impact of the project on the school.

(b) The school district has been given written notification of the project not less than 30 days prior to the proposed approval of the environmental impact report or negative declaration.

SEC. 15. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

Moreover, no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 16. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

CHAPTER 1590

An act to amend Sections 84500.1 and 84706 of, and to add and repeal Article 11 (commencing with Section 76170) of Chapter 1 of Part 46 of, the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this provision that any community college district participating in the pilot program established by this act shall·

(a) Retain the option to report average daily attendance for receipt of an apportionment for students who are participants in the Greater Avenues for Independence (GAIN) Program as specified in this section.

(b) Be held harmless with respect to any revenue loss by receiving the same rate for students under this section that they would receive for other state resident students.

(c) Be prohibited from receiving revenue for average daily attendance generated by these students in excess of the amount of state apportionment.

SEC. 2. Article 11 (commencing with Section 76170) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 46 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 11. Greater Avenue for Independent and Residency for Community Colleges

76170. (a) There is hereby established a two-year pilot program in Fresno County.

(b) No fee otherwise authorized by Article 9 (commencing with Section 76140) of Chapter 1 of Part 47 may be charged to any participant in the Fresno County Greater Avenues for Independent (GAIN) Program, described in Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code if both of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) Prior to the waiver of the nonresident tuition for a GAIN participant, the student shall have exhausted all efforts to obtain federal financial assistance.

(2) Each course into which a nonresident GAIN participant enrolls shall be related to the educational plan of the participant.

76171. Notwithstanding Section 84500.1, a community college district may report for attendance and average daily attendance for apportionment to the board of governors the attendance of any student who is a nonresident and who is a participant in the Fresno County Greater Avenues for Independent (GAIN) Program described in Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. The authority conferred by this section shall only be implemented or utilized if the local community college district reaches agreement with the local GAIN county committee in Fresno County to provide an exemption pursuant to Section 76170.

76172. Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 84706, a nonresident student who is a participant of the Greater Avenues for Independence (GAIN) Program described in Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall be deemed a state resident if the requirements of Section 76170 are satisfied and the local community college district reaches agreement with the local GAIN county committee in Fresno to provide an exemption pursuant to Section 76170.

76173. This article shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1991, and as of January 1, 1992, is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 84500.1 of the Education Code is amended to read:

84500.1. Except as otherwise provided in Article 11 (commencing with Section 76170) of Chapter 1 of Part 46, no community college district shall report for attendance or average daily attendance to the board of governors for apportionment any classes: (1) if the district receives full compensation for direct education costs for the class from any public or private agency, individual or group of individuals, or (2) if such classes are not located in facilities clearly identified in such a manner, and established by appropriate procedures, to ensure that attendance in such classes is open to the general public, except those authorized pursuant to Section 78440 and those in state hospitals.

The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges may adopt such regulations as may be necessary to enforce this section.

SEC. 4. Section 84706 of the Education Code is amended to read:

84706. (a) For the purpose of this article, average daily attendance shall include only the attendance of state residents, except as provided in Sections 76172 and 78462, attending within the district. All attendance of all students shall be reported in accordance with instructions provided by the chancellor.

(b) Community college districts shall be allowed to increase their funded average daily attendance over the prior year as determined by the chancellor in accordance with the following procedures:

(1) For the 1983–84 fiscal year, districts may be allowed to increase their funded average daily attendance to the level funded in the 1981–82 fiscal year less the adjustments made pursuant to Provision 11 of Item 6870-101-001 of the Budget Act of 1982. Increases for each district provided by this paragraph shall be in addition to the increases provided by paragraphs (2) and (4) and shall be allowed only to the extent that increases in statewide average daily attendance provided by this section, exclusive of paragraph (4), does not exceed the rate of change of the adult population of the state as determined by the Department of Finance, or funds remain available statewide pursuant to paragraph (3).

(2) Increases in statewide average daily attendance shall be based on the rate of change of the adult population of the state as determined by the Department of Finance. The allocation of changes on a district-by-district basis shall be determined by the chancellor, based on such factors as the rate of change in the adult population, as determined by the Department of Finance, unemployment, refugee population, new or underutilized physical capacity for student enrollment, and adult participation in instructional programs of the district. The chancellor shall allocate at least 0.01 times the base average daily attendance of the district or 100 units of average daily attendance, whichever is greater, unless adjusted pursuant to paragraph (5) of this subdivision.

The statewide adult population percentage change reported by the Department of Finance shall be based on the resident adult population 18 years of age and older and shall be consistent with actual and projected adult population data reported for like purposes. The percentage change of the adult population of the community college districts shall be compatible with the changes reported for the statewide adult population and shall be determined within the geographic boundaries of the district which shall be consistent with the geographic boundaries used to determine the assessed valuation of property within the district.

The allocation of allowable increases in average daily attendance on a district-by-district basis shall not exceed a reasonable anticipated normal growth for any district, based on information that the chancellor may receive from the district.

(3) The level of funding available for increases in average daily attendance for each district, based on increases specified in paragraph (2), shall be the sum of the following:

(A) The percentage of allowable increase in average daily attendance specified in paragraph (2) times the level of base noncredit average daily attendance of the current fiscal year times the incremental cost rate specified in subdivision (a) of Section 84702.5.

(B) The percentage of allowable increase in average daily attendance specified in paragraph (2) times the level of base credit average daily attendance of the current fiscal year times the incremental cost rate specified in subdivision (b) of Section 84702.5.

(4) The chancellor shall allocate additional increases in average daily attendance for program growth in areas of statewide concern that are funded in the annual Budget Act or any other act of the Legislature, based on criteria adopted for those allocations.

(5) In the event of a deficit in funding for workload increases, all allowable increases in average daily attendance provided by this section shall be reduced proportionally.

(c) All increases in funded credited average daily attendance shall be accounted for in the following categories of the course classification system of the community colleges, as determined by the chancellor:

(1) Units of average daily attendance in courses that provide transfer credit to a baccalaureate-awarding institution.

(2) Units of average daily attendance in occupational education and vocational and technical programs and courses.

(3) Units of average daily attendance which prepare students for courses identified in paragraphs (1) and (2).

SEC. 5. Due to the unique circumstances concerning Fresno County and its Greater Avenues for Independence Program, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1591

An act to amend Section 214 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 214 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 77 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

214. (a) Property used exclusively for religious, hospital, scientific, or charitable purposes owned and operated by community chests, funds, foundations or corporations organized and operated for religious, hospital, scientific, or charitable purposes is exempt from taxation if:

(1) The owner is not organized or operated for profit; provided, that in the case of hospitals, the organization shall not be deemed to be organized or operated for profit, if during the immediate preceding fiscal year the excess of operating revenues, exclusive of gifts, endowments and grants-in-aid, over operating expenses has not exceeded a sum equivalent to 10 percent of those operating expenses. As used herein, operating expenses shall include depreciation based on cost of replacement and amortization of, and interest on, indebtedness.

(2) No part of the net earnings of the owner inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

(3) The property is used for the actual operation of the exempt activity, and does not exceed an amount of property reasonably necessary to the accomplishment of the exempt purpose.

(A) For the purposes of determining whether the property is used for the actual operation of the exempt activity, consideration shall not be given to use of the property for either or both of the following described activities if that use is occasional:

(i) The owner conducts fundraising activities on the property and the proceeds derived from those activities are not unrelated business taxable income, as defined in Section 512 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, of the owner and are used to further the exempt activity of the owner.

(ii) The owner permits any other organization which meets all of the requirements of this subdivision, other than ownership of the property, to conduct fundraising activities on the property and the proceeds derived from those activities are not unrelated business taxable income, as defined in Section 512 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, of the organization, are not subject to the tax on unrelated business taxable income which is imposed by Section 511 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and are used to further the exempt activity of the organization.

(B) For purposes of subparagraph (A):

(i) "Occasional use" means use of the property on an irregular or intermittent basis by the qualifying owner or any other qualifying organization described in clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) which is incidental to the primary activities of the owner or the other organization.

(ii) "Fundraising activities" means both activities involving the direct solicitation of money or other property and the anticipated exchange of goods or services for money between the soliciting organization and the organization or person solicited.

(C) Subparagraph (A) shall have no application in determining whether paragraph (3) has been satisfied unless the owner of the property and any other organization using the property as provided in subparagraph (A) have filed with the assessor duplicate copies of valid unrevoked letters or rulings from the Internal Revenue Service which state that the owner and the other organization qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The owner of the property and any other organization using the property as provided in subparagraph (A) shall also file duplicate copies of their most recently filed federal income tax returns.

Nothing in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) shall be construed to either enlarge or restrict the exemption provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 4 and Section 5 of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California and this section.

(4) The property is not used or operated by the owner or by any other person so as to benefit any officer, trustee, director, shareholder, member, employee, contributor, or bondholder of the owner or operator, or any other person, through the distribution of profits, payment of excessive charges or compensations or the more advantageous pursuit of their business or profession.

(5) The property is not used by the owner or members thereof for fraternal or lodge purposes, or for social club purposes except where such use is clearly incidental to a primary religious, hospital, scientific, or charitable purpose.

(6) The property is irrevocably dedicated to religious, charitable, scientific, or hospital purposes and upon the liquidation, dissolution or abandonment of the owner will not inure to the benefit of any private person except a fund, foundation or corporation organized and operated for religious, hospital, scientific, or charitable purposes.

(7) The property, if used exclusively for scientific purposes, is used by a foundation or institution which, in addition to complying with the foregoing requirements for the exemption of charitable organization in general, has been chartered by the Congress of the United States (except that this requirement shall not apply when the scientific purposes are medical research), and whose objects are the encouragement or conduct of scientific investigation, research and discovery for the benefit of the community at large.

The exemption provided for herein shall be known as the "welfare exemption." This exemption shall be in addition to any other exemption now provided by law and the existence of the exemption provision in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 202 shall not preclude the exemption under this section for museum or library property. Except as provided in subdivision (e), this section shall not be construed to enlarge the college exemption.

(b) Property used exclusively for school purposes of less than collegiate grade and owned and operated by religious, hospital, or charitable funds, foundations, or corporations, which property and funds, foundations, or corporations meet all of the requirements of subdivision (a), shall be deemed to be within the exemption provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 4 and Section 5 of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California and this section.

(c) Property used exclusively for nursery school purposes and owned and operated by religious, hospital, or charitable funds, foundations, or corporations, which property and funds, foundations, or corporations meet all the requirements of subdivision (a), shall be deemed to be within the exemption provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 4 and Section 5 of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California and this section.

(d) Property used exclusively for a noncommercial educational FM broadcast station or an educational television station and owned and operated by religious, hospital, scientific, or charitable funds, foundations, or corporations meeting all of the requirements of subdivision (a), shall be deemed to be within the exemption provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 4 and Section 5 of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California and this section.

(e) Property used exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, or hospital purposes and owned and operated by religious, hospital, scientific, or charitable funds, foundations, or corporations or educational institutions of collegiate grade, as defined in Section 203, which property and funds, foundations, corporations, or educational institutions meet all of the requirements of subdivision (a), shall be deemed to be within the exemption provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 4 and Section 5 of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California and this section. As to educational institutions of collegiate grade, as defined in Section 203, the requirements of paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) shall be deemed to be met if both of the following are met:

(1) The property of the educational institution is irrevocably dedicated in its articles of incorporation to charitable and educational purposes, to religious and educational purposes, or to educational purposes.

(2) The articles of incorporation of the educational institution provide for distribution of its property upon its liquidation, dissolution, or abandonment to a fund, foundation, or corporation organized and operated for religious, hospital, scientific, charitable, or educational purposes meeting the requirements for exemption provided by Section 203 or this section.

(f) Property used exclusively for housing and related facilities for elderly or handicapped families and financed by, including, but not limited to, the federal government pursuant to Section 202 of Public Law 86-372 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1701q), as amended, Section 231 of Public Law 73-479 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1715v), or Section 236 of Public Law 90-448 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1715z), and owned and operated by religious, hospital, scientific, or charitable funds, foundations, or corporations meeting all of the requirements of this section shall be deemed to be within the exemption provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 4 and Section 5 of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California and this section. The amendment of this paragraph made at the 1983–84 Regular Session of the Legislature does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, the existing law. However, no refund of property taxes shall be required as a result of this amendment for any fiscal year prior to the fiscal year in which the amendment takes effect.

Property used exclusively for housing and related facilities for elderly or handicapped families at which supplemental care or services designed to meet the special needs of elderly or handicapped residents are not provided, or which is not financed by the federal government pursuant to Section 202 of Public Law 86-372 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1701q), as amended, Section 231 of Public Law 73-479 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1715v), or Section 236 of Public Law 90-448 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1715), shall not be entitled to exemption pursuant to this subdivision unless the property is used for housing and related facilities for low- and moderate-income elderly or handicapped families. Property which would otherwise be exempt pursuant to this subdivision, except that it includes some housing and related facilities for other than low- or moderate-income elderly or handicapped families, shall be entitled to a partial exemption. The partial exemption shall be equal to that percentage of the value of the property which is equal to the percentage which the number of low- and moderate-income elderly and handicapped families occupying the property is of the total number of families occupying the property.

As used in this subdivision, "low and moderate income" has the same meaning as the term "persons and families of low or moderate income" as defined by Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code.

(g) Property used exclusively for rental housing and related facilities and owned and operated by religious, hospital, scientific, or charitable funds, foundations, or corporations, including limited partnerships in which the managing general partner is an eligible nonprofit corporation, meeting all of the requirements of this section shall be deemed to be within the exemption provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 4 and Section 5 of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California and this section and shall be entitled to a partial exemption equal to that percentage of the value of the property which the portion of the property serving lower income households is of the total property in any year in which any of the following criteria are applicable:

(1) Twenty percent or more of the occupants of the property are lower income households whose rent does not exceed that prescribed by Section 50053 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) The acquisition, rehabilitation, development, or operation of the property, or any combination of these factors, is financed with tax-exempt mortgage revenue bonds or general obligation bonds, or is financed by local, state, or federal loans or grants and the rents of the occupants who are lower income households do not exceed those prescribed by deed restrictions or regulatory agreements pursuant to the terms of the financing or financial assistance.

(3) The owner of the property is eligible for and receives low-income housing tax credits pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as added by Public Law 99-514.

In order to be eligible for the exemption provided by this subdivision, the owner of the property shall do both of the following:

(A) Certify and ensure that there is a deed restriction, agreement, or other legal document which restricts the project's usage and which provides that the units designated for use by lower income households are continuously available to or occupied by lower income households at rents that do not exceed those prescribed by Section 50053 of the Health and Safety Code, or, to the extent that the terms of federal, state, or local financing or financial assistance conflicts with Section 50053, rents do not exceed those prescribed by the terms of the financing or financial assistance.

(B) Certify that the funds which would have been necessary to pay property taxes are used to maintain the affordability of, or reduce rents otherwise necessary for, the units occupied by lower income households.

As used in this subdivision, "lower income households" has the same meaning as the term "lower income households" as defined by Section 50079.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(h) Property used exclusively for an emergency or temporary shelter and related facilities for homeless persons and families and owned and operated by religious, hospital, scientific, or charitable funds, foundations, or corporations meeting all of the requirements of this section shall be deemed to be within the exemption provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 4 and Section 5 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and this section. Property which would otherwise be exempt pursuant to this subdivision, except that it includes housing and related facilities for other than an emergency or temporary shelter, shall be entitled to a partial exemption.

As used in this subdivision, "emergency or temporary shelter" means a facility which would be eligible for funding pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 50800) of Part 2 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code.

(i) Property used exclusively for housing and related facilities for employees of religious, charitable, scientific, or hospital organizations which meet all the requirements of subdivision (a) and owned and operated by funds, foundations, or corporations which meet all the requirements of subdivision (a) shall be deemed to be within the exemption provided for in subdivision (b) of Sections 4 and 5 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and this section to the extent the residential use of the property is institutionally necessary for the operation of the organization.

SEC. 2. The amendments to Section 214 of the Revenue and Taxation Code made by this act do not constitute a change in, but are declaratory of, the existing law.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that these amendments are codifications of the State Board of Equalization practice. Therefore, no escape assessments shall be levied and no refunds shall be made as a result of the enactment of this act.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2229 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the requirements of that section relating to any exemption of property for more than five years or for more than 75 percent of the value thereof shall not apply to any exemptions made by this act. In addition, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any property tax revenues lost by it pursuant to this act.

CHAPTER 1592

An act to add Section 798.84 to the Civil Code, relating to mobilehomes.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 798.84 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

798.84. (a) No action based upon the management's alleged failure to maintain the physical improvements in the common facilities in good working order or condition or alleged reduction of service may be commenced by a homeowner unless the management has been given at least 30 days' prior notice of the intention to commence the action.

(b) The notice shall be in writing, signed by the homeowner or homeowners making the allegations, and shall notify the management of the basis of the claim, the specific allegations, and the remedies requested. A notice by one homeowner shall be deemed to be sufficient notice of the specific allegation to the management of the park by all of the homeowners in the park.

(c) The notice may be served in the manner prescribed in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Title 14 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(d) For purposes of this section, management shall be deemed to be notified of an alleged failure to maintain the physical improvements in the common facilities in good working order or condition or of an alleged reduction of services upon substantial compliance by the homeowner or homeowners with the provisions of subdivisions (b) and (c), or when management has been notified of the alleged failure to maintain or the alleged reduction of services by a state or local agency.

(e) If the notice is served within 30 days of the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations, the time for the commencement of the action shall be extended 30 days from the service of the notice.

(f) This section does not apply to actions for personal injury or wrongful death.

CHAPTER 1593

An act to amend Sections 41401 and 41403 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 41401 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41401. For the purposes of this article:

(a) "Administrative employee" means an employee of a school district, employed in a position requiring certification qualifications, but who does not come within the meaning of subdivision (c) or (d).

(b) "Classified employee" means an employee of a school district, employed in a position not requiring certification qualifications.

(c) "Pupil services employee" means an employee of a school district, employed in a position requiring a standard designated services credential, health and development credential, or a librarian credential, and who performs direct services to pupils. "Pupil services employee" shall include, but not be limited to, inschool librarians, school nurses, assistant inschool librarians, audiovisual personnel, counselors, psychologists, psychometrists, guidance and welfare personnel, attendance personnel, school social workers, and all other certificated personnel performing pupil-personnel services, health, or librarian services.

(d) "Teacher" means an employee of a school district, employed in a position requiring certification qualifications and whose duties require him or her to provide direct instruction to pupils in the schools of that district for the full time for which he or she is employed. "Teacher" shall include, but not be limited to, teachers of special classes, teachers of exceptional children, teachers of physically handicapped minors, teachers of mentally retarded minors, substitute teachers, instructional television teachers, specialist mathematics teachers, specialist reading teachers, home and hospital teachers, and learning disability group teachers. Instructional preparation time shall be counted as part of the teacher full-time equivalent, including, but not limited to, mentor teacher or department chairperson time.

SEC. 2. Section 41403 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41403. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall, for each current fiscal year, determine for each school district in the state, to two decimal points, the following:

(a) The total number of administrative employees, except those serving in positions that are supported by categorical grants from any source and are in programs that require specific teacher/administrator ratios, or that are supported by federal funds. As to those serving in positions that are not supported completely by such categorical grants from any source or completely by federal funds, the number of employees reported shall include the full-time equivalent of all fractional time attributable to that time not supported by categorical grants or federal funds.

(b) The total number of teachers except those serving in positions that are supported by federal funds or by categorical grants from any source and are in programs that require specific teacher/administrator ratios. As to those serving in positions that are not supported completely by such categorical grants from any source or completely by federal funds, the number of employees reported shall include the full-time equivalent of all fractional time attributable to that time not supported by categorical grants or federal funds. Substitute teachers may be counted as teachers only if the employee for whom they are substituting is not counted. In no event shall the number of full-time equivalent teachers reported be greater than the number of full-time equivalent teaching positions in the district.

(c) The total maximum number of administrative employees that should be employed by the district based upon the application of the appropriate ratio prescribed by Section 41402 to the number of teachers determined pursuant to subdivision (b).

(d) The number of administrative employees in excess of the number allowable without penalty as determined by subtracting the number determined pursuant to subdivision (c) from the number determined pursuant to subdivision (a).

The number of employees reported pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d) shall include the full-time equivalent of all fractional time of those employees.

For purposes of determining the allowable ratio of administrative employees to teachers for the San Diego City School District, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall exclude from the numbers reported pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d), the number of employees and the full-time equivalent of all of the fractional time of employees serving the district in positions mandated as the result of the district's court-ordered integration plan.

No individual may be counted as more than one full-time equivalent employee unless the individual is employed on a part-time basis in adult education, driver education, or vocational education, or any part-time or additional teaching assignment, in addition to his or her regular full-time assignment.

CHAPTER 1594

An act to amend and repeal Section 10605.3 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to records.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10605.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

10605.3. (a) Commencing January 1, 1989, in addition to the fees prescribed by subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, of Section 10605, all applicants for certified copies of the records described in those subdivisions shall pay an additional fee of two dollars ($2), which shall be collected by the State Registrar, the local registrar, county recorder, or county clerk, as the case may be.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (3), the local public official charged with the collection of the fee established pursuant to subdivision (a) may create a Vital and Health Statistics Trust Fund. The fees collected by local public officials pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be distributed as follows:

(1) One dollar ($1) of each two dollars ($2) collected shall be deposited with the State Registrar in the State Vital Record Improvement Project Fund established pursuant to Section 10040.

(2) The remainder of each two dollar ($2) fee collected shall be deposited into the collecting agency's Vital and Health Statistics Trust Fund.

(3) Any local public official that does not establish a local Vital and Health Statistics Trust Fund shall forward the entire two dollar ($2) fee to the State Registrar, who shall deposit the fees into the Vital Record Improvement Project Fund established pursuant to Section 10040.

(c) Moneys in each Vital and Health Statistics Trust Fund shall be available to the public official charged with the collection of fees pursuant to this section to defray the administrative costs of collecting those fees and for the other costs, as follows:

(1) Administrative and personnel costs.

(2) Modernization of vital record operations, including improvement and automation of vital record systems.

(3) Improvement in the collection and analysis of health-related death certificate information, and other vital record analysis, as appropriate.

(d) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute chaptered prior to January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for other costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act, because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 1595

An act to add Section 7218 to the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Sections 54.1, 54.2, and 54.7 of the Civil Code, relating to handicapped persons.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7218 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7218. (a) The Legislature finds that there is a significant use of assistance dogs for the disabled, including guide dogs for the blind and visually impaired, and signal dogs for the deaf and hearing impaired, and service dogs for the physically disabled. Each dog provides valuable assistance to the disabled user and increases independence.

(b) The existing State Board of Guide Dogs for the Blind shall conduct a study to recommend possible implementation of the expansion of jurisdiction of the board to include signal dogs for the deaf and hearing impaired, service dogs for the physically disabled, and other appropriately trainable animals, and to be further renamed as the State Board of Assistance Dogs for the Disabled.

The study shall include, but not be limited to, all the following:

(1) A needs assessment.

(2) Framework for implementation.

(3) Complete definitions of assistance dogs and other appropriately trainable animals.

(4) Actual or estimated cost of a dog or other appropriately trainable animal or a school for the training of assistance dogs or other appropriately trainable animals to the potential user.

(5) Complete definitions of physically disabled.

(6) Licensing and certification of schools that train assistance dogs or other appropriately trainable animals.

(7) Licensing of assistance dogs and other appropriately trainable animals.

(8) Provisions for out-of-state visitors with assistance dogs or other appropriately trained animals.

(9) The training of dogs individually, rather than by a school.

(10) Accessibility for assistance dogs and other appropriately trainable animals.

(11) Increased public awareness of assistance dogs and other appropriately trainable animals.

(12) Membership of the board to reflect each sector of assistance dogs and other appropriately trainable animals.

The board shall complete this study and report to the Legislature on or before June 30, 1990.

SEC. 2. Section 54.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

54.1. (a) Blind persons, visually handicapped persons, deaf persons, and other physically disabled persons shall be entitled to full and equal access, as other members of the general public, to accommodations, advantages, facilities, and privileges of all common carriers, airplanes, motor vehicles, railroad trains, motorbuses, streetcars, boats, or any other public conveyances or modes of transportation, telephone facilities, hotels, lodging places, places of public accommodation, amusement or resort, and other places to which the general public is invited, subject only to the conditions and limitations established by law, or state or federal regulation, and applicable alike to all persons.

As used in this section, "telephone facilities" means tariff items and other equipment and services which have been approved by the Public Utilities Commission to be used by physically disabled persons in a manner feasible and compatible with the existing telephone network provided by the telephone companies.

(b) (1) Blind persons, visually handicapped persons, deaf persons, and other physically disabled persons shall be entitled to full and equal access, as other members of the general public, to all housing accommodations offered for rent, lease, or compensation in this state, subject to the conditions and limitations established by law, or state or federal regulation, and applicable alike to all persons.

(2) "Housing accommodations" means any real property, or portion thereof, which is used or occupied, or is intended, arranged, or designed to be used or occupied, as the home, residence, or sleeping place of one or more human beings, but shall not include any accommodations included within subdivision (a) or any single-family residence the occupants of which rent, lease, or furnish for compensation not more than one room therein.

(3) Nothing in this subdivision shall require any person renting, leasing, or providing for compensation real property to modify his or her property in any way or provide a higher degree of care for a blind person, visually handicapped person, deaf person, or other physically disabled person than for a person who is not disabled.

(4) Except as provided in paragraph (5) of this subdivision, nothing in this part shall require any person renting, leasing, or providing for compensation real property, if such person refuses to accept tenants who have dogs, to accept as a tenant a disabled person who has a dog.

(5) It shall be deemed a denial of equal access to housing accommodations within the meaning of this subdivision for any person, firm, or corporation to refuse to lease or rent housing accommodations to a blind person or visually handicapped person on the basis that such person uses the services of a guide dog, to a deaf person on the basis that such person uses the services of a signal dog, or to a physically handicapped person on the basis that such person uses the services of a service dog, or to refuse to permit such a blind person or visually handicapped person to keep a guide dog, a deaf person to keep a signal dog, or a physically handicapped person to keep a service dog on the premises.

Except in the normal performance of duty as a mobility or signal aid, nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to prevent the owner of a housing accommodation from establishing such terms in a lease or rental agreement which reasonably regulates the presence of guide dogs, signal dogs, or service dogs on the premises of a housing accommodation, nor shall this paragraph be construed to relieve a tenant from any liability otherwise imposed by law for real and personal property damages caused by such a dog when proof of same exists.

As used in this subdivision, "guide dog" means any guide dog or seeing-eye dog which was trained by a person licensed under the provisions of Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code.

As used in this subdivision, "signal dog" means any dog trained to alert a deaf person, or person whose hearing is impaired, to intruders or sounds.

As used in this subdivision, "service dog" means any dog individually trained to the physically disabled participant's requirements including, but not limited to, minimal protection work, rescue work, pulling a wheelchair, or fetching dropped items.

(6) It shall be deemed a denial of equal access to housing accommodations within the meaning of this subdivision for any person, firm, or corporation to refuse to lease or rent housing accommodations to a blind person, visually handicapped person, deaf person, or other physically disabled person on the basis that the disabled person is partially or wholly dependent upon the income of his or her spouse, if the spouse is a party to the lease or rental agreement. Nothing in this subdivision shall, however, prohibit a lessor or landlord from considering the aggregate financial status of a disabled person and his or her spouse.

(c) Persons licensed to train guide dogs for the blind pursuant to Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code and persons authorized to train signal dogs for the deaf and hearing impaired, and service dogs for the physically disabled may take dogs, for the purpose of training them as guide dogs, signal dogs, or service dogs in any of the places specified in subdivisions (a) and (b). These persons shall carry and display identification if issued as an authorization, upon request.

SEC. 2.5. Section 54.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

54.1. (a) Blind persons, visually handicapped persons, deaf persons, and other physically disabled persons shall be entitled to full and equal access, as other members of the general public, to accommodations, advantages, facilities, and privileges of all common carriers, airplanes, motor vehicles, railroad trains, motorbuses, streetcars, boats, or any other public conveyances or modes of transportation, telephone facilities, hotels, lodging places, places of public accommodation, amusement or resort, and other places to which the general public is invited, subject only to the conditions and limitations established by law, or state or federal regulation, and applicable alike to all persons.

As used in this section, "telephone facilities" means tariff items and other equipment and services which have been approved by the Public Utilities Commission to be used by physically disabled persons in a manner feasible and compatible with the existing telephone network provided by the telephone companies.

(b) (1) Blind persons, visually handicapped persons, deaf persons, and other physically disabled persons shall be entitled to full and equal access, as other members of the general public, to all housing accommodations offered for rent, lease, or compensation in this state, subject to the conditions and limitations established by law, or state or federal regulation, and applicable alike to all persons.

(2) "Housing accommodations" means any real property, or portion thereof, which is used or occupied, or is intended, arranged, or designed to be used or occupied, as the home, residence, or sleeping place of one or more human beings, but shall not include any accommodations included within subdivision (a) or any single-family residence the occupants of which rent, lease, or furnish for compensation not more than one room therein.

(3) Nothing in this subdivision shall require any person renting, leasing, or providing for compensation real property to modify his or her property in any way or provide a higher degree of care for a blind person, visually handicapped person, deaf person, or other physically disabled person than for a person who is not disabled.

(4) Except as provided in paragraph (5) of this subdivision, nothing in this part shall require any person renting, leasing, or providing for compensation real property, if such person refuses to accept tenants who have dogs, to accept as a tenant a disabled person who has a dog.

(5) It shall be deemed a denial of equal access to housing accommodations within the meaning of this subdivision for any person, firm, or corporation to refuse to lease or rent housing accommodations to a blind person or visually handicapped person on the basis that such person uses the services of a guide dog, to a deaf person on the basis that such person uses the services of a signal dog, or to a physically handicapped person on the basis that such person uses the services of a service dog, or to refuse to permit such a blind person or visually handicapped person to keep a guide dog, a deaf person to keep a signal dog, or a physically handicapped person to keep a service dog on the premises.

Except in the normal performance of duty as a mobility or signal aid, nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to prevent the owner of a housing accommodation from establishing such terms in a lease or rental agreement which reasonably regulates the presence of guide dogs, signal dogs, or service dogs on the premises of a housing accommodation, nor shall this paragraph be construed to relieve a tenant from any liability otherwise imposed by law for real and personal property damages caused by such a dog when proof of same exists.

As used in this subdivision, "guide dog" means any guide dog or seeing-eye dog which was trained by a person licensed under the provisions of Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code.

As used in this subdivision, "signal dog" means any dog trained to alert a deaf person, or person whose hearing is impaired, to intruders or sounds.

As used in this subdivision, "service dog" means any dog individually trained to the physically disabled participant's requirements including, but not limited to, minimal protection work, rescue work, pulling a wheelchair, or fetching dropped items.

(6) It shall be deemed a denial of equal access to housing accommodations within the meaning of this subdivision for any person, firm, or corporation to refuse to lease or rent housing accommodations to a blind person, visually handicapped person, deaf person, or other physically disabled person on the basis that the disabled person is partially or wholly dependent upon the income of his or her spouse, if the spouse is a party to the lease or rental agreement. Nothing in this subdivision shall, however, prohibit a lessor or landlord from considering the aggregate financial status of a disabled person and his or her spouse.

(c) Persons licensed to train guide dogs for the blind pursuant to Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code and persons authorized to train signal dogs for the deaf and hearing impaired, and service dogs for the physically disabled may take dogs, for the purpose of training them as guide dogs, signal dogs, or service dogs in any of the places specified in subdivisions (a) and (b). These persons shall carry and display identification in such form as shall be prescribed by the State Board of Guide Dogs for the Blind if issued as an authorization, upon request.

(d) Persons who have not been diagnosed with acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) or AIDS-related complex (ARC), but who have tested positive on a test for the presence of the etiologic agent of acquired immune deficiency syndrome or antibodies to that agent shall be entitled to the same protection as is provided to physically disabled persons by this section.

SEC. 3. Section 54.2 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

54.2. (a) Every totally or partially blind person, or deaf person, or person whose hearing is impaired, or physically handicapped person shall have the right to be accompanied by a guide dog, signal dog, or service dog, especially trained for the purpose, in any of the places specified in Section 54.1 without being required to pay an extra charge for the guide dog, signal dog, or service dog. However, the person shall be liable for any damage done to the premises or facilities by his or her dog.

(b) Persons licensed to train guide dogs for the blind pursuant to Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code and persons authorized to train signal dogs for the deaf and hearing impaired, and service dogs for the physically disabled may take dogs, for the purpose of training them as guide dogs, signal dogs, or service dogs in any of the places specified in Section 54.1 without being required to pay an extra charge for the guide dog, signal dog, or service dog. However, the person shall be liable for any damage done to the premises or facilities by his or her dog.

These persons shall carry and display identification if issued as an authorization, upon request.

(c) As used in this section, the terms "guide dog," "signal dog," and "service dog" have the same meanings as specified in Section 54.1.

SEC. 4. Section 54.7 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

54.7. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the provisions of this part shall not be construed to require zoos or wild animal parks to allow guide dogs, signal dogs, or service dogs to accompany blind persons, visually handicapped persons, deaf persons, or physically disabled persons in areas of the zoo or park where zoo or park animals are not separated from members of the public by a physical barrier. As used in this section, "physical barrier" does not include an automobile or other conveyance.

(b) Any zoo or wild animal park that does not permit guide dogs, signal dogs, or service dogs to accompany blind persons, visually handicapped persons, deaf persons, or physically disabled persons therein shall maintain, free of charge, adequate kennel facilities for the use of guide dogs, signal dogs, or service dogs belonging to blind persons, visually handicapped persons, deaf persons, or physically disabled persons. These facilities shall be of a character commensurate with the anticipated daily attendance of blind persons, visually handicapped persons, deaf persons, or physically disabled persons, shall be in an area not accessible to the general public, shall be equipped with water and utensils for the consumption thereof, and shall otherwise be safe, clean, and comfortable.

(c) Any zoo or wild animal park that does not permit guide dogs to accompany blind persons therein shall provide free transportation to blind persons on any mode of transportation provided for members of the public.

(d) Any zoo or wild animal park that does not permit guide dogs to accompany blind persons therein shall provide sighted escorts for such blind persons if they are unaccompanied by a sighted person.

(e) As used in this section, "wild animal park" means any entity open to the public on a regular basis, licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture under the Animal Welfare Act as an exhibit, and operating for the primary purposes of conserving, propagating, and exhibiting wild and exotic animals, and any marine, mammal, or aquatic park open to the general public.

SEC. 5. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 54.1 of the Civil Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3795. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1988, (2) each bill amends Section 54.1 of the Civil Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3795, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1596

An act to add Sections 34514 and 34515 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicle safety.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 34514 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

34514. (a) Beginning with the 1990–91 fiscal year, the department shall, upon appropriation of the requisite funds by the Legislature, annually conduct additional roadside vehicle safety inspections of vehicles described in subdivision (a) of Section 34501.12. These roadside inspections shall be in addition to the maintenance facility and terminal inspections required by that section, and over and above the number of roadside vehicle safety inspections conducted during the 1987–88 fiscal year.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that, beginning with the 1990–91 fiscal year, funds are to be appropriated to the department annually, for the purposes of subdivision (a), from the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund, to the extent that sufficient funds are collected pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 34501.12.

SEC. 2. Section 34515 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

34515. As used in this division and in regulations adopted pursuant thereto, "maintenance facility or terminal" means any place or places where a vehicle of a type listed in Section 34500 is regularly garaged, maintained, or is operated or dispatched from. "Maintenance facility or terminal" may include a private business or residence.

SEC. 3. This act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill No. 2706 of the 1987–88 Regular Session becomes operative and imposes a fee for terminal safety inspections.

CHAPTER 1597

An act to add Sections 647f, 1202.1, 1202.6, and 12022.85 to the Penal Code, relating to crimes, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988 ]

I am reducing the $2 million dollar General Fund appropriation contained in Section 7 of Senate Bill No 1007 to $500,000.

This bill would make it a felony for a person to commit specified sex-related crimes if the person has tested positive for acquired immune deficiency (AIDS), as specified; require persons convicted of certain sex offenses to submit to an AIDS blood test; require the results of such blood tests to be reported by the courts to the Department of Justice; and require counties to provide or contract out for education programs for victims and offenders of sex offenses. The bill appropriates $2,000,000 from the General Fund to implement this act, with the contingency that the bill will not be operative without this funding, until January 1, 1990, and then only if specific funding is provided in the 1989 Budget Act.

I am reducing this appropriation to a level which I believe is sufficient to fund the AIDS education program specified in this bill I expect the counties to develop programs that are consistent with the level of appropriation.

With this reduction, I approve Senate Bill No. 1007.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 647f is added to the Penal Code, to read:

647f. In any accusatory pleading charging a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 647, if the defendant has been previously convicted one or more times of a violation of that subdivision or of any other offense listed in subdivision (d) of Section 1202.1, and in connection with one or more of those convictions a blood test was administered pursuant to Section 1202.1 with positive test results, of which the defendant was informed, the previous conviction and positive blood test results, of which the defendant was informed, shall be charged in the accusatory pleading. If the previous conviction and informed test results are found to be true by the trier of fact or are admitted by the defendant, the defendant is guilty of a felony.

SEC. 2. Section 1202.1 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1202.1. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 199.20 and 199.22 of the Health and Safety Code, the court shall order every person convicted of a violation of a sexual offense listed in subdivision (d), whether or not a sentence or fine is imposed or probation is granted, to submit to a blood test for evidence of antibodies to the probable causative agent of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS). Each person tested under this section shall be informed of the results of the blood test.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 199.21 of the Health and Safety Code, the results of the blood test to detect antibodies to the probable causative agent of AIDS shall be transmitted by the clerk of the court to the Department of Justice.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 199.21 of the Health and Safety Code, the Department of Justice shall provide the results of a test or tests as to persons under investigation or being prosecuted under Section 647f or 12022.85, if the results are on file with the department, to the defense attorney upon request; and the results also shall be available to the prosecuting attorney upon request for the sole purpose of preparing counts for a subsequent offense under Section 647f or sentence enhancement under Section 12022.85.

(d) For purposes of this section, sexual offenses include any of the following:

(1) Rape in violation of Section 261.

(2) Unlawful intercourse with a female under age 18 in violation of Section 261.5.

(3) Rape of a spouse in violation of Section 262.

(4) Sodomy in violation of Section 286.

(5) Oral copulation in violation of Section 288a.

SEC. 3. Section 1202.6 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1202.6. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 199.20, 199.21, and 199.22 of the Health and Safety Code, upon the first conviction of any person for a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 647, the court shall, before sentencing or as a condition of probation, order the defendant to complete instruction in the causes and consequences of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) pursuant to subdivision (d) and shall order the defendant to submit to testing for AIDS in accordance with subdivision (e). In addition, the court shall refer a defendant, where appropriate, to a program under Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or to any drug diversion program, or both.

(b) Upon a second or subsequent conviction of a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 647, the court shall, before sentencing, order the defendant to submit to testing for AIDS in accordance with subdivision (e).

(c) At the sentencing hearing of a defendant ordered to submit to testing for AIDS pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b), the court shall furnish the defendant with a copy of the report submitted pursuant to subdivision (e) and shall direct the clerk to note the receipt of the report by the defendant in the records of the case.

If the results of the test described in the report are positive, the court shall make certain that the defendant understands the nature and meaning of the contents of the report and shall further advise the defendant of the penalty established in Section 647f for a subsequent violation of subdivision (b) of Section 647.

(d) The county health officer in each county shall select an agency, or agencies, in the county that shall provide AIDS prevention education. The county health officer shall endeavor to select an agency, or agencies, that currently provide AIDS prevention education programs to substance abusers or prostitutes. If no agency is currently providing this education, the county agency responsible for substance abuse shall develop an AIDS prevention education program either within the agency or under contract with a community-based, nonprofit organization in the county. The county health officer shall forward to the courts a list of agencies selected for purposes of referral.

An AIDS prevention education program providing services, at a minimum, shall include details about the transmission of human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), the etiologic agent for AIDS, symptoms of AIDS or AIDS-related conditions, prevention through avoidance or cleaning of needles, sexual practices which constitute high risk, low risk, and no risk (including abstinence), and resources for assistance if the person decides to take a test for the etiologic agent for AIDS and receives a positive test result. The program also shall include other relevant medical and prevention information as it becomes available.

(e) The county probation officer, in consultation with the county health officer, shall establish procedures for the testing of every defendant as ordered pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) for evidence of antibodies to the probable causative agent of acquired immune deficiency syndrome. Notwithstanding Section 199.21 of the Health and Safety Code, the county probation officer shall furnish written copies of the report on the test to all of the following:

(1) The court in which the defendant is to be sentenced.

(2) The county health officer.

(3) The State Department of Health Services.

(f) Except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (g), the reports required by subdivision (e) shall be confidential.

(g) The State Department of Health Services shall maintain the confidentiality of the reports received pursuant to subdivision (e), except that the department shall furnish copies of any such report to a district attorney upon request.

SEC. 4. Section 12022.85 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

12022.85. (a) Any person who violates one or more of the offenses listed in subdivision (b) with knowledge that he or she has acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) or with the knowledge that he or she carries antibodies of the human immunodeficiency virus at the time of the commission of those offenses, shall receive a three-year enhancement for each such violation in addition to the sentence provided under those sections.

(b) Subdivision (a) applies to the following crimes:

(1) Rape in violation of Section 261.

(2) Unlawful intercourse with a female under age 18 in violation of Section 261.5.

(3) Rape of a spouse in violation of Section 262.

(4) Sodomy in violation of Section 286.

(5) Oral copulation in violation of Section 288a.

(c) For purposes of proving the knowledge requirement of this section, the prosecuting attorney may use test results received under subdivision (c) of Section 1202.1 or subdivision (g) of Section 1202.6.

SEC. 5. The county health officer shall establish and administer a counseling program for victims and persons convicted of offenses listed in subdivision (d) of Section 1202.1 of the Penal Code with respect to both pretest and posttest counseling of such persons being tested to detect antibodies to the probable causative agent of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS).

SEC. 6. Sections 1 to 5, inclusive, of this act shall become operative only if Section 7 of this act becomes effective, at which time this act shall become operative on January 1, 1989.

If Section 7 of this act does not become effective, then this act shall not become operative until January 1, 1990, and unless specific funding is provided in the Budget Act of 1989 for the purposes of this act.

SEC. 7. The sum of two million dollars ($2,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Mandates Claims Fund to reimburse local agencies and school districts pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for costs mandated by the state and incurred by them pursuant to this act.

It is the intent of the Legislature, in implementing this act, that existing AIDS testing and AIDS education programs and federal funds be used, to the maximum extent feasible, to administer this act.

CHAPTER 1598

An act to amend Section 1367.65 of the Health and Safety Code, to amend Section 10123.81 of, and to amend and renumber Section 11512.10 of, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1367.65 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1367.65. On or after January 1, 1989, every individual or group health care service plan contract which is issued, amended, or renewed, and which includes coverage for mastectomy and prosthetic devices and reconstructive surgery incident to mastectomy described in Section 1367.6 shall also be deemed to provide coverage for mammography for screening or diagnostic purposes upon the referral of the patient's physician.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to establish a new mandated benefit or to prevent application of deductible or copayment provisions in a policy or plan, nor shall this section be construed to require that a policy or plan be extended to cover any other procedures under an individual or a group health care service plan contract. The Legislature intends in this section to provide that mammography services are deemed to be covered if the policy or plan includes coverage for mastectomy and reconstructive surgery.

SEC. 2. Section 10123.81 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10123.81. On or after January 1, 1989, every individual or group policy of disability insurance or self-insured employee welfare benefit plan which is issued, amended, or renewed, and which includes coverage for mastectomy and prosthetic devices and reconstructive surgery incident to the mastectomy described in Section 10123.8 shall also be deemed to provide coverage for at least the following, upon the referral of a patient's physician for breast cancer screening or diagnostic purposes:

(a) A baseline mammogram for women age 35 to 39, inclusive.

(b) A mammogram for women age 40 to 49, inclusive, every two years or more frequently based on the women's physician's recommendation.

(c) A mammogram every year for women age 50 and over.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to require an individual or group policy to cover the surgical procedure known as mastectomy or to prevent application of deductible or copayment provisions contained in the policy or plan, nor shall this section be construed to require that coverage under an individual or group policy be extended to any other procedures.

SEC. 3. Section 11512.10 of the Insurance Code, as added by Section 3 of Chapter 550 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended and renumbered to read:

11512.15. On or after January 1, 1989, every individual or group nonprofit hospital service plan contract which is issued, amended, or renewed, and which includes coverage for mastectomy and prosthetic devices and reconstructive surgery incident to the mastectomy described in Section 11512.10 shall also be deemed to provide coverage for mammography for screening or diagnostic purposes upon the referral of the patient's physician.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to require an individual or group policy to cover the surgical procedure known as mastectomy or to prevent application of deductible or copayment provisions contained in the policy or plan, nor shall this section be construed to require that coverge under an individual or group policy be extended to any other procedures.

CHAPTER 1599

An act to amend Section 33391 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to redevelopment, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that actions to resolve pending litigation and claims for damages in the Monterey Hills Project Area against the community redevelopment agency of the City of Los Angeles have exceeded a reasonable length of time and that full restoration of the property remains several years away. This act shall not be construed to relieve insurance companies of their duties and responsibilities to their insureds.

SEC. 2. Section 33391 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33391. Within the survey area or for purposes of redevelopment an agency may:

(a) Purchase, lease, obtain option upon, acquire by gift, grant, bequest, devise, or otherwise, any real or personal property, any interest in property, and any improvements on it, including repurchase of developed property previously owned by the agency.

(b) Acquire real property by eminent domain.

SEC. 3. The redevelopment agency of the City of Los Angeles shall report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1989, on potentially feasible sources of local funding for (1) effecting necessary measures to halt structural damage occurring in its Monterey Hills Project due to geologic instability and (2) purchasing and repairing improved property in that project area in settlement of owners' claims against the redevelopment agency arising out of that geologic instability. The report shall consider all redevelopment agency funds which could lawfully be made available without impairing the obligation of agency contracts (hereinafter in this act referred to as "legally available funds"). The report shall specify in detail all legally available funds of the agency on hand as of June 30, 1988, and insurance proceeds received or to be received by the redevelopment agency on account of claims arising out of its Monterey Hills Redevelopment Project Area, as well as distribution of those proceeds. The report shall include projections of the amount of tax-increment revenues to be received by the agency from the Monterey Hills Redevelopment Project Area during the 1988–89 and 1989–90 tax years. The report shall itemize the amount of bonds and other indebtedness secured by tax-increment revenues of the Monterey Hills Redevelopment Project. The report shall include an estimate of the aggregate cost to repair damage to structures in the Monterey Hills Redevelopment Project occurring as a result of geologic instability. The report shall include a plan with fiscal elements to effectuate settlement of claims of property owners in the Monterey Hills Redevelopment Project Area in accordance with this act.

If, on January 1, 1989, the redevelopment agency of the City of Los Angeles has not complied with the reporting requirement of this section by submitting a full and complete report, as determined by the Chairman of the Assembly Committee on Housing and Community Development, the Auditor General shall promptly audit the redevelopment agency's funds to determine what moneys can be made available for the purposes of this act.

SEC. 4. (a) On or before January 1, 1989, the redevelopment agency of the City of Los Angeles may, without limitation upon authority the agency may have under other provisions of law establish a program consistent with this section for settlement of claims against the redevelopment agency arising out of damage to residential structures occurring as a result of geologic instability in its Monterey Hills Redevelopment Project Area.

(b) To fund the program, the redevelopment agency may, consistent with the report prepared pursuant to this act, allocate not more than ten million dollars ($10,000,000) in the 1988–89 fiscal year and not more than ten million dollars ($10,000,000) in the 1989–90 fiscal year, if necessary. For this purpose, the redevelopment agency may utilize any legally available funds.

(c) The redevelopment agency may include in the program established pursuant to this section the following buyout and repair components:

(1) Notification of each owner of property whose unit is located on fill in the Monterey Hills Redevelopment Project Area of the proposed buyout program, and furnishing each owner with a claim form for a buyout. The agency may grant an extension not exceeding 30 days for making claims in cases where hardship would otherwise result.

(2) In determining the amount of the claim, the redevelopment agency may cause the value of the unit to be determined by an independent appraiser who has been certified by the Master of Appraisal Institute. The appraiser may take into account a reasonable appreciation of the unit, which in no event shall be less than 4 percent annually.

(3) The redevelopment agency may establish other guidelines that it deems necessary and desirable to expedite completion of the buyout and repair program.

(d) Any unencumbered moneys remaining in the program after January 1, 1990, shall be used for settlement and release of claims arising from that geologic instability, first to effect, or reimburse the cost of, repairs of owner-occupied residential structures in the Monterey Hills Redevelopment Project Area, with any remaining moneys to be used for repairs to structures that are not owner occupied.

(e) No person who has previously settled his or her claim with the agency arising out of geologic instability in the Monterey Hills Redevelopment Project Area, and no insurer, no developer, and no previous owner, shall be eligible to participate in the program established pursuant to this section. Only existing homeowners shall be eligible to file any claim authorized under this section.

(f) No person who has executed a settlement and release pursuant to this section shall have any cause of action against the redevelopment agency of the City of Los Angeles on account of any claim arising out of injury or potential injury to any property with respect to which the agreement was executed.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immeidate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide for settlement of claims against the redevelopment agency of the City of Los Angeles arising out of geologic instability in its Monterey Hills Redevelopment Project Area without delay, and to thereby prevent potential disruption of that agency's ability to repay its bonds and consequent negative implications for other public bonds in this state, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1600

An act to amend Section 4051 of, and to add Sections 2191.1, 4051.1, 4051.2, 4051.3, 4051.4, 4051.7, 4051.8, and 4051.9 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to pharmacy.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the licensed pharmacist plays a critical role as the advocate of the patient-consumer and that when, in whatever manner, the oversight of the pharmacist is not available, the patient-consumer may be deprived of essential consultation. The Legislature further finds and declares that the prescriber's role of patient advocate may be diminished when the prescriber has a financial interest in medications ordered for the patient. Therefore, to protect the patient-consumer and to enforce the legislative intent, the Legislature hereby amends Sections 2191 and 4051 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 2. Section 2191.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2191.1. The Division of Licensing shall encourage every physician and surgeon to take a course in pharmacology and pharmaceuticals as part of his or her continuing education.

SEC. 3. Section 4051 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4051. (a) No prescriber shall dispense drugs or dangerous devices to patients in his or her office or place of practice unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The drugs or dangerous devices are dispensed to the prescriber's own patient and the drugs or dangerous devices are not furnished by a nurse or attendant.

(2) The drugs or dangerous devices are necessary in the treatment of the condition for which the prescriber is attending the patient.

(3) The prescriber does not keep a pharmacy, open shop, drugstore, advertised or otherwise, for the retailing of drugs or dangerous devices or poisons.

(4) The prescriber fulfills all of the labeling requirements imposed upon pharmacists by Section 4047.5, all of the recordkeeping requirements of this chapter, and all of the packaging requirements of good pharmaceutical practice, including the use of child-proof containers.

(5) The prescriber does not use a dispensing device unless he or she personally owns the device and the contents of it and personally dispenses the drugs or dangerous devices to the patient packaged, labeled, and recorded in accordance with paragraph (4).

(b) The Board of Medical Quality Assurance and the Board of Osteopathic Examiners shall have authority with the Board of Pharmacy to assure compliance with this section, and those boards are specifically charged with the enforcement of this chapter with respect to their respective licensees.

(c) "Prescriber," as used in this section, means a person, who holds a physician's and surgeon's certificate or a certificate to practice podiatry, and who is duly registered as such by the Board of Medical Quality Assurance or the Board of Osteopathic Examiners of this state.

(d) This section does not prohibit the furnishing of a limited quantity of samples by a prescriber, if the prescriber dispenses the samples to the patient in the package provided by the manufacturer, no charge is made to the patient therefor, and an appropriate record is entered in the patient's chart.

(e) This section does not apply to clinics, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1204 or subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 1206 of the Health and Safety Code, to veterinarians furnishing drugs for the treatment of animals, to programs licensed pursuant to Sections 11876, 11877, and 11877.5 of the Health and Safety Code, or to a prescriber dispensing parenteral chemotherapeutic agents, biologicals, or delivery systems used in the treatment of cancer.

SEC. 4. Section 4051.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4051.1. A prescriber who dispenses drugs pursuant to Section 4051 shall, prior to dispensing a prescription to a patient, offer to give a written prescription to the patient which the patient may elect to have filled by the prescriber or by any pharmacy.

SEC. 5. Section 4051.2 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4051.2. A prescriber who dispenses drugs pursuant to Section 4051 shall provide the patient with written disclosure that the patient has a choice between obtaining the prescription from the dispensing prescriber or obtaining the prescription at a pharmacy of the patient's choice.

SEC. 6. Section 4051.3 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4051.3. A prescriber who dispenses drugs pursuant to Section 4051 shall store all drugs to be dispensed in an area which is secure. The Board of Medical Quality Assurance shall, by regulation, define the term "secure" for purposes of this section.

SEC. 7. Section 4051.4 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4051.4. The Board of Pharmacy shall promptly forward to the Board of Medical Quality Assurance all complaints received related to drugs or dangerous devices dispensed by a prescriber pursuant to Section 4051.

SEC. 8. Section 4051.7 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4051.7. All complaints involving serious bodily injury due to drugs or dangerous devices dispensed by prescribers pursuant to Section 4051 shall be handled by the Board of Medical Quality Assurance as a case of greatest potential harm to a patient.

SEC. 9. Section 4051.8 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4051.8. On or before January 1, 1990, the Board of Medical Quality Assurance shall report to the Legislature on all complaints filed on or after August 1, 1988, involving serious bodily harm due to drugs or dangerous devices dispensed by a prescriber pursuant to Section 4051. The report shall include the nature of the complaint and its status.

SEC. 10. Section 4051.9 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4051.9. The Board of Medical Quality Assurance and the Board of Pharmacy shall jointly make a report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1991. The report shall include the following information regarding the complaints received by these respective boards on or after August 1, 1988, relating to drugs or dangerous devices dispensed by a prescriber pursuant to Section 4051:

(a) The number of complaints received.

(b) A brief description of the nature of the complaint and the severity category assigned.

(c) The disposition of the complaint.

SEC. 11. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1601

An act to add Sections 54060.4, 54060.5, 54060.6, and 54060.7 to, to repeal Article 5 (commencing with Section 54050) of Chapter 1 of, and Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 54060) of, Part 29 of, and to repeal and add Section 42240 of, the Education Code, and to repeal Section 85 of Chapter 323 of the Statutes of 1976, relating to education, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

I am deleting the $5 million dollar General Fund appropriation contained in Section 14 of Assembly Bill No. 3753.

This bill would appropriate $5 million to provide a loan to the San Francisco Unified School District for asbestos abatement projects. I am deleting this appropriation because I believe that the district should apply for assistance through the normal process under the State's Asbestos Abatement Program. This legislation would provide inappropriate preferential treatment of one district.

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No. 3753.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 42240 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 42240 is added to the Education Code, to read:

42240. For the 1988–89 fiscal year, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall do the following:

(a) Using the latest available data as of July 1, 1987, identify each school district that meets all of the following criteria:

(1) Has a second principal apportionment average daily attendance of fewer than 2,501 for the prior fiscal year.

(2) Has approved home-to-school transportation costs in excess of 3 percent of its general fund total expense of education in the prior fiscal year.

(b) For each school district identified pursuant to subdivision (a), or that receives funding pursuant to Section 42240 or 42240.1 in the prior fiscal year, the superintendent shall make the following calculations:

(1) Subtract from the approved home-to-school transportation costs an amount equal to 3 percent of the general fund total expense of education exclusive of lottery revenues.

(2) Compare the amount determined in paragraph (1) to the amount the district received in the 1987–88 fiscal year pursuant to Sections 42240 and 42240.1.

(c) If the comparison results in an amount less than the amount received in the 1987–88 fiscal year, the superintendent shall use that amount, but in no case shall the superintendent use an amount less than 95 percent of the amount received in the 1987–88 fiscal year.

(d) The superintendent shall calculate the net savings from the comparison in subdivision (c).

(e) If the comparison results in an amount greater than the amount received in the 1987–88 fiscal year, the superintendent shall use the amount calculated as the sum of the following:

(1) The amount received in the 1987–88 fiscal year.

(2) The amount determined by allocating the net savings calculated in subdivision (d) on a pro rata basis to each district in proportion to the amount by which comparison results in an amount greater than the amount received in the 1987–88 fiscal year.

(f) The superintendent shall divide the amount determined pursuant to subdivision (c) or (e), whichever is appropriate, by the 1987–88 second principal apportionment average daily attendance.

(g) The amount determined by subdivision (f) may be added to the amount determined pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 42238.

(h) The amount determined pursuant to subdivision (c) or (e), whichever is appropriate, may be added to the district's transportation allowance under Section 41850.

(i) Each school district eligible for funds may elect to have the funds allocated pursuant to either subdivision (g) or (h).

(j) The amounts added to subdivision (b) of Section 42238 pursuant to subdivision (g) and the amount added to Section 41850 by subdivision (h) shall be considered to be permanent adjustments to the base revenue limit or transportation allowance as appropriate.

SEC. 3. Article 5 (commencing with Section 54050) of Chapter 1 of Part 29 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 54060) of Part 29 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature to maintain those allocations of general aid to school districts that have become known as urban impact aid and Meade aid by allocating funds during the 1988–89 fiscal year in the same amounts, and to the same districts that received urban impact aid and Meade aid during the 1987–88 fiscal year. It is further the intent of the Legislature that these allocations, after adjustment as provided in this act, shall become a regular part of district base revenue limit funding in the fiscal years following the 1988–89 fiscal year.

SEC. 6. Section 54060.4 is added to the Education Code, to read:

54060.4. For the 1988–89 fiscal year, from funds appropriated for that purpose, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall make apportionments to eligible school districts as follows:

(a) Urban impact aid in the same amounts and to the same unified school districts that qualified for general aid in the 1987–88 fiscal year pursuant to Section 54060.1.

(b) Urban impact aid in the same amounts and to the same high school and elementary school districts that qualified for general aid in the 1987–88 fiscal year pursuant to Section 54060.3.

(c) Meade aid in the same amounts and to the same school districts that qualified for general aid in the 1987–88 fiscal year pursuant to Section 54061.

SEC. 7. Section 54060.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

54060.5. For the 1989–90 fiscal year, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall do all of the following for each school district that received urban impact aid pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 54060.4 in the 1988–89 fiscal year:

(a) Determine the following:

(1) The amount of general aid, if any, received by the district in the 1986–87 fiscal year pursuant to Section 54060 as that section was in effect during the 1986–87 fiscal year.

(2) The "1987–88 maximum allocation for urban impact aid" that was calculated for each district pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 54060.

(3) The difference that results from subtracting the amount determined pursuant to paragraph (1) from the amount determined pursuant to paragraph (2) for each district, provided that any difference that is less than zero shall be deemed to be zero.

(4) The amount, if any, that is 90 percent of the difference determined pursuant to paragraph (3).

(b) Multiply the percentage determined for the 1989–90 fiscal year pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 42238.1 by the sum of allocations made pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 54060.4 and, from that product, subtract the sum of amounts determined pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (a). The residual amount, if greater than zero, shall be used to make the cost-of-living adjustment specified in subdivision (c).

(c) Determine for each district an amount computed as follows:

(1) Determine the amount of general aid received by the district in the 1987–88 fiscal year pursuant to Section 54060.1.

(2) Increase the amount determined under paragraph (1) by any amount computed for that district in paragraph (4) of subdivision (a).

(3) Further increase, for cost-of-living purposes, the sum of paragraphs (1) and (2) by the residual amount, if any, calculated under subdivision (b).

(d) Determine, for each district, the sum of the following:

(1) The number of units of average daily attendance computed for the 1988–89 fiscal year pursuant to Section 42238.5

(2) The number of units of average daily attendance that would have been generated in the 1988–89 fiscal year by pupils attending necessary small schools funded pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 42280) of Chapter 7 of Part 24.

(e) Divide each district's amount determined pursuant to subdivision (c) by the respective district's sum of average daily attendance determined pursuant to subdivision (d) and add each district's quotient to that district's 1988–89 base revenue limit per pupil in average daily attendance, calculated pursuant to Section 42238. The adjustment of per pupil revenue limits required by this subdivision shall be made prior to multiplication of per pupil revenue limits by the 1989–90 average daily attendance of the affected districts.

Except for the amount determined under paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), amounts added to 1988–89 district base revenue limits by this section shall not be used when calculating 1989–90 cost-of-living adjustments for the base revenue limits of affected districts.

SEC. 8. Section 54060.6 is added to the Education Code, to read:

54060.6. For the 1989–90 fiscal year, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall do all of the following for each school district that received urban impact aid pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 54060.4 in the 1988–89 fiscal year:

(a) Determine the following:

(1) The amount of general aid, if any, received by the district in the 1986–87 fiscal year pursuant to Section 54060 as that section was in effect during the 1986–87 fiscal year.

(2) The "1987–88 maximum allocation for urban impact aid" that was calculated for each district pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 54060.2.

(3) The difference that results from subtracting the amount determined pursuant to paragraph (1) from the amount determined pursuant to paragraph (2) for each district, provided that any difference that is less than zero shall be deemed to be zero.

(4) The amount, if any, that is 90 percent of the difference determined pursuant to paragraph (3).

(b) Multiply the percentage determined for the 1989–90 fiscal year pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 42238.1 by the sum of allocations made pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 54060.4 and, from that product, subtract the sum of amounts determined pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (a). The residual amount, if greater than zero, shall be used to make the cost-of-living adjustment specified in subdivision (c).

(c) Determine for each district an amount computed as follows:

(1) Determine the amount of general aid received by the district in the 1987–88 fiscal year pursuant to Section 54060.1.

(2) Increase the amount determined under paragraph (1) by any amount computed for that district in paragraph (4) of subdivision (a).

(3) Further increase, for cost-of-living purposes, the sum of paragraphs (1) and (2) by the residual amount, if any, calculated under subdivision (b).

(d) Determine, for each district, the sum of the following:

(1) The number of units of average daily attendance computed for the 1988–89 fiscal year pursuant to Section 42238.5.

(2) The number of units of average daily attendance that would have been generated in the 1988–89 fiscal year by pupils attending necessary small schools funded pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 42280) of Chapter 7 of Part 24.

(e) Divide each district's amount determined pursuant to subdivision (c) by the respective district's sum of average daily attendance determined pursuant to subdivision (d) and add each district's quotient to that district's 1988–89 base revenue limit per pupil in average daily attendance, calculated pursuant to Section 42238. The adjustment of per pupil revenue limits required by this subdivision shall be made prior to multiplication of per pupil revenue limits by the 1989–90 average daily attendance of the affected districts.

Except for the amount determined under paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), amounts added to 1988–89 district base revenue limits by this section shall not be used when calculating 1989–90 cost-of-living adjustments for the base revenue limits of affected districts.

SEC. 9. Section 54060.7 is added to the Education Code, to read:

54060.7. For the 1989–90 fiscal year, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall do all of the following for each school district that received Meade aid pursuant to Section 54061 in the 1987–88 fiscal year:

(a) Determine, for each district, the sum of the following:

(1) The number of units of average daily attendance computed for the 1988–89 fiscal year pursuant to Section 42238.5.

(2) The number of units of average daily attendance that would have been generated in 1988–89 by pupils attending necessary small schools funded pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 42280) of Chapter 7 of Part 24.

(b) Divide the apportionment received by each district pursuant to Section 54061 in the 1987–88 fiscal year by the respective district's sum of average daily attendance determined pursuant to subdivision (a) and add each district's quotient to that district's 1988–89 base revenue limit per pupil in average daily attendance, calculated pursuant to Section 42238. The adjustment of per pupil revenue limits required by this subdivision shall be made prior to multiplication of per pupil revenue limits by the 1989–90 average daily attendance and prior to calculating base revenue limit cost-of-living adjustments for the 1989–90 fiscal year.

SEC. 10. Section 85 of Chapter 323 of the Statutes of 1976 is repealed.

SEC. 11. Regardless of the time this act becomes effective, it is the intent of the Legislature to make changes in state apportionments to school districts for the entire 1988–89 fiscal year. For the purpose of implementing the changes required by Sections 1, 2, and 3, and Sections 5 to 11, inclusive, of this act, the Superintendent of Public Instruction and other public officers shall take all necessary steps to effect the required adjustments, including the authority to adjust allowance computations, apportionments, and disbursements ordered from the State School Fund and other public funds.

SEC. 12. All provisions of the federal model contractors accreditation plan (40 C.F.R. Appendix C, Subpart E, Part 763), as it became effective June 1, 1987, are hereby adopted as the contractor accreditation plan of this state, and are hereby incorporated in Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 49400) of Part 27 of the Education Code as though set forth in full therein. Any person who seeks accreditation, in addition to complying with that state plan, shall register with the Office of Local Assistance.

SEC. 13. Section 4 of this act shall become operative June 30, 1991.

SEC. 14. The sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Allocation Board for apportionment to the San Francisco Unified School District for the purposes of a loan to assist the district with asbestos abatement projects in its schools.

The school district shall receive the loan in the amount of one million dollars ($1,000,000) per fiscal year for five years commencing with the 1988–89 fiscal year. The district shall repay the state over a period of 10 years, commencing with the 1993–94 fiscal year, in 10 equal installments on the principal with interest calculated at the rate of the state's return on investments in the Pooled Money Investment Account.

CHAPTER 1602

An act to amend Sections 7850 and 7852.3 of, and to add Section 7861.1 to, the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish and game, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds that commercial fishing vessels, during times of fishing activities or in preparation for fishing activities or in the process of discharging fish, may have persons on board, including family members, observers, technicians, mechanics, wardens, or agency representatives, who do not engage in the fishing activities or assist in the fishing activities while on board the vessel and who are not paid a share of the proceedings from the catch of the vessel. The Legislature declares that it is proper and lawful for those individuals, who are not engaged in or assisting fishing activities on board that vessel or paid shares from the vessel's catch proceeds for any activity while aboard a fishing vessel, to be aboard the vessel without possessing or having purchased a commercial fishing license.

SEC. 2. Section 7850 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

7850. (a) Excepting persons expressly exempted under this code, no person shall use or operate, or assist in using or operating, any boat, net, trap, line, or other appliance to take fish or amphibia for commercial purposes, and no person shall cause to be brought ashore, any fish or amphibia at any point in the state for the purpose of selling them in a fresh state or shall contribute materially to the activities on board the commercial fishing vessel, unless the person holds a commercial fishing license issued by the department.

(b) Any person not required under subdivision (a) to hold a commercial fishing license shall register his or her presence on board the commercial fishing vessel in a log maintained by the owner or operator of the vessel according to the requirements of the department.

(c) As used in this section, "person" does not include persons who are less than 16 years of age, a partnership, corporation, or association. Any person, partnership, corporation, or association may pay the fees for a license issued to any person.

(d) This article does not apply to the taking, transporting, or selling of live freshwater fish for bait by the holder of a live freshwater bait fish license issued pursuant to Section 8460.

SEC. 3. Section 7852.3 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

7852.3. (a) The department shall issue a commercial fishing license to a person who is 16 years of age or more but less than 18 years of age who is actively assisting in fishing activities for a fee of one-half of the fee prescribed in subdivision (b) of Section 7852.

(b) The department shall issue a commercial fishing salmon stamp to a person who is 16 years of age or more but less than 18 years of age for one-half of the fee prescribed in subdivision (c) of Section

(c) Nothing in this section affects other provisions of law relating to employment of minors.

SEC. 4. Section 7861.1 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

7861.1. The Commercial Salmon Stamp Account in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund shall not be charged administrative overhead costs exceeding 3.3 percent of the annual expenditures from the account. Interest derived from the account shall be deposited in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund to help defray ongoing operational costs of the department.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide correction to allocations of the Department of Fish and Game overhead expenses and to provide for lawful observer presence on commercial fishing vessels, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1603

An act to add and repeal Section 1203.016 of the Penal Code, relating to sentencing.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Mojonnier-Ayala Electronic Home Detention Act of 1988.

SEC. 2. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that jail overcrowding continues to pose critical fiscal, operational, and safety issues for counties in the state. The Legislature further finds that there are few short-term solutions to this chronic overcrowding, and that assistance through major construction projects is a long-term process. In recognition of this problem, there is a need to provide for safe, alternative, confinement options for low-risk inmates. Electronic home detention programs can offer one safe and effective alternative. Under Section 1203.015 of the Penal Code, several jurisdictions have adopted home detention programs. The Legislature hereby recognizes that changes in current law are required to ensure the uniformly consistent, safe, and responsible operation of these programs.

It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to establish new provisions of law which will authorize, guide, and encourage the establishment of electronic home detention programs to be administered and operated by counties which will provide necessary protections to local communities, maintain judicial confidence, and result in successful and cost-effective participation by offenders.

SEC. 3. Section 1203.016 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1203.016. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, the board of supervisors of any county may authorize the correctional administrator, as defined in subdivision (h), to offer a program under which minimum security inmates and low-risk offenders committed to a county jail or other county correctional facility or inmates participating in a work furlough program may voluntarily participate in a home detention program during their sentence in lieu of confinement in the county jail or other county correctional facility.

(b) The board of supervisors may prescribe reasonable rules and regulations under which a home detention program may operate. As a condition of participation in the home detention program, the inmate shall give his or her consent in writing to participate in the home detention program and shall in writing agree to comply with the rules and regulations of the program, including, but not limited to, the following rules:

(1) The participant shall remain within the interior premises of his or her residence during the hours designated by the correctional administrator.

(2) The participant shall admit any person or agent designated by the correctional administrator into his or her residence at any time for purposes of verifying the participant's compliance with the conditions of his or her detention.

(3) The participant shall agree to the use of electronic monitoring or supervising devices for the purpose of helping to verify his or her compliance with the rules and regulations of the home detention program. The devices shall not be used to eavesdrop or record any conversation, except a conversation between the participant and the person supervising the participant which is to be used solely for the purposes of voice identification.

(4) The participant shall agree that the correctional administrator in charge of the county correctional facility from which the participant was released may, without further order of the court, immediately retake the person into custody to serve the balance of his or her sentence if the electronic monitoring or supervising devices are unable for any reason to properly perform their function at the designated place of home detention or if the person fails to remain within the place of home detention as stipulated in the agreement or for any other reason no longer meets the established criteria for release under this section. A copy of the agreement shall be delivered to the participant and a copy retained by the correctional administrator.

(c) Whenever the peace officer supervising a participant has reasonable cause to believe that the participant is not complying with the rules or conditions of the program, or that the electronic monitoring devices are unable to function properly in the designated place of confinement, the peace officer may, under general or specific authorization of the correctional administrator, and without a warrant of arrest, retake the person into custody to complete the remainder of the original sentence.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the correctional administrator to allow a person to participate in this program if it appears from the record that the person has not satisfactorily complied with reasonable rules and regulations while in custody. A person shall be eligible for participation in a home detention program only if the correctional administrator concludes that the person meets the criteria for release established under this section.

(e) The correctional administrator may permit home detention program participants to seek and retain employment in the community, attend psychological counseling sessions or educational or vocational training classes, or seek medical and dental assistance.

(f) At the time of sentencing or at any time that the court deems it necessary, the court may restrict or deny the defendant's participation in a home detention program.

(g) The board of supervisors may prescribe a program administrative fee, not to exceed the pro rata cost of the electronic monitoring or supervising device and the cost of administration of the program, to be paid by each home detention participant according to his or her ability to pay. Inability to pay shall not preclude participation in the program.

(h) As used in this section, the following words used in this section have the following meanings:

(1) "Correctional administrator" means the sheriff, probation officer, or other official in charge of a county correctional facility or work furlough program.

(2) "Minimum security inmate" means an inmate who, by established local classification criteria, would be eligible for placement in a Type IV local detention facility, as described in Title 15 of the California Code of Regulations, or for placement into the community for work or school activities, or who is determined to be a minimum security risk under a classification plan developed pursuant to Section 1050 of Title 15 of the California Code of Regulations.

(3) "Low-risk offender" means a probationer, as defined by the National Institute of Corrections model probation system.

(i) The Board of Corrections shall monitor home detention programs operated pursuant to this section and shall report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1992, regarding their effectiveness. The report shall include an evaluation of the costs of the programs, the impact upon jail overcrowding, and the effect upon the safety of the public.

(j) This section shall remain operative only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed.

CHAPTER 1604

An act to amend Sections 25539.4 and 37364 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 33080.4, 33080.6, 33333.4, 33334.3, 33334.6, and 33413 of, and to add Sections 33418 and 33501.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25539.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

25539.4. (a) The Legislature recognizes that real property of counties can be utilized, in accordance with a county's best interests, to provide housing affordable to persons or families of low or moderate income. Therefore, notwithstanding any other provision of law, whenever the board of supervisors determines that any real property or interest therein owned, or to be purchased, by the county can be used to provide housing affordable to persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined by Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code or as defined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development or its successors, and that this use is in the county's best interests, the county may sell, lease, exchange, quitclaim, convey, or otherwise dispose of the real property or interest therein at less than fair market value, or purchase an interest in the real property, to provide that affordable housing without complying with other provisions of this article.

(b) Not less than 80 percent of the area of any parcel of property disposed of pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be used for the development of housing.

(c) Not less than 40 percent of the total number of those housing units developed on any parcel pursuant to this section shall be affordable to households whose incomes are equal to or less than 75 percent of the maximum income of lower income households, and at least half of which shall be affordable to very low income households.

(d) Dwelling units produced for persons and families of low or moderate income under this section shall be restricted by regulatory agreement to remain continually affordable to those persons and families for the longest feasible time, but not less than 30 years, pursuant to a method prescribed by the county.

(e) The regulatory agreement shall contain a provision making the covenants and conditions of the agreement binding upon successors in interest of the housing sponsor. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the housing development is located. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the grantor-grantee index to the name of the property owner as grantor and to the name of the county as grantee.

(f) The definitions of "persons and families of low and moderate income," "lower income households," and "very low income households" set forth in Sections 50079.5, 50093, and 50105 of the Health and Safety Code shall apply to this section.

SEC. 2. Section 37364 of the Government Code is amended to read:

37364. (a) The Legislature reaffirms its finding that the provision of housing for all Californians is a concern of vital statewide importance. The Legislature recognizes that real property of cities can be utilized, in accordance with a city's best interests, to provide housing affordable to persons and families of low or moderate income. Therefore, notwithstanding any provision of a city's charter, or any other provision of law, whenever the legislative body of a city determines that any real property or interest therein owned or to be purchased by the city can be used to provide housing affordable to persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined by Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code or as defined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development or its successors, and that this use is in the city's best interests, the city may sell, lease, exchange, quitclaim, convey, or otherwise dispose of the real property or interest therein at less than fair market value, or purchase an interest in the real property, to provide that affordable housing under whatever terms and conditions the city deems best suited to the provision of such housing.

(b) Not less than 80 percent of the area of any parcel of property disposed of pursuant to this section shall be used for development of housing.

(c) Not less than 40 percent of the total number of those housing units developed on any parcel pursuant to this section shall be affordable to households whose incomes are equal to, or less than, 75 percent of the maximum income of lower income households, and at least half of which shall be affordable to very low income households.

(d) Dwelling units produced for persons and families of low or moderate income under this section shall be restricted by regulatory agreement to remain continually affordable to those persons and families for the longest feasible time, but not less than 30 years, pursuant to a method prescribed by the city. The regulatory agreement shall contain a provision making the covenants and conditions of the agreement binding upon successors in interest of the housing sponsor. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the housing development is located. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the grantor-grantee index to the name of the property owner as grantor and to the name of the city as grantee.

(e) The provisions of this section shall apply to all cities, including charter cities.

(f) The definitions of "persons and families of low and moderate income," "lower income households," and "very low income households" set forth in Sections 50079, 50093, and 50105 of the Health and Safety Code shall apply to this section.

SEC. 2.5. Section 33080.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33080.6. On or before April 1 of each year, the department shall compile and publish reports of the activities of redevelopment agencies for the previous fiscal year, based on the information reported pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 33080.1 and reporting the types of findings made by agencies pursuant to paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 33334.2, including the date of the findings. The department's compilation shall also report on the project area mergers reported pursuant to Section 33488. The department shall publish this information for each project area of each redevelopment agency. These reports may also contain the biennial review of relocation assistance required by Section 50460. The first report published pursuant to this section shall be for the 1984–85 fiscal year. For fiscal year 1987–88 and succeeding fiscal years, the report shall contain a list of those project areas which are not subject to the requirements of Section 33413.

The department shall send a copy of its report to each redevelopment agency for which information was reported pursuant to Section 33080.1 for the fiscal year covered by the report.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 33080.4 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 1111 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

33080.4. For the purposes of compliance with subdivision (c) of Section 33080.1, the description of the agency's activities shall contain the following information regardless of whether each activity is funded exclusively by the state or federal government, for each project area and for the agency overall:

(a) Pursuant to Section 33413, the total number of family and elderly households, including separate subtotals of the numbers of households for persons and families of low or moderate income and very low income households, that were displaced or moved from their dwelling units as part of a redevelopment project of the agency during the previous fiscal year.

(b) Pursuant to Section 33413.5, the total number of family and elderly households, including separate subtotals of the numbers of households for persons and families of low or moderate income and very low income households, that the agency estimates will be displaced or will move from their dwellings as part of a redevelopment project of the agency during the present fiscal year and the date of adoption of a replacement housing plan for each project area subject to Section 33413.5.

(c) The total number of dwelling units housing persons and families of low and moderate income and very low income households, respectively, which have been destroyed or removed from the low- or moderate-income housing market during the previous fiscal year as part of a redevelopment project of the agency, specifying the number of those units which are not subject to Section 33413.

(d) The total numbers of agency-assisted dwelling units which were constructed, rehabilitated, acquired, or subsidized during the previous fiscal year for occupancy at an affordable housing cost by elderly persons and families, but only if the units are restricted by agreement or ordinance for occupancy by the elderly, and by persons and families of low or moderate income and very low income households, respectively, specifying those units which are not currently so occupied, those units which have replaced units destroyed or removed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 33413, and the length of time any agency-assisted units are required to remain available at affordable costs.

(e) The total numbers of new or rehabilitated units subject to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 33413, including separate subtotals of the number originally affordable to and currently occupied by, elderly persons and families, but only if the units are restricted by agreement or ordinance for occupancy by the elderly, and by persons and families of low or moderate income and very low income households, respectively, and the length of time these units are required to remain available at affordable costs.

(f) The status and use of the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund created pursuant to Section 33334.3, including information on the use of this fund for very low income households, lower income households, and persons and families of low or moderate income, respectively. If the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund is used to subsidize the cost of onsite or offsite improvements, then the description of the agency's activities shall include the number of housing units affordable to persons and families of low or moderate income which have been directly benefited by the onsite or offsite improvements.

(g) A compilation of the annual reports obtained by the agency under Section 33418 including identification of the number of units occupied by persons and families of low or moderate income, lower income households, and very low income households, respectively, as those terms are defined in Division 31 (commencing with Section 50000), and identification of projects in violation of law or any agreements in relation to affordable units.

(h) Any other information which the agency believes useful to explain its housing programs, including, but not limited to, housing for persons and families of other than low and moderate income.

"Elderly," as used in this section, has the same meaning as specified in Section 50067.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 33333.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33333.4. (a) Every legislative body which adopted a final redevelopment plan prior to October 1, 1976, that contains the provisions set forth in Section 33670 but which does not contain all of the limitations required by Section 33333.2, shall adopt an ordinance on or before December 31, 1986, which contains all of the following:

(1) A limitation on the number of dollars of taxes which may be divided and allocated to the redevelopment agency pursuant to the plan. Taxes shall not be divided and shall not be allocated to the redevelopment agency beyond that limitation.

(2) A time limit on the establishing of loans, advances, and indebtedness to finance in whole, or in part, the redevelopment project. No loans, advances, or indebtedness to be repaid from the allocation of taxes shall be established or incurred by the agency beyond the time limitation.

(3) A time limit, not to exceed 12 years, for commencement of eminent domain proceedings to acquire property within the project area.

(b) The limitations established in the ordinance adopted pursuant to this section shall apply to the redevelopment plan as if the redevelopment plan had been amended to include those limitations. However, in adopting the ordinance, neither the legislative body nor the agency is required to comply with Article 12 (commencing with Section 33450) or any other provision of this part relating to the amendment of redevelopment plans.

(c) The limitations established in the ordinance adopted pursuant to this section shall not be applied to limit allocation of taxes to an agency to the extent required to eliminate project deficits created under subdivision (g) of Section 33334.6 in accordance with the plan adopted pursuant thereto for the purpose of eliminating the deficit. In the event of a conflict between these limitations and the obligations under Section 33334.6, the agency shall amend the ordinance adopted pursuant to this section to modify the limitations to the extent necessary to permit compliance with the plan adopted pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 33334.6 and to allow full expenditure of moneys in the agency's Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund in accordance with Section 33334.3. The procedure for amending the ordinance pursuant to this subdivision shall be the same as for adopting the ordinance under subdivision (b).

(d) This section shall not be construed to allow the impairment of any obligation or indebtedness incurred by the legislative body or the agency pursuant to this part.

(e) In any litigation to challenge or attack any ordinance adopted pursuant to this section, the court shall sustain the actions of the legislative body and the agency unless the court finds those actions were arbitrary or capricious. The Legislature finds and declares that this is necessary because redevelopment agencies with project areas established prior to October 1, 1976, have incurred existing obligations and indebtedness and have adopted projects, programs, and activities with the authority to receive and pledge the entire allocation of taxes authorized by Section 33670 and that it is necessary to protect against the possible impairment of existing obligations and indebtedness and to allow the completion of adopted projects and programs.

(f) The ordinance adopted by the legislative body in compliance with this section does not relieve any agency of its obligations under Section 33334.2, 33334.3, Article 9 (commencing with Section 33410), or any other requirement contained in this part.

SEC. 4.2. Section 33334.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33334.3. (a) The funds which are required by Section 33334.2 or 33334.6 to be used for the purposes of increasing and improving the community's supply of low- and moderate-income housing shall be held in a separate Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund until used.

(b) Any interest earned by the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund shall accrue to the fund and may only be used in the manner prescribed in Section 33334.2.

(c) The moneys in the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund shall be used to increase and improve the supply of low- and moderate-income housing within the territorial jurisdiction of the agency.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund be used to the maximum extent possible to defray the costs of production and improvement of low- and moderate-income housing and that the amount of money spent for planning and general administrative activities associated with the development or improvement of that housing not be disproportionate to the amount actually spent for the costs of production and improvement of that housing.

(e) The requirements of this subdivision apply to all new or substantially rehabilitated housing units developed or otherwise assisted, with moneys from the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund, pursuant to an agreement approved by an agency on or after January 1, 1988. Except to the extent a longer period of time may be required by other provisions of law, the agency shall require that housing units subject to this subdivision shall remain available at affordable housing costs to persons and families of low or moderate income and very low income households for the longest feasible time, but for not less than the following periods of time, except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (j) of Section 33334.2:

(1) Fifteen years for rental units. However, the agency may replace rental units with equally affordable and comparable rental units in another location within the community if (A) the replacement units are available for occupancy prior to the displacement of any persons and families of low or moderate income residing in the units to be replaced and (B) the comparable replacement units are not developed with moneys from the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund.

(2) Ten years for owner-occupied units. However, the agency may permit sales of owner-occupied units prior to the expiration of the 10-year period for a price in excess of that otherwise permitted under this subdivision pursuant to an adopted program which protects the agency's investment of moneys from the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund, including, but not limited to, an equity sharing program which establishes a schedule of equity sharing that permits retention by the seller of a portion of those excess proceeds based on the length of occupancy. The remainder of the excess proceeds of the sale shall be allocated to the agency and deposited in the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund.

The agency shall require the recording in the office of the county recorder of covenants or restrictions implementing this subdivision for each parcel or unit of real property subject to this subdivision. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the covenants or restrictions shall run with the land and shall be enforceable, against the original owner and successors in interest, by the agency or the community.

(f) "Housing," as used in this section, includes residential hotels, as defined in subdivision (k) of Section 37912. The definitions of "lower income households" and "very low income households" in Sections 50079.5 and 50105 shall apply to this section. "Longest feasible time," as used in this section, includes, but is not limited to, unlimited duration.

SEC. 4.3. Section 33334.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33334.3. (a) The funds which are required by Section 33334.2 or 33334.6 to be used for the purposes of increasing and improving the community's supply of low- and moderate-income housing or for provision of child-care facilities shall be held in a separate Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund until used.

(b) Any interest earned by the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund shall accrue to the fund and may only be used in the manner prescribed in Section 33334.2.

(c) The moneys in the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund shall be used to increase and improve the supply of low- and moderate-income housing, and for provision of child-care facilities, within the territorial jurisdiction of the agency.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund be used to the maximum extent possible to defray the costs of production and improvement of low- and moderate-income housing and for provision of child care facilities and that the amount of money spent for planning and general administrative activities associated with the development or improvement of that housing not be disproportionate to the amount actually spent for the costs of production and improvement of that housing.

(e) The requirements of this subdivision apply to all new or substantially rehabilitated housing units developed or otherwise assisted, with moneys from the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund, pursuant to an agreement approved by an agency on or after January 1, 1988. Except to the extent a longer period of time may be required by other provisions of law, the agency shall require that housing units subject to this subdivision shall remain available at affordable housing costs to persons and families of low or moderate income and very low income households for the longest feasible time, but for not less than the following periods of time, except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (j) of Section 33334.2:

(1) Fifteen years for rental units. However, the agency may replace rental units with equally affordable and comparable rental units in another location within the community if (A) the replacement units are available for occupancy prior to the displacement of any persons and families of low or moderate income residing in the units to be replaced and (B) the comparable replacement units are not developed with moneys from the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund.

(2) Ten years for owner-occupied units. However, the agency may permit sales of owner-occupied units prior to the expiration of the 10-year period for a price in excess of that otherwise permitted under this subdivision pursuant to an adopted program which protects the agency's investment of moneys from the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund, including, but not limited to, an equity sharing program which establishes a schedule of equity sharing that permits retention by the seller of a portion of those excess proceeds based on the length of occupancy. The remainder of the excess proceeds of the sale shall be allocated to the agency and deposited in the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund.

The agency shall require the recording in the office of the county recorder of covenants or restrictions implementing this subdivision for each parcel or unit of real property subject to this subdivision. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the covenants or restrictions shall run with the land and shall be enforceable, against the original owner and successors in interest, by the agency or the community.

(f) "Housing," as used in this section, includes residential hotels, as defined in subdivision (k) of Section 37912. The definitions of "lower income households" and "very low income households" in Sections 50079.5 and 50105 shall apply to this section. "Longest feasible time," as used in this section, includes, but is not limited to, unlimited duration.

SEC. 4.5. Section 33334.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33334.6. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the provision of housing is itself a fundamental purpose of the Community Redevelopment Law and that a generally inadequate statewide supply of decent, safe, and sanitary housing affordable to persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined by Section 50093, threatens the accomplishment of the primary purposes of the Community Redevelopment Law, including job creation, attracting new private investments, and creating physical, economic, social, and environmental conditions to remove and prevent the recurrence of blight. The Legislature further finds and declares that the provision and improvement of affordable housing, as provided by Section 33334.2, outside of redevelopment project areas can be of direct benefit to those projects in assisting the accomplishment of project objectives whether or not those redevelopment projects provide for housing within the project area. The Legislature finds and determines that the provision of affordable housing by redevelopment agencies and the use of taxes allocated to the agency pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33670 is of statewide benefit and of particular benefit and assistance to all local governmental agencies in the areas where the housing is provided.

(b) This section is applicable to all project areas, or portions of project areas, which are not subject to Section 33334.2, except that a project area, or portion of a project area, for which a resolution was adopted pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 33334.2 is subject to this section. Project areas subject to this section which are merged prior to, or on or after, January 1, 1986, are subject to the requirements of both this section and Section 33487. The deposit of taxes into the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund in compliance with either this section or Section 33487 shall satisfy the requirements of both sections in the year those taxes are deposited.

(c) Except as otherwise permitted by subdivisions (d) and (e), not less than 20 percent of the taxes allocated to the agency pursuant to Section 33670 from project areas specified in subdivision (b) for the 1985–86 fiscal year and each succeeding fiscal year shall be deposited into the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund established pursuant to Section 33334.3 and used for the purposes set forth in Section 33334.2, unless the agency, by resolution, makes one of the findings described in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, of subdivision (a) of Section 33334.2. Subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 33334.2 apply if an agency makes any of those findings.

(d) In any fiscal year, the agency may deposit less than the amount required by subdivision (c) into the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund if the agency finds that the difference between the amount deposited and the amount required by subdivision (c) is necessary to make payments under existing obligations of amounts due or required to be committed, set aside, or reserved by the agency during that fiscal year and which are used by the agency for that purpose. For purposes of this section, "existing obligations" means the principal of, and interest on, loans, moneys advanced to, or indebtedness (whether funded, refunded, assumed, or otherwise) incurred by the agency to finance or refinance, in whole or in part, any redevelopment project existing on, and created prior to January 1, 1986, and contained on the statement of existing obligations adopted pursuant to subdivision (f). Obligations incurred on or after January 1, 1986, shall be deemed existing obligations for purposes of this section if the net proceeds are used to refinance existing obligations contained on the statement.

(e) In each fiscal year prior to July 1, 1996, the agency may deposit less than the amount required by subdivisions (c) and (d) into the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund if the agency finds that the deposit of less than the amount required by those subdivisions is necessary in order to provide for the orderly and timely completion of public and private projects, programs, or activities approved by the agency prior to January 1, 1986, which are contained on the statement of existing programs adopted pursuant to subdivision (f). Approval of these projects, programs, and activities means approval by the agency of written documents which demonstrate an intent to implement a specific project, program, or activity and is not limited to final approval of a specific project, program, or activity.

(f) Any agency which deposits less than the amount required by subdivision (c) into the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) shall adopt prior to September 1, 1986, by resolution, after a noticed public hearing, a statement of existing obligations or a statement of existing programs, or both.

(1) The agency shall prepare and submit the proposed statement to the legislative body and to the Department of Housing and Community Development prior to giving notice of the public hearing. Notice of the time and place of the public hearing shall be transmitted to the Department of Housing and Community Development at least 15 days prior to the public hearing and notice of the time and place of the public hearing shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the community once a week for at least two successive weeks prior to the public hearing. The legislative body shall maintain a record of the public hearing.

(2) A copy of the resolution adopted by the agency, together with any amendments to the statement of the agency, shall be transmitted to the Department of Housing and Community Development within 10 days following adoption of the resolution by the agency.

(3) A statement of existing obligations shall describe each existing obligation and, based upon the best available information, as determined by the agency, list the total amount of the existing obligation, the annual payments required to be made by the agency pursuant to the existing obligation, and the date the existing obligation will be discharged in full.

(4) A statement of existing programs shall list the specific public and private projects, programs, or activities approved prior to January 1, 1986, which are necessary for the orderly completion of the redevelopment plan as it existed on January 1, 1986. No project, program, or activity shall be included on the statement of existing programs unless written evidence of the existence and approval of the project, program, or activity prior to January 1, 1986, is attached to the statement of existing programs.

(g) If, pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e), the agency deposits less than 20 percent of the taxes allocated to the agency pursuant to Section 33670 in any fiscal year in the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund, the amount equal to the difference between 20 percent of the taxes allocated to the agency pursuant to Section 33670 for each affected project and the amount deposited that year shall constitute a deficit of the project. The agency shall adopt a plan to eliminate the deficit in subsequent years as determined by the agency.

(h) The obligations imposed by this section, including deficits, if any, created under this section, are hereby declared to be an indebtedness of the redevelopment project to which they relate, payable from taxes allocated to the agency pursuant to Section 33670, and shall constitute an indebtedness of the agency with respect to the redevelopment project until paid in full.

(i) In any litigation to challenge or attack a statement of existing obligations, the decision by the agency after the public hearing to include an existing obligation on the statement of existing obligations, or the decision by the agency after the public hearing to include a project, program, or activity on the statement of existing programs, the court shall uphold the action of the agency unless the court finds that the agency has abused its discretion. The Legislature finds and declares that this standard of review is necessary in order to protect against the possible impairment of existing obligations, programs, and activities because agencies with project areas adopted prior to January 1, 1977, have incurred existing obligations and have adopted projects, programs, and activities with the authority to receive and pledge the entire allocation of funds authorized by Section 33670.

SEC. 5. Section 33413 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33413. (a) Whenever dwelling units housing persons and families of low or moderate income are destroyed or removed from the low- and moderate-income housing market as part of a redevelopment project, the agency shall, within four years of the destruction or removal, rehabilitate, develop, or construct, or cause to be rehabilitated, developed, or constructed, for rental or sale to persons and families of low or moderate income, an equal number of replacement dwelling units at affordable housing cost within the territorial jurisdiction of the agency.

(b) (1) At least 30 percent of all new or rehabilitated dwelling units developed by an agency shall be available at affordable housing cost to persons and families of low or moderate income. Not less than 50 percent of the dwelling units required to be available at affordable housing cost to persons and families of low or moderate income shall be available at affordable housing cost to, and occupied by, very low income households.

(2) At least 15 percent of all new or rehabilitated dwelling units developed within the project area by public or private entities or persons other than the agency shall be available at affordable housing cost to persons and families of low or moderate income. Not less than 40 percent of the dwelling units required to be available at affordable housing cost to persons and families of low or moderate income shall be available at affordable housing cost to very low income households.

(3) The requirements of this subdivision shall apply independently of the requirements of subdivision (a) and in the aggregate to housing made available pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2), respectively, and not to each individual case of rehabilitation, development, or construction of dwelling units.

(c) The agency shall require that the aggregate number of replacement dwelling units and other dwelling units rehabilitated, developed, or constructed pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) remain available at affordable housing cost to persons and families of low income, moderate income, and very low income households, respectively, for the longest feasible time, as determined by the agency, but for not less than the period of the land use controls established in the redevelopment plan, except to the extent a longer period of time may be required by other provisions of law. If land on which those dwelling units are located is deleted from the project area, the agency shall continue to require that those units remain affordable as specified in the previous sentence. These requirements shall be made enforceable in the same manner as provided in subdivision (e) of Section 33334.3.

(d) (1) This section applies only to redevelopment projects for which a final redevelopment plan is adopted pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 33360) on or after January 1, 1976, and to areas which are added to a project area by amendment to a final redevelopment plan adopted on or after January 1, 1976. In addition, subdivision (a) shall apply to any other redevelopment project with respect to dwelling units destroyed or removed from the low- and moderate-income housing market on or after January 1, 1996, irrespective of the date of adoption of a final redevelopment plan or an amendment to a final redevelopment plan adding areas to a project area. Additionally, any agency may, by resolution, elect to make all or part of the requirements of this section applicable to any redevelopment project of the agency for which the final redevelopment plan was adopted prior to January 1, 1976.

(2) An agency may, by resolution, elect to require that whenever dwelling units housing persons or families of low or moderate income are destroyed or removed from the low- and moderate-income housing market as part of a redevelopment project, the agency shall replace each dwelling unit with up to two replacement dwelling units pursuant to subdivision (a).

(e) Except as otherwise authorized by law, this section does not authorize an agency to operate a rental housing development beyond the period reasonably necessary to sell or lease the housing development.

(f) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the agency may replace destroyed or removed dwelling units with a fewer number of replacement dwelling units if the replacement dwelling units meet both of the following criteria:

(1) The total number of bedrooms in the replacement dwelling units equal or exceed the number of bedrooms in the destroyed or removed units. Destroyed or removed units having one or no bedroom are deemed for this purpose to have one bedroom.

(2) The replacement units are affordable to the same income level of households as the destroyed or removed units.

SEC. 6. Section 33418 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33418. (a) An agency shall monitor, on an ongoing basis, any housing affordable to persons and families of low or moderate income developed or otherwise made available pursuant to any provisions of this part. As part of this monitoring, an agency shall require owners or managers of the housing to submit an annual report to the agency. The annual reports shall include for each rental unit the rental rate and the income and family size of the occupants, and for each owner-occupied unit whether there was a change in ownership from the prior year and, if so, the income and family size of the new owners. The income information required by this section shall be supplied by the tenant in a certified statement on a form provided by the agency.

