[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13369 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

13369. (a) The department shall deny or revoke a schoolbus, school pupil activity bus, youth bus, or general public paratransit driver certificate of an applicant or a holder of a certificate for any of the following causes:

(1) The certificate applicant or holder has been convicted of any sex offense as defined in Section 44010 of the Education Code.

(2) The certificate applicant has, within the three years preceding the application date, either been convicted of a violation of Section 20001, 23103, 23104, 23152, or 23153, or has his or her driving privilege suspended, revoked, or placed on probation by the department for a cause involving the safe operation of a motor vehicle.

(3) The certificate applicant has, within the two years preceding the application date, been convicted of any offense specified in Section 11361.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(4) The certificate applicant has failed to meet the prescribed testing requirements for issuance of the certificate.

(b) An applicant or holder of a certificate may reapply for a certificate whenever a felony or misdemeanor conviction is reversed or dismissed. A termination of probation and dismissal of charges pursuant to Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code or a dismissal of charges pursuant to Section 1203.4a of the Penal Code is not a dismissal for purposes of this section.

CHAPTER 847

An act to amend Sections 65950, 65952.1, 66412, 66436, 66452.1, 66452.2, 66456.2, 66463, 66474.2 of, to repeal Section 65950 of, and to add Section 66474.10 to, the Government Code, relating to subdivisions.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65950 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 990 of the Statutes of 1984, is amended to read:

65950. Any public agency which is the lead agency for a development project for which an environmental impact report is prepared pursuant to Section 21100 or 21151 of the Public Resources Code shall approve or disapprove the project within one year from the date on which an application requesting approval of the project has been received and accepted as complete by that agency. If a negative declaration is adopted or if the project is exempt from Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code, the development project shall be approved or disapproved within six months from the date on which an application requesting approval of the project has been received and accepted as being complete by that agency, unless the project proponent requests an extension of the time limit. As specified in Sections 21100.2 and 21151.5 of the Public Resources Code, the period specified in those sections shall also begin on that date.

SEC. 2. Section 65950 of the Government Code, as added by Section 2 of Chapter 823 of the Statutes of 1983, is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 65952.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65952.1. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), where a development project consists of a subdivision pursuant to the Subdivision Map Act (Division 2 (commencing with Section 66410) of Title 7), the time limits established by Sections 65950 and 65952 shall apply to the approval or disapproval of the tentative map, or the parcel map for which a tentative map is not required.

(b) The time limits specified in Sections 66452.1, 66452.2, and 66463 for tentative maps and parcel maps for which a tentative map is not required, shall continue to apply and are not extended by the time limits specified in subdivision (a).

SEC. 4. Section 66412 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66412. This division shall be inapplicable to:

(a) The financing or leasing of apartments, offices, stores or similar space within apartment buildings, industrial buildings, commercial buildings, mobilehome parks, or trailer parks.

(b) Mineral, oil or gas leases.

(c) Land dedicated for cemetery purposes under the Health and Safety Code.

(d) A lot line adjustment between two or more existing adjacent parcels, where the land taken from one parcel is added to an adjacent parcel, and where a greater number of parcels than originally existed is not thereby created, provided the lot line adjustment is approved by the local agency, or advisory agency. A local agency or advisory agency shall limit its review and approval to a determination of whether or not the parcels resulting from the lot line adjustment will conform to local zoning and building ordinances. An advisory agency or local agency shall not impose conditions or exactions on its approval of a lot line adjustment except to conform to local zoning and building ordinances, or except to facilitate the relocation of existing utilities, infrastructure, or easements. No tentative map, parcel map, or final map shall be required as a condition to the approval of a lot line adjustment. The lot line adjustment shall be reflected in a deed. No record of survey shall be required for a lot line adjustment unless required by Section 8762 of the Business and Professions Code.

(e) Boundary line or exchange agreements to which the State Lands Commission or a local agency holding a trust grant of tide and submerged lands is a party.

(f) Any separate assessment under Section 2188.7 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(g) Unless a parcel or final map was approved by the legislative body of a local agency, the conversion of a community apartment project, as defined in Section 11004 of the Business and Professions Code, to a condominium, as defined in Section 783 of the Civil Code, but only if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) At least 75 percent of the units in the project were occupied by record owners of the project on March 31, 1982.

(2) A final or parcel map of the project was properly recorded, if the property was subdivided, as defined in Section 66424, after January 1, 1964, with all of the conditions of that map remaining in effect after the conversion.

(3) The local agency certifies that the above requirements were satisfied if the local agency, by ordinance, provides for that certification.

(h) Unless a parcel or final map was approved by the legislative body of a local agency, the conversion of a stock cooperative, as defined in Section 11003.2 of the Business and Professions Code, to a condominium, as defined in Section 783 of the Civil Code, but only if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) At least 51 percent of the units in the cooperative were occupied by stockholders of the cooperative on January 1, 1981, or individually owned by stockholders of the cooperative on January 1, 1981. As used in this paragraph, a cooperative unit is "individually owned" if and only if the stockholder of that unit owns or partially owns an interest in no more than one unit in the cooperative.

(2) No more than 25 percent of the shares of the cooperative were owned by any one person, as defined in Section 17, including an incorporator or director of the cooperative, on January 1, 1981.

(3) A person renting a unit in a cooperative shall be entitled at the time of conversion to all tenant rights in state or local law, including, but not limited to, rights respecting first refusal, notice, and displacement and relocation benefits.

(4) The local agency certifies that the above requirements were satisfied if the local agency, by ordinance, provides for that certification.

(i) The leasing of, or the granting of an easement to, a parcel of land, or any portion or portions thereof, in conjunction with the financing, erection, and sale or lease of a windpowered electrical generation device on the land, if the project is subject to discretionary action by the advisory agency or legislative body.

SEC. 5. Section 66436 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66436. (a) A statement, signed and acknowledged by all parties having any record title interest in the subdivided real property, consenting to the preparation and recordation of the final map is required, except in the following circumstances:

(1) A lien for state, county, municipal, or local taxes or special assessments, a trust interest under bond indentures, or mechanics' liens do not constitute a record title interest in land for the purpose of this chapter or any local ordinance.

(2) The signature of either the holder of beneficial interests under trust deeds or the trustee under the trust deeds, but not both, may be omitted. The signature of either shall constitute a full and complete subordination of the lien of the deed of trust to the map and any interest created by the map.

(3) Signatures of parties owning the following types of interests may be omitted if their names and the nature of their respective interests are stated on the final map:

(A) (i) Rights-of-way, easements or other interests which cannot ripen into a fee, except those owned by a public entity, public utility, or subsidiary of a public utility for conveyance to the public utility for rights-of-way. If, however, the legislative body or advisory agency determines that division and development of the property in the manner set forth on the approved or conditionally approved tentative map will not unreasonably interfere with the free and complete exercise of the public entity or public utility right-of-way or easement, the signature of the public entity or public utility may be omitted. Where that determination is made, the subdivider shall send, by certified mail, a sketch of the proposed final map, together with a copy of this section, to any public entity or public utility which has previously acquired a right-of-way or easement.

(ii) If the public entity or utility objects to either recording the final map without its signature or the determination of the legislative body or advisory agency that the division and development of the property will not unreasonably interfere with the full and complete exercise of its right-of-way or easement, it shall so notify the subdivider and the legislative body or advisory agency within 30 days after receipt of the materials from the subdivider.

(iii) If the public entity or utility objects to recording the final map without its signature, the public entity or utility so objecting may affix its signature to the final map within 30 days of filing its objection with the legislative body or advisory agency.

(iv) If the public entity or utility either does not file an objection with the legislative body or advisory agency or fails to affix its signature within 30 days of filing its objection to recording the map without its signature, the local agency may record the final map without the signature.

(v) If the public entity or utility files an objection to the determination of the legislative body or advisory agency that the division and development of the property will not unreasonably interfere with the exercise of its right-of-way or easement, the legislative body or advisory agency shall set the matter for public hearing to be held not less than 10 nor more than 30 days of receipt of the objection. At the hearing, the public entity or public utility shall present evidence in support of its position that the division and development of the property will unreasonably interfere with the free and complete exercise of the objector's right-of-way or easement.

(vi) If the legislative body or advisory agency finds, following the hearing, that the development and division will in fact unreasonably interfere with the free and complete exercise of the objector's right-of-way or easement, it shall set forth those conditions whereby the unreasonable interference will be eliminated and upon compliance with those conditions by the subdivider, the final map may be recorded with or without the signature of the objector. If the legislative body or advisory agency finds that the development and division will in fact not unreasonably interfere with the free and complete exercise of the objector's right-of-way or easement, the final map may be recorded without the signature of the objector, notwithstanding the objections.

(vii) Failure of the public entity or public utility to file an objection pursuant to this section shall in no way affect its rights under a right-of-way or easement.

(viii) No fee shall be charged by a public entity, public utility, subsidiary of a public utility, or objector for signing, omitting a signature, or objecting pursuant to this section.

(B) Rights-of-way, easements, or reversions, which by reason of changed conditions, long disuse, or laches appear to be no longer of practical use or value and signatures are impossible or impractical to obtain. A statement of the circumstances preventing the procurement of the signatures shall also be stated on the map.

(C) Interests in, or rights to, minerals, including but not limited to, oil, gas, or other hydrocarbon substances.

(4) Real property originally patented by the United States or by the State of California, which original patent reserved interest to either or both of those entities, may be included in the final map without the consent of the United States or the State of California to the map or to dedications made by it.

(b) No monetary liability shall be incurred by, and no cause of action shall arise against, a local agency, a party, the subdivider, the subdivider's agent, or the engineer or land surveyor who prepared the map, on account of the omission of any signature, which omission is authorized by this section.

(c) A notary acknowledgment shall be deemed complete for recording without the official seal of the notary, so long as the name of the notary, the county of the notary's principal place of business, and the notary's commission expiration date are typed or printed below or immediately adjacent to the notary's signature in the acknowledgment.

SEC. 6. Section 66452.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66452.1. (a) If the advisory agency is not authorized by local ordinance to approve, conditionally approve or disapprove the tentative map, it shall make its written report on the tentative map to the legislative body within 50 days after the filing thereof with its clerk.

(b) If the advisory agency is authorized by local ordinance to approve, conditionally approve, or disapprove the tentative map, it shall take that action within 50 days after the filing thereof with its clerk and report its action to the subdivider.

(c) The local agency shall comply with the time periods referred to in Section 21151.5 of the Public Resources Code. The time periods specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) shall commence after certification of the environmental impact report, adoption of a negative declaration, or a determination by the local agency that the project is exempt from the requirements of Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 7. Section 66452.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66452.2. (a) If there is an advisory agency which is not authorized by local ordinance to approve, conditionally approve or disapprove the tentative map, at the next regular meeting of the legislative body following the filing of the advisory agency's report with it, the legislative body shall fix the meeting date at which the tentative map will be considered by it, which date shall be within 30 days thereafter and the legislative body shall approve, conditionally approve, or disapprove the tentative map within that 30-day period.

(b) If there is no advisory agency, the clerk of the legislative body shall submit the tentative map to the legislative body at its next regular meeting which shall approve, conditionally approve or disapprove that map within 50 days thereafter.

(c) The local agency shall comply with the time periods referred to in Section 21151.5 of the Public Resources Code. The time periods specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) shall commence after certification of the environmental impact report, adoption of a negative declaration, or a determination by the local agency that the project is exempt from the requirements of Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 8. Section 66456.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66456.2. (a) An improvement plan being processed in conjunction with either an approved tentative, parcel, or final map shall be prepared by a registered civil engineer and acted on within 60 working days of its submittal, except that at least 15 working days shall be provided for processing any resubmitted improvement plan. The 60 working day period shall not include any days during which the improvement plan has been returned to the applicant for correction, has been subject to review by other than the local agency or, following that review, has been returned to the applicant for correction.

(b) The time limits specified in this section for acting on improvement plans may be extended by mutual consent of the subdivider and the advisory agency or legislative body required to act. However, no advisory agency or legislative body may require a routine waiver of time limits as a condition of accepting the improvement plan. A routine waiver may be obtained for the purpose of permitting concurrent processing of other requirements related to the improvement plan or map.

(c) If, at the time of submittal or resubmittal, the local agency or designee determines it is unable to meet the time limits of this section, the local agency or designee shall, upon request of the subdivider and for purposes of meeting the time limits, contract or employ a private entity or persons on a temporary basis to perform services necessary to permit the agency or designee to meet the time limits. However, a local agency or designee need not enter into a contract or employ those persons if it determines either of the following:

(1) No entities or persons are available or qualified to perform the services.

(2) The local agency or designee would be able to perform services in a more rapid fashion by modifying its own work schedule than would any available and qualified persons or entities.

A local agency may charge the subdivider fees in an amount necessary to defray costs directly attributable to employing or contracting with entities or persons performing services pursuant to this section.

(d) "Improvement plan" means the plan for public improvement as described in Sections 66418 and 66419.

SEC. 9. Section 66463 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66463. (a) Except as otherwise provided for in this code, the procedure for processing, approval, conditional approval, or disapproval and filing of parcel maps and modifications thereof shall be as provided by local ordinance. The provisions of Sections 66477.1, 66477.2, and 66477.3 relating to dedications and offers of dedication on final maps, shall apply to dedications and offers of dedications on parcel maps.

(b) Whenever a local agency provides, by ordinance, for the approval, conditional approval, or disapproval of parcel maps by the county engineer, surveyor, or other designated official, the local agency may also, by ordinance, provide that the officer may accept or reject dedications and offers of dedication that are made by a statement on the map.

(c) Whenever a local agency provides, by ordinance, for the approval of parcel maps by the legislative body, the parcel maps shall be filed pursuant to the procedure for final maps as prescribed by Sections 66457 and 66458.

(d) The time limits for action or approval of a tentative map and parcel map for which a tentative map is not required shall be no longer than the time limits contained in Sections 66452.1 and 66452.2.

SEC. 10. Section 66474.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66474.2. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b) or (c), in determining whether to approve or disapprove an application for a tentative map, the local agency shall apply only those ordinances, policies, and standards in effect at the date the local agency has determined that the application is complete pursuant to Section 65943 of the Government Code.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to a local agency which, before it has determined an application for a tentative map to be complete pursuant to Section 65943, has done both of the following:

(1) Initiated proceedings by way of ordinance, resolution, or motion.

(2) Published notice in the manner prescribed in subdivision (a) of Section 65090 containing a description sufficient to notify the public of the nature of the proposed change in the applicable general or specific plans, or zoning or subdivision ordinances.

A local agency which has complied with this subdivision may apply any ordinances, policies, or standards enacted or instituted as a result of those proceedings which are in effect on the date the local agency approves or disapproves the tentative map.

(c) If the subdivision applicant requests changes in applicable ordinances, policies or standards in connection with the same development project, any ordinances, policies or standards adopted pursuant to the applicant's request shall apply.

SEC. 11. Section 66474.10 is added to the Government Code, to read:

66474.10. If the legislative body or advisory agency determines that engineering or land surveying conditions are to be imposed on a tentative map or a parcel map for which a tentative map was not required, those conditions shall be reviewed by the city engineer, city surveyor, county engineer or county surveyor, as appropriate, to determine compliance with generally accepted engineering or surveying practices.

SEC. 12. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 65962 of the Government Code, relating to development.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65962 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65962. (a) As used in this section, "local agency" means a city, county, city and county, a school district, and special district.

(b) Any action adopting a fee or charge, or increasing a fee or charge adopted, upon a development project, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 66000, which applies to the filing, accepting, reviewing, approving, or issuing of an application, permit, or entitlement to use shall be enacted in accordance with the notice and public hearing procedures specified in Section 54986 or 54992 and shall be effective no sooner than 60 days following the final action on the adoption of the fee or charge or increase in the fee or charge.

(c) Without following the procedure otherwise required for the adoption of a fee or charge, or increasing a fee or charge, the legislative body of a local agency may adopt an urgency measure as an interim authorization for a fee or charge, or increase in a fee or charge, to protect the public health, welfare and safety. The interim authorization shall require four-fifths vote of the legislative body for adoption. The interim authorization shall have no force or effect 30 days after its adoption. The interim authority shall contain findings describing the current and immediate threat to the public health, welfare and safety. After notice and public hearing pursuant to Section 54986 or 54992, the legislative body may extend the interim authority for an additional 30 days. Not more than two extensions may be granted. Any extension shall also require a four-fifths vote.

(d) The amendments made to this section by the Statutes of 1989 shall not apply to any action to adopt or increase a fee or charge which is commenced on or before December 31, 1989.

CHAPTER 849

An act to add Section 2924j to the Civil Code, relating to mortgages and deeds of trust.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2924j is added to the Civil Code, to read:

2924j. (a) If, within 30 days of the execution of the trustee's deed, the trustee has notice that there are conflicting claims to the proceeds of a sale conducted pursuant to a power of sale in a deed of trust or mortgage, the trustee shall send written notice to all persons with recorded interests in the real property as of the date immediately prior to the trustee's sale and those entitled to notice pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 2924b. The notice shall be sent by first-class mail in the manner provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 2924b and inform each entitled person of each of the following:

(1) That there has been a trustee's sale of the described real property.

(2) That the noticed person may have a claim to all or a portion of the sale proceeds remaining after payment of the amounts required by paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (e).

(3) The noticed person may contact the trustee at the address provided in the notice to pursue any potential claim.

(4) Before the trustee can act, the noticed person shall submit a written claim to the trustee, executed under penalty of perjury, stating the following:

(A) The amount of the claim to the date of trustee's sale.

(B) An itemized statement of the principle, interest, and other charges.

(C) That claims must be received by the trustee at the address stated in the notice no later than 30 days after the date the trustee sends notice to the potential claimant.

(b) The trustee shall exercise due diligence to determine the priority of the written claims received by the trustee to the trustee's sale surplus proceeds from those persons to whom notice must be sent pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) If, after due diligence, the trustee is unable to determine the priority of the written claims received by the trustee to the trustee's sale surplus of multiple persons or if the trustee determines there is a conflict between potential claimants, the trustee may file a declaration of the unresolved claims and deposit with the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the sale occurred, that portion of the sales proceeds that cannot be distributed. The declaration shall specify the date of the trustee's sale, a description of the property, the names and addresses of all persons sent notice pursuant to subdivision (a), a statement that the trustee exercised due diligence pursuant to subdivision (b), that the trustee provided written notice as required by subdivisions (a) and (d) and the amount of the sales proceeds deposited by the trustee with the superior court. Further, the trustee shall submit a copy of the trustee's sales guarantee and any information relevant to the identity, location, and priority of the potential claimants with the superior court and shall file proof of service of the notice required by subdivision (d) on all persons described in subdivision (a).

A deposit with the superior court may be in lieu of those applications specified in subdivision (e) that cannot be distributed after due diligence. The clerk shall deposit the amount with the county treasurer subject to order of the superior court upon the application of any interested party. The clerk may charge a reasonable fee for the performance of activities pursuant to this subdivision equal to the fee for filing an interpleader action pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 26820) of Division 2 of Title 3 of the Government Code. Upon deposit of that portion of the sale proceeds that cannot be distributed by due diligence, the trustee shall be discharged of further responsibility for the disbursement of sale proceeds.

(d) Before the trustee deposits the funds with the clerk of the court pursuant to subdivision (c), the trustee shall send written notice by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to all persons described in subdivision (a) informing them that if they are not satisfied by a distribution of sale proceeds, they must file a claim for the funds with the superior court within 30 days from the date of the notice, providing the address of the superior court in which the funds were deposited, and a phone number for obtaining further information.

Within 90 days after deposit with the clerk, the court shall consider all claims filed at least 15 days before the date on which the hearing is scheduled by the court, the clerk shall serve written notice of the hearing by first-class mail on all claimants identified in the trustees' declaration at the addresses specified therein. The court shall distribute the deposited funds to any and all claimants entitled thereto.

(e) The trustee or the clerk of the superior court upon court order shall distribute the proceeds of the trustee's sale conducted pursuant to Section 2924h in the following order of priority:

(1) To the costs and expenses of exercising the power of sale and of sale, including the payment of the trustee's fees and attorney's fees permitted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 2924d and subdivision (f) of this section.

(2) To the payment of the obligations secured by the deed of trust or mortgage which is the subject of the trustee's sale.

(3) To satisfy the outstanding balance of obligations secured by any junior liens or encumbrances in the order of their priority.

(4) To the trustor or the trustor's successor in interest. In the event the property is sold or transferred to another, to the vested owner of record at the time of the trustee's sale.

(f) A trustee may charge costs and expenses incurred for such items as mailing and a reasonable fee for services rendered in connection with the distribution of the proceeds from a trustee's sale including, but not limited to, the investigation of priority and validity of claims and the disbursement of funds. If the fee charged for services rendered pursuant to this subdivision does not exceed one hundred dollars ($100), the fee is conclusively presumed to be reasonable.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 546 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and to amend Sections 12028.5 and 13519 of the Penal Code, relating to domestic violence.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 546 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

546. (a) The court may issue ex parte any of the orders set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 4359 of the Civil Code, or in the case of a nonmarital relationship between the plaintiff and the defendant any of the orders set forth in paragraphs (2), (3), and (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 4359 of the Civil Code and where there is a minor child of the plaintiff and the defendant an order determining the temporary custody of the child. In the case in which a temporary restraining order is granted without notice, the matter shall be made returnable on an order requiring cause to be shown why the order should not be dissolved, on the earliest day that the business of the court will permit, but not later than 20 days or, if good cause appears to the court, 25 days from the date the temporary restraining order is granted. The court may on motion of the plaintiff or on its own motion shorten the time for service on the defendant of the order to show cause.

The court may issue an ex parte order pursuant to this subdivision, excluding one party from a residence or dwelling only when the affidavit in support of an application for the order affirmatively shows facts sufficient for the court to ascertain that the plaintiff has a right under color of law to possession of the premises.

(b) The presiding judge of the superior court in each county shall designate not less than one judge, commissioner, or referee to be reasonably available to orally issue, by telephone or otherwise, emergency protective orders at all times when the superior court is not in session. A judge, commissioner, or referee so designated may issue an ex parte emergency protective order when a police or sheriff's officer or a peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 830.2 of the Penal Code, asserts reasonable grounds to believe that a person is in immediate and present danger of domestic violence by a family or household member, based upon the person's allegation of a recent incident of abuse or threat of abuse by that family or household member. The order may consist of any of the orders set forth in paragraphs (2), (3), and (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 4359 of the Civil Code, as well as an order determining the temporary care and control of any minor children of the endangered person and the person against whom the order is sought. The order shall be issued without prejudice to any party.

A judge, commissioner, or referee may issue an emergency protective order pursuant to this subdivision only upon a finding that reasonable grounds have been asserted to believe that an immediate and present danger of domestic violence exists and that an emergency protective order is necessary to prevent the occurrence or recurrence of domestic violence. The police or sheriff's officer or peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 830.2 of the Penal Code, requesting the order shall reduce it to writing, and shall sign the order. The order shall include all of the following:

(1) A statement of the grounds asserted for the order.

(2) The date and time the order expires.

(3) The address of the superior court for the district or county in which the endangered person resides.

(4) The following statement: "To the Protected Party: This order will last only until the date and time noted above. If you wish to seek continuing protection, you will have to apply for an order from the court, at the address noted above, when it opens. You may seek the advice of an attorney as to any matter connected with your application for any future court orders. The attorney should be consulted promptly so that he or she may assist you in making your application. To the Restrained Party: This order will last until the date noted above. The protected party may, however, obtain a more permanent restraining order when the court opens. You may seek the advice of an attorney as to any matter connected with the application. The attorney should be consulted promptly so that he or she may assist you in responding to the application."

The Judicial Council shall prescribe the form of the order and any other documents required by this subdivision. The statement required in paragraph (4) shall be printed in English and Spanish.

The officer who requested the emergency protective order, while on duty, shall carry copies of the order.

The emergency protective order shall be served upon the restrained party by the officer, if the restrained party can reasonably be located, and a copy shall be given to the protected party. A copy also shall be filed with the court as soon as practicable after issuance.

An emergency protective order shall expire not later than the close of judicial business on the next day of judicial business following the day of its issue.

The availability of an emergency protective order shall not be affected by the fact that the endangered person has vacated the household to avoid abuse.

A police or sheriff's officer or peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 830.2 of the Penal Code, shall use every reasonable means to enforce an emergency protective order issued pursuant to this subdivision. A police or sheriff's officer or peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 830.2 of the Penal Code, acting pursuant to this subdivision shall not be held civilly or criminally liable if he or she has acted in good faith with regard thereto.

SEC. 1.5. Section 546 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

546. (a) The court may issue ex parte any of the orders set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 4359 of the Civil Code, or in the case of a nonmarital relationship between the plaintiff and the defendant any of the orders set forth in paragraphs (2), (3), and (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 4359 of the Civil Code and where there is a minor child of the plaintiff and the defendant an order determining the temporary custody of the child. In the case in which a temporary restraining order is granted without notice, the matter shall be made returnable on an order requiring cause to be shown why the order should not be dissolved, on the earliest day that the business of the court will permit, but not later than 20 days or, if good cause appears to the court, 25 days from the date the temporary restraining order is granted. The court may on motion of the plaintiff or on its own motion shorten the time for service on the defendant of the order to show cause.

The court may issue an ex parte order pursuant to this subdivision, excluding one party from a residence or dwelling only when the affidavit in support of an application for the order affirmatively shows facts sufficient for the court to ascertain that the plaintiff has a right under color of law to possession of the premises.

(b) The presiding judge of the superior court in each county shall designate not less than one judge, commissioner, or referee to be reasonably available to orally issue, by telephone or otherwise, emergency protective orders at all times when the superior court is not in session. A judge, commissioner, or referee so designated may issue an ex parte emergency protective order when a police or sheriff's officer or a peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 830.2 of the Penal Code, asserts reasonable grounds to believe that a person is in immediate and present danger of domestic violence by a family or household member, based upon the person's allegation of a recent incident of abuse or threat of abuse by that family or household member. The order may consist of any of the orders set forth in paragraphs (2), (3), and (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 4359 of the Civil Code, as well as an order determining the temporary care and control of any minor children of the endangered person and the person against whom the order is sought. The order shall be issued without prejudice to any party.

A judge, commissioner, or referee may issue an emergency protective order pursuant to this subdivision only upon a finding that reasonable grounds have been asserted to believe that an immediate and present danger of domestic violence exists and that an emergency protective order is necessary to prevent the occurrence or recurrence of domestic violence. The police or sheriff's officer or peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 830.2 of the Penal Code, requesting the order shall reduce it to writing, and shall sign the order. The order shall include all of the following:

(1) A statement of the grounds asserted for the order.

(2) The date and time the order expires.

(3) The address of the superior court for the district or county in which the endangered person resides.

(4) The following statement: "To the Protected Party: This order will last only until the date and time noted above. If you wish to seek continuing protection, you will have to apply for an order from the court, at the address noted above, when it opens. You may seek the advice of an attorney as to any matter connected with your application for any future court orders. The attorney should be consulted promptly so that he or she may assist you in making your application. To the Restrained Party: This order will last until the date noted above. The protected party may, however, obtain a more permanent restraining order when the court opens. You may seek the advice of an attorney as to any matter connected with the application. The attorney should be consulted promptly so that he or she may assist you in responding to the application."

The Judicial Council shall prescribe the form of the order and any other documents required by this subdivision. The statement required in paragraph (4) shall be printed in English and Spanish.

The officer who requested the emergency protective order, while on duty, shall carry copies of the order.

The emergency protective order shall be served upon the restrained party by the officer, if the restrained party can reasonably be located, and a copy shall be given to the protected party. A copy also shall be filed with the court as soon as practicable after issuance.

An emergency protective order shall expire not later than the close of judicial business on the second day of judicial business following the day of its issue.

The availability of an emergency protective order shall not be affected by the fact that the endangered person has vacated the household to avoid abuse.

A police or sheriff's officer or peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 830.2 of the Penal Code, shall use every reasonable means to enforce an emergency protective order issued pursuant to this subdivision. A police or sheriff's officer or peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 830.2 of the Penal Code, acting pursuant to this subdivision shall not be held civilly or criminally liable if he or she has acted in good faith with regard thereto.

(c) A judge, commissioner, or referee designated pursuant to subdivision (b) may issue an ex parte emergency protective order when a police or sheriff's officer asserts reasonable grounds to believe that a child is in immediate and present danger of abuse by a family or household member, based upon an allegation of a recent incident of abuse or threat of abuse by that family or household member. The order may consist of any of the orders authorized in Section 213.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and may include provisions placing the temporary care and control of the endangered child and any other minor children in the family or household with the parent or legal guardian of the endangered child who is not a restrained party. The order shall expire not later than the close of judicial business on the second day of judicial business following the day of its issue. The order shall be issued without prejudice to any party.

A judge, commissioner, or referee may issue an emergency protective order pursuant to this subdivision only upon a finding that reasonable grounds have been asserted to believe that a child is in immediate and present danger of abuse and that an emergency protective order is necessary to prevent the occurrence or recurrence of abuse. The police or sheriff's officer requesting the order shall reduce it to writing, and shall sign the order. The order shall include all of the following:

(1) A statement of the grounds asserted for the order.

(2) The date and time the order expires.

(3) The address of the superior court for the district or county in which the endangered child resides.

(4) The following statement: "This order will last only until the date and time noted above. A more permanent restraining order under Section 213.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code may be applied for from the court, at the address noted above, when it opens. The advice of an attorney may be sought in connection with the application for a more permanent restraining order."

The parent or legal guardian of the endangered child who is not a restrained party, or any person having temporary custody of the endangered child, may apply for a more permanent restraining order under Section 213.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code when the court opens.

The Judicial Council shall prescribe the form of the order and any other documents required by this subdivision. The statement required in paragraph (4) shall be printed in English and Spanish.

The officer who requested the emergency protective order, while on duty, shall carry copies of the order.

The emergency protective order shall be served upon the restrained party by the officer, if the restrained party can reasonably be located, and a copy shall be given to any parent or legal guardian of the endangered child who is not a restrained party, if he or she can be reasonably located, or to any person having temporary custody of the endangered child. A copy also shall be filed with the court as soon as practicable after issuance.

The availability of an emergency protective order shall not be affected by the endangered child's leaving the household to avoid abuse.

A police or sheriff's officer shall use every reasonable means to enforce an emergency protective order issued pursuant to this subdivision. A police or sheriff's officer acting pursuant to this subdivision shall not be held civilly or criminally liable if he or she has acted in good faith with regard thereto.

SEC. 2. Section 12028.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12028.5. (a) As used in this section, the following words have the following meanings:

(1) "Abuse" means intentionally or recklessly causing or attempting to cause bodily injury, or placing another person in reasonable apprehension of imminent serious bodily injury to himself, herself, or another.

(2) "Domestic violence" is abuse perpetrated against a family or household member.

(3) "Family or household member" means a spouse, former spouse, parent, child, any other person related by consanguinity or affinity within the second degree, or any other person who regularly resides in the household, or who, within the last six months, regularly resided in the household.

(b) A sheriff, undersheriff, deputy sheriff, marshal, deputy marshal, or police officer of a city, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 830.1, a member of the University of California Police Department, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 830.2, a member of a California State University Police Department, as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 830.2, and a peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 830.2, who is at the scene of a domestic violence incident involving a threat to human life or a physical assault, may take temporary custody of any firearm in plain sight or discovered pursuant to a consensual search as necessary for the protection of the peace officer or other persons present. Upon taking custody of a firearm, the officer shall give the owner or person who possessed the firearm a receipt. The receipt shall describe the firearm and list any identification or serial number on the firearm. The receipt shall indicate where the firearm can be recovered and the date after which the owner or possessor can recover the firearm. No firearm shall be held less than 48 hours. If a firearm is not retained for use as evidence related to criminal charges brought as a result of the domestic violence incident or is not retained because it was illegally possessed, the firearm shall be made available to the owner or person who was in lawful possession 48 hours after the seizure or as soon thereafter as possible, but no later than 72 hours after the seizure. In any civil action or proceeding for the return of firearms or ammunition seized by any state or local law enforcement agency and not returned within 72 hours, the court shall allow reasonable attorney's fees, not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), to the prevailing party.

(c) Any firearm which has been taken into custody which has been stolen shall be restored to the lawful owner, as soon as its use for evidence has been served, upon his or her identification of the firearm and proof of ownership.

(d) Any firearm taken into custody and held by a police, university police, or sheriff's department or by a marshal's office, or by a peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 830.2, for longer than 12 months and not recovered by the owner or person who has lawful possession at the time it was taken into custody, shall be considered a nuisance and sold or destroyed as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 12028.

SEC. 2.5. Section 12028.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12028.5. (a) As used in this section, the following words have the following meanings:

(1) "Abuse" means intentionally or recklessly causing or attempting to cause bodily injury, or placing another person in reasonable apprehension of imminent serious bodily injury to himself, herself, or another.

(2) "Domestic violence" is abuse perpetrated against a family or household member.

(3) "Family or household member" means a spouse, former spouse, parent, child, any other person related by consanguinity or affinity within the second degree, or any other person who regularly resides in the household, or who, within the last six months, regularly resided in the household.

(b) A sheriff, undersheriff, deputy sheriff, marshal, deputy marshal, or police officer of a city, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 830.1, a member of the University of California Police Department, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 830.2, a member of a California State University Police Department, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 830.2, and a peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 830.2, who is at the scene of a domestic violence incident involving a threat to human life or a physical assault, may take temporary custody of any firearm in plain sight or discovered pursuant to a consensual search as necessary for the protection of the peace officer or other persons present. Upon taking custody of a firearm, the officer shall give the owner or person who possessed the firearm a receipt. The receipt shall describe the firearm and list any identification or serial number on the firearm. The receipt shall indicate where the firearm can be recovered and the date after which the owner or possessor can recover the firearm. No firearm shall be held less than 48 hours. If a firearm is not retained for use as evidence related to criminal charges brought as a result of the domestic violence incident or is not retained because it was illegally possessed, the firearm shall be made available to the owner or person who was in lawful possession 48 hours after the seizure or as soon thereafter as possible, but no later than 72 hours after the seizure In any civil action or proceeding for the return of firearms or ammunition seized by any state or local law enforcement agency and not returned within 72 hours, the court shall allow reasonable attorney's fees, not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), to the prevailing party.

(c) Any firearm which has been taken into custody which has been stolen shall be restored to the lawful owner, as soon as its use for evidence has been served, upon his or her identification of the firearm and proof of ownership.

(d) Any firearm taken into custody and held by a police, university police, or sheriff's department or by a marshal's office, or by a peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 830.2, for longer than 12 months and not recovered by the owner or person who has lawful possession at the time it was taken into custody, shall be considered a nuisance and sold or destroyed as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 12028.

SEC. 3. Section 13519 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13519. (a) The commission shall implement by January 1, 1986, a course or courses of instruction for the training of law enforcement officers in California in the handling of domestic violence complaints and also shall develop guidelines for law enforcement response to domestic violence. The course or courses of instruction and the guidelines shall stress enforcement of criminal laws in domestic violence situations, availability of civil remedies and community resources, and protection of the victim. Where appropriate, the training presenters shall include domestic violence experts with expertise in the delivery of direct services to victims of domestic violence, including utilizing the staff of shelters for battered women in the presentation of training.

As used in this section, "law enforcement officer" means any officer or employee of a local police department or sheriff's office or any peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 830.2.

(b) The course of basic training for law enforcement officers shall, no later than January 1, 1986, include adequate instruction in the procedures and techniques described below:

(1) The provisions set forth in Title 5 (commencing with Section 13700) relating to response, enforcement of court orders, and data collection.

(2) The legal duties imposed on police officers to make arrests and offer protection and assistance including guidelines for making felony and misdemeanor arrests.

(3) Techniques for handling incidents of domestic violence that minimize the likelihood of injury to the officer and that promote the safety of the victim.

(4) The nature and extent of domestic violence.

(5) The legal rights of, and remedies available to, victims of domestic violence

(6) The use of an arrest by a private person in a domestic violence situation.

(7) Documentation, report writing, and evidence collection.

(8) Domestic violence diversion as provided in Chapter 2.6 (commencing with Section 1000.6) of Title 6 of Part 2.

(9) Tenancy issues and domestic violence.

(10) The impact on children of law enforcement intervention in domestic violence.

(11) The services and facilities available to victims and batterers.

(12) The use and applications of this code in domestic violence situations.

(13) Verification and enforcement of temporary restraining orders when (A) the suspect is present and (B) the suspect has fled.

(14) Verification and enforcement of stay-away orders.

(15) Cite and release policies.

(16) Emergency assistance to victims and how to assist victims in pursuing criminal justice options.

The guidelines developed by the commission shall also incorporate the foregoing factors.

(c) All law enforcement officers who have received their basic training before January 1, 1986, shall participate in supplementary training on domestic violence subjects, as prescribed and certified by the commission. This training shall be completed no later than January 1, 1989; except for peace officers of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 830.2, whose training shall be completed no later than January 1, 1992.

Local law enforcement agencies are encouraged to include, as part of their advanced officer training program, periodic updates and training on domestic violence. The commission shall assist where possible.

(d) The course of instruction, the learning and performance objectives, the standards for the training, and the guidelines shall be developed by the commission in consultation with appropriate groups and individuals having an interest and expertise in the field of domestic violence. The groups and individuals shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following: one representative each from the California Peace Officers' Association, the Peace Officers' Research Association of California, the State Bar of California, the California Women Lawyers' Association, and the State Commission on the Status of Women; two representatives from the commission; two representatives from the California Alliance Against Domestic Violence; two peace officers, recommended by the commission, who are experienced in the provision of domestic violence training; and two domestic violence experts, recommended by the California Alliance Against Domestic Violence, who are experienced in the provision of direct services to victims of domestic violence. At least one of the persons selected shall be a former victim of domestic violence.

The commission, in consultation with these groups and individuals, shall review existing training programs to determine in what ways domestic violence training might be included as a part of ongoing programs.

(e) Forty thousand dollars ($40,000) is appropriated from the Peace Officers Training Fund in augmentation of Item 8120-001-268 of the Budget Act of 1984, to support the travel, per diem, and associated costs for convening the necessary experts.

SEC. 3. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 546 of the Code of Civil Procedure proposed by both this bill and SB 221. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1990, (2) each bill amends Section 546 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 221, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12028.5 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and SB 353. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1990, (2) each bill amends Section 12028.5 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 353, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 851

An act to add Sections 2441 and 2499.8 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to physicians and surgeons.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2441 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2441. Any licensee who demonstrates to the satisfaction of the board that he or she is unable to practice medicine due to a disability may request a waiver of the license renewal fee. The granting of a waiver shall be at the discretion of the board and may be terminated at any time. Waivers shall be based on the inability of a licensee to practice medicine. A licensee whose renewal fee has been waived pursuant to this section shall not engage in the practice of medicine unless and until the licensee pays the current renewal fee.

SEC. 2. Section 2499.8 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2499.8. Any licensee who demonstrates to the satisfaction of the board that he or she is unable to practice podiatry due to a disability may request a waiver of the license renewal fee. The granting of a waiver shall be at the discretion of the board and may be terminated at any time. Waivers shall be based on the inability of a licensee to practice podiatry. A licensee whose renewal fee has been waived pursuant to this section shall not engage in the practice of podiatry unless and until the licensee pays the current renewal fee.

CHAPTER 852

An act to amend Sections 987.603, 987.61, and 987.65 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to veterans' farm and home purchases.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 987.603 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.603. The department may acquire an assignment of an Indian veteran's beneficial interest in trust land held by the United States for that veteran or a leasehold interest in trust land acquired by the Indian veteran from an Indian beneficiary and contract with an Indian veteran as provided in Sections 987.601 and 987.602 upon the terms agreed if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The department is satisfied of the desirability of the property submitted.

(b) The Indian veteran has agreed with the department that the veteran, or members of the veteran's immediate family, will actually reside on the property within 60 days from the date of acquisition by the department, or if the residence on the property is not complete on the date of acquisition, within 60 days after the residence is completed.

(c) The sum to be expended by the department pursuant to a contract for the acquisition of a home or the construction of a dwelling house and other improvements does not exceed one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000).

(d) The Indian veteran has paid a reasonable fee set by the department to cover the cost of preliminary service of the department that may be necessary to process the application.

(e) The Indian veteran has filed with the department adequate plans and specifications for the improvements to be constructed upon the real property, together with a contract executed by a contractor licensed by the State of California or by an Indian contractor approved by the department for the construction of the improvements, in accordance with the plans and specifications, within eight months after the assignment of the Indian veteran's beneficial interest or acquisition of the Indian veteran's leasehold interest in the real property by the department, and a bond executed by the contractor providing for compliance with the terms of the contract and for the payment of persons furnishing material or labor on the job, executed by a surety company, authorized to do business in the State of California.

(f) The plans, specifications, contract, and bond are approved by the department.

(g) The Indian veteran has placed in escrow all sums of money to be advanced by the veteran where the cost is in excess of the maximum that may be expended by the department.

SEC. 2. Section 987.61 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.61. The department may purchase property, subject to a participation contract providing for a loan term of not less than 23 years. The purchase price plus the participation contract shall not exceed the lower of the following:

(a) One hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000).

(b) Ninety-five percent of the market value of the property, as determined by department appraisal.

SEC. 3. Section 987.65 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

987.65. (a) The purchase price of a home to the department, or the sum to be expended by the department pursuant to a contract for the construction of a dwelling house and other improvements, shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars

(b) The purchase price of a mobilehome sited on a lot owned by the purchaser and installed on a foundation system pursuant to Section 18551 of the Health and Safety Code shall not exceed ninety thousand dollars ($90,000).

(c) The purchase price of a mobilehome which is to be sited in a mobilehome park, as defined in Section 18214 of the Health and Safety Code, shall not exceed seventy thousand dollars ($70,000).

(d) A veteran purchasing the home may advance, subject to Section 987.64, the difference between the total price or cost of the home and the sum of the purchase price of the home to the department and any amount the department is required, under Section 987.69, to add to the purchase price of the home in fixing the selling price to the veteran. Any amount of the purchase price to the department may be provided by funds from participation contracts or revenue bonds.

(e) The purchase price of a farm to the department shall not exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000). A veteran purchasing the farm may advance the difference between the total price of the farm, or the cost of the dwelling and improvements to be constructed on a farm under a contract, and the sum of the purchase price to the department or contract price to the department and any amount which the department is required, under Section 987.69, to add to the purchase or contract price to the department in fixing the selling price of the farm to the veteran.

CHAPTER 853

An act to amend Section 46001 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 46601 of the Education Code is amended to read:

46601. If, within 30 calendar days after the person having legal custody of a pupil has so requested, the governing board of either school district fails to approve interdistrict attendance in the current term, or, in the absence of an agreement between the districts, fails or refuses to enter into an agreement, the district denying the permit, or, in the absence of an agreement, the district of residence, shall advise the person requesting the permit of the right to appeal to the county board of education.

If, within 14 calendar days after the commencement of instruction in a new term in each of the school districts, respectively, when the person having legal custody of a pupil has so requested separately of each district not later than 30 calendar days prior to the commencement of instruction in that term in that district, the governing board of either district fails to approve interdistrict attendance in that term, or, in the absence of an agreement between the districts to permit that attendance, fails or refuses to enter an agreement, the district denying the permit, or, in the absence of an agreement, the district of residence, shall advise the person requesting the permit of the right to appeal to the county board of education.

Notifying districts shall also, in all instances, advise persons making unsuccessful requests for interdistrict attendance of all of the following:

(a) The person having legal custody may appeal, within 30 calendar days of the failure or refusal to issue a permit, or to enter into an agreement allowing the attendance, to the county board of education having jurisdiction over the district of residence of the parent or legal guardian or person having legal custody. Failure to appeal within the required time is good cause for denial of an appeal. An appeal shall be accepted only upon verification by the county board's designee that appeals within the districts have been exhausted. If new evidence or grounds for the request are introduced, the county board may remand the matter for further consideration by the district or districts. In all other cases, the appeal shall be granted or denied on its merits.

(b) The county board of education shall, within 30 calendar days after the appeal is filed, determine whether the pupil should be permitted to attend in the district in which he desires to attend and the applicable period of time. In the event that compliance by the county board within the time requirement for determining whether the pupil should be permitted to attend in the district in which he or she desires to attend is impractical, the county board or the county superintendent of schools, for good cause, may extend the time period for up to an additional five school days. The county shall provide adequate notice to all parties of the date and time of any hearing scheduled and of the opportunity to submit written statements and documentation and to be heard on the matter pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the county board of education. The county board rules may provide for the granting of continuances upon a showing of good cause.

(c) The county supervisor of attendance, or other designee of the county superintendent of schools, shall investigate to determine whether local remedies in the matter have been exhausted and to provide any additional information deemed useful to the county board in reaching a decision.

(d) If the interdistrict attendance involves school districts located in different counties, the county board of education having jurisdiction over the district denying a permit, or refusing or failing to enter into an agreement to allow for the issuance of a permit, shall have jurisdiction for purposes of an appeal. If both districts deny a permit, or refuse or fail to enter into an agreement to allow for the issuance of a permit, the county board having jurisdiction over the district of residence shall have jurisdiction for purposes of an appeal and, upon granting a pupil's appeal, shall seek concurrence in the decision by the county board of the other county which shall provide adequate opportunity for the district under its jurisdiction to be heard on the matter before making a decision. If the two county boards do not then concur, the pupil's appeal shall be denied.

(e) Students who are under consideration for expulsion or who have been expelled pursuant to Sections 48915 and 48918, may not appeal interdistrict attendance denials or recisions while expulsion proceedings are pending, or during the term of the expulsion.

An act to amend Sections 74691, 74827, 74837, 74922, 74926, 74954, 74956, and 74991 of, to add Sections 74651.5, 74824.1, 74828.1, 74835.5, 74861.1, 74861.2, 74871.1, 74922.1, 74923.1, 74926.1, 74927.1, 74928.1, 74951.1, and 74952.7 to, to repeal Section 74952 of, and to repeal and add Sections 74927 and 74952.5 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 74651.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

74651.5. Prior to the beginning of each marketing season, the commission may establish a voluntary minimum assessment rate applicable to vintners who process winegrapes in the marketing season in a quantity of 100 tons or less and who are exempt from paying the assessment established pursuant to Section 74651. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, any vintner who voluntarily pays the minimum assessment shall be granted the same rights and privileges as vintners processing over 100 tons in that marketing season.

SEC. 1.2. Section 74691 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

74691. (a) On or before June 30, 1990, the commission shall cause a referendum to be conducted among vintners in the manner specified in Section 74622 to determine whether this chapter shall be reapproved and continued in effect. In determining whether this chapter is reapproved, the director shall find that at least 40 percent of the total number of vintners from the list established by the director participated in the referendum, and that either one of the following has occurred:

(1) Sixty-five percent or more of the vintners who voted in the referendum voted in favor of this chapter, and the vintners so voting processed a majority of the volume of winegrapes in the preceding marketing season by all the vintners who voted in the referendum.

(2) A majority of the vintners who voted in the referendum voted in favor of this chapter, and the vintners so voting processed 65 percent or more of the volume of the winegrapes in the preceding marketing season by all the vintners who voted in the referendum.

(b) If the director finds that a favorable vote has been given to continue the commission, he or she shall so certify and this chapter or the appropriate portions thereof shall remain in effect. If the director finds that a favorable vote has not been given, he or she shall so certify and declare the operations of this chapter suspended upon expiration of the marketing season. No bond or security shall be required for any such referendum.

SEC. 1.5. Section 74824.1 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

74824.1. "Local commission" means any local commission created pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 74827 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

74827. "Producer" and "grower" are synonymous and mean any person who produced winegrapes in a marketing season in a quantity of more than 25 tons. Unless otherwise exempted, producer also includes any person who receives winegrapes as payment for the use of his or her property in the production of winegrapes.

SEC. 3. Section 74828.1 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

74828.1. "Producer region," for the purpose of establishing and operating a local commission, shall consist of one or more grape crush report districts.

SEC. 3.5. Section 74835.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

74835.5. "Processing" means any processing of winegrapes for the purpose of making must, grape juice, grape concentrate, wine, winegrape products, or products thereof, including high proof brandy.

SEC. 4. Section 74837 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

74837. "Vintner" means a winegrower, as defined in Section 23013 of the Business and Professions Code, who holds a winegrower's license issued by the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23300) of Division 9 of the Business and Professions Code, and who is engaged in producing must, grape juice, grape concentrate, wine, or products thereof, including high proof and brandy by processing winegrapes or field crushed must. A vintner who processes winegrapes in the preceding marketing season in a quantity of 100 tons or less is not subject to the assessment collection and reporting requirements of this chapter.

SEC. 4.5. Section 74861.1 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

74861.1. There are, in state government, local commissions for producer regions. The producers in any producer region of this state may, pursuant to this chapter, establish a local commission composed of not less than five and not more than 10 producers and may include one public member. The provisions of this chapter that are applicable to the commission, except Sections 74828, 74861, 74862, 74867, 74871, 74922, 74923, 74926, 74927, 74928, and 74951, shall apply to any local commission established and certified as operative pursuant to this chapter regardless of the certification of the commission.

(a) A producer member who produces more than 25 tons of winegrapes in a producer region shall be eligible to serve on the local commission in that producer region.

(b) A public member may be appointed to the local commission by the director from nominees recommended by the local commission.

(c) The director, and other appropriate individuals as determined by the local commission, shall be ex officio members of the local commission.

(d) There may be an alternate member for each member of the local commission.

The name of a local commission shall contain the words "local commission" and shall identify the producer region represented by the local commission. No local commission shall use the term "California Winegrape Growers Commission" as part of its name.

SEC. 5. Section 74861.2 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

74861.2. (a) The provisions of this chapter relating to local commissions shall be inapplicable to any producer who is a member of a nonprofit agricultural cooperative association engaged in processing winegrapes except as follows:

(1) The cooperative association, prior to formation of the local commission, petitions the director to be subject to the provisions of this chapter, including, but not limited to, the right to vote in the implementation referendum.

(2) The cooperative association petitions the local commission subsequent to its formation to be subject to this chapter.

(b) The provisions of this chapter relating to local commissions shall be applicable to any producer who is a member of a nonprofit agricultural cooperative association engaged in marketing winegrapes.

SEC. 6. Section 74871.1 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

74871.1. Not less than one-half of the producer members of any local commission, including alternate members when acting in the place of the members, shall constitute a quorum of the local commission.

SEC. 7. Section 74922 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

74922. (a) Upon receipt of a petition that the director determines is acceptable, the director shall establish a list of producers who are eligible to vote to establish the commission. In establishing the lists, the director may require producers, vintners, county agricultural commissioners, and others to submit the names and mailing addresses of all producers. The director also may require that the information provided include the quantity of winegrapes sold to vintners and the quantity of winegrapes processed by vintners or, in the alternative, may establish procedures for receiving the information at the time of the referendum. The request for this information shall be in writing. The information required by the director shall be filed within 30 days following receipt of the written notice.

(b) Any producer whose name does not appear on the director's lists may have his or her name included on the appropriate list by filing with the director a signed statement identifying himself or herself as a producer. Failure to be on the appropriate list does not exempt any producer from paying assessments under this chapter.

SEC. 8. Section 74922.1 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

74922.1. (a) Upon petition of at least three producers from any one producer region of this state, the director shall establish a list of producers who are eligible to vote in a referendum to establish a local commission in that producer region. In establishing the lists, the director may require the producers signing the petition and producers, vintners, county agricultural commissioners, and others to submit the names and mailing addresses of all producers in that producer region. The director also may require that the information provided include the quantity of winegrapes sold to vintners and the quantity of winegrapes processed by vintners from that producer region and the names and addresses of the vintners, or, in the alternative, may establish procedures for receiving the information at the time of the referendum. The request for this information shall be in writing. The information required by the directors shall be filed within 30 days following receipt of the written notice.

(b) Any producer whose name does not appear on the director's lists may have his or her name included on the appropriate list by filing with the director a signed statement identifying himself or herself as a producer of a given producer region. Failure to be on the appropriate list does not exempt any producer from paying assessments under this chapter.

SEC. 9. Section 74923.1 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

74923.1. In determining whether this chapter is applicable to growers in a producer region, it is necessary that the director find that at least 40 percent of the total number of growers from the list established by the director for the producer region participated in the referendum, and that either one of the following has occurred:

(a) Sixty-five percent or more of the growers in the producer region who voted in the referendum voted in favor of the local commission, and the growers so voting marketed a majority of the volume of winegrapes in the producer region in the preceding marketing season, or in the current marketing season if the harvest is completed prior to the vote, by all the producers who voted in the referendum.

(b) A majority of the growers in the producer region who voted in the referendum voted in favor of the local commission, and the growers so voting marketed 65 percent or more of the volume of winegrapes in the producer region in the preceding marketing season, or in the current marketing season if the harvest is completed prior to the vote, by all the producers who voted in the referendum.

SEC. 10. Section 74926 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

74926. If the director finds that a favorable vote has not been given to the establishment of the commission as provided in this chapter, he or she shall certify and declare that result. If the director finds that a favorable vote has been given as provided in this chapter, he or she shall certify and give notice of the favorable vote to all producers and vintners whose names and addresses may be on file with the director.

SEC. 11. Section 74926.1 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

74926.1. If the director finds that a favorable vote has not been given to the establishment of any local commission as provided in this chapter, he or she shall certify and declare that result. If the director finds that a favorable vote has been given, he or she shall certify and give notice of the favorable vote to all producers whose names and addresses may be on file with the director. If this chapter is certified as establishing the commission, any local commission shall be abolished unless its producers vote by referendum pursuant to Section 74923.1 in favor of that local commission remaining in operation.

SEC. 12. Section 74927 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 74927 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

74927. The petition to establish the commission shall name the persons designated to serve as producer members and their alternate members in the event the commission is approved by referendum. Upon the certification of the establishment of the commission, the producer members and their alternates named in the petition shall become the initial members and alternate members of the commission.

SEC. 14. Section 74927.1 is added to the Food and Agricultural

Code, to read:

74927.1. The petition to establish a local commission shall name the persons designated to serve as producer members and their alternate members, if any, in the event that local commission is approved by referendum. Upon certification of the establishment of a local commission, the producer members and their alternates named in the petition shall become the initial members and alternate members of the local commission.

SEC. 15. Section 74928.1 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

74928.1. Subsequent to the action taken pursuant to Section 74927.1, persons to be elected to a local commission shall be selected pursuant to the nomination and election procedures established by the local commission with the concurrence of the director.

SEC. 17. Section 74951.1 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

74951.1. (a) The petition for a referendum to establish a local commission shall set forth the assessment rate which shall become effective during the first marketing season in which the local commission is operative. Thereafter, prior to the beginning of each marketing season or as soon thereafter as possible, the local commission shall establish an assessment rate for the marketing season. Assessment rates set by local commissions which vote to continue in operation after the certification of the commission shall be independent of, and additional to, any assessment rate established by the commission.

(b) The assessment rate for producers shall not exceed 1 percent of the gross dollar value of winegrapes grown in the producer region and marketed by producers to vintners. If a producer sells winegrapes for a specified sum in a bona fide sale, the gross dollar amount of this sum is the gross dollar value of the winegrapes.

SEC. 18. Section 74952 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 20. Section 74952.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 21 Section 74952.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

74952.5. (a) Unless exempted by this chapter, the commission shall levy the assessment on the producer if he or she does any of the following:

(1) Sells to a vintner or to a handler for processing.

(2) Contracts or otherwise arranges with a vintner for processing into wine, with the producer retaining ownership of the wine for sale other than in bottled form.

(3) Is a member of an agricultural nonprofit cooperative association for processing which is subject to this chapter pursuant to Section 74861.2.

(b) If a producer delivers winegrapes to a vintner or handler for processing without selling them to the vintner or handler, the "weighted average producer returns per ton" by district as published in the most recent Final Grape Crush Report issued annually for the current marketing season by the department shall be used as the basis for determining the gross dollar value of the winegrapes for the purpose of determining the amount of the assessment.

SEC. 22. Section 74952.7 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

74952.7. (a) Any producer who meets any of the following requirements specified by subdivision (b) may apply to the director prior to the formation of the commission, or apply to the commission after its formation, for, and, if found eligible, shall receive either an exemption from, or a refund of, the assessment.

(b) A producer shall be eligible to claim an exemption from, or refund of, the assessment for winegrapes grown by the producer, with regard to which the producer does any of the following:

(1) Processes winegrapes which are grown by the producer. However, the producer shall not be eligible for an exemption or refund of assessments on winegrapes which are grown and sold; except that a producer who is also a vintner, and who commercially sells less than 25 tons of winegrapes in a marketing season, is not subject to assessment.

(2) Sells to a related vintner or a related handler.

(3) Contracts or otherwise arranges with a related vintner for processing into wine, with the producer retaining ownership of the wine for sale other than in bottled form.

(4) Is a producer who is also a vintner and who contracts or otherwise arranges with a nonrelated vintner for processing his or her winegrapes into wine and retains ownership of the wine for sale other than in bottled form.

(b) For the purpose of this section, an agricultural nonprofit cooperative association shall not be considered a "related vintner" or a "related handler." A vintner or handler shall be considered a "related vintner" or "related handler" if any one of the following relationships exists:

(1) The producer has an ownership interest in the vintner or handler processing the winegrapes.

(2) The vintner or handler processing the winegrapes has an ownership interest in the producer.

(3) The producer, or any person controlling the producer if the producer is not a natural person, is a member of the immediate family of the vintner or handler processing the winegrapes, or of any person controlling the vintner or handler if the vintner or handler is not a natural person. For the purpose of this paragraph, "member of the immediate family" means parents, spouses, and children.

(c) In order to be eligible for the exemption or refund, the producer shall file a claim with the director prior to formation of the commission and with the commission after its formation on a form prescribed by the commission attesting to the facts establishing the producer's right to the exemption or refund. The director or the commission shall then determine whether the claim should be granted.

(d) The commission shall serve written notice on the claimant of its decision within 30 days of receipt of the claim. All approved claims shall be subject to verification through an independent audit of the claimant and the related vintner's or handler's business records by the commission or its duly authorized agent or, in the case of a local commission, by the director or his or her duly authorized agent. The local commission shall not serve as the director's duly authorized agent for purposes of auditing business records.

(e) Every producer receiving an exemption or refund shall, in addition to the requirements of Section 74954, maintain sales invoices, and all other business documents specified by the commission as necessary to verify the claim. The records shall be preserved for a period of two years and shall be offered and submitted for inspection at any reasonable time upon written demand of the commission or its duly authorized agent or, in the case of a local commission, by the director or his or her duly authorized agent. The local commission shall not serve as the director's duly authorized agent for purposes of records inspection.

(f) No claim of exemption or refund shall be approved by the commission after two years from the date the assessment was due. Failure to file a claim of exemption or refund within that two-year period constitutes a waiver of all claims or demands for an exemption or refund against the commission.

SEC. 24. Section 74954 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

74954. Every producer subject to this chapter and every vintner who processes winegrapes for producers shall maintain normal commercial records of all winegrapes grown for market or processed. The records shall be in simple form and contain information as the commission shall prescribe. The records shall be preserved for a period of two years and shall be offered and submitted for inspection at any reasonable time upon written demand of the commission or its duly authorized agent or, in the case of a local commission, by the director or his or her duly authorized agent. The local commission shall not serve as the director's duly authorized agent for purposes of records inspection.

SEC. 24.5. Section 74956 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

74956. Any assessment levied by the commission, pursuant to this chapter, is a personal debt of every person so assessed and is due and payable to the commission within 30 days after the date the vintner deducts the assessment from the amounts paid by the vintner to the producer. The vintner first acquiring the grapes being assessed shall deduct the assessments from amounts paid by the vintner to the producer and shall be a trustee of the funds until they are paid to the commission. The vintner responsible for deducting the assessment may deduct and retain an amount not in excess of that reasonably necessary to cover the actual cost of services provided by the vintner. Failure of a vintner to collect the assessment from a producer shall not exempt the vintner from liability nor relieve the producer of the obligation to pay the assessment.

SEC. 25. Section 74991 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

74991. During the fifth year of operation of the commission, the commission shall cause a referendum to be conducted among producers to determine whether the commission shall be reapproved and continued to operate. A favorable vote shall be found if the director determines from the referendum that a majority of the eligible producers who voted in the referendum voted in favor of continuing the operations. If the director finds that a favorable vote has been given, he or she shall so certify that result. If the director finds that a favorable vote has not been given, he or she shall so certify and declare the operations of the commission suspended upon expiration of the marketing season. No bond or security shall be required for any referendum.

SEC. 30. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Section 1748.7 to the Civil Code, relating to credit.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1748.7 is added to the Civil Code to read:

1748.7. (a) No person shall process, deposit, negotiate, or obtain payment of a credit card charge through a retailer's account with a financial institution or through a retailer's agreement with a financial institution, card issuer, or organization of financial institutions or card issuers if that retailer did not furnish or agree to furnish the goods or services which are the subject of the charge.

(b) No retailer shall permit any person to process, deposit, negotiate, or obtain payment of a credit card charge through the retailer's account with a financial institution or the retailer's agreement with a financial institution, card issuer, or organization of financial institutions or card issuers if that retailer did not furnish or agree to furnish the goods or services which are the subject of the charge.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) do not apply to any of the following:

(1) A person who furnishes goods or services on the business premises of a general merchandise retailer and who processes, deposits, negotiates, or obtains payment of a credit card charge through that general merchandise retailer's account or agreement.

(2) A general merchandise retailer who permits a person described in paragraph (1) to process, deposit, negotiate, or obtain payment of a credit card charge through that general merchandise retailer's account or agreement.

(3) A franchisee who furnishes the cardholder with goods or services that are provided in whole or in part by the franchisor and who processes, deposits, negotiates, or obtains payment of a credit card charge through that franchisor's account or agreement.

(4) A franchisor who permits a franchisee described in paragraph (3) to process, deposit, negotiate, or obtain payment of a credit card charge through that franchisor's account or agreement.

(5) The credit card issuer or a financial institution or a parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of the card issuer or a financial institution.

(6) A person who processes, deposits, negotiates, or obtains payment of less than five hundred dollars ($500) of credit card charges in any one year period through a retailer's account or agreement. The person shall have the burden of producing evidence that the person transacted less than five hundred dollars ($500) in credit card charges during any one year period.

(d) Any person injured by a violation of this section may bring an action for the recovery of damages, equitable relief, and reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

(e) Any person who violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Each occurrence in which a person processes, deposits, negotiates, or otherwise seeks to obtain payment of a credit card charge in violation of subdivision (a) constitutes a separate offense.

(f) The penalties and remedies provided in this section are in addition to any other remedies or penalties provided by law.

(g) The exemptions from this title specified in Section 1747.03 do not apply to this section.

(h) As used in this section:

(1) "General merchandise retailer" means any person or entity, regardless of the form of organization, that has continuously offered for sale or lease more than 100 different types of goods or services to the public in this state throughout a period which includes the immediately preceding five years.

(2) "Franchisor" has the same meaning as defined in Section 31007 of the Corporations Code.

(3) "Franchisee" has the same meaning as defined in Section

31006 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 856

An act to amend Sections 1725 and 1726 of, to add Sections 1727.1 and 1727.5 to, to add and repeal Section 1726.1 of, and to repeal and add Section 1727 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to home health agencies.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1725 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1725. It is the purpose of this chapter to license home health agencies in order to protect the health and safety of the people of California. By passing a licensing act it is the intent of the Legislature to require all organizations which provide skilled nursing services to patients in the home to obtain a home health agency license. It is the further intent that the State Department of Health Services shall establish high standards of quality for home health agencies.

SEC. 2. Section 1726 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1726. No private or public organization, including, but not limited to, any partnership, corporation, political subdivision of the state, or other governmental agency within the state, shall provide, or arrange for the provision of, skilled nursing services in the home in this state without first obtaining a home health agency license.

In establishing a system of licensing for home health agencies, it is the purpose of the Legislature to distinguish between the functions of a home health agency and the functions of a nurses' registry licensed pursuant to Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 9958) of Chapter 21 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code. It is not the intention of the Legislature to require that a licensed nurses' registry performing their functions as defined by Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 9958) of Chapter 21 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code secure a home health agency license unless they are performing the functions of a home health agency, as defined in this chapter.

It is not the intent of the Legislature to require a hospice to secure a home health agency license unless it is performing the functions of a home health agency.

SEC. 3. Section 1726.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1726.1. (a) Any licensed pharmacy engaged in providing, pursuant to the order of a physician and surgeon, parenteral or enteral therapies administered by a licensed registered nurse employed, or whose services who are arranged for, by the pharmacy, shall be exempt from the requirements of this chapter until January 1, 1991.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute chaptered prior to January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 1727 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 1727 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1727. (a) "Home health agency" means a private or public organization, including, but not limited to, any partnership, corporation, political subdivision of the state, or other government agency within the state, which provides, or arranges for the provision of, skilled nursing services, to persons in their temporary or permanent place of residence.

(b) "Skilled nursing services" means services provided by a registered nurse or licensed vocational nurse.

(c) "Home health aide services" means personal care services provided under a plan of treatment prescribed by the patient's physician and surgeon who is licensed to practice medicine in the state. Home health aide services shall be provided by a person certified by the state department to provide these services. Services which do not involve personal care services provided under a plan of treatment prescribed by a physician and surgeon may be provided by a person who is not a certified home health aide. Home health aide services shall not include services provided pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 12300) of Chapter 3 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 6. Section 1727.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1727.1. A licensed home health agency may also provide, or arrange for the provision of, other therapeutic services to persons in their temporary or permanent place of residence. Therapeutic services include, but are not limited to, physical, speech, or occupational therapy, medical social services, and home health aide services.

SEC. 7. Section 1727.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1727.5. Each home health agency providing home health agency services shall do all of the following:

(a) Provide for a plan of treatment for patients receiving skilled nursing services.

(b) Maintain clinical records on all patients.

(c) Provide for the supervision of licensed and unlicensed personnel by a registered nurse or physical, speech, or occupational therapist when within the therapist's scope of practice.

(d) Maintain policies regarding the delivery and supervision of patient care which are reviewed annually by a group of professional personnel including a physician and surgeon and a registered nurse and revised as needed.

(e) Meet all applicable federal, state, and local requirements.

(f) Meet such other standards, rules, and regulations adopted by the state department in order to implement this chapter.

SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Section 66006.5 to the Government Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature makes the following findings and declarations:

(1) Numerous areas throughout the state are experiencing rapid expansion of residential, commercial, industrial, and business activities, which is producing increased traffic levels.

(2) Many property owners have expressed a willingness to donate real property or property rights for transportation improvements to accomodate these increases in traffic.

(3) The cost of right-of-way acquisition is often a significant and, in some cases, even a prohibitive cost element in many transportation improvement projects.

(4) The voluntary donation of right-of-way can result in direct benefits to property owners, developers and the community at large, and can greatly assist in reducing the costs associated with transportation improvement projects.

(5) It is in the best interest and welfare of the citizens of California for the state and counties and cities to actively foster donations of right-of-way for transportation purposes.

(b) It is the intention of the Legislature, through the enactment of this act, to encourage and facilitate donations of right-of-way by willing donors in all areas where transportation improvements are to be made.

SEC. 2. Section 66006.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

66006.5. (a) A city or county which imposes an assessment, fee, or charge, other than a tax, for transportation purposes may, by ordinance, prescribe conditions and procedures allowing real property which is needed by the city or county for local transportation purposes, or by the state for transportation projects which will not receive any federal funds, to be donated by the obligor in satisfaction or partial satisfaction of the assessment, fee, or charge.

(b) To facilitate the implementation of subdivision (a), the Department of Transportation shall do all of the following:

(1) Give priority to the refinement, modification, and enhancement of procedures and policies dealing with right-of-way donations in order to encourage and facilitate those donations.

(2) Reduce or simplify paperwork requirements involving right-of-way procurement.

(3) Increase communication and education efforts as a means to solicit and encourage voluntary right-of-way donations.

(4) Enhance communication and coordination with local public entities through agreements of understanding that address state acceptance of right-of-way donations.

CHAPTER 858

An act to amend Sections 8150.5, 8150.8, and 8153 of, and to add Section 8154 to, the Fish and Game Code, relating to sardines, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8150.5 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8150.5. Sardines may not be taken or possessed on any boat, barge, or vessel except pursuant to Section 8150.7.

(a) However, loads or lots of fish may contain 15 percent or less by weight of sardines which are taken incidentally to other fishing operations and which are mixed with the other fish in the load or lot.

(b) Sardines incidentally taken under subdivision (a) or Section 8151 may be possessed and used for canning, reduction, or live bait purposes only.

(c) This section does not prohibit the possession and use of sardines imported into this state under a bill of lading identifying the country of origin.

(d) Imported sardines may be used for dead bait under regulations as the commission may prescribe.

(e) Subdivision (a) is operative only when Section 8151 is not operative. Subdivisions (b), (c), and (d) are operative and apply regardless of whether subdivision (a) or Section 8151 is operative.

SEC. 2. Section 8150.8 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8150.8. (a) Any sardine quota established by the department under Section 8150.7 shall be allocated in the following manner into two quotas, one for southern California and one for northern California, with the boundary division at Point Buchon in San Luis Obispo County. The allocation shall be as follows:

(1) Twenty percent of the quota shall be reserved for fishermen landing their catches north of Point Buchon in San Luis Obispo County.

(2) Eighty percent of the quota shall be reserved for fishermen landing their catches south of Point Buchon.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 8153 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8153. (a) In addition to any other provision of this article, 250 tons of sardines may be taken, possessed, and landed for dead bait purposes during the period March 1 to February 28. Sardines may not be taken for dead bait purposes except by fishermen operating under permits issued by the department pursuant to Section 8150.7.

(b) Whenever the department, under Section 8150.7, establishes a quota of 2,500 tons or more for the sardine fishery, the quota for dead bait provided for in subdivision (a) shall be 500 tons.

(c) The take of sardines authorized by this section shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Seventy-five tons shall be reserved for fishermen landing sardines north of Pescadero Point.

(2) Fifty tons shall be reserved for fishermen landing their catches between Pescadero Point and Point Buchon.

(3) The remaining quota shall be reserved for fishermen landing their catches south of Point Buchon.

(d) Any fisherman taking or possessing sardines for use as dead bait shall be in possession of a bona fide, written, and dated order from the commercial fish business which placed the order for the sardines.

(e) Sardines taken, possessed, or sold for dead bait purposes shall be landed and kept in a whole condition until sold to a sportfisherman for use as bait.

(f) The fish receipt for any landing of sardines for dead bait purposes shall be completed at the time the landing is made and shall include the words "FOR DEAD BAIT PURPOSES ONLY" on the line designating use.

SEC. 4. Section 8154 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

8154. No person shall receive, possess, or sell sardines for any purpose except for that purpose specified on the fish receipt completed at the time of landing of those sardines pursuant to Section 8043.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 43156, 43203.5, 44200, 44201, 44202, and 44203 of, to amend the heading of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 44200) of Part 5 of Division 26 of, and to add Sections 39024.6 and 43008.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39024.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

39024.6. "Direct import vehicle" means any light-duty motor vehicle manufactured outside of the United States which was not intended by the manufacturer for sale in the United States and which was not certified by the state board pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 43100) of Chapter 2 of Part 5.

SEC. 2. Section 43008.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

43008.5. In addition to the standards and test procedures adopted by the state board pursuant to Sections 43203.5 and 44201, the state board may adopt, by regulation, alternate test procedures for certifying direct import vehicles identical to the test procedures applicable to those vehicles pursuant to the National Emission Standards Act (42 U.S.C., Secs. 1857f-1 to 1857f-7, incl.) and the regulations adopted thereunder, if the emission standards applicable to those motor vehicles are the standards adopted by the state board for new or used direct import vehicles pursuant to Section 43203.5 or 44201, respectively.

Those alternate test procedures shall be adopted only if the state board determines that those procedures would be at least as effective for controlling motor vehicle emissions as the procedures adopted pursuant to Section 43203.5 or 44201, as applicable.

SEC. 3. Section 43156 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

43156. (a) For purposes of this article, it is conclusively presumed that the equitable or legal title to any motor vehicle with an odometer reading of 7,500 miles or more, has been transferred to an ultimate purchaser, except as provided in subdivision (b), and that the equitable or legal title to any motor vehicle with an odometer reading of less than 7,500 miles, has not been transferred to an ultimate purchaser.

(b) For purposes of this article, it is conclusively presumed that the equitable and legal title to any direct import vehicle which is less than two years old has not been transferred to an ultimate purchaser and that the equitable or legal title to any direct import motor vehicle which is at least two years old has been transferred to an ultimate purchaser.

For purposes of this subdivision, the age of a motor vehicle shall be determined by the following, in descending order of preference:

(1) From the first calendar day of the model year as indicated in the vehicle identification number.

(2) From the last calendar day of the month the vehicle was delivered by the manufacturer as shown on the foreign title document.

(3) From January 1 of the same calendar year as the model year shown on the foreign title document.

(4) From the last calendar day of the month the foreign title document was issued.

SEC. 4. Section 43203.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

43203.5. The state board shall adopt, by regulation, a certification program for new direct import vehicles, as defined by Sections 39024.6, and 39042, which are less than two years old. The state board shall issue a certificate of conformance to each new direct import vehicle which meets the requirements of the certification program. Any bonding requirements for the certification program may not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) per new direct import vehicle or engine.

The model year designation for new direct import vehicles in an engine family shall be determined on the same basis as vehicles in the same engine family which are offered for sale in California by the manufacturer. The model year designation for any new direct import motor vehicle in an engine family which the manufacturer does not offer for sale in California shall be determined in accordance with the regulations adopted by the state board. The designations shall apply for all purposes of the certification program and for registration of new direct import vehicles.

The state board shall, by regulation, impose fees to recover the state board's costs, including enforcement costs, of administration of the certification program. Failure to pay the fees within 60 days of receipt after notification by the state board shall result in the assessment of a 10 percent penalty. An additional interest assessment on the fees equivalent to the rate earned by the Pooled Money Investment Fund shall accrue at the end of each 30-day period that the fees remain unpaid. Nonpayment of the fees for more than one year shall result in the state board withholding future certification of new vehicles for sale in California.

Fees collected in accordance with this section shall be deposited in the Air Pollution Control Fund.

SEC. 5. The heading of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 44200) of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 6. USED DIRECT IMPORT VEHICLES

SEC. 6. Section 44200 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44200. For purposes of this chapter, "used direct import vehicle" means any 1975 or later model-year direct import vehicle not required to be certified as a new direct import vehicle pursuant to this part.

For purposes of this section, the age of a motor vehicle shall be determined by the following, in descending order of preference:

(a) From the first calendar day of the model year as indicated in the vehicle identification number.

(b) From the last calendar day of the month the vehicle was delivered by the manufacturer as shown on the foreign title document.

(c) From January 1 of the same calendar year as the model year shown on the foreign title document.

(d) From the last calendar day of the month the foreign title document was issued.

SEC. 7. Section 44201 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44201. The state board shall adopt, by regulation, a certification program for used direct import vehicles. The state board shall issue a certificate of conformance to each used direct import vehicle which meets the requirements of this program.

SEC. 8. Section 44202 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44202. A used direct import vehicle which was not registered in this state prior to the adoption of regulations adopted pursuant to Section 44201, may not be registered in this state unless it has received a certificate of conformance from the state board, except as provided in Section 44210.

SEC. 9. Section 44203 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44203. The certification program established pursuant to Section 44201 shall require all of the following components:

(a) A test of the vehicle's emissions performed at a laboratory licensed by the state board.

(b) A determination that the emissions of the vehicle meet applicable emission standards adopted by the state board.

(c) Any vehicle labelling and description of any emissions-related modifications to the vehicle that the state board finds appropriate to assure that the emission-related system of the vehicle can be inspected, serviced, and repaired successfully throughout the state.

(d) Any other requirements the board may determine appropriate to assure the used direct import vehicle will continue to comply with emission standards in use, except that no requirement may be established to warrant the emissions control system or to recall vehicles which exhibit a defective emission control system subsequent to receiving a valid certificate of conformance.

CHAPTER 860

An act to amend Section 4006 of the Education Code, relating to schools.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4006 of the Education Code is amended to read:

4006. (a) Any vacancy created by the expiration of the term of office of a member of the county committee on school district organization shall be filled by the majority vote of the representatives of the governing boards at the annual meeting called and held pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 4005. The county committee may authorize the representatives of the governing boards to vote, for this purpose, through the use of absentee ballots that are submitted, in the form and manner prescribed by the county committee, prior to the date set for the annual meeting.

(b) If the representatives fail to elect members to fill the vacancies on the county committee pursuant to subdivision (a), the vacancies shall be filled by the county superintendent of schools.

(c) Vacancies on the county committee which occur prior to the expiration of the term of office of a member of the county committee, which are caused by the happening of any of the events specified in Section 1770 of the Government Code, shall be filled as follows:

(1) In a county in which the members of the county committee are appointed by the county superintendent of schools, by the appointment of the county superintendent of schools.

(2) In a county in which the members of the county committee are elected by the representatives of the governing boards, by the majority vote of the remaining members of the committee. However, if the remaining members of the committee do not fill the vacancy within 70 days of its occurrence, the county superintendent of schools shall fill the vacancy by his or her appointment.

Persons elected or appointed to fill a vacancy pursuant to this subdivision shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that the allowance for absentee ballots will increase participation in the selection of county committees and will not diminish the public review of candidates for those county committees.

CHAPTER 861

An act to add Section 1940.9 to the Civil Code, relating to tenancies.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1940.9 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1940.9. (a) If the landlord does not provide separate gas and electric meters for each tenant's dwelling unit so that each tenant's meter measures only the electric or gas service to that tenant's dwelling unit and the landlord or his or her agent has knowledge that gas or electric service provided through a tenant's meter serves an area outside the tenant's dwelling unit, the landlord, prior to the inception of the tenancy or upon discovery, shall explicitly disclose that condition to the tenant and shall do either of the following:

(1) Execute a mutual written agreement with the tenant for payment by the tenant of the cost of the gas or electric service provided through the tenant's meter to serve areas outside the tenant's dwelling unit.

(2) Make other arrangements, as are mutually agreed in writing, for payment for the gas or electric service provided through the tenant's meter to serve areas outside the tenant's dwelling unit.

These arrangements may include, but are not limited to, the landlord becoming the customer of record for the tenant's meter, or the landlord separately metering and becoming the customer of record for the area outside the tenant's dwelling unit.

(b) If a landlord fails to comply with subdivision (a), the aggrieved tenant may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction. The remedies the court may order shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Requiring the landlord to be made the customer of record with the utility for the tenant's meter.

(2) Ordering the landlord to reimburse the tenant for payments made by the tenant to the utility for service to areas outside of the tenant's dwelling unit. Payments to be reimbursed pursuant to this paragraph shall commence from the date the obligation to disclose arose under subdivision (a).

(c) Nothing in this section limits any remedies available to a landlord or tenant under other provisions of this chapter, the rental agreement, or applicable statutory or common law.

CHAPTER 862

An act to add Section 1795.8 to the Civil Code, and to amend Section 4453 of the Vehicle Code, relating to consumer warranties.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1795.8 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1795.8. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the expansion of state warranty laws covering new and used cars has given important and valuable protection to consumers; that in states without this valuable warranty protection used and irrepairable motor vehicles are inundating the marketplace; that other states have addressed this problem by requiring notices on the titles of these vehicles warning consumers that the motor vehicles were repurchased by a dealer or manufacturer because either the vehicle could not be repaired in a reasonable length of time or the dealer or manufacturer was not willing to repair the vehicle; that these notices serve the interests of consumers who have a right to information relevant to their buying decisions; and that the disappearance of these notices upon the transfer of title from another state to this state encourages the transport of "lemons" to this state for sale to the drivers of this state. Therefore, the Legislature hereby enacts the Automotive Consumer Notification Act.

(b) For purposes of this section, "dealer" means any person engaged in the business of selling, offering for sale, or negotiating the the personal assets of their volunteer decisionmakers with adequate insurance It is the public policy of this state to provide incentive and protection to the individuals who perform these important functions.

(b) Except as provided in this section, no cause of action for monetary damages shall arise against any person serving without compensation as a director or officer of a nonprofit corporation subject to Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110), Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110), or Part 4 (commencing with Section 9110) of this division on account of any negligent act or omission occurring (1) within the scope of that person's duties as a director acting as a board member, or within the scope of that person's duties as an officer acting in an official capacity; (2) in good faith; (3) in a manner that the person believes to be in the best interest of the corporation; and (4) is in the exercise of his or her policymaking judgment.

(c) This section shall not limit the liability of a director or officer for any of the following:

(1) Self-dealing transactions, as described in Sections 5233 and 9243.

(2) Conflicts of interest, as described in Section 7233.

(3) Actions described in Sections 5237, 7236, and 9245.

(4) In the case of a charitable trust, an action or proceeding against a trustee brought by a beneficiary of that trust.

(5) Any action or proceeding brought by the Attorney General.

(6) Intentional, wanton, or reckless acts, gross negligence, or an action based on fraud, oppression, or malice.

(7) Any action brought under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 16700) of Part 2 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code.

(d) This section only applies to nonprofit corporations organized to provide charitable, educational, scientific, social, or other forms of public service that are exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) This section applies only if the nonprofit corporation maintains a general liability insurance policy with an amount of coverage of at least the following amounts:

(1) If the corporation's annual budget is less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), the minimum required amount is five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(2) If the corporation's annual budget equals or exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), the minimum required amount is one million dollars ($1,000,000).

This section applies only if the general liability insurance policy is in force both at the time of injury and at the time that the claim is made, so that the policy is applicable to the claim.

(f) For the purposes of this section, the payment of actual expenses incurred in attending meetings or otherwise in the execution of the duties of a director or officer shall not constitute compensation.

(g) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the liability of a nonprofit corporation for any negligent act or omission of a director, officer, employee, agent, or servant occurring within the scope of his or her duties.

(h) This section does not apply to any corporation that unlawfully restricts membership, services, or benefits conferred on the basis of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, marital status, disability, political affiliation, or age.

(i) This section does not apply to any volunteer director or officer who receives compensation from the corporation in any other capacity, including, but not limited to, as an employee.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 21200 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

21200. Any unincorporated association that is an organized medical society limiting its membership to licensed physicians and surgeons and that has as members at least 25 percent of the eligible physicians and surgeons residing in the area in which it functions (which must be at least one county) may, without incorporation, purchase, receive, own, hold, lease, mortgage, pledge, or encumber by deed of trust or otherwise, manage and sell all the real estate and other property as may be convenient for the purposes and objects of the association. However, if the association has less than 100 members, it shall have as members at least a majority of the eligible persons or licensees in the geographic area served by the particular association. The members of that unincorporated association are not individually or personally liable for debts or liabilities contracted or incurred by the association in the acquisition of lands or leases or the purchase, leasing, construction, repairing or furnishing of buildings or other structures to be used for the purposes of the association or for debts or liabilities contracted or incurred by the association in the carrying out or performance of any of its purposes; provided, that the purposes are within the purposes stated in Section 21000 of this part.

SEC. 4. Section 24001.5 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

24001.5. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the services of directors or officers of nonprofit medical associations, as defined in Section 21200, who serve without compensation are critical to the efficient conduct and management of the public service and charitable affairs of the people of California. The willingness of volunteers to offer their services has been deterred by a perception that their personal assets are at risk for these activities. The unavailability and unaffordability of appropriate liability insurance makes it difficult for these associations to protect the personal assets of their volunteer decisionmakers with adequate insurance. It is the public policy of this state to provide incentive and protection to the individuals who perform these important functions.

(b) Except as provided in this section, no cause of action for monetary damages shall arise against any person serving without compensation as a director or officer of a nonprofit medical association, as defined in Section 21200, on account of any negligent act or omission occurring (1) within the scope of that person's duties as a director acting as a board member, or within the scope of that person's duties as an officer acting in an official capacity; (2) in good faith; (3) in a manner that the person believes to be in the best interest of the association; and (4) is in the exercise of his or her policymaking judgment.

(c) This section shall not limit the liability of a director or officer for any of the following:

(1) Self-dealing transactions, as described in Sections 5233 and 9243.

(2) Conflicts of interest, as described in Section 7233.

(3) Actions described in Sections 5237, 7236, and 9245.

(4) In the case of a charitable trust, an action or proceeding against a trustee brought by a beneficiary of that trust.

(5) Any action or proceeding brought by the Attorney General.

(6) Intentional, wanton, or reckless acts, gross negligence, or an action based on fraud, oppression, or malice.

(7) Any action brought under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 16700) of Part 2 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code.

(d) This section only applies to nonprofit organizations organized to provide charitable, educational, scientific, social, or other forms of public service that are exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) This section applies only if the nonprofit association maintains a general liability insurance policy with an amount of coverage of at least the following amounts:

(1) If the association's annual budget is less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), the minimum required amount is five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(2) If the association's annual budget equals or exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), the minimum required amount is one million dollars ($1,000,000).

This section applies only if the general liability insurance policy is in force both at the time of injury and at the time that the claim is made, so that the policy is applicable to the claim.

(f) For the purposes of this section, the payment of actual expenses incurred in attending meetings or otherwise in the execution of the duties of a director or officer shall not constitute compensation.

(g) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the liability of a nonprofit association for any negligent act or omission of a director, officer employee, agent, or servant occurring within the scope of his or her duties.

(h) This section does not apply to any association that unlawfully restricts membership, services, or benefits conferred on the basis of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, marital status, disability, political affiliation, or age.

(i) This section does not apply to any volunteer director or officer who receives compensation from the association in any other capacity, including, but not limited to, as an employee.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 865

An act to amend Section 14591 of, and to add Section 14560.5 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to beverage containers, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this act to promote public awareness of the California Beverage Container Recycling and Litter Reduction Act by informing consumers of beverages, as defined in Section 14504 of the Public Resources Code, of the minimum redemption value applied to a beverage container in order to reinforce and expand the recycling of empty beverage containers pursuant to that act.

Further, it is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this act, to encourage beverage distributors to comply with subdivision (c) of Section 14560.5 of the Public Resources Code, as added by Section 2 of this act.

SEC. 2. Section 14560.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

14560.5. (a) (1) On and after October 1, 1989, the invoice or other form of accounting of the transaction submitted by a beverage distributor of soft drinks or mineral water to a dealer shall separately identify the amount of any minimum redemption value imposed on beverage containers pursuant to Section 14560 and the separate identification of the invoice or other form of accounting of the transaction shall separately state the gross amount of the minimum redemption value for each type of container included in each delivery.

(2) On and after November 1, 1989, the invoice or other form of accounting of the transaction submitted by any distributor of beer and malt beverages to a dealer shall separately identify the amount of any minimum redemption value imposed on beverage containers pursuant to Section 14560 and the separate identification of the invoice or other form of accounting of the transaction shall separately state the gross amount of the minimum redemption value for each type of container included in each delivery.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 14541, the department shall randomly inspect beverage distributor invoices or other forms of accounting to ensure compliance with this subdivision.

(b) To the extent technically and economically feasible, a dealer may separately identify the amount of any minimum redemption value on the customer cash register receipt provided to the consumer, by the dealer, which is applied to the purchase of a beverage container.

(c) (1) On and after October 1, 1989, a dealer shall separately identify the amount of any redemption value imposed on a beverage container in all advertising of beverage products and on the shelf labels of the dealer's establishment. The separate identification shall be accomplished by stating one of the following:

(A) The price of the beverage product plus a descriptive term, as described in paragraph (2).

(B) The price of the beverage product plus the amount of the applicable redemption value and a descriptive term, as described in paragraph (2).

(C) The price of the beverage product plus the amount of the applicable redemption value, a descriptive term, as described in paragraph (2), and the total of these two amounts.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the redemption value shall be identified by one of the following descriptive terms: "California Redemption Value," "CA Redemption Value," "California Cash Refund," "CA Cash Refund," or any other message specified in Section 14561.

(3) A dealer shall not include the minimum redemption value in the total price of a beverage container in any advertising or on the shelf of the dealer's establishment.

(4) This subdivision applies only to a dealer at a dealer location with a sales and storage area totaling more than 4,000 square feet.

(5) The penalties specified in Section 14591 shall not be applied to a person who violates this subdivision.

(d) With regard to the sale of beer and other malt beverages or wine and distilled spirits cooler beverages, any amount of minimum redemption value imposed by this division is subject to Section 25509 of the Business and Professions Code.

(e) On or before September 1, 1989, or 60 days after the effective date of the act adding this section, whichever occurs later, the department shall inform all beverage distributors and dealers of this section.

SEC. 3. Section 14591 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 117 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

14591. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (e), in addition to any other applicable civil or criminal penalties, any person convicted of a violation of this division is guilty of an infraction, which is punishable by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100) per day.

(b) Every person who, with intent to defraud, submits a false or fraudulent claim for payment pursuant to Section 14573 or 14573.5 or who, with intent to defraud, fails to accurately report the number of beverage containers sold, as required by subdivision (b) of Section 14550, or who, with intent to defraud, fails to make payments as required by Section 14574 or who, with intent to defraud, redeems containers which have already been redeemed or returns redeemed containers to the marketplace for reredemption with intent to defraud, or who submits a false or fraudulent claim for convenience incentive payments pursuant to Section 14585, is guilty of fraud. If the money obtained or withheld exceeds four hundred dollars ($400), the fraud is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both, or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, two years, or three years, or by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or twice the late or unmade payments plus interest, whichever is greater, or by both fine and imprisonment. If the money obtained or withheld equals, or is less than, four hundred dollars ($400), the fraud is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both.

(c) Any person who violates this division may be assessed a civil penalty by the department of up to one hundred dollars ($100) per day pursuant to a hearing and notice.

(d) The department shall suspend all convenience incentive payments received by any certified recycling center for up to six months, but not less than two months, from the date of a third violation assessed upon that recycling center pursuant to subdivision (c) within a one-year period, commencing upon the effective date of the act amending this section.

(e) This section does not apply to a violation of subdivision (c) of Section 14560.5.

(f) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 14591 of the Public Resources Code, as added by Section 4 of Chapter 117 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

14591. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (d), in addition to any other applicable civil or criminal penalties, any person convicted of a violation of this division is guilty of an infraction, which is punishable by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100) per day.

(b) Every person who, with intent to defraud, submits a false or fraudulent claim for payment pursuant to Section 14573 or 14573.5 or who, with intent to defraud, fails to accurately report the number of beverage containers sold, as required by subdivision (b) of Section 14550, or who, with intent to defraud, fails to make payments as required by Section 14574 or who, with intent to defraud, redeems containers which have already been redeemed or returns redeemed containers to the marketplace for reredemption with intent to defraud, or who submits a false or fraudulent claim for convenience incentive payments pursuant to Section 14585, is guilty of fraud. If the money obtained or withheld exceeds four hundred dollars ($400), the fraud is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both, or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, two years, or three years, or by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or twice the late or unmade payments plus interest, whichever is greater, or by both fine and imprisonment. If the money obtained or withheld equals, or is less than, four hundred dollars ($400), the fraud is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both.

(c) Any person who violates this division may be assessed a civil penalty by the department of up to one hundred dollars ($100) per day pursuant to a hearing and notice.

(d) This section does not apply to a violation of subdivision (c) of Section 14560.5.

(e) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 6 This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to encourage the recycling of beverage containers, thereby protecting public health and safety and the environment, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 866

An act to amend Sections 49112 and 49116 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 49112 of the Education Code is amended to read:

49112. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), a permit to work may be issued to a minor under the age of 18 and age 14 or older to work outside of school hours for a period of time not to exceed four hours in any day in which he or she is required by law to attend school if he or she has completed the equivalent of the seventh grade of a public school course.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a permit to work may be issued, at the school district's discretion, to a minor 13 years of age if he or she has completed grade 6, has been identified by the school district in which he or she is enrolled as exhibiting the potential to drop out of school, and is a participant in an employment program sponsored by one or more school districts, provided the program serves to foster the development of an appreciation by the pupil of the importance of education in preparing a pupil for future education and employment. The permit shall limit the period any minor age 13 may work pursuant to this subdivision to two hours on any given day, up to a maximum of four hours each week.

(c) A permit to work may also be issued to a minor age 16 or older to work outside of school hours for a period of time not to exceed eight hours in any day in which the minor is required by law to attend school and which is immediately prior to a nonschoolday.

SEC. 2. Section 49116 of the Education Code is amended to read:

49116. (a) An employer shall not employ a minor for more than four hours in any day in which that minor is required by law to attend school for 240 minutes or more each schoolday, except as follows:

(1) The minor is employed in personnel attendance occupations, as defined in the Industrial Welfare Commission Minimum Wage Order No. 1-74, school approved work experience, or cooperative vocational education programs.

(2) The minor has been issued a permit to work pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 49112 and is employed in accordance with the provisions of that permit.

(b) No employer shall employ any minor under the age of 18 years in any agricultural occupation for more than 20 hours in any schoolweek in which that minor is required by law to attend school for 240 minutes or more each schoolday. Minors 16 and 17 years of age shall not work in any agricultural occupation more than six hours a day they are required to attend school for 240 minutes or more each schoolday. Minors 14 and 15 years of age shall not work in any agricultural occupation more than four hours on a schoolday.

(c) Holidays and days school is not in session are not covered by this section.

(d) If evidence is shown to the satisfaction of the person issuing the permit that the schoolwork or the health of the minor is being impaired by the employment, the authority issuing the permit may revoke it.

CHAPTER 867

An act to amend Sections 22651, 22652, 24651, 24652, and 26050 of, and to add Sections 22650 and 24650 to, the Financial Code, relating to lenders.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22650 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

22650. (a) If any amount other than, or in excess of, the charges permitted by this division is willfully charged, contracted for, or received, the contract of loan is void, and no person has any right to collect or receive any principal, charges, or recompense in connection with the transaction.

(b) If any provision of this division is willfully violated in the making or collection of a loan, the contract of loan is void, and no person has any right to collect or receive any principal, charges, or recompense in connection with the transaction.

SEC. 2. Section 22651 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

22651. (a) If any amount other than or in excess of the charges permitted by this division is charged, contracted for, or received, for any reason other than a willful act of the licensee, the licensee shall forfeit all interest and charges on the loan and may collect or receive only the principal amount of the loan.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to an error in computation if (1) the licensee shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid any such error, and (2) within 60 days of discovering the error the licensee notifies the borrower of the error and makes whatever adjustments in the account are necessary to correct the error.

SEC. 3. Section 22652 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

22652. (a) If any provision of this division is violated in the making or collection of a loan for any reason other than a willful act of the licensee, the licensee shall forfeit all interest and charges on the loan and may collect or receive only the principal amount of the loan.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to a violation if (1) the licensee shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid any such error, and (2) within 30 days of discovering the error the licensee notifies the borrower of the error and rectifies the error by making the appropriate changes in the documents or account and by taking other action necessary to correct the error.

SEC. 4. Section 24650 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

24650. (a) If any amount other than or in excess of the charges permitted by this division is willfully charged, contracted for, or received, the contract of loan is void, and no person has any right to collect or receive any principal, charges, or recompense in connection with the transaction.

(b) If any provision of this division is willfully violated in the making or collection of a loan, the contract of loan is void, and no person has any right to collect or receive any principal, charges, or recompense in connection with the transaction.

SEC. 5. Section 24651 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

24651 (a) If any amount other than or in excess of the charges permitted by this division is charged, contracted for, or received for any reason other than a willful act of the licensee, the licensee shall forfeit all interest and charges on the loan and may collect or receive only the principal amount of the loan.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to an error in computation if (1) the licensee shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid any such error, and (2) within 60 days of discovering the error the licensee notifies the borrower of the error and makes whatever adjustments in the account are necessary to correct the error.

SEC. 6. Section 24652 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

24652. (a) If any provision of this division is violated in the making or collection of a loan for any reason other than a willful act of the licensee, the licensee shall forfeit all interest and charges on the loan and may collect or receive only the principal amount of the loan.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to a violation if (1) the licensee shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid any such error, and (2) within 30 days of discovering the error the licensee notifies the borrower of the error and rectifies the error by making the appropriate changes in the documents or account and by taking other action necessary to correct the error.

SEC. 7. Section 26050 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

26050. (a) This division does not apply to any person doing business under any law of this state or of the United States relating to banks, trusts companies, savings and loan associations, industrial loan companies, credit unions, small business investment companies, California business and industrial development corporations, or licensed pawnbrokers.

(b) This division does not apply to a broker-dealer acting pursuant to a certificate, then in effect, issued pursuant to Section 25211 of the Corporations Code.

(c) This division does not apply to any person who makes no more than one commercial loan in any 12-month period.

CHAPTER 868

An act to amend Sections 777.5, 5621, 5806, 6451, 6503, 6525, 7200, 7504, 8009, 8010, 8160, and 8201 of, and to add Sections 261 and 8012 to, the Financial Code, relating to financial institutions, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 261 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

261. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the superintendent may deliver fingerprints taken of an applicant for employment, or a director, officer, or employee of a bank, bank holding company, or any subsidiary of a bank or bank holding company, to local, state, or federal law enforcement agencies for the purpose of obtaining information as to the existence and nature of a criminal record, if any, of that person relating to convictions, and to any arrest for which the person is released on bail or on his or her own recognizance pending trial, for the commission or attempted commission of a crime involving robbery, burglary, theft, embezzlement, fraud, forgery, bookmaking, receiving stolen property, counterfeiting, or involving checks or credit cards or using computers.

(b) No request shall be submitted pursuant to this section without the written consent of the person affected.

(c) Any criminal history information obtained pursuant to this section shall be confidential and no recipient shall disclose its contents other than for the purpose for which it was acquired.

SEC. 1.5. Section 777.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

777.5. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 1051, 1052, and 1054 of the Labor Code and Section 2947 of the Penal Code, a bank or any affiliate thereof, lincensed under the laws of any state or of the United States, or any officer or employee thereof, may deliver fingerprints taken of a director, an officer, an employee, or an applicant for employment to local, state, or federal law enforcement agencies for the purpose of obtaining information as to the existence and nature of a criminal record, if any, of the person fingerprinted relating to convictions, and to any arrest for which that person is released on bail or on his or her own recognizance pending trial, for the commission or attempted commission of a crime involving robbery, burglary, theft, embezzlement, fraud, forgery, bookmaking, receiving stolen property, counterfeiting, or involving checks or credit cards or using computers.

(b) The Department of Justice shall, pursuant to Section 11105 of the Penal Code, and a local agency may, pursuant to Section 13300 of the Penal Code, furnish to the officer of the bank or affiliate responsible for the final decision regarding employment of the person fingerprinted, or to his or her designees having responsibilities for personnel or security decisions in the usual scope and course of their employment with the bank or affiliate, summary criminal history information when requested pursuant to this section. If, upon evaluation of the criminal history information received pursuant to this section, the bank or affiliate determines that employment of the person fingerprinted would constitute an unreasonable risk to that bank or affiliate or its customers, the person may be denied employment.

(c) A request for records pursuant to this section made of the Department of Justice shall be on a form approved by the department. The department may charge a fee to be paid by the requesting bank or affiliate pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 11105 of the Penal Code. No request shall be submitted without the written consent of the person fingerprinted.

(d) Any criminal history information obtained pursuant to this section is confidential and no recipient shall disclose its contents other than for the purpose for which it was acquired.

(e) "Affiliate," as used in this section, means any corporation controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, a bank, whether directly, indirectly, or through one or more intermediaries.

SEC. 2. Section 5621 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

5621. (a) With the approval of the commissioner, a mutual association may amend its articles of incorporation to authorize the issuance of stock and may issue stock. Any amendment to the articles of incorporation and bylaws of an association which for the first time authorizes it to issue stock shall be approved by the vote or written assent of a majority of the total votes of members outstanding, except that the amendment shall require approval only of the commissioner and board of directors of an association if the commissioner finds that grounds exist for the appointment of a conservator for the association pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 8225.

(b) An amendment to the articles of incorporation of an association pursuant to this section may include provisions with respect to the surplus, reserves, and undivided profits of the association and in that case the surplus, reserves, and undivided profits shall be retained and disposed of in accordance with those provisions.

(c) The corporate existence of a mutual association which amends its articles of incorporation pursuant to this section to authorize the issuance of stock and which issues stock shall continue to be, and the resulting stock association shall be deemed to be, a continuation of the mutual association. The Legislature finds and declares that Section 563b.41 (d) (3) of Title 12 of the Code of Federal Regulations sets forth the law of this state with regard to the continuity of corporate existence in mutual association to stock association conversions and that this section has reflected that law from the time of the original adoption of Section 563b.41 of Title 12 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 3. Section 5806 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

5806. Each savings and loan holding company, which is not an individual, shall pay an initial and an annual registration fee of five hundred dollars ($500) if the registrant's association subsidiaries have total assets of up to one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) or one thousand dollars ($1,000) if the subsidiaries have total assets of one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) or more. These fees shall be paid within 30 days following notice from the commissioner that payment is due.

SEC. 4. Section 6451 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

6451. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), each agency of an association, as defined in Section 6551, shall keep an original record of each transaction of business completed on behalf of the association at the agency.

(b) Records of transactions are not required to be maintained at the agency if they are maintained at the association's home office or branch office.

SEC. 5. Section 6503 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

6503. (a) An association may acquire, hold, sell, develop, subdivide, dispose of, and convey real and personal property consistent with its objectives and powers. It may mortgage, pledge, or lease any real or personal property and may take the property by gift, devise, or bequest.

(b) No association or subsidiary thereof, without the prior written consent of the commissioner, shall enter into any transaction or modification of any transaction with an affiliated person to buy, lease, or sell real or personal property, or take that property by gift.

SEC. 6. Section 6525 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

6525. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 1051, 1052, and 1054 of the Labor Code and Section 2947 of the Penal Code, an association, a subsidiary or affiliate of an association, or any officer or employee thereof may deliver fingerprints taken of a director, an officer, an employee, or an applicant for employment to local, state, or federal law enforcement agencies for the purpose of obtaining information as to the existence and nature of a criminal record, if any, of the person fingerprinted relating to convictions, and to any arrest for which that person is released on bail or on his or her own recognizance pending trial, for the commission or attempted commission of a crime involving robbery, burglary, theft, embezzlement, fraud, forgery, bookmaking, receiving stolen property, counterfeiting, or involving checks or credit cards or using computers.

(b) The Department of Justice shall, pursuant to Section 11105 of the Penal Code, and a local agency may pursuant to Section 13300 of the Penal Code, furnish to the officer of the association or subsidiary or affiliate thereof responsible for the final decision regarding employment of the person fingerprinted, or to his or her designees having responsibilities for personnel or security decisions in the usual scope and course of their employment with the association, subsidiary, or affiliate summary criminal history information when requested pursuant to this section. If, upon evaluation of the criminal history information received pursuant to this section, the association, subsidiary, or affiliate determines that employment of the person fingerprinted would constitute an unreasonable risk to the association, subsidiary, or affiliate or its customers, the person fingerprinted may be denied employment.

(c) A request for records pursuant to this section made of the Department of Justice shall be on a form approved by the department. The department may charge a fee to be paid by the requesting association, subsidiary, or affiliate pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 11105 of the Penal Code. No request shall be submitted without the written consent of the person fingerprinted.

(d) Any criminal history information obtained pursuant to this section is confidential and no recipient shall disclose its contents other than for the purpose for which it was acquired.

(e) "Affiliate," as used in this section, means any corporation controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, a savings association, whether directly, indirectly, or through one or more intermediaries.

SEC. 7. Section 7200 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

7200. No association shall invest in any security under this chapter, other than in liquid assets, or in any loan at any time if the association fails to meet the minimum liquidity requirements prescribed by Section 523.11 of Title 12 of the Code of Federal Regulations, unless the commissioner has issued prior written approval. "Liquid assets," as used in this section, has the same meaning as defined by the regulations codified in Section 523.10 of Title 12 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 8. Section 7504 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

7504. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an association may adjust the interest rate, payment, balance, or term-to-maturity on any loan secured by real property as authorized by the loan contract, and may receive a portion of the consideration for making a real estate loan in the form of a percentage of the amount by which the current market value of the property during the loan term or at maturity exceeds the original appraised value, subject to the limitations of subdivision (b) and Section 341 of P.L. 97-320 (H.R. 6267, the Garn-St. Germain Depository Institutions Act of 1982).

(a) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Fully amortized loan" means a loan in which, at inception of the loan, the entire principal balance, together with accrued interest, shall be payable with the scheduled term of the loan in substantially equal installments (excepting the last payment, which may be smaller than a regular scheduled payment).

(2) "Home loans" means loans made on the security of one- to four-unit residential dwellings (including condominiums and cooperatives), combinations of these dwellings and business property (where no more than 20 percent of the total appraised value of the real estate is attributable to the business use), farm residences and combinations of farm residences and commercial farm real property.

(3) "Nonamortized loan" means a loan in which none of the principal balance shall be payable prior to the maturity of the loan.

(4) "Open end line of credit" means a loan plan in which the association reasonably contemplates repeated transactions; the association may impose interest from time to time on the unpaid principal of the loan plan, and the amount of credit that may be extended to the borrower during the term of the loan plan (up to any limit set by the association) is generally made available to the extent that any outstanding principal balance is repaid.

(5) "Partially amortized loan" means a loan in which some but not all of the principal balance, together with accrued interest, shall be payable prior to the maturity of the loan.

(6) "Reverse annuity mortgage" means an instrument which provides for periodic payments to be made to a homeowner based on accumulated equity. The payments are made monthly directly by the association, or are made through the purchase of an annuity from an insurance company. The loan becomes due on a specified date after disbursement of the entire principal amount of the loan or when a specified event occurs, such as sale of the property or death of the borrower. The interest rate on this instrument may be fixed, or may be adjusted periodically as provided by this section.

(b) Adjustments to the interest rate, payment, balance, or term-to-maturity on home loans shall be subject to the limitations of this subdivision.

(1) The loan term shall not exceed 40 years, with interest payable at least semiannually, except as expressly authorized by this section.

(2) The loan balance for other than nonamortized and open end line of credit loans shall be repayable in at least semiannual installments; provided, that loans on the security of farm residences and combinations of farm residences and commercial farm real property may be repayable in annual installments.

(3) The loan may be fully amortized, partially amortized, nonamortized, a reverse annuity mortgage, or an open end line of credit loan. The loan contract may provide for the deferral of principal and capitalization of a portion of interest, or of all interest, in the case of loans to natural persons secured by borrower-occupied real property and on which periodic advances are being made.

(4) (A) At origination, the loan-to-value ratio may not exceed the maximum permitted by Section 7509, as determined by the association's board of directors (but not more than 100 percent). During the term of the loan, the loan-to-value ratio may increase above the maximum percentage otherwise permissible if the increase results from an adjustment described in paragraph (3) or (5). The commissioner shall assume continued compliance with applicable loan-to-value limitations where the original loan-to-value ratio met the requirements of this paragraph, but in no event may the loan balance exceed 125 percent of the original appraised value of the security property during the term of the loan unless pursuant to clause (i) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) or unless the loan contract provides that the payment shall be adjusted at least once every five years, beginning no later than the 10th year of the loan, to a level sufficient to amortize the loan at the then existing interest rate and loan balance over the remaining term of the loan. However, this 125 percent limitation shall not apply to the portion of a loan balance that is interest received in the form of a percentage of the appreciation in value of the security property.

(B) If, at maturity of a loan secured by a home that provides for adjustments pursuant to paragraph (3) or (5), the ratio of the loan balance to the current market value of the security property exceeds the maximum permissible amount under Section 7509, the association may offer to refinance the loan if (i) the refinanced loan complies with subdivision (b) of Section 7509 and (ii) the loan contract for the refinanced loan requires that, in addition to full or partial amortization of the loan, the pro rata portion, based on the number of installments due annually, of estimated annual taxes and assessments on the security property be paid in advance to the association with each installment payment.

(5) For any home loan secured by borrower-occupied property or property to be occupied by the borrower, adjustments to the interest rate, payment, balance, or term-to-maturity shall comply with the limitations of this paragraph.

(A) Adjustments to the interest rate shall correspond directly to the movement of an interest rate index or of a national or regional index that measures the rate of inflation or the rate of change in consumer disposable income, which index is readily available to, and verifiable by, the borrower and is beyond the direct control of the association. An association also may increase the interest rate pursuant to a formula or schedule that specifies the amount of the increase and the time at which it may be made and which is set forth in the loan contract. An association, in its sole discretion, may decrease the interest rate at any time.

(B) Adjustments to the payment and the loan balance that do not reflect an interest rate adjustment may be made if: (i) the adjustments reflect a change in a national or regional index that measures the rate of inflation or the rate of change in consumer disposable income, is readily available to and verifiable by the borrower, and is beyond the direct control of the association; (ii) in the case of a payment adjustment, the adjustment reflects a change in the loan balance or is made pursuant to a formula, or to a schedule specifying the percentage or dollar change in the payment as set forth in the loan contract; or (iii) in the case of an open end line of credit loan, the adjustment reflects an advance taken by the borrower under the line of credit, or a payment made by the borrower, that is permitted by the loan contract.

(C) Any combination of indices or a moving average of index values may be used as an index, and an association (i) may use more than one index during the term of a loan, if set forth in the loan contract and (ii) may provide for the selection of a substitute index by the association in the event the index being used is no longer available to or verifiable by the borrower or as otherwise provided in the loan contract.

(D) The loan term may be adjusted only to reflect a change in the interest rate, the payment or the loan balance. A loan contract may provide an association with the right to call the loan due and payable either after a specified period of time has elapsed following the date of the loan contract or as specified in a reverse annuity mortgage.

(6) For any home loan secured by borrower-occupied property and on which the interest rate may be adjusted pursuant to paragraph (5), an association may not impose a prepayment charge on any prepayment made within 90 days of a required notice of an interest-rate increase with respect to the loan.

(c) Disclosure and notices for loans made pursuant to this section shall comply with the regulations codified in Section 563.9-9 of Title 12 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 9. Section 8009 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

8009. (a) Except where required by law, regulation, or court order, or permitted under subdivision (b), the commissioner, and all employees of the department, shall not disclose any information acquired by them in the discharge of their duties as prescribed by this division.

(b) The commissioner may furnish information relating to the condition or operation of any association or other person to state and federal authorities that supervise financial institutions, to state, local and federal law enforcement agencies, and state agencies that are engaged in any investigation of an unsafe or unsound business practice.

(c) No record or document in the possession or custody of the department which contains information specified in subdivision (a) shall be produced pursuant to a subpoena duces tecum addressed to the commissioner or any employee of the department except upon a determination of a court of competent jurisdiction that disclosure of the information in the record or document would serve the public interest and assist the department in conducting the duties prescribed by this subdivision. With respect to each item subject to the subpoena duces tecum, the court shall either make this determination or shall determine that the item is not subject to disclosure. The court's determination shall be made upon hearing on a motion by the subpoenaing party under this subdivision to compel production of the document or record.

SEC. 10. Section 8010 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

8010. The commissioner, after a determination of value made in accordance with Article 4 (commencing with Section 8150) of Chapter 7, may order that assets, individually or in the aggregate, to the extent that the assets are overvalued on an association's books, be charged off against current operations, or that a special reserve or reserves equal to the overvaluation be set up by transfers from retained earnings or reserves.

SEC. 11. Section 8012 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

8012. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the commissioner may deliver fingerprints taken of an applicant or a director, officer, or employee of an association, savings and loan holding company or any of their subsidiaries to local, state, or federal law enforcement agencies for the purpose of obtaining information as to the existence and nature of a criminal record, if any, of that person relating to convictions, and to any arrest for which the person is released on bail or on his or her own recognizance pending trial, for the commission or attempted commission of a crime involving robbery, burglary, theft, embezzlement, fraud, forgery, bookmaking, receiving stolen property, counterfeiting, or involving checks or credit cards or using computers.

(b) No request shall be submitted pursuant to this section without the written consent of the person affected.

(c) Any criminal history information obtained pursuant to this section shall be confidential and no recipient shall disclose its contents other than for the purpose for which it was acquired.

SEC. 12. Section 8160 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

8160. (a) If an association, savings and loan holding company, or any subsidiary of an association or savings and loan holding company fails to furnish the commissioner any report required by this article within five days of the due date set forth in this article or, if no due date is set forth in this article, the date specified by the commissioner, the commissioner shall assess a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100) per day for each additional day the report is delayed or withheld up to and including the 25th day after the first day of the assessment of the penalty; thereafter from the 26th day to the 60th day the penalty shall be three hundred dollars ($300) per day and from the 61st day until receipt of the report the penalty shall be one thousand dollars ($1,000) per day.

(b) Upon written application by an association, savings and loan holding company, or subsidiary showing good cause satisfactory to the commissioner, the commissioner may grant an extension of time for filing any report required by this article and may specifically waive or reduce the penalty required by this section.

SEC. 13. Section 8201 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

8201. (a) Upon a finding by the commissioner that a director, officer, or employee of an association, savings and loan holding company, or any subsidiary of an association or savings and loan holding company has knowingly and willfully participated in a violation or an unsafe or unsound practice as described in Section 8200 or who has breached his or her fiduciary duty, the commissioner may require that the director, officer, or employee be removed from the association, savings and loan holding company, or subsidiary and, in addition thereto or in lieu thereof, the commissioner may prohibit the person, without the commissioner's prior written approval, from (1) participating in any manner in the conduct of the affairs of that association, savings and loan holding company, or subsidiary or (2) serving as a director, officer, or employee of any other association, savings and loan holding company, or subsidiary of an association or savings and loan holding company.

(b) Prior to issuance of an order under subdivision (a), the commissioner shall deliver a full statement of the objectionable acts and conduct to the board of directors of the association or other person and the individual or individuals concerned and of the commissioner's intention to enter an order under subdivision (a). If a hearing on the matter is requested within 10 days after delivery of the statement, the commissioner shall hold a public hearing at which any pertinent evidence relating to the matters set forth in the statement may be presented. After the hearing, the commissioner, on the basis of the evidence presented at the hearing, may (1) proceed to enter an order under subdivision (a), which shall take effect immediately, (2) issue a reprimand to the individuals and association or other person concerned, or (3) dismiss the entire matter.

(c) If no hearing is requested within the time specified, the commissioner may proceed to issue an order under subdivision (a) on the basis of the facts set forth in the original statement.

(d) In respect to any officer, director, or employee of an association or service corporation thereof who is the subject of a statement delivered by the commissioner pursuant to subdivision (b), the commissioner may, if the commissioner deems it necessary for the protection of the association or service corporation, by written notice to that effect served upon the officer, director, or employee, suspend him or her from office or prohibit him or her from further participation in any manner in the conduct of the affairs of the association or service corporation, or take both these actions.

The suspension or prohibition shall become effective upon service of the notice and, unless stayed by a court in proceedings authorized by subdivision (e), shall remain in effect pending completion of the proceedings pursuant to the statement delivered under subdivision (b) and until the effective date of an order entered by the commissioner under subdivision (b) or subdivision (c). Copies of the notice shall also be served upon the association or service corporation of which the person is a director, officer, or employee.

(e) Within 10 days after any director, officer, or employee has been suspended from office or prohibited from participation in the conduct of the affairs of an association or service corporation thereof under subdivision (d), the director, officer, or employee may apply to a court having jurisdiction for a stay of the suspension or prohibition pending completion of the proceedings pursuant to subdivision (b), and the court shall have power to stay the suspension or prohibition.

SEC. 14. The amendments to Section 8009 of the Financial Code made by Section 9 of this act shall apply prospectively only and shall not apply to any records or documents released by the Department of Savings and Loan prior to the effective date of this act.

SEC. 15. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to avoid further misinterpretation of provisions for conversion of savings associations that were enacted in 1988, as well as to clarify liquidity requirements for these associations, without delay, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 869

An act to amend Section 13127 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13127 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

13127. (a) Not later than December 31, 1985, the department shall identify 200 pesticide active ingredients which the department determines have the most significant data gaps, widespread use, and which are suspected to be hazardous to people. Not later than 30 days after the report issued pursuant to Section 13125, the department shall notify each registrant of a pesticide product containing any of the identified 200 pesticide active ingredients of the applicable data gap required to be filled pursuant to this section.

(b) Not later than December 31, 1985, the department shall also adopt a timetable for the filling of all data gaps on all pesticide active ingredients, other than those identified by the department pursuant to subdivision (a), which are currently registered or licensed in California. The department shall notify registrants of the applicable data gaps and the scheduled time to initiate and complete studies as provided in the timetable.

(c) (1) Not later than September 1, 1986, the department shall determine whether a test has been initiated to fill each of the data gaps for each pesticide active ingredient identified in subdivision (a). If no test has been initiated, the department shall fill data gaps in accordance with procedures provided in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 136a of Title 7 of the United States Code. In order to carry out this section, the director has the same authority to require information from registrants of active pesticide ingredients that the administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency has pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 136a of Title 7 of the United States Code. On or before July 1, 1986, the director shall, by regulation, prescribe procedures for resolving disputes or funding the filling of data gaps The procedures may include mediation and arbitration. The arbitration procedures, insofar as practical, shall be consistent with the federal act, or otherwise shall be in accordance with the commercial arbitration rules established by the American Arbitration Association. The procedures shall be established so as to resolve any dispute within the timetable established in subdivision (a) of Section 13127.

(2) The department shall also obtain the data which is identified in subdivision (b), according to the timetable and procedures specified in this section.

(d) (1) Not later than March 1, 1987, the director shall again determine whether tests have been initiated to fill each of the data gaps for each pesticide active ingredient identified in subdivision (a). If the tests have not been initiated or if, having been initiated, the tests are not completed within a reasonable time not to exceed four years, the director shall obtain the required test results. The director may utilize assessments charged to those registrants of the active ingredient for which the data gaps exist in amounts necessary to cover the department's expenses in filling the data gaps. Any assessments shall be made pursuant to Section 12824 of the Food and Agricultural Code. The director may also request an appropriation to be used in combination with assessments to obtain the required test results. The director shall initiate the tests as soon as possible, and the tests shall be completed within a reasonable time, not to exceed four years after initiation.

The director shall furnish not less than 30 days' public notice of any proposed action under this paragraph, stating the reasons therefor and allowing public comment thereon. Copies of this notice and final decision shall be provided to the appropriate committees of the Legislature.

(2) The director shall monitor compliance with the timetable established pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 13127. If the director determines that tests are not initiated or completed according to the timetable, the director shall obtain the required test results as provided in paragraph (1).

(3) The director shall review the timetable established by the Environmental Protection Agency for the accelerated registration program under amendments effective in 1989 to the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act (7 U.S.C. Sec. 135 et seq.).

(e) (1) This section does not apply to any product which the director determines has limited use or that substantial economic hardship would result to users due to unavailability of the product and there is not significant exposure to the public or workers and the product is otherwise in compliance with federal law.

(2) The director may not, pursuant to this subdivision, exempt all pesticide products containing the same pesticide active ingredient unless it is determined that the pesticide active ingredient has only limited use, there is insignificant exposure to workers or the public, and the products are otherwise in compliance with federal law. Any exemption issued pursuant to this paragraph shall expire at the end of three years after it is issued.

(f) (1) Whenever the director exercises the authority provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e), he or she shall give public notice of the action stating the reasons for exempting the pesticide product from the data requirements of this article. Copies of this notice shall be provided to the appropriate policy committees of the Legislature.

(2) Whenever the director acts pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), the director shall furnish not less than 30 days' public notice of the proposed action, stating the reasons for exempting the pesticide product from the data requirements of this article and allowing public comment thereon. Copies of the notice and the final decision shall be provided to the appropriate policy committees of the Legislature.

CHAPTER 870

An act to amend Section 602 of, and to add Section 602.8 to, the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 602 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

602. Notwithstanding Section 602.8, every person who willfully commits a trespass by any of the following acts is guilty of a misdemeanor:

(a) Cutting down, destroying, or injuring any kind of wood or timber standing or growing upon the lands of another.

(b) Carrying away any kind of wood or timber lying on those lands.

(c) Maliciously injuring or severing from the freehold of another anything attached to it, or its produce.

(d) Digging, taking, or carrying away from any lot situated within the limits of any incorporated city, without the license of the owner or legal occupant, any earth, soil, or stone.

(e) Digging, taking, or carrying away from land in any city or town laid down on the map or plan of the city, or otherwise recognized or established as a street, alley, avenue, or park, without the license of the proper authorities, any earth, soil, or stone.

(f) Maliciously tearing down, damaging, mutilating, or destroying any sign, signboard, or notice placed upon, or affixed to, any property belonging to the state, or to any city, county, city and county, town or village, or upon any property of any person, by the state or by an automobile association, which sign, signboard or notice is intended to indicate or designate a road, or a highway, or is intended to direct travelers from one point to another, or relates to fires, fire control, or any other matter involving the protection of the property, or putting up, affixing, fastening, printing, or painting upon any property belonging to the state, or to any city, county, town, or village, or dedicated to the public, or upon any property of any person, without license from the owner, any notice, advertisement, or designation of, or any name for any commodity, whether for sale or otherwise, or any picture, sign, or device intended to call attention to it.

(g) Entering upon any lands owned by any other person whereon oysters or other shellfish are planted or growing; or injuring, gathering, or carrying away any oysters or other shellfish planted, growing, or on any such lands, whether covered by water or not, without the license of the owner or legal occupant; or destroying or removing, or causing to be removed or destroyed, any stakes, marks, fences, or signs intended to designate the boundaries and limits of any such lands.

(h) Willfully opening, tearing down, or otherwise destroying any fence on the enclosed land of another, or opening any gate, bar, or fence of another and willfully leaving it open without the written permission of the owner, or maliciously tearing down, mutilating, or destroying any sign, signboard, or other notice forbidding shooting on private property.

(i) Building fires upon any lands owned by another where signs forbidding trespass are displayed at intervals not greater than one mile along the exterior boundaries and at all roads and trails entering the lands, without first having obtained written permission from the owner of the lands or the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession.

(j) Entering any lands, whether unenclosed or enclosed by fence, for the purpose of injuring any property or property rights or with the intention of interfering with, obstructing, or injuring any lawful business or occupation carried on by the owner of the land, the owner's agent or by the person in lawful possession.

(k) Entering any lands under cultivation or enclosed by fence, belonging to, or occupied by, another, or entering upon uncultivated or unenclosed lands where signs forbidding trespass are displayed at intervals not less than three to the mile along all exterior boundaries and at all roads and trails entering the lands without the written permission of the owner of the land, the owner's agent or of the person in lawful possession, and

(1) Refusing or failing to leave the lands immediately upon being requested by the owner of the land, the owner's agent or by the person in lawful possession to leave the lands, or

(2) Tearing down, mutilating, or destroying any sign, signboard, or notice forbidding trespass or hunting on the lands, or

(3) Removing, injuring, unlocking, or tampering with any lock on any gate on or leading into the lands, or

(4) Discharging any firearm.

(l) Entering and occupying real property or structures of any kind without the consent of the owner, the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession.

(m) Driving any vehicle, as defined in Section 670 of the Vehicle Code, upon real property belonging to or lawfully occupied by another and known not to be open to the general public, without the consent of the owner, the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession.

(n) Refusing or failing to leave land, real property, or structures belonging to or lawfully occupied by another and not open to the general public, upon being requested to leave by (1) a peace officer at the request of the owner, the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession, and upon being informed by the peace officer that he or she is acting at the request of the owner, the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession, or (2) the owner, the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession. The owner, the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession shall make a separate request to the peace officer on each occasion when the peace officer's assistance in dealing with a trespass is requested. However, a single request for a peace officer's assistance may be made to cover a limited period of time not to exceed 30 days and identified by specific dates, during which there is a fire hazard or the owner, owner's agent or person in lawful possession is absent from the premises or property. In addition, a single request for a peace officer's assistance may be made for a period not to exceed six months when the premises or property is closed to the public and posted as being closed. However, this subdivision shall not be applicable to persons engaged in lawful labor union activities which are permitted to be carried out on the property by the California Agricultural Labor Relations Act, Part 3.5 (commencing with Section 1140) of Division 2 of the Labor Code, or by the National Labor Relations Act. For purposes of this section, land, real property, or structures owned or operated by any housing authority for tenants as defined under Section 34213.5 of the Health and Safety Code constitutes property not open to the general public; however, this subdivision shall not apply to persons on the premises who are engaging in activities protected by the California or United States Constitution, or to persons who are on the premises at the request of a resident or management and who are not loitering or otherwise suspected of violating or actually violating any law or ordinance.

(o) Entering upon any lands declared closed to entry as provided in Section 4256 of the Public Resources Code, if the closed areas shall have been posted with notices declaring the closure, at intervals not greater than one mile along the exterior boundaries or along roads and trails passing through the lands.

(p) Refusing or failing to leave a public building of a public agency during those hours of the day or night when the building is regularly closed to the public upon being requested to do so by a regularly employed guard, watchman, or custodian of the public agency owning or maintaining the building or property, if the surrounding circumstances are such as to indicate to a reasonable person that the person has no apparent lawful business to pursue.

(q) Knowingly skiing in an area or on a ski trail which is closed to the public and which has signs posted indicating the closure.

(r) Refusing or failing to leave a hotel or motel, where he or she has obtained accommodations and has refused to pay for those accommodations, upon request of the proprietor or manager, and the occupancy is exempt, pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1940 of the Civil Code, from Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1940) of Title 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code.

(s) Entering upon private property, including contiguous land, real property, or structures thereon belonging to the same owner, whether or not generally open to the public, after having been informed by a peace officer at the request of the owner, the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession, and upon being informed by the peace officer that he or she is acting at the request of the owner, the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession, that the property is not open to the particular person; or refusing or failing to leave the property upon being asked to leave the property in the manner provided in this subdivision.

This subdivision shall apply only to a person who has been convicted of a violent felony, as specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, committed upon the particular private property. A single notification or request to the person as set forth above shall be valid and enforceable under this subdivision unless and until rescinded by the owner, the owner's agent, or the person in lawful possession of the property.

SEC. 2. Section 602.8 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

602.8. (a) Any person who without the written permission of the landowner, the owner's agent or of the person in lawful possession of the land, willfully enters any lands under cultivation or enclosed by fence, belonging to, or occupied by, another, or who willfully enters upon uncultivated or unenclosed lands where signs forbidding trespass are displayed at intervals not less than three to the mile along all exterior boundaries and at all roads and trails entering the lands, is guilty of an infraction or a misdemeanor.

(b) Any person convicted of a violation of subdivision (a) shall be punished as follows:

(1) For a first offense, punished as an infraction by a fine of ten dollars ($10).

(2) For a second offense on any contiguous land of the same owner, punished as an infraction by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(3) For a third or subsequent offense on any contiguous land of the same owner, by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both.

(c) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any of the following:

(1) Any person engaged in lawful labor union activities which are permitted to be carried out on property by the California Agricultural Labor Relations Act, Part 3.5 (commencing with Section 1140) of Division 2 of the Labor Code, or by the National Labor Relations Act.

(2) Any person on the premises who is engaging in activities protected by the California or United States Constitution.

(3) Any person described in Section 22350 of the Business and Professions Code who is making a lawful service of process.

(d) For any infraction charged pursuant to this section, the defendant shall have the option to forfeit bail in lieu of making a court appearance. Notwithstanding subdivision (e) of Section 853.6, if the offender elects to forfeit bail pursuant to this subdivision, no further proceedings shall be had in the case.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 871

An act to add Section 25355.6 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1 Section 25355.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25355.6. (a) The State Water Resources Control Board or a California regional water quality control board which has jurisdiction over a hazardous substance release site pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code may refer the site to the department as a candidate for listing pursuant to Section 25356. After determining that the site meets the criteria adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25356, the department may place the site on the list of sites subject to this chapter and establish its priority ranking pursuant to Section 25356.

(b) If a hazardous substance release site is referred to the department and is listed pursuant to subdivision (a), the department may expend money from the state account or the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund for removal or remedial action at the site, upon appropriation by the Legislature, without first issuing an order or entering into an agreement pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 25355.5, if all of the following apply:

(1) The State Water Resources Control Board or a California regional water quality control board has issued either a cease and desist order pursuant to Section 13301 of the Water Code or a cleanup and abatement order pursuant to Section 13304 of the Water Code to the potentially responsible party for the site.

(2) The State Water Resources Control Board or the California regional water quality control board has made a final finding that the potentially responsible party has not complied with the order issued pursuant to paragraph (1).

(3) The State Water Resources Control Board or the California regional water quality control board has notified the potentially responsible party of the determination made pursuant to paragraph (2) and that the hazardous substance release site has been referred to the department pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) If a hazardous substance release site is referred to the department pursuant to subdivision (a), and the department makes either of the following determinations, the department shall notify the appropriate California regional water quality control board and the State Water Resources Control Board:

(1) The department determines that the site does not meet the criteria established pursuant to subdivision (a) and the site cannot be placed, pursuant to Section 25356, on the list of sites subject to this chapter.

(2) The department determines that a removal or remedial action at the site will not commence for a period of one year from the date of listing due to a lack of funds or the low priority of the site.

(d) If a California regional water resources control board or the State Water Resources Control Board receives a notice pursuant to subdivision (c), the regional board or state board may take any further action concerning the hazardous substance release site which the regional board or state board determines to be necessary or feasible, and which is authorized by this chapter or Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code.

CHAPTER 872

An act to add Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 89070.10) to Chapter 1 of Part 55 of the Education Code, relating to education, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

I am deleting the $119,500 appropriation contained in Section 3 of Assembly Bill No. 2240

This bill would make the California Mathematics Diagnostic Testing Program (MDTP) independent from the California Academic Partnership Program (CAPP), establish an advisory committee for the MDTP, and appropriate $119,500 from the General Fund for the purposes of the program

The demands placed on budget resources require all of us to set priorities With legislation I will be signing and the budget enacted in July 1989, more than $50 billion in state funds will be appropriated this fiscal year. This amount is more than adequate to provide the necessary essential services provided for by State Government. It is not necessary to put additional pressure on taxpayer funds for programs that fall beyond the priorities currently provided.

It is more appropriate to consider funding the provisions of this bill during the budget process for Fiscal Year 1990-91 Only at that time can we review the relative merits of this program in comparison to all other funding projects The budget process enables us to weigh all demands on the state's revenues and direct our resources to programs, either new or existing, that have the most merit

With this deletion, I approve Assmbly Bill No. 2240

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the California Academic Partnership Program has been successful in preparing secondary school students for higher education and that a major effort of the California Academic Partnership Program has been the Mathematics Diagnostic Testing Program. It is the intent of the Legislature to separate the Mathematics Diagnostic Testing Program from the California Academic Partnership Program in order to allow both successful programs to operate independently, expand, and meet all of the goals for which they were established.

SEC. 2. Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 89070.10) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 55 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 3.5. California Mathematics Diagnostic Testing Program

89070.10. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this chapter to establish a program which will identify skills and knowledge necessary for success at various levels of college preparatory mathematics and to ensure that each public school pupil who can benefit from this program shall have access thereto. The program shall provide timely diagnostic assessments to both teachers and pupils indicating in which areas of mathematics pupils and classes are adequately prepared and in which areas further study is necessary.

89070.15. The California Mathematics Diagnostic Testing Program is hereby established. The Trustees of the California State University shall administer the program and in so doing shall cooperate with the University of California, the California Community Colleges, and the State Department of Education.

89070.20. The trustees shall do all of the following:

(a) Develop assessment materials and diagnostic services which are designed to assess pupils' knowledge and skills in the area of mathematics and which are consistent with the Mathematics Framework for California Public Schools and the expectations of postsecondary education.

(b) Make these materials and services available to mathematics faculty members of the public school system, who request them.

(c) Provide opportunities for mathematics faculty of high schools operated by school districts throughout California, especially those at junior and senior high schools which have low student participation or achievement in postsecondary education, to work with postsecondary faculty to consider their pupils' diagnostic results.

89070.25. In developing this system, the trustees shall ensure that the use of these assessment instruments and diagnostic services assist in all of the following.

(a) Contributing to secondary school pupils' preparation for postsecondary education.

(b) Reducing the demand for remedial programs in mathematics at the postsecondary level.

(c) Complementing and supplementing other assessment efforts, including, but not limited to, the California Assessment Program, and the Golden State Examination, by making available to pupils, parents, faculty, and the advisory committee careful analyses of pupils' readiness for work in college preparatory mathematics.

(d) Providing individual pupils with detailed information about their levels of preparedness in areas of mathematics needed for success in further college-preparatory or beginning level college mathematics.

(e) Helping teachers and departments examine the effectiveness of existing courses in preparing pupils for further mathematics study.

(f) Encouraging appropriate use of these instruments in schools with low student participation in postsecondary education.

(g) Ensuring that public schools located in all areas of the state, including rural, urban, and suburban have access to program services.

(h) Establishing networks between secondary and postsecondary mathematics faculty to address curricular issues, including but not limited to, mathematics prerequisites for success in college.

89070.30. An intersegmental advisory committee is hereby established to make recommendations to the trustees regarding the policies, organization, and operations of the California Mathematics Diagnostic Testing Program, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(a) Developing a general policy for the diagnostic assessment of secondary pupils which is directly related to the skills and knowledge needed for success in college level mathematics and which is consistent with the Mathematics Framework for California Public Schools and the expectations of postsecondary education.

(b) Developing criteria for determining program direction.

(c) Developing criteria for program evaluation which shall include, but shall not be limited to, determining whether there is an increase in the number of students taking advanced college preparatory mathematics courses, and determining whether there is an improvement in California Assessment Program, Golden State Examination, and other assessment scores.

(d) Developing criteria for ensuring that all public schools throughout the state have access to program services, and ensuring, as a primary objective, participation by those schools with low student enrollment in postsecondary education.

(e) Identifying additional resources and efforts which promote the objectives of the program.

89070.35. (a) The intersegmental advisory committee shall consist of the following members:

(1) Two members, one of whom shall be a mathematics faculty member, appointed by each of the following:

(A) The Chancellor of the California State University.

(B) The President of the University of California, if he or she chooses to serve as a member.

(C) The Chancellor of the California Community Colleges.

(D) The Superintendent of Public Instruction.

(2) One member appointed by each of the following:

(A) The Chair of the Association of Independent California Colleges and Universities.

(B) The Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission.

(C) The Chair of the California Academic Partnership Program Advisory Committee.

(D) The Director of the California Mathematics Project.

(b) The intersegmental advisory committee may recommend that the trustees increase its size by the appointment of public, corporate, or other members.

89070.40. The Trustees of the California State University shall work with the University of California, the California Postsecondary Education Commission, and the advisory committee to develop a comprehensive program evaluation. This evaluation shall be conducted in 1993, and every three years thereafter to determine the success of the program.

89070.45. It is the intent of the Legislature that the California State University allocate the sum of four hundred eighty-four thousand one hundred dollars ($484,100) to the California Academic Partnership Program in the 1989–90 fiscal year for the purposes of the Mathematics Diagnostic Testing Program. It is further the intent of the Legislature that this amount be allocated to the Mathematics Diagnostic Testing Program as established by this article, and that funding appropriated in the article that adds this act supplement and not supplant the funding allocated to that program.

SEC. 3. The sum of one hundred nineteen thousand five hundred dollars ($119,500) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Trustees of the California State University for the purposes of this act for allocation as follows:

(a) Sixty-nine thousand five hundred dollars ($69,500) for expansion of the Mathematics Diagnostic Testing Program.

(b) Fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) for duties of the intersegmental advisory committee pursuant to Section 89070.30 of the Education Code.

(c) Thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) for the program evaluation pursuant to Section 89070.40 of the Education Code.

CHAPTER 873

An act to amend Section 1167 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to forcible entry and detainer.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1167 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1167. The summons shall be in the form specified in Section 412.20 except that when the defendant is served, the defendant's response shall be filed within five days, including Saturdays and Sundays but excluding all other judicial holidays, after the complaint is served upon him or her. If the last day for filing the response falls on a Saturday or Sunday, the response period shall be extended to and including the next court day.

In all other respects the summons shall be issued and served and returned in the same manner as a summons in a civil action.

CHAPTER 874

An act to amend Section 25503.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous materials.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25503.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25503.5. (a) Any business, except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), which handles a hazardous material or a mixture containing a hazardous material which has a quantity at any one time during the reporting year equal to, or greater than, a total weight of 500 pounds, or a total volume of 55 gallons, or 200 cubic feet at standard temperature and pressure for compressed gas, shall establish and implement a business plan for emergency response to a release or threatened release of a hazardous material in accordance with the standards in the regulations adopted pursuant to Section 25503.

(b) Oxygen and nitrous oxide, ordinarily maintained by a physician, dentist, podiatrist, veterinarian, or pharmacist, at his or her office or place of business, stored at each office or place of business in quantities of not more than 1,000 cubic feet of each material at any one time, are exempt from this section and from

Section 25505. The administering agency may require a one-time inventory of these materials for a fee not to exceed fifty dollars ($50) to pay for the costs incurred by the agency in processing the inventory forms.

(c) (1) Hazardous material contained solely in a consumer product for direct distribution to, and use by, the general public is exempt from the business plan requirements of this chapter unless the administering agency has found, and has provided notice to the business handling the product, that the handling of certain quantities of the product requires the submission of a business plan, or any portion thereof, in response to public health, safety, or environmental concerns.

(2) In addition to the authority specified in paragraph (4), the administering agency may, in exceptional circumstances, following notice and public hearing, exempt from the inventory provisions of this chapter any hazardous substance specified in subdivision (k) of Section 25501, if the administering agency finds that the hazardous substance would not pose a present or potential danger to the environment or to human health and safety if the hazardous substance was released into the environment. The administering agency shall specify in writing the basis for granting any exemption under this paragraph. The administering agency shall send a notice to the office within five days of the effective date of any exemption granted pursuant to this paragraph.

(3) The administering agency, upon application by a handler, may, exempt a handler under the conditions it deems proper from any portion of the business plan upon a written finding that the exemption would not pose a significant present or potential hazard to human health or safety or to the environment or affect the ability of the administering agency and emergency rescue personnel to effectively respond to the release of a hazardous material, and that there are unusual circumstances justifying this exemption. The administering agency shall specify in writing the basis for any exemption under this paragraph.

(4) The administering agency upon application by a handler may exempt a hazardous material from the inventory provisions of this chapter upon proof that the material does not pose a significant present or potential hazard to human health and safety or to the environment if released into the workplace or environment. The administering agency shall specify in writing the basis for any exemption under this paragraph.

(5) An administering agency shall exempt a business operating a farm for purposes of cultivating the soil or raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity from filing the information in the business plan required by subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 25504 if all of the following requirements are met:

(A) The handler annually provides the inventory of information required by Section 25509 to the county agricultural commissioner before January 1 of each year.

(B) Each building in which hazardous materials subject to this chapter are stored is posted with signs, in accordance with regulations which the office shall adopt, which provide notice of the storage of any of the following:

(i) Pesticides.

(ii) Petroleum fuels and oil.

(iii) Types of fertilizers.

(C) Each county agricultural commissioner forwards the inventory to the administering agency within 30 days after receiving the inventory.

(d) The administering agency shall provide all information obtained from completed inventory forms, upon request, to emergency rescue personnel on a 24-hour basis.

(e) The administering agency shall adopt procedures to provide for public input when approving any applications submitted pursuant to paragraph (3) or (4) of subdivision (c).

CHAPTER 875

An act to amend Sections 18008, 18062.2, and 18063 of, and to add Sections 18052.6 and 18052.7 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to mobilehomes-manufactured housing, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18008 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18008. "Mobilehome," for the purposes of this part, means either of the following:

(a) A structure transportable under permit in one or more sections, designed and equipped to contain not more than two dwelling units to be used with or without a foundation system.

(b) A structure transportable under permit in one or more sections, designed to be used with a foundation system for any of the following purposes:

(1) Three or more dwelling units, as defined by Section 18003.3.

(2) As a dormitory. A "dormitory" shall mean a room or rooms inhabited for the purposes of temporary residence by two or more persons.

(3) A residential hotel, as defined by paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 50519.

(4) Efficiency units, as defined by Section 17958.1.

Mobilehome does not include a recreational vehicle, commercial coach, or factory-built housing, as defined in Section 19971. The handicap accessibility and adaptability requirements of Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations applicable to dormitories, hotels, and apartment houses shall be applicable to mobilehomes constructed for those purposes.

SEC. 2. Section 18052.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

18052.6. (a) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this chapter, the department may, on a one-time-only basis, issue a 90-day certificate to an applicant for an original salesperson's license. The certificate shall permit that person to exercise the privileges granted by the license for a period not to exceed 90 days from the date of issuance. Any person, while acting under the authority of the 90-day certificate, shall not execute any documents, contracts, or listing agreements, or accept any cash or cash equivalent, for the sale or lease of a new or used manufactured home.

(b) Prior to the expiration of the 90-day certificate, the holder shall complete all other requirements prescribed under this chapter, in order to continue as a salesperson past the expiration date of the 90-day certificate.

(c) The department may restrict or condition the 90-day certificate, and attach to the exercise of the privileges thereunder, those terms and conditions as it determines are necessary for the protection of the public.

(d) The department may establish a fee to cover the costs for the issuance of the 90-day certificate.

(e) The department shall report to the Legislature the number of 90-day certificates issued and the name and address of the employing dealer of the salesperson holding the certificate during the year 1990.

SEC. 3. Section 18052.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

18052.7. No dealer shall employ more than three salespersons licensed pursuant to a 90-day certificate at his or her established place of business at any one time. In the case where a dealer has more than one established place of business, the dealer may employ up to three salespersons licensed pursuant to a 90-day certificate at each place of business. If a dealer employs a salesperson licensed pursuant to a 90-day certificate, the dealer shall designate a responsible managing employee who shall directly supervise those salespersons at each established place of business at which they are employed. The dealer shall bear full legal responsibility for all actions of employed salespersons licensed pursuant to a 90-day certificate.

SEC. 4. Section 18062.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18062.2. It is also unlawful for a dealer to do any of the following:

(a) Engage in the business for which the dealer is licensed without at all times maintaining an established place of business.

(b) Employ any person as a salesperson who is not licensed pursuant to this part, or whose license or 90-day certificate is not displayed on the premises of the dealer as provided in Section 18063.

(c) Permit the use of his or her dealer's license, supplies, or books by any other person for the purpose of permitting that person to engage in the sale of manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or commercial coaches, or to permit the use of the dealer's license, supplies, or books to operate a branch or secondary location to be used by any other person, if, in either situation, the licensee has no financial or equitable interest or investment in the manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or commercial coaches sold by, or the business of, or branch or secondary location used by, the person, or has no such interest or investment other than commissions, compensations, fees, or any other thing of value received for the use of the dealer's license, supplies, or books to engage in the sale of manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or commercial coaches.

(d) Advertise any specific manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach for sale without identifying the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach by its serial number or by the number on its federal label or insignia of approval issued by the department.

(e) Advertise the total price of a manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach without including all costs to the purchaser at time of delivery at the dealer's premises, except sales tax, title and registration fees, finance charges, and any dealer documentary preparation charge. The dealer documentary preparation charge shall not exceed twenty dollars ($20).

(f) Exclude from the advertisement of a manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach for sale information to the effect that there will be added to the advertised total price at the time of sale, charges for sales tax, title and registration fees, escrow fees, and any dealer documentary preparation charge.

(g) Represent the dealer documentary preparation charge as a governmental fee.

(h) Refuse to sell the manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach to any person at the advertised total price for that manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach, exclusive of sales tax, title fee, finance charges, and dealer documentary preparation charge, which charge shall not exceed twenty dollars ($20), while it remains unsold, unless the advertisement states the advertised total price is good only for a specified time and that time has elapsed.

(i) Not post the salesperson's license in a place conspicuous to the public on the premises where they are actually engaged in the selling of manufactured homes, mobilehomes, and commercial coaches for the employing dealer. The license shall be displayed continuously during their employment. If a salesperson's employment is terminated, the dealer shall return the license to the salesperson.

(j) Offer for sale, rent, or lease within this state a new manufactured home, mobilehome, or commercial coach whose manufacturer is not licensed under this part.

(k) To violate Section 798.71 or 798.74 of the Civil Code, or both.

SEC. 5. Section 18063 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18063. It is unlawful for a salesperson to do any of the following:

(a) At the time of employment, not deliver to his or her employing dealer his or her salesperson's license or 90-day certificate.

(b) Fail to report in writing to the department every change of residence within five days of the change.

(c) Act or attempt to act as a salesperson while not employed by a dealer. For purposes of this subdivision, "employment by a dealer" means employment reported to the department pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 18060.

(d) To violate Section 798.71 or 798.74 of the Civil Code, or both.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 876

An act to amend Sections 301, 303, and 708 of, and to add Section 301.5 to, the Corporations Code, relating to corporations.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 301 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

301. (a) Except as provided in Section 301.5, at each annual meeting of shareholders, directors shall be elected to hold office until the next annual meeting. However, to effectuate a voting shift (Section 194.7) the articles may provide that directors hold office for a shorter term. The articles may provide for the election of one or more directors by the holders of the shares of any class or series voting as a class or series.

(b) Each director, including a director elected to fill a vacancy, shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which elected and until a successor has been elected and qualified.

SEC. 2. Section 301.5 is added to the Corporations Code, to read:

301.5. (a) A listed corporation may, by amendment of its articles or bylaws, adopt provisions to divide the board of directors into two or three classes to serve for terms of two or three years respectively, or to eliminate cumulative voting, or both. After the issuance of shares, a corporation which is not a listed corporation may, by amendment of its articles or bylaws, adopt provisions to be effective when the corporation becomes a listed corporation to divide the board of directors into two or three classes to serve for terms of two or three years respectively, or to eliminate cumulative voting, or both. An article or bylaw amendment providing for division of the board of directors into classes, or any change in the number of classes, or the elimination of cumulative voting may only be adopted by the approval of the board and the outstanding shares (Section 152) voting as a single class, notwithstanding Section 903.

(b) If the board of directors is divided into two classes pursuant to subdivision (a), the authorized number of directors shall be no less than six and one-half of the directors or as close an approximation as possible shall be elected at each annual meeting of shareholders. If the board of directors is divided into three classes, the authorized number of directors shall be no less than nine and one-third of the directors or as close an approximation as possible shall be elected at each annual meeting of shareholders. Directors of a listed corporation may be elected by classes at a meeting of shareholders at which an amendment to the articles or bylaws described in subdivision (a) is approved, but the extended terms for directors are contingent on that approval, and in the case of an amendment to the articles, the filing of any necessary amendment to the articles pursuant to Section 905 or 910.

(c) If directors for more than one class are to be elected by the shareholders at any one meeting of shareholders and the election is by cumulative voting pursuant to Section 708, votes may be cumulated only for directors to be elected within each class.

(d) For purposes of this section, a "listed corporation" means any of the following:

(1) A corporation with outstanding shares listed on the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange.

(2) A corporation with outstanding securities designated as qualified for trading as a national market system security on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automatic Quotation System (or any successor national market system) if the corporation has at least 800 holders of its equity securities as of the record date of the corporation's most recent annual meeting of shareholders. For purposes of determining the number of holders of a corporation's equity securities under this paragraph, there shall be included, in addition to the number of recordholders reflected on the corporation's stock records, the number of holders of the equity securities held in the name of any nominee holder which furnishes the corporation with a certification equivalent to the certification permitted by subdivision (a) of Section 2115, provided, that the corporation retains the certification with the record of shareholders and makes the certification available for inspection and copying in the same manner as provided in Section 1600.

(e) If an article amendment referred to in subdivision (a) is adopted by a listed corporation, the certificate of amendment shall include a statement of the facts showing that the corporation is a listed corporation within the meaning of subdivision (d). If an article or bylaw amendment referred to in subdivision (a) is adopted by a corporation which is not a listed corporation, the provision as adopted, shall include the following the statement or the substantial equivalent of: "This provision shall become effective only when the corporation becomes a listed corporation within the meaning of Section 301.5 of the Corporations Code."

SEC. 3. Section 303 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

303. (a) Any or all of the directors may be removed without cause if the removal is approved by the outstanding shares (Section 152), subject to the following:

(1) Except for a corporation to which paragraph (3) is applicable, no director may be removed (unless the entire board is removed) when the votes cast against removal, or not consenting in writing to the removal, would be sufficient to elect the director if voted cumulatively at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast (or, if the action is taken by written consent, all shares entitled to vote were voted) and the entire number of directors authorized at the time of the director's most recent election were then being elected.

(2) When by the provisions of the articles the holders of the shares of any class or series, voting as a class or series, are entitled to elect one or more directors, any director so elected may be removed only by the applicable vote of the holders of the shares of that class or series.

(3) A director of a corporation whose board of directors is classified pursuant to Section 301.5 may not be removed if the votes cast against removal of the director, or not consenting in writing to the removal, would be sufficient to elect the director if voted cumulatively (without regard to whether shares may otherwise be voted cumulatively) at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast (or, if the action is taken by written consent, all shares entitled to vote were voted) and either the number of directors elected at the most recent annual meeting of shareholders, or if greater, the number of directors for whom removal is being sought, were then being elected.

(b) Any reduction of the authorized number of directors or amendment reducing the number of classes of directors does not remove any director prior to the expiration of the director's term of office.

(c) Except as provided in this section and Sections 302 and 304, a director may not be removed prior to the expiration of the director's term of office.

SEC. 4. Section 708 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

708. (a) Except as provided in Section 301.5, every shareholder complying with subdivision (b) and entitled to vote at any election of directors may cumulate such shareholder's votes and give one candidate a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of votes to which the shareholder's shares are normally entitled, or distribute the shareholder's votes on the same principle among as many candidates as the shareholder thinks fit.

(b) No shareholder shall be entitled to cumulate votes (i.e., cast for any candidate a number of votes greater than the number of votes which such shareholder normally is entitled to cast) unless such candidate or candidates' names have been placed in nomination prior to the voting and the shareholder has given notice at the meeting prior to the voting of the shareholder's intention to cumulate the shareholder's votes. If any one shareholder has given such notice, all shareholders may cumulate their votes for candidates in nomination.

(c) In any election of directors, the candidates receiving the highest number of affirmative votes of the shares entitled to be voted for them up to the number of directors to be elected by such shares are elected; votes against the director and votes withheld shall have no legal effect.

(d) Subdivision (a) applies to the shareholders of any mutual water company organized or existing for the purpose of delivering water to its shareholders at cost on lands located within the boundaries of one or more reclamation districts now or hereafter legally existing in this state and created by or formed under the provisions of any statute of this state, but does not otherwise apply to the shareholders of mutual water companies unless their articles or bylaws so provide.

