(d) All local agencies' certification of the business concern as a minority or women owned business enterprise may not require the business concern to provide information on the application forms of the local agencies which duplicates the information previously provided to the department on the department's application forms, provided the business concern submits to the local agencies a copy of the department's completed application forms and all other documentation previously submitted to the department in support of the department's certification of the business within one year from the date that the application forms and supporting documentation are submitted to the department for certification of the business enterprise. Local agencies or associations of local agencies which utilize the department's application forms and supplemental documentation thereto may make their own independent certification determinations and shall not be required to accept the certification determinations of the department. The department shall not require a business concern to complete the department's application forms, if, and to the extent, the business concern submits to the department copies of completed certification forms of a local agency or association of local agencies on which is provided the same information as is required to be provided on the department's application forms. Each local agency may perform one site visit per year to determine ownership and control of the business concern.

CHAPTER 1417

An act to amend Section 11590 of, to add Section 11648 to, and to repeal and add Section 11647 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to drugs, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that clandestine laboratories which produce illegal drugs, primarily methamphetamine, are proliferating in California. These laboratories supply illicit substances, endanger law enforcement personnel who investigate them and those who live near them, and contaminate buildings, soil, and water with toxic chemicals. In 1987 and 1988, 1,457 clandestine laboratories were seized in the United States. Of this amount, 866, or 59 percent, of the total laboratories seized were in California.

In 1986, the Legislature, recognizing the dangers posed by clandestine laboratories, enacted the Clandestine Laboratory Enforcement Program (Ch. 12, (commencing with Sec. 11640), Div. 10, H.& S.C.) to provide additional funding for state and local law enforcement efforts and increased assistance to local agencies to clean up the toxic wastes produced by these sites. As a result of this program, the Department of Justice, Bureau of Narcotic Enforcement's seizures of clandestine laboratories increased 142 percent in 1987 and 198 percent in 1988 over the number of laboratories seized in 1986.

Notwithstanding the enhanced resources provided by the Clandestine Laboratory Enforcement Program, it is still estimated that three clandestine laboratories remain in operation for each one seized. The problem of clandestine laboratories is expected to grow worse as a new, fat-soluble form of methamphetamine known as "ice" becomes more popular. Experts believe that this new form of methamphetamine will become as marketable and as addictive as a similar variation of cocaine, known as "crack."

Multiagency task forces have proven to be effective in combining state and local law enforcement efforts targeted against large-scale drug operations which cross jurisdictional lines. In 1989, the Legislature adopted this approach to deal with the epidemic of crack cocaine by creating the Crack Down Task Force Program as provided in Section 15029 of the Government Code. This and similar multiagency task forces have been particularly successful in their fight against clandestine laboratory operators who frequently purchase the precursor chemicals in one jurisdiction, produce the drugs in rural areas, and then transport the finished drugs to urban areas for sale and use. Small rural agencies lack the personnel, training, and specialized resources to investigate clandestine laboratories, and even the largest city or county law enforcement agency cannot independently combat these sophisticated, multijurisdictional drug trafficking organizations.

SEC. 2. Section 11590 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11590. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d), any person who is convicted in the State of California of any offense defined in Section 11350, 11351, 11351.5, 11352, 11353, 11353.5, 11353.7, 11354, 11355, 11357, 11358, 11359, 11360, 11361, 11363, 11366, 11366.5, 11366.6, 11368, 11378, 11378.5, 11379, 11379.5, 11379.6, 11380, 11380.5, 11383, or 11550, or subdivision (a) of Section 11377, or any person who is discharged or paroled from a penal institution where he or she was confined because of the commission of any such offense, or any person who is convicted in any other state of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the above-mentioned offenses, shall within 30 days of his or her coming into any county or city, or city and county in which he or she resides or is temporarily domiciled for that length of time, register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she resides or the sheriff of the county if he or she resides in an unincorporated area.

For persons convicted of an offense defined in Section 11377, 11378, 11379, or 11380, this subdivision shall apply only to offenses involving controlled substances specified in paragraph (12) of subdivision (d) of Section 11054 and paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 11055, and to analogs of these substances, as defined in Section 11401. For persons convicted of an offense defined in Section 11379 or 11379.5, this subdivision shall not apply if the conviction was for transporting, offering to transport, or attempting to transport a controlled substance.

(b) Any person who is convicted in any federal court of any offense which, if committed or attempted in this state would have been punishable as one or more of the offenses enumerated in subdivision (a) shall within 30 days of his or her coming into any county or city, or city and county in which he or she resides or is temporarily domiciled for that length of time, register with the chief of police of the city in which he or she resides or the sheriff of the county if he or she resides in an unincorporated area.

(c) This section does not apply to a conviction of a misdemeanor under Section 11357, 11360, or 11377.

(d) The registration requirements imposed by this section for the conviction of offenses defined in Section 11353.7, 11366.5, 11366.6, 11377, 11378, 11378.5, 11379, 11379.5, 11379.6, 11380, 11380.5, or 11383, shall apply to any person who commits any of those offenses on and after January 1, 1990.

SEC. 3. Section 11647 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 11647 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11647. (a) The Crank-Up Task Force Program is hereby created within the Department of Justice as part of the Clandestine Laboratory Enforcement Program with responsibility for establishing, conducting, supporting, and coordinating crank-up task forces composed of state and local law enforcement agencies targeting the investigation, seizure, and cleanup of clandestine laboratories used to manufacture methamphetamine.

(b) The department shall coordinate all investigations undertaken by task forces operating under the Crank-Up Task Force Program with all local agencies having law enforcement responsibilities within the jurisdictions involved. The department also shall solicit participation by appropriate federal agencies with task force investigations whenever possible.

The department's Bureau of Narcotic Enforcement, Bureau of Forensic Services, and Bureau of Organized Crime and Criminal Intelligence shall provide staffing and logistical support for the crank-up task forces, supplying special agents, criminal intelligence analysts, forensic experts, financial auditors, equipment, and funding to the task forces as needed.

(c) Local law enforcement agencies participating in the Crank-Up Task Force Program shall be reimbursed by the department for personnel overtime costs and equipment or supplies required for task force activities.

SEC. 5. Section 11648 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11648. The department shall report annually on its activities and on the accomplishments of the Clandestine Laboratory Program to the Legislature and to federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies, as well as to other interested groups. The first report to the Legislature shall be submitted no later than April 1, 1991, and it shall specify the way in which the department's organization and positions relate to the investigation, seizure, and cleanup of clandestine laboratories as of that date. The report shall also include a detailed account of program expenditures.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars (1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 7. The sum of three million dollars ($3,000,000) is hereby reappropriated from the Crack-Down Task Force Program, as appropriated by Item 0820-001-001 of the Budget Act of 1990, to the Department of Justice, to implement the Crank-Up Task Force Program pursuant to this act. Funds appropriated pursuant to this act and the Budget Act of 1990 for the crack-down and crank-up programs shall not be expended for any other purpose.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Because of the sophisticated and growing environmental, multijurisdictional drug trafficking problems created by clandestine laboratories manufacturing methamphetamine, it is essential that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1418

An act to amend Section 10202 of, and to add Sections 1749.01, 10110.1, and 10110.2 to, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1749.01 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1749.01. Sections 1749 and 1749.3 shall not apply to a life agent who is limited by the terms of a written agreement with the insurer, which filed on that life agent's behalf a notice of appointment with the commissioner, to transact only specific life insurance policies or annuities having an initial face amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or less that are designated by the purchaser for the payment of funeral and burial expenses. The commissioner may require the insurer appointing those life agents to certify as to the limitations of the agents' representation.

SEC. 1.5. Section 10110.1 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10110.1. (a) An insurable interest, with reference to life and disability insurance, is an interest based upon a reasonable expectation of pecuniary advantage through the continued life, health, or bodily safety of another person and consequent loss by reason of that person's death or disability or a substantial interest engendered by love and affection in the case of individuals closely related by blood or law.

(b) An individual has an unlimited insurable interest in his or her own life, health, and bodily safety and may lawfully take out a policy of insurance on his or her own life, health, or bodily safety and have the policy made payable to whomsoever he or she pleases, regardless of whether the beneficiary designated has an insurable interest.

(c) An employer has an insurable interest, as referred to in subdivision (a), in the life or physical or mental ability of any of its directors, officers, or employees or the directors, officers, or employees of any of its subsidiaries or any other person whose death or physical or mental disability might cause financial loss to the employer; or, pursuant to any contractual arrangement with any shareholder concerning the reacquisition of shares owned by the shareholder at the time of his or her death or disability, on the life or physical or mental ability of that shareholder for the purpose of carrying out the contractual arrangement; or, pursuant to any contract obligating the employer as part of compensation arrangements or pursuant to a contract obligating the employer as guarantor or surety, on the life of the principal obligor. The trustee of an employer or trustee of a pension, welfare benefit plan, or trust established by an employer providing life, health, disability, retirement, or similar benefits to employees and retired employees of the employer or its affiliates and acting in a fiduciary capacity with respect to those employees, retired employees, or their dependents or beneficiaries has an insurable interest in the lives of employees and retired employees for whom those benefits are to be provided. The employer shall obtain the written consent of the individual being insured.

(d) An insurable interest shall be required to exist at the time the contract of life or disability insurance becomes effective, but need not exist at the time the loss occurs.

(e) Any contract of life or disability insurance procured or caused to be procured upon another individual is void unless the person applying for the insurance has an insurable interest in the individual insured at the time of the application.

(f) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a), (d), and (e), a charitable organization that meets the requirements of Section 214 of the Revenue and Taxation Code may effectuate life or disability insurance on an insured who consents to the issuance of that insurance.

(g) This section shall not be interpreted to define all instances in which an insurable interest exists.

SEC. 2. Section 10110.2 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10110.2. An insurer shall be entitled to rely upon all statements, declarations, and representations made by an applicant for insurance relative to the insurable interest that the applicant has in the insured, and no insurer shall incur any legal liability except as set forth in the policy, by virtue of any untrue statements, declarations, or representations so relied upon in good faith by the insurer.

SEC. 3. Section 10202 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10202. Life insurance conforming to all the following conditions is one form of group life insurance:

(a) Written under a policy covering when issued not less than 10 public or private employees.

(b) Written under a policy issued to the employer, the premium on which is to be paid by the employer or by the employer and employees jointly, and insuring either all of the employees or all of any class or classes thereof, determined by conditions pertaining to the employment; provided, that if a policy is intended to insure several such classes it may be issued to insure any such class of which 75 percent are covered and extended to other classes as 75 percent thereof express the desire to be covered.

(c) For amounts of insurance based upon some plan which will preclude individual selection.

(d) For the benefit of persons other than the employer. That group insurance may be for the benefit of a trustee of a pension, welfare benefit plan, or trust established by an employer providing life, health, disability, retirement, or similar benefits to employees of the employer or its affiliates, and acting in a fiduciary capacity with respect to those employees, retired employees, or their dependents or beneficiaries, where the trustee has an insurable interest in the lives of the employees for whom those benefits are to be provided and where the employee has consented in writing to the coverage.

(e) When the premium is to be paid by the employer and employee jointly and the benefits of the policy are offered to all eligible employees, written under a policy insuring, when issued, not less than 75 percent of those employees.

(f) Terminating if, subsequent to issue, (1) the number of employees insured falls below 10 lives or 75 percent of the number of employees eligible and, (2) the employee contributions, if the premiums for the insurance are on a renewable term insurance basis, exceed one dollar ($1) per month per one thousand dollars ($1,000) of insurance coverage plus an amount equal to any additional premium per one thousand dollars ($1,000) of insurance coverage charged to cover one or more hazardous occupations.

That insurance may be issued either with or without medical examinations.

SEC. 4. Section 1 of this act shall not become operative unless Senate Bill 2642 of the 1989–90 Regular Session is enacted and becomes effective on or before January 1, 1991, in which case Section 1 shall become operative on the same date that Article 13.5 (commencing with Section 1749) of Chapter 5 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code, as added by Senate Bill 2642, becomes operative.

CHAPTER 1419

An act to amend Sections 13841, 13843, 13844, and 13846 of, and to add Section 13845.5 to, the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13841 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13841. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Community" means city or county governments or portions or combinations thereof.

(b) "Elderly or senior citizen" means individuals 55 years of age or older.

(c) "Teenagers and young adults" means individuals between the ages of 15 and 24 years of age.

(d) "Community policing" means the coalescing of community organizations, residents, law enforcement, public social services, education, churches, and local governmental entities to unitedly combat illegal drug activity within a designated neighborhood, and create employment opportunity for neighborhood residents. In no case shall "community policing" include expenditures for the purchase of law enforcement equipment which would have been purchased from existing resources in the normal course of business.

SEC. 2. Section 13843 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13843. (a) Allocation and award of funds made available under this chapter shall be made upon application to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning. All applications shall be reviewed and evaluated by the Office of Criminal Justice Planning.

(b) The Executive Director of the Office of Criminal Justice Planning may allocate and award funds to communities developing and providing ongoing citizen involvement and crime resistance programs in compliance with the established policies and criteria of the Office of Criminal Justice Planning. Applications receiving funding under this section shall be selected from among those deemed appropriate for funding according to the criteria, policy, and procedures established by the Office of Criminal Justice Planning.

(c) With the exception of funds awarded for programs authorized under paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 13844, no single award of funds under this chapter shall exceed a maximum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) for a 12-month grant period.

(d) Funds disbursed under this chapter shall not supplant local funds that would, in the absence of the California Community Crime Resistance Program, be made available to support crime resistance programs.

(e) Funds disbursed under this chapter shall be supplemented with local funds constituting, at a minimum, 10 percent of the total crime resistance program budget during the initial year and 20 percent in subsequent periods of funding.

(f) Annually, up to a maximum of 10 percent of the total funds appropriated to the Community Crime Resistance Program may be used by the Office of Criminal Justice Planning to support statewide technical assistance, training, and public awareness activities relating to crime prevention.

(g) Funds awarded under this program as local assistance grants shall not be subject to review as specified in Section 14780 of the Government Code.

(h) Guidelines shall set forth the terms and conditions upon which the Office of Criminal Justice Planning is prepared to offer grants of funds pursuant to statutory authority. The guidelines do not constitute rules, regulations, orders or standards of general application.

(i) Biannually, commencing November 1, 1990, the executive director shall prepare a report to the Legislature describing in detail the operation of the program and results obtained from the California Community Crime Resistance Program. The first report due shall reflect the implementation plan for the program expansion authorized pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 13844, and shall include the results of a statewide survey conducted by the office to determine the types of community policing programs that already exist to combat illegal drug activity in targeted neighborhoods.

SEC. 3. Section 13844 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13844. (a) Use of funds granted under the California Community Crime Resistance Program are restricted to the following activities:

(1) Further the goal of a statewide crime prevention network by supporting the initiation or expansion of local crime prevention efforts.

(2) Provide information and encourage the use of new and innovative refinements to the traditional crime prevention model in localities that currently maintain a well-established crime prevention program.

(3) Support the development of a coordinated service network, including information exchange and case referral between such programs as local victim-witness assistance programs, sexual assault programs, gang violence reduction programs, drug suppression programs, elderly care custodians, state and local elderly service programs, or any other established and recognizable local programs devoted to the lessening of crime and the promotion of the community's well-being.

(b) With respect to the initiation or expansion of local crime prevention efforts, projects supported under the California Community Crime Resistance Program shall do either of the following:

(1) Carry out as many of the following activities as deemed, in the judgment of the Office of Criminal Justice Planning, to be consistent with available resources:

(A) Crime prevention programs using tailored outreach techniques in order to provide effective and consistent services for the elderly in the following areas:

(i) Crime prevention information to elderly citizens regarding personal safety, fraud, theft, grand theft, burglary, and elderly abuse.

(ii) Services designed to respond to the specific and diverse crime prevention needs of elderly residential communities.

(iii) Specific services coordinated to assist in the installation of security devices or provision of escort services and victim assistance.

(B) Programs to provide training, information, and prevention literature to peace officers, elderly care custodians, health practitioners, and social service providers regarding physical abuse and neglect within residential health care facilities for the elderly.

(C) Programs to promote neighborhood involvement such as, but not limited to, block clubs and other community or resident-sponsored anti-crime programs.

(D) Personal safety programs.

(E) Domestic violence prevention programs.

(F) Crime prevention programs specifically geared to youth in schools and school district personnel.

(G) Programs which make available to residents and businesses information on locking devices, building security and related crime resistance approaches.

(H) In cooperation with the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, support for the training of peace officers in crime prevention and its effects on the relationship between citizens and law enforcement.

(I) Efforts to address the crime prevention needs of communities with high proportions of teenagers and young adults, low-income families, and non-English-speaking residents, including juvenile delinquency diversion, social service referrals, and making available crime resistance literature in appropriate languages other than English.

(2) Implement a community policing program in targeted neighborhoods that are drug infested. The goal of this program shall be to empower the people against illegal drug activity. A program funded pursuant to this chapter shall be able to target one or more neighborhoods within the grant period. In order to be eligible for funding, the program shall have the commitment of the community, local law enforcement, school districts, and community service groups; and shall be supported by either the city council or the board of supervisors, whichever is applicable.

(c) With respect to the support of new and innovative techniques, communities taking part in the California Crime Resistance Program shall carry out those activities as determined by the Office of Criminal Justice Planning, that conform to local needs and are consistent with available expertise and resources. These techniques may include, but are not limited to, community policing programs or activities involving the following:

(1) Programs to reinforce the security of "latchkey" children, including neighborhood monitoring, special contact telephone numbers, emergency procedure training for the children, daily telephone checks for the children's well-being, and assistance in developing safe alternatives to unsupervised conditions for children.

(2) Programs dedicated to educating parents in procedures designed to do all of the following:

(A) Minimize or prevent the abduction of children.

(B) Assist children in understanding the risk of child abduction.

(C) Maximize the recovery of abducted children.

(3) Programs devoted to developing automated systems for monitoring and tracking crimes within organized neighborhoods.

(4) Programs devoted to developing timely "feedback mechanisms" whose goals would be to alert residents to new crime problems and to reinforce household participation in neighborhood security organizations.

(5) Programs devoted to creating and packaging special crime prevention approaches tailored to the special needs and characteristics of California's cultural and ethnic minorities.

(6) Research into the effectiveness of local crime prevention efforts including the relationships between crime prevention activities, participants' economic and demographic characteristics, project costs, local or regional crime rate, and law enforcement planning and staff deployment.

(7) Programs devoted to crime and delinquency prevention through the establishment of partnership initiatives utilizing elderly and juvenile volunteers.

(d) All approved programs shall utilize volunteers to assist in implementing and conducting community crime resistance programs. Programs providing elderly crime prevention programs shall recruit senior citizens to assist in providing services.

(e) Programs funded pursuant to this chapter shall demonstrate a commitment to support citizen involvement with local funds after the program has been developed and implemented with state moneys.

SEC. 4. Section 13845.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

13845.5. Notwithstanding Section 13845, the selection of communities to receive funding pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 13844 shall include consideration of, but is not limited to, the following:

(a) The rate of reported drug crime within the community making the application.

(b) The degree to which the program proposes to empower the people within the targeted neighborhoods to combat drug crime.

(c) The display of efforts of cooperation between the community and its local law enforcement agency in dealing with the drug crime problem.

(d) The commitment of the targeted neighborhoods to fight the drug problem.

(e) The commitment of local governmental entities to join with law enforcement and the citizens to fight the drug problem. At a minimum, this commitment shall be demonstrated by the school districts, parks and recreation departments, public social services, and code enforcement agencies.

(f) The approval of the program by either the city council or the county board of supervisors.

(g) Demonstrated effort on the part of the applicant to show how funds that may be awarded under this program may be coordinated or consolidated with other local, state, or federal funds available for the activities set forth in Section 13844.

(h) Applicant shall be a city or county law enforcement agency, or portion, or combination thereof.

SEC. 5. Section 13846 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13846. (a) Evaluation and monitoring of all grants made under this section shall be the responsibility of the Office of Criminal Justice Planning. The Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall issue standard reporting forms for reporting the level of activities and number of crimes reported in participating communities. The information shall be used in the biannual report to the Legislature required in subdivision (i) of Section 13843. The biannual report shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) The level of volunteer participation.

(2) The level of home and business security inspections.

(3) The number of programs directed at senior citizens and teenagers.

(4) The report due November 1, 1992, as set forth in subdivision (i) of Section 13843, shall also include the plan for implementation of the program expansion authorized pursuant to this chapter and shall include the results of a survey conducted by the office to determine the types of community policing programs that already exist to combat illegal drug activity in targeted neighborhoods.

(b) Information on successful programs shall be made available and relayed to other California communities through the Office of Criminal Justice Planning technical assistance procedures.

SEC. 6. It is the intent of the Legislature that funding for programs operating pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 13844 of the Penal Code shall be provided for in accordance with subdivision (g) of Provision 3 of Item 8100-101-890 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1990.

An act to amend Sections 31, 790.01, 1621, 1625, 1627, 1632, 1635, 1637, 1639, 1640, 1644, 1647, 1648, 1649, 1649.5, 1650, 1652, 1656, 1658, 1661, 1662, 1665, 1668, 1673, 1675, 1685, 1686, 1688, 1689, 1691, 1692.1, 1693, 1703, 1704, 1704.5, 1705, 1707, 1707.5, 1711, 1712, 1712.5, 1714, 1718, 1725, 1727, 1728, 1729.5, 1731, 1732, 1733, 1735, 1735.5, 1739, 1745, 1746, 1747, 1750, 1750.5, 1751, 1751.3, 1751.6, 1755, 1758.1, 1758.2, and 1758.3 of, to add Sections 1727.5 and 1730.5 to, to add and repeal Article 13.5 (commencing with Section 1749) of Chapter 5 of Part 2 of Division 1 of, and to repeal Sections 1626, 1645, 1671, 1701, 1723, 1724, 1726, and 1758.4 of, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 28, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

31. "Insurance agent" means a person authorized, by and on behalf of an insurer, to transact all classes of insurance other than life insurance.

SEC. 2. Section 790.01 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

790.01. This article applies to reciprocal and interinsurance exchanges, Lloyds insurers, fraternal benefit societies, fraternal fire insurers, grants and annuities societies, insurers holding certificates of exemptions, motor clubs, nonprofit hospital associations, life agents, broker-agents, surplus line brokers and special lines surplus line brokers as well as all other persons engaged in the business of insurance.

SEC. 3. Section 1621 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1621. An insurance agent is a person authorized by and on behalf of an insurer to transact all classes of insurance, except life insurance. The term "insurance agent" as used in this chapter does not include a life agent as defined in this article.

SEC. 4. Section 1625 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1625. A fire and casualty licensee is a person authorized to act as an insurance agent, broker, or solicitor, and a fire and casualty broker-agent license is a license so to act.

SEC. 5. Section 1626 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 1626 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1626. A life licensee is a person authorized by and on behalf of a life, disability, or life and disability insurer to transact life, disability, or life and disability insurance, and a life agent license is a license so to act.

SEC. 7. Section 1627 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1627. A license is a permit to act in the capacity specified therein. A person licensed is the holder of the license. In case of a license to act as a life agent, or fire and casualty broker-agent issued to an organization, the organization is the holder thereof, but the natural person or persons named thereon are thereby permitted to exercise the agency or brokerage powers of the organization in accordance with and subject to the provisions of this chapter and other applicable law. As used in this chapter, the term "license" includes a certificate of convenience and a permanent license, and the term "persons who are licensed" includes the holders of any such certificate or the license, but these definitions and the use of those terms in this chapter shall not confer upon a certificate of convenience or any holder thereof any property right in or to the certificate, the certificate being and remaining only a temporary permit, issued as a matter of convenience, allowing the transaction of insurance without a permanent license, but within the limits, and subject to the conditions of the certificate of convenience issued and the laws applicable thereto.

SEC. 8. Section 1632 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1632. Unless prohibited in this article, a person otherwise eligible for a license may be authorized to act in one or more of the capacities specified in this chapter.

SEC. 9. Section 1635 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1635. No license is required under the provisions of this chapter for a person to act in the following capacities or to engage in the following activities, providing no commission is paid or allowed, directly or indirectly, for acting in those capacities or engaging in those activities:

(a) The business of examining, certifying or abstracting titles to real property.

(b) The solicitation for membership in a fraternal benefit society and other activities to the extent and as described in Sections 11013 and 11102 of this code.

(c) As a salaried representative of a reciprocal or interinsurance exchange or of its attorney in fact.

(d) Employment which does not include the solicitation, negotiation or effecting of contracts of insurance and the signing of policies or other evidences of insurance.

(e) As an officer of an insurer or a salaried traveling employee of the type commonly known as a special agent or as an agency supervisor, while performing duties and exercising functions that are commonly performed by a special agent or agency supervisor, if the person engaging in the activity does not either:

(1) Effect insurance.

(2) Solicit or negotiate insurance except as a part of and in connection with the business of a fire and casualty broker-agent or life agent licensed under this chapter.

(f) As an officer or salaried representative of a life insurer if his or her activities are limited to direct technical advice and assistance to a properly licensed person and his or her activities do not include effecting insurance or soliciting or negotiating insurance except as a part of and in connection with the business of a fire and casualty broker-agent or life agent licensed under this chapter.

(g) Employment by an insurer at its home or branch office which does not include the solicitation or negotiation of insurance, and which may as part thereof include the signing of policies or other evidences of insurance.

(h) The completion or delivery of a declaration or certificate of coverage under a running inland marine insurance contract evidencing coverage thereunder and including only those negotiations as are necessary to the completion or delivery if the person performing those acts or his or her employer has an insurable interest in the risk covered by the certificate or declaration.

(i) As an employee of a licensed fire and casualty broker-agent, whose employment is one or more of the following:

(1) That of a regularly salaried administrative or clerical employee who devotes substantially all of his or her services to activities other than the solicitation of insurance from the insuring public.

(2) That of a salesperson who devotes substantially all of his or her activities to selling merchandise and whose solicitation of insurance is limited only to the quoting of a premium for insurance to be included in the purchase price covering the interest retained in the merchandise by the seller.

(j) The solicitation, negotiation or effectuation of home protection contracts by a person licensed pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 10000) of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code in connection with his or her licensed function authorized by Section 10131 or 10131.6 of the Business and Professions Code. Neither the receipt of a payment permitted by Section 12760 nor the receipt of a benefit permitted by Section 12765 shall disqualify the recipient from the licensing exemption provided by this chapter.

SEC. 10. Section 1637 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1637. An organization may hold any license or licenses necessary to act in the following capacities under this chapter and no others:

(a) A license to act as a life agent.

(b) A license to act as a fire and casualty broker-agent.

SEC. 11. Section 1639 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1639. The following types of licenses under this chapter may be issued to nonresidents if the licensee is a resident of a jurisdiction that requires continuing education of insurance salespersons, and that jurisdiction recognizes on a reciprocal basis compliance with the requirements of continuing education of this chapter for eligibility for nonresident licenses in their jurisdiction:

(a) A fire and casualty broker-agent if the nonresident is duly licensed to transact more than one class of insurance, other than life insurance, disability insurance or life and disability insurance, under the laws of the state or province of Canada wherein he or she resides, provided the state or province does not prohibit a resident of this state from acting as an insurance agent or broker.

(b) A life agent if the nonresident is licensed in the state of his or her residence to transact life insurance and disability insurance.

The class or classes of insurance which a person is licensed to transact in the state or province of his or her residence shall be determined according to the definitions of classes of insurance in Sections 101 to 120, inclusive, of this code. A certificate under official seal and original signature from the insurance regulatory authority of the nonresident's home state or province may be accepted as evidence of the applicant's license status and the capacity or capacities in which he or she is licensed.

SEC. 12. Section 1640 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1640. A person authorized to act as an insurance solicitor is not eligible at the same time to act as an insurance agent or broker, and a person authorized to act as either an insurance agent or broker is not eligible at the same time to act as an insurance solicitor.

SEC. 13. Section 1644 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1644. A minor is not eligible for a license to act as a fire and casualty broker-agent, or a life agent.

SEC. 14. Section 1645 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 1647 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1647. Only the following natural persons are eligible to be named to exercise the agency or brokerage powers under an organization license:

(a) Any general partner or employee of a copartnership.

(b) Any member, officer or employee of an association.

(c) Any officer or employee of a corporation.

SEC. 16. Section 1648 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1648. An unincorporated association or nonprofit corporation which is not the holder of a certificate of authority issued pursuant to Part 5 (commencing with Section 12140), Division 2 of this code is not eligible for a license under this chapter unless each member thereof possesses an individual license to transact each class of insurance authorized by the license or is a natural person named on the license to transact thereunder.

This section is not applicable to any nonprofit cemetery company exempt from the taxes imposed by Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code under the provisions of Section 23701c of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 17. Section 1649 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1649. A salaried employee or officer, exclusive of a director, of an admitted insurer, other than an insurer admitted to transact only life insurance or life and disability insurance, who is licensed as a fire and casualty broker-agent is not authorized to act as an insurance broker, except that the person is authorized to transact insurance as an insurance broker on risks not located in this state.

SEC. 18. Section 1649.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1649.5. Notwithstanding Section 1642, an insurer may own or control, whether directly or indirectly, a separate entity licensed under this chapter as a fire and casualty broker-agent or life agent as defined in Section 1621 or 1622, respectively.

SEC. 19. Section 1650 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1650. Every license issued under this chapter shall state thereon all the following:

(a) The name of the licensee.

(b) The capacity of the license.

(c) The conditions, if any, subject to which the license is issued.

(d) The effective date and expiration date of the license.

(e) If issued to an organization, by separate listing attached to it, the name of each natural person who is qualified to be named thereon pursuant to the provisions of Section 1628.

SEC. 20. Section 1652 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1652. (a) A license under this chapter shall be applied for, and renewed by the filing with the commissioner of a written application therefor. The application shall be on a form prescribed by the commissioner, which form shall prescribe the disclosure of information that will aid the commissioner in determining whether the prerequisites for the license sought have been met. The applicant shall declare, under penalty of perjury, that the contents of the application are true and correct.

(b) The forms prescribed by the commissioner other than for renewal applications may require authenticated fingerprints of any of the following:

(1) Individual applicants.

(2) Specified partners or officers of organization applicants.

(3) The individuals who are to transact insurance for an organization applicant.

(c) The forms may require the fingerprints to be affixed to the application or to an attachment to be affixed to the application. The commissioner, in his or her discretion, may require the fingerprints on applications for any, some or all of the licenses issued pursuant to this chapter or Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1760), 7 (commencing with Section 1800), or 8 (commencing with Section 1831), provided that as to any one such type of license the requirement is applied without discrimination to all applicants within specified classifications. The classifications may be made upon any or all of the following bases:

(1) Length of continuous residence in this state.

(2) Whether or not previously or currently licensed by the commissioner.

(3) Whether or not currently licensed by specified regulatory agencies of the State of California which require fingerprints on applications for licenses and routinely process the fingerprints for positive identification.

(4) Other reasonable criteria.

(d) The commissioner may decline to act on an incomplete or defective application until an amended application which completes the prescribed form is filed with him or her.

SEC. 21. Section 1656 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1656. Every application for a license filed by an organization shall contain all of the following:

(a) The names of the members, officers or employees of the applicant who may exercise the power and perform the duties under the license.

(b) An agreement by all members of the copartnership, or of an officer empowered to bind the association or corporation, that in the event the applicant is granted the license pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 1650, only those persons named in the license will transact the insurance authorized under the license.

SEC. 22. Section 1658 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1658. Each application filed by a natural person for a license shall contain the residence address, the principal business address, and the mailing address of the applicant. Each application for an organization license shall contain the principal business address and the mailing address of the applicant.

SEC. 23. Section 1661 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1661. Whenever an organization licensed as a life agent, or a fire and casualty broker-agent desires to change, remove, or add to, the natural person or persons who are to transact insurance under authority of its license, it shall immediately file an application or notice on a form prescribed by the commissioner with the commissioner for an endorsement changing its license accordingly. The commissioner shall require that the qualifying examination provided by this code be taken by any natural person named by the organization to exercise its agency or brokerage powers who would be required to take and pass the qualifying examination. That natural person or persons and the organization are in all other respects subject to the provisions of this chapter and the insurance laws.

SEC. 24. Section 1662 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1662. An applicant for a license to act as a fire and casualty broker-agent who will upon licensure be acting as an insurance broker shall, as part of his or her application, file the bond as required by this article, and, as long as so acting once licensed, shall continuously maintain the bond in force. Any authority to act as broker shall automatically terminate immediately upon there being no bond in force.

SEC. 25. Section 1665 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1665. The bond of a fire and casualty broker-agent shall be in the amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000). The bond shall be contingent on the accounting by the fire and casualty broker-agent to any person requesting insurance, for moneys or premiums collected by the fire and casualty broker-agent when acting as a broker for insurance other than life.

SEC. 25.5. Section 1668 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1668. The commissioner may deny an application for any license issued pursuant to this chapter if:

(a) The applicant is not properly qualified to perform the duties of a person holding the license applied for;

(b) The granting of the license will be against public interest;

(c) The applicant does not intend actively and in good faith to carry on as a business with the general public the transactions which would be permitted by the issuance of the license applied for;

(d) The applicant is not of good business reputation;

(e) The applicant is lacking in integrity;

(f) The applicant has been refused a professional, occupational or vocational license or had such a license suspended or revoked by any licensing authority for reasons that should preclude the granting of the license applied for;

(g) The applicant seeks the license for the purpose of avoiding or preventing the operation or enforcement of the insurance laws of this state;

(h) The applicant has knowingly or willfully made a misstatement in an application to the commissioner for a license, or in a document filed in support of such an application, or has made a false statement in testimony given under oath before the commissioner or any other person acting in his stead;

(i) The applicant has previously engaged in a fraudulent practice or act or has conducted any business in a dishonest manner;

(j) The applicant has shown incompetency or untrustworthiness in the conduct of any business, or has by commission of a wrongful act or practice in the course of any business exposed the public or those dealing with him to the danger of loss;

(k) The applicant has knowingly misrepresented the terms or effect of an insurance policy or contract;

(l) The applicant has failed to perform a duty expressly enjoined upon him by a provision of this code or has committed an act expressly forbidden by such a provision;

(m) The applicant has been convicted of:

(1) A felony;

(2) A misdemeanor denounced by this code or other laws regulating insurance; or

(3) A public offense having as one of its necessary elements a fraudulent act or an act of dishonesty in acceptance, custody or payment of money or property;

(n) The applicant has aided or abetted any person in an act or omission which would constitute grounds for the suspension, revocation or refusal of a license or certificate issued under this code to the person aided or abetted;

(o) The applicant has permitted any person in his employ to violate any provision of this code; or

(p) The applicant has violated any provision of law relating to conduct of business which could lawfully be done only under authority conferred by such license.

(q) The applicant has submitted to the commissioner a false or fraudulent certificate pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 1749.5.

A judgment, plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere is deemed to be a conviction within the meaning of this section.

SEC. 26. Section 1671 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 27. Section 1673 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1673. A person licensed as a fire and casualty broker-agent or a life agent may be authorized to transact disability insurance on behalf of any insurer which is authorized to transact disability insurance by the filing of a notice of appointment for that purpose. The authority to transact disability insurance given by an insurer to a person acting as an agent by appointment shall be effective as of the date the notice of appointment is signed by the insurer. That authority to transact shall apply to transactions occurring after that date and for the purpose of determining the insurer's liability for acts of appointed agents. The commissioner shall prescribe the forms of the notice of appointment.

SEC. 28. Section 1675 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1675. Except as provided in Section 1680, the following applicants who have theretofore been licensed under this code are exempt from the requirements of this article:

(a) An applicant for a license to act as a fire and casualty broker-agent who has been licensed as a fire and casualty broker-agent or surplus line broker during any part of the license year in which the application is filed or the immediately preceding license year.

(b) An applicant for a license to act as a life agent who has been licensed as a life agent during any part of the license year in which the application is filed or the immediately preceding license year.

(c) An applicant for a license to act as travel insurance agent.

(d) An applicant specifically exempted from the particular qualifying examination requirement by other provisions of this code.

SEC. 29. Section 1685 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1685. The commissioner may issue to a person eligible therefor a certificate of convenience to act as any of the following:

(a) Any type of a licensee under this chapter or Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1760), 7 (commencing with Section 1800), or Part 5 (commencing with Section 121401) of Division 2 to administer the business of a licensed person who has died or who has been declared incompetent by the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. That certificate of convenience may be denominated an estate certificate of convenience.

(b) Any type of a licensee under this chapter or Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1760), 7 (commencing with Section 1800), or Part 5 (commencing with Section 121401) of Division 2 to conserve the business of a licensed natural person who enters the military service of the United States or to conserve the business of an organization under the conditions specified in Section 1697. That certificate of convenience may be denominated a military service certificate.

(c) An industrial debit collection certificate holder to transact industrial life and industrial disability insurance.

(1) "Industrial life insurance" means life insurance with an aggregate face amount sold to any one insured and in force at any one time in an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000); premiums are payable at least monthly; premiums are collected in person and not by mail or otherwise by the industrial debit collection certificate holder with a written receipt delivered to the insured, and the words "INDUSTRIAL LIFE POLICY" or "MONTHLY DEBIT ORDINARY" are printed on the policy as part of the descriptive matter.

(2) "Industrial disability insurance" means disability insurance with premiums payable at least monthly at a rate not greater than fifteen dollars ($15) per person, per month; premiums are collected in person and not by mail or otherwise by the industrial debit collection certificate holder with a written receipt delivered to the insured and with the words "INDUSTRIAL POLICY" printed on the policy as part of the descriptive matter.

(3) An industrial debit collection certificate holder may collect premiums on insurance policies not solicited by him or her so long as the premiums are collected in person and not by mail or otherwise by the certificate holder at least once a month and the insured is issued a written receipt for the premium payment thereof.

(4) An industrial debit collection certificate holder shall be subject to the provisions of this code regulating the conduct of life agents.

Certificates of convenience issued pursuant to subdivision (c) may be denominated certificates of convenience pending examination.

SEC. 30. Section 1686 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1686. To be eligible for an estate certificate of convenience, a person must be one of the following:

(a) The executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased fire and casualty broker-agent or life agent.

(b) If no executor or administrator has been appointed, the surviving spouse or heir otherwise entitled to conduct the business of the deceased fire and casualty broker-agent or life agent.

(c) The conservator of the estate of a fire and casualty broker-agent or life agent.

SEC. 31. Section 1688 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1688. To be eligible for a certificate of convenience to act as an industrial debit collection certificate holder, a person must be an applicant for a permanent license to act as a life agent. An industrial debit collection certificate shall be issued only to act in the capacity for which the license is sought.

SEC. 32. Section 1689 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1689. (a) A person is not eligible for a certificate of convenience pending examination if the person has ever been issued in California a certificate of convenience or permanent license, nor unless appointing insurers, certify to the commissioner that the person is enrolled in and will pursue a course of study and instruction previously approved by the commissioner.

(b) In the event the applicant obtains more than one appointment, all appointing insurers shall certify that the applicant is enrolled in, and pursues, the training course. Each appointing insurer subsequently appointing the applicant shall be equally responsible for the continuation of the study and instruction.

SEC. 33. Section 1691 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1691. (a) Every insurer shall have an approved training program on file with the commissioner or have filed a blanket authorization to certify to enrollment in an approved course of instruction before appointing any certificate of convenience holder. No training course may be used to qualify an applicant for a certificate of convenience unless it is first approved by the commissioner. Before approving any such course the commissioner shall be satisfied that it meets all the following requirements.

(1) That it covers the fundamentals of insurance, insurance regulation, and instruction in those classes of insurance in which the applicant will be licensed.

(2) That it contains a system of examinations or progress checks whereby it can be determined whether the person is taking the course in good faith and obtaining information and training. That examinations or progress checks shall be in writing, be completed by the certificate holder, and be kept on file in the state for a period of two years.

(b) The approval of a course of study and instruction may be withdrawn by the commissioner if he or she finds after notice and hearing that either:

(1) The course as administered does not meet the requirements for its approval.

(2) The content of the course is not then adequate to meet the requirements hereinabove set forth.

(c) Upon withdrawal of approval of the course the commissioner shall after notice and hearing forthwith call all holders of certificates of convenience who are enrolled in the course for examination and shall not issue any certificate of convenience to any person enrolled in the course until the course has been revised, resubmitted to, and reapproved by the commissioner.

SEC. 34. Section 1692.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1692.1. (a) The privilege of an insurer to certify to the enrollment of applicants in any course of study and instruction shall be automatically suspended without any action by the commissioner whenever more than 66⅔ percent of its holders of certificates of convenience during the calendar year fail to qualify for permanent licenses during a period of six months following issuance of a certificate of convenience to each such holder. Any suspension shall continue until the commissioner is satisfied that the insurer has taken adequate action to prevent a recurrence of the failure to qualify the requisite percentage of certificate of convenience holders for permanent licenses.

(b) Each insurer who has an approved training course on file with the commissioner pursuant to Section 1691 or a blanket authorization to certify enrollment in an approved course of instruction, shall keep and maintain complete records on each appointed certificate of convenience holder and shall file annually with the commissioner on or before August 15 a written report which shall contain, by type of certificate specified in Section 1685, all of the following:

(1) The number of certificate of convenience holders appointed during the preceding calendar year.

(2) The number of certificate of convenience holders who qualified for permanent licenses within the specified six-month period.

(3) The percentage of certificate of convenience holders who qualified for permanent licenses within the specified six-month period.

(c) Any such insurer who fails to report on or before August 15 or who files an incomplete report shall automatically be suspended until a complete report is filed in accordance with subdivision (b). All suspensions pursuant to this section shall commence on the final date the report is required to be filed. During any period of suspension of the privilege the insurer or broker-agent is also prohibited from appointing any holder of a certificate of convenience appointed by another insurer. The commissioner may, after notice and hearing suspend the privilege of any parent, subsidiary, affiliate or controlled insurer to prevent avoidance of the suspension.

(d) At the time of filing the written report required by this section, an insurer which has failed to qualify the required percentage of certificate of convenience holders for permanent licenses may as a part of the report do any of the following:

(1) Furnish written evidence of mitigating relevant facts.

(2) Furnish written evidence of corrective action taken, or a written description of action proposed, which should result in future compliance with this section.

(3) Request termination of the automatic suspension for specified reasonable cause.

(4) Request that a hearing be held to determine whether the automatic suspension should be annulled or confirmed.

(e) The commissioner may after notice and hearing stay, annul, reduce, terminate or confirm the time of the automatic suspension otherwise required in this section upon a showing, satisfactory to the commissioner, that there is good cause therefor, and that corrective action has been taken to prevent a recurrence of the failure to qualify the requisite percentage of certificate of convenience holders for permanent licenses. The preventive measures shall include the establishment of procedures both to assure proper training to enable certificate holders to pass the qualifying license examination and to insure proper selection of prospective certificate holders to the end that a reasonable proportion of those selected will in good faith pursue the course of study and pass the qualifying examination.

(f) Except for subdivisions (b) and (c), this section shall not apply to an insurer during any calendar year in which the insurer appointed 25 or fewer of those certificate of convenience holders.

(g) Any hearing under this article shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the commissioner shall have all the powers granted therein.

(h) The commissioner's power of termination of the certificate of convenience privilege pursuant to Section 1692.1 shall be exercised when 50 percent or more of the holders of certificates of convenience issued during the calendar year beginning January 1, 1978, fail to qualify for permanent licenses. That power of termination shall be exercised when 25 percent or more of the holders of certificates of convenience issued during the calendar year beginning January 1, 1979, fail to qualify for permanent licenses.

SEC. 35. Section 1693 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1693. An estate certificate of convenience expires upon the happening of any of the following events, whichever occurs first:

(a) Upon the filing with the commissioner of a certified copy of an order appointing an executor or administrator, if the certificate of convenience has been issued to a person other than the person so appointed executor or administrator.

(b) Upon the filing with the commissioner of a certified copy of an order appointing a new conservator of the estate of a fire and casualty broker-agent or life agent.

(c) Upon the disposal of the business of the fire and casualty broker-agent or life agent who is deceased or for whom a conservator of the estate has been appointed.

(d) Upon the expiration of one year after the death of the deceased fire and casualty broker-agent or life agent; provided, however, that if during the said year the holder of the certificate of convenience files an application for a license to act as a fire and casualty broker-agent or life agent in his or her individual capacity, then the certificate of convenience may remain in force until the holder thereof has been given an opportunity to take the qualifying examination for the license.

(e) Upon the termination of the conservatorship of the estate of the fire and casualty broker-agent or life agent.

SEC. 36. Section 1701 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 37. Section 1703 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1703. Every applicant for an original license to act as a fire and casualty broker-agent, life agent, life analyst, surplus line broker, special lines surplus line broker, motor club agent, or bail agent or bail solicitor or bail permittee shall, as part of the application, endorse an authorization for disclosure to the commissioner of financial records of any fiduciary funds as defined in Section 1733, pursuant to Section 7473 of the Government Code. The authorization shall continue in force and effect for so long as the licensee continues to be licensed by the department.

SEC. 38. Section 1704 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1704. (a) Every applicant for a license as a life agent, a fire and casualty broker-agent to act as an insurance agent, or a travel insurance agent shall have filed on his or her behalf with the commissioner a notice of appointment to act as an agent executed by an insurer, or its authorized representative, admitted to transact one or more classes of insurance included within the scope of the license sought, appointing the applicant, upon licensing, its agent within this state. Every applicant for a license as a fire and casualty broker-agent to act as an insurance solicitor shall have filed on his or her behalf with the commissioner a notice executed by a fire and casualty broker-agent agreeing to employ the applicant and appointing the applicant, upon licensing, as the the fire and casualty broker-agent's employee within this state. Additional notices of appointment may be filed by other insurers or fire and casualty broker-agents, as the case may be, before the license is issued and thereafter as long as the license remains in force. The authority to transact insurance given to a licensee by an insurer or fire and casualty broker-agent, as the case may be, by appointment shall be effective as of the date the notice of appointment is signed. That authority to transact shall apply to transactions occurring after that date and for the purpose of determining the insurer's or fire and casualty broker-agent's liability for acts of the appointed licensee. No notice of appointment of a life agent, fire and casualty broker-agent, or travel insurance agent shall be filed under this subdivision unless the licensee being appointed has consented to that filing. Each appointment made under this subdivision shall by its terms continue in force until:

(1) The cancellation or expiration of the license applied for or held at the time the appointment was filed.

(2) The filing of a notice of termination by the insurer or employing fire and casualty broker-agent, or by the appointed life agent, fire and casualty broker-agent, travel insurance agent, or insurance solicitor.

(b) Upon the termination of all appointments, or all endorsements naming the licensee on the license of an organization licensee, and the cancellation of the bond required pursuant to Section 1662 if acting as a broker, the permanent license shall not be canceled, but shall become inactive. It may be renewed pursuant to Section 1718. It may be reactivated at any time prior to its expiration by the filing of a new appointment pursuant to this section, Section 1707, and Section 1751.3, or the filing of a new bond pursuant to Section 1662. An inactive license shall not permit its holder to transact any insurance for which a valid, active license is required.

(c) Upon the termination of all appointments of a person licensed under a certificate of convenience, such certificate shall be canceled and shall be returned by its lawful custodian to the commissioner.

(d) A fire and casualty broker-agent appointing an insurance solicitor pursuant to this section, if a natural person, must be the holder of a permanent license to act as a fire and casualty broker-agent or the holder of a certificate of convenience so to act issued pursuant to either subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 1685. If the fire and casualty broker-agent is an organization, it must be the holder of a permanent license.

(e) The filing of an incomplete or deficient action notice with the department shall require the filing of an amended, complete action notice, together with the payment of the fee therefor specified in subdivision (n) of Section 1751.

SEC. 39. Section 1704.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1704.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), a licensed life agent may present a proposal for insurance to a prospective policyholder on behalf of a life insurer for which the life agent is not specifically appointed, and may also transmit an application for insurance to that insurer. If a policy of insurance is issued pursuant to that application, the insurer is considered to have authorized the agent to act on its behalf, and the insurer is responsible for all actions of the agent that relate to the application and policy as if the agent had been duly appointed for the insurer. Not more than 14 days after the life agent submits an application for insurance to the insurer for which the insurer issues a policy, the insurer shall forward to the commissioner a notice of appointment of the life agent as the insurer's agent in accordance with the requirements of this article. Nothing in this section obliges an insurer to accept an application for underwriting from a life agent. Any payments made by the prospective policyholder prior to issuance of the policy shall be made only in the form of a draft, check, cashier's check, traveler's check, money order, or similar instrument made payable to the insurer to which the application is transmitted.

(b) A licensed life agent who is not specifically appointed for a particular life insurer may not (1) present a proposal to a prospective policyholder for insurance with that insurer or (2) transmit an application for insurance to that insurer if the insurer requires all its life agents to represent only that insurer or a group of affiliated insurers of which that insurer is a member or to submit risks to that insurer or group of affiliated insurers prior to submitting them to other insurers.

SEC. 40. Section 1705 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1705. An insurer, or employing fire and casualty broker-agent, by filing a notice of appointment on behalf of an applicant for an original license pursuant to Section 1704, and who is not then licensed pursuant to this chapter or Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1760), Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1800) of Part 2 of Division 1, shall be deemed by that act to have declared that:

(a) The applicant is of good reputation.

(b) The applicant is worthy of the license sought.

An insurer, or fire and casualty broker-agent, by filing a notice of appointment on behalf of an applicant for an original license to act as a life agent, fire and casualty broker-agent, or insurance solicitor, where the applicant for any reason will not be issued a certificate of convenience pending examination under Article 8 (commencing with Section 1685) of this chapter, shall be deemed to have declared that the applicant has had experience or instruction in classes of insurance, the transaction of which is authorized by the license sought, or will be given the necessary instruction within 30 days after the issuance of the license.

Should the applicant for a life agent's or a fire and casualty broker-agent's license be a copartnership, corporation, or association, the insurer filing the appointment shall be deemed to have made the declarations set forth in subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section as regards both the business organization and each natural person whose name appears in the application as one to exercise the agency powers of the license sought. The insurer shall be deemed to have made the declaration in the preceding paragraph only as regards the natural person or persons to be named on the organization's license initially.

Whenever a copartnership, corporation or association licensed as a life agent or as a fire and casualty broker-agent files to add to any such license the name of a natural person to exercise the agency powers thereunder, the business organization shall be deemed to have made the appropriate declarations regarding the natural person, as set forth in this section, as are required of an insurer filing a notice of appointment on behalf of an applicant for an original license.

SEC. 41. Section 1707 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1707. Except as otherwise provided in Section 1704.5, each notice of appointment or notice of termination of appointment filed pursuant to this article shall be filed on forms prescribed by the commissioner within 10 days of appointment or termination.

SEC. 42. Section 1707.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1707.5. The commissioner in lieu of retaining in his or her files a copy of the notices of appointment or notices of termination described in Section 1707, if he or she has made entry of the facts pertaining to the appointments or terminations or the statements, including the cancellation, if any thereof, in some portion of his or her official records, may at any time thereafter destroy the documents. The commissioner's certification as to the content of such an entry shall be competent evidence of the facts therein stated for any purpose in any court or administrative action or proceeding and shall be accepted in lieu of the actual documents.

SEC. 43. Section 1711 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1711. For the purposes of this chapter and except as provided in this article, an organization ceases to exist as an entity eligible to hold a license:

(a) Upon dissolution of a copartnership or upon any change in membership of a copartnership.

(b) Upon the termination of an association.

(c) Upon dissolution of a corporation.

Provided, however, should a change occur in the membership of a copartnership licensed under this chapter, the surviving or continuing copartnership may continue to transact insurance under the license issued to the predecessor copartnership until action is taken by the commissioner on the application herein prescribed if the following requirements are met:

(1) The surviving or continuing copartnership within 30 days files an application on a form prescribed by the commissioner for registration of the change in membership, and pays the lawful fee therefor and, if acting as an insurance broker, furnishes the bond required under Article 5 (commencing with Section 1662).

(2) At least one person who exercised the agency or brokership powers of the predecessor copartnership continues to exercise the agency or brokership powers of the surviving or continuing copartnership.

(3) That application for registration be signed by a general partner.

SEC. 44. Section 1712 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1712. The termination of the existence of the license entity as provided in Section 1711, automatically terminates the right of that entity to transact insurance thereunder; except that a natural person, copartnership, association, or corporation licensed under this article, may continue to transact insurance under an existing license in either a different capacity or as a different organization or entity if a natural person is named to exercise the agency or brokerage powers of the license entity, and that natural person remains eligible to be so named, and if no substantial change in ownership and no change in control of the licensed insurance business has taken place; provided, that within 30 days following the change the person or the successor copartnership, association or corporation files a properly completed and executed application in the form prescribed by the commissioner for an appropriate license and pays the lawful fees therefor.

Nothing herein shall be construed to nullify any provision of Section 1718 except that any fee paid as required by subdivisions (a) or (b) of Section 1718 for a license not issued may be applied towards the fee for filing an application under this section.

SEC. 45. Section 1712.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1712.5. The license of an organization licensed as a fire and casualty broker-agent or life agent shall become inoperative upon the removal or termination of the last natural person named thereon, or when the last natural person is no longer eligible to be named thereon in accordance with Section 1647.

Unless the license is reactivated by the correction of all deficiencies including, if necessary, the adding of a natural person to transact insurance under the authority of the organization's license pursuant to Section 1661, the license shall not be renewed.

SEC. 46. Section 1714 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1714. A person shall not be permitted to take an examination for a license unless at the time of the administration thereof he or she is in compliance with subdivision (a) of Section 1704 or Section 1662.

SEC. 47. Section 1718 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1718. (a) Not less than 60 days before a permanent license will expire, the commissioner may mail, to the latest address appearing on his or her records, an application to the licensee to renew the license for the appropriate succeeding license term. It is the licensee's responsibility to renew whether or not a renewal notice is received. The commissioner may accept a late renewal, provided the licensee's failure to comply is due to clerical error or inadvertence on the part of the department.

(b) Application for renewal of a license may be filed on or before the expiration date. When filed under this subdivision, the fee for filing shall be as specified in Section 1750.

(c) The application for renewal of an expired license may be filed after the expiration date and until that same month and day of the next succeeding year. The fee for a renewal application under this subdivision shall be the fee specified in subdivision (b) and a delinquent fee in the amount specified for a one-year period in Section 1750 for the filing. Each licensee shall be subject to payment of delinquent fees under this section.

SEC. 48. Section 1723 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 49. Section 1724 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 50. Section 1725 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1725. Every license to act as a fire and casualty broker-agent shall be prominently displayed by the holder thereof in his or her office in a manner whereby anyone may readily inspect it and ascertain both its currency and the capacity in which its holder is licensed to act.

SEC. 51. Section 1726 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 52. Section 1727 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1727. (a) The commissioner shall, after notice and hearing, promulgate reasonable rules and regulations specifying the manner and type of records to be maintained by those licensees acting as insurance agents and brokers and the location where the records shall be kept.

(b) Every licensee acting as an insurance agent and broker shall keep the records as required by the regulations promulgated pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) Every licensee acting as an insurance agent or broker employing a licensee in the capacity of an insurance solicitor shall keep the records required by the regulations promulgated pursuant to subdivision (a) for any insurance transacted by the insurance solicitor in the capacity of employee of the employing licensee.

SEC. 53. Section 1727.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1727.5. In addition to any records required to be kept pursuant to regulations adopted under subdivision (a) of Section 1727, a fire and casualty broker-agent shall also maintain a record of the written disclosure required by Section 1730.5.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 54. Section 1728 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1728. Every resident insurance fire and casualty broker-agent shall maintain a principal office in this state for the transaction of business. The address of the office shall, pursuant to Section 1658, be specified on all applications for license and renewal applications.

SEC. 55. Section 1729.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1729.5. A fire and casualty broker-agent or life agent who has a service contract with a corporation licensed under this code or who is a stockholder or member of any incorporated association or corporation organized under the Corporations Code for the purpose of providing services to fire and casualty broker-agents or life agents may use the name of such a corporation or association on any stationery or advertisements and other written or printed matter used to identify the business of the fire and casualty broker-agent or life agent provided that the name of the fire and casualty broker-agent or life agent is clearly identified as bearing only that relationship to the corporation or association in one of the following ways:

"Representing _____;"

"A stockholder of _____;"

"Placing business through _____;"

"Using services of _____."

The use of the corporation or association name in the manner provided in this section shall not constitute such use as would mislead the public within the meaning of Section 1724.5.

SEC. 56. Section 1730.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1730.5. A fire and casualty broker-agent shall provide to all insured or applicant at the time of application or receipt of premium moneys the effective date of coverage, if known, or the circumstances under which coverage will be effective if there exists conditions precedent to coverage. This section shall apply only to coverage for personal lines of insurance, such as private passenger automobile, homeowner and renter insurance, personal liability, and individual disability and health insurance.

SEC. 56.5. Section 1731 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1731. A person licensed as a broker-agent shall be deemed to be acting as an insurance agent in the transaction of insurance placed with those insurers for whom a notice of appointment has been filed with the Insurance Commissioner in accordance with Section 1704 and is then in force.

SEC. 57. Section 1732 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1732. A person licensed as a fire and casualty broker-agent acting as an insurance broker may act as an insurance agent in collecting and transmitting premium or return premium funds and delivering policies and other documents evidencing insurance.

SEC. 58. Section 1733 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1733. All funds received by any person acting as an insurance agent, broker, or solicitor, life agent, life analyst, surplus line broker, special lines surplus line broker, motor club agent, bail agent, permittee, or solicitor, as premium or return premium on or under any policy of insurance or undertaking of bail, are received and held by that person in his or her fiduciary capacity. Any such person who diverts or appropriates those fiduciary funds to his or her own use is guilty of theft and punishable for theft as provided by law. Any premium which a premium financer agrees to advance pursuant to the terms of a premium finance agreement shall constitute fiduciary funds as defined in this section only if actually received by a person licensed in one or more of the capacities herein specified.

SEC. 59. Section 1735 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1735. As used in this section a managing general agent is a licensed fire and casualty broker-agent or a life agent who, (a) has a written management contract and an appointment on file with the commissioner in accordance with Section 1704, which appointment is then in force, with one or more admitted insurers covering business transacted by the insurer in a substantial portion of the State of California; (b) under the contract manages the transaction of either all or one or more of the classes of insurance written by those insurers in that territory or the transactions therein by those insurers under a specified fictitious underwriter's name; (c) has the power to appoint, supervise and terminate the appointment of local agents in that territory; (d) has the power to accept or decline risks; and (f) collects premium moneys from producing broker-agents and remits those moneys to those insurers pursuant to the account current system.

Any such managing general agent shall, with respect to any principals for whom fiduciary funds are held, comply with Section 1734.

SEC. 60. Section 1735.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1735.5. A fire and casualty broker-agent or surplus line broker may offset funds due an insured for return premiums on any policy against amounts due him or her from the same insured for unpaid premiums on the same or any other policy. Any insurer may pay return premiums to any fire and casualty broker-agent for that purpose. This section shall not invalidate an assignment of return premium made concurrently with policy issuance as security for financing that premium, nor the right of the assignee, or his or her assign, to enforce the assignment as a prior claim.

SEC. 61. Section 1739 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1739. Where a permanent license is held by an organization both the organization itself and any natural persons named thereon shall, for the purposes of this article, be deemed to be the holders thereof. If that natural person commits any act or fails to perform any duty which is a ground for suspension or revocation of the license held by the organization, that action may be taken against the organization. If any natural person named under an organization license commits any act or fails to perform any duty which is a ground for the suspension or revocation of any license held by the organization, the commissioner may suspend or revoke the license of the organization, or the license of the natural person, or may take all of those steps.

SEC. 62. Section 1745 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1745. A first failure to keep or maintain the books and records required under Section 1727 may be considered by the commissioner to be a minor offense if committed by a licensee described in Section 1746 and the commissioner may, in lieu of notice and hearing referred to in Section 1738, take disciplinary proceedings and action as set forth in Section 1746.

SEC. 63. Section 1746 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1746. If the commissioner has been informed and believes that a licensed fire and casualty broker-agent or life agent has committed any offense referred to in Section 1745, the commissioner may, without prior notice or hearing, mail to that licensee at his or her last address filed with the commissioner an order reprimanding the licensee. That order shall specify the statute violated and the time of the violation; and shall further state that the order shall become effective commencing at a date specified therein not less than 15 days from the date of mailing, unless the licensee, prior to the effective date, advises the commissioner in writing that formal notice and hearing are requested, in which case the order shall become void and of no effect, and the commissioner may initiate proceedings pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 64. Section 1747 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1747. Whenever the commissioner may determine or have good cause to believe that any fire and casualty broker-agent has failed to keep or maintain the records required by Sections 1727 and 1727.5, in connection with or in lieu of any other disciplinary action against the license of the licensee, the commissioner may issue his or her order requiring the licensee to establish and currently complete those records within sixty (60) days from the date of the order. When the order is given in lieu of other disciplinary action, notice of the order may be given by certified mail addressed to the office of the licensee. Failure of the licensee to comply with the order within the time specified therein shall be grounds for the suspension or revocation of the license or licenses of the licensee, and the proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 65. Article 13.5 (commencing with Section 1749) is added to Chapter 5 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code, to read:

Article 13.5. Prelicensing and Continuing Education

1749. On and after January 1, 1992, the department shall require all new applicants for license as a fire and casualty broker-agent or as a life agent to meet prelicensing education standards as follows:

(a) Require a minimum of 40 hours of prelicensing classroom study as a prerequisite to qualification for a fire and casualty broker-agent license. The curriculum shall be certified by the department. Any additions to the minimum requirements provided by this section shall be approved by the curriculum board pursuant to Section 1749.1 and certified by the department.

(b) Require a minimum of 40 hours of prelicensing classroom study as a prerequisite for qualification for a life agent license. The curriculum shall be certified by the department. Any additions to the minimum requirements provided by this section shall be approved by the curriculum board pursuant to Section 1749.1 and certified by the department.

(c) In addition to the 40 hours prelicensing education required to qualify for a license as a broker-agent or life agent, the department shall require 12 hours of study on ethics and this code. Where an applicant seeks a license for both the broker-agent license and the life license, the applicant shall only be required to complete one 12-hour course on ethics and this code.

(d) This section shall not apply to persons licensed as of December 31, 1991.

1749.1. The commissioner shall appoint a curriculum board consisting of representatives of insurance agents, brokers, and life agents trade associations and representatives of insurance companies and consumer groups to develop the prelicensing and continuing education curriculum, including a list of preapproved courses of study, including courses of study for professional designations which would satisfy the requirements of this article. The curriculum board shall develop or recommend courses of study covering all lines of insurance to be sold under each license including, but not limited to, any special products such as long-term care insurance, Medi-gap policies, disability insurance products, and course study on ethics and pertinent sections of this code. The curriculum developed or recommended by the board shall be submitted to the commissioner for approval.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1991.

1749.2. The purpose of Sections 1749.3 to 1749.6, inclusive, is to establish requirements and standards for continuing education programs for persons licensed as fire and casualty broker-agents and life agents.

Sections 1749.3 to 1749.6, inclusive, shall not apply to either (a) those persons holding resident licenses for any kind or kinds of insurance for which an examination is not required by the law of this state, nor shall it apply to any such limited or restricted license as the commissioner may exempt or (b) licensed nonresident agents or brokers who comply with the continuing education requirements of their state of residence.

1749.3. Licensed fire and casualty broker-agents and life agents shall annually satisfactorily complete those courses, programs of instruction, or seminars that may be approved by the commissioner in the minimum number of classroom hours as follows:

(a) During each of the first four 12-month periods following the date of its original issue satisfactorily complete courses or programs of instruction or attend seminars equivalent to a minimum of 25 classroom hours of instruction, with a maximum of 100 accumulated classroom hours for the 48-month period.

(b) Any licensee who has complied with subdivision (a), shall for each 12-month period satisfactorily complete courses or programs of instruction or attend seminars equivalent to 15 classroom hours of instruction.

(c) The requirements of this section shall apply retroactively to all licensees covered by this article.

1749.4. The courses or programs of instruction successfully completed that shall be deemed to meet the standards for continuing educational requirements, and the number of classroom hours for which they are equivalent, are as follows:

(a) Any part of the Life Underwriter Training Council Life Course Curriculum totaling 50 hours, including the health course totaling 26 hours.

(b) Any part of the American College CLU diploma curriculum totaling 30 hours.

(c) Any part of the Insurance Institute of America's program in general insurance totaling 25 hours.

(d) Any part of the American Institute of Property and Liability Underwriters' Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) professional designation program totaling 30 hours.

(e) Any part of the Certified Insurance Counselor program totaling 25 hours.

(f) Any insurance-related course approved by the curriculum board and the commissioner taught by an accredited college or university per credit hour granted totaling 15 hours.

(g) Any course or program of instruction or seminar developed or sponsored by an authorized insurer, recognized agents' association, or insurance trade association, or any independent program of instruction shall, subject to the approval of the curriculum board and the commissioner, qualify for the equivalency of the number of classroom hours assigned thereto by the commissioner.

(h) Any correspondence course approved by the curriculum board and the commissioner shall qualify for the equivalency of the number of classroom hours assigned thereto by the commissioner.

1749.5. (a) A person teaching any approved course of instruction or lecturing at any approved seminar shall qualify for the same number of classroom hours as would be granted to a person taking and successfully completing that course, seminar, or program.

(b) Excess classroom hours accumulated during any one-year period may be carried forward to the next year.

(c) For good cause shown, the commissioner may grant an extension of time during which the requirements imposed by this article may be completed, but that extension of time shall not exceed the period of one year.

(d) Every person subject to this article shall furnish, in a form satisfactory to the commissioner, written certification as to the courses, programs, or seminars of instruction taken and successfully completed by that person.

1749.6. Any person failing to meet the requirements imposed by Section 1749.3 and who has not been granted an extension of time within which to comply by the commissioner shall have his or her license automatically terminated until the time that the person demonstrates to the satisfaction of the commissioner that he or she has complied with all of the requirements of this article and all other laws applicable thereto. Where a person cannot perform the requirements of this article due to a disability or inactivity due to special circumstances, the commissioner shall provide a procedure for the person to place his or her license on inactive status until the time that the person demonstrates to the satisfaction of the commissioner that he or she has complied with or made up all of the requirements of this article for the period of disability or inactivity.

1749.7. The commissioner may, pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, adopt reasonable rules and regulations necessary for the convenient administration of this article.

1749.8. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enactd statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 66. Section 1750 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1750. The commissioner shall require in advance as a fee for filing application for the hereinafter designated licenses, renewals thereof, or changes in outstanding licenses, an amount calculated as set forth herein. The fee is determined by multiplying the number of license years in the period of the license applied for or the remaining period of an existing license counting any initial fractional license year of that period as one year for that purpose, as follows:

(a) Fire and casualty broker-agent, fifty-six dollars ($56).

(b) Life agent, resident, forty-eight dollars ($48).

(c) Life agent, nonresident, fifty-three dollars ($53).

SEC. 67. Section 1750.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1750.5. The fee for filing application for a nonresident fire and casualty broker-agent license shall be that established in Section 1750 for a resident fire and casualty broker-agent, except that if the applicant's state, commonwealth or Canadian province of residence has fees for any nonresident insurance license greater than for a like resident license the fee for filing an application for a nonresident fire and casualty broker-agent license shall not be less than the amount a California resident would be required to pay to obtain a like license for a like term in the applicant's state, commonwealth or Canadian province of residence.

Where another state, commonwealth or Canadian province by statute imposes any restrictions or limitations on a California resident, the restrictions or limitations shall apply to a resident of that state, commonwealth or Canadian province in California. This section shall not be construed to require a countersignature on a policy or contract, or the payment of a countersignature fee.

SEC. 68. Section 1751 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1751. The commissioner shall require, in advance, a fee for filing the following documents:

(a) Application for registration of change in membership of a copartnership licensed as any of the following:

(1) Fire and casualty broker-agent, fifty-six dollars ($56).

(2) Life agent, resident, forty-eight dollars ($48).

(3) Life agent, nonresident, fifty-three dollars ($53).

(b) Notice for adding or removing from any life agent's, fire and casualty broker-agent license issued to an organization the name of any natural person named thereon, sixteen dollars ($16).

(c) First amendment to an application, eight dollars ($8); a second and each subsequent amendment to an application, sixteen dollars ($16).

(d) Original application to be given the qualifying examination for a license of a fire and casualty licensee, twenty-seven dollars ($27) for each person to be examined.

(e) Original application to be given the qualifying examination for a license of a life licensee, twenty-seven dollars ($27) for each person to be examined.

(f) Application for reexamination for any of the licenses mentioned in this section, twenty-seven dollars ($27) for each person to be reexamined.

(g) Application which includes a request for a certificate of convenience pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 1685), twenty dollars ($20) in addition to, and not in lieu of, fees otherwise required.

(h) Application or request for approval of true or fictitious name pursuant to Section 1724.5 thirty dollars ($30), except that there shall be no fee when the name is contained in an original application.

(i) "A ratification of appointments of agents" whereby the surviving insurer in a merger or consolidation assumes responsibility for all agents then lawfully appointed for one of the constituent insurers and makes each its agent, one hundred three dollars ($103).

(j) An application or request for approval of:

(1) A training course pursuant to Section 1691, except when filed by a degree-conferring college or university, a public educational institution, or by a private nonprofit educational institution, one hundred three dollars ($103).

(2) An arrangement whereby an insurer may qualify certificate of convenience holders pursuant to Section 1691 by means of an approved course given on the insurer's behalf by a school or organization other than itself, fifty-five dollars ($55).

(k) A bond, pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 1662) or Section 1760.5 or 1765, except when the bond constitutes part of an original application filing, sixteen dollars ($16).

(l) An application or request for a copy of, or a duplicate license, issued pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1621), 6 (commencing with Section 1760), 7 (commencing with Section 1800), or 8 (commencing with Section 1831) or Sections 12280 and 12280.2, sixteen dollars ($16).

(m) An application or request for clearance and cancellation notice of a current licensee of record, sixteen dollars ($16).

(n) An amended action notice pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 1704, five dollars ($5).