(b) The data specified in subdivision (a) shall be obtained by the agency from owners and managers of the housing specified therein and current data shall be included in any reports required by law to be submitted to the Department of Housing and Community Development or the Controller. The information on income and family size that is required to be reported by the owner or manager shall be supplied by the tenant and shall be the only information on income or family size that the owner or manager shall be required to submit on his or her annual report to the agency.

(c) The agency shall adequately fund its monitoring activities as needed to insure compliance of applicable laws and agreements in relation to affordable units. For purposes of defraying the cost of complying with the requirements of this section and the changes in reporting requirements of Section 33080.4 enacted by the act enacting this section, an agency may establish and impose fees upon owners of properties monitored pursuant to this section.

SEC. 7. Section 33501.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33501.5. In any judicial action specified in Section 33501 in which the validity of actions of the agency under Section 33334.2, 33334.3, or 33334.6 are in issue, the party initiating the judicial action or otherwise challenging the validity of those actions of the agency shall serve a copy of the complaint or answer alleging that invalidity upon the Director of Housing and Community Development within 10 days after filing that complaint or answer with the court. The court may render no judgment in the matter or provide other permanent or provisional relief to any party until proof of service of the Director of Housing and Community Development pursuant to this section has been submitted to the court. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to expand the scope of Section 33501.

SEC. 8. The amendments made by Sections 1 and 2 of this act in subdivision (a) of Section 25539.4 and subdivision (a) of Section 37364 of the Government Code do not constitute a change in, but are declaratory of, the existing law and reflect the intent of the Legislature that these sections apply to all cases where cities or counties subsidize the development of housing through a direct financial contribution which involves a write-down of land costs.

SEC. 9. Section 4.3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 33334.3 of the Health and Safety code proposed by both this bill and AB 3358. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 33334.3 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3358, in which case Section 4.2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 10. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 1605

An act to add Section 53071.5 to the Government Code, and amend Sections 417, 417.2, and 12251 of, to add Section 12001.1 to, and to repeal Section 12550 of, the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53071.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53071.5. By the enforcement of this section, the Legislature occupies the whole field of regulation of the manufacture, sale, or possession of imitation firearms, as defined in Section 417.2 of the Penal Code, and that section shall preempt and be exclusive of all regulations relating to the manufacture, sale or possession of imitation firearms, including regulations governing the manufacture, sale or possession of BB guns and air rifles described in Section 12001.1 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 1.5. Section 417 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

417. (a) (1) Every person who, except in self-defense, in the presence of any other person, draws or exhibits any deadly weapon whatsoever, other than a firearm, in a rude, angry or threatening manner, or who in any manner, unlawfully uses the same in any fight or quarrel is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not less than 30 days.

(2) Every person who, except in self-defense, in the presence of any other person, draws or exhibits any firearm, whether loaded or unloaded, in a rude, angry, or threatening manner, or who in any manner, unlawfully uses the same in any fight or quarrel is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not less than three months.

(b) Every person who, in the immediate presence of a peace officer, draws or exhibits any firearm, whether loaded or unloaded, in a rude, angry or threatening manner, and who knows or reasonably should know that the victim is a peace officer engaged in the performance of his or her duties, and that peace officer is engaged in the performance of his or her duties is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not less than nine months and not to exceed one year, or in the state prison.

As used in this section, "peace officers" refers to any person designated as a peace officer by Section 830.1, Section 830.2, subdivision (a) of Section 830.3, or Section 830.5.

SEC. 2. Section 417.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

417.2. (a) Every person who, except in self-defense, draws or exhibits a replica of a firearm in a threatening manner against another in such a way as to cause a reasonable person apprehension or fear of bodily harm is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not less than 30 days. As used in this subdivision, "a replica of a firearm" means any device with the apparent capability of expelling a projectile by the force of air or an explosion and which is reasonably perceived by the person against whom the device is drawn or exhibited to be an actual firearm, including starter pistols and air guns.

(b) Commencing January 1, 1989, any person who sells, manufactures, or distributes an imitation firearm in violation of this section shall be liable for a civil fine in an action brought by the city attorney of the city or the district attorney of the county of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each violation.

As used in this section, "imitation firearm" means a replica of a firearm which is so substantially similar in physical properties to an existing firearm as to lead a reasonable person to conclude that the replica is a firearm.

The manufacture, sale, or distribution of imitation firearms is permitted if the device is manufactured, sold, or distributed (1) solely for export in interstate or foreign commerce, (2) solely for lawful use in theatrical productions, including motion picture, television, and stage productions, (3) for use in a certified or regulated athletic event or competition, (4) for use in military or civil defense activities, or (5) for public displays authorized by public or private schools.

(c) As used in this section, "imitation firearm" does not include (1) a nonfiring collector's replica of an antique firearm which was designed prior to 1898, is historically significant, and is offered for sale in conjunction with a wall plaque or presentation case; or (2) a nonfiring collector's replica of a firearm which was designed after 1898, is historically significant, was issued as a commemorative by a nonprofit organization, and is offered for sale in conjunction with a wall plaque or presentation case.

SEC. 3. Section 12001.1 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

12001.1. Except for the purposes of Sections 12021, 12025, 12031, 12072, and 12073, as used in this title the term "firearm" shall also include any instrument which expels a metallic projectile, such as a BB or a pellet, through the force of air pressure, $CO_2$ pressure, or spring action or any spot marker gun, provided, that no instrument described in this section shall be considered a "pistol," "revolver," or "firearm capable of being concealed upon the person" for any purpose.

SEC. 4. Section 12550 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 12551 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12551. Every person who sells to a minor any firearm is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1606

An act to amend Sections 202 and 203 of, and to add Section 214.05 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 202 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

202. (a) The exemption of the following property is as specified in subdivisions (a), (b), (d), and (h) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution, except as otherwise provided in subdivision (a) of Section 11 thereof:

(1) Growing crops.

(2) Property used for free public libraries and free museums.

(3) Property used exclusively for public schools, community colleges, state colleges, and state universities, including the University of California.

(4) Property belonging to this state, a county, or a city. Property belonging to the State Compensation Insurance Fund is not property belonging to this state.

(b) The exemption described in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) shall apply to off-campus facilities owned or leased by an apprenticeship program sponsor, if such facilities are used exclusively by the public schools for classes of related and supplemental instruction for apprentices or trainees which are conducted by the public schools under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 3070) of Division 3 of the Labor Code.

(c) Without prejudice to the right to assert an exemption otherwise available under subdivision (a), (d), or (e) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution, a property tax under this division shall be imposed upon that portion of the bookstore property determined to be generating the unrelated business taxable income, as defined in Section 512 of the Internal Revenue Code, to the extent property is:

(1) Owned by an educational institution of collegiate grade or used by a nonprofit corporation operating a student bookstore affiliated with such an educational institution, and

(2) Is primarily devoted to bookstore use that produces income that is taxable as unrelated business taxable income.

This tax shall be determined by establishing a ratio of the unrelated business taxable income to the bookstore's gross income as defined by the Internal Revenue Code. That percent shall be the maximum percentage of such bookstore property on which a property tax can be levied.

At the end of a fiscal year when unrelated business income has been generated, the nonprofit organization shall file with the assessor copies of the organization's most recent tax return filed with the Internal Revenue Service.

SEC. 2. Section 203 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

203. (a) The college exemption is as specified in subdivision (e) of Section 3 and Section 5 of Article XIII of the California Constitution.

(b) An educational institution of collegiate grade is an institution incorporated as a college or seminary of learning, which requires for regular admission the completion of a four-year high school course or its equivalent, and confers upon its graduates at least one academic or professional degree, based on a course of at least two years in liberal arts and sciences, or on a course of at least three years in professional studies, such as law, theology, education, medicine, dentistry, engineering, veterinary medicine, pharmacy, architecture, fine arts, commerce, or journalism.

(c) An educational institution of collegiate grade is not conducted for profit when it is conducted exclusively for scientific or educational purposes and no part of its net income inures to the benefit of any private person.

(d) Without prejudice to the right to assert an exemption otherwise available under subdivision (a), (d), or (e) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution, a property tax under this division shall be imposed upon that portion of the bookstore property determined to be generating the unrelated business taxable income, as defined in Section 512 of the Internal Revenue Code, to the extent property is:

(1) Owned by an educational institution of collegiate grade or used by a nonprofit corporation operating a student bookstore affiliated with such an educational institution, and

(2) Is primarily devoted to bookstore use that produces income that is taxable as unrelated business taxable income.

This tax shall be determined by establishing a ratio of the unrelated business taxable income to the bookstore's gross income as defined by the Internal Revenue Code. That percent shall be the maximum percentage of such bookstore property on which a property tax can be levied.

At the end of a fiscal year when unrelated business income has been generated, the nonprofit organization shall file with the assessor copies of the organization's most recent tax return filed with the Internal Revenue Service.

SEC. 3. Section 214.05 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

214.05. For purposes of Section 214:

(a) If the property of an organization is granted an exemption pursuant to Section 214, that property is deemed to be used exclusively for the organization's exempt purposes. However, to the extent that income derived from the organization's use of the property is unrelated business taxable income, as defined in Section 512 of the Internal Revenue Code, and the regulations implementing that section, and is subject to the tax on unrelated business taxable income which is imposed by Section 511 of the Internal Revenue Code, the property shall be exempt from taxation under Section 214 only to the extent provided in subdivision (b) or (c).

(b) (1) If the use of property which has qualified for the welfare exemption under Section 214 involves activities of the organization, some of which produce income that is exempt from income or franchise taxation and some of which produce income that is taxable as unrelated business taxable income, and those activities are attributable to a reasonably ascertainable portion of the entire property, that portion of the property shall be entitled only to a partial exemption from property taxation equal to that proportion of the total value of the portion of the property which the amount of income of the organization that is exempt from income or franchise taxation and that is attributable to that portion bears to the total amount of income of the organization that is attributable to that portion. The remaining proportion of the total value of that portion of the property shall be subject to taxation pursuant to this division.

(2) If the use of property which has qualified for the welfare exemption under Section 214 involves activities of the organization, some of which are exempt for property tax purposes and produce no income and some of which produce income that is taxable as unrelated business taxable income, or produce both income that is taxable as unrelated business taxable income and income that is exempt from income or franchise taxation and those activities are attributable to a reasonably ascertainable portion of the entire property, that portion of the property shall be entitled only to a partial exemption equal to that proportion of the total value of the portion of the property which the amount of time actually devoted to those exempt nonincome-producing activities of the organization attributable to that portion bears to the total amount of time actually devoted to all of the activities of the organization attributable to that portion. The remaining proportion of the total value of that portion of the property shall be subject to taxation pursuant to this division.

(3) If the activities described in paragraphs (1) and (2) cannot be attributed to a reasonably ascertainable portion of the entire property, the entire property shall be entitled only to a partial exemption. In the case of activities of the organization described in paragraph (1), the partial exemption shall be equal to that proportion of the value of the entire property which the amount of income of the organization that is exempt from income or franchise taxation and that is attributable to the entire property bears to the total amount of income of the organization that is attributable to the entire property. In the case of activities of the organization described in paragraph (2), the partial exemption shall be equal to that proportion of the value of the entire property which the amount of time actually devoted to exempt nonincome-producing activities of the organization attributable to the entire property bears to the total amount of time actually devoted to all of the activities of the organization attributable to the entire property. In either case, the remaining proportion of the total value of the entire property shall be subject to taxation pursuant to this division.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), if more than 75 percent of the income of an organization is attributable to property which has qualified for the welfare exemption under Section 214, but is not specifically related to the organization's use of particular property, the property shall be entitled only to a partial exemption equal to that proportion of the total value of the property which the amount of the income of the organization attributable to activities in this state and exempt from income or franchise taxation bears to the amount of total income of the organization that is attributable to activities in this state.

(d) Whenever property is claimed exempt under Section 214 and activities of the organization on the property produce unrelated business taxable income, as defined in Section 512 of the Internal Revenue Code, the organization, as a part of its claim for exemption, shall file with the assessor each of the following:

(1) The organization's information and tax returns filed with the Internal Revenue Service for its immediately preceding fiscal year.

(2) Information indicating the amount of time devoted to its income-producing and its nonincome-producing activities and, where applicable, a description of that portion of the property in which those activities are conducted.

(3) A statement listing the specific activities which produce the unrelated business taxable income.

(4) Whenever subdivision (c) is applicable, the amount of income of the organization that is attributable to activities in this state and is exempt from income or franchise taxation and the amount of total income of the organization that is attributable to activities in this state.

(5) Any other information as prescribed by the board.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to enlarge the welfare exemption provided in Section 214.

SEC. 4. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding Section 2229 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the requirements of that section shall not apply to the exemption of property for purposes of ad valorem property taxation made by this act. In addition, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any property tax revenues lost by it pursuant to this act.

SEC. 7. This act shall apply to property taxes levied for the 1989–90 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter.

CHAPTER 1607

An act to amend Section 8610.5 of the Government Code, to amend Section 25400 of, to add Chapter 6.99 (commencing with Section 25572) to Division 20 of, and to repeal Article 4 (commencing with Section 25577) of Chapter 6.99 of Division 20 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to radiation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8610.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8610.5. The Office of Emergency Services, in consultation with the State Department of Health Services and affected counties, shall investigate the consequences of a serious nuclear powerplant accident for each of the four nuclear powerplants in California with a generating capacity of 50 megawatts or more. This study, to be completed within six months of the effective date of this section, shall include the preparation of specific site maps showing the areas likely to be affected by such an accident. These maps shall delineate Emergency Planning Zones, which shall reflect inhalation, ingestion, and other radiation pathways.

A similar study shall be made by the office for any subsequent nuclear powerplant with a generating capacity of 50 megawatts or more proposed for certification in California.

The Office of Emergency Services shall revise its Nuclear Power Plant Emergency Response Plan to reflect the information provided in the study. The Office of Emergency Services shall assist local authorities in preparing or upgrading their emergency response plans to reflect its new planning guidelines. The state plan shall be updated within six months after the study has been made. Local plans shall be updated and approved by the Office of Emergency Services in accordance with the following: (1) an initial draft plan shall be submitted to the office within six months after the study has been made, and (2) a final plan shall be completed, reviewed, and approved within 18 months after the effective date of this section. Neither the state plan nor any local plan shall become effective or be implemented until approved by the Office of Emergency Services of this state or the Federal Emergency Management Agency.

The current State Nuclear Power Plant Emergency Response Plan shall continue in full force and effect unless and until revised pursuant to this section. Local plans shall remain in full force and effect unless and until revised pursuant to this section.

It is the intent of the Legislature that state and local costs related to carrying out the provisions of this section which are not reimbursed by federal funds shall be borne by the utility with existing nuclear powerplants having a generating capacity of 50 megawatts or more. The Public Utilities Commission shall develop and transmit to the Office of Emergency Services an equitable method of assessing the utilities operating the powerplants for their reasonable pro rata share of state agency costs. Each local agency involved shall submit a statement of its costs in such manner as the Office of Emergency Services shall require. Upon each utility's notification by the Office of Emergency Services, from time to time, of the amount of its share of the actual or anticipated state and local agency costs, the utility shall pay such amount to the Controller for deposit in the Nuclear Planning Assessment Special Account, which is hereby created in the General Fund for use by the Controller, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to carry out this section, and, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to carry out the purposes of Chapter 6.99 (commencing with Section 25572) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code. The Controller shall pay from this account the state and local costs relative to carrying out the provisions of this section and Chapter 6.99 (commencing with Section 25572) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, upon certification thereof by the Office of Emergency Services. Each utility operating a nuclear powerplant shall, within one month of the effective date of this section, pay to the Controller for deposit into the Nuclear Planning Assessment Special Account the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each nuclear powerplant for the purpose of funding initial planning costs. Upon repeal of this section, any amounts remaining in the special account shall be refunded pro rata to the utilities contributing thereto. Commencing on the effective date of the amendment of this section during the 1988 portion of the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature, the total annual reimbursement of state costs from the utilities operating the nuclear powerplants within the state pursuant to this section shall not exceed the lesser of the actual costs or nine hundred thirty-seven thousand dollars ($937,000) annually to be shared equally among the utilities. Commencing on January 1, 1989, the total annual reimbursement of local costs from privately owned utilities shall not exceed the lesser of the actual costs or two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) per reactor unit annually and from publicly owned utilities shall not exceed the lesser of the actual costs or four hundred fifty thousand dollars ($450,000) per reactor unit annually. Of the nine hundred thirty-seven thousand dollars ($937,000) for state costs, three hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($375,000) are in support of an annual interagency agreement between the Office of Emergency Services and the State Department of Health Services for activities of the department pursuant to this section and Chapter 6.99 (commencing with Section 25572) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) are in support of the Office of Emergency Services for activities pursuant to this section, and two hundred sixty-two thousand dollars ($262,000) are in support of the Office of Emergency Services for activities pursuant to Chapter 6.99 (commencing with Section 25572) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code. Of the two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) per reactor unit annually for local costs, paid by privately owned utilities, up to one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) per reactor unit are in support of activities pursuant to this section and up to one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) per reactor unit are in support of local activities pursuant to Chapter 6.99 (commencing with Section 25572) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code. The amounts paid by privately owned utilities under this section shall be allowed for ratemaking purposes by the Public Utilities Commission. Publicly owned public utilities may include amounts paid under this section in their rates.

The amounts specified in this section shall be adjusted each fiscal year by the percentage increase in the California Consumer Price Index for the previous calendar year.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered on or before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 25400 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25400. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that a threat to the public health and safety exists wherever there is a discharge, spill, or presence of hazardous substances on public or private property; and that public entities, county public health directors, public safety employees, members of radiation emergency screening teams formed pursuant to Section 25574, persons authorized by a public entity, or registered sanitarian employees should be encouraged to abate those hazards, and to that end a qualified immunity from liability should be provided for public entities, county public health directors, public safety employees, members of radiation emergency screening teams formed pursuant to Section 25574, persons authorized by a public entity, or registered sanitarian employees.

(b) Except as provided in Article 1 (commencing with Section 17000) of Chapter 1 of Division 9 of the Vehicle Code, a public entity, county public health director, a public safety employee, a member of a radiation emergency screening team formed pursuant to Section 25574, a person authorized by a public entity, or a registered sanitarian employee shall not be liable for any injury caused by an action taken by a county public health director, a public safety employee, a member of a radiation emergency screening team formed pursuant to Section 25574, a person authorized by a public entity, or a registered sanitarian employee acting within the scope of employment to abate or attempt to abate hazards reasonably believed to be an imminent peril to public health and safety caused by the discharge, spill, or presence of a hazardous substance, unless the action taken was performed in bad faith or in a grossly negligent manner.

(c) For the purposes of this section, it shall be presumed that the action was performed in good faith and without gross negligence. This presumption shall be one affecting the burden of proof.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "hazardous substance" means a substance that presents a threat to the public because of its toxicity, radioactivity, flammability, or other characteristic dangerous to the public health or the environment.

(e) For the purposes of this section, a "registered sanitarian employee" means a person who is registered pursuant to Section 520 and who is a paid employee of a state or local public entity.

(f) It is not the intent of this section to impair any cause of action against the person, firm, or entity creating the spill, discharge, or presence of the hazardous material giving rise to the response of the public entity, county public health director, public safety employee, member of a radiation screening team formed pursuant to Section 25574, person authorized by a public entity, or registered sanitarian employee.

(g) The immunity for county public health directors or registered sanitarian employees provided by this section shall apply only where the person, at the request of a public entity or public safety employee in charge of scene management, provides emergency assistance or advice at the scene of the peril in mitigating or attempting to mitigate the effects of an actual or threatened discharge, spill, or presence of a hazardous substance on private or public property. The request issued by the scene manager shall be confirmed by that person in a written report of the incident.

SEC. 2.5. Section 25400 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25400. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that a threat to the public health and safety exists wherever there is a discharge, spill, or presence of hazardous substances on public or private property; and that public entities, county public health directors, public safety employees, members of radiation emergency screening teams formed pursuant to Section 25574, persons authorized by a public entity, or registered sanitarian employees should be encouraged to abate those hazards, and to that end a qualified immunity from liability should be provided for public entities, county public health directors, public safety employees, members of radiation emergency screening teams formed pursuant to Section 25574, persons authorized by a public entity, or registered sanitarian employees.

(b) Except as provided in Article 1 (commencing with Section 17000) of Chapter 1 of Division 9 of the Vehicle Code, a public entity, county public health director, a public safety employee, a member of a radiation emergency screening team formed pursuant to Section 25574, a person authorized by a public entity, or a registered sanitarian employee shall not be liable for any injury caused by an action taken by a county public health director, a public safety employee, a member of a radiation emergency screening team formed pursuant to Section 25574, a person authorized by a public entity, or a registered sanitarian employee acting within the scope of employment to abate or attempt to abate hazards reasonably believed to be an imminent peril to public health and safety caused by the discharge, spill, or presence of a hazardous substance, unless the action taken was performed in bad faith or in a grossly negligent manner.

(c) For the purposes of this section, it shall be presumed that the action was performed in good faith and without gross negligence. This presumption shall be one affecting the burden of proof.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "hazardous substance" means a substance that presents a threat to the public because of its toxicity, radioactivity, flammability, or other characteristic dangerous to the public health or the environment.

(e) For purposes of this section, "public safety employee" means any person who is a public entity employee and whose principal duties include law enforcement, fire protection, fire prevention, or the enforcement of regulations relating to facilities or sites where hazardous substances are stored or handled.

(f) For the purposes of this section, a "registered sanitarian employee" means a person who is registered pursuant to Section 520 and who is a paid employee of a state or local public entity.

(g) It is not the intent of this section to impair any cause of action against the person, firm, or entity creating the spill, discharge, or presence of the hazardous material giving rise to the response of the public entity, county public health director, public safety employee, member of a radiation screening team formed pursuant to Section 25574, person authorized by a public entity, or registered sanitarian employee.

(h) The immunity for county public health directors or registered sanitarian employees provided by this section shall apply only where the person, at the request of a public entity or public safety employee in charge of scene management, provides emergency assistance or advice at the scene of the peril in mitigating or attempting to mitigate the effects of an actual or threatened discharge, spill, or presence of a hazardous substance on private or public property. The request issued by the scene manager shall be confirmed by that person in a written report of the incident.

SEC. 3. The Task Force on California Nuclear Emergency Response was established by Senate Resolution 48 of 1986, to "formulate a report on the State of California's present medical and emergency response capacity in the event a major nuclear facility accident, including recommendations as to how the state might improve this capacity and limit damage from, or minimize exposure to, radiation in the event of such an accident."

In 1987, the task force reviewed emergency response plans for the state's nuclear power facilities, heard testimony at public hearings held near each of the state's three nuclear power facilities, and reviewed data emerging from the Chernobyl nuclear accident.

The task force recommendations are followed in the Radiation Protection Act of 1988, Chapter 6.99 (commencing with Section 25572) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, as enacted by Section 2 of this act.

SEC. 4. Chapter 6.99 (commencing with Section 25572) is added to Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6.99. THE RADIATION PROTECTION ACT OF 1988

Article 1. General Provisions

25572. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Radiation Protection Act of 1988.

25573. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Department" means the State Department of Health Services.

(b) "Office" means the Governor's Office of Emergency Services.

Article 2. Responsibilities of the Department

25574. The department shall do all of the following:

(a) Develop plans to implement additional communication systems, in addition to those in operation on January 1, 1989, which would allow the department to quickly disseminate public health information to local governments, physicians, the media, relevant state agencies, and any other entity likely to need this information in the recovery/reentry phase of a nuclear powerplant emergency.

(b) Develop executive order guidelines for, and establish, by June 30, 1989, a radiation emergency screening team. The guidelines for the team shall meet, but not be limited to, the following requirements:

(1) The team shall be available on immediate notice to travel to the scene of a major radiation accident.

(2) The team shall have the responsibility of assisting other emergency response agencies or persons, or both, in making decisions regarding initial patient management and casualty evacuation.

(3) The team shall be comprised of three persons.

(4) The team shall include individuals with expertise in medicine, radiation biology, radiation casualty management, emergency preparedness and disaster response, public health, and government organization and responsibilities.

(5) There shall be a designation of individuals who will serve as backup for members of the team who are unable to immediately respond to a radiation emergency.

(c) Develop, on or before June 30, 1989, guidelines for the designation of one or more medical facilities which would be capable of managing and caring for casualties caused by a nuclear powerplant accident. The facilities shall have the capability:

(1) To provide radiologic and microbiologic isolation, as prescribed by regulations adopted by the department for 10 to 25 casualties.

(2) For radioactivity measurements.

(3) To quickly mobilize and augment the treatment staff to care for a sudden influx of casualties.

(d) In developing the guidelines, incorporate input from other relevant groups or organizations, such as the California Conference of Local Health Officers, the California Medical Association, the California Association of Hospitals, and the University of California medical facilities.

(e) Consider in the guidelines geographic locations, and provide for expertise in hematology, burns, radiation biology, and critical and supportive care.

(f) Designate facilities, in accordance with the guidelines developed pursuant to subdivision (d), on or before December 31, 1989.

(g) The department shall establish an information catalogue of food, water, and animal resources for the 50-mile Ingestion Pathway Zone around the San Onofre, Diablo Canyon, and Rancho Seco nuclear generating stations. The department shall update the catalogue annually.

(h) The department shall establish Protective Action Guidelines for the Ingestion Pathway Zone, consistent with the recommendations of the International Commission on Radiation Protection and the National Council on Radiation Protection.

(i) The department shall establish measurement standards and procedures to assess radioactivity in food, water, and animals which are compatible with the Environmental Protection Agency's standards and procedures.

(j) The department shall be responsible for ensuring that ingestion pathway and recovery/reentry systems plans are developed and ready to be implemented, including necessary training, in coordination with affected counties and the Office of Emergency Services. The department shall update the plans when necessary.

25575. It is the intent of the Legislature to provide necessary funding for medical facilities designated by the department, in order to commence the planning necessary to enable each facility to be an effective receiving center for casualties from a nuclear powerplant accident.

Article 3. Responsibilities of Entities Providing Utilities

25576. Any public or private utility providing public utilities, which operates nuclear generating facilities, in respect to the emergency information booklets that the utilities distribute to residents within an Emergency Planning Zone (EPZ) established pursuant to Section 8610.5 of the Government Code, shall make the following additions to the materials, when these materials are revised, no later than December 31, 1989, and in each revision thereafter:

(a) A discussion of the reasons why a person should not do any of the following:

(1) Evacuate immediately upon hearing the nuclear emergency alert sirens.

(2) Call local police, fire, or sheriff offices during a nuclear emergency.

(3) Attempt to pickup children at school during a nuclear emergency.

(b) A tear-out/send-back form in the Emergency Planning Zone materials for physicians who wish to become better acquainted with the protective actions they should recommend to their patients during a nuclear powerplant emergency. Those physicians who send in the form shall be provided, by the utility, with more detailed information than provided to the general public, in the form of any existing pamphlets, booklets, or other relevant existing materials, or given the opportunity to participate in seminars on the subject, or both.

(c) A notice in the Public Education Zone materials which allows physicians to request similar information or given the opportunity to participate in seminars on the subject.

(d) A notice which advises the public that they may send comments on the emergency plan to the office, for consideration by the Citizens Advisory Committee on Nuclear Emergency Planning.

Article 4. Citizens Advisory Committee on Emergency Planning

25577. The Citizens Advisory Committee on Nuclear Emergency Planning is hereby established. The committee shall do all of the following:

(a) Assess whether emergency information materials convey information and recommendations that the public will be inclined to follow in an emergency.

(b) Solicit and receive, on a regular basis, public comment regarding the adequacy of nuclear powerplant emergency response plans.

(c) Assess the validity of assumptions in nuclear emergency response plans that are related to citizen response. For example, the committee shall assess whether it is a valid assumption that parents will not pick up their children from school during an emergency.

(d) Examine the feasibility of allowing citizen observation in nuclear emergency response exercises.

(e) Assess whether efforts should be made to provide nuclear powerplant emergency information materials to non-English-speaking populations within the zone.

(f) Assess the need for additional information for special response personnel, such as bus drivers and teachers.

(g) Commencing January 1, 1990, provide an annual report to the director of the office and any joint committee and Senate and Assembly policy committee with jurisdiction over emergency and disaster services with site-specific recommendations, consistent with this section, on how the emergency plans may be improved.

25578. (a) The committee shall have nine members, including the following:

(1) The Governor shall appoint one member who is an employee of a utility which operates a nuclear power facility, one member who is a certified health physicist with experience in radiation risk and communications, and one public member who resides in the San Onofre Emergency Planning Zone.

(2) The Senate Rules Committee shall appoint one member who is a physician and surgeon familiar with nuclear emergency procedures, one member who is an employee of a local government jurisdiction which participates in the development and implementation of nuclear emergency response plans, and one public member who resides in the Diablo Canyon Emergency Planning Zone.

(3) The Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint one member from a known environmental organization familiar with nuclear issues, one public member who resides in the Rancho Seco Emergency Planning Zone, and one member who is a licensed psychologist or psychiatrist in human behavior with at least a graduate degree in psychology.

(b) The committee shall not have the authority to prevent emergency planning materials from being distributed.

(c) The committee shall receive reimbursement from the state for expenses authorized in advance by the office.

(d) The office shall provide support staff to the committee.

25579. This article shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before December 31, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

Article 5. Local Jurisdictions

25581. The Interjurisdictional Planning Committee for the San Onofre nuclear emergency response plan, shall appoint a chairperson who will be a discussion leader and decisionmaking facilitator during a nuclear powerplant accident.

25581.5. Any local jurisdiction within an Emergency Planning

Zone, with responsibility to conduct nuclear response planning, shall annually provide nuclear emergency training to individuals within that zone who may be responsible for an evacuation or sheltering action, including, but not limited to, public school teachers, bus drivers, peace officers, public works officials, and fire officials.

Article 6. Responsibilities of the Office of Emergency Services

25582. The office shall do all of the following:

(a) When the Emergency Broadcast System is activated within an Emergency Planning Zone during a nuclear powerplant emergency, notify counties adjacent to the Emergency Planning Zone and provide these counties with details of the emergency.

(b) Exercise explicit, ultimate authority for allocating funds from the Nuclear Planning Assessment Special Account to local jurisdictions. Purposes for which the office may approve reimbursement include expenditures related to equipment which is used by local jurisdictions primarily for nuclear powerplant emergency planning and response activities, prorated according to the percentage of use for these activities.

(c) Ensure that counties within the Public Education Zones have a primary and backup communications capability with the county emergency operations centers located within the Emergency Planning Zones.

(d) Consider, along with the local jurisdictions and the utilities, that emergency response personnel, as well as the public, may respond differently to a nuclear powerplant emergency than to a naturally occurring emergency, and to take this difference into account when developing training and education programs for nuclear powerplant emergencies.

(e) Participate in exercises of the state's nuclear emergency response plan at least once a year to ensure that state personnel are adequately trained to respond in the event of an actual emergency. The exercises shall include the department and other relevant state agencies and the office shall activate the State Operations Center of the office for each exercise.

(f) In cooperation with local emergency response authorities and utilities operating nuclear power facilities, evaluate the primary and backup communications systems mandated by federal requirements for nuclear emergency response plans. If the office determines that a primary or backup communications system does not meet those requirements, the office shall report this determination to the utility and to the Federal Emergency Management Agency.

(g) Investigate the feasibility, costs, and possible funding mechanisms for providing programmable transceivers for emergency response vehicles that may have to respond to a nuclear powerplant emergency. The office shall report to the director of the office and any joint committee and Senate and Assembly policy committee with jurisdiction over emergency and disaster services its findings and recommendations by December 31, 1989.

(h) Commencing January 1, 1990, annually prepare and submit a report to any joint committee and Senate and Assembly policy committee with jurisdiction over emergency and disaster services which includes all of the following:

(1) A description of the purpose of all nuclear emergency response exercises in the state involving local and state authorities.

(2) A description of the office's role in each exercise.

(3) An accounting of revenues spent from the Nuclear Planning Assessment Special Account from each utility, a description of expenditures of special account funds by each jurisdiction and the state, and explanations for any denied funding requests.

(4) A description of all nuclear emergency response training and education efforts undertaken by the office, and identification of any additional training and education needs of state and local agencies, including specific reference to any agency that has not demonstrated adequate training of management and line personnel.

(5) Recommendations consistent with this section.

Article 7. Responsibilities of Other Agencies

25583. The Department of Transportation shall include within its criteria for funding repair and construction projects the need for adequate emergency evacuation routes.

25584. State and local law enforcement agencies shall ensure that traffic flow plans for areas outside the Emergency Planning Zones adequately reflect the possible evacuation of residents outside the Emergency Planning Zones. State and local law enforcement agencies shall ensure that traffic flow plans take into consideration that some evacuation routes may be impassable under certain weather conditions and that these agencies should have plans for designating alternative routes.

25585. State law enforcement agencies shall ensure that officers who may be needed to respond during a nuclear powerplant emergency receive the necessary training, as well as refresher courses at least once per year.

SEC. 4.5. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25400 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 4123. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 25400 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 4123, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 5. The sum of one million, five hundred thirty-seven thousand dollars ($1,537,000) is hereby appropriated to the Governor's Office of Emergency Services from the Nuclear Planning Assessment Special Account in the General Fund, for allocation pursuant to Section 8610.5 of the Government Code and Chapter 6.99 (commencing with Section 25572) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) and any other provisions of law.

CHAPTER 1608

An act to amend Sections 1250 and 1250.1 of, and to add Section 1250.4 to, the Health and Safety Code, to amend Sections 3057 and 6261 of the Penal Code, to amend Section 1753.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and to amend Section 1.5 of Chapter 1435 of the Statutes of 1987, relating to correctional institutions.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1250. As used in this chapter, "health facility" means any facility, place, or building which is organized, maintained, and operated for the diagnosis, care, prevention, and treatment of human illness, physical or mental, including convalescence and rehabilitation and including care during and after pregnancy, or for any one or more of these purposes, for one or more persons, to which the persons are admitted for a 24-hour stay or longer, and includes the following types:

(a) "General acute care hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, surgical, anesthesia, laboratory, radiology, pharmacy, and dietary services. A general acute care hospital may include more than one physical plant maintained and operated on separate premises as provided in Section 1250.8. A general acute care hospital which exclusively provides acute medical rehabilitation center services, including at least physical therapy, occupational therapy, and speech therapy, may provide for the required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract with another acute care hospital. In addition, a general acute care hospital which, on July 1, 1983, provided required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with another acute care hospital may continue to provide these surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with an acute care hospital.

(b) "Acute psychiatric hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care for mentally disordered, incompetent, or other patients referred to in Division 5 (commencing with Section 5000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, rehabilitative, pharmacy, and dietary services.

(c) "Skilled nursing facility" means a health facility which provides skilled nursing care and supportive care to patients whose primary need is for availability of skilled nursing care on an extended basis.

(d) "Intermediate care facility" means a health facility which provides inpatient care to ambulatory or nonambulatory patients who have recurring need for skilled nursing supervision and need supportive care, but who do not require availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

(e) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to 15 or fewer developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for nursing services, but have been certified by a physician as not requiring availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

(f) "Special hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical or dental staff which provides inpatient or outpatient care in dentistry or maternity.

(g) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled" means a facility which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to developmentally disabled clients whose primary need is for developmental services and who have a recurring but intermittent need for skilled nursing services.

(h) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, developmental services, and nursing supervision for developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for skilled nursing care but have been certified by a physician as not requiring continuous skilled nursing care. The facility shall serve medically fragile persons who have developmental disabilities or demonstrate significant developmental delay that may lead to a developmental disability if not treated.

(i) "Congregate living health facility" means a residential home with a capacity of no more than six beds, which provides inpatient care to mentally alert, physically disabled residents, who may be ventilator dependent, and which provides the following basic services: medical supervision, 24-hour skilled nursing and supportive care to residents, including ventilator assisted or dependent residents, all of whom would otherwise require long-term institutional care without this licensure classification and who no longer require care in an acute care facility, as determined by their physicians.

(j) (1) "Correctional treatment center" means a health facility operated by the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, or a county, city, or city and county law enforcement agency which, as determined by the state department, provides outpatient health services, in addition to inpatient health services, to that portion of the inmate population who do not require a general acute care level of basic services. This definition shall not apply to those areas of a city, county, or city and county law enforcement facility which houses inmates or wards that may be receiving outpatient services and are housed separately for reasons of security and protection. The health services provided by a correctional treatment center shall include, but are not limited to, all of the following basic services: physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, nursing, pharmacy, dental, and dietary. A correctional treatment center may provide the following services: laboratory, radiology, perinatal, and any other services approved by the state department.

(2) Outpatient surgical care with anesthesia may be provided, if the correctional treatment center meets the same requirements as a surgical clinic licensed pursuant to Section 1204, with the exception of the requirement that patients remain less than 24 hours.

(3) Correctional treatment centers shall maintain written service agreements with general acute care hospitals to provide for those inmate physical health needs that cannot be met by the correctional treatment center.

(4) Physician and surgeon services shall be readily available in a correctional treatment center on a 24-hour basis.

(5) It is not the intent of the Legislature to have a correctional treatment center supplant the facilities at the California Medical Facility, the California Men's Colony, and the California Institution for Men which were in the process of licensure in 1987.

(6) This subdivision shall remain operative only until January 1, 1993.

SEC. 1.1. Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1250. As used in this chapter, "health facility" means any facility, place, or building which is organized, maintained, and operated for the diagnosis, care, prevention, and treatment of human illness, physical or mental, including convalescence and rehabilitation and including care during and after pregnancy, or for any one or more of these purposes, for one or more persons, to which the persons are admitted for a 24-hour stay or longer, and includes the following types:

(a) "General acute care hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, surgical, anesthesia, laboratory, radiology, pharmacy, and dietary services. A general acute care hospital may include more than one physical plant maintained and operated on separate premises as provided in Section 1250.8. A general acute care hospital which exclusively provides acute medical rehabilitation center services, including at least physical therapy, occupational therapy, and speech therapy, may provide for the required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract with another acute care hospital. In addition, a general acute care hospital which, on July 1, 1983, provided required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with another acute care hospital may continue to provide these surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with an acute care hospital.

(b) "Acute psychiatric hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care for mentally disordered, incompetent, or other patients referred to in Division 5 (commencing with Section 5000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, rehabilitative, pharmacy, and dietary services.

(c) "Skilled nursing facility" means a health facility which provides skilled nursing care and supportive care to patients whose primary need is for availability of skilled nursing care on an extended basis.

(d) "Intermediate care facility" means a health facility which provides inpatient care to ambulatory or nonambulatory patients who have recurring need for skilled nursing supervision and need supportive care, but who do not require availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

(e) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to 15 or fewer developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for nursing services, but have been certified by a physician as not requiring availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

(f) "Special hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical or dental staff which provides inpatient or outpatient care in dentistry or maternity.

(g) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled" means a facility which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to developmentally disabled clients whose primary need is for developmental services and who have a recurring but intermittent need for skilled nursing services.

(h) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, developmental services, and nursing supervision for developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for skilled nursing care but have been certified by a physician as not requiring continuous skilled nursing care. The facility shall serve medically fragile persons who have developmental disabilities or demonstrate significant developmental delay that may lead to a developmental disability if not treated.

(i) "Congregate living health facility" means a residential home with a capacity of no more than six beds, which provides inpatient care to mentally alert, physically disabled residents, who may be ventilator dependent, and which provides the following basic services: medical supervision, 24-hour skilled nursing and supportive care to residents, including ventilator assisted or dependent residents, all of whom would otherwise require long-term institutional care without this licensure classification and who no longer require care in an acute care facility, as determined by their physicians.

(j) (1) "Correctional treatment center" means a health facility operated by the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, or a county, city, or city and county law enforcement agency which, as determined by the state department, provides outpatient health services, in addition to inpatient health services, to that portion of the inmate population who do not require a general acute care level of basic services. This definition shall not apply to those areas of a city, county, or city and county law enforcement facility which houses inmates or wards that may be receiving outpatient services and are housed separately for reasons of security and protection. The health services provided by a correctional treatment center shall include, but are not limited to, all of the following basic services: physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, nursing, pharmacy, dental, and dietary. A correctional treatment center may provide the following services: laboratory, radiology, perinatal, and any other services approved by the state department.

(2) Outpatient surgical care with anesthesia may be provided, if the correctional treatment center meets the same requirements as a surgical clinic licensed pursuant to Section 1204, with the exception of the requirement that patients remain less than 24 hours.

(3) Correctional treatment centers shall maintain written service agreements with general acute care hospitals to provide for those inmate physical health needs that cannot be met by the correctional treatment center.

(4) Physician and surgeon services shall be readily available in a correctional treatment center on a 24-hour basis.

(5) It is not the intent of the Legislature to have a correctional treatment center supplant the facilities at the California Medical Facility, the California Men's Colony, and the California Institution for Men which were in the process of licensure in 1987.

(6) This subdivision shall remain operative only until January 1, 1993.

(k) AIDS hospice facility, as defined in Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 1750).

(l) AIDS residential intermediate care facility, as defined in Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 1750).

SEC. 1.2. Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1250. As used in this chapter, "health facility" means any facility, place, or building which is organized, maintained, and operated for the diagnosis, care, prevention, and treatment of human illness, physical or mental, including convalescence and rehabilitation and including care during and after pregnancy, or for any one or more of these purposes, for one or more persons, to which the persons are admitted for a 24-hour stay or longer, and includes the following types:

(a) "General acute care hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, surgical, anesthesia, laboratory, radiology, pharmacy, and dietary services. A general acute care hospital may include more than one physical plant maintained and operated on separate premises as provided in Section 1250.8. A general acute care hospital which exclusively provides acute medical rehabilitation center services, including at least physical therapy, occupational therapy, and speech therapy, may provide for the required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract with another acute care hospital. In addition, a general acute care hospital which, on July 1, 1983, provided required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with another acute care hospital may continue to provide these surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with an acute care hospital.

(b) "Acute psychiatric hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care for mentally disordered, incompetent, or other patients referred to in Division 5 (commencing with Section 5000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, rehabilitative, pharmacy, and dietary services.

(c) "Skilled nursing facility" means a health facility which provides skilled nursing care and supportive care to patients whose primary need is for availability of skilled nursing care on an extended basis.

(d) "Intermediate care facility" means a health facility which provides inpatient care to ambulatory or nonambulatory patients who have recurring need for skilled nursing supervision and need supportive care, but who do not require availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

(e) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to 15 or fewer developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for nursing services, but have been certified by a physician as not requiring availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

(f) "Special hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical or dental staff which provides inpatient or outpatient care in dentistry or maternity.

(g) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled" means a facility which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to developmentally disabled clients whose primary need is for developmental services and who have a recurring but intermittent need for skilled nursing services.

(h) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, developmental services, and nursing supervision for developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for skilled nursing care but have been certified by a physician as not requiring continuous skilled nursing care. The facility shall serve medically fragile persons who have developmental disabilities or demonstrate significant developmental delay that may lead to a developmental disability if not treated.

(i) "Congregate living health facility" means a residential home with a capacity of no more than six beds, which provides inpatient care to mentally alert, physically disabled residents, who may be ventilator dependent, and which provides the following basic services: medical supervision, 24-hour skilled nursing and supportive care to residents, including ventilator assisted or dependent residents, all of whom would otherwise require long-term institutional care without this licensure classification and who no longer require care in an acute care facility, as determined by their physicians.

(j) (1) "Correctional treatment center" means a health facility operated by the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, or a county, city, or city and county law enforcement agency which, as determined by the state department, provides outpatient health services, in addition to inpatient health services, to that portion of the inmate population who do not require a general acute care level of basic services. This definition shall not apply to those areas of a city, county, or city and county law enforcement facility which houses inmates or wards that may be receiving outpatient services and are housed separately for reasons of security and protection. The health services provided by a correctional treatment center shall include, but are not limited to, all of the following basic services: physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, nursing, pharmacy, dental, and dietary. A correctional treatment center may provide the following services: laboratory, radiology, perinatal, and any other services approved by the state department.

(2) Outpatient surgical care with anesthesia may be provided, if the correctional treatment center meets the same requirements as a surgical clinic licensed pursuant to Section 1204, with the exception of the requirement that patients remain less than 24 hours.

(3) Correctional treatment centers shall maintain written service agreements with general acute care hospitals to provide for those inmate physical health needs that cannot be met by the correctional treatment center.

(4) Physician and surgeon services shall be readily available in a correctional treatment center on a 24-hour basis.

(5) It is not the intent of the Legislature to have a correctional treatment center supplant the facilities at the California Medical Facility, the California Men's Colony, and the California Institution for Men which were in the process of licensure in 1987.

(6) This subdivision shall remain operative only until January 1, 1993.

(k) "Hospice acute inpatient facility" means a health facility, which is a component part of a hospice as defined in Section 1339.41, which provides general inpatient care, as defined in federal Medicare program regulations adopted pursuant to Section 1861(DD)(2) and Section 1814(a)(8) of the federal Social Security Act, and which has a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which performs or provides 24-hour inpatient care, whose primary goal is pain control and symptom management of the terminally ill, including all of the following basic services, as defined in Section 1139.42: medical, nursing, dietary, pharmacy, clinical laboratory, radiology, inhalation therapy, physical therapy, speech therapy, psychosocial therapy, and spiritual care.

SEC. 1.3. Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1250. As used in this chapter, "health facility" means any facility, place, or building which is organized, maintained, and operated for the diagnosis, care, prevention, and treatment of human illness, physical or mental, including convalescence and rehabilitation and including care during and after pregnancy, or for any one or more of these purposes, for one or more persons, to which the persons are admitted for a 24-hour stay or longer, and includes the following types:

(a) "General acute care hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, surgical, anesthesia, laboratory, radiology, pharmacy, and dietary services. A general acute care hospital may include more than one physical plant maintained and operated on separate premises as provided in Section 1250.8. A general acute care hospital which exclusively provides acute medical rehabilitation center services, including at least physical therapy, occupational therapy, and speech therapy, may provide for the required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract with another acute care hospital. In addition, a general acute care hospital which, on July 1, 1983, provided required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with another acute care hospital may continue to provide these surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with an acute care hospital.

(b) "Acute psychiatric hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care for mentally disordered, incompetent, or other patients referred to in Division 5 (commencing with Section 5000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, rehabilitative, pharmacy, and dietary services.

(c) "Skilled nursing facility" means a health facility which provides skilled nursing care and supportive care to patients whose primary need is for availability of skilled nursing care on an extended basis.

(d) "Intermediate care facility" means a health facility which provides inpatient care to ambulatory or nonambulatory patients who have recurring need for skilled nursing supervision and need supportive care, but who do not require availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

(e) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to 15 or fewer developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for nursing services, but have been certified by a physician as not requiring availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

(f) "Special hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical or dental staff which provides inpatient or outpatient care in dentistry or maternity.

(g) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled" means a facility which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to developmentally disabled clients whose primary need is for developmental services and who have a recurring but intermittent need for skilled nursing services.

(h) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, developmental services, and nursing supervision for developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for skilled nursing care but have been certified by a physician as not requiring continuous skilled nursing care. The facility shall serve medically fragile persons who have developmental disabilities or demonstrate significant developmental delay that may lead to a developmental disability if not treated.

(i) "Congregate living health facility-A" means a residential home with a capacity of no more than six beds, which provides inpatient care to mentally alert, physically disabled residents, who may be ventilator dependent, and which provides the following basic services: medical supervision, 24-hour skilled nursing and supportive care to residents, including ventilator assisted or dependent residents, all of whom would otherwise require long-term institutional care without this licensure classification and who no longer require care in an acute care facility, as determined by their physicians.

(j) "Congregate living health facility-B" means a health facility with a capacity of one to 15 beds which provides 24-hour inpatient care to persons whose primary need is for availability of skilled nursing care on a recurring, intermittent, extended, or continuous basis. However, a congregate living health facility-B which is located in a county with a population of 500,000 or more persons may have a capacity of 25 beds.

(1) A congregate living health facility-B shall have a noninstitutional, homelike environment.

(2) No person shall be admitted, or accepted for care, or discharged, by a congregate care health facility-B except upon the order of a physician. Admission criteria will be subject to review and approval by the department. All persons admitted or accepted for care by the congregate living health facility-B shall remain under the care of a physician who shall visit the resident at least every 30 calendar days or more frequently if required by the resident's medical condition.

(k) (1) "Correctional treatment center" means a health facility operated by the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, or a county, city, or city and county law enforcement agency which, as determined by the state department, provides outpatient health services, in addition to inpatient health services, to that portion of the inmate population who do not require a general acute care level of basic services. This definition shall not apply to those areas of a city, county, or city and county law enforcement facility which houses inmates or wards that may be receiving outpatient services and are housed separately for reasons of security and protection. The health services provided by a correctional treatment center shall include, but are not limited to, all of the following basic services: physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, nursing, pharmacy, dental, and dietary. A correctional treatment center may provide the following services: laboratory, radiology, perinatal, and any other services approved by the state department.

(2) Outpatient surgical care with anesthesia may be provided, if the correctional treatment center meets the same requirements as a surgical clinic licensed pursuant to Section 1204, with the exception of the requirement that patients remain less than 24 hours.

(3) Correctional treatment centers shall maintain written service agreements with general acute care hospitals to provide for those inmate physical health needs that cannot be met by the correctional treatment center.

(4) Physician and surgeon services shall be readily available in a correctional treatment center on a 24-hour basis.

(5) It is not the intent of the Legislature to have a correctional treatment center supplant the facilities at the California Medical Facility, the California Men's Colony, and the California Institution for Men which were in the process of licensure in 1987.

(6) This subdivision shall remain operative only until January 1, 1993.

SEC. 1.4. Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1250. As used in this chapter, "health facility" means any facility, place, or building which is organized, maintained, and operated for the diagnosis, care, prevention, and treatment of human illness, physical or mental, including convalescence and rehabilitation and including care during and after pregnancy, or for any one or more of these purposes, for one or more persons, to which the persons are admitted for a 24-hour stay or longer, and includes the following types:

(a) "General acute care hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, surgical, anesthesia, laboratory, radiology, pharmacy, and dietary services. A general acute care hospital may include more than one physical plant maintained and operated on separate premises as provided in Section 1250.8. A general acute care hospital which exclusively provides acute medical rehabilitation center services, including at least physical therapy, occupational therapy, and speech therapy, may provide for the required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract with another acute care hospital. In addition, a general acute care hospital which, on July 1, 1983, provided required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with another acute care hospital may continue to provide these surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with an acute care hospital.

(b) "Acute psychiatric hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care for mentally disordered, incompetent, or other patients referred to in Division 5 (commencing with Section 5000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, rehabilitative, pharmacy, and dietary services.

(c) "Skilled nursing facility" means a health facility which provides skilled nursing care and supportive care to patients whose primary need is for availability of skilled nursing care on an extended basis.

(d) "Intermediate care facility" means a health facility which provides inpatient care to ambulatory or nonambulatory patients who have recurring need for skilled nursing supervision and need supportive care, but who do not require availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

(e) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to 15 or fewer developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for nursing services, but have been certified by a physician as not requiring availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

(f) "Special hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical or dental staff which provides inpatient or outpatient care in dentistry or maternity.

(g) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled" means a facility which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to developmentally disabled clients whose primary need is for developmental services and who have a recurring but intermittent need for skilled nursing services.

(h) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, developmental services, and nursing supervision for developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for skilled nursing care but have been certified by a physician as not requiring continuous skilled nursing care. The facility shall serve medically fragile persons who have developmental disabilities or demonstrate significant developmental delay that may lead to a developmental disability if not treated.

(i) "Congregate living health facility" means a residential home with a capacity of no more than six beds, which provides inpatient care to mentally alert, physically disabled residents, who may be ventilator dependent, and which provides the following basic services: medical supervision, 24-hour skilled nursing and supportive care to residents, including ventilator assisted or dependent residents, all of whom would otherwise require long-term institutional care without this licensure classification and who no longer require care in an acute care facility, as determined by their physicians.

(j) (1) "Correctional treatment center" means a health facility operated by the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, or a county, city, or city and county law enforcement agency which, as determined by the state department, provides outpatient health services, in addition to inpatient health services, to that portion of the inmate population who do not require a general acute care level of basic services. This definition shall not apply to those areas of a city, county, or city and county law enforcement facility which houses inmates or wards that may be receiving outpatient services and are housed separately for reasons of security and protection. (2) Outpatient surgical care with anesthesia may be provided, if the correctional treatment center meets the same requirements as a surgical clinic licensed pursuant to Section 1204, with the exception of the requirement that patients remain less than 24 hours.

(3) Correctional treatment centers shall maintain written service agreements with general acute care hospitals to provide for those inmate physical health needs that cannot be met by the correctional treatment center.

(4) Physician and surgeon services shall be readily available in a correctional treatment center on a 24-hour basis.

(5) It is not the intent of the Legislature to have a correctional treatment center supplant the facilities at the California Medical Facility, the California Men's Colony, and the California Institution for Men which were in the process of licensure in 1987.

(6) This subdivision shall remain operative only until January 1, 1993.

(k) AIDS hospice facility, as defined in Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 1750).

(m) "Hospice acute inpatient facility" means a health facility, which is a component part of a hospice as defined in Section 1339.41, which provides general inpatient care, as defined in federal Medicare program regulations adopted pursuant to Section 1861(DD)(2) and Section 1814(a)(8) of the federal Social Security Act, and which has a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which performs or provides 24-hour inpatient care, whose primary goal is pain control and symptom management of the terminally ill, including all of the following basic services, as defined in Section 1139.42: medical, nursing, dietary, pharmacy, clinical laboratory, radiology, inhalation therapy, physical therapy, speech therapy, psychosocial therapy, and spiritual care.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1250. As used in this chapter, "health facility" means any facility, place, or building which is organized, maintained, and operated for the diagnosis, care, prevention, and treatment of human illness, physical or mental, including convalescence and rehabilitation and including care during and after pregnancy, or for any one or more of these purposes, for one or more persons, to which the persons are admitted for a 24-hour stay or longer, and includes the following types:

(a) "General acute care hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, surgical, anesthesia, laboratory, radiology, pharmacy, and dietary services. A general acute care hospital may include more than one physical plant maintained and operated on separate premises as provided in Section 1250.8. A general acute care hospital which exclusively provides acute medical rehabilitation center services, including at least physical therapy, occupational therapy, and speech therapy, may provide for the required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract with another acute care hospital. In addition, a general acute care hospital which, on July 1, 1983, provided required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with another acute care hospital may continue to provide these surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with an acute care hospital.

(b) "Acute psychiatric hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care for mentally disordered, incompetent, or other patients referred to in Division 5 (commencing with Section 5000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, rehabilitative, pharmacy, and dietary services.

(c) "Skilled nursing facility" means a health facility which provides skilled nursing care and supportive care to patients whose primary need is for availability of skilled nursing care on an extended basis.

(d) "Intermediate care facility" means a health facility which provides inpatient care to ambulatory or nonambulatory patients who have recurring need for skilled nursing supervision and need supportive care, but who do not require availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

(e) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to 15 or fewer developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for nursing services, but have been certified by a physician as not requiring availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

(f) "Special hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical or dental staff which provides inpatient or outpatient care in dentistry or maternity.

(g) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled" means a facility which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to developmentally disabled clients whose primary need is for developmental services and who have a recurring but intermittent need for skilled nursing services.

(h) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, developmental services, and nursing supervision for developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for skilled nursing care but have been certified by a physician as not requiring continuous skilled nursing care. The facility shall serve medically fragile persons who have developmental disabilities or demonstrate significant developmental delay that may lead to a developmental disability if not treated.

(i) "Congregate living health facility-A" means a residential home with a capacity of no more than six beds, which provides inpatient care to mentally alert, physically disabled residents, who may be ventilator dependent, and which provides the following basic services: medical supervision, 24-hour skilled nursing and supportive care to residents, including ventilator assisted or dependent residents, all of whom would otherwise require long-term institutional care without this licensure classification and who no longer require care in an acute care facility, as determined by their physicians.

(j) "Congregate living health facility-B" means a health facility with a capacity of one to 15 beds which provides 24-hour inpatient care to persons whose primary need is for availability of skilled nursing care on a recurring, intermittent, extended, or continuous basis. However, a congregate living health facility-B which is located in a county with a population of 500,000 or more persons may have a capacity of 25 beds.

(1) A congregate living health facility-B shall have a noninstitutional, homelike environment.

(2) No person shall be admitted, or accepted for care, or discharged, by a congregate care health facility-B except upon the order of a physician. Admission criteria will be subject to review and approval by the department. All persons admitted or accepted for care by the congregate living health facility-B shall remain under the care of a physician who shall visit the resident at least every 30 calendar days or more frequently if required by the resident's medical condition.

(k) (1) "Correctional treatment center" means a health facility operated by the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, or a county, city, or city and county law enforcement agency which, as determined by the state department, provides outpatient health services, in addition to inpatient health services, to that portion of the inmate population who do not require a general acute care level of basic services. This definition shall not apply to those areas of a city, county, or city and county law enforcement facility which houses inmates or wards that may be receiving outpatient services and are housed separately for reasons of security and protection. A correctional treatment center may provide the following services: laboratory, radiology, perinatal, and any other services approved by the state department.

(2) Outpatient surgical care with anesthesia may be provided, if the correctional treatment center meets the same requirements as a surgical clinic licensed pursuant to Section 1204, with the exception of the requirement that patients remain less than 24 hours.

(3) Correctional treatment centers shall maintain written service agreements with general acute care hospitals to provide for those inmate physical health needs that cannot be met by the correctional treatment center.

(4) Physician and surgeon services shall be readily available in a correctional treatment center on a 24-hour basis.

(5) It is not the intent of the Legislature to have a correctional treatment center supplant the facilities at the California Medical Facility, the California Men's Colony, and the California Institution for Men which were in the process of licensure in 1987.

(6) This subdivision shall remain operative only until January 1, 1993.

(m) AIDS residential intermediate care facility, as defined in Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 1750).

SEC. 1.6. Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1250. As used in this chapter, "health facility" means any facility, place, or building which is organized, maintained, and operated for the diagnosis, care, prevention, and treatment of human illness, physical or mental, including convalescence and rehabilitation and including care during and after pregnancy, or for any one or more of these purposes, for one or more persons, to which the persons are admitted for a 24-hour stay or longer, and includes the following types:

(a) "General acute care hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, surgical, anesthesia, laboratory, radiology, pharmacy, and dietary services. A general acute care hospital may include more than one physical plant maintained and operated on separate premises as provided in Section 1250.8. A general acute care hospital which exclusively provides acute medical rehabilitation center services, including at least physical therapy, occupational therapy, and speech therapy, may provide for the required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract with another acute care hospital. In addition, a general acute care hospital which, on July 1, 1983, provided required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with another acute care hospital may continue to provide these surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with an acute care hospital.

(b) "Acute psychiatric hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care for mentally disordered, incompetent, or other patients referred to in Division 5 (commencing with Section 5000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, rehabilitative, pharmacy, and dietary services.

(c) "Skilled nursing facility" means a health facility which provides skilled nursing care and supportive care to patients whose primary need is for availability of skilled nursing care on an extended basis.

(d) "Intermediate care facility" means a health facility which provides inpatient care to ambulatory or nonambulatory patients who have recurring need for skilled nursing supervision and need supportive care, but who do not require availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

(e) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to 15 or fewer developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for nursing services, but have been certified by a physician as not requiring availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

(f) "Special hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical or dental staff which provides inpatient or outpatient care in dentistry or maternity.

(g) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled" means a facility which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to developmentally disabled clients whose primary need is for developmental services and who have a recurring but intermittent need for skilled nursing services.

(h) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, developmental services, and nursing supervision for developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for skilled nursing care but have been certified by a physician as not requiring continuous skilled nursing care. The facility shall serve medically fragile persons who have developmental disabilities or demonstrate significant developmental delay that may lead to a developmental disability if not treated.

(i) "Congregate living health facility-A" means a residential home with a capacity of no more than six beds, which provides inpatient care to mentally alert, physically disabled residents, who may be ventilator dependent, and which provides the following basic services: medical supervision, 24-hour skilled nursing and supportive care to residents, including ventilator assisted or dependent residents, all of whom would otherwise require long-term institutional care without this licensure classification and who no longer require care in an acute care facility, as determined by their physicians.

(j) "Congregate living health facility-B" means a health facility with a capacity of one to 15 beds which provides 24-hour inpatient care to persons whose primary need is for availability of skilled nursing care on a recurring, intermittent, extended, or continuous basis. However, a congregate living health facility-B which is located in a county with a population of 500,000 or more persons may have a capacity of 25 beds.

(1) A congregate living health facility-B shall have a noninstitutional, homelike environment.

(2) No person shall be admitted, or accepted for care, or discharged, by a congregate care health facility-B except upon the order of a physician. Admission criteria will be subject to review and approval by the department. All persons admitted or accepted for care by the congregate living health facility-B shall remain under the care of a physician who shall visit the resident at least every 30 calendar days or more frequently if required by the resident's medical condition.

(k) (1) "Correctional treatment center" means a health facility operated by the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, or a county, city, or city and county law enforcement agency which, as determined by the state department, provides outpatient health services, in addition to inpatient health services, to that portion of the inmate population who do not require a general acute care level of basic services. This definition shall not apply to those areas of a city, county, or city and county law enforcement facility which houses inmates or wards that may be receiving outpatient services and are housed separately for reasons of security and protection. The health services provided by a correctional treatment center shall include, but are not limited to, all of the following basic services: physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, nursing, pharmacy, dental, and dietary. A correctional treatment center may provide the following services: laboratory, radiology, perinatal, and any other services approved by the state department.

(2) Outpatient surgical care with anesthesia may be provided, if the correctional treatment center meets the same requirements as a surgical clinic licensed pursuant to Section 1204, with the exception of the requirement that patients remain less than 24 hours.

(3) Correctional treatment centers shall maintain written service agreements with general acute care hospitals to provide for those inmate physical health needs that cannot be met by the correctional treatment center.

(4) Physician and surgeon services shall be readily available in a correctional treatment center on a 24-hour basis.

(5) It is not the intent of the Legislature to have a correctional treatment center supplant the facilities at the California Medical Facility, the California Men's Colony, and the California Institution for Men which were in the process of licensure in 1987.

(6) This subdivision shall remain operative only until January 1, 1993.

(l) "Hospice acute inpatient facility" means a health facility, which is a component part of a hospice as defined in Section 1339.41, which provides general inpatient care, as defined in federal Medicare program regulations adopted pursuant to Section 1861(DD)(2) and Section 1814(a)(8) of the federal Social Security Act, and which has a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which performs or provides 24-hour inpatient care, whose primary goal is pain control and symptom management of the terminally ill, including all of the following basic services, as defined in Section 1139.42: medical, nursing, dietary, pharmacy, clinical laboratory, radiology, inhalation therapy, physical therapy, speech therapy, psychosocial therapy, and spiritual care.

SEC. 1.7. Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1250. As used in this chapter, "health facility" means any facility, place, or building which is organized, maintained, and operated for the diagnosis, care, prevention, and treatment of human illness, physical or mental, including convalescence and rehabilitation and including care during and after pregnancy, or for any one or more of these purposes, for one or more persons, to which the persons are admitted for a 24-hour stay or longer, and includes the following types:

(a) "General acute care hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, surgical, anesthesia, laboratory, radiology, pharmacy, and dietary services. A general acute care hospital may include more than one physical plant maintained and operated on separate premises as provided in Section 1250.8. A general acute care hospital which exclusively provides acute medical rehabilitation center services, including at least physical therapy, occupational therapy, and speech therapy, may provide for the required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract with another acute care hospital. In addition, a general acute care hospital which, on July 1, 1983, provided required surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with another acute care hospital may continue to provide these surgical and anesthesia services through a contract or agreement with an acute care hospital.

(b) "Acute psychiatric hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which provides 24-hour inpatient care for mentally disordered, incompetent, or other patients referred to in Division 5 (commencing with Section 5000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code, including the following basic services: medical, nursing, rehabilitative, pharmacy, and dietary services.

(c) "Skilled nursing facility" means a health facility which provides skilled nursing care and supportive care to patients whose primary need is for availability of skilled nursing care on an extended basis.

(d) "Intermediate care facility" means a health facility which provides inpatient care to ambulatory or nonambulatory patients who have recurring need for skilled nursing supervision and need supportive care, but who do not require availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

(e) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to 15 or fewer developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for nursing services, but have been certified by a physician as not requiring availability of continuous skilled nursing care.

(f) "Special hospital" means a health facility having a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical or dental staff which provides inpatient or outpatient care in dentistry or maternity.

(g) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled" means a facility which provides 24-hour personal care, habilitation, developmental, and supportive health services to developmentally disabled clients whose primary need is for developmental services and who have a recurring but intermittent need for skilled nursing services.

(h) "Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing" means a facility with a capacity of four to 15 beds which provides 24-hour personal care, developmental services, and nursing supervision for developmentally disabled persons who have intermittent recurring needs for skilled nursing care but have been certified by a physician as not requiring continuous skilled nursing care. The facility shall serve medically fragile persons who have developmental disabilities or demonstrate significant developmental delay that may lead to a developmental disability if not treated.

(i) "Congregate living health facility-A" means a residential home with a capacity of no more than six beds, which provides inpatient care to mentally alert, physically disabled residents, who may be ventilator dependent, and which provides the following basic services: medical supervision, 24-hour skilled nursing and supportive care to residents, including ventilator assisted or dependent residents, all of whom would otherwise require long-term institutional care without this licensure classification and who no longer require care in an acute care facility, as determined by their physicians.

(j) "Congregate living health facility-B" means a health facility with a capacity of one to 15 beds which provides 24-hour inpatient care to persons whose primary need is for availability of skilled nursing care on a recurring, intermittent, extended, or continuous basis. However, a congregate living health facility-B which is located in a county with a population of 500,000 or more persons may have a capacity of 25 beds.

(1) A congregate living health facility-B shall have a noninstitutional, homelike environment.

(2) No person shall be admitted, or accepted for care, or discharged, by a congregate care health facility-B except upon the order of a physician. Admission criteria will be subject to review and approval by the department. All persons admitted or accepted for care by the congregate living health facility-B shall remain under the care of a physician who shall visit the resident at least every 30 calendar days or more frequently if required by the resident's medical condition.

(k) (1) "Correctional treatment center" means a health facility operated by the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, or a county, city, or city and county law enforcement agency which, as determined by the state department, provides outpatient health services, in addition to inpatient health services, to that portion of the inmate population who do not require a general acute care level of basic services. This definition shall not apply to those areas of a city, county, or city and county law enforcement facility which houses inmates or wards that may be receiving outpatient services and are housed separately for reasons of security and protection. The health services provided by a correctional treatment center shall include, but are not limited to, all of the following basic services: physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, nursing, pharmacy, dental, and dietary. A correctional treatment center may provide the following services: laboratory, radiology, perinatal, and any other services approved by the state department.

(2) Outpatient surgical care with anesthesia may be provided, if the correctional treatment center meets the same requirements as a surgical clinic licensed pursuant to Section 1204, with the exception of the requirement that patients remain less than 24 hours.

(3) Correctional treatment centers shall maintain written service agreements with general acute care hospitals to provide for those inmate physical health needs that cannot be met by the correctional treatment center.

(4) Physician and surgeon services shall be readily available in a correctional treatment center on a 24-hour basis.

(5) It is not the intent of the Legislature to have a correctional treatment center supplant the facilities at the California Medical Facility, the California Men's Colony, and the California Institution for Men which were in the process of licensure in 1987.

(6) This subdivision shall remain operative only until January 1, 1993.

(m) AIDS residential intermediate care facility, as defined in Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 1750).

(n) "Hospice acute inpatient facility" means a health facility, which is a component part of a hospice as defined in Section 1339.41, which provides general inpatient care, as defined in federal Medicare program regulations adopted pursuant to Section 1861(DD)(2) and Section 1814(a)(8) of the federal Social Security Act, and which has a duly constituted governing body with overall administrative and professional responsibility and an organized medical staff which performs or provides 24-hour inpatient care, whose primary goal is pain control and symptom management of the terminally ill, including all of the following basic services, as defined in Section 1139.42: medical, nursing, dietary, pharmacy, clinical laboratory, radiology, inhalation therapy, physical therapy, speech therapy, psychosocial therapy, and spiritual care.

SEC. 2. Section 1250.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1250.1. The state department shall adopt regulations which define all of the following bed classifications for health facilities:

(a) General acute care.

(b) Skilled nursing.

(c) Intermediate care-developmental disabilities.

(d) Intermediate care-other.
(e) Acute psychiatric.
(f) Specialized care, with respect to special hospitals only.
(g) Chemical dependency recovery.
(h) Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative.
(i) Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled nursing.
(j) Congregate living health facility.
(k) Correctional treatment center. For correctional treatment centers that provide psychiatric and psychological services provided by county mental health agencies in local detention facilities, the State Department of Mental Health shall adopt regulations specifying acute and nonacute levels of 24-hour care. This subdivision shall remain operative only until January 1, 1993.

Except as provided in Section 1253.1, beds classified as intermediate care beds, on September 27, 1978, shall be reclassified by the state department as intermediate care—other. This reclassification shall not constitute a "project" within the meaning of Section 437.10 and shall not be subject to any requirement for a certificate of need under Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 437) of Division 1, and regulations of the state department governing intermediate care prior to such effective date shall continue to be applicable to the intermediate care—other classification unless and until amended or repealed by the state department.

Licensed inpatient beds in a correctional treatment center shall be used only for the purpose of providing health services. This paragraph shall remain operative only until January 1, 1993.

SEC. 2.5. Section 1250.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1250.1. The state department shall adopt regulations which define all of the following bed classifications for health facilities:
(a) General acute care.
(b) Skilled nursing.
(c) Intermediate care-developmental disabilities.
(d) Intermediate care-other.
(e) Acute psychiatric.
(f) Specialized care, with respect to special hospitals only.
(g) Chemical dependency recovery.
(h) Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative.
(i) Intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled nursing.
(j) Congregate living health facility-A.
(k) Congregate living health facility-B.
(l) Correctional treatment center. For correctional treatment centers that provide psychiatric and psychological services provided by county mental health agencies in local detention facilities, the State Department of Mental Health shall adopt regulations specifying acute and nonacute levels of 24-hour care. This subdivision shall remain operative only until January 1, 1993.

Except as provided in Section 1253.1, beds classified as intermediate care beds, on September 27, 1978, shall be reclassified by the state department as intermediate care—other. This reclassification shall not constitute a "project" within the meaning of Section 437.10 and shall not be subject to any requirement for a certificate of need under Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 437) of Division 1, and regulations of the state department governing intermediate care prior to such effective date shall continue to be applicable to the intermediate care—other classification unless and until amended or repealed by the state department.

Licensed inpatient beds in a correctional treatment center shall be used only for the purpose of providing health services. This paragraph shall remain operative only until January 1, 1993.

SEC. 3. Section 1250.4 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1250.4. Each health care facility in the Department of Corrections and in the Department of the Youth Authority shall have a medical director in charge of the health care services of that facility who shall be a physician and surgeon licensed to practice in California and who shall be appointed by the directors of the departments. The medical director shall direct the medical treatment programs for all health services and services supporting the health services provided in the facility.

SEC. 4. Section 3057 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3057. (a) Confinement pursuant to a revocation of parole in the absence of a new conviction and commitment to prison under other provisions of law, shall not exceed 12 months, except as provided in subdivision (c).

(b) Upon completion of confinement pursuant to parole revocation without a new commitment to prison, the inmate shall be released on parole for a period which shall not extend beyond that portion of the maximum statutory period of parole specified by Section 3000 which was unexpired at the time of each revocation.

(c) Notwithstanding the limitations in subdivision (a) and in Section 3060.5 upon confinement pursuant to a parole revocation, the board may extend the confinement pursuant to parole revocation for a maximum of an additional 12 months for subsequent acts of misconduct committed by the parolee while confined pursuant to that parole revocation. Upon a finding of good cause to believe that a parolee has committed a subsequent act of misconduct and utilizing procedures governing parole revocation proceedings, the board may extend the period of confinement pursuant to parole revocation as follows: (1) not more than 180 days for an act punishable as a felony whether or not prosecution is undertaken, (2) not more than 90 days for an act punishable as a misdemeanor, whether or not prosecution is undertaken, and (3) not more than 30 days for an act defined as a serious disciplinary offense pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2932.

(d) (1) Except for parolees specified in paragraph (2), any revocation period imposed under subdivision (a) may be reduced in the same manner and to the same extent as a term of imprisonment may be reduced by worktime credits under Section 2933. Worktime credit must be earned and may be forfeited pursuant to the provisions of Section 2932.

Worktime credit forfeited shall not be restored.

(2) The following parolees shall not be eligible for credit under this subdivision:

(A) Parolees who are sentenced under Section 1168 with a maximum term of life imprisonment.

(B) Parolees who violated a condition of parole relating to association with specified persons, entering prohibited areas, attendance at parole outpatient clinic, or psychiatric attention.

(C) Parolees who were revoked for conduct described in, or that could be prosecuted under any of the following sections, whether or not prosecution is undertaken: Section 189, Section 191.5, subdivision (a) or paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 192, Section 203, 207, 211, 217.1, or 220, subdivision (b) of Section 241, Section 244, paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 245, subdivision (2) of Section 261, Section 264.1, subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 286, Section 288, subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 288a, Section 289, 347, or 404, subdivision (a) of Section 451, Section 12020, 12021, 12022, 12022.5, 12022.7, 12022.8, 12025, or 12560, or Section 664 for any attempt to engage in conduct described in or that could be prosecuted under any of the above-mentioned sections.

(D) Parolees who were revoked for any reason if they had been granted parole after conviction of any of the offenses specified in subparagraph (C).

(E) Parolees who the Board of Prison Terms finds at a revocation hearing to be unsuitable for reduction of the period of confinement because of the circumstances and gravity of the parole violation, or because of prior criminal history.

SEC. 5. Section 6261 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

6261. (a) To the extent that public and private nonprofit and profit corporations have available beds and satisfy the criteria specified in this chapter, the Department of Corrections shall contract with them to provide reentry work furlough programs for all inmates 120 days prior to scheduled release and who are not excluded under this chapter.

(b) The Department of Corrections shall contract with private nonprofit and profit corporations for at least ⅓ of all reentry work furlough beds, unless the department determines these beds are not available or do not comply with this chapter. The department shall report annually in writing to the fiscal and appropriate policy committees of the Legislature of the actions performed to locate those beds or reasons for noncompliance. This provision shall not be interpreted to impair existing contracts.

SEC. 6. Section 1753.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1753.3. (a) The Director of the Youth Authority may enter into an agreement with a city, county, or city and county, to permit transfer of wards in the custody of the Director of the Youth Authority to an appropriate facility of the city, county, or city and county, if the official having jurisdiction over the facility has consented. The agreement shall provide for contributions to the city, county, or city and county toward payment of costs incurred with reference to the transferred wards.

(b) When an agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (a) is in effect with respect to a particular local facility, the Director of the Youth Authority may transfer wards and parole violators to the facility.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), the Director of the Youth Authority may deny placement in a local facility to a parole violator who was committed to the Youth Authority for the commission of any offense set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 707.

(d) Wards transferred to those facilities are subject to the rules and regulations of the facility in which they are confined, but remain under the legal custody of the Department of the Youth Authority.

SEC. 7. Section 1.5 of Chapter 1435 of the Statutes of 1987 is amended to read:

Sec. 1.5. Section 1.2 shall apply to every parolee regardless of whether his or her parole is revoked before or after the effective date of the act. However, no parolee is eligible for worktime credits prior to the effective date of the act.

SEC. 8. (a) Section 1.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and SB 2207. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, (3) SB 2468 and AB 4536 are not enacted or as enacted do not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 2207, in which case Sections 1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 1.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and SB 2468. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, (3) SB 2207 and AB 4536 are not enacted or as enacted do not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 2468, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 1.3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 4536. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, (3) SB 2207 and SB 2468 are not enacted or as enacted do not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 4536, in which case Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by AB 4536, shall remain operative only until the effective date of this bill, at which time Section 1.3 of this bill shall become operative and Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(d) Section 1.4 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by this bill, SB 2207, and SB 2468. It shall only become operative if (1) this bill, SB 2207, and SB 2468 are all enacted and become effective January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, (3) AB 4536 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 2207 and SB 2468 in which case Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.5, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(e) Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by this bill, SB 2207, and AB 4536. It shall only become operative if (1) this bill, SB 2207, and AB 4536 are all enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, (3) SB 2468 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 2207 and AB 4536 in which case Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by AB 4536, shall remain operative only until the effective date of this bill, at which time Section 1.5 of this bill shall become operative and Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.6, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(f) Section 1.6 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by this bill, SB 2468, and AB 4536. It shall only become operative if (1) this bill, SB 2468, and AB 4536 are all enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, (3) SB 2207 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 2468 and AB 4536 in which case Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by AB 4536, shall remain operative only until the effective date of this bill, at which time Section 1.6 of this bill shall become operative and Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, and 1.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(g) Section 1.7 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by this bill, SB 2207, SB 2468, and AB 4536. It shall only become operative if (1) all four bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 2207, SB 2468, and AB 4536, in which case Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by AB 4536, shall remain operative only until the effective date of this bill, at which time Section 1.7 of this bill shall become operative and Sections 1, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 1.5, and 1.6 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 9. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1250.1 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 4536. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 1250.1 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 4536, in which case Section 1250.1 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by AB 4536, shall remain operative only until the effective date of this bill, at which time Section 2.5 of this bill shall become operative and Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1609

An act to amend Section 556 of, and to add Section 12998 to, the Insurance Code, and to amend Sections 548 and 803 of the Penal Code, relating to insurance fraud.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 556 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

556. (a) It is unlawful to:

(1) Knowingly present or cause to be presented any false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss, including payment of a loss under a contract of insurance.

(2) Knowingly present multiple claims for the same loss or injury, including presentation of multiple claims to more than one insurer, with an intent to defraud.

(3) Knowingly cause or participate in a vehicular collision, or any other vehicular accident, for the purpose of presenting any false or fraudulent claim.

(4) Knowingly prepare, make, or subscribe any writing, with intent to present or use the same, or to allow it to be presented in support of any such claim.

(b) Every person who violates any provision of this section is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, for two, three, or five years, or by fine not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), or by both.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of a sentence be suspended for, any adult person convicted of a violation of this section who has been previously convicted of violations of this section as an adult under charges separately brought and tried two or more times. The existence of any fact which would make a person ineligible for probation under this subdivision shall be alleged in the information or indictment, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

Except where the existence of such fact was not admitted or found to be true or the court finds that a prior conviction was invalid, the court shall not strike or dismiss any prior convictions alleged in the information or indictment.

This subdivision does not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 2. Section 12998 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

12998. Each insurance company doing business in this state shall pay an annual fee to be determined by the Insurance Commissioner, but not to exceed thirty cents ($0.30) for each automobile insurance policy it issues in this state, in order to fund increased investigation and prosecution of fraudulent automobile insurance claims. After incidental expenses, 40 percent of those funds shall be distributed to the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims of the Department of Insurance for enhanced investigative efforts, and 60 percent of funds shall be distributed to local district attorneys, according to population, for investigation and prosecution of automobile fraud cases. The funds received under this section shall be deposited in the Insurance Fund and be expended and distributed when appropriated by the Legislature.

In the course of its investigations, the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims shall aggressively pursue all reported incidents of probable fraud and in addition, shall forward to the appropriate disciplinary body the names of any individuals licensed under the Business and Professions Code who are suspected of actively engaging in fraudulent activity along with all relevant supporting evidence.

SEC. 3. Section 548 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

548. Every person who willfully injures, destroys, secretes, abandons, or disposes of any property which at the time is insured against loss or damage by theft, or embezzlement, or any casualty with intent to defraud or prejudice the insurer, whether the same be the property or in the possession of such person or any other person, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or five years.

For purposes of this section, "casualty" does not include fire.

SEC. 4. Section 803 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

803. (a) Except as provided in this section, a limitation of time prescribed in this chapter is not tolled or extended for any reason.

(b) No time during which prosecution of the same person for the same conduct is pending in a court of this state is a part of a limitation of time prescribed in this chapter.

(c) A limitation of time prescribed in this chapter does not commence to run until discovery of an offense described in this subdivision. This subdivision applies to an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, a material element of which is fraud or breach of a fiduciary obligation or the basis of which is misconduct in office by a public officer, employee, or appointee, including, but not limited to, the following offenses:

(1) Grand theft of any type, forgery, falsification of public records, or acceptance of a bribe by a public official or a public employee.

(2) A violation of Section 72, 118, 118a, 132, or 134.

(3) A violation of Section 25540, of any type, or 25541 of the Corporations Code.

(4) A violation of Section 1090 or 27443 of the Government Code.

(5) Felony welfare fraud or Medi-Cal fraud in violation of Section 11483 or 14107 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(6) Felony insurance fraud in violation of Section 548 of this code or Section 556 of the Insurance Code.

(7) A violation of Section 580, 581, 582, 583, or 584 of the Business and Professions Code.

(8) A violation of Section 22430 of the Business and Professions Code.

(9) A violation of Section 10690 of the Health and Safety Code.

(10) A violation of Section 529a.

(d) If the defendant is out of the state when or after the offense is committed, the prosecution may be commenced as provided in Section 804 within the limitations of time prescribed by this chapter, and no time up to a maximum of three years during which the defendant is not within the state shall be a part of those limitations.

(e) A limitation of time prescribed in this chapter does not commence to run until the offense has been discovered, or could have reasonably been discovered, with regard to offenses under Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code or Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of Division 20 or Part 4 (commencing with Section 41500) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, or Section 386.

SEC. 5. Section 803 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

803. (a) Except as provided in this section, a limitation of time prescribed in this chapter is not tolled or extended for any reason.

(b) No time during which prosecution of the same person for the same conduct is pending in a court of this state is a part of a limitation of time prescribed in this chapter.

(c) A limitation of time prescribed in this chapter does not commence to run until discovery of an offense described in this subdivision. This subdivision applies to an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, a material element of which is fraud or breach of a fiduciary obligation or the basis of which is misconduct in office by a public officer, employee, or appointee, including, but not limited to, the following offenses:

(1) Grand theft of any type, forgery, falsification of public records, or acceptance of a bribe by a public official or a public employee.

(2) A violation of Section 72, 118, 118a, 132, or 134.

(3) A violation of Section 25540, of any type, or 25541 of the Corporations Code.

(4) A violation of Section 1090 or 27443 of the Government Code.

(5) Felony welfare fraud or Medi-Cal fraud in violation of Section 11483 or 14107 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(6) Felony insurance fraud in violation of Section 548 of this code or Section 556 of the Insurance Code.

(7) A violation of Section 580, 581, 582, 583, or 584 of the Business and Professions Code.

(8) A violation of Section 22430 of the Business and Professions Code.

(9) A violation of Section 10690 of the Health and Safety Code.

(10) A violation of Section 529a.

(d) If the defendant is out of the state when or after the offense is committed, the prosecution may be commenced as provided in Section 804 within the limitations of time prescribed by this chapter, and no time up to a maximum of three years during which the defendant is not within the state shall be a part of those limitations.

(e) A limitation of time prescribed in this chapter does not commence to run until the offense has been discovered, or could have reasonably been discovered, with regard to offenses under Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code or Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of Division 20 or Part 4 (commencing with Section 41500) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, or Section 386.

(f) The time within which a criminal prosecution may be commenced shall be tolled during the time a defendant is released pursuant to a precomplaint diversion program under Chapter 2.68 (commencing with Section 1000.40) of Title 6.

SEC. 6. Section 803 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

803. (a) Except as provided in this section, a limitation of time prescribed in this chapter is not tolled or extended for any reason.

(b) No time during which prosecution of the same person for the same conduct is pending in a court of this state is a part of a limitation of time prescribed in this chapter.

(c) A limitation of time prescribed in this chapter does not commence to run until discovery of an offense described in this subdivision. This subdivision applies to an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, a material element of which is fraud or breach of a fiduciary obligation or the basis of which is misconduct in office by a public officer, employee, or appointee, including, but not limited to, the following offenses:

(1) Grand theft of any type, forgery, falsification of public records, or acceptance of a bribe by a public official or a public employee.

(2) A violation of Section 72, 118, 118a, 132, or 134.

(3) A violation of Section 25540, of any type, or 25541 of the Corporations Code.

(4) A violation of Section 1090 or 27443 of the Government Code.

(5) Felony welfare fraud or Medi-Cal fraud in violation of Section 11483 or 14107 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(6) Felony insurance fraud in violation of Section 548 of this code or Section 556 of the Insurance Code.

(7) A violation of Section 580, 581, 582, 583, or 584 of the Business and Professions Code.

(8) A violation of Section 22430 of the Business and Professions Code.

(9) A violation of Section 10690 of the Health and Safety Code.

(10) A violation of Section 529a.

(d) If the defendant is out of the state when or after the offense is committed, the prosecution may be commenced as provided in Section 804 within the limitations of time prescribed by this chapter, and no time up to a maximum of three years during which the defendant is not within the state shall be a part of those limitations.

(e) A limitation of time prescribed in this chapter does not commence to run until the offense has been discovered, or could have reasonably been discovered, with regard to offenses under Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code, under Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100), Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280), or Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) of Division 20 of, or Part 4 (commencing with Section 41500) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, or under Section 386.

SEC. 7. Section 803 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

803. (a) Except as provided in this section, a limitation of time prescribed in this chapter is not tolled or extended for any reason.

(b) No time during which prosecution of the same person for the same conduct is pending in a court of this state is a part of a limitation of time prescribed in this chapter.

(c) A limitation of time prescribed in this chapter does not commence to run until discovery of an offense described in this subdivision. This subdivision applies to an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, a material element of which is fraud or breach of a fiduciary obligation or the basis of which is misconduct in office by a public officer, employee, or appointee, including, but not limited to, the following offenses:

(1) Grand theft of any type, forgery, falsification of public records, or acceptance of a bribe by a public official or a public employee.

(2) A violation of Section 72, 118, 118a, 132, or 134.

(3) A violation of Section 25540, of any type, or 25541 of the Corporations Code.

(4) A violation of Section 1090 or 27443 of the Government Code.

(5) Felony welfare fraud or Medi-Cal fraud in violation of Section 11483 or 14107 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(6) Felony insurance fraud in violation of Section 548 of this code or Section 556 of the Insurance Code.

(7) A violation of Section 580, 581, 582, 583, or 584 of the Business and Professions Code.

(8) A violation of Section 22430 of the Business and Professions Code.

(9) A violation of Section 10690 of the Health and Safety Code.

(10) A violation of Section 529a.

(d) If the defendant is out of the state when or after the offense is committed, the prosecution may be commenced as provided in Section 804 within the limitations of time prescribed by this chapter, and no time up to a maximum of three years during which the defendant is not within the state shall be a part of those limitations.

(e) A limitation of time prescribed in this chapter does not commence to run until the offense has been discovered, or could have reasonably been discovered, with regard to offenses under Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code, under Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100), Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280), or Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) of Division 20 of, or Part 4 (commencing with Section 41500) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, or under Section 386.

(f) The time within which a criminal prosecution may be commenced shall be tolled during the time a defendant is released pursuant to a precomplaint diversion program under Chapter 2.68 (commencing with Section 1000.40) of Title 6.

SEC. 8. (a) Section 5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 803 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 4273. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 803 of the Penal Code, and (3) AB 4373 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 4273, in which case Sections 4, 6, and 7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 6 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 803 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 4373. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 803 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 4273 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 4373 in which case Sections 4, 5, and 7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 7 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 803 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 4273, and AB 4373. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective January 1, 1989, (2) all three bills amend Section 803 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 4273 and AB 4373 in which case Sections 4, 5, and 6 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1610

An act to amend Section 8855.5 of the Government Code, and to add Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 33740) to Part 1 of Division 24 of, to add Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 34376) to Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 24 of, and to add Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 52100) to Part 5 of Division 31 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8855.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8855.5. (a) Any redevelopment agency which issues revenue bonds to finance residential construction pursuant to Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 33740) or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 33750) of Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, any housing authority which issues revenue bonds to finance housing developments or residential structures pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law, Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 34200) of Part 2 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, any local agency which issues bonds to finance residential rehabilitation pursuant to the Marks-Foran Residential Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Part 13 (commencing with Section 37910), Division 24, Health and Safety Code), and any city or county which issues bonds for purposes of a home financing program carried on pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 52000) to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 52060), inclusive, of Part 5 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code or for purposes of financing the construction, acquisition, or development of multifamily rental housing pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 52075) or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 52100) of Part 5 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, shall report to the California Debt Advisory Commission the incomes, family size, and rents or mortgage payments of the occupants; the number, size, cost, sales price, and geographical distribution of the units developed; the length of time the units are required to be held for occupancy by targeted income groups, and, if applicable, the number of years the units are required to be held as rentals; and the distribution of housing developments among for-profit, limited dividend, and nonprofit sponsors. For the purposes of this section, "nonprofit sponsors" includes public agencies.

(b) The information required to be reported by subdivision (a) shall be reported at least annually during the time that a percentage of the units are required to be occupied by, or made available to, persons or families within a particular income group.

(c) The failure of any entity to report the information required by subdivision (a) shall not affect the validity of the issuance of any of the bonds issued under the authority of any of the provisions described in subdivision (a).

(d) The report required by subdivision (a) shall only apply to housing units financed with the proceeds of bonds that are authorized to be issued, and which are issued, on and after January 1, 1985, pursuant to any of the provisions described in subdivision (a). For purposes of this section, "bonds" means any bonds, notes, interim certificates, debentures, or other obligations issued under the authority of any of the provisions described in subdivision (a).

The redevelopment agency, housing authority, local agency, or city and county may charge a fee to the recipient of agency financing not to exceed the cost of making the reports required by this section.

SEC. 2. Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 33740) is added to Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7.5. LOANS TO TAX-EXEMPT ORGANIZATIONS

33740. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that it would be beneficial to empower redevelopment agencies to issue tax-exempt revenue bonds for the purpose of lending the proceeds to nonprofit organizations exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3)), for the housing purposes specified in Section 33741.

33741. An agency may issue bonds to provide funds to be loaned by the agency to nonprofit organizations exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3)), for use by the organization to finance the acquisition of multifamily rental housing to provide housing within the territorial jurisdiction of the agency in accordance with the organization's tax-exempt purposes under that federal law. The bonds shall be issued so as to satisfy the requirements of Section 145 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 U.S.C. Sec. 145).

33742. (a) Occupancy and rent restrictions with respect to housing acquired pursuant to this chapter shall either meet the requirements of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (1) or the requirements of paragraph (2), as follows:

(1) (A) Not less than 20 percent of the total number of units in a multifamily rental housing development financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed, pursuant to this chapter from the proceeds of the sale of bonds of each bond issuance of the agency shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households, as defined by Section 50079.5. If a multifamily rental housing development is located within a targeted area project, as defined by Section 103(b)(12)(A) of Title 26 of the United States Code, not less than 15 percent of the total number of units financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed pursuant to this chapter, shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households. Not less than one-half of the units required for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households shall be for occupancy on a priority basis for very low income households, as defined by Section 50105.

(B) The rental payments on the units required for occupancy by very low income households paid by the persons occupying the units (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to those persons or on behalf of those units) shall not exceed 30 percent of an amount equal to 50 percent of area median income. If the nonprofit organization elects to establish a base rent for all or part of the units for lower income households and very low income households, the base rents shall be adjusted for household size. In adjusting rents for household size for this purpose, it shall be assumed that one person will occupy a studio unit, two persons will occupy a one-bedroom unit, three persons will occupy a two-bedroom unit, four persons will occupy a three-bedroom unit, and five persons will occupy a four-bedroom unit.

(2) The multifamily rental housing development is a "qualified low-income housing project," within the meaning of Section 42(g) of the federal Internal Revenue Code ( 26 U.S.C. Sec. 42), because it meets the criteria set forth in Section 42 (g) (1) (B) and (2) of the federal Internal Revenue Code.

(b) If at the time of acquisition any of the units are occupied by ineligible households, that fact alone shall neither constitute a cause for the tenant's eviction nor render the project ineligible. Upon vacation of any unit initially occupied by an ineligible household, that unit shall be rented to an eligible household until the required residency by eligible households is attained.

(c) As a condition of financing pursuant to this chapter, the nonprofit organization shall enter into a regulatory agreement with the agency, which shall require that units reserved for occupancy by lower income households shall remain available on a priority basis for occupancy for the term of the bonds issued to provide the financing or 30 years, whichever is greater. The regulatory agreement shall contain a provision making the covenants and conditions of the agreement binding upon successors in interest of the nonprofit organization. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the multifamily rental housing development is located. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the grantor-grantee index to the name of the property owner as grantor and to the name of the agency as grantee.

33743. An agency may, in conjunction with the financing of multifamily rental housing pursuant to this chapter, finance the acquisition of commercial property for lease, subject to all of the following conditions:

(a) No more than 10 percent of the proceeds of any revenue bonds issued pursuant to this chapter may be used to acquire the commercial property for lease.

(b) The commercial property acquired will be located on the same parcel or on a parcel adjacent to a multifamily rental housing development.

(c) As a condition of the financing, any lease payments collected in excess of payments necessary for debt service, operating expenses and any required reserves related to the property, shall be used to reduce rents or units reserved for occupancy by lower income households and very low income households in a multifamily rental housing development.

33744. Whenever a complaint is received concerning a violation of the restrictions imposed pursuant to Section 33742, the agency shall investigate promptly and make a report to the complaining party on whether the violation existed and whether it persists, and if it persists, what action the agency will take to remedy the violation. When the agency determines that a violation exists, whether determined upon an investigation of a complaint or on its own motion, the agency shall take all appropriate action, including necessary legal action, to promptly eliminate the violation.

Notwithstanding other provisions of this section, any person aggrieved by a violation of the restrictions imposed pursuant to Section 33742 may seek a judicial remedy without regard to whether a complaint has been made to the agency or whether the agency is then taking any action to remedy the violation.

33745. For the purposes of this chapter, an agency shall have the power to issue its bonds to defray, in whole or in part, the costs of studies and surveys, insurance premiums, underwriting fees, and legal, accounting and marketing services incurred in connection with the issuance and sale of bonds pursuant to this chapter, including bond and mortgage reserve accounts, trustee, custodian, and rating agency fees, and any other costs which are reasonably related to the foregoing.

33746. (a) Bonds issued pursuant to this chapter shall be repayable solely from payments of principal and interest on account of the loans funded thereby. The agency may pledge all or any portion of these payments to secure the bonds.

(b) Neither the members of the agency nor any person executing the bonds shall be personally liable on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

(c) The exercise of the powers granted by this chapter shall be in all respects for the benefit of the people of this state and for their health and welfare. Any bonds issued under this chapter, their transfer, and income therefrom shall at all times be free from taxation of every kind by the state and by the municipalities and political subdivisions of the state, except estate taxes.

(d) This chapter provides an alternative method for issuing bonds and lending moneys for acquisition of multifamily rental housing by private nonprofit organizations.

SEC. 3. Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 34376) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 5.5. Loans to Tax-Exempt Organizations

34376. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that it would be beneficial to empower housing authorities to issue tax-exempt revenue bonds for the purpose of lending the proceeds to nonprofit organizations exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3)), for the housing purposes specified in Section 34377.

34377. An authority may issue bonds to provide funds to be loaned by the authority to nonprofit organizations exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3)), for use by the organization to finance the acquisition of multifamily rental housing to provide housing within the territorial jurisdiction of the authority in accordance with the organization's tax-exempt purposes under that federal law. The bonds shall be issued so as to satisfy the requirements of Section 145 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 U.S.C. Sec. 145).

34377.2. (a) Occupancy and rent restrictions with respect to housing acquired pursuant to this article shall either meet the requirements of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (1) or the requirements of paragraph (2) as follows:

(1) (A) Not less than 20 percent of the total number of units in a multifamily rental housing development financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed, pursuant to this article from the proceeds of the sale of bonds of each bond issuance of the authority shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households, as defined by Section 50079.5. If a multifamily rental housing development is located within a targeted area project, as defined by Section 103(b)(12)(A) of Title 26 of the United States Code, not less than 15 percent of the total number of units financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed pursuant to this chapter, shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households. Not less than one-half of the units required for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households shall be for occupancy on a priority basis for very low income households, as defined by Section 50105.