(e) Elections for directors need not be by ballot unless a shareholder demands election by ballot at the meeting and before the voting begins or unless the bylaws so require.

CHAPTER 877

An act relating to education, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The State Allocation Board shall contract with the Office of the State Architect to study and develop recommendations for facilitating the computerization of classrooms in public schools for kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive. The study shall examine the viability of including specific structural support systems for advanced technology as part of the standards for the new construction of public educational facilities.

SEC. 2. The study shall include, but need not be limited to, an assessment of the feasibility and desirability of all of the following:

(a) An interstitial floor structure to facilitate a cabling system throughout the building.

(1) The interstitial floor structure and cabling system shall, to the extent feasible, accommodate foreseeable changes in computer, audio, and video technology.

(2) Plans for the new educational construction shall include research into technological advances in computers, audio, and video to make allowances as needed in educational construction plans.

(b) A cabling system laid out to support at least one outlet on each wall of all classrooms, library media centers, and offices.

(c) Each outlet capable of supporting the power, audio, video, and information transfer needs of a minimum of one computer terminal and monitor per classroom, library media center, or office, one video display set for class viewing per classroom, and one video cassette recorder per classroom.

(d) State of the art protection of the equipment from power interruptions, power surges, and problems of static electricity.

SEC. 3. On or before January 1, 1991, the Office of the State Architect shall provide to the Legislature a report of the findings, including recommendations for modifications to the standards for the new construction of public educational facilities.

If appropriate, the State Allocation Board shall adopt these standards as part of the requirements for the new construction of educational facilities.

SEC. 4. The sum of seventy thousand dollars ($70,000) is hereby appropriated from the State School Building Lease-Purchase Fund to the State Allocation Board for the purpose of contracting with the Office of the State Architect to conduct the study with respect to public educational facilities, as specified in Section 2.

CHAPTER 878

An act to amend Sections 626 and 626.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to minors.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 626 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

626. An officer who takes a minor into temporary custody under the provisions of Section 625 may do any of the following:

(a) Release the minor.

(b) Deliver or refer the minor to a public or private agency with which the city or county has an agreement or plan to provide shelter care, counseling, or diversion services to minors so delivered.

(c) Prepare in duplicate a written notice to appear before the probation officer of the county in which the minor was taken into custody at a time and place specified in the notice. The notice shall also contain a concise statement of the reasons the minor was taken into custody. The officer shall deliver one copy of the notice to the minor or to a parent, guardian, or responsible relative of the minor and may require the minor or the minor's parent, guardian, or relative, or both, to sign a written promise to appear at the time and place designated in the notice. Upon the execution of the promise to appear, the officer shall immediately release the minor. The officer shall, as soon as practicable, file one copy of the notice with the probation officer.

(d) Take the minor without unnecessary delay before the probation officer of the county in which the minor was taken into custody, or in which the minor resides, or in which the acts take place or the circumstances exist which are alleged to bring the minor within the provisions of Section 601 or 602, and deliver the custody of the minor to the probation officer. The peace officer shall prepare a concise written statement of the probable cause for taking the minor into temporary custody and the reasons the minor was taken into custody and shall provide the statement to the probation officer at the time the minor is delivered to the probation officer. In no case shall the officer delay the delivery of the minor to the probation officer for more than 24 hours if the minor has been taken into custody without a warrant on the belief that the minor has committed a misdemeanor.

In determining which disposition of the minor to make, the officer shall prefer the alternative which least restricts the minor's freedom of movement, provided that alternative is compatible with the best interests of the minor and the community.

SEC. 2 Section 626.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

626.5. If an officer who takes a minor into temporary custody under the provisions of Section 625 determines that the minor should be brought to the attention of the juvenile court, he or she shall thereafter take one of the following actions:

(a) He or she may prepare in duplicate a written notice to appear before the probation officer of the county in which the minor was taken in custody at a time and place specified in the notice. The notice shall also contain a concise statement of the reasons the minor was taken into custody. The officer shall deliver one copy of the notice to the minor or to a parent, guardian, or responsible relative of the minor and may require the minor or his or her parent, guardian, or relative, or both, to sign a written promise that either or both will appear at the time and place designated in the notice. Upon the execution of the promise to appear, the officer shall immediately release the minor. The officer shall, as soon as practicable, file one copy of the notice with the probation officer.

(b) He or she may take the minor without unnecessary delay before the probation officer of the county in which the minor was taken into custody, or in which the minor resides, or in which the acts took place or the circumstances exist which are alleged to bring the minor within the provisions of Section 601 or 602, and deliver the custody of the minor to the probation officer. The peace officer shall prepare a concise written statement of the probable cause for taking the minor into temporary custody and the reasons the minor was taken into custody and shall provide that statement to the probation officer at the time the minor is delivered to the probation officer. In no case shall he or she delay the delivery of the minor to the probation officer for more than 24 hours if the minor has been taken into custody without a warrant on the belief that he or she has committed a misdemeanor.

In determining which disposition of the minor he or she will make, the officer shall prefer the alternative which least restricts the minor's freedom of movement, provided that alternative is compatible with the best interests of the minor and the community.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Sections 6258 and 6258.1 to the Penal Code, relating to correctional facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6258 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

6258. (a) The Director of Corrections may contract for the establishment and operation of separate community correctional reentry centers for men and women, provided that the per-inmate cost for operating these facilities under contract will be less than the per-inmate cost of maintaining custody of the inmates by the department.

(b) The purpose of the community correctional reentry center is to provide an enhancement program to increase the likelihood of a successful parole. The objective of the program is to make the inmates aware of their responsibility to society, and to assist the inmates with educational and employment training to ensure employability once on parole.

(c) A community correctional reentry center shall prepare the inmate for reintegration into society. These centers shall provide counseling in the areas of drug and alcohol abuse, stress, employment skills, victim awareness, and shall, in general, prepare the inmate for return to society. The program shall also emphasize literacy training and utilize computer-supported training so that the inmate can read and write at least at a ninth grade level.

(d) In awarding contracts pursuant to this section, the director may entertain proposals for the establishment and operation of community correctional reentry centers from public and private entities and shall give preference to community correctional reentry centers located near large population centers.

SEC. 2. Section 6258.1 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

6258.1. No inmate shall be transferred to a community correctional reentry facility unless all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The inmate applies for a transfer to a community correctional reentry facility.

(b) The inmate is not currently serving a sentence for conviction of any offense described in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5.

(c) The inmate has less than 120 days left to serve in a correctional facility.

(d) The inmate has not been convicted previously of an escape pursuant to Section 4532 of the Penal Code.

(e) The department determines that the inmate would benefit from the transfer.

CHAPTER 880

An act to amend Section 10015 of, and to amend, add, and repeal Section 10005 of, the Financial Code, relating to financial institutions.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10005 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

10005. For the purposes of this article and any other law of this state prohibiting, limiting, or regulating the doing of business or the selling, taking, or solicitation of savings accounts in this state by foreign savings associations or foreign corporations, any foreign savings association subject to state or federal supervision, which by law is subject to periodic examination by that supervisory authority and to a requirement of periodic audit, and any broker-dealer registered in accordance with the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and any partner, officer, director, branch manager, or person performing similar functions, and employees of that broker-dealer, shall not be considered to be doing business or selling, taking, or soliciting savings accounts in this state by reason of engaging in any of the following:

(a) Any of the activities specified in subdivision (d) of Section 191 of the Corporations Code.

(b) The advertising or solicitation of savings accounts in this state through the media of the mail, radio, television, magazines, newspapers, or any other media that are published or circulated within this state, provided that the advertising or solicitation as a whole is accurate and does not create a misleading impression even though statements considered separately are literally accurate.

(c) The offering by a registered broker-dealer of, or the placement by a registered broker-dealer of a customer's funds into, a savings account at a federally insured foreign savings association chartered under the laws of a state in which broker-dealers make available savings accounts of associations chartered under the laws of this state, provided that any advertising, offering material, or solicitation as a whole is accurate and does not create a misleading impression even though statements considered separately are literally accurate.

(d) This section shall be repealed on January 1, 1992.

SEC. 2. Section 10005 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

10005. (a) For the purposes of this article and any other law of this state prohibiting, limiting, or regulating the doing of business in this state by foreign savings associations or foreign corporations, any foreign savings association subject to state or federal supervision, which by law is subject to periodic examination by that supervisory authority and to a requirement of periodic audit, shall not be considered to be doing business in this state by reason of engaging in the following:

(1) Any of the activities specified in subdivision (d) of Section 191 of the Corporations Code.

(2) The advertising or solicitation of savings accounts in this state through the media of the mail, radio, television, magazines, newspapers, or any other media that are published or circulated within this state, provided that the advertising or solicitation as a whole is accurate and does not create a misleading impression even though statements considered separately are literally accurate.

(b) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1992.

SEC. 3. Section 10015 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

10015. For the purposes of this article and any other law of this state prohibiting, limiting, or regulating the doing of business or the selling, taking, or solicitation of savings accounts in this state by foreign savings associations or foreign corporations, any foreign savings association subject to state or federal supervision, which by law is subject to periodic examination by that supervisory authority and to a requirement of periodic audit, and any broker-dealer registered in accordance with the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and any partner, officer, director, branch manager, or person performing similar functions, and employee of that broker-dealer, shall not be considered to be doing business or selling, taking, or soliciting savings accounts in this state by reason of engaging in any of the following:

(a) Any of the activities specified in subdivision (d) of Section 191 of the Corporations Code.

(b) The advertising or solicitation of savings accounts in this state through the media of the mail, radio, television, magazines, newspapers, or any other media that are published or circulated within this state, provided that the advertising or solicitation as a whole is accurate and does not create a misleading impression even though statements considered separately are literally accurate.

(c) The offering by a registered broker-dealer of, or the placement by a registered broker-dealer of a customer's funds into, a savings account at a federally insured foreign savings association chartered under the laws of a state in which broker-dealers make available savings accounts of associations chartered under the laws of this state, provided that any advertising, offering material, or solicitation as a whole is accurate and does not create a misleading impression even though statements considered separately are literally accurate.

An act to amend Section 33334.3 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to redevelopment.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33334.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33334.3. (a) The funds which are required by Section 33334.2 or 33334.6 to be used for the purposes of increasing and improving the community's supply of low- and moderate-income housing shall be held in a separate Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund until used.

(b) Any interest earned by the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund and any repayments or other income to the agency for loans, advances, or grants, of any kind, from the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund, shall accrue to, and be deposited in, the fund and may only be used in the manner prescribed for the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund.

(c) The moneys in the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund shall be used to increase, improve, and preserve the supply of low- and moderate-income housing within the territorial jurisdiction of the agency.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund be used to the maximum extent possible to defray the costs of production, improvement, and preservation of low- and moderate-income housing and that the amount of money spent for planning and general administrative activities associated with the development, improvement, or preservation of that housing not be disproportionate to the amount actually spent for the costs of production, improvement, or preservation of that housing.

(e) The requirements of this subdivision apply to all new or substantially rehabilitated housing units developed or otherwise assisted, with moneys from the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund, pursuant to an agreement approved by an agency on or after January 1, 1988. Except to the extent a longer period of time may be required by other provisions of law, the agency shall require that housing units subject to this subdivision shall remain available at affordable housing costs to persons and families of low or moderate income and very low income households for the longest feasible time, but for not less than the following periods of time, except as provided in Section 33334.13.

(1) Fifteen years for rental units. However, the agency may replace rental units with equally affordable and comparable rental units in another location within the community if (A) the replacement units are available for occupancy prior to the displacement of any persons and families of low or moderate income residing in the units to be replaced and (B) the comparable replacement units are not developed with moneys from the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund.

(2) Ten years for owner-occupied units. However, the agency may permit sales of owner-occupied units prior to the expiration of the 10-year period for a price in excess of that otherwise permitted under this subdivision pursuant to an adopted program which protects the agency's investment of moneys from the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund, including, but not limited to, an equity sharing program which establishes a schedule of equity sharing that permits retention by the seller of a portion of those excess proceeds based on the length of occupancy. The remainder of the excess proceeds of the sale shall be allocated to the agency and deposited in the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund.

The agency shall require the recording in the office of the county recorder of covenants or restrictions implementing this subdivision for each parcel or unit of real property subject to this subdivision. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the covenants or restrictions shall run with the land and shall be enforceable, against the original owner and successors in interest, by the agency or the community.

(f) "Housing," as used in this section, includes residential hotels, as defined in subdivision (k) of Section 37912. The definitions of "lower income households" and "very low income households" in Sections 50079.5 and 50105 shall apply to this section. "Longest feasible time," as used in this section, includes, but is not limited to, unlimited duration.

(g) "Increasing, improving, and preserving the community's supply of low- and moderate-income housing," as used in this section and in Section 33334.2, includes the preservation of rental housing units assisted by federal, state, or local government on the condition that units remain affordable to low- and moderate-income households, including very low income households, for a specified period of time, beyond the date the subsidies and use restrictions could be terminated and the assisted housing units converted to market rate rentals. In preserving these units the agency shall require the units remain affordable to persons and families of low- and moderate-income and very low income households for the longest feasible time. However, the agency may replace rental units with equally affordable and comparable rental units in another location within the community if (1) the replacement units in another location are available for occupancy prior to the displacement of any persons and families of low or moderate income residing in the units to be replaced and (2) the comparable replacement units are not developed with moneys from the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 882

An act to amend Section 11126 of, and to add Section 54956.95 to, the Government Code, relating to public meetings.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11126 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11126. (a) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body from holding closed sessions during a regular or special meeting to consider the appointment, employment, or dismissal of a public employee or to hear complaints or charges brought against that employee by another person or employee unless the employee requests a public hearing. As a condition to holding a closed session on the complaints or charges to consider disciplinary action or to consider dismissal, the employee shall be given written notice of his or her right to have a public hearing, rather than a closed session, which notice shall be delivered to the employee personally or by mail at least 24 hours before the time for holding a regular or special meeting. If notice is not given, any disciplinary or other action taken against any employee at the closed session shall be null and void. The state body also may exclude from any public or closed session, during the examination of a witness, any or all other witnesses in the matter being investigated by the state body. Following the public hearing or closed session, the body may deliberate on the decision to be reached in a closed session.

For the purposes of this section, "employee" shall not include any person who is elected to, or appointed to a public office by, any state body. However, officers of the California State University who receive compensation for their services, other than per diem and ordinary and necessary expenses, shall, when engaged in that capacity, be considered employees.

(b) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent state bodies which administer the licensing of persons engaging in businesses or professions from holding closed sessions to prepare, approve, grade, or administer examinations.

(c) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an advisory body of a state body which administers the licensing of persons engaged in businesses or professions from conducting a closed session to discuss matters which the advisory body has found would constitute an unwarranted invasion of the privacy of an individual licensee or applicant if discussed in an open meeting, provided the advisory body does not include a quorum of the members of the state body it advises. Those matters may include review of an applicant's qualifications for licensure and an inquiry specifically related to the state body's enforcement program concerning an individual licensee or applicant where the inquiry occurs prior to the filing of a civil, criminal, or administrative disciplinary action against the licensee or applicant by the state body.

(d) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit a state body from holding a closed session to deliberate on a decision to be reached based upon evidence introduced in a proceeding required to be conducted pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 or similar provisions of law.

(e) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any state body from holding a closed session to consider matters affecting the national security.

(f) Nothing in this article shall be construed to grant a right to enter any correctional institution or the grounds of a correctional institution where that right is not otherwise granted by law, nor shall anything in this article be construed to prevent a state body from holding a closed session when considering and acting upon the determination of a term, parole, or release of any individual or other disposition of an individual case, or if public disclosure of the subjects under discussion or consideration is expressly prohibited by statute.

(g) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any closed session to consider the conferring of honorary degrees, or gifts, donations, and bequests which the donor or proposed donor has requested in writing to be kept confidential.

(h) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board from holding a closed session for the purpose of holding a deliberative conference as provided in Section 11125.

(i) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body from holding closed sessions with its negotiator prior to the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease of real property by or for the state body to give instructions to its negotiator regarding the price and terms of payment for the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease.

However, prior to the closed session, the state body shall hold an open and public session in which it identifies the real property or real properties which the negotiations may concern and the person or persons with whom its negotiator may negotiate.

For purposes of this subdivision, the negotiator may be a member of the state body.

For purposes of this subdivision, "lease" includes renewal or renegotiation of a lease.

Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude a state body from holding a closed session for discussions regarding eminent domain proceedings pursuant to subdivision (q).

(j) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the California Postsecondary Education Commission from holding closed sessions to consider matters pertaining to the appointment or termination of the Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission.

(k) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Franchise Tax Board from holding closed sessions for the purpose of discussion of confidential tax returns or data the public disclosure of which is prohibited by law, or from considering matters pertaining to the appointment or removal of the executive officer of the Franchise Tax Board.

(l) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Board of Corrections from holding closed sessions when considering reports of crime conditions under Section 6027 of the Penal Code.

(m) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the State Air Resources Board from holding closed sessions when considering the proprietary specifications and performance data of manufacturers.

(n) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body which invests retirement, pension, or endowment funds from holding closed sessions when considering investment decisions. For purposes of consideration of shareholder voting on corporate stocks held by the state body, closed sessions for the purposes of voting may be held only with respect to election of corporate directors, election of independent auditors, and other financial issues which could have a material effect on the net income of the corporation. For the purpose of real property investment decisions which may be considered in a closed session pursuant to this subdivision, a state body shall also be exempt from the provision of subdivision (i) relating to the identification of real properties prior to the closed session.

(o) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, or such boards, commissions, administrative officers, or other representatives as may properly be designated by law or by a state body, from holding closed sessions with its representatives in discharging its responsibilities under Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 3500) of Division 4 of Title 1 as the sessions relate to salaries, salary schedules, or compensation paid in the form of fringe benefits. For the purposes enumerated in the preceding sentence, a state body may also meet with a state conciliator who has intervened in the proceedings.

(p) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any meeting of the Public Utilities Commission at which the rates of entities under the commission's jurisdiction are changed shall be open and public.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Public Utilities Commission from holding closed sessions to deliberate on the institution of proceedings, or disciplinary actions against regulated utilities.

(q) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, based on the advice of its legal counsel, from holding a closed session to confer with, or receive advice from, its legal counsel regarding pending litigation when discussion in open session concerning those matters would prejudice the position of the state body in the litigation.

For purposes of this article, all expressions of the lawyer-client privilege other than those provided in this subdivision are hereby abrogated. This subdivision is the exclusive expression of the lawyer-client privilege for purposes of conducting closed-session meetings pursuant to this article. For purposes of this subdivision, litigation shall be considered pending when any of the following circumstances exist:

(1) An adjudicatory proceeding before a court, an administrative body exercising its adjudicatory authority, a hearing officer, or an arbitrator, to which the state body is a party, has been initiated formally.

(2) (A) A point has been reached where, in the opinion of the state body on the advice of its legal counsel, based on existing facts and circumstances, there is a significant exposure to litigation against the state body; or

(B) Based on existing facts and circumstances, the state body is meeting only to decide whether a closed session is authorized pursuant to subparagraph (A).

(3) Based on existing facts and circumstances, the state body has decided to initiate or is deciding whether to initiate litigation.

The legal counsel of the state body shall prepare and submit to it a memorandum stating the specific reasons and legal authority for the closed session. If the closed session is pursuant to paragraph (1), the memorandum shall include the title of the litigation. If the closed session is pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3), the memorandum shall include the existing facts and circumstances on which it is based. The legal counsel shall submit the memorandum to the state body prior to the closed session, if feasible, and in any case no later than one week after the closed session. The memorandum shall be exempt from disclosure pursuant to Section 6254.1.

For purposes of this subdivision, "litigation" includes any adjudicatory proceeding, including eminent domain, before a court, administrative body exercising its adjudicatory authority, hearing officer, or arbitrator.

Disclosure of a memorandum required under this subdivision shall not be deemed as a waiver of the lawyer-client privilege, as provided for under Article 3 (commencing with Section 950) of Chapter 4 of Division 8 of the Evidence Code.

(r) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body operating under a joint powers agreement for insurance pooling from holding a closed session to discuss a claim for the payment of tort liability or public liability losses incurred by the state body or any member agency under the joint powers agreement.

(s) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the examining committee established by the State Board of Forestry, pursuant to Section 763 of the Public Resources Code, from conducting a closed session to consider disciplinary action against an individual professional forester prior to the filing of an accusation against the forester pursuant to Section 11503.

(t) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an administrative committee established by the State Board of Accountancy pursuant to Section 5020 or 5020.3 of the Business and Professions Code from conducting a closed session to consider disciplinary action against an individual accountant prior to the filing of an accusation against the accountant pursuant to Section 11503. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an examining committee established by the Board of Accountancy pursuant to Section 5023 of the Business and Professions Code from conducting a closed hearing to interview an individual applicant or accountant regarding the applicant's qualifications.

(u) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.2, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter which properly could be considered in closed session by the state body whose authority it exercises.

(v) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.7, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter which properly could be considered in a closed session by the body defined as a state body pursuant to Section 11121, 11121.2, or 11121.5.

(w) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.8, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter which properly could be considered in a closed session by the state body it advises.

(x) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the State Board of Equalization from holding closed sessions for either of the following:

(1) When considering matters pertaining to the appointment or removal of the executive secretary of the State Board of Equalization.

(2) For the purpose of hearing confidential taxpayer appeals or data, the public disclosure of which is prohibited by law.

(y) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the California Earthquake Prediction Evaluation Council, or other body appointed to advise the Director of the Office of Emergency Services or the Governor pursuant to Section 8590 concerning matters relating to volcanic or earthquake predictions, from holding closed sessions when considering the evaluation of possible predictions.

(z) This article shall not prevent the Teachers' Retirement Board from holding closed sessions when considering matters pertaining to the appointment or removal of the chief executive officer of the State Teachers' Retirement System.

SEC. 2. Section 11126 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11126. (a) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body from holding closed sessions during a regular or special meeting to consider the appointment, employment, or dismissal of a public employee or to hear complaints or charges brought against that employee by another person or employee unless the employee requests a public hearing. As a condition to holding a closed session on the complaints or charges to consider disciplinary action or to consider dismissal, the employee shall be given written notice of his or her right to have a public hearing, rather than a closed session, which notice shall be delivered to the employee personally or by mail at least 24 hours before the time for holding a regular or special meeting. If notice is not given, any disciplinary or other action taken against any employee at the closed session shall be null and void. The state body also may exclude from any public or closed session, during the examination of a witness, any or all other witnesses in the matter being investigated by the state body. Following the public hearing or closed session, the body may deliberate on the decision to be reached in a closed session.

For the purposes of this section, "employee" shall not include any person who is elected to, or appointed to a public office by, any state body. However, officers of the California State University who receive compensation for their services, other than per diem and ordinary and necessary expenses, shall, when engaged in that capacity, be considered employees.

(b) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent state bodies which administer the licensing of persons engaging in businesses or professions from holding closed sessions to prepare, approve, grade, or administer examinations.

(c) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an advisory body of a state body which administers the licensing of persons engaged in businesses or professions from conducting a closed session to discuss matters which the advisory body has found would constitute an unwarranted invasion of the privacy of an individual licensee or applicant if discussed in an open meeting, provided the advisory body does not include a quorum of the members of the state body it advises. Those matters may include review of an applicant's qualifications for licensure and an inquiry specifically related to the state body's enforcement program concerning an individual licensee or applicant where the inquiry occurs prior to the filing of a civil, criminal, or administrative disciplinary action against the licensee or applicant by the state body.

(d) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit a state body from holding a closed session to deliberate on a decision to be reached based upon evidence introduced in a proceeding required to be conducted pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 or similar provisions of law.

(e) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any state body from holding a closed session to consider matters affecting the national security.

(f) Nothing in this article shall be construed to grant a right to enter any correctional institution or the grounds of a correctional institution where that right is not otherwise granted by law, nor shall anything in this article be construed to prevent a state body from holding a closed session when considering and acting upon the determination of a term, parole, or release of any individual or other disposition of an individual case, or if public disclosure of the subjects under discussion or consideration is expressly prohibited by statute.

(g) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any closed session to consider the conferring of honorary degrees, or gifts, donations, and bequests which the donor or proposed donor has requested in writing to be kept confidential.

(h) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board from holding a closed session for the purpose of holding a deliberative conference as provided in Section 11125.

(i) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body from holding closed sessions with its negotiator prior to the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease of real property by or for the state body to give instructions to its negotiator regarding the price and terms of payment for the purchase, sale, exchange, or lease.

However, prior to the closed session, the state body shall hold an open and public session in which it identifies the real property or real properties which the negotiations may concern and the person or persons with whom its negotiator may negotiate.

For purposes of this subdivision, the negotiator may be a member of the state body.

For purposes of this subdivision, "lease" includes renewal or renegotiation of a lease.

Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude a state body from holding a closed session for discussions regarding eminent domain proceedings pursuant to subdivision (q).

(j) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the California Postsecondary Education Commission from holding closed sessions to consider matters pertaining to the appointment or termination of the Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission.

(k) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Franchise Tax Board from holding closed sessions for the purpose of discussion of confidential tax returns or data the public disclosure of which is prohibited by law, or from considering matters pertaining to the appointment or removal of the executive officer of the Franchise Tax Board.

of crime conditions under Section 6027 of the Penal Code.

(m) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the State Air Resources Board from holding closed sessions when considering the proprietary specifications and performance data of manufacturers.

(n) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body which invests retirement, pension, or endowment funds from holding closed sessions when considering investment decisions. For purposes of consideration of shareholder voting on corporate stocks held by the state body, closed sessions for the purposes of voting may be held only with respect to election of corporate directors, election of independent auditors, and other financial issues which could have a material effect on the net income of the corporation. For the purpose of real property investment decisions which may be considered in a closed session pursuant to this subdivision, a state body shall also be exempt from the provision of subdivision (i) relating to the identification of real properties prior to the closed session.

(o) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, or such boards, commissions, administrative officers, or other representatives as may properly be designated by law or by a state body, from holding closed sessions with its representatives in discharging its responsibilities under Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 3500) of Division 4 of Title 1 as the sessions relate to salaries, salary schedules, or compensation paid in the form of fringe benefits. For the purposes enumerated in the preceding sentence, a state body may also meet with a state conciliator who has intervened in the proceedings.

(p) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any meeting of the Public Utilities Commission at which the rates of entities under the commission's jurisdiction are changed shall be open and public.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the Public Utilities Commission from holding closed sessions to deliberate on the institution of proceedings, or disciplinary actions against regulated utilities.

(q) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, based on the advice of its legal counsel, from holding a closed session to confer with, or receive advice from, its legal counsel regarding pending litigation when discussion in open session concerning those matters would prejudice the position of the state body in the litigation.

For purposes of this article, all expressions of the lawyer-client privilege other than those provided in this subdivision are hereby abrogated. This subdivision is the exclusive expression of the lawyer-client privilege for purposes of conducting closed-session meetings pursuant to this article. For purposes of this subdivision, litigation shall be considered pending when any of the following circumstances exist:

(1) An adjudicatory proceeding before a court, an administrative body exercising its adjudicatory authority, a hearing officer, or an arbitrator, to which the state body is a party, has been initiated formally.

(2) (A) A point has been reached where, in the opinion of the state body on the advice of its legal counsel, based on existing facts and circumstances, there is a significant exposure to litigation against the state body; or

(B) Based on existing facts and circumstances, the state body is meeting only to decide whether a closed session is authorized pursuant to subparagraph (A).

(3) Based on existing facts and circumstances, the state body has decided to initiate or is deciding whether to initiate litigation.

The legal counsel of the state body shall prepare and submit to it a memorandum stating the specific reasons and legal authority for the closed session. If the closed session is pursuant to paragraph (1), the memorandum shall include the title of the litigation. If the closed session is pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3), the memorandum shall include the existing facts and circumstances on which it is based. The legal counsel shall submit the memorandum to the state body prior to the closed session, if feasible, and in any case no later than one week after the closed session. The memorandum shall be exempt from disclosure pursuant to Section 6254.1.

For purposes of this subdivision, "litigation" includes any adjudicatory proceeding, including eminent domain, before a court, administrative body exercising its adjudicatory authority, hearing officer, or arbitrator.

Disclosure of a memorandum required under this subdivision shall not be deemed as a waiver of the lawyer-client privilege, as provided for under Article 3 (commencing with Section 950) of Chapter 4 of Division 8 of the Evidence Code.

(r) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body operating under a joint powers agreement for insurance pooling from holding a closed session to discuss a claim for the payment of tort liability or public liability losses incurred by the state body or any member agency under the joint powers agreement.

(s) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the examining committee established by the State Board of Forestry, pursuant to Section 763 of the Public Resources Code, from conducting a closed session to consider disciplinary action against an individual professional forester prior to the filing of an accusation against the forester pursuant to Section 11503.

(t) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an administrative committee established by the State Board of Accountancy pursuant to Section 5020 or 5020.3 of the Business and Professions Code from conducting a closed session to consider disciplinary action against an individual accountant prior to the filing of an accusation against the accountant pursuant to Section 11503. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent an examining committee established by the Board of Accountancy pursuant to Section 5023 of the Business and Professions Code from conducting a closed hearing to interview an individual applicant or accountant regarding the applicant's qualifications.

(u) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.2, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter which properly could be considered in closed session by the state body whose authority it exercises.

(v) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.7, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter which properly could be considered in a closed session by the body defined as a state body pursuant to Section 11121, 11121.2, or 11121.5.

(w) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent a state body, as defined in Section 11121.8, from conducting a closed session to consider any matter which properly could be considered in a closed session by the state body it advises.

(x) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the State Board of Equalization from holding closed sessions for either of the following:

(1) When considering matters pertaining to the appointment or removal of the executive secretary of the State Board of Equalization.

(2) For the purpose of hearing confidential taxpayer appeals or data, the public disclosure of which is prohibited by law.

(y) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the California Earthquake Prediction Evaluation Council, or other body appointed to advise the Director of the Office of Emergency Services or the Governor pursuant to Section 8590 concerning matters relating to volcanic or earthquake predictions, from holding closed sessions when considering the evaluation of possible predictions.

(z) This article shall not prevent the Teachers' Retirement Board or the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System from holding closed sessions when considering matters pertaining to the recruitment, appointment, employment, or removal of the chief executive officer of the State Teachers' Retirement System or the Public Employees' Retirement System.

SEC. 3. Section 54956.95 is added to the Government Code, to read:

54956.95. (a) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent a joint powers agency formed pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 6500) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of Title 1, for purposes of insurance pooling, or a local agency member of the joint powers agency, from holding a closed session to discuss a claim for the payment of tort liability losses, public liability losses, or workers' compensation liability incurred by the joint powers agency or a local agency member of the joint powers agency.

(b) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent the Local Agency Self-Insurance Authority formed pursuant to Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 6599.01) of Division 7 of Title 1, or a local agency member of the authority, from holding a closed session to discuss a claim for the payment of tort liability losses, public liability losses, or workers' compensation liability incurred by the authority or a local agency member of the authority.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect Section 54956.9 with respect to any other local agency.

SEC. 4. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 11126 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1284. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1990, (2) each bill amends Section 11126 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1284, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 883

An act to add Section 14005.29 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14005.29 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14005.29. To the extent that federal matching funds are available, disabled persons who are otherwise eligible for benefits under this chapter, except for income due to employment, shall continue to be eligible to receive benefits for conditions excluded from coverage by a private insurer, provided those persons' incomes do not exceed 200 percent of the income level for maintenance established pursuant to Section 14005.12.

CHAPTER 884

An act to amend Sections 21626, 21628, 21636, 21638, and 21647 of, and to add Section 21636.5 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to personal property.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21626 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

21626. (a) A "secondhand dealer," as used in this article, means and includes any person, copartnership, firm, or corporation whose business includes buying, selling, trading, taking in pawn, accepting for sale on consignment, accepting for auctioning, or auctioning secondhand tangible personal property. A "secondhand dealer" does not include a "coin dealer."

(b) As used in this section, a "coin dealer" means any person, firm, partnership, or corporation whose principal business is the buying, selling, and trading of coins, monetized bullion, or commercial grade ingots of gold, or silver, or other precious metals.

SEC. 2. Section 21628 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

21628. Every secondhand dealer and coin dealer described in Section 21626 shall report daily, or on the first working day after receipt or purchase of such property, on forms either approved or provided at actual cost by the Department of Justice, all tangible personal property which he or she has purchased, taken in trade, taken in pawn, accepted for sale on consignment, or accepted for auctioning, to the chief of police or to the sheriff, in accordance with the provisions of Sections 21630 and 21633. The report shall be legible, prepared in English, completed where applicable, and include, but not limited to, the following information:

(a) The name and current address of the intended seller or pledgor of the property.

(b) The identification of the intended seller or pledgor. The identification of the seller or pledgor of the property shall be verified by the person taking the information. The verification shall be valid if the person taking the information reasonably relies on any one of the following documents, provided the document is currently valid or has been issued within five years and contains a photograph or description, or both, of the person named on it, is signed by the person, and bears a serial or other identifying number:

(1) A passport of the United States.

(2) A driver's license issued by any state, or Canada.

(3) An identification card issued by any state.

(4) An identification card issued by the United States.

(c) A complete and reasonably accurate description of serialized property, including, but not limited to, the following: serial number and other identifying marks or symbols, owner-applied numbers, manufacturer's named brand, and model name or number.

(d) A complete and reasonably accurate description of nonserialized property, including, but not limited to, the following: size, color, material, manufacturer's pattern name (when known), owner-applied numbers and personalized inscriptions and other identifying marks or symbols.

(e) A certification by the intended seller or pledgor that he or she is the owner of the property or has the authority of the owner to sell or pledge the property.

(f) A certification by the intended seller or pledgor that to his or her knowledge and belief the information is true and complete.

(g) A legible fingerprint taken from the intended seller or pledgor, as prescribed by the Department of Justice. This requirement does not apply to a coin dealer, unless required pursuant to local regulation.

SEC. 3. Section 21636 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

21636. (a) Every secondhand dealer and coin dealer shall retain in his or her possession for a period of 30 days all tangible personal property reported under Sections 21628, 21629, and 21630. The 30-day holding period with respect to such tangible personal property shall commence with the date the report of its acquisition was made to the chief of police or to the sheriff by the secondhand dealer and coin dealer. The chief of police or the sheriff may for good cause, as specified by the Department of Justice, authorize prior disposition of any such property described in a specific report; provided, that a secondhand dealer who disposes of tangible personal property pursuant to such authorization shall report the sale thereof to the chief of police or the sheriff.

(b) During the 30-day holding period specified in subdivision (a) every secondhand dealer and coin dealer shall produce any tangible personal property reported under Sections 21628, 21629, and 21630 for inspection by any peace officer or employee designated by the chief of police or sheriff.

SEC. 4. Section 21636.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

21636.5. No secondhand dealer or coin dealer shall promise a seller of tangible property that the seller may repurchase property sold to the secondhand dealer or coin dealer.

SEC. 5. Section 21638 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

21638. The provisions of this article shall not prohibit enactment, amendment, or enforcement by any city, county, or city and county of any local ordinance relating to a secondhand dealer or coin dealer which is not inconsistent with the provisions of this article, except that no city, county, or city and county, or any other state agency shall adopt the following:

(a) Holding, reporting, or identification requirements for transactions involving coins, monetized bullion, or commercial grade ingots of gold, silver, or other precious metals.

(b) Identification, holding, or reporting requirements for the acquisition of tangible personal property, in the ordinary course of business, by pawnbrokers and secondhand dealers, other than as set forth in Sections 21628, 21630, 21633, and 21636 of this code, and Section 21208 of the Financial Code.

SEC. 6. Section 21647 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

21647. (a) Whenever any peace officer has probable cause to believe that property in the possession of a pawnbroker, secondhand dealer, or coin dealer is stolen, the peace officer may place a hold on the property for a period not to exceed 90 days. When a peace officer places a hold on the property, the peace officer shall give the pawnbroker, secondhand dealer, or coin dealer a written notice at the time the hold is placed, describing the item or items to be held. During that period the pawnbroker, secondhand dealer, or coin dealer shall not release or dispose of the property, except pursuant to a court order or upon receipt of a written authorization signed by any peace officer who is a member of the law enforcement agency of which the peace officer placing the hold on the property is a member. Except as specifically set forth in this section, a pawnbroker, secondhand property dealer, or coin dealer shall not be subject to civil liability for compliance with this section.

(b) Whenever property that is in the possession of a pawnbroker, secondhand dealer, or coin dealer is subject to a hold and the property is required by a peace officer in a criminal investigation, the pawnbroker, secondhand dealer, or coin dealer, upon reasonable notice, shall produce the property at reasonable times and places or may deliver the property to any peace officer upon the request of any peace officer who is a member of the law enforcement agency of which the peace officer placing the hold on the property is a member.

(c) Whenever property that is in the possession of a pawnbroker, secondhand dealer, or coin dealer is subject to a hold and the property is no longer required for the purpose of criminal investigation, the law enforcement agency that placed the hold on the property shall undertake the following:

(1) With respect to the property being held, if the law enforcement agency has no knowledge of the property on hold being reported as stolen, the property shall be released.

(2) If the law enforcement agency has knowledge that the property has been reported stolen, the law enforcement agency shall notify the person who reported the stolen property of the name and address of the pawnbroker, secondhand dealer, or coin dealer holding the property, authorize the release of the property to that person, and advise the person that the law neither requires nor prohibits payment of a fee or any other condition in return for the surrender of the property; notwithstanding the foregoing, if the alleged owner chooses not to file a criminal complaint against an identified alleged thief, the alleged owner shall pay the pawnbroker, secondhand dealer, or coin dealer the "out of pocket" expenses paid in the acquisition of the allegedly stolen property.

The law enforcement agency that placed the property on hold shall release the hold after 60 days has elapsed following the delivery of the notice to the person who reported the property stolen.

(3) If a pledgor seeks to redeem property that is subject to a hold, the pawnbroker, secondhand dealer, or coin dealer shall advise the pledgor of the name and badge number of the peace officer who placed the hold on the property and the name of the law enforcement agency of which the officer is a member. If the property is not required to be held pursuant to a criminal prosecution the hold shall be released.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

Pursuant to Section 17579 of the Government Code, the Legislature finds that there is no mandate contained in this act which will result in costs incurred by a local agency or school district for a new program or higher level of service which require reimbursement pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution and Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 885

An act to amend Sections 1265 and 1267.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1265 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1265. Any person, political subdivision of the state, or governmental agency desiring a license for a health facility or approval for a special service under this chapter shall file with the state department a verified application on forms prescribed and furnished by the state department, containing all of the following:

(a) The name of the applicant and, if an individual, whether the applicant has attained the age of 18 years.

(b) The type of facility or health facility.

(c) The location thereof.

(d) The name of the person in charge thereof.

(e) Evidence satisfactory to the state department that the applicant is of reputable and responsible character. If the applicant is a firm, association, organization, partnership, business trust, corporation, or company, like evidence shall be submitted as to the members or shareholders thereof, and the person in charge of the health facility for which application for license is made. If the applicant is a political subdivision of the state or other governmental agency, like evidence shall be submitted as to the person in charge of the health facility for which application for license is made.

(f) Evidence satisfactory to the state department of the ability of the applicant to comply with this chapter and of rules and regulations promulgated under this chapter by the state department.

(g) Evidence satisfactory to the department that the applicant to operate a skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility possesses financial resources sufficient to operate the facility for a period of at least 45 days.

(h) Each applicant for a license to operate a skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility shall disclose to the state department evidence of the right to possession of the facility at the time the application will be granted, which may be satisfied by the submission of a copy of applicable portions of a lease agreement or deed of trust. The names and addresses of any persons or organizations listed as owner of record in the real estate, including the buildings and the grounds appurtenant to the buildings, shall be disclosed to the state department.

(i) Any other information as may be required by the state department for the proper administration and enforcement of this chapter.

(j) Upon submission of an application to the state department by an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative or an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing, the application shall include a statement of need signed by the chairperson of the area board pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4570) of Division 4.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. In the event the area board has not provided the statement of need within 30 days of receipt of the request from the applicant, the state department may process the application for license without the statement.

SEC. 2. Section 1267.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1267.5. (a) (1) Each applicant for a license to operate a skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility shall disclose to the state department the name and business address of each general partner if the applicant is a partnership, or each director and officer if the applicant is a corporation, and each person having a beneficial ownership interest of 5 percent or more in the applicant corporation or partnership.

(2) If any person described in paragraph (1) has served or currently serves as an administrator, general partner, trustee or trust applicant, sole proprietor of any applicant or licensee who is a sole proprietorship, executor, or corporate officer or director of, or has held a beneficial ownership interest of 5 percent or more in, any other skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility or in any community care facility licensed pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of this division, the applicant shall disclose the relationship to the state department, including the name and current or last address of the health facility or community care facility and the date such relationship commenced and, if applicable, the date it was terminated.

(3) If the facility is operated by, or proposed to be operated under, a management contract, the names and addresses of any person or organization, or both, having an ownership or control interest of 5 percent or more in the management company shall be disclosed to the state department. This provision shall not apply if the management company has submitted an application for licensure with the state department and has complied with paragraph (1).

(4) If the applicant or licensee is a subsidiary of another organization, the information shall include the names and addresses of the parent organization of the subsidiary and the names and addresses of any officer or director of the parent organization.

The information required by this subdivision shall be provided to the state department upon initial application for licensure, and changes in the information shall be provided to the state department on an annual basis. Failure to comply with this section may result in action to revoke or deny a license. The information required by this section shall be made available to the public upon request, and shall be included in the public file of the facility.

(b) On and after January 1, 1990, no person may acquire a beneficial interest of 5 percent or more in any corporation or partnership licensed to operate a skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility, nor may any person become an officer or director of, or general partner in, such a corporation or partnership without the prior written approval of the state department. Each application for departmental approval pursuant to this subdivision shall include the information specified in subdivision (a) as regards the person for whom the application is made.

If the state department fails to approve or disapprove the application within 30 days after receipt thereof, the application shall be deemed approved.

(c) The state department may deny approval of a license application or of an application for approval under subdivision (b) if a person named in the application, as required by this section, was an officer, director, general partner, or owner of a 5-percent or greater beneficial interest in a licensee of a skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility, or community care facility at a time when one or more violations of law were committed therein which resulted in suspension or revocation of its license. However, the prior suspension or revocation of a license shall not be grounds for denial of the application if the applicant shows to the satisfaction of the state department (1) that the person in question took every reasonably available action to prevent the violation or violations which resulted in the disciplinary action and (2) that he or she took every reasonably available action to correct the violation or violations once he or she knew, or with the exercise of reasonable diligence should have known of, the violation or violations.

(d) No application shall be denied pursuant to this section until the state department first (1) provides the applicant with notice in writing of grounds for the proposed denial of application, and (2) affords the applicant an opportunity to submit additional documentary evidence in opposition to the proposed denial.

(e) Nothing in this section shall cause any individual to be personally liable for any civil penalty assessed pursuant to Chapter 2.4 (commencing with Section 1417) of this division or create any new criminal or civil liability contrary to general laws limiting such liability.

(f) The provisions of this section shall not apply to a bank, trust company, financial institution, title insurer, controlled escrow company, or underwritten title company to which a license is issued in a fiduciary capacity.

(g) As used in this section, "person" has the same meaning as specified in Section 19.

(h) The provisions of this section shall not apply to the directors of a nonprofit corporation exempt from taxation under Section 23701d of the Revenue and Taxation Code which operates a skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility in conjunction with a licensed residential facility, where the directors serve without financial compensation and are not compensated by the nonprofit corporation in any other capacity.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 101, 128.5, 130, 160, 337, 500, 650.1, 656, 718, 800, 801, 805, 805.1, 805.5, 851, 920.5, 2001, 2002, 2055, 2163, 2201, 2208, 2210, 2292, 2321, 2340, 2341, 2420, 2435, 2445, 2450, 2451, 2460, 2461, 2529.5, 2530.2, 2531, 2536, 2541.3, 2541.6, 2545, 2550, 2550.1, 2558, 2559, 2567, 2568, 2601, 2632, 2655, 2690, 2725, 2746.3, 2746.4, 2902, 2920, 2936, 2980, 2987, 2995, 3041, 3041.2, 3302, 3501, 3504, 3519, 3527, 3535, 3540, 3704, 3730, 4033, 4047.7, 4051, 4051.3, 4051.4, 4051.7, 4051.8, 4051.9, 4927, and 7634 of the Business and Professions Code, to amend Section 13401 of the Corporations Code, to amend Sections 11501 and 26509 of the Government Code, to amend Sections 320.5, 324.7, 429.97, 429.982, 1198, 1317.1, 1317.5, 1701, 1704.5, 1797.132, 7187, 11217, and 11998.1 of the Health and Safety Code, to amend Section 87 of the Military and Veterans Code, to amend Section 830.3 of the Penal Code, and to amend Sections 5326.15, 5326.9, 9721, 14110.5, 14132.55, and 14193 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to the Board of Medical Quality Assurance.

SEC. 4. Section 160 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

160. The Chief and all investigators of the Division of Investigation of the department and all investigators of the Medical Board of California and the Board of Dental Examiners have the authority of peace officers while engaged in exercising the powers granted or performing the duties imposed upon them or the division in investigating the laws administered by the various boards comprising the department or commencing directly or indirectly any criminal prosecution arising from any investigation conducted under these laws. All persons herein referred to shall be deemed to be acting within the scope of employment with respect to all acts and matters in this section set forth.

SEC. 5. Section 337 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

337. (a) The department shall prepare and disseminate an informational brochure for victims of psychotherapist-patient sexual contact and advocates for those victims. This brochure shall be developed by the department in consultation with members of the Sexual Assault Program of the Office of Criminal Justice Planning and the office of the Attorney General.

(b) The brochure shall include, but is not limited to, the following:

(1) A legal and an informal definition of psychotherapist-patient sexual contact.

(2) A brief description of common personal reactions and histories of victims and victim's families.

(3) A patient's bill of rights.

(4) Options for reporting psychotherapist-patient sexual relations and instructions for each reporting option.

(5) A full description of administrative, civil, and professional associations complaint procedures.

(6) A description of services available for support of victims.

(c) The brochure shall be provided to each individual contacting the Medical Board of California and their allied health boards or the Board of Behavioral Science Examiners regarding a complaint involving psychotherapist-patient sexual relations.

SEC. 6. Section 500 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

500. Whenever the register or book of registration of the Medical Board of California, the Board of Dental Examiners, or the Board of Pharmacy is destroyed by fire or other public calamity, the board, whose duty it is to keep the register or book, may reproduce it so that there may be shown as nearly as possible the record existing in the original at the time of destruction.

SEC. 7. Section 650.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

650.1. (a) Any amount payable to any hospital, as defined in Section 4047, or any person or corporation prohibited from pharmacy permit ownership by subdivision (a) of Section 4080.5 under any rental, lease or service arrangement with respect to the furnishing or supply of pharmaceutical services and products, which is determined as a percentage, fraction, or portion of (1) the charges to patients or of (2) any measure of hospital or pharmacy revenue or cost, for pharmaceuticals and pharmaceutical services is prohibited.

(b) Any lease or rental arrangement existing on the effective date of this section shall be in full compliance with subdivision (a) by January 1, 1986.

(c) Any lease or rental agreement entered into prior to January 1, 1980, that extends beyond the effective date of this section shall be construed to be in compliance with this section until its expiration or the expiration of any option which is contained in any such lease or rental agreement provided that the lease or rental agreement contains provisions which limit pharmacy charges to the amounts not in excess of the prevailing charges in similar hospitals in the general geographic area.

(d) The California State Board of Pharmacy, the Medical Board of California, and the State Department of Health Services shall enforce this section and may require information from any person as is necessary for the enforcement of this section. It shall be the duty of the licensees of the respective regulatory agencies to produce the requisite evidence to show compliance with this section. Violations of this section shall be deemed to be the mutual responsibility of both lessee and lessor, and shall be grounds for disciplinary action or other sanctions against both.

SEC. 8. Section 656 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

656. Whenever any person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any acts or practices which constitute, or will constitute, a violation of any provision of this article, the superior court in and for the county wherein the acts or practices take place, or are about to take place, may issue an injunction, or other appropriate order, restraining such conduct on application of the State Board of Optometry, the Medical Board of California, the Board of Osteopathic Examiners, the Attorney General, or the district attorney of the county.

The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 9. Section 718 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

718. A physician and surgeon who is not licensed in this state but who is a commissioned officer on active duty in the medical corps of any branch of the armed forces of the United States may engage in the practice of medicine as part of a residency, fellowship, or clinical training program if all the following conditions are met:

(a) The residency, fellowship, or clinical training program is conducted by a branch of the armed forces of the United States at a health facility on a federal reservation and limited in enrollment to military physicians on active duty in the medical corps of a branch of the armed forces of the United States.

(b) The residency, fellowship, or clinical training program, as part of its program, contracts with or affiliates with a similar program in or at a health facility not on a federal reservation to offer specific courses or training not available at the facility located on the federal reservation.

(c) The officers enrolled in the residency, fellowship, or clinical training program restrict their practice only to patients who are seen as part of their duties in the program.

(d) The compensation received by the officers enrolled in the residency, fellowship, or clinical training program is limited to their regular pay and allowances as commissioned officers.

(e) The officers enrolled in the training programs or portions of training programs not conducted on a federal reservation shall register with the Division of Licensing of the Medical Board of California on a form provided by the division.

SEC. 10. Section 800 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

800. (a) The Medical Board of California, the Board of Dental Examiners, the Board of Osteopathic Examiners, the Board of Chiropractic Examiners, the California Board of Registered Nursing, the Board of Vocational Nurse and Psychiatric Technician Examiners, the State Board of Optometry, the Board of Examiners in Veterinary Medicine, and the State Board of Pharmacy shall each separately create and maintain a central file of the names of all persons who hold a license, certificate or similar authority from such board. Each such central file shall be so created and maintained as to provide an individual historical record for each such person with respect to (1) any conviction of a crime in this or any other state which constitutes unprofessional conduct pursuant to the reporting requirements of Section 803; (2) any judgment or settlement requiring him or his insurer to pay any amount of damages in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) with respect to any claim that injury or death was proximately caused by such person's negligence, error or omission in practice or rendering of unauthorized professional services, pursuant to the reporting requirements of Section 801 or 802; (3) any public complaints for which provision is hereinafter made, pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section; (4) disciplinary information reported pursuant to Section 805.

(b) Each such board shall prescribe and promulgate forms on which members of the public and other licensees or certificate holders may file written complaints to the board alleging any act of misconduct in or connected with the performance of professional services by such person.

If a board, or division thereof, a committee, or a panel has failed to act upon a complaint or report within five years, or has found that the complaint or report is without merit, the central file shall be purged of information relating to the complaint or report.

(c) The contents of any central file which are not public records under any other provision of law shall be confidential except that it may be reviewed (1) by the licensee involved or his or her counsel or representative who may, but is not required to submit any additional exculpatory or explanatory statements or other information, which statements or other information must be included in the file, (2) by any district attorney or representative or investigator therefor who has been assigned to review the activities of a healing arts licentiate, (3) by any representative of the Attorney General's office or investigator thereof who has been assigned to review the activities of a healing arts licentiate, or (4) by any investigator of the department, or a healing arts board referred to in this section, who has been assigned to review the activities of a healing arts licentiate. Such licensee may, but is not required to submit any additional exculpatory or explanatory statements or other information which statements or other information must be included in the file.

SEC. 11. Section 801 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

801. (a) Every insurer providing professional liability insurance to a person who holds a license, certificate or similar authority from or under any agency mentioned in subdivision (a) of Section 800 (except a person licensed pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1200) or Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2) or the Osteopathic Initiative Act shall send a complete report to that agency as to any settlement or arbitration award over three thousand dollars ($3,000) of a claim or action for damages for death or personal injury caused by such person's negligence, error or omission in practice, or rendering of unauthorized professional services. Such report shall be sent within 30 days after such written settlement agreement has been reduced to writing and signed by all parties thereto or within 30 days after service of such arbitration award on the parties.

(b) Every insurer providing professional liability insurance to a physician and surgeon licensed pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2 or the Osteopathic Initiative Act shall send a complete report to the Medical Board of California or the Board of Osteopathic Examiners, as appropriate, as to any settlement or arbitration award over thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) of a claim or action for damages for death or personal injury caused by such person's negligence, error or omission in practice, or rendering of unauthorized professional services. Such report shall be sent within 30 days after such written settlement agreement has been reduced to writing and signed by all parties thereto or within 30 days after service of such arbitration award on the parties.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no insurer shall enter into such a settlement without the written consent of the insured, except that this prohibition shall not void any settlement entered into without such written consent. The requirement of written consent can only be waived by both the insured and the insurer. The provisions of this section shall only apply to a settlement on a policy of insurance executed or renewed on or after January 1, 1971.

SEC. 12. Section 805 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read·

805. (a) As used in this section, the following terms have the following definitions:

(1) "Peer review body" includes:

(A) A medical or professional staff of any licensed health care facility licensed under Division 2 (commencing with Section 1200) of the Health and Safety Code or of a facility certified to participate in the federal Medicare program as an ambulatory surgical center.

(B) A health care service plan registered under Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code or a nonprofit hospital service plan regulated under Chapter 11a (commencing with Section 11491) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code.

(C) Any medical, psychological, dental, or podiatric professional society having as members at least 25 percent of the eligible licentiates in the area in which it functions (which must include at least one county), which is not organized for profit and which has been determined to be exempt from taxes pursuant to Section 23701 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(D) A committee organized by any entity consisting of or employing more than 25 licentiates of the same class, which functions for the purpose of reviewing the quality of professional care provided by members or employees of that entity.

(2) "Licentiate" means a physician and surgeon, podiatrist, clinical psychologist, or dentist.

(3) "Agency" means the relevant state licensing agency having regulatory jurisdiction over the licentiates listed in paragraph (2).

(4) "Staff privileges" means any arrangement under which a licentiate is allowed to practice in or provide care for patients in a health facility. Those arrangements shall include, but are not limited to, full staff privileges, active staff privileges, limited staff privileges, auxiliary staff privileges, provisional staff privileges, temporary staff privileges, courtesy staff privileges, locum tenens arrangements, and contractural arrangements to provide professional services, including, but not limited to, arrangements to provide outpatient services.

(5) "Denial or termination of privileges" includes failure or refusal to renew a contract or to renew, extend, or reestablish any staff privileges, when the action is based on medical disciplinary cause or reason.

(6) "Medical disciplinary cause or reason" means that aspect of a licentiate's competence or professional conduct which is reasonably likely to be detrimental to patient safety or to the delivery of patient care.

(7) "805 report" means the written report required under subdivision (b).

(b) The chief of staff of a medical or professional staff or other chief executive officer, medical director, or administrator of any peer review body shall file an 805 report with the relevant agency whenever any of the following actions are taken as a result of a determination of a peer review body:

(1) A licentiate's application for staff privileges or membership is denied or rejected for a medical disciplinary cause or reason.

(2) A licentiate's membership, staff privileges, or employment is terminated or revoked for a medical disciplinary cause or reason.

(3) Restrictions are imposed, or voluntarily accepted, on staff privileges, membership, or employment for a cumulative total of 30 days or more for any 12-month period, for a medical disciplinary cause or reason.

In addition to the duty to report as set forth in paragraphs (1), (2) and (3), the peer review body also has a duty to report under this section a licentiate's resignation from membership, staff, or employment following notice of an impending investigation based on information indicating medical disciplinary cause or reason.

The 805 report shall be filed within 30 days after the effective date of the denial, termination, restriction, or resignation, or after the exhaustion of administrative procedures, without regard to any filing for judicial review.

An 805 report shall also be filed within 30 days following the imposition of summary suspension of staff privileges, membership, or employment, if the summary suspension remains in effect for a period in excess of 14 days.

A copy of the 805 report, and a notice advising the licentiate of his or her right to submit additional statements or other information pursuant to Section 800, shall be sent by the peer review body to the licentiate named in the report.

The information to be reported in an 805 report shall include the name of the licentiate involved, a description of the facts and circumstances of the medical disciplinary cause or reason, and any other relevant information deemed appropriate by the reporter.

A supplemental report shall also be made within 30 days following the date the licentiate is deemed to have satisfied any terms, conditions, or sanctions imposed as disciplinary action by the reporting peer review body. In performing its dissemination functions required by Section 805.5, the agency shall include a copy of a supplemental report, if any, whenever it furnishes a copy of the original 805 report.

In those instances where another peer review body is required to file an 805 report, a health care service plan or nonprofit hospital service plan is not required to file a separate report with respect to action attributable to the same medical disciplinary cause or reason.

(c) The reporting required herein shall not act as a waiver of confidentiality of medical records and committee reports. The information reported or disclosed shall be kept confidential except as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 800, provided that a copy of the report containing the information required by this section may be disclosed as required by Section 805.5 with respect to reports received on or after January 1, 1976. The Medical Board of California, the Board of Osteopathic Examiners, and the Board of Dental Examiners shall disclose reports as required by Section 805.5.

An 805 report shall be maintained by an agency for dissemination purposes for a period of three years after receipt.

(d) No person shall incur any civil or criminal liability as the result of making any report required by this section.

(e) Failure to make a report pursuant to this section is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars ($200) nor more than one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200).

SEC. 13. Section 805.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

805.1. (a) The Medical Board of California, the Board of Osteopathic Examiners, and the Board of Dental Examiners shall be entitled to inspect and copy the following documents in the record of any disciplinary proceeding resulting in action which is required to be reported pursuant to Section 805:

(1) Any statement of charges.

(2) Any document, medical chart, or exhibits in evidence.

(3) Any opinion, findings, or conclusions.

(b) The information so disclosed shall be kept confidential and not subject to discovery, in accordance with Section 800, except that it may be reviewed, as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 800, and may be disclosed in any subsequent disciplinary hearing conducted pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code)

SEC. 14. Section 805.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

805.5. (a) Prior to granting or renewing staff privileges for any physician and surgeon, clinical psychologist, podiatrist, or dentist, any health facility licensed pursuant to Division 2 (commencing with Section 1200) of the Health and Safety Code, or any health care service plan or medical care foundation, or the medical staff of any such institution, shall request a report from the Medical Board of California, the Board of Osteopathic Examiners, or the Board of Dental Examiners to determine if any report has been made pursuant to Section 805 indicating that the applying physician and surgeon, clinical psychologist, podiatrist, or dentist has been denied staff privileges, been removed from a medical staff, or had his or her staff privileges restricted as provided in Section 805. The request shall include the name and California license number of the physician and surgeon, clinical psychologist, podiatrist, or dentist. Furnishing of a copy of the 805 report shall not cause the 805 report to be a public record

(b) Upon a request made by, or on behalf of, an institution described in subdivision (a) or its medical staff, which is received on or after January 1, 1980, the board shall furnish a copy of any report made pursuant to Section 805. However, the board shall not send a copy of a report (1) where the denial, removal, or restriction was imposed solely because of the failure to complete medical records, (2) where the board has found the information reported is without merit, or (3) where a period of three years has elapsed since the report was submitted.

In the event that the board fails to advise such institution within 30 working days following its request for a report required by this section, the institution may grant or renew staff privileges for the physician and surgeon, clinical psychologist, podiatrist, or dentist.

(c) Any institution described in subdivision (a) or its medical staff which violates the provisions of subdivision (a) is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars ($200) nor more than one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200).

SEC. 15 Section 851 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

851. A healing arts licensure board or examining committee may by regulation require an applicant for licensure or certification to meet the standards of a specified private voluntary association or professional society when either of the following conditions is met:

(a) There is direct statutory authority or requirement that the board or examining committee utilize the standards of the specified private voluntary association or professional society; or

(b) The board or examining committee specifies in the regulation the amount of education, training, experience, examinations, or other requirements of the private voluntary association or professional society, which standards shall be consistent with the provisions of law regulating such licensees, and the board or examining committee adopts such standards in public hearing. The board or examining committee may, by regulation, require an applicant to successfully complete an examination conducted by or created by a relevant national certification association, testing firm, private voluntary association, or professional society.

Nothing in this section authorizes the Medical Board of California to limit the licensure of physicians and surgeons by specialty.

SEC. 16. Section 920.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

920.5. The term "board" as used in this chapter means the Medical Board of California.

SEC. 17. Section 2001 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2001. There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a Medical Board of California which consists of 19 members, seven of whom shall be public members.

The Governor shall appoint 17 members to the board, subject to confirmation by the Senate, five of whom shall be public members. The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member, and their initial appointment shall be made to fill, respectively, the first and second public member vacancies which occur on or after January 1, 1983.

SEC. 18. Section 2002 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2002. Unless otherwise expressly provided, the term "board" as used in this chapter means the Medical Board of California.

SEC. 19. Section 2055 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2055. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person issued a physician's and surgeon's certificate by the Medical Board of California pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be entitled to use of the initials "M.D."

SEC. 20. Section 2163 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2163. The loan shall be repayable to the Contingent Fund of the Medical Board of California in equal or graduated periodic installments, according to a schedule agreed upon by the division and the borrower, over a 10-year period which shall begin three years after the student ceases to pursue a full-time course of professional instruction, excluding from such 10-year period all periods, up to three years, of (a) active duty performed by the borrower as a member of the United States armed forces, or (b) nonmilitary public services performed by the borrower which the division finds to be in the public interest.

SEC. 21. Section 2201 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2201. For the purposes of this article.

(a) "Commission" means the California Health Manpower Policy

Commission.

(b) "Division" means the Division of Licensing of the Medical Board of California.

(c) "Practice of medicine" or "medical practice" means all activities authorized by a physician's and surgeon's certificate, except activities performed in the course of employment as a public health officer, as a medical school faculty member where teaching time is more than 25 percent of the working day, or as a resident or first-year postgraduate trainee.

(d) "Primary care services" means those medical services involving the specialties of general practice, family practice, general internal medicine, obstetrics, gynecology, and general pediatrics.

SEC. 22. Section 2208 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2208. Loans made pursuant to this article shall be repayable to the Contingent Fund of the Medical Board of California or cancelled under the following conditions:

(a) A licensed physician and surgeon who establishes and maintains a medical practice in an area deficient in primary care services for less than one year shall repay the total amount of the loan, in addition to accrued interest charges.

(b) A licensed physician and surgeon who establishes and maintains a medical practice in an area deficient in primary care services for more than one year, but less than two years, shall repay half the total amount of the loan, in addition to accrued interest charges.

(c) The total amount of the loan and all accrued interest shall be canceled for a licensed physician and surgeon who establishes and maintains a medical practice in an area deficient in primary care services for more than two years from the date the loan is made.

SEC. 23. Section 2210 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2210. (a) In addition to the principal of the loan, interest shall accrue on the principal of all loans made at a rate which shall be two percentage points less than the authorized interest rate on California Water Bonds at the time the application is filed. Interest shall accrue from the date the loan is made until it is repaid unless the loan is canceled pursuant to Section 2208 or 2209.

(b) Loans made pursuant to this article which are not canceled shall be repayable to the Contingent Fund of the Medical Board of California under the terms specified in such loan agreements in periodic installments, according to the schedule agreed upon by the division and the borrower, over a 10-year period which shall begin one year after the borrower ceases to operate his or her medical practice in an area deficient in primary care services, excluding from such 10-year period all periods, up to three years, of (1) active duty performed by the borrower as a member of the armed forces of the United States, or (2) nonmilitary public service performed by the borrower which the division finds to be in the public interest.

SEC. 24. Section 2292 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2292. (a) A physician may be ordered to undergo a professional competency examination if, after investigation and review by a medical consultant of the Medical Board of California or his or her designee, and review and concurrence by at least one outside medical consultant, there is reasonable cause to believe that the physician is unable to practice medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients. Reasonable cause shall be demonstrated by one or more of the following: (1) a single incident of gross negligence; (2) a pattern of inappropriate prescribing; (3) an act of incompetence or negligence causing death or serious bodily injury; or (4) a pattern of substandard care.

(b) The matter shall be presented by the board's executive director or his or her designee by way of a written petition detailing the reasonable cause. The petition shall contain all conclusions and facts upon which the presumption of reasonable cause is based. A copy of the petition shall be served on the physician who shall have the opportunity to file written opposition to the petition within 45 days after service. Service of the petition and any orders shall be in accordance with the methods of service authorized by subdivision (c) of Section 11505 of the Government Code.

(c) The petition may be considered by the Division of Medical Quality, or the division may assign the petition for consideration to a panel of a medical quality review committee, formed pursuant to Section 2323.

(d) The division or a committee panel shall review the petition and any opposition paper from the physician, or the division or panel may hold a hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act to determine if reasonable cause exists, as specified in subdivision (a). The physician shall have the right to be represented at that hearing by the person of his or her choice. If the division or panel is satisfied that reasonable cause exists as to the circumstances specified in subdivision (a), the division or panel shall issue an order compelling the physician to undergo an examination of professional competency as measured by community standards. For purposes of this section, "community standards" means the statewide standards of the community of licensees. Failure to comply with the order duly served on the physician shall constitute unprofessional conduct for purposes of disciplinary proceedings.

SEC. 25. Section 2321 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read.

2321. As used in this article:

(a) "Division" means the Division of Medical Quality of the Medical Board of California.

(b) "Committee" means a medical quality review committee.

(c) "District" means a district established by Section 2322.

SEC. 26. Section 2340 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2340. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Medical Board of California seek ways and means to identify and rehabilitate physicians and surgeons with impairment due to abuse of dangerous drugs or alcohol, or due to mental illness or physical illness, affecting competency so that physicians and surgeons so afflicted may be treated and returned to the practice of medicine in a manner which will not endanger the public health and safety.

SEC. 27. Section 2341 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2341. As used in this article:

(a) "Division" means the Division of Medical Quality of the Medical Board of California.

(b) "Committee" means a diversion evaluation committee created by this article.

SEC. 28. Section 2420 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2420. The provisions of this article apply to, determine the expiration of, and govern the renewal of, each of the following certificates, licenses, registrations, and permits issued by or under the Medical Board of California: physician's and surgeon's certificates, certificates to practice podiatric medicine, physical therapy licenses and approvals, registrations of dispensing opticians, registrations of contact lens dispensers, certificates of drugless practitioners, certificates to practice midwifery, and fictitious-name permits.

SEC. 29. Section 2435 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2435. The following fees apply to physician's and surgeon's certificates, certificates of drugless practitioners, and certificates to practice midwifery:

(a) Each applicant for a certificate based upon a national board diplomate certificate, and each applicant for a certificate based on reciprocity, and each applicant for a certificate based upon written examination, shall pay a nonrefundable application and processing fee, as set forth in subdivision (b), at the time the application is filed.

(b) Between January 1, 1987, and December 31, 1989, the application and processing fee, for the first year, shall be two hundred seventy-five dollars ($275), and, for each subsequent year, shall be equal to the prior year's fee plus a sum fixed by the Division of Licensing equal to not more than 10 percent of the prior year's fee, up to a maximum of three hundred fifty dollars ($350). On and after January 1, 1990, the application and processing fee shall be fixed by the Division of Licensing by May 1 of each year, to become effective on July 1 of that year. The fee shall be fixed at an amount necessary to recover the actual costs of the licensing program as projected for the fiscal year commencing on the date the fees become effective.

(c) Each applicant for a certificate by written examination, unless otherwise provided by this chapter, shall pay an examination fee fixed by the board, which shall equal the actual cost to the board of the purchase of the written examination furnished by the organization pursuant to Section 2176, plus the actual cost to the board of administering the written examination. Such actual cost to the board of administering the written examination that shall be charged to the applicant shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100). The board may charge the examination fee provided for in this section for any subsequent reexamination of the applicant.

(d) Each applicant who qualifies for a certificate, as a condition precedent to its issuance, in addition to other fees required herein, shall pay an initial license fee, if any. On and after July 1, 1987, the initial license fee shall be fixed by the board at an amount not less than two hundred dollars ($200), and not to exceed three hundred twenty-five dollars ($325), in accordance with paragraph (3) of subdivision (e). Until July 1, 1987, that fee shall be fixed as provided by paragraph (2) of subdivision (e). Any applicant enrolled in an approved postgraduate training program shall be required to pay only 50 percent of the initial license fee.

(e) (1) On and after July 1, 1987, the biennial renewal fee shall be fixed by the board at an amount not less than two hundred dollars ($200), and not to exceed three hundred twenty-five dollars ($325), in accordance with paragraph (3).

(2) Until July 1, 1987, the biennial fee and the initial license fee shall each be two hundred fifty-five dollars ($255), except that the board may fix the biennial renewal fee at an amount determined by the board between two hundred forty dollars ($240) and two hundred fifty-five dollars ($255), inclusive.

(3) On and after July 1, 1987, the board shall fix the biennial renewal fee and the initial license fee so that, together with the amounts from other revenues, the reserve balance in the board's contingent fund shall be equal to approximately four months of annual authorized expenditures. Any increase in the renewal and initial license fees made after July 1, 1987, shall be effective upon a determination by the board, by regulation adopted pursuant to Section 2436, that additional amounts are necessary to maintain a reserve balance in the board's contingent fund equal to four months of annual authorized expenditures in the state fiscal year in which the expenditures are to occur.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 163.5, the delinquency fee is 10 percent of the biennial renewal fee.

(g) The duplicate certificate and endorsement fees shall each be fifty dollars ($50), and the certification and letter of good standing fees shall each be ten dollars ($10).

(h) It is the intent of the Legislature that, in setting fees pursuant to this section, the board shall seek to maintain a reserve in the Contingent Fund of the Medical Board of California equal to approximately four months' operating expenditures.

SEC. 30. Section 2445 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read.

2445. All moneys paid to and received by the board shall be paid into the State Treasury and shall be credited to the Contingent Fund of the Medical Board of California. Those moneys shall be reported at the beginning of each month, for the month preceding, to the Controller.

The contingent fund shall be for the use of the board and from it shall be paid all salaries and all other expenses necessarily incurred in carrying into effect the provisions of this chapter.

If there is any surplus in these receipts after the board's salaries and expenses are paid, such surplus shall be applied solely to expenses incured under the provisions of this chapter. No surplus in these receipts shall be deposited in or transferred to the General Fund.

SEC. 31. Section 2450 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2450. There is a Board of Osteopathic Examiners of the State of California, established by the Osteopathic Act, which enforces the provisions of this chapter relating to persons holding or applying for physician's and surgeon's certificates issued by the Board of Osteopathic Examiners under the Osteopathic Act.

Persons who elect to practice using the term of suffix "M.D.," as provided in Section 2275, shall not be subject to the provisions of this article, and the Medical Board of California shall enforce the provisions of this chapter relating to such persons who made such election.

SEC. 32. Section 2451 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2451. The words "Medical Board of California," the term "board," or any reference to a division of the Medical Board of California as used in this chapter shall be deemed to mean the Board of Osteopathic Examiners, where that board exercises the functions granted to it by the Osteopathic Act.

SEC 33. Section 2460 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2460. There is created within the jurisdiction of the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California the California Board of Podiatric Medicine.

SEC. 34. Section 2461 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2461. As used in this article:

(a) "Division" means the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California.

(b) "Board" means the California Board of Podiatric Medicine.

(c) "Podiatric licensing authority" refers to any officer, board, commission, committee, or department of another state upon whose certificate a reciprocity certificate may be issued.

SEC. 35. Section 2529.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2529.5. Each person to whom registration is granted under the provisions of this chapter shall pay into the Contingent Fund of the Medical Board of California a fee to be fixed by the Division of Allied Health Professions at a sum not in excess of one hundred dollars ($100).

The registration shall expire after two years. The registration may be renewed biennially at a fee to be fixed by the division at a sum not in excess of fifty dollars ($50). Students seeking to renew their registration shall present to the division evidence of their continuing student status.

The money in the Contingent Fund of the Medical Board of California necessary for the administration of this chapter is hereby continuously appropriated for such purposes.

SEC. 36. Section 2530 2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2530.2. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Committee" means the Speech Pathology and Audiology Examining Committee.

(b) "Board" means the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California.

(c) "Person" means any individual, organization or corporate body except that only individuals can be licensed under this chapter.

(d) A "speech pathologist" is a person who practices speech pathology.

(e) "The practice of speech pathology" means the application of principles, methods, and procedures for measurement, testing, identification, prediction, counseling, or instruction related to the development and disorders of speech, voice, or language for the purpose of identifying, preventing, managing, habilitating or rehabilitating, ameliorating, or modifying such disorders and conditions in individuals or groups of individuals, and the planning, directing, conducting and supervision of programs for identification, evaluation, habilitation, and rehabilitation of disorders of speech, voice, or language.

(f) "Speech pathology aide" means any person meeting the minimum requirements established by the committee, who works directly under the supervision of a speech pathologist.

(g) An "audiologist" is one who practices audiology.

(h) "The practice of audiology" means the application of principles, methods, and procedures of measurement, testing, appraisal, prediction, consultation, counseling, instruction related to hearing and disorders of hearing and the modification of communicative disorders involving speech, language, auditory behavior or other aberrant behavior resulting from hearing loss; and the planning, directing, conducting, supervising, or participating in programs of identification of hearing problems, hearing conservation, aural habilitation, and rehabilitation, including, hearing aid recommendation and evaluation procedures such as, but not limited to, specifying amplification requirements and evaluation of the results thereof, auditory training, and speech reading.

(i) "Audiology aide" means any person, meeting the minimum requirements established by the committee, who works directly under the supervision of an audiologist.

SEC. 37. Section 2531 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2531. There is hereby created a Speech Pathology and Audiology Examining Committee under the jurisdiction of the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California. The committee shall consist of nine members, three of whom shall be public members.

SEC. 38. Section 2536 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2536. A speech pathology corporation or an audiology corporation is a corporation which is authorized to render professional services, as defined in Section 13401 of the Corporations Code, so long as that corporation and its shareholders, officers, directors and employees rendering professional services who are speech pathologists or audiologists are in compliance with the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act, the provisions of this article and all other statutes and regulations now or hereafter enacted or adopted pertaining to such corporation and the conduct of its affairs.

With respect to a speech pathology corporation or an audiology corporation, the governmental agency referred to in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act is the Speech Pathology and Audiology Examining Committee of the Medical Board of California.

SEC. 39. Section 2541.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2541.3. The State Department of Health Services, the State Board of Optometry and the Division of Allied Health Professions and Division of Medical Quality of the Medical Board of California shall prepare and adopt quality standards and promulgate regulations relating to prescription ophthalmic devices, including, but not limited to, lenses, frames, and contact lenses. Regulations adopted subsequent to those in effect on July 1, 1976, shall become operative July 1, 1978. In promulgating such rules and regulations, the department and the boards shall adopt the current standards of the American National Standards Institute regarding ophthalmic materials. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the department and the boards from jointly adopting subsequent standards which are equivalent or more stringent than the current standards of the American National Standards Institute regarding ophthalmic materials.

No individual or group which deals with prescription ophthalmic devices, including, but not limited to, distributors, dispensers, manufacturers, laboratories, optometrists or ophthalmologists shall sell, dispense, or furnish any prescription ophthalmic device which does not meet the minimum standards set by the State Department of Health Services, the State Board of Optometry or the Division of Allied Health Professions and Division of Medical Quality of the Medical Board of California.

Any violation of the regulations promulgated by the State Department of Health Services, the State Board of Optometry or the Division of Allied Health Professions and Division of Medical Quality of the Medical Board of California pursuant to this section shall be a misdemeanor.

Any optometrist, ophthalmologist, or dispensing optician who violates the regulations promulgated by the State Department of Health Services, the State Board of Optometry or the Division of Allied Health Professions and Division of Medical Quality of the Medical Board of California pursuant to this section shall be subject to disciplinary action by his or her licensing board.

The State Board of Optometry or the Division of Allied Health Professions and Division of Medical Quality of the Medical Board of California may send any prescription ophthalmic device to the State Department of Health Services for testing as to whether or not such device meets established standards adopted pursuant to this section, which testing shall take precedence over any other prescription ophthalmic device testing being conducted by the department. The department may conduct such testing in its own facilities or may contract with any other facility to conduct such testing.

SEC. 40. Section 2541.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2541.6. Effective January 1, 1977, no prescription ophthalmic device which does not meet the standards promulgated by the State Department of Health Services, the State Board of Optometry or the Division of Allied Health Professions and Division of Medical Quality of the Medical Board of California under Section 2541.3 shall be purchased with state funds.

SEC. 41. Section 2545 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2545. Whenever any person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any acts or practices which constitute, or will constitute, an offense against this chapter, the superior court in and for the county wherein the acts or practices take place, or are about to take place, may issue an injunction, or other appropriate order, restraining such conduct on application of the State Board of Optometry, the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California, the Board of Osteopathic Examiners of the State of California, the Attorney General, or the district attorney of the county.

The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure

SEC. 42. Section 2550 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2550. Individuals and firms engaged in the business of filling prescriptions of physicians and surgeons licensed by the Division of Licensing of the Medical Board of California or optometrists licensed by the State Board of Optometry for prescription lenses and kindred products, and, as incidental to the filling of those prescriptions, doing any or all of the following acts, either singly or in combination with others, taking facial measurements, fitting and adjusting those lenses and fitting and adjusting spectacle frames, shall be known as dispensing opticians and shall not engage in that business unless registered with the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California.

2567. (a) The provisions of Article 19 (commencing with Section 2420) and Article 20 (commencing with Section 2435) of Chapter 5 which are not inconsistent or in conflict with this chapter apply to the issuance and govern the expiration and renewal of certificates issued under this chapter All fees collected from persons registered or seeking registration under this chapter shall be paid into the Contingent Fund of the Medical Board of California.

(b) The board may employ, subject to civil service regulations, whatever additional clerical assistance is necessary for the administration of this chapter.

SEC. 47. Section 2568 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2568. On and after July 1, 1982, the board shall report to the Controller at the beginning of each month for the month preceding the amount and source of all revenue received by it pursuant to this chapter, and shall pay the entire amount thereof to the Treasurer for deposit in the Dispensing Opticians Fund, which fund is created and continuously appropriated to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

On and after July 1, 1982, the unencumbered balance of any funds in the Contingency Fund of the Medical Board of California derived from fees and revenues received from registered dispensing opticians and registered contact lens dispensers, and applicants for such registration, shall be transferred to the Dispensing Opticians Fund and shall be expended as provided in this section.

SEC. 48. Section 2601 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2601. "Board" as used in this chapter means the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California.

SEC. 49. Section 2632 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2632. All licenses for the practice of physical therapy in this state shall be issued by the board, upon the recommendation and direction of the examining committee, and all applications for such licenses shall be filed with the committee. Excepting as otherwise required by the director pursuant to Section 164, the license issued by the board shall describe the licensee as a "registered physical therapist licensed by the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California."

Each application shall be accompanied by the application fee prescribed by Section 2688, shall be signed by the applicant, and shall contain a statement under oath of the facts entitling the applicant to receive a license without examination or to take an examination.

SEC. 50. Section 2655 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2655. As used in this article:

(a) "Physical therapist" means a registered physical therapist licensed by the Medical Board of California.

(b) "Physical therapist assistant" means a person who meets the qualifications stated in Section 2655.3 and who is approved by the examining committee to assist in the provision of physical therapy under the supervision of a physical therapist who shall be responsible for the extent, kind and quality of the services provided by the physical therapist assistant.

(c) "Physical therapist assistant" and "physical therapy assistant" shall be deemed identical and interchangeable.

SEC. 51. Section 2690 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2690. A physical therapy corporation is a corporation which is authorized to render professional services, as defined in Section 13401 of the Corporations Code, so long as that corporation and its shareholders, officers, directors, and employees rendering professional services who are physical therapists are in compliance with the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act, the provisions of this article and all other statutes and regulations now or hereafter enacted or adopted pertaining to such corporation and the conduct of its affairs.

With respect to a physical therapy corporation, the governmental agency referred to in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act is the Physical Therapy Examining Committee of the Medical Board of California.

SEC. 52 Section 2725 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2725 In amending this section at the 1973–74 session, the Legislature recognizes that nursing is a dynamic field, the practice of which is continually evolving to include more sophisticated patient care activities. It is the intent of the Legislature in amending this section at the 1973–74 session to provide clear legal authority for functions and procedures which have common acceptance and usage. It is the legislative intent also to recognize the existence of overlapping functions between physicians and registered nurses and to permit additional sharing of functions within organized health care systems which provide for collaboration between physicians and registered nurses. Such organized health care systems include, but are not limited to, health facilities licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, clinics, home health agencies, physicians' offices, and public or community health services.

The practice of nursing within the meaning of this chapter means those functions, including basic health care, which help people cope with difficulties in daily living which are associated with their actual or potential health or illness problems or the treatment thereof which require a substantial amount of scientific knowledge or technical skill, and includes all of the following:

(a) Direct and indirect patient care services that insure the safety, comfort, personal hygiene, and protection of patients; and the performance of disease prevention and restorative measures.

(b) Direct and indirect patient care services, including, but not limited to, the administration of medications and therapeutic agents, necessary to implement a treatment, disease prevention, or rehabilitative regimen ordered by and within the scope of licensure of a physician, dentist, podiatrist, or clinical psychologist, as defined by Section 1316.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) The performance of skin tests, immunization techniques, and the withdrawal of human blood from veins and arteries.

(d) Observation of signs and symptoms of illness, reactions to treatment, general behavior, or general physical condition, and (1) determination of whether such signs, symptoms, reactions, behavior, or general appearance exhibit abnormal characteristics; and (2) implementation, based on observed abnormalties, of appropriate reporting, or referral, or standardized procedures, or changes in treatment regimen in accordance with standardized procedures, or the initiation of emergency procedures.

"Standardized procedures," as used in this section, means either of the following:

(1) Policies and protocols developed by a health facility licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code through collaboration among administrators and health professionals including physicians and nurses;

(2) Policies and protocols developed through collaboration among administrators and health professionals, including physicians and nurses, by an organized health care system which is not a health facility licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code. Such policies and protocols shall be subject to any guidelines for standardized procedures which the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California and the Board of Registered Nursing may jointly promulgate; and if promulgated shall be administered by the Board of Registered Nursing.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to require approval of standardized procedures by the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California or the Board of Registered Nursing.

SEC. 53. Section 2746.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2746.3. Midwife's certificates issued by the Medical Board of California prior to the effective date of this article shall be renewable only by such board.

SEC. 54. Section 2746.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read·

2746.4. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent the practice of midwifery by a person possessing a midwife's certificate issued by the Medical Board of California on the effective date of this article.

SEC. 55. Section 2902 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2902. As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise and except as in this chapter expressly otherwise provided:

(a) "Licensed psychologist" means an individual to whom a license has been issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, and which license is in force and has not been suspended or revoked.

(b) "Board" means the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California. "Committee" means the Psychology Examining Committee.

(c) A person represents himself or herself to be a psychologist when the person holds himself or herself out to the public by any title or description of services incorporating the words "psychology," "psychological," "psychologist," "psychometry," "psychometrics" or "psychometrist," "psychotherapy," "psychotherapist," "psychoanalysis," "psychoanalyst" or when the person holds himself or herself out to be trained, experienced, or an expert in the field of psychology.

(d) "Accredited," as used with reference to academic institutions, means the University of California, the California State University, an institution accredited under the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 94310 of the Education Code, or an institution located in another state which is accredited by a national or an applicable regional accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education.

(e) "Approved," as used with reference to academic institutions, means approved under the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 94310 of the Education Code.

SEC. 56. Section 2920 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2920. The Psychology Examining Committee of the Medical Board of California of the Department of Consumer Affairs shall administer the provisions of this chapter. The committee shall consist of eight members, three of whom shall be public members.

SEC. 57. Section 2936 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2936. The committee shall by rule or regulation, establish standards of ethical conduct relating to the practice of psychology.

The committee shall periodically evaluate the relevancy and efficacy of the standards.

In establishing these standards, the committee may consider codes of ethics of relevant professional organizations, information and complaints regarding issues of ethical conduct from consumers of psychological services and other providers of mental health services. The committee shall adopt a program of consumer and professional education in matters relevant to the ethical practice of psychology.

The adoption, amendment, or repeal of such rules or regulations shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 11371) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

To facilitate consumers in receiving appropriate psychological services, all licensees and registrants shall be required to post, in a conspicuous location, a notice which reads as follows:

"NOTICE: The Department of Consumer Affairs receives questions and complaints regarding the practice of psychology. If you have any questions or complaints, you may contact this department by calling (insert appropriate regional number) or (insert appropriate telephone number), or by writing to the following address:

Medical Board of California
Allied Health Complaints
1430 Howe Avenue
Sacramento, California 95825"

SEC. 58. Section 2980 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2980. (a) There is in the State Treasury the Psychology Fund. The board shall report to the Controller at the beginning of each calender month for the month preceding the amount and source of all revenue received by it on behalf of the committee, pursuant to this chapter, and shall pay the entire amount thereof to the Treasurer for deposit into such fund. All revenue received by the committee and the board from fees authorized to be charged relating to the practice of psychology shall be deposited into such fund as provided in this section.

(b) If on the effective date of this section, money expended in the administration and enforcement of this chapter for five fiscal years prior to the effective date of this section has exceeded revenue derived from fees authorized under this chapter, the State Controller shall transfer from the Psychology Fund to the Contingent Fund of the Medical Board of California within three years from the effective date of this section the amount that such expenditures exceeded such revenue.

SEC. 59. Section 2987 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2987. The amount of the fees prescribed by this chapter shall be determined by the committee subject to the review and approval of the Medical Board of California, and shall be as follows:

(a) The application fee for a psychologist shall not be more than fifty dollars ($50).

(b) The examination fee for a psychologist shall not be more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(c) The initial license fee is an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the license is issued, except that if the license will expire less than one year after its issuance, then the initial license fee is an amount equal to 50 percent of the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the license is issued.

(d) The biennial renewal fee for a psychologist shall not be more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(e) The application fee for registration and supervision of a psychological assistant by a supervisor under Section 2913, which is payable by such supervisor, shall not be more than seventy-five dollars ($75).

(f) The annual renewal fee for registration of a psychological assistant shall not be more than seventy-five dollars ($75).

(g) The duplicate license or registration fee is five dollars ($5).

(h) The delinquency fee is twenty-five dollars ($25).

(i) The endorsement fee is five dollars ($5).

SEC. 60. Section 2995 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2995. A psychological corporation is a corporation which is authorized to render professional services, as defined in Section 13401 of the Corporations Code, so long as that corporation and its shareholders, officers, directors and employees rendering professional services who are psychologists, podiatrists, registered nurses, optometrists, or physicians are in compliance with the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act, the provisions of this article and all other statutes and regulations now or hereafter enacted or adopted pertaining to such corporation and the conduct of its affairs.

With respect to a psychological corporation, the governmental agency referred to in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act is the Psychology Examining Committee of the Medical Board of California.

SEC. 61. Section 3041 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3041. The practice of optometry is the doing of any or all of the following:

(a) The examination of the human eye or eyes, or its or their appendages, and the analysis of the human vision system, either subjectively or objectively.

(b) The determination of the powers or range of human vision and the accommodative and refractive states of the human eye or eyes, including the scope of its or their functions and general condition.

(c) The prescribing or directing the use of, or using, any optical device in connection with ocular exercises, visual training, vision training, or orthoptics.

(d) The prescribing of contact and spectacle lenses for, or the fitting or adaptation of contact and spectacle lenses to, the human eye, including lenses which may be classified as drugs by any law of the United States or of this state.

(e) The use of topical pharmaceutical agents for the sole purpose of the examination of the human eye or eyes for any disease or pathological condition. The State Board of Optometry, with the advice and consent of the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California, to be provided within six months of the effective date of this section, shall designate the specific topical pharmaceutical agents, known generically as mydriatics, cycloplegics, and topical anesthetics, to be used.

SEC. 62. Section 3041.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3041.2. The State Board of Optometry shall by regulation, with the advice and consent of the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California establish educational and examination requirements for licensure to insure the competence of optometrists to practice pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 3041. Satisfactory completion of the educational and examination requirements shall be a condition for the issuance of an original certificate of registration under this chapter, on and after January 1, 1980. Only those optometrists who have successfully completed educational and examination requirements as determined by the State Board of Optometry with the advice and consent of the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California shall be permitted the use of pharmaceutical agents specified by subdivision (e) of Section 3041.

SEC. 63. Section 3302 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3302. "Board," as used in this chapter, means the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California.

(d) "Physician's assistant" means a person who meets the requirements of this chapter and is licensed by the committee.

(e) "Committee" means the Physician's Assistant Examining Committee.

(f) "Regulations" means the rules and regulations as contained in Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 1300) and Chapter 13.7 (commencing with Section 1399.500) of Title 16 of the California Code of Regulations.

(g) "Routine visual screening" means uninvasive nonpharmacological simple testing for visual acuity; for visual field defects; for color blindness; and depth perception.

SEC. 65. Section 3504 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3504. There is established a Physician's Assistant Examining Committee of the Medical Board of California. The committee shall consist of nine members.

SEC. 66. Section 3519 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3519. The committee shall issue under the name of the Medical Board of California a license to all physician's assistant applicants who meet all of the following requirements:

(a) Provide evidence of one of the following:

(1) Successful completion of an approved program.

(2) Successful completion in a medical school approved by the Division of Licensing of a resident course of professional instruction which meets the requirements of Sections 2088 and 2089.

(b) Pass any examination required under Section 3517.

(c) Not be subject to denial of licensure under Division 1.5 (commencing with Section 475) or Section 3527

(d) Pay all fees required under Section 3521.1.

SEC. 67. Section 3527 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3527. (a) The committee may order the denial of an application for, or the issuance subject to terms and conditions of, or the suspension or revocation of, or the imposition of probationary conditions upon a physician's assistant license after a hearing as required in Section 3528 for unprofessional conduct which includes, but is not limited to, a violation of this chapter, a violation of the State Medical Practice Act, or a violation of the regulations adopted by the committee or the board.

(b) The committee may order the denial of an application for, or the suspension or revocation of, or the imposition of probationary conditions upon, an approved program after a hearing as required in Section 3528 for a violation of this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(c) The board may order the denial of an application for, or the issuance subject to terms and conditions of, or the suspension or revocation of, or the imposition of probationary conditions upon, an approval to supervise a physician's assistant, after a hearing as required in Section 3528, for unprofessional conduct, which includes, but is not limited to, a violation of this chapter, a violation of the Medical Practice Act, or a violation of the regulations adopted by the committee or the board.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), the Division of Medical Quality of the Medical Board of California, in conjunction with an action it has commenced against a physician and surgeon, may, in its own discretion and without the concurrence of the board, order the suspension or revocation of, or the imposition of probationary conditions upon, an approval to supervise a physician's assistant, after a hearing as required in Section 3528, for unprofessional conduct, which includes, but is not limited to, a violation of this chapter, a violation of the Medical Practice Act, or a violation of the regulations adopted by the committee or the board.

SEC. 68. Section 3535 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3535. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, physicians and surgeons licensed by the Board of Osteopathic Examiners may employ physician's assistants provided:

(a) Each physician's assistant so employed is a graduate of an approved program and is licensed by the Physician's Assistant Examining Committee.

(b) The scope of practice of the physician's assistant shall be the same as that which is approved by the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California for physicians and surgeons supervising physician's assistants in the same or a similar specialty.

(c) The supervising physician is approved by the Board of Osteopathic Examiners. The Board of Osteopathic Examiners may deny an application, or suspend or revoke or impose probationary conditions upon any osteopathic physician and surgeons approved to supervise any physician's assistant in any decision made after a hearing as provided in Section 3528.

(d) Any physician's assistant licensed by the committee shall be eligible for employment by any physician approved by the Board of Osteopathic Examiners; except that no physician shall supervise more than two physician's assistants. The Board of Osteopathic Examiners may restrict physicians to supervising specific types of physician's assistants including, but not limited to, restricting physicians from supervising physician's assistants outside of the physician's field of specialty.

(e) Each physician desiring to supervise a physician's assistant under this section shall file a separate application. The fees to be paid to the Board of Osteopathic Examiners for approval to supervise a physician's assistant are to be set as follows: An application fee not to exceed fifty dollars ($50) shall be charged to each physician applicant. An approval fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) shall be charged to each physician upon approval of an application to supervise a physician's assistant. If the approval will expire less than one year after its issuance, the fee shall be 50 percent of the initial approval fee currently in effect. The Board of Osteopathic Examiners shall renew approval to supervise physician's assistants upon application for that renewal. A biennial renewal fee not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150) shall be paid for the renewal of that approval. The delinquency fee is twenty-five dollars ($25). The duplicate license fee is ten dollars ($10). The fees collected by the Board of Osteopathic Examiners pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the Board of Osteopathic Examiners Contingent Fund.

(f) Any person who violates subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d) of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by both.

SEC. 69. Section 3540 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3540. A physicians' assistants corporation is a corporation which is authorized to render professional services, as defined in Section

13401 of the Corporations Code, so long as that corporation and its shareholders, officers, directors, and employees rendering professional services who are certified physicians' assistants are in compliance with the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act, the provisions of this article, and all other statutes and regulations now or hereafter enacted or adopted pertaining to the corporation and the conduct of its affairs.

With respect to a physicians' assistants corporation, the governmental agency referred to in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act is the Physicians' Assistant Examining Committee of the Medical Board of California.

SEC. 70. Section 3704 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3704. As used in this chapter, these terms shall be defined as follows:

(a) "Board" means the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California.

(b) "Department" means the Department of Consumer Affairs.

(c) "Examining committee" means the Respiratory Care Examining Committee.

(d) "Medical director" means a physician and surgeon who is a member of a health care facility's active medical staff and who is knowledgeable in respiratory care.

(e) "Respiratory care" includes "respiratory therapy" or "inhalation therapy," where those terms mean respiratory care.

(f) "Respiratory therapy training program" means a program approved by the examining committee.

SEC. 71. Section 3730 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3730. All certificates for the practice of respiratory care in this state shall be issued by the examining committee, and all applications for those certificates shall be filed with the examining committee. Except as otherwise required by the director pursuant to Section 164, the certificate issued by the examining committee shall describe the certificate holder as a "respiratory care practitioner certified by the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California."

Each application shall be accompanied by the application fee prescribed in Section 3775, shall be signed by the applicant, and shall contain a statement under oath of the facts entitling the applicant to receive a certificate without examination or to take an examination.

The application shall contain other information as the examining committee deems necessary to determine the qualifications of the applicant.

SEC. 72. Section 4033 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4033. "Physicians," "dentists," "pharmacists," "podiatrists," "veterinarians," "veterinary surgeons," "registered nurses," and "physician's assistants" are persons authorized by a currently valid and unrevoked license to practice their respective professions in this state. "Physicians" means and includes any person holding a valid and unrevoked physician's and surgeon's certificate or certificate to practice medicine and surgery, issued by the Medical Board of California or the Board of Osteopathic Examiners of this state, and includes an unlicensed person lawfully practicing medicine pursuant to Section 2147.5, when acting within the scope of that section.

SEC. 73. Section 4047.7 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4047.7. (a) The Director of Health Services shall establish by regulation a formulary of generic drug types and drug products which the Director of Health Services determines demonstrate clinically significant biological or therapeutic inequivalence and which, if substituted under Section 4047.6, would pose a threat to the health and safety of patients receiving prescription medication.

(b) The drug formulary established pursuant to this section shall include generic drug types and manufactured brand drug products, including, where applicable, drug products differentiated by dosage form or strength. In compiling the generic drug types and drug products for inclusion on the formulary, the Director of Health Services may rely on drug product research, testing, information, and formularies compiled by other states, the United States Department of Health and Human Services, and any other source which the Director of Health Services deems reliable.

(c) Regulations establishing the drug formulary shall be promulgated within 120 days of the effective date of this section. The formulary shall be added to or deleted from as the Director of Health Services deems appropriate. Regulations shall be adopted in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code Any person who requests that the Director of Health Services make any inclusion, addition, or deletion, of a generic drug type or drug product to the formulary shall have the burden of proof to show cause why such inclusion, addition, or deletion, should be made by the Director of Health Services.

(d) Upon adoption of the formulary, and upon each addition, deletion or modification to the formulary, the Director of Health Services shall mail a copy to each pharmacist licensed by the State Board of Pharmacy and to each physician and surgeon licensed to practice in the state by the Medical Board of California and each person licensed by the Board of Osteopathic Examiners. No pharmacist shall dispense a generically equivalent drug product pursuant to Section 4047.6 if the drug product and its generic drug type is included in the formulary.

SEC. 74. Section 4051 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4051. (a) No prescriber shall dispense drugs or dangerous devices to patients in his or her office or place of practice unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The drugs or dangerous devices are dispensed to the prescriber's own patient and the drugs or dangerous devices are not furnished by a nurse or attendant.

(2) The drugs or dangerous devices are necessary in the treatment of the condition for which the prescriber is attending the patient.

(3) The prescriber does not keep a pharmacy, open shop, drugstore, advertised or otherwise, for the retailing of drugs or dangerous devices or poisons.

(4) The prescriber fulfills all of the labeling requirements imposed upon pharmacists by Section 4047.5, all of the recordkeeping requirements of this chapter, and all of the packaging requirements of good pharmaceutical practice, including the use of child-proof containers.

(5) The prescriber does not use a dispensing device unless he or she personally owns the device and the contents of it and personally dispenses the drugs or dangerous devices to the patient packaged, labeled, and recorded in accordance with paragraph (4).

(b) The Medical Board of California and the Board of Osteopathic Examiners shall have authority with the Board of Pharmacy to assure compliance with this section, and those boards are specifically charged with the enforcement of this chapter with respect to their respective licensees.

(c) "Prescriber," as used in this section, means a person, who holds a physician's and surgeon's certificate or a certificate to practice podiatry, and who is duly registered as such by the Medical Board of California or the Board of Osteopathic Examiners of this state

(d) This section does not prohibit the furnishing of a limited quantity of samples by a prescriber, if the prescriber dispenses the samples to the patient in the package provided by the manufacturer, no charge is made to the patient therefor, and an appropriate record is entered in the patient's chart.

(e) This section does not apply to clinics, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1204 or subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 1206 of the Health and Safety Code, to veterinarians furnishing drugs for the treatment of animals, to programs licensed pursuant to Sections 11876, 11877, and 11877.5 of the Health and Safety Code, or to a prescriber dispensing parenteral chemotherapeutic agents, biologicals, or delivery systems used in the treatment of cancer.

SEC. 75. Section 4051.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4051.3. A prescriber who dispenses drugs pursuant to Section 4051 shall store all drugs to be dispensed in an area which is secure. The Medical Board of California shall, by regulation, define the term "secure" for purposes of this section.

SEC. 76. Section 4051.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4051.4. The Board of Pharmacy shall promptly forward to the Medical Board of California all complaints received related to drugs or dangerous devices dispensed by a prescriber pursuant to Section 4051.

SEC. 77. Section 4051.7 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4051.7. All complaints involving serious bodily injury due to drugs or dangerous devices dispensed by prescribers pursuant to Section 4051 shall be handled by the Medical Board of California as a case of greatest potential harm to a patient.

SEC. 78. Section 4051.8 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4051.8. On or before January 1, 1990, the Medical Board of California shall report to the Legislature on all complaints filed on or after August 1, 1988, involving serious bodily harm due to drugs or dangerous devices dispensed by a prescriber pursuant to Section 4051. The report shall include the nature of the complaint and its status.

SEC. 79. Section 4051.9 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4051.9. The Medical Board of California and the Board of Pharmacy shall jointly make a report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1991. The report shall include the following information regarding the complaints received by these respective boards on or after August 1, 1988, relating to drugs or dangerous devices dispensed by a prescriber pursuant to Section 4051:

(a) The number of complaints received.

(b) A brief description of the nature of the complaint and the severity category assigned

(c) The disposition of the complaint.

SEC. 85. Section 320.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

320.5. A State Maternal, Child, and Adolescent Health Board advisory to the director is hereby established within the State Department of Health Services.

The state board shall consist of 13 voting members. The membership shall reflect the ethnic and geographic diversity of the State of California and shall include individuals or parents of individuals who are recipients of services administered by the department, health providers, including Medical Board of California certified or qualified physicians, and representatives of other related interests. The Governor shall appoint seven members of the state board, including a county health officer; a member of the Primary Care Clinics Advisory Committee; one family practice physician; one dentist a major part of whose practice is children's dentistry; one pediatrician; one representative of a child health advocacy organization; and one parent, who is not a health care provider, of a child eligible for health services administered by the department. The Senate Rules Committee shall appoint three members of the state board, including a pediatrician, and a parent, who is not a health care provider, of a child eligible for health services administered by the department, and an individual experienced in administering a local family planning agency. The Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint three members of the state board, including a pediatrician, a nurse specializing in child health, and an obstetrician/gynecologist. A member of the State Council on Developmental Disabilities, a member of the State Commission on Special Education, the Directors of the Departments of Health Services, Mental Health, and Social Services and the Superintendent of Public Instruction, or their designees, shall serve as ex officio, nonvoting members of the state board. The term of each member shall be three years, or for the duration that each member maintains the qualifications under which he or she was appointed, whichever is shorter.

The members of the state board shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for any actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the performance of their duties under this article. Members who are parents of children eligible for departmental programs may additionally be reimbursed upon request for their actual and necessary costs of additional child care and lost wages. The State Department of Health Services shall provide necessary support staff and services to the state board. The state board shall utilize available department staff to carry out specific tasks enumerated in this article. The state board may hire staff for special projects provided the total budget level for board operations does not exceed the existing level, except as provided for by the director or the Legislature by statute.

The state board shall select its own chairperson from among the 13 appointed members by majority vote of the members and shall establish technical advisory committees as it deems necessary and desirable for the efficient and expeditious performance of its duties. The director may provide or the state board may request that the director provide additional technical experts and consultants to facilitate and support the work of the state board. The state board shall meet on call of the chairperson, at least once quarterly, or as often as necessary to fulfill its duties. All meetings and records of the state board shall be open to the public.

The state board shall have all of the following powers, duties and responsibilities:

(a) Recommend that independent studies, investigations, and hearings on the health of women, children, and adolescents and the system of health services for women, children, and adolescents be conducted.

(b) Review health programs which serve women, children, and adolescents and recommend steps to facilitate service delivery.

(c) Identify deficiencies and barriers in the maternal, child, and adolescent health delivery system on a statewide basis, and recommend priorities for remedy.

(d) Review, during the development stage, any plans developed by the department for establishment of new or for major revision to, existing health programs for women, children, and adolescents and make recommendations on those plans.

(e) Receive from the department for review and comment, prior to their adoption and prior to public hearing if a public hearing is required, rules, regulations, and standards affecting maternal, child, and adolescent health. These may include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) Review of standards for health screening, evaluation, and diagnostic procedures for community maternal, child, and adolescent health programs.

(2) Review of standards for directors of community maternal, child, and adolescent health programs.

(3) Review of standards for public and private health providers, facilities, and agencies which participate in community maternal, child, and adolescent health programs.

(f) Review and comment upon any proposed written department policies that would have a significant effect on maternal, child, and adolescent health programs as determined by the board.

(g) Review policies and develop recommendations regarding:

(1) Health goals with measurable objectives for women, children and adolescents in California

(2) Range of services currently available and systems to assure coordination of services for women, children, and adolescents, including fiscal aspects thereof.

(h) Review reports and respond to needs and recommendations of the local boards.

(i) Work with local boards to evaluate the success of established programs and assess the potential viability of proposed programs.

The provisions of this section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 86. Section 324.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

324.7. The State Department of Health Services shall develop a plan to identify causes of infant mortality and morbidity in California and to study recommendations on the reduction of infant mortality and morbidity in California.

The study plan shall be completed on or before July 1, 1988, and shall be developed in conjunction with, and reviewed by, each of the following organizations:

(1) The California Medical Association.

(2) The California Nurses Association.
(3) The California Hospital Association.
(4) The American College of Obstetrics and Gynecologists.
(5) The American College of Nurse Midwives.
(6) The California Academy of Family Physicians.
(7) The American Academy of Pediatrics.
(8) The California Association of Freestanding Birth Centers.
(9) The American Public Health Association.
(10) The Medical Board of California.
(11) The Board of Registered Nurses.
(12) The Department of Consumer Affairs.
(13) The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.
(14) The California Association of Midwives.

SEC. 87. Section 429.97 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

429.97. The Legislature finds and declares that:

(a) Planning for appropriate supplies and distribution of health care personnel is essential to assure the continued health and well-being of the people of the state and also to contain excess costs that may result from unnecessary training and underutilization of health care personnel.

(b) The information on physicians and surgeons collected by the Medical Board of California, in cooperation with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, and under the authority of Sections 921 and 923 of the Business and Professions Code has proven to be valuable for health manpower planning purposes. It is the intent of the Legislature, through this article, to provide for the efficient collection and analysis of similar information on other major categories of healing arts licentiates, in order to facilitate the development of the biennial health manpower plan and other reports and program activities of the office.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the data transmitted to the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development by the various boards be processed by the boards in such a manner that licentiates are not identified by name or license number.

SEC. 88. Section 429.982 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

429.982. Notwithstanding Sections 922 and 925 of the Business and Professions Code, the office may receive, and the Medical Board of California may provide, information respecting individual licentiates collected pursuant to Sections 921 and 923 of the Business and Professions Code

Information provided to the office pursuant to this section shall be transmitted in such a form that the name or license number of an individual licensee are not identifiable. However, an encoding procedure shall be used to assign a unique identifying number to the other information provided upon the questionnaire so as to allow the office to track the geographical movements of physicians for planning purposes.

SEC. 89. Section 1198 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1198. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Division of Licensing of the Medical Board of California strongly urge those organizations responsible for the development of physician licensing examinations to include within those examinations increased emphasis on medical problems of the elderly.

(b) The Medical Board of California shall report to the Legislature its initial findings regarding the intent declared in subdivision (a) by January 1, 1986, and shall submit a subsequent report on or before January 1, 1987.

SEC. 90. Section 1317.1 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 1225 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

1317.1. Unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions shall control the construction of this article:

(a) "Emergency services and care" means medical screening, examination, and evaluation by a physician, or, to the extent permitted by applicable law, by other appropriate personnel under the supervision of a physician, to determine if an emergency medical condition or active labor exists and, if it does, the care, treatment, and surgery by a physician necessary to relieve or eliminate the emergency medical condition, within the capability of the facility.

(b) "Emergency medical condition" means a medical condition manifesting itself by acute symptoms of sufficient severity (including severe pain) such that the absence of immediate medical attention could reasonably be expected to result in any of the following:

(1) Placing the patient's health in serious jeopardy

(2) Serious impairment to bodily functions.

(3) Serious dysfunction of any bodily organ or part.

(c) "Active labor" means a labor at a time at which either of the following would occur:

(1) There is inadequate time to effect safe transfer to another hospital prior to delivery.

(2) A transfer may pose a threat to the health and safety of the patient or the unborn child.

(d) "Hospital" means all hospitals with an emergency department licensed by the state department.

(e) "State department" means the State Department of Health Services.

(f) "Medical hazard" means a material deterioration in medical condition in, or jeopardy to, a patients' medical condition or expected chances for recovery.

(1) Placing the patient's health in serious jeopardy.

(2) Serious impairment to bodily functions.

(3) Serious dysfunction of any bodily organ or part.

(c) "Active labor" means a labor at a time at which either of the following would occur.

(1) There is inadequate time to effect safe transfer to another hospital prior to delivery.

(2) A transfer may pose a threat to the health and safety of the patient or the unborn child.

(d) "Hospital" means all hospitals with an emergency department licensed by the state department.

(e) "State department" means the State Department of Health Services.

(f) "Medical hazard" means a material deterioration in, or jeopardy to, a patient's medical condition or expected chances for recovery.

(g) "Board" means the Medical Board of California.

(h) "Within the capability of the facility" means those capabilities which the hospital is required to have as a condition of its emergency medical services permit and services specified on Services Inventory Form 7041 filed by the hospital with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

(i) "Consultation" means the rendering of an opinion, advice, or prescribing treatment by telephone and, when determined to be medically necessary jointly by the emergency and the specialty physicians, includes review of the patient's medical record, examination and treatment of the patient in person by a specialty physician who is qualified to give an opinion or render the necessary treatment in order to stabilize the patient.

SEC. 92. Section 1317.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 1225 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

1317.5. (a) All alleged violations of this article and the regulations adopted hereunder shall be investigated by the state department. The state department, with the agreement of the local EMS agency, may refer violations of this article to the local EMS agency for investigation. The investigation shall be conducted pursuant to procedures established by the state department and shall be completed no later than 60 days after the report of apparent violation is received by the state department.

(b) At the conclusion of its investigation, the state department or the local EMS agency shall refer any alleged violation by a physician to the Medical Board of California unless it is determined that the complaint is without a reasonable basis.

SEC. 93. Section 1317.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 1240 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

1317.5. (a) All alleged violations of this article and the regulations adopted hereunder shall be investigated by the state department. The state department, with the agreement of the local EMS agency, may refer violations of this article to the local EMS agency for investigation The investigation shall be conducted pursuant to procedures established by the state department and shall be completed no later than 60 days after the report of apparent violation is received by the state department.

(b) At the conclusion of its investigation, the state department or the local EMS agency shall refer any alleged violation by a physician to the Medical Board of California unless it is determined that the complaint is without a reasonable basis.

SEC. 94. Section 1701 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1701. There is in the State Department of Health Services a Cancer Advisory Council composed of nine physicians and surgeons licensed to practice medicine in, and residing in, this state, three persons who are not physicians and surgeons, two persons representing nonprofit cancer research institutes recognized by the National Cancer Institute, and the director of the state department, who shall be an ex officio member. The members of the council shall be appointed by the Governor to serve for terms of four years. The Governor, in appointing the first members, shall appoint at least one member from the faculty of each of the schools teaching medicine and surgery and located in this state that are approved by the Medical Board of California. The Governor shall endeavor to maintain one member from the faculty of each school in making subsequent appointments.

SEC. 95. Section 1704.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1704.5. The failure of a physician and surgeon to inform a patient by means of a standardized written summary, as developed by the department on the recommendation of the Cancer Advisory Council, in layman's language and in a language understood by the patient of alternative efficacious methods of treatment which may be medically viable, including surgical, radiological, or chemotherapeutic treatments or combinations thereof, when the patient is being treated for any form of breast cancer constitutes unprofessional conduct within the meaning of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code.

A standardized written summary in layman's language and in a language understood by the patient, to be developed by the department on the recommendation of the Cancer Advisory Council and printed and made available by the Medical Board of California to physicians and surgeons, informing the patient of the advantages, disadvantages, risks and descriptions of the procedures with regard to medically viable and efficacious alternative methods of treatment, which is given to the patient shall constitute compliance with the requirements of this section

Prior to performance of a biopsy, the physician and surgeon shall note on the patient's chart that he or she has given the patient the written summary required by this section.

SEC. 96. Section 1797.132 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1797.132. An Interdepartmental Committee on Emergency Medical Services is hereby established. This committee shall advise the authority on the coordination and integration of all state activities concerning emergency medical services. The committee shall include a representative from each of the following state agencies and departments: the Office of Emergency Services, the Department of the California Highway Patrol, the Department of Motor Vehicles, a representative of the administrator of the California Traffic Safety Program as provided by Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2900) of Division 2 of the Vehicle Code, the Medical Board of California, the State Department of Health Services, the Board of Registered Nursing, the State Department of Education, the National Guard, the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, the State Fire Marshal, the California Conference of Local Health Officers, the Department of Forestry, the Chancellor's Office of the California Community Colleges, and the Department of General Services.

SEC. 97. Section 7187 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7187. The following definitions shall govern the construction of this chapter:

(a) "Attending physician" means the physician selected by, or assigned to, the patient who has primary responsibility for the treatment and care of the patient.

(b) "Directive" means a written document voluntarily executed by the declarant in accordance with the requirements of Section

7188. The directive, or a copy of the directive, shall be made part of the patient's medical records.

(c) "Life-sustaining procedure" means any medical procedure or intervention which utilizes mechanical or other artificial means to sustain, restore, or supplant a vital function, which, when applied to a qualified patient, would serve only to artificially prolong the moment of death and where, in the judgment of the attending physician, death is imminent whether or not such procedures are utilized. "Life-sustaining procedure" shall not include the administration of medication or the performance of any medical procedure deemed necessary to alleviate pain.

(d) "Physician" means a physician and surgeon licensed by the Medical Board of California or the Board of Osteopathic Examiners.

(e) "Qualified patient" means a patient diagnosed and certified in writing to be afflicted with a terminal condition by two physicians, one of whom shall be the attending physician, who have personally examined the patient.

(f) "Terminal condition" means an incurable condition caused by injury, disease, or illness, which, regardless of the application of life-sustaining procedures, would, within reasonable medical judgment, produce death, and where the application of life-sustaining procedures serve only to postpone the moment of death of the patient.

SEC. 98. Section 11217 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11217. No person shall treat an addict for addiction to a narcotic drug except in one of the following:

(a) An institution approved by the State Department of Mental Health, and where the patient is at all times kept under restraint and control.

(b) A city or county jail.

(c) A state prison.

(d) A facility designated by a county and approved by the State Department of Mental Health pursuant to Division 5 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) A state hospital.

(f) A county hospital.

(g) A facility licensed by the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs pursuant to Division 10.5 (commencing with Section 11750).

(h) A facility as defined in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 1250 and Section 1250.3.

Methadone in the continuing treatment of addiction to a controlled substance shall be used only in those programs licensed by the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 11875) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 10.5 on either an inpatient or outpatient basis, or both.

This section does not apply during emergency treatment, or where the patient's addiction is complicated by the presence of incurable disease, serious accident, or injury, or the infirmities of old age

Neither this section nor any other provision of this division shall be construed to prohibit the maintenance of a place in which persons seeking to recover from addiction to a controlled substance reside and endeavor to aid one another and receive aid from others in recovering from such addiction, nor does this section or such division prohibit such aid, provided that no person is treated for addiction in such place by means of administering, furnishing, or prescribing of controlled substances. The preceding sentence is declaratory of preexisting law.

Neither this section or any other provision of this division shall be construed to prohibit short-term methadone detoxification treatment in a controlled setting approved by the director and pursuant to rules and regulations of the director. Facilities and treatment approved by the director under this paragraph shall not be subject to approval or inspection by the Medical Board of California, nor shall persons in such facilities be required to register with, or report the termination of residence with, the police department or sheriff's office.

SEC. 99. Section 11998.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11998.1. It is the intent of the Legislature that the following long-term five-year goals be achieved:

(a) With regard to education and prevention of drug and alcohol abuse programs, the following goals:

(1) Drug and alcohol abuse education has been included within the mandatory curriculum in kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, in every public school in California.

(2) Basic training on how to recognize, and understand what to do about, drug and alcohol abuse has been provided to administrators and all teachers of kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive.

(3) All school counselors and school nurses have received comprehensive drug and alcohol abuse training.

(4) Each public school in kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, has appointed an onsite drug and alcohol abuse advisory team of school administrators, teachers, counselors, students, parents, and community representatives, and health care professionals, all of whom have expertise in drug and alcohol abuse prevention. The team coordinates with and receives consultation from the county alcohol and drug program administrator.

(5) Every school board member has received basic drug and alcohol abuse information.

(6) Each school district has a drug and alcohol abuse specialist to assist the individual schools.

(7) Each school in grades 7 to 12, inclusive, has student peer group drug and alcohol abuse programs.

(8) Every school in kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, has updated written drug and alcohol abuse policies and procedures including disciplinary procedures which will be given to every school employee, every student, and every parent.

(9) The California State University and the University of California have evaluated and, if feasible, established educational programs and degrees in the area of drug and alcohol abuse.

(10) Every school in kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, has an established parent teachers group with drug and alcohol abuse prevention goals.

(11) Every school district has instituted a drug and alcohol abuse education program for parents.

(12) Drug and alcohol abuse training has been imposed as a condition for teacher credentialing and license renewal, and knowledge on the issue is measured on the California Basic Education Skills Test.

(13) Drug and alcohol abuse knowledge has been established as a component on standardized competency tests as a requirement for graduation.

(14) Every school district has established a parent support group.

(15) Every school has instituted policies which address the special needs of children who have been rehabilitated for drug or alcohol abuse problems and who are reentering school. These policies shall consider the loss of school time, the loss of academic credits, and the sociological problems associated with drug and alcohol abuse, its rehabilitation, and the educational delay it causes.

(16) The number of drug and alcohol abuse related incidents on school grounds has decreased by 20 percent.

(b) With regard to community programs, the following goals:

(1) Every community-based social service organization that receives state and local financial assistance has drug and alcohol abuse information available for clients.

(2) All neighborhood watch, business watch, and community conflict resolution programs have included drug and alcohol abuse prevention efforts.

(4) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning, Youth and Adult Correctional Agency, and the Department of Justice have as a priority when determining training subjects, prevention seminars on drug and alcohol abuse.

(5) The Department of the California Highway Patrol, as permitted by the United States Constitution, will in conjunction with establishing sobriety check points statewide, assist local law enforcement agencies with the establishment of local programs.

(6) Counties with more than 10 Superior Court judgeships have established programs under which drug cases receive swift prosecution by well-trained prosecutors before judges who are experienced in the handling of drug cases.

(7) The courts, when determining bail eligibility and the amount of bail for persons suspected of a crime involving a controlled substance, shall consider the quantity of the substance involved when measuring the danger to society if the suspect is released.

(8) Drunk driving jails have been established that provide offender education and treatment during incarceration.

(9) All probation and parole officers have received drug and alcohol abuse training, including particular training on drug recognition.

(10) All parolees and persons on probation with a criminal history that involves drug or alcohol abuse have conditions of parole or probation that prohibit drug and alcohol abuse.

(11) The Judicial Council has provided training on drug and alcohol abuse for the judges.

(12) The courts, when sentencing offenders convicted of selling drugs, consider "street value" of the drugs involved in the underlying crime.

(13) Judges have been encouraged to include treatment and prevention services in sentences for all offenders. Judges are requiring, as a condition of sentencing, education and treatment services for all persons convicted of driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

(14) Juvenile halls and jails provide clients with information on drug and alcohol abuse.

(15) The estimated number of clandestine labs operating has decreased by 10 percent per year.

(16) Each local law enforcement agency has developed, with the schools, protocol on responding to school drug and alcohol abuse problems.

(17) Every county has instituted a mandatory driving while under the influence presentence offender evaluation program.

SEC. 100. Section 87 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

87. (a) The department, in cooperation with the Medical Board of California, shall develop a questionnaire for the identification of physicians and surgeons whose experience or medical specialties include the treatment of disorders experienced by veterans as a result of combat.

(b) The Medical Board of California shall, once each year in 1988, 1989, and 1990, transmit the questionnaire to every licensed physician and surgeon in the state explaining the purposes of the physician referral service and requesting the physician and surgeon to indicate his or her experience or skills, if any, in combat-related disorders. Response to the questionnaire shall be voluntary. Physicians and surgeons responding to the questionnaire shall be requested to transmit their responses to the county veteran service officer serving the geographic area within which the physician and surgeon practices.

(c) A county veteran service officer may provide the name, address, and telephone number of a physician and surgeon who has responded to the questionnaire to any veteran requesting that information.

(d) The department shall, on or before July 1, 1990, compile and submit to the Legislature any information obtained voluntarily from county veteran service officers relating to their experiences with the physician referral service pursuant to this section together with their recommendations concerning continuation of the service.

(e) Neither the state nor any county is required to verify or endorse any response furnished by a physician and surgeon pursuant to this section or shall be liable for any injury arising from a referral made pursuant to this section, or from any failure to make a referral.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

(e) "Approved," as used with reference to academic institutions, means approved under subdivision (b) of Section 94310.2 of the Education Code.

SEC. 2. Section 2909 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2909. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as restricting or preventing activities of a psychological nature or the use of the official title of the position for which they were employed on the part of the following persons, provided those persons are performing those activities as part of the duties for which they were employed, are performing those activities solely within the confines of or under the jurisdiction of the organization in which they are employed and do not offer to render or render psychological services as defined in Section 2903 to the public for a fee, monetary or otherwise, over and above the salary they receive for the performance of their official duties with the organization in which they are employed:

(a) Persons who hold a valid and current credential as a school psychologist issued by the California Department of Education.

(b) Persons who hold a valid and current credential as a psychometrist issued by the California Department of Education.

(c) Persons employed in positions as psychologists or psychological assistants, or in a student counseling service, by accredited or approved colleges, junior colleges or universities; federal, state, county or municipal governmental organizations which are not primarily involved in the provision of direct health or mental health services. However, those persons may, without obtaining a license under this act, consult or disseminate their research findings and scientific information to other such accredited or approved academic institutions or governmental agencies. They may also offer lectures to the public for a fee, monetary or otherwise, without being licensed under this chapter.

(d) Persons who meet the educational requirements of subdivision (d) of Section 2914 and who have one year or more of professional experience of a type which the board determines will competently and safely permit the person to engage in the activities regulated by this chapter, if they are employed by nonprofit community agencies which receive a minimum of 25 percent of their financial support from any federal, state, county, or municipal governmental organizations for the purpose of training and providing services. Those persons shall be registered by the agency with the board at the time of employment and shall be exempt from this chapter for a maximum period of two years from the date of registration.

(e) This section shall become operative January 1, 1984.

SEC. 3. Section 2913 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read·

2913. A person other than a licensed psychologist may be employed by a licensed psychologist, by a licensed physician and surgeon who is board certified in psychiatry by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology, by a clinic which provides mental health services under contract pursuant to Section 5614 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, by a psychological corporation, by a licensed psychology clinic as defined in Section 1204.1 of the Health and Safety Code, or by a medical corporation to perform limited psychological functions provided that all of the following apply:

(a) The person is termed a "psychological assistant."

(b) The person (1) has completed a master's degree in psychology or education with the field of specialization in psychology or counseling psychology, or (2) has been admitted to candidacy for a doctoral degree in psychology or education with the field of specialization in psychology or counseling psychology, after having satisfactorily completed three or more years of postgraduate education in psychology and having passed preliminary doctoral examinations, or (3) has completed a doctoral degree which qualifies for licensure under Section 2914, in an accredited or approved university, college, or professional school located in the United States or Canada.

(c) The person is at all times under the immediate supervision, as defined in regulations adopted by the board, of a licensed psychologist, or board certified psychiatrist, who shall be responsible for insuring that the extent, kind, and quality of the psychological services he or she performs are consistent with his or her training and experience and be responsible for his or her compliance with this chapter and regulations duly adopted hereunder, including those provisions set forth in Section 2960.

(d) The licensed psychologist, board certified psychiatrist, contract clinic, psychological corporation, or medical corporation, has registered the psychological assistant with the board. The registration shall be renewed annually in accordance with regulations adopted by the board.

No licensed psychologist may register, employ, or supervise more than three psychological assistants at any given time unless specifically authorized to do so by the board. No board certified psychiatrist may register, employ, or supervise more than one psychological assistant at any given time. No contract clinic, psychological corporation, or medical corporation may employ more than 10 assistants at any one time. No contract clinic may register, employ, or provide supervision for more than one psychological assistant for each designated full-time staff psychiatrist who is qualified and supervises the psychological assistants. No psychological assistant may provide psychological services to the public for a fee, monetary or otherwise, except as an employee of a licensed psychologist, licensed physician, contract clinic, psychological corporation, or medical corporation.

(e) The psychological assistant shall comply with regulations that the board may, from time to time, duly adopt relating to the fulfillment of requirements in continuing education.

(f) No person shall practice as a psychological assistant who is found by the board to be in violation of Section 2960 and the rules and regulations duly adopted thereunder.

SEC. 4. Section 2914 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2914. Each applicant for licensure shall comply with all of the following requirements:

(a) Is not subject to denial of licensure under Division 1.5.

(b) Possess an earned doctorate degree (1) in psychology, (2) in education psychology, (3) in education with the field of specialization in counseling psychology or educational psychology, or (4) possess an earned doctorate degree deemed equivalent by the board in regulations duly adopted under this chapter. This degree or training shall be obtained from an accredited or approved university, college, professional school, or any other educational institution approved by the board as offering a comparable program in regulations duly adopted under this chapter.

No educational institution shall be denied recognition as an accredited or approved academic institution solely because its program is not accredited by any professional organization of psychologists, and nothing in this chapter or in the administration of this chapter shall require the registration with the board by educational institutions of their departments of psychology or their doctoral programs in psychology

(c) Have engaged for at least two years in supervised professional experience under the direction of a licensed psychologist, the specific requirements of which shall be defined by the board in its regulations, or such suitable alternative supervision as determined by the board in regulations duly adopted under this chapter, at least one year of which shall be after being awarded the doctorate in psychology. If the supervising licensed psychologist fails to provide verification to the board of the experience required by this subdivision within 30 days after being so requested by the applicant, the applicant may provide written verification directly to the board.

If the applicant sends verification directly to the board, the applicant shall file with the board a declaration of proof of service, under penalty of perjury, of the request for verification. A copy of the completed verification forms shall be provided to the supervising psychologist and the applicant shall prove to the board that a copy has been sent to the supervising psychologist by filing a declaration of proof of service under penalty of perjury, and shall file this declaration with the board when the verification forms are submitted.

Upon receipt by the board of the applicant's verification and declarations, a rebuttable presumption affecting the burden of producing evidence is created that the supervised, professional experience requirements of this subdivision have been satisfied. The supervising psychologist shall have 20 days from the day the board receives the verification and declaration to file a rebuttal with the board.

The authority provided by this subdivision for an applicant to file written verification directly shall apply only to an applicant who has acquired the experience required by this subdivision in the United States.

The board shall establish qualifications by regulation for supervising psychologists and shall review and approve applicants for this position on a case-by-case basis.

(d) Take and pass the examination required by Section 2941 unless otherwise exempted by the board under this chapter.

(e) Show by evidence satisfactory to the board that he or she has completed training in the detection and treatment of alcohol and other chemical substance dependency. This requirement applies only to applicants who matriculate on or after September 1, 1985.

SEC. 5. Section 2920 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2920 The Board of Psychology of the Board of Medical Quality Assurance of the Department of Consumer Affairs shall administer this chapter. The board shall consist of eight members, three of whom shall be public members.

SEC. 6. Section 2921 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2921. Each member of the board shall hold office for a term of four years, and shall serve until the appointment and qualification of his or her successor or until one year shall have elapsed since the expiration of the term for which he or she was appointed, whichever first occurs. No member may serve for more than two consecutive terms.

SEC. 7. Section 2922 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2922. In appointing the members of the board, except the public members, the Governor shall use his judgment to select psychologists who represent, as widely as possible, the varied professional interests of psychologists in California.

The Governor shall appoint one of the public members and the five licensed members of the board qualified as provided in Section 2923. The Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint a public member, and their initial appointment shall be made to fill, respectively, the first and second public member vacancies which occur on or after January 1, 1983.

SEC. 8. Section 2923 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2923. Each member of the board shall have all of the following qualifications:

(a) He or she shall be a resident of this state.

(b) Each member appointed, except the public members shall be a licensed psychologist.

The public members shall not be licentiates of the board or of any board under this division or of any board referred to in the Chiropractic Act or the Osteopathic Act.

SEC. 9. Section 2924 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2924. The Governor has power to remove from office any member of the board for neglect of any duty required by this chapter, for incompetency, or for unprofessional conduct.

SEC. 10. Section 2925 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2925. The board shall elect annually a chairperson and vice chairperson from among its members.

SEC. 11. Section 2926 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2926. The board shall hold at least one regular meeting each year. Additional meetings may be held upon call of the chairman or at the written request of any two members of the board.

SEC. 12. Section 2928 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2928. The board shall administer and enforce this chapter except as to those acts and functions specifically vested in the division by this chapter and those acts and functions of the division shall in no way be enlarged by the other chapters of this division.

SEC. 13. Section 2929 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2929. The board shall adopt a seal, which shall be affixed to all licenses issued by the division.

SEC. 14. Section 2930 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2930. The board shall from time to time adopt rules and regulations as may be necessary to effectuate this chapter. In adopting rules and regulations the board shall comply with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 15. Section 2931 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2931. The board shall examine and pass upon the qualifications of the applicants for a license as provided by this chapter.

SEC. 16. Section 2932 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2932. Five members of the board shall at all times constitute a quorum.

SEC. 17. Section 2933 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2933. Except as provided by Section 159.5, the division shall employ and shall make available to the board within the limits of the funds received by the division all personnel necessary to carry out this chapter. The board may employ, exempt from the State Civil Service Act, an executive officer to the Board of Psychology. The division shall make all expenditures to carry out this chapter. The division may accept contributions to effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

SEC. 18 Section 2934 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2934. Notwithstanding Section 112, the board may issue, biennially, a current geographical directory of licensed psychologists. The directory may be sent to licensees and to other interested parties at cost.

SEC. 19 Section 2935 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2935. Each member of the board shall receive a per diem and expenses as provided in Section 103.

SEC. 20. Section 2936 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2936. The board shall by rule or regulation, establish standards of ethical conduct relating to the practice of psychology.

The board shall periodically evaluate the relevancy and efficacy of the standards.

In establishing these standards, the board may consider codes of ethics of relevant professional organizations, information and complaints regarding issues of ethical conduct from consumers of psychological services and other providers of mental health services. The board shall adopt a program of consumer and professional education in matters relevant to the ethical practice of psychology.

The adoption, amendment, or repeal of such rules or regulations shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 11371) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

To facilitate consumers in receiving appropriate psychological services, all licensees and registrants shall be required to post, in a conspicuous location, a notice which reads as follows:

"NOTICE: The Department of Consumer Affairs receives questions and complaints regarding the practice of psychology. If you have any questions or complaints, you may contact this department by calling (insert appropriate regional number) or (insert appropriate telephone number), or by writing to the following address:

Board of Medical Quality Assurance
Allied Health Complaints
1430 Howe Avenue
Sacramento, California 95825"

SEC. 21. Section 2940 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2940. Each person desiring to obtain a license from the division shall make application to the board. The application shall be made upon a form and shall be made in a manner as the board prescribes in regulations duly adopted under this chapter

The application shall be accompanied by the application fee prescribed by Section 2949. This fee shall not be refunded by the division.

SEC. 22. Section 2941 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2941. Each applicant for a psychology license shall be examined by the board, and shall pay to the board, at least 30 days prior to the date of examination, the examination fee prescribed by Section 2987, which fee shall not be refunded by the division.

SEC. 23. Section 2942 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2942. The board may examine by written or oral examination or by both. The examination shall be given at least twice a year at the time and place and under supervision as the board may determine. A grade of 75 percent shall be a passing grade.

Examinations for a psychologist's license may be conducted by the board under a uniform examination system, and for that purpose the board may make arrangements with organizations furnishing examination material as may in its discretion be desirable.

SEC 24. Section 2943 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2943. The board may examine for knowledge in whatever theoretical or applied fields in psychology as it deems appropriate. It may examine the candidate with regard to his or her professional skills and his or her judgment in the utilization of psychological techniques and methods.

SEC. 25. Section 2944 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2944. The board shall grade the written examination and keep the written examination papers for at least one year, unless a uniform examination is conducted pursuant to Section 2942.

SEC. 26. Section 2945 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2945. The board shall keep an accurate transcription or electronic recording of the oral examinations and keep a transcription or recording as a part of its records for at least one year following the date of examination.

SEC. 27. Section 2946 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2946. The board shall direct the division to grant a license without examination by the board to any person who, at the time of application is licensed or certified by a psychology licensing authority in another state if the requirements for obtaining a certificate or license in that state were substantially equivalent to the requirements of this chapter.

A psychologist certified or licensed in another state and who has made application to the board for a license in this state may perform activities and services of a psychological nature without a valid license for a period not to exceed 180 calendar days from the time of submitting his or her application or from the commencement of residency in this state, whichever first occurs.

The board at its discretion may waive those parts of the examination, including either the whole of the written or the oral examinations, when in the judgment of the board the applicant has already demonstrated competence in areas covered by those parts of the examination. The board at its discretion may waive the examination for diplomates of the American Board of Examiners in Professional Psychology or psychologists who have made a significant contribution to psychology and have had at least 10 years of experience.

SEC. 28. Section 2947 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read.

2947. The board may appoint qualified persons to give the whole or any portion of any examination provided for in this chapter, who shall be designated as commissioners on examination. A commissioner on examination need not be a member of the board but he or she shall have the same qualifications as a member of the board, including those set forth in Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 450) of Division 1. The board may also appoint occasional professional commissioners for short-term specified periods to assist in its nonpolicy workload.

Public commissioners may examine and evaluate candidates in areas of knowledge such as the law, ethics, and awareness of community resources.

SEC. 29. Section 2948 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2948. The division shall issue, upon the recommendation and at the direction of the board, a license to all applicants who meet the requirements of this chapter and who pay to the division the initial license fee provided in Section 2949.

SEC. 30. Section 2960 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2960. The board may order the denial of an application for licensure, or issue a license with terms and conditions, or, as to any licensee, order the suspension for a period not exceeding one year, or the revocation of, or the imposition of probationary conditions upon, a licensee for any of the following causes:

(a) Conviction of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions or duties of a psychologist or psychological assistant.

(b) Use of any controlled substance as defined in Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code, or dangerous drug, or any alcoholic beverage to an extent or in a manner dangerous to himself or herself, any other person, or the public, or to an extent that such use impairs his or her ability to perform the work of a psychologist with safety to the public.

(c) Fraudulently or neglectfully misrepresenting the type or status of license or registration actually held.

(d) Impersonating another person holding a psychology license or allowing another person to use his or her license or registration.

(e) Using fraud or deception in applying for a license or registration or in passing the examination provided for in this chapter.

(f) Accepting commissions or rebates or other forms of remuneration for referring persons to other professionals.

(g) Violating Section 17500.

(h) Willful, unauthorized communication of information received in professional confidence.

(i) Violating any rule of professional conduct promulgated by the board and set forth in regulations duly adopted under this chapter.

(j) Being grossly negligent in the practice of his or her profession.

(k) Violating any of the provisions of this chapter or regulations duly adopted thereunder.

(l) The aiding or abetting of any person to engage in the unlawful practice of psychology.

(m) The suspension, revocation or imposition of probationary conditions by another state of a license or certificate to practice psychology or as a psychological assistant issued by that state to a person also holding a license or registration issued under this chapter if the act for which the disciplinary action was taken constitutes a violation of this section.

(n) The commission of any dishonest, corrupt, or fraudulent act or any act of sexual abuse, or sexual relations with a patient, or sexual misconduct which is substantially related to the qualifications, functions or duties of a psychologist or psychological assistant.

(o) Functioning outside of his or her particular field or fields of competence as established by his or her education, training, and experience.

(p) Willful failure to submit, on behalf of an applicant for licensure, verification of supervised experience to the board.

(q) Using any fictitious, false, or assumed name, or any name other than his or her own by a licensee either alone, in conjuction with a partnership or group, or as the name of a professional corporation, in any public communication, advertisement, sign, or announcement of his or her practice without a fictitious-name permit obtained pursuant to Section 2920.5.

SEC. 31. Section 2961 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2961. The board may deny an application for, or issue subject to terms and conditions, or suspend or revoke, or impose probationary conditions upon, a license or registration after a hearing as provided in Section 2965.

SEC. 32. Section 2962 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2962. One year from the date of a revocation of a license under this article, application may be made to the board for reinstatement. The board shall have discretion to accept or reject an application for reinstatement and may require an examination for that reinstatement.

SEC. 33. Section 2963 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2963. A plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere made to a charge which is substantially related to the qualifications, functions and duties of a psychologist or psychological assistant is deemed to be a conviction within the meaning of this article. The board may order the license suspended or revoked, or may decline to issue a license when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, irrespective of a subsequent order under Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code allowing the person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information or indictment.

SEC 34 Section 2964 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2964. Whenever the board orders a license revoked for cause, with the exception of nonpayment of fees, or restores a license, these facts shall be reported to all other state psychology licensing boards.

SEC. 35. Section 2965 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2965. The proceedings under this article shall be conducted by the board in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 36. Section 2971 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2971. Whenever any person other than a licensed psychologist has engaged in any act or practice which constitutes an offense against this chapter, the superior court of any county, on application of the board, may issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining that conduct. Proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7, Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except that it shall be presumed that there is no adequate remedy at law, and that irreparable damage will occur if the continued violation is not restrained or enjoined. On the written request of the board, or on its own motion, the Division of Allied Health Professions may commence action in the superior court under this section.

SEC 37. Section 2980 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read·

2980. (a) There is in the State Treasury the Psychology Fund. The division shall report to the Controller at the beginning of each calender month for the month preceding the amount and source of all revenue received by it on behalf of the board, pursuant to this chapter, and shall pay the entire amount thereof to the Treasurer for deposit into that fund. All revenue received by the board and the division from fees authorized to be charged relating to the practice of psychology shall be deposited into that fund as provided in this section.

(b) If on the effective date of this section, money expended in the administration and enforcement of this chapter for five fiscal years prior to the effective date of this section has exceeded revenue derived from fees authorized under this chapter, the State Controller shall transfer from the Psychology Fund to the Contingent Fund of the Board of Medical Quality Assurance within three years from the effective date of this section the amount that those expenditures exceeded that revenue.

SEC. 38. Section 2982 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2982. All licenses expire and become invalid at 12 midnight on the last day of February, 1980, and thereafter shall expire at 12 midnight of the legal birth date of the licensee during the second year of a two-year term, if not renewed.

The board shall establish by regulation procedures for the administration of the birth date renewal program, including but not limited to, the establishment of a pro rata formula for the payments of fees by licentiates affected by the implementation of that program and the establishment of a system of staggered license application dates such that a relatively equal number of licenses expire annually.

To renew an unexpired license, the licensee shall, on or before the date on which it would otherwise expire, apply for renewal on a form provided by the board, accompanied by the prescribed renewal fee.

SEC. 39. Section 2983 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2983. Every person to whom a license is issued after December 31, 1968, shall, as a condition precedent to its issuance, and in addition to any application, examination or other fee, pay the prescribed initial license fee, if any. The board, may, by regulation provide for the waiver or refund of the initial license fee, however, where the license is issued less than 45 days before the date on which it will expire.

SEC. 40. Section 2984 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2984. Except as provided in Section 2985, a license which has expired may be renewed at any time within five years after its expiration on filing of application for renewal on a form prescribed by the division and payment of the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date. If the license is not renewed within 30 days after its expiration, the licensee, as a condition precedent to renewal, shall also pay the prescribed delinquency fee, if any. Renewal under this section shall be effective on the date on which the application is filed, on the date on which the renewal fee is paid, or on the date on which the delinquency fee, if any, is paid, whichever last occurs. If so renewed, the license shall continue in effect through the expiration date provided in Section 2982 which next occurs after the effective date of the renewal, when it shall expire and become invalid if it is not again renewed.

SEC 41 Section 2986 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2986 A person who fails to renew his or her license within the five years after its expiration may not renew it, and it may not be restored, reissued, or reinstated thereafter, but that person may apply for and obtain a new license if he or she meets the requirements of this chapter provided that he or she:

(a) Has not committed any acts or crimes constituting grounds for denial of licensure.

(b) Establishes to the satisfaction of the board that with due regard for the public interest, he or she is qualified to practice psychology.

(c) Pays all of the fees that would be required if application for licensure was being made for the first time.

The board may provide for the waiver or refund of all or any part of an examination fee in those cases in which a license is issued without examination pursuant to this section.

SEC. 42. Section 2987 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2987. The amount of the fees prescribed by this chapter shall be determined by the board subject to the review and approval of the Board of Medical Quality Assurance, and shall be as follows:

(a) The application fee for a psychologist shall not be more than fifty dollars ($50).

(b) The examination fee for a psychologist shall not be more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(c) The initial license fee is an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the license is issued, except that if the license will expire less than one year after its issuance, then the initial license fee is an amount equal to 50 percent of the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the license is issued.

(d) The biennial renewal fee for a psychologist shall not be more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(e) The application fee for registration and supervision of a psychological assistant by a supervisor under Section 2913, which is payable by such supervisor, shall not be more than seventy-five dollars ($75)

(f) The annual renewal fee for registration of a psychological assistant shall not be more than seventy-five dollars ($75).

(g) The duplicate license or registration fee is five dollars ($5).

(h) The delinquency fee is twenty-five dollars ($25).

(i) The endorsement fee is five dollars ($5).

SEC. 43. Section 2988 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2988. A licensed psychologist who for reasons, including but not limited to ill health or absence from the state, is not engaged in the practice of psychology, may apply to the board to request that his or her license be placed on an inactive status. A licensed psychologist who holds an inactive license shall pay a biennial renewal fee, fixed by the board, at not more than forty dollars ($40), shall otherwise be subject to this chapter and shall not engage in the practice of psychology in this state. Licensees on inactive status who have not committed any acts or crimes constituting grounds for denial of licensure may, upon their request and payment of the biennial active license renewal fee, have their license to practice psychology reinstated.

SEC. 44. Section 2989 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2989. The fees in this article shall be fixed by the board and shall be set forth with the regulations which are duly adopted under this chapter.

SEC. 45. Section 2995 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2995. A psychological corporation is a corporation which is authorized to render professional services, as defined in Section 13401 of the Corporations Code, so long as that corporation and its shareholders, officers, directors and employees rendering professional services who are psychologists, podiatrists, registered nurses, optometrists, or physicians are in compliance with the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act, this article, and all other statutes and regulations now or hereafter enacted or adopted pertaining to that corporation and the conduct of its affairs.

With respect to a psychological corporation, the governmental agency referred to in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act is the Board of Psychology of the Board of Medical Quality Assurance.

SEC. 46. Section 2999 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2999. The board may adopt and enforce regulations to carry out the purposes and objectives of this article, including regulations requiring (a) that the bylaws of a psychological corporation shall include a provision whereby the capital stock of that corporation owned by a disqualified person, as defined in Section 13401 of the Corporations Code, or a deceased person, shall be sold to the corporation or to the remaining shareholders of that corporation within any time as those regulations may provide, and (b) that a psychological corporation shall provide adequate security by insurance or otherwise for claims against it by its patients or clients arising out of the rendering of professional services.

SEC 47. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 2902 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 184. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1990, (2) each bill amends Section 2902 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 184, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 889

An act to add Sections 18266.1, 18266.2, 18266.3, 18301, 18302, and 18303 to the Financial Code, relating to industrial loan companies.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18266.1 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18266.1. Whenever authorized by the commissioner, an industrial loan company may make loans and acquire obligations, the proceeds of which are used for home improvements which are primarily secured by real property having a market value of at least 100 percent of the principal amount owing on the loan being made by the industrial loan company or obligation being acquired by the industrial loan company and on prior encumbrances, except nondelinquent tax liens, secured by the same real property. Home improvements means additions, alterations, or modifications to owner-occupied property consisting of one to four dwelling units and appurtenant buildings thereto or to the real property containing same. Home improvement loans subject to this section shall be made only by industrial loan companies whose thrift obligations are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

SEC. 2. Section 18266.2 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18266.2. An industrial loan company shall file a written request for authorization to conduct business under Section 18266.1. The request shall include the following information:

(a) A description of the company's proposed plan of business.

(b) The character, business qualifications, and other experience of the proposed officers and managers directing the line of business for which authorization is requested.

(c) Any other facts and circumstances bearing on the proposal that, in the opinion of the commissioner, may be relevant.

SEC. 3. Section 18266.3 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18266.3. The commissioner shall approve the request made pursuant to Section 18266.2 within 30 days after filing unless the commissioner has ascertained that the company has failed to show either of the following:

(a) That the proposed plan of business has a reasonable promise of a successful operation.

(b) That the company has a person with the necessary business qualifications, experience or ability to direct and manage the operations of the plan of business.

SEC. 4. Section 18301 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18301. (a) Whenever authorized by the commissioner, an industrial loan company whose thrift obligations are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation may make a secured line of credit loan. Security for line of credit loans shall be of a kind and class that has been declared eligible by the commissioner.

(b) Line of credit loans authorized under Title VIII (Alternative Mortgage Transaction Party Act of 1982) of the Garn-St. Germain Depository Institutions Act of 1982 are not subject to subdivision (a).

(c) As used in this article, "line of credit loan" means a loan whereby a borrower requests and a company disburses loan proceeds in an installment or installments during the term of the loan by an advance or series of advances, whether or not the timing of the advance or advances is known on the date the loan is approved by the company.

(d) This section does not apply to secured line of credit lending activities engaged in on or before May 1, 1989, unless, after that date there is a change in the secured line of credit plan of business by the company.

SEC. 5. Section 18302 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18302. An industrial loan company shall file a written request for authorization to conduct business under subdivision (a) of Section

18301. The request shall include all of the following information:

(a) A description of the company's proposed plan of business.

(b) The character, business qualifications, and other experience of the proposed officers and managers directing the line of business for which authorization is requested.

(c) Any other facts and circumstances bearing on the proposal that, in the opinion of the commissioner, may be relevant.

SEC. 6. Section 18303 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18303. The commissioner shall approve the request made pursuant to Section 18302 within 30 days after filing unless the commissioner has ascertained that the company has failed to show either of the following:

(a) That the proposed plan of business has a reasonable promise of a successful operation.

(b) That the company has a person with the necessary business qualifications, experience, or ability to direct and manage the operations of the plan of business.

CHAPTER 890

An act to amend Sections 4004, 4005, 4152, and 4180 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to traps.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4004 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

4004. It is unlawful to do any of the following:

(a) Use a trap with saw-toothed or spiked jaws.

(b) Use or sell leghold steel-jawed traps with a spread of 5½ inches or larger without offset jaws.

(c) Use steel-jawed traps larger than size 1½ or with a spread larger than 4⅞ inches for taking muskrat.

(d) Set or maintain traps which do not bear a number or other identifying mark registered to the department or, in the case of a federal, state, county, or city agency, bear the name of that agency, except that traps set pursuant to Section 4152 or 4180 shall bear an identifying mark in a manner specified by the department. No registration fee shall be charged pursuant to this subdivision.

(e) Fail to visit and remove all animals from traps at least once daily. If the trapping is done pursuant to Section 4152 or 4180, the inspection and removal shall be done by the person who sets the trap or the owner of the land where the trap is set or an agent of either.

(f) Use a steel leghold trap with a spread exceeding 7½ inches or killer-type trap of the conibear type that is larger than 10 inches by 10 inches.

(g) Set or maintain steel leghold traps within 30 feet of bait placed in a manner or position so that it may be seen by any soaring bird. As used in this subdivision, "bait" includes any bait composed of mammal, bird, or fish flesh, fur, hide, entrails, or feathers.

(h) Set or maintain steel leghold traps with a spread of 5½ inches or larger without a tension device.

SEC. 2. Section 4005 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

4005. Every person, other than a fur dealer, who takes fur-bearing mammals or nongame mammals, designated by the commission, by means of a trap, or who sells raw furs of those mammals, shall procure a trapping license. The department shall develop standards that are necessary to ensure the competence and proficiency of applicants for a trapping license No person shall be issued a license until he or she has passed a test of his or her knowledge and skill in this field. Persons taking mammals in accordance with Section 4152 or 4180 are not required to procure a trapping license, but no raw furs so taken may be sold.

For purposes of this chapter, "raw fur" means any fur, pelt, or skin which has not been tanned or cured, but salt or sun cured pelts are raw furs.

Officers or employees of federal, county, or city agencies or the department, when acting in their official capacities, or officers or employees of the Department of Food and Agriculture when acting pursuant to the Food and Agricultural Code pertaining to pests or pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 6021) of Chapter 9 of Part 1 of Division 4 of the Food and Agricultural Code, are exempt from the license requirement of this section.

SEC. 3. Section 4152 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

4152. Nongame mammals and black-tailed jackrabbits, muskrats, and red fox squirrels which are found to be injuring growing crops or other property may be taken at any time or in any manner in accordance with this code by the owner or tenant of the premises or employees thereof, except that if leghold steel-jawed traps are used to take those mammals, the traps and the use thereof shall be in accordance with subdivisions (a), (b), and (d) of Section 4004. They may also be taken by officers or employees of the Department of Food and Agriculture or by federal, county, or city, officers or employees when acting in their official capacities pursuant to the provisions of the Food and Agricultural Code pertaining to pests, or pursuant to the provisions of Article 6 (commencing with Section 6021) of Chapter 9 of Part 1 of Division 4 of the Food and Agricultural Code. Persons taking mammals in accordance with this section are exempt from the requirements of Section 3007.

Traps used pursuant to this section shall be inspected and all animals in the trap shall be removed at least once daily. The inspection and removal shall be done by the person who sets the trap or the owner of the land where the trap is set or an agent of either.

SEC. 4. Section 4180 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

4180. Fur-bearing mammals which are injuring property may be taken at any time and in any manner in accordance with this code, except that if leghold steel-jawed traps are used to take those mammals, the traps and the use thereof shall be in accordance with subdivisions (a), (b), and (d) of Section 4004.

Traps used pursuant to this section shall be inspected and all animals in the trap shall be removed at least once daily. The inspection and removal shall be done by the person who sets the trap or the owner of the land where the trap is set or an agent of either.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 20654, 20901, and 20932 of the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20654 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20654. Subject to regulations adopted by the board, a member may file an election with the board to redeposit in the retirement fund, in a lump sum or by installment payments, (1) an amount equal to the accumulated contributions that he or she has withdrawn at one or more terminations of service, or for one withdrawal at a time, but in reverse chronological order in which they occurred, and (2) an amount equal to the interest which would have been credited to his or her account to the date of completion of payments had the contributions not been withdrawn, and (3) if he or she elects to redeposit in other than one sum, interest on the unpaid balance of the amount payable to the retirement fund, beginning on the date of the election to redeposit, as if the annual interest rate in effect on the date of the election to redeposit had been and continued to be in effect through the completion of the payments.

SEC. 2. Section 20901 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20901. Unless otherwise provided in this article, a member electing to receive service credit for time during which he or she was absent from state service shall contribute in a lump sum or by installments over such period and subject to such minimum payments as may be prescribed by regulations of the board an amount equal to (a) the contributions he or she would have made to the system for the period for which current service credit is granted, assuming that the rate of contribution under his or her employer's formula at the rate age applicable to him or her at the beginning of his or her first subsequent period of service in membership and his or her compensation earnable on that date had applied to him or her during the period for which credit is granted, plus (b) such added contributions as may be specially required under this article as a condition for crediting a particular absence, plus (c) the interest which would have accrued to such contributions if they had been on deposit at the beginning date of his or her first subsequent period of service in membership, from that date until the date of completion of payments. The beginning date of the first subsequent period of service for purposes of computation of contributions and interest shall be deemed to be the end of the period of service credited for a member who has no subsequent return to service. For a member who is subject to Sections 21251.146 and 21251.147, the service and contribution rate to be used for purposes of computation shall be deemed to be the service and contribution rate that would have been used had the member not been subject to Sections 21251.146 and 21251.147.