SEC. 69. Section 1751.3 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1751.3. The commissioner shall require sixteen dollars ($16) in advance as a fee for filing each notice of appointment or each notice of termination pursuant to Section 1707 of any of the following:

(a) A fire and casualty broker-agent to act as an insurance agent.

(b) A life agent.

(c) A travel insurance agent.

(d) A fire and casualty broker-agent to act as an insurance solicitor.

SEC. 70. Section 1751.6 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1751.6. The commissioner may prepare a list of all currently licensed producers. All those lists shall be at the expense of the insurer, organization, or person requesting this service, except that special lists which are a part of the regulatory responsibility of the department may be at the expense of the state in the discretion of the commissioner. The costs and expenses of all those lists shall be paid from the support appropriation for the Department of Insurance current at the time of the preparation of the list but shall be charged to and collected from the insurer, organization, or person requesting the list. All list preparation expense moneys collected by the Department of Insurance under the provisions of this section are hereby appropriated to the department and shall be deposited in the Insurance Fund to the credit of the support appropriation for the department current at the time of the deposit. If any such insurer, organization, or person refuses to pay those costs and expenses promptly when due, the commissioner may refuse to issue its certificate of authority, certificate of exemption, or license, as the case may be, and may revoke any existing certificate of authority, certificate of exemption, or license.

SEC. 71. Section 1755 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1755. That license shall be applied for and renewed in the same manner as is provided in this chapter for a licensee to act as a fire and casualty broker-agent, except that an applicant for a limited license as a travel insurance agent need not pass a qualifying examination, and that the fee for filing an application shall be sixteen dollars ($16) for each year or fraction thereof in the term of the license applied for.

SEC. 72. Section 1758.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1758.1. For the purpose of making provision for the issuance of policies or contracts authorized by Article 5 (commencing with Section 10506) of Chapter 5 of Division 2, the commissioner may grant authority to transact variable contracts to a person or a natural person named on a license of an organization licensed as a life agent which is appointed by an admitted insurer which is required to register itself or to register a separate account or fund with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission under the Federal Investment Company Act of 1940, or to register its variable policies or contracts with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Federal Securities Act of 1933, and has complied with that requirement.

No person shall act as an agent of the insurer in the transaction of the policies or contracts unless he or she holds a valid authority under this article.

SEC. 73. Section 1758.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1758.2. Any authority granted pursuant to the provisions of this article shall be effective only while a permanent underlying life agent's license remains in full force and effect. The provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 1704 relating to the inactivation and reactivation of the underlying life agent's license, and the renewal thereof, shall apply to any authority issued pursuant to this article, except that references to agency appointments and terminations shall relate only to the underlying life agent's license. Such authority may be revoked, suspended, or otherwise affected for the same reasons and by the same procedures as a life agent's license.

SEC. 74. Section 1758.3 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1758.3. The commissioner shall not grant authority to transact variable contracts unless the life agent or applicant furnishes proof that he or she is registered to sell securities in accordance with the rules of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or the National Association of Securities Dealers, and has, within the 12 months' period next preceding the date of issue of the authority, taken and passed a written qualifying examination as prescribed by the commissioner.

SEC. 75. Section 1758.4 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 76. The Auditor General shall report to the Legislature on the effect of this act on or before March 31, 1994.

SEC. 77. Unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on January 1, 1992.

An act relating to world trade, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

I am deleting the $100,000 appropriation contained in Section 2 of Senate Bill No. 2714.

This bill would appropriate $100,000 from the General Fund to the World Trade Commission (WTC) to develop a computerized database of agricultural trade barriers and report to the Legislature on its findings and recommendations by June 30, 1991.

The demands placed on budget resources require all of us to set priorities. With legislation I will be signing and the budget enacted in July 1990, more than $54 billion in state funds will be appropriated this fiscal year. This amount is more than adequate to provide the necessary essential services provided for by State Government. It is not necessary to put additional pressure on taxpayer funds for programs that fall beyond the priorities currently provided.

It is more appropriate to consider funding the provisions of this bill during the budget process for Fiscal Year 1991–92. Only at that time can the relative merits of this program be reviewed in comparison to all other funding projects. The budget process weighs all demands on the state's revenues and directs resources to programs, either new or existing, that have the most merit.

With this deletion, I approve Senate Bill No. 2714.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The California State World Trade Commission, in compliance with all applicable competitive bidding procedures concerning the award of public contracts, shall select and hire a consultant, institution, or other public or private individual or entity possessing the expertise required to implement this act, to review, analyze, catalogue, and develop a computerized data base of all significant agricultural trade barriers, including nontariff and institutional trade barriers, imposed by nations which are contracting parties to, acceded provisionally to, or under de facto application of, the Articles of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT). The California State World Trade Commission, after consultation with the chairpersons of the Joint Committee on International Trade, may identify additional nations to be researched and included in this data base.

(b) The identification of specific products, nations, and states to be included in this study shall be made by the commission and shall be based on products having significant export potential in the 1990's for California agriculture.

(c) The contractor shall be required to provide a report that is useful to policymakers, merchants, bankers, forwarders, shippers, and others to make California exporters well informed on trade barriers to exports. The consultant or institution shall also prepare a catalogue of information, identifying sources and methods of development used in the preparation of the data base. Additionally, the consultant or institution shall prepare the information so that it can be used in conjunction with the Advanced Technology Information Network System located at the California State University, Fresno, which is accessible through the California State University Data Network, and is available without charge to registered users throughout California. The contractor shall also be required to update the information in the data base, in a regular and timely manner, for not less than 24 months, to be specified by the commission. The commission shall, not later than June 30, 1991, report all of its findings and recommendations made pursuant to this act, including information on how it plans to monitor agricultural trade barriers in the future with a computer data base service which can render current information to any California agricultural exporter, to the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, the Secretary of State, the Senate Committee on Rules, and the Speaker of the Assembly.

SEC. 2. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the California State World Trade Commission in order to contract with a consultant, institution, or other public or private individual or entity to implement Section 1 of this act. This appropriation may be used by the commission to contract separately with all of the following:

(a) A consultant, institution, or other public or private individual or entity, for development of the data base.

(b) The Advanced Technology Information Network System at the California State University, Fresno, for expenses incurred in operating the data base and computers.

(c) A consultant, institution, or other public or private individual or entity, for regularly updating the trade barriers information contained in the data base.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to enable the state to better determine methods of overcoming agricultural trade barriers that are presently impacting all segments of state agriculture and affecting the employment and welfare of the entire agricultural industry as rapidly as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

An act to amend Sections 1101, 1105, 1111, 1122, 1127, 1128, 1130, 1132, 1133, 1137, 1140, 1142, 1150, 1156, 1157, 1158, 1170, 1170.3, 1171, 1176, 1177, 1179, and 1191 of, to amend and renumber Section 1141.5 of, to add Section 1156.5 to, and to add and repeal Section 1201.6 of, and to repeal Sections 1141, 1143, and 1193 of, the Harbors and Navigation Code, relating to pilots, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1101 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1101. The Legislature further finds and declares:

(a) The maritime industry is necessary for the continued economic well-being and cultural development of all California citizens.

(b) The Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun provide a vital transportation route for the maritime industry.

(c) The increase in vessel size and traffic, and the increase in cargoes carried in bulk, particularly oil and gas and hazardous chemicals, create substantial hazards to the life, property, and values associated with the environment of such waters.

(d) The federal government has long adopted the policy of providing minimum standards which assure port and waterways safety while at the same time encouraging state control over pilot qualifications and licensing.

(e) A program of pilot regulation and licensing is necessary in order to ascertain and guarantee the qualifications, fitness, and reliability of qualified personnel who can provide safe pilotage of vessels entering and using the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun.

(f) The need to assure safe and pollution-free waterborne commerce requires that pilotage services be employed in the confined and crowded waters of those bays.

(g) Bar pilotage in the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun has continuously been regulated by a single-purpose state board since 1850, and that regulation and licensing should be continued.

SEC. 2. Section 1105 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1105. This division applies to pilots for San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun Bays.

SEC. 3. Section 1111 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1111. "Board" means the Board of Pilot Commissioners for the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun.

SEC. 4. Section 1122 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1122. (a) A pilot carried to sea against the pilot's will, or unnecessarily detained on board a vessel when a pilot vessel is in attendance to receive the pilot, shall receive six hundred dollars ($600) per day while so carried to sea or detained, plus reimbursement for any expenses incurred by the pilot in returning to the pilot station.

(b) The owner, operator, and agents of the detaining vessel are jointly and severally liable for paying the amount specified in subdivision (a).

SEC. 5. Section 1127 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1127. Every vessel sailing under a coastwise license or appropriately endorsed registry and engaged in the coasting trade between any port of the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun, and any other port of the United States, is exempt from all pilotage charges unless a pilot is actually employed. Every foreign vessel and every vessel bound to or from a foreign port, and every vessel sailing under a register between any port of the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun and any other port of the United States, is liable for pilotage.

SEC. 6. Section 1128 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1128. Any nonself-propelled vessel in tow of a tug within the Bay of San Francisco, San Pablo, or Suisun, or between those bays, is exempt from pilotage charges unless a pilot is actually employed.

SEC. 7. Section 1130 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1130. The pilots shall appoint one of their members to act as president to carry out the orders of the board, other applicable laws, and otherwise administer the affairs of the pilots. The appointment shall be subject to the confirmation of the board.

SEC. 8. Section 1132 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1132. Every pilot in charge of a vessel arriving in the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, or Suisun, shall safely moor the vessel in place and position as directed by the master of the vessel, consistent with safe navigation and not contrary to law.

SEC. 9. Section 1133 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1133. Every pilot in charge of a vessel leaving the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun shall pilot it from its point of departure to a point beyond the San Francisco Bar.

SEC. 10. Section 1137 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1137. (a) The account shall show all of the following:

(1) The name of each vessel piloted.

(2) The name of the vessel's master.

(3) The name of each vessel for which pilotage has been charged or collected.

(4) The amount charged to or collected from each.

(5) Any rebates made and allowed and for what amounts.

(6) Where the vessel is registered.

(7) The depth of each vessel's draft and its highest gross tonnage.

(8) Whether the vessel was inward or outward bound.

(b) The secretary of the board shall record the accounts in full detail in a book prepared for that purpose. The account book is a public record.

SEC. 11. Section 1140 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1140. (a) No person shall hold both a pilot license and an inland pilot license concurrently.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature to provide for a unified system of state regulated pilotage for the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun.

(c) The Legislature finds and declares that unified pilotage will be beneficial to the safety of people, vessels, and property using those bays and tributaries.

(d) The Legislature further finds and declares that unified systems of regulated pilotage are common to the ports of the world and are most familiar to, and best able to serve, both foreign and domestic vessels.

SEC. 12. Section 1141 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 1141.5 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1141. (a) Each pilot license shall be valid for a period of one year and shall be renewed upon application and successful completion of the physical examination required by Section 1176.

(b) A pilot license shall not be renewed if the pilot possessing the license does not actively pilot vessels for any consecutive period of one year, unless the board determines the pilot is qualified and makes one of the following findings:

(1) The pilot has presented satisfactory proof of medical disability during that period.

(2) The pilot has been serving as president under Section 1130.

(c) A pilot licensee shall at all times hold an active and proper license to pilot vessels on the waters on which the pilot operates.

(d) The board may revoke or suspend the license of any pilot who does not use proper equipment maintained exclusively for pilotage or who operates on territorial waters not described in the license.

SEC. 14. Section 1142 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1142. (a) Each existing inland pilot license shall be valid for a period of one year and may be renewed upon application and the applicant's passing of the physical examination required in Section 1176.

(b) An existing inland pilot license shall not be renewed if the inland pilot possessing the license does not actively pilot vessels for any consecutive period of one year, unless the board determines that the inland pilot is qualified and has presented satisfactory proof of medical disability during that period.

(c) An inland pilot shall at all times hold an active and proper license to pilot vessels on the waters on which the pilot operates.

(d) The board may revoke or suspend the license of any inland pilot who does not use proper equipment or who operates on territorial waters not described in the license. The suspension or revocation of licenses under this section is governed by Article 2 (commencing with Section 1180) of Chapter 4.

SEC. 15. Section 1143 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is repealed.

SEC. 16. Section 1150 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1150. (a) There is in the state government a Board of Pilot Commissioners for the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun, consisting of seven members appointed by the Governor, with the consent of the Senate, as follows:

(1) Two members shall be pilots licensed pursuant to this division.

(2) Two members shall represent the industry and shall be persons currently engaged as owners, officers, directors, employees, or representatives of firms, or associations of firms, which are substantial users of pilotage service in San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun Bays, one of whom shall be engaged in the field of tanker company operations, and one of whom shall be engaged in dry cargo operations. The board of directors of a regional maritime trade association controlled by West Coast vessel operators which specifically represents the owners and operators of vessels or barges engaged in transportation by water of cargo or passengers from or to the Pacific area of the United States shall nominate, rank, and submit to the Governor the names of three persons for each category of industry member to be appointed.

(3) Three members shall be public members and shall be appointed by the Governor. Any person may serve as a public member unless otherwise prohibited by law.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, nothing contained in this chapter shall prohibit the Governor from notifying the respective nominating authorities identified in paragraph (2) that persons nominated are unacceptable for appointment. Following that notification, the nominating authority shall submit a new list of nominees to the Governor, naming three persons for each board vacancy, none of which were previously nominated, from which the Governor may make the appointment. This process shall be continued until persons nominated by the nominating authority and satisfactory to the Governor have been appointed.

(b) Each of the members appointed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be appointed for a four-year term, and shall not be appointed for more than two terms. Vacancies on the board for both expired and unexpired terms shall be filled by the appointing power in the manner prescribed by subdivision (a).

(c) The board members serving on January 1, 1985, shall continue to serve as the public members on the board and shall select one board member to serve a two-year term, one board member to serve a three-year term, and one board member to serve a four-year term. The board member selected for the initial two-year term may serve two additional four-year terms, if appointed pursuant to this section, and the remaining board members may only serve one additional four-year term, if appointed pursuant to this section.

(d) A quorum of the board members consists of four members. All actions of the board shall require the vote of four members, a quorum being present.

SEC. 17. Section 1156 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1156. The board may appoint, fix the compensation of, and from time to time adjust the compensation of, an executive director, an administrative assistant/secretary, and such other employees as may be necessary.

SEC. 17.3. Section 1156.5 is added to the Harbors and Navigation Code, to read:

1156.5. (a) The executive director shall serve at the pleasure of the board and shall be under the direct supervision of the board. The board may delegate to the executive director any of the following functions:

(1) The administration of personnel employed by the board, in accordance with the civil service laws.

(2) To serve as the treasurer of the board and keep, maintain, and provide the board with all statements of accounts, records of receipts, and disbursements of the board in accordance with law.

(3) The issuance and countersigning of licenses, which shall also be signed by the president of the board.

(4) The administration of matters and the maintenance of files pertaining to actions taken against licenses issued by the board.

(5) The investigation of and reporting on a navigational incident or other matter for which a license issued by the board may be revoked or suspended.

(6) To work with the pilot evaluation committee to recommend to the board improvements in the pilot training program.

(7) Under the direction of the board, to coordinate with other state and federal agencies charged with protecting the environment and with the oil and hazardous chemical shipping industry.

(8) Any other function, task, or duty that may reasonably be assigned by the president of the board, including, but not limited to, performing research and obtaining documents and other evidence for board activities, including rate hearings.

(b) The board shall approve all expenditures made by the executive director in carrying out his or her duties.

(c) The executive director shall not also serve as a member of the board nor as a member of the pilots or inland pilots nor may he or she be otherwise currently employed in the maritime industry during his or her term of office.

(d) The term of office to which the executive director is appointed is five years. The first person appointed to the position of executive director shall be initially appointed by a vote of at least four members of the board. Following the initial appointment, the executive director, and subsequent executive directors, may be appointed, reappointed, or removed from office only by a vote of at least four members of the board, including at least one industry member, one pilot member, and one public member.

SEC. 17.7. Section 1157 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1157. The administrative assistant/secretary shall work under the direct supervision of the executive director and shall keep a written record of all the board's proceedings and acts, and shall keep a register of all pilots appointed, their residence, and the date of each license. In addition, he or she shall perform any additional clerical, administrative, and other duties that may reasonably be required by the executive director.

SEC. 18. Section 1158 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1158. The public members, the executive director, and the secretary of the board shall not have any interest in any pilot vessel or tug, or in the earnings thereof, except for the compensation provided in this chapter.

SEC. 19. Section 1170 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1170. The board shall appoint and license the number of pilots which is sufficient to carry out the purposes of this division.

SEC. 20. Section 1170.3 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1170.3. (a) The board shall adopt, by regulation, a pilot's conflict-of-interest code which shall include, but not be limited to, a provision specifying that a pilot shall not have any interest in, or derive any income from, any tugboat in operation on the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun. This requirement of divestiture does not apply to the ownership of barges and vessels similar to barges.

(b) The conflict-of-interest code shall not prohibit the ownership of stock in any corporation registered on a national securities exchange, pursuant to Section 78f of Title 15 of the United States Code, which may own tugboats in operation on the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun.

SEC. 21. Section 1171 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1171. (a) The board shall have the sole authority to determine the qualifications for obtaining a license as a pilot or inland pilot pursuant to this division, determine who shall have such a license, and issue the license.

(b) All persons possessing a valid state pilot's license on January 1, 1985, are hereby licensed as if the license was granted by the board.

SEC. 22. Section 1176 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1176. Pilots and inland pilots shall undergo physical examinations in accordance with standards prescribed by the board in conjuction with the renewal of their license. The examination shall designate that each pilot or inland pilot is fit to peform his or her duties as a pilot.

SEC. 23. Section 1177 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1177. (a) On or before December 31, 1988, all pilots licensed pursuant to this division shall have and maintain proper federal endorsements allowing them to pilot on the high seas and on all waters of the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun, excluding the San Joaquin River and the Sacramento deep water ship channel.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), all pilots issued original licenses pursuant to this division after December 31, 1987, shall have proper federal endorsements allowing them to pilot on the high seas and on all waters of the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun, including the San Joaquin River and the Sacramento deep water ship channel.

SEC. 24. Section 1179 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1179. Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, any shipping company which regularly employed its employees, or expressed its intent to the board to use its employees, for piloting vessels on the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun on or before July 1, 1983, may employ and use its employees in that manner in lieu of pilots provided under this chapter. However, this use of employees as pilots on foreign flag vessels shall be limited to five vessel calls per year for those shipping companies that have only expressed their intent to use their employees in lieu of pilots. This limitation shall not apply to those shipping companies which regularly employed their employees for piloting vessels prior to July 1, 1983.

SEC. 25. Section 1191 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1191. (a) The board shall, pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1200), recommend that the Legislature, by statute, adopt a schedule of pilotage rates providing fair and reasonable return to pilots and inland pilots engaged in ship movements or special operations where rates for those movements or operations are not specified in Section 1190.

(b) Every vessel using pilots and inland pilots for ship movements or special operations which do not constitute bar pilotage shall pay the rate specified in the schedule of pilotage rates adopted by the Legislature.

(c) The minimum rates charged by pilots or inland pilots for ship movements and internal operations shall be the schedule of ship pilot fees published by the San Francisco Bar Pilots on January 1, 1990.

SEC. 26. Section 1193 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is repealed.

SEC. 27. Section 1201.6 is added to the Harbors and Navigation Code, to read:

1201.6. (a) Commencing on January 1, 1991, to, and including, December 31, 1995, this section shall determine how all pilotage rate recommendations shall be made to the Legislature by the board.

(1) Any party directly affected by pilotage rates established under this chapter may petition the board for a public hearing on any of the matters set forth in Section 1200. The board shall, within 10 days, request the appointment of an administrative law judge by the Director of the Office of Administrative Hearings for the purpose of holding hearings to receive evidence relating to the issues raised in the petition. The board shall give notice of the hearings to all interested parties who have requested notification.

(2) The administrative law judge shall conduct a hearing into the issues raised in the petition and take evidence submitted by all interested parties and shall determine the admissibility, credibility, and weight to be given to all evidence submitted. Interested parties may cross-examine witnesses who provide testimony at the hearing. The administrative law judge shall, at the conclusion of the hearing, render written findings of fact and conclusions as to whether a change in the pilotage rates are justified by the evidence and make written proposals to the board of what new pilotage rates, if any, should be adopted.

(3) Within 30 days of receipt of the administrative law judge's written findings, conclusions, and proposals for new rates, if any, the board shall hold a public hearing at which it shall determine whether to accept or reject the administrative law judge's proposals. At the conclusion of the hearing, the board shall submit to the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly a copy of the administrative law judge's findings, conclusions, and proposals for new rates, if any, and whether the board accepted or rejected the proposals, supported by a transcript of the proceedings before the board and before the administrative law judge. In determining whether to accept or reject the administrative law judge's findings, conclusions, and proposals for rate changes, if any, the board need not have at least one representative of industry and one representative of the pilots present, four members otherwise being present.

(4) The administrative law judge shall not receive written evidence at a public hearing held for the purpose of considering pilotage rates unless 10 or more copies of the evidence have been deposited with the board as public documents by the party proposing a rate adjustment 30 or more days prior to the date set for the commencement of the hearing.

(5) The administrative law judge shall not receive written evidence at the hearing from any party responding to the request unless 10 copies of the evidence are deposited with the board 10 or more days prior to the date set for the commencement of the hearing.

(6) Paragraphs (4) and (5) do not prohibit the introduction of evidence specifically requested by the administrative law judge or the board.

(7) Public hearings for the purpose of obtaining information and data relating to the issues raised in any petition regarding pilotage rates shall be conducted in accordance with the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act (Article 9 (commencing with Section 11120) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code) and a full record shall be kept of all evidence offered. The administrative law judge's proposals regarding new rates, if any, shall give consideration to all relevant factors including, but not limited to, those items set forth in the subdivisions (a) to (g), inclusive, of Section 1203.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

An act to amend Sections 1136, 1150, 1151, 1156, 1157, 1158, 1162, and 1203 of, to add Sections 1156.5, 1158.1, and 1159.1 to, and to add and repeal Section 1201.6 of, the Harbors and Navigation Code, relating to pilots, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1136 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1136. Every pilot and inland pilot licensed pursuant to this division shall do all of the following:

(a) Take an oath of office in the manner prescribed by law.

(b) Submit monthly to the board a verified account of all moneys or other compensation received by the pilot or inland pilot as a result of pilotage services, or by any other person for the pilot or inland pilot, or on the pilot's or inland pilot's account, on the forms furnished by the board.

SEC. 2. Section 1150 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1150. (a) There is in the state government a Board of Pilot Commissioners for the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun, consisting of seven members appointed by the Governor, with the consent of the Senate, as follows:

(1) Two members shall be pilots licensed pursuant to this division.

(2) Two members shall represent the industry and shall be persons currently engaged as owners, officers, directors, employees, or representatives of a firm or association of firms, which is a substantial user of pilotage service in San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun Bays, one of whom shall be engaged in the field of tanker company operations, and one of whom shall be engaged in dry cargo operations. The board of directors of a regional maritime trade association controlled by West Coast vessel operators which specifically represents the owners and operators of vessels or barges engaged in transportation by water of cargo or passengers from or to the Pacific area of the United States shall nominate, rank, and submit to the Governor the names of three persons for each category of industry member to be appointed.

(3) Three members shall be public members. Any person may serve as a public member unless otherwise prohibited by law, except that during their term of office or within the two years preceding their appointment, public members appointed on or after January 1, 1991, shall not have (A) any financial or proprietary interest in the ownership, operation, or management of tugs, cargo, or passenger vessels, (B) sailed under the authority of a federal or state pilot license in waters under the jurisdiction of the board, (C) been employed by a company which is a substantial user of pilot services, or (D) been a consultant or other person providing professional services who had received more than 20 percent in the aggregate of his or her income from a company which is a substantial user of pilot services or an association of companies which are substantial users of pilot services. Ownership of less than one-tenth of 1 percent of the stock of a publicly traded corporation is not a financial or proprietary interest in the ownership of tugs, cargo, or passenger vessels.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, nothing in this chapter prohibits the Governor from notifying the nominating authority identified in paragraph (2) that persons nominated are unacceptable for appointment. Following that notification, the nominating authority shall submit a new list of nominees to the Governor, naming three persons, none of which were previously nominated, from which the Governor may make the appointment. This process shall be continued until a person nominated by the nominating authority and satisfactory to the Governor has been appointed.

(b) Each of the members appointed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be appointed for a four-year term, and shall not be appointed for more than two terms. Vacancies on the board for both expired and unexpired terms shall be filled by the appointing power in the manner prescribed by subdivision (a).

(c) The board members serving on January 1, 1985, shall continue to serve as the public members on the board and shall select one board member to serve a two-year term, one board member to serve a three-year term, and one board member to serve a four-year term. The board member selected for the initial two-year term may serve two additional four-year terms, if appointed pursuant to this section, and the remaining board members may only serve one additional four-year term, if appointed pursuant to this section.

(d) A quorum of the board members consists of four members. All actions of the board shall require the vote of four members, a quorum being present.

SEC. 3. Section 1151 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1151. Each member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of one of the following counties: San Francisco, Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, Sacramento, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Solano, San Joaquin, Napa, Sonoma, or Yolo. The member shall hold office during the pleasure of the power appointing the member, not to exceed four years from the date of the member's commission.

SEC. 4. Section 1156 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1156. The board may appoint, fix the compensation of, and from time to time adjust the compensation of, an executive director, an administrative assistant/secretary, and such other employees as may be necessary.

SEC. 5. Section 1156.5 is added to the Harbors and Navigation Code, to read:

1156.5. The executive director shall serve at the pleasure of the board and shall be under the direct supervision of the board. The term of office to which the executive director is appointed is five years. The first person appointed to the position of executive director shall be initially appointed by a vote of at least four members of the board. Following the initial appointment, the executive director and subsequent executive directors, may be appointed, reappointed, or removed from office only by a vote of at least four members of the board, including at least one industry member, one pilot member, and one public member. The board may delegate to the executive director any of the following functions:

(a) The administration of personnel employed by the board, in accordance with the civil service laws.

(b) To serve as treasurer of the board and keep, maintain, and provide the board with all statements of accounts, records of receipts, and disbursements of the board in accordance with law.

(c) The issuance and countersigning of licenses, which shall also be signed by the president of the board.

(d) The administration of matters and the maintenance of files pertaining to actions taken against licenses issued by the board.

(e) The investigation of and reporting on a navigational incident or other matter for which a license issued by the board may be revoked or suspended.

(f) To work with the pilot evaluation committee to recommend to the board improvements in the pilot training program.

(g) Under the direction of the board, to coordinate with other state and federal agencies charged with protecting the environment and with the oil and hazardous chemical shipping industry.

(h) Any other function, task, or duty as may reasonably be assigned by the president of the board, including, but not limited to, performing research and obtaining documents and other evidence for board activities, including rate hearings.

SEC. 6. Section 1157 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1157. The administrative assistant/secretary shall work under the direct supervision of the executive director and shall keep a written record of all the board's proceedings and acts, and shall keep a register of all pilots appointed, their residence and the date of each license. In addition, he or she shall perform such additional clerical, administrative, and other duties as may reasonably be required by the executive director.

SEC. 7. Section 1158 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1158. The public members, the executive director, and the administrative assistant/secretary of the board shall not have any interest in any pilot vessel or tug, or in the earnings thereof, except for the compensation provided in this chapter.

SEC. 8. Section 1158.1 is added to the Harbors and Navigation Code, to read:

1158.1. The executive director shall not, during the term of his or her office, serve as a member of the board, nor as a pilot or inland pilot, nor be otherwise concurrently employed in the maritime industry.

SEC. 9. Section 1159.1 is added to the Harbors and Navigation Code, to read:

1159.1. The vessel shall pay a board operations surcharge, the purpose of which is to fully compensate the board for its official services, for the services of its staff, and for all its incidental expenses. The amount of the surcharge shall be 7.5 percent of all pilotage fees charged by pilots and inland pilots, pursuant to Sections 1190 and 1191 unless the board establishes, with the approval of the Department of Finance, a lesser percentage. The surcharge shall be billed and collected by the pilots and inland pilots. The pilots and inland pilots shall pay all surcharges collected by them to the board monthly or at such later time as the board may direct. The board shall quarterly review its ongoing and anticipated expenses and adjust the surcharge to reflect any changes which have occurred since the last adjustment.

SEC. 10. Section 1162 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1162. (a) The pension plan shall be administered and all benefit payments shall be made by a fiduciary agent selected by the board. Except for the collection of revenues in accordance with Section 1165 and the pilots serving as members of the board, the pilots shall have no control of any kind or manner over the operation, administration, or management of the plan.

(b) All revenues pursuant to the plan shall be collected by the pilots, at no cost to the state, board, or committee, and transmitted monthly to the fiduciary agent. The revenues shall not be included in the account required by Section 1136.

SEC. 11. Section 1201.6 is added to the Harbors and Navigation Code, to read:

1201.6. (a) Commencing on January 1, 1991, to, and including, December 31, 1995, this section shall determine how all pilotage rate recommendations shall be made to the Legislature by the board.

(1) Any party directly affected by pilotage rates established under this chapter may petition the board for a public hearing on any of the matters set forth in Section 1200. The board shall, within 10 days, request the appointment of an administrative law judge by the Director of the Office of Administrative Hearings for the purpose of holding hearings to receive evidence relating to the issues raised in the petition. The board shall give notice of the hearings to all interested parties who have requested notification.

(2) The administrative law judge shall conduct a hearing into the issues raised in the petition and take evidence submitted by all interested parties and shall determine the admissibility, credibility, and weight to be given to all evidence submitted. Interested parties may cross-examine witnesses who provide testimony at the hearing. The administrative law judge shall, at the conclusion of the hearing, render written findings of fact and conclusions as to whether a change in the pilotage rates are justified by the evidence and make written proposals to the board of what new pilotage rates, if any, should be adopted.

(3) Within 30 days of receipt of the administrative law judge's written findings, conclusions, and proposals for new rates, if any, the board shall hold a public hearing at which it shall determine whether to accept or reject the administrative law judge's proposals. At the conclusion of the hearing, the board shall submit to the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the Assembly a copy of the administrative law judge's findings, conclusions, and proposals for new rates, if any, and whether the board accepted or rejected the proposals, supported by a transcript of the proceedings before the board and before the administrative law judge. In determining whether to accept or reject the administrative law judge's findings, conclusions, and proposals for rate changes, if any, the board need not have at least one representative of industry and one representative of the pilots present, if at least four members are present.

(4) The administrative law judge shall not receive written evidence at a public hearing held for the purpose of considering pilotage rates unless 10 or more copies of the evidence have been deposited with the board as public documents by the party proposing a rate adjustment 30 or more days prior to the date set for the commencement of the hearing.

(5) The administrative law judge shall not receive written evidence at the hearing from any party responding to the request unless 10 copies of the evidence are deposited with the board 10 or more days prior to the date set for the commencement of the hearing.

(6) Paragraphs (4) and (5) do not prohibit the introduction of evidence specifically requested by the administrative law judge or the board.

(7) Public hearings for the purpose of obtaining information and data relating to the issues raised in any petition regarding pilotage rates shall be conducted in accordance with the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act (Article 9 (commencing with Section 11120) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code) and a full record shall be kept of all evidence offered. The administrative law judge's proposals regarding new rates, if any, shall give consideration to all relevant factors including, but not limited to, those items set forth in subdivisions (a) to (g), inclusive, of Section 1203.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 12. Section 1203 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1203. In preparing recommendations to the Legislature with relationship to pilotage rates, the board may require an independent audit or audits by a public accountant selected by the board. The audits required by the board shall cover pilotage operations for those years which the board may specify. In preparing the recommendations, the board shall also give consideration to other relevant factors, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) The costs to the pilots, individually or jointly, of providing pilot service as required.

(b) A net return to the pilot sufficient to attract and hold persons capable of performing this service with safety to the public and protection to the property of persons using the service; and the relationship of that income to any changes in cost-of-living indices.

(c) Pilotage rates charged for comparable services rendered in other ports and harbors in the United States.

(d) The methods of determining pilotage rates in other ports and harbors in the United States.

(e) Economic factors affecting the local shipping industry, including prospective increases or decreases in income and labor costs.

(f) Additional factors affecting income to pilots such as the volume of shipping traffic using pilotage, numbers of pilots available to perform services, income paid for comparable services, and other factors of related nature.

(g) Changes in, or additions to, navigational and safety equipment necessary to insure protection of persons, ships, and waterways.

An act to amend Section 6103.10 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 25205.2, 25342, and 25347.6 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6103.10 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6103.10. Section 6103 does not apply to any fee or charges required to be paid to the State Director of Health Services or to the State Board of Equalization pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of, and Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) of, Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 2. Section 25205.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.2. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), in addition to the fees specified in Section 25174.1, each operator of a facility shall pay a facility fee for each state fiscal year, or any portion thereof, to the board based on the size and type of the facility, as specified in Section 25205.4. The department shall notify the board of all known facility operators by facility type and size at the time it establishes the facility fees pursuant to Section 25205.3. The department shall also notify the board of any operator issued a permit or grant of interim status within 30 days after a permit or grant of interim status is issued to the operator. The fee specified in this section does not apply to facilities operating pursuant to a permit by regulation.

(b) The board shall deposit all fees collected pursuant to subdivision (a) in the Hazardous Waste Control Account in the General Fund. The fees so deposited may be expended by the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the purposes specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25174.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a person who is issued a variance by the department from the requirement of obtaining a hazardous waste facilities permit or grant of interim status, or a person who is in a closure period approved by the department pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) and Article 12 (commencing with Section 25245), is not subject to the fee, for any fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the variance or closure was granted or approved by the department or in the fiscal year following any fiscal year in which the facility has completed all activities necessary for the department to approve the closure, including, but not limited to, submittal of a certification that these activities are completed to the department.

SEC. 3. Section 25342 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25342. Every person who submitted for disposal or who disposed of in the state or outside of the state, or who submitted for treatment at a location outside of the state, more than 500 pounds of hazardous waste during the preceding calendar year shall report to the board the following information on forms prescribed by the board:

(a) The total amount of hazardous waste, as defined by Section 25117, the federal regulation of which has been suspended under the Solid Waste Disposal Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.) by act of Congress, which that person has disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state or outside of the state, plus the total amount of hazardous waste, which that person has transferred to a surface impoundment for purposes of reducing the water content of the waste and material by evaporation, plus the total amount of hazardous waste disposed of into an injection well or landfarm, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 25345, exclusive of that waste specified in subdivisions (d) and (e).

(b) The total amount of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state or outside of the state, by that person, exclusive of that waste specified in subdivisions (a), (c), (d), and (e).

(c) The total amount of extremely hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state or outside of the state, by that person, exclusive of that waste specified in subdivisions (a), (b), (d), and (e).

(d) The total amount of hazardous or extremely hazardous waste that person has disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state or outside of the state, from the extraction, beneficiation, and processing of ores and minerals, including phosphate rock and overburden from mining of uranium ore.

(e) The total amount of hazardous waste that person has disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state that is a solid hazardous waste residue resulting from incineration or dechlorination.

(f) Persons submitting hazardous waste for treatment at a location outside of the state shall report, according to the categories set forth in subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, the total amount of hazardous waste residue resulting from that treatment which requires disposal.

SEC. 4. Section 25347.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25347.6. (a) On and after July 1, 1989, the State Board of Equalization shall assess a fee upon a potentially responsible party for the costs incurred by the department in connection with the oversight of any removal or remedial action taken by that party pursuant to Section 25355.5 or any action taken by that party pursuant to an order issued pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25358.3. The fee is in addition to the costs incurred for the removal or remediation which are not oversight costs, and shall be recovered pursuant to Section 25360. The fees shall be collected in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and deposited into the state account.

(b) A potentially responsible party shall pay the fee imposed pursuant to this section prior to the commencement of the action for which the oversight occurs. The amounts of the fee specified in this section are base rates for the 1989–90 fiscal year. Thereafter, the State Board of Equalization shall adjust the fee annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the Consumer Price Index issued by the Department of Labor or a successor agency of the United States government.

(c) A potentially responsible party shall pay a fee of five thousand dollars ($5,000) to pay for the costs of those actions deemed necessary by the department to accurately estimate the size and complexity of a hazardous substance release site to establish the fee imposed pursuant to subdivisions (d) to (j), inclusive.

(d) A potentially responsible party shall pay a fee for a preliminary endangerment assessment of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500).

(e) A potentially responsible party shall pay a fee for oversight of a removal action of fourteen thousand five hundred dollars ($14,500) for a small removal action, thirty-seven thousand dollars ($37,000) for a medium removal action, seventy-three thousand five hundred dollars ($73,500) for a large removal action, and one hundred forty-seven thousand dollars ($147,000) for an extra-large removal action.

(f) A potentially responsible party shall pay a fee for oversight of a remedial investigation and a feasibility study of twenty-one thousand five hundred dollars ($21,500) for a small site, forty-three thousand dollars ($43,000) for a medium site, eighty-five thousand five hundred dollars ($85,500) for a large site, and two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) for an extra-large site.

(g) A potentially responsible party shall pay a fee for oversight of a remedial action plan of four thousand five hundred dollars ($4,500) for a small site, nine thousand dollars ($9,000) for a medium site, eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000) for a large site, and thirty-eight thousand dollars ($38,000) for an extra-large site.

(h) A potentially responsible party shall pay a fee for oversight of a remedial design of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) for a small site, fourteen thousand five hundred dollars ($14,500) for a medium site, twenty-nine thousand dollars ($29,000) for a large site, and eighty thousand dollars ($80,000) for an extra-large site.

(i) A potentially responsible party shall pay a fee for the oversight of a final remedial action of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for a small site, twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for a medium site, forty thousand dollars ($40,000) for a large site, and one hundred six thousand dollars ($106,000) for an extra-large site.

(j) A potentially responsible party shall pay a fee per year for oversight and monitoring of ongoing operation and maintenance activities of six thousand dollars ($6,000) for a small operation and maintenance activity, twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) for a medium operation and maintenance activity, twenty-four thousand dollars ($24,000) for a large operation and maintenance activity, and thirty-four thousand dollars ($34,000) for an extra-large operation and maintenance activity.

(k) (1) Fees for any oversight activity being performed on July 1, 1989, or any subsequent date, shall be assessed pursuant to this section and Section 25347.7, even if the activity began prior to July 1, 1989. If the activity began prior to July 1, 1989, the fees shall be payable within 60 days after the effective date of the act adding this section. This section shall not apply to activities for which work has been completed prior to July 1, 1989.

(2) If there is a conflict between this subdivision and Section 25347.7 and the provisions of any agreement entered into pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 25355.5 prior to the effective date of the act adding this section, the agreement shall prevail, unless the agreement is modified as allowed by its terms or by mutual consent of all parties.

(3) Any order or agreement entered into for removal or remedial action may be modified by consent of all parties to assess the fees listed in this section in place of any provisions for charges or cost recovery contained in the order of agreement.

(l) Notwithstanding this section, a potentially responsible party shall pay the State Board of Equalization a fee equal to the actual costs of the department's costs of oversight, in advance of the oversight for removal or remedial activities which is done, pursuant to an agreement, if the site is not listed pursuant to Section 25356, except the potentially responsible party is not required to pay for the costs of any activities necessary and incidental to entering the agreement, which shall be reimbursed pursuant to the agreement.

(m) (1) The department may reclassify a site as to size, as warranted by new information supplied by the department, but this reclassification shall not result in a change in the amount of fees for oversight of any activity which has been completed or is underway.

(2) If a site may be classified as two sizes pursuant to Sections 25313.5, 25317.5, 25318, and 25326.6, it shall be classified as the larger of those sizes.

(n) Notwithstanding this section, the department may waive the fees imposed by this section for any hazardous substance release site owned and operated by an agency of the federal government, if the department has entered into an agreement with that agency for the payment of fees in an amount different from the amounts specified in this section.

(o) A fee assessed pursuant to this section is a necessary cost of a removal or remedial action, and any person who pays this fee may seek contribution or indemnity from any person who is a responsible party for the removal or remedial action or other action for which the fee is assessed. The Hazardous Substance Cleanup Arbitration Panel may apportion liability for fees to be assessed, or which have been assessed and paid, pursuant to this section, pursuant to Section 25356.2.

An act to amend Sections 1501.5 and 3460 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to wildlife, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1501.5 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

1501.5. (a) The department may enter into contracts for fish and wildlife habitat preservation, restoration, and enhancement with public and private entities whenever the department finds that the contracts will assist in meeting the department's duty to preserve, protect, and restore fish and wildlife.

(b) The department may grant funds for fish and wildlife habitat preservation, restoration, and enhancement to public agencies, Indian tribes, and nonprofit entities whenever the department finds that the grants will assist it in meeting its duty to preserve, protect, and restore fish and wildlife.

(c) Contracts authorized under this section are contracts for services and are governed by Article 4 (commencing with Section 10335) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code. No work under this section is public work or a public improvement, and is not subject to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1720) of Part 7 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(d) This section does not apply to contracts for any of the following:

(1) Construction of office, storage, garage, or maintenance buildings.

(2) Drilling wells and installation of pumping equipment.

(3) Construction of permanent hatchery facilities, including raceways, water systems, and bird exclosures.

(4) Construction of permanent surfaced roadways and bridges.

(5) Any project requiring engineered design or certification by a registered engineer.

(6) Any contract, except contracts with public agencies, nonprofit organizations, or Indian tribes that exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in cost, excluding the cost for gravel, for fish and wildlife habitat preservation, restoration, and enhancement for any one of the following:

(A) Fish screens, weirs, and ladders.

(B) Drainage or other watershed improvements.

(C) Gravel and rock removal or placement.

(D) Irrigation and water distribution systems.

(E) Earthwork and grading.

(F) Fencing.

(G) Planting trees or other habitat vegetation.

(H) Construction of temporary storage buildings.

SEC. 2. Section 3460 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

3460. (a) Subject to appropriation pursuant to Section 3467, the director may enter into contracts with nonpublic entities which are owners of record, or with lessees, who have the owners of record execute the contract, of land determined by the director to be important for the conservation of waterfowl. The contract shall enforceably restrict the use of the land for the conservation of waterfowl and their habitat consistent with Section 8 of Article XIII of the California Constitution.

(b) The director shall give priority to contracts that have the greatest potential for restoring, enhancing, and protecting high quality waterfowl habitat, especially that which is subject to destruction, drastic modification, or significant curtailment of habitat values.

(c) Contracts entered into pursuant to this section are not subject to Part 2 (commencing with Section 10100) of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.

CHAPTER 1426

An act to add Section 13108.9 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to fire protection.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13108.9 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

13108.9. The State Fire Marshal shall adopt regulations to require a public address system with an emergency backup power system for all buildings or structures constructed on or after July 1, 1991, which are intended for public assemblies of 10,000 or more persons.

The State Fire Marshal shall adopt regulations to require any existing building or structure intended for public assemblies of 10,000 or more persons which, on or after January 1, 1991, has or subsequently installs a public address system, to have an emergency backup power system for the public address system.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 5091, 5362, and 5363 of the Education Code, to amend Sections 1007, 17113, 22843.5, 23511, 23530.5, and 24002 of the Elections Code, and to amend Section 71180 of the Government Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5091 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5091. (a) Whenever a vacancy occurs, or whenever a resignation has been filed with the county superintendent of schools containing a deferred effective date, the school district or community college district governing board shall, within 60 days of the vacancy or the filing of the deferred resignation, either order an election or make a provisional appointment to fill the vacancy. A governing board member may not defer the effective date of his or her resignation for more than 60 days after he or she files the resignation with the county superintendent of schools.

In the event that a governing board fails to make a provisional appointment or order an election within the prescribed 60-day period as required by this section, the county superintendent of schools shall call an election to fill the vacancy.

(b) When an election is ordered, it shall be held on the next regular election date provided pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 2500) of Division 4 of the Elections Code not less than 130 days after the occurrence of the vacancy or after the written resignation is filed with the county superintendent of schools.

(c) If a provisional appointment is made within the 60-day period, the registered voters of the district may, within 30 days from the date of the appointment, petition for the conduct of a special election to fill the vacancy. A petition shall be deemed to bear a sufficient number of signatures if signed by at least the number of registered voters of the district equal to 1½ percent of the number of registered voters of the district at the time of the last regular election for governing board members, or 25 registered voters, whichever is greater.

The petition shall be submitted to the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction who shall have 30 days to verify the signatures. If the petition is determined to be legally sufficient by the county superintendent of schools, the provisional appointment is terminated, and the county superintendent of schools shall call a special election to be conducted no later than the 120th day after the determination. However, if a regular election date, as defined in Section 2500 of the Elections Code, occurs between the 120th day and the 150th day following the determination, the county superintendent of schools may call the special election to be conducted on the regular election date.

(d) A provisional appointment made pursuant to subdivision (a) confers all powers and duties of a governing board member upon the appointee immediately following his or her appointment.

(e) A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold office only until the next regularly scheduled election for district governing board members, whereupon an election shall be held to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term. A person elected at an election to fill the vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the term in which the vacancy occurs or will occur.

(f) Whenever a petition calling for a special election is circulated, the petition shall meet all of the following requirements:

(1) The petition shall contain the clerk's estimate of the cost of conducting the special election.

(2) The name and residence address of at least one, but not more than five, of the proponents of the petition shall appear on the petition, each of which proponents shall be a registered voter of the school district or community college district, as applicable.

(3) None of the text or other language of the petition shall appear in less than six-point type.

(4) The petition shall be prepared and circulated in conformity with the requirements of Sections 41 and 44 of the Elections Code.

If any of the requirements of this subdivision are not met as to any petition calling for a special election, the county superintendent of schools shall not verify the signatures, nor shall any further action be taken with respect to the petition.

No person shall permit the list of names on petitions prescribed by this section to be used for any purpose other than qualification of the petition for the purpose of holding an election pursuant to this section.

The petition filed with the county superintendent of schools shall be subject to the restrictions in Section 6253.5 of the Government Code.

(g) Elections held pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c) shall be conducted in as nearly the same manner as practicable as other governing board member elections.

SEC. 2. Section 5362 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5362. As an alternative to publication by newspaper pursuant to Section 5363, publication of formal notice may be effected pursuant to this section. Not later than 90 days prior to the date of any school district or community college district election, the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction shall cause to be posted the formal notice of the election in public view at all of the following:

(a) Every schoolhouse in the territory, district or districts in which the election is to be held.

(b) At three public places in the territory, district or districts.

SEC. 2.5. Section 5363 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5363. (a) Except where the procedure prescribed by Section 5362 is utilized, the elections official responsible for the conduct of a governing board member election shall cause formal notice of the election to be published pursuant to Section 23511 of the Elections Code.

(b) Except where the procedure prescribed by Section 5362 is utilized, the election official responsible for the conduct of a ballot measure election shall cause the formal notice of the election to be published pursuant to Section 2554 of the Elections Code.

SEC. 3. Section 1007 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

1007. (a) Upon receipt of any absentee ballot application signed by the voter, which arrives within the proper time, the elections official should determine if the signature and residence address on the ballot application appear to be the same as that on the original affidavit of registration. The official may make this signature check upon receiving the voted ballot, but the signature must be compared before the absent voter ballot is canvassed.

(b) If the official deems the applicant entitled to an absent voter's ballot he or she shall deliver by mail or in person the appropriate ballot. The ballot may be delivered to the applicant, his or her spouse, or his or her parent if the applicant is unmarried. The clerk shall deliver the absentee ballot to the applicant's spouse or parent only if the spouse or parent signs a statement attested to under penalty of perjury that provides the name of the applicant, his or her relationship to the applicant, and affirms that he or she is authorized by the applicant to deliver the absentee ballot.

(c) If the official determines that an application does not contain all of the information prescribed in Section 1002 or 1006, or for any other reason is defective, and the election official is able to ascertain the voter's address, the official shall, within one working day of receiving the application, mail the voter an absent voter's ballot together with a notice. The notice shall inform the voter that the voter's absent voter's ballot shall not be counted unless the applicant provides the official with the missing information or corrects the defects prior to, or at the time of, receipt of the voter's executed absent voter's ballot. The notice shall specifically inform the voter of the information that is required or the reason for the defects in the application, and shall state the procedure necessary to remedy the defective application.

If the voter substantially complies with the requirements contained in the official's notice, the voter's ballot shall be counted.

In determining from the records of registration if the signature and residence address on the application appear to be the same as that on the original affidavit of registration, the clerk or registrar of voters may use the duplicate file of affidavits of registered voters or the facsimiles of voter's signatures, provided that the method of preparing and displaying the facsimiles complies with law.

SEC. 4. Section 17113 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

17113. Whenever a candidate whose name appears upon the ballot at any election dies after the 68th day before the election, the votes cast for the deceased candidate shall be counted in determining the results of the election for the office for which the decedent was a candidate. If the deceased candidate receives a majority of the votes cast for the office, he or she shall be considered elected and the office to which he or she was elected shall be vacant at the beginning of the term for which he or she was elected. The vacancy thus created shall be filled in the same manner as if the candidate had died subsequent to taking office for that term.

SEC. 4.5. Section 22843.5 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

22843.5. (a) If, by 5 p.m. on the 63rd day prior to the day fixed for a regularly scheduled municipal election, (i) no one or only one person has been nominated for any office which is elected on a citywide basis, or (ii) no one or only one person is nominated to be elected from or by a legislative district, or (iii) in the case of any office or offices to be elected at large, the number of persons who have been nominated for those offices does not exceed the number to be filled at that election, the city clerk shall submit a certificate of these facts to the governing body of the city and inform the governing body of the city that it may, at a regular or special meeting held before the municipal election, adopt one of the following courses of action:

(1) Appoint to the office the person who has been nominated.

(2) Appoint to the office any eligible elector if no one has been nominated.

(3) Hold the election if either no one or only one person has been nominated. The city clerk shall publish a notice of the facts described in this section and the courses of action available under this subdivision. Publication shall be made pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code in any newspaper of general circulation as designated by the clerk.

After the tenth day following the date of publication, the governing body of the city may make the appointment or direct an election to be held in the affected territory. The person appointed, if any, shall qualify and take office and serve exactly as if elected at a municipal election for the office.

If, by the 50th day before the municipal election, no person has been appointed to office pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2), the election shall be held.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply if, at the regularly scheduled municipal election, more than one person has been nominated to another city office to be elected on a citywide basis or, a city measure has qualified and is to be submitted to the voters at that municipal election.

(c) Notwithstanding Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 7300) of Division 6 or any other provision of the law to the contrary, if the governing body of a city makes an appointment pursuant to subdivision (a), the clerk shall not accept for filing any statement of write-in candidacy which is submitted after the appointment is made.

In the event that an appointment to office is made in a particular legislative district pursuant to subdivision (a), that appointment shall not affect the conduct of the municipal election in other legislative districts of the city.

SEC. 5. Section 23511 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

23511. (a) At least 90 days, and not more than 120 days, before the day fixed for the general district election the elections official of the principal county shall publish a notice of the election once in a newspaper of general circulation published in the district or, if no such newspaper is published in the district, in a newspaper having general circulation in the district published in any affected county in the district. The notice shall contain the date of the general district election, name the offices for which candidates may file, and state the qualifications required by the principal act for each office. The notice shall state the location where official declarations of candidacy for eligible candidates desiring to file for any of the elective offices may be obtained, the office in which completed declarations of candidacy are required to be filed, and the date and time after which no declarations of candidacy may be accepted for filing. The notice shall state that appointment to each elective office will be made as prescribed by Section 23520 in the event there are no nominees or an insufficient number of nominees for the office and a petition for an election is not filed with the elections official within the time period prescribed by Section 23520.

(b) In addition to the requirements of subdivision (a), the county clerk shall, by a general press release, set forth all of the following:

(1) The elective offices of the district to be filled at the ensuing district election.

(2) A telephone number which voters of the district may utilize in order to obtain information regarding filing for the elective district office.

SEC. 6. Section 23530.5 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

23530.5. Whenever a candidate has filed a declaration of candidacy, and the candidate's declaration of candidacy has been certified as sufficient pursuant to Section 23512.12, the name of the candidate shall be printed upon the ballot unless the candidate has died and that fact has been ascertained by the officer charged with the duty of printing the ballots, at least 68 days before the day of the election.

SEC. 7. Section 24002 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

24002. The forms for declaration of candidacy for governing board elections shall be in substantially the following form:

"I, _____, do hereby declare myself as a candidate for election to the governing board of _____ District, of the County of _____; I am a registered voter; if elected I will qualify and serve to the best of my ability; and I request my name be placed on the official ballots of the district, for the election to be held on the _____ day of _____ 19__.

Residence address: _____"

In an election held under Section 5018 of the Education Code to elect additional governing board members all candidates for member of the governing board shall also indicate on their declaration of candidacy whether they are candidates for the existing office or for the new offices.

SEC. 8. Section 71180 of the Government Code is amended to read:

71180. (a) Any vacancy in the office of judge of a municipal court shall be filled by appointment by the Governor, but no vacancy shall be deemed to exist in any such office before the time fixed in Sections 71080, 71082, and 71083 for the selection of the judges of that court and the time fixed by law for their qualification. The appointee shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term of his or her predecessor and until his or her successor is elected and qualifies.

If the office to which any person so appointed was not previously occupied, he or she shall hold office until his or her successor is elected at the general state election next succeeding the occurrence of the vacancy and qualifies. No successor to the appointee shall be elected at any election held within 10 months of the date of the occurrence of the vacancy.

(b) If a vacancy in the office of judge of a municipal court occurs between the last day candidacy declaration papers may be filed and the June direct primary election and that vacancy occurs because of the appointment of the incumbent judge to another office by the Governor, or because the incumbent has resigned, retired, died, or been removed from office in accordance with subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 18 of Article VI of the California Constitution, and if one or more qualified persons other than the incumbent have filed candidacy declaration papers for the office, no vacancy shall be deemed to exist for purposes of subdivision (a) and the election for the office of judge shall be postponed until the next November statewide election.

If the Governor appoints the incumbent judge to another office within 68 days of the June direct primary election, and, as a result, the elections officer does not have sufficient time to remove the candidates' names from the ballot, the June direct primary election for the office shall not be deemed to have been held. At the next November statewide election, the candidate who receives the most votes shall be elected.

In order for a person's name to appear on the ballot at the next November statewide election the person shall file candidacy declaration papers and nomination papers in accordance with Article 4 (commencing with Section 6489) of Chapter 5 of Division 6 of the Elections Code. No previously filed papers shall satisfy the requirements of this subdivision. Qualified persons who did not file nomination papers for the June direct primary election, as well as qualified persons who filed nomination papers for the June direct primary election, shall be permitted to file candidacy papers for the November statewide election.

Persons who had previously paid the filing fee at the time of filing nomination papers for the June direct primary election shall not be required to pay a filing fee for the November statewide election.

SEC. 9. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 63.6, 71.4, 76.3, 76.7, 776, 777, and 786 of, and to repeal Section 76.9 of, the Harbors and Navigation Code, relating to vessels.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 63.6 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

63.6. (a) (1) On or before the 15th day of January of each odd-numbered year, the director shall make a report to the commission, the Legislature, and the Governor covering the operations of the department for the preceding biennium.

(2) With respect to Article 5 (commencing with Section 76), the report shall include all of the following:

(A) The total amount of loans made in each of the three fiscal years immediately preceding the preparation and submission of the report.

(B) For each recipient of a loan during each of the three fiscal years immediately preceding the preparation and submission of the report, the recipient's name, the location of the marina for which the loan was made, and the amount of the loan.

(C) The financial status of each loan.

(D) Any legislative recommendations.

(3) The report shall also include the status of the department's activities related to the monitoring of rates pursuant to Section 71.4, and subdivision (d) of Section 76.7.

(b) The department shall also make such special reports as are requested by the Secretary of the Resources Agency or the Governor.

SEC. 2. Section 71.4 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

71.4. (a) The department, subject to the approval of the Legislature in accordance with Section 85.2, may make loans to cities, counties, or districts having power to acquire, construct, and operate small craft harbors, for the planning, acquisition, construction, improvement, maintenance, or operation of small craft harbors and facilities in connection therewith, and connecting waterways, if the department finds that the project is feasible.

(b) The department shall establish, by rules and regulations, policies and standards to be followed in making loans pursuant to this section so as to further the proper development and maintenance of a statewide system of small craft harbors and connecting waterways. Any rules and regulations may include policies and standards for restrooms, vessel pumpout facilities, oil recycling facilities, and receptacles for the purpose of separating, reusing, or recycling all solid waste materials.

(c) Any such loan shall be repaid as provided in Section 70.

(d) Rates to be charged for the use of the boating facilities shall be established by the city, county, or district, subject to the approval of the department, in every loan contract. The department shall concern itself with the rates charged only as prescribed in Section 71.8. The rates set shall be based on a monthly berthing charge.

The department shall monitor these rates to ensure that the berthing charges are reasonable and not exorbitant.

(e) The department shall submit any project for which it recommends any loan be made to the Governor for inclusion in the Budget Bill.

SEC. 3. Section 76.3 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

76.3. (a) The department may make loans to private marina owners for construction costs, not including planning, design, and other similar expenses, to develop a recreational marina. Loan funds from the department may be utilized for berthing facilities, dredging, parking, public access facilities, restrooms, vessel pumpout facilities, oil recycling facilities, utilities, landscaping, receptacles for the purpose of separating, reusing, or recycling all solid waste materials, and other incidental boating-related amenities.

(b) No loan made by the department to a private marina owner shall exceed 25 percent of the funds annually budgeted for purposes of this article.

(c) The department shall not make a loan to a recreational marina that restricts access or bars the public other than what is consistent with general commercial business practices.

(d) Any private marina owner who purchases facilities previously developed with a department loan is eligible to apply for a new construction loan from the department.

SEC. 3.5. Section 76 3 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

76.3. (a) The department may make loans to private marina owners for construction costs, not including planning, design, and other similar expenses, to develop a recreational marina. Loan funds from the department may be utilized for berthing facilities, dredging, parking, public access facilities, restrooms, vessel pumpout facilities, oil recycling facilities, utilities, landscaping, receptacles for the purpose of separating, reusing, or recycling all solid waste materials, and other incidental boating-related amenities.

(b) No loan made by the department to a private marina owner shall exceed 50 percent of the funds annually budgeted for purposes of this article.

(c) The department shall not make a loan to a recreational marina that restricts access or bars the public other than what is consistent with general commercial business practices.

(d) Any private marina owner who purchases facilities previously developed with a department loan is eligible to apply for a new construction loan from the department.

SEC. 4. Section 76.7 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

76.7. (a) All loans made by the department to private marina owners shall be funded from the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund.

(b) All loans, including those loans previously made under Section 35300 of the Financial Code, shall be repaid by private marina owners to the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund.

(c) Private marina owners receiving loans made by the department shall not charge unreasonably high boat berthing fees.

(d) The department shall monitor the berthing fees of the private marina owners receiving department loans to ensure that these rates are reasonable and not exorbitant.

SEC. 5. Section 76.9 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 776 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

776. (a) Every vessel terminal shall, as required by the regional board for the protection of the quality of the waters of this state, be equipped with vessel pumpout facilities for the transfer and disposal of sewage from marine sanitation devices. In imposing this requirement, the regional board shall take into account the number and type of vessels that use or are berthed at the vessel terminal and whether there exists at other locations pumpout facilities that have a total capacity sufficient for, and are convenient and accessible to, vessels that use or are berthed at the vessel terminal. In addition, the regional board may require any vessel pumpout facility to be equipped with a meter for the purpose of measuring use of the facility. All pumpout facilities installed after the operative date of the statute adding this section shall be equipped with a meter.

(b) This section does not apply to the following:

(1) Small craft launching facilities.

(2) Dockage adjacent to and serving private residences in areas where vessel pumpout facilities are conveniently available to vessels so docked, as determined by the regional board.

(3) Other types of facilities designated by the regional board after consulting with the department.

(c) Any violation of this section is a misdemeanor. In addition, any violation of this section is subject to any remedy provided for in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 13300) of Division 7 of the Water Code.

SEC. 7. Section 777 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

777. (a) Vessel pumpout facilities for the transfer and disposal of sewage from marine sanitation devices, floating restrooms, and onshore toilets shall be operated and maintained in a manner that will prevent the discharge of any sewage to the waters of the state and shall be maintained in good working order and regularly cleaned.

(b) Every vessel pumpout facility shall have a notice posted on the facility identifying the local enforcement agency where a violation of subdivision (a) may be reported.

(c) Any violation of this section is a misdemeanor. In addition, any violation of this section is subject to any remedy provided for in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 13300) of Division 7 of the Water Code.

SEC. 8. Section 786 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

786. (a) Any loan made pursuant to Section 71.4 or 76.3, and any lease or concession contract entered into pursuant to Section 72, shall be subject to the express condition that the borrower comply with all applicable requirements of this chapter.

(b) Any loan made pursuant to Section 71.4 or 76.3 for, respectively, a project or a recreational marina that is required, pursuant to Section 776, to provide vessel pumpout facilities shall be subject to the following express conditions:

(1) The pumpout facility shall be opened to public use within six months of receiving any funds, or when any part of the project is opened to public use, whichever is later, unless the department determines that the facility cannot be opened to public use within this period due to circumstances beyond the control of the borrower.

(2) The borrower shall agree to budget funds each year for the maintenance and operation of the pumpout facility for its expected life.

(3) The location of the pumpout facility shall be publicized, by any convenient means available, and shall be marked with a distinctive and prominent sign that is readily identifiable from offshore locations.

(4) Charges imposed for the use of the pumpout facility shall not, in the aggregate, exceed the cost of maintaining and operating the pumpout facility and a pro rata share of the amount necessary for repayment of the loan.

(5) The portion of the loan equal to the cost of the pumpout facility shall become immediately due, if the borrower does not perform any requirement imposed pursuant to this subdivision.

(c) Any lessee or concessionaire that is required, pursuant to Section 776, to provide vessel pumpout facilities, shall be required through the lease or concession contract to comply with requirements that are not less restrictive than the requirements imposed by paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, of subdivision (b).

(d) Any loan made pursuant to Section 71.4 or 76.3, and any concession contract entered into pursuant to Section 72, shall be subject to the express condition that restrooms be opened to public use within six months of the date the project is opened to public use, unless the department determines that the facility cannot be opened to public use within this period due to circumstances beyond the control of the borrower.

SEC. 9. Section 3.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 76.3 of the Harbors and Navigation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3005. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1991, (2) each bill amends Section 76.3 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3005, in which case Section 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 10. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Section 14021.4 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that:

(a) Persons with serious and persistent mental illness suffer from psychiatric disabilities which require long-term treatment, support, and rehabilitation.

(b) Two hundred and sixty thousand to five hundred and eighty thousand California citizens suffer from serious and persistent mental illness.

(c) The California public mental health system must address, to the maximum extent possible, the mental health treatment needs of this disabled population with appropriate services which include long-term treatment, support, and rehabilitation.

SEC. 2. Section 14021.4 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14021.4. (a) The State Department of Mental Health shall prepare by January 15, 1991, amendments to California's plan for federal Medi-Cal grants for medical assistance programs, pursuant to Subchapter XIX (commencing with Section 1396) of Title 42 of the United States Code, to accomplish the following objectives:

(1) Expansion of the location and type of therapeutic services offered to the mentally ill under Medi-Cal by the category of "other diagnostic, screening, preventative, and rehabilitative services" which is available to states under the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1396d(a)(13); 42 C.F.R. 440.130).

(2) Expansion of federal financial participation in the costs of community mental health services provided by local Short-Doyle community mental health programs or under contract to local Short-Doyle community mental health programs.

(3) Expansion of the location where reimbursable Short-Doyle Medi-Cal mental health services can be provided, including home, school, and community based sites.

(4) Expansion of federal financial participation for services which meet the rehabilitation needs of severely mentally ill consumers, including, but not limited to, medication management, functional rehabilitation assessments of clients, and rehabilitative services which include remedial services directed at restoration to the highest possible functional level for persons with psychiatric disabilities and maximum reduction of symptoms of mental illness.

(5) Improvement of fiscal systems and accountability structures for Short-Doyle Medi-Cal and Short-Doyle costs and rates, with the goal of achieving federal fiscal requirements.

(b) This Short-Doyle Medi-Cal state plan revision shall be completed with review and comments by the California Conference of Local Mental Health Directors and other appropriate groups. The addition of the rehabilitative option shall be limited to Short-Doyle providers certified to provide Medi-Cal under this option.

(c) The State Department of Health Services shall review the state plan revision for medicaid services as recommended by the State Department of Mental Health. If the state plan amendment satisfies published federal requirements for these amendments and if the State Department of Health Services has approved and submitted to the Health Care Financing Administration a plan of correction for audit issues identified for the Short-Doyle Medi-Cal program, then the department shall promptly pursue federal adoption of the state plan revision. If the State Department of Health Services does not recommend adoption of the revision, it shall report on the financial and programmatic implications of the proposal and the reasons for the rejection to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee by July 1, 1991.

(d) The state and local funds required to match federal financial participation shall include, but not be limited to, Short-Doyle and county matching funds. Additional General Fund moneys for this purpose shall be subject to appropriation in the annual Budget Act.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature that the rehabilitation option of the state medicaid plan be implemented to expand and provide flexibility to treatment services and to increase the federal participation without increasing the costs to the General Fund.

(f) It is the intent of the Legislature that addition of the rehabilitation option as a Short-Doyle Medi-Cal benefit shall become operative only after the Health Care Financing Administration has reviewed and approved the state plan revision submitted by the State Department of Health Services, a plan of correction approved by the department for audit issues identified for the Short-Doyle Medi-Cal program has been submitted, and the requirements of this section have been fully satisfied.

(g) If the Medi-Cal state plan revision required by this section is approved by the State Department of Health Services, and submitted for federal approval, the State Department of Mental Health shall review and revise the quality assurance standards and guidelines required by Article 5 (commencing with Section 4070) of Chapter 2 of Division 4 to meet the necessary standards to assure that quality services are delivered to the eligible population. This review shall include, but not be limited to, appropriate use of mental health professionals, including psychiatrists, in the treatment and rehabilitation of clients under this model. The existing quality assurance standards and guidelines shall remain in effect until the adoption of the new quality assurance standards and guidelines.

An act to amend Sections 55 and 3571 of the Elections Code, and to amend Section 88002 of the Government Code, relating to elections, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 55 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

55. The Secretary of State is the chief elections officer of the state, and has the powers and duties specified in Section 12172.5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 2. Section 3571 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

3571. The ballot pamphlet shall contain as to each state measure to be voted upon, the following in the order set forth in this section:

(a) Upon the top portion of the first page and not exceeding one-third of the page shall appear:

(1) The identification of the measure by number and title.

(2) The official summary prepared by the Attorney General.

(3) The total number of votes cast for and against the measure in both the State Senate and Assembly if the measure was passed by the Legislature.

(d) If no argument against the measure has been submitted, the argument for the measure shall appear on the right page facing the analysis.

(e) The complete text of each measure shall appear at the back of the pamphlet. The text of the measure shall contain the provisions of the proposed measure and the existing provisions of law repealed or revised by the measure. The provisions of the proposed measure differing from the existing provisions of law affected shall be distinguished in print, so as to facilitate comparison.

SEC. 3. Section 88002 of the Government Code is amended to read:

88002. The ballot pamphlet shall contain as to each state measure to be voted upon, the following in the order set forth in this section:

(a) Upon the top portion of the first page and not exceeding one-third of the page shall appear:

(1) The identification of the measure by number and title.

(2) The official summary prepared by the Attorney General.

(3) The total number of votes cast for and against the measure in both the State Senate and Assembly if the measure was passed by the Legislature.

(d) If no argument against the measure has been submitted, the argument for the measure shall appear on the right page facing the analysis.

(e) The complete text of each measure shall appear at the back of the pamphlet. The text of the measure shall contain the provisions of the proposed measure and the existing provisions of law repealed or revised by the measure. The provisions of the proposed measure differing from the existing provisions of law affected shall be distinguished in print, so as to facilitate comparison.

(f) The following statement shall be printed at the bottom of each page where arguments appear: "Arguments printed on this page are the opinions of the authors and have not been checked for accuracy by any official agency."

SEC. 4. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the changes proposed by this act concerning the procedure for the printing of the statewide ballot pamphlet be in effect in time for the November 6, 1990, general election, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

An act to amend Sections 17314.3, 17323, 17332, 17333, 17336, 17348, and 17423 of the Financial Code, relating to escrow agents.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17314.3 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17314.3. (a) A deductible shall apply to each loss suffered by a member in the amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000), plus 5 percent of the amount by which the loss exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000). If a member with more than one licensed location suffers a covered loss at more than one location, the deductible shall apply to each location separately in proportion to the amount of the loss suffered at each such licensed location.

(b) Fidelity Corporation shall pay the full amount of any member's loss to the member or the member's successor in interest. The member shall be obligated to pay to Fidelity Corporation the amount of the member's deductible after payment in full of the loss by Fidelity Corporation.

(c) In the event a license is surrendered, suspended, or revoked prior to payment in full by the member of all or any portion of the deductible, the member shall nevertheless be liable to Fidelity Corporation for the amount of the deductible. If the license of the member is surrendered, suspended, or revoked prior to payment in full of the deductible, Fidelity Corporation shall have priority over all other claimants, except the State of California and any conservator or receiver of the member's estate, against the assets of the licensee, including the bond required under Section 17202.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to give any person or entity not (1) a member of Fidelity Corporation, or (2) a successor in interest of a member, or (3) the commissioner any right of action or any right to make a claim directly against Fidelity Corporation, its officers, directors, agents, or employees. Fidelity Corporation shall be entitled to recover its reasonable costs and attorney's fees as an item of costs, as provided for in paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 1033.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, in defending any claim made directly against Fidelity Corporation, not authorized in this division.

(e) If a member fails to pay the deductible within the time set forth in the bylaws of Fidelity Corporation, Fidelity Corporation may bring an action at law or in equity against the member to recover the amount of the deductible. Fidelity Corporation shall recover its reasonable costs and attorney's fees as an item of costs, as provided for in paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 1033.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, provided, that the payment of the costs and attorney's fees will not cause the member to be in violation of Section 17202, 17202.1, or 17210.