(B) The rental payments on the units required for occupancy by very low income households paid by the persons occupying the units (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to those persons or on behalf of those units) shall not exceed 30 percent of an amount equal to 50 percent of area median income. If the nonprofit organization elects to establish a base rent for all or part of the units for lower income households and very low income households, the base rents shall be adjusted for household size. In adjusting rents for household size for this purpose, it shall be assumed that one person will occupy a studio unit, two persons will occupy a one-bedroom unit, three persons will occupy a two-bedroom unit, four persons will occupy a three-bedroom unit, and five persons will occupy a four-bedroom unit.

(2) The multifamily rental housing development is a "qualified low-income housing project," within the meaning of Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code ( 26 U.S.C. Sec. 42), because it meets the criteria set forth in Section 42(g)(1)(B) and (2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) If at the time of acquisition any of the units are occupied by ineligible households, that fact alone shall neither constitute a cause for the tenant's eviction nor render the project ineligible. Upon vacation of any unit initially occupied by an ineligible household, that unit shall be rented to an eligible household until the required residency by eligible households is attained.

(c) As a condition of financing pursuant to this article, the nonprofit organization shall enter into a regulatory agreement with the authority, which shall require that units reserved for occupancy by lower income households shall remain available on a priority basis for occupancy for the term of the bonds issued to provide the financing or 30 years, whichever is greater. The regulatory agreement shall contain a provision making the covenants and conditions of the agreement binding upon successors in interest of the nonprofit organization. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the multifamily rental housing development is located. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the grantor-grantee index to the name of the property owner as grantor and to the name of the authority as grantee.

34377.4. An authority may, in conjunction with the financing of multifamily rental housing pursuant to this article, finance the acquisition of commercial property for lease, subject to all of the following conditions:

(a) No more than 10 percent of the proceeds of any revenue bonds issued pursuant to this article may be used to acquire the commercial property for lease.

(b) The commercial property acquired will be located on the same parcel or on a parcel adjacent to a multifamily rental housing development.

(c) As a condition of the financing, any lease payments collected in excess of payments necessary for debt service, operating expenses and any required reserves related to such property, shall be used to reduce rents on units reserved for occupancy by lower income households and very low income households in a multifamily rental housing development.

34377.6. Whenever a complaint is received concerning a violation of the restrictions imposed pursuant to Section 34377.2, the authority shall investigate promptly and make a report to the complaining party on whether the violation existed and whether it persists, and if it persists, what action the authority will take to remedy the violation. When the authority detemines that a violation exists, whether determined upon an investigation of a complaint or on its own motion, the authority shall take all appropriate action, including necessary legal action, to promptly eliminate the violation.

Notwithstanding other provisions of this section, any person aggrieved by a violation of the restrictions imposed pursuant to Section 34377.2 may seek a judicial remedy without regard to whether a complaint has been made to the agency or whether the agency is then taking any action to remedy the violation.

34378. For the purposes of this article, an authority shall have the power to issue its bonds to defray, in whole or in part, the costs of studies and surveys, insurance premiums, underwriting fees, and legal, accounting and marketing services incurred in connection with the issuance and sale of bonds pursuant to this chapter, including bond and mortgage reserve accounts; trustee, custodian, and rating agency fees, and any other costs which are reasonably related to the foregoing.

34379. (a) Bonds issued pursuant to this article shall be repayable solely from payments of principal and interest on account of the loans funded thereby. The agency may pledge all or any portion of these payments to secure the bonds.

(b) Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be personally liable on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

(c) The exercise of the powers granted by this article shall be in all respects for the benefit of the people of this state and for their health and welfare. Any bonds issued under this article, their transfer, and income therefrom shall at all times be free from taxation of every kind by the state and by the municipalities and political subdivisions of the state, except estate taxes.

(d) This article provides an alternative method for issuing bonds and lending moneys for acquisition of multifamily rental housing by private nonprofit organizations.

SEC. 4. Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 52100) is added to Part 5 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 8. LOANS TO TAX-EXEMPT ORGANIZATIONS

52100. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that it would be beneficial to empower counties and cities to issue tax-exempt revenue bonds for the purpose of lending the proceeds to nonprofit organizations exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3)), for the housing purposes specified in Section 52101.

52101. A city or county may issue bonds to provide funds to be loaned by the city or county to nonprofit organizations exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3)), for use by the organization to finance the acquisition of multifamily rental housing to provide housing within the territorial jurisdiction of the city or county in accordance with the organization's tax-exempt purposes under that federal law. The bonds shall be issued so as to satisfy the requirements of Section 145 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 U.S.C. Sec. 145).

52102. (a) Occupancy and rent restrictions with respect to housing acquired pursuant to this chapter shall either meet the requirement of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (1) or the requirements of paragraph (2), as follows:

(1) (A) Not less than 20 percent of the total number of units in a multifamily rental housing development financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed, pursuant to this chapter from the proceeds of the sale of bonds of each bond issuance of the city or county shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households, as defined by Section 50079.5. If a multifamily rental housing development is located within a targeted area project, as defined by Section 103(b)(12)(A) of Title 26 of the United States Code, not less than 15 percent of the total number of units financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed pursuant to this chapter, shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households. Not less than one-half of the units required for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households shall be for occupancy on a priority basis for very low income households, as defined by Section 50105.

(B) The rental payments on the units required for occupancy by very low income households paid by the persons occupying the units (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to those persons or on behalf of those units) shall not exceed 30 percent of an amount equal to 50 percent of area median income. If the nonprofit organization elects to establish a base rent for all or part of the units for lower income households and very low income households, the base rents shall be adjusted for household size. In adjusting rents for household size for this purpose, it shall be assumed that one person will occupy a studio unit, two persons will occupy a one-bedroom unit, three persons will occupy a two-bedroom unit, four persons will occupy a three-bedroom unit, and five persons will occupy a four-bedroom unit.

(2) The multifamily rental housing development is a "qualified low-income housing project," within the meaning of Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code ( 26 U.S.C. Sec. 42), because it meets the criteria set forth in Section 42(g)(1)(B) and (2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) If at the time of acquisition any of the units are occupied by ineligible households, that fact alone shall neither constitute a cause for the tenant's eviction nor render the project ineligible. Upon vacation of any unit initially occupied by an ineligible household, that unit shall be rented to an eligible household until the required residency by eligible households is attained.

(c) As a condition of financing pursuant to this chapter, the nonprofit organization shall enter into a regulatory agreement with the city or county, which shall require that units reserved for occupancy by lower income households shall remain available on a priority basis for occupancy for the term of the bonds issued to provide the financing or 30 years, whichever is greater. The regulatory agreement shall contain a provision making the covenants and conditions of the agreement binding upon successors in interest of the nonprofit organization. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the multifamily rental housing development is located. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the grantor-grantee index to the name of the property owner as grantor and to the name of the city or county as grantee.

52103. A city or county may, in conjunction with the financing of multifamily rental housing pursuant to this chapter, finance the acquisition of commercial property for lease, subject to all of the following conditions:

(a) No more than 10 percent of the proceeds of any revenue bonds issued pursuant to this chapter may be used to acquire the commercial property for lease.

(b) The commercial property acquired will be located on the same parcel or on a parcel adjacent to a multifamily rental housing development.

(c) As a condition of the financing, any lease payments collected in excess of payments necessary for debt service, operating expenses, and any required reserves related to such property, shall be used to reduce rents on units reserved for occupancy by lower income households and very low income households in a multifamily rental housing development.

52104. Whenever a complaint is received concerning a violation of the restrictions imposed pursuant to Section 52102, the city or county shall investigate promptly and make a report to the complaining party on whether the violation existed and whether it persists, and if it persists, what action the city or county will take to remedy the violation. When the city or county determines that a violation exists, whether determined upon an investigation of a complaint or on its own motion, the city or county shall take all appropriate action, including necessary legal action, to promptly eliminate the violation.

Notwithstanding other provisions of this section, any person aggrieved by a violation of the restrictions imposed pursuant to Section 52102 may seek a judicial remedy without regard to whether a complaint has been made to the city or county or whether the city or county is then taking any action to remedy the violation.

52105. For the purposes of this chapter, a city or county shall have the power to issue its bonds to defray, in whole or in part, the costs of studies and surveys, insurance premiums, underwriting fees, and legal, accounting, and marketing services incurred in connection with the issuance and sale of bonds pursuant to this chapter, including bond and mortgage reserve accounts; trustee, custodian, and rating agency fees, and any other costs which are reasonably related to the foregoing.

52106. (a) Bonds issued pursuant to this chapter shall be repayable solely from payments of principal and interest on account of the loans funded thereby. The issuing city or county may pledge all or any portion of these payments to secure the bonds.

(b) Neither the members of the governing body of the issuing city or county nor any person executing the bonds shall be personally liable on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

(c) The exercise of the powers granted by this chapter shall be in all respects for the benefit of the people of this state and for their health and welfare. Any bonds issued under this chapter, their transfer, and income therefrom shall at all times be free from taxation of every kind by the state and by the municipalities and political subdivisions of the state, except estate taxes.

(d) This chapter provides an alternative method for issuing bonds and lending moneys for acquisition of multifamily rental housing by private nonprofit organizations exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (26 U.S.C. Sec. 501 (c) (3)).

CHAPTER 1611

An act to amend Sections 8855.5 and 8855.8 of, and to add Section 8855.7 to, the Government Code, and to amend Sections 50155 and 51005 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8855.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8855.5. (a) (1) Any redevelopment agency which issues revenue bonds to finance residential construction pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 33750) of Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, (2) any housing authority which issues revenue bonds to finance housing developments or residential structures pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law, Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 34200) of Part 2 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, (3) any local agency which issues bonds to finance residential rehabilitation pursuant to the Marks-Foran Residential Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Part 13 (commencing with Section 37910), Division 24, Health and Safety Code), (4) any city or county which issues bonds for purposes of a home financing program carried on pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 52000) to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 52060), inclusive, of Part 5 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code or for purposes of financing the construction or development of multifamily rental housing pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 52075) of Part 5 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, (5) any local agency, including any charter city or city and county, that issues revenue bonds to finance the purchase, construction, or rehabilitation of housing pursuant to any statute or under the authority of its charter, and (6) any nonprofit corporation that has qualified under Section 501(c)(3) of the federal Internal Revenue Code and which issues indebtedness for which the interest is exempt from federal income taxation to finance the purchase, construction, or rehabilitation of housing in this state, shall report to the California Debt Advisory Commission the incomes, family size, and rents or mortgage payments of the occupants; the number, size, cost, sales price, location by zip code, and geographical distribution of the units developed; the length of time the units are required to be held for occupancy by targeted income groups, and, if applicable, the number of years the units are required to be held as rentals; and the distribution of housing developments among for-profit, limited dividend, and nonprofit sponsors. For the purposes of this section, "nonprofit sponsors" includes public agencies.

(b) The information required to be reported by subdivision (a) shall be reported at least annually during the time that a percentage of the units are required to be occupied by, or made available to, persons or families within a particular income group.

(c) The report required by subdivision (a) shall only apply to housing units financed with the proceeds of bonds that are authorized to be issued, and which are issued, on and after January 1, 1985, pursuant to any of the provisions described in subdivision (a) or implementing provisions supplementary thereto, such as the authorizations contained in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1. For purposes of this section, "bonds" means any bonds, notes, interim certificates, debentures, or other obligations issued under the authority of any of the provisions, or as otherwise, described in subdivision (a), and "issues" includes the issuance of bonds to refund previously issued bonds pursuant to the statutory provisions authorizing the original issuance or pursuant to supplementary authorization, such as Article 10 (commencing with Section 53570) of Chapter 3 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5.

The redevelopment agency, housing authority, local agency, or city and county may charge a fee to the recipient of agency financing not to exceed the cost of making the reports required by this section.

SEC. 1.5. Section 8855.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8855.5. (a) (1) Any redevelopment agency which issues revenue bonds to finance residential construction pursuant to Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 33740) or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 33750) of Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, (2) any housing authority which issues revenue bonds to finance housing developments or residential structures pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law, Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 34200) of Part 2 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, (3) any local agency which issues bonds to finance residential rehabilitation pursuant to the Marks-Foran Residential Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Part 13 (commencing with Section 37910), Division 24, Health and Safety Code), (4) any city or county which issues bonds for purposes of a home financing program carried on pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 52000) to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 52060), inclusive, of Part 5 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code or for purposes of financing the construction, acquisition, or development of multifamily rental housing pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 52075) or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 52100) of Part 5 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, (5) any local agency, including any charter city or city and county, that issues revenue bonds to finance the purchase, construction, or rehabilitation of housing pursuant to any statute or under the authority of its charter, and (6) any nonprofit corporation that has qualified under Section 501(c)(3) of the federal Internal Revenue Code and which issues indebtedness for which the interest is exempt from federal income taxation to finance the purchase, construction, or rehabilitation of housing in this state, shall report to the California Debt Advisory Commission the incomes, family size, and rents or mortgage payments of the occupants; the number, size, cost, sales price, location by zip code, and geographical distribution of the units developed; the length of time the units are required to be held for occupancy by targeted income groups, and, if applicable, the number of years the units are required to be held as rentals; and the distribution of housing developments among for-profit, limited dividend, and nonprofit sponsors. For the purposes of this section, "nonprofit sponsors" includes public agencies.

(b) The information required to be reported by subdivision (a) shall be reported at least annually during the time that a percentage of the units are required to be occupied by, or made available to, persons or families within a particular income group. The report required by subdivision (a) shall only apply to housing units financed with the proceeds of bonds that are authorized to be issued, and which are issued, on and after January 1, 1985, pursuant to any of the provisions described in subdivision (a) or implementing provisions supplementary thereto, such as the authorizations contained in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1. For purposes of this section, "bonds" means any bonds, notes, interim certificates, debentures, or other obligations issued under the authority of any of the provisions, or as otherwise, described in subdivision (a), and "issues" includes the issuance of bonds to refund previously issued bonds pursuant to the statutory provisions authorizing the original issuance or pursuant to supplementary authorization, such as Article 10 (commencing with Section 53570) of Chapter 3 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5.

The redevelopment agency, housing authority, local agency, or city and county may charge a fee to the recipient of agency financing not to exceed the cost of making the reports required by this section.

SEC. 2. Section 8855.7 is added to the Government Code, to read:

8855.7. (a) The reports required by Section 8855.5 shall also contain an analysis by the reporting agency of compliance with the targeting requirements of subsection (d) of Section 142 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. Sec. 142) with respect to any issue of its bonds subject to those requirements for the federal tax exemption under Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. Sec. 103). The analysis shall identify the numbers of rental units subject to this reporting requirement by categories based on the number of bedrooms per unit, and shall report as to each of these categories.

(b) No public agency or nonprofit corporation subject to the reporting requirements of Section 8855.5 may issue any bonds, including bonds to refund previously issued bonds, subject to the reporting requirements of that section until the Treasurer certifies to the Legislature that the public agency or nonprofit corporation has filed the information required by Section 8855.5 and this section with the California Debt Advisory Commission.

SEC. 3. Section 8855.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8855.8. The commission shall compile and summarize the information reported to the commission pursuant to Section 8855.5 and issue that summary to the Legislature and the Legislative Analyst on or before November 1 of each year that the information is received by the commission. This summary shall also list any redevelopment agency, housing authority, local agency, city, and county which issued bonds under the authority of any of the programs specified in subdivision (a) of Section 8855.5 without first obtaining a certification from the Treasurer required pursuant to Section 33760, 34312.3, 52097.5, or 52045 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 4. Section 50155 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50155. The Legislative Analyst shall include in the annual budget analysis, as needed, an analysis of the costs of tax-exempt mortgage revenue bond financing programs of (a) the California Housing Finance Agency, (b) cities, counties, and cities and counties pursuant to the provisions enacted by Chapter 114 of the Statutes of 1982, Chapter 1069 of the Statutes of 1979, Chapter 48 of the Statutes of 1975, Chapter 1201 of the Statutes of 1973, Chapter 610 of the Statutes of 1977, as amended, (c) charter cities and cities and counties acting pursuant to their charter powers to finance the purchase, construction, or rehabilitation of housing, and (d) nonprofit corporations that have qualified under Section 501(c)(3) of the federal Internal Revenue Code and which issue indebtedness for which the interest is exempt from federal income taxation to finance the purchase, construction, or rehabilitation of housing in this state. The analyst shall include information with respect to the cost to the state of tax incentives available to sponsors of housing developments under these programs, and shall specify the assumptions upon which the cost estimate is made. Each year in the annual budget analysis, the Legislative Analyst shall include information with respect to the benefits derived from the use of these tax incentives, including the incomes, family size, rents, and mortgage payments of initial occupants; the number, size, cost, and geographical distribution of the units developed; the length of the time the units shall be held for occupancy by targeted income groups, and, where applicable, the number of years units shall be held as rentals, and the distribution of housing developments among for-profit, limited dividend, and nonprofit sponsors. The analysis prepared pursuant to this section shall apply to bonds issued to refund previously issued bonds of programs specified in this section.

SEC. 5. Section 51005 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

51005. (a) The agency shall, by November 1 of each year, submit an annual report of its activities under this division for the preceding year to the Governor, the Secretary of the Business and Transportation Agency, the Director of Housing and Community Development, the Treasurer, the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, the Legislative Analyst, and the Legislature. The report shall set forth a complete operating and financial statement of the agency during the concluded fiscal year. The report shall specify the number of units assisted, the distribution of units among the metropolitan, nonmetropolitan, and rural areas of the state, and shall contain a summary of statistical data relative to the incomes of households occupying assisted units, the monthly rentals charged to occupants of rental housing developments, and the sales prices of housing developments purchased during the previous fiscal year by housing sponsors who are persons or families of low or moderate income. The report shall also include a statement of accomplishment during the previous year with respect to the agency's progress, priorities, and affirmative action efforts. The agency shall specifically include in its report on affirmative action goals, statistical data on the numbers and percentages of minority sponsors, developers, contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, architects, engineers, attorneys, mortgage bankers or other lenders, insurance agents, and managing agents.

(b) The report shall also include specific information evaluating the extent to which the programs administered by the agency have attained the statutory objectives of the agency, including, but not limited to, (1) the primary purpose of the agency in meeting the housing needs of persons and families of low or moderate income pursuant to Section 50950, (2) the occupancy requirements for very low income households established pursuant to Sections 50951 and 51226, (3) the elderly and orthopedic disability occupancy requirements established pursuant to Section 51230, (4) the use of surplus moneys pursuant to Section 51007, (5) the metropolitan, nonmetropolitan, and rural goals established pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 50952, (6) the California Statewide Housing Plan, as required by Section 50154, (7) the statistical and other information developed and maintained pursuant to Section 51650, (8) the implementation and administration of the Senior Citizens Housing Assistance Program established pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 51450), including (A) the number of assisted units in rental housing developments, (B) the number of units in rental housing developments occupied by, or available to, eligible households, (C) the number of units in rental housing developments occupied by, or available to, very low income eligible households, (D) the average income of, and the distribution of annual incomes among, eligible households, (E) the average and median cost of a unit in each rental housing development, (F) the administrative costs incurred by the agency to implement and manage each program, (G) the agency's recommendations, as needed, to improve the operation of each program, (9) the number of manufactured housing units assisted by the agency, (10) information with respect to the proceeds derived from the issuance of bonds or securities and any interest or other increment derived from the investment of bonds or securities, and the uses for which those proceeds or increments are being made as provided for in Section 51365, including the amount by which each fund balance exceeds indenture requirements, (11) any recommendations described in subdivision (d), (12) any recommendations described in Section 51227, (13) the revenue bonding authority plan adopted pursuant to Section 51004.5, (14) the statistical and other information required to be provided pursuant to Section 50155, and (15) an analysis of the agency's compliance with the targeting requirements of subsection (d) of Section 142 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. Sec. 142) with respect to any issue of bonds subject to those requirements under Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (26 U.S.C. Sec. 103), including the numbers of rental units subject to this reporting requirement by categories based on the number of bedrooms per unit.

The agency may, at its option, include the information required by this section in a single document or may separately report the statistical portion of the information in a supplement appended to its annual report. This statistical supplement shall be distributed with copies of the agency's annual report, but need not be provided to bond rating agencies, underwriters, investors, developers, or financial institutions.

The Legislative Analyst shall include an analysis of the information in the report on the Senior Citizens Housing Assistance Program in the Legislative Analyst's analysis of the 1989 and 1990 Budget Bills and evaluate the extent to which the objectives of Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 51450) are being accomplished along with any recommendations for improving program performance and meeting statutory objectives.

(c) The agency shall cause an audit of its books and accounts with respect to its activities under this division to be made at least once during each fiscal year by an independent certified public accountant and the agency shall be subject to audit by the Department of Finance not more often than once each fiscal year.

(d) The agency shall assess any obstacles or problems which it has encountered in meeting its mandate to serve nonmetropolitan and rural metropolitan areas, and recommend legislative and administrative solutions to overcome these obstacles or problems. The agency shall separately assess its progress in meeting the rehabilitation needs of rural areas and the new construction needs of rural areas, and separately assess its progress as to single and multifamily units. The agency shall include in its report a quantification and evaluation of its progress in meeting the housing needs of communities of various sizes in rural areas.

(e) By December 1 of each fiscal year, the agency shall ascertain that not less than 25 percent of the total units financed by mortgage loans during the preceding 12 months pursuant to this part were made available to very low income households. If the agency finds that these very low income occupancy goals have not been met, the agency shall immediately notify the Governor, the Speaker of the Assembly, and the Senate Rules Committee, and shall recommend legislation or other action as may be required to make (1) at least 25 percent of the units so available, and (2) at least 25 percent of the units thereafter financed so available. In housing developments for which the agency provides a construction loan but not a mortgage loan, the agency shall report annually on the percentage of units projected to be made available for occupancy and actually occupied by lower income households.

SEC. 6. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 8855.5 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and SB 2117. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 8855.5 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 2117, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 1612

An act to amend Section 118 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to surplus state property.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 118 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

118. (a) Whenever the department determines that any real property or interest therein, previously or hereafter acquired by the state for highway purposes, is no longer necessary for those purposes, the department may sell, contract to sell, sell by trust deed, or exchange the real property or interest therein in the manner and upon terms, standards, and conditions established by the commission. The payment period in any contract of sale or sale by trust deed shall not extend longer than 10 years from the time the contract of sale or trust deed is executed, and any transaction involving a contract of sale or sale by trust deed to private parties shall require a downpayment of at least 30 percent of the purchase price, except as follows:

(1) In the case of improved and unimproved real property sold or exchanged for the purpose of housing for persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined in Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code, the payment period may not exceed 40 years and the downpayment shall be at least 5 percent of the purchase price. All contracts of sale or sales by trust deed, for the purpose of housing for persons and families of low- or moderate-income shall bear interest. The rate of interest for any such contract or sale shall be computed annually, and shall be the same as the average rate returned by the Pooled Money Investment Board for the past five fiscal years immediately preceding the year in which the payment is made. The contract of sale and sales by trust deeds shall not be utilized if the proposed development or sale qualifies for financing from other sources and if the financing makes feasible the provision of low- and moderate-income housing.

(2) All improved residential property sold to a local public agency pursuant to paragraph (1), if subsequently sold or transferred to a nonprofit housing organization, shall have the endorsement of the city in which the parcels are located, or the county if the parcels are located in an unincorporated area, that the housing shall remain at affordable housing costs to persons and families of low- or moderate-income and very low income households for the longest feasible time, but for not less than 15 years, as determined by the city or county, as the case may be. By endorsing such a sale, the city or county accepts the responsibility of ensuring the housing remains affordable. The local public agency shall record in the office of the county recorder, covenants or restrictions implementing this subdivision. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the covenants or restrictions shall run with the land and shall be enforceable against the original purchaser from the department and successors in interest.

(b) Any conveyance under this section shall be approved by the commission and shall be executed on behalf of the state by the director and the purchase price shall be paid into the State Treasury to the credit of any fund, available to the department for highway purposes, which the commission designates.

(c) Any such real property or interest therein may in like manner be exchanged, either as whole or part consideration, for any other real property or interest therein needed for state highway purposes.

SEC. 2. (a) The Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board and the Director of Corrections, may sell to the City of Vacaville for current market value and upon such terms and conditions and subject to such reservations and exceptions as the Director of General Services determines are in the best interest of the state, approximately 5.0 acres, being a portion of the California Medical Facility in Vacaville, fronting on Peabody Road at the southeast corner of the facility, subject to the conditions that the property be used solely for animal care and shelter purposes and, if for any reason, the property ceases to be so used, the state may reenter the property and, upon that reentry, any interest in the property shall terminate and ownership shall vest entirely in the state.

(b) The sale of the parcel described in subdivision (a) is exempt from Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 21100) to 6 (commencing with Section 21165), inclusive, of Division 13 of the Public Resources Code.

(c) The Department of General Services shall be reimbursed for any cost or expense incurred in the disposition of the parcel described in subdivision (a), subject to appropriation therefor by the Legislature, from the proceeds of that disposition.

(d) After deducting the amount necessary for the purposes of subdivision (c), the net proceeds received from the disposition of that parcel shall be deposited in the General Fund.

(e) As to the property sold pursuant to subdivision (a), the Director of General Services shall except and reserve to the state all mineral deposits, as defined in Section 6407 of the Public Resources Code, below a depth of 500 feet, without surface rights of entry.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

CHAPTER 1613

An act to add Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 8910) to Part 6 of Division 1 of the Education Code, relating to teenagers.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 8910) is added to Part 6 of Division 1 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 6.5. Coordination of Programs Serving Pregnant and Parenting Teens

8910. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) Pregnancy of teens continues to be a serious problem in California. In 1984, 28,834 teens 18 years of age and under gave birth in California, including 891 who were 14 years of age or younger. Each year, over 58,000 California teens are either pregnant or parenting.

(b) Teen pregnancy is the point of entry into the system of public social services, and the point of exit from the school system, and the greatest single cause of school dropout for female pupils. Continued school enrollment is a deterrent to second pregnancies. Completion of school and acquisition of marketable skills also prevent long-term and costly dependency on the system of public social services.

(c) Local school districts vary in the amount of state and local fiscal resources to serve pregnant and parenting teens. In the last 20 years legislative enactments have created education-based categorical approaches to serving pregnant and parenting teens. These include schoolage and parent infant development programs, pregnant minor programs, employability programs, child development programs, dropout prevention programs, and family life education programs. The Legislature also has created health-based programs such as the adolescent family life program, perinatal access program, and community-based perinatal services.

(d) A comprehensive, coordinated, and integrated education, health, and employability program will result in a more efficient use of existing funds and prevent overlap and duplication of services.

(e) It is in the best interests of pregnant and parenting teens that school districts develop and implement a coordinated and integrated service plan for pregnant and parenting teens, in order to improve the delivery of services and continuity of education.

8911. (a) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall give highest priority to the awarding of new and continuing funds for programs serving pregnant and parenting teens to those school districts, consortiums of school districts, or county superintendents which satisfy the criteria and standards that the State Department of Education may establish for the award of new and continuing funds and which have a plan, approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, for coordination of pregnant and parenting teen programs available to teens within the applicable area, including, but not limited to, coordination of public and private social welfare and health service programs. Existing programs may continue to receive funding at the discretion of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and shall submit a plan for the coordination of programs serving pregnant and parenting teens on or before June 30, 1992.

(b) The plan shall address the following goals:

(1) Mobilizing existing services.

(2) Preventing school dropouts.

(3) Encouraging school reentry.

(4) Preventing second pregnancies.

(5) Providing pregnant and parenting teens with employability skills, and thereby assisting them to avoid dependency on public social services.

(6) Ensuring that transitional education services are provided to pregnant and parenting teens between the secondary and postsecondary levels.

(7) Ensuring that transitional services are provided to help pregnant and parenting teens who seek employment following completion of their secondary education.

(8) Improving health and nutrition.

(9) Providing adequate child care.

(10) Developing parenting skills.

(11) Providing transportation services between home and program sites to pregnant and parenting teens.

(c) The plan shall include at a minimum the following information with regard to the applicable area: the incidence of teen pregnancy, the current educational and child development resources, the current public and private resources impacting on pregnant and parenting teens, and a description of service coordinating agreements between the school district, consortium of school districts, or county superintendent and public and private agencies. The plan shall include a component describing transitional service between secondary education and postsecondary programs, and an evaluation of the impact of coordinated and comprehensive service on school dropouts, repeat pregnancies, and low infant birthweights.

(d) The plan shall identify regulatory and statutory barriers to coordination of services that exist in programs which benefit pregnant and parenting teens, school age parent-infant development programs, continuation school, independent studies, vocational education, child development, special education, general education, and community colleges. The plan also shall describe the district's specific plans for integrating categorical programs to ensure that pregnant and parenting teens receive all available and necessary services. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall report to the Legislature on the barriers to program coordination as identified in the district's plans. The information provided by the Superintendent of Public Instruction to the Legislature, regarding program coordination barriers, shall be utilized as an information base in the development of a comprehensive statewide plan for pregnant and parenting teens.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall notify school districts, consortiums of school districts, and county superintendents regarding the enactment of this section, and shall invite them to submit plans in accordance with this section. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall collect and disseminate to school districts models of successful coordination plans and shall assist districts, upon request, in the development of coordination plans.

CHAPTER 1614

An act to add Sections 5003.02 and 5080.38 to the Public Resources Code, to amend Section 5 of Chapter 812 of, and Section 8 of Chapter 1358 of, the Statutes of 1987, and to amend and supplement the Budget Act of 1988 by adding Items 3790-102-722 and 3790-304-721 to Section 2.00 thereof, relating to public property, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board, may sell, exchange, or lease for current market value or for any lesser consideration authorized by law and upon such terms and conditions and subject to such reservations and exceptions as the Director of General Services determines are in the best interest of the state, all or any part of the following real property:

PARCEL 1. Approximately 0.46 acre of vacant land, being a portion of Lot 9, Block 1, Etiwanda Colony Lands, as shown on that certain map recorded in the Office of the County Recorder of the County of San Bernardino and filed in Book 2 of Maps at page 24, and fronting on Etiwanda Avenue between Highland and Victoria Avenues, City of Rancho Cucamonga.

PARCEL 2. Approximately 6.26 acres of vacant land, being a portion of Section 34, T31N, R1E, Mt. Diablo Base and Meridian, lying south of State Route 44 and immediately east of the Shingletown Forest Fire Station, Shasta County.

SEC. 2. The Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board, may sell to the University of Southern California for current market value and upon such terms and conditions and subject to such reservations and exceptions as the Director of General Services determines are in the best interest of the state, all of Parcel 1, as described in Section 5 of Chapter 1358 of the Statutes of 1987, consisting of approximately 1.84 acres, with a structure, known as 3500 South Hope Street, Los Angeles.

SEC. 3. The Director of General Services, with the approval of the State Public Works Board and the Director of Parks and Recreation, may exchange with the Salvation Army, Inc., a California corporation, for current market value only, and upon such terms and conditions and subject to such reservations and exceptions as the Director of General Services determines are in the best interest of the state, any portion of Malibu Creek State Park, in Los Angeles County, and any recreational or park lands added to Malibu Creek State Park as the result of any exchange completed pursuant to Section 4 of Chapter 1358 of the Statutes of 1987, subject to the following conditions:

(a) State park lands shall be exchanged only for contiguous, unimproved lands that are determined by the Director of Parks and Recreation to be appropriate and desirable as recreational or park lands to be added to Malibu Creek State Park.

(b) The Salvation Army shall enter into an agreement with the Department of Parks and Recreation requiring it to operate the former state property solely as a not-for-profit youth camp and conference center in perpetuity.

(c) The Salvation Army shall not undertake any improvement on the former state property without the express approval of the Director of Parks and Recreation or the director's designee.

(d) Upon any breach of any of the conditions imposed pursuant to this section, the state may reenter the property and, upon that reentry, the interest of the Salvation Army shall terminate and ownership shall vest entirely in the state.

SEC. 4. (a) Notice of every public auction or bid opening shall be posted on the property to be sold under Section 1 and shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the real property to be sold is situated.

(b) Any sale, exchange, or lease of the parcels described in Sections 1, 2, and 3 are exempt from Chapters 3 (commencing with Section 21100) to 6 (commencing with Section 21165), inclusive, of Division 13 of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 5. (a) The Department of General Services shall be reimbursed for any cost or expense incurred in the disposition of any parcels described in this act, subject to appropriation therefor by the Legislature, from the proceeds of that disposition.

(b) After deducting the amount necessary for the purposes of subdivision (a), the net proceeds of any moneys received from the disposition of any parcel described in Sections 1 and 2 shall be deposited in the General Fund.

SEC. 6. As to any property sold pursuant to Section 1 consisting of 15 acres or less, the Director of General Services shall except and reserve to the state all mineral deposits, as defined in Section 6407 of the Public Resources Code, below a depth of 500 feet, without surface rights of entry. As to property sold pursuant to Section 1 consisting of more than 15 acres, the Director of General Services shall except and reserve to the state all mineral deposits, as defined in Section 6407 of the Public Resources Code, together with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the deposits. The rights to prospect for, mine, and remove the deposits shall be limited to those areas of the property conveyed which the director, after consultation with the State Lands Commission, determines to be reasonably necessary for the removal of the deposits.

SEC. 7. Section 5003.02 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5003.02. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the City of Santa Monica is letting a concession for the development of extensive new public facilities at Santa Monica State Beach and that the standard, 20-year term authorized by law is insufficient to enable any concessionaire to amortize the type and scale of improvements that the city requires of the concessionaire.

Accordingly, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 5080.18, the term of the concession contract entered into by the City of Santa Monica for the development of extensive new public facilities at Santa Monica State Beach may be for a period not to exceed 60 years if the contract also provides that the rent be reviewed and adjusted at least every five years to reflect any change in the Los Angeles-Long Beach Consumer Price Index.

SEC. 8. Section 5080.38 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5080.38. Notwithstanding any provision of this article, if title in fee, to the so-called Marconi property, near the community of Marshall in the County of Marin, is acquired at no cost to the state, the department may enter into an operating agreement with a qualified nonprofit organization for the development, improvement, restoration, care, maintenance, administration, and control of the Marconi Conference Center.

SEC. 9. Section 5 of Chapter 812 of the Statutes of 1987 is amended to read:

Sec. 5. (a) The Department of General Services shall conduct a study regarding the feasibility of consolidating all central state offices in the County of Riverside into a new state building in the western part of the county for reasons of economy and the centralization of state offices in an area capable of serving the largest number of citizens.

(b) As used in this section, "central state offices" means offices of agencies of state government that generally provide services to the general public on a regional basis or perform functions that typically do not require frequent interaction with members of the general public in the agency's offices. "Central state offices" does not include state offices customarily described as "field offices" or state offices or facilities which, because of the nature of the operations performed there, are not normally situated in a heavily urbanized area.

(c) The department shall consult with the County of Riverside; the Cities of Banning, Beaumont, Corona, Hemet, Lake Elsinore, Moreno Valley, Norco, Perris, Riverside, and San Jacinto; and such other cities and other local public agencies in the county as the department deems advisable.

(d) The results of this study shall be reported to the Legislature and all local governments and public agencies consulted with pursuant to subdivision (c) by January 1, 1989.

(e) The study shall address at least all of the following issues:

(1) A comparison of:

(A) The present and projected populations for the area that the new state office building in western Riverside County would serve, and

(B) The present and projected populations in the areas that would be served by new centralized state office buildings that the department has already scheduled for construction in Santa Barbara, El Monte, Inglewood, Fresno, Redding, Bakersfield, San Mateo, Ventura, Modesto, Salinas, and Santa Rosa.

(2) A determination of whether there is any other major population area in the state which currently has a population as large as the population of western Riverside County, or which is projected to have a population as large as the projected population of western Riverside County, and which does not have a centralized state office building or which is not scheduled by the department to have a centralized state office building by the 1995–96 fiscal year.

(3) A determination of what other areas of the state, based on present and projected populations, will be served by a centralized state office building comparable to the department's plans for a single, centralized state office building to serve the western portions of both Riverside and San Bernardino Counties, taking into account distances that citizens must travel to reach that building.

(4) A determination of whether there is any other area of the state with the combined total of state office space which could be consolidated into a centralized state office building as large as the combined total in western Riverside County, but which is not on the list of planned state office buildings.

(5) A determination of whether the department plans any expansion of the existing centralized state office building in San Bernardino and, if so, a determination of when that expansion is planned, what use is planned for the building, and whether any state offices now located in western Riverside County are planned for relocation to that building.

(6) The feasibility of negotiating with the federal government for the construction and operation of a combined state and federal, or state, federal, and local governmental office building in western Riverside County; an estimate of the savings that might be realized from a combined office building; a list of any other areas in the state that have a state office building shared with the federal government; and a list of areas in which a combined office building was determined to be infeasible and the reasons therefor.

SEC. 10. Section 8 of Chapter 1358 of the Statutes of 1987 is amended to read:

Sec. 8. (a) The Department of General Services shall be reimbursed for any cost or expense incurred in the disposition of any parcels, subject to appropriation therefor by the Legislature, from the proceeds of that disposition.

(b) After deducting the amount necessary for the purposes of subdivision (a), the net proceeds of any moneys received from the disposition of any parcel described in Sections 3, 4, 5, and 6 shall be deposited in the General Fund, except as follows:

(1) The net proceeds of any sale of state park property shall be deposited as provided in Section 5003.15 of the Public Resources Code and, in particular, the net proceeds of the sale of Parcel 3 of Section 3 shall be deposited in the Parklands Fund of 1984 and shall be reserved solely for future acquisitions at Henry W. Coe State Park.

(2) The net proceeds from the sale of Parcels 3 and 4 of Section 5 shall be deposited in the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund.

SEC. 11. Item 3790-102-722 is added to Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 (Chapter 313, Statutes of 1988) to read:

PARKLANDS ACQUISITION AND DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM OF 1984

CHAPTER 1615

An act to add Section 89905.5 to the Education Code, relating to higher education.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that:

(1) Auxiliary organizations in the California State University system are entities designed to provide essential campus services consistent with the educational mission of, but separately from, the university they directly serve.

(2) The Associated Students at California State University, Chico, is duly constituted and a recognized California State University auxiliary organization incorporated as a nonprofit corporation under California law and operating separate from, but consistent with, the mission of California State University, Chico.

(3) The Associated Students auxiliary organization at California State University, Chico, as an auxiliary organization, has provided commercial services to the Chico campus community since 1929.

(4) The President of California State University, Chico, has proposed to dissolve the interest of the Associated Students in providing commercial services, and to establish other auxiliary organizations to operate the commercial services, thereby raising serious questions about the potential for liability to the state.

(b) In enacting this measure, it is the Legislature's intent to ensure that auxiliary organizations continue to be operated in a manner that is separate from, but related to, the state so as to protect the state from possible liability.

SEC. 2. Section 89905.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

89905.5. (a) No auxiliary organization operating a commercial service on the California State University, Chico, campus shall discontinue that commercial service without providing the campus with adequate notice of its intent to discontinue the service, and the opportunity to continue the service through another means.

(b) No commercial service operated by an auxiliary organization on the California State University, Chico, campus or any aspect of the management of the commercial services shall be taken over by the Trustees of the California State University, the Chancellor of the California State University, the president of a campus of the California State University, or another auxiliary organization unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The entity seeking to assume all or part of the management of the commercial service has demonstrated that the commercial service has substantial programmatic or financial difficulties.

(2) The governing board of the auxiliary organization currently operating the commercial service has been provided adequate opportunity to respond to the concerns demonstrated pursuant to paragraph (1).

(3) The governing board of the entity seeking to assume all or part of the management of the commercial service has approved the assumption of the new programmatic or financial responsibility.

(4) The auxiliary organization currently operating the commercial service has been provided adequate compensation for any losses, including, but not limited to, property, inventory, services, or employees directly resulting from the assumption of all or part of the operation of the commercial service by the entity.

(c) If an entity assumes responsibility for commercial services pursuant to subdivision (b), the entity shall be established as an official California State University auxiliary organization operating separate from, but related to, the university of service so as to protect the state from all possible liability associated with the operation of commercial services.

SEC. 3. Due to the unique circumstances concerning the auxiliary organizations on the California State University, Chico, campus and in order that the existing auxiliary organizations on that campus may continue to operate without interruption, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1616

An act to amend and supplement the Budget Act of 1988 by amending Item 8550-001-191 of Section 2.00 thereof, relating to horseracing, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

I am reducing the appropriation Contained in Section 2 of Assembly Bill No. 2597 by $807,000.

This bill would amend and supplement the Budget Act of 1988 to appropriate an additional $807,000 from the Fair and Exposition Fund to the California Horse Racing Board for support of intertrack stewards.

I recently signed SB 2172 (Chapter 984 of 1988), which contained the identical funding found in AB 2597 Therefore, this augmented appropriation is unnecessary.

With this reduction, I approve Assembly Bill No. 2597.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the current level of funding for the support of intertrack stewards employed by the California Horse Racing Board at satellite wagering facilities is insufficient to carry out board policy for the assignment of stewards. By reason of the Legislature's budget reduction, the board has six hundred thirty thousand dollars ($630,000) available for the support of intertrack stewards for the 1988–89 fiscal year. That level of funding will support intertrack steward staffing at all satellite wagering facilities through October 31, 1988.

SEC. 2. Item 8550-001-191 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988 (Chapter 313, Statutes of 1988) is amended to read:

|---|---|---|
| 8550-001-191—For support of California Horse Racing Board, payable from the Fair and Exposition Fund | | 7,555,000 |
| Schedule: | | |
| (a) 100000-Personal Services | 1,946,000 | |
| (b) 300000-Operating Expenses and Equipment | 5,919,000 | |
| (c) Amount payable from the Race-tract Security Account, Special Deposit Fund (Item 8550-001-942) | -310,000 | |

Provisions:

1. On June 30, 1988, the remaining fund balances in the Other Regulatory Licenses and Permits Fund and any other amounts received during the 1988–89 fiscal year are hereby transferred to the Fair and Exposition Fund to supplement purses at fairs pursuant to Sections 19596.5 and 19596.5 (h) of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that the provisions of this act will become operative in time for the current 1988 racing season, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1617

An act to amend Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code, relating to ocean resources.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by Section 7 of Chapter 888 of the Statutes of 1986, is amended to read:

6217. With the exception of revenues derived from state school lands and from sources described in Sections 6217.6, 6301.5, 6301.6, 6855, and 8551 to 8558, inclusive, and Section 6406 (insofar as the proceeds are from property that has been distributed or escheated to the state in connection with unclaimed estates of deceased persons), the commission shall deposit in the State Treasury all revenues, moneys, and remittances received by it under this division, and under Chapter 138 of the Statutes of 1964, First Extraordinary Session, and these sums shall be applied to the following obligations in the following order:

(a) To the General Fund the revenue necessary to provide in any fiscal year for the following:

(1) Payment of refunds, authorized by the commission and approved by the State Board of Control, out of appropriations made for that purpose by the Legislature.

(2) Payment of expenditures of the commission as provided in the annual Budget Act approved by the Legislature.

(3) Payments to cities and counties of the amounts specified in Section 6817 for the purposes specified in that section, and the revenues so deposited are appropriated for such purpose.

(4) Payments to cities and counties of the amounts agreed to pursuant to the provisions of Section 6875.

(b) To the California Water Fund each fiscal year the amount of twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000).

(c) To the Central Valley Water Project Construction Fund each fiscal year the amount of five million dollars ($5,000,000).

(d) To the General Fund, the amount of five hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($525,000) for each of the 1989–90, 1990–91, 1991–92, 1992–93, and 1993–94 fiscal years for distribution for public and private higher education for use as up to two-thirds of the local matching share for projects under the National Sea Grant College and Program Act of 1966 (P.L. 89-688) approved, upon the recommendation of the advisory panel appointed pursuant to this section, by the Secretary of the Resources Agency or his or her designee. The Secretary of the Resources Agency shall submit a report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1993, which evaluates this program and makes recommendations on whether changes should be made to the program or whether it should be continued. The Legislature shall consider recommendations from the Secretary of the Resources Agency and other interested parties on the benefits to the people of the State of California derived from this program and shall determine whether or not to continue similar appropriations for subsequent fiscal years.

There shall be an advisory panel to the Secretary of the Resources Agency consisting of 16 members, which shall do all of the following:

(1) Identify state needs that might be met through Sea Grant research projects, including, but not limited to, such fields as living marine resources, aquaculture, ocean engineering, marine minerals, public recreation, coastal physical processes and coastal and ocean resources planning and management, and marine data acquisition and dissemination, establish priorities for those needs, and transmit those needs and priorities to the Legislature not later than January 1 of each year and include them in all announcements of proposals for grants in the following fiscal year.

(2) Review all applications for funding under this section and make recommendations based upon the priorities it establishes.

(3) Periodically review progress on Sea Grant research projects subsequent to their approval and funding under this section.

(4) Make recommendations to the Secretary of the Resources Agency with respect to the implementation of this section.

The Secretary of the Resources Agency shall appoint the following members of the advisory panel, who shall serve at the pleasure of the secretary:

(A) A representative of the Department of Boating and Waterways.

(B) A representative of the Department of Conservation.

(C) A representative of the Department of Fish and Game.

(D) The Executive Director of the California Coastal Commission or his or her designee.

(E) A representative of the fish industry.

(F) A representative of the aquaculture industry.

(G) A representative of the ocean engineering industry.

(H) A representative of the University of California.

(I) A representative of the California State University.

(J) A representative of a private California institution of higher education which is participating in the National Sea Grant Program.

(K) A representative of the State Lands Commission.

(L) A representative of the State Department of Health Services.

(M) A representative of the State Water Resources Control Board.

The Senate Committee on Rules shall appoint one Member of the Senate to the panel, who shall serve at the pleasure of the Senate Committee on Rules.

The Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint one Member of the Assembly to the panel, who shall serve at the pleasure of the Speaker. This member shall not be of the same political party as the member appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules.

The Secretary of the Resources Agency, or the secretary's designee, shall serve as chairperson of the panel. Panel members shall serve without compensation.

The Sea Grant research projects selected for state support under this section shall have a clearly defined benefit to the people of the State of California. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the funding provided by this section is needed to stimulate the development and utilization of ocean and coastal resources by working constructively with private sector firms and individuals. The Legislature further recognizes the high productivity of the California Sea Grant program, the only statewide program systematically devoted to supporting fundamental research, education, and extension activities on the diversity of problems related to marine resource protection and development. Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude the application for funding of any project that would be eligible for funding under the terms of the National Sea Grant College and Program Act of 1966.

(e) To the Capital Outlay Fund for Public Higher Education for the 1984–85 fiscal year the amount of one hundred two million one hundred sixty-eight thousand dollars ($102,168,000), and for each fiscal year thereafter, the amount necessary to provide for an unencumbered balance available for appropriation on July 1 of each fiscal year of one hundred twenty-five million dollars ($125,000,000).

(f) (1) To the State School Building Lease-Purchase Fund, for each of the fiscal years 1985–86, 1986–87, 1987–88, 1988–89, 1989–90, and 1990–91, the amount of one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000).

(2) For the fiscal years 1984–85, 1985–86, 1986–87, 1987–88, 1988–89, 1989–90, and 1990–91, up to 5 percent of the amounts deposited in the State School Building Lease-Purchase Fund pursuant to this section or any other provision of law may be spent in accordance with Sections 17785 to 17795, inclusive, of the Education Code (Emergency School Classroom Law of 1979).

(g) To the Energy and Resources Fund each fiscal year, commencing with the 1985–86 fiscal year, the amount of sixty-five million dollars ($65,000,000).

(h) To the Special Account for Capital Outlay, the balance of all revenues in excess of the amount distributed under subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g).

The commission may, with the approval of the State Board of Control, authorize the refund of moneys received or collected by it illegally or by mistake, inadvertence, or error. Claims authorized by the commission and approved by the State Board of Control shall be filed with the Controller and the Controller shall draw his or her warrant against the General Fund in payment of the refund from any appropriation made for that purpose.

All references in any law to Section 6816 shall be deemed to refer to this section.

SEC. 2. Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by Chapter 888 of the Statutes of 1986, is amended to read:

6217. With the exception of revenues derived from state school lands and from sources described in Sections 6217.6, 6301.5, 6301.6, 6855, and 8551 to 8558, inclusive, and Section 6406 (insofar as the proceeds are from property that has been distributed or escheated to the state in connection with unclaimed estates of deceased persons), the commission shall deposit in the State Treasury all revenues, moneys, and remittances received by it under this division, and under Chapter 138 of the Statutes of 1964, First Extraordinary Session, and these sums shall be applied to the following obligations in the following order:

(4) Make recommendations to the Secretary of the Resources Agency with respect to the implementation of this section.

The Secretary of the Resources Agency shall appoint the following members of the advisory panel, who shall serve at the pleasure of the secretary:

(A) A representative of the Department of Boating and Waterways.

(B) A representative of the Department of Conservation.

(C) A representative of the Department of Fish and Game.

(D) The Executive Director of the California Coastal Commission or his or her designee.

(E) A representative of the fish industry.

(F) A representative of the aquaculture industry.

(G) A representative of the ocean engineering industry.

(H) A representative of the University of California.

(I) A representative of the California State University.

(J) A representative of a private California institution of higher education which is participating in the National Sea Grant Program.

(K) A representative of the State Lands Commission.

(L) A representative of the State Department of Health Services.

(M) A representative of the State Water Resources Control Board.

The Senate Committee on Rules shall appoint one Member of the Senate to the panel, who shall serve at the pleasure of the Senate Committee on Rules.

The Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint one Member of the Assembly to the panel, who shall serve at the pleasure of the Speaker. This member shall not be of the same political party as the member appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules.

The Secretary of the Resources Agency, or the secretary's designee, shall serve as chairperson of the panel. Panel members shall serve without compensation.

(2) For the fiscal years 1984–85, 1985–86, 1986–87, 1987–88, 1988–89, 1989–90, and 1990–91, up to 5 percent of the amounts deposited in the State School Building Lease-Purchase Fund pursuant to this section or any other provision of law may be spent in accordance with Sections 17785 to 17795, inclusive, of the Education Code (Emergency School Classroom Law of 1979).

(g) To the Energy and Resources Fund each fiscal year, commencing with the 1985–86 fiscal year, the amount of sixty-five million dollars ($65,000,000).

(h) To the California Housing Trust Fund established pursuant to Section 50841 of the Health and Safety Code, for fiscal year 1989–90, the amount of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000).

(i) To the Special Account for Capital Outlay, the balance of all revenues in excess of the amount distributed under subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h).

The commission may, with the approval of the State Board of Control, authorize the refund of moneys received or collected by it illegally or by mistake, inadvertence, or error. Claims authorized by the commission and approved by the State Board of Control shall be filed with the Controller and the Controller shall draw his or her warrant against the General Fund in payment of the refund from any appropriation made for that purpose.

All references in any law to Section 6816 shall be deemed to refer to this section.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code proposed by both this bill and SB 2154. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 2154, in which case Section 6217 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by SB 2154, shall remain operative only until July 1, 1989, at which time Section 2 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. Section 1 of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1989, if Section 2 of this act does not become operative pursuant to Section 3 of this act.

CHAPTER 1618

An act to amend Section 678.1 of, and to add Sections 676.3, 676.4, and 676.6 to, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 676.3 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

676.3. Nothing in Section 676.2 shall preclude the imposition, pursuant to the policy and while the policy is in force, of limitations or exclusions upon coverage by a policy insuring dentists or physicians and surgeons against legal liability arising from the rendering of professional services by an insured licensed pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1600) or Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, respectively, if these limitations or exclusions are imposed pursuant to the recommendation of an underwriting committee advising the insurer; provided that a majority of the members of that committee are licensed pursuant to the chapter of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code that is applicable to that particular insured, and written notification of the proposed limitation or exclusion is first given to the insured, and the insured is afforded not less than 30 days to present opposition or argument to the underwriting committee as to why the proposed limitation or exclusion should be modified or withheld, prior to any imposition thereof.

It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage peer review by insurers providing coverage to persons engaged in the provision of health services and the adoption of conditions of coverage which are intended to protect the public.

SEC. 2. Section 676.4 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

676.4. Nothing in Section 676.2 shall preclude, while the policies are in force, changes in the rate upon which the premium is based or the conditions of coverage, or both, of policies insuring health care facilities licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, if the change is imposed pursuant to the recommendation of a health care facility professional liability advisory committee advising the insurer; provided that a majority of the members of the committee are duly authorized representatives of health care facilities licensed pursuant to that Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, and written notification of the change is given to all affected insureds at least 30 days prior to any such change.

SEC. 3. Section 676.6 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

676.6. (a) This section applies to commercial umbrella liability insurance policies, commercial excess liability insurance policies, and commercial excess property insurance policies.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Umbrella liability insurance policy" means an insurance policy providing liability coverage per person or per occurrence or per claim, when written over one or more underlying liability policies or over a specified amount of self-insured retention.

(2) "Excess liability insurance policy" means an insurance policy providing liability covrage per person or per occurrence or per claim when written over one or more underlying liability policies. Excess liability policies shall include policies written over umbrella liability policies.

(3) "Excess property insurance policy" means a policy providing property coverage per occurrence or per location when written over one or more underlying property insurance policies or a specified amount of self-insured retention.

(c) After a policy defined in subdivision (b) of this section has been in effect for more than 60 days, or if the policy is a renewal, effective immediately, no notice of cancellation shall be effective unless it complies with Section 677.2, is based on one or more of the grounds set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 676.2, or is based on one or more of the following:

(1) A material change in limits, type or scope of coverage, or exclusions in one or more of the underlying policies.

(2) Cancellation or nonrenewal of one or more of the underlying policies where such policies are not replaced without lapse.

(3) A reduction in financial rating or grade of one or more insurers, insuring one or more underlying policies based on an evaluation obtained from a recognized financial rating organization.

(d) A notice of nonrenewal shall not be required in any of the following situations:

(1) The transfer of, or renewal of, a policy without a change in its terms or conditions or the rate on which the premium is based between insurers which are members of the same insurance group.

(2) The policy has been extended for 90 days or less, if the notice required in subdivision (c) has been given prior to the extension.

(3) The named insured has obtained replacement coverage or has agreed, in writing, within 60 days of the termination of the policy, to obtain that coverage.

(4) The policy is for a period of no more than 60 days and the insured is notified at the time of issuance that it may not be renewed.

(5) The named insured requests a change in the terms or conditions or risks covered by the policy within 60 days prior to the end of the policy period.

(6) The insurer has made a written offer to the insured, within the time period specified in subdivision (c), to renew the policy under changed terms or conditions or at a changed premium rate. As used herein, "terms or conditions" includes, but is not limited to, a reduction in limits, elimination of coverages, or an increase in deductibles.

SEC. 4. Section 678.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

678.1. (a) This section applies only to policies of insurance of commercial insurance which are subject to Sections 675.5 and 676.6.

(b) A notice of nonrenewal shall be in writing and shall be delivered or mailed to the producer of record and to the named insured at the mailing address shown on the policy. Subdivision (a) of Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be applicable if the notice is mailed.

(c) An insurer, at least 45 days, but not more than 120 days, in advance of the end of the policy period, shall give notice of nonrenewal, and the reasons for the nonrenewal, if the insurer intends not to renew the policy, or to condition renewal upon reduction of limits, elimination of coverages, increase in deductibles, or increase of more than 25 percent in the rate upon which the premium is based. Excepting that an insurer for policyholders whose aggregate premium is ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or less shall, at least 60 days but not more than 120 days in advance of the policy period, give notice of nonrenewal, and the reasons for the nonrenewal if the insurer intends to not renew the policy, or, to condition renewal upon reduction of limits, elimination of coverages, increase in deductibles, or increase of more than 25 percent in the rate upon which the premium is based.

(d) If an insurer fails to give timely notice required by subdivision (c), the policy of insurance shall be continued, with no change in its terms or conditions, for a period of 60 days after the insurer gives the notice.

(e) With respect to policies defined in subdivision (b) of Section 676.6, in addition to the bases for conditional renewal set forth in subdivision (c), an insurer may also condition renewal upon requirements relating to the underlying policy or policies. If the requirements are not satisfied as of (1) the expiration date of the policy, or (2) 30 days after mailing or delivery of such notice, whichever is later, the conditional renewal notice shall be treated as an effective notice of nonrenewal, providing the insurer has sent written confirmation to the first named insured and the producer of record that the conditions were not met and that coverage ceased at the expiration date shown in the expiring policy.

(f) A notice of nonrenewal shall not be required in any of the following situations:

(1) The transfer of, or renewal of, a policy without a change in its terms or conditions or the rate on which the premium is based between insurers which are members of the same insurance group.

(2) The policy has been extended for 90 days or less, if the notice required in subdivision (c) has been given prior to the extension.

(3) The named insured has obtained replacement coverage or has agreed, in writing, within 60 days of the termination of the policy, to obtain that coverage.

(4) The policy is for a period of no more than 60 days and the insured is notified at the time of issuance that it may not be renewed.

(5) The named insured requests a change in the terms or conditions or risks covered by the policy within 60 days prior to the end of the policy period.

(6) The insurer has made a written offer to the insured, within the time period specified in subdivision (c), to renew the policy under changed terms or conditions or at a changed premium rate. As used herein, "terms or conditions" includes, but is not limited to, a reduction in limits, elimination of coverages, or an increase in deductibles.

SEC. 5. It is the further intent of the Legislature that any limitations or exclusions imposed pursuant to Section 676.3 of the Insurance Code shall be for the purpose of remediating unsafe practices of an individual insured. Those limitations or exclusions shall not be for the purpose, or otherwise have the effect of, prohibiting or restricting the utilization by an insured of a qualified nurse anesthetist to perform procedures within the scope of his or her licensure solely by reason of the category of license held by the provider.

CHAPTER 1619

An act to amend Sections 7035, 7085.6, 7090.1, and 7109 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to contractors, and making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

I am reducing the appropriation contained in Section 5 of Assembly Bill No. 4005 from $165,000 to $119,000.

This bill expands a pilot project permitting local authorities to issue citations for unlicensed activity by those requiring licensure by the Contractors State License Board, extends the sunset date to July 1, 1989, and appropriates $165,000 from the Contractors State License Fund to the Contractors State License Board for this purpose.

$119,000 is sufficient to provide the necessary resources for the completion of this experimental project.

With this reduction, I approve Assembly Bill No 4005.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7035 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7035. (a) There is hereby created a pilot project to be operated in not more than 10 cities, counties, or cities and counties, as determined by the registrar and as authorized by the individual cities, counties, or cities and counties, under which a local building inspector, or a person designated by the city or county, when checking for building or construction permits or for compliance with local or state building laws, may issue a citation to a person who is engaged in contracting without a license in violation of this chapter.

(b) All citations shall be on a form prescribed by the registrar. One copy of the citation shall be given to the alleged violator and one copy shall be forwarded to the registrar within 10 days of issuance.

(c) The board shall reimburse the local entity the sum of fifty dollars ($50) for each citation issued by an inspector of that entity.

(d) This section shall be operative until July 1, 1989, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute extends or repeals this section.

SEC. 2. Section 7085.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7085.6. The failure of a licensee to comply with an arbitration award rendered under this article shall result in the automatic suspension of a license by operation of law. The registrar shall notify the licensee by certified mail of the failure to comply with the arbitrator's award, and that the license shall be automatically suspended 30 calendar days from the date of that notice. The licensee may appeal the suspension for noncompliance within 15 calendar days after service of the notice by written notice to the registrar. Reinstatement may be made at any time following the suspension by complying with the arbitrator's award and the final order of the registrar. If no reinstatement of the license is made within one year of the date of the automatic suspension, the license and any other contractors' license issued to the licensee shall be automatically revoked by operation of law for a period to be determined by the registrar pursuant to Section 7102. The licensee shall be automatically prohibited from serving as an officer, director, associate, partner, or qualifying individual of another licensee, for the period determined by the registrar and the employment, election, or association of such a person by another licensee shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action. Any qualifier disassociated pursuant to this section shall be replaced within 90 days from the date of disassociation. Upon failure to replace the qualifier within 90 days of the disassociation, the license of the other licensee shall be automatically suspended or the qualifier's classification removed at the end of the 90 days.

SEC. 3. Section 7090.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7090.1. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the failure to pay a civil penalty, or to comply with an order of correction or an order to pay a specified sum to an injured party in lieu of correction once the order has become final, shall result in the automatic suspension of a license by operation of law 30 days after noncompliance with the terms of the order. The registrar shall notify the licensee in writing of the failure to comply with the final order and that the license shall be suspended 30 days from the date of the notice. The licensee may contest the determination of noncompliance within 15 days after service of the notice, by written notice to the registrar. Upon receipt of the written notice, the registrar may reconsider the determination and after reconsideration may affirm or set aside the suspension. Reinstatement may be made at any time following the suspension by complying with the final order of the citation. If no reinstatement of the license is made within one year of the date of the automatic suspension, the cited license and any other contractors' license issued to the licensee shall be automatically revoked by operation of law for a period to be determined by the registrar pursuant to Section 7102. The cited licensee shall also be automatically prohibited from serving as an officer, director, associate, partner, or qualifying individual of another licensee, for the period determined by the registrar, and the employment, election, or association of such a person by a licensee shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action. Any qualifier disassociated pursuant to this section shall be replaced within 90 days of the date of disassociation. Upon failure to replace the qualifier within 90 days of the prohibition, the license of the other licensee shall be automatically suspended or the qualifier's classification removed at the end of the 90 days.

SEC. 4. Section 7109 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7109. (a) A willful departure in any material respect from accepted trade standards for good and workmanlike construction constitutes a cause for disciplinary action, unless the departure was in accordance with plans and specifications prepared by or under the direct supervision of an architect.

(b) A willful departure from or disregard of plans or specifications in any material respect, which is prejudicial to another, without the consent of the owner or his or her duly authorized representative and without the consent of the person entitled to have the particular construction project or operation completed in accordance with such plans or specifications, constitutes a cause for disciplinary action.

SEC. 5. The sum of one hundred sixty-five thousand dollars ($165,000) is hereby appropriated from the Contractors' License Fund to the Contractors' State License Board for purposes of Section 1 of this act.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The state currently mandates protection for consumers by requiring cities and counties to verify licensure status of contractors before a building permit is issued. Currently, the means of complying with this verification requirement is cumbersome and difficult, if not impossible. The result is that unlicensed individuals are being issued permits for construction, thereby further exposing the public at large to health and safety risks.

In order that these risks are mitigated at the earliest possible time, to rectify defects in existing law relating to enforcement, and to make the law relating to arbitration easier to administer, as well as to provide for effective discipline of contractors, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1620

An act to add Section 9719 to the Business and Professions Code, to amend Sections 7051 and 7054.7 of, and to add Section 7051.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to human remains.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9719 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

9719. The board shall inspect the books, records, and premises of any crematory licensed under this chapter or any certificate of authority holder operating a crematory. In making those inspections, the board shall have access to all books and records, the crematory building, the cremation chambers or furnaces, and the storage areas for human remains before and after cremation, during regular office hours or the hours the crematory is in operation. No prior notification of the inspection is required to be given to the certificate of authority holder or the crematory licensee. If any certificate of authority holder or any crematory licensee fails to allow that inspection or any part thereof, it shall be grounds for the suspension or revocation of a license or other disciplinary action against the licensee. In the case of a certificate of authority holder, the suspension, revocation, or other disciplinary action may be limited to the operation of the crematory. All proceedings under this section shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this chapter relating to disciplinary proceedings.

SEC. 2. Section 7051 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7051. Every person who removes any part of any human remains from any place where it has been interred, or from any place where it is deposited while awaiting interment or cremation, with intent to sell it or to dissect it, without authority of law, or written permission of the person or persons having the right to control the remains under Section 7100, or with malice or wantonness, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison.

SEC. 3. Section 7051.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

7051.5. Every person who removes or possesses dental gold or dental silver from any human remains without specific written permission of the person or persons having the right to control those remains under Section 7100 is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison. The fact that incidental and unavoidable dental gold or dental silver remains in the cremation chamber or other equipment or any container used in a prior cremation is not a violation of this section.

SEC. 4. Section 7054.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7054.7. (a) Except with the express written permission of the person entitled to control the disposition of the remains, no person shall:

(1) Cremate the remains of more than one person at the same time in the same cremation chamber or permit the remains or cremated remains of more than one person to be in the same cremation chamber at the same time. The fact that incidental and unavoidable residue remains in the cremation chamber or other equipment or any container used in a prior cremation is not a violation of this section.

(2) Dispose of or scatter cremated remains in such a manner or in such a location that the remains are commingled with those of another person. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to the burial of cremated remains at sea from individual containers or to the scattering or burial of cremated remains in a dedicated cemetery in a garden area used exclusively for such purposes.

(3) Place cremated or uncremated remains of more than one person in the same container or the same interment plot. This paragraph shall not apply to the following:

(A) Interment of members of the same family in a common container designed for the cremated remains of more than one person.

(B) Interment in a plot or container that has been previously designated at the time of sale as being intended for the interment of remains of more than one person.

(b) Written permission from the person entitled to control the disposition of the cremated remains shall be obtained by the person with whom arrangements are made for disposition of the remains and in such form as shall be prescribed by the Cemetery Board. The document shall be filed with and retained by the person who disposes of or inters the remains.

(c) Any person, including any corporation or partnership, violating any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 5. No appropriation is made and no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution or Section 2231 or 2234 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1621

An act to amend Sections 436.2 and 436.8 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 436.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

436.2. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this section govern the construction of this chapter and of Section 32127.2.

(a) "Bondholder" means the legal owner of a bond or other evidence of indebtedness issued by a political subdivision or a nonprofit corporation.

(b) "Borrower" means a political subdivision or nonprofit corporation which has secured or intends to secure a loan for the construction of a health facility.

(c) "Construction, improvement, or expansion" or "construction, improvement, and expansion" includes construction of new buildings, expansion, modernization, renovation, remodeling and alteration of existing buildings, acquisition of existing buildings or health facilities, and initial or additional equipping of any of these buildings.

In connection therewith, "construction, improvement, or expansion" or "construction, improvement, and expansion" includes the cost of construction or acquisition of all structures, including parking facilities, real or personal property, rights, rights-of-way, the cost of demolishing or removing any buildings or structures on land so acquired, including the cost of acquiring any land to which the buildings or structures may be moved, the cost of all machinery and equipment, financing charges, interest (prior to, during and for a period after completion of the construction), provisions for working capital, reserves for principal and interest and for extensions, enlargements, additions, replacements, renovations and improvements, cost of engineering, financial and legal services, plans, specifications, studies, surveys, estimates of cost and of revenues, administrative expenses, expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility or practicability of constructing or incident to the construction; or the financing of the construction or acquisition.

(d) "Council" means the Advisory Health Council.

(e) "Debenture" means any form of written evidence of indebtedness issued by the State Treasurer pursuant to this chapter, as authorized by Section 4 of Article XVI of the California Constitution.

(f) "Fund" means the Health Facility Construction Loan Insurance Fund.

(g) "Health facility" means any facility providing or designed to provide services for the acute, convalescent, and chronically ill and impaired, including but not limited to public health centers, community mental health centers, facilities for the developmentally disabled, nonprofit community care facilities that provide care, habilitation, rehabilitation or treatment to developmentally disabled persons, and general tuberculosis, mental, and other types of hospitals and related facilities, such as laboratories, outpatient departments, extended care, nurses' home and training facilities, offices and central service facilities operated in connection with hospitals, diagnostic or treatment centers, extended care facilities, nursing homes, and rehabilitation facilities. "Health facility" also means an adult day health center and a multilevel facility. Except for facilities for the developmentally disabled or a multilevel facility, "health facility" does not include any institution furnishing primarily domiciliary care.

Unless the context dictates otherwise, "health facility" includes a political subdivision of the state or nonprofit corporation which operates a facility included within the definition set forth in this subdivision.

(h) "Office" means the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

(i) "Lender" means the provider of a loan and its successors and assigns.

(j) "Loan" means money or credit advanced for the costs of construction or expansion of the health facility, and includes both initial loans and loans secured upon refinancing and may include both interim, or short-term loans, and long-term loans. A duly authorized bond or bond issue, or an installment sale agreement, may constitute a "loan."

(k) "Maturity date" means the date on which the loan indebtedness would be extinguished if paid in accordance with periodic payments provided for by the terms of the loan.

(l) "Mortgage" means a first mortgage on real estate. "Mortgage" includes a first deed of trust.

(m) "Mortgagee" includes a lender whose loan is secured by a mortgage. "Mortgagee" includes a beneficiary of a deed of trust.

(n) "Mortgagor" includes a borrower, a loan to whom is secured by a mortgage, and the trustor of a deed of trust.

(o) "Nonprofit corporation" means any corporation formed under or subject to the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law (Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code) or its equivalent under the laws of the state of incorporation, organized for the purpose of owning and operating a health facility.

(p) "Political subdivision" means any city, county, city and county, joint powers entity, local hospital district, or the California Health Facilities Authority.

(q) "Project property" means the real property upon which the health facility is, or is to be, constructed, improved, or expanded, and also means the health facility and the initial equipment in such health facility.

(r) "Public health facility" means any health facility which is or will be constructed for and operated and maintained by any city, county, city and county, or local hospital district.

(s) "Adult day health center" means a facility defined under subdivision (b) of Section 1570.7, which provides adult day health care, as defined under subdivision (a) of Section 1570.7.

(t) "Multilevel facility" means an institutional arrangement where a residential facility for the elderly is operated as a part of, or in conjunction with, an intermediate care facility, a skilled nursing facility, or a general acute care hospital. "Elderly," for the purposes of this subdivision, means a person 62 years of age or older.

SEC. 1.5. Section 436.2 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 3 of Assembly Bill 3326, is amended to read:

436.2. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this section govern the construction of this chapter and of Section 32127.2.

(a) "Bondholder" means the legal owner of a bond or other evidence of indebtedness issued by a political subdivision or a nonprofit corporation.

(b) "Borrower" means a political subdivision or nonprofit corporation which has secured or intends to secure a loan for the construction of a health facility.

(c) "Construction, improvement, or expansion" or "construction, improvement, and expansion" includes construction of new buildings, expansion, modernization, renovation, remodeling and alteration of existing buildings, acquisition of existing buildings or health facilities, and initial or additional equipping of any of these buildings.

In connection therewith, "construction, improvement, or expansion" or "construction, improvement, and expansion" includes the cost of construction or acquisition of all structures, including parking facilities, real or personal property, rights, rights-of-way, the cost of demolishing or removing any buildings or structures on land so acquired, including the cost of acquiring any land to which the buildings or structures may be moved, the cost of all machinery and equipment, financing charges, interest (prior to, during and for a period after completion of the construction), provisions for working capital, reserves for principal and interest and for extensions, enlargements, additions, replacements, renovations and improvements, cost of engineering, financial and legal services, plans, specifications, studies, surveys, estimates of cost and of revenues, administrative expenses, expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility or practicability of constructing or incident to the construction; or the financing of the construction or acquisition.

(d) "Council" means the Advisory Health Council.

(e) "Debenture" means any form of written evidence of indebtedness issued by the State Treasurer pursuant to this chapter, as authorized by Section 4 of Article XVI of the California Constitution.

(f) "Fund" means the Health Facility Construction Loan Insurance Fund.

(g) "Health facility" means any facility providing or designed to provide services for the acute, convalescent, and chronically ill and impaired, including but not limited to public health centers, community mental health centers, facilities for the developmentally disabled, nonprofit community care facilities that provide care, habilitation, rehabilitation or treatment to developmentally disabled persons, and general tuberculosis, mental, and other types of hospitals and related facilities, such as laboratories, outpatient departments, extended care, nurses' home and training facilities, offices and central service facilities operated in connection with hospitals, diagnostic or treatment centers, extended care facilities, nursing homes, and rehabilitation facilities. "Health facility" also means an adult day health center, a multilevel facility, and a hospice or other type of facility for the medical or multidisciplinary care of persons in the last phases of terminal diseases, including, but not limited to, a hospice program as defined in Section 199.91. Except for facilities for the developmentally disabled, a multilevel facility, or a hospice program, "health facility" does not include any institution furnishing primarily domiciliary care.

Unless the context dictates otherwise, "health facility" includes a political subdivision of the state or nonprofit corporation which operates a facility included within the definition set forth in this subdivision.

(h) "Office" means the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

(i) "Lender" means the provider of a loan and its successors and assigns.

(j) "Loan" means money or credit advanced for the costs of construction or expansion of the health facility, and includes both initial loans and loans secured upon refinancing and may include both interim, or short-term loans, and long-term loans. A duly authorized bond or bond issue, or an installment sale agreement, may constitute a "loan."

(k) "Maturity date" means the date on which the loan indebtedness would be extinguished if paid in accordance with periodic payments provided for by the terms of the loan.

(l) "Mortgage" means a first mortgage on real estate. "Mortgage" includes a first deed of trust.

(m) "Mortgagee" includes a lender whose loan is secured by a mortgage. "Mortgagee" includes a beneficiary of a deed of trust.

(n) "Mortgagor" includes a borrower, a loan to whom is secured by a mortgage, and the trustor of a deed of trust.

(o) "Nonprofit corporation" means any corporation formed under or subject to the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law (Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code) or its equivalent under the laws of the state of incorporation, organized for the purpose of owning and operating a health facility.

(p) "Political subdivision" means any city, county, city and county, joint powers entity, local hospital district, or the California Health Facilities Authority.

(q) "Project property" means the real property upon which the health facility is, or is to be, constructed, improved, or expanded, and also means the health facility and the initial equipment in such health facility.

(r) "Public health facility" means any health facility which is or will be constructed for and operated and maintained by any city, county, city and county, or local hospital district.

(s) "Adult day health center" means a facility defined under subdivision (b) of Section 1570.7, which provides adult day health care, as defined under subdivision (a) of Section 1570.7.

(t) "Multilevel facility" means an institutional arrangement where a residential facility for the elderly is operated as a part of, or in conjunction with, an intermediate care facility, a skilled nursing facility, or a general acute care hospital. "Elderly," for the purposes of this subdivision, means a person 62 years of age or older.

SEC. 2. Section 436.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

436.8. A loan shall be eligible for insurance under this chapter if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) When the borrower is a nonprofit corporation, such loan shall be secured by a mortgage, first lien, trust indenture, or any other security agreement which the office may require subject only to the conditions, covenants and restrictions, easements, taxes, and assessments of record approved by the office. When the borrower is a political subdivision, the loan may be evidenced by a duly authorized bond issue. A loan to a local hospital district or county may meet the requirement of this subdivision by either method.

(b) When (1) the borrower is a nonprofit corporation or (2) the borrower is a public hospital and the loan is secured by a mortgage or first lien, the borrower obtains an American Land Title Association title insurance policy with the office designated as beneficiary, with liability equal to the amount of the loan insured under this chapter, and with any additional endorsements which the office may reasonably require.

(c) The proceeds of the loan shall be used exclusively for the construction, improvement, or expansion of the health facility, as approved by the office under Section 436.4. However, loans insured pursuant to this chapter may include loans to refinance another prior loan, whether or not state insured and without regard to the date of the prior loan, if the office determines that the prior loan would have been eligible for insurance under this chapter at the time it was made. The office may not insure a loan for a health facility which is not needed as determined by the state plan developed under the authorization of Section 436.4.

(d) The loan shall have a maturity date not exceeding 30 years from the date of the beginning of amortization of the loan, except as authorized by subdivision (e), or 75 percent of the office's estimate of the economic life of the health facility, whichever is the lesser.

(e) The loan shall contain complete amortization provisions requiring periodic payments by the borrower not in excess of its reasonable ability to pay as determined by the office. The office shall permit a reasonable period of time during which the first payment to amortization may be waived on agreement by the lender and borrower. The office may, however, waive the amortization requirements of this subdivision and of subdivision (g) of this section when a term loan would be in the borrower's best interest.

(f) The loan shall bear interest on the amount of the principal obligation outstanding at any time at a rate, as negotiated by the borrower and lender, as the office finds necessary to meet the loan money market. As used in this chapter, "interest" does not include premium charges for insurance and service charges if any. Where a loan is evidenced by a bond issue of a political subdivision, the interest thereon may be at any rate which the bonds may legally bear.

(g) The loan shall provide for the application of the borrower's periodic payments to amortization of the principal of the loan.

(h) The loan shall contain any terms and provisions with respect to insurance, repairs, alterations, payment of taxes and assessments, foreclosure proceedings, anticipation of maturity, additional and secondary liens, and other matters which the office may in its discretion prescribe.

(i) The loan shall have a principal obligation not in excess of an amount equal to 90 percent of the total construction cost. Where the borrower is a political subdivision, the office may fully insure loans equal to the total construction cost.

(j) The borrower shall offer reasonable assurance that the services of the health facility will be made available to all persons residing or employed in the area served by the facility.

(k) A certificate of need or certificate of exemption has been issued for the project to be financed pursuant to Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 437), unless the project is not subject to the requirement.

(l) In the case of acquisitions, a project loan shall be guaranteed only for transactions not in excess of the fair market value of the acquisition.

Fair market value shall be determined, for purposes of this subdivision, pursuant to the following procedure, which shall be utilized during the state review of a loan guarantee application:

(1) Completion of a property appraisal by an appraisal firm qualified to make appraisals, as determined by the office, before closing a loan on the project.

(2) Evaluation of the appraisal in conjunction with the book value of the acquisition by the office. When acquisitions involve additional construction, the office shall evaluate the proposed construction to determine that the costs are reasonable for the type of construction proposed. In those cases where this procedure reveals that the cost of acquisition exceeds the current value of a facility, including improvements, then the acquisition cost shall be deemed in excess of fair market value.

In determining financial feasibility of projects of counties pursuant to this section, the office shall take into consideration any assistance for the project to be provided under Section 16715 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or from other sources. It is the intent of the Legislature that the office endeavor to assist counties in whatever ways are possible to arrange loans which will meet the requirements for insurance prescribed by this section.

SEC. 3. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 436.2 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3326. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 436.2 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3326, in which case Section 436.2 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by AB 3326, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 1.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1622

An act relating to schools, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(a) Self-acceptance, self-direction, and personal responsibility are critical to pupil achievement. To the extent local school communities can create learning environments that promote greater interaction between pupils, teachers, and parents or guardians, those qualities and, accordingly, pupil achievement, will be enhanced.

(b) The Richmond Unified School District has operated an after-school tutoring program for low-achieving elementary and secondary school pupils in reading, mathematics, and other basic academic skills, focusing on assistance in homework, test preparation, and basic skill development. Pupil participants have shown marked improvement in their academic work, classroom attitudes, and attendance.

(c) The expansion and development of that after-school tutoring program as a model would enhance the capacity to improve pupil achievement in school districts throughout this state.

SEC. 2. (a) To the extent the Legislature makes funding available for this purpose, the Richmond Unified School District shall expand its after-school tutoring program, as described in Section 1 of this act, for the purpose of developing a model after-school tutoring program for application to other school districts of this state.

(b) The model after-school tutoring program to be developed pursuant to this section shall contain, but not necessarily be limited to, all of the following elements:

(1) Tutoring is to occur, at one or more school sites within the district, for at least three hours per week during the academic year to pupils in kindergarten, or any of the grades 1 to 12, inclusive, who are identified by the district as having low academic achievement. The instruction shall be designed to improve the social and academic skills of those pupils and to promote a positive attitude toward academic success.

(2) The parents or guardians of the pupils are encouraged to be present during the tutorial services, to assist them with practical strategies for enhancing their children's self-esteem and supporting their sense of personal responsibility for academic and social achievement.

(3) The persons employed to provide the tutoring services described in this section shall be students enrolled at campuses of public or accredited private postsecondary educational institutions. Tutors shall be chosen by the project director on the basis of competence in core academic subject areas and effectiveness in teaching and relating to pupils, as determined pursuant to interviews conducted by the project director. Special efforts shall be made to recruit tutors who themselves are from underprivileged and minority households, in order to enhance rapport and personal motivation on the part of the pupils served.

(4) Each tutor shall attend at least 10 hours of training provided under the program, and shall consult on a regular basis with the teachers of the pupils receiving tutoring services under this section.

(5) Community volunteers shall be encouraged to assist the tutors.

(6) The superintendent of the Richmond Unified School District shall assign the responsibility for the implementation of the model after-school tutoring program to the human relations department of the district, including, but not limited to, the development of program materials, the employment of tutors, and the appointment and oversight of the evaluation committee described in Section 2.5.

SEC. 2.5. (a) A team of teachers and parents appointed pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (b) of Section 2 shall perform two evaluations, as described in subdivision (c), of the changes in the attitudes and scholastic accomplishments of the pupils receiving tutoring services under the model after-school tutoring program. The criteria for the evaluations shall include, but not be limited to, class attendance, peer interaction, classroom courtesy, classroom participation, attentiveness, academic achievement, personal relations, motivation, communication skills, and personal responsibility.

(b) If 80 percent or more of the participating pupils are found to have successfully progressed under 70 percent or more of the evaluation criteria employed by the team, the after-school tutoring program shall be deemed to be extremely successful. If 50 percent or more, but less than 80 percent, of the participating pupils are found to have successfully progressed under 70 percent or more of the evaluation criteria employed by the team, the program shall be deemed to be moderately successful.

If 30 percent or fewer of the participating pupils are found to have successfully progressed under 70 percent or more of the evaluation criteria employed by the team, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall review the program and make recommendations for its improvement. In that event, it is the intent of the Legislature that no state funding be appropriated for the operation of the program subsequent to that review unless the superintendent's recommendations are adopted and implemented.

(c) One evaluation, covering the period from January 1, 1989, to June 30, 1989, shall be completed no later than August 15, 1989. The second evaluation, covering the period from September 1, 1989, to June 30, 1990, shall be completed no later than August 15, 1990.

SEC. 3. (a) No later than September 1, 1989, the Richmond Unified School District shall submit a preliminary report to the Superintendent of Public Instruction on the progress of the model to be developed pursuant to Section 2, including, but not limited to, the results of the evaluation covering the period from January 1, 1989, to June 30, 1989, as described in subdivision (c) of Section 2.5.

(b) No later than January 1, 1991, the Richmond Unified School District shall submit a final report to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, including, but not limited to, the results of the evaluation covering the period from September 1, 1989, to June 30, 1990, as described in subdivision (c) of Section 2.5, and all information and materials required by the superintendent concerning the developed model, as necessary to permit its dissemination to other school districts in this state. No later than March 1, 1991, the superintendent shall report to the Legislature concerning those results.

SEC. 4. Due to the unique circumstances specified in Section 1 of this act concerning the Richmond Unified School District, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

SEC. 5. (a) The Richmond Unified School District may credit for the purpose of its summer school apportionments computed pursuant to Section 42239 of the Education Code, as amended by the annual Budget Act, the hours of homework and tutorial assistance provided pursuant to Section 1 of this act, provided that the instruction is in core academic areas specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 42239.

(b) All state funding allocated to the Richmond Unified School District for the purposes of this act shall be expended to supplement, rather than supplant, district funds that would otherwise be expended for the operation and development of a district after-school tutoring program for low-achieving pupils.

SEC. 6. Sections 1, 2, 2.5, and 5 of this act shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date are repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 7. The requirements imposed upon the Richmond Unified School District under this act shall apply only to the extent the Legislature makes funding available for the purpose of compliance with those requirements. Accordingly, no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because no program or level of service is mandated by this act except to the extent funded by the Legislature.

CHAPTER 1623

An act to add Section 5924.5 to the Public Resources Code, and to amend and supplement the Budget Act of 1988 by adding Items 3640-302-787, 3790-302-722, and 3860-101-786 to Section 2.00 thereof, relating to wildlife and natural areas enhancement, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

I am deleting the 225,000 appropriation contained in Section 3 of Senate Bill No. 4. The funding request for this project should be submitted through the annual budget process so that the proper level of funding and a well-defined scope may be determined.

With this deletion, I approve Senate Bill No. 4.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5924.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5924.5. In addition to the purposes specified in Section 5924, funds appropriated in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 5907 for Palm and Andreas Canyons may also be encumbered for interpretative facilities and minimal facilities necessary to facilitate public access if approved by the Tribal Council of the Agua Caliente Band of Cahuilla Indians.

SEC. 2. Item 3640-302-787 is added to Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988, to read:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 3640-302-787—For capital outlay, Wildlife Conservation Board, payable from the Wildlife and Natural Areas Conservation Fund | | 10,500,000 |
| Schedule: | | |
| (1) Acquisition, enhancement, restoration, or protection, or any combination thereof, of lands supporting California's unique, fragile, threatened, or endangered plants, animals, and natural communities pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2720 of the Fish and Game Code | 6,000,000 | |
| (2) Acquisition, enhancement, resto- | | | ration, or protection, or any conbination thereof, of critical habitat areas for fish, game mammals, and game birds pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 2720 of the Fish and Game Code ..... 2,500,000

(3) Acquisition, enhancement, restoration, or protection, or any combination thereof, of lands providing habitat for threatened, endangered, or fully protected species pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 2720 of the Fish and Game Code..... 2,000,000

Provisions:

1. The appropriations made in this item shall become operative on November 9, 1988.
2. It is the policy of the state to conform fully with the County of Riverside's habitat conservation plan for the Stephen's kangaroo rat (Dipodomys stephensi) and all implementing ordinances when the plan and ordinances are approved and adopted. Accordingly, the appropriation made in this item is subject to the condition that at such time as the plan and ordinances become effective, what would have been the state's share of the cost of any acquisitions for the Stephen's kangaroo rat habitat in Riverside County made with funds allocated by the Wildlife Conservation Board from this appropriation shall be calculated, and the amount thus derived shall be credited to the state's share of any future acquisitions of Stephen's kangaroo rat habitat in Riverside County.

SEC. 3. Item 3790-302-722 is added to Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988, to read:

3790-302-722—For capital outlay, Department of Parks and Recreation, payable from the Parklands Fund of 1984 ..... 225,000

Schedule:

(1) 90.FU.100.880--California Citrus State Historic Park--interpretive and preliminary planning and artifact acquisition ..... 225,000

SEC. 4. Item 3860-101-786 is added to Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1988, to read:

3860-101-786—For local assistance, Department of Water Resources, payable from the California Wildlife, Coastal, and Park Land Conservation Fund of 1988 800,000
Schedule:
(1) For grants for the acquisition or restoration of natural lands which contain urban streams, creeks, and riparian areas, and for related administrative costs, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 5907 of the Public Resources Code ..... 800,000

SEC. 5. The sum of two million three hundred thousand dollars ($2,300,000) is hereby appropriated from the California Environmental License Plate Fund to the California Tahoe Conservancy for expenditure during the 1988–89, 1989–90, and 1990–91 fiscal years for capital outlay and grants to public agencies and nonprofit organizations for land acquisition and site improvements related to erosion control, restoration of disturbed lands, wildlife enhancement, and preservation of natural resources pursuant to Title 7.42 (commencing with Section 66905) of the Government Code. Grants made under the authority of Section 66907.7 of the Government Code are exempt from review by the State Public Works Board.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to further the purposes of the California Wildlife, Coastal, and Park Land Conservation Act of 1988 in accordance with Section 6 of the initiative measure that added that act, and in order to authorize the expenditure of funds for high priority projects for enhancing wildlife and natural areas, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1624

An act relating to hazardous substances, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

I am reducing the $3 million General Fund appropriation contained in Section 1 (a) of Senate Bill No. 712 to $500,000.

This bill would appropriate $3 million from the Special Account for Capital Outlay in the General Fund to continue cleanup of the ASARCO hazardous waste site in Contra Costa County.

Since this project had a carry-over appropriation of $2.5 million, I am reducing the appropriation in this bill to provide $3 million, which is the estimated need in Fiscal Year 1988–89.

With this reduction, I approve Senate Bill No. 712.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The sum of three million dollars ($3,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the Special Account for Capital Outlay in the General Fund to the State Department of Health Services to carry out a removal and remedial action at the ASARCO hazardous substance release site located in the County of Contra Costa.

(b) If the department expends funds pursuant to subdivision (a) for a removal or remedial action at the ASARCO hazardous substance release site and, as a result of the action filed against a private party pursuant to Section 25360, there is a determination that the state is held to be wholly or partially the responsible party for the site, an amount of money equal to the state's share of the responsibility shall be transferred from the General Fund to the Special Account for Capital Outlay.

(c) Any appropriation made from the Special Account for Capital Outlay pursuant to subdivision (a) is not an admission by the state for any responsibility for any specific portion of the total removal and remedial action for that site.

(d) If the state is awarded any funds from a private party in any action to determine liability for the costs of removal and remedial action at the ASARCO hazardous substance release site specified in subdivision (a), these funds shall be deposited in the Special Account for Capital Outlay for the purpose of reimbursing the Special Account for Capital Outlay for the appropriation made pursuant to subdivision (a).

SEC. 2. Any unencumbered amount remaining on July 1, 1988, from funds appropriated from the Special Account for Capital Outlay by Item 4260-011-036 of Section 2 of the Budget Act of 1987 (Chapter 135, Statutes of 1987) to the State Department of Health Services, to carry out a removal and remedial action at the ASARCO hazardous substance release site, shall not revert to the account on July 1, 1988, and shall remain available to the department for expenditure until July 1, 1990, to carry out that removal and remedial action.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to make funds available for removal and remedial action at the ASARCO hazardous substance release site at the earliest opportunity, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1625

An act to amend Section 11010.8 of the Business and Professions Code, and to add Section 62.2 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to mobilehome parks.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11010.8 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

11010.8. The requirement that a notice of intention be filed pursuant to Section 11010 is not applicable to the purchase of a mobilehome park by a nonprofit corporation if all of the following occur:

(a) A majority of the shareholders or members of the nonprofit corporation constitute a majority of the tenants of the mobilehome park and majority of the members of the board of directors of the nonprofit corporation are tenants of the mobilehome park.

(b) All members of the corporation are residents of the mobilehome park. Members of the nonprofit corporation may enter into leases with the corporation that are greater than five years in length.

(c) A permit to issue securities under Section 25113 of the Corporations Code is obtained from the Department of Corporations.

(d) All funds of tenants for the purchase of the mobilehome park are deposited in escrow until the document transferring title of the mobilehome park to the nonprofit corporation is recorded.

SEC. 2. Section 62.2 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

62.2. Change in ownership shall not include any transfer on or after January 1, 1989, of a mobilehome park to a nonprofit corporation, stock cooperative corporation, or other entity, if, within 270 days after the transfer, the mobilehome park is transferred by that corporation or other entity to a nonprofit corporation, stock cooperative corporation, or other entity formed by the tenants of the mobilehome park in a transaction which is excluded from change in ownership by subdivision (a) of Section 62.1. With respect to any transfer of any mobilehome park on or after January 1, 1989, subject to this section, the individual tenants who are renting at least a majority of the spaces in the mobilehome park prior to the transfer to the entity formed by the tenants for the acquisition of the park shall participate in the transaction through the ownership of an aggregate of at least a majority of voting stock of, or other ownership or membership interest in, that entity. This section shall not apply if any fees charged the mobilehome park tenants in connection with either the first or second transfer exceed 15 percent of the total consideration paid for the mobilehome park in the first transfer, plus any accrued interest and taxes. If the assessor is notified in writing at the time the transferee files the change in ownership statement that the transferee intends to qualify the transfer under this section, the mobilehome park shall not be reappraised pending satisfaction of the above conditions. If the transferee fails to satisfy those conditions, the assessor shall reappraise the mobilehome park and levy escape assessments or supplemental assessments, as appropriate.

CHAPTER 1626

An act to amend Section 2932 of, and to add Section 3041.2 to, the Penal Code, relating to sentencing.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2932 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2932. (a) (1) For any time credit accumulated pursuant to Section 2931 or to Section 2933, not more than 360 days of credit may be denied or lost for a single act of murder, attempted murder, solicitation of murder, manslaughter, rape, sodomy, or oral copulation accomplished against the victim's will, attempted rape, attempted sodomy, or attempted oral copulation accomplished against the victim's will, assault or battery causing serious bodily injury, assault with a deadly weapon or caustic substance, taking of a hostage, escape with force or violence, or possession or manufacture of a deadly weapon or explosive device, whether or not prosecution is undertaken for purposes of this paragraph. Solicitation of murder shall be proved by the testimony of two witnesses, or of one witness and corroborating circumstances.

(2) Not more than 180 days of credit may be denied or lost for a single act of misconduct, except as specified in paragraph (1), which could be prosecuted as a felony whether or not prosecution is undertaken.

(3) Not more than 90 days of credit may be denied or lost for a single act of misconduct which could be prosecuted as a misdemeanor, whether or not prosecution is undertaken.

(4) Not more than 30 days of credit may be denied or lost for a single act of misconduct defined by regulation as a serious disciplinary offense by the Department of Corrections. Any person confined due to a change in custodial classification following the commission of any serious disciplinary infraction shall, in addition to any loss of time credits, be ineligible to receive participation or worktime credit for a period not to exceed the number of days of credit which have been lost for the act of misconduct or 180 days, whichever is less. Any person confined in a secure housing unit for having committed any misconduct specified in paragraph (1) in which great bodily injury is inflicted upon a nonprisoner shall, in addition to any loss of time credits, be ineligible to receive participation or worktime credit for a period not to exceed the number of days of credit which have been lost for that act of misconduct, or for the period that the prisoner is confined in a secure housing unit, whichever is less. In unusual cases, an inmate may be denied the opportunity to participate in a credit qualifying assignment for up to six months beyond the period specified in this subdivision if the Director of Corrections finds, after a hearing, that no credit qualifying program may be assigned to the inmate without creating a substantial risk of physical harm to staff or other inmates. At the end of the six-month period and of successive six-month periods, the denial of the opportunity to participate in a credit qualifying assignment may be renewed upon a hearing and finding by the director.

The prisoner may appeal the decision through the department's review procedure, which shall include a review by an individual independent of the institution who has supervisorial authority over the institution.

(b) For any credit accumulated pursuant to Section 2931, not more than 30 days of participation credit may be denied or lost for a single failure or refusal to participate. Any act of misconduct described by the Department of Corrections as a serious disciplinary infraction if committed while participating in work, educational, vocational, therapeutic or other prison activity shall be deemed a failure to participate.

(c) Any procedure not provided for by this section, but necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, shall be those procedures provided for by the Department of Corrections for serious disciplinary infractions if those procedures are not in conflict with this section.

(1) (A) The Department of Corrections shall, using reasonable diligence to investigate, provide written notice to the prisoner. The written notice shall be given within 15 days after the discovery of information leading to charges that may result in a possible denial of credit, except that if the prisoner has escaped, the notice shall be given within 15 days of the prisoner's return to the custody of the Director of Corrections. The written notice shall include the specific charge, the date, the time, the place that the alleged misbehavior took place, the evidence relied upon, a written explanation of the procedures that will be employed at the proceedings and the prisoner's rights at the hearing. The hearing shall be conducted by an individual who shall be independent of the case and shall take place within 30 days of the written notice.

(B) The Department of Corrections may delay written notice beyond 15 days when all of the following factors are true:

(i) An act of misconduct is involved which could be prosecuted as murder, attempted murder, or assault on a prison employee, whether or not prosecution is undertaken.

(ii) Further investigation is being undertaken for the purpose of identifying other prisoners involved in the misconduct.

(iii) Within 15 days after the discovery of information leading to charges that may result in a possible denial of credit, the investigating officer makes a written request to delay notifying that prisoner and states the reasons for the delay.

(iv) The warden or superintendent of the institution approves of the delay in writing.

The period of delay under this paragraph shall not exceed 30 days. The prisoner's hearing shall take place within 30 days of the written notice.

(2) The prisoner may elect to be assigned an employee to assist in the investigation, preparation, or presentation of a defense at the disciplinary hearing if it is determined by the department that: (i) the prisoner is illiterate; or (ii) the complexity of the issues or the prisoner's confinement status makes it unlikely that the prisoner can collect and present the evidence necessary for an adequate comprehension of the case.

(3) The prisoner may request witnesses to attend the hearing and they shall be called unless the person conducting the hearing has specific reasons to deny this request. The specific reasons shall be set forth in writing and a copy of the document shall be presented to the prisoner.