Service shall be credited as current or prior service, or both, as it would be credited if the member had been in state service during his or her absence. All contributions of a member under this article shall be considered to be and shall be administered as normal contributions.

SEC. 3. Section 20932 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20932. A member electing to receive credit for public service shall contribute in a lump sum or by installment payments over such period and subject to such minimum payments as may be prescribed by regulations of the board an amount equal to (a) the contributions he or she would have made to the system for the period for which current service credit is granted, assuming that the rate of contribution under his or her employer's formula at the rate age applicable to him or her at the beginning of his or her first subsequent period of service in membership and his or her compensation earnable on that date had applied to him or her during the period for which credit is granted, plus (b) such added contribution as may be specially required under this article as a condition for crediting particular public service, plus (c) the interest which would have accrued to those contributions if they had been deposited at the beginning date of his or her first subsequent period of service in membership, from that date until the date of completion of payments, and (d) if he or she elects to contribute in other than one sum, interest on the unpaid balance of the amount payable to the retirement fund, beginning on the date of the election to receive credit. The beginning date of the first subsequent period of service for purposes of computation of contribution and interest shall be deemed to be the end of the period of service credited for a member who has no subsequent return to service. For a member who is subject to Sections 21251.146 and 21251.147, the service and contribution rate to be used for purposes of computation shall be deemed to be the service and contribution rate that would have been used had the member not been subject to Sections 21251.146 and 21251.147.

All contributions of a member under this article shall be considered to be and shall be administered as normal contributions.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that serious concerns arising out of various recent changes in the federal income tax which substantially affect the public pension and retirement systems in the State of California may be remedied at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 892

An act to amend Section 50920 of the Government Code, to amend Sections 11732.5, 11734, 11751.1, 11751.3, 11751.35, and 11770 of, to add Section 11751.51 to, and to add and repeal Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 11745) of Chapter 3 of Part 3 of Division 2 of, the Insurance Code, and to amend Sections 110, 111, 112, 117, 122, 123.5, 129, 132a, 139.5, 3364, 3501, 3702.6, 4453, 4458.2, 4600, 4624, 4650, 4651, 4652, 4658, 4661.5, 4701, 4702, 4906, 5307.3, 5402, 5405.5, 5410, 5500, 5703.5, and 5908 of, to add Sections 28, 55.5, 62.5, 129.5, 139.2, 139.3, 3208.3, 3362.5, 4628, 4703.5, and 4903 4 to, to add Article 2 (commencing with Section 4061) to Chapter 7 of Part 1 of Division 4 of, to add Article 2.6 (commencing with Section 4635) to Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of, to add Part 3.5 (commencing with Section 5270) to Division 4 of, to repeal Sections 4453.1 and 4460 of, and to repeal and add Sections 124, 139, 5401, and 5502 of, the Labor Code, relating to workers' compensation.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50920 of the Government Code is amended to read:

50920. As used in this article, the term "peace officer" means a sheriff, undersheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, marshal, or deputy marshal of a county, city and county, or judicial district, or a marshal or police officer of a city or town, employed and compensated as such, whether the members are volunteer, partly paid, or fully paid, except those whose principal duties are clerical, such as stenographers, telephone operators, and other workers not engaged in law enforcement operations, or the protection or preservation of life or property, and not under suspension or otherwise lacking in good standing.

SEC. 2. Section 11732.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11732.5. (a) The expense provision included in the classification of risks and premium rates approved or issued by the commissioner shall be uniform as to all insurers and shall be applied uniformly to all insured employers.

(b) The uniform expense provision to be included in the classification of risks and premium rates shall be as follows:

Effective Date:	Expense Provision:
January 1, 1990	34 percent
January 1, 1991	33 percent
January 1, 1992	32.8 percent

(c) Subdivision (b) shall remain operative only until January 1, 1993.

SEC. 2.5. Section 11734 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11734. (a) The commissioner may change a classification or system previously approved or issued if he or she finds, based on credible actuarial and competent economic evidence submitted into the record at a public hearing, that a change is needed to assure that the classification of risks and premium rates meets the requirements of this article, including Section 11732. The order approving any revision shall include written findings specifying the facts relied upon by the commissioner and the grounds upon which the findings are based. The proceedings of the public hearing shall be recorded and transcribed. Any changes shall also be uniform as to all insurers affected.

(b) Prior to any public hearing required by subdivision (a), the commissioner shall make available to the public both of the following:

(1) A summary of the proposed revision.

(2) A summary of any information submitted concerning the proposed revision by a licensed rating organization or its public members.

SEC. 3. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 11745) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 3 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, to read:

Article 2.5. Workers' Compensation Rate Study Commission

11745. (a) There is in the Department of Insurance the Workers' Compensation Rate Study Commission, which shall be hereafter referred to in this article as the "commission." The commission shall consist of eight members, two of whom shall be appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, two of whom shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, and four of whom shall be appointed by the Governor. Each member of the commission shall be, or shall have served as, the dean or its administrative equivalent of the school of business, public policy, or public administration at an accredited California university or be a tenured faculty member of the school of business, public policy, or public administration at an accredited California university. In no event shall a commission member have been, within the last 10 years, a full-time or part-time employee of other than an accredited educational institution. Acceptance of occasional, intermittent, outside income from consulting or public appearances shall not constitute full-time or part-time employment.

(b) The Governor shall summon the commission to its first meeting, whereupon, as its first order of business, the commission shall designate one of its members as chairperson.

(c) Members of the commission shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for all necessary expenses actually incurred in the performance of their duties, including per diem reimbursement

(d) All vacancies in commission membership shall be filled by whichever appointing authority appointed the person who vacated the position.

(e) The commission shall hold meetings as it deems necessary to fulfill its purpose and may conduct public hearings.

(f) The Department of Insurance shall provide staff and research assistance to the commission. The commission shall have the additional authority to contract with and engage the services of outside resources to conduct research, under the direction and control of the commission, necessary to the timely completion of its purpose. However, in the event the commission exceeds its budgetary authorization in determining its research needs, the planned research may be conducted only if the Department of Insurance determines sufficient private or public funds are available in the department's current budget to cover the additional costs imposed by the research.

11746. The commission shall evaluate, in its entirety, the present workers' compensation insurance ratemaking process and the relative effectiveness of workers' compensation insurance ratemaking systems in other states, and other similar matters affecting workers' compensation insurance ratemaking as the commission deems appropriate. The commission shall include an analysis of all aspects of the current system by which minimum rates are established in California, including an analysis of the extent to which this system fosters or discourages competition between insurers. It shall include an analysis of the states which use an exclusive state fund to provide workers' compensation insurance to employers, and the advantages and disadvantages of establishing an exclusive state fund in California. It shall also include an analysis of whether the functions currently performed by a licensed rating organization should instead be performed by the Department of Insurance.

The commmission shall consider in its evaluation the extent to which the present California workers' compensation ratemaking system and proposed alternatives meet the following goals:

(a) Provides appropriate and expeditious claim services to injured employees.

(b) Assures security of the payment of benefits from the insurer to injured workers.

(c) Provides financial incentives to insured employers to maintain safe operations.

(d) Provides the lowest net cost to insured employers consistent with the protection and services provided and the losses and expenses incurred.

(e) Provides a fair and equitable distribution of the costs of the system to insured employers reflecting, to the extent consonant with sound principles of insurance, the actual losses and expenses of individual employers.

(f) Encourages availability of insurance to all sizes and classifications of employers to assure a stable, predictable, and competitive insurance market.

(g) A reasonable rate of return to insurers.

11747. (a) The commission shall transmit its final report to the Governor, the Legislature, and the Insurance Commissioner no later than June 30, 1991.

(b) The final report shall contain an analysis of the issues specified in Section 11746 and the results of the commission's evaluation and recommendations to attain the goals specified in Section 11746.

11748. (a) The commission shall remain in existence until 90 days after submission of its report for the purpose of presenting its findings and recommendations and responding to any questions from those to whom the report was transmitted.

(b) This article shall remain in effect only until September 28, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 11751.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11751.1. To obtain and retain a license, a rating organization shall provide satisfactory evidence to the commissioner that it shall do all of the following:

(a) Permit any insurer to become a member at a reasonable cost and without discrimination, or to withdraw therefrom.

(b) Neither have nor adopt any rule or exact any agreement, the effect of which would be to require any member as a condition of membership to adhere to rates, greater than the minimum adequate rates approved by the commissioner.

(c) Neither adopt any rule nor exact any agreement, the effect of which would be to prohibit or regulate the payment of dividends, savings, or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders or members.

(d) Neither practice nor sanction any plan or act of boycott, coercion, or intimidation.

(e) Neither enter into nor sanction any contract or act by which any person is restrained from lawfully engaging in the insurance business.

(f) Notify the commissioner promptly of every change in its constitution or articles of incorporation, agreement of association, or in its bylaws, rules and regulations governing the conduct of its business; its list of members; and the name and address of the resident of this state designated by it upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting the organization may be served.

(g) Agree that the commissioner or his or her representative may attend all meetings of the organization or any of its committees.

(h) Agree to permit four members of the public, two representing organized labor and two representing insured employers, to serve on the managing or governing committee of the organization as specified in Section 11751.35.

(i) Maintain reasonable records of the experience of its members and of the data, statistics or information collected or used in connection with the rates, classifications, rating plans, rating systems, manual rules, and policy and endorsement forms used by its members so that these records will be available at all reasonable times to enable the commissioner to determine whether the rating organization and its members comply with the provisions of this chapter applicable to them. These records shall be maintained in an office within this state. The commissioner may prescribe a uniform system for the keeping of the records which shall be reasonably adapted to the rating organization and its members' method of operation and which shall be applicable to all rating organizations licensed under this article and their members.

SEC. 5. Section 11751.3 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11751.3. (a) Subject to the approval of the commissioner, a rating organization licensed under this article may adopt any reasonable constitution, articles of incorporation, or agreement of association, and may make reasonable rules for the regulation of its members and the conduct of its business by bylaws or otherwise. In a rating organization of which the State Compensation Insurance Fund is a member, it shall be entitled without election to membership on the managing or governing committee and on the classification and rating committee thereof.

(b) In addition, after consultation with the California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO, other statewide organized labor organizations, and statewide associations representing business, the commissioner shall appoint two public members representing insured employers and two public members representing organized labor to serve on the managing or governing committee of a rating organization. The bylaws of a rating organization shall permit a public member from time to time to designate in his or her stead a representative from the same employer organization or an affiliated employee union, as the case may be, to attend and participate in any meeting of the governing committee of a rating organization.

SEC. 6. Section 11751.35 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11751.35. (a) Four members of the public, two representing organized labor and two representing insured employers, appointed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 11751.3, shall be entitled to serve on the managing or governing committee of a rating organization licensed under this article. The public members shall be entitled to vote on all issues involving rates, classifications, rating plans, rating systems, manual rules and policy, and endorsement forms which are properly brought before the committee.

(b) In the event one or more public members are unable or unwilling to complete their term, after consultation with the California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO, other statewide organized labor organizations, and statewide organizations representing business, as the case may be, the commissioner shall appoint a successor from organized labor or an insured employer to complete the unexpired term.

(c) The public members who serve on the governing committee of a rating organization licensed under this article together may, by a majority vote, retain experts who shall include a fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society, to advise them on any matter specified in subdivision (a). The actuary hired may participate in all proceedings of the actuarial committee of the rating organization. The reasonable expense of retaining these experts shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) per year and shall be paid from the budget of the department. The commissioner shall increase this amount annually to reflect any needed cost-of-living adjustments. The public members may submit information obtained from these experts, as well as any other information they deem appropriate, to the commissioner for his or her consideration in issuing or approving a change of a classification or system.

SEC. 7. Section 11751.51 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

11751.51. (a) The commissioner shall, commencing January 1, 1990, require the licensed rating organization designated as his or her statistical agent to monitor and measure changes in the cost of the various components of workers' compensation which may be affected by the changes enacted in the 1989–90 Regular Session of the Legislature. This shall include, but not be limited to, the change in costs of providing medical treatment, temporary disability benefits, permanent disability benefits, vocational rehabilitation services, resolving medical disputes, evaluating permanent partial disability, and providing compensation for psychiatric injuries. The commissioner shall submit to the Governor and to the Legislature by April 1 the methodology proposed to be used not less than 60 days prior to the commencement of the collection of data for the purposes of this section. No later than January 1, 1993, the rating organization shall quantify any identified changes as a percentage of total incurred losses and shall report this percentage to the Insurance Commissioner. The rating organization shall continue to report annually through January 1, 1996.

(b) The commissioner shall have 60 days from the date the report is filed by the rating organization with his or her office to verify the methodology utilized, the accuracy and reliability of the results obtained, and the percentage calculated pursuant to this section, by the rating organization. The commissioner thereupon shall submit a report to the Governor, to the Legislature, and the Workers' Compensation Commission by April 1, which describes the methodology utilized, the accuracy and reliability of the results obtained, and the percentage calculated pursuant to this section.

SEC. 8. Section 11770 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11770. The State Compensation Insurance Fund is continued in existence, to be administered by its board of directors for the purpose of transacting workers' compensation insurance, and insurance against the expense of defending any suit for serious and willful misconduct, against an employer or his or her agent, and insurance to employees and other persons of the compensation fixed by the workers' compensation laws for employees and their dependents. Any appropriation made therefrom or thereto before the effective date of this code shall continue to be available for the purposes for which it was made

The board of directors of the State Compensation Insurance Fund is composed of five members, one of whom shall be from organized labor, appointed by the Governor. The Governor shall appoint the chairperson who shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor. The Director of Industrial Relations shall be an ex officio, nonvoting sixth member of the board, and shall not be counted as a member of the board for quorum purposes or any other purpose.

The term of office of the members of the board, other than that of the director, shall be five years and they shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of their successors. The term of office of the first additional member appointed pursuant to amendment of this section effective January 1, 1990, shall expire on January 15, 1995. Commencing January 15, 1991, the terms of office of other members shall be extended to five years as each four-year term expires, so that one member's term of office expires January 15 of each year. Each member shall receive his or her actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance of his or her duty as a member and, except the Director of Industrial Relations, one hundred dollars ($100) for each day of his or her actual attendance at meetings of the board. In order to qualify for membership on the board, each member other than the director shall have been a policyholder or the employee or member of a policyholder in the State Compensation Insurance Fund for one year prior to his appointment, and must continue in this status during the period of his or her membership.

SEC. 8.5. Section 28 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

28. Whenever the term "independent medical examiner" is used in this code, the term shall mean "qualified medical evaluator."

SEC. 9. Section 55.5 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

55.5. (a) There is in the Department of Industrial Relations, a Health and Safety Commission, consisting of six members. The director shall appoint three members representing organized labor, including one worker who has been injured on the job, and three members representing employers. No action of the commission shall be valid unless concurred in by not less than two members representing organized labor and two members representing employers.

(b) The commission shall review and approve applications from employers and employee organizations for grants to assist in establishing effective occupational injury and illness prevention programs. The commission shall establish policies for the evaluation of these applications and shall give priority to applications proposing to target high-risk industries and occupations, such as those with high injury or illness rates, and those in which employees are exposed to one or more hazardous substance or conditions or where there is a demonstrated need for research to determine effective strategies for the prevention or occupational illnesses or injuries. The commission may utilize department staff it deems necessary.

(c) Civil and administrative penalties assessed pursuant to Sections 129.5 and 4624 shall be deposited in the Workplace Health and Safety Revolving Fund, which is hereby created in the State Treasury. Proceeds of the fund shall, when appropriated by the Legislature, be expended by the department, upon approval by the commission, for funding the grants under subdivision (b).

SEC. 9.5. Section 62.5 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

62.5. (a) The Workers' Compensation Administration Revolving Fund is hereby created as a special account in the State Treasury. Proceeds of the fund may be expended by the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the administration of the workers' compensation provisions set forth in this division and Division 4 (commencing with Section 3200), other than the activities financed pursuant to Section 3702.5, and shall not be used for any other purpose.

(b) The fund shall consist of money from the General Fund appropriated for these purposes, and assessments made pursuant to this section. Assessments may be levied only if the amount appropriated from the General Fund for the purposes specified in subdivision (a) exceeds fifty-six million fifty-seven thousand dollars ($56,057,000), adjusted annually for changes in the costs of living and population as provided in Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

(c) Whenever the total amount appropriated from the Workers' Compensation Administration Revolving Fund, as reflected in the Budget Act for a fiscal year, exceeds the General Fund appropriation in that fiscal year, as reflected in the Budget Act, and the General Fund appropriation meets the criteria of subdivision (b), the director shall levy an assessment upon all employers as defined in Section 3300 The total amount of the assessment shall be allocated between self-insured employers and insured employers in proportion to payroll respectively paid in the most recent year for which payroll information is available. The director shall promulgate reasonable rules and regulations governing the manner of collection of the assessment. The rules shall require the assessment to be paid by self-insurers to be expressed as a percentage of indemnity paid during the most recent year for which information is available, and the assessment to be paid by insured employers expressed as a percentage of premium. In no event shall the assessment paid by insured employers be considered a premium for computation of a gross premium tax or agents' commission.

SEC. 10. Section 110 of the Labor Code is amended to read·

110. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Appeals board" means the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board. The title of a member of the board is "commissioner."

(b) "Administrative director" means the Administrative Director of the Division of Workers' Compensation.

(c) "Division" means the Division of Workers' Compensation.

SEC. 11. Section 111 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

111. (a) The Workers' Compensation Appeals Board, consisting of seven members, shall exercise all judicial powers vested in it under this code. In all other respects, the Division of Workers' Compensation is under the control of the administrative director and, except as to those duties, powers, jurisdiction, responsibilities, and purposes as are specifically vested in the appeals board, the administrative director shall exercise the powers of the head of a department within the meaning of Article 1 (commencing with Section 11150) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code with respect to the Division of Workers' Compensation which shall include supervision of, and responsibility for, personnel, and the coordination of the work of the division, except personnel of the appeals board.

(b) The administrative director shall prepare and submit, on March 1 of each year, a report to the Governor and the Legislature covering the activities of the division during the prior year. The report shall include recommendations for improvement and the need, if any, for legislation to enhance the delivery of compensation to injured workers. The report shall include data on penalties imposed on employers or insurers due to delays in compensation or notices, or both, by category of penalty imposed.

SEC. 12. Section 112 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

112. The members of the appeals board shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. The term of office of the members shall be six years and they shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of their successors.

Five of the members of the appeals board shall be experienced attorneys at law admitted to practice in the State of California. The other two members need not be attorneys at law. All members shall be selected with due consideration of their judicial temperament and abilities. Each member shall receive the salary provided for by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 11550) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 13. Section 117 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

117. The administrative director may appoint an attorney licensed to practice law in the state as counsel to the division.

SEC. 14. Section 122 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

122. The Industrial Medical Council shall appoint a medical director who shall possess a physician's and surgeon's certificate granted under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code. The medical director shall employ medical assistants who shall also possess physicians' and surgeons' certificates and other staff necessary to the performance of his or her duties and the duties of the council. The salaries for the medical director and his or her assistants shall be fixed by the Department of Personnel Administration, commensurate with the salaries paid by private industry to medical directors and assistant medical directors.

SEC. 15. Section 123.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

123.5. Workers' compensation judges employed by the administrative director pursuant to this chapter shall be taken from an eligible list of attorneys licensed to practice law in this state, having the qualifications prescribed by the State Personnel Board. In establishing eligible lists for this purpose, state civil service examinations shall be conducted in accordance with the State Civil Service Act (Part 2 (commencing with Section 189500) of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code). Every workers' compensation judge shall maintain membership in the State Bar of California during his or her tenure.

A workers' compensation judge may not receive his or her salary as a workers' compensation judge while any cause before the workers' compensation judge remains pending and undetermined for 90 days after it has been submitted for decision.

SEC. 16. Section 124 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 17. Section 124 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

124. (a) In administering and enforcing this division and Division 4 (commencing with Section 3200), the division shall protect the interests of injured workers who are entitled to the timely provision of compensation.

(b) There is within the division an Office of Benefit Assistance and Enforcement and an Office of Benefit Determination, each of which shall be headed by a deputy administrative director appointed by and serving at the pleasure of the administrative director. These offices shall have the following duties:

(1) The Office of Benefit Assistance and Enforcement shall provide those services previously performed by the Claims Bureau and the Information and Assistance Bureau and shall be responsible for the enforcement of the civil penalty provisions of Section 129.5. Any party may consult with, or seek the advice of, the office.

(2) The Office of Benefit Determination shall provide those services previously performed by the Disability Evaluation Bureau and the Rehabilitation Bureau. It shall coordinate its activities with the Office of Benefit Assistance and Enforcement in assuring the prompt delivery of compensation to injured workers and advise the Industrial Medical Council, on a form promulgated by the council, whether individual qualified medical evaluators have prepared formal medical evaluations which can be satisfactorily rated by the office.

(c) Forms and notices required to be given to employees by the division or the appeals board shall be in English and Spanish.

SEC. 18. Section 129 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

129. (a) To make certain that injured workers, and their dependents in the event of their death, receive promptly and accurately the full measure of compensation to which they are entitled , the Office of Benefit Assistance and Enforcement shall audit insurers, self-insured employers, and third-party administrators to determine if they have met their obligations under this code. At least half of the audit subjects shall be selected at random, and the remaining subjects shall be selected pursuant to subdivision (b). The results of audits of insurers shall be provided to the Insurance Commissioner and the results of audits of self-insured employers and third-party administrators shall be provided to the Director of Industrial Relations. Nothing in this section shall restrict the authority of the Director of Industrial Relations or the Insurance Commissioner to audit their licensees.

(b) The Office of Benefit Assistance and Enforcement shall establish priorities for audits based on information obtained from the Benefit Notice program established under Section 138.4, through information and assistance services and other factual information that indicates an insurer, self-insured employer, or third-party adminstrator is failing to meet its obligations under this division or Division 4 (commencing with Section 3200) or the regulations of the administrative director.

(c) If, as a result of an audit, the Office of Benefit Assistance and Enforcement determines that any compensation, interest, or penalty is due and unpaid to an employee or dependent, the administrative director shall issue and cause to be served upon the insurer, self-insured employer, or third-party administrator a notice of assessment detailing the amounts due and unpaid in each case, and shall order the amounts paid to the person entitled thereto. The notice of assessment shall be served personally or by registered mail in accordance with subdivision (c) of Section 11505 of the Government Code A copy of the notice of assessment shall also be sent to the affected employee or dependent.

If the amounts are not paid within 30 days after service of a notice of assessment, the employer shall also be liable for reasonable attorney's fees necessarily incurred by the employee or dependent to obtain amounts due. This 30-day period shall be tolled during any appeal to the administrative director under subdivision (e) of Section 129.5. The administrative director shall advise each employee or dependent still owed compensation after this 30-day period of his or her rights with respect to the commencement of proceedings to collect the compensation owed. Amounts unpaid because the person entitled thereto cannot be located shall be paid to the Workplace Health and Safety Revolving Fund.

(d) A determination by the Office of Benefit Assistance and Enforcement or the administrative director that an amount is or is not due to an employee or dependent shall not in any manner limit the jurisdiction or authority of the appeals board to determine the issue.

SEC. 19. Section 129.5 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

129.5. (a) The Office of Benefit Assistance and Enforcement shall assess an administrative penalty against an insurer, self-insured employer, or third-party administrator for any of the following:

(1) Failure to comply with the notice of assessment issued pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 129 within 15 days of receipt.

(2) Failure to pay when due the undisputed portion of an indemnity payment, the reasonable cost of medical treatment of an injured worker, or a charge or cost of implementing an approved vocational rehabilitation plan.

(3) Failure to comply with any rule or regulation of the administrative director.

(b) The administrative director shall promulgate regulations establishing a schedule of violations and the amount of the administrative penalty to be imposed for each type of violation. The schedule shall provide for imposition of a penalty of up to one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation of the least serious type and for imposition of penalties in progressively higher amounts for more serious types of violations, with the penalty for the most serious types of violations to be set at up to five thousand dollars ($5,000) per violation. The administrative director is authorized to impose penalties pursuant to rules and regulations which give due consideration to the appropriateness of the penalty with respect to the following factors:

(1) The gravity of the violation.

(2) The good faith of the insurer, self-insured employer, or third-party administrator.

(3) The history of previous violations, if any.

(4) The frequency of the violations.

(c) The notice of penalty assessment shall be served personally or by registered mail in accordance with subdivision (c) of Section 11505 of the Government Code. The notice shall be in writing and shall describe the nature of the violation, including reference to the statutory provision or rule or regulation alleged to have been violated. The notice shall become final and the assessment shall be paid unless contested within 15 days of receipt by the insurer, self-insured employer, or third-party administrator.

(d) In addition to the penalty assessment permitted by subdivision (a), the administrative director may assess a civil penalty, not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), upon finding, after hearing, that an employer, insurer, or third-party administrator for an employer has knowingly committed and has performed with a frequency as to indicate a general business practice any of the following:

(1) Induced employees to accept less than compensation due, or made it necessary for employees to resort to proceedings against the employer to secure compensation due.

(2) Refused to comply with known and legally indisputable compensation obligations.

(3) Discharged or administered compensation obligations in a dishonest manner.

(4) Discharged or administered compensation obligations in a manner as to cause injury to the public or those dealing with the employer or insurer.

Upon a second or subsequent finding, the administrative director shall refer the matter to the Insurance Commissioner or Director of Industrial Relations and request that a hearing be conducted to determine whether the certificate of authority, certificate of consent to self-insure, or certificate of consent to administer claims of self-insured employer, as the case may be, should be revoked.

(e) An insurer, self-insured employer, or third-party administrator may file a written request for a conference with the administrative director within seven days after receipt of the notice of penalty assessment issued pursuant to subdivisions (a) or (d). Within 15 days of the conference, the administrative director shall issue a notice of findings and serve it upon the contesting party by registered or certified mail. Any amount found due by the administrative director shall become due and payable 30 days after receipt of the notice of findings. A writ of mandate may be taken from the findings to the appropriate superior court upon the execution by the contesting party of a bond to the state in the principal sum that is double the amount found due and ordered by the administrative director, on the condition that the contesting party shall pay any judgment and costs rendered against it for the amount.

(f) Nothing in this section shall create nor eliminate a civil cause of action for the employee and his or her dependents.

(g) All moneys collected under this section shall be deposited in the State Treasury and credited to the Workplace Health and Safety Revolving Fund.

SEC. 20. Section 132a of the Labor Code is amended to read:

132a. It is the declared policy of this state that there should not be discrimination against workers who are injured in the course and scope of their employment.

(1) Any employer who discharges, or threatens to discharge, or in any manner discriminates against any employee because he or she has filed or made known his or her intention to file a claim for compensation with his or her employer or an application for adjudication, or because the employee has received a rating, award, or settlement, is guilty of a misdemeanor and the employee's compensation shall be increased by one-half, but in no event more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), together with costs and expenses not in excess of two hundred fifty dollars ($250). Any such employee shall also be entitled to reinstatement and reimbursement for lost wages and work benefits caused by the acts of the employer.

(2) Any insurer that advises, directs, or threatens an insured under penalty of cancellation or a raise in premium or for any other reason, to discharge an employee because he or she has filed or made known his or her intention to file a claim for compensation with his or her employer or an application for adjudication, or because the employee has received a rating, award, or settlement, is guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to the increased compensation and costs provided in paragraph (1)

(3) Any employer who discharges, or threatens to discharge, or in any manner discriminates against any employee because the employee testified or made known his or her intentions to testify in another employee's case before a workers' compensation judge, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and the employee shall be entitled to reinstatement and reimbursement for lost wages and work benefits caused by the acts of the employer.

(4) Any insurer that advises, directs, or threatens an insured employer under penalty of cancellation or a raise in premium or for any other reason, to discharge or in any manner discriminate against an employee because the employee testified or made known his or her intention to testify in another employee's case before a workers' compensation judge, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Proceedings for increased compensation as provided in paragraph (1), or for reinstatement and reimbursement for lost wages and work benefits, are to be instituted by filing an appropriate petition with the appeals board, but these proceedings may not be commenced more than one year from the discriminatory act or date of termination of the employee. The appeals board is vested with full power, authority, and jurisdiction to try and determine finally all matters specified in this section subject only to judicial review, except that the appeals board shall have no jurisdiction to try and determine a misdemeanor charge. The appeals board may refer and any worker may complain of suspected violations of the criminal misdemeanor provisions of this section to the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement, or directly to the office of the public prosecutor.

SEC. 21. Section 139 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 22. Section 139 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

139. (a) There is within the division an Industrial Medical Council consisting of nine doctors of medicine, at least one of whom shall be a psychiatrist and at least one of whom shall specialize in occupational medicine, two doctors of osteopathy, two doctors of chiropractic, and one doctor of psychology, all of whom shall be licensed to practice in this state. The administrative director shall be an ex officio, nonvoting member of the council, and the medical director of the division shall serve as executive secretary of the council.

(b) The Governor shall appoint four doctors of medicine, two doctors of osteopathy, and one doctor of chiropractic to the council. The Senate Committee on Rules shall appoint the psychiatrist and the doctor of chiropractic. The Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint the occupational medicine specialist and the doctor of psychology. The Speaker of the Assembly and the Senate Committee on Rules, alternately, shall appoint the remaining doctor of medicine. The Speaker of the Assembly shall make the initial appointment of this member.

The term of office of members of the council shall be four years, and a member shall hold office until the appointment of a successor. However, the initial terms of three of the doctors of medicine appointed by the Governor shall expire, respectively, on December 31, 1991, December 31, 1992, and December 31, 1993, and the initial terms of three of the doctors of medicine appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly shall expire, respectively, on December 31, 1991, December 31, 1992, and December 31, 1993. The initial term of one doctor of osteopathy and the doctor of psychology shall both expire on December 31, 1991. Any vacancy shall be filled by the original appointing authority for the unexpired term.

(c) The nine doctors of medicine and the doctors of osteopathy of the council shall represent medical specialities concerned with the treatment of industrial injury and disease. The doctors of medicine shall be appointed after consultation with the statewide and local associations of the medical profession. The doctors of osteopathy and psychology shall be appointed after consultation with the statewide associations of the osteopathic medical profession and psychologists. The doctors of chiropractic shall be appointed after consultation with statewide and local associations of the chiropractic profession.

(d) Any physician of a type which must be represented pursuant to subdivision (a) may be considered for appointment to the council if the following qualifications are met:

(1) A physician and surgeon shall be board certified in his or her specialty or, if a doctor of chiropractic, shall be certified in a chiropractic specialty recognized and approved by the California Chiropractic Association, the International Chiropractors Association of California, or the American Chiropractic Association, or if a psychologist, shall be board certified in clinical psychology, or hold a doctoral degree in psychology from an accredited university or professional school and have not less than five years' postdoctoral experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders.

(2) The physician shall be experienced in treating and evaluating industrial injuries and shall maintain an active practice, of which at least 20 percent of the total practice time is devoted to direct patient treatment.

(e) In addition to the promulgation of rules and regulations under subdivision (i) of Section 139.2, members of the council shall, within the scope of each member's professional training, do all of the following:

(1) Maintain liaisons with the medical, osteopathic, chiropractic, and psychological professions.

(2) Counsel and assist the administrative director and perform other duties as the administrative director may request.

(3) Assist in recruiting physicians for the medical bureau of the division and recommend physicians, as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 139.2, for appointment as qualified medical evaluators.

(4) Assist in developing guidelines for the determination of disputed questions of clinical fact.

(5) Suggest standards for improving care furnished to injured employees.

(6) Undertake continuing studies of developments in the field of rehabilitation, and continuously inform treating physicians of these developments.

(7) Recommend reasonable levels of fees for physicians performing services under this division.

(8) In coordination with the administrative director, monitor and measure changes in the cost and frequency of the most common medical services.

(f) The council shall appoint an advisory committee on psychiatric injuries with both psychologists and psychiatrists as members and shall consider the advisory committee's recommendations concerning psychiatric injuries. The council may appoint advisory committees for other specialties as may be necessary to the performance of its duties.

(g) No action of the council shall be taken unless concurred in by not less than eight members present and voting at a meeting.

(h) Members of the council shall receive actual necessary traveling expenses and a per diem allowance of one hundred dollars ($100) for each day spent in meetings of the council.

SEC. 23. Section 139.2 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

139.2. (a) The Industrial Medical Council shall appoint qualified medical evaluators in each of the respective specialties as required for the evaluation of medical issues. The appointments shall be for four-year terms.

(b) The council shall appoint as qualified medical evaluators every physician, as defined in Section 3209.3, who is licensed to practice in this state and who meets the following requirements:

(1) Devotes at least 20 percent of total practice time to providing medical treatment, or has served as an agreed medical evaluator on eight or more occasions in the 12 months prior to applying to be a qualified medical evaluator.

(2) Is board certified or qualified for board certification in his or her specialty by an appropriate recognized board or, if a chiropractor, is certified in disability evaluation by an appropriate professional chiropractic association, or if a psychologist, is board certified in clinical psychology, or holds a doctoral degree in psychology from an accredited university or professional school and has not less than five years' postdoctoral experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders, or served as an agreed medical evaluator on eight or more occassions prior to January 1, 1970.

(3) The council shall promulgate standards for appointment of physicians who are retired or who hold teaching positions who are exceptionally well qualified to serve as a qualified medical evaluator even though they do not otherwise qualify under paragraph (1). In no event shall a physician whose full-time practice is limited to the forensic evaluation of disability be appointed as a qualified medical evaluator under this paragraph.

(c) The evaluator, upon request, shall be reappointed if he or she meets the qualifications for appointment and meets all of the following criteria:

(1) Has completed formal medical evaluations within a reasonable time after assignment.

(2) Has not had more than 30 percent of his or her evaluations of unrepresented employees which were considered by a workers' compensation judge at a contested hearing rejected by the judge during the most recent four-year period during which the physician served as a qualified medical evaluator. If the judge does not rely on the qualfied medical evaluator, the judge shall make a specific finding to that effect, and shall give notice to the evaluator.

(3) Has completed within the previous 24 months at least eight hours of continuing education in disability evaluation approved by the Industrial Medical Council.

(4) Has not been terminated under subdivision (d) or terminated or suspended under subdivision (j) during his or her most recent term as a qualified medical evaluator.

If the evaluator does not meet any of these criteria, the Industrial Medical Council may in its discretion reappoint or deny reappointment according to regulations promulgated by the council. In no event may a physician who has been terminated under subdivision (d) be reappointed.

(d) Except as provided in subdivisions (j) and (k), the evaluator shall not be terminated during his or her term of office unless his or her licensing authority has suspended, revoked, or terminated his or her license to practice in California.

(e) The Industrial Medical Council shall furnish a physician, upon request, a written statement of its reasons for termination of or for denying appointment or reappointment as a qualified medical evaluator. Upon receipt of a specific response to the statement of reasons, the Industrial Medical Council shall review its decision not to appoint or reappoint the physician or to terminate the physician and shall notify the physician of its final decision within 60 days after receipt of the physician's response.

(f) The council shall establish agreements with qualified medical evaluators to assure the expeditious evaluation of cases assigned to them for formal medical evaluations.

(g) The medical director shall assign three-member panels of qualified medical evaluators within five working days after receiving a request for a panel pursuant to Section 4061 or 4062. If a panel is not assigned within 15 working days, the employee shall have the right to obtain a formal medical evaluation from any qualified medical evaluator of his or her choice. The medical director shall use a random selection method for assigning panels of qualified medical evaluators. The medical director shall select evaluators who are specialists of the type selected by the employee. The medical director shall advise the employee that he or she should consult with his or her treating physician prior to deciding which type of specialist to request. The Industrial Medical Council shall promulgate a form which shall notify the employee of the physicians selected for his or her panel. The form shall include, for each physician on the panel, the physician's name, address, telephone number, specialty, and number of years in practice, and shall advise the employee that he or she is entitled to receive transportation expenses and temporary disability for each day necessary for the examination. The form shall also state in a clear and conspicuous location and type: "You have the right to consult with an attorney prior to selecting the doctor to prepare your evaluation. If your claim eventually goes to court, the judge will consider the evaluation prepared by the doctor you select to decide your claim." When compiling the list of evaluators from which to select randomly, the medical director shall include all qualified medical evaluators of the appropriate specialty type as recognized by an appropriate, recognized board within the general geographic area of the employee's residence, and shall have no authority to exclude qualified medical evaluators based on any other criteria. When the medical director determines that an employee has requested an evaluation by a type of specialist which is appropriate for the employee's injury, but there are not enough qualified medical evaluators of that type within the general geographic area of the employee's residence to establish a three-member panel, the medical director shall include sufficient qualified medical evaluators from other geographic areas and the employer shall pay all necessary travel costs incurred in the event the employee selects an evaluator from another geographic area.

(h) The medical director shall continuously review the quality of formal medical evaluations and reports prepared by agreed and qualified medical evaluators and the timeliness with which evaluation reports are prepared and submitted. The review shall include, but not be limited to, a review of a random sample of reports submitted to the division, and a review of all reports alleged to be inaccurate or incomplete by a party to a case for which the evaluation was prepared. The medical director shall submit to the administrative director an annual report summarizing the results of the continuous review of medical evaluations and reports prepared by agreed and qualified medical evaluators and make recommendations for the improvement of the system of qualified medical evaluations and determinations.

(i) After public hearing pursuant to Section 5307.4, the council shall promulgate rules and regulations concerning the following medical issues:

(1) Standards governing the time frames within which formal medical evaluations shall be prepared and submitted by agreed and qualified medical evaluators. The time frame for initial formal medical evaluations to be prepared and submitted shall be no more than 45 days after the evaluator has seen the employee or otherwise commenced the formal medical evaluation procedure. The council shall develop a time frame governing extension of the 45-day period in cases where the evaluator has not received test results or consulting physician's evaluations in time to meet the 45-day deadline. The council shall develop time frames governing availability of qualified medical evaluators. These time frames shall give the employee the right to the addition of a new evaluator to his or her panel, selected at random, for each evaluator not available to see the employee within a specified period of time, but shall also permit the employee to waive this right for a specified period of time thereafter.

(2) Procedures to be followed by all physicians in evaluating the existence and extent of permanent impairment and limitations resulting from an injury. In order to produce complete, accurate, uniform, and replicable evaluations, the procedures shall require that an evaluation of anatomic loss, functional loss, and the presence of physical complaints be supported, to the extent feasible, by medical findings based on standardized examinations and testing techniques generally accepted by the medical community.

(3) Procedures governing the determination of disputed medical issues specified in Sections 4061 and 4062.

(4) Procedures to be used in determining the compensability of psychiatric injury. The procedures shall be in accordance with Section 3208.3 and shall require that the diagnosis of a mental disorder be expressed using the terminology and criteria of the American Psychiatric Association's Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, Third Edition-Revised, or the terminology and diagnostic criteria of other psychiatric diagnostic manuals generally approved and accepted nationally by practitioners in the field of psychiatric medicine.

(j) The Industrial Medical Council may, in its discretion, suspend or terminate the privilege of a physician to serve as a qualified medical evaluator if the council, after hearing pursuant to subdivision (k), determines that a qualified medical evaluator:

(1) Has violated Section 139.3 on Section 4628.

(2) Has failed to follow the medical procedures established by the council pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 139.2 in 10 or more formal medical evaluations during a 12-month period.

(3) Has been unavailable to conduct examinations for formal medical evaluations within the time frames established by the council pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 139.2 on 10 or more occasions during a 12-month period.

(k) The council shall cite the qualified medical evaluator for a violation listed in subdivision (j) and shall set a hearing on the alleged violation within 30 days of service of the citation on the qualified medical evaluator. In addition to the authority to terminate or suspend the qualified medical evaluator upon finding a violation listed in subdivision (j), the council may, in its discretion, place a qualified medical evaluator on probation subject to appropriate conditions, including ordering continuing education or training.

SEC. 23.5. Section 139.3 is added to the Labor Code, to read.

(a) Neither an agreed nor a qualified medical evaluator, nor a physician who consults with an agreed or qualified medical examiner, shall offer, deliver, receive, or accept any rebate, refund, commission, preference, patronage dividend, discount, or other consideration, whether in the form of money or otherwise, as compensation or inducement for the referred consultation.

(b) It shall not be unlawful for an agreed or qualified medical evaluator to refer a person to any laboratory, pharmacy, clinic, or health care facility solely because the qualified medical evaluator has a proprietary interest or coownership in the laboratory, pharmacy, clinic, or health care facility, but the referral shall be prohibited if there was no valid medical need for the referral.

(c) An agreed or qualified medical evaluator who refers to or seeks consultation from an organization in which the agreed or qualified medical examiner has a significant beneficial interest shall disclose this interest to the parties in writing at the time of the referral and in the final medical evaluation. For the purposes of this section, the term "significant beneficial interest" shall have the same meaning as set forth in Section 654.2 of the Business and Professions Code.

(d) A physician serving as an agreed or qualified medical evaluator who is found to have committed a violation of this section may be terminated, suspended, or placed on probation by the Industrial Medical Council.

SEC. 24. Section 139.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

139.5. (a) The administrative director shall establish within the Office of Benefit Determination a vocational rehabilitation unit, which shall include appropriate professional staff, and which shall have the following duties:

(1) To foster, review, and approve vocational rehabilitation plans developed by a qualified rehabilitation representative of the employer, insurer, state agency, or employee.

(2) To develop rules and regulations, to be promulgated by the administrative director, which would expedite and facilitate the identification, notification and referral of industrially injured employees to vocational rehabilitation services.

(3) To coordinate and enforce the implementation of vocational rehabilitation plans.

(4) To develop a fee schedule, to be promulgated by the administrative director, governing reasonable fees for vocational rehabilitation services. The initial fee schedule promulgated under this paragraph shall be designed to reduce the cost of vocational rehabilitation services by 10 percent.

(5) To develop standards, to be promulgated by the administrative director, for governing the timeliness and the quality of vocational rehabilitation services.

(b) The salaries of the personnel of the vocational rehabilitation unit shall be fixed by the State Personnel Board.

(c) When an employee is determined to be medically eligible and chooses to enroll in a vocational rehabilitation program, he or she shall continue to receive temporary disability indemnity payments, and, after his or her medical condition becomes permanent and stationary, a maintenance allowance. The employee also shall receive living expenses necessitated by the vocational rehabilitation services, together with all reasonable and necessary vocational training, at the expense of the employer.

(d) The amount of the maintenance allowance due under subdivision (c) shall be two-thirds of the employee's average weekly earnings at the date of injury payable as follows:

(1) The amount the employee would have received as continuing temporary disability indemnity, but not more than two hundred thirty-five dollars ($235) a week for injuries occurring on or after January 1, 1990, and not more than two hundred forty-seven dollars ($247) a week for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1991.

(2) At the employee's option, an additional amount from permanent disability indemnity due or payable, sufficient to provide the employee with a maintenance allowance equal to two-thirds of the employee's average weekly earnings at the date of injury subject to the limits specified in subdivision (a) of Section 4453 and the requirements of Section 4661.5. In no event shall temporary disability indemnity and a maintenance allowance by payable concurrently.

If the employer disputes the treating physician's determination of medical eligibility, the employee shall continue to receive that portion of the maintenance allowance payable under paragraph (1) pending final determination of the dispute. If the employee disputes the treating physician's determination of medical eligibility and prevails, the employee shall be entitled to that portion of the maintenance allowance payable under paragraph (1) retroactive to the date of the employee's request for vocational rehabilitation services.

(e) No provision of this section nor of any rule, regulation, or vocational rehabilitation plan developed or promulgated under this section nor any benefit provided pursuant to this section shall apply to an injured employee whose injury occurred prior to January 1, 1975. Nothing in this section shall affect any plan, benefit, or program authorized by this section as added by Chapter 1513 of the Statutes of 1965 or as amended by Chapter 83 of the Statutes of 1972.

(f) The time within which an employee may request vocational rehabilitation services is set forth in Sections 5405.5, 5410, and 5803.

SEC. 25. Section 3208.3 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3208.3. (a) A psychiatric injury shall be compensable if it is a mental disorder which causes disability or need for medical treatment, and it is diagnosed pursuant to procedures promulgated under paragraph (4) of subdivision (i) of Section 139.2.

(b) In order to establish that a psychiatric injury is compensable, an employee shall demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that actual events of employment were responsible for at least 10 percent of the total causation from all sources contributing to the psychiatric injury.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to establish a new and higher threshold of compensability for psychiatric injury under this division.

SEC 25.5.

SEC. 2. Section 3362 5 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3362.5. Whenever any qualified person is deputized or appointed by the proper authority as a reserve or auxiliary sheriff or city police officer, a deputy sheriff, or a reserve police officer of a regional park district or a transit district, and is assigned specific police functions by that authority, the person is an employee of the county, city, city and county, town, or district for the purposes of this division while performing duties as a peace officer if the person is not performing services as a disaster service worker for purposes of Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 4351)

SEC. 26. Section 3364 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3364. Notwithstanding subdivision (d) of Section 3352, a volunteer, unsalaried member of a sheriff's reserve in any county who is not deemed an employee of the county under Section 3362.5, shall, upon the adoption of a resolution of the board of supervisors declaring that such a member is deemed an employee of the county for the purposes of this division shall be entitled to the workers' compensation benefits provided by this division for any injury sustained by him or her while engaged in the performance of any active law enforcement service under the direction and control of the sheriff.

SEC. 26.5. Section 3501 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3501. (a) A child under the age of 18 years, or over that age but physically or mentally incapacitated from earning shall be conclusively presumed to be wholly dependent for support upon a deceased employee-parent with whom that child is living at the time of injury resulting in death of the parent or for whose maintenance the parent was legally liable at the time of injury resulting in death of the parent, there being no surviving totally dependent parent.

(b) A spouse to whom a deceased employee is married at the time of death shall be conclusively presumed to be wholly dependent for support upon the deceased employee if the surviving spouse earned thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) or less in the twelve months immediately preceding the death.

SEC. 27. Section 3702.6 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3702.6. The Director of Industrial Relations shall establish an audit program addressing the adequacy of estimates of future liability of claims for all self-insured employers, except the state, and shall ensure that all self-insured employers are audited within a three-year cycle by the Office of Self Insurance Plans.

SEC. 28. Article 2 (commencing with Section 4061) is added to Chapter 7 of Part 1 of Division 4 of the Labor Code, to read:

Article 2. Determination of Medical Issues

4061. (a) Together with the last payment of temporary disability indemnity, the employer shall, in a form prescribed by the administrative director pursuant to Section 138.4, provide the employee one of the following:

(1) Notice that no permanent disability indemnity will be paid because the employer alleges the employee has no permanent impairment or limitations resulting from the injury. The notice shall include information concerning how the employee may obtain a formal medical evaluation pursuant to subdivision (c) if he or she disagrees with the position taken by the employer.

(2) Notice that permanent disability indemnity may be or is payable, but that the amount cannot be determined because the employee's medical condition is not yet permanent and stationary. The notice shall advise the employee that his or her medical condition will be monitored until it is permanent and stationary, at which time the necessary evaluation will be performed to determine the existence and extent of permanent impairment and limitations for the purpose of rating permanent disability and to determine the need for continuing medical care. If an employee is provided notice pursuant to this paragraph and the employer later takes the position that the employee has no permanent impairment or limitations resulting from the injury, the employer shall, within 14 days of the determination to take this position, provide the employee with the notice specified in paragraph (1).

(3) Notice that permanent disability indemnity may be or is payable and that the employer has received information indicating that the employee's condition is now permanent and stationary.

(b) Each notice required by subdivision (a) shall describe the administrative procedures available to the injured employee and advise the employee of his or her right to consult an attorney.

(c) If the employee requests a formal medical evaluation after the employer notifies the employee that no permanent disability indemnity will be paid pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), and the employee is represented by an attorney, the employer shall seek agreement with the employee on a physician to prepare a formal medical evaluation of the employee's permanent impairment and limitations and any need for continuing medical care resulting from the injury If no agreement is reached within 10 days, or any additional time not to exceed 20 days agreed to by the parties, the parties may not later select an agreed medical evaluator. Evaluations obtained prior to the period to reach agreement shall not be admissible in any proceeding before a workers' compensation judge or the appeals board. After the period to reach agreement has expired, each party may select a qualified medical evaluator to conduct the formal medical evaluation. The parties may not obtain reports from more than one qualified medical evaluator for each appropriate medical specialty or subspeciality. Each report shall be reasonable and necessary for a complete evaluation. This limitation shall not apply to the following:

(1) Reports by treating physicians.

(2) Where the appeals board determines there is good cause to permit a party to obtain an evaluation from another physician.

If the employee is not represented by an attorney, the employer shall not seek agreement with the employee on a physician to prepare the formal medical evaluation. The employer shall immediately provide the employee with a form prescribed by the medical director with which to request assignment of a panel of three qualified medical evaluators. The employee shall select a physician from the panel to prepare a formal medical evaluation of the employee's permanent impairment and limitations and any need for continuing medical care resulting from the injury.

(d) When the employer has reason to believe that the employee has or may have permanent impairment or limitations, the employer shall, within five working days after receipt of information indicating the employee's medical condition is permanent and stationary, serve on the employee an explanation and description, as prescribed by the administrative director under Section 138.4, of the procedures for evaluation of permanent impairment and limitations and any need for continuing medical care resulting from the injury. If the employee is represented by an attorney, the employee and employer shall seek agreement on a physician to evaluate the existence and extent of permanent impairment and limitations and any need for continuing medical care resulting from the injury. If no agreement is reached within 10 days, or any additional time not to exceed 20 days agreed upon by the parties, the parties may not later select an agreed medical evaluator. Evaluations obtained prior to the period to reach agreement shall not be admissible in any proceeding before a workers' compensation judge or the appeals board. After the period to reach agreement has expired, each party may select a qualified medical evaluator to conduct the formal medical evaluation. The parties may not obtain reports from more than one qualified medical evaluator for each appropriate medical speciality or subspeciality. Each report shall be reasonable and necessary for a complete evaluation. This limitation shall not apply to the following:

(1) Reports by treating physicians

(2) Where the appeals board determines there is good cause to permit a party to obtain an evaluation from another physician.

If the employee is not represented by an attorney, the employer shall not seek agreement with the employee on a physician to prepare the formal medical evaluation. The employer shall immediately request the medical director, on a form prescribed for that purpose, to assign a panel of three qualified medical evaluators. The employee shall select a physician from the panel to prepare a formal medical evaluation of permanent impairment and limitations and any need for continuing medical care resulting from the injury

(e) The employee shall be responsible for making an appointment with the agreed or qualified medical evaluator. At the appointment, the evaluator shall give the employee a brief description of his or her education and training and shall give the employee a brief opportunity to ask questions concerning the evaluation process and the evaluator's background. The employee shall then participate in the evaluation as requested by the evaluator unless the employee has good cause to discontinue the evaluation. For purposes of this subdivision, "good cause" shall include evidence that the evaluator is biased against the employee because of his or her race, sex, national origin, religion, or sexual preference or evidence that the evaluator has requested the employee to submit to an unnecessary medical examination or procedure. If the employee terminates the evaluation, he or she shall have the right to a new panel of three qualified medical evaluators from which to select one to prepare a formal medical evaluation. If the appeals board subsequently determines that the employee did not have good cause to terminate the evaluation, the cost of the evaluation shall be deducted from any award the employee obtains.

(f) Upon selection or assignment pursuant to subdivisions (c) or (d), the medical evaluator shall perform a formal medical evaluation according to the procedures promulgated by the Industrial Medical Council under paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (i) of Section 139.2 and summarize the medical findings on a form prescribed by the Industrial Medical Council.

(g) The agreed or qualified medical evaluator shall consult with a physician in an appropriate specialty who is a qualified medical evaluator or who is eligible for appointment as a qualified medical evaluator when reasonably necessary to produce a formal medical evaluation which meets the standards promulgated by the Industrial Medical Council. The agreed or qualified medical evaluator may also consult with a physician who is not a qualified medical evaluator, regardless of whether or not the physician is licensed to practice in California only, if the physician possesses necessary expertise in a specialty which does not normally treat without which a complete and accurate formal medical evaluation cannot be obtained. If the employee or the employer believes that the evaluator has not consulted with a physician or physicians whose expertise is necessary to provide a complete and accurate evaluation, the employee or the employer may request that the medical director direct the evaluator to consult with a physician in an appropriate specialty to address issues outside the expertise of the evaluator. This request shall be in writing, shall specify the reasons for the request, and shall be served on the other party. The medical director shall grant the employer's or employee's request if the consultation requested is necessary to provide a complete and accurate evaluation The Industrial Medical Council shall adopt a regulation determining how long the medical director shall have to grant or deny these requests.

(h) The agreed or qualified medical evaluator shall serve the formal medical evaluation and the summary form on the employee, employer, and the Office of Benefit Determination. Within 20 days of receipt of the formal medical evaluation, the Office of Benefit Determination shall calculate the permanent disability rating according to Section 4660 and serve the rating on the employee and employer.

(i) Any formal medical evaluation concerning an unrepresented employee which indicates that part or all of an employee's permanent impairment or limitations may be subject to apportionment pursuant to Sections 4663 or 4750 shall first be submitted by the Office of Benefit Determination to a workers' compensation judge who may refer the report back to the agreed or qualified medical evaluator for correction or clarification if the judge determines the proposed apportionment is inconsistent with the law.

(j) Within 30 days of receipt of the rating, if the employee is unrepresented, the employee or employer may request that the Office of Benefit Determination reconsider the recommended rating or obtain additional evaluations from an agreed or qualified medical evaluator to address issues not addressed or not completely addressed in the original formal medical evaluation or not prepared in accord with the procedures of the Industrial Medical Council promulgated under paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (i) of Section 139.2. This request shall be in writing, shall specify the reasons the rating should be reconsidered, and shall be served on the other party. If the administrative director finds the formal medical evaluation is not complete or not in compliance with the required procedures, the administrative director shall return the report to the agreed or qualified medical evaluator for appropriate action as the administrative director instructs. Upon receipt of the agreed or qualified medical evaluator's final formal medical evaluation and summary form, the Office of Benefit Determination shall recalculate the permanent disability rating according to Section 4669 and serve the rating, the formal medical evaluation, and the summary form on the employee and employer.

(k) If a formal medical evaluation from an agreed medical evaluator or a qualified medical evaluator selected from a three-member panel resolves any issue so as to require an employer to provide compensation, the employer shall commence the payment of compensation or file an application for adjudication of claim. If the employee and employer agree to a stipulated findings and award as provided under Section 5702 or to compromise and release the claim under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 5000) of Part 3, or if the employee wishes to commute the award under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 5100) of Part 3, the appeals board shall first determine whether the agreement or commutation is in the best interests of the employee and whether the proper procedures have been followed in determining the permanent disability rating. The Office of Benefit Determination shall promulgate a form to notify the employee, at the time of service of any rating under this section, of the options specified in this subdivision, the potential advantages and disadvantages of each option, and the procedure for disputing the rating.

(l) No issue relating to the existence or extent of permanent impairment and limitations or the need for continuing medical care resulting from the injury may be the subject of an application for adjudication of claim unless there has first been a finding on the issue by an agreed or qualified medical evaluator. With the exception of an evaluation or evaluations prepared by the treating physician or physicians, no evaluation of permanent impairment and limitations or need for continuing medical care resulting from the injury shall be obtained prior to service of the formal medical evaluation on the employee and employer if the employee is unrepresented, or prior to the attempt to select an agreed medical evaluator if the employee is represented. Evaluations obtained in violation of this prohibition shall not be admissible in any proceeding before a workers' compensation judge or the appeals board. However, the testimony, records, and reports offered by the treating physician or physicians who treated the employee for the injury and formal medical evaluations prepared by a qualified medical evaluator selected by an unrepresented employee from a three-member panel shall be admissible.

4062. (a) This section shall apply only to employees who are represented by an attorney.

(b) If either the employee or employer objects to a medical determination made by the treating physician concerning the permanent and stationary status of the employee's medical condition, the employee's preclusion or likely preclusion to engage in his or her usual occupation, the extent and scope of medical treatment, or the existence of new and further disability, the objecting party shall notify the other party in writing of the objection. Parties shall seek agreement with the other party on a physician to prepare a report resolving the disputed issue. If no agreement is reached within 10 days, or any additional time not to exceed 20 days agreed upon by the parties, the parties may not later select an agreed medical evaluator. Evaluations obtained prior to the period to reach agreement shall not be admissible in any proceeding before a workers' compensation judge or the appeals board. After the period to reach agreement has expired, each party may select a qualified medical evaluator to conduct the formal medical evaluation. The parties may not obtain reports from more than one qualified medical evaluator for each appropriate medical specialty or subspecialty. Each report shall be reasonable and necessary for a complete evaluation. This limitation shall not apply to the following:

(1) Reports by treating physicians.

(2) Where the appeals board determines there is good cause to permit a party to obtain an evaluation from another physician.

(c) The agreed or qualified medical evaluator shall consult with a physician in a appropriate specialty who is a qualified medical evaluator or who is eligible for appointment as a qualified medical evaluator when reasonably necessary to produce a formal medical evaluation which meets the standards promulgated by the Industrial Medical Council. The agreed or qualified medical evaluator may also consult with a physician who is not a qualified medical evaluator, regardless of whether or not the physician is licensed to practice in California, only if the physician possesses necessary expertise in a specialty which does not normally treat without which a complete and accurate formal medical evaluation cannot be obtained. If the employee or the employer believes that the evaluator has not consulted with a physician or physicians whose expertise is necessary to provide a complete and accurate evaluation, the employee or the employer may request that the medical director direct the evaluator to consult with a physician in an appropriate specialty to address issues outside the expertise of the evaluator. This request shall be in writing, shall specify the reasons for the request, and shall be served on the other party. The medical director shall grant the employer's or employee's request if the consultation requested is necessary to provide a complete and accurate evalulation. The Industrial Medical Council shall adopt a regulation determining how long the medical director shall have to grant or deny such requests.

(d) Upon completing a determination of the disputed medical issue, the agreed or qualified medical evaluator shall summarize the medical findings on a form prescribed by the Industrial Medical Council and serve the formal medical evaluation and the summary form on the employee, employer, and administrative director.

(e) No medical issue specified in subdivision (a) may be the subject of an application for adjudication of claim unless there has first been an evaluation by an agreed or qualified medical evaluator.

(f) With the exception of a report or reports prepared by the treating physician or physicians, no report determining disputed medical issues set forth in subdivision (b) shall be obtained prior to service of the formal medical evaluation of the agreed or qualified medical evaluator on the employee and employer. Reports obtained in violation of this prohibition shall not be admissible in any proceeding before a workers' compensation judge or the appeals board. However, the testimony, records, and reports offered by the treating physician or physicians who treated the employee for the injury shall be admissible.

4062 1. If an employee is not represented by an attorney, the employer shall not seek agreement with the employee on an agreed medical evaluator, nor shall an agreed medical evaluator prepare the formal medical evaluation on any issues in dispute.

4062.2. (a) As part of their agreement on an evaluator, the parties shall agree what information is to be provided to the agreed medical evaluator. Except as provided in subdivision (b), any party may provide to the qualified medical evaluator selected by an unrepresented worker from a three-member panel any of the following information:

(1) Records prepared or maintained by the employee's treating physician or physicians.

(2) Medical and nonmedical records relevant to determination of the medical issue.

(b) Information which a party proposes to provide to the qualified medical evaluator shall be served on the opposing party 20 days before the information is provided to the evaluator. If the opposing party objects to consideration of nonmedical records within 10 days thereafter, the records shall not be provided to the evaluator. Either party may use discovery to establish the accuracy or authenticity of nonmedical records prior to the evaluation.

(c) In the formal medical evaluation, the agreed or qualified medical evaluator shall identify the following:

(1) All information received from the parties.

(2) All information reviewed in preparation of the report.

(3) All information relied upon in the formulation of his or her opinion.

(d) All communications with an agreed or qualified medical evaluator before a formal medical evaluation shall be in writing and shall be served on the opposing party 20 days in advance of the evaluation. Any subsequent communication with the agreed or qualified medical evaluator shall be in writing and shall be served on the opposing party when sent to the medical evaluator.

(e) Ex parte communication with the agreed or qualified medical evaluator is prohibited. If a party communicates with an agreed or qualified medical evaluator in violation of subdivision (d), the aggrieved party may elect to terminate the formal medical evaluation and seek a new evaluation from another qualified medical evaluator, or proceed with the initial evaluation. The party making the prohibited communication shall be subject to being charged with contempt before the appeals board and shall be liable for the costs incurred by the aggrieved party as a result of the prohibited communication, including the cost of the formal medical evaluation, additional discovery costs, and attorney's fees for related discovery.

4062.5. If a qualified medical evaluator selected by an unrepresented employee from a three-member panel fails to complete the formal medical evaluation within the time frames established by the Industrial Medical Council pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (i) of Section 139.2, the employee shall have the right to a new panel of three qualified medical evaluators from which to select one to prepare a formal medical evaluation. Neither the employee nor the employer shall have any liability for payment for the formal medical evaluation which was not completed within the required time frames unless the employee, on a form prescribed by the Industrial Medical Council, waives his or her right to a new evaluation and elects to accept the original evaluation even though it was not completed within the required time frames.

4063. If a formal medical evaluation from an agreed medical evaluator or a qualified medical evaluator selected from a three member panel resolves any issue so as to require an employer to provide compensation, the employer shall commence the payment of compensation or file an application for adjudication of claim.

4064. (a) The employer shall pay the cost of medical evaluations reasonably, actually, and necessarily incurred, pursuant to subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 4061 or subdivision (b) of Section 4062. The employer also shall pay the cost of rebuttal reports reasonably, actually, and necessarily incurred by an unrepresented employee to rebut the findings of the qualified medical evaluator selected from a three-member panel, provided, however, that the employee may not obtain rebuttal reports from more than one qualified medical evaluator for each appropriate medical specialty or subspecialty.

(b) The employer shall also pay the cost of consultations with other physicians in other specialties requested by the evaluators in connection with the evaluations and reports in subdivision (a).

(c) If an unrepresented employee obtains an attorney after the evaluation in subdivision (a) (2) has been completed, the employee shall be entitled to the same reports at employer expense as an employee who has been represented from the time the dispute arose.

(d) Subject to Section 4906, if an employer files an application for adjudication and the employee is unrepresented at the time the application is filed, the employer shall be liable for any attorney's fees incurred by the employee in connection with the application for adjudication if the employee does not obtain a rebuttal report.

4065. The cost of medical evaluations obtained by the employee for the purpose of determining medical issues other than those specified in this article shall be governed by Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 4620).

4066. When the employer files an application for adjudication of claim contesting the formal medical evaluation prepared by an agreed medical evaluator under this article, regardless of outcome, the workers' compensation judge or the appeals board shall assess the employee's attorney's fees against the employer, subject to Section 4906.

4067. If the jurisdiction of the appeals board is invoked pursuant to Section 5803 upon the grounds that the effects of the injury have recurred, increased, diminished, or terminated, a formal medical evaluation shall be obtained pursuant to this article.

When an agreed or qualified medical evaluator has previously made a formal medical evaluation of the same or similar issues, the subsequent or additional formal medical evaluation shall be conducted by the same agreed or qualified medical evaluator, unless the workers' compensation judge has made a finding that he or she did not rely on the prior evaluator's formal medical evaluation or the prior evaluator is no longer qualified or readily available to prepare a formal medical evaluation, in which case Sections 4061 or 4062, as the case may be, shall apply as if there had been no prior formal medical evaluation

4067.5. This article shall become operative on January 1, 1991.

SEC. 29. Section 4453 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4453. (a) In computing average annual earnings for the purposes of temporary disability indemnity and permanent total disability indemnity only, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at.

(1) Not less than one hundred twenty-six dollars ($126) nor more than two hundred ninety-four dollars ($294), for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1983.

(2) Not less than one hundred sixty-eight dollars ($168) nor more than three hundred thirty-six dollars ($336), for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1984.

(3) Not less than one hundred sixty-eight dollars ($168) for permanent total disability, and, for temporary disability, not less than the lessor of one hundred forty-seven dollars ($147) or, if his or her average weekly earnings are between ninety-nine dollars ($99) and one hundred thirteen dollars ($113), 1.5 times the employee's average weekly earnings, nor more than three hundred ninety-nine dollars ($399) for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1990.

(4) Not less than one hundred sixty-eight dollars ($168) for permanent total disability, and not less than 1.5 times the employee's average weekly earnings from all employers if his or her average weekly earnings are less than one hundred eighty-nine dollars ($189) for temporary disability, nor more than five hundred four dollars ($504), for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1991.

(b) In computing average annual earnings for purposes of permanent partial disability indemnity, except as provided in Section 4659, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at:

(1) Not less than seventy-five dollars ($75) nor more than one hundred ninety-five dollars ($195), for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1983.

(2) Not less than one hundred five dollars ($105) nor more than two hundred ten dollars ($210), for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1984.

(c) Between the limits specified in subdivisions (a) and (c), the average weekly earnings, except as provided in Sections 4456 to 4459, shall be arrived at as follows:

(1) Where the employment is for 30 or more hours a week and for five or more working days a week, the average weekly earnings shall be the number of working days a week times the daily earnings at the time of the injury.

(2) Where the employee is working for two or more employers at or about the time of the injury, the average weekly earnings shall be taken as the aggregate of these earnings from all employments computed in terms of one week; but the earnings from employments other than the employment in which the injury occurred shall not be taken at a higher rate than the hourly rate paid at the time of the injury.

(3) If the earnings are at an irregular rate, such as piecework, or on a commission basis, or are specified to be by week, month, or other period, then the average weekly earnings mentioned in subdivision (a) shall be taken as the actual weekly earnings averaged for this period of time, not exceeding one year, as may conveniently be taken to determine an average weekly rate of pay.

(4) Where the employment is for less than 30 hours per week, or where for any reason the foregoing methods of arriving at the average weekly earnings cannot reasonably and fairly be applied, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at 100 percent of the sum which reasonably represents the average weekly earning capacity of the injured employee at the time of his or her injury, due consideration being given to his or her actual earnings from all sources and employments.

(d) Every computation made pursuant to this section beginning January 1, 1990, shall be made only with reference to temporary disability or the permanent disability resulting from an original injury sustained after January 1, 1990. However, all rights existing under this section on January 1, 1990, shall be continued in force. Except as provided in Section 4661.5, disability indemnity benefits shall be calculated according to the limits in this section in effect on the date of injury and shall remain in effect for the duration of any disability resulting from the injury.

SEC. 30. Section 4453.1 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 30.5. Section 4458.2 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4458.2. If an active peace officer of any department as described in Section 3362 suffers injury or death while in the performance of his or her duties as a peace officer, or if a person engaged in the performance of active law enforcement service as described in Section 3366 suffers injury or death while in the performance of that active law enforcement service, or if a person registered as a reserve peace officer of any regularly organized police or sheriff's department as described in Section 3362.5 suffers injury or death while in the performance of his or her duties as a peace officer, then, irrespective of his or her remuneration from this or other employment or from both, his or her average weekly earnings for the purposes of determining temporary disability indemnity and permanent disability indemnity shall be taken at the maximum fixed for each, respectively, in Section 4453. Four times his or her average annual earnings in disability cases and in death cases shall be taken at the maximum limits provided in Sections 4452 and 4702 respectively.

SEC. 31. Section 4460 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 31.5. Section 4600 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4600. Medical, surgical, chiropractic, and hospital treatment, including nursing, medicines, medical and surgical supplies, crutches, and apparatus, including artificial members, which is reasonably required to cure or relieve from the effects of the injury shall be provided by the employer In the case of his or her neglect or refusal seasonably to do so, the employer is liable for the reasonable expense incurred by or on behalf of the employee in providing treatment. After 30 days from the date the injury is reported, the employee may be treated by a physician of his own choice or at a facility of his or her own choice within a reasonable geographic area. However, if an employee has notified his or her employer in writing prior to the date of injury that he or she has a personal physician, the employee shall have the right to be treated by that physician from the date of injury. For the purpose of this section, "personal physician" means the employee's regular physician and surgeon, licensed pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, who has previously directed the medical treatment of the employee, and who retains the employee's medical records, including his or her medical history.

Where at the request of the employer, the employer's insurer, the administrative director, the appeals board, or a workers' compensation judge, the employee submits to examination by a physician, he or she shall be entitled to receive in addition to all other benefits herein provided all reasonable expenses of transportation, meals and lodging incident to reporting for the examination, together with one day of temporary disability indemnity for each day of wages lost in submitting to the examination. Regardless of the date of injury, "reasonable expenses of transportation" includes mileage fees from the employee's home to the place of the examination and back at the rate of twenty-one cents ($0.21) a mile or the mileage rate adopted by the Director of the Department of Personnel Administration pursuant to Section 19820 of the Government Code, whichever is higher, plus any bridge tolls. The mileage and tolls shall be paid to the employee at the time he or she is given notification of the time and place of the examination.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1984.

SEC. 32. Section 4624 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4624. (a) Annually, commencing on November 1, 1986, the administrative director shall publish the range of fees for initial comprehensive industrial medical-legal reports charged by independent medical examiners, agreed medical examiners, and physicians examining for either the applicant or defendant for the 12 months ending the previous June 30.

(b) The range of charges shall be shown by five specialty categories: orthopedics, internal medicine and cardiology, neurology, psychiatry, and all others. The 80th percentile of these charges, adjusted by multiplying the 80th percentile by one plus one-half of the percentage change in the Physician Fee Index published by the California Medical Association for the 12 months ending the previous June 30, shall be shown in all instances.

(c) Charges of all physicians providing initial comprehensive industrial medical-legal reports shall be rebuttably presumed reasonable if the charges do not exceed the 80th percentile of fees in the appropriate specialty as established in subdivision (b). Charges exceeding the 80th percentile for the involved specialty may be found reasonable if accompanied by supporting information provided by the physician.

(d) For the 12-month period ending October 31, 1989, the administrative director shall select the percentile that most closely approximates a 10-percent reduction from the eightieth percentile of fees in effect for the 12-month period ending October 31, 1988. Charges for medical legal reports which do not exceed the percentile selected by the administrative director shall be rebuttably presumed reasonable during the 12-month period beginning January 1, 1990. Charges exceeding the selected percentile may be found reasonable if accompanied by supporting information provided by the physician.

(e) The percentile selected pursuant to subdivision (d) shall establish the level of fees rebuttably presumed to be reasonable for each 12-month period subsequent to October 31, 1990.

SEC. 32.5. Section 4628 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

4628. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), no person, other than the physician who signs the medical-legal report, except a nurse performing those functions routinely performed by a nurse, such as taking blood pressure, shall examine the injured employee or participate in the nonclerical preparation of the report, including all of the following:

(1) Taking a complete history.

(2) Reviewing and summarizing prior medical records.

(3) Composing and drafting the conclusions of the report.

(b) The report shall disclose the name and qualifications of any person who administers, diagnostic studies.

(c) If the initial outline of a patient's history or excerpting of prior medical records is not done by the physician, the physician shall review the excerpts and the entire outline with the patient and shall make additional inquiries and examinations as are necessary and appropriate to identify and determine the relevant medical issues.

(d) No amount may be charged in excess of the direct charges for the physician's professional services and the reasonable costs of laboratory examinations, diagnostic studies, and other medical tests, and reasonable costs of clerical expense necessary to producing the report. Direct charges for the physician's professional services shall include reasonable overhead expense.

(e) Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall make the report inadmissible as evidence and shall eliminate any liability for payment of any medical-legal expense incurred in connection with the report.

(f) Knowing failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall subject the physician to a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation to be assessed by a workers' compensation judge or the appeals board.

(g) A medical-legal report of any physician who is assessed a civil penalty under this section shall not be admissible in any proceeding of the appeals board.

(h) Knowing failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall subject the physician to contempt pursuant to the judicial powers vested in the appeals board.

SEC. 33. Article 2.6 (commencing with Section 4635) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Labor Code, to read:

Article 2 6. Vocational Rehabilitation

4635. As used in this article:

(a) "Qualified injured worker" means an employee who meets both of the following requirements:

(1) The employee's expected permanent disability as a result of the injury, whether or not combined with the effects of a prior injury or disability, if any, permanently precludes, or is likely to preclude, the employee from engaging in his or her usual occupation or the position in which he or she was engaged at the time of injury, hereafter referred to as "medical eligibility."

(2) The employee can reasonably be expected to return to suitable gainful employment through the provision of vocational rehabilitation services, hereafter referred to as "vocational feasibility."

(b) "Qualified rehabilitation representative" means a person capable of developing and implementing a vocational rehabilitation plan and whose experience and regular duties involve the evaluation, counseling, or placement of disabled persons, and who is familiar with this article.

(c) "Independent vocational evaluator" means a qualified rehabilitation representative, who, in addition to the requirements of subdivision (b), has one of the following qualifications:

(1) A doctorate or master's degree in vocational counseling or its equivalent and one or more years full-time experience in vocational counseling of industrially injured employees.

(2) A doctor of medicine degree and one or more years full-time experience in psychiatric or psychological evaluation of disabled adults in relation to rehabilitation counseling.

(3) A doctorate or master's degree in counseling or psychology or their equivalent and two or more years full-time employment using rehabilitation counseling techniques and conducting vocational evaluations or psychological assessments of disabled adults under the direct supervision of an independent vocational evaluator.

(4) A baccalaureate degree in any field and three or more years full-time employment using rehabilitation counseling techniques and conducting vocational evaluations or psychological assessments of disabled adults under the direct supervision of an independent vocational evaluator.

(d) "Vocational rehabilitation services" means those services required to determine if an employee can reasonably be expected to return to suitable gainful employment and those services reasonably necessary to provide an employee with the opportunity to return to suitable gainful employment. These services may include, but are not limited to, vocational and medical evaluation, counseling, job analysis, job modification assistance, retraining, including on-the-job training or training for alternative employment, formal training, academic instruction, and job placement assistance.

(e) "Vocational rehabilitation plan" means the written description of and rationale for the manner and means by which it is proposed that a qualified injured worker may be returned to suitable gainful employment. The plan may contemplate modification of the employee's occupation at the time of injury, provision for alternative work with the same employer, direct job placement assistance, on-the-job training, formal training, academic instruction, job placement assistance, or self-employment. The plan shall specify the anticipated completion date of vocational rehabilitation services and the amount and source of payments to be made to the qualified injured workers during the pendency of the plan. The plan shall also define the responsibilities of the employee, employer, qualified rehabilitation representative, and any other parties in implementing the plan.

(f) "Suitable gainful employment" means that employment or self-employment which is reasonably attainable and which offers an opportunity to restore the employee as soon as practicable and as near as possible to maximum self-support, due consideration being given to the employee's qualifications, likely permanent disability, vocational interests and aptitudes, preinjury earnings and future earning capacity, and the present and projected labor market. No one factor shall be considered solely in determining suitable gainful employment.

4636. (a) When aggregate total disability continues for 90 days, the employer immediately shall assign a qualified rehabilitation representative who shall meet with the employee and explain the employee's rights and obligations pertaining to vocational rehabilitation, the nature and scope of vocational rehabilitation services to which the employee may be entitled, the maintenance allowance payable under Section 139.5, and the effect of any delay in the treating physician's determination of medical eligibility. When aggregate total disability exceeds 90 days and the employee has not previously been identified as meeting the medical eligibility requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 4635, the qualified rehabilitation representative shall provide the employee's treating physician with a job description, developed jointly with the employee, and the physical requirements of the employee's duties at the time of injury in the form and manner prescribed by the administrative director, and request the treating physician to determine the employee's medical eligibility for vocational rehabilitation services. The treating physician's determination of medical eligibility shall take into account the employee's current and probable future medical condition, an estimate of the employee's current and potential functional limitations, the ability of the employee to accept and participate in vocational rehabilitation services if and when indicated, recommendations for subsequent evaluation or services, if any, the ability of the employee to engage in light work in a modified or alternative capacity, if available, and other information as may reasonably be prescribed by rules and regulations of the administrative director.

(b) If the employee's treating physician is unable to make the assessment of medical eligibility at the time of initial contact by the qualified rehabilitation representative, the qualified rehabilitation representative shall continue to monitor the employee's recovery and request the treating physician to report as soon as the physician is able to determine whether the employee is medically eligible for vocational rehabilitation services. The treating physician shall report no less frequently than every 60 days thereafter. The report also shall include an opinion concerning the physical capabilities of the employee at the time of each report. The reports shall continue to be made until the physician provides a report concluding one of the following:

(1) The employee is released to return to work at his or her usual occupation or, if the employee was engaged in another occupation at the time of injury, the occupation the employee was engaged in at the time of injury.

(2) The employee's permanent disability as the result of the injury, whether or not combined with the effects of a prior injury or disability, if any, permanently precludes, or is likely to preclude, the employee from engaging in the employee's usual occupation or the occupation in which the employee was engaged at the time of injury.

(c) When aggregate total disability exceeds 365 days and the employee has not been previously identified as medically eligible for vocational rehabilitation, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the employee is medically eligible for vocational rehabilitation services.

(d) Immediately upon receipt of the treating physician's final report required by this section, the employer shall provide a copy to the employee together with notice of the procedure to be followed in contesting the treating physician's determination. The notice shall be in writing in the form and manner prescribed by the administrative director, and shall include advice that the employee may be eligible for services if the employee is unable to return either to his or her usual occupation or the occupation in which he or she was engaged at the time of injury.

4637. (a) When an employer receives a physician's report indicating an employee meets the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 4635, the employer, within 10 days of knowledge, shall notify the employee of his or her medical eligibility for vocational rehabilitation services. The notice shall be in writing, in the form and manner prescribed by the administrative director, with a copy forwarded to the vocational rehabilitation unit within the Office of Benefit Determination. The notice shall include all of the following:

(1) An explanation of vocational rehabilitation services available to the employee, including the maintenance allowance payable under Section 139.5 and the effect of any delay in the acceptance of vocational rehabilitation services.

(2) Instructions as to how the employee may apply for vocational rehabilitation services.

(3) Notice that failure to apply within 90 days of receipt of notice of medical eligibility may terminate the employee's entitlement to vocational rehabilitation services, unless the treating physician determines that the employee is medically unable to participate in the provision of vocational rehabilitation services except as otherwise provided by Section 5410.

(4) Notice of the employee's right to an agreed upon qualified rehabilitation representative and to request a preliminary evaluation of vocational feasibility prior to any acceptance or rejection of vocational rehabilitation services and the right to request a change of qualified rehabilitation representative pursuant to Section 4640.

(5) Notice that vocational rehabilitation services may not be settled or otherwise converted to cash payments.

Immediately thereafter, unless the employee's medical condition precludes participation or the employee declines to accept vocational rehabilitation services, the employer shall assign a qualified rehabilitation representative, selected in agreement with the employee, to determine if the employee meets the vocational feasibility requirements of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 4635. If agreement cannot be reached, a qualified rehabilitation representative shall be selected pursuant to Section 4640.

(b) If an employee is notified of his or her potential entitlement to vocational rehabilitation services pursuant to subdivision (a) and it is subsequently determined that the employee is not a qualified injured worker, the employer shall notify the employee, in the form and manner prescribed by the administrative director, that he or she is not entitled to further vocational rehabilitation services, the reasons therefor, and the procedure to be followed in contesting the determination.

4638. (a) If the employee is determined to be a qualified injured worker, the qualified rehabilitation representative and the employee, jointly, shall develop an agreed-upon vocational rehabilitation plan.

Vocational rehabilitation plans which utilize an employee's transferable skills and experience in modified or alternative work with the same or a similar employer, where the qualified injured worker will have wages, hours, and working conditions similar to those at the time of injury, shall be preferable to plans that propose training for an occupation in which the employee has no skills or experience if the employee has the skills necessary to compete for other available employment at wages similar to those at the time of injury if the modified or alternative work later becomes unavailable. In furtherance of this policy, an insured employer in whose employment the injury occurred shall receive a refund payable in the same manner as a return of a standard insurance premium from the insurer when the employer, pursuant to a vocational rehabilitation plan, returns the qualified injured worker to modified or alternative work at the employer's place of employment for 12 consecutive months. The refund shall be equal to the wages of the qualified injured worker for that 12-month period divided by 100 and then multiplied by the standard premium rate applicable to the employee's occupational classification. During and after the 12-month period, the qualified injured worker shall be protected against discrimination pursuant to Section 132a.

(b) Within 90 days after determination of the employee's vocational feasibility, the employer shall do either of the following:

(1) Submit a vocational rehabilitation plan agreed to by the employee to the Office of Benefit Determination for review and approval.

(2) Request the Office of Benefit Determination to resolve any dispute concerning the provision of vocational rehabilitation services.

4639. (a) If the employer fails to assign a qualified rehabilitation representative as required by Section 4636, fails to notify the employee of possible entitlement to these services pursuant to Section 4637, or fails to provide timely vocational rehabilitation services, the employee may request the Office of Benefit Determination to authorize the provision of vocational rehabilitation services at the expense of the employer. The Office of Benefit Determination shall immediately advise the employer of the receipt of the request.

4640. Nothing in this article shall preclude the employee and the employer from agreeing to a change of a qualified rehabilitation representative. If agreement cannot be reached, the employee or employer may request the Office of Benefit Determination to assign an independent vocational evaluator to provide vocational rehabilitation services if it finds it to be in the best interests of the employee.

4641 Nothing in this article shall require an employee to accept the provision of vocational rehabilitation services. The administrative director shall prescribe by rule and regulation the form and manner by which an employee may decline participation.

The rules and regulations shall require all of the following:

(a) A complete written description of the employee's rights, benefits, and protections to enable the employee to make an informed decision concerning the declination of vocational rehabilitation services.

(b) Notice of the employee's right to consult with the Office of Benefit Determination or an attorney.

(c) The declination of vocational rehabilitation services shall be in writing in 10-point boldface type and shall be signed by the employee and his or her representative, if any.

(d) The written information and declination form shall be bilingual as needed.

4642. If the employer fails to assign a qualified rehabilitation representative or to commence vocational rehabilitation services in a timely manner as required by Section 4637, or otherwise causes any delay in the provision of vocational rehabilitation services, the full maintenance allowance shall be paid in its entirety by the employer, notwithstanding paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 139.5, for the period of the delay.

4643. If the employee unreasonably fails to cooperate in the provision of vocational rehabilitation services, unreasonably fails to cooperate in the development or implementation of a vocational rehabilitation plan, or unreasonably fails to cooperate in completing an approved vocational rehabilitation plan, the employee shall not be entitled to receive that portion of the maintenance allowance payable under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 139.5 for the period of unreasonable failure The employer shall provide the employee with written notice of the employer's intention to withhold payment, the reasons therefor, and the employee's right to object thereto within 10 days of the date the notice was received or served.

If the employee objects to the employer's stated intention to withhold payment, the Office of Benefit Determination shall conduct an expedited conference to determine if the employee is entitled to receive the payments. A copy of the determination shall be served by certified mail on the employee and employer within 10 days of the employee's objection. The employer shall continue payment of that portion of the maintenance allowance due under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 139.5 until receipt of the determination.

4644. (a) The liability of the employer for vocational rehabilitation services shall terminate when any of the following events occur:

(1) An employee who has received notice of potential eligibility to participate in a rehabilitation plan under Section 4637 declines vocational rehabilitation services in the form and manner prescribed by the administrative director.

(2) A qualified injured worker completes an approved vocational rehabilitation plan except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (c) and (d).

(3) The qualified injured worker unreasonably failed to complete an approved vocational rehabilitation plan.

(4) An employee has not requested vocational rehabilitation services within 90 days of the notification that the employee is medically eligible for vocational rehabilitation services. The liability of the employer for vocational rehabilitation services shall not terminate under this paragraph unless the employer, not earlier than 45 days nor later than 70 days after the employee's receipt of the notice required by Section 4637, reminds the employee of his or her right to vocational rehabilitation services or until the 21st day after the employee receives the reminder notification. The reminder notification shall be in writing, in the form and manner prescribed by the administrative director, and shall be served by certified mail. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply if the employee shows he or she was unable to comprehend the consequences of failing to timely request vocational rehabilitation services, or that, because of conditions beyond the control of the employee, the employee was unable to exercise his or her right to accept or decline vocational rehabilitation services.

(b) Nothing in this article shall preclude the deferral or interruption of vocational rehabilitation services upon agreement of the employee and employer or, if no agreement can be reached, upon a good cause determination by the administrative director.

(c) If a vocational rehabilitation plan has been commenced or completed, the employee shall be entitled to additional vocational rehabilitation services if the plan is determined to be inappropriate due to one of the following:

(1) A change in the employee's medical condition that precludes pursuit of or engagement in the plan occupation.

(2) Facts which with reasonable diligence could not have been reasonably discovered or were not available to the employee or employer at commencement of the plan.

(3) Failure by the employer to provide timely all services required by this article and the vocational rehabilitation plan when the plan has not been completed.

(4) Circumstances beyond the control of the employee or employer which render the plan inappropriate.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), if a qualified injured worker returns to modified or alternative work with the same employer or to work with a different employer as a result of direct job placement assistance and that employment terminates, other than for cause, within 12 months of the date the employee was employed at the modified or alternative work, and if that work is unavailable in the labor market, the employer shall be liable, subject to Section 4642, for additional vocational rehabilitation services. To qualify for additional vocational rehabilitation services, the employee shall demonstrate an inability to obtain suitable gainful employment with his or her existing skills.

4645. (a) All disputed matters regarding the provision of vocational rehabilitation services shall be submitted initially to the Office of Benefit Determination for its recommendation except as otherwise provided in this section.

(b) Where the question of entitlement to vocational rehabilitation services is first raised before a workers' compensation judge and there are good faith issues which, if resolved against the employee, would defeat his or her right to all compensation, the judge shall determine the issues and, if appropriate, refer the question of entitlement to vocational rehabilitation services to the Office of Benefit Determination for its recommendation.

(c) Where the question of entitlement to vocational rehabilitation services is first raised before a workers' compensation judge and there are no issues which would bar the employee's right to compensation, the judge shall refer the question of entitlement to the vocational rehabilitation services to the Office of Benefit

Determination for its recommendations before entering a finding, decision, or award on the issue of vocational rehabilitation.

(d) Any determination or recommendation of the Office of Benefit Determination shall be binding unless a petition is filed with the appeals board within 20 days after service of the determination or recommendation. Nothing in this section shall affect an employee's rights pursuant to Sections 5405.5, 5410, and 5803.

4646. Settlement or commutation of vocational rehabilitation services shall not be permitted under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 5000) or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 5100) of Part 3 except upon a finding by a workers' compensation judge that there are good faith issues which, if resolved against the employee, would defeat the employee's right to all compensation under this division.

4647. The administrative director shall appoint an advisory committee to assist the vocational rehabilitation unit within the Office of Benefit Determination in recommending forms, procedures, and rules and regulations consistent with the effective administration of this article. Members of the advisory committee shall include two representatives each of employees, employers, insurers, and providers of vocational rehabilitiation services.

SEC. 34. Section 4650 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4650 (a) If an injury causes temporary disability, the first payment of temporary disability indemnity shall be made not later than 14 days after knowledge of the injury and disability, on which date all indemnity then due shall be paid, unless liability for the injury is earlier denied.

(b) If the injury causes permanent disability, the first payment shall be made within 14 days after the date of last payment of temporary disability indemnity. Where the extent of permanent disability cannot be determined at the date of last payment of temporary disability indemnity, the employer nevertheless shall commence the timely payment required by this subdivision and shall continue to make these payments until the employer's reasonable estimate of permanent disability indemnity due has been paid, and if the amount of permanent disability indemnity due has been determined until that amount has been paid.

(c) Payment of temporary or permanent disability indemnity subsequent to the first payment shall be made as due every two weeks on the day designated with the first payment unless the employer continues the employee's wages under a salary continuation plan.

(d) If any indemnity payment is not made timely as required by this section, the amount of the late payment shall be increased 10 percent and shall be paid, without application, to the employee. No increase shall apply to any payment due prior to or within 14 days after the date the claim form was submitted to the employer under Section 5401. No increase shall apply when, within the 14-day period specified under subdivision (a), the employer is unable to determine whether temporary disability payments are owed and advises the employee, in the manner prescribed in regulations adopted pursuant to Section 138.4, why payments cannot be made within the 14-day period, what additional information is required to make the decision whether temporary disability payments are owed, and when the employer expects to have the information required to make the decision.

SEC. 35. Section 4651 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4651. No disability indemnity payment shall be made by any written instrument unless it is immediately negotiable and payable in cash, on demand, without discount at some established place of business in the state.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit an employer from depositing the disability indemnity payment in an account in any bank, savings and loan association or credit union of the employee's choice in this state, provided the employee has voluntarily authorized the deposit.

SEC. 36. Section 4652 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4652. Except as otherwise provided by Section 4650.5, no temporary disability indemnity is recoverable for the disability suffered during the first three days after the employee leaves work as a result of the injury unless temporary disability continues for more than 14 days or the employee is hospitalized as an inpatient for treatment required by the injury, in either of which cases temporary disability indemnity shall be payable from the date of disability. For purposes of calculating the waiting period, the day of the injury shall be included unless the employee was paid full wages for that day.

SEC. 37. Section 4658 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4658. (a) For injuries occurring prior to January 1, 1990, if the injury causes permanent disability, the percentage of disability to total disability shall be determined, and the disability payment computed and allowed, according to paragraph (1). However, in no event shall the disability payment allowed be less than the disability payment computed according to paragraph (2).

(2) Two-thirds of the average weekly earnings for four weeks for each 1 percent of disability, where, for the purposes of this subdivision, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at not more than seventy-eight dollars and seventy-five cents ($78.75).

(b) This subdivision shall apply to injuries occurring between January 1, 1990, and December 31, 1990. If the injury causes permanent disability, the percentage of disability to total disability shall be determined, and the disability payment computed and allowed, according to paragraph (1). However, in no event shall the disability payment allowed be less than the disability payment computed according to paragraph (2).

(2) Two-thirds of the average weekly earnings for four weeks for each 1 percent of disability, where, for the purposes of this subdivision, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at not more than seventy-eight dollars and seventy-five cents ($78.75), but not more than two hundred thirty-five dollars ($235) a week for injuries occurring on or after January 1, 1990, and not more than two hundred forty-seven dollars ($247) a week for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1991.

(c) This subdivision shall apply to injuries occurring between January 1, 1991, and December 31, 1991. If the injury causes permanent disability, the percentage of disability to total disability shall be determined, and the disability payment computed and allowed, according to paragraph (1). However, in no event shall the disability payment allowed be less than the disability payment computed according to paragraph (2).

(2) Two-thirds of the average weekly earnings for four weeks for each 1 percent of disability, where, for the purposes of this subdivision, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at not more than seventy-eight dollars and seventy-five cents ($78.75).

(d) This subdivision shall apply to injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1992. If the injury causes permanent disability, the percentage of disability to total disability shall be determined, and the disability payment computed and allowed, according to paragraph (1). However, in no event shall the disability payment allowed be less than the disability payment computed according to paragraph (2).

(2) Two-thirds of the average weekly earnings for four weeks for each 1 percent of disability, where, for the purposes of this subdivision, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at not more than seventy-eight dollars and seventy-five cents ($78.75).

SEC. 38. Section 4661.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4661.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, when any temporary total disability indemnity payment is made two years or more from the date of injury, the amount of this payment shall be computed in accordance with the temporary disability indemnity average weekly earnings amount specified in Section 4453 in effect on the date each temporary total disability payment is made unless computing the payment on this basis produces a lower payment because of a reduction in the minimum average weekly earnings applicable under Section 4453.

SEC 39. Section 4701 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4701. When an injury causes death, either with or without disability, the employer shall be liable, in addition to any other benefits provided by this division, for all of the following:

(a) Reasonable expenses of the employee's burial, not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000) and for injuries occurring on and after

January 1, 1991, not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(b) A death benefit, to be allowed to the dependents when the employee leaves any person dependent upon him or her for support.

SEC. 40. Section 4702 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4702. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section and Sections 4553, 4554, 4557, and 4558, the death benefit in cases of total dependency, when added to all accrued disability indeminity, shall be as follows:

(1) In the case of two or more total dependents and regardless of the number of partial dependents, ninety-five thousand dollars ($95,000), or for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1991, one hundred fifteen thousand dollars ($115,000).

(2) In the case of one total dependent and one or more partial dependents, seventy thousand dollars ($70,000), or for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1991, ninety-five thousand dollars ($95,000), plus four times the amount annually devoted to the support of the partial dependents, but not more than a total of ninety-five thousand dollars ($95,000), or for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1991, one hundred fifteen thousand dollars ($115,000).

(3) In the case of one total dependent and no partial dependents, seventy thousand dollars ($70,000), or for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1991, ninety-five thousand dollars ($95,000).

(4) In the case of no total dependents and one or more partial dependents, four times the amount annually devoted to the support of the partial dependents, but not more than seventy thousand dollars ($70,000), or for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1991, a total of ninety-five thousand dollars ($95,000).

(b) The death benefit in all cases shall be paid in installments in the same manner and amounts as temporary total disability indemnity would have to be made to the employee, unless the appeals board otherwise orders. However, no payment shall be made at a weekly rate of less than two hundred twenty-four dollars ($224).

(c) Unless otherwise specified, every computation made pursuant to this section shall be made only with reference to death resulting from an original injury sustained on and after January 1, 1990. However, all rights presently existing under this section shall be continued in force.

SEC. 41. Section 4703.5 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

4703.5. In addition to payment of the amount specified in Section 4702, and notwithstanding the maximum limitations specified in Sections 4702 and 4703, in the case of one or more totally dependent minor children, payment of death benefits shall continue until the youngest child attains age 18 in the same manner and amount as temporary total disability indemnity would have been paid to the employee, except that no payment shall be made at a weekly rate of less than two hundred twenty-four dollars ($224).

SEC. 42. Section 4903.4 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

4903.4. When a dispute arises concerning a lien for expenses incurred by or on behalf of the injured employee as provided by Article 2 (commencing with Section 4600) of Chapter 2 of Part 2, the appeals board shall resolve the dispute in a separate proceeding, which may include binding arbitration upon agreement of the employer, lien claimant, and the employee, if the employee remains a party to the dispute, according to the rules of practice and procedure.

SEC. 43. Section 4906 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4906. (a) No charge, claim, or agreement for the legal services or disbursements mentioned in subdivision (a) of Section 4903, or for the expense mentioned in subdivision (b) of Section 4903, is enforceable, valid, or binding in excess of a reasonable amount.

(b) No attorney or agent shall demand or accept any fee from an employee or dependent of an employee for the purpose of representing the employee or dependent of an employee in any proceeding of the division, appeals board, or any appellate procedure related thereto until the amount of the fee has been approved or set by the appeals board.

(c) Any fee agreement shall be submitted to the appeals board for approval within 10 days after the agreement is made.

(d) In establishing a reasonable attorney's fee, consideration shall be given to the responsibility assumed by the attorney, the care excercised in representing the applicant, the time involved, and the results obtained.

(e) At the initial consultation, an attorney shall furnish the employee a written disclosure form promulgated by the administrative director which shall clearly and prominently describe the procedures available to the injured employee or his or her dependents. The disclosure form shall describe this section, the range of attorney's fees customarily approved by the appeals board, and the attorney's fees provisions of Section 4064 and the extent to which an employee may receive compensation without incurring attorney's fees. The disclosure form shall include the telephone number of the Office of Benefit Assistance and Enforcement together with the statement that the employee may receive answers at that number to questions concerning entitlement to compensation or the procedures to follow to receive compensation. A copy shall be signed by the employee and the attorney and sent to the employer by the attorney.

SEC. 44. Part 3.5 (commencing with Section 5270) is added to Division 4 of the Labor Code, to read:

PART 3.5. ARBITRATION

5270. This part shall apply only in cases where the injured employee or dependent is represented by an attorney.

5270.5. (a) The presiding workers' compensation judge at each district office shall prepare a list of all eligible attorneys who apply to be placed on the list of eligible arbitrators. Attorneys are eligible to become arbitrators if they are active members of the California State Bar Association and are one of the following:

(1) A certified specialist in workers' compensation, or eligible to become certified.

(2) A retired workers' compensation judge.

(3) A retired appeals board member.

(4) An attorney who has been certified to serve as a judge pro tempore.

(b) No attorney shall be included in a panel of arbitrators, if he or she has served as a judge in any proceeding involving the same case, or has represented, or whose firm has represented, any party in the same case.

5271. (a) The parties to a dispute submitted for arbitration may select any eligible attorney from the list prepared by the presiding workers' compensation judge to serve as arbitrator.

(b) If the parties cannot select an arbitrator by agreement, either party may request the presiding workers' compensation judge to assign a panel of five arbitrators selected at random from the list of eligible attorneys.

(c) No more than three arbitrators on a five-member panel may be defense attorneys, no more than three may be applicant's attorneys, and no more than two may be retired workers' compensation judges or appeals board members.

(d) A party may petition the presiding workers' compensation judge to remove a member from the panel pursuant to Section 170.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The presiding workers' compensation judge shall choose another eligible attorney to replace any member removed under this subdivision.

(e) From the five-member panel, each party shall strike two members, and the remaining attorney shall serve as arbitrator.

5272 Arbitrators shall have all of the statutory and regulatory duties and responsibilities of a workers' compensation judge, as set forth in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 5300) of Part 4, except for the following:

(a) Arbitrators shall have no power to order the injured worker to be examined by a qualified medical evaluator pursuant to Sections 5701 and 5701.5.

(b) Arbitrators shall not have power of contempt.

5273. (a) In disputes between an employee and an employer, the employer shall pay all costs related to the arbitration proceeding, including use of facilities, hearing reporter per diems and transcript costs.

(b) In all other disputes, the costs of the arbitration proceedings, including the arbitrator's compensation, shall be paid as follows:

(1) By the parties equally in any dispute between an employer and an insurer, or an employer and a lien claimant.

(2) By the parties equally in proceedings subject to Sections 5000.5 and 5500.5.

(3) By the dependents in accordance with their proportionate share of death benefits, where there is no dispute as to the injury causing death.

(c) Disputes regarding the costs or fees for arbitration shall be within the exclusive jurisdiction of the appeals board, and shall be determined initially by the presiding judge of the district office.

5275. (a) Disputes involving the following issues shall be submitted for arbitration:

(1) Insurance coverage.

(2) Right of contribution in accordance with Section 5500.5.

(3) Permanent disability, where an informal rating has indicated that the permanent disability will be 15 percent standard or less, and the presiding judge determines that the case will not be set for hearing within 110 calendar days from the date of the filing of the application for adjudication.

(4) Permanent disability, where an informal rating has indicated that the permanent disability will be 20 percent standard or less, and the presiding judge determines that the case will not be set for hearing within 150 calendar days from the date of the filing of the application for adjudication.

(b) Paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (a) shall not be applicable if the applicant has requested and received a continuance or delay in the time periods for proceedings set forth in Section 5502.

(c) Paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (a) shall become operative on January 1, 1991, and shall become inoperative on January 1, 1994.

(d) By agreement of the parties, any issue arising under Division 1 (commencing with Section 50) or Division 4 (commencing with Section 3200) may be submitted for arbitration.

5276. (a) Arbitration proceedings may commence at any place and time agreed upon by all parties.

(b) If the parties cannot agree on a time or place to commence arbitration proceedings, the arbitrator shall order the date, time and place for commencement of the proceeding. Unless all parties agree otherwise, arbitration proceedings shall commence not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days from the date an arbitrator is selected.

(c) Ten days before the arbitration, each party shall submit to the arbitrator and serve on the opposing party reports, records and other documentary evidence on which that party intends to rely. If a party intends to rely upon excerpts of records or depositions, only copies of the excerpts shall be submitted to the arbitrator.

5277. (a) The arbitrator's findings and award shall be served on all parties within 30 days of submission of the case for decision.

(b) The arbitrator's award shall comply with Section 5313 and shall be filed with the appeals board office pursuant to venue rules published by the appeals board.

(c) The findings of fact, award, order, or decison of the arbitrator shall have the same force and effect as an award, order, or decision of a workers' compensation judge.

(d) Use of an arbitrator for any part of a proceeding or any issue shall not bind the parties to the use of the same arbitrator for any subsequent issues or proceedings.

(e) Unless all parties agree to a longer period of time, the failure of the arbitrator to submit the decision within 30 days shall result in forfeiture of the arbitrator's fee and shall vacate the submission order and all stipulations.

(f) The presiding workers' compensation judge may submit supplemental proceedings to arbitration pursuant to this part.

SEC. 44.5. Section 5307.3 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5307.3. The administrative director may adopt, amend, or repeal any rules and regulations that are reasonably necessary to enforce this division, except where this power is specifically reserved to the appeals board or the Industrial Medical Council.

No rule or regulation of the administrative director pursuant to this section shall be adopted, amended, or rescinded without public hearings. Any written request filed with the administrative director seeking a change in its rules or regulations shall be deemed to be denied if not set by the administrative director for public hearing to be held within six months of the date on which the request is received by the administrative director.

SEC 45. Section 5401 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 46. Section 5401 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

5401. (a) Within one working day of receiving notice or knowledge of injury under Section 5400 or 5402, the employer shall provide a claim form and a notice of potential eligibility for benefits under this division to the injured employee, or in the case of death, to his or her dependents. The claim form shall request the injured employee's name and address, the time and place where the injury occurred, and the nature of the injury. The notice shall include a description of the procedures and assistance available to the employee on his or her own behalf, the procedure to be used to commence proceedings for the collection of compensation for the purposes of this chapter, the telephone number of the Office of Benefit Assistance and Enforcement, and a statement that the employee has a right to consult an attorney or the Office of Benefit Assistance and Enforcement, or both, for assistance. Claims forms shall be available at district offices of the Employment Development Department and the Office of Benefit Assistance and Enforcement. Claims forms may be made available to the employee from any other source.

(b) The completed claim form shall be filed with the employer by the injured employee, or, in the case of death, by a dependent of the injured employee, or by an agent of the employee or dependent. A dated copy of the completed form shall be provided by the employer to the employer's insurer and to the employee, dependent, or agent who filed the claim form.

(c) The claim form shall be filed with the employer prior to the injured employee's entitlement to late payment supplements under subdivision (c) of Section 4650, or request for a medical evaluation under Section 4061 or 4062. Filing of the claim form with the employer shall constitute commencement of proceedings for the purposes of this chapter and shall establish the jurisdiction of the appeals board. After filing of the claim form, the parties shall have the right to commence discovery, including subpoena of records and deposition of witnesses, and lien claimants shall have the right to commence proceedings by filing an application for adjudication of claim. The parties shall also have the right to receive copies of the records of the treating physician or physicians.

SEC 47. Section 5402 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5402. Knowledge of an injury, obtained from any source, on the part of an employer, his or her managing agent, superintendent, foreman, or other person in authority, or knowledge of the assertion of a claim of injury sufficient to afford opportunity to the employer to make an investigation into the facts, is equivalent to service under Section 5400. If liability is not rejected within 90 days after the date of written claim under Section 5401, the injury shall be presumed compensable under this division. The presumption is rebuttable only by evidence discovered subsequent to the 90-day period.

SEC. 48. Section 5405.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5405.5. Except as otherwise provided in Sections 4644 and 5410, the period within which an employee may request vocational rehabilitation benefits provided by Article 2.6 (commencing with Section 4635) of Part 2 of Chapter 2 is one year from the date of the last finding of permanent disability by the appeals board, or one year from the date the appeals board approved a compromise and release of other issues.

SEC. 49. Section 5410 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5410. Nothing in this chapter shall bar the right of any injured worker to institute proceedings for the collection of compensation, including vocational rehabilitation services, within five years after the date of the injury upon the ground that the original injury has caused new and further disability or that the provision of vocational rehabilitation services has become feasible because the employee's medical condition has improved or because of other factors not capable of determination at the time the employer's liability for vocational rehabilitation services otherwise terminated. The jurisdiction of the appeals board in these cases shall be a continuing jurisdiction within this period. This section does not extend the limitation provided in Section 5407.

SEC. 50. Section 5500 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5500. (a) No pleadings other than the application and answer shall be required. Both shall be in writing and shall conform to forms prescribed by the appeals board in its rules of practice and procedure, simply but clearly and completely delineating all relevant matters of agreement and all issues of disagreement within the jurisdiction of the appeals board, and providing for the furnishing of such additional information as the appeals board may properly determine necessary to expedite its hearing and determination of the claim.

(b) An application for adjudication of claim may be filed at any time there is a bona fide dispute after service of the claim form required by Section 5401. The application shall specify the nature of the dispute, the action being requested of the appeals board, the efforts previously made to resolve the issues in dispute, and shall be accompanied by medical reports or other documents indicating the basis of the dispute and supporting the action requested.

SEC. 51. Section 5502 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 52. Section 5502 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

5502. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the hearing shall be held not less than 10 days, and not more than 60 days, after the date the application is filed.

(b) The administrative director shall establish a priority calendar for issues requiring an expedited hearing and decision. A hearing shall be held and a determination as to the rights of the parties shall be made and filed within 30 days after the application is filed if the issues in dispute are any of the following.

(1) The employee's entitlement to medical treatment pursuant to Section 4600.

(2) The employee's entitlement to, or the amount of, temporary disability indemnity payments.

(3) The employee's entitlement to vocational rehabilitation services, or the termination of an employer's liability to provide these services to an employee.

(4) The employee's entitlement to compensation from one or more responsible employers when two or more employers dispute liability as among themselves.

(5) Any other issues requiring an expedited hearing and determination as prescribed in rules and regulations of the administrative director.

(c) The administrative director shall report quarterly to the Governor and to the Legislature concerning the frequency and types of issues which are not heard and decided within the period prescribed in this section and the reasons therefor.

(d) (1) In all cases in which the applicant is represented by an attorney, a mandatory settlement conference shall be conducted by a referee not less than 10 days, and not more than 30 days, after the filing of an application for adjudication of claim. If the dispute is not resolved, the regular hearing shall be held within 75 days after the application for adjudication is filed.

(2) The settlement conference shall be conducted by a referee who is eligible to be a workers' compensation judge or eligible to be an arbitrator under Section 5270. At the mandatory settlement conference, the referee shall have the authority to resolve the dispute, including the authority to approve a compromise and release or issue a stipulated finding and award, and if the dispute cannot be resolved, to frame the issues and stipulations for trial.

(3) Ten days before the mandatory settlement conference, the parties shall file a conference statement noting the specific issues in dispute, listing the exhibits, and disclosing witnesses. Discovery shall close on the date of the mandatory settlement conference. Evidence not disclosed or obtained thereafter shall not be admissible unless the proponent of the evidence can demonstrate that it was not available or could not have been discovered by the exercise of due diligence prior to the settlement conference.

(4) The workers' compensation judge may conduct a conference only in cases in which the applicant is not represented by an attorney.

(5) In cases in which the applicant is not represented by an attorney the workers' compensation judge assigned to hear a case may conduct a conference not less than 10 days, and not more than 30 days, after the filing of an application for adjudication of claims. If the dispute is not resolved, the regular hearing shall be held within 75 days after the application for adjudication is filed.

(e) Subdivision (d) shall become operative on January 1, 1991, and shall become inoperative on January 1, 1994.

SEC. 53. Section 5703.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5703.5. (a) The appeals board, at any time after an application is filed and prior to the expiration of its jurisdiction may, upon the agreement of a party to pay the cost, direct the injured employee to be examined by a qualified medical evaluator selected by the appeals board, or a physician agreed upon by the parties to report, within the scope of the qualified medical evaluator's or the physician's professional training, upon any clinical question, other than those issues specified in Sections 4061 and 4062, then at issue before the appeals board.

(b) The administrative director or his or her designees, upon the submission of a matter to an information and assistance officer, may, upon the agreement of a party to pay the cost, and with the consent of the injured employee and his or her representative, if any, direct the injured employee to be examined by a qualified medical evaluator selected by the medical director, a physician agreed upon by the parties to report, within the scope of the qualified medical evaluator's or the physician's professional training, upon any clinical question, other than those issues specified in Sections 4061 and 4062, then pertinent to the investigation of the information and assistance officer.

SEC. 54. Section 5908 of the Labor Code is amended to read.

5908. (a) After the taking of additional evidence and a consideration of all of the facts the appeals board may affirm, rescind, alter, or amend the original order, decision, or award. An order, decision, or award made following reconsideration which affirms, rescinds, alters, or amends the original order, decision, or award shall be made by the appeals board but shall not affect any right or the enforcement of any right arising from or by virtue of the original order, decision, or award, unless so ordered by the appeals board.

(b) In any case where the appeals board rescinds or reduces an order, decision, or award on the grounds specified in paragraph (b) of Section 5903, the appeals board shall refer the case to the Bureau of Fraudulent Claims pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 12990) of Chapter 2 of Division 3 of the Insurance Code, if the employer is insured, or to the district attorney of the county in which the fraud occurred if the employer is self-insured.

SEC. 55. The Department of Industrial Relations shall contract for a study to establish workload standards for the following functions: judicial teams (judges and clerical staff), conference referees, auditors, disability evaluators, rehabilitation staff, information and assistance officers, and staff functions related to the Industrial Medical Council, including administration of the qualified medical evaluator panel. Once established, the department shall periodically update the standards, as needed.

The department shall submit the request for proposal for the contract to an advisory committee for review not less than 30 days prior to issuing the request for proposal. The advisory committee shall consist of the Legislative Analyst, the Chairs of the Assembly Finance and Insurance Subcommittee on Health and Workers' Compensation and Senate Industrial Relations Committee, and the Director of Finance and the Director of Industrial Relations.

The department shall submit proposed workload standards based on the contractor's report by no later than January 1, 1991. The department shall include in its annual proposed budget for number of positions identified as necessary in the workload standards.

SEC. 56. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 57. This act shall be known, and may be cited, as the Margolin-Bill Greene Workers' Compensation Reform Act of 1989.

CHAPTER 893

An act to amend Sections 139.5, 4453, 4658, and 5703.5 of, and to add Section 4064 to, the Labor Code, relating to workers' compensation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 139.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

139.5. (a) The administrative director shall establish within the Office of Benefit Determination a vocational rehabilitation unit, which shall include appropriate professional staff, and which shall have the following duties:

(1) To foster, review, and approve vocational rehabilitation plans developed by a qualified rehabilitation representative of the employer, insurer, state agency, or employee.

(2) To develop rules and regulations, to be promulgated by the administrative director, which would expedite and facilitate the identification, notification and referral of industrially injured employees to vocational rehabilitation services.

(3) To coordinate and enforce the implementation of vocational rehabilitation plans.

(4) To develop a fee schedule, to be promulgated by the administrative director, governing reasonable fees for vocational rehabilitation services. The initial fee schedule promulgated under this paragraph shall be designed to reduce the cost of vocational rehabilitation services by 10 percent.

(5) To develop standards, to be promulgated by the administrative director, for governing the timeliness and the quality of vocational rehabilitation services.

(b) The salaries of the personnel of the vocational rehabilitation unit shall be fixed by the State Personnel Board.

(c) When an employee is determined to be medically eligible and chooses to enroll in a vocational rehabilitation program, he or she shall continue to receive temporary disability indemnity payments, and, after his or her medical condition becomes permanent and stationary, a maintenance allowance. The employee also shall receive living expenses necessitated by the vocational rehabilitation services, together with all reasonable and necessary vocational training, at the expense of the employer.

(d) The amount of the maintenance allowance due under subdivision (c) shall be two-thirds of the employee's average weekly earnings at the date of injury payable as follows:

January 1, 1990.

(2) At the employee's option, an additional amount from permanent disability indemnity due or payable, sufficient to provide the employee with a maintenance allowance equal to two-thirds of the employee's average weekly earnings at the date of injury subject to the limits specified in subdivision (a) of Section 4453 and the requirements of Section 4661.5. In no event shall temporary disability indemnity and a maintenance allowance by payable concurrently.

If the employer disputes the treating physician's determination of medical eligibility, the employee shall continue to receive that portion of the maintenance allowance payable under paragraph (1) pending final determination of the dispute. If the employee disputes the treating physician's determination of medical eligibility and prevails, the employee shall be entitled to that portion of the maintenance allowance payable under paragraph (1) retroactive to the date of the employee's request for vocational rehabilitation services.

(e) No provision of this section nor of any rule, regulation, or vocational rehabilitation plan developed or promulgated under this section nor any benefit provided pursuant to this section shall apply to an injured employee whose injury occurred prior to January 1, 1975. Nothing in this section shall affect any plan, benefit, or program authorized by this section as added by Chapter 1513 of the Statutes of 1965 or as amended by Chapter 83 of the Statutes of 1972.

(f) The time within which an employee may request vocational rehabilitation services is set forth in Sections 5405.5, 5410, and 5803.

SEC. 2. Section 4064 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

4064. (a) The employer shall pay the cost of medical evaluations reasonably, actually, and necessarily incurred, pursuant to subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 4061 or subdivision (b) of Section 4062. The employer also shall pay the cost of rebuttal reports reasonably, actually, and necessarily incurred by an unrepresented employee to rebut the findings of the qualified medical evaluator selected from a three-member panel, provided, however, that the employee may not obtain rebuttal reports from more than one qualified medical evaluator for each appropriate medical specialty or subspecialty.

(b) The employer shall also pay the cost of consultations with other physicians in other specialties requested by the evaluators in connection with the evaluations and reports in subdivision (a).

(c) If an unrepresented employee obtains an attorney after the formal medical evaluation is prepared by the qualified medical evaluator selected from a three-member panel, the employee shall be entitled to the same reports at employer expense as an employee who has been represented from the time the dispute arose.

(d) Subject to Section 4906, if an employer files an application for adjudication and the employee is unrepresented at the time the application is filed, the employer shall be liable for any attorney's fees incurred by the employee in connection with the application for adjudication if the employee does not obtain a rebuttal report.

SEC. 3. Section 4453 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4453. (a) In computing average annual earnings for the purposes of temporary disability indemnity and permanent total disability indemnity only, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at:

(1) Not less than one hundred twenty-six dollars ($126) nor more than two hundred ninety-four dollars ($294), for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1983.

(2) Not less than one hundred sixty-eight dollars ($168) nor more than three hundred thirty-six dollars ($336), for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1984.

(3) Not less than one hundred sixty-eight dollars ($168) for permanent total disability, and, for temporary disability, not less than the lessor of one hundred forty-seven dollars ($147) or, if his or her average weekly earnings are between ninety-nine dollars ($99) and one hundred thirteen dollars ($113), 1.5 times the employee's average weekly earnings, nor more than three hundred ninety-nine dollars ($399) for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1990.

(4) Not less than one hundred sixty-eight dollars ($168) for permanent total disability, and not less than 1.5 times the employee's average weekly earnings from all employers if his or her average weekly earnings are less than one hundred eighty-nine dollars ($189) for temporary disability, nor more than five hundred four dollars ($504), for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1991.

(b) In computing average annual earnings for purposes of permanent partial disability indemnity, except as provided in Section 4659, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at:

(1) Not less than seventy-five dollars ($75) nor more than one hundred ninety-five dollars ($195), for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1983.

(2) Not less than one hundred five dollars ($105) nor more than two hundred ten dollars ($210), for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1984.

(3) When the final adjusted permanent disability rating of the injured employee is 25 percent or greater, not less than one hundred five dollars ($105), nor more than two hundred twenty-two dollars ($222), for injuries occurring on and after January 1, 1991.

(c) Between the limits specified in subdivisions (a) and (c), the average weekly earnings, except as provided in Sections 4456 to 4459, shall be arrived at as follows:

(1) Where the employment is for 30 or more hours a week and for five or more working days a week, the average weekly earnings shall be the number of working days a week times the daily earnings at the time of the injury.

(2) Where the employee is working for two or more employers at or about the time of the injury, the average weekly earnings shall be taken as the aggregate of these earnings from all employments computed in terms of one week; but the earnings from employments other than the employment in which the injury occurred shall not be taken at a higher rate than the hourly rate paid at the time of the injury.

(3) If the earnings are at an irregular rate, such as piecework, or on a commission basis, or are specified to be by week, month, or other period, then the average weekly earnings mentioned in subdivision (a) shall be taken as the actual weekly earnings averaged for this period of time, not exceeding one year, as may conveniently be taken to determine an average weekly rate of pay.

(4) Where the employment is for less than 30 hours per week, or where for any reason the foregoing methods of arriving at the average weekly earnings cannot reasonably and fairly be applied, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at 100 percent of the sum which reasonably represents the average weekly earning capacity of the injured employee at the time of his or her injury, due consideration being given to his or her actual earnings from all sources and employments.

(d) Every computation made pursuant to this section beginning January 1, 1990, shall be made only with reference to temporary disability or the permanent disability resulting from an original injury sustained after January 1, 1990. However, all rights existing under this section on January 1, 1990, shall be continued in force. Except as provided in Section 4661.5, disability indemnity benefits shall be calculated according to the limits in this section in effect on the date of injury and shall remain in effect for the duration of any disability resulting from the injury.

SEC. 4. Section 4658 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4658. (a) For injuries occurring prior to January 1, 1992, if the injury causes permanent disability, the percentage of disability to total disability shall be determined, and the disability payment computed and allowed, according to paragraph (1). However, in no event shall the disability payment allowed be less than the disability payment computed according to paragraph (2).

(1)

Column 1—Range of percentage of permanent disability incurred:	Column 2—Number of weeks for which two-thirds of average weekly earnings allowed for each 1 percent of permanent disability within percentage range:

The numbers set forth in column 2 above are based upon the percentage of permanent disability set forth in column 1 above and shall be cumulative, and shall increase with the severity of the disability in the manner illustrated in subdivision (a).

(2) Two-thirds of the average weekly earnings for four weeks for each 1 percent of disability, where, for the purposes of this subdivision, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at not more than seventy-eight dollars and seventy-five cents ($78.75).

SEC. 5 Section 5703.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5703.5. (a) The appeals board, at any time after an application is filed and prior to the expiration of its jurisdiction may, upon the agreement of a party to pay the cost, direct an unrepresented employee to be examined by a qualified medical evaluator selected by the appeals board, or a physician agreed upon by the parties to report, within the scope of the qualified medical evaluator's or the physician's professional training, upon any clinical question, other than those issues specified in Sections 4061 and 4062, then at issue before the appeals board.

(b) The administrative director or his or her designees, upon the submission of a matter to an information and assistance officer, may, upon the agreement of a party to pay the cost, and with the consent of the injured employee and his or her representative, if any, direct the injured employee to be examined by a qualified medical evaluator selected by the medical director, a physician agreed upon by the parties to report, within the scope of the qualified medical evaluator's or the physician's professional training, upon any clinical question, other than those issues specified in Sections 4061 and 4062, then pertinent to the investigation of the information and assistance officer.

SEC. 6. Unless otherwise specified, Assembly Bill 276 of the 1989–90 Regular Session shall apply only to injuries occurring on or after January 1, 1990.

SEC. 7. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to reduce the backlog in workers' compensation courts, to provide workers with increased information services from the Department of Industrial Relations, to provide staff for the Industrial Medical Council, as established by Section 139 of the Labor Code, and to increase the resources to audit employer and insurer benefit payments to injured workers.

(b) The Director of Industrial Relations shall establish the following new positions:

(1) For staffing of the workers' compensation courts:

(A) Twelve workers' compensation judges.

(B) Twelve hearing reporters.

(C) Twelve senior typists, legal.

(D) Twelve office assistants (II).

(2) Nine workers' compensation consultants for the information and assistance function.

(3) Forty auditors.

(4) For staffing of the Industrial Medical Council:

(A) One executive director.

(B) Three medical directors.

(C) Two attorneys.

(D) Seven workers' compensation consultants.

(E) Fifteen office assistants (II).

(c) The department shall request nine additional auditor positions to be funded in the Budget Act of 1990.

(d) The sum of two million five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Industrial Relations as a loan for the purposes of this section. The department shall reimburse the amount of the appropriation, plus interest at the same rate of interest as that earned by moneys in the Pooled Money Investment Account during the term of the loan from assessments levied upon employers pursuant to Section 62.5 of the Labor Code.

CHAPTER 894

An act to amend Section 1141.11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to judicial arbitration.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1141.11 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1141.11. (a) In each superior court with 10 or more judges, all at-issue civil actions pending on or filed after the operative date of this chapter shall be submitted to arbitration, by the presiding judge or the judge designated, under this chapter if the amount in controversy in the opinion of the court will not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for each plaintiff, which decision shall not be appealable.

(b) In each superior court with less than 10 judges, the court may provide by local rule, when it determines that it is in the best interests of justice, that all at-issue civil actions pending on or filed after the operative date of this chapter, shall be submitted to arbitration by the presiding judge or the judge designated under this chapter if the amount in controversy in the opinion of the court will not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for each plaintiff, which decision shall not be appealable.

(c) In each municipal court district, the municipal court district may provide by local rule, when it is determined to be in the best interests of justice, that all at-issue civil actions pending on or filed after the operative date of this chapter in such judicial district, shall be submitted to arbitration by the presiding judge or the judge designated under this chapter. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any action maintained pursuant to Section 1781 of the Civil Code or Section 116.2 or 1161 of this code.

(d) In each municipal court district which has adopted judicial arbitration pursuant to subdivision (c), all civil actions pending on or after July 1, 1990, which involve a claim for money damages against a single defendant as a result of a motor vehicle collision, except those heard in the small claims division, shall be submitted to arbitration within 120 days of the filing of the defendant's answer to the complaint (except as may be extended by the court for good cause) before an arbitrator selected by the court, subject to disqualification for cause as specified in Sections 170.1 and 170.6.

The court may provide by local rule for the voluntary or mandatory use of case questionnaires, established under Section 93, in any proceeding subject to these provisions. Where local rules provide for the use of case questionnaires, the questionnaires shall be exchanged by the parties upon the defendant's answer and completed and returned within 60 days.

For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "single defendant" means (1) an individual defendant, whether a person or an entity, (2) two or more persons covered by the same insurance policy applicable to the motor vehicle collision, or (3) two or more persons residing in the same household when no insurance policy exists that is applicable to the motor vehicle collision. The naming of one or more cross-defendants, not a plaintiff, shall constitute a multiple-defendant case not subject to the provisions of this subdivision.

(e) The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to those actions filed in a superior or municipal court which has been selected pursuant to Section 1823.1 and is participating in a pilot project pursuant to Title 1 (commencing with Section 1823) of Part 3.5; provided, however, that any superior or municipal court may provide by local rule that the provisions of this chapter shall apply to actions pending on or filed after July 1, 1979. Any action filed in such court after the conclusion of the pilot project shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter.

(f) No local rule of a superior court providing for judicial arbitration may dispense with the conference required pursuant to Section 1141.16.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 895

An act to amend Sections 70047, 73348, 73349, 73350, 73351, 73354, 73356, 73358, 73364, 73365, and 73366 of, to add Section 73353.2 to, to repeal and add Section 73353 to, and to repeal Sections 73341.5, 73351.5, 73353.5, 73354.5, and 73357 of, the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 70047 of the Government Code is amended to read:

70047. (a) In Contra Costa County, the annual salary of each regular official reporter shall be based on a four-step salary plan as established by joint action and approval of the board of supervisors and a majority of the judges of the court with one-year increments as provided in Section 73348 The step of entry shall be step one. However, the judges of the court may appoint any such reporter to a duly allocated exempt position at a higher step if, in the opinion of the appointing judge, an individual to be appointed has such experience and qualifications to entitle that individual to such higher initial step, but in no case may the initial salary be above the third step of the salary range. Official reporters shall advance to the next higher step on the salary plan annually, upon affirmative approval of the appointing authority. The compensation of each official reporter pro tempore shall be at a rate which is the equivalent of the daily wage of the first step in the salary range for full-time official reporters in Contra Costa County for each day such reporter is on duty under order of the court.

(b) During the hours which the court is open for the transaction of the judicial business, the regular official reporter shall perform the duties required by law. When not engaged in the performance of any other duty imposed upon him or her by law, he or she shall render stenographic or clerical assistance to the judge of the court to which he or she is assigned as that judge may direct.

(c) The board of supervisors shall adjust the salary of regular official reporters as part of its regular review of county employee compensation. Such adjustment shall be to that salary level closest to the average percentage adjustment in basic salaries of the county classes of superior court clerk, legal clerk, legal services clerk, intermediate stenographer clerk, and clerk (experienced level), and shall be effective on the same date.

(d) In addition to any fee otherwise required, in civil trials that last longer than one judicial day, a fee equal to the per diem rate for official reporters pro tempore shall be charged per day of service to the parties, on a pro rata basis, for the services of an official reporter for the second and each succeeding day a reporter is required.

(e) In addition to any fee otherwise required, in civil cases in which the court orders a daily transcript necessitating the services of two phonographic reporters, the party requesting the daily transcript shall pay a fee equal to the per diem rate for official reporters pro tempore for each day of service rendered by the second reporter, for the first and each successive day of trial.

(f) All parties shall deposit their pro rata share of such fees with the clerk at the beginning of the second and each succeeding day's court session

(g) The fees shall be taxed as costs in favor of any party paying the same and to whom costs are awarded by the judgment of the court. Such fee is not subject to Section 6103.

SEC. 1.5 Section 73341.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 73348 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73348. (a) In Contra Costa County, the annual salary of each regular official reporter shall be based on a four-step salary plan with one-year increments as follows:

Step 1. Thirty-seven thousand six hundred ninety-two dollars ($37,692).

Step 2. Thirty-nine thousand five hundred seventy-six dollars ($39,576).

Step 3. Forty-one thousand five hundred forty-four dollars ($41,544).

Step 4. Forty-three thousand six hundred thirty-two dollars ($43,632).

The step of entry to the above schedule shall be Step 1. However, the judges of the court may appoint a court reporter to a duly allocated exempt position at a higher step if, in the opinion of the appointing judge, an individual to be appointed has the experience and qualifications to entitle that individual to the higher initial step, and if the higher initial salary has the approval of the presiding judge of the court and the board of supervisors, but in no case may the initial salary be above the third step of the salary range. Except as provided below, official reporters shall advance to the next higher step on the salary plan annually. The compensation of each official reporter pro tempore shall be at a rate which is the equivalent of the daily wage of the first step in the salary range for full-time official reporters in Contra Costa County for each day the reporter actually is on duty under order of the court which per diem rate shall apply when an official reporter is appointed pursuant to Section 869 of the Penal Code by a justice court judge acting as a magistrate.

Irrespective of the step of the salary range to which initially appointed, an official court reporter shall be eligible for advancement to the next higher step in the salary range after six months service, and thereafter shall advance on the salary range based on annual reviews.

(b) During the hours which the court is open for the transaction of the judicial business, the regular official reporter shall perform the duties required by law. When not engaged in the performance of any other duty imposed upon him or her by law, he or she shall render stenographic or clerical assistance to the judge of the court to which he or she is assigned as the judge may direct.

(c) The board of supervisors shall adjust the salary of regular official reporters as part of its regular review of county employee compensation. The adjustment shall be to that salary level closest to the average percentage adjustment in basic salaries of the county classes of superior court clerk, legal clerk, legal services clerk and clerk (experienced level). Any such reporter salary adjustment shall be effective on the same day as the effective date of the board's action as to all of the aforesaid county classifications, but for official reporters of each municipal court district shall be effective only until January 1 of the second year following the calendar year in which the adjustment is made. The compensation of each official reporter pro tempore shall remain at the rate specified in subdivision (a) for the days he or she actually is on duty until changed by the board of supervisors at the same time and on the same basis as regular official reporters.

SEC. 3. Section 73349 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73349. Except as otherwise provided in this article, all paid employments of any municipal court now established or which may subsequently be established in Contra Costa County shall be under the merit system established in the county. The merit board of the county shall exercise the same jurisdiction over municipal court employments as it exercises over other county employments in the same manner as they apply to other merit system employments in the Contra Costa County service.

In the event that one or more eligibles are not certified to a vacancy within six months of the date the position became vacant, or of the date of receipt of an examination request, whichever is later, the appointing authority may fill the vacancy by appointing any candidate who meets the minimum qualifications for the class as set forth in the class specification. The appointee shall thereby obtain merit system status as described above.

SEC. 4. Section 73350 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73350. Except as otherwise provided in this article, all employments of any municipal court now established or which may be established in Contra Costa County shall be compensated and receive other benefits in accordance with the provisions of the salary ordinance of the county governing other county employments. Any subsequent change in benefits provided by the salary ordinance to employees of the county shall apply equally to employees of the municipal courts and shall have the same effective date. These benefits may also be retroactively applied. References hereafter to range allocation and salary steps apply to the basic salary schedule set forth in Section 73352

Within-range step increases shall be granted only upon the affirmative recommendation of the appointing authority

Overtime payments must bear the same approval as within-range step increases.

Clerk-administrators who are retitled district court managers shall receive all management benefits allocated to the former class, including car allowance.

SEC. 4.5. Section 73351 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73351. There are the following classes of positions into which each of the positions of the municipal courts shall be assigned as prescribed in the section pertaining to each court:

(a) Deputy clerk beginning level, which shall include all municipal court employments assigned routine clerical tasks under continuous immediate supervision.

(b) Deputy clerk-data entry operator I, which shall include all municipal court employments at the entry level assigned to operate data entry devices for the purpose of entering and verifying a wide variety of data from coded or uncoded source documents.

(c) Deputy clerk-experienced level, which shall include all municipal court employments assigned clerical tasks requiring exercise of discretion as to methods and priorities and for which supervision is available on a periodic basis only.

(d) Deputy clerk-data entry operator II, which shall include all municipal court employments at the experienced working level assigned to operate data entry devices for the purpose of entering and verifying a wide variety of data from coded or uncoded source documents.

(c) For commissioners appointed prior to July 1, 1985, the class of court commissioner shall be allocated to a five-step salary schedule, in five percent incremental steps with the fifth step equivalent to 85 percent of the salary of a superior court judge in the County of Contra Costa. For commissioners appointed on and subsequent to July 1, 1985, the class of court commissioner shall be allocated to a three-step salary schedule, in 5 percent incremental steps with the third step equivalent to 85 percent of the salary of a municipal court judge in the County of Contra Costa. Upon appointment, a new court commissioner shall be allocated to the first step of the schedule, except that an appointee with exceptionally high qualifications and experience may be appointed at a higher step with the board of supervisors' approval

SEC. 9. Section 73354.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 73356 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73356. Certain classifications in the municipal courts are excluded from the merit system.

(a) A majority of the municipal court judges in Contra Costa County shall appoint the county municipal court administrator, whose position shall be exempt from the merit system. The county municipal court administrator shall serve at the pleasure of the judges, and may be removed by a majority of the municipal court judges at their discretion.

(b) Appointment to the classification of court commissioner shall be made in accordance with Section 73362.

(c) The county municipal court administrator shall appoint the assistant county municipal court administrator who shall be exempt from the merit system and who shall serve at the discretion of the county municipal court administrator.

SEC. 11. Section 73357 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 11.5. Section 73358 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73358. The total number of positions authorized for operation of municipal courts in Contra Costa County is as follows:

Class Title	Number of Positions

SEC 12. Section 73364 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73364. Approval of the board of supervisors shall be obtained prior to filling any position in Section 73358 or 73362 which has never been filled.

SEC 13. Section 73365 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73365. If an increase in the business of the court or any other emergency requires a greater number of employees for the prompt and faithful discharge of the business of the court than the number expressly provided by law or requires the performance of duties of positions in the lowest salary bracket where all such positions have been filled, with the approval of the presiding judge in a two-judge district, and the majority of the judges in a three-or-more-judge district, and in all cases with the approval of the board of supervisors, the county municipal court administrator may appoint as many additional deputies as are needed. The additional deputies shall be appointed at the entrance level classification and shall be selected in the same manner as those for whom express provision is made, and they shall receive compensation on the basis of the hourly equivalent to the base rate of pay as provided in the salary schedule in the same amount as the lowest salary bracket provided for such class of employee. Employees may continue in those positions not longer than 90 days after the adjournment of the next regular session of the Legislature.

SEC. 14. Section 73366 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73366. Except as provided in this article, all persons serving as permanent employees of the municipal courts shall be assigned to the positions authorized in this article in accordance with the duties and responsibilities of their position classifications. The assignments shall be made by the appointing authority in accordance with the rules under the merit system.

SEC. 15. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 896

An act to amend Section 436.28 of, and to add Section 436.86 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to health facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 436.28 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

436.28. (a) The office's authorization to insure health facility construction, improvement, and expansion loans under this chapter shall be limited to a total of not more than two billion dollars ($2,000,000,000).

(b) Notwithstanding the limitation in subdivision (a), the office may exceed the specific dollar limitation in any instance of refinancing a preexisting office-guaranteed loan, if the refinancing results in savings to the health facility and increases the probability that a loan can be repaid.

SEC. 2. Section 436.86 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

436.86. (a) If a borrower is unable to comply with subdivision (j) of Section 436.8 due to selective provider contracting under the Medi-Cal program, and the office has determined the borrower has negotiated in good faith but was not awarded a contract, the borrower may be eligible for insurance under this chapter as provided in subdivision (b).

(b) The office may determine that a noncontracting borrower shall be considered as meeting the requirements of subdivision (j) of Section 436.8 if the borrower otherwise provides a community service in accordance with regulations adopted by the office. The regulations shall describe alternative methods of meeting the obligation, which may include, but not be limited to, providing free care, charity care, trauma care, community education, or primary care outreach and care to the elderly, in amounts greater than the community average. The regulations shall include a requirement that a general acute care hospital, which is not a small and rural hospital as defined in Section 442.2, shall have, and continue to maintain, a 24-hour basic emergency medical service with a physician on duty, if it provided this service on January 1, 1990. The office shall have the authority to waive this requirement upon a determination by the director that this requirement would create a hardship for the hospital, be inconsistent with regionalization of emergency medical services, or not be in the best interest of the population served by the hospital.

CHAPTER 897

An act to add Section 26805 to the Government Code, to add Sections 24801 and 24802 to the Health and Safety Code, to amend Sections 11, 17, 37, 118, 182, 281, 470, 532, 653f, 859b, 1050, 1203.046, 1203.065, 1203.2a, 1463.5, 1463.22, 1601, and 3420 of, to amend and renumber Sections 19a, 19c, 19d, 19e, and 653*l* of, to add Sections 19.4, 189.5, 329, 501, and 4000.5 to, and to repeal Sections 19b, 177, 269, 638, 638a, 1047, 1103, 1103a, 1104, 1105, 1106, 1107, 1109, 1110, 1131, and 1135 of, the Penal Code, and to amend Sections 4514, 5328.4, and 6500 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26805 is added to the Government Code, to read:

26805. The clerk must keep a calendar of all criminal actions pending in the court, enumerating them according to the date of the filing of the indictment or information, specifying opposite the title of each action whether it is for a felony or a misdemeanor, and whether the defendant is in custody or on bail.

SEC. 2. Section 24801 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

24801. No person shall operate or maintain any X-ray fluoroscope, or other equipment or apparatus employing roentgen rays, in the fitting of shoes or other footwear or in the viewing of bones in the feet. This section shall not apply to any licensed physician, surgeon, podiatrist, chiropractor, or any person practicing a licensed healing art, or any technician working under the direct and immediate supervision of those persons. Any person violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 3. Section 24802 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

24802. It shall be unlawful for any person to implant foreign materials within the scalp of any other person for the purpose of preventing or alleviating baldness. "Foreign materials" shall include, but shall not be limited to, synthetic fibers and strands of human hair from another person. A violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor.

This section shall not be applicable to procedures for the transplantation of a person's own hair or to procedures for the fixation of hairpieces, toupees, or wigs.

SEC. 4. Section 11 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11. This code does not affect any power conferred by law upon any court-martial, or other military authority or officer, to impose or inflict punishment upon offenders; nor, except as provided in Section 19.2 of this code, any power conferred by law upon any public body, tribunal, or officer, to impose or inflict punishment for a contempt.

SEC. 5. Section 17 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

17. (a) A felony is a crime which is punishable with death or by imprisonment in the state prison. Every other crime or public offense is a misdemeanor except those offenses that are classified as infractions.

(b) When a crime is punishable, in the discretion of the court, by imprisonment in the state prison or by fine or imprisonment in the county jail, it is a misdemeanor for all purposes under the following circumstances:

(1) After a judgment imposing a punishment other than imprisonment in the state prison.

(2) When the court, upon committing the defendant to the Youth Authority, designates the offense to be a misdemeanor.

(3) When the court grants probation to a defendant without imposition of sentence and at the time of granting probation, or on application of the defendant or probation officer thereafter, the court declares the offense to be a misdemeanor

(4) When the prosecuting attorney files in a court having jurisdiction over misdemeanor offenses a complaint specifying that the offense is a misdemeanor, unless the defendant at the time of his or her arraignment or plea objects to the offense being made a misdemeanor, in which event the complaint shall be amended to charge the felony and the case shall proceed on the felony complaint.

(5) When, at or before the preliminary examination or prior to filing an order pursuant to Section 872, the magistrate determines that the offense is a misdemeanor, in which event the case shall proceed as if the defendant had been arraigned on a misdemeanor complaint.

(c) When a defendant is committed to the Youth Authority for a crime punishable, in the discretion of the court, by imprisonment in the state prison or by fine or imprisonment in the county jail, the offense shall, upon the discharge of the defendant from the Youth Authority, thereafter be deemed a misdemeanor for all purposes.

(d) A violation of any code section listed in Section 19.8 is an infraction subject to the procedures described in Sections 19.6 and 19.7 when:

(1) The prosecutor files a complaint charging the offense as an infraction unless the defendant, at the time he or she is arraigned, after being informed of his or her rights, elects to have the case proceed as a misdemeanor, or;

(2) The court, with the consent of the defendant, determines that the offense is an infraction in which event the case shall proceed as if the defendant had been arraigned on an infraction complaint.

SEC. 6. Section 19a of the Penal Code is amended and renumbered to read:

19.2. In no case shall any person sentenced to confinement in a county or city jail, or in a county or joint county penal farm, road camp, work camp, or other county adult detention facility, or committed to the sheriff for placement in any county adult detention facility, on conviction of a misdemeanor, or as a condition of probation upon conviction of either a felony or a misdemeanor, or upon commitment for civil contempt, or upon default in the payment of a fine upon conviction of either a felony or a misdemeanor, or for any reason except upon conviction of more than one offense when consecutive sentences have been imposed, be committed for a period in excess of one year; provided, however, that the time allowed on parole shall not be considered as a part of the period of confinement.

SEC. 7. Section 19b of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 19c of the Penal Code is amended and renumbered to read:

19.6. An infraction is not punishable by imprisonment. A person charged with an infraction shall not be entitled to a trial by jury. A person charged with an infraction shall not be entitled to have the public defender or other counsel appointed at public expense to represent him or her unless he or she is arrested and not released on his or her written promise to appear, his or her own recognizance, or a deposit of bail.

SEC. 9. Section 19d of the Penal Code is amended and renumbered to read:

19.7. Except as otherwise provided by law, all provisions of law relating to misdemeanors shall apply to infractions including, but not limited to, powers of peace officers, jurisdiction of courts, periods for commencing action and for bringing a case to trial and burden of proof.

SEC. 10. Section 19e of the Penal Code is amended and renumbered to read:

19.8. The following offenses are subject to the provisions of subdivision (d) of Section 17: Sections 330, 415, 555, and 853.7, of this code; subdivision (m) of Section 602 of this code; subdivision (b) of Section 25658 and Sections 25661 and 25662 of the Business and Professions Code; Sections 27150.1, 40508, and 42005 of the Vehicle Code, Section 14601.1 of the Vehicle Code based upon failure to appear, and any other offense which the Legislature makes subject to the provisions of subdivision (d) of Section 17. Except where a lesser maximum fine is expressly provided for violation of any of those sections, any violation which is an infraction is punishable by a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

Except for Section 14601.1 of the Vehicle Code based upon failure to appear, a conviction for any offense made an infraction under subdivision (d) of Section 17 shall not be grounds for the suspension, revocation, or denial of any license, or for the revocation of probation or parole of the person convicted.

SEC. 11. Section 19.4 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

19.4. When an act or omission is declared by a statute to be a public offense and no penalty for the offense is prescribed in any statute, the act or omission is punishable as a misdemeanor.

SEC. 12. Section 37 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

37. (a) Treason against this state consists only in levying war against it, adhering to its enemies, or giving them aid and comfort, and can be committed only by persons owing allegiance to the state. The punishment of treason shall be death or life imprisonment without possibility of parole. The penalty shall be determined pursuant to Sections 190.3 and 190.4.

(b) Upon a trial for treason, the defendant cannot be convicted unless upon the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or upon confession in open court; nor, except as provided in Sections 190.3 and 190.4, can evidence be admitted of an overt act not expressly charged in the indictment or information; nor can the defendant be convicted unless one or more overt acts be expressly alleged therein.

SEC. 13. Section 118 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

118. (a) Every person who, having taken an oath that he or she will testify, declare, depose, or certify truly before any competent tribunal, officer, or person, in any of the cases in which such an oath may by law of the State of California be administered, willfully and contrary to such oath, states as true any material matter which he or she knows to be false, and every person who testifies, declares, deposes, or certifies under penalty of perjury in any of the cases in which such testimony, declarations, depositions, or certification is permitted by law of the State of California under penalty of perjury and willfully states as true any material matter which he or she knows to be false, is guilty of perjury.

This subdivision is applicable whether the statement, or the testimony, declaration, deposition, or certification is made or subscribed within or without the State of California.

(b) No person shall be convicted of perjury where proof of falsity rests solely upon contradiction by testimony of a single person other than the defendant. Proof of falsity may be established by direct or indirect evidence.

SEC. 14. Section 177 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 182 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

182. (a) If two or more persons conspire:

(1) To commit any crime.

(2) Falsely and maliciously to indict another for any crime, or to procure another to be charged or arrested for any crime.

(3) Falsely to move or maintain any suit, action or proceeding.

(4) To cheat and defraud any person of any property, by any means which are in themselves criminal, or to obtain money or property by false pretenses or by false promises with fraudulent intent not to perform such promises.

(5) To commit any act injurious to the public health, to public morals, or to pervert or obstruct justice, or the due administration of the laws.

(6) To commit any crime against the person of the President or Vice President of the United States, the governor of any state or territory, any United States justice or judge, or the secretary of any of the executive departments of the United States.

They are punishable as follows

When they conspire to commit any crime against the person of any official specified in paragraph (6), they are guilty of a felony and are punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for five, seven, or nine years.

When they conspire to commit any other felony, they shall be punishable in the same manner and to the same extent as is provided for the punishment of the that felony. If the felony is one for which different punishments are prescribed for different degrees, the jury or court which finds the defendant guilty thereof shall determine the degree of the felony defendant conspired to commit. If the degree is not so determined, the punishment for conspiracy to commit the felony shall be that prescribed for the lesser degree, except in the case of conspiracy to commit murder, in which case the punishment shall be that prescribed for murder in the first degree.

If the felony is conspiracy to commit two or more felonies which have different punishments and the commission of those felonies constitute but one offense of conspiracy, the penalty shall be that prescribed for the felony which has the greater maximum term.

When they conspire to do an act described in paragraph (4), they shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or both.

When they conspire to do any of the other acts described in this section, they shall be punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or in the state prison, or by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or both.

All cases of conspiracy may be prosecuted and tried in the superior court of any county in which any overt act tending to effect such conspiracy shall be done.

(b) Upon a trial for conspiracy, in a case where an overt act is necessary to constitute the offense, the defendant cannot be convicted unless one or more overt acts are expressly alleged in the indictment or information, nor unless one of the acts alleged is proved; but other overt acts not alleged may be given in evidence.

SEC. 16. Section 189.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

189.5. (a) Upon a trial for murder, the commission of the homicide by the defendant being proved, the burden of proving circumstances of mitigation, or that justify or excuse it, devolves upon the defendant, unless the proof on the part of the prosecution tends to show that the crime committed only amounts to manslaughter, or that the defendant was justifiable or excusable.

(b) Nothing in this section shall apply to or affect any proceeding under Section 190.3 or 190.4.

SEC 17. Section 269 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC 18. Section 281 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

281. (a) Every person having a husband or wife living, who marries any other person, except in the cases specified in Section 282, is guilty of bigamy.

(b) Upon a trial for bigamy, it is not necessary to prove either of the marriages by the register, certificate, or other record evidence thereof, but the marriages may be proved by evidence which is admissible to prove a marriage in other cases; and when the second marriage took place out of this state, proof of that fact, accompanied with proof of cohabitation thereafter in this state, is sufficient to sustain the charge.

SEC. 19. Section 329 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

329. Upon a trial for the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, it is not necessary to prove the existence of any lottery in which any lottery ticket purports to have been issued, or to prove the actual signing of any such ticket or share, or pretended ticket or share, of any pretended lottery, nor that any lottery ticket, share, or interest was signed or issued by the authority of any manager, or of any person assuming to have authority as manager; but in all cases proof of the sale, furnishing, bartering, or procuring of any ticket, share, or interest therein, or of any instrument purporting to be a ticket, or part or share of any such ticket, is evidence that such share or interest was signed and issued according to the purport thereof.

SEC. 20. Section 470 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

470. (a) Every person who, with intent to defraud, signs the name of another person, or a fictitious person, knowing that he or she has no authority so to do, to, or falsely makes, alters, forges, or counterfeits, any charter, letters patent, deed, lease, indenture, writing obligatory, will, testament, codicil, bond, covenant, bank bill or note, post note, check, draft, bill of exchange, contract, promissory note, due bill for the payment of money or property, receipt for money or property, passage ticket, lottery ticket or share purporting to be issued under the California State Lottery Act of 1984, trading stamp, power of attorney, certificate of ownership or other document evidencing ownership of a vehicle or undocumented vessel, or any certificate of any share, right, or interest in the stock of any corporation or association, or any controller's warrant for the payment of money at the treasury, county order or warrant, or request for the payment of money, or the delivery of goods or chattels of any kind, or for the delivery of any instrument of writing, or acquittance, release, or receipt for money or goods, or any acquittance, release, or discharge of any debt, account, suit, action, demand, or other thing, real or personal, or any transfer or assurance of money, certificate of shares of stock, goods, chattels, or other property whatever, or any letter of attorney, or other power to receive money, or to receive or transfer certificates of shares of stock or annuities, or to let, lease, dispose of, alien, or convey any goods, chattels, lands, or tenements, or other estate, real or personal, or any acceptance or endorsement of any bill of exchange, promissory note, draft, order, or any assignment of any bond, writing obligatory, promissory note, or other contract for money or other property; or counterfeits or forges the seal or handwriting of another; or utters, publishes, passes, or attempts to pass, as true and genuine, any of the above-named false, altered, forged, or counterfeited matters, as above specified and described, knowing the same to be false, altered, forged, or counterfeited, with intent to prejudice, damage, or defraud any person; or who, with intent to defraud, alters, corrupts, or falsifies any record of any will, codicil, conveyance, or other instrument, the record of which is by law evidence, or any record of any judgment of a court or the return of any officer to any process of any court, is guilty of forgery.

(b) Upon a trial for forging any bill or note purporting to be the bill or note of an incorporated company or bank, or for passing, or attempting to pass, or having in possession with intent to pass, any forged bill or note, it is not necessary to prove the incorporation of the bank or company by the charter or act of incorporation, but it may be proved by general reputation; and persons of skill are competent witnesses to prove that the bill or note is forged or counterfeited.

SEC. 21. Section 501 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

501. Upon a trial for larceny or embezzlement of money, bank notes, certificates of stock, or valuable securities, the allegation of the indictment or information, so far as regards the description of the property, is sustained, if the offender be proved to have embezzled or stolen any money, bank notes, certificates of stock, or valuable security, although the particular species of coin or other money, or the number, denomination, or kind of bank notes, certificates of stock, or valuable security, is not proved; and upon a trial for embezzlement, if the offender is proved to have embezzled any piece of coin or other money, any bank note, certificate of stock, or valuable security, although the piece of coin or other money, or bank note, certificate of stock, or valuable security, may have been delivered to him or her in order that some part of the value thereof should be returned to the party delivering the same, and such part shall have been returned accordingly.

SEC. 22. Section 532 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

532. (a) Every person who knowingly and designedly, by any false or fraudulent representation or pretense, defrauds any other person of money, labor, or property, whether real or personal, or who causes or procures others to report falsely of his or her wealth or mercantile character, and by thus imposing upon any person obtains credit, and thereby fraudulently gets possession of money or property, or obtains the labor or service of another, is punishable in the same manner and to the same extent as for larceny of the money or property so obtained.

(b) Upon a trial for having, with an intent to cheat or defraud another designedly, by any false pretense, obtained the signature of any person to a written instrument, or having obtained from any person any labor, money, or property, whether real or personal, or valuable thing, the defendant cannot be convicted if the false pretense was expressed in language unaccompanied by a false token or writing, unless the pretense, or some note or memorandum thereof is in writing, subscribed by or in the handwriting of the defendant, or unless the pretense is proven by the testimony of two witnesses, or that of one witness and corroborating circumstances. This section does not apply to a prosecution for falsely representing or personating another, and, in that assumed character, marrying, or receiving any money or property.

SEC. 23. Section 638 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 24. Section 638a of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 25. Section 653f of the Penal Code is amended to read:

653f. (a) Every person who, with the intent that the crime be committed, solicits another to offer or accept or join in the offer or acceptance of a bribe, or to commit or join in the commission of robbery, burglary, grand theft, receiving stolen property, extortion, perjury, subornation of perjury, forgery, kidnapping, arson or assault with a deadly weapon or instrument or by means of force likely to produce great bodily injury, or, by the use of force or a threat of force, to prevent or dissuade any person who is or may become a witness from attending upon, or testifying at, any trial, proceeding, or inquiry authorized by law, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year or in the state prison, or by fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or the amount which could have been assessed for commission of the offense itself, whichever is greater, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(b) Every person who, with the intent that the crime be committed, solicits another to commit or join in the commission of murder is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for three, six, or nine years.

(c) Every person who, with the intent that the crime be committed, solicits another to commit rape by force or violence, sodomy by force or violence, oral copulation by force or violence, or any violation of Section 264.1, 288, or 289, is punishable by imprisonment in a state prison for two, three or four years.