SEC. 2. Section 17323 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17323. (a) In the event any member fails to pay an assessment when due, Fidelity Corporation shall by written demand addressed to the member request the payment of the assessment within 30 days of the demand letter. If the member fails to pay an assessment, the commissioner may issue an order pursuant to subdivision (b).

(b) If a member fails to pay the assessment, or any applicable late fee, the commissioner may by order summarily suspend the license issued to the company. If after the order is made, a request for a hearing is filed in writing and a hearing is not held within 60 days thereafter, the order is deemed rescinded as of its effective date. During any period when its license is suspended, a company shall not conduct business pursuant to this division, except as may be permitted by order of the commissioner. However, the suspension of a license shall not affect the powers of the commissioner as provided in this division.

(c) Fidelity Corporation may bring an action at law or in equity against the member to recover any assessment or fees.

(d) Fidelity Corporation may be awarded costs and reasonable attorney's fees, if it prevails in any action against a member, or against a third party, except the commissioner, to enforce a claim against the bond or other security posted by the member pursuant to Section 17202, or in any action against a member pursuant to subdivision (c). Those costs and attorney's fees may be awarded as an item of costs, as provided for in paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 1033.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, provided that the payment of the costs and attorney's fees will not cause the member to be in violation of Section 17202, 17202.1, or 17210.

SEC. 3. Section 17332 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17332. When either Fidelity Corporation or the insurer providing the fidelity bond or insurance policy, if any, under Section 17310, or both, pay an obligation on behalf of a member, Fidelity Corporation and the insurer shall be subrogated to the rights, claims, and remedies of the member up to the amount paid by Fidelity Corporation and the insurer on behalf of the member. In any subrogation action filed by Fidelity Corporation, the provider of the fidelity bond or insurance policy if payment was made thereunder, or both, Fidelity Corporation shall have the first right to the proceeds of any judgment or settlement obtained against the subrogees, up to the amount actually paid on the claim by Fidelity Corporation, plus reasonable costs and attorney's fees which may be awarded either as part of any judgment or as an item of costs, as provided for in paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 1033.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, provided that the payment of the costs and attorney's fees will not cause the member to be in violation of Section 17202, 17202.1, or 17210. Amounts recouped by Fidelity Corporation through subrogation, minus all costs, attorney's fees, and other administrative expenses incurred in obtaining that recovery, shall be credited to the fidelity fund.

SEC. 4. Section 17333 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17333. The commissioner may forthwith upon written notice and order take possession of the property and business of Fidelity Corporation and retain possession until Fidelity Corporation satisfies the commissioner that it will operate in conformity with this chapter whenever it appears to the commissioner that Fidelity Corporation has done any of the following:

(a) Violated its articles of incorporation or any law of this state.

(b) Invested its funds in violation of Section 17337.

(c) Not levied assessments as required by Sections 17320, 17321 and 17321.1.

(d) Has not diligently prosecuted an action pursuant to Section 17323.

(e) Violated any section of this chapter.

(f) Neglected or refused to submit its books, papers, and affairs to the inspection of the commissioner.

During the time the commissioner has possession the commissioner shall perform the duties and carry out the obligations of Fidelity Corporation.

SEC. 5. Section 17336 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17336. (a) Fidelity Corporation shall have independent authority to investigate claims filed by members pursuant to Section 17330.

(b) Fidelity Corporation, upon submitting written notice to the commissioner, may conduct an examination or investigation of the business practices of a member's handling and processing of trust obligations or the failure to pay an assessment under Section 17320, 17321, or 17321.1. The result of every investigation or examination shall be reported to the commissioner together with the recommendations of the Board of Directors of Fidelity Corporation.

(c) Fidelity Corporation may submit reports and make recommendations to a member on its findings as a result of an examination or investigation conducted pursuant to this section. These reports and recommendations shall not be public documents. A copy of all reports and recommendations shall be furnished to the commissioner by Fidelity Corporation. There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against, Fidelity Corporation or its members, directors, officers, employees, stockholders, or agents or the commissioner or commissioner's authorized representatives for any statements made by them in any reports or recommendations made hereunder.

(d) Fidelity Corporation, upon the request of the commissioner, may participate in an examination or investigation of the books and records of a member. There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against, the State of California, the commissioner, or members of the commissioner's staff or the commissioner's authorized representative for the release of any information furnished to Fidelity Corporation pursuant to this subdivision.

(e) With the written consent of a majority of its directors, Fidelity Corporation, in order to fulfill its obligations under this section, may appoint an independent certified public accountant or public accountant or hire or appoint a specialized committee or employees to conduct an examination or investigation authorized by this section. Any reports as a result thereof shall be furnished to the commissioner pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (c).

(f) For the purposes of conducting an examination or investigation, Fidelity Corporation or its appointee shall have free access to the offices and places of business, books, accounts, bank account records and statements, papers, records, files, safes and vaults of the member.

(g) Fidelity Corporation may cause an examination or audit of the places of business, books, accounts, bank account records, papers, records, files, safes and vaults of a member to be conducted in accordance with Fidelity Corporation's bylaws and rules.

(h) Costs and expenses for the examination or investigation conducted pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be paid to the Fidelity Corporation by the licensee, its shareholders, directors, and officers, or person examined, each of whom shall be jointly and severally liable therefor. The Fidelity Corporation may maintain an action for recovery of these costs in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall recover its reasonable costs and attorney's fees as an item of costs as provided for in paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 1033.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, provided that the payment of the costs and attorney's fees will not cause the member to be in violation of Section 17202, 17202.1, or 17210.

(i) Fidelity Corporation, any member of Fidelity Corporation, an agent of Fidelity Corporation or of its members, or any person who uses any information obtained under this section for any purpose not authorized herein is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(j) Fidelity Corporation may cause an examination or audit of a member, to be conducted in accordance with Fidelity Corporation's Bylaws and Rules, whenever:

(1) The member has failed to pay an assessment as provided for under Section 17320, 17321, or 17321.1.

(2) Fidelity Corporation has received any information of irregular or improper handling of the trust obligations of the member or of an occurrence which may give rise to a claim for loss of trust obligations.

(3) Fidelity Corporation so elects, either with or without notice.

(k) Costs and expenses for any examination under this section shall be paid for by the member. Fidelity Corporation shall also be entitled to recover costs and expenses for any examination under this section from those persons, if any, who are discovered to be responsible for, or to have caused, any irregular or improper handling of trust obligations of the member or any occurrence which may give rise to a claim for loss of trust obligations, or otherwise by failure to cooperate, unnecessarily increase the cost of the examination. Fidelity Corporation may maintain an action for recovery of these examination costs and expenses in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall recover its reasonable costs and attorney's fees as an item of costs, as provided for in paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 1033.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, provided that the payment of the costs and attorney's fees will not cause the member to be in violation of Section 17202, 17202.1, or 17210.

SEC. 6. Section 17348 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17348. In order to permit Fidelity Corporation to fulfill its obligation under this chapter, the commissioner shall furnish a list of all persons licensed under this division as of December 31 of each year and a copy of an escrow liability schedule filed with the commissioner. Each member on or before February 15 shall furnish to the commissioner and Fidelity Corporation the schedule of its escrow liability for each of its licensed locations as of the last day of each month for the preceding 12 months which ended December 31. The schedule shall be in the form and contain such information as the commissioner may require.

SEC. 7. Section 17423 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

17423. (a) The commissioner may, after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing, by order, censure or suspend for a period not exceeding 12 months, or bar from any position of employment, management, or control any escrow agent, or any other person, if the commissioner finds either of the following:

(1) That the censure, suspension, or bar is in the public interest and that the person has committed or caused a violation of this division or rule or order of the commissioner, which violation was either known or should have been known by the person committing or causing it or has caused material damage to the escrow agent or to the public.

(2) That the person has been convicted of, or pleaded nolo contendere to, a crime, or has been held liable in a civil action by final judgment, if the crime or civil action involved fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, or misappropriation of property.

(b) Upon receipt of a notice of intention to issue an order pursuant to this section, the person who is the subject of the proposed order is immediately prohibited from disbursing any trust funds in the escrow agent's possession, custody or control, and the financial institution holding trust funds shall be so notified by service of the notice, accusation and other administrative pleadings. The prohibition against disbursement of trust funds may be set aside, in whole or in part, by the commissioner for good cause.

(c) Fidelity Corporation shall disclose to all licensees the identity of persons who have been censured, suspended, or barred from any position of employment, management, or control.

CHAPTER 1432

An act to amend Sections 44060 and 44380 of, to repeal Section 44383 of, and to add Section 44003.1 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44003.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44003.1. (a) Notwithstanding Section 44003.5 or subdivision (a) of Section 44003, the state board shall request the Bureau of Automotive Repair to implement the motor vehicle inspection program in every district that has been designated nonattainment for the state ambient ozone or carbon monoxide standard unless one or more of the following is true:

(1) The program has already been implemented in the district.

(2) The district's nonattainment problem is predominantly caused by transport as determined by the state board pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 39610.

(3) The state board determines that implementation of the motor vehicle inspection program will neither resolve nor mitigate nonattainment.

(b) The area of the district to be included in the program shall be specified by the state board.

(c) This section does not apply to the Lake Tahoe Air Basin as defined by the state board pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 39606.

SEC. 2. Section 44060 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44060. (a) The department shall prescribe the form of the certificate of compliance or noncompliance. The department shall charge a fee to licensed smog check stations for the issuance by the department to the stations of certificate of compliance or noncompliance forms. The fee charged shall be calculated to allow funding of the department and any other state agency directly involved in the implementation of the motor vehicle inspection program, and shall not exceed the amount reasonably necessary to fund the operation of the program, including all responsibilities, requirements, and obligations imposed upon the department or any of those state agencies by this chapter, which are not otherwise recoverable by license fees pursuant to Section 44034. Except for adjustments to reflect changes in the Consumer Price Index, as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, the fee for each certificate of compliance or noncompliance shall not exceed seven dollars ($7). It is the intent of the Legislature that a prudent surplus be maintained in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund. If the surplus exceeds reasonable costs of administration of the programs specified in this chapter and in Chapter 20.3 (commencing with Section 9880) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, the department shall, by regulation, prescribe a lower fee for the certificate of compliance or noncompliance.

(b) The sale or transfer of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance by a licensed smog check station to any other licensed smog check station or any other person, and the purchase or acquisition of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance by any person, other than from the department, the department's designee, or pursuant to a vehicle inspection or repair conducted pursuant to this chapter, is prohibited.

(c) The fee charged by licensed stations to consumers for a certificate of compliance or a certificate of noncompliance shall be the same amount charged by the department.

SEC. 3. Section 44380 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44380. (a) On or before August 1, 1991, the state board shall adopt a regulation (1) requiring each district to adopt a fee schedule which recovers the costs of the district and assesses a fee upon the operator of every facility subject to this part and (2) setting forth the amount of revenue which the district must collect to recover the reasonable anticipated cost which will be incurred by the state board and the department to implement and administer this part. A district may request the state board to adopt a fee schedule for the district if the district's program costs are approved by the district board and transmitted to the state board by April 1 of the year in which the request is made. Commencing August 1, 1992, and annually thereafter, the state board shall review and may amend the fee regulation.

(b) The district shall notify each person who is subject to the fee of the obligation to pay the fee. If a person fails to pay the fee within 60 days after receipt of this notice, the district, unless otherwise provided by district rules, shall require the person to pay an additional administrative civil penalty. The district shall fix the penalty at not more than 100 percent of the assessed fee, but in an amount sufficient in its determination, to pay the district's additional expenses incurred by the person's noncompliance. If a person fails to pay the fee within 120 days after receipt of this notice, the district may initiate permit revocation proceedings. If any permit is revoked, it shall be reinstated only upon full payment of the overdue fee plus any late penalty, and a reinstatement fee to cover administrative costs of reinstating the permit.

(c) Each district shall collect the fees assessed pursuant to subdivision (a). After deducting the costs to the district to implement and administer this part, the district shall transmit the remainder to the Controller for deposit in the Air Toxics Inventory and Assessment Account, which is hereby created in the General Fund. The money in the account is available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to the state board and the department for the purposes of administering this part.

SEC. 4. Section 44383 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 9887.1, 9887.2, 9888.1, 9888.2, 9888.3, 9888.4, 9889.15, and 9889.19 of, to amend the headings of Article 6 (commencing with Section 9888.1) and Article 8 (commencing with Section 9889.15) of Chapter 20.3 of Division 3 of, and to repeal Sections 9889.17 and 9889.18 of, the Business and Professions Code, to amend Sections 43000.5, 44002, 44011.6, 44012, 44020, 44021, 44051, 44051.5, 44053, and 44060 of, and to add Sections 44003.1 and 44015.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 27159 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9887.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9887.1. The director shall have the authority to issue licenses for official lamp and brake adjusting stations and shall license lamp and brake adjusters. The licenses shall be issued in accordance with this chapter and regulations adopted by the director pursuant thereto. The director shall establish by regulation the terms of adjusters' licenses as are necessary for the practical administration of the provisions relating to adjusters, but those terms shall not be for less than one nor more than four years. Licenses may be renewed upon application and payment of the renewal fees if the application for renewal is made within the 30-day period prior to the date of expiration. Persons whose licenses have expired shall immediately cease the activity requiring a license, but the director shall accept applications for renewal during the 30-day period following the date of expiration if they are accompanied by a new license fee. In no case shall a license be renewed where the application is received more than 30 days after the date of expiration.

SEC. 2. Section 9887.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9887.2. Each application for a new or renewal license shall be accompanied by a fee of ten dollars ($10) for a new license or five dollars ($5) for a renewal license. The application shall be made upon a form furnished by the director. It shall contain such information concerning the applicant's background and experience as the director may prescribe, in addition to other information required by law. No license as a lamp or brake adjuster shall be issued or renewed unless the applicant has demonstrated his or her experience and qualifications in accordance with such standards and examinations as the director may prescribe.

SEC. 3. The heading of Article 6 (commencing with Section 9888.1) of Chapter 20.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

Article 6. Lamp and Brake Adjusting Stations

SEC. 4. Section 9888.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9888.1. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Station" means a lamp adjusting station or a brake adjusting station.

(b) "Licensed station" means a station licensed by the bureau pursuant to this chapter.

(c) "Licensed adjuster" means a person licensed by the bureau for adjusting lamps in licensed lamp adjusting stations or for adjusting brakes in licensed brake adjusting stations.

SEC. 5. Section 9888.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9888.2. The director shall adopt regulations which prescribe the equipment and other qualifications of any station as a condition to licensing the station as an official station for adjusting lamps or brakes and shall prescribe the qualifications of adjusters employed therein.

After consulting with the Department of the California Highway Patrol, the director may, by regulation, approve testing and calibrating equipment, which is capable of measuring or calibrating the standards imposed by statute and by rules and regulations, for use in official stations, and may approve the testing laboratories and the equipment they use to certify the performance of testing and calibrating equipment.

SEC. 6. Section 9888.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9888.3. No person shall operate an "official" lamp or brake adjusting station unless a license therefor has been issued by the director. No person shall issue, or cause or permit to be issued, any certificate purporting to be an official lamp adjustment certificate unless he or she is a licensed lamp adjuster or an official brake adjustment certificate unless he or she is a licensed brake adjuster.

SEC. 7. Section 9888.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9888.4. An owner of a fleet of three or more vehicles who is not an interstate carrier may be licensed by the director as a licensed station, if the owner complies with the rules and regulations of the bureau. Those fleet owner stations shall not certify the adjustment of lamps or brakes except on vehicles which constitute the owner's fleet.

SEC. 8. The heading of Article 8 (commencing with Section 9889.15) of Chapter 20.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

Article 8. Lamp and Brake Adjustment Certificates

SEC. 9. Section 9889.15 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9889.15. As used in this article , "station," "licensed station," and "licensed adjuster" have the same meaning as defined in Article 6 (commencing with Section 9888.1).

SEC. 10. Section 9889.17 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 9889.19 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9889.19. The director may charge a fee for lamp and brake adjustment certificates furnished to licensed stations. The fee charged shall be established by regulation and shall not produce a total estimated revenue which, together with license fees or certification fees charged pursuant to Sections 9886.3, 9887.2, and 9887.3, is in excess of the estimated total cost to the bureau of the administration of this chapter. The fee charged by licensed stations for lamp and brake adjustment certificates shall be the same amount the director charges.

SEC. 13. Section 43000.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

43000.5. The Legislature further finds and declares:

(a) That despite the significant reductions in vehicle emissions which have been achieved in recent years, continued growth in population and vehicle miles traveled throughout California have the potential not only to prevent attainment of the state standards, but in some cases, to result in worsening of air quality.

(b) That the attainment and maintenance of the state air quality standards will necessitate the achievement of substantial reductions in new vehicle emissions and substantial improvements in the durability of vehicle emissions systems.

(c) That the burden for achieving needed reductions in vehicle emissions should be distributed equitably among various classes of vehicles, including both on- and off-road vehicles, light-duty cars and trucks, and heavy-duty vehicles, to accomplish improvements in both the emissions level and in-use performance and durability of all new motor vehicles.

(d) That the state board should take immediate action to implement both short- and long-range programs of across-the-board reductions in vehicle emissions and smoke, including smoke from heavy-duty diesel vehicles, which can be relied upon by the districts in the preparation of their attainment plans or plan revisions pursuant to Sections 40911, 40902, and 40925.

(e) That in order to attain the state and federal standards as expeditiously and equitably as possible, it is necessary for the authority of the state board to be clarified and expanded with respect to the control of motor vehicles and motor vehicle fuels.

SEC. 14. Section 44002 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44002. The department shall have the sole and exclusive authority within the state for developing and implementing the motor vehicle inspection program in accordance with this chapter.

For the purposes of administration and enforcement of this chapter, the department, and the director and officers and employees thereof, shall have all the powers and authority granted under Division 1 (commencing with Section 1) and Division 1.5 (commencing with Section 475) and Chapter 20.3 (commencing with Section 9880) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code and under Chapter 33 (commencing with Section 3300) of Title 16 of the California Code of Regulations. Inspections and repairs performed pursuant to this chapter, in addition to meeting the specific requirements imposed by this chapter, shall also comply with all requirements imposed pursuant to Division 1 (commencing with Section 1) and Division 1.5 (commencing with Section 475) and Chapter 20.3 (commencing with Section 9880) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code and Chapter 33 (commencing with Section 3300) of Title 16 of the California Code of Regulations.

SEC. 15. Section 44003.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44003.1. Notwithstanding Section 44003.5 or subdivision (a) of Section 44003, immediately after January 1, 1991, the state board shall request the Bureau of Automotive Repair to implement the motor vehicle inspection program in every district that has been designated nonattainment for the state ambient ozone or carbon monoxide standard unless one or more of the following is true:

(a) The program is being implemented in the district.

(b) The district's nonattainment problem is predominantly caused by transport as determined by the state board pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 39610 and the state board determines that the implementation of the motor vehicle inspection program will neither resolve nor mitigate that problem.

The area of the district to be included in the program shall be specified by the state board, after consultation with the district.

This section does not apply to the Lake Tahoe Air Basin as defined by the state board pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 39606.

SEC. 16. Section 44011.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44011.6. (a) As expeditiously as possible, the state board shall develop a test procedure for the detection of excessive smoke emissions from heavy-duty diesel motor vehicles that is feasible for use in an intermittent roadside inspection program. During the development of the test procedure, the state board shall cooperate with the Department of the California Highway Patrol in conducting roadside inspections. The state board may also specify visual or functional inspection procedures to determine the presence of tampering or defective emissions control systems in heavy-duty diesel or heavy-duty gasoline motor vehicles. The chairperson of the state board shall appoint an ad hoc advisory committee which shall include, but not be limited to, representatives of heavy-duty engine manufacturers, carriers of property for compensation using heavy-duty gasoline or diesel motor vehicles, and the Department of the California Highway Patrol. The advisory committee shall cooperate with the state board to develop a test procedure pursuant to this subdivision and shall advise the state board in developing regulations to implement test procedures and inspection of heavy-duty commercial motor vehicles.

(b) The state board shall, by regulation, prohibit the use of heavy-duty motor vehicles which are determined to have excessive smoke emissions or other emissions-related defects, using the test procedure established pursuant to subdivision (a). However, visual or functional inspection procedures for heavy-duty gasoline vehicles shall not be more stringent than those prescribed by the department for heavy-duty gasoline vehicles subject to biennial inspection pursuant to Section 44013. The state board may issue a citation to the owner or operator for any vehicle in violation of regulations adopted under this subdivision. These regulations may require the operator of a vehicle to submit to a test procedure adopted pursuant to subdivision (a), may specify that refusal to so submit is a violation of the regulations, and shall require that, when a citation has been issued, the owner of a vehicle in violation of the regulations shall immediately correct every deficiency specified in the citation.

(c) The department may develop criteria for one or more classes of smog check stations capable of determining compliance with regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) and may authorize those stations to issue certificates of compliance to vehicles in compliance with the regulations. The department may contract for the operation of smog check stations for heavy-duty vehicles pursuant to this subdivision, and only heavy-duty vehicles may be inspected at these stations.

(d) In addition to the corrective action required by subdivision (b), the owner of a motor vehicle in violation of the regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) is subject to a civil penalty of not more than one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) per day for each day that the vehicle is in violation. The state board may adopt a schedule of reduced civil penalties to be applied in cases where violations are corrected in an expeditious manner. The schedule of reduced civil penalties shall not, however, apply where there have been repeated incidents of emissions control system tampering. All civil penalties imposed pursuant to this subdivision shall be collected by the state board and deposited in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund. Funds in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund shall, when appropriated by the Legislature, be available to the state board and the Department of the California Highway Patrol for the conduct of intermittent roadside inspections of heavy-duty vehicles pursuant to this section.

(e) Following the adoption of regulations pursuant to subdivision (b), the state board and the Department of the California Highway Patrol shall commence inspecting heavy-duty motor vehicles. With the concurrence of the Department of the California Highway Patrol, these inspections may be conducted in conjunction with the safety and weight enforcement activities of the Department of the California Highway Patrol or at other locations selected by the state board or the Department of the California Highway Patrol. Inspection locations may include private facilities where fleet vehicles are serviced or maintained. The state board and the Department of the California Highway Patrol may conduct these inspections either cooperatively or independently, and the state board may contract for assistance in the conduct of these inspections.

(f) The state board shall inform the Department of the California Highway Patrol whenever a vehicle owner cited pursuant to subdivision (b) fails to take a required corrective action or to pay a civil penalty levied pursuant to subdivisions (d) and (h) in a timely manner. Following notice and opportunity for an administrative hearing pursuant to subdivision (i), the state board may request the Department of the California Highway Patrol to remove the vehicle from service and order the vehicle stored. Upon notification from the state board of payment of any civil penalties imposed under subdivision (d) and storage and related charges, the vehicle shall be released to the owner or designee. Upon release of the vehicle, the owner or designee shall correct every deficiency specified in any citation to that owner with respect to the vehicle.

(g) The state board, in consultation with the Department of the California Highway Patrol, shall, within two years of the adoption of regulations pursuant to subdivision (b), prepare and submit to the Legislature a report on the smoke emissions enforcement program conducted under this section, including, but not limited to, its assessment of the effectiveness of the program, the impact of the program on the operations of the Department of the California Highway Patrol, and its recommendations for changes in, alternatives to, or termination of, the program.

(h) In addition to the corrective action required by subdivision (b), and in addition to the civil penalty imposed by subdivision (d), the owner of a motor vehicle cited by the state board pursuant to subdivision (b) shall pay a penalty of three hundred dollars ($300) per citation; except that this penalty shall not apply to the first citation for any schoolbus. All civil penalties imposed pursuant to this subdivision shall be collected by the state board and deposited in the Diesel Emission Reduction Fund, which fund is hereby created. Funds in the Diesel Emission Reduction Fund shall, when appropriated by the Legislature, be available to the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission for research, development, and demonstration programs undertaken pursuant to Section 24617 of the Public Resources Code.

(i) The state board shall adopt regulations that afford an owner cited under subdivision (b) an opportunity for an administrative hearing. Any owner cited under subdivision (b) may request an administrative hearing within 30 days following either personal receipt or certified mail receipt of the citation. If the owner fails to request an administrative hearing within 30 days, the citation shall be deemed a final order and not subject to review by any court or agency. If the owner requests an administrative hearing and fails to seek review by administrative mandamus pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure within 60 days after the mailing of the administrative hearing decision, the decision shall be deemed a final order and not subject to review by any other court or agency. The 30-day period may be extended by the administrative hearing officer for good cause.

(j) Following exhaustion of the review procedures provided for in subdivision (i), the state board may apply to the Superior Court of Sacramento County for a judgment in the amount of the civil penalty. The application, which shall include a certified copy of the final order of the administrative hearing officer, shall constitute a sufficient showing to warrant the issuance of the judgment.

SEC. 17. Section 44012 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44012. The test at the smog check stations shall be performed in accordance with procedures prescribed by the department pursuant to Section 44013 and shall include all of the following:

(a) A determination that emission control devices and systems required by state and federal law are installed and functioning correctly in accordance with the test procedure adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 44013.

(b) A preconditioning of the motor vehicle to ensure representative and stabilized operation of the vehicle's emission control system.

(c) For other than diesel-powered vehicles, a test of the vehicle's exhaust emissions of hydrocarbons, carbon monoxide, and carbon dioxide in an idle mode or loaded mode in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the department. Testing for oxides of nitrogen emissions shall be included if the district has requested testing for oxides of nitrogen and the department has implemented a testing program pursuant to Section 44003.

(d) For diesel-powered vehicles when the department determines that the inclusion of those vehicles is technologically and economically feasible, a test of the vehicle's exhaust emissions in an idle mode or loaded mode in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the department. The test may include testing of emissions of any or all of the pollutants specified in subdivision (c) and, upon the adoption of applicable standards, measurement of emissions of smoke or particulates, or both.

(e) A determination as to whether the motor vehicle complies with the emission standards for that vehicle's class and model-year as prescribed by the department.

SEC. 18. Section 44015.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44015.5. (a) A certificate of compliance shall not be issued to any new motor vehicle or motor vehicle with a new motor vehicle engine which is not certified by the state board, and which is the subject of a transaction prohibited by Section 43152 or 43153.

(b) With respect to a new motor vehicle or motor vehicle with a new motor vehicle engine not certified by the state board which is in violation of Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 43150) of Chapter 2, but which is not the subject of a transaction prohibited by Section 43152 or 43153, a certificate of noncompliance shall be issued. The certificate of noncompliance shall indicate the basis for nonconformity and the data shall be sent to the state board.

SEC. 19. Section 44020 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44020. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the department may license any owner of a fleet of 15 or more motor vehicles subject to this chapter, who so elects, to implement and conduct the tests and to perform necessary service and adjustment on the fleet's vehicles under this chapter, subject to all of the following conditions:

(a) The owner's facilities or personnel, or both, or a designated contractor of the owner, shall be licensed by the department as a fleet smog check station, and the test and repair system shall conform, in the department's determination, with all provisions of this chapter and all rules and regulations adopted by the department. The regulations shall provide for adequate onsite inspection by the department.

(b) A license issued under this section is subject to Sections 44035 and 44050 and may be suspended or revoked by the department whenever the department determines, on the basis of random spot checks of the owner's inspection system and fleet vehicles, that the system fails to conform or that certificates of compliance have been issued by the owner in violation of regulations adopted by the department. Any person licensed to conduct tests and service and adjustments under this section is deemed to have consented to provide the department with whatever access, information, and other cooperation the department reasonably determines are necessary to facilitate the random spot checks.

(c) A fleet owner licensed to conduct tests or make repairs pursuant to this chapter shall issue certificates of compliance for motor vehicles which comply with the requirements of this chapter. The cost limitations in Section 44017 shall not apply to any motor vehicle owned by a fleet owner licensed pursuant to this section.

(d) The department shall establish initial and renewal license fees, which shall not exceed the reasonable costs of administering this section.

SEC. 20. Section 44021 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44021. (a) The department shall conduct ongoing cost benefit analyses and other evaluations of the motor vehicle inspection program, including, but not limited to, observed patterns of malfunctions in inspected motor vehicles' emissions control systems, inquiries from the public regarding emissions system warranties, inspection and repair costs, the failure rate after repairs, and recommendations for legislation to improve the inspection program.

The department shall prepare and submit an annual report to the Legislature on the analyses and evaluations of the program. The department shall conduct at least one public hearing prior to submitting each report and shall include pertinent information which it receives from the public hearing in that report.

Commencing in 1989, and every year thereafter, the department shall include the following information in its annual report:

(1) A narrative description of what actions have been taken by the department, since the last report, to implement recommendations contained in the reports of the review committee submitted pursuant to subdivision (b). The description shall indentify the funds expended to implement the recommendations, the sources of those funds, and how those funds and sources have changed since the department's last report.

(2) A quantitative assessment of the impact of these actions, since the last report, on all of the following:

(A) The waiver rate.

(B) The percentage of all inspections performed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 44012 which were incorrectly or incompletely performed.

(C) The percentage of repairs to emission control devices and systems which were incorrectly or incompletely performed.

(D) The percentage of enforcement investigations which result in issuance of a citation or imposition of any other penalty.

(3) An identification and assessment of whether any additional actions or funds are required to achieve any specific performance or emission reduction objectives identified in the review committee report.

The department shall provide the review committee and the state board an opportunity to comment on the draft annual report prepared under this subdivision, and any written comments of the state board or the review committee shall be included in the final report submitted to the Legislature.

(b) The department shall conduct a review of the effect of exempting vehicles which, within 90 days prior to a change of ownership, passed a biennial smog inspection. The review shall include the evaluation of the emission reductions. Where appropriate, based upon the findings, the department may exempt these vehicles from the requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 4000.1 of the Vehicle Code.

(c) A review committee is hereby created to analyze the effect of the program on motor vehicle emissions and air quality. The review committee shall consist of a representative from the state board and a representative from each of the districts in which the motor vehicle inspection program has been implemented.

(1) The committee shall elect one of its members as its chairperson. The members of the committee shall receive no compensation, but shall be reimbursed by the department for their actual and necessary expenses in performing committee duties. The state board and the department shall provide the committee the necessary technical and clerical support in its evaluation of program effectiveness.

(2) The committee shall schedule and conduct periodic meetings in the performance of its duties, and shall meet and consult with local, state, and federal officials involved in the evaluation of motor vehicle inspection and maintenance programs.

(d) The committee shall conduct at least one public hearing prior to submitting its report to the Legislature and shall include pertinent information which it receives from the public hearings in its report. The first report shall be submitted not later than 36 months following the implementation of the program. Thereafter, the committee shall submit periodic written reports to the Legislature on the program at least every 24 months. The committee's reports shall quantify the reduction in emissions and improvement in air quality attributed to the program.

(e) In those areas where testing for oxides of nitrogen emissions has not been implemented, the committee shall determine whether the average emissions of hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide from inspected vehicles is at least 25 percent less than the average of those emissions without the program.

(f) In those areas where testing for oxides of nitrogen emissions has been implemented, the committee shall determine whether the average emissions from inspected motor vehicles is at least 40 percent less for hydrocarbons, at least 25 percent less for carbon monoxide, and at least 20 percent less for oxides of nitrogen, than the average of those emissions without the program. If the committee determines that the average percentage reduction in emissions from inspected motor vehicles is less than the percentages specified in subdivision (e) or (f), as the case may be, the report shall include specific recommendations for improving the emissions reduction effectiveness and administration of the program. Where possible, specific recommendations shall include quantitative performance objectives which the committee has determined are reasonably achievable and which are based on the program's achieving the maximum emissions reduction. The department shall take all feasible actions to implement the committee's recommendations as expeditiously as practical.

SEC. 20.5. Section 44051 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44051. The civil penalty for a violation of the specified provisions of this chapter is as follows:

Section	Short Description of Violation	Civil Penalty Minimum	Civil Penalty Maximum
44002	Smog check estimates and invoices	$ 50	$ 500
44012	No emission control system inspection, no emissions test, or inspection test procedures	250	1,500
44014	Unlicensed smog check station	250	1,500
44015	Failure to issue certificate signed by licensed inspector	150	1,000
44016	Failure to follow established repair procedures	150	1,000
44017	Cost limitation requirement	150	1,000
44031.5	Test/repair by unlicensed smog check station or nonqualified smog check mechanic, or licensed inspector required	250	1,500
44032	Qualified smog check mechanic required	250	500
44033	Smog check station requirement, test on condition of mandatory repair waiver, written estimate requirements	250	1,500

44036	Smog check station certified equipment requirement	150	1,500
44060	Sale, transfer, or purchase of certificate and certificate charges	250	1,500

SEC. 21. Section 44051.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44051.5. The civil penalty for a violation of the specified sections of Title 16 of the California Code of Regulations is as follows:

	Short Description	Civil Penalty
Section	of Violation	Minimum	Maximum
3340.10	Unlicensed operation of smog check station	$250	$1,500
3340.15	Smog check station general requirements	100	500
3340.16	Smog check station equipment and testing procedures	150	1,000
3340.16.5	Smog check station equipment and testing procedures	150	1,000
3340.17	Smog check station equipment maintenance and calibration	150	1,000
3340.22	Smog check station sign requirement	100	500

3340.30	Qualified mechanic's training and certification requirement	100	500
3340.35	Certification of compliance and noncompliance requirement	250	1,500
3340.37	NOx device/sticker requirement	100	500
3340.41	Inspection/test/repair requirement	150	1,000

3340.41.3	Invoice requirements	100	500
3340.42	Inspection standards, test procedures, and exhaust emissions requirement	100	500
3340.45	Cost limitation requirement	100	500

SEC. 22. Section 44053 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44053. (a) Any person issued a citation pursuant to Section 44050 may request a hearing in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. A request for a hearing shall be submitted in writing within 30 days of service of the citation, and shall be delivered to the office of the department in Sacramento. Hearings and related procedures under this section shall be conducted in the same manner as proceedings for adjudication of an accusation under that Chapter 5, except as otherwise specified in this article.

(b) If, within 30 days from service of the citation, the licensee or fleet owner licensed pursuant to Section 44020 or qualified mechanic fails to request a hearing, the citation shall be deemed the final order of the department.

SEC. 23. Section 44060 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44060. (a) The department shall prescribe the form of the certificate of compliance or noncompliance. The department shall charge a fee to licensed smog check stations for the issuance by the department to the stations of certificate of compliance or noncompliance forms. The fee charged shall be calculated to allow funding of the department and any other state agency directly involved in the implementation of the motor vehicle inspection program, and shall not exceed the amount reasonably necessary to fund the operation of the program, including all responsibilities, requirements, and obligations imposed upon the department or any of those state agencies by this chapter, which are not otherwise recoverable by license fees pursuant to Section 44034. Except for adjustments to reflect changes in the Consumer Price Index, as published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, the fee for each certificate of compliance or noncompliance shall not exceed seven dollars ($7). It is the intent of the Legislature that a prudent surplus be maintained in the Vehicle Inspection and Repair Fund. If the surplus exceeds reasonable costs of administration of the programs specified in this chapter and in Chapter 20.3 (commencing with Section 9880) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, the department shall, by regulation, prescribe a lower fee for the certificate of compliance or noncompliance.

(b) The sale or transfer of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance by a licensed smog check station to any other licensed smog check station or any other person, and the purchase or acquisition of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance by any person, other than from the department, the department's designee, or pursuant to a vehicle inspection or repair conducted pursuant to this chapter, is prohibited.

(c) The fee charged by licensed stations to consumers for a certificate of compliance or a certificate of noncompliance shall be the same amount charged by the department.

SEC. 24. Section 27159 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

27159. Any uniformed member of the California Highway Patrol may order a vehicle stored when it is located within the territorial limits in which the member may act if requested by a representative of the State Air Resources Board to remove the vehicle from service pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 44011.6 of the Health and Safety Code. All towing and storage fees for a vehicle removed under this section shall be paid by the owner.

CHAPTER 1434

An act to repeal and add Section 5703 of the Government Code, relating to public bonds.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5703 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 5703 is added to the Government Code, to read:

5703. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), the Treasurer, in exercising the duties of agent for offering and selling bonds, whose duties include, among others, establishing the timing of a sale, preparation or approval of the documentation for the sale, sole authority to select the underwriters for negotiating the sale, and executing the bond purchase agreement on behalf of the state or the state's agencies, is responsible for developing and implementing a competitive process for selection of underwriters for negotiated offerings of bonds. The competitive process may be conducted on a issue-by-issue basis or to establish one or more pools of underwriters for various types of issues. The competitive process shall have at least all of the following features:

(1) Solicitation of written qualifications from at least 20 underwriting firms.

(2) Consideration of the goals for minority and women business enterprise participation in professional bond services contracts.

(3) The written submissions shall be available for inspection at the office of the Treasurer for a period of at least six months.

(4) If a pool of underwriters is established, the competitive process shall be repeated at least every 24 months to reestablish the pool of underwriters.

(b) For negotiated offerings of bonds by state financing authorities which act as conduits to provide financing to other public, nonprofit, or private organizations, the Treasurer shall use the competitive process described in subdivision (a) to establish one or more pools of underwriters for each financing authority. The Treasurer may make additions to a pool without competitive solicitation, on a case-by-case determination upon the recommendation of a project applicant, where the Treasurer finds that the underwriter to be added has provided significant services to the project applicant with the expectation of compensation for those services from underwriting the revenue bonds which will fund the applicant's project.

(c) The Treasurer may select underwriters for a negotiated sale of bonds by means other than as described in subdivision (a) if the Treasurer makes a written finding that extraordinary market conditions do not allow enough time to comply with subdivision (a) without risking financial detriment to the state.

(d) Subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) shall not apply to the issuance of state bonds for which the Treasurer is precluded by statute from selecting underwriters.

(e) For negotiated sales, the Treasurer shall maintain records of all cost information pertinent to the initial offering of all state bonds, except that in the case of bonds issued by a state financing authority, as described in subdivision (b), the issuing state financing authority shall instead be responsible for maintaining the same cost information on bonds it has issued. The information shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) All amounts paid out of bond proceeds to the underwriter, detailed by management fee, takedown, risk, and underwriter's expenses.

(2) All costs paid out of bond proceeds to rating agencies for rating of the bonds.

(3) All fees paid out of bond proceeds to bond counsels, trustees, or financial advisors relating to the initial offering of the bonds.

(4) The interest rate to be paid on the bonds.

(f) For competitive sales, the Treasurer shall maintain records of all bids submitted and the documentation of bid verifications including the terms of sale and the calculation of net interest cost or true interest cost.

(g) The Auditor General shall audit the cost records required to be maintained pursuant to subdivision (e) and conduct a review of the records required to be maintained pursuant to subdivision (f).

(h) The Auditor General shall report whether this section is being fully implemented. The Auditor General shall make cost and interest rate comparisons with similar initial bond offerings of other states where possible. The Auditor General shall submit a report to the Legislature on March 1, 1993, and March 1, 1995, for bonds sold during the two calendar years immediately preceding the year in which the report is due.

CHAPTER 1435

An act to add Article 2 (commencing with Section 13100) to Chapter 2 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, relating to capital outlay planning.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 2 (commencing with Section 13100) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 2. Capital and Infrastructure Project Planning

13100. The Director of Finance shall prepare a report projecting the state's potential need for the financing of major capital outlay projects and infrastructure projects for the period January 1, 1991, through December 31, 2000, inclusive. This report shall be updated annually so that it projects the state's potential need for the 10-year period beyond January 1 of the year in which the updated report is due.

13101. The report and updates required by Section 13100 shall identify the proposed funding sources for all projects by general obligation bonds, revenue bonds, lease purchase, installment purchase, and other means.

13102. All state agencies shall cooperate with the Director of Finance in preparing and providing information necessary for this report and updates.

13103. The report shall be submitted to the Governor, the Treasurer, the Senate Appropriations Committee, the Senate Budget and Fiscal Review Committee, the Assembly Ways and Means Committee, and the Joint Legislative Budget Committee by February 1, 1991, and the updates by February 1 of each year thereafter, for their use in planning and policymaking for the state.

13104. It is the intent of the Legislature that the report and updates required by this article be used to plan for the state's long-term financing needs in a manner which will protect the financial integrity of the state.

An act to add Sections 18041.5 and 24955 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is not going to renew contracts with certain owners of low-income housing.

(b) This HUD action will result in thousands of low-income California residents becoming homeless.

It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature to provide incentives for HUD contractors to not evict the low-income tenants. These incentives shall include contractor benefits which encourage tenant assumption of ownership of the housing complex.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature to exempt owners from local site development standards that are not for the purpose of health and safety, when the owner converts the property to condominium interests and sells 50 percent or more of the units to existing lower income residents. It is also the intent of the Legislature to place before the voters a constitutional amendment to authorize low-income and very low income tenants who purchase their residence, to defer the portion of the property tax assessment attributable to the increased assessed value until the property is sold by the low-income owner.

SEC. 3. Section 18041.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18041.5. (a) No gain shall be recognized with respect to a sale of an assisted housing development to a tenant association, nonprofit organization, profit-motivated organization or individual, or public agency which obligates itself and any successors in interest to maintain the assisted housing development affordable to persons or families of lower income or very low income for either a period of 30 years from the date of sale or the remaining term of existing federal government assistance as listed in subdivision (a) of Section 65863.10 of the Government Code, whichever is greater, provided that all of the proceeds from the sale are reinvested in residential real property, other than a personal residence, in this state within two years after the sale. This obligation shall be recorded at the time of sale in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the development is located.

(b) No gain shall be recognized with respect to a sale of a majority or more of units in an assisted housing development converted to condominium interests, to a tenant association, nonprofit organization, profit-motivated organization or individual, or public agency which obligates itself and any successors in interest to maintain the condominiums affordable to persons or families of lower income or very low income for either a period of 30 years from the date of sale or the remaining term of existing federal government assistance as listed in subdivision (a) of Section 65863.10 of the Government Code, provided that all of the proceeds from the sale are reinvested in residential real property, other than a personal residence, in this state within two years after the sale. This obligation shall be recorded at the time of sale in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the development is located.

(c) No gain shall be recognized with respect to a sale of real property to a majority or more of existing lower income and very low income residents of that property, provided that all of the proceeds from the sale are reinvested in residential real property, other than a personal residence, in this state within two years after the sale.

(d) No gain shall be recognized with respect to a sale of a majority or more of units converted to condominium interests to the existing lower income or very low income residents of that property, provided that all of the proceeds from the sale are reinvested in residential real property, other than a personal residence, in this state within two years after the sale.

(e) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Assisted housing development" means a multifamily rental housing development that receives federal government assistance, appearing of record and containing a legal description of the property, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 65863.10 of the Government Code.

(2) "Tenant association" means a group of tenants who have formed a nonprofit corporation, cooperative corporation, or other entity or organization; or a local nonprofit, regional, or national organization whose purpose includes the acquisition of an assisted housing development, real property, or condominium and which represents the interests of at least a majority of the tenants in the assisted housing development, real property, or condominium.

(3) "Nonprofit organization" means a not-for-profit corporation organized pursuant to Division 2 (commencing with Section 5000) of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, which has as its principal purpose the ownership, development, or management of housing or community development projects for persons and families of lower income and very low income, and which has a broadly representative board, a majority of whose members are community-based and has a proven track record of community service.

(4) "Public agency" means a housing authority, redevelopment agency, or any other agency of a city, county, or city and county, whether general law or chartered, which is authorized to own, develop, or manage housing or community development projects for persons and families of lower income and very low income.

(5) "Regional or national organization" means a not-for-profit, charitable corporation organized on a multicounty, state, or multistate basis which has as its principal purpose the ownership, development, or management of housing or community development projects for persons and families of lower income and very low income.

(6) "Regional or national agency" means a multicounty, state, or multistate agency which is authorized to own, develop, or manage housing or community development projects for persons and families of lower income and very low income.

(7) "Profit-motivated organization or individual" means an individual or two or more persons organized pursuant to Division 1 (commencing with Section 100) of Title 1 of, Division 3 (commencing with Section 1200) of Title 1 of, or Division 1 (commencing with Section 15001) of Title 2 of, the Corporations Code, which carries on as a business for profit.

(8) "Lower income" means those residents having an income as defined by Section 50079.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(9) "Very low income" means those residents having an income as defined by Section 50105 of the Health and Safety Code.

(10) "Resident" means a tenant or other person who lawfully occupies a unit located in a qualified low-income housing project as defined under Section 17058, and whose income qualifies as lower income or very low income.

(11) "Condominium" means the interest in real property defined in Section 783 of the Civil Code.

(f) If the purchase of residential real property results in the nonrecognition of gain on the sale of an assisted housing development, real property, or condominium under subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d), in determining the adjusted basis of the purchased residential real property as of any time following the sale of the assisted housing development, real property, or condominium, the adjustments to the basis shall include a reduction by an amount equal to the amount of the gain not so recognized on the sale of the assisted housing development, real property, or condominium. If more than one parcel of residential real property has been purchased, the nonrecognized gain from the sale of the assisted housing development, real property, or condominium shall be attributed to the parcels of residential real property on a pro rata basis based upon the purchase prices of those parcels.

(g) In accordance with subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d), if the sale of an assisted housing development, real property, or condominium results in a gain during the taxable year, then all of the following shall apply:

(1) The statutory period for the assessment of any deficiency attributable to any part of the gain shall not expire before the expiration of four years from the date the Franchise Tax Board is notified (on the form as the Franchise Tax Board may provide) of one of the following:

(A) The cost of purchasing the residential real property which satisfies the requirement of subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d), and results in the nonrecognition of gain.

(B) The intention not to reinvest all of the proceeds from the sale in residential real property within the period specified in subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d).

(C) The failure to reinvest all of the proceeds from the sale in residential real property within the period specified in subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d).

(2) The deficiency may be assessed before the expiration of the period specified in paragraph (1), notwithstanding the provisions of any other law or rule of law which would otherwise prevent the assessment.

(3) All information regarding the sale of an assisted housing development, real property, or condominium, at a gain in accordance with subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d), shall be disclosed in the return for the taxable year in which the sale took place in order to determine if the sale qualifies and the amount of nonrecognition of gain qualifies under subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d).

(h) The Department of Housing and Community Development shall do all of the following:

(1) Certify that the lower income or very low income resident meets the definitions provided in paragraphs (8) and (9) of subdivision (e).

(2) Provide an annual listing to the Franchise Tax Board, in a form and manner agreed upon by the Franchise Tax Board and the Department of Housing and Community Development, of the names and identification numbers of the persons who are members of the group of purchasers who are lower income or very low income residents that were issued a certification, and the names and identification numbers of the sellers of the property.

(3) Provide the group of purchasers who are lower income or very low income residents a copy of the certification.

(i) The group of purchasers who are lower income or very low income residents shall do all of the following:

(1) Provide the Department of Housing and Community Development with documents, as deemed necessary by the department, verifying the income of each member of the group.

(2) Provide a copy of the certification to the seller of the assisted housing development, real property, or condominium.

(3) Retain a copy of the certification.

(j) The seller of the assisted housing development, real property, or condominium shall do all of the following:

(1) Obtain a copy of the certification from the group of purchasers who are lower income or very low income residents of the assisted housing development, real property, or condominium.

(2) Retain a copy of the group's lower income or very low income certification for tax purposes.

SEC. 4. Section 24955 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24955. (a) No gain shall be recognized with respect to a sale of an assisted housing development to a tenant association, nonprofit organization, profit-motivated organization or individual, or public agency which obligates itself and any successors in interest to maintain the assisted housing development affordable to persons or families of lower income or very low income for either a period of 30 years from the date of sale or the remaining term of existing federal government assistance as listed in subdivision (a) of Section 65863.10 of the Government Code, whichever is greater, provided that all of the proceeds from the sale are reinvested in residential real property, other than a personal residence, in this state within two years after the sale. This obligation shall be recorded at the time of sale in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the development is located.

(b) No gain shall be recognized with respect to a sale of a majority or more of units in an assisted housing development converted to condominium interests, to a tenant association, nonprofit organization, profit-motivated organization or individual, or public agency which obligates itself and any successors in interest to maintain the condominiums affordable to persons or families of lower income or very low income for either a period of 30 years from the date of sale or the remaining term of existing federal government assistance as listed in subdivision (a) of Section 65863.10 of the Government Code, provided that all of the proceeds from the sale are reinvested in residential real property, other than a personal residence, in this state within two years after the sale. This obligation shall be recorded at the time of sale in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the development is located.

(c) No gain shall be recognized with respect to a sale of real property to a majority or more of existing lower income and very low income residents of that property, provided that all of the proceeds from the sale are reinvested in residential real property, other than a personal residence, in this state within two years after the sale.

(d) No gain shall be recognized with respect to a sale of a majority or more of units converted to condominium interests to the existing lower income or very low income residents of that property, provided that all of the proceeds from the sale are reinvested in residential real property, other than a personal residence, in this state within two years after the sale.

(e) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Assisted housing development" means a multifamily rental housing development that receives federal government assistance, appearing of record and containing a legal description of the property, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 65863.10 of the Government Code.

(2) "Tenant association" means a group of tenants who have formed a nonprofit corporation, cooperative corporation, or other entity or organization; or a local nonprofit, regional, or national organization whose purpose includes the acquisition of an assisted housing development, real property, or condominium and which represents the interests of at least a majority of the tenants in the assisted housing development, real property, or condominium.

(3) "Nonprofit organization" means a not-for-profit corporation organized pursuant to Division 2 (commencing with Section 5000) of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, which has as its principal purpose the ownership, development, or management of housing or community development projects for persons and families of lower income and very low income, and which has a broadly representative board, a majority of whose members are community-based and has a proven track record of community service.

(4) "Public agency" means a housing authority, redevelopment agency, or any other agency of a city, county, or city and county, whether general law or chartered, which is authorized to own, develop, or manage housing or community development projects for persons and families of lower income and very low income.

(5) "Regional or national organization" means a not-for-profit, charitable corporation organized on a multicounty, state, or multistate basis which has as its principal purpose the ownership, development, or management of housing or community development projects for persons and families of lower income and very low income.

(6) "Regional or national agency" means a multicounty, state, or multistate agency which is authorized to own, develop, or manage housing or community development projects for persons and families of lower income and very low income.

(7) "Profit-motivated organization or individual" means an individual or two or more persons organized pursuant to Division 1 (commencing with Section 100) of Title 1 of, Division 3 (commencing with Section 1200) of Title 1 of, or Division 1 (commencing with Section 15001) of Title 2 of, the Corporations Code, which carries on as a business for profit.

(8) "Lower income" means those residents having an income as defined by Section 50079.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(9) "Very low income" means those residents having an income as defined by Section 50105 of the Health and Safety Code.

(10) "Resident" means a tenant or other person who lawfully occupies a unit located in a qualified low-income housing project as defined under Section 23610.5, and whose income qualifies as lower income or very low income.

(11) "Condominium" means the interest in real property defined in Section 783 of the Civil Code.

(f) If the purchase of residential real property results in the nonrecognition of gain on the sale of an assisted housing development, real property, or condominium under subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d), in determining the adjusted basis of the purchased residential real property as of any time following the sale of the

assisted housing development, real property, or condominium, the adjustments to the basis shall include a reduction by an amount equal to the amount of the gain not so recognized on the sale of the assisted housing development, real property, or condominium. If more than one parcel of residential real property has been purchased, the nonrecognized gain from the sale of the assisted housing development, real property, or condominium shall be attributed to the parcels of residential real property on a pro rata basis based upon the purchase prices of those parcels.

(g) In accordance with subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d), if the sale of an assisted housing development, real property, or condominium results in a gain during the income year, then all of the following shall apply:

(1) The statutory period for the assessment of any deficiency attributable to any part of the gain shall not expire before the expiration of four years from the date the Franchise Tax Board is notified (on the form as the Franchise Tax Board may provide) of one of the following:

(A) The cost of purchasing the residential real property which satisfies the requirement of subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d), and results in the nonrecognition of gain.

(B) The intention not to reinvest all of the proceeds from the sale in residential real property within the period specified in subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d).

(C) The failure to reinvest all of the proceeds from the sale in residential real property within the period specified in subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d).

(2) The deficiency may be assessed before the expiration of the period specified in paragraph (1), notwithstanding the provisions of any other law or rule of law which would otherwise prevent the assessment.

(3) All information regarding the sale of an assisted housing development, real property, or condominium, at a gain in accordance with subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d), shall be disclosed in the return for the income year in which the sale took place in order to determine if the sale qualifies and the amount of nonrecognition of gain qualifies under subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d).

(h) The Department of Housing and Community Development shall do all of the following:

(1) Certify that the lower income or very low income resident meets the definitions provided in paragraphs (8) and (9) of subdivision (e).

(2) Provide an annual listing to the Franchise Tax Board, in a form and manner agreed upon by the Franchise Tax Board and the Department of Housing and Community Development, of the names and identification numbers of the persons who are members of the group of purchasers who are lower income or very low income residents that were issued a certification, and the names and identification numbers of the sellers of the property.

(3) Provide the group of purchasers who are lower income or very low income residents a copy of the certification.

(i) The group of purchasers who are lower income or very low income residents shall do all of the following:

(1) Provide the Department of Housing and Community Development with documents, as deemed necessary by the department, verifying the income of each member of the group.

(2) Provide a copy of the certification to the seller of the assisted housing development, real property, or condominium.

(3) Retain a copy of the certification.

(j) The seller of the assisted housing development, real property, or condominium shall do all of the following:

(1) Obtain a copy of the certification from the group of purchasers who are lower income or very low income residents of the assisted housing development, real property, or condominium.

(2) Retain a copy of the group's lower income or very low income certification for tax purposes.

SEC. 5. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1437

An act to add and repeal Section 65863.11 of the Government Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65863.11 is added to the Government Code, to read:

65863.11. (a) Terms used in this section shall be defined as follows:

(1) "Assisted housing development" and "development" mean a multifamily rental housing development as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 65863.10, which has a statement indicating that it is an assisted housing development contained in the legal description of the property recorded and indexed in the grantor-grantee index of the county in which the development is located.

(2) "Owner" means an individual, corporation, association, partnership, joint venture, or business entity which holds title to an assisted housing development.

(3) "Tenant" means a tenant, subtenant, lessee, sublessee, or other person legally in possession or occupying the assisted housing development.

(4) "Tenant association" means a group of tenants who have formed a nonprofit corporation, cooperative corporation, or other entity or organization, or a local nonprofit, regional, or national organization whose purpose includes the acquisition of an assisted housing development and which represents the interest of at least a majority of the tenants in the assisted housing development.

(5) "Low or moderate income" means having an income as defined in Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code.

(6) "Very low income" means having an income as defined in Section 50052.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(7) "Local nonprofit organizations" means not-for-profit corporations organized pursuant to Division 2 (commencing with Section 5000) of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, which have as their principal purpose the ownership, development, or management of housing or community development projects for persons and families of low or moderate income and very low income, and which have a broadly representative board, a majority of whose members are community-based and have a proven track record of local community service.

(8) "Local public agencies" means housing authorities, redevelopment agencies, or any other agency of a city, county, or city and county, whether general law or chartered, which are authorized to own, develop, or manage housing or community development projects for persons and families of low or moderate income and very low income.

(9) "Regional or national organizations" means not-for-profit, charitable corporations organized on a multicounty, state, or multistate basis which have as their principal purpose the ownership, development, or management of housing or community development projects for persons and families of low or moderate income and very low income.

(10) "Regional or national public agencies" means multicounty, state, or multistate agencies which are authorized to own, develop, or manage housing or community development projects for persons and families of low or moderate income and very low income.

(11) "Use restriction" means any federal, state, or local statute, regulation, ordinance, or contract which, as a condition of receipt of any housing assistance, including a rental subsidy, mortgage subsidy, or mortgage insurance, to an assisted housing development, establishes maximum limitations on tenant income as a condition of eligibility for occupancy of the units within a development, imposes any restrictions on the maximum rents that could be charged for any of the units within a development; or requires that rents for any of the units within a development be reviewed by any governmental body or agency before the rents are implemented.

(12) "Profit-motivated organizations and individuals" means individuals or two or more persons organized pursuant to Division 1 (commencing with Section 100) of Title 1 of, Division 3 (commencing with Section 1200) of Title 1 of, or Division 1 (commencing with Section 15001) of Title 2 of, the Corporations

Code, which carries on as a business for profit.

(13) "Department" means the Department of Housing and Community Development.

(b) An owner of an assisted housing development who has not, prior to January 1, 1991, given notice of intent to terminate a subsidy contract or prepay the mortgage pursuant to Section 65863.10, shall not sell, or otherwise dispose of the development in a manner which would result in either (1) a discontinuance of its use as an assisted housing development, or (2) the termination of any low-income use restrictions which apply to the development, unless the owner or its agent proposing the removal of government assistance shall first have provided each of the entities, listed in subdivision (c), an opportunity to purchase the development at a price and upon terms which represent a bona fide intention to sell, in compliance with subdivision (g).

(c) The entities to whom an opportunity to purchase shall first be provided include the following:

(1) The tenant association of the development.

(2) Local nonprofit organizations and public agencies.

(3) Regional or national nonprofit organizations and regional or national public agencies.

(4) Profit-motivated organizations or individuals.

(d) For the purposes of this section, to qualify as a purchaser of an assisted housing development, an entity listed in subdivision (c) shall do all of the following:

(1) Be capable of managing the housing and related facilities for its remaining useful life, either by itself or through a management agent.

(2) Agree to obligate itself and any successors in interest to maintain the affordability of the assisted housing development for persons and families of low or moderate income and very low income for either a 30-year period from the date that the purchaser took legal possession of the housing or the remaining term of the existing federal government assistance specified in subdivision (a) of Section 65863.10, whichever is greater. The development shall be continuously occupied in the approximate percentages that those persons and families occupied that development on the date the owner gave notice of intent or the approximate percentages specified in existing use restrictions, whichever is higher. This obligation shall be recorded prior to the close of escrow in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the development is located and shall contain a legal description of the property, indexed to the name of the owner as grantor.

(3) Local nonprofit organizations and public agencies shall have no member among their officers or directorate with a financial interest in assisted housing developments that have terminated a subsidy contract or prepaid a mortgage on the development.

(e) If an assisted housing development is not economically feasible, as defined in paragraph (3) of subdivision (h) of Section

17058 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, a purchaser shall be entitled to remove one or more units from the rent and occupancy requirements as is necessary for the development to become economically feasible, provided that once the development is again economically feasible, the purchaser shall designate the next available units as low-income units up to the original number of those units.

(f) If an owner decides to sell, or otherwise dispose of the assisted housing development pursuant to subdivision (b), at least one year prior to the anticipated date of termination of a subsidy contract or mortgage prepayment of a development which would result in either (1) a discontinuance of its use as an assisted housing development or (2) the termination of any low-income use restrictions which apply to the development, the owner shall first give notice of his or her bona fide intention to sell, or otherwise dispose of the development to each qualified entity on the list provided to the owner by the department, in accordance with subdivision (p), as well as to those qualified entities which directly contact the owner. The notice shall conform to the requirements of subdivision (g) and shall be sent to the entities by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested. The owner shall also post a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place in the common area of the development.

If the owner already has a bona fide offer to purchase from a qualified entity, at the time the owner decides to sell, or otherwise dispose of the development, the owner shall not be required to comply with the provisions of this subdivision.

(g) The initial notice of a bona fide intention to sell shall contain all of the following:

(1) The sales price; the terms of assumable financing, if any; the terms of the subsidy contract, if any; and proposed improvements to the property to be made by the owner in connection with the sale, if any.

(2) A statement that each of the type of entities listed in subdivision (c) has the right to purchase the development under this section in the order and according to the priorities established in subdivision (h).

(3) A statement that the owner will make available to each of the type of entities listed in subdivision (c), within 15 business days of receiving a request therefor, itemized lists of monthly operating expenses, capital improvements as determined by the owner made within each of the two preceding calendar years, the amount of project reserves, and copies of the two most recent financial and physical inspection reports on the development, if any, filed with the federal, state, or local agencies.

(4) A statement that the owner will make available to each of the entities listed in subdivision (c), within 15 business days of a request therefor, the most recent rent roll listing the rent paid for each unit and the subsidy, if any, paid by a governmental agency as of the date the notice of intent was made pursuant to Section 65863.10, and a statement of the vacancy rate at the development for each of the two preceding calendar years.

(5) A statement that the owner has satisfied all notice requirements pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 65863.10.

(h) If a qualified entity elects to purchase an assisted housing development, it shall make a bona fide offer to purchase the development within 180 days from the date of an owner's bona fide intention to sell. A qualified entity's bona fide offer to purchase shall identify whether it is a tenant association, nonprofit organization, public agency, or profit-motivated organizations or individuals and shall certify, under penalty of perjury, that it is qualified pursuant to subdivision (d). During the first 120 days from the date of an owner's bona fide notice of intention to sell, an owner shall only accept a bona fide offer to purchase from the tenant association. If at the end of the first 120-day period no purchase agreement has been executed, the owner may accept a bona fide offer to purchase from any qualified entity specified in subdivision (c) during the remaining 60 days.

(i) If at the end of that 180-day period no purchase agreement has been executed and a person or entity other than those entities listed in subdivision (c) has offered to purchase, or otherwise acquire the development, and the owner of the development has complied with the provisions of this section and Section 65863.10, the owner may accept a bona fide offer to purchase from this person or entity.

(j) When a bona fide offer to purchase has been made to an owner in response to a bona fide intention to sell, and the offer is accepted, a purchase agreement shall be executed.

(k) Either the owner or the qualified entity may request that the fair market value of the property, as a development, be determined by an independent appraiser qualified to perform multifamily housing appraisals, who shall be selected and paid by the requesting party. All appraisers shall possess qualifications equivalent to those required by the Members of the Appraisers Institute. This appraisal shall be nonbinding on either party with respect to the sales price of the development offered in the bona fide intention to sell, the bona fide offer to purchase, or the acceptance or rejection of either.

(l) During the 180-day period following the initial 180-day period required pursuant to subdivision (h), an owner may accept an offer from a person or an entity that does not qualify under subdivision (d), provided that the acceptance does not conflict with applicable federal laws governing who may purchase an assisted housing development. This acceptance shall be made subject to the owner providing each qualified entity that made a bona fide offer to purchase the first opportunity to purchase the development at the same terms and conditions as the pending offer to purchase, unless these terms and conditions are modified by mutual consent. The owner shall notify in writing those qualified entities of the terms and conditions of the pending offer to purchase, sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested. The qualified entity shall have 15 days from the date the notice is mailed to submit a bona fide offer to purchase and that offer shall be accepted by the owner. The owner shall not be required to comply with the provisions of this subdivision if the person or the entity making the offer during this time period agrees to maintain the development for persons and families of low and moderate income and very low income, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d).

(m) This section shall not apply to any of the following: a government taking by eminent domain or negotiated purchase; a forced sale pursuant to a foreclosure; a transfer by gift, devise, or operation of law; a sale to a person who would be included within the table of descent and distribution if there were to be a death intestate of an owner; or an owner who certifies, under penalty of perjury, the existence of a financial emergency during the period covered by the first right of refusal requiring immediate access to the proceeds of the sale of the development. The certification shall be made pursuant to subdivision (o).

(n) An owner, at any time during the one-year period subsequent to giving notice of the bona fide intention to sell in accordance with subdivision (f), may decide not to sell, or otherwise dispose of the development and may withdraw the notice of intention to sell. However, at any time that the owner again decides to sell, or otherwise dispose of the development, the provisions of this section shall apply.

(o) Prior to the close of escrow, an owner selling, leasing, or otherwise disposing of a development to a purchaser who does not qualify under subdivision (d) shall certify under penalty of perjury that the owner has complied with all provisions of this section and Section 65863.10. This certification shall be recorded and shall contain a legal description of the property, shall be indexed to the name of the owner as grantor, and may be relied upon by good faith purchasers and encumbrancers for value and without notice of a failure to comply with the provisions of this section.

Any person or entity acting solely in the capacity of an escrow agent for the transfer of real property subject to this section shall not be liable for any failure to comply with this section unless the escrow agent either had actual knowledge of the requirements of this section or acted contrary to written escrow instructions concerning the provisions of this section.

(p) The department shall undertake the following responsibilities and duties:

(1) Publish a form by April 1, 1991, containing a summary of rights and obligations under this section and make that information available to owners of assisted housing developments as well as to tenant associations, local nonprofit organizations, regional or national nonprofit organizations, public agencies, and other entities with an interest in preserving the state's subsidized housing.

(2) Compile, maintain, and update a list of entities in subdivision (c) that have either contacted the department with an expressed interest in purchasing a development in the subject area or have been identified by the department as potentially having an interest in participating in a right-of-first-refusal program. The department shall publicize the existence of the list statewide. The initial list shall be developed by February 1, 1991. Within five working days of the date of receipt of a notice of intent under Section 65863.10, the department shall send the list by registered or certified mail to the owner proposing the termination or removal of government assistance. If the department sends the list after the five-working-day period passes, the 180-day period specified in subdivision (h) shall be reduced by the number of days the department is late in sending the list, with any reduction being made to the initial 120-day period. If the department does not send the list at any time, the owner shall only be required to send a written copy of the bona fide intention to sell to the qualified entities which directly contact the owner and to post a copy of the intention to sell in the common area pursuant to subdivision (f).

(q) The provisions of this section may be enforced either in law or in equity by any qualified entity entitled to exercise the right-of-first-refusal under this section, that has been adversely affected by an owner's failure to comply with the provisions of this section.

An owner shall be entitled to rely on the statements, claims, or representations of any person or entity that the person or entity is a qualified entity as specified in subdivision (c), unless the owner has actual knowledge that the purchaser is not a qualified entity. If the person or entity is not an entity as specified in subdivision (c), that fact, in the absence of actual knowledge as described in the preceding sentence of this subdivision, shall not give rise to any claim against the owner for a violation of this section.

(r) It is the intent of the Legislature that the provisions of this section are in addition to, but not preemptive of, applicable federal laws governing the sale, or other disposition of a development which would result in either (1) a discontinuance of its use as an assisted housing development or (2) the termination of any low-income use restrictions which apply to the development.

(s) This section shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted on or before December 31, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 1438

An act to amend and repeal Section 65863.10 of the Government Code, and to add Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 50850) to Part 2 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65863.10 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65863.10. (a) As used in this section, "assisted housing development" means a multifamily rental housing development that receives governmental assistance under any of the following federal programs:

(1) New construction, substantial rehabilitation, moderate rehabilitation, property disposition, and loan management set-aside programs under Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f).

(2) The following programs under the following sections of the National Housing Act:

(B) The Below-Market-Interest-Rate Program under Section 221(d)(3) (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1715(l)(d)(3) and (d)(5)).

(C) Section 236 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1715z-1).

(D) Section 202 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1701q).

(3) Programs for rent supplement assistance under Section 101 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1965 (Public Law 89-117), as amended.

(4) Programs under Section 515 of the Housing Act of 1949, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1485).

(b) At least one year prior to the anticipated date of termination of a subsidy contract or mortgage prepayment on an assisted housing development, the owner proposing the termination or prepayment of governmental assistance shall provide a notice of the change to each affected tenant household residing in the assisted housing development at the time the notice is provided. The notice shall contain (1) the anticipated date of the termination or prepayment of the programs contained in subdivision (a); (2) the anticipated rent increase subsequent to the date of the prepayment or termination of the program; (3) a statement that a copy of the notice will be sent to the city or county where the assisted housing development is located; (4) a statement that a public hearing may be held by the city or county on the issue and that the tenant will receive notice of the hearing at least 15 days in advance; (5) a statement of the possibility that the housing may remain in the federal program after the date of subsidy termination or prepayment under certain circumstances; and (6) the telephone number of the department which can be contacted to request additional written information. The same notice also shall be filed at the same time with the legislative body of the city in which the assisted housing development is located or, if located in an unincorporated area, the legislative body of the county, and with the local housing authority, if one exists. The city or county shall, upon receipt of the notice, send a copy of the notice to the Department of Housing and Community Development.

(c) In addition to information provided in the notice to the affected tenant, the notice to the appropriate city or county also shall contain information regarding the number of affected tenants in the project, the number of units that are government assisted, the number of the units that are not government assisted, the number of bedrooms in each unit that is government assisted and the ages, income, and ethnic or racial categories of the affected tenants. The notice as also required by subsection (a) of Section 248.211 of Subpart B of Part 248 of Volume 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations, shall briefly describe the owner's plans for the project, including any timetables or deadlines for actions to be taken and specific governmental approvals that are required to be obtained, the reason the owner seeks to terminate the subsidy contract or prepay the mortgage, and any contacts the owner has made or is making with other governmental agencies or other interested parties in connection with the notice. The information contained in the notice shall be based on data that is reasonably available from existing tenant written records. As used in this section, "affected tenant" means a tenant household residing in an assisted housing development which, at the time the notice is provided, benefits from the government assistance.

This section shall not require the owner to obtain or acquire additional information that is not contained in the existing tenant records. The owner shall not be held liable for any inaccuracies contained in the tenant records or from other sources.

(d) The local legislative body may hold a public hearing which may be part of a regularly scheduled public hearing for the purpose of reviewing the notice provided pursuant to subdivision (b) for all assisted housing developments which consist of 25 or more units, except where the development is located in a rural area, as defined in Section 50101 of the Health and Safety Code, in which case the development shall consist of 10 or more units; and for determining the impact of the change upon the affected tenants and the locality's housing needs and its ability to meet those housing needs in accordance with the housing element required pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 65583 of the Government Code. In making this determination, the local legislative body shall prepare a written report considering (1) the extent of displacement or economic hardship, if any, likely to result from the subsidy contract termination or mortgage prepayment, which will cause the low- and moderate-income tenants occupying the assisted housing at the time of the notice to reasonably expect to be unable to remain in occupancy; (2) the availability of comparable, affordable, and nonassisted replacement housing in the market area or vacant assisted housing for which there is no waiting list, including the number and size of the units, their proximity to the assisted housing development, their rents and the approximate relocation costs of the affected tenants; and (3) the overall impact on the supply of that housing in the community, including replacement costs, and on the housing opportunities of minorities. The public hearing, if any, shall be held within 60 days of receipt of the notice by the city or county. Written notice of the time, date, and place of the hearing shall be given to each affected tenant household at least 15 days prior to the hearing date. Upon written request by the appropriate governmental agency responsible for approving or denying the prepayment or contract termination, the city or county shall send a copy of the written report to that agency.