(4) The prisoner has the right, under the direction of the person conducting the hearing, to question all witnesses.

(5) At the conclusion of the hearing the charge shall be dismissed if the facts do not support the charge, or the prisoner may be found guilty on the basis of a preponderance of the evidence.

(d) If found guilty the prisoner shall be advised in writing of the guilty finding and the specific evidence relied upon to reach this conclusion and the amount of time-credit loss. The prisoner may appeal the decision through the Department of Corrections' review procedure, and may, upon final notification of appeal denial, within 15 days of the notification demand review of the department's denial of credit to the Board of Prison Terms, and the board may affirm, reverse, or modify the department's decision or grant a hearing before the board at which hearing the prisoner shall have the rights specified in Section 3041.5.

(e) Each prisoner subject to Section 2931 shall be notified of the total amount of good behavior and participation credit which may be credited pursuant to Section 2931, and his or her anticipated time-credit release date. The prisoner shall be notified of any change in the anticipated release date due to denial or loss of credits, award of worktime credit, under Section 2933, or the restoration of any credits previously forfeited.

(f) If the conduct the prisoner is charged with also constitutes a crime, the Department of Corrections may refer the case to criminal authorities for possible prosecution. The department shall notify the prisoner, who may request postponement of the disciplinary proceedings pending the referral.

The prisoner may revoke his or her request for postponement of the disciplinary proceedings up until the filing of the accusatory pleading. In the event of the revocation of the request for postponement of the proceeding, the department shall hold the hearing within 30 days of the revocation.

Notwithstanding the notification requirements in this paragraph and subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (c), in the event the case is referred to criminal authorities for prosecution and the authority requests that the prisoner not be notified so as to protect the confidentiality of its investigation, no notice to the prisoner shall be required until an accusatory pleading is filed with the court, or the authority notifies the warden or superintendent, in writing, that it will not prosecute or it authorizes the notification of the prisoner. The notice exceptions provided for in this paragraph shall only apply if the criminal authority requests of the warden or superintendent, in writing, and within the 15 days provided in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (c), that the prisoner not be notified. Any period of delay of notice to the prisoner shall not exceed 30 days beyond the 15 days referred to in subdivision (c). In the event that no prosecution is undertaken, the procedures in subdivision (c) shall apply, and the time periods set forth in that subdivision shall commence to run from the date the warden or superintendent is notified in writing of the decision not to prosecute. In the event the authority either cancels its requests that the prisoner not be notified before it makes a decision on prosecution or files an accusatory pleading, the provisions of this paragraph shall apply as if no request had been received, beginning from the date of the cancellation or filing.

In the case where the prisoner is prosecuted by the district attorney, the Department of Corrections shall not deny time credit where the prisoner is found not guilty and may deny credit if the prisoner is found guilty, in which case the procedures in subdivision (c) shall not apply.

(g) If time credit denial proceedings or criminal prosecution prohibit the release of a prisoner who would have otherwise been released, and the prisoner is found not guilty of the alleged misconduct, the amount of time spent incarcerated, in excess of what the period of incarceration would have been absent the alleged misbehavior, shall be deducted from the prisoner's parole period.

(h) Nothing in the amendments to this section made at the 1981–82 Regular Session of the Legislature shall affect the granting or revocation of credits attributable to that portion of the prisoner's sentence served prior to January 1, 1983.

SEC. 2. Section 3041.2 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

3041.2. (a) During the 30 days following the granting, denial, revocation, or suspension by a parole authority of the parole of a person sentenced to an indeterminate prison term based upon a conviction of murder, the Governor, when reviewing the authority's decision pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 8 of Article V of the Constitution, shall review materials provided by the parole authority.

(b) If the Governor decides to reverse or modify a parole decision of a parole authority pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 8 of Article V of the Constitution, he or she shall send a written statement to the inmate specifying the reasons for his or her decision.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this act shall be known as, and may be cited as, the "Boatwright-Eaves Parole Review Act of 1988."

SEC. 4. Sections 2 and 3 of this act shall only become operative if Senate Constitutional Amendment 9 of the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature is adopted by the voters.

CHAPTER 1627

An act to amend Sections 3103, 3159, 3161, and 3162 of the Civil Code, relating to liens.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3103 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3103. "Stop notice" means a written notice, signed and verified by the claimant or his or her agent, stating in general terms all of the following:

(a) The kind of labor, services, equipment, or materials furnished or agreed to be furnished by such claimant.

(b) The name of the person to or for whom the same was done or furnished.

(c) The amount in value, as near as may be, of that already done or furnished and of the whole agreed to be done or furnished.

(d) The name and address of the claimant.

The notice, in the case of any work of improvement other than a public work, shall be delivered to the owner personally or left at his or her residence or place of business with some person in charge, or delivered to his or her architect, if any, if the notice is served upon a construction lender, holding construction funds and maintaining branch offices, it shall not be effective as against the construction lender unless given to or served upon the manager or other responsible officer or person at the office or branch thereof administering or holding the construction funds. The notice, in the case of any public work for the state, shall be filed with the director of the department which let the contract and, in the case of any other public work, shall be filed in the office of the controller, auditor, or other public disbursing officer whose duty it is to make payments under the provisions of the contract, or with the commissioners, managers, trustees, officers, board of supervisors, board of trustees, common council, or other body by whom the contract was awarded. No stop notice shall be invalid by reason of any defect in form if it is sufficient to substantially inform the owner of the information required.

Any stop notice may be served by registered or certified mail with the same effect as by personal service.

SEC. 2. Section 3159 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3159. Any of the persons named in Sections 3110, 3111, and 3112 may, prior to the expiration of the period within which his or her claim of lien must be recorded under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 3109), give to a construction lender a stop notice or a bonded stop notice. If a payment bond has previously been recorded in the office of the county recorder where the site is located in accordance with Section 3235 or in accordance with Section 3162, then the construction lender shall withhold funds pursuant to a bonded stop notice filed by an original contractor and may, at its option, withhold funds pursuant to a stop notice or bonded stop notice given by anyone other than an original contractor. The construction lender may elect not to withhold pursuant to a bonded stop notice by reason of a payment bond having previously been recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county where the site is located in accordance with Section 3235. If, when giving the construction lender the stop notice or bonded stop notice, the claimant makes a written request for notice of the election, accompanied by a preaddressed, stamped envelope, the construction lender shall furnish the claimant a copy of the bond within 30 days after making the election. A lender shall not be liable for a failure to furnish a copy of the bond if the failure was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error, if the lender maintains reasonable procedures to avoid such an error, and if the error was corrected not later than 20 days from the date on which the violation was discovered. The payment bond may be recorded at any time prior to the serving of the first stop notice. The notice may only be given for materials, equipment, or services furnished, or labor performed. In the case of a stop notice or bonded stop notice filed by the original contractor or by a subcontractor contracting directly with an owner, the original contractor or subcontractor shall only be entitled to recover on his or her stop notice or bonded stop notice the net amount due the original contractor or subcontractor after deducting the stop notice claims of all subcontractors or material suppliers who have filed bonded stop notices on account of work done on behalf of the original contractor or the subcontractor.

SEC. 3. Section 3161 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3161. It shall be the duty of the owner upon receipt of a stop notice pursuant to Section 3158 to withhold from the original contractor or from any person acting under his or her authority and to whom labor or materials, or both, have been furnished, or agreed to be furnished, sufficient money due or to become due to such contractor to answer such claim and any claim of lien that may be recorded therefor, unless a payment bond has been recorded pursuant to the provisions of Section 3235, in which case the owner may, but is not obligated to, withhold such money.

If the owner elects not to withhold pursuant to a stop notice by reason of a payment bond having been previously recorded, then the owner shall, within 30 days after receipt of the stop notice, give a written notice to the claimant at the address shown in the stop notice that the bond has been recorded and furnish to the claimant a copy of that bond.

SEC. 4. Section 3162 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3162. Upon receipt of a stop notice pursuant to Section 3159, the construction lender may, and upon receipt of a bonded stop notice the construction lender shall, withhold from the borrower or other person to whom it or the owner may be obligated to make payments or advancement out of the construction fund, sufficient money to answer the claim and any claim of lien that may be recorded therefor. If a payment bond has previously been recorded in the office of the county recorder where the site is located in accordance with Section 3235, then the construction lender shall withhold funds pursuant to a bonded stop notice filed by an original contractor and may, at its option, withhold funds pursuant to a stop notice or bonded stop notice given by anyone other than an original contractor. The construction lender may elect not to withhold pursuant to a bonded stop notice by reason of a payment bond having previously been recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county where the site is located in accordance with Section 3235. If, when giving the construction lender the stop notice or bonded stop notice, the claimant makes a written request for notice of the election, accompanied by a preaddressed, stamped envelope, the construction lender shall furnish the claimant a copy of the bond within 30 days after making the election. A lender shall not be liable for a failure to furnish a copy of the bond if the failure was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error, if the lender maintains reasonable procedures to avoid such an error, and if the error was corrected not later than 20 days from the date on which the violation was discovered. The payment bond may be recorded at any time prior to the serving of the first stop notice.

CHAPTER 1628

An act to add Section 666.5 to the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 666.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

666.5. (a) Every person who, having been previously convicted of felony vehicle theft under Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code, or felony grand theft involving an automobile in violation of subdivision (3) of Section 487, regardless of whether or not the person actually served a prior prison term for those offenses, is subsequently convicted of any of these offenses shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years, or a fine of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or both the fine and the imprisonment.

(b) The existence of any fact which would bring a person under subdivision (a) shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

CHAPTER 1630

An act to add Section 107.7 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to property taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. After investigation, the Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) The cable television industry is an important news, entertainment, education, and information service whose economic health and continued growth and development are in the best interests of the people of the State of California and are matters of statewide concern.

(b) A cable television system is in the business of providing news, entertainment, education, and information services to its subscribers.

(c) Intangible rights and assets are exempt from property taxation.

(d) Possessory interests of cable television systems do not sell by themselves.

(e) A significant portion of the fair market value of a cable television system may be attributable to intangible assets and rights in addition to the ownership of real and personal property. These intangible assets and rights may include, but are not limited to, franchises or licenses to construct, operate, and maintain a cable television system for a specified franchise term (excepting therefrom that portion of the franchise or license which grants the possessory interest), subscriber contracts, marketing and programming contracts, nonreal property lease agreements, management and operating systems, a work force in place, going concern value, deferred, startup, or prematurity costs, covenants not to compete, and goodwill.

(f) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to provide uniformity and certainty in the assessment of any real property possessory interests of a cable television system by providing a method for possessory interest assessment which does not include the value of any intangible assets of a cable television system, but values only real property subject to property tax in accordance with Article XIII and Section 1 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution.

(g) This act is not intended and shall not be construed to affect the existing standard of review of an administrative decision in any judicial proceeding.

SEC. 2. Section 107.7 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

107.7. (a) When valuing possessory interests in real property created by the right to place wires, conduits, and appurtenances along or across public streets, rights-of-way, or public easements contained in a cable television franchise or license granted pursuant to Section 53066 of the Government Code (a "cable television possessory interest"), the assessor shall value these possessory interests consistent with the requirements of Section 401. The methods of valuation shall include, but not be limited to, the comparable sales method, the income method (including, but not limited to, capitalizing rent), or the cost method.

(b) (1) The preferred method of valuation of a cable television possessory interest is capitalizing the annual rent, using an appropriate capitalization rate.

(2) For purposes of this section, the annual rent shall be that portion of that franchise fee received by the franchising authority that is determined to be payment for the cable television possessory interest for the actual remaining term or the reasonably anticipated term of the franchise or license or the appropriate economic rent. If the assessor does not use a portion of the franchise fee as the economic rent, the resulting assessments shall not benefit from any presumption of correctness.

(c) If the comparable sales method, which is not the preferred method, is used by the assessor to value a cable television possessory interest when sold in combination with other property including, but not limited to, intangible assets or rights, the resulting assessments shall not benefit from any presumption of correctness.

(d) Intangible assets or rights of a cable television system are not subject to ad valorem property taxation. These intangible assets or rights, include, but are not limited to: franchises or licenses to construct, operate, and maintain a cable television system for a specified franchise term (excepting therefrom that portion of the franchise or license which grants the possessory interest), subscribers, marketing, and programming contracts, nonreal property lease agreements, management and operating systems, a work force in place, going concern value, deferred, startup, or prematurity costs, covenants not to compete, and goodwill. However, a cable television possessory interest may be assessed and valued by assuming the presence of intangible assets or rights necessary to put the cable television possessory interest to beneficial or productive use in an operating cable television system.

(e) Whenever any change in ownership of a cable television possessory interest occurs, the person or legal entity required to file a statement pursuant to Section 480, 480.1, or 480.2, shall, at the request of the assessor, provide as a part of that statement the following, if applicable: confirmation of the sales price; allocation of the sales price among the counties; and gross revenue and franchise fee expenses of the cable television system by county. Failure to provide this information shall result in a penalty as provided in Section 482, except that the maximum penalty shall be five thousand dollars ($5,000).

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to clarify the application of existing law and provide uniformity and certainty in the assessment of cable television possessory interests. It is the further purpose and intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to prohibit an assessment policy that equates any cable television possessory interest with the franchise or license itself or with other intangible assets or rights of a cable television system. Nothing in this act shall be construed as requiring the assessment of any cable television possessory interest at a value less than as required by Section 401 of the Revenue and Taxation Code or as prohibiting the assessment of a cable television possessory interest as an asset put to beneficial or productive use in an operating cable television system.

SEC. 4. If any section, subdivision, sentence, clause, or phrase of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held to be unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, that section, subdivision, sentence, clause, or phrase and the remainder of this act shall remain effective and enforceable to the fullest extent allowed by law, and all sections, subdivisions, sentences, clauses, or phrases of this act are hereby declared to be severable. The Legislature declares that it would have passed this act and each section, subdivision, sentence, clause, or phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subdivisions, sentences, clauses, or phrases is held to be unenforceable.

CHAPTER 1631

An act to amend Sections 25117, 25120.5, 25121, 25121.5, 25124, 25142, 25143, 25143.2, 25143.5, 25145, 25150, 25154, 25155.5, 25155.6, 25155.7, 25159, 25159.7, 25163, 25179.3, 25179.6, 25179.7, 25179.8, 25179.9, 25179.10, 25179.11, 25179.12, 25187, 25199.6, 25205, 25245, 25246, 25247, 25248, and 25250.1 of, and to add Sections 25106, 25110.02, 25117.9, 25120.1, 25122, 25143.1, 25187.1, and 25204.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 13172 and 13227 of the Water Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25106 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25106. Except as expressly provided by statute, this chapter does not supersede or modify Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 2. Section 25110.02 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25110.02. "Acutely hazardous waste" means any hazardous waste classified as an acutely hazardous waste in regulations adopted by the department.

SEC. 3. Section 25117 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25117. "Hazardous waste" means a waste, or combination of wastes, which because of its quantity, concentration, or physical, chemical, or infectious characteristics may either:

(a) Cause, or significantly contribute to an increase in mortality or an increase in serious irreversible, or incapacitating reversible, illness.

(b) Pose a substantial present or potential hazard to human health or environment when improperly treated, stored, transported, or disposed of, or otherwise managed.

Unless expressly provided otherwise, the term "hazardous waste" shall be understood to also include extremely hazardous waste and acutely hazardous waste.

SEC. 4. Section 25117.9 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25117.9. "Non-RCRA hazardous waste" means all hazardous waste regulated in the state, other than that hazardous waste which is subject to regulation by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.), in states that are not authorized pursuant to Section 6926 of Title 42 of the United States Code. A hazardous waste is presumed to be regulated pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, unless it is determined, pursuant to regulations adopted by the department, that the hazardous waste is a non-RCRA hazardous waste. Until the department adopts regulations to implement this section, a hazardous waste is presumed to be regulated pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.), unless the generator of the waste determines the hazardous waste is not a hazardous waste pursuant to the standards specified in Part 261 (commencing with Section 261.1) of Subchapter I of Chapter 1 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 5. Section 25120.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25120.1. "Reclaimed material" means a material which is processed to recover a usable product, or which is regenerated.

SEC. 6. Section 25120.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25120.5. "Recyclable material" means a hazardous waste that is capable of being recycled, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

(a) A residue.

(b) A spent material, including, but not limited to, a used or spent stripping or plating solution or etchant.

(c) A material that is contaminated to such an extent that it can no longer be used for the purpose for which it was originally purchased or manufactured.

(d) A byproduct listed in the regulations adopted by the department as "hazardous waste from specific sources" or "hazardous waste from nonspecific sources."

(e) Any retrograde material that has not been used, distributed, or reclaimed through treatment by the original manufacturer or owner by the later of the following dates:

(1) One year after the date when the material became a retrograde material.

(2) If the material has been returned to the original manufacturer, one year after the material is returned to the original manufacturer.

SEC. 7. Section 25121 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25121. "Recycled material" means a material which is used or reused, or reclaimed.

SEC. 8. Section 25121.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25121.5. (a) "Retrograde material" means any hazardous material which is not to be used, sold, or distributed for use in an originally intended or prescribed manner or for an originally intended or prescribed purpose and which meets any one or more of the following criteria:

(1) Has undergone chemical, biochemical, physical, or other changes due to the passage of time or the environmental conditions under which it was stored.

(2) Has exceeded a specified or recommended shelf life.

(3) Is banned by law, regulation, ordinance, or decree.

(4) Cannot be used for reasons of economics, health or safety, or environmental hazard.

(b) "Retrograde material" does not include material designated in regulations adopted by the department as included in a category which the department shall title "Discarded commercial chemical products, off-specification species, container residues, and spill residues thereof", if either of the following conditions is met:

(1) The material is used in a manner constituting disposal and the material is not normally used in a manner constituting disposal.

(2) The material is burned for energy recovery and the material is not normally burned for energy recovery.

SEC. 9. Section 25122 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25122. "Used or reused material" means material which is either of the following:

(a) Employed as an ingredient, including use as an intermediate, in an industrial process to make a product. However, a material is not a used or reused material if distinct components of the material are recovered as separate end products.

(b) Employed in a particular function or application as an effective substitute for a commercial product.

SEC. 10. Section 25124 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25124. (a) "Waste" means any discarded material that is not excluded by this chapter, by regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter, or by a variance issued pursuant to this chapter.

(b) A discarded material is any material which is any of the following:

(1) Abandoned, as specified in subdivision (c).

(2) Recycled, as specified in subdivision (d).

(3) Considered inherently waste like, as specified in regulations adopted by the department.

(4) Mislabled or not adequately labeled, unless the material is correctly labeled or adequately labeled within 10 days after the material is discovered to be mislabeled or inadequately labeled.

(5) Is packaged in deteriorated or damaged containers, unless the material is contained in sound or undamaged containers within 96 hours after the containers are discovered to be deteriorated or damaged.

(c) A material is a waste if it is abandoned by being any of the following:

(1) Disposed of.

(2) Burned or incinerated.

(3) Accumulated, stored, or treated, but not recycled, before, or in lieu of, being abandoned by being disposed of, burned, or incinerated.

(d) A material is a waste if it is recycled, or accumulated, stored, or treated before recycling, except as provided in Section 25143.2.

SEC. 11. Section 25142 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25142. Any waste which conforms to a criterion adopted pursuant to Section 25141 shall be managed in accordance with permits, orders, and regulations issued or adopted by the department pursuant to this chapter and building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to hazardous waste facilities, or recycled consistent with the list of hazardous wastes which the department, pursuant to Section 25175, finds are economically and technologically feasible to recycle, until the waste is cited in a list adopted by the department pursuant to Section 25140.

SEC. 12. Section 25143 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25143. (a) The department may grant a variance from one or more of the requirements of this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter for the management of a hazardous waste if all of the following conditions apply:

(1) The hazardous waste is solely a non-RCRA hazardous waste or the hazardous waste management activity is subject to this chapter but has been granted a waiver or variance pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9610 et seq.), or is not otherwise regulated pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended, (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.).

(2) The department makes one of the following findings:

(A) The hazardous waste or the hazardous waste management activity is insignificant or unimportant as a potential hazard to human health and safety, and the environment.

(B) The handling, processing, or disposal of the hazardous waste, or the hazardous waste management activity, is regulated by another governmental agency in a manner that ensures it will not pose a substantial present or potential hazard to human health and safety, and the environment.

(3) The variance is granted in accordance with this section.

(b) The department may grant a variance only upon receipt of a variance application containing sufficient information to enable the department to determine if all of the conditions required by subdivision (a) are satisfied. Each variance shall be issued on a form prescribed by the department and shall include, at a minimum, all of the following:

(1) The name of the producer of the hazardous waste or the operator of the hazardous waste management activity to whom the variance is granted.

(2) A description of the physical characteristics and chemical composition of the hazardous waste or the specifications of the hazardous waste management activity to which the variance applies.

(3) The time period during which the variance is effective.

(4) A specification of the requirements of this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter from which the variance is granted.

(5) A specification of the conditions, limitations, or other requirements to which the variance is subject.

(c) Variances issued pursuant to subdivision (a) are subject to review at the discretion of the department and may be revoked at any time. The department shall revoke a variance if the department finds any of the following:

(1) The conditions required by subdivision (a) are no longer satisfied.

(2) The holder of the variance is in violation of one or more of the conditions, limitations, or other requirements of the variance, and as a result of the violation, the conditions required by subdivision (a) are no longer satisfied.

(3) If the variance was granted because of the finding specified in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the holder of the variance is in violation of one or more of the regulatory requirements of another governmental agency to which the holder is subject and the violation invalidates that finding.

SEC. 13. Section 25143.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25143.1. Any geothermal waste resulting from drilling for geothermal resources is exempt from the requirements of this chapter because the disposal of these geothermal wastes is regulated by the California regional water quality control boards.

SEC. 14. Section 25143.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25143.2. (a) Recyclable materials are subject to the requirements of this chapter which apply to hazardous wastes, unless the department issues a variance pursuant to Section 25143, or except as provided otherwise in subdivision (b), (c), or (d) or the regulations adopted by the department pursuant to Sections 25150 and 25151.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (e), any recyclable material is not a hazardous waste under this chapter when the material can be shown to be recycled by any of the following methods:

(1) Used or reused as an ingredient in an industrial process to make a product, if the material is not being reclaimed.

(2) Used or reused as a safe and effective substitute for commercial products, if the material is not being reclaimed.

(3) Returned to the original process from which the material was generated, without first being reclaimed, if the material is returned as a substitute for raw material feedstock, and the process uses raw materials as principal feedstocks.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (b), (d), and (e), any recyclable material may be recycled at a facility which is not authorized by the department pursuant to the applicable hazardous waste facilities permit requirements of Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) if either of the following requirements is met:

(1) The material is a petroleum refinery waste containing oil which is converted into petroleum coke at the same facility at which the waste was generated, unless the resulting coke product would be identified as a hazardous waste under this chapter. A waste subject to this paragraph is exempt from this chapter to the same extent the waste is exempt from subsections (q), (r), and (s) of Section 6924 of Title 42 of the United States Code. However, notwithstanding any other provision of law, a facility storing petroleum refinery waste for more than 90 days prior to its conversion to petroleum coke is subject to the hazardous waste facilities permit requirements applicable to storage facilities.

(2) The material meets all of the following conditions:

(A) The material is recycled and used at the same facility at which the material was generated.

(B) The material is recycled and used within 90 days of its generation.

(C) The material is managed in accordance with all applicable requirements for generators of hazardous wastes under this chapter and regulations adopted by the department.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (e), any recyclable material which is a non-RCRA hazardous waste, as defined in Section 25117.9, is not a waste under this chapter if the material meets any of the following requirements:

(1) The material can be shown to be recycled and used at the site where the material was generated.

(2) The material qualifies as one or more of the following:

(A) The material is a product, which has been processed from a hazardous waste, or which has been handled, at a facility authorized by the department pursuant to the facility permit requirements of Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) to process or handle the material, if the product meets both of the following conditions:

(i) The product contains no hazardous constituents, other than those for which the material is being recycled.

(ii) The product is used, or distributed or sold for use, in a manner for which the product is commonly used.

(B) The material is a petroleum refinery waste containing oil which is converted into petroleum coke at the same facility at which the waste was generated, unless the resulting coke product would be identified as a hazardous waste under this chapter.

(C) The material is oily waste, used oil, or spent nonhalogenated solvent which is managed by the owner or operator of a refinery which is processing primarily crude oil and which is not subject to permit requirements for recycling of used oil, or a public utility, or a corporate subsidiary, corporate parent, or subsidiary of the same corporate parent of the refinery or public utility, and which meets all of the following requirements:

(i) The material is either burned in an industrial boiler, an industrial furnace, an incinerator, or a utility boiler which complies with all applicable federal and state laws, or is recombined with normal process streams to produce a fuel.

(ii) The material is either managed at the site where it was generated or managed at another site owned or operated by the generator, a corporate subsidiary of the generator, a subsidiary of the same entity of which the generator is a subsidiary, or the corporate parent of the generator.

(iii) The material contains no hazardous constituents other than those for which the material is being recycled.

(3) The material is transferred between two or more facilities operated by the same person, if the material is being transferred for purposes of recycling.

(4) The material is both transported and used or reused, as an ingredient in an industrial process to make a product, if the material is not treated before that use or reuse.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), all of the following recyclable materials are hazardous wastes and subject to full regulation under this chapter, even if the recycling involves use, reuse, or return to the original process as described in subdivision (b), or even if the recycling involves activities or materials described in subdivisions (c) and (d):

(1) Materials used in a manner constituting disposal, or used to produce products that are applied to the land including, but not limited to, materials used to produce a fertilizer, soil amendment, agricultural mineral, or an auxiliary soil and plant substance. The department may adopt regulations to exclude materials from regulation pursuant to this paragraph.

(2) Materials burned for energy recovery, used to produce a fuel, or contained in fuels, except materials exempted under subparagraph (B) or (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d).

(3) Materials accumulated speculatively.

(4) Materials determined to be inherently waste like pursuant to regulations adopted by the department.

(5) Used or spent etchants, stripping solutions, and plating solutions, which are transported to an offsite facility operated by a person other than the generator and which conform to either of the following:

(A) Meet a characteristic or a criterion of a hazardous waste established by the Environmental Protection Agency or the department.

(B) Are listed by the Environmental Protection Agency or the department as a hazardous waste.

(6) Used oil, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 25250.1, unless one of the following applies:

(A) The used oil meets the definition of recycled oil contained in subdivision (c) of Section 25250.1.

(B) The used oil is exempted under subparagraph (B) or (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) or under paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) of this section, under subdivision (e) of Section 25250.1, or under Section 25250.3.

(C) The used oil is used or reused on the site where it was generated and is not any of the following:

(i) Used in a manner constituting disposal or used to produce a product that is applied to land.

(ii) Burned for energy recovery or used to produce a fuel, unless the used oil is exempted under subparagraph (B) or (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d).

(iii) Accumulated speculatively.

(iv) Determined to be inherently waste like pursuant to regulations adopted by the department.

(f) This section does not limit, abridge, or supersede any authority granted to the department pursuant to Section 25143.

(g) If the department brings an action to enforce this chapter, any person subject to the action who claims that a certain recyclable material is not a waste or is excluded, exempt, or conditionally exempt, from regulation under this chapter, shall demonstrate to the department that there is a known market or disposition for the material, and that the requirements of any exemption, exclusion, or conditional exemption from this chapter are met, by providing appropriate documentation to demonstrate that the material is not a waste or is excluded, exempt, or conditionally exempt, from regulation. Any person subject to an enforcement action and making this claim shall provide to the department, upon request, the name, street and mailing address, and telephone number of the owner or operator of any facility that manages the material, and any other information related to the management of the material requested by the department. Any owner or operator of a facility subject to an action to enforce this chapter who claims to be recycling materials shall show that the facility has the necessary equipment to recycle the material.

SEC. 15. Section 25143.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25143.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (d) and (e), the department shall classify as nonhazardous waste any fly ash, bottom ash, and flue gas emission control residues, generated from the combustion of solid waste or biomass material, if these wastes do not contain significant quantities of industrial sludge or hazardous waste, and if the combustion of the solid waste or biomass material will be adequately monitored and controlled so as to prevent the handling or the disposal of any waste in a manner prohibited by law, unless the department determines that the ash or residue is hazardous, by testing a representative sample of the ash or residue pursuant to criteria adopted by the department. If the department determines that the ash or residue is nonhazardous, the department shall not repeal or modify that determination unless the department subsequently determines that, since the original testing, there has been a significant change in the fly ash, bottom ash, or flue gas emissions control residues, based upon data obtained from a representative sample of the ash or residue.

(b) The fly ash, bottom ash, and flue gas emission control residues which are classified as nonhazardous by the department are exempt from this chapter.

(c) An operator of a solid waste facility which converts solid waste into energy shall notify the department whenever there has been a significant change in the waste entering the combustion process, the combustion process itself, or in the management of the ash or residues generated by the facility.

(d) The classifications of fly ash, bottom ash, and flue gas emission control residues as nonhazardous, made by the department before January 1, 1985, for the ash or residue generated by an individual solid waste facility which will convert solid waste into energy shall not be modified or repealed by the department unless the department determines all of the following:

(1) New data reveals that there has been a significant change in the solid waste entering the combustion process, in the combustion process itself, or in the management of the ash or residue.

(2) The change specified in paragraph (1) causes the facility to produce waste which is hazardous waste, as defined in Section 25117, as determined by the testing of a representative sample of the ash or residue pursuant to criteria adopted by the department.

(3) The hazard caused by the change specified in paragraph (1) or the hazardous waste produced by the facility is not adequately regulated by any other state or local agency with jurisdiction over the facility which generates the ash or residue.

This subdivision applies to determinations made by the department for individual solid waste conversion facilities, including, but not limited to, those projects which will be constructed or will serve the Counties of San Diego, Humboldt, San Joaquin, Butte, Trinity, Sacramento, and Alameda, and the Cities of San Francisco, Long Beach, Fresno, Modesto, Sanger, and Commerce.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, this section applies only to fly ash, bottom ash, and flue gas emission control residues which are non-RCRA hazardous waste.

SEC. 16. Section 25145 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25145. (a) This chapter shall not be construed to limit or abridge the powers or duties granted to the State Water Resources Control Board and each regional water quality control board by Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not be construed to limit the power or authority of the department to take any action necessary to ensure compliance with this chapter or with any regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter, or to limit the duty of any person to comply with this chapter or with any regulation, order, or permit issued pursuant to this chapter. An action taken pursuant to the powers and duties specified in subdivision (a) is not a defense to any action taken to enforce this chapter or any regulation, order, or permit issued pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 17. Section 25150 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25150. (a) The department shall adopt, and revise when appropriate, standards and regulations for the management of hazardous wastes to protect against hazards to the public health, to domestic livestock, to wildlife, or to the environment.

(b) The department shall apply the standards and regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) to the use and operation of hazardous waste management facilities and may adopt, and revise when appropriate, additional standards and regulations for the use and operation of these facilities to protect against hazards to public health, domestic livestock, wildlife, or the environment posed by these facilities.

(c) The department shall adopt, and revise when appropriate, regulations for the recycling of hazardous waste to protect against hazards to the public health, domestic livestock, wildlife, or to the environment and to encourage the best use of natural resources.

(d) Before the adoption of regulations, the department shall consult with all agencies of interested local governments, including, but not limited to, local governing bodies, local planning agencies, local health authorities, and local building inspection departments, and secure technical assistance from the Department of Food and Agriculture, the Department of the California Highway Patrol, the Department of Fish and Game, the Department of Industrial Relations, the Division of Industrial Safety, the State Air Resources Board, the State Water Resources Control Board, the State Fire Marshal, regional water quality control boards, the State Building Standards Commission, and the California Waste Management Board.

SEC. 18. Section 25154 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25154. It shall be unlawful for any person to manage any hazardous waste except as provided for in this chapter or regulations adopted by the department pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 19. Section 25155.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25155.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (c), (d), and (e) and Sections 25155.6 and 25155.7, any person who disposes of hazardous waste, which has a heating value of more than 3,000 British Thermal Units per pound of waste material, shall dispose of those wastes by incineration, or by any other means of treatment that is effective and equally protective of the environment and has been authorized by the department as part of a hazardous waste facilities permit issued pursuant to Section 25200. The heating value of the hazardous waste shall be determined without considering any dilution which may occur that is not a normal part of a manufacturing process and shall be determined by tests prescribed by the American Society of Testing and Materials.

(b) Except as provided in subdivisions (c), (d), and (e) and Sections 25155.6 and 25155.7, any person who, after January 1, 1990, disposes of hazardous waste which contains volatile organic compounds in concentrations of more than the percentage by weight determined by the department pursuant to subdivision (f), shall dispose of these hazardous wastes by incineration, or by any other means of treatment that is effective and equally protective of the environment and has been authorized by the department as part of a hazardous waste facilities permit issued pursuant to Section 25200. The concentrations of the volatile organic compounds in the waste shall be determined without considering any dilution which may occur, unless the dilution is a normal part of a manufacturing process.

(c) If the department determines that adequate incineration or treatment capacity does not exist within the state, a person disposing of the hazardous waste specified in either subdivision (a) or (b) is exempt from the requirements of either subdivision (a) or (b), as the case may be, until the department determines that adequate incineration or treatment capacity is available. This subdivision does not exempt a hazardous waste specified in subdivision (a) or (b) from a treatment standard established pursuant to Section 25179.6.

(d) This section does not require the incineration of any hazardous waste which is economically and technologically feasible to recycle, including that waste which the producer reclaims or recycles onsite, as determined by the department pursuant to Section 25175, if the waste is, in fact, reclaimed or recycled. This subdivision does not exempt a hazardous waste specified in subdivision (a) or (b) from a treatment standard established pursuant to Section 25179.6.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), and Sections 25155.6 and 25155.7, any hazardous waste subject to a treatment standard established pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25179.6 shall be treated in compliance with that treatment standard.

(f) On or before January 1, 1987, the department shall determine the percentage of volatile organic compounds above which incineration or treatment is required pursuant to subdivision (b). The percentage shall be not less than 1 percent or more than 8 percent. In making this determination, the department shall consider (1) the reliability and availability of testing procedures for determining the volatile organic compound content of waste materials and (2) the technical and economic feasibility of incineration or other means of treatment authorized by subdivision (b). Before making a final determination, the department shall consult with, and consider the views of, the State Air Resources Board, air pollution control districts and air quality management districts, waste generators, persons who provide incineration or other authorized treatment technology or facilities, and the environmental community.

SEC. 20. Section 25155.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25155.6. Except as provided in subdivision (e) of Section 25155.5, all of the following hazardous wastes are exempt from Section 25155.5:

(a) Drilling fluids, produced waters, and other fluids or materials which are brought to the surface and then reinjected in conjunction with the exploration, development, or production of crude oil, geothermal energy, or natural gas.

(b) Mining overburden, as defined by Section 2732 of the Public Resources Code, which is deposited within a mining permit area pursuant to a permit issued pursuant to the Surface Mining and Reclamation Act of 1975 (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 2710) of Division 2 of the Public Resources Code).

(c) Contaminated soil from the cleanup of any release of hazardous substances, as defined by Article 2 (commencing with Section 25310) of Chapter 6.8, if all the following conditions are met:

(1) The disposal method for the contaminated soil has been approved by the appropriate responsible state agency as part of the cleanup plan for that particular release.

(2) The department determines that, due to the nature of the release, incineration or any other treatment process is not practicable or feasible.

(d) Contaminated soil from any remedial or removal of any release of hazardous substances not required to be reported.

(e) Hazardous waste which meets the requirements of subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 25155.5, but which cannot either be treated or incinerated, as determined by the department.

SEC. 21. Section 25155.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25155.7. Except as provided in subdivision (e) of Section 25155.5 and subdivision (a) of Section 25179.6, a hazardous waste producer may request the department, in writing, for an emergency variance to exempt a particular hazardous waste from the incineration or treatment requirement of subdivision (a) of Section 25155.5, and to permit the land disposal of that hazardous waste, if the incineration facility used by that producer, either onsite or offsite, has an unplanned shutdown, and if both of the following apply:

(a) There are no other incineration or treatment facilities of adequate capacity available in the state.

(b) The producer's facility and the recyling or treatment facility have insufficient capacity to store the particular hazardous waste for the expected duration of the shutdown.

SEC. 22. Section 25159 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25159. The department shall adopt and revise when necessary regulations which will allow the state to receive and maintain authorization to administer a state hazardous waste program in lieu of the federal program pursuant to Section 3006 of Public Law 94-580, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6926). When reviewing a regulation adopted pursuant to this section, the Office of Administrative Law shall not review the regulation for nonduplication, notwithstanding paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 11349.1 of the Government Code.

SEC. 23. Section 25159.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25159.7. The department is authorized to carry out all hazardous waste management responsibilities imposed or authorized by Public Law 94-580, as amended, Public Law 96-510 (the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980), and subsequent amendments, and any regulations adopted pursuant to these federal acts.

SEC. 24. Section 25163 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25163. (a) (1) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), it is unlawful for any person to carry on, or engage in, the transportation of hazardous wastes, unless the person holds a valid registration issued by the department, and it shall be unlawful for any person to transfer custody of a hazardous waste to a transporter who does not hold a valid registration issued by the department. A person who holds a valid registration issued by the department pursuant to this section is a registered hazardous waste hauler, for purposes of this chapter. Any registration issued by the department to a transporter of hazardous waste is not transferable from the person to whom it was issued to any other person.

(2) Any person who transports hazardous waste in a vehicle shall have a valid registration issued by the department in his or her possession while transporting the hazardous waste. The registration certificate shall be shown upon demand to any representative of the department, officer of the California Highway Patrol, any local health officer, or any public officer designated by the department. Any person registered pursuant to this section may obtain additional copies of the registration from the department upon the payment of a fee of two dollars ($2) for each copy requested, in accordance with Section 12196 of the Government Code.

(3) Commencing January 1, 1986, the hazardous waste information required and collected for registration pursuant to this subdivision shall be recorded and maintained in the management information system operated by the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

(b) Persons transporting only septic tank, cesspool, seepage pit, or chemical toilet waste that does not contain a hazardous waste originating from other than the body of a human or animal and who hold an unrevoked registration issued by the health officer or the health officer's authorized representative pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 25000) are exempt from the requirements of subdivision (a).

(c) Persons transporting hazardous wastes to a permitted hazardous waste facility for transfer, treatment, recycling, or disposal, which wastes do not exceed a total volume of five gallons or do not exceed a total weight of 50 pounds, are exempt from the requirements of subdivisions (a) and (e) and from the requirements of Section 25160 concerning possession of the manifest while transporting hazardous waste, upon meeting all of the following conditions:

(1) The hazardous wastes are transported in closed containers and packed in a manner that prevents the containers from tipping, spilling, or breaking during the transporting.

(2) Different hazardous waste materials are not mixed within a container during the transporting.

(3) If the hazardous waste is extremely hazardous waste or acutely hazardous waste, the extremely hazardous waste or acutely hazardous waste was not generated in the course of any business, and is not more than 2.2 pounds.

(4) The person transporting the hazardous waste is the producer of that hazardous waste, and the person produces no more than 100 kilograms of hazardous waste in any month.

(5) The person transporting the hazardous waste does not accumulate more than a total of 1,000 kilograms of hazardous waste onsite at any one time.

(d) Any person registered as a hazardous waste hauler pursuant to subdivision (a) is not subject to the registration requirements of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 25000), but shall comply with the terms, conditions, orders, and directions as the health officer or the health officer's authorized representative may deem necessary for the protection of human health and comfort, and shall otherwise comply with the requirements for statements as provided in Section 25007. Violations of those requirements of Section 25007 shall be punished as provided in Section 25010. Proof of registration pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be submitted by mail or in person to the local health officer in the city or county in which the registered hazardous waste hauler will be conducting the activities described in Section 25001.

(e) It is unlawful for any person to transport hazardous waste in any truck, trailer, semitrailer, vacuum tank, or cargo tank not inspected by the California Highway Patrol or to transport hazardous waste in any container, other than a container packaged pursuant to United States Department of Transportation regulations, which has not been inspected by the California Highway Patrol.

SEC. 25. Section 25179.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25179.3. For the purposes of this article, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Agricultural drainage water" means subsurface water or perched groundwater which is drained from beneath agricultural lands and which results from agricultural irrigation.

(b) "Board" means the State Water Resources Control Board.

(c) "Free liquids" mean liquids which readily separate from the solid portion of a hazardous waste under ambient temperature and pressure.

(d) "Hazardous constituent" has the meaning specified in the regulations adopted by the department.

(e) "Hazardous waste facility" has the same meaning as defined in Section 25117.1.

(f) "Hazardous waste facilities permit" means a permit issued by the department pursuant to Section 25200.

(g) "Hazardous waste landfill" means a disposal facility, or part of a facility, where hazardous waste is placed in or onto land and which is not a land treatment facility, a surface impoundment, or an injection well.

(h) "Land disposal" means placement in or on the land, and includes, but is not limited to, placement in a landfill, surface impoundment, waste pile, injection well, land treatment facility, salt dome formation, salt bed formation, underground mine or cave, or concrete vault or bunker intended for disposal purposes.

(i) "Leachate" means any liquid, including any suspended components in the liquid, that has percolated through or drained from hazardous waste.

(j) Notwithstanding Section 25123.5, and for the purposes of this article only, "treatment" means any method, technique, or process, including incineration, occurring at authorized facilities which changes the physical, chemical, or biological character or composition of any hazardous waste and, by that change, the waste becomes nonhazardous, significantly less hazardous, or more suitable for land disposal because of removal or substantial reduction of undesirable properties, such as toxicity, mobility, persistence, reactivity, bioaccumulation, flammability, or corrosivity. "Treatment" does not include any of the following, to the extent that one or more of the following are the only methods which are used:

(1) Solidification of hazardous waste by the addition of absorbent material which produces a change only in the physical character of the waste without a corresponding change in the chemical character of the waste.

(2) Treatment occurring directly in or on the land, such as land treatment, except that treatment may include in situ treatment necessary for site mitigation.

(3) Dilution of hazardous waste by the addition of nonhazardous material.

(4) Evaporation in a surface impoundment.

(k) "Small containers of hazardous waste in lab packs" means a container meeting the requirements of Section 66910 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(l) "Treated hazardous waste" means a hazardous waste which has been subject to treatment, as specified in subdivision (j) which meets treatment standards established by the department pursuant to Section 25179.6, and any applicable treatment standards adopted by the Environmental Protection Agency.

"Treated hazardous waste" also includes a hazardous waste which meets all applicable treatment standards without prior treatment. If a treatment standard has not been established for a hazardous waste that has not been restricted or prohibited by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to Section 3004 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6924), the hazardous waste shall be considered a treated hazardous waste if the waste complies with one of the following:

(1) The waste complies with the criteria and requirements established for special wastes in the regulations adopted by the department and has been classified as a special waste in the regulations adopted by the department.

(2) The waste does not contain any persistent or bioaccumulative toxic substances in excess of the soluble threshold limit concentration for the substance, as established in regulations adopted by the department.

SEC. 26. Section 25179.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25179.6. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any hazardous waste prohibited from land disposal by the Environmental Protection Agency is prohibited from land disposal in the state, unless the hazardous waste, or the producer of the hazardous waste is granted a variance, extension, exclusion, or exemption by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (2) and Sections 25179.7, 25179.8, 25179.9, 25179.10, 25179.11, and 25179.12, on or before May 8, 1990, the department shall prohibit the land disposal of any hazardous waste after the effective date of the department's action, unless the waste is either a treated hazardous waste or unless the waste is a solid hazardous waste generated in the cleanup or decontamination of any site contaminated only by hazardous waste which has not been restricted or prohibited by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to Section 3004 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6924), and which does not meet the treatment standards established by the department pursuant to this section, if the disposal of the waste has been approved by the department or other agency authorized to approve the cleanup or decontamination after considering those factors specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25356.1, regardless of whether a remedial action plan has been, or will be, prepared for the cleanup or decontamination.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (d), any treatment standard adopted or amended by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to Section 3004 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6924), shall apply in the state upon the effective date of that adoption or amendment, as specified in the final rule published in the Federal Register. The department shall not grant an extension, variance, or exemption from the treatment standard, unless the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency grants an equivalent or less stringent extension, variance, or exemption.

(1) As closely as possible with, but not later than six months following the dates specified in, the schedules required by subsection (g) of Section 6924 of Title 42 of the United States Code, the department shall adopt, on or before May 8, 1990, treatment standards specifying a method or methods of treatment, and the associated performance level, or the level of treatment required prior to the land disposal of each hazardous waste which meets the criteria adopted by the department pursuant to Section 25141.

(2) If the department specifies a method or methods of treatment and an associated performance level, unless the hazardous waste is subject to subdivision (a) of Section 25155.5, any person may use an alternative treatment method if the person demonstrates both of the following to the satisfaction of the department:

(A) The alternative treatment method will result in a level of performance substantially equivalent or greater than that achievable using the method or methods specified by the department.

(B) If the hazardous waste is subject to treatment standards established by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to Section 3004 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6924), the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency has approved the use of the alternative treatment method.

(3) The treatment standards adopted pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be designed to minimize the hazardous characteristics of the waste and minimize the potential for bioaccumulation or migration of hazardous constituents from the waste into the air, land, and water resources of the state. In adopting these standards, the department shall consider applicable federal standards adopted by the Environmental Protection Agency to the extent that the federal treatment standards minimize the hazardous characteristics of the waste and the potential for bioaccumulation or migration of hazardous constituents. The department shall adopt treatment standards for any hazardous waste for which a federal treatment standard does not minimize the hazardous characteristics of the waste and the potential for bioaccumulation or migration of hazardous constituents.

(4) For the purposes of this subdivision, the following shall apply:

(A) "Minimization of hazardous characteristics and the potential for bioaccumulation or migration" means that level of treatment which is achievable using the best demonstrated available technology.

(B) "Best demonstrated available technology" means a method of treatment which is available, or can be made available in a reasonable time, on a commercial scale and the performance of which has been demonstrated through reliable test data and project development sufficient in scope to ensure consistent results and standardized applicability.

(c) Regulations establishing treatment standards adopted by the department pursuant to this section shall be deemed a necessity for purposes of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the Office of Administrative Law shall not disapprove the regulations on the grounds that they do not meet the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 11349.1 of the Government Code.

(d) At least every seven years from the date of adoption of regulations pursuant to subdivision (b), the department shall review each treatment standard and shall revise the treatment standard if the revised treatment standard will provide substantial additional protection to human health and the environment and the department finds that the cost of compliance to those industries which are required to replace or retrofit existing hazardous waste treatment units or processes is necessary to protect human health and the environment.

A revised treatment standard adopted pursuant to this subdivision shall be applicable to any hazardous waste treatment unit or process constructed after the revised treatment standard is adopted. The land disposal of hazardous waste treated in an existing treatment unit or process which does not provide a level of performance equivalent to the revised treatment standard shall not be prohibited by the department until two years following the adoption of the revised treatment standard, by which time the existing treatment unit or process shall be replaced or retrofitted to provide a level of performance equivalent to the revised treatment standard. The department may, on a case by case basis, extend the date by which an existing treatment unit or process shall be replaced or retrofitted, but not more than 10 additional years, if an extension is needed to avoid significant economic disruption to a specific firm or hazardous waste treatment facility.

SEC. 27. Section 25179.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25179.7. (a) The department may extend the implementation date after which the land disposal of a hazardous waste is prohibited, pursuant to Section 25179.6, for a specific hazardous waste which meets the following requirements:

(1) The hazardous waste has not been restricted or prohibited by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to Section 3004 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6924), or the hazardous waste has been granted a variance by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to paragraph (2) of subsection (h) of Section 6924 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(2) Recycling and treatment capacity to process substantially all of the specific hazardous waste to meet the treatment standards adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25179.6 will not be provided at the site of generation or at a commercial offsite hazardous waste facility in the state.

(b) The department shall establish a date pursuant to subdivision (a) based upon the earliest date on which the department projects that adequate recycling and treatment capacity will be available, but not later than two years following the date the prohibition on land disposal of the waste would otherwise be implemented.

(c) The department shall not extend an implementation date pursuant to subdivision (a), beyond the date established by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency for a specific hazardous waste pursuant to paragraph (2) of subsection (h) of Section 6924 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

SEC. 28. Section 25179.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25179.8. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (f), the department may grant a variance from the requirements of Section 25179.6 for a hazardous waste only if the person demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the department, that all of the following conditions apply to the waste:

(1) The hazardous waste has not been restricted or prohibited by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to Section 3004 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6924), or the hazardous waste has been granted an equivalent or less stringent variance by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency.

(2) The hazardous waste cannot be recycled, reused, or treated to meet the standards adopted by the department pursuant to Section 25179.6 at a commercial offsite hazardous waste facility in the state.

(3) Recycling or treatment alternatives cannot be provided at the site of generation.

(4) Measures have been, or will be, taken to reduce the generation of the hazardous waste.

(5) Land disposal of the hazardous waste is in compliance with all existing statutes and regulations.

(b) If the department, pursuant to Section 25179.7, extends the date to prohibit the use of a land disposal method for a specific hazardous waste, as specified in Section 25179.6, a person applying for a variance for the specified waste shall demonstrate that circumstances beyond the control of the applicant, such as delays in the issuance of a permit, have prevented the development of the needed capacity by the date established by the department.

(c) A variance granted by the department pursuant to subdivision (a) for hazardous waste that has not been restricted or prohibited by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to Section 6924 of Title 42 of the United States Code shall remain in effect for one year.

The department may renew the variance once for an additional period of one year, if the applicant demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the department, that the needed capacity can be provided by the end of the period of renewal. A variance granted by the department pursuant to subdivision (a) for a hazardous waste which has been granted a variance by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency shall remain in effect no longer than the federal variance. No variance or renewal of a variance shall remain in effect beyond the two-year period following the effective date after which land disposal of a hazardous waste is prohibited pursuant to Section 25179.6.

(d) The department may grant a variance from the requirements of Section 25179.6 for agricultural drainage waters which meet the criteria established by the department pursuant to Section 25141 if a person demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the department, that all of the following conditions apply to the waste:

(1) There are no technically and economically feasible treatment, reuse, or recycling alternatives available to render the agricultural drainage water nonhazardous.

(2) The applicant can demonstrate that the continued disposal of agricultural drainage waters does not pose an immediate or significant long-term risk to public health or the environment.

(3) The disposal of the agricultural drainage waters is in compliance with the requirements of Section 25179.5.

Notwithstanding subdivision (c), a variance granted by the department pursuant to this subdivision shall remain in effect for three years. The variance may be renewed during or before 1993 for an additional three years, but not beyond 1996, if the applicant demonstrates that treatment, reuse, or recycling capacity may be available within three years from the date of renewal to render the agricultural drainage waters nonhazardous.

(e) When granting a variance pursuant to this section, the department may specify, where appropriate, any treatment which shall be required prior to land disposal of the waste, and may impose requirements which may be necessary to protect the public health and the environment.

(f) The department shall not grant a variance pursuant to subdivision (a) for hazardous waste granted a variance by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency which permits less stringent regulation than that required pursuant to the federal variance.

SEC. 29. Section 25179.9 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25179.9. Lab packs which contain hazardous waste that has not been restricted or prohibited by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to Section 3004 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6924 et seq.), are exempt from the requirements of Sections 25179.5 and 25179.6 if they are disposed of in accordance with the requirements established by the department, by regulation.

SEC. 30. Section 25179.10 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25179.10. (a) The department may grant an exemption from the requirements of Section 25179.6 pursuant to subdivision (b) for either of the following:

(1) Any special waste which meets the criteria and requirements established for special waste in the regulations adopted by the department and has been classified as a special waste pursuant to the regulations adopted by the department but does not meet the treatment standards established by the department pursuant to Section 25179.6.

(2) Any hazardous waste generated in the extraction, beneficiation, or processing of ores and minerals.

(b) The department may grant an exemption for a waste specified in subdivision (a) if a person, upon application, demonstrates to the satisfaction of the department that no economically and technologically feasible alternatives exist to recycle, reuse, or treat the waste to meet the treatment standards adopted by the department pursuant to Section 25179.6 and that there will be no migration of hazardous constituents in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute the waters of the state from the disposal unit where the waste is to be disposed. An exemption granted pursuant to this subdivision shall remain in effect for five years. The department may renew the exemption if, upon application, it determines that the findings required by this subdivision still apply.

SEC. 31. Section 25179.11 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25179.11. (a) A person discharging a hazardous waste into a surface impoundment which was constructed before July 1, 1986, and for which an application for waste discharge requirements was submitted on or before September 1, 1986, is exempt from the requirements of Section 25179.6 if all of the following conditions apply to the surface impoundment:

(1) The hazardous waste is managed in accordance with Section 268.4 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations, if applicable.

(2) The surface impoundment is in compliance with Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 25208).

(3) Hazardous waste is discharged into the impoundment for the purposes of treating the waste to comply with the treatment standard adopted by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25179.6 for that hazardous waste, and the residues which result from the treatment of that hazardous waste which do not meet that treatment standard are removed for subsequent management within one year of the date of placement of the hazardous waste into the surface impoundment, or the operator has received an exemption pursuant to Section 25208.16.

(b) A person discharging hazardous waste into a surface impoundment which was constructed after July 1, 1986, and for which an application for waste discharge requirements is submitted after September 1, 1986, is exempt from the requirements of Section 25179.6 if all of the following conditions apply to the surface impoundment:

(1) The hazardous waste is managed in accordance with Section 268.4 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations, if applicable.

(2) The surface impoundment is in compliance with Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 25208).

(3) Hazardous waste is discharged into the surface impoundment for the purposes of treating the waste to comply with the treatment standard adopted by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25179.6 for that hazardous waste, and the residues which result from the treatment of that hazardous waste which do not meet that treatment standard are removed for subsequent management within one year of the date of placement of the hazardous waste into the surface impoundment.

(4) The department determines that the use of the surface impoundment to treat the hazardous waste is the only means by which the hazardous waste can be treated using the best demonstrated available technology.

SEC. 32. Section 25179.12 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25179.12. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), a person operating a land treatment facility is exempt from the requirements of Section 25179.6 if the facility is in compliance with the requirements of all state and federal statutes and regulations applicable to land treatment facilities, including, but not limited to, subdivision (b), and the facility has either been issued a final permit or is operating under, and in compliance with, the requirements of interim status and the facility operator has submitted an application for a final permit.

(b) Land treatment facilities at which hazardous constituents have migrated from the treatment zone shall not be eligible for an exemption pursuant to subdivision (a) until the contamination has been removed to the satisfaction of the department. In order for the department to determine whether hazardous constituents have migrated from the treatment zone, the owner or operator of the land treatment facility shall provide data to the department on at least all of the following:

(1) Soil cores taken from below the treatment zone.

(2) Groundwater monitoring.

(3) Unsaturated zone monitoring.

(4) Waste analysis.

(5) Historical activities at the facility.

(c) A land treatment facility may not treat hazardous waste which has been restricted or prohibited by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to Section 3004 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6924), unless the land treatment has been authorized by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency.

SEC. 33. Section 25187 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25187. (a) Whenever the department determines that any person has violated, or is in violation of, this chapter, Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300), or Article 3 (commencing with Section 25810) of Chapter 7.6, of this division, or threatens, as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 13304 of the Water Code to violate this chapter, Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300), or Article 3 (commencing with Section 25810) of Chapter 7.6, of this division, or any permit, rule, regulation, standard, or requirement issued or adopted pursuant to this chapter, Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300), or Article 3 (commencing with Section 25810) of Chapter 7.6, of this division, or the department determines that there is or has been a release, as defined in Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300), of hazardous waste or constituents into the environment from a hazardous waste facility, the department may issue an order specifying a schedule for compliance or correction. An order issued pursuant to this section shall include a requirement that the person take corrective action with respect to hazardous waste, including the cleanup of the hazardous waste, abatement of the effects thereof, and any other necessary remedial action. An order issued pursuant to this section which requires corrective action at a hazardous waste facility shall require that corrective action be taken beyond the facility boundary, where necessary to protect human health or the environment. The order shall incorporate as a condition of the order any applicable waste discharge requirements issued by the State Water Resources Control Board or a California regional water quality control board, and shall be consistent with all applicable water quality control plans adopted pursuant to Section 13170 of the Water Code and Article 3 (commencing with Section 13240) of Chapter 4 of Division 7 of the Water Code and state policies for water quality control adopted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 13140) of Chapter 3 of Division 7 of the Water Code existing at the time of the issuance of the order, to the extent that the department determines that those plans and policies are not less stringent than this chapter and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter. The department may also include any more stringent requirement which the department determines is necessary or appropriate to protect water quality. Persons who are subject to an order pursuant to this section include present and prior owners, lessees, or operators of the property where the hazardous waste is located, present or past generators, storers, treaters, transporters, disposers, and handlers of hazardous waste, and persons who arrange, or have arranged, by contract or other agreement, to store, treat, transport, dispose of, or otherwise handle hazardous waste.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), "hazardous waste facility" includes the entire site that is under the control of an owner or operator engaged in the management of hazardous waste.

(c) Any order issued pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be served by personal service or certified mail and shall inform the person so served of the right to a hearing.

(d) Any person served with an order pursuant to subdivision (c) who has been unable to resolve any violation or deficiency on an informal basis with the department may, within 10 days after service of the order, request a hearing by filing with the department a notice of defense. A notice of defense shall be deemed filed within the 10-day period provided by this subdivision if it is postmarked within that 10-day period. If no notice of defense is filed within the time limits provided by this subdivision, the order shall become final.

(e) Any hearing requested under subdivision (d) shall be conducted by an independent hearing officer, in accordance with the procedures specified in Sections 11507 to 11517, inclusive, of the Government Code, except as otherwise specified in this section. In making a determination, the hearing officer shall take into consideration the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation and the various abatement and cleanup remedies which are appropriate in the given circumstances and which are consistent with the primary emphasis of protecting the public health and safety and the environment. After conducting any hearing requested under subdivision (d), the hearing officer shall, within 30 days after the case is submitted, issue a decision, including any order, if appropriate. The hearing officer's decision, including any order issued therewith, shall be served by the department on each party by personal service or by certified mail.

(f) Any provision of an order issued under subdivision (a) shall take effect upon issuance by the department if the department finds that the violation or violations of law associated with that provision may pose an imminent and substantial endangerment to the public health or safety or the environment, and a request for a hearing shall not stay the effect of that provision of the order pending a decision by the hearing officer under subdivision (e). However, in the event that the department determines that any or all provisions of the order are so related that the public health or safety or the environment can be protected only by immediate compliance with the order as a whole, then the order as a whole shall take effect upon issuance by the department and a request for a hearing shall not stay the effect of the order as a whole pending a decision by the hearing officer under subdivision (e). Any order issued after a hearing requested under subdivision (d) shall take effect upon issuance by the hearing officer.

(g) Within 30 days after service of a copy of a decision issued by the hearing officer, any person so served may file with the superior court a petition for writ of mandate for review of the decision. Any person who fails to file the petition within this 30-day period may not challenge the reasonableness or validity of a decision or order of the hearing officer in any judicial proceedings brought to enforce the decision or order or for other remedies. Except as otherwise specified in this section, Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall govern the proceedings conducted pursuant to this subdivision. In all proceedings pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall uphold the decision of the hearing officer if the decision is based upon substantial evidence in the whole record. The filing of a petition for writ of mandate shall not stay any corrective action required pursuant to this chapter or the accrual of any penalties assessed pursuant to this chapter. This subdivision does not prohibit the court from granting any appropriate relief within its jurisdiction.

SEC. 34. Section 25187.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25187.1. (a) If the department determines, upon receipt of any information, that the presence of any hazardous waste at a facility or site at which hazardous waste is, or has been, stored, treated, or disposed of, or the release of any hazardous waste from the facility or site may present a substantial hazard to human health or the environment, the department may issue an order requiring the owner or operator of the facility or site to conduct monitoring, testing, analysis, and reporting with respect to the facility or site which the department deems reasonable to ascertain the nature and extent of the hazard.

(b) If a facility or site subject to subdivision (a) is not in operation at the time the determination is made and the department finds that the owner of the facility or site, could not reasonably be expected to have actual knowledge of the presence of hazardous waste at the facility or site and of its potential for release, the department may issue an order requiring the most recent previous owner or operator of the facility or site who could reasonably be expected to have the actual knowledge to carry out the actions specified in subdivision (a).

(c) Any order issued pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall require the person to whom the order is issued to submit to the department, within 30 days from the issuance of the order, a proposal for carrying out the required monitoring, testing, analysis, and reporting. The department may, after providing the person with an opportunity to confer with the department concerning the proposal, require the person to carry out the monitoring, testing, analysis, and reporting in accordance with the proposal, and with any modifications in the proposal as the department deems reasonable to ascertain the nature and extent of the hazard.

(d) If the department determines that there is no owner or operator specified in subdivision (a) or (b) to conduct monitoring, testing, analysis, or reporting satisfactory to the department, if the department deems the action carried out by an owner or operator is unsatisfactory, or if the department cannot initially determine that there is an owner or operator specified in subdivision (a) or (b) who is able to conduct monitoring, testing, analysis, or reporting, the department may do either of the following:

(1) Conduct monitoring, testing, or analysis, or any combination of these actions, which the department deems reasonable, to ascertain the nature and extent of the hazard associated with the site.

(2) Authorize a local authority or other person to carry out the action, and require, by order, the owner or operator specified in subdivision (a) or (b) to reimburse the department or other authority or person for the costs of the activity.

(e) The department shall not issue an order pursuant to this section which requires the department to be reimbursed for the costs of any action carried out by the department to conduct monitoring, testing, and analysis to determine the results of the actions carried out by a person pursuant to an order issued pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b).

(f) For purposes of carrying out this subdivision, the department, any local agency, or other person authorized under paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), may take action pursuant to Section 25185.

SEC. 35. Section 25199.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25199.6. (a) Section 65943 of the Government Code does not apply to the department's review of applications for a hazardous waste facilities permit. The department shall review for completeness each application for a hazardous waste facilities permit and notify the applicant in writing whether the application is complete within 60 days of receipt. If the application is incomplete, the department shall require the applicant to provide the information necessary to make the application complete. An application is not deemed to be complete until the department notifies the applicant that the application is complete. After an application is determined to be complete, the department may request additional information only when necessary to clarify, modify, or supplement previously submitted material.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 65952 of the Government Code, a responsible agency for a hazardous waste facility project that is a land disposal facility shall approve or disapprove all permits for the project within one of the following periods of time, whichever is longer:

(1) Within one year from the date on which the lead agency approved or disapproved the permit for the project.

(2) Within one year from the date on which completed applications for permits for the project were received, and accepted as complete, by the responsible agency.

(c) Subdivision (b) of Section 65956 of the Government Code does not apply to the failure of a lead agency or responsible agency to approve or disapprove a permit for a hazardous waste facility project within the time limits established by Sections 65950 and 65952 of the Government Code and subdivision (b) of this section. If a lead agency or a responsible agency fails to act within those time limits, the applicant may file an action pursuant to Section 1085 of the Code of Civil Procedure to compel the agency to approve or disapprove the permit for the project within a reasonable time, as the court may determine.

SEC. 36. Section 25199.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25199.6. (a) Section 65943 of the Government Code does not apply to the department's review of applications for a hazardous waste facilities permit. The department shall review for completeness each application for a hazardous waste facilities permit and notify the applicant in writing whether the application is complete within 60 days of receipt. If the application is incomplete, the department shall require the applicant to provide the information necessary to make the application complete. An application is not deemed to be complete until the department notifies the applicant that the application is complete. After an application is determined to be complete, the department may request additional information only when necessary to clarify, modify, or supplement previously submitted material.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 65952 of the Government Code, any public agency which is a responsible agency for a hazardous waste facility project that is a land disposal facility shall approve or disapprove the project within one of the following periods of time, whichever is longer:

(1) Within one year from the date on which the lead agency approved or disapproved the project.

(2) Within one year from the date on which the completed application for the project has been received, and accepted as complete, by that responsible agency.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 65952 of the Government Code and Section 25199.2, any public agency which is a responsible agency for a hazardous waste facility project that is not a land disposal facility shall approve or disapprove the project within one of the following periods of time, whichever is longer:

(1) Within 180 days from the date on which the lead agency approved or disapproved the project.

(2) Within 180 days from the date on which the completed application for the project has been received, and accepted as complete, by that responsible agency.

(d) Subdivision (b) of Section 65956 of the Government Code does not apply to the failure of a lead agency or responsible agency to approve or disapprove a permit for a hazardous waste facility project within the time limits established by Sections 65950 and 65952 of the Government Code and subdivisions (b) and (c) of this section. If a lead agency or a responsible agency fails to act within those time limits, the applicant may file an action pursuant to Section 1085 of the Code of Civil Procedure to compel the agency to approve or disapprove the permit for the project within a reasonable time, as the court may determine.

SEC. 37. Section 25204.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25204.5. Any action taken by the department pursuant to this article shall be consistent with all applicable regulations adopted by the State Water Resources Control Board, all applicable water quality control plans adopted pursuant to Section 13170 of the Water Code and Article 3 (commencing with Section 13240) of Chapter 4 of Division 7 of the Water Code, and all applicable state policies for water quality control adopted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 13140) of Chapter 3 of Division 7 of the Water Code, to the extent the department determines that those regulations, plans, and policies are not less stringent than this chapter and the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter. The department shall also incorporate, as a condition of any permit issued, amended, or renewed under this chapter, any waste discharge requirements issued by the State Water Resources Control Board or a California regional water quality control board and any conditions imposed pursuant to Section 13227 of the Water Code, to the extent the department determines those waste discharge requirements, requirements, and limitations are not less stringent than this chapter and the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter. The department may set more stringent requirements or limitations which the department determines are necessary or appropriate to carry out this chapter.

SEC. 38. Section 25205 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205. The department shall not issue or renew a permit to operate a hazardous waste facility unless the owner or operator of the facility establishes and maintains the financial assurance prescribed pursuant to Section 25245.

SEC. 39. Section 25245 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25245. (a) The department shall adopt, and revise when appropriate, standards and regulations which shall do both of the following:

(1) Specify the financial assurances to be provided by the owner or operator of a hazardous waste facility that are necessary to respond adequately to damage claims arising out of the operation of that type of facility and to provide for the cost of closure and subsequent maintenance of the facility, including, but not limited to, the monitoring of ground water and other aspects of the environment after closure. The financial assurance shall be a trust fund, surety bond, letter of credit, insurance, or, for facilities which manage solely non-RCRA hazardous waste, any other equivalent financial arrangement acceptable to the department.

(2) Provide that every hazardous waste facility can be closed and maintained for at least 30 years subsequent to its closure in a manner that protects human health and the environment and minimizes or eliminates the escape of hazardous waste constituents, leachate, contaminated rainfall, and waste decomposition products to ground and surface waters and to the atmosphere.

(b) In adopting regulations pursuant to subdivision (a), to carry out the purposes of this chapter, the department may specify policy or other contractual terms, conditions, or defenses which are necessary or are unacceptable in establishing evidence of financial responsibility.

(1) If an owner or operator is in bankruptcy, reorganization, or other arrangement pursuant to Title 11 of the United States Code, or where, with reasonable diligence, the department cannot obtain jurisdiction in any state or federal court over an owner or operator likely to be solvent at the time of judgment, the department may assert any claim arising from conduct for which this section requires evidence of financial responsibility directly against the guarantor who provided the evidence of financial responsibility.

(2) The total liability of any guarantor is limited to the aggregate amount which the guarantor has provided as evidence of financial responsibility to the owner or operator under this chapter.

(3) This subdivision does not limit any other state or federal statutory, contractual, or common law liability of a guarantor to the owner or operator, including, but not limited to, the liability of the guarantor for bad faith in either negotiating or in failing to negotiate the settlement of any claim.

(4) This subdivision does not diminish the liability of any person under Section 107 or 111 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. Secs. 9607 and 9611).

(5) For purposes of this subdivision, "guarantor" means any person, other than the owner or operator, who provides evidence of financial responsibility for an owner or operator under this section.

SEC. 40. Section 25246 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25246. (a) Each owner or operator of a hazardous waste facility shall submit hazardous waste facility closure and postclosure plans to the department and to the California regional water quality control board for the region in which the facility is located. The plans shall contain the owner's or operator's estimate of the cost of closure and subsequent maintenance, shall conform to the regulations adopted by the department and shall comply with applicable state laws relating to water quality protection and monitoring.

(b) The plans specified in subdivision (a) shall be submitted to the department with the application for a hazardous waste facilities permit or when otherwise requested by the department. The plans shall be submitted to the California regional water quality control board with a report of waste discharge submitted in accordance with Section 13260 of the Water Code. An owner or operator who has submitted a request for, or received a hazardous waste facilities permit prior to, the adoption of the standards and regulations pursuant to Section 25245 shall submit the plans within 180 days after the department issues a written request for the plans. Prior to actual closure of the facility, the plans shall be updated if requested by the department. However, no owner or operator shall be required to revise or amend a closure plan after the department notifies the owner or operator in writing that the closure of the facility has been completed in accordance with the approved closure plan.

(c) An owner or operator who has not submitted facility closure and postclosure plans shall submit the plans at least 180 days prior to closure of the hazardous waste facility.

SEC. 41. Section 25247 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25247. (a) The department shall review each plan submitted pursuant to Section 25246 and shall approve the plan if it finds that the plan complies with the regulations adopted by the department and complies with all other applicable state and federal regulations.

(b) The department shall not approve the plan until at least one of the following occurs:

(1) The plan has been approved pursuant to Section 13227 of the Water Code.

(2) Sixty days expire after the owner or operator of an interim status facility complies with Section 25246. If the department denies approval of a plan for an interim status facility, this 60-day period shall not begin until the owner or operator resubmits the plan in compliance with Section 25246.

(3) The director finds that immediate approval of the plan is necessary to protect public health, safety, or the environment.

(c) Any action taken by the department pursuant to this section is subject to Section 25204.5.

SEC. 42. Section 25248 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25248. The owner or operator of a facility for which closure and postclosure plans have been approved shall carry out the plans during the closure and postclosure period required by law.

SEC. 43. Section 25250.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25250.1. As used in this article, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Used oil" means any of the following:

(1) Any oil that has been refined from crude oil, and has been used, and, as a result of use, has been contaminated with physical or chemical impurities.

(2) Any oil that has been refined from crude oil and, as a consequence of extended storage, spillage, or contamination with nonhazardous impurities such as dirt and water, is no longer useful to the original purchaser.

(3) Spent lubricating fluids which have been removed from an engine crankcase, transmission, gearbox, or differential of an automobile, bus, truck, vessel, plane, heavy equipment, or machinery powered by an internal combustion engine.

(4) Spent industrial oils, including compressor, turbine, and bearing oil, hydraulic oil, metal-working oil, refrigeration oil, and railroad drainings.

(5) Contaminated fuel oil with a flash point greater than 100°F.

"Used oil" does not include oil which has a flash point below 100°F or which has been intentionally mixed with hazardous waste, other than minimal amounts of vehicle fuel. "Used oil" also does not include oil which contains polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs) at a concentration of 5 ppm or greater.

(b) "Board" means the California Waste Management Board.

(c) "Recycled oil" means any oil, produced from used oil, which has been prepared for reuse and which achieves minimum standards of purity, in liquid form, as established by the department. This subdivision does not apply to oil which is to be disposed. The following standards of purity are in effect unless the department, by regulation, establishes more stringent standards:

(1) Flash point: minimum standards set by the American Society for Testing and Materials for the recycled products.

(2) Lead: 100 ppm or less prior to January 1, 1988; 50 ppm or less on and after January 1, 1988.

(3) Arsenic: 5 ppm or less.

(4) Chromium: 10 ppm or less.

(5) Cadmium: 2 ppm or less.

(6) Total Halogens: 3,000 ppm or less.

(7) Polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs): 5 ppm or less.

Compliance with these standards shall be determined in accordance with the procedures for identification and listing of hazardous waste adopted in regulations by the department.

(d) The standards set in subdivision (c) include the only concentrations allowed above the criteria adopted pursuant to Section 25141.

(e) Used oil which meets the standards set in subdivision (c), is not hazardous pursuant to the criteria adopted pursuant to Section 25141 for constituents other than those listed in subdivision (c), and is not mixed with any waste listed as a hazardous waste in Part 261 (commencing with Section 261.1) of Chapter 1 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations is not regulated by the department. Any person who generates used oil, and who claims that the oil is exempt from regulation pursuant to this subdivision, shall notify the department of that claim and shall comply with the testing and recordkeeping requirements of Section 25250.19 prior to its reuse. In any action to enforce this article, the burden is on the generator and user of the used oil to prove that the oil met those standards and criteria.

SEC. 44. Section 25250.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25250.1. As used in this article, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Used oil" means any of the following:

(1) Any oil that has been refined from crude oil, and has been used, and, as a result of use, has been contaminated with physical or chemical impurities.

(2) Any oil that has been refined from crude oil and, as a consequence of extended storage, spillage, or contamination with nonhazardous impurities such as dirt and water, is no longer useful to the original purchaser.

(3) Spent lubricating fluids which have been removed from an engine crankcase, transmission, gearbox, or differential of an automobile, bus, truck, vessel, plane, heavy equipment, or machinery powered by an internal combustion engine.

(4) Spent industrial oils, including compressor, turbine, and bearing oil, hydraulic oil, metal-working oil, refrigeration oil, and railroad drainings.

(5) Contaminated fuel oil with a flash point equal to or greater than 100°F.

"Used oil" does not include oil which has a flash point below 100°F or which has been intentionally mixed with hazardous waste, other than minimal amounts of vehicle fuel. "Used oil" also does not include oil which contains polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs) at a concentration of 5 ppm or greater.

(b) "Board" means the California Waste Management Board.

(c) "Recycled oil" means any oil, produced from used oil, which has been prepared for reuse and which achieves minimum standards of purity, in liquid form, as established by the department. This subdivision does not apply to oil which is to be disposed. The following standards of purity are in effect unless the department, by regulation, establishes more stringent standards:

(1) Flash point: minimum standards set by the American Society for Testing and Materials for the recycled products.

(2) Lead: 100 ppm or less prior to January 1, 1988; 50 ppm or less on and after January 1, 1988.

(3) Arsenic: 5 ppm or less.

(4) Chromium: 10 ppm or less.

(5) Cadmium: 2 ppm or less.

(6) Total Halogens: 3,000 ppm or less.

(7) Polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs): 5 ppm or less.

Compliance with these standards shall be determined in accordance with the procedures for identification and listing of hazardous waste adopted in regulations by the department.

(d) The standards set in subdivision (c) include the only concentrations allowed above the criteria adopted pursuant to Section 25141.

(e) Used oil which meets the standards set in subdivision (c), is not hazardous pursuant to the criteria adopted pursuant to Section 25141 for constituents other than those listed in subdivision (c), and is not mixed with any waste listed as a hazardous waste in Part 261 (commencing with Section 261.1) of Chapter 1 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations is not regulated by the department. Any person who generates used oil, and who claims that the oil is exempt from regulation pursuant to this subdivision, shall notify the department, in writing, of that claim and shall comply with the testing and recordkeeping requirements of Section 25250.19 prior to its reuse. In any action to enforce this article, the burden is on the generator and user of the used oil to prove that the oil met those standards and criteria.

(f) "Used oil recycling facility" means a facility which reprocesses or rerefines used oil.

(g) "Used oil storage facility" means a storage facility, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 25123.3, which stores used oil.

(h) "Used oil transfer facility" means a transfer facility, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 25123.3, that either stores used oil for periods greater than 144 hours or that transfers used oil from one container to another.

SEC. 45. Section 13172 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13172. To ensure adequate protection of water quality and statewide uniformity in the siting, operation, and closure of waste disposal sites, except for sewage treatment plants or those sites which primarily contain fertilizer or radioactive material, the state board shall do all of the following:

(a) Classify wastes according to the risk of impairment to water quality, taking into account toxicity, persistence, degradability, solubility, and other biological, chemical, and physical properties of the wastes.

(b) Classify the types of disposal sites according to the level of protection provided for water quality, taking into account the geology, hydrology, topography, climatology, and other factors relating to ability of the site to protect water quality.

(c) Adopt standards and regulations to implement Sections 13226 and 13227.

(d) Adopt standards and regulations for hazardous waste disposal sites which apply and ensure compliance with all applicable groundwater protection and monitoring requirements of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.), any federal act, enacted before or after January 1, 1989, which amends or supplements the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, any federal regulations adopted before or after January 1, 1989, pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended, together with any more stringent requirements necessary to implement this division or Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 25208) of Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 46. Section 13227 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13227. (a) Each regional board, with respect to its region, shall review the facility closure and postclosure plans submitted pursuant to Section 25246 of the Health and Safety Code, to ensure that water quality is adequately protected during closure and the post-closure maintenance period.

(b) The regional board shall approve the facility closure and postclosure plans if it finds that the plans comply with applicable state and federal laws and regulations relating to water quality protection and monitoring.

(c) The regional board may condition its approval of the plans in accordance with the requirements of this section.

SEC. 47. Section 36 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25199.6 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by this bill and AB 3206. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 25199.6 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3206, in which case Section 25199.6 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by AB 3206, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 36 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 35 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 48. Section 44 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25250.1 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 379. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends Section 25250.1 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 379, in which case Section 43 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 49. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1632

An act to amend Sections 18909, 25110, 25113, 25117.1, 25117.2, 25118, 25123, 25123.3, 25123.5, 25144, 25200, 25200.5, 25200.7, 25200.8, 25201, 25203, 25209.1, 25209.2, 25209.3, 25209.4, 25209.5, 25209.6, and 25503.7 of, and to add Sections 25110.02, 25117.9, 25153.6, and 25200.10 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1988. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18909 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18909. (a) "Building standard" means any rule, regulation, order, or other requirement, including any amendment or repeal of such a requirement, which specifically regulates, requires, or forbids the method of use, properties, performance, or types of materials used in the construction, alteration, improvement, repair, or rehabilitation of a building, structure, factory-built housing, or other improvement to real property, including fixtures therein, and as determined by the commission.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (d), "building standard" includes architectural and design functions of a building or structure, including, but not limited to, number and location of doors, windows, and other openings, stress or loading characteristics of materials, and methods of fabrication, clearances, and other functions.

(c) "Building standard" does not include a regulation, rule, or order relating to the enforcement of a building standard, including the penalties for failure to comply with a building standard.

(d) "Building standard" does not include any safety regulations which any state agency is authorized to adopt relating to the operation of machinery and equipment used in manufacturing, processing, or fabricating, including, but not limited to, warehousing and food processing operations, but not including safety regulations relating to permanent appendages, accessories, apparatus, appliances, and equipment attached to the building as a part thereof, as determined by the commission.

(e) "Building standard" does not include temporary scaffoldings and similar temporary safety devices and procedures, which are used in the erection, demolition, moving, or alteration of buildings.

(f) "Building standard" does not include any regulation relating to operations or procedures established for the administration of a program of a state agency or for the internal management of a state agency.

(g) "Building standard" does not include any regulation, rule, order, or standard which pertains to mobilehomes, manufactured homes, commercial coaches, special purpose commercial coaches, or recreational vehicles.

(h) "Building standard" does not include any regulation, rule, or order or standard which pertains to a mobilehome park, recreational vehicle park, temporary recreational vehicle park, or travel trailer park, except that "building standard" includes the construction of permanent buildings and plumbing, electrical, and fuel gas equipment and installations within permanent buildings in mobilehome parks, recreational vehicle parks, temporary recreational vehicle parks, or travel trailer parks. For purposes of this subdivision, "permanent building" means any permanent structure constructed in the mobilehome park, recreational vehicle park, temporary recreational vehicle park, or travel trailer park which is a permanent facility under the control and ownership of the park operator.

(i) "Building standard" does not include any regulation, rule, order, or standard which pertains to mausoleums regulated under Part 5 (commencing with Section 9501) of Division 8.

(j) "Building standard" does not include any regulation adopted by the State Department of Health Services or the State Water Resources Control Board concerning hazardous waste facilities, as defined in Section 25117.1, or concerning the discharge of waste to land.

SEC. 2. Section 25110 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25110. Unless the context indicates otherwise, the definitions in this article govern the construction of this chapter. Until the other terms used in this chapter are defined in either this chapter or in regulations adopted to implement this chapter, the definitions found in the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.) and the regulations adopted pursuant to that act, shall apply to the terms used in this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 25110.02 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25110.02. "Acutely hazardous waste" means any hazardous waste classified as an acutely hazardous waste in regulations adopted by the department.

SEC. 4. Section 25113 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25113. "Disposal" means the discharge, deposit, injection, dumping, spilling, leaking, or placing of any waste into or on any land or water so that the waste or any constituent of the waste, may enter the environment or be emitted into the air or discharged into any waters, including groundwaters.

SEC. 5. Section 25117.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25117.1. "Hazardous waste facility" or "facility" means all contiguous land and structures, other appurtenances, and improvements on the land used for the treatment, transfer, storage, resource recovery, disposal, or recycling of hazardous waste. A hazardous waste facility may consist of one or more treatment, transfer, storage, resource recovery, disposal, or recycling hazardous waste management units, or combinations of these units.

SEC. 6. Section 25117.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25117.2. "Hazardous waste management" or "management" means the transportation, transfer, recycling, recovery, disposal, handling, processing, storage, and treatment of hazardous waste.

SEC. 7. Section 25117.9 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25117.9. "Non-RCRA hazardous waste" means all hazardous waste regulated in the state other than that hazardous waste which is subject to regulation by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.), in states that are not authorized pursuant to Section 6926 of Title 42 of the United States Code. A hazardous waste is presumed to be regulated pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, unless it is determined, pursuant to regulations adopted by the department, that the hazardous waste is a non-RCRA hazardous waste. Until the department adopts regulations to implement this section, a hazardous waste is presumed to be regulated pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended, (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.), unless the generator of the waste determines that the hazardous waste is not a hazardous waste pursuant to the standards specified in Part 261 (commencing with Section 261.1) of Subchapter I of Chapter 1 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 8. Section 25118 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25118. "Person" means an individual, trust, firm, joint stock company, business concern, corporation, including, but not limited to, a government corporation, partnership, and association. "Person" also includes any city, county, district, commission, the state or any department, agency, or political subdivision thereof, any interstate body, and the federal government or any department or agency thereof to the extent permitted by law.

SEC. 9. Section 25123 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25123. "Storage" means the holding of hazardous wastes, for a temporary period.

SEC. 10. Section 25123.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25123.3. (a) "Storage facility" means a hazardous waste facility at which the hazardous waste meets any of the following requirements:

(1) The hazardous waste is held in containers or tanks for greater than 90 days at an onsite facility.

(2) The hazardous waste is held at an onsite facility in tanks for any period of time and the quantities of the hazardous waste exceed 5,000 gallons or 45,000 pounds, whichever is greater. For purposes of this paragraph, these quantities do not include hazardous waste stored in a portable tank used for a period of not more than 60 calendar days at an onsite facility or hazardous waste accumulated onsite which has been generated from onsite maintenance operations which occur less frequently than annually.

(3) The hazardous waste is held in containers or tanks for any period of time at an offsite facility which is not a transfer facility.

(4) The hazardous waste is held in containers or tanks at a transfer facility for periods greater than 144 hours.

(b) The time period for calculating the 90-day period for purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) begins when the facility has accumulated 100 kilograms of hazardous waste or one kilogram of extremely hazardous waste or acutely hazardous waste, except that, if the facility generates more than 100 kilograms of hazardous waste or one kilogram of extremely hazardous waste or acutely hazardous waste during any calendar month, the time period begins when any amount of hazardous waste first begins to accumulate in that month.

(c) For purposes of this section, "transfer facility" means any offsite facility which is related to the transportation of hazardous waste, including, but not limited to, loading docks, parking areas, storage areas, and other similar areas where shipments of hazardous waste are held during the normal course of transportation.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), a generator of hazardous waste that accumulates waste onsite is not a storage facility if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) The generator accumulates a maximum of 55 gallons of hazardous waste, one quart of acutely hazardous waste, or one quart of extremely hazardous waste at an initial accumulation point which is at or near the area where the waste is generated and which is under the control of the operator of the process generating the waste.

(2) The generator accumulates the waste in containers other than tanks.

(3) The generator does not hold the hazardous waste onsite for more than one year from the initial date of accumulation, or 90 days from the date the quantity limitation specified in paragraph (1) of this subdivision is reached, whichever occurs first.

(4) The generator labels any container used for the accumulation of hazardous waste with the initial date of accumulation and with the words "hazardous waste" or other words that identify the contents of the container.

(5) Within three days of reaching any applicable quantity limitation specified in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, the generator labels the container holding the accumulated hazardous waste with the date the quantity limitation was reached and either transfers the waste offsite or complies with the regulations adopted by the department establishing requirements for personnel training, preparedness and prevention, and contingency plans and emergency procedures applicable to storage facilities.

(6) The generator complies with regulations adopted by the department pertaining to the use and management of containers and any other regulations adopted by the department to implement this subdivision.

(7) The generator does not otherwise meet the definition of a storage facility.

SEC. 11. Section 25123.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25123.5. "Treatment" means any method, technique, or process which changes or is designed to change the physical, chemical, or biological character or composition of any hazardous waste or any material contained therein, or removes or reduces its harmful properties or characteristics for any purpose.

SEC. 12. Section 25144 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25144. A biological process on the property of the producer treating oil, its products, and water which meets the definition of a non-RCRA waste, and producing an effluent which is continuously discharged to navigable waters in compliance with a permit issued pursuant to Section 402 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act

(33 U.S.C. Sec. 1342) is exempt from this chapter. However, residues produced in the treatment process and subsequently removed that conform to any criterion adopted pursuant to Section 25141 are not exempt.

SEC. 13. Section 25153.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25153.6. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), any person generating or managing hazardous waste shall comply with subsection (a) of Section 3010 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6930(a)).

(b) Any person generating or managing a non-RCRA hazardous waste shall comply with any notification requirements for non-RCRA hazardous waste which the department adopts by regulation.

SEC. 14. Section 25200 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25200. (a) The department shall issue hazardous waste facilities permits to use and operate one or more hazardous waste management units at a facility which in the judgment of the department meet the building standards published in the State Building Standards Code relating to hazardous waste facilities and the other standards and requirements adopted pursuant to this chapter. The department may impose, as a condition of the permit, the requirement that the operator of a hazardous waste facility which receives hazardous waste from more than one producer shall comply with any order of the director which prohibits the facility operator from refusing to accept a hazardous waste based on geographical origin which is authorized to be accepted and may be accepted by the facility without extraordinary hazard.

(b) Any hazardous waste facilities permit issued by the department shall be for a fixed term, which shall not exceed 10 years for any land disposal facility, storage facility, incinerator, or other treatment facility. The department shall review each hazardous waste facilities permit for a land disposal facility five years after the date of issuance or reissuance, and shall modify the permit, as necessary, to assure that the facility continues to comply with the currently applicable requirements of this chapter and the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter. This subdivision does not prohibit the department from reviewing and modifying a permit at any time during its term. When reviewing any application for a permit renewal, the department shall consider improvements in the state of control and measurement technology as well as changes in applicable regulations. Each permit issued under this section shall contain the terms and conditions which the department determines necessary to protect human health and the environment.

SEC. 15. Section 25200.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25200.5. (a) Except as provided in Section 25200.7, any person who desires to continue the use or operation of a hazardous waste facility which was in existence on November 19, 1980, or which was in existence on the effective date of any statute or regulation which subjected that facility to hazardous waste facilities permit requirements under this chapter, pending the review and decision of the department on the permit application, may be granted interim status by the department if the person has made application for a permit pursuant to Section 25200 and complied with the requirements of subsection (a) of Section 6930 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(b) The person operating under an interim status pursuant to this section shall not do any of the following acts:

(1) Treat, store, transfer, or dispose of hazardous wastes which are not specified in Part A of the permit application.

(2) Employ processes not described in Part A of the permit application.

(3) Exceed the design capacities specified in Part A of the permit application.

(c) A facility operating under interim status is not subject to civil or criminal penalties for operating without a permit, but is otherwise subject to this chapter and the rules, regulations, standards, and requirements issued or adopted pursuant to this chapter. Interim status may be granted subject to any conditions which the department deems necessary to protect public health or the environment. Interim status shall not be valid beyond the date of the decision of the department on the permit application.

(d) The department shall not grant interim status to any person to operate a hazardous waste facility if the facility has been subject to any of the following actions:

(1) Denial of a hazardous waste facilities permit.

(2) Suspension, revocation, or termination of a hazardous waste facilities permit.

(3) Termination of a grant of interim status.

(e) For purposes of this section, "Part A of the permit application" has the same meaning as defined in Section 66151 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, as that section read on January 1, 1988.

(f) Any land disposal facility, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 25179.3, which lost interim status pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3) of subsection (e) of Section 6925 of Title 42 of the United States Code is deemed to have lost interim status granted under this section to operate a facility managing hazardous waste regulated pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.).

(g) The termination date for interim status for any land disposal facility, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 25179.3, which is in existence on the effective date of any statute or the regulation adopted pursuant to that statute which subjects the facility to hazardous waste facilities permit requirements under this chapter, and which is granted interim status under this section, is the date 12 months after the date on which the facility first becomes subject to the hazardous waste facilities permit requirements, unless one of the following applies:

(1) Part A of the facility's permit application specifies that only non-RCRA hazardous waste will be disposed of at the facility.

(2) The owner or operator of the facility does both of the following:

(A) Applies for a final determination regarding the issuance of a hazardous waste facilities permit under Section 25200 for the facility before the date 12 months after the date on which the facility first becomes subject to the hazardous waste facilities permit requirements.

(B) Certifies that the facility is in compliance with all applicable groundwater monitoring and financial responsibility requirements.

(h) The termination date for interim status for any incinerator facility which submitted an application for a hazardous waste facilities permit before November 8, 1984, is November 8, 1989, unless one of the following applies:

(1) Part A of the facility's permit application specifies that only non-RCRA hazardous waste will be disposed of at the facility.

(2) The owner or operator of the facility applied for a final determination regarding the issuance of a hazardous waste facilities permit under Section 25200 for the facility on or before November 8, 1986.

(i) The termination date for interim status for any facility, other than a facility specified in subdivision (g) or (h), which submitted an application for a hazardous waste facilities permit before November 8, 1984, is November 8, 1992, unless one of the following applies:

(1) Part A of the facility's permit application specifies that only non-RCRA hazardous waste will be disposed of at the facility.

(2) The owner or operator of the facility applied for a final determination regarding the issuance of a hazardous waste facilities permit under Section 25200 for the facility on or before November 8, 1988.

SEC. 16. Section 25200.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25200.7. (a) On or before November 8, 1988, the department shall take final action on each application for a hazardous waste facilities permit submitted to the department before January 1, 1988, by either issuing a final permit pursuant to the application or a final denial of the application.

(b) Subdivision (a) applies only to hazardous waste facilities which are operating under a grant of interim status on January 1, 1988, which use a land disposal method, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 25179.3, and which dispose of wastes regulated as hazardous waste pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.).

(c) On or before November 8, 1989, the department shall take final action on each application for a hazardous waste facilities permit to operate an incinerator facility which was submitted before November 8, 1984, by either issuing a final permit pursuant to the application or a final denial of the application.

(d) On or before November 8, 1992, the department shall take final permit action on each application for a hazardous waste facilities permit to operate any facility not otherwise subject to subdivision (a) or (c) which was submitted before November 8, 1984. The department shall issue a final hazardous waste facilities permit pursuant to the application or issue a final denial of the application.

(e) Interim status granted pursuant to Section 25200.5 to any facility subject to subdivision (c) shall terminate on November 8, 1989, unless the owner or operator of the facility applied for a final determination regarding the issuance of a hazardous waste facilities permit by November 8, 1986.

(f) Interim status granted pursuant to Section 25200.5 to any facility subject to subdivision (d) shall terminate on November 8, 1992, unless the owner or operator of the facility applied for a final determination regarding the issuance of a hazardous waste facilities permit by November 8, 1988.

(g) Subdivisions (c), (d), (e) and (f) do not apply to applications for hazardous waste facilities permits to treat, store, or dispose of non-RCRA hazardous wastes.

SEC. 17. Section 25200.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25200.8. Any applicant for a final hazardous waste facilities permit pursuant to Section 25200 who receives a notice of deficiency from the department concerning the permit application shall submit the information specified in the notice of deficiency by the date specified in the notice or by a later alternative date approved by the department. The department may initiate an enforcement action pursuant to Section 25187 or 25189.3 against any hazardous waste facilities permit applicant who does not provide the information specified in the notice of deficiency by the date specified in the notice of deficiency or a later alternative date approved by the department. If an applicant does not respond to three or more of these notices of deficiency regarding the same or different deficiencies or responds with substantially incomplete or substantially unsatisfactory information on three or more occasions, the department shall, pursuant to Sections 25186 and 25186.1, initiate proceedings to deny the permit application. This section does not limit the department's authority to take action concerning the permit application before sending three notices of deficiency.

SEC. 18. Section 25200.10 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25200.10. The department shall require, and any permit issued by the department shall require, corrective action for all releases of hazardous waste or constituents at a facility engaged in hazardous waste management, regardless of the time at which waste was released at the facility. Any corrective action required pursuant to this section shall require that corrective action be taken beyond the facility boundary where necessary to protect human health or the environment. When corrective action cannot be completed prior to issuance of the permit, the permit shall contain schedules of compliance for corrective action and assurances of financial responsibility for completing the corrective action.

For purposes of this section, "facility" means the entire site that is under the control of the owner or operator seeking a hazardous waste facilities permit.

SEC. 19. Section 25201 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25201. (a) No operator of a storage facility, treatment facility, waste transfer station, resource recovery facility, or waste disposal site shall accept, treat, store, or dispose of a hazardous waste at the facility, station, area, or site, unless the operator holds a hazardous waste facilities permit or other grant of authorization from the department to use and operate the facility, station, area, or site.

(b) Except as necessary to comply with Section 25159.18, any person planning to construct a new hazardous waste facility or a new hazardous waste management unit shall obtain a hazardous waste facilities permit or a permit amendment from the department prior to commencing construction.

SEC. 20. Section 25203 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25203. It is unlawful for any person to dispose of a hazardous waste except at a disposal site or facility of an owner or operator who holds a valid hazardous waste facilities permit or other grant of authorization from the department to use and operate the site or facility.

SEC. 21. Section 25209.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25209.1. For purposes of this article, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Discharge" means to place or dispose hazardous wastes in a land treatment unit.

(b) "Facility" shall have the meaning specified in Section 25117.1.

(c) "Hazardous constituent" has the meaning specified in regulations adopted by the department.

(d) "Hazardous waste" means a hazardous waste, as defined in Section 25117 and "non-RCRA hazardous waste" has the same meaning as defined in Section 25117.9.

(e) "Land treatment unit" means a facility or part of a facility at which hazardous waste is applied onto or incorporated into the soil surface so that hazardous constituents are degraded, transformed, or immobilized within the treatment zone. A land treatment unit is a disposal unit if the waste will remain after closure.

(f) "Pollution" has the same meaning as specified in Section 13050 of the Water Code.

(g) "Potential source of drinking water" shall have the meaning specified in subdivision (s) of Section 25208.2.

(h) "Treatment zone" means the portion of a land treatment unit including the soil surface, within which hazardous constituents are degraded, transformed, or immobilized. A treatment zone may not extend more than five feet from the initial soil surface and the base of the treatment zone shall be a minimum of five feet above the highest anticipated elevation of the water table.

(i) "Vadose zone" means the unsaturated zone between the land surface and the water table.

(j) "Waste management unit" has the same meaning as "hazardous waste management unit," as defined in Section 25117.3.

SEC. 22. Section 25209.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25209.2. (a) Except as provided in Section 25209.5, unless granted a variance pursuant to subdivision (b), or exempted pursuant to Section 25209.6, no person shall discharge hazardous waste into a new land treatment unit at a new or existing facility, any land treatment unit which replaces an existing land treatment unit, or any laterally expanded portion of an existing land treatment unit that has not been equipped with liners, a leachate collection and removal system, a groundwater monitoring system, and a vadose zone monitoring system which satisfy the requirements of Section 25209.5.