(d) Every person who, with the intent that the crime be committed, solicits another to commit an offense specified in Section 11352, 11379, 11379.5, 11379.6, or 11391 of the Health and Safety Code shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding six months. Every person, who, having been convicted of soliciting another to commit an offense specified in this subdivision, is subsequently convicted of the proscribed solicitation, then the person convicted of the subsequent offense is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or in the state prison.

This subdivision does not apply where the term of imprisonment imposed under other provisions of law would result in a longer term of imprisonment.

(e) An offense charged in violation of subdivision (a), (b), or (c) shall be proven by the testimony of two witnesses, or of one witness and corroborating circumstances. An offense charged in violation of subdivision (d) shall be proven by the testimony of one witness and corroborating circumstances.

SEC. 26. Section 653*l* of the Penal Code is amended and renumbered to read:

653j. (a) Every person 18 years of age or older who, in any voluntary manner, solicits, induces, encourages, or intimidates any minor with the intent that the minor shall commit a felony in violation of paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 136.1 or Section 187, 211, 245, 246, 451, 459, or 520 of the Penal Code, or Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of three, five, or seven years. If the minor is 16 years of age or older at the time of the offense, this section shall only apply when the adult is at least five years older than the minor at the time the offense is committed.

(b) In no case shall the court impose a sentence pursuant to subdivision (a) which exceeds the maximum penalty prescribed for the felony offense for which the minor was solicited, induced, encouraged, or intimidated to commit.

(c) Whenever a sentence is imposed under subdivision (a), the court shall consider the severity of the underlying crime as one of the circumstances in aggravation.

SEC. 26.5. Section 859b of the Penal Code is amended to read:

859b. At the time the defendant appears before the magistrate for arraignment, if the public offense is a felony to which the defendant has not pleaded guilty in accordance with Section 859a, the magistrate, immediately upon the appearance of counsel, or if none appears, after waiting a reasonable time therefor as provided in Section 859, shall set a time for the examination of the case and shall allow not less than two days, excluding Sundays and holidays, for the district attorney and the defendant to prepare for the examination. The magistrate shall also issue subpoenas, duly subscribed, for witnesses within the state, required either by the prosecution or the defense.

Both the defendant and the people have the right to a preliminary examination at the earliest possible time, and unless both waive that right or good cause for a continuance is found as provided for in Section 1050, the preliminary examination shall be held within 10 court days of the date the defendant is arraigned or pleads, whichever occurs later.

Whenever the defendant is in custody, the magistrate shall dismiss the complaint if the preliminary examination is set or continued beyond 10 court days from the time of the arraignment or plea and the defendant has remained in custody for 10 or more court days solely on that complaint, unless either of the following occur:

(a) The defendant personally waives his or her right to preliminary examination within the 10 court days.

(b) The prosecution establishes good cause for a continuance beyond the 10-court-day period.

For purposes of this subdivision, "good cause" includes, but is not limited to, those cases involving allegations that a violation of one or more of the sections specified in subdivision (a) of Section 11165.1 or in Section 11165.6 has occurred and the prosecuting attorney assigned to the case has another trial, preliminary hearing, or motion to suppress in progress in that court or another court. Any continuance under this paragraph shall be limited to a maximum of three additional court days.

If the preliminary examination is set or continued beyond the 10-court-day period, the defendant shall be released pursuant to Section 1318 unless:

(1) The defendant requests the setting of continuance of the preliminary examination beyond the 10-court-day period.

(2) The defendant is charged with a capital offense in a cause where the proof is evident and the presumption great.

(3) A witness necessary for the preliminary examination is unavailable due to the actions of the defendant

(4) The illness of counsel.

(5) The unexpected engagement of counsel in a jury trial.

(6) Unforeseen conflicts of interest which require appointment of new counsel.

The magistrate shall dismiss the complaint if the preliminary examination is set or continued more than 60 days from the date of the arraignment or plea, unless the defendant personally waives his or her right to a preliminary examination within the 60 days.

SEC. 27. Section 1047 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 27.5 Section 1050 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1050 (a) The welfare of the people of the State of California requires that all proceedings in criminal cases shall be set for trial and heard and determined at the earliest possible time. To this end the Legislature finds that the criminal courts are becoming increasingly congested with resulting adverse consequences to the welfare of the people and the defendant. Excessive continuances contribute substantially to this congestion and cause substantial hardship to victims and other witnesses. Continuances also lead to longer periods of presentence confinement for those defendants in custody and the concomitant overcrowding and increased expenses of local jails. It is therefore recognized that the people, the defendant, and the victims and other witnesses have the right to an expeditious disposition, and to that end it shall be the duty of all courts and judicial officers and of all counsel, both for the prosecution and the defense, to expedite these proceedings to the greatest degree that is consistent with the ends of justice. In accordance with this policy, criminal cases shall be given precedence over, and set for trial and heard without regard to the pendency of, any civil matters or proceedings.

(b) To continue any hearing in a criminal proceeding, including the trial, (1) a written notice shall be filed and served on all parties to the proceeding at least two court days before the hearing sought to be continued, together with affidavits or declarations detailing specific facts showing that a continuance is necessary; and (2), within two court days of learning that he or she has a conflict in the scheduling of any court hearing, including a trial, an attorney shall notify the calendar clerk of each court involved, in writing, indicating which hearing was set first. A party shall not be deemed to have been served within the meaning of this section until that party actually has received a copy of the documents to be served, unless the party, after receiving actual notice of the request for continuance, waives the right to have the documents served in a timely manner. Regardless of the proponent of the motion, the prosecuting attorney shall notify people's witnesses and the defense attorney shall notify defense's witnesses of the notice of motion, the date of the hearing, and the witnesses' right to be heard by the court. The superior and municipal courts of a county may adopt rules, which shall be consistent, regarding the method of giving the notice or waiver of service required by this subdivision, where a continuance is sought because of a conflict between scheduled appearances in the courts of that county.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), a party may make a motion for a continuance without complying with the requirements of that subdivision. However, unless the moving party shows good cause for the failure to comply with those requirements, the court may impose sanctions as provided in Section 1050.5.

(d) When a party makes a motion for a continuance without complying with the requirements of subdivision (b), the court shall hold a hearing on whether there is good cause for the failure to comply with those requirements. At the conclusion of the hearing the court shall make a finding whether good cause has been shown and, if it finds that there is good cause, shall state on the record the facts proved that justify its finding. A statement of the finding and a statement of facts proved shall be entered in the minutes. If the moving party is unable to show good cause for the failure to give notice, the motion for continuance shall not be granted.

(e) Continuances shall be granted only upon a showing of good cause. Neither the convenience of the parties nor a stipulation of the parties is in and of itself good cause.

(f) At the conclusion of the motion for continuance, the court shall make a finding whether good cause has been shown and, if it finds that there is good cause, shall state on the record the facts proved that justify its finding. A statement of facts proved shall be entered in the minutes.

(g) When deciding whether or not good cause for a continuance has been shown, the court shall consider the general convenience and prior commitments of all witnesses, including peace officers. Both the general convenience and prior commitments of each witness also shall be considered in selecting a continuance date if the motion is granted. The facts as to inconvenience or prior commitments may be offered by the witness or by a party to the case.

For purposes of this section, "good cause" includes, but is not limited to, those cases involving allegations that a violation of one or more of the sections specified in subdivision (a) of Section 11165.1 or Section 11165.6 has occurred and the prosecuting attorney assigned to the case has another trial, preliminary hearing, or motion to suppress in progress in that court or another court. A continuance under this paragraph shall be limited to a maximum of 10 additional court days.

(h) Upon a showing that the attorney of record at the time of the defendant's first appearance in the superior court is a Member of the Legislature of this state and that the Legislature is in session or that a legislative interim committee of which the attorney is a duly appointed member is meeting or is to meet within the next seven days, the defendant shall be entitled to a reasonable continuance not to exceed 30 days.

(i) A continuance shall be granted only for that period of time shown to be necessary by the evidence considered at the hearing on the motion. Whenever any continuance is granted, the court shall state on the record the facts proved that justify the length of the continuance, and those facts shall be entered in the minutes.

(j) Whenever it shall appear that any court may be required, because of the condition of its calendar, to dismiss an action pursuant to Section 1382, the court must immediately notify the Chairman of the Judicial Council.

(k) This section shall not apply when the preliminary examination is set on a date less than 10 court days from the date of the defendant's arraignment on the complaint, and the prosecution or the defendant moves to continue the preliminary examination to a date not more than 10 court days from the date of the defendant's arraignment on the complaint.

SEC. 37. Section 1135 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 37.5. Section 1203.046 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.046. (a) Except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served if the person is granted probation, probation shall not be granted to any person who is convicted of violating Section 653j by using, soliciting, inducing, encouraging, or intimidating a minor to commit a felony in violation of that section.

(b) When probation is granted pursuant to subdivision (a), the court shall specify on the record and shall enter into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by that disposition.

SEC. 38. Section 1203.065 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.065. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, any person convicted of violating subdivision (2) of Section 261, or Section 264.1, or Section 266h, or Section 266i, or Section 266j, or subdivision (a) of Section 289, or of committing sodomy or oral copulation in violation of Section 286 or 288a by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person or subdivision (c) of Section 311.4.

(b) Except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served if the person is granted probation, probation shall not be granted to any person convicted of a violation of Section 220 for assault with intent to commit any of the following: rape, sodomy, oral copulation, any violation of Section 264.1, any violation of subdivision (b) of Section 288, or any violation of Section 289.

When probation is granted, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter on the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by such a disposition.

(c) This section does not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 39. Section 1203.2a of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.2a. If any defendant who has been released on probation is committed to a prison in this state or another state for another offense, the court which released him or her on probation shall have jurisdiction to impose sentence, if no sentence has previously been imposed for the offense for which he or she was granted probation, in the absence of the defendant, on the request of the defendant made through his or her counsel, or by himself or herself in writing, if such writing is signed in the presence of the warden or superintendent of the prison in which he or she is confined or the duly authorized representative of the warden or superintendent, and such warden or superintendent or his or her representative attests both that the defendant has made and signed such request and that he or she states that he or she wishes the court to impose sentence in the case in which he or she was released on probation, in his or her absence and without him or her being represented by counsel.

The probation officer may, upon learning of such defendant's imprisonment, and must within 30 days after being notified in writing by the defendant or his or her counsel, or the warden or superintendent or duly authorized representative of the prison in which the defendant is confined, report such commitment to the court which released him or her on probation.

Upon being informed by the probation officer of the defendant's confinement, or upon receipt from the warden, superintendent, or duly authorized representative of any prison in this state or another state of a certificate showing that the defendant is confined in prison, the court shall issue its commitment if sentence has previously been imposed. If sentence has not been previously imposed and if the defendant has requested the court through counsel or in writing in the manner herein provided to impose sentence in the case in which he or she was released on probation in his or her absence and without the presence of counsel to represent him or her, the court shall impose sentence and issue its commitment, or shall make other final order terminating its jurisdiction over the defendant in the case in which the order of probation was made. If the case is one in which sentence has previously been imposed, the court shall be deprived of jurisdiction over defendant if it does not issue its commitment or make other final order terminating its jurisdiction over defendant in the case within 60 days after being notified of the confinement. If the case is one in which sentence has not previously been imposed, the court is deprived of jurisdiction over defendant if it does not impose sentence and issue its commitment or make other final order terminating its jurisdiction over defendant in the case within 30 days after defendant has, in the manner prescribed by this section, requested imposition of sentence.

Upon imposition of sentence hereunder the commitment shall be dated as of the date upon which probation was granted. If the defendant is then in a state prison for an offense committed subsequent to the one upon which he or she has been on probation, the term of imprisonment of such defendant under a commitment issued hereunder shall commence upon the date upon which defendant was delivered to prison under commitment for his or her subsequent offense. Any terms ordered to be served consecutively shall be served as otherwise provided by law.

In the event the probation officer fails to report such commitment to the court or the court fails to impose sentence as herein provided, the court shall be deprived thereafter of all jurisdiction it may have retained in the granting of probation in said case.

SEC. 40. Section 1463.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1463.5. The distribution of funds required pursuant to Section 1463, and the distribution of assessments imposed and collected under Section 1464 and Section 42006 of the Vehicle Code, may be determined and made upon the basis of probability sampling. The sampling shall be procedural in nature and shall not substantively modify the distributions required pursuant to Sections 1463 and 1464 and Section 42006 of the Vehicle Code. The procedure for the sampling shall be prescribed by the county auditor and the procedure and its implementation shall be approved by the board of supervisors and a majority of the cities within a county. The reasonableness of the distribution shall be verified during the audit performed pursuant to Section 71383 of the Government Code.

SEC. 41. Section 1463.22 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1463.22. (a) Notwithstanding Section 1463, of the moneys deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463, ten dollars ($10) for each alleged violation of Section 16028 of the Vehicle Code shall be deposited by the county treasurer in a special account and allocated to defray costs of municipal and justice courts incurred in administering Sections 16028, 16030, and 16031 of the Vehicle Code. The amount required to be deposited in a special account pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited regardless of whether the charge is dismissed pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 16028 of the Vehicle Code or otherwise. Any moneys in the special account in excess of the amount required to defray those costs shall be redeposited and distributed by the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 1463, of the moneys deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463, three dollars ($3) for each conviction for a violation of Section 16028 of the Vehicle Code shall be initially deposited by the county treasurer in a special account, and shall be transmitted once per month to the Controller for deposit in the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund. These moneys shall be available, when appropriated, to defray the administrative costs incurred by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to Sections 16031, 16032, 16034, and 16035 of the Vehicle Code. It is the intent of this subdivision to provide sufficient revenues to pay for all of the department's costs in administering those sections of the Vehicle Code.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 1463, of the moneys deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463, ten dollars ($10) upon the conviction of, or upon the forfeiture of bail from, any person arrested or notified for a violation of Section 16028 of the Vehicle Code shall be deposited by the county treasurer in a special account and shall be transmitted monthly to the Controller for deposit in the General Fund.

SEC. 42. Section 1601 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1601. (a) In the case of any person charged with and found incompetent on a charge of, convicted of, or found not guilty by reason of insanity of murder, mayhem, aggravated mayhem, a violation of Section 207 or 209 in which the victim suffers intentionally inflicted great bodily injury, robbery with a deadly or dangerous weapon or in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 451, a violation of subdivision 2 or 3 of Section 261, a violation of Section 459 in the first degree, a violation of Section 220 in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of Section 288, a violation of Section 12303.1, 12303.2, 12303.3, 12308, 12309, or 12310, or any felony involving death, great bodily injury, or an act which poses a serious threat of bodily harm to another person, outpatient status under this title shall not be available until that person has actually been confined in a state hospital or other facility for 180 days or more after having been committed under the provisions of law specified in Section 1600.

(b) In the case of any person charged with, and found incompetent on a charge of, or convicted of, any misdemeanor or any felony other than those described in subdivision (a), or found not guilty of any misdemeanor by reason of insanity, outpatient status under this title may be granted by the court prior to actual confinement in a state hospital or other treatment facility under the provisions of law specified in Section 1600.

SEC. 43. Section 3420 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

3420. (a) Within five days after the receipt of an inmate by the Department of Corrections who has already applied for admission to a program, or of her application for admission to a program, whichever is later, the department shall give notice of her application to the child's current caretaker or guardian, if any, and if it has not already been notified pursuant to Section 3415, the appropriate local social services agency that conducts investigations for child neglect and dependency hearings.

(b) The department and the individuals and agencies notified shall have five days from the date of such notice to decide whether or not to challenge the appropriateness of the applicant's entry into the program. Lack of a petition filed by that time shall result in a presumption that the individuals and agencies notified do not challenge the appropriateness of the applicant's entry into the program.

(c) The local agency which has been notified pursuant to Section 3415 shall not initiate the process of considering whether or not to file until after the sentencing court has sentenced the applicant.

(d) The appropriate local agency that conducts investigations for child neglect and dependency hearings, the Department of Corrections, and the current guardian or caretaker of the child, shall have the authority to file for a fitness proceeding against the mother after the mother has applied in writing to participate in the program.

(e) The determination of whether or not to file shall be based in part on the likelihood of the mother being a fit parent for the child in question both during the program and afterwards. Program content shall be taken into account in this determination. There shall be a presumption affecting the burden of producing evidence in favor of filing for a fitness proceeding under the following circumstances:

(1) The applicant was convicted of one or more of the following violent felonies:

(i) Murder.

(ii) Mayhem.

(iii) Aggravated mayhem.

(iv) Kidnapping as defined in Section 207 or 209.

(v) Lewd acts on a child under 14 as defined in Section 288.

(vi) Any felony in which the defendant inflicts great bodily injury on a person other than accomplices which has been alleged and proven.

(vii) Forcible rape in violation of subdivision (2), (3), or (4) of Section 261.

(viii) Sodomy by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily injury.

(ix) Oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily injury.

(2) The applicant was convicted of child abuse in the current or any proceeding.

(f) Fitness petitions shall be resolved in the court of first instance as soon as possible for purposes of this section. Given the need to place the child as soon as possible, the first determination by the court as to the applicant's fitness as a mother shall determine her eligibility for the program for the current application. Outcomes of appeals shall not affect eligibility.

SEC. 44. Section 4000.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

4000.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the sheriff of any county may transfer prisoners committed to any jail of the county to any industrial road camp maintained by the county.

SEC. 45. Section 4514 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4514. All information and records obtained in the course of providing intake, assessment, and services under Division 4.1 (commencing with Section 4400), Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 4500), Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000), or Division 7 (commencing with Section 7100) to persons with developmental disabilities shall be confidential. Information and records obtained in the course of providing similar services to either voluntary or involuntary recipients prior to 1969 shall also be confidential. Information and records shall be disclosed only in any of the following cases:

(a) In communications between qualified professional persons in the provision of intake, assessment, and services or appropriate referrals, or in the course of conservatorship proceedings. The consent of the person with a developmental disability, or his or her guardian or conservator shall be obtained before information or records may be disclosed by a professional employed by a facility to a professional not employed by the facility who does not have the medical responsibility for the care of a person with a developmental disability.

(b) When the person with a developmental disability, with the approval of the physician, licensed psychologist, or social worker with a master's degree in social work, who is in charge of the person, designates individuals to whom information or records may be released, except that nothing in this article shall be construed to compel a physician, psychologist, social worker, nurse, attorney, or other professional to reveal information which has been given to him or her in confidence by a family member of the person.

(c) To the extent necessary for a claim, or for a claim to be made on behalf of a person with a developmental disability for aid, insurance, or medical assistance to which he or she may be entitled.

(d) If the person with a developmental disability is a minor, ward, or conservatee, and his or her parent, guardian, or conservator designates, in writing, persons to whom records or information may be disclosed, except that nothing in this article shall be construed to compel a physician, psychologist, social worker, nurse, attorney, or other professional to reveal information which has been given to him or her in confidence by a family member of the person.

(e) For research, provided that the Director of Developmental Services designates by regulation rules for the conduct of research and requires the research to be first reviewed by the appropriate institutional review board or boards. Such rules shall include, but need not be limited to, the requirement that all researchers shall sign an oath of confidentiality as follows:

Date

As a condition of doing research concerning persons with developmental disabilities who have received services from _____ (fill in the facility, agency or person), I, _____, agree to obtain the prior informed consent of such persons who have received services to the maximum degree possible as determined by the appropriate institutional review board or boards for protection of human subjects reviewing my research, or such person's parent, guardian, or conservator, and I further agree not to divulge any information obtained in the course of such research to unauthorized persons, and not to publish or otherwise make public any information regarding persons who have received services such that the person who received services is identifiable.

I recognize that the unauthorized release of confidential information may make me subject to a civil action under provisions of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

Signed

(f) To the courts, as necessary to the administration of justice.

(g) To governmental law enforcement agencies as needed for the protection of federal and state elective constitutional officers and their families.

(h) To the Senate Rules Committee or the Assembly Rules Committee for the purposes of legislative investigation authorized by such committee.

(i) If the person with a developmental disability who applies for life or disability insurance designates in writing the insurer to which records or information may be disclosed.

(j) To the attorney for the person with a developmental disability in any and all proceedings upon presentation of a release of information signed by the person, except that when the person is unable to sign such release, the staff of the facility, upon satisfying itself of the identity of the attorney, and of the fact that the attorney does represent the interests of the person, may release all information and records relating to the person except that nothing in this article shall be construed to compel a physician, psychologist, social worker, nurse, attorney, or other professional to reveal information which has been given to him or her in confidence by a family member of the person.

(k) Upon written agreement by a person with a developmental disability previously confined in or otherwise treated by a facility, the professional in charge of the facility or his or her designee may release any information, except information which has been given in confidence by members of the family of the person with developmental disabilities, requested by a probation officer charged with the evaluation of the person after his or her conviction of a crime if the professional person in charge of the facility determines that such information is relevant to the evaluation. Such agreement shall only be operative until sentence is passed on the crime of which the person was convicted. The confidential information released pursuant to this subdivision shall be transmitted to the court separately from the probation report and shall not be placed in the probation report. The confidential information shall remain confidential except for purposes of sentencing. After sentencing, the confidential information shall be sealed.

(l) Between persons who are trained and qualified to serve on "multidisciplinary personnel" teams pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 18951. The information and records sought to be disclosed shall be relevant to the prevention, identification, management, or treatment of an abused child and his or her parents pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 18950) of Part 6 of Division 9.

(m) When a person with a developmental disability dies from any cause, natural or otherwise, while hospitalized in a state hospital for the developmentally disabled the State Department of Developmental Services, the physician in charge of the patient, or the professional in charge of the facility or his or her designee, shall release information and records to the coroner. The State Department of Developmental Services, the physician in charge of the state hospital resident, or the professional in charge of the facility or his or her designee, shall not release any notes, summaries, transcripts, tapes, or records of conversations between the resident and health professional personnel of the hospital relating to the personal life of the resident which is not related to the diagnosis and treatment of the resident's physical condition. Any information released to the coroner pursuant to this section shall remain confidential and shall be sealed and shall not be made part of the public record.

(n) To authorized licensing personnel who are employed by, or who are authorized representatives of, the State Department of Health Services, and who are licensed or registered health professionals, and to authorized legal staff or special investigators who are peace officers who are employed by, or who are authorized representatives of, the State Department of Social Services, as necessary to the performance of their duties to inspect, license, and investigate health facilities and community care facilities, and to ensure that the standards of care and services provided in such facilities are adequate and appropriate and to ascertain compliance with the rules and regulations to which the facility is subject. The confidential information shall remain confidential except for purposes of inspection, licensing, or investigation pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of, and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of, Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, or a criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding in relation thereto. The confidential information may be used by the State Department of Health Services or the State Department of Social Services in a criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding. The confidential information shall be available only to the judge or hearing officer and to the parties to the case. Names which are confidential shall be listed in attachments separate to the general pleadings. The confidential information shall be sealed after the conclusion of the criminal, civil, or administrative hearings, and shall not subsequently be released except in accordance with this subdivision. If the confidential information does not result in a criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, it shall be sealed after the State Department of Health Services or the State Department of Social Services decides that no further action will be taken in the matter of suspected licensing violations. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, confidential information in the possession of the State Department of Health Services or the State Department of Social Services shall not contain the name of the person with a developmental disability.

(o) To any board which licenses and certifies professionals in the fields of mental health and developmental disabilities pursuant to state law, when the Director of Developmental Services has reasonable cause to believe that there has occurred a violation of any provision of law subject to the jurisdiction of such board and the records are relevant to such violation. Such information shall be sealed after a decision is reached in the matter of the suspected violation, and shall not subsequently be released except in accordance with this subdivision. Confidential information in the possession of the board shall not contain the name of the person with a developmental disability.

(p) To governmental law enforcement agencies by the physician in charge of the person with a developmental disability, or the professional in charge of the facility or his or her designee, when he or she has probable cause to believe that a person with a developmental disability while hospitalized has committed, or has been the victim of, murder, manslaughter, mayhem, aggravated mayhem, kidnapping, robbery, assault with the intent to commit a felony, arson, extortion, rape, forcible sodomy, forcible oral copulation, assault or battery, or unlawful possession of a weapon, as provided in Section 12020 of the Penal Code.

This subdivision shall be limited solely to information directly relating to the factual circumstances of the commission of the enumerated offenses and shall not include any information relating to the mental state of the patient or the circumstances of his or her voluntary or involuntary admission, commitment, or treatment.

This subdivision shall not be construed as an exception to, or in any other way affecting, the provisions of Article 7 (commencing with Section 1010) of Chapter 4 of Division 8 of the Evidence Code.

(q) To the Youth Authority and Adult Correctional Agency or any component thereof, as necessary to the administration of justice.

(r) To the agency established in this state to fulfill the requirements and assurances of Section 142 of the federal Developmental Disabilities Act of 1984 for a system to protect and advocate the rights of persons with developmental disabilities, as defined in Section 102(5) of the federal act. The agency shall have access to the records of a person with developmental disabilities who resides in a facility for persons with developmental disabilities when both of the following conditions apply:

(1) The agency has received a complaint from, or on behalf of, the person and the person consents to the disclosure to the extent of his or her capabilities.

(2) The person does not have a parent, guardian, or conservator, or the state or the designee of the state is the person's guardian or conservator.

SEC. 46. Section 5328.4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5328.4. The physician in charge of the patient, or the professional person in charge of the facility or his or her designee, when he or she has probable cause to believe that a patient while hospitalized has committed, or has been the victim of, murder, manslaughter, mayhem, aggravated mayhem, kidnapping, robbery, assault with intent to commit a felony, arson, extortion, rape, forcible sodomy, forcible oral copulation, unlawful possession of a weapon as provided in Section 12020 of the Penal Code, or escape from a hospital by a mentally disordered sex offender as provided in Section 6330 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall release information about the patient to governmental law enforcement agencies.

The physician in charge of the patient, or the professional person in charge of the facility or his or her designee, when he or she has probable cause to believe that a patient, while hospitalized has committed, or has been the victim of assault or battery may release information about the patient to governmental law enforcement agencies.

This section shall be limited solely to information directly relating to the factual circumstances of the commission of the enumerated offenses and shall not include any information relating to the mental state of the patient or the circumstances of his or her voluntary or involuntary admission, commitment, or treatment.

This section shall not be construed as an exception to or in any other way affecting the provisions of Article 7 (commencing with Section 1010) of Chapter 4 of Division 8 of the Evidence Code.

SEC. 47. Section 6500 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6500. On and after July 1, 1971, no mentally retarded person may be committed to the State Department of Developmental Services pursuant to this article, unless he or she is a danger to himself or herself or others. For the purposes of this article, dangerousness to self or others shall be considered to include, but not be limited to, a finding of incompetence to stand trial pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1367) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Penal Code when the defendant has been charged with murder, mayhem, aggravated mayhem, a violation of Section 207 or 209 of the Penal Code in which the victim suffers intentionally inflicted great bodily injury, robbery perpetrated by torture or by a person armed with a dangerous or deadly weapon or in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 451 of the Penal Code, a violation of subdivision (2) or (3) of Section 261 of the Penal Code, a violation of Section 459 of the Penal Code in the first degree, assault with intent to commit murder, a violation of Section 220 of the Penal Code in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of Section 12303.1, 12303.3, 12308, 12309, or 12310 of the Penal Code, or if the defendant has been charged with a felony involving death, great bodily injury, or an act which poses a serious threat of bodily harm to another person.

Any order of commitment made pursuant to this article shall expire automatically one year after the order of commitment is made. This section shall not be construed to prohibit any party enumerated in Section 6502 from filing subsequent petitions for additional periods of commitment. In the event such subsequent petitions are filed, the procedures followed shall be the same as with an initial petition for commitment.

In any proceedings conducted under the authority of this article the alleged mentally retarded person shall be informed of his or her right to counsel by the court; and if the person does not have an attorney for the proceedings the court shall immediately appoint the public defender or other attorney to represent him or her. The person shall pay the cost for such legal service if he or she is able to do so. At any judicial proceeding under the provisions of this article, allegations that a person is mentally retarded and a danger to himself or herself or to others shall be presented by the district attorney for the county unless the board of supervisors, by ordinance or resolution, delegates such authority to the county counsel.

SEC. 48. Any section of any act enacted by the Legislature during the 1989 calendar year, which takes effect on or before January 1, 1990, and which amends, amends and renumbers, adds, repeals and adds, or repeals a section amended, amended and renumbered, repealed and added, or repealed by this act, shall prevail over this act, whether that act is enacted prior to, or subsequent to, this act.

CHAPTER 898

An act to amend Sections 436.4, 443.22, and 15071 of, to add Sections 15047.5, 15049.5, and 15057 to, and to add Article 9 (commencing with Section 436.490) to Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 1 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to health facilities, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known, and may be cited as, the Hospital Cost Containment Act of 1989.

SEC. 2. Section 436.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

436.4. The office shall implement the loan insurance program for the construction, improvement, and expansion of public and nonprofit corporation health facilities so that, in conjunction with all other existing facilities, the necessary physical facilities for furnishing adequate health facility services will be available to all the people of the state.

The office shall make an inventory of all existing health facilities and shall survey the need for construction, improvement, and expansion of public and nonprofit corporation health facilities and, on the basis of that inventory and survey, shall develop a state plan.

The health facility construction loan insurance program shall provide for health facility distribution throughout the state in a manner that will make all types of health facility services reasonably accessible to all persons in the state according to the state plan.

In performing its duties under this section, the office may utilize the state plan developed pursuant to Section 439.3.

SEC. 3. Article 9 (commencing with Section 436.490) is added to Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 9. Rural Hospital Grant Program

436.490 It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this article to assist rural hospitals which play a vital role in the health delivery system. The Legislature recognizes the difficulties rural hospitals encounter meeting urban hospital standards while serving a small, rural, or tourist patient base. However, it is not the intent of the Legislature to provide assistance to facilities that can only survive with continuous subsidies. Rather, it is the intent of the Legislature, through this program, to encourage the development and transition to an alternative rural hospital model, and to provide essential access to services not available at the alternative rural hospital level.

436.491. In each even-numbered year, the office shall contract for an actuarial study to determine the reserve sufficiency of funds in the Health Facility Construction Loan Insurance Fund. The study shall examine the portfolio of existing insured loans and shall estimate the amount of reserve funds that the office should reasonably have available to be able to respond adequately to potential foreseeable risks, including extraordinary administrative expenses and actual defaults. Actuarial study contracts shall be exempt from the provisions of Section 10373 of the Public Contract Code and shall be considered sole-source contracts.

436.492. (a) In each odd-numbered year when the reserve balance in the fund is projected to be in excess of that actuarially needed, the office may, subject to authority in the Budget Act, grant excess reserve funds to rural hospitals.

(b) Whenever the office administers the grant program, it shall do so by a competitive process where potential grantees have sufficient time to apply. Priority for funds shall be given to alternative rural hospitals and rural hospitals that are sole community providers. Priority shall also be given to applicants that are otherwise financially viable, but request one-time financial assistance for equipment expenditures or other capital outlays. The maximum amount of any grant for a single project in any one grant year shall be two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000).

(c) For the purposes of this article, "rural hospital" shall have the same meaning as contained in subdivision (a) of Section 1188.855.

SEC. 4. Section 443.22 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

443.22. On and after January 1, 1986, any reference in this code to the Advisory Health Council shall be deemed a reference to the California Health Policy and Data Advisory Commission.

SEC. 5. Section 15047.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

15047.5. The director shall request the Department of Finance or the Auditor General to perform an audit of the uses of fees collected pursuant to Section 15046. This audit shall include, but not be limited to, an accounting of staff resources allocated to hospital plan reviews by the statewide office and by the office of the State Architect in the Department of General Services since these reviews are funded by fees collected pursuant to Section 15046. If the Department of Finance and the Auditor General indicate that other audit responsibilities will prohibit them from performing and completing the audit within six months of being initially requested to do so, then the office may contract with an independent organization to perform the audit.

SEC. 6. Section 15049.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

15049.5. Any permit or authorization issued or provided pursuant to this chapter shall be subject to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 15374) of Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 7. Section 15057 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

15057. The director, the State Architect, and the State Fire Marshal shall establish explicit procedures to coordinate responsibilities of their respective agencies in addressing the mandates of this chapter. The purpose of these procedures shall be to establish a more timely plan review process and to eliminate any unnecessary delays in that process. The statewide office shall serve as the lead agency and the director, with the advice of the office of the State Architect and the State Fire Marshal, shall submit a report to the Legislature no later than July 1, 1990, outlining problems and constraints in implementing this section, if any. Further, the director from time to time shall meet with the Director of Health Services, or his or her designee, to ensure that there are no postreview conflicts with licensing and certification in the implementation of projects which have been approved by the statewide office.

SEC. 8. Section 15071 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15071. New construction of buildings specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 15026 shall conform to the provisions of the latest edition of Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations. The statewide office, with the advice of the Building Safety Board, shall adopt and administer regulations for the independent review of these structures.

The statewide office may also exempt from the plan review process or expedite those projects undertaken by an applicant for a hospital building which the statewide office determines do not materially alter the mechanical, electrical, architectural, or structural integrity of the facility. The statewide office shall set forth criteria to expedite projects or to implement any exemptions made pursuant to this paragraph.

The Legislature recognizes the relative safety of single story, wood frame, and light steel frame construction for use in housing patients requiring skilled nursing and intermediate care services and it is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature to provide for reasonable flexibility in seismic safety standards for these buildings. The statewide office shall be reasonably flexible in the application of seismic standards for other buildings by allowing incidental and minor nonstructural additions or nonstructural alterations to be accomplished with simplified written approval procedures as established by the statewide office, with the advice of the office of the State Architect and the State Fire Marshal.

The statewide office shall, by July 1, 1991, set forth and implement criteria to exempt from the plan review process or expedite those projects for alterations of buildings specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 15026 which may include, but are not limited to, renovations, remodeling, or installations of necessary equipment such as hot water heaters, air-conditioning units, dishwashers, laundry equipment, handrails, lights, television brackets, small emergency generators (up to 25 kilowatts), storage shelves, and similar plant operations equipment; and decorative materials such as wall coverings, floor coverings, and paint.

The statewide office shall include provisions for onsite field approvals by available office construction advisers and the preapproval of projects which comply with the requirements for which the office has developed standard architectural or engineering detail, or both standard architectural and engineering detail.

SEC. 8.5. Section 15071 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15071. Construction or alterations of buildings specified in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 15026 shall conform to the provisions of the latest edition of Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations. The statewide office shall independently review and inspect these structures. For purposes of this section, "construction or alteration" includes the conversion of a building to a purpose specified in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 15026. Any construction or alteration of any building subject to this section shall be exempt from any plan review and approval or construction inspection requirement of any city, county, or city and county.

The statewide office may also exempt from the plan review process or expedite those projects undertaken by an applicant for a hospital building which the statewide office determines do not materially alter the mechanical, electrical, architectural, or structural integrity of the facility. The statewide office shall set forth criteria to expedite projects or to implement any exemptions made pursuant to this paragraph.

The Legislature recognizes the relative safety of single story, wood frame, and light steel frame construction for use in housing patients requiring skilled nursing and intermediate care services and it is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature to provide for reasonable flexibility in seismic safety standards for these buildings. The statewide office shall be reasonably flexible in the application of seismic standards for other buildings by allowing incidental and minor nonstructural additions or nonstructural alterations to be accomplished with simplified written approval procedures as established by the statewide office, with the advice of the office of the State Architect and the State Fire Marshal.

The statewide office shall, by July 1, 1991, set forth and implement criteria to exempt from the plan review process or expedite those projects for alterations of buildings specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 15026, which may include, but are not limited to, renovations, remodeling, or installations of necessary equipment such as hot water heaters, air-conditioning units, dishwashers, laundry equipment, handrails, lights, television brackets, small emergency generators (up to 25 kilowatts), storage shelves, and similar plant operations equipment; and decorative materials such as wall coverings, floor coverings, and paint.

The statewide office shall include provisions for onsite field approvals by available office construction advisers and the preapproval of projects which comply with the requirements for which the office has developed standard architectural or engineering detail, or both standard architectural and engineering detail.

SEC. 9. Section 8.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 15071 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2347. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1990, (2) each bill amends Section 15071 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2347, in which case Section 8 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 899

An act to amend Sections 7073, 7073.5, and 7082 of the Government Code, relating to enterprise zones, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7073 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7073. (a) The governing body of a city or county may, either by ordinance or resolution, propose an eligible area plus one commercial or industrial area or both within its respective jurisdiction as the geographic area for an enterprise zone. A county may propose an area within the unincorporated area as the geographic area for an enterprise zone, but shall not propose an area within an incorporated area. This proposed geographic area shall be based upon findings by the governing body that the area is a depressed area and that the designation as an enterprise zone is necessary in order to assist in attracting private sector investment in the area. The city or county shall establish definitive boundaries for the area to be included in the application for designation and, if designated by the department, the designation shall be binding for a period of 15 years.

(b) Following the application for designation of an enterprise zone by a city or county, the governing body shall apply to the department for designation. The department shall adopt regulations and guidelines concerning the necessary contents of each application for designation.

(c) Any city, county, or city and county with an eligible area within its jurisdiction may complete a preliminary application. A maximum of 20 applications may be chosen each year to complete a final application.

(d) (1) From the applications received, the department may designate by December 1991, not more than 25 enterprise zones within the state, one of which may be designated an airport enterprise zone and not more than three of which may be designated high technology enterprise zones.

(2) In the case of any existing zone or any new zone designated on or after the effective date of the act adding this paragraph, a city or county may propose that the enterprise zone within the incorporated area be expanded by 15 percent to include definitive boundaries that are contiguous to the enterprise zone. The department may approve that expansion based upon the criterion specified in subdivision (e).

(e) In designating enterprise zones, the department shall select from the applications submitted those proposed enterprise zones which, based on those applications, meet, to the extent possible, the following criterion:

Those proposed enterprise zones which, upon a comparison of all of the applications submitted, indicate that they propose the most effective, innovative, and comprehensive regulatory, tax, program, and other incentives in attracting private sector investment in the zone proposed

For purposes of this paragraph, regulatory incentives include, but are not limited to, all of the following: the suspension or relaxation of locally originated or modified building codes, zoning laws, general development plans, or rent controls; the elimination or reduction of fees for applications, permits, and local government services; and the establishment of a streamlined permit process.

Tax incentives include, but are not limited to, the elimination or reduction of construction taxes or business license taxes.

Program and other incentives may include, but are not limited to, all of the following: the provision or expansion of infrastructure; the targeting of federal block grant moneys, including small cities, education, and health and welfare block grants; the targeting of economic development grants and loan moneys, including grant and loan moneys provided by the federal Urban Development Action Grant program and the federal Economic Development Administration; the targeting of state and federal job disadvantaged and vocational education grant moneys, including moneys provided by the federal Job Partnership Training Act of 1982; the targeting of federal or state transportation grant moneys; and the targeting of federal or state low-income housing and rental assistance moneys.

In the process of designating new zones, the department shall take into consideration the location of existing zones and make every effort to locate new zones in a manner that will not adversely affect any existing zones.

(f) In evaluating applications for designation, the department shall ensure that applications are not disqualified solely because of technical deficiencies and shall provide applicants with an opportunity to correct the deficiencies. Applications shall be disqualified if the deficiencies are not corrected within two weeks.

(g) For purposes of this section, "high technology enterprise zone" means an enterprise zone which is intended to attract private sector investment in high technology industries and is proposed to be located in an area which would permit the association of those industries with an urban university or college.

(h) The applications and selection criteria for designation adopted pursuant to Section 7076 prior to the effective date of the act adding this subdivision shall apply to this section, as amended by the act adding this subdivision.

(i) Section 7076 shall not apply to the extent it conflicts with the provisions of the act adding this subdivision.

(j) For purposes of this section, "airport enterprise zone" means an enterprise zone intended to attract private sector investment in aviation-dependent industries, commercial aviation, and other commercial and industrial activity and which includes a rural airport located within unincorporated territory.

SEC. 2. Section 7073.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7073.5. (a) An enterprise zone shall consist of both one eligible area plus one commercial or industrial area or both.

(b) An eligible area is a geographic area which, based upon the determination of the department, fulfills at least one of the following:

(1) The proposed geographic area meets the Urban Development Action Grant criteria of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

(2) The area within the proposed zone has experienced plant closures within the past two years affecting more than 100 workers.

(3) The city or county has submitted material to the department for a finding that the proposed geographic area meets criteria of economic distress related to those used in determining eligibility under the Urban Development Action Grant Program and is therefore an eligible area.

(4) The area within the proposed zone has a history of gang-related activity, whether or not crimes of violence have been committed.

SEC. 3. Section 7082 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7082. For purposes of this chapter:

(a) "Block group" means the smallest area for which the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, provides data on personal income

(b) "Cluster of block groups" means one or more contiguous block groups.

(c) "Poverty level" means the poverty level, as defined by the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, as periodically updated.

(d) "High density unemployment area" means any of the following:

(1) A metropolitan statistical area or nonmetropolitan statistical area within this state, as identified by the Department of Commerce, which contains at least 4,000 people (in the case of a metropolitan statistical area) or at least 2,500 people (in the case of a nonmetropolitan statistical area) in a cluster of block groups, each of which meets the following criteria according to the most recent available decennial census information:

(A) The average unemployment rate for the block group for the most recent 12-month period for which data are available was at least one and one-half times the average national rate of unemployment for that 12-month period.

(B) The average poverty rate for the block group for the most recent 12-month period was at least one and one-half times the average national poverty rate for that 12-month period.

(C) At least 70 percent of the household earnings for the block group for the most recent 12-month period was a maximum of 80 percent of the average state household earnings for that 12-month period.

(D) The area excludes nondistressed areas.

(2) If an area does not meet the criteria of a high density unemployment area specified above, an applicant may petition to the department for the designation based upon compliance with one or more of the following:

(A) A special census is conducted and approved by the population research unit of the Department of Finance which demonstrates compliance with paragraph (1).

(B) The applicant's jurisdiction has experienced a major economic dislocation resulting from plant closure or closure of a federal installation within the last 12 months prior to the application.

(C) The applicant's jurisdiction contains a specifically defined geographic area that meets the eligibility criteria for pockets of poverty under the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development's Urban Development Action Grant (UDAG) program as described in 24 CFR Part 570, Sections 570.466(a) (2) and (a) (3), and as periodically updated.

(D) A block group meets substantially similar criteria measuring economic distress as that measured in paragraph (1) Each census block shall meet the "substantially similar" criteria.

(E) The area consists of the entire geographic area of a community. Area boundaries shall be synonymous with the boundaries of the community. As used in this subparagraph, "community" means a subdivision of a city or county (not including a city), including a neighborhood or suburb which has distinct boundaries, is recognized as a community by the individuals residing and working within the community, and has existed prior to the program planning process. Documentation demonstrating that the area meets the definition of "community" may include a map prepared for purposes other than the program, which lists both the name and boundaries of the community. The area shall meet the following criteria:

(i) Complies with the above definition of "community."

(ii) A minimum of 51 percent of the geographic area or population of the area meets the criteria of subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) of paragraph (1), and the remainder of the area has substantially similar economic distress.

(3) A petition for designation of a high density unemployment area received by the department after April 1, 1985, shall be reviewed by the department pursuant to the criteria specified in paragraph (2).

(e) "Nondistressed area" means any block group which does not meet the definition of a high density unemployment area.

(f) "One-stop service" means an efficient and expeditious method for providing services to qualified businesses.

(g) "Department" means the Department of Commerce.

(h) "Qualified business" means any person, corporation, or other entity certified during the taxable or income year by the department as meeting paragraphs (1) and (2).

(1) During the period of designation, the entity is engaged in the active conduct of a trade or business within the program area.

(2) Meets any of the following requirements:

(A) Has an average of at least 50 percent of its employees who are residents of a high density unemployment area.

(B) Has an average of at least 30 percent of its employees who are residents of a high density unemployment area, and has set up a community service program or a substantial equivalent as defined by regulations, or programs approved by the local government entity and the community advisory council in which the program area is located, or both.

(C) Is a business at least 30 percent owned and operated by a resident or residents of a high density unemployment area. For purposes of this subparagraph, "owned and operated" means that the resident or residents of a high density unemployment area who are owners of the business are responsible for at least 30 percent of the work performed by the business and share in at least 30 percent of the ownership, control, management responsibility, risks, and profits of the business.

For purposes of this subdivision, "a high density unemployment area" means the high density unemployment area contained in the applicant's final application to the department if the population of that high density unemployment area is in excess of 150,000.

A business entity shall be certified prior to obtaining any benefits of a qualified business, and shall be recertified no less than every three years, as determined by the department. The department shall periodically audit qualified businesses for compliance with this section, and decertify any business found not in compliance. Priority shall be given to auditing qualified businesses within 18 months of the original certification of a business. A business may appeal to the director of the department a decision to deny certification or recertification or a decision to decertify, within 30 days of the decision.

Financial institutions shall not be qualified businesses.

(3) A person, corporation, or other entity shall not be a qualified business if the business uses a residential structure in a high density unemployment area for a nonresidential use, unless the structure has been unoccupied for at least one year prior to designation of the program area.

(i) "Program area" means one targeted economic development area and, where applicable, one neighborhood economic development area in the Employment and Economic Incentive Program. The term applies both to areas contained in an application for designation, and an area awarded designation. In an application containing a high density unemployment area with a population in excess of 75,000, "program area" means the targeted economic development area, the high density unemployment area, and, where applicable, the neighborhood economic development area. The benefits of the Employment and Economic Incentive Program shall only accrue to program areas after designation.

(j) "Agent" means the person or entity designated by an applicant to facilitate the operations of the Employment and Economic Incentive Program as described in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 7087.

(k) "Applicant" means a city, county, or city and county applying for designation under the Employment and Economic Incentive Act.

(l) "Resident" means, unless otherwise defined, a person whose principal place of residence is within a high density unemployment area and who has lived in that area for six months prior to employment by the qualified business.

(m) "Infrastructure" means the physical systems and services which support development and people, including, but not limited to, streets and highways, transit services, airports, and water and sewer systems

(n) "Community services" means any type of emergency assistance, counseling and advice, medical care, instructional, or social services, or recreational programs and facilities furnished to individuals or groups in high density unemployment areas or program areas.

(o) "Neighborhood economic development area" means an area which meets all of the following criteria:

(1) It shall be located entirely within or contiguous to the high density unemployment area contained in the application for designation.

(2) It shall be zoned primarily commercial.

(3) Its boundary shall be continuous.

(4) It shall be of sufficient size to sustain a diverse mix of commercial businesses and its size and location shall be appropriate to reducing the economic distress within the high density unemployment area.

(5) At least a part of its area shall be within the territorial jurisdiction of the applicant. If an area for which designation is sought encompasses the territorial jurisdiction of two or more local governmental entities, all of those entities shall be a party to the application for designation, except that any one or more of those entities by resolution or ordinance may specify that it shall not participate in the application as an applicant, but shall agree to complete all actions stated within the application which apply to its jurisdiction, if the area is designated.

The area may have, but is not required to have, a history of gang-related activity whether or not crimes of violence have been committed.

No residential structure may be used for nonresidential use unless the structure has been unoccupied for at least one year prior to designation as a program area, or unless comparable replacement housing is provided for all persons displaced in accordance with Section 33413 of the Health and Safety Code. No person shall be displaced under this section unless relocation assistance is provided pursuant to Section 33415 of the Health and Safety Code.

An agricultural area shall not be designated as a neighborhood economic development area.

(p) "Targeted economic development area" means an area which meets all of the following criteria:

(1) Its boundary shall be continuous.

(2) It shall be zoned primarily industrial or other mixed business uses.

(3) It shall be of sufficient size to sustain a diverse mix of businesses and its size and location shall be appropriate to reducing the economic distress within the high density unemployment area.

(4) At least a part of its area shall be within the territorial jurisdiction of the applicant. If an area for which designation is sought encompasses the territorial jurisdiction of two or more local governmental entities, all of those entities shall be a party to the application for designation, except that any one or more of those entities by resolution or ordinance may specify that it shall not participate in the application as an applicant, but shall agree to complete all actions stated within the application which apply to its jurisdiction, if the area is designated.

The area may have, but is not required to have, a history of gang-related activity, whether or not crimes of violence have been committed.

The area may be, but is not required to be, within a high density unemployment area. However, if the area is outside a high density unemployment area, it shall be within reasonable commuting distance of the high density unemployment area which is contained in the application for designation. If the area is outside a high density unemployment area, the applicant jurisdiction in which the area is located, in making its application, shall secure the endorsement of its application from at least one city or county which has jurisdiction within the high density unemployment area and is in close geographic proximity to the high density unemployment area.

The area may include vacant or sparsely developed parcels of land or abandoned facilities.

No residential structure may be used for nonresidential use unless the structure has been unoccupied for at least one year prior to designation as a program area, or unless comparable replacement housing is provided for all persons displaced in accordance with Section 33413 of the Health and Safety Code. No person shall be displaced under this section unless relocation assistance is provided pursuant to Section 33415 of the Health and Safety Code.

An agricultural area shall not be designated as a targeted economic development area.

(q) "Application area" means the program area and high density unemployment area contained in an application for designation.

SEC. 4. The sum of one hundred forty-nine thousand dollars ($149,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Commerce to fund one and one-half personnel years to support three positions for six months each, the addition of which is required to administer the Enterprise Zone Act (Ch. 12.8 (commencing with Sec. 7070), Div. 7, Title 1, Gov. C.), as amended by this act.

SEC. 5. This act shall become operative only if Senate Bill 19 of the 1989–90 Regular Session is chaptered.

CHAPTER 900

An act to amend Sections 68074 and 68075 of, and to add Sections 68074.1 and 68075.1 to, the Education Code, relating to postsecondary education.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 68074 of the Education Code is amended to read:

68074. Except as otherwise provided in Section 68074.1, a student who is a natural or adopted child stepchild, or spouse who is a dependent of a member of the armed forces of the United States stationed in this state on active duty shall be entitled to resident classification until he or she has resided in the state the minimum time necessary to become a resident.

If that member of the armed forces of the United States, whose dependent natural or adopted child, stepchild, or spouse is in attendance at an institution, (1) is thereafter transferred on military orders to a place outside this state where the member continues to serve in the armed forces of the United States or (2) is thereafter retired as an active member of the armed forces of the United States, the student dependent shall not lose his or her resident classification until he or she has resided in the state the minimum time necessary to become a resident.

SEC. 2. Section 68074.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

68074.1. Notwithstanding Section 68074, a student who is a natural or adopted child, stepchild, or spouse who is a dependent of a member of the armed forces of the United States stationed in this state on active duty shall be entitled to resident classification at a campus of the California State University.

SEC. 3. Section 68075 of the Education Code is amended to read:

68075. Except as otherwise provided in Section 68075.1, a student who is a member of the armed forces of the United States stationed in this state on active duty, except a member of the armed forces assigned for educational purposes to state-supported institutions of higher education, is entitled to resident classification until he or she has resided in the state the minimum time necessary to become a resident.

SEC. 4. Section 68075.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

68075.1. Notwithstanding Section 68075, a student who is a member of the armed forces of the United States stationed in this state on active duty, except a member of the armed forces assigned for educational purposes to state-supported institutions of higher education, is entitled to resident classification at a campus of the California State University.

CHAPTER 901

An act to add Sections 1127a, 1191.25, and 4001.1 to the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1127a is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1127a. (a) As used in this section, an "in-custody informant" means a person, other than a codefendant, percipient witness, accomplice, or coconspirator whose testimony is based upon statements made by the defendant while both the defendant and the informant are held within a correctional institution.

(b) In any criminal trial or proceeding in which an in-custody informant testifies as a witness, upon the request of a party, the court shall instruct the jury as follows:

"The testimony of an in-custody informant should be viewed with caution and close scrutiny. In evaluating such testimony, you should consider the extent to which it may have been influenced by the receipt of, or expectation of, any benefits from the party calling that witness. This does not mean that you may arbitrarily disregard such testimony, but you should give it the weight to which you find it to be entitled in the light of all the evidence in the case."

(c) When the prosecution calls an in-custody informant as a witness in any criminal trial, contemporaneous with the calling of that witness, the prosecution shall file with the court a written statement setting out any and all consideration promised to, or received by, the in-custody informant.

The statement filed with the court shall not expand or limit the defendant's right to discover information that is otherwise provided by law. The statement shall be provided to the defendant or the defendant's attorney prior to trial and the information contained in the statement shall be subject to rules of evidence.

(d) For purposes of subdivision (c), "consideration" means any plea bargain, bail consideration, reduction or modification of sentence, or any other leniency, benefit, immunity, financial assistance, reward, or amelioration of current or future conditions of incarceration in return for, or in connection with, the informant's testimony in the criminal proceeding in which the prosecutor intends to call him or her as a witness.

SEC. 2. Section 1191.25 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1191.25. The prosecution shall make a good faith attempt to notify any victim of a crime which was committed by, or is alleged to have been committed by, an in-custody informant, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1127a, within a reasonable time before the in-custody informant is called to testify. The notice shall include information concerning the prosecution's intention to offer the in-custody informant a modification or reduction in sentence or dismissal of the case or early parole in exchange for the in-custody informant's testimony in another case. The notification or attempt to notify the victim shall be made prior to the commencement of the trial in which the in-custody informant is to testify where the intention to call him or her is known at that time, but in no case shall the notice be made later than the time the in-custody informant is called to the stand.

Nothing contained in this section is intended to affect the right of the people and the defendant to an expeditious disposition of a criminal proceeding, as provided in Section 1050. The victim of any case alleged to have been committed by the in-custody informant may exercise his or her right to appear at the sentencing of the in-custody informant pursuant to Section 1191.1, but the victim shall not have a right to intervene in the trial in which the in-custody informant is called to testify.

SEC. 3. Section 4001.1 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

4001.1. (a) No law enforcement or correctional official shall give, offer, or promise to give any monetary payment in excess of fifty dollars ($50) in return for an in-custody informant's testimony in any criminal proceeding. Nothing contained herein shall prohibit payments incidental to the informant's testimony such as expenses incurred for witness or immediate family relocation, lodging, housing, meals, phone calls, travel, or witness fees authorized by law, provided those payments are supported by appropriate documentation demonstrating that the money was used for the purposes for which it was given.

(b) No law enforcement agency and no in-custody informant acting as an agent for the agency, may take some action, beyond merely listening to statements of a defendant, that is deliberately designed to elicit incriminating remarks.

(c) As used in this section, an "in-custody informant" means a person described in subdivision (a) of Section 1127a.

SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature that subdivision (b) of Section 4001.1 of the Penal Code is a restatement of existing case law and where the language in that subdivision conflicts with the language of that case law, the decisions of Kuhlmann v. Wilson, 91 L. Ed. 2d 364, and United States v. Henry, 65 L. Ed. 2d 115, and other United States Supreme Court decisions which have been decided at the time this act is enacted shall be controlling.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 113, 25606, 25628, 25810, and 25816 of, and to add Sections 25812.8 and 25816.2 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to health.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 113 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

113. (a) The fees or charges for the issuance or renewal of any permit, license, or registration pursuant to Sections 403, 436.53, 527, 1017, 1616, 1676, 1677, 2202, 2805, 4083, 11887, 23013, 25628, 25694, 25696, 25697, 25812.8, 25816, 25817, 26506.2, 26593.2, 26593.4, 26688, 27010, 27011, 28126, 28410, 28411, and 28702 shall be adjusted annually by the percentage change printed in the Budget Act for those items appropriating funds to the state department. After the first annual adjustment of fees or charges pursuant to this section, the fees or charges subject to subsequent adjustment shall be the fees or charges for the prior calendar year. The percentage change shall be determined by the Department of Finance, and shall include at least the total percentage change in salaries and operating expenses of the state department. However, the total increase in amounts collected under this section shall not exceed the total increased cost of the program or service provided.

(b) The state department shall publish annually a list of the actual numerical fee charges for each permit, license, certification, or registration governed by this section. This adjustment of fees and publication of the fee list pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 1017 shall not be subject to the requirements of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code until January 1, 1992.

SEC. 2. Section 25606 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25606. The department shall maintain surveillance over the storage, packaging, transporting, and loading of radioactive material within this state regardless of the material's ultimate destination. In carrying out its duties under this section, the department may enter into an agreement with the Division of Occupational Safety and Health and other state and local agencies to conduct any appropriate inspection and enforcement activities. Any agreement with state and local agencies shall not duplicate work to be done pursuant to agreement with the Division of Occupational Safety and Health, nor shall work done by the Division of Occupational Safety and Health duplicate work agreed to be done by other state and local agencies. Licensees of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission and the facilities of the Department of Energy and the Department of Defense are exempt from this section.

SEC. 3. Section 25628 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25628 (a) The department shall provide by regulation a schedule of fees which shall be paid by persons applying to establish their competence to perform nuclear medicine technology. The revenue derived from the fees shall be sufficient to cover all costs incurred in the administration of this chapter.

(b) The fees paid by applicants shall be adjusted annually, pursuant to Section 113, and the adjusted fee amounts shall be rounded off to the nearest whole dollar.

SEC. 4. Section 25810 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25810. The department is designated as the agency responsible for the issuance of licenses. In carrying out its duties under this section, the department may enter into an agreement with the Division of Occupational Safety and Health and other state and local agencies to conduct technical evaluations of license applications prior to issuance of licenses. The agreements shall also include provisions for conducting inspections in accordance with Section 25820.

SEC. 5. Section 25812.8 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25812.8. In addition to the fees authorized to be levied pursuant to Section 25816, the department may, by regulation, set fees to be paid for the disposal in the state of low-level radioactive waste, set in an amount sufficient to pay the costs of the regulatory activities specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (E) of Article 4 of the Southwestern Low-Level Radioactive Waste Disposal Compact, as specified in Section 25878.

SEC. 6. Section 25816 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25816. (a) The department shall provide by regulation a schedule of the fees which shall be paid by the following persons:

(1) Persons possessing radioactive materials under licenses issued by the department or under other state or federal licenses for the use of these radioactive materials, when these persons use these radioactive materials in the state in accordance with the regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 25815.

(2) Persons generally licensed for the use of devices and equipment utilizing radioactive materials which are designed and manufactured for the purpose of detecting, measuring, gauging, or controlling thickness, density, level, interface location, radiation, leakage, or qualitative or quantitative chemical composition, or for producing light or an ionized atmosphere, if the devices are manufactured pursuant to a specific license authorizing distribution to general licensees.

(b) The revenues derived from the fees shall be used, together with other funds made available therefor, for the purpose of the issuance of licenses or the inspection and regulation of the licensees.

(c) The department may adopt emergency regulations pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code to establish and adjust fees for radioactive materials licenses in an amount to produce estimated revenues equal to at least 95 percent of the department's costs in carrying out these licensing requirements, if the new fees were to remain in effect throughout the fiscal year for which the fee is established or adjusted.

(d) A local agency participating in a negotiated agreement pursuant to Section 25810 shall be fully reimbursed for direct and indirect costs based upon activities governed by Section 25816.1. With respect to these agreements, any salaries, benefits, and other indirect costs shall not exceed comparable costs of the department.

(e) The fees for licenses for radioactive materials and of devices and equipment utilizing those materials shall be adjusted annually pursuant to Section 113.

SEC. 7. Section 25816.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25816.2. In addition to the annual adjustment of the fees authorized by this chapter pursuant to Section 113, on or before January 1, 1991, the director may adopt emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to establish and adjust these fees, and for purposes of that chapter, including Section 11349.6 of the Government Code, an adoption of these regulations is an emergency and shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law as necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and general welfare.

SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 903

An act to amend Section 23800 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23800 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

23800. Upon request of the licensee or applicant for a license the department may place reasonable conditions upon retail licensees or upon any licensee in the exercise of retail privileges in the following situations.

(a) If grounds exist for the denial of an application for a license or where a protest against the issuance of a license is filed and if the department finds that those grounds may be removed by the imposition of those conditions.

(b) Where findings are made by the department which would justify a suspension or revocation of a license, and where the imposition of a condition is reasonably related to those findings. In the case of a suspension, the conditions may be in lieu of or in addition to the suspension.

(c) Where the department issues an order suspending or revoking only a portion of the privileges to be exercised under the license.

CHAPTER 904

An act to amend the heading of Part 5 (commencing with Section 8401) of Division 4 of, to amend Sections 8401, 8402, 8405, 8406, 8407, 8451, 8454, 8457, 8461, 8463, 8465, 8551, 8552, 8553, 8554, 8555, 8556, 8557, 8563, 8564, 8601, 8602, 8603, 8604, 8605, 8651, 8702, 8703, 8704, 8705, 8707, 8751, and 8756 of, and to add Part 5.5 (commencing with Section 8760) to Division 4 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The heading of Part 5 (commencing with Section 8401) of Division 4 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

PART 5. CITRUS PEST DISTRICT CONTROL LAW

SEC. 2. Section 8401 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8401. This part shall be known as the Citrus Pest District Control Law

SEC. 3. Section 8402 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8402. It is the purpose of this part to make available a procedure for the organization, operation, government, and dissolution of districts for the more effective control and eradication of citrus pests, whichever products the district is established to protect.

SEC. 4. Section 8405 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8405. "Citrus acreage" means any parcel, tract, or lot of land with 25 or more citrus trees of any age growing on it, except a parcel, tract, or lot which is used as a nursery.

SEC. 5. Section 8406 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8406. "Citrus pest" includes any infectious, transmissible, or contagious disease, any form of animal life, or any form of vegetable life infesting citrus trees or citrus fruits.

SEC. 6. Section 8407 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8407. "District" means a citrus pest control district organized pursuant to this part.

SEC. 7. Section 8451 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8451. Proceedings for the formation of a district within any county shall be commenced by a petition which is signed by the owners of not less than 51 percent by area of the land in the proposed district within the county devoted exclusively to the growing of citrus fruits. The petition shall be addressed to, and filed with, the board of supervisors of the county.

SEC. 8. Section 8454 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8454. (a) The petition shall state the name of the proposed district and shall set forth its boundaries or describe the lands to be included in it.

(b) It is a sufficient designation of the boundaries of a proposed district to recite that all the citrus acreage in the county is to be included in the district, or that all the citrus acreage in a designated area within the county is to be included in the district.

(c) If either designation is used, the outside boundary of the area so designated is the boundary of the district and the district shall include all area within the outside boundary, if the district is formed pursuant to this part.

SEC. 9. Section 8457 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8457. The notice of hearing shall do all of the following:

(a) State the name of the district and that it is being formed for the eradication and control of citrus pests.

(b) State the petition is available for inspection at the office of the clerk of the board of supervisors.

(c) Designate the boundaries of the proposed district in substantially the same way that they are described in the petition.

(d) State the time and place for the hearing.

(e) State that at the hearing protests will be considered by the board of supervisors.

(f) State that requests in writing for the exclusion of lands, from, or the inclusion of lands in, the proposed district will be heard and considered by the board of supervisors.

SEC. 10 Section 8461 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read.

8461. At the hearing, any owner of citrus acreage in the proposed district may present to the board of supervisors a request in writing for the exclusion of that land or any part of that land from, and any owner of citrus acreage outside the proposed district may present to the board of supervisors a request in writing for inclusion of the land in, the proposed district.

SEC. 11. Section 8463 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8463. (a) If the board of supervisors determines that the project is feasible and in the interest of the citrus growers of the county, the board of supervisors shall, by order entered in its minutes, declare the district duly organized under the name designated in the petition for the formation of the district.

(b) The order shall describe the territory included in the district and, if the board of supervisors does not exclude or include land pursuant to Section 8465, it is a sufficient description of the territory to describe the boundaries in substantially the same way as they are described in the petition. A copy of the order duly certified by the clerk of the board of supervisors shall be filed for record in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the district is situated.

SEC. 12. Section 8465 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8465. (a) In determining the boundaries of the district, the board of supervisors shall exclude from the district any citrus acreage which it finds will not be benefited by the proposed project, and it may include in the district any lands which it finds will be benefited if it also finds it will be to the interest of the district to include these lands. The inclusion may be upon application of the owner or, without the owner's application, upon giving the owner notice of the proposed inclusion and an opportunity for a hearing on it.

(b) Notice of inclusion shall be mailed, postage prepaid, by the clerk of the board of supervisors, to the address of the owner of the land as shown by the last equalized county assessment roll, and to any person that has filed with the clerk that person's name and address and description of land in which he or she has either a legal or equitable interest. The notice shall describe the land proposed to be included, and shall state the time and place at which objections to the inclusion will be heard.

SEC. 13. Section 8551 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8551. The district shall have perpetual succession and may do all of the following:

(a) Sue and be sued in all actions and proceedings in all courts and tribunals of competent jurisdiction

(b) Adopt a seal and alter it at pleasure.

(c) Take by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, or otherwise, and hold, use and enjoy, and lease, or otherwise dispose of, real and personal property of every kind and description within or without the district necessary to the full and convenient exercise of its powers.

(d) Cause assessments to be levied, as provided in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 8601) to pay any obligation of the district and to accomplish the purposes of the district in the manner provided in this part.

(e) Make contracts, and employ, except as otherwise provided in this part, all persons, firms, and corporations necessary to carry out the purposes and the powers of the district, and at any salary, wage, or other compensation as the board of directors shall determine

(f) Eradicate, remove, or prevent the spread of any and all citrus pests.

(g) Enter into or upon any land included within the boundaries of the district for the purpose of inspecting and treating the citrus trees and other host plants and fruit growing on them.

(h) Perform any and all acts either within or outside the district necessary or proper to fully and completely carry out the purposes for which the district was organized.

SEC. 14. Section 8552 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8552. Every district formed pursuant to this part has all of the powers prescribed by Section 8551 and other sections of this part, including the power to eradicate, remove, or prevent the spread of each and every citrus pest, regardless of any language in the petition for formation for any district or in any of the proceedings leading to formation which might seem to limit the power of the district to the control or eradication of one or more citrus pests in particular.

SEC. 15. Section 8553 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8553. (a) A district may pay limited compensation to the owner of any citrus tree infected with citrus tristeza virus which is removed by the district or by the owner within 60 days after written notice of the infection to the owner by the district. The limited compensation shall not exceed the following payment schedule, with the age of the tree being conclusively established as of the time written notice of the infection is first given to the owner.

(b) The schedule of payments is as follows:

Age of trees	Maximum payment
1 year	$ 5.00 per tree
2 years	7.50 per tree
3 years	10.00 per tree
4 years	14.00 per tree
5 years	17.50 per tree
6 years	20.75 per tree
7 years or older	25.00 per tree

(c) For the purposes of this section, the holder of the record title of the real property on which the trees are located shall be considered to be the owner of the citrus trees to whom written notice of infection is given.

(d) The written notice referred to in subdivision (a) shall be a written or printed document labeled "Notice of Infection," addressed to the owner and informing the owner of the existence of the infected trees, their location, and that they should be removed forthwith.

(e) For the purposes of determining the age of infected citrus trees under this section, trees shall be considered one year old as of the January 1st succeeding the calendar year in which they are planted, and shall be deemed one year older on the January 1st of each succeeding year.

SEC. 16. Section 8554 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8554. In order to expedite the elimination of the source of citrus tristeza virus, if it appears to the board that the cost of testing, indexing, or retesting trees to determine infection may exceed the cost of removal, plus the payment of limited compensation, a district may, with the consent of the owner, remove and pay limited compensation pursuant to Section 8553 for trees which have not been determined to be infected with citrus tristeza virus.

SEC. 17. Section 8555 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8555. Any payment made to the owner or owners of citrus trees removed pursuant to Section 8553 or 8554 shall in no event exceed the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000) per geographical acre.

SEC. 18. Section 8556 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8556. The commissioner of the county in which the district is located shall, upon request of the board and without fee or charge, supervise and direct, in accordance with the best known and accepted methods as determined by the board, all activities undertaken by the district for the control or eradication of citrus pests.

SEC. 19. Section 8557 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8557. The board shall, immediately after its qualification, formulate an effective plan based on the best known and accepted methods for the control and eradication of the citrus pests within the district.

SEC. 20. Section 8563 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8563. The notice shall contain all of the following:

(a) A summary of the proposed budget and shall refer to the original on file with the board for further particulars.

(b) State that it is the intention to raise the amount of money required to meet the proposed budget by levying an assessment upon the assessed value of the citrus trees within the district in accordance with this part.

(c) A statement of the day, hour, and place, when and where any and all persons interested may appear and object to the adoption of the budget or to any item in it.

SEC. 21. Section 8564 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8564. At any time not later than the hour set for hearing objections to the proposed budget, any owner of citrus acreage in the district may make written protest against the budget or any item in it.

SEC. 22. Section 8601 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8601. (a) The county assessor, in making the annual assessment of property in each and every year after the organization of the district, shall assess any parcel of real property with 25 or more citrus trees on it and enter as a separate item, on the assessment roll for each such parcel of real propety included in the district, the value, as improvements on the parcel, of all citrus trees which are growing on it.

(b) For the purpose of this part, the county assessor shall assess all citrus acreage at a uniform value per acre. The assessment shall be upon an acreage basis and the number of acres shall be determined conclusively, except as otherwise provided in this section, by the assessor counting the trees and dividing the total number by the number of trees per acre of average planting. The county assessor in counting the citrus trees shall not, however, count any more than 200 trees on any one acre of land, and for any citrus acreage which has from 70 to 100 trees per acre the number of acres to be determined by the county assessor shall be the actual acreage of the parcel.

(c) Upon completing the assessment roll of the county in each year, the assessor shall separately compute and certify, to the board of supervisors, the total assessed value, as shown by the assessment roll, of all the citrus trees in the district.

SEC. 23. Section 8602 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8602. Whenever acreage within the district is planted with citrus trees in such a fashion as to qualify as citrus acreage, the acreage is subject to assessment as provided in this part.

SEC 24 Section 8603 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8603. Whenever any citrus trees have been removed from any parcel of land included in the district, the owner of the parcel of land may file with the board an affidavit particularly describing the parcel of land, and setting forth the fact of the removal therefrom of the trees. Thereupon, the board shall cause an investigation of the parcel of land to be made and, if the board finds the allegations of the affidavit are true, the board shall immediately certify this fact to the county assessor and the amount of citrus acreage removed shall not be assessed on the next assessment roll.

SEC. 25. Section 8604 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8604. (a) The board shall, on or before the first Monday in July of each year, file with the board of supervisors the final budget which sets forth all estimated expenditures of the district for the fiscal year commencing on the first day of July. A copy of the budget shall also at the same time be filed with the auditor of the county.

(b) The board of supervisors shall annually, at the time of levying other county taxes, levy an assessment upon all the citrus trees planted or growing in the district, regardless of age, as assessed by the assessor pursuant to this part. The rate shall be such as will produce, after due allowance for delinquency, the amount determined as necessary to be raised on the secured roll. If a fraction of a cent occurs on a valuation of one hundred dollars ($100), it shall be taken as a full cent.

SEC. 26. Section 8605 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8605. The assessment authorized to be assessed and levied is hereby declared to be in the nature of a special assessment, and the Legislature hereby finds that the owners of all citrus trees will be benefited by the district to the same extent and in the same manner regardless of the age of the trees. The assessments authorized by this chapter to be assessed and levied on the trees shall be assessed and levied on all citrus trees regardless of their age.

SEC. 27. Section 8651 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8651. Lands devoted exclusively to the growing of citrus fruits within a tract of land outside the district but in the county wherein the district is located may be annexed to the district.

SEC. 28. Section 8702 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8702. Proceedings for consolidation may be initiated by the filing of a petition for consolidation with the board of each district to be consolidated. Each petition shall be signed by the owners of 51 percent by area of the citrus land in the district. Upon the filing of a petition, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution which recites the fact of receipt and the willingness of the district to consolidate, and shall then send copies of the petition and resolution to the board of directors of each of the other districts. The board shall send the original petition and a certified copy of the resolution to the board of supervisors of the county in which is located the largest area of citrus acreage of the proposed consolidated district, and a copy of the petition and resolution to the board of supervisors of each of the other counties in which is located any part of the proposed consolidated district.

SEC. 29. Section 8703 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read.

8703. Upon presentation and filing of the petitions of two or more districts proposing consolidation, the board of supervisors of the county in which is located the largest area of citrus acreage of the proposed consolidated district shall fix a time and place for hearing the petitions. Notice shall be given and the hearing conducted in the same manner and with the same effect as prescribed for the formation of a district pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 8451).

SEC. 30. Section 8704 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8704. If the board of supervisors determines that the consolidation is feasible and for the best interests of the citrus growers of the respective districts, it shall by resolution duly adopted declare the districts consolidated into one district, giving the consolidated district a name which name shall include the term "consolidated." Certified copies of the resolution shall be filed with the Secretary of State and, for record, with the county recorder of each county in which is located any part of the consolidated district. Upon the filing, the districts are consolidated into a single consolidated district with all the rights, privileges, and powers of a district. The consolidated district shall succeed to all the funds and other property, and is subject to all the indebtedness, bonded and otherwise, of the districts consolidated. Each district which is included in the consolidated district shall continue in existence for the purpose of representation on the board of the consolidated district, and for the purpose of levying, assessing, and collecting assessments for district purposes. The board of the consolidated district is, however, the board of each district which is included in the consolidated district.

SEC. 31. Section 8705 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8705. Upon the adoption of a resolution consolidating two or more districts, the board of supervisors shall immediately appoint a board of directors of at least five members, including at least one member from each of the districts which are included in the consolidated district. If any of the districts which are included in the consolidated district includes more than 15,000 acres of citrus acreage, the board of directors shall be increased to a number equal to the number of districts which are included in the consolidated district, plus one additional director for each 10,000 acres, or major fraction of 10,000 acres, in any one district which is included in the consolidated district.

SEC. 32. Section 8707 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8707. Any district which has been included in a consolidated district may withdraw from the consolidated district and be reconstituted as a separate district by filing with the board of directors of the consolidated district a petition for withdrawal which is signed by the owners of not less than 51 percent by area of citrus land in the district. The board of directors of the consolidated district shall send the original petition to the board of supervisors of the county in which the withdrawing district is located, and a copy of the petition to the board of supervisors of each of the other counties in which is located any part of the consolidated district. Upon receipt of a petition for withdrawal, the board of supervisors of the county in which the withdrawing district is located shall fix a time and place for hearing the petition. Notice shall be given and the hearing conducted in the same manner and with the same effect as prescribed for the formation of a district under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 8451). Upon withdrawal of a district, all moneys collected from the district for the use of the consolidated district, and all property purchased with these moneys, shall remain the property of the consolidated district. All moneys collected from a district after it withdraws from a consolidated district shall be held for the use of the district.

SEC. 33. Section 8751 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8751. Upon the filing of a petition with the board of supervisors, signed by the owners of not less than 60 percent by area of the citrus acreage in the district, requesting the dissolution of the district, the board of supervisors shall set a time and place for hearing on the petition, which shall not be less than 20 days, nor more than 40 days, after the filing of the petition.

SEC. 34. Section 8756 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

8756. If, at the hearing, a majority of the members of the board of supervisors find that the dissolution of the district will benefit the citrus industry of the county, it shall by resolution dissolve the district.

SEC. 35. Part 5.5 (commencing with Section 8760) is added to Division 4 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

PART 5.5. STONE AND POME FRUIT PEST DISTRICT CONTROL LAW

CHAPTER 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

8760. This part shall be known as the Stone and Pome Fruit Pest District Control Law

8761. All of Part 5 (commencing with Section 8401) applies to stone and pome fruit pest control districts and are hereby incorporated in this part as though set forth in full in this part unless a provision in this part expressly states that the provision is not applicable to this part.

8762. Any district formed during 1989 pursuant to Part 5 (commencing with Section 8401) to control and eradicate stone and pome fruit pests shall continue in existence without further proceedings and shall be subject to this part.

8763. Sections 8451, 8551, 8553, 8554, 8555, 8556, 8601, 8602, 8603, and 8604, and subdivision (b) of Section 8563 do not apply to this part.

8764.5. Proceedings for the formation of a district within any county shall be commenced by a petition which is signed by the owners of not less than 51 percent by area of the land in the proposed district, which may be composed of noncontiguous parcels within the county devoted exclusively to the growing of stone and pome fruit trees. The petition shall be addressed to, and filed with, the board of supervisors of the county.

8764.6. (a) In determining the boundaries of the district, the board of supervisors shall exclude from the district any stone and pome fruit acreage which it finds will not be benefited by the proposed project, and it may include in the district any noncontiguous lands which it finds will be benefited if it also finds it will be in the interest of the district to include these lands. The inclusion may be upon application of the owner or, without the owner's application, upon giving the owner notice of the proposed inclusion and an opportunity for a hearing on it.

(b) Notice of inclusion shall be mailed, postage prepaid, by the clerk of the board of supervisors, to the address of the owner of the land as shown by the last equalized county assessment roll, and to any person that has filed with the clerk that person's name and address and description of land in which he or she has either a legal or equitable interest The notice shall describe the land proposed to be included, and shall state the time and place at which objections to the inclusion will be heard.

8765. "Stone and pome fruit acreage" means any parcel, tract, or lot of land with 10 or more stone or pome fruit trees of any age growing on it with a commercial value of at least two hundred fifty dollars ($250), except a parcel, tract, or lot which is used as a nursery.

8766. The district shall have perpetual succession and may do all of the following:

(a) Sue and be sued in all actions and proceedings in all courts and tribunals of competent jurisdiction. Section 820.9 of the Government Code applies to this subdivision.

(b) Adopt a seal and alter it at pleasure

(c) Take by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, or otherwise, and hold, use and enjoy, and lease, or otherwise dispose of, real and personal property of every kind and description within or without the district necessary to the full and convenient exercise of its powers

(d) Cause assessments to be levied, as provided in this chapter to pay any obligation of the district and to accomplish the purposes of the district in the manner provided in this part.

(e) Make contracts, and employ, except as otherwise provided in this part, all persons, firms, and corporations necessary to carry out the purposes and the powers of the district, and at any salary, wage, or other compensation as the board of directors shall determine.

(f) Eradicate, remove, or prevent the spread of any and all stone or pome fruit pests.

(g) Enter into or upon any land included within the boundaries of the district for the purpose of inspecting and treating the stone or pome fruit trees and other host plants and fruit growing on them.

(h) Perform any and all acts either within or outside the district necessary or proper to fully and completely carry out the purposes for which the district was organized

8767 In order to expedite the elimination of the source of the apple maggot, a district may, with the consent of the owner, remove trees which have not been determined to be infested with the apple maggot.

8768. The board in which the district is located shall, after consultation with the commissioner, supervise and direct, in accordance with the best known and accepted methods as determined by the board, all activities undertaken by the district for the control or eradication of stone or pome fruit pests. The board may authorize the use of nonchemical alternatives.

8769. (a) The board, annually after the organization of the district, shall assess any assessors parcel of real property with 10 or more stone or pome fruit trees on it and enter as a separate item, on an annual assessment roll for each such assessor's parcel of real property included in the district, the number of all stone or pome fruit trees which are growing on it.

(b) For the purpose of this part, the board shall assess all stone or pome fruit acreage at a uniform value per tree. The assessment shall be upon a tree basis and the number of trees shall be determined conclusively by the board counting the trees on each assessors parcel. The board, in counting the stone or pome fruit trees, shall not, however, count any more than 100 trees on any one acre of land.

(c) Upon completing the tree count within the district each year, the board shall separately compute and certify, to the board of supervisors, the total number of all the stone or pome fruit trees in the district on each parcel.

8770. Whenever new acreage within the district is planted with stone or pome fruit trees in such a fashion as to qualify as stone or pome fruit acreage, the trees are subject to assessment as provided in this part.

8771. Whenever any stone or pome fruit trees have been removed from any parcel of land included in the district, the owner of the parcel of land may file with the board an affidavit particularly describing the parcel of land, and setting forth the fact of the removal of the trees. Upon receipt of the affidavit, the board shall cause an investigation of the parcel of land to be made and, if the board finds the statements in the affidavit are true, the board shall immediately verify this fact and the amount of stone or pome fruit trees removed shall not be assessed on the next assessment roll.

8772. (a) The board shall, on or before the first Monday in July of each year, file with the board of supervisors a list of assessor parcel numbers which sets forth all assessments of the district for the fiscal year commencing on the first day of July At the same time, a copy of the list shall also be filed with the auditor of the county.

(b) The board of supervisors shall annually, at the time of levying county taxes, levy a special assessment upon all the stone or pome fruit trees planted or growing in the district regardless of age, as submitted by the district pursuant to subdivision (a). The special assessment shall be added to the secured roll and collected by the county on behalf of the district in the same manner that the county collects county taxes.

CHAPTER 905

An act to amend Section 8215 of the Education Code, and to amend Section 2 of Chapter 462 of the Statutes of 1987, relating to child care.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8215 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8215. (a) There is hereby established a five-year project known as the California Child Care Initiative Project. It is the intent of the Legislature to promote and foster the project in cooperation with private corporations and local governments. The objective of the project is to increase the availability of quality child care programs in the state.

(b) For purposes of this section, the California Child Care Initiative Project means a project to expand the role and functions of selected resource and referral agencies in activities including needs assessment, recruitment and screening of providers, technical assistance, and staff development and training, in order to aid communities in increasing their capability in the number of child care spaces available and the quality of child care services offered.

(c) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allocate all state funds appropriated for the California Child Care Initiative Project for the purpose of making grants to those child care resource and referral agencies that have been selected as pilot sites for the project.

(d) The project shall ensure that each dollar of state funds allocated pursuant to subdivision (c) is matched by two dollars ($2) from other sources, including private corporations, the federal government, or a local government.

(e) The grants to the sites made available by the project shall be comprised of a combination of state funds and other funds pursuant to subdivision (d).

(f) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall develop a data base for the project.

(g) The California Child Care Resource and Referral Network, in consultation with the Office of the Legislative Analyst and the State Department of Education, shall evaluate the California Child Care Initiative Project. The evaluation shall be submitted to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the Legislature on or before March 1, 1990.

The evaluation of the project shall address, but need not be limited to, the following:

(1) The characteristics of the project and its data base.

(2) The effectiveness of the project in attaining its legislative goals and purposes.

(3) The appropriateness of the funding allocation mechanism.

(4) The appropriateness of amounts spent to administer the project.

(5) The extent to which the services provided by the project are duplicative of other state or local services.

(6) The extent to which there is a need to expand the project on a statewide basis.

(h) This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1995, and, as of January 1, 1996, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 2 of Chapter 462 of the Statutes of 1987 is amended to read:

Sec. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that the California Child Care Initiative Project established by this act shall be funded through the annual Budget Act for the 1990–91, 1991–92, 1992–93, 1993–94, and 1994–95 fiscal years.

CHAPTER 906

An act to amend Sections 25202.5, 25220, 25221, 25222.1, 25229, 25230, 25231, 25233, 25234, 25235, 25240, and 25355.5 of, and to add Section 25117.13 to, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 402.1 and 402.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25117.13 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25117.13. "Land use restriction" means any limitation regarding the uses of property which may be provided by, but is not limited to, a written instrument which imposes an easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or a combination thereof, as appropriate, upon the present and future uses of all, or part of, the land, pursuant to Section 25202.5, 25222.1, 25230, or 25355.5.

SEC. 2. Section 25202.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25202.5. (a) With respect to any hazardous waste facility permitted pursuant to Section 25200 or granted interim status pursuant to Section 25200.5, the department may do either of the following:

(1) Enter into an agreement with the owner of the hazardous waste facility that requires the execution and recording of a written instrument which imposes an easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude upon the present and future uses of all or part of the land on which the hazardous waste facility subject to the permit or grant of interim status is located and on all or part of any adjacent land held by, or for the beneficial use of, the owners of the land on which the hazardous waste facility subject to the permit or grant of interim status is located.

(2) Impose a requirement upon the owner of the hazardous waste facility, by permit modification, permit condition, or otherwise, that requires the execution and recording of a written instrument which imposes an easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude upon the present and future uses of all or part of the land on which the hazardous waste facility subject to the permit or grant of interim status is located and on all or part of any adjacent land held by, or for the beneficial use of, the owners of the land on which the hazardous waste facility subject to the permit or grant of interim status is located.

(b) The easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude imposed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be no more restrictive than needed, as determined by the department, to protect the present or future public health and safety and shall not place any restriction on any land that limits the use, modification, or expansion of an existing industrial or manufacturing facility or complex. The instrument shall be executed by all of the owners of the land and by the director, shall particularly describe the real property affected by the instrument, and shall be recorded by the owner in the office of the county recorder in each county in which all, or a portion of, the land is located within 10 days of the date of execution. The easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude shall state that the land described in the instrument has been, or will be, the site of a hazardous waste facility or is adjacent to the site of such a facility, and may impose those use restrictions as the department deems necessary to protect the present or future public health. The restrictions may include restrictions upon activities on, over, or under the land, including, but not limited to, a prohibition against building, filling, grading, excavating, or mining without the written permission of the director.

A certified copy of the recorded easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude shall be sent to the department upon recordation. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except as provided in Section 25202.6, an easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude executed pursuant to this section and recorded so as to provide constructive notice shall run with the land from the date of recordation and shall be binding upon all of the owners of the land, their heirs, successors, and assignees, and the agents, employees, and lessees of the owners, heirs, successors, and assignees. The easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude shall be enforceable by the department pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 25180).

(c) Except as provided in subdivisions (d) and (e), any land on which is located a hazardous waste disposal facility permitted pursuant to this chapter shall be surrounded by a minimum buffer zone of 2,000 feet between the facility and the outer boundary of the buffer zone. The department may impose an easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or any combination thereof, as appropriate, on the buffer zone pursuant to subdivision (a). If the department determines that a buffer zone of more than 2,000 feet is necessary to protect the present and future public health and safety, the department may increase the buffer zone by restricting the disposal of hazardous waste at that facility to land surrounded by a larger buffer zone.

(d) Subdivision (c) does not apply to any hazardous waste property, as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 25117.3, which was actually and lawfully used for the disposal of hazardous waste on August 6, 1980.

(e) If the owner of a hazardous waste disposal facility proves to the satisfaction of the department that a buffer zone of less than 2,000 feet is sufficient to protect the present and future public health and safety, the department may allow the disposal of hazardous waste onto land surrounded by a buffer zone of less than 2,000 feet.

SEC. 3. Section 25220 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25220. (a) For purposes of this article, unless the context clearly requires a different meaning:

(1) "Determination" means a decision by the department as to whether land should be designated as hazardous waste property or border zone property and which is reached after an analysis and an evaluation of the information obtained by the department.

(2) "Designation" means imposition of the requirements specified in Section 25230 after a determination, a public hearing, and a decision by the director has occurred pursuant to Section 25229.

(b) Whenever there is reasonable cause for the department to believe that any land may be a hazardous waste property or border zone property, the department may, by certified mail, request any person who owns, leases, or occupies the land, or any other person who has information relating to the land, to provide any or all of the following information:

(1) A description of the present use of the land.

(2) The types and volumes of hazardous waste or extremely hazardous waste contained therein or thereon.

(3) The date or dates the hazardous waste or extremely hazardous waste was deposited into or onto the land.

(4) A map or maps of the property which they own and which contains or overlies hazardous waste or extremely hazardous waste, drawn to a scale of not more than 200 feet to the inch, which shows the area or areas where the hazardous waste or extremely hazardous waste is contained or was deposited. The provision of a map pursuant to this subdivision shall not be required if the respondent to the request asserts in writing that the respondent has no knowledge or insufficient knowledge of the existence or location of the wastes to comply with this subdivision.

(5) Any other information which relates to the disposal of hazardous waste on or within 2,000 feet of the property or the potential for the migration of those wastes.

(c) Any person who is requested to provide information pursuant to subdivision (b) shall submit the information to the department within 90 calendar days of receipt of the request.

(d) The department shall notify the planning and building department of each city, county, or regional council of governments of any recorded land use restriction imposed pursuant to Section 25202.5, 25222.1, 25230, or 25355.5 within the jurisdiction of the local agency. Upon receiving this notification, the planning and building department shall do both of the following:

(1) File all recorded land use restrictions in the property files of the city, county, or regional council of government.

(2) Require that any person requesting a land use which differs from those filed land use restrictions on the property apply to the department for a variance or a removal of the land use restrictions pursuant to Section 25233 or 25234.

(e) A planning and building department of a city, county, or regional council of governments may assess a property owner a reasonable fee to cover the costs of taking the actions required by subdivision (d). For purposes of this subdivision, "property owner" does not include a person who holds evidence of ownership solely to protect a security interest in the property, unless the person participates, or has a legal right to participate, in the management of the property.

SEC. 4. Section 25221 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25221. (a) Any person as owner, lessor, or lessee who (1) knows, or has probable cause to believe, that a significant disposal of hazardous waste has occurred on, under, or into the land which he or she owns or leases or that the land is within 2,000 feet of a significant disposal of hazardous waste, and (2) intends to construct or allow the construction on that land of a building or structure to be used for a purpose which is described in subdivision (b) of Section 25232 within one year, shall apply to the department prior to construction for a determination as to whether the land should be designated a hazardous waste property or a border zone property pursuant to Section 25229.

The addition of rooms or living space to an existing single-family dwelling or other minor repairs or improvements to residential property which do not change the use of the property or increase the population density does not constitute the construction of a building or structure for purposes of this subdivision.

(b) Any person who, as owner, lessor, or lessee, knows or has probable cause to believe that land which he or she owns or leases is a hazardous waste property or a border zone property, may apply to the department for a determination as to whether the land should be designated a hazardous waste property or a border zone property pursuant to Section 25229.

(c) If a city or county knows or has probable cause to believe that any land within its jurisdiction is a hazardous waste property or a border zone property, the city or county may apply to the department for a determination as to whether that land should be designated a hazardous waste property or a border zone property pursuant to Section 25229.

(d) Subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) do not apply to any land on which a determination has previously been made pursuant to Section 25222.1 or 25229, unless either of the following has occurred since that determination:

(1) A significant new disposal of hazardous waste has occurred on, under, or into the land.

(2) Significant new information about past disposal of hazardous waste on, or within 2,000 feet of, the land becomes known to the owner, lessor, or lessee of the land or to the city or county.

SEC. 5. Section 25222.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25222.1. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 25222, 25229, 25232, and 25233, any person may enter into an agreement with the department regarding that person's property, or a portion thereof, which provides for restricting specified uses of the property, as determined by all parties to the agreement. Except as otherwise provided in this article, the agreement is irrevocable and shall be recorded by the owner, pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 25230, as a hazardous waste easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or any combination thereof, as appropriate, upon the present and future uses of the land. That person shall bear all costs incurred in determining the specific land use restrictions for that person's property, or a portion thereof pursuant to this subdivision.

(b) By entering into this agreement with respect to a portion of a property, the department is not precluded from taking action to designate the remainder of the property as hazardous waste or border zone property.

SEC. 6. Section 25229 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25229. (a) If, after the hearing, the director makes the decision that the subject land should not be designated a hazardous waste property or border zone property, the director shall issue that decision in writing and serve it in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(b) If, after the hearing, the director makes the decision, upon a preponderance of the evidence, including any evidence developed at any time prior to the hearing, that the land should be designated a hazardous waste property or a border zone property, the director shall issue that decision in writing, which shall identify the subject land, or portion thereof, by street address, assessor's parcel number, or legal description and the name of the owner of record, contain findings of fact based upon the issues presented, including the reasons for this designation, the substances on, under, or in the land, and the significant existing or potential hazards to present or future public health and safety, and order every owner of the designated land to take all of the following actions:

(1) Execute before a notary a written instrument which imposes an easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or any combination thereof, as appropriate, upon the present and future uses of the land pursuant to Section 25230. The written instrument shall also include a copy of the director's decision.

(2) Return the executed instrument to the director within 30 days after the decision is delivered or mailed. Within 10 days after receiving the instrument, the director shall execute the written instrument and return the instrument to the owner.

(3) Record the written instrument pursuant to Section 25230 within 10 days after receiving the written instrument executed by the director, as specified in paragraph (2).

(4) Return the recorded written instrument to the director within 10 days after the owner records the instrument, as specified in paragraph (3).

(c) Copies of the determination shall be delivered or sent by certified mail to the owner of the property, the legislative body of the city or county in whose jurisdiction the land is located, and any other persons who were served pursuant to Section 25222 or who were permitted to intervene in the proceeding pursuant to Section 25226.

(d) Failure or refusal to comply with any order issued pursuant to this section shall be treated in the manner provided by Section 11525 of the Government Code.

SEC. 7. Section 25230 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read.

25230. (a) Upon a decision that the subject land shall be designated as hazardous waste property or border zone property pursuant to Section 25229, the director shall notify the owner of the property and the legislative body of the city or county in whose jurisdiction the land is located and any other persons who were permitted to intervene in the proceeding, and shall issue orders to every owner of the land requiring all of the following:

(1) The notarized execution and recordation of a written instrument which imposes an easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or combination thereof, as appropriate, upon the present and future uses of all or part of the land which has been designated a hazardous waste property or a border zone property as provided by Section 25232, and which provides that removal of the easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or any combination thereof, as appropriate, shall be in accordance with Section 25234. The easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or any combination thereof, as appropriate, shall be executed by all the owners of the land and by the director, shall particularly describe the real property affected by the instrument, and, if applicable, the location of the easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or any combination thereof, as appropriate, on the real property. The easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or any combination thereof, as appropriate, shall be recorded with the recorder of the county in which the land is located within 10 days after the instrument, as executed by the director, is received by the owner and shall be indexed by the county recorder in the grantor index in the name of the record title owner of the real property and in the grantee index in the name of the department. The easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or any combination thereof, as appropriate, shall state that the land described in the instrument is subject to a hazardous waste easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or any combination thereof, as appropriate. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or any combination thereof, as appropriate, executed pursuant to this section shall run with the land from the date of recordation and shall be binding upon all of the owners of the land, their heirs, successors, and assignees, and the agents, employees, or lessees of the owners, heirs, successors, and assignees, unless it is removed pursuant to Section 25234. The easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or any combination thereof, as appropriate, shall be enforceable by the department pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 25180).

(2) The execution and delivery of a written instrument to accompany all purchase, lease, or rental agreements relating to the land which has been designated a hazardous waste property or a border zone property. The instrument shall be prepared by the owner or lessor of the land and shall contain the following statement:

"The land described herein contains hazardous waste or is within 2,000 feet of land that contains hazardous waste. This condition renders the land and the owner, lessee, or other possessor of the land subject to the requirements, restrictions, provisions, and liabilities contained in Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code. This statement is not a declaration that a hazard exists."

(b) In any case where the department has made reasonable efforts to obtain execution of the easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or any combination thereof, as appropriate, and the owner or owners have failed or refused to execute it, the department may apply to the court for an order imposing the easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or any combination thereof, as appropriate. The issued order shall be recorded in the same manner as an executed instrument, as specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(c) Any hazardous waste easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or any combination thereof, as appropriate, executed pursuant to this section shall be exclusively for the purpose of protecting the public health and safety and shall convey no interest in real or other property to the state Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or any combination thereof, as appropriate, held by the department shall not be sold or otherwise transferred to another person.

SEC. 8. Section 25231 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25231. A decision of the director made pursuant to Section 25229 shall be reviewable pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 9. Section 25233 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25233. (a) Any aggrieved person may apply to the department for a written variance from a land use restriction, including the requirements set forth in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 25232. Any application shall contain sufficient evidence for the department to issue a notice for a hearing. The notice shall contain both of the following:

(1) A statement of all of the following that apply:

(A) Land use restrictions have been imposed on the land.

(B) A hearing is pending on the land.

(C) The land has been designated a hazardous waste property or border zone property.

(2) A statement of who is applying for a variance, the proposed variance, and a statement of the reasons in support of the granting of a variance.

(b) The procedures for the conducting of the hearing specified in subdivision (a) are those set forth in this article. No person shall make a subsequent application pursuant to this section within 18 months of a final decision on an application by the department. A person applying for a variance pursuant to this section shall pay the department for all costs incurred by the department relating to the application

(c) The applicant shall have the burden of proving at the hearing that the variance will not cause or allow any of the following effects associated with hazardous waste or extremely hazardous waste:

(1) The creation or increase of significant present or future hazards to public health.

(2) Any significant diminution of the ability to mitigate any significant potential or actual hazard to public health.

(3) Any long-term increase in the number of humans or animals exposed to significant hazards which affect the health, well-being, or safety of the public.

(d) If, upon the preponderance of the testimony taken, the director is of the opinion that the variance should be granted, the director shall issue and cause to be served his or her decision and findings of fact on the owner of the land, the legislative body of the city or county in whose jurisdiction the land is located, and upon any other persons who were permitted to intervene in the proceedings. The findings of fact shall include the exact nature of the proposed variance and the reasons in support of the granting of the variance.

(e) If the director is of the opinion that the variance should not be granted, the director shall issue and cause to be served his or her findings of fact in support of the denial on the parties mentioned in subdivision (c).

(f) The department shall record within 10 days any final decision made by the director pursuant to this section as provided in Section 25235.

(g) A decision of the director made after a hearing held pursuant to this section shall be reviewable pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure and shall be upheld if the court finds that it is supported by substantial evidence.

SEC. 10. Section 25234 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25234. (a) Any aggrieved person may apply to the department to remove a land use restriction, including a designation that the land is a hazardous waste property or a border zone property on the grounds that the waste no longer creates a significant existing or potential hazard to present or future public health or safety. No person shall make a subsequent application pursuant to this section within 12 months of a final decision on an application by the department. A person applying to the department pursuant to this section shall pay the department all costs incurred by the department relating to the application. Any application shall contain sufficient evidence for the department to make a finding upon any or all of the following grounds:

(1) The hazardous waste which caused the land to be restricted or designated has since been removed or altered in a manner which precludes any significant existing or potential hazard to present or future public health.

(2) New scientific evidence is available since the restriction or designation of the land or the making of any previous application pursuant to this section, concerning either of the following:

(A) The nature of the hazardous waste which caused the land to be designated.

(B) The geology or other physical environmental characteristics of the designated land.

(b) Any aggrieved person may appeal a determination of the department made pursuant to subdivision (a) by submitting a request for a hearing to the director. The request shall be mailed by certified mail not later than 30 days after the date of the mailing of the department's decision on the application.

(c) Upon receipt of a timely appeal, the director shall give notice of a hearing pursuant to the procedures set forth in this article.

(d) The department shall record within 10 days any new and final determination made by the department pursuant to this section as provided in Section 25235.

(e) A determination made by the department, after a hearing held pursuant to this section, shall be reviewable pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure and shall be upheld if the court finds that it is supported by substantial evidence.

(f) Whenever there is a final determination pursuant to this section removing a land use restriction, including the designation of a hazardous waste property or a border zone property, the easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude imposed on the land created by Section 25222.1, 25230, or 25355.5 shall automatically terminate. The department shall record or cause to be recorded within 10 days a termination of the easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude which shall particularly describe the real property subject to the easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude and which shall be indexed by the recorder in the grantee index in the name of the record title owner of the real property subject to the easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, and in the grantor index in the name of the department.

SEC. 11. Section 25235 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25235. The department shall record within 10 days any final written instrument made pursuant to Section 25222.1 or 25230 with the county recorder of the county in which the property is located. Any recordation made pursuant to this article or Section 25202.5 or 25355.5 shall include the street address, assessor's parcel number, or legal description of each parcel affected and the name of the owner thereof, and the recordation shall be recorded by the recorder in the grantor index in the name of the record title owner of the real property and in the grantee index in the name of the department.

SEC. 12. Section 25240 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read.

25240. An assessor shall consider any restrictive easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude adopted pursuant to Section 25202.5, 25222.1, or 25355.5 or any easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude imposed pursuant to Section 25230 as an enforceable easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude subject to Section 402.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and shall appropriately reassess any land, the use of which has been so restricted, at the lien date following the adoption or imposition of the easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude.

SEC. 13. Section 25355.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25355.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), no money shall be expended from the Hazardous Substance Account or the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund for removal or remedial actions on any site selected for inclusion on the list established pursuant to Section 25356, unless the department first takes both of the following actions:

(1) The department issues one of the following orders or enters into the following agreement:

(A) The department issues an order specifying a schedule for compliance or correction pursuant to Section 25187.

(B) The department issues an order establishing a schedule for removing or remedying the release of a hazardous substance at the site, or for correcting the conditions that threaten the release of a hazardous substance. The order shall include, but is not limited to, requiring specific dates by which necessary corrective actions shall be taken to remove the threat of a release, or dates by which the nature and extent of a release shall be determined and the site adequately characterized, a remedial action plan shall be prepared, the remedial action plan shall be submitted to the department for approval, and a removal or remedial action shall be completed.

(C) The department enters into an enforceable agreement with a potentially responsible party for the site which requires the party to take necessary corrective action to remove the threat of the release, or to determine the nature and extent of the release and adequately characterize the site, prepare a remedial action plan, and complete the necessary removal or remedial actions, as required in the approved remedial action plan.

Any enforceable agreement entered into pursuant to this section may provide for the execution and recording of a written instrument which imposes an easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or combination thereof, as appropriate, upon the present and future uses of the site. The instrument shall provide that the easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or combination thereof, as appropriate, is subject to the variance or removal procedures specified in Sections 25233 and 25234. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an easement, covenant, restriction, or servitude, or any combination thereof, as appropriate, executed pursuant to this section and recorded so as to provide constructive notice runs with the land from the date of recordation, is binding upon all of the owners of the land, their heirs, successors, and assignees, and the agents, employees, or lessees of the owners, heirs, successors, and assignees, and is enforceable by the department pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 25180) of Chapter 6.5.

(2) The department determines, in writing, that the potentially responsible party or parties for the hazardous substance release site have not complied with all of the terms of an order issued pursuant to subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (1) or an agreement entered into pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1). Before the department determines that a potentially responsible party is not in compliance with the order or agreement, the department shall give the potentially responsible party written notice of the proposed determination and an opportunity to correct the noncompliance or show why the order should be modified. After the department has made the final determination that a potentially responsible party is not in compliance with the order or agreement, the department may expend money from the Hazardous Substance Account or the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund for a removal or remedial action.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply, and money from the Hazardous Substance Account or the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund shall be available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for removal or remedial actions, if any of the following conditions apply:

(1) The department, after a reasonable effort, is unable to identify a potential responsible party for the hazardous substance release site.

(2) The department determines that immediate corrective action is necessary, as provided in Section 25354.

(3) The director determines that removal or remedial action at a site is necessary because there may be an imminent and substantial endangerment to the public health or welfare or to the environment.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the department may expend funds, upon appropriation by the Legislature, from the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund or the Hazardous Substance Account to conduct activities necessary to verify that an uncontrolled release of hazardous substances has occurred at a suspected hazardous substance release site, to issue an order or enter into an enforceable agreement pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), and to review, comment upon, and approve or disapprove remedial action plans submitted by potentially responsible parties subject to the orders or the enforceable agreement.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the department may expend funds, upon appropriation by the Legislature, from the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund or the Hazardous Substance Account, to provide for oversight of removal and remedial actions, or, if the site is also listed on the federal act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9604(c)(3)), to provide the state's share of a removal or remedial action.

(e) A responsible party who fails, as determined by the department in writing, to comply with an order issued pursuant to subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), or to comply with all of the terms of an enforceable agreement entered into pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), shall be deemed, for purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 25355, to have failed to take action properly and in a timely fashion with respect to a hazardous substance release or a threatened release.

SEC. 14. Section 402.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

402.1. (a) In the assessment of land, the assessor shall consider the effect upon value of any enforceable restrictions to which the use of the land may be subjected. These restrictions shall include, but are not limited to all of the following:

(1) Zoning.

(2) Recorded contracts with governmental agencies other than those provided in Section 422.

(3) Permit authority of, and permits issued by, governmental agencies exercising land use powers concurrently with local governments, including the California Coastal Commission and regional coastal commissions, the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission, and the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency.

(4) Development controls of a local government in accordance with any local coastal program certified pursuant to Division 20 (commencing with Section 30000) of the Public Resources Code.

(5) Development controls of a local government in accordance with a local protection program, or any component thereof, certified pursuant to Division 19 (commencing with Section 29000) of the Public Resources Code.

(6) Environmental constraints applied to the use of land pursuant to provisions of statutes.

(7) Hazardous waste land use restriction pursuant to Section 25240 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) There is a rebuttable presumption that restrictions will not be removed or substantially modified in the predictable future and that they will substantially equate the value of the land to the value attributable to the legally permissible use or uses.

(c) Grounds for rebutting the presumption may include, but are not necessarily limited to, the past history of like use restrictions in the jurisdiction in question and the similarity of sales prices for restricted and unrestricted land The possible expiration of a restriction at a time certain shall not be conclusive evidence of the future removal or modification of the restriction unless there is no opportunity or likelihood of the continuation or renewal of the restriction, or unless a necessary party to the restriction has indicated an intent to permit its expiration at that time.

(d) In assessing land with respect to which the presumption is unrebutted, the assessor shall not consider sales of otherwise comparable land not similarly restricted as to use as indicative of value of land under restriction, unless the restrictions have a demonstrably minimal effect upon value.

(e) In assessing land under an enforceable use restriction wherein the presumption of no predictable removal or substantial modification of the restriction has been rebutted, but where the restriction nevertheless retains some future life and has some effect on present value, the assessor may consider, in addition to all other legally permissible information, representative sales of comparable land which are not under restriction but upon which natural limitations have substantially the same effect as restrictions.

(f) For the purposes of this section the following definitions apply:

(1) "Comparable lands" are lands which are similar to the land being valued in respect to legally permissible uses and physical attributes

(2) "Representative sales information" is information from sales of a sufficient number of comparable lands to give an accurate indication of the full cash value of the land being valued.

(g) It is hereby declared that the purpose and intent of the Legislature in enacting this section is to provide for a method of determining whether a sufficient amount of representative sales information is available for land under use restriction in order to ensure the accurate assessment of such land. It is also hereby declared that the further purpose and intent of the Legislature in enacting this section and Section 1630 is to avoid an assessment policy which, in the absence of special circumstances, considers uses for land which legally are not available to the owner and not contemplated by government, and that these sections are necessary to implement the public policy of encouraging and maintaining effective land use planning. Nothing in this statute shall be construed as requiring the assessment of any land at a value less than as required by Section 401 or as prohibiting the use of representative comparable sales information on land under similar restrictions when this information is available.

SEC. 15. Section 402.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

402.3. An assessor shall consider any restrictive covenant, easement, restriction, or servitude adopted pursuant to Section 25202.5, 25222.1, or 25355.5 of the Health and Safety Code or any restriction, easement, covenant, or servitude imposed pursuant to Section 25230 of the Health and Safety Code as an enforceable restriction, easement, covenant, or servitude subject to Section 402.1 and shall appropriately reassess any land, the use of which has been so restricted, at the lien date following the adoption or imposition of the covenant, easement, servitude, or restriction.

SEC 16. The amendments made to Sections 25202.5 and 25355.5 of the Health and Safety Code by Sections 2 and 9, respectively, of this act do not constitute a change in, but are declaratory of, the existing law.

SEC. 17. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for certain of the programs or levels or service mandated by this act.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 907

An act to amend Sections 21089, 21092, 21104, and 21153 of, and to add Sections 21091, 21092.2, and 21092.3 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to environmental quality.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21089 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

21089. A lead agency may charge and collect a reasonable fee from any person proposing a project subject to this division in order to recover the estimated costs incurred by the lead agency in preparing a negative declaration or an environmental impact report for the project and for procedures necessary to comply with this division on the project. Litigation expenses, costs, and fees incurred in actions alleging noncompliance with this division under Section 21167 are not recoverable under this section.

SEC. 2. Section 21091 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21091. (a) The public review period for a draft environmental impact report shall not be less than 30 days. When the draft environmental impact report is submitted to the State Clearinghouse for review, the review period shall be at least 45 days.

(b) The public review period for a negative declaration shall not be less than 21 days. When the negative declaration is submitted to the State Clearinghouse for review, the review period shall be at least 30 days.

(c) When a draft environmental impact report or a negative declaration is submitted to the State Clearinghouse for review, the public review period established by the lead agency shall be at least as long as the period of review by the State Clearinghouse. The lead agency shall consider any comments on a draft environmental impact report or proposed negative declaration, which are received by the State Clearinghouse within the public comment period established by this section.

(d) (1) Criteria for shorter review periods by the State Clearinghouse for documents which must be submitted to the State Clearinghouse shall be set forth in the written guidelines issued by the Office of Planning and Research and made available to the public

(2) Those shortened review periods shall not be less than 30 days for a draft environmental impact report and 21 days for a negative declaration.

(3) Any request for a shortened review period shall only be made in writing by the decisionmaking body of the lead agency to the Office of Planning and Research. The decisionmaking body may designate by resolution or ordinance a person authorized to request a shortened review Any designated person shall notify the decisionmaking body of this request.

(4) Any request approved by the State Clearinghouse shall be consistent with the criteria set forth in the written guidelines of the Office of Planning and Research.

(5) A shortened review period shall not be approved by the Office of Planning and Research for any proposed project of statewide, regional, or areawide environmental significance as determined pursuant to Section 21083.

(6) Any approval of a shortened review period shall be given prior to, and reflected in, the public notice required pursuant to Section 21092.

SEC. 3. Section 21092 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by Chapter 141 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

21092 (a) Any public agency which is preparing an environmental impact report or a negative declaration shall provide public notice of that fact within a reasonable period of time prior to final adoption by the public agency of the environmental impact report or negative declaration. The notice shall specify the period during which comments will be received on the draft environmental report or negative declaration, and shall include the date, time, and place of any public meetings or hearings on the proposed project, a brief description of the proposed project and its location, and the address where copies of the draft environmental impact report or negative declaration are available for review. This section shall not be construed in any manner which results in the invalidation of an action because of the alleged inadequacy of the notice content, provided that there has been substantial compliance with the notice content requirements of this section The notice required by this section shall be given to all organizations and individuals who have previously requested notice and shall also be given by at least one of the following procedures:

(1) Publication, no fewer times than required by Section 6061 of the Government Code, by the public agency in a newspaper of general circulation in the area affected by the proposed project.

(2) Posting of notice by the public agency on- and off-site in the area where the project is to be located.

(3) Direct mailing to the owners and occupants of contiguous property shown on the latest equalized assessment roll.

(b) For any project involving the burning of municipal wastes, hazardous waste, or refuse-derived fuel, including, but not limited to, tires, meeting the qualifications of subdivision (c), notice shall be given to all organizations and individuals who have previously requested notice and shall also be given by at least the procedures specified in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subdivision (a). In addition, notification shall be given by direct mailing to the owners and occupants of property within one-fourth of a mile of any parcel or parcels on which is located a project subject to this subdivision. This subdivision does not apply to any project for which notice has already been provided as of the effective date of Assembly Bill 58 of the 1989–90 Regular Session in compliance with this section as it existed prior to that effective date.

(c) The notice requirements of subdivision (b) apply to both of the following:

(1) The construction of a new facility.

(2) The expansion of an existing facility which burns hazardous waste which would increase its permitted capacity by more than 10 percent. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of expansion of an existing facility shall be calculated by comparing the proposed facility capacity with whichever of the following is applicable:

(A) The facility capacity approved in the facility's hazardous waste facilities permit pursuant to Section 25200 of the Health and Safety Code or its grant of interim status pursuant to Section 25200.5 of the Health and Safety Code, or the facility capacity authorized in any state or local agency permit allowing the construction or operation of a facility for the burning of hazardous waste, granted before January 1, 1990.

(B) The facility capacity authorized in the facility's original hazardous waste facilities permit, grant of interim status, or any state or local agency permit allowing the construction or operation of a facility for the burning of hazardous waste, granted on or after January 1, 1990.

(d) The notice requirements specified in subdivision (a) or (b) shall not preclude a public agency from providing additional notice by other means if the agency so desires, or from providing the public notice required by this section at the same time and in the same manner as public notice otherwise required by law for the project.

SEC. 4. Section 21092.2 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read·

21092.2. The notices required pursuant to Sections 21080.4, 21092, 21108, and 21152 shall be mailed to any person who has filed a written request for notices with either the clerk of the governing body or, if there is no governing body, the director of the agency. The request may also be filed with any other person designated by the governing body or director to receive these requests. The agency may require requests for notices to be annually renewed. The public agency may charge a fee, except to other public agencies, which is reasonably related to the costs of providing this service. This section shall not be construed in any manner which results in the invalidation of an action because of the failure of a person to receive a requested notice, provided that there has been substantial compliance with the requirements of this section.

SEC. 5. Section 21092.3 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

21092.3. The notices required pursuant to Sections 21080.4 and 21092 shall be posted in the office of the county clerk of the county or counties in which the project will be located and shall remain posted for a period of 30 days.

SEC. 6. Section 21104 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

21104. (a) Prior to completing an environmental impact report, the state lead agency shall consult with, and obtain comments from, each responsible agency, any public agency which has jurisdiction by law with respect to the project, and any city or county which borders on a city or county within which the project is located, and may consult with any person who has special expertise with respect to any environmental impact involved. In the case of a project described in subdivision (c) of Section 21065, the state lead agency shall, upon the request of the applicant, provide for early consultation to identify the range of actions, alternatives, mitigation measures, and significant effects to be analyzed in depth in the environmental impact report. The state lead agency may consult with persons identified by the applicant which the applicant believes will be concerned with the environmental effects of the project and may consult with members of the public who have made a written request to be consulted on the project. A request by the applicant for early consultation shall be made not later than 30 days after the determination required by Section 21080.1 with respect to the project

(b) The state lead agency shall consult with, and obtain comments from, the State Air Resources Board in preparing an environmental impact report on a highway or freeway project, as to the air pollution impact of the potential vehicular use of the highway or freeway.

(c) A responsible agency or other public agency shall only make substantive comments regarding those activities involved in a project which are within an area of expertise of the agency or which are required to be carried out or approved by the agency. Those comments shall be supported by specific documentation.

SEC. 7. Section 21153 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

21153. Prior to completing an environmental impact report, every local lead agency shall consult with, and obtain comments from, each responsible agency, any public agency which has jurisdiction by law with respect to the project, and any city or county which borders on a city or county within which the project is located, and may consult with any person who has special expertise with respect to any environmental impact involved. In the case of a project described in subdivision (c) of Section 21065, the local lead agency shall, upon the request of the applicant, provide for early consultation to identify the range of actions, alternatives, mitigation measures, and significant effects to be analyzed in depth in the environmental impact report. The local lead agency may consult with persons identified by the applicant which the applicant believes will be concerned with the environmental effects of the project and may consult with members of the public who have made written request to be consulted on the project. A request by the applicant for early consultation shall be made not later than 30 days after the determination required by Section 21080.1 with respect to the project. The local lead agency may charge and collect from the applicant a fee not to exceed the actual costs of the consultations.

A responsible agency or other public agency shall only make substantive comments regarding those activities involved in a project which are within an area of expertise of the agency or which are required to be carried out or approved by the agency. Those comments shall be supported by specific documentation.

SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 908

An act to amend Sections 66799.22 and 66799.40 of the Government Code, and to add Sections 41341 and 41360 to the Public Resources Code relating to hazardous waste

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66799.22 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66799.22. The board may do all of the following:

(a) Enter into loan guarantee agreements with owners or operators of solid waste landfills operating solid waste disposal facilities on or after January 1, 1988, pursuant to a solid waste facilities permit issued pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 66796.30) of Chapter 3.

(b) Enter into contracts which the board determines to be necessary to carry out its powers and duties pursuant to this chapter.

(c) Provide grants, pursuant to Section 66799.40, to cities, counties, or local agencies with responsibility for waste management for local programs to help prevent the disposal of hazardous wastes at solid waste disposal sites, including, but not limited to, programs to manage household hazardous waste These grants shall not exceed, in any one fiscal year, more than 20 percent of the total revenues deposited, or anticipated to be deposited, in the account during the same fiscal year.

(d) Fix reasonable fees and charges for loan guarantees and revise, from time-to-time, these fees and charges.

SEC. 2. Section 66799.40 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66799.40. The board may make grants of funds in the account to a city, county, or local agency with responsibility for waste management for any of the following purposes related to the safe operation, closure, and maintenance of solid waste landfills operating on or after January 1, 1988:

(a) Support for establishing collection systems to ensure that hazardous waste, including, but not limited to, household hazardous waste, is not improperly disposed of in a solid waste landfill.

(b) Payment of the local costs of waste control and enforcement programs that help prevent the disposal of hazardous wastes in solid waste landfills.

(c) If a city, county, or local agency with responsibility for waste management has already funded the type of program described in subdivision (a) or (b) locally, the board shall award a minimum grant of funds from the account to reimburse that city, county, or local agency for the actual cost of the local program in that fiscal year or 20 percent of the fees generated or anticipated to be generated in the city, county, or local agency into the account during the same fiscal year, whichever is less. This subdivision does not limit the authority of the board to award grants of funds from the account in excess of, or in addition to, the minimum grant amounts set forth in this subdivision, in accordance with the grant criteria established pursuant to Section 66799.23.

SEC. 3. Section 41341 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

41341. The board may do all of the following:

(a) Enter into loan guarantee agreements with owners or operators of solid waste landfills operating solid waste disposal facilities on or after January 1, 1988, pursuant to a solid waste facilities permit issued pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 40900) of Chapter 8.

(b) Enter into contracts which the board determines to be necessary to carry out its powers and duties pursuant to this chapter.

(c) Provide grants, pursuant to Section 41360 to cities, counties, or local agencies with responsibility for waste management, for local programs to help prevent the disposal of hazardous wastes at solid waste disposal sites, including, but not limited to, programs to manage household hazardous waste. These grants shall not exceed in any one fiscal year, more than 20 percent of the total revenues deposited, or anticipated to be deposited, in the account during the same fiscal year.

(d) Fix reasonable fees and charges for loan guarantees and revise, from time to time, these fees and charges.

SEC. 4. Section 41360 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

41360. The board may make grants of funds in the account to a city, county, or local agency with responsibility for waste management, for any of the following purposes related to the safe operation, closure, and maintenance of solid waste landfills operating on or after January 1, 1988:

(a) Support for establishing collection systems to ensure that hazardous waste, including, but not limited to, household hazardous waste, is not improperly disposed of in a solid waste landfill.

(b) Payment of the local costs of waste control and enforcement programs that help prevent the disposal of hazardous wastes in solid waste landfills.

(c) If a city, county, or local agency with responsibility for waste management has already funded the type of program described in subdivision (a) or (b) locally, the board shall award a minimum grant of funds from the account to reimburse that city, county, or local agency for the actual cost of the local program in that fiscal year or 20 percent of the fees generated or anticipated to be generated in the city, county, or local agency into the account during the same fiscal year, whichever is less. This subdivision does not limit the authority of the board to award grants of funds from the account in excess of, or in addition to, the minimum grant amounts set forth in this subdivision, in accordance with the grant criteria established pursuant to Section 41342.

SEC. 5. Sections 3 and 4 of this act shall become operative only if AB 939 is enacted and becomes operative January 1, 1990, in which case Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 909

An act to add Sections 13188.1, 13188.2, and 13188.3 to, and to repeal Sections 13159.6 and 13199.5 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to the State Fire Marshal.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13159.6 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 13188.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

13188.1. The State Fire Marshal may, upon a preliminary finding of a violation of the provisions of this part, suspend any license or certificate of registration for a period not exceeding 30 days pending investigation of any violation of the provisions of this part.

SEC. 3. Section 13188.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

13188.2. Any applicant who has been denied a license or certificate of registration or who has had a license or certificate of registration suspended, shall be entitled to a hearing in accordance with the provisions of this part.

SEC. 4. Section 13188.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

13188.3. Except where otherwise provided in this part, all hearings under this part shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 5. Section 13199.5 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 910

An act to amend Section 15 of, and to add Sections 26.2, 26.3, and 26.4 to, the Castaic Lake Water Agency Law (Chapter 28 of the Statutes of 1962, First Extraordinary Session), relating to the Castaic Lake Water Agency.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15 of the Castaic Lake Water Agency Law (Chapter 28 of the Statutes of 1962, First Extraordinary Session) is amended to read:

Sec. 15. The agency may acquire water and water rights, including, but not limited to, water from the State of California under the State Water Resources Development System, and provide, sell, and deliver that water at wholesale only, for municipal, industrial, domestic, and other purposes, through a transmission system to be acquired or constructed by the agency. To carry out these purposes, the agency shall have the following powers:

(a) To have perpetual succession

(b) To sue and be sued, except as otherwise provided herein or by law, in all actions and proceedings in all courts and tribunals of competent jurisdiction.

(c) To adopt a seal and alter it at pleasure.

(d) To take by grant, purchase, gift, devise, or lease, hold, use, enjoy, and to lease or dispose of real and personal property of every kind, within or without the agency.

(e) To acquire, or contract to acquire, waterworks or a waterworks system, water rights, waters, lands, and rights and privileges and to construct, complete, extend, add to, repair, maintain, improve, and operate waterworks or a waterworks system, conduits, pipelines, reservoirs, works, machinery, and other property or facilities useful or necessary to import, store, treat, reclaim, conserve, convey, or supply water for the benefit and use of residents and owners of property within the agency, and otherwise for authorized agency purposes.

(f) To lease of and from any person, firm, public or private corporation, or public agency, with the privilege of purchasing or otherwise, all or any part of water storage, transportation or distribution facilities, existing waterworks or a waterworks system, and to carry on and conduct waterworks or a waterworks system; also to sell for use within the area of the agency at wholesale only water of the agency to cities, to other public corporations and public agencies, and to water corporations as defined in the Public Utilities Code, and to any mutual water companies engaged in distributing water to its members for use, without any preference, and the agency may, whenever the board finds that there is a surplus of water above that which may be required by those consumers within the agency, sell or otherwise dispose of that surplus water to any persons, firms, public or private corporations, public agencies, or other consumers.

(g) To exercise the right of eminent domain to take any property necessary or desirable for any facility reasonably required for the importation and transmission of water in the area of the agency. The agency in exercising that power, shall in addition to the damage for the taking, injury, or destruction of property, also pay the cost of removal, reconstruction, or relocation of any structure, railways, mains, pipes, conduits, wires, cables or poles of any public utility which is required to be removed to a new location. No action in eminent domain to acquire property outside the boundaries of the agency shall be commenced unless the board of supervisors of each affected county has consented to the acquisition by resolution.

(h) To issue bonds, borrow money, and incur indebtedness as authorized by law or in this act provided; also to refund (by the issuance of the same obligations following the same procedure) or retire any indebtedness or lien that may exist against the agency or property thereof.

(i) To issue negotiable promissory notes bearing interest at a rate not exceeding the maximum rate per annum authorized by Section 27; provided, however, that the notes shall be general obligations of the agency payable from revenues and taxes in the same manner as bonds of the agency; and provided further that the maturity shall not be later than five years from the date thereof and that the total aggregate amount of the notes outstanding at any one time may be at least equal to seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) but shall not otherwise exceed the lesser of either one million dollars ($1,000,000) or 2 percent of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in the agency, or, if that assessed valuation is not obtainable, 2 percent of the county auditor's estimate of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in the agency evidenced by his or her certificate.

(j) To cause taxes to be levied, in the manner hereinafter provided, for the purpose of paying any obligation of the agency, including its formation expenses and any warrants issued therefor.

(k) To restrict the use of agency water during any emergency caused by drought, or other threatened or existing water shortage, and to prohibit the wastage of agency water or the use of agency water during those periods, for any purpose other than household uses or such other restricted uses as may be determined to be necessary by the agency; to prohibit the use of agency water during those periods for specified uses which the agency may from time to time find to be nonessential.

(l) To prescribe and define by ordinance, the restrictions, prohibitions, and exclusions referred to in subdivision (k). Every ordinance relating to the matters referred to in this subdivision shall be in full force and effect forthwith upon adoption, but shall be published once in full within 10 days after adoption in a newspaper of general circulation published in the agency or, if no such newspaper is published in the agency, in a newspaper of general circulation distributed in the agency.

(m) To make contracts, to employ labor, and do all acts necessary for the full exercise of the foregoing powers.

(n) To provide by ordinance of its board of directors for the pensioning of employees and the creation of a special fund for the purpose of paying those pensions, and the accumulation of contributions to the fund from the revenues of the agency, the wages of employees, voluntary contributions, gifts, donations, or any source of revenue not inconsistent with the general powers of the board, and to contract with any insurance corporation or any other insurance carrier for the maintenance of a service covering the pension of the employees, and to provide in the ordinance for the terms and conditions under which the pensions shall be awarded, and for the time and extent of service of employees before the pensions shall be available to them.

(o) To join with one or more public agencies, private corporations, or other persons for the purpose of carrying out any of the powers of the agency, and for that purpose to contract with such other public agencies or private corporations or persons for the purpose of financing those acquisitions, constructions, and operations. The contracts may provide for contributions to be made by each party thereto and for the division and apportionment of the expenses of the acquisitions and operations, and the division and apportionment of the benefits, the services and products therefrom, and may provide for any agency to effect the acquisitions and to carry on the operations, and shall provide in the powers and methods of procedure for the agency the method by which the agency may contract. The contracts with other public agencies or private corporations or persons may contain such other and further covenants and agreements as may be necessary or convenient to accomplish the purposes thereof. Particularly, but not exclusively, the agency may contract with the State of California for delivery of water under the State Water Resources Development System. The term "public agency," as used in this subdivision, shall be deemed to mean and include the United States of America or any department or agency thereof, the State of California or any department or agency thereof, a county, city, public corporation, the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California, or other public district of this state. The term "private corporation," as used in this subdivision, shall be deemed to mean and include any private corporation organized under the laws of the United States of America or of this or any other state thereof. Contracts mentioned herein include those made with the United States, under the Federal Reclamation Act of June 17, 1902, and all acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto or any other act of Congress heretofore or hereafter enacted permitting cooperation Any such contract with the United States of America or any department or agency thereof, or with any private corporation organized under the laws of the United States of America, by which the agency, or an improvement district thereof, incurs an indebtedness or liability exceeding in any year the income and revenue for that year, shall not be executed without the assent of two-thirds of the qualified electors of the agency, or an improvement district thereof, voting at a special election to be held for that purpose, the election to be called and held, so far as practicable, in the same manner as bond elections for the agency. The exact form of the contract need not be available at the time of the special election, but the (1) purpose of the contract; (2) maximum amount of the indebtedness created thereby; (3) maximum term of repayment, and (4) maximum interest rate on the indebtedness shall be known and included in the proposition or measure submitted to the qualified electors of the agency, or an improvement district thereof, at the special election.

(p) To issue bonds under Section 28 for the purpose of providing money required to be paid by this agency to the State of California or any agency thereof under any contract which shall be made with it, or as all or part of the terms and conditions under which the corporate area of the agency may be annexed to and become a part of any metropolitan water district organized under the Metropolitan Water District Act. The amount of the bonds may include expenses of all proceedings for the authorization, issuance, and sale of the bonds.

(q) To disseminate information concerning the rights, properties, and activities of the agency.

(r) To construct, operate, and maintain works to develop hydroelectric energy, for use by the agency in the operation of its works or as a means of assisting in financing the construction, operation, and maintenance of its projects for the control, conservation, diversion, and transmission of water and to enter into contracts for the sale of the energy for a term not to exceed 100 years. The energy may be marketed only at wholesale to any public agency or private entity, or both, or the federal or state government.

(s) To contract, in connection with the construction and operation of the works of the agency, for the sale of the right to use falling water for electric energy purposes with any public agency or private entity engaged in the retail distribution of electric energy, for a term not to exceed 100 years.

(t) To develop, treat, distribute, and reclaim water, and to store and recover water from groundwater basins located outside the boundaries of the agency and, in exercising that power, to make and enter into contracts allowing that storage and recovery.

SEC. 2. Section 26.2 is added to the Castaic Lake Water Agency Law (Chapter 28 of the Statutes of 1962, First Extraordinary Session), to read:

Sec. 26.2. The agency may prescribe, by rules and regulations adopted by resolution or ordinance, that, when any facility capacity fees adopted pursuant to Section 26.1 and Sections 29.1 to 29.5, inclusive, become due and are unpaid under and in accordance with the rules and regulations concerning those fees, the fees may be secured and collected in accordance with the procedures specified in Sections 26.3 and 26.4. The security and collection procedures set forth pursuant to Sections 26.3 and 26.4 shall only be operative with respect to facility capacity fees first becoming delinquent on or after January 1, 1990.

SEC. 3. Section 26.3 is added to the Castaic Lake Water Agency Law (Chapter 28 of the Statutes of 1962, First Extraordinary Session), to read:

Sec. 26.3. The amount of any delinquent and unpaid facility capacity fees shall be collected with the annual taxes next levied upon the property which is subject to a proposed changed use which resulted in the imposition of a facility capacity fee, and that amount constitutes a lien on that property as of the same time, and in the same manner, as the tax lien securing annual property taxes. However, if, during the year preceding the date on which the first installment of real property taxes which evidence the charges appears on the roll, any real property to which the lien would attach has been transferred or conveyed to a bona fide purchaser for value, or if a lien of a bona fide encumbrancer for value has been created and attaches thereto, the lien which would otherwise be imposed by this section shall not be added to and become part of the annual assessment, nor shall it attach to the real property. Any county in which the agency is located shall deduct from the facility capacity fees collected by it an amount sufficient to compensate the county for costs incurred in collecting the delinquent and unpaid facility capacity fees. The amount of that compensation shall be fixed by agreement between the board of supervisors of the county and the board of directors of the agency.

SEC. 4. Section 26.4 is added to the Castaic Lake Water Agency Law (Chapter 28 of the Statutes of 1962, First Extraordinary Session), to read:

Sec. 26.4. If delinquent and unpaid facility capacity fees are determined to exist by the agency, the amount of those fees may, in the discretion of the agency, be secured at any time by filing for record in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the real property is located, a certificate specifying the amount of those fees and the name and address of the person liable therefor.

From the time of recordation of the certificate, the amount required to be paid, together with interest and penalties, constitutes a lien upon all real property in the county owned by the person or later acquired before the lien expires. The lien shall have the force, priority, and effect of a judgment lien and shall continue for 10 years from the date of the filing of the certificate unless sooner released or otherwise discharged. The lien may, within 10 years from the filing of the certificate, or within 10 years from the date of the last extension of the lien in the manner provided in this section, be extended by filing for record a new certificate in the office of the county recorder of any county. From the time of that filing, the lien shall be extended with respect to the real property in that county for 10 additional years unless sooner released or otherwise discharged.

SEC. 5. Section 26.5 is added to the Castaic Lake Water Agency Law (Chapter 28 of the Statutes of 1962, First Extraordinary Session), to read·

26.5. If the real property or any portion thereof is within the boundaries of the agency and subject to the final map, a notice shall be placed on the final map specifically referencing the fact that the real property is subject to facility capacity fees, as described in Section 26.1.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act akes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 911

An act to add Section 1569.67 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to residential care facilities for the elderly.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1569.67 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1569.67. (a) The department shall develop a written notice for the purpose of informing any individual who requests information regarding admission to a residential care facility for the elderly that the department's licensing analysts' inspection reports on all residential care facilities for the elderly are on file and are available for public review in the department's community care licensing district office nearest to each residential care facility for the elderly.

(b) The department shall adopt regulations requiring that each residential care facility provide this notice, as well as the address of the nearest departmental community care licensing district office, to any individual who requests information regarding admission to a residential care facility for the elderly and to any resident of the facility.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 912

An act to add Section 214.14 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to property taxation

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares:

(a) It is the public policy of this state to encourage the operation of museums for public and charitable purposes, and for the cultural and educational benefits museums provide.

(b) It has consistently been the intent of the Legislature, and so interpreted by the courts, that property owned and operated for charitable purposes of a museum by a tax exempt organization qualifies for the welfare exemption under Section 214 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(c) It has never been the intent of the Legislature to disqualify from the welfare exemption those properties used for activities or facilities reasonably necessary and incidental to the charitable purposes of museums, including restaurants, cafes, bars, or other food service facilities, and bookstore/giftshops selling primarily educational materials, for the convenience of museum visitors and staff.

(d) Rising costs of administration and operation, dwindling federal and state funding, and declining tax incentives for private donations have made it extremely difficult for museums to secure adequate funding.

(e) It is essential to maintain and enhance the three main funding avenues currently available to museums: tax exemptions, private contributions, and earned income.

(f) To require museums to pay property taxes, in whole or in part, on the basis of traditional activities incidental to or reasonably necessary for the advancement of museum purposes, would seriously hamper the ability of museums to function effectively and would cause them to divert funds that otherwise would be available to provide greater cultural, historical, and educational benefits to the entire state.

(g) The provisions of this act serve the public purpose of encouraging museum operations and thereby advance cultural and educational progress in furtherance of declared state policy.

SEC. 2. Section 214.14 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

214.14. Property used exclusively for charitable purposes of museums and owned and operated by a religious, hospital, scientific, or charitable fund, foundation, or corporation which meets all the requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 214 shall be deemed to be within the exemption provided by Sections 4 and 5 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 214. For purposes of this section:

(a) Property used exclusively for the charitable purposes of museums shall include property used for activities and facilities related to the primary charitable purposes of museums and reasonably necessary and incidental to those purposes.

(b) Property used exclusively for charitable purposes of museums shall not be required to be indispensable to the primary charitable purposes of museums.

(c) Property used excusively for charitable purposes of museums shall not include property used for activities and facilities not related to the primary charitable purposes of museums and not reasonable necessary or incidental to those purposes.

SEC. 3. The addition of this section made at the 1989–90 Regular Session of the Legislature does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, existing law.

SEC. 4. Nothing in this act shall be construed as an admission on the part of the State Board of Equalization or an expression of opinion by the Legislature that the interpretations or applications of the welfare exemption by the board for prior years were in any way incorrect or invalid.

CHAPTER 913

An act to amend Section 36 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Sections 206, 300, 307.5, 309, 353, 358.1, 361.3, 361.5, 364, 366, 366.21, 366.22, 366.23, 366.25, 366.26, 366.3, and 16503 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and to amend Section 52 of Chapter 1485 of the Statutes of 1987, relating to actions and proceedings.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 36 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

36. (a) A civil case shall be entitled to preference upon the motion of any party to the action who has reached the age of 70 years unless the court finds that the party does not have a substantial interest in the case as a whole

(b) A civil case to recover damages for wrongful death or personal injury shall be entitled to preference upon the motion of any party to the action who is under the age of 14 years unless the court finds that the party does not have a substantial interest in the case as a whole. A civil case subject to subdivision (a) shall be given preference over a case subject to this subdivision

(c) Unless the court otherwise orders, notice of a motion for preference shall be served with the memorandum to set or the at-issue memorandum by the party serving the memorandum, or 10 days after such service by any other party; or thereafter during the pendency of the action upon the application of a party who reaches the age of 70 years.

(d) In its discretion, the court may also grant a motion for preference served with the memorandum to set or the at-issue memorandum and accompanied by clear and convincing medical documentation which concludes that one of the parties suffers from an illness or condition raising substantial medical doubt of survival of that party beyond six months, and which satisfies the court that the interests of justice will be served by granting such preference.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court may in its discretion grant a motion for preference served with the memorandum to set or the at-issue memorandum and accompanied by a showing of cause which satisfies the court that the interests of justice will be served by granting this preference.

(f) Upon the granting of such a motion for preference, the clerk shall set the case for trial not more than 120 days from that date and there shall be no continuance beyond 120 days from the granting of the motion for preference except for physical disability of a party or a party's attorney, or upon a showing of good cause stated in the record. No such continuance shall be for more than 15 days, nor shall more than one such continuance be granted to any party.

(g) Upon the granting of a motion for preference pursuant to subdivision (b), a party in an action based upon a health provider's alleged professional negligence, as defined in Section 364, shall receive a trial date not sooner than six months and not later than nine months from the date that the motion is granted.

SEC. 2. Section 206 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

206. Persons taken into custody and persons alleged to be within the description of Section 300, or persons adjudged to be such and made dependent children of the court pursuant to this chapter solely upon that ground, shall be provided by the board of supervisors with separate facilities segregated from persons either alleged or adjudged to come within the description of Section 601 or 602 except as provided in Section 16514. Separate segregated facilities may be provided in the juvenile hall or elsewhere.

The facilities required by this section shall, with regard to minors alleged or adjudged to come within Section 300, be nonsecure.

For the purposes of this section, the term "secure facility" means a facility which is designed and operated so as to insure that all entrances to, and exits from, the facility are under the exclusive control of the staff of the facility, whether or not the person being detained has freedom of movement within the perimeters of the facility, or which relies on locked rooms and buildings, fences, or physical restraints in order to control behavior of its residents. The term "nonsecure facility" means a facility that is not characterized by the use of physically restricting construction, hardware, and procedures and which provides its residents access to the surrounding community with minimal supervision. A facility shall not be deemed secure due solely to any of the following conditions: (1) the existence within the facility of a small room for the protection of individual residents from themselves or others; (2) the adoption of regulations establishing reasonable hours for residents to come and go from the facility based upon a sensible and fair balance between allowing residents free access to the community and providing the staff with sufficient authority to maintain order, limit unreasonable actions by residents, and to ensure that minors placed in their care do not come and go at all hours of the day and night or absent themselves at will for days at a time; and (3) staff control over ingress and egress no greater than that exercised by a prudent parent. The State Department of Social Services may adopt regulations governing the use of small rooms pursuant to this section.

No minor described in this section may be held in temporary custody in any building that contains a jail or lockup for the confinement of adults, unless, while in the building, the minor is under continuous supervision and is not permitted to come into or remain in contact with adults in custody in the building. In addition, no minor who is alleged to be within the description of Section 300 may be held in temporary custody in a building that contains a jail or lockup for the confinement of adults, unless the minor is under the direct and continuous supervision of a peace officer or other child protective agency worker, as specified in Section 11165.9 of the Penal Code, until temporary custody and detention of the minor is assumed pursuant to Section 309. However, if a child protective agency worker is not available to supervise the minor as certified by the law enforcement agency which has custody of the minor, a trained volunteer may be directed to supervise the minor. The volunteer shall be trained and function under the auspices of the agency which utilizes the volunteer. The minor may not remain under the supervision of the volunteer for more than three hours. A county which elects to utilize trained volunteers for the temporary supervision of minors shall adopt guidelines for the training of the volunteers which guidelines shall be approved by the State Department of Social Services. Each county which elects to utilize trained volunteers for the temporary supervision of minors shall report annually to the department on the number of volunteers utilized, the number of minors under their supervision, and the circumstances under which volunteers were utilized.

No record of the detention of such a person shall be made or kept by any law enforcement agency or the Department of Justice as a record of arrest.

SEC. 3. Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Section 4 of Chapter 1485 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

300. Any minor who comes within any of the following descriptions is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court which may adjudge that person to be a dependent child of the court:

(a) The minor has suffered, or there is a substantial risk that the minor will suffer, serious physical harm inflicted nonaccidentally upon the minor by the minor's parent or guardian. For the purposes of this subdivision, a court may find there is a substantial risk of serious future injury based on the manner in which a less serious injury was inflicted, a history of repeated inflictions of injuries on the minor or the minor's siblings, or a combination of these and other actions by the parent or guardian which indicate the child is at risk of serious physical harm. For purposes of this subdivision, "serious physical harm" does not include reasonable and age appropriate spanking to the buttocks where there is no evidence of serious physical injury.

(b) The minor has suffered, or there is a substantial risk that the minor will suffer, serious physical harm or illness, as a result of the failure or inability of his or her parent or guardian to adequately supervise or protect the minor, or the willful or negligent failure of the minor's parent or guardian to adequately supervise or protect the minor from the conduct of the custodian with whom the minor has been left, or by the willful or negligent failure of the parent or guardian to provide the minor with adequate food, clothing, shelter, or medical treatment, or by the inability of the parent or guardian to provide regular care for the minor due to the parent's or guardian's mental illness, developmental disability, or substance abuse. No minor shall be found to be a person described by this subdivision solely due to the lack of an emergency shelter for the family. Whenever it is alleged that a minor comes within the jursidiction of the court on the basis of the parent's or guardian's willful failure to provide adequate medical treatment or specific decision to provide spiritual treatment through prayer, the court shall give deference to the parent's or guardian's medical treatment, nontreatment, or spiritual treatment through prayer alone in accordance with the tenets and practices of a recognized church or religious denomination, by an accredited practitioner thereof, and shall not assume jurisdiction unless necessary to protect the minor from suffering serious physical harm or illness. In making its determination, the court shall consider (1) the nature of the treatment proposed by the parent or guardian (2) the risks to the minor posed by the course of treatment or nontreatment proposed by the parent or guardian (3) the risk, if any, of the course of treatment being proposed by the petitioning agency, and (4) the likely success of the courses of treatment or nontreatment proposed by the parent or guardian and agency. The minor shall continue to be a dependent child pursuant to this subdivision only so long as is necessary to protect the minor from risk of suffering serious physical harm or illness.

(c) The minor is suffering serious emotional damage, or is at substantial risk of suffering serious emotional damage, evidenced by severe anxiety, depression, withdrawal, or untoward aggressive behavior toward self or others, as a result of the conduct of the parent or guardian or who has no parent or guardian capable of providing appropriate care. No minor shall be found to be a person described by this subdivision if the willful failure of the parent or guardian to provide adequate mental health treatment is based on a sincerely held religious belief and if a less intrusive judicial intervention is available.

(d) The minor has been sexually abused, or there is a substantial risk that the minor will be sexually abused, as defined in Section 11165.1 of the Penal Code, by his or her parent or guardian or a member of his or her household, or the parent or guardian has failed to adequately protect the minor from sexual abuse when the parent or guardian knew or reasonably should have known that the minor was in danger of sexual abuse.

(e) The minor is under the age of five and has suffered severe physical abuse by a parent, or by any person known by the parent, if the parent knew or reasonably should have known that the person was physically abusing the minor. For the purposes of this subdivision, "severe physical abuse" means any of the following: any single act of abuse which causes physical trauma of sufficient severity that, if left untreated, would cause permanent physical disfigurement, permanent physical disability, or death; any single act of sexual abuse which causes significant bleeding, deep bruising, or significant external or internal swelling; or more than one act of physical abuse, each of which causes bleeding, deep bruising, significant external or internal swelling, bone fracture, or unconsciousness. A minor may not be removed from the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian on the basis of a finding of severe physical abuse unless the probation officer has made an allegation of severe physical abuse pursuant to Section 332.

(f) The minor's parent or guardian has been convicted of causing the death of another child through abuse or neglect.

(g) The minor has been left without any provision for support; the minor's parent has been incarcerated or institutionalized and cannot arrange for the care of the minor; or a relative or other adult custodian with whom the child resides or has been left is unwilling or unable to provide care or support for the child, the whereabouts of the parent is unknown, and reasonable efforts to locate the parent have been unsuccessful.

(h) The minor has been freed for adoption from one or both parents for 12 months by either relinquishment or termination of parental rights or an adoption petition has not been granted.

(i) The minor has been subjected to an act or acts of cruelty by the parent or guardian or a member of his or her household, or the parent or guardian has failed to adequately protect the minor from an act or acts of cruelty when the parent or guardian knew or reasonably should have known that the minor was in danger of being subjected to an act or acts of cruelty.

(j) The minor's sibling has been abused or neglected, as defined in subdivision (a), (b), (d), (e), or (i), and there is a substantial risk that the minor will be abused or neglected, as defined in those subdivisions. The court shall consider the circumstances surrounding the abuse or neglect of the sibling, the age and gender of each child, the nature of the abuse or neglect of the sibling, the mental condition of the parent or guardian, and any other factors the court considers probative in determining whether there is a substantial risk to the minor.

It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to provide maximum protection for children who are currently being physically, sexually, or emotionally abused, being neglected, or being exploited, and to protect children who are at risk of that harm. This protection includes provision of a full array of social and health services to help the child and family and to prevent reabuse of children. That protection shall focus on the preservation of the family whenever possible. Nothing in this section is intended to disrupt the family unnecessarily or to intrude inappropriately into family life, to prohibit the use of reasonable methods of parental discipline, or to prescribe a particular method of parenting. Further, nothing in this section is intended to limit the offering of voluntary services to those families in need of assistance but who do not come within the descriptions of this section. To the extent that savings accrue to the state from child welfare services funding obtained as a result of the enactment of the act that enacted this section, those savings shall be used to promote services which support family maintenance and family reunification plans, such as client transportation, out-of-home respite care, parenting training, and the provision of temporary or emergency in-home caretakers and persons teaching and demonstrating homemaking skills. The Legislature further declares that a physical disability, such as blindness or deafness, is no bar to the raising of happy and well-adjusted children and that a court's determination pursuant to this section shall center upon whether a parent's disability prevents him or her from exercising care and control.

As used in this section "guardian" means the legal guardian of the child.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Section 4.5 of Chapter 1485 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

300. Any minor who comes within any of the following descriptions is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court which may adjudge that person to be a dependent child of the court:

(a) The minor has suffered, or there is a substantial risk that the minor will suffer, serious physical harm inflicted nonaccidentally upon the minor by the minor's parent or guardian. For the purposes of this subdivision, a court may find there is a substantial risk of serious future injury based on the manner in which a less serious injury was inflicted, a history of repeated inflictions of injuries on the minor or the minor's siblings, or a combination of these and other actions by the parent or guardian which indicate the child is at risk of serious physical harm. For purposes of this subdivision, "serious physical harm" does not include reasonable and age appropriate spanking to the buttocks where there is no evidence of serious physical injury.

(b) The minor has suffered, or there is a substantial risk that the minor will suffer, serious physical harm or illness, as a result of the failure of his or her parent or guardian to adequately supervise or protect the minor, or the willful or negligent failure of the minor's parent or guardian to adequately supervise or protect the minor from the conduct of the custodian with whom the minor has been left, or by the willful or negligent failure of the parent or guardian to provide the minor with adequate food, clothing, shelter, or medical treatment, or by the inability of the parent or guardian to provide regular care for the minor due to the parent's or guardian's mental illness, developmental disability, or substance abuse. No minor shall be found to be a person described by this subdivision solely due to the lack of an emergency shelter for the family. Whenever it is alleged that a minor comes within the jursidiction of the court on the basis of the parent's or guardian's willful failure to provide adequate medical treatment or specific decision to provide spiritual treatment through prayer, the court shall give deference to the parent's or guardian's medical treatment, nontreatment, or spiritual treatment through prayer alone in accordance with the tenets and practices of a recognized church or religious denomination by an accredited practitioner thereof and shall not assume jurisdiction unless necessary to protect the minor from suffering serious physical harm or illness. In making its determination, the court shall consider (1) the nature of the treatment or nontreatment proposed by the parent or guardian (2) the risks to the minor posed by the course of treatment or nontreatment proposed by the parent or guardian (3) the risk, if any, of the course of treatment being proposed by the petitioning agency, and (4) the likely success of the courses of treatment or nontreatment proposed by the parent or guardian and agency. The minor shall continue to be a dependent child pursuant to this subdivision only so long as is necessary to protect the minor from risk of suffering serious physical harm or illness.

(c) The minor is suffering serious emotional damage, or is at substantial risk of suffering serious emotional damage, evidenced by severe anxiety, depression, or withdrawal, untoward aggressive behavior toward self or others, as a result of the conduct of the parent or guardian. No minor shall be found to be a person described by this subdivision if the willful failure of the parent or guardian to provide adequate mental health treatment is based on a sincerely held religious belief and if a less intrusive judicial intervention is available.

(d) The minor has been sexually abused, or there is a substantial risk that the minor will be sexually abused, as defined in Section 11165.1 of the Penal Code, by his or her parent or guardian or a member of his or her household, or the parent or guardian has failed to adequately protect the minor from sexual abuse when the parent or guardian knew or reasonably should have known that the minor was in danger of sexual abuse.

(e) The minor is under the age of five and has suffered severe physical abuse by a parent, or by any person known by the parent, if the parent knew or reasonably should have known that the person was physically abusing the minor. For the purposes of this subdivision, "severe physical abuse" means any of the following: any single act of abuse which causes physical trauma of sufficient severity that, if left untreated, would cause permanent physical disfigurement, permanent physical disability, or death; any single act of sexual abuse which causes significant bleeding, deep bruising, or significant external or internal swelling; or more than one act of physical abuse, each of which causes bleeding, deep bruising, significant external or internal swelling, bone fracture, or unconsciousness. A minor may not be removed from the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian on the basis of a finding of severe physical abuse unless the probation officer has made an allegation of severe physical abuse pursuant to Section 332.

(f) The minor's parent or guardian has been convicted of causing the death of another child through abuse or neglect.

(g) The minor has been left without any provision for support; the minor's parent has been incarcerated or institutionalized and cannot arrange for the care of the minor; or a relative or other adult custodian with whom the child resides or has been left is unwilling or unable to provide care or support for the child, the whereabouts of the parent is unknown, and reasonable efforts to locate the parent have been unsuccessful.

(h) The minor has been freed for adoption from one or both parents for 12 months by either relinquishment or termination of parental rights or an adoption petition has not been granted.

(i) The minor has been subjected to an act or acts of cruelty by the parent or guardian or a member of his or her household, or the parent or guardian has failed to adequately protect the minor from an act or acts of cruelty when the parent or guardian knew or reasonably should have known that the minor was in danger of being subjected to an act or acts of cruelty.

(j) The minor's sibling has been abused or neglected, as defined in subdivision (a), (b), (d), (e), or (i), and there is a substantial risk that the minor will be abused or neglected, as defined in those subdivisions. The court shall consider the circumstances surrounding the abuse or neglect of the sibling, the age and gender of each child, the nature of the abuse or neglect of the sibling, the mental condition of the parent or guardian, and any other factors the court considers probative in determining whether there is a substantial risk to the minor.

It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to provide maximum protection for children who are currently being physically, sexually, or emotionally abused, being neglected, or being exploited, and to protect children who are at risk of that harm. This protection includes provision of a full array of social and health services to help the child and family and to prevent reabuse of children. That protection shall focus on the preservation of the family whenever possible. Nothing in this section is intended to disrupt the family unnecessarily or to intrude inappropriately into family life, to prohibit the use of reasonable methods of parental discipline, or to prescribe a particular method of parenting. Further, nothing in this section is intended to limit the offering of voluntary services to those families in need of assistance but who do not come within the descriptions of this section. To the extent that savings accrue to the state from child welfare services funding obtained as a result of the enactment of the act that enacted this section, those savings shall be used to promote services which support family maintenance and family reunification plans such as client transportation, out-of-home respite care, parenting training, and the provision of temporary or emergency in-home caretakers and persons teaching and demonstrating homemaking skills. The Legislature further declares that a physical disability, such as blindness or deafness, is no bar to the raising of happy and well-adjusted children and that a court's determination pursuant to this section shall center upon whether a parent's disability prevents him or her from exercising care and control.