(e) For purposes of this section, service of the notice to the affected tenants, the local legislative body, and the appropriate city or county housing authority by the owner pursuant to subdivision (b) and service of the notice to the affected tenants by the city or county pursuant to subdivision (c) shall be made by first-class mail postage prepaid.

(f) Nothing in this section shall enlarge or diminish in any way any power which a city, county, city and county, affected tenant, or owner may have, independent of this section.

(g) As used in this section, the term "city" means a general law city, a charter city, or a city and county.

(h) The provisions of this section may be enforced either at law or in equity by any person or entity entitled to receive notice under this section who is adversely affected by an owner's failure to comply with the provisions of this section.

(i) Termination of a subsidy contract or mortgage prepayment may occur prior to the anticipated date of that termination or prepayment if that termination or prepayment is approved under the applicable federal, state, or local laws governing the subsidies or mortgages and all other requirements of this section have been complied with.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted on or before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

(k) It is the intent of this section to provide adequate notice to all the parties described above who are concerned with the termination of a subsidy contract or a mortgage prepayment on an assisted housing development. It is also the intent that conformance to these notification provisions shall meet the requirements of applicable federal statutes. However, this section shall not diminish any responsibility for notification under federal law.

SEC. 2. Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 50850) is added to Part 2 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 14. HOUSING PRESERVATION AND INFORMATION SERVICE

50850. The Legislature finds and declares that within the next 20 years nearly 117,000 units of low-income housing subsidized by the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development will be eligible for conversion to market rate housing. These subsidies include low-interest loan and mortgage insurance programs established pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) of Section 221 and Section 236 of the National Housing Act of 1934 (12 U.S.C. Secs. 1715 and 1715z-1), as amended, rental subsidy programs established pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437), as amended. In addition, the Farmer's Home Administration operates a low-interest loan program established pursuant to Section 515 of the National Housing Act of 1949 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1485), as amended. Federal law allows owners to convert these units at certain intervals prior to the expiration of the contracts. Should the owners of the units be allowed to prepay the federally subsidized loans or fail to renew the Section rental subsidies, these units are in danger of becoming unaffordable to lower income tenants since the owners would no longer be obligated to charge below market rate rents to the tenants. Thus, it is anticipated that there will be an enormous loss of affordable decent, safe, and sanitary housing for lower income persons.

The Legislature further finds that it is of paramount importance that prior to an owner being allowed to convert a federally subsidized building, tenants and other interested persons and organizations have access to information concerning buildings eligible for conversion and access to information concerning tenants' rights and housing preservation alternatives when the conversion is imminent. The information and assistance can aid in the deterrence of conversion of the existing affordable housing stock. The Legislature finds that the provision of information, accessible to the citizenry of the state, would address this need.

50851. The purpose of this chapter is to ensure all of the following:

(a) That pertinent information concerning buildings eligible for conversion is available to tenants of subsidized rental units, community organizations, local government agencies, and other interested persons.

(b) That information concerning the legal rights, responsibilities and options of owners and tenants when the conversion of a subsidized rental unit to a market rental rate is a likelihood, is provided to tenants of subsidized rental units, community organizations, local governmental agencies, and other interested persons.

(c) That information concerning available technical assistance is provided to tenants of subsidized rental units and community-based nonprofits interested in purchasing the properties in the event that conversion is a likelihood.

50852. As used in this chapter, the terms defined in this section shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Conversion" means any of the following:

(1) The prepayment of a federally, state, or locally subsidized or insured mortgage prior to the expiration of the term of the mortgage, including mortgages of assisted housing developments as defined in paragraphs (2) and (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 65863.10 of the Government Code and mortgages made pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 52075) of Part 5, Article 2 (commencing with Section 33760) of Chapter 8 of Part 1 of Division 24, Article 5 (commencing with Section 34350) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 24, and Part 3 (commencing with Section 50900).

(2) Not renewing a contract with HUD or FmHA, which provides rent subsidies, where the contract may be unilaterally renewed by an owner, and prior to expiration of the full term of the contract, including, but not limited to, contracts entered into pursuant to the programs listed in paragraphs (1) and (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 65863.10 of the Government Code.

(3) Purchase by an owner or its related entity of a building following foreclosure of HUD or the FmHA, where the building included subsidized rental units immediately prior to foreclosure or sale, where the building no longer includes subsidized rental units, and where the building was owned by the same owner immediately prior to foreclosure or sale in lieu of foreclosure. For purposes of this section, "related entity" means a spouse, parent, child, or other individual who is blood related to the owner, a partnership if the owner is either a general or limited partner of the partnership, a corporation if the owner serves on the board of directors of the corporation or if the owner is a holder of 1 percent, or more, of the stock of the corporation, and any other business entity for which the owner has primary authority for management of the business.

(b) "Converted unit" means a subsidized rental unit that was subject to conversion.

(c) "FmHA" means the Farmers Home Administration.

(d) "HUD" means the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

(e) "Owner" means the person, partnership, or corporation that is a party to a contract with a federal, state, or local governmental agency which provides a mortgage, mortgage assistance, or rent subsidy.

(f) "Section 8" means any rental subsidy program established pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437), as amended.

(g) "Subsidized rental unit" means any unit with a rent that was subject to regulation by a federal, state, or local governmental agency prior to conversion.

(h) "Tenant" means a person entitled by written or oral agreement, subtenancy approved by the owner, or sufferance, to occupy a unit to the exclusion of others.

50853. The department shall provide to tenants of subsidized rental units, community organizations, local governmental agencies, and other interested persons all of the following:

(a) To the extent that information on federally and state subsidized housing projects, eligible for conversion, is available from federal, state, or other agencies, a written inventory of information on those projects, upon demand to the public. For each project, the information shall include, but not be limited to, the project name and address, the project owner, the earliest date of eligibility for subsidy termination, the type of ownership, the number of units in the building to be affected by conversion, the federal financing program, the loan contract number, the amount and term, interest rate, endorsement date, type of Section 8 contract, Section 8 contract number, and any other information determined to be pertinent.

(b) Written information concerning the legal rights, responsibilities and options of owners and tenants when an owner intends to convert the building.

(c) Written information concerning available technical assistance, within the state, for tenants and community nonprofits interested in buying those properties from the owner.

(d) Written information relating to the conversion process of federally subsidized rental units and applicable federal, state, and local laws.

(e) Any other information or technical assistance determined by the department to further the purposes of this chapter.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 65589.5 of the Government Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

65589.5. (a) The Legislature finds all of the following:

(1) The lack of affordable housing is a critical problem which threatens the economic, environmental, and social quality of life in California.

(2) California housing has become the most expensive in the nation. The excessive cost of the state's housing supply is partially caused by activities and policies of many local governments which limit the approval of affordable housing, increase the cost of land for affordable housing, and require that high fees and exactions be paid by producers of potentially affordable housing.

(3) Among the consequences of those actions are discrimination against low-income and minority households, lack of housing to support employment growth, imbalance in jobs and housing, reduced mobility, urban sprawl, excessive commuting, and air quality deterioration.

(4) Many local governments do not give adequate attention to the economic, environmental, and social costs of decisions which result in disapproval of affordable housing projects, reduction in density of affordable housing projects, and excessive standards for affordable housing projects.

(b) It is the policy of the state that a local government not reject or make infeasible affordable housing developments which contribute to meeting the housing need determined pursuant to this article without a thorough analysis of the economic, social, and environmental effects of the action and without meeting the provisions of subdivision (c).

(c) The Legislature also recognizes that premature and unnecessary development of agricultural lands to urban uses continues to have adverse effects on the availability of such lands for food and fiber production and on the economy of the state. Furthermore, it is the policy of the state that development should be guided away from prime agricultural lands; therefore, in implementing this section, local jurisdictions should encourage, to the maximum extent practicable, infilling existing urban areas.

(d) A local agency shall not disapprove a housing development project affordable to low- and moderate-income households or condition approval in a manner which renders the project infeasible for development for the use of low- and moderate-income households unless it finds, based upon substantial evidence, one of the following:

(1) The jurisdiction has adopted a housing element pursuant to this article and the development project is not needed for the jurisdiction to meet its share of the regional housing need of low-income housing.

(2) The development project as proposed would have a specific, adverse impact upon the public health or safety, and there is no feasible method to satisfactorily mitigate or avoid the specific adverse impact without rendering the development unaffordable to low- and moderate-income households.

(3) The denial of the project or imposition of conditions is required in order to comply with specific state or federal law, and there is no feasible method to comply without rendering the development unaffordable to low- and moderate-income households.

(4) Approval of the development project would increase the concentration of lower income households in a neighborhood that already has a disproportionately high number of lower income households and there is no feasible method of approving the development at a different site, including those sites identified pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 65583, without rendering the development unaffordable to low- and moderate-income households.

(5) The development project is proposed on land zoned for agriculture or resource preservation which is surrounded on at least two sides by land being used for agricultural or resource preservation purposes, or which does not have adequate water or wastewater facilities to serve the project.

(6) The development project is inconsistent with the jurisdiction's general plan land use designation as specified in any element of the general plan as it existed on the date the application was deemed complete, and the jurisdiction has adopted a housing element pursuant to this article.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve the local agency from complying with the provisions of the Congestion Management Program required by Chapter 2.6 (commencing with Section 65088) of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code or the provisions of the California Coastal Act, Division 20 (commencing with Section 30000) of the Public Resources Code. Neither shall anything in this section be construed to relieve the local agency from making one or more of the findings required pursuant to Section 21081 of the Public Resources Code or otherwise complying with the California Environmental Quality Act, Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a local agency from requiring the development project to comply with development standards and policies appropriate to and consistent with meeting the quantified objectives relative to the development of housing, as required in the housing element pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 65583. Nor shall anything in this section be construed to prohibit a local agency from imposing fees and other exactions otherwise authorized by law which are essential to provide necessary public services and facilities to the development project.

(g) This section shall be applicable to charter cities, because the Legislature finds that the lack of affordable housing is a critical statewide problem.

(h) The following definitions apply for the purposes of this section:

(1) "Feasible" means capable of being accomplished in a successful manner within a reasonable period of time taking into account economic, environmental, social, and technological factors.

(2) "Affordable to low- and moderate-income households" means at least 20 percent of the total units shall be sold or rented to lower income households, as defined in Section 50079.5 of the Health and Safety Code, and the remaining units shall be sold or rented to either lower income households or persons and families of moderate income as defined in Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code. Housing units targeted for lower income households shall be made available at a monthly housing cost that does not exceed 30 percent of 60 percent of area median income with adjustments for household size made in accordance with the adjustment factors on which the lower income eligibility limits are based. Housing units targeted for persons and families of moderate income shall be made available at a monthly housing cost that does not exceed 30 percent of 100 percent of area median income with adjustments for household size made in accordance with the adjustment factors on which the moderate income eligibility limits are based. "Area median income" shall mean area median income as periodically established by the Department of Housing and Community Development pursuant to Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code. The developer shall provide sufficient legal commitments to ensure continued availability of units for the lower income households in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision for 30 years.

(3) "Neighborhood" means a planning area commonly identified as such in a community's planning documents, and identified as a neighborhood by the individuals residing and working within the neighborhood. Documentation demonstrating that the area meets the definition of neighborhood may include a map prepared for planning purposes which lists the name and boundaries of the neighborhood.

(i) If any city, county, or city and county denies approval or imposes restrictions, including a reduction of allowable densities or the percentage of a lot which may be occupied by a building or structure under the applicable planning and zoning in force at the time the application is deemed complete pursuant to Section 65943, which have a substantial adverse effect on the viability or affordability of a housing development affordable to low- and moderate-income households, and the denial of the development or the imposition of restrictions on the development is the subject of a court action which challenges the denial, then the burden of proof shall be on the local legislative body to show that its decision is consistent with the findings as described in subdivision (c).

(j) When a proposed housing development project complies with the applicable general plan, zoning, and development policies in effect at the time that the housing development project's application is determined to be complete, but the local agency proposes to disapprove the project or to approve it upon the condition that the project be developed at a lower density, the local agency shall base its decision regarding the proposed housing development project upon written findings supported by substantial evidence on the record that both of the following conditions exist:

(1) The housing development project would have a specific, adverse impact upon the public health or safety unless the project is disapproved or approved upon the condition that the project be developed at a lower density.

(2) There is no feasible method to satisfactorily mitigate or avoid the adverse impact identified pursuant to paragraph (1), other than the disapproval of the housing development project or the approval of the project upon the condition that it be developed at a lower density.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) and any other provisions of law. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 52080 and 52099 of, and to amend, add, and repeal Sections 33760, 33760.5, 34312.3, and 51335 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33760 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33760. (a) Within its territorial jurisdiction, an agency may determine the location and character of any residential construction to be financed under this chapter and may make mortgage or construction loans to participating parties through qualified mortgage lenders, or purchase mortgage or construction loans without premium made by qualified mortgage lenders to participating parties, or make loans to qualified mortgage lenders, for financing any of the following:

(1) Residential construction within a redevelopment project area.

(2) Residential construction of residences in which the dwelling units are committed, for the period during which the loan is outstanding, for occupancy by persons or families who are eligible for financial assistance specifically provided by a governmental agency for the benefit of occupants of the residence.

(3) To the extent required by Section 103A of Title 26 of the United States Code, as amended, to maintain the exemption from federal income taxes of interest on bonds or notes issued by the agency under this chapter, residences located within targeted areas, as defined by Section 103(b) (12) (A) of Title 26 of the United States Code. Any loans to qualified mortgage lenders shall be made under terms and conditions which, in addition to other provisions as determined by the agency, shall require the qualified mortgage lender to use all of the net proceeds thereof, directly or indirectly, for the making of mortgage loans or construction loans in an appropriate principal amount equal to the amount of the net proceeds. Those mortgage loans may, but need not, be insured.

(b) (1) Not less than 20 percent (15 percent in target areas) of the units in any residential project financed pursuant to this section on or after January 1, 1986, shall be occupied by, or made available to, individuals of low and moderate income, as defined by Section 103(b) (12) (C) of Title 26 of the United States Code. If the sponsor elects to establish a base rent for units reserved for lower income households, the base rents shall be adjusted for household size, as determined pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), or its successor, for a family of one person in the case of a studio unit, two persons in the case of a one-bedroom unit, three persons in the case of a two-bedroom unit, four persons in the case of a three-bedroom unit, and five persons in the case of a four-bedroom unit.

(2) Not less than one-half of the units described in paragraph (1) shall be occupied by, or made available to, very low income households, as defined by Section 50105. The rental payments for those units paid by the persons occupying the units (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to those persons or on behalf of those units) shall not exceed the amount derived by multiplying 30 percent times 50 percent of the median adjusted gross income for the area, adjusted for family size, as determined pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), or its successor, for a family of one person in the case of a studio unit, two persons in the case of a one-bedroom unit, three persons in the case of a two-bedroom unit, four persons in the case of a three-bedroom unit, and five persons in the case of a four-bedroom unit.

(c) No agency may issue any bonds on or after January 1, 1986, until the information required to be filed pursuant to Section 8855.5 of the Government Code has been filed with the California Debt Advisory Commission and the Treasurer certifies to the Legislature that the agency has filed that information.

(d) Units required to be reserved for occupancy as provided in subdivision (b) and financed with the proceeds of bonds issued on or after January 1, 1986, shall remain occupied by, or made available to, those persons until the bonds are retired.

(e) This section shall become operative January 1, 1996.

SEC. 2. Section 33760 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33760. (a) Within its territorial jurisdiction, an agency may determine the location and character of any residential construction to be financed under this chapter and may make mortgage or construction loans to participating parties through qualified mortgage lenders, or purchase mortgage or construction loans without premium made by qualified mortgage lenders to participating parties, or make loans to qualified mortgage lenders, for financing any of the following:

(1) Residential construction within a redevelopment project area.

(2) Residential construction of residences in which the dwelling units are committed, for the period during which the loan is outstanding, for occupancy by persons or families who are eligible for financial assistance specifically provided by a governmental agency for the benefit of occupants of the residence.

(3) To the extent required by Section 103A of Title 26 of the United States Code, as amended, to maintain the exemption from federal income taxes of interest on bonds or notes issued by the agency under this chapter, residences located within targeted areas, as defined by Section 103(b) (12) (A) of Title 26 of the United States Code. Any loans to qualified mortgage lenders shall be made under terms and conditions which, in addition to other provisions as determined by the agency, shall require the qualified mortgage lender to use all of the net proceeds thereof, directly or indirectly, for the making of mortgage loans or construction loans in an appropriate principal amount equal to the amount of the net proceeds. Those mortgage loans may, but need not, be insured.

(b) (1) Not less than 20 percent (15 percent in target areas) of the units in any residential project financed pursuant to this section on or after January 1, 1986, shall be occupied by, or made available to, individuals of low and moderate income, as defined by Section 103(b)(12)(C) of Title 26 of the United States Code. If the sponsor elects to establish a base rent for units reserved for lower income households, the base rents shall be adjusted for household size, as determined pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), or its successor, for a family of one person in the case of a studio unit, two persons in the case of a one-bedroom unit, three persons in the case of a two-bedroom unit, four persons in the case of a three-bedroom unit, and five persons in the case of a four-bedroom unit.

(2) Not less than one-half of the units described in paragraph (1) shall be occupied by, or made available to, very low income households, as defined by Section 50105. The rental payments for those units paid by the persons occupying the units (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to those persons or on behalf of those units) shall not exceed the amount derived by multiplying 30 percent times 50 percent of the median adjusted gross income for the area, adjusted for family size, as determined pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), or its successor, for a family of one person in the case of a studio unit, two persons in the case of a one-bedroom unit, three persons in the case of a two-bedroom unit, four persons in the case of a three-bedroom unit, and five persons in the case of a four-bedroom unit.

(c) No agency may issue any bonds on or after January 1, 1986, until the information required to be filed pursuant to Section 8855.5 of the Government Code has been filed with the California Debt Advisory Commission and the Treasurer certifies to the Legislature that the agency has filed that information.

(d) Units required to be reserved for occupancy as provided in subdivision (b) and financed with the proceeds of bonds issued on or after January 1, 1986, shall remain occupied by, or made available to, those persons until the bonds are retired. Units required to be reserved for occupancy as provided in subdivision (b) and financed with the proceeds of bonds issued on or after January 1, 1991, shall remain occupied by, or made available to, those persons for the qualified project period. For purposes of this section, "qualified project period" means either 15 years after the later of the date the bonds are issued or the date when one-half of the units in the project were first occupied or until the bonds are retired, whichever time period is longer.

(e) Following the expiration or termination of the qualified project period, except in the event of foreclosure and redemption of the bonds, deed in lieu of foreclosure, eminent domain, or action of a federal agency preventing enforcement, units required to be reserved for occupancy pursuant to subdivision (b) and financed with proceeds of bonds issued on or after January 1, 1991, shall remain available to any eligible household occupying a reserved unit at the date of expiration or termination, at a rent not greater than the amount set forth by subdivision (b), until the earliest of any of the following occurs:

(1) The household's income exceeds 140 percent of the maximum eligible income specified in subdivision (b).

(2) The household voluntarily moves or is evicted for "good cause." "Good cause" for the purposes of this section, means the nonpayment of rent or allegation of facts necessary to prove major, or repeated minor, violations of material provisions of the occupancy agreement which detrimentally affect the health and safety of other persons or the structure, the fiscal integrity of the development, or the purposes or special programs of the development.

(3) Thirty years after the date of the commencement of the qualified project period.

(4) The sponsor pays the relocation assistance and benefits to tenants as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 7264 of the Government Code.

(f) During the three years prior to expiration of the qualified project period, the sponsor shall continue to make available to eligible households reserved units that have been vacated to the same extent that nonreserved units are made available to noneligible households.

(g) This section shall not be construed to require an agency to monitor the sponsor's compliance with the provisions of subdivision (e).

(h) The requirements of subdivisions (c) to (f), inclusive, of this section shall be contained in a regulatory agreement, recorded in the county in which the project is located, which includes the legal description of the property and which shall be indexed to the name of the owner as a grantor.

(i) Notwithstanding Section 1461 of the Civil Code, the provisions of this section shall run with the land and may be enforced either in law or in equity by any resident, local agency, entity, or by any other person adversely affected by an owner's failure to comply with the provisions of this section.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 33760.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33760.5. (a) Notwithstanding the requirements of Section 33760, agencies which operate within a jurisdiction, the population of which is in excess of 600,000 persons, as determined by the Department of Finance, may additionally provide financing for residential construction of multifamily rental units outside of a redevelopment project area as set forth in and subject to the limitations of this section.

(b) Within its territorial jurisdiction, an agency may determine the location and character of any residential construction to be financed under this chapter and may make mortgage or construction loans to participating parties through qualified mortgage lenders, or purchase mortgage or construction loans without premium made by qualified mortgage lenders to participating parties for financing residential construction of multifamily rental units.

(c) Not less than 20 percent (15 percent in target areas) of the units in each project financed pursuant to this section shall be occupied by, or made available to, individuals of low and moderate income, as defined in Section 103(b)(12)(C) of Title 26 of the United States Code. If the sponsor elects to establish a base rent for units reserved for lower income households, the base rents shall be adjusted for household size, as determined pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), or its successor, for a family of one person in the case of a studio unit, two persons in the case of a one-bedroom unit, three persons in the case of a two-bedroom unit, four persons in the case of a three-bedroom unit, and five persons in the case of a four-bedroom unit.

(d) Not less than one-half of the low- and moderate-income units described in subdivision (c) shall be occupied by, or made available to, very low income households, as defined in Section 50105. The rental payments for those units paid by the persons occupying the units (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to those persons or on behalf of those units) shall not exceed the amount derived by multiplying 30 percent times 50 percent of the median adjusted gross income for the area, adjusted for family size, as determined pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), or its successor, for a family of one person in the case of a studio unit, two persons in the case of a one-bedroom unit, three persons in the case of a two-bedroom unit, four persons in the case of a three-bedroom unit, and five persons in the case of a four-bedroom unit.

(e) No agency may issue any bonds on or after January 1, 1986, until the information required to be filed pursuant to Section 8855.5 of the Government Code has been filed with the California Debt Advisory Commission and the Treasurer certifies to the Legislature that the agency has filed that information.

(f) Units required to be reserved for occupancy by subdivisions (c) and (d) and financed with the proceeds of bonds issued on or after January 1, 1986, shall remain occupied by, or made available to, those persons until the bonds are retired.

(g) This section shall become operative January 1, 1996.

SEC. 4. Section 33760.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33760.5. (a) Notwithstanding the requirements of Section 33760, agencies which operate within a jurisdiction, the population of which is in excess of 600,000 persons, as determined by the Department of Finance, may additionally provide financing for residential construction of multifamily rental units outside of a redevelopment project area as set forth in and subject to the limitations of this section.

(b) Within its territorial jurisdiction, an agency may determine the location and character of any residential construction to be financed under this chapter and may make mortgage or construction loans to participating parties through qualified mortgage lenders, or purchase mortgage or construction loans without premium made by qualified mortgage lenders to participating parties for financing residential construction of multifamily rental units.

(c) Not less than 20 percent (15 percent in target areas) of the units in each project financed pursuant to this section shall be occupied by, or made available to, individuals of low and moderate income, as defined in Section 103(b)(12)(C) of Title 26 of the United States Code. If the sponsor elects to establish a base rent for units reserved for lower income households, the base rents shall be adjusted for household size, as determined pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), or its successor, for a family of one person in the case of a studio unit, two persons in the case of a one-bedroom unit, three persons in the case of a two-bedroom unit, four persons in the case of a three-bedroom unit, and five persons in the case of a four-bedroom unit.

(d) Not less than one-half of the low- and moderate-income units described in subdivision (c) shall be occupied by, or made available to, very low income households, as defined in Section 50105. The rental payments for those units paid by the persons occupying the units (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to those persons or on behalf of those units) shall not exceed the amount derived by multiplying 30 percent times 50 percent of the median adjusted gross income for the area, adjusted for family size, as determined pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), or its successor, for a family of one person in the case of a studio unit, two persons in the case of a one-bedroom unit, three persons in the case of a two-bedroom unit, four persons in the case of a three-bedroom unit, and five persons in the case of a four-bedroom unit.

(e) No agency may issue any bonds on or after January 1, 1986, until the information required to be filed pursuant to Section 8855.5 of the Government Code has been filed with the California Debt Advisory Commission and the Treasurer certifies to the Legislature that the agency has filed that information.

(f) Units required to be reserved for occupancy by subdivisions (c) and (d) and financed with the proceeds of bonds issued on or after January 1, 1986, shall remain occupied by, or made available to, those persons until the bonds are retired. Units required to be reserved for occupancy by subdivisions (c) and (d) and financed with the proceeds of bonds issued on or after January 1, 1991, shall remain occupied by, or made available to, those persons for the qualified project period. For purposes of this section, "qualified project period" means either 15 years after the later of the date the bonds are issued or the date when one-half of the units in the project were first occupied or until the bonds are retired, whichever time period is longer.

(g) Following the expiration or termination of the qualified project period, except in the event of foreclosure and redemption of the bonds, deed in lieu of foreclosure, eminent domain, or action of a federal agency preventing enforcement, units required to be reserved for occupancy pursuant to subdivisions (c) and (d) and financed with proceeds of bonds issued on or after January 1, 1991, shall remain available to any eligible household occupying a reserved unit at the date of expiration or termination, at a rent not greater than the amount set forth by subdivisions (c) and (d), until any of the earliest of any of the following occurs:

(1) The household's income exceeds 140 percent of the maximum eligible income specified in subdivisions (c) and (d).

(2) The household voluntarily moves or is evicted for "good cause." "Good cause" for the purposes of this section, means the nonpayment of rent or allegation of facts necessary to prove major, or repeated minor, violations of material provisions of the occupancy agreement which detrimentally affect the health and safety of other persons or the structure, the fiscal integrity of the development, or the purposes or special programs of the development.

(3) Thirty years after the date of the commencement of the qualified project period.

(4) The sponsor pays the relocation assistance and benefits to tenants as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 7264 of the Government Code.

(h) During the three years prior to expiration of the qualified project period, the sponsor shall continue to make available to eligible households reserved units that have been vacated to the same extent that nonreserved units are made available to noneligible households.

(i) This section shall not be construed to require an agency to monitor the sponsor's compliance with the provisions of subdivision (g).

(j) The requirements of subdivisions (e) to (h), inclusive, of this section shall be contained in a regulatory agreement, recorded in the county in which the project is located, which includes the legal description of the property and which shall be indexed to the name of the owner as a grantor.

(k) Notwithstanding Section 1461 of the Civil Code, the provisions of this section shall run with the land and may be enforced either in law or in equity by any resident, local agency, entity, or by any other person adversely affected by an owner's failure to comply with the provisions of this section.

(l) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5. Section 34312.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

34312.3. (a) Subject to the requirements of this section and of Article 5 (commencing with Section 34350), an authority may do any of the following:

(1) Issue revenue bonds for the purpose of financing the construction or development of multifamily rental housing and for the provision of capital improvements in connection with and determined necessary to the multifamily rental housing.

(2) Make or undertake commitments to make construction loans and mortgage loans to finance the development of multifamily rental housing.

(3) Purchase or undertake, directly or indirectly through lending institutions, commitments to purchase, construction loans, and mortgage loans originated in accordance with a financing agreement with the authority to finance the development of multifamily rental housing or make loans to lending institutions under terms and conditions which, in addition to other provisions determined by the authority, shall require the lending institutions to use the net proceeds of the loans for the making, directly or indirectly, of construction loans or mortgage loans to finance the development of multifamily rental housing.

(b) An authority may develop, rehabilitate, or finance housing projects or participate in the development, rehabilitation, or financing of housing projects; or purchase, sell, lease, own, operate, or manage housing projects so assisted, subject to all of the requirements of this section.

So long as the proceeds of any sale, lease, or other disposition of real property, net of the cost of sale, are to be used directly to assist a housing project pursuant to this section for persons of low income, and the funds in any trust fund established pursuant to subdivision (f) are used directly to assist housing units for persons of very low income, an authority may, after a public hearing, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the real property without complying with any provision of law concerning disposition of surplus property, including, but not limited to, Sections 34315.5 and 34315.7.

An authority may convey surplus lands it acquires from another public agency to a nonprofit or private developer for development of single-family homes where the development will provide for homeownership for persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined in Section 50093. This conveyance shall be after a public hearing. With the exception of subdivisions (b), (c), and (d) of Section 34315.7, the conveyance need not comply with any law concerning the disposition of surplus properties, including, but not limited to, Section 34315.5 or subdivision (a) of Section 34315.7. The proceeds of any sale or other disposition of surplus land, net of the cost of sale, shall be used to assist a housing project pursuant to this section for persons of low income.

(c) (1) (A) Not less than 20 percent of all units in housing projects assisted by an authority pursuant to this section shall be available for occupancy on a priority basis to persons of low income. In the case of housing projects located within a targeted area, as defined by Section 103(b)(12)(A) of Title 26 of the United States Code, not less than 15 percent of all units in such housing projects assisted pursuant to this section shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by persons of low income.

(B) If the sponsor elects to establish a base rent for units reserved for lower income households, the base rents shall be adjusted for household size, as determined pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), or its successor, for a family of one person in the case of a studio unit, two persons in the case of a one-bedroom unit, three persons in the case of a two-bedroom unit, four persons in the case of a three-bedroom unit, and five persons in the case of a four-bedroom unit.

(2) (A) Not less than one-half of the units required to be available for occupancy pursuant to paragraph (1) and financed with any bonds issued on or after January 1, 1986, shall be occupied by, or made available to, very low income households, as defined by Section 50105.

(B) The rental payments for those units paid by the persons occupying the units (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to those persons or on behalf of those units) shall not exceed the amount derived by multiplying 30 percent times 50 percent of the median adjusted gross income for the area, adjusted for family size, as determined pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), or its successor, for a family of one person in the case of a studio unit, two persons in the case of a one-bedroom unit, three persons in the case of a two-bedroom unit, four persons in the case of a three-bedroom unit, and five persons in the case of a four-bedroom unit.

(3) Any indebtedness incurred pursuant to a mortgage loan financed under the terms of this chapter shall be subject to acceleration and the balance owing declared immediately due and payable upon any sale of an owner-occupied residence to a purchaser who does not meet the required qualifications for borrowers as established by the authority.

(4) The authority shall require the owners of housing projects assisted pursuant to this section to accept as tenants, on the same basis as all other prospective tenants, in the units reserved for very low income households, any very low income households who are recipients of federal certificates for rent subsidies pursuant to the existing program under Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), or its successor. The authority shall not permit a selection criteria to be applied to Section 8 certificate holders that is any more burdensome than the criteria applied to all other prospective tenants.

(5) No resident in housing units assisted pursuant to this section shall be denied continued occupancy or ownership because, after admission, the resident's family income increases to exceed the eligibility level. However, the authority shall ensure that percentage requirements of this section shall continue to be met by providing the next available unit or units to persons of low income or by taking other actions to satisfy the percentage requirements of this section.

(6) In determining whether the percentage requirements of subdivision (c) have been achieved, the following terms and conditions shall be applied:

(A) The requirement that 20 percent or 15 percent, as the case may be, of the housing units assisted by an authority pursuant to this section shall be available on a priority basis to, or occupied by, households whose adjusted gross income does not exceed the applicable limits prescribed by subdivision (c) shall apply to the aggregate number of units assisted by an authority pursuant to this section.

(B) This section applies only to housing units first assisted after January 1, 1983, and the percentage requirements of subdivision (c) shall be complied with by January 1, 1986, and on January 1 of each even-numbered year thereafter.

(C) The percentage requirements of subdivision (c) shall be achieved within each of the following categories: (1) rental housing developments; (2) homeownership developments; and (3) rehabilitation financing. Housing units provided by rehabilitation financing shall not be counted within either of the first two categories.

(d) Units required to be reserved for occupancy by subdivision (c) and financed with the proceeds of bonds issued on or after January 1, 1986, shall remain occupied by, or made available to, those persons until the bonds are retired.

(e) No housing authority may issue any bonds on or after January 1, 1986, until the information required to be filed pursuant to Section 8855.5 of the Government Code has been filed with the California Debt Advisory Commission and the Treasurer certifies to the Legislature that the housing authority has filed that information.

(f) Multifamily rental housing financed pursuant to this section shall not be subject to the requirements of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) and paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), and the requirements of subdivision (d), if all of the following requirements are fulfilled:

(1) The housing authority offers each tenant a homeownership opportunity when the bonds are retired.

(2) A special trust fund or account which is funded with bond issuance proceeds or developer contributions, or both, is established no later than the time that the multifamily rental housing is first occupied. The initial funding of the account shall be no less than 5 percent of the face value of the bonds issued for the multifamily rental housing project. Upon repayment of the bonds, these funds, and all interest accruing thereon, less any amounts necessary to pay outstanding claims, shall be used to assist housing units for persons of very low income.

(3) The requirements of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) and subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) shall remain in effect for the periods required by Section 103(b)(12)(B) of Title 26 of the United States Code.

(g) It is the intent of the Legislature, and the Legislature declares, that housing authorities are the local entities with primary responsibility for providing housing for low-income and very low income households within their jurisdictions. However, recognizing that housing projects only for low-income households cannot be adequately assisted or developed with currently available funds, and that excess funds from housing projects assisted pursuant to this section can be utilized to further assist in the provision of housing for lower income households, it is the intent of the Legislature that the authorization of this section is to be used to enhance and supplement the traditional housing authority role of providing housing only for low-income households.

(h) This section shall become operative January 1, 1996.

SEC. 6. Section 34312.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

34312.3. (a) Subject to the requirements of this section and of Article 5 (commencing with Section 34350), an authority may do any of the following:

(1) Issue revenue bonds for the purpose of financing the construction or development of multifamily rental housing and for the provision of capital improvements in connection with and determined necessary to the multifamily rental housing.

(2) Make or undertake commitments to make construction loans and mortgage loans to finance the development of multifamily rental housing.

(3) Purchase or undertake, directly or indirectly through lending institutions, commitments to purchase, construction loans, and mortgage loans originated in accordance with a financing agreement with the authority to finance the development of multifamily rental housing or make loans to lending institutions under terms and conditions which, in addition to other provisions determined by the authority, shall require the lending institutions to use the net proceeds of the loans for the making, directly or indirectly, of construction loans or mortgage loans to finance the development of multifamily rental housing.

(b) An authority may develop, rehabilitate, or finance housing projects or participate in the development, rehabilitation, or financing of housing projects; or purchase, sell, lease, own, operate, or manage housing projects so assisted, subject to all of the requirements of this section.

So long as the proceeds of any sale, lease, or other disposition of real property, net of the cost of sale, are to be used directly to assist a housing project pursuant to this section for persons of low income, and the funds in any trust fund established pursuant to subdivision (f) are used directly to assist housing units for persons of very low income, an authority may, after a public hearing, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the real property without complying with any provision of law concerning disposition of surplus property, including, but not limited to, Sections 34315.5 and 34315.7.

An authority may convey surplus lands it acquires from another public agency to a nonprofit or private developer for development of single-family homes where the development will provide for homeownership for persons and families of low or moderate income, as defined in Section 50093. This conveyance shall be after a public hearing. With the exception of subdivisions (b), (c), and (d) of Section 34315.7, the conveyance need not comply with any law concerning the disposition of surplus properties, including, but not limited to, Section 34315.5 or subdivision (a) of Section 34315.7. The proceeds of any sale or other disposition of surplus land, net of the cost of sale, shall be used to assist a housing project pursuant to this section for persons of low income.

(c) (1) (A) Not less than 20 percent of all units in housing projects assisted by an authority pursuant to this section shall be available for occupancy on a priority basis to persons of low income. In the case of housing projects located within a targeted area, as defined by Section 103(b)(12)(A) of Title 26 of the United States Code, not less than 15 percent of all units in such housing projects assisted pursuant to this section shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by persons of low income.

(B) If the sponsor elects to establish a base rent for units reserved for lower income households, the base rents shall be adjusted for household size, as determined pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), or its successor, for a family of one person in the case of a studio unit, two persons in the case of a one-bedroom unit, three persons in the case of a two-bedroom unit, four persons in the case of a three-bedroom unit, and five persons in the case of a four-bedroom unit.

(2) (A) Not less than one-half of the units required to be available for occupancy pursuant to paragraph (1) and financed with any bonds issued on or after January 1, 1986, shall be occupied by, or made available to, very low income households, as defined by Section 50105.

(B) The rental payments for those units paid by the persons occupying the units (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to those persons or on behalf of those units) shall not exceed the amount derived by multiplying 30 percent times 50 percent of the median adjusted gross income for the area, adjusted for family size, as determined pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), or its successor, for a family of one person in the case of a studio unit, two persons in the case of a one-bedroom unit, three persons in the case of a two-bedroom unit, four persons in the case of a three-bedroom unit, and five persons in the case of a four-bedroom unit.

(3) Any indebtedness incurred pursuant to a mortgage loan financed under the terms of this chapter shall be subject to acceleration and the balance owing declared immediately due and payable upon any sale of an owner-occupied residence to a purchaser who does not meet the required qualifications for borrowers as established by the authority.

(4) The authority shall require the owners of housing projects assisted pursuant to this section to accept as tenants, on the same basis as all other prospective tenants, in the units reserved for very low income households, any very low income households who are recipients of federal certificates for rent subsidies pursuant to the existing program under Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), or its successor. The authority shall not permit a selection criteria to be applied to Section 8 certificate holders that is any more burdensome than the criteria applied to all other prospective tenants.

(5) No resident in housing units assisted pursuant to this section shall be denied continued occupancy or ownership because, after admission, the resident's family income increases to exceed the eligibility level. However, the authority shall ensure that percentage requirements of this section shall continue to be met by providing the next available unit or units to persons of low income or by taking other actions to satisfy the percentage requirements of this section.

(6) In determining whether the percentage requirements of subdivision (c) have been achieved, the following terms and conditions shall be applied:

(A) The requirement that 20 percent or 15 percent, as the case may be, of the housing units assisted by an authority pursuant to this section shall be available on a priority basis to, or occupied by, households whose adjusted gross income does not exceed the applicable limits prescribed by subdivision (c) shall apply to the aggregate number of units assisted by an authority pursuant to this section.

(B) This section applies only to housing units first assisted after January 1, 1983, and the percentage requirements of subdivision (c) shall be complied with by January 1, 1986, and on January 1 of each even-numbered year thereafter.

(C) The percentage requirements of subdivision (c) shall be achieved within each of the following categories: (1) rental housing developments; (2) homeownership developments; and (3) rehabilitation financing. Housing units provided by rehabilitation financing shall not be counted within either of the first two categories.

(d) Units required to be reserved for occupancy by subdivision (c) and financed with the proceeds of bonds issued on or after January 1, 1986, shall remain occupied by, or made available to, those persons until the bonds are retired. Units required to be reserved for occupancy by subdivision (c) and financed with the proceeds of bonds issued on or after January 1, 1991, shall remain occupied by, or made available to those persons for the qualified project period. For purposes of this section, "qualified project period" means either 15 years after the later of the date the bonds are issued or the date when one-half of the units in the project were first occupied or until the bonds are retired, whichever time period is longer.

(e) Following the expiration or termination of the qualified project period, except in the event of foreclosure and redemption of the bonds, deed in lieu of foreclosure, eminent domain, or action of a federal agency preventing enforcement, units required to be reserved for occupancy pursuant to subdivision (c) and financed with proceeds of bonds issued on or after January 1, 1991, shall remain available to any eligible household occupying a reserved unit at the date of expiration or termination, and at a rent not greater than the amount set forth by subdivision (c), until the earliest of any of the following occurs:

(1) The household's income exceeds 140 percent of the maximum eligible income specified in subdivision (c).

(2) The household voluntarily moves or is evicted for "good cause." "Good cause" for the purposes of this section, means the nonpayment of rent or allegation of facts necessary to prove major, or repeated minor, violations of material provisions of the occupancy agreement which detrimentally affect the health and safety of other persons or the structure, the fiscal integrity of the development, or the purposes or special programs of the development.

(3) Thirty years after the date of the commencement of the qualified project period.

(4) The sponsor pays the relocation assistance and benefits to tenants as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 7264 of the Government Code.

(f) During the three years prior to expiration of the qualified project period, the sponsor shall continue to make available to eligible households reserved units that have been vacated to the same extent that nonreserved units are made available to noneligible households

(g) This section shall not be construed to require a housing authority to monitor the sponsor's compliance with the provisions of subdivision (e).

(h) The requirements of subdivisions (d) to (f), inclusive, of this section shall be contained in a regulatory agreement, recorded in the county in which the project is located, which includes the legal description of the property and which shall be indexed to the name of the owner as a grantor.

(i) Notwithstanding Section 1461 of the Civil Code, the provisions of this section shall run with the land and may be enforced either in law or in equity by any resident, local agency, entity, or by any other person adversely affected by an owner's failure to comply with the provisions of this section.

(j) No housing authority may issue any bonds on or after January 1, 1986, until the information required to be filed pursuant to Section 8855.5 of the Government Code has been filed with the California Debt Advisory Commission and the Treasurer certifies to the Legislature that the housing authority has filed that information.

(k) Multifamily rental housing financed pursuant to this section shall not be subject to the requirements of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) and paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), and the requirements of subdivision (d), if all of the following requirements are fulfilled:

(1) The housing authority offers each tenant a homeownership opportunity when the bonds are retired.

(2) A special trust fund or account which is funded with bond issuance proceeds or developer contributions, or both, is established no later than the time that the multifamily rental housing is first occupied. The initial funding of the account shall be no less than 5 percent of the face value of the bonds issued for the multifamily rental housing project. Upon repayment of the bonds, these funds, and all interest accruing thereon, less any amounts necessary to pay outstanding claims, shall be used to assist housing units for persons of very low income.

(3) The requirements of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) and subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) shall remain in effect for the periods required by Section 103(b)(12)(B) of Title 26 of the United States Code.

(l) It is the intent of the Legislature, and the Legislature declares, that housing authorities are the local entities with primary responsibility for providing housing for low-income and very low income households within their jurisdictions. However, recognizing that housing projects only for low-income households cannot be adequately assisted or developed with currently available funds, and that excess funds from housing projects assisted pursuant to this section can be utilized to further assist in the provision of housing for lower income households, it is the intent of the Legislature that the authorization of this section is to be used to enhance and supplement the traditional housing authority role of providing housing only for low-income households.

(m) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 7. Section 51335 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

51335. (a) (1) Not less than 20 percent of the total number of units in a multifamily rental housing development financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed, pursuant to this chapter from the proceeds of sale of each bond issuance of the agency shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households. If a multifamily rental housing development is located within a targeted area, as defined by Section 143(j) of Title 26 of the United States Code, not less than 15 percent of the total number of units financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed pursuant to this chapter, shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households. Not less than one-half of the units required for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households shall be for occupancy on a priority basis for very low income households.

The rental payments on the units required for occupancy by very low income households paid by the persons occupying the units (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to those persons or on behalf of those units) shall not exceed 30 percent of 50 percent of area median income. If the sponsor elects to establish a base rent for all or part of the units for lower income households and very low income households, the base rents shall be adjusted for household size. In adjusting rents for household size, the agency shall assume that one person will occupy a studio unit, two persons will occupy a one-bedroom unit, three persons will occupy a two-bedroom unit, four persons will occupy a three-bedroom unit, and five persons will occupy a four-bedroom unit.

(2) The local agency issuing permits for the development of the multifamily rental housing development shall consider opportunities to contribute to the economic feasibility of the units and to the provision of units for very low income households through concessions and inducements such as the following:

(A) Reductions in construction and design requirements.

(B) Reductions in setback and square footage requirements and the ratio of vehicular parking spaces that would otherwise be required.

(C) Granting density bonuses.

(D) Providing expedited processing of permits.

(E) Modifying zoning code requirements to allow mixed use zoning.

(F) Reducing or eliminating fees and charges for filing and processing applications, petitions, permits, planning services, water and sewer connections, and other fees and charges.

(G) Reducing or eliminating requirements relating to monetary exactions, dedications, reservations of land, or construction of public facilities.

(H) Other financial incentives or concessions for the multifamily rental housing development which result in identifiable cost reductions, as determined by the agency. The agency shall ensure that the local agency issuing permits for the development considers its responsibilities under this section and makes a good faith effort to enhance the feasibility of the project and to provide housing for lower income households and very low income households.

(3) The agency shall not permit a selection criteria to be applied to certificate holders under Section 8 of the United States Housing

Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f) that is any more burdensome than the criteria applied to all other prospective tenants.

(4) It is the intent of the Legislature that the agency finance projects that assist in meeting the urgent need for providing shelter for lower income households, very low income households, and persons and families of low or moderate income. To that end, the quality of materials and the amenities provided should not be excessive so as to hinder the prospect of achieving the stated goal. The Legislature finds and declares that the design standards utilized by the agency in the past including, but not limited to, the design requirements adopted to govern the new construction program under Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), are substantially in excess of those required for a decent, healthy, and safe residential unit and intends, by the amendment adding this paragraph to this section by the Statutes of 1985, that the agency finance multifamily rental developments with substantially less costly design requirements than those required by the agency prior to January 1, 1986.

(5) It is the intent of the Legislature that the agency finance projects that assist in meeting the urgent need for providing shelter for families. To that end, developments with three- and four-bedroom units affordable to larger families shall have priority over competing developments.

(b) As a condition of financing pursuant to this chapter, the housing sponsor shall enter into a regulatory agreement with the agency providing that units reserved for occupancy by lower income households remain available on a priority basis for occupancy until the bonds are retired. The regulatory agreement shall contain a provision making the covenants and conditions of the agreement binding upon successors in interest of the housing sponsor and, notwithstanding any other provision of law, these burdens of the regulatory agreement shall run with the land. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the multifamily rental housing development is located. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the grantor-grantee index to the name of the property owner as grantor and to the name of the agency as grantee.

(c) The agency shall ensure that units occupied by lower income households are of comparable quality and offer a range of sizes and number of bedrooms comparable to those units which are available to other tenants.

(d) (1) The agency shall give priority to processing construction loans and mortgage loans or may take other steps such as reducing loan fees for multifamily rental housing developments which incorporate innovative and energy-efficient techniques which reduce development or operating costs and which have the lowest feasible per unit cost, as determined by the agency, based on efficiency of design, the elimination of improvements that are not required by applicable building standards, or a reduction in the amount of local fees imposed on the development.

(2) The agency shall give equal priority to processing construction loans and mortgage loans or may take other steps such as reducing loan fees on multifamily rental housing developments which do any of the following:

(A) Utilize federal housing or development assistance.

(B) Utilize redevelopment funds or other local financial assistance, including, but not limited to, contributions of land, or for which local fees have been reduced.

(C) Are sponsored by a nonprofit housing organization.

(D) Provide a significant number of housing units, as determined by the agency, as part of a coordinated jobs and housing plan adopted by a local government.

(E) Exceed a ratio whereby 20 percent of the units are reserved for occupancy by lower income households, or whereby 10 percent of the units are reserved for occupancy by very low income households, or which provide units for lower income households or very low income households for the longest period of time beyond the minimum number of years.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any mortgage which encumbers a multifamily rental housing development as security for an obligation to the agency shall have priority over any covenant, condition, restriction, or other limitation or agreement imposed on the housing development as a condition of qualifying it for any development, construction, or rehabilitation permit or approval or for any financial assistance. However, the agency may require subordination of a mortgage to the regulatory agreement specified in subdivision (b) to serve the purposes of this part.

(f) (1) New and existing rental housing developments may be syndicated after prior written approval of the agency. The agency shall grant that approval only after the agency determines that the terms and conditions of the syndication comply with this section.

(2) The terms and conditions of the syndication shall not reduce or limit any of the requirements of this chapter or regulations adopted or documents executed pursuant to this chapter. No requirements of the state shall be subordinated to the syndication agreement. A syndication shall not result in the provision of fewer assisted units, or the reduction of any benefits or services, than were in existence prior to the syndication agreement.

(g) At the option of the agency, the amendments to this section made by Chapter 907 of the Statutes of 1983 may be made applicable to any multifamily rental housing development financed by the issuance, on or after September 3, 1982, of bonds authorized by this chapter.

(h) This section shall become operative January 1, 1996.

SEC. 8. Section 51335 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

51335. (a) (1) Not less than 20 percent of the total number of units in a multifamily rental housing development financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed, pursuant to this chapter from the proceeds of sale of each bond issuance of the agency shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households. If a multifamily rental housing development is located within a targeted area, as defined by Section 143(j) of Title 26 of the United States Code, not less than 15 percent of the total number of units financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed pursuant to this chapter, shall be for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households. Not less than one-half of the units required for occupancy on a priority basis by lower income households shall be for occupancy on a priority basis for very low income households.

The rental payments on the units required for occupancy by very low income households paid by the persons occupying the units (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to those persons or on behalf of those units) shall not exceed 30 percent of 50 percent of area median income. If the sponsor elects to establish a base rent for all or part of the units for lower income households and very low income households, the base rents shall be adjusted for household size. In adjusting rents for household size, the agency shall assume that one person will occupy a studio unit, two persons will occupy a one-bedroom unit, three persons will occupy a two-bedroom unit, four persons will occupy a three-bedroom unit, and five persons will occupy a four-bedroom unit.

(2) The local agency issuing permits for the development of the multifamily rental housing development shall consider opportunities to contribute to the economic feasibility of the units and to the provision of units for very low income households through concessions and inducements such as the following:

(A) Reductions in construction and design requirements.

(B) Reductions in setback and square footage requirements and the ratio of vehicular parking spaces that would otherwise be required.

(C) Granting density bonuses.

(D) Providing expedited processing of permits.

(E) Modifying zoning code requirements to allow mixed use zoning.

(F) Reducing or eliminating fees and charges for filing and processing applications, petitions, permits, planning services, water and sewer connections, and other fees and charges.

(G) Reducing or eliminating requirements relating to monetary exactions, dedications, reservations of land, or construction of public facilities.

(H) Other financial incentives or concessions for the multifamily rental housing development which result in identifiable cost reductions, as determined by the agency. The agency shall ensure that the local agency issuing permits for the development considers its responsibilities under this section and makes a good faith effort to enhance the feasibility of the project and to provide housing for lower income households and very low income households.

(3) The agency shall not permit a selection criteria to be applied to certificate holders under Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f) that is any more burdensome than the criteria applied to all other prospective tenants.

(4) It is the intent of the Legislature that the agency finance projects that assist in meeting the urgent need for providing shelter for lower income households, very low income households, and persons and families of low or moderate income. To that end, the quality of materials and the amenities provided should not be excessive so as to hinder the prospect of achieving the stated goal. The Legislature finds and declares that the design standards utilized by the agency in the past including, but not limited to, the design requirements adopted to govern the new construction program under Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), are substantially in excess of those required for a decent, healthy, and safe residential unit and intends, by the amendment adding this paragraph to this section by the Statutes of 1985, that the agency finance multifamily rental developments with substantially less costly design requirements than those required by the agency prior to January 1, 1986.

(5) It is the intent of the Legislature that the agency finance projects that assist in meeting the urgent need for providing shelter for families. To that end, developments with three- and four-bedroom units affordable to larger families shall have priority over competing developments.

(b) As a condition of financing pursuant to this chapter, the housing sponsor shall enter into a regulatory agreement with the agency providing that units reserved for occupancy by lower income households remain available on a priority basis for occupancy until the bonds are retired. As a condition of financing provided by bonds issued on or after January 1, 1991, the housing sponsor shall enter into a regulatory agreement with the agency providing that units reserved for occupancy by lower income households remain available on a priority basis for occupancy for the qualified project period. For the purposes of this section, "qualified project period" means either 15 years after the later of the date the bonds are issued or the date when one-half of the units in the project were first occupied or until the bonds are retired, whichever time period is longer. The regulatory agreement shall contain a provision making the covenants and conditions of the agreement binding upon successors in interest of the housing sponsor and, notwithstanding any other provision of law, these burdens of the regulatory agreement shall run with the land. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the multifamily rental housing development is located. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the grantor-grantee index to the name of the property owner as grantor and to the name of the agency as grantee.

(c) The agency shall ensure that units occupied by lower income households are of comparable quality and offer a range of sizes and number of bedrooms comparable to those units which are available to other tenants.

(d) (1) The agency shall give priority to processing construction loans and mortgage loans or may take other steps such as reducing loan fees for multifamily rental housing developments which incorporate innovative and energy-efficient techniques which reduce development or operating costs and which have the lowest feasible per unit cost, as determined by the agency, based on efficiency of design, the elimination of improvements that are not required by applicable building standards, or a reduction in the amount of local fees imposed on the development.

(2) The agency shall give equal priority to processing construction loans and mortgage loans or may take other steps such as reducing loan fees on multifamily rental housing developments which do any of the following:

(A) Utilize federal housing or development assistance.

(B) Utilize redevelopment funds or other local financial assistance, including, but not limited to, contributions of land, or for which local fees have been reduced.

(C) Are sponsored by a nonprofit housing organization.

(D) Provide a significant number of housing units, as determined by the agency, as part of a coordinated jobs and housing plan adopted by a local government.

(E) Exceed a ratio whereby 20 percent of the units are reserved for occupancy by lower income households, or whereby 10 percent of the units are reserved for occupancy by very low income households, or which provide units for lower income households or very low income households for the longest period of time beyond the minimum number of years.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any mortgage which encumbers a multifamily rental housing development as security for an obligation to the agency shall have priority over any covenant, condition, restriction, or other limitation or agreement imposed on the housing development as a condition of qualifying it for any development, construction, or rehabilitation permit or approval or for any financial assistance. However, the agency may require subordination of a mortgage to the regulatory agreement specified in subdivision (b) to serve the purposes of this part.

(f) (1) New and existing rental housing developments may be syndicated after prior written approval of the agency. The agency shall grant that approval only after the agency determines that the terms and conditions of the syndication comply with this section.

(2) The terms and conditions of the syndication shall not reduce or limit any of the requirements of this chapter or regulations adopted or documents executed pursuant to this chapter. No requirements of the state shall be subordinated to the syndication agreement. A syndication shall not result in the provision of fewer assisted units, or the reduction of any benefits or services, than were in existence prior to the syndication agreement.

(g) At the option of the agency, the amendments to this section made by Chapter 907 of the Statutes of 1983 may be made applicable to any multifamily rental housing development financed by the issuance, on or after September 3, 1982, of bonds authorized by this chapter.

(h) Following the expiration or termination of the qualified project period, except in the event of foreclosure and redemption of the bonds, deed in lieu of foreclosure, eminent domain, or action of a federal agency preventing enforcement, units required to be reserved for occupancy pursuant to subdivision (a) and financed with proceeds of bonds issued on or after January 1, 1991, shall remain available to any eligible household occupying a reserved unit at the date of expiration or termination at a rent not greater than the amount set forth by subdivision (a), until the earliest of any of the following occur:

(1) The household's income exceeds 140 percent of the maximum eligible income specified in subdivision (a).

(2) The household voluntarily moves or is evicted for "good cause." "Good cause" for the purposes of this section, means the nonpayment of rent or allegation of facts necessary to prove major, or repeated minor, violations of material provisions of the occupancy agreement which detrimentally affect the health and safety of other persons or the structure, the fiscal integrity of the development, or the purposes or special programs of the development.

(3) Thirty years after the date of the commencement of the qualified project period.

(4) The sponsor pays the relocation assistance and benefits to tenants as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 7264 of the Government Code.

(i) During the three years prior to expiration of the qualified project period, the sponsor shall continue to make available to eligible households reserved units that have been vacated to the same extent that nonreserved units are made available to noneligible households.

(j) This section shall not be construed to require the agency to monitor the sponsor's compliance with the provisions of subdivision (h).

(k) The requirements of subdivisions (h) and (i) of this section shall be contained in a regulatory agreement required pursuant to subdivision (b).

(l) Notwithstanding Section 1461 of the Civil Code, the provisions of this section shall run with the land and may be enforced either in law or in equity by any resident, the agency, entity, or by any other person adversely affected by an owner's failure to comply with the provisions of this section.

(m) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 9. Section 52080 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

52080. (a) (1) Multifamily rental housing development financed, or for which financing has been extended or committed pursuant to this chapter from the proceeds of sale of each bond issue, shall at all times during the qualified project period meet the requirement of subparagraph (A) or (B), whichever is elected by the issuer at the time of issuance of the issue for each development:

(A) Twenty percent or more of the residential units in the development shall be occupied by individuals whose income is 50 percent or less of area median income.

(B) Forty percent or more of the residential units in the development shall be occupied by individuals whose income is 60 percent or less of area median income.

As used in this section, "qualified project period," "income," and "area median income" shall have the meanings specified in, and shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of, subsection (d) of Section 142 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and United States Treasury regulations and rulings promulgated pursuant thereto.

With respect to a development for which the issuer has elected to meet the requirement of subparagraph (A), the rental payments paid by the occupants of the units meeting the requirement of subparagraph (A) (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to those occupants or on behalf of those units) shall not exceed 30 percent of 50 percent of area median income. With respect to a development for which the issuer has elected to meet the requirement of subparagraph (B), the rental payments paid by the occupants of the units meeting the requirement of subparagraph (B) (excluding any supplemental rental assistance from the state, the federal government, or any other public agency to those occupants or on behalf of those units) shall not exceed 30 percent of 60 percent of median income.

(2) The governing body shall ensure that the local agency issuing permits for the development of the multifamily rental housing development shall consider opportunities to contribute to the economic feasibility of the units and to the provision of units for very low income households through concessions and inducements including, but not limited to, the following:

(A) Reductions in construction and design requirements.

(B) Reductions in setback and square footage requirements and the ratio of vehicular parking spaces that would otherwise be required.

(C) Granting density bonuses.

(D) Providing expedited processing of permits.

(E) Modifying zoning code requirements to allow mixed use zoning.

(F) Reducing or eliminating fees and charges for filing and processing applications, petitions, permits, planning services, water and sewer connections, and other fees and charges.

(G) Reducing or eliminating requirements relating to monetary exactions, dedications, reservations of land, or construction of public facilities.

(H) Other financial incentives or concessions for the multifamily rental housing development which result in identifiable cost reductions, as determined by the governing body. The governing body shall ensure that the local agency issuing permits for the development considers its responsibilities under this section and makes a good faith effort to enhance the feasibility of the project and to provide housing for lower income households and very low income households.

(3) The governing body shall not permit a selection criteria to be applied to certificate holders under Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f) that is more burdensome than the criteria applied to all other prospective tenants.

(4) It is the intent of the Legislature that the governing body finance projects that assist in meeting the urgent need for providing shelter for lower income households, very low income households, and persons and families of low or moderate income. To that end, the quality of materials and the amenities provided should not be excessive so as to hinder the prospect of achieving the stated goal. The Legislature finds and declares that the design standards utilized in the past, including, but not limited to, the design requirements adopted to govern the new construction program under Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f), are substantially in excess of those required for a decent, healthy, and safe residential unit and intends, by the amendment adding this paragraph to this section by the Statutes of 1985, that cities and counties finance multifamily rental developments with substantially less costly design requirements than those required by the governing body prior to January 1, 1986.

(5) It is the intent of the Legislature that the governing body finance projects that assist in meeting the urgent need for providing shelter for families. To that end, developments with three- and four-bedroom units affordable to larger families shall have priority over competing developments.

(b) As a condition of financing pursuant to this chapter, the housing sponsor shall enter into a regulatory agreement with the city or county providing that units reserved for occupancy by lower income households remain available on a priority basis for occupancy until the bonds are retired. As a condition of financing provided by bonds issued on or after January 1, 1991, the housing sponsor shall enter into a regulatory agreement with the city or county providing that units reserved for occupancy by lower income households remain available on a priority basis for occupancy for the qualified project period. The regulatory agreement shall contain a provision making the covenants and conditions of the agreement binding upon successors in interest of the housing sponsor. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the multifamily rental housing development is located. The regulatory agreement shall be recorded in the grantor-grantee index to the name of the property owner as grantor and to the name of the city or county as grantee.

(c) The governing body shall ensure that units occupied by lower income households are of comparable quality and offer a range of sizes and number of bedrooms comparable to those units which are available to other tenants.

(d) (1) The city or county shall give priority to processing construction loans and mortgage loans or may take other steps such as reducing loan fees or other local fees for multifamily rental developments which incorporate innovative and energy-efficient techniques which reduce development or operating costs and which have the lowest feasible per unit cost, as determined by the city or county, based on efficiency of design or the elimination of improvements that are not required by applicable building standards.

(2) The city or county shall give equal priority to processing construction loans and mortgage loans or may take other steps such as reducing loan fees or other local fees on multifamily rental housing developments which do any of the following:

(A) Utilize federal housing or development assistance.

(B) Utilize redevelopment funds or other local financial assistance, including, but not limited to, contributions of land.

(C) Are sponsored by a nonprofit housing organization.

(D) Provide a significant number of housing units, as determined by the city or county, as part of a coordinated jobs and housing plan adopted by the city or county.

(E) Exceeds the ratios specified in subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) or restricts the occupancy for these units for the longest period beyond the required minimum number of years.

(e) (1) New and existing rental housing developments may be syndicated after prior written approval of the governing body. The governing body shall grant that approval only after the city or county determines that the terms and conditions of the syndication comply with this section.

(2) The terms and conditions of the syndication shall not reduce or limit any of the requirements of this chapter or regulations adopted or documents executed pursuant to this chapter. No requirements of the city or county shall be subordinated to the syndication agreement. A syndication shall not result in the provision of fewer assisted units, or the reduction of any benefits or services, than were in existence prior to the syndication agreement.

(f) At the option of the city or county, the amendments to this subdivision made by Chapter 907 of the Statutes of 1983 may be made applicable to any multifamily rental housing development financed by the issuance, on or after September 3, 1982, of bonds authorized by this chapter.

(g) Following the expiration or termination of the qualified project period, except in the event of foreclosure and redemption of the bonds, deed in lieu of foreclosure, eminent domain, or action of a federal agency preventing enforcement, units required to be reserved for occupancy pursuant to subdivision (a) and financed with proceeds of bonds issued on or after January 1, 1991, shall remain available to any eligible household occupying a reserved unit at the date of expiration or termination, at a rent not greater than the amount set forth by subdivision (a), until the earliest of any of the following occur:

(1) The household's income exceeds 140 percent of the maximum eligible income specified in subdivision (a).

(2) The household voluntarily moves or is evicted for "good cause." "Good cause" for the purposes of this section, means the nonpayment of rent or allegation of facts necessary to prove major, or repeated minor, violations of material provisions of the occupancy agreement which detrimentally affect the health and safety of other persons or the structure, the fiscal integrity of the development, or the purposes or special programs of the development.

(3) Thirty years after the date of the commencement of the qualified project period.

(4) The sponsor pays the relocation assistance and benefits to tenants as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 7264 of the Government Code.

(h) During the three years period to expiration of the qualified project period, the sponsor shall continue to make available to eligible households reserved units that have been vacated to the same extent that nonreserved units are made available to noneligible households.

(i) This section shall not be construed to require a city or county to monitor the sponsor's compliance with the provisions of subdivision (g).

(j) The requirements of subdivisions (g) to (i), inclusive, of this section shall be contained in a regulatory agreement required pursuant to subdivision (b).

(k) Notwithstanding Section 1461 of the Civil Code, the provisions of this section shall run with the land and may be enforced either in law or in equity by any resident, local agency, entity, or by any other person adversely affected by an owner's failure to comply with the provisions of this section.

SEC. 10. Section 52099 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

52099. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 1441

An act to amend Sections 65361, 65400, 65582, 65584, 65585, and 65587 of, to add Section 65589.3 to, the Government Code, and to amend Section 50459 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65361 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65361. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, upon application by a city or county, the Director of Planning and Research shall grant a reasonable extension of time, not to exceed one year from the date of issuance of the extension, for the preparation and adoption of all or part of the general plan, if the legislative body of the city or county, after a public hearing, makes any of the following findings:

(1) Data required for the general plan shall be provided by another agency and it has not yet been provided.

(2) In spite of sufficient budgetary provisions and substantial recruiting efforts, the city or county has not been able to obtain necessary staff or consultant assistance.

(3) A disaster has occurred requiring reassignment of staff for an extended period or requiring a complete reevaluation and revision of the general plan, or both.

(4) Local review procedures require an extended public review process which has resulted in delaying the decision by the legislative body.

(5) The city or county is jointly preparing all or part of the general plan with one or more other jurisdictions pursuant to an existing agreement and timetable for completion.

(6) Other reasons exist that justify the granting of an extension, so that the timely preparation and adoption of a general plan is promoted.

(b) The director shall not grant an extension of time for the preparation and adoption of a housing element except in the case of a newly incorporated city or newly formed county which cannot meet the deadline set by Section 65360. Before the director grants an extension of time pursuant to this subdivision, he or she shall consult with the Director of the Department of Housing and Community Development.

(c) The application for an extension shall contain all of the following:

(1) A resolution of the legislative body of the city or county adopted after public hearing setting forth in detail the reasons why the general plan was not previously adopted as required by law or needs to be revised, including one or more of the findings made by the legislative body pursuant to subdivison (a), and the amount of additional time necessary to complete the preparation and adoption of the general plan.

(2) A detailed budget and schedule for preparation and adoption of the general plan including plans for citizen participation and expected interim action. The budget and schedule shall be of sufficient detail to allow the director to assess the progress of the applicant at regular intervals during the term of the extension. The schedule shall provide for adoption of a complete and adequate general plan within two years of the date of the application for the extension.

(3) A set of proposed policies and procedures which would ensure, during the extension of time granted pursuant to this section, that the land use proposed in an application for a subdivision, rezoning, use permit, variance, or building permit will be consistent with the general plan proposal being considered or studied.

(d) The director may impose any conditions on extensions of time granted that the director deems necessary to ensure compliance with the purposes and intent of this title. Those conditions shall apply only to those parts of the general plan for which the extension has been granted. In establishing those conditions, the director may adopt or modify and adopt any of the policies and procedures proposed by the city or county pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c).

(e) During the extension of time specified in this section, the city or county is not subject to the requirement that a complete and adequate general plan be adopted, the requirement that it be adopted within a specific period of time, or the requirements of state law that its decisions be consistent with those portions of the general plan for which an extension has been granted. However, development approvals shall be consistent with the conditions imposed by the director pursuant to subdivision (d) and any element or elements that have been adopted and for which an extension of time is not sought.

(f) If a city or county that is granted a time extension pursuant to this section determines that it cannot complete the elements of the general plan for which the extension has been granted within the prescribed time period, the city or county may request one additional extension of time, not to exceed one year, if the city or county is able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the director that substantial progress has been made toward the completion of the general plan. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to an extension of time granted pursuant to subdivision (b).

(g) An extension of time granted pursuant to this section for the preparation and adoption of all or part of a city or county general plan is exempt from the provisions of Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 2. Section 65400 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65400. After the legislative body has adopted all or part of a general plan, the planning agency shall do both of the following:

(a) Investigate and make recommendations to the legislative body regarding reasonable and practical means for implementing the general plan or element of the general plan, so that it will serve as an effective guide for orderly growth and development, preservation and conservation of open-space land and natural resources, and the efficient expenditure of public funds relating to the subjects addressed in the general plan.

(b) Provide an annual report to the legislative body on the status of the plan and progress in its implementation, including the progress in meeting its share of regional housing needs determined pursuant to Section 65584.

SEC. 3. Section 65582 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65582. As used in this article:

(a) "Community," "locality," "local government," or "jurisdiction" means a city, city and county, or county.

(b) "Council of governments" means a single or multicounty council created by a joint powers agreement pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 1 of Title 1.

(c) "Department" means the Department of Housing and Community Development.

(d) "Housing element" or "element" means the housing element of the community's general plan, as required pursuant to this article and subdivision (c) of Section 65302.

(e) "Low- and moderate-income households" means persons and families of low or moderate incomes as defined by Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 4. Section 65584 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65584. (a) For purposes of subdivision (a) of Section 65583, the share of a city or county of the regional housing needs includes that share of the housing need of persons at all income levels within the area significantly affected by a general plan of the city or county. The distribution of regional housing needs shall, based upon available data take into consideration market demand for housing, employment opportunities, the availability of suitable sites and public facilities, commuting patterns, type and tenure of housing need, the loss of units contained in assisted housing developments, as defined in paragraph (8) of subdivision (a) of Section 65583, that changed to non-low-income use through mortgage prepayment, subsidy contract expirations, or termination of use restrictions, and the housing needs of farmworkers. The distribution shall seek to reduce the concentration of lower income households in cities or counties which already have disproportionately high proportions of lower income households. Based upon data provided by the Department of Finance, in consultation with each council of government, the Department of Housing and Community Development shall determine the regional share of the statewide housing need at least two years prior to the second revision, and all subsequent revisions as required pursuant to Section 65588. Based upon data provided by the department relative to the statewide need for housing, each council of governments shall determine the existing and projected housing need for its region. Within 30 days following notification of this determination, the department shall ensure that this determination is consistent with the statewide housing need. The department may revise the determination of the council of governments if necessary to obtain this consistency. The appropriate council of governments shall determine the share for each city or county consistent with the criteria of this subdivision and with the advice of the department subject to the procedure established pursuant to subdivision (c) at least one year prior to the second revision, and at five-year intervals following the second revision pursuant to Section 65588. The council of governments shall submit to the department information regarding the assumptions and methodology to be used in allocating the regional housing need. As part of the allocation of the regional housing need, the council of governments, or the department pursuant to subdivision (b), shall provide each city and county with data describing the assumptions and methodology used in calculating its share of the regional housing need. The department shall submit to each council of governments information regarding the assumptions and methodology to be used in allocating the regional share of the statewide housing need. As part of its determination of the regional share of the statewide housing need, the department shall provide each council of governments with data describing the assumptions and methodology used in calculating its share of the statewide housing need. The councils of governments shall provide each city and county with the department's information.

(b) For areas with no council of governments, the department shall determine housing market areas and define the regional housing need for cities and counties within these areas pursuant to the provisions for the distribution of regional housing needs in subdivision (a). Where the department determines that a city or county possesses the capability and resources and has agreed to accept the responsibility, with respect to its jurisdiction, for the identification and determination of housing market areas and regional housing needs, the department shall delegate this responsibility to the cities and counties within these areas.