(b) The department may grant a variance from the requirements of subdivision (a) and Section 25209.3, concerning equipping the land treatment unit with liners and a leachate collection and removal system, if the owner or operator demonstrates to the department and the department finds all of the following:

(1) If the land treatment unit is an existing land treatment unit, no hazardous constituents have migrated from the treatment zone of the land treatment unit into the vadose zone or into the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute the vadose zone or the waters of the state. In making this demonstration the owner or operator shall take a sufficient number of core samples in, beneath, and surrounding the treatment zone of the land treatment unit to characterize the chemical constituents in the treatment zone, in the immediate area of the vadose zone surrounding the treatment zone, and in the area of the vadose zone beneath the treatment zone and shall submit groundwater monitoring data sufficient in scope to demonstrate that there has been no migration of hazardous constituents into the vadose zone or into the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute the vadose zone or the waters of the state. The owner or operator, as an alternative to taking these core samples, may use the data obtained from any land treatment demonstration required by the department before issuing a hazardous waste facilities permit pursuant to Section 25200, if the data were obtained not more than two years prior to the application for the variance and is sufficient in scope to demonstrate that there has been no migration of hazardous constituents into the vadose zone or into the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute the vadose zone or the waters of the state.

(2) Notwithstanding the date that the land treatment unit commences operations, the design and operating practices will prevent the migration of hazardous constituents from the treatment zone of the land treatment unit into the vadose zone or into the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute the vadose zone or the waters of this state.

(3) Notwithstanding the date that the land treatment unit commences operations, the design and operating practices provide for rapid detection and removal or remediation of any hazardous constituents that migrate from the treatment zone of the land treatment unit into the vadose zone or into the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute the vadose zone or the waters of the state.

(c) (1) The department may renew a variance only in those cases where an owner or operator can demonstrate, and the department finds, both of the following:

(A) No hazardous constituents have migrated from the treatment zone of the land treatment unit into the vadose zone or into the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute the vadose zone or the waters of the state.

(B) Continuing the operation of the land treatment unit does not pose a significant potential of hazardous constituents migrating from the land treatment unit into the vadose zone or into the waters of the state in concentrations which pollute or threaten to pollute the vadose zone or the waters of the state.

(2) In making the demonstration for the renewal of a variance pursuant to this subdivision, the owner or operator may use field tests, laboratory analyses, or, operating data.

(d) A variance, or a renewal of a variance, may be issued for a period not to exceed three years.

(e) Except for the exemption from vadose zone monitoring requirements specified in Section 25209.5, neither the requirements of this article nor the variance provisions of subdivision (b) shall relieve the owner or operator from responsibility to comply with all other existing laws and regulations pertinent to land treatment units.

SEC. 23. Section 25209.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25209.3. Except as provided in Section 25209.5, after January 1, 1990, unless granted a variance pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25209.2, or exempted pursuant to Section 25209.6, no person shall discharge hazardous waste into a land treatment unit which has not been equipped with liners, a leachate collection and removal system, a groundwater monitoring system, and a vadose zone monitoring system which satisfy the requirements of Section 25209.5.

SEC. 24. Section 25209.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25209.4. (a) Except as provided in Section 25209.6, no person shall place or dispose of hazardous waste in a land treatment unit if any of the following conditions exist:

(1) Hazardous constituents have migrated from the land treatment unit into the vadose zone beneath or surrounding the treatment zone or into the waters beneath or surrounding the treatment zone.

(2) There is evidence that a hazardous constituent in the waste discharged to the land treatment unit has not been or will not be completely degraded, transformed, or immobilized in the treatment zone.

(3) There is a significant potential for hazardous constituents to migrate from the land treatment unit into a potential source of drinking water.

(b) The owner or operator of a land treatment unit shall do all of the following:

(1) Periodically, at the request of the department, and at least annually, submit information the department may require to assure that the conditions set forth in paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) are not present. The information to be submitted to the department shall include, but is not limited to, a sufficient number of soil core samples in, beneath, and surrounding the treatment zone of the land treatment unit to detect any hazardous constituents which may have migrated from the treatment zone. The department may adopt regulations requiring additional or more frequent testing.

(2) Within 72 hours of detecting and confirming the existence of either of the conditions identified in paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a), or the presence of factors that render the owner or operator unable to continue satisfying the variance requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 25209.2, report to the department describing the full extent of the owner's or operator's findings.

(c) Upon receiving notice pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), or upon the independent confirmation by the department, the department shall order the owner or operator to cease operating the land treatment unit. The owner or operator shall not resume operating the land treatment unit and shall close the land treatment unit unless one of the following actions is taken:

(1) The owner or operator completes appropriate removal or remedial actions to the satisfaction of the department and the owner or operator submits to the department, and the department approves, an application for a permit or variance modification to modify the operating practices at the facility to maximize the success of degradation, immobilization, or transformation processes in the treatment zone, if the owner or operator has not previously submitted an application for a permit or variance modification pursuant to this paragraph.

(2) The owner or operator completes appropriate removal or remedial actions and equips the land treatment unit with liners, leachate collection and removal systems, a groundwater monitoring system, and a vadose zone monitoring system that satisfy the requirements of Section 25209.5, if the land treatment unit has not already been equipped with these systems.

(d) All actions taken by an owner or operator pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (c) shall be completed within a time period specified by the department, which shall not exceed 18 months after the department receives notice pursuant to subdivision (c). If the actions are not completed within this time period, the land treatment unit shall be closed, unless granted an extension by the department due to exceptional circumstances beyond the control of the owner and operator.

SEC. 25. Section 25209.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25209.5. The liner, leachate collection and removal, groundwater monitoring, and vadose zone monitoring systems required by Sections 25209.2, 25209.3, and 25209.4 shall be designed, constructed, and operated according to regulations adopted by the department and State Water Resources Control Board regulations and standards for liner, leachate collection and removal, groundwater monitoring, and vadose zone monitoring systems for class I hazardous waste landfills, to the extent those regulations and standards are not less stringent than the regulations and standards of the department. Owners or operators of land treatment units which have treated and will treat solely non-RCRA hazardous waste and which are equipped with liners, leachate collection and removal systems, and a groundwater monitoring system that satisfy the requirements of this section shall not be required to perform vadose zone monitoring.

SEC. 26. Section 25209.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25209.6. Land treatment of soil contaminated only with non-RCRA hazardous waste which has been excavated as part of a removal or remedial action at any hazardous substance release site is exempt from the requirements of Sections 25209.2, 25209.3, and 25209.4, if all of the following apply:

(a) The department determines that the land treatment does not pose a threat to public health or safety or the environment.

(b) The land treatment is conducted pursuant to a plan approved by the department or a cleanup and abatement order issued by a regional water quality control board.

(c) The land treatment is not conducted at an offsite commercial hazardous waste facility.

(d) The land treatment is used only for purposes of removal or remedial action and, upon completion of the land treatment portion of the removal or remedial action, the land treatment unit is closed.

SEC. 27. Section 25503.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25503.7. (a) When any railroad car containing any hazardous material or hazardous substance remains within the same railroad facility or business facility for more than 30 days, or a business knows or has reason to know that any railroad car containing any hazardous material or hazardous substance will remain at the same railroad facility or business facility for more than 30 days, the hazardous material or hazardous substance is deemed stored at that location for purposes of this chapter and subject to the requirements of this chapter.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 25510, a business handling hazardous materials or hazardous substances which are stored in a manner subject to subdivision (a) shall immediately notify the administering agency whenever a hazardous material or hazardous substance is stored in a railroad car.

SEC. 28. Section 3 of this act shall not become operative if Assembly Bill 4636 is enacted and becomes effective on or before January 1, 1989, and adds Section 25110.02 to the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 29. Section 7 of this act shall not become operative if Assembly Bill No. 4636 is enacted and becomes effective on or before January 1, 1989, and adds Section 25117.9 to the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 30. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

CHAPTER 1634

An act to add Chapter 13.6 (commencing with Section 26290) to Part 2 of Division 2 of Title 3 of, and to add Section 53721.5 to, the Government Code, and to add Section 7252.12 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to San Joaquin County.

[Became law without Governor's signature. Filed with Secretary of State October 1, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 13.6 (commencing with Section 26290) is added to Part 2 of Division 2 of Title 3 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 13.6. SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY REGIONAL JUSTICE FACILITY FINANCING ACT

Article 1. General Provisions, Findings, and Definitions

26290. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the San Joaquin County Regional Justice Facility Financing Act.

26290.1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the existing state of overcrowding in the jails, sheriff, and court facilities in San Joaquin County is so great as to significantly impede the administration of justice and create a situation wherein persons who are a danger to society are required to be released into that society for lack of adequate facilities to house them. The Legislature further finds and declares that it is in the public interest to create the San Joaquin County Regional Justice Facility Financing Agency so that regional justice facility and prevention program needs may be addressed in an expeditious and appropriate fashion. The Legislature further finds and declares that it is in the public interest to allow the voters to approve a general tax for the general governmental purposes of the San Joaquin County Regional Justice Facility Financing Agency.

26290.2. "Bonds" means indebtedness and securities of any kind or class, including bonds, notes, bond anticipation notes, and commercial paper.

26290.3. "Agency" means the San Joaquin County Regional Justice Facility Financing Agency.

26290.4. "County" means the County of San Joaquin.

26290.5. "Board of supervisors" means the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Joaquin.

26290.6. "Master plan" means the plan for construction and acquisition of adult detention facilities, sheriff facilities, functionally related court facilities, and structures necessary or convenient thereto. The plan shall be developed and approved, and may be amended from time to time, by the board of supervisors. The master plan may include, but is not limited to, the following:

(a) The number of adult detention facilities, sheriff facilities, functionally related court facilities, to be constructed, furnished, or acquired.

(b) The geographic location at which the facilities referenced in subdivision (a) shall be sited.

(c) The time schedule according to which the facilities referenced in subdivision (a) shall be constructed, furnished, or acquired.

(d) Construction standards which shall apply to facilities constructed, furnished, or acquired pursuant to this chapter.

(e) Design standards which shall apply to facilities constructed, furnished, or acquired pursuant to this chapter.

(f) Those other requirements as the board of supervisors, in carrying out its responsibility for the provision of regional detention services, deems necessary and appropriate.

26290.7. "Prevention program" means a program, administered by the county, designed to decrease the number of inmates incarcerated in county adult detention facilities by providing alternatives to incarceration, or by providing counseling, diversion, or intervention programs, or by providing both. Alternatives to incarceration, include, but are not limited to, alternative work programs, work furlough programs, half-way houses, and own recognizance services. Counseling, diversion, or intervention programs, include, but are not limited to, drug and alcohol counseling, parole counseling, and pretrial screening.

26290.8. "Functionally related court facility" means a court facility that is used solely for criminal prosecutions and handling inmates.

Article 2. Creation of the Agency, Powers and Duties, Membership

26291. There is hereby created the San Joaquin County Regional Justice Facility Financing Agency in the county.

26291.1. (a) The board of directors of the agency shall be comprised of five members, as follows:

(1) Two members of the board of supervisors who shall be appointed by, and serve at the pleasure of, the board of supervisors.

(2) Two public members who shall be appointed by, and serve at the pleasure of, the board of supervisors.

(3) The Sheriff of San Joaquin County.

(b) The senior member of the two appointed members of the board of supervisors shall serve as the chairperson of the board of directors of the agency through December 31, 1990. Thereafter, the chairperson of the board of directors of the agency shall be elected by vote of a majority of the members of the board of directors of the agency and shall serve for a period of one calendar year.

(c) The board of directors shall adopt those rules and procedures as it deems necessary to conduct its business.

26291.2. The agency may adopt a seal and alter it at its pleasure.

26291.3. The agency may sue and be sued, except as otherwise provided by law, in all actions and proceedings, in all courts and tribunals of competent jurisdiction.

All claims for money or damages against the agency are governed by Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1, except as provided therein, or by other statutes or regulations expressly applicable thereto.

26291.4. The agency may compensate the members of its board of directors for all reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in the course of performing their duties.

26291.5. All reasonably necessary staff shall be provided by the county or hired by the agency. The county shall be reimbursed by the agency for the costs of any staff services provided to the agency by the county in accordance with an agreement entered into between the agency and county.

26291.6. The agency may enter into contracts. The agency may employ attorneys and consultants as necessary or convenient to carrying out its purposes and powers.

26291.7. (a) The agency shall have the power to do all of the following:

(1) Administer this chapter.

(2) Finance the construction, acquisition, and furnishing of adult detention facilities, sheriff facilities, functionally related court facilities, and structures necessary or convenient thereto, in compliance with a master plan.

(3) Exercise the power of eminent domain for acquisition, and finance the acquisition of, the lands, easements, and rights-of-way necessary for the general governmental purposes of the agency set forth in this section.

(4) Hold title as necessary to land or facilities and convey title to such land or facilities to the county.

(5) Retire all or a portion of any capital debt previously incurred for any adult detention facilities, sheriff facilities, or functionally related court facilities which exists on the date the election is held for voter approval of the retail transactions and use tax ordinance authorized by this chapter.

(6) Finance all or part of the cost of any prevention program.

(7) Reimburse costs incurred by the county in the operation of any facility constructed or acquired pursuant to this chapter or costs incurred by prevention programs provided the board of supervisors certifies to the agency that progress toward completion of adult detention facilities, sheriff facilities, and functionally related court facilities has progressed substantially in accordance with the master plan.

(8) Construct, furnish, and acquire adult detention facilities, sheriff facilities, functionally related court facilities, and structures necessary or convenient thereto, in accordance with the master plan.

26291.8. The agency may do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

26291.9. The initial meeting of the agency shall be held in the county when called by the board of supervisors. At that meeting, or at any subsequent meeting of the agency called by the board of supervisors for the purposes of approving the transactions and use tax ordinance and ballot proposition, the agency may approve a transactions and use tax ordinance and may call an election in accordance with Article 3 (commencing with Section 26292) which election, notwithstanding any other provision of law, may be held within 60 days of the calling of the election. The board of supervisors or the agency may file written arguments, including rebuttal arguments, in favor of the ballot proposition. No arguments shall exceed 500 words in length.

Article 3. Transactions and Use Tax

26292. The Legislature, by the enactment of this article, intends the additional funds provided by this article to supplement existing local revenues being used for the development of regional justice facilities. Government agencies are encouraged to maintain their existing commitment of local funds for regional justice facility purposes.

26292.1. A retail transactions and use tax ordinance applicable in the incorporated and unincorporated territory of the county may be adopted by the agency in accordance with Section 26292.5 and Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, if the ordinance is adopted by a two-thirds vote of the board of directors of the agency and if a majority of the electors voting on the measure vote to approve its imposition at a special election called for that purpose by the agency. The tax ordinance shall take effect at the close of the polls on the day of the election at which the proposition is adopted. The initial collection of the transactions and use tax shall take place in accordance with Section 26292.4.

26292.2. The ordinance shall state the tax rate and may state a term during which the tax will be imposed. The purposes for which the tax may be imposed are the general governmental purposes of the agency as set forth in Section 26291.7.

26292.3. (a) The county shall conduct an election called by the agency. The election shall be held within the incorporated and unincorporated areas of the county.

(b) The election shall be called and conducted in the same manner as provided by law for the conduct of elections by a county.

(c) The cost incurred by the county in conducting the election shall be reimbursed by the agency from proceeds of the transactions and use tax.

26292.4. (a) Any transactions and use tax ordinance adopted pursuant to this article shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 120 days after adoption of the ordinance.

(b) Prior to the operative date of the ordinance, the agency shall contract with the State Board of Equalization to perform all functions incident to the administration and operation of the ordinance.

26292.5. The agency, subject to the approval of the voters, may impose a tax rate of one-half of 1 percent under this chapter and Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. Neither this chapter nor the ordinance shall affect any tax otherwise authorized.

26292.6. The combined rate of tax imposed in San Joaquin County by any entity pursuant to Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 7200) or Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, this chapter, and any other provision of law authorizing the imposition of local sales or transactions and use taxes shall not exceed 2.25 percent. Neither this chapter nor any ordinance or resolution approved pursuant to this chapter shall affect any tax otherwise authorized.

26292.7. (a) The agency, as part of the ballot proposition to approve the imposition of a retail transactions and use tax, may seek authorization to issue bonds payable from the proceeds of the tax and establish the appropriation limit of the agency for purposes of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

(b) The maximum bonded indebtedness which may be outstanding at any one time shall be an amount equal to the sum of the principal of, and interest on, the bonds, but not to exceed the estimated proceeds of the transactions and use tax for a period of not more than the number of years for which the transactions and use tax authorized by this article is to be imposed.

26292.8. (a) The bonds authorized by the voters concurrently with the approval of the retail transactions and use tax may be issued by the agency at any time, and from time to time, payable from the proceeds of the tax. The bonds shall be referred to as "limited tax bonds." The bonds may be secured by a pledge of revenues from the proceeds of the tax.

(b) The pledge of the transactions and use tax revenues for the limited tax bonds authorized under this article shall have priority over the use of any of the revenues for other purposes except to the extent that the priority is expressly restricted in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(c) The proceeds of the bonds may be used for the following purposes:

(1) To finance the activities set forth in paragraphs (2), (3), (5), and (8) of subdivision (a) of Section 26291.7.

(2) To pay the costs incurred for the issuance of the bonds.

(3) To fund a reserve fund for the bonds.

26292.9. The agency may provide for the bonds to bear a variable or fixed interest rate, for the manner and intervals in which the rate shall vary, and for the dates on which the interest shall be payable.

26293. Limited tax bonds shall be issued pursuant to a resolution adopted at any time, and from time to time, by vote of the board of directors of the agency.

26293.1. Any bonds issued pursuant to this article are a legal investment for all trust funds; for the funds of insurance companies, commerical savings banks, and trust companies; and for state school funds. Whenever any money or funds may, by any law now or hereafter enacted, be invested in bonds of cities, counties, school districts, or other districts within the state, those funds may be invested in the bonds issued pursuant to this article, and whenever bonds of cities, counties, school districts, or other districts within this state may, by any law now or hereafter enacted, be used as security for the performance of any act or the deposit of any public money, the bonds issued pursuant to this article may be so used. The provisions of this article are in addition to all other laws relating to legal investments and shall be controlling as the latest expression of the Legislature with respect thereto.

26293.2. Any action or proceeding wherein the validity of the adoption of the retail transactions and use tax ordinance provided for in this article or the issuance of any bonds thereunder or any of the proceedings in relation thereto is contested, questioned, or denied, shall be commenced pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 860) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Otherwise, the bonds and all proceedings in relation thereto, including the adoption and approval of the ordinance, shall be held to be valid and in every respect legal and incontestable.

26293.3. The agency has no power to impose any tax other than the transactions and use tax imposed upon approval of the voters in accordance with this chapter.

26293.4. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

SEC. 2. Section 53721.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53721.5. A transactions and use tax imposed by an ordinance adopted pursuant to Chapter 13.6 (commencing with Section 26290) of Part 2 of Division 2 of Title 3 shall be deemed to be a general tax for the purposes of this article, unless the transactions and use tax ordinance, or an amendment thereto, either declares the tax to be a special tax or requires the proceeds of the tax to be placed in a fund other than the general fund of the San Joaquin County Regional Justice Facilities Financing Agency, or a similar fund, and irrevocably restricts the use of the proceeds to specific purposes of more limited scope and type than the general governmental purposes of the San Joaquin County Regional Justice Facilities Financing Agency set forth in Section 26291.7. The receipt or retention of the proceeds of the transactions and use tax, imposed by an ordinance adopted pursuant to Chapter 13.6 (commencing with Section 26290) of Part 2 of Division 2 of Title 3 by a bond trustee for bonds secured by the proceeds of the tax shall not cause a general tax to become a special tax.

SEC. 3. Section 7252.12 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

7252.12. "District," as used in this part, also means the San Joaquin County Regional Justice Facility Financing Agency, if authorized to impose transactions and use taxes pursuant to this part.

SEC. 4. No appropriation is made by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because (1) this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act, and (2) self-financing authority is provided to cover any costs that may be incurred in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by this act.

CHAPTER 1635

An act to amend Section 436.8 of the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 14085.5 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to health.

[Became law without Governor's signature. Filed with Secretary of State October 1, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 436.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

436.8. A loan shall be eligible for insurance under this chapter if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) When the borrower is a nonprofit corporation, such loan shall be secured by a mortgage, first lien, trust indenture, or such other security agreement as the office may require subject only to such conditions, covenants and restrictions, easements, taxes, and assessments of record approved by the office. When the borrower is a political subdivision, such loan may be evidenced by a duly authorized bond issue. A loan to a local hospital district or county may meet the requirement of this subdivision by either method.

(b) The borrower obtains an American Land Title Association title insurance policy with the office designated as beneficiary, with liability equal to the amount of the loan insured under this chapter, and with such additional endorsements as the office may reasonably require.

(c) The proceeds of the loan shall be used exclusively for the construction, improvement, or expansion of the health facility, as approved by the office under Section 436.4. However, loans insured pursuant to this chapter may include loans to refinance another prior loan, whether or not state insured and without regard to the date of the prior loan, if the office determines that the prior loan would have been eligible for insurance under this chapter at the time it was made. The office may not insure a loan for a health facility which is not needed as determined by the state plan developed under the authorization of Section 436.4.

(d) The loan shall have a maturity date not exceeding 30 years from the date of the beginning of amortization of the loan, except as authorized by subdivision (e), or 75 percent of the office's estimate of the economic life of the health facility, whichever is the lesser.

(e) The loan shall contain complete amortization provisions requiring periodic payments by the borrower not in excess of its reasonable ability to pay as determined by the office. The office shall permit a reasonable period of time during which the first payment to amortization may be waived on agreement by the lender and borrower. The office may, however, waive the amortization requirements of this subdivision and of subdivision (g) of this section when a term loan would be in the borrower's best interest.

(f) The loan shall bear interest on the amount of the principal obligation outstanding at any time at a rate, as negotiated by the borrower and lender, as the office finds necessary to meet the loan money market. As used in this chapter, "interest" does not include premium charges for insurance and service charges if any. Where a loan is evidenced by a bond issue of a political subdivision, the interest thereon may be at any rate which such bonds may legally bear.

(g) The loan shall provide for the application of the borrower's periodic payments to amortization of the principal of the loan.

(h) The loan shall contain such terms and provisions with respect to insurance, repairs, alterations, payment of taxes and assessments, foreclosure proceedings, anticipation of maturity, additional and secondary liens, and other matters as the office may in its discretion prescribe.

(i) The loan shall have a principal obligation not in excess of an amount equal to 90 percent of the total construction cost. Where the borrower is a political subdivision, the office may fully insure loans equal to the total construction cost.

(j) The borrower shall offer reasonable assurance that the services of the health facility will be made available to all persons residing or employed in the area served by the facility.

(k) A certificate of need or certificate of exemption has been issued for the project to be financed pursuant to Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 437) of this division, unless the project is not subject to such requirement.

(l) In the case of acquisitions, a project loan shall be guaranteed only for transactions not in excess of the fair market value of the acquisition.

Fair market value shall be determined, for purposes of this subdivision, pursuant to the following procedure, which shall be utilized during the state review of a loan guarantee application:

(1) Completion of a property appraisal by an appraisal firm qualified to make appraisals, as determined by the office, before closing a loan on the project.

(2) Evaluation of the appraisal in conjunction with the book value of the acquisition by the office. When acquisitions involve additional construction, the office shall evaluate the proposed construction to determine that the costs are reasonable for the type of construction proposed. In those cases where this procedure reveals that the cost of acquisition exceeds the current value of a facility, including improvements, then the acquisition cost shall be deemed in excess of fair market value.

In determining financial feasibility of projects of counties pursuant to this section, the office shall take into consideration any assistance for the project to be provided under Sections 14085.5 and 16715 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or from other sources. It is the intent of the Legislature that the office endeavor to assist counties in whatever ways are possible to arrange loans which will meet the requirements for insurance prescribed by this section.

SEC. 2. Section 14085.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14085.5. (a) Each disproportionate share hospital contracting to provide services under this article or contracting with a county organized health system, and which has or would have met the state criteria developed pursuant to the federal Medicaid requirements regarding disproportionate hospitals for the three most recent years, may, in addition to the rate of payment provided for in the contract entered into under this article, receive supplemental reimbursement to the extent provided for in this section.

(b) A hospital qualifying pursuant to subdivision (a) shall submit documentation regarding debt service on revenue bonds used for financing the construction, renovation, or replacement of hospital facilities, including buildings and fixed equipment. Qualified hospitals may submit debt service instruments to the department and to the commission regarding debt issued for new capital projects. Eligible projects shall include those new capital projects funded by new debt for which final plans have been submitted to the Office of the State Architect and the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development after July 1, 1989, and prior to June 30, 1994. Capital projects receiving partial financing under this section shall finance the upgrading or construction of buildings and equipment to a level required by currently accepted medical practice standards, including projects designed to correct Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals and Health Systems fire and life safety, seismic, or other related regulatory standards.

Projects may also expand service capacity as needed to maintain current or reasonably foreseeable necessary bed capacity to meet the needs of Medi-Cal beneficiaries after giving consideration to bed capacity needed for other patients, including unsponsored patients.

Debt service shall only be paid for projects, or for that portion of projects, that are available and accessible to patients treated under this article or by successor programs. Each project shall cost at least five million dollars ($5,000,000) or, if less than five million dollars ($5,000,000), the project shall be necessary for retention of federal and state licensing and certification and for meeting fire and life safety, seismic, or other related regulatory standards.

Supplemental reimbursement payments shall commence no later than 30 days after receipt of the certificate of occupancy by the hospital.

The state shall pledge to, and agree with, the holders of any revenue bonds issued to finance projects qualifying under this section that until debt service on the revenue bonds is fully paid or until the supplemental rate is no longer required as provided in this section, the state will not limit or alter the rights vested in the hospital to receive supplemental reimbursement pursuant to this section. The state shall pledge, and the hospital shall, as a condition of encumbering supplemental reimbursement payments received pursuant to this section, pledge that supplemental reimbursement payments shall be used for the payment of debt service on the revenue bonds. The hospital shall include its pledge and the agreement with the state in any agreement with the holders of the revenue bonds.

(c) The hospital's supplemental reimbursement for a project qualifying pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be calculated as follows:

(1) For any fiscal year for which the hospital is eligible to receive reimbursement, the hospital shall report to the department the amount of debt service on the revenue bonds issued to finance the project.

(2) The department shall use the Medicaid inpatient utilization rate as determined pursuant to Section 4112 of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987 to determine the ratio of the hospitals total paid Medi-Cal patient days to total patient days.

(3) The supplemental Medi-Cal reimbursement to the hospital for each fiscal year shall equal the amount determined annually in paragraph (1) multiplied by the percentage figure determined in paragraph (2). In no instance shall the percentage figure determined pursuant to the ratio derived under paragraph (2) be decreased by more than 10 percent of the initial ratio determined pursuant to paragraph (2) prior to the retirement of the debt. In no instance shall the total amount of reimbursement received under this section combined with that received from all other sources dedicated exclusively to debt service exceed 100 percent of the debt service over the life of the loan. A hospital qualifying for and receiving supplemental Medi-Cal reimbursement shall continue to receive the reimbursement until the qualifying loan is paid off, or the hospital is terminated as a Medi-Cal selective contractor and the hospital does not contract with a county organized health system. It is the intent of the Legislature that the state and the qualifying hospital shall negotiate in good faith for rates sufficient to ensure continued hospital participation in the program and to ensure adequate access to services for Medi-Cal beneficiaries. The state shall not terminate a contract with a qualified provider for the purpose of terminating the capital supplement. If negotiations fail to permit continuation of a contract of a hospital qualifying for the supplemental Medi-Cal reimbursement, the supplemental Medi-Cal reimbursement shall cease as of the date of discontinuance of the selective provider contract.

(4) In order to ensure provision of qualified supplemental payments to disproportionate share hospitals contracting with county organized health systems, the department shall make the qualified supplemental payments directly to these hospitals.

(5) Funding for these supplemental payments shall be separately appropriated as a line item in the Budget Act for each fiscal year.

(6) The commission shall provide the Department of Finance, the Legislative Analyst, and the Joint Legislative Budget Committee with its estimate of the budget year costs of the supplemental reimbursement program, on January 10 and May 15 of each year.

(d) All reimbursement received by a hospital pursuant to this section shall be placed in a special account, the funds in which shall be used exclusively for the payment of debt service on the revenue bonds issued to finance the project.

(e) If contracting under this section is superceded by other arrangements for payment of inpatient hospital services, the successor program shall include separate reimbursement, as determined pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c).

(f) For purposes of this section, "revenue bonds" are defined as that term is defined in subdivision (c) of Section 15459 of the Government Code.

(g) A hospital receiving supplemental reimbursement pursuant to this section shall be liable for any reduced federal financial participation resulting from the implementation of this section.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature that funds be appropriated in the Budget Act for additional costs the California Medical Assistance Commission, the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, and the State Department of Health Services will incur for the administration of this act. So far as possible, these agencies shall implement this bill within existing administrative procedures.

SEC. 4. The Legislature finds and declares that all supplemental reimbursements made pursuant to this act are subventions to local governmental entities and are not appropriation subject to limitation of the state under the provisions of Article XIII B of the State Constitution.

CHAPTER 1636

An act to add Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 33320) to Chapter 3 of Part 20 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Became law without Governor's signature. Filed with Secretary of State October 1, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds that the development and school-level adoption of programs and practices that have been systematically evaluated and that meet critical education needs will provide long-term benefits to the pupils of this state. This finding is based on the following:

(1) The study entitled "The Recommendations to the California Business Roundtable for Restructuring California Education" recommends that staff development be redirected to advance implementation of effective practices. The study further recommends long-term research for the development and demonstration of computer-based curricula.

(2) A study commissioned by the Governor and the Legislature has concluded that the current array of staff development programs has grown by accretion, without a clear vision, remains largely unevaluated, and is unlikely to yield substantial improvement. This study also found that selected staff development activities, which have been validated previously, have sound prospects for improving pupil performance and the quality of school programs.

(3) A significant number of educational programs, pilot projects, and practices have been funded for extended periods of time without evaluation of the impact on pupil performance and program quality.

(4) Teachers and administrators do not have ready access to the information and staff development on effective programs needed to adopt or adapt effective programs.

(5) There is a lack of programs and practices that have documented effectiveness and are designed to meet the current and emerging educational needs of California's rapidly changing pupil population.

(6) It is documented that schools in California have expended over 300 million dollars ($300,000,000) in one year to develop practices and programs that have already been developed, and in many cases validated, in other locations.

(7) The current structure makes it necessary for the State Department of Education to duplicate, among departmental offices and units, procedures and strategies for the development, dissemination, and evaluation of state-recommended programs and practices.

(8) A process and an incentive are needed for educators to identify, package, and disseminate effective practices initiated by existing programs, to include, but not be limited to, mentor teacher projects and education technology local assistance grants.

(b) The Legislature intends to foster, by this act, a coordinated cost-effective process that can redirect existing funds to facilitate the development, evaluation, and adoption of programs and practices that meet the current educational needs of elementary and secondary school pupils. This act provides the necessary provisions for the State Department of Education, in contact with school districts, institutions of higher education, and nonprofit public educational agencies, to do the following:

(1) Develop, evaluate, disseminate, and encourage the local adoption of, effective programs and practices with flexibility to meet the diversity of pupil needs, learning styles, talents, levels of development, and cultural backgrounds.

(2) Implement a coordinated and uniform process for program development, evaluation, and dissemination.

(3) Ensure that all schools have equal and ready access to information and assistance to adopt or adapt needed programs and practices.

(4) Establish a process for careful evaluation and pilot testing of programs before school districts are advised to adopt them.

(5) Provide a vehicle for applied research and development needed to make important educational policy decisions.

SEC. 1.5. Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 33320) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 20 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 1.5. Effective Educational Programs and Practices

33320. (a) The purpose of this article is to identify, develop, validate, and disseminate effective educational programs and practices operated by state and local educational entities, in order to improve the educational services provided through public elementary and secondary schools to persons between 3 and 21 years of age.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that any state funding under this article not supplant any educational program funding that would otherwise be allocated to any school district, county office of education, or public postsecondary education institution.

33321. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall establish procedures within the State Department of Education to accomplish all of the following:

(a) Annually identify the critical needs for which effective educational programs and practices are to be identified, developed, and disseminated to public schools.

(b) Coordinate the identification and development of effective programs and practices with appropriate offices in the State Department of Education, schools, school districts, county offices of education, institutions of higher education, the Legislature, business and industry, and the community.

(c) Ensure that all programs developed under this article are objectively evaluated for impact on pupil learning, cost effectiveness, and the overall instructional program.

(d) Develop and implement procedures to ensure that educators throughout the state are made aware of the effective programs and practices identified under this article.

(e) Periodically prepare and report information about project results to the Legislative Analyst.

(f) Identify and coordinate appropriate federal and private funding to support the development and dissemination of projects and programs identified under this article.

(g) Establish, where appropriate, project partnerships with other public and private agencies, including business and industry, for the purposes of this article.

33321.5. In performing the responsibilities set forth in Section 33321, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall consult with high school and elementary school teachers, high school and junior high school principals, school district administrators, members of school district governing boards, county superintendents of schools and other county office of education administrators, and representatives of public postsecondary educational institutions, the California State Facilitator Project of the National Diffusion Network, and business and industry.

33322. The State Board of Education may authorize the funding of any proposal of a school district, county office of education, public postsecondary educational institution, or other public educational agency for the development of an educational program, where the board determines that the proposal does all of the following:

(a) Provides an effective, cost-effective solution to a current or anticipated statewide educational need in public elementary or secondary schools.

(b) Demonstrates that teachers, and experts in the subject matter of the proposal, collaborated in the development of the proposal.

(c) Contains a professional development component that maximizes teacher commitment and integration of the program into the existing instructional program.

(d) Contains a method of evaluating resulting changes in teaching, pupil performance, and the instructional program, as appropriate.

(e) Provides for development and evaluation of the proposal in collaboration with postsecondary educational institutions and other educational agency resources.

33323. The State Board of Education, upon review of the recommendation of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, shall validate, as an exemplary educational project, each project developed by the State Department of Education, a school district, county office of education, or public postsecondary educational institution that it determines to meet the following criteria, whether or not the project was developed pursuant to state funding provided under Section 33322:

(a) The project accomplishes the objectives set forth in Section 33322.

(b) The project contains a plan for the statewide dissemination of the program, to be coordinated with state, regional, and school district staff and program service providers, including, but not limited to, postsecondary educational institutions.

(c) Without any increase in state costs, the project may be adopted by other school districts or county offices of education, as appropriate, with a reasonable probability of accomplishing the objectives realized in the original educational setting.

33324. (a) The State Department of Education shall annually disseminate to each school district, county office of education, resource agency or consortium as described in Article 2 (commencing with Section 44680) of Chapter 3.1 of Part 25, and other public educational entity, as appropriate, information regarding effective educational projects and programs developed and validated pursuant to this article, in addition to projects included in the National Diffusion Network.

(b) The California State Facilitator Project, county offices of education, and other regional educational agencies are encouraged to assist in the dissemination of information regarding effective educational programs.

(c) The State Board of Education, upon review of the recommendation of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, may authorize fund for any proposal of a school district or county office of education for the adoption of an effective educational project, in an amount not exceeding the initial startup costs of the project, where the board determines that the proposal does all of the following:

(1) Establishes a local need for the adoption or adaptation of the project.

(2) Contains a plan that evidences the commitment of resources necessary to implement the adoption of the project and that coordinates the project with existing educational programs. In the case of a school, that plan should be articulated with the school district plan.

(3) Contains a method of evaluating resulting changes in teaching, pupil performance, and the instructional program.

(4) Has been validated pursuant to Section 33323.

(d) The Superintendent of Public Instruction may assist in the implementation of projects adopted pursuant to subdivision (b), either by the department or pursuant to Section 33326.

33325. All proposals submitted to the State Board of Education for funding pursuant to Section 33322 or 33324, or for validation pursuant to Section 33323, shall be evaluated by the State Department of Education, in consultation with school districts, county offices of education, and other appropriate public and private nonprofit educational agencies. Based on those evaluations, the department shall submit its recommendations to the board concerning the funding or, as appropriate, the validation of each proposal.

33326. The State Board of Education, upon review of the recommendation of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, may authorize funding for any proposal of a county office of education, postsecondary educational institution, consortium of local educational agencies, the National Diffusion Network State Facilitator, the State Department of Education, or other appropriate educational entity to provide assistance, pursuant to this article, in the development, implementation, evaluation, dissemination, or adoption of an exemplary educational project. This assistance may include, but is not limited to, the implementation of professional development activities and the coordination of services with other educational agencies, programs, resources, and professional development providers.

33327. (a) The State Department of Education, in performing the identification, development, evaluation, dissemination, or adoption of projects and practices under any state or federal categorical education program, shall perform those functions in accordance with the procedure set forth in this article, as feasible and to the extent authorized by law.

(b) To the extent authorized by law, the department shall apply the funding made available under each of those categorical education programs for the functions described in subdivision (a) to the costs of performing those functions in the manner directed by that subdivision.

CHAPTER 1637

An act to add Section 11462.61 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public assistance.

[Became law without Governor's signature. Filed with Secretary of State October 1, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11462.61 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11462.61. (a) For audits performed prior to June 30, 1988, on group homes which received funds on behalf of children receiving assistance under the AFDC-FC program, the department shall not offset or adjust current payments made pursuant to Section 11462 unless the department determines both the following facts exist:

(1) The proposed adjusted allowable costs, as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 11462, per child per month, for the current year are less than the current paid rate.

(2) The same facts or conditions exist in the current year which resulted in the audit adjustment, for each of the audit adjustments, during the year which was the subject of the prior audit.

(b) The department is not required to perform a field audit to make the determination specified in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a).

(c) Nothing in this section restricts or limits the department's authority to recover a final audit overpayment for any year which was the subject of an audit.

CHAPTER 1638

An act to add and repeal Section 31751.5 of the Government Code, relating to the County Employees' Retirement Law of 1937.

[Became law without Governor's signature. Filed with Secretary of State October 1, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31751.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

31751.5. Notwithstanding Sections 31562 and 31751, an elective officer of a county which has adopted Section 31751 who was an elective officer of the county on the date on which Section 31751 became operative in the county but has not declared his or her intention to become a member of the retirement association may declare his or her intention in writing to become covered under Tier One or Tier Two and thereby become a member of the retirement association pursuant to Section 31553. The elective officer shall exercise his or her election on or before December 31, 1989. Any elective officer who exercises his or her election shall have the same rights as any other member to purchase prior public service credit.

This section shall not become operative in any county unless and until such time as the board of supervisors shall, by resolution adopted by a majority vote, make this section applicable in the county.

This section shall remain operative only until June 1, 1990, and as of January 1, 1991, is repealed unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 1639

An act to add and repeal Article 10 (commencing with Section 1861) to Chapter 9 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Became law without Governor's signature Filed with Secretary of State October 1, 1988 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 10 (commencing with Section 1861) is added to Chapter 9 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code, to read:

Article 10. California Private Passenger Automobile Insurance Refund of Excess Profits

1861. Each insurer licensed to write automobile insurance in the State of California shall file its profitability data with the department prior to July 1 of each year. Profitability data shall consist of information identical to that included in the National Association of Insurance Commissioners Report on Profitability by Line and by State for the line of business designated as "private passenger total" for the State of California, which is the sum of the lines of business designated as private passenger auto liability and private passenger auto physical damage. Within 180 days of the effective date of this article, each insurer shall file profitability data separately for four preceding calendar years.

1861.02. Given the economic conditions prevalent in 1988, the Legislature has determined that the prima facie reasonable rate of return for underwriting of private passenger automobile insurance is an after-tax profit of 5 percent of earned premium as calculated using methodology identical to that used in the National Association of Insurance Commissioners Report on Profitability by Line by State.

1861.04. Commencing after the July 1, 1991, filing of profitability data, the commissioner shall annually determine the average after-tax underwriting profit of each insurer pursuant to the profitability data filed under Section 1861 for the preceding six calendar years. If the average after-tax underwriting profit so determined for the six-year period exceeds by more than 5 percent of the earned premium as a calculated using methodology identical to that used in the National Association of Insurance Commissioners Report on Profitability by Line by State, the commissioner shall issue an order requiring the insurer to show cause why excess profits should not be returned to California policyholders.

In the case of an insurer that is affiliated with another insurer pursuant to the definition contained in Section 1215, all calculations pursuant to this article shall be made on the basis of combined data from all affiliated insurers.

1861.06. Upon request of any insurer receiving a show cause order pursuant to Section 1861.04 the commissioner shall hold a hearing pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, applicable to contested cases, to allow the insurer an opportunity to establish that excess profits have not been earned. In determining whether an excess profit has been earned, the commissioner shall give due consideration to competitive conditions in the private passenger automobile insurance market, the rate of inflation, effects of the residual market, the amount of California private passenger automobile business written by the insurer, the marketshare of the insurer group and its rate of growth, leverage and capitalization, the insurer's exposure to risk and investment policy, and the insurer's actual expenses as well as all other relevant factors. Pursuant to the evidence introduced at the hearing, the commissioner shall issue an order including specific findings as to the amount of excess profits earned, if any, but in no event shall the commissioner order the return of excess profits in an amount that would reduce the insurer's earnings below prima facie reasonable rate of return.

1861.08. Any excess profits that an insurer is ordered to return by the commissioner shall be allocated among its current California private passenger automobile insurance policyholders in proportion to the number of cars specifically designated as insured under policies as of the date of the order to return excess profits becomes final and not subject to further judicial review, or if that information is not readily determinable from the usual business records of the insurer as of that date, then as of the most recent previous date for which that information is readily determinable from those records. The amount allocated to each policyholder shall be returned to the policyholder by one of the following methods:

(a) By means of a credit applicable against premiums for any renewal extension or continuation of the policy or portions thereof.

(b) By means of a direct refund within 90 days after the order becomes final.

(c) By means of applying a credit against unpaid premiums with respect to policies previously issued to that policyholder within 90 days after the order becomes final.

The commissioner shall elect the manner in which the amount allocated to any policyholder shall be returned to that policyholder. The commissioner shall prescribe a procedure for any insurer group ordered to return excess profits to report on the implementation of the return.

Any refund or credit made pursuant to this section shall be treated as a policyholder dividend, applicable to the year in which it is incurred, for the purposes of reporting under this section for subsequent years.

SEC. 2. Article 10 (commencing with Section 1861) of Chapter 9 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before July 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 1640

An act to amend Sections 13897, 13897.1, and 13897.2 of the Penal Code, relating to victims of crime.

[Became law without Governor's signature. Filed with Secretary of State October 1, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13897 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13897. The Legislature finds and declares each of the following:

(a) The citizens of California have expressed great concern for the plight of crime victims.

(b) It is in the best interest, not only of the victims and their families, but also of all the citizens of California to ensure that crime victims receive comprehensive assistance in overcoming the effects of victimization.

(c) While many options and rights exist for the crime victim, including providing financial assistance pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 13959) of Part 4 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, participation in sentencing and parole eligibility hearings of criminal perpetrators, civil litigation against the perpetrator and third parties, assistance from victim-witness programs, and private support and counseling services, research indicates that many crime victims suffer needlessly because they are not aware of these options and rights, or are apprehensive or uncertain about where to go for assistance or how to exercise their rights.

(d) It is thus necessary to provide a resource center, statewide in scope, where victims of crime, their families, and providers of services to victims of crime can receive referral information, assistance, and legal guidance in order to deal effectively with the needs of victims of crime and minimize the continuing victimization process, which often results from a complex justice system. This resource center shall be independent, offer victims assistance in understanding and effectively exercising their legal rights, provide information about their rights and the workings of the criminal justice system, and direct them to appropriate local resources and agencies which can offer further assistance. The resource center shall provide, on a statewide basis, information assistance for all crime victims without charge and shall complement the efforts of various local programs, including victim-witness programs, rape crisis units, domestic violence projects, and child abuse centers.

SEC. 2. Section 13897.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13897.1. There shall be established a resource center which shall operate a statewide, toll-free information service, consisting of legal and other information, for crime victims and providers of services to crime victims. The center shall provide information and educational materials discussing victims' legal rights. The center shall distribute these materials to administrative agencies, law enforcement agencies, victim-service programs, local, regional, and statewide education systems, appropriate human service agencies, and political, social, civic, and religious leaders and organizations.

As used in this chapter, "provider of services to crime victims" means any hospital, doctor, attorney, local or statewide rape crisis center, domestic violence center, child abuse counseling center, or victims' witness center that seeks to assist crime victims in understanding and exercising their legal rights, including those under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 13959) of Part 4 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. Section 13897.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13897.2. (a) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall grant an award to an appropriate private, nonprofit organization, to provide a statewide resource center, as described in Section 13897.1.

(b) The center shall:

(1) Provide callers with information about victims' legal rights to compensation pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 13959) of Part 4 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code and, where appropriate, provide victims with guidance in exercising these rights.

(2) Provide callers who provide services to victims of crime with legal information regarding the legal rights of victims of crime.

(3) Advise callers about any potential civil causes of action, and where appropriate, provide callers with references to local legal aid and lawyer referral services.

(4) Advise and assist callers in understanding and implementing their rights to participate in sentencing and parole eligibility hearings as provided by statute.

(5) Advise callers about victims' rights in the criminal justice system, assist them in overcoming problems, including the return of property, and inform them of any procedures protecting witnesses.

(6) Refer callers, as appropriate, to local programs, which include victim-witness programs, rape crisis units, domestic violence projects, and child sexual abuse centers.

(7) Refer callers to local resources for information about appropriate public and private benefits and the means of obtaining aid.

(8) Publicize the existence of the toll-free service through the print and electronic media, including public service announcements, brochures, press announcements, various other educational materials, and agreements for the provision of publicity, by private entities.

(9) Compile comprehensive referral lists of local resources that include the following: victims' assistance resources, including legal and medical services, financial assistance, personal counseling and support services, and victims' support groups.

(10) Produce promotional materials for distribution to law enforcement agencies, state and local agencies, print, radio, and television media outlets, and the general public. These materials shall include placards, video and audio training materials, written handbooks, and brochures for public distribution. Distribution of these materials shall be coordinated with the local victims' service programs.

(11) Research, compile, and maintain a library of legal information concerning crime victims and their rights.

(12) Provide a 20-percent minimum cash match for all funds appropriated pursuant to this chapter which match may include federal and private funds in order to supplement any funds appropriated by the Legislature.

(c) The resource center shall be located so as to assure convenient and regular access between the center and those state agencies most concerned with crime victims. The entity receiving the grant shall be a private, nonprofit organization, independent of law enforcement agencies, and have qualified staff knowledgeable in the legal rights of crime victims and the programs and services available to victims throughout the state. The subgrantee shall have an existing statewide, toll-free information service and have demonstrated substantial capacity and experience serving crime victims in areas required by this act.

(d) The services of the resource center shall not duplicate the victim service activities of the Office of Criminal Justice Planning or those activities of local victim programs funded through the office.

(e) The subgrantee shall be compensated at its federally approved indirect cost rate, if any. For the purposes of this section, "federally approved indirect cost rate" means that rate established by the federal Department of Health and Human Services or other federal agency for the subgrantee. Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring the Office of Criminal Justice Planning to permit the use of federally approved indirect cost rates for other subgrantees of other grants administered by the office.

(f) All information and records retained by the center in the course of providing services under this chapter shall be confidential and privileged pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 950) of Chapter 4 of Division 8 of the Evidence Code and Article 4 (commencing with Section 6068) of Chapter 4 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code. Nothing in this subdivision shall prohibit compilation and distribution of statistical data by the center.

CHAPTER 1641

An act to amend Sections 14021 and 14022 of, and to add Section 14022.1 to, the Corporations Code, relating to the Small Business Development Board, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Became law without Governor's signature. Filed with Secretary of State October 1, 1988 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14021 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14021. The board consists of the following membership:

(a) Superintendent of Banks or his or her designee.

(b) Director of Commerce or his or her designee.

(c) Director of the Department of Food and Agriculture or his or her designee.

(d) Director of Employment Development Department or his or her designee.

(e) The President of the State Assistance Fund for Energy, California Business and Industrial Development Corporation (SAFE BIDCO) shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

(i) The Chairperson of the Coalition of California Small Business Development Centers shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

(j) Thirteen members appointed by the Governor, including:

(1) Two persons residing in economically disadvantaged areas who are actively engaged in providing leadership and assistance for persons residing in these areas; one each from an urban and rural area.

(2) Two persons to be recommended by the financial institutions participating in the program as of January 1 of each year.

(3) Two persons actively engaged in a commercial, agricultural, or industrial business and who are members of a small, agricultural, minority or women's business association.

(4) One person who is an officer of an urban labor organization.

(5) One person experienced in financial matters or actively engaged in the banking, savings and loan or insurance business.

(k) Two Members of the Legislature or their designees, one of whom shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, and one by the Senate Rules Committee, shall advise with the board insofar as it does not conflict with the duties of the legislators. For purposes of this part, such two Members of the Legislature shall constitute a joint interim legislative committee on the subject of this part and shall have all the powers and duties imposed upon such committees by the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly.

(l) Four persons actively involved in the business or agricultural community, two of whom shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, and two by the Senate Rules Committee, each of whom shall serve for a term of one year, subject to removal at the pleasure of the appointing authority.

(m) One person from each small business development corporation, who shall be selected by the board of directors or members of each corporation in accordance with its bylaws, each of whom shall serve as nonvoting members of the board.

(n) The Chairperson of the Development Board shall be designated by the Governor from the members he or she appoints.

SEC. 2. Section 14022 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14022. The board shall:

(a) Advise the executive director on matters regarding this part.

(b) Adopt regulations for the purposes of this part as proposed by the executive director, including regulations for the supervision and suspension of the corporations created herein.

(c) Select a vice chairman of the board from among the members and adopt subsequent bylaws as are required to govern the conduct and operation of the board.

(d) Review the articles of incorporation and any subsequent amendments to the articles of incorporation of all corporations formed under this chapter in the following manner:

(1) Examine the articles to determine whether they contain the provisions required by this chapter and conform with the regulations adopted pursuant to this part.

(2) Determine whether the legislative intent expressed in Section 14002 shall be served by the proposed corporation.

(3) Determine if the economically disadvantaged area or areas the incorporators propose to serve meets the requirements of subdivision (c) of Section 14010.

(4) Determine if the region is sufficient and complete and meets the population requirements of subdivision (e) of Section 14010.

(5) Determine whether the responsibility, character, and general fitness of the incorporators and directors named in the articles are such as to command the confidence of the region and to warrant the belief that the business of the proposed corporation will be honestly and efficiently conducted in accordance with the intent and purpose of this chapter and that they include representatives of the financial and business community, as well as local government and the economically disadvantaged.

(6) Recommend to the executive director the approval or disapproval of the articles and any subsequent amendments to the articles expeditiously, including changes in articles of incorporation or directors.

(e) Review each urban and rural development corporation's four-year written plan of operation, to insure that all areas of responsibilities as required herein are duly addressed and recommend to the executive director acceptance of such.

(f) Recommend to the executive director the appointment of such advisory groups as may be necessary to carry out the powers and duties of the department.

(g) Hold public hearings in order to carry out the objectives of the department in regards to its responsibilities as legislative advocate and ombudsman for the state's small business community.

(h) Solicit nominees and recommend to the Governor candidates for the position of executive director.

(i) Issue an annual report critiquing the program, its needs and recommended changes.

(j) Advise the Governor, the executive director, and the Small Business Advocate, regarding issues and programs affecting California's small business community, including, but not limited to, business innovation and expansion, export financing, state procurement, management and technical assistance, venture capital, and financial assistance.

SEC. 3. Section 14022.1 is added to the Corporations Code, to read:

14022.1. The public members of the board may, at the discretion of the department, be reimbursed per diem and travel expenses pursuant to state law.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the Small Business Development Board to promptly proceed with its responsibility to promote the economic development of small businesses for the purpose of retaining jobs, creating new job opportunities, and stimulating entrepreneurship in California, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1642

14022. The board shall:

(a) Advise the executive director on matters regarding this part.

(b) Adopt regulations for the purposes of this part, as proposed by the executive director, including regulations for the supervision and suspension of the corporations created herein.

(c) Select a vice chairman of the board and adopt subsequent bylaws as are required to govern the conduct and operation of the board.

(d) Review the articles of incorporation and any subsequent amendments to the articles of incorporation of all corporations formed under this chapter in the following manner:

(1) Examine the articles to determine whether they contain the provisions required by this chapter and conform with the regulations adopted pursuant to this part.

(2) Determine whether the legislative intent expressed in Section 14002 shall be served by the proposed corporation.

(3) Determine whether the responsibility, character, and general fitness of the incorporators and directors named in the articles are such as to command the confidence of this state and to warrant the belief that the business of the proposed corporation will be honestly and efficiently conducted in accordance with the intent and purpose of this chapter and that they include representatives of the financial and business community, as well as the economically disadvantaged.

(4) Recommend to the executive director the approval or disapproval of the articles and any subsequent amendments to the articles expeditiously, including changes in articles of incorporation or directors.

(e) Review each corporation's four-year written plan of operation, to ensure that all areas of responsibilities as required herein are duly addressed and recommend to the executive director acceptance of such.

(f) Recommend to the executive director the appointment of advisory groups as are necessary to carry out the powers and duties of the office.

(g) Hold public hearings in order to carry out the objectives of the department in regards to its responsibilities as legislative advocate and ombudsman for the state's small business community.

(h) Solicit nominees and recommend to the Governor candidates for the position of executive director.

(i) Advise the Governor, the executive director, and the Small Business Advocate, regarding issues and programs affecting California's small business community, including, but not limited to, business innovation and expansion, export financing, state procurement, management and technical assistance, venture capital, and financial assistance.

SEC. 5. Section 14023 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14023. The executive director, as provided for in Section 15335.07 of the Government Code, shall do all of the following:

(a) Administer this part.

(b) In accordance with program resources, stimulate the formation of corporations and the use of branch offices for the purpose of making this program accessible to all areas of the state.

(c) After consideration by the board, expeditiously approve or disapprove the articles of incorporation and any subsequent amendments to the articles of incorporation.

(d) Require each corporation to submit a written plan of operation in the form and containing the information as the board may require by regulation or otherwise.

(e) Review reports from the State Banking Department and inform regional corporations as to what corrective action is required.

(f) Examine, or cause to be examined, at any reasonable time all books, records, and documents of every kind, and the physical properties of a corporation. The inspection shall include the right to make copies, extracts, and search records.

SEC. 6. Section 14023.5 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14023.5. The executive director, following notification to the director, may do all of the following:

(a) Upon approval by the board, contract for services entered into pursuant to this chapter.

(b) Hold public hearings.

(c) Act as liaison between corporations formed under this part, other state and federal agencies, lenders, and the Legislature.

(d) Process and tabulate on a monthly basis all corporate reports.

(e) Attend monthly board meetings.

(f) Attend and participate at corporation meetings. The executive director, or his or her designee, shall be an ex officio, nonvoting representative on the board of directors and loan committees of each corporation.

(g) Assist corporations in applying for federal grant applications, and in obtaining program support from the business community.

SEC. 7. Section 14024 of the Corporations Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 14025 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14025. If the executive director determines that the corporation is not meeting the criteria, rules, and regulations adopted pursuant to this part, its written proposed plan of operation submitted under subdivision (d) of Section 14023, or the purposes expressed in Section 14002, the executive director may take action to suspend the corporate powers. With the approval of the board, the executive director may withdraw state funds allocated to a corporate fund which are not encumbered or obligated by outstanding guarantees, and the state funds may be allocated to other corporate funds.

If the executive director gives notice of the withdrawal of state funds, and the corporation does not return these funds within 15 days after the notice, the corporate powers, rights, and privileges of the corporation shall be suspended. The suspension shall in no way impair the effectiveness of any outstanding loan or guarantee.

State funds shall include those funds allocated to a corporate fund and the return from investment of those funds whether retained in a trust account or paid out to and retained unexpended by the corporation.

The executive director shall transmit the name of the corporation to be suspended to the Secretary of State, and the suspension shall thereupon become effective upon the issuance of a certificate of the Secretary of State which shall be prima facie evidence of suspension.

Funds allocated to a corporation and the return on investment of those funds remain state funds and the corporation's use of those funds is conditional pursuant to this section and Section 14044.1. Each corporation shall enter into a written signed agreement with the state at the beginning of each fiscal year pursuant to this subdivision. In the event the state and corporation do not reach an agreement or the state finds the corporation has violated the terms of an active agreement, the corporation shall have no authority to withdraw or encumber the corporation loan guarantee funds or the return on those funds by issuance of guarantees, by incurring expenses against the fund and its return or in any manner whatsoever, and the state may take action under this section and Section 14044.1 or other action as appropriate. Any guarantee or other encumbrance made by the corporation in violation of this section shall be null and void, and neither the state nor the corporate fund shall be liable therefor absent ratification by the board and the executive director.

SEC. 9. Section 14025.2 of the Corporations Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 14028.4 of the Corporations Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 14029.1 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14029.1. The Small Business Expansion Fund is created solely for the purpose of receiving state money to make loans, guarantees, and restricted investments pursuant to this article.

SEC. 12. Section 14029.2 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14029.2. All money deposited in the expansion fund is hereby continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal years, for the purposes of this article.

SEC. 13. Section 14029.3 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14029.3. The state shall not be liable or obligated in any way beyond the state money which is allocated in the expansion fund from moneys from the General Fund moneys appropriated for such purposes.

SEC. 14. Section 14029.7 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14029.7. The executive director at his or her discretion, with the approval of the Director of Finance, may request the Treasurer to invest those funds in the expansion fund and the corporate fund which are not immediately encumbered by administrative or program costs, in securities issued by the Treasury of the United States government. Returns from these investments shall be deposited in the expansion fund and shall be used to support the programs of this part.

SEC. 15. Section 14029.8 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14029.8. The office may establish a program through which the corporations may assist small farms and rural and agriculture-related businesses with respect to financing and other assistance.

SEC. 16. Section 14029.9 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14029.9. The office, in its discretion and after the approval of the Small Business Development Board, may establish a program through which small business development corporations may assist California small businesses by making available financial aid for the development phase of a definable product or process which is new to the business undertaking the development. Projects approved by a corporation shall be eligible for reimbursement on a regular basis up to 60 percent of allowable, documented expenses. Projects approved and the amount invested shall be based upon an analysis of the business plan submitted by the company. Evaluation criteria shall include product feasibility, company ability, marketing availability, job creation, and overall financial condition. Products need not be high technology but should be innovative.

The executive director may appoint a technology marketing advisory committee to review product development applications being considered for funding by corporations. The advisory committee shall include, among others, a product development specialist, a marketing specialist, and a venture capitalist.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 17. Section 14029.91 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14029.91. In accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 14023.5, the executive director may provide technical assistance and staff support for the technology marketing advisory committee created pursuant to Section 14029.9 and to the corporations implementing that section.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 18. Section 14029.95 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14029.95. If the office establishes the program authorized by Section 14029.9, return on investments authorized by Section 14029.9 for the corporations shall be derived from a royalty based on the sale of the product developed. The royalty shall not exceed 5 percent of the new product sales unless approval is granted by the executive director after notification of the board. The royalty payment shall continue until a specified multiple of the corporation's investment has been returned within a specified period of time. After the required multiple has been reached, the royalty rate may be reduced and continued for a fixed time period.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 19. Section 14029.96 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14029.96. If the office establishes the program authorized by Section 14029.9, the corporations shall charge an application fee in an amount to be determined from time to time by the executive director upon approval by the board.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 20. Section 14030 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14030. A corporation may be formed by seven or more persons who are residents of this state, to carry out the intent of the Legislature as expressed in Section 14002.

SEC. 21. Section 14032 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14032. The articles of incorporation shall set forth:

(a) The name of the corporation, which shall include the words "small business development corporation," except for those corporations formed pursuant to this part prior to 1985, which may also be called "rural or urban development corporations."

(b) The purposes for which the corporation is formed, which shall be those specified in Section 14002. This requirement shall not be deemed to preclude a statement of powers.

(c) A geographical description of the corporation's service area.

(d) The names and addresses of seven or more persons who are to act in the capacity of directors until the selection of their successors.

(e) That the corporation is organized pursuant to the California Small Business Development Corporation Law.

SEC. 22. Section 14035 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14035. Every corporation shall adopt bylaws, which shall include provisions governing the election and qualification of directors; the establishment and functions of loan committees of the corporation; and the method of selecting the representative of the corporation on the board.

The bylaws shall provide for removal of officers only by a two-thirds vote of the directors of the corporation.

SEC. 23. Section 14035.5 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14035.5. Each corporation shall have provisions establishing a grievance procedure for employees, clients, or potential clients, to appeal a decision or obtain redress of an action done by the staff or loan committee of the corporation. If a client or potential client is dissatisfied with the decision under that procedure, the matter may be submitted to and reviewed by OSB, in accordance with rules and procedures established by it.

SEC. 24. Section 14036 of the Corporations Code is repealed.

SEC. 25. Section 14040 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14040. There is hereby continued in the State Treasury in the expansion fund, the Small Business Development Loan Guarantee Account as part of the expansion fund.

SEC. 26. Section 14041 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14041. The loan account is created solely for the purpose of receiving state, federal, or local government money, and other public or private money, for subsequent allocation by the office, with the approval of the Department of Finance, to a corporate fund formed pursuant to Section 14045.

SEC. 27. Section 14043 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14043. All money deposited in the loan account is hereby appropriated, without regard to fiscal years, for the purposes of this chapter. The state shall not be liable or obligated in any way beyond the state money which is allocated and deposited in the loan account from state money which is appropriated for these purposes.

SEC. 28. Section 14044 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14044. The funds in the loan account shall be paid out to a small business development corporation loan guarantee fund by the Treasurer on warrants drawn by the Controller and requisitioned by the office, pursuant to the purposes of this chapter. The office may transfer funds allocated to the corporate fund to accounts, established solely to receive the funds, in lending institutions designated by that corporation. The lending institutions so designated shall be approved by the state for the receipt of state deposits. Interest earned on the accounts in lending institutions may be utilized by the corporations pursuant to the purposes of this chapter.

SEC. 29. Section 14044.1 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14044.1. Pursuant to this section and the regulations, the state has residual interest in the funds deposited by the state to a corporate fund and to the return on these funds from investment. On dissolution of the corporation or if the executive director believes these funds are in jeopardy or are not being effectively utilized, these funds may be withdrawn by the executive director from the trust if they are not encumbered by guarantees, and returned to the expansion fund or transferred to another corporate fund. This provision shall be contained in the trust instructions to the trustee.

SEC. 30. Section 14044.5 of the Corporations Code is repealed.

SEC. 31. Section 14045 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14045. Every corporation formed under this chapter may establish a corporate fund pursuant to regulations adopted by the board. This fund shall not be subject to any state regulation other than by the board and Department of Finance. Each corporate fund is a legally separate fund, and the assets of one fund shall not be used to satisfy loan guarantees or other obligations of another corporation. No corporation shall use corporate funds to secure a corporate indebtedness. Corporate funds are state funds and, with the exception of guarantees established pursuant to this chapter, shall not be subject to liens or encumbrances of the corporation or its creditors.

SEC. 32. Section 14046 of the Corporations Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 844 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

14046. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 14131 and Sections 14083 and 14083.5, the purpose of a corporate fund shall be to make and guarantee loans, approved by the corporation, which meet the California Small Business Development Corporation Law loan criteria. The state shall not be liable or obligated in any way as a result of the allocation of state money to a corporate fund beyond the state money which is allocated and deposited in the fund pursuant to this chapter, and which is not otherwise withdrawn by the state pursuant to this chapter.

(b) A summary of all loans to which a state guarantee is attached shall be submitted to the executive director upon completion of the loan agreement.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed.

SEC. 33. Section 14046 of the Corporations Code, as added by Section 9 of Chapter 750 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

14046. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 14131, and Section 14083, the purpose of a corporate fund shall be to guarantee loans, approved by the corporation, which meet the California Small Business Development Corporation Law loan criteria. The state shall not be liable or obligated in any way as a result of the allocation of state money to a corporate fund beyond the state money which is allocated and deposited in the fund pursuant to this chapter, and which is not otherwise withdrawn by the state pursuant to this chapter.

(b) A summary of all loans to which a state guarantee is attached shall be submitted to the executive director upon completion of the loan agreement.

(c) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1991.

SEC. 34. Section 14047 of the Corporations Code is repealed.

SEC. 35. Section 14048 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14048. Every corporation formed under this chapter may establish an account within the corporate fund to receive funds appropriated to the expansion fund in the State Treasury. The executive director shall determine the allocation from the expansion fund to the corporate fund.

SEC. 36. Section 14049 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14049. Corporations may grant energy efficiency improvement loans.

SEC. 37. Section 14060 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14060. The corporate powers of a corporation shall be exercised by the board of directors.

SEC. 38. Section 14061 of the Corporations Code is repealed.

SEC. 39. Section 14062 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14062. (a) No person shall serve on a board of directors who is not:

(1) A resident of the state described in the articles of incorporation, or

(2) The owner, controlling shareholder, or a permanent employee of an organization maintaining a regular place of business in this state.

(b) Each board of directors shall include representatives from all of the following:

(1) The financial community.

(2) The business community.

(3) The economically disadvantaged.

SEC. 40. Section 14066 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14066. (a) Every corporation shall establish one or more loan committees, each of which shall be composed of five or more persons, a majority of whom shall be experienced in banking and lending operations.

(b) A loan committee shall review every application to the corporation for a loan or guarantee and shall do each of the following:

(1) Determine the feasibility of the proposed transaction and the likelihood of successful use of the corporation's money and credit within the overall objectives of the corporation.

(2) On the basis of the determination, recommend to the board of directors any action that the committee deems appropriate under the circumstances, provided, however, that the loan committee shall not recommend the granting of any loan or guarantee unless it determines that the conditions of Section 14081 are satisfied, and so certifies to the board of directors.

(c) A loan committee shall expeditiously act to accept or reject loan applications.

(d) The loan committee in recommending the granting of loans or guarantees shall emphasize consideration to applications that will increase employment of disadvantaged, disabled persons, or unemployed persons and increase employment of youth residing in areas of high youth unemployment and high youth delinquency.

SEC. 41. Section 14081 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14081. In furtherance of the purposes set forth in Section 14002, a corporation may lend money to, and guarantee, endorse, or act as surety on the bonds, notes, contracts, or other obligations of, or assist financially, any person, firm, corporation or association, and may establish and regulate the terms and conditions with respect to any such loans or financial assistance and the charges for interest and service connected therewith, except that the corporation shall not make or guarantee any loan unless and until it determines:

(a) There is no probability that the loan or other financial assistance would be granted by a financial company under reasonable terms or conditions, and the borrower has demonstrated a reasonable prospect of repayment of the loan.

(b) The loan proceeds shall be used exclusively in this state.

(c) The loan qualifies as a small business loan or an employment incentive loan.

(d) That the borrower has a minimum equity interest in the business as determined by the board.

(e) As a result of the loan, the jobs generated or retained demonstrate reasonable conformance to the regulations specifying employment criteria.

SEC. 42. Section 14081.1 of the Corporations Code is repealed.

SEC. 43. Section 14081.2 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14081.2. A corporation may charge the borrower or financial institution a loan fee on all loans made or guaranteed by the corporation to defray the operating expenses of the corporation. The amount of the fee shall be determined by the board.

SEC. 44. Section 14082 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14082. With the approval of the executive director, a corporation may establish a profitmaking subsidiary for the specific purpose of sponsoring a small business investment company regulated by the Small Business Administration.

SEC. 45. Section 14083 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14083. A corporation, acting as a sponsor and with the approval of the executive director under Section 14082, is authorized to establish a small business investment company (including minority enterprise small business investment companies and business and industrial development companies) with funds committed by its members, in an amount designated by the board of directors of the corporation.

SEC. 46. Section 14083.5 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14083.5. If the office establishes the program authorized by Section 14029.9, the corporations are authorized to use up to one-tenth of the amount within their corporate funds to make investments in California small businesses for product development as specified in Sections 14029.9 and 14029.95. The investments in each business shall not exceed the amount of the current loan guarantee limits established by regulation.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 47. Section 14083.6 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14083.6. If the office establishes the program authorized by Section 14029.9, revenues derived from royalties on product investments shall be returned to the investing corporation's corporate fund.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 48. Section 14084 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14084. Every corporation shall provide for and maintain a central staff to perform all administrative requirements of the corporation including all those functions required of a corporation by the board and the executive director.

SEC. 49. Section 14085 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14085. Costs incurred by a corporation in the creation and maintenance of a central staff shall be paid to the corporation from state funds allocated to the office during the first four years of operation for these purposes. Reasonable costs incurred following the initial four years of operation shall be paid from the return on corporate funds.

SEC. 50. Section 14090 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14090. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the notes or other interest-bearing obligations, and that portion of loans guaranteed by a corporation, issued in accordance with this chapter and any regulations governing the issuance of these obligations shall be legal investments for banks, insurance and surety companies, and third party investors, such as private parties and pension funds. However, in no case shall the aggregate amount of these obligations held by any such bank, insurance or surety company, including membership loans and loans guaranteed by corporate funds, exceed an amount equal to 3 percent of the capital and surplus of any such bank, insurance or surety company.

SEC. 51. Section 14100 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14100. The executive director shall have the accounts of each corporation formed under this part audited as of the close of business on June 30, of each year. The executive director shall also have the portfolio of each corporation audited a minimum of once a year. Material audit exceptions which are not corrected by the corporation within a reasonable period of time may result in the suspension of the corporation.

SEC. 52. Section 14110 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14110. It shall be unlawful for the executive director or any person who is an officer, director, or employee of a corporation, or who is a member of a loan committee, or who is a member of the board or employee of the office to:

(a) Ask for, consent or agree to receive, any commission, emolument, gratuity, money, property, or thing of value for his or her own use, benefit, or personal advantage, for procuring or endeavoring to procure for any person, partnership, joint venture, association, or corporation, any loan, guarantee, financial or other assistance from any corporation.

(b) Borrow money, property, or to benefit knowingly, directly or indirectly, from the use of the money, credit, or property of any corporation.

(c) Make, maintain, or attempt to make or maintain, a deposit of the funds of a corporation with any other corporation or association on condition, or with the understanding, expressed or implied, that the corporation or association receiving such deposit shall pay any money or make a loan or advance, directly or indirectly, to any person, partnership, joint venture, association, or corporation, other than to a corporation formed under this part.

SEC. 53. Section 14111 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14111. It shall be unlawful for the executive director or any member of a corporation, or any person who is an officer or director of a corporation, or who is a member or employee of the office or the board or executive director, to purchase or receive, or to be otherwise interested in the purchase or receipt, directly or indirectly, of any asset of a corporation, without paying to the corporation the fair market value of the asset at the time of the transaction.

SEC. 54. Section 14115 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14115. The corporation shall not deposit any of its funds in any financial institution unless the financial institution has been designated as a depository by a vote of the majority of all of the directors of the corporation, exclusive of any director who is an officer or director of the institution so designated. The financial institution which is to act as trustee of the corporate fund shall be designated by the board of directors of the corporation on a competitive bid basis. The corporation shall not receive money on deposit.

SEC. 55. Section 14120 of the Corporations Code is repealed.

SEC. 56. The heading of Article 14 (commencing with Section 14125) of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

Article 14. Small Business Development Corporations

SEC. 57. Section 14125 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14125. (a) The board may authorize the establishment of a new corporation. To qualify for consideration as a corporation, an organization must have had a minimum of two years' experience in small business finance assistance. These qualifications may be waived by the board and the executive director in areas of high unemployment if the proposed corporation is newly established and the incorporators have small business finance and assistance experience.

(b) The state, through the Office of Small Business, shall continue to have jurisdiction and to exercise supervision over corporations which have achieved independence from state administrative funding. The state shall have the right to review and approve the activities and expenditure of funds of those corporations to ensure conformity with the provisions and intent of the Small Business Corporation Law and the regulations thereof. The use of state funds paid out to the corporate fund and the return on those funds from investment pursuant to Section 14044 is conditional pursuant to Sections 14025 and 14044.1. Each corporation shall enter into a written signed agreement with the state at the beginning of each fiscal year. The agreement shall govern the activities in which the corporations engage, the investment of state funds and its return, and the budgeted administrative expenses the corporations may incur. In the event the state and corporation do not reach an agreement, or the state finds the corporation has violated the terms of an active agreement, the state may take action under Sections 14025 and 14044.1 or other action as appropriate. In the event the state and corporation do not reach agreement or the state finds the corporation has violated the terms of an active agreement, the corporation shall have no authority to withdraw or encumber the corporate fund or the return on those funds by the issuance of guarantees, by incurring expenses against the fund and its return in any manner whatsoever, and the state may take action under Sections 14025 and 14044.1 or other action as appropriate. Any such guarantee or other encumbrance made by the corporation in violation of this section shall be null and void, and neither the state nor the corporate fund will be liable therefor.

SEC. 58. Section 14126 of the Corporations Code is repealed.

SEC. 59. Section 14126 is added to the Corporations Code, to read:

14126. For six months following the establishment of a corporation, commencing upon filing of the articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State, a corporation shall be on probation. While on probation, the following limitations shall apply:

(a) The corporation shall not establish a corporate account. The corporation may receive authorization from the executive director to guarantee a specific amount of funds in the expansion fund.

(b) The corporation can be suspended upon 10 days' written notice by the executive director. This suspension is nonappealable and not subject to the procedures for suspension applicable to a corporation not on probation.

SEC. 60. Section 14127 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14127. (a) The corporations shall report to the executive director, or his or her designated representative, all statistical and other reports required by this part, responses to audit reports, budget requirements, invoices submitted for payment by the state, and information concerning loans made or guaranteed.

SEC. 61. Section 14128 of the Corporations Code is repealed.

SEC. 62. Section 14129 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14129. To implement its responsibilities, the corporations shall undertake a program which shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) Develop and implement a program of outreach to low-resource businesses. The corporations located in rural areas shall give priority to low-resource farmers, rural, and agriculturally related businesses.

(b) Work with other organizations and lenders to locate, identify, and assist those unable to obtain credit through conventional sources because of reasons such as low equity, inadequate collateral, unacceptable legal structure (such as a co-op or nonprofit organization), management inadequacies and language problems.

(c) To the extent possible, bring all possible financial resources (low interest lenders, BIDCOs, MESBICs, other guarantors, etc.) to bear on borrower's problems.

(d) Provide assistance to businesses receiving loans of guarantees which will maximize the probability of loan repayment.

(e) Develop and implement a program for increasing program resources through private sector involvement and nonstate funds.

(f) Develop a program for collecting and liquidating defaulted loans so that the corporations can qualify to become full-service lenders under the Small Business Administration. Corporations located in rural areas shall, in addition, try to qualify for lender status under Farmers Home Administration.

(g) Develop a program which shall enable the corporations to be independent of state General Fund allocations for administrative support within four years.

(h) Become an agent for other lenders and guarantors.

SEC. 63. Section 14130 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14130. In all their state-funded programs, the corporations shall, to the extent practicable, be complementary to, and not competitive with, commercial lenders and other state and federal programs.

SEC. 64. Section 14131 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14131. (a) The corporate guarantee shall be backed by funds on deposit in the corporation's corporate fund established pursuant to Articles 5 (commencing with Section 14040) and 6 (commencing with Section 14045).

(b) Loan guarantees shall be secured by a reserve of at least 25 percent to be determined by the Executive Director of the Office of Small Business with the approval of the board. The guarantee percentage rate shall be set by the Executive Director of the Office of Small Business upon approval of the board.

(c) The corporation shall guarantee loans wherever possible. However, earnings from the trust funds may be used for direct lending provided that corporate direct loan funds do not constitute more than one-third of the loan, with the following exceptions:

(1) If a firm has received a Phase 1 or Phase 2 Small Business Innovation Research Grant awarded by a federal agency and is suffering cash flow problems because of delay in receipt of grant funds from the date of incurring expenses related to the grant project, a corporation may advance an interim loan covering 80 percent of the project expenses from trust fund earnings, provided the firm assigns proceeds of grant invoices (or other documentations submitted by the firm to the federal agency for payment) to the corporation for payment of the interim loan advanced and the federal agency agrees to the assignment.

(2) Any corporation located in a rural area that is making a direct loan to a farmer or farm corporation may use trust funds from both the income and trust account, provided that the direct loan is guaranteed or that at least 50 percent of the direct loan portfolio is guaranteed by a governmental agency, excluding any state government agency. The total amount of direct loans issued by a corporation shall not exceed 33 percent of the trust fund, including trust income, as determined at the time each loan is made. Only unencumbered funds shall be available for direct lending. Each corporation located in a rural area shall submit an application to the department for participation in the direct loan program under this section. In its capacity as a direct lender, the corporation may sell in the secondary market the guaranteed portion of each loan so as to raise additional funds for direct lending. Funds raised through the secondary market shall not be considered in arriving at the percentage of the loan portfolio to be guaranteed by a government agency above. Any direct loan made by a corporation under this section shall not exceed three hundred fifty thousand dollars ($350,000). The department, in consultation with the board, shall issue regulations governing these direct loans.

(d) In furtherance of the purposes of this part, up to one-half of the corporate funds may be used to guarantee loans utilized to establish a Business and Industrial Development Corporation (BIDCO) under Division 15 (commencing with Section 33000) of the Financial Code.

(e) The corporation may assume a negotiated equity position of not more than 5 percent of the current equity in an eligible small business, in lieu of part or all of the fees chargeable to the business or through direct purchase, provided state funds are not used to purchase the equity position. An equity position of 5 percent or less shall not be construed as a conflict of interest in terms of financial and technical assistant participation.

(f) As a method of implementing the direct loan programs established in this chapter, the Office of Small Business may loan trust funds to a corporation located in a rural area for the express purpose of lending those funds to an identified borrower. The loan by the Office of Small Business to the corporation shall be in the amount and terms similar to the loan between the corporation and the borrower. The loan between the Office of Small Business and the corporation shall be evidenced by a credit agreement secured by assignment of any note, executed in favor of the corporation by the borrower to the Office of Small Business. The terms and conditions of the credit agreement shall be similar to the loan agreement between the corporation and the borrower which shall be collateralized by the note between the corporation and the borrower. In the absence of fraud on the part of the corporation, the liability of the corporation to repay the loan to the Office of Small Business is limited to the repayment received by the corporation from the borrower except in a case where the Farmers Home Administration requires exposure by the corporation in rule or regulation. Interest and principal received by the Office of Small Business from the corporation shall be deposited in the small business development corporation loan guarantee account of that corporation.

CHAPTER 1643

An act to add Section 5101.3 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Became law without Governor's signature. Filed with Secretary of State October 1, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5101.3 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

5101.3. (a) Any person otherwise eligible under this article who qualifies under subdivision (b) may, commencing July 1, 1989, apply for special license plates which shall run in a separate numerical series and shall contain the words "Pearl Harbor Survivor." The plates may be issued for any passenger vehicle, not including any commercial vehicle, which is owned or coowned by the person.

(b) To qualify for issuance of the special plates, the applicant shall by satisfactory proof show all of the following:

(1) The applicant was a member of the United States Armed Forces on December 7, 1941, and received an honorable discharge from military service.

(2) The applicant was on station at Pearl Harbor, the Island of Oahu, or offshore within a distance of three miles, on December 7, 1941, during the hours of 7:55 a.m. to 9:45 a.m., Hawaii time, as certified by a California chapter of the Pearl Harbor Survivors Association.

(c) In addition to the regular registration fees, the department shall charge a fee of thirty-five dollars ($35) for the issuance of the special plates. Notwithstanding Section 9265, the applicant for a substitute Pearl Harbor Survivor license plate shall be charged a fee of thirty-five dollars ($35).

(d) Whenever any person who has been issued a Pearl Harbor Survivor license plate applies to the department for transfer of the plates to another vehicle, a transfer fee of twenty dollars ($20) shall be charged in addition to all other appropriate fees.

(e) The special plates may not be transferred to any other person, including a coowner of the vehicle for which the license plates were issued, and shall be surrendered to the department upon the decease of the person to whom they were issued.

SEC. 2. The Controller shall transfer, pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 21191 of the Public Resources Code, the sum of ninety thousand dollars ($90,000) from the California Environmental License Plate Fund to the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund, and that amount is hereby appropriated from the Motor Vehicle Account to the Department of Motor Vehicles to implement Section 5101.3 of the Vehicle Code.

CHAPTER 1644

An act to add Section 5101.8 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Became law without Governor's signature Filed with Secretary of State October 1, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5101.8 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

5101.8. (a) Any person otherwise eligible under this article who is a Purple Heart recipient may apply for special license plates for vehicles which are not used for transportation for hire, compensation, or profit, under this article. The special plates assigned to the vehicle shall run in a separate numerical series, shall have inscribed on the plate the Purple Heart insignia, and shall contain the words "Combat Wounded" and "Purple Heart" or at least the letters "PH" as part of the numerical series. The department shall reserve and issue the special plates to all applicants providing the proof required by subdivision (b).

(b) The applicant shall, by satisfactory proof, show that the applicant is a Purple Heart recipient.

(c) Special plates may be issued pursuant to subdivision (a) only for a vehicle owned or coowned by a Purple Heart recipient and may not be transferred to any other person, including the coowner of the vehicle. The special plates shall be surrendered to the department upon the decease of the Purple Heart recipient.

(d) In addition to the regular fees for an original or renewal registration, a fee sufficient to cover all costs of this program shall be paid.

(e) When an applicant for the Purple Heart license plate qualifies as a disabled veteran as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 22511.9, the applicant may also apply for a distinguishing placard described in subdivision (d) of Section 22511.9 to be used in conjunction with the Purple Heart license plate for the purpose of allowing special parking privileges pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 22511.9.

(f) Sections 5106 and 5108 do not apply.

SEC. 2. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1989.

CHAPTER 1645

An act to add Section 421.5 to the Government Code, relating to state dances.

[Became law without Governor's signature. Filed with Secretary of State October 1, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares, as follows:

(a) West Coast Swing Dancing, also known as Swing, Whip, or Jitterbug, came into being in the early 1930's in response to new musical forms then sweeping the land. It was created at the grassroots level of our people. Devotees of this art come from every conceivable ethnic, religious, racial, and economic background. Age is no factor, nor is gender. Among the ranks of swing dancers, one can find judges, schoolteachers, lawyers, waitresses, salesmen, doctors, students, and so on.

West Coast Swing Dancing is an intricate dance, requiring a great deal of coordination, good timing, and intelligent application. It is a healthy and joyful activity that belongs to all our people. They created it, they nurtured it, and they have kept it alive.

West Coast Swing is an American dance which is danced to American music. It originated in California and is danced in competition nationally and internationally.

(b) Square Dancing is the American folk dance which is called, cued, or prompted to the dancers, and includes squares, rounds, clogging, contra, line, and heritage dances.

The Square Dance has a long and proud history. It is an exciting art form that is truly an original of our country, and has been danced continuously in California since "Gold Rush Days."

As our state's population has grown, so has the square dance activity. California leads the nation with more than 200,000 residents square dancing weekly. It conforms to our ever changing lifestyles and appeals to people of all ages, races, and creeds. Class distinction is forgotten when people join together to enjoy the true fellowship of the Square Dance.

SEC. 2. Section 421.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

421.5. (a) West Coast Swing Dance is the official state dance.

(b) The Square Dance is the official state folk dance.

CHAPTER 1646

An act to amend Section 8710 of, and to add Section 9280 to, the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Became law without Governor's signature Filed with Secretary of State October 1, 1988.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9280 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

9280. (a) The state central committee may prohibit or limit the power of county central committees established pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 9320) to endorse, support, or oppose any candidate for nomination by the Republican Party for partisan office in the direct primary election.

(b) The superior court, in any case brought before it by the state central committee or by any registered voter, may issue a temporary or permanent restraining order or injunction to prohibit the endorsement, support, or opposition by a county central committee of any candidate for nomination by the Republican Party for partisan office in the direct primary election, if the endorsement, support, or opposition is in violation of the bylaws or rules of the state central committee. All cases of this nature shall be in a preferred position for purposes of trial and appeal, so as to assure the speedy disposition thereof.

SEC. 2. Section 8710 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

8710. This committee shall convene in Sacramento after a general election between the first full weekend in January and the first full weekend in March. The meeting shall begin no later than 10 o'clock a.m. on Saturday.

CHAPTER 1647

An act to amend Sections 6011 and 6012 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Became law without Governor's signature Filed with Secretary of State October 1 1988 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6011 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6011. (a) "Sales price" means the total amount for which tangible personal property is sold or leased or rented, as the case may be, valued in money, whether paid in money or otherwise, without any deduction on account of any of the following:

(1) The cost of the property sold.

(2) The cost of materials used, labor or service cost, interest charged, losses, or any other expenses.

(3) The cost of transportation of the property, except as excluded by other provisions of this section.

(b) The total amount for which the property is sold or leased or rented includes all of the following:

(1) Any services that are a part of the sale.

(2) Any amount for which credit is given to the purchaser by the seller.

(3) The amount of any tax imposed by the United States upon producers and importers of gasoline and the amount of any tax imposed pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 7301) of this division.

(c) "Sales price" does not include any of the following:

(1) Cash discounts allowed and taken on sales.

(2) The amount charged for property returned by customers when that entire amount is refunded either in cash or credit, but this exclusion shall not apply in any instance when the customer, in order to obtain the refund, is required to purchase other property at a price greater than the amount charged for the property that is returned. For the purpose of this section, refund or credit of the entire amount shall be deemed to be given when the purchase price less rehandling and restocking costs are refunded or credited to the customer. The amount withheld for rehandling and restocking costs may be a percentage of the sales price determined by the average cost of rehandling and restocking returned merchandise during the previous accounting cycle.

(3) The amount charged for labor or services rendered in installing or applying the property sold.

(4) The amount of any tax (not including, however, any manufacturers' or importers' excise tax) imposed by the United States upon or with respect to retail sales whether imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(5) The amount of any tax imposed by any city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district within the State of California upon or with respect to retail sales of tangible personal property, measured by a stated percentage of sales price or gross receipts, whether imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(6) The amount of any tax imposed by any city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district within the State of California with respect to the storage, use or other consumption in such city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district of tangible personal property measured by a stated percentage of sales price or purchase price, whether such tax is imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(7) Separately stated charges for transportation from the retailer's place of business or other point from which shipment is made directly to the purchaser, but the exclusion shall not exceed a reasonable charge for transportation by facilities of the retailer or the cost to the retailer of transportation by other than facilities of the retailer. However, if the transportation is by facilities of the retailer, or the property is sold for a delivered price, this exclusion shall be applicable solely with respect to transportation which occurs after the purchase of the property is made.

(8) Charges for transporting landfill from an excavation site to a site specified by the purchaser, either if the charge is separately stated and does not exceed a reasonable charge or if the entire consideration consists of payment for transportation.

(9) The amount of any motor vehicle, mobilehome, or commerical coach fee or tax imposed by and paid the State of California that has been added to or is measured by a stated percentage of the sales or purchase price of a motor vehicle, mobilehome, or commercial coach.

SEC. 2. Section 6011 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6011. (a) "Sales price" means the total amount for which tangible personal property is sold or leased or rented, as the case may be, valued in money, whether paid in money or otherwise, without any deduction on account of any of the following:

(1) The cost of the property sold.

(2) The cost of materials used, labor or service cost, interest charged, losses, or any other expenses.

(3) The cost of transportation of the property, except as excluded by other provisions of this section.

(b) The total amount for which the property is sold or leased or rented includes all of the following:

(1) Any services that are a part of the sale.

(2) Any amount for which credit is given to the purchaser by the seller.

(3) The amount of any tax imposed by the United States upon producers and importers of gasoline and the amount of any tax imposed pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 7301) of this division.

(c) "Sales price" does not include any of the following:

(1) Cash discounts allowed and taken on sales.

(2) The amount charged for property returned by customers when that entire amount is refunded either in cash or credit, but this exclusion shall not apply in any instance when the customer, in order to obtain the refund, is required to purchase other property at a price greater than the amount charged for the property that is returned. For the purpose of this section, refund or credit of the entire amount shall be deemed to be given when the purchase price less rehandling and restocking costs are refunded or credited to the customer. The amount withheld for rehandling and restocking costs may be a percentage of the sales price determined by the average cost of rehandling and restocking returned merchandise during the previous accounting cycle.

(3) The amount charged for labor or services rendered in installing or applying the property sold.

(4) (A) The amount of any tax (not including, however, any manufacturers' or importers' excise tax, except as provided in subparagraph (B)) imposed by the United States upon or with respect to retail sales whether imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(B) The amount of manufacturers' or importers' excise tax imposed pursuant to Section 4091 of the Internal Revenue Code for which the purchaser certifies that he or she is entitled to either a direct refund or credit against his or her income tax for the federal excise tax paid.

(5) The amount of any tax imposed by any city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district within the State of California upon or with respect to retail sales of tangible personal property, measured by a stated percentage of sales price or gross receipts, whether imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(6) The amount of any tax imposed by any city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district within the State of California with respect to the storage, use or other consumption in such city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district of tangible personal property measured by a stated percentage of sales price or purchase price, whether such tax is imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(7) Separately stated charges for transportation from the retailer's place of business or other point from which shipment is made directly to the purchaser, but the exclusion shall not exceed a reasonable charge for transportation by facilities of the retailer or the cost to the retailer of transportation by other than facilities of the retailer. However, if the transportation is by facilities of the retailer, or the property is sold for a delivered price, this exclusion shall be applicable solely with respect to transportation which occurs after the purchase of the property is made.

(8) Charges for transporting landfill from an excavation site to a site specified by the purchaser, either if the charge is separately stated and does not exceed a reasonable charge or if the entire consideration consists of payment for transportation.

(9) The amount of any motor vehicle, mobilehome, or commerical coach fee or tax imposed by and paid the State of California that has been added to or is measured by a stated percentage of the sales or purchase price of a motor vehicle, mobilehome, or commercial coach.

SEC. 3. Section 6012 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6012. (a) "Gross receipts" mean the total amount of the sale or lease or rental price, as the case may be, of the retail sales of retailers, valued in money, whether received in money or otherwise, without any deduction on account of any of the following:

(1) The cost of the property sold. However, in accordance with such rules and regulations as the board may prescribe, a deduction may be taken if the retailer has purchased property for some other purpose than resale, has reimbursed his or her vendor for tax which the vendor is required to pay to the state or has paid the use tax with respect to the property, and has resold the property prior to making any use of the property other than retention, demonstration, or display while holding it for sale in the regular course of business. If such a deduction is taken by the retailer, no refund or credit will be allowed to his or her vendor with respect to the sale of the property.

(2) The cost of the materials used, labor or service cost, interest paid, losses, or any other expense.

(3) The cost of transportation of the property, except as excluded by other provisions of this section.

(4) The amount of any tax imposed by the United States upon producers and importers of gasoline and the amount of any tax imposed pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 7301) of this division.

(b) The total amount of the sale or lease or rental price includes all of the following:

(1) Any services that are a part of the sale.

(2) All receipts, cash, credits and property of any kind.

(3) Any amount for which credit is allowed by the seller to the purchaser.

(c) "Gross receipts" do not include any of the following:

(1) Cash discounts allowed and taken on sales.

(2) Sale price of property returned by customers when that entire amount is refunded either in cash or credit, but this exclusion shall not apply in any instance when the customer, in order to obtain the refund, is required to purchase other property at a price greater than the amount charged for the property that is returned. For the purpose of this section, refund or credit of the entire amount shall be deemed to be given when the purchase price less rehandling and restocking costs are refunded or credited to the customer. The amount withheld for rehandling and restocking costs may be a percentage of the sales price determined by the average cost of rehandling and restocking returned merchandise during the previous accounting cycle.

(3) The price received for labor or services used in installing or applying the property sold.

(4) The amount of any tax (not including, however, any manufacturers' or importers' excise tax) imposed by the United States upon or with respect to retail sales whether imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(5) The amount of any tax imposed by any city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district within the State of California upon or with respect to retail sales of tangible personal property measured by a stated percentage of sales price or gross receipts whether imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(6) The amount of any tax imposed by any city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district within the State of California with respect to the storage, use or other consumption in such city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district of tangible personal property measured by a stated percentage of sales price or purchase price, whether such tax is imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(7) Separately stated charges for transportation from the retailer's place of business or other point from which shipment is made directly to the purchaser, but the exclusion shall not exceed a reasonable charge for transportation by facilities of the retailer or the cost to the retailer of transportation by other than facilities of the retailer. However, if the transportation is by facilities of the retailer, or the property is sold for a delivered price, this exclusion shall be applicable solely with respect to transportation which occurs after the sale of the property is made to the purchaser.

(8) Charges for transporting landfill from an excavation site to a site specified by the purchaser, either if the charge is separately stated and does not exceed a reasonable charge or if the entire consideration consists of payment for transportation.

(9) The amount of any motor vehicle, mobilehome, or commercial coach fee or tax imposed by and paid to the State of California that has been added to or is measured by a stated percentage of the sales or purchase price of a motor vehicle, mobilehome, or commercial coach.

For purposes of the sales tax, if the retailers establish to the satisfaction of the board that the sales tax has been added to the total amount of the sale price and has not been absorbed by them, the total amount of the sale price shall be deemed to be the amount received exclusive of the tax imposed. Section 1656.1 of the Civil Code shall apply in determining whether or not the retailers have absorbed the sales tax.

SEC. 4. Section 6012 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6012. (a) "Gross receipts" mean the total amount of the sale or lease or rental price, as the case may be, of the retail sales of retailers, valued in money, whether received in money or otherwise, without any deduction on account of any of the following:

(1) The cost of the property sold. However, in accordance with such rules and regulations as the board may prescribe, a deduction may be taken if the retailer has purchased property for some other purpose than resale, has reimbursed his or her vendor for tax which the vendor is required to pay to the state or has paid the use tax with respect to the property, and has resold the property prior to making any use of the property other than retention, demonstration, or display while holding it for sale in the regular course of business. If such a deduction is taken by the retailer, no refund or credit will be allowed to his or her vendor with respect to the sale of the property.

(2) The cost of the materials used, labor or service cost, interest paid, losses, or any other expense.

(3) The cost of transportation of the property, except as excluded by other provisions of this section.

(4) The amount of any tax imposed by the United States upon producers and importers of gasoline and the amount of any tax imposed pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 7301) of this division.

(b) The total amount of the sale or lease or rental price includes all of the following:

(1) Any services that are a part of the sale.

(2) All receipts, cash, credits and property of any kind.

(3) Any amount for which credit is allowed by the seller to the purchaser.

(c) "Gross receipts" do not include any of the following:

(1) Cash discounts allowed and taken on sales.

(2) Sale price of property returned by customers when that entire amount is refunded either in cash or credit, but this exclusion shall not apply in any instance when the customer, in order to obtain the refund, is required to purchase other property at a price greater than the amount charged for the property that is returned. For the purpose of this section, refund or credit of the entire amount shall be deemed to be given when the purchase price less rehandling and restocking costs are refunded or credited to the customer. The amount withheld for rehandling and restocking costs may be a percentage of the sales price determined by the average cost of rehandling and restocking returned merchandise during the previous accounting cycle.

(3) The price received for labor or services used in installing or applying the property sold.

(4) (A) The amount of any tax (not including, however, any manufacturers' or importers' excise tax, except as provided in subparagraph (B)) imposed by the United States upon or with respect to retail sales whether imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(B) The amount of manufacturers' or importers' excise tax imposed pursuant to Section 4091 of the Internal Revenue Code for which the purchaser certifies that he or she is entitled to either a direct refund or credit against his or her income tax for the federal excise tax paid.

(5) The amount of any tax imposed by any city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district within the State of California upon or with respect to retail sales of tangible personal property measured by a stated percentage of sales price or gross receipts whether imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(6) The amount of any tax imposed by any city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district within the State of California with respect to the storage, use or other consumption in such city, county, city and county, or rapid transit district of tangible personal property measured by a stated percentage of sales price or purchase price, whether such tax is imposed upon the retailer or the consumer.