As used in this section, "guardian" means the legal guardian of the child.

SEC. 5. Section 307.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

307.5 Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 307, an officer who takes a minor suspected of being a person described in Section 300 into temporary custody pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 305 may, in a case where he or she deems that it is in the best interest of the minor and the public, take the minor to a community service program for abused or neglected children. Organizations or programs receiving referrals pursuant to this section shall have a contract or an agreement with the county to provide shelter care or counseling. Employees of a program receiving referrals pursuant to this section are "child care custodians" for the purpose of the requirements of Section 11165.7 of the Penal Code. The receiving organization shall take immediate steps to notify the minor's parent, guardian, or a responsible relative of the place to which the minor was taken.

SEC. 6. Section 309 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

309. (a) Upon delivery to the probation officer of a minor who has been taken into temporary custody under this article, the probation officer shall immediately investigate the circumstances of the minor and the facts surrounding the minor's being taken into custody and attempt to maintain the minor with the minor's family through the provision of services. The probation officer shall immediately release the minor to the custody of the minor's parent, guardian, or responsible relative unless one or more of the following conditions exist:

(1) The minor has no parent, guardian, or responsible relative; or the minor's parent, guardian, or responsible relative is not willing to provide care for the minor.

(2) Continued detention of the minor is a matter of immediate and urgent necessity for the protection of the minor and there are no reasonable means by which the minor can be protected in his or her home or the home of a responsible relative.

(3) There is substantial evidence that a parent, guardian, or custodian of the minor is likely to flee the jurisdiction of the court.

(4) The minor has left a placement in which he or she was placed by the juvenile court.

(b) In any case in which there is reasonable cause for believing that a minor who is under the care of a physician or surgeon or a hospital, clinic, or other medical facility and cannot be immediately moved is a person described in Section 300, the minor shall be deemed to have been taken into temporary custody and delivered to the probation officer for the purposes of this chapter while the minor is at the office of the physician or surgeon or the medical facility.

(c) If the minor is not released to his or her parent or guardian, the minor shall be deemed detained for purposes of this chapter.

SEC. 7. Section 353 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

353. At the beginning of the hearing on a petition filed pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 325) of this chapter, the judge or clerk shall first read the petition to those present. Upon request of any parent, guardian, or adult relative, counsel for the minor, or the minor, if he or she is present, the judge shall explain any term of allegation contained therein and the nature of the hearing, its procedures, and possible consequences. The judge shall ascertain whether the parent, guardian, or adult relative and, when required by Section 317, the minor have been informed of their right to be represented by counsel, and if not, the judge shall advise those persons, if present, of the right to have counsel present and where applicable, of the right to appointed counsel. If such a person is unable to afford counsel and desires to be represented by counsel, the court shall appoint counsel in accordance with Section 317. The court shall continue the hearing for not to exceed seven days, as necessary to make an appointment of counsel, or to enable counsel to acquaint himself or herself with the case, or to determine whether the parent or guardian or adult relative is unable to afford counsel at his or her own expense, and shall continue the hearing as necessary to provide reasonable opportunity for the minor and the parent or guardian or adult relative to prepare for the hearing.

SEC. 8. Section 358.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

358.1. Each social study or evaluation made by a probation officer or child advocate appointed by the court, required to be received in evidence pursuant to Section 358 shall include, but not be limited to, a factual discussion of each of the following subjects:

(a) Whether the county welfare department or probation officer has considered child protective services, as defined in Chapter 5

(commencing with Section 16500) of Part 4 of Division 9, as a possible solution to the problems at hand, and has offered these services to qualified parents if appropriate under the circumstances.

(b) What plan, if any, for return of the child is recommended to the court by the county welfare department or probation officer.

(c) Whether the best interests of the minor will be served by granting reasonable visitation rights with the minor to his or her grandparents, in order to maintain and strengthen the minor's family relationships.

(d) Whether the subject child appears to be a person who is eligible to be considered for further court action to free the child from parental custody and control.

SEC. 9. Section 361.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

361.3. (a) In any case in which a child is removed from the physical custody of his or her parents pursuant to Section 361, preferential consideration shall be given to a request by a relative of the child for placement of the child with the relative. In determining whether such a placement is appropriate, the probation officer and court shall consider the ability of the relative to provide a secure and stable environment for the child. Factors to be considered in that assessment include, but are not limited to, the good moral character of the relative; the ability of the relative to exercise proper and effective care and control of the child; the ability of the relative to provide a home and the necessities of life for the child; which relative is most likely to protect the child from his or her parents; which relative is most likely to facilitate visitation with the child's other relatives and to facilitate reunification efforts with the parents; and the best interests of the child. In this regard, the Legislature declares that a physical disability, such as blindness or deafness, is no bar to the raising of children, and a probation officer's determination as to the ability of a disabled relative to exercise care and control should center upon whether the relative's disability prevents him or her from exercising care and control.

(b) In any case in which more than one appropriate relative requests preferential consideration pursuant to this section, the probation officer and the court, in determining which relative should receive preferential consideration, shall consider the best interests of the child, and which of the relatives is most likely to protect the child from his or her parents, to facilitate visitation with the child's other relatives, and to facilitate reunification efforts with the parents. Consideration shall also be given to attempting to place siblings and stepsiblings in the same home if such a placement is found to be in their best interests.

(c) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Preferential consideration" means that the relative seeking placement shall be the first placement to be considered and investigated.

(2) "Relative" means an adult who is a grandparent, aunt, uncle, or sibling.

SEC. 10. Section 361.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

361.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), whenever a minor is removed from a parent's or guardian's custody, the juvenile court shall order the probation officer to provide child welfare services to the minor and the minor's parents or guardians for the purpose of facilitating reunification of the family within a maximum time period not to exceed 12 months. The court also shall make findings pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 366. When counseling or other treatment services are ordered, the parent shall be ordered to participate in those services, unless the parent's participation is deemed by the court to be inappropriate or potentially detrimental to the child. Services may be extended up to an additional six months if it can be shown that the objectives of the service plan can be achieved within the extended time period. Physical custody of the minor by the parents or guardians during the 18-month period shall not serve to interrupt the running of the period.

Except in cases where, pursuant to subdivision (b), the court does not order reunification services, the court shall inform the parent or parents of the provision of Section 366.25 or 366.26 and shall specify that the parent's or parents' parental rights may be terminated.

(b) Reunification services need not be provided to a parent described in this subdivision when the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, any of the following:

(1) That the whereabouts of the parents is unknown. A finding pursuant to this paragraph shall be supported by an affidavit or by proof that a reasonably diligent search has failed to locate the parent. The posting or publication of notices is not required in such a search.

(2) That the parent is suffering from a mental disability that is described in Section 232 of the Civil Code and that renders him or her incapable of utilizing those services.

(3) That the minor had been previously adjudicated a dependent pursuant to any subdivision of Section 300 as a result of physical or sexual abuse, that following that adjudication the minor had been removed from the custody of his or her parent or guardian pursuant to Section 361, that the minor has been returned to the custody of the parent or parents, guardian, or guardians from whom the minor had been taken originally, and that the minor is being removed pursuant to Section 361, due to additional physical or sexual abuse. However, this section is not applicable if the jurisdiction of the juvenile court has been dismissed prior to the additional abuse.

(4) That the parent of the minor has been convicted of causing the death of another child through abuse or neglect.

(5) That the minor was brought within the jurisdiction of the court under subdivision (e) of Section 300 because of the conduct of that parent.

(c) In deciding whether to order reunification in any case in which this section applies, the court shall hold a dispositional hearing.

The probation officer shall prepare a report which discusses whether reunification services shall be provided. When it is alleged, pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), that the parent is incapable of utilizing services due to mental disability, the court shall order reunification services unless competent evidence from mental health professionals establishes that, even with the provision of services, the parent is unlikely to be capable of adequately caring for the child within 12 months.

When paragraph (3), (4), or (5), inclusive, of subdivision (b) is applicable, the court shall not order reunification unless it finds that, based on competent testimony, those services are likely to prevent reabuse or continued neglect of the child or that failure to try reunification will be detrimental to the child because the child is closely and postively attached to that parent. The probation officer shall investigate the circumstances leading to the removal of the minor and advise the court whether there are circumstances which indicate that reunification is likely to be successful or unsuccessful and whether failure to order reunification is likely to be detrimental to the child.

The failure of the parent to respond to previous services, the fact that the child was abused while the parent was under the influence of drugs or alcohol, a past history of violent behavior, or testimony by a competent professional that the parent's behavior is unlikely to be changed by services are among the factors indicating that reunification services are unlikely to be successful. The fact that a parent or guardian is no longer living with an individual who severely abused the minor may be considered in deciding that reunification services are likely to be successful, provided that the court shall consider any pattern of behavior on the part of the parent that has exposed the child to repeated abuse.

(d) If reunification services are not ordered pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) and the whereabouts of a parent become known within six months of the out-of-home placement of the minor, the court shall order the probation officer to provide family reunification services in accordance with this subdivision. However, the time limits specified in subdivision (a) and Section 366.25 are not tolled by the parent's absence.

(e) If the parent or guardian is incarcerated or institutionalized, the court shall order reasonable services unless the court determines those services would be detrimental to the minor. In determining detriment, the court shall consider the age of child, the degree of parent-child bonding, the length of the sentence, the nature of the treatment, the nature of crime or illness, the degree of detriment to the child if services are not offered and, for minors 10 years of age or older, the minor's attitude toward the implementation of family reunification services, and any other appropriate factors. Services may include, but shall not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Maintaining contact between parent and child through collect phone calls.

(2) Transportation services, where appropriate.

(3) Visitation services, where appropriate.

(4) Reasonable services to extended family members or foster parents providing care for the child if the services are not detrimental to the child.

An incarcerated parent may be required to attend counseling, parenting classes, or vocational training programs as part of the service plan if these programs are available.

(f) If a court, pursuant to paragraph (2), (3), (4), or (5) of subdivision (b), does not order reunification services, it shall conduct a hearing pursuant to Section 366.25 or 366.26 within 120 days of the dispositional hearing. The court may continue to permit the parent to visit the minor unless it finds that visitation would be detrimental to the minor.

(g) Whenever a court orders that a hearing shall be held pursuant to Section 366.25 or 366.26 it shall direct the agency supervising the child and the licensed county adoption agency, or the State Department of Social Services when it is acting as an adoption agency in counties which are not served by a county adoption agency, to prepare an assessment which shall include:

(1) Current search efforts for an absent parent or parents.

(2) A review of the amount of and nature of any contact between the minor and his or her parents since the time of placement.

(3) An evaluation of the minor's medical, developmental, scholastic, mental, and emotional status.

(4) A preliminary assessment of the eligibility and commitment of any identified prospective adoptive parent or guardian, particularly the caretaker, to include a social history including screening for criminal records and prior referrals for child abuse or neglect, the capability to meet the minor's needs, and the understanding of the legal and financial rights and responsibilities of adoption and guardianship.

(5) The relationship of the minor to any identified prospective adoptive parent or guardian, the duration and character of the relationship, the motivation for seeking adoption or guardianship, and a statement from the minor, if the minor is 10 years of age or older, concerning placement and the adoption or guardianship.

(6) An analysis of the likelihood that the minor will be adopted if parental rights are terminated.

SEC. 11. Section 364 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

364. (a) Every hearing in which an order is made placing a minor under the supervision of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 300 and in which the minor is not removed from the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian shall be continued to a specific future date not to exceed six months after the date of the original dispositional hearing. The continued hearing shall be placed on the appearance calendar. The court shall advise all persons present of the date of the future hearings, of their rights to be present, and to be represented by counsel.

(b) At least 10 calendar days prior to the hearing, the probation officer shall file a supplemental report with the court describing the services offered to the family and the progress made by the family in eliminating the conditions or factors requiring court supervision. The probation officer shall also make a recommendation regarding the necessity of continued supervision. A copy of this report shall be furnished to all parties at least 10 calendar days prior to the hearing.

(c) After hearing any evidence presented by the probation officer, the parent, the guardian, or the minor, the court shall determine whether continued supervision is necessary. The court shall terminate its jurisdiction unless the probation department establishes by a preponderance of evidence that the conditions still exist which would justify initial assumption of jurisdiction under Section 300, or that such conditions are likely to exist if supervision is withdrawn. Failure of the parent or guardian to participate regularly in any court ordered treatment program shall constitute prima facie evidence that the conditions which justified initial assumption of jurisdiction still exist and that continued supervision is necessary.

(d) If the court retains jurisdiction it shall continue the matter to a specified date, not more than six months from the time of the hearing, at which point the court shall again follow the procedure specified in subdivision (c).

(e) In any case in which the court has ordered that a parent or guardian shall retain physical custody of a minor subject to supervision by a probation officer, and the probation officer subsequently receives a report of acts or circumstances which indicate that there is reasonable cause to believe that the minor is a person described in subdivision (a), (d), or (e) of Section 300, the probation officer shall commence proceedings under this chapter. If, as a result of the proceedings required, the court finds that the minor is a person described in subdivision (a), (d), or (e) of Section 300, the court shall remove the minor from the care, custody, and control of the minor's parent or guardian and shall commit the minor to the care, custody, and control of the probation officer pursuant to Section 361.

SEC. 12. Section 366 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366. (a) The status of every dependent child in foster care shall be reviewed periodically as determined by the court but no less frequently than once every six months, as calculated from the date of the original dispositional hearing, until the hearing described in Section 366.25 or 366.26 is completed. The court shall determine the continuing necessity for and appropriateness of the placement, the extent of compliance with the case plan, and the extent of progress which has been made toward alleviating or mitigating the causes necessitating placement in foster care, and shall project a likely date by which the child may be returned to the home or placed for adoption or legal guardianship.

(b) Subsequent to the hearing periodic reviews of each child in foster care shall be conducted pursuant to the requirements of Sections 366.3 and 16503.

SEC. 13. Section 366.21 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366.21. (a) Every hearing conducted by the juvenile court reviewing the status of a dependent child shall be placed on the appearance calendar. The court shall advise all persons present at the hearing of the date of the future hearing, of their right to be present and represented by counsel.

(b) Except as provided in Section 366.23 and subdivision (a) of Section 366.3, notice of the hearing shall be mailed by the probation officer to the same persons as in the original proceeding, to the minor's parent or guardian, to the foster parents, community care facility, or foster family agency having physical custody of the minor in the case of a minor removed from the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian, and to the counsel of record, by certified mail addressed to the last known address of the person to be notified, or shall be personally served on those persons, not earlier than 30 days nor later than 15 days preceding the date to which the hearing was continued.

The notice shall contain a statement regarding the nature of the hearing to be held and any change in the custody or status of the minor being recommended by the supervising agency. The notice to the foster parent shall indicate that the foster parent may attend all hearings or may submit any information he or she deems relevant to the court in writing

(c) At least 10 calendar days prior to the hearing the probation officer shall file a supplemental report with the court regarding the services provided or offered to the parents to enable them to assume custody, the progress made, and, where relevant, the prognosis for return of the minor to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian, and make his or her recommendation for disposition. If the recommendation is not to return the minor to a parent, the report shall specify why the return of the minor would be detrimental to the minor. The probation officer shall provide the parent or parents with a copy of the report, including his or her recommendation for disposition, at least 10 calendar days prior to the hearing. In the case of a minor removed from the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian, the probation officer shall provide a summary of his or her recommendation for disposition to the counsel for the minor, any court appointed child advocate, foster parents, community care facility, or foster family agency having the physical custody of the minor at least 10 calendar days before the hearing.

(d) Prior to any hearing involving a minor in the physical custody of a community care facility or foster family agency that may result in the return of the minor to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian, or in adoption or the creation of a legal guardianship, the facility or agency shall file with the court a report containing its recommendation for disposition. Prior to any such hearing involving a minor in the physical custody of a foster parent, the foster parent may file with the court a report containing its recommendation for disposition. The court shall consider any such report and recommendation prior to determining any disposition.

(e) At the review hearing held six months after the initial dispositional hearing, the court shall order the return of the minor to the physical custody of his or her parents or guardians unless, by a preponderance of the evidence, it finds that the return of the child would create a substantial risk of detriment to the physical or emotional well-being of the minor. The probation department shall have the burden of establishing that detriment. The failure of the parent or guardian to participate regularly in any court-ordered treatment programs shall constitute prima facie evidence that return would be detrimental. In making its determination, the court shall review the probation officer's report, shall review and consider the report and recommendations of any child advocate appointed pursuant to Section 356.5, and shall consider the efforts or progress, or both, demonstrated by the parent or guardian and the extent to which he or she cooperated and availed himself or herself of services provided; shall make appropriate findings pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 366; and where relevant, shall order any additional services reasonably believed to facilitate the return of the minor to the custody of his or her parent or guardian. The court shall also inform the parent or guardian that if the minor cannot be returned home by the next review hearing, a proceeding pursuant to Section 366.26 may be instituted. This section does not apply in a case where, pursuant to Section 361.5, the court has ordered that reunification services shall not be provided.

If the minor was removed initially under subdivision (g) of Section 300 and the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the whereabouts of the parent are still unknown, or the parent has failed to contact and visit the child, the court may schedule a hearing pursuant to Section 366.26 within 120 days. If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the parent has been convicted of a felony indicating parental unfitness, the court may schedule a hearing pursuant to Section 366.26 within 120 days.

If the minor had been placed under court supervision with a previously noncustodial parent pursuant to Section 361.2, the court shall determine whether supervision is still necessary. The court may terminate supervision and transfer permanent custody to that parent, as provided for by paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 361.2.

In all other cases, the court shall direct that any reunification services previously ordered shall continue to be offered to the parent or guardian, provided that the court may modify the terms and conditions of those services. If the child is not returned to his or her parent or parents, the court shall determine whether reasonable services have been provided or offered to the parent or parents which were designed to aid the parent or parents overcome the problems which led to the initial removal and the continued custody of the minor. The court shall order that those services be initiated or continued.

(f) At the review hearing held 12 months after the initial dispositional hearing, the court shall order the return of the minor to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian unless, by a preponderance of the evidence, it finds that return of the child would create a substantial risk or detriment to the physical or emotional well-being of the minor. The probation department shall have the burden of establishing that detriment. The court shall also determine whether reasonable services have been provided or offered to the parent or parents which were designed to aid the parent or parents to overcome the problems which led to the initial removal and continued custody of the minor. The failure of the parent or guardian to participate regularly in any court-ordered treatment programs shall constitute prima facie evidence that return would be detrimental. In making its determination, the court shall review the probation officer's report and shall consider the efforts or progress, or both, demonstrated by the parent or guardian and the extent to which he or she cooperated and availed himself or herself of services provided. If the minor is not returned to a parent or guardian, the court shall specify the factual basis for its conclusion that return would be detrimental. The court also shall make a finding pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 366.

(g) If a minor is not returned to the custody of a parent or guardian at the hearing held pursuant to subdivision (f), the court shall do one of the following:

(1) Continue the case for up to six months for another review hearing, provided that the hearing shall occur within 18 months of the date the child was originally taken from the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian. The court shall continue the case only if it finds that there is a substantial probability that the minor will be returned to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian within six months or that reasonable services have not been provided to the parent or parents. The court shall inform the parent or guardian that if the minor cannot be returned home by the next review hearing, a permanent plan shall be developed at that hearing. The court shall not order that a hearing pursuant to Section 366.26 be held unless there is clear and convincing evidence that reasonable services have been provided or offered to the parents.

(2) Order that the minor remain in long-term foster care, if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence, based upon the evidence already presented to it, that the minor is not adoptable and has no one willing to accept legal guardianship.

(3) Order that a hearing be held within 120 days, pursuant to Section 366.26.

(h) In any case in which the court orders that a hearing pursuant to Section 366.26 shall be held, it shall also order the termination of reunification services to the parent. The court shall continue to permit the parent to visit the minor pending the hearing unless it finds that visitation would be detrimental to the minor.

(i) Whenever a court orders that a hearing pursuant to Section 366.26 shall be held, it shall direct the agency supervising the child and the licensed county adoption agency, or the State Department of Social Services when it is acting as an adoption agency in counties which are not served by a county adoption agency, to prepare an assessment which shall include:

(1) Current search efforts for an absent parent or parents.

(2) A review of the amount of and nature of any contact between the minor and his or her parents since the time of placement.

(3) An evaluation of the minor's medical, developmental, scholastic, mental, and emotional status.

(4) A preliminary assessment of the eligibility and commitment of any identified prospective adoptive parent or guardian, particularly the caretaker, to include a social history including screening for criminal records and prior referrals for child abuse or neglect, the capability to meet the minor's needs, and the understanding of the legal and financial rights and responsibilities of adoption and guardianship

(5) The relationship of the minor to any identified prospective adoptive parent or guardian, the duration and character of the relationship, the motivation for seeking adoption or guardianship, and a statement from the minor, if the minor is 10 years of age or older, concerning placement and the adoption or guardianship.

(6) An analysis of the likelihood that the minor will be adopted if parental rights are terminated.

(j) This section shall apply to minors made dependents of the court pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 360 on or after January 1, 1989.

SEC. 14. Section 366.22 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read·

366.22. (a) When a case has been continued pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (g) of Section 366.21, the court, at the 18-month hearing, shall order the return of the minor to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian unless, by a preponderance of the evidence, it finds that return of the child would create a substantial risk of detriment to the physical or emotional well-being of the minor. The probation department shall have the burden of establishing the detriment. The failure of the parent or guardian to participate regularly in any court-ordered treatment programs shall constitute prima facie evidence that return would be detrimental. In making its determination, the court shall review the probation officer's report and shall review and consider the report and recommendations of any child advocate appointed pursuant to Section 356.6 and shall consider the efforts or progress, or both, demonstrated by the parent or guardian and the extent to which he or she cooperated and availed himself or herself of services provided. If the minor is not returned to a parent or guardian, the court shall specify the factual basis for its conclusion that return would be detrimental.

If the minor is not returned to a parent or guardian at the 18-month hearing and the court determines that reasonable services have been offered or provided to the parent or guardian, the court shall develop a permanent plan. The court shall order that a hearing be held pursuant to Section 366.26 in order to determine whether adoption, guardianship, or long-term foster care is the most appropriate plan for the minor. However, if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence, based on the evidence already presented to it that the minor is not adoptable and has no one willing to accept legal guardianship, the court may order that the minor remain in long-term foster care. The hearing shall be held no later than 120 days from the date of the 18-month hearing. The court shall also order termination of reunification services to the parent. The court shall continue to permit the parent to visit the minor unless it finds that visitation would be detrimental to the minor.

(b) Whenever a court orders that a hearing pursuant to Section 366.26 shall be held, it shall direct the agency supervising the child and the licensed county adoption agency, or the State Department of Social Services when it is acting as an adoption agency in counties which are not served by a county adoption agency, to prepare an assessment which shall include:

(1) Current search efforts for an absent parent or parents.

(2) A review of the amount of and nature of any contact between the minor and his or her parents since the time of placement.

(3) An evaluation of the minor's medical, developmental, scholastic, mental, and emotional status.

(4) A preliminary assessment of the eligibility and commitment of any identified prospective adoptive parent or guardian, particularly the caretaker, to include a social history including screening for criminal records and prior referrals for child abuse or neglect, the capability to meet the minor's needs, and the understanding of the legal and financial rights and responsibilities of adoption and guardianship.

(5) The relationship of the minor to any identified prospective adoptive parent or guardian, the duration and character of the relationship, the motivation for seeking adoption or guardianship, and a statement from the minor, if the minor is 10 years of age or older, concerning placement and the adoption or guardianship.

(6) An analysis of the likelihood that the minor will be adopted if parental rights are terminated.

SEC. 15. Section 366.23 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366.23. (a) Whenever a juvenile court schedules a hearing pursuant to Section 366.26 regarding a minor, it shall direct that the fathers, presumed and alleged, and mother of the minor, the minor, if 10 years of age or older, and any counsel of record, shall be notified of the time and place of the proceedings and advised that they may appear. The notice shall also advise them of the right to counsel, the nature of the proceedings, and of the requirement that at the proceedings the court shall select and implement a plan of adoption, legal guardianship, or long-term foster care for the minor. In all cases where a parent has relinquished his or her child for the purpose of adoption, no notice need be given to that parent. Service of the notice shall be completed at least 45 days before the date of the hearing, except in those cases where notice by publication is ordered in which case the service of the notice shall be completed at least 30 days before the date of the hearing. If the petitioner is recommending termination of parental rights, all persons entitled to receive notice shall also be notified by first-class mail of the recommendation at least 15 days before the scheduled hearing.

(b) Notice to the parent of the hearing may be given in any of the following manners:

(1) Personal service to the parent named in the notice.

(2) Delivery to a competent person who is at least 18 years of age at the parent's usual place of residence or business, and thereafter mailed to the parent named in the notice by first-class mail at the place where the notice was delivered.

(3) If the place of residence is outside the state, service may be made in the manner prescribed in paragraph (1) or (2), or by certified mail, return receipt requested.

(4) If the recommendation of the petitioner is limited to legal guardianship or long-term foster care, service may be made by first-class mail to the parent's usual place of residence or business.

(5) If the father or mother of the minor or any person alleged to be or claiming to be the father or mother cannot, with reasonable diligence, be served as provided for in paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) or if his or her place of residence is not known, the probation officer shall file an affidavit with the court at least 75 days before the date of the hearing, stating the name of the father or mother or alleged father or mother and his or her place of residence, if known, setting forth the efforts that have been made to locate and serve the parent.

(A) If the court determines that there has been due diligence in attempting to locate and serve the parent, and the petitioner limits the recommendation to legal guardianship or long-term foster care, the court shall order that notice be given to the grandparents of the minor, if there are any and if their residences and relationships to the minor are known, by first-class mail of the time and place of the proceedings and that they may appear. In any case where the residence of the parent or alleged parent becomes known, notice shall immediately be served upon the parent or alleged parent as set forth in paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4).

(B) If the court determines that there has been due diligence in attempting to locate and serve the parent and the petitioner does not limit the recommendation to legal guardianship or long-term foster care, the court shall order that service to the parent be by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the parent's counsel of record, if any. If the parent does not have counsel of record, the court shall order that the service be made by publication of a citation requiring the father or mother, or alleged father or mother, to appear at the time and place stated in the citation, and that the citation be published in a newspaper designated as most likely to give notice to the father or mother. Publication shall be made once a week for four successive weeks. In case of service by certified mail on the counsel of record or publication where the residence of a parent or alleged parent becomes known, notice shall immediately be served upon the parent or alleged parent as set forth in paragraph (1), (2), or (3). When service by certified mail on the counsel of record or publication is ordered, service of a copy of the notice in the manner provided for in paragraph (1), (2), or (3) is equivalent to service by certified mail on the counsel of record or publication. In any case where service by certified mail on the counsel of record or publication is ordered, the court shall also order that notice be given to the grandparents of the minor, if there are any and if their residences and relationships to the minor are known, by first-class mail of the time and place of the proceedings and that they may appear.

If the identity of one or both of the parents or alleged parents of the minor is unknown or if the name of either or both of his or her parents or alleged parents is uncertain, then that fact shall be set forth in the affidavit and the court, if ordering publication, shall order the published citation to be directed to either the father or the mother, or both, of the minor, and to all persons claiming to be the father or mother of the minor naming and otherwise describing the minor.

(6) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, if the parent is present at the hearing at which the court schedules a hearing pursuant to Section 366.26 regarding the minor, the court shall advise the parent of the time and place of the proceedings, their right to counsel, the nature of the proceedings, and of the requirement that at the proceedings the court select and implement a plan of adoption, legal guardianship, or long-term foster care for the minor. The court shall order the parent to appear for the proceedings and then direct that the parent be noticed thereafter by first-class mail to the parent's usual place of residence or business only.

(7) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, whenever the whereabouts of a parent is not known at the time the court schedules a hearing pursuant to Section 366.26 regarding a minor, and the petitioner presents to the court an affidavit setting forth the name of the parent and the efforts that have been made to locate the parent, the court shall order that the notice for the parent be as set forth in subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (5).

(c) Notice to the minor, if 10 years of age or older, and to any counsel of record, of the hearing shall be by first-class mail.

(d) Service is deemed complete at the time the notice is personally delivered to the party named in the notice, or 10 days after the notice has been placed in the mail, or at the expiration of the time prescribed by the order for publication, whichever occurs first.

SEC. 16. Section 366.25 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366.25 (a) In order to provide stable, permanent homes for children, a court shall, if the minor cannot be returned home pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 366.2, conduct a hearing to make a determination regarding the future status of the minor no later than 12 months after the original dispositional hearing in which the child was removed from the custody of his or her parent, parents, or guardians, and in no case later than 18 months from the time of the minor's original placement pursuant to Section 319 or 16507.4 and periodically, but no less frequently than once each 18 months, thereafter during the continuation of foster care. The hearing may be combined with the six months' review as provided for in Section 366. In the case of a minor who comes within subdivision (b) of Section 361.5 and for whom the court has found that reunification services should not be provided, a hearing shall be held pursuant to Section 361.5.

(b) Notice of the proceeding to conduct the review shall be mailed by the probation officer to the same persons as in an original proceeding, to the minor's present custodian, and to the counsel of record, by certified mail addressed to the last known address of the person to be notified, or shall be personally served on those persons not earlier than 30 days, nor later than 15 days prior to the date the review is to be conducted.

(c) Except in cases where permanency planning is conducted pursuant to Section 361.5, the court shall first determine at the hearing whether the minor should be returned to his or her parent or guardian, pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 366.2. If the minor is not returned to the custody of his or her parent or guardian the court shall determine whether there is a substantial probability that the minor will be returned to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian within six months. If the court so determines it shall set another review hearing for not more than six months, which shall be a hearing pursuant to this section.

(d) If the court determines that the minor cannot be returned to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian and that there is not a substantial probability that the minor will be returned within six months, the court shall develop a permanent plan for the minor. In order to enable the minor to obtain a permanent home the court shall make the following determinations and orders:

(1) If the court finds that it is likely that the minor can or will be adopted, the court shall authorize the appropriate county or state agency to proceed to free the minor from the custody and control of his or her parents or guardians pursuant to Section 232 of the Civil

Code unless the court finds that any of the following conditions exist:

(A) The parents or guardians have maintained regular visitation and contact with the minor and the minor would benefit from continuing this relationship.

(B) A minor 10 years of age or older objects to termination of parental rights.

(C) The minor's foster parents, including relative caretakers, are unable to adopt the minor because of exceptional circumstances which do not include an unwillingness to accept legal responsibility for the minor, but are willing and capable of providing the minor with a stable and permanent environment and the removal of the minor from the physical custody of his or her foster parents would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor.

(2) If the court finds that it is not likely that the minor can or will be adopted or that one of the conditions in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) of paragraph (1) applies, the court shall order the appropriate county department to initiate or facilitate the placement of the minor in a home environment that can be reasonably expected to be stable and permanent. This may be accomplished by initiating legal guardianship proceedings or long-term foster care. Legal guardianship shall be considered before long-term foster care, if it is in the best interests of the child and if a suitable guardian can be found. When the minor is in a foster home and the foster parents, including relative caretakers, are willing and capable of providing a stable and permanent environment, the minor shall not be removed from the home if the removal would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor because the minor has substantial psychological ties to the foster parents. The court shall also make orders for visitation with the parents or guardians unless the court finds by a preponderance of evidence that the visitation would be detrimental to the physical or emotional well-being of the minor

(3) (A) If the court finds that it is not likely that the minor can or will be adopted, that there is no suitable adult available to become the legal guardian of the minor, and that there are no suitable foster parents except certified homes available to provide the minor with a stable and permanent environment, the court may order the care, custody, and control of the minor transferred from the county welfare department or probation department to a licensed foster family agency. The court shall consider the written recommendation of the county welfare director or chief probation officer regarding the suitability of such a transfer. The transfer shall be subject to further court orders.

(B) The licensed foster family agency shall only use a suitable licensed or other family home which has been certified by the agency as meeting licensing standards. When the care, custody, and control has been transferred to a foster family agency, it shall be responsible for supporting the minor and for providing appropriate services to the minor, including those services ordered by the court. Responsibility for support of the minor shall not in and of itself create liability on the part of the foster family agency to third persons injured by the minor. Those minors whose care, custody, and control are transferred to a foster family agency shall not be eligible for foster care maintenance payments or child welfare services, except for emergency response services pursuant to Section 16504.

(C) Subsequent reviews for these minors shall be conducted every six months by the court. The licensed foster family agency shall be required to submit reports for each minor in its care, custody, and control to the court concerning the continuing appropriateness and extent of compliance with the minor's permanent plan, the extent of compliance with the case plan, and the type and adequacy of services provided to the minor.

(e) The proceeding for the appointment of a guardian for a minor who is a dependent child of the juvenile court shall be in the juvenile court. The court shall receive into evidence a report and recommendation concerning the proposed guardianship. The report shall include, but not be limited to, a discussion of all of the following:

(1) A social history of the proposed guardian, including screening for criminal records and prior referrals for child abuse or neglect.

(2) A social history of the minor, including an assessment of any identified developmental, emotional, psychological, or educational needs, and the capability of the proposed guardian to meet those needs.

(3) The relationship of the minor to the proposed guardian, the duration and character of the relationship, the motivation for seeking guardianship rather than adoption, the proposed guardian's long-term commitment to provide a stable and permanent home for the minor, and a statement from the minor concerning the proposed guardianship.

(4) The plan, if any, for the natural parents for continued involvement with the minor.

(5) The proposed guardian's understanding of the legal and financial rights and responsibilities of guardianship.

The report shall be read and considered by the court prior to ruling on the petition for guardianship, and this shall be reflected in the minutes of the court. The person preparing the report may be called and examined by any party to the proceeding.

(f) Physical custody of a minor by his or her parents or guardians for insubstantial periods during the 12-month period prior to a permanency planning hearing shall not serve to interrupt the running of those periods.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the application of any person who, as a foster parent, including relative caretakers, has cared for a dependent child for whom the court has approved a permanent plan for adoption, or who has been freed for adoption, shall be given preference with respect to that child over all other applications for adoptive placement if the agency making the placement determines that the child has substantial emotional ties to the foster parent and removal from the foster parent would be seriously detrimental to the child's well-being.

As used in this subdivision, "preference" means that the application shall be processed and, if satisfactory, the family study shall be completed before the processing of the application of any other person for the adoptive placement of the child.

(h) Subsequent hearings need not be held if (1) the child has been freed for adoption and placed in the adoptive home identified in the previous hearing and is awaiting finalization of the adoption or (2) the child is the ward of a guardian.

(i) This section applies to minors adjudged dependent children of the juvenile court pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 360 prior to January 1, 1989.

(j) An order by the court that authorizes the filing of a petition to terminate parental rights pursuant to Section 232 or that authorizes the initiation of guardianship proceedings is not an appealable order but may be the subject of review by extraordinary writ.

SEC. 17. Section 366.26 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366.26. (a) This section applies to minors who are adjudged dependent children of the juvenile court pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 360 on or after January 1, 1989. The procedures specified herein are the exclusive procedures for conducting these hearings; Section 4600 of the Civil Code is not applicable to these proceedings. For minors who are adjudged dependent children of the juvenile court pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 360, this section and Sections 224, 224m, and 7017 of the Civil Code specify the exclusive procedures, after January 1, 1990, for permanently terminating parental rights with regard to, or establishing legal guardianship of, the minor while the minor is a dependent child of the juvenile court.

(b) At the hearing, which shall be held in juvenile court for all minors who are dependents of the juvenile court, the court, in order to provide stable, permanent homes for these minors, shall review the report as specified in Section 361.5, 366.21, or 366.22, shall indicate that the court has read and considered it, shall receive other evidence that the parties present, and then shall do one of the following:

(1) Permanently sever the parent or parents' rights and order that the child be placed for adoption.

(2) Without permanently terminating parental rights, identify adoption as the permanent placement goal and order that efforts be made to locate an appropriate adoptive family for the minor for a period not to exceed 60 days.

(3) Without permanently terminating parental rights, appoint a legal guardian for the minor and issue letters of guardianship.

(4) Order that the minor be placed in long-term foster care, subject to the regular review of the juvenile court.

In choosing among the above alternatives the court shall proceed pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) At the hearing the court shall proceed pursuant to one of the following procedures:

(1) It shall terminate parental rights if it determines by clear and convincing evidence that it is likely that the minor will be adopted. The findings pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 361.5 that reunification services shall not be offered, or the findings pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 366.21 that the whereabouts of a parent have been unknown for six months or that the parent has failed to visit or contact the child for six months or that the parent has been convicted of a felony indicating parental unfitness, or pursuant to Section 366.21 or Section 366.22 that a minor cannot or should not be returned to his or her parent or guardian, are a sufficient basis for termination of parental rights unless the court finds that termination would be detrimental to the minor due to one of the following circumstances:

(A) The parents or guardians have maintained regular visitation and contact with the minor and the minor would benefit from continuing the relationship.

(B) A minor 10 years of age or older objects to termination of parental rights.

(C) The child is placed in a residential treatment facility, adoption is unlikely or undesirable, and continuation of parental rights will not prevent finding the child a permanent family placement if the parents cannot resume custody when residential care is no longer needed.

(D) The minor is living with a relative or foster parent who is unable or unwilling to adopt the minor because of exceptional circumstances, which do not include an unwillingness to accept legal responsibility for the minor, but who is willing and capable of providing the minor with a stable and permanent environment and the removal of the minor from the physical custody of his or her relative or foster parent would be detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor.

(2) If the court finds that termination of parental rights would not be detrimental to the minor pursuant to paragraph (1) and that the minor has a probability for adoption but is difficult to place for adoption and there is no identified or available prospective adoptive parent, the court may identify adoption as the permanent placement goal and without terminating parental rights, order that efforts be made to locate an appropriate adoptive family for the minor for a period not to exceed 60 days. During this 60-day period, the public agency responsible for seeking adoptive parents, for each child shall, to the extent possible, contact other private and public adoption agencies regarding the availability of the child for adoption. At the expiration of this period, another hearing shall be held and the court shall proceed pursuant to paragraph (1), (3), or (4) of subdivision (b). For purposes of this section, a minor may only be found to be difficult to place for adoption if there is no identified or available prospective adoptive parent for the minor because of the minor's membership in a sibling group, or the presence of a diagnosed medical, physical, or mental handicap, or the minor is the age of seven years or more.

(3) If the court finds that adoption of the minor or termination of parental rights is not in the interests of the minor, or that one of the conditions in subparagraph (A), (B), (C), or (D) of paragraph (1) applies, the court shall either order that the present caretakers or other appropriate persons shall become legal guardians of the minor or order that the minor remain in long-term foster care. Legal guardianship shall be considered before long-term foster care, if it is in the best interests of the child and if a suitable guardian can be found. When the minor is living with a relative or a foster parent who is willing and capable of providing a stable and permanent environment, but not willing to become a legal guardian, the minor shall not be removed from the home if the court finds the removal would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor because the minor has substantial psychological ties to the relative caretaker or foster parents. The court shall also make an order for visitation with the parents or guardians unless the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the visitation would be detrimental to the physical or emotional well-being of the minor.

(4) If the court finds that the child should not be placed for adoption that legal guardianship shall not be established, and that there are no suitable foster parents except exclusive-use homes available to provide the minor with a stable and permanent environment, the court may order the care, custody, and control of the minor transferred from the county welfare department or probation department to a licensed foster family agency. The court shall consider the written recommendation of the county welfare director or chief probation officer regarding the suitability of such a transfer. The transfer shall be subject to further court orders.

The licensed foster family agency shall place the minor in a suitable licensed or exclusive-use home which has been certified by the agency as meeting licensing standards. The licensed foster family agency shall be responsible for supporting the minor and for providing appropriate services to the minor, including those services ordered by the court. Responsibility for the support of the minor shall not, in and of itself, create liability on the part of the foster family agency to third persons injured by the minor. Those minors whose care, custody, and control are transferred to a foster family agency shall not be eligible for foster care maintenance payments or child welfare services, except for emergency response services pursuant to Section 16504.

(d) The proceeding for the appointment of a guardian for a minor who is a dependent of the juvenile court shall be in the juvenile court. If the court finds pursuant to this section that legal guardianship is the appropriate permanency plan, it shall appoint the legal guardian and issue letters of guardianship. The assessment prepared pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 361.5, subdivision (i) of Section 366.21, and subdivision (b) of Section 366.22 shall be read and considered by the court prior to the appointment, and this shall be reflected in the minutes of the court. The person preparing the assessment may be called and examined by any party to the proceeding.

(e) At the beginning of any proceeding pursuant to this section, if the minor or the parents are not being represented by previously retained or appointed counsel, the court shall proceed as follows:

(1) The court shall consider whether the interests of the minor require the appointment of counsel. If the court finds that the interests of the minor do require such protection, the court shall appoint counsel to represent the minor. If the court finds that the interests of the minor require the representation of counsel, counsel shall be appointed whether or not the minor is able to afford counsel. The minor shall not be present in court unless the minor so requests or the court so orders.

(2) If a parent appears without counsel and is unable to afford counsel, the court shall appoint counsel for the parent, unless this representation is knowingly and intelligently waived. The same counsel shall not be appointed to represent both the minor and his or her parent. The public defender or private counsel may be appointed as counsel for the parent.

(3) Private counsel appointed under this section shall receive a reasonable sum for compensation and expenses, the amount of which shall be determined by the court. The amount shall be paid by the real parties in interest, other than the minor, in such proportions as the court deems just. However, if the court finds that any of the real parties in interest are unable to afford counsel, the amount shall be paid out of the general fund of the county.

(f) The court may continue the proceeding for not to exceed 30 days as necessary to appoint counsel, and to enable counsel to become acquainted with the case.

(g) At all termination proceedings, the court shall consider the wishes of the child and shall act in the best interests of the child.

The testimony of the minor may be taken in chambers and outside the presence of the minor's parent or parents if the minor's parent or parents are represented by counsel, the counsel is present, and any of the following circumstances exist:

(1) The court determines that testimony in chambers is necessary to ensure truthful testimony.

(2) The minor is likely to be intimidated by a formal courtroom setting.

(3) The minor is afraid to testify in front of his or her parent or parents.

After testimony in chambers, the parent or parents of the minor may elect to have the court reporter read back the testimony or have the testimony summarized by counsel for the parent or parents.

The testimony of a minor also may be taken in chambers and outside the presence of the guardian or guardians of a minor under the circumstances specified in this subdivision.

(h) Any order of the court permanently terminating parental rights under this section shall be conclusive and binding upon the minor person, upon the parent or parents and upon all other persons who have been served with citation by publication or otherwise as provided in this chapter. After making such an order, the court shall have no power to set aside, change, or modify it, but nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the right to appeal the order.

(i) If the court, by order or judgment declared the minor free from the custody and control of both parents, or one parent if the other no longer has custody and control, the court shall at the same time order the minor referred to a licensed county adoption agency for adoptive placement by the agency. However, no petition for adoption may be heard until the appellate rights of the natural parents have been exhausted. The licensed county adoption agency shall be responsible for the care and supervision of the minor and shall be entitled to the exclusive care and control of the minor at all times until a petition for adoption is granted.

(j) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the application of any person who, as a relative caretaker or foster parent, has cared for a dependent child for whom the court has approved a permanent plan for adoption, or who has been freed for adoption, shall be given preference with respect to that child over all other applications for adoptive placement if the agency making the placement determines that the child has substantial emotional ties to the relative caretaker or foster parent and removal from the relative caretaker or foster parent would be seriously detrimental to the child's well-being.

As used in this subdivision, "preference" means that the application shall be processed and, if satisfactory, the family study shall be completed before the processing of the application of any other person for the adoptive placement of the child.

(k) An order by the court directing that a hearing pursuant to this section be held is not an appealable order, but may be the subject of review by extraordinary writ.

SEC. 18. Section 366.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366.3. (a) If a juvenile court orders a permanent plan of adoption or legal guardianship pursuant to Section 366.25 or 366.26, the court shall retain jurisdiction over the minor until the minor is adopted or the legal guardianship is established. The status of the minor shall be reviewed every six months to ensure that the adoption or guardianship is completed as expeditiously as possible. When the adoption of the minor has been granted, the court shall terminate its jurisdiction over the minor. The court may continue jurisdiction following the establishment of a legal guardianship, if continued jurisdiction is in the interests of the minor. Following a termination of parental rights the parent or parents shall not be a party to, or receive notice of, any subsequent proceedings regarding the minor.

(b) If the court has dismissed jurisdiction following the establishment of a legal guardianship and the legal guardianship is subsequently revoked or otherwise terminated, the county department of social services or welfare department shall notify the juvenile court of this fact. The court may vacate its previous order dismissing jurisdiction over the minor.

Notwithstanding Section 1601 of the Probate Code, the proceedings to terminate a guardianship which has been granted pursuant to Section 366.25 or 366.26 shall be held in the juvenile court, unless the termination is due to the emancipation or adoption of the minor. If the petition to terminate guardianship is granted, the juvenile court may resume jurisdiction over the minor, and may order the county department of social services or welfare department to develop a new permanent plan, which shall be presented to the court within 60 days of the termination.

Unless the parental rights of the child's parent or parents have been terminated, they shall be notified that the guardianship has been revoked or terminated and shall be entitled to participate in the new permanency planning hearing. The court shall try to place the minor in another permanent placement. At the hearing, the parents may be considered as custodians but the minor shall not be returned to the parent or parents unless they prove, by a preponderance of the evidence, that reunification is the best alternative for the minor. The court may, if it is in the interests of the minor, order that reunification services again be provided to the parent or parents.

(c) If the minor is in a placement other than a preadoptive home or the home of a legal guardian and jurisdiction has not been dismissed, the status of the minor shall be reviewed every six months. This review may be conducted by the court or an appropriate local agency; the court shall conduct the review upon the request of the minor's parents or guardian or of the minor and shall conduct the review 18 months after the hearing held pursuant to Section 366.26 and every 18 months thereafter. The reviewing body shall inquire about the progress being made to provide a permanent home for the minor and shall determine the appropriateness of the placement, the continuing appropriateness and extent of compliance with the permanent plan for the child, the extent of compliance with the case plan, and the adequacy of services provided to the child. The review shall also include a determination of the services needed to assist a child who is 16 years of age or older make the transition from foster care to independent living.

Each licensed foster family agency shall submit reports for each minor in its care, custody, and control to the court concerning the continuing appropriateness and extent of compliance with the minor's permanent plan, the extent of compliance with the case plan, and the type and adequacy of services provided to the minor.

Unless their parental rights have been permanently terminated, the parent or parents of the minor are entitled to receive notice of, and participate in, those hearings. It shall be presumed that continued care is in the interests of the minor, unless the parent or parents prove, by a preponderance of the evidence, that further efforts at reunification are the best alternative for the minor. In those cases, the court may order that further reunification services be provided to the parent or parents for a period not to exceed six months.

SEC. 19. Section 16503 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

16503. (a) Subsequent to completion of the hearing conducted pursuant to Section 366.25 or 366.26, the agency responsible for placement and care of a minor, as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 11400, shall ensure that a child in foster care shall receive administrative reviews periodically but no less frequently than once every six months. The administrative review shall determine the appropriateness of the placement, the continuing appropriateness and extent of compliance with the permanent plan for the child, the extent of compliance with the case plan, and adequacy of services provided to the child.

(b) The term "administrative review" means a review open to the participation of the parents of a child in foster care conducted by a panel of appropriate persons at least one of whom is not responsible for the case management of, or the delivery of services to either the child or the parents who are the subject of the review.

(c) The department shall develop and implement regulations establishing processes, procedures and standards for the conduct of administrative reviews.

(d) The requirements of this section shall not be interpreted as requiring duplicate concurrent court and administrative reviews.

SEC. 20. Section 52 of Chapter 1485 of the Statutes of 1987 is amended to read:

Sec. 52. Section 4.5 of this act shall be operative January 1, 1992.

SEC. 21. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 914

An act to amend Section 8880.38 of the Government Code, relating to criminal history information.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8880.38 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.38. Deputy Director for Security

One of the deputy directors shall be responsible for a security division to assure integrity, honesty, and fairness in the operation and administration of the California State Lottery, including, but not limited to, an examination of the qualifications and criminal history of all prospective and current employees, prospective and current Lottery Game Retailers, and prospective and current Lottery suppliers as defined in Section 8880.57. Fingerprints shall be obtained in this process and shall be furnished to the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice shall submit one set of the fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation as required, and shall retain the other set to obtain the California criminal history record that may be maintained.

The Deputy Director for Security shall be qualified by training and experience, including at least five years of law enforcement experience, and shall have knowledge and experience in computer security, to fulfill these responsibilities. The Deputy Director for Security shall confer with the Attorney General or his or her designee and the Controller or his or her designee as the Deputy Director for Security deems necessary and advisable to promote and ensure integrity, security, honesty, and fairness of the operation and administration of the Lottery. The Deputy Director for Security shall report any alleged violation of any law related to the operations of the California State Lottery to the appropriate law enforcement agency and the Attorney General for further investigation and action. The Deputy Director for Security and lottery security officers shall have access to criminal history information pursuant to Sections 11105 and 11105.01 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of Section 1 of this act further the purpose of the California State Lottery Act of 1984

CHAPTER 915

An act to amend Sections 4585, 4586, 4587, 4590, 4591, and 4604 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to forest practices.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4585 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by Section 8 of Chapter 987 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

4585. (a) Within one month after completion of the work described in the timber harvesting plan, excluding work for stocking, site preparation, or maintenance of drainage facilities and soil stabilization treatments on skid trails, roads, and landings after the plan period a report shall be filed by the timber owner or the owner's agent with the department that all work, except stocking, site preparation, or maintenance of drainage facilities and soil stabilization, has been completed.

(b) If all of the work described in the plan has not been completed, a report may be filed annually with respect to a portion of the area covered by the plan which has been completed. The portion completed shall be adequately identified on a map submitted with the report.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 4585 of the Public Resources Code, as added by Section 9 of Chapter 987 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

4585. Within one month after completion of the work described in the timber harvesting plan, excluding work for stocking, site preparation, or maintenance of drainage facilities and soil stabilization treatments on skid trails, roads, and landings after the plan period, a report shall be filed by the timber owner or the owner's agent with the department that all work, except stocking, site preparation, or maintenance of drainage facilities and soil stabilization has been completed.

This section shall become operative January 1, 1994.

SEC. 3. Section 4585 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by Section 8 of Chapter 987 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

4585. (a) Within one month after completion of the work described in the timber harvesting plan, excluding work for stocking, site preparation, or maintenance of drainage facilities and soil stabilization treatments on skid trails, roads, and landings after the plan period, a report shall be filed by the timber owner or the owner's agent with the department that all work, except stocking, site preparation, or maintenance of drainage facilities and soil stabilization, has been completed.

(b) If all of the work described in the plan has not been completed, a report may be filed annually with respect to a portion of the area covered by the plan which has been completed. The portion completed shall be adequately identified on a map submitted with the report.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, or until the effective date of the rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Forestry pursuant to Senate Bill 1566, whichever date occurs first, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 4585 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

4585. (a) Within one month after completion of the work described in the timber harvesting plan or nonindustrial timber harvest notice, excluding work for stocking, site preparation, or maintenance of drainage facilities and soil stabilization treatments on skid trails, roads, and landings after the plan period, a report shall be filed by the timber owner or the owner's agent with the department that all work, except stocking, site preparation, or maintenance of drainage facilities and soil stabilization, has been completed.

(b) If all of the work described in the plan has not been completed, a report may be filed annually with respect to a portion of the area covered by the plan which has been completed. The portion completed shall be adequately identified on a map submitted with the report

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1991, or on the effective date of the rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Forestry pursuant to Senate Bill 1566, whichever date occurs first, and shall remain operative until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5. Section 4585 of the Public Resources Code, as added by Section 9 of Chapter 987 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

4585. Within one month after completion of the work described in the timber harvesting plan or nonindustrial timber harvest notice, excluding work for stocking, site preparation, or maintenance of drainage facilities and soil stabilization treatments on skid trails, roads, and landings after the plan period, a report shall be filed by the timber owner or the owner's agent with the department that all work, except stocking, site preparation, or maintenance of drainage facilities and soil stabilization has been completed.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1994.

SEC. 6. Section 4586 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

4586. Within six months of the receipt of the work completion report specified in Section 4585, the director shall determine, by inspection, whether the work described in the report, excluding stocking, has been properly completed in conformity with the rules and regulations of the board and standards of this chapter. If it has been so completed, the director shall issue a report of satisfactory completion of all items except stocking. If not, the director shall take such corrective action as he or she deems appropriate in accordance with Article 8 (commencing with Section 4601).

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date if repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1994, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 4586 of this code, as amended by Section 265 of Chapter 676 of the Statutes of 1980, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

SEC. 7. Section 4587 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 170 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

4587. (a) Within five years after completion of timber operations on an area identified in a report submitted pursuant to Section 4585, a report of stocking with respect to that area shall be filed by the timber owner or the owner's agent with the department. A separate report of stocking may be filed with the work completion report for those areas which meet stocking requirements upon completion of timber operations. The board, by regulation, shall establish one or more statistically valid standardized sampling procedures designed to measure the number of trees and their dispersion.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the board shall adopt regulations which specify the conditions and manner in which the necessity of employing sampling procedures may be waived. The regulations shall provide that, in addition to any other possible conditions which may be required by the board, the standard sampling procedures may be waived only if the director or the director's representative and the timber owner or a registered professional forester acting as the owner's agent agree that the area is adequately stocked to meet the standards of this chapter and other applicable rules or regulations of the board. The regulations shall require that, if the director or the director's representative does not agree that the area is so stocked, a standardized sample shall be required.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date

SEC. 8. Section 4587 of the Public Resources Code, as added by Section 4 of Chapter 170 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

4587. (a) Within five years after completion of timber operations on an area covered by a timber harvesting plan, a report of stocking shall be filed by the timber owner or the owner's agent with the department. A separate report of stocking may be filed with the work completion report for those areas which meet stocking requirements upon completion of timber operations. The board, by regulation, shall establish one or more statistically valid standardized sampling procedures which shall be designed to measure the number of trees and their dispersion.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the board shall adopt regulations which specify the conditions and manner in which the necessity of employing sampling procedures may be waived. The regulations shall provide that, in addition to any other possible conditions which may be required by the board, the standard sampling procedures may be waived only if the director or the director's representative and the timber owner or a registered professional forester acting as the owner's agent agree that the area is adequately stocked to meet the standards of this chapter and other applicable rules or regulations of the board. The regulations shall require that, if the director or the director's representative does not agree that the area is so stocked, a standardized sample shall be required.

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1994.

SEC. 9. Section 4587 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 170 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

4587. (a) Within five years after completion of timber operations on an area identified in a report submitted pursuant to Section 4585, a report of stocking with respect to that area shall be filed by the timber owner or the owner's agent with the department. A separate report of stocking may be filed with the work completion report for those areas which meet stocking requirements upon completion of timber operations. The board, by regulation, shall establish one or more statistically valid standardized sampling procedures designed to measure the number of trees and their dispersion.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the board shall adopt regulations which specify the conditions and manner in which the necessity of employing sampling procedures may be waived. The regulations shall provide that, in addition to any other possible conditions which may be required by the board, the standard sampling procedures may be waived only if the director or the director's representative and the timber owner or a registered professional forester acting as the owner's agent agree that the area is adequately stocked to meet the standards of this chapter and other applicable rules or regulations of the board. The regulations shall require that, if the director or the director's representative does not agree that the area is so stocked, a standardized sample shall be required.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, or until the effective date of the rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Forestry pursuant to Senate Bill 1566, whichever date occurs first, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 4587 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

4587. (a) Within five years after completion of timber operations on an area identified in a report submitted pursuant to Section 4585 or nonindustrial timber harvest notice, a report of stocking with respect to that area shall be filed by the timber owner or the owner's agent with the department. A separate report of stocking may be filed with the work completion report for those areas which meet stocking requirements upon completion of timber operations. The board, by regulation, shall establish one or more statistically valid standardized sampling procedures designed to measure the number of trees and their dispersion.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the board shall adopt regulations which specify the conditions and manner in which the necessity of employing sampling procedures may be waived. The regulations shall provide that, in addition to any other possible conditions which may be required by the board, the standard sampling procedures may be waived only if the director or the director's representative and the timber owner or a registered professional forester acting as the owner's agent agree that the area is adequately stocked to meet the standards of this chapter and other applicable rules or regulations of the board. The regulations shall require that, if the director or the director's representative does not agree that the area is so stocked, a standardized sample shall be required.

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1991, or on the effective date of the rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Forestry, pursuant to Senate Bill 1566, whichever date occurs first and shall remain operative until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 11. Section 4587 of the Public Resources Code, as added by Section 4 of Chapter 170 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

4587. (a) Within five years after completion of timber operations on an area covered by a timber harvesting plan or nonindustrial timber harvest notice, a report of stocking shall be filed by the timber owner or the owner's agent with the department. A separate report of stocking may be filed with the work completion report for those areas which meet stocking requirements upon completion of timber operations. The board, by regulation, shall establish one or more statistically valid standardized sampling procedures which shall be designed to measure the number of trees and their dispersion.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the board shall adopt regulations which specify the conditions and manner in which the necessity of employing sampling procedures may be waived. The regulations shall provide that, in addition to any other possible conditions which may be required by the board, the standard sampling procedures may be waived only if the director or the director's representative and the timber owner or a registered professional forester acting as the owner's agent agree that the area is adequately stocked to meet the standards of this chapter and other applicable rules or regulations of the board. The regulations shall require that, if the director or the director's representative does not agree that the area is so stocked, a standardized sample shall be required.

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1994.

SEC. 12. Section 4590 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

4590. (a) (1) A timber harvesting plan is effective for a period of not more than three years, unless extended pursuant to paragraph (2).

(2) A timber harvesting plan on which work has been commenced but not completed may be extended by amendment for a one-year period in order to complete the work, up to a maximum of two one-year extensions, if (1) good cause is shown and (2) all timber operations are in conformance with the plan, this chapter, and all applicable rules and regulations, upon the filing of the notice of extension as required by this paragraph. The extension shall apply to any area covered by the plan for which a report has not been submitted under Section 4585. The notice of extension shall be provided to the department not sooner than 30 days, but at least 10 days, prior to the expiration date of the plan. The notice shall include the circumstances which prevented a timely completion of the work under the plan and, consistent with Section 4583, an agreement to comply with this chapter and the rules and regulations of the board as they exist on the date the extension notice is filed

(b) Stocking work may continue for more than the effective period of the plan under subdivision (a), but shall be completed within five years after the conclusion of other work.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1994, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 4590 of this code, as added by Section 4 of Chapter 880 of the Statutes of 1973, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

SEC. 13. Section 4591 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

4591. Amendments to the original timber harvesting plan may be submitted detailing proposed changes from the original plan. Substantial deviations from the original plan shall not be undertaken until the amendment has been filed with, and acted upon, by the department in accordance with Sections 4582.7 and 4583. An amendment may not extend the effective period of the plan, except as provided in Section 4590.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1994, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 4591 of this code, as amended by Section 95 of Chapter 1300 of the Statutes of 1976, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

SEC. 14. Section 4604 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

4604. (a) The department shall provide an initial inspection of the area in which timber operations are to be conducted within 10 days from the date of filing of the timber harvesting plan, or a longer period as may be mutually agreed upon by the department and the person submitting the plan, except that the inspection need not be made if the department determines that it would not add substantive information that is necessary to enforce this chapter. In any event, the department shall provide for inspections, as needed, as follows:

(1) During the period of commencement of timber operations.

(2) When timber operations are well under way.

(3) Following completion of timber operations.

(4) At any other times determined to be necessary to enforce this chapter.

(b) (1) The Department of Fish and Game, the regional water quality control boards, or the State Water Resources Control Board, if accompanied by Department of Forestry and Fire Protection personnel and after 24-hour advance notification is given to the landowner, may enter and inspect land during normal business hours at any time after commencement of timber harvest plan activities on the land and before the director issues a report of satisfactory completion of stocking pursuant to Section 4588 or at any time before the end of the first winter period following the filing of a work completion report pursuant to Section 4585, whichever is later. Any member of the inspection party may utilize whatever measurement and evaluation devices, including, but not limited to, photographic equipment and temperature measurement devices, as determined to be necessary, when participating in an inspection of an area pursuant to subdivision (a) or after commencement of timber harvesting plan activities pursuant to this subdivision

(2) Photographs taken during inspections shall be clearly labeled as to time, date, and location and shall be the property of the department and part of the inspection record. The inspection record shall be subject to all provisions of the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

(3) This subdivision is not a limitation upon the authority of any agency to inspect pursuant to any other provision of law.

SEC. 15. Section 4604 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

4604. (a) The department shall provide an initial inspection of the area in which timber operations are to be conducted within 10 days from the date of filing of the timber harvesting plan, or a longer period as may be mutually agreed upon by the department and the person submitting the plan, except that the inspection need not be made if the department determines that it would not add substantive information that is necessary to enforce this chapter. In any event, the department shall provide for inspections, as needed, as follows:

(1) During the period of commencement of timber operations.

(2) When timber operations are well under way.

(3) Following completion of timber operations.

(4) At any other times as determined to be necessary to enforce this chapter.

(b) (1) The Department of Fish and Game, the regional water quality control boards, or the State Water Resources Control Board, if accompanied by Department of Forestry and Fire Protection personnel and after 24-hour advance notification is given to the landowner, may enter and inspect land during normal business hours at any time after commencement of timber harvest plan activities on the land and before the director issues a report of satisfactory completion of stocking pursuant to Section 4588 or at any time before the end of the first winter period following the filing of a work completion report pursuant to Section 4585, whichever is later. Any member of the inspection party may utilize whatever measurement and evaluation devices, including. but not limited to, photographic equipment and temperature measurement devices, as determined to be necessary, when participating in an inspection of an area pursuant to subdivision (a) or after commencement of timber harvesting plan activities pursuant to this subdivision.

(2) Photographs taken during inspections shall be clearly labeled as to time, date, and location and shall be the property of the department and part of the inspection record. The inspection record shall be subject to all provisions of the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

(3) This subdivision is not a limitation upon the authority of any agency to inspect pursuant to any other provision of law.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, or until the effective date of the rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Forestry pursuant to Senate Bill 1566, whichever date occurs first, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 16. Section 4604 is added to Public Resources Code, to read:

4604. (a) The department shall provide an initial inspection of the area in which timber operations are to be conducted within 10 days from the date of filing of the timber harvesting plan or nonindustrial timber management plan, or a longer period as may be mutually agreed upon by the department and the person submitting the plan. The department shall provide for inspections, as follows:

(1) During the period of commencement of timber operations.

(2) When timber operations are well under way.

(3) Following completion of timber operations.

(4) At any other times as determined to be necessary to enforce this chapter.

(b) (1) The Department of Fish and Game, the regional water quality control boards, or the State Water Resources Control Board, if accompanied by Department of Forestry and Fire Protection personnel and after 24-hour advance notification is given to the landowner, may enter and inspect land during normal business hours at any time after commencement of timber harvest plan activities on the land and before the director issues a report of satisfactory completion of stocking pursuant to Section 4588 or at any time before the end of the first winter period following the filing of a work completion report pursuant to Section 4585, whichever is later. Any member of the inspection party may utilize whatever measurement and evaluation devices, including, but not limited to, photographic equipment and temperature measurement devices, as determined to be necessary, when participating in an inspection of an area pursuant to subdivision (a) or after commencement of timber harvesting plan activities pursuant to this subdivision.

(2) Photographs taken during inspections shall be clearly labeled as to time, date, and location and shall be the property of the department and part of the inspection record. The inspection record shall be subject to all provisions of the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

(3) This subdivision is not a limitation upon the authority of any agency to inspect pursuant to any other provision of law.

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1991, or on the effective date of the rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Forestry pursuant to Senate Bill 1566, whichever date occurs first.

SEC. 17. Sections 3, 4, and 5 of this bill incorporate amendments to Section 4585 of the Public Resources Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1566. These sections shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1990, (2) each bill amends Section 4585 of the Public Resources Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1566, in which case Sections 1 and 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 18. Sections 9, 10, and 11 of this bill incorporate amendments to Section 4587 of the Public Resources Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1566. These sections shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1990, (2) each bill amends Section 4587 of the Public Resources Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1566, in which case Sections 7 and 8 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 19. Sections 15 and 16 of this bill incorporate amendments to Section 4604 of the Public Resources Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1566. These sections shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1990, (2) each bill amends Section 4604 of the Public Resources Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1566, in which case Section 14 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 916

An act to amend Section 39141.8 of, and to add Sections 1986 and 39324 to, the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1986 is added to the Education Code, to read:

1986. (a) The Legislature hereby recognizes that community schools are a permissive educational program.

(b) If a county superintendent of schools elects to operate a community school pursuant to this chapter, he or she shall do one or more of the following:

(1) Utilize available school facilities that conform to the requirements of Part 2 (commencing with Section 2-101), Part 3 (commencing with Section 3-089-1), Part 4 (commencing with Section 4-403), and Part 5 (commencing with Section 5-102), of Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations.

(2) Apply for emergency portable classrooms pursuant to Chapter 25 (commencing with Section 17785) of Part 10.

(3) Enter into lease agreements provided that the facilities are limited to one of the following:

(A) Single story, wood-framed structure.

(B) Single story, light steel frame structure.

(C) A structure where a structural engineer has submitted a report that determines substantial structural hazards do not exist. The county board of education shall review the report prior to approval of the lease and may reject the report if there is any evidence of fraud regarding the facts in the report.

(c) Before entering into any lease pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (b), the county superintendent of schools shall certify that all reasonable efforts have been made to locate community schools in facilities that conform to the structural safety standards listed in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b).

(d) On or before September 1, 1993, and every three years thereafter, each county superintendent of schools shall report to the State Allocation Board on the facilities utilized for the operation of community schools and efforts to place community school programs in facilities that conform with the requirements of Part 2 (commencing with Section 2-101), Part 3 (commencing with Section 3-089-1), Part 4 (commencing with Section 4-403), and Part 5 (commencing with Section 5-102), of Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations.

(e) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1990.

SEC. 2. Section 39141.8 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39141.8. (a) Notwithstanding Section 39141.4, any high school pupil who attends a class or classes on a campus of the University of California or the California State University in order to receive specialized educational services and opportunities authorized by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 58800) of Part 31 and any adult attending a special education program established pursuant to Part 30 (commencing with Section 56000), is considered a pupil of that campus for the purposes of Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) of Chapter 2 of Part 23. Any building or structure or portion of building or structure that pupils occupy pursuant to this section shall not be considered "school buildings" within the meaning of Section 39141.

(b) The governing board of each school district, each county board of education, or each county superintendent of schools, as appropriate, shall notify, in writing, the parent or guardian of each high school pupil who attends a class or classes authorized by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 58800) of Part 31 and each adult attending a special education program established pursuant to Part 30 (commencing with Section 56000), prior to the pupil's attendance at the class on a university campus that, although University of California and California State University buildings are required to conform to the rigorous standards of the Uniform Building Code (UBC), the buildings on the university campuses may not meet the requirements of Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) of Chapter 2 of Part 23. This notice shall accompany, to the greatest extent possible, any existing notification to parents or guardians regarding specialized educational services and opportunities.

SEC. 3. Section 39324 is added to the Education Code, to read:

39324. The State Allocation Board shall consider community school pupils housed in leased facilities that do not conform to the requirements of Part 2 (commencing with Section 2-101), Part 3 (commencing with Section 3-089-1), Part 4 (commencing with Section 4-403), and Part 5 (commencing with Section 5-102), of Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations as unhoused for the purposes of determining priority for the leasing of portable classrooms pursuant to Chapter 25 (commencing with Section 17785) of Part 10.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 917

An act to amend Sections 8880.14, 8880.20, 8880.25, 8880.31, 8880.32, 8880.46, 8880.56, 8880.59, 8880.64. and 12419.5 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code, relating to the California State Lottery.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8880.14 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.14. "Lottery Contractor"

"Lottery Contractor" means a person or organization with whom the Lottery has contracted for the purpose of providing goods and services required by the Lottery.

SEC. 2. Section 8880.20 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.20. Meetings

Meetings of the Commission shall be open and public in accordance with the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act (Article 9 (commencing with Section 11120) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 3).

SEC. 3. Section 8880.25 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.25. Operation of the Lottery

The Lottery shall be initiated and operated so as to produce the maximum amount of net revenues to supplement the total amount of money allocated for public education in California.

SEC. 4. Section 8880.31 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.31. Sale Price of Tickets and Shares

The Commission shall promulgate rules and regulations specifying the retail sales price for each ticket or share for each Lottery Game, provided:

(a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), no ticket or share shall be sold for more or less than the retail sales price established by the Commission.

(b) The retail price of each ticket or share in any Lottery Game conducted by the Lottery shall be at least one dollar ($1), except to the extent of any discounts authorized by the Commission.

SEC. 5. Section 8880.32 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.32. Validation and Payment of Prizes

The Commission shall promulgate rules and regulations to establish a system of verifying the validity of prizes and to effect payment of the prizes, provided:

(a) For convenience of the public, Lottery Game Retailers may be authorized by the Commission to pay winners of up to six hundred dollars ($600) after performing validation procedures on their premises appropriate to the Lottery Game involved.

(b) No prize may be paid arising from tickets or shares that are stolen, counterfeit, altered, fraudulent, unissued, produced or issued in error, unreadable, not received or not recorded by the Lottery by applicable deadlines, lacking in captions that confirm and agree with the lottery play symbols required by the Lottery Game involved, purchased by a minor, or not in compliance with additional specific rules and regulations and confidential validation and security tests appropriate to the particular Lottery Game. The Lottery may pay a prize of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) even though the actual winning ticket is not received by the Lottery if the Lottery validates the claim for the prize based upon substantial proof.

The Commission may require that any form relating to a claim for a prize shall be signed under penalty of perjury. Any such declaration shall meet the requirements of Section 2015.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) No particular prize in any Lottery Game shall be paid more than once.

(d) The Commission may specify that winners of less than twenty-five dollars ($25) claim the prizes from either the same Lottery Game Retailer from whom it was purchased or from the Lottery itself.

(e) Players shall have the right to claim prize money for 180 days after the drawing or the end of the Lottery Game or play in which the prize was won. The Commission may define shorter time periods for eligibility for participation in, and entry into, drawings involving entries or finalists. If a valid claim is not made for a prize directly payable by the Lottery Commission or for any Lotto prize within the period applicable for that prize, the unclaimed prize money shall revert to the benefit of the public purpose described in this chapter.

(f) After the expiration of the claim period for prizes for each Lottery Game, the Commission shall make available a detailed tabulation of the total number of tickets or shares actually sold in a Lottery Game and the total number of prizes of each prize denomination that were actually claimed and paid directly by the Lottery Commission.

(g) The right of any person to a prize shall not be assignable, except that payment of any prize may be paid to the estate of a deceased prize winner or to a person designated pursuant to an appropriate judicial order. In the event that there is no probate, the prize shall be paid to the survivors of the claimant in the following order:

(1) The claimant's spouse.

(2) The claimant's children.
(3) The claimant's parents.
(4) The claimant's brothers and sisters.

Payment shall be to the members of the group entitled, who are living on the date of death of the claimant, share and share alike. No payment shall be made to persons in any group if at the date of death there are living persons in any group preceding it. The Director, the Commission, and the state shall be discharged of all further liability upon the payment of a prize pursuant to this subdivision.

(h) A ticket or share shall not be purchased by, and a prize shall not be paid to, a member of the Commission, any officer or employee of the Commission, any officer or employee of the office of the Controller who is designated in writing by the Controller as having possible access to confidential Lottery information, programs, or systems, or any spouse, child, brother, sister, or parent of that person who resides within the same household of the person. Any person who knowingly sells or purchases a ticket or share in violation of this section, or who knowingly claims or attempts to claim a prize with a ticket or share that was purchased or sold in violation of this section, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(i) No prize shall be paid to any person under the age of 18 years. Any person who knowingly claims or attempts to claim a prize with a ticket or share purchased by a person under the age of 18 years is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 6. Section 8880.46 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.46. Independent Audit of Lottery Security

After the first nine months of sales to the public, the Commission shall engage an independent firm experienced in security procedures, including, but not limited to, computer security and systems security, to conduct a comprehensive study and evaluation of all aspects of security in the operation of the Lottery. This study shall include, but not be limited to, personnel security, Lottery Game Retailer security, Lottery Contractors security, security of manufacturing operations of Lottery Contractors, security against ticket counterfeiting and alterations and other means of fraudently winning, security of drawings, computer security, data communications security, data base security, systems security, lottery premises and warehouse security, security in distribution, security involving validation and payment procedures, security involving unclaimed prizes, security aspects applicable to each particular Lottery Game, security against locating winners in Lottery Games having preprinted winners, and any other aspects of security applicable to the Lottery and its operations. The portion of the report containing the overall evaluation of the Lottery in terms of each aspect of security shall be presented to the Commission, the Governor, the Controller, the Treasurer, the Attorney General, and the Legislature. The portion of the report containing specific recommendations shall be exempt from public disclosure and shall be presented only to the Commission, the Attorney General, the Controller and the Governor. Upon request, all materials and data used in the production of the report shall be made available to the Commission, the Attorney General, the Controller, and the Governor. Similar audits of security shall be conducted every two years after the completion of the first audit.

SEC. 7. Section 8880.56 of the Government Code is amended to read.

8880.56. Procurement

(a) Notwithstanding other provisions of law, the Director may purchase or lease such goods and services as are necessary for effectuating the purposes of this chapter. The Director may not contract with any private party for the operation and administration of the California State Lottery created by this chapter. However, this section does not preclude procurements which integrate functions such as game design, supply, advertising, and public relations. In all procurement decisions, the Commission and Director shall take into account the particularly sensitive nature of the California State Lottery and shall act to promote and ensure integrity, security, honesty, and fairness in the operation and administration of the Lottery and the objective of raising net revenues for the benefit of the public purpose described in this chapter.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the following shall apply to procurement for or by the Commission:

(1) To assure the fullest competition, the Commission shall adopt and publish competitive bidding procedures for the award of any procurement or contract involving an expenditure of more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000). The competitive bidding procedures shall include, but not be limited to, requirements for submission of bids and accompanying documentation, guidelines for the use of requests for proposals, invitations to bid, or other methods of bidding, and a bid protest procedure. The Director shall determine whether the goods or services subject to this paragraph are available through existing contracts or price schedules of the Department of General Services.

(2) The provisions of Article 1 (commencing with Section 11250) of Chapter 3 of Part 1 of Division 3 apply to the Commission.

(3) The Commission is subject to the Small Business Procurement and Contract Act, as provided in Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 14835) of Part 5.5 of Division 3.

(4) In advertising or awarding any contract for the procurement of goods and services exceeding five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), the Commission and the Director shall require all bidders or contractors, or both, to include specific plans or arrangements to utilize subcontracts with socially and economically disadvantaged small business concerns. The subcontracting plans shall delineate the nature and extent of the services to be utilized, and those concerns or individuals identified for subcontracting if known.

It is the intention of the Legislature in enacting this section to establish as an objective of the utmost importance the advancement of business opportunities for these small business concerns in the private business activities created by the California State Lottery. In that regard, the Commission and the Director shall have an affirmative duty to achieve the most feasible and practicable level of participation by socially and economically disadvantaged small business concerns in its procurement programs.

By July 1, 1986, the Commission shall adopt proposal evaluation procedures, criteria, and contract terms which are consistent with the advancement of business opportunities for small business concerns in the private business activities created by the California State Lottery and which will achieve the most feasible and practicable level of participation by socially and economically disadvantaged small business concerns in its procurement programs. The proposal evaluation procedures, criteria, and contract terms adopted shall be reported in writing to both houses of the Legislature on or before July 1, 1986.

For the purposes of this section, socially and economically disadvantaged persons include women, Black Americans, Hispanic Americans, Native Americans (including American Indians, Eskimos, Aleuts, and Native Hawaiians), Asian-Pacific Americans (including persons whose origins are from Japan, China, the Philippines, Vietnam, Korea, Samoa, Guam, the United States Trust Territories of the Pacific, Northern Marianas, Laos, Cambodia, and Taiwan), and other minorities or any other natural persons found by the Commission to be disadvantaged.

The Commission shall report to the Legislature by July 1, 1987, and by each July 1 thereafter, on the level of participation of small businesses, socially and economically disadvantaged businesses, and California businesses in all contracts awarded by the Commission.

(5) The Commission shall prepare and submit to the Legislature by October 1 of each year a report detailing the Lottery's purchase of goods and services through the Department of General Services. The report shall also include a listing of contracts awarded for more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), the name of the contractor, amount and term of the contract, and the basis upon which the contract was awarded.

The Lottery shall fully comply with the requirements of paragraphs (2) to (4), inclusive, except that any function or role which is otherwise the responsibility of the Department of Finance or the Department of General Services shall instead, for purposes of this subdivision, be the sole responsibility of the Lottery, which shall have the sole authority to perform that function or role.

SEC. 8. Section 8880.59 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.59. Performance Bond

Any Lottery Contractor may be required by the Lottery to post, with the Commission an acceptable performance bond, letter of credit, or other form of security or guarantee of performance, using a surety acceptable to the Commission, in an amount sufficient to protect the Lottery in case of default by the contractor. The Commission may require any Lottery Game Retailer to provide a fidelity bond which shall be payable upon order of the Commission.

SEC. 9. Section 8880.64 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.64. Expenses

Expenses of the Lottery shall include all costs incurred in the operation and administration of the Lottery and all costs resulting from any contracts entered into for the purchase or lease of goods and services required by the Lottery, including but not limited to, the costs of supplies, materials, tickets, independent audit services, independent studies, data transmission, advertising, promotion, incentives, public relations, communications, compensation paid to the Lottery Game Retailers, bonding for lottery game retailers, printing, distribution of tickets or shares, reimbursement of costs of services provided to the California State Lottery by other governmental entities, and for the costs for any other goods and services necessary for effectuating the purposes of this chapter. As a promotional expense, the Commission may supplement the prize pool of a game or games upon its determination that a supplement will benefit the public purpose of this chapter. No more than 16 percent of the total annual revenues accruing from the sale of all lottery tickets and shares from all Lottery Games shall be expended for the payment of the expenses of the Lottery.

SEC. 10. Section 12419.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12419.5. The Controller may, in his or her discretion, offset any amount due a state agency from a person or entity, against any amount owing that person or entity by any state agency. The Controller may deduct from the claim, and draw his or her warrants for the amounts offset in favor of the respective state agencies to which due, and, for any balance, in favor of the claimant Whenever insufficient to offset all amounts due state agencies, the amount available shall be applied in such manner as the Controller, in his or her discretion, shall determine. If, in the discretion of the Controller, the person or entity refuses or neglects to file his or her claim within a reasonable time, the head of the state agency owing the amount shall file the claim on behalf of that person or entity . If approved by the Controller, the claim shall have the same force and effect as though filed by that person or entity. The amount due any person or entity from the state or any agency thereof is the net amount otherwise owing that person or entity after any offset as provided in this section.

For purposes of this section, an amount owing to a person or entity by any state agency shall include any tax refund.

This section shall not apply to payment of on-line game prizes of ninty-nine dollars ($99) or lower by California State Lottery Retailers pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 8880.32.

SEC. 11. Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.4. (a) In any case in which a defendant has fulfilled the conditions of probation for the entire period of probation, or has been discharged prior to the termination of the period of probation, or in any other case in which a court, in its discretion and the interests of justice, determines that a defendant should be granted the relief available under this section, the defendant shall, at any time after the termination of the period of probation, if he or she is not then serving a sentence for any offense, on probation for any offense, or charged with the commission of any offense, be permitted by the court to withdraw his or her plea of guilty or plea of nolo contendere and enter a plea of not guilty; or, if he or she has been convicted after a plea of not guilty, the court shall set aside the verdict of guilty; and, in either case, the court shall thereupon dismiss the accusations or information against the defendant and except as noted below, he or she shall thereafter be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense of which he or she has been convicted, except as provided in Section 13555 of the Vehicle Code. The probationer shall be informed, in his or her probation papers, of this right and privilege and his or her right, if any, to petition for a certificate of rehabilitation and pardon. The probationer may make the application and change of plea in person or by attorney, or by the probation officer authorized in writing; however, in any subsequent prosecution of the defendant for any other offense, the prior conviction may be pleaded and proved and shall have the same effect as if probation had not been granted or the accusation or information dismissed. The order shall state, and the probationer shall be informed, that the order does not relieve him or her of the obligation to disclose the conviction in response to any direct question contained in any questionnaire or application for public office, for licensure by any state or local agency, or for contracting with the California State Lottery.

Dismissal of an accusation or information pursuant to this section does not permit a person to own, possess, or have in his or her custody or control any firearm capable of being concealed upon the person or prevent his or her conviction under Section 12021.

This subdivision shall apply to all applications for relief under this section which are filed on or after November 23, 1970.

(b) Subdivision (a) of this section does not apply to any misdemeanor which is within the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 42001 of the Vehicle Code, or to any infraction.

(c) A person who petitions for a change of plea or setting aside of a verdict under this section may be required to reimburse the county for the cost of services rendered at a rate to be determined by the county board of supervisors not to exceed sixty dollars ($60), and to reimburse any city for the cost of services rendered at a rate to be determined by the city council not to exceed sixty dollars ($60). Ability to make this reimbursement shall be determined by the court using the standards set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 987.8 and shall not be a prerequisite to a person's eligibility under this section. The court may order reimbursement in any case in which the petitioner appears to have the ability to pay, without undue hardship, all or any portion of the cost for services established pursuant to this subdivision.

(d) No relief shall be granted under this section unless the prosecuting attorney has been given 15 days' notice of the petition for relief. The probation officer shall notify the prosecuting attorney when a petition is filed, pursuant to this section.

It shall be presumed that the prosecuting attorney has received notice if proof of service is filed with the court.

(e) If, after receiving notice pursuant to subdivision (d), the prosecuting attorney fails to appear and object to a petition for dismissal, the prosecuting attorney may not move to set aside or otherwise appeal the grant of that petition.

SEC. 12. The Legislature finds and declares that this act furthers the purposes of the California State Lottery Act of 1984.

SEC 13 No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 918

An act to amend Section 17755 of the Education Code, relating to schools.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17755 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17755. (a) The board shall authorize project funding under this chapter for the construction, in urban areas in which the construction of schools would ordinarily require the removal of residential, commercial, or industrial structures, of four elementary or junior high schools, or any combination thereof, none of which serve any of the grades 10 to 12, inclusive.

(b) The construction funded pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be designed to minimize the need for the relocation of inhabitants of residential, commercial, or industrial structures. The design features of the schools may include, but should not be limited to, the use of below-ground facility construction, multistory construction, multiuse construction where single-use construction currently exists, the joint use of facilities that otherwise involve such uses as a shopping center, office complex, or apartment building, the joint or dual use of land that otherwise involves park or other uses, overhead or underground parking, or the use of areas above or below streets or freeways.

CHAPTER 919

An act to amend Sections 1505, 11830.5, 11831.5, 11833, 11834, 11834.10, 11834.11, 11834.12, 11834.14, 11834.17, 11834.18, 11834.20, 11834.21, 11834.22, 11834.23, 11834.24, 11834.25, 11834.30, and 11834.35 of, and to add Sections 11830, 11831, and 11834.19 to, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 6363.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to drug and alcohol treatment facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1505 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1505. This chapter does not apply to any of the following:

(a) Any health facility, as defined by Section 1250.

(b) Any clinic, as defined by Section 1202.

(c) Any juvenile placement facility approved by the California Youth Authority or any juvenile hall operated by a county.

(d) Any place in which a juvenile is judicially placed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 727 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) Any child day care facility, as defined in Section 1596.750.

(f) Any facility conducted by and for the adherents of any well-recognized church or religious denomination for the purpose of providing facilities for the care or treatment of the sick who depend upon prayer or spiritual means for healing in the practice of the religion of the church or denomination.

(g) Any school dormitory or similar facility determined by the department.

(h) Any house, institution, hotel, homeless shelter, or other similar place that supplies board and room only, or room only, or board only, provided that no resident thereof requires any element of care as determined by the director.

(i) Recovery houses or other similar facilities providing group living arrangements for persons recovering from alcoholism or drug addiction where the facility provides no care or supervision.

(j) Any alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility as defined by Section 11834.11.

(k) Any arrangement for the receiving and care of persons by a relative or any arrangement for the receiving and care of persons from only one family by a close friend of the parent, guardian, or conservator, if the arrangement is not for financial profit and occurs only occasionally and irregularly, as defined by regulations of the state department.

(l) Any similar facility determined by the director.

SEC. 2. Section 11830 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11830. The department shall take the following goals and objectives into consideration in the implementation of this chapter:

(a) The significance of community-based programs to alcohol recovery shall not be diminished.

(b) Opportunities for low-income and special needs populations to receive alcohol or drug abuse recovery or treatment services shall be encouraged.

SEC. 3 Section 11830.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11830.5. The department, in consultation with the State Advisory Board, county alcohol and drug program administrators, and other interested organizations and individuals, shall develop program standards specific to each type of residential program, to be used during its certification process. These standards shall be advisory only and are excluded from the provisions of Section 11347.5 of the Government Code and other requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code) and Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 11835).

The program standards shall include, but not be limited to, both of the following:

(a) Recognition and characterization of different approaches and solutions to the alcohol and drug problems that the department determines have sufficient merit for a separate standard.

(b) Reference to the needs of youth, the elderly, women, pregnant women, mothers and their children, gay, disabled, and minority populations, with recognition of innovative solutions to the problems of those special populations.

The program standards shall serve as educational documents to inform the public of the current state-of-the-art in effective and cost-efficient alcohol and drug problem programming.

SEC. 4. Section 11831 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11831. To the maximum extent possible, a reasonable effort to refer a client to other programs, facilities, or services is encouraged for any program or facility which is unable to accept a client after initial assessment.

SEC 5. Section 11831 5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11831.5. (a) Certification shall be granted by the department pursuant to this section to any alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment program wishing to receive, and requesting, the certification regardless of the source of the program's funding.

(b) The purposes of certification under this section shall be all of the following:

(1) To identify programs which exceed minimal levels of service quality, are in substantial compliance with the department's standards, and merit the confidence of the public, third party payers, and county alcohol and drug programs.

(2) To encourage programs to meet their stated goals and objectives.

(3) To encourage programs to strive for increased quality of service through recognition by the state and by peer programs in the alcoholism and drug field.

(4) To assist programs to identify their needs for technical assistance, training, and program improvements.

(c) Certification may be granted under this section on the basis of evidence satisfactory to the department that the requesting alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment program has an accreditation by a statewide or national alcohol or drug program accrediting body The accrediting body shall be one whose accreditation meets or exceeds the department's standards and which is recognized by the department.

(d) No fee shall be levied by the department for certification of nonprofit organizations or local governmental entities under this section.

(e) Certification, or the lack thereof, shall not convey any approval or disapproval by the department, but shall be for information purposes only.

(f) The standards developed pursuant to Section 11830 and the certification under this section shall satisfy the requirements of Section 1463.16 of the Penal Code.

(g) The department and the State Department of Social Services shall enter into an interagency agreement to establish a process by which the Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs can certify residential facilities or programs serving primarily adolescents as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code, and providing alcoholism and drug recovery or treatment services

The departments shall report to the Legislature no later than January 1, 1991, on the certification process they have identified to be used by the department in certifying adolescent programs.

SEC. 6. Section 11833 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11833 The department shall have the sole authority in state government to determine the qualifications, including the appropriate skills, education, training, and experience of personnel working within alcoholism or drug abuse recovery and treatment programs funded under this part.

SEC. 7. Section 11834 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11834. The department shall encourage the development of educational courses that provide core knowledge concerning alcohol and drug abuse problems and programs to personnel working within alcohol and drug abuse programs.

SEC. 8. Section 11834.10 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11834.10. The department has the sole authority in state government to license alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facilities serving adults.

SEC. 9. Section 11834.11 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11834.11. (a) As used in this chapter, alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility means any facility, place, or building which provides 24-hour residential nonmedical services in a group setting to adults, which may include, but need not be limited to, mothers over 18 years of age and their children, and emancipated minors, which may include, but need not be limited to, mothers under 18 years of age and their children, who are recovering from alcohol, drug, or drug and alcohol misuse and are currently capable of meeting their life support needs independently, but who temporarily need guidance, counseling, or other alcohol or drug recovery services.

(b) "Emancipated minors" as used in this chapter means persons under 18 years of age who have acquired emancipation status through one or more of the following methods.

(1) Declaration of emancipation pursuant to Section 64 of the Civil Code.

(2) Marriage.

(3) Service in any of the armed forces of the United States.

SEC. 10. Section 11834.12 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read· 11834.12. No person, firm, partnership, association, corporation, or local governmental entity shall operate, establish, manage, conduct, or maintain an alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility in this state without obtaining a current valid license issued pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 11 Section 11834.14 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11834.14. Licensure regulations under this chapter shall be consistent with the intent of subdivision (c) of Section 11760.3, and with the goal of protecting the public while promoting the public welfare. Criteria for licensure shall be limited to all of the following:

(a) Completion of a written application containing necessary and pertinent information describing the applicant facility.

(b) Submission by the applicant of a clearance relative to fire safety from the State Fire Marshal

(c) Demonstration by the applicant that it possesses adequate administrative, fiscal, and operational capability to achieve its stated goals and objectives.

(d) Inspection by the department, or by any departmental agent who has no financial interests, as defined in Section 87103 of the Government Code, in any alcoholism or drug abuse recovery facility, to determine that the applicant's facility is clean, safe, healthful, and free of alcohol or illicit drug use.

SEC. 12. Section 11834.17 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11834 17. No city, county, city and county, or district shall adopt or enforce any building ordinance or local rule or regulations relating to the subject of fire and life safety in alcoholism and drug abuse recovery facilities which is more restrictive than those standards adopted by the State Fire Marshal.

SEC. 13. Section 11834.18 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11834.18. (a) Nothing in this chapter shall authorize the imposition of rent regulations or controls for licensed alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facilities.

(b) Licensed alcoholism and drug abuse recovery or treatment facilities shall not be subject to controls on rent imposed by any state or local agency or other local government or entity.

SEC. 14. Section 11834.19 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11834.19. The department shall license alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facilities, as defined in Section 11834.11.

SEC. 15. Section 11834.20 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11834.20. The Legislature hereby declares that it is the policy of this state that each county and city shall permit and encourage the development of sufficient numbers and types of alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facilities as are commensurate with local need.

The provisions of this article apply equally to any chartered city, general law city, county, city and county, district, and any other local public entity.

For the purposes of this article, "six or fewer persons" does not include the licensee or members of the licensee's family or persons employed as facility staff.

SEC. 16. Section 11834.21 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11834.21. Any person licensed under this chapter who operates or proposes to operate an alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility, the department or other public agency authorized to license such a facility, or any public or private agency which uses or may use the services of the facility to place its clients, may invoke the provisions of this article.

This section shall not be construed to prohibit any interested party from bringing suit to invoke the provisions of this article.

SEC. 17. Section 11834.22 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11834.22. An alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility which serves six or fewer persons shall not be subject to any business taxes, local registration fees, use permit fees, or other fees to which other single-family dwellings are not likewise subject. Nothing in this section shall be construed to forbid the imposition of local property taxes, fees for water service and garbage collection, fees for inspections not prohibited by Section 11834.23, local bond assessments, and other fees, charges, and assessments to which other single-family dwellings are likewise subject. Neither the State Fire Marshal nor any local public entity shall charge any fee for enforcing fire inspection regulations pursuant to state law or regulation or local ordinance, with respect to alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facilities which serve six or fewer persons.

SEC. 18. Section 11834 23 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11834.23. Whether or not unrelated persons are living together, an alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility which serves six or fewer persons shall be considered a residential use of property for the purposes of this article. In addition, the residents and operators of such a facility shall be considered a family for the purposes of any law or zoning ordinance which relates to the residential use of property pursuant to this article.

For the purpose of all local ordinances, an alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility which serves six or fewer persons shall not be included within the definition of a boarding house, rooming house, institution or home for the care of minors, the aged, or the mentally infirm, foster care home, guest home, rest home, sanitarium, mental hygiene home, or other similar term which implies that the alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment home is a business run for profit or differs in any other way from a single-family residence.

This section shall not be construed to forbid any city, county, or other local public entity from placing restrictions on building heights, setback, lot dimensions, or placement of signs of an alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility which serves six or fewer persons as long as the restrictions are identical to those applied to other single-family residences.

This section shall not be construed to forbid the application to an alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility of any local ordinance which deals with health and safety, building standards, environmental impact standards, or any other matter within the jurisdiction of a local public entity. However, the ordinance shall not distinguish alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facilities which serve six or fewer persons from other single-family dwellings or distinguish residents of alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facilities from persons who reside in other single-family dwellings.

No conditional use permit, zoning variance, or other zoning clearance shall be required of an alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility which serves six or fewer persons that is not required of a single-family residence in the same zone.

Use of a single-family dwelling for purposes of an alcoholism or drug abuse recovery facility serving six or fewer persons shall not constitute a change of occupancy for purposes of Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 17910) of Division 13 or local building codes. However, nothing in this section is intended to supersede Section 13143 or 13143.6, to the extent those sections are applicable to alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facilities serving six or fewer residents.

SEC. 19. Section 11834.24 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11834.24. No fire inspection clearance or other permit, license, clearance, or similar authorization shall be denied to an alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility because of a failure to comply with local ordinances from which the facility is exempt under Section 11834.23, if the applicant otherwise qualifies for a fire clearance, license, permit, or similar authorization.

SEC. 20. Section 11834.25 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11834.25. For the purposes of any contract, deed, or covenant for the transfer of real property executed on or after January 1, 1979, an alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility which serves six or fewer persons shall be considered a residential use of property and a use of property by a single family, notwithstanding any disclaimers to the contrary.

SEC. 21. Section 11834.30 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11834.30. (a) The director may bring an action to enjoin the violation of Section 11834.12 in the superior court in and for the county in which the violation occurred. Any proceeding under this section shall conform to the requirements of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except that the director shall not be required to allege facts necessary to show or tending to show lack of adequate remedy at law or irreparable damage or loss.

(b) With respect to any and all actions brought pursuant to this section alleging actual violation of Section 11834.12, the court shall, if it finds the allegations to be true, issue its order enjoining the alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility from continuance of the violation

SEC. 22. Section 11834.35 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11834.35. (a) The director may suspend or revoke any license issued under the provisions of this chapter, or deny an application to renew a license or to modify the terms and conditions of a license, upon any of the following grounds and in the manner provided in this chapter:

(1) Violation by the licensee of any provision of this chapter or regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter.

(2) Repeated violation by the licensee of any of the provisions of this chapter or regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter.

(3) Aiding, abetting, or permitting the violation of, or any repeated violation of, any of the provisions set forth in paragraph (1) or (2).

(4) Conduct in the operation of an alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility which is inimical to the health, morals, welfare, or safety of either an individual in, or receiving services from, the facility or the people of the State of California.

(5) Misrepresentation of any material fact in obtaining the alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility license.

(b) The director may temporarily suspend any license prior to any hearing when, in the opinion of the director, the action is necessary to protect residents of the alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility from physical or mental abuse, abandonment, or any other substantial threat to health or safety. The director shall notify the licensee of the temporary suspension and the effective date of the temporary suspension and at the same time shall serve the provider with an accusation. Upon receipt of a notice of defense to the accusation by the licensee, the director shall, within 15 days, set the matter for hearing, and the hearing shall be held as soon as possible but not later than 30 days after receipt of the notice. The temporary suspension shall remain in effect until the time the hearing is completed and the director has made a final determination on the merits. However, the temporary suspension shall be deemed vacated if the director fails to make a final determination on the merits within 30 days after the original hearing has been completed.

SEC. 23. Section 6363.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6363.6. There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use or other consumption in this state of, meals and food products for human consumption furnished or served to and consumed by residents or patients of:

(a) A health facility as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, which holds the license required pursuant to Section 1253, or is exempt from the license requirement pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1270, or is operated by the United States.

(b) A community care facility as defined in Section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code, which holds the license required by Section 1508, or is a residential facility selected by a licensee pursuant to Section 1506 and exclusively used for the reception and care of persons placed by such licensee, or is exempt from the license requirement pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 1505, or is operated by the United States.

(c) Any house or institution supplying board and room for a flat monthly rate and serving as a principal residence exclusively for persons 62 years of age or older.

(d) An alcoholism recovery facility, as defined in Section 11834.11 of the Health and Safety Code, which holds the license required by Section 11834.12 of the Health and Safety Code. This subdivision shall apply to meals served by the facility on or after January 1, 1985.

(e) A drug abuse recovery or treatment facility, as defined in Section 11834.11 of the Health and Safety Code, which holds the license required by Section 11834.12 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 24. The State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs shall adopt regulations no later than October 1, 1991, to implement Sections 2 to 22, inclusive, of this act.

CHAPTER 920

An act to amend Sections 1603.3, 1603.4, and 1632 of, to add Chapter 4.1 (commencing with Section 1640) to Division 2 of, and to repeal and add Section 195 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to infectious diseases.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 195 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 195 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

195. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the State Department of Health Services, working with the California AIDS Leadership Committee, has developed a draft state AIDS plan for comprehensive, coordinated government action against AIDS and HIV infection. It is the intention of the Legislature to implement those recommendations pertaining to infectious-disease screening of blood and other body parts and fluids, and to notifying donors of the results of those screening tests.

SEC. 3. Section 1603.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1603.3. (a) Prior to a donation of blood or blood components each donor shall be notified in writing of, and shall have signed a written statement confirming the notification of, all of the following:

(1) That the blood or blood components shall be tested for evidence of antibodies to the probable causative agent of acquired immune deficiency syndrome.

(2) That donors found to have serologic evidence of the antibodies shall be placed on a confidential statewide Blood Donor Deferral Register without a listing of the reason for being included on the register.

(3) That the donor shall be notified of the test results in accordance with the requirements described in subdivision (c).

(4) That the donor blood or blood component which is found to have the antibodies shall not be used for transfusion.

(5) That blood or blood components shall not be donated for transfusion purposes by a person if the person has reason to believe that he or she has been exposed to acquired immune deficiency syndrome.

(6) That the donor is required to complete a health screening questionnaire to assist in the determination as to whether he or she has been exposed to acquired immune deficiency syndrome.

(b) A blood bank or plasma center shall incorporate voluntary means of self-deferral for donors. The means of self-deferral may include, but are not limited to, a form with checkoff boxes specifying that the blood donated is for research or test purposes only and a telephone callback system for donors to use in order to inform the blood bank that blood donated should not be used for transfusion. The blood bank or plasma center shall inform the donor, in a manner that is understandable to the donor, that the self-deferral process is available and should be used if the donor has reason to believe that he or she is infected with the human immunodeficiency virus. The blood bank or plasma center shall also inform the donor that it is a felony pursuant to Section 1621.5 to donate blood if the donor knows that he or she has a diagnosis of AIDS or knows that he or she has tested reactive to the etiologic agent of AIDS or to antibodies to that agent.

(c) Blood or blood products from any donor initially found to have serologic evidence of antibodies to the probable causative agent of AIDS shall be retested for confirmation. Only if a further test confirms the conclusion of the earlier test shall the donor be notified of a reactive result by the blood bank or plasma center.

The state department shall develop permissive guidelines for blood banks and plasma centers on the method or methods to be used to notify a donor of a test result. Each blood bank or plasma center shall, upon positive confirmation using the best available and reasonable techniques, provide the information to the state department for inclusion in the Donor Deferral Register. Blood banks and plasma centers shall provide the information on donations testing reactive for the antibodies to the probable causative agent of AIDS and carrier donors of viral hepatitis to the department on a single list in the same manner without specification of the reason the donor appears on the list.

(d) The Blood Donor Deferral Register, as described in subdivision (e) of Section 1603.1, shall include names of individuals who are deferred from blood donations without identifying the reasons for deferral.

(e) Each blood bank or plasma center operating in California shall prominently display at each of its collection sites a notice which provides the addresses and phone numbers of sites, within the proximate area of the blood bank or plasma center, where tests provided pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 1630) may be administered without charge.

(f) The state department may promulgate any additional regulations it deems necessary to enhance the safety of donated blood and plasma. The state department may also promulgate regulations it deems necessary to safeguard the consistency and accuracy of HIV test results by requiring any confirmatory testing the state department deems appropriate for the particular types of HIV tests that have yielded "reactive," "positive," "indeterminate," or other similarly labeled results.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no civil liability or criminal sanction shall be imposed for disclosure of test results to a public health officer when the disclosure is necessary to locate and notify a blood donor of a reactive result if reasonable efforts by the blood bank or plasma center to locate the donor have failed. Upon completion of the public health officer's efforts to locate and notify a blood donor of a reactive result, all records obtained from the blood bank pursuant to this subdivision, or maintained pursuant to this subdivision, including, but not limited to, any individual identifying information or test results, shall be expunged by the public health officer.

SEC 4. Section 1603.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1603 4 (a) Notwithstanding Chapter 1.11 (commencing with Section 199.20) of Part 1 of Division 1, as added by Assembly Bill 403 of the 1985–86 Regular Session, or any other provision of law, no public entity or any private blood bank or plasma center shall be liable for an inadvertent, accidental, or otherwise unintentional disclosure of the results of an HIV test or information in the Donor Referral Register.

As used in this section, "public entity" includes, but is not limited to, any publicly owned or operated blood bank or plasma center and the state department.

(b) Neither the state department nor any blood bank or plasma center, including a blood bank or plasma center owned or operated by a public entity, shall be held liable for any damage resulting from the notification of test results, as set forth in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of, or in subdivision (c) of, Section 1603.3.

SEC. 5. Section 1632 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1632. (a) Each county, designated by the director, shall make the test available within its jurisdiction without charge, in an accessible manner and the tests shall be made available by the county on a confidential basis through use of a coded system with no linking of individual identity with the test request or results. The number and location of sites in each county designated by the director shall be approved by the director. The test shall be made available by the county either directly or by contract with a physician and surgeon or with any clinic or health facility licensed by the state department. Neither the county nor anyone else administering the test described in this article, shall ask for the name, social security number, or any other information which could reveal the identity of the individual who takes the test. Each alternative test site shall make available confidential information and referral services, within the funds available, to individuals who seek testing. A county may subcontract with individuals or entities to provide information and referral services.

All alternative test sites shall provide a referral list of physicians and surgeons or clinics knowledgeable about AIDS, to all persons who have any known risk factor for AIDS, especially those who have a reactive antibody test, for further information and explanation of the test results and for medical evaluation.

At a minimum, individuals seeking testing shall be informed about the validity and accuracy of the antibody test before the test is performed. All testing site personnel shall be required to attest to having provided the above information. Furthermore, all individuals who are tested at the sites established by this article shall be given the results of this test in person. All sites providing antibody testing pursuant to this article shall have a protocol for referral for 24-hour inpatient and mental health services. All individuals awaiting test results and all persons to whom results are reported shall be informed of available crisis services and shall be directly referred, if necessary.

Each county, designated by the director, shall be required to submit a plan to the state department within 45 days after the effective date of this section which details where testing and pretest and posttest information and referral will be provided and the qualifications of the staff who will be performing the services required by this article. The state department shall make training available, especially to smaller counties.

(b) The state department shall establish a reimbursement process for counties within 30 days after the effective date of this section for the following services:

(1) Informing test applicants on the test's reliability and validity.

(2) Administration of tests, analysis of test samples, and costs associated with the laboratory work required by this antibody test.

(3) Short-term information and referral sessions, of no more than one visit per person tested for the purpose of transmitting the person's test results and, as requested, for referral to available followup services.

The state department shall establish the amounts to be reimbursed for each of these services, but the amounts shall be established at a level to ensure that the purposes of this article are carried out Reimbursements shall be made for each service provided.

(c) The state department may replace the test for the antibody to the probable causative agent for AIDS with another type of HIV test, as the state department deems appropriate.

(d) The director may grant a waiver to a county from the requirements of this article if the county petitions the director for the waiver and the director determines that the waiver is consistent with the purposes of this article.

(e) A participating county or the state department may accept grants, donations, and in-kind services for purposes of carrying out this article.

SEC. 6. Chapter 4.1 (commencing with Section 1640) is added to Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, to read.

CHAPTER 4.1. DONATIONS OF ORGANS, TISSUES, OR BODY FLUIDS

1640. (a) The State Department of Health Services shall adopt regulations requiring the screening for infectious diseases of all donors of organs, tissues, or body fluids intended for introduction into the body of another person by means of transplantation, therapeutic insemination, ingestion, or other means or procedure. This screening shall include, but not be limited to, testing for the presence of HIV.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), infectious disease screening of blood and blood products shall be carried out solely in accordance with Article 2 (commencing with Section 1601) of Chapter 4.

SEC. 7 No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 921

An act to amend Section 8102 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mental health, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows.

SECTION 1. Section 8102 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

8102. (a) Whenever a person who has been detained or apprehended for examination of his or her mental condition or who is a person described in Section 8100 or 8103, is found to own, have in his or her possession or under his or her control, any firearm whatsoever, or any other deadly weapon, the firearm or other deadly weapon shall be confiscated by any law enforcement agency or peace officer, who shall retain custody of the firearm or other deadly weapon

"Deadly weapon," as used in this section, has the meaning prescribed by Section 8100.

(b) Upon confiscation of any firearm or other deadly weapon from a person who has been detained or apprehended for examination of his or her mental condition, the peace officer or law enforcement agency shall notify the person of the procedure for the return of any firearm or other deadly weapon which has been confiscated.

Where the person is released without judicial commitment, the professional person in charge of the facility, or his or her designee, shall notify the person of the procedure for the return of any firearm or other deadly weapon which may have been confiscated.

Health facility personnel shall notify the confiscating law enforcement agency upon release of the detained person, and shall make a notation to the effect that the facility provided the required notice to the person regarding the procedure to obtain return of any confiscated firearm.

(c) Upon the release of a person without judicial commitment as described in subdivision (b), the confiscating law enforcement agency shall have 15 days, unless good cause is shown, to initiate a petition in the superior court for a hearing to determine whether the return of a firearm or other deadly weapon would be likely to result in endangering the person or others, and to send a notice advising the person of his or her right to a hearing on this issue

(d) The law enforcement agency shall inform the person that he or she has 15 days to respond to the court clerk to confirm his or her desire for a hearing, and that the failure to respond will result in a default order forfeiting the confiscated firearm or weapon. For the purpose of this subdivision, the person's last known address shall be the address provided to the law enforcement officer by the person at the time of the person's detention or apprehension.

(e) If the person responds and requests a hearing, the court clerk shall set a hearing, no sooner than 30 days but not later than 60 days from receipt of the request The court clerk shall notify the person and the district attorney of the date, time, and place of the hearing.

(f) If the person does not respond within 30 days of the notice, the law enforcement agency may file a petition for order of default.

(g) If the law enforcement agency does not initiate proceedings within the 15-day period, it shall make the weapon available for return

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act affirms for the state that which has been declared existing law or regulation by action of the courts and because counties will receive funding under the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act in lieu of such reimbursement.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are

It is essential that a constitutionally sound mechanism authorizing a procedure for the confiscation of firearms or other deadly weapons in the hands of persons taken into custody for evaluation of their mental condition, always be available to law enforcement agencies.

The case of Bryte v. City of La Mesa (207 Cal App. 3d 687; modified 208 Cal. App. 3d 544b; petition for review denied on May 18, 1989 - Supreme Court No. S009261) has cast doubt upon the validity of the current statutory authority regarding confiscation of these weapons. This doubt and the great danger which would result if law enforcement agencies are left with no statutory authority to confiscate these weapons, make it necessary that this bill take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 922

An act to add Sections 14035.1 and 14035.4 to the Government Code, and to amend Section 160006 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14035.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14035.1. Commuter rail service shall be provided to the communities between San Jose and Gilroy if the conditions specified in subdivision (a) of Section 14035.4 are completed. Upon the completion of those conditions, the powers and duties of the Department of Transportation with respect to the San Francisco Peninsula commuter rail service shall apply to the San Jose-Gilroy segment.

SEC. 2. Section 14035.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14035.4. (a) Commuter rail service between San Jose and Gilroy pursuant to Section 14035.1 or pursuant to Section 160006 of the Public Utilities Code may be provided only upon completion of all the following conditions:

(1) Adoption of a resolution by the governing board of the Santa Clara County Transit District agreeing to pay all of the capital outlay cost for providing the extended service and to reimburse the operating entity for all operating deficits incurred in operating the San Jose-Gilroy segment during the first two years of operation.

(2) Adoption of a resolution by one or more local agencies agreeing to reimburse the operating entity for all operating deficits resulting from operating the service between San Jose and Gilroy after the first two years of operation.

(3) Completion by the Santa Clara County Transit District of a feasibility study for the extended service.

(4) Completion and approval of all environmental impact report documents required for the extended service.

(b) With respect to the extended service between San Jose and Gilroy:

(1) The Santa Clara County Transit District shall be eligible to apply for appropriate state and federal funding. Operating funds from state or federal sources may not be applied to the costs of providing the service during its first two years of operation. If funds are appropriated for allocation to rail services pursuant to Section 14031.6, after the service has been operating for two years, those funds may be allocated to the service.

(2) The extended service is exempt from the requirements of Section 14031.9 during the first three years of operation.

SEC. 3. Section 160006 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

160006. (a) If the district acquires stations, facilities, and passenger equipment owned or leased by the Department of Transportation for the passenger rail service provided by the Southern Pacific Transportation Company between San Francisco and San Jose and points in between, and if the district acquires from the Department of Transportation the right-of-way between San Francisco and San Jose presently owned by the Southern Pacific Transportation Company, the district may own, operate, construct, manage, and maintain rights-of-way, stations, facilities, and equipment necessary for the operation of rail passenger and freight services between San Francisco and Alma and points in between, and may contract with any railroad corporation for the purchase of, or to subsidize, service between San Francisco and Alma and points in between. Upon completion of the conditions specified in subdivision (a) of Section 14035.4 of the Government Code, the district may provide commuter rail service between San Jose and Gilroy.

(b) Any assets transferred from the Department of Transportation to the district without compensation shall be transferred with all attendant obligations, liabilities, debts, and grant conditions established by the department, including Urban Mass Transportation Administration grants and sale and leaseback contracts.

CHAPTER 923

An act to add Section 2813.5 to the Penal Code, and to amend Section 286 of the Vehicle Code, relating to corrections.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows.

SECTION 1. Section 2813.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

2813.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter except subdivision (i) of Section 2808, the Director of Corrections may provide for the inmates in trade and industrial education or vocational training classes established under Section 2054 to restore and rebuild donated salvageable vehicles. Provided that these vehicles comply with Section 24007.5 of the Vehicle Code, they may be sold at public auction to private persons. No activity authorized by this section shall be established until the hearing, consideration, and approval requirements of subdivision (i) of Section 2808 have been completed with regard to that activity.

The proceeds of the sale after deduction of the cost of materials shall be deposited into a special account in the Special Deposit Fund by the Director of Corrections. Money in that account may, upon appropriation, be allocated by the director to a nonprofit agency to be used for the assistance of crime victims, or to the Restitution Fund in the State Treasury for indemnification of victims of crimes, but may not be used for any other purpose.

SEC. 2. Section 286 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

286. The term "dealer" does not include:

(a) Insurance companies, banks, finance companies, public officials, or any other person coming into possession of vehicles in the regular course of business, who sells vehicles under a contractual right or obligation, or in performance of an official duty, or in authority of any court of law; provided, the sale is for the purpose of saving the seller from loss or pursuant to the authority of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Persons who sell or distribute vehicles of a type subject to registration for a manufacturer to vehicle dealers licensed under this code, or who are employed by manufacturers or distributors to promote the sale of vehicles dealt in by those manufacturers or distributors; provided, however, that if any of those persons also sell vehicles at retail, they shall be deemed to be vehicle dealers and are subject to this code.

(c) Persons regularly employed as salesmen by vehicle dealers licensed under this code while acting within the scope of that employment.

(d) Persons engaged exclusively in the bona fide business of exporting vehicles or of soliciting orders for the sale and delivery of vehicles outside the territorial limits of the United States, if, no federal excise tax is legally payable or refundable on any of the transactions. Persons not engaged exclusively in the bona fide business of exporting vehicles but who are engaged in the business of soliciting orders for the sale and delivery of vehicles outside the territorial limits of the United States shall be exempt from licensure as dealers only if their sales of the vehicles produces less than 10 percent of their total gross revenue from all business transacted.

(e) Persons not engaged in the purchase or sale of vehicles as a business, who dispose of any vehicle acquired and used in good faith, for their own personal use, or for use in their business, and not for the purpose of avoiding the provisions of this code.

(f) Persons who are engaged in the purchase, sale or exchange of vehicles, other than motorcycles subject to identification under this code, which are not intended for use on the highways.

(g) Persons temporarily retained as auctioneers solely for the purpose of disposing of vehicle stock inventories by means of public auction on behalf of the owners at the owners' place of business, or as otherwise approved by the department, provided that intermediate physical possession or control of, or an ownership interest in the inventory is not conveyed to the persons so retained.

(h) Persons who are engaged exclusively in the business of purchasing, selling, servicing, or exchanging racing vehicles, parts for racing vehicles, and trailers designed and intended by the manufacturer to be used exclusively for carrying racing vehicles. For purposes of this subdivision, "racing vehicle" means a motor vehicle of a type used exclusively in a contest of speed or in a competitive trial of speed which is not intended for use on the highways.

(i) Any person who is a "lessor" as defined in Section 372.

(j) Any person who is a "renter" as defined in Section 508.

(k) Any "salvage pool" as defined in Section 543.

(l) Any yacht broker who is subject to the Yacht and Ship Brokers Act (Article 2 (commencing with Section 700) of Chapter 5 of Division 3 of the Harbors and Navigation Code) and who sells used boat trailers in conjunction with the sale of a vessel.

(m) Any licensed "automobile dismantler" as defined in Section 220 who sells vehicles that have been reported for dismantling as provided in Section 11520.

(n) The Director of Corrections when selling vehicles pursuant to Section 2813.5 of Penal Code.

CHAPTER 924

An act to amend Sections 41304, 41306, 41900, 41903, and 41904 of the Education Code, relating to driver training, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 41304 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41304. (a) There is appropriated annually from the Driver Training Penalty Assessment Fund to the General Fund in the State Treasury and from the General Fund to the California Energy Extension Service of the Office of Planning and Research a sum as necessary to establish and maintain a unit for driver instruction within the State Department of Education as set forth in Section 41904.

(b) In addition, subject to Section 41305, there shall be appropriated from the Driver Training Penalty Assessment Fund to the General Fund, then to the State School Fund each fiscal year, the sum the Superintendent of Public Instruction certifies as necessary to reimburse on a quarterly basis for each current fiscal year school districts, county superintendents of schools, the Department of the Youth Authority, and the State Department of Education for the actual cost of instructing pupils in the operation of motor vehicles.

The amount shall not exceed ninety-seven dollars ($97) per pupil instructed in the laboratory phase of driver education in accordance with the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education.

(c) Subject to Section 41305, there shall also be appropriated from the Driver Training Penalty Assessment Fund the sum the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall certify as necessary to reimburse on a quarterly basis for each current fiscal year school districts, county superintendents of schools, the Department of the Youth Authority, and the State Department of Education for the actual cost of replacing vehicles and simulators used exclusively in the laboratory phase of driver education programs, but the amount shall not exceed three-fourths of that part of the actual cost of instructing pupils in the laboratory phase of driver education which is: (1) in excess of ninety-seven dollars ($97) per pupil instructed, and (2) expended by the district, the county superintendent of schools, the Department of the Youth Authority, and the State Department of Education in replacing the vehicles and simulators. Reimbursement for vehicles shall be computed for only that portion of the total mileage used exclusively in the laboratory phase of driver education programs.

(d) In addition, subject to Section 41305, there shall be provided from the Petroleum Violation Escrow Account to the General Fund, then to the State School Fund each fiscal year the sum the Superintendent of Public Instruction certifies as necessary to reimburse on a quarterly basis for each current fiscal year school districts, county superintendents of schools, the Department of the Youth Authority, and the State Department of Education for the costs of fitting automobile driver training vehicles with the instrumentation required under Section 51854 and to reimburse on a quarterly basis for each current fiscal year school districts for the costs of transferring instrumentation providing instructional information on fuel consumption and vehicle fuel efficiency from one automobile driver training vehicle to another under Section 51854.

(e) In addition, subject to Section 41305, there shall be appropriated from the Petroleum Violation Escrow Account to the Driver Training Penalty Assessment Fund and from the Driver Training Penalty Assessment Fund to the General Fund, then to the Superintendent of Public Instruction each fiscal year the sum the Superintendent of Public Instruction certifies as necessary to reimburse on a quarterly basis for each current fiscal year the State Department of Education for the costs of workshops conducted by the department under Section 51854.

(f) For purposes of computing reimbursement, whenever a school district, a county superintendent of schools, the Department of the Youth Authority, or the State Department of Education replaces a driver training vehicle or simulator purchased by the district with a vehicle or simulator that is a gift or loan, the purchase price of the new or acquired equipment shall be deemed to be the market value of the vehicle or simulator acquired through a gift or loan.

A simulator is any device approved by the State Department of Education to be used in classrooms for purposes of laboratory instruction under simulated driving conditions.

SEC. 2. Section 41306 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41306. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall also allow as otherwise provided in Section 41304 for the driver training instruction necessary to be safely tested for a driver's license at the Department of Motor Vehicles, those physically handicapped pupils, mentally retarded pupils who come within the provisions of former Section 56501 as amended by Chapter 1247 of the Statutes of 1977, and educationally handicapped pupils who are in attendance in a public secondary school in California that offers qualified instruction, and who may qualify for a driver's license, or other license, issued by the California Department of Motor Vehicles, a total allowance not to exceed two hundred ninety dollars ($290) including the reimbursement provisions set forth in Section 41900 to each school district and county superintendent of schools All driver training for pupils herein described shall be provided by qualified teachers, as defined by Sections 41906 and 41907. The provisions of this section may not be applied if reimbursement allowable under Sections 41900 to 41912, inclusive, is sufficient to meet the total cost of instruction as herein described.

It is the intent of the Legislature that driver training instruction be provided pupils as a part of the high school curriculum, and the Legislature finds and declares that exceptional children are entitled to the benefit of that instruction so far as their individual capabilities permit, understanding that those pupils herein described often require individualized and amplified driver training instruction in order to succeed in becoming safe operators of motor vehicles. Since without a means of self-transportation much of the overall program of education and rehabilitation provided for by the Legislature would be of little avail to the person without the mobility required to become a productive and well-adjusted member of society, the Legislature further declares that it is incumbent upon the state to share in the cost of providing a most needed and desirable program of driver training instruction for these exceptional children.

SEC. 3. Section 41900 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41900. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allow to each school district maintaining a high school or high schools, county superintendent of schools, the Department of the Youth Authority, and the State Department of Education an amount equal to the actual cost, but not in excess of ninety-seven dollars ($97) per pupil instructed in the laboratory phase of driver education in accordance with Sections 41902 and 41905 and with regulations set forth by the State Board of Education to the districts, county superintendents of schools, the Department of the Youth Authority, and the State Department of Education for instructing pupils in the laboratory phase of driver education.

SEC. 4. Section 41903 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41903. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine the amount of total direct and direct support cost incurred by each school district, each county superintendent of schools, the Department of the Youth Authority, and the State Department of Education during each current fiscal year for the establishment and maintenance of automobile driver training for pupils enrolled in the schools of the district, the county superintendent of schools, the Department of the Youth Authority, and the State Department of Education in accordance with regulations that he or she may prescribe.

"Total direct and direct support cost," as used in this section, includes the total current expenditures incurred for instructing pupils in automobile driver training in special classes, including, but not limited to, automobile replacement, insurance, and upkeep and maintenance of automobiles used in the training.

"Special classes," as used in this section, includes classes providing automobile driver training for pupils who may be excused, for the purpose of taking instruction in automobile driver training.

SEC. 5. Section 41904 of the Education Code is amended to read:

41904. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may promote and direct the establishment and maintenance of courses of instruction in automobile driver education and driver training in the public schools. For this purpose, the superintendent may employ professional and other personnel as necessary to give full effect to this article. There is hereby established within the State Department of Education a unit for driver instruction to be comprised of three consultants and necessary support staff. All necessary costs and expenses incurred for purposes of this section shall be provided for from funds that may be appropriated by the Legislature from the Driver Training Penalty Assessment Fund.

SEC. 6. Sections 1 to 5, inclusive, of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1990.

CHAPTER 925

An act to amend Section 15277 of the Government Code, relating to communications.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15277 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15277. There is hereby established within the department a Division of Telecommunications. The division shall include a policy and planning unit whose duties shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) Assessing the overall long-range telecommunications needs and requirements of the state considering both routine and emergency operations, performance, cost, state-of-the-art technology, multiuser availability, security, reliability, and such other factors deemed to be important to state needs and requirements.

(b) Developing strategic and tactical policies and plans for telecommunications with consideration for the systems and requirements of state agencies, counties, and other local jurisdictions; and preparing an annual strategic telecommunications plan which includes the feasibility of interfaces with federal and other state telecommunications networks and services.

(c) Recommending industry standards for telecommunications systems to assure multiuser availability and compatibility.

(d) Providing advice and assistance in the selection of telecommunications equipment to ensure that the telecommunications needs of state agencies are met and that procurements are compatible throughout state agencies and are consistent with the state's strategic and tactical plans for telecommunications.

(e) Providing management oversight of statewide telecommunications systems developments.

(f) Providing for coordination of, and comment on, plans and policies and operational requirements from departments which utilize telecommunications in support of their principal function, such as the Office of Emergency Services, National Guard, health and safety agencies, and others with primary telecommunications programs.

(g) Monitoring and participating on behalf of the state in the proceedings of federal and state regulatory agencies and in congressional and state legislative deliberations which have an impact on state government telecommunications activities.

(h) Preparing and transmitting annually, by March 31, a report to the Legislature which describes the actions taken by the department to plan and advocate the most advantageous use of telecommunications technology in state government operations and efforts to reduce costs. In the event that the department makes an award for an integrated voice and data telecommunications network (CALNET) contract, the division shall work with the advisory board to prepare for inclusion in the next following report required by this subdivision a full description of the awarded contract, which shall include the scope and functions of the contract, relative costs and technical attributes compared to the other proposals, any additional necessary equipment purchases by the state, and the prospective schedule and plan of implementation by the awarded vendor. The reports shall also include information compiled, after consultation with the Public Utilities Commission, regarding the impact the implementation of CALNET has had, if any, on the rates charged and the services provided by regulated local telephone utilities. Subsequent reports to the Legislature up to and including the report to be transmitted March 31, 1993, shall also include progress reports of the implementation and progress of CALNET.

(i) Developing plans and policy regarding teleconferencing as an alternative to state travel and regarding emergency communications.

CHAPTER 926

An act to amend Sections 976.6, 1612, 10200, 10201, 10202, 10203, 10205, 10206, 10209, 10212, and 10213.5 of, to amend and renumber Section 10218 of, to add Sections 10214.5 and 10218 to, and to repeal and add Sections 10204 and 10207 of, the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to employment training, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 976.6 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

976.6. In addition to other contributions required by this division, every employer, except an employer defined by Section 676, 684, or 685, and except an employer which has elected an alternate method of financing its liability for unemployment compensation benefits pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 801), or Article 6 (commencing with Section 821) of Chapter 3, shall pay into the Employment Training Fund contributions at the rate of 0.1 percent of wages specified in Section 930. The contributions shall be collected in the same manner and at the same time as any contributions required under Sections 977 and 977.5.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 1612 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1612. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 10200 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

10200. The Legislature declares as follows:

(a) There is an inadequate number of jobs in California to meet the needs of those seeking employment.

(b) Despite the large number of unemployed job seekers, many employers in new and expanding industries are having difficulty finding the skilled workers they need. A similar problem exists in industries where overall employment may not be expanding but where there is an acute need for skilled workers in particular occupations.

(c) The California economy is today being challenged by competition from other states and overseas. Our success in meeting that challenge will depend largely on our ability to maintain and improve a skilled and productive work force. Employers, workers, organized labor, and government need to work together to ensure that California's labor force is prepared to succeed in the economic environment of the 1990's.

(d) Under existing law, all employer taxes paid into the unemployment insurance system compensate unemployment insurance recipients for being out of work. The intent of this chapter is to use a small portion of employer taxes to put unemployment insurance recipients to work by encouraging employers to locate and expand facilities in this state and training unemployment insurance recipients in skills needed by employers, and to prevent unemployment by increasing productivity through the retraining of existing employees.

(e) The purpose of this chapter is to establish an employment training program which shall foster job creation, minimize employers' unemployment costs, and meet employers' needs for skilled workers by providing skills training to unemployment insurance claimants, recent exhaustees of unemployment insurance who have remained unemployed, and potentially displaced workers who would otherwise become unemployment insurance claimants. It is the intent of the Legislature that training funded pursuant to this chapter should make a substantial contribution to the long-term job security of the trainees and that all training funded through this chapter result in jobs for those who successfully complete the training.

(f) The funds made available by this chapter shall supplement but not displace funds available through existing programs conducted by employers themselves and public programs such as the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA), the Carl D. Perkins Vocational Education Act, the Greater Avenues for Independence program (GAIN), the Enterprise Zone Act, the Employment and Economic Incentive Act, and the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Act, or apportionment funds allocated to the community colleges, regional occupational centers and programs, or other local educational agencies. In addition, it is further the intention of the Legislature that programs developed pursuant to this chapter shall not replace, parallel, supplant, compete with, or duplicate in any way already existing approved apprenticeship programs.

(g) The program established through this chapter is to be coordinated with all existing employment training programs and economic development programs, including, but not limited to, programs such as the Job Training Partnership Act, the California Community Colleges, the regional occupational programs, vocational education programs, joint labor-management training programs, and related programs under the Employment Development Department and the Department of Commerce.

(h) The purposes of the 1989 amendments to this chapter are as follows:

(1) To encourage investment in the productivity and competiveness of California's workers through training.

(2) To encourage the panel to adapt its priorities to the changing needs of the labor market through the use of labor market data and information.

(3) To increase the panel's sensitivity to the training needs of small- and medium-sized businesses.

(4) To enhance the panel's ability to serve those who are unemployed.

(5) To increase the amount of coordination between this program and other programs involved in education and training.

(6) To modify the organizational structure of the panel to ensure that it is integrated into state government.

(7) To improve the effectiveness of the panel program as a mechanism for stimulating economic development.

SEC. 4. Section 10201 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

10201. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Employer" means any employer subject to Part 1 (commencing with Section 100) of Division 1, except any public entity, as defined by paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 135. Any nonprofit organization, as described in Section 608, that does not make contributions to the Employment Training Fund pursuant to Section 976.6 shall be deemed to be an employer only for purposes of placement of new hire trainees trained pursuant to this chapter.

(b) "Eligible participant" means any person who, prior to beginning training or employment pursuant to this chapter, is any of the following:

(1) Unemployed and either receiving unemployment insurance benefits, or has exhausted eligibility for unemployment insurance benefits within the previous 24 months.

(2) Employed, but is determined by the panel to be likely to be displaced and therefore claiming unemployment insurance benefits because of reductions in overall employment within a business, elimination of the person's current job, or a substantial change in the skills required to remain employed due to technological change or other factors. In making a finding of eligibility under this paragraph, the panel shall require the employer or contractor to provide, at the option of the employer or the contractor, either of the following:

(A) Certification of the specific facts which threaten the continued employment of the trainee, and a plan for assuring with reasonable certainty that the training being proposed will contribute to the long-term job security of the trainee. The plan shall include, but not be limited to, a general description, with respect to the facility at which the trainee is employed, of other actions planned by the employer, such as technological changes, additional training, management adjustments, and organizational changes, for the purposes of enhancing the effectiveness of the proposed training. The plan shall also include methods for assessing the effect on productivity attributable to the training and a statement of how the training will impact the regional and state economy. The panel may modify the specific requirements of this subparagraph as they apply to small employers and to employers or contractors proposing projects which involve training for a significant number of small employers in the same project.

(B) Evidence that the workers proposed to receive retraining have been given written notice that their employment will be terminated within two years of the date the application is presented to the panel.

(3) Employed, but who is determined by the panel to be qualified to be trained or retrained in skills for which there is a demonstrable shortage and in a field where new employment opportunities will be created for other persons defined in paragraph (1) if this retraining takes place. In making a finding of eligibility under this paragraph, the panel shall require the employer or contractor to provide a job for at least one unemployed person for each person retrained.

(c) "Panel" means the Employment Training Panel created by Section 10202.

(d) "Fund" means the Employment Training Fund created by Section 1610.

(e) "Department" means the Employment Development Department.

(f) "Training agency" means any private training entity or local educational agency.

(g) "Job" means employment on a basis customarily considered full time for the occupation and industry. The employment shall have definite career potential and a substantial likelihood of providing long-term job security Furthermore, the employment shall provide earnings, upon completion of the employment requirement specified in subdivision (f) of Section 10209, equal to 55 percent, in the case of new hire training, or 65 percent, in the case of retraining, of the state average hourly wage. However, the panel may adjust these minimum wage requirements for specific occupations in specific regions of the state if it determines, after a review of labor market information, that the wage requirements are unreasonable, and provided that the adjusted wage requirement does not create unfair wage competition within the industry or region.

(h) "Private industry council" means an entity established pursuant to Section 15030.

(i) "New hire training" means employment training, including job-related literacy training, for persons who, at the start of training, are unemployed.

(j) "Retraining" means employment related skill and literacy training for persons who are employed prior to enrollment in training and will continue to be employed by the same employer for at least 90 days following completion of training.

(k) "Trainee" means an eligible participant.

(l) "State average hourly wage" means the average weekly wage paid by employers to employees covered by unemployment insurance, as reported to the Employment Development Department for the four calendar quarters ending June 30 of the preceding calendar year, divided by 40 hours.

SEC. 5. Section 10202 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

10202. (a) There is hereby established in the department the Employment Training Panel consisting of seven persons with experience and a demonstrated interest in business management and employment relations.

(b) Two members of the panel shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, two members of the panel shall be appointed by the President pro Tempore of the Senate, and three members of the panel shall be appointed by the Governor. The Governor shall designate a member to chair the panel, and the person so designated shall serve as the chair of the panel at the pleasure of the Governor.

(c) The members of the panel shall serve for two-year terms, except that of the initial members of the panel, one initial appointee of each appointing power shall serve for a one-year term

(d) Members of the panel shall receive the necessary traveling and other expenses incurred by them in the performance of their official duties out of appropriations made for the support of the panel. In addition, each voting member of the panel shall receive one hundred dollars ($100) for each day attending meetings of the panel.

SEC. 6. Section 10203 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

10203. The panel may meet as necessary at locations throughout the state. The panel shall maintain a minimum of three regional offices. The central office shall be located in Sacramento. Two regional offices shall be located in the southern part of the state, and one regional office shall be located in the northern part of the state.

The panel will assign one person, with experience in meeting the needs of small businesses, to each of the regional offices for the purpose of developing training projects for small businesses and expediting the processing of training proposals from small businesses. This person shall report directly to the deputy director responsible for small business training.

SEC. 7. Section 10204 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 10204 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

10204. (a) The panel shall coordinate its programs with local and state entities of the federal Job Training Partnership Act, as provided in paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (c) of Section 10205. This coordination shall include, but not be limited to, the adoption of a plan, including regular sharing of data, for the coordination of training authorized pursuant to this chapter with programs administered under Division 8 (commencing with Section 15000)

(b) For purposes of serving the needs of small businesses, the panel may delegate its authority to approve contracts for new hire training to any entity defined in paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 10205, provided the following conditions are met:

(1) The panel determines that an entity to which it is delegating this authority meets the same standards as required of training agencies in Section 10210.

(2) The panel delegates its authority pursuant to this section by a contract with the entity which limits the total amount of Employment Training Fund funds which are available to the entity, specifies a time limit within which those funds shall either be allocated or returned to the panel, specifies the reasonable administrative costs to be allowed in administering the contract, and provides that no subcontract approved by the entity shall exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per project without prior approval by the panel.

(3) The subcontracts with employers and training agencies approved by the private industry council entity shall be for new hire training only and shall meet all the requirements of this chapter and the policies established by the panel.

SEC. 9. Section 10205 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read.

10205. The panel shall do all of the following.

(a) Establish and update an annual plan, based on the demand of employers for trained workers, changes in the state's economy and labor markets, and continuous reviews of the effectiveness of panel training contracts. The plan shall be submitted to the Governor and the Legislature. In carrying out this section, the panel shall review information in the following areas:

(1) Labor market information, including the state-local labor market information program in the Employment Development Department, and economic forecasts.

(2) Evaluations of the effectiveness of training as measured by increased security of employment for workers and benefits to the California economy.

(3) The demand for training by industry, type of training, and size of employer.

(4) Changes in skills necessary to perform jobs, including changes in basic literacy skills

(5) Evaluations of the effectiveness of training previously funded by the panel in improving security of employment for workers and benefiting the California economy. As part of these evaluations, the panel shall compare the wages of trainees in the year before training and in the year after training as reflected in the department's unemployment insurance tax records, and shall evaluate the effect of previous training projects on the productivity of participating firms and on the economy of the state.

(6) Changes in the demographics of the labor force and the population entering the labor market.

(7) Proposed expenditures by other agencies of federal Job

Training Partnership Act funds and other state and federal training and vocational education funds on eligible participants.

(b) Submit its first annual plan by July 1, 1990. The panel shall maintain a system to continously monitor economic and other data required under this plan. If this data changes significantly during the life of the plan, the plan shall be amended by the panel. Each plan shall include all of the following:

(1) The panel's objectives with respect to the distribution of funds between new hire training and retraining.

(2) The identification of specific industries, production and quality control techniques, and regions of the state where employment training funds would most benefit the state's economy and plans to encourage training in these areas, including specific standards and a system for expedited review of proposals which meet the standards.

(3) A system for expedited review of proposals which are substantially similar with respect to employer needs, training curriculum, duration of training, and costs of training, in order to encourage the development of proposals which meet the needs identified in paragraph (2).

(4) The panel's goals and operational objectives with respect to meeting the needs of small employers.

(5) Standards of accountability for retraining contracts that will be used in addition to the standards set forth in subdivision (f) of Section 10209 and elsewhere in this chapter. The additional standards shall provide that all payments not be considered earned until a showing by the contractor has been made that the training has resulted in measurable productivity or other improvements that result in a net benefit to the California economy. The method to be used for assessing the productivity or other improvements attributable to the training shall be specified in the contract. The standards shall be phased in beginning January 1, 1991, with repeat contracts and larger contracts, and by no later than July 1, 1992, shall be in use in all retraining contracts.

(6) The research objectives of the panel that contribute to the effectiveness of this chapter in benefiting the economy of the state as a whole.

(7) A priority list of skills that are in such short supply that employers are choosing to not locate or expand their businesses in the state or are importing labor in response to these skills shortages. This list should identify those industries in which upgrade training is likely to encourage hiring of the unemployed on a backfill basis.

(c) Solicit proposals and write contracts on the basis of proposals made directly to it and on the basis of the recommendations of the local review panels. Contracts for the purpose of providing employment training may be written with any of the following:

(1) An employer or group of employers.

(2) A training agency.

(3) A private industry council with the approval of the appropriate local elected officials in the service delivery area.

(4) A grant recipient or administrative entity selected pursuant to Section 103 of the Federal Job Training Partnership Act and Section 15021, with the approval of the local private industry council and the appropriate local elected officials

These contracts shall be in the form of fixed-fee performance contracts. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, contracts entered into pursuant to this chapter shall not be subject to competitive bidding procedures. However, the panel shall set contracting objectives with respect to minority and woman owned businesses that are substantially similar to those required by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 16850) of Part 3 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, Section 10108.5 of the Public Contract Code, and Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 10115 of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code). No trainee shall receive employment training under this chapter for a period of more than 18 months. Contracts for training may be written for a period not to exceed 24 months for the purpose of administration by the panel and the contracting employer or any group of employers acting jointly or any training agency for the purpose of providing employment training

(d) Allocate the Employment Training Fund. In doing so, the panel shall seek to facilitate the employment of the maximum number of eligible participants in jobs with definite career potential and long-term job security, and to provide retraining to existing workers whose skills are outmoded due to changes in technology or the need to increase productivity. In no case shall the statewide allocation be based solely on population. In funding contracts, the panel shall give priority to proposals in the following order, except that within each priority category, proposals jointly developed by business management and worker representatives shall be given special consideration:

(1) New hire training and retraining for workers who have received notification of actual layoff.

(2) Retraining of eligible participants employed at the start of training by small businesses.

(3) Retraining for workers whose jobs are threatened by increased competition from outside the state.

(4) All other proposals.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require the panel to set aside funds based on the priorities established in this subdivision, or to preclude the panel from entering into contracts for the provision of training in multijurisdictional areas of the state. In making determinations under this section, the panel shall give special consideration to proposals for training for new employees of firms locating or expanding in California, to new hire and retraining for firms located in enterprise zones and economic incentive areas designated by the Department of Commerce, and to training for veterans, and to training which supports approved apprenticeship programs. The panel shall provide technical assistance to encourage the development of these proposals.

(e) Establish minimum standards for the consideration of proposals, which shall include, but not be limited to, the identification of employers who have been contacted by the contractor and who have provided reasonable assurance that they will employ successful trainees, the number of jobs available, the skill requirements for the identified jobs, the projected cost per person trained, hired, and retained in employment, the wages paid successful trainees upon placement, and the curriculum for the training. No proposal shall be considered or approved which proposes training for employment covered by a collective bargaining agreement unless the signatory labor organization agrees in writing.

(f) Ensure the provision of adequate fiscal and accounting controls for, monitoring and auditing of, and other appropriate technical and administrative assistance to, projects funded by this chapter.

(g) Provide for evaluation of projects funded by this chapter. Individual project evaluations shall contain a summary description of the project, the number of persons entering training, the number of persons completing training, the number of persons employed at the end of the project, the number of persons still employed three months after the end of the project, the wages paid, the total costs of the project, and the total reimbursement received from the Employment Training Fund.

(h) Report annually to the Legislature, by November 30, on projects operating during the previous state fiscal year. These annual reports shall provide separate summaries of all of the following:

(1) Projects completed during the year, including their individual and aggregate performance and cost.

(2) Projects not completed during the year, briefly describing each project and identifying approved contract amounts by contract and for this category as a whole, and identifying any projects in which funds are expected to be disencumbered.

(3) Projects terminated prior to completion and the reasons for the termination.

(4) A full report of all training provided to participants who qualified pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 10201.

(5) A description of the amount, type, and effectiveness of literacy training funded by the panel.

In addition, based upon its experience in administering job training projects, the panel shall include in these reports policy recommendations concerning the impact of job training and the panel's program on economic development, labor-management relations, employment security, and other related issues. To assist in the preparation of the policy recommendations, the chair of the panel may appoint an advisory research council.

(i) Expedite the processing of contracts for firms considering locating or expanding businesses in the state, as determined by the Department of Commerce.

(j) Coordinate and consult regularly with business groups and labor organizations, the State Job Training Coordinating Council, the State Department of Education, the office of the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, the Employment Development Department, and the Department of Commerce.

(k) Adopt by regulation procedures for the conduct of panel business, including the scheduling and conduct of meetings, the review of proposals, the disclosure of contacts between panel members and parties at interest concerning particular proposals, contracts or cases before the panel or its staff, the awarding of contracts, the administration of contracts, and the payment of amounts due to contractors. All decisions by the panel shall be made by resolution of the panel and any adverse decision shall include a statement of the reason for the decision.

(l) Adopt regulations and procedures providing reasonable confidentiality for proprietary information provided to it under subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 10201.

SEC. 10. Section 10206 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read

10206. (a) The panel may allocate money in the fund for any of the following purposes:

(1) Reimbursement of reasonable training costs and administrative costs incurred by contractors. In making a determination of costs to be reimbursed under this paragraph, the panel may allocate funds in accordance with any of the following methods:

(A) For purposes of providing simplified fixed-fee performance contracts, a flat rate per hour for categories of training that are substantially similar with respect to content, methodology, and duration, as determined by the panel, not to exceed the reasonable and normal costs for the training, based upon the panel's experience. The panel shall periodically adjust the standardized rates established pursuant to this paragraph to reflect changes in training costs.

(B) A complete review of the proposal and its costs, including a budget listing the planned costs of training, including personnel, fringe benefits, equipment, supplies, fees paid for consulting or administrative services, and other costs attributable to training; the services provided by subcontractors; the length and complexity of the training; the method of training; the wages and occupations following training; whether the trainees are new hires or retrainees; and the cost of similar training that the panel has funded previously. The cost of program administration shall not exceed 15 percent of the training costs under this paragraph, except that for new hire training the panel may fund administrative costs of up to 20 percent of the training cost.

(2) Costs of program administration incurred under this chapter.

These costs shall be reviewed annually by the Department of Finance and the Legislature and determined through the normal budgetary process.

The panel's administrative costs exclusive of the cost of administering Section 976.6 shall not exceed 15 percent of the amount collected pursuant to Section 976.6. Expenditures for marketing and research provided under contract to the panel under paragraph (1) which otherwise would have been provided directly by the panel shall be included in this limitation.

(3) Costs of an impartial evaluation of the program authorized by this chapter. This evaluation shall include, but not be limited to, a review of the effects of the program on eligible participants, on employers, and on productivity and competitiveness. The evaluation shall also address issues of program administration. The evaluation shall be completed and submitted to the Governor, and the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the Legislature, by November 15, 1992. The Auditor General, following consultation with the panel, shall designate either a public or a private entity to conduct this evaluation.

(4) Service related to the purposes of this chapter provided by the Small Business Development Centers pursuant to an interagency agreement with the Department of Commerce.

(b) The panel may modify the specific requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) as they apply to employers or contractors proposing projects which involve training for a significant number of small employers in the same project.

(c) For all training contracts, the panel shall establish requirements for in-kind contributions by either the contractor or the employer that reflect a substantial commitment on the part of the contractor or the employer to the value of the training. In developing these requirements, the panel shall take into account the ability of the contractor or the employer, because of size or financial condition, to make such a contribution, and the ability of the Employment Training Fund to meet the demand for training authorized by this chapter. In developing policies regarding in-kind contributions, the panel shall hold public hearings.

(d) For new hire training contracts, the panel may develop a system of new hire cost reimbursements for each new hire trainee who successfully completes both the training and the job placement requirements of the contract. The purpose of this system shall be to reimburse contractors for demonstrated additional costs and risks associated with new hire trainees. New hire cost reimbursements shall not be paid unless at least 60 percent of the new hire trainees enrolled at the start of the project successfully complete both the training and the placement requirements of the contract. This system shall be designed to discourage over-enrollment of trainees and prohibit amendments to contracts for the purpose of meeting the requirements for new hire cost reimbursements.

(e) No more than two million seven hundred thousand dollars

($2,700,000) of the annually appropriated funds in the Employment Training Fund shall be allocated for purposes of training persons eligible under paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 10201.

(f) The panel shall give special consideration for funding to those projects that provide special opportunities to veterans and shall provide technical assistance to encourage the development of those projects.

SEC. 11. Section 10207 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 10207 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

10207. (a) The panel shall accept or reject a completed application within 60 days of the receipt by the panel.

(b) The panel shall develop expedited procedures for reviewing proposals submitted by the state agencies which are participants in a special interagency agreement with the panel for purposes of this chapter.

SEC. 13. Section 10209 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read.

10209. (a) Contracts shall only be made for training in job related basic skills, including literacy skills, and job related vocational skills that are necessary for participants to attain a new job or retain an existing job with definite career potential and long-term job security.

(b) Contracts for projects involving on-the-job training shall specify the specific skills and competencies to be gained as a result of the on-the-job training component of the project.

(c) The panel shall not approve any training proposal which facilitates the change in ownership of a business leading to the likelihood that an existing collective bargaining agreement would be declared void.

(d) To encourage a broad and equitable distribution of funds, the panel may require an employer who has previously received funds pursuant to this chapter for retraining of workers at a facility to contribute proportionately more to the cost of training in subsequent panel contracts for training of workers at the same facility.

(e) The panel may delegate to the executive director the authority to approve training contracts of up to fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), provided the contracts meet the requirements of this chapter and the policies established by the panel, and provided that the panel regularly reviews the actions taken by the executive director pursuant to this subdivision.

(f) Payments shall be made in accordance with a performance contract under which partial payments may be made during training, a partial payment may be made on placement or retention of each trainee, and not less than 25 percent of the negotiated fee is withheld until the trainee has been retained in employment for 90 days after the end of training with a single employer, except for those occupations in which it is not customary for a worker to be employed

90 consecutive days with a single employer. In these latter cases, the panel may substitute a period similar to the probationary period customary to the occupation. The probationary period shall not be less than 500 work hours and shall be completed within 272 days of the completion of the training. In no case shall any payment be considered to have been earned until the trainee has been retained in employment for 90 days or the equivalent probationary period for an occupation in which it is not customary for a worker to be employed 90 consecutive days with a single employer.

(g) Contracts for new hire training shall require the contractor to provide the placement services necessary to ensure the trainees are placed in jobs for which they have been trained.

SEC. 14. Section 10212 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

10212. (a) The panel may employ personnel necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. All personnel shall be appointed pursuant to the State Civil Service Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 18000) of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code), except for an executive director, and two assistant directors, who shall be exempt from state civil service.

(b) The executive director shall be appointed by the Governor, and shall be well qualified for the position with experience in government. The appointment shall be for a term of four years, beginning January 1, 1990. The executive director may perform all duties, exercise all powers, discharge all responsibilities, and administer and enforce all laws, rules, and regulations under the jurisdiction of the panel, with the approval of the panel The executive director shall administer this chapter, with the approval of the panel, in the manner he or she deems necessary to conduct the work of the panel properly. With the approval of the panel, the executive director may create divisions and subdivisions as necessary, and change and abolish these divisions and subdivisions from time to time. The executive director may be removed from office, for cause, by a vote of five of the seven members of the panel.

(c) The Governor shall appoint two assistant directors, to serve at the pleasure of the Governor. The assistant directors shall have the duties specified in subdivisions (d) and (e), and other duties as assigned, from time to time, by the executive director, and shall be responsible to the executive director for the performance of their duties.

(d) One assistant director shall have experience in serving the needs of small businesses, and shall, under the supervision of the executive director, do all of the following:

(1) Manage the panel's efforts to ensure that employment training services are available to small businesses.

(2) Coordinate the panel's programs with other local, state, and federal training programs and educational agencies.

(e) The other assistant director shall be responsible for developing and managing the panel's audit and compliance programs.

SEC. 15. Section 10213.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

10213.5. (a) The Department of Commerce shall determine those firms considering locating or expanding businesses in the state in order to enable the Employment Training Panel to expedite the processing of contracts for these firms pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 10205. The Department of Commerce shall also provide technical assistance by marketing the Employment Training Fund to newly locating or expanding businesses in the state and by assisting in the packaging of employer contracts for training of eligible participants from the Employment Training Fund.

(b) The Small Business Development Center program in the Office of Small Business in the Department of Commerce shall provide information and applications for funding by the panel to its clients.

SEC. 16. Section 10214.5 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

10214.5. (a) The panel may allocate up to two million seven hundred thousand dollars ($2,700,000) annually for the purpose of funding special employment training designed as research projects for the purposes of increasing understanding of the requirements for effective new hire and retraining programs, especially as they relate to diverse sectors of the population and to businesses that are difficult to serve under the panel's standard project format. These projects shall also contribute to the panel's understanding of the relationship between various training designs and the achievement of employers' training objectives. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, participants in these research projects need not meet the same eligibility criteria as outlined in Section 10201. In addition, the panel may allocate funds under this section for reasonable child care and transportation costs of trainees.

(b) The panel shall adopt minimum standards for consideration of proposals to be funded pursuant to this section.

(c) The panel may not delegate its authority to approve contracts written pursuant to this section.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature in providing the authority for these demonstration research projects that the panel allocate these funds in a manner consistent with the objectives of this chapter as provided in Section 10200.

SEC. 17. Section 10218 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended and renumbered, to read:

10218.5. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC 18. Section 10218 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

10218. On January 1, 1990, the terms of all previously appointed members of the panel shall be deemed to have expired. The appointing authorities shall appoint members to serve new terms beginning on that date. Members of the panel shall serve four-year terms, except that one of the members appointed by each appointing authority to serve terms starting on January 1, 1990, shall serve for a two-year term.

CHAPTER 927

An act to amend Sections 1225, 1300, 1320, 1321, and 1322 of, to amend, repeal, and add Section 1270 of, to add Sections 1211.5, 1270.5, 1271, 1272, 1272.4, 1272.6, 1274, 1323, 1324, 1325, 1326, and 1327 to, and to add and repeal Section 1272.5 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to clinical laboratories.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows.

SECTION 1. The intent of the Legislature in enacting this act is:

(a) To protect the public health and safety by adopting licensure and competency requirements for cytotechnologists.

(b) To enact state laws regulating clinical laboratories and clinical laboratory personnel that are consistent with the federal Clinical Laboratory Improvement Amendments of 1988 (P.L. 100-578; 42 U.S.C. Sec. 263a, Section 353 of the Public Health Service Act).

(c) To enact state laws that are at least as stringent as the requirements of federal law or federal regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(d) To enact state laws which permit use of the services or facilities of the state in carrying out the federal law.

(e) To enact state laws which permit the state to be approved as an accreditation body under federal law.

(f) To enact state laws which permit the department to enter into agreements with the Secretary of Health and Human Services under federal law.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1211.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

1211.5. For the purposes of this chapter, "cytological slides" shall refer to cellular materials submitted for preliminary cytologic examination.