(c) (1) Within 90 days following a determination of a council of governments pursuant to subdivision (a), or the department's determination pursuant to subdivision (b), a city or county may propose to revise the determination of its share of the regional housing need in accordance with the considerations set forth in subdivision (a). The proposed revised share shall be based upon available data and accepted planning methodology, and supported by adequate documentation.

(2) Within 60 days after the time period for the revision by the city or county, the council of governments or the department, as the case may be, shall accept the proposed revision, modify its earlier determination, or indicate, based upon available data and accepted planning methodology, why the proposed revision is inconsistent with the regional housing need.

(A) If the council of governments or the department, as the case may be, does not accept the proposed revision, then the city or county shall have the right to request a public hearing to review the determination within 30 days.

(B) The city or county shall be notified within 30 days by certified mail, return receipt requested, of at least one public hearing regarding the determination.

(C) The date of the hearing shall be at least 30 days from the date of the notification.

(D) Before making its final determination, the council of governments or the department, as the case may be, shall consider comments, recommendations, available data, accepted planning methodology, and local geological and topographic restraints on the production of housing.

(3) If the council of governments or the department accepts the proposed revision or modifies its earlier determination, the city or county shall use that share. If the council of governments or the department grant a revised allocation pursuant to paragraph (1), the council of governments or the department shall ensure that the current total housing need is maintained. If the council of governments or department indicates that the proposed revision is inconsistent with the regional housing need, the city or county shall use the share which was originally determined by the council of governments or the department.

(4) The determination of the council of governments or the department, as the case may be, shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(5) The council of governments or the department shall reduce the share of regional housing needs of a county if all of the following conditions are met:

(A) One or more cities within the county agree to increase its share or their shares in an amount which will make up for the reduction.

(B) The transfer of shares shall only occur between a county and cities within that county.

(C) The county's share of low-income and very low income housing shall be reduced only in proportion to the amount by which the county's share of moderate- and above moderate-income housing is reduced.

(D) The council of governments or the department, whichever assigned the county's share, shall have authority over the approval of the proposed reduction, taking into consideration the criteria of subdivision (a) of Section 65584.

(6) The housing element shall contain an analysis of the factors and circumstances, with all supporting data, justifying the revision. All materials and data used to justify any revision shall be made available upon request by any interested party within seven days upon payment of reasonable costs of reproduction unless the costs are waived due to economic hardship.

(d) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), any ordinance, policy, or standard of a city or county which directly limits, by number, the building permits which may be issued for residential construction, or which limits for a set period of time the number of buildable lots which may be developed for residential purposes, shall not be a justification for a determination or a reduction in the share of a city or county of the regional housing need.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply to any city or county which imposes a moratorium on residential construction for a set period of time in order to preserve and protect the public health and safety. If a moratorium is in effect, the city or county shall, prior to a revision pursuant to subdivision (c), adopt findings which specifically describe the threat to the public health and safety and the reasons why construction of the number of units specified as its share of the regional housing need would prevent the mitigation of that threat.

(e) Any authority to review and revise the share of a city or county of the regional housing need granted under this section shall not constitute authority to revise, approve, or disapprove the manner in which the share of the city or county of the regional housing need is implemented through its housing program.

(f) A fee may be charged interested parties for any additional costs caused by the amendments made to subdivision (c) by Chapter 1684 of the Statutes of 1984 reducing from 45 to seven days the time within which materials and data shall be made available to interested parties.

(g) Determinations made by the department, a council of governments, or a city or county pursuant to this section are exempt from the provisions of the California Environmental Quality Act, Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 4.5. Section 65584 of the Government Code is amended to read:

in assisted housing developments, as defined in paragraph (8) of subdivision (a) of Section 65583, that changed to non-low-income use through mortgage prepayment, subsidy contract expirations, or termination of use restrictions, and the housing needs of farmworkers and shall promote efficient commuting patterns and the provision of housing close to employment opportunities or public transportation facilities. The distribution shall seek to reduce the concentration of lower income households in cities or counties which already have disproportionately high proportions of lower income households. Based upon data provided by the Department of Finance, in consultation with each council of government, the Department of Housing and Community Development shall determine the regional share of the statewide housing need at least two years prior to the second revision, and all subsequent revisions as required pursuant to Section 65588. Based upon data provided by the department relative to the statewide need for housing, each council of governments shall determine the existing and projected housing need for its region. Within 30 days following notification of this determination, the department shall ensure that this determination is consistent with the statewide housing need. The department may revise the determination of the council of governments if necessary to obtain this consistency. The appropriate council of governments shall determine the share for each city or county consistent with the criteria of this subdivision and with the advice of the department subject to the procedure established pursuant to subdivision (c) at least one year prior to the second revision, and at five-year intervals following the second revision pursuant to Section 65588. The council of governments shall provide each locality with the net job growth projections for the locality which the council of governments considered in developing local shares of projected regional housing needs.

The council of governments shall submit to the department information regarding the assumptions and methodology to be used in allocating the regional housing need. As part of the allocation of the regional housing need, the council of governments, or the department pursuant to subdivision (b), shall provide each city and county with data describing the assumptions and methodology used in calculating its share of the regional housing need. The department shall submit to each council of governments information regarding the assumptions and methodology to be used in allocating the regional share of the statewide housing need. As part of its determination of the regional share of the statewide housing need, the department shall provide each council of governments with data describing the assumption and methodology used in calculating its share of the statewide housing need. The councils of governments shall provide each city and county with the department's information.

(b) For areas with no council of governments, the department shall determine housing market areas and define the regional housing need for cities and counties within these areas pursuant to the provisions for the distribution of regional housing needs in subdivision (a). Where the department determines that a city or county possesses the capability and resources and has agreed to accept the responsibility, with respect to its jurisdiction, for the identification and determination of housing market areas and regional housing needs, the department shall delegate this responsibility to the cities and counties within these areas.

(c) (1) Within 90 days following a determination of a council of governments pursuant to subdivision (a), or the department's determination pursuant to subdivision (b), a city or county may propose to revise the determination of its share of the regional housing need in accordance with the considerations set forth in subdivision (a). The proposed revised share shall be based upon available data and accepted planning methodology, and supported by adequate documentation.

(2) Within 60 days after the time period for the revision by the city or county, the council of governments or the department, as the case may be, shall accept the proposed revision, modify its earlier determination, or indicate, based upon available data and accepted planning methodology, why the proposed revision is inconsistent with the regional housing need.

(A) If the council of governments or the department, as the case may be, does not accept the proposed revision, then the city or county shall have the right to request a public hearing to review the determination within 30 days.

(B) The city or county shall be notified within 30 days by certified mail, return receipt requested, of at least one public hearing regarding the determination.

(C) The date of the hearing shall be at least 30 days from the date of the notification.

(D) Before making its final determination, the council of governments or the department, as the case may be, shall consider comments, recommendations, available data, accepted planning methodology, and local geological and topographic restraints on the production of housing.

(3) If the council of governments or the department accepts the proposed revision or modifies its earlier determination, the city or county shall use that share. If the council of governments or the department grants a revised allocation pursuant to paragraph (1), the council of governments or the department shall ensure that the current total housing need is maintained. If the council of governments or department indicates that the proposed revision is inconsistent with the regional housing need, the city or county shall use the share which was originally determined by the council of governments or the department.

(4) The determination of the council of governments or the department, as the case may be, shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(5) The council of governments or the department shall reduce the share of regional housing needs of a county if all of following conditions are met:

(A) One or more cities within the county agree to increase its share or their shares in an amount which will make up for the reduction.

(B) The transfer of shares shall only occur between a county and the cities within that county.

(C) The county's share of low-income and very low income housing shall be reduced only in proportion to the amount by which the county's share of moderate- and above moderate-income housing is reduced.

(D) The council of governments or the department, whichever assigned the county's share, shall have authority over the approval of the proposed reduction, taking into consideration the criteria of subdivision (a) of Section 65584.

(6) The housing element shall contain an analysis of the factors and circumstances, with all supporting data, justifying the revision. All materials and data used to justify any revision shall be made available upon a request by any interested party within seven days upon payment of reasonable costs of reproduction unless the costs are waived due to economic hardship.

(d) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), any ordinance, policy, or standard of a city or county which directly limits, by number, the building permits which may be issued for residential construction, or which limits for a set period of time the number of buildable lots which may be developed for residential purposes, shall not be a justification for a determination or a reduction in the share of a city or county of the regional housing need.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply to any city or county which imposes a moratorium on residential construction for a set period of time in order to preserve and protect the public health and safety. If a moratorium is in effect, the city or county shall, prior to a revision pursuant to subdivision (c), adopt findings which specifically describe the threat to the public health and safety and the reasons why construction of the number of units specified as its share of the regional housing need would prevent the mitigation of that threat.

(e) Any authority to review and revise the share of a city, or county of the regional housing need granted under this section shall not constitute authority to revise, approve, or disapprove the manner in which the share of the city or county of the regional housing need is implemented through its housing program.

(f) A fee may be charged interested parties for any additional costs caused by the amendments made to subdivision (c) by Chapter 1684 of the Statutes of 1984 reducing from 45 to seven days the time within which materials and data shall be made available to interested parties.

(g) Determinations made by the department, a council of governments, or a city or county pursuant to this section are exempt from the provisions of the California Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code).

SEC. 5. Section 65585 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65585. (a) In the preparation of its housing element, each city and county shall consider the guidelines adopted by the department pursuant to Section 50459 of the Health and Safety Code. Those guidelines shall be advisory to each city or county in the preparation of its housing element.

(b) At least 90 days prior to adoption of its housing element, or at least 45 days prior to the adoption of an amendment to this element, the planning agency shall submit a draft element or draft amendment to the department. The department shall review the draft and report its written findings to the planning agency within 90 days of its receipt of the draft in the case of an adoption or within 45 days of its receipt in the case of a draft amendment.

(c) In the preparation of its findings, the department may consult with any public agency, group, or person. The department shall receive and consider any written comments from any public agency, group, or person regarding the draft or adopted element or amendment under review.

(d) In its written findings, the department shall determine whether the draft element or draft amendment substantially complies with the requirements of this article.

(e) Prior to the adoption of its draft element or draft amendment, the legislative body shall consider the findings made by the department. If the department's findings are not available within the time limits set by this section, the legislative body may act without them.

(f) If the department finds that the draft element or draft amendment does not substantially comply with the requirements of this article, the legislative body shall take one of the following actions:

(1) Change the draft element or draft amendment to substantially comply with the requirements of this article.

(2) Adopt the draft element or draft amendment without changes. The legislative body shall include in its resolution of adoption written findings which explain the reasons the legislative body believes that the draft element or draft amendment substantially complies with the requirements of this article despite the findings of the department.

(g) Promptly following the adoption of its element or amendment, the planning agency shall submit a copy to the department.

(h) The department shall, within 120 days, review adopted housing elements or amendments and report its findings to the planning agency.

SEC. 6. Section 65587 of the Government Code is amended to

65587. (a) Each city, county, or city and county shall bring its housing element, as required by subdivision (c) of Section 65302, into conformity with the requirements of this article on or before October 1, 1981, and the deadlines set by Section 65588. Except as specifically provided in subdivision (b) of Section 65361, the Director of Planning and Research shall not grant an extension of time from these requirements.

(b) Any action brought by any interested party to review the conformity with the provisions of this article of any housing element or portion thereof or revision thereto shall be brought pursuant to Section 1085 of the Code of Civil Procedure; the court's review of compliance with the provisions of this article shall extend to whether the housing element or portion thereof or revision thereto substantially complies with the requirements of this article.

(c) If a court finds that an action of a city, county, or city and county, which is required to be consistent with its general plan, does not comply with its housing element, the city, county, or city and county shall bring its action into compliance within 60 days. However, the court shall retain jurisdiction throughout the period for compliance to enforce its decision. Upon the court's determination that the 60-day period for compliance would place an undue hardship on the city, county, or city and county, the court may extend the time period for compliance by an additional 60 days.

SEC. 7. Section 65589.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

65589.3. In any action filed on or after January 1, 1991, taken to challenge the validity of a housing element, there shall be a rebuttable presumption of the validity of the element or amendment if, pursuant to Section 65585, the department has found that the element or amendment substantially complies with the requirements of this article.

SEC. 8. Section 50459 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50459. (a) The department may adopt, and from time to time revise, guidelines for the preparation of housing elements required by Section 65302 and Article 10.6 (commencing with Section 65580) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code.

(b) The department shall review housing elements and amendments for substantial compliance with Article 10.6 (commencing with Section 65580) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code and report its findings pursuant to Section 65585 of the Government Code.

(c) On or before December 31, 1991, and annually thereafter, the department shall report to the Legislature on the status of housing elements and the extent to which they comply with the requirements of Article 10.6 (commencing with Section 65580) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code. The department shall also make this report available to any other public agency, group, or person who requests a copy.

(d) The department may, in connection with any loan or grant application submitted to the agency, require submission to the department for review of any housing element and any local housing assistance plan adopted pursuant to the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-383).

SEC. 9. Section 4.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 65584 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and SB 727. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1991, (2) each bill amends Section 65584 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 727 in which case Section 4 shall not become operative.

SEC. 10. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 865 of the Financial Code, relating to financial institutions.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 865 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

865. As used in this article:

(a) "Account" means a demand, savings, or time deposit (including a time certificate of deposit), as defined in regulations promulgated pursuant to Sections 371b, 1828, and 3502 of Title 12 of the United States Code, respectively, which is established by one or more natural persons, or an unincorporated association of natural persons, pursuant to which the depositor may from time to time make deposits and effect withdrawals and as to which the address shown on the records of the bank is within the United States or its territories.

(b) "Depositor" means a person who is identified on the signature card for an account, or in the absence of a signature card, a person who has an interest in an account which is reflected on the records of the bank for that account to whom statements of account or other notices are normally given, or the agent of such person.

(c) "Charges" means those charges which a bank may, from time to time, impose on an account in the normal course of business in the operation of the account, and does not include:

(1) Charges which may be imposed for extraordinary services furnished at the specific request of the depositor.

(2) Charges or amounts required to be disclosed to the depositor pursuant to the Truth-in-Lending Act (15 U.S.C. Sec. 1601, et seq.) and Regulation Z (12 C.F.R. 226.1, et seq.), as amended.

(3) Charges which may be imposed in connection with the printing of checks ordered by the depositor.

(4) Charges which may be imposed on the account but which are actually asserted by another bank pursuant to the Commercial Code in the course of presentment, payment or collection of an item.

CHAPTER 1443

An act to amend Sections 8952.5 and 8957 of, to add Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 8630) to Part 6 of, to repeal and add Section 8958 of, and to repeal Section 8959 of, the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 8630) is added to Part 6 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.6. CALIFORNIA SUMMER SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY ACADEMY

8630. It is the intent of the Legislature, pursuant to this chapter, to do all of the following:

(a) Support the educational experiences of all pupils, and to assist them to excel, in the fields of mathematics, science, and technology, especially with regard to females and minority members, who have traditionally been underrepresented in those fields.

(b) Encourage and improve upon the performance of California pupils in national competitions in mathematics, science, and technology.

(c) Provide opportunities for capable pupils to participate in summer honors research programs with research faculty at the University of California and other institutions of higher education.

8631. The California Summer Science and Technology Academy is hereby established. The academy shall be a statewide program that shall be developed and operated to identify public high school pupils with high academic potential in mathematics, science, and technology, with an emphasis on females and minority members, to participate in university-based research programs. Special consideration shall be given to recruiting pupils who are participants in the Mathematics, Engineering, and Science Achievement program described in Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 8600). The pupils, in cooperation with teachers from sponsoring high schools, shall work directly with university research faculty to undertake and complete research purposes that are educationally significant and scientifically manageable. The objective of the research, for the purposes of this chapter, is to enhance the instruction in mathematics, science, and technology that is otherwise provided to the participating pupils in high school, to better prepare those pupils for coursework in those subject areas at the university level, and to provide research data to enhance the participation of those pupils in statewide, national, and international competitions in those subject areas.

8632. The State Department of Education shall enter into an interagency agreement with the University of California under which the university, in consultation with the California State University, shall establish and conduct a pilot project, pursuant to Section 8631, at one or more campuses of the University of California, at one or more campuses of the California State University, and at one or more private universities that emphasize research. That agreement shall provide for the apportionment of funding to pay a stipend for each participating pupil and high school teacher, and to reimburse each participating university for administrative costs incurred under the program. The State Department of Education shall assist the University of California in the placement of pupils for this purpose and, no later than June 30, 1991, shall report to the education policy committees of the Legislature concerning all of the following:

(a) The number of pupils participating in the program established under this chapter, and the high schools from which they were selected.

(b) The nature of the research projects in which the pupils participated.

(c) The number of participating pupils that continued their education at a postsecondary educational institution.

(d) A list of the sponsoring high schools and participating universities

8633. No provision of this chapter shall apply to the University of California unless the Regents of the University of California, by resolution, make that provision applicable.

SEC. 2. Section 8952.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8952.5. (a) The California State Summer School for the Arts shall be governed by a 15-member board of trustees, to be known as the Trustees of the California State Summer School for the Arts. The membership of the board shall be broadly representative of the cultural, ethnic, and geographic diversity of the state, and shall be composed of artists, arts educators, university professors and administrators, arts administrators, representatives of foundations, corporations, and commercial arts industries, and other distinguished citizens of the state.

(b) The membership of the board of trustees shall be as follows:

(1) Four members appointed by the Governor.

(2) One members appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly.

(3) One members appointed by the Senate Rules Committee.

(4) Two members appointed by the State Board of Education, one of whom shall be a current member of the State Board of Education.

(5) One member appointed by the California Arts Council, who shall be a current member of the council.

(6) One member appointed by the Trustees of the California State University.

(7) One member appointed by the Regents of the University of California.

(8) Four members appointed by the governing board of the nonprofit foundation established pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 8953.5, who shall be the president of the foundation, another officer of the foundation, a member of the governing body of the foundation, and one other person who is a member of the governing body of the foundation, has a prior relationship with the foundation, or has otherwise exhibited a continuing interest in the foundation or in the California State Summer School for the Arts.

(c) Each appointment shall be for a term of three years, and each member shall be eligible for reappointment.

(d) The board of trustees annually shall select a chairperson and vice chairperson, and annually shall hold not less than four meetings.

SEC. 3. Section 8957 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8957. (a) It is the Legislature's intent that at least 50 percent, but not more than 75 percent, of the actual costs of the California State Summer School for the Arts shall be financed by state funds beginning in the 1991–92 fiscal year. The balance of the operating costs shall be financed with fees and private support.

(b) The board of trustees shall set a tuition fee within a range that corresponds to actual program costs, up to but not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) per session in 1989. The amount of this fee may be increased by the board of trustees up to a 5 percent increase each year thereafter. The board of trustees may award full or partial scholarships on the basis of need and ability. Students unable to pay all or part of the fee may petition the board of trustees for a fee reduction or waiver. The State Department of Education, in conjunction with the board of trustees, shall promulgate rules and regulations regarding fee reduction and waivers, which shall ensure all of the following:

(1) That, to the degree scholarship funds are available, no talented applicant shall be denied admission solely because of inability to pay all or part of the fee.

(2) That any public announcement regarding the summer school program include notification that full scholarships are available, and information regarding the procedure for applying for a scholarship award.

(3) That, pursuant to Section 8953, student participation in the summer school program shall be broadly representative of the socioeconomic and ethnic diversity of the state.

(c) The Foundation for the California State Summer School for the Arts, which has been established as a nonprofit foundation to support the California State Summer School for the Arts, may raise funds from the private sector which may be used by the summer school for general program operating costs, scholarships, program augmentation, public relations, recruitment activity, or special projects. Private support may include, but not be limited to, direct grants to the summer school from private corporations or foundations, individual contributions, in-kind contributions, or fundraising benefits conducted by any entity.

SEC. 4. Section 8958 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 8958 is added to the Education Code, to read:

8958. The State Department of Education shall prepare and conduct an evaluation of the California State Summer School for the Arts (CSSSA), and, on or before January 1, 1992, shall report its findings to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the Legislature regarding the progress and impact of the CSSSA, which evaluation shall include all of the following:

(a) The extent to which the CSSSA has met the legislative intent and statutory requirements of Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 8950) of Part 6.

(b) An evaluation comparing annual expenditures and revenues, including in-kind donations, with annual budget projections; and evaluating the CSSSA's ability to meet its requirements for matching funds and any statutory constraints on the fundraising capability or performance of the CSSSA and its foundation.

(c) The effect of the organizational structure, and the relationship of CSSSA with the Trustees of the CSSSA, the CSSSA Foundation, and the State Department of Education, on fiscal accountability, policy formation, program operation, and fundraising capability.

(d) Recommendations for improvements in the CSSSA's ability to meet its goals and objectives, and its fiscal accountability, performance, and fundraising capability.

SEC. 6. Section 8959 of the Education Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 1444

An act to add Article 6.7 (commencing with Section 69619) to Chapter 2 of Part 42 of the Education Code, relating to education, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 6.7 (commencing with Section 69619) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 42 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 6.7. California School Paraprofessional Teacher Training Program

69619. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that over the next five years, as many as 50 percent of the classroom teachers in many urban school districts with large percentages of minority pupils will be eligible for retirement. The Legislature further finds and declares that in many school districts there are a number of classified employees, particularly minority group members, who are enrolled in, who have been enrolled in, or who would be interested in enrolling in, a teacher training program leading to a teaching credential if they were provided assistance in applying for admission and financial aid for that purpose.

The Legislature also finds and declares that educational paraprofessionals who serve pupils in the public schools provide valuable instructional services to public school pupils. A program to enhance instructional competencies and to prepare school paraprofessionals to become teachers would result in improved services in terms of their role in the instructional program in the classroom.

69619.1. (a) The California School Paraprofessional Teacher Training Program is hereby established for the purpose of recruiting paraprofessionals to participate in a pilot program designed to encourage them to enroll in a teacher training program and to provide instructional service as a teacher in the public schools.

(b) No later than July 1, 1992, the Commission on Teacher Credentialing, in consultation with the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, the Chancellor of the California State University, and representatives of certificated and classified employee organizations, shall select 12 or more school districts or county offices of education, each of which applies for that selection and has 300 or more classified employees, to participate in a pilot program for the recruitment of school paraprofessional employees who wish to enroll in teacher training programs. The commission shall ensure that a total of 600 school paraprofessionals are recruited from among the 12 participating school districts or county offices of education. The commission shall also require that at least 40 percent of the school paraprofessionals employed by each school district or county office of education selected to participate in the pilot program are members of racial and ethnic minority groups, as determined by data compiled under the California Basic Educational Data System maintained by the State Department of Education. The criteria adopted by the commission for the selection of school districts or county offices of education to participate in the pilot program shall include the following:

(1) The extent to which the applicant district or county office demonstrates the capacity and willingness to accommodate the participation of school paraprofessionals of the district in teacher training programs conducted at institutions of higher education.

(2) The extent to which the applicant district's or county office's plan for the implementation of its recruitment program involves the active participation of one or more local campuses of the California Community Colleges or the California State University in the development of coursework and teaching programs for participating school paraprofessionals. Each selected school district or county office of education shall be required to enter into a written articulation agreement with the participating campuses of the California Community Colleges and the California State University.

(c) Each selected school district or county office of education shall provide information and assistance to each school paraprofessional it recruits under the pilot program regarding admission to a teacher training program.

(d) The school district or county office of education shall recruit and organize groups, or "cohorts," of school paraprofessionals, of not less than 30 paraprofessionals in each cohort. Cohorts shall be organized to consist of school paraprofessionals having approximately equal academic experience and qualifications, as determined by the district or county office of education. The members of each cohort shall enroll in the same campus, and shall be provided by the school district or county office of education with appropriate support and information throughout the course of their studies. Each school district or county office of education shall certify that it has received a commitment from each member of a cohort that he or she will complete one school year of classroom instruction in the district county office of education for each year that he or she receives assistance for books, fees, and tuition while attending a community college or a campus of the California State University under the program. To the extent possible, members of each cohort shall proceed through the same waiver and credential programs. "Teacher training program," for the purposes of this article, means any undergraduate program of instruction conducted at a campus of the California Community Colleges, or undergraduate or graduate program conducted at a campus of the California State University, that is designed to qualify students enrolled in the program for a teaching credential authorizing instruction in kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive.

(e) The commission shall contract with an independent evaluator with a proven record of experience in assessing career-advancement teacher training programs to determine the success of the recruitment programs established pursuant to subdivision (b). The evaluation shall be made on an annual basis and shall include, but shall not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) The number and racial and ethnic classifications of school paraprofessionals successfully recruited under this article for participation in a teacher training program.

(2) The number and racial and ethnic classifications of school paraprofessionals participating in the pilot program who successfully complete the teacher training program each year.

(3) The total cost per person participating in the pilot program who successfully obtains a teaching credential, based upon all state, local, federal, and other sources of funding.

(4) The economic status of persons participating in the pilot program.

(5) A description of financial and other resources made available to each recruitment program by participating school districts or county offices of education, the California Community Colleges, the California State University, and other participating organizations.

(f) Each selected school district or county offices of education shall report to the commission regarding the progress of each cohort of school paraprofessionals, and other information regarding its recruitment program as the commission may direct.

(g) No later than January 1, 1993, and again by January 1, 1994, and by January 1, 1995, the commission shall report to the Legislature regarding the status of the pilot program, including, but not limited to, the number of school paraprofessionals recruited, the academic progress of the school paraprofessionals recruited, the number of school paraprofessionals recruited who are subsequently employed as teachers in the public schools, and other effects upon the operation of the public schools.

(h) "Teaching paraprofessional," for the purposes of this article, includes the following job classifications: teacher associate, teacher assistant, teacher aide, pupil service aide, and library aide.

(i) "Local education agency" for the purposes of this article, includes county offices of education that can participate in the pilot programs.

69619.3. The Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall conduct a survey of classified employees in each school district or county office of education maintaining kindergarten and any of grades 1 to 12, inclusive, that has 300 or more classified employees where at least 40 percent of the paraprofessionals employed by the district or county office are members of racial and ethnic minority groups. The survey shall be addressed to those classified employees of each of those districts or county offices who express the desire to enroll in a postsecondary education program in order to obtain a teaching credential authorizing instruction in kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, and shall determine the educational attainment of each of those classified employees, and the approximate coursework that would be required in order for the classified employee to obtain that teaching credential. The survey shall be designed to determine the extent to which the need exists, in the 1992-93 fiscal year and thereafter, for the pilot program described in Section 69619.1. The survey shall include the views of the management employees of the local school districts or county offices of education regarding their participation in the pilot programs. The commission shall submit draft recommendations based on the results of the survey to the Legislature no later than May 1, 1991. The commission shall submit the results of the survey to the Legislature no later than July 1, 1990.

SEC. 2. The sum of eighty-five thousand dollars ($85,000) is hereby appropriated from the Teacher Credentials Fund to the Commission on Teacher Credentialing for the purpose of conducting the survey pursuant to Section 69619.3 of the Education Code.

CHAPTER 1445

An act to amend Section 12507 of the Vehicle Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12507 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12507. Any person 16 years of age but less than 18, may apply for a driver's license, and the department may issue a driver's license to that person upon successful completion of an examination as required by the department and upon compliance with one of the following:

(a) Satisfactory completion of approved courses in automobile driver education and driver training maintained pursuant to provisions of the Education Code in any secondary school of California, or equivalent instruction in a secondary school of another state.

(b) Satisfactory completion of six hours or more of behind-the-wheel instruction by a driving school or an independent driving instructor licensed under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 11100) of Division 5 and either an accredited course in automobile driver education in any secondary school of California pursuant to provisions of the Education Code or satisfactory completion of equivalent professional instruction acceptable to the department. To be acceptable to the department, the professional instruction shall meet minimum standards to be prescribed by the department, which standards shall be at least equal to the requirements for driver education and training contained in the rules and regulations adopted by the State Board of Education pursuant to provisions of the Education Code. A person who has complied with this subdivision shall not be required by the governing board of a school district to comply with subdivision (a) in order to graduate from high school.

An act making an appropriation for the payment of claims against the State of California, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of one million one hundred sixty-nine thousand forty-three dollars and sixty-two cents ($1,169,043.62) is hereby appropriated, in accordance with the following schedule, to the Secretary of the State Board of Control to pay claims accepted by the State Board of Control:

(a) From the Bank and Corporation Tax Fund	$ 2,255.83
(b) From the General Fund	773,291.94

(z) In Mono County, the board of supervisors may, by ordinance, prescribe a higher rate of compensation for superior court reporters.

SEC. 1.5. Section 72608 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72608. Certain classes of positions prescribed in Article 2 (commencing with Section 72640), Article 3 (commencing with Section 72700), and Article 4 (commencing with Section 72750) of this chapter are deemed to be related in job and compensation to position classifications included in the Los Angeles County Code, and in the case of certain classes of positions, to the administrative series included in Section 69894.1. In order to maintain the relationship of compensation and employee rights and benefits between such officers and attachés of municipal courts and county or superior court employees having commensurate duties and responsibilities and to provide appropriate salary adjustments and employee rights and benefits for related classes of court positions, the provisions of this section shall govern salary adjustments and employee rights and benefits for officers and attachés of municipal courts in Los Angeles County.

On the effective date of any amendment to such code adjusting the salary of a county employee classification listed in the table of positions set forth in this section, or on the effective date of a resolution or ordinance by the board of supervisors approving interim salary adjustments for superior court classes pursuant to Section 69894.2, the salary of the equivalent municipal court position listed opposite thereto and each other class of court position indented immediately thereunder shall be adjusted an equivalent number of schedules in the salary schedule to which such position is attached. In no event shall any one such adjustment exceed eight schedule numbers. If the level of compensation established by any such salary adjustment is not reflected in the salary schedule number provided for any court classification, the adjustment shall apply to each position in such classification on the effective date of the act fixing such salary schedule number. Classes of positions in the Performance-Based Pay Plan shall be compensated and adjusted in accordance with provisions approved by the board of supervisors.

Likewise, the salary of any court classification being enumerated in Article 2 (commencing with Section 72640), Article 3 (commencing with Section 72700), or Article 4 (commencing with Section 72750) of this chapter for the first time as an amendment to this chapter shall be adjusted as necessary on the effective date of such amendment to provide the same relationship to the county classification to which it is attached as that established when the court classification was approved in accordance with the provisions of Section 72607.

All classes of positions approved by a majority of the judges of the municipal court and the board of supervisors for inclusion in the Los Angeles County Performance-Based Pay Plan will be compensated in accordance with the provisions of this plan as set forth in Part 3, Chapter 6.08, of the Los Angeles County Code. All of these provisions are applicable to participants in the Marshal's Department, except that for the marshal, the appointing authority is the muncipal court judges of Los Angeles County, and for all other participants in the marshal's department, the authority is the marshal. For purposes of PBP administration only, the appointing authority for the court administrator, Los Angeles Judicial District, is the court's executive committee. The court administrator, is the appointing authority for all other participants in the Los Angeles Judicial District.

The presiding judge, the immediate past presiding judge (if still a member of the Los Angeles Municipal Court) and the assistant presiding judge will confer with the court administrator to establish new performance goals and evaluate the completion of previously established goals; these judges will then rate the court administrator's performance using the PBP rating categories established in the county code. The presiding judge shall present this rating to the executive committee for ratification at its July meeting. In the event that the executive committee does not act upon the rating, the presiding judge shall forward the rating to the CAO for inclusion in the Los Angeles Municipal Court's Merit Salary Increase Guideline. In the event a rating is not completed, the court administrator's salary will be adjusted in accordance with the Los Angeles Municipal Court Merit Increase Guideline based on a "fully meets expectations" rating.

Any existing special pay provision applicable to court classes included in PBP and which is expressed in terms of additional schedules of compensation will be converted to a percentage basis in accordance with the county's plan which equates each schedule with 2.75 percent.

Salary adjustments made pursuant to this section shall be on an interim basis and shall be effective only until January 1 of the second year following the year in which the adjustment is made, unless ratified by the Legislature.

Officers and attachés of municipal courts in Los Angeles County shall be entitled to all employee rights, programs and benefits, including, but not limited to, paid medical plans, management incentive, pay for performance, deferred compensation plans, flexible benefit plans, and early separation programs, parking and cafeteria privileges, longevity pay, shooting allowance, uniform and equipment allowance, and the same rights to meet with those entities which prescribe their compensation, that are provided for or made applicable to the equivalent Los Angeles County and county clerk/superior court employee classification. Participation in management incentive early separation programs and pay for performance shall be established by joint action and approval of a majority of the board of supervisors and a majority of the judges of the court, except in the Los Angeles Judicial District where such joint action shall be approved by a majority of the board of supervisors and a majority of the court's executive committee.

Bonus Level I assignments of deputy marshals are as follows:

Nineteen positions—assistant commander, small division

Twelve positions—court supervisor

Nine positions—field supervisor

Nine positions—office supervisor

Three positions communications and fleet management supervisor
One position—training officer
One position—real estate levy/bookkeeping section supervisor

Bonus Level II assignments of deputy marshals are as follows:
One position security liaison and investigations

Deputy marshals with Bonus Level I assignments shall receive additional compensation in the same amounts, for the same periods, and paid on the same terms, as deputy sheriffs assigned to Bonus Level I positions. Deputy marshals with Bonus Level II assignments shall receive additional compensation in the same amounts, for the same periods, and paid on the same terms, as deputy sheriffs assigned to Bonus Level II positions.

In addition to the salary adjustment otherwise provided by this section, persons employed in the classifications of executive secretary, M.C., senior management secretary, M.C., and secretary to the presiding judge shall receive a one-time only two-schedule salary increase effective January 1, 1989. The resulting salary rate shall constitute the base rates for subsequent salary adjustments.

In addition to the salary provided by the applicable performance-based pay provisions, a 16.5 percent bonus shall be paid to no more than one position of deputy court administrator in the Los Angeles Municipal Court who is admitted to practice law before all courts in California and required to render legal opinions and provide legal advice to the court administrator and judges.

Any deputy clerk grade I, II, III, or IV who, in addition to a regular courtroom assignment, is required to operate and monitor electronic recording equipment to produce the official record of the court proceedings shall receive a two-schedule increase in compensation while so engaged. Effective January 3, 1989, any Deputy Clerk IV assigned to a courtroom, who in addition to his or her regular duties, is required to operate and monitor electronic recording equipment to produce a record of court proceedings shall receive an increase of eight standard salary levels while so engaged. However, in no event shall a person who is receiving additional compensation for performing duties involving greater skill and responsibility as described in subdivision (b) of Section 72705 and subdivisions (j), (k), and (l) of Section 72755 be eligible to receive additional compensation pursuant to this subdivision, except for a deputy clerk grade III assigned to the regular duties of a deputy clerk grade IV as provided in subdivision (i) of Section 72755.

SEC. 2. Section 72609 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72645. The marshal shall appoint all of the following:

(a) One assistant marshal. The marshal shall make the appointment from the peace officer members of the marshal's office of the rank of lieutenant or higher and the appointee shall serve solely at the pleasure of the marshal. Section 72649 does not apply to the appointment to, nor removal of a person from, this position, but all other provisions of Section 72649 apply. Upon removal by the marshal for any reason other than that which would be cause for the discharge of any other member, an appointee shall revert to the rank held by the appointee prior to his or her appointment to the position of assistant marshal.

(b) Three commanders. Upon the occurrence of a vacancy, any succeeding appointment to this position may be made by the marshal at his or her sole discretion. At that time and thereafter, Section 72649 shall not be applicable to the appointment to, nor removal of, a person from, this position, but all other provisions of Section 72649 shall be applicable. The marshal shall make this appointment from the peace officer members of his or her office of the rank of lieutenant or higher, and the appointee shall serve solely at the pleasure of the marshal. Upon removal by the marshal for any reason other than that which would be cause for the discharge of any other member, an appointee shall revert to the rank held prior to appointment as commander.

(c) Nine captains.

(d) Twenty-eight lieutenants.

(e) Forty sergeants.

(f) Six hundred ten deputy marshals; except that the number of deputy marshals shall be reduced by the number of deputy marshal IV positions required to be retained pursuant to Section 72645.5.

(g) Twenty-seven deputy marshal trainees. Appointments to the positions shall be made from civil service lists resulting from open competitive examinations, provided that notwithstanding Section 72649, the appointees shall be subject to a 12-month period of probation.

(h) Four deputy marshal-matrons, each of whom shall have completed a course of training which meets the requirements of the POST commission for a specialized law enforcement basic certificate.

(i) Two deputy clerk-custody officers.

(j) Ten legal services specialists, marshal, each of whom shall receive monthly compensation at the same rate specified for the county's class of security officer II.

SEC. 26. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1448

An act to add Section 601 to the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 601 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

601. (a) Any person is guilty of trespass who makes a credible threat to cause serious bodily injury, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 417.6, to another person and who does any of the following:

(1) Within 14 days of the threat, unlawfully enters into the residence or real property contiguous to the residence of the person threatened without lawful purpose, and with the intent to execute the threat against the target of the threat.

(2) Within 14 days of the threat, knowing that the place is the threatened person's workplace, unlawfully enters into the workplace of the person threatened and carries out an act or acts to locate the threatened person within the workplace premises without lawful purpose, and with the intent to execute the threat against the target of the threat.

(b) Subdivision (a) is not applicable whenever the residence, the real property, or the workplace described in paragraph (1) or (2) of that subdivision that is entered is the residence, the real property, or the workplace of the person making the threat.

(c) This section shall not be applicable to persons engaged in labor union activities which are permitted to be carried out on the property by the California Agricultural Labor Relations Act, Part 3.5 (commencing with Section 1140) of Division 2 of the Labor Code, or by the National Labor Relations Act.

(d) A violation of subdivision (a) is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by both a fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 130255 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 130255 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

130255. (a) If a commuter or urban rail transit system is proposed to serve two or more counties, the commissions in those counties shall form a joint powers entity to conduct plan refinement studies, design, select the technology, determine the cost, locate the routes and access points, and supervise the construction, operation, and management of the system.

(b) The joint powers entity shall designate the operator of the system.

(c) If state funds are to be used for the operation of the system, at least four months prior to implementing service on the system, the joint powers entity shall submit its plan for the operation to the Legislature.

CHAPTER 1450

An act to amend Sections 751 and 754 of, and to add Section 754.5 to, the Evidence Code, relating to evidence.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 751 of the Evidence Code is amended to read:

751. (a) An interpreter shall take an oath that he or she will make a true interpretation to the witness in a language that the witness understands and that he or she will make a true interpretation of the witness' answers to questions to counsel, court, or jury, in the English language, with his or her best skill and judgment.

(b) In any proceeding in which a deaf or hard-of-hearing person is testifying under oath, the interpreter certified pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 754 shall advise the court whenever he or she is unable to comply with his or her oath taken pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) A translator shall take an oath that he or she will make a true translation in the English language of any writing he or she is to decipher or translate.

(d) An interpreter or translator regularly employed by the court and certified in accordance with Article 4 (commencing with Section 68560) of Chapter 2 of Title 8 of the Government Code, may file an oath as prescribed by this section with the clerk of the court. The filed oath shall serve for all subsequent court proceedings until the appointment is revoked by the court.

SEC. 2. Section 754 of the Evidence Code is amended to read:

754. (a) As used in this section, "deaf or hard-of-hearing person" means a person with a hearing loss so great as to prevent his or her understanding language spoken in a normal tone, but does not include a hard-of-hearing person provided with, and able to fully participate in the proceedings through the use of, an assistive listening system or computer-aided transcription equipment provided pursuant to Section 54.8 of the Civil Code.

(b) In any civil or criminal action, including any action involving a traffic or other infraction or any juvenile court proceeding, or any proceeding to determine the mental competency of a person, or any administrative hearing, where a party or witness is a deaf or hard-of-hearing person and the deaf or hard-of-hearing person is present and participating, the proceedings shall be interpreted in a language that the deaf or hard-of-hearing person understands by a qualified interpreter appointed by the court, tribunal, hearing officer, or other appropriate authority, or as agreed upon by the parties.

(c) For purposes of this section, "appointing authority" means a court, department, board, commission, agency, licensing or legislative body, or other body for proceedings requiring a qualified interpreter.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "interpreter" includes, but is not limited to, an oral interpreter, a sign language interpreter, or a deaf-blind interpreter, depending upon the needs of the deaf or hard-of-hearing person.

(e) For purposes of this section, "intermediary interpreter" means a deaf, hard-of-hearing, or hearing person who is able to assist in providing an accurate interpretation between spoken English and sign language or between variants of sign language or between American Sign Language and other foreign languages by acting as an intermediary between the deaf person and the qualified interpreter.

(f) For purposes of this section, "qualified interpreter" means an interpreter who has been certified as competent to interpret court proceedings by a testing organization, agency, or educational institution approved by the Judicial Council as qualified to administer tests to court interpreters for the deaf or hard-of-hearing.

(g) In the event that the appointed interpreter is not familiar with the deaf or hard-of-hearing person's use of particular signs or his or her particular variant of sign language, the court or other appointing authority shall, in consultation with the deaf or hard-of-hearing person or his or her representative, appoint an intermediary interpreter.

(h) Prior to January 1, 1992, the Judicial Council shall conduct a study to establish the guidelines pursuant to which it shall determine which testing organizations, agencies, or educational institutions will be approved to administer tests for certification of court interpreters for the deaf and hard-of-hearing. It is the intent of the Legislature that the study obtain the widest possible input from the public, including, but not limited to, educational institutions, the judiciary, linguists, members of the State Bar, court interpreters, members of professional interpreting organizations, and members of the deaf and hard-of-hearing communities. After obtaining public comment and completing its study, the Judicial Council shall publish these guidelines and shall approve one or more entities to administer testing for court interpreters for the deaf and hard-of-hearing. Initial approval of testing entities by the Judicial Council shall occur prior to January 1, 1992.

Commencing January 1, 1992, court interpreters for the deaf or hard-of-hearing shall meet the qualifications specified in subdivision (f).

(i) Persons appointed to serve as interpreters under this section shall be paid, in addition to actual travel costs, the prevailing rate paid to persons employed by the court to provide other interpreter services unless such service is considered to be a part of the person's regular duties as an employee of the state, county, or other political subdivision of the state. Payment of the interpreter's fee shall be a charge against the county, or other political subdivision of the state, in which such action is pending. Payment of the interpreter's fee in administrative proceedings shall be a charge against the appointing board, agency, commission, or licensing authority.

(j) No statement, written or oral, made by a person who is deaf or hard-of-hearing in reply to a question of a peace officer, or any other person having a prosecutorial function in any criminal or quasi-criminal investigation or proceeding, may be used against that deaf or hard-of-hearing person unless the statement was made knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently and was accurately interpreted, or the court makes a special finding that the statement was made knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently.

(k) In obtaining services of an interpreter for the purpose of obtaining a statement subject to subdivision (j), priority shall be given to first obtaining a qualified interpreter.

(l) Nothing in subdivision (j) or (k) shall be deemed to supersede the requirement of subdivision (b) for use of a qualified interpreter for deaf or hard-of-hearing persons participating as parties or witnesses in a trial or hearing.

(m) In any action or proceeding in which a deaf or hard-of-hearing person is a participant, the court or administrative authority shall not commence proceedings until the appointed interpreter is in full view of and spatially situated to assure proper communication with the deaf or hard-of-hearing person or persons involved as participants.

(n) Each superior court shall maintain a current roster of qualified interpreters certified pursuant to subdivision (f).

SEC. 3. Section 754.5 is added to the Evidence Code, to read:

754.5. Whenever an otherwise valid privilege exists between a deaf or hard-of-hearing person and another person, that privilege is not waived merely because an interpreter was used to facilitate their communication.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Article 6.6 (commencing with Section 18514) to Chapter 17 of Part 10 of Division 2 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxpayer contributions.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 6.6 (commencing with Section 18514) is added to Chapter 17 of Part 10 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 6.6. Designations to the California Seniors Special Fund

18514. (a) Any taxpayer who is allowed the credit under subdivision (c) of Section 17054 may designate on the tax return that a contribution is being made in an amount equal to the amount of the credit which is to be paid to the California Seniors Special Fund.

(b) The contribution may be made individually by each eligible signatory on the joint return who is allowed the credit under subdivision (c) of Section 17054.

(c) The taxpayer's return shall be treated as if no designation is made under this article if either of the following apply:

(1) Credits reported on the return are insufficient to cover the amount of the contribution.

(2) The payments received from the taxpayer are insufficient to cover the amount of tax owed plus the contribution.

(d) A designation under subdivision (a) shall be made for any taxable year on the initial return for that taxable year, and once made shall be irrevocable.

(e) The Franchise Tax Board shall revise the forms of the return to allow for the designation permitted under subdivision (a).

(f) A deduction shall be allowed under Article 6 (commencing with Section 17201) of Chapter 3 for any contribution made pursuant to subdivision (a).

18514.1. There is hereby established in the State Treasury the California Seniors Special Fund to receive contributions made pursuant to Section 18514.

The Franchise Tax Board shall notify the Controller of the amount of the credits designated pursuant to Section 18514 to be transferred into the California Seniors Special Fund. The Controller shall transfer from the Personal Income Tax Fund to the California Seniors Special Fund an amount not in excess of the sum of the credits designated by individuals pursuant to Section 18514 for payment into that fund.

18514.2. (a) All money transferred to the California Seniors Special Fund pursuant to Section 18514 shall, upon appropriation, be allocated as follows:

(1) To the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller for reimbursement of all costs incurred by the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller in connection with their duties under this article.

(2) To the California Commission on Aging, the sum of eighty thousand dollars ($80,000) in each fiscal year, or the balance of the fund if less than that amount remains for the operational support of the Area Agency on Aging Advisory Council of California (TACC) for its advocacy efforts on behalf of the senior citizens of California.

(3) The balance, if any, to the California Department of Aging for allocation on a per capita basis of individuals 60 years of age or older to the area agencies on aging for the support of direct services to senior citizens, as those services have been identified in each agency's area plan. Each area agency on aging which elects to receive moneys from the California Seniors Special Fund shall include in their annual report a narrative describing the amount of moneys so received and the purposes for which the money was expended.

(b) All moneys allocated pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) may be carried over from the year in which they were received and encumbered in any following year.

(c) The amount allocated pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) may be adjusted annually, as determined by the Department of Finance, to reflect changes in salary adjustments, price increases, and travel reimbursement adjustments included for all state agencies in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 2. The California Commission on Aging may accept gifts and grants from any source, public or private, to the California Fund for Senior Citizens in addition to those moneys contributed to the fund by taxpayers under the Personal Income Tax Law. The commission shall allocate gifts and grants made to the California Fund for Senior Citizens pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 18512 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that contributions transferred to the California Seniors Special Fund pursuant to Section 1 of this act are gifts to the state and not "proceeds of taxes" within the meaning of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1452

An act to add an article heading immediately preceding Section 41950 of, and to add Article 2 (commencing with Section 41970) to Chapter 9 of Part 2 of Division 30 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to solid waste, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An article heading is added immediately preceding Section 41950 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

Article 1. Generally

SEC. 2. Article 2 (commencing with Section 41970) is added to Chapter 9 of Part 2 of Division 30 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

Article 2. Trash Bags

41970. (a) On and after January 1, 1993, every seller of trash bags of 1.0 mil or greater thickness sold in California shall ensure that at least 10 percent of the material used in these trash bags is recycled postconsumer material.

(b) On and after January 1, 1995, every seller of trash bags of 0.75 mil or greater thickness sold in California shall ensure that at least 30 percent of the material used in these trash bags is recycled postconsumer material.

(c) For purposes of this article, "postconsumer material" means a finished product which would normally be disposed of as solid waste, having completed its intended end-use and product life cycle. "Postconsumer material" does not include manufacturing and fabrication scrap.

(d) For purposes of this article, "seller" refers to any person who sells trash bags to a retailer, distributor, or commercial or industrial user.

41971. On and after January 1, 1993, each seller of trash bags shall, on or before March 1 of each year, certify to the board that it has complied with the requirements of Section 41970 during the preceding calendar year.

41971.5. On and after January 1, 1993, each seller of recycled postconsumer material to a manufacturer of trash bags intended for sale or distribution in California shall, on or before March 1 of each year, certify to the board the percentage of recycled postconsumer materials it sells, the methods by which its recycled postconsumer materials are manufactured, and any other information the board may require for this certification.

41972. Each seller of trash bags and each seller of recycled postconsumer material required to make certifications pursuant to this article may be audited by the board.

41973. On and after January 1, 1995, if any seller of trash bags is unable to obtain sufficient amounts of recycled postconsumer material within any reporting period because (1) it was not available within a reasonable period of time or (2) it did not meet postconsumer material quality standards as promulgated by the board, the seller shall so certify to the board.

41975. If any seller of trash bags or of recycled postconsumer material provides the board with a false or misleading certificate pursuant to Sections 41971 or 41971.5, the board, within 30 days of making this determination, shall refer the false or misleading certificate to the Attorney General for prosecution for fraud.

41976. If any seller of trash bags provides the board with a false or misleading certificate pursuant to Section 41973, the board, within 30 days of making this determination, shall refer the false or misleading certificate to the Attorney General for prosecution for fraud.

41977. Specific information on material prices included in part of a certificate submitted to the board pursuant to Sections 41971 and 41973 is propriety information and shall not be made available to the general public.

SEC. 3. The sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) is hereby appropriated from money deposited in the Integrated Waste Management Account in the Integrated Waste Management Fund on and after January 1, 1991, to the California Integrated Waste Management Board to implement Article 2 (commencing with Section 41970) of Chapter 9 of Part 2 of Division 30 of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1453

An act to add Article 3 (commencing with Section 43700) to Chapter 3 of Part 5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 3 (commencing with Section 43700) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 5 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 3. Heavy-Duty Motor Vehicles

43700. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Significant reductions in diesel emissions from existing vehicles can be achieved by the adoption of stricter diesel fuel specifications on sulfur, aromatics, and other fuel properties.

(b) The state board, in consultation with the State Department of Health Services, is evaluating the potential carcinogenic effects of specific constituents of diesel exhaust. Diesel exhaust is known to include, as constituents, many substances known or suspected to be toxic air contaminants.

(c) The Environmental Protection Agency has agreed to study the health effects of various fuels, including diesel, to determine the relative impacts on public health and the environment.

(d) Notwithstanding the ongoing study and review, reduction of emissions from diesel powered vehicles, to the maximum extent feasible, is in the best interests of air quality and public health.

43701. (a) Not later than July 15, 1992, the state board, in consultation with the Bureau of Automotive Repair of the Department of Consumer Affairs and the review committee established pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 44021, shall, after a public hearing, adopt regulations which require that owners or operators of heavy-duty diesel motor vehicles perform regular inspections of their vehicles for excessive emissions of smoke. The inspection procedure, the frequency of inspections, the emission standards for smoke, and the actions the vehicle owner or operator is required to take to remedy excessive smoke emissions shall be specified by the state board. Those standards shall be developed in consultation with interested parties. The smoke standards adopted under this subdivision shall not be more stringent than those adopted under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 44000).

(b) Not later than December 15, 1993, the state board shall, in consultation with the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, and after a public hearing, adopt regulations which require that heavy-duty diesel motor vehicles subject to subdivision (a) utilize emission control equipment and alternative fuels. The state board shall consider, but not be limited to, the use of cleaner burning diesel fuel, or other methods which will reduce gaseous and smoke emissions to the greatest extent feasible, taking into consideration the cost of compliance. The regulations shall provide that any significant modification of the engine necessary to meet these requirements shall be made during a regularly scheduled major maintenance or overhaul of the vehicle's engine. If the state board requires the use of alternative fuels, it shall do so only to the extent those fuels are available. If the state board determines that heavy-duty diesel motor vehicles, or a class of heavy-duty diesel motor vehicles, cannot be modified to achieve lower emissions, as required by this subdivision, in a cost-effective manner, it shall prepare and submit a report of that determination to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1994.

(c) The state board shall adopt emissions standards and procedures for the qualification of any equipment used to meet the requirements of subdivision (b), and only qualified equipment shall be used.

(d) The state board shall hold a public hearing by December 31, 1992, to consider adopting regulations for low-emission heavy-duty motor vehicles.

CHAPTER 1454

An act to add Article 6.3 (commencing with Section 785) to Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 6.3 (commencing with Section 785) is added to Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code, to read:

Article 6.3. Senior Insurance

785. (a) All insurers, brokers, agents, and others engaged in the transaction of insurance owe a prospective insured who is age 65 or older, a duty of honesty, good faith, and fair dealing. This duty is in addition to any other duty, whether express or implied, that may exist.

(b) Conduct of an insurer, broker, or agent, or other person engaged in the transaction of insurance, during the offer and sale of a policy or certificate previous to the purchase is relevant to any action alleging a breach of the duty of good faith and fair dealing.

(c) This article shall not apply to Medicare supplement insurance as defined in Section 10195 or to long-term care insurance as defined in Section 10231.2.

786. All disability insurance policies and certificates offered for sale to individuals age 65 or older in California shall provide an examination period of 30 days after the receipt of the policy or certificate for purposes of review of the contract at which time the applicant may return to contract. The return shall void the policy or certificate from the beginning, and the parties shall be in the same position as if no contract had been issued. All premiums paid and any policy or membership fee shall be fully refunded to the applicant by the insurer or entity in a timely manner.

(a) For the purposes of this section a timely manner shall be no later than 30 days after the insurer or entity issuing the policy or certificate receives the returned policy or certificate.

(b) If the insurer or entity issuing the policy or certificate fails to refund all of the premiums paid, in a timely manner, then the applicant shall receive interest on the paid premium at the legal rate of interest on judgments as provided in Section 685.010 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The interest shall be paid from the date the insurer or entity received the returned policy or certificate.

(c) Each policy or certificate shall have a notice prominently printed in no less than 10-point upper case type, on the cover page of the policy or certificate and the outline of coverage, stating that the applicant has the right to return the policy or certificate within 30 days after its receipt via regular mail, and to have the full premium refunded.

786.5. All brokers, agents, or other entities offering a policy or certificate of disability insurance to persons age 65 or older in this state shall provide the prospective insured with a full and accurate comparison with existing health coverage, and shall explain the relationship of the proposed coverage to any existing health benefits provided by Medicare, Medi-Cal, or any other health benefits available to the applicant.

787. Any advertisement or other device designed to produce leads based on a response from a potential insured which is directed towards persons age 65 or older shall disclose that an agent may contact the applicant if that is the fact. In addition, an agent who makes contact with a person as a result of acquiring that person's name from a lead generating device shall disclose that fact in the initial contact with the person.

(a) No insurer, agent, broker, solicitor, or other person or other entity shall solicit persons age 65 and older in this state for the purchase of disability insurance through the use of a true or fictitious name which is deceptive or misleading with regard to the status, character, or proprietary or representative capacity of the entity or person, or to the true purpose of the advertisement.

(b) For the purposes of this section, an advertisement includes envelopes, stationery, business cards, or other materials designed to describe and encourage the purchase of a policy or certificate of disability insurance.

(c) Advertisements shall not employ words, letters, initials, symbols, or other devices which are so similar to those used by governmental agencies, a nonprofit or charitable institution, senior organization, or other insurer that they could have the capacity or tendency to mislead the public. Examples of such misleading materials, include, but are not limited to, those which imply any of the following:

(1) The advertised coverages are somehow provided by or are endorsed by any governmental agencies, nonprofit or charitable institution or senior organizations.

(2) The advertiser is the same as, is connected with, or is endorsed by governmental agencies, nonprofit or charitable institutions or senior organizations.

(d) No advertisement may use the name of a state or political subdivision thereof in a policy name or description.

(e) No advertisement may use any name, service mark, slogan, symbol, or any device in any manner that implies that the insurer, or the policy or certificate advertised, or that any agency who may call upon the consumer in response to the advertisement, is connected with a governmental agency, such as the Social Security Administration.

(f) No advertisement may imply that the reader may lose a right, or privilege, or benefits under federal, state, or local law if he or she fails to respond to the advertisement.

(g) An insurer, agent, broker, or other entity may not use an address so as to mislead or deceive as to the true identity, location, or licensing status of the insurer, agent, broker, or other entity.

(h) No insurer may use, in the trade name of its insurance policy or certificate, any terminology or words so similar to the name of a governmental agency or governmental program as to have the capacity or the tendency to confuse, deceive, or mislead a prospective purchaser.

(i) All advertisements used by agents, producers, brokers, solicitors, or other persons for a policy of an insurer shall have written approval of the insurer before they may be used.

(j) No insurer, agent, broker, or other entity may solicit a particular class by use of advertisements which state or imply that the occupational or other status as members of the class entitles them to reduced rates on a group or other basis when, in fact, the policy or certificate being advertised is sold on an individual basis at regular rates.

788. An insurer, agent, broker, or other person engaged in the transaction of insurance shall not knowingly recommend for sale, or sell, disability insurance providing health benefits directly to a Medi-Cal beneficiary who is age 65 or older. For disability insurance providing health benefits sold to a person age 65 or older, the application or other supplemental record signed by the applicant shall contain a question designed to determine if the applicant is receiving Medi-Cal benefits.

788.5. No insurer, broker, agent, or other person shall cause an insured aged 65 or older to replace a disability insurance policy or certificate unnecessarily.

(a) Replacement of insurance which results in a decrease of benefits and an increase in premium is prohibited by this section.

(b) This section shall not apply to those instances in which a policy or certificate is being replaced solely for the purpose of consolidating coverage with a single insurer.

(c) The application for disability insurance for a person age 65 or older shall contain a question or questions designed to elicit information regarding all other existing health and disability coverage in force by type and company.

788.7. No insurer, broker, agent, or other person shall knowingly recommend for purchase or sell disability insurance to a person age 65 or older which results in the insured having coverage, for medical benefits, for more than 100 percent of actual medical expenses.

789. (a) The commissioner shall have the administrative authority to assess penalties against insurers, brokers, agents, and other entities engaged in the transaction of insurance or any other person or entity for violations of this article.

(b) Upon a showing of a violation of this article in any civil action, a court may also assess the penalties prescribed in this chapter.

(c) Whenever the commissioner has reasonable cause to believe or determines after a public hearing that any insurer, agent, broker, or other person or entity engaged in the transaction of insurance, has violated this article the commissioner shall make and serve upon the insurer, broker, agent, or other person or entity a notice of hearing. The notice shall state the commissioner's intent to assess the administrative penalties, the time and place of the hearing, and the conduct, condition or ground upon which the commissioner is holding the hearing, and assessing the penalties. The hearing shall occur within 30 days after the notice is served. Within 30 days after the hearing the commissioner shall issue an order specifying the amount of the penalties to be paid. The penalties resulting from the hearing shall be paid to the Insurance Fund.

(d) The powers vested in the commissioner by this section shall be in addition to any and all powers and remedies vested in the commissioner by law.

(e) Actions for injunctive relief, penalties specified in Section 789.3, damages, restitution, and all other remedies in law, may be brought in superior court by the Attorney General, district attorney, or city attorney on behalf of the people of California. The court shall award reasonable attorney's fees and court costs to the prevailing plaintiff who establishes a violation of this article.

789.3. (a) Any broker, agent, or other person or other entity engaged in the transactions of insurance, other than an insurer, who violates this article is liable for administrative penalties of no less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for the first violation.

(b) Any broker, agent, other person, or other entity engaged in the business of insurance, other than an insurer, who engages in practices prohibited by this article a second or subsequent time or who commits a knowing violation of this article, is liable for administrative penalties of no less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and no more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each violation.

(c) Any insurer who violates this article is liable for administrative penalties of no less than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for the first violation.

(d) Any insurer who violates this article with a frequency as to indicate a general business practice or commits a knowing violation of this article, is liable for administrative penalties of no less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and no more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for each violation.

789.5. If any provision of this article or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the article which can be given effect, without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of the article are severable.

An act to amend Sections 54444.1 and 69655 of, to repeal Sections 54528 and 69657 of, and to repeal Article 8.5 (commencing with Section 69660) of Chapter 2 of Part 42 of, the Education Code, to amend Sections 15980 and 15982 of, to add Section 13337.3 to, to repeal Sections 8589.2, 8839, 15972, 16367, and 16367.1 of, and to repeal Article 1.9 (commencing with Section 16369) of Chapter 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, to amend Section 1596.865 of, and to repeal Sections 209, 446.8, 1528, 1569.70, 1597.06, 25412, 25413, 25414, and 41514 of, the Health and Safety Code, to amend Section 1864 of the Insurance Code, to repeal Section 30796.5 of the Streets and Highways Code, to amend Section 35581 of, and to repeal Section 1660.6 of, the Vehicle Code, and to repeal Section

5692 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to advisory commissions and task forces.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to review and evaluate existing and proposed state advisory commissions and task forces, and to abolish those which are determined unnecessary or inefficient, or which are undertaking duplicative activities.

SEC. 2. Section 54444.1 of the Education Code is amended to read:

54444.1. (a) In implementing the state master plan for services to migrant children, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall establish the service regional system as the primary method for the delivery of services to migrant children. The superintendent shall review and approve plans for the establishment of service regions and shall incorporate the following criteria in the approval of regional plans:

(1) The boundaries of regions shall include all geographic areas with migrant and seasonal agricultural workers and fishermen.

(2) Regional service centers shall be located in areas with high concentrations of migrant and seasonal agricultural workers and fishermen. Regional headquarters shall be located in areas: (i) requiring large numbers of these workers for a period of at least two consecutive months during each year, (ii) in areas which normally contract for migrant and seasonal agricultural workers with families rather than single adults, and (iii) in areas where migrant and seasonal agricultural workers are involved in the transition from hand labor to mechanization.

(3) Regions shall be located in each geographic area of the state, except areas within the boundaries of directly funded districts.

(4) Except areas within the boundaries of directly funded districts, regions shall be contiguous to one another and should have no less than 1,500 and no more than 8,000 currently migratory children based upon full-time equivalent enrollment. In no event shall a county be split among two separate regions in order to meet the requirements of this paragraph.

(5) Regions shall be organized so as to provide quality services to all affected parties and maintain fiscal procedures in conformity with requirements adopted by the department.

(6) The boundaries of regions shall be drawn in such a manner as to avoid excessive commuting by personnel or by participants in the programs, not to exceed 100 miles from the schoolsite to the operating agency.

(7) If a proposed region cannot meet the criteria established in paragraphs (4) and (6) of subdivision (a), or both, it may request that the criteria be waived by the board. The waiver request shall be based upon a study, conducted by the entities, including their respective parent advisory councils, comprising the proposed region, which explains why the waiver is required and which describes likely outcomes if the waiver is not granted.

(8) This subdivision shall become operative on July 1, 1982.

(b) Agencies meeting the criteria set forth in this subdivision and subdivision (f) of Section 54441 may apply to the department for designation as a region. The application shall be in a format with sufficient information and at times designated by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The application shall include documentation of active participation, review and comment by the appropriate parent advisory councils, and signatures by parent advisory council chairpersons that the review and comment has taken place, and shall further include documentation that the agencies and parent representative comprising the proposed regions have met as a group prior to submission of the application and have agreed upon the formation of, and participation in, the region and a general delineation of the services which will be provided in the region.

Directly funded districts shall be invited by the regions to participate in regional activities and meetings. Staff and parent advisory council members in the districts shall also be invited to regional inservice activities and conferences.

This subdivision shall become operative July 1, 1982.

(c) The State Department of Education may fund directly local educational agencies, in whole or in part, to provide services to eligible migrant children if it is cost effective to do so; if the applicant agency serves not less than 1,500, nor more than 8,000, currently migratory children; has sufficient programmatic and fiscal resources to deliver an effective migrant education program; is in compliance with the federal and state requirements regarding migrant education programs; maintains an ongoing and functional parent advisory council which has voted on a biennial basis to approve the participation in the directly funded program, including the approval of a majority of the members who are the parents of migrant children; and maintains fiscal procedures in conformity with the requirements adopted by the department. All districts which are directly funded on January 1, 1982, may continue to be funded directly, provided that the districts comply with the criteria prescribed by this subdivision, except for the size criterion.

(d) The responsibilities of the various parties involved in the delivery of services to migrant children shall be set forth in a service agreement. A service agreement shall be a legally binding contract signed by the duly constituted authorities at the state, county, district, or private or public nonprofit agencies, or a combination thereof. In the regional delivery system, there shall be two parties to every service agreement; the region and the district or other operating agencies in which the eligible migrant pupils are enrolled.

When a district or agency is funded directly by the state, the parties to the service agreement shall include the department and the district or operating agency in which the eligible migrant pupils are enrolled. The basic responsibilities of these three parties shall be as specified in Section 54444.4.

The parties, whether regional or directly funded, shall take the necessary steps to ensure the effective involvement of the Migrant Parent Advisory Committee for that district or agency. Representatives of the Migrant Parent Advisory Committee shall have the right to be present and participate in all deliberations between the parties regarding the service agreement or any subsequent changes thereto. The service agreement shall include a signed statement from the officers of the Migrant Parent Advisory Committee signifying that such participation has occurred.

This subdivision shall become operative July 1, 1982.

(e) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall develop an annual operating calendar for regions and directly funded districts including dates for the submission and approval of applications and service agreements. Any changes in regional boundaries for the subsequent fiscal year shall be made and approved by December 31 of the current year. Any changes in funding allocations for regions shall be made by December 31 of the current year or immediately after notification of a federal grant award.

This subdivision shall become operative July 1, 1982.

(f) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall preserve the supplemental nature of the migrant education program. The program shall be maintained outside the supervision or above the administrative level of the consolidated application programs. The superintendent shall not incorporate the migrant education program into the consolidated application process, except as provided below:

(1) Commencing with the 1983–84 school year, directly funded districts may apply for migrant education funds as part of their consolidated application provided the district parent advisory council on migrant education approves the inclusion.

(2) Commencing with school year 1982–83 and pending the recommendations of the department study and task force report, a copy of the district's annual application for migrant education funds as required by Section 54443.1 shall be attached to the district's annual consolidated application.

SEC. 3. Section 54528 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 69655 of the Education Code is amended to read:

69655. (a) Pursuant to Section 69648, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall determine the elements of a statewide data base for the Community College Extended Opportunity Programs and Services, which shall be used for periodic evaluation of the programs and services. The data base shall include all information necessary to demonstrate the statewide progress towards achieving the program goals identified in Section 69640, and program objectives adopted pursuant to Section 69648 including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(1) The annual number of extended opportunity programs and services (EOPS) students and non-EOPS students who complete degree or certificate programs, transfer programs, or other programs, as determined by state and local matriculation policies.

(2) The annual number of EOPS and non-EOPS students who transfer to institutions which award the baccalaureate degree. In implementing this paragraph, the chancellor shall work in cooperation with the California Postsecondary Education Commission, the President of the University of California, the Chancellor of the California State University, and the Association of Independent Colleges and Universities to establish methods for obtaining the necessary data.

(3) The annual number of EOPS and non-EOPS students completing occupational programs who find career employment.

In implementing this paragraph, the chancellor shall integrate the data collection with existing data collection requirements pertaining to vocational education.

(b) Beginning in January 1987, the chancellor shall annually report to the Legislature regarding the number of students served by the Community College Extended Opportunity Programs and Services and the number of EOPS students who achieve their educational objectives.

SEC. 5. Section 69657 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Article 8.5 (commencing with Section 69660) of Chapter 2 of Part 42 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 8589.2 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 8839 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 13337.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

13337.3. (a) (1) "Advisory body" means every board, bureau, commission, committee, panel, task force, or similar group created by statute or executive order whose principal function is to review, advise, plan, advocate, or promote.

(2) "State funded" means receiving direct or indirect support from the General Fund, from funds that could be made available for General Fund purposes, or from funds which could be used to free up General Fund moneys. The determination of whether an advisory body is state funded shall be made by the Director of Finance.

(b) On and after January 1, 1993, moneys may not be expended for the support of any state-funded advisory body unless that advisory body is evaluated pursuant to this section.

(c) The Governor's Budget submitted to the Legislature for the 1992–93 fiscal year shall include an addendum which evaluates the need for every state-funded advisory body in state government. That addendum shall identify each advisory body along with the relevant statutory or executive order reference establishing the advisory body, the funding source for each advisory body, including all direct and indirect costs and staff allocated, and an evaluation based on the following criteria:

(1) The function of the advisory body.

(2) Whether there is another appropriate governmental entity capable and suitable to carry on the function performed by the advisory body even if the new responsibility necessitates changing the composition or mandate of an existing body.

(3) Whether the size of the advisory body is no larger than necessary to assure a range of viewpoints and to reflect this state's diversity (7 to 13 members).

(4) Whether consumers and the general public constitute a majority of voting members or is there justification for specific advice from experts only.

(5) Whether the advisory body is authorized to have an executive officer appointed by the advisory body, and subject to Senate confirmation.

(6) Whether the agenda of the advisory body is significant to the Legislature or to a constitutional officer or if the advisory body reports to the Legislature, or a constitutional officer, whether the Legislature or the constitutional officer share in the appointing authority. If the Governor makes all of the appointments, whether those appointments subject to Senate confirmation.

(7) Whether strict conflict-of-interest provisions are applicable for each appointed member of the advisory body and the meetings of the body are open to the public.

(8) Whether appointing authorities are directed to appoint persons reflecting the ethnic and cultural diversity of the state.

(9) Whether a clear working relationship exists between the advisory body and other governmental agencies with which the advisory body reviews, advises, or plans.

(10) Where the advisory body is created to review and report on a specific issue, whether there is a date for reporting and a date at which time the advisory body shall terminate.

SEC. 9.5. Section 15972 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 15980 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15980. The Director of Transportation shall be responsible for generally monitoring the implementation of this part . The funds for administration and monitoring of this program by the Director of Transportation shall be funded by funds made available for that purpose from federal funds.

SEC. 11. Section 15982 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15982. (a) Any social service transportation provider may request an exemption from coordination or consolidation as required under the action plan. The request for exemption shall be submitted to the Director of Transportation, who shall render a decision within 60 days after receiving the request. If the Director of Transportation denies the request, it shall be forwarded to the California Transportation Commission, which shall render a decision within 60 days after receiving it.