(7) Separately stated charges for transportation from the retailer's place of business or other point from which shipment is made directly to the purchaser, but the exclusion shall not exceed a reasonable charge for transportation by facilities of the retailer or the cost to the retailer of transportation by other than facilities of the retailer. However, if the transportation is by facilities of the retailer, or the property is sold for a delivered price, this exclusion shall be applicable solely with respect to transportation which occurs after the sale of the property is made to the purchaser.

(8) Charges for transporting landfill from an excavation site to a site specified by the purchaser, either if the charge is separately stated and does not exceed a reasonable charge or if the entire consideration consists of payment for transportation.

(9) The amount of any motor vehicle, mobilehome, or commercial coach fee or tax imposed by and paid to the State of California that has been added to or is measured by a stated percentage of the sales or purchase price of a motor vehicle, mobilehome, or commercial coach.

For purposes of the sales tax, if the retailers establish to the satisfaction of the board that the sales tax has been added to the total amount of the sale price and has not been absorbed by them, the total amount of the sale price shall be deemed to be the amount received exclusive of the tax imposed. Section 1656.1 of the Civil Code shall apply in determining whether or not the retailers have absorbed the sales tax.

SEC. 5. Sections 2 and 4 of this bill incorporate amendments to Section 6011 and 6012 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, proposed by both this bill and Assembly Bill 884. Sections 2 and 4 of this bill shall become operative only if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1989, (2) each bill amends the above sections of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after Assembly Bill 884, in which case the above sections of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Assembly Bill 884, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Sections 2 and 4 of this bill shall become operative, and Sections 1 and 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 7. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 90 days after the effective date of this act.

REGULAR SESSION

1988 RESOLUTION CHAPTERS

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 1

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 35—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, by amending Sections 1 and 4 of Article XI thereof, relating to county officers.

[Filed with Secretary of State January 20, 1988.]

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California at its 1987–88 Regular Session commencing on the first day of December 1986, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of the Legislature voting therefor, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that the Constitution of the State be amended as follows:

First—That Section 1 of Article XI thereof is amended to read:

SEC. 1. (a) The State is divided into counties which are legal subdivisions of the State. The Legislature shall prescribe uniform procedure for county formation, consolidation, and boundary change. Formation or consolidation requires approval by a majority of electors voting on the question in each affected county. A boundary change requires approval by the governing body of each affected county. No county seat shall be removed unless two-thirds of the qualified electors of the county, voting on the proposition at a general election, shall vote in favor of such removal. A proposition of removal shall not be submitted in the same county more than once in four years.

(b) The Legislature shall provide for county powers, an elected county sheriff, an elected district attorney, an elected assessor, and an elected governing body in each county. Except as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 4 of this article, each governing body shall prescribe by ordinance the compensation of its members, but the ordinance prescribing such compensation shall be subject to referendum. The Legislature or the governing body may provide for other officers whose compensation shall be prescribed by the governing body. The governing body shall provide for the number, compensation, tenure, and appointment of employees.

Second—That Section 4 of Article XI thereof is amended to read:

SEC. 4. County charters shall provide for:

(a) A governing body of 5 or more members, elected (1) by district or, (2) at large, or (3) at large, with a requirement that they reside in a district. Charter counties are subject to statutes that relate to apportioning population of governing body districts.

(b) The compensation, terms, and removal of members of the governing body. If a county charter provides for the Legislature to prescribe the salary of the governing body, such compensation shall be prescribed by the governing body by ordinance.

(c) An elected sheriff, an elected district attorney, an elected assessor, other officers, their election or appointment, compensation, terms and removal.

(d) The performance of functions required by statute.

(e) The powers and duties of governing bodies and all other county officers, and for consolidation and segregation of county officers, and for the manner of filling all vacancies occurring therein.

(f) The fixing and regulation by governing bodies, by ordinance, of the appointment and number of assistants, deputies, clerks, attachés, and other persons to be employed, and for the prescribing and regulating by such bodies of the powers, duties, qualifications, and compensation of such persons, the times at which, and terms for which they shall be appointed, and the manner of their appointment and removal.

(g) Whenever any county has framed and adopted a charter, and the same shall have been approved by the Legislature as herein provided, the general laws adopted by the Legislature in pursuance of Section 1(b) of this article, shall, as to such county, be superseded by said charter as to matters for which, under this section it is competent to make provision in such charter, and for which provision is made therein, except as herein otherwise expressly provided.

(h) Charter counties shall have all the powers that are provided by this Constitution or by statute for counties.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 2

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 61—Relative to Rural Crime Prevention Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State February 1, 1988.]

WHEREAS, It has come to the attention of the Legislature that February 1988 is designated as Rural Crime Prevention Month, and it is appropriate at this time that the California Rural Crime Prevention Task Force be extended the special honor and commendations of the people of California in recognition of its many contributions to the citizens of California; and

WHEREAS, It is the duty of government, private industry, and the citizens of California to assist in protecting themselves and others from crime; and

WHEREAS, Crime prevention programs implemented at the local level inspire citizens to actively participate; and

WHEREAS, Private industry, governmental agencies, law enforcement organizations, agricultural organizations, and the citizens of California have joined in cooperation and sponsorship with the California Rural Crime Prevention Task Force to recognize California's fourth annual Rural Crime Prevention Month in February 1988; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature designates February 1988 as Rural Crime Prevention Month, commends the California Rural Crime Prevention Task Force, and encourages the people of California to support this worthwhile effort; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the California Rural Crime Prevention Task Force.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 3

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 21—Relative to health care.

[Filed with Secretary of State February 2, 1988.]

WHEREAS, There is state and federal jurisdiction over employee welfare plans which provide health benefits pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA); and

WHEREAS, The Employee Retirement Income Security Act's preemption of state control over self-insured plans in areas such as mandated benefit packages and continuation of coverage hampers solutions to uncompensated care problems at the state level; and

WHEREAS, Information is sparse regarding the impact of self-insured plans on the delivery of health care in the United States; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to authorize and provide funding for a study by the General Accounting Office, to analyze health care policy and delivery systems for the purpose of guiding the Congress of the United States and state legislatures in the enactment of health care legislation; and be it further

Resolved, That the study consider all of the following:

(a) The effect of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act's preemption of state regulation of self-insured plans.

(b) The effect of the cost shift from the federal government to state governments and private payers.

(c) Causes of inflation of health care costs.

(d) The role of the federal and state governments in the health care area; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California requests the National Conference of State Legislatures to urge Congress to make changes in the ERISA preemption in order to allow the state to address adequately the issue of uncompensated care; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Governor of the State of California to request the National Conference of Governors to urge Congress to make changes in the ERISA preemption in order to allow the states to address adequately the issue of uncompensated care; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the Governor of the State of California, and to the National Conference of State Legislatures.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 4

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 79—Relative to the Leon Raymond Hubbard, Jr. Institute.

[Filed with Secretary of State February 5, 1988.]

WHEREAS, During his lifetime, successful businessman and civic leader Leon "Lee" Raymond Hubbard, Jr. made significant contributions to the City of San Diego; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Hubbard served as a member of the San Diego City Council from 1973 to 1977, the last year of which he served as Deputy Mayor of San Diego; and

WHEREAS, He served as Director of the San Diego Rescue Mission and the San Diego Chapter of the Lions Club; as trustee for the Mercy Hospital and Medical Center, the Children's Hospital and Health Center, and the San Diego Museum of Art, as Commissioner of the Mayor's Crime Commission, and was also active in the Boys and Girls Aid Society, the Metro Y.M.C.A., the San Diego Chamber of Commerce, the National Conference of Christians and Jews, the San Diego Symphony, the San Diego Navy League, and was a Life Member of the Reuben H. Fleet Space Theatre; and

WHEREAS, He was named "Mr. San Diego" by the San Diego Rotary Club in 1982, in recognition of his political, business, and community achievements, and in the same year served as Chairperson of the President's Advisory Committee to the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, a federal advisory committee on pensions; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Hubbard was an avid sportsman, having a great interest in fishing; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Director of the Department of Fish and Game is requested to name the San Diego Marine Research Hatchery, upon its establishment by the California Ocean Resources Enhancement and Hatchery Program, the Leon Raymond Hubbard, Jr. Institute; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Fish and Game determine the cost of erecting appropriate plaques and markers and, upon receiving donations from private sources covering the costs of furnishing and erecting those plaques and markers, erect them at the institute; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of the Department of Fish and Game.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 5

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 18—Relative to national monetary policy.

[Filed with Secretary of State February 5, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, A sound, stable monetary system is vital to a free nation to protect the economic and political well-being and liberty of its citizens; and

WHEREAS, The present monetary system administered by the federal reserve was established to (1) end the prior "boom and bust" cycles of the United States economy, (2) stabilize the currency, (3) end farm foreclosures, and (4) provide for expansion of the money supply when needed; and

WHEREAS, Past history indicates that the federal reserve has failed to achieve the objectives laid down when it was established in that, under that monetary system, our states and our people have suffered (1) recurring recession cycles, (2) a loss of 90 percent of the purchasing power of the dollar, and (3) farm foreclosures of thousands per week during the Great Depression of the 1930's; and

WHEREAS, No other issue affects our states and our people as directly, in that labor, farmers, and business are absolutely dependent on the nation's monetary system; and

WHEREAS, The Congress enacted the Federal Banking Agency Audit Act in 1978, which required the Comptroller General to audit the Federal Reserve Board and federal reserve banks; and

WHEREAS, The Federal Banking Agency Audit Act was instituted as a result of a federal study and congressional oversight hearings which discovered significant inadequacies in the operation of federal banking agencies; and

WHEREAS, The Federal Banking Agency Audit Act prohibited the Comptroller General from auditing Federal Reserve deliberations, decisions, or actions on monetary policy matters; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to amend federal law to require the Comptroller General to annually audit the federal reserve's conduct of the nation's monetary policy, including the efficacy with which that policy has been and is conducted with regard to achieving the purposes for which the monetary system was established; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature recommends that the audit include, but not be limited to: (1) deliberations, decisions, or actions on monetary policy matters, including discount window operations, reserves of member banks, securities credit, interest on deposits, and open market operations; and (2) transactions made under the direction of the Federal Open Market Committee; and the Legislature also recommends that the results of the audit be transmitted to the appropriate oversight committees of the Congress; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 6

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 44—Relative to commercial whaling.

[Filed with Secretary of State February 17, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, Commercial whaling is responsible for the dangerous decline of many species of whales, such as blue, gray, humpback, and right, as well as many other endangered species; and

WHEREAS, In 1982 the International Whaling Commission passed a moratorium banning commercial whaling effective January 1, 1986; and

WHEREAS, Some countries may aggressively continue commercial whaling, often under the guise of scientific research; and

WHEREAS, There are alternate methods of studying whales—benign techniques - such as photo identification, aerial counts, nonintrusive observations, and radio telemetry, which can provide necessary data on whales without harm; and

WHEREAS, Without exception, every product derived from whales can now be synthesized or obtained from other materials; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the California Legislature respectfully memorializes the Congress and the President of the United States to enforce existing laws, specifically the Packwood-Magnuson Act and the Pelly Amendment, on countries that continue to pursue commercial whaling on any level or that endanger whales and their environment in the name of "scientific research;" and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to each member of the International Whaling Commission, to the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, to the Chairperson of the National Marine Fisheries Service, to the Chairperson of the Senate Committees on Commerce, State, and Justice, and to related committees of United States Senate, and to the Chairman of the House of Representatives Committee on Merchant Marines and Fisheries.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 7

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 46—Relative to community aircraft noise impacts.

[Filed with Secretary of State February 17, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Aircraft noise has become one of the most serious threats to airport capacity, airport access, and a deregulated airline industry; and

WHEREAS, While technology has dramatically reduced noise at its source, it has not made aircraft generally capable of nonintrusive "acceptable interruptions," and for that reason technology alone cannot be relied on to solve the aircraft noise problem; and

WHEREAS, Aircraft noise problems are not exclusively related to jet aircraft, but include all types of aircraft manufactured here and abroad; and

WHEREAS, Though there is an established mechanism to certify aircraft noise performance, there is no similar mechanism available to inform aircraft operators and pilots as to how to best operate an aircraft from the point of view of noise, and that lack renders airport "fly quietly" and similar programs of limited value; and

WHEREAS, Although aircraft operators have adopted various approaches to flight procedures intended to reduce aircraft noise on a systemwide basis, including: (1) employment of Air Transport Association or National Business Aircraft Association procedures; (2) establishment, in consultation with an aircraft manufacturer, of unique procedures for a particular airport or aircraft or series of aircraft; and (3) development, in consultation with an airport proprietor, of noise abatement procedures, the effectiveness of these procedures has been limited by their generic nature; and

WHEREAS, Sufficient information is not yet available from which it can be determined whether there can be established for any given aircraft an optimum noise reduction flight profile which is consistent with the safe operation of that aircraft; and

WHEREAS, Those parties most likely to be able to determine such optimum noise reduction flight profiles are the engine and airframe manufacturers; and

WHEREAS, There is an obvious regulatory gap in the federal aviation regulations in that the regulatory scheme now in place does not require engine and airframe manufacturers to determine optimum noise reduction flight profiles and publish them in the approved aircraft flight manual, which is the document most relied on by the pilot in the normal course of aircraft operations; and

WHEREAS, In the judgment of the California Legislature, reasonable and feasible methods to eliminate unnecessary decibels should be pursued by the Federal Aviation Administration to make aircraft and the airports that serve them more compatible with surrounding communities; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Federal Aviation Administration is requested to study the matters raised herein, and if it is determined that noise abatement benefits would accrue to those individuals and communities affected by aircraft noise, that the Federal Aviation Administration engage in rulemaking as follows:

(1) That for new aircraft not yet certificated and aircraft currently in production, Federal Aviation Regulations Parts 23 and 25 be amended to require aircraft manufacturers to determine aircraft-specific noise abatement flight procedures and make such procedures a part of the approved aircraft flight manual.

(2) That for aircraft no longer in production and if deemed economically worthwhile, the Federal Aviation Administration require aircraft manufacturers to amend approved aircraft flight manuals or with Federal Aviation Administration assistance publish in advisory circular or other appropriate form noise abatement flight procedures.

(3) That Federal Aviation Regulation Part 91 be amended to require the pilot to use approved aircraft noise abatement procedures when and where those procedures would reduce the noise impact on individuals and communities surrounding an airport.

(4) That Federal Aviation Regulation Part 141 be amended to include noise abatement flight procedures in approved flight school curriculums for all pilot certificates.

(5) That the Federal Aviation Administration require, as a part of biennial flight examinations, type ratings, or original pilot certificates, that airmen demonstrate their knowledge of and ability to comply with and apply noise abatement procedures contained in approved aircraft flight manuals or other documents referenced above.

(6) That to the extent the proposals above impose a financial hardship on engine and airframe manufacturers or the Federal Aviation Administration, funding for these programs be sought as a necessary and proper expenditure from the noise abatement mitigation portion of the Aviation Trust Fund; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Federal Aviation Administration.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 8

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 99—Relative to Cholesterol Management Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State February 17, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Heart disease is the nation's leading cause of death, exceeding all forms of cancer combined; and

WHEREAS, High blood cholesterol is one of the three major controllable risk factors for heart disease; and

WHEREAS, Heart disease is the leading cause of death, and in 1985 there were 69,046 deaths in California due to heart disease; and

WHEREAS, On an average day in 1985, 189 Californians died of heart disease; and

WHEREAS, Proper diet control, exercise and use of medications, when necessary, can help reduce excessive blood cholesterol; and

WHEREAS, Sutter Heart Institute at Sutter Memorial Hospital will conduct a regional screening program at 12 sites around northern California, with the intent to reach 100,000 participants; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the California Legislature designates the week of February 20 through February 28, 1988, as "Cholesterol Management Week" in California, and encourages cholesterol education and screening programs in local communities throughout the state; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly make copies of this resolution available for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 9

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 13—Relative to postrehabilitation residential care.

[Filed with Secretary of State February 17, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Millions of dollars are spent annually for the provision of important rehabilitation services to head trauma, spinal cord injury, and stroke victims; and

WHEREAS, Subsequent to the rendering of these services by rehabilitation facilities to a head trauma, spinal cord injury, or stroke victim, he or she returns to the community; and

WHEREAS, Such an individual often lacks an informed and caring support group, such as the family, thereby leading to a deterioration in his or her quality of life, which includes a failure to fully realize the benefits of previously provided rehabilitation services; and

WHEREAS, This result is not only costly in human terms, but in economic terms as well; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature requests the State Department of Social Services to study the feasibility of establishing a pilot project to examine the cost efficiency of creating residential care facilities or using existing facilities for head trauma, spinal cord injury, and stroke victims, which would be funded through department resources, or other funding sources that might be available; and be it further

Resolved, That the department report its findings to the Legislature on or before December 1, 1988; and be it further

Resolved, That this study include input from the Department of Rehabilitation, the State Department of Health Services, and the State Department of Mental Health since these departments also provide services to this population; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the State Director of Social Services.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 10

Senate Joint Resolution No. 33—Relative to Vietnamese political prisoners.

[Filed with Secretary of State February 23, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Almost 13 years have passed since the end of the Vietnam War, yet thousands of Vietnamese remain held as political prisoners separated from their families in the United States and other countries; and

WHEREAS, Of the estimated 6,000 political prisoners in Vietnamese reeducation camps living in concentration camp conditions, the Socialist Republic of Vietnam recently released 480 political prisoners; and

WHEREAS, These former prisoners only offense was to have former ties with the United States government or to have been members of the South Vietnamese government or the South Vietnamese Army who fought side by side with the United States during the Vietnam War; and

WHEREAS, The government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam has signed an agreement with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to assist in the reunification of families and has made a commitment to support resettlement of former prisoners abroad to rejoin families; and

WHEREAS, About 300,000 Vietnamese refugees have made their home in California and many are now United States citizens and are contributing members to their adopted country; and

WHEREAS, Many of the former political prisoners are husbands and fathers of former refugees and citizens living in the State of California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President, the Secretary of State, and Congress of the United States to work with the United Nations High Commissioner of Refugees for the immediate release of all political prisoners held as a result of their previous association with the government of South Vietnam prior to 1975, and to give former Vietnamese political prisoners first priority to come to the United States under the Orderly Departure Program to join their families here; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and the Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and the Mission of the Government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam at the United Nations in New York; and be it further

Resolved, That a suitably prepared copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Association of Former Vietnamese Political Prisoners, the United Vietnamese Community Council, and the Coalition of Vietnamese Nationalist Organizations in Northern California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 11

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 40—Relative to clandestine drug laboratories.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 4, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The illegal manufacturing of drugs has dramatically escalated in recent years; and

WHEREAS, One hundred clandestine drug labs were seized by law enforcement in California in 1983, with that number more than tripled in 1986; and

WHEREAS, The federal Drug Enforcement Agency reported a similar trend nationwide; and

WHEREAS, Chemicals combined in illegal drug manufacturing processes, particularly in methamphetamine labs, produce extremely hazardous substances and poisonous gases which permeate structures and contaminate the surrounding environment; and

WHEREAS, Illegal labs have been found in apartments, motel rooms, motorhomes, and other inhabitable dwellings; and

WHEREAS, Currently, no state or federal funding is made available for the immediate cleanup of the structures and surrounding environment contaminated by hazardous substances and spills produced by illegal drug manufacturing processes; and

WHEREAS, The lack of proper cleanup operations undertaken at the site of seized drug labs and the abandoned hazardous waste produced from those labs threaten the health of innocent tenants, homeowners, and landlords who may reinhabit apartments, motorhomes, garages, or other structures following only cursory cleanups of the structures and surrounding environment; and

WHEREAS, There is growing public demand for suppression of illegal drug activity, yet there is no financial support from federal or state government for cleaning up the extremely dangerous contamination at the site of every illegal drug lab seized; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That, in response to the public mandate for strict drug law enforcement, the Legislature of the State of California urges the President and Congress of the United States to make federal drug law enforcement funds available to match state funds to be used for the cleanup of hazardous substances produced by clandestine drug laboratories; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States and the presiding officer of each house of the Legislature, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the Director of the Federal Bureau of Justice Assistance.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 12

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 22—Relative to AIDS vaccine.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 8, 1988.]

WHEREAS, A rapidly spreading epidemic of Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) poses an unprecedented major public health crisis in the United States and threatens, directly or indirectly, the life and health of every person in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Human T-cell lymphotropic virus (HTLV-III), the causative agent of AIDS, remains in the body of an infected individual from 3 to 13 years, and thus is one of the most difficult diseases to trace and combat; and

WHEREAS, Nationally, between 1,000,000 and 1,500,000

Americans are estimated to have been exposed to the virus, and of those exposed, between 100,000 and 450,000 persons may be expected to develop AIDS within five years; and

WHEREAS, The average cost per patient in the treatment of AIDS until death is now one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000); and

WHEREAS, Although neither a cure nor a vaccine for AIDS presently exists, private industry has the capability to conduct the bioimmunologic research and genetic engineering of the viral components necessary for the development, production, and testing of the vaccine; and

WHEREAS, For a variety of reasons there has been a recent marked decrease in the willingness of pharmaceutical companies to engage in vaccine research, development, and manufacturing; and

WHEREAS, Inclusion of an AIDS vaccine in the national vaccine program will foster private research for the development of an AIDS vaccine; and

WHEREAS, An effective vaccine will virtually eliminate the risk of contracting AIDS; and

WHEREAS, Some recipients may have adverse side effects to even a properly manufactured vaccine, and individuals injured by the vaccine should be reasonably compensated without the necessity of establishing fault, provided the injury is shown to be causally related to vaccine administration; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, Memorialize the President and Congress of the United States to enact legislation amending the federal Public Health Services Act to: (1) add AIDS vaccine to the National Vaccine Program, when it is approved by the federal Food and Drug Administration, (2) fund the National Vaccine-Injury Compensation Trust Fund to compensate persons injured through AIDS vaccine administration, and (3) place a tax on vaccines, as determined by Congress, in order to provide funding for the National Vaccine-Injury Compensation Trust Fund; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative in the California Congressional delegation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 13

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 98—Relative to Women's History Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 8, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, American women of every class and ethnic background have participated in the founding and building of our nation and have played a critical role in shaping the economic, cultural, and social fabric of our society, not in the least of ways through their participation in the labor force, working both inside and outside of the home; and

WHEREAS, Women have been leaders in every movement for progressive social change, including their own suffragette movement, the fight for emancipation, the struggle to organize labor unions, and the civil rights movement; and

WHEREAS, Despite these contributions, the role of American women in history has been consistently overlooked and undervalued; and

WHEREAS, The celebration of Women's History Month will provide an opportunity for schools and communities to focus attention on the heritage of women's contributions to the United States and the State of California, and for students, in particular, to benefit from an awareness of these contributions; and

WHEREAS, Women's History Month will include International Women's Day, March 8, originally proclaimed in 1910 to recognize and commemorate the valuable contributions women have made to the labor movement in improving working conditions and thus bettering peoples' lives; and

WHEREAS, The observance of Women's History Week was begun by the Sonoma County Commission on the Status of Women in 1978, and has since been commemorated throughout the nation by schools, historians, and community groups; and

WHEREAS, Women's History Month will be not only a call to acknowledge the outstanding American women whose names we know, but also a call to pay homage to the many women who have anonymously shaped our collective past; and

WHEREAS, The strides made by our foremothers have enabled contemporary women and men to make tomorrow's history by advocating an end to physical and sexual assault, discrimination in the work force, and the feminization of poverty, and by advocating the full participation of women in the political arena, the provision of adequate child care, and equal access to all of the opportunities this nation has to offer; and

WHEREAS, Women's History Month will recognize the success of women and highlight their accomplishments, considering the changing roles and conditions of women in California, and will counter barriers to full and equal participation in California life for women; and

WHEREAS, Because of the significance and scope of women's roles in making history and shaping American culture and society, it is important that the State of California recognize the many contributions of women; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California takes pleasure in joining with the Sonoma County Commission on the Status of Women and the California Commission on the Status of Women in honoring the contributions of women, and designate the month of March 1988 as Women's History Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges all Californians to join in the celebration of International Women's Day on March 8, 1988; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Chair of the Sonoma County Commission on the Status of Women and to the Chair of the California Commission on the Status of Women for distribution to appropriate organizations.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 14

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 106—Relative to Earthquake Preparedness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 21, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, Most seismologists predict that there will be a major earthquake somewhere in California in the coming decades; and

WHEREAS, A primary means for minimizing the risks of injury and loss of life and damage to property is to make the public aware of all possible earthquake safety measures and precautions; and

WHEREAS, A cooperative effort between the Legislature and the state and local governments will be most effective in developing that public awareness; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims the month of April 1988 as California Earthquake Preparedness Month and urges all Californians to engage in appropriate earthquake safety-related activities during that month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor, the Seismic Safety Commission, the Office of Emergency Services, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles, and the City Council of the City of Los Angeles.

---

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 15

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 58—Relative to the Seismic Safety Commission.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 30, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Earth scientists forecast that there will be a major earthquake somewhere in California in coming decades; and

WHEREAS, With each passing year, the potential for an earthquake-caused catastrophe increases as the time lengthens since the last great earthquake, and earthquakes can cause and have caused enormous loss of life, injury, and destruction of property in California; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature and the Governor, recognizing that these effects can be lessened, enacted the California Earthquake Hazards Reduction Act establishing the goal to reduce statewide earthquake hazards significantly by the end of the century; and

WHEREAS, The act established a coordinated program to be known as the California Earthquake Hazards Reduction Program to implement activities to meet this goal by preparing and annually revising a five-year program; and

WHEREAS, The first five-year program, California at Risk: Reducing Earthquake Hazards 1987–1992, prepared in September 1986, specified initiatives to be carried out during the first year by the following agencies: Seismic Safety Commission, Office of Emergency Services, Office of the State Architect, Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, Department of Insurance, Department of Finance, Department of Conservation, Department of Housing and Community Development, Building Standards Commission, and Department of Education; and

WHEREAS, The success in reducing earthquake hazards requires the full and active support of all of these state agencies; and

WHEREAS, One and one-half years have passed since the five-year program was issued; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Members request each of the agencies named above to review their progress in carrying out the initiatives detailed in California at Risk: Reducing Earthquake Hazards 1987–1992 and prepare a progress report describing needed specific measurable objectives and resources to carry out the initiatives according to the schedule in California at Risk; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this report be transmitted by April 15, 1988, to the Governor, the President pro Tempore of the Senate, the Speaker of the Assembly, the Chairs of the Senate Committees on Toxics and Public Safety Management, Budget and Fiscal Review, and Appropriations, the Assembly Committees on Local Government, Governmental Organization, and Ways and Means, and the Joint Committee on Fire, Police, Emergency, and Disaster Services; and be it further

Resolved, That the Members further request each of the agencies named above to prepare an annual progress report and submit it to each of the offices named above on the first Monday of each year until the year 2000; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Insurance and the Office of Emergency Services shall report on the problems caused after the

Whittier earthquake for those persons who held earthquake insurance policies and were unable to receive disaster aid because of their insurance coverage, and make recommendations for preventing the recurrence of similar problems; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor and to each of the agencies named in the fifth "WHEREAS" clause above.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 16

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 84—Relative to Pacific Rim Awareness Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 30, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Citizens of California are cognizant of the powerful role Pacific Rim countries play upon the world economy and in particular the California economy; and

WHEREAS, In this period of fluctuating economic growth, all avenues of investment must be explored to ensure a continued strong fiscal outlook and international business presence for the State of California; and

WHEREAS, It is vital that the business people of California become fully aware of the wealth of investment and trade opportunities that are available to them throughout the Pacific Rim; and

WHEREAS, Pacific Rim Awareness Week, in conjunction with Export Pacific '88, a conference-exhibition on Pacific Rim investment and trade opportunities, will help bridge gaps between California business people and the Pacific Rim by educating participants on how to successfully access those trade opportunities; and

WHEREAS, Various events during Pacific Rim Awareness Week are aimed at acquainting large companies with the Pacific Rim, and introducing to small business people the investment possibilities open to them in the Pacific Rim; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California declares the week commencing Monday April 4, 1988, as Pacific Rim Awareness Week; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the coordinators of Pacific Rim Awareness Week.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 17

Senate Joint Resolution No. 27—Relative to child support.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 30, 1988.]

WHEREAS, From 1971 through 1987, California permitted orders for the modification or revocation of child support to be retroactive, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 4700 of the Civil Code, which stated in part, "... to the date of the filing of the notice of motion or order to show cause therefor, or to any subsequent date."; and

WHEREAS, Since October 21, 1986, the federal law (42 U.S.C. Sec. 666(9) (C)) has permitted retroactivity only to the date of notice; and

WHEREAS, In 1987 California, in order to continue to receive federal funding for its child support collection activities, amended Section 4700 of the Civil Code to comply with this federal mandate; this amendment was operative January 1, 1988; and

WHEREAS, Divorce is relegating thousands of children to a diminished standard of living and often even to a poverty-level existence; and

WHEREAS, Children residing with their mothers alone are almost five times as likely to be subsisting below the poverty level as are children in two-parent families; and

WHEREAS, Despite legislative efforts to combat the problem, competent data suggest that in California child support awards remain inadequate; and

WHEREAS, For example, the January-March 1986 Quarterly Report of the Child Support Management System, submitted to the Governor by the California Department of Social Services, shows that the average monthly child support payment collected by district attorney's offices to be $159.74 ($151.22 in AFDC cases and $167.69 in non-AFDC cases); and

WHEREAS, The California Legislature believes that 42 U.S.C. Section 666(9) (C) is potentially injurious to custodial parents and their children in that under its provisions they are prohibited from receiving upward modifications in child support at the earliest possible date; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of California is concerned that the federal statute will encourage some obligor parents to avoid process servers and thereby avoid increased child support payments; and

WHEREAS, This situation would be harmful not only to supported families but also to society as a whole, which must assume the burden of supporting children whose parents do not fulfill their obligations; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to permit the individual states to determine the appropriate date for retroactive modification or revocation of child support orders; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 18

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 87—Relative to the San Joaquin River Parkway.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 30, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The San Joaquin River Committee, formed in 1985, is working toward development of a San Joaquin River Parkway along the San Joaquin River in Fresno and Madera Counties between Friant Dam and Highway 99; and

WHEREAS, The San Joaquin River Parkway project will be a major asset to the community and the region, as well as helping to protect the area's fish and wildlife resources; and

WHEREAS, The American River Parkway, which can be pointed to as an example to be followed, is a tremendous asset to Sacramento and surrounding communities and provides recreation opportunities to six million people each year; and

WHEREAS, The San Joaquin River Parkway will make the river accessible to the public and will secure the valuable resources of the river for use by future generations; and

WHEREAS, The San Joaquin River Parkway will improve the quality of life of the residents of Fresno and Madera Counties and surrounding communities by providing recreational opportunities, open space, and wildlife preserves, as well as be a major asset to the state as a whole; and

WHEREAS, The realization of the San Joaquin River Parkway will take maximum cooperation between local entities, citizens groups, and the state and federal governments; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the San Joaquin River Committee, the City of Fresno, the County of Fresno, the County of Madera, other affected local agencies, and appropriate state and federal agencies are requested to devote effort to develop and implement a plan and management program to create and maintain the San Joaquin River Parkway; and be it further

Resolved, That the above entities explore and identify all possible sources of funding for the project, including state park and recreation bond funds, local park and recreation grants, the California Environmental License Plate Fund, state wildlife conservation funds, and appropriate federal funds; and be it further

Resolved, That the Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the San Joaquin River Committee, the City of Fresno, the County of Fresno, the County of Madera, and other appropriate local, state, and federal agencies.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 19

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 58—Relative to a memorial to women Vietnam veterans.

[Filed with Secretary of State March 30, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, Over 10,000 military and civilian women served our country in a brave and selfless manner in Vietnam; and

WHEREAS, Their unique, valuable, and extremely laudable contributions to American efforts during that conflict have gone unnoticed by many people in our nation; and

WHEREAS, The nonprofit Vietnam Women's Memorial Project, Inc., was founded in 1984 to educate the public about women's military service in Vietnam and to construct a memorial honoring their accomplishments; and

WHEREAS, The proposed placement of the memorial - a lifesize statue - on the grounds of the nation's Vietnam Veterans Memorial received the support of the Secretary of the Interior and the Director of the National Park Service after extensive consultation with veterans and other interested groups; and

WHEREAS, Support has also come from the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Vietnam Veterans of America, the American Nurses Association, Disabled American Veterans, National League of Nursing, Jewish War Veterans, American Federation of Nurse & Health Professionals/AFT and others; and

WHEREAS, Despite the extent of this support for the memorial, the federal Fine Arts Commission has disapproved placement of the statue because of its belief that the existing statue depicting three male soldiers also represents the contributions of women, and that if a women veterans statue were allowed, it would be necessary to add other statues such as one for the Canine Corps; and

WHEREAS, A women veterans memorial is most appropriate to show this country's appreciation and recognition for their bravery, honor, and unparalleled commitment to service; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the California Legislature respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to support and enact legislation for the erection of an appropriate memorial statue

honoring women Vietnam veterans on the grounds of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the federal Fine Arts Commission.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 20

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 42—Relative to the California Law Revision Commission.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 6, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The California Law Revision Commission is authorized to study only topics set forth in the calendar contained in its report to the Governor and the Legislature, which are thereafter approved for its study by concurrent resolution of the Legislature, and topics which have been referred to the commission for the study by concurrent resolution of the Legislature; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That, pursuant to Section 8293 of the Government Code, the Legislature refers to the California Law Revision Commission for its study the topic of whether the law relating to the payment and the shifting of attorneys' fees between litigants should be revised; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the California Law Revision Commission.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 21

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 66—Relative to California Poets in the Schools.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 6, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, California Poets in the Schools began in 1964 at San Francisco State University as the Pegasus Project, placing poets in classrooms in the San Francisco Bay area to educate children about the literary arts through both the reading and writing of poetry; and

WHEREAS, In the 1970's, California Poets in the Schools became a statewide program, today serving schools in 27 counties from Humboldt to San Diego, and has introduced half a million students to creative writing by CPITS poets; and

published writers who have been thoroughly trained in the art of teaching poetry to children, and hail from diverse cultural and ethnic heritages and from all walks of life, and serve as living models of commitment to imaginative language and creativity and are thus ideally suited to sharing the insight of artists with students; and

WHEREAS, California Poets in the Schools is the largest writers-in-schools program in the nation, is one of the only artists-in-schools programs administered by practicing artists, is community-based, and provides poets that reflect each community's mores and values, whether serving populations that are urban, minority, suburban or rural; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That California Poets in the Schools be commended for its endeavor to provide students with language as a living tool to unearth and give voice to the subtle feelings and fears that pervade young people; for affirming the value of the creative process; for assisting them in the cultivation of sensitivity and intellectual discipline; for sharing the cultural diversity of California; for encouraging students to experience their own humanity and its expression through the imagination; for fostering an appreciation of self-expression; and for nurturing that intimate voice of the individual and the overlooked qualities of the heart; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Arts Council be urged to continue to fund California Poets in the Schools at the highest level possible, commensurate with its budget and the funding needs of other arts programs, and continue to act as an advocate for the program before other funding agencies and sources such as the National Endowment for the Arts; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the directors of California Poets in the Schools, the California Arts Council, and The National Endowment for the Arts.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 22

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 78—Relative to nongovernmental associations for accreditation of postsecondary educational institutions.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 6, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The California state government has increasingly turned to nongovernmental accrediting associations for assistance in assuring and increasing the quality of educational programs offered by public, independent, and private postsecondary institutions; and

WHEREAS, Nongovernmental accrediting associations have been given increasing responsibility to monitor independent and private institutions to assure their compliance with minimum standards for consumer protection, educational quality, and financial stability; and

WHEREAS, California relies upon accrediting associations to identify institutions eligible to participate in state and federally funded student assistance programs; and

WHEREAS, California policy relies upon accrediting associations to identify both (1) institutions which offer professional training programs of sufficient quality that they can be relied on in the licensure of practitioners and (2) teacher education programs which are considered to be of sufficient quality to merit review by the State Commission on Teacher Credentialing; and

WHEREAS, Accrediting associations are expected to adopt policies and practices which are responsive to the public interest and consistent with public policy; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the California Postsecondary Education Commission is requested to conduct a study of the operations and procedures of accrediting associations which accredit postsecondary institutions operating pursuant to either Section 94310.1 or subdivision (c) of Section 94311 of the Education Code. This study shall consider, but not be limited to, the following issues:

(1) What are the purposes of nongovernmental accreditation, as stated by each accrediting association.

(2) What are the state's responsibilities in the licensure and oversight of postsecondary institutions which operate in California? Which, if any, of these responsibilities has been delegated to nongovernmental accreditation associations? Should the state assume any or all of the responsibilities currently delegated to nongovernmental accrediting associations?

(3) What criteria should be used by the state to assess the capacity of the accrediting associations to act in the public interest and consistent with public policy?

(4) Is the current level of state monitoring of nongovernmental accrediting associations effective, and if not, how should the monitoring be strengthened?

(5) What is the process by which members of the accrediting commission are selected? Does this process provide a mechanism for the involvement of faculty, administrators, and public representatives in the selection of accreditation commissioners?

(6) How are the operations of each accrediting association funded?

(7) What issues are considered during the public sessions of the meetings of each accreditation association? What issues are considered during the executive sessions of these meetings? To what extent is the public business of the accrediting association conducted in public; and be it further

Resolved, That the Executive Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission, in the preparation of this study, shall establish an advisory committee composed of, but not necessarily limited to, representatives of California institutions accredited by the National Home Study Council, by the National Association of Trade and Technical Schools, by the Association of Independent Schools and Colleges, and by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges. The advisory committee shall assist in the identification of issues to be included in this study and shall have the opportunity to review and comment on a preliminary draft of the commission's report; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Postsecondary Education Commission shall complete the study prior to February 15, 1989, and transmit the results to the education policy committee of the Assembly and of the Senate and the budget committee of the Assembly and of the Senate; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the California Postsecondary Education Commission.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 23

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 83—Relative to Kurt Waldheim.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 11, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The International Historians' Commission concluded that Austrian President Kurt Waldheim had intimate knowledge of Nazi atrocities; and

WHEREAS, The commission specifically reported that despite his strong denials, Waldheim was "unquestionably" a member of the Nazi Student Federation; and

WHEREAS, Waldheim's assertion, repeated as late as January 28, 1988, that he had no idea of the fate awaiting the deportation of Greek Jews was labeled by the commission as "unbelievable"; and

WHEREAS, Although Waldheim denied in writing that he had served in an army unit linked with war crimes against partisans operating in the Balkans and with the deportation of Greek Jews, the commission found "... there is enough evidence to show that the Army in general, and Army Group E (in which Waldheim served) in particular, was involved in the deportation of Jews ..."; and

WHEREAS, Despite Waldheim's claim that it "would have been suicide" to resist orders, the commission reported that "latest research has turned up no example of" a soldier being punished for "refusing to take part in the murder of civilians" and cited two concrete examples of successful resistance by German officers in Greece; and

WHEREAS, The commission stated that Waldheim "repeatedly assisted in connection with illegal actions and thereby facilitated their execution"; and

WHEREAS, The victims of these illegal actions were tens of thousands of Greeks, Italians, and Yugoslavs, both Christians and Jews; and

WHEREAS, Despite Waldheim's claim that "knowledge is not a crime," the commission, citing the 1946 Nuremberg ruling on passive participation in war crimes, stated, "In general a certain degree of guilt can be incurred by the mere knowledge of human rights violations at one's own post, if the person in question -- through a lack of strength or courage -- fails in his human duty to intervene against injustice"; and

WHEREAS, The United States Department of State, in a most extraordinary decision, placed a Head of State on its Watch List, thereby denying Kurt Waldheim admission to this country; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the California State Legislature calls upon Kurt Waldheim, President of Austria, to resign his position; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to Kurt Waldheim and to the Chancellor of Austria.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 24

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 105—Relative to Holocaust Memorial Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1988.]

WHEREAS, More than 40 years have passed since the tragic events which we now call the Holocaust transpired in which the dictatorship of Nazi Germany murdered six million Jews as part of a systematic program of genocide; and

WHEREAS, The Holocaust was a tragedy of proportions the world had never before witnessed; and

WHEREAS, We must be reminded of the reality of the Holocaust's horrors so they will never be repeated; and

WHEREAS, The United States Holocaust Memorial Council has designated the week of April 10 through April 16, 1988, as Holocaust Memorial Week-Days of Rememberance for Victims of the Holocaust; and

WHEREAS, April 14, 1988, is Yom HaSho'ah, and it has been designated internationally as a day of rememberance for victims of the Holocaust; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the week of April 10 through April 16, 1988, is proclaimed as California Holocaust Memorial Week, and that Californians are urged to observe appropriately these Days of Rememberance for Victims of the Holocaust; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 25

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 33—Relative to imported roses.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Roses from countries such as Colombia, Mexico, the Netherlands, and Israel are much cheaper than the domestically grown blooms because those governments subsidize their rose industries; and

WHEREAS, Local growers cannot compete with goods subsidized by a foreign government; and

WHEREAS, Importers of fresh cut roses now pay a United States tariff equal to 8 percent of the value of the roses, growers sending their blooms to the European Economic Community must pay a tariff in the summer equal to 24 percent of the value of the roses and related shipping costs, and the tariff in the winter is 17 percent; and

WHEREAS, The higher tariffs in Europe have created a "one-way street" that heads straight to the United States; and

WHEREAS, Clearly we are effectively barred from using the European Economic Community as a marketplace for United States grown merchandise; and

WHEREAS, Foreign blooms now comprise 30 percent of the United States rose market, and, from 1985 to 1986, imports increased 24 percent to 215 million roses; and

WHEREAS, If this trend is not curbed by legislation, we will see many casualties among the rose growers of this country, including those of California; and,

WHEREAS, It is in the best interest of the United States and the European Economic Community to have equal tariff schedules on roses in order to promote open markets and international trade; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the United States Trade Representative to actively pursue negotiations with the European Economic Community to reduce their tariff schedules on imported roses to those consistent with the United States; and be it further

Resolved, That barring substantial tariff schedule reductions on roses by the European Economic Community, the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the President to support and the Congress of the United States to enact HR 750, also known as the Rose Equity Bill, in the interest of preserving the American rose growers' market; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the United States Trade Representative, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 26

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 79—Relative to emergency drought relief.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, California's beef production industry ranks as the second largest agricultural commodity statewide, with sales amounting to $1.4 billion annually; and

WHEREAS, The California sheep, lamb, and wool industry ranks second nationally, with an annual cash value exceeding $63 million; and

WHEREAS, California is experiencing sustained drought conditions which have existed since last fall; and

WHEREAS, Significant areas of the state have received inadequate winter moisture, with some areas receiving as low as 41 percent of normal rainfall; and

WHEREAS, These drought conditions have forced cattle and sheep producers to supplement pasture feed with more expensive nonpasture feedstuffs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the California Legislature respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to direct the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service in the United States Department of Agriculture to act expeditiously in implementing its emergency livestock feed program and other applicable disaster relief programs to provide relief to California cattle and sheep producers experiencing drought conditions; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the Secretary of Agriculture, and to the Administrator of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 27

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 96—Relative to John Muir.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 18, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, John Muir was the founding father of the conservation efforts which resulted in our national park system, which today has grown to almost 80 billion acres; and

WHEREAS, He began his conservation efforts in the 1880s when the social consciousness of America concentrated on the Industrial Revolution and its expansionist philosophies which would have led to the devastation of the natural environment; and

WHEREAS, He popularized the concept of conservation and land use and was instrumental in changing the direction of this country toward socially beneficial goals which resulted in the United States becoming a leading force that worked on behalf of global unity and the preservation of the environment; and

WHEREAS, He was cofounder and lifetime president of the Sierra Club, a private, nonprofit organization that acts as an advocate on environmental issues and is known worldwide; and

WHEREAS, John Muir was an outstanding figure in the history of the United States and of California and was subsequently named Greatest Californian by the California Historical Society in 1976; and

WHEREAS, He was an accomplished author whose writings about wildlands and wildlife are still widely read and treasured; and

WHEREAS, He is honored by more geographical namesakes than any other person in the State of California; and

WHEREAS, Despite his death 70 years ago, John Muir still holds a preeminent place in the hearts and minds of many Californians; and

WHEREAS, Generations of Americans have reveled in the beauty and magnificence of national parks such as Yosemite, Sequoia, the Kings Canyon, the Grand Canyon, and Petrified Forest, all of which were set aside at the urging of Muir; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That April 21, 1988, is hereby proclaimed by the Legislature as John Muir Day; and be it further

Resolved, That the Governor is requested to make a similar proclamation; and be it further

Resolved, That this measure be adopted with urgency as this April 21st marks the 150th anniversary of the birth of John Muir who was born in 1838 on that date; and be it further

Resolved, That April 21st of every year after this resolution is enacted be designated as a commemorative holiday to observe the importance that an ecologically sound natural environment plays in the quality of life of us all and indeed the future of our own existence; and be it further

Resolved, That the observance of John Muir Day emphasize John

Muir's significant contribution to the fostering of such an awareness and the indelible mark left on California and the world by him; and be it further

Resolved, That, in their observance, public schools endeavor to include special studies in their curriculum and public agencies providing services to the public endeavor to include special programs in their activities to deal with the contributions of John Muir; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 28

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 95—Relative to Voter Registration Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 18, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The exercise of the franchise is not only a right, but an obligation, of the citizenry of our democratic society; and

WHEREAS, Only by registering to vote can a citizen exercise the right, and fulfill the obligation, of making his or her voice heard at an election; and

WHEREAS, When a large portion of the voting age public fails to vote, the fundamental principle of democratic participation in government is undermined; and

WHEREAS, One of the greatest challenges facing our society is the transferrance to our young people of an appreciation for our democratic system of government; and

WHEREAS, On June 7, 1988, Californians will go to the polls to select candidates for President of the United States, as well as representatives to state, local, and national levels of government; and

WHEREAS, Secretary of State March Fong Eu and Superintendent of Public Instruction Bill Honig are sponsoring "You've Got the Power. Register and Vote Week" in California schools during the week of April 18, 1988; and

WHEREAS, "You've Got the Power. Register and Vote Week" will include activities to encourage students at all grade levels to talk and think about democracy—and then do something about it by (1) registering to vote if they turn 18 on or before election day, (2) pledging to register to vote once they turn 18, and (3) registering their teachers, parents, and family members to vote; and

WHEREAS, 1988 marks only the 5th time since 1971, when the 26th Amendment extended the right to vote to 18-20 year olds, that high school seniors will be able to cast their votes for President; and

WHEREAS, Voter turnout of 18-20 year olds is the lowest of any age group; and

WHEREAS, "You've Got the Power. Register and Vote Week" in the schools will involve teachers, parents, and students at all grade levels in activities to encourage understanding and appreciation of the underlying ideals and principles of a free and democratic society; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the California Legislature hereby proclaims the week of April 18, 1988, as "You've Got the Power. Register and Vote Week"; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Legislature supports "You've Got the Power. Register and Vote Week" in California schools, and encourages all school officials, election officials, parents, teachers, and students to participate in the week's activities; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Legislature urges the Secretary of State and all election officials to encourage voter registration by the eligible California citizens during "You've Got the Power. Register and Vote Week"; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Secretary of State, and to each county clerk.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 29

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 27—Relative to Jewish citizens of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 18, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The right to travel freely is a fundamental human right, and Jewish citizens of the Soviet Union deserve fair consideration of their visa applications and freedom from harassment and threats for seeking to exercise that right; and

WHEREAS, It has come to the attention of the Legislature of the State of California that, despite the Soviet Union's laudable recent releases of some notable political prisoners, many more persons are still imprisoned for their political beliefs, and that approximately 400,000 Jews who seek to emigrate are denied that basic human right by the Soviet Union which in January allowed only 98 Jewish refuseniks to emigrate; and

WHEREAS, Soviet citizens have suffered harassment and injuries when they have demonstrated for their right to travel, the release of political prisoners, and other vital human rights; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics to free all of its political prisoners, to allow the emigration of all of its citizens who duly apply for that right, and to end the harassment of Soviet citizens who demonstrate for their rights; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges the President of the United States and other federal officials and Members of Congress to refrain from publicly or privately praising the Soviet Union for its "glasnost" policy that has permitted only a few dissidents and refuseniks to go free until the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics takes substantial and permanent steps to free all of its political prisoners, allow the emigration of all of its citizens who duly apply for that right, and end the harassment of Soviet citizens who demonstrate for their rights; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges the President of the United States and other federal officials and Members of Congress to use all appropriate diplomatic channels in every meeting, contact, or communication between American and Soviet officials to press Soviet authorities to take the actions urged by this resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President, Vice President, and Secretary of State of the United States, to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the Ambassador to the United States from the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, and to the Consul General of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics headquartered in San Francisco.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 30

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 120—Relative to proclaiming Southeast Asia Genocide Remembrance Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 21, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The Genocide which is occurring in the Southeast Asian countries of Cambodia, Vietnam, and Laos following their fall to Communist forces in April 1975 is a human tragedy of immense proportions; and

WHEREAS, After the fall of Cambodia, millions of Cambodians were forcibly taken from their homes and put in concentration camps set up by the Khmer Rouge; and

WHEREAS, The Khmer Rouge executed all former government officials, military personnel, civil servants, professionals, and other educated persons; and

WHEREAS, Millions of Cambodians died of starvation in these concentration camps; and

WHEREAS, After the fall of South Vietnam to the Communists in 1975, the Communists began to methodically execute former government officials, civil servants, and military personnel; and

WHEREAS, Tens of thousands of Vietnamese patriots have been executed since 1975; and

WHEREAS, The Communist government of Laos is reportedly conducting chemical warfare against indigenous Hmong tribesmen; and

WHEREAS, The Surgeon General of the United States Department of the Army conducted an exhaustive study which confirmed the chemical warfare being conducted by the Communist government of Laos; and

WHEREAS, Amnesty International has determined that between 1.2 million and 2.5 million Cambodian, Vietnamese, and Laotian people have perished in this genocide since 1975; and

WHEREAS, The Southeast Asia Genocide is continuing today in these countries, as evidenced by the thousands of refugees fleeing each month; and

WHEREAS, The world must be made aware of the terrible reality of the Southeast Asia Genocide so that it will be stopped; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the week of April 24 through April 30, 1988, is hereby proclaimed Southeast Asia Genocide Remembrance Week; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges all Californians to learn more about the Southeast Asia Genocide and to participate in the activities of Southeast Asia Genocide Remembrance Week; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 31

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 64—Relative to immigration.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 28, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The Immigration and Reform and Control Act (IRCA), which brought the most sweeping change in United States immigration laws for the last 30 years, was signed into law on November 6, 1986; and

WHEREAS, The act has two major provisions: sanctions against employers who knowingly hire undocumented workers; and legalization of undocumented residents who can establish continuous residency in the United States since 1982 and satisfy a number of other eligibility requirements; and

WHEREAS, Under the act, people who have arrived in the United States before January 1, 1982, and have lived here continuously since then have until May 4, 1988, to apply for legal residence, except that agricultural workers have an extra six months to apply for legal residence; and

WHEREAS, Even though over 900,000 persons are expected to apply for legalization, the Immigration and Naturalization Service estimates at least 1.7 million to be eligible legalized aliens residing in California; and

WHEREAS, Limited public information has hampered the application of many who are qualified to apply and has provided little information for those eligible to make informed and wise decisions; and

WHEREAS, With the application deadline of May 4, 1988, approaching, and with a significant majority of eligible persons having yet to apply for legalization, many persons may not get the chance to establish a place for themselves in our country of refuge and opportunity; and

WHEREAS, Failure to provide an adequate legalization program may perpetuate the existence of a large underclass of undocumented immigrants and continue to exact enormous social costs associated with such a large number of second class residents in our state and nation; and

WHEREAS, California will receive federal funds to pay for certain services for this population based on the number of eligible legalized aliens who apply; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress and the President of the United States to enact legislation to extend the legalization deadline to May 1989; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the Senate and House Judiciary Committees.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 32

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 109—Relative to the National Day of Prayer.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Deep religious beliefs inspired many of the early settlers of our country, providing them with the strength, character, convictions, and faith necessary to withstand great hardship and danger in this new and rugged land; and

WHEREAS, These shared beliefs helped forge a sense of common purpose among the widely dispersed colonies—a sense of community which laid the foundation for the spirit of nationhood that was to develop in later decades; and

WHEREAS, Whether at the landing of our forebears in New England and Virginia, the ordeal of the Revolutionary War, the stormy days of binding the 13 Colonies into one country, the Civil War, or other moments of trial over the years, we have turned to God in prayer for His help; and

WHEREAS, As we crossed and settled a continent, built a nation in freedom, and endured war and critical struggles to become the leader of the Free World and a sentinel of liberty, we repeatedly turned to our maker for strength and guidance in achieving the awesome tasks before us; and

WHEREAS, The attitudes we have as people united together, caring for each other, committed to freedom, holding high the dignity of each person, we practice through prayer which we derived from our religious heritage; and

WHEREAS, Since April 17, 1952, the recognition of a particular day each year as a National Day of Prayer has become part of the traditions we have as a people and is a day on which we are invited to turn to God in prayer and meditation in places of worship, in groups, and as individuals; and

WHEREAS, Ronald Reagan, President of the United States of America, has proclaimed Thursday, May 5, 1988, as "National Day of Prayer"; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby recognizes Thursday, May 5, 1988, as "National Day of Prayer" and calls upon the people of California, each according to his or her faith, to gather together on that day in homes and places of worship to pray for unity of the hearts of all mankind; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 33

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 143—Relative to Barrier Awareness Day 1988.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Four out of five Americans will experience some form of disability during their lifetime, and there are currently 37 million Americans who are disabled; and

WHEREAS, The problems that exist for individuals with disabilities are of concern not only to them, but also to their families and schools, and affect the economics of their communities and the nation; and

WHEREAS, All people must direct their efforts toward protecting and improving the quality of life for disabled individuals; and

WHEREAS, A person who is not disabled cannot conceive of the full implication of living with a disability, and this lack of understanding negatively impacts disabled people in all facets of their lives; and

WHEREAS, Historically, it has been far too easy for the general population to ignore the problems of disabled people with regard to barriers, and the National Barrier Awareness Foundation was established to increase the public's awareness of the architectural, attitudinal, and communicative barriers encountered daily by disabled individuals; and

WHEREAS, First held nationwide on May 7, 1986, Barrier Awareness Day was developed to bring the public to the realization that people with disabilities must be allowed to compete on equal terms in our society; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That May 7, 1988, be recognized as "Barrier Awareness Day 1988" in the State of California, and that all citizens are urged to take part in programs and activities scheduled for that day and to use the information and sensitivity they gain to remove barriers impeding disabled individuals and to work to improve the quality of life for persons with disabilities in our community; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the National Barrier Awareness Foundation.

---

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 34

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 144—Relative to Mexican-American Cultural Awareness Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State April 29, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, California has strong cultural and historical ties to Mexico dating back hundreds of years; indeed, Mexican influences on California's culture can be seen throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, A significant percentage of Californians are of Mexican descent; and

WHEREAS, California retains strong economic, political, and cultural ties to its sister country; and

WHEREAS, May 5th is the anniversary of Mexico's victorious battle over the French in 1862 and memorializes the defeat of French intervention which led to true Mexican independence; and

WHEREAS, Cinco de Mayo has always been a day of celebration for the Mexican-American and Chicano, representing unity, strength, and pride of heritage; and

WHEREAS, The Mexican-American citizen has contributed much to the development of this state and country; and

WHEREAS, Cinco de Mayo celebrations are planned in communities all over California reaffirming ties between cultures; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the week of May 2, 1988, is designated Mexican-American Cultural Awareness Week in the State of California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 35

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 104—Relative to California Small Business Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 6, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The President of the United States of America, by proclamation, will designate the week of May 8 through May 14, 1988, as Small Business Week in special tribute to the outstanding contributions of small businesswomen and businessmen of this nation; and

WHEREAS, Two million of the nation's 14 million small businesses are located in California, employing 10 million people; and

WHEREAS, These small businesses provide industrial innovation which gives California its competitive edge; and

WHEREAS, The entrepreneurship and productivity of small businesswomen and businessmen constitute the core of the American free enterprise system; and

WHEREAS, Small businesses provide the vast majority of the job opportunities for women, youth, minorities, and displaced workers; and

WHEREAS, The economic health of California depends, in large measure, on the prospects of the state's small businesses; and

WHEREAS, California's small business community has a tremendous potential to promote our state's economic and cultural role in the emerging Pacific Rim trade relationships; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Governor is hereby requested, in conjunction with the national designation thereof, to proclaim the week of May 8 through May 14, 1988, as California Small Business Week, in special recognition of the contributions which small businesswomen and businessmen have made, and will continue to make, to our state; and be it further this resolution to the Governor of the State of California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 36

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 116—Relative to proclaiming Travel and Tourism Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 6, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, California has been and continues to be the premier travel destination in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Californians proudly and warmly welcome millions of domestic and international visitors annually; and

WHEREAS, As people all over the world become aware of the outstanding cultural, historical, and recreational resources available throughout the state, tourism is becoming an increasingly important aspect of the daily lives of people everywhere; and

WHEREAS, The great diversity of the Golden State's unique attractions and exciting destinations truly offer something for everyone; and

WHEREAS, The multiethnic and colorful heritage of the people of California presents a rich variety of backgrounds and culture in communities throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, Travel and tourism contribute significantly to California's economic life, generating over $35 billion and supporting nearly 600,000 jobs; and

WHEREAS, Local tourism development and promotion have become increasingly important to our state's rural regions; and

WHEREAS, Over 6 million international visitors came to California in 1987; and

WHEREAS, Due to the decreased value of the dollar compared to foreign currencies, and California's place as a gateway to the Pacific Rim visitor, a major increase in international visitors from both Europe and Asia is expected in 1988; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature proclaimed May to be Travel and Tourism Month in 1981, and the Governor has issued a similar proclamation every year since; and

WHEREAS, Local convention and visitor bureaus, local chambers of commerce, the California Travel Industry Association, and the federal government, which together represent the public and private sectors of the tourism industry, historically recognize the month of May as a time to celebrate travel and tourism's important economic and social contributions to this country; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby designates May 1988 as "Travel and Tourism Month"; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges the Office of Tourism to work with local convention and visitor bureaus, local chambers of commerce, any other local tourism promotion agencies or groups, and the California Travel Industry Association to designate and promote appropriate events, ceremonies, and activities commemorating Travel and Tourism Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature further urges the Office of Tourism to coordinate its Travel and Tourism Month activities with any federal government designation of a Travel and Tourism Month or National Tourism Week; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the Office of Tourism.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 37

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 142—Relative to Toxic Awareness Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 6, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Four years ago, on May 14, 1984, a hazardous waste spill occurred in the City of Santa Barbara, California; and

WHEREAS, This hazardous waste spill resulted in the evacuation of 3,500 people from the center of the city; and

WHEREAS, The training and preparedness for the emergency response to this disaster averted tragedy; and

WHEREAS, This hazardous waste accident has been the largest metropolitan hazardous waste accident in recent California history; and

WHEREAS, The transportation of hazardous materials through densely populated areas is a daily and frequent occurrence; and

WHEREAS, The transporters of these materials do not always employ all possible safety precautions; and

WHEREAS, A hazardous material accident could result in injuries or deaths, or in the evacuation, of the residents of the cities through which the transporters of hazardous materials must pass; and

WHEREAS, Maintaining public health and safety is a prime responsibility of the State of California; and

WHEREAS, Hazardous wastes and hazardous materials are a threat to the health and safety of the citizens of California; and

WHEREAS, Despite the care taken by producers and transporters of hazardous materials, accidents and unforeseen dangers may occur; and

WHEREAS, It is critical that all individuals be aware of the dangers of hazardous materials and the safety precautions necessitated by the use of these materials; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims the week of May 8, 1988, as "Toxic Awareness Week," to commemorate the toxic spill of May 14, 1984, in the City of Santa Barbara; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges all Californians to reflect upon the role that hazardous materials play in the state's daily domestic and commercial existence; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature hereby requests the Department of Transportation to place, during the week of May 8, 1988, a sign at the site of the toxic spill of May 14, 1984, in the City of Santa Barbara to identify the location of the spill; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature encourages California's public schools and businesses to sponsor programs to inform students and employees of those accident prevention measures that should be taken when dealing with hazardous materials and proper emergency responses to hazardous waste accidents; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Mayor and City Council of the City of Santa Barbara and to the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Barbara.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 38

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 146—Relative to Mother's Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 10, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Mother's Day is recognized as one of the most important days of the year because it is observed for those women who gave us life, encouraged our development and continue to support us throughout the years; and

WHEREAS, The emblem of Mother's Day, through the universal language and beauty of a flower, a Carnation, is expressive of an ideal and is associated throughout the world with the name "Mother"; and

WHEREAS, The establishment of Mother's Day can most aptly be credited to Anna M. Jarvis, daughter of Anna Reeves Jarvis, for being most directly responsible for organizing the observance in the United States; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby recognizes the second Sunday of May 1988 as Mother's Day, and urges all Californians to engage in appropriate observances and activities therefor; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the authors for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 39

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 53—Relative to the William Z. Hegy Memorial Highway.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 11, 1988.]

WHEREAS, It was with the most profound sorrow and deep sense of loss that word was received of the passing of William Z. Hegy, a distinguished California resident and devoted civic leader; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Hegy, a native of Plunkett, Saskatchewan, Canada, graduated from Stanford University with a degree in civil engineering, and went to work for the State of California in 1936 as an engineering aide; and

WHEREAS, He served as the State Maintenance Engineer prior to transferring to Eureka, where he served as District 1 Director for the Department of Transportation; and

WHEREAS, Following an illustrious career of state service, he retired in 1978; and

WHEREAS, He was a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers and was active in the community as President of the Rotary Club of Eureka and of the United Way of Eureka, as Commissioner of the Boy Scouts of America, as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Humboldt Area Foundation, as Interim Manager, President, and Board Member for KEET-TV, as 1960-61 Foreman of the Humboldt County Grand Jury, as a charter member of the Humboldt North Coast Land Trust, and as a member of the Trinidad Chamber of Commerce; and

WHEREAS, He was active in St. Alban's Episcopal Church of Arcata, where he served in many capacities, including vestryman and senior warden; and

WHEREAS, William Z. Hegy is survived by his wife, Elizabeth; and his children, David, William, and Julie; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the portion of State Highway Route 101 from the Little River near the City of Trinidad to the Patrick's Point Undercrossing is hereby officially designated the "William Z. Hegy Memorial Highway"; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation be directed to determine the cost of and to erect appropriate plaques and markers consistent with the signing requirements for the state highway system, showing this official designation, upon receiving donations from private sources covering the cost of erecting those plaques and markers; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the Director of Transportation, the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, and the City Council of the City of Trinidad; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Elizabeth Hegy.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 40

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 140—Relative to California Foster Care Awareness Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 13, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Thousands of children throughout California are provided service through the foster care system; and

WHEREAS, These children have been seriously traumatized by abuse or neglect or have been abandoned; and

WHEREAS, Children who cannot live with their birth families require the skill, nurturing, and commitment of caring foster parents; and

WHEREAS, Foster parents make a vital contribution to their communities and to the state; and

WHEREAS, Public and private agencies throughout California sponsor foster parent recognition events during the month of May; and

WHEREAS, There is a critical shortage of foster homes for infants, school age children, and teenagers; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the month of May 1988 be recognized as "California Foster Care Awareness Month" and that all citizens are urged to give recognition and appreciation to foster parents for the caring they provide; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Family Finders Coalition.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 41

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 68—Relative to the United States-Canada Free Trade Agreement.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 13, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The United States and Canada are united by geography, history, and culture, and have the largest bilateral trade and economic relationship in the world; and

WHEREAS, Two-way trade between Canada and the United States totaled $125 billion in 1986, with $6.5 billion of that total representing trade between California and Canada; and

WHEREAS, Canadian direct investment in California is valued at $5.6 billion and provides approximately 30,000 jobs in this state, and

California companies have major investments in Canada which are likewise important to the Canadian economy; and

WHEREAS, Canada is California's second largest export market, with approximately 36 percent of California exports to Canada being in the high technology sector, and California's agricultural sector deriving major economic benefits from export sales to Canada of fruits, vegetables, wines, and related products; and

WHEREAS, It is in the best interest of California-Canadian trade relations to support liberalized trade arrangements and greater market access; and

WHEREAS, In 1985, President Reagan and Canadian Prime Minister Brian Mulroney met in Quebec, Canada to discuss the reduction and elimination of existing barriers in bilateral trade, and negotiators for Canada and the United States subsequently reached a consensus on a framework for a comprehensive bilateral free trade agreement in October, 1987; and

WHEREAS, President Reagan signed a free trade agreement with Canada on January 2, 1988, which would eliminate trade barriers in goods and services, facilitate fair competition, liberalize conditions for investments, and establish effective procedures for the joint administration of the agreement and the resolution of disputes; and

WHEREAS, Congress, through implementing legislation, must approve the agreement before it can take effect; and

WHEREAS, Although the agreement does not cover all industries important to the California economy, including the film, publishing, and record industries, a free trade agreement between Canada and the United States would, nevertheless, be advantageous to California and would, among other benefits, encourage greater trade and investment opportunities and ensure the continued supply of Canadian gas into the California market; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress and President of the United States to give favorable and prompt consideration to legislation implementing the United States-Canada Free Trade Agreement; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the United States Secretary of Commerce, Secretary of State, Secretary of the Treasury, the United States Trade Representative, the Chairman of the House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee, the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 42

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 73—Relative to Teacher Appreciation Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 17, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, A good education is vital to an individual's chances of obtaining economic security and leading a full, rich, and rewarding life; and

WHEREAS, Educating our children and youth properly and well is essential to California's social, cultural, political, and economic well-being; and

WHEREAS, California's elementary and secondary schools, community colleges, and public university systems endeavor to provide every student with the best possible education; and

WHEREAS, California's teachers, instructors, professors, and other educators demonstrate high levels of caring for their students and commitment to providing every student with a quality education; and

WHEREAS, Our educators routinely overcome great disadvantages, including insufficient resources, overcrowded classrooms, and stressful conditions; and

WHEREAS, Many teachers and other education professionals regularly devote many hours of their own time to preparing lessons, grading papers, and helping individual students; and

WHEREAS, California should provide its teachers with salaries and resources commensurate with the responsibilities they bear and the contribution they make to society; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the week of May 8 through May 14, 1988, is proclaimed to be "Teacher Appreciation Week"; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate and Assembly of the State of California commend and express their appreciation to the state's teachers, instructors, professors, and other educators for providing their many services to our children, youth, and adult students; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate and Assembly of the State of California urge all the people of the state to recognize and appreciate the contributions of California's professional educators.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 43

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 80—Relative to the 225th anniversary of the presence of Filipinos in the continental United States.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 17, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, It has been documented by the Filipino American National Historical Society that Filipinos were the first Asians to settle permanently in the continental United States; and

WHEREAS, These first Filipinos arrived in Louisiana as early as 1763 by way of the Manila galleon trade between the Philippines and other Spanish colonies; and

WHEREAS, Marina Espina, a researcher from New Orleans, has found that these Filipino seamen, who were forced to be crew members in the Spanish Colonial Philippines, jumped ship in New Orleans and escaped into the Louisiana bayous, where they were known as "Manilamen" or "Filipino Cajuns"; and

WHEREAS, These Filipinos established three villages in the bayous and fought on the side of the United States against the British during the War of 1812; and

WHEREAS, Today, citizens and residents of Filipino descent total more than 520,000 in the State of California, more than one million throughout the United States, and constitute the largest of all Asian Pacific American ethnic groups; and

WHEREAS, 1988 will mark the 225th anniversary of the presence of Filipinos in the continental United States, and the Filipino American National Historical Society has designated 1988 as a year-long national observance of the anniversary and urges Filipino Americans across the country to join in celebrating this historic occasion; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby expresses its support for the activities of the Filipino American National Historical Society; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges all Californians to take this opportunity to learn more about Filipino Americans and the many contributions they have made to all segments of our society and to join in activities celebrating this anniversary; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate shall transmit copies of this resolution to the Filipino American National Historical Society and to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 44

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 63—Relative to federal highway funding.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 26, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The federal gasoline tax was increased by Congress from five cents per gallon to nine cents per gallon in 1982; and

WHEREAS, The federal gasoline tax, unless extended by Congress, will be automatically repealed by operation of law in 1993; and

WHEREAS, Less than 100 percent of federal gasoline taxes paid by Californians are returned to California by the federal government for expenditure on California transportation projects; and

WHEREAS, The emphasis by the federal government on completing the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways has resulted in insufficient funding for noninterstate highway projects of high priority to California; and

WHEREAS, With the completion of the interstate system, it would be appropriate to reduce or eliminate the federal government's role in highway funding since the highways themselves are owned, maintained, and operated by the states; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to reduce or eliminate the federal funding role in highway construction programs after 1993, along with the federal gas tax, in order to focus resources available to each state on high priority transportation needs identified at the state and local level; and be it further.

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 45

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 87—Relative to creating the Joint Legislative Committee on the 1992 California Quincentennial of the Voyages of Christopher Columbus.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 27, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The Legislature finds and declares that the year of 1992, being the 500th anniversary of the first voyage of Christopher Columbus, is a time for all citizens of the State of California to pause and reflect upon the significance of the events which have occurred in the Americas since Christopher Columbus first encountered the lands and peoples of the Western Hemisphere; and

WHEREAS, As a result of the voyages of the Genovese navigator and his crew, that historic encounter occurred between the peoples and civilizations of two hemispheres, enabling new nations and cultures to grow and flourish from roots cultivated and developed in Spain, Italy, and Portugal, and by the indigenous peoples of the Americas, as well as later arrivals from Africa, Asia, and Oceania, which added to the diversity and richness of this hemisphere; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature finds and declares that much preparation needs to be accomplished in order to make the events leading up to the quincentennial, as well as the events and celebrations of the year 1992, as rich and significant as they are deserving, and in order to preserve the people's rights to shape and participate in these events and celebrations, it is imperative that the Legislature, in cooperation with the private sector and the cultural and educational institutions of the State of California, take an active and guiding role in developing the means and resources necessary to plan and implement those events; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Joint Legislative Committee on the 1992 California Quincentennial of the Voyages of Christopher Columbus, to also be known as the 1992 California Quincentennial Committee, is hereby created and is authorized and directed to do all of the following:

(a) Develop goals and objectives relative to any and all events occurring within the State of California which commemorate, celebrate, or memorialize the voyages of Christopher Columbus and the impact of those encounters on the history, culture, art, and architecture of the State of California.

(b) Encourage the participation of the citizens of the State of California in activities fostering cultural enrichment, social purpose, and economic opportunity within the context of the quincentennial celebration.

(c) Coordinate the role that any state agency, board, commission, or educational institution, including the Legislature, shall play in achieving the goals set forth in this resolution.

(d) Develop any subsequent legislation necessary to carry out the goals and objectives set forth in this resolution.

(e) Seek the assistance of California citizens in achieving these goals by appointing any advisory or other committees which may become necessary to carry out the work of this committee.

(f) Seek any necessary aid, advice, concurrence, support, or other assistance of similar legislative bodies or state agencies in other states or nations.

(g) Plan and implement events, exchanges, expositions, exhibitions, productions, or other public events or occurrences which further the purposes or goals of the committee and of this resolution.

(h) Publish reports, brochures, notices, or any other forms of publication or public communication which outline the work of the committee or which commemorate or celebrate the quincentennial and the impact of or implications stemming from the voyages of Columbus; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee consists of 10 Members of the Senate, appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, and 10 Members of the Assembly, appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly; and that the chairperson shall be selected from among the members of the committee by the Joint Rules Committee, pursuant to Rule 36.7 of the Temporary Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee shall report to the Legislature as directed by the Joint Rules Committee, and shall be in existence from the date of the enactment of this measure until November 30, 1990; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee may seek assistance from other standing, joint, select, or special legislative committees in carrying out the duties of the committee; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee may do any and all other things necessary or convenient to enable it to fully and adequately exercise its powers, perform its duties, and accomplish the objects and purposes of this resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate Committee on Rules or the Assembly Committee on Rules may make such money available from the contingent funds under their direction and control as they deem necessary for expenses of the committee and its members. Any expenditure of money shall be made in compliance with policies set forth by the rules committee making the money available and shall be subject to the approval of that rules committee. The committee shall, within 15 calendar days following the adoption of this measure, present its budget to the Joint Rules Committee for its review and comment.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 46

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 78—Relative to "California Chiropractic Wellness Week."

[Filed with Secretary of State May 31, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Good physical health and a sense of wellness are essential elements of a productive and enjoyable life; and

WHEREAS, The chiropractic profession has, for several decades, helped Californians achieve and maintain good health through the use of the body's own restorative powers; and

WHEREAS, The chiropractic profession has improved the quality of life for California citizens through numerous achievements and advancements and these contributions are in the highest tradition of health care services; and

WHEREAS, Chiropractic care has benefited millions of California's citizens; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature recognizes the devoted care which doctors of chiropractic have bestowed upon their patients in the state; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature designates the week of June 11 through June 17, 1988, as "California Chiropractic Wellness Week";

and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to Dr. Jerilynn Kaibel, President of the California Chiropractic Association, and to the Chairperson of the Board of Chiropractic Examiners.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 47

Senate Joint Resolution No. 41—Relative to the National Estuaries Program.

[Filed with Secretary of State May 31, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The federal Water Quality Act of 1987 established the National Estuaries Program within the Environmental Protection Agency for the purpose of coordinating and developing individual plans for the clean up and management of distressed bays; and

WHEREAS, Each site designated to participate in the National Estuaries Program will be the subject of a unique management conference comprised of a panel of experts representing federal, state, and local agencies, elected officials, environmentalists, and industrial dischargers; and

WHEREAS, The management conference will produce a comprehensive conservation and management plan recommending actions to restore the water quality and marine environment of the bay and ensure its long-term protection, and, upon approval of the management plan, the bay will be eligible for federal implementation grants; and

WHEREAS, The Governor of California has officially nominated Santa Monica Bay as a candidate for the National Estuaries Program, and Santa Monica Bay was named a priority bay for inclusion in the program in the omnibus federal spending bill signed into law in December of 1987; and

WHEREAS, Santa Monica Bay is a natural resource of great importance for the State of California, providing significant economic and recreational benefits to the public; and

WHEREAS, The quality of Santa Monica Bay has deteriorated as a result of pollutant inputs from industrial and municipal sources and urban runoff, and high levels of PCBs and DDT have been discovered in sediment and fish tissue taken from Santa Monica Bay; and

WHEREAS, The extraordinary level of consumption of fish from Santa Monica Bay and the frequency of human contact with the waters of the bay indicates a dire need for a regional pollution control and abatement strategy; and

WHEREAS, The Evironmental Protection Agency will choose from among the nominated sites seeking inclusion in the National Estuaries Program and will make a selection of participants in the summer of 1988; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California memorializes the Environmental Protection Agency to select Santa Monica Bay for the National Estuaries Program in order to protect the beneficial uses of the bay for the California public; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature memorializes the Environmental Protection Agency to immediately convene the National Estuaries Program management conference for Santa Monica Bay in order to expedite the adoption of a strict management plan to prohibit future pollution of the bay, and to mitigate the current pollution at the earliest possible date; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 48

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 102—Relative to the Stagecoach Inn historical marker.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The original site of the Stagecoach Inn is a designated historical landmark; and

WHEREAS, The Stagecoach Inn was relocated from its original site to allow for the construction of the Ventura Freeway (State Highway Route 101); and

WHEREAS, The Conejo Valley Historical Society currently operates and maintains the Stagecoach Inn Museum at its current location at 51 South Ventu Park Road in Newbury Park; and

WHEREAS, It is the desire of the Conejo Valley Historical Society to place an historical marker and plaque at the intersection of Ventu Park Road and the Ventura Freeway to designate the original site of the Stagecoach Inn; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby requests the Department of Transportation to place an historical marker and plaque at the intersection of Ventu Park Road and the Ventura Freeway (State Highway Route 101) to designate the original site of the Stagecoach Inn; and be it further

Resolved, That the department be directed to determined the cost of erecting an appropriate marker and plaque showing the historical designation and, upon receiving donations from private sources covering that cost, to erect the marker and plaque; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of Transportation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 49

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 115—Relative to Public Lands Conservation and Recreation Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Publicly held lands represent nearly 50 percent of the total acreage of the State of California; and

WHEREAS, Public lands provide a wide variety of recreational opportunities for the citizens of this state; and

WHEREAS, These public lands must be properly managed and conserved in order to protect this resource for future generations; and

WHEREAS, Population projections for California indicate in excess of 30 million residents by the year 2000, many of whom will be seeking recreational experiences on public lands; and

WHEREAS, The average citizen of this state should be fully aware of the value of public lands and the need for a cooperative conservation effort to preserve this most valuable resource; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the month of June 1988 be declared Public Lands Conservation and Recreation Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature hereby encourages government land management agencies, special interest groups concerned with public lands, and the public at large to participate cooperatively during this month in programs aimed at heightening general awareness of the many recreational opportunities available on public lands and the role that individuals and groups can play in conserving and protecting the resource.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 50

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 119—Relative to a joint forest fire damage recovery effort in California.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1988.]

WHEREAS, During the summer and early fall of 1987, almost 800,000 acres of land were burned or affected by fire in the State of California, taking the lives of 10 firefighters and destroying 38 homes; and

WHEREAS, The fire burned 1.9 billion board feet of timber, enough to build homes for a city of the size of San Francisco; and

WHEREAS, A rehabilitation effort costing $150 million is needed over the next five years; and

WHEREAS, A massive rehabilitation and recovery effort known as OPERATION PHOENIX is underway to salvage, replant, and reforest the burned acres; and

WHEREAS, OPERATION PHOENIX is one of the largest cooperative programs ever undertaken in California by federal agencies, state agencies, and private organizations; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature extends its support to the sponsors of OPERATION PHOENIX, including the United States Forest Service, the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection, private industry, and forestry professionals, and encourages them in their forest fire rehabilitation and recovery efforts throughout the state; be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection and to the United States Forest Service.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 51

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 149—Relative to Better Hearing and Speech Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 1, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Hearing, speech, and language disorders constitute our nation's number one handicapping disability, affecting an estimated 500,000 individuals in California, alone and 22 million Americans nationally; and

WHEREAS, Most people with communicative problems can be helped medically, surgically, through hearing aids, or hearing-speech-language rehabilitation, but first must know that this help is available; and

WHEREAS, Better Hearing and Speech Month is an intensive annual effort sponsored by leading national hearing, speech, and language organizations and other civic groups to inform people about communicative disorders, to encourage those who suspect a problem to seek assistance, and to publicize the availability of service resources; and

WHEREAS, This campaign should help encourage and stimulate early detection, proper treatment, prevention, and greater understanding of hearing, speech and language impairments; now therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof, concurring, That the month of May 1988 be declared as Better Hearing and Speech Month.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 52

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 128—Relative to the creation of the Joint Legislative Committee on Tort Liability.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 2, 1988.]

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, as follows:

(1) The Joint Legislative Committee on Tort Liability is hereby created, authorized, and directed to ascertain, study, and analyze the facts relating to the need for revision of the law relating to tort liability and related insurance laws, including the rules governing liability for, and the amount of compensation or damages to be paid on account of, injury to, or death of, persons, or damage to, or destruction of, property, the manner and method of determination and payment thereof, court procedures relating thereto, and related matters. These may include liability arising from defective products, whether based on contract or tort, governmental liability, liability arising from malpractice, third-party liability arising from the working conditions of industrial employees, and liability arising from vehicle accidents.

(2) The joint committee shall consist of seven members of the Senate, appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, and seven members of the Assembly, appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly. The members shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing power and vacancies shall be filled by the appointing power. The chairperson and vice chairperson of the committee shall be appointed by the Joint Rules Committee from a member or members recommended by the Senate Committee on Rules and a member or members recommended by the Speaker of the Assembly.

(3) The committee and all advisory committees appointed pursuant to subdivision (b) of paragraph (5) are authorized to act during the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature, including any recess, until the end of the 1987–88 Regular Session.

(4) The committee and its members shall have and exercise all of the rights, duties, and powers conferred upon investigating committees and their members by the provisions of the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly as they are adopted and amended from time to time, which provisions are incorporated herein and made applicable to this committee and its members.

(5) The committee has the following additional powers and duties:

(a) If a consultant is not otherwise retained by the Joint Rules Committee or either house, to contract with a consultant and to employ those persons as may be necessary to assist the committee, subject to the approval of the Joint Rules Committee and any Committee on Rules that makes money available from its contingent funds, pursuant to paragraph (7), for the payment of the compensation of the particular consultant or employee.

(b) To appoint one or more advisory committees consisting of persons knowledgeable in the various areas being studied, and to assist the committee and staff. The advisory committees shall report directly to the joint committee.

(c) To make recommendations regarding changes in laws relating to tort liability and insurance.

(d) To contract with such other agencies, public or private, as it deems necessary for the rendition and affording of those services, facilities, and studies as will best assist the committee in carrying out the purposes for which it is created. The contract is subject to the approval of the Joint Rules Committee and any Committee on Rules that makes money available from its contingent funds, pursuant to paragraph (7), for those purposes.

(e) To cooperate with and secure the cooperation of county, city, city and county, and other local law enforcement agencies in investigating any matter within the scope of this resolution and to direct, with the approval of the Joint Rules Committee, the Senate Committee on Rules, and the Assembly Committee on Rules, the sheriff of any county to serve subpoenas, orders, and other process issued by the committee.

(f) To obtain, with the approval of the Joint Rules Committee, all necessary office space, equipment, and materials.

(g) To do any and all other things necessary or convenient to enable it fully and adequately to exercise its powers, perform its duties, and accomplish the objectives and purposes of this resolution.

(6) The consultant to the joint committee shall work with the committee and advisory committees, and shall provide assistance to the author of any bill or constitutional amendment.

(7) The Senate Committee on Rules or the Assembly Committee on Rules may make such money available from the contingent funds under the committee's direction and control as it deems necessary for expenses of the committee and its members. Any expenditure of money shall be made in compliance with policies set forth by the particular rules committee making the money available and shall be subject to the approval of that rules committee. The committee shall, within 15 calendar days following the adoption of this measure, present its budget to the Joint Rules Committee for its review and comment.

(8) The joint committee shall designate a chairperson for each advisory committee. In making this designation, the joint committee shall give consideration to the persons recommended by the advisory committee.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 53

Senate Joint Resolution No. 32—Relative to child care.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 7, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, Mothers are increasing their labor force participation; and

WHEREAS, Child care is key to maintaining a family's income but many families do not earn enough to pay for decent child care; and

WHEREAS, When child care help is provided, families can begin to move out of poverty; and

WHEREAS, Long waiting lists preclude eligible families from receiving child care help; and

WHEREAS, Quality child care is key to the future economic security of our nation; and

WHEREAS, The quality of child care must be improved; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to enact legislation to help states make child care more affordable for low- and moderate-income families, increase the number of child care facilities and the number of qualified day care staff available to all families, improve the quality of child care available to all families, and coordinate child care resources to preserve their efficient use; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 54

Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 56—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, by amending Section 16 of Article XVI thereof, relating to property taxation.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 8, 1988 ]

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California at its 1987–88 Regular Session commencing on the first day of December 1986, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of the Legislature voting therefor, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that the Constitution of the State be amended by amending Section 16 of Article XVI thereof, to read:

SEC. 16. All property in a redevelopment project established under the Community Redevelopment Law as now existing or hereafter amended, except publicly owned property not subject to taxation by reason of that ownership, shall be taxed in proportion to its value as provided in Section 1 of this article, and those taxes (the word "taxes" as used herein includes, but is not limited to, all levies on an ad valorem basis upon land or real property) shall be levied and collected as other taxes are levied and collected by the respective taxing agencies.

The Legislature may provide that any redevelopment plan may contain a provision that the taxes, if any, so levied upon the taxable property in a redevelopment project each year by or for the benefit of the State of California, any city, county, city and county, district, or other public corporation (hereinafter sometimes called "taxing agencies") after the effective date of the ordinance approving the redevelopment plan, shall be divided as follows:

(a) That portion of the taxes which would be produced by the rate upon which the tax is levied each year by or for each of those taxing agencies upon the total sum of the assessed value of the taxable property in the redevelopment project as shown upon the assessment roll used in connection with the taxation of that property by the taxing agency, last equalized prior to the effective date of the ordinance, shall be allocated to, and when collected shall be paid into, the funds of the respective taxing agencies as taxes by or for those taxing agencies on all other property are paid (for the purpose of allocating taxes levied by or for any taxing agency or agencies which did not include the territory in a redevelopment project on the effective date of the ordinance but to which that territory has been annexed or otherwise included after the ordinance's effective date, the assessment roll of the county last equalized on the effective date of that ordinance shall be used in determining the assessed valuation of the taxable property in the project on that effective date); and

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), that portion of the levied taxes each year in excess of that amount shall be allocated to and when collected shall be paid into a special fund of the redevelopment agency to pay the principal of and interest on loans, moneys advanced to, or indebtedness (whether funded, refunded, assumed or otherwise) incurred by the redevelopment agency to finance or refinance, in whole or in part, the redevelopment project. Unless and until the total assessed valuation of the taxable property in a redevelopment project exceeds the total assessed value of the taxable property in the project as shown by the last equalized assessment roll referred to in subdivision (a), all of the taxes levied and collected upon the taxable property in the redevelopment project shall be paid into the funds of the respective taxing agencies. When the loans, advances, and indebtedness, if any, and interest thereon, have been paid, then all moneys thereafter received from taxes upon the taxable property in the redevelopment project shall be paid into the funds of the respective taxing agencies as taxes on all other property are paid.

(c) That portion of the taxes identified in subdivision (b) which are attributable to a tax rate levied by a taxing agency for the purpose of producing revenues in an amount sufficient to make annual repayments of the principal of, and the interest on, any bonded indebtedness for the acquisition or improvement of real property shall be allocated to, and when collected shall be paid into, the fund of that taxing agency. This paragraph shall only apply to taxes levied to repay bonded indebtedness approved by the voters of the taxing agency on or after January 1, 1989.

The Legislature may also provide that in any redevelopment plan or in the proceedings for the advance of moneys, or making of loans, or the incurring of any indebtedness (whether funded, refunded, assumed, or otherwise) by the redevelopment agency to finance or refinance, in whole or in part, the redevelopment project, the portion of taxes identified in subdivision (b), exclusive of that portion identified in subdivision (c), may be irrevocably pledged for the payment of the principal of and interest on those loans, advances, or indebtedness.

It is intended by this section to empower any redevelopment agency, city, county, or city and county under any law authorized by this section to exercise the provisions hereof separately or in combination with powers granted by the same or any other law relative to redevelopment agencies. This section shall not affect any other law or laws relating to the same or a similar subject but is intended to authorize an alternative method of procedure governing the subject to which it refers.

The Legislature shall enact those laws as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of this section.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 57

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 110—Relative to declaring Dr. Aristides de Sousa Mendes do Amaral e Abranches an honorary citizen of California.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 8, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Dr. Aristides de Sousa Mendes do Amaral e Abranches, one of the greatest heroes of the Holocaust and a man whose courageous deeds have touched and inspired Californians, is richly deserving of official acknowledgment and commendation by the Legislature of the State of California; and

WHEREAS, Born in 1885, Dr. de Sousa Mendes was a member of a distinguished Portuguese family–his father was a Portuguese supreme court justice; and

WHEREAS, In 1940, Dr. de Sousa Mendes, a career diplomat, was serving as Portugal's consul-general in Bordeaux, France; and

WHEREAS, At that time, the Portuguese government instructed its consular representatives not to issue visas to those seeking temporary refuge in Portugal–in particular, the Portuguese government ordered its representatives not to issue visas to Jews; and

WHEREAS, Defying the orders of his government, Dr. de Sousa Mendes issued Portuguese visas to 10,000 Jews and to thousands of other refugees, thus saving those individuals from extermination by the Nazis; and

WHEREAS, Because of his courageous actions, Dr. de Sousa Mendes was recalled to Portugal and stripped of his diplomatic post, his mansion, and his family fortune; he died in poverty in 1954; and

WHEREAS, After a lengthy effort by his family, Dr. de Sousa Mendes was awarded a posthumous national medal of honor by the nation of Portugal; and

WHEREAS, Dr. de Sousa Mendes has not been forgotten by the nation of Israel, where he has been memorialized by the planting of a tree in his memory in the Garden of the Righteous, where heroes of the Holocaust are honored; and

WHEREAS, Israel has also honored Dr. de Sousa Mendes by awarding him the Yad Vashem Medal, which is given to those who acted during the Holocaust to save the lives of others; and

WHEREAS, Dr. de Sousa Mendes honored California by his presence here as the Portuguese consul in San Francisco during the 1920s, and two of his sons currently reside in California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate

thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California, in recognition of the heroic deeds of Dr. Aristides de Sousa Mendes do Amaral e Abranches and his period of residence in California, does hereby declare him to be an honorary citizen of the State of California; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges all Californians to learn about the magnificent accomplishments of Dr. de Sousa Mendes, who epitomized compassion and courage; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 58

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 154—Relative to Mental Health Month in California.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 8, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The Legislature is increasingly aware of the treatment and support needs of the mentally disordered in California; and

WHEREAS, The attitudes of the general public toward this segment of our population are often stigmatizing and punitive; and

WHEREAS, There is hope and treatment for people who suffer from severe mental disorders such as schizophrenia, depressions, and other illnesses, thanks to biomedical research; and

WHEREAS, Being mentally healthy is as important as being physically fit; and

WHEREAS, There is a continuing need for community understanding and support from the general public; and

WHEREAS, The California Coalition for Mental Health is helping patients, their families, and the public learn the facts about mental health and about the mentally disordered; and

WHEREAS, The California Coalition for Mental Health, in cooperation with other statewide groups and its own local chapters throughout the state, is developing a major campaign to change public attitudes toward mental disorders and encourage a more understanding and supportive climate for those who suffer from mental disorders; and

WHEREAS, Every year since 1953, May has been designated Mental Health Month in America; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby declares the month of May, Mental Health Month in California; and be it further

Resolved, That all citizens in California are encouraged to join the volunteers, staff, and supporters of the California Coalition for Mental Health and its local chapters in working for California's mental health during May and throughout the year; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the California Coalition for Mental Health.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 60

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 151—Relative to Latino AIDS Awareness Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 10, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, Acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) is the greatest health crisis of our time; and

WHEREAS, While Latinos represent 6 percent of the population, they represent 14 percent of the total AIDS cases; and

WHEREAS, Latino infants represent 23 percent of the total pediatric AIDS cases; and

WHEREAS, Latinos have been traditionally underserved for medical and social services; and

WHEREAS, Until recently, efforts to educate the Latino community in a biculturally and bilingually sensitive manner have not been mobilized; and

WHEREAS, Cultural and bilingual barriers, combined with other factors, contribute to the severity of AIDS within the Latino community; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby designates the week of May 29 to June 5, 1988, as Latino AIDS Awareness Week.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 61

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 62—Relative to child care services.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 22, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, After food, shelter, and taxes, child care is the fourth highest family expense and ranges anywhere from $250 to $500 per month per child; and

WHEREAS, California's subsidized child-care program only meets the needs of 7 percent of low-income working families who are eligible; and

WHEREAS, There are at least 1.2 million children in California who have working parents in need of some child care, yet our state can only accommodate a portion of this need; and

WHEREAS, Predictions show that within 10 years, the number of children under the age of six needing child care will increase by 50 percent; and

WHEREAS, The need for, and price of, child care will continue to rise; and

WHEREAS, Experimental programs have proven that low-income children who have been enrolled in high-quality child-care programs develop higher levels of self-esteem, grow up to be more confident, and become productive adults and are less dependent upon social programs; and

WHEREAS, Our congressional leaders have recognized the need for more affordable, better quality child care through House Bill 3660 and Senate Bill 1885, the Act for Better Child Care Services of 1987; and

WHEREAS, This act will provide $2.5 billion to help states supplement current child-care programs, resulting in $221 million for California; and

WHEREAS, The act will make funds available to increase the number of child-care openings, provide training and technical assistance to child-care providers, help local governments improve licensing standards, and help providers meet licensing standards; and

WHEREAS, The act has received bipartisan support and is supported by more than 150 national organizations; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully joins in support of House Bill 3660 and Senate Bill 1885, the Act for Better Child Care Services of 1987 and calls for its enactment; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative in the Congress of the United States.

---

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 62

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 122—Relative to State Highway Route 52.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 24, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, In 1979, realizing the importance of State Route 52, then-Assembly Member Jim Ellis formed a group, still active today, called "Citizens for 52," consisting of concerned citizens from along the entire proposed route, including 22 elected officials and because of the dedicated efforts of Senator Jim Ellis, Highway 52 is a reality; and

WHEREAS, Out of a genuine concern for public safety, the "Citizens for 52" committee, under the able leadership of cochairpersons M.J. Hegeness and E.T. (Woodie) Miller, dedicated untold time, energy, and thought throughout the arduous and often discouraging process to include Route 52 in the state transportation improvement program; and

WHEREAS, On January 30, 1980, the Citizens for 52 Committee made, in the words of one California Transportation Commissioner, "one of the best presentations ever made before the commission;" and

WHEREAS, Because of their dedication, persistence, self-sacrifice, intelligence, and confidence in our system of government, all California citizens will soon benefit from the completion of State Highway Route 52; and

WHEREAS, It is just such citizen efforts that have made the State of California the great state it is today; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the California State Bridge No. 57-923, which is 384 feet long and 148 feet wide, in the City of San Diego, is hereby officially designated the Senator Jim Ellis Bridge; and be it further

Resolved, That the California State Bridge Number 57-968G, the east to north connector of the State Highway Route 15/52 interchange, in the City of San Diego, is hereby officially designated the Citizens for 52 Bridge; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation be directed to determine the cost of erecting appropriate plaques and markers, consistent with signing requirements for the state highway system, showing this official designation and, upon receiving donations from private sources covering that cost, to erect those plaques and markers; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of Transportation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 63

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 9—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, by amending Section 8 of Article V thereof, relating to the Governor.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 28, 1988 ]

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California at its 1987–88 Regular Session commencing on the first day of December 1986, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of the Legislature voting therefor, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that the Constitution of the State be amended by amending Section 8 of Article V thereof, to read:

SEC. 8. (a) Subject to application procedures provided by statute, the Governor, on conditions the Governor deems proper, may grant a reprieve, pardon, and commutation, after sentence, except in case of impeachment. The Governor shall report to the Legislature each reprieve, pardon, and commutation granted, stating the pertinent facts and the reasons for granting it. The Governor may not grant a pardon or commutation to a person twice convicted of a felony except on recommendation of the Supreme Court, 4 judges concurring.

(b) No decision of the parole authority of this state with respect to the granting, denial, revocation, or suspension of parole of a person sentenced to an indeterminate term upon conviction of murder shall become effective for a period of 30 days, during which the Governor may review the decision subject to procedures provided by statute. The Governor may only affirm, modify, or reverse the decision of the parole authority on the basis of the same factors which the parole authority is required to consider. The Governor shall report to the Legislature each parole decision affirmed, modified, or reversed, stating the pertinent facts and reasons for the action.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 64

Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 1—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, by amending the second paragraph of subdivision (a) of, by amending subdivision (i) of, and by adding a third paragraph to subdivision (a) of, Section 2 of Article XIII A thereof, relating to property taxation.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 28, 1988 ]

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California at its 1987–88 Regular Session commencing on the first day of December 1986, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of the Legislature voting therefor, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that the Constitution of the State be amended as follows:

First—That the second paragraph of subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A thereof is amended to read:

However, the Legislature may provide that under appropriate circumstances and pursuant to definitions and procedures established by the Legislature, any person over the age of 55 years who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII and any implementing legislation may transfer the base year value of the property entitled to exemption, with the adjustments authorized by subdivision (b), to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value located within the same county and purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale of the original property. For purposes of this section, "any person over the age of 55 years" includes a married couple one member of which is over the age of 55 years. For purposes of this section, "replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, and any land on which it may be situated. For purposes of this section, a two-dwelling unit shall be considered as two separate single-family dwellings. This paragraph shall apply to any replacement dwelling which was purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986.