SEC. 2. Section 1225 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1225. (a) In order to carry out this chapter, any duly authorized representative of the department may do any of the following:

(1) Enter or inspect on an announced or unannounced basis any building, premise, equipment, materials, records, or information at any reasonable time to secure compliance with, or prevent a violation of this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(2) Inspect, photograph, or copy any records, reports, test results, test specimens, or other information related to the requirements of this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(3) Secure any sample, photograph, or other evidence from any building or premise for the purpose of enforcing this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(b) The department may cooperate with, or assist persons licensed under this chapter, or other qualified persons, in evaluating laboratory procedures and techniques necessary to achieve and maintain high quality performance in clinical laboratories.

SEC. 3. Section 1270 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1270. (a) Persons engaging in cytotechnology shall meet standards established by the department. Such persons may perform the necessary procedures relating to the preliminary evaluation of cellular material only under the supervision of a person duly authorized to direct a laboratory. Before such persons are permitted to perform cytologic examinations, they shall satisfactorily demonstrate their ability to do so in accordance with procedures prescribed by the department.

(b) This section shall be operative until January 1, 1991, and on that date is repealed.

SEC 4. Section 1270 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

1270 (a) On and after January 1, 1991, no person may perform examinations of cytological slides without first obtaining a license as a cytotechnologist from the department, except that those persons employed by licensed clinical laboratories as cytotechnologists and certified as cytotechnologists by the department on or before January 1, 1991, shall be licensed by the department on or before January 1, 1993 Cytotechnologist licenses shall be issued and renewed by the department for periods of two years. This subdivision shall not apply to persons holding a valid, unrevoked, unsuspended physician's and surgeon's certificate issued pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000).

(b) The issuance of a cytotechnologist license shall be contingent upon the applicant's satisfactory performance, as defined in regulation, in a competency testing program for cytotechnologists which may be administered by the department or by a competency testing service or program approved by the department. The competency testing program established pursuant to this section shall be periodically reviewed and revised by the department, if necessary, to ensure that the program is consistent with federal competency testing requirements issued under the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Amendments of 1988 (P.L. 100-578; 42 U S.C. Sec. 263a, Section 353 of the Public Health Service Act).

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1991

SEC. 5. Section 1270.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

1270.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 1301, an application for the renewal of, and payment of the renewal fees for, a cytotechnologist license shall be governed by this section.

(b) Application for renewal of a cytotechnologist license, accompanied by the fee set forth in Section 1300, shall be filed with the department not less than 30 days prior to the expiration date.

SEC. 6. Section 1271 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

1271. (a) A cytotechnologist shall not examine more than 80 gynecologic slides in a 24-hour period.

(b) The maximum workload limit in subdivision (a) is the maximum number of gynecologic slides that a cytotechnologist shall examine in a 24-hour period without regard to the number of clinical laboratories or other persons for which the work is performed. Cytotechnologists who examine both gynecologic and nongynecologic slides shall do so on a pro rata basis such that the maximum workload limit in subdivision (a) is not exceeded, and such that the number of gynecologic slides examined is reduced proportionally if both gynecologic and nongynecologic slides are examined in a 24-hour period.

(c) The maximum workload limit in subdivision (a) is for a cytotechnologist who has no duties other than the evaluation of gynecological slides. Cytotechnologists who have other duties, such as the preparation and staining of cytologic slides, shall decrease on a pro rata basis the number of slides examined.

(d) All cytologic slides shall be examined in a clinical laboratory which has been licensed by the department, or in a municipal or county laboratory established under Section 1000 of the Health and Safety Code. All slides examined under the name of a clinical laboratory shall be examined on the premises of that laboratory.

(e) Each clinical laboratory shall staff one full-time equivalent for each 19,200 gynecologic slides examined per a 12-month period. A full-time equivalent means a cytotechnologist working eight hours per day in a 40-hour week.

(f) Each clinical laboratory shall maintain records of the number of cases and slides for gynecologic and nongynecologic samples examined on a monthly and annual basis.

(g) Each cytotechnologist shall maintain records in a form prescribed by the department of hours worked and the name and address of the clinical laboratory or other person for whom slides were examined.

(h) Each clinical laboratory shall retain all cytology slides and cell blocks examined for a minimum of five years and all cytology reports for a minimum of 10 years.

(i) The presence of any factor which would prohibit the proper examination of a cytologic slide, including, but not limited to, damaged slides or inadequate specimens, as determined by the director of the laboratory, shall result in the issuance of a statement of inadequacy to the referring physician and no report of cytologic findings shall be issued on that slide.

(j) Each clinical laboratory shall maintain records of the number of cases and slides for gynecologic and nongynecologic slides each cytotechnologist in the laboratory reads each 24-hour period, the number of hours devoted during each 24-hour period to screening cytology slides by each individual, and shall determine weekly and cumulatively the frequency of abnormal slides found by each cytotechnologist employed.

(k) Ten percent of the negative or normal slides examined by each cytotechnologist employed by a clinical laboratory shall be rescreened by a cytopathologist or supervising cytotechnologist other than the original examiner.

SEC. 7. Section 1272 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

1272. A clinical laboratory shall participate in a state-approved proficiency testing program and demonstrate satisfactory performance in all of the laboratory specialities that include tests performed in the laboratory. Proficiency shall be tested in the following specialties: microbiology, serology, clinical chemistry, hematology, cytology, and immunohematology.

SEC. 8. Section 1272.4 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

1272.4. The department shall establish standards for the evaluation of cytologic slides, for reporting the adequacy of cytologic slides, for a cytotechnologist competency program, and for a proficiency testing program for clinical laboratories providing cytology services.

SEC. 9. Section 1272.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code to read:

1272.5. (a) A laboratory in a state other than California which is regularly providing cytology services for laboratories, physicians, or beneficiaries located in California shall be certified by the department as substantially meeting the requirements for a California clinical laboratory license, including the requirements relating to the practice of diagnostic cytology.

(b) The department shall issue guidelines as the basis for issuing letters of substantial equivalency to out-of-state clinical laboratories providing cytology services. For the purposes of determining substantial equivalency to California standards for diagnostic cytology, the department may require the annual submission of an application containing information as the department may determine to be necessary to properly evaluate the laboratory. If, in the opinion of the department, the information provided by the applicant is not sufficient or adequate for the purposes of determining substantial equivalency, the department may require a site visit by departmental personnel to the applicant's laboratory. If a site visit is required, the applicant shall agree to reimburse the State of California for the actual cost of expenses incurred for not more than two persons from the staff of the department.

(c) The department may establish a schedule of fees to be paid by out-of-state clinical laboratories which make applications to the department for letters of substantial equivalency, which fees shall be set at a level to fully offset, but not exceed, the total cost to the department of reviewing applications for substantial equivalency from the out-of-state clinical laboratories.

This section shall be operative until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 9.5. Section 1272.6 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

1272.6. The department shall, on or before January 1, 1991, develop or adopt a proficiency testing program for laboratories providing cytology services which may be administered by the department or by a proficiency testing service or program approved by the department. The proficiency program established pursuant to this section shall include announced and unannounced onsite proficiency testing, with that testing to take place, to the extent practicable, under normal working conditions.

SEC. 10. Section 1274 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

1274. (a) Laboratories shall send to persons submitting cytologic samples for evaluation, on a quarterly basis, informational letters on all cases of dysplasia (Cervical Intraepithelial Neoplasia) through malignancy. Copies of letters to those persons, and any responses received to those letters, shall be maintained on file by the laboratories for a period of five years.

(b) Whenever it becomes known to a clinical laboratory that an abnormality has been identified for a patient for whom the clinical laboratory earlier reported a normal finding, all previous available cytologic slides on that patient shall be reexamined by the clinical laboratory.

(c) Records of the review of any previous slides required by subdivision (b) shall be maintained by the clinical laboratory, including the name of the individual performing the earlier examination.

(d) Each clinical laboratory shall maintain records of all false positive and false negative cases.

When any errors in the reporting of a smear evaluation are discovered, a corrected report shall be immediately sent, when medically applicable. Copies of corrected reports shall be maintained in the laboratory records for a period of 10 years.

SEC. 11. Section 1300 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1300. The amount of application and license fee under this chapter shall be as follows:

(a) The application fee for a histocompatibility laboratory director's, clinical laboratory bioanalyst's, clinical chemist's, clinical microbiologist's, or clinical laboratory toxicologist's license is thirty-eight dollars ($38). This fee shall be sixty-three dollars ($63) commencing on July 1, 1983.

(b) The annual renewal fee for a histocompatibility laboratory director's, clinical laboratory bioanalyst's, clinical chemist's, clinical microbiologist's, or clinical laboratory toxicologist's license is thirty-eight dollars ($38). This fee shall be sixty-three dollars ($63) commencing on July 1, 1983.

(c) The application fee for a clinical laboratory technologist's or limited technologist's license is twenty-three dollars ($23). This fee shall be thirty-eight dollars ($38) commencing on July 1, 1983.

(d) The application and annual renewal fee for a cytotechnologist's license shall be fifty dollars ($50) commencing on January 1, 1991.

(e) The annual renewal fee for a clinical laboratory technologist's or limited technologist's license is fifteen dollars ($15). This fee shall be twenty-five dollars ($25) commencing on July 1, 1983.

(f) The application fee for a clinical laboratory license is one hundred fifty dollars ($150); provided, however, that when the applicant is the state or any agency or official thereof, or a district, city, county or city and county, or an official thereof, no fee shall be required This fee shall be two hundred forty-eight dollars ($248) commencing on July 1, 1983.

(g) The annual renewal fee for a clinical laboratory license is one hundred eighteen dollars ($118); provided, however, that when the applicant is the state or any agency or official thereof, or a district, city, county, or city and county, or official thereof, no fee shall be required. This fee shall be one hundred ninety-six dollars ($196) commencing on July 1, 1983.

(h) In addition, clinical laboratories providing cytology services shall pay an annual fee which shall be set by the department in an amount needed to meet but not exceed the department's costs of proficiency testing and special site surveys for these laboratories, and which shall be based upon the volume of cytologic slides examined by a laboratory. If the amount collected exceeds the amount needed for these purposes, the amount of fees collected from those laboratories in the following year shall be reduced accordingly.

(i) The application fee for a trainee's license is eight dollars ($8). This fee shall be thirteen dollars ($13) commencing on July 1, 1983.

(j) The annual renewal fee for a trainee's license is five dollars ($5). This fee shall be eight dollars ($8) commencing on July 1, 1983.

(k) The application fee for a duplicate license is three dollars ($3). This fee shall be five dollars ($5) commencing on July 1, 1983.

(l) The delinquency fee is equal to the annual renewal fee.

(m) The director may establish a fee for examinations required under this chapter. The fee shall not exceed the total cost to the department in conducting the examination.

SEC. 12. Section 1320 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1320. The department may deny, suspend, or revoke any license issued under this chapter for any of the following reasons:

(a) Conduct involving moral turpitude or dishonest reporting of tests.

(b) Violation by the applicant or licensee of this chapter or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto.

(c) Aiding, abetting, or permitting the violation of a provision of this chapter, the rules or regulations adopted under this chapter or the provisions of the Medical Practice Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code.

(d) Permitting a licensed trainee to perform tests or procure specimens unless under the direct and responsible supervision of a person duly licensed under this chapter or physician and surgeon other than another licensed trainee.

(e) Violation of any provision of the Business and Professions Code governing the practice of medicine and surgery.

(f) Proof that an applicant or licensee has made false statements in any material regard on the application for a license or renewal issued under this chapter.

(g) Conduct inimical to the public health, morals, welfare, or safety of the people of the State of California in the maintenance or operation of the premises or services for which a license is issued under this chapter.

(h) Proof that the applicant or licensee has used any degree, or certificate, as a means of qualifying for licensure which has been purchased or procured by barter or by any unlawful means or obtained from any institution which at the time said degree, certificate, or title was obtained was not recognized or accredited by the department of education of the state where said institution is or was located to give training in the field of study in which the degree, certificate, or title is claimed.

(i) Violation of any of the provisions of the premarital or prenatal laws or regulations pertaining thereto in Article 3 (commencing with Section 4300) of Chapter 2 of Title 1 of Part 5 of Division 4 of the Civil Code and Article 1 (commencing with Section 1125) of Group 4 of Subchapter 1 of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Title 17 of the California Code of Regulations, or of the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 3220) of Chapter 4 of Division 4 of the Health and Safety Code.

(j) Knowingly accepting an assignment for clinical laboratory tests or specimens from and the rendering a report thereon to persons not authorized by law to submit such specimens or assignments.

(k) Rendering a report on clinical laboratory work actually performed in another clinical laboratory without designating clearly the name of the laboratory in which the test was performed.

(l) Conviction of a felony or of any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude under the laws of any state or of the United States arising out of or in connection with the practice of clinical laboratory technology. The record of conviction or a certified copy thereof shall be conclusive evidence of such conviction.

(m) Unprofessional conduct.

(n) The use of drugs or alcoholic beverages to the extent or in such manner as to be dangerous to a person licensed under this chapter, or any other person to the extent that such use impairs the ability of the licensee to conduct with safety to the public the practice of clinical laboratory technology.

SEC. 13. Section 1321 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1321. For purposes of this chapter, a conviction means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. An action to deny, revoke, or suspend the license may be taken when the time for appeal has elapsed or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of a sentence, notwithstanding a subsequent order pursuant to Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code permitting withdrawal of a plea of guilty, or setting aside a verdict of guilty or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment. The director shall take into account all competent evidence or rehabilitation furnished.

SEC. 14 Section 1322 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

1322. The proceedings under this chapter for the suspension or revocation of a license shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code and the department shall have all the powers granted therein.

SEC. 15. Section 1323 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

1323. The department may temporarily suspend a license prior to any hearing, when it has determined that the action is necessary to protect the public welfare. The department shall notify the licensee of the temporary suspension and the effective date thereof and at the same time shall serve the licensee with an accusation. Upon receipt of a notice of defense by the licensee, the matter shall, within 15 days, be set for hearing. The hearing shall be held as soon as possible, but not later than 30 days after receipt of that notice. The temporary suspension shall remain in effect until such time as the hearing is completed and the department has made a final determination on the merits. However, the temporary suspension shall be deemed vacated if the department fails to make a final decision within 60 days after the hearing has been completed.

SEC. 16. Section 1324 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

1324. No person or entity who has owned or operated a clinical laboratory which had its license revoked may, within two years of the revocation of the license, own or operate a laboratory for which a license has been issued under this section.

SEC. 17. Section 1325 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

1325. The license of a clinical laboratory which has been involuntarily excluded from participation under the Medicare program under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act (42 U.D.S. Sec. 1395 et seq.), under the Medicaid Program under Title XIX of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1396), or which had its certificate revoked under the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Amendments of 1988 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 263a), shall have its license automatically suspended by the department for the period the laboratory is so excluded or has its certificate revoked.

SEC. 18. Section 1326 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

1326. The department may bring an action to enjoin the violation or threatened violation of this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto in the superior court in and for the county in which the violation occurred or is about to occur. Any proceeding under this section shall conform to the requirements of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except that the department shall not be required to allege facts necessary to show or tending to show lack of adequate remedy at law or irreparable damage or loss. With respect to any action brought pursuant to this action alleging actual violation of this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto, the court shall, if it finds the allegations to be true, issue its order enjoining the discontinuance of the violation.

SEC. 19. Section 1327 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

1327 The department may enter into agreements with the Secretary of Health and Human Services for any or all of the following reasons:

(a) For use of the services or facilities of the department for carrying out the provisions of the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Amendments of 1988 (P. L. 100-578; 42 U.S.C. Sec. 263a).

(b) To allow the department to be approved as an accreditation body under federal law.

SEC. 20. The State Department of Health Services shall submit a preliminary report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1992, and a final report on or before January 1, 1994, relative to regulations developed and adopted pursuant to this act. Whenever the federal government implements the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Amendments of 1988 (P.L. 100-578, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 263a, Sec. 353 of the Public Health Service Act) with the issuance of regulations, the department shall review those regulations and shall submit a report to the Legislature concerning whether the requirements imposed by this act are at least as stringent as those imposed by the federal regulations, and concerning any inconsistencies between this act and the federal regulations.

The department shall also report to the Legislature by January 1, 1991, concerning state costs associated with competency testing programs for cytotechnologists and proficiency testing programs for laboratories providing cytology services, and concerning whether approved programs exist to provide these testing services in lieu of state administration of such programs.

SEC. 21. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 928

An act to amend the heading of Chapter 3.1 (commencing with Section 4215) of Division 5 of Title 1 of, to add the heading of Article 1 (commencing with Section 4215) to Chapter 3.1 of Division 5 of Title 1, to add Article 2 (commencing with Section 4216) to Chapter 3.1 of Division 5 of Title 1 of, and to repeal Sections 4216 and 4217 of, the Government Code, relating to underground installations.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The heading of Chapter 3.1 (commencing with Section 4215) of Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 3.1. PROTECTION OF UNDERGROUND INFRASTRUCTURE

SEC. 2. The heading of Article 1 (commencing with Section 4215) of Chapter 3.1 of Division 5 of Title 1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

Article 1. Public Utility Protection in Public Contracts

SEC. 3. Section 4216 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Article 2 (commencing with Section 4216) is added to Chapter 3.1 of Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 2. Regional Notification Center System

4216. As used in this article the following definitions apply:

(a) "Approximate location of subsurface installations" means a strip of land not more than 24 inches on either side of the exterior surface of the subsurface installation. "Approximate location" does not mean depth.

(b) "Excavation" means any operation in which earth, rock, or other material in the ground is moved, removed, or otherwise displaced by means of tools, equipment, or explosives in any of the following ways: grading, trenching, digging, ditching, drilling, augering, tunneling, scraping, cable or pipe plowing and driving, or any other way.

(c) Except as provided in Section 4216.8, "excavator" means any person, firm, contractor or subcontractor, owner, operator, utility, association, corporation, partnership, business trust, public agency, or other entity which, with their, or his or her, own employees or equipment performs any excavation.

(d) "Emergency" means a sudden, unexpected occurrence, involving a clear and imminent danger, demanding immediate action to prevent or mitigate loss of, or damage to, life, health, property, or essential public services. "Unexpected occurrence" includes, but is not limited to, fires, floods, earthquakes or other soil or geologic movements, riots, accidents, damage to a subsurface installation requiring immediate repair, or sabotage.

(e) "Inquiry identification number" means the number which is provided by a regional notification center to every person who contacts the center pursuant to Section 4216.2. The inquiry identification number shall remain valid for not more than 14 calendar days from the date of issuance, and after that date shall require regional notification center revalidation.

(f) "Local agency" means a city, county, city and county, school district, or special district.

(g) "Operator" means any person, corporation, partnership, business trust, public agency, or other entity which owns, operates, or maintains a subsurface installation. For purposes of Section 4216.1 an "operator" does not include an owner of real property where subsurface facilities are exclusively located if they are used exclusively to furnish services on that property and the subsurface facilities are under the operation and control of that owner.

(h) "Regional notification center" means a nonprofit association or other organization of operators of subsurface installations which provides advance warning of excavations or other work close to existing subsurface installations, for the purpose of protecting those installations from damage, removal, relocation, or repair.

(i) "State agency" means every state agency, department, division, bureau, board, or commission.

(j) "Subsurface installation" means any underground pipeline, conduit, duct, wire, or other structure, except nonpressurized sewerlines, nonpressurized storm drains, or other nonpressurized drain lines.

4216.1. Every operator of a subsurface installation, except the Department of Transportation, shall become a member of, participate in, and share in the costs of, a regional notification center. Operators of subsurface installations who are members of, participate in, and share in, the costs of a regional notification center, including, but not limited to, the South Shore Utility Coordinating Council, the Underground Service Alert—Northern California or the Underground Service Alert—Southern California are in compliance with this section and Section 4216.9.

4216.2. (a) Except in an emergency, every person planning to conduct any excavation shall contact the appropriate regional notification center, at least two working days, but not more than 14 calendar days, prior to commencing that excavation, if the excavation will be conducted in an area which is known, or reasonably should be known, to contain subsurface installations other than the underground facilities owned or operated by the excavator and, if practical, the excavator shall delineate with white paint or other suitable markings the area to be excavated.

(b) Except in an emergency, every excavator covered by Section 4216.8 planning to conduct an excavation on private property may contact the appropriate regional notification center if the private property is known, or reasonably should be known, to contain subsurface installations other than the underground facilities owned or operated by the excavator and, if practical, the excavator shall delineate with white paint or other suitable markings the area to be excavated.

(c) The regional notification center shall provide an inquiry identification number to the person who contacts the center pursuant to this section and shall notify any member, if known, who has a subsurface installation in the area of the proposed excavation. An inquiry identification number may be validated for more than 14 days when mutually agreed between the excavator and any member operator so notified that has a subsurface installation in the area of the proposed excavation; and, it may be revalidated by notification to the regional notification center by the excavator prior to the time of its expiration.

(d) A record of all notifications by excavators and operators to the regional notification center shall be maintained for a period of not less than three years. The records shall be available for inspection by the excavator and any member, or their representative, during normal working hours and according to guidelines for inspection as may be established by the regional notification centers.

(e) As used in this section, the delineation is practical when any of the following conditions exist:

(1) When delineating a prospective excavation site with white paint could not be misleading to those persons using affected streets and highways.

(2) When the delineation could not be misinterpreted as a traffic or pedestrian control.

(3) Where an excavator can determine the exact location of an excavation prior to the time an area has been field marked pursuant to Section 4216.3.

(4) Where delineation could not be construed as duplicative.

(f) Where an excavator makes a determination that it is not practical to delineate the area to be excavated, the excavator shall contact the regional notification center to advise the operators that the excavator shall identify the area to be excavated in another manner sufficient to enable the operator to determine the area of the excavation to be field marked pursuant to Section 4216.3.

4216.3. (a) Any operator of a subsurface installation who receives timely notification of any proposed excavation work in accordance with Section 4216.2 shall, within two working days of that notification, excluding weekends and holidays, or before the start of the excavation work, whichever is later, or at a later time mutually agreeable to the operator and the excavator, locate and field mark the approximate location and, if known, the number of subsurface installations which may be affected by the excavation to the extent and degree of accuracy that the information is available either in the records of the operator or as determined through the use of standard locating techniques other than excavating, otherwise advise the person who contacted the center of the location of the operator's subsurface installations which may be affected by the excavation, or advise the person that the operator does not operate any subsurface installations that would be affected by the proposed excavation.

(b) Every operator of a subsurface installation who field marks the location of a subsurface installation shall make a reasonable effort to make field markings in conformance with the following color code and type of installation:

(1) Safety Red—electric power, distribution, and transmission installations, or municipal electric installations.

(2) High Visibility Safety Yellow—gas distribution and transmission installations, oil distribution and transmission installations, or installations containing or transporting dangerous materials, products, or steam.

(3) Safety Alert Orange—telephone and telegraph installations, police and fire communication installations, and cable television installations.

(4) Safety Precaution Blue—water installations and slurry pipelines.

(5) Safety Green—sewer installations.

(c) If, at any time during an excavation for which there is a valid inquiry identification number, an operator's field markings are no longer reasonably visible, the excavator shall contact the appropriate regional notification center The regional notification center shall contact any member, if known, who has a subsurface installation in the area of the excavation. Upon receiving timely notification or renotification pursuant to this subdivision, the operator shall re-locate and re-mark, within two working days, those subsurface installations which may be affected by the excavation to the extent necessary, in conformance with this section.

(d) The excavator shall notify the appropriate regional notification center of the failure of an operator to comply with this section. The notification shall include the inquiry identification number issued by the regional notification center. A record of all notifications received pursuant to this subdivision shall be maintained by the regional notification center for a period of not less than three years. The records shall be available for inspection pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 4216.2.

4216.4. (a) The excavator shall determine the exact location of subsurface installations in conflict with the excavation by excavating with hand tools within the area of the approximate location of subsurface installations as determined by the field marking provided in accordance with Section 4216.3 before using any power-operated or power-driven excavating or boring equipment within the approximate location of the subsurface installation, except that power-operated or power-driven excavating or boring equipment may be used for the removal of any existing pavement if there are no subsurface installations contained in the pavement If mutually agreeable with the operator and the excavator, the excavator may utilize power-operated or power-driven excavating or boring equipment within the approximate location of a subsurface installation and to any depth.

(b) If the exact location of the subsurface installation cannot be determined by hand excavating in accordance with subdivision (a), the excavator shall request the operator to provide additional information to the excavator, to the extent that information is available to the operator, to enable the excavator to determine the exact location of the installation.

4216.5 The requirements of this article apply to state agencies and to local agencies which own or operate subsurface installations, except as otherwise provided in Section 4216.1. A local agency which is required to provide the services described in Section 4216.3 may charge a fee in an amount sufficient to cover the cost of providing that service.

4216.6. (a) (1) Any operator or excavator who negligently violates this article is subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10.000).

(2) Any operator or excavator who knowingly and willfully violates any of the provisions of this article is subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(3) Except as otherwise specifically provided in this article, this section is not intended to affect any civil remedies otherwise provided by law for personal injury or for property damage, including any damage to subsurface installations, nor is this section intended to create any new civil remedies for those injuries or that damage.

(4) This article shall not be construed to limit any other provision of law granting governmental immunity to state or local agencies or to impose any liability or duty of care not otherwise imposed by law upon any state or local agency.

(b) An action may be brought by the Attorney General, the district attorney, or the local or state agency which issued the permit to excavate, for the enforcement of the civil penalty pursuant to this section. If penalties are collected as a result of a civil suit brought by a state or local agency for collection of those civil penalties, the penalties imposed shall be paid to the general fund of the agency. If more than one agency is involved in enforcement, the penalties imposed shall be apportioned among them by the court in a manner that will fairly offset the relative costs incurred by the state or local agencies, or both, in collecting these fees.

4216.7. (a) In the case where an excavator has failed to comply with the notification requirements of Section 4216.2 and the requirements of Section 4216.4, the excavator shall be liable for any claim for damages to the subsurface installation arising from the excavation, by an owner or operator who has complied with the requirements of Section 4216.1 and Section 4216.3, to the extent that the damage was proximately caused by the excavator's failure to comply. This subdivision shall not affect claims including, but not limited to, third-party claims, brought against the excavator by other parties for damages arising from the excavation.

(b) In the case where an owner or operator of a subsurface installation has failed to comply with the regional notification center system requirements of Section 4216.1, that owner or operator shall forfeit his or her claim for damages to his or her subsurface installation arising from the excavation against an excavator who has complied with the requirements of Section 4216.2 to the extent damages were proximately caused by the owner or operator's failure to comply. This subdivision shall not affect claims including, but not limited to, third-party claims, brought against the excavator by other parties for damages arising from the excavation.

(c) In the case where an owner or operator of a subsurface installation receives timely notification of proposed excavation work pursuant to Section 4216.2 but fails to comply with subdivision (a) of Section 4216.3, that owner or operator shall forfeit his or her claim for damages to his or her subsurface installation arising from the excavation against an excavator who has complied with the notification requirements of Section 4216.2 to the extent damages were proximately caused by the owner or operator's failure to comply. This subdivision shall not affect claims including, but not limited to, third-party claims, brought against the excavator by other parties for damages arising from the excavation.

4216.8. This article does not apply to any of the following persons:

(a) An owner of real property who contracts for an excavation project on the property, not requiring a permit issued by a state or local agency, with a contractor or subcontractor licensed pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 7065) of Chapter 9 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code.

(b) An owner of residential real property, not engaged as a contractor or subcontractor licensed pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 7065) of Chapter 9 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, who as part of improving his or her principal residence or appurtenances thereto is performing or having performed excavation work not requiring a permit issued by a state or local agency.

4216.9. (a) No permit to excavate issued by any local agency, as defined in Section 4216, or any state agency, shall be valid unless the applicant has been provided an initial inquiry identification number by a regional notification center pursuant to Section 4216.2. For purposes of this section, "state agency" means every state agency, department, division, bureau, board, or commission, including the Department of Transportation.

(b) This article does not exempt any person or corporation from Sections 7951, 7952, and 7953 of the Public Utilities Code.

SEC. 5. Section 4217 of the Government Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 929

An act to amend Sections 48645 and 48645.1 of the Education Code, and Section 889 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 48645 of the Education Code is amended to read:

48645. The purpose of this article is to provide for the administration and operation of public schools in juvenile halls, juvenile homes, day centers, juvenile ranches, juvenile camps, regional youth educational facilities, or Orange County youth correctional centers in existence and providing services prior to the effective date of the amendments to this section made by the Statutes of 1989, established pursuant to Article 23 (commencing with Section 850), Article 24 (commencing with Section 880), Article 24.5 (commencing with Section 894) of Chapter 2 of Division 2, or Article 9 (commencing with Section 1850) of Chapter 1 of Division 2.5, of the Welfare and Institutions Code or in any group home housing 25 or more children placed pursuant to Sections 362, 727, and 730, of the Welfare and Institutions Code or in any group home housing 25 or more children and operating one or more additional sites under a central administration for children placed pursuant to Section 362, 727, or 730 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, with acceptable school structures at one or more centrally located sites to serve the single or composite populations, and to provide the juvenile court school pupils therein detained with quality education and training.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as indicating that it is the intent of the Legislature to prevent juvenile court school pupils who are housed in group homes from enrolling in regular public schools, or that it is the intent of the Legislature to transfer the responsibility for any costs associated with the operation of group homes to the counties.

The Orange County Office of Education shall only provide educational services in youth correctional centers for individuals up to 19 years of age.

SEC. 2. Section 48645.1 of the Education Code is amended to read:

48645.1. Public schools or classes in any juvenile hall, juvenile home, day center, juvenile ranch, juvenile camp, regional youth educational facility, or Orange County youth correctional center in existence and providing services prior to the effective date of the amendments to this section made by the Statutes of 1989, established in accordance with Article 23 (commencing with Section 850), Article 24 (commencing with Section 880), and Article 24.5 (commencing with Section 894) of Chapter 2 of Division 2, or Article 9 (commencing with Section 1850) of Chapter 1 of Division 2.5, of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or in any group home housing 25 or more children and operating one or more additional sites under a central administration, with acceptable school structures at one or more centrally located sites to serve the single or composite populations of juvenile court school pupils detained therein in accordance with the provisions of Section 362, 727, or 730 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall be known as juvenile court schools.

SEC. 3. Section 889 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

889. The board of education shall provide for the administration and operation of public schools in any juvenile home, hall, day center, ranch, camp, regional youth educational facility, or Orange County youth correctional center in existence and providing services prior to the effective date of the amendments to this section made by the Statutes of 1989, established pursuant to Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 48645) of Chapter 4 of Part 27 of the Education Code, or Article 9 (commencing with Section 1850) of Chapter 1 of Division 2.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 4. No Orange County youth correctional center, or employee or agent of a youth correctional center, in existence and providing services prior to the effective date of this act, established pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 1850) of Chapter 1 of Division 2.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or county board of education, shall be liable for the repayment or reimbursement of any funds received prior to January 1, 1990, and expended for the operation of any youth correctional center.

SEC. 5. Any Orange County youth correctional center existing and providing services prior to the effective date of this act, established pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 1850) of Chapter 1 of Division 2.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, is declared to be a juvenile court school under Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 48645) of Chapter 4 of Part 27 of the Education Code, and is hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally established.

SEC. 6. Due to the unique facts and circumstances applicable to Orange County youth correctional centers that were intended to operate as juvenile court schools and continued to receive funding as juvenile court schools although not specifically designated in Section 48645, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution. Special legislation is, therefore, necessarily applicable to only Orange County.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 930

An act to amend, repeal, and add Sections 186.2, 186.22, 487, 499b.1, and 666.5 of, and to add and repeal Sections 487h and 666.7 of, the Penal Code, to amend, repeal, and add Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code, and to amend, repeal, and add Section 653.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the rapid increase in motor vehicle theft has reached crisis proportions within the state, and that there is a lucrative vehicle theft industry which has spawned the development of sophisticated criminal operations. The Legislature further finds that the escalating problem of vehicle theft is nurtured by the lack of any serious deterrent to this crime, and that vehicle thieves consider sanctions under existing law merely as routine operating costs.

Therefore, the Legislature believes that it is in the best interest for public safety to enhance the penalties for the crimes of vehicle theft and receiving stolen vehicles. Moreover, the Legislature believes that existing laws should be utilized to the fullest extent possible to actively pursue innovative programs to deter vehicle theft and to improve the recovery of stolen vehicles, including the vigorous application of the asset forfeiture provisions of the criminal profiteering laws (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 186) of Title 7 of Part 1 of the Penal Code).

SEC. 2. This act shall be known as the "Omnibus Motor Vehicle Theft Act of 1989."

SEC. 3. Section 186.2 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 6 of Chapter 828 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

186.2. For purposes of the application of this chapter, the following definitions shall govern:

(a) "Criminal profiteering activity" means any act committed or attempted or any threat made for financial gain or advantage, which act or threat may be charged as a crime under any of the following sections:

(1) Arson, as defined in Section 451.

(2) Bribery, as defined in Sections 67, 67.5, and 68.

(3) Child pornography or exploitation, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 311.2, or Section 311.3 or 311.4, which may be prosecuted as a felony.

(4) Felonious assault, as defined in Section 245.

(5) Embezzlement, as defined in Sections 424 and 503.

(6) Extortion, as defined in Section 518.

(7) Forgery, as defined in Section 470.

(8) Gambling, as defined in Sections 337a to 337f, inclusive, and Section 337i, except the activities of a person who participates solely as an individual bettor.

(9) Kidnapping, as defined in Section 207.

(10) Mayhem, as defined in Section 203.

(11) Murder, as defined in Section 187.

(12) Pimping and pandering, as defined in Section 266.

(13) Receiving stolen property, as defined in Section 496.

(14) Robbery, as defined in Section 211.

(15) Solicitation of crimes, as defined in Section 653f.

(16) Grand theft, as defined in Section 487.

(17) Theft or taking of any motor vehicle, trailer, or vessel as described in Section 487h of this code or any vehicle as described in Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code.

(18) Trafficking in controlled substances, as defined in Sections 11351, 11351.5, 11352, and 11353 of the Health and Safety Code.

(19) Violation of the laws governing corporate securities, as defined in Section 25541 of the Corporations Code.

(20) Any of the offenses contained in Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 311) of Title 9, relating to obscene matter, or in Chapter

7.6 (commencing with Section 313) of Title 9, relating to harmful matter which may be prosecuted as a felony.

(21) Presentation of a false or fraudulent claim, as defined in Section 556 of the Insurance Code.

(22) Money laundering, as defined in Section 186.10.

(23) Conspiracy to commit any of the crimes listed above, as defined in Section 182.

(b) "Pattern of criminal profiteering activity" means engaging in at least two incidents of criminal profiteering, as defined by this act, which meet the following requirements:

(1) Have the same or a similar purpose, result, principals, victims, or methods of commission, or are otherwise interrelated by distinguishing characteristics.

(2) Are not isolated events.

(3) Were committed as a criminal activity of organized crime.

Acts which would constitute a "pattern of criminal profiteering activity" may not be used by a prosecuting agency to seek the remedies provided by this chapter unless the underlying offense occurred after the effective date of this chapter and the prior act occurred within 10 years, excluding any period of imprisonment, of the commission of the underlying offense. A prior act may not be used by a prosecuting agency to seek remedies provided by this chapter if a prosecution for that act resulted in an acquittal.

(c) "Prosecuting agency" means the Attorney General or the district attorney of any county.

(d) "Organized crime" means crime which is of a conspiratorial and (1) organized nature and which seeks to supply illegal goods and services such as narcotics, prostitution, loan sharking, gambling, and pornography or, (2) through planning and coordination of individual efforts, to conduct the illegal activities of arson for profit, hijacking, insurance fraud, smuggling, operating vehicle theft rings, or systematically encumbering the assets of a business for the purpose of defrauding creditors.

(e) "Underlying offense" means an offense enumerated in subdivision (a) for which the defendant is being prosecuted.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1992, pursuant to Section 9611 of the Government Code, Section 186.2 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1205 of the Statutes of 1985, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

SEC. 4. Section 186.2 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 7 of Chapter 828 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

186.2. For purposes of the application of this chapter, the following definitions shall govern:

(a) "Criminal profiteering activity" means any act committed or attempted or any threat made for financial gain or advantage, which act or threat may be charged as a crime under any of the following sections:

(1) Arson, as defined in Section 451.

(2) Bribery, as defined in Sections 67, 67.5, and 68.

(3) Child pornography or exploitation, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 311.2, or Section 311.3 or 311.4, which may be prosecuted as a felony.

(4) Felonious assault, as defined in Section 245.

(5) Embezzlement, as defined in Sections 424 and 503.

(6) Extortion, as defined in Section 518.

(7) Forgery, as defined in Section 470.

(8) Gambling, as defined in Sections 337a to 337f, inclusive, and Section 337i, except the activities of a person who participates solely as an individual bettor.

(9) Kidnapping, as defined in Section 207.

(10) Mayhem, as defined in Section 203.

(11) Murder, as defined in Section 187.

(12) Pimping and pandering, as defined in Section 266.

(13) Receiving stolen property, as defined in Section 496.

(14) Robbery, as defined in Section 211.

(15) Solicitation of crimes, as defined in Section 653f.

(16) Grand theft, as defined in Section 487.

(17) Theft or taking of any motor vehicle, trailer, or vessel as described in Section 487h of this code or any vehicle as described in Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code.

(18) Trafficking in controlled substances, as defined in Sections 11351, 11352, and 11353 of the Health and Safety Code.

(19) Violation of the laws governing corporate securities, as defined in Section 25541 of the Corporations Code.

(20) Any of the offenses contained in Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 311) of Title 9, relating to obscene matter, or in Chapter 7.6 (commencing with Section 313) of Title 9, relating to harmful matter which may be prosecuted as a felony.

(21) Presentation of a false or fraudulent claim, as defined in Section 556 of the Insurance Code.

(22) Conspiracy to commit any of the crimes listed above, as defined in Section 182.

(b) "Pattern of criminal profiteering activity" means engaging in at least two incidents of criminal profiteering, as defined by this act, which meet the following requirements:

(1) Have the same or a similar purpose, result, principals, victims or methods of commission, or are otherwise interrelated by distinguishing characteristics.

(2) Are not isolated events.

(3) Were committed as a criminal activity of organized crime.

Acts which would constitute a "pattern of criminal profiteering activity" may not be used by a prosecuting agency to seek the remedies provided by this chapter unless the underlying offense occurred after the effective date of this chapter and the prior act occurred within 10 years, excluding any period of imprisonment, of the commission of the underlying offense. A prior act may not be used by a prosecuting agency to seek remedies provided by this chapter if a prosecution for that act resulted in an acquittal.

(c) "Prosecuting agency" means the Attorney General or the district attorney of any county.

(d) "Organized crime" means crime which is of a conspiratorial and (1) organized nature and which seeks to supply illegal goods and services such as narcotics, prostitution, loan sharking, gambling, and pornography or, (2) through planning and coordination of individual efforts, to conduct the illegal activities of arson for profit, hijacking, insurance fraud, smuggling, operating vehicle theft rings, or systematically encumbering the assets of a business for the purpose of defrauding creditors.

(e) "Underlying offense" means an offense enumerated in subdivision (a) for which the defendant is being prosecuted.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4.1. Section 186.2 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

186.2. For purposes of the application of this chapter, the following definitions shall govern:

(a) "Criminal profiteering activity" means any act committed or attempted or any threat made for financial gain or advantage, which act or threat may be charged as a crime under any of the following sections:

(1) Arson, as defined in Section 451.

(2) Bribery, as defined in Sections 67, 67.5, and 68.

(3) Child pornography or exploitation, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 311.2, or Section 311.3 or 311.4, which may be prosecuted as a felony.

(4) Felonious assault, as defined in Section 245.

(5) Embezzlement, as defined in Sections 424 and 503.

(6) Extortion, as defined in Section 518.

(7) Forgery, as defined in Section 470.

(8) Gambling, as defined in Sections 337a to 337f, inclusive, and Section 337i, except the activities of a person who participates solely as an individual bettor.

(9) Kidnapping, as defined in Section 207.

(10) Mayhem, as defined in Section 203.

(11) Murder, as defined in Section 187.

(12) Pimping and pandering, as defined in Section 266.

(13) Receiving stolen property, as defined in Section 496.

(14) Robbery, as defined in Section 211.

(15) Solicitation of crimes, as defined in Section 653f.

(16) Grand theft, as defined in Section 487.

(17) Trafficking in controlled substances, as defined in Sections 11351, 11352, and 11353 of the Health and Safety Code.

(18) Violation of the laws governing corporate securities, as defined in Section 25541 of the Corporations Code.

(19) Any of the offenses contained in Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 311) of Title 9, relating to obscene matter, or in Chapter 7.6 (commencing with Section 313) of Title 9, relating to harmful matter which may be prosecuted as a felony.

(20) Presentation of a false or fraudulent claim, as defined in Section 556 of the Insurance Code.

(21) Conspiracy to commit any of the crimes listed above, as defined in Section 182.

(b) "Pattern of criminal profiteering activity" means engaging in at least two incidents of criminal profiteering, as defined by this act, which meet the following requirements:

(1) Have the same or a similar purpose, result, principals, victims or methods of commission, or are otherwise interrelated by distinguishing characteristics.

(2) Are not isolated events.

(3) Were committed as a criminal activity of organized crime.

Acts which would constitute a "pattern of criminal profiteering activity" may not be used by a prosecuting agency to seek the remedies provided by this chapter unless the underlying offense occurred after the effective date of this chapter and the prior act occurred within 10 years, excluding any period of imprisonment, of the commission of the underlying offense. A prior act may not be used by a prosecuting agency to seek remedies provided by this chapter if a prosecution for that act resulted in an acquittal.

(c) "Prosecuting agency" means the Attorney General or the district attorney of any county.

(d) "Organized crime" means crime which is of a conspiratorial and (1) organized nature and which seeks to supply illegal goods and services such as narcotics, prostitution, loan sharking, gambling, and pornography or, (2) through planning and coordination of individual efforts, to conduct the illegal activities of arson for profit, hijacking, insurance fraud, smuggling, operating vehicle theft rings, or systematically encumbering the assets of a business for the purpose of defrauding creditors.

(e) "Underlying offense" means an offense enumerated in subdivision (a) for which the defendant is being prosecuted.

SEC. 5. Section 186.22 of the Penal Code, as amended by Chapter 144 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

186.22. (a) Any person who actively participates in any criminal street gang with knowledge that its members engage in or have engaged in a pattern of criminal gang activity, and who willfully promotes, furthers, or assists in any felonious criminal conduct by members of that gang, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed one year, or by imprisonment in the state prison for one, two, or three years.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), any person who is convicted of a felony which is committed for the benefit of, at the direction of, or in association with any criminal street gang, with the specific intent to promote, further, or assist in any criminal conduct by gang members, shall, upon conviction of that felony, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony or attempted felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of one, two, or three years at the court's discretion. The court shall order the imposition of the middle term of the sentence enhancement, unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation. The court shall state the reasons for its choice of sentence enhancements on the record at the time of the sentencing.

(2) Any person who violates this subdivision in the commission of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for life, shall not be paroled until a minimum of 15 calendar years have been served.

(c) Any person who is convicted of a public offense punishable as a felony or a misdemeanor, which is committed for the benefit of, at the direction of, or in association with, any criminal street gang, with the specific intent to promote, further, or assist in any criminal conduct by gang members, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year, or by imprisonment in the state prison for one, two, or three years, provided that any person sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail shall be imprisoned for a period not to exceed one year, but not less than 180 days, and shall not be eligible for release upon completion of sentence, parole, or any other basis, until he or she has served 180 days. If the court grants probation or suspends the execution of sentence imposed upon the defendant, it shall require as a condition thereof that the defendant serve 180 days in the county jail.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court may strike the additional punishment for the enhancements provided in this section or refuse to impose the minimum jail sentence for misdemeanors in an unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served, if the court specifies on the record and enters into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by that disposition.

(e) As used in this chapter, "pattern of criminal gang activity" means the commission, attempted commission, or solicitation of two or more of the following offenses, provided at least one of those offenses occurred after the effective date of this chapter and the last of those offenses occurred within three years after a prior offense, and the offenses are committed on separate occasions, or by two or more persons:

(1) Assault with a deadly weapon or by means of force likely to produce great bodily injury, as defined in Section 245.

(2) Robbery, as defined in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 211) of Title 8 of Part 1.

(3) Unlawful homicide or manslaughter, as defined in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 187) of Title 8 of Part 1.

(4) The sale, possession for sale, transportation, manufacture, offer for sale, or offer to manufacture controlled substances as defined in Sections 11054, 11055, 11056, 11057, and 11058 of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) Shooting at an inhabited dwelling or occupied motor vehicle, as defined in Section 246.

(6) Arson, as defined in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 450) of Title 13.

(7) The intimidation of witnesses and victims, as defined in Section 136.1.

(8) Grand theft of any vehicle, trailer, or vessel as described in Section 487h.

(f) As used in this chapter, "criminal street gang" means any ongoing organization, association, or group of three or more persons, whether formal or informal, having as one of its primary activities the commission of one or more of the criminal acts enumerated in paragraphs (1) to (8), inclusive, of subdivision (e), which has a common name or common identifying sign or symbol, whose members individually or collectively engage in or have engaged in a pattern of criminal gang activity.

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5.1. Section 186.22 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

186.22. (a) Any person who actively participates in any criminal street gang with knowledge that its members engage in or have engaged in a pattern of criminal gang activity, and who willfully promotes, furthers, or assists in any felonious criminal conduct by members of that gang, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed one year, or by imprisonment in the state prison for one, two, or three years.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), any person who is convicted of a felony which is committed for the benefit of, at the direction of, or in association with any criminal street gang, with the specific intent to promote, further, or assist in any criminal conduct by gang members, shall, upon conviction of that felony, in addition and consecutive to the punishment prescribed for the felony or attempted felony of which he or she has been convicted, be punished by an additional term of one, two, or three years at the court's discretion The court shall order the imposition of the middle term of the sentence enhancement, unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation. The court shall state the reasons for its choice of sentence enhancements on the record at the time of the sentencing.

(2) Any person who violates this subdivision in the commission of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for life, shall not be paroled until a minimum of 15 calendar years have been served.

(c) Any person who is convicted of a public offense punishable as a felony or a misdemeanor, which is committed for the benefit of, at the direction of, or in association with, any criminal street gang, with the specific intent to promote, further, or assist in any criminal conduct by gang members, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year, or by imprisonment in the state prison for one, two, or three years, provided that any person sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail shall be imprisoned for a period not to exceed one year, but not less than 180 days, and shall not be eligible for release upon completion of sentence, parole, or any other basis, until he or she has served 180 days. If the court grants probation or suspends the execution of sentence imposed upon the defendant, it shall require as a condition thereof that the defendant serve 180 days in the county jail.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court may strike the additional punishment for the enhancements provided in this section or refuse to impose the minimum jail sentence for misdemeanors in an unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served, if the court specifies on the record and enters into the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by that disposition.

(e) As used in this chapter, "pattern of criminal gang activity" means the commission, attempted commission, or solicitation of two or more of the following offenses, provided at least one of those offenses occurred after the effective date of this chapter and the last of those offenses occurred within three years after a prior offense, and the offenses are committed on separate occasions, or by two or more persons:

(1) Assault with a deadly weapon or by means of force likely to produce great bodily injury, as defined in Section 245.

(2) Robbery, as defined in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 211) of Title 8 of Part 1.

(3) Unlawful homicide or manslaughter, as defined in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 187) of Title 8 of Part 1.

(4) The sale, possession for sale, transportation, manufacture, offer for sale, or offer to manufacture controlled substances as defined in Sections 11054, 11055, 11056, 11057, and 11058 of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) Shooting at an inhabited dwelling or occupied motor vehicle, as defined in Section 246.

(6) Arson, as defined in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 450) of Title 13.

(7) The intimidation of witnesses and victims, as defined in Section 136.1.

(f) As used in this chapter, "criminal street gang" means any ongoing organization, association, or group of three or more persons, whether formal or informal, having as one of its primary activities the commission of one or more of the criminal acts enumerated in paragraphs (1) to (7), inclusive, of subdivision (e), which has a common name or common identifying sign or symbol, whose members individually or collectively engage in or have engaged in a pattern of criminal gang activity.

SEC. 6. Section 487 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

487. Grand theft is theft committed in any of the following cases:

1. When the money, labor or real or personal property taken is of a value exceeding four hundred dollars ($400); provided, that when domestic fowls, avocados, olives, citrus or deciduous fruits, other fruits, vegetables, nuts, artichokes, or other farm crops are taken of a value exceeding one hundred dollars ($100); provided, further, that when fish, shellfish, mollusks, crustaceans, kelp, algae, or other aquacultural products are taken from a commercial or research operation which is producing that product, of a value exceeding one hundred dollars ($100); provided, further, that where the money, labor, real or personal property is taken by a servant, agent or employee from his principal or employer and aggregates four hundred dollars ($400) or more in any 12 consecutive month period, then the same shall constitute grand theft.

For purposes of establishing that the value of avocados or citrus fruit under this subdivision exceeds one hundred dollars ($100), that value may be shown by the presentation of credible evidence which establishes that on the day of the theft avocados or citrus fruit of the same variety and weight exceeded one hundred dollars ($100) in wholesale value.

2. When the property is taken from the person of another.

3. When the property taken is a firearm, horse, mare, gelding, any bovine animal, any caprine animal, mule, jack, jenny, sheep, lamb, hog, sow, boar, gilt, barrow or pig.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6.1. Section 487 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

487. Grand theft is theft committed in any of the following cases:

1. When the money, labor or real or personal property taken is of a value exceeding four hundred dollars ($400); provided, that when domestic fowls, avocados, olives, citrus or deciduous fruits, other fruits, vegetables, nuts, artichokes, or other farm crops are taken of a value exceeding one hundred dollars ($100); provided, further, that when fish, shellfish, mollusks, crustaceans, kelp, algae, or other aquacultural products are taken from a commercial or research operation which is producing that product, of a value exceeding one hundred dollars ($100), provided, further, that where the money, labor, real or personal property is taken by a servant, agent or employee from his principal or employer and aggregates four hundred dollars ($400) or more in any 12 consecutive month period, then the same shall constitute grand theft.

For purposes of establishing that the value of avocados or citrus fruit under this subdivision exceeds one hundred dollars ($100), that value may be shown by the presentation of credible evidence which establishes that on the day of the theft avocados or citrus fruit of the same variety and weight exceeded one hundred dollars ($100) in wholesale value.

2. When the property is taken from the person of another.

3. When the property taken is an automobile, firearm, horse, mare, gelding, any bovine animal, any caprine animal, mule, jack, jenny, sheep, lamb, hog, sow, boar, gilt, barrow or pig.

SEC. 7. Section 487h is added to the Penal Code, to read:

487h. (a) Every person who feloniously steals or takes any motor vehicle, as defined in Section 415 of the Vehicle Code, any trailer, as defined in Section 630 of the Vehicle Code, any special construction equipment, as defined in Section 565 of the Vehicle Code, or any vessel, as defined in Section 21 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, is guilty of grand theft, and upon conviction thereof, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years or a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or both, or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year or a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both.

(b) Any person who, having been convicted of two previous violations of subdivision (a), former paragraph (3) of Section 487, involving an automobile, or Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code, or any combination, is subsequently convicted of a violation of subdivision (a) is punishable for the subsequent conviction by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years.

(c) Except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served if the person is granted probation, probation shall not be granted to any person who is convicted of a felony violation of subdivision (a) or (b), and who has been previously convicted of two or more felony violations of the offense set forth in subdivision (a), the offense set forth in former paragraph (3) of Section 487, involving a vehicle, or the offense set forth in Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code, or who has been previously convicted of one felony violation of any of those offenses and at least two misdemeanor violations of those offenses, nor shall an alternative sentence in county jail be given pursuant to Section 18.

(d) If the court grants probation under subdivision (c), it shall specify on the court record the reason or reasons for that order.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 8. Section 499b.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

499b.1. (a) Any person who, having been convicted of a previous violation of Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code, or of subdivision (3) of Section 487, involving a vehicle or vessel, and having served a term therefor in any penal institution or having been imprisoned therein as a condition of probation for such offense, is subsequently convicted of a violation of Section 499b, involving a vehicle or vessel, is punishable for such subsequent offense by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year or the state prison for 16 months, two, or three years.

(b) Any person convicted of a violation of Section 499b, who has been previously convicted under charges separately brought and tried two or more times of a violation of Section 499b, all such violations involving a vehicle or vessel, and who has been imprisoned therefore as a condition of probation or otherwise at least once, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or in the state prison for 16 months, two, or three years.

(c) Any person convicted of a violation of Section 499b, who has been previously convicted under charges separately brought and tried three or more times of a violation of Section 499b, all the violations involving a vehicle or vessel, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, two, or three years.

(d) Any person convicted of a violation of Section 499b, who has twice been previously convicted under charges separately brought and tried of a violation of Section 499b, all the violations involving a vehicle or vessel, and who has been previously convicted of a violation of Section 487h, former paragraph (3) of Section 487, involving an automobile, or Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, two, or three years.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 8.1. Section 499b.1 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

499b.1. (a) Any person who, having been convicted of a previous violation of Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code, or of subdivision (3) of Section 487, involving a vehicle or vessel, and having served a term therefor in any penal institution or having been imprisoned therein as a condition of probation for such offense, is subsequently convicted of a violation of Section 499b, involving a vehicle or vessel, is punishable for such subsequent offense by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year or the state prison for 16 months, two, or three years.

(b) Any person convicted of a violation of Section 499b, who has been previously convicted under charges separately brought and tried two or more times of a violation of Section 499b, all such violations involving a vehicle or vessel, and who has been imprisoned therefore as a condition of probation or otherwise at least once, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or in the state prison for 16 months, two, or three years.

SEC. 9. Section 666.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

666.5. (a) Every person who, having been previously convicted of felony vehicle theft under Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code, or felony grand theft involving an automobile in violation of subdivision (3) of Section 487 or of Section 487h, regardless of whether or not the person actually served a prior prison term for those offenses, is subsequently convicted of any of these offenses shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for three, four, or five years, or a fine of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or both the fine and the imprisonment.

(b) The existence of any fact which would bring a person under subdivision (a) shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 9.1. Section 666.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

666.5. (a) Every person who, having been previously convicted of felony vehicle theft under Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code, or felony grand theft involving an automobile in violation of subdivision (3) of Section 487, regardless of whether or not the person actually served a prior prison term for those offenses, is subsequently convicted of any of these offenses shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years, or a fine of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or both the fine and the imprisonment.

(b) The existence of any fact which would bring a person under subdivision (a) shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

SEC. 10. Section 666.7 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

666.7. (a) Every person who, having been twice previously convicted of receiving stolen property in violation of subdivision (1) of Section 496, involving any vehicle, trailer, or vessel, regardless of whether or not the person actually served a prior prison term for those offenses, is subsequently convicted of that offense involving any vehicle, trailer, or vessel, shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years, or a fine of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) The existence of any fact which would bring a person under subdivision (a) shall be alleged in the information or indictment and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 11. Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

10851. (a) Any person who drives or takes a vehicle not his or her own, without the consent of the owner thereof, and with intent either to permanently or temporarily to deprive the owner thereof of his or her title to or possession of the vehicle, whether with or without intent to steal the vehicle, or any person who is a party or an accessory to or an accomplice in the driving or unauthorized taking or stealing, is guilty of a public offense and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years or a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or both, or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year or a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both.

(b) Any person who, having been convicted of two previous violations of subdivision (a), former paragraph (3) of Section 487 of the Penal Code, involving an automobile, or Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code, is subsequently convicted of a violation of subdivision (a) is punishable for the subsequent conviction by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years.

(c) If the vehicle is (1) an ambulance, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 165, (2) a distinctively marked vehicle of a law enforcement agency or fire department, taken while the ambulance or vehicle is on an emergency call and this fact is known to the person driving or taking, or any person who is party or an accessory to or an accomplice in the driving or unauthorized taking or stealing, or (3) a vehicle which has been modified for the use of a disabled veteran or any other disabled person and which displays a distinguishing license plate or placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.5 or 22511.9 and this fact is known or should reasonably have been known to the person driving or taking, or any person who is party or an accessory in the driving or unauthorized taking or stealing, the offense is a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, four, or six years and by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(d) (1) Except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served if the person is granted probation, probation shall not be granted to any person who is convicted of a felony violation of subdivision (a), (b), or (c), and who has been previously convicted of two or more felony violations of the offense set forth in subdivision (a) or (c), the offense set forth in former paragraph (3) of Section 487 of the Penal Code, involving a vehicle, or the offense set forth in Section 487h of the Penal Code, or who has been previously convicted of one felony violation of any of those offenses and at least two misdemeanor violations of those offenses, nor shall an alternative sentence in county jail be given pursuant to Section 18.

(2) If the court grants probation under paragraph (1), it shall specify on the court record the reason or reasons for that order.

(e) In any prosecution for a violation of subdivision (a) or (c), the consent of the owner of a vehicle to its taking or driving shall not in any case be presumed or implied because of the owner's consent on a previous occasion to the taking or driving of the vehicle by the same or a different person.

(f) The existence of any fact which makes subdivision (c) applicable shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 11.1. Section 10851 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

10851. (a) Any person who drives or takes a vehicle not his or her own, without the consent of the owner thereof, and with intent either to permanently or temporarily deprive the owner thereof of his or her title to or possession of the vehicle, whether with or without intent to steal the vehicle, or any person who is a party or an accessory to or an accomplice in the driving or unauthorized taking or stealing, is guilty of a public offense and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or in the state prison or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) If the vehicle is (1) an ambulance, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 165, (2) a distinctively marked vehicle of a law enforcement agency or fire department, taken while the ambulance or vehicle is on an emergency call and this fact is known to the person driving or taking, or any person who is party or an accessory to or an accomplice in the driving or unauthorized taking or stealing, or (3) a vehicle which has been modified for the use of a disabled veteran or any other disabled person and which displays a distinguishing license plate or placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.5 or 22511.9 and this fact is known or should reasonably have been known to the person driving or taking, or any person who is party or an accessory in the driving or unauthorized taking or stealing, the offense is a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years or by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(c) In any prosecution for a violation of subdivision (a) or (b), the consent of the owner of a vehicle to its taking or driving shall not in any case be presumed or implied because of the owner's consent on a previous occasion to the taking or driving of the vehicle by the same or a different person.

(d) The existence of any fact which makes subdivision (b) applicable shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading, and either admitted by the defendant in open court, or found to be true by the jury trying the issue of guilt or by the court where guilt is established by plea of guilty or nolo contendere or by trial by the court sitting without a jury.

SEC. 12. Section 653.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read

653.5. (a) Whenever any person applies to the probation officer to commence proceedings in the juvenile court, the application shall be in the form of an affidavit alleging that there was or is within the county, or residing therein, a minor within the provisions of Section 602, or that a minor committed an offense described in Section 602 within the county, and setting forth facts in support thereof. The probation officer shall immediately make any investigation he or she deems necessary to determine whether proceedings in the juvenile court shall be commenced.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), if the probation officer determines that proceedings pursuant to Section 650 should be commenced to declare a person to be a ward of the juvenile court on the basis that he or she is a person described in Section 602, the probation officer shall cause the affidavit to be taken to the prosecuting attorney.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (b), the probation officer shall cause the affidavit to be taken within 48 hours to the prosecuting attorney in all of the following cases:

(1) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for any violation of an offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707.

(2) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor is under 16 years of age at the date of the offense and that the offense constitutes a second felony referral to the probation officer.

(3) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor was 16 years of age or older at the date of the offense and that the offense constitutes a felony referral to the probation officer.

(4) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor was 14 years of age or older at the date of the offense and the offense for which the referral was made constitutes a violation of Section 487h of the Penal Code or Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code.

The provisions of subdivision (c) shall not apply to a narcotics and drug offense set forth in Section 1000 of the Penal Code.

The prosecuting attorney shall within his or her discretionary power institute proceedings in accordance with his or her role as public prosecutor pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 650 and Section 26500 of the Government Code. However, if it appears to the prosecuting attorney that the affidavit was not properly referred, that the offense for which the minor was referred should be charged as a misdemeanor, or that the minor may benefit from a program of informal supervision, he or she shall refer the matter to the probation officer for whatever action the probation officer may deem appropriate.

(d) In all matters where the minor is not in custody and is already a ward of the court or a probationer under Section 602, the prosecuting attorney, within five judicial days of receipt of the affidavit from the probation officer, shall institute proceedings in accordance with his or her role as public prosecutor pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 650 of this code and Section 26500 of the Government Code, unless it appears to the prosecuting attorney that the affidavit was not properly referred or that the offense for which the minor was referred requires additional substantiating information, in which case he or she shall immediately notify the probation officer of what further action he or she is taking.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 12.1. Section 653.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

653.5. (a) Whenever any person applies to the probation officer to commence proceedings in the juvenile court, the application shall be in the form of an affidavit alleging that there was or is within the county, or residing therein, a minor within the provisions of Section 602, or that a minor committed an offense described in Section 602 within the county, and setting forth facts in support thereof. The probation officer shall immediately make any investigation he or she deems necessary to determine whether proceedings in the juvenile court shall be commenced.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), if the probation officer determines that proceedings pursuant to Section 650 should be commenced to declare a person to be a ward of the juvenile court on the basis that he or she is a person described in Section 602, the probation officer shall cause the affidavit to be taken to the prosecuting attorney.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (b), the probation officer shall cause the affidavit to be taken within 48 hours to the prosecuting attorney in all of the following cases:

(1) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for any violation of an offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707.

(2) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor is under 16 years of age at the date of the offense and that the offense constitutes a second felony referral to the probation officer.

(3) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor was 16 years of age or older at the date of the offense and that the offense constitutes a felony referral to the probation officer.

(4) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor was 14 years of age or older at the date of the offense and the offense for which the referral was made constitutes a violation of Section 487h of the Penal Code or Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code.

(5) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for the sale or possession for sale of a controlled substance as defined in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11053) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code.

(6) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for a violation of Section 11350 or 11377 of the Health and Safety Code where the violation takes place at a public or private elementary, vocational, junior high school, or high school, or a violation of Section 245.5, 626.9, or 626.10 of the Penal Code.

(7) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for a violation of Section 186.22 of the Penal Code.

(8) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has previously been placed in a program of informal probation pursuant to Section 654.

(9) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has committed an offense in which the restitution owed to the victim exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000). For purposes of this paragraph, the definition of "victim" in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 729.6 and "restitution" in subdivision (d) of Section 729.6 shall apply.

Except for the offenses listed in paragraph (6), the provisions of subdivision (c) shall not apply to a narcotics and drug offense set forth in Section 1000 of the Penal Code.

The prosecuting attorney shall within his or her discretionary power institute proceedings in accordance with his or her role as public prosecutor pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 650 and Section 26500 of the Government Code. However, if it appears to the prosecuting attorney that the affidavit was not properly referred, that the offense for which the minor was referred should be charged as a misdemeanor, or that the minor may benefit from a program of informal supervision, he or she shall refer the matter to the probation officer for whatever action the probation officer may deem appropriate.

(d) In all matters where the minor is not in custody and is already a ward of the court or a probationer under Section 602, the prosecuting attorney, within five judicial days of receipt of the affidavit from the probation officer, shall institute proceedings in accordance with his or her role as public prosecutor pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 650 of this code and Section 26500 of the Government Code, unless it appears to the prosecuting attorney that the affidavit was not properly referred or that the offense for which the minor was referred requires additional substantiating information, in which case he or she shall immediately notify the probation officer of what further action he or she is taking.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 12.2. Section 653.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

653.5. (a) Whenever any person applies to the probation officer to commence proceedings in the juvenile court, the application shall be in the form of an affidavit alleging that there was or is within the county, or residing therein, a minor within the provisions of Section 602, or that a minor committed an offense described in Section 602 within the county, and setting forth facts in support thereof. The probation officer shall immediately make any investigation he or she deems necessary to determine whether proceedings in the juvenile court shall be commenced.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), if the probation officer determines that proceedings pursuant to Section 650 should be commenced to declare a person to be a ward of the juvenile court on the basis that he or she is a person described in Section 602, the probation officer shall cause the affidavit to be taken to the prosecuting attorney.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (b), the probation officer shall cause the affidavit to be taken within 48 hours to the prosecuting attorney in all of the following cases:

(1) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for any violation of an offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707.

(2) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor is under 16 years of age at the date of the offense and that the offense constitutes a second felony referral to the probation officer.

(3) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor was 16 years of age or older at the date of the offense and that the offense constitutes a felony referral to the probation officer.

The provisions of subdivision (c) shall not apply to a narcotics and drug offense set forth in Section 1000 of the Penal Code.

The prosecuting attorney shall within his or her discretionary power institute proceedings in accordance with his or her role as public prosecutor pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 650 and Section 26500 of the Government Code. However, if it appears to the prosecuting attorney that the affidavit was not properly referred, that the offense for which the minor was referred should be charged as a misdemeanor, or that the minor may benefit from a program of informal supervision, he or she shall refer the matter to the probation officer for whatever action the probation officer may deem appropriate.

(d) In all matters where the minor is not in custody and is already a ward of the court or a probationer under Section 602, the prosecuting attorney, within five judicial days of receipt of the affidavit from the probation officer, shall institute proceedings in accordance with his or her role as public prosecutor pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 650 of this code and Section 26500 of the Government Code, unless it appears to the prosecuting attorney that the affidavit was not properly referred or that the offense for which the minor was referred requires additional substantiating information, in which case he or she shall immediately notify the probation officer of what further action he or she is taking.

(e) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993, unless a later enacted statute which is enacted before January 1, 1993, changes that date.

SEC. 12.3. Section 653.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

653.5. (a) Whenever any person applies to the probation officer to commence proceedings in the juvenile court, the application shall be in the form of an affidavit alleging that there was or is within the county, or residing therein, a minor within the provisions of Section 602, or that a minor committed an offense described in Section 602 within the county, and setting forth facts in support thereof. The probation officer shall immediately make any investigation he or she deems necessary to determine whether proceedings in the juvenile court shall be commenced.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), if the probation officer determines that proceedings pursuant to Section 650 should be commenced to declare a person to be a ward of the juvenile court on the basis that he or she is a person described in Section 602, the probation officer shall cause the affidavit to be taken to the prosecuting attorney.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (b), the probation officer shall cause the affidavit to be taken within 48 hours to the prosecuting attorney in all of the following cases:

(1) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for any violation of an offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707.

(2) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor is under 16 years of age at the date of the offense and that the offense constitutes a second felony referral to the probation officer.

(3) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor was 16 years of age or older at the date of the offense and that the offense constitutes a felony referral to the probation officer.

(4) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for the sale or possession for sale of a controlled substance as defined in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11053) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for a violation of Section 11350 or 11377 of the Health and Safety Code where the violation takes place at a public or private elementary, vocational, junior high school, or high school, or a violation of Section 245.5, 626.9, or 626.10 of the Penal Code.

(6) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for a violation of Section 186.22 of the Penal Code.

(7) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has previously been placed in a program of informal probation pursuant to Section 654.

(8) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has committed an offense in which the restitution owed to the victim exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000). For purposes of this paragraph, the definition of "victim" in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 729.6 and "restitution" in subdivision (d) of Section 729.6 shall apply.

Except for the offenses listed in paragraph (5), the provisions of subdivision (c) shall not apply to a narcotics and drug offense set forth in Section 1000 of the Penal Code.

The prosecuting attorney shall within his or her discretionary power institute proceedings in accordance with his or her role as public prosecutor pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 650 and Section 26500 of the Government Code. However, if it appears to the prosecuting attorney that the affidavit was not properly referred, that the offense for which the minor was referred should be charged as a misdemeanor, or that the minor may benefit from a program of informal supervision, he or she shall refer the matter to the probation officer for whatever action the probation officer may deem appropriate.

(d) In all matters where the minor is not in custody and is already a ward of the court or a probationer under Section 602, the prosecuting attorney, within five judicial days of receipt of the affidavit from the probation officer, shall institute proceedings in accordance with his or her role as public prosecutor pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 650 of this code and Section 26500 of the Government Code, unless it appears to the prosecuting attorney that the affidavit was not properly referred or that the offense for which the minor was referred requires additional substantiating information, in which case he or she shall immediately notify the probation officer of what further action he or she is taking.

(e) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, changes that date.

SEC. 12.5. Sections 4.1, 5.1, 6.1, 8.1, 9.1, and 11.1 of this act shall become operative on January 1, 1993, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, changes that date.

SEC. 12.6. Sections 12.1 and 12.3 of this bill incorporate amendments to Section 653.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1275. They shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1990, (2) SB 1275 amends Section 653.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, (3) this bill amends, repeals, and adds Section 653.5 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 1275, in which case Sections 12 and 12.2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 13. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 931

An act to add Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 8930) to Part 6 of the Education Code, and to repeal and add Article 3.6 (commencing with Section 11335) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public assistance.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 8930) is added to Part 6 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6.8. NEW CHANCE PROGRAM

8930. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that teenage mothers do not receive the comprehensive services needed to prevent them from dropping out of school and applying for public assistance or in addressing comprehensively the needs of those who have dropped out and gone on welfare. The Legislature finds that studies have demonstrated that teenage mothers are more likely to drop out of school than other parents, and that more than half of teenage mothers drop out of school prior to the birth of their child. Studies have also demonstrated that teenage mothers are much more likely to deliver infants who are seriously underweight, resulting in higher medical costs and infant mortality rates.

The Legislature further finds and declares that the connection between teenage parenting and long-term welfare dependency is well documented by social science research. These studies show that over one-third of teenage parents who receive public assistance will require that assistance for 10 or more years. An estimated 60 percent of parents currently receiving public assistance were once teenage parents, which is a significantly higher rate than that for the general population. In total, these findings indicate that teen parents who have dropped out of school and become AFDC recipients require special services to return to school, health, parenting and family planning instruction and other services, and vocational training opportunities that will lead to the ability to support her family.

The Legislature further finds and declares that the New Chance

Program developed by the Manpower Development Research Corporation, a public nonprofit corporation based in the State of New York, offers the state a unique opportunity to invest a small amount of state funds to test the effectiveness of providing a variety of education, health, personal and social development, and employment services, including child care and case management services, to teenage parents in an effort to improve their current and prospective health, educational, and employment status. To the maximum extent possible, services shall be provided onsite and at a single location. The Legislature also finds that the New Chance Program has also been designed to assist the children of young mothers-to-be to develop cognitively and emotionally, thereby reducing the likelihood that these children will develop a lifetime dependency on public assistance 8931. (a) There is hereby established the New Chance Program, which shall be administered for a three-year period.

(b) Up to four program sites may elect to participate in the program to implement and test the effectiveness of the program model designed by the Manpower Development Research Corporation.

(c) The State Department of Education shall administer resources provided by the state during that three-year period, in cooperation with the State Department of Social Services and the Manpower Development Research Corporation.

(d) The allocation and use of state funds appropriated for the purposes of the program shall be conditioned upon the availability of funds provided by the Manpower Development Research Corporation.

8932. Each participating program site, in participating in the New Chance Program, shall give priority to individuals who meet all of the following criteria:

(a) The individual is a recipient of AFDC assistance or is a member of a family which is receiving AFDC assistance.

(b) The individual is a high school dropout.

(c) The individual is not younger than 17 years of age or older than 21 years of age.

(d) The individual began parenting prior to the individual's 20th birthday

8933. (a) Each program site shall ensure that a minimum of 100 teenage mothers are provided the following range of services:

(1) Education geared to achievement of a high school diploma or its equivalent.

(2) Employability development, career exposure, work experience, and job skills training.

(3) Maternal and pediatric health services, education in contraceptive practices with the goal of pregnancy prevention, acquired immune deficiency syndrome and substance abuse prevention programs, parenting programs, and life skills and self-esteem development programs.

(4) Support services including, but not limited to, child care and individual and group counseling programs.

(b) To the extent possible, the services specified in subdivision (a) shall be provided onsite.

8934. The New Chance Program shall be evaluated by using random assignment of eligible applicants to New Chance Program services or to a control group of persons who are not eligible for those services, but who shall be eligible for other community services. The evaluations shall measure the effectiveness of the program relating to each of the following:

(a) Advanced educational achievement.

(b) The acquisition of employment.

(c) Reductions in public assistance dependency.

(d) The acquisition of improved health habits and opportunities to utilize preventative and acute health care programs.

(e) Improved parenting skills.

8935. The State Department of Education shall ensure that each program site coordinates existing resources and programs available to school districts for teenage parents with those made available at the program site. To the extent feasible, these existing resources shall be utilized to reduce the costs incurred at the program sites. The department shall also encourage program sites to develop additional funding sources for the program from public and private agencies and organizations, or any other appropriate source.

8936. The State Department of Education shall seek the approval of the Job Training Coordinating Council to utilize education coordination grant funds made available under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.) which are set aside for the Greater Avenues for Independence (GAIN) program to pay for the state share of the New Chance Program costs for the second and third years of operation. The first year of operating funds shall come from discretionary funds made available under the federal Carl D. Perkins Vocational Education Act (P.L. 98-524). The availability of these funds shall be conditioned upon the receipt of additional funds from the Manpower Development Research Corporation. In the event that federal funding from these sources is not available for the full duration of the program, it is the intent of the Legislature that the program shall be funded through the department's regular budget process.

SEC. 2. Article 3.6 (commencing with Section 11335) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Article 3.6 (commencing with Section 11335) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 3.6. New Chance Program

11335. The department shall cooperate with the State Department of Education in the provision and coordination of services to teenage parents under the New Chance Program established pursuant to Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 8930) of Part 6 of the Education Code. Notwithstanding Section 11310, participation in the New Chance Program shall satisfy any mandatory participation requirement for the Greater Avenues for Independence (GAIN) program. The department shall cooperate with the State Department of Education to determine the acceptable levels of participation for purposes of Section 11320.6.

11336. County GAIN programs shall cooperate with the department and the State Department of Education in the provision and coordination of services under the New Chance Program at program sites. To the extent consistent with the county plan adopted pursuant to Section 11320.2, county programs shall provide supportive services, and, if not available from other sources, education and training services, to teenage parents who participate in the New Chance Program. These services shall be administered in a manner which is consistent with services provided under the New Chance Program at program sites.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because funding is provided in the annual Budget Act pursuant, in part, to Section 14.5 of Chapter 1025 of the Statutes of 1985, to cover any costs that may be incurred in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 932

An act to add Sections 27562 and 30150.7 to the Streets and Highways Code, relating to highways.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27562 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

27562. Whenever the district offers for sale to the public coupons or commuter ticket books redeemable for the toll on the Golden Gate Bridge, the district shall make the coupons or commuter ticket books available at locations convenient to the public, which shall not be limited to toll bridge facilities, and by mail.

SEC. 2. Section 30150.7 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

30150.7. Whenever the department offers for sale to the public coupons or commuter ticket books redeemable for the toll on any toll bridge located within the region under the jurisdiction of the Metropolitan Transportation Commission, as specified in Section 66502 of the Government Code, the department shall make the coupons or commuter ticket books available at locations convenient to the public, which shall not be limited to toll bridge facilities, and by mail.

SEC. 3. (a) The Department of Transportation, with the assistance and cooperation of the Metropolitan Transportation Commission, shall study the feasibility of making any toll bridge coupon or commuter ticket book offered for sale to the public within the region under the jurisdiction of the Metropolitan Transportation Commission redeemable at any toll bridge within that region for which the same toll is charged. The study shall evaluate prohibiting the sale of commuter ticket books at toll bridge toll booths and shall consider the convenience to commuters and the public and the cost effectiveness of these matters in addition to the findings, conclusions, and recommendations of the department. The department shall consider the permissibility of commuter tickets valid on any such bridge under existing toll bridge bond resolutions.

(b) The department shall transmit the report to the Legislature on or before July 1, 1990.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 933

An act to repeal Article 10 (commencing with Section 1861) of Chapter 9 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 10 (commencing with Section 1861) of Chapter 9 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code, as added by Chapter 1639 of the Statutes of 1988, is repealed.

CHAPTER 934

An act relating to water facilities, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) Pursuant to Section 13466 of the Water Code, the State Water Resources Control Board is hereby authorized to make a loan in the amount of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) from the Agricultural Drainage Water Account in the 1986 Water Conservation and Water Quality Bond Fund, in accordance with the Water Conservation and Water Quality Bond Law of 1986 (Chapter 6.1 (commencing with Section 13450) of Division 7 of the Water Code), to the Buena Vista Water Storage District for a groundwater feasibility study.

(b) The board, prior to making any loans pursuant to subdivision (a), shall review and consider the recommendations or findings of any federal- or state-funded studies, reports, or research pertaining to drainage water management units which have been submitted to, and which have been determined to be relevant by, the board.

CHAPTER 935

An act to add Section 12670 to the Water Code, relating to flood control, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12670 is added to the Water Code, to read:

12670. The Cache Creek Settling Basin Unit of the plan of improvement for flood control and other purposes on Cache Creek is hereby adopted and authorized substantially in accordance with the recommendations of the Chief of Engineers, in the report dated April 27, 1981, and adopted and authorized by the Act of Congress approved November 17, 1986 (Public Law 99-662), at an estimated cost to the state of such sums as may be appropriated for state participation by the Legislature upon the recommendation and advice of the Reclamation Board. This authorization shall not be deemed to confer preference on this project over the needs of other statewide programs in appropriation of available funds. Notwithstanding Section 12585.5, the state shall pay all of the nonfederal costs required by Public Law 99-662. Notwithstanding Sections 12642 and 12828, the state shall maintain and operate the unit and, through the Reclamation Board, shall hold the United States harmless from damages due to the construction of the works. Notwithstanding Section 12847, the state may pay all of the nonfederal capital costs of the recreation and fish and wildlife enhancement features of the unit.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The Yolo Bypass is the critical feature of the Sacramento River Flood Control Project. Its proper functioning requires that its capacity not be reduced by sediment inflow from Cache Creek. The existing capacity of Cache Creek Settling Basin is exhausted and must be increased. This act will authorize that increase and protect the public safety of the Sacramento Valley. It is necessary, therefore, that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 936

An act to amend Section 1203 of the Penal Code, and to amend Sections 725 and 727 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1203 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203. (a) As used in this code, "probation" shall mean the suspension of the imposition or execution of a sentence and the order of conditional and revocable release in the community under the supervision of the probation officer. As used in this code, "conditional sentence" shall mean the suspension of the imposition or execution of a sentence and the order of revocable release in the community subject to the conditions established by the court without the supervision of the probation officer. It is the intent of the Legislature that both conditional sentence and probation are authorized whenever probation is authorized in any code as a sentencing option for infractions or misdemeanors.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (j), in every case in which a person is convicted of a felony and is eligible for probation, before judgment is pronounced, the court shall immediately refer the matter to the probation officer to investigate and report to the court, at a specified time, upon the circumstances surrounding the crime and the prior history and record of the person, which may be considered either in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment. The probation officer shall immediately investigate and make a written report to the court of his or her findings and recommendations, including his or her recommendations as to the granting or denying of probation and the conditions of probation, if granted. Pursuant to Section 828 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the probation officer shall include in his or her report any information gathered by a law enforcement agency relating to the taking of the defendant into custody as a minor, which shall be considered for purposes of determining whether adjudications of commissions of crimes as a juvenile warrant a finding that there are circumstances in aggravation pursuant to Section 1170 or to deny probation. The probation officer shall also include in the report his or her recommendation of the amount the defendant should be required to pay as a restitution fine pursuant to Section 13967 of the Government Code. The probation officer shall also include in his or her report a recommendation as to whether the court shall require, as a condition of probation, restitution to the victim or to the Restitution Fund. The report shall be made available to the court and the prosecuting and defense attorneys at least five days, or upon request of the defendant or prosecuting attorney, nine days prior to the time fixed by the court for the hearing and determination of the report, and shall be filed with the clerk of the court as a record in the case at the time of the hearing. The time within which the report shall be made available and filed may be waived by written stipulation of the prosecuting and defense attorneys which is filed with the court or an oral stipulation in open court which is made and entered upon the minutes of the court. At a time fixed by the court, the court shall hear and determine the application, if one has been made, or, in any case, the suitability of probation in the particular case. At the hearing, the court shall consider any report of the probation officer and shall make a statement that it has considered such report which shall be filed with the clerk of the court as a record in the case. If the court determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the punishment prescribed by law or that the ends of justice would be served by granting probation to the person, it may place the person on probation. If probation is denied, the clerk of the court shall immediately send a copy of the report to the Department of Corrections at the prison or other institution to which the person is delivered.

(c) If a defendant is not represented by an attorney, the court shall order the probation officer who makes the probation report to discuss its contents with the defendant.

(d) In every case in which a person is convicted of a misdemeanor, the court may either refer the matter to the probation officer for an investigation and a report or summarily pronounce a conditional sentence. If the case is not referred to the probation officer, in sentencing the person, the court may consider any information concerning the person which could have been included in a probation report. The court shall inform the person of the information to be considered and permit him or her to answer or controvert such information. For this purpose, upon the request of the person, the court shall grant a continuance before the judgment is pronounced.

(e) Except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served if the person is granted probation, probation shall not be granted to any of the following persons:

(1) Unless the person had a lawful right to carry a deadly weapon, other than a firearm, at the time of the perpetration of the crime or his or her arrest, any person who has been convicted of arson, robbery, burglary, burglary with explosives, rape with force or violence, murder, attempt to commit murder, trainwrecking, kidnapping, escape from the state prison, or a conspiracy to commit one or more of those crimes and was armed with such a weapon at either of those times.

(2) Any person who used or attempted to use a deadly weapon upon a human being in connection with the perpetration of the crime of which he or she has been convicted.

(3) Any person who willfully inflicted great bodily injury or torture in the perpetration of the crime of which he or she has been convicted.

(4) Any person who has been previously convicted twice in this state of a felony or in any other place of a public offense which, if committed in this state, would have been punishable as a felony.

(5) Unless the person has never been previously convicted once in this state of a felony or in any other place of a public offense which, if committed in this state, would have been punishable as a felony, any person who has been convicted of burglary with explosives, rape with force or violence, murder, attempt to commit murder, trainwrecking, extortion, kidnapping, escape from the state prison, a violation of Section 286, 288, or 288a, or a conspiracy to commit one or more of those crimes.

(6) Any person who has been previously convicted once in this state of a felony or in any other place of a public offense which, if committed in this state, would have been punishable as a felony, if he or she committed any of the following acts:

(A) Unless the person had a lawful right to carry a deadly weapon at the time of the perpetration of the previous crime or his or her arrest for the previous crime, he or she was armed with a deadly weapon at either of those times.

(B) The person used or attempted to use a deadly weapon upon a human being in connection with the perpetration of the previous crime.

(C) The person willfully inflicted great bodily injury or torture in the perpetration of the previous crime.

(7) Any public official or peace officer of this state or any city, county, or other political subdivision who, in the discharge of the duties of his or her public office or employment, accepted or gave or offered to accept or give any bribe, embezzled public money, or was guilty of extortion.

(8) Any person who knowingly furnishes or gives away phencyclidine.

(9) Any person who intentionally inflicted great bodily injury in the commission of arson under subdivision (a) of Section 451 or who intentionally set fire to, burned, or caused the burning of, an inhabited structure or inhabited property in violation of subdivision (b) of Section 451.

(10) Any person who, in the commission of a felony, inflicts great bodily injury or causes the death of a human being by the discharge of a firearm from or at an occupied motor vehicle proceeding on a public street or highway.

(11) Any person who possesses a short-barreled rifle or a short-barreled shotgun under Section 12020, a machinegun under Section 12220, or a silencer under Section 12520.

(f) When probation is granted in a case which comes within subdivision (e), the court shall specify on the record and shall enter on the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by such a disposition.

(g) If a person is not eligible for probation, the judge shall refer the matter to the probation officer for an investigation of the facts relevant to determination of the amount of a restitution fine pursuant to Section 13967 of the Government Code in all cases where the determination is applicable. The judge, in his or her discretion, may direct the probation officer to investigate all facts relevant to the sentencing of the person. Upon that referral, the probation officer shall immediately investigate the circumstances surrounding the crime and the prior record and history of the person and make a written report to the court of his or her findings. The findings shall include a recommendation of the amount of the restitution fine as provided in Section 13967 of the Government Code.

(h) In any case in which a defendant is convicted of a felony and a probation report is prepared pursuant to subdivision (b) or (g), the probation officer shall obtain and include in the report a statement of the comments of the victim concerning the offense. The court may direct the probation officer not to obtain a statement in any case where the victim has in fact testified at any of the court proceedings concerning the offense.

(i) No probationer shall be released to enter another state unless his or her case has been referred to the Administrator, Interstate Probation and Parole Compacts, pursuant to the Uniform Act for Out-of-State Probationer or Parolee Supervision (Article 3 (commencing with Section 11175) of Chapter 2 of Title 1 of Part 4).

(j) In any court where a county financial evaluation officer is available, in addition to referring the matter to the probation officer, the court may order the defendant to appear before the county financial evaluation officer for a financial evaluation of the defendant's ability to pay restitution, in which case the county financial evaluation officer shall report his or her findings regarding restitution and other court-related costs to the probation officer on the question of the defendant's ability to pay those costs.

Any order made pursuant to this subdivision may be enforced as a violation of the terms and conditions of probation upon willful failure to pay and at the discretion of the court and as stated in the order, may be enforced in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action, if any balance remains unpaid at the end of the defendant's probationary period.

SEC 1.5. Section 1203 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203. (a) As used in this code, "probation" shall mean the suspension of the imposition or execution of a sentence and the order of conditional and revocable release in the community under the supervision of the probation officer. As used in this code, "conditional sentence" shall mean the suspension of the imposition or execution of a sentence and the order of revocable release in the community subject to the conditions established by the court without the supervision of the probation officer. It is the intent of the Legislature that both conditional sentence and probation are authorized whenever probation is authorized in any code as a sentencing option for infractions or misdemeanors.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (j), in every case in which a person is convicted of a felony and is eligible for probation, before judgment is pronounced, the court shall immediately refer the matter to the probation officer to investigate and report to the court, at a specified time, upon the circumstances surrounding the crime and the prior history and record of the person, which may be considered either in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment. The probation officer shall immediately investigate and make a written report to the court of his or her findings and recommendations, including his or her recommendations as to the granting or denying of probation and the conditions of probation, if granted. Pursuant to Section 828 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the probation officer shall include in his or her report any information gathered by a law enforcement agency relating to the taking of the defendant into custody as a minor, which shall be considered for purposes of determining whether adjudications of commissions of crimes as a juvenile warrant a finding that there are circumstances in aggravation pursuant to Section 1170 or to deny probation. The probation officer shall also include in the report his or her recommendation of the amount the defendant should be required to pay as a restitution fine pursuant to Section 13967 of the Government Code. The probation officer shall also include in his or her report a recommendation as to whether the court shall require, as a condition of probation, restitution to the victim or to the Restitution Fund. The report shall be made available to the court and the prosecuting and defense attorneys at least five days, or upon request of the defendant or prosecuting attorney, nine days prior to the time fixed by the court for the hearing and determination of the report, and shall be filed with the clerk of the court as a record in the case at the time of the hearing. The time within which the report shall be made available and filed may be waived by written stipulation of the prosecuting and defense attorneys which is filed with the court or an oral stipulation in open court which is made and entered upon the minutes of the court. At a time fixed by the court, the court shall hear and determine the application, if one has been made, or, in any case, the suitability of probation in the particular case. At the hearing, the court shall consider any report of the probation officer and shall make a statement that it has considered such report which shall be filed with the clerk of the court as a record in the case. If the court determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the punishment prescribed by law or that the ends of justice would be served by granting probation to the person, it may place the person on probation. If probation is denied, the clerk of the court shall immediately send a copy of the report to the Department of Corrections at the prison or other institution to which the person is delivered.

(c) If a defendant is not represented by an attorney, the court shall order the probation officer who makes the probation report to discuss its contents with the defendant.

(d) In every case in which a person is convicted of a misdemeanor, the court may either refer the matter to the probation officer for an investigation and a report or summarily pronounce a conditional sentence. If the case is not referred to the probation officer, in sentencing the person, the court may consider any information concerning the person which could have been included in a probation report. The court shall inform the person of the information to be considered and permit him or her to answer or controvert such information. For this purpose, upon the request of the person, the court shall grant a continuance before the judgment is pronounced.

(e) Except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served if the person is granted probation, probation shall not be granted to any of the following persons:

(1) Unless the person had a lawful right to carry a deadly weapon, other than a firearm, at the time of the perpetration of the crime or his or her arrest, any person who has been convicted of arson, robbery, burglary, burglary with explosives, rape with force or violence, murder, attempt to commit murder, trainwrecking, kidnapping, escape from the state prison, or a conspiracy to commit one or more of those crimes and was armed with such a weapon at either of those times.

(2) Any person who used or attempted to use a deadly weapon upon a human being in connection with the perpetration of the crime of which he or she has been convicted.

(3) Any person who willfully inflicted great bodily injury or torture in the perpetration of the crime of which he or she has been convicted.

(4) Any person who has been previously convicted twice in this state of a felony or in any other place of a public offense which, if committed in this state, would have been punishable as a felony.

(5) Unless the person has never been previously convicted once in this state of a felony or in any other place of a public offense which, if committed in this state, would have been punishable as a felony, any person who has been convicted of burglary with explosives, rape with force or violence, murder, attempt to commit murder, trainwrecking, extortion, kidnapping, escape from the state prison, a violation of Section 286, 288, 288.5, or 288a, or a conspiracy to commit one or more of those crimes.

(6) Any person who has been previously convicted once in this state of a felony or in any other place of a public offense which, if committed in this state, would have been punishable as a felony, if he or she committed any of the following acts:

(A) Unless the person had a lawful right to carry a deadly weapon at the time of the perpetration of the previous crime or his or her arrest for the previous crime, he or she was armed with a deadly weapon at either of those times.

(B) The person used or attempted to use a deadly weapon upon a human being in connection with the perpetration of the previous crime.

(C) The person willfully inflicted great bodily injury or torture in the perpetration of the previous crime.

(7) Any public official or peace officer of this state or any city, county, or other political subdivision who, in the discharge of the duties of his or her public office or employment, accepted or gave or offered to accept or give any bribe, embezzled public money, or was guilty of extortion.

(8) Any person who knowingly furnishes or gives away phencyclidine.

(9) Any person who intentionally inflicted great bodily injury in the commission of arson under subdivision (a) of Section 451 or who intentionally set fire to, burned, or caused the burning of, an inhabited structure or inhabited property in violation of subdivision (b) of Section 451.

(10) Any person who, in the commission of a felony, inflicts great bodily injury or causes the death of a human being by the discharge of a firearm from or at an occupied motor vehicle proceeding on a public street or highway.

(11) Any person who possesses a short-barreled rifle or a short-barreled shotgun under Section 12020, a machinegun under Section 12220, or a silencer under Section 12520.

(f) When probation is granted in a case which comes within subdivision (e), the court shall specify on the record and shall enter on the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by such a disposition.

(g) If a person is not eligible for probation, the judge shall refer the matter to the probation officer for an investigation of the facts relevant to determination of the amount of a restitution fine pursuant to Section 13967 of the Government Code in all cases where the determination is applicable. The judge, in his or her discretion, may direct the probation officer to investigate all facts relevant to the sentencing of the person. Upon that referral, the probation officer shall immediately investigate the circumstances surrounding the crime and the prior record and history of the person and make a written report to the court of his or her findings. The findings shall include a recommendation of the amount of the restitution fine as provided in Section 13967 of the Government Code.

(h) In any case in which a defendant is convicted of a felony and a probation report is prepared pursuant to subdivision (b) or (g), the probation officer shall obtain and include in the report a statement of the comments of the victim concerning the offense. The court may direct the probation officer not to obtain a statement in any case where the victim has in fact testified at any of the court proceedings concerning the offense.

(i) No probationer shall be released to enter another state unless his or her case has been referred to the Administrator, Interstate Probation and Parole Compacts, pursuant to the Uniform Act for Out-of-State Probationer or Parolee Supervision (Article 3 (commencing with Section 11175) of Chapter 2 of Title 1 of Part 4).

(j) In any court where a county financial evaluation officer is available, in addition to referring the matter to the probation officer, the court may order the defendant to appear before the county financial evaluation officer for a financial evaluation of the defendant's ability to pay restitution, in which case the county financial evaluation officer shall report his or her findings regarding restitution and other court-related costs to the probation officer on the question of the defendant's ability to pay those costs.

Any order made pursuant to this subdivision may be enforced as a violation of the terms and conditions of probation upon willful failure to pay and at the discretion of the court and as stated in the order, may be enforced in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action, if any balance remains unpaid at the end of the defendant's probationary period.

SEC. 2. Section 725 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

725. After receiving and considering the evidence on the proper disposition of the case, the court may enter judgment as follows:

(a) If the court has found that the minor is a person described by

Section 601 or 602, it may, without adjudging the minor a ward of the court, place, the minor on probation, under the supervision of the probation officer, for a period not to exceed six months. If the court has found that the minor is a person described by Section 602 because the minor violated an offense specified in subdivision (b) of Section 707, any offense involving the sale or possession for sale of a controlled substance, except misdemeanor offenses involving marijuana, as specified in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11053) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code, or Section 12220 of the Penal Code, this subdivision shall apply only in unusual cases when the court determines that the interests of justice would be best served and states reasons on the record for that determination.

(b) If the court has found that the minor is a person described by Section 601 or 602, it may order and adjudge the minor to be a ward of the court.

SEC. 3. Section 727 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

727. (a) When a minor is adjudged a ward of the court on the ground that he or she is a person described by Section 601 or Section 602 the court may make any and all reasonable orders for the care, supervision, custody, conduct, maintenance, and support of the minor, including medical treatment, subject to further order of the court.

In the discretion of the court, a ward may be ordered to be on probation without supervision of the probation officer. The court, in so ordering, may impose on the ward any and all reasonable conditions of behavior as may be appropriate under this disposition. A minor who has been adjudged a ward of the court on the basis of the commission of any of the offenses described in subdivision (b) of Section 707, Section 459 of the Penal Code, or subdivision (a) of Section 11350 of the Health and Safety Code, shall not be eligible for probation without supervision of the probation officer. A minor who has been adjudged a ward of the court on the basis of the commission of any offense involving the sale or possession for sale of a controlled substance, except misdemeanor offenses involving marijuana, as specified in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11053) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code, or of an offense in violation of Section 12220 of the Penal Code, shall be eligible for probation without supervision of the probation officer only when the court determines that the interests of justice would best be served and states reasons on the record for that determination.

In all other cases, the court shall order the care, custody, and control of the minor to be under the supervision of the probation officer who may place the minor in any of the following:

(1) The home of a relative.

(2) A suitable licensed community care facility.

(3) With a foster family agency to be placed in a suitable licensed foster family home or certified family home which has been certified by the agency as meeting licensing standards.

(b) Where the court has ordered a specific minor placed under the supervision of the probation officer and the probation officer has found that the needs of the child cannot be met in any available licensed or exempt facility, including emergency shelter, the minor may be placed in a suitable family home that has filed a license application with the State Department of Social Services, provided that all the following certification conditions are met:

(1) A preplacement home visit is made by the probation officer to determine the suitability of the family home.

(2) The probation officer verifies to the licensing agency in writing that the home lacks any deficiencies which would threaten the physical health, mental health, safety, or welfare of the minor.

(3) The probation officer notifies the licensing agency of the proposed placement and determines that the foster family home applicant has filed specific license application documents prior to and after the placement of the minor. If the license is subsequently denied, the minor shall be removed from the home immediately. The denial of the license constitutes a withdrawal of the certification.

When a minor has been adjudged a ward of the court on the ground that he or she is a person described in Section 601 or 602 and the court finds that notice has been given in accordance with Section 661, and when the court orders that a parent or guardian shall retain custody of that minor either subject to or without the supervision of the probation officer, the parent or guardian may be required to participate with that minor in a counseling or education program including, but not limited to, parent education and parenting programs operated by community colleges, school districts or other appropriate agencies designated by the court.

(c) The juvenile court may direct any and all reasonable orders to the parents and guardians of the minor who is the subject of any proceedings under this chapter as the court deems necessary and proper to carry out the provisions of subdivisions (a) and (b), including orders to appear before a county financial evaluation officer.

When counseling or other treatment services are ordered for the minor, the parent, guardian, or foster parent shall be ordered to participate in those services, unless participation by the parent, guardian, or foster parent is deemed by the court to be inappropriate or potentially detrimental to the child.

SEC. 4. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1203 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2212. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1990, (2) each bill amends Section 1203 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2212, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 937

An act to add Section 6366.5 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6366.5 is added to Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6366.5. (a) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of endangered animal and plant species if both the seller and the purchaser are nonprofit zoological societies.

(b) For purpose of this section, "endangered animal and plant species" means animals and plants which are (1) identified as endangered under a Species Survival Plan; (2) listed in the Endangered Species Act; (3) listed as endangered by the Convention for International Trade of Endangered Species; (4) listed as endangered by the United States Department of Fish and Wildlife or the United States Department of Agriculture; or (5) listed as endangered by the International Union for Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 3. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 90 days after the effective date of this act.

CHAPTER 938

An act to add Section 25503.2 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous materials.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The current hazardous materials data reporting system creates a hodgepodge of data that cannot easily be analyzed. Businesses that generate, handle, store, and dispose of hazardous materials are required to submit data at different time intervals and to different state, federal, and local agencies in a variety of formats. Reporting is often duplicative, late, and inaccurate. This multiple reporting is also very costly to businesses and governmental agencies.

(b) This act is intended to be the first step, in a three-step process, to increase the compliance and accuracy of current reporting forms, decrease data processing costs for both businesses and governmental agencies, and to allow the state to plan for future hazardous waste treatment and disposal capacity to accommodate the needs of businesses. This three-step process includes the following actions:

(1) The development of a hazardous materials compliance assistance manual.

(2) The adoption, to the extent possible, of a single filing date for the numerous hazardous materials reporting forms

(3) The creation and use of a single comprehensive hazardous materials reporting form for businesses to submit to the appropriate state and local agencies.

(c) Neither the state nor businesses that generate, handle, store, and dispose of hazardous materials have a single comprehensive hazardous materials inventory needed to adequately measure and reduce the amount of hazardous waste generated. Consequently, the state cannot track all of its hazardous materials, and businesses cannot identify where hazardous materials can be reduced.

SEC. 2. Section 25503.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25503.2. (a) The Environmental Affairs Agency, with the guidance of the Chemical Emergency Planning and Response Commission, as specified in Section 25503.1, shall develop a hazardous materials compliance assistance manual, which shall include all of the following:

(1) A copy of each form required by federal and state agencies for the reporting of activities concerning hazardous materials and criteria as to who is required to file the form.

(2) The due date for each form specified in paragraph (1).

(3) The address, telephone number, and contact person of each federal and state agency which requires the reporting forms specified in paragraph (1).

(4) An insert which contains a copy of each form used for the reporting of activities concerning hazardous materials required by each local agency under whose jurisdiction the person requesting the manual conducts business, including the due date for each form, and the address, telephone number, and contact person of each local agency.

(5) Any other information which the Environmental Affairs Agency determines to be necessary.

(b) On or before July 1, 1991, the Environmental Affairs Agency, with the guidance of the Chemical Emergency Planning and Response Commission, shall make known to businesses and other interested parties, and distribute, upon request, the hazardous materials compliance assistance manual developed pursuant to subdivision (a). The Secretary of the Environmental Affairs Agency may impose a fee for the manual to pay for all costs related to the development, maintenance, reproduction, and distribution of the manual.

(c) On or before July 1, 1991, the Environmental Affairs Agency, with the guidance of the Chemical Emergency Planning and Response Commission, shall submit a report to the Legislature on the status of the development and distribution of the hazardous materials compliance assistance manual program. The report shall also contain a discussion of the feasibility of the adoption of a single filing date for state and local hazardous materials reporting forms, including recommendations for implementation of a single filing date for these forms, and the use of a single comprehensive hazardous materials reporting form for businesses to submit to the appropriate state and local agencies.

CHAPTER 939

An act to amend Sections 19596.5 and 19596 6 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19596.5 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 74 of this Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

19596.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may authorize an association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the northern zone to operate a satellite wagering facility for wagering on races conducted in the northern zone at its racetrack inclosure, and may, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, authorize any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair in the northern zone eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, but which is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting or authorized pursuant to Section 19596.7, to locate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds for wagering on races conducted in the northern zone, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) An organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 has executed agreements, which are approved by the board, with the association conducting a racing meeting in the northern zone and the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide, among other things, the conditions for transmission of the signal and that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility will be included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any agreement under this subdivision, for purposes of determining license fees and breakage at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted, wagers at a satellite wagering facility shall not be included in the conventional or exotic pools of the association conducting the racing meeting.

(2) The horsemen's organization which represents the horsemen at the association which conducts the racing meeting on which wagers are accepted consents to the acceptance of wagers at the satellite wagering facility, except that the association or fair operating the satellite wagering facility may appeal the withholding of consent to the board which may determine that consent is not required.

(3) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.

(4) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering has been approved by the board

(5) Except as provided in Section 19596.9, any fair which conducts satellite wagering shall conduct wagering on all racing offered to the satellite wagering facility, as long as the satellite wagering facility is not sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or night meeting, as determined by the board, and, if sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or night meeting, as long as that loss is reimbursed by either an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 or an association. Any association that operates a satellite wagering facility may accept an audiovisual signal, but is not required to do so.

In calculating the loss, if any, for operating a satellite wagering facility for a night meeting, only the expenses incurred by the satellite wagering facility because of acceptance of night wagers shall be considered, and no overhead expenses or expenses which would be incurred regardless of the acceptance of night wagers shall be considered.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the live audiovisual signal of night harness or quarter horse races in the central or southern zone may be offered to satellite wagering facilities in the northern zone, provided, however, (1) that racing associations may accept that audiovisual signal, but are not required to do so, and (2) that satellite wagering facilities located at fairs are not required to accept more than five night racing programs per week.

(c) The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities shall be the same as the deductions for wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(1) On thoroughbred meetings only, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency of California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(2) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 6 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6, and, in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas and, in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619 and, in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency of California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(3) In addition to the distributions in paragraph (1) or (2), on thoroughbred meetings and harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities. Any of the promotion funds that are not distributed in the year in which they are collected may be distributed in the following year, and if promotion funds distributed in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds distributed in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount. Additionally, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(d) On thoroughbred meetings only, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (c) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent as purses to the horsemen participating in the racing meeting, except that owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(e) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, and fair meetings, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (c) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent to the horsemen in the form of purses at the association conducting the racing meeting, except that, for meetings commencing on or after the effective date of the amendments to this subdivision enacted at the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature, owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(f) Except as provided in subdivisions (g) and (h), all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, are hereby continuously appropriated from that account to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the Director of Food and Agriculture, in his or her discretion, for the following purposes, except that the concurrence of the Director of Finance shall be obtained for allocations for the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2):

(1) For repayment of the principal of, interest on, and costs of issuance of, and as security, including any coverage factor, pledged to the payment of, bonds issued or to be issued by a joint powers agency or other debt service or expense, including repayment of any advances made or security required by any provider of credit enhancement or liquidity for those bonds or other indebtedness or expenses of maintaining that credit enhancement or liquidity, incurred for the purpose of constructing or acquiring improvements at a fair's racetrack inclosure, satellite wagering facilities at fairs, health and safety repair projects, or handicapped access compliance projects at fairs or for the purpose of refunding bonds or other indebtedness incurred for those purposes. As used in this paragraph, "coverage factor" means revenues in excess of the amount necessary to pay debt service on the bonds or other indebtedness, up to an amount equal to 100 percent more than the amount of that debt service, which a joint powers authority, pursuant to the resolution or indenture under which the bonds or other indebtedness are or will be issued, pledges as additional security for the payment of that debt service or is required to have or maintain as a condition to the issuance of additional bonds or other indebtedness. Notwithstanding any other law, the department may also commit any funds available for allocation under Article 10 (commencing with Section 19620) to complete projects funded under this paragraph in the priority described in this paragraph.

(2) For repayment of expenses incurred by fairs in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities.

(3) For health and safety repair projects at fairs.

(4) For support purposes of fairs generally.

(g) Seven and one-half percent of all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in the General Fund.

(h) Up to 10 percent of all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a special account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for supplementing purses at fair meetings to achieve the purposes of subdivision (i). The department shall annually determine the percentage of revenues payable to the special account under this subdivision based on the amount necessary to achieve the purposes of subdivision (i).

(i) It is the intent of the Legislature that funds allocated pursuant to subdivision (h) be used primarily at fair racing meetings in the northern zone with a daily average handle of more than three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000). The Legislature further finds that its intent is that these allocations be used to bring the purses at these fairs, exclusive of purses for stakes races and special events, to a level of at least 80 percent of purses for similar classes of horses at private racing associations in the northern zone. The funds shall be used among all breeds. For fair racing meetings in the northern zone with a daily average handle of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) or less, it is the intent of the Legislature to bring the purses to a level of at least 25 percent of purses for similar classes of horses at private racing associations in the northern zone.

SEC. 2. Section 19596.5 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 74 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

19596.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may authorize an association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the northern zone to operate a satellite wagering facility for wagering on races conducted in the northern zone at its racetrack inclosure, and may, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, authorize any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair in the northern zone eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, but which is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting or authorized pursuant to Section 19596.7, to locate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds for wagering on races conducted in the northern zone, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) An organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 has executed agreements, which are approved by the board, with the association conducting a racing meeting in the northern zone and the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide, among other things, the conditions for transmission of the signal and that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility will be included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any agreement under this subdivision, for purposes of determining license fees and breakage at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted, wagers at a satellite wagering facility shall not be included in the conventional or exotic pools of the association conducting the racing meeting.

(2) The horsemen's organization which represents the horsemen at the association which conducts the racing meeting on which wagers are accepted consents to the acceptance of wagers at the satellite wagering facility, except that the association or fair operating the satellite wagering facility may appeal the withholding of consent to the board which may determine that consent is not required.

(3) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.

(4) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering has been approved by the board.

(5) Except as provided in Section 19596.9, any fair which conducts satellite wagering shall conduct wagering on all racing offered to the satellite wagering facility, as long as the satellite wagering facility is not sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or night meeting, as determined by the board, and, if sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or night meeting, as long as that loss is reimbursed by either an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 or an association. Any association that operates a satellite wagering facility may accept an audiovisual signal, but is not required to do so.

In calculating the loss, if any, for operating a satellite wagering facility for a night meeting, only the expenses incurred by the satellite wagering facility because of acceptance of night wagers shall be considered, and no overhead expenses or expenses which would be incurred regardless of the acceptance of night wagers shall be considered.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the live audiovisual signal of night harness or quarter horse races in the central or southern zone may be offered to satellite wagering facilities in the northern zone, provided, however, (1) that racing associations may accept that audiovisual signal, but are not required to do so, and (2) that satellite wagering facilities located at fairs are not required to accept more than five night racing programs per week.

(c) The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities shall be the same as the deductions for wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(1) On thoroughbred meetings only, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency of California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(2) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6, and, in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas and, in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619 and, in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency of California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(3) In addition to the distributions in paragraph (1) or (2), on thoroughbred and fair meetings only, six-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the facility for promotion of that meeting's program. For harness, quarter horse, and mixed breed meetings, 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities.

(4) In addition to the distributions in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3), on thoroughbred meetings only, four-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled at each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the association providing the racing program to reimburse it for any costs of offsite stabling and vanning which are required pursuant to Section 19535. The amount of the reimbursement payable to an association for offsite stabling shall not exceed the actual cost to the association of maintaining stalls at its racetrack plus the actual costs incurred by the association to provide vanning and transportation of racehorses from offsite stabling facilities to its racetrack.

(5) In addition to the distributions in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3), on fair meetings only, four-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled at each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the organization representing racing fairs to reimburse fairs for the actual cost of providing offsite stabling required by the board pursuant to Section 19535. If fairs contract with associations to provide offsite stabling during fair meetings, the cost incurred by fairs shall not exceed the actual cost to the association of maintaining the stalls or the amount of reimbursement funds made available pursuant to this paragraph, whichever is less. In the event of a disagreement between an association and the organization representing racing fairs or the organization representing the majority of horsemen participating at the meeting with respect to the actual cost of maintaining stalls, the board, at the request of the association or the organization representing racing fairs or the organization representing the majority of horsemen participating at the meeting, shall determine within 60 days the amount of actual costs incurred. For purposes of this paragraph, "actual cost" does not include fixed overhead or administrative expenses which would be incurred by the association in the absence of an agreement to provide offsite stabling during fair meetings.

(6) Any of the promotional funds distributed pursuant to paragraph (3) that are not expended in the year in which they are collected may be expended in the following year and, if promotion funds expended in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds expended in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount.

(7) Any of the stabling and vanning reimbursement funds distributed pursuant to paragraph (4) or (5) that are not expended within 90 days of the end of the meeting at which they are collected shall be reallocated for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities, as provided in paragraph (3).

(8) Additionally, on thoroughbred, harness, quarter horse, mixed breed, and fair meetings, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(d) On thoroughbred meetings only, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (c) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent as purses to the horsemen participating in the racing meeting, except that owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(e) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, and fair meetings, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (c) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent to the horsemen in the form of purses at the association conducting the racing meeting, except that, for meetings commencing on or after the effective date of the amendments to this subdivision enacted at the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature, owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(f) Except as provided in subdivisions (g) and (h), all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, are hereby continuously appropriated from that account to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the Director of Food and Agriculture, in his or her discretion, for the following purposes, except that the concurrence of the Director of Finance shall be obtained for allocations for the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2).

(1) For repayment of the principal of, interest on, and costs of issuance of, and as security, including any coverage factor, pledged to the payment of, bonds issued or to be issued by a joint powers agency or other debt service or expense, including repayment of any advances made or security required by any provider of credit enhancement or liquidity for those bonds or other indebtedness or expenses of maintaining that credit enhancement or liquidity, incurred for the purpose of constructing or acquiring improvements at a fair's racetrack inclosure, satellite wagering facilities at fairs, health and safety repair projects, or handicapped access compliance projects at fairs or for the purpose of refunding bonds or other indebtedness incurred for those purposes. As used in this paragraph, "coverage factor" means revenues in excess of the amount necessary to pay debt service on the bonds or other indebtedness, up to an amount equal to 100 percent more than the amount of that debt service, which a joint powers authority, pursuant to the resolution or indenture under which the bonds or other indebtedness are or will be issued, pledges as additional security for the payment of that debt service or is required to have or maintain as a condition to the issuance of additional bonds or other indebtedness. Notwithstanding any other law, the department may also commit any funds available for allocation under Article 10 (commencing with Section 19620) to complete projects funded under this paragraph in the priority described in this paragraph.

(2) For repayment of expenses incurred by fairs in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities.

(3) For health and safety repair projects at fairs.

(4) For support purposes of fairs generally.

(g) Seven and one-half percent of all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in the General Fund.

(h) Up to 10 percent of all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a special account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for supplementing purses at fair meetings to achieve the purposes of subdivision (i). The department shall annually determine the percentage of revenues payable to the special account under this subdivision based on the amount necessary to achieve the purposes of subdivision (i).

(i) It is the intent of the Legislature that funds allocated pursuant to subdivision (h) be used primarily at fair racing meetings in the northern zone with a daily average handle of more than three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000). The Legislature further finds that its intent is that these allocations be used to bring the purses at these fairs, exclusive of purses for stakes races and special events, to a level of at least 80 percent of purses for similar classes of horses at private racing associations in the northern zone. The funds shall be used among all breeds. For fair racing meetings in the northern zone with a daily average handle of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) or less, it is the intent of the Legislature to bring the purses to a level of at least 25 percent of purses for similar classes of horses at private racing associations in the northern zone.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 19596.5 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 74 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

19596.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may authorize an association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the northern zone to operate a satellite wagering facility for wagering on races conducted in the northern zone at its racetrack inclosure, and may, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, authorize any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair in the northern zone eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, but which is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting or authorized pursuant to Section 19596.7, to locate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds for wagering on races conducted in the northern zone, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) An organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 has executed agreements, which are approved by the board, with the association conducting a racing meeting in the northern zone and the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide, among other things, the conditions for transmission of the signal and that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility will be included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any agreement under this subdivision, for purposes of determining license fees and breakage at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted, wagers at a satellite wagering facility shall not be included in the conventional or exotic pools of the association conducting the racing meeting.

(2) The horsemen's organization which represents the horsemen at the association which conducts the racing meeting on which wagers are accepted consents to the acceptance of wagers at the satellite wagering facility, except that the association or fair operating the satellite wagering facility may appeal the withholding of consent to the board which may determine that consent is not required.

(3) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.

(4) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering has been approved by the board.

(5) Except as provided in Section 19596.9, any fair which conducts satellite wagering shall conduct wagering on all racing offered to the satellite wagering facility, as long as the satellite wagering facility is not sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or night meeting, as determined by the board, and, if sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or night meeting, as long as that loss is reimbursed by either an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 or an association. Any association that operates a satellite wagering facility may accept an audiovisual signal, but is not required to do so.

In calculating the loss, if any, for operating a satellite wagering facility for a night meeting, only the expenses incurred by the satellite wagering facility because of acceptance of night wagers shall be considered, and no overhead expenses or expenses which would be incurred regardless of the acceptance of night wagers shall be considered.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the live audiovisual signal of night harness or quarter horse races in the central or southern zone may be offered to satellite wagering facilities in the northern zone, provided, however, (1) that racing associations may accept that audiovisual signal, but are not required to do so and (2) that satellite wagering facilities located at fairs are not required to accept more than five night racing programs per week.

(c) The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities shall be the same as the deductions for wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(1) On thoroughbred meetings only, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4.0 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and 0.4 of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency of California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(2) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3.0 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 6 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6, and, in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas and, in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619 and, in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency of California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(3) In addition to the distributions in paragraph (1) or (2), on thoroughbred meetings and harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities. Any of the promotion funds that are not distributed in the year in which they are collected may be distributed in the following year, and if promotion funds distributed in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds distributed in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount. Additionally, 0.33 of 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(d) On thoroughbred meetings only, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (c) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent as purses to the horsemen participating in the racing meeting, except that owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(e) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, and fair meetings, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (c) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent to the horsemen in the form of purses at the association conducting the racing meeting, except that, for meetings commencing on or after the effective date of the amendments to this subdivision enacted at the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature, owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(f) Except as provided in subdivisions (g) and (h), all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, are hereby continuously appropriated from that account to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the Director of Food and Agriculture, in his or her discretion, for the following purposes, except that the concurrence of the Director of Finance shall be obtained for allocations for the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2):

(1) For repayment of the principal of, interest on, and costs of issuance of, and as security, including any coverage factor, pledged to the payment of, bonds issued or to be issued by a joint powers agency or other debt service or expense, including repayment of any advances made or security required by any provider of credit enhancement or liquidity for those bonds or other indebtedness or expenses of maintaining that credit enhancement or liquidity, incurred for the purpose of constructing or acquiring improvements at a fair's racetrack inclosure, satellite wagering facilities at fairs, health and safety repair projects, or handicapped access compliance projects at fairs or for the purpose of refunding bonds or other indebtedness incurred for those purposes. As used in this paragraph, "coverage factor" means revenues in excess of the amount necessary to pay debt service on the bonds or other indebtedness, up to an amount equal to 100 percent more than the amount of that debt service, which a joint powers authority, pursuant to the resolution or indenture under which the bonds or other indebtedness are or will be issued, pledges as additional security for the payment of that debt service or is required to have or maintain as a condition to the issuance of additional bonds or other indebtedness. Notwithstanding any other law, the department may also commit any funds available for allocation under Article 10 (commencing with Section 19620) to complete projects funded under this paragraph in the priority described in this paragraph.

(2) For repayment of expenses incurred by fairs in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities.

(3) For health and safety repair projects at fairs.

(4) For support purposes of fairs generally.

(g) Seven and one-half percent of all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in the General Fund.

(h) Up to 10 percent of all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a special account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for supplementing purses at fair meetings to achieve the purposes of subdivision (i). The department shall annually determine the percentage of revenues payable to the special account under this subdivision based on the amount necessary to achieve the purposes of subdivision (i).

(i) It is the intent of the Legislature that funds allocated pursuant to subdivision (h) be used primarily at fair racing meetings in the northern zone with a daily average handle of more than three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000). The Legislature further finds that its intent is that these allocations be used to bring the purses at these fairs, exclusive of purses for stakes races and special events, to a level of at least 80 percent of purses for similar classes of horses at private racing associations in the northern zone. The funds shall be used among all breeds. For fair racing meetings in the northern zone with a daily average handle of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) or less, it is the intent of the Legislature to bring the purses to a level of at least 25 percent of purses for similar classes of horses at private racing associations in the northern zone.

(j) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1992.

SEC. 4. Section 19596.6 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 210 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

19596 6 (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, subject to the conditions and limitations set forth in this section and Section 19596.7, the following entities in the central or southern zone are eligible to be licensed to operate a satellite wagering facility for wagering on races conducted in the central or southern zone:

(1) Any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair which conducted general fair activities in 1986 within the central or southern zone, and which is eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, but which is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting, may locate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds.

(2) Any association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the central or southern zone.

(b) The board may authorize an eligible association or, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, an eligible fair, to operate a satellite wagering facility under all of the following conditions:

(1) A racing association licensed to conduct a racing meeting shall conduct satellite wagering only within its racing inclosure.

(2) An organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 has executed an agreement approved by the board with the association conducting a racing meeting and the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide, among other things, the conditions for transmission of the signal and that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility are included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted.

(3) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.

(4) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering have been approved by the board.

(5) Any fair that operates a satellite wagering facility shall conduct wagering on all racing conducted that is offered to that satellite wagering facility, as long as the satellite wagering facility is not sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or a night meeting, as determined by the board, and, if sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or a night meeting, as long as that loss is reimbursed by either an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 or an association. Any association that operates a satellite wagering facility may accept an audiovisual signal, but is not required to do so.

In calculating the loss, if any, for operating a satellite wagering facility for a night meeting, only the expenses incurred by the satellite wagering facility because of acceptance of night wagers shall be considered, and no overhead expenses or expenses of the satellite wagering facility which would be incurred regardless of the acceptance of night wagers shall be considered.

(6) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the live audiovisual signal of night harness or quarter horse races in the northern zone may be offered to satellite wagering facilities in the central and southern zones, except that racing associations may accept that audiovisual signal, but are not required to do so, and satellite wagering facilities located at fairs are not required to accept more than five night racing programs per week.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) or (b), a satellite wagering facility may not be located within the County of Los Angeles or within the County of Orange, except as follows:

(1) If all other conditions in subdivision (b) are met, the Fiftieth District Agricultural Association may be authorized to operate a satellite wagering facility upon its fairgrounds in the City of Lancaster and to accept wagers on races conducted in the southern and central zones

(2) If all other conditions are met, any fair or association licensed to conduct racing meetings in the County of Los Angeles and any racing association other than a fair which is licensed to conduct racing in the County of Orange may be authorized to operate a satellite wagering facility for the limited purpose of conducting satellite wagering on races conducted at the Twenty-Second District Agricultural Association fairgrounds at Del Mar in the County of San Diego, except that, when a fair in Orange County is licensed for a racing meeting, a satellite wagering facility located within the racing inclosure where the racing meeting is conducted may not operate on the days that racing is conducted.

(d) The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities shall be the same as the percentage deducted from wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted by a satellite wagering facility under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(1) On thoroughbred meetings only, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency for California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(2) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, and 6 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6, and, in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas and, in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619 and, in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency for California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(3) In addition, on thoroughbred meetings and harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1 percent shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities. Any of the promotion funds that are not distributed in the year in which they are collected may be distributed in the following year, and if promotion funds distributed in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds distributed in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount. Additionally, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(e) On thoroughbred meetings only, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts in subdivision (d) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent as purses to the horsemen participating in the racing meeting, except that owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting. All of the funds distributed for purses from satellite wagering facilities shall go to the purse program of the association conducting the racing meeting, except that all sums for distribution as purses at satellite wagering facilities which are racing fairs in the County of Los Angeles shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for supplementing purses at fair meetings in Los Angeles and Orange Counties. The department shall distribute these funds on an equal basis to each racing fair in these counties for distribution in all nonstakes races and among all breeds.

(f) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, and fair meetings, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (d) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent to the horsemen in the form of purses participating in the racing meeting, except that, for meetings commencing on or after the effective date of the amendments to this subdivision enacted at the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature, owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (e), when satellite wagering is conducted on thoroughbred races at associations or fairs, an amount, not to exceed 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by all satellite wagering facilities, shall be deducted from the funds otherwise allocated for distribution as commissions, purses, and owners' premiums and instead distributed to an organization formed and operated by thoroughbred racing associations, fairs conducting thoroughbred racing, and the organization representing thoroughbred horsemen, with each party having meaningful representation on the board of the organization, to administer, pursuant to supervision of the board, a fund to provide reimbursement for offsite stabling at board-approved auxiliary training facilities of licensed racing associations for additional stalls beyond the number of usable stalls the association is required to make available and maintain pursuant to Section 19535, and for the vanning of starters from these additional stalls on race days for thoroughbred horses.

(h) The funds distributed to the organization formed pursuant to subdivision (g) shall be used to reimburse racing associations who are operating offsite stabling providing additional stalls for the incremental increase in operating costs directly resulting from providing the stabling. Neither the organization administering the offsite stabling and vanning program nor any of the entities forming and operating the organization, except the entity operating the offsite stabling facility where the injury occurred, shall be liable for any injury to any jockey, exercise person, owner, trainer, or any employee or agent thereof, or any horse occurring at any offsite stabling facility.

The funds shall also reimburse horsemen for the cost of vanning starting horses from a board-approved auxiliary training facility operated by a licensed racing association to the track conducting the racing meeting. Horsemen may use carriers of their own choice, except that the amount of reimbursement to horsemen is limited to the amount that the organization determines is generally charged by carriers for vanning from the auxiliary training facility to the track conducting the racing meeting. Neither the organization administering the offsite stabling and vanning program nor any of the entities forming and operating the organization, except the entity actually engaged in vanning horses, shall be liable for any injury occurring to any individual or horse during vanning from an offsite stabling facility.

The training facilities and amenities provided for offsite stabling and training purposes shall be equivalent in character to those provided during racing meetings of the association.

Upon the request of any party within the organization, the board shall adjudicate any dispute regarding costs, or other matters relating to the furnishing of offsite stabling or vanning. The board may, if necessary, appoint an independent auditor to assist in the resolution of disputes. The auditor shall be reimbursed from the funds of the organization.

The organization may maintain a reserve fund of up to 10 percent of the total estimated annual vanning and stabling costs. In addition to the reserve fund, if the funds generated for offsite stabling and vanning are insufficient to fully reimburse racing associations for expenses incurred during the offsite vanning and stabling program, the organization is entitled to accumulate sufficient funds to fully reimburse these expenses.

The amount initially deducted and distributed to the organization shall be 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by satellite wagering facilities authorized under this section on thoroughbred racing, but that allocation may be adjusted by the board, in its discretion, but the adjusted amount may not exceed 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by satellite wagering facilities, to pay expenses and maintain the reserve fund for the continuing support of the program.

(i) Forty-two percent of the revenue payable to the state from license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs under the authority of this section shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated from that account to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the Director of Food and Agriculture, in his or her discretion, for the following purposes, except that the concurrence of the Director of Finance shall be obtained for allocations for the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2):

(1) For repayment of the principal of, interest on, and costs of issuance of, and as security, including any coverage factor, pledged to the payment of, bonds issued or to be issued by a joint powers agency or other debt service or expense, including repayment of any advances made or security required by any provider of credit enhancement or liquidity for those bonds or other indebtedness or expenses of maintaining that credit enhancement or liquidity, incurred for the purpose of constructing or acquiring improvements at a fair's racetrack inclosure, satellite wagering facilities at fairs, health and safety repair projects, or handicapped access compliance projects at fairs or for the purpose of refunding bonds or other indebtedness incurred for those purposes. As used in this paragraph, "coverage factor" means revenues in excess of the amount necessary to pay debt service on the bonds or other indebtedness, up to an amount equal to 100 percent more than the amount of that debt service, which a joint powers authority, pursuant to the resolution or indenture under which the bonds or other indebtedness are or will be issued, pledges as additional security for the payment of that debt service or is required to have or maintain as a condition to the issuance of additional bonds or other indebtedness. Notwithstanding any other law, the department may also commit any funds available for allocation under Article 10 (commencing with Section 19620) to complete projects funded under this paragraph in the priority described in this paragraph.

(2) For repayment of expenses incurred by fairs in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities.

(3) For health and safety repair projects at the fair.

(4) For support purposes of the fair generally.

(j) The remaining 58 percent of the revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities at fairs and all revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities located under the authority of this section at sites other than fairs shall be deposited in the General Fund.

(k) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 19641, the state shall receive as additional license fees 50 percent of any redistributable money in a parimutuel pool arising from wagers at a satellite wagering facility, subject to payment to a claimant pursuant to Section 19598, but not successfully claimed within that period, and the funds shall be deposited in the General Fund. The remaining 50 percent of redistributable money in a parimutuel pool arising from wagers at a satellite wagering facility shall be paid to a welfare fund established by the horsemen's organization contracting with the association conducting the racing meeting for the benefit of horsemen, and that organization shall make an accounting to the board within one calendar year of the receipt of the payment.

(l) Of the total breakage arising in a parimutuel pool which includes wagers at satellite wagering facilities, that percentage of breakage equal to the percentage that wagers placed at satellite wagering facilities constitute of the total parimutuel pool shall be distributed equally among the state as an additional license fee deposited in the General Fund, the track conducting the racing meeting as a commission, and the horsemen participating in the racing meeting in the form of purses. The remainder of the breakage shall be distributed in the same manner as breakage arising from wagers at the track conducting the racing meeting.

(m) Notwithstanding subdivision (f) of Section 19596.5 and subdivision (i) of this section, if the revenues deposited in the separate account pursuant to those subdivisions (f) and (i) are in excess of the eleven million dollars ($11,000,000) in any fiscal year, one-half of the amount in excess of eleven million dollars ($11,000,000) shall be transferred to the General Fund.

SEC. 5. Section 19596.6 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 210 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

19596.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, subject to the conditions and limitations set forth in this section and Section 19596.7, the following entities in the central or southern zone are eligible to be licensed to operate a satellite wagering facility for wagering on races conducted in the central or southern zone:

(1) Any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair which conducted general fair activities in 1986 within the central or southern zone, and which is eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, but which is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting, may locate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds.

(2) Any association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the central or southern zone.

(b) The board may authorize an eligible association or, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, an eligible fair, to operate a satellite wagering facility under all of the following conditions:

(1) A racing association licensed to conduct a racing meeting shall conduct satellite wagering only within its racing inclosure.

(2) An organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 has executed an agreement approved by the board with the association conducting a racing meeting and the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide, among other things, the conditions for transmission of the signal and that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility are included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted.

(3) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.

(4) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering have been approved by the board.

(5) Any fair that operates a satellite wagering facility shall conduct wagering on all racing conducted that is offered to that satellite wagering facility, as long as the satellite wagering facility is not sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or a night meeting, as determined by the board, and, if sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or a night meeting, as long as that loss is reimbursed by either an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 or an association. Any association that operates a satellite wagering facility may accept an audiovisual signal, but is not required to do so.

In calculating the loss, if any, for operating a satellite wagering facility for a night meeting, only the expenses incurred by the satellite wagering facility because of acceptance of night wagers shall be considered, and no overhead expenses or expenses of the satellite wagering facility which would be incurred regardless of the acceptance of night wagers shall be considered.

(6) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the live audiovisual signal of night harness or quarter horse races in the northern zone may be offered to satellite wagering facilities in the central and southern zones, except that racing associations may accept that audiovisual signal, but are not required to do so, and satellite wagering facilities located at fairs are not required to accept more than five night racing programs per week.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) or (b), a satellite wagering facility may not be located within the County of Los Angeles or within the County of Orange, except as follows:

(1) If all other conditions in subdivision (b) are met, the Fiftieth District Agricultural Association may be authorized to operate a satellite wagering facility upon its fairgrounds in the City of Lancaster and to accept wagers on races conducted in the southern and central zones.

(2) If all other conditions are met, any fair or association licensed to conduct racing meetings in the County of Los Angeles and any racing association other than a fair which is licensed to conduct racing in the County of Orange may be authorized to operate a satellite wagering facility for the limited purpose of conducting satellite wagering on races conducted at the Twenty-Second District Agricultural Association fairgrounds at Del Mar in the County of San Diego, except that, when a fair in Orange County is licensed for a racing meeting, a satellite wagering facility located within the racing inclosure where the racing meeting is conducted may not operate on the days that racing is conducted.

(d) The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities shall be the same as the percentage deducted from wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted by a satellite wagering facility under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(1) On thoroughbred meetings only, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency for California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(2) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, and the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6, and, in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas and, in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619 and, in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency for California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(3) In addition, on thoroughbred meetings and harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1 percent shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities. Any of the promotion funds that are not distributed in the year in which they are collected may be distributed in the following year, and if promotion funds distributed in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds distributed in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount. Additionally, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(e) On thoroughbred meetings only, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts in subdivision (d) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent as purses to the horsemen participating in the racing meeting, except that owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting. All of the funds distributed for purses from satellite wagering facilities shall go to the purse program of the association conducting the racing meeting, except that all sums for distribution as purses at satellite wagering facilities which are racing fairs in the County of Los Angeles shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for supplementing purses at fair meetings in Los Angeles and Orange Counties. The department shall distribute these funds on an equal basis to each racing fair in these counties for distribution in all nonstakes races and among all breeds.

(f) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, and fair meetings, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (d) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent to the horsemen in the form of purses participating in the racing meeting, except that, for meetings commencing on or after the effective date of the amendments to this subdivision enacted at the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature, owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (e), when satellite wagering is conducted on thoroughbred races at associations or fairs, an amount, not to exceed 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by all satellite wagering facilities, shall be deducted from the funds otherwise allocated for distribution as commissions, purses, and owners' premiums and instead distributed to an organization formed and operated by thoroughbred racing associations, fairs conducting thoroughbred racing, and the organization representing thoroughbred horsemen, with each party having meaningful representation on the board of the organization, to administer, pursuant to supervision of the board, a fund to provide reimbursement for offsite stabling at board-approved auxiliary training facilities of licensed racing associations for additional stalls beyond the number of usable stalls the association is required to make available and maintain pursuant to Section 19535, and for the vanning of starters from these additional stalls on race days for thoroughbred horses.

(h) The funds distributed to the organization formed pursuant to subdivision (g) shall be used to reimburse racing associations who are operating offsite stabling providing additional stalls for the incremental increase in operating costs directly resulting from providing the stabling. Neither the organization administering the offsite stabling and vanning program nor any of the entities forming and operating the organization, except the entity operating the offsite stabling facility where the injury occurred, shall be liable for any injury to any jockey, exercise person, owner, trainer, or any employee or agent thereof, or any horse occurring at any offsite stabling facility.

The funds shall also reimburse horsemen for the cost of vanning starting horses from a board-approved auxiliary training facility operated by a licensed racing association to the track conducting the racing meeting. Horsemen may use carriers of their own choice, except that the amount of reimbursement to horsemen is limited to the amount that the organization determines is generally charged by carriers for vanning from the auxiliary training facility to the track conducting the racing meeting. Neither the organization administering the offsite stabling and vanning program nor any of the entities forming and operating the organization, except the entity actually engaged in vanning horses, shall be liable for any injury occurring to any individual or horse during vanning from an offsite stabling facility

The training facilities and amenities provided for offsite stabling and training purposes shall be equivalent in character to those provided during racing meetings of the association.

Upon the request of any party within the organization, the board shall adjudicate any dispute regarding costs, or other matters relating to the furnishing of offsite stabling or vanning. The board may, if necessary, appoint an independent auditor to assist in the resolution of disputes. The auditor shall be reimbursed from the funds of the organization

The organization may maintain a reserve fund of up to 10 percent of the total estimated annual vanning and stabling costs. In addition to the reserve fund, if the funds generated for offsite stabling and vanning are insufficient to fully reimburse racing associations for expenses incurred during the offsite vanning and stabling program, the organization is entitled to accumulate sufficient funds to fully reimburse these expenses.

The amount initially deducted and distributed to the organization shall be 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by satellite wagering facilities authorized under this section on thoroughbred racing, but that allocation may be adjusted by the board, in its discretion, but the adjusted amount may not exceed 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by satellite wagering facilities, to pay expenses and maintain the reserve fund for the continuing support of the program.

(i) Forty-two percent of the revenue payable to the state from license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs under the authority of this section shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated from that account to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the Director of Food and Agriculture, in his or her discretion, for the following purposes, except that the concurrence of the Director of Finance shall be obtained for allocations for the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2):

(1) For repayment of the principal of, interest on, and costs of issuance of, and as security, including any coverage factor, pledged to the payment of, bonds issued or to be issued by a joint powers agency or other debt service or expense, including repayment of any advances made or security required by any provider of credit enhancement or liquidity for those bonds or other indebtedness or expenses of maintaining that credit enhancement or liquidity, incurred for the purpose of constructing or acquiring improvements at a fair's racetrack inclosure, satellite wagering facilities at fairs, health and safety repair projects, or handicapped access compliance projects at fairs or for the purpose of refunding bonds or other indebtedness incurred for those purposes. As used in this paragraph, "coverage factor" means revenues in excess of the amount necessary to pay debt service on the bonds or other indebtedness, up to an amount equal to 100 percent more than the amount of that debt service, which a joint powers authority, pursuant to the resolution or indenture under which the bonds or other indebtedness are or will be issued, pledges as additional security for the payment of that debt service or is required to have or maintain as a condition to the issuance of additional bonds or other indebtedness. Notwithstanding any other law, the department may also commit any funds available for allocation under Article 10 (commencing with Section 19620) to complete projects funded under this paragraph in the priority described in this paragraph.

(2) For repayment of expenses incurred by fairs in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities.

(3) For health and safety repair projects at the fair.

(4) For support purposes of the fair generally.

(j) The remaining 58 percent of the revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities at fairs and all revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities located under the authority of this section at sites other than fairs shall be deposited in the General Fund.

(k) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 19641, the state shall receive as additional license fees 50 percent of any redistributable money in a parimutuel pool arising from wagers at a satellite wagering facility, subject to payment to a claimant pursuant to Section 19598, but not successfully claimed within that period, and the funds shall be deposited in the General Fund. The remaining 50 percent of redistributable money in a parimutuel pool arising from wagers at a satellite wagering facility shall be paid to a welfare fund established by the horsemen's organization contracting with the association conducting the racing meeting for the benefit of horsemen, and that organization shall make an accounting to the board within one calendar year of the receipt of the payment.

(l) Of the total breakage arising in a parimutuel pool which includes wagers at satellite wagering facilities, that percentage of breakage equal to the percentage that wagers placed at satellite wagering facilities constitute of the total parimutuel pool shall be distributed equally among the state as an additional license fee deposited in the General Fund, the track conducting the racing meeting as a commission, and the horsemen participating in the racing meeting in the form of purses. The remainder of the breakage shall be distributed in the same manner as breakage arising from wagers at the track conducting the racing meeting.

(m) Notwithstanding subdivision (f) of Section 19596.5 and subdivision (i) of this section, if the revenues deposited in the separate account pursuant to those subdivisions (f) and (i) are in excess of the eleven million dollars ($11,000,000) in any fiscal year, one-half of the amount in excess of eleven million dollars ($11,000,000) shall be transferred to the General Fund.

(n) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. Section 19596.6 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 210 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

19596.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, subject to the conditions and limitations set forth in this section and Section 19596.7, the following entities in the central or southern zone are eligible to be licensed to operate a satellite wagering facility for wagering on races conducted in the central or southern zone:

(1) Any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair which conducted general fair activities in 1986 within the central or southern zone, and which is eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, but which is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting, may locate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds.

(2) Any association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the central or southern zone.

(b) The board may authorize an eligible association or, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, an eligible fair, to operate a satellite wagering facility under all of the following conditions:

(1) A racing association licensed to conduct a racing meeting shall conduct satellite wagering only within its racing inclosure.

(2) An organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 has executed an agreement approved by the board with the association conducting a racing meeting and the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide, among other things, the conditions for transmission of the signal and that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility are included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted.

(3) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.

(4) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering have been approved by the board.

(5) Any fair that operates a satellite wagering facility shall conduct wagering on all racing conducted that is offered to that satellite wagering facility, as long as the satellite wagering facility is not sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or a night meeting, as determined by the board, and, if sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or a night meeting, as long as that loss is reimbursed by either an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 or an association. Any association that operates a satellite wagering facility may accept an audiovisual signal, but is not required to do so

In calculating the loss, if any, for operating a satellite wagering facility for a night meeting, only the expenses incurred by the satellite wagering facility because of acceptance of night wagers shall be considered, and no overhead expenses or expenses of the satellite wagering facility which would be incurred regardless of the acceptance of night wagers shall be considered.

(6) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the live audiovisual signal of night harness or quarter horse races in the northern zone may be offered to satellite wagering facilities in the central and southern zones, except that racing associations may accept that audiovisual signal, but are not required to do so, and satellite wagering facilities located at fairs are not required to accept more than five night racing programs per week.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) or (b), a satellite wagering facility may not be located within the County of Los Angeles or within the County of Orange, except as follows:

(1) If all other conditions in subdivision (b) are met, the Fiftieth District Agricultural Association may be authorized to operate a satellite wagering facility upon its fairgrounds in the City of Lancaster and to accept wagers on races conducted in the southern and central zones

(2) If all other conditions are met, any fair or association licensed to conduct racing meetings in the County of Los Angeles and any racing association other than a fair which is licensed to conduct racing in the County of Orange may be authorized to operate a satellite wagering facility for the limited purpose of conducting satellite wagering on races conducted at the Twenty-Second District Agricultural Association fairgrounds at Del Mar in the County of San Diego, except that, when a fair in Orange County is licensed for a racing meeting, a satellite wagering facility located within the racing inclosure where the racing meeting is conducted may not operate on the days that racing is conducted.

(d) The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities shall be the same as the percentage deducted from wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted by a satellite wagering facility under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(1) On thoroughbred meetings only, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency for California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(2) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, and 6 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6, and, in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas and, in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619 and, in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency for California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(3) In addition, on thoroughbred meetings and harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1 percent shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities. Any of the promotion funds that are not distributed in the year in which they are collected may be distributed in the following year, and if promotion funds distributed in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds distributed in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount. Additionally, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(e) On thoroughbred meetings only, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts in subdivision (d) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent as purses to the horsemen participating in the racing meeting, except that owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting. All of the funds distributed for purses from satellite wagering facilities shall go to the purse program of the association conducting the racing meeting, except that all sums for distribution as purses at satellite wagering facilities which are racing fairs in the County of Los Angeles shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for supplementing purses at fair meetings in Los Angeles and Orange Counties. The department shall distribute these funds on an equal basis to each racing fair in these counties for distribution in all nonstakes races and among all breeds.

(f) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, and fair meetings, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (d) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent to the horsemen in the form of purses participating in the racing meeting, except that, for meetings commencing on or after the effective date of the amendments to this subdivision enacted at the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature, owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (e), when satellite wagering is conducted on thoroughbred races at associations or fairs, an amount, not to exceed 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by all satellite wagering facilities, shall be deducted from the funds otherwise allocated for distribution as commissions, purses, and owners' premiums and instead distributed to an organization formed and operated by thoroughbred racing associations, fairs conducting thoroughbred racing, and the organization representing thoroughbred horsemen, with each party having meaningful representation on the board of the organization, to administer, pursuant to supervision of the board, a fund to provide reimbursement for offsite stabling at board-approved auxiliary training facilities of licensed racing associations for additional stalls beyond the number of usable stalls the association is required to make available and maintain pursuant to Section 19535, and for the vanning of starters from these additional stalls on race days for thoroughbred horses.

(h) The funds distributed to the organization formed pursuant to subdivision (g) shall be used to reimburse racing associations who are operating offsite stabling providing additional stalls for the incremental increase in operating costs directly resulting from providing the stabling. Neither the organization administering the offsite stabling and vanning program nor any of the entities forming and operating the organization, except the entity operating the offsite stabling facility where the injury occurred, shall be liable for any injury to any jockey, exercise person, owner, trainer, or any employee or agent thereof, or any horse occurring at any offsite stabling facility.

The funds shall also reimburse horsemen for the cost of vanning starting horses from a board-approved auxiliary training facility operated by a licensed racing association to the track conducting the racing meeting. Horsemen may use carriers of their own choice, except that the amount of reimbursement to horsemen is limited to the amount that the organization determines is generally charged by carriers for vanning from the auxiliary training facility to the track conducting the racing meeting. Neither the organization administering the offsite stabling and vanning program nor any of the entities forming and operating the organization, except the entity actually engaged in vanning horses, shall be liable for any injury occurring to any individual or horse during vanning from an offsite stabling facility.

The training facilities and amenities provided for offsite stabling and training purposes shall be equivalent in character to those provided during racing meetings of the association.

Upon the request of any party within the organization, the board shall adjudicate any dispute regarding costs, or other matters relating to the furnishing of offsite stabling or vanning. The board may, if necessary, appoint an independent auditor to assist in the resolution of disputes. The auditor shall be reimbursed from the funds of the organization.

The organization may maintain a reserve fund of up to 10 percent of the total estimated annual vanning and stabling costs. In addition to the reserve fund, if the funds generated for offsite stabling and vanning are insufficient to fully reimburse racing associations for expenses incurred during the offsite vanning and stabling program, the organization is entitled to accumulate sufficient funds to fully reimburse these expenses.

The amount initially deducted and distributed to the organization shall be 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by satellite wagering facilities authorized under this section on thoroughbred racing, but that allocation may be adjusted by the board, in its discretion, but the adjusted amount may not exceed 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by satellite wagering facilities, to pay expenses and maintain the reserve fund for the continuing support of the program.

(i) Forty-two percent of the revenue payable to the state from license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs under the authority of this section shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated from that account to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the Director of Food and Agriculture, in his or her discretion, for the following purposes, except that the concurrence of the Director of Finance shall be obtained for allocations for the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2):

(1) For repayment of the principal of, interest on, and costs of issuance of, and as security, including any coverage factor, pledged to the payment of, bonds issued or to be issued by a joint powers agency or other debt service or expense, including repayment of any advances made or security required by any provider of credit enhancement or liquidity for those bonds or other indebtedness or expenses of maintaining that credit enhancement or liquidity, incurred for the purpose of constructing or acquiring improvements at a fair's racetrack inclosure, satellite wagering facilities at fairs, health and safety repair projects, or handicapped access compliance projects at fairs or for the purpose of refunding bonds or other indebtedness incurred for those purposes. As used in this paragraph, "coverage factor" means revenues in excess of the amount necessary to pay debt service on the bonds or other indebtedness, up to an amount equal to 100 percent more than the amount of that debt service, which a joint powers authority, pursuant to the resolution or indenture under which the bonds or other indebtedness are or will be issued, pledges as additional security for the payment of that debt service or is required to have or maintain as a condition to the issuance of additional bonds or other indebtedness. Notwithstanding any other law, the department may also commit any funds available for allocation under Article 10 (commencing with Section 19620) to complete projects funded under this paragraph in the priority described in this paragraph.

(2) For repayment of expenses incurred by fairs in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities.

(3) For health and safety repair projects at the fair.

(4) For support purposes of the fair generally.

(j) The remaining 58 percent of the revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities at fairs and all revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities located under the authority of this section at sites other than fairs shall be deposited in the General Fund.

(k) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 19641, the state shall receive as additional license fees 50 percent of any redistributable money in a parimutuel pool arising from wagers at a satellite wagering facility, subject to payment to a claimant pursuant to Section 19598, but not successfully claimed within that period, and the funds shall be deposited in the General Fund. The remaining 50 percent of redistributable money in a parimutuel pool arising from wagers at a satellite wagering facility shall be paid to a welfare fund established by the horsemen's organization contracting with the association conducting the racing meeting for the benefit of horsemen, and that organization shall make an accounting to the board within one calendar year of the receipt of the payment.

(l) Of the total breakage arising in a parimutuel pool which includes wagers at satellite wagering facilities, that percentage of breakage equal to the percentage that wagers placed at satellite wagering facilities constitute of the total parimutuel pool shall be distributed equally among the state as an additional license fee deposited in the General Fund, the track conducting the racing meeting as a commission, and the horsemen participating in the racing meeting in the form of purses. The remainder of the breakage shall be distributed in the same manner as breakage arising from wagers at the track conducting the racing meeting.

(m) Notwithstanding subdivision (f) of Section 19596 5 and subdivision (i) of this section, if the revenues deposited in the separate account pursuant to those subdivisions (f) and (i) are in excess of the eleven million dollars ($11,000,000) in any fiscal year, one-half of the amount in excess of eleven million dollars ($11,000,000) shall be transferred to the General Fund.

(n) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1992.

SEC. 7. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 19596.5 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 992. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1990, (2) each bill amends Section 19596.5 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 992, in which case Section 19596.5 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by AB 992, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 2 of this bill shall become operative, Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative, and Section 3 shall become operative on January 1, 1992.

SEC. 8. Section 5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 19596.6 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 992. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1990, (2) each bill amends Section 19596.6 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 992, in which case Section 19596.6 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by AB 992, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 5 of this bill shall become operative, Section 4 of this bill shall not become operative, and Section 6 shall become operative on January 1, 1992.

SEC. 9. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for night racing to remain viable through greater participation in the satellite system, commencing in 1989, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 940

An act to amend Section 44011.6 of the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 25617 to, and to repeal Section 25368 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to energy resources, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature declares all of the following:

(a) It reaffirms the declaration in Resolution Chapter 122 of the Statutes of 1988 that maximum feasible reduction in public exposure to smoke and emissions from diesel engines accomplished in the most cost-effective manner through an appropriate combination of measures is in the public interest.

(b) The implementation of technology-forcing standards by the State Air Resources Board is an appropriate strategy for achieving reductions in smoke and emissions from diesel engines.

(c) A necessary counterpart to the implementation of technology-forcing standards is the creation of research, development, and demonstration projects to test new diesel engine and fuel technologies developed in response to those standards.

(d) The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission has significant experience in the management of energy research, development, and demonstration projects.

SEC. 2. Section 44011.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44011.6. (a) As expeditiously as possible, the state board shall develop a test procedure for the detection of excessive smoke emissions from heavy-duty diesel motor vehicles that is feasible for use in an intermittent roadside inspection program. During the development of the test procedure, the state board shall cooperate with the Department of the California Highway Patrol in conducting roadside inspections. The state board may also specify visual or functional inspection procedures to determine the presence of tampering or defective emissions control systems in heavy-duty diesel or heavy-duty gasoline motor vehicles. The chairperson of the state board shall appoint an ad hoc advisory committee which shall include, but not be limited to, representatives of heavy-duty engine manufacturers, carriers of property for compensation using heavy-duty gasoline or diesel motor vehicles, and the Department of the California Highway Patrol. The advisory committee shall cooperate with the state board to develop a test procedure pursuant to this subdivision and shall advise the state board in developing regulations to implement test procedures and inspection of heavy-duty commercial motor vehicles.

(b) The state board shall, by regulation, prohibit the use of heavy-duty motor vehicles which are determined to have excessive smoke emissions or other emissions-related defects, using the test procedure established pursuant to subdivision (a). However, visual or functional inspection procedures for heavy-duty gasoline vehicles shall not be more stringent than those prescribed by the department for heavy-duty gasoline vehicles subject to biennial inspection pursuant to Section 44013. The state board may issue a citation to the owner or operator for any vehicle in violation of regulations adopted under this subdivision. These regulations may require the operator of a vehicle to submit to a test procedure adopted pursuant to subdivision (a), may specify that refusal to so submit is a violation of the regulations, and shall require that, when a citation has been issued, the owner of a vehicle in violation of the regulations shall immediately correct every deficiency specified in the citation.

(c) The department may develop criteria for one or more classes of smog check stations capable of determining compliance with regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) and may authorize those stations to issue certificates of compliance to vehicles in compliance with the regulations. The department may contract for the operation of smog check stations for heavy-duty vehicles pursuant to this subdivision, and only heavy-duty vehicles may be inspected at these stations.

(d) In addition to the corrective action required by subdivision (b), the owner of a motor vehicle in violation of the regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) is subject to a civil penalty of not more than one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) per day for each day that the vehicle is in violation. The state board may adopt a schedule of reduced civil penalties to be applied in cases where violations are corrected in an expeditious manner. The schedule of reduced civil penalties shall not, however, apply where there have been repeated incidents of emissions control system tampering. All civil penalties imposed pursuant to this subdivision shall be collected by the state board and deposited in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund. Funds in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund shall, when appropriated by the Legislature, be available to the state board and the Department of the California Highway Patrol for the conduct of intermittent roadside inspections of heavy-duty vehicles pursuant to this section.

(e) Following the adoption of regulations pursuant to subdivision (b), the state board and the Department of the California Highway Patrol shall commence inspecting heavy-duty motor vehicles. With the concurrence of the Department of the California Highway Patrol, these inspections may be conducted in conjunction with the safety and weight enforcement activities of the Department of the California Highway Patrol or at other locations selected by the state board or the Department of the California Highway Patrol. Inspection locations may include private facilities where fleet vehicles are serviced or maintained. The state board and the Department of the California Highway Patrol may conduct these inspections either cooperatively or independently, and the state board may contract for assistance in the conduct of these inspections.

(f) The state board shall inform the Department of the California Highway Patrol whenever a vehicle owner cited pursuant to subdivision (b) fails to take a required corrective action or to pay the civil penalties levied pursuant to subdivisions (d) and (h) in a timely manner, and the Department of the California Highway Patrol may, upon receipt of that information, require that the vehicle be removed from service until the civil penalty is paid and the corrective action taken.

(g) The state board, in consultation with the Department of the California Highway Patrol, shall, within two years of the adoption of regulations pursuant to subdivision (b), prepare and submit to the Legislature a report on the smoke emissions enforcement program conducted under this section, including, but not limited to, its assessment of the effectiveness of the program, the impact of the program on the operations of the Department of the California Highway Patrol, and its recommendations for changes in, alternatives to, or termination of, the program.