The request for exemption shall be granted if, on the basis of information submitted with the request, the Director of Transportation or the commission, as the case may be, finds that the effectiveness of the social transportation service provided the recipients would be impaired by consolidation or coordination.

(b) The Director of Transportation shall adequately inform social service program managers about these requirements well in advance of the deadlines outlined in this section.

(c) The commission shall periodically review, as it deems necessary, the performance of the designated agencies to determine compliance with the action plans and conditions for approval.

SEC. 12. Section 16367 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 16367.1 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Article 1.9 (commencing with Section 16369) of Chapter 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 209 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 16. Section 446.8 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 17. Section 1528 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 18. Section 1569.70 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 19. Section 1596.865 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1596.865. It is the intent of the Legislature to encourage any person who provides child care in a child day care facility licensed pursuant to this chapter, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 1596.90), or Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 1597.30) to have the following elementary health care training:

(a) Cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

(b) Pediatric first aid.

(c) Preventive health practices, including food preparation and sanitation practices, that reduce the spread of infectious diseases.

SEC. 20. Section 1597.06 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 21. Section 25412 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 22. Section 25413 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 23. Section 25414 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 24. Section 41514 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 25. Section 1864 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1864. (a) On or before May 1 of each year, commencing in 1987, each insurer engaged in writing child care liability insurance coverage in this state shall submit to the commissioner a report of its operations regarding child care liability claims experience for the last preceding calendar year ending on December 31 on a form furnished by the commissioner. Each report shall separately state the following information for family day care homes, as defined in Section 1596.78 of the Health and Safety Code, and licensed child care centers, as defined in Section 1596.76 of the Health and Safety Code:

(1) Premiums earned.

(2) Premiums written.

(3) Number of claims.

(4) Number of new claims during the reporting period.

(5) Number of claims closed during the reporting period.

(6) Number of claims outstanding at the end of the reporting period.

(7) Total losses incurred.

(8) Total losses incurred as a percentage of premiums earned.

(9) Total number of policies in force on the last day of the reporting period.

(10) Total number of policies canceled.

(11) Total number of policies nonrenewed.

(12) Net underwriting gain or loss.

(13) Separate allocations of expenses for commissions, other acquisition costs, general office expenses, taxes, licenses and fees, and other expenses. The allocations required by this section shall be made by dividing the company's total premiums earned for child care liability insurance by its total premiums earned and applying the ratio determined to the expenses reported in the company's annual statement filed with the commissioner pursuant to Section 900.

(b) The commissioner shall develop and issue reporting forms to insurers at least 90 days prior to the due date of the reports required pursuant to this section.

(c) The Legislature finds that it is in the public interest of the policyholders of this state that insurers writing child care liability insurance permit remittance of premiums to occur on an installment basis.

(d) The information provided under this section pertaining to a specified claim, insurance policy, or insurer shall be confidential and shall only be revealed by the department on a nonspecific basis as part of an aggregate report of claims or policies.

SEC. 26. Section 30796.5 of the Streets and Highways Code is repealed.

SEC. 28. Section 35581 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

35581. (a) The Department of Transportation, in cooperation with the Department of California Highway Patrol, shall develop a plan for implementing or identifying new or existing scale facilities at major intermodal terminals which may serve as intermodal weighing facilities for weighing commercial vehicles which transport intermodal freight, prior to their entry onto any highway which is not specifically exempted from weight limitations by a local authority. The plan shall include consideration of options for financing the construction of required intermodal weighing facilities. The plan shall be submitted to the Legislature not later than August 1, 1989.

(b) The Department of Transportation may enter into agreements with local authorities or private entities to provide for exemption from weight restrictions for short distance movement to an intermodal weighing facility.

(c) The Department of Transportation shall submit an annual report not later than August 1, 1990, and August 1 each year thereafter, describing its progress in developing the intermodal weight determination program, and its recommendations for the future of the program.

SEC. 29. Section 5692 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 30. It is the intent of the Legislature, in adding Section 13337.3 to the Government Code by Section 9 of this act, to utilize the evaluation prepared by the executive branch in order to consider which advisory boards should continue and which ones should be terminated. If the Legislature agrees with an evaluation and recommendation prepared pursuant to Section 13337.3 that an advisory board should be continued, the Legislature shall include an appropriation for that advisory body in the Budget Act of 1992. If the Legislature agrees with an evaluation and recommendation prepared pursuant to Section 13337.3 that an advisory body should be terminated, the Legislature intends to only provide funding in the Budget Act of 1992 for that advisory board until January 1, 1993, after which funding shall not be available, and the Legislature intends to enact legislation in 1992, effective January 1, 1993, to terminate that advisory body and any other advisory body that it agrees should be terminated.

CHAPTER 1456

An act to amend Section 7065.1 of, and to repeal and add Section 7065.3 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to contractors.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7065.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7065.1. Notwithstanding Section 7065, the registrar may waive the examination for a contractor's license under any of the following circumstances:

(a) The qualifying individual has, for five of the seven years immediately preceding the application for licensure, been listed on the official records of the board as a member of the personnel of any licensee who held a license, which was active and in good standing, in the same classification being applied for, and who during the period listed on the license has been actively engaged in a licensee's construction activities in the same classification within which the applicant applies for a license.

(b) The qualifying individual is an immediate member of the family of a licensee whose individual license was active and in good standing for five of the seven years immediately preceding the application for licensure, and the qualifying individual is able to show all of the following:

(1) The qualifying individual has been actively engaged in the licensee's business for five of the seven years immediately preceding the application for licensure.

(2) The license is required to continue the existing family business in the event of the absence or death of the licensee.

(3) An application is made for a new license in the same classifications in which the licensee is or was licensed.

(c) The qualifying individual is an employee of a corporation seeking to replace its former qualifying individual and has been employed by that corporation under the following conditions:

(1) For five of the seven years immediately preceding the application for licensure, the qualifying individual has been continually employed by the corporation in a supervisory capacity in the same classifications being applied for.

(2) For five of the seven years immediately preceding the application for licensure, the corporation has held an active license in good standing in the same classifications being applied for.

For purposes of this section, employees of a corporation shall include, but not be limited to, the officers of a corporation.

SEC. 2. Section 7065.3 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 7065.3 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7065.3. Notwithstanding Section 7065, upon a conclusive showing by a licensee that he or she possesses experience satisfactory to the registrar in the classification applied for, an additional classification may be added, without further examination, under all of the following conditions:

(a) For five of the seven years immediately preceding the application, the qualifying individual of the licensee has been listed as a member of the personnel of any licensee whose license was active and in good standing, and who during the period listed on a license was actively engaged in the licensee's construction activities.

(b) The qualifying individual for the applicant has had within the last 10 years immediately preceding the filing of the application, not less than four years experience as a journeyman, foreman, supervising employee or contractor in the classification within which the licensee intends to engage in the additional classification as a contractor.

(c) The application is, as determined by the registrar, for a classification which is closely related to the classification or classifications in which the licensee is licensed, or the qualifying individual is associated with a licensed general engineering contractor or licensed general building contractor and is applying for a classification which is a significant component of the licensed contractor's construction business as determined by the registrar. This section shall not apply to an applicant who is licensed solely within the limited-specialty classifications.

Pursuant to Section 7065, the registrar shall conduct a comprehensive field investigation of no less than 3 percent of applications filed under this section to ensure that the applicants met the experience requirements of this section and shall make public, at quarterly meetings of the Contractors' State License Board, a listing of all applications approved under this section during the previous 12 months, including, but not limited to, the name of the applicant, license number, classification applied for, and existing classifications.

An act to amend Sections 40440 and 41010 of, and to add Sections 40234 and 40703 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40234 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40234. In adopting any regulation, the bay district board shall comply with Section 40703.

SEC. 2. Section 40440 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40440. (a) The south coast district board shall adopt rules and regulations that carry out the plan and are not in conflict with state law and federal laws and rules and regulations. Upon adoption and approval of subsequent revisions of the plan, these rules and regulations shall be amended, if necessary, to conform to the plan.

(b) The rules and regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) shall do all of the following:

(1) Require the use of best available control technology for new and modified sources and the use of best available retrofit control technology for existing sources.

(2) Promote cleaner burning alternative fuels.

(3) Consistent with Section 40414, provide for indirect source controls in those areas of the south coast district in which there are high-level, localized concentrations of pollutants or with respect to any new source that will have a significant effect on air quality in the South Coast Air Basin.

(4) Provide for transportation control measures, as listed in the plan.

(c) The south coast district board shall adopt rules and regulations that will assure that all its administrative practices and the carrying out of its programs are efficient and cost-effective, consistent with the goals of achieving and maintaining federal and state ambient air quality standards and achieving the purposes of this chapter.

(d) The south coast district board shall determine what is the best available retrofit control technology for existing electric plants, and shall adopt rules and regulations requiring the use of the best available retrofit control technology in existing electric plants, if the board finds and determines that to do so is necessary to carry out the plan.

(e) In adopting any regulation, the south coast district board shall comply with Section 40703.

SEC. 3. Section 40703 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

40703. In adopting any regulation, the district shall consider, pursuant to Section 40922, and make public, its findings related to the cost-effectiveness of a control measure. A district shall make reasonable efforts, to the extent feasible within existing budget constraints, to make specific reference to the direct costs expected to be incurred by regulated parties, including businesses and individuals.

SEC. 4. Section 41010 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

41010. (a) The Sacramento district board shall adopt rules and regulations that are not in conflict with state and federal laws and rules and regulations that reflect the best available technological and administrative practices. Upon adoption and approval of the air quality improvement strategy, the rules and regulations shall be amended, if necessary, to conform to the strategy.

(b) The rules and regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) shall require the use of best available control technology for new and modified sources and the use of best available retrofit control technology for existing sources.

(c) The rules and regulations of the Sacramento County Air Pollution Control District shall remain in effect and shall be enforced by the Sacramento district, until superseded or amended by the Sacramento district board.

(d) In adopting any regulation, the Sacramento district board shall comply with Section 40703.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1458

An act to amend Sections 19486, 19531, and 19549.2 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19486 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19486. (a) No license shall be granted to conduct a horserace meeting upon a track less than one mile in circumference or length to any applicant other than the California State Fair and Exposition, the California State Exposition and Fair, a county fair, district agricultural association, or applicant for harness racing, quarter horse racing, Appaloosa or Arabian racing.

(b) No license shall be granted to conduct a horserace meeting in the central or southern zone upon a track constructed after January 1, 1990, of one mile or more in circumference or length.

SEC. 2. Section 19531 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19531. The board shall make allocations of racing weeks, including simultaneous racing between zones, as it deems appropriate The maximum number of racing weeks which may be allocated for horseracing other than at the California Exposition and State Fair, or county or district agricultural association fairs, shall be as follows:

(a) For thoroughbred racing: 44 weeks per year in the northern zone; 42 weeks per year in the central zone; and seven weeks per year in the southern zone.

(b) For harness racing: 25 weeks per year in the northern zone.

(c) For quarter horse racing: 25 weeks per year in the northern zone.

(d) For harness racing and quarter horse racing: a total of 77 weeks per year in the combined central and southern zones.

(e) In its written application for a license, an applicant shall state the time of day, consistent with Section 19571, during which it will conduct its racing meeting, and particularly the first race starting time for the various racing days. After receiving a license, a licensee shall not change the first race starting time without securing prior approval of the board.

(f) Notwithstanding this section or any other provision in this chapter, the board shall not allocate dates to a thoroughbred association in the central zone for the purpose of conducting racing during daytime hours if a thoroughbred racing association is conducting racing in the southern zone on the same date during daytime hours.

(g) An association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the southern zone may operate a satellite wagering facility at a location approved by the board pursuant to Section 19485 if the location is eligible to be used as a satellite wagering facility during any of the following periods:

(1) The first year in which the board allocates racing weeks to the location.

(2) The second year in which the board allocates racing weeks to the location only if at least 20 weeks of racing are allocated to the location during that year.

(3) The third year and any subsequent year in which the board allocates racing weeks to the location only if at least 20 weeks of racing are allocated to the location during each year, and only if the association actually conducted at least 20 weeks of racing at the location during the prior year, unless the failure to race these 20 weeks during any year is caused by a decision of the board to prohibit the overlap of night racing or a decision of the board to issue a competing application to another facility.

SEC. 3. Section 19549.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19549.2. From the weeks available for harness and quarter horse racing pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 19531, the board may allocate a maximum of 12 weeks of harness racing to the 22nd District Agricultural Association to be conducted on the 22nd District Agricultural Association grounds. The racing shall be conducted by a person other than the 22nd District Agricultural Association. The board shall allocate the weeks authorized by this section only during the months of January, October, November, and December.

CHAPTER 1459

An act to add Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 44760) to Part 25 of the Education Code, relating to education, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(1) In order to simply maintain current class size and serve all of the new pupils who are projected to be in the schools in 1996, approximately 80,000 new teachers will be needed on a statewide basis.

(2) In order to decrease pupil to teacher ratios by 20 percent over a five-year period, approximately 115,000 new teachers will be needed on a statewide basis by 1996.

(3) Current projections indicate that, on a statewide basis, 50,000 to 55,000 new teachers will be recruited by 1996, leaving a shortfall by 1996 of between 25,000 and 65,000 teachers.

(4) In addition to overall shortages in teachers, it is projected that in 1996 there will be an even greater shortage in teachers trained in math, science, computer education, English, and special and bilingual education.

(5) Projections indicate that the shortage of bilingual teachers will force non-English speaking pupils into classrooms where they can neither understand the instruction nor communicate with the teacher.

(b) The Legislature recommends that California colleges and universities establish and intensify programs to recruit and retain a diversified teaching force for the elementary and secondary schools. Specifically, those programs should do all of the following:

(1) Increase ethnic diversity in the teaching force and assist beginning teachers to be more effective in teaching ethnically diverse pupil populations.

(2) Work with school districts and schools to increase the retention rate for beginning teachers.

(3) Provide financial and other incentives to assist persons to enter and remain in the teaching profession.

SEC. 2. Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 44760) is added to Part 25 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.5. TEACHER INCENTIVE PROGRAM OF 1990

44760. This chapter shall be known, and may be cited, as the "Teacher Incentive Program of 1990."

44761. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that various state and local agencies maintain data that is useful for determining the availability of teachers and other education professionals for service in elementary and secondary schools. The Legislature also finds that at the state level the available data has not been fully integrated and provided to a central reporting system capable of producing periodic reports of the supply and demand of teachers.

The Legislature further finds and declares that the educational resources of the state could be managed most effectively if data related to known or anticipated shortages of educational personnel were available on a timely basis.

44762. The Commission on Teacher Credentialing, in cooperation with the State Department of Education, shall establish and maintain a comprehensive teacher supply and demand reporting system. Notwithstanding Section 22221, the Teachers' Retirement Board shall make information requested by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing available to the commission. The reporting system shall be designed to prepare annual reports on the availability of teachers and other certificated personnel according to the types of credentials and by geographic regions within the state. To the extent possible, the reporting system shall include data currently being collected and reported by state and local agencies.

44763. (a) Notwithstanding Title 1.8 (commencing with Section 1798) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code or any other provision of law, each state and local government agency shall provide to the Commission on Teacher Credentialing personal information regarding teachers and other certificated personnel as requested by the commission for the purposes of Section 44762. The Legislature shall transfer for each fiscal year, from the Teacher Credentials Fund to the State Mandates Claims Fund, that amount necessary for the payment for that year from the State Mandates Claims Fund, pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, of claims for reimbursement to local government agencies that are based upon the requirement set forth in this subdivision.

(b) In accordance with the purpose of safeguarding the privacy rights of individuals, it is the intent of the Legislature that personal information be collected, maintained, and disseminated under this chapter only to the extent required to accomplish the purposes of Section 44762. The Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall establish and maintain specific and appropriate policies and practices that protect the privacy rights of individuals as to whom personal information has been received by the commission, and to otherwise implement the legislative intent set forth in this subdivision.

44764. (a) The Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall conduct a study that shall include all of the following:

(1) An evaluation of the effectiveness of teacher education programs in all public and private postsecondary educational institutions in California in encouraging and recruiting highly qualified and ethnically diverse college and university students and graduates to prepare for and enter the teaching profession, with a particular emphasis on academic subject areas having current or anticipated teacher shortages.

(2) An analysis of the extent to which existing policies of federal and state governmental agencies, and of public and private postsecondary educational institutions, support or hinder attempts to increase the pool of students entering teacher credentialing programs.

(3) The commission's recommendations, based upon the results obtained pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2), for coherent, systematic state teacher recruitment and retention strategies, emphasizing academic subject areas having current or anticipated teacher shortages. Those recommendations shall include proposed legislative and other revisions of state and federal policies and related funding proposals.

(b) In conducting that study, the commission shall seek the assistance of the California State University, the University of California, private colleges and universities, and representatives of postsecondary teachers and other certificated personnel.

(c) No later than December 1, 1991, the commission shall submit the results of the study described in this section to the Legislature, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and the State Board of Education.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. The sum of one hundred sixty-eight thousand dollars ($168,000) is hereby appropriated from the Teacher Credentials Fund to the Commission on Teacher Credentialing for the purpose of establishing the annual reporting system on the availability of certificated personnel required by Section 44762 of the Education Code. It is the intent of the Legislature that funding to support the operation of the reporting system in subsequent fiscal years shall be included in the annual Budget Act, and shall be appropriated from the Teacher Credentials Fund.

SEC. 5. The sum of thirty-five thousand dollars ($ 35,000) is hereby appropriated from the Teacher Credentials Fund to the Commission on Teacher Credentialing for the purpose of conducting the study required by Section 44764 of the Education Code.

An act to amend Sections 2936, 2937, 2938, and 11104.3 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2936 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

2936. The commissioner shall report to the Legislature by January 15 of each year on all of the following:

(a) The condition of the fund.

(b) Identification of any contracts or grants made during the year.

(c) The amount of the grants or contracts.

(d) The services to be provided pursuant to the grants or contracts.

(e) The group or agency contracted with to provide the services.

SEC. 2. Section 2937 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

2937. The fees specified in this article shall not be collected after December 31, 1993. However, the commissioner may continue to execute contracts and grants pursuant to Section 2932 with the remaining moneys in the fund.

SEC. 3. Section 2938 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

2938. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 11104.3 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11104.3. (a) An all-terrain vehicle safety instructor shall:

(1) Be a person who has not been convicted of a crime involving an act of dishonesty, fraud, or deceit with the intent to benefit himself or herself or another substantially, or to injure another substantially; or has not committed any act which, if done as an all-terrain vehicle safety instructor, would be grounds for the suspension or revocation of the all-terrain vehicle safety instructor's license. A conviction after a plea of nolo contendere shall be deemed to be a conviction within the meaning of this section.

(2) Have a high school education or its equivalent and have satisfactorily completed a course of instruction training in all-terrain vehicle safety as approved by the Off-Highway Vehicle Safety Education Committee.

(3) Within three attempts, pass the examination that the department shall require on off-highway vehicle laws, safe driving practices, operation of all-terrain vehicles, and teaching methods and techniques.

(4) Be physically able to safely operate a motor vehicle and to train others in the operation of all-terrain vehicles.

(5) Hold a valid driver's license issued by this state or any contiguous state.

(6) Not be on probation to the department as a negligent operator or the equivalent of that in the state that issued the driver's license.

(7) Have a driver record which does not have an outstanding notice for violating a written promise to appear in court or for willfully failing to pay a lawfully imposed fine, as provided in Section 40509 or 40509.5 or as provided in equivalent statutes in the state that issued the driver's license.

(8) Be 18 years of age or older.

(9) Be sponsored by an all-terrain vehicle safety training organization.

(b) The qualifying requirements in this section shall be met within one year from the date of application for a license, or a new application, examination, and a fee shall be required.

CHAPTER 1461

An act to amend Section 33320.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to redevelopment.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33320.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33320.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 33320.1, the requirement that privately owned land within a project area be "predominantly urbanized," as that term is defined in subdivision (b) of Section 33320.1, shall not apply to privately owned land within a project area, if the privately owned land is adjacent or in proximity to a military facility or installation which is proposed to be closed pursuant to Public Law 100-526 and the inclusion of the privately owned land is found by an entity formed pursuant to subdivision (b) to be necessary for the effective redevelopment of the military facility or installation and the adjacent area.

(b) The legislative bodies for communities having territory within, adjacent to or in proximity to a military facility or installation described in subdivision (a) may create a separate joint powers agency pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, which shall have and exclusively exercise powers of an agency in furtherance of the redevelopment of a project area approved by the joint powers agency. The joint powers agency so formed shall include as one of its members the county in which the project area is located. In addition to the powers of an agency, the joint powers agency so formed shall also act as the legislative body and planning commission for all approvals and actions required by this part of legislative bodies and planning commissions for the adoption and implementation of a redevelopment plan. However, all land use, planning, and development decisions with regard to the land within the project area shall continue to be under the control and jurisdiction of each of the respective local legislative bodies or planning commissions, as applicable.

(c) The territory included within the project and project area may be contiguous or noncontiguous, and any project area may be located in whole or in part within one or more of the communities impacted by the closure of the military facility or installation, and the land to be included within the project area within the community or communities in proximity to the military facility or installation shall be found necessary for the effective redevelopment of the military facility or installation and the adjacent area. A project area shall not include territory outside the jurisdiction of the communities that are parties to the joint powers agency without the consent of the legislative body having jurisdiction over the territory proposed to be included within the project area.

(d) A redevelopment plan for the project area shall contain all of the provisions required by this part. However, if the agency finds, based on substantial evidence on the record, that compliance with the requirements of Sections 33333.2 and 33334.1 would make it impracticable to achieve the policies of this section, the agency may eliminate or modify the requirements of Sections 33333.2 and 33334.1.

(e) The redevelopment plan shall provide for either of the following:

(1) A Low- and Moderate-Income Housing Fund, as required by Section 33334.2.

(2) A deferral for depositing all or part of the 20 percent of taxes allocated to the agency pursuant to Section 33670 in the Low- and Moderate-Income Housing Fund if the agency, after conducting a noticed public hearing, makes, and the executive committee of the Southern California Association of Governments reviews and approves, findings supported by substantial evidence that all of the following apply:

(A) The military facility or installation cannot be acquired or developed by private enterprise without the assistance of the agency.

(B) There are no feasible alternative means of financing the acquisition or development of the military facility or installation other than by utilizing the low- and moderate-income housing portion of the taxes which are allocated to the agency pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33670.

(C) Failure of the agency to finance the acquisition or development of the military facility or installation would lead to serious economic hardship and job loss.

(D) The redevelopment plan shall specify the period during which less than 20 percent of the taxes which are allocated to the agency pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33670, is to be deposited in the Low- and Moderate-Income Housing Fund. The redevelopment plan shall also contain a repayment plan which specifies a date at which time the agency will have made up the deficit created by the deferral, including repayment of the interest at the highest rate received by the agency on funds it deposits during the period of deferral. The repayment plan shall reduce the deficit in the shortest feasible time consistent with the needs of the agency, as specified in the agency's findings.

(f) The joint powers agency acting as the agency, the legislative body or the planning commission, shall follow all procedures under this part applicable to the adoption and amendment of redevelopment plans, except with respect to Sections 33347.5, 33353 to 33353.6, inclusive, Sections 33354.4 to 33354.6, inclusive, and Section 33385.

(g) The agency shall create a fiscal advisory group to consult with each affected taxing agency and to advise and report to the agency in the manner required of a fiscal review committee by Section 33353.5 on any potential fiscal impact upon affected taxing agencies within the project area. The fiscal advisory group shall consist of the financial officer or treasurer of each city and each county which created the joint powers authority.

(h) The agency shall prepare and distribute to each affected taxing agency a report which includes the information required by Section 33328. The agency shall also prepare an analysis of the report required of a fiscal review committee pursuant to subdivision (m) of Section 33352 and an analysis of the report required of the fiscal advisory group pursuant to subdivision (g).

(i) As used in this section, "in proximity to" means within three miles of the boundary of Norton Air Force Base and within eight miles of George Air Force Base.

(j) The Legislature finds and declares that the closure of two or more military facilities or installations within the County of San Bernardino will cause serious economic hardship in that county, including loss of jobs, increased unemployment, deterioration of properties and land utilization and undue disruption of the lives and activities of the people. Therefore, the Legislature finds and declares that to avoid serious economic hardship and accompanying blight, it is necessary to enact this act which shall apply only within the County of San Bernardino. In enacting this act, it is the policy of the Legislature to assist communities within the County of San Bernardino in their attempt to preserve the military facilities and installations for their continued use as airports and aviation-related purposes.

It is the intent of the Legislature and the commitment of the local authorities to ensure that the existing airfields at both Norton Air Force Base and George Air Force Base are protected, developed, and enhanced as civil aviation public use airports. Therefore, the joint powers authorities authorized by this section should make every reasonable effort to guarantee that these vital airport facilities are retained for general aviation use now and into the future.

(k) Any joint powers agreement entered into pursuant to this section shall provide that the financial needs of each of the parties shall be considered prior to adoption of a redevelopment plan, and may provide that the number of years shall be limited during which bonded indebtedness may be paid using taxes which are allocated to the agency pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33670.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of the unique circumstances faced by the County of San Bernardino. The County of San Bernardino is the county in which two military facilities or installations are proposed to be closed pursuant to Public Law 100-526. This legislation is, therefore, necessarily applicable only to San Bernardino County.

An act to add and repeal Section 125228 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transit.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 125228 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

125228. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the award of purchase contracts by the board under competitive bid procedures may not be feasible for products and materials which are undergoing rapid technological changes or for the introduction of new technologies into board operations, and that in these circumstances it is in the public interest to consider the broadest possible range of competing products and materials available, fitness of purpose, manufacturer's warranty, and other similar factors in addition to price in the award of these contracts.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 125223, the board may, after a finding by a two-thirds vote that a particular procurement qualifies under subdivision (g), direct that the procurement be conducted through competitive negotiations under this section. For purposes of this section, competitive negotiation includes, but is not limited to, all of the following requirements:

(1) The request for proposals shall be prepared and submitted to an adequate number of qualified sources, as determined by the board, to permit reasonable competition, consistent with the nature and requirements of the procurement. In addition, notice of the request for proposals shall be published at least twice in a newspaper of general circulation, at least 10 days before the date for receipt of the proposals. The board shall make every effort to generate the maximum feasible number of proposals from qualified sources and shall make a finding to that effect before proceeding to negotiate if only a single response to the request for proposals is received.

(2) The request for proposals shall identify all significant evaluation factors, including price, and their relative importance.

(3) The board shall provide reasonable procedures for technical evaluation of the proposals received, identification of qualified sources, and selection for contract award.

(4) Contract awards shall be made to the qualified proposer whose proposal will be most advantageous to the board, with price and all other factors considered. If award is not made to the bidder whose proposal contains the lowest price, the board shall make a finding setting forth the basis for the award.

(c) The board may reject any and all proposals and request new proposals.

(d) Prior to making an award, the board shall prepare a price analysis and shall find that the final negotiated price is fair and reasonable, based upon comparable procurements in the marketplace.

(e) Upon making an award to a qualified proposer, the board, upon request, shall make available to all other proposers and to the public an analysis of the award which provides the basis for the selection of that particular qualified proposal.

(f) A person who submits, or who plans to submit, a proposal may protest any acquisition conducted in accordance with this section as follows:

(1) Protests based on the content of the request for proposals shall be filed with the board within 10 calendar days after the request for proposals is first advertised in accordance with subdivision (b). The board shall issue a written decision on the protest prior to opening of proposals. A protest may be renewed by refiling the protest with the board within 15 calendar days after the mailing of the notice of the recommended award.

(2) Any bidder may protest the recommended award on any ground not based upon the content of the request for proposals by filing a protest with the board within 15 calendar days after the mailing of the notice of the recommended award.

(3) Any protest shall contain a full and complete written statement specifying in detail the grounds of the protest and the facts supporting the protest. Protestors shall have an opportunity to appear and be heard before the board prior to the opening of proposals in the case of protests based on the content of the request for proposals, prior to final award in the case of protests based on other grounds or the renewal of protests based on the content of the request for proposals.

(g) This section applies only to the purchase by the board of specialized rail transit equipment, computers, telecommunications equipment, fare collection equipment, microwave equipment, and other related electronic equipment and apparatus, and of rail cars. This section does not apply to contracts for construction or for the procurement of any product available in substantial quantities to the general public.

(h) Provisions in any contract concerning women and minority business enterprises, which are in accordance with the request for proposals, shall not be subject to negotiation with the successful bidder.

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 1463

An act to amend Section 16500.5 of, and to add Section 16500.65 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16500.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

16500.5. (a) (1) The Legislature hereby finds and declares its intent to encourage the continuity of the family unit by:

(A) Providing services to families to avoid or limit out-of-home placement of children through a family preservation program serving children who are at imminent risk of placement and would be eligible for AFDC-FC if they were placed out of their own homes.

(B) Providing supportive services for those children within the meaning of Sections 361 and 364 when they are returned to the family unit or when a minor will probably soon be within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 330.

(C) Providing counseling and support designed to eradicate the situation that necessitated intervention.

(2) The Legislature finds that maintaining abused and neglected children in foster care grows increasingly costly each year, and that adequate funding for family services which might enable these children to remain in their homes is not as readily available as funding for foster care placement.

(3) The Legislature further finds that other state bodies have addressed this problem through various systems of flexible reimbursement in child welfare programs that provide for more intensive and appropriate services to prevent foster care placement or significantly reduce the length of stay in foster care.

(4) Accordingly, it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to establish a system of flexible reimbursement in order to evaluate its potential as an efficient, economical, and effective alternative to out-of-home placement of children.

(b) (1) (A) (i) No more than three participating counties selected by the State Department of Social Services, one of which shall be Solano County, on a two-year program basis, may claim, on an annual basis, a portion of the state's share of that county's AFDC-FC expenditures pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 11450 in advance, provided the county conducts a program of family reunification and family maintenance services for families receiving these services pursuant to Sections 300, 330, 361, and 364.

(ii) The department or a participating county may terminate a county's participation in the program upon 30 days' notice if the project is deemed unsuccessful by either party.

(iii) For each fiscal year of the two-year program, a participating county may claim in advance an amount up to 10 percent of the projected state's share of AFDC-FC funds to be expended by that county pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 11450.

(iv) The specific amount of funds to be advanced each year shall be determined by projecting the state share of AFDC-FC General Fund expenditures for abused or neglected children supervised and placed by the county welfare department for each of the program years based upon state expenditures for AFDC-FC for the previous five years.

(B) Except as provided in paragraph (2), in the event that in any program year the sum of a participating county's total AFDC-FC General Fund expenditures for their children, added to the amount expended from the advance to the county, exceeds its total projected AFDC-FC General Fund expenditures for their children for that fiscal year, by 5 percent or less, the county shall share in the funding of that overage on a 25 percent county, 75 percent state/federal cost ratio basis. If the county's total AFDC-FC General Fund expenditures, added to the amount expended from the advance to the county exceeds, by more than 5 percent, the total projected AFDC-FC General Fund expenditures for that fiscal year, the county shall fund that portion of the overage in excess of 5 percent on a 100 percent basis. If the sum of a participating county's total AFDC-FC General Fund expenditures for their children, added to the amount expended from the advance to the county, is less than the total projected AFDC-FC General Fund expenditures for their children for that fiscal year, the county shall receive 25 percent of the amount of the savings.

(2) A participating county's share of expenditures in excess of the projected total may be reduced upon approval of the department and the Department of Finance based on consideration of any unanticipated factors which result in higher than projected AFDC-FC expenditures.

(3) The department shall select no more than three representative counties, one of which shall be Solano County, to participate in the program.

(4) Services which may be provided under this program may include, but are not limited to, counseling, parenting, respite, day treatment, transportation, and homemaking. Additional services may include those enumerated in Sections 16506.1 and 16507.1. The services to be provided pursuant to this section may be determined by each participating county. Each county may contract with individuals and organizations for services to be provided pursuant to this section.

(5) (A) Participating counties authorized by this subdivision shall provide specific programs of direct services based on individual family needs as reflected in the service plans to families of the following:

(i) Children who are dependent children not taken from physical custody of their parents or guardians pursuant to Section 364.

(ii) Children who are dependent children removed from the physical custody of their parents or guardian pursuant to Section 361.

(iii) Children who it is determined will probably soon be within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 330.

(B) The county welfare department social worker may return a dependent minor removed from the home pursuant to Section 361, with appropriate program services, pursuant to an appropriate court order.

(6) The services shall only be provided to families whose children are certified by a juvenile court judge to be children who will be placed in out-of-home care without the provision of services or to be children who can be returned to their families with the provision of services.

(7) The services selected by any participating county shall be reasonable and meritorious and shall demonstrate cost effectiveness and success at avoiding out-of-home placement, or reducing the length of stay in out-of-home placement. A county shall not expend more funds for services under this subdivision than that amount which would be expended for placement in out-of-home care.

(8) The program in each county shall be deemed successful if at least 75 percent of the children receiving services remain in their own home for six months after termination of services, and if 60 percent remain at home one year after services are terminated. With respect to children selected to receive services who have already been removed from their home and placed in out-of-home care, the county program shall be deemed successful if the average length of stay in out-of-home care is 50 percent less than the average length of stay in out-of-home care of children who do not receive program services.

(9) Funds used for services provided under this section shall supplement, not supplant, child welfare services funds available for services pursuant to Sections 16506.1 and 16507.1.

(10) Each county participating in the program authorized by this section may, subject to the approval of the department, continue to utilize the advance fund-claiming mechanism specified in paragraph (1) after the completion of the two-year program, on a two-year basis, if it demonstrates the successful outcome of the county program, based on the criteria for success specified in paragraph (8).

(11) The department shall submit a report to the Legislature that includes data from each participating county demonstrating to what extent each has met the criteria specified in this section. An interim report shall be submitted by the department no later than six months after the conclusion of the three pilot projects with a final report to be submitted after pilot project completion. Programs authorized after the original pilot projects shall submit data to the department upon the department's request. Subsequent reports to the Legislature on the programs administered pursuant to this section shall be included with the child welfare system report to the Legislature.

(c) A county welfare department social worker or probation officer may, pursuant to an appropriate court order, return a dependent minor or ward of the court removed from the home pursuant to Section 361 to his or her home, with appropriate interagency family preservation program services.

(d) State foster care funds shall remain within the administrative authority of the county welfare department and shall be used only for placement services or placement prevention services or county welfare department administrative cost related to the interagency family preservation program.

(e) To the extent permitted by federal law, any federal funds provided for services to families and children may be utilized for the purposes of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 16500.65 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

16500.65. (a) In addition to the three programs authorized under Section 16500.5, Contra Costa County may implement a family preservation and reunification program. The program shall be administered in accordance with Section 16500.5, including, but not limited to, the funding mechanism set forth in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 16500.5, and shall be subject to all of the provisions of that section.

(b) The family preservation program authorized by this section may serve all of the following:

(1) Families receiving those services pursuant to Sections 300, 330, 361, and 364.

(2) Children who have been adjudged wards of the court pursuant to Sections 601 and 602.

(3) Families of children subject to Sections 726 and 727.

(c) The county probation department may, through an interagency agreement with the county welfare department, refer cases to the county welfare department for the direct provision of services under this subdivision.

(d) The county shall ensure that the proportion of funds used for family preservation services for families and children needing those services pursuant to Sections 300, 330, 361, and 364 shall be no less than the proportion of those children in the county's foster care program.

(e) Any private funds made available to the county for family preservation services shall be applied to the AFDC-FC advance through the end of the 1990–91 fiscal year.

(f) The project authorized by this subdivision shall be deemed successful if the following criteria have been met:

(1) At least 75 percent of the children who are not placed in out-of-home care and who receive project services remain in their home for at least six months after the termination of family preservation services.

(2) Two years after the termination of family preservation services, the average length of out-of-home stay of children selected to receive services under this section who, at the time of selection, are in out-of-home care, is 50 percent less than the average length of stay in out-of-home care for children in out-of-home care who do not receive demonstration project services pursuant to this section.

(3) Two years after project services are terminated, at least 60 percent of the children who were returned home with project services remain at home.

(g) (1) The participating county shall submit, to the department and to the appropriate committees of the Legislature, a preliminary report upon the conclusion of the demonstration project, and a final report six months after the conclusion of the project.

(2) The participating county shall, in the reports required by paragraph (1), demonstrate the extent the project met the criteria for determining the success of the project specified in subdivision (f).

(h) A dependent minor or ward of the court removed from the home pursuant to Section 726 may also be returned to his or her home with appropriate interagency family preservation services as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 16500.5.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide the widest range of emergency services to distressed children and families as soon as possible, and to rapidly initiate services to prevent the disruption or destruction of the family unit, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1464

An act relating to teacher credentialing, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) The number of pupils enrolled in California public elementary and secondary schools is approximately 4,600,000, and is increasing at the rate of 160,000 per year. These pupils are taught by a teaching force of approximately 200,000 teachers.

(b) To provide teachers for the 160,000 additional pupils who enter the public schools each year, at a ratio of one teacher per 30 pupils, will require at least 5,333 new teachers in our public schools each year. A ratio of one teacher per 24 pupils will require 6,667 new teachers each year to keep pace with growth.

(c) An additional 12,000 new teachers are required each year to replace persons who retire or otherwise leave the teaching profession.

(d) As a result, California has a demonstrated shortage of teachers who are prepared to work with pupils in several shortage subject areas, including math, science, and special education, and of teachers prepared to teach the growing numbers of limited-English-speaking pupils. In addition, both inner-city and rural school districts have experienced difficulties in obtaining an adequate supply of qualified teachers in a wide range of subject areas.

SEC. 2. (a) The Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall conduct a review of alternative avenues for persons to become credentialed to teach in California and shall report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature by November 1, 1991.

(b) In order to ensure competence in teaching and other educational services, the study shall include, but not be limited to, findings and recommendations with regard to all of the following:

(1) Avenues for persons currently employed in private industry to enter teaching.

(2) Standards for both the entry into the alternative routes to certification and for certification.

(3) The use of practicing or retired educators who could serve as a support system for teacher candidates.

(4) The cost associated with the alternative routes, including its design and implementation.

(5) The relationship of the alternative route to a commission-approved program of teacher preparation.

(6) The use of titles other than "teacher" for those candidates pursuing an alternative route.

(7) The review of how other states have addressed the issue of alternative routes to certification.

(8) The estimated number of teachers who will be credentialed as a result of creating additional alternatives to traditional teacher credentialing programs.

The review shall include a summary of the effectiveness of alternative routes to certification that exist under current law and any changes or additional avenues that the commission may recommend.

SEC. 3. The sum of eighty thousand dollars ($80,000) is hereby appropriated from the Teacher Credentials Fund to the Commission on Teacher Credentialing for the purpose of conducting the review pursuant to Section 2 of this act.

CHAPTER 1465

An act to add Section 39141.10 to the Education Code, relating to school facilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39141.10 is added to the Education Code, to read:

39141.10. (a) An owned relocatable building or structure that is to be used for school purposes shall be subject to the provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) and Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210). The governing board of a school district may request and obtain from the State Allocation Board a one-time waiver of Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) and Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) for a maximum of three years upon presentation of satisfactory evidence to the State Allocation Board that the district is proceeding in a timely manner with a program that will eliminate the need for the owned relocatable facilities within that time period.

(b) This section applies only to relocatable buildings or structures owned by school districts on or before April 17, 1990, and does not authorize school districts to purchase relocatable buildings or structures to be used for school purposes which do not comply with the provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) and Article 6 (commencing with Section 39210) of this chapter.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for school districts to obtain waivers from the State Allocation Board for relocatable facilities owned by the districts and maintain critically needed classroom space for the school year beginning in September 1, 1990, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1466

An act to add and repeal Section 14407.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intention of the Legislature to establish a pilot project to assist in ensuring proper prenatal and postpartum care for mothers and children, thereby improving the long-term health of both the mother and child, reducing the long-term medical costs to the public, and improving the long-term chances of the survival of the child.

SEC. 2. Section 14407.8 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14407.8. (a) (1) If the director secures the necessary federal waivers, the director shall, on a pilot project basis, authorize not more than two eligible contractors which meet the requirements of either subparagraph (A) or subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2), which selection shall include one publicly sponsored eligible prepaid health plan, to require that any Medi-Cal beneficiary who is pregnant at the time she enrolls with an eligible contractor or who becomes pregnant while enrolled with an eligible contractor to remain enrolled in that health plan during the balance of the pregnancy and until the end of the sixth month following the birth of her child:

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, "eligible contractor" means either of the following:

(A) Any entity which meets both of the following requirements:

(i) It meets the requirements of Section 1396b(m)(2)(F) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(ii) Its governing board has applied for project status.

(B) A primary care case management provider contracting under Article 2.9 (commencing with Section 14088) of Chapter 7.

(3) An eligible contractor shall remain eligible pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) only so long as the contractor meets both of the following requirements:

(A) The contractor is licensed by the Department of Corporations pursuant to Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(B) The contractor has a contract in effect with the department to operate as a prepaid health plan pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 14200) of Part 3 of Division 9.

(4) Any Medi-Cal beneficiary who is enrolled with a participating contractor and becomes pregnant while enrolled with the participating contractor shall be advised, in writing, that if she wishes to remain enrolled with the participating contractor rather than the Medi-Cal fee-for-service system, that her enrollment may not be canceled during the member's pregnancy and for a period of six months following the delivery of the child, except for good cause.

(5) Any Medi-Cal beneficiary who seeks to enroll with a participating contractor and who is pregnant at the time of enrollment with a participating contractor shall be advised, in writing, that if she enrolls with a participating contractor rather than seeking services under the Medi-Cal fee-for-service system, her prepaid enrollment may not be canceled during the member's pregnancy and for a period of six months following the delivery of the child, except for good cause.

(6) Any Medi-Cal beneficiary who gives birth to a child while enrolled with a participating contractor shall be advised, in writing, of her right to enroll the child with a participating contractor rather than the Medi-Cal fee-for-service system and that if she chooses to enroll the child with a participating contractor, the child's enrollment may not be canceled for a period of six months, except for good cause.

(b) For purposes of this section, good cause shall be limited to the following circumstances:

(1) The beneficiary is enrolled in violation of this article or in violation of the regulations adopted by the department pursuant to this article.

(2) The beneficiary moves outside of the service area of the participating contractor in which the beneficiary is enrolled.

(3) The participating contractor reduces the scope or level of services it offered to Medi-Cal enrollees at the time the beneficiary elected to enroll with the participating contractor except where the reduction also occurs in the Medi-Cal fee-for-service program.

(4) The disenrollment is requested by the participating contractor and approved by the department because the beneficiary fraudulently uses, or permits to be used fraudulently, the beneficiary's Medi-Cal coverage under the plan.

(5) The disenrollment is requested by the participating contractor or the beneficiary and approved by the department because of a breakdown in the physician-patient relationship occurs involving the beneficiary which is irreconcilable after having been processed through the plan's patient relations and grievance systems.

(6) The beneficiary requires services excluded under the participating contractor's contract for which the beneficiary, except for the existence of the pilot project, would be disenrolled from the plan.

(7) (A) The beneficiary's health is demonstrably jeopardized by continuing his or her enrollment with the participating contractor.

(B) In determining whether a beneficiary's health is substantially jeopardized by continuing his or her enrollment with the participating contractor, the following factors shall be considered:

(i) Accessibility of the medical services.

(ii) Hours of operation of the participating contractor.

(iii) Time spent waiting for the receipt of services provided by the participating contractor.

(iv) Transportation.

(8) (A) The beneficiary cannot gain access to needed medical needs without immediate disenrollment.

(B) Any disenrollment for the reason specified in subparagraph (A) shall be implemented on an urgency basis.

(c) Any enrollee with a participating contractor which implements a pilot project pursuant to this section who is pregnant at the time she enrolls with a participating contractor and who elects to enroll with a participating contractor or who becomes pregnant while enrolled with a participating contractor and who elects to remain enrolled with the participating contractor, and a child on whose behalf a choice to remain enrolled with that participating contractor is made by the child's mother, shall be considered public assistance recipients for purposes of Section 14050.1, for the purpose of obtaining medical care for the balance of the pregnancy and until the end of the sixth calendar month following the delivery of the child, regardless of whether the individual or child is otherwise eligible pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200).

(d) The director may require the participating contractor to maintain any medical or financial records or statistics which the director determines are necessary to make any of the following determinations:

(1) Whether the implementation of the pilot project has positive results on the health of mothers and children who are subject to the guaranteed eligibility and lock-in provisions of the pilot project.

(2) Whether there is any additional cost to the state in providing the care provided under the pilot project.

(3) Whether there are any long-term savings in the cost of providing public sector medical care pursuant to pilot project.

(e) The director shall report to the appropriate committees of the Legislature if the director secures the necessary federal waivers to implement the pilot project authorized by this section, and the date of the commencement of the pilot project.

(f) The director shall report to the appropriate committees of the Legislature on the determinations made pursuant to subdivision (d), including cost effectiveness and modifications that may make the arrangements cost-effective, within 24 months after the commencement of the pilot program authorized by this section.

(g) (1) The department shall submit a report to the appropriate committees of the Legislature on the accomplishments of the program, one year after the completion of the project.

(2) (A) The report required by paragraph (1) shall include a project evaluation and financial statement.

(B) The project evaluation shall include specific data needed to determine the extent the program has been successful.

(3) The project shall be deemed to have met its objectives if all of the following occur:

(A) The number of months of prenatal care and infant care enrollment in the project increase by 20 percent by the end of the first 12 months of the project.

(B) The percentage of low birthweight babies born to persons enrolled in the project is at least 10 percent below the average percentage of low birthweight babies born in the general Medi-Cal population in the same county over the same period of time.

(C) The percentage of babies born to persons who are enrolled in the project requiring neonatal intensive care services during each year of the project is at least 10 percent below the percentage of babies born in the general Medi-Cal population in the same county over the same period of time.

(h) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Section 31529.6 to the Government Code, relating to county employee retirement.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31529.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

31529.6. In addition to the powers granted by Sections 31529, 31529.5, and 31614, the board of retirement and the board of investment may contract with attorneys in private practice for legal services and advice. The boards shall pay reasonable compensation for the legal services and advice. The compensation shall be considered a cost of administration of the system.

This section applies only to a county of the first class, as defined by Section 28020, as amended by Chapter 1204 of the Statutes of 1971, and Section 28022, as amended by Chapter 43 of the Statutes of 1961.

CHAPTER 1468

An act relating to transportation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) California voters have expressed their support for reducing the state's traffic congestion problems through their approval of Propositions 108, 111, and 116 at the June 5, 1990, direct primary election.

(b) Voter approval of those propositions will make funds available for urban and intercity rail transit projects.

(c) It is in the interest of metropolitan areas to put into place a well planned comprehensive plan to accommodate intercity, passenger, freight, and local rail transportation needs in the most efficient and environmentally acceptable way that furthers regional land use goals.

(d) Identification and assessment of existing rail facilities and corridors form the foundation for developing a sound solution to metropolitan and intercity transportation problems.

(e) Planning an integrated regional transportation system is most efficiently accomplished through a cooperative public and private sector joint effort.

SEC. 2. (a) The Department of Transportation shall conduct a study of the feasibility of the consolidation of railroad freight traffic between Sacramento and Stockton in the rail corridors generally defined by State Highway Routes 5 and 99 for those rail facilities which operate in close proximity. In conducting the study, the department shall do all of the following:

(1) Identify and evaluate specific rail lines and corridors for their potential use as passenger rail lines.

(2) With respect to railroad facilities jointly used by two or more railroad corporations, consider the short-term and long-term costs, benefits, and time savings associated with consolidating freight service on one or more rail lines between Sacramento and Stockton.

(3) Identify the costs of improvements that may be needed to consolidate freight service.

(4) Identify the costs of improvements to existing rail lines that may be needed to convert to passenger light rail.

(5) Identify abandoned rail lines that may be converted to passenger rail.

(6) Identify rail lines that are feasible for shared rights-of-way with passenger rail transit.

(7) Identify surplus railroad rights-of-way that may be available for urban and intercity passenger rail service as a result of the consolidation of freight traffic into a single railroad facility.

(8) Assess the opportunities for rail transit projects available to the area and respective communities resulting from the recent mass transit bond acts approved by the voters.

(b) The study may include other routes and corridors owned by railroad companies that may be available for and compatible with expansion of passenger rail transit service.

(c) The study shall consider the findings and recommendations in the report prepared by the Los Angeles-Fresno-Bay Area/Sacramento High-Speed Rail Corridor Study Group pursuant to Chapter 197 of the Statutes of 1988.

(d) The department shall file an interim progress report with the Legislature by April 30, 1991, and shall report its findings, conclusions, and recommendations to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1992.

SEC. 3. To assist it in the conduct of the study required by Section 2, the department shall create the Sacramento-San Joaquin Intercity Rail Coordinating Committee consisting of representatives of the Department of Transportation, the Sacramento Regional Transit District, the Stockton Metropolitan Transit District, the Counties of Sacramento and San Joaquin, the Cities of Sacramento, Stockton, Galt, and Lodi, the Sacramento Council of Governments, the San Joaquin Council of Governments, the Southern Pacific Transportation Company, and the Union Pacific Railroad Company. The advisory committee shall direct the conduct of the study and approve the selection and employment of any consultant personnel and the contracting for any consultant services.

SEC. 4. The sum of forty thousand dollars ($40,000) is hereby appropriated from the Transportation Planning and Development Account in the State Transportation Fund to the Department of Transportation for the study required by Section 2 of this act. The Director of Transportation shall make the funds available in an amount equal to funds provided for these purposes from nonstate sources.

CHAPTER 1469

An act to add and repeal Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 18425) of Part 4 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to aid to children.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 18425) is added to Part 4 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7.5. CHILDREN OF PARENTS IN DRUG FACILITIES

18425. (a) The department shall implement a pilot project in the City and County of San Francisco, upon the approval of the board of supervisors, to house an eligible child with the only custodial parent, in a treatment facility, when the parent has been ordered by the court to receive substance abuse treatment in the treatment facility setting.

(b) For purposes of this section, "eligible child" means any child who meets all of the following criteria:

(1) The child has been adjudicated a dependent child of the court pursuant to Section 300.

(2) The custodial parent with whom the child is living is required by the courts, as a condition of family maintenance, to reside in the treatment facility which provides a program of substance abuse treatment to the parent.

(c) The county shall provide services required in family maintenance regulations.

(d) (1) Only treatment facilities which have been certified by the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs as meeting the standards adopted by that department pursuant to Section 11830.5 of the Health and Safety Code, may house eligible children for purposes of the pilot program or claim reimbursement pursuant to this chapter.

(2) (A) The county shall submit a proposal to the department outlining the services available to the eligible child in the treatment facility with the custodial parent.

(B) The proposal required by subparagraph (A) shall include all of the following:

(i) The characteristics of the treatment facility.

(ii) The number of beds in the treatment facility.

(iii) A plan outlining the care and supervision arrangements for the eligible child by the custodial parent or other adult clients.

(iv) The ratio of staff to custodial parent and the eligible child population.

(v) The eating and sleeping arrangements for the custodial parent and eligible child population.

(vi) Fire drill and disaster plan procedures.

(e) (1) (A) The county shall reimburse the treatment facility at the rate of two hundred seventy-one dollars ($271) per month per eligible child housed in the facility.

(B) The participating county shall participate in the reimbursement payment required by subparagraph (A) on behalf of each eligible child, at the sharing ratio specified in subdivision (c) of Section 15200.

(2) The amount of the reimbursement payment specified in paragraph (1) shall be adjusted on July 1 of each fiscal year during the pilot project, pursuant to Section 11453, subject to the availability of funds.

(f) (1) The department shall, on or before December 31, 1993, report to the appropriate committees of the Legislature on the success of the pilot project implemented pursuant to this section.

(2) The report required by paragraph (1) shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following information:

(A) The number of parents in a treatment facility and the number of their children who live with them.

(B) The length of time parents and their eligible children live in the treatment facility.

(C) The number of children removed from their families and placed in foster care following a stay in the facility.

(D) The extent of continued contact by families with the child welfare system following their stay in the facility.

(E) The average annual per person cost, and the total annual cost of the placement.

(g) The pilot project shall be deemed successful if the parents and children served by the pilot project have a higher rate of family maintenance than parents and children who have not been served by the pilot program

(h) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 1470

An act to amend Section 12528 of, and to add Section 12530 to, the Elections Code, relating to election campaigns.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12528 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

12528. (a) A candidate or state measure proponent is liable for any slander or libel committed by a committee which is controlled by that candidate or state measure proponent as defined by Section 82016 of the Government Code if the candidate or state measure proponent willfully and knowingly directs or permits the libel or slander.

(b) A person who is a sponsor of a sponsored committee, as defined by Section 82048.7 of the Government Code, is liable for any slander or libel committed by the sponsored committee if the sponsor willfully and knowingly directs or permits the libel or slander.

SEC. 2. Section 12530 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

12530. (a) In any action for libel or slander brought by a candidate, the willingness or unwillingness of the defendant to retract or correct a communication made in the course of a campaign, and his or her action in doing so, shall be admissible in evidence in the exemplary damages phase of a bifurcated trial.

(b) The remedy provided by this section is in addition to any other remedy provided by law.

CHAPTER 1471

An act to add and repeal Chapter 3.35 (commencing with Section 44720) of Part 25 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) In 1987, Republican Governor John Ashcroft of Missouri, with the Education Commission of the States, convened a national symposium highlighting the Parents As Teachers model program. Entitled "Investing in the Beginning: New Directions in Public Policy for Young Children and Their Families," the conference involved governors, lawmakers, education leaders, and community leaders from across the country.

(b) In December of 1987, the California Commission on Educational Quality released its preliminary report with the following proposal: "The Commission recognizes that home environment and parental attitudes about the value of education can have a significant effect on a child's ability or desire to learn. . . The most successful students are taught these values during their very early years so that they can enter the K-12 system with positive, receptive attitudes. . ."

(c) After seven years of operation, the Missouri Model Parents As Teachers program has demonstrated the following:

(1) Participating children ranked in the 75th percentile in mental processing and at the 85th percentile in school-related achievement, in contrast with the comparison group which scored at the 55th and 61st percentiles, respectively.

(2) Of the 25 percent of participating children identified as "at risk," more than one-half of these at-risk conditions were reported to have been corrected or to have improved. Ninety-five percent of the participating families referred for medical services reported receiving adequate help.

(3) Ninety-nine percent of responding families reported a high degree of satisfaction with all project services, with home visits identified as the most valuable service. Ninety-seven percent of parents felt that project services made a positive difference in the way they perceived their parenting role.

(d) In 1985–86, all public schools in Missouri were involved in voluntary Parents As Teachers programs funded by the Legislature and Governor.

SEC. 2. The Legislature also finds and declares the following:

(a) A well-substantiated body of research on how children learn and grow clearly indicates that a child's most productive and influential years of learning occur before the age of five.

(b) Experts in child development generally agree that 50 percent of intelligence, and the great majority of language skills, are developed by age four, and that these, along with the establishment of curiosity and social skills, lay the foundations for all further learning.

(c) Failure in the early years to develop adequately in these areas has been shown to lead directly to underachievement and failure in the elementary grades and beyond.

(d) Most of the children headed for academic difficulty at age six and beyond are, by age three, already significantly behind their peers.

(e) After over 20 years of remedial educational programs, such as State Compensatory Education and Head Start, California is still faced with over a 25 percent dropout rate, and the Hispanic dropout rate is near 40 percent.

(f) The potential dropout often comes from a home in which well-intentioned but untrained parents have not gained, or do not use effectively, their personal resources to adequately nurture in their child the intellectual and social skills required for success in the early grades.

(g) About 25 percent of California's pupils now need costly special or remedial education before they graduate from high school.

(h) The chief economic competitors to California and the United States in high-tech manufacturing and services can count on employee literacy rates of 90 percent or more, while California's enterprises can now count on an employee literacy rate of no more than 75 percent.

(i) Experts agree that literacy skills are most often successfully formed in the early years at home.

(j) Parents are the first and most influential teachers in their child's life and a free developmental resource for their child.

(k) Neither public nor private institutions are systematically providing a meaningful number of California's parents with research-based, up-to-date instruction in giving their children the best possible beginning.

(l) The participation of over 80 percent of the women of this state in California's work force, as projected to occur within the next decade, will have a significant impact on both the quantity and quality of parenting time that California's families will be able to give their children.

(m) The family is the rightful and most influential first educational delivery system for the child.

(n) Evidence exists that a child's early experiences can significantly enhance or inhibit development and learning. It is both educationally sound and cost-effective for schools to work cooperatively with the home during the crucial first years.

(o) High quality parenting is truly a national resource. It is not, however, a "natural resource," but a learned skill that can be improved for the benefit of the individual family and for our society.

(p) The Parents As Teachers program operated in the State of Missouri is an exemplary, research-based, and cost-effective program for utilizing and improving parental skills to nurture cognitive, language, and social skills in the earliest years of childhood.

SEC. 3. Chapter 3.35 (commencing with Section 44720) is added to Part 25 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.35. PARENTS AS TEACHERS GRANT PROGRAM

44720. The Parents As Teachers Grant Program is hereby established. The statewide grant program shall be coordinated through county offices of education with selected participating school districts or a consortium of school districts. The program shall address the educational needs of targeted parents of children three years of age or less, and shall contain the following elements:

(a) The use of qualified educators who are professionally trained in child development and parenting.

(b) The provision by participating school districts of a course of instruction in child development and parenting, on a voluntary enrollment basis, to targeted parents of children from infancy through age three, especially in their homes and in appropriate community settings, in a cost-effective, accessible, and convenient manner. That course of instruction shall include all of the following:

(1) Timely and practical information and guidance on development in language, cognitive, and social skills.

(2) Instruction in the effective use of community parenting resources, including developmental and medical screening and, as needed, early intervention for children through the first three years of life, contingent on the availability of resources and the level of voluntary parental participation.

(3) Monthly visits to the home of each participating parent, as part of that course of instruction, by one or more of the qualified educators administering the course.

(4) Services shall be prioritized and targeted to parents below the age of 20.

44721. No later than March 1, 1991, and no later than March 1 of each succeeding year through 1994, the State Department of Education shall develop requests for proposals, pursuant to which it shall select applicants to the grant program from county offices of education. The department shall select up to six applicants in the first year, 12 applicants in the second year, 18 applicants in the third year, and 22 applicants in the fourth year. The request for proposal shall require applicants to demonstrate all of the following:

(a) Training in the Parents As Teachers program operated in the State of Missouri.

(b) Significant local support for the project from school district administrators and boards, county administrators and boards, and local parent and children advocacy organizations, including, whenever possible, formal support from the county office of education or through multidistrict agreements.

(c) Racial, cultural, geographic, and economic diversity in the targeted population.

44722. (a) The objectives of each of the projects operated under the program established by this chapter include all of the following:

(1) The demonstration, by parents who have participated in the program for not less than 28 months, of the development of parenting skills provided through the course of instruction described in Section 44720, as evidenced by progress on the part of their children as follows:

(A) Intellectual and language development that is significantly better statistically than that demonstrated by a local comparison group or by the normed group of nationally representative children.

(B) Social development that is significantly more positive statistically than that demonstrated by a local comparison group of children as measured by observational instruments developed for use in the Parents As Teachers Grant Program.

(2) The demonstration, by parents who have participated in the program for not less than 28 months, of all of the following:

(A) The ability of the parents, at an early stage, to recognize, in the child, indications of potential physical, mental, or emotional impairment and to intervene in order to prevent or alleviate that impairment. The ability of the parents in the program shall be compared to a local comparison group based upon a statistical measure of parental recognition of, and intervention in, these potential impairments.

(B) A statistically improved knowledge level of child development and child rearing practices, as measured by the comparison instrument developed to measure this component in the Parents As Teachers Grant Program.

(C) Positive feelings about the usefulness of the program, as measured by the instrument to measure this component in the Parents As Teachers Grant Program.

(D) Positive attitudes toward the school district, as measured by the instrument developed to measure this component in the Parents As Teachers Grant Program.

(3) The retention in the project, at the end of the third year of operation, of not less than 80 percent of initial participants who remain in the district, as measured by a project statistical report.

(4) The development, no later than by the end of the third year, of a complete set of materials and instructional strategies in both the English and Spanish languages, or in the English language and any other language that addresses the needs of the school district, for the operation of the project. The materials and instructional strategies shall be certified by a panel of bilingually qualified parent educators and shall be made available both in print and in an audio visual format.

(b) As a condition of receiving funds for the purposes of this chapter, each county office selected to operate a grant program shall provide written notice, to the extent feasible, by mail or other appropriate means, to all parents of newborns within the boundaries of the district of the availability of the pilot project.

(c) The State Department of Education shall develop and provide an in-services training program based upon the model developed and utilized in the Parents As Teachers program operated in the State of Missouri. The department shall require applicants selected to the grant program, as condition for the receipt of grant proceeds, to participate in the in-service training program.

(d) No later than January 1, 1995, the State Department of Education shall assess the effectiveness and cost of the program operated under this chapter and shall report accordingly to the Legislature.

44723. This chapter shall become inoperative on June 30, 1996, and, as of January 1, 1997, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 4. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that one million one hundred thousand dollars ($1,100,000) be appropriated in the 1991–92 fiscal year to the State Department of Education for the purposes of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 44720) of Part 25 of the Education Code, contingent upon the passage of, and the receipt of funds pursuant to, the federal Family Involvement in Education Act of 1990.

(b) Funding for continuation and expansion of the grant program described in subdivision (b) shall be provided by federal funds received pursuant to the Family Involvement in Education Act of 1990 and included in future budget acts.

CHAPTER 1472

An act to amend Sections 199.70 and 199.71 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to AIDS.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The incidence of adult and pediatric acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) cases and infection with the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) is increasing rapidly among many of California's ethnic and racial minority populations.

(b) Implementation of culturally sensitive, comprehensive prevention education programs in racial and ethnic minority communities is critical to efforts to control HIV infection.

(c) AIDS service agencies have a need for culturally relevant educational materials in several languages. Frequently those agencies have neither the in-house capabilities to develop multilanguage specific and culturally relevant materials or to modify and translate English materials, nor adequate financial resources to purchase those services.

(d) The provision of quality translation services through one centralized site or several sites may facilitate the development of culturally appropriate materials in a variety of languages.

(e) The present method of reporting AIDS and HIV infection prevalence and incidence data among the Asian-Pacific Islander communities treats those communities as if they are one large, heterogeneous community, which makes it difficult to plan and deliver prevention and treatment services targeted to specific ethnic groups within those populations.

SEC. 2. Section 199.70 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

199.70. The intent of the Legislature in enacting this chapter is as follows:

(a) To fund specified pilot AIDS education programs.

(b) To fund pilot projects to demonstrate the value of noninstitutional health care services such as hospice, home health, and attendant care in controlling costs and providing humane care to people with AIDS and AIDS-related conditions.

(c) To fund clinical research.

(d) To fund the development of an AIDS Mental Health Project.

(e) To fund specified needs assessments, studies, and program evaluations.

(f) To authorize the use of funds appropriated by Section 6 of Chapter 23 of the Statutes of 1985 for preventive education for individuals who are seropositive as a result of antibody testing.

(g) To promote broad-based support for AIDS programs by encouraging community level networking and coordination of efforts among private sector, nonprofit, and public service agencies as well as health care professionals and providers of essential services.

(h) To promote an aggressive community-based HIV infection prevention program in all communities and areas where behaviors and prevalence indicate high risk of HIV infection, and to encourage local programs to involve racial and ethnic minorities in a leading role to plan the development, implementation, and evaluation of preventive education, HIV testing, delivery of care, and research activities that are necessary to the formation of a comprehensive, community-based, culturally sensitive HIV infection prevention strategy.

SEC. 3. Section 199.71 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

199.71. (a) The State Department of Health Services shall:

(1) Additionally, use funds appropriated by Section 6 of Chapter 23 of the Statutes of 1985 for purposes of making reimbursements to counties pursuant to Section 1632, for preventive education for individuals who are seropositive as a result of antibody testing.

(2) Issue contracts to evaluate the effectiveness of the AIDS information and education program conducted by the state department.

(3) Issue contracts for development and implementation of pilot programs of professional education and training for hospital, home health agency, and attendant care workers.

(4) Issue contracts for the development and implementation of pilot programs to reduce the spread of AIDS through residential detoxification and outpatient detoxification and treatment services for intravenous drug users with AIDS or AIDS-related conditions.

(5) Monitor state and federal AIDS-related budget and policy development, and coordinate budget items to ensure that funding for matters related to AIDS is adequate and complete within the state department each fiscal year.

(6) Develop and maintain an information clearinghouse within the state department including periodic updates or releases to inform health professionals or community organizations providing services to people with AIDS or AIDS-related conditions of the status of current or new clinical drug trials. These updates shall be compiled through review of scientific journals and in conjunction with the UC AIDS Task Force and researchers conducting clinical drug trials in California.

(7) Review, edit, and input summaries from scientific journals into the Computerized AIDS Information Network (CAIN), and do outreach about CAIN availability to health professionals.

(8) Develop and conduct a needs assessment of the availability of supportive services for people with AIDS or AIDS-related conditions. The needs assessment shall be conducted in conjunction with the state's AIDS education contractors and with any public or private agencies providing services to people with AIDS or AIDS-related conditions.

(9) Promote information and education programs for the general public to correct misinformation about AIDS. This shall include, but need not be limited to, periodic press releases to the printed and broadcast media and public service announcements.

(10) Prepare a report to the Legislature on the feasibility of coordinating various levels of health care, including health facility licensure categories within one program in a city and county which would serve persons with HIV infections, AIDS-related complex, and AIDS. The levels of health care to be covered in the report include, but are not limited to, general acute care hospital, acute psychiatric hospital, skilled nursing facility, hospice, intermediate care facility, residential care facility, adult day health care facility, and congregate living health facility. The report shall be developed in cooperation with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, and shall be submitted to the Legislature before July 1, 1990. The State Director of Health Services may contract for services necessary for completion of the report that cannot be provided through existing resources of the state department.

(11) Establish, with the assistance of other state agencies as the state department deems appropriate, centralized translation services to facilitate development of multilanguage, culturally relevant educational materials on HIV infection.

(12) Include, to the extent feasible, in its HIV surveillance and reporting practices, a breakdown of the major Asian-Pacific Islander subgroup populations. This breakdown shall be reflected in the surveillance and morbidity statistics issued by the director pursuant to Section 199.73.

(b) The State Director of Health Services shall contract for a prospective two-year study to accomplish the following objectives:

(1) Determine the medical costs of AIDS, comparing inpatient care, outpatient care, physician services, and community support services.

(2) The study shall include cost factors in the review of inpatient costs which may not be apparent in the analysis of charges, such as private rooms and social work.

The study shall include an interim report to the Legislature six months after receipt of funding and a final report to the Legislature within two years of receipt of funding so that the state can be in a knowledgeable position to plan for and provide the services and funding needed to meet this public health crisis.

(c) Notwithstanding Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10290) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code, if the State Director of Health Services determines that it is in the best interest of the state to enter into a contract for the purposes specified below without competitive bids, then the state director may, during the 1985–86 fiscal year, enter into a sole source contract for all of the following:

(1) Educational program evaluation.

(2) Education of hospital, home health agency, and attendant care workers.

(3) Drug education and treatment programs.

(4) The cost-of-care study.

(d) Notwithstanding Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10290) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code, if the State Director of Health Services determines that it is in the best interest of the state to enter into a contract for the purposes of the preparation of the feasibility report required by paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) without competitive bids, then the state director may enter into a sole source contract for the preparation of the feasibility report. The contract for the feasibility report shall be exempt from the requirement of approval by the Department of General Services and the Department of Finance.

SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature that the State Department of Health Services implement the provisions of this act with existing funds.

CHAPTER 1473

An act to amend Sections 1031 and 1031.5 of the Government Code, relating to peace officers.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1031 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1031. Each class of public officers or employees declared by law to be peace officers shall meet all of the following minimum standards:

(a) Be a citizen of the United States or a permanent resident alien who is eligible for and has applied for citizenship, except as provided in Section 2267 of the Vehicle Code.

(b) Be at least 18 years of age.

(c) Be fingerprinted for purposes of search of local, state, and national fingerprint files to disclose any criminal record.

(d) Be of good moral character, as determined by a thorough background investigation.

(e) Be a high school graduate, pass the General Education Development Test indicating high school graduation level, or have attained a two-year or four-year degree from a college or university accredited by the Western Association of Colleges and Universities; provided that this subdivision shall not apply to any public officer or employee who was employed, prior to the effective date of the amendment of this section made at the 1971 Regular Session of the Legislature, in any position declared by law prior to the effective date of such amendment to be peace officer positions.

(f) Be found to be free from any physical, emotional, or mental condition which might adversely affect the exercise of the powers of a peace officer. Physical condition shall be evaluated by a licensed physician and surgeon. Emotional and mental condition shall be evaluated by a licensed physician and surgeon or by a licensed psychologist who has a doctoral degree in psychology and at least five years of postgraduate experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders.

This section shall not be construed to preclude the adoption of additional or higher standards, including age.

SEC. 2. Section 1031.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1031.5. (a) Any person employed by a governmental agency on September 13, 1982, as a peace officer or a peace officer trainee, or who, prior to September 13, 1982, had applied to fill a position as a peace officer, as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code, is not subject to the requirement of subdivision (a) of Section 1031 prior to its amendment by Chapter 943 of the Statutes of 1982, provided that any person qualifying for this exemption shall, as soon as legally possible, apply for and meet all of the requirements for United States citizenship specified in existing law, and shall be subject to subdivisions (b) and (c).

(b) Any permanent resident alien who is employed as a peace officer shall diligently cooperate with the Immigration and Naturalization Service in the processing of his or her application for citizenship and shall be disqualified from holding that position if, three years after the filing of his or her application for employment, the person has not obtained citizenship due to his or her failure to cooperate in the processing of the application for citizenship.

(c) Any permanent resident alien who is employed as a peace officer shall be disqualified from holding that position if his or her application for citizenship is denied.

CHAPTER 1474

An act to amend Section 8571 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 1253 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment compensation.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8571 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8571. During a state of war emergency or a state of emergency the Governor may suspend any regulatory statute, or statute prescribing the procedure for conduct of state business, or the orders, rules, or regulations of any state agency, including subdivision (d) of Section 1253 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, where the Governor determines and declares that strict compliance with any statute, order, rule, or regulation would in any way prevent, hinder, or delay the mitigation of the effects of the emergency.