Second—That a third paragraph is added to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A thereof, to read:

In addition, the Legislature may authorize each county board of supervisors, after consultation with the local affected agencies within the county's boundaries, to adopt an ordinance making the provisions of this subdivision relating to transfer of base year value also applicable to situations in which the replacement dwellings are located in that county and the original properties are located in another county within this state. For purposes of this paragraph, "local affected agency" means any city, special district, school district, or community college district which receives an annual property tax revenue allocation. This paragraph shall apply to any replacement dwelling which was purchased or newly constructed on or after the date the county adopted the provisions of this subdivision relating to transfer of base year value, but shall not apply to any replacement dwelling which was purchased or newly constructed before November 9, 1988.

Third—That subdivision (i) of Section 2 of Article XIII A thereof is amended to read:

(i) Unless specifically provided otherwise, amendments to this section adopted prior to November 1, 1988, shall be effective for changes in ownership which occur, and new construction which is completed, after the effective date of the amendment. Unless specifically provided otherwise, amendments to this section adopted after November 1, 1988, shall be effective for changes in ownership which occur, and new construction which is completed, on or after the effective date of the amendment.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 65

Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 12—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, by amending Sections 1 and 15 of, and adding and repealing Section 15.5 of, Article VI thereof, relating to courts.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 28, 1988.]

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California at its 1987–88 Regular Session commencing on the first day of December 1986, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of the Legislature voting therefor, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that the Constitution of the State be amended as follows:

First—That Section 1 of Article VI thereof is amended to read:

SEC. 1. The judicial power of this State is vested in the Supreme Court, courts of appeal, superior courts, municipal courts, and justice courts. All courts are courts of record.

Second—That Section 15 of Article VI thereof is amended to read:

SEC. 15. A person is ineligible to be a judge of a court of record unless for 5 years immediately preceding selection to a municipal or justice court or 10 years immediately preceding selection to other courts, the person has been a member of the State Bar or served as a judge of a court of record in this State. A judge eligible for municipal court service may be assigned by the Chief Justice to serve on any court.

Third—That Section 15.5 is added to Article VI thereof, to read:

15.5. The 5-year membership or service requirement of Section 15 does not apply to justice court judges who held office on January 1, 1988.

This section shall be operative only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed.

Fourth—That the changes made by this measure shall be operative on January 1, 1990.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 66

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 77—Relative to McClellan Air Force Base.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 28, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The recent announcement by the Air Force Logistics Command at Wright Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio, that civilian employees of the Sacramento Air Logistics Center at McClellan Air Force Base will be given a 4-day furlough is of great concern to the people of California; and

WHEREAS, Some 13,000 employees who are scheduled for furlough will be devastated by this unexpected lost income; and

WHEREAS, The wages lost because of the furlough will have a rippling effect on the economy of communities around Sacramento and elsewhere in northern California; and

WHEREAS, Sacramento and other communities depend on the stability of McClellan Air Force Base, a major employer in northern California; and

WHEREAS, The citizens of Sacramento and other Californians have appreciated McClellan Air Force Base civilian employees for their productivity, for their participation in the communities in which they live, and for their valuable contribution to the defense of our nation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California supports the civilian employees at McClellan Air Force Base and also supports the California congressional delegation's efforts to seek equity in the disbursement of national defense funds and in the reduction of budget expenditures; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to representatives of McClellan Air Force Base employees affected by the anticipated furlough.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 67

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 6—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, by amending Sections 8 and 18 of Article VI thereof, relating to courts.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 30, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The Legislature finds and declares that maintaining public confidence in the integrity of the judicial system is essential to good government; and

WHEREAS, The Commission on Judicial Performance bears a great public trust which it must currently fulfill in total secrecy; and

WHEREAS, Because responsible public disclosure and accountability is proper, desirable, and consistent with the goal of public confidence, it is the intent of this measure that appropriate commission proceedings be open to public scrutiny, and that this measure be construed so as to accomplish this purpose which is hereby declared to be the public policy of this state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California at its 1987–88 Regular Session commencing on the first day of December 1986, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of the Legislature voting therefor, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that the Constitution of the State be amended, as follows:

First—That Section 8 of Article VI thereof is amended to read:

SEC. 8. (a) The Commission on Judicial Performance consists of 2 judges of courts of appeal, 2 judges of superior courts, and one judge of a municipal court, each appointed by the Supreme Court; 2 members of the State Bar of California who have practiced law in this State for 10 years, appointed by its governing body; and 2 citizens who are not judges, retired judges, or members of the State Bar of California, appointed by the Governor and approved by the Senate, a majority of the membership concurring. Except as provided in subdivision (b), all terms are 4 years. No member shall serve more than 2 4-year terms.

Commission membership terminates if a member ceases to hold the position that qualified the member for appointment. A vacancy shall be filled by the appointing power for the remainder of the term. A member whose term has expired may continue to serve until the vacancy has been filled by the appointing power.

(b) To create staggered terms among the members of the Commission on Judicial Performance, the following members shall be appointed, as follows:

(1) The court of appeal member appointed to immediately succeed the term that expires on November 8, 1988, shall serve a 2-year term.

(2) Of the State Bar members appointed to immediately succeed terms that expire on December 31, 1988, one member shall serve for a 2-year term.

Second—That Section 18 of Article VI thereof is amended to read:

SEC. 18. (a) A judge is disqualified from acting as a judge, without loss of salary, while there is pending (1) an indictment or an information charging the judge in the United States with a crime punishable as a felony under California or federal law, or (2) a recommendation to the Supreme Court by the Commission on Judicial Performance for removal or retirement of the judge.

(b) On recommendation of the Commission on Judicial Performance or on its own motion, the Supreme Court may suspend a judge from office without salary when in the United States the judge pleads guilty or no contest or is found guilty of a crime punishable as a felony under California or federal law or of any other crime that involves moral turpitude under that law. If the conviction is reversed suspension terminates, and the judge shall be paid the salary for the judicial office held by the judge for the period of suspension. If the judge is suspended and the conviction becomes final the Supreme Court shall remove the judge from office.

(c) On recommendation of the Commission on Judicial Performance the Supreme Court may (1) retire a judge for disability that seriously interferes with the performance of the judge's duties and is or is likely to become permanent, and (2) censure or remove a judge for action occurring not more than 6 years prior to the commencement of the judge's current term that constitutes wilful misconduct in office, persistent failure or inability to perform the judge's duties, habitual intemperance in the use of intoxicants or drugs, or conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice that brings the judicial office into disrepute. The Commission on Judicial Performance may privately admonish a judge found to have engaged in an improper action or dereliction of duty, subject to review in the Supreme Court in the manner provided for review of causes decided by a court of appeal.

(d) A judge retired by the Supreme Court shall be considered to have retired voluntarily. A judge removed by the Supreme Court is ineligible for judicial office and pending further order of the court is suspended from practicing law in this State.

(e) A recommendation of the Commission on Judicial Performance for the censure, removal or retirement of a judge of the Supreme Court shall be determined by a tribunal of 7 court of appeal judges selected by lot.

(f) If, after conducting a preliminary investigation, the Commission on Judicial Performance by vote determines that formal proceedings should be instituted:

(1) The judge or judges charged may require that formal hearings be public, unless the Commission on Judicial Performance by vote finds good cause for confidential hearings.

(2) The Commission on Judicial Performance may, without further review in the Supreme Court, issue a public reproval with the consent of the judge for conduct warranting discipline. The public reproval shall include an enumeration of any and all formal charges brought against the judge which have not been dismissed by the commission.

(3) The Commission on Judicial Performance may in the pursuit of public confidence and the interests of justice, issue press statements or releases or, in the event charges involve moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption, open hearings to the public.

(g) The Commission on Judicial Performance may issue explanatory statements at any investigatory stage when the subject matter is generally known to the public.

(h) The Judicial Council shall make rules implementing this section and providing for confidentiality of proceedings.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 68

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 16—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, by amending subdivisions (o), (p), and (q) of Section 3 of Article XIII thereof, relating to taxation.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 30, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The presence of certain language in subdivisions (o), (p), and (q) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution has fostered an understandably common but nevertheless wholly erroneous assumption that the availability of the property tax exemption created in those subdivisions for certain active and honorably discharged members of the armed forces, the unmarried spouses of those members who are deceased, or the parents of those members who are deceased is dependent upon the exemption claimant's or the member's prior residence in this state as of a specific date or the member's residence in this state at the time of his or her entry into the armed forces; and

WHEREAS, This erroneous assumption may continue to jeopardize the filing of valid claims for the exemption or precipitate costly and unnecessary litigation concerning eligibility for the exemption; and

WHEREAS, In order that the aforementioned consequences resulting from this erroneous assumption may be eliminated at the earliest possible time, the Legislature of the State of California concludes that it is necessary to take the unusual action of deleting language from the Constitution to more accurately reflect existing law; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California at its 1987–88 Regular Session commencing on the first day of December 1986, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of the Legislature voting therefor, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that the Constitution of the State be amended as follows:

First—That subdivision (o) of Section 3 of Article XIII thereof is amended to read:

(o) Property in the amount of $1,000 of a claimant who—

(1) is serving in or has served in and has been discharged under honorable conditions from service in the United States Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, or Revenue Marine (Revenue Cutter) Service; and—

(2) served either

(i) in time of war, or

(ii) in time of peace in a campaign or expedition for which a medal has been issued by Congress, or

(iii) in time of peace and because of a service-connected disability was released from active duty; and—

(3) resides in the State on the current lien date.

An unmarried person who owns property valued at $5,000 or more, or a married person, who, together with the spouse, owns property valued at $10,000 or more, is ineligible for this exemption.

If the claimant is married and does not own property eligible for the full amount of the exemption, property of the spouse shall be eligible for the unused balance of the exemption.

Second—That subdivision (p) of Section 3 of Article XIII thereof is amended to read:

(p) Property in the amount of $1,000 of a claimant who—

(1) is the unmarried spouse of a deceased veteran who met the service requirement stated in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection 3(o), and

(2) does not own property in excess of $10,000, and

(3) is a resident of the State on the current lien date.

Third-That subdivision (q) of Section 3 of Article XIII thereof is amended to read:

(q) Property in the amount of $1,000 of a claimant who—

(1) is the parent of a deceased veteran who met the service requirement stated in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection 3(o), and

(2) receives a pension because of the veteran's service, and

(3) is a resident of the State on the current lien date.

Either parent of a deceased veteran may claim this exemption.

An unmarried person who owns property valued at $5,000 or more, or a married person, who, together with the spouse, owns property valued at $10,000 or more, is ineligible for this exemption.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 69

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 60—Relative to the David A. Hoffman Bridge.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 30, 1988.]

WHEREAS, David A. Hoffman was a graduate of the University of Maryland in civil engineering and became a state employee, working for the California Department of Transportation (CALTRANS); and

WHEREAS, David came to work for CALTRANS as a Junior Civil Engineer in February 1980; and

WHEREAS, David, a 30-year old CALTRANS engineer in the prime of his life, a son, husband, father, and good friend of all his CALTRANS co-workers, worked on many CALTRANS projects, particularly, for several years, designing the extension of State Route 52 in San Diego, especially in the Route 163 and Ruffin Road area; and

WHEREAS, David was an Assistant Resident Engineer in Construction who was then assigned as the Resident Engineer for the construction of the widening of Del Mar Heights Road Overcrossing on Interstate 5 in Del Mar; and

WHEREAS, David, who was seen by CALTRANS management as having a bright future in the organization, was assisting with the supervision of another CALTRANS construction project on Interstate 5 in Oceanside on the night of March 16, 1987, when he was killed by an errant motorist; and

WHEREAS, It was typical of David, as a CALTRANS engineer and as a human being, that he was always available to do excellent work and to help others, and that he lost his life in the performance of these duties; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That in appreciation of David A. Hoffman as an exemplary human being and employee of the State of California, the Del Mar Heights Road Overcrossing on Interstate 5 in Del Mar be officially designated the David A. Hoffman Memorial Bridge; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is hereby requested to determine the cost of appropriate signs, consistent with signing requirements for the state highway system, showing that official designation and, upon receiving donations from private sources to cover that cost, to erect those signs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of Transportation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 70

Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 17—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, by amending Section 17 of Article VI thereof, relating to judges.

[Filed with Secretary of State June 30, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Many judges have found it possible to teach part time without interfering with their judicial duties, teaching by judges is approved by canons 4 and 5 of the California Code of Judicial Conduct, teaching by judges may make a valuable contribution to the public, and the California Constitution makes specific provision for the discipline or removal of any judge who persistently fails to perform his or her judicial duties; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California at its 1987–88 Regular Session commencing on the first day of December 1986, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of the Legislature voting therefor, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that the Constitution of the State be amended by amending Section 17 of Article VI thereof, to read:

SEC. 17. A judge of a court of record may not practice law and during the term for which the judge was selected is ineligible for public employment or public office other than judicial employment or judicial office, except a judge of a court of record may accept a part-time teaching position that is outside the normal hours of his or her judicial position and that does not interfere with the regular performance of his or her judicial duties while holding office. A judge of a trial court of record may, however, become eligible for election to other public office by taking a leave of absence without pay prior to filing a declaration of candidacy. Acceptance of the public office is a resignation from the office of judge.

A judicial officer may not receive fines or fees for personal use.

A judicial officer may not earn retirement service credit from a public teaching position while holding judicial office.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 71

Senate Joint Resolution No. 36—Relative to the United States Coast Guard.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 1, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The United States Coast Guard provides vital services to the People of the State of California, including search and rescue, maritime law enforcement, aids to navigation, boating safety, defense operations, environmental response, marine inspection and licensing, port safety and security, and waterways management; and

WHEREAS, The Coast Guard will have to close units, slow down operations, and cut personnel during the rest of the 1987–88 fiscal year because of a one hundred million dollar budget shortfall, and if the Coast Guard does not receive budget relief soon, even more drastic cuts will be made; and

WHEREAS, The California Legislature is concerned that the loss of the United States Coast Guard stations at Mare Island and Lake Tahoe and the elimination of patrols on the Klamath River will seriously impact the safety of mariners in those waters; and

WHEREAS, Coast Guard law enforcement operations are being cut by 55 percent as a result of the budget shortfall, and the Legislature is concerned that reductions of routine patrols by up to 55 percent in waters both within and adjacent to California will have a major detrimental impact on drug interdiction and fishery law enforcement and leave our waters more vulnerable to environmental damage; and

WHEREAS, The Secretary of Transportation, the Honorable James H. Burnley, IV, is planning to request a reprogramming of sixty million dollars from other United States Department of Transportation agencies to the Coast Guard for fiscal year 1987–88; and

WHEREAS, The administration has agreed to support a fiscal year 1988–89 budget for the Coast Guard that will allow resumption of normal operations by the Coast Guard units that remain in service; and

WHEREAS, Congressional approval of both the sixty million dollar Department of Transportation reprogramming in 1987–88 and the full 1988–89 Coast Guard appropriation is essential to avoid even more drastic closures of units and reductions in service; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature memorializes Congress to expeditiously approve the reprogramming of sixty million dollars to the United States Coast Guard for the 1987–88 fiscal year, to appropriate all funds necessary to restore all Coast Guard services to California waters for the remainder of the 1987–88 fiscal year, and to provide adequate funding for the Coast Guard in the 1988–89 fiscal year; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Secretary of Transportation, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 72

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 133—Relative to outreach and public information on the costs of higher education.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 7, 1988.]

WHEREAS, It is in the best interest of the people of this state to enhance and foster the ability of California residents to enroll in institutions of higher education within this state; and

WHEREAS, The technical complexity of the application process for both state and federal financial aid makes real access to financial aid for many students problematic; and

WHEREAS, The increased cost of tuition and fees for education coupled with inadequate increases for grant assistance is forcing more students and families to obtain loans to pay the costs of attendance; and

WHEREAS, Early information about college costs will encourage many families to improve their financial planning and increase these savings for college, and thereby avoid the necessity of borrowing large amounts of money to assist their children in attending college; and

WHEREAS, Information to elementary and junior high school pupils and their families about options for college attendance, including necessary academic as well as financial preparation, has been demonstrated to enhance personal motivation and increase the probabilities that pupils will complete secondary school and prepare for college; and

WHEREAS, A state priority exists to increase college attendance for economically disadvantaged groups who historically have not had access to postsecondary education because of either financial barriers or inadequate preparation for college; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the California Postsecondary Education Commission is hereby requested to consider alternative strategies to expand early outreach and public information efforts to elementary and junior high school pupils and their parents about the academic preparation necessary for college, and about how to apply for financial aid and prepare for the costs of higher education; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission is requested to explore the potential utilization of financial incentives for pupils and families to increase pupil motivation to complete their schooling and prepare for college, and alternative strategies to provide information to help families better plan and save for college, and be it further

Resolved, That in the preparation of this report, the Executive Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission is requested to establish an advisory committee composed of representatives from the Student Aid Commission, the University of California, the California State University, the California Community Colleges, the Association of Independent California Colleges and Universities, the State Department of Education, public schools, students, and other appropriate agencies and organizations; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Postsecondary Education Commission, prior to November 15, 1989, is requested to present to the Legislature and the Governor (1) specific recommendations for action to implement new policy in this area, (2) a cost estimate for implementing each of the recommendations, and (3) a proposed time schedule for implementation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 73

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 99—Relative to the Joint Committee on Organized Crime and Gang Violence.

[Filed with Secretary of State July 7, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, Gang violence in California is a growing problem, resulting in loss of life and property; and

WHEREAS, Law enforcement, community-based organizations, and neighborhood groups are committing substantial resources to combating this spreading social problem; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature recognizes the need to address the interrelated problems of organized crime, drug abuse, and gang violence; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Joint Committee on Organized Crime and Gang Violence is hereby established and authorized to act during the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature; and be it further

Resolved, That, pursuant to Joint Rule 36.5, the Joint Committee on Organized Crime and Gang Violence shall consist of nine Members of the Senate, appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, and nine Members of the Assembly, appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Organized Crime and Gang Violence and its members shall have and exercise all of the rights, duties, and powers conferred upon investigating committees and their members by the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly as they are adopted and amended from time to time, which provisions are incorporated herein and made applicable to the joint committee and its members; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate Committee on Rules may make money available from the Contingent Fund of the Senate as it deems necessary for the expenses of the Joint Committee on Organized Crime and Gang Violence and its members. Any expenditure of money by the joint committee shall be made in compliance with policies set forth by the Senate Committee on Rules and shall be subject to the approval of the Senate Committee on Rules; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Organized Crime and Gang Violence shall, within 15 days of its authorization, present its annual budget to the Senate Committee on Rules for its review and comment; and be it further

Resolved, That, on or before November 30, 1988, the Joint Committee on Organized Crime and Gang Violence shall report to the Legislature on methods of curtailing the problems of organized crime, gang violence, and drug abuse.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 74

Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 54—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, by amending Section 9 of Article II and Sections 8 and 10 of Article IV thereof, relating to the enactment of statutes.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 1, 1988.]

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California at its 1987–88 Regular Session commencing on the first day of December 1986, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of the Legislature voting therefor, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that the Constitution of the State be amended as follows:

First—That Section 9 of Article II is amended to read:

SEC. 9. (a) The referendum is the power of the electors to approve or reject statutes or parts of statutes except urgency statutes, statutes calling elections, and statutes providing for tax levies or appropriations for usual current expenses of the State.

(b) A referendum measure may be proposed by presenting to the Secretary of State, within 90 days after the enactment date of the statute, a petition certified to have been signed by electors equal in number to 5 percent of the votes for all candidates for Governor at the last gubernatorial election, asking that the statute or part of it be submitted to the electors. In the case of a statute enacted by a bill passed by the Legislature on or before the date the Legislature adjourns for a joint recess to reconvene in the second calendar year of the biennium of the legislative session, and in the possession of the Governor after that date, the petition may not be presented on or after January 1 next following the enactment date unless a copy of the petition is submitted to the Attorney General pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 10 of Article II before January 1.

(c) The Secretary of State shall then submit the measure at the next general election held at least 31 days after it qualifies or at a special statewide election held prior to that general election. The Governor may call a special statewide election for the measure.

Second—That Section 8 of Article IV is amended to read:

SEC. 8. (a) At regular sessions no bill other than the budget bill may be heard or acted on by committee or either house until the 31st day after the bill is introduced unless the house dispenses with this requirement by rollcall vote entered in the journal, three fourths of the membership concurring.

(b) The Legislature may make no law except by statute and may enact no statute except by bill. No bill may be passed unless it is read by title on 3 days in each house except that the house may dispense with this requirement by rollcall vote entered in the journal, two thirds of the membership concurring. No bill may be passed until the bill with amendments has been printed and distributed to the members. No bill may be passed unless, by rollcall vote entered in the journal, a majority of the membership of each house concurs.

(c) (1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subdivision, a statute enacted at a regular session shall go into effect on January 1 next following a 90-day period from the date of enactment of the statute and a statute enacted at a special session shall go into effect on the 91st day after adjournment of the special session at which the bill was passed.

(2) A statute, other than a statute establishing or changing boundaries of any legislative, congressional, or other election district, enacted by a bill passed by the Legislature on or before the date the Legislature adjourns for a joint recess to reconvene in the second calendar year of the biennium of the legislative session, and in the possession of the Governor after that date, shall go into effect on January 1 next following the enactment date of the statute unless, before January 1, a copy of a referendum petition affecting the statute is submitted to the Attorney General pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 10 of Article II, in which event the statute shall go into effect on the 91st day after the enactment date unless the petition has been presented to the Secretary of State pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 9 of Article II.

(3) Statutes calling elections, statutes providing for tax levies or appropriations for the usual current expenses of the state, and urgency statutes shall go into effect immediately upon their enactment.

(d) Urgency statutes are those necessary for immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety. A statement of facts constituting the necessity shall be set forth in one section of the bill. In each house the section and the bill shall be passed separately, each by rollcall vote entered in the journal, two thirds of the membership concurring. An urgency statute may not create or abolish any office or change the salary, term, or duties of any office, or grant any franchise or special privilege, or create any vested right or interest.

Third—That Section 10 of Article IV is amended to read:

SEC. 10. (a) Each bill passed by the Legislature shall be presented to the Governor. It becomes a statute if it is signed by the Governor. The Governor may veto it by returning it with any objections to the house of origin, which shall enter the objections in the journal and proceed to reconsider it. If each house then passes the bill by rollcall vote entered in the journal, two thirds of the membership concurring, it becomes a statute.

(b) (1) Any bill, other than a bill which would establish or change boundaries of any legislative, congressional, or other election district, passed by the Legislature on or before the date the Legislature adjourns for a joint recess to reconvene in the second calendar year of the biennium of the legislative session, and in the possession of the Governor after that date, that is not returned within 30 days after that date becomes a statute.

(2) Any bill passed by the Legislature before September 1 of the second calendar year of the biennium of the legislative session and in the possession of the Governor on or after September 1 that is not returned on or before September 30 of that year becomes a statute.

(3) Any other bill presented to the Governor that is not returned within 12 days becomes a statute.

(4) If the Legislature by adjournment of a special session prevents the return of a bill with the veto message, the bill becomes a statute unless the Governor vetoes the bill within 12 days after it is presented by depositing it and the veto message in the office of the Secretary of State.

(5) If the 12th day of the period within which the Governor is required to perform an act pursuant to paragraph (3) or (4) of this subdivision is a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, the period is extended to the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday.

(c) Any bill introduced during the first year of the biennium of the legislative session that has not been passed by the house of origin by January 31 of the second calendar year of the biennium may no longer be acted on by the house. No bill may be passed by either house on or after September 1 of an even-numbered year except statutes calling elections, statutes providing for tax levies or appropriations for the usual current expenses of the State, and urgency statutes, and bills passed after being vetoed by the Governor.

(d) The Legislature may not present any bill to the Governor after November 15 of the second calendar year of the biennium of the legislative session.

(e) The Governor may reduce or eliminate one or more items of appropriation while approving other portions of a bill. The Governor shall append to the bill a statement of the items reduced or eliminated with the reasons for the action. The Governor shall transmit to the house originating the bill a copy of the statement and reasons. Items reduced or eliminated shall be separately reconsidered and may be passed over the Governor's veto in the same manner as bills.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 75

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 64—Relative to the administration of the California Sales and Use Tax Law.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 10, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The State Board of Equalization is the state agency charged with the responsibility for enforcing the California Sales and Use Tax Law; and

WHEREAS, Taxes collected pursuant to the California Sales and Use Tax Law is a major source of revenue for financing essential services provided by the state to its citizens; and

WHEREAS, Under the California Sales and Use Tax Law, every entity holding a sales tax permit issued by the State Board of Equalization is in effect a deputy tax collector for the State of California, and therefore, it is important that every entity holding such a permit fully understand the application of this law; and

WHEREAS, A better educated taxpaying public will increase the revenues of the state, while at the same time decreasing the administrative functions of the State Board of Equalization involved in enforcing compliance with this law, and creating a more cooperative relationship between the taxpayers of the state and the State Board of Equalization; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the State Board of Equalization is requested to establish a more comprehensive program to properly educate the general public and the business community in general regarding the correct application of the California Sales and Use Tax Law so as to assure the proper assessment of the tax to any particular transaction or event, and that this training program include all of the following:

(1) The use of existing procedures for audit selection for the purpose of identifying the particular taxpayers that would benefit from the training program. In addition, the Board of Equalization shall ensure that there is adequate participation by small business representatives in this training effort.

(2) The development of procedures to identify particular tax provisions, including regulations, that are consistently and repeatedly misunderstood by the general taxpaying public when applied to a particular transaction or event, for the purpose of incorporating instructions on these provisions into the training program.

(3) Procedures to identify particular business activities in which there is substantial taxpayer difficulty in understanding the application of the law to a particular transaction or event; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to each member of the State Board of Equalization.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 76

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 72—Relating to merit awards.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 10, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Section 19823 of the Government Code provides that awards may be made to state employees in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) when the awards are approved by concurrent resolution of the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, An award of three thousand dollars ($3,000) has already been made to John S. Radov, State Board of Equalization, for a suggestion which resulted in a net revenue gain of four hundred six thousand four hundred sixty-three dollars ($406,463) by recommending that Form BT-414, Transcript of Returns Filed - Sales and Use Tax, no longer be prepared, unless requested, for certain classes of accounts for which a prior audit proved to be "unproductive"; and

WHEREAS, An award of three thousand dollars ($3,000) has already been made to William P. Kimsey, State Board of Equalization, for a suggestion which resulted in a net revenue gain of thirty-eight thousand two hundred sixty-seven dollars ($38,267) by recommending that the Audit Staff routinely telephone the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV), when performing audits of used vehicle dealers, to obtain the number of DMV Report of Sale books and corresponding serial numbers for unreported used vehicle sales; and

WHEREAS, An award of three thousand dollars ($3,000), divided equally, has already been made to James D. Conway and Robert J. Walker, Department of California Highway Patrol, for a suggestion which resulted in one-time savings of sixty-eight thousand nine hundred twenty-six dollars ($68,926) by recommending that overlay dashboard covers be purchased through local automotive stores and be installed by department technicians instead of through local dealership sources; and

WHEREAS, An award of three thousand dollars ($3,000) has already been made to Philip Gene Maine, Franchise Tax Board, for a suggestion which resulted in one-time savings of one hundred twenty-two thousand five hundred fifty-three dollars ($122,553) by recommending that corporation folders be stored in open-faced (PIT) files rather than TAB files and that letter-sized (8½" x 11") folders, guide cards and PIT shelving be used instead of legal size; and

WHEREAS, An award of three thousand dollars ($3,000) has already been made to Sylvia Jackson, Franchise Tax Board, for a suggestion which resulted in annual savings of forty thousand two hundred fifteen dollars ($40,215) by recommending that a program be made available to all users which computes interest to a future date on billable balance due corporation accounts, thereby, decreasing calculation time and errors; and

WHEREAS, An award of three thousand dollars ($3,000) has already been made to Beverly J. Perry, Department of Motor Vehicles, for a suggestion which resulted in annual savings of fifty-one thousand five hundred eighty-two dollars ($51,582) by recommending that the automation screen used for updating and identifying possible duplicate entries for traffic violations (abstracts) be modified by adding a fourth entry which would automatically review the entire field and avoid duplication and individual review; and

WHEREAS, An award of three thousand dollars ($3,000), divided equally, has already been made to John E. Kenan and C.G. Bork, Department of Transportation, for a suggestion which resulted in annual savings of sixty-eight thousand two hundred forty-five dollars ($68,245) by recommending the design and construction of concrete freeway median barriers with water carrying capabilities to eliminate the need for slotted pipes and catch basins on the freeway shoulder area; and

WHEREAS, An award of three thousand dollars ($3,000) has already been made to Ralph P. Boostrom, Department of Transportation, for a suggestion which resulted in annual savings of one million nine hundred sixty-one thousand four hundred seventy-one dollars ($1,961,471) by recommending that district inventory locations be consolidated as a means to better manage materials and reduce Caltrans' investment in inventories; and

WHEREAS, An award of three thousand dollars ($3,000), divided equally, has already been made to Shirley Best and Ivan G. Slayton, Department of Transportation, for a suggestion which resulted in annual savings of one hundred eleven thousand eight hundred sixty-eight dollars ($111,868) by recommending that all 11" by 17" 60# copies currently printed single-side on the 2 AM 1250 offset and 1 AM 1250 offset presses be run back-to-back on the Itek 975 Profector, reducing press time by 50 percent; and

WHEREAS, The suggestions of these employees have resulted in annually recurring savings, one-time savings, and net revenue gain amounting to two million eight hundred sixty-nine thousand five hundred ninety dollars ($2,869,590); and

WHEREAS, As a result of these savings, it is unnecessary to appropriate additional funds for payment of these awards; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby declares that the following additional awards, which have been authorized by the Department of Personnel Administration, are hereby authorized to the employees named as follows:

John S. Radov, thirty-seven thousand six hundred forty-six dollars ($37,646);

William P. Kimsey, eight hundred twenty-seven dollars ($827);

James D. Conway, two hundred twenty-three dollars ($223);

Robert J. Walker, two hundred twenty-three dollars ($223);

Philip Gene Maine, three thousand one hundred twenty-seven dollars ($3,127);

Sylvia Jackson, one thousand twenty-two dollars ($1,022);

Beverly J. Perry, two thousand one hundred sixty dollars ($2,160);

John E. Kenan, one thousand nine hundred twelve dollars ($1,912);

C.G. Bork, one thousand nine hundred twelve dollars ($1,912);

Ralph P. Boostrom, one hundred ninety-three thousand one hundred forty-seven dollars ($193,147);

Shirley Best, four thousand ninety-three dollars ($4,093);

Ivan G. Slayton, four thousand ninety-three dollars ($4,093); and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Controller and to the Department of Personnel Administration.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 77

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 82—Relative to student participation in the decisionmaking process.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 10, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Students are consumers of education and can add a fresh perspective to the educational process; and

WHEREAS, Recognition of the value of student participation in setting educational policy has led to a student trustee with full voting privileges on the State Board of Education; and

WHEREAS, Forty-five students served on the Western Association of Schools and College Accreditation Teams throughout California in the 1986–87 school year; and

WHEREAS, Student participation has proved a valuable asset to the Child Nutrition Committee of the State Board of Education, 81 local school boards in California, and the steering committees for the Golden State Examination project sponsored by the State Department of Education; and

WHEREAS, The State Board of Education is considering student membership on the Educational Technology Committee, the Curriculum Development and Supplemental Materials Commission, and the Special Education Commission; and

WHEREAS, The educational potential of a student is enhanced by participation in governmental and policymaking activities which channel student energies and enthusiasm in a positive direction and provide unique opportunities for students to work collectively on viable solutions to educational problems; and

WHEREAS, Students from throughout California and members of the California Association of Student Councils have testified in Assembly and Senate committees on legislation and made presentations to the State Board of Education; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the State Board of Education, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, county boards of education, unified school districts, and high school districts are encouraged to promote programs that involve students in the decisionmaking process; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the State Board of Education and the Superintendent of Public Instruction with the request that the resolution be disseminated to high school districts, unified school district boards and each county school superintendent in the state.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 78

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 60—Relative to veterans centers.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 12, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Approximately 7.5 million American men and women served the United States military during the Vietnam era, with 2.3 million providing Vietnam war zone service, and 906,000 Vietnam era veterans currently residing in the State of California; and

WHEREAS, The legacy of combat and of a nation divided during the Vietnam conflict has left physical and emotional scars for the veterans and a continuing need for professional counseling and support; and

WHEREAS, The United States Congress has established 18 Vietnam veterans centers in California communities which have provided effective readjustment counseling and other services to promote settlement of the psychological and social difficulties faced by Vietnam veterans since their military discharge; and

WHEREAS, Federal statutes in effect in 1988 require the Veterans'

Administration beginning October 1, 1988, to move the Vietnam veterans centers from community settings into Veterans' Administration medical facilities, thereby reducing the potential neighborhood outreach capabilities that promote easy access to services by the veteran population; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California strongly encourages the President to support, and the Congress to enact, legislation to continue funding of the Vietnam veterans centers in community locations to ensure that veterans receive assistance to meet the needs created while serving their country; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the Senate Armed Services and Veterans Committee, the Veteran's Administration. and to the chairperson of each committee of the Senate and House of Representatives for consideration of legislation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 79

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 76—Relative to California's coastal management program.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 12, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, California's coastal resources are vital to the state's tourism and fishing industries, are a fundamental part of the state's ecology, and are enjoyed by the people of the state and the nation because of their scenic beauty and the recreational opportunities which they provide; and

WHEREAS, The federal Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972 (CZMA) encourages states to adopt management programs for their coasts; and

WHEREAS, Congress found in the CZMA that it is national policy to preserve, protect, develop, and where possible, to restore or enhance, the resources of the nation's coastal zone for this and succeeding generations; and

WHEREAS, The CZMA also states that it is national policy to encourage and assist the states to exercise effectively their responsibilities in the coastal zone through the development and implementation of management programs to achieve wise use of the land and water resources; and

WHEREAS, Prior to enactment of the CZMA, the people of California recognized the need for coastal managment through enactment of the McAteer-Petris Act in 1969 which established the

San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission, and by placing Proposition 20 on the ballot in 1972 to develop a coastal management plan; and

WHEREAS, In November 1977, the National Oceanic and Atmosphere Administration (NOAA) approved California's coastal management program, finding that it met the goals and requirements of the CZMA; and

WHEREAS, California's coastal management program has served the state well by planning and permitting needed development while protecting coastal resources which are vital to public recreation and the state's tourism and fishing industries; and

WHEREAS, In its 1987 evaluation of the coastal management program, NOAA threatened to initiate decertification of the state's coastal management program; and

WHEREAS, NOAA's evaluation attacks aspects of the state's program which it had previously approved and which had been affirmed by the court in American Petroleum Institute v. Knecht (609 F. 2d 1306); and

WHEREAS, The State of California has filed suit against NOAA, charging that NOAA's actions violate the terms of the CZMA, the federal Administrative Procedure Act, and the National Environmental Policy Act; and

WHEREAS, The Secretary of Commerce has not halted the actions against the California coastal management program by agencies under the secretary's direction in spite of appeals by both of California's United States Senators and a bipartisan group of the state's Congressional Representatives; and

WHEREAS, Decertification of California's coastal management program would deprive the state of authority over federal projects which affect the coast; and

WHEREAS, Decertification would make California ineligible for annual federal grants of approximately $2 million which have assisted both state and local coastal planning and implementation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President of the United States and the Secretary of Commerce not to proceed with decertification of California's coastal management program; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature urges the State of California and the Secretary of Commerce to enter immediately into meaningful negotiations to resolve any dispute over implementation of California's federally approved coastal management program as an alternative to pursuing decertification; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature memorializes the Congress of the United States to take such action as is necessary to encourage negotiation and to prevent the Department of Commerce from proceeding with decertification; and be it further this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Secretary of Commerce, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Majority Leader of the Senate, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 80

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 91—Relative to acquired immune deficiency syndrome.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 12, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, Acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) is a serious epidemic in California; and

WHEREAS, Many businesses in California have responded to this epidemic by developing medically appropriate and socially responsible business policies regarding AIDS prevention and people infected with the AIDS virus; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature commends all California companies that have made special efforts to become informed about the AIDS epidemic and to develop business policies based on this information; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature specifically commends the following California companies whose positive efforts regarding AIDS have come to its attention:

San Francisco Business Leadership Task Force for providing business community leadership as early as 1983 in such areas as development of AIDS in the Workplace videotapes and formulation of policies for employees with AIDS or other serious illness.

Orange County Business Task Force for publication in 1987 of its comprehensive and informative document to help other businesses respond appropriately to the AIDS epidemic: Facilitating AIDS Education in the Work Environment.

Esprit, whose Fall 1987 fashion catalogue incorporates AIDS awareness and prevention messages into its central theme of health and beauty; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to each of the companies referenced or specifically mentioned herein, so that these companies will know of the Legislature's recognition of the example they have set for others in the business community.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 81

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 62—Relative to the California Law Revision Commission.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The California Law Revision Commission is authorized to study only topics set forth in the calendar contained in its report to the Governor and the Legislature which are thereafter approved for study by concurrent resolution of the Legislature, and topics which have been referred to the commission for study by concurrent resolution of the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, The commission, in its annual report covering its activities for 1987, lists 24 topics, all of which the Legislature has previously authorized or directed the commission to study; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature approves for continued study by the California Law Revision Commission the topics listed below, all of which the Legislature has previously authorized or directed the commission to study:

(4) Whether the law relating to family law (including, but not limited to, community property) should be revised;

(5) Whether the law relating to the award of prejudgment interest in civil actions and related matters should be revised;

(6) Whether the law relating to class actions should be revised;

(7) Whether the law relating to offers of compromise should be revised;

(8) Whether the law relating to discovery in civil cases should be revised;

(9) Whether a summary procedure should be provided by which property owners can remove doubtful or invalid liens from their property, including a provision for payment of attorney's fees to the prevailing party;

(10) Whether acts governing special assessments for public improvements should be simplified and unified;

(11) Whether the law on injunctions and related matters should be revised;

(12) Whether the law relating to involuntary dismissal for lack of prosecution should be revised;

(13) Whether the law relating to statutes of limitations applicable to felonies should be revised;

(14) Whether the law relating to the rights and disabilities of minor and incompetent persons should be revised;

(15) Whether the law relating to custody of children, adoption, guardianship, freedom from parental custody and control, and related matters should be revised;

(16) Whether the Evidence Code should be revised;

(17) Whether the law relating to arbitration should be revised;

(18) Whether the law relating to modification of contracts should be revised;

(19) Whether the law relating to sovereign or governmental immunity in California should be revised;

(20) Whether the decisional, statutory, and constitutional rules governing the liability of public entities for inverse condemnation should be revised (including, but not limited to, liability for damages resulting from flood control projects) and whether the law relating to the liability of private persons under similar circumstances should be revised;

(21) Whether the law relating to liquidated damages in contracts generally, and particularly in leases, should be revised;

(22) Whether the parol evidence rule should be revised;

(23) Whether the law relating to pleadings in civil actions and proceedings should be revised;

(24) Whether there should be changes to administrative law; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the California Law Revision Commission.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 82

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 67—Relative to truck driver safety.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1988.]

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby requests the Governor to establish a task force under the direction of the Department of the California Highway Patrol to investigate, and to make recommendations to improve, heavy commercial vehicle and driver safety in California; and be it further

Resolved, That the task force include representatives of the Department of the California Highway Patrol, the Public Utilities Commission, the Department of Motor Vehicles, the Office of Traffic Safety in the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, the Department of Transportation, labor organizations, various segments of the trucking and shipping industries, and motor vehicle owners' and operators' organizations; and be it further

Resolved, That the task force study methods of improving heavy commercial vehicle and driver safety, including improved coordination among state agencies and commissions having jurisdiction and responsibility for trucking safety; and be it further

Resolved, That the task force obtain information from the trucking industry, state agencies, and other motorist and highway safety-related organizations to identify and study the current safety status of heavy commercial vehicle operation, and of drivers of those commercial vehicles, in this state. The information shall include, but not be limited to, information relating to the licensing, regulation, maintenance, and monitoring of heavy commercial vehicle operations, and the training, licensing, and monitoring of heavy commercial vehicle drivers, and shall be compiled to provide a basis for the development and effective management of cost-effective safety programs and improvements to reduce heavy commercial vehicle accidents; and be it further

Resolved, That the task force shall report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature and the Governor not later than January 1, 1990; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 83

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 68—Relative to landscaping of new state buildings.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, An important element of the construction of many new state buildings is landscaping considerations, and landscaping contributes a desirable element of beauty and style; and

WHEREAS, Unfortunately, landscaping, as a general rule, requires a continuous supply of water; and

WHEREAS, Water is a precious resource of the State of California; and

WHEREAS, Droughts can severely limit the availability of water in the state; and

WHEREAS, The citizens of California desire to conserve water whenever possible; and

WHEREAS, The citizens of California support efforts to landscape with plants that require less water; and

WHEREAS, Xeric plants are plants which require little water and are generally drought resistant; and

WHEREAS, The use of Xeric plants to landscape new state buildings, where possible, would help to conserve water for the State of California; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby urges the Department of General Services to utilize Xeric plants, where possible, for the landscaping of all new state buildings; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of General Services.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 84

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 77—Relative to the Arthritis Self-help Course.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, Arthritis is a debilitating condition that affects one in seven Californians; and

WHEREAS, Self-help includes actions an arthritis sufferer may take to keep the arthritis under control and to remain as independent as possible; and

WHEREAS, The Arthritis Self-help Course is an internationally recognized self-management course for arthritis patients; and

WHEREAS, The Arthritis Self-help Course is approved by the Arthritis Foundation; and

WHEREAS, The Arthritis Self-help Course has been demonstrated to be a cost-effective method of teaching self-management skills to persons with arthritis; and

WHEREAS, Significant reductions in the intensity of pain have been reported by course graduates; and

WHEREAS, Significant reductions in the number of out-patient medical visits are demonstrated by course graduates; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the Chancellor of the California Community College system to encourage community colleges which are currently under their enrollment cap to work with the Stanford University Arthritis Center to offer the Arthritis Self-help Course as a noncredit course under the health and safety category; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chancellor's office of the California Community College system encourage community colleges to attend a workshop on the Arthritis Self-help Course sponsored by Stanford University.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 85

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 85—Relative to the University of California accommodating increased enrollments.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 15, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The State of California's Master Plan for Higher Education states that the top 12½ percent of each high school graduating class is eligible to attend the University of California, and the state continues to support the university's commitment to accept all eligible California high school graduates who wish to attend the university as undergraduates; and

WHEREAS, It is especially important to maintain access to the undergraduate programs of the University of California for the growing number of minority students who reflect California's demographic changes without displacing similarly qualified and motivated nonminority students; and

WHEREAS, Enrollments in the University of California between the years of 1980–81 and 1988–89 will have grown by over 26,000 students, and the percent of university eligible high school graduates who attend the university has increased significantly during the past five years from 5 percent to 8 percent; and

WHEREAS, There will be a need for increased graduate enrollments in the 1990's to provide sufficient faculty for our colleges and universities, as well as other trained professionals; and

WHEREAS, Existing levels of enrollment on many campuses can have an adverse effect on the quality of education because classrooms are crowded, laboratory and other research facilities are heavily overburdened, instructional services such as library materials and computer centers are not available to all students in a timely fashion, and many other campus resources and equipment are utilized to capacity; and

WHEREAS, Many campuses and their adjacent communities are already densely populated and experiencing student housing shortages, transportation congestion, and infrastructure problems with city and county governments and facilities; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature declares its intent to continue support for the university as a preeminent, international research institution for undergraduate and graduate students, and students of the professions of law and medicine; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Regents of the University of California are requested to develop, by July 1989, a long-range plan for accommodating anticipated additional enrollments into the 21st century; and be it further

Resolved, That the plan include both of the following:

(1) An assessment of the reasonable and feasible capacity of the University of California's existing campuses and their respective communities.

(2) A proposal which, to the extent necessary, includes a recommended timeline and a list of critical decisions to establish one or more additional campuses of the University of California; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Regents of the University of California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 86

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 66—Relative to railroad crossings.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The General Orders of the Public Utilities Commission require railroad companies to maintain railroad crossing protection devices, and further require them, where streets intersect the railroad, to maintain or reconstruct the pavement located between the rails and within the area located two feet outside of the rails; and

WHEREAS, At the present time there are pavement management systems in widespread use that are designed to evaluate pavement conditions; and

WHEREAS, A pavement management system for railroad grade crossings could provide a uniform rating system to evaluate the condition of railroad grade crossings; and

WHEREAS, A uniform rating system could provide a standard measure of the level of maintenance required at each railroad grade crossing; and

WHEREAS, A standard measure of required maintenance could be used to make meaningful comparisons of maintenance required at railroad grade crossings on a statewide basis; and

WHEREAS, It is anticipated that information provided by a pavement management system would be collected statewide for all railroad grade crossings; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Department of Transportation, working with a committee consisting of representatives from local agencies, representatives of the Senate Committee on Transportation and the Assembly Committee on Transportation, members of the City, County, and State Cooperation Committee, the Public Utilities Commission, and the railroad industry, is hereby requested to assist that committee in the development of a pavement management system for the evaluation of railroad grade crossings; and be it further

Resolved, That the pavement management system shall include a procedure for establishing a work priority list for grade crossings in need of repair, based on criteria determined by the committee; and be it further

Resolved, That the department report to the Legislature by January 1, 1990, regarding the establishment of a pavement management system for the evaluation of railroad grade crossings; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of Transportation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 87

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 90—Relative to the Joint Committee on Courthouse Financing and Construction.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The judicial branch of state government provides a great number of necessary and vital services to the people of California; and

WHEREAS, There is a significant and growing need to construct and finance new court facilities to serve the judicial needs of the people of California; and

WHEREAS, It is recognized that existing court facilities may not be adequate to allow efficient and timely processing of pending and anticipated caseloads; and

WHEREAS, Before courthouses are built, careful research and planning are essential to ensure that space allocations and designs reflect current and future court requirements; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Joint Committee on Courthouse Financing and Construction is hereby established and authorized to act during the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Computers in State Government shall be abolished upon the enactment of this resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That, pursuant to Joint Rule 36.5, the Joint Committee on Courthouse Financing and Construction shall consist of three Members of the Senate, appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, and three Members of the Assembly, appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Courthouse Financing and Construction and its members shall have and exercise all of the rights, duties, and powers conferred upon investigating committees and their members by the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly as they are adopted and amended from time to time, which provisions are incorporated herein and made applicable to the joint committee and its members; and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate Committee on Rules may make money available from the Contingent Fund of the Senate as it deems necessary for the expenses of the Joint Committee on Courthouse Financing and Construction and its members. Any expenditure of money by the joint committee shall be made in compliance with policies set forth by the Senate Committee on Rules and shall be subject to the approval of the Senate Committee on Rules; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Courthouse Financing and Construction shall, within 15 days of its authorization, presents its budget to the Joint Committee on Rules for its review and comment; and be it further

Resolved, That, on or before November 30, 1988, the Joint Committee on Courthouse Financing and Construction shall report to the Legislature as to the status of courthouse construction within the state and the methods available to finance courthouse construction within the state; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Courthouse Financing and Construction is authorized to act until November 30, 1988, and as of that date shall cease to exist.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 88

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 113—Relative to education on aging in the public school curriculum.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1988.]

WHEREAS, In 1980, California had 2.4 million citizens age 65 years and older that constituted 10.2 percent of the total population; and

WHEREAS, In 1990, the number of Californians age 65 years and older is projected to be 3.1 million or 11.4 percent of the projected total population, and in the year 2000, there is projected to be 3.5 million California seniors, or a 44.6 percent increase in numbers from 1980; and

WHEREAS, The "old, old" (age 85 and over) population is projected to increase by 137.6 percent between the years 1980 and 2000, making it the fastest growing age group in California; and

WHEREAS, At any one time, about 5 percent of the population, age 65 years or older, is in a long-term care facility, and that percentage rises to over 20 percent among persons age 85 years and older; and

WHEREAS, California leads the nation in the number of residents age 75 years and over with a total of 944,000 persons (New York is second with 868,000 and Florida is third with 627,000); and

WHEREAS, There is a critical shortage in health manpower to care for the elderly population of our state; and

WHEREAS, Current statistics show turnover rates among long-term care nurses to be 10-50 percent annually and 80-100 percent annually for certified nurse assistants, and government figures point to a 30 percent decline in the entry level labor pool by the year 2000; and

WHEREAS, There is no meaningful education of young people in our state to ensure that they will be prepared to deal with this large elderly population; and

WHEREAS, The result of a lack of education of our young people about aging issues will be a lack of understanding about the unique needs of our elderly population; and

WHEREAS, Early education in the area of aging will result in less fear among young people about their own mortality and will foster greater compassion and understanding for the plight of the aged; and

WHEREAS, Early education in the area of aging may encourage more young people to seek careers in long-term care; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby requests the State Department of Education and the State Board of Education to add aging issues to the curriculum for grades 1 to 6, inclusive, to ensure that the education of school aged children includes subject matter specifically addressing the aged.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 89

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 127—Relative to the Interagency Task Force on Tourism.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 18, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The State of California spends approximately seven million dollars in state funds, in addition to approximately eight million dollars in matching funds and services from the private sector, to advertise and engage in marketing and public relations efforts to promote California as a travel and tourism destination; and

WHEREAS, Travel and tourism expenditures, estimated at over thirty-five billion dollars, are a major factor in the state's economy; and

WHEREAS, Travel and tourism directly generate approximately 600,000 jobs with a total payroll over seven billion six hundred million dollars, jobs which account for over one billion dollars in state tax revenues and over six hundred thousand dollars in local tax revenues; and

WHEREAS, According to the United States Travel Data Center "Survey of State Travel Offices," California ranks 10th in annual travel and tourism promotion budgets, and many of the states ranking ahead of California have doubled or tripled their promotion budgets over the last five years; and

WHEREAS, The increased competition from other states for foreign and domestic travelers demands a coordinated and effective use of the state's travel and tourism budget, which is not being substantially increased in the 1988–89 fiscal year; and

WHEREAS, The United States Department of Commerce, the Travel Industry Association of America, and most travel and tourism professionals predict a significant increase in the number of international visitors to California in 1988, due to the value of the dollar, lower transatlantic airfares, increased air carrier capacity, and increased competition, leading to lower-priced accommodations, in the hotel and motel industry; and

WHEREAS, According to the United States Department of Commerce, California is the number one tourist destination for foreign visitors, especially the Japanese, who spend an average of nine hundred forty-seven dollars per trip, as compared to other foreign visitors who spend an average of five hundred fifty-six dollars per trip; and

WHEREAS, The unique cultural, historical, recreational, and economic diversity of the state creates an unlimited number of "California experiences" which can be marketed to all visitors in 1988; and

WHEREAS, Existing law allows the Office of Tourism within the Department of Commerce to convene an interagency committee to devise recommendations to identify and solve problems of tourism promotion; and

WHEREAS, The "tourism industry" is an umbrella-term used to describe the various industries relying on, or providing services to visitors, including, but not limited to: hotels, motels, inns, restaurants, souvenir shops, vacation homes, travel agents, airlines, tour buses, rental car agencies, parks, attractions, museums, galleries, festivals, fairs, retail shops, and automobile services; and

WHEREAS, Many state government agencies have authority over, and responsibilities for, activities falling under the tourism industry umbrella; and

WHEREAS, The following state agencies, departments, and offices have specific jurisdiction or interest in visitor services: the Department of Parks and Recreation, the Department of Food and Agriculture, the Department of Transportation, the Department of Commerce, including the Office of Tourism and the California Film Commission, the Department of Fish and Game, the Department of Boating and Waterways, the Department of Forestry, the California Arts Council, the the Office of Historic Preservation, the California Exposition and State Fair, and the State Legislature; and

WHEREAS, Many local governments have convention and visitor bureaus or contract with chamber of commerce organizations to develop local travel and tourism marketing and services plans; and

WHEREAS, The California Travel Industry Association serves as an umbrella group for private sector groups and associations, and the association has the goal of fostering effective statewide tourism marketing; and

WHEREAS, The California Tourism Corporation, a nonprofit, privately funded organization, was created to advise the Office of Tourism and provide its programs with private industry expertise and marketing leverage in a coordinated and cohesive manner; and

WHEREAS, There exists a need to bring together all public and private sector parties interested in the coordinated delivery of visitor services to identify and solve existing or potential problems with that delivery; and

WHEREAS, The above-mentioned public and private entities include people with creativity, enthusiasm, knowledge, and responsibility for tourism-related activities who would be assets to the state's efforts to develop a program of tourism marketing and promotion and assets to the state's ability to coordinate tourism-related services; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby requests the Director of Commerce to convene an Interagency Task Force on Tourism, under the direction of the Director of the Department of Commerce and composed of representatives from the above-mentioned state agencies, departments, and offices, to assist the Department of Commerce and the Office of Tourism in developing a tourism marketing plan and to help identify and solve problems in the delivery of visitor services;

and be it further

Resolved, That private sector representatives from the above-mentioned convention and visitor bureaus, local chambers of commerce, the California Travel Industry Association, the California Tourism Corporation, and other representatives from groups or organizations with an interest in the state's tourism promotion and delivery of visitor services be encouraged to contribute to the task force ideas and suggestions reflecting their areas of expertise and interest; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor, the Director of Commerce, the Director of the Office of Tourism, the Director of Parks and Recreation, the Director of Food and Agriculture, the Director of Transportation, the Director of Fish and Game, the Director of Boating and Waterways, the Director of Forestry, the Director of the California Arts Council, the Chairperson of the California Film Commission, the State Historic Preservation Officer, and the Director of the California Exposition and State Fair.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 90

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 163—Relative to commending the Los Angeles Lakers.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 19, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The Los Angeles Lakers basketball club has won its second consecutive world championship of professional basketball, and it is appropriate to honor and commend the Lakers at this time; and

WHEREAS, On June 21, 1988, the Lakers completed their 1987–88 championship season with an exciting and hard-fought victory on their home court at the Forum in Inglewood, thus eliminating the rugged and determined Detroit Pistons in the NBA Championship Series, four games to three; and

WHEREAS, Under the tutelage of Head Coach Pat Riley, the Lakers have become the first pro basketball team to win consecutive world championships in almost two decades, and the Lakers' latest world championship is their fifth in the 1980's; and

WHEREAS, Only three other teams in history have won as many as five championships in a single decade; and

WHEREAS, The phrase "Showtime" has become synonymous with the Lakers' fast-breaking style, which emphasizes tenacious defense, rapid transition to offense, and dazzling ball-handling and passing, culminating in a high-percentage shot; and

WHEREAS, During the regular season, the Lakers compiled the best record in the NBA, and their winning ways continued in the playoffs, where they eliminated the San Antonio Spurs, the Utah Jazz, the Dallas Mavericks, and, finally, the Detroit Pistons; and

WHEREAS, The Jazz, Mavericks, and Pistons each extended the Lakers to a seventh game, and the Lakers are the only team in NBA history to win three seven-game playoff series in the same season; and

WHEREAS, Special recognition is due to Laker forward James Worthy, who earned Most Valuable Player recognition in the NBA Championship Series; and

WHEREAS, The members of the 1987–88 World Champion Los Angeles Lakers are: Captain Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Tony Campbell, Michael Cooper, A.C. Green, Earvin ("Magic") Johnson, Wes Matthews, Kurt Rambis, Byron Scott, Mike Smrek, Billy Thompson, Mychal Thompson, Milt Wagner, and James Worthy; and

WHEREAS, Also deserving of congratulations are Laker owner Dr. Jerry Buss, retiring Laker President Bill Sharman, General Manager Jerry West, Head Coach Pat Riley and his assistants, Bill Bertka and Randy Pfund, Trainer Garry Vitti, and the Laker announcers, Chick Hearn and Stu Lantz; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That all members of the World Champion Los Angeles Lakers and their organization be congratulated for their outstanding performances throughout the 1987–88 NBA season; and be it further

Resolved, That, on behalf of the basketball fans of California, the Legislature thanks the Lakers for the excitement and inspiration that they have brought to our state during their most recent championship season; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to each member of the Los Angeles Lakers team, coaching staff, and administrative staff.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 91

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 76—Relative to family law.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1988.]

WHEREAS, In proceedings under the Family Law Act, it is often desirable that counsel be appointed, pursuant to Section 4606 of the Civil Code, to represent the best interests of a minor child; and

WHEREAS, The parents of the minor child often are not financially able to contribute to the compensation and expenses paid to appointed counsel; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature requests the Judicial Council to provide recommendations to the Legislature, by

December 31, 1989, on the feasibility of establishing a fund for payment of the compensation and expenses of counsel appointed pursuant to Section 4606 of the Civil Code in circumstances where the court determines that the parents of a minor child do not have sufficient funds to pay for the compensation and expenses of the appointed counsel; and be it further

Resolved, That in making its recommendations, the Judicial Council shall make an assessment on the need of the establishment of the fund, identify potential sources of funds, identify criteria for establishing eligibility for receipt of the funds, and identify methods of reimbursement to the fund when appropriate; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the Judicial Council.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 92

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 81—Relative to the genome project.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Independent public and private efforts are underway to sequence and map every chemical base in all the deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) of the human genome (all the genetic material); and

WHEREAS, These efforts have already led to the identification of DNA fragments linked with Huntington's disease, cystic fibrosis, Alzheimer's disease, Duchenne muscular dystrophy and other disorders; and

WHEREAS, Various federal agencies involved in these efforts include the National Institute of Health, the National Science Foundation, and the Department of Energy; and

WHEREAS, California's national laboratories and universities have received federal funding to support research in this area; and

WHEREAS, Continued support of the genome project is necessary to maintain California's preeminence in biotechnology; and

WHEREAS, The National Academy of Sciences has recommended that these individual efforts be coordinated through a lead agency; and

WHEREAS, The Senate of the United States is considering a bill to establish a free-standing National Biotechnology Policy Board and Advisory Panel; and

WHEREAS, This bill will organize already existing efforts and plan future ones, and will eventually lead to establishing a project, known as the genome project, to map and sequence every gene in the human body; and

WHEREAS, This project will cost an estimated 45 million dollars per year, increasing to 200 million dollars per year over five years; and

WHEREAS, Knowledge gained from the genome project could give insight into the causes of more than three thousand inherited diseases as well as cancer, diabetes, and heart disease; and

WHEREAS, The Japanese are already developing the technology for sequencing of the human genome, including coordinating the efforts of various industries to produce the materials needed for the research; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the members recognize and appreciate the necessity to map the human genome and proclaim their support of federal funding for this critical project; and be it further

Resolved, That the members urge the Governor to mobilize public and private organizations to develop a strategy for supporting the genome project and for assuring new funding for the project so that California's researchers remain competitive, and to work with the Congressional delegation from California to confirm California's readiness to participate in this project and enhance its continuing role as a leader in basic research; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor of California, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

---

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 93

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 89—Relative to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1988.]

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That, in addition to any money heretofore made available to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, there is hereby transferred for support of that committee, pursuant to Provision 2 of Item 0130-021-001 of the Budget Act of 1988, the sum of three million three hundred twenty-two thousand two hundred dollars ($3,322,200), or so much thereof as may be necessary, from the Senate Contingent Fund, as provided by Provision 4 of Item 0110-001-001 of that act, and three million three hundred twenty-two thousand two hundred dollars ($3,322,200), or so much thereof as may be necessary, from the Assembly Contingent Fund, as provided by Provision 4 of Item 0120-011-001 of that act.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 94

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 94—Relative to federal fuel taxes.

[Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The federal fuel tax and the federal Highway Trust Fund were established primarily to complete the Interstate System; and

WHEREAS, The Interstate System is scheduled for completion by 1993; and

WHEREAS, The federal fuel tax levy expires in 1993; and

WHEREAS, Historically, California has been a donor state to the federal Highway Trust Fund; and

WHEREAS, The Congress and the President must develop and implement a postinterstate transportation strategy; and

WHEREAS, It is in the best interest of the people of California to eliminate or reduce the federal role in highway funding; and

WHEREAS, It is in the best interest of the people of California to have a uniform statewide policy to present to the Congress and the President; and

WHEREAS, The state has adopted a policy and enacted statutes to capture all fuel tax revenues in the event that federal fuel taxes are reduced or eliminated; and

WHEREAS, It is in the best interest of the people of California to pursue an elimination of federal fuel taxes; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That all state and local entities are requested to work together to bring about an elimination of the federal fuel tax; and be it further

Resolved, That a task force be formed, consisting of the chairpersons of the Senate and the Assembly transportation committees, four members of the California Transportation Commission, the Director of Transportation, and one representative each from the County Supervisors Association of California, the League of California Cities, regional transportation planning agencies, and the private sector; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Transportation Commission provide staff support and arrange for meetings of the task force; and be it further

Resolved, That the task force shall proceed expeditiously to develop a concise policy and methods of pursuing the policy to eliminate or reduce federal fuel taxes; and be it further

Resolved, That the task force shall adopt that policy and submit a report thereon to the Legislature and the Governor not later than January 1, 1989; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the chairpersons of the Senate and the Assembly transportation committees, the California Transportation Commission, the Director of Transportation, the County Supervisors Association of California, the League of California Cities, and to each regional transportation planning agency.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 95

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 65—Relative to Stanford House State Historic Park.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The Stanford House in Sacramento was the home and office of Leland Stanford and of Frederick F. Low during their respective terms of office as Governor of California during the Civil War; and

WHEREAS, The Stanford House in Sacramento is presently the property of the State of California, and is known as the Stanford House State Historic Park; and

WHEREAS, The Budget Act of 1987 provides funding for the restoration of the Stanford House State Historic Park as a museum; and

WHEREAS, The Department of Parks and Recreation is presently preparing a general plan to determine the process of restoration and to determine future uses of the Stanford House in Sacramento; and

WHEREAS, The State of California is seeking to expand commercial, cultural, and governmental ties with other nations and states and to seek business investment; and

WHEREAS, There is a shortage of state facilities to accommodate or to receive visiting dignitaries, trade missions, and cultural delegations; and

WHEREAS, The Stanford House is a unique part of California's history in Sacramento, and there may be space within it to include adaptive uses such as reception areas, conference rooms, and overnight accommodations in an environment that is uniquely Californian; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Department of Parks and Recreation is requested to include in the preliminary general plan submitted to the State Park and Recreation Commission for the Stanford House State Historic Park consideration of the feasibility of such adaptive uses as reception areas, conference rooms, and overnight accommodations; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of Parks and Recreation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 96

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 88—Relative to Newport Bay Pollution.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Upper Newport Bay and Newport Harbor constitute an invaluable natural resource to be maintained and preserved to every extent possible; and

WHEREAS, Newport Bay and Newport Harbor constitute an invaluable recreational and tourist resource to the Orange County Coast and to our state and nation as a whole; and

WHEREAS, It is public policy that the quality of water used for recreation, fishing, and consumption must be safe to the public for those uses; and

WHEREAS, There is growing public concern over the potential problem of toxics in our recreational and consumptive supplies of water; and

WHEREAS, Recent monitoring of Newport Bay has produced evidence of the presence of toxics in the bay; and

WHEREAS, DDT and other toxics, including PCB's and heavy metals, continue to be present in Newport Bay in high concentrations, and point and nonpoint sources of pollution continue to threaten the water quality of Newport Bay; and

WHEREAS, Water quality in Newport Bay continues to be degraded by high bacterial levels; and

WHEREAS, These findings have increased the public's concern over the safety of recreational opportunities in Newport Bay and the safety of the consumption of fish caught in the vicinity of Newport Harbor; and

WHEREAS, Section 13225 of the Water Code charges the California regional water quality control board for each region with the responsibility for coordinating action by local, state, and federal agencies to prevent and abate water pollution within its region; and

WHEREAS, In November 1985, the California Regional Water Quality Control Board, Santa Ana Region, prepared a report to the California Legislature, "Newport Bay: Water Quality Issues and Recommendations" as directed by Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 38 (Res. Ch. 97, Stats. 1985); and

WHEREAS, That report, known as the "SCR 38 Report" assessed the water quality of Newport Bay and included recommendations for a specific action plan on the part of local, state, and federal agencies to protect the quality of water in Newport Bay from unhealthful pollutants; and

WHEREAS, Two years have passed since the issuance of the SCR 38 Report; and

WHEREAS, During that two-year period, the Upper Newport Bay Sedimentation Control and Restoration Program was also completed, including the dredging of 2.4 million cubic yards of sediment at a cost of $11.9 million to state and local agencies; and

WHEREAS, During that two-year period, local agencies have also embarked upon efforts, in coordination with private industry, to reduce nutrient flows to upper Newport Bay and Newport Harbor; and

WHEREAS, During that two-year period, state and local agencies have also been implementing the recommendations contained in the SCR 38 Report; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature reaffirms the authority of the California Regional Water Quality Control Board, Santa Ana Region, in carrying out the reponsibilities of Section 13225 of the Water Code for Newport Bay; and be it further

Resolved, That the regional board utilize a portion of its funding to prepare, in concert with other agencies responsible for water quality monitoring and enforcement efforts in Newport Bay, a followup report on the water quality of the bay and the bay's watershed in view of the activities during the past two years; and be it further

Resolved, That the followup report include an assessement of the implementation and recommendations of the SCR 38 Report; and be it further

Resolved, That the report prepared by the regional board include recommendations for a specific action plan on the part of local, state, and federal agencies to protect the quality of water in Newport Bay from unhealthful pollutants; and be it further

Resolved, That the report prepared by the regional board be submitted to the Legislature not later that September 1, 1989; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the State Water Resources Control Board, the California Regional Water Quality Control Board, Santa Ana Region, the Department of Fish and Game, the County of Orange, and the City of Newport Beach.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 97

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 93—Relative to disease prevention.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The prevention of cancer is one of the most urgent medical challenges of our day; and

WHEREAS, Cancer is predicted to strike three out of four California families during a lifetime; and

WHEREAS, The National Cancer Institute estimates that 35 percent of the deaths from cancer are attributable to the type of diet which is currently typical in the United States; and

WHEREAS, The American Cancer Society recommends that people should reduce their intake of fats and increase their consumption of high fiber foods, such as fruits and vegetables, as a part of a diet that may help reduce cancer risk; and

WHEREAS, The American Heart Association, the American Diabetes Association, and the United States Departments of Agriculture and Health and Human Services also make similar dietary recommendations to reduce the risk of heart disease, diabetes, and other chronic diseases; and

WHEREAS, The State Department of Health Services has recognized the significant relationship between diet and cancer as a threat to public health, and is actively promoting a doubling of the current consumption of fruits and vegetables in the typical California diet as one of the ways to reduce the risk of cancer; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California declares a goal for yearly consumption of fruit and vegetables of 500 pounds, the equivalent of a minimum of 5 servings per day, per person in California by the year 2000 A.D. as a chronic disease prevention measure; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor, the Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency, the State Director of Health Services, and to the director of each county health department.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 98

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 97—Relative to automobile insurance.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The law provides for the establishment of an assigned risk plan for the equitable apportionment among insurers of applicants for automobile bodily injury and property damage liability insurance, who are unable to procure it through ordinary means; and

WHEREAS, The California Automobile Assigned Risk Plan, approved and issued by the Insurance Commissioner, provides for adjustment of premiums based on penalty points assigned for convictions of, among other things, operating a private passenger motor vehicle without state authority, including an assignment of five penalty points for operating such vehicle during a period of revocation or suspension of motor vehicle registration or driver's license; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California requests the Insurance Commissioner, on or before March 1, 1989, to provide for more equitable assignments of points by assigning only two penalty points for the conviction for operating a private passenger motor vehicle without state authority, if a motor vehicle registration or driver's license has not been renewed for more than 90 days but less than one year; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Insurance Commissioner, and the governing committee of the California Automobile Assigned Risk Plan.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 99

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 101—Relative to aviation and airports.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988 ]

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That, notwithstanding Resolution Chapter 159 of the Statutes of 1986, or Resolution Chapter 2 of the Statutes of 1987, the California Commission on Aviation and Airports, established by those measures, be composed of 25 members, as follows:

(a) The Senate Committee on Rules shall appoint the following 12 members:

(1) A manager of an international airport or the general manager of a major municipal airport department.

(2) A manager of an airport serving general aviation.

(3) A representative of a major airline with service to and from California.

(4) A licensed general aviation pilot.

(5) An aircraft mechanic currently employed in the trade.

(6) A person currently employed as an air traffic controller.

(7) A representative of the agricultural aerial application business community.

(8) A representative of the air cargo or international trade industry.

(9) Three Members of the Senate or their designees.

(10) A public member.

(b) The Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint the following 12 members:

(1) A manager of an airport serving general aviation.

(2) A representative of a national airline with service to California or a representative of a third-level air carrier with service to California.

(3) A security expert experienced in handling emergency situations.

(4) A representative of general aviation.

(5) A person with expertise in building safety and construction.

(6) A licensed and active pilot flying for a major or national airline serving California.

(7) A representative of local government with jurisdiction over a public use airport.

(8) A representative of an aircraft manufacturer.

(9) Three Members of the Assembly or their designees.

(10) A public member.

(c) The Chief of the Division of Aeronautics of the Department of Transportation; and be it further

Resolved, That, notwithstanding Resolution Chapter 159 of the Statutes of 1986, the Senate Committee on Rules may make allocations from the Contingent Fund of the Senate for the expenses of the commission and the members of the commission appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, and the Assembly Committee on Rules may make allocations from the Contingent Fund of the Assembly for the expenses of the members of the commission appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 100

Senate Joint Resolution No. 34—Relative to General Clifton B. Cates.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988.]

WHEREAS, From time to time, our nation has given birth to great men whose numerous deeds of valor and honor stand as self-evident, leaving no need for reiteration of the details of their heroic service; and

WHEREAS, In the annals of United States military history, there have been few men of the august stature of General Clifton B. Cates, 19th Commandant of the United States Marine Corps, whose military career in service of the most inviolate principles of freedom and preparedness stand as exemplary testimony to the irrefutable value of the American way of life; and

WHEREAS, A native of Tiptonville, Tennessee, Clifton B. Cates graduated with a law degree from the University of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, Clifton B. Cates entered the Marine Corps as a Second Lieutenant in 1917 at the beginning of World War I and during the course of the swiftly moving two years that followed, the young man had found his true element and the Marine Corps one of its most capable and colorful leaders; and

WHEREAS, Immediately on completion of officer training,

Lieutenant Cates found himself commanding troops as a Platoon Leader in the 96th Company, Sixth Marines; his batallion sailed for France in January 1918; and

WHEREAS, After intensive combat training and a short tour in a quiet sector of the front, the Second Army Division, into which the Fourth Marine Brigade had been incorporated, was thrown into the crucial Second Battle of the Marne where Lieutenant Cates was wounded and gassed in his first combat action, but refused to be evacuated; and

WHEREAS, At Belleau Wood, Lieutenant Cates led the unit that took the strategic village of Bouresches and succeeded to command the 96th Company when all officers senior to him became casualties; this was the first of five occasions that he was to command the 96th Company for this same reason; and

WHEREAS, General Cates holds the singular distinction of being the most decorated Marine Corps officer of World War I, having been awarded the Navy Cross, Distinguished Service Cross with Oak-Leaf Cluster, Silver Star with Oak-Leaf Cluster and Purple Heart for his meritorious military service; and France conferred upon him the Legion of Honor and Croix de Guerre with one gilt star and two palms; and

WHEREAS, A career military man whose exemplary service spanned three wars, Lieutenant Colonel Cates was chosen as Commanding Officer, First Marines in May 1942, and shortly thereafter sailed to the Pacific with the First Marine Division; and

WHEREAS, Colonel Cates' regiment had the distinction of winning the first major engagement on Guadalcanal, where the regiment annihilated the formidable Ichiki Detachment; and

WHEREAS, On September 16, 1942, he was promoted to Brigadier General and on February 1, 1944, to Major General; and

WHEREAS, In June 1944, Major General Cates returned to the Pacific to assume the post of Commanding General of the Fourth Marine Division near the end of the Saipan operation and commanded the division in the assault of Tinian and throughout Iwo Jima and for the remainder of World War II; and

WHEREAS, On January 1, 1948, Major General Cates was promoted to General and assumed the prestigious post of Commandant of the Marine Corps in which office he was destined to have an eventful administration; and

WHEREAS, As Commandant of the Marine Corps, General Cates played an integral role in rescuing the Corps from relegation to obscurity in postwar reorganization of the Armed Forces; and

WHEREAS, General Cates' forthright and enlightening testimony before the House Armed Services Committee partially tempered and rechanneled efforts to relegate the Corps to a minor and subsidiary role and paved the way for subsequent passage of landmark legislation which set the combat-ready strength of the Marine Corps at three divisions and three corresponding aircraft wings; and

WHEREAS, With the outbreak of hostilities in Korea, the Commandant faced a crisis of immediate urgency, and with great organization, efficiency, and alacritious action, was able to send the First Provisional Marine Brigade and its air component to the Far East nine days following the order for its activation; and

WHEREAS, Thus, the Marine Corps, under General Cates' sagacious and capable mentorship, did accomplish its mission as the nation's force-in-readiness, and at a time when attrition had seriously sapped its strength; and

WHEREAS, General Cates' administration as Commandant also saw the practical development by the Marine Corps of two important tactical innovations: the helicopter and body armor; and

WHEREAS, Current United States Navy policy favors the selection of heroes of the Naval Service when vessels are named, with only very few Marines being singled out for this distinguished honor; and

WHEREAS, This Legislature feels that it is most fitting to name an appropriate United States Naval Vessel in honor of General Clifton B. Cates, a Marine of great distinction, courage, and character whose unremitting service to his country spanned three wars and five decades; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and the Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Secretary of the Navy is urged and memorialized to name a Guided Missile Destroyer, or another appropriate United States Navy vessel, in honor of General Clifton B. Cates, 19th Commandant of the United States Marine Corps; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to the Honorable William L. Ball, Secretary of the Navy, Department of the Navy, the Pentagon-4E686, Washington, D.C. 20350.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 101

Senate Joint Resolution No. 45—Relative to recovery of natural resources damaged by 1987 wildfires.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, Multiple natural resources and uses on approximately 750,000 acres of national forest and adjoining mixed ownership lands in California were damaged by wildfires during the summer of 1987; and

WHEREAS, The Forest Service of the United States Department of Agriculture has completed emergency rehabilitation measures on critical areas of the damaged lands, consisting of aerial seeding, stream channel work, contour, filling, and road drainage, and has begun the restoration of commercial forest lands through the salvage of commercial timber and reforestation efforts; and

WHEREAS, The Forest Service has submitted appropriation requests through the federal budget process to further the recovery effort of all resources, including fisheries and wildlife habitats, soil and water resources, recreational facilities and uses, forage resources, transportation systems, and timber resources to provide a balanced program for national forest recovery, with the total cost for this initiative estimated to be $165 million; and

WHEREAS, The fiscal 1988 appropriations bill included funding sufficient to carry out the initial and important phase of recovery and harvest of salvable timber, but appropriations for other natural resources and uses associated with the recovery were not adequate to complete the massive effort required to assure consideration of a balance of resources and uses and provide the assistance for recovery of the damaged lands to their prefire condition; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Senate and Assembly of the State of California respectfully memorialize the President and Congress of the United States to provide their full support and approval of budget requests of the Forest Service of the United States Department of Agriculture for the recovery effort on national forest lands damaged by wildfires in 1987, and thus provide consideration for all natural resources and uses on these lands; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Secretary of Agriculture, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the appropriate House Appropriations Committee, the appropriate Senate Appropriations Committee, and each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 102

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 37—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, by adding a paragraph to subdivision (a) of, and by amending subdivision (c) of, Section 2 of Article XIII A thereof, relating to taxation.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988.]

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California at its 1987–88 Regular Session commencing on the first day of December 1986, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of the Legislature voting therefor, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that the Constitution of the State be amended as follows:

First—That a paragraph is added at the end of subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A thereof, to read:

The Legislature may extend the provisions of this subdivision relating to the transfer of base year values from original properties to replacement dwellings of homeowners over the age of 55 years to severely disabled homeowners, but only with respect to those replacement dwellings purchased or newly constructed on or after the effective date of this paragraph.

Second—That subdivision (c) of Section 2 of Article XIII A thereof is amended to read:

(c) For purposes of subdivision (a), the Legislature may provide that the term "newly constructed" shall not include any of the following:

(1) The construction or addition of any active solar energy system.

(2) The construction or installation of any fire sprinkler system, other fire extinguishing system, fire detection system, or fire-related egress improvement, as defined by the Legislature, which is constructed or installed after the effective date of this paragraph.

(3) The construction, installation, or modification on or after the effective date of this paragraph of any portion or structural component of a single or multiple family dwelling which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption if the construction, installation, or modification is for the purpose of making the dwelling more accessible to severely disabled person.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 103

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 100—Relative to solid waste.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988.]

WHEREAS, California citizens generated approximately 37 million tons of garbage in 1986, which equals almost one and one-half tons per person; and

WHEREAS, Waste generation is projected to reach 39 million tons annually by 1991, and 43 million tons by 1996; and

WHEREAS, While waste generation continues to spiral, the siting of new landfills and the expansion of current landfills is losing its appeal as an option due to encroaching residential neighborhoods and concerns about health and safety; and

WHEREAS, Unless new landfills are sited, or alternatives are employed to reduce the amount of garbage to be buried, most of the landfill capacity in California will be gone by 1995; and

WHEREAS, The tremendous amount of garbage being generated has also contributed to the amount of litter on our streets and highways, as evidenced by the increase in litter volume by 24 percent between 1974 and 1985; and

WHEREAS, Recycling and reusing our natural resources serves as the most attractive alternative as a waste treatment by prolonging the usefulness of our dwindling landfills, conserving our resources and reducing the amount of unsightly litter in California; and

WHEREAS, It is imperative that both the Legislature and the administration take a leadership role in the promotion and use of recycled materials in order to bolster recycling markets and to set a positive example for the rest of the state; and

WHEREAS, The Department of General Services administers an office white paper recycling program for all state agencies, collecting a total of 51,800 pounds of paper in 1986; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature does not currently promote a policy of encouraging the procurement of recycled office supplies by state government offices and does not provide a collection service for recyclable paper products for all capitol offices; and

WHEREAS, While there are several items listed in the Department of General Services' Procurement Catalog which are made from recycled materials, these items are not marked or identified as recycled materials; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Department of General Services establish a collection service for state government offices in and around the capitol building for recyclable paper products; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of General Services indicate next to each item listed in its procurement catalog whether that item is made from recycled materials; and be it further

Resolved, That each Member of the Legislature and each state department and agency take a leadership role in promoting recycling and reuse by ordering and using recycled office supplies whenever possible; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor, to every Member of the Legislature, and to every state agency and department.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 104

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 111—Relative to Peace Day.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Peace is a goal to which all persons, regardless of political affiliation, are committed; and

WHEREAS, In September 1984, in a speech before the United Nations, President Reagan stated, "We need a fresh approach to reducing international tensions. History demonstrates beyond controversy that just as the arms competition has its root in political suspicions and anxieties, so it can be channeled in more stabilizing directions and eventually be eliminated, if those political suspicions and anxieties are addressed as well"; and

WHEREAS, Congress passed and the President signed legislation in 1984 to establish the United States Institute of Peace; and

WHEREAS, A broad spectrum of our elected officials, religious leaders, veterans' groups, business persons, physicians, teachers, lawyers, and homemakers, among others, have determined that peace and a strong national security are compatible concepts; and

WHEREAS, Many Californians have made significant contributions to the search for a lasting peace, including letters from children to leaders of foreign countries, students who have graduated from colleges and universities with degrees in peace and conflict studies, and individuals who have quietly brought peace initiatives to the public forum; and

WHEREAS, It is crucial to our participatory democracy that every citizen understand the importance of his or her involvement in the achievement of the goal of peace at an individual, community, and global level; and

WHEREAS, Recent initiatives, such as the late and respected psychotherapist Carl Rogers' Peace Project, have brought new meaning to the role of responsible citizen commitment to achieving individual, community, and global peace; and

WHEREAS, The State of California, through many volunteer organizations and community activities, has assumed leadership among the other 49 states, and indeed among many nations of the world, in developing responsible and innovative approaches to achieving world peace; and

WHEREAS, California students especially, through their involvement in exchange programs, world affairs councils, student councils, and other student organizations, have demonstrated their commitment to bringing peace to their own communities and to the world they will soon inherit; and

WHEREAS, Educators, scientists, business leaders, physicians, and other professionals have organized within their professions to seek greater dialogue and greater understanding among nations of the world; and

WHEREAS, International cooperation among professional associations has proven to transcend artificial and state-imposed limitations in that cooperation; and

WHEREAS, There has arisen within every nation, and especially within less democratic nations, an outspoken and growing body of progressive leaders seeking to achieve peaceful resolution of conflicts and seeking to avoid the unimaginable consequences of thermonuclear war; and

WHEREAS, These efforts should be supported, within the United States, within California, and within our communities, and by each of us personally; and

WHEREAS, California communities are today engaging in many locally oriented peace activities, sponsored by cities and counties, and supported by thousands of individual Californians; and

WHEREAS, This community expression of the desire for peaceful resolution of conflict has successfully united within these communities diverse cultural, economic, political, racial, and ethnic groups, and has brought together people of all ages and interests in the expression of this common goal; and

WHEREAS, It is altogether fitting and valuable to recognize and encourage these individual and community efforts by more and more Californians by establishing an annual day to celebrate the common goal of peace; now therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Governor is encouraged to proclaim annually the third Sunday in May as Peace Day in recognition of the desire of all Californians to establish a firm and lasting peace in the world; and be it further

Resolved, That it is the intention of the Legislature that all persons and institutions, and especially the individual communities, cities, and counties, and various professional and civic and veterans' organizations of California shall set aside some part of that day toward the promotion and recognition of the peaceful resolution of conflict through mutual understanding and good will; and be it further

Resolved, That it is the intention of the Legislature by this measure to recognize specific community models for the celebration of Peace Day and to assist in the statewide coordination of all community efforts.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 105

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 117—Relative to health care awareness.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The public lacks awareness of the ownership disclosure laws that govern the making of referrals for related health services by healing arts practitioners; and

WHEREAS, It is essential that the health care consumers are made aware of all of the circumstances surrounding a practitioner's referral; and

WHEREAS, California law allows healing arts practitioners to own and operate organizations providing related health care services; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature has resisted passing legislation that would prohibit healing arts practitioners from owning organizations providing related health care services, such as clinical laboratories, radiological facilities, and physical therapy practices; and

WHEREAS, The Federal Trade Commission has held out the California health care facility ownership disclosure law, Section 654.2 of the Business and Professions Code, as an excellent example of a practical deterrent to possible abuses brought about by overutilization of the services provided at a health care facility in which the referring practitioner has a significant beneficial ownership interest; and

WHEREAS, Section 654.2 of the Business and Professions Code requires the Department of Consumer Affairs to enforce and administer laws that require healing arts practioners who hold a significant beneficial interest in an organization to which patient referrals are made to disclose that significant beneficial interest to the patients or third-party payers that they refer thereto; and

WHEREAS, Section 654.2 of the Business and Professions Code requires that a referring practitioner inform his or her patients of a beneficial interest that exists by way of ownership in any organization to which the patient is being referred for related health services; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Department of Consumer Affairs is requested to carry out a public information program designed to make the health care consuming public aware of a referring healing arts practitioner's responsibility to disclose certain beneficial interests to his or her patients and to third-party payers; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Director of Consumer Affairs.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 106

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 121—Relative to highways.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988 ]

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Department of Transportation is hereby requested to prepare a project study of completing the Route 87 Freeway from Coleman Avenue to the Route 101 interchange in the City of San Jose and to report its findings to the Legislature; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of Transportation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 107

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 126—Relative to differential treatment at the University of California.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988.]

WHEREAS, A major goal of every educational institution should be to ensure an equitable educational environment for each student; and

WHEREAS, A major measure of the effectiveness of a postsecondary education institution should be its success in providing an equitable educational environment for its students; and

WHEREAS, "Differential treatment," for purposes of this resolution, means subtle, often unintentional policies, practices, and behaviors that serve to affirm and reinforce stereotypes based on personal characteristics, including race and gender; and

WHEREAS, Research studies, conducted nationally by Burrell, 1981; Duncan, 1976; Elmore, 1983; Hall, 1986; Mingle, 1978; Rutledge, 1983; and Trujillo, 1986 conclude that differential treatment is a problem in higher education; and

WHEREAS, This research indicates that differential treatment serves to create an unsupportive and inhospitable educational environment for women and students of color, that, among certain students, may result in dissatisfaction with their faculty, high attrition rates, and a hesitancy among the affected students to pursue advanced degrees; and

WHEREAS, Institutions of higher education currently have few measures for evaluating student exposure to differential treatment or for measuring the extent to which an equitable educational environment is being provided for students generally; and

WHEREAS, The State of California has a fundamental interest in demanding institutional accountability on questions relating to educational equity; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Regents of the University of California and the Trustees of the California State University, utilizing extensive ongoing consultation with students and faculty, are hereby requested to develop and implement programs and policies as are necessary to identify and correct any existing behaviors, practices, and policies which result in differential treatment among students of the University of California and of the California State University; and be it further

Resolved, That in developing the programs and policies described above, the Regents of the University of California and the Trustees of the California State University are specifically requested to consider the following:

(a) Addressing differential treatment issues in evaluations of faculty performance.

(b) Adoption and enforcement of specific policy statements by the Regents of the University of California and the Trustees of the California State University that discriminatory policies, behavior, and practices will not be tolerated.

(c) Establishment of systemwide or campus based programs designed to raise the awareness and sensitivity of students, faculty, staff, and administrators to questions of educational equity generally and differential treatment in particular.

(d) Inclusion of information on educational equity, nondiscriminatory teaching techniques, teaching practices that are sensitive to different learning styles, and differential treatment issues in workshops for faculty and advisers, including teaching assistants.

(e) Development of materials and programs on the maintenance of an equitable educational environment to be included in the orientation of new faculty, staff, students, and administrators. This information may be incorporated into existing orientation materials and programs.

(f) Expansion of programs that currently serve to identify or mitigate the practices and behaviors that result in differential treatment; and be it further

Resolved, That the Regents of the University of California and the Trustees of the California State University are requested to submit a report to the Governor and Legislature not later than March 31, 1990, detailing steps taken by the University of California and the California State University to achieve the intent of this resolution.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 108

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 131—Relative to the San Joaquin Amtrak route.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, Legislative authorization was granted in 1987 for the addition of a third daily passenger train over the San Joaquin Amtrak route; and

WHEREAS, There is a demand for expanded service along this route; and

WHEREAS, The third train is identified as a high state priority in the Caltrans Rail Passenger Development Plan, which has been approved by the California Transportation Commission; and

WHEREAS, Due to federal budget reductions, the National Railroad Passenger Corporation is unable to supply the equipment necessary for adding the third train; and

WHEREAS, The Budget Act of 1988 (Item 2660-492-046) contains an appropriation of approximately $1,222,000 from the Transportation Planning and Development Account to help fund the acquisition of rail cars and equipment for a third San Joaquin train; and

WHEREAS, Alternatives exist for providing the necessary equipment, including rehabilitating existing cars currently stored at Amtrak's shops in Indiana, borrowing excess equipment from other lines, and leasing or purchasing foreign equipment; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Department of Transportation is requested to work with the National Railroad Passenger Corporation to explore alternatives and determine the most feasible option for obtaining the necessary equipment to run a third daily train over the San Joaquin Amtrak route; and be it further

Resolved, That, in exploring alternatives for providing the equipment, the department contact foreign manufacturers, explore the possibility of long-term financing, and determine appropriate funding sources for obtaining the equipment; and be it further

Resolved, That the department report to the Legislature on or before September 1, 1988, on its recommendations for obtaining the equipment necessary to run the third daily train; and be it further

Resolved, That the department include in its report an estimate of additional state funding that may be required, if any, beyond that provided for this purpose in the Budget Act of 1988, and an identification of recommended funding sources, including, but not limited to, funds not required for intercity or commuter rail operations from previous budget acts which have now reverted to the Transportation Planning and Development Account, surplus funds currently under contract with Amtrack, surplus funds from the Budget Act of 1987 which the California Transportation Commission has not yet allocated to the department, and Petroleum Violation Escrow funds; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Director of Transportation, each member of the California Transportation Commission, and the President of the National Railroad Passenger Corporation.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 109

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 136—Relative to a California Native American Monument.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988.]

WHEREAS, California Native American history and culture are integral to the heritage of the State of California; and

WHEREAS, The significance of Native American contributions to California's heritage has often been overlooked, to the detriment of California Native Americans; and

WHEREAS, Many of the losses sustained by Native Americans throughout California history have not been adequately corrected or compensated for; and

WHEREAS, Affirmative efforts to enhance public awareness of the cultural and historic contributions of California Native Americans are necessary; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That a monument honoring California Native Americans should be established; and be it further

Resolved, That the Native American Heritage Commission, based on suggestions from the California Native American community, and with the assistance and cooperation of other state agencies as appropriate, shall determine the type of monument to be established and its location; and be it further

Resolved, That all appropriate state agencies shall cooperate with the staff of the Native American Heritage Commission in securing private and public funding for design and construction of the monument; and be it further

Resolved, That in awarding the contracts for design and construction of the monument, preference shall be given to members of the California Native American community; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution on to the directors of the Native American Heritage Commission.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 110

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 137—Relative to a California-Queretaro sister state relationship.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The culture, art, and architecture of California and the State of Queretaro in Mexico share a common history as shown by the presence of missions of great architectural beauty in each state; and

WHEREAS, Queretaro is best known as the birthplace of the Mexican Revolution and for the signing of the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo which ceded California to the United States; and

WHEREAS, The Governor of Queretaro, Mariano Palacios-Alcocer desires to form a sister state relationship between California and Queretaro, in recognition of the additional common elements of culture, geography, and religious institutions shared by each state; and

WHEREAS, California acknowledges the contributions made to the history of both states, including the legacy left to the language, art, architecture, and religious institutions of California, by Father Junipero Serra; and

WHEREAS, A hospital has recently been built in the City of Jalpan, Queretaro, and the exchange of medical and dental personnel would be complementary to the medical development of both states; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That California recognizes, honors, and celebrates the common bonds between California and the State of Queretaro; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature, on behalf of the people of the State of California, extends to the people of the State of Queretaro an invitation to join California as a sister state in order to encourage artistic, academic, and professional exchanges and to lead to an indelible friendship and lasting relationship between the citizens of California and the citizens of Queretaro; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor of the State of Queretaro.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 111

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 153—Relative to the Mokelumne River Basin.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The northern portion of San Joaquin County has a number of water supply and water quality problems that are unique to that area; and

WHEREAS, The area's water problems affect a number of local agencies within the Mokelumne River Basin; and

WHEREAS, The Department of Water Resources is willing to take the lead in a cooperative study with those local agencies to determine possible solutions to the area's water problems; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That all of the water supply agencies within the Mokelumne River Basin are encouraged to join with the Department of Water Resources in a preliminary study to review the water supply and water quality problems in the area and determine possible solutions to those problems.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 112

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 158—Relative to the Hlel-Din Memorial Bridge.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988.]

WHEREAS, A new bridge has been built by the Department of Transportation upon the site of the Native American Village of Hlel-Din, the ancestral home of the Hlel-We; and

WHEREAS, It is believed that the village of Hlel-Din was important to many different tribes as a gathering place for the exchange of ideas, as well as goods, and for the seeking of marriage partners; and

WHEREAS, The native villagers and their descendants have been denied their ancestral home since the Gold Rush in the 1850's, because of mining, logging, and other developments, and progress, in its many forms, has taken its toll on the native people; and

WHEREAS, There has been no acknowledgment of the historic village of Hlel-Din by the State of California; and

WHEREAS, The dedication of Bridge No. 4-50, east of Willow Creek on State Highway Route 299, has the support of the Boards of Supervisors of Trinity and Humboldt Counties, the Hoopa Valley Tribal Business Council, and the Department of Transportation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That California State Bridge No. 4-50, 4 miles east of Willow Creek on State Highway Route 299, is hereby officially designated the Hlel-Din Memorial Bridge; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation be directed to determine the cost of erecting appropriate plaques and markers, consistent with the signing requirements for the state highway system, showing this official designation and, upon receiving donations from private sources covering that cost, to erect those plaques and markers; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of Transportation.