(h) In addition to the corrective action required by subdivision (b), and in addition to the civil penalty imposed by subdivision (d), the owner of a motor vehicle cited by the state board pursuant to subdivision (b) shall pay a penalty of three hundred dollars ($300) per citation; except that this penalty shall not apply to the first citation for any schoolbus. All civil penalties imposed pursuant to this subdivision shall be collected by the state board and deposited in the Diesel Emission Reduction Fund, which fund is hereby created. Funds in the Diesel Emission Reduction Fund shall, when appropriated by the Legislature, be available to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission for research, development, and demonstration programs undertaken pursuant to Section 24617 of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 3. Section 25368 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 25617 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25617. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to preserve diversity of energy resources, including diversity of resources used in electric generation facilities, industrial and commercial applications, and transportation.

(b) The commission shall, within the limits of available funds, provide technical assistance and support for the development of petroleum diesel fuels which are as clean or cleaner than alternative clean fuels and clean diesel engines. That technical assistance and support may include the creation of research, development, and demonstration programs.

SEC. 5. On July 1, 1990, of the funds available for appropriation in the Diesel Emission Reduction Fund, up to one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) is hereby appropriated to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission for expenditure pursuant to Section 25617 of the Public Resources Code.

CHAPTER 941

An act relating to the Department of Motor Vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to establish more flexible office hours for state offices which provide direct services to the general public. Greater flexibility in office hours can benefit both the employee and the general public. Employees must be involved in any decisions affecting working hours.

SEC. 2. (a) The Department of Motor Vehicles shall study what operational changes would be needed to facilitate the operation of its offices on a flexible hours basis, including full or partial operation on Saturdays.

(b) The department, to the extent possible, shall manage the flexible hours program so as to minimize mandatory overtime required of its employees, by using voluntary, permanent full-time staff and permanent intermittent employees.

(c) The department shall select and recommend as many as 16 sites statewide to use in a pilot project to demonstrate the impact of flexible office hours, including Saturdays. The project sites shall comprise a representative sample of the department's field offices throughout the state and shall represent the widest possible geographic diversity. Any site that is the subject of a current department project concerning flexible office hours may be included among the 16 sites. The department shall assess the results of the pilot project, including reactions by both employees and the general public, as well as any costs and savings attributable to the program, in considering the results of the pilot project. The results of the pilot project shall be measured in terms of both customer satisfaction and greater cost effectiveness in the operation of the field offices of the department. The pilot project shall begin on July 1, 1990, and shall terminate on or before January 1, 1992.

(d) The department shall submit a report of the study to the Legislature by June 30, 1990, including the locations of the project sites and hours of operation, an indication of its collaboration with affected collective bargaining groups, and the criteria that will be used to determine the results.

(e) The department shall submit a final report to the Legislature not later than January 1, 1992, describing the results of the pilot project. In addition to the results specified in the preliminary report due June 30, 1990, the final report shall include a comparison of the cost of operating the flexible hours program compared to constructing and staffing a new field office in the same geographical area as at least two of the 16 pilot project sites.

CHAPTER 942

An act to add Article 7.7 (commencing with Section 16419) to Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, relating to state funds, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 7.7 (commencing with Section 16419) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 7.7. Contingency Reserves for Economic Uncertainties

16419 (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, each special fund shall include a contingency reserve for economic uncertainties. These reserves shall constitute reserve funds within the meaning of Section 5 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

(b) On the first day of each fiscal year, or on the day that the Budget Act for that fiscal year is chaptered, whichever occurs later, an amount sufficient for any appropriation made by that Budget Act or by any other statute from the fund in which the reserve account is established, shall be appropriated from each reserve account in each special fund.

(c) On the last day of each fiscal year, the unappropriated balance in each special fund shall be appropriated to the reserve account in that special fund.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

So that this act may be coordinated with the Budget Act of 1989 and be effective throughout the 1989–90 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 943

An act to amend Sections 51207, 51243, 51245, 51246, and 51284 of, to add Section 51287 to, and to repeal Section 51283.5 of, the Government Code, relating to agricultural land.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 51207 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51207. (a) On or before March 1 of each year, the Department of Conservation shall report to the Legislature regarding the implementation of this chapter by cities and counties.

(b) The report shall contain, but not be limited to, the number of acres of land under contract in each category and the number of acres of land which were removed from contract through cancellation, eminent domain, annexation, or nonrenewal.

(c) The report shall also contain the following specific information relating to not less than one-third of all cities and counties participating in the Williamson Act program:

(1) The number of contract cancellation requests for which notices of hearings were mailed to the Director of Conservation pursuant to Section 51284 which were approved by boards or councils during the prior year or for which approval is still pending by boards or councils.

(2) The amount of cancellation fees payable to the county treasurer as deferred taxes and which are required to be transmitted to the Controller pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 51283 which have not been collected or which remain unpaid.

(3) The total number of acres covered by certificates of cancellation of contracts during the previous year.

(4) The number of nonrenewal and withdrawal of renewal notices received pursuant to Section 51245 and the number of expiration notices received pursuant to Section 51246 during the previous year.

(5) The number of acres covered by nonrenewal notices that were not withdrawn and expiration notices during the previous year.

(d) The department may recommend changes to this chapter which would further promote its purposes.

(e) The Legislature may, upon request of the department, appropriate funds from the deferred taxes deposited in the General Fund pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 51283 in an amount sufficient to prepare the report required by this section.

SEC. 2. Section 51243 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51243. Every contract shall:

(a) Provide for the exclusion of uses other than agricultural, and other than those compatible with agricultural uses, for the duration of the contract.

(b) Shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, all successors in interest of the owner. Whenever land under a contract is divided, the owner of any parcel may exercise, independent of any other owner of a portion of the divided land, any of the rights of the owner in the original contract, including the right to give notice of nonrenewal and to petition for cancellation. The effect of any such action by the owner of a parcel created by the division of land under contract shall not be imputed to the owners of the remaining parcels and shall have no effect on the contract as it applies to the remaining parcels of the divided land. On the annexation by a city of any land under contract with a county, the city shall succeed to all rights, duties and powers of the county under the contract, unless the land being annexed was within one mile of the city at the time that the contract was initially executed, the city has filed and the local agency formation commission has approved a protest to the contract pursuant to Section 51243.5, and the city states its intent not to succeed in its resolution of intention to annex. If the city does not exercise its option to succeed, the contract becomes null and void as to the land actually being annexed on the date of annexation. In the event that only part of the land under contract was within one mile of the city the option of the city shall extend only to that part. Within 30 days of the city stating its intent not to succeed, the city shall deliver a notice of its action to the Director of Conservation.

SEC. 3. Section 51245 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51245. If either the landowner or the city or county desires in any year not to renew the contract, that party shall serve written notice of nonrenewal of the contract upon the other party in advance of the annual renewal date of the contract. Unless such written notice is served by the landowner at least 90 days prior to the renewal date or by the city or county at least 60 days prior to the renewal date, the contract shall be considered renewed as provided in Section 51244 or Section 51244.5.

Upon receipt by the owner of a notice from the county or city of nonrenewal, the owner may make a written protest of the notice of nonrenewal. The county or city may, at any time prior to the renewal date, withdraw the notice of nonrenewal. Upon request by the owner, the board or council may authorize the owner to serve a notice of nonrenewal on a portion of the land under a contract.

Within 30 days of the receipt of a notice of nonrenewal from a landowner, the service of a notice of nonrenewal upon a landowner, or the withdrawal of a notice of nonrenewal, the city or county shall deliver a copy of the notice or a notice of withdrawal of nonrenewal to the Director of Conservation.

SEC. 4. Section 51246 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51246. (a) If the county or city or the landowner serves notice of intent in any year not to renew the contract, the existing contract shall remain in effect for the balance of the period remaining since the original execution or the last renewal of the contract, as the case may be. Within 30 days of the expiration of the contract, the county or city shall deliver a notice of expiration to the Director of Conservation.

(b) No city or county shall enter into a new contract or shall renew an existing contract on or after February 28, 1977, with respect to timberland zoned as timberland production. The city or county shall serve notice of its intent not to renew the contract as provided in this section.

(c) In order to meet the minimum acreage requirement of an agricultural preserve pursuant to Section 51230, land formerly within the agricultural preserve which is zoned as timberland production pursuant to Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 51100) may be taken into account.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, commencing with the lien date for the 1977–78 fiscal year all timberland within an existing contract which has been nonrenewed as mandated by this section shall be valued according to Section 423.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, succeeding to and including the lien date for the 1981–82 fiscal year. Commencing with the lien date for the 1982–83 fiscal year and on each lien date thereafter, such timberland shall be valued according to Section 434.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 5. Section 51283.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 51284 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51284. No contract may be canceled until after the city or county has given notice of, and has held, a public hearing on the matter. Notice of the hearing shall be published pursuant to Section 6061 and shall be mailed to the Director of Conservation and every owner of land under contract, any portion of which is situated within one mile of the exterior boundary of the land upon which the contract is proposed to be canceled. Within 30 days of the cancellation of the contract, the city or county shall publish a notice of its decision, including the date, time, and place of the public hearing, a general explanation of the decision, the findings made pursuant to Section 51282, and a general description, in text or by diagram, of the land under contract, as a display advertisement of at least one-eighth page in at least one newspaper of general circulation within the city or county. The publication shall be for informational purposes only, and shall create no right, standing, or duty that would otherwise not exist with regard to the cancellation proceedings. Within 30 days of the cancellation of the contract the city or county shall deliver a notice of cancellation to the Director of Conservation.

SEC. 7. Section 51287 is added to the Government Code, to read:

51287. The city or county may impose a fee pursuant to Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 54990) of Part 1 of Division 2 for recovery of costs under this article. The fee shall not exceed an amount necessary to recover the reasonable cost of services provided by the city or county under this article.

SEC. 8 No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 944

An act relating to transportation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that freeway traffic congestion in major metropolitan areas is a long-term problem that must be met, in part, by the cooperative efforts of motor carriers, shippers, and receivers of goods transported on the freeways.

SEC. 2. (a) The Department of Transportation shall study ways to encourage high volume motor carriers, shippers, and receivers operating in the Los Angeles area to switch to night deliveries and pickups.

(b) The department shall appoint a committee representing businesses and industries engaging in high volume shipments, motor carriers engaged in high volume transportation for those businesses and industries, and local, regional, and state government, including, but not limited to, the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

(c) The committee shall study the operations of one or more businesses or industries engaged in high volume shipping or receiving, and one or more motor carriers engaging in that transportation, to determine what tax, regulatory, or operational changes would make night shipping and receiving and night transportation economically attractive to those businesses, industries, and carriers. The committee shall provide a forum for both technical work and program development.

(d) The committee shall cooperate with and monitor the efforts of local agencies which are currently investigating night deliveries and pickups so as to avoid unnecessary duplication of effort.

(e) The committee shall report its findings, conclusions, and recommendations to the department on a date specified by the department. The department shall monitor the progress of the committee.

SEC. 3. Based on the findings, conclusions, and recommendations of the committee, the department shall prepare and transmit its recommendations to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1991.

SEC. 4. The sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) is hereby appropriated from the State Highway Account in the State Transportation Fund to the Department of Transportation for purposes of this act.

CHAPTER 945

An act to add Section 243 to the Labor Code, relating to wages.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 243 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

243. (a) If, within 10 years of either a conviction for a violation of this article or of failing to satisfy a judgment for nonpayment of wages, or both, it is alleged that an employer on a second occasion has been convicted of again violating this article or is failing to satisfy a judgment for nonpayment of wages, an employee or the employee's legal representative, an attorney licensed to practice law in this state, may, on behalf of himself or herself and others, bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction for a temporary restraining order prohibiting the employer from doing business in this state unless the employer deposits with the court a bond to secure compliance by the employer with this article or to satisfy the judgment for nonpayment of wages.

(b) Upon the filing of an affidavit which, to the satisfaction of the court, shows reasonable proof that an employer, for the second time within 10 years, has been convicted of violating this article or has failed to satisfy a judgment for the nonpayment of wages, or both, the court, pursuant to Section 527 of the Code of Civil Procedure, may grant a temporary restraining order which prohibits the employer within 30 days from conducting any business within the state, unless the employer deposits a bond payable to the Labor Commissioner which is conditioned on the employer making wage payments in accordance with this article, or upon satisfaction by the employer of any judgment for nonpayment of wages, or both. The court shall order that the bond be deposited with the court by the employer at any point in time that, within a five-year period from the date of the order, the employer employs more than 10 employees. The court shall order that the bond be in an amount equal to twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or 25 percent of the weekly gross payroll of the employer at the time of the posting of the bond, whichever is greater, and that the term of the bond be for the duration of the service of the employee who brought the action, until past due wages have been paid, or until satisfaction of a judgment for nonpayment of wages.

(c) For purposes of subdivision (b), an employer shall be deemed to have been convicted of having violated this article or to have failed to satisfy a judgment for the second time within 10 years if, to secure labor or personal services in connection with his or her business, the employer uses the services of an agent, contractor, or subcontractor who is convicted of a violation of this article or fails to satisfy a judgment for wages respecting those employees, or both, but only if the employer had actual knowledge of the person's failure to pay wages In issuing a temporary restraining order pursuant to this section, the court, in determining the amount and term of the bond, shall count the agent's, contractor's, or subcontractor's employees as part of the employer's total work force. This subdivision shall not apply where a temporary restraining order against the agent, contractor, or subcontractor has been issued, as an employer, pursuant to subdivision (b).

(d) An employer who, for the third time within 10 years of the first occurrence, is alleged to have violated this article or to have failed to satisfy a judgment for nonpayment of wages, or both, shall be deemed by the court to have commenced a new five-year period for which the posting of a bond may be ordered in accordance with subdivision (b), except that the court may, in its discretion, require the posting of a bond in a greater amount as it determines appropriate under the circumstances.

(e) A former employee who was a party to an earlier action against an employer in which a judgment for the payment of wages was obtained, and who alleges that the employer has failed to satisfy the judgment for the payment of wages, in addition to any other available remedy, may petition the court pursuant to subdivision (b) for a temporary restraining order against the employer to cease doing business in this state unless the employer posts a bond with the court.

(f) Actions brought pursuant to this section shall be set for trial at the earliest possible date, and shall take precedence over all other cases, except older matters of the same character and matters to which special precedence may be given by law.

(g) Nothing in this section shall be construed to impose any mandatory duties on the Labor Commissioner.

CHAPTER 946

An act to add and repeal Sections 25196.1, 25196.2, 25196.3, 25196.4, 25196.5, and 25196.6 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25196.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25196.1. (a) The interest of any registered owner of any vehicle, truck, trailer, semitrailer, vacuum tank, cargo vehicle, or other motor vehicle, which has been used as an instrument to facilitate the transportation or disposal of hazardous waste in violation of this chapter, vests with the state upon the commission of the act giving rise to forfeiture under subdivision (b).

(b) The interest of a vehicle specified in subdivision (a) shall vest with the state and is subject to forfeiture under this article only if both of the following conditions are met:

(1) The registered owner of the vehicle specified in subdivision (a) has been previously convicted of a violation of Section 25189.5.

(2) There currently exists a court order prohibiting the registered owner of the vehicle from transporting or disposing of hazardous waste, or the owner of the vehicle is not registered as a hazardous waste hauler in accordance with Section 25163.

(c) This section shall not defeat the claim of any person, including a bona fide purchaser or encumbrancer, who claims an interest in the vehicle seized, if the interest arose prior to the seizure or the filing of the petition for forfeiture pursuant to this article, whichever occurs first, even if the interest in the vehicle being claimed was acquired from a person whose interest in the vehicle would otherwise have been subject to forfeiture pursuant to this section.

(d) Any costs of storing, transferring, disposing of, or otherwise handling hazardous waste, as required by this chapter, incurred by a state or local agency as a result of the interest or title in a vehicle vesting with the state pursuant to subdivision (a), shall be paid by the person transporting or disposing of, or causing the transportation or disposal of, the hazardous waste in violation of this chapter.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 25196.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25196.2. (a) Any peace officer of this state, as provided in Section 25180, incident or subsequent to making or attempting to make an arrest for a violation of Section 25189.5, may seize any vehicle subject to forfeiture under Section 25196.1.

(b) Receipts for vehicles seized pursuant to this section shall be delivered to any person out of whose possession the vehicle was seized, in accordance with Section 1412 of the Penal Code. If the vehicle seized was not seized out of anyone's possession, receipt for the vehicle shall be delivered to the individual in possession of the premises at which the vehicle was seized or, if the individual is not present on the premises, the receipt shall be left in a prominent place at the premises.

(c) There shall be a presumption affecting the burden of proof that the person to whom a receipt for a vehicle was issued is the owner thereof. This presumption may, however, be rebutted at the forfeiture hearing specified in Section 25196.5.

(d) Within 15 days after making a seizure pursuant to this section, if the peace officer does not hold the vehicle seized pursuant to Section 25196.1 for evidence, or if a forfeiture proceeding pursuant to Section 25196.3 is not initiated, the officer shall return the vehicle to the registered owner.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 25196.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25196.3. (a) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (j), if the Attorney General or the district attorney determines that the factual circumstances do warrant that the vehicle subject to forfeiture meets the requirements of Section 25196.1, the Attorney General or district attorney shall file a petition of forfeiture with the superior court of the county in which the vehicle subject to forfeiture has been seized or, if no seizure has occurred, in the county in which the property subject to forfeiture is located.

(2) A petition of forfeiture under this subdivision shall be filed within one year of the seizure of the property which is subject to forfeiture.

(b) Physical seizure of a vehicle shall not be necessary in order to have that particular vehicle alleged to be forfeitable in a petition under this section. The prosecuting attorney may seek protective orders for any vehicle.

(c) The Attorney General or district attorney shall make service of process regarding this petition upon every individual designated in a receipt issued for the vehicle seized. In addition, the Attorney General or district attorney shall cause a notice of the seizure, if any, and of the intended forfeiture proceeding, as well as a notice stating that any interested party may file a verified claim with the superior court of the county in which the vehicle was seized or if the property was not seized, a notice of the initiation of forfeiture proceedings with respect to any interest in the vehicle seized or subject to forfeiture, to be served by personal delivery or by registered mail upon any person who has an interest in the seized vehicle or property subject to forfeiture other than persons designated in a receipt issued for the vehicle seized.

(d) The Attorney General, district attorney, or public agency which made the seizure shall make an investigation into any right, title, interest, or lien of record with the Department of Motor Vehicles or appropriate federal agency as to a vehicle. If the investigation discloses that any person, other than the registered owner, is the legal owner thereof, and this ownership did not arise subsequent to the date and time of arrest or notification of the forfeiture proceedings or seizure of the vehicle, the Attorney General or district attorney shall send a notice to the legal owner at his or her address appearing on the records of the Department of Motor Vehicles or appropriate federal agency.

(e) When a forfeiture action is filed, notices shall be published once a week for three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the seizure was made or where the vehicle subject to forfeiture is located.

(f) All notices shall set forth the time within which a claim of interest in the vehicle seized or subject to forfeiture is required to be filed.

(g) Not sooner than 10 days after a petition is filed pursuant to this section, a claimant, who alleges standing based on an interest in the vehicle which arose prior to the seizure or filing of the petition for forfeiture, whichever occurs first, may move the court for the return of the vehicle named in the claim on the grounds that there is not probable cause to believe that the vehicle is subject to forfeiture pursuant to Section 25196.1. The showing of probable cause may be supported by evidence, prior judicial testimony, deposition, affidavit, or declaration. If the court determines that there is not probable cause to believe that the vehicle is subject to forfeiture, it shall order the vehicle returned to the registered owner thereof unless the vehicle is otherwise lawfully held

(h) Within 30 days after a motion for return of the vehicle is granted pursuant to subdivision (g), the people may file a petition for writ of mandate or prohibition seeking appelate review of the order.

(i) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (j), the prosecution shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the vehicle is subject to forfeiture as described in Section 25196.1.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 25196.1, judgment of forfeiture does not require as a condition precedent thereto, that any defendant be convicted of an offense which made the vehicle subject to forfeiture.

(j) (1) The Attorney General or the district attorney of the county in which the vehicle is subject to forfeiture under Section 25196.1 may, pursuant to this subdivision, order forfeiture of the vehicle not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) in value. The Attorney General or district attorney shall provide notice of proceedings under this subdivision pursuant to subdivision (c), excluding the provision relating to service of process regarding the petition, and subdivisions (d), (e), and (f), including all of the following:

(A) A description of the vehicle.

(B) The appraised value of the vehicle.

(C) The date and place of seizure or location of any vehicle not seized but subject to forfeiture.

(D) The violation of law alleged with respect to forfeiture of the vehicle.

(E) The instructions for filing a claim with the superior court and time limits for filing a claim. If no claims are timely filed, the Attorney General or the district attorney shall prepare a written declaration of forfeiture of the subject vehicle to the state and dispose of the vehicle. A written declaration of forfeiture signed by the Attorney General or district attorney under this subdivision shall be deemed to provide good and sufficient title to the forfeited vehicle.

(2) The prosecuting agency ordering forfeiture pursuant to this subdivision shall provide a copy of the declaration of forfeiture to any person listed in the receipt given at the time of seizure and to any person personally served notice of the forfeiture proceedings.

(3) If a claim is timely filed and served, then the Attorney General or district attorney shall file a petition of forfeiture pursuant to this section within 30 days of the receipt of the claim. The petition of forfeiture shall then proceed pursuant to other provisions of this chapter, except that no additional notice need be given and no additional claim need be filed.

(k) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes of extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 25196.4 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25196.4. (a) (1) Any person claiming an interest in the vehicle seized pursuant to Section 25196.2 may, at any time within 30 days from the date of the first publication of the notice of seizure, if that person was not personally served or served by mail, or within 10 days after receipt of actual notice, file with the superior court of the county in which the vehicle was seized or, if there was no seizure, in which the vehicle is located, a verified claim stating his or her interest in the vehicle. An endorsed copy of the claim shall be served by the claimant on the Attorney General or district attorney, as appropriate, within 10 days of the filing of the claim.

(2) Any person who claims that the vehicle was assigned to him or to her prior to the seizure or notification of pending forfeiture of the vehicle under this chapter, whichever occurs first, shall file a claim with the court and prosecuting agency pursuant to this section declaring an interest in that vehicle and the interest shall be adjudicated at the forfeiture hearing. The vehicle shall remain under control of the law enforcement or prosecutorial agency until the adjudication of the forfeiture hearing.

(b) If, at the end of the time set forth in subdivision (a), there is no claim on file, the court, upon motion, shall declare the vehicle seized or subject to forfeiture pursuant to Section 25196.1 forfeited to the state. In moving for a default judgment pursuant to this subdivision, the state or local governmental entity shall be required to establish a prima facie case in support of its petition for forfeiture.

(c) (1) If a verified claim is filed, the forfeiture proceeding shall be set for hearing on a day not less than 30 days therefrom, and the proceeding shall have priority over other civil cases. A claim shall not be admissible in the proceeding regarding the offense.

(2) The hearing shall be by jury, unless waived by consent of all parties.

(d) Forfeiture shall be ordered when, at the hearing, the state or local governmental entity has shown that the vehicle in question is subject to forfeiture pursuant to Section 25196.1, in accordance with the burden of proof set forth in subdivision (i) of Section 25196.3.

(e) The forfeiture hearing shall be continued upon motion of the prosecution or a claimant who is concurrently a defendant in a related criminal proceeding until the charge in that proceeding has been resolved in the trial court or the defendant fails to appear. The forfeiture hearing shall be conducted in accordance with Sections 600 to 630, inclusive, of the Code of Civil Procedure if a trial by jury, and by Sections 631 to 636, inclusive, of the Code of Civil Procedure if by the court. Unless the court or jury finds that the seized vehicle is subject to forfeiture pursuant to Section 25196.1, the court shall order the seized vehicle released to the person it determines is entitled thereto.

(f) If the court or jury finds that the seized vehicle was subject to forfeiture, and finds that a person claiming an interest therein knew or should have known of facts which made the vehicle subject to forfeiture pursuant to Section 25196.1, the court shall order that the person's interest in the seized vehicle be forfeited. If the court or jury does not make these findings, the court shall order that the person's interest in the vehicle be returned. The state or local governmental entity shall have the burden of proving in accordance with the burden of proof set forth in subdivision (i) of Section 25196.3, that a person claiming an interest knew or should have known of facts which made the vehicle subject to forfeiture pursuant to Section 25196.1.

(g) A seized vehicle which was the subject of a forfeiture hearing and which was not released by the court to a claimant shall be declared by the court to be forfeited to the state. The clerk of the court shall dispose of the forfeited vehicle as set forth in Section 25196.7.

(h) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5. Section 25196.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25196.5. (a) If the court or jury at the forfeiture hearing finds that the vehicle is forfeitable pursuant to Section 25196.2, and further finds that the state or local governmental entity has not met its burden of proving that a person holding a valid lien, security interest, or interest under a conditional sales contract knew or should have known of facts which would or did make the vehicle subject to forfeiture pursuant to Section 25196.1 when the interest was acquired, and the amount due that person is less than the appraised value of the vehicle, that person may pay to the state or the local governmental entity which initiated the forfeiture proceeding the amount of the owner's equity, which shall be deemed to be the difference between the appraised value and the amount of the lien, security interest, or interest under a conditional sales contract. Upon this payment, the state or local governmental entity shall relinquish all claims to the vehicle. If the holder of the interest elects not to make this payment to the state or local governmental entity, the vehicle shall be deemed forfeited to the state or local governmental entity and the ownership certificate shall be forwarded. The appraised value shall be determined as of the date judgment is entered on a wholesale basis either by agreement between the legal owner and the governmental entity involved, or if they cannot agree, then by the assessor for the county in which the action is brought. A person holding a valid lien, security interest, or interest under a conditional sales contract shall be paid the appraised value of his or her interest.

(b) If the amount due to a person holding a valid lien, security interest, or interest under a conditional sales contract is less than the value of the vehicle and the person elects not to make payment to the governmental entity, the vehicle, which a public agency may place in its own name for use in its law enforcement program, shall be sold at public auction by the Department of General Services or by the local governmental entity which shall provide notice of the sale by one publication in a newspaper published and circulated in the city, community, or locality where the sale is to take place.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. Section 25196.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25196.6. Notwithstanding Section 25192, in all cases where the vehicle is seized pursuant to this article and forfeited to the state or local governmental entity and, where necessary, sold by the Department of General Services or local governmental entity, the proceeds of sale shall be distributed by the state or local governmental entity as follows:

(a) To the bona fide or innocent purchaser or encumbrancer, conditional sales vendor, or mortgagee of the vehicle, if any, up to the amount of his or her interest in the vehicle, when the court declaring the forfeiture orders a distribution to that person.

(b) The balance, if any, to accumulate, and to be distributed and transferred quarterly in the following manner:

(1) To the state agency or local governmental entity for all expenditures made or incurred by it in connection with the sale of the vehicle, including expenditures for any necessary repairs, storage, or transportation of any vehicle seized under this article.

(2) Ninety percent of the balance shall be distributed as follows:

(A) Eighty-five percent to the state or local or to the state and local law enforcement agencies that participated in the seizure, allocated between them to reflect the proportionate contribution of each agency.

(B) Fifteen percent to the prosecutorial agency which processes the forfeiture action.

(3) Ten percent of the balance after payment of the costs specified in paragraph (1), for deposit in the Asset Forfeiture Distribution Fund, established pursuant to Section 11489, which shall be available upon appropriation by the Legislature.

(c) All the funds distributed pursuant to subdivision (b) shall not supplant any state or local funds that would, in the absence of this subdivision, be made available to support the law enforcement and prosecutorial efforts of these agencies. Funds so distributed shall be used by the law enforcement and prosecutorial agencies exclusively to support law enforcement and prosecutorial efforts of those agencies.

(d) The court shall order the forfeiture proceeds distributed to the state, local, or state and local governmental entities as provided in this section.

(e) All proceeds from forfeiture proceedings made pursuant to this article shall be distributed in accordance with this section.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 947

An act to amend Section 17508 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to advertising.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17508 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

17508. (a) It shall be unlawful for any person doing business in California and advertising to consumers in California to make any false or misleading advertising claim, including claims that (1) purport to be based on factual, objective, or clinical evidence, that (2) compare the product's effectiveness or safety to that of other brands or products, or that (3) purport to be based on any fact.

(b) Upon written request of the Director of Consumer Affairs, the Attorney General, any city attorney, or any district attorney any person doing business in California and in whose behalf advertising claims are made to consumers in California, including claims that (1) purport to be based on factual, objective, or clinical evidence, that (2) compare the product's effectiveness or safety to that of other brands or products, or that (3) purport to be based on any fact, shall provide to the department or official making the request evidence of the facts on which such advertising claims are based. Any such request shall be made within one year of the last day on which such advertising claims were made.

Any city attorney or district attorney who makes a request pursuant to this subdivision shall give prior notice of such request to the Attorney General.

(c) The Director of Consumer Affairs, Attorney General, any city attorney, or any district attorney may, upon failure of an advertiser to respond by adequately substantiating the claim within a reasonable time, or if such Director of Consumer Affairs, Attorney General, city attorney, or district attorney shall have reason to believe that any such advertising claim is false or misleading, do either or both of the following: (1) seek an immediate termination or modification of the claim by the person in accordance with Section 17535, (2) disseminate information, taking due care to protect legitimate trade secrets, concerning the veracity of such claims, or why such claims are misleading, to the consumers of this state.

(d) The relief provided for in subdivision (c) is in addition to any other relief which may be sought for a violation of this chapter. Section 17534 shall not apply to violations of this section.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to hold any newspaper publisher or radio or television broadcaster liable for publishing or broadcasting any advertising claims referred to in subdivision (a), unless such publisher or broadcaster is the person making such claims.

(f) The plaintiff shall have the burden of proof in establishing any violation of this section.

(g) If an advertisement is in violation of subdivision (a) and Section 17500, the court shall not impose a separate civil penalty pursuant to Section 17536 for the violation of subdivision (a) and the violation of Section 17500 but shall impose a civil penalty for the violation of either subdivision (a) or Section 17500.

SEC. 2. In enacting this act, it is the intent of the Legislature to not create any new cause of action or to alter any provision of existing law proscribing untrue or misleading statements.

CHAPTER 948

An act to amend Sections 25915, 25916, 25917, 25920, and 25924 of, and to add Sections 25915.1, 25915.2, 25916.5, and 25923.1 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to asbestos notifications, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25915 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25915. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the owner of any building constructed prior to 1979, who knows that the building contains asbestos-containing construction materials, shall provide notice to all employees of that owner working within the building concerning all of the following:

(1) The existence of, conclusions from, and a description or list of the contents of, any survey known to the owner conducted to determine the existence and location of asbestos-containing construction materials within the building, and information describing when and where the results of the survey are available pursuant to Section 25917.

(2) Specific locations within the building known to the owner, or identified in a survey known to the owner, where asbestos-containing construction materials are present in any quantity.

(3) General procedures and handling restrictions necessary to prevent, and, if appropriate, to minimize disturbance, release, and exposure to the asbestos. If detailed handling instructions are necessary to ensure employee safety, the notice required by this section shall indicate where those instructions can be found.

(4) A summary of the results of any bulk sample analysis, or air monitoring, or monitoring conducted pursuant to Section 5208 of Title 8 of the California Code of Regulations, conducted for or by the owner or within the owner's control, including reference to sampling and laboratory procedures utilized, and information describing when and where the specific monitoring data and sampling procedures are available pursuant to Section 25917.

(5) Potential health risks or impacts that may result from exposure to the asbestos in the building as identified in surveys or tests referred to in this section, or otherwise known to the owner.

The notice may contain a description and explanation of the health action levels or exposure standards established by the state or federal government. However, if the notice contains this description, the notice shall include, at least, a description and explanation of the no significant risk level established pursuant to Chapter 6.6 (commencing with Section 25249.5) of Division 20, and specified in Section 12711 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, the school abatement clearance level specified in Section 49410.7 of the Education Code, and the action levels established by state and federal Occupational Safety and Health Act regulations.

The notice requirements specified in this subdivision shall not apply to an owner who elects to prepare an asbestos management plan pursuant to Section 25915.1 In those cases, the notice requirements specified in Section 25915.1 shall apply.

(b) If the owner has no special knowledge of the information required pursuant to paragraphs (3) and (5), of subdivision (a), the owner shall specifically inform his or her employees in the notice required by this section, that he or she lacks knowledge regarding handling instructions necessary to prevent and minimize release of, and exposure to, asbestos and the potential health impacts resulting from exposure to asbestos in the building, and shall encourage employees to contact local or state public health agencies.

SEC. 2. Section 25915.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25915.1. (a) An owner may elect to prepare an asbestos management plan for any building subject to this chapter, and in that case may, upon implementation of that plan, comply with the notification requirements of this chapter by providing notice to other owners and all employees of that owner working within the building of the following:

(1) The specific locations within the building where asbestos-containing construction materials are present in any quantity.

(2) Potential health risks or impacts that may result from exposure to the asbestos.

(3) Information to convey that moving, drilling, boring, or otherwise disturbing the asbestos-containing construction material identified may present a health risk and, consequently, should not be attempted by an employee who is not qualified to handle asbestos-containing construction material.

(4) The existence and availability of the management plan and a description of its contents.

(b) For purposes of this chapter, an asbestos management plan shall be designed to minimize the potential for release of asbestos fibers and to outline a schedule of actions to be undertaken with respect to the asbestos. The plan shall be prepared by a person accredited to prepare management plans for schools pursuant to Section 2646 of Title 15 of the United States Code and shall contain all of the following:

(1) The information specified in paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, of subdivision (a) of Section 25915.

(2) A description of an ongoing operations and maintenance program which shall include, but not be limited to, periodic reinspection and surveillance, suggested fiber release episode procedures, measures to minimize potential fiber releases, and information and training programs for building engineering and maintenance staff.

(3) Recordkeeping procedures to demonstrate implementation of the plan which shall be maintained for the life of the building to which they apply.

SEC. 3. Section 25915.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25915.2. (a) Notice provided pursuant to this chapter shall be provided in writing to each individual employee, and shall be mailed to other owners designated to receive the notice pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25915.5, within 15 days of the first receipt by the owner of information identifying the presence or location of asbestos-containing construction materials in the building, and shall be provided annually thereafter. In addition, if new information regarding those items specified in paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, of subdivision (a) of Section 25915 has been obtained during the previous 90 days, then a supplemental notice shall be provided within 15 days of the close of that previous 90-day period. Notice shall be provided to new employees within 15 days of commencement of work in the building, and shall be mailed to any new owner designated to receive the notice pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25915.5 within 15 days of the effective date of the agreement under which a person becomes a new owner.

(b) If a person contracting with an owner receives notice pursuant to this chapter, that contractor shall provide a copy of the notice to his or her employees or contractors working within the building.

(c) If the asbestos-containing construction material in the building is limited to an area or areas within the building that:

(1) Are unique and physically defined; and

(2) Contain asbestos-containing construction materials in structural, mechanical, or building materials which are not replicated throughout the building; and

(3) Are not connected to other areas through a common ventilation system;

then, an owner required to give notice to his or her employees pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25915 or 25915.1 may provide that notice only to the employees working within or entering that area or those areas of the building meeting the conditions above.

(d) If the asbestos-containing construction material in the building is limited to an area or areas within the building that:

(1) Are accessed only by building maintenance employees or contractors and are not accessed by tenants or employees in the building, other than on an incidental basis; and

(2) Contain asbestos-containing construction materials in structural, mechanical, or building materials which are not replicated in areas of the building which are accessed by tenants and employees; and

(3) The owner knows that no asbestos fibers are being released or have the reasonable possibility to be released from the material;

then, as to that asbestos-containing construction material, an owner required to give notice to his or her employees pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25915 or Section 25915.1 may provide that notice only to its building maintenance employees and contractors who have access to that area or those areas of the building meeting the conditions above.

(e) In those areas of a building where the asbestos-containing construction material is composed only of asbestos fibers which are completely encapsulated, if the owner knows that no asbestos fibers are being released or have the reasonable possibility to be released from that material in its present condition and has no knowledge that other asbestos-containing material is present, then an owner required to give notice pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25915 shall provide the information required in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 25915 and may substitute the following notice for the requirements of paragraphs (1), (3), (4), and (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 25915:

(1) The existence of, conclusions from, and a description or list of the contents of, that portion of any survey conducted to determine the existence and location of asbestos-containing construction materials within the building that refers to the asbestos materials described in this subdivision, and information describing when and where the results of the survey are available pursuant to Section 25917.

(2) Information to convey that moving, drilling, boring, or otherwise disturbing the asbestos-containing construction material identified may present a health risk and, consequently, should not be attempted by an unqualified employee. The notice shall identify the appropriate person the employee is required to contact if the condition of the asbestos-containing construction material deteriorates.

SEC. 4. Section 25916 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25916. If any construction, maintenance, or remodeling is conducted in an area of the building area where there is the potential for employees to come into contact with, or release or disturb, asbestos or asbestos-containing construction materials, the owner responsible for the performance of, or contracting for, any construction, maintenance, or remodeling in the area shall post that area with a clear and conspicuous warning notice. The posted warning notice shall read, in print which is readily visible because of its large size and bright color, as specified in either subdivision (a) or (b).

(a) "CAUTION. ASBESTOS. CANCER AND LUNG DISEASE HAZARD. DO NOT DISTURB WITHOUT PROPER TRAINING AND EQUIPMENT."

(b) "DANGER. ASBESTOS. CANCER AND LUNG DISEASE HAZARD. AUTHORIZED PERSONNEL ONLY. RESPIRATORS AND PROTECTIVE CLOTHING ARE REQUIRED IN THIS AREA."

SEC 5. Section 25916.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25916.5. (a) When there is more than one owner of a building or part of a building subject to this chapter, the owners may agree in writing to designate one particular owner to prepare any notice required pursuant to this chapter.

(b) Any owner, other than the owner preparing the notice, may use a notice prepared by another owner to satisfy the requirements of this chapter if all of the following are satisfied:

(1) The notice fully complies with that owner's obligations under this chapter.

(2) That owner does not know that the notice contains false or misleading information.

(3) That owner does not know that the owner who prepared the notice has failed to comply with this chapter.

SEC. 6. Section 25917 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25917. An owner shall make available, for review and photocopying, to other owners and all of his or her employees or those employees' representatives at an accessible place and time, all existing asbestos survey and monitoring data and any asbestos management plan which has been prepared, specific to the building. This place shall be within the building, or another building which is leased or also owned by the owner, located on the same property as the building, and accessible and convenient to employees, and shall be available during employee working hours, including lunch and break periods, if any owner maintains an office or similar facility in the building; if not, the survey, data, and asbestos management plan shall be available at another place, and at a time accessible and convenient to employees and their representatives. Any owner may enter into an agreement with another owner to provide the location where the survey, data, and asbestos management plan is available to employees within one building pursuant to this section.

SEC. 7. Section 25920 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 1502 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

25920. "Building," as used in this chapter, means all or part of any "public and commercial building," as defined in Section 2642 of Title 15 of the United States Code, as that section reads on January 1, 1989, except that "building" shall not mean residential dwellings.

SEC. 8. Section 25923.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25923.1. "Agent," as used in this chapter, means a person acting in accordance with Title 9 (commencing with Section 2295) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code for purposes of managing, operating, leasing, or performing a similar function with respect to a building subject to this chapter.

SEC. 9. Section 25924 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25924. Any owner who knowingly or intentionally fails to comply with the provisions of this chapter, or who knowingly or intentionally presents any false or misleading information to employees or any other owner, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000) or up to one year in the county jail, or both. This section shall become operative on July 1, 1989.

SEC. 10. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 11. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure timely and orderly implementation of the provisions regarding asbestos notifications contained in Chapter 10.4 (commencing with Section 25915) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 949

An act to add Chapter 1.4 (commencing with Section 140) to Part 1 of Division 1 of, and to repeal Sections 1632.5 and 1634 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to AIDS.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) While the number of cases of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) continues to mount, researchers have yet to discover a vaccine to prevent infection with the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), the etiologic agent for AIDS.

(b) Prevention efforts aimed at providing education and counseling to people at highest risk have demonstrated remarkable effects.

(c) Prevention efforts specifically targeted to people infected with HIV have resulted in dramatic decreases in at risk behaviors, especially among gay men. For example, education and counseling have resulted in a 95 percent reduction in annual transmission rates among gay men in San Francisco.

(d) The use of antiviral drugs, such as AZT, and antiopportunistic infection drugs clearly have prolonged the lives of people with advanced conditions related to HIV infections.

(e) Preliminary research suggests that early treatment of infected persons will prevent, minimize, or delay the onset of subsequent severe diseases.

(f) Early clinical intervention can obviate or minimize the need for hospitalization and other expensive care modalities for persons with HIV infection.

(g) For these reasons, early voluntary testing is strongly recommended for all persons at risk for HIV infection, in order to facilitate clinical intervention and early treatment of infected persons.

(h) All public and private providers of services to people with HIV should urge the general public, especially those who have engaged in high-risk behaviors, to seek testing for HIV infection.

(i) As is true with other catastrophic diseases, care and treatment for the spectrum of HIV-related illness is often more costly than necessary. Case management for people infected with HIV can ensure that an HIV-infected person will receive necessary and cost-effective medical services.

(j) Case management can also assist an HIV-infected person to gain access to appropriate private and public health coverage and to support services necessary to prolong life and enhance the quality of life.

(k) Early intervention is effective in terms of both human costs and economic costs.

(l) The costs of delivering early intervention services should be reasonably shared by the state and federal governments, private health insurers, and, to the extent possible, by the person with an HIV-related condition.

SEC. 2. Chapter 1.4 (commencing with Section 140) is added to Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.4. AIDS EARLY INTERVENTION PROJECTS

140. (a) The State Director of Health Services shall award contracts to early intervention projects to provide long-term services to persons infected with HIV. The purposes of the early intervention projects shall be to provide appropriate medical treatment to prevent or delay the progression of disease that results from HIV infection, to coordinate services available to HIV infected persons, and to provide information and education, including behavior change support, to HIV infected persons to prevent the spread of HIV infection to others. The director shall award contracts to early intervention projects from a variety of geographical areas. In selecting projects, the director shall ensure that each early intervention project will respond to the needs of its projected service area, will be sensitive to linguistic, ethnic, and cultural differences, and will accommodate the special needs of clients by taking into account the circumstances that placed them at risk for becoming infected with HIV. The director shall award contracts for early intervention services at a pace that reflects the availability of private, state, and federal reimbursement pursuant to Section 144. Prior to awarding contracts to new programs, the director shall consider utilizing existing services and programs with which it currently contracts, or which are currently in operation, and which provide HIV-related services.

(b) Early intervention projects that are awarded contracts pursuant to this section shall provide all of the following services:

(1) Health assessment of HIV infected persons, including, but not limited to, a physical examination and immunologic and clinical monitoring.

(2) Health education and behavior change support related to reducing the risk of spreading HIV infection to others and to maximize the healthy and productive lives of HIV infected persons.

(3) Psychosocial counseling services.

(4) Information and referrals for social services.

(5) Information and referrals on available research for the treatment of HIV infection.

(6) Covered outpatient preventative or therapeutic health care services related to HIV infection, as determined by the director.

(7) Case management.

(c) An early intervention project shall establish a core case management team for each client to assess the needs of the client and to develop, implement, and evaluate the client's written individual service plan. As needed by the client, the individual service plan shall include services specified in subdivision (b), other support services, legal services, public assistance, insurance, and inpatient and outpatient health care services needs of the client. A core case management team shall include, but not be limited to, a physician and surgeon, a physician assistant or nurse practitioner, a health educator, a case manager, and the client. Case management in an early intervention project shall incorporate an interdisciplinary approach. Other professionals, paraprofessionals, and other interested persons deemed appropriate by the members of the core case management team also may be included. The case manager shall coordinate the objectives specified in the client's individual service plan. The case manager also shall monitor and assist the client through all services provided by the project and shall provide information, guidance, and assistance to the client regarding support services, legal services, public assistance, insurance, and inpatient and outpatient health care services. The project shall designate a sufficient number of case managers to reflect case manager-to-client ratios established by the department.

141. (a) The director shall commence awarding contracts to projects on or before July 1, 1990. In awarding contracts to early intervention projects, the director may select projects from each of the following models:

(1) A privately operated profit or nonprofit clinic which is not licensed as part of a health facility and which provides all of the services specified in subdivision (b) of Section 140.

(2) A publicly operated clinic which is not licensed as part of a health facility and which provides all of the services specified in subdivision (b) of Section 140.

(3) A combination of independent privately operated clinics, publicly operated clinics, and other health care providers which in total provide all of the services specified in subdivision (b) of Section 140.

(4) Any other model which the director considers worthy of receiving funds.

(b) An applicant for a contract to operate an early intervention project that is not a part of a county health department shall submit its application to the county health department for review and comment. The county health department shall provide comment on the application to the state department within a time period to be specified by the state department. The failure by a county health department to comment on an application submitted to it within the time period specified by the state department shall not jeopardize the application, and the state department in a case of this nature may process and award a contract in the absence of comment by the county health department.

(c) An applicant for a contract to operate an early intervention project shall indicate in its application how it intends to coordinate with county health department programs, community-based organizations that provide HIV-related services, and other public and private entities which may provide services to a person who is infected with HIV.

142. (a) The state department shall collect data from the early intervention projects, assess the effectiveness of the different models of early intervention projects, and report its findings to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1992, and on or before January 1 of each subsequent year.

(b) The state department shall continuously collect data from each early intervention project. The data collected may include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) The total number of clients served.

(2) The number of clients utilizing each service provided by the project.

(3) Demographics on clients in the aggregate.

(4) The source of funding for each type of service provided.

(5) The cost of each type of service provided.

(6) Medical treatment modalities utilized in the aggregate.

(7) Changes in the clinical status of clients in the aggregate.

(8) Changes in behaviors that present risks of transmitting HIV infection of the clients in the aggregate.

(9) The psychosocial changes of clients in the aggregate.

(10) Referrals made by the project.

(11) Perceived unmet needs of the clients served by the project.

(c) The state department shall develop and distribute to each early intervention project forms for data collection that are designed to elicit information necessary for the state department to comply with the requirements of subdivision (b). The data may be used by the state department to comply with the requirements of subdivision (a).

143. (a) The state department shall establish a reimbursement schedule for all of the services detailed in subdivision (b) of Section 140. The amounts to be reimbursed for these services shall be commensurate with the costs of providing these services.

(b) The state department shall develop and disseminate guidelines to assist early intervention projects in identifying appropriate public and private payers of early intervention services. The guidelines shall take into account each client's access to, and eligibility for, private health insurance and public medical assistance. The guidelines shall include, but not be limited to, the reimbursement schedule established pursuant to subdivision (a) and the elements identified in subdivisions (c) to (h), inclusive.

(c) Reimbursement under this chapter shall not be made for any services which are available to the client under a private health insurance program. Early intervention projects shall inquire of each client as to the client's coverage by a private health insurance policy.

Where a client has a private health insurance policy, the early intervention project shall bill the insurer for those services in subdivision (b) of Section 140 that are covered by the client's policy.

(d) The state department shall develop and implement, or cause to be implemented by an early intervention project, a uniform sliding fee schedule for services provided to individuals under this chapter. The schedule shall be based on the client's ability to pay.

(e) The state department may apply for any funds available from the federal government for the reimbursement of those services to be provided by early intervention projects, including, but not limited to, funds available pursuant to Section 2318 of the Public Health Service Act, as added by Public Law 100-607, which provides for the development of model protocols for the clinical care of individuals who are infected with HIV.

(f) To the extent permitted under existing law, the Medi-Cal program shall provide reimbursement to early intervention projects for services provided under this chapter that are covered under the Medi-Cal program. This subdivision shall not be construed to confer Medi-Cal eligibility on any person who does not meet existing Medi-Cal eligibility requirements.

(g) The state department shall use federal and state general funds which are appropriated for the purpose of purchasing HIV-related drug treatments and related services, to reimburse for covered outpatient preventative or therapeutic health care services, as defined by the director, provided that the client is eligible for a federal or state program that subsidizes the cost of HIV-related drugs and related services. If Assembly Bill 2251 of the 1989–90 Regular Session is enacted, the state department shall use the provisions in Chapter 1.85 (commencing with Section 188) of Part 1 of Division 1 to implement this subdivision.

(h) The state department shall use moneys from the General Fund to cover expenses for early intervention services that are not otherwise reimbursed, to the extent that moneys from the General Fund are expressly appropriated to the state department for early intervention services.

144. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that people with HIV infection may not avail themselves of early intervention services unless they are aware of the availability of the services and the efficacy of early intervention in prolonging life. This awareness by HIV-infected persons is critical to maximizing the benefits of early intervention. Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature that the department includes early intervention education as a component of information and education grants in the first grant cycle following enactment of this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 1632.5 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 1634 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 950

An act to amend Sections 830.1, 830.31, and 13507 of the Penal Code, relating to peace officers, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 830.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.1. (a) Any sheriff, undersheriff, or deputy sheriff, regularly employed and paid as such, of a county, any police officer of a city, any police officer of a district (including police officers of the San Diego Unified Port District Harbor Police) authorized by statute to maintain a police department, any marshal or deputy marshal of a municipal court, any constable or deputy constable, regularly employed and paid as such, of a judicial district, any port warden or special officer of the Harbor Department of the City of Los Angeles, or any inspector or investigator regularly employed and paid as such in the office of a district attorney, is a peace officer. The authority of any such peace officer extends to any place in the state:

(1) As to any public offense committed or which there is probable cause to believe has been committed within the political subdivision which employs him; or

(2) Where he has the prior consent of the chief of police, or person authorized by him to give such consent, if the place is within a city or of the sheriff, or person authorized by him to give such consent, if the place is within a county; or

(3) As to any public offense committed or which there is probable cause to believe has been committed in his presence, and with respect to which there is immediate danger to person or property, or of the escape of the perpetrator of such offense.

(b) The Deputy Director, assistant directors, chiefs, assistant chiefs, special agents, and narcotics agents of the Department of Justice, and such investigators who are designated by the Attorney General are peace officers. The authority of any such peace officer extends to any place in the state as to a public offense committed or which there is probable cause to believe has been committed within the state.

SEC 1 1 Section 830.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.1. (a) Any sheriff, undersheriff, or deputy sheriff, regularly employed and paid in that capacity, of a county, any police officer of a city, any police officer of a district (including police officers of the San Diego Unified Port District Harbor Police) authorized by statute to maintain a police department, any marshal or deputy marshal of a municipal court, any constable or deputy constable, regularly employed and paid in that capacity, of a judicial district, any port warden or special officer of the Harbor Department of the City of Los Angeles, or any inspector or investigator regularly employed and paid in that capacity in the office of a district attorney, is a peace officer. The authority of these peace officers extends to any place in the state, as follows:

(1) As to any public offense committed or which there is probable cause to believe has been committed within the political subdivision which employs the peace officer.

(2) Where the peace officer has the prior consent of the chief of police, or person authorized by him to give consent, if the place is within a city or of the sheriff, or person authorized by him or her to give consent, if the place is within a county.

(3) As to any public offense committed or which there is probable cause to believe has been committed in the peace officer's presence, and with respect to which there is immediate danger to person or property, or of the escape of the perpetrator of the offense.

(b) The Deputy Director, assistant directors, chiefs, assistant chiefs, special agents, and narcotics agents of the Department of Justice, and those investigators who are designated by the Attorney General are peace officers. The authority of these peace officers extends to any place in the state as to a public offense committed or which there is probable cause to believe has been committed within the state.

SEC. 1.2. Section 830.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.1. (a) Any sheriff, undersheriff, or deputy sheriff, regularly employed and paid in that capacity, of a county, any police officer of a city, any police officer of a district (including police officers of the San Diego Unified Port District Harbor Police) authorized by statute to maintain a police department, any marshal or deputy marshal of a municipal court, any constable or deputy constable, regularly employed and paid in that capacity, of a judicial district, any port warden or special officer of the Harbor Department of the City of Los Angeles, or any inspector or investigator regularly employed and paid in that capacity in the office of a district attorney, is a peace officer. The authority of these peace officers extends to any place in the state, as follows:

(1) As to any public offense committed or which there is probable cause to believe has been committed within the political subdivision which employs the peace officer.

(2) Where the peace officer has the prior consent of the chief of police, or person authorized by him or her to give consent, if the place is within a city or of the sheriff, or person authorized by him or her to give consent, if the place is within a county.

(3) As to any public offense committed or which there is probable cause to believe has been committed in the peace officer's presence, and with respect to which there is immediate danger to person or property, or of the escape of the perpetrator of the offense.

(b) The Deputy Director, assistant directors, chiefs, assistant chiefs, special agents, and narcotics agents of the Department of Justice, and those investigators who are designated by the Attorney General are peace officers. The authority of these peace officers extends to any place in the state as to a public offense committed or which there is probable cause to believe has been committed within the state

SEC. 1.3. Section 830.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.1. (a) Any sheriff, undersheriff, or deputy sheriff, regularly employed and paid in that capacity, of a county, any police officer of a city, any police officer of a district (including police officers of the San Diego Unified Port District Harbor Police) authorized by statute to maintain a police department, any marshal or deputy marshal of a municipal court, any constable or deputy constable, regularly employed and paid in that capacity, of a judicial district, any port warden or special officer of the Harbor Department of the City of Los Angeles, or any inspector or investigator regularly employed and paid in that capacity in the office of a district attorney, is a peace officer. The authority of these peace officers extends to any place in the state, as follows:

(1) As to any public offense committed or which there is probable cause to believe has been committed within the political subdivision which employs the peace officer.

(2) Where the peace officer has the prior consent of the chief of police, or person authorized by him or her to give consent, if the place is within a city or of the sheriff, or person authorized by him or her to give consent, if the place is within a county.

(3) As to any public offense committed or which there is probable cause to believe has been committed in the peace officer's presence, and with respect to which there is immediate danger to person or property, or of the escape of the perpetrator of the offense.

(b) The Deputy Director, assistant directors, chiefs, assistant chiefs, special agents, and narcotics agents of the Department of Justice, and those investigators who are designated by the Attorney General are peace officers. The authority of these peace officers extends to any place in the state as to a public offense committed or which there is probable cause to believe has been committed within the state.

SEC. 2. Section 830.31 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.31. The following persons are peace officers whose authority extends to any place in the state for the purpose of performing their primary duty or when making an arrest pursuant to Section 836 as to any public offense with respect to which there is immediate danger to person or property, or of the escape of the perpetrator of that offense, or pursuant to Section 8597 or 8598 of the Government Code. Those peace officers may carry firearms only if authorized and under terms and conditions specified by their employing agency.

(a) (1) Members of an arson-investigating unit, regularly paid and employed in that position of a fire protection agency of the state, of a county, city, or district, if the primary duty of the arson investigators is the detection and apprehension of persons who have violated any fire law or committed insurance fraud.

(2) Members of a fire department or fire protection agency of the state, or a county, city, or district regularly paid and employed in that position if the primary duty of fire department or fire protection agency members other than arson investigators when acting as peace officers is the enforcement of laws relating to fire prevention and fire suppression.

(b) Persons designated by a local agency as park rangers, and regularly employed and paid as such, if the primary duty of the peace officer is the protection of park and other property of the agency and the preservation of the peace therein.

(c) Members of a community college police department appointed pursuant to Section 72330 of the Education Code, if the primary duty of the peace officer is the enforcement of the law as prescribed in Section 72330 of the Education Code.

(d) A welfare fraud investigator or inspector, regularly employed and paid as such by a county, if the primary duty of the peace officer is the enforcement of the provisions of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) A child support investigator or inspector, regularly employed and paid as such by a district attorney's office, if the primary duty of the peace officer is the enforcement of the provisions of the Welfare and Institutions Code and Section 270.

(f) The coroner and deputy coroners, regularly employed and paid as such, of a county, if the primary duty of the peace officer are those duties set forth in Sections 27469 and 27491 to 27491.4, inclusive, of the Government Code.

(g) A member of the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District Police Department appointed pursuant to Section 28767.5 of the Public Utilities Code, if the primary duty of the peace officer is the enforcement of the law in or about properties owned, operated, or administered by the district or when performing necessary duties with respect to patrons, employees, and properties of the district.

(h) Harbor or port police regularly employed and paid as such by a county, city, or district other than peace officers authorized under Section 830.1, if the primary duty of the peace officer is the enforcement of the law in or about the properties owned, operated, or administered by the harbor or port or when performing necessary duties with respect to patrons, employees, and properties of the harbor or port.

(i) Persons designated as a security officer by a municipal utility district pursuant to Section 12820 of the Public Utilities Code, if the primary duty of the officer is the protection of the properties of the utility district and the protection of the persons thereon.

(j) Persons designated as a security officer by a county water district pursuant to Section 30547 of the Water Code, if the primary duty of the officer is the protection of the properties of the county water district and the protection of the persons thereon.

(k) The security director of the public utilities commission of a city and county, if the primary duty of the security director is the protection of the properties of the commission and the protection of persons thereon.

SEC. 3. Section 13507 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13507. As used in this chapter, "district" means any of the following:

(a) A regional park district.

(b) A district authorized by statute to maintain a police department.

(c) The University of California.

(d) The California State University and Colleges.

(e) A community college district.

(f) A school district.

(g) A transit district.

(h) A harbor district.

SEC. 4. (a) Section 1.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 830.1 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and SB 353. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective January 1, 1990, (2) each bill amends Section 830.1 of the Penal Code, and (3) SB 655 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 353, in which case Sections 1, 1.2, and 1.3 of this bill shall not become operative

(b) Section 1.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 830.1 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and SB 655. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective January 1, 1990, (2) each bill amends Section 830.1 of the Penal Code, (3) SB 353 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 655 in which case Sections 1, 1.1, and 1.3 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 1.3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 830.1 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, SB 353, and SB 655. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective January 1, 1990, (2) all three bills amend Section 830.1 of the Penal Code, (3) this bill is enacted after SB 353 and SB 655, in which case Sections 1, 1.1, and 1.2 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 951

An act to add Article 8 (commencing with Section 19210) to Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to earthquake protection.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 8 (commencing with Section 19210) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 8. Water Heater Strapping and Installation

19210. The Legislature finds and declares that there exists a serious threat of fire, explosion, or electrocution to the people of California from water heaters that overturn or experience damage to the plumbing or electrical wiring during an earthquake, and that a large number of structures will suffer damage from water heaters due to the lack of adequate strapping or bracing. The Legislature further finds and declares that it is the goal of the State of California to reduce earthquake hazards in this state. Therefore, it is the goal of the Legislature to ensure that all water heaters are strapped or properly anchored by the year 2000.

19211. Notwithstanding Section 19100, all new and replacement water heaters sold in California on or after July 1, 1991 shall be braced, anchored, or strapped to resist falling or horizontal displacement due to earthquake motion.

19212. All water heaters manufactured for sale in California on or after July 1, 1991, shall include a statement in the installation instructions that water heater units must be braced, anchored, or strapped to resist falling or horizontal displacement due to earthquake motion. The instructions provided by the manufacturer may include a reproduction of the generic installation instructions and standard details as prepared by the Office of the State Architect in accordance with Section 19215.

19213. Manufacturers shall add language to their instruction label on the front of the water heater which discloses the danger of falling or horizontal displacement due to an earthquake. The label shall contain the following language:

WARNING: THIS WATER HEATER MUST BE BRACED, ANCHORED, OR STRAPPED TO AVOID FALLING OR MOVING DURING AN EARTHQUAKE. SEE INSTRUCTIONS FOR CORRECT INSTALLATION PROCEDURES.

19214. Any person who violates Section 19212 or 19213 shall be deemed to have violated a provision of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 17000) of Part 2 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code.

19216. At the point of sale, the retailer may provide the consumer with generic installation instructions with standard details approved by the Office of the State Architect. If provided, these generic instructions are intended to be provided to the consumer as a guide, and are not intended to supersede local codes. The retailer and manufacturer are deemed not to be liable for the generic instructions provided to consumers as long as these have been approved by the Office of the State Architect, as complying with the requirements of the model code in force on the date of approval.

19217. The Public Utilities Commission shall direct the investor owned gas and electrical utilities, not later than January 1, 1991, to develop an educational program for bracing, anchoring, and strapping water heaters to resist falling or horizontal displacement due to earthquakes.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 952

An act to amend Sections 18909, 18916, 18929, 18938, 18941.5, and 18942 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to building standards.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18909 of the Health and Safety Code, is amended to read:

18909. (a) "Building standard" means any rule, regulation, order, or other requirement, including any amendment or repeal of that requirement, which specifically regulates, requires, or forbids the method of use, properties, performance, or types of materials used in the construction, alteration, improvement, repair, or rehabilitation of a building, structure, factory-built housing, or other improvement to real property, including fixtures therein, and as determined by the commission.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (d), "building standard" includes architectural and design functions of a building or structure, including, but not limited to, number and location of doors, windows, and other openings, stress or loading characteristics of materials, and methods of fabrication, clearances, and other functions.

(c) "Building standard" does not include a regulation, rule, or order relating to the enforcement of a building standard, including the penalties for failure to comply with a building standard.

(d) "Building standard" does not include any safety regulations which any state agency is authorized to adopt relating to the operation of machinery and equipment used in manufacturing, processing, or fabricating, including, but not limited to, warehousing and food processing operations, but not including safety regulations relating to permanent appendages, accessories, apparatus, appliances, and equipment attached to the building as a part thereof, as determined by the commission.

(e) "Building standard" does not include temporary scaffoldings and similar temporary safety devices and procedures, which are used in the erection, demolition, moving, or alteration of buildings.

(f) "Building standard" does not include any regulation relating to operations or procedures established for the administration of a program of a state agency or for the internal management of a state agency.

(g) "Building standard" does not include any regulation, rule, order, or standard which pertains to mobilehomes, manufactured homes, commercial coaches, special purpose commercial coaches, or recreational vehicles.

(h) "Building standard" does not include any regulation, rule, or order or standard which pertains to a mobilehome park, recreational vehicle park, temporary recreational vehicle park, or travel trailer park, except that "building standard" includes the construction of permanent buildings and plumbing, electrical, and fuel gas equipment and installations within permanent buildings in mobilehome parks, recreational vehicle parks, temporary recreational vehicle parks, or travel trailer parks. For purposes of this subdivision, "permanent building" means any permanent structure constructed in the mobilehome park, recreational vehicle park, temporary recreational vehicle park, or travel trailer park which is a permanent facility under the control and ownership of the park operator.

(i) "Building standard" does not include any regulation, rule, order, or standard which pertains to mausoleums regulated under Part 5 (commencing with Section 9501) of Division 8.

(j) "Building standard" does not include any regulation adopted by the State Department of Health Services or the State Water Resources Control Board concerning the discharge of waste to land or the treatment, transfer, storage, resource recovery, disposal, or recycling of the hazardous waste.

SEC. 2. Section 18916 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18916. "Model code" means any building code drafted by private organizations or otherwise, and shall include, but not be limited to, the latest edition of the following:

(a) The Uniform Building Code of the International Conference of Building Officials.

(b) The Uniform Plumbing Code of the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials.

(c) The Uniform Mechanical Code of the International Conference of Building Officials and the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials.

(d) The National Electrical Code of the National Fire Protection Association.

(e) The Uniform Fire Code of the International Conference of Building Officials and the Western Fire Chiefs Association, Inc.

SEC. 3. Section 18929 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18929. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), administrative regulations adopted by state agencies that apply directly to the implementation or enforcement of building standards shall be forwarded to the Building Standards Commission for approval. Each regulation shall be adopted in compliance with procedures specified in Article 5 (commencing with Section 11346) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and Section 18930 of the Health and Safety Code. These administrative regulations shall be published in the administrative chapters of the California Building Standards Code.

(b) Any administrative regulations adopted by the Department of Housing and Community Development are exempt from the requirements of this section.

SEC. 4. Section 18938 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18938. (a) Building standards or administrative regulations that apply directly to the implementation or enforcement of building standards shall be filed with the Secretary of State and codified only after they have been approved by the commission and shall not be published in any other title of the California Code of Regulations. Emergency standards or administrative regulations that apply directly to the implementation or enforcement of building standards shall be filed with the Secretary of State and shall take effect only after they have been approved by the commission as required by Section 18937. The filing of building standards or administrative regulations that apply directly to the implementation or enforcement of building standards adopted or approved pursuant to this part, or any certification with respect thereto, with the Secretary of State, or elsewhere as required by law, shall be done solely by the commission

(b) An adoption, amendment, or repeal of a building standard shall become effective 180 days after its publication in the triennial edition of the California Building Standards Code or one of its supplements, or at any later date as approved by the Building Standards Commission. This subdivision shall not apply to emergency standards, and standards approved pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 142.3 of the Labor Code and published pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 18943.

(c) This section shall not be applicable to the time limits set forth in Sections 17922 and 17958 for approval of uniform codes and for changes by local agencies in the California Building Standards Code.

SEC. 5. Section 18941.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18941 5. (a) The building standards contained in the Uniform Fire Code of the International Conference of Building Officials and the Western Fire Chiefs Association, Inc., the Uniform Building Code of the International Conference of Building Officials, the Uniform Plumbing Code of the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials, the National Electrical Code of the National Fire Protection Association, the Uniform Mechanical Code of the International Conference of Building Officials and the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials as referenced in the State Building Standards Code shall apply to all occupancies throughout the state and shall become effective 180 days after publication in the State Building Standards Code by the State Building Standards Commission or at a later date after publication established by the commission.

(b) Amendments, additions, and deletions to the State Building Standards Code adopted by a city, county, or city and county pursuant to subdivision (c) or pursuant to Section 17958.7, together with all applicable portions of the State Building Standards Code, shall become effective 180 days after publication the State Building Standards Code by the State Building Standards Commission or at a later date after publication established by the commission.

(c) Neither the State Building Standards Law contained in this part, nor the application of building standards contained in this section, shall limit the authority of a city, county or city and county to establish more restrictive building standards reasonably necessary because of local climatic, geological, or topographical conditions. The governing body shall make the finding required by Section 17958.7 and the other requirements imposed by Section 17958.7 shall apply to that finding.

(d) No model code made applicable to any additional occupancy shall apply to any project which has been submitted for a building permit prior to the effective date of that model code.

SEC. 6. Section 18942 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18942. (a) The commission shall publish, or cause to be published, editions of the code in its entirety once in every three years. In each intervening year the commission shall publish, or cause to be published, supplements as necessary. For emergency standards defined in subdivision (a) of Section 18913, an emergency standards supplement shall be published whenever the commission determines it is necessary. The commission shall also publish, for emergency standards defined in subdivision (b) of Section 18913 and for building standards or administrative regulations that apply directly to the implementation or enforcement of building standards approved pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 142.3 of the Labor Code, a semiannual supplement, or a more frequent supplement if required by federal law.

(b) Emergency standards defined in subdivision (a) of Section 18913 shall become effective when approved by the commission, and filed with the Secretary of State, or upon any later date specified therein, and remain in effect as provided by Section 11346.1 of the Government Code and Section 18937 of this code. Emergency standards shall be distributed as soon as practicable after publication to all interested and affected parties. Notice of repeal pursuant to Section 11346.1 of the Government Code of emergency standards defined in subdivision (a) of Section 18913 within the period specified by that section shall also be given to the parties by the affected agencies promptly after the termination of the statutory period pursuant to Section 11346.1 of the Government Code.

(c) The commission may publish, stockpile, and sell at a reasonable price the code and any materials incorporated therein by reference if it deems the latter is insufficiently available to the public, or unavailable at a reasonable price. Each state department concerned and each city, county, or city and county shall have an up-to-date copy of the code available for public inspection.

(d) Each city, county, and city and county, including charter cities, shall obtain and maintain with all revisions on a current basis, at least one copy of the building standards and other state regulations relating to buildings published in Title 8, 19, 20, 24, and 25 of the California Code of Regulations. These codes shall be maintained in the office of the building official responsible for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this part.

This subdivision shall not apply to any city or county which contracts for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this part with another local government agency which complies with this section.

SEC. 7. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 953

An act to add Section 17705.1 to the Education Code, to add Section 53097.5 to the Government Code, and to add Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 16500) to Division 12.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to school buildings.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53097.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53097.5. A county or city may inspect school buildings, as defined in Section 39141 of the Education Code, pursuant to guidelines adopted pursuant to Section 16500 of the Health and Safety Code or pursuant to any local ordinance regulating substandard conditions in buildings used for human habitation. The results of the inspections shall be forwarded to the office of the State Architect.

SEC. 2. Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 16500) is added to Division 12.5 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3. SCHOOL BUILDINGS

16500. The office of the State Architect shall adopt guidelines applicable to substandard conditions of school buildings, as defined in Section 39141 of the Education Code, which guidelines shall take into consideration the unique design, use, safety needs, and construction of the school buildings.

CHAPTER 954

An act to amend Sections 18504, 18513, 18525, 18534, and 18545 of, and to add Sections 18507.4, 18515.3, 18535.4, and 18546.10 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) Existing law provides for deductions against taxes for designations on tax returns for contributions to various "check-off" programs.

(b) The Governor, in 1987, provided the following veto message with respect to a bill which would have created a new check-off program:

"While I am sympathetic to the charity this bill seeks to serve, there are theoretically no limits on the number of other worthy charities that might similarly benefit from a designation on the state tax form. Yet, there are clearly limits to the number of designations that can be reasonably accommodated. Data compiled by the Franchise Tax Board indicate the existence of a saturation point beyond which the addition of more charitable designations diminishes the effectiveness of the existing designations. I believe that in signing the checkoffs for Alzheimer's disease and the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund, we have reached that point and should resist further attempts to add checkoffs to the California tax return."

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature to ensure the effectiveness of existing and future check-off programs by providing appropriate parameters for those programs.

SEC. 2. Section 18504 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18504. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 2.5. Section 18507.4 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18507.4. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 3. Section 18513 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18513. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 4. Section 18515.3 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18515.3. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute which is enacted before January 1, 1991, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 5. Section 18525 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18525. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 6. Section 18534 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18534. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 6.5. Section 18535.4 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18535.4. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 7. Section 18545 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18545. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date, is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 7.5. Section 18546.10 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18546.10 (a) This article shall remain in effect only until three years after the operative date of this article, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before that date, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 8. If Article 6 (commencing with Section 18500), 6.5 (commencing with Section 18510), 6.7 (commencing with Section 18515), 7 (commencing with Section 18520), 7.5 (commencing with Section 18530), or 8 (commencing with Section 18540) of Chapter 17 of Part 10 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed because the total contributions made pursuant to any article are less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), the Franchise Tax Board shall provide written notification of that fact and repeal to the Secretary of State. The Franchise Tax Board shall also provide a copy of that notification to the Secretary of the Senate, for publication in the Senate Journal, and to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, for publication in the Assembly Journal.

SEC. 9. It is the intent of the Legislature that costs for processing the voluntary contributions are as low as possible so that the funds receive the maximum benefit from the taxpayers' contributions.

SEC. 10. In any fiscal year in which the Franchise Tax Board's administrative costs for any fund exceeds 3 percent of the total amount contributed to the fund for the first year of the fund or 2 percent of the total amount contributed to the fund for any year thereafter, the Franchise Tax Board shall report to the Legislature both of the following:

(a) The reason the administrative costs exceeded the target amount.

(b) A plan for reducing the administrative costs for subsequent years.

SEC. 11. In any fiscal year in which the Controller's administrative costs for any fund exceeds 2 percent of the total amount contributed to the fund for the first year of the fund or 1 percent of the total amount contributed to the fund for any year thereafter, the Controller shall report to the Legislature both of the following:

(a) The reason the administrative costs exceeded the target amount.

(b) A plan for reducing the administrative costs for subsequent years.

SEC. 12. Section 2.5 of this act shall become operative only if Senate Bill 1353 of the 1989–90 Regular Session is chaptered.

SEC. 13. Section 6.5 of this act shall become operative only if Senate Bill 1009 of the 1989–90 Regular Session is chaptered.

SEC. 14. Section 7.5 of this act shall become operative only if Senate Bill 1474 of the 1989–90 Regular Session is chaptered.

CHAPTER 955

An act to add Section 27491.41 to the Government Code, relating to sudden infant death syndrome.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27491.41 is added to the Government Code, to read:

27491.41. (a) For purposes of this section, "sudden infant death syndrome" means the sudden death of any infant which is unexpected by the history of the infant and where a thorough postmortem examination fails to demonstrate an adequate cause of death.

(b) The Legislature finds and declares that sudden infant death syndrome (SIDS) is the leading cause of death for children under age one, striking one out of every 500 children. The Legislature finds and declares that sudden infant death syndrome is a serious problem within the State of California, and that public interest is served by research and study of sudden infant death syndrome, and its potential causes and indications.

(c) To facilitate these purposes, the coroner shall, within 24 hours, or as soon thereafter as feasible, perform an autopsy in any case where an infant has died suddenly and unexpectedly.

(d) The autopsy shall be conducted pursuant to a standardized protocol developed by the State Department of Health Services. The State Department of Health Services shall convene a sudden infant death syndrome autopsy protocol committee to develop and establish the protocol. The committee shall include, at a minimum, State Department of Health Services staff with expertise in sudden infant death syndrome, an epidemiologist, a forensic pathologist, a pediatric pathologist, a medical examiner, a county coroner, and a pediatrician with expertise in sudden infant death syndrome and child abuse. The protocol is exempt from the procedural requirements pertaining to the adoption of administrative rules and regulations pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 11342) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The committee may amend or modify the protocol as appropriate. The protocol shall be developed and approved by July 1, 1990.

(e) The protocol, as developed by the committee, shall be followed by all coroners throughout the state when conducting the autopsies required by this section. The coroner shall state on the certificate of death that sudden infant death syndrome was the cause of death when the coroner's findings are consistent with the definition of sudden infant death syndrome specified in the standardized autopsy protocol. The protocol may include requirements and standards for scene investigations, requirements for specific data, criteria for ascertaining cause of death based on the autopsy, and criteria for any specific tissue sampling, and any other requirements. The protocol may also require that specific tissue samples must be provided to a central tissue repository designated by the State Department of Health Services.

(f) The State Department of Health Services shall establish procedures and protocols for access by researchers to any tissues, or other materials or data authorized by this section. Research may be conducted by any individual with a valid scientific interest and prior approval from the State Committee for the Protection of Human Subjects. The tissue samples, the materials, and all data shall be subject to the confidentiality requirements of Section 10805 of the Health and Safety Code.

(g) The coroner may take tissue samples for research purposes from infants who have died suddenly and unexpectedly without consent of the responsible adult if the tissue removal is not likely to result in any visible disfigurement.

(h) A coroner shall not be liable for damages in a civil action for any act or omission done in compliance with this section.

(i) No consent of any person is required prior to undertaking the autopsy required by this section. However, if the physician of record certifies the cause of death is sudden infant death syndrome and the parents object to an autopsy on religious or ethical grounds, no autopsy shall be required.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 956

An act to amend Sections 4049.50 and 4049.51 of, and to add Sections 4049.52 and 4049.53 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to water supply.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4049.50 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

4049.50. Local health officers may maintain programs for the control of cross-connections by water users, within the users' premises, where public exposure to drinking water contaminated by backflow may occur. The programs may include inspections within water users premises for the purpose of identifying cross-connection hazards and determining appropriate backflow protection. Water users shall comply with all orders, instructions, regulations, and notices from the local health officer with respect to the installation, testing, and maintenance of backflow prevention devices. The local health officer may collect fees from those water users subject to inspection to offset the costs of implementing cross-connection control programs.

SEC. 2. Section 4049.51 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

4049.51. (a) Local health officers may maintain programs, in cooperation with water suppliers, to protect against backflow through service connections into the public water supply, and, with the consent of the water supplier, may collect fees from the water supplier to offset the costs of implementing these programs.

(b) The fees authorized under this section and under Section 4049.50 shall be limited to the costs of administering these programs. At the discretion of the water supplier, the fees collected from the water supplier by the local health officer may be passed through to water users.

(c) Programs authorized under this section and Section 4049.50 shall be conducted in accordance with backflow protection regulations adopted by the State Department of Health Services.

(d) Nothing in this chapter shall prevent a water supplier from directly charging those water users required to install backflow prevention devices for the costs of the programs authorized in this section and Section 4049.50.

SEC. 3. Section 4049.52 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

4049.52. To assure that testing and maintenance of backflow prevention devices are performed by persons qualified to do testing and maintenance, local health officers may maintain programs for certification of backflow prevention device testers. The local health officer may suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the certificate of a tester, if, after a hearing before the local health officer or his or her designee, the local health officer or his or her designee finds that the tester has practiced fraud or deception or has displayed gross negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duties as a certified backflow prevention device tester. The local health officer may collect fees from certified testers to offset the cost of the certification program provided pursuant to this section. The certification standards shall be consistent with the backflow protection regulations adopted by the State Department of Health Services.

SEC. 4. Pursuant to Section 14012 of the Water Code, the Department of Water Resources is hereby authorized to make grants from the California Safe Drinking Water Bond Fund in accordance with the California Safe Drinking Water Bond Law of 1988 (Chapter 16 (commencing with Section 14000) of Division 7 of the Water Code), to the following agencies for purposes of financing proposed projects and investigations to identify alternatives for system improvements therefor:

(a) Amador County Water Agency (Ridge System).
(b) Amador County Water Agency (Previtali System).
(c) Amador County Water Agency (Bosse Road).
(d) Amador County Water Agency (Simmon System).
(e) Colusa County Service Area (Lurline Road).
(f) Elmira Community Services District.
(g) Georgetown Divide Public Utility District (Kelsey South).
(h) Georgetown Divide Public Utility District (Pilot Hill South).
(i) Mariposa County Service Area (Bear Valley).
(j) Mariposa County Service Area (Hornitos Water).

(k) Mariposa County Service Area (Mt. Bullion Water).
(l) Mono County Service Area #5 (Twin Lakes).
(m) Nevada Irrigation District (Deer Creek Park).
(n) Nevada Irrigation District (Highland Park).
(o) Nevada Irrigation District (Rohr-Shanley).
(p) Nevada Irrigation District (Sidnam and Hile Pipes).
(q) Nevada Irrigation District (Starbright Acres #1).
(r) Nevada Irrigation District (Starbright Acres #2).
(s) Placer County Water Agency (525 and 32 Boardman Canal).
(t) Placer County Water Agency (Dutch Flat).
(u) Placer County Water Agency (Eastside Pipe).
(v) Placer County Water Agency (Westside Pipe).
(w) San Luis Obispo County Waterworks District #6 (Santa Margarita).
(x) San Luis Obispo County Waterworks District #1 (San Miguel).
(y) Sutter Community Services District.
(z) Truckee-Donner Public Utility District (Hirschdale).
(aa) Tuolumne County (Shaws Flat).
(bb) Tuolumne County (Soulsbyville).

SEC. 5. Pursuant to Section 13896.2 of the Water Code, the Department of Water Resources is hereby authorized to make a grant from the California Safe Drinking Water Bond Fund, in accordance with the California Safe Drinking Water Bond Law of 1986 (Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 13895) of Division 7 of the Water Code), to the following agencies for purposes of financing a proposed project and investigation to identify alternatives for system improvements therefor:

(a) Briceland Community Service District.
(b) Lake County Service Area #3 (Twin Lakes).
(c) Lake County Service Area #7 (Bonanza Springs).
(d) Tuolumne Regional Water District (Irrigation District #16-Meadowbrook).

SEC. 6. The Department of Water Resources shall determine eligibility for and the amount of any grant authorized in this act, in accordance with the California Safe Drinking Water Bond Law of 1988 (Chapter 16 (commencing with Section 14000) of Division 7 of the Water Code) and may make those grants in accordance with the bond law.

SEC. 7. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Department of Water Resources may, at its discretion, prepare the information on each grant application required to be submitted to the Legislature under Section 14012 of the Water Code in the form of one annual report to the Legislature. The report shall be filed on or before January 31 of each year for grant commitments made of grant contracts entered into by the department during the previous calendar year. The report shall be filed with the Legislature, if it is in session, or, if it is not in session, with the Joint Rules Committee.

SEC. 8. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that, in order to meet the minimum safe drinking water standards, there are critical needs within the entities identified in this act, to immediately undertake certain improvements necessary to enable residents of those communities to have a dependable and potable water supply.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that the water systems of the entities identified in this act have critical deficiencies in the areas of treatment, storage, and distribution which pose a serious threat to the public health and welfare of all consumers within those communities and that each entity is only barely meeting the demand for water within the community.

SEC. 9. Section 4049.53 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

4049.53. Any person who violates any provision of this chapter, violates any order of the local health officer pursuant to this chapter, or knowingly files a false statement or report required by the local health officer pursuant to this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) or by imprisonment not exceeding 30 days in the county jail or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each day of a violation of any provision of this chapter or of any order of the local health officer beyond the time stated for compliance of the order shall be a separate offense.

SEC. 10. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 957

An act to add Section 50190.1 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to mortgage credit certificates, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50190.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

50190.1. The agency is authorized to establish a mortgage credit certificate program pursuant to Section 50190.

SEC. 2. The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(a) Since the mid-1970's, declining housing affordability has been a major constraint on the housing market, particularly in states with high housing costs, such as California.

(b) Although the housing affordability picture improved slightly following the 1981–82 recession as a result of income growth and generally lower interest rates, recent increases in home prices and interest rates have made it difficult for buyers to save enough for large downpayments and to afford the high monthly carrying costs.

(c) Every month the American dream of owning a home slips further and further away from low- and moderate-income families in California. Based on the Housing Affordability Index for January 1989, only 21 percent of households in this state could qualify to purchase a median priced single-family home. By June of this year, that percentage had decreased to only 16 percent as the statewide average purchase price grew to over two hundred thousand four hundred forty-five dollars ($200,445).

(d) Two programs that have significantly enhanced housing affordability in California have been the tax-exempt mortgage revenue bond program (MRBs) and the mortgage credit certificate program (MCCs).

(e) In a state where fewer than one-fourth of all families can afford to purchase the median priced home, these programs have made it possible for thousands of Californians to buy their first home. Without MRBs and MCCs, these families would not have been able to afford the large downpayment and high monthly carrying costs of a conventional mortgage.

(f) Since 1976, the MRB programs administered by the California Housing Finance Agency (CHFA) have provided low downpayment loans to more than 27,000 first-time homebuyers. Similarly, MRB and MCC programs operated by local housing agencies have provided homeownership opportunities for thousands more families In fact, over the past eight years, California has issued 16 percent of the total volume of single-family mortgage bonds and 19 percent of the total volume of multifamily rental bonds.

(g) There is a real and positive economic impact from the production and sale of housing. Economic models developed by the building industry, realtors, and CHFA estimate that one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000) of additional economic activity is generated from each one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) of housing construction.

(h) Every reliable economic study indicates that housing affordability is declining. Prices are increasing faster than interest rates are declining. There is a clear, ongoing need for affordable housing and the loss of MRBs and MCCs would deal a crippling blow to every state in the union.

If California is to continue its efforts to keep pace with the rising housing market, the state must do everything possible to ensure continuation of the MRB and MCC programs by the federal government.

SEC. 3. Upon passage of this measure, the Secretary of State shall transmit a copy of this legislation to the President and Vice President of the United States, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress. It is therefore declared that the Legislature of the State of California urges the Congress of the United States to enact S355 and HR1200 to ensure that the states can continue to provide housing assistance using the MRB and MCC programs.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The fact constituting the necessity is that the federal authorization of the MRB and MCC programs is due to sunset on January 1, 1990, therefore, California must act immediately to encourage Congress to continue these programs prior to recessing the 1989 session.

CHAPTER 958

An act to amend Section 12026 of the Penal Code, relating to firearms.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12026 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12026. (a) Notwithstanding Section 12025, any citizen of the United States or legal resident over the age of 18 years who resides or is temporarily within this state, and who is not within the excepted classes prescribed by Section 12021, shall not be prohibited from owning, possessing, keeping, or carrying, either openly or concealed, anywhere within the citizen's or legal resident's place of residence, place of business, or on private property owned or lawfully possessed by the citizen or legal resident any pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, and no permit or license to purchase, own, possess, keep, or carry, either openly or concealed, any such firearm within the citizen's or legal resident's place of residence, place of business, or on private property owned or lawfully possessed by the citizen or legal resident, shall be required of the citizen or legal resident.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting the application of Section 12031.

SEC. 2. The purpose of enacting this measure is to abrogate the holding in People v. Melton, 206 Cal. App. 3d 580, insofar as that decision purports to require the issuance of a concealed weapons permit in order to carry a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, whether openly or concealed, within the places mentioned in Section 12026 of the Penal Code, by an individual who has a proprietary, possessory, or substantial ownership interest in the place.

CHAPTER 959

An act to amend Section 12280 of the Penal Code, relating to firearms.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12280 of the Penal Code, as added by Chapter 19 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

12280. (a) (1) Any person who within this state manufactures or causes to be manufactured, distributes, transports, or imports into the state, keeps for sale, or offers or exposes for sale, or who gives or lends any assault weapon, except as provided by this chapter, is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for four, six, or eight years.

(2) In addition and consecutive to the punishment imposed under paragraph (1), any person who transfers, lends, sells, or gives any assault weapon to a minor in violation of paragraph (1) shall receive an enhancement of one year.

(b) Except as provided in Section 12288, any person who, within this state, possesses any assault weapon, except as provided in this chapter, is guilty of a public offense and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or in the county jail, not exceeding one year. However, if the person presents proof that he or she lawfully possessed the assault weapon prior to June 1, 1989, or prior to a declaration issued pursuant to Section 12276.5 declaring that firearm to be an assault weapon, and has since either registered the firearm and any other lawfully obtained firearm subject to this chapter pursuant to Section 12285 or relinquished them pursuant to Section 12288, a first-time violation of this subdivision shall be an infraction punishable by a fine of up to five hundred dollars ($500), but not less than three hundred fifty dollars ($350), if the person has otherwise possessed the firearm in compliance with subdivision (c) of Section 12285. In these cases, the firearm shall be returned unless the court finds in the interest of public safety, after notice and hearing, that the assault weapon should be destroyed pursuant to Section 12028.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 654 or any other provision of law, any person who commits another crime while violating this section may receive an additional, consecutive punishment of one year for violating this section in addition and consecutive to the punishment, including enhancements, which is prescribed for the other crime.

(d) Subdivisions (a) and (b) do not apply to the sale to, purchase by, or possession of assault weapons by the Department of Justice, police departments, sheriffs' offices, the Department of Corrections, the California Highway Patrol, the California State Police, district attorneys' offices, or the military or naval forces of this state or of the United States for use in the discharge of their official duties; nor shall anything in this chapter prohibit the possession or use of assault weapons by sworn members of these agencies when on duty and the use is within the scope of their duties.

CHAPTER 960

An act to amend Section 3 of Chapter 1364 of the Statutes of 1988, relating to transportation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3 of Chapter 1364 of the Statutes of 1988 is amended to read:

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no state or federal funds shall be used for the construction, maintenance, or operation of State Highway Route 231 or Route 241 until an irrevocable offer to the County of Orange is recorded to dedicate permanently, for public recreational use and habitat protection, an area consisting of a cohesive uninterrupted parcel of land of 5,360 acres that includes the major portions of Limestone Canyon, Dripping Springs Meadow, Dripping Springs Canyon, Box Springs Canyon, Round Canyon, Upper Agua Chinon Wash, the Sinks, and fronting on Santiago Canyon Road. The land dedication shall be made pursuant to mitigation requirements, including mitigation for impact on raptor habitat areas and riparian and wetland habitat, including enhancement of existing resources and creation of new habitat, for Route 231 and for land uses proposed in the east Orange sphere of influence contiguous with the Limestone Canyon area.

As used in this section, the term "construction" does not include oversight activities for environmental review processes and design.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to permit urgently needed toll road construction in Orange County to proceed at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 961

An act to amend Sections 8150 and 8152 of, and to add Section 8156 to, the Education Code, relating to apprenticeship education, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds that both school districts maintaining classes in kindergarten or in any of grades 1 to 12, inclusive, and community college districts, receive state apportionments for related and supplemental instruction for apprentices pursuant to Section 3074 of the Labor Code, and that both Section A and Section B of the State School Fund have a special fund for apprenticeship programs. The Legislature also finds that no statutory mechanism exists to transfer funds for apprenticeship training from one part of the State School Fund to the other as needed.

It is the intent of the Legislature to correct this condition and to further clarify and codify the funding provisions for related and supplemental instruction for apprentices.

SEC. 2. Section 8150 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8150. Attendance of apprentices enrolled in any class maintained by a high school, unified school district, regional occupation center or program, community college, or adult school, pursuant to Section 3074 of the Labor Code, shall be reimbursed pursuant to Section 8152 only if reported separately to the Superintendent of Public Instruction or Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, as appropriate. Attendance reported pursuant to this section shall be used only for purposes of calculating allowances pursuant to Section 8152.

SEC. 3. Section 8152 of the Education Code is amended to read.

8152. (a) Each 60-minute hour of teaching time devoted to each indentured apprentice enrolled in and attending classes of related and supplemental instruction, as provided under Section 3074 of the Labor Code, shall be reimbursed at the rate of three dollars and seventy-six cents ($3.76) per hour for the 1986–87 fiscal year. For the 1987–88 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the reimbursement rate shall be established in the annual Budget Act and the rate shall be commonly applied to all providers of instruction specified in subdivision (d).

(b) For the purposes of this section, each hour of teaching time may include up to 10 minutes of passing time and breaks.

(c) This section also shall apply to isolated apprentices, as defined in Section 3074 of the Labor Code, for which alternative methods of instruction are provided.

(d) The Superintendent of Public Instruction or the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, whichever is appropriate, shall make the reimbursements specified in this section for teaching time provided by high schools, unified school districts, regional occupational centers or programs, community colleges, or adult schools.

SEC. 4. Section 8156 is added to the Education Code, to read:

8156. (a) For any apprenticeship program established pursuant to Section 3074 of the Labor Code for which there is a reimbursement entitlement under Section 8152 and that is transferred from a county office of education or a school district maintaining classes in kindergarten and any of grades 1 to 12, inclusive, to a community college district, the Controller, upon certification by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, shall transfer, prior to the first or second principal apportionment, as appropriate, from Section A of the State School Fund to Section B of the State School Fund an amount equal to the numbers of hours for which the apprenticeship program received funding in the previous fiscal year multiplied by the appropriate reimbursement rate set forth in Section 8152.

(b) For any apprenticeship program for which there is a reimbursement entitlement under Section 8152 and that is transferred from a community college district to a school district maintaining classes in kindergarten and any of grades 1 to 12, inclusive, the Controller, upon certification by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, shall transfer, prior to certification of the first or second principal apportionments, as appropriate, from Section B of the State School Fund to Section A of the State School Fund an amount equal to the number of hours for which the apprenticeship program received funding in the previous fiscal year multiplied by the appropriate reimbursement rate set forth in Section 8152.

(c) In the event that a deficit occurs in either Section A or Section B of the State School Fund for apprenticeship programs established pursuant to Section 3074 of the Labor Code for which there is a reimbursement entitlement under Section 8152, the Director of the Department of Finance may transfer any unspent funds from one section of the State School Fund to fund a deficit in another section of the State School Fund.

(d) Any transfer authorized by this section shall be subject to the approval of the Director of the Department of Finance, provided that the transfer may not be authorized sooner than 30 days after written notification of the necessity therefor is provided to the chairpersons of the appropriate budget committees of the Legislature and to the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, or sooner than any lesser period of time designated in each instance by the Director of the Department of Finance, or his or her designee.

CHAPTER 962

An act to add Sections 20017.82, 20803.96, and 22013.76 to the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20017.82 is added to the Government Code, to read:

20017.82. "State safety member" also includes officers and employees with the State Department of Mental Health or the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection in the following classifications:

Classification Code	Classification Title
8049	Registered Nurse (forensic facility)
2861	Audio Visual Specialist (correctional facility)
2860	Audio Visual Assistant (correctional facility)

"State safety member" also includes an officer or employee of the State Department of Mental Health at Patton State Hospital or Atascadero State Hospital, who either is excluded from the definition of state employee in subdivision (c) of Section 3513, is a supervisory employee as defined by Section 3522.1, or is a nonelected officer or employee of the executive branch of government who is not a member of the civil service. An officer or employee may be a state safety member under this paragraph only if the person has responsibility for the supervision of state safety personnel specified in the classifications listed in this section and if the State Personnel Board determines that these officers and employees meet the state safety membership criteria established pursuant to Section 18717. The Department of Personnel Administration shall determine which classes meet the above conditions and report its findings to the Public Employees' Retirement System, whereupon the change in membership categories shall take effect.

Any person so designated pursuant to this section may elect, within 90 days of notification by the board, to remain subject to the miscellaneous service retirement benefit and contribution rate by filing an irrevocable notice of election with the board. A member who so elects shall be subject to the reduced benefit factors specified in Section 21251.13 only for service also included in the federal system.

SEC. 2. Section 20803.96 is added to the Government Code, to read:

20803.96. "State safety service" does not include service in classes specified in Section 20017.82 prior to the operative date of that section.

SEC. 3. Section 22013.76 is added to the Government Code, to read:

22013.76. "Policeman," as used in this part, also includes persons employed in positions identified in Section 20017.82, provided that designation is not contrary to any definition, ruling, or regulation relating to the term "policeman" issued by the federal agency for the purposes of Section 218(d)(5)(A) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 418(d)(5)(A)).

CHAPTER 963

An act to amend Sections 15102 and 15106 of the Education Code, and to amend Section 98.9 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to general obligation bonds.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15102 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15102. The total amount of bonds issued shall not exceed 1.25 percent of the taxable property of the district as shown by the last equalized assessment of the county or counties in which the district is located. For purposes of this section, the taxable property of a district for any fiscal year shall be calculated to include, but not be limited to, the assessed value of all unitary and operating nonunitary property of the district, which shall be derived by dividing the gross assessed value of the unitary and operating nonunitary property within the district for the 1987–88 fiscal year by the gross assessed value of all unitary and operating nonunitary property within the county in which the district is located for the 1987–88 fiscal year, and multiplying that result by the gross assessed value of all unitary and operating nonunitary property of the county on the last equalized assessment roll.

SEC. 2. Section 15106 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15106. Any unified school district may issue bonds not to exceed 2.5 percent of the taxable property of the district as shown by the last equalized assessment of the county or counties in which the district is located.

In computing the outstanding bonded indebtedness of any unified school district for all purposes of this section, any outstanding bonds shall be deemed to have been issued for elementary school purposes, and high school purposes, respectively, in the respective amounts that the proceeds of the sale of those outstanding bonds, excluding any premium and accrued interest received on that sale, were or have been allocated by the governing board of the unified school district to each of those purposes respectively.

(a) For the purposes of the State School Building Aid Law of 1952 with respect to applications for apportionments and apportionments filed or made prior to September 15, 1961, and to the repayment thereof, Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 15700) of this part, inclusive, only, any unified school district shall be considered to have a bonding capacity in the amount permitted by law for an elementary school district and a bonding capacity in the amount permitted by law for a high school district.

(b) For purposes of this section, the taxable property of a district for any fiscal year shall be calculated to include, but not be limited to, the assessed value of all unitary and operating nonunitary property of the district, which shall be derived by dividing the gross assessed value of the unitary and operating nonunitary property within the district for the 1987–88 fiscal year by the gross assessed value of all unitary and operating nonunitary property within the county in which the district is located for the 1987–88 fiscal year, and multiplying the result by the gross assessed value of all unitary and operating nonunitary property of the county on the last equalized assessment roll. In the event of the unification of two or more school districts subsequent to the 1987–88 fiscal year, the assessed value of all unitary and operating nonunitary property of the unified district shall be deemed to be the total of the assessed value of the taxable property of each of the unifying districts as that assessed value would be determined under Section 15102.

SEC. 3. Section 98.9 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

98.9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, commencing with the 1988–89 fiscal year, property tax assessed value attributable to unitary and operating nonunitary property, as defined in Section 723, and Section 723.1, which is assessed by the State Board of Equalization shall be allocated by county as provided in Section 756 and the assessed value and revenues attributable to that allocation shall be allocated within each county as follows:

(a) Each county shall establish one countywide tax rate area. The assessed value of all unitary and operating nonunitary property shall be assigned to this tax rate area. No other property shall be assigned to this tax rate area.

(b) Property assigned to the tax rate area created by subdivision (a) shall be taxed at a rate equal to the sum of the following two rates:

(1) A rate determined by dividing the county's total ad valorem tax levies for the secured roll, including levies made pursuant to Section 100, for the prior year, exclusive of levies for debt service, by the county's total ad valorem secured roll assessed value for the prior year.

(2) A rate determined as follows:

(A) By dividing the county's total ad valorem tax levies for unitary and operating nonunitary property for the prior year debt service only by the county's total unitary and operating nonunitary assessed value for the prior year.

(B) Beginning with the 1989–90 fiscal year, adjusting the rate determined pursuant to subparagraph (A) by the percentage change between the two preceding fiscal years in the county's ad valorem debt service levy for the secured roll, not including unitary and operating nonunitary debt service.

(c) The property tax revenue derived from the assessed value assigned to the countywide tax rate area pursuant to subdivision (a) by the use of the tax rate determined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) shall be allocated as follows:

(1) For the 1988–89 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, each taxing jurisdiction shall be allocated an amount of property tax revenue equal to 102 percent of the amount of the aggregate property tax revenue it received from all unitary and operating nonunitary property in the prior fiscal year, exclusive of revenue attributable to levies for debt service.

(2) If the amount of property tax revenue available for allocation in the current fiscal year is insufficient to make the allocations required by paragraph (1), the amount of revenue to be allocated to each taxing jurisdiction shall be prorated based on a factor determined by dividing the total amount of property tax revenue available to all taxing jurisdictions from unitary and operating nonunitary property in the current year, exclusive of revenue attributable to levies for debt service, by the total amount of property tax revenue received by all taxing jurisdictions from unitary and operating nonunitary property in the prior fiscal year, exclusive of revenue attributable to levies for debt service.

(3) If the amount of property tax revenue available for allocation to all taxing jurisdictions in the current fiscal year from unitary and operating nonunitary property, exclusive of revenue attributable to levies for debt service, exceeds 102 percent of the property tax revenue received by all taxing jurisdictions from all unitary and operating nonunitary property in the prior fiscal year, exclusive of revenue attributable to levies for debt service, the amount of revenue in excess of 102 percent shall be allocated to all taxing jurisdictions in the county by a ratio determined by dividing each taxing jurisdiction's share of the county's total ad valorem tax levies for the secured roll for the prior year, exclusive of levies for debt service, by the county's total ad valorem tax levies for the secured roll for the prior year, exclusive of levies for debt service.

(d) The property tax revenue derived from the assessed value assigned to the countywide tax rate area pursuant to subdivision (a) by the use of the tax rate determined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) shall be allocated as follows:

(1) An amount shall be computed for each taxing jurisdiction which shall be determined by multiplying the amounts required in the current year pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (c) of Section 93 by that percentage which shall be determined by dividing the amount of property tax revenue the jurisdiction received in the prior year from unitary property and operating nonunitary property by the total amount of property tax revenue the jurisdiction received in the prior year from all property.

(2) The amount of property tax revenue available for allocation pursuant to this subdivision shall be allocated among taxing jurisdictions in the proportion that the amount computed for each taxing jurisdiction pursuant to paragraph (1) bears to the total amount computed pursuant to paragraph (1) for all taxing jurisdictions

(3) If a taxing jurisdiction is levying a tax rate for debt service for the first time in the current fiscal year, for purposes of determining the percentage specified in paragraph (1), that percentage shall be the percentage determined by dividing the amount of property tax revenue received by that taxing jurisdiction in the prior year pursuant to subdivision (c) from unitary and operating nonunitary property by the total amount of property tax revenue received by that taxing jurisdiction in the prior year from all property within the taxing jurisdiction.

(e) For purposes of this section:

(1) "The county's total ad valorem tax levies for the secured roll" means all ad valorem tax levies for the county's secured roll, including the general tax levy, levies for debt service (including land only and land and improvement rates), and levies for redevelopment agencies.

(2) "The county's total ad valorem secured roll" means the county's local roll, after all exemptions except the homeowner's exemption, and the county's utility roll.

(3) "Taxing jurisdiction" includes a redevelopment agency, and a Special District Augmentation Fund created pursuant to Section 98.6.

(f) The assessed value of the unitary and operating nonunitary property shall be kept separate for each state assessee throughout the allocation process.

(g) Each state assessee shall be issued only one tax bill for all unitary and operating nonunitary property within the county.

(h) This section does not apply to unitary property of regulated railway companies.

(i) This section does not apply to property which on July 1, 1987, was undeveloped and owned by a utility and which is located within a city, county, or city and county which adopts a resolution stating that the property is subject to a development agreement and that this section shall not apply to that property, and the city, county, or city and county transmits a copy of that resolution, including a legal description of the property, to the State Board of Equalization and the county's auditor-controller prior to January 1, 1988.

CHAPTER 964

An act to amend Section 593d of the Penal Code, relating to cable television.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 593d of the Penal Code is amended to read:

593d. (a) Every person who knowingly and willfully makes or maintains an unauthorized connection or connections, whether physically, electrically, or inductively, or purchases, possesses, attaches or maintains the attachment of any unauthorized device or devices to any cable, wire or other component of a franchised or otherwise duly licensed cable television system or to a television cable or set, or makes or maintains any modification or alteration to any device installed with the authorization of a franchised or otherwise duly licensed cable television system, for the purpose of intercepting or receiving any program or other service carried by a franchised or otherwise duly licensed cable television system which such person is not authorized by that cable television system to receive, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding 90 days, or both. For the purposes of this section, each such purchase, possession, connection or attachment shall constitute a separate violation of this section.

(b) Every person who knowingly and willfully makes or maintains an unauthorized connection or connections with, whether physically, electrically or inductively, or attaches or maintains any attachment to, any cable, wire, or other component of a franchised or otherwise duly licensed cable television system, for the purpose of interfering with, altering or degrading any cable television service being transmitted to others, or for the purpose of transmitting or broadcasting any program or other service not intended to be transmitted or broadcast by the franchised or otherwise duly licensed cable television system, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail or both. For the purposes of this section, each such transmission or broadcast shall constitute a separate violation of this section.

(c) Every person who, without the express authorization of a franchised or other duly licensed cable television system, knowingly and willfully manufactures, imports into this state, distributes, sells, offers to sell, possesses for sale, or advertises for sale any device, or any plan or kit for a device or for a printed circuit, designed in whole or in part to decode, descramble or otherwise make intelligible any encoded, scrambled or other nonstandard signal carried by that cable television system, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or by imprisonment in the county jail, or both. For the purpose of this subdivision, "encoded, scrambled or other nonstandard signal" shall include, without limitation, any type of signal or transmission that is not intended to produce an intelligible program or service without the aid of a decoder, descrambler, filter, trap or some similar device. A second or subsequent conviction is punishable by a fine not exceeding twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or by imprisonment in the county jail for up to one year, or both.

(d) Any person who violates this section shall be liable to the franchised or otherwise duly licensed cable television system for the greater of the following amounts:

(1) Five thousand dollars ($5,000)

(2) Three times the amount of actual damages, if any, sustained by the plaintiff, plus reasonable attorney's fees.

(e) Any franchised or otherwise duly licensed cable television system may, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, bring an action to enjoin and restrain any violation of this section, and may in the same action seek damages as provided in subdivision (d).

(f) It is not a necessary prerequisite to an action pursuant to this section that the plaintiff has suffered, or be threatened with, actual damages.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 965

An act to amend Section 19799 of, and to add Section 8310.5 to, the Government Code, relating to ethnic classification.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) The Asian and Pacific Islander communities are rapidly growing in California and will comprise nearly 10 percent of the state's total population by 1990 and 14 percent of the population by the year 2020.

(b) The over 60 broad ethnic and racial designations which make up our Asian and Pacific Islander communities represent a tremendous cultural diversity.

(c) Accurate perception of these communities and their needs is often masked by stereotyping and confusion.

SEC. 2. The purpose of this act is to require all state agencies and state-funded programs to use uniform collection categories for the major Asian and Pacific Islander groups, including, but not limited to, Chinese, Japanese, Filipino, Korean, Vietnamese, Asian Indian, Hawaiian, Guamanian, Samoan, Laotian, and Cambodian.

SEC 3. Section 8310.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

8310.5. Any state agency, board, or commission which directly or by contract collects demographic data as to the ancestry or ethnic origin of Californians shall use separate collection categories and tabulations for each major Asian and Pacific Islander group, including, but not limited to, Chinese, Japanese, Filipino, Korean, Vietnamese, Asian Indian, Hawaiian, Guamanian, Samoan, Laotian, and Cambodian.

SEC. 4 Section 19799 of the Government Code is amended to read·

19799. When any state agency conducts any survey as to the ancestry or ethnic origin of state civil service employees, or maintains any statistical tabulation of minority group employees, it shall use separate collection categories for each major Asian and Pacific Islander group, including, but not limited to, Chinese, Japanese, Filipino, Korean, Vietnamese, Asian Indian, Hawaiian, Guamanian, Samoan, Laotian, and Cambodian in the survey or tabulation.

CHAPTER 966

An act relating to property taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the allocation of property tax revenue resulting from calculations specified in Sections 96 and 97 of the Revenue and Taxation Code with respect to amounts identified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 95, Section 97.7, and subdivision (a) of Section 97.8 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and in Section 16713 of the Welfare and Institutions Code in the 1979–80 fiscal year to the 1988–89 fiscal year, inclusive, in Marin and Fresno Counties, as distributed as of July 1, 1989, shall be deemed correct, and no reductions or increases in apportionments shall be made from the 1979–80 fiscal year to the 1988–89 fiscal year, inclusive. With respect to validation of allocations of property tax revenues to cities or special districts, the provisions of this section shall become operative only upon the passage, by the legislative body of the affected taxing entity and by the county, of a resolution affirming those allocations.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature not to validate in the future any other mistake in the allocation of property tax revenue unless the mistake is the result of written advice from the Department of Finance with respect to the particular allocation.

SEC. 3. With respect to the provisions of Section 1 of this act, the Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of unique circumstances applicable only to Marin and Fresno Counties. Marin and Fresno Counties failed to comply with the new revenue distribution system in good faith reliance on a prior limited audit conducted pursuant to Section 38 of Chapter 100 of the Statutes of 1981 by the Department of Finance in 1982 which indicated Marin and Fresno Counties were in substantial compliance with the new method of computation.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for local taxing agencies in Marin and Fresno Counties to be immediately relieved of the possibility of litigation and to assure that the county auditors of Marin and Fresno Counties are free to implement the newly adopted apportionment procedures without duress, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 967

An act to amend Section 1156 of, and to amend and repeal Section 1242 of, the Government Code, relating to state employees, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1156 of the Government Code, is amended to read:

1156. (a) Any eligible employee who is participating in a flexible benefits program may elect to receive one or more benefits that qualify to be excluded from gross income in lieu of a portion of his or her salary.

(b) For purposes of this section, an "eligible employee" means any of the following:

(1) An employee excluded from the definition of "state employee ' in subdivision (c) of Section 3513.

(2) A "managerial employee" as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 3513.

(3) A "confidential employee" as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 3513 and subdivision (e) of Section 3562.

(4) A "supervisory employee" as defined in Sections 3522.1 and 3580.3.

(5) An officer or employee of the State of California in the executive or judicial branch of government who is not a state civil service employee pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 18500) of Division 5 of Title 2.

(6) A "state employee," as defined by subdivision (c) of Section 3513 or employed by the state as provided for in Article VI of the Constitution.

(c) Any eligible employee participating in the flexible benefits program shall be subject to federal laws and implementing regulations of the Department of Personnel Administration which affects the flexible benefit program throughout the period of the employee's enrollment.

(d) Unless the trustee or the administrator of the state's flexible benefit program is the Controller or another state officer, that program shall be administered in compliance with the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA: 29 U.S.C.A. Sec. 1001 et seq.).

(e) As a condition of participating in a flexible benefits program, each eligible employee shall provide evidence in a manner satisfactory to the Department of Personnel Administration that the employee is covered by a basic health benefits plan, and his or her agreement to remain covered for the period of participation in the flexible benefits plan.

(f) There is in the State Treasury the Flexelect Benefit Fund which, notwithstanding Section 13340, is continuously appropriated without regard to fiscal years to the Department of Personnel Administration for expenditure to implement the flexible benefits program and to pay the related administrative costs. The fund shall consist of the amounts received from state employee compensation excluded from gross income and transmitted to the Flexelect Benefit Fund, income of whatever nature earned on the money in the Flexelect Benefit Fund during any fiscal year and credited to the fund, and amounts appropriated therefor in the annual Budget Act and other statutes.

(g) On or after July 1, 1990, any funds remaining in the State Employees' Dependent Care Assistance and Health Care Assistance Fund shall be transmitted into the account in the Flexelect Benefit Fund for the administrative expenses of the Controller's office to pay the related administrative costs.

SEC. 2. Section 1242 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1242. (a) A state employee, as defined by Section 3513 or employed by the state as provided for in Article VI of the Constitution, may elect to participate in a State Employees' Dependent Care Assistance Program, a Health Care Reimbursement Account, or both, administered by the Department of Personnel Administration, under which program the value thereof, to the extent permissible by Sections 105(b), 129, and 213(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be excluded from gross income, in lieu of his or her compensation and shall be transmitted to the State Employees' Dependent Care Assistance and Health Care Assistance Fund. A participant in the program shall, during enrollment, be subject to the applicable federal statutes and related administrative regulations adopted by the Department of Personnel Administration.

(b) There is in the State Treasury the State Employees' Dependent Care Assistance and Health Care Assistance Fund which is, notwithstanding Section 13340, continuously appropriated without regard to fiscal years to the Department of Personnel Administration for expenditure to implement the State Employees' Dependent Care Assistance Program and the Health Care Reimbursement Account and to pay the related administrative costs. The fund shall consist of the amounts received pursuant to subdivision (a) and amounts appropriated therefor in the annual Budget Act and other statutes.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1990, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before July 1, 1990, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 968

An act to amend Section 1371 of, and to add Section 1371.1 to, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 10123.13 and 11512.180 of, and to add Sections 10123.145 and 11512.181 to, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1371 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1371. A health care service plan which covers hospital, medical, or surgical expenses shall reimburse claims or any portion of any claim, whether in state or out of state, for those expenses, as soon as practical, but no later than 30 working days after receipt of the claim by the health care service plan, or if the health care service plan is a health maintenance organization, 45 working days after receipt of the claim by the health care service plan, unless the claim or portion thereof is contested by the plan in which case the claimant shall be notified, in writing, that the claim is contested or denied, within 30 working days after receipt of the claim by the health care service plan, or if the health care service plan is a health maintenance organization, 45 working days after receipt of the claim by the health care service plan. The notice that a claim is being contested shall identify the portion of the claim that is contested and the specific reasons for contesting the claim.

If an uncontested claim is not reimbursed by delivery to the claimants' address of record within the respective 30 or 45 working days after receipt, interest shall accrue at the rate of 10 percent per annum beginning with the first calendar day after the 30 or 45 working day period.

For the purposes of this section, a claim, or portion thereof, is reasonably contested where the plan has not received the completed claim and all information necessary to determine payer liability for the claim, or has not been granted reasonable access to information concerning provider services Information necessary to determine payer liability for the claim includes, but is not limited to, reports of investigations concerning fraud and misrepresentation, and necessary consents, releases, and assignments, a claim on appeal, or other information necessary for the plan to determine the medical necessity for the health care services provided.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1371.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1371.1. Whenever a health care service plan which covers hospital, medical, or surgical expenses determines that in reimbursing a claim for provider services an institutional or professional provider has been overpaid, and then notifies the provider in writing through a separate notice identifying the overpayment and the amount of the overpayment, the provider shall reimburse the health care service plan within 30 working days of receipt by the provider of the notice of overpayment unless the overpayment or portion thereof is contested by the provider in which case the health care service plan shall be notified, in writing, within 30 working days. The notice that an overpayment is being contested shall identify the portion of the overpayment that is contested and the specific reasons for contesting the overpayment.

If the provider does not make reimbursement for an uncontested overpayment within 30 working days after receipt, interest shall accrue at the rate of 10 percent per annum beginning with the first calendar day after the 30 working day period.

SEC. 2. Section 10123.13 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10123.13. Every insurer issuing group or individual policies of disability insurance which covers hospital, medical, or surgical expenses shall reimburse claims or any portion of any claim, whether in state or out of state, for such expenses, as soon as practical, but no later than 30 working days after receipt of the claim by the insurer unless the claim or portion thereof is contested by the insurer in which case the claimant shall be notified, in writing, that the claim is contested or denied, within 30 working days after receipt of the claim by the insurer. The notice that a claim is being contested shall identify the portion of the claim that is contested and the specific reasons for contesting the claim.

If an uncontested claim is not reimbursed by delivery to the claimants' address of record within 30 working days after receipt, interest shall accrue at the rate of 10 percent per annum beginning with the first calendar day after the 30 working day period.

For purposes of this section, a claim, or portion thereof, is reasonably contested where the insurer has not received a completed claim and all information necessary to determine payer liability for the claim, or has not been granted reasonable access to information concerning provider services. Information necessary to determine liability for the claims includes, but is not limited to, reports of investigations concerning fraud and misrepresentation, and necessary consents, releases, and assignments, a claim on appeal, or other information necessary for the insurer to determine the medical necessity for the health care services provided to the claimant.

SEC. 2.5. Section 10123.145 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10123.145. Whenever an insurer issuing group or individual policies of disability insurance which covers hospital, medical, or surgical expenses determines that in reimbursing a claim for provider services an institutional or professional provider has been overpaid, and then notifies the provider in writing through a separate notice identifying the overpayment and the amount of the overpayment, the provider shall reimburse the insurer within 30 working days of receipt by the provider of the notice of overpayment unless the overpayment or portion thereof is contested by the provider in which case the insurer shall be notified, in writing, within 30 working days. The notice that an overpayment is being contested shall identify the portion of the overpayment that is contested and the specific reasons for contesting the overpayment.

If the provider does not make reimbursement for an uncontested overpayment within 30 working days after receipt, interest shall accrue at the rate of 10 percent per annum beginning with the first calendar day after the 30 working day period.

SEC. 3. Section 11512.180 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11512.180. Every nonprofit hospital service plan that covers hospital, medical, or surgical expenses on a group or individual basis shall reimburse claims or any portion of any claim, whether in state or out of state, for such expenses, as soon as practical, but not later than 30 working days after receipt of the claim by the hospital service plan, or if the plan is a health maintenance organization, 45 working days after receipt of the claim by the hospital service plan, unless the claim or portion thereof is contested by the plan in which case the claimant shall be notified, in writing, that the claim is contested or denied, within 30 working days after receipt of the claim by the nonprofit hospital service plan, or if the plan is a health maintenance organization, 45 working days after receipt of the claim by the nonprofit hospital service plan. The notice that a claim is being contested shall identify the portion of the claim that is contested and the specific reasons for contesting the claim.

If an uncontested claim is not reimbursed by delivery to the claimants' address of record within the respective 30 or 45 working days after receipt, interest shall accrue at the rate of 10 percent per annum beginning with the first calendar day after the 30 or 45 working day period.

For purposes of this section, a claim, or portion thereof, is reasonably contested where the plan has not received the completed claim and all information necessary to determine payer liability for the claim, or has not been granted reasonable access to information concerning provider services. Information necessary to determine liability includes, but is not limited to, reports of investigations concerning fraud and misrepresentation, and necessary consents, releases, and assignments, a claim on appeal, or other information necessary for the insurer to determine the medical necessity for the health care services provided to the claimant.

SEC. 3.5. Section 11512.181 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

11512.181. Whenever a nonprofit hospital service plan which covers hospital, medical, or surgical expenses determines that in reimbursing a claim for provider services an institutional or professional provider has been overpaid, and then notifies the provider in writing through a separate notice identifying the overpayment and the amount of the overpayment, the provider shall reimburse the nonprofit hospital service plan within 30 working days of receipt by the provider of the notice of overpayment unless the overpayment or portion thereof is contested by the provider in which case the nonprofit hospital service plan shall be notified, in writing, within 30 working days. The notice that an overpayment is being contested shall identify the portion of the overpayment that is contested and the specific reasons for contesting the overpayment.

If the provider does not make reimbursement for an uncontested overpayment within 30 working days after receipt, interest shall accrue at the rate of 10 percent per annum beginning with the first calendar day after the 30 working day period.

CHAPTER 969

An act to add Section 10084.1 to the Business and Professions Code, to add Section 2079.7 to the Civil Code, and to add Section 25417 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous materials, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10084.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

10084.1. (a) Notwithstanding Section 10450.6, on or before January 1, 1991, the department, using funds appropriated from the Education and Research Account in the Real Estate Fund, shall develop a booklet to educate and inform consumers on all of the following:

(1) Common environmental hazards that are located on, and affect, real property. The types of common environmental hazards shall include, but not be limited to, asbestos, radon gas, lead-based paint, formaldehyde, fuel and chemical storage tanks, and water and soil contamination.

(2) The significance of common environmental hazards and what can be done to mitigate these hazards.

(3) What sources can provide more information on common environmental hazards for the consumer.

(b) The department shall seek the advice of the State Department of Health Services to assist it in determining the contents of the booklet prepared pursuant to this section, and shall seek the assistance of the State Department of Health Services in the writing of the booklet.

SEC. 2. Section 2079.7 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

2079.7. (a) If a consumer information booklet described in Section 10084.1 of the Business and Professions Code is delivered to a transferee in connection with the transfer of real property, including property specified in Section 1102 of the Civil Code, or manufactured housing, as defined in Section 18007 of the Health and Safety Code, a seller or broker is not required to provide additional information concerning, and the information shall be deemed to be adequate to inform the transferee regarding, common environmental hazards, as described in the booklet, that can affect real property.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), nothing in this section either increases or decreases the duties, if any, of sellers or brokers, including but not limited to, the duties of a seller or broker under this article, Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 1102) of Chapter 2 of Title 4 of Part 4 of Division 2, or Section 25359.7 of the Health and Safety Code, or alters the duty of a seller or broker to disclose the existence of known environmental hazards on or affecting the real property.

SEC. 3. Section 25417 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25417. The department shall publish the consumer information booklet described in Section 10084.1 of the Business and Professions Code and distribute the booklet to the public, upon request. The department may charge a fee for the booklet to defray the publication, mailing, distribution, and administrative costs necessary to implement this section and its ongoing administrative costs resulting from inquiries by the public about the contents of the booklet.

SEC. 4. The sum of sixty-five thousand dollars ($65,000) is hereby appropriated from the Education and Research Account in the Real Estate Fund to the Department of Real Estate for reimbursement of the costs of carrying out Section 10084.1 of the Business and Professions Code.

CHAPTER 970

An act to amend, repeal, and add Sections 19535, 19596.5, and 19596.6 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19535 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19535. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, at the time the board allocates racing weeks, it shall determine the number of usable stalls that each association or fair shall make available and maintain in order to conduct the racing meeting. The minimum number of stalls may be at the site of the racing meeting or, with the approval of the board, at an offsite location.

(b) With respect to racing meetings conducted in the northern zone, the association or fair conducting the meeting shall provide all stabling required by the board pursuant to subdivision (a) without cost to participating horsemen. Offsite stabling shall be at a board approved facility or facilities selected by the association or fair, with the concurrence of the organization representing horsemen participating at the meeting. If there is a disagreement between the association or fair and the organization representing the majority of horsemen participating at the meeting with respect to the selection of offsite stabling facilities, the board, at the request of the association or fair or the organization representing the majority of horsemen participating at the meeting, shall promptly determine the board-approved facility or facilities at which offsite stabling shall be made available. The organization representing horsemen participating at the meeting and the association or fair shall mutually agree on the criteria and selection of horses that may use stalls required pursuant to this section. With respect to northern zone thoroughbred meetings only, the association shall also provide, at the option of the horse owner, vanning of participating racehorses from any board-approved offsite stabling facility in the northern zone.

(c) With respect to racing meetings conducted in the central or southern zones, all costs associated with the maintenance of the usable stalls for the racing meeting shall be borne by the association or fair conducting the meeting, and, with respect to usable stalls at an offsite location, the association or fair may be required, by order of the board, to bear the costs of vanning from the offsite location to the racing meeting, except that with respect to any racing association in the central or southern zone that conducted a racing meeting in 1986, if the number of usable stalls made available onsite by a racing association during a racing meeting is less than 95 percent of the number of usable stalls made available onsite by that racing association during its 1986 racing meeting, the racing association shall reimburse the facility providing offsite stabling for the difference in cost between the actual number of usable stalls made available and 95 percent of the usable stalls made available in 1986.

The racing association shall, in addition, reimburse the owner for vanning to the onsite location with respect to those horses stabled at an offsite location necessitated by the failure of a racing association to maintain 95 percent of the usable stalls made available by that racing association during its 1986 racing meeting.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 19535 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19535. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, at the time the board allocates racing weeks, it shall determine the number of usable stalls that each association or fair shall make available and maintain in order to conduct the racing meeting. The minimum number of stalls may be at the site of the racing meeting or, with the approval of the board, at an offsite location. All costs associated with the maintenance of the usable stalls for the racing meeting shall be borne by the association or fair conducting the meeting, and, with respect to usable stalls at an offsite location, the association or fair may be required, by order of the board, to bear the costs of vanning from the offsite location to the racing meeting, except that with respect to any racing association in the central or southern zone that conducted a racing meeting in 1986, if the number of usable stalls made available onsite by a racing association during a racing meeting is less than 95 percent of the number of usable stalls made available onsite by that racing association during its 1986 racing meeting, the racing association shall reimburse the facility providing offsite stabling for the difference in cost between the actual number of usable stalls made available and 95 percent of the usable stalls made available in 1986.

(b) A racing association shall, in addition, reimburse the owner for vanning to the onsite location with respect to those horses stabled at an offsite location necessitated by the failure of a racing association to maintain 95 percent of the usable stalls made available by that racing association during its 1986 racing meeting.

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1992.

SEC. 3. Section 19596.5 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 74 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

19596.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may authorize an association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the northern zone to operate a satellite wagering facility for wagering on races conducted in the northern zone at its racetrack inclosure, except during the part of the day racing is being conducted at its racetrack, and may, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, authorize any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair in the northern zone eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, but which is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting or authorized pursuant to Section 19596.7, to locate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds for wagering on races conducted in the northern zone, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) An organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 has executed agreements, which are approved by the board, with the association conducting a racing meeting in the northern zone and the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide, among other things, the conditions for transmission of the signal and that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility will be included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any agreement under this subdivision, for purposes of determining license fees and breakage at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted, wagers at a satellite wagering facility shall not be included in the conventional or exotic pools of the association conducting the racing meeting.

(2) The horsemen's organization which represents the horsemen at the association which conducts the racing meeting on which wagers are accepted consents to the acceptance of wagers at the satellite wagering facility, except that the association or fair operating the satellite wagering facility may appeal the withholding of consent to the board which may determine that consent is not required.

(3) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.

(4) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering has been approved by the board.

(5) Except as provided in Section 19596.9, any association or fair which conducts satellite wagering shall conduct wagering on all racing offered to the satellite wagering facility, as long as the satellite wagering facility is not sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or night meeting, as determined by the board, and, if sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or night meeting, as long as that loss is reimbursed by either an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 or an association.

In calculating the loss, if any, for operating a satellite wagering facility for a night meeting, only the expenses incurred by the satellite wagering facility because of acceptance of night wagers shall be considered, and no overhead expenses or expenses which would be incurred regardless of the acceptance of night wagers shall be considered.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), during periods of the day when there is no night racing in the northern zone, the live audiovisual signal of night harness or quarter horse races in the central or southern zone may be offered to satellite wagering facilities in the northern zone, provided, however, (1) that racing associations may accept that audiovisual signal, but are not required to do so and (2) that satellite wagering facilities located at fairs are not required to accept more than five night racing programs per week.

(c) The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities shall be the same as the deductions for wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(1) On thoroughbred meetings only, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency of California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(2) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6, and, in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas and, in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619 and, in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency of California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(3) In addition to the distributions in paragraph (1) or (2), on thoroughbred and fair meetings only, six-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the facility for promotion of that meeting's program. For harness, quarter horse, and mixed breed meetings, 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities.

(4) In addition to the distributions in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3), on thoroughbred meetings only, four-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled at each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the association providing the racing program to reimburse it for any costs of offsite stabling and vanning which are required pursuant to Section 19535. The amount of the reimbursement payable to an association for offsite stabling shall not exceed the actual cost to the association of maintaining stalls at its racetrack plus the actual costs incurred by the association to provide vanning and transportation of racehorses from offsite stabling facilities to its racetrack.

(5) In addition to the distributions in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3), on fair meetings only, four-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled at each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the organization representing racing fairs to reimburse fairs for the actual cost of providing offsite stabling required by the board pursuant to Section 19535. If fairs contract with associations to provide offsite stabling during fair meetings, the cost incurred by fairs shall not exceed the actual cost to the association of maintaining the stalls or the amount of reimbursement funds made available pursuant to this paragraph, whichever is less. In the event of a disagreement between an association and the organization representing racing fairs or the organization representing the majority of horsemen participating at the meeting with respect to the actual cost of maintaining stalls, the board, at the request of the association or the organization representing racing fairs or the organization representing the majority of horsemen participating at the meeting, shall determine within 60 days the amount of actual costs incurred. For purposes of this paragraph, "actual cost" does not include fixed overhead or administrative expenses which would be incurred by the association in the absence of an agreement to provide offsite stabling during fair meetings.

(6) Any of the promotional funds distributed pursuant to paragraph (3) that are not expended in the year in which they are collected may be expended in the following year and, if promotion funds expended in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds expended in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount.

(7) Any of the stabling and vanning reimbursement funds distributed pursuant to paragraph (4) or (5) that are not expended within 90 days of the end of the meeting at which they are collected shall be reallocated for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities, as provided in paragraph (3).

(8) Additionally, on thoroughbred, harness, quarter horse, mixed breed, and fair meetings, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(d) On thoroughbred meetings only, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (c) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent as purses to the horsemen participating in the racing meeting, except that owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(e) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, and fair meetings, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (c) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent to the horsemen in the form of purses at the association conducting the racing meeting, except that, for meetings commencing on or after the effective date of the amendments to this subdivision enacted at the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature, owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(f) Except as provided in subdivisions (g) and (h), all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, are hereby continuously appropriated from that account to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the Director of Food and Agriculture, in his or her discretion, for the following purposes, except that the concurrence of the Director of Finance shall be obtained for allocations for the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2):

(1) For repayment of the principal of, interest on, and costs of issuance of, and as security, including any coverage factor, pledged to the payment of, bonds issued or to be issued by a joint powers agency or other debt service or expense, including repayment of any advances made or security required by any provider of credit enhancement or liquidity for those bonds or other indebtedness or expenses of maintaining that credit enhancement or liquidity, incurred for the purpose of constructing or acquiring improvements at a fair's racetrack inclosure, satellite wagering facilities at fairs, health and safety repair projects, or handicapped access compliance projects at fairs or for the purpose of refunding bonds or other indebtedness incurred for those purposes. As used in this paragraph, "coverage factor" means revenues in excess of the amount necessary to pay debt service on the bonds or other indebtedness, up to an amount equal to 100 percent more than the amount of that debt service, which a joint powers authority, pursuant to the resolution or indenture under which the bonds or other indebtedness are or will be issued, pledges as additional security for the payment of that debt service or is required to have or maintain as a condition to the issuance of additional bonds or other indebtedness. Notwithstanding any other law, the department may also commit any funds available for allocation under Article 10 (commencing with Section 19620) to complete projects funded under this paragraph in the priority described in this paragraph.

(2) For repayment of expenses incurred by fairs in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities.

(3) For health and safety repair projects at fairs.

(4) For support purposes of fairs generally.

(g) Seven and one-half percent of all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in the General Fund.

(h) Up to 10 percent of all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a special account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for supplementing purses at fair meetings to achieve the purposes of subdivision (i). The department shall annually determine the percentage of revenues payable to the special account under this subdivision based on the amount necessary to achieve the purposes of subdivision (i).

(i) It is the intent of the Legislature that funds allocated pursuant to subdivision (h) be used primarily at fair racing meetings in the northern zone with a daily average handle of more than three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000). The Legislature further finds that its intent is that these allocations be used to bring the purses at these fairs, exclusive of purses for stakes races and special events, to a level of at least 80 percent of purses for similar classes of horses at private racing associations in the northern zone. The funds shall be used among all breeds. For fair racing meetings in the northern zone with a daily average handle of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) or less, it is the intent of the Legislature to bring the purses to a level of at least 25 percent of purses for similar classes of horses at private racing associations in the northern zone.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 19596.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19596.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may authorize an association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the northern zone to operate a satellite wagering facility for wagering on races conducted in the northern zone at its racetrack inclosure, except during the part of the day racing is being conducted at its racetrack, and may, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, authorize any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair in the northern zone eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, but which is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting or authorized pursuant to Section 19596.7, to locate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds for wagering on races conducted in the northern zone, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) An organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4

has executed agreements, which are approved by the board, with the association conducting a racing meeting in the northern zone and the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide, among other things, the conditions for transmission of the signal and that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility will be included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any agreement under this subdivision, for purposes of determining license fees and breakage at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted, wagers at a satellite wagering facility shall not be included in the conventional or exotic pools of the association conducting the racing meeting.

(2) The horsemen's organization which represents the horsemen at the association which conducts the racing meeting on which wagers are accepted consents to the acceptance of wagers at the satellite wagering facility, except that the association or fair operating the satellite wagering facility may appeal the withholding of consent to the board which may determine that consent is not required.

(3) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.

(4) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering has been approved by the board.

(5) Except as provided in Section 19596.9, any association or fair which conducts satellite wagering shall conduct wagering on all racing offered to the satellite wagering facility, as long as the satellite wagering facility is not sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or night meeting, as determined by the board, and, if sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or night meeting, as long as that loss is reimbursed by either an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 or an association.

In calculating the loss, if any, for operating a satellite wagering facility for a night meeting, only the expenses incurred by the satellite wagering facility because of acceptance of night wagers shall be considered, and no overhead expenses or expenses which would be incurred regardless of the acceptance of night wagers shall be considered.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), during periods of the day when there is no night racing in the northern zone, the live audiovisual signal of night harness or quarter horse races in the central or southern zone may be offered to satellite wagering facilities in the northern zone, provided, however, (1) that racing associations may accept that audiovisual signal, but are not required to do so and (2) that satellite wagering facilities located at fairs are not required to accept more than five night racing programs per week.

(c) The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities shall be the same as the deductions for wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(1) On thoroughbred meetings only, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4.0 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and 0.4 of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency of California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(2) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3.0 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 6 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and, in the case of quarter horses, 0.4 of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6, and, in the case of Appaloosas, 0.4 of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas and, in the case of standardbreds, 0.4 of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619 and, in the case of thoroughbreds, 0.4 of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency of California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(3) In addition to the distributions in paragraph (1) or (2), on thoroughbred meetings and harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities. Any of the promotion funds that are not distributed in the year in which they are collected may be distributed in the following year, and if promotion funds distributed in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds distributed in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount. Additionally, 0.33 of 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(d) On thoroughbred meetings only, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (c) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent as purses to the horsemen participating in the racing meeting, except that owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(e) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, and fair meetings, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (c) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent to the horsemen in the form of purses at the association conducting the racing meeting, except that, for meetings commencing on or after the effective date of the amendments to this subdivision enacted at the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature, owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(f) Except as provided in subdivisions (g) and (h), all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, are hereby continuously appropriated from that account to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the Director of Food and Agriculture, in his or her discretion, for the following purposes, except that the concurrence of the Director of Finance shall be obtained for allocations for the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2):

(1) For repayment of the principal of, interest on, and costs of issuance of, and as security, including any coverage factor, pledged to the payment of, bonds issued or to be issued by a joint powers agency or other debt service or expense, including repayment of any advances made or security required by any provider of credit enhancement or liquidity for those bonds or other indebtedness or expenses of maintaining that credit enhancement or liquidity, incurred for the purpose of constructing or acquiring improvements at a fair's racetrack inclosure, satellite wagering facilities at fairs, health and safety repair projects, or handicapped access compliance projects at fairs or for the purpose of refunding bonds or other indebtedness incurred for those purposes. As used in this paragraph,

"coverage factor" means revenues in excess of the amount necessary to pay debt service on the bonds or other indebtedness, up to an amount equal to 100 percent more than the amount of that debt service, which a joint powers authority, pursuant to the resolution or indenture under which the bonds or other indebtedness are or will be issued, pledges as additional security for the payment of that debt service or is required to have or maintain as a condition to the issuance of additional bonds or other indebtedness. Notwithstanding any other law, the department may also commit any funds available for allocation under Article 10 (commencing with Section 19620) to complete projects funded under this paragraph in the priority described in this paragraph.

(2) For repayment of expenses incurred by fairs in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities.

(3) For health and safety repair projects at fairs.

(4) For support purposes of fairs generally.

(g) Seven and one-half percent of all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in the General Fund.

(h) Up to 10 percent of all revenues payable to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs shall be deposited in a special account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for supplementing purses at fair meetings to achieve the purposes of subdivision (i). The department shall annually determine the percentage of revenues payable to the special account under this subdivision based on the amount necessary to achieve the purposes of subdivision (i).

(i) It is the intent of the Legislature that funds allocated pursuant to subdivision (h) be used primarily at fair racing meetings in the northern zone with a daily average handle of more than three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000). The Legislature further finds that its intent is that these allocations be used to bring the purses at these fairs, exclusive of purses for stakes races and special events, to a level of at least 80 percent of purses for similar classes of horses at private racing associations in the northern zone. The funds shall be used among all breeds. For fair racing meetings in the northern zone with a daily average handle of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) or less, it is the intent of the Legislature to bring the purses to a level of at least 25 percent of purses for similar classes of horses at private racing associations in the northern zone.

(j) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1992.

SEC. 5. Section 19596.6 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 210 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

19596.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, subject to the conditions and limitations set forth in this section and Section 19596.7, the following entities in the central or southern zone are eligible to be licensed to operate a satellite wagering facility for wagering on races conducted in the central or southern zone:

(1) Any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair which conducted general fair activities in 1986 within the central or southern zone, and which is eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, but which is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting, may locate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds.

(2) Any association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the central or southern zone.

(b) The board may authorize an eligible association or, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, an eligible fair, to operate a satellite wagering facility under all of the following conditions:

(1) A racing association licensed to conduct a racing meeting shall conduct satellite wagering only within its racing inclosure.

(2) An organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 has executed an agreement approved by the board with the association conducting a racing meeting and the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide, among other things, the conditions for transmission of the signal and that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility are included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted.

(3) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.

(4) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering have been approved by the board.

(5) Any association or fair that operates a satellite wagering facility shall conduct wagering on all racing conducted in the central or southern zone that is offered to that satellite wagering facility, as long as the satellite wagering facility is not sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or a night meeting, as determined by the board, and, if sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or a night meeting, as long as that loss is not reimbursed by either an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 or an association.

In calculating the loss, if any, for operating a satellite wagering facility for a night meeting, only the expenses incurred by the satellite wagering facility because of acceptance of night wagers shall be considered, and no overhead expenses or expenses of the satellite wagering facility which would be incurred regardless of the acceptance of night wagers shall be considered.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a satellite wagering facility may not be located within the County of Los Angeles or within the County of Orange, except as follows:

(1) If all other conditions in subdivision (b) are met, the Fiftieth District Agricultural Association may be authorized to operate a satellite wagering facility upon its fairgrounds in the City of Lancaster and to accept wagers on races conducted in the southern and central zones.

(2) If all other conditions are met, any fair or association licensed to conduct racing meetings in the County of Los Angeles and any racing association other than a fair which is licensed to conduct racing in the County of Orange may be authorized to operate a satellite wagering facility for the limited purpose of conducting satellite wagering on races conducted at the Twenty-Second District Agricultural Association fairgrounds at Del Mar in the County of San Diego, except that, when a fair in Orange County is licensed for a racing meeting, a satellite wagering facility located within the racing inclosure where the racing meeting is conducted may not operate on the days that racing is conducted.

(d) The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities shall be the same as the percentage deducted from wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted by a satellite wagering facility under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(1) On thoroughbred meetings only, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency for California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(2) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, and the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6, and, in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas and, in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619 and, in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency for California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(3) In addition, on thoroughbred meetings and harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1 percent shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities. Any of the promotion funds that are not distributed in the year in which they are collected may be distributed in the following year, and if promotion funds distributed in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds distributed in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount. Additionally, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(e) On thoroughbred meetings only, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts in subdivision (d) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent as purses to the horsemen participating in the racing meeting, except that owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting. All of the funds distributed for purses from satellite wagering facilities shall go to the purse program of the association conducting the racing meeting, except that all sums for distribution as purses at satellite wagering facilities which are racing fairs in the County of Los Angeles shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for supplementing purses at fair meetings in Los Angeles and Orange Counties. The department shall distribute these funds on an equal basis to each racing fair in these counties for distribution in all nonstakes races and among all breeds.

(f) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, and fair meetings, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (d) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent to the horsemen in the form of purses participating in the racing meeting, except that, for meetings commencing on or after the effective date of the amendments to this subdivision enacted at the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature, owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (e), when satellite wagering is conducted on thoroughbred races at associations or fairs, an amount, not to exceed 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by all satellite wagering facilities, shall be deducted from the funds otherwise allocated for distribution as commissions, purses, and owners' premiums and instead distributed to an organization formed and operated by thoroughbred racing associations, fairs conducting thoroughbred racing, and the organization representing thoroughbred horsemen, with each party having meaningful representation on the board of the organization, to administer, pursuant to supervision of the board, a fund to provide reimbursement for offsite stabling at board-approved auxiliary training facilities of licensed racing associations for additional stalls beyond the number of usable stalls the association is required to make available and maintain pursuant to Section 19535, and for the vanning of starters from these additional stalls on race days for thoroughbred horses.

(h) The funds distributed to the organization formed pursuant to subdivision (g) shall be used to reimburse racing associations who are operating offsite stabling providing additional stalls for the incremental increase in operating costs directly resulting from providing the stabling. Neither the organization administering the offsite stabling and vanning program nor any of the entities forming and operating the organization, except the entity operating the offsite stabling facility where the injury occurred, shall be liable for any injury to any jockey, exercise person, owner, trainer, or any employee or agent thereof, or any horse occurring at any offsite stabling facility.

The funds shall also reimburse horsemen for the cost of vanning starting horses from a board-approved auxiliary training facility operated by a licensed racing association to the track conducting the racing meeting. Horsemen may use carriers of their own choice, except that the amount of reimbursement to horsemen is limited to the amount that the organization determines is generally charged by carriers for vanning from the auxiliary training facility to the track conducting the racing meeting. Neither the organization administering the offsite stabling and vanning program nor any of the entities forming and operating the organization, except the entity actually engaged in vanning horses, shall be liable for any injury occurring to any individual or horse during vanning from an offsite stabling facility.

The training facilities and amenities provided for offsite stabling and training purposes shall be equivalent in character to those provided during racing meetings of the association.

Upon the request of any party within the organization, the board shall adjudicate any dispute regarding costs, or other matters relating to the furnishing of offsite stabling or vanning. The board may, if necessary, appoint an independent auditor to assist in the resolution of disputes. The auditor shall be reimbursed from the funds of the organization.

The organization may maintain a reserve fund of up to 10 percent of the total estimated annual vanning and stabling costs. In addition to the reserve fund, if the funds generated for offsite stabling and vanning are insufficient to fully reimburse racing associations for expenses incurred during the offsite vanning and stabling program, the organization is entitled to accumulate sufficient funds to fully reimburse these expenses.

The amount initially deducted and distributed to the organization shall be 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by satellite wagering facilities authorized under this section on thoroughbred racing, but that allocation may be adjusted by the board, in its discretion, but the adjusted amount may not exceed 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by satellite wagering facilities, to pay expenses and maintain the reserve fund for the continuing support of the program.

(i) Forty-two percent of the revenue payable to the state from license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs under the authority of this section shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated from that account to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the Director of Food and Agriculture, in his or her discretion, for the following purposes, except that the concurrence of the Director of Finance shall be obtained for allocations for the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2):

(1) For repayment of the principal of, interest on, and costs of issuance of, and as security, including any coverage factor, pledged to the payment of, bonds issued or to be issued by a joint powers agency or other debt service or expense, including repayment of any advances made or security required by any provider of credit enhancement or liquidity for those bonds or other indebtedness or expenses of maintaining that credit enhancement or liquidity, incurred for the purpose of constructing or acquiring improvements at a fair's racetrack inclosure, satellite wagering facilities at fairs, health and safety repair projects, or handicapped access compliance projects at fairs or for the purpose of refunding bonds or other indebtedness incurred for those purposes. As used in this paragraph, "coverage factor" means revenues in excess of the amount necessary to pay debt service on the bonds or other indebtedness, up to an amount equal to 100 percent more than the amount of that debt service, which a joint powers authority, pursuant to the resolution or indenture under which the bonds or other indebtedness are or will be issued, pledges as additional security for the payment of that debt service or is required to have or maintain as a condition to the issuance of additional bonds or other indebtedness. Notwithstanding any other law, the department may also commit any funds available for allocation under Article 10 (commencing with Section 19620) to complete projects funded under this paragraph in the priority described in this paragraph.

(2) For repayment of expenses incurred by fairs in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities.

(3) For health and safety repair projects at the fair.

(4) For support purposes of the fair generally.

(j) The remaining 58 percent of the revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities at fairs and all revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities located under the authority of this section at sites other than fairs shall be deposited in the General Fund.

(k) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 19641, the state shall receive as additional license fees 50 percent of any redistributable money in a parimutuel pool arising from wagers at a satellite wagering facility, subject to payment to a claimant pursuant to Section 19598, but not successfully claimed within that period, and the funds shall be deposited in the General Fund. The remaining 50 percent of redistributable money in a parimutuel pool arising from wagers at a satellite wagering facility shall be paid to a welfare fund established by the horsemen's organization contracting with the association conducting the racing meeting for the benefit of horsemen, and that organization shall make an accounting to the board within one calendar year of the receipt of the payment.

(l) Of the total breakage arising in a parimutuel pool which includes wagers at satellite wagering facilities, that percentage of breakage equal to the percentage that wagers placed at satellite wagering facilities constitute of the total parimutuel pool shall be distributed equally among the state as an additional license fee deposited in the General Fund, the track conducting the racing meeting as a commission, and the horsemen participating in the racing meeting in the form of purses. The remainder of the breakage shall be distributed in the same manner as breakage arising from wagers at the track conducting the racing meeting.

(m) Notwithstanding subdivision (f) of Section 19596.5 and subdivision (i) of this section, if the revenues deposited in the separate account pursuant to those subdivisions (f) and (i) are in excess of the eleven million dollars ($11,000,000) in any fiscal year, one-half of the amount in excess of eleven million dollars ($11,000,000) shall be transferred to the General Fund.

(n) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. Section 19596.6 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19596.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, subject to the conditions and limitations set forth in this section and Section 19596.7, the following entities in the central or southern zone are eligible to be licensed to operate a satellite wagering facility for wagering on races conducted in the central or southern zone:

(1) Any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair which conducted general fair activities in 1986 within the central or southern zone, and which is eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, but which is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting, may locate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds.

(2) Any association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the central or southern zone.

(b) The board may authorize an eligible association or, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, an eligible fair, to operate a satellite wagering facility under all of the following conditions:

(1) A racing association licensed to conduct a racing meeting shall conduct satellite wagering only within its racing inclosure.

(2) An organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 has executed an agreement approved by the board with the association conducting a racing meeting and the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide, among other things, the conditions for transmission of the signal and that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility are included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted.

(3) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.

(4) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering have been approved by the board.

(5) Any association or fair that operates a satellite wagering facility shall conduct wagering on all racing conducted in the central or southern zone that is offered to that satellite wagering facility, as long as the satellite wagering facility is not sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or a night meeting, as determined by the board, and, if sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or a night meeting, as long as that loss is not reimbursed by either an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 or an association.

In calculating the loss, if any, for operating a satellite wagering facility for a night meeting, only the expenses incurred by the satellite wagering facility because of acceptance of night wagers shall be considered, and no overhead expenses or expenses of the satellite wagering facility which would be incurred regardless of the acceptance of night wagers shall be considered.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a satellite wagering facility may not be located within the County of Los Angeles or within the County of Orange, except as follows:

(1) If all other conditions in subdivision (b) are met, the Fiftieth District Agricultural Association may be authorized to operate a satellite wagering facility upon its fairgrounds in the City of Lancaster and to accept wagers on races conducted in the southern and central zones.

(2) If all other conditions are met, any fair or association licensed to conduct racing meetings in the County of Los Angeles and any racing association other than a fair which is licensed to conduct racing in the County of Orange may be authorized to operate a satellite wagering facility for the limited purpose of conducting satellite wagering on races conducted at the Twenty-Second District Agricultural Association fairgrounds at Del Mar in the County of San Diego, except that, when a fair in Orange County is licensed for a racing meeting, a satellite wagering facility located within the racing inclosure where the racing meeting is conducted may not operate on the days that racing is conducted.

(d) The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities shall be the same as the percentage deducted from wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted by a satellite wagering facility under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(1) On thoroughbred meetings only, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency for California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(2) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent shall be retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, and 6 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4, and, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6, and, in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas and, in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619 and, in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency for California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent of the amount wagered at the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine. University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that these one-tenth of 1 percent funds to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement and not supplant other funding sources.

(3) In addition, on thoroughbred meetings and harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1 percent shall be distributed to an organization described in subdivision (c) of Section 19596.4 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities. Any of the promotion funds that are not distributed in the year in which they are collected may be distributed in the following year, and if promotion funds distributed in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds distributed in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount. Additionally, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(e) On thoroughbred meetings only, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts in subdivision (d) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent as purses to the horsemen participating in the racing meeting, except that owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting. All of the funds distributed for purses from satellite wagering facilities shall go to the purse program of the association conducting the racing meeting, except that all sums for distribution as purses at satellite wagering facilities which are racing fairs in the County of Los Angeles shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for supplementing purses at fair meetings in Los Angeles and Orange Counties. The department shall distribute these funds on an equal basis to each racing fair in these counties for distribution in all nonstakes races and among all breeds.

(f) On harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, and fair meetings, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in subdivision (d) shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent to the horsemen in the form of purses participating in the racing meeting, except that, for meetings commencing on or after the effective date of the amendments to this subdivision enacted at the 1987–88 Regular Session of the Legislature, owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (e), when satellite wagering is conducted on thoroughbred races at associations or fairs, an amount, not to exceed 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by all satellite wagering facilities, shall be deducted from the funds otherwise allocated for distribution as commissions, purses, and owners' premiums and instead distributed to an organization formed and operated by thoroughbred racing associations, fairs conducting thoroughbred racing, and the organization representing thoroughbred horsemen, with each party having meaningful representation on the board of the organization, to administer, pursuant to supervision of the board, a fund to provide reimbursement for offsite stabling at board-approved auxiliary training facilities of licensed racing associations for additional stalls beyond the number of usable stalls the association is required to make available and maintain pursuant to Section 19535, and for the vanning of starters from these additional stalls on race days for thoroughbred horses.

(h) The funds distributed to the organization formed pursuant to subdivision (g) shall be used to reimburse racing associations who are operating offsite stabling providing additional stalls for the incremental increase in operating costs directly resulting from providing the stabling. Neither the organization administering the offsite stabling and vanning program nor any of the entities forming and operating the organization, except the entity operating the offsite stabling facility where the injury occurred, shall be liable for any injury to any jockey, exercise person, owner, trainer, or any employee or agent thereof, or any horse occurring at any offsite stabling facility.

The funds shall also reimburse horsemen for the cost of vanning starting horses from a board-approved auxiliary training facility operated by a licensed racing association to the track conducting the racing meeting. Horsemen may use carriers of their own choice, except that the amount of reimbursement to horsemen is limited to the amount that the organization determines is generally charged by carriers for vanning from the auxiliary training facility to the track conducting the racing meeting. Neither the organization administering the offsite stabling and vanning program nor any of the entities forming and operating the organization, except the entity actually engaged in vanning horses, shall be liable for any injury occurring to any individual or horse during vanning from an offsite stabling facility.

The training facilities and amenities provided for offsite stabling and training purposes shall be equivalent in character to those provided during racing meetings of the association.

Upon the request of any party within the organization, the board shall adjudicate any dispute regarding costs, or other matters relating to the furnishing of offsite stabling or vanning. The board may, if necessary, appoint an independent auditor to assist in the resolution of disputes. The auditor shall be reimbursed from the funds of the organization.

The organization may maintain a reserve fund of up to 10 percent of the total estimated annual vanning and stabling costs. In addition to the reserve fund, if the funds generated for offsite stabling and vanning are insufficient to fully reimburse racing associations for expenses incurred during the offsite vanning and stabling program, the organization is entitled to accumulate sufficient funds to fully reimburse these expenses.

The amount initially deducted and distributed to the organization shall be 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by satellite wagering facilities authorized under this section on thoroughbred racing, but that allocation may be adjusted by the board, in its discretion, but the adjusted amount may not exceed 1.25 percent of the total amount handled by satellite wagering facilities, to pay expenses and maintain the reserve fund for the continuing support of the program.

(i) Forty-two percent of the revenue payable to the state from license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs under the authority of this section shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is hereby continuously appropriated from that account to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the Director of Food and Agriculture, in his or her discretion, for the following purposes, except that the concurrence of the Director of Finance shall be obtained for allocations for the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2):

(1) For repayment of the principal of, interest on, and costs of issuance of, and as security, including any coverage factor, pledged to the payment of, bonds issued or to be issued by a joint powers agency or other debt service or expense, including repayment of any advances made or security required by any provider of credit enhancement or liquidity for those bonds or other indebtedness or expenses of maintaining that credit enhancement or liquidity, incurred for the purpose of constructing or acquiring improvements at a fair's racetrack inclosure, satellite wagering facilities at fairs, health and safety repair projects, or handicapped access compliance projects at fairs or for the purpose of refunding bonds or other indebtedness incurred for those purposes. As used in this paragraph, "coverage factor" means revenues in excess of the amount necessary to pay debt service on the bonds or other indebtedness, up to an amount equal to 100 percent more than the amount of that debt service, which a joint powers authority, pursuant to the resolution or indenture under which the bonds or other indebtedness are or will be issued, pledges as additional security for the payment of that debt service or is required to have or maintain as a condition to the issuance of additional bonds or other indebtedness. Notwithstanding any other law, the department may also commit any funds available for allocation under Article 10 (commencing with Section 19620) to complete projects funded under this paragraph in the priority described in this paragraph.