SEC. 2. Section 1253 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1253. An unemployed individual is eligible to receive unemployment compensation benefits with respect to any week only if the director finds that:

(a) A claim for benefits with respect to that week has been made in accordance with authorized regulations.

(b) He or she has registered for work, and thereafter continued to report, at a public employment office or any other place as the director may approve. Either or both of the requirements of this subdivision may be waived or altered by authorized regulation as to partially employed individuals attached to regular jobs.

(c) He or she was able to work and available for work for that week.

(d) He has been unemployed for a waiting period of one week as defined in Section 1254, unless this waiting period has been waived pursuant to Section 8571 of the Government Code.

(e) He or she conducted a search for suitable work in accordance with specific and reasonable instructions of a public employment office.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Director of Employment Development shall not assess nor collect any penalties for nonpayment of those billings sent to public entities on or after May 22, 1984, and before October 31, 1990, and which remain unpaid on October 1, 1990. This provision shall only apply to local agencies which had at any time protested the payment of their charges because the courts had found the California Unemployment Insurance Program to be a state-mandated local program which entitled local government to reimbursement of their costs.

CHAPTER 1475

An act to add Section 25000.1 to the Public Resources Code, and to add Section 701.1 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to energy resources.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25000.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25000.1. (a) The Legislature further finds and declares that, in addition to their other ratepayer protection objectives, a principal goal of electric and natural gas utilities' resource planning and investment shall be to minimize the cost to society of the reliable energy services that are provided by natural gas and electricity, and to improve the environment and to encourage the diversity of energy sources through improvements in energy efficiency and development of renewable energy resources, such as wind, solar, and geothermal energy.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that, in addition to any appropriate investments in energy production, electrical and natural gas utilities should seek to exploit all practicable and cost-effective conservation and improvements in the efficiency of energy use and distribution that offer equivalent or better system reliability, and which are not being exploited by any other entity.

(c) In calculating the cost effectiveness of energy resources, including conservation and load management options, the commission shall include a value for any costs and benefits to the environment, including air quality. The commission shall ensure that any values it develops pursuant to this section are consistent with values developed by the Public Utilities Commission pursuant to Section 701.1 of the Public Utilities Code. However, if the commission determines that a value developed pursuant to this subdivision is not consistent with a value developed by the Public Utilities Commission pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 701.1 of the Public Utilities Code, the commission may nonetheless use this value if, in the appropriate record of its proceedings, it states its reasons for using the value it has selected.

SEC. 2. Section 701.1 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to

701.1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that, in addition to other ratepayer protection objectives, a principal goal of electric and natural gas utilities' resource planning and investment shall be to minimize the cost to society of the reliable energy services that are provided by natural gas and electricity, and to improve the environment and to encourage the diversity of energy sources through improvements in energy efficiency and development of renewable energy resources, such as wind, solar, and geothermal energy.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that, in addition to any appropriate investments in energy production, electrical and natural gas utilities should seek to exploit all practicable and cost-effective conservation and improvements in the efficiency of energy use and distribution that offer equivalent or better system reliability, and which are not being exploited by any other entity.

(c) In calculating the cost effectiveness of energy resources, including conservation and load management options, the commission shall include a value for any costs and benefits to the environment, including air quality. The commission shall ensure that any values it develops pursuant to this section are consistent with values developed by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission pursuant to Section 25000.1 of the Public Resources Code. However, if the commission determines that a value developed pursuant to this subdivision is not consistent with a value developed by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 25000.1 of the Public Resources Code, the commission may nonetheless use this value if, in the appropriate record of its proceedings, it states its reasons for using the value it has selected.

An act to amend Sections 94316.2, 94316.3, 94316.4, 94316.5, 94316.6, 94316.10, 94316.20, 94317, 94317.5, 94318.5, 94319.2, 94319.4, 94319.5, 94319.10, 94319.12, 94319.13, 94319.14, and 94319.18 of, and to add Sections 94316.05, and 94316.9 to, the Education Code, and to amend Section 69507.7 of the Education Code as amended by Section 1.5 of Chapter 1239 of the Statutes of 1989, relating to postsecondary education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 69507.7 of the Education Code, as added by Section 1.5 of Chapter 1239 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

69507.7. (a) The Student Aid Commission shall give written notice to the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education when, in the administration of a program review pursuant to Section 69763, evidence is discovered indicating that a private postsecondary educational institution has failed to comply with Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 94316) of Chapter 3 of Part 59 or Section 94320.

(b) A private postsecondary educational institution that violates Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 94316) of Chapter 3 of Part 59 or Section 94320, shall be regarded as not legally authorized by the state to provide courses of instruction. The existence of a violation may be determined by the Student Aid Commission in connection with determining the institution's eligibility to participate in loan programs administered by the Student Aid Commission. The Student Aid Commission's determination of a violation may be contested by the institution in a hearing as provided in subdivision (c).

(c) In addition to notifying the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education pursuant to subdivision (a), the Student Aid Commission may limit, suspend, or terminate an institution's eligibility to participate in loan programs administered by the Student Aid Commission, based on the institution's violation of any of the provisions of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 94316) of Chapter 3 of Part 59 or Section 94320. No action shall be brought by the Student Aid Commission for a de minimus violation of that article. Nothing herein shall be construed to authorize the Student Aid Commission to suspend or revoke an institution's approval to operate. An action instituted pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to Article 11 (commencing with Section 30300) of Chapter 1 of Part IV of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations and the requirements of federal law, including the requirements for notice and hearing.

(d) Any costs to the Student Aid Commission for the administration of this section shall be reimbursed by the council from the vocational education account in the Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education Administration Fund.

(e) This section supplements, but does not supplant, the rights, remedies, and penalties in other provisions of law.

(f) It is the intent of the Legislature that the priority for review by the Student Aid Commission for violations solely of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 94316) of Chapter 3 of Part 59 or Section 94320 shall be focused on institutions which have a cumulative gross student loan default rate of at least 40 percent. Nothing herein shall preclude the Student Aid Commission from taking appropriate action if any institution is in violation of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 94316) of Chapter 3 of Part 59 or Section 94320.

SEC. 2. Section 94316.05 is added to the Education Code, to read:

94316.05. (a) The Legislature further finds and declares that students have been harmed by some institutions because of the financial improprieties and mismanagement of those institutions, their failure to fully disclose the student's financial and contractual obligations, and their failure to have sufficient resources to provide the promised training. The Legislature also finds that the tuition refund policies of institutions often encourage unfair practices by creating a financial benefit to the institution if a student drops out, and do not encourage institutions to provide adequate counseling or to adopt policies designed to curb student dropouts. In addition, the Legislature finds that many institutions have poor records of student completion and job placement, even though these institutions expressly or implicitly represent that students will receive sufficient training and skills to obtain well paid employment in the field that is the subject of the training, and that a reputable institution is one that complies with this chapter. Consequently, the Legislature finds that the business of providing occupational training, instruction, and related equipment by commercial enterprises has a substantial impact on the economy of this state and the welfare of its citizens.

(b) It is the further intent and purpose of this article to establish incentives to reduce student dropouts, minimum fiscal standards, minimum standards for admission based on the student's ability to be successfully trained, and minimum standards for institutional accountability for course completion and student employment in the occupations or job titles to which the training is represented to lead. The Legislature finds that the accountability standards for completion and employment reflect a reasonable tolerance for factors outside of an institution's control. It is also the intent and purpose of this article to assure that the cost to taxpayers of loans and grants for vocational instruction is commensurate with the benefits obtained by students and flowing to the state's economy.

SEC. 3. Section 94316.2 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94316.2. The following definitions and provisions apply to this article:

(a) "Class" means a subject, such as English or mathematics, that is taught as part of a course of instruction. "Class session" means the part of a day in which an institution conducts instruction or training in a particular class, such as an hour of instruction in English or mathematics offered on a particular day of the week.

(b) "Council" means, on and after January 1, 1991, the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education established pursuant to Section 94304. Until January 1, 1991, the word "council" means the Superintendent of Public Instruction with respect to the approval, authorization, licensure, regulation, or oversight of, or any other duty or function relating to, postsecondary educational institutions.

(c) "Course" or "course of instruction," except as otherwise provided, means the program of instruction, training, or education represented to lead to an occupation or job title.

(d) "Educational service" means any education, training, or instruction offered by an institution, including any equipment.

(e) "Equipment" includes all textbooks, supplies, materials, implements, tools, machinery, computers, electronic devices, or any other goods related to any education, training, or instruction, or an agreement for educational services or a course of instruction.

(f) "Licensure" includes any license, certificate, permit, or similar credential which a person must hold to lawfully engage in any occupation or activity.

(g) "Owner" means any person who has a legal or equitable interest in 10 percent or more of an institution's stock or assets.

(h) "Person" means a natural person or any business entity, regardless of the form of organization.

(i) "Person in control" means a person who has sufficient capacity, directly or indirectly, to direct or influence the management, policies, or conduct of the institution so that the person can cause or prevent violations of this chapter. There is a rebuttable presumption affecting the burden of proof that an owner, director, or officer of an institution is a person in control.

(j) "Private postsecondary educational institution" or "institution" means any person doing business in California who offers to provide or provides, for a tuition, fee, or other charge, any instruction, training, or education primarily to people who have completed or terminated their secondary education or are beyond the age of compulsory high school attendance. An "institution" includes its branch and satellite campuses, unless otherwise provided.

(k) "Representative" means an employee, an agent as defined in Section 2295 of the Civil Code, an agent subject to Section 94333, an agency subject to Section 94334, or any person who, for compensation, (1) solicits, promotes, advertises, or refers or recruits students or prospective students for an institution or (2) is involved with enrollment, admissions, student attendance, administration, financial aid, instruction, or job placement assistance on behalf of an institution.

(l) "Total charge" means the total charge for a course of instruction or other education, instruction, or training, including the charge for tuition, equipment, finance charges, and all other fees, charges, costs, and expenses.

(m) "Year" means a calendar year.

SEC. 4. Section 94316.3 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94316.3. (a) No institution or representative of an institution shall make any statement that is in any manner untrue or misleading, either by actual statement, omission, or intimation.

(b) No institution or representative of an institution shall engage in any false, deceptive, misleading, or unfair act in connection with any matter, including any of the following: the institution's advertising and promotion, the recruitment of students for enrollment in the institution, the offer or sale of a course of instruction, the enrollment or testing of students, the preparation or submission of a student's application for a student loan or grant, the financing of a course of instruction, course length, course credits, the withholding of equipment, educational materials, or loan or grant funds from a student, training and instruction, the collection of payments, or job placement.

(c) An institution is liable in any civil or administrative action or proceeding for any violation of this article committed by a representative of the institution. An institution is liable in a criminal action for violations of this article committed by a representative of the institution to the extent permitted by law.

(d) (1) No institution or representative of an institution shall induce a person to enter into an agreement for a course of instruction by offering to compensate that person to act as the institution's representative in the solicitation, referral, or recruitment of others for enrollment in the institution.

(2) No institution or representative of an institution shall offer to pay or pay any consideration to a student or prospective student to act as a representative of the institution with regard to the solicitation, referral, or recruitment of any person for enrollment in the institution either:

(A) During the 60-day period following the date on which the student began the course.

(B) At any subsequent time if the student has not maintained satisfactory academic progress in acquiring the necessary level of education, training, skill, and experience to obtain employment in the occupation or job title to which the course is represented to lead. The institution shall have the burden of proof to establish that the student has maintained satisfactory academic progress.

(e) No institution shall compensate a representative involved in recruitment, enrollment, admissions, student attendance, or sales of equipment to students on the basis of a commission, commission draw, bonus, quota, or other similar method except as follows:

(1) If the course of instruction is scheduled to be completed in 90 days or less, the institution shall pay compensation related to a particular student only if that student completes the course.

(2) If the course of instruction is scheduled to be completed in more than 90 days, the institution shall pay compensation related to a particular student as follows:

(A) No compensation shall be paid for at least 90 days after that student has begun the course.

(B) Up to one-half of the compensation may be paid before the student completes the course only if the student has made satisfactory academic progress, documented by the institution in the student's file, for more than 90 days.

(C) The remainder of the compensation shall be paid only after the student's completion of the course.

This subdivision does not prevent the payment at any time of an hourly, weekly, monthly, or annual wage or salary.

(f) No institution or representative of an institution shall pay any consideration to a person to induce that person to sign an agreement for a course of instruction.

(g) No institution shall use a misleading name in any manner implying any of the following:

(1) The institution is affiliated with any governmental agency, public or private corporation, agency, or association.

(2) The institution is a public institution.

(3) The institution grants degrees.

(h) (1) No institution or any representative of an institution shall in any manner make any untrue or misleading change in, or untrue or misleading statement related to any test score, grade, record of grades, attendance record, record indicating student completion or employment, financial information, including any financial report required to be filed pursuant to Sections 94316.14 and 94316.22, information or record relating to the student's eligibility for financial assistance or attendance at the institution, or any other record or document required by this chapter or by the council.

(2) No institution or any representative of an institution shall falsify, destroy, or conceal any record or other item described in paragraph (1) while that record or item is required to be maintained by this chapter or by the council.

(i) No institution or representative of an institution shall use the terms "approval," "approved," "approval to operate," or "approved to operate," without stating clearly and conspicuously that approval to operate means compliance with minimum state standards and does not imply any endorsement or recommendation by the state or by the council. If the council has granted an institution approval to operate, the institution or its representative may indicate that the institution is "licensed" or "licensed to operate" but may not state or imply that the institution or its courses of instruction are endorsed or recommended by the state or by the council.

(j) No institution offering courses represented to lead to occupations or job titles requiring licensure shall enter into an agreement for a course of instruction with a person whom the institution knows or, by the exercise of reasonable care, should know, would be ineligible to obtain licensure in the occupation or job title to which the course of instruction is represented to lead, at the time of the scheduled date of course completion, for reasons such as age, physical characteristics, or relevant past criminal conviction.

(k) No institution shall divide or structure a course of instruction or educational service to avoid the application of any provision of this article.

(l) No institution or representative of an institution shall direct a representative to perform any unlawful act, to refrain from complaining or reporting unlawful conduct to the council or another government agency, or to engage in any unfair act to persuade a student not to complain to the council or another government agency.

SEC. 5. Section 94316.4 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94316.4. (a) In addition to making any other required disclosures, a representative of an institution who in any manner solicits or recruits any person in-person at any place other than the institution's premises or by telephone for enrollment in a course of instruction shall disclose the following, orally and, if the solicitation is in-person, in a correctly dated written document given to the person and printed in at least 10-point type and signed by the representative:

(1) The representative is a paid recruiter for an institution and the institution is not a public school.

(2) The representative is not offering a job, making job referrals, or conducting a survey.

(3) There is no guarantee of a job after a student graduates from the course of instruction.

(4) The total charge for the course of instruction, or if the solicitation or recruitment is for more than one course, the range of the total charges for the courses offered.

(b) The representative shall make the disclosures required by paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, of subdivision (a) before attempting to solicit or recruit any person. The representative shall make the disclosure required by paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) before the end of a solicitation or attempt to recruit any person.

(c) A representative who solicits or recruits any person as described in subdivision (a) shall provide the person with a copy of the institution's current catalog or brochure, containing the information described in paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 94316.10, which the person may retain without charge. The institution or its representative shall provide the catalog or brochure required by this subdivision at the time of an in-person solicitation or recruitment or send the catalog or brochure within two days of a telephonic solicitation or recruitment.

(d) No institution shall enter an agreement for a course of instruction with, or prepare or assist in the preparation of a student loan or grant application for, a person solicited or recruited as described in subdivision (a) within three days of the date on which the person was solicited or recruited.

(e) This section does not apply to solicitations or presentations made at informational public appearances directed to five or more people or to advertisements in print or broadcast media.

SEC. 6. Section 94316.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94316.5. (a) Every institution shall meet all of the following performance standards for each course offered during the applicable time period described in subdivision (k):

(1) Sixty percent or more of the students who began the course, did not cancel pursuant to Section 94317, and were originally scheduled at the time of enrollment to complete the course during that period, shall complete it.

(2) Seventy percent or more of the students who completed the course within that period shall obtain employment, starting within six months after completing the course, in the occupations or job titles to which the course of instruction was represented to lead. For the purpose of this subdivision, "course of instruction" or "course" includes all courses of instruction, however denominated, that are represented to lead to the same or closely related occupations or job titles.

(b) Every institution shall meet all of the following performance standards for all courses in the aggregate offered by the institution at each of its campuses during the applicable time period described in subdivision (k):

(1) Sixty percent or more of all the students who began the courses, did not cancel pursuant to Section 94317, and were originally scheduled at the time of enrollment to complete these courses during that time period, shall complete these courses.

(2) Seventy percent or more of all the students who completed the courses within that time period shall obtain employment, starting within six months after completing the courses, in the occupations or job titles to which the courses of instruction were represented to lead.

(c) An institution shall meet the standards prescribed in subdivisions (a) and (b) at each campus at which the course or courses are offered. A determination of whether a particular campus meets the standards prescribed in subdivision (a) and (b) shall be based only on students who attended that campus. An institution shall be subject to subdivisions (e) and (f) only with respect to its campuses which fail to meet the standards prescribed in subdivisions (a) and (b).

(d) (1) This subdivision applies only to institutions in which 15 or fewer students began a course or courses, did not cancel pursuant to Section 94317, and were originally scheduled to complete the course or courses within the applicable time period described in subdivision (k).

(2) If an institution described in paragraph (1) fails to meet any of the standards prescribed in subdivisions (a) or (b) but would have met that standard if one additional student had completed or obtained employment, the institution shall be deemed to comply with this section. If an institution described in paragraph (1) fails to meet the standard for review established in subdivision (e) but would have met the standard if one additional student had completed or obtained employment, the institution shall be deemed subject to subdivision (e).

(e) (1) This subdivision applies only to an institution or any of its campuses which fails to meet any of the following:

(A) Any of the standards established in subdivision (a) or (b) by 10 percent or less.

(B) Any of the standards established in subdivision (a) by more than 10 percent but has a placement rate of 42 percent or more for the course in which the standard was failed.

(C) Any of the standards established in subdivision (b) by more than 10 percent but has a placement rate of 42 percent or more for all courses in the aggregate.

(2) The council shall conduct a review of the campus failing the standard and of the course in which the standard was failed. The review may also include the institution. The review shall be conducted within 90 days after the council receives information that the institution or any of its campuses is not in compliance with any of the standards prescribed in subdivisions (a) and (b). The review may include an inspection of the institution's or campus' facilities and records, interviews of administrators, job placement personnel, faculty, and students, observation of classroom instruction, a review of student complaints, and any other matters deemed appropriate by the council. The council shall determine whether the institution's failure to satisfy the standards was in any manner caused by a violation of this chapter or whether a substantial number of students were unable to complete the course or obtain employment due to such factors as death, disability, pregnancy, illness, or military service.

(3) If the institution did not meet the standards prescribed in subdivision (a) in whole or in part because of any violation of this chapter, the council shall order that the institution cease offering the course of instruction at the campus where the course was offered. If the institution did not meet the standards prescribed in subdivision (b) in whole or in part because of any violation of this chapter, the council shall revoke the institution's approval to operate, or approval to operate the branch or satellite campus where the courses were offered. No action may be taken pursuant to this paragraph without notice and, if requested by the institution, a hearing.

(4) If the institution's failure to meet the standards prescribed in subdivision (a) or (b) was not caused by a violation of this chapter, the council shall order, after notice and, if requested, after a hearing, that the institution implement a program to achieve compliance with subdivisions (a) and (b). The program may include any of the following:

(A) Limitations on enrollment for specific courses of instruction.

(B) Revision of admission policies and screening practices to assure that students have a reasonable expectation of completing courses and obtaining employment.

(C) Increased academic counseling and other student support services.

(D) Improved curricula, facilities, and equipment.

(E) Revisions to the qualifications and number of faculty.

(F) Improved job placement services, including revisions to the qualifications and number of job placement personnel and the expansion of contacts with employers and state and federal employment development agencies.

(G) Any other reasonable procedure required by the council.

(5) If an institution is subject to an order pursuant to paragraph (4), the council may require that the institution file information or reports requested by the council. The council may also monitor the institution in the manner provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 94319.10.

(6) (A) An institution subject to an order pursuant to paragraph (4) shall satisfy the standards established in subdivisions (a) and (b) within the period designated by the council. This period shall not extend more than (i) one year beyond the length of the course for noncompliance with the standards prescribed by subdivision (a) or (ii) one year beyond the longest course for noncompliance with the standards prescribed in subdivision (b).

(B) If the institution fails to satisfy the standards of subdivision (a) within the period designated by the council, the council shall order the institution to cease offering the course of instruction at the campus where that course was offered. If the institution fails to satisfy the standards of subdivision (b) within the period designated by the council, the council shall revoke the institution's approval to operate, or approval to operate the branch or satellite campus where the courses were offered. No action shall be taken pursuant to this paragraph without notice and, if requested by the institution, a hearing.

(f) If an institution fails to meet any of the standards established in subdivision (a) by more than 10 percent and does not have a placement rate of 42 percent or more for the course in which the standard was failed, the council shall order the institution to cease offering the course of instruction at the campus where the course was offered. If the institution fails to meet any of the standards prescribed in subdivision (b) by more than 10 percent and does not have a placement rate of 42 percent or more for all courses in the aggregate, the council shall revoke the institution's approval to operate, or approval to operate the branch or satellite campus where the courses were offered. No action shall be taken pursuant to this paragraph without notice and, if requested by the institution, a hearing.

(g) (1) The institution shall have the burden of proving its compliance with this section.

(2) The council shall investigate the institution whenever the council deems appropriate to verify the institution's compliance with this section. The investigation shall include an examination of the records maintained by the institution pursuant to subdivision (i) and contacts with the students and employers.

(3) If an institution willfully falsifies, alters, destroys, conceals, or provides untrue or misleading information relating to compliance with this section, including records maintained pursuant to subdivision (i), the council shall revoke the institution's approval to operate. No action shall be taken pursuant to this paragraph without notice and, if requested by the institution, a hearing. This provision supplements but does not supplant any other penalty or remedy provided by law.

(4) The institution shall pay all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the council in connection with this section at a time designated by the council.

(h) If the council, pursuant to subdivision (e) or (f), orders an institution to cease offering a course of instruction, or revokes the approval of an institution to operate or operate a branch or satellite campus, the institution may apply, no sooner than two years after the order to cease or revocation became effective, for approval to offer that course or for approval to operate. Before the council may grant any approval, the institution shall establish that it complies with this chapter, each course satisfies all of the minimum standards prescribed by this chapter, and the circumstances surrounding the institution's failure to meet the requirements of this section have sufficiently changed so that the institution will be substantially likely to comply with this section.

(i) An institution shall maintain records of the name, address, and telephone number of students who enroll in a course of instruction, including students who begin the course and students who cancel pursuant to Section 94317, and of students who graduate from that course of instruction. An institution shall inquire whether students who complete a course of instruction obtain employment starting within six months of completing the course in the occupation to which the course of instruction is represented to lead and continue in employment for a period of at least 60 days. The inquiry shall be documented by a list indicating each student's name, address, and telephone number; the employer's name, address, and telephone number; the name, address, and telephone number of the person who provided the information regarding the student's employment to the institution; the name, title, or description of the job; the date the student obtained employment; and the duration of the student's employment.

(j) For the purpose of this section:

(1) "Annual report" means the report required to be filed pursuant to Section 94316.14.

(2) "Employment" means full-time employment for at least 32 hours per week, or any other time designated by the council, for a period of at least 60 days in the occupations or job titles to which the course of instruction is represented to lead.

(3) "Placement rate" means the percentage of students who did both of the following:

(A) Began the course, did not cancel pursuant to Section 94317, and were originally scheduled at the time of enrollment to complete the course during the applicable time period described in subdivision (k).

(B) Completed the course within the applicable time period described in subdivision (k) and started employment within six months of completing the course.

(4) "Reporting period" means the institution's fiscal year or any year-period designated by the council to be covered in the institution's annual report.

(k) (1) An institution's compliance with the standards prescribed in subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be determined as of the date on which the institution's reporting period ends.

(2) The institution shall report its determination of its compliance with the standards established in subdivisions (a) and (b) in its 1991 annual report and in each subsequent annual report.

(3) For determining compliance with the completion standards in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) at the end of the institution's 1991 reporting period, "time period" means the period beginning on January 1, 1990, and ending at the end of the institution's 1991 reporting period.

(4) For determining compliance with the employment standards in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) at the end of the institution's 1991 reporting period, "time period" means the period beginning on January 1, 1990, and ending eight months before the end of the institution's 1991 reporting period.

(5) For determining compliance with the completion standards in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) at the end of the institution's 1992 reporting period, "time period" means the period beginning on January 1, 1990, and ending at the end of the institution's 1992 reporting period.

(6) For determining compliance with the employment standards in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) and paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) at the end of the institution's 1992 reporting period, "time period" means the period beginning January 1, 1990, and ending eight months before the end of its reporting period.

(7) For determining compliance with the completion and employment standards in subdivisions (a) and (b) at the end of the institution's 1993 reporting period and at the end of each annual reporting period thereafter, "time period" means the two most recent calendar years that ended at least eight months before the end of the institution's applicable reporting period.

(8) The council may adjust the meaning of "time period" as specified in paragraphs (3) to (7), inclusive, if the council finds that an adjustment is necessary for the efficient administration of this section. If any adjustment is made, the adjustment shall not include students who began a course of instruction before January 1, 1990, or provide for a "time period" of less than one year in the 1991 and 1992 reporting periods. If any adjustment is made in the 1993 or subsequent annual reporting periods, the council may adjust when the "time period" commences but shall not alter the two-year length of the period.

(l) If an order to cease offering a course or a revocation is issued pursuant to this section, the council may, in its discretion, permit the institution to continue to offer the course or courses of instruction to the students who had begun the course or courses before the effective date of the order or revocation or may order the institution to cease instruction and provide a refund of tuition and all other charges to students.

(m) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1991.

SEC. 7. Section 94316.6 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94316.6. (a) As a condition of maintaining its approval to operate, an institution shall maintain sufficient financial resources to do all of the following:

(1) Satisfy minimum standards prescribed by Section 94311 or 94311.1, whichever is applicable.

(2) Provide the education, training, skill, and experience the institution in any manner represented it would provide.

(3) Pay timely refunds as required by Sections 94317, 94318, 94318.5, 94319.4, and 94319.9.

(b) The council may find that an institution does not have sufficient financial resources to comply with subdivision (a) if any of the following occur:

(1) The institution fails to have available sufficient funds and accounts receivable to pay all operating expenses due within 30 days. For the purpose of this subdivision, "funds" means cash or assets which can be converted into cash within seven days.

(2) The institution fails to maintain a ratio of current assets to current liabilities of 1.25 to 1, as determined in accordance with this subdivision and, to the extent not provided in this subdivision, generally accepted accounting principles. For the purpose of this paragraph, "current assets" does not include any of the following: (A) intangible assets, including goodwill, going concern value, organization expense, startup costs, long-term prepayment of deferred charges, and nonreturnable deposits; or (B) state or federal grant funds that are not the property of the institution but are held for future disbursement for the benefit of students.

Unearned tuition shall be accounted for in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(3) The institution's liabilities exceed its assets. "Assets" shall not include any item described in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (2). "Liabilities" shall include unearned tuition.

(4) The institution has had operating losses, as determined under generally accepted accounting principles, in each of the institution's two most recent fiscal years.

(c) (1) In determining an institution's compliance with subdivision (a), the council may, at the institution's request, consider the financial resources of a parent corporation if the parent corporation files with the council, and at all times complies with, an irrevocable and unconditional agreement approved by its board of directors that satisfies all of the requirements of paragraph (2).

(2) The agreement described in paragraph (1) shall provide that the parent corporation do all of the following:

(A) Consent to be sued in California.

(B) Consent to be subject to the administrative jurisdiction of the council and Student Aid Commission in connection with the institution's compliance with this chapter.

(C) Appoint an agent for service of process in California and all notices required by this chapter.

(D) Agree to pay any refund, claim, penalty, or judgment which the institution is obligated to pay.

(E) File financial reports, maintain financial records, and permit the inspection and copying of financial records to the same extent as is required of the institution.

(3) For the purpose of this subdivision, a "parent corporation" means a corporation that owns more than 80 percent of the stock of the institution whose financial resources are at issue.

(d) If an institution does not comply with subdivision (a), the council may do any or any combination of the following:

(1) Require the institution to establish and implement a financial plan to assure compliance with subdivision (a).

(2) Require the institution to post satisfactory security for the performance of its financial obligations pursuant to subdivision (a).

(3) Require the institution to furnish additional information, such as an audit report of financial statements prepared by a California licensed certified public accountant who is not an employee, officer, or director of the institution.

(4) Proceed pursuant to Section 94319.10.

(e) In any action or proceeding involving an institution's failure to comply with subdivision (a), there shall be a presumption affecting the burden of proof, which an institution may rebut, that the institution does not have sufficient financial resources to comply with subdivision (a) if the institution fails to meet any of the standards set forth in subdivision (b).

SEC. 8. Section 94316.9 is added to the Education Code, to read:

94316.9. The council may suspend or revoke an institution's approval to operate or order probation or the posting of a bond, as provided in Section 94319.10, for any of the following reasons:

(a) The institution has failed to make timely refunds to, or on behalf of students, as required by Sections 94317, 94318, 94318.5, 94319.4, and 94319.9, or has not satisfied, within 30 days of its issuance, a final judgment obtained by a student against the institution.

(b) The institution or an owner, person in control, director, or officer of the institution is, or has been, found in any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, after notice and an opportunity to be heard, to have violated any law regarding the obtaining, maintenance, or disbursement of state or federal loan or grant funds, or any other law substantially related to the operation of the institution.

(c) The institution, or a person in control of the institution is, or has been, found in any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, after notice and an opportunity to be heard, to have unpaid financial liabilities involving the refund or unlawful acquisition, use, or expenditure of state or federal financial aid funds.

(d) (1) All of the following are, or have been, found in any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding:

(A) A person in control of the institution was a person in control of another institution within one year before that institution's closure.

(B) While the person was acting as a person in control of the other institution, the person knew, or by the exercise of reasonable care, should have known that the institution violated this chapter.

(C) That violation was a cause of that institution's closure or of damage to students.

(D) That institution did not pay to all students refunds owed as a result of the closure and full compensation for actual damages from that violation.

(E) The person in control has not paid to all students of the closed institution refunds owed and full compensation for actual damages resulting from the closure that were not paid by the closed institution. For the purpose of this subdivision, "closure" includes closure of a branch or satellite campus, the termination of either the correspondence or residence portion of a home study or correspondence course, and the termination of a course of instruction for some or all of the students enrolled in the course before the time these students were originally scheduled to complete it or before a student who has been continuously enrolled in a course of instruction has been permitted to complete all the educational services and classes that comprise the course.

SEC. 9. Section 94316.10 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94316.10. (a) Before a person executes an agreement obligating that person to pay any money to an institution for a course of instruction or related equipment, the institution shall provide the person with all of the following:

(1) A copy of the agreement containing all of the information required by Section 94319.

(2) If the institution has offered the course of instruction for at least one calendar year, it shall provide orally and in writing all of the following information:

(A) The completion rate for students in the course of instruction for the most recent calendar year that ended not less than 18 months prior to the date of disclosure. This rate shall be calculated by determining the percentage of students enrolled in the course of instruction who were originally scheduled, at the time of enrollment, to complete the course of instruction in that calendar year that successfully completed the course of instruction, or obtained full-time employment in the occupation or job title category for which the training was offered, within 150 percent of the amount of time normally required to complete the course of instruction.

(B) The job placement rate for students who were originally scheduled, at the time of enrollment, to complete the course of instruction in the most recent calendar year that ended not less than 18 months prior to the date of disclosure. In calculating this rate, the institution shall consider as not having obtained employment any graduate or other student for whom the institution does not possess evidence, documented in the student's file, showing that the graduate or other student has obtained employment in the occupation or job title category for which the course of instruction is offered.

(C) Any other information necessary to substantiate the truth of any claim made by the institution as to job placement.

(D) If the institution or a representative of the institution makes any express or implied claim about the salary which may be earned after completing a course of instruction, such as a claim that the student may be able to repay a student loan from the salary received at a job obtained following completion of the course of instruction, the following disclosures orally and in writing:

(i) The percentage of students who were originally scheduled, at the time of enrollment, to complete the course of instruction in the most recent calendar year that ended not less than six months prior to the date of disclosure who earn salaries at or above the claimed level.

(ii) The ranges of monthly salaries earned by these students in two hundred dollar ($200) increments and the number of these students in each salary range.

(E) If the institution or a representative of the institution in any manner represents that the course of instruction might lead to employment in an occupation or job title for which a state licensing examination is required, the following disclosures orally and in writing:

(i) All licensure or certification requirements established by the state for the occupation or job title category.

(ii) The pass rate of graduates of the course of instruction offered by that institution for the most recent calendar year that ended not less than six months prior to the date of disclosure on any licensure or certification examination required by the state for the particular occupation or job title.

(3) If the institution has offered the course of instruction for less than one calendar year, the following statement: "This course is new. We are not able to tell you how many students graduate, how many students find jobs, or how much money you can earn after finishing this course."

(4) A current catalog or brochure containing information describing the courses offered, all of the occupations or job titles, if any, to which the course of instruction is represented to lead, length of program, faculty and their qualifications, schedule of tuition payments, fees, and all other charges and expenses necessary for completion of the course of instruction, cancellation and refund rights, the total cost of tuition over the entire period, a description of the student's rights under the Student Tuition Recovery Fund established pursuant to Section 94342, and all other material facts concerning the institution and the course of instruction that might reasonably affect the student's decision to enroll.

(5) If applicable, the following disclosures orally and in writing:

(A) If the student obtains a loan to pay for the course of instruction, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund.

(B) If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed or reinsured by the state or federal government and the student defaults on the loan:

(i) The federal or state government or the loan guarantee agency can take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.

(ii) The student may not be eligible for any other federal financial assistance for education at a different school or for government housing assistance until the loan is repaid.

(C) The institution is not a public institution.

(D) The institution has filed, or has had filed against it, a petition in bankruptcy.

(6) A written statement set forth in a table of the amount of the refund to which the student would be entitled if the student withdrew from the course after completing a period of days or weeks of instruction equivalent to 10 percent, 25 percent, 50 percent, 60 percent, and 75 percent of the course of instruction. The disclosures required by this paragraph may be set forth in the agreement for the course.

(b) The information required by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall be documented by the institution with all facts needed to substantiate that information. Any information regarding a student's employment shall be based on an inquiry by the institution and shall be documented by a list indicating the student's name, address, and telephone number; the employer's name, address, and telephone number; the name and address or telephone number of the person who provided the information regarding the student's employment to the institution; the name, title, or description of the job; the date the student obtained the job; the duration of the student's employment; and the amount of the salary, if any salary claim has been made.

(c) No institution which has offered a course of instruction for less than one year shall make any express or implied claims about the salary that a student may earn after completing the course of instruction.

(d) The institution shall provide the catalog or brochure described in paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) to any person upon request.

(e) The written disclosure of information required by subparagraphs (A), (B), and (E) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) may be made on the form prescribed in Appendix A, Form I, in 34 Code of Federal Regulations, Part 668, or any other similar form prescribed by law for the disclosure of that information.

(f) No institution shall obtain the signature of any person to an agreement obligating that person to pay any money to the institution until the person has had a reasonable opportunity to read and review all of the items described in subdivision (a).

(g) For the purpose of subdivision (a), a student is "originally scheduled, at the time of enrollment, to complete the course of instruction" on the date when the student will have been enrolled in the course of instruction for the amount of time normally required to complete the course of instruction. The "amount of time normally required to complete the course of instruction" is the period of time specified in the institution's enrollment contract, catalog, or other materials for completion of the course of instruction by a full-time student, or the period of time between the date of enrollment and the anticipated graduation date appearing on the student's loan application (if any), whichever is less. However, the "amount of time normally required to complete the program" shall be calculated on a pro rata basis for students enrolled on a less than full-time basis.

(h) The disclosure of any information pursuant to Section 94316.4 shall not relieve any institution of any obligation to make any disclosure required under this section.

(i) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, an institution offering a home study or correspondence course need not orally make the disclosures required by this section in connection with that course if the institution did not orally solicit or recruit the student for enrollment and the student enrolled by mail.

SEC. 10. Section 94316.20 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94316.20. (a) When a person executes an agreement obligating that person to pay any money to an institution for a course of instruction or related equipment, the institution shall provide the person with a document containing only the following notice:

"NOTICE OF STUDENT RIGHTS (12-point bold type)

"1. You may cancel your contract for school, without any penalty or obligation on the fifth business day following your first class session as described in the Notice of Cancellation form that will be given to you at (insert 'the first class you go to' or 'with the first lesson in a home study or correspondence course,' whichever is applicable). A different cancellation policy applies for home study or correspondence courses."

Read the Notice of Cancellation form for an explanation of your cancellation rights and responsiblities. If you have lost your Notice of Cancellation form, ask the school for a sample copy.

"2. After the end of the cancellation period, you also have the right to stop school at any time, and you have the right to receive a refund for the part of the course not taken. Your refund rights are described in the contract. If you have lost your contract, ask the school for a description of the refund policy."

"3. If the school closes before you graduate, you may be entitled to a refund. Contact the (insert Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education or the Superintendent of Public Instruction, whichever applies)" at the address and telephone number printed below for information.

---

"4. If you have any complaints, questions, or problems which you cannot work out with the school, write or call:

(insert name, address, and telephone number of the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education or of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, whichever applies)"

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (a), the notice required by subdivision (a) shall be printed in 10-point type in English and, if any solicitation or negotiation leading to the agreement for a course of instruction was in a language other than English, in that other language.

(c) A copy of the notice, in each language in which the notice was printed pursuant to subdivision (b), shall be posted at all times in a conspicuous place at the main entrance of the institution, in each admissions office, and in each room used for instruction. The council may prescribe the size and format of the posted notice. This subdivision does not apply to an institution that exclusively offers correspondence or home study courses.

(d) Upon request, the institution shall provide a student with a copy of a Notice of Cancellation form, a written description of the student's refund rights, a copy of the contract executed by the student, a copy of documents relating to loans or grants for the student, and a copy of any document executed by the student.

(e) The council may provide for the inclusion of additional information in the notice set forth in subdivision (a).

SEC. 11. Section 94317 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94317. (a) In addition to any other right of rescission, the student shall have the right to cancel an agreement for a course of instruction including any equipment, until midnight of the fifth business day after the day on which the student (1) attended the first class of the course of instruction which is the subject of the agreement or received the first lesson in a home study or correspondence course, (2) received a copy of the notice of cancellation as provided in Section 94317.5, or (3) received a copy of the agreement and the disclosures as required by subdivision (a) of Section 94316.10, whichever is later. If the first lesson in a home study or correspondence course is sent to the student by mail, the institution shall send it by first-class mail, postage prepaid, documented by a certificate of mailing, and the student shall have a right to cancel until midnight of the eighth business day after the first lesson was mailed.

(b) Cancellation shall occur when the student gives written notice of cancellation to the institution at the address specified in the agreement.

(c) The written notice of cancellation, if given by mail, is effective when deposited in the mail properly addressed with postage prepaid.

(d) The written notice of cancellation need not take a particular form and, however expressed, is effective if it indicates the student's desire not to be bound by the agreement.

(e) Except as provided in subdivision (f), if the student cancels the agreement, the student shall have no liability, and the institution shall refund any consideration paid by the student within 10 days after the institution receives notice of the cancellation.

(f) If the institution gave the student any equipment, the student shall return the equipment within 10 days following the date of the Notice of Cancellation. If the student fails to return the equipment within this 10-day period, the institution may retain that portion of the consideration paid by the student equal to the documented cost to the institution of the equipment and shall refund the portion of the consideration exceeding the documented cost to the institution of the equipment within 10 days after the period within which the student is required to return the equipment. The student may retain the equipment without further obligation to pay for it.

(g) For the purpose of determining the time within which a student may cancel that student's agreement for a course, as described in Sections 94316.20, 94317, and 94317.5, "business day" means the following:

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), a day on which that student is scheduled to attend a class session.

(2) For home study or correspondence courses, any calendar day except Saturday, Sunday, or any holiday enumerated in Section 6700 of the Government Code.

SEC. 12. Section 94317.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94317.5. (a) The institution shall provide the student with two cancellation forms at the first class attended by the student or with the first lesson in a home study course submitted by the student. The form shall be completed in duplicate, captioned "Notice of Cancellation," and shall contain the following statement:

"Notice of Cancellation

(Date)
[Enter date of first class, date first lesson received, or date first lesson was mailed, whichever is applicable]

"You may cancel this contract for school, without any penalty or obligation by the date stated below."

"If you cancel, any payment you have made and any negotiable instrument signed by you shall be returned to you within 10 days following the school's receipt of your cancellation notice.

"But, if the school gave you any equipment, you must return the equipment within 10 days of the date you signed a cancellation notice. If you do not return the equipment within this 10-day period, the school may keep an amount out of what you paid that equals the cost of the equipment. The school is required to refund any amount over that as provided above, and you may keep the equipment.

"To cancel the contract for school, mail or deliver a signed and dated copy of this cancellation notice, or any other written notice, or send a telegram to

SEC. 13. Section 94318.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94318.5. (a) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the refund shall be the amount the student paid for instruction multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of hours of instruction which the student has not received but for which the student has paid, and the denominator of which is the total number of hours of instruction for which the student has paid.

The refund amount shall be adjusted as provided in subdivision (b) or (c) for equipment, if applicable.

(2) For an educational service offered by home study or correspondence, the refund shall be the amount the student paid for lessons multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of lessons for which the student has paid but which the student has not completed and submitted, and the denominator of which is the total number of lessons for which the student has paid. The refund amount shall be adjusted as provided in subdivision (b) or (c) for equipment and as provided in subdivision (d) for resident instruction, if applicable.

(3) Notwithstanding any provision in any agreement, (A) all amounts which the student has paid, however denominated, shall be deemed to have been paid for instruction, unless the student has paid a specific charge for equipment set forth in the agreement for the course of instruction, (B) in the case of an educational service offered by home study or correspondence, all amounts which the student has paid, however denominated, shall be deemed to have been paid for lessons unless the student has paid a specific charge for equipment or resident instruction set forth in the agreement for the educational service, (C) the total number of hours necessary to complete each lesson of home study or correspondence instruction shall be substantially equivalent to each other lesson unless otherwise permitted by the council, and (D) an equal charge shall be deemed to have been made for each hour of instruction or each lesson.

(b) If the institution specifies in the agreement a separate charge for equipment which the student actually obtains and the student returns that equipment in good condition, allowing for reasonable wear and tear, within 10 days following the date of the student's withdrawal, the institution shall refund the charge for the equipment paid by the student. If the student fails to return that equipment in good condition, allowing for reasonable wear and tear, within 10 days following the date of the student's withdrawal, the institution may offset against the refund calculated under subdivision (a) the documented cost to the institution of that equipment. The student shall be liable for the amount, if any, by which the documented cost for equipment exceeds the refund amount calculated under subdivision (a). For the purpose of this subdivision, equipment cannot be returned in good condition if the equipment cannot be reused because of clearly recognized health and sanitary reasons and this fact is clearly and conspicuously disclosed in the agreement.

(c) If the institution specifies in the agreement a separate charge for equipment which the student has not obtained at the time of the student's withdrawal, the refund shall also include the amount paid by the student that is allocable to that equipment.

(d) If an agreement for educational service offered by home study or correspondence includes a separate charge for resident instruction which the student has not begun at the time of the student's withdrawal, the institution shall refund the charge for the resident instruction paid by the student. If the student withdraws from the educational service after beginning the resident instruction, the institution shall pay a refund equal to the amount the student paid for the resident instruction multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of hours of resident instruction which the student has not received but for which the student has paid, and the denominator of which is the total number of hours of resident instruction for which the student has paid.

(e) For the purpose of determining a refund under this section, a student shall be deemed to have withdrawn from a course of instruction when any of the following occur:

(1) The student notifies the institution of the student's withdrawal or of the date of the student's withdrawal, whichever is later.

(2) The institution terminates the student's enrollment as provided in the agreement.

(3) The student has failed to attend classes for a three-week period. For the purpose of of subdivision (a) of Section 94318 and for determining the amount of the refund, the date of the student's withdrawal shall be deemed the last date of recorded attendance. For the purpose of determining when the refund must be paid pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 94318, the student shall be deemed to have withdrawn at the end of the three-week period.

(4) The student has failed to submit three consecutive lessons or has failed to submit a completed lesson within 60 days of its due date as set by an educational service offered by home study or correspondence. For the purpose of this paragraph, the date of the student's withdrawal shall be deemed to be the date on which the student submitted the last completed lesson.

(f) An institution shall have the burden of proof to establish the validity of the amount of every refund. The institution shall maintain records for five years of all the evidence on which the institution relies.

SEC. 14. Section 94319.2 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94319.2. (a) An institution shall not enter into an agreement for a course of instruction with a student unless the institution first administers to the student and the student passes a test as provided in subdivision (b).

(b) (1) The test required by subdivision (a) shall be a standardized test that is designed to measure and that reliably and validly measures the student's ability to be successfully trained to perform the tasks associated with the occupations or job titles to which the course of instruction is represented to lead. The student's performance on the test must demonstrate that ability.

(2) Nothing in paragraph (1) precludes an institution from using additional tests to determine a student's ability to be trained to perform tasks associated with the occupations and job titles for which training is offered as described in paragraph (1).

(3) (A) If no standardized test is available that satisfies paragraph (1), the institution shall use other appropriate tests to determine the student's ability to be trained to perform the tasks associated with the occupations and job titles for which training is offered as described in paragraph (1). Within 30 days of determining that no standardized test satisfies paragraph (1), the institution shall so inform the council and shall describe and, if possible, furnish the council with the test to be used in lieu of the test required by paragraph (1).

(B) Upon reasonable notice to the institution, the council may order the institution to demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the council that the test and passing score are an appropriate measure of the student's ability to be trained to perform the tasks associated with the occupations or job titles to which the course is represented to lead. If the test is not an appropriate measure, the council shall, after notice, and if requested, a hearing, order that the institution cease administering the test.

(c) The institution shall have the burden of proof that the test complies with subdivision (b). If no minimum passing score is established by the test developer or if the minimum passing score used by the institution is below the minimum passing score established by the test's developer, the institution shall have the burden of proof that the student's achievement of the minimum passing score reasonably measures the student's ability to be successfully trained to perform the tasks associated with the occupations and job titles to which the course of instruction is represented to lead. The test shall be administered in accordance with the test's instructions, rules, and time limits.

(d) (1) The test shall be completed solely by the student.

(2) No institution or any person in any manner associated with the institution shall (A) answer any of the test questions, (B) read any of the test questions to the student, or (C) provide any assistance whatsoever to the student in answering test questions. Nothing in this paragraph prevents an institution from providing nonsubstantive assistance to accommodate the disability of a handicapped person otherwise qualified to take the test.

(3) The test shall be given by the institution at its premises or by an independent testing service. The site requirement does not apply to an institution offering a home study or correspondence course.

(4) If a prospective student has failed a test, the institution or the testing service that administered the test shall not administer another test to that prospective student for at least the period specified by the test developer or one week, whichever is longer. Any subsequent test administered by an institution to the same prospective student shall be a substantially different form of the same test or a substantially different test than the preceding test and shall satisfy the requirements of paragraph (1) or, if applicable, paragraph (3) of subdivision (b).

(f) An institution's application for approval to operate shall (1) identify the test used to comply with this section, (2) state the minimum score, if any, which the test's developer indicates a prospective student must achieve to demonstrate an ability to be successfully trained to perform the tasks associated with the occupations or job titles to which the course is represented to lead, (3) state the minimum passing score used by the institution, and (4) if the institution accepts a lower minimum passing score than is indicated by the test's developer, state an explanation of why the institution accepts a lower minimum passing score.

(g) The institution shall, for five years, retain an exemplar of each test administered by the institution pursuant to this section, an exemplar of the answer sheet for each test, a record of the passing score for each test, and the answer sheets or other responses submitted by each person who took each test.

SEC. 15. Section 94319.4 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94319.4. (a) If a course of instruction is based on a sequence of classes, class sessions, or lessons and the learning experience to be derived from any class, class sessions, or lesson within the sequence is based in any manner on a student's attendance at or completion of a prior class, class session, or lesson, an institution shall not enroll a student in that course of instruction unless the instruction begins with the first class, class session, or lesson and proceeds in the appropriate sequence.

(b) (1) If a course of instruction is based on a series of modules comprised of class sessions or lessons and the learning experience to be derived from any module is based in a manner on a student's attendance at or completion of any class sessions or lessons in any other module, an institution shall not enroll a student in that course of instruction unless the student begins and proceeds in the appropriate sequence.

(2) If a course of instruction is based on a series of modules comprised of class sessions or lessons and the learning experience to be derived from any module is not based on a student's attendance at or completion of any classes or lessons in any other module, an institution shall only enroll a student in the course of instruction if the student begins with the first class session or lesson in a module.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), if a class or a module consists of more than 60 days of instruction, the institution may enroll a student to begin no later than the fifth class session of the first class or the fifth class session in the appropriate module.

(d) The council, at any time, may determine whether the learning experience to be derived from any class session or lesson in a sequence of class sessions or lessons or from any module is based in any manner on a student's attendance at, or completion of, a prior class session or lesson in the sequence or any class sessions or lessons in any other module. The council may make the determination described in this subdivision upon the application of any person or when the council deems that a determination is appropriate. The institution shall have the burden to establish compliance with this section.

(e) The institution shall not merge classes unless all of the students have received the same amount of instruction and training. This subdivision does not prevent the placement of students, who are enrolled in different courses of instruction, in the same class if that class is part of each of the courses and the placement in a merged class will not impair the students' learning of the subject matter of the class.

(f) After a student has enrolled in a course of instruction, the institution shall not do any of the following:

(1) Make any unscheduled suspension of any class unless caused by circumstances completely beyond the institution's control.

(2) Change the day or time in which any class is offered to a day when the student is not scheduled to attend the institution or to a time that is outside of the range of time that the student is scheduled to attend the institution on the day for which the change is proposed unless at least 90 percent of the students who are enrolled consent to the change and the institution offers full refunds to the students who do not consent to the change. For the purpose of this paragraph, "range of time" means the period beginning with the time at which the student's first scheduled class session for the day is set to start and ending with the time the student's last scheduled class session for that day is set to finish.

(g) If an institution enrolls a student in a course of instruction that is not offered or designed as a home study or correspondence course at the time of enrollment, the institution shall not convert the course of instruction from classroom instruction to a home study or correspondence course.

(h) An institution shall not move the class instruction to a location more than five miles from the location of instruction at the time of enrollment unless any of the following occur:

(1) The institution discloses orally and clearly and conspicuously in writing to each student before enrollment in the course that the location of instruction will change after the course begins and the address of the proposed location.

(2) The institution applies for, and the council grants, approval to change the location. The council shall grant the application within 30 days if the council, after notice to affected students and an opportunity for them to be heard as prescribed by the council, concludes that the change in location would not be unfair or unduly burdensome to students. The council may grant permission which shall be subject to reasonable conditions, such as requiring the institution to provide transportation, transportation costs, or refunds to adversely affected students.

(3) The institution offers a full refund to students enrolled in the course of instruction who do not voluntarily consent to the change.

SEC. 16. Section 94319.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94319.5. (a) Every institution shall maintain for a period of not less than five years at its principal place of business in California accurate records that show all of the following:

(1) The names, telephone numbers, and home and local addresses of each student.

(2) The courses of instruction offered by the institution and the curriculum for each course.

(3) The name, address, and educational qualifications of each member of its faculty.

(4) The information required by subdivision (i) of Section 94316.5 and subdivision (b) of Section 94316.10.

(5) All information and records required by this chapter or required by the council.

(b) All records that an institution is required to maintain by this chapter or that relate to the institution's compliance with this chapter shall be made immediately available by the institution for inspection and copying during normal business hours by the council, the Attorney General, any district attorney or city attorney, and the Student Aid Commission.

(c) An institution shall make available to a student, or a person designated by the student, all of the student's records, except for transcripts of grades where the student is in default on one or more loans as provided by law.

(d) Each institution shall be deemed to have authorized the accrediting agency which accredited the institution to provide to the superintendent, the Attorney General, any district attorney or city attorney, or the Student Aid Commission, within 30 days of written notice, copies of all documents and other material concerning the institution that is maintained by the accrediting agency.

(e) Within 30 days of receiving written notice from the superintendent, the Attorney General, any district attorney or city attorney, or the Student Aid Commission, an accrediting agency shall provide the requesting official with all documents or other material concerning an institution accredited by that accrediting agency that are designated specifically or by category in the written notice.

(f) If the superintendent, the Attorney General, any district attorney or city attorney, or the Student Aid Commission is conducting a confidential investigation of an institution and so informs the accrediting agency, the accrediting agency shall not inform that institution of the investigation.

(g) If an accrediting agency willfully fails to comply with this section, the accrediting agency shall be liable for a civil penalty of not less than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) nor more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each violation. Penalties awarded pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Private Postsecondary Education Administration Fund or any successor fund.

SEC. 17. Section 94319.10 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94319.10. (a) An institution is legally authorized to provide courses of instruction if the institution complies with both this article and Sections 94320 and 94321, or Section 94320 as that section is in effect on January 1, 1991, has received approval from the council, and has not been found to be in violation of this article by the council, the Student Aid Commission, or a court. No institution shall offer any course of instruction if the institution's approval to offer that course of instruction has been suspended or revoked.

(b) (1) The council, after notice and, if requested by the institution, a hearing, may suspend or revoke an institution's approval to operate or approval to operate a branch or satellite campus or may order that an institution cease offering a class or course of instruction because of any violation of this article, Sections 94320 and 94321, or Section 94320 as that section is in effect on January 1, 1991, or any regulation or order issued pursuant to this article.

(2) If the council takes any of the actions described in paragraph (1), the council, in its discretion, may permit the institution to continue to offer the class or course of instruction to students already enrolled or may order the institution to cease instruction and provide a refund of tuition and all other charges to students.

(c) (1) If the council determines after notice and, if requested by the institution, a hearing, that an institution has violated this article or Sections 94320 and 94321 or Section 94320, as that section is in effect on January 1, 1991, but that the institution's approval to operate, or approval to operate a branch or satellite campus should not be suspended or revoked, or that the institution should not be ordered to cease offering a class or course of instruction, the council may do any or all of the following: place the institution, or branch or satellite campus, on probation under reasonable terms and conditions for a specified period of time not to exceed two years, order that the institution post a bond, or order the institution not to enter into new agreements for courses of instruction.

(2) During the period of probation, the institution, or the branch or satellite or both the institution and the branch or satellite campus, shall be subject to monitoring that may include the required submission of periodic reports, as prescribed by the council, and special onsite inspections to determine progress toward compliance. The onsite inspections may include an inspection of the institution's facilities and records, interviews of administrators, faculty, and students, and observation of class instruction. The council shall order the institution to reimburse all reasonable costs and expenses incurrerd by the council in connection with this paragraph. The council may make the payment of the order for reimbursement a condition of probation.

(3) If, as of the end of the period of probation, the council is not satisfied with the steps taken by the institution to eliminate the violations of this article or Sections 94320 and 94321, or Section 94320 as that section is in effect on January 1, 1991, upon which the probation was based, the council may revoke the institution's approval to operate or the institution's approval to operate a branch or satellite campus.

(4) The council may assess a penalty of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) as part of a probation order for violations of this article or Sections 94320 and 94321 in effect on January 1, 1991. In determining the amount of that penalty, the council shall consider the number and gravity of the violations, the degree of the institution's good faith or culpability, the history of the institution's previous violations, and the institution's ability to pay. If the institution fails to pay a penalty within the time prescribed by the council the institution's approval to operate all be automatically suspended until the penalty is paid in full.

(5) (A) Any bond ordered by the council shall be issued by an admitted surety insurer in an amount established at the discretion of the council that is sufficient to protect students from the potential consequences of the violation.

(B) The bond shall be in favor of the State of California for the indemnification of any person for any loss, including the loss of prepaid tuition, suffered as a result of the occurrence of any violation of this chapter during the period of coverage.

(C) Liability on the bond may be enforced after a hearing before the council, after 30 days' advance written notice to the principal and surety. The council shall adopt regulations establishing the procedure for administrative enforcement of liability. This paragraph supplements, but does not supplant, any other rights or remedies to enforce liability on the bond.

(D) The council may order the institution to file reports at any interval the council deems necessary to enable the council to monitor the adequacy of the bond coverage and to determine whether further action is appropriate.

(d) The council shall determine an institution's compliance, including the compliance of its branch and satellite campuses, with this article and Sections 94320 and 94321, or Section 94320 as that section is in effect on January 1, 1991, and shall not be bound by the findings or conclusions of any accrediting agency.

(e) The council may revoke the approval to operate of any institution which fails to pay an order imposing a penalty or an order for the reimbursement of costs and expenses. The council may enforce any administrative order requiring the payment of money in the same manner as if it were a money judgement pursuant to Title 9 (commencing with Section 680.010) of Part 1 of the Code of Civil Procedure. All penalties and reimbursements paid pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the vocational education account in the Private Postsecondary Education Administration Fund established pursuant to Section 94331.

(f) Proceedings by the council under this section shall be conducted in accordance with regulations adopted by the council or, if there are no regulations establishing hearing procedures, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the council shall have all of the powers granted therein.

(g) The council may bring an action for equitable relief for any violation of this article in addition to, or instead of, any other remedy or procedure.

SEC. 18. Section 94319.12 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94319.12. (a) If an institution has violated this article and immediate action is necessary to protect students, prevent misrepresentations to the public, or prevent the loss of public funds, tuition, or other money paid by students, the council may institute an emergency action to suspend the approval of an institution to operate, or the approval to operate a branch or satellite campus, for not more than 30 days unless the council initiates a proceeding to suspend or revoke the approval to operate within that period.

(b) (1) The council shall provide notice of the emergency action to the institution by certified mail, if the effective date of the emergency action is 10 or more days after mailing, or personal service, if the effective date of the emergency action if five or more days after service.

(2) The notice shall specify all of the following:

(A) The violations on which the emergency action is based.

(B) The nature and grounds of the emergency action, including whether the action applies to the continuation of instruction to enrolled students or to the enrollment of new students.

(C) The effective date of the action, which shall not be less than five days after the notice is provided.

(D) The institution's right to show cause that the emergency action is unwarranted by submitting to the council, at least two days before the effective date of the emergency action, declarations, documentary evidence, and written arguments demonstrating that the violations did not occur or that immediate action is not required.

(E) The right of the institution to request, in writing, within 30 days of the service of the notice, a hearing.

(c) The council may (1) continue the effective date of an emergency action or (2) terminate the emergency action at any time if the council concludes that the institution has shown cause that the emergency action is unwarranted or that the grounds for instituting the emergency action no longer remain. The council shall provide written notice of a continuance or termination of an emergency action to the institution.

(d) (1) If the institution does not take the opportunity to show cause why the emergency action is unwarranted, the emergency action shall become effective on the date specified in the notice or notice of continuance.

(2) If the institution takes the opportunity to show cause and the council decides, after a consideration of the declarations, documentary evidence and written argument submitted by the institution, that the emergency action should become effective, the emergency action shall be effective on the date specified in the notice or notice of continuance. The council shall notify the institution of the decision at least one day before the effective date, and the institution may thereafter seek judicial relief upon notice to the council and the Attorney General.

(e) (1) If a hearing is requested within the 30-day period specified in subdivision (b), the council shall set a date for the hearing within 20 days after receipt of the request.

(2) If the institution does not request a hearing within the 30-day period specified in subdivision (b) or if the council concludes after a hearing requested by the institution that grounds exist for the suspension or revocation of the institution's approval to operate or approval to operate a branch or satellite campus, the council may extend the suspension or revoke the institution's approval to operate or approval to operate a branch or satellite campus, may order probation and a penalty, may order the posting of a bond, or may condition the institution's approval to operate or approval to operate a branch or satellite campus as the council deems appropriate.

(f) During the pendency of an emergency action, the council may investigate the institution's compliance with this article, including an onsite inspection, and may institute a proceeding pursuant to Section 94319.10 to suspend or revoke an institution's approval to operate or approval to operate a branch or satellite campus, order a bond, or order probation and a penalty, based on any violation of this article.

(g) This section supplements, but does not supplant, authority of the council to seek judicial relief, including a temporary restraining order and injunction, to redress any violation of this article.

SEC. 19. Section 94319.13 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94319.13. This article, except for Sections 94319.2 and 94319.4, applies to schools that offer instruction in how to prepare for, take, and pass civil service examinations or other tests qualifying a student for employment by a governmental entity. For the purpose of determining compliance with this article, schools described in this section shall be considered "institutions."

SEC. 20. Section 94319.14 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94319.14. (a) For the purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Document or record" means any of the following: any test score, grade, record of grades, attendance record, record indicating student course completion or employment, financial information, including any financial report required to be filed pursuant to Sections 94316.14 and 94316.22, information or records relating to the student's eligibility for financial assistance or attendance at the institution, or any other record or document required by this chapter or by the council.

(2) "Person" means a natural person and any business entity, regardless of the form of organization.

(b) A person who, in any manner, makes or causes to be made any untrue or misleading statement in connection with offering or providing a course of instruction or makes or causes to be made any untrue or misleading change in any document or record and who knows or, by the exercise of reasonable care, should know that the statement or change is untrue or misleading is guilty of a crime punishable as provided in subdivision (e).

(c) A person who willfully falsifies, destroys, fails to maintain, or conceals any document or record which is required to be maintained by this chapter or by the council is guilty of a crime punishable as provided in subdivision (e).

(d) A person who is required to file any report required by paragraph (5) of subdivision (e) of Section 94316.5, or Section 94316.14 or 94316.22 and willfully fails to file that report as required, or willfully violates or causes the violation of subdivision (b) of Section 94319.5, is guilty of a crime and is subject to punishment for each violation as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (e).

(e) Any person who violates subdivision (b) or (c), or who willfully violates Section 94316.4, 94320 or 94321, or Section 94320 as that section is in effect January 1, 1991, is guilty of a crime and is subject to separate punishment for each violation either by:

(1) Imprisonment in the state prison, by a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(2) Imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding one year, by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(f) Notwithstanding any other law, any prosecution under this section shall be commenced within three years of the discovery of the facts constituting grounds for commencing the prosecution.

(g) The penalties provided by this section supplement, but do not supplant, the remedies and penalties provided under other law.

SEC. 21. Section 94319.18 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94319.18. Unless otherwise expressly declared if any provision of this article or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the article that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this article are severable. Each section of this article is complete within itself. If any section is held invalid and the Legislature would have foreseen the holding of invalidity, the Legislature nevertheless would have enacted each of the other sections of this article unless the Legislature has expressly declared its intent to the contrary.

SEC. 22. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

This act enacts provisions critically necessary to reform statutes and procedures relating to the quality of education provided by private postsecondary institutions. In order that these vital changes take effect at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1477

An act to amend Sections 35000 and 35101 of the Elections Code, relating to redistricting.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 35000 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

35000. Following each decennial federal census, and using that census as a basis, the board shall adjust the boundaries of any or all of the supervisorial districts of the county so that the districts shall be as nearly equal in population as may be and shall comply with the applicable provisions of Section 1973 of Title 42 of the United States Code, as amended. In establishing the boundaries of the districts the board may give consideration to the following factors: (a) topography, (b) geography, (c) cohesiveness, contiguity, integrity, and compactness of territory, and (d) community of interests of the districts.

SEC. 2. Section 35101 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

35101. Following each decennial federal census, and using that census as a basis, the council shall, by ordinance or resolution, adjust the boundaries of any or all of the councilmanic districts of the city so that the districts shall be as nearly equal in population as may be and shall comply with the applicable provisions of Section 1973 of Title 42 of the United States Code, as amended. In establishing the boundaries of the districts the council may give consideration to the following factors: (a) topography, (b) geography, (c) cohesiveness, contiguity, integrity, and compactness of territory, and (d) community of interests of the districts.

CHAPTER 1478

An act to amend Section 44252 of the Education Code, relating to credentialing, and making an appropriation therefor.

I am deleting the $80,000 appropriation contained in Section 4 of Assembly Bill No. 3768.

This bill would require the Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) to contract for an independent evaluation of the California Basic Education Skills Proficiency Test (CBEST). The evaluation shall include an assessment of the nature and extent of differential passage rates among ethnic minority groups and shall include recommendations on how to eliminate or reduce the discrepancies. This bill would also appropriate $80,000 from the Teacher Credentials Fund (TCF) for the study.

I am concerned with the appropriation contained in the bill. The level of funding provided from the TCF in the 1990 Budget Act is the maximum amount that can be expended while ensuring a sufficient TCF reserve. Any additional expenditures, as proposed by this bill, could reduce the reserve balance below a necessary and prudent level

It is more appropriate to consider funding the provisions of this bill during the budget process for Fiscal Year 1991–92. Only at that time can the relative merits of this program be reviewed in comparison to all other funding projects. The budget process weighs all demands on the state's revenues and directs resources to programs, either new or existing, that have the most merit.

With this deletion, I approve Assembly Bill No 3768.

GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The passage rates for persons from various ethnic minority groups who have taken the California Basic Educational Skills Test (CBEST) have been consistently lower than those for nonminorities. In 1988-89, the passage rate for persons from ethnic minority groups was 61 percent, in comparison to a passage rate of 80 percent for nonminorities.

(b) The lower passage rates for persons from ethnic minority groups has a negative impact upon the available supply of ethnic minority teachers.

(c) In 1985, the Commission on Teacher Credentialing convened a panel to review the CBEST for possible ethnic minority group bias. According to the commission, the panel found that although only a few of the questions on the test were judged to be biased, the use of a standardized test for certification and employment could result in bias against some ethnic minority groups. The panel concluded that several factors could possibly contribute to that bias, including the applicants' unfamiliarity with multiple choice testing formats and the use of a timed test.

SEC. 2. The Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall contract for an independent evaluation of the California Basic Educational Skills Test (CBEST), administered pursuant to Section 44252.5 of the Education Code. The evaluation shall include, but shall not be limited to, an assessment of the nature and extent of differential passage rates among ethnic minority groups and shall make recommendations on how to eliminate or reduce those discrepancies.

The commission shall submit a report to the Legislature on the results of the evaluation, together with any policy recommendations, on or before December 31, 1991.

SEC. 3. Section 44252 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44252. (a) The commission shall establish standards and procedures for the initial issuance and renewal of credentials.

(b) Commencing on February 1, 1983, the Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall not issue initially any credential, permit, certificate, or renewal of an emergency credential to any person to serve in the public schools unless the person has demonstrated proficiency in basic reading, writing, and mathematics skills in the English language as provided in Section 44252.5. However, an emergency credential holder who has passed the basic skills proficiency test shall not be required to repeat the test in order to obtain a renewal of his or her emergency credential. The commission shall exempt from the basic skills proficiency test requirement any of the following persons:

(1) A person credentialed solely for the purpose of teaching adults in an apprenticeship program.

(2) An applicant for an adult education designated subject credential for other than an academic subject.

(3) A person credentialed in another state who is an applicant for employment in a school district in this state who has passed a basic skills proficiency examination which has been developed and administered by the school district offering that person employment, or by cooperating school districts, or by the appropriate county office of education. School districts administering a basic skills proficiency examination under this paragraph shall comply with the requirements of subdivision (h) of Section 44830. Such an applicant shall be granted a nonrenewable credential, valid for not longer than one year, pending fulfillment of the basic skills proficiency requirement pursuant to Section 44252.5.

(4) An applicant for a child care center permit or a permit authorizing service in a development center for the handicapped, so long as the holder of the permit is not required to have a baccalaureate degree.

(5) The holder of a credential, permit, or certificate to teach, other than an emergency credential, who seeks an additional authorization to teach.

(6) An applicant for a credential to provide service in the health profession.

(c) By December 31, 1982, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall adopt an appropriate state test to measure proficiency in these basic skills. In adopting the test, the superintendent shall seek assistance from the commission and an advisory board. A majority of the members of the advisory board shall be classroom teachers. The board shall also include representatives of local school boards, school administrators, parents, and postsecondary institutions.

The superintendent shall adopt any normed test that the superintendent determines will sufficiently test basic skills for purposes of this section.

The superintendent, in conjunction with the commission and approved teacher training institutions, shall take steps necessary to insure the effective implementation of this provision.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring the holders of, or applicants for, a designated subjects special subjects credential or vocational designated subject credential to pass the state basic skills proficiency test, unless the requirements for the specific credential required the possession of a baccalaureate degree. The governing board of each school district, or each governing board of a consortium of school districts, or each governing board involved in a joint powers agreement, which employs a holder of a designated subjects special subjects credential or vocational designated subject credential shall establish its own basic skills proficiency criteria for the holders of these credentials and shall arrange for those individuals to be assessed. The basic skills proficiency criteria established by the governing board shall be at least equivalent to the test required by the district, or in the case of a consortium or a joint powers agreement, by any of the participating districts, for graduation from high school. The governing board or boards may charge a fee to individuals being tested to cover the costs of the test, including the costs of developing, administering, and grading the test.

(e) The commission shall compile data regarding the rate of passing the state basic skills proficiency test by persons who have been trained in various institutions of higher education. The data shall be available to members of the public, including to persons who intend to enroll in teacher education programs.

(f) Each applicant to an approved credential program, unless exempted by subdivision (b), shall take the state basic skills proficiency test in order to provide both the prospective applicant and the program with information regarding the applicant's proficiency level. Test results shall be forwarded to each California postsecondary institution to which the applicant has applied. The program shall use test results to ensure that upon admission, each applicant receives appropriate academic assistance necessary to pass the state basic skills proficiency test. Persons residing outside the state shall take the test no later than the second available administration following their enrollment in a credential program.

It is the intent of the Legislature that applicants for admission to teacher preparation programs not be denied admission on the basis of state basic skills proficiency test results.