---

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 113

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 164—Relative to the National Association of Educational Office Personnel and the California Association of Educational Office Personnel.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The positions of educational office employees exist for the common purpose of service to others; and

WHEREAS, Educational office employees have acknowledged a special duty to join in formulating public policy as it relates to education; and

WHEREAS, The quality of service rendered by educational office personnel directly influences the effectiveness of service rendered by the educational agency or institution as a whole; and

WHEREAS, Educational office employees have performed the duties with energy and enthusiasm, are patient, fair, and helpful in dealing with others, use utmost discretion and sound judgment in the performance of their duties, and remain loyal to those with whom they work; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the National Association of Educational Office Personnel and, in particular, the California Association of Educational Office Personnel, be commended for the valuable services that their members provide to our educational system; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the National Association of Educational Office Personnel and the State President of the California Association of Educational Office Personnel.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 114

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 34—Relative to federal transportation funding.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The federal transportation trust fund, which consists primarily of user fees from fuel and excise taxes, is dedicated to the support and construction of the nation's transportation system; and

WHEREAS, Not all funds paid into the transportation trust fund have been allocated; and

WHEREAS, The accumulated balance in the transportation trust fund is approximately $9.5 billion; and

WHEREAS, The federal interstate construction program will be completed in 1992; and

WHEREAS, Maintaining a large balance in the transportation trust fund is a critical element of the federal budget deficit reduction compromise through the 1988–89 fiscal year; and

WHEREAS, Failure to allocate all available transportation trust funds has caused California to defer important transportation projects; and

WHEREAS, California must have flexible and adequate funding resources to maintain, rehabilitate, improve, and expand the state's transportation system; and

WHEREAS, It is imperative that California have a modern and efficient transportation system to support continued economic growth; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress and President of the United States to return to the states, in addition to the usual allocation of federal transportation funds, the accumulated balance in the federal transportation trust fund over the three-year fiscal year period of 1989–90 through 1991–92 in proportion to each state's contribution to the federal transportation trust fund; and be it further

Resolved, That these funds be available for use on the highest priority transportation projects, as determined by each state; and be it further

Resolved, That in order that this process to distribute these dedicated funds for their specified purpose not adversely affect efforts to reduce the federal budget deficit after the 1988–89 fiscal year, the federal transportation trust fund be removed from the unified budget after October 1, 1989; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 115

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 59—Relative to the federal timber receipts.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The forest fires of 1987 may result in a significant financial loss due to the decrease in federal timber receipts in many of the counties of California; and

WHEREAS, The Forest Service, in the United States Department of Agriculture, contributes 25 percent of new timber sales on federal lands, in lieu of property taxes, to counties; and

WHEREAS, Fire-damaged trees must be harvested immediately to prevent infestation by voracious bark beetles and heartwood bores and other deterioration; and

WHEREAS, For the next several years, loggers will discontinue cutting green trees and concentrate on those trees damaged by fire; and

WHEREAS, The Forest Service is not required to share timber receipts for salvaged lumber; and

WHEREAS, Counties are required to spend one-half of the timber receipts they receive on schools and one-half on road maintenance and construction; and

WHEREAS, Many rural counties depend heavily on the federal timber receipts they receive for their schools and road repairs; and

WHEREAS, These counties currently receive between $35 million and $55 million per year in federal timber receipts from the Forest Service; and

WHEREAS, The Forest Service estimates that counties could lose up to $20 million for schools and roads; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to enact legislation to guarantee each rural county currently receiving federal timber receipts a minimum allocation of timber receipts for the 1987–88, 1988–89, 1989–90, and 1990–91 fiscal years to help ensure that each county may maintain essential public services; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Respresentative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the Chief of the Forest Service.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 116

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 65—Relative to bulk transactions involving electric power.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, There is in California a diverse group of private businesses and public agencies which are buyers and sellers of electricity in bulk transactions, and which seek to interact in a marketplace for this purpose within the context of applicable federal and state laws and regulations for the purpose of mutually advantageous electricity purchase and sale transactions; and

WHEREAS, The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission and the Public Utilities Commission are in favor of an evaluation of market opportunities and the creation of a common market structure to facilitate the purchase and sale of electricity in California, and these agencies are engaged in ongoing studies of the bulk transmission of electricity on both a state and regional basis; and

WHEREAS, There currently exists in California an electrical transmission system that efficiently carries electricity from existing generation facilities and that is generally well adapted to facilitating bulk electricity transactions between buyers and sellers, although, to efficiently handle bulk transactions on an increasing basis, the existing system may require improvements; and

WHEREAS, Existing transmission systems are currently being utilized for a wide variety of electricity transactions but are not being used to promote market-based electricity transactions as effectively as could be, because increasing demand for transmission access is exceeding the capability of systems to accommodate all requests for transmission, because the technical expertise needed for effective utilization is not widely shared, and mechanisms for resolving disputes over financing and constructing improvements are inadequate; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the California Legislature requests all appropriate state and federal agencies of government to support and continue the studies currently in progress relative to electrical transmission system improvements to facilitate bulk transmission of electrical power, to expedite resolution of any disputes that may arise between buyers, sellers, and transmitters of electricity concerning utilization of transmission systems, and to facilitate the construction of necessary new facilities, to the end that sellers and buyers of bulk electrical power have genuine opportunities to transact business in a free and competitive marketplace; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, to the Public Utilities Commission, and to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 117

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 71—Relative to manufactured homes.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) has proposed regulations that would mandate compliance with flood-plain site elevation requirements in existing mobilehome parks; and

WHEREAS, These regulations would require that when manufactured homes are moved and resited, are substantially improved or repaired or are replaced by another manufactured home on the same site, that the floor level be established above the base flood elevation by use of pilings or other methods and that the utility pedestal, utility connections and equipment, porches and stairways, water and waste disposal facilities, and other accessories on the space likewise be elevated for the attachment and access to the home; and

WHEREAS, The proposed regulations, which remove an existing "grandfather clause," would be mandatory upon local governments; and

WHEREAS, Under the proposed regulations local governments would be required to do flood plain studies and mapping, to adopt conforming local ordinances, construction standards, fee schedules, and numerous criteria for installation of manufactured homes; and

WHEREAS, The State of California has 58 counties and 447 charter and general law cities that have established and currently maintain various zoning, planning, health and safety, and similar local government requirements for mobilehome parks and for the siting of manufactured homes over the span of at least the past 25 years; and

WHEREAS, The State of California currently has sites for 435,000 individually owned manufactured homes, valued at approximately fourteen billion dollars ($14,000,000,000), located in over 5,800 housing sites that provide for over 750,000 citizens of the state; and

WHEREAS, The proposed FEMA regulations could affect 25 to 35 percent of all mobilehome parks in the state located in over 300 jurisdictions; and

WHEREAS, The proposed regulations would result in a long-term devastating effect on property values for each affected property category, the reduction of manufactured housing opportunities, the increase of rental charges because of the loss of revenues, the further implementation of rent control measures, additional legislative activity, the likely increase of litigation, and ultimately the permanent closure and elimination of numerous mobilehome parks in the state, without any offsetting and constructive benefit; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorialize the Federal Emergency Management Agency to continue the exemption from site elevation requirements for existing mobilehome parks unless and until the Federal Emergency Management Agency has determined by actual study and published documentation that termination of the exemption is necessary to protect property values or protect against loss of life or injury; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the Federal Emergency Management Agency.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 118

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 83—Relative to the federal diesel fuel excise tax.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 7, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The collection point for the federal excise tax on diesel fuel for off-road vehicle use was changed from the retail to the wholesale level by the Congress as part of the 1987 Budget Reconciliation Act; and

WHEREAS, Farmers and other off-road users are exempt from paying the federal 15.1 cents per gallon diesel fuel tax; and

WHEREAS, When adopting the 1987 legislation, Congress required the Internal Revenue Service to collect the tax and offer farmers and other off-road users a refund at the end of the tax year; and

WHEREAS, As of April 1, 1988, farmers and other off-road users began paying the diesel tax at the time of purchase; and

WHEREAS, This change has created an unnecessary financial burden on California farmers and other off-road users of diesel fuel; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to repeal the collection of the federal diesel fuel excise tax for off-road vehicle use; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 119

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 79—Relative to AIDS education in the institutions of higher education in California.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, California has the second highest incidence of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) cases nationwide, with approximately 10,000 people who have contracted the disease and over half of those have already died; and

WHEREAS, College students are often living on their own for the first time and frequently experiment with sexual activity and drug and alcohol use, but still do not perceive themselves to be at-risk of contracting the AIDS virus; and

WHEREAS, Many authorities, including the Surgeon General of the United States, the National Education Association, and the American College Health Association have recommended the immediate implementation of AIDS prevention education in schools; and

WHEREAS, More than 2.1 million Californians either attend, or are employed at, the state's institutions of higher education, representing over 7 percent of California's population; and

WHEREAS, The public education role of colleges and universities makes them particularly well-suited to implement a comprehensive AIDS education program and to disseminate critical public health information on AIDS to the students, faculty, administrators, and staff on each campus; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That each institution of higher education in California is encouraged to develop policies and guidelines for campus issues related to AIDS that do all of the following:

(1) Are based on current information and reflect at least the recommendations of the Centers for Disease Control and the American College Health Association.

(2) Are designed to prevent the spread of AIDS, and present accurate information on the transmission of AIDS.

(3) Address the rights of people with AIDS or HIV infection and the rights of all students, faculty, administrators, and employees to a safe and healthy work place and educational setting.

(4) Are consistent with similar documents that have been developed by its respective systemwide office or statewide membership association.

Resolved, That students, faculty, administrators, and employee groups are encouraged to be involved in the development of policies and guidelines; and be it further

Resolved, That all institutions of higher education are encouraged to provide students, faculty, administrators, and staff with accurate, up-to-date AIDS prevention education. This education program should be comprehensive, provide adequate opportunities for discussion with trained personnel, and include, but not be limited to, the use of student newspapers, public information posters, staff bulletins and other campus media to disseminate information about AIDS and referral sources; and be it further

Resolved, That all institutions of higher education in California are encouraged to ensure that campus services, including, but not limited to, health, counseling, housing, personnel, disabled students, and employee and faculty services have staff who are knowledgeable about the most current information on AIDS, have been trained to respond to issues regarding AIDS, and are aware of local resources and referral sources; and be it further

Resolved, That all institutions of higher education are encouraged to consider establishing a Peer Education Volunteer Program on AIDS to do the following:

(1) Provide peer support to encourage students to seek AIDS prevention information and change at-risk behavior.

(2) Provide student volunteers an opportunity to perform community service by assisting with the AIDS prevention education program; and be it further

Resolved, That each institution of higher education is requested to report to its respective systemwide office or its statewide membership association within nine months after the date this resolution is chaptered on the actions it has taken and plans to take to comply with this resolution, including time frames and any coordination of resources with other education institutions or community agencies; and be it further

Resolved, That the systemwide offices or membership associations of each institution of higher education in the state are requested to report to the education and health policy committees of the Legislature by December 1, 1989, regarding the actions taken by the campuses and any assistance provided by the systemwide office or membership association to comply with this resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to each institution of higher education in this state.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 120

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 86—Relative to Hubert de Givenchy.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The Los Angeles County High School for the Arts is a joint project of the Los Angeles County Office of Education, the Los Angeles high schools, and the California State University; and

WHEREAS, Gifted and talented young people from across the County of Los Angeles complete their high school education and develop their talents in the visual and performing arts, including dance, music, theater, painting, film/video. as well as graphic design and costume and fashion design at the Los Angeles County High School for the Arts; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of California wishes to join the Los Angeles County High School for the Arts in honoring an individual whose life of achievement in the arts epitomizes the aspirations of these promising young artists; and

WHEREAS, Monsieur Hubert de Givenchy is respected for over 40 years of significant accomplishments in the field of fashion, having designed for a renowned international clientele; and

WHEREAS, Monsieur Givenchy is known for perfection and elegance in design and has made lasting contributions to fashion and costuming in film; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California hereby establishes an annual Award for Lifetime Achievement in the Arts in conjunction with the Los Angeles County High School for the Arts; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California joins the Los Angeles County High School for the Arts in honoring Monsieur Hubert de Givenchy for his lifetime accomplishments in fashion by awarding Monsieur Givenchy the first annual Award for Lifetime Achievement in the Arts; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Hubert de Givenchy.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 121

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 96—Relative to improving transportation to ports.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, California, because of its coastal location and proximity to the countries of the Pacific Rim, plays an integral role in international trade; and

WHEREAS, International trade is an important component of California's economy, and thousands of jobs within the state are dependent on the continued flow of exports and imports; and

WHEREAS, Maintaining California's important position in international trade depends on successful competition with other states through the maintenance of a viable system of ports of all sizes with a variety of capabilities; and

WHEREAS, California's ability to compete with other states is jeopardized by the large amounts of funding other states provide for port development; and

WHEREAS, California's position in international trade is further eroded by the decline of some of the state's small ports; and

WHEREAS, Another important aspect of port development is the maintenance of adequate surface transportation to a port; and

WHEREAS, The Department of Transportation and the California Transportation Commission are responsible for planning and programming for the state's highway system; and

WHEREAS, Many ports, in light of their current financial problems, cannot take on the additional burden of maintaining and improving surface access; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the California Transportation Commission and the Department of Transportation, in consultation with representatives of the ports, shall develop a proposal, for inclusion into the state transportation improvement program, for improving state highways and railway systems that serve ports; and be it further

Resolved, That those entities explore and identify all possible sources of funding for road access to ports, including state and federal transportation funds; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the California Transportation Commission, the Department of Transportation, and the ports of California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 122

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 100—Relative to diesel emissions.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The Legislature has recently provided supplemental funding to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission for the purpose of conducting demonstration programs to determine the feasibility and air quality impacts of methanol and other alternative fuels; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature has directed the South Coast Air Quality Management District to promote the use of cleaner-burning alternative fuels, and the district has recently adopted a clean fuels program to investigate and implement clean fuels strategies; and

WHEREAS, The State Air Resources Board has significant knowledge and authority with respect to the health effects of diesel emissions, as well as regulatory control of emissions from diesel-powered vehicles and diesel fuel composition; and

WHEREAS, It is in the public interest that diesel fuel quality regulations and alternative fuel demonstration programs be designed and implemented so as to achieve the maximum feasible reduction in diesel emissions in the most cost-effective manner, taking into consideration both the costs of controls and the benefits to public health, visibility, and the environment; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, the South Coast Air Quality Management District, and the State Air Resources Board, in consultation with diesel engine manufacturers and representatives of operators of diesel-powered vehicles, are hereby requested, to the extent that this issue is not already addressed in the study being conducted pursuant to the requirements of Section 5 of Chapter 1326 of the Statutes of 1987, to develop and, where feasible, implement a common strategy to achieve the maximum feasible reduction in public exposure to diesel emissions in a cost-effective manner, through the most appropriate combinations of the following: cleaner burning alternative fuels, including, but not limited to, methanol, compressed natural gas, liquid petroleum gas, and electricity; engine modifications and control devices; dual fuel systems; diesel fuel composition specifications and requirements; improved inspection and maintenance programs; and emissions standards for new motor vehicles and diesel-powered equipment; and be it further

Resolved, That these agencies are hereby requested to submit to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the Legislature a progress report on the results of their respective activities and future plans to reduce public exposure to diesel emissions not later than March 31, 1989; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, the South Coast Air Quality Management District, and the State Air Resources Board.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 123

Senate Joint Resolution No. 30—Relative to the Central Valley Project.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 8, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The Central Valley Project was originally planned and designed by the State of California as a state project, and was authorized by the California Legislature in 1933; and

WHEREAS, The state was unable to construct the project during the Great Depression, and the project was authorized as a federal project in 1935; and

WHEREAS, In 1936, the state and the federal government entered into memorandums of understanding which specified that the state would operate and maintain the project following presentation to the United States of assurances of payment satisfactory to the United States; and

WHEREAS, California has had difficulty in resolving its internal water conflicts in large measure because of conflicts with the Central Valley Project over areas of origin protection, fisheries protection, regulatory control, salinity control in the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta, and protection of San Francisco Bay; and

WHEREAS, The above issues, and many others, must be the subject of extensive deliberations, negotiations, and public hearings at numerous levels of government both prior to and after acquisition of the Central Valley Project; and

WHEREAS, A benefit-cost analysis shall be undertaken by the state, and, if acquisition does not have a positive benefit-cost relationship, considering a multitude of water parameters, it shall not be done; and the parameters shall include, but are not limited to, protection of areas of origin, contractual commitments, state liability, the acreage limitation, and levee protection in all affected areas of the state; and

WHEREAS, The Director of Water Resources was authorized by the Legislature in 1986 to enter into negotiations with the United States Bureau of Reclamation for transfer to the state of part or all of the federal Central Valley Project; now, therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to transfer control and operation of the Central Valley Project to the State of California or other public entity; and be it further

RESOLVED, That if the United States transfers control and operation of the Central Valley Project to the State of California or any other public entity, the state or that entity will be required to comply with the legal and contractual obligations of the United States, including the obligation established in subarticle 10(h) of the agreement between the United States and the Department of Water Resources of the State of California for the coordinated operation of the Central Valley Project and the State Water Project dated May 20, 1985, as approved by Congress in Public Law 99-546 (HR 3113); and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Secretary of the Interior, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 124

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 73—Relative to trauma care.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, Numerous medical and public health studies have verified the efficacy of a regionalized trauma care system; and

WHEREAS, Each year California's trauma centers provide prompt, definitive treatment to thousands of persons who have sustained critical injuries as a result of vehicular accidents, gunshot or knife wounds, falls, and natural disasters; and

WHEREAS, The likelihood of a critically injured victim's survival and recovery is increased by 30 percent if the patient is treated at a trauma center, as opposed to a hospital emergency room; and

WHEREAS, Approximately one-third of all trauma patient deaths that do occur could only be avoided by preventing the patient's initial injury; and

WHEREAS, Injuries have a significant impact on the California economy both in terms of loss of employee productivity due to injury-related absences and medical and rehabilitative costs to both the private and public sector; and

WHEREAS, Nationwide, health costs due to injuries are up to one hundred billion dollars ($100,000,000,000) annually; and

WHEREAS, Injury prevention and control programs have repeatedly been effective in reducing the incidence of injuries and their associated costs; and

WHEREAS, A national focus for these efforts has been established at the Division of Injury Epidemiology and Control of the United States Centers for Disease Control; and

WHEREAS, Effective injury prevention and control strategies cannot be developed or implemented without a coordinated statewide mechanism of reporting, analyzing and sharing data and information; and

WHEREAS, Seven hospitals in Los Angeles County have already been forced to withdraw from California's statewide regionalized trauma care system because of financial losses incurred in serving trauma patients, and an eighth hospital, in San Diego County, has announced tentative plans to close its trauma unit effective July 1, 1988; and

WHEREAS, The demise of California's regionalized trauma care system will endanger the lives of California citizens as well as increase the health care and rehabilitation costs to both the private and public sectors; and

WHEREAS, Some areas of the state are currently facing a rash of requests from hospitals to downgrade their emergency rooms to "standby" status; and

WHEREAS, There has been introduced in Congress a measure, S. 10 by Senator Alan Cranston of California, which would enact the Emergency Medical Services and Trauma Care Improvement Act of 1987; and

WHEREAS, There has been introduced in Congress a measure, H.R. 3133, by Congressman Jim Bates and Congressman Henry Waxman which would enact the Trauma Care and Emergency Medical Services Planning and Development Act of 1988; and

WHEREAS, Both acts would establish a national clearinghouse on emergency medical services and provide federal block grants to states with a comprehensive emergency medical services and trauma care plan, including the collection, compilation, and dissemination of information to state and local agencies and private entities providing emergency medical services and trauma care; and

WHEREAS, Members of the Congress and Senate have urged that the injury control activities of the Centers for Disease Control be supported by a 20 million dollar allocation from within the appropriation for the United States Department of Health and Human Services, and a 20 million dollar allocation from the United States Department of Transportation appropriation, in the fiscal year 1989–90 federal budget; and

WHEREAS, This appropriation for injury prevention programs would equal .03 percent of the estimated annual costs for the treatment of injuries; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to expeditiously enact legislation to establish a national clearinghouse on emergency medical services and provide federal block grants to states with a comprehensive emergency medical services and trauma care plan; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to expeditiously enact legislation to provide funds for continued and expanded injury prevention activities of the Division of Injury Epidemiology and Control Centers for Disease Control; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 125

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 74—Relative to the 1990 Census.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The United States Census Bureau will be conducting its decennial census in 1990; and

WHEREAS, In every past census there has been a significant and disproportionate undercount of minorities, the poor, the homeless, recent immigrants, and residents of remote rural areas; and

WHEREAS, Although the Census Bureau is planning to make a special effort to reduce the undercount in 1990, all experts agree that there will still be a significant undercount, particularly in urban areas, of minorities, the poor, the homeless, and recent immigrants, and of residents of some remote rural areas; and

WHEREAS, A consensus has emerged among statisticians and other experts, including a panel of the National Academy of Sciences, that the methodology exists to make a statistically valid and technically feasible adjustment of the census to correct for the undercount; and

WHEREAS, If the undercount is not corrected, California will lose over 50 million dollars per year in federal programs and federal assistance, which are based on census figures; and

WHEREAS, California lost at least one congressional seat in the 1981 reapportionment because of the undercount in the 1980 Census; and

WHEREAS, If the undercount is not corrected, California stands to lose one or two congressional seats in the 1991 reapportionment; and

WHEREAS, If the undercount is not corrected, California will not be able to develop accurate statistics relating to health needs, infant mortality, and epidemiology, statistics needed for health and emergency services planning and for the allocation of federal health funds; and

WHEREAS, If the undercount is not corrected, California schools will not be able to develop accurate statistics on age and ethnicity of children, needed for federal education funding, planning for English-as-a-second-language programs, school construction, desegregation, and other student needs; and

WHEREAS, If the undercount is not corrected, California will be unable to develop accurate statistics on refugee migration, needed for planning for social and health services; on inner city population distribution, needed to prepare for inner city transportation needs; and on density of housing, needed to determine housing adequacy and safety; and

WHEREAS, Representative Mervyn Dymally has introduced in the House of Representatives a bill which would require the Census Bureau to adjust the 1990 Census by using statistically valid methodology to correct for the undercount; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the Congress of the United States to pass, and the President of the United States to sign, legislation requiring the Census Bureau to adjust the 1990 Census by using statistically valid methodology to correct for any undercount of minorities, the poor, the homeless, recent immigrants, and residents of remote rural areas; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the United States Secretary of Commerce, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and each representative and senator from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 126

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 80—Relative to United States airline workers.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) is proposing to expand the use of foreign repair stations for United States registered aircraft; and

WHEREAS, The proposed regulation amendment allowing expansion of foreign repair stations has been unilateral on the part of the FAA without proper notice for comment or debate; and

WHEREAS, Motivation for the expansion of foreign repair stations is based on purely economic factors, without regard for safety concerns; and

WHEREAS, This proposal would permit a United States air carrier to contract for maintenance, alteration, or inspection of its United States registered aircraft with any foreign repair station, whether or not it employs holders of United States Airman Certificates; and

WHEREAS, The FAA foreign repair station proposal would jeopardize airline safety in the United States by allowing any foreign country to inspect and maintain United States aircraft, and by using unlicensed mechanics and inadequately supervised maintenance on United States aircraft without FAA inspection; and

WHEREAS, The FAA foreign repair station proposal would result in the loss of thousands of jobs in the United States and in the displacement of workers; and

WHEREAS, Our air transport industry has had an enviable safety record due to the strict control and monitoring currently imposed by the FAA with regard to aircraft maintenance and repairs; and

WHEREAS, To alter or relax these controls would only subject the public to unnecessary risks; and

WHEREAS, Looser standards for foreign repair stations fly in the face of the growing body of evidence that air safety is already threatened by the FAA's inadequate inspection programs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the California Legislature respectfully memorializes the President and Congress of the United States to support efforts to ensure that all United States aircraft are repaired in facilities where trained, licensed, and competent mechanics are employed and are supervised by the FAA; and be it further

Resolved, That any consideration of maintenance plans to the contrary be fully debated and that the FAA do so with an understanding of the impact on customer safety and the economic impact that may result from the use of foreign repair stations; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, and to the Director of the Federal Aviation Administration.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 127

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 85—Relative to hazardous materials.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

WHEREAS, In 1985, California enacted a comprehensive emergency planning, inventory, and community right-to-know act dealing with hazardous materials (Chapter 6.95 (commencing with Section 25500) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code); and

WHEREAS, A year later the Congress of the United States enacted the Emergency Planning and Community Right-To-Know Act of 1986 (Chapter 116 (commencing with Section 11001) of Title 42 of the United States Code) which was substantially similar to the state's act; and

WHEREAS, Technical differences between the federal and the state acts have created significant confusion, duplication, and unnecessary work for the state's businesses in complying with the administrative requirements of the federal act; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature urges the Congress of the United States to amend the Emergency Planning and Community Right-To-Know Act of 1986 to allow a state which has enacted a similar act, prior to the federal act, to implement the federal act in a manner that would comply with the substantive requirements of the federal act, but would provide the state with discretion in carrying out the procedural or administrative requirements of the federal act while not lessening the act's protections of the public health and safety; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 128

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 86—Relative to Native American Remains.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The California State Legislature recognizes the right of all human beings to be treated with equal dignity and respect; and

WHEREAS, This respect is extended to human remains after death; and

WHEREAS, The skeletal remains of several hundred California Native Americans are presently stored at the Smithsonian Institution; and

WHEREAS, Storage and analysis of these human remains and associated grave goods is in conflict with Native American spiritual practices and manifests lack of respect for the remains; and

WHEREAS, The return of these human remains and associated grave goods to descendents or to the sites of origin would be appropriate; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California strongly urges that the Smithsonian Institution comply in a respectful and timely manner with requests of individuals and tribal organizations for the return of skeletal remains of California Native Americans and associated grave goods; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Honorable Ronald Reagan, President of the United States; the Honorable Robert McCormick Adams, Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution; the Honorable Daniel K. Inouye, Chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Indian Affairs; and to the Honorable Alan Cranston and Pete Wilson, United States Senators.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 129

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 89—Relative to aviation.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, In the 10 years since the federal government deregulated commercial aviation, the number of passengers traveling on commercial flights has doubled; and

WHEREAS, Commercial aviation has played and will continue to play a major role in the economic growth of the nation and the State of California; and

WHEREAS, General aviation serves as an important transportation mode for business and agriculture in the State of California; and

WHEREAS, The aviation industry provides thousands of employment opportunities and other economic benefits to the people of California; and

WHEREAS, California serves as America's gateway to the Pacific Rim, and aviation is California's major link to international markets; and

WHEREAS, Expansion and modernization of our nation's airports and air traffic control system is crucial to the continued economic vitality of California and the entire country; and

WHEREAS, The California Legislature has demonstrated its commitment to ensuring a quality air travel system for California through the formation of the California Commission on Aviation and

Airports, which has dedicated time, resources, and energies toward furthering public awareness and support of aviation related issues; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature, in concert with the California Commission on Aviation and Airports, believes that public information on national aviation issues is both essential and complementary to our own efforts; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California recognizes and applauds the formation of the Partnership for Improved Air Travel, the purpose of which is to focus public attention on the need to establish a long range planning process to ensure efficient air travel, to create a national airport plan, and to make better use of current technology to expand the air transportation system; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President, the Congress of the United States, and the Federal Aviation Administration to move as quickly as possible to develop and implement such legislative and administrative actions as are needed to significantly expand and improve the capacity and efficiency of the nation's air transportation system; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, the Department of Transportation, the chief executive officers of each House of the State Legislatures of the 50 states, the National Governors Association, the National Conference of State Legislatures, the National Association of Counties, the National League of Cities, the United States Conference of Mayors, the United States Chamber of Commerce, the United States Department of Transportation, and the Federal Aviation Administration.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 130

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 94—Relative to children's services.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, There are now an estimated 7.1 million children in California under the age of 18 years; and

WHEREAS, The family is the primary structure for children and the most appropriate provider to meet the needs of children; and

WHEREAS, The family is sometimes fragmented, undermined, or incapacitated to such an extent that meeting the needs of children becomes impossible; and

WHEREAS, Children have certain inalienable rights that should be protected by the state when the family structure fails them; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby adopts the following Uniform Children's Services Policy:

(1) Every child has the right to shelter, safety, and nourishment.

(2) Every child deserves adequate quality care and supervision when parents are at work, school, or job training, or are incapacitated.

(3) Every child deserves a nuturing relationship with a caring adult.

(4) Since families should be the primary providers of support to children, the state should ensure a good future for all children by encouraging the well-being of families and providing support services to strengthen families and enhance their self-sufficiency.

(5) There is an appropriate government role in providing preventive and early intervention services to families and children to maintain healthy families and prevent future long-term governmental costs.

(6) Services to children must be undertaken in a purposeful, coordinated, integrated, fair, and cost-effective manner to ultimately benefit both the users and the taxpayers; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor, the Secretary of the State Health and Welfare Agency, the Director of the Department of Social Services, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and the director of each county welfare department.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 131

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 83—Relative to liability insurance for obstetrical services.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Over one-half of California's obstetricians have had malpractice actions filed against them for an obstetrics case, and the prevalence of these lawsuits is widespread, perhaps indicating that the expectations of parents, due to recent gains in medical technology, do not recognize maloccurrences as an unfortunate but unavoidable part of the birth process; and

WHEREAS, The high incidence of lawsuits and high cost of insurance for obstetrics has forced four-fifths of obstetricians and one-half of family practitioners to raise fees to patients, and costs to obstetrical patients are increasing due to the practicing of "defensive medicine"; and

WHEREAS, There exists in the practice of obstetrics in California

a crisis as to the availability of this specialty of medicine, particularly to patients in rural areas, as to the affordability of professional liability insurance, and as to the cost patients are required to pay for obstetrical services; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislative Analyst is respectfully requested to conduct a study of published reports on the effects of higher professional liability insurance costs on access of the public to obstetrical care, and report its recommendations to the Legislature on the need and ways and means of reducing the costs of professional liability insurance in regard to the practice of obstetrics; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the study compare and contrast California's Medical Injury Compensation Reform Act with the efforts of other states to address the medical malpractice crisis, including, but not limited to, the Virginia Birth-Related Neurologic Injury Compensation Act and recent legislation enacted in Florida; and be it further

Resolved, That the study include the feasibility of legislation creating a no-fault, workers' compensation type of insurance similar to the Virginia Birth-Related Neurologic Injury Compensation Act; that the study include consultation with the California Association of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, District IX of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, the California Academy of Family Physicians, the California Medical Association, the California Trial Lawyers Association, the Association for California Tort Reform, representatives of the professional liability insurance industry, property and casualty insurance trade associations, the appropriate committees of the State Legislature, and others as determined by the Legislative Analyst; and be it further

Resolved, That the report be submitted to the Legislature on or before June 30, 1989; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Legislative Analyst.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 132

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 108—Relative to AIDS education in the workplace.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Acquired immune deficiency syndrome, commonly known as AIDS, is the most devastating public health epidemic of the century; and

WHEREAS, The federal Centers for Disease Control predicts that medically diagnosed cases of AIDS will increase by more than 500 percent in the next three years. By the year 1991, more than 270,000 Americans will be diagnosed with AIDS, and three to five million will be carrying the human immunodeficiency virus; and

WHEREAS, The impact of AIDS is and will continue to be devastating. By the year 1991, AIDS patients will need health and supportive services at a total cost of between $8 billion and $16 billion; and

WHEREAS, To date, there is no cure or preventive vaccine for AIDS, so that education and behavior modification are the only effective means of preventing the spread of the disease; and

WHEREAS, The United States Surgeon General has stated that it is the responsibility of every citizen to be informed about AIDS and to exercise appropriate preventative measures; and

WHEREAS, AIDS affects not only the individual lives of those afflicted and their friends and families but also has a tremendous impact on the workplace–primarily taking as its victims people who are in their peak productive years in the nation's work force; and

WHEREAS, The work environment can serve as an effective site in which to provide AIDS education to a wide range of individuals who can then share that information with their families; and

WHEREAS, There currently exists a variety of high-quality AIDS education materials and services available from a wide range of private and public agencies and organizations; and

WHEREAS, The broad-based, cooperative effort necessary to stop the spread of AIDS can only be realized with the full support, understanding, and informed decisionmaking of the business community; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California requests and encourages every employer in the state to implement for its employees an AIDS education program based on the most accurate medical and public health knowledge available; and be it further

Resolved, That these education programs shall include:

(a) A plan for making AIDS information readily available to all employees on a repetitive basis. Suggested methods include meetings, workshops, brochures, posters, newsletter articles, video tapes, and letters from the management which provide the employee with easily understood facts about the disease, its effects, and modes of transmission.

(b) Availability of, or referral to, special workshops for managers who may face special challenges in dealing with an employee with AIDS.

(c) Availability of, or referral to, special programs for parents who desire information which they can share with their children.

(d) Information on services available locally which can provide the employee with additional information or assist the employee in obtaining further information or assistance with any medical, psychological, or financial problems caused by the disease.

(e) Adoption of company guidelines relating to, at a minimum, (1) confidentiality of medical information; and (2) the right of an employee to continue working as long as the employee is able to perform his or her job satisfactorily and as long as the employee's continued employment presents no health or safety threat to the employee or others.

(f) With respect to small businesses or groups of small businesses in a shared location, a coordinated, group approach to providing information to employees of the various businesses involved. For example, a local chamber of commerce, merchants association, or shopping mall management could implement a joint employee education program on behalf of all its members.

(g) A program evaluation component designed to allow employees to evaluate the education program on a completely anonymous basis so that employees will feel comfortable in responding; and be it further

Resolved, That an employer may obtain written materials to fulfill the requirements of this resolution from the Office of AIDS in the State Department of Health Services, or from public or private nonprofit organizations that offer this information to the public.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 133

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 118—Relative to vehicles.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States passed, and the President of the United States has signed, federal legislation which provides standards for testing, licensing, licensing classification, and review of licensing, by the states, of drivers of heavy commercial vehicles; and

WHEREAS, The federal law invokes stringent penalties against those drivers for conviction of driving violations; and

WHEREAS, Those driving violations include equipment violations which often are the responsibility of the owners of the vehicles; and

WHEREAS, The trucking industry, in cooperation with the Department of the California Highway Patrol, truck drivers, and various courts, has provided an "Owners Responsibility" statement that identifies equipment violations which the owners, rather than the drivers, will accept responsibility for, including any citations; and

WHEREAS, The "Owner Responsibility" procedure is not a standard program statewide; and

WHEREAS, The lack of a statewide "Owner Responsibility" procedure results in disparities in enforcement and judicial findings throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, Under the new federal standards, drivers may be subject to loss of their driving privilege as a result of improper posting of equipment violations on their driving records; and

WHEREAS, The "Owner Responsibility" procedure eliminates improper posting of equipment violations on the driver's records, and facilitates the processing of citations by the courts; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Department of the California Highway Patrol, in coordination with the Judicial Council, the Department of Motor Vehicles, the trucking industry, and a truck driver employee representative, is requested to review the potential for including an "Owners Responsibility" procedure as a part of the California Highway Patrol's "MISTER" (Management Information System of Terminal Evaluation Records) program, and the Department of the California Highway Patrol is requested to also consider any alternative statewide procedure that can accommodate its needs and the needs of the drivers, owners, the Department of Motor Vehicles, and the courts; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of the California Highway Patrol is requested to report to the Legislature, by June 30, 1989, its recommendations for legislation needed to implement a statewide "Owner Responsibility" procedure, or any alternative, and its recommendations for enhancing the current procedure for issuing and processing citations; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Department of the California Highway Patrol, the Department of Motor Vehicles, and the Judicial Council.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 134

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 129—Relative to rural highways.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The State Highway System includes 8,000 miles of rural two-lane conventional highways, and 5,000 miles of these highways are located in rolling or mountainous terrains; and

WHEREAS, Many citizens of the state utilize rural highways, and many of these people reside in rural regions and are therefore very familiar with local highways; and

WHEREAS, The Department of Transportation is required to "barrier-stripe" the state highway system in a manner which conforms with the National Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices; and

WHEREAS, Often the method of marking these highways is inconsistent with the actual safety of passing opportunities and may lead to unsafe passing and noncompliance, creating enforcement problems; and

WHEREAS, Slow drivers many times fail to make use of turnout lanes and fail to use proper lanes such as "passing lanes," resulting in a volume of slow moving vehicles on these routes; and

WHEREAS, The current funding levels of the state highway program do not allow for expedient solution of these problems; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Department of Transportation is hereby requested to investigate the statewide need for passing lanes on rural two-lane highways and to submit a report to the Legislature on or before March 1, 1989, which does all of the following:

(1) Identifies the limits and degree of this statewide operational problem.

(2) Specifies the causes of the problem.

(3) Discusses alternative solutions to the problem, including, but not limited to, passing lanes, turnouts, and truck climbing lanes. This discussion shall provide an indication of the "costs versus benefits" for each alternative considered.

(4) Discusses the funding issues involved when considering the relative priorities and the overall funding situation within the department.

(5) Recommends courses of action; including, but not limited to, urging the Federal Highway Administration to revise it standards for "double-striping" in a manner that will promote veritable safety and prevent interminable rural gridlocks; and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Motor Vehicles is hereby requested to develop a motorist education program wherein those citizens registering a vehicle receive information regarding their legal obligations as to the use of turnout lanes and passing lanes, and apprise them of penalties upon failure to comply with the law; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Director of Transportation and the Director of Motor Vehicles.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 135

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 130—Relative to Family Unity Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The strength of our nation depends on the viability of its families; and

WHEREAS, Families have made significant contributions to the economic, social, and political history of the nation and the State of California; and

WHEREAS, The family is a social unit consisting of men, women, and children, living together, sharing, loving, and supporting each other; and

WHEREAS, Thanksgiving is celebrated in November and families come together to give thanks for living in a free society; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims the month of November 1988 as Family Unity Month; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature encourages all Californians to reflect upon the role of the family; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor of the State of California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 136

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 132—Relative to the Auburn-Oakland-San Jose intercity rail corridor.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The Metropolitan Transportation Commission has recently completed a comprehensive transportation study of the Route 80 corridor from the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge through Solano County in response to Resolution Chapter 52 of the Statutes of 1986; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature in 1976, through the enactment of Chapter 4.6 (commencing with Section 2170) of Division 3 of the Streets and Highway Code, requested expansion and upgrading of rail passenger service as demonstration projects by the Department of Transportation in both the Los Angeles-San Diego and Auburn-Sacramento-Oakland-San Jose intercity rail corridors; and

WHEREAS, The Los Angeles-San Diego rail corridor was subsequently upgraded to the extent that Amtrak train service more than doubled, from three to eight daily roundtrips, resulting in a quadrupling of ridership from 377,000 in 1975 to more than 1.5 million passenger trips in 1987, and an improvement in the financial performance of the service from a 36 percent farebox return in 1975 to a 93 percent return in 1987, with the result that this corridor carries more intercity rail passengers than any other corridor in the country except the Boston-Washington Northeast corridor and now handles more riders than have ever been carried by train in the history of the Los Angeles-San Diego rail line; and

WHEREAS, No similar upgrading program was undertaken in the Auburn-Sacramento-Oakland-San Jose intercity rail corridor, despite the directive of the Legislature, with the result that Amtrak service in this corridor has languished, remaining limited to two transcontinental long-distance trains generally not suitable for local travel, the same level of service that existed in 1976 when the two-corridor demonstration projects were requested and authorized; and

WHEREAS, The existing double-track railroad line between Auburn, Sacramento, and Oakland remains considerably underutilized while adjacent freeways are evermore congested and crowded; and

WHEREAS, The scarcity of transportation funds and the great expense of new highway facilities requires additional scrutiny of existing transportation corridors that are already in place and can play an important role in improving the mobility of Californians; and

WHEREAS, The forthcoming federal Strategic Transportation Planning Study funded in Continuing Resolution PL 100-202 (passed by Congress in December 1987), which called for a study of the Sacramento and San Francisco-Oakland urbanized areas and the area along Interstate 80 connecting the two areas, will utilize existing data from recent transportation studies in each urbanized area and would greatly benefit from a study of interregional rail between the urbanized areas; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Metropolitan Transportation Commission, in coordination with the Sacramento Area Council of Governments and the Department of Transportation, are hereby requested to conduct an intercity rail corridor upgrade study for the Auburn-Sacramento-Oakland-San Jose intercity rail corridor; and be it further

Resolved, That the intercity rail corridor study should be conducted as a second phase of the Resolution Chapter 52 comprehensive study; and be it further

Resolved, That the study shall address, at a minimum, each of the following:

(a) Identification of short-term improvements on the existing rail line that will facilitate the introduction of additional train frequencies geared to local corridor travel, increase speeds, reduce running times, and increase reliability of service, while maintaining capacity for freight operations.

(b) Identification of longer-term improvements necessary to achieve high-speed rail travel times of 85 minutes from Sacramento to Oakland and two hours from Sacramento to San Jose.

(c) Identification of proven rolling stock technologies available on world markets best suited to this rail corridor.

(d) Identification of transfer stations between local bus and rail transit operators and the regional rail corridor service.

(e) Identification of various levels of train service frequency.

(f) An implementation and funding plan; and be it further

Resolved, That the Metropolitan Transportation Commission, the Sacramento Area Council of Governments, and the Department of Transportation are requested to submit this study to the Legislature within 12 months of the passage of this resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That the final result of this study shall be included in the federally funded Strategic Transportation Planning Study, and that interim reports of this study shall be shared with, and reviewed by, participants in the Strategic Transportation Planning Study; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Metropolitan Transportation Commission, the Sacramento Area Council of Governments, the Director of Transportation, the Boards of Supervisors of Sacramento, Yolo, Solano, Contra Costa, Alameda, San Francisco, Santa Clara, and San Mateo Counties, and to the mayor of each city along the Auburn-Sacramento-Oakland-San Jose intercity rail corridor.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 137

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 148—Relative to Capitol Park.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, Capitol Park is widely known as one of the most beautiful parks in the United States; and

WHEREAS, The 40-acre park, with its display of well-kept broad green lawns and trees collected from every continent and climate of the world, is a state and national treasure; and

WHEREAS, Since 1985, no funds have been specifically appropriated for the refurbishment of the park and many areas of the park are in need of repair and restoration, and

WHEREAS, Approximately 15 trees in the park have died within the last five years and between 40 and 50 other trees need to be replaced; and

WHEREAS, Sidewalks in the park are in need of repair, 150 light poles are rusted and corroded and need to be replaced, and some portions of the sprinkler system are more than 30 years old and need to be repaired or replaced; and

WHEREAS, Corroded pipes and a poor filtration and pumping system prevent adequate flow of the water in the fountain located west of the Capitol between the Jesse Marvin Unruh State Office Building and the Library and Courts Building; and

WHEREAS, Signs, benches, and trash receptacles need to be repaired or replaced; and

WHEREAS, The Capitol Park Service Area Building located at 13th and L Streets dates back to 1907 and needs major rehabilitation and a storage area is also needed; and

WHEREAS, The public restrooms located in the service area building need to be remodeled to make them accessible to persons in wheelchairs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Department of General Services is requested to include adequate funds in its budget for the 1989–90 fiscal year to facilitate the preparation of a plan for the renovation and refurbishment of Capitol Park; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Department of General Services shall request the Historic State Capitol Commission to review and advise the department with respect to the preparation of the plans for the renovation and refurbishment of Capitol Park; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the department shall report its recommendations to the subcommittee of the Joint Rules Committee that has jurisdiction over the State Capitol Restoration Project by January 1, 1990; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Department of General Services shall follow established state standards for the restoration, preservation, and maintenance of historic sites, where applicable; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Director of General Services.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 138

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 156—Relative to Cuban human rights violations.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The 1987 Report on Human Rights Violations presented by Amnesty International indicates that the detention of individuals because of their beliefs, the prolonged solitary confinement of prisoners of conscience, the incarceration of prisoners without trial, and the exposure of the detained to cruel, degrading, and inhumane conditions continues in Cuba; and

WHEREAS, The Joint Resolution of the European Parliament, announced on October 29, 1987, also denounces the Cuban Government policy of keeping hundreds of political prisoners, particularly individuals who refuse ideological indoctrination, in jails, forced labor camps, and psychiatric hospitals; and

WHEREAS, The Cuban Committee Pro Human Rights denounced on January 31, 1988, before members of the foreign press in Havana, new political crimes committed by the Cuban government in the form of disappearances, torture, religious persecution, discrimination, and other violations of human rights; and

WHEREAS, These declarations by Amnesty International, the European Parliament, and the Cuban Committee Pro Human Rights make evident the tendency of the Cuban government to inflict cruel, degrading, and inhuman punishment, in clear violation of human rights, and these actions are condemned by all nations believing in the inalienable rights of men and women and human values beyond any racial, economic, or ideological differences; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature of the State of California expresses its solidarity with the requests made by Amnesty International, the European Parliament, and the Cuban Committee Pro Human Rights to the Human Rights Commission of the United Nations, demanding a full investigation of the allegations of human rights violations in Cuba; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Human Rights Commission of the United Nations and to the Junta Patriotica Cubana of California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 139

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 165—Relative to designating the week of October 2, 1988, through October 8, 1988, as Mental Illness Awareness Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, Mental illness is a problem of grave concern and consequence, though one widely but unnecessarily feared and misunderstood; and

WHEREAS, 3.1 million to 4.1 million Californians annually suffer from clearly diagnosable mental disorders involving significant disability with respect to employment, attendance at school, or independent living; and

WHEREAS, More than one million Californians are disabled for long periods of time by schizophrenia, manic depressive disorder, and major depression; and

WHEREAS, Research in recent decades has led to a wide array of new and more effective treatment, both medical and psychosocial, for some of the most incapacitating forms of mental illness, including schizophrenia, major affective disorders, phobias, and phobic disorders; and

WHEREAS, Appropriate treatment of mental illness has been demonstrated to be cost-effective in terms of restored productivity, reduced utilization of other health services, and lessened social dependence; and

WHEREAS, Recent and unparalleled growth in scientific knowledge about mental illness has generated the current emergence of a new threshold of opportunity for future research advances and fruitful application to specific clinical problems; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby proclaims the week beginning on October 2, 1988, as "Mental Illness Awareness Week"; and be it further

Resolved, That the Governor is hereby requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of California to observe the week with appropriate ceremonies and activities; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor of the State of California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 140

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 166—Relative to Computer Learning Month.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, "Computer Learning Month" has been established as a nonprofit educational foundation by the Education Software Committee of the Software Publishers Association and has gained the support and attention of organizations and associations within the educational community; and

WHEREAS, The goal of "Computer Learning Month" 1988 is to increase the number of people receiving the benefits of computer technology; and

WHEREAS, A number of educational, business, and public interest groups across the nation have plans underway to focus attention on computer learning during October 1988; and

WHEREAS, New York and Massachusetts have already adopted, and 17 other states are in the process of adopting resolutions declaring the month of October 1988 as "Computer Learning Month"; and

WHEREAS, California's recognition of "Computer Learning Month" will give emphasis and support to programs important to the education of our youth, important to their future productivity, and important to the competitiveness of our state; and

WHEREAS, It is widely recognized that the strength of our state's educational system depends on preparing students to become future leaders, and the integration of new technologies into the curriculum is a necessary step in ensuring that goal; and

WHEREAS, It is widely recognized that the strength of California's economy is directly linked to the ability of our state's educational system to prepare students to work in businesses and factories facing rapid technological change to continue to compete in the world marketplace, and that familiarity with, and basic competency in, the use of computers is a basic building-block of that preparation; and

WHEREAS, Activities during "Computer Learning Month" will be designed to expand public awareness of how computers and software are used educationally, and to emphasize that computer literacy is not an end in itself, but rather a means for opening doors to productivity, creativity, and general learning; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Governor is hereby requested to proclaim the month of October 1988 as "Computer Learning Month" in California, in recognition of the importance of educating California's youth about computer technology as a means to secure our state's preeminence as one of the world's leaders in advanced technology; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor of the State of California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 141

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 167—Relative to the Joint Committee for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The Joint Committee for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education was created pursuant to Resolution Chapter 175 of the Statutes of 1984, and extended pursuant to Resolution Chapter 56 of the Statutes of 1987; and

WHEREAS, The joint committee was authorized and directed to receive and review the reports of the Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education; and

WHEREAS, The commission sought and received an extension of the deadlines by which its various reports were to be delivered to the joint committee; and

WHEREAS, The joint committee has received the final report of the commission and has conducted numerous public hearings in response to that report; and

WHEREAS, The joint committee's final draft report has been completed, and public hearings were conducted during June and August, 1988, to garner responses, recommendations, and advice from the public; and

WHEREAS, The members of the joint committee are committed to a thorough discussion of the draft report, prior to its final adoption, and the press of legislative business during the concluding months of the 1987–88 Regular Session has precluded the necessary sequence of meeting and dialogue among the members to allow adequate discussion prior to the adjournment of the session; now therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the deadline for submission, pursuant to Resolution Chapter 175 of the Statutes of 1984 and Resolution Chapter 56 of the Statutes of 1987, of the final report of the Joint Committee for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education is hereby extended until March 30, 1989; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint Committee for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education is hereby authorized to act in accordance with the provisions of Resolution Chapter 175 of the Statutes of 1984 until March 30, 1989, and as of that date shall cease to exist; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 142

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 77—Relative to the Afro-American History.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, It is advisable that every person who resides within the state should have a sense of being part of the state's history and culture; and

WHEREAS, The East Bay Negro Historical Society, Inc., in Oakland, a volunteer, community-based nonprofit society, has served in preserving, collecting, and disseminating the history and culture of Afro-Americans in California and the nation to schools and colleges, museums, business and industry, and to the general population, since its inception in 1965; and

WHEREAS, The public has responded wholeheartedly to the availability of the East Bay Negro Historical Society collections and programs; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Directors of the East Bay Negro Historical Society, along with its cofounders, in a regular meeting of the board, unanimously approved a motion to relinquish its ownership, control, and supervision of the East Bay Negro Historical Society in favor of the state assuming full control and ownership of all its collections, equipment, archives, and files related to Afro-American history and culture; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature proposes that the Department of Parks and Recreation acquire, at no cost, the East Bay Negro Historical Society collections and property, to be preserved unspoiled in perpetuity as the "Northern California Center for Afro-American History and Life"; and be it further

Resolved, That the Northern California Center for Afro-American History and Life be located in Oakland in the present facility occupied by the East Bay Negro Historical Society until other facilities can be acquired; and be it further

Resolved, That state assumption of the East Bay Negro Historical Society under the organizational jurisdiction of the Department of Parks and Recreation become effective October 1, 1988; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Director of Parks and Recreation and to the Board of Directors of the East Bay Negro Historical Society.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 143

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 138—Relative to Pacific Rim language instruction.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, California has the world's sixth largest economy and is an international gateway to the fastest growing nations that span the Pacific Rim; and

WHEREAS, One out of every 10 jobs in California is dependent on foreign trade and more than $100 billion worth of goods passed through California ports in 1986; and

WHEREAS, International trade is central to California's continuing economic growth; and

WHEREAS, The Pacific Rim nations account for approximately 75 percent of California's international trade; and

WHEREAS, It is essential for Californians to understand and utilize Pacific Rim languages to maintain California's competitive edge; and

WHEREAS, Foreign language instruction can eliminate artificial barriers to trade; and

WHEREAS, The preparation of today's grade school students to function in an increasingly multicultural and diverse marketplace is necessary and vital to improving California's position in the world economy; and

WHEREAS, Experience indicates that students who begin foreign language instruction in the early grades develop language skills more readily and are provided a greater opportunity to use these language skills in academic, social, and career settings; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That California schools are urged to offer pupils, beginning in the elementary grades, in addition to English, courses in Pacific Rim languages, including, but not limited to, Japanese, Spanish, Chinese, or Korean.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 144

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 145—Relative to Hispanic state employees.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The State Personnel Board's 1987 annual census indicates that the state's work force grew by 5,110 employees during the period from July 1986 through June 1987, bringing the total count to 161,194 employees; and

WHEREAS, The census indicates that Hispanic representation in the state's work force has made minimal gains in the last three years; and

WHEREAS, The census shows that Hispanics continue to be the most underrepresented major ethnic group in state service constituting only 13.7 percent of the state's work force; and

WHEREAS, The most recent State Personnel Board estimate of Hispanic private labor force participation in 1990 (23 percent) means that the state needs approximately 9,400 more Hispanics in its work force to reach parity; and

WHEREAS, The state only recently attained 1970 labor force parity for Hispanics and at the current hiring rate the state will not reach 1980 parity until the year 2015; and

WHEREAS, The State Personnel Board's annual census indicates that, on the average, Hispanics holding full-time positions in state service earn $2,772 less per year than the average amount earned by all full-time employees and in particular, Hispanic women earn, on the average, the least of all such employees; and

WHEREAS, The deficit of Hispanic employees in the state's civil service system and the fact that they on the average earn less than the average earned by other state employees represents a lost earnings to the Hispanic community of more than $135 million annually; and

WHEREAS, The jobs Hispanics hold are most concentrated in the clerical, semiskilled, subprofessional, professional, law enforcement, field representative, janitor/custodian, career opportunities development, and laborer categories and least concentrated in the managerial, supervisory, and career executive assignment positions; and

WHEREAS, Discrimination is prohibited in hiring, promotion, discharge, compensation, job assignments, and any other terms, conditions, or privileges of employment; and

WHEREAS, Existing law requires each state agency and department to establish an affirmative action program designed to overcome any identified underutilization of minorities in employment; and

WHEREAS, A majority of the new hiring and rehiring into state government jobs is done by the Departments of Corrections, Developmental Services, Mental Health Health Services, General Services, Youth Authority, Motor Vehicles, Industrial Relations, Justice, Social Services, Food and Agriculture, Education, Employment Development, California Highway Patrol, Veterans Affairs, Water Resources, and Transportation, and the State Compensation Insurance Fund, Board of Equalization, and Franchise Tax Board; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Legislature working through a task force appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly and the Senate Rules Committee shall conduct an ongoing assessment of the efforts of individual state agencies and departments to achieve a work force in which Hispanics are at parity with their representation in the private labor force; and be it further

Resolved, That the task force shall be known as the Legislative Task Force on the Underrepresentation of Hispanics in the State Civil Service System; and be it further

Resolved, That the task force shall have 14 members, seven each appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly and Senate Rules Committee; and be it further

Resolved, That the task force shall include one representative from each of the three Hispanic state employee organizations recognized by the State of California and may include Members of the Legislature, or their representatives, representatives of Hispanic organizations or groups, and any other individuals or parties interested in correcting the severe underrepresentation of Hispanics in state civil service; and be it further

Resolved, That the task force shall be provided necessary staff support by the Senate Office of Research and the Assembly Office of Research and is requested to do all of the following:

(a) Solicit information, input, and assistance from various sources, including outside experts and state agencies and departments so as to accomplish its mandate. All state agencies and departments are urged to cooperate with the task force.

(b) Conduct a one-time assessment of the affirmative action plans of the aforementioned state agencies and departments to determine their reasonableness and completeness The assessment shall be completed not later than March 15, 1989, and shall be submitted to the Legislature upon its completion. Based upon this assessment, the task force may meet with individual state agencies and departments to make recommendations on ways the plans can be modified so as to address the particular problem of Hispanic underrepresentation in state civil service.

(c) Conduct an assessment, at least once each six-month period, of the progress made by the aforementioned state agencies and departments to identify, recruit, hire, and promote Hispanics for state civil service positions.

(d) Hold hearings to review state agency hiring practices regarding Hispanics. Specifically, the hearings shall evaluate the effectiveness of state agencies' efforts to identify, recruit, train, and develop Hispanics for state civil service assignments. The hearings also may focus on whether the composition of interview panels has an impact on the hiring and promotion of Hispanics and the effectiveness of various state outreach efforts and hiring assistance programs, including the Hispanic Employment Link Program (HELP).

(e) Submit semiannual reports to the Legislature on the issue of Hispanic underrepresentation in the state's work force. The first report shall be due not later than July 31, 1989, and shall include a survey of other states to identify specific policies and programs which may be useful to implement in this state so as to improve the representation of Hispanics in California's civil service work force. These reports shall highlight the progress made by the aforementioned state agencies and departments to identify, recruit, hire, and promote Hispanics for state civil service positions. In the event a state agency or department has failed to make progress, the task force shall identify the root causes behind the lack of performance and shall note these facts in its report. In addition, the reports may include recommendations on policies or strategies which the state can implement to improve the representation of Hispanics in its work force.

(f) Include other state agencies and departments within the scope of its assessments if it deems appropriate.

(g) Identify barriers which hinder the State Personnel Board in its mission and make recommendations to the Legislature on ways to eliminate those barriers.

(h) Examine ways in which the sanctions used by the State Personnel Board to deal with state agencies which are not meeting parity goals and objectives can be strengthened and expanded.

(i) Examine the feasibility of creating a vertical parity employment program for supervisory and management positions in those departments which lag in Hispanic representation in these positions.

(j) Examine ways in which state agencies, the State Personnel Board, the University of California, the California State University, California Community Colleges, and the State Department of Education can establish recruitment programs for Hispanics who are graduating from high school and colleges.

(k) Compile a list of effective practices used by state agencies which have demonstrated progress in hiring Hispanics.

(l) Assess the need to increase the state's bilingual pay differential.

(m) Assess the feasibility of having the State Personnel Board take control of the hiring and promoting for those departments which fail to meet their established parity goals.

(n) Identify any barriers which prevent Hispanic women, in particular, from reaching full employment and pay parity within the state's civil service system.

(o) Recommend to the Legislature, not later than April 15, 1989, the most appropriate and effective means of studying the low retention rate among minority employees in state service and the disproportionately large number of disciplinary actions received by minority employees in state service. In developing its recommendations, the task force shall consult with minority employee organizations recognized by the State of California; and be it further

Resolved, That all state agencies and departments are urged to do all of the following:

(a) Designate a Hispanic Employment Coordinator or Hispanic Recruitment Coordinator position.

(b) Establish a hiring rate of 25 percent for Hispanics.

(c) Establish a Hispanic Employees Advisory Committee.

(d) Establish a reasonable timetable in which Hispanic representation would reach parity with their representation in the private labor force.

(e) Explore ways in which Hispanic representation in supervisory and managerial classifications, such as the career executive assignment levels, can be increased.

(f) Incorporate affirmative action into the existing management planning process.

(g) Expand focused recruitment activity.

(h) Develop more comprehensive mobility programs.

(i) Promote more effective deployment and utilization of affirmative action resources.

(j) Assure effective affirmative action monitoring and accountability systems; and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint Legislative Budget Committee conduct, as part of its analysis of the 1989–90 Budget Bill, an evaluation of the State Personnel Board's Affirmative Action and Merit Oversight Division to determine if the division is: (1) appropriately staffed to implement its mandate as set forth in statutory law and (2) being administered in an efficient and cost-effective manner; and be it further

Resolved, That the task force shall cease operation on June 30, 1990; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to all state agencies, departments, boards, and commissions.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 145

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 152—Relative to video display terminals.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The California Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board adopts standards which are enforced by the Division of Occupational Safety and Health; and

WHEREAS, In August 1987, the California Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board agreed to set up an ad hoc advisory committee of experts to study the necessity for video display terminal related standards in response to petitions presented on behalf of three labor unions; and

WHEREAS, Since then, only two meetings of this committee have been convened; and

WHEREAS, California video display terminal operators remain unprotected; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Ad Hoc Advisory Committee on Video Display Terminals be requested to report back to the California Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board with proposals regarding the necessity for video display terminal related standards by May 1, 1989; and be it further

Resolved, That the Division of Occupational Safety and Health see that an appropriate meeting schedule be set to meet this timetable; and be it further

Resolved, That by December 1, 1988, the division provide the Legislature with a detailed status report on progress made and issues still to be resolved; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Ad Hoc Advisory Committee on Video Display Terminals, the California Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board, and the Division of Occupational Safety and Health.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 146

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 155—Relative to the Preston School of Industry.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The Preston School of Industry, located in Ione, is a facility for the custody, care, training, and guidance of youthful offenders; and

WHEREAS, The Department of the Youth Authority has jurisdiction over this facility; and

WHEREAS, In the past, the Preston School of Industry operated an agricultural program, commonly referred to as the Preston School Farm Program, on land surrounding the facility and owned by the Department of the Youth Authority; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Department of the Youth Authority is hereby requested to study the feasibility of reinstituting an agricultural program at the Preston School of Industry; and be it further

Resolved, That the department report its findings and recommendations developed from the study to the Legislature not later than six months from the enactment of this measure; and be it further

Resolved, That the property on which the agricultural program may be operated shall not be sold until the department has completed its study and reported its findings and recommendations to the Legislature; and be it further

Resolved, That the Governor is hereby requested to consider making available funds in the Budget Act of 1989 for the implementation of any recommendations made by the department; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor and to the Department of the Youth Authority.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 147

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No 160—Relative to energy resources.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, California is dependent upon nonrenewable fossil-fuels as the largest fuel source for the generation of electricity, making ratepayers vulnerable to sudden rate increases due to disruptions in foreign supply and price fluctuations; and

WHEREAS, Facilities for the generation of electricity can have significant consequences, including, but not limited to, air and water pollution, creation of hazardous wastes, harm to wildlife, vegetation, and agriculture, and socioeconomic and land use impacts; and

WHEREAS, Certain energy resources, fuels, and technologies available to energy planners create fewer adverse environmental impacts than others and increase the security of electricity supplies; and

WHEREAS, California has abundant energy resources within its own boundaries, and development of these resources contributes to local economic development, employment, and statewide energy security and reliability; and

WHEREAS, California law supports diversification of generation resources, fuels, and technologies to achieve security from supply and price disruptions, as well as to enhance the efficient use of fossil fuels and minimize adverse environmental impacts; and

WHEREAS, California law governing siting and planning for electrical generation facilities requires consideration and balancing of factors, including the preservation of environmental quality, the conservation of resources, maintenance of a sound economy, protection of public health and safety, and state and service area growth and development; and

WHEREAS, The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission has adopted policies which address the importance of increasing fuel diversity in the electricity system, increasing the security of electricity supplies, minimizing adverse environmental impacts associated with powerplant projects, and encouraging powerplant development which enhances state and local economic development; and

WHEREAS, The Federal Public Utilities Regulatory Policy Act of 1978 (P.L. 95-617) required state public utility commissions to establish a pricing mechanism for electric power sold to public utilities companies by qualifying facilities; and

WHEREAS, The Public Utilities Commission has established a standard offer contract mechanism which includes bidding for utility power sales contracts; and

WHEREAS, The bidding mechanism does not account for environmental impacts, or vulnerability to future rate increases or supply disruptions because of overreliance on a limited number of energy resources, fuels, and technologies; and

WHEREAS, The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission is analyzing the importance and value of these characteristics to the utility system; and

WHEREAS, The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission may develop recommendations regarding how to incorporate these considerations into the standard offer contract and competitive bidding mechanisms; and

WHEREAS, The Public Utilities Commission will consider these issues in the upcoming standard offer update proceeding; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the Public Utilities Commission, using its existing resources, in its standard offer update proceeding, and the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, using its existing resources, in its resource assessment and supply policies, take into account the benefits of nonprice factors such as those provided by energy resources, fuels, and technologies that enhance energy resource, fuel, or technology diversity, including, but not limited to, solar, wind, geothermal, biomass, conservation, and load management; create minimal regional environmental impacts; enhance local or statewide employment and economic development; utilize renewable energy sources; contribute to enhanced energy efficiency and conservation of natural resources; maximize system reliability and dependability; or otherwise reduce vulnerability to future rate increases; and be it further

Resolved, That the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission inform the Legislature in writing on or before December 1, 1989, how the benefits of the nonprice factors enumerated in this resolution have been taken into account in its resource assessment, supply policies, and any other relevant proceeding; and be it further

Resolved, That the Public Utilities Commission inform the Legislature in writing on or before December 1, 1989, how the benefits of the nonprice factors enumerated in this resolution have been taken into account in its standard offer update proceeding and any other relevant proceeding; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Public Utilities Commission and the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 148

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 162—Relative to the University of California.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, California's output of goods and services ranks it as the sixth greatest economic power in the world; and

WHEREAS, Over 25 percent of the members of the National Academy of Sciences live and work in California as do more than 25 percent of the engineers working in the United States today; and

WHEREAS, California's preeminence in science and technology was the basis for the development of the aerospace, microelectronics, and other advanced technologies in this state; and

WHEREAS, The state's scientists and technicians also were instrumental in making California one of the most productive agricultural states; and

WHEREAS, The rapid computerization of many formerly mechanical functions in manufacturing and the service industries, and the swift pace of discoveries in advanced materials both point toward science and technology as essential to future advances in nearly every sector of the economy; and

WHEREAS, California owes its preeminence to its excellent educational system, including the University of California and California State University systems, its superb independent universities and colleges, and its extensive community college system which provides highly trained manpower for California's industries; and

WHEREAS, The maintenance of California's science and technology infrastructure is vital to the continued growth of this state's economy; and

WHEREAS, The state's economic growth also depends on the ability to carry out successfully long-range research which addresses problems facing our industries and reaches toward areas of likely scientific and technological advancement; and

WHEREAS, Such research provides education and training to California's students and an opportunity for faculty to break new ground in a broad range of topics; and

WHEREAS, According to the Master Plan for Higher Education, the University of California is California's "primary state-supported academic agency for research"; and

WHEREAS, The University of California, together with others in the state's academic community, maintains preeminent faculties of capable and world renowned scientists, engineers, and technological experts; and

WHEREAS, California is fortunate to have a group of major research universities, the University of California, the University of Southern California, the California Institute of Technology, and Stanford University, each acknowledged to be world class and each of which conducts over $100 million of sponsored projects and grants more than 100 doctorates each year in science and technology related fields; and

WHEREAS, Consistent with the Master Plan for Higher Education, the California State University system engages in research, scholarship, and creative activity in support of its instructional and public service mission; and

WHEREAS, Limited public funding and the severe pressures of our increasingly international and competitive world economy require that long-range research needs be identified; and

WHEREAS, A strong and vibrant long-range research program with effective technology transfer mechanisms and genuine industry/university collaboration is necessary to ensure California's ability to retain vital industries and to continue to recruit scientific talent; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, That the President of the University of California, in collaboration with the presidents of the University of Southern California, the California Institute of Technology, Stanford University, and the Chancellor of the California State University—consistent with the role of their respective institutions under the master plan—is requested to establish, within one year of the effective date of this resolution, the California Council on Science and Technology, which will report to the presidents and chancellor, and respond appropriately to the Governor, the Legislature, and other relevant entities on public policy issues significantly related to science and technology; and that, in establishing the council, the President of the University of California will also seek consultation with other appropriate educational and research institutions in the state; and be it further

Resolved, That the council identify long-range research needs for sustaining the state's economic development and competitiveness and provide direction for new scientific and technological activities; and be it further

Resolved, That the council assess private sector/university relations and technology transfer, particularly with respect to California's economic development, leadership in research and development, and capacity to retain vital industries and scientific talent in California; and be it further

Resolved, That the council analyze these public policy issues involving science and technology, and prepare and present an annual report pursuant to its studies and findings for dissemination; and be it further

Resolved, That the membership of the council be comprised of distinguished scholars and experts, including scientists and engineers from California's academic and industrial community; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor, the President of the University of California, and the Regents of the University of California.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 149

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 170—Relative to California State University, Chico.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, California State University campuses rely upon auxiliary organizations to provide essential campus services not provided by the state; and

WHEREAS, California State University auxiliary organizations are, pursuant to statute, court decisions, and regulations, entities created and operating separately from, but consistent with, the educational mission of the university they directly serve; and

WHEREAS, This "separate but related" relationship between California State University campuses and their auxiliary organizations afford the auxiliary organizations the opportunity to operate under less restrictive controls than those required of state universities while insulating the universities from potential liabilities that could arise as a result of certain operations; and

WHEREAS, The Associated Students at California State

University, Chico, intended to be primarily a student body organization providing advocacy and government for the students, has provided bookstore services to the Chico campus community since 1929; and

WHEREAS, In 1942, the Associated Students at California State University, Chico, incorporated as a nonprofit corporation under California law for the express purposes of operating, supervising, managing, and controlling cocurricular activities as well as of providing low-cost, student price-sensitive bookstore services; and

WHEREAS, The Associated Students at California State University, Chico, began to provide the campus community with food services in the 1940s; and

WHEREAS, Ever since, these commercial services have consistently been provided through the Associated Students auxiliary organization at low cost to students living on restricted budgets and have not been used as an endless stream of financial resources for the university because of their low-profit margins; and

WHEREAS, In 1964, students at California State University, Chico, approved construction of the student union, now known as the Bell Memorial Union, and agreed to finance the construction and operation of the facility with a self-assessed fee through the ownership, operation, and management of the Associated Students auxiliary organization; and

WHEREAS, In January 1985, the California State University, Chico, and the Associated Students entered into a five-year written agreement establishing "a new partnership" between the Associated Students and the university "based on reciprocity" in which:

(a) The Associated Students agreed to make additional financial resources available to the university for use in furthering its educational mission controlled by the university president; and

(b) The university acknowledged that it was "entering into a long-term relationship with the Associated Students designed to give ongoing status as the sole food service operator and commercial vendor on campus"; and

(c) The university agreed to renew its operating and lease agreements with the Associated Students unless there was reasonable cause not to, defined as an objective finding of nonperformance, and the university agreed to give reasonable notice and reasonable opportunity to correct any problems; and

WHEREAS, In the summer of 1987, the President of California State University, Chico, revoked his 1985 five-year contractual agreement with the Associated Students auxiliary organization and ordered a restructuring of the student-run auxiliary organization even though no findings of inefficient operations had been made; and

WHEREAS, In the spring of 1988, after extensive consultation with students, faculty, administrators, and the community, the Board of Directors of the Associated Students auxiliary organization enacted a complete restructuring of its governance operations so as to facilitate true cooperation with the university and to increase the organizational efficiency of the student auxiliary organization; and

WHEREAS, The President of California State University, Chico, issued four campus policies in mid-June 1988, which violate the "separate but related" nature of auxiliary organizations in the California State University system and specifically that of the Associated Students auxiliary organization at California State University, Chico, including, but not limited to, a requirement that all net revenues of the auxiliary organization be returned directly to the university and that the setting of salaries and wages of auxiliary organization employees will be done by the President of California State University, Chico, upon the recommendation of a university-established and operated committee; and

WHEREAS, The university refused to permit the Associated Students auxiliary organization to renew, even on an interim basis, the commercial lease which expired on June 30, 1988; and

WHEREAS, Upon the refusal of the Associated Students to enter into the university's commercial lease proposal, the President of California State University, Chico, has decreed that he intends to establish two new auxiliary organizations to operate the campus commercial services; and

WHEREAS, The Associated Students feel that it may be forced to seek court-mandated relief in order to preserve the "separate but related" nature of its auxiliary organization; and

WHEREAS, On August 19, 1988, Butte County Superior Court issued a temporary restraining order against the California State University, Chico, President's threatened creation of two new auxiliary organizations and set a hearing on the question of a permanent injunction for September 16, 1988; and

WHEREAS, The slow dismantling of the Associated Students auxiliary organization by the California State University, Chico, administration has reached a point of high intensity which threatens the academic and administrative integrity of the institution; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly of the State of California, with the Senate thereof concurring, That the President of the California State University, Chico, is strongly encouraged to immediately suspend his decree to form two new commercial auxiliary organizations and, at least on an interim basis, renew the commercial lease between the university and the Associated Students auxiliary organization which lease expired June 30, 1988, and enter into a lease for the Bell Memorial Union; and be it further

Resolved, That the Trustees of California State University are hereby strongly encouraged to contract for an independent and external agent to review and audit to assist in the negotiations of the festering dispute between the California State University, Chico, administration and the Associated Students auxiliary organization; and be it further

Resolved, That the trustees are strongly encouraged to ensure that a mutual, long-term agreement is reached between the California State University, Chico, administration and the Associated Students auxiliary organization as it exists to serve students through student governance and commercial services; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chancellor of the California State University is strongly encouraged to submit a report to the educational policy and fiscal committees of the Legislature not later than February 1, 1989, describing the results of the negotiated agreement and the subsequent resolution ensured by the trustees; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly immediately transmit a copy of this resolution to the President of California State University, Chico, his cabinet, the President of the Associated Students at California State University, Chico, the entire California State University, Chico, Associated Students Board of Directors, the Chancellor of the California State University, and each member of the Board of Trustees of the California State University.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 150

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 171—Relative to the Joint Legislative Committee on Surrogate Parenting.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate thereof concurring, as follows:

(1) The Joint Legislative Committee on Surrogate Parenting is hereby created, authorized, and directed to ascertain, study, and critically analyze facts relating to commercial and noncommercial surrogate parenting, to examine restrictions under existing law, and to determine whether commercial and noncommercial surrogate parenting should be permitted and regulated in California. The Committee shall make a report to the Legislature no later than December 31, 1989, detailing its findings and recommendations on the issues set forth below. In developing that report, the Committee shall consider the legal and ethical questions raised by this practice including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) What impact would surrogate parenting arrangements have on a child? What impact would surrogate parenting arrangements have on other children in the families involved in the arrangement?

(b) What validity should contracts to bear a child and terminate parental rights have in California? What changes in existing law would be necessary to adequately protect the rights of all parties in a surrogate parenting arangement?

(c) What roles should courts play in resolving conflicts between parties in commercial and noncommerical surrogate arrangements? What safeguards and remedies should be established to protect the parties to surrogate parenting arrangements? What remedies should be provided statutorily to address problems which arise when one or more parties change their minds? What protections under surrogate parenting arrangements should natural mothers and fathers be afforded regardless of whether they are unmarried, or married to other people?

(d) What steps should be taken to prevent exploitation of surrogate mothers and childless couples?

(e) What steps, if any, should the state take to regulate third parties who provide services for surrogate parenting arrangements? What types of services should be provided to parties in surrogate parenting arrangements?

(2) The joint committee shall consist of three members of the Senate appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules (one of whom shall be the Vice Chair of the Committee), and three members of the Assembly, appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly one of whom shall be appointed as the chair of the joint committee). The members shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing power and vacancies shall be filled by the appointing power.

(3) The Joint Committee and all advisory committees appointed pursuant to subdivision (b) of paragraph (5) are authorized to act until June 30, 1989. Within that time, the Joint Committee shall meet a minimum of three times to discuss the issues and to formulate a legislative package based on its findings and recommendations; the advisory committee or committees shall meet as necessary.

(4) The joint committee and its members shall have and exercise all of the rights, duties, and powers conferred upon investigating committees and their members by the provisions of the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly as they are adopted and amended from time to time, which provisions are incorporated herein and made applicable to the joint committee and its members.

(5) The joint committee has the following additional powers and duties:

(a) If a consultant is not otherwise retained by the Joint Rules Committee of either house, to contract with a consultant and to employ those persons as may be necessary to assist the committee, subject to any Joint Committee on Rules that makes money available from its contingent funds, pursuant to paragraph (7), for the payment of the compensation of the particular consultant or employee, and utilize existing staff to the appropriate Senate and Assembly Committees and research staff as necessary to assist the committee as desired by the Committee

(b) To appoint one or more volunteer advisory committees consisting of persons representing a range of interested parties who are knowledgeable in the various areas being studied, to assist the committee and staff. The advisory committees shall report directly to the chairperson of the joint committee. The advisory committee shall meet as necessary and shall provide technical assistance and research. The members of the advisory committee may receive travel and living expenses as authorized by Joint Rules Committee.

(c) To make findings and recommendations regarding the body of law relating to surrogate parenting.

(d) To contract with such other agencies, public or private, as it deems necsessary for the rendition and affording of those services, facilities, and studies as will best assist the Joint committee in carrying out the purposes for which it is created. Any contract executed pursuant to this subdivision is subject to the approval of the Joint Rules Committee and the Committee on Rules of either house that makes money available from its contingent funds, pursuant to paragraph (7), for those purposes.

(e) To cooperate with and secure the cooperation of county, city, and city and county, and other local law enforcement agencies and to direct, with the approval of the Joint Rules Committee, the Senate Committee on Rules, and the Assembly Committee on Rules, or the sheriff of any county to serve subpoenas, orders, and other process issued by the committee.

(f) To do any and all other things necessary or convenient to enable it fully and adequately to exercise its powers, perform its duties, and accomplish the objectives and purposes of this resolution.

(6) The consultants working with the joint committee shall work with the joint committee and advisory committees, and shall provide assistance to the author of any bill or constitutional amendments.

(7) The Senate Committee on Rules or the Assembly Committee on Rules may make such money available from the contingent funds under the joint committee's direction and control as it deems necessary for the expenses of the Committee and its members. Any expenditure of money shall be made in compliance with policies set forth by the particular rules committee making the money available and shall be subject to the approval of that rules committee. The joint committee shall, within 15 calendar days following the adoption of this measure, present its budget to the Joint Rules Committee for its review and comment.

(8) The chairperson of the joint committee shall designate a chairperson for each advisory committee and shall give consideration to the persons recommended by the advisory committee.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 151

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 67—Relative to flood control.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The California Legislature, with the adoption of Senate Joint Resolution 24 in 1982 (Resolution Chapter 13 of the Statutes of 1982), went on record in support of construction of a multipurpose Auburn Dam; and

WHEREAS, A multipurpose Auburn Dam would provide flood protection for the Sacramento region and greatly help meet the future water and power needs of El Dorado, Placer, and Sacramento Counties; and

WHEREAS, In Sacramento and adjacent areas, recent floods and a drought have focused renewed interest in the construction of a multipurpose Auburn Dam, a large version of which was authorized by Congress in 1965 but never completed; and

WHEREAS, In August 1988, the American River Authority, a joint powers agency representing El Dorado and Placer Counties, informed the federal government of its willingness to issue revenue bonds to finance the hydroelectric power portion of a multipurpose Auburn Dam, and is attempting to obtain contracts for water sales from such a project; and

WHEREAS, The American River Authority favors the construction of a multipurpose Auburn Dam, which could provide increased water and power supplies, flood protection, fishery enhancements, and recreational opportunities to all beneficiaries; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA JOINTLY, That the Legislature of the State of California advises the Congress of the United States that it continues to support construction of a multipurpose dam at the Auburn site, provided that it is shown that the project's water and power users will pay their fair share of the costs of the water and power; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Legislature respectfully encourages the Congress to give serious consideration to the offer of the American River Authority to share the costs of a multipurpose dam; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the State of California, while participating in any study of the American River watershed, should consider the needs of, and potential benefits to, El Dorado and Placer Counties, as well as those of the City of Sacramento, Sacramento County, and other local entities; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Secretary of the Interior, the Secretary of Defense, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, the Governor of California, the Secretary of the Resources Agency, and the Director of Water Resources.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 152

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 78—Relative to Ethiopian Jews.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, During the week of April 2-8, 1988, Jews worldwide celebrate the Passover holiday commemorating the exodus of oppressed people from enslavement in Egypt; and

WHEREAS, Eight thousand Ethiopian Jews are still trapped in remote villages in the Gondar Province of Ethiopia and separated from other members of their immediate families; and

WHEREAS, The Jews remaining in Ethiopia are a vulnerable community consisting mostly of women, children, and the elderly and infirm threatened by famine and disease; and

WHEREAS, Ethiopian Jews continue to face religious persecution: Jewish studies and the teaching of Hebrew are forbidden, community leaders are questioned and arrested, and the special permission required for holiday gatherings is often denied; and

WHEREAS, Approximately 30 Ethiopian Jews have been arrested and imprisoned for attempting to emigrate or help others emigrate to Israel; and

WHEREAS, Sixteen thousand Ethiopian Jews now live outside of Ethiopia due to the courageous efforts of Operation Moses; and

WHEREAS, The right of emigration is a fundamental human right, especially where it concerns family reunification; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the government of Ethiopia to allow the remaining 8,000 Jews in Ethiopia's Gondar Province to be reunited with their families in Israel; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President of the United States, the Secretary of State, other federal officials, and Members of Congress to urge the government of Ethiopia to complete the resettlement of Ethiopian Jews in Israel; and be it further

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President of the United States, other federal officials, and Members of Congress to use all appropriate diplomatic channels in every meeting, contact, or communication between American and Ethiopian officials to press Ethiopian authorities to take actions urged by this resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Secretary of State, the government of Ethiopia, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 153

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 82—Relative to Alzheimer's disease.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Alzheimer's disease is a disease of the brain, causing progressive dementia and, ultimately, physical dysfunction as well; and

WHEREAS, Persons afflicted with Alzheimer's disease can be neither cured nor rehabilitated, and the course of the disease is one of unremitting, progressive mental and physical deterioration over 5 to 20 years, with death resulting usually from infection, often pneumonia; and

WHEREAS, Diagnosis of Alzheimer's disease is made by eliminating other known causes of cognition and memory impairments for which diagnostic techniques are available, and there is no reliable diagnostic test for Alzheimer's disease; and

WHEREAS, In the United States, Alzheimer's disease or related dementia afflict approximately 3 million individuals, most of whom are 65 years old or older; and

WHEREAS, Among the segment of the population of the United States over 65 years of age, Alzheimer's disease is the fourth most common cause of death; and

WHEREAS, The incidence of Alzheimer's disease increases sharply with age, including approximately 5 percent of the total population over 65 years of age, and over 20 percent of the group over 85 years of age; and

WHEREAS, While the incidence of Alzheimer's disease or related dementias has remained relatively constant for 35 years, survival rates have not, and ever increasing percentages of the population over 65 years of age survive past 80 years of age; and

WHEREAS, There are national estimates that as many as 500,000 persons in California currently suffer from Alzheimer's disease or related dementias, and the State Department of Health Services projects that, by the year 2020, there will be 750,000 Alzheimer's disease patients throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, Approximately 50 percent of the American nursing home population is afflicted with Alzheimer's disease, and in California, the State Department of Health Services estimates 50 to 70 percent of residents in all long-term care facilities suffer from Alzheimer's disease; and

WHEREAS, The average annual cost of nursing home care in California currently runs between fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) and thirty thousand dollars ($30,000), the aggregate annual cost of nursing home care for Alzheimer's disease patients nationwide is estimated to be as high as 48 billion dollars, and the California share, conservatively assuming 11 percent, is 5.3 billion dollars; and

WHEREAS, Most Alzheimer's disease patients are not being cared for in nursing homes, and more than 75 percent of all dementia patients living at home are being attended by family caregivers; and

WHEREAS, The services required by these patients, and their families and caregivers, range across a continuum of needs unique to the progressive deterioration caused by Alzheimer's disease; and

WHEREAS, Specific needs for service depend on the particular stage of Alzheimer's disease of any given patient, and the total cost of care for dementia patients in California, including those who are not institutionalized in skilled nursing facilities, is unknown; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature hereby memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to enact legislation expanding benefits under the Medicare program for Alzheimer's disease patients and their families, to include, as in-home and community-based services, Alzheimer's disease day care, in-home and out-of-home respite care, and adult social day care, and to include long-term residential care; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 154

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 91—Relative to the Amerasian Resettlement Program.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, Amerasian children living in Vietnam have suffered unduly because of their parentage and have been denied educational and employment opportunities afforded other Vietnamese; and

WHEREAS, The United States government and the government of Vietnam signed the Amerasian Homecoming Act in December 1987, thereby allowing a total of 30,000 Amerasians and their families to emigrate to the United States; and

WHEREAS, Under the auspices of the Amerasian Resettlement Program administered by the Department of Health and Human Services, these Amerasian immigrants are to receive six months of educational training in camps in the Republic of the Philippines before coming to the United States; and

WHEREAS, Upon arrival in the United States, the Amerasian immigrants will be sent to cluster sites specified by the Amerasian Resettlement Planning Committee in order to help them assimilate; and

WHEREAS, The Amerasian immigrants currently have no choice in the cluster site to which they will be assigned; and

WHEREAS, Over 50 percent of all Vietnamese refugees have settled in California, and a large percentage of the Amerasian immigrants will relocate in this state as well; and

WHEREAS, The Amerasian Resettlement Program itself is in danger since Congress has failed to provide funding for the program for the 1988 fiscal year; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the Congress of the United States to provide funding for the Amerasian Resettlement Program, and to enact legislation necessary for the establishment and funding of an appropriate number of cluster sites in the State of California; and be it further

Resolved, That a representative of the State of California be appointed as a member of the Amerasian Resettlement Planning Committee; and be it further

Resolved, That Amerasian immigrants be permitted to choose the cluster site at which they will be located, especially if there are relatives living in the vicinity of the cluster site; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the Secretary of Health and Human Services, and to representatives of the Amerasian Resettlement Planning Committee.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 155

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 92—Relative to the Medal of Honor.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The Medal of Honor is the nation's highest military award and has been so since the Civil War; and

WHEREAS, There are prescribed statutory limits on the time within which this award may be made; and

WHEREAS, Heroic deeds often are overlooked in the heat of battle and only come to light after the time limits have elapsed, and heroic events have been overlooked for various reasons; and

WHEREAS, These time limits have in the past been waived by Congress when information has been uncovered after the fact; and

WHEREAS, There are currently two bills before Congress which would waive the time limits for two black Americans who performed heroically in wartime; and

WHEREAS, HR 3509 concerns Sergeant Henry Johnson who served in France during World War I as a member of the all-black 369th Infantry Regiment and has been acknowledged by the United States Army as a World War I hero, and who was the first American awarded France's highest military honor, the Croix de Guerre, for his bravery; and

WHEREAS, HR 3510 concerns Seaman Dorris Miller who was a mess steward aboard the battleship West Virginia when the Japanese attacked the ship in Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941, and is credited with risking his life to drag his mortally wounded captain to safety and then to returning to the deck to man a machine gun and shoot down two Japanese aircraft for which action he was awarded the Navy Cross; and

WHEREAS, It is a historical fact that more than 1.5 million black Americans served in the Armed Forces of the United States during World War I and World War II; and

WHEREAS, It is also a historical fact that no black American received the Medal of Honor during those wars; and

WHEREAS, HR 3509 and HR 3510 currently have 130 cosponsors and indications are that President Reagan will sign these bills if passed by Congress; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly and Senate of the State of California jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California urges the Congress of the United States to enact HR 3509 and HR 3510; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 156

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 93—Relative to resettlement of Indochinese refugees.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, More than 13 years have passed since the end of the Vietnam War, yet thousands of Indochinese remain in refugee camps in Thailand, Malaysia, the Philippines, and Hong Kong; and

WHEREAS, About 450,000 Indochinese refugees have made their homes in California and many are now United States citizens and are contributing members of their adopted country; and

WHEREAS, Many Indochinese refugees in camps in countries of first asylum are husbands, wives, parents, children, and other family members of former refugees and citizens living in the State of California, and many of these refugees have remained in refugee camps for more than five years; and

WHEREAS, Secretary of State George Shultz has suggested that an alternative to resettling the Vietnamese refugees is voluntary repatriation, under which the refugees either "voluntarily" return to their homeland or remain indefinitely at the refugee camps; and

WHEREAS, In the past, Vietnamese refugees, including women and children, who have returned to Vietnam after arriving in Guam were put into reeducation camps by the Vietnamese government and were accused of participating in activities with the CIA, and many of these people still remain in the reeducation camps; and

WHEREAS, The number of Indochinese refugees to be admitted to the United States for the 1989 fiscal year has been reduced by 6,000; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to request the State Department to reevaluate its proposed policy of "voluntary" repatriation of Vietnamese refugees; and be it further

Resolved, That those Indochinese refugees who have relatives living in the United States and who qualify under immigrant status should be given priority to be admitted into the United States of America, and that their cases be expedited; and be it further

Resolved, That the admission quota should remain at 29,500 the same level as it is currently established at, and that the United States should take an active leadership role within the international community in search of a long-term satisfactory solution; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and the Vice President of the United States, to the Secretary of State, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 157

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 94—Relative to a federal fuel tax increase.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, Congress has established the National Economic Commission to recommend ways to solve the nation's deficit problems; and

WHEREAS, Proposals are being considered by the commission to impose a special tax on motor vehicle fuels to reduce the federal deficit; and

WHEREAS, The burden for deficit reduction should be borne by the whole nation, not just motor vehicle fuel users; and

WHEREAS, California's highway needs are enormous, and a strengthened highway program is essential to sustain economic growth and preserve the quality of life in California; and

WHEREAS, The use of this traditional source of highway funds for deficit reduction would significantly impede the ability of the state to implement badly needed adjustments to the fuel tax and be disastrous to California's effort to improve its vital highway system; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly and the Senate of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress of the United States to seek deficit reduction through means other than an increase in the motor vehicle fuel tax; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 158

Senate Joint Resolution No. 9—Relative to federal income taxation.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, State and national demographics indicate a substantial increase in the population's average age, with the number of persons over 65 rising from 28.6 million to over 35 million in the year 2000; and

WHEREAS, One out of four persons over the age of 65 and three out of five persons over the age of 85 are expected to need long-term care; and

WHEREAS, A study by the Harvard School of Public Health reveals that two-thirds of nursing home residents go bankrupt in three months and 90 percent face destitution in two years, which contributes to the severe mental anguish suffered by seniors and family members confronted with the spiraling financial responsibilities inherent in long-term care; and

WHEREAS, The rapidly increasing number of older Californians should be encouraged to provide for potential long-term care costs so that they may live with dignity; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to allow, for federal income tax purposes, an income tax deduction as a miscellaneous itemized deduction for the total premiums paid by a taxpayer for the purchase of long-term care insurance; and be it further

Resolved, That immediate family members be allowed, for federal income tax purposes, a miscellaneous itemized deduction for the total premiums paid for the purchase of long-term care insurance purchased on behalf of an elderly relative; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 159

Senate Joint Resolution No. 35—Relative to the Emergency Broadcast System.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, The Senate Task Force on California Nuclear Emergency Response assessed the state's preparedness for a nuclear powerplant emergency; and

WHEREAS, The task force determined that the federal Emergency Broadcast System is an integral part of emergency planning in the state; and

WHEREAS, The task force determined that stations are not required to participate in the Emergency Broadcast System for nuclear powerplant emergencies; and

WHEREAS, The task force determined that there is little federal oversight of the Emergency Broadcast System to ensure that station staff is adequately trained in Emergency Broadcast System procedures; and

WHEREAS, The task force concluded that the Emergency Broadcast System in California should be improved in order for the system to be used most effectively in nuclear powerplant emergencies; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to make the following changes in the Emergency Broadcast System:

(a) Require all stations in the vicinity of a nuclear powerplant to participate in the Emergency Broadcast System during a serious nuclear powerplant accident;

(b) Require stations which will act as primary Emergency Broadcast System stations in nuclear powerplant emergencies to participate in exercises of nuclear powerplant emergency response plans;

(c) Provide regular training in Emergency Broadcast System operating procedures to station staff;

(d) Provide necessary funding for each of the above items; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States, to the Chairperson of the Federal Communications Commission, to the Chairperson of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, to the Chairperson of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, to the Governor, to the Director of Health Services, and to the Director of the Office of Emergency Services.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 160

Senate Joint Resolution No. 44—Relative to federal aid to the Azores.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, Under the specific provisions of the agreement between Portugal and the United States regarding the concession of military facilities in the Azores, the Autonomous Region of the Azores has been receiving considerable financial aid for development from the United States; and

WHEREAS, From 1983 to 1986, the Autonomous Region of the Azores has received the equivalent of $40 million per year; and

WHEREAS, Funding to the Azores has been subsequently reduced through actions of the Administration and Congress by 20 percent or $8 million in both the immediate past and present fiscal years; and

WHEREAS, Due to such disadvantages as its geographic location, the dimension and dispersion of the islands and other natural conditions, a very large number of Azoreans have emigrated from their beloved homeland to settle in America, establishing large communities with a growing social, political, and cultural presence in New England, California, and Hawaii; and

WHEREAS, American financial aid, granted in accordance with the Portuguese constitutional provisions which established the autonomous and democratic government of the Azores, has been essential to the rapid economic and cultural development of the Azores and its people for the last 10 years; and

WHEREAS, The continuation of agreed-upon support to one of America's staunchest and most reliable allies is fundamental to the continued growth of essential social and cultural institutions, and to the economic stability which is the keystone to the alliance which the United States has enjoyed with the Azores and with Portugal as a whole; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the President and the Congress of the United States to restore federal aid to the Azores to the levels agreed upon in the Portugal-United States Agreement of 1983; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 161

Senate Joint Resolution No. 48—Relative to the declaration of National Sir Winston Churchill Week.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, April 9, 1988, was the 25th anniversary of the granting of honorary citizenship to Sir Winston Churchill by the United States; and

WHEREAS, Sir Winston Churchill's mother, Jennie Jerome Churchill, was an American, thereby making Sir Winston Churchill a son of America though a subject of Great Britain; and

WHEREAS, Sir Winston Churchill inspired the world during World War II with his stirring oratory, his energy, and his stubborn refusal to make peace until Hitler's Army was crushed; and

WHEREAS, Sir Winston Churchill inspired the world throughout his life with his commitment to the ideals of freedom, not only during times of peace but during the darkest moments of war; and

WHEREAS, Sir Winston Churchill made significant contributions to the world and was honored with a Nobel Prize in Literature for both his writing and oratory, as well as being knighted; and

WHEREAS, Sir Winston Churchill recognized the importance of understanding history and the relevance of history in solving current problems; and

WHEREAS, Sir Winston Churchill made significant contributions towards peace and freedom of all people; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, jointly, That the Legislature of the State of California respectfully memorializes the Congress and the President of the United States to designate November 27 through December 3, 1988, as "National Sir Winston Churchill Week"; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 162

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 69—Relative to nonresident tuition.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988 ]

WHEREAS, Nonresident tuition for the University of California, the California State University, and the California community colleges system has not recently been reviewed by the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, Current state policy regarding fees at public colleges and universities does not consider nonresident tuition; and

WHEREAS, California State University currently has higher nonresident graduate tuition than the University of California, the state's recognized research institution; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature desires to enhance the opportunity of maximum access to, and viability of, the University of California, California State University, and California community colleges systems as educational institutions for state residents; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature is interested in maintaining high quality programs at the University of California, California State University, and California community colleges for the best qualified students while ensuring an equitable nonresident tuition level; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That it is the intent of the Legislature to adopt a long-term nonresident undergraduate and graduate student tuition policy for California's public colleges and universities; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Postsecondary Education Commission is hereby requested to convene one or more meetings of an advisory committee consisting of representatives of the University of California, California State University, Hastings College of the Law, California community colleges, Department of Finance, Legislative Analyst, and authorized student representatives; and be it further

Resolved, That the participants of those meetings be requested to develop recommendations for a long-term nonresident undergraduate and graduate student tuition policy for California's public universities. In developing these recommendations, the participants shall consider, but need not recommend, the following criteria:

(a) Consistent methodologies among the University of California, the California State University, and the California community colleges.

(b) Comparability with both the level of charges and residency requirements for nonresident students at public colleges and universities in other states.

(c) Compatibility, where appropriate, with existing state policy for resident student fees.

The recommendation should include specific tuition level calculation methodologies for the purpose of establishing the nonresident tuition levels and their adjustment on a year-to-year basis; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Postsecondary Education Commission, prior to July 1, 1989, is hereby requested to present to the Legislature and the Governor recommendations developed by the advisory committee for a long-term nonresident undergraduate and graduate student tuition policy for California's public colleges and universities; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the California Postsecondary Education Commission, the Regents of the University of California, the Board of Trustees of the California State University, the Board of Directors of Hastings College of the Law, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, the Department of Finance, and the Legislative Analyst.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 163

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 74—Relative to intercollegiate athletics.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The problems surrounding the balance between academics and athletics in higher education have become the focus of national attention and concern; and

WHEREAS, Intercollegiate athletics should develop and lay a foundation that enables student athletes to have a well-rounded and successful educational experience, and, insofar as possible, student athletes should be treated like other students; and

WHEREAS, Universities and colleges have an obligation to protect the health and safety of their student athletes when they engage in intercollegiate practice and competition; and

WHEREAS, College athletes have an acute need for medical and disability insurance that covers the immediate and residual effects of injuries suffered while participating in intercollegiate sports; and

WHEREAS, Many of those injuries may seriously impede the ability of the athletes to compete in the open labor market and otherwise greatly reduce their potential lifetime earning capacity; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That public institutions of higher education in the State of California, either individually or in cooperation with the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) or other athletic governing body, study the advisability and feasibility of instituting policies for the award of financial aid to student athletes, beyond the period of their participation in intercollegiate athletics, on the basis of financial need, and report their findings and conclusions no later than January 1, 1990, to the Legislature and the Governor; and be it further

Resolved, That public institutions of higher education in the State of California that compete in intercollegiate athletics ensure that all of their student athletes who participate in that competition are adequately covered by medical and disability insurance, and report on the status of that coverage no later than January 1, 1990, to the Legislature and the Governor; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University, and those private institutions of higher education in this state that participate in intercollegiate athletic competition under the auspices of the NCAA.

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 164

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 92—Relative to foreign languages.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 15, 1988.]

WHEREAS, The United States of America has suffered a trade deficit continuously for the past several years, the severity of which is exemplified by the $60 billion deficit with Japan, our largest trading partner; and

WHEREAS, United States exports to Japan are increasingly agricultural products and raw materials, while our imports are valued added products, illustrative of an emerging trade pattern which is characteristic of third world or nonindustrialized countries; and

WHEREAS, Many United States manufacturing plants which are operating near capacity are showing signs of cost inefficiency which is exemplified by a decline in the volume of United States exported finished products; and

WHEREAS, Technological innovations and scientific discoveries are being developed in Japan at an accelerated pace and are only accessible in the Japanese language, and increasingly a larger percentage of the patents being issued by our United States patent office are going to Japanese nationals or companies; and

WHEREAS, The California Legislature recognizes the need to direct resources and establish policies to meet the challenge of our state's economic development by harnessing energy and mobilizing resources to assemble a talented, efficient infrastructure capable of competing in the global marketplace; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature finds a need to promote education and training in the languages and cultures of our Pacific trading partners and in particular the language and industrial management practices of our largest trading partner, Japan, in order to improve our trade balance and compete more effectively in the international marketplace; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of this need, the California Legislature has established the California International Studies Project providing teacher training to elementary and secondary school teachers, emphasizing foreign languages and cultures; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature recognizes the benefits derived by interacting with the people of Japan in trade shows and expositions, and by participating in the Japanese marketplace which encourages the application of foreign language training and promotes the penetration of California products into the Japanese marketplace; and

WHEREAS, The EXPO '90 International Garden and Greenery Exposition was conceived by the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry, and Fisheries of Japan as an effort to help promote better international relations by creating a vehicle to market and promote worldwide agricultural products; and

WHEREAS, EXPO '90 will provide California an important opportunity to have its agricultural products promoted, demonstrated, and sold directly to consumers for six months at the exposition site in Osaka, Japan; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That all California educational institutions are encouraged to promote Asian, Spanish, or other foreign language, history and cultural training programs; and be it further

Resolved, That all California colleges and institutions of higher learning are encouraged to promote language and other courses which facilitate productive international trade relations, including, but not limited to, offering Spanish and at least one Asian language at each campus; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Legislature requests institutions of higher learning to offer Spanish and at least one Asian language on their campuses in order to promote greater language capability in every profession; and be it further

Resolved, That the University of California is requested to establish an intensive Japanese language residential summer program that is modeled after successful components of the Middlebury College and Monterey Institute of International Studies programs and that integrates a business, technology and public policy perspective into the language instruction format; and be it further

Resolved, That the California Legislature hereby recognizes the importance of improved foreign language skills and participation in overseas expositions for successful marketing of California products and hereby provides a statement of intent to participate in the EXPO '90 International Garden and Greenery Exposition; and be it further

Resolved, That the Governor is urged to support California's participation in EXPO '90 in Osaka, Japan; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Governor, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the superintendent of every school district in California, the chancellors, presidents and deans of every college or university in California, public and private, and the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry, and Fisheries of Japan through the Consuls General of Japan in San Francisco and Los Angeles.