(2) For repayment of expenses incurred by fairs in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities.

(3) For health and safety repair projects at the fair.

(4) For support purposes of the fair generally.

(j) The remaining 58 percent of the revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities at fairs and all revenues payable to the state from satellite wagering facilities located under the authority of this section at sites other than fairs shall be deposited in the General Fund.

(k) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 19641, the state shall receive as additional license fees 50 percent of any redistributable money in a parimutuel pool arising from wagers at a satellite wagering facility, subject to payment to a claimant pursuant to Section 19598, but not successfully claimed within that period, and the funds shall be deposited in the General Fund. The remaining 50 percent of redistributable money in a parimutuel pool arising from wagers at a satellite wagering facility shall be paid to a welfare fund established by the horsemen's organization contracting with the association conducting the racing meeting for the benefit of horsemen, and that organization shall make an accounting to the board within one calendar year of the receipt of the payment.

(l) Of the total breakage arising in a parimutuel pool which includes wagers at satellite wagering facilities, that percentage of breakage equal to the percentage that wagers placed at satellite wagering facilities constitute of the total parimutuel pool shall be distributed equally among the state as an additional license fee deposited in the General Fund, the track conducting the racing meeting as a commission, and the horsemen participating in the racing meeting in the form of purses. The remainder of the breakage shall be distributed in the same manner as breakage arising from wagers at the track conducting the racing meeting.

(m) Notwithstanding subdivision (f) of Section 19596.5 and subdivision (i) of this section, if the revenues deposited in the separate account pursuant to those subdivisions (f) and (i) are in excess of the eleven million dollars ($11,000,000) in any fiscal year, one-half of the amount in excess of eleven million dollars ($11,000,000) shall be transferred to the General Fund.

(n) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1992.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to maintain the availability of sufficient offsite stabling facilities for thoroughbred racehorses participating in northern California meetings, to provide for more cost-effective use of promotional funds at satellite wagering facilities for the current racing season, and to ensure payment of actual operating expenses of the organization operating the audiovisual signal for those facilities, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 971

An act to add Section 382.5 to the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 382.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

382.5. A binder which is issued in accordance with this section shall be deemed an insurance policy for the purpose of proving that the insured has the insurance coverage specified in the binder.

(a) As used in this section, "binder" means a writing (1) which includes the name and address of the insured and any additional named insureds, mortgagees, or lienholders, a description of the property insured, if applicable, a description of the nature and amount of coverage and any special exclusions not contained in a standard policy, the identity of the insurer and the agent executing the binder, the effective date of coverage, the binder number or the policy number where applicable to a policy extension, and (2) which temporarily obligates the insurer to provide that insurance coverage pending issuance of the insurance policy. For purposes of this section, "binder" does not include, and this section does not apply to, any writing that conditionally or unconditionally obligates an insurer to provide (1) life or disability insurance or (2) insurance in the amount of one million dollars ($1,000,000) or more.

(b) Except as superseded by the clear and express terms of the binder, a binder shall be deemed to include all of the usual terms of the policy as to which the binder was given, together with applicable endorsements as are designated in the binder.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, a binder shall be valid for the period specified therein not exceeding 90 days from the date of execution of the binder or, if not specified, for that period of 90 days. No binder shall remain valid on or after the date the insurance policy is issued with respect to which the binder was given. Expiration of coverage under a binder shall not be considered a cancellation or nonrenewal of a policy of insurance within the meaning of any statute limiting the right to cancel or nonrenew a policy of insurance.

(d) If any party to a contract or other agreement refuses without reasonable cause to accept a binder as proof of insurance when that proof is required by the contract or agreement, that party shall be deemed to have breached the contract and the other party thereto, shall be entitled to appropriate injunctive relief and may recover damages for the breach and reasonable attorney's fees and costs. As used in this subdivision, "reasonable cause" includes, but shall not be limited to, any of the following:

(1) Inadequate coverage or inappropriate terms of coverage with respect to the interest of the vendor, lender, lessor, or other person providing a service to the insured.

(2) Failure of the insurer to meet the financial standards "lawfully" established by the lender for all insurers for the type of loan for which the insurance is obtained.

(3) Inability of the lender to determine if the insurer is licensed as an admitted insurer by the commissioner to transact the line of insurance for which the binder is issued.

(4) Failure of the insurance agent to provide the lender with written evidence of the agent's authority to bind insurance coverage on behalf of the insurer under the binder.

(5) Failure of the binder to comply with this section.

(e) For purposes of all insurance policies providing collateral insurance coverage, binders issued in accordance with this section shall be deemed an insurance policy.

(f) The commissioner may suspend or revoke the license of any agent issuing or purporting to issue any binder of a type for which the agent lacks authority from the insurer named in the binder.

CHAPTER 972

An act to amend Sections 1339.66 and 1339.67 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to respite care, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1339.66 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1339.66. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to collect data and information on a variety of types of services that can meet the needs for and upon which to consider the development of regulations governing provision of respite care in licensed health facilities if determined by this program to be necessary.

(b) On or before July 1, 1990, the department shall submit a report to the Legislature on the implementation of this article, which shall address the following:

(1) The number of persons served by the program, and the types of services provided to them.

(2) As assessment of the need for respite care services and to identification of services that may be necessary but not currently available.

(3) Identification of any factors which significantly enhance or inhibit the successful provision of respite care.

(4) Recommendations for amended regulations necessary to govern respite care services in licensed health facilities.

SEC. 2. Section 1339.67 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1339.67. This article shall remain in effect until July 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before July 1, 1991, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide needed respite care for frail elderly, functionally impaired, developmentally disabled, and mentally disordered persons, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 973

An act to amend Section 4690.1 of, and to add Section 4416.5 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to developmental services, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4690.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4690.1. (a) By March 1, 1986, the department, in consultation with representatives of regional centers and providers of transportation services to regional center clients, shall develop a cost statement to be used in setting rates for providers of transportation services.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the department may develop alternative procedures for establishing rates for providers of transportation services, including, but not limited to, a noncompetitive process and a competitive process for use by regional centers in which rates of reimbursement are established based on contract bids or proposals.

SEC. 2. Section 4416.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

4416.5. The State Department of Developmental Services may contract with one or more qualified organizations to provide the services required by Section 1919 of the Social Security Act (P.L. 100-203) to persons eligible for those services who are not otherwise within the scope of Division 4.1 (commencing with Section 4400), Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 4500), Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000), or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 7500) of Division 7. Contracts entered into pursuant to this section may be awarded on either a competitive bidding basis or on a noncompetitive bidding basis.

SEC. 5. The funds required by the State Department of Developmental Services to implement the provisions of Section 2 of this act shall be provided from moneys appropriated by Items 4260-001-890 and 4300-101-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1989, Chapter 93 of the Statutes of 1989.

Upon request of the Department of Developmental Services, and under order of the Director of Finance, the Controller shall transfer up to one hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($175,000) from Item 4300-101-001 to Item 4300-001-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1989, Chapter 93 of the Statutes of 1989, to implement Section 2 of this act.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that California has the statutory authority needed to comply with the assessment and treatment requirements of Public Law 100-203 within the timelines established by that legislation, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 974

An act to add Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 66799.60) and Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 66799.100) to Title 7.3 of, and to repeal Section 66799.140 of, the Government Code, and to amend Section 374.3 of the Penal Code, relating to solid waste, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 66799.60) is added to Title 7.3 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5. WASTE TIRES

Article 1. Definitions

66799.60. The following definitions govern the construction of this chapter.

66799.61. "Agricultural purposes" means the use of waste tires as bumpers on agricultural equipment or as a ballast to maintain covers or structures on an agricultural site.

66799.62. "Fund" means the California Tire Recycling Management Fund created by subdivision (a) of Section 66799.140.

66799.63. "Local agency" means a county, city, special district, or other local governmental agency which provides or regulates solid waste handling services.

66799.64. "Operator" means the person responsible for the overall operation of a waste tire facility.

66799.65. "Owner" means a person who owns, in whole or in part, a waste tire facility, the waste tires located at a facility, or the land on which a waste tire facility is located.

66799.66. "Tire" means a pneumatic tire or solid tire manufactured for use on any type of motor vehicle.

66799.67. "Waste tire" means a tire that has been removed from the wheel of a vehicle and is no longer suitable for its original intended purpose due to wear, damage, or defect.

66799.68. "Waste tire facility" means a location, other than a solid waste facility permitted pursuant to this title that receives for transfer or disposal less than 150 tires per day averaged on an annual basis, where, at any time, waste tires are stored, stockpiled, accumulated, or discarded. "Waste tire facility" includes all of the following:

(a) "Existing waste tire facility," means a waste tire facility which is receiving, storing, or accumulating waste tires, or upon which waste tires are discarded, on January 1, 1990.

(b) "Major waste tire facility," means a waste tire facility where, at any time, 5,000 or more waste tires are or will be stored, stockpiled, accumulated, or discarded.

(c) "Minor waste tire facility," means a waste tire facility where, at any time, 500 or more, but less than 5,000, waste tires are or will be stored, stockpiled, accumulated, or discarded.

Article 2. Registration and General Provisions

66799.70. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), every person who, at any time in a calendar year, stores or stockpiles more than 500 waste tires at a specific location, and every owner and operator of an existing waste tire facility with a stockpile of 500 or more waste tires shall file with the board a waste tire registration statement.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to a tire dealer or to an auto dismantler, as defined in Section 220 of the Vehicle Code, who stores tires on the dealer's business premises for less than 90 days if not more than 1,500 waste tires are ever accumulated on that dealer's business premises.

66799.71. The registration statement shall include all of the following:

(a) The name and address of the person or firm owning the property on which the waste tires are stored, stockpiled, or disposed.

(b) The name and address of the person who operates the waste tire facility.

(c) The name and 24-hour phone number of the person to contact in the event of an emergency involving waste tires on the waste tire facility.

(d) An estimate of the number of waste tires that are stored, stockpiled, or present in a waste tire facility at the time the registration statement is completed and filed with the board.

(e) An estimate of the number of waste tires that are generally stored, stockpiled, and disposed of each month.

(f) A physical description of the waste tire facility.

(g) A description of any methods used to shred, reprocess, recycle, reclaim, incinerate, or reuse waste tires.

66799.72. Waste tire registration statements shall be filed on forms provided by the board. Forms provided by the board shall include, but not be limited to, all of the information in Section 66799.71.

66799.73. (a) Any person who fails to submit the waste tire registration statement on or before April 1, 1990, or within 10 days of the establishment of a new waste tire facility, shall be liable civilly to the board in an amount of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) per day nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) per day for each day the statement has not been received.

(b) Any person who knowingly submits false information to the board shall be liable civilly to the board in an amount of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) nor more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per day for each day the false information is not corrected.

66799.74. The board shall compile the waste tire registration statements by each city and county within which the tire facility is located. These compilations shall be transmitted to the appropriate cities and counties on or before July 1, 1991.

66799.75. Nothing in this chapter limits the authority of a local agency to regulate persons or businesses that store, stockpile, process, or dispose of waste tires.

66799.76. The board may delegate specific powers and authority in this chapter to local enforcement agencies, as defined in Section 66714.3, including any of the following:

(a) Review of operation plans submitted pursuant to regulations adopted under subdivision (a) of Section 66799.81.

(b) Inspection of permitted facilities under Section 66799.94.

(c) Enforcement of waste tire facility permits.

66799.77. Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code does not apply to the issuance of a permit for the operation of an existing waste tire facility pursuant to this chapter, except as to any substantial change in the design or operation of the waste tire facility made between the time this chapter becomes effective and the permit is initially issued by the board and as to any subsequent substantial changes made in the design or operation of the waste tire facility.

Article 3. Major Waste Tire Facility Permits

66799.80. (a) On or before July 1, 1991, the board, in consultation with the State Fire Marshal and the State Department of Health Services, shall adopt emergency regulations setting forth the procedures and requirements necessary to obtain a major waste tire facility permit.

(b) Regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) shall not require the issuance of a separate permit to a solid waste disposal facility which is permitted in accordance with Section 66796.30.

66799.81. The regulations for major waste tire facility permits shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) Requirements for submission of a detailed operations plan which contains the following components:

(1) Fire prevention measures.

(2) Fencing and other security measures.

(3) Vector control measures.

(4) Limits on the size and height of tire piles.

(5) A closure plan.

(b) Requirements for submission of a detailed plan and implementation schedule for the elimination or substantial reduction of existing tire piles using any of the following methods or techniques:

(1) Polymer treatment.

(2) Rubber reclaiming and crumb rubber production.

(3) Pyrolysis.

(4) Production of supplemental fuels for cement kilns, lumber operations, or other industrial processes.

(5) Tire shredding and transportation to an authorized solid waste landfill.

(6) Energy recovery through incineration of whole or shredded tires in accordance with the terms and conditions of a permit issued by an air pollution control district or air quality management district.

(7) Other applications deemed appropriate by the board.

(c) Requirements for the submission of evidence of financial assurances secured by the operator of the facility that are adequate to cover damage claims arising out of the operation of the facility and that are adequate to cover the cost of closure if that becomes necessary. The financial assurance shall be a trust fund, surety bond, letter of credit, insurance, or other equivalent financial arrangement acceptable to the board.

66799.82. The board shall issue major waste tire facility permits pursuant to the regulations upon application therefor.

66799.83. On or after July 1, 1991, no person shall establish a new major waste tire facility or expand an existing minor waste tire facility unless the person has obtained from the board a major waste tire facility permit issued pursuant to Section 66799.82.

66799.84. (a) On or after September 1, 1992, it is unlawful to direct or transport waste tires to a major waste tire facility or to accept waste tires at a major waste tire facility unless the operator has obtained a major waste tire facility permit.

(b) Any person who accepts waste tires at a major waste tire facility which has not been issued a permit or knowingly directs or transports waste tires to a major waste tire facility which has not been issued a permit shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) nor more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each day of violation, by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

Article 4. Minor Waste Tire Facility Permits

66799.85. (a) On or before December 1, 1991, the board, in consultation with the State Fire Marshal and the State Department of Health Services, shall adopt emergency regulations setting forth the procedures and requirements necessary to obtain a minor waste tire facility permit.

(b) Regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) shall not require the issuance of a separate permit to a solid waste disposal facility which is permitted in accordance with Section 66796.30.

66799.86. The board may exempt either of the following from the permit requirements of this article:

(a) An owner or operator of a tire retreading business for the business site if no more than 3,000 waste tires are kept on the business premises.

(b) A person using waste tires for agricultural purposes if the waste tires are kept on the site of use.

66799.87. The regulations for minor waste tire facility permits shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) Fire prevention measures.

(b) Vector control measures.

(c) Other measures determined by the board to be necessary to protect the public health and safety.

66799.88. The board shall issue minor waste tire facility permits pursuant to the regulations upon application therefor.

66799.89. (a) On or after July 1, 1993, it is unlawful to direct or transport waste tires to a minor waste tire facility or to accept waste tires at a minor waste tire facility unless the operator has obtained a minor waste tire facility permit.

(b) Any person who accepts waste tires at a minor waste tire facility which has not been issued a permit or knowingly directs or transports waste tires to a minor waste tire facility which has not been issued a permit shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each day of violation, by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

Article 5. Renewal, Suspension, or Revocation

66799.90. (a) A waste tire facility permit issued pursuant to this chapter is valid for five years unless suspended or revoked. The permit shall be renewed prior to the expiration thereof.

(b) The board may refuse to issue or renew a waste tire facility permit on any grounds for which it may suspend or revoke a permit.

66799.91. The board may deny, suspend, or revoke a waste tire facility permit in accordance with the procedures in Sections 66799.92 and 66799.93 if the applicant or holder of the permit has done any of the following acts:

(a) Committed any violation of, or failed to comply with any requirement of, this chapter.

(b) Aided, abetted, or permitted any violation of this chapter.

(c) Aided, abetted, or permitted a failure to comply with this chapter if the failure of compliance shows a repeating or recurring pattern or may pose a threat to public health or safety or the environment.

(d) Committed any violation of, or failed to comply with, any order issued by the board relating to the safe storage or processing of waste tires.

(e) Committed any misrepresentation or omission of a significant fact or other required information in the application for a waste tire facility permit.

66799.92. Except as provided in Section 66799.93, proceedings for the denial, suspension, or revocation of a permit under this chapter shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the board shall have all the powers granted by those provisions. In the event of a conflict between this chapter and the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, those provisions of the Government Code shall prevail.

66799.93. The board may temporarily suspend any permit issued pursuant to this chapter prior to any hearing if the board determines that the action is necessary to prevent or mitigate an imminent or substantial endangerment to the public health or safety or the environment. The board shall notify the holder of the permit of the temporary suspension and the effective date thereof and, at the same time, shall serve the person with an accusation. Upon receipt by the board of a notice of defense to the accusation from the holder of the permit, the board shall, within 15 days, set the matter for a hearing, which shall be held as soon as possible, but not later than 30 days after receipt of the notice. The temporary suspension shall remain in effect until the hearing is completed and the board has made a final determination on the merits, which shall be made within 60 days after the completion of the hearing. If the determination is not transmitted within this period, the temporary suspension shall be of no further effect.

66799.94. (a) Any person who stores, stockpiles, or accumulates waste tires at a location for which a waste tire facility permit is required pursuant to this chapter, or in violation of the terms and conditions of the permit, the provisions of this chapter, or the regulations adopted under this chapter, shall, upon order of the board, clean up those waste tires or abate the effects thereof, or, in the case of threatened pollution or nuisance, take other necessary remedial action. Upon failure of any person to comply with the cleanup or abatement order, the Attorney General, at the request of the board, shall petition the superior court for that county for the issuance of an injunction requiring the person to comply therewith. In any suit, the court shall have jurisdiction to grant a prohibitory or mandatory injunction, either preliminary or permanent, as the facts may warrant.

(b) The board may expend available moneys to perform any cleanup, abatement, or remedial work required under the circumstances set forth in subdivision (a) which in its judgment is required by the magnitude of endeavor or urgency of prompt action needed to prevent substantial pollution, nuisance, or injury to the public health or safety. The action may be taken in default of, or in addition to, remedial work by the violator or other persons, and regardless of whether injunctive relief is being sought. The board may perform the work itself, or by or in cooperation with any other governmental agency, and may use rented tools or equipment, either with operators furnished or unoperated. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the board may enter into oral contracts for that work, and the contracts, whether written or oral, may include provisions for equipment rental and in addition the furnishing of labor and materials necessary to accomplish the work. The contracts shall be exempt from approval by the Department of General Services pursuant to the provisions of Section 14780 of the Government Code.

(c) If waste tires are cleaned up, the effects of the tires abated, or, in the case of threatened pollution or nuisance, other necessary remedial action is taken by any governmental agency, the person or persons who unlawfully stored, stockpiled, or accumulated the waste tires or who unlawfully permitted the storage, stockpile, or accumulation of waste tires or who threatened to cause or permit the unlawful storage, stockpile, or accumulation of waste tires within the meaning of subdivision (a), shall be liable to that governmental agency to the extent of the reasonable costs actually incurred in cleaning up the waste, abating the effects thereof, or taking other remedial actions. The amount of those costs shall be recoverable in a civil action by, and paid to, the governmental agency and the board to the extent of the latter's contribution to the cleanup costs from available funds.

(d) If, despite reasonable efforts by the board to identify the person responsible for the unlawful storage, stockpiling, or accumulation of waste tires or the condition of pollution or nuisance, the person is not identified at the time cleanup, abatement, or remedial work must be performed, the board shall not be required to issue an order under this section.

(e) "Threaten," for purposes of this section, means a condition creating a substantial probability of harm, when the probability and potential extent of harm make it reasonably necessary to take immediate action to prevent, reduce, or mitigate damages to persons, property, natural resources, or the public health or safety.

Article 6. Administrative Enforcement

66799.95. (a) Except as provided in Section 66799.73, any person who intentionally or negligently violates any provision of this chapter, or any permit, rule, regulation, standard, or requirement issued or adopted pursuant to this chapter, shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each violation of a separate provision or for continuing violations for each day that violation continues.

(b) Liability under this section and Section 66799.73 may be imposed in a civil action or liability may be imposed administratively pursuant to Section 66799.96.

66799.96. (a) The board may issue a complaint to any person on whom civil liability may be imposed pursuant to Section 66799.73 or 66799.95. The complaint shall allege the acts or failures to act that constitute a basis for liability and the amount of the proposed civil liability. The complaint shall be served by personal service or certified mail and shall inform the party so served that a hearing shall be conducted within 60 days after the party has been served, unless the party waives the right to a hearing. If the party waives the right to a hearing, the board shall issue an order setting liability in the amount proposed in the complaint unless the board and the party have entered into a settlement agreement, in which case the board shall issue an order setting liability in the amount specified in the settlement agreement. If the party has waived the right to a hearing or if the board and the party have entered into a settlement agreement, the order shall not be subject to review by any court or agency.

(b) Any hearing required under this section shall be conducted by an independent hearing officer according to the procedures specified in Sections 11507 to 11517, inclusive, of the Government

Code, except as otherwise specified in this section. In making a determination, the hearing officer shall take into consideration the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation, the violator's past and present efforts to prevent, abate, or clean up conditions posing a threat to the public health or safety or the environment, the violator's ability to pay the proposed civil penalty, and the prophylactic effect that imposition of the proposed penalty will have on both the violator and on the regulated community as a whole. After conducting any hearing required under this section, the hearing officer shall, within 30 days after the case is submitted, issue a decision, including an order setting the amount of civil penalty to be imposed.

(c) Orders setting civil liability issued under this section shall become effective and final upon issuance thereof, and payment shall be made within 30 days of issuance. Copies of these orders shall be served by personal service or by certified mail upon the party served with the complaint and upon other persons who appeared at the hearing and requested a copy.

(d) Within 30 days after service of a copy of a decision issued by the hearing officer, any person so served may file with the superior court a petition for writ of mandate for review of the decision. Any person who fails to file the petition within the 30-day period may not challenge the reasonableness or validity of a decision or order of the hearing officer in any judicial proceedings brought to enforce the decision or order or for other remedies. Except as otherwise provided in this section, Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure governs any proceedings conducted pursuant to this subdivision. In all proceedings pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall uphold the decision of the hearing officer if the decision is based upon substantial evidence in the whole record. The filing of a petition for writ of mandate does not stay any corrective action required pursuant to this chapter or the accrual of any penalties assessed pursuant to this chapter. This subdivision does not prohibit the court from granting any appropriate relief within its jurisdiction.

66799.97. All penalties collected under Section 66799.96 shall be deposited in the California Tire Recycling and Management Fund created pursuant to Section 66799.140.

Article 7. Waste Tires to Energy

66799.98. On or before December 1, 1991, the board, in consultation with the State Air Resources Board and the State Energy Resources and Conservation Commission shall complete and submit to the Legislature a report on the feasibility of using waste tires as a fuel supplement for cement kilns, lumber operations, and other industrial processes.

The report shall include an assessment of air quality impacts, the indentification of major obstacles to the utilization of waste tires as fuel supplements, and, if appropriate, recommendations to encourage greater utilization of waste tires as fuel supplements.

SEC. 2. Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 66799.100) is added to Title 7.3 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6. CALIFORNIA TIRE RECYCLING ACT

Article 1. Findings

66799.100. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the California Tire Recycling Act.

66799.101. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) The problem posed by used tire storage and disposal requires a comprehensive, statewide response, including, but not limited to, reducing landfill disposal of used whole tires, recycling of tires into secondary uses, source material development and promotion of secondary markets for used tire byproducts, tire shredding, and energy recovery.

(b) California is currently faced with an existing used tire inventory of at least 100 million tires, an amount which grows by over 20 million tires per year. Without a dedication of resources to address the state's growing tire population, the health and safety of all Californians will be increasingly at risk.

(c) There are currently no dedicated resources for the recycling of used tires, or a comprehensive tire shredding program. Therefore, the levying of a fee on the disposal of used whole tires in the state is needed to support tire recycling activities.

(d) Used tires represent a valuable state resource which should be reclaimed and recycled whenever possible. An abundance of tire recycling alternatives exist which have been demonstrated to be environmentally safe. These alternatives need to be promoted in order to achieve the maximum use of used tires.

(e) Shredding of used tires represents a preferable alternative to whole tire storage or disposal. Given the rapidly decreasing amount of landfill space available to local jurisdictions, shredding represents a positive way of storing tires until a secondary use can be developed.

Article 2. Storage at Landfills

66799.110. (a) It is the policy of the state that until a state tire recycling program is fully underway and operational, the shredding of used tires shall be encouraged.

(b) For the purposes of this act, a "tire" refers to any vehicle tire whose major component is rubber, and its component parts. "Shredding" includes both mechanical and cryogenic shredding which reduces tires to a size of less than four inches in width.

66799.111. The board shall adopt emergency regulations setting forth procedures for the authorization of at least one landfill in each region of the state to accept and store shredded tires. These regulations shall require that shredded tires be separate from other forms of solid waste and stored in a manner that will encourage their removal for future use.

66799.112. Except as otherwise determined by the board, only landfills authorized in this article shall be eligible for financial assistance in the shredding of tires pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 66799.120).

Article 3. Tire Recycling

66799.120. It is the intent of the Legislature:

(a) To reduce the landfill disposal and stockpiling of used whole tires by 25 percent within four years of full implementation of a statewide tire recycling program and to recycle and reclaim used tires and used tire components to the greatest extent possible in order to recover valuable natural resources.

(b) To eliminate illegal dumping and unnecessary stockpiling of used tires.

66799.121. (a) On or before July 1, 1991, the board shall initiate a tire recycling program which promotes and develops alternatives to the landfill disposal of used whole tires. Activities of the board may include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) The awarding of grants, subsidies, and loans to businesses or other enterprises, and public entities, involved in activities and applications that result in reduced landfill disposal of used whole tires and reduced illegal disposal or stockpiling of used whole tires.

(2) The awarding of grants for research aimed at developing technologies or improving current activities and applications that result in reduced landfill disposal of used whole tires.

(3) The awarding of grants or loans for the evaluation, planning, design, improvement, and implementation of alternative used tire recycling programs in this state.

(4) The awarding of grants or loans to businesses which shred used tires for purposes of recycling.

(5) Development and implementation of an information and education program, including seminars and conferences, aimed at promoting alternatives to the landfill disposal of used whole tires.

(6) The awarding of grants or loans to tire shredding programs at authorized landfills, solid waste transfer stations, or dedicated tire shredding facilities, including the direct purchase of shredders or financing of shredder contracts.

(b) Activities eligible for funding under this section that reduce, or that are designed to reduce or promote the reduction of, landfill disposal of used whole tires may include the following:

(1) Polymer treatment.

(2) Rubber reclaiming and crumb rubber production.

(3) Retreading.

(4) Shredding.

(5) The manufacture of products made from used tires, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(A) Artificial reefs.
(B) Rubber asphalt.
(C) Playground equipment.
(D) Crash barriers.
(E) Erosion control materials.
(F) Nonslip floor and track surfacing.
(G) Oil spill recovery equipment.
(H) Roofing adhesives.

(6) Other environmentally safe applications or treatments determined to be appropriate by the board. The board shall delay any determination of whether the use of waste tires for fuel is appropriate until it has reviewed the report required pursuant to Section 66799.98.

66799.122. (a) The board shall evaluate applications for loans or grants under this article based upon, but not limited to, the following factors in the proposal:

(1) The quantity of used tires that will be diverted from landfills.

(2) The estimated cost per tire in the recycling, processing, or conversion process.

(3) The availability of markets for the recycled tire product.

(4) The degree to which the processing program mitigates or avoids adverse environmental effects.

(b) The board may also consider the following factors in awarding grant or loan applications:

(1) The ability of the proposed processing program to integrate with existing or proposed solid waste management activities.

(2) Financial support for implementation and operation of the proposed processing program from sources other than loans and grants from the board.

(3) The degree to which the technical approach of the proposal makes the loan and grant program financially self-sufficient.

(4) The degree to which the program can be measured or evaluated for success.

(5) The probability that the processing program can be implemented and operated with the funds applied for and the amount of funds sought.

(6) The time that the land or property on which the proposed processing facility is available to the applicant. No proposal shall be considered for a loan or grant unless the property or facility is available for at least five years.

(7) The business plan for operation of the facility.

Article 4. Administration

66799.130. The board shall administer this chapter. For organizational purposes, the board may create a new division, bureau, office, or unit to administer this chapter.

66799.131. (a) In addition to any regulations which the board is required by statute to adopt, the board may adopt any rules or regulations which the board determines may be necessary or useful to carry out this chapter or any of the board's duties or responsibilities imposed pursuant to this chapter.

(b) The board may prepare, publish, or issue printed materials which the board determines to be necessary for the dissemination of information concerning the activities of the board pursuant to this chapter.

66799.132. In carrying out this chapter, the board may solicit and use any and all expertise available in other state agencies, including, but not limited to, the State Board of Equalization, and, where an existing state agency performs functions of a similar nature to the board's functions, the board may contract with, or cooperate with that agency in carrying out this chapter.

66799.133. The recipient of a grant, subsidy, or loan pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 66799.120) shall on or before January 1 of each year submit a report to the board containing information required by the board, including, but not limited to, the number of used whole tires recycled, necessary to measure the success of the recipient's program in reducing the number of tires disposed of in landfills or stockpiled.

66799.134. On or before May 1, 1992, and each May 1 thereafter, the board shall report to the Legislature on the number of tires recycled or otherwise diverted from disposal in landfills or stockpiles and the comparative costs and benefits of the recycling or conversion processes funded under this chapter.

Article 5. Financial Provisions

66799.140. (a) On or after July 1, 1990, every person who leaves tires for disposal with a seller of new or used tires shall pay a disposal fee of twenty-five cents ($0.25) per tire to the seller. The seller may retain 10 percent of the fee as reimbursement for any costs associated with the collection of the fee and shall remit the remainder to the state on a quarterly schedule for deposit in the California Tire Recycling Management Fund, which is hereby created in the State Treasury.

(b) The board, or its agent authorized pursuant to Section 66799.132, shall be reimbursed for its costs of collection, auditing, and refunds associated with the fund, but not to exceed 3 percent of the total annual revenue deposited in the fund.

(c) This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1999, and, as of January 1, 2000, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

66799.141. (a) The fees are due and payable quarterly on or before the fifteenth day following the end of each calendar quarter year.

(b) A penalty of 20 percent of any fees not paid when due shall be assessed and collected.

(c) Except in the case of fraud, intent to evade this chapter or rules and regulations adopted to implement this chapter, or failure to file a return, the notice of a deficiency determination shall be mailed within three years after the amount that is proposed to be determined was due or within three years after the return is filed, whichever period expires later. In the case of failure to file a return, the notice of determination shall be mailed within eight years after the amount that is proposed to be determined was due.

(d) (1) Except as agreed to by the board, no refund shall be approved by the board after three years from the date the payment was due for which the overpayment was made, or with respect to deficiency or jeopardy determinations, after six months from the date the determinations become final, or after six months from the date of overpayment, whichever period expires later, unless a claim therefor is filed with the board within that period. No credit shall be approved by the board after the expiration of that period, unless a claim for credit is filed with the board within that period or unless the credit relates to a period for which a waiver is given by the board.

(2) A refund may be approved by the board for any period agreed to by the board for good cause if a claim therefor is filed with the board before the expiration of the period agreed upon.

(e) The money in the fund shall, upon order of the Controller, be drawn therefrom for the payment of refunds under this chapter. The balance of the money in the fund shall be appropriated in the annual Budget Act to the board for expenditure as provided in Section 66799.142.

66799.142. The board shall expend the money in the fund for the following purposes:

(a) To pay the costs of administration of this chapter, not to exceed 5 percent of the total revenue deposited in the fund annually.

(b) In addition to payments authorized by subdivision (a), to pay the costs of administration associated with collection, making refunds, and auditing revenues in the fund, not to exceed 3 percent of the total revenue deposited in the fund, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 66799.140.

(c) To pay the costs associated with operating the recycling program specified in Article 3 (commencing with Section 66799.120).

(d) To pay the costs associated with the development and enforcement of regulations relating to the storage of waste tires.

(e) To pay the costs of cleanup, abatement, or other remedial action related to the disposal of used whole tires.

(f) To make studies and conduct research directed at promoting and developing alternatives to the landfill disposal of used whole tires.

(g) To pay the costs associated with a statewide shredding program at authorized landfills and solid waste transfer stations.

(h) To pay the offsetting costs associated with a purchase preference granted by the state for materials manufactured from recycled tires, not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars

($100,000) annually.

Article 6. Use of Recycled Tire Products by State Agencies

66799.150. "Recycled tire product" means a product with not less than 50 percent of its total content derived from recycled used tires.

66799.151. (a) The Department of General Services shall revise its procedures and procurement specifications for state purchases of products which are made of, or contain components which can be derived from the recycling of, used tires, including, but not limited to, rubber, oil, natural gas, carbon black, asphalt rubber, floor tiles, carpet underlays, mats, drainage pipes, garbage cans, retreaded tires, and water hoses. For those purchases, the department shall give preference, wherever feasible, to the suppliers of recycled tire products. This preference shall be 5 percent of the lowest bid or price quoted by suppliers offering similar products made from nonrecycled components.

(b) In bids in which the state has reserved the right to make multiple awards, the recycled tire product preference cost shall be applied, to the extent possible, so as to maximize the dollar participation of recycled tire product businesses in the contract award.

(c) The combined amount of preference granted pursuant to this section shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) each year.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), the recycled tire product preference shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) if a preference exceeding that amount would preclude an award to a small business that offers a similar product made of nonrecycled tire components and is qualified in accordance with Section 14838 of the Government Code. This provision applies regardless of whether the small business is the lowest responsible bidder or is eligible for the contract award on the basis of application of the 5 percent small business preference.

(e) To encourage the use of recycled tires, the department's specifications shall require recycled tire product contracts to be awarded to the bidder whose product has the greatest percentage of recycled tire content if the fitness, quality, and price are otherwise equal.

(f) The department may adopt rules and regulations to carry out this article.

SEC. 3. Section 374.3 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

374.3. (a) It is unlawful to dump or cause to be dumped any waste matter in or upon any public or private highway or road, including any portion of the right-of-way thereof, or in or upon any private property into or upon which the public is admitted by easement or license, or upon any private property without the consent of the owner, or in or upon any public park or other public property other than property designated or set aside for that purpose by the governing board or body having charge of that property.

(b) It is unlawful to place, deposit, or dump, or cause to be placed, deposited, or dumped, any rocks or dirt in or upon any private highway or road, including any portion of the right-of-way thereof, or any private property, without the consent of the owner, or in or upon any public park or other public property, without the consent of the state or local agency having jurisdiction over the highway, road, or property.

(c) Any person, firm, or corporation violating this section is guilty of an infraction. Each day that waste placed, deposited, or dumped in violation of this section remains is a separate violation.

(d) This section does not restrict a private owner in the use of his or her own private property, unless the placing, depositing, or dumping of the waste matter on the property creates a public health and safety hazard, a public nuisance, or a fire hazard, as determined by a local health department, local fire department or district providing fire protection services, or the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection, in which case this section applies.

(e) A person convicted of a violation of this section shall be punished by a mandatory fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) upon a first conviction, by a mandatory fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) upon a second conviction, and by a mandatory fine of not less than seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) upon a third or subsequent conviction. If the court finds that the waste matter placed, deposited, or dumped was used tires, the fine prescribed in this subdivision shall be doubled.

(f) The court may require, in addition to any fine imposed upon a conviction, that, as a condition of probation and in addition to any other condition of probation, a person convicted under this section remove, or pay the cost of removing, any waste matter which the convicted person dumped or caused to be dumped upon public or private property.

(g) Except when the court requires the convicted person to remove waste matter which he or she is responsible for dumping as a condition of probation, the court may, in addition to the fine imposed upon a conviction, require as a condition of probation, in addition to any other condition of probation, that any person convicted of a violation of this section pick up waste matter at a time and place within the jurisdiction of the court for not less than eight hours.

SEC. 4. The sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) is hereby transferred, as of July 1, 1990, from the Environmental License Plate Fund as a loan to the California Tire Recycling Management Fund and is appropriated to the California Waste Management Board for the purposes of implementing Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 66799.100) of Title 7.3 of the Government Code.

This loan shall be repaid, on or before June 30, 1991, to the Environmental License Plate Fund, together with interest at the rate earned by the Surplus Money Investment Fund from July 1, 1990, to the date of repayment.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred y a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 975

An act to add Section 21604 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to airports.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21604 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

21604. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no political subdivision or political subdivisions acting jointly or with the state, shall submit to the Federal Aviation Administration any project application, under the federal Airport and Airway Safety and Capacity Expansion Act of 1987 (49 U.S.C. Sec. 2201 et seq.) which provides airport construction, planning, and development funds for the expansion and improvement of the airport system in this state unless the project preapplication and planning grant application have first been reviewed and accepted and the project ranked by the department.

(b) The department, in conjunction with representatives of local airport-operating entities and the Federal Aviation Administration, shall develop criteria by which to rank projects governed by subdivision (a), and shall notify all of the public-use-airports in California affected by the enactment of this section of those criteria.

(c) Following the acceptance and ranking of projects governed by subdivision (a), and the submission of the preapplications to the Federal Aviation Administration, the political subdivision or political subdivisions, acting singularly or jointly, or with the state, may contract directly with the Federal Aviation Administration.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), any political subdivision owning or operating any primary airport, as defined in the federal Airport and Airway Safety and Capacity Expansion Act of 1987 (49

U.S.C. Sec. 2201 et seq.) may directly submit a project application for the primary airport to the Federal Aviation Administration without first obtaining acceptance by the department.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature that all of the administrative costs incurred by the department in connection with the acceptance and ranking process shall be borne by the department.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 976

An act to add Sections 1855.1, 1855.2, 1855.3, 1855.4, and 1855.5 to the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1855.1 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1855.1. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this article to promote competition in the insurance business and provide a means whereby insurance consumers can more easily comparison shop for insurance coverage by allowing insurance advisory organizations to develop and draft for use by all insurers in California common forms, coverages, and endorsements for insurance policies and bonds.

SEC. 2. Section 1855.2 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1855.2. As used in this article, "advisory organization" means every group, association, or other organization of insurers, whether located within or outside of this state, that develops and prepares policy or bond forms for use by admitted insurers, carries on research relative to the development and preparation of policy and bond forms, and acts in an advisory, as distinguished from a ratemaking, capacity.

Every advisory organization shall, prior to operation, file with the commissioner (a) a copy or its constitution, its articles of agreement or association, or its certificate of incorporation, and its bylaws, rules, and regulations governing its activities, (b) a list of its members, and (c) the name and address of a resident of this state upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process issued at his or her direction may be served. Every advisory organization shall thereafter promptly notify the commissioner of every material change in the documents required to be filed with the commissioner.

SEC. 3. Section 1855.3 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1855.3. Two or more insurers may cooperate with and act in concert with others as members of an advisory organization with respect to any matters pertaining to the preparation or making of insurance policy or bond forms, or carrying on of research relative to the preparation and development of policy or bond forms.

SEC. 4. Section 1855.4 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1855.4. Members and subscribers of advisory organizations may use the policy or bond forms of advisory organizations, either consistently or intermittently, but, except for insurers having common ownership or management, shall not agree with each other or others to adhere thereto. The fact that two or more admitted insurers, whether or not members or subscribers of an advisory organization, use, either consistently or intermittently, the policy or bond forms prepared by an advisory organization, shall not be sufficient in itself to support a finding that an agreement to adhere to those forms exists, and may be used only for the purpose of supplementing or explaining direct evidence of the existence of an agreement to adhere to those forms.

SEC. 5. Section 1855.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1855.5. (a) All insurance policy or bond forms of an advisory organization shall prior to being used by insurers be submitted in writing to the commissioner for his or her consideration and approval, together with any information the commissioner may reasonably require. All of those documents shall be available for public inspection at the office of the commissioner. The commissioner shall approve only those policy forms or bonds forms that are found by him or her to contemplate activities and practices that are not unfair, unreasonable, or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this code.

(b) Upon submission of any policy forms or bond forms, the commissioner may review them, and if after a hearing, at which representatives of consumers and other interested parties may participate, upon not less than 10 days' notice to an advisory organization he or she finds that the policy forms or bond forms are unfair or unreasonable, or are otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, he or she may issue a written order to the advisory organization specifying in what respect the policy forms or bond forms are unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter and disapprove the use of the forms. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, if the commissioner fails to act within 90 days of the submission of a proposed policy or bond form by an advisory organization, the policy or bond form shall be deemed approved. For good cause, and after a hearing, at which representatives of consumers and other interested parties may participate, upon not less than 10 days' notice to the advisory organization, the commissioner may revoke approval of any policy form or bond form.

(c) Nothing in this chapter shall be interpreted to allow an advisory organization to set or establish rates for any insurance coverage, policy endorsement, or bond.

CHAPTER 977

An act to amend Section 1206 of the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 5601.5 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mental health services.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1206 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1206. This chapter does not apply to the following:

(a) Except with respect to the option provided with regard to surgical clinics in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 1204 and, further, with respect to specialty clinics specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 1204, any place or establishment owned or leased and operated as a clinic or office by one or more licensed health care practitioners and used as an office for the practice of their profession, within the scope of their license, regardless of the name used publicly to identify the place or establishment.

(b) Any clinic directly conducted, maintained or operated by the United States or by any of its departments, officers, or agencies, and any primary care clinic specified in subdivision (a) of Section 1204 which is directly conducted, maintained, or operated by this state or by any of its political subdivisions or districts, or by any city. Nothing in this subdivision precludes the state department from adopting regulations which utilize clinic licensing standards as eligibility criteria for participation in programs funded wholly or partially under Title XVIII or XIX of the federal Social Security Act.

(c) Any clinic conducted, maintained, or operated by a federally recognized Indian tribe or tribal organization, as defined in Section 450 or 1601 of Title 25 of the United States Code, and which is located on land recognized as tribal land by the federal government.

(d) Clinics conducted, operated, or maintained as outpatient departments of hospitals.

(e) Any facility licensed as a health facility under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250).

(f) Any freestanding clinical or pathological laboratory licensed under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1200) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code.

(g) A clinic operated by, or affiliated with, any institution of learning which teaches a recognized healing art and is approved by the state board or commission vested with responsibility for regulation of the practice of that healing art.

(h) A clinic which is operated by a primary care community or free clinic and which is operated on separate premises from the licensed clinic and is only open for limited services of no more than 20 hours a week. An intermittent clinic as described in this paragraph shall, however, meet all other requirements of law, including administrative regulations and requirements, pertaining to fire and life safety.

(i) The offices of physicians in group practice who provide a preponderance of their services to members of a comprehensive group practice prepayment health care service plan subject to Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2.

(j) Student health centers operated by public institutions of higher education.

(k) Nonprofit speech and hearing centers, as defined in Section 1201.5. Any nonprofit speech and hearing clinic desiring an exemption under this subdivision shall make application therefor to the director, who shall grant the exception to any facility meeting the criteria of Section 1201.5. Notwithstanding the licensure exemption contained in this subdivision, a nonprofit speech and hearing center shall be deemed to be an organized outpatient clinic for purposes of qualifying for reimbursement as a rehabilitation center under the Medi-Cal Act, Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 14000) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(l) A clinic operated by a nonprofit corporation exempt from federal income taxation under paragraph (3) of subsection (c) of Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, or a statutory successor thereof, which conducts medical research and health education and provides health care to its patients through a group of 40 or more physicians and surgeons, who are independent contractors representing not less than 10 board-certified specialties, and not less than two-thirds of whom practice on a full-time basis at the clinic.

(m) Any clinic, limited to in vivo diagnostic services by magnetic resonance imaging functions or radiological services under the direct and immediate supervision of a physician and surgeon who is licensed to practice in California. This shall not be construed to permit cardiac catheterization or any treatment modality in these clinics.

(n) A clinic operated by an employer or jointly by two or more employers for their employees only, or by a group of employees, or jointly by employees and employers, without profit to the operators thereof or to any other person, for the prevention and treatment of accidental injuries to, and the care of the health of, the employees comprising the group.

(o) A community mental health center as defined in Section 5601.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 2. Section 5601.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5601.5. "Community mental health center" means a nonprofit agency which has been certified to provide Short-Doyle Medi-Cal services, and which provides a comprehensive program of mental health services in an outpatient setting designed to improve the function of persons with diagnosed mental health problems. A community mental health center provides diagnostic and therapeutic services for these individuals, together with related counseling, pursuant to policies and procedures governing all aspects of the program formulated with the aid of multidisciplinary staff including physicians and surgeons, all of whom serve on quality assurance and utilization review committees. For purposes of law, including the Health and Safety Code and the Insurance Code, a community mental health center shall be considered to be a licensed facility.

CHAPTER 978

An act to add and repeal Section 4833 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that:

(a) Consistency and substantial fairness are hallmarks of any successful system of taxation.

(b) Taxpayers should be able to exercise and preserve their rights under the law in a straightforward manner.

(c) Taxpayers in Los Angeles County may be required to pay property tax amounts in excess of their proper obligation when corrections or adjustments of assessments to lower amounts cannot be completed prior to the delinquent date for property tax amounts currently due.

(d) This act is intended to prevent the hardship to property owners resulting from higher than appropriate assessed valuations which affect property tax amounts. Because of the time required to correct or adjust assessments, it is often impossible to issue corrected tax bills prior to the end of the fiscal year in question.

(e) A general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution due to the unique circumstances of the County of Los Angeles. The Legislature finds, therefore, due to the unique burdens of administering the property tax system in a county as large and as populous as the County of Los Angeles, that this special act is necessary.

SEC. 2. Section 4833 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

4833. (a) When the assessor of a county having a population of over 8,000,000 determines that the assessment appearing on the roll for the current year for any property is incorrect, due to the error of either the assessor or the assessee, or that the assessment appearing on the roll for the current year for any property is to be reduced by application of the provisions of Section 68 or 69.5, and that the correction of the error or the application of those provisions cannot be completed prior to the delinquency date for current taxes, the assessor may so notify the assessee of his or her intent to establish an in-lieu payment amount and provide notice of the in-lieu amount to the auditor-controller and tax collector. The assessor and tax collector shall determine the necessary forms and procedures for this notification.

(b) Upon receipt of the notices from the assessor, and notwithstanding any other provision of law, the tax collector shall do the following:

(1) Take appropriate measures to notify the assessee that an in-lieu amount will be accepted, and of the amount and the time for payment of that amount.

(2) Accept, in place of the tax amount appearing on the roll for the current year, an in-lieu amount to be determined by the assessor as follows:

(A) If the assessment is in error, the tax amount for the property which appeared or should have appeared on the last roll prior to the occurrence of the error and all direct assessments charged on the current roll.

(B) If Section 68 is being applied, the tax amount which was enrolled or should have been enrolled for the property from which the assessee was displaced on the roll immediately prior to displacement and all direct assessments charged on the current roll.

(C) If Section 69.5 is being applied, the tax amount which was enrolled or should have been enrolled for the original property on the roll immediately prior to the sale of that property by the assessee and all direct assessments charged on the current roll.

(3) Place a notation on the appropriate roll or maintain a file on record that the taxes thereon for the property in question are not the amount of taxes due and payable on that property, and until the correct amount has been ascertained the property will not be deemed tax-defaulted for the year in question if the in-lieu amount is timely paid.

(4) Place a notation on the supplemental roll, if applicable, or maintain a file on record that collection of taxes shown thereon for the property in question is suspended without penalty, interest, or default until formal correction of the supplemental assessment is completed for the year in question.

(5) Set delinquency dates for the payment of in-lieu amounts, to be the same as the delinquency dates for the payment of taxes for which the in-lieu amounts are to be accepted as provided in Section 2610.5.

(c) Whenever the assessor has notified the auditor-controller and the tax collector as provided in subdivision (a), the in-lieu amount determined by the assessor as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) shall be treated for all purposes, including issuance of policies of title insurance and the grant of loans secured by the property, as the total property tax due and payable for that property for the current year until such time as the corrected assessed value is entered on the roll for determination of actual taxes due. A supplemental tax bill suspended as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) shall not be considered to be a property tax due and payable until the assessment is deleted or corrected for the appropriate tax year in question.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the assessor shall deliver to the auditor-controller the corrected assessment or deletion thereof for the property in question not more than six months following the assessor's notice to the assessee provided in subdivision (a).

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act shall become operative only if the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles, upon request of the county assessor, adopts a resolution making the act applicable to that county.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

A large number of property owners in the County of Los Angeles are presently or soon will be listed as being in default of their property tax payments by virtue of erroneous property tax assessments failing to account for corrections or adjustments to the amount of property taxes shown as due. As a result, affected property owners suffer damage to their credit ratings and are placed at risk that their mortgage loans will be foreclosed. In order to preclude serious consequences to property owners, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 979

An act to add and repeal Section 3502.5 of the Penal Code, relating to prisoners, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds that state law designed to protect prisoners from inappropriate medical experimentation has had the unintended effect of preventing prisoners from having access to drugs or treatments which might be required for good medical care.

(b) The Legislature further finds that while the standard of practice for health providers practicing outside prisons has sometimes included access to "investigational new drugs" which the United States Food and Drug Administration allows to be made available for a serious or immediately life-threatening disease condition in patients for whom no comparable or satisfactory alternative drug or therapy is available, health providers caring for state prisoners with HIV disease cannot use such drugs, even when they are determined to be the best medical treatment available to a particular prisoner.

(c) Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature by this act to provide prisoners access to certain investigational drugs or treatments on the same basis that they are made available to patients outside the prison setting.

(d) It is the further intent of the Legislature to encourage ongoing evaluation of the effect that this section has on prisoners' medical care, particularly as it concerns people with AIDS or other forms of HIV disease, by requiring that affirmative steps be taken if the validity of this act is to extend beyond six years.

SEC. 2. Section 3502.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

3502.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 3502, any physician who provides medical care to prisoners is not prohibited from providing a patient who is a prisoner with a drug or treatment available only through a treatment protocol or treatment IND (investigational new drug), as defined in Section 312 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations, if the physician determines that access to that drug is in the best medical interest of the patient, and the patient has given informed consent under Section 3521.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, neither a public entity nor a public employee shall be liable for any injury caused by the administration of a drug pursuant to subdivision (a), where the administration is made in accordance with a treatment IND or a treatment protocol as defined in Section 312 of Title 21 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 2, 1996, and as of that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 2, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide physicians practicing within state prisons the legal authority to provide medical care to prison inmates with AIDS or other diseases that meets the community standard of medical practice, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 980

An act to amend Section 42000.5 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 42000.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

42000.5. Every person convicted of an infraction for a violation of Section 22350, 22406, or 22407 while operating a bus, motor truck, or truck tractor having three or more axles, or any motor truck or truck tractor drawing any other vehicle, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) for a first conviction, except that if the person has exceeded the specified speed limit by 10 miles per hour or more, the fine shall not exceed two hundred dollars ($200) for a first conviction, and not exceeding three hundred dollars ($300) for a second or subsequent conviction.

CHAPTER 981

An act to amend Section 31153 of the Public Resources Code, and to amend Item 3760-303-786 of the Budget Act of 1989, relating to coastal resources, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31153 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

31153. If the conservancy is unable to purchase an interest in agricultural land which meets the provisions of Section 31152, the conservancy may request the State Public Works Board to acquire the interest under the power of eminent domain pursuant to Section 31105.

SEC. 2. Item 3760-303-786 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1989 is amended to read:

3760-303-786—For capital outlay, State Coastal Conservancy, payable from the California Wildlife, Coastal, and Park Land Conservation Fund of 1988 8,750,000

Schedule:

(1) 80.18.010-Agricultural Land Preservation	750,000
(2) 80.18.020-Coastal Restoration.....	3,000,000
(3) 80.18.030-Public Access	3,000,000
(4) 80.19.040-Resource Enhancement	2,000,000

Provisions:

1. The conservancy shall not enter into a grant contract with a nonprofit organization or local government for property acquisition which provides for either of the following:
   a. A reversionary interest to the state, unless the grant contract specifies that the property shall not revert to the state without review and approval by the conservancy and the State Public Works Board.
   b. A state leasehold interest in property acquired by a nonstate public agency with conservancy grant funds, unless the lease terms are approved by the Director of General Services. Except to the extent above, the expenditures of funds for grants, to public agencies and nonprofit organizations shall be exempt from State Public Works Board review.

2. Notwithstanding Section 6.50 of this act, the conservancy may transfer funds between programs in categories (1) through (3), inclusive. The conservancy shall provide quarterly reports to the chairperson of the committee of each house which considers appropriations, and to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee. The report shall summarize the conservancy's actions with a comparison of the amounts scheduled in categories (1) through (3), inclusive, the amounts allocated by the conservancy, and an explanation of any difference between the scheduled and allocated amounts.
3. The amount appropriated in this item is available for expenditure for either capital outlay or local assistance.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

This act amends the 1989 Budget Act to correct an error in Provision 3 of Item 3760-303-786, which if ieft uncorrected would limit the State Coastal Conservancy's ability to provide assistance to local governments needed to complete vital projects which provide public recreation and economic development and for the conservancy to carry out its functions in a more efficient manner. In order to make these changes as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 982

An act to amend Section 1951.4 of, and to add Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1995.010) to Title 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of, the Civil Code, relating to commercial real property leases.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1951.4 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1951.4. (a) The remedy described in this section is available only if the lease provides for this remedy. In addition to any other type of provision used in a lease to provide for the remedy described in this section, a provision in the lease in substantially the following form satisfies this subdivision:

"The lessor has the remedy described in California Civil Code Section 1951.4 (lessor may continue lease in effect after lessee's breach and abandonment and recover rent as it becomes due, if lessee has right to sublet or assign, subject only to reasonable limitations)."

(b) Even though a lessee of real property has breached the lease and abandoned the property, the lease continues in effect for so long as the lessor does not terminate the lessee's right to possession, and the lessor may enforce all the lessor's rights and remedies under the lease, including the right to recover the rent as it becomes due under the lease, if any of the following conditions is satisfied:

(1) The lease permits the lessee, or does not prohibit or otherwise restrict the right of the lessee, to sublet the property, assign the lessee's interest in the lease, or both.

(2) The lease permits the lessee to sublet the property, assign the lessee's interest in the lease, or both, subject to express standards or conditions, provided the standards and conditions are reasonable at the time the lease is executed and the lessor does not require compliance with any standard or condition that has become unreasonable at the time the lessee seeks to sublet or assign. For purposes of this paragraph, an express standard or condition is presumed to be reasonable; this presumption is a presumption affecting the burden of proof.

(3) The lease permits the lessee to sublet the property, assign the lessee's interest in the lease, or both, with the consent of the lessor, and the lease provides that the consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or the lease includes a standard implied by law that consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(c) For the purposes of subdivision (b), the following do not constitute a termination of the lessee's right to possession:

(1) Acts of maintenance or preservation or efforts to relet the property.

(2) The appointment of a receiver upon initiative of the lessor to protect the lessor's interest under the lease.

SEC. 2. Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1995.010) is added to Title 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLEASE

Article 1. General Provisions

1995.010. This chapter applies to transfer of a tenant's interest in a lease of real property for other than residential purposes.

1995.020. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Landlord" includes a tenant who is a sublandlord under a sublease.

(b) "Lease" means a lease or sublease of real property for other than residential purposes, and includes modifications and other agreements affecting a lease.

(c) "Restriction on transfer" means a provision in a lease that restricts the right of transfer of the tenant's interest in the lease.

(d) "Tenant" includes a subtenant or assignee.

(e) "Transfer" of a tenant's interest in a lease means an assignment, sublease, or other voluntary or involuntary transfer or encumbrance of all or part of a tenant's interest in the lease.

1995.030. Except as provided in Section 1995.270, this chapter applies to a lease executed before, on, or after January 1, 1990.

Article 2. Restrictions on Transfer

1995.210. (a) Subject to the limitations in this chapter, a lease may include a restriction on transfer of the tenant's interest in the lease.

(b) Unless a lease includes a restriction on transfer, a tenant's rights under the lease include unrestricted transfer of the tenant's interest in the lease.

1995.220. An ambiguity in a restriction on transfer of a tenant's interest in a lease shall be construed in favor of transferability.

1995.230. A restriction on transfer of a tenant's interest in a lease may absolutely prohibit transfer.

1995.240. A restriction on transfer of a tenant's interest in a lease may provide that the transfer is subject to any express standard or condition, including, but not limited to, a provision that the landlord is entitled to some or all of any consideration the tenant receives from a transferee in excess of the rent under the lease.

1995.250. A restriction on transfer of a tenant's interest in a lease may require the landlord's consent for transfer subject to any express standard or condition for giving or withholding consent, including, but not limited to, either of the following:

(a) The landlord's consent may not be unreasonably withheld.

(b) The landlord's consent may be withheld subject to express standards or conditions.

1995.260. If a restriction on transfer of the tenant's interest in a lease requires the landlord's consent for transfer but provides no standard for giving or withholding consent, the restriction on transfer shall be construed to include an implied standard that the landlord's consent may not be unreasonably withheld. Whether the landlord's consent has been unreasonably withheld in a particular case is a question of fact on which the tenant has the burden of proof. The tenant may satisfy the burden of proof by showing that, in response to the tenant's written request for a statement of reasons for withholding consent, the landlord has failed, within a reasonable time, to state in writing a reasonable objection to the transfer.

1995.270. (a) The Legislature finds and declares:

(1) It is the public policy of the state and fundamental to the commerce and economic development of the state to enable and facilitate freedom of contract by the parties to commercial real property leases.

(2) The parties to commercial real property leases must be able to negotiate and conduct their affairs in reasonable reliance on the rights and protections given them under the laws of the state.

(3) Until the case of Kendall v. Ernest Pestana, Inc., 40 Cal. 3d 488 (1985), and its predecessor, Cohen v. Ratinoff, 147 Cal. App. 3d 321 (1983), the parties to commercial real property leases could reasonably rely on the law of the state to provide that if a lease restriction requires the landlord's consent for transfer of the tenant's interest in the lease but provides no standard for giving or withholding consent, the landlord's consent may be unreasonably withheld.

(4) The Kendall and Cohen decisions reversed the law on which parties to commercial real property leases executed before September 23, 1983, the date of the Cohen decision, could reasonably rely, thereby frustrating the expectations of the parties, with the result of impairing commerce and economic development.

(b) Section 1995.260 applies to a restriction on transfer executed on or after September 23, 1983. If a restriction on transfer executed before September 23, 1983, requires the landlord's consent for the tenant's transfer but provides no standard for giving or withholding consent, the landlord's consent may be unreasonably withheld. For purposes of this subdivision, if the terms of a restriction on transfer are fixed by an option or other agreement, the restriction on transfer is deemed to be executed on the date of execution of the option or other agreement.

CHAPTER 983

An act to amend Sections 216, 305, 1513, 3564.1, 3702, 3754, 3785.1, 4055, 5014.1, 5157.6, 5326, and 29202 of the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 216 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

216. A person domiciled in a house or apartment lying in more than one precinct shall be registered as domiciled in the precinct designated by the county elections official on the basis of the street address or other precinct the county elections official considers appropriate unless the person requests, either by letter or in person at the office of the county elections official, that he or she wishes to be domiciled for registration purposes in another precinct in which his or her house or apartment lies. In order to fulfill the requirements of this section, the letter of request shall include the name, signature, and residence address of the requester.

SEC. 2. Section 305 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

305. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the county clerk shall accept affidavits of registration at all times except during the 28 days immediately preceding any election, when registration shall cease for that election as to electors residing in the territory within which the election is to be held. Transfers of registration for an election may be made from one precinct to another precinct in the same county at any time when registration is in progress in the precinct to which the elector seeks to transfer.

(b) The county clerk or his or her deputy shall accept an affidavit of registration executed as part of a voter registration card in the forthcoming election if (1) the affidavit is executed on or before the 29th day prior to the election, and (2) the affidavit is received by the county clerk or his or her deputy by mail after the 29th day and by the fourth day after the 29th day.

(c) Upon request, the county clerk may accept an affidavit of registration that was not received in accordance with subdivision (a) or (b) or a newly executed affidavit of registration when evidence supports that the affidavit was executed on or before the 29th day prior to the election and that the affidavit was mishandled by a third party, including the postal service. Evidence is limited to the postmark on the affidavit, or, for that election only, possession of a valid affidavit receipt or a photocopy of a properly executed affidavit. However, when the evidence consists only of possession of a valid affidavit receipt or a photocopy of a properly executed affidavit, the county elections official shall not accept the affidavit of registration after the 27th day prior to the election.

SEC. 3. Section 1513 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

1513. No precinct shall be established so that its boundary crosses the boundary of any supervisorial district, congressional district, senatorial district, Assembly district, board of equalization district, judicial district, incorporated city, ward, or city council district. To the extent possible, without subjecting the voter to significant inconvenience, precinct boundaries should not cross census tract or enumeration district lines.

If at any election any precinct contains an insufficient number of qualified persons to make up a precinct board, the precinct may be consolidated with an adjoining precinct.

SEC. 4. Section 3564.1 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

3564.1. A ballot argument or a rebuttal argument which includes in its text the name or title of a person, other than the author of the argument, who is represented as being for or against a measure, shall not be accepted unless the argument is accompanied by a signed consent of that person. The consent of a person, other than an individual, shall be signed by an officer or other duly authorized representative. "Person" as used in this section means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, committee, labor organization, and any other organization or group of persons.

SEC. 5. Section 3702 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

3702. (a) Before circulating any initiative petition in a county, or any petition relating to the annexation of territory by a county, the consolidation of counties, or the dissolution of a county, its proponents shall file with the clerk a notice of intention to do so. The notice shall include the names and business or residence addresses of at least one but not more than five proponents of the petition, and shall be accompanied by the written text of the initiative. The notice may be accompanied by a printed statement, not exceeding 500 words in length, stating the reasons for the proposed petition.

(b) The notice prescribed in subdivision (a), and a title and summary of the proposed measure prepared by the county counsel, shall be published by the proponents at least once in a newspaper of general circulation published in that county.

(c) The notice shall be in substantially the following form:

Notice of Intention to Circulate Petition

Notice is hereby given by the persons whose names appear hereon of their intention to circulate the petition within the County of _____ for the purpose of _____. A statement of the reasons of the proposed action as contemplated in the petition is as follows:

(d) Any person filing a notice of intent with the county clerk shall pay a fee to be established by the board of supervisors not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200) to be refunded to the filer if, within one year of the date of filing the notice of intent, the county clerk certifies the sufficiency of the petition.

SEC. 6. Section 3754 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

3754. If the board of supervisors does not entirely repeal the ordinance against which a petition is filed, the board shall submit the ordinance to the voters either at the next regularly scheduled county election occurring not less than 88 days after the date of the order or at a special election called for that purpose not less than 88 days after the date of the order. The ordinance shall not become effective unless and until a majority of the voters voting on the ordinance vote in favor of it.

SEC 7. Section 3785.1 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

3785.1. A ballot argument or a rebuttal argument which includes in its text the name or title of a person, other than the author of the argument, who is represented as being for or against a measure, shall not be accepted unless the argument is accompanied by a signed consent of that person. The consent of a person, other than an individual, shall be signed by an officer or other duly authorized representative. "Person" as used in this section means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, committee, labor organization, and any other organization or group of persons.

SEC. 8. Section 4055 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

4055. If the legislative body does not entirely repeal the ordinance against which the petition is filed, the legislative body shall submit the ordinance to the voters, either at the next regular municipal election occurring not less than 88 days after the order of the legislative body or at a special election called for the purpose not less than 88 days after the order of the legislative body. The ordinance shall not become effective until a majority of the voters voting on the ordinance vote in favor of it. If the legislative body repeals the ordinance or submits the ordinance to the voters and a majority of the voters voting on the ordinance do not vote in favor of it, the ordinance shall not again be enacted by the legislative body for a period of one year after the date of its repeal by the legislative body or disapproval by the voters.

SEC. 9. Section 5014.1 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

5014.1. A ballot argument or, if applicable, a rebuttal argument which includes in its text the name or title of a person, other than the author of the argument, who is represented as being for or against a measure, shall not be accepted unless the argument is accompanied by a signed consent of that person. The consent of a person, other than an individual, shall be signed by an officer or other duly authorized representative. "Person" as used in this section means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, committee, labor organization, and any other organization or group of persons.

SEC. 10. Section 5157.6 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

5157.6. A ballot argument or a rebuttal argument which includes in its text the name or title of a person, other than the author of the argument, who is represented as being for or against a measure, shall not be accepted unless the argument is accompanied by a signed consent of that person. The consent of a person, other than an individual, shall be signed by an officer or other duly authorized representative. "Person" as used in this section means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, committee, labor organization, and any other organization or group of persons.

SEC. 11. Section 5326 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

5326. A ballot argument or a rebuttal argument which includes in its text the name or title of a person, other than the author of the argument, who is represented as being for or against a measure, shall not be accepted unless the argument is accompanied by a signed consent of that person. The consent of a person, other than an individual, shall be signed by an officer or other duly authorized representative. "Person" as used in this section means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, committee, labor organization, and any other organization or group of persons.

SEC. 12. Section 29202 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

29202. Any person who knowingly or negligently (a) interferes with the prompt transfer of a completed affidavit of registration to the county clerk, (b) retains a voter's completed registration card, without the voter's authorization, for more than three days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and state holidays, or after the close of registration, or (c) denies a voter the right to return to the county clerk the voter's own completed registration card is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000).

SEC. 13. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 984

An act to add Section 12235 to the Government Code, relating to the state archives, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12235 is added to the Government Code, to read:

12235. (a) The Director of General Services, as agent for the Secretary of State, shall construct on Site 7, Capital Area Plan, a Secretary of State and State Archives Building Complex, parking facilities, and any other improvements, betterments, and facilities related thereto, for the primary use of the Secretary of State and State Archives as outlined in the study report required by Section 12234.

(b) Revenue bonds, negotiable notes, and negotiable bond anticipation notes may be issued by the State Public Works Board pursuant to the State Building Construction Act of 1955, Part 10b (commencing with Section 15800), to finance the construction and equipping of the Secretary of State and State Archives Building Complex, parking facilities, and any other improvements, betterments, and facilities related thereto as described in subdivision (a).

(c) The amount of revenue bonds, negotiable notes, or negotiable bond anticipation notes to be sold shall equal the cost of construction and equipping of the complex and facilities, the cost of working drawings, sums necessary to pay financing costs, including interest during construction, and a reasonable reserve fund. Construction costs shall not exceed one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) based on the Lee-Saylor Cost Index 433.

(d) The amount of negotiable bond anticipation notes sold shall not exceed the amount of revenue bonds and negotiable notes authorized by this section. Any augmentation of the approved project costs shall be subject to Section 13332.11. The board may borrow funds for project costs from the Pooled Money Investment Account pursuant to Sections 16312 and 16313.

(e) At least 20 days prior to the award of the principal bid for the construction of the complex, the director shall notify the chairpersons of the fiscal committees of each house of the Legislature of the amount of the bid.

(f) (1) The Director of General Services may lease the complex and facilities financed with the proceeds of the revenue bonds, negotiable notes, or negotiable bond anticipation notes from the board pursuant to Section 15817 for use by the Secretary of State and State Archives.

(2) The director shall notify the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee of the director's intention to execute any lease agreement authorized by paragraph (1) at least 20 days prior to its execution.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that state archives documents may be saved from deterioration as quickly as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 985

An act to amend Section 76140 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 76140 of the Education Code is amended to read:

76140. A community college district may admit and shall charge a tuition fee to nonresident students. The district may exempt from all or parts of the fee:

(a) All nonresidents who enroll for six or fewer units. Exemptions made pursuant to this subdivision shall not be made on an individual basis; or

(b) Any nonresident who is both a citizen and resident of a foreign country, provided that the nonresident has demonstrated a financial need for the exemption and not more than 10 percent of the nonresident foreign students attending any community college district may be so exempted. Exemptions made pursuant to this subdivision may be made on an individual basis.

A district may contract with a state, a county contiguous to California, the federal government, a foreign country, or an agency thereof, for payment of all or a part of a nonresident student's tuition fee.

Attendance of nonresident students shall not be reported as resident average daily attendance for state apportionment purposes, except as provided by statute in which case a nonresident tuition fee may not be charged.

The nonresident tuition fee shall be set by the governing board of each community college district not later than February 1 of each year for the succeeding fiscal year. The governing board of each community college district shall provide nonresident students with notice of nonresident tuition fee changes during the spring term before the fall term in which the change will take effect. Nonresident tuition fee increases shall be gradual, moderate, and predictable. The fee may be paid in installments, as determined by the governing board of the district.

The fee established by the governing board pursuant to the preceding paragraph shall represent for nonresident students enrolled in 30 semester units or 45 quarter units of credit per fiscal year (a) the amount which was expended by the district for the current expense of education as defined by the California Community College Budget and Accounting Manual in the preceding fiscal year increased by the projected percent increase in the United States Consumer Price Index as determined by the Department of Finance for the current fiscal year and succeeding fiscal year and divided by the average daily attendance of all students (including nonresident students) attending in the district in the preceding fiscal year, or (b) the current expense of education in the preceding fiscal year of all districts increased by the projected percent increase in the United States Consumer Price Index as determined by the Department of Finance for the current fiscal year and succeeding fiscal year and divided by the average daily attendance of all students (including nonresident students) attending all districts during the preceding fiscal year, or (c) an amount not to exceed the fee established by the governing board of any contiguous district, or (d) an amount not to exceed the amount which was expended by the district for the current expense of education but in no case less than the statewide average as set forth in subdivision (b) of this chapter. However, should the district's preceding fiscal year average daily attendance of all students attending in the district in noncredit courses be equal to or greater than 10 percent of the district's total average daily attendance of all students attending in the district, the district in calculating (a) above may substitute instead the data for current expense of education in grades 13 and 14 and average daily attendance in grades 13 and 14 of all students attending in the district.

The governing board of each community college district shall also adopt a tuition fee per unit of credit for nonresident students enrolled in more or less than 15 units of credit per term by dividing the fee determined in the preceding paragraph by 30 for colleges operating on the semester system and 45 for colleges operating on the quarter system and rounding to the nearest whole dollar. The same rate shall be uniformly charged nonresident students attending any terms or sessions maintained by the community college. The rate charged shall be the rate established for the fiscal year in which the term or session ends.

In adopting a tuition fee for nonresident students, the governing board of each community college district shall consider nonresident tuition fees of public community colleges in other states.

Any loss in district revenue generated by the nonresident tuition fee shall not be offset by additional state funding.

The provisions of this section that require a mandatory fee for nonresidents shall not apply to any district that borders on another state and has fewer than 500 average daily attendance.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 986

An act to amend Sections 75061 and 77208 of the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 75061 of the Government Code is amended to read:

75061. (a) Any person who becomes a judge during the period of January 1, 1980, through December 31, 1988, shall not be eligible to be retired for disability unless the judge is credited with at least two years of judicial service or unless the disability is a result of injury or disease arising out of and in the course of judicial service.

(b) Any person who becomes a judge on or after January 1, 1989, shall not be eligible to be retired for disability unless the judge is credited with at least four years of judicial service or unless the disability is a result of injury or disease arising out of and in the course of judicial service.

SEC. 2. Section 77208 of the Government Code is amended to read:

77208. Except as provided in Sections 73642, 73952, 74342, and 74742 with respect to San Diego County, the board of supervisors of an option county may, at county cost, provide municipal court judges serving in any municipal court in the county with retiree health benefits substantially equal to the retiree health benefits provided to superior court judges.

CHAPTER 987

An act to amend Sections 1947.7 and 1947.8 of, and to add Sections 1947.10 and 1947.11 to, the Civil Code, relating to rent control.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1947.7 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1947.7. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the operation of local rent stabilization programs can be complex and that disputes often arise with regard to standards of compliance with the regulatory processes of those programs. Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature to limit the imposition of penalties and sanctions against an owner of residential rental units where that person has attempted in good faith to fully comply with the regulatory processes.

(b) An owner of a residential rental unit who is in substantial compliance with an ordinance or charter that controls or establishes a system of controls on the price at which residential rental units may be offered for rent or lease and which requires the registration of rents, or any regulation adopted pursuant thereto, shall not be assessed a penalty or any other sanction for noncompliance with the ordinance, charter, or regulation.

Restitution to the tenant or recovery of the registration or filing fees due to the local agency shall be the exclusive remedies which may be imposed against an owner of a residential rental unit who is in substantial compliance with the ordinance, charter, or regulation.

"Substantial compliance," as used in this subdivision, means that the owner of a residential rental unit has made a good faith attempt to comply with the ordinance, charter, or regulation sufficient to reasonably carry out the intent and purpose of the ordinance, charter, or regulation, but is not in full compliance, and has, after receiving notice of a deficiency from the local agency, cured the defect in a timely manner, as reasonably determined by the local agency.

"Local agency," as used in this subdivision, means the public entity responsible for the implementation of the ordinance, charter, or regulation.

(c) For any residential unit which has been registered and for which a base rent has been listed or for any residential unit which an owner can show, by a preponderance of the evidence, a good faith attempt to comply with the registration requirements or who was exempt from registration requirements in a previous version of the ordinance or charter and for which the owner of that residential unit has subsequently found not to have been in compliance with the ordinance , charter, or regulation, all annual rent adjustments which may have been denied during the period of the owner's noncompliance shall be restored prospectively once the owner is in compliance with the ordinance, charter, or regulation.

(d) In those jurisdictions where, prior to January 1, 1990, the local ordinance did not allow the restoration of annual rent adjustment, once the owner is in compliance with this section the local agency may phase in any increase in rent caused by the restoration of the annual rent adjustments that is in excess of 20 percent over the rent previously paid by the tenant, in equal installments over three years, if the tenant demonstrates undue financial hardship due to the restoration of the full annual rent adjustments. This subdivision shall remain operative only until January 1, 1993, unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered by January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

(e) For purposes of this subdivision, an owner shall be deemed in compliance with the ordinance, charter, or regulation if he or she is in substantial compliance with the applicable local rental registration requirements and applicable local and state housing code provisions, has paid all fees and penalties owed to the local agency which have not otherwise been barred by the applicable statute of limitations, and has satisfied all claims for refunds of rental overcharges brought by tenants or by the local rent control board on behalf of tenants of the affected unit.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to grant to any public entity any power which it does not possess independent of this section to control or establish a system of control on the price at which accommodations may be offered for rent or lease, or to diminish any power to do so which that public entity may possess, except as specifically provided in this section.

SEC. 2. Section 1947.8 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1947.8. (a) If an ordinance or charter controls or establishes a system of controls on the price at which residential rental units may be offered for rent or lease and requires the registration of rents, the ordinance or charter, or any regulation adopted pursuant thereto, shall provide for the establishment and certification of permissible rent levels for the registered rental units, and any changes thereafter to those rent levels, by the local agency as provided in this section.

(b) If the ordinance, charter, or regulation is in effect on January 1, 1987, the ordinance, charter, or regulation shall provide for the establishment and certification of permissible rent levels on or before January 1, 1988, including completion of all appeals and administrative proceedings connected therewith. After July 1, 1990, no local agency may maintain any action to recover excess rent against any property owner who has registered the unit with the local agency within the time limits set forth in this section if the initial certification of permissible rent levels affecting that particular property has not been completed, unless the delay is willfully and intentionally caused by the property owner or is a result of court proceedings or further administrative proceedings ordered by a court. If the ordinance, charter, or regulation is adopted on or after January 1, 1987, the ordinance, charter, or regulation shall provide for the establishment and certification of permissible rent levels within one year after it is adopted, including completion of all appeals and administrative proceedings connected therewith. Upon the request of the landlord or the tenant, the local agency shall provide the landlord and the tenant with a certificate or other documentation reflecting the permissible rent levels of the rental unit. A landlord may request a certificate of permissible rent levels for rental units which have a base rent established, but which are vacant and not exempt from registration under this section. The landlord or the tenant may appeal the determination of the permissible rent levels reflected in the certificate. The permissible rent levels reflected in the certificate or other documentation shall, in the absence of intentional misrepresentation or fraud, be binding and conclusive upon the local agency unless the determination of the permissible rent levels is being appealed.

(c) After the establishment and certification of permissible rent levels under subdivision (b), the local agency shall, upon the request of the landlord or the tenant, provide the landlord and the tenant with a certificate of the permissible rent levels of the rental unit. The certificate shall be issued within five business days from the date of request by the landlord or the tenant. The permissible rent levels reflected in the certificate shall, in the absence of intentional misrepresentation or fraud, be binding and conclusive upon the local agency unless the determination of the permissible rent levels is being appealed. The landlord or the tenant may appeal the determination of the permissible rent levels reflected in the certificate. Any appeal of a determination of permissible rent levels as reflected in the certificate, other than an appeal made pursuant to subdivision (b), shall be filed with the local agency within 15 days from issuance of the certificate. The local agency shall notify, in writing, the landlord and the tenant of its decision within 60 days following the filing of the appeal.

(d) The local agency may charge the person to whom a certificate is issued a fee in the amount necessary to cover the reasonable costs incurred by the local agency in issuing the certificate.

(e) The absence of a certification of permissible rent levels shall not impair, restrict, abridge, or otherwise interfere with either of the following:

(1) A judicial or administrative hearing.

(2) Any matter in connection with a conveyance of an interest in property.

(f) The record of permissible rent levels is a public record for purposes of the California Public Records Act, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(g) Any notice specifying the rents applicable to residential rental units which is given by an owner to a public entity or tenant in order to comply with Chapter 12.75 (commencing with Section 7060) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code shall not be considered a registration of rents for purposes of this section.

(h) "Local agency," as used in this section, means the public entity responsible for the implementation of the ordinance, charter, or regulation.

(i) Nothing in this section shall be construed to grant to any public entity any power which it does not possess independent of this section to control or establish a system of control on the price at which accommodations may be offered for rent or lease, or to diminish any such power which that public entity may possess, except as specifically provided in this section.

SEC. 3. Section 1947.10 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1947.10. (a) After July 1, 1990, in any city, county, or city and county which administers a system of controls on the price at which residential rental units may be offered for rent or lease and which requires the registration of rents, any owner who evicts a tenant based upon the owner's or the owner's immediate relative's intention to occupy the tenant's unit, shall be required to maintain residence in the unit for at least six continuous months. If a court determines that the eviction was based upon fraud by the owner or the owner's immediate relative to not fulfill this six-month requirement, a court may order the owner to pay treble the cost of relocating the tenant from his or her existing unit back into the previous unit and may order the owner to pay treble the amount of any increase in rent which the tenant has paid. If the tenant decides not to relocate back into the previous unit, the court may order the owner to pay treble the amount of one month's rent paid by the tenant for the unit from which he or she was evicted and treble the amount of any costs incurred in relocating to a different unit. The prevailing party shall be awarded attorney's fees and court costs.

(b) The remedy provided by this section shall not be construed to prohibit any other remedies available to a any party affected by this section.

SEC. 4. Section 1947.11 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1947.11. (a) In any city, county, or city and county which administers a system of controls on the price at which residential rental units may be offered for rent or lease and which requires the registration of rents, upon the establishment of a certified rent level, any owner who charges rent to a tenant in excess of the certified lawful rent ceiling shall refund the excess rent to the tenant upon demand. If the owner refuses to refund the excess rent and if a court determines that the owner willfully or intentionally charged the tenant rent in excess of the certified lawful rent ceiling, the court shall award the tenant a judgment for the excess amount of rent and may treble that amount. The prevailing party shall be awarded attorney's fees and court costs.

(b) The remedy provided by this section shall not be construed to prohibit any other remedies available to a any party affected by this section.

(c) This section shall not be construed to extend the time within which actions are required to be brought beyond the otherwise applicable limitation set forth in the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 988

An act to add Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 16100) to Division 12.5 of the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 74.5 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to seismic safety.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 16100) is added to Division 12.5 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3. EARTHQUAKE HAZARD MITIGATION TECHNOLOGIES

16100. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Earthquake hazard mitigation technologies" includes, but is not limited to, seismic isolation, energy dissipation, ductility, damping systems, and other technologies which endeavor to reasonably protect buildings and nonstructural components, building contents, and functional capability from earthquake damage. Earthquake hazard mitigation technologies do not include those technologies with detailed code provisions in the 1988 edition of the model codes as defined in Section 18916.

(b) "Life cycle cost" includes, but is not limited to, the present value of the cost of initial construction, earthquake insurance premiums, operating and maintenance costs, physical earthquake damage cost to the facility, and related earthquake disruption costs including, but not limited to, loss of production or loss of business anticipated over the projected useful life of the building.

(c) "Peer review" is a review conducted by a multidisciplinary group of experienced technical professionals, including, but not limited to, architects and structural and geotechnical engineers who have recognized expertise in the design and performance of earthquake hazard mitigation technologies, who are independent of the subject of the review, and who are peers with the same professional registration as that of the design professionals responsible for the subject of the review.

(d) "Public agency" means any state agency, any county, city and county, city, regional agency, public district, redevelopment agency, or any other political subdivision.

16101. (a) The Seismic Safety Commission, in cooperation with the State Architect, shall develop a state policy on acceptable levels of earthquake risk for new and existing state-owned buildings and submit their policy to the Legislature for consideration by January 1, 1991.

(b) The State Architect, in conjunction with state agency owners and operators of buildings, shall identify activities carried out within state-owned buildings which are necessary for postearthquake operation.

16102. (a) The State Architect shall develop and adopt by January 1, 1992, regulations for the application of earthquake hazard mitigation technologies to buildings which do all of the following:

(1) Prescribe design criteria and performance standards with the objective of reasonably ensuring the limitation of earthquake damage or the continuous operational capability of buildings with earthquake hazard mitigation technologies, or both.

(2) Determine the procedure for estimating the life cycle costs of a building designed and constructed according to the provisions of this chapter.

(3) Establish the criteria for determining the suitability of earthquake hazard mitigation technology as compared to conventional construction considering project-specific design requirements and life cycle costs.

(b) The advisory board established pursuant to Section 16022 shall advise the State Architect in the development of regulations for this chapter.

16103. (a) The State Architect shall seek the advice and cooperation of appropriate state agencies, structural and earthquake engineering professional organizations, the California Building Officials, the International Conference of Building Officials, and other professional organizations or associations to carry out the provisions of this section.

(b) The State Architect shall encourage technical and professional societies to conduct forums and seminars to increase the understanding of design professionals and building officials about new earthquake hazard mitigation technologies.

(c) The State Architect shall encourage state and federal governments, the University of California, other state agencies, the private educational institutions and the private sector to increase the availability of earthquake research funds and equipment, including, but not limited to, shake tables. The State Architect shall encourage the development of educational materials for earthquake hazard mitigation technologies.

(d) The State Architect, in cooperation with structural engineering professional organizations, shall submit the regulations developed according to this chapter to the International Conference of Building Officials for consideration of adoption in future model codes, as defined in Section 18916, by August 1, 1993.

16104. (a) The State Architect shall select suitable buildings and provide direction and supervision for the use of earthquake hazard mitigation technologies on three buildings owned by the Department of General Services, or other state-owned buildings proposed by another state agency, as demonstration projects. Buildings owned by the University of California, the California State University, the Department of Corrections, or other state agencies may be proposed as demonstration projects by the respective state agency but are subject to the approval of the State Architect for selection as a demonstration project and review by the State Architect according to provisions of this chapter.

(b) One demonstration project shall be a new building and two projects shall be existing buildings.

(c) It is in the best interest of the state that these demonstration projects should be fully instrumented and monitored by the Strong Motion Instrumentation Program (Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 2700) of Division 2 of the Public Resources Code) of the Division of Mines and Geology. The Strong Motion Instrumentation Program is encouraged to instrument these demonstration projects. The State Architect shall consult with the Strong Motion Instrumentation Program prior to the selection of demonstration projects.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the cost of instrumentation be funded by the appropriation that funds the construction of the building.

16105. The State Architect, in consultation with other agencies, shall recommend to the Legislature a long-term plan to study the retrofitting of existing state buildings and to recommend incorporating new earthquake hazard mitigation technologies where appropriate. Buildings of the University of California, the California State University, and the Department of Corrections are not required to comply with this section.

16106. (a) The State Architect shall develop and publish informational material describing the anticipated earthquake performance of new and existing buildings afforded by current and earlier building codes, the threat of earthquakes, and earthquake hazard mitigation technologies. This information shall be made available to the federal government, public agencies, and the public to assist building owners, occupants, and managers to better understand the anticipated earthquake performance of buildings.

(b) The State Architect shall provide information by various methods, including publications and seminars, to insurance companies, building owners, and the general public explaining the significant reductions in damage to buildings and contents which may be effected through the use of earthquake hazard mitigation technologies with the objective of encouraging the use of these technologies, reducing earthquake damage and disruption, and reducing insurance premiums for earthquake peril coverage.

16107. (a) The University of California, the California State University, the Department of Corrections, and public agencies are encouraged to develop and implement policies and performance standards according to lowest reasonable life cycle costs in a similar manner to Section 16101.

(b) No provision of this chapter shall apply to the Regents of the University of California unless the regents, by resolution, make the provision applicable.

16107.5. No provision of this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto, shall reduce, alter, or diminish the authority of the design professional who signs the plans and specifications for a project subject to this chapter.

16108. (a) Private and public agency building owners and developers may, and are encouraged to, use the provisions of this chapter for new and existing buildings. Private and public agency building owners and developers are encouraged to consider the building standards enacted by local governments for building reconstruction pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 19160) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 13.

(b) The State Architect, using the advisory committee defined in Section 16022 shall review the suitability of the candidate buildings for earthquake hazard mitigation technologies upon request from building owners or developers, public agencies, or design professionals and shall review the adequacy of the project-specific design and earthquake performance criteria and report its findings to the appropriate public agency prior to the approval of design concepts, preliminary design criteria, geotechnical reports, and ground response reports by the appropriate public agency.

(c) The advisory committee established pursuant to Section 16022 shall be used by the State Architect to perform a peer review of the earthquake hazard mitigation technologies for a project at the State Architect's discretion or at the request of a building owner, design professional, or responsible public agency. The State Architect may add to the advisory committee additional peers for a particular project from a list of recognized experts in the field of earthquake hazard mitigation technologies.

(d) An appropriate fee for all reviews by the State Architect and advisory committee shall be established by the State Architect and paid for by building owners prior to reviews. The fees established pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed the actual costs of performing the individual peer review.

(e) No local agency may require any private or public agency, building owner or developer, or their design professionals, to comply with the provisions of this chapter as a condition of local agency review, permitting, or approval.

16109. (a) In the event that a project involving buildings utilizing earthquake mitigation technologies and other new seismic resistant design technologies requires design review and plan approval by more than one public agency, the Coordinating Council of the Building Standards Commission shall, to the maximum extent feasible, consolidate the various hearings which may be required in order to minimize the time required for the hearings. This consolidation shall be for procedural purposes only and shall not be construed as consolidating the statutory responsibilities of the public agencies conducting the consolidated hearings.

(b) The Coordinating Council of the Building Standards Commission, in consultation with the State Architect, shall report to the Legislature by January 1, 1991, on recommendations for expediting and facilitating design review and plan approval of buildings utilizing earthquake mitigation technologies and other new seismic resistant design technologies.

16110. The State Architect shall periodically inform the Seismic Safety Commission with respect to the implementation and administration of this chapter.

16111. Nothing contained in this chapter shall expand or enlarge the jurisdiction of the Office of the State Architect to review and approve design concepts, preliminary design criteria, geotechnical reports or ground response reports, except as provided by state law prior to the effective date of this chapter and except as provided in Section 16108. This section shall be repealed on January 1, 2000.

SEC. 2. Section 74.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

74.5. (a) Where an existing building has been identified by a local government as being hazardous to life in the event of an earthquake, "newly constructed" and "new construction" does not include the portion of reconstruction of or installation in the building of: (1) seismic rehabilitation improvements, which are designed to increase seismic structural safety in accordance with a local earthquake safety ordinance adopted pursuant to Section 19163 of the Health and Safety Code; or, (2) improvements utilizing earthquake hazard mitigation technologies approved by the State Architect pursuant to Section 16102 of the Health and Safety Code. This exclusion from "newly constructed" and "new construction" is not applicable to seismic safety reconstruction and improvements which qualify for the exclusion provided in subdivision (d) of Section 70.

(b) For purposes of claiming the exclusion pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the governing body which enacted the local ordinance shall issue a certificate of compliance upon the request of the owner who, pursuant to a notice or permit issued by the governing body which specified that the seismic rehabilitation improvements are necessary to comply with a seismic safety ordinance, so reconstructs or improves his or her building in accordance with the ordinance. The certificate of compliance and proof that the building was identified as hazardous by the governing body shall be filed by the property owner with the assessor on or before the following April 15. The provisions of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) shall not apply to any building for which a certificate and proof are not filed.

(c) For purposes of claiming exclusion pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the property owner shall notify the assessor prior to, or within 30 days of, completion of reconstruction that he or she intends to claim the exclusion for improvements utilizing earthquake hazard mitigation technologies. All documents necessary to support the exclusion shall be filed by the property owner with the assessor on or before the following April 15. The provisions of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall not apply to any building for which the necessary documents are not filed.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if Senate Constitutional Amendment 33 of the 1989–90 Regular Session is chaptered and adopted by the electorate, and shall only apply to seismic rehabilitation improvements or improvements utilizing earthquake hazard mitigation technologies which are reconstructed or installed in existing buildings on or after the effective date of the constitutional amendment.

CHAPTER 989

An act to add Section 2053.1 to the Penal Code, relating to prisoners.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2053.1 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

2053.1. The Director of the Department of Corrections shall implement in every state prison literacy programs that are designed to ensure that upon parole inmates are able to achieve a ninth-grade reading level. The department shall prepare an implementation plan for this program, and shall request the necessary funds to implement this program as follows:

(a) To make the program available to at least 25 percent of eligible inmates in the state prison system by July 1, 1991.

(b) To make the program available to at least 60 percent of eligible inmates in the state prison system by January 1, 1996.

In complying with the requirements of this section, the department shall give strong consideration to computer assisted training and other innovations which have proven to be effective in reducing illiteracy of disadvantaged adults.

CHAPTER 990

An act to add and repeal Section 43804.3 of, and to repeal and add Section 43802 of, the Health and Safety Code, to add Section 25310.3 to the Public Resources Code, and to add and repeal Section 6356.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) The maintenance and improvement of air quality is a primary environmental concern of all Californians.

(b) Our dependence on foreign sources of fossil fuels can be lessened by the use of vehicles capable of using fuels other than conventional gasoline.

(c) Therefore, it is in California's best interest to encourage the development and popularization of low-emission vehicles capable of using alternative fuels.

SEC. 2. Section 43802 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 43802 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

43802. (a) At the time of certification pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 43100) of Chapter 2 of this part, the state board shall identify those motor vehicles which qualify as low-emission vehicles as defined in Section 39037.05. As part of the identification process, the state board shall require qualifying vehicles to be clearly labeled as low-emission vehicles. Labeling shall include a statement of the incremental cost, determined pursuant to Section 43804.3, exempted from sales and use tax pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 6356.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. For motor vehicles identified as low-emission motor vehicles by the board, the standards specified in Section 39037.05 shall be the applicable emission standards for Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 43100) of this part. No later than October 1, 1990, and at least annually thereafter, the state board shall submit a listing of certified low-emission motor vehicles to the Department of General Services. Certification determinations for all vehicle and fuel types shall be based solely on vehicle emissions and shall not be based on emissions from the production, compressing, refining, or transportation of fuel.

(b) Each time a resolution is granted pursuant to Section 27156 of the Vehicle Code, the state board shall identify those motor vehicle control devices and applications which convert conventional vehicles into low-emission vehicles as identified in Section 39037.05. As part of the identification process, the state board shall require identified devices to be clearly labeled as such for purposes of those applications specified by the state board. Labeling shall include a statement that the device is exempt from sales and use tax pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 6356.5 of Revenue and Taxation Code.

(c) For purposes of this section, "device" means physical equipment to be installed on a vehicle.

SEC. 3.5. Section 43804.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

43804.3. (a) The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, in consultation with the state board and the Department of General Services, shall, after one or more public hearings, determine a reasonable incremental cost of qualifying "low-emission motor vehicles" as defined pursuant to Section 39037.5. Separate determinations shall be made for light, medium, and heavy duty vehicles. The initial determination shall be completed by December 31, 1990, and shall be updated as deemed necessary by the commission. For purposes of this section, incremental cost means the difference between the cost of a qualifying low-emission motor vehicle and the cost of a comparable gasoline or diesel fueled vehicle.

(b) The determination specified in subdivision (a) shall be exempt from the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code).

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 25310.3 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25310.3. The 1991 report and subsequent biennial reports prepared pursuant to Section 25310 shall include a report on the impact and administration of incentives designed to encourage the purchase and use of low-emission vehicles, including, but not limited to, the incentives established under Section 6356.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 5. Section 6356.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6356.5. (a) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the incremental costs of the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, new low-emission motor vehicles as identified by the State Air Resources Board pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 43802 of the Health and Safety Code, provided that the incremental cost is separately stated on all of the following:

(1) The manufacturer's label affixed to the vehicle.

(2) The manufacturer's invoice to the retailer.

(3) The retailer's contract of sale with the purchaser. For purposes of this section, incremental cost means the amount determined by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission pursuant to Section 43804.3 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of, any retrofit device which has been identified and labeled pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 43802 of the Health and Safety Code, provided low-emission labeling appears on all of the following:

(1) The device itself or its packaging.

(2) Documentation from the manufacturer to be retained by the retailer upon sale of the device.

(3) The retailer's contract of sale with the purchaser.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. The Legislative Analyst shall submit a report to the Legislature no later than January 1, 1993, on the impact and effectiveness of the sales and use tax exemptions provided for in Section 6356.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 7. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code no appropriation is made by this act, and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 8. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the first day of the first calendar quarter commencing more than 90 days after the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission has made the determination specified in Section 43804.3 of the Health and Safety Code and reported its determination to the State Board of Equalization.

CHAPTER 991

An act to add and repeal Section 39912 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39912 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

39912. (a) The state board shall conduct a study of acid deposition on agriculture in the San Joaquin Valley. The study shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) The levels and types of acid deposition in the valley.

(2) The sources of the pollutants which are precursors of acid deposition in the valley.

(3) The effects of acid deposition on crops in the valley.

(4) The effects on agriculture of combined and cumulative exposure to acid deposition and photochemical oxidants in the valley.

(5) The economic impacts of acid deposition and of the combined and cumulative exposure to photochemical oxidants and acid deposition on agriculture and within the San Joaquin Valley.

(b) The state board shall hold at least one hearing in the San Joaquin Valley prior to completing the study. The state board shall submit the completed study to the Legislature by July 1, 1992.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 992

An act to add Section 790.036 to the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 790.036 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

790.036. (a) It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice in the business of insurance for an insurer to advertise insurance that it will not sell.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit any insurer from advertising insurance products for which it is licensed to sell in this state where the product is not available for sale so long as the unavailability is disclosed in the advertisement.

(c) A violation of this section is subject to the sanctions provided for by this article.

(d) An intentional violation of this section is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(e) This section does not apply to any insurer that refuses to sell a policy of insurance on the basis of its underwriting guidelines.

(f) This section does not apply to advertisements by an insurer where the advertisements are broadcast and originate from outside this state. As used in this subdivision, "broadcast" includes electronic media, television, and radio. As used in this subdivision, "originate from outside this state" includes cable transmittal of programs broadcast by stations located outside California.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 993

An act to amend Section 13144.5 of, to add Sections 1531.2, 1569.149, and 1596.809 to, and to add Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 13235) to Part 2 of Division 12 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to fire safety in care facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

Community care facilities, residential care facilities for the elderly, and child care facilities serve the needs of thousands of persons who are either physically impaired, mentally disabled, frail, elderly, or children, and who warrant care in a specialized, noninstitutional environment.

It is in the best interest of the California public that private citizens be encouraged to develop and operate community care facilities, residential care facilities for the elderly, and child day care facilities throughout the state in order to meet the critical demand for quality, specialized care homes.

Complex and unclear fire safety codes have frustrated the attempts of persons seeking to establish community care facilities, residential care facilities for the elderly, and child day care facilities, and have resulted in significant loss of money and resources to individuals who have received incorrect information regarding fire safety requirements from state or local officials, or no guidance at all.

Interpretation of state and local fire safety regulations varies between the more than 1,200 fire jurisdictions, and in some cases varies within the same jurisdiction, causing confusion and, in numerous instances, project cancellation.

Therefore, it is the intention of the Legislature that a prospective applicant for community care facility, residential care facility for the elderly, or child day care facility licensure shall be clearly informed in advance of making design modifications to a structure to meet specific fire safety requirements.

The Legislature futher intends that it is incumbent on state and local agencies to assist persons in the interpretation of fire safety regulations for community care facilities, residential care facilities for the elderly, and child day care facilities, and that greater efforts must be made to clarify and streamline the fire safety clearance process.

SEC. 2. Section 1531.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1531.2. A prospective applicant for licensure shall be notified at the time of the initial request for information regarding application for licensure that, prior to obtaining licensure, the facility shall secure and maintain a fire clearance approval from the local fire enforcing agency, as defined in Section 13244, or the State Fire Marshal, whichever has primary fire protection jurisdiction. The prospective applicant shall be notified of the provisions of Section 13235, relating to the fire safety clearance application. The prospective applicant for licensure shall be notified that the fire clearance shall be in accordance with state and local fire safety regulations.

SEC. 3. Section 1569.149 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1569.149. A prospective applicant for licensure shall be notified at the time of the initial request for information regarding application for licensure that, prior to obtaining licensure, the facility shall secure and maintain a fire clearance approval from the local fire enforcing agency, as defined in Section 13244, or the State Fire Marshal, whichever has primary fire protection jurisdiction. The prospective applicant shall be notified of the provisions of Section 13235, relating to the fire safety clearance application. The prospective applicant for licensure shall be notified that the fire clearance shall be in accordance with state and local fire safety regulations.

SEC. 4. Section 1596.809 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1596.809. A prospective applicant for licensure shall be notified at the time of the initial request for information regarding application for licensure that, prior to obtaining licensure, the facility shall secure and maintain a fire clearance approval from the local fire enforcing agency, as defined in Section 13244, or the State Fire Marshal, whichever has primary fire protection jurisdiction. The prospective applicant shall be notified of the provisions of Section 13235, relating to the fire safety clearance application. The prospective applicant for licensure shall be notified that the fire clearance shall be in accordance with state and local fire safety regulations.

SEC. 5. Section 13144.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13144.5. The State Fire Marshal shall prepare and conduct voluntary regular training sessions devoted to the interpretation and application of the laws and rules and regulations in Title 19 and Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations relating to fire and panic safety. The training sessions shall include, but need not be limited to, interpretation of the regulations pertaining to community care facilities licensed pursuant to Section 1508, to residential care facilities for the elderly licensed pursuant to Section 1569.10, and to child day care facilities licensed pursuant to Section 1596.80, in order to coordinate a consistent interpretation and application of the regulations among local fire enforcement agencies.

SEC. 4. Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 13235) is added to Part 2 of Division 12 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5.5. FIRE SAFETY INSPECTIONS OF CARE FACILITIES

13235. (a) Upon receipt of a request from a prospective licensee of a community care facility, as defined in Section 1502, of a residential care facility for the elderly, as defined in Section 1569.2, or of a child day care facility, as defined in Section 1596.750, the local fire enforcing agency, as defined in Section 13244, or State Fire Marshal, whichever has primary jurisdiction, shall conduct a preinspection of the facility prior to the final fire clearance approval. At the time of the preinspection, the primary fire enforcing agency shall provide consultation and interpretation of fire safety regulations, and shall notify the prospective licensee of the facility in writing of the specific fire safety regulations which shall be enforced in order to obtain fire clearance approval. A fee of not more than fifty dollars ($50) may be charged for the preinspection of a facility with a capacity to serve 25 or fewer persons. A fee of not more than one hundred dollars ($100) may be charged for a preinspection of a facility with a capacity to serve 26 or more persons.

(b) The primary fire enforcing agency shall complete the final fire clearance inspection for a community care facility, residential care facility for the elderly, or child day care facility within 30 days of receipt of the request for the final inspection, or as of the date the prospective facility requests the final prelicensure inspection by the State Department of Social Services, whichever is later.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 994

An act to amend Section 224n of the Civil Code, relating to adoption.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 224n of the Civil Code is amended to read:

224n. The department or licensed adoption agency to which a child has been freed for adoption by either relinquishment or termination of parental rights shall be responsible for the care of the child, and shall be entitled to the exclusive custody and control of the child until a final decree of adoption has been granted. Any placement for temporary care, or for adoption made by the department or a licensed adoption agency, may be terminated at its discretion at any time prior to the granting of a final decree of adoption. In the event of termination of any placement for temporary care or for adoption, the child shall be returned promptly to the physical custody of the agency.

No petition may be filed to adopt a child relinquished to the department or a licensed adoption agency or a child declared free from the custody and control of either or both of his or her parents and referred to the department or a licensed adoption agency for adoptive placement, except by the prospective adoptive parents with whom the child has been placed for adoption by the department or licensed adoption agency. After the petition for adoption has been filed, the department or licensed adoption agency may remove the child from the prospective adoptive parents only with the approval of the court, upon motion by the department or a licensed adoption agency after notice to the prospective adoptive parents, supported by an affidavit or affidavits stating the grounds on which removal is sought. If the department or a licensed adoption agency refuses to consent to the adoption of a child by the person or persons with whom the department or licensed adoption agency placed the child for adoption, the superior court may nevertheless decree the adoption if it finds that the refusal to consent is not in the best interest of the child.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the child has been in foster care for a period of more than four months, the child has substantial emotional ties to the foster parent or parents, the child's removal from the foster parent or parents would be seriously detrimental to the child's well-being, and the foster parent or parents make a written request to be considered to adopt the child, the foster parent or parents shall be considered with respect to that child along with all other prospective adoptive families. The department or agency shall take into consideration any relevant factors that it deems necessary in determining the adoptive placement which is in the best interests of the child.

The decision of the department or licensed adoption agency for the adoptive placement of the child shall be presumed to be in the best interests of the child. This presumption may be rebutted in an action, filed by the foster parent or parents, by a preponderance of the evidence that foster care has been provided by the requesting foster parent or parents for more than four months, that the child has substantial emotional ties to the foster parent or parents, and that the adoptive placement of the child with someone other than the foster parent or parents would be seriously detrimental to the child's well-being.

For purposes of this section, the "department" means the State Department of Social Services.

CHAPTER 995

An act to amend Section 1768.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to youths.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1768.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1768.8. (a) An assault or battery by any person confined in an institution under the jurisdiction of the Youth Authority upon the person of any individual who is not confined therein shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both a fine and imprisonment.

(b) An assault or battery by any person confined in an institution under the jurisdiction of the Youth Authority upon the person of any individual who is not confined therein, which inflicts serious bodily injury upon the victim, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years, or in county jail for not more than one year.

CHAPTER 996

An act to add Section 14085.6 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Federal medicaid laws encourage special recognition of disproportionate share hospitals for Medi-Cal payment purposes.

(b) Due to state budget constraints, the amounts paid to disproportionate share hospitals under the Medi-Cal contracting program during the past several years have not been sufficient to allow the hospitals to keep up with the increasing costs of providing care to Medi-Cal patients, especially for emergency services.

(c) A crisis exists in California regarding emergency services.

(d) Numerous Medi-Cal patients are provided emergency services by disproportionate share hospitals.

(e) Federal laws permit and encourage the state to fund the Medi-Cal program through flexible means, including public and private contributions to serve as the state share for purposes of federal financial participation.

SEC. 2. Section 14085.6 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14085.6. (a) Except as stated in subdivision (g), each disproportionate share hospital contracting to provide services under this article which meets the state criteria contained in the state medicaid plan and selective provider contracting waiver developed pursuant to the federal medicaid provisions regarding disproportionate share hospitals shall be eligible to negotiate with the commission for distributions from the Disproportionate Share and Emergency Services Fund, which is hereby created, pursuant to subdivision (f).

(b) (1) To the extent permitted by federal law, the department shall administer the fund in accordance with this section.

(2) The money in this fund shall be available for expenditure by the department for the purposes of this section, subject to approval through the regular budget process.

(c) The fund shall include all of the following:

(1) All public funds transferred by public agencies to the department for deposit in the fund, as permitted under subdivision (a) of Section 433.45 of Title 42 of the federal Code of Regulations and any other applicable federal medicaid laws.

(2) All private donated funds transferred by private individuals or entities for deposit in the fund as permitted under subdivision (b) of Section 433.45 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations and any other applicable federal medicaid laws.

(3) Any amounts appropriated to the fund by the Legislature.

(4) Interest which accrues on amounts in the fund.

(5) Federal financial participation amounts matching the amounts referred to in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, which are to be expended from the fund.

(d) Distributions from the fund shall be supplemental to any and all other amounts which hospitals would have received under the contracting program, including contract rate increases and distributions under Chapter 981 of the Statutes of 1988.

(e) Distributions from the fund shall not serve as the state's program for compliance with Section 4112 of the federal Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987 (P. L. 100-203). To the extent permitted by federal law, and except as otherwise provided in this section, distributions from the fund shall not be subject to requirements contained in or related to Section 4112 of Public Law 100-203. The state's means for compliance with Section 4112 of Public Law 100-203 shall be the program established under Chapter 981 of the Statutes of 1988.

(f) Distributions from the fund may be on any federally permissible basis, as negotiated between the commission and the hospital.

(g) In order to qualify for distributions from the fund, a hospital shall meet all of the following criteria:

(1) Be a contracting hospital under this article.

(2) Be a disproportionate share hospital as described in subdivision (a).

(3) Be one of the following:

(A) A licensed provider of basic emergency services as described in Sections 70411 et sequitur, of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(B) A licensed provider of comprehensive emergency medical services as defined in Sections 70451 et sequitur of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(C) A children's hospital as defined in Section 14087.21 which satisfies subparagraph (A) or (B) or which jointly provides basic or comprehensive emergency services in conjunction with another licensed hospital.

(4) Be able to demonstrate a need for additional funding to cover the cost of emergency services and other health care services included in the selective provider contracting program.

(h) (1) The department shall seek federal financial participation for expenditures made from the fund to the full extent permitted by federal law.

(2) The department shall promptly seek any necessary federal approvals regarding this section.

(i) Any funds remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall be carried forward for use in following fiscal years.

(j) For purposes of this section, "fund" means the Disproportionate Share and Emergency Services Fund.

(k) Consistent with Section 1902 (h) of the Social Security Act and any applicable federal regulations, there shall be no limitations on the amount of payment adjustments which may be made under Medi-Cal to disproportionate share hospitals.

(l) Any county transferring amounts to the fund, as specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c), may for that purpose, utilize any revenues, grants, or allocations received from the state for health care programs or purposes, unless otherwise prohibited by law. A county may also utilize county general funds for purposes of transfers to the fund.

(m) If transfers to the fund are made from federal moneys, they shall be federal moneys authorized by federal law to be used to match other federal funds.

(n) The department may adopt emergency regulations, if necessary, for the purposes of this section.

(o) The state shall be held harmless from any federal disallowance resulting from this section. A hospital receiving supplemental reimbursement pursuant to this section shall be liable for any reduced federal financial participation resulting from the implementation of this section with respect to that hospital. The state may recoup that federal disallowance from the hospital in any manner authorized by law or contract.

SEC. 3. The sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) is appropriated from the Disproportionate Share and Emergency Services Fund for the 1989–90 fiscal year for the combined administrative costs of the California Medical Assistance Commission and the State Department of Health Services pursuant to this act.

CHAPTER 997

An act to add Section 33334.14 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to redevelopment.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33334.14 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33334.14. (a) The covenants or restrictions imposed by the agency pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 33334.3 may be subordinated under any of the following alternatives:

(1) To a lien, encumbrance, or regulatory agreement under a federal or state program when a federal or state agency is providing financing, refinancing, or other assistance to the housing units or parcels, if the federal or state agency refuses to consent to the seniority of the agency's covenant or restriction on the basis that it is required to maintain its lien, encumbrance, or regulatory agreement or restrictions due to statutory or regulatory requirements, adopted or approved policies, or other guidelines pertaining to the financing, refinancing, or other assistance of the housing units or parcels.

(2) To a lien, encumbrance, or regulatory agreement of a lender other than the agency or from a bond issuance providing financing, refinancing, or other assistance of owner-occupied units or parcels where the agency makes a finding that an economically feasible alternative method of financing, refinancing, or assisting the units or parcels on substantially comparable terms and conditions, but without subordination, is not reasonably available.

(3) To an existing lien, encumbrance, or regulatory agreement of a lender other than the agency or from a bond issuance providing financing, refinancing, or other assistance of rental units, where the agency's funds are utilized for rehabilitation of the rental units.

(4) To a lien, encumbrance, or regulatory agreement of a lender other than the agency or from a bond issuance providing financing, refinancing, or other assistance of rental units or parcels where the agency makes a finding that an economically feasible alternative method of financing, refinancing, or assisting the units or parcels on substantially comparable terms and conditions, but without subordination, is not reasonably available, and where the agency obtains written commitments reasonably designed to protect the agency's investment in the event of default, such as any of the following:

(A) A right of the agency to cure a default on the loan.

(B) A right of the agency to negotiate with the lender after notice of default from the lender.

(C) An agreement that if prior to foreclosure of the loan, the agency takes title to the property and cures the default on the loan, the lender will not exercise any right it may have to accelerate the loan by reason of the transfer of title to the agency.

(D) A right of the agency to purchase property from the owner at any time after a default on the loan.

(b) Notwithstanding the definition of "construction and rehabilitation" in subdivision (a) of Section 33487, an agency which has merged redevelopment projects pursuant to Article 16 (commencing with Section 33485) of Chapter 4, and which is required to deposit taxes into the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 33487, may use any of the funds for the purposes and in the manner permitted by Sections 33334.2 and 33334.3. However, in that event, the time periods specified in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (e) of Section 33334.3 shall both be extended to 30 years. Nothing in this subdivision shall allow an agency with merged project areas pursuant to Article 16 (commencing with Section 33485) to utilize the provisions of paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 33334.2 so as to avoid or reduce its obligations to deposit taxes from merged project areas into the Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund.

CHAPTER 998

An act to amend Section 40469 of, and to add Section 40469.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to the South Coast Air Quality Management District, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40469 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40469. (a) Following submittal by the south coast district, the state board shall review the plan to determine its adequacy to meet federally mandated primary ambient air quality standards and all other requirements of the federal Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 7401 et seq.) and its adequacy to meet the requirements of the California Clean Air Act of 1988 (Chapter 1568, Statutes of 1988) and to attain state ambient air quality standards through application of the best available control technology, indirect source controls, transportation control measures, and the use of cleaner burning alternative fuels. If the state board determines that portions of the plan meet the requirements of the state and federal acts and are adequate to attain state ambient air quality standards, it shall adopt those portions and submit to the Environmental Protection Agency the portions of the plan required by the federal act within 120 days after receipt of the plan from the south coast district.

(b) If the state board determines that the plan does not meet all the requirements of the state and federal acts, or does not include a deadline for the attainment of the state ambient air quality standards by application of the best available control technology, indirect source controls, transportation control measures, and the use of cleaner burning alternative fuels, the state board shall, prior to amending the plan, convene a committee comprised of two members each of the state board, the Executive Committee of the Southern California Association of Governments, and the south coast district board appointed by the entity they represent to attempt to resolve the differences. If it is necessary to amend the plan, the state board shall do so at a public hearing held pursuant to Section 41652 and shall submit to the Environmental Protection Agency the portions of the plan required by the federal act within 120 days after receipt of the plan from the south coast district. In submitting the plan to the Environmental Protection Agency, the state board shall indicate what changes have been made to the plan.

(c) Within 30 days after the receipt of the plan from the south coast district, the state board shall determine if, with respect to any part of the plan concerning the control of a source of emissions that is within the state board's responsibility under law, it has sufficient information to determine whether the plan, or any part of the plan, meets the applicable requirements of the state and federal acts and is adequate to attain state ambient air quality standards. The state board shall thereupon notify the south coast district, in writing, of the additional information needed to make the determination, and the south coast district shall promptly furnish the information.

SEC. 2. Section 40469.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40469.5. Following the adoption of those portions of the plan that comply with the California Clean Air Act of 1988 (Chapter 1568, Statutes of 1988) and the federal Clean Air Act of (42 U.S.C. Sec. 7401 et seq.) and are adequate to attain state ambient air quality standards, the state board shall make all reasonable efforts to assist the south coast district by providing any additional information required to achieve an approvable state implementation plan, including convening joint public workshops on air quality monitoring, modeling, control technologies, and other matters coming within the state board's responsibility under law, and assisting the south coast district in researching and testing transportation control measures.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Section 40469 of the Health and Safety Code requires that the State Air Resources Board submit portions of the plan adopted by the South Coast Air Quality Management District to the Environmental Protection Agency within 120 days after receipt of the plan from the south coast district. In order for this act to apply to the most recent revision of the plan, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 999

An act to amend Sections 5250 and 5350 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mental health.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5250 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5250. If a person is detained for 72 hours under the provisions of Article 1 (commencing with Section 5150), or under court order for evaluation pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 5200) or Article 3 (commencing with Section 5225) and has received an evaluation, he or she may be certified for not more than 14 days of intensive treatment related to the mental disorder or impairment by chronic alcoholism, under the following conditions:

(a) The professional staff of the agency or facility providing evaluation services has analyzed the person's condition and has found the person is, as a result of mental disorder or impairment by chronic alcoholism, a danger to others, or to himself or herself, or gravely disabled.

(b) The facility providing intensive treatment is designated by the county to provide intensive treatment, and agrees to admit the person. No facility shall be designated to provide intensive treatment unless it complies with the certification review hearing required by this article. The procedures shall be described in the county Short-Doyle plan as required by Section 5651.3.

(c) The person has been advised of the need for, but has not been willing or able to accept, treatment on a voluntary basis.

(d) (1) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 5008, a person is not "gravely disabled" if that person can survive safely without involuntary detention with the help of responsible family, friends, or others who are both willing and able to help provide for the person's basic personal needs for food, clothing, or shelter.

(2) However, unless they specifically indicate in writing their willingness and ability to help, family, friends, or others shall not be considered willing or able to provide this help.

(3) The purpose of this subdivision is to avoid the necessity for, and the harmful effects of, requiring family, friends, and others to publicly state, and requiring the certification review officer to publicly find, that no one is willing or able to assist the mentally disordered person in providing for the person's basic needs for food, clothing, or shelter.

SEC. 2. Section 5350 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5350. A conservator of the person, of the estate, or of the person and the estate may be appointed for any person who is gravely disabled as a result of mental disorder or impairment by chronic alcoholism.

The procedure for establishing, administering and terminating conservatorship under this chapter shall be the same as that provided in Division 4 (commencing with Section 1400) of the Probate Code, except as follows:

(a) A conservator may be appointed for a gravely disabled minor.

(b) Appointment of a conservator under this part shall be subject to the list of priorities in Section 1812 of the Probate Code unless the officer providing conservatorship investigation recommends otherwise to the superior court.

(c) No conservatorship of the estate pursuant to this chapter shall be established if a conservatorship or guardianship of the estate exists under the Probate Code. When a gravely disabled person already has a guardian or conservator of the person appointed under the Probate Code, the proceedings under this chapter shall not terminate the prior proceedings but shall be concurrent with and superior thereto. The superior court may appoint the existing guardian or conservator of the person or another person as conservator of the person under this chapter.

(d) The person for whom conservatorship is sought shall have the right to demand a court or jury trial on the issue whether he or she is gravely disabled. Demand for court or jury trial shall be made within five days following the hearing on the conservatorship petition. If the proposed conservatee demands a court or jury trial before the date of the hearing as provided for in Section 5365, such demand shall constitute a waiver of the hearing.

Court or jury trial shall commence within 10 days of the date of the demand, except that the court shall continue the trial date for a period not to exceed 15 days upon the request of counsel for the proposed conservatee.

This right shall also apply in subsequent proceedings to reestablish conservatorship.

(e) (1) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 5008, a person is not "gravely disabled" if that person can survive safely without involuntary detention with the help of responsible family, friends, or others who are both willing and able to help provide for the person's basic personal needs for food, clothing, or shelter.

(2) However, unless they specifically indicate in writing their willingness and ability to help, family, friends, or others shall not be considered willing or able to provide this help.

(3) The purpose of this subdivision is to avoid the necessity for, and the harmful effects of, requiring family, friends, and others to publicly state, and requiring the court to publicly find, that no one is willing or able to assist the mentally disordered person in providing for the person's basic needs for food, clothing, or shelter.

(f) Conservatorship investigation shall be conducted pursuant to this part and shall not be subject to Section 1826 or Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1850) of Part 3 of Division 4 of the Probate Code.

(g) Notice of proceedings under this chapter shall be given to a guardian or conservator of the person or estate of the proposed conservatee appointed under the Probate Code.

(h) As otherwise provided in this chapter.

CHAPTER 1000

An act to amend Section 980 of the Government Code, relating to public works contracts.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 980 of the Government Code is amended to read:

980. (a) Whenever a request for payment from the state or a local entity pursuant to the terms of a contract for the construction of a public works project, as defined in Section 1720 of the Labor Code, is properly filed and the validity of the claim is not disputed or has been settled or agreed upon, payment of the claim by the disbursing officer of the state or local public entity shall include interest at the legal rate of 7 percent per annum commencing on the date upon which the claim was submitted if payment has not been made by the 60th day after the proper submission of the claim.

(b) If a request for payment has not been properly filed at an earlier date, then the request shall be deemed to be properly filed on the next business day after the contractor provides written notification to the public entity's designated jobsite representative that the contractor accepts the proposed final estimate as prepared by the public entity. This subdivision shall not apply to the California State University.

CHAPTER 1001

An act to amend Section 1226 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to clinics.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1226 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1226. (a) The regulations shall prescribe the kinds of services which may be provided by clinics in each category of licensure and shall prescribe minimum standards of adequacy, safety, and sanitation of the physical plant and equipment, minimum standards for staffing with duly qualified personnel, and minimum standards for providing the services offered. These minimum standards shall be based on the type of facility, the needs of the patients served, and the types and levels of services provided.

(b) The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, in consultation with the Community Clinics Advisory Committee, shall prescribe minimum construction standards of adequacy and safety for the physical plant of clinics and submit these standards for approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 of Division 13 and for publication in the State Building Standards Code.

(c) A facility seeking licensure as a surgical clinic shall be deemed to have met the minimum construction standards of adequacy and safety for the physical plants of clinics if the facility meets all the following requirements:

(1) An application for licensure is made no later than July 1, 1990.

(2) The facility is certified for participation in the federal Medicare program (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1395 et seq.), as an ambulatory surgical center as of June 1, 1988, or, if in the process of construction on June 1, 1989, the facility is certified for participation in the federal Medicare program as an ambulatory surgical center by December 31, 1989.

(3) The facility was constructed as a "Type I-1 or Type I-2 Occupancy" pursuant to Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations.

(4) The facility has been determined by the State Fire Marshal as meeting minimum safety standards for fire and life safety as provided for in this section.

(5) The licensure is limited to those services which the department determines can be safely provided in the existing facility.

(6) The facility owner has submitted a seismic hazards evaluation report for the facility to the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development for its approval, which has been prepared under the responsible charge and signed by a structural engineer by July 1, 1990. A structural engineer is a person who is authorized to use the title structural engineer under Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 6700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code.

(A) The structural engineer shall state in the seismic hazards evaluation report that the existing structural elements of the building are in conformance with or will be made to conform with the 1985 Triennial edition of Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations using an Importance Factor, as defined in Chapter 23 (commencing with Section 2-2301) of those regulations, equal to 0.75. The structural engineer shall also state that the anchorage of nonstructural elements of the building which include, but are not limited to, fixed equipment, ceiling systems, piping, ductwork, and electrical systems is in conformity with or will be made to conform with the latest edition of Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations using an Importance Factor of 1.5.

(B) The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall review and approve the seismic hazards evaluation report.

(d) If the approved seismic hazards evaluation report contains requirements for retroactive compliance with the seismic safety requirememts in paragraph (6) of subdivision (c), the owner shall comply with those requirements by July 1, 1993. If the owner does not comply with the report's requirements by that date, the license shall be revoked by the state department.

(e) The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall review and approve the design and inspection of the reconstruction or retrofit of, or alteration of, or addition to, any surgical center as it deems necessary to comply with the latest edition of Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations.

(f) The Office of the Statewide Health Planning and Development shall establish an appropriate fee for the review and approval of the seismic hazards evaluation report and the design review, approval, and construction inspection of the requirements for retroactive compliance defined in this section. The fee shall be paid for by the facility owner prior to review and construction inspection and shall not exceed the actual costs of performing the individual review and construction inspection.

(g) The office of the State Fire Marshal shall prescribe minimum safety standards for fire and life safety in surgical clinics. The office of the State Fire Marshal, shall, by regulation, review and adopt minimum safety standards, consistent with the 1981 Life Safety Code or any subsequent issue of that code (National Fire Protection Association, Code 101), which shall be met as a condition of licensure for private facilities built after January 1, 1982, which are not licensed as surgical clinics on January 1, 1987, if licensure as a surgical clinic is sought on or after January 1, 1987. In addition, all surgical clinics shall meet minimum construction and existing requirements as adopted by regulation of the State Fire Marshal, unless exempted by the State Fire Marshal upon determination that a reasonable degree of fire and life safety is provided.

(h) Regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter establishing standards for laboratory services shall not be applicable to any clinic which operates a clinical laboratory licensed pursuant to Section 1265 of the Business and Professions Code.

CHAPTER 1002

An act to add Section 54.8 to the Civil Code, and to amend Section 754 of the Evidence Code, relating to handicapped persons.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 54.8 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

54.8. (a) On and after January 1, 1991, in any civil or criminal proceeding, including, but not limited to, juvenile court proceedings, where a party, witness, attorney, judicial employee, judge, or juror is hard of hearing, the hard-of-hearing person, upon his or her request, shall be provided with a functioning assistive listening system.

(b) Assistive listening systems include, but are not limited to, special devices which transmit amplified speech by means of audio-induction loops, radio frequency systems (AM or FM), or infrared transmission. Personal receivers equipped with headphones for, or use with, hearing aids shall be available upon request by persons who are hard of hearing.

(c) The requirement of an assistive listening system in subdivision (a), may be satisfied in the alternative by the use of computer-aided transcription equipment, if sufficient display terminals are provided to allow the hard-of-hearing person to read the real time transcript of the proceeding without difficulty.

(d) A sign shall be posted in a prominent place indicating the availability of an assistive listening system or a computer-aided transcription system.

(e) Each county shall have at least one portable assistive listening device system for use by any court within the county. The system shall be located in a location jointly determined by the county board of supervisors and the judges. Notice of the availability of the system shall be posted with notice of trials.

(f) The Judicial Council shall develop and approve official forms for notice of the availability of assistive listening systems or computer-aided transcription systems for the hard of hearing. The Judicial Council shall also develop and maintain a system to record utilization by the courts of these assistive listening systems and computer-aided transcription systems.

(g) If the hard-of-hearing person in question is a juror, the jury deliberation room shall be equipped with an assistive listening system or a computer-aided transcription system upon the request of the juror.

(h) A court reporter may be present in the jury deliberating room during a jury deliberation if the services of a court reporter for the purpose of operating computer-aided transcription systems are required for a hearing-impaired juror.

(i) In any civil or criminal proceeding in which the hard-of-hearing person is a party, witness, attorney, judicial employee, judge, or juror, and has requested use of an assistive listening system or computer-aided transcription system, the proceedings shall not commence until the system is in place and functioning.

(j) As used in this section, " hard-of-hearing person" means a person with a partial hearing loss, who, with sufficient amplification, can understand spoken language.

SEC. 2. Section 754 of the Evidence Code is amended to read:

754. (a) As used in this section, "deaf person" means a person with a hearing loss so great as to prevent his or her understanding language spoken in a normal tone, but does not include a hard-of-hearing person provided with, and able to fully participate in the proceedings through the use of, an assistive listening system or computer-aided transcription equipment provided pursuant to Section 54.8 of the Civil Code.

(b) In any civil or criminal action, including any action involving a traffic or other infraction or any juvenile court proceeding, or any proceeding to determine the mental competency of a person, or any administrative hearing, where a party or witness is a deaf person and the deaf person is present in court and participating, the proceedings shall be interpreted in a language that the deaf person understands by a qualified interpreter appointed by the court, tribunal, or hearing officer, or as agreed upon by the parties.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "qualified interpreter" means only a person who meets both of the following criteria:

(1) Has been issued a certificate of competency by the National Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf, or by a state group affiliated with the National Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf, or by any other group determined by the Judicial Council to possess a level of competence in training, testing, and certification of interpreters for the deaf equivalent to that of the National Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf, which certificate has been determined by the issuing agency to be appropriate for the purpose of interpreting the proceedings specified in subdivision (b).

(2) Has been included on a list of recommended court interpreters which shall be established by the superior court in each county.

(d) In the event that the only available interpreter is not considered to possess adequate interpreting skills for the particular situation, or the interpreter is not familiar with use of slang, the deaf person may be permitted by the court, tribunal, or hearing officer to nominate another person to act as intermediary between himself or herself and the appointed qualified interpreter during the proceedings.

(e) Persons appointed to serve as interpreters under this section shall be paid, in addition to actual travel costs, the prevailing rate paid to persons employed by the court to provide other interpreter services unless such service is considered to be a part of the person's regular duties as an employee of the state, county, or other political subdivision of the state. Payment of the interpreter's fee shall be a charge against the county, or other political subdivision of the state, in which such action is pending. Payment of the interpreter's fee in administrative proceedings shall be a charge against the appointing board, agency, commission, or licensing authority.

(f) No statement, written or oral, made by a person who is deaf in reply to a question of a peace officer, or any other person having prosecutorial function in any criminal or quasi-criminal proceeding, may be used against that deaf person unless either the statement was made or elicited through a qualified interpreter and was made knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently, or the court makes a special finding that the statement was made knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently.

(g) In any action or proceeding in which a deaf person is a participant, the court or administrative authority shall not commence proceedings until the appointed interpreter is in full view of and spatially situated to assure proper communication with the deaf person or persons involved as participants.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1003

An act to add Section 14669.4 to the Government Code, relating to state property, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14669.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14669.4. Notwithstanding Section 14669, the director may enter into a lease-purchase agreement, or a lease with an option to purchase, with an initial option purchase price which may exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000), to provide for a California Conservation Corps facility and office space in the City of Fortuna in Humboldt County.

SEC. 2. In addition to the purposes specified in subdivision (d) of Section 3 of Chapter 1479 of the Statutes of 1988, the appropriation therein may also be used for purposes, as necessary, of site studies and suitability reports, environmental studies, master planning, architectural programming, and schematics for new general population facilities.

SEC. 3. The sum of five million two hundred thousand dollars ($5,200,000) is hereby appropriated from the 1988 Prison Construction Fund to the Department of Corrections as follows:

(a) For purposes, as necessary, of site acquisition, site studies and suitability reports, environmental studies, master planning, architectural programming, schematics, preliminary plans, working drawings, construction, long lead and equipment items for the work-based camp facility in Humboldt County	$2,700,000
(b) For purposes, as necessary, of site studies and suitability reports, environmental studies, master planning, architectural programming, and preliminary plans for a 2,000-bed medium security prison, with a 200-bed minimum security unit, in the vicinity of Coalinga in Fresno County, provided that the Coalinga environmental impact report includes three or more sites	$2,500,000

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide for the financing of the California Conservation Corps facility and office space to commence as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately. In addition, the state prison system is currently overcrowded. The prison population increased during the last year at an average rate of more than 200 inmates each week. The Legislature and the people of this state have determined that immediate expansion of the prison system by the swiftest possible means is necessary to relieve the system from current and anticipated overcrowding and to maintain the public safety and security. In order to permit the state to deal with this immediate and current crisis at the earliest possible time, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1004

An act to amend Section 22218.6 of, and to add Sections 22514 and 22515 to, the Education Code, and to amend Section 3543.2 of the Government Code, relating to the State Teachers' Retirement System, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22514 is added to the Education Code, to read:

22514. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section and Section 22515 that members of the State Teachers' Retirement System not be adversely impacted, to the extent deemed reasonable, by the application of Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) The State Teachers' Retirement System shall work closely with teacher organizations to develop a supplemental plan which, to the extent deemed reasonable and without violating the intent and purposes of Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code, maintains the future retirement benefits of its members and the fiscal integrity of the Teachers' Retirement Fund. The supplemental plan should not result in any additional liability to the employer.

(c) The State Teachers' Retirement System shall also monitor the benefits of its members and notify affected individuals of their options, if deemed appropriate by the State Teachers' Retirement System.

SEC. 2. Section 22515 is added to the Education Code, to read:

22515. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, the benefits payable to any person who becomes a member on or after January 1, 1990, shall be subject to the limitations set forth in Section

415 of the Internal Revenue Code without regard to Section 415(b)(2)(F) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Notwithstanding any other law, the benefits payable to any person who became a member prior to January 1, 1990, shall not be less than the accrued benefit of the member under this system (determined without regard to any amendment to the system made after October 14, 1987) as provided in Section 415(b)(10) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) The board shall provide to each employer a notice of the content and effect of subdivision (a) for distribution to each person who, for the first time, becomes a member on or after January 1, 1990.

SEC. 3. Section 22218.6 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22218.6. The board shall submit an annual report to the Legislature, which report shall include:

(a) A copy of the annual audit performed pursuant to Section 22220.

(b) A review by a consultant, a summary of any changes in actuarial assumptions from the previous year, a review of the system's asset mix strategy, a market review of the economic and financial environment in which investments were made, and a summary of the system's general investment strategy.

(c) A description of the investments of the system, including the concentration of stocks and bonds, at cost and market value, including dividends and coupons, and a summary of major changes that occurred since the previous year.

(d) The following information regarding the rate of return of the system by asset type:

(1) Time-weighted return on a five-year, three-year, two-year, and one-year basis.

(2) Dollar-weighted return on a five-year, three-year, two-year, and one-year basis.

(3) Book valuation return on a five-year, three-year, two-year, and one-year basis.

(4) Portfolio return comparisons which compare investment returns with an alternative theoretical portfolio of comparable funds, universes, and indexes.

(5) Returns as credited to employer accounts.

(6) Returns as reported in annual reports.

(7) Returns as reported by the Controller.

(e) A transaction summary which shall adequately review the system's custodial relationship and daily cash management, purchases, sales, turnover, private placements, soft dollar purchases, and transaction costs such as commissions, dealer spreads and accommodations.

(f) The system shall report on the use of outside investment advisers and managers and any participation in corporate annual meetings and shareholder voting.

(g) A statement of actuarial gains and losses, including the components of the employer contribution rate, and the sensitivity of the statement information to changes in the economic or noneconomic actuarial assumptions.

(h) A discussion of the system portfolio of the system containing the following information:

(1) Concentration, current holdings at cost and market value, risk characteristics (R-squared, Beta, standard error), fundamentals (P/E, dividend yield, measures of growth, size, earnings quality, debt/equity) of equities.

(2) Concentration, current holdings at cost and market value, maturity, duration, quality, coupon, and current yield of fixed income instruments.

(3) Current holdings at cost and market value of real estate equities.

(4) Current holdings at cost and market value of mortgages.

(5) Securities lending activity.

(6) Options and forward commitments.

(7) Cash and cash equivalents.

(i) Include a performance review of asset allocation, of equities due to market timing, sector selection, stock selection and trading, of fixed income instruments due to interest rate anticipation skills, credit analysis, sector trading and swapping and of value added over indexing (alpha).

(j) A review of the system's custodial relationship and daily cash management and a summary of the system's investment transactions, including purchases, sales, turnover, private placements, soft dollar purchases, and transaction costs such as commissions, dealer spreads and accommodations.

(k) A review of the role of any outside managers and advisers, stockholder voting, and changes in investment staff or reorganization.

SEC. 4. Section 3543.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

3543.2. (a) The scope of representation shall be limited to matters relating to wages, hours of employment, and other terms and conditions of employment. "Terms and conditions of employment" mean health and welfare benefits as defined by Section 53200, leave, transfer and reassignment policies, safety conditions of employment, class size, procedures to be used for the evaluation of employees, organizational security pursuant to Section 3546, procedures for processing grievances pursuant to Sections 3548.5, 3548.6, 3548.7, and 3548.8, the layoff of probationary certificated school district employees, pursuant to Section 44959.5 of the Education Code, and alternative compensation or benefits for employees adversely affected by pension limitations pursuant to Section 22515 of the Education Code, to the extent deemed reasonable and without violating the intent and purposes of Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, the exclusive representative of certificated personnel has the right to consult on the definition of educational objectives, the determination of the content of courses and curriculum, and the selection of textbooks to the extent such matters are within the discretion of the public school employer under the law. All matters not specifically enumerated are reserved to the public school employer and may not be a subject of meeting and negotiating, provided that nothing herein may be construed to limit the right of the public school employer to consult with any employees or employee organization on any matter outside the scope of representation.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 44944 of the Education Code, the public school employer and the exclusive representative shall, upon request of either party, meet and negotiate regarding causes and procedures for disciplinary action, other than dismissal, including a suspension of pay for up to 15 days, affecting certificated employees. If the public school employer and the exclusive representative do not reach mutual agreement, then the provisions of Section 44944 of the Education Code shall apply.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 44955 of the Education Code, the public school employer and the exclusive representative shall, upon request of either party, meet and negotiate regarding procedures and criteria for the layoff of certificated employees for lack of funds. If the public school employer and the exclusive representative do not reach mutual agreement, then the provisions of Section 44955 of the Education Code shall apply.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 45028 of the Education Code, the public school employer and the exclusive representative shall, upon the request of either party, meet and negotiate regarding the payment of additional compensation based upon criteria other than years of training and years of experience. If the public school employer and the exclusive representative do not reach mutual agreement, then the provisions of Section 45028 of the Education Code shall apply.

SEC. 5. There is hereby appropriated from the Teachers' Retirement Fund to the Teachers' Retirement Board the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for expenditure to carry out the purposes of Sections 1 and 2 of this act.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1005

An act to amend Section 148 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 148 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

148. (a) Every person who willfully resists, delays, or obstructs any public officer, peace officer, or an emergency medical technician, as defined in Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 1797) of the Health and Safety Code, in the discharge or attempt to discharge any duty of his or her office or employment, when no other punishment is prescribed, is punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(b) Every person who, during the commission of any offense described in subdivision (a), removes or takes any weapon, other than a firearm, from the person of or immediate presence of a public officer or peace officer is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year, or in the state prison.

(c) Every person who, during the commission of any offense described in subdivision (a), removes or takes a firearm from the person of or immediate presence of a public officer or peace officer is guilty of a felony.

(d) Every person who, during the commission of any offense described in subdivision (a), attempts to remove or take a firearm from the person or immediate presence of a public officer or peace officer is guilty of a public offense, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year or in the state prison.

In order to prove a violation of this subdivision, the prosecution shall establish that the defendant had the specific intent to remove or take the firearm by demonstrating that any of the following direct, but ineffectual, acts occurred:

(1) The officer's holster strap was unfastened by the defendant.

(2) The firearm was partially removed from the officer's holster by the defendant.

(3) The firearm safety was released by the defendant.

(4) An independent witness corroborates that the defendant stated that he or she intended to remove the firearm and the defendant actually touched the firearm.

(5) An independent witness corroborates that the defendant actually had his or her hand on the firearm and tried to take the firearm away from the officer who was holding it.

(6) The defendant's fingerprint was found on the firearm or holster.

(7) Physical evidence authenticated by a scientifically verifiable procedure established that the defendant touched the firearm.

(8) In the course of any struggle, the officer's firearm fell and the defendant attempted to pick it up.

(e) A violation of subdivision (a) may not be charged in addition to a charge of a violation of subdivision (b), (c), or (d).

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1006

An act to amend Sections 22202, 22203, 22204, 22208, and 22302 of, and to add Section 22560 to, and to add and repeal Sections 22009.03 and 22156 of, the Government Code, relating to public employees, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that under the federal Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (P.L. 99-272), Congress extended to state and local employees the benefit of participation in the federal Medicare program.

(b) The Legislature hereby reaffirms its 1985 statement of intent contained in Section 22018 of the Government Code, that, to the extent possible, members of the State Teachers' Retirement System earn credit toward Medicare coverage, and declares its intention that persons who were employed in positions covered by the State Teachers' Retirement System on March 31, 1986, should also benefit from participation in the federal Medicare program.

SEC. 2. Section 22009.03 is added to the Government Code, to read:

22009.03. "Public agency" also includes a school district with respect to employees eligible for membership in the State Teachers' Retirement System.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1990, and shall become inoperative on July 1, 1993, and, as of January 1, 1994, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 22156 is added to the Government Code, to read:

22156. (a) A division of the State Teachers' Retirement System is hereby authorized by the Legislature to provide medicare coverage for employees of a public agency as defined in Section 22009.03, upon the request of the public agency.

(b) The division authorized by subdivision (a) shall be conducted pursuant to this article.

(c) A member of the State Teachers' Retirement System on whose behalf a request is made pursuant to subdivision (a), may elect to be covered by Medicare, pursuant to Section 218 of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 418), and applicable federal regulations if (1) the member was employed in a position covered by the system on March 31, 1986, and (2) the member has not since been mandated into medicare coverage due to the enactment of Public Law 99-272, and (3) the member is in a position covered or the member is eligible to elect to be covered by the retirement system on the date of the division.

(d) The public agency shall, immediately after the elections authorized in subdivision (b) have been made, make application pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 22200) of this part for Medicare coverage for those members who have elected to receive Medicare coverage.

(e) The effective date of the coverage may be retroactive a maximum of five years but not earlier than January 1, 1987.

(f) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1990, and shall become inoperative on July 1, 1993, and, as of January 1, 1994, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 22202 of the Government Code is amended to read:

22202. With respect to employees in the coverage group defined in subdivision (a) of Section 22100, the application shall be deemed to be made by a public agency if made by the Adjutant General. With respect to employees in positions covered by the retirement system set forth in subdivision (d) of Section 22009.1, the application shall be deemed to be made by a public agency if made prior to July 1, 1993, by the legislative or governing body of a public agency as defined in Section 22009.03, or if made on or after July 1, 1993, the application shall be deemed to be made by a public agency if made by the Teachers' Retirement Board. With respect to employees in positions covered by the retirement system set forth in subdivision (g) of Section 22009.1, the application shall be deemed to be made by a public agency if made by the Regents of the University of California.

SEC. 5. Section 22203 of the Government Code is amended to read:

22203. Notwithstanding Section 22201, before the board shall execute on behalf of the state an agreement with the federal agency as provided in this chapter, the public agency and the board shall enter into a written agreement, which shall include provisions not inconsistent with this part which the board deems necessary in the administration of the federal system as it affects the state and the public agency and its employees.

For the purposes of this section, the state shall not be deemed to be a public agency, but nevertheless an agreement entered into pursuant to this part by the board and, (a) if prior to July 1, 1993, by the legislative or governing body of a public agency as defined in Section 22009.03; (b) if on or after July 1, 1993, by the Teachers' Retirement Board; or (c) the Adjutant General or the Regents of the University of California shall be deemed to be entered into by the board and a public agency.

SEC. 6. Section 22204 of the Government Code is amended to read:

22204. The agreement between the state and the federal agency shall include each coverage group or retirement system coverage group as to which formal request for the inclusion is made by the legislative or governing body of the employing public agency pursuant to this chapter, prior to the effective date of the agreement. For the purposes of this section, the state shall not be deemed to be a public agency, but nevertheless any formal request for the inclusion made with respect to employees in positions covered by the retirement system set forth in subdivision (d) of Section 22009.1, shall be deemed to be made by a public agency, if made prior to July 1, 1993, by the legislative or governing body of a public agency as defined in Section 22009.03, or if on or after July 1, 1993, the application shall be deemed to be made by a public agency if made by the Teachers' Retirement Board. With respect to employees in positions covered by the retirement system set forth in subdivision (g) of Section 22009.1, any formal request for the inclusion, made by the Regents of the University of California, or by the Adjutant General, shall be deemed to be made by the governing body of an employing public agency.

SEC. 7. Section 22208 of the Government Code is amended to read:

22208. With respect to each retirement system coverage group, the legislative or governing body of every public agency having employees in positions covered by a retirement system, may, upon the affirmative vote of a majority of eligible retirement system employees of the retirement system coverage group at a referendum conducted in accordance with Article 2 (commencing with Section 22300) of this chapter and the rules and regulations promulgated by the board pursuant to this part, make formal application to the board for the inclusion of the employees in each retirement system coverage group in the agreement. With respect to employees in positions covered by the retirement system set forth in subdivision (d) of Section 22009.1, the formal application shall be deemed to be made, if made prior to July 1, 1993, by the legislative or governing body of a public agency as defined in Section 22009.03, or if on or after July 1, 1993, by the Teachers' Retirement Board.

SEC. 8. Section 22302 of the Government Code is amended to read:

22302. In the case of employees in positions covered by the retirement system set forth in subdivision (d) of Section 22009.1, if prior to July 1, 1993, the legislative or governing body of a public agency as defined in Section 22009.03, or if on or after July 1, 1993, the Teachers' Retirement Board shall conduct the referendum; if the referendum is authorized by the Legislature.

In the case of employees in positions covered by the retirement system set forth in subdivision (g) of Section 22009.1 the board shall authorize the referendum upon the request of the Regents of the University of California and the Regents shall conduct the referendum.

SEC. 9. Section 22560 is added to the Government Code, to read:

22560 (a) Due to the required administrative services necessary for implementation of the act enacting this section, the Public Employees' Retirement System is authorized 3.0 limited-term retirement program specialist II positions and 2.0 limited-term office assistant II (typing) positions for the 1990–91 fiscal year, 2.0 limited-term retirement program specialist II positions and 1.0 limited-term office assistant II (typing) positions for the 1991–92 fiscal year, and 1.0 limited-term retirement program specialist II positions and 1.0 limited-term office assistant II (typing) positions for the 1992–93 fiscal year.

(b) There is hereby appropriated, for salary and benefits, equipment, and work stations, and other administrative costs which result from the act enacting this section, from the Public Employees' Retirement Fund to the Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System as follows:

(1) For the 1990–91 fiscal year, the sum of three hundred two thousand three hundred four dollars ($302,304).

(2) For the 1991–92 fiscal year, the sum of one hundred thirty-eight thousand four hundred eighty-eight dollars ($138,488).

(3) For the 1992–93 fiscal year, the sum of thirty-six thousand fifty-one dollars ($36,051).

(c) The board shall charge or assess each public agency as defined in Section 22009.3 and each public agency shall pay and reimburse the state at such times and in such amounts as the board may determine, the approximate cost to the state, of any and all work, services, equipment, and other administrative costs relating to a division under Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 22150) of Chapter 1 of this part or the referendum provided by Article 2 (commencing with Section 22300) of Chapter 2 of this part and requested by the agency. The charges may differ from public agency to public agency.

SEC. 10. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government

Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1007

An act to amend Section 11044 of the Government Code, relating to state government, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11044 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11044. (a) For state agencies, departments, or programs which are charged for the costs of legal services rendered by the Attorney General, the Attorney General shall charge an amount sufficient to recover the costs incurred in providing the legal services. Except as approved by the Department of Finance, charges for legal services may not be made against the General Fund, but may be made against any other fund or special account in the General Fund.

(b) Upon the request of the Attorney General in the form prescribed by the Controller, the Controller shall transfer the amount of the charges for services rendered from the agency's appropriation to the appropriation for the support of the Attorney General's office, provided that the Attorney General shall not request an amount which, when added to previous charges in the same fiscal year, exceeds the amount budgeted by the state agency for Attorney General legal services. Reimbursements for these charges shall be credited to and in augmentation of the appropriation for the support of the Attorney General's office from which the cost of the services was or will be paid.

(c) A state agency that has a dispute regarding charges for legal services provided by the Attorney General shall notify the Attorney General, in writing, of the dispute and the basis therefor. The Attorney General shall immediately provide a credit to the state agency in the subsequent billing or billings for the amount of the charges in dispute. No further transfer of funds shall occur with respect to the services for which charges are disputed until the dispute is resolved by the Attorney General, subject to the approval of the Department of Finance.

SEC. 2. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1989.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the payment procedures established by this act to become operational at the beginning of the 1989–90 fiscal year and thereby make possible and facilitate the orderly administration of public finance, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1008

An act to add Section 6106.8 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to attorneys.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6106.8 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

6106.8. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that there is no rule that governs propriety of sexual relationships between lawyers and clients. The Legislature further finds and declares that it is difficult to separate sound judgment from emotion or bias which may result from sexual involvement between a lawyer and his or her client during the period that an attorney-client relationship exists, and that emotional detachment is essential to the lawyer's ability to render competent legal services. Therefore, in order to ensure that a lawyer acts in the best interest of his or her client, a rule of professional conduct governing sexual relations between attorneys and their clients shall be adopted.

(b) With the approval of the Supreme Court, the State Bar shall adopt a rule of professional conduct governing sexual relations between attorneys and their clients in cases involving, but not limited to, probate matters and domestic relations, including dissolution proceedings, child custody cases, and settlement proceedings.

(c) The State Bar shall submit the proposed rule to the Supreme Court for approval no later than January 1, 1991.

(d) Intentional violation of this rule shall constitute a cause for suspension or disbarment.

CHAPTER 1009

An act to add and repeal Section 380.4 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to state highways.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 380.4 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

380.4. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that there will be increased traffic on San Pablo Avenue in the Cities of Richmond, San Pablo, Pinole, Hercules, and El Cerrito, and other portions of San Pablo Avenue in the County of Contra Costa by motor vehicles detoured because of construction work on Route 80 in Contra Costa County.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section that the state share in the cost of maintaining and operating San Pablo Avenue to the extent that it is used as an alternative to Route 80 during construction. It is the further intent of the Legislature that the department pay up to the amount authorized in this section to the County of Contra Costa and to each city specified in subdivision (a).

(c) During the period of construction, the department may pay annually to the County of Contra Costa and to each of the cities specified in subdivision (a) for the added costs of maintenance and operation of San Pablo Avenue. The total obligation of the department for this purpose shall not exceed seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) per year, adjusted for inflation, as reflected by a change in a national or regional index that measures the rate of inflation, as determined by the department.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until the commission certifies to the Secretary of State that construction is complete on the project on Route 80 in Contra Costa County to convert the existing shoulder to additional traffic lanes, and as of the date of that certification is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 380.4 of the Streets and Highways Code shall become effective only if Senate Bill 1716 of the 1989–90 Regular Session is enacted and becomes effective.

CHAPTER 1010

An act to amend Sections 130.5, 632, 1375.1, 1379, 2118.5, 2739, and 2742 of, to add Sections 1379.6, 2129, 2739.1, and 2739.2 to, and to repeal Section 1597 of, the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1989 Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 1989]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 130.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

130.5. "Benefit Audit Fund" means the Employment Development Department Benefit Audit Fund.

SEC. 2. Section 632 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

632. "Employment" does not include service performed in the employ of any other state or its political subdivisions or in the employ of the United States government or of any instrumentality of the United States, but if Congress permits the states to require any instrumentalities of the United States to make payments into a fund under a state unemployment compensation act, and to comply with state regulations thereunder, then, to the extent permitted by Congress, all of the provisions of this division shall be applicable to the instrumentalities and to services performed for the instrumentalities in the same manner, to the same extent, and on the same terms as to all other employers, employing units, individuals, and services.

If this state is not certified by the Secretary of Labor under Section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 for any year, then the payments required of the instrumentalities and their workers with respect to the year shall be refunded from the Unemployment Fund without interest.

SEC. 3. Section 1375.1 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1375.1. If the director finds that an individual has been overpaid unemployment compensation benefits because he or she willfully, for the purpose of obtaining unemployment compensation benefits, either made a false statement or representation, with actual knowledge of the falsity thereof, or withheld a material fact, the director shall assess against the individual an amount equal to 30 percent of the overpayment amount. Assessments collected under this section shall be deposited in the Benefit Audit Fund.

SEC. 4. Section 1379 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1379. The director, subject to this article, may do any or all of the following in the recovery of overpayments of unemployment compensation benefits:

(a) File a civil action against the liable person for the recovery of the amount of the overpayment within one year after any of the following, or, in cases where the individual has been overpaid benefits due to fraud, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure as described in Section 1375.1, within three years of any of the following:

(1) The mailing or personal service of the notice of overpayment determination if the person affected does not file an appeal to an administrative law judge.

(2) The mailing of the decision of the administrative law judge if the person affected does not initiate a further appeal to the appeals board.

(3) The date of the decision of the appeals board.

(b) Initiate proceedings for a summary judgment against the liable person. However, this subdivision applies only where the director has found, pursuant to Section 1375, that the overpayment may not be waived because it was due to fraud, misrepresentation, or willful nondisclosure on the part of the recipient. The director may, not later than three years after the overpayment became final, file with the clerk of the proper court in the county from which the overpayment of benefits was paid or in the county in which the claimant resides, a certificate containing all of the following:

(1) The amount due, including the assessment made under Section 1375.1, plus interest from the date that the initial determination of overpayment was made pursuant to Section 1376.

(2) A statement that the director has complied with all the provisions of this article prior to the filing of the certificate.

(3) A request that judgment be entered against the liable person in the amount set forth in the certificate.

The clerk, immediately upon the filing of the certificate, shall enter a judgment for the State of California against the liable person in the amount set forth in the certificate.

For the purposes of this subdivision only, an overpayment is final and due and payable after any of the following:

(A) The liable person has not filed an appeal pursuant to Section 1377.

(B) The liable person has filed an appeal to the administrative law judge and a decision of an administrative law judge has become final.

(C) The liable person has filed an appeal to the appeals board and the decision of the appeals board has become final because the liable person has not sought judicial review within the six-month period provided by Section 410.