SEC. 4. The sum of eighty thousand dollars ($80,000) is hereby appropriated from the Teacher Credentials Fund to the Commission on Teacher Credentialing for the purpose of contracting for the independent evaluation of the California Basic Educational Skills Test (CBEST) described in Section 2.

An act to amend Sections 94301, 94302, 94303, 94304, 94305, 94306, 94310, 94311, 94312, 94312.2, 94313, 94315, 94320, 94330, 94331.5, 94333, 94334, 94336, 94342, and 94344 of, to amend and renumber the headings of Article 5 (commencing with Section 94330) and Article 6 (commencing with Section 94331) of Chapter 3 of Part 59 of, to amend and renumber Sections 94311.4 and 94311.5 of, and to add Sections 94305.5, 94311.7 and 94346 to, the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 94301 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94301. It is the intent of the Legislature to promote the effective integration of private postsecondary education into all aspects of California's education system and to foster and improve the educational programs and services of these institutions while protecting the citizens of the state from fraudulent or substandard operations.

It is further the intent of the Legislature to recognize the enormous diversity of California's private postsecondary educational enterprise, with its approximately 3,000 privately supported institutions of academic and vocational education.

It is further the intent of the Legislature to provide for the protection, education, and welfare of citizens of California, its postsecondary educational institutions, and its students by providing for all of the following:

(a) Ensuring minimum standards of instructional quality and institutional stability for all students in all types of institutions, and thereby encourage the recognition by public and private institutions of completed coursework and degrees and diplomas issued by private institutions, to the end that students will be provided equal opportunities for equal accomplishment and ability.

(b) Establishing minimum standards concerning the quality of education, ethical and business practices, health and safety, and fiscal responsibility to provide protections against substandard, transient, unethical, deceptive, or fraudulent institutions and practices.

(c) Prohibiting the granting of false or misleading educational credentials.

(d) Prohibiting misleading literature, advertising, solicitation, or representations by private educational institutions or their agents.

(e) Recognizing the importance of providing adequate funding through application and renewal fees and federal funding for the veteran's approval process to support the state's activities in implementing this chapter.

(f) Protecting the consumer and students against fraud, misrepresentation, or other practices which may lead to an improper loss of funds paid for educational costs, whether financed through personal resources or state and federal student financial aid.

(g) Establishing a path for the development of institutions offering fields of study or methods of instruction and innovative educational delivery systems not previously recognized in order to encourage them to become fully approved institutions.

(h) Recognizing and encouraging quality nongovernmental accreditation, while not ceding to that or any other nongovernmental process the responsibility for state oversight for purposes of approval if the accreditation process fails either to protect minimum standards of quality or to acknowledge legitimate innovative methods in postsecondary education.

(i) Establishing an administrative agency staffed by individuals who are knowledgeable about private academic and vocational education, and charged with the responsibility of developing policies and procedures for the oversight and approval of private postsecondary and vocational education, including the responsibility for managing a broadly construed policy and planning process that seeks to improve state accountability for private postsecondary and vocational education as well as to improve the articulation of private postsecondary and vocational education with the public and independent postsecondary educational community. It is the intent of the Legislature that current employees of the Private Postsecondary Education Division of the State Department of Education shall be covered by Section 19050.9 of the Government Code during the establishment of the new administrative agency. This new body should provide the leadership and planning needed to maintain and develop a strong private sector of this community.

SEC. 2. Section 94302 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94302. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Accredited" means that an institution has been recognized or approved as meeting the standards established by an accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education, or the Committee of Bar Examiners for the State of California. It shall not include those institutions that have applied for accreditation, or are identified by accrediting associations as candidates for accreditation or have provisional accreditation.

(b) "Agency" means any person or business entity, regardless of the form of organization, that employs or in any manner contracts with one or more agents. "Agency" does not include an institution.

(c) "Agency approval" means a written document issued by the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education authorizing a business entity or an institution to engage in the recruitment of students for enrollment in private postsecondary and vocational institutions approved under this chapter.

(d) "Agent" means any person who, at a place away from the institution's premises or site of instruction, for consideration, solicits, promotes, advertises, offers, or attempts to secure enrollment for an institution, refers any person to an institution either for enrollment or to receive a solicitation for enrollment, or accepts application fees or admission fees for education in an institution. Administrators and faculty who make informational public appearances, but whose primary task does not include service as a paid recruiter, are exempted from this definition.

(e) "Agent's permit" means a nontransferable written document issued to an agent pursuant to the provisions of this chapter by the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education.

(f) "Applicant" means a new institution that has submitted an application but has not been evaluated by the council. An applicant institution shall not enroll students or offer educational services.

(g) "Approval" or "approval to operate" means that the council has determined and certified that an institution meets minimum standards established by the council for integrity, financial stability, and educational quality, including the offering of bona fide instruction by qualified faculty and the appropriate assessment of students' achievement prior to, during, and at the end of its program.

(h) "Branch campus" means any campus, satellite facility, extension classroom, office, or location affiliated with an educational institution, other than the main campus or primary administrative location of the institution, in which students complete, while in physical residence, all or any part of a program of instruction.

(i) "Certificate of authorization for service" means a written, nontransferable document issued by the council authorizing an individual to be an instructor or administrator in any private postsecondary educational institution in California which is approved under subdivision (a) of Section 94311.

(j) "Correspondence school" or "home study school" means any institution that provides correspondence lessons for study and completion by a student at a location separate from the institution, including those institutions which offer that instruction by correspondence in combination with in-residence instruction.

(k) "Council" means the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education established pursuant to Section 94304.

(l) "Course of study" means either a single course or a set of related courses for which a student enrolls.

(m) "Degree" means any "academic degree" or "honorary degree" or title of any designation, mark, appellation, series of letters or words such as, but not limited to, associate, bachelor, master, doctor, or fellow which signifies, purports, or is generally taken to signify satisfactory completion of the requirements of an academic, educational, technological, or professional program of study beyond the secondary school level or is an honorary title conferred for recognition of some meritorious achievement.

(n) "Diploma" means any "diploma," "certificate," "transcript," "document," or other writing in any language other than a degree which signifies, purports, or is generally taken to signify satisfactory completion of the requirements of an academic, educational, technological, or professional program of study beyond the secondary school level.

(o) "Education," or "education services," or "educational program" includes, but is not limited to, any class, course, or programs of training, instruction, or study.

(p) "Institution" means any private postsecondary educational institution.

(q) "Institutional approval" means an institution that has been evaluated by the council and has been found to be in compliance with the council's standards pursuant to this chapter.

(r) "Instruction" includes any specific, formal arrangement by an institution or its enrollees to participate in learning experiences in which the institution's faculty or contracted instructors present a planned curriculum appropriate to the enrollee's educational program.

(s) "Out-of-state school" means any private postsecondary educational institution offering career or job training programs, including both an in-residence institution and a home study institution which has its place of instruction or its principal location outside the boundaries of the state, or which offers or conducts courses of instruction or subjects on premises maintained by the school outside the boundaries of the state, or which provides correspondence or home study lesson materials from a location outside the boundaries of this state, or which evaluates completed lesson materials or otherwise conducts its evaluation service from a location outside the boundaries of this state, or which otherwise offers or provides California students with courses of instruction or subjects through activities engaged in or conducted outside the boundaries of the state.

(t) "Private postsecondary educational institution" means any person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation doing business in California by awarding degrees or diplomas or by offering to the public for a tuition, fee, or other charge, (1) instructional or educational services or training in any academic, technical, professional, mechanical, business, or industrial occupation, either in the recipient's home, at a designated location, or by mail , or (2) career or job training programs in any technical, professional, mechanical, business, or industrial occupation. The following are not considered to be private postsecondary educational institutions under this chapter:

(1) Institutions exclusively offering instruction at any or all levels from preschool through the 12th grade.

(2) Education solely avocational or recreational in nature, and institutions offering this education exclusively.

(3) Education sponsored by a bona fide trade, business, professional, or fraternal organization, solely for that organization's membership.

(4) Postsecondary or vocational educational institutions established, operated, and governed by the federal government or by this state, or its political subdivisions.

(5) A nonprofit institution owned, controlled, operated, and maintained by a bona fide church or religious denomination if the education is limited to instruction in the principles of that church or denomination and no degree is awarded by the institution as a product of that instruction.

(u) "To offer" includes, in addition to its usual meanings, advertising, publicizing, soliciting, or encouraging any person, directly or indirectly, in any form, to perform the act described.

(v) "To operate" an educational institution, or like term, means to establish, keep, or maintain any facility or location in this state where, or from or through which, educational services are offered or educational degrees or diplomas are offered or granted.

SEC. 2.5. Section 94302 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94302. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Accredited" means that an institution has been recognized or approved as meeting the standards established by an accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education, or the Committee of Bar Examiners for the State of California. It shall not include those institutions that have applied for accreditation, or are identified by accrediting associations as candidates for accreditation or have provisional accreditation.

(b) "Agency" means any person or business entity regardless of the form of organization, that employs or in any manner contracts with one or more agents. "Agency" does not include an institution.

(c) "Agency approval" means a written document issued by the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education authorizing a business entity or an institution to engage in the recruitment of students for enrollment in private postsecondary and vocational institutions approved under this chapter.

(d) "Agent" means any person who, at a place away from the institution's premises or site of instruction, for consideration, solicits, promotes, advertises, offers, or attempts to secure enrollment for an institution, refers any person to an institution either for enrollment or to receive a solicitation for enrollment, or accepts application fees or admissions fees for education in an institution. Administrators and faculty who make informational public appearances, but whose primary task does not include service as a paid recruiter, are exempted from this definition.

(e) "Agent's permit" means a nontransferable written document issued to an agent pursuant to the provisions of this chapter by the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education.

(f) "Applicant" means a new institution that has submitted an application but has not been evaluated by the council. An applicant institution shall not enroll students or offer educational services.

(g) "Approval" or "approval to operate" means that the council has determined and certified that an institution meets minimum standards established by the council for integrity, financial stability, and educational quality, including the offering of bona fide instruction by qualified faculty and the appropriate assessment of students' achievement prior to, during, and at the end of its program.

(h) "Branch campus" means any campus, satellite facility, extension classroom, office, or location affiliated with an educational institution, other than the main campus or primary administrative location of the institution, in which students complete, while in physical residence, all or any part of a program of instruction.

(i) "Certificate of authorization for service" means a written, nontransferable document issued by the council authorizing an individual to be an instructor or administrator in any private vocational postsecondary educational institution in California which is approved under subdivision (a) of Section 94311.

(j) "Correspondence school" or "home study school" means any institution that provides correspondence lessons for study and completion by a student at a location separate from the institution, including those institutions which offer that instruction by correspondence in combination with in-residence instruction.

(k) "Council" means the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education established pursuant to Section 94304.

(l) "Course of study" means either a single course or a set of related courses for which a student enrolls.

(m) "Degree" means any "academic degree" or "honorary degree" or title of any designation, mark, appellation, series of letters or words such as, but not limited to, associate, bachelor, master, doctor, or fellow which signifies, purports, or is generally taken to signify satisfactory completion of the requirements of an academic, educational, technological, or professional program of study beyond the secondary school level or is an honorary title conferred for recognition of some meritorious achievement.

(n) "Diploma" means any "diploma," "certificate," "transcript," "document," or other writing in any language other than a degree which signifies, purports, or is generally taken to signify satisfactory completion of the requirements of an academic, educational, technological, or professional program of study beyond the secondary school level.

(o) "Education," or "education services," or "educational program" includes, but is not limited to, any class, course, or programs of training, instruction, or study.

(p) "Institution" means any private postsecondary educational institution.

(q) "Institutional approval" means an institution that has been evaluated by the council and has been found to be in compliance with the council's standards pursuant to this chapter.

(r) "Instruction" includes any specific, formal arrangement by an institution or its enrollees to participate in learning experiences in which the institution's faculty or contracted instructors present a planned curriculum appropriate to the enrollee's educational program.

(s) "Out-of-state school" means any private postsecondary or vocational educational institution offering career or job training programs, including both an in-residence institution and a home study institution which has its place of instruction or its principal location outside the boundaries of the state, or which offers or conducts courses of instruction or subjects on premises maintained by the school outside the boundaries of the state, or which provides correspondence or home study lesson materials from a location outside the boundaries of this state, or which evaluates completed lesson materials or otherwise conducts its evaluation service from a location outside the boundaries of this state, or which otherwise offers or provides California students with courses of instruction or subjects through activities engaged in or conducted outside the boundaries of the state.

(t) "Private postsecondary educational institution" means any person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation doing business in California by awarding degrees or by diploma or offering to the public for a tuition, fee, or other charge, (1) instructional or educational services or training in any academic, technical, professional, mechanical, business, or industrial occupation, either in the recipient's home, at a designated location, or by mail, or (2) career or job training programs in any technical, professional, mechanical, business, or industrial occupation. The following are not considered to be private postsecondary educational institutions under this chapter:

(1) Institutions exclusively offering instruction at any or all levels from preschool through the 12th grade.

(2) Education solely avocational or recreational in nature, and institutions offering this education exclusively.

(3) Education sponsored by a bona fide trade, business, professional, or fraternal organization, solely for that organization's membership.

(4) Postsecondary or vocational educational institutions established, operated, and governed by the federal government or by this state, or its political subdivisions.

(5) A nonprofit institution owned, controlled, and operated and maintained by a bona fide church or religious denomination, lawfully operating as a nonprofit religious corporation pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 9110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, if the education is limited to instructions in the principles of that church or denomination, or to courses offered pursuant to Section 2789 of the Business and Professions Code, and the diploma or degree is limited to evidence of completion of that education, and the meritorious recognition upon which any honorary degree is conferred is limited to the principles of that church or denomination. Institutions operating under the provisions of this paragraph shall offer degrees and diplomas only in the beliefs and practices of the denomination, church, or religion. The enactment of this paragraph expresses legislative intent that the state shall not involve itself in the content of degree programs awarded by any institution operating under the provisions of this paragraph, as long as the institution awards degrees and diplomas only in areas specified in the previous sentence. Institutions operating under the provisions of this paragraph shall not award degrees in any area of physical science. Any degree or diploma granted in any area of study under these provisions must contain on its face, in the written description of the title of the degree being conferred, a reference to the theological or religious aspect of the degree's subject area. The enactment of this paragraph is intended to prevent any entity claiming to be a nonprofit institution owned, controlled, and operated and maintained by a bona fide church or religious denomination, lawfully operating as a nonprofit religious corporation pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 9110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, from marketing and granting degrees or diplomas which are represented as being linked to their church or denomination but which, in reality, are degrees in secular areas of study.

(u) "To offer" includes, in addition to its usual meanings, advertising, publicizing, soliciting, or encouraging any person, directly or indirectly, in any form, to perform the act described.

(v) "To operate" an educational institution, or like term, means to establish, keep, or maintain any facility or location in this state where, or from or through which, educational services are offered or educational degrees or diplomas are offered or granted.

SEC. 3. Section 94303 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94303. Articles 1.5 and 2 of this chapter, subdivision (c) of Section 94320, and Sections 94322, 94330, 94331, 94331.5, 94334, 94338, 94342, 94343, 94343.2, and 94343.5 shall not apply to institutions which are accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges and are either (1) incorporated and lawfully operate as nonprofit public benefit corporations pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code and are not managed or administered by any entity for profit, or (2) exclusively confer degrees upon the completion of a course of study of two or more years. Within 30 days of any action by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges which establishes, reaffirms, or publicly sanctions the accreditation of a private institution operating in the state, the association shall notify the council of that action, and provide a copy of any public statements regarding the reasons for sanctions.

SEC. 3.5. Section 94304 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94304. (a) There is hereby established in state government a Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education whose members shall be appointed no later than July 1, 1990. Commencing January 1, 1991, the council shall have the responsibility for approving and regulating private postsecondary educational institutions and for developing state policies for private postsecondary and vocational education in California. The council shall represent the private postsecondary educational institutions in all state level planning and policy discussions about postsecondary and vocational education, and shall have as its objective the development of a strong, vigorous, and widely respected sector of private postsecondary and vocational education.

(b) The council shall be composed of 15 voting members, including the following representatives:

(1) Two representatives from private degree granting institutions approved under Section 94310.

(2) Two representatives from vocational institutions approved under Section 94311.

(3) Two representatives from accredited private postsecondary institutions operating in California. One representative shall be from an out-of-state accredited degree-granting postsecondary educational institution approved under Section 94310, and one representative shall be from an accredited vocational institution approved under Section 94311.

(4) A representative of the California Student Aid Commission, nominated by the executive director of the commission, and appointed by the Governor.

(5) The Superintendent of Public Instruction, or his or her designee.

(6) The Secretary of State and Consumer Services, or his or her designee.

(7) Six members of the general public.

(8) The appointment process for the council shall be as follows:

(A) The Governor shall appoint one representative from an institution approved under Section 94310, one representative from a vocational institution approved under Section 94311, one representative from an accredited vocational school, and three members from the general public.

(B) The Senate Rules Committee shall appoint one representative from an institution approved under Section 94310, one representative from an out-of-state accredited degree granting college or university operating in California, and one member of the general public.

(C) The Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint one representative from a vocational institution approved under Section 94311, and two members of the general public.

(D) The institutional representatives shall be appointed from a list or lists of persons nominated by private postsecondary or vocational educational institutions.

(9) In addition, the following shall serve as nonvoting ex officio members of the council:

(A) The Attorney General of the State of California, or his or her designee.

(B) The Director of the Department of Employment Development, or his or her designee.

(C) The Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission, or his or her designee.

(D) The Director of the Youth, Adult, and Alternative Educational Services Division of the State Department of Education, or his or her designee.

(E) The Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, or his or her designee.

(10) The members of the council designated in paragraphs (5) and (6) shall serve at the pleasure of their respective appointing authorities. All other voting members of the council shall serve a four-year term, and no members shall serve more than two full terms.

(11) No person who is employed by an institution of public or private postsecondary or vocational education shall be appointed to or serve on the council as a member of the general public.

(12) It is the intent of the Legislature that the members of the general public appointed to the council have a strong interest in developing private postsecondary and vocational education, and include representation from businesses that employ persons in positions requiring academic, vocational, or technical education.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the council shall be broadly and equitably representative of the general public and that it include adequate representation on the basis of gender and on the basis of the significant racial, ethnic, and economic groups in the state. No person appointed pursuant to this section shall, with respect to any matter before the council, vote for or on behalf of, or in any way exercise the vote of, any other member of the council.

(d) The council shall meet as often as it deems necessary to carry out its duties and responsibilities. Any member of the council who in any calendar year misses more than one-third of the meetings of the full council forfeits his or her office, thereby creating a vacancy.

(e) The council shall select a chair from among the members representing the general public. The chair shall hold office for a term of two years.

(f) The council may appoint any subcommittees or advisory committees it deems necessary to advise the council on matters of educational policy. The council shall appoint and may remove a director in the manner prescribed in this section. The director shall appoint persons to any civil service staff positions authorized by the council. The staffing shall include individuals with responsibilities for each of the following areas:

(1) The approval of vocational institutions.

(2) The approval of degree granting institutions.

(3) The approval of courses offered to veterans by vocational and degree granting institutions. For the purposes of implementing the requirements of this paragraph, the council is hereby designated as the state agency responsible for the administration of veteran educational benefit programs.

(4) Institutional relations to develop strong relationships with agencies such as the State Department of Education, the California Postsecondary Education Commission, the Student Aid Commission, the Department of Consumer Affairs, and nongovernmental accrediting associations.

(5) Legislative and public affairs.

(6) Staff administrative services.

(g) It is the intent of the Legislature that the council's approval and regulating responsibilities be funded solely through approval fees and federal funding provided to implement the approval process for courses offered to veterans by vocational and degree granting institutions. All fees derived from postsecondary degree granting institutions and their veterans' educational benefits shall be deposited in a special degree granting institution account, which is hereby created, in the Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education Administration Fund All fees derived from vocational education institutions and their veterans' educational benefits shall be deposited into a special vocational education account, which is hereby created, in the Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education Administration Fund. The council shall establish an accounting procedure to allocate the time required to approve all degree granting institutions and all vocational education institutions and shall charge these accounts accordingly. Any general administrative expenses shall be allocated on a pro rata basis.

(h) The council shall prescribe rules for the transaction of its own affairs, subject to all the following requirements and limitations:

(1) The votes of all representatives shall be recorded.

(2) Effective action shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of all the duly appointed members of the council, not including vacant council seats.

(3) The affirmative votes of two-thirds of all the duly appointed members of the council, not including vacant council seats, shall be necessary for the appointment or removal of the director.

(i) There is hereby established an advisory committee to the council and the director, consisting of representatives of the Board of Cosmetology, the Board of Barber Examiners, the Board of Vocational Nurse and Psychiatric Technician Examiners, the Board of Behavioral Science Examiners, the California Committee of Bar Examiners, the Commissioner of Real Estate, and other state agencies responsible for monitoring private postsecondary institutions. Meeting agenda items and associated documents of the council shall be provided to the advisory committee in a timely manner.

SEC. 4. Section 94305 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94305. The council shall have the following functions and responsibilities in its capacity as the statewide private postsecondary and vocational educational planning and licensing agency:

(a) The establishment of policies for the administration of this chapter.

(b) The establishment of minimum criteria for the approval of private postsecondary or vocational educational institutions to operate in California and award degrees and diplomas, and for the approval of institutions which meet the criteria.

(c) The adoption of rules and regulations governing the conduct of institutions under this chapter, including, but not limited to, minimum state standards for refund policies, advertising, enrollment agreements and contracts, consumer information, attendance policies, and financial responsibility.

(d) The adoption of procedures necessary or appropriate for the conduct of its work and the implementation of this chapter consistent with its adopted rules and regulations, including the adoption of regulations to ensure that institutions will receive adequate notice and a full opportunity to be heard concerning actions to deny, suspend, or revoke approval or to place an institution on probation.

(e) The representation of California's segment of private postsecondary and vocational education in all state level discussions and planning for postsecondary and vocational education, including, but not limited to, representation on the California Postsecondary Education Commission, and the commission's advisory committee, and voluntary postsecondary or vocational organizations.

(f) The publication biennially for public distribution of a directory of all private postsecondary and vocational educational institutions approved to operate in California under this chapter.

(g) The preparation annually of a proposed budget for the support of activities under this chapter and to secure appropriate funding necessary for the effective implementation of this chapter.

(h) Conducting research and planning for private postsecondary and vocational education, including the compilation of important institutional, faculty, and student data.

(i) The impaneling of special committees of technically qualified persons to assist the council in the development of standards for education and educational institutions and the evaluation of any application or institutions pursuant to this chapter. The members of the special committees shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed for their actual expenses for attendance at official meetings and actual expenses when on official council business. The members of the special committees shall serve at no expense to the state. The actual travel and per diem expenses incurred by each member of a special committee shall be reimbursed by the institution which is the subject of inspection or investigation.

SEC. 4.3. Section 94305.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

94305.5. Each member of the council shall receive a stipend of one hundred dollars ($100) for each day in which he or she attends any meeting of the council or any meeting of any committee or subcommittee of the council, of which committee or subcommittee he or she is a member, and which committee or subcommittee meeting is conducted for the purpose of carrying out the powers and duties of the council and, in addition, shall receive his or her actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred in the course of his or her duties.

SEC. 4.5. Section 94306 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94306. (a) The initial appointments to the council shall be made in the following manner:

(1) The Governor shall appoint two members for a two-year term, two members for a three-year term, and two members for a four-year term. The representative of the California Student Aid Commission shall be appointed for a four-year term.

(2) The Senate Rules Committee shall appoint one member for a two-year term, one member for a three-year term, and one member for a four-year term.

(3) The Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint one member for a two-year term, one member for a three-year term, and one member for a four-year term.

(b) All initial appointments to the council shall become effective on July 1, 1990. However, the length of the terms of the initial appointments shall be the designated number of years beginning on the date of January 1, 1991. All subsequent terms shall begin on January 1 of the year in which the respective terms are to commence.

(c) The Advisory Council for Private Postsecondary Educational Institutions shall be continued in existence until June 30, 1990, in order to provide communication with institutions approved under this chapter, to provide leadership in the transition of authority from the State Department of Education to the council, and to present recommendations to the council and to the California Postsecondary Education Commission for implementation of the requirements of this chapter. The executive committee of the advisory council shall present its advice and recommendations to the council at its initial meeting in July 1990 and shall serve in a resource capacity to the council during the next three-month period.

(d) The Executive Director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission shall call and chair the initial meeting of the council in July 1990 and shall serve as the chair until the council selects a chairperson. The council shall adopt procedures for the recruitment and appointment of a director and staff. On January 1, 1991, the council shall succeed to the powers, duties, and functions vested in the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the approval and monitoring of private postsecondary and vocational educational institutions. Commencing July 1, 1990, all expenses associated with the operation of the council shall be charged to and paid for from the Private Postsecondary Education Administration Fund.

(e) All responsibilities previously assigned to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the approval and monitoring of private postsecondary and vocational education pursuant to statutes, legislative resolutions, and budget language shall be assumed by the council commencing January 1, 1991. On that date the Private Postsecondary Education Administration Fund, the Student Tuition Recovery Fund, and all ongoing projects, information, and files maintained by the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the State Department of Education shall be transferred to the council. The Private Postsecondary Education Administration Fund shall be renamed the Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education Administration Fund. All state civil service employees who were employed on December 31, 1990, to carry out the functions transferred to the council from the Private Postsecondary Education Division of the State Department of Education, shall be transferred to the council on January 1, 1991. No appointments shall be made to the Private Postsecondary Education Division between December 31, 1989, and December 31, 1990, without the approval of either the Advisory Council for Private Postsecondary Educational Institutions or the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education.

SEC. 5. Section 94310 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94310. No private postsecondary educational institution may issue, confer, or award an academic or honorary degree unless the institution meets the requirements of subdivision (a) or (i), as follows:

(a) The institution is approved by the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education to operate in California and award degrees. The council shall not approve an institution to issue degrees, diplomas, or certificates pursuant to this subdivision until it has conducted a qualitative review and assessment of, and has approved, each degree program offered by the institution, and all of the operations of the institution, and has determined all of the following:

(1) The institution has the facilities, financial resources, administrative capabilities, faculty, and other necessary educational expertise and resources to ensure its capability of fulfilling the program or programs for enrolled students.

(2) The faculty is fully qualified to undertake the level of instruction that they are assigned and shall possess appropriate degrees and have demonstrated professional achievement in the major field or fields offered, in sufficient numbers to provide the educational services.

(3) The education services and curriculum clearly relate to the objectives of the proposed program or programs and offers students the opportunity for a quality education.

(4) The facilities are appropriate for the defined educational objectives and are sufficient to ensure quality educational services to the students enrolled in the program or programs.

(5) The course of study for which the degree is granted provides the curriculum necessary to achieve its professed or claimed academic objective for higher education, and the institution requires a level of academic achievement appropriate to that degree.

(6) The institution provides adequate student advisement services, academic planning and curriculum development activities, research supervision for students enrolled in Ph.D. programs, and clinical supervision for students enrolled in various health profession programs.

(7) If the institution offers credit for prior experiential learning it may do so only after an evaluation by qualified faculty and only in disciplines within the institution's curricular offerings that are appropriate to the degree to be pursued. The council shall develop specific standards regarding the criteria for awarding credit for prior experiential learning at the graduate level, including the maximum number of hours for which credit may be awarded.

(b) The approval process shall include a qualitative review and assessment of all of the following:

(1) Institutional purpose, mission, and objectives.
(2) Governance and administration.
(3) Curriculum.
(4) Instruction.
(5) Faculty, including their qualifications.
(6) Physical facilities.
(7) Administrative personnel.
(8) Procedures for keeping educational records.
(9) Tuition, fee, and refund schedules.
(10) Admissions standards.
(11) Financial aid policies and practices.
(12) Scholastic regulations and graduation requirements.
(13) Ethical principles and practices.
(14) Library and other learning resources.
(15) Student activities and services.
(16) Degrees offered.

The standards and procedures utilized by the council shall foster the development of high quality, innovative educational programs and emerging new fields of study within postsecondary education. In addition, the standards and procedures utilized by the council shall not unreasonably hinder educational innovation and competition.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the minimum standards for approval for degree-granting institutions established in Section 94310 not exceed the accreditation standards utilized by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

(c) The council may, at its discretion, delegate the responsibilities for regulation and oversight of accredited degree granting law schools to the California Committee of Bar Examiners, and that accreditation may be accepted by the council in lieu of state approval.

(d) (1) The council shall conduct a qualitative review and assessment of the institution and all programs offered, including the items listed in subdivision (b), through a comprehensive onsite review process, performed by a qualified visiting committee impaneled by the council for that purpose. Each institution shall submit a single application for all operations in California, and the application shall include a single fee which is institution-based and not site-based. The visiting committee shall be impaneled by the council within 90 days of the date of the receipt of a completed application and shall be composed of educators, and other individuals with expertise in the areas listed in subdivision (b), from degree-granting institutions legally operating within the state. Within 90 days of the receipt of the visiting committee's evaluation report and recommendations, or any reasonable extension of time not to exceed 90 days, the council shall take one of the following actions:

(A) If the institution is in compliance with this chapter and has not operated within three years before the filing of the application in violation of the provisions of this chapter then in effect, the council may grant an approval to operate for a period not to exceed five years.

(B) If the institution is in compliance with this chapter, but has operated within three years before the filing of the application in violation of the provisions of this chapter then in effect, or if the council, in its discretion, determines that an unconditional grant of approval to operate is not in the public interest, the council may grant a conditional approval to operate subject to whatever restrictions the council deems appropriate. The council shall notify the institution of the restrictions, the bases for the restrictions, and the right to request a hearing to contest the restrictions. Conditional approval shall not exceed two years.

(C) The council may deny the application. If the application is denied, the council may, in its discretion, permit the institution to continue offering the course of instruction to students already enrolled or may order the institution to cease instruction and provide a refund of tuition and all other charges to students.

(D) (i) If an institution is not operating in California when it applies for approval to operate for itself or a branch or satellite campus, the institution shall file with its application an operational plan establishing that the institution will satisfy the minimum standards set forth in subdivision (a). The operational plan shall also include a detailed description of the institution's program for implementing the operational plan, including proposed procedures, financial resources, and the qualifications of owners, directors, officers, and administrators employed at the time of the filing of the application. The council may request additional information to enable the council to determine whether the operational plan and its proposed implementation will satisfy these minimum standards.

(ii) If the council determines that the operational plan satisfies the minimum standards described in subdivision (a), that the institution demonstrates that it will implement the plan, and that no ground for denial of the application exists, the council shall grant a temporary approval to operate, subject to any restrictions the council reasonably deems necessary to assure compliance with this chapter, pending a qualitative review and assessment as provided in subdivisions (a) and (b). The council shall inspect the institution, or branch or satellite campus if approval is sought for that campus, between 90 days and 180 days after operation has begun under the temporary approval to operate. Within 90 days following the council's inspection of the institution, the council shall act as provided in this subdivision.

(2) When evaluating an institution whose purpose is to advance postsecondary education through innovative methods, the visiting committee shall comprise educators who are familiar with and receptive to evidence bearing on the educational quality and accomplishments of those methods.

(3) The standards and procedures utilized by the council shall not unreasonably hinder educational innovation and competition.

(4) It is the intent of the Legislature that the council, prior to June 1, 1992, conduct an onsite review of all institutions approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction between January 1, 1989, and December 31, 1990, that did not receive an onsite review by a visiting committee that included at least one permanent employee of the Private Postsecondary Education Division of the State Department of Education.

(5) Each institution or instructional program offering education for entry into a health care profession in which the provider has primary care responsibilities shall offer that education within a professional degree program which shall be subject to approval by the council pursuant to this section.

(e) If at any time the council determines that an institution has deviated from the standards for approval, the council may, after identifying for the institution the areas in which it has deviated from the standards, and after giving the institution due notice and an opportunity to be heard, place the institution on probation for a prescribed period of time, not to exceed 24 calendar months. During the period of probation, the institution shall be subject to special monitoring. The conditions for probation may include the required submission of periodic reports, as prescribed by the council, and special visits by authorized representatives of the council to determine progress toward total compliance. If, at the end of the probationary period, the institution has not taken steps to eliminate the cause or causes for its probation to the satisfaction of the council, the council may revoke the institution's approval to award degrees and provide notice to the institution to cease its operations.

(f) An institution may not advertise itself as an approved institution unless each degree program offered by the institution has been approved in accordance with the requirements of this section. The council shall review all operations of the institution, both within and outside of California. The council shall have the authority to conduct site visits outside of California when it deems these visits to be necessary. The council may authorize any institution approved to issue degrees under this section to issue diplomas for the completion of courses of study that are within the institution's approved degree granting programs.

(g) (1) All institutions operating on December 31, 1990, pursuant to licensure received under subdivision (a) of Section 94310.1 or approval received under Section 94310.2, shall receive approval for a period not to exceed four years. On a specified date prior to January 1, 1995, to be determined by the council, each institution granted approval pursuant to this subdivision shall file a completed application for reapproval pursuant to this section.

(2) All institutions operating on December 31, 1990, pursuant to candidate for approval status received pursuant to Section 94310.2 shall receive candidate for approval status for a period not to exceed two years. On a specified date prior to January 1, 1993, as determined by the council, each institution granted candidate for approval status pursuant to this subdivision shall file a completed application for approval pursuant to this section.

(h) All institutions operating pursuant to authorization received under Section 94310.3 or 94310.4, as in effect on December 31, 1990, shall receive candidate for approval status for a period not to exceed three years. On a specified date prior to January 1, 1994, to be determined by the council, each institution granted candidate for approval status pursuant to this subdivision shall file a completed application for approval pursuant to this section.

(i) Any public or private postsecondary educational institution incorporated in another state that has accreditation from a regional accrediting association recognized by the United States Department of Education at the time of the issuance of a degree, and that is approved by the council, may issue degrees, diplomas, or certificates. Accredited public or private postsecondary educational institutions incorporated in another state shall not offer degrees, diplomas, or certificates in California unless they comply with the provisions of this subdivision.

(1) The council shall not approve an institution to issue degrees, diplomas, or certificates pursuant to this subdivision until the council has conducted a qualitative review and assessment of and has approved, the operations of the institution in California, and the council has determined that the institution meets the following standards:

(A) The institution has financial resources to ensure the capability of fulfilling the program or programs for enrolled students.

(B) The faculty includes personnel who possess appropriate degrees from institutions accredited by a regional accrediting association recognized by the United States Department of Education in the degree major field or fields offered, in sufficient number to provide the educational services.

(C) The education services and curriculum clearly relate to the objectives of the proposed program or programs.

(D) The facilities are appropriate for the defined educational objectives and are sufficient to ensure quality educational services to the students enrolled in the program or programs.

(E) The institution has verifiable evidence of academic achievement comparable to that required of graduates of other institutions operating in this state for the program or programs upon which the degree, diploma, or certificate is based.

(2) The council shall grant approved status under this subdivision for a period consistent with the postsecondary educational institution's regional accrediting association, but not to exceed five years.

(3) Institutions approved under this subdivision shall offer in California only programs that the institution can document to have been acknowledged and favorably reviewed by the home regional accrediting association.

(4) In reviewing the out-of-state accredited institutions, the council shall use as guidelines the standards and procedures developed by the special committee created pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 94310.1, as in effect on December 31, 1989, and adopted by the California Postsecondary Education Commission. These standards and procedures were based on the following principles:

(A) Following the initial state review, subsequent onsite reviews by the council may be conducted in conjunction with institutional reviews by the regional accrediting association. However, if there is substantial evidence that the institution is not in compliance with state standards, the council may initiate a special review of the California operations of the institution.

(B) Each institution shall submit a single application for all operations in California, and the application shall include a single fee which is institution-based and not site-based.

(C) The council shall develop a procedural rationale to justify the number of sites to be visited by the state in the review of the institution's operations in California.

(D) The purpose of the onsite review by the council shall be to determine that operations by the institution in California meet the minimum state standards identified in statute.

(E) The standards and procedures shall not unreasonably hinder educational innovation and competition.

(5) The regulations used by the council to implement this chapter shall provide for consideration of the accredited institutions' stated educational goals, purposes, and objectives, in conducting the approval review of the California operations of out-of-state based institutions.

(A) These regulations shall include a formula to determine the institutional approval fee and the number of sites to be visited by the state.

(B) The regulations developed by the council shall be based on the procedures and standards recommended by the special committee and acted upon by the commission. In conducting the approval review of the operation of out-of-state accredited institutions in California, the council shall interpret the regulations based upon each institution's accredited educational purposes and objectives.

(6) All institutions operating under subdivision (b) of Section 94310.1, as it read on December 31, 1990, shall receive approval for a period not to exceed five years from the date of the institution's last review by the state. On a date to be specified by the council on or before January 1, 1996, each institution granted approval under this subdivision shall file a completed application for reapproval under this section.

SEC. 6. Section 94311 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94311. No private postsecondary educational institution, except those offering degrees and approved under the provisions of Section 94310, may offer education services or an education program, unless the institution or the branch or satellite campus at which these programs are offered, has been approved by the council as meeting the requirements of this section and, if regulated by an agency within the Department of Consumer Affairs, has obtained and retained the approval of that agency:

(a) If an institution is operating under the council's prior approval and the institution has applied for approval to operate for itself or a branch or satellite campus that is operating, the council shall not grant approval to operate until it has conducted a qualitative review and assessment of the operations of the institution in California, and determined that all of the following minimum standards have been satisfied:

(1) The quality and content of each course or program of instruction, training, or study may reasonably and adequately be expected to achieve the objective for which the course or program is offered. All courses offered by the institution shall meet the minimum standards prescribed by this subdivision. If an institution represents that a course or program leads to employment, the quality, content, and instruction of the course or program shall be sufficient to assure that students may acquire the necessary level of education, training, skill, and experience to obtain employment in the occupation or job title to which the course or program of instruction is represented to lead.

(2) There is in the institution adequate space, equipment, instructional material, and instructor personnel to provide training of the quality needed to attain the objective described in paragraph (1).

(3) Every instructor and administrator possess adequate academic, experiential, and professional qualifications to teach the course or to perform the duties that the person is assigned and satisfies all standards established by the council by regulation, and holds an applicable and valid certificate of authorization for service issued by the council in the specified competence area in which the individual will serve. No person shall serve as an instructor or member of the administrative staff if that person has been convicted of, or has pled nolo contendere or guilty to, a crime involving the acquisition, use, or expenditure of federal or state funds, or who has been judicially or administratively determined to have committed any violation of this chapter or of any law involving state or federal funds.

(4) The institution maintains for at least five years written records of the student's previous education and training, where applicable.

(5) A copy of the course outline, description of the occupations or job titles, if any, to which the course of instruction is represented to lead, schedule of tuition, fees and other charges, refund policy, regulations pertaining to tardiness, absence, grading policy and rules of operation and conduct is given to students prior to enrollment.

(6) The institution maintains and enforces adequate standards relating to, and maintains records of, attendance, satisfactory academic progress, and student performance to achieve the objective described in paragraph (1).

(7) The institution complies with all local city, county, municipal, state, and federal regulations relative to the safety and health of all persons upon the premises such as fire, building, and sanitation codes. The council may require evidence of compliance.

(8) The institution does not exceed enrollment which the facilities and equipment of the institution can reasonably handle.

(9) The institution's officers, directors, and owners demonstrate financial and fiduciary responsibility, as prescribed by statute, or by regulations adopted by the council.

(10) The institution is in compliance with this chapter and has developed policies and procedures designed to ensure that compliance.

(11) No circumstances exist which are grounds for the revocation or suspension of an approval to operate.

(12) The institution complies with Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 94316) if that article is applicable.

(13) Application for approval shall be made in writing on forms prescribed by the council, which shall include, if applicable to the institution, a statement of whether the institution claims that it is exempt or that a course or other educational service it offers is exempt from Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 94316), and the information required by subdivision (f) of Section 94319.2.

(b) Within 90 days following the receipt of an application from an institution that is operating under the superintendent's prior authorization or approval or the council's prior approval, and prior to granting any approval, a representative of the council shall personally inspect the institution and verify the institution's compliance with the standards prescribed by this chapter. The onsite inspection shall include an inspection of the institution's facilities and records, interviews of administrators, faculty, and students, and an observation of class instruction, as determined to be appropriate by the council. If the application is for approval to operate a branch or satellite campus that is in operation, the council shall inspect that branch or satellite campus as provided herein and may also inspect the institution operating the branch or satellite campus. The council may waive or modify the onsite inspection for an institution located outside of California or for an institution offering home study or correspondence courses. For the purposes of this section, "council's prior approval" includes the prior approval or authorization of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, if applicable.

(c) Within 90 days following the inspection described in subdivision (b) or any reasonable extension of time not to exceed 90 days, the council shall reach a decision on the merits and shall do one of the following:

(1) If the institution is in compliance with this chapter and has not operated within three years before the filing of the application in violation of the provisions of this chapter then in effect, the council may grant approval.

(2) If the institution is in compliance with this chapter, but has operated within three years before the filing of the application in violation of the provisions of this chapter then in effect, or if the council, in its discretion, determines that an unconditional grant of approval to operate is not in the public interest, the council may grant a conditional approval to operate subject to whatever restrictions the council deems appropriate. The council shall notify the institution of the restrictions, the bases for the restrictions, and the right to request a hearing to contest the restrictions.

(3) The council may deny the application if the institution does not comply with this chapter, including the minimum standards established in subdivision (a), or has operated within three years before the filing of the application in violation of the provisions of this chapter then in effect. If the application is denied, the council may, in its discretion, permit the institution to continue offering the course or courses of instruction to students already enrolled or may order the institution to cease all instruction and provide a refund of tutition and all other charges to students. The council shall notify the institution of the denial, the bases for the denial, and the right of the institution to request a hearing to contest the denial.

(d) (1) If an institution is not operating in California when it applies for approval to operate for itself or a branch or satellite campus, the institution shall file with its application an operational plan establishing that the institution will satisfy the minimum standards set forth in subdivision (a). The operational plan shall also include a detailed description of the institution's program for implementing the operational plan, including proposed procedures, financial resources, and the qualifications of owners, directors, officers, and administrators employed at the time of the application's filing. The council may request additional information to enable the council to determine whether the operational plan and its proposed implementation will satisfy these minimum standards.

(2) If the council determines that the operational plan satisfies the minimum standards described in subdivision (a), that the institution demonstrates that it will implement the plan, and that no ground for denial of the application exists, the council shall grant a temporary approval to operate, subject to any restrictions the council reasonably deems necessary to assure compliance with this chapter, pending a qualitative review and assessment as provided in subdivisions (a) and (b). The council shall inspect the institution, or branch or satellite campus if approval is sought for that campus, between 90 days and 180 days after operation has begun under the temporary approval to operate. Within 90 days following the council's inspection of the institution, the council shall act as provided in subdivision (c).

(e) If an institution that is operating in California applies for approval to operate a branch or satellite campus that has not operated in this state, the institution shall file an operational plan for the branch or satellite campus as described in subdivision (d). The council shall evaluate the branch or satellite campus as provided in subdivision (d). The council may also evaluate the institution as provided in subdivisions (a) and (b) before determining whether to grant to the institution temporary or final approval to operate the branch or satellite campus. If the institution or the branch or satellite campus does not meet the requirements of this chapter or if the institution has operated within three years before the filing of the application in violation of the provisions of this chapter then in effect, the council may deny the application for approval to operate the branch or satellite campus or may grant a conditional approval to operate the branch or satellite campus subject to whatever restrictions the superintendent deems appropriate. The provisions for notice and hearing described in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (c) shall apply.

(f) No institution shall offer a course or program of instruction, training, or study at a campus that had not offered the course or program at the time the institution applied for approval to operate that campus unless the council first approves the offering of the course or program after determining that it satisfies the minimum standards established in subdivision (a).

(g) All institutions operating in California on December 31, 1989, pursuant to the prior authority of subdivision (c) of former Section 94311, and which continued to operate under the requirements of this chapter on the operative date of this section, shall receive an approval status for a period not to exceed three years. On a specified date to be determined by the council on or before June 30, 1993, each institution granted an approval pursuant to this subdivision shall file a completed application for reapproval pursuant to this section. It is the intent of the Legislature that all private vocational institutions having a cumulative gross student loan default rate higher than 40 percent, as determined by the Student Aid Commission, shall be reviewed by the council on or before February 29, 1992, to determine if these institutions are in compliance with the requirements of this chapter, and should be continued to be approved to offer educational programs in California. On or before March 15, 1992, the council shall report to the education policy and fiscal committees of the Legislature on the results of this review.

All institutions operating in California on December 31, 1990, pursuant to prior authority of subdivision (a) or (b) of former Section 94311, shall receive approval from the council for a period not to exceed three years. On or before June 30, 1994, the council shall work in cooperation with the appropriate state boards or agencies, and with the Federal Aviation Administration, to review each of these institutions to determine whether the institution is in compliance with the requirements of this chapter. It is the intent of the Legislature that the council develop a memorandum of understanding with each of the appropriate state boards or agencies and with the Federal Aviation Administration to delineate the responsibilities of each agency for the approval and monitoring of these private vocational institutions that were operating on December 31, 1990, under the prior authority of subdivisions (a) and (b) of former Section 94311. It is further the intent of the Legislature that these memorandums of understanding be introduced as legislation on or before February 1, 1994, for enactment as amendments to this act. It is the intent of the Legislature that all institutions having a cumulative gross student loan default rate above 40 percent, as determined by the Student Aid Commission, shall be reviewed by the state board and the council on or before February 29, 1992, to determine if these institutions are in compliance with the requirements of this chapter and should continue to be approved to offer educational programs in California.

All institutions operating in California on December 31, 1990, pursuant to the prior authority of subdivision (d) of former Section 94311, shall receive an approval for a period not to exceed three years. On a specified date to be determined by the council on or before December 31, 1993, each institution granted an approval pursuant to this subdivision, shall file a completed application for reapproval pursuant to this section.

(h) The council may, at its discretion, enter into an agreement for the regulation and oversight of nondegree granting private postsecondary institutions with the Federal Aviation Administration or with the state agency responsible for administering Article 1 (commencing with Section 1250) of Chapter 2 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code.

The council may enter into a regulatory agreement only when the appropriate agency can demonstrate that its standards and procedures for the review of institutions encompass the standards and consumer protection requirements prescribed by this chapter and that these standards and procedures are rigorously enforced.

Nothing in this section shall modify the existing authority of regulatory agencies within the Department of Consumer Affairs relating to schools or programs.

(i) If at any time the council determines that an institution has deviated from the standards for approval, the council may, after giving the institution due notice and an opportunity to be heard, place the institution on probation for a specified period of time not to exceed 24 calendar months. During the period of probation, the institution shall be subject to special monitoring. The conditions for probation may include the required submission of periodic reports, as prescribed by the council, and special visits by authorized representatives of the council to determine progress toward total compliance. If at the end of the specified probationary period the institution has not taken steps to eliminate the causes for its probation to the satisfaction of the council, the council may revoke the institution's approval and provide notice to the institution to cease its operations.

(j) Approval by the council under Section 94311 shall be required for all colleges and universities offering courses to veterans through the veteran educational benefit program.

SEC. 6.3. Section 94311.4 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended and renumbered to read:

94311.3. The council may utilize the resources of accrediting associations in gathering information about accredited postsecondary and vocational institutions, including participating as an observer on accreditation site visits. However, this does not preclude or relieve the council of its responsibilities under the provisions of this chapter and the council shall retain full authority for approving all private postsecondary and vocational institutions operating in California.

SEC. 6.5. Section 94311.5 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended and renumbered to read:

94311.4. (a) The review of a private postsecondary educational institution's original application for approval, or a renewal application to the council, or an approved institution already in operation, shall include a determination of the institution's financial responsibility. An institution shall be considered financially responsible if it has sufficient assets for all of the following:

(1) To provide the educational services stated in its official publications and statements.

(2) To comply with the standards and requirements specified in Sections 94310 and 94311.

(3) To provide the administrative and financial resources to fully comply with Section 94312.

(b) An institution shall not be considered financially responsible under any of the following conditions:

(1) The institution, under generally accepted accounting principles, has had operating losses in, at a minimum, the two most recent years.

(2) Under generally accepted accounting principles, the institution had, at the end of its latest fiscal year, a ratio of current assets to current liabilities of less than 1.25 to 1.

(3) Under a fund accounting system, the institution's unrestricted current or operating fund reflects sustained material deficits over at least its two most recent fiscal years.

(4) The institution is not in compliance either with the regulations adopted by the council or with any existing statutes relating to the requirements for maintaining sufficient funds to cover all operating expenses.

(c) If the council determines that an institution is not financially responsible, the council may, under terms and conditions prescribed by the council, require the institution to submit for its latest complete fiscal year and its current fiscal year, each of the following:

(1) A financial audit of the institution conducted by a licensed certified public accountant, in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

(2) The institution's financial plan for establishing financial responsibility.

(3) Any other information requested by the council.

This subdivision shall not prevent the council from taking any other actions authorized under this chapter.

SEC. 6.7. Section 94311.7 is added to the Education Code, to read:

94311.7. No person shall own or operate a school, or give instruction, for the driving of motor trucks of three or more axles which are more than 6,000 pounds unladen weight unless all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The school or instruction has been approved by the council.

(b) The school shall, at the time of application and thereafter, maintain both of the following:

(1) Proof of compliance with liability insurance requirements that are the same as those established by the Department of Motor Vehicles for a driving school owner, pursuant to Section 11103 of the Vehicle Code, unless the council deems it necessary to establish a higher level of insurance coverage.

(2) A satisfactory safety rating by the Department of the California Highway Patrol is established pursuant to Division 14.8 (commencing with Section 34500) of the Vehicle Code.

(c) The driving instructors meet the requirements set forth in Section 11104 of the Vehicle Code.

(d) All vehicles used in driver training are maintained in safe mechanical condition at all times.

(e) Any other terms and conditions required by the council to protect the public safety or to meet the requirements of this chapter.

SEC. 7. Section 94312 of Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94312. All institutions approved under this chapter shall be maintained and operated, or in the case of a new institution, shall demonstrate that it will be maintained and operated, in compliance with all of the following minimum standards:

(a) That the institution is financially capable of fulfilling its commitments to its students.

(b) That the institution and its agents do not utilize advertising of any type which is false or misleading, either by actual statement, omission, or intimation.

(c) That the institution designates an agent for service of process within this state.

(d) That the institution has and maintains the following specified policy for the refund of the unused portion of tuition fees and other charges in the event the student does not register for the period of attendance or withdraws therefrom at any time prior to completion of the courses, or otherwise fails to complete the period of enrollment. The institutional refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent or less of the course of instruction shall be a pro rata refund. Except as provided in paragraph (1), the refund shall be the amount the student paid for the instruction multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of hours of instruction or the number of lessons in a home study or correspondence course which the student has not received but for which the student has paid, and the denominator of which is the total number of hours of instruction or the number of lessons in a home study or correspondence course for which the student has paid.

(1) The institution shall, for all students, without penalty or obligation, refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100), if notice of cancellation is made prior to or on the first day of instruction. If the first lesson in a home study or correspondence course is sent to the student by mail, the institution shall send it by first-class mail, postage prepaid, documented by a certificate of mailing, and the student shall have the right to cancel until midnight of the eighth business day after the first lesson was mailed. The institution shall advise each student that any notification of withdrawal or cancellation and any requests for a refund must be made in writing.

(2) The institution shall provide a written statement containing its refund policy, together with examples of the application of the policy, to each student prior to signing the enrollment contract, and shall make its policy known to currently enrolled students.

(3) Institutions shall pay or credit refunds due on a reasonable or timely basis, not to exceed 30 days following the date upon which the student's withdrawal has been determined.

(4) Each institution shall publish a current schedule of all student charges, a statement of the purpose for those charges, and a statement of the cancellation and refund policies with examples of the application of the policies, and shall provide the schedule to all current and prospective students prior to enrollment. The schedule shall clearly indicate and differentiate all mandatory and optional student charges. The institution shall include a clear statement written in English describing the procedures that a student must follow to cancel the contract or agreement and obtain a refund. If the institution solicited the student or negotiated the agreement in a language other than English, the notice to the student shall be in that same language. The schedule shall specify the total costs of attendance which shall include, but not be limited to, tuition, fees, equipment costs, housing, transportation, books, necessary supplies, materials, shop and studio fees, and any other fees and expenses that the student will incur upon enrollment.

The schedule shall clearly identify all charges and deposits that are nonrefundable.

(5) The council shall determine the details of the other refund policy through regulations and shall take into consideration the contract for educational services entered into with the student, as well as the length and character of the educational program in determining standards for refunds. The decision of the council shall be final.

(e) That any written contract or agreement signed by a prospective student will not become operative until the student makes an initial visit to the institution or attends the first class or session of instruction. The school officials are obligated to provide the student with a thorough tour of the campus facilities and to place a written statement, signed by the student, in the student's file to verify that the visitation and campus tour were provided. This provision does not apply to correspondence schools or other distance learning programs.

(f) That any written contract or agreement for educational services with an institution shall include each of the following:

(1) On the first page of the agreement or contract, in 12-point boldface print or larger, the following statement:

"Any questions or problems concerning this school which have not been satisfactorily answered or resolved by the school should be directed to the Council for Private Postsecondary Education, Sacramento, California 95814."

(2) In underlined capital letters on the same page of the contract or agreement in which the student's signature is required, the total amount that the student is obligated to pay for the course of instruction and all other services and facilities furnished or made available to the student by the school, including any charges made by the school for tuition, room and board, books, materials, supplies, shop and studio fees, and any other fees and expenses that the student will incur upon enrollment.

(3) A list of any charges and deposits that are nonrefundable clearly identified as "nonrefundable" charges.

(4) A written statement signed by a representative of the institution, which certifies that the institution has met all disclosure requirements required by this section and, for institutions participating in state or federal student assistance programs, has met all requirements for the administration of any state financial aid program under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 69500) of Part 42 or any federal student assistance program under Title IV of the federal Higher Education Act of 1965 (P.L. 89-329), extensions of that act, amendments to that act, and the rules and regulations adopted under that act.

(5) The name and address of the school and the addresses where instruction will be provided.

(6) The name and description of the course of instruction, including the total number of classes, hours, or lessons required to complete the course of instruction.

(7) A clear and conspicuous statement that the agreement or contract is a legally binding instrument when signed by the student and accepted by the school.

(8) A clear and conspicuous caption, "BUYER'S RIGHT TO CANCEL" under which it is explained that the student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund, the form and means of notice that the student should use in the event that he or she elects to cancel the enrollment agreement, and the title and address of the school official to whom the notice should be sent or delivered.

(9) A clear statement of the refund policy written in plain English.

(10) The signature of the student under the following statement which is presented in 12-point boldface or larger print: "My signature below certifies that I have read, understood, and agreed to my rights and responsibilities, and that the institution's cancellation and refund policies have been clearly explained to me."

The council shall, in consultation with its appropriate advisory committee, adopt a model contract form that shall be used by each institution. However, if, in the opinion of the council, a contract already in use at a particular institution fulfills all the requirements of this act, the council may approve the contract used by that institution in lieu of the model form.

All contracts and enrollment agreements signed by the student shall be written in language which is capable of being easily understood. If English is not the primary language spoken by the student, the student shall have the right to obtain a clear explanation of the terms and conditions of the agreement and all cancellation and refund policies in his or her primary language.

(g) That neither the institution nor its agents engage in sales, collection, credit, or other practices of any type which are false, deceptive, misleading, or unfair.

(h) That the institution provides to students and other interested persons, prior to enrollment, a catalog or brochure containing at a minimum the following information:

(1) Descriptions of the instruction provided under each course offered by the institution.

(2) The number of credit hours or clock hours of instruction or training per unit or units required for completion of the educational degree or certificate program.

(3) The attendance, dropout, and leave-of-absence policies.

(4) The faculty and their qualifications.

(5) The schedule of tuition, fees, and all other charges and expenses necessary for the term of instruction and the completion of the course of study.

(6) The cancellation and refund policies.

(7) For institutions which participate in federal and state financial aid programs, all consumer information which the institution is required to disclose to the student.

(8) All other material facts concerning the institution and the program or course of instruction which are reasonably likely to affect the decision of the student to enroll, as prescribed by rules and regulations adopted by the council.

(9) No written contract signed by the student shall be enforceable unless the information specified in this subdivision has been disclosed to the student.

(i) That each institution offering a degree or diploma program designed to prepare students for a particular vocational, trade, or career field shall provide to each prospective student a school performance fact sheet disclosing the following information:

(1) The number and percentage of students who begin the institution's program and successfully complete the entire program. The rate shall be calculated by determining the percentage of students enrolled in the program who were originally scheduled, at the time of enrollment, to complete the program in that calendar year and who successfully completed the program.

(2) The passage rates of graduates in the program for the most recent calendar year that ended not less than six months prior to the date of disclosure on any licensure or certificate examination required by the state for employment in the particular vocational, trade, or career field.

(3) The number and percentage of students who begin the program and secure employment in the field for which they were trained. In calculating this rate, the institution shall consider as not having obtained employment, any graduate for whom the institution does not possess evidence, documented in his or her file, showing that he or she has obtained employment in the occupation for which the program is offered.

(4) The average annual starting wages or salary of graduates of the institution's program, if the institution makes a claim to prospective students regarding the starting salaries of its graduates, or the starting salaries or local availability of jobs in a field. The institution shall disclose to the prospective student the objective sources of information necessary to substantiate the truthfulness of the claim.

Each school which offers or advertises placement assistance for any course of instruction shall file with the council its placement statistics for the 12-month period or calendar year immediately preceding the date of the school's application for annual review for every course of instruction.

The council shall develop standards and criteria to be used by each institution in determining the statistical information required by this subdivision.

(j) That upon satisfactory completion of training, the student is given an appropriate degree or diploma by the institution, indicating that the course or courses of instruction or study have been satisfactorily completed by the student.

(k) That adequate and accurate records are maintained by the institution, in accordance with regulations adopted by the council, and that satisfactory standards are enforced relating to attendance, progress, and performance.

(l) That the institution maintains current records for a period of not less than five years at its principal place of business within the State of California, immediately available during normal business hours, for inspection by the council or the Attorney General of California showing all of the following:

(1) The names and addresses, both local and home, including city and state, of each of its students.

(2) The courses of study offered by the institution.

(3) The names and addresses, including city and street, of its faculty, together with a record of the educational qualifications of each.

(4) The degrees or diplomas and honorary degrees and diplomas granted, the date of granting, together with the curricula upon which the diplomas and degrees were based.

(m) That the institution provides instruction as part of its educational program. Instruction shall include any specific, formal arrangement by an institution for its enrollees to participate in learning experiences wherein the institution's faculty or contracted instructors present a planned curriculum appropriate to the enrollee's educational program.

(n) Institutions certified to offer flight instruction by the Federal Aviation Administration, or its successor agency, shall comply with all of the requirements of this section, but shall not be required to file any materials with the council which are not required by the Federal Aviation Administration, or its successor agency, except those minimally necessary to administer the Student Tuition Recovery Fund, pursuant to Section 94342, as determined by the council. The responsibility for monitoring and enforcing institutional compliance for these institutions shall be with the council.

Individual flight instructors not requiring any advance payments, who do not negotiate a formal contract of indebtedness, and who do not have an established place of business other than their residences shall be exempt from the requirements of this section.

(o) The council shall take into consideration the character of the educational program in determining whether specific types of institutions may be excluded from application of subdivision (i).

SEC. 8. Section 94312.2 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94312.2. Each institution approved to operate under this chapter shall be required to report to the council, by July 1 of each year, or another date designated by the council, the following information for educational programs offered in the prior calendar year:

(a) The total number of students enrolled, by level of degree or type of diploma program, and by gender, ethnicity, and race.

(b) The number of degrees and diplomas awarded, by level of degree, and by gender, ethnicity, and race.

(c) The degree levels offered.

(d) Program completion rates.

(e) Placement data for vocational training programs, unless that data already is required to be provided by the institution under other requirements of this chapter.

(f) The schedule of tuition and fees required for each term, program, course of instruction, or degree offered.

(g) If an institution submits an audited financial statement to the United States Department of Education, the institution shall submit a copy of that financial statement to the council.

(h) Financial information demonstrating compliance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 94316.6.

(i) Institutions having a probationary or conditional status shall submit an annual report reviewing their progress in meeting the standards required for approval status.

(j) Any additional information that the council may prescribe.

(k) Colleges and universities operating under paragraph (5) of subdivision (t) of Section 94302 shall comply with the reporting requirements of subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (f) of this section.

Program completion rates and placement data shall be reported in accordance with the standards and criteria prescribed by the council pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 94312 or Section 94316.10, whichever is applicable. Based on the review of information submitted to fulfill the requirements of this section, the council may initiate a compliance review and may place the institution on probation pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 94310 and subdivision (i) of Section 94311, and may require evidence of financial stability and responsibility pursuant to Section 94311.5 or 94316.6.

Except as provided in Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 94316), the provisions of this section shall supersede the provisions of any other law which conflict with the provisions of this section.

SEC. 9. Section 94313 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94313. (a) Within 30 days of receiving a written notice described in subdivision (a) or subdivision (c) of Sections 69507.7 and 69509.5 from the Student Aid Commission, the council shall commence an investigation of the institution named in the notice. The purpose of the investigation shall be to determine whether the educational institution is in compliance with this chapter.

(b) Within a reasonable time after the commencement of the investigation required in subdivision (a), the council shall conclude its investigation and take action against the institution involved, as appropriate.

SEC. 10. Section 94315 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94315. (a) No institution may offer education which develops or improves an occupational skill, knowledge, or ability unless the ownership for its statewide operations has filed with the council an annual declaration under penalty of perjury for public disclosure setting forth the following information:

(1) The owner's legal name, headquarters address, and the name of an agent for the service of process within California.

(2) All names, whether real or fictitious, under which the owner is doing and will do business.

(3) The names and addresses of the principal officers of the ownership.

(b) The annual declaration under penalty of perjury shall be accompanied by representative copies of any existing media advertising or promotional material. Institutions filing pursuant to this section shall be exempt from all of the requirements of this chapter, except for those prescribed in subdivision (d) of Section 94320, Section 94321, and Section 94336. Filing pursuant to this section shall not be interpreted to mean, and it shall be unlawful for any institution to expressly or impliedly represent by any means whatsoever, that the State of California, or the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education, has made any evaluation, recognition, accreditation, approval, or endorsement of the institution or the education offered.

(c) This section does not apply to education with an educational, professional, technological, or vocational objective which is subject to approval pursuant to Section 94311. Institutions or continuing education courses accredited by a national or applicable regional accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education, or accredited or approved by a California state agency for that education, are exempted from this section. Also exempted from this section are remedial and tutorial education, as determined by the council, any education which is offered at a total charge of less than three hundred dollars ($300) and which makes no employment or job opportunity claims, as determined by the council, and any education offered by nonprofit entities, including national or statewide professional and occupational organizations and public benefit corporations.

SEC. 11. Section 94320 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94320. No institution, or representative of that institution shall:

(a) Operate in this state a postsecondary or vocational educational institution not exempted from this chapter, unless the institution is currently approved to operate pursuant to this chapter.

(b) Offer, as or through an agent, enrollment or instruction in, or the granting of educational credentials from, an institution not exempted from this chapter, whether that institution is within or outside this state, unless that agent is a natural person and has a currently valid agent's permit issued pursuant to this chapter, nor accept contracts or enrollment applications from an agent who does not have a current permit as required by this chapter, provided, that the council may adopt rules and regulations to permit the rendering of legitimate public information services without a permit.

(c) Instruct or educate, or offer to instruct or educate, including soliciting for those purposes, enroll or offer to enroll, contract or offer to contract with any person for that purpose, or award any educational credential, or contract with any institution or party to perform any act, in this state, whether that person, agent, group, or entity is located within or without this state, unless that person, agent, group, or entity observes and is in compliance with the minimum standards set forth in Section 94312 or Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 94316), whichever is applicable, the criteria established by the council pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 94305, and the rules and regulations adopted by the council pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 94305.

(d) Use, or allow the use of, any reproduction or facsimile of the Great Seal of the State of California on any diploma.

(e) Make, or cause to be made, any statement, or representation, oral, written, or visual, in connection with the offering or publicizing of a course, if that person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation knows, or reasonably should have known, the statement or representation to be false, deceptive, inaccurate, or misleading.

(f) Promise or guarantee employment.

(g) Advertise concerning job availability, degree of skill and length of time required to learn a trade or skill unless the information is accurate and in no way misleading.

(h) Advertise, or indicate in any promotional material, that correspondence instruction, or correspondence courses of study are offered without including in all advertising or promotional material the fact that the instruction or courses of study are offered by correspondence or home study.

(i) Advertise, or indicate in any promotional material, that resident instruction, or courses of study are offered without including in all advertising or promotional material the location where the training is given or the location of the resident instruction.

(j) Solicit students for enrollment by causing any advertisement to be published in "help wanted" columns in any magazine, newspaper, or publication or use "blind" advertising which fails to identify the school or institution.

(k) Advertise, or indicate in any promotional material, that the institution is accredited, unless the institution has been recognized or approved as meeting the standards established by an accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education or the Committee of Bar Examiners of the State of California.

(l) State or imply that the council's grant to the institution of approval to operate indicates that the institution exceeds minimum state standards, or that the council or the state endorses or recommends the institution.

(m) Fail to comply with federal requirements relating to the disclosure of information to students regarding vocational and career training programs, as described in subdivision (i) of Section 94312.

SEC. 12. The heading of Article 5 (commencing with Section 94330) of Chapter 3 of Part 59 of the Education Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 4. Applications and Causes for Denial

SEC. 12.5. Section 94330 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94330. (a) Each institution desiring to operate in this state shall make application to the council, upon forms to be provided by the council. The application shall include, as a minimum, at least the following:

(1) A catalog published or proposed to be published by the institution containing the information specified in the criteria adopted by the council. The catalog shall include specific dates as to when the catalog applies.

(2) A description of the institution's placement assistance, if any.

(3) Copies of media advertising and promotional literature.

(4) Copies of all student enrollment agreement or contract forms and instruments evidencing indebtedness.

(5) Copies of participation agreements for state and federal financial aid programs.

(6) The name and California address of a designated agent upon whom any process, notice, or demand may be served.

(7) The information specified in Section 94312.2.

(8) The institutions most current profit and loss statement and current balance sheet, or an audit prepared by a licensed certified public accountant in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

(b) Each application shall be signed and certified under oath by the owners of the school, or where the school is incorporated, by the principal owners of the school (those who own at least 10 percent of the stock), or by the governing body of a nonprofit school.

(c) Following review of the application and any other further information submitted by the applicant, or required in conformity with Sections 94310 and 94311, and any investigation of the applicant as the council may deem necessary or appropriate, the council shall either grant or deny approval to operate to the applicant.

(d) The council shall review and investigate all institutions and courses of instruction approved under this chapter. Consideration in the scheduling of reviews and investigations shall be afforded to student complaints and information collected by the Attorney General, the Student Aid Commission, any board within the Department of Consumer Affairs, or any other federal, state, or local agency.

(e) The approval to operate shall be issued to the owner or the governing body of the applicant institution, and shall be nontransferable. Any person, partnership, or corporation that makes a proper application and complies with this chapter and each standard, rule, and regulation pertaining to this chapter shall be qualified to receive an approval to operate or an approval of the transfer of ownership.

(f) In the event that a shift in control or change of ownership of an institution occurs, an application for a new approval to operate for the institution under the changed ownership or control shall be filed with the council at least 20 days prior to the shift in control or change in ownership. Whenever an owner, partnership, or corporation operates an institution at different locations, an application for approval shall be filed for each location.

(g) No application for ownership or transfer of ownership shall be approved for any applicant that has been previously found in any judicial or administrative proceeding to have violated this chapter, or if there exists any of the grounds for denial set forth in Section 480 of the Business and Professions Code.

(h) No change in ownership of the institution shall be made until the application is approved. If an application for a new approval to operate is not timely filed as required by this section, the institution's approval to operate shall terminate. Upon approval of a change in ownership, the council shall give written notice to the Student Aid Commission.

(i) For the purposes of this section, a change in ownership occurs when there is a change of control of the institution, or where a person, partnership, or corporation which did not previously own at least 25 percent of the stock or controlling interest of an institution or its parent corporation, acquires ownership of at least 25 percent of the stock of the institution or its parent corporation.

(j) At least 60 days prior to the expiration of an approval to operate, the institution shall complete and file with the council an application form for renewal of its approval to operate. The renewal application shall be reviewed and acted upon as provided in this section.

(k) The council may refuse to issue or renew any private postsecondary or vocational educational institution's approval to operate, or may revoke any approval to operate for any one, or any combination, of the following causes:

(1) A violation of this chapter, or any standard, rule, or regulation established under this chapter.

(2) Furnishing false, misleading, or incomplete information to the council, or the failure to furnish information requested by the council or required by this chapter.

(3) A finding that an owner, person in control, director, or officer of an institution is not in compliance with Section 94311.5, 94316.6, or 94316.8, whichever are applicable.

(4) A finding that a signatory to an application for an approval to operate was responsible for the closure of any institution in which there were unpaid liabilities to the state or federal government, or uncompensated pecuniary losses suffered by students without restitution.

(5) The failure of the institution to maintain the minimum educational standards prescribed by this chapter, or to maintain standards which are the same as, or substantially equivalent to, those represented in the school's applications and advertising.

(6) Presenting to prospective students information which is false or misleading relating to the school, to employment opportunities, or to enrollment opportunities in institutions of higher learning after entering into or completing courses offered by the school.

(7) The failure to maintain financial resources adequate for the satisfactory conduct of the courses of instruction offered as required by statute.

(8) The failure to provide timely and correct refunds to students.

(9) Paying a commission or valuable consideration to any persons for acts or services in violation of this chapter.

(10) Attempting to confer a degree, diploma, or certificate to any student in violation of this chapter.

(11) Misrepresenting to any students or prospective students that they are qualified, upon completion of any course, for admission to professional examination under any state occupational licensing provision.

(12) The failure to correct any deficiency or act of noncompliance under this chapter, or the standards, rules, regulations, and orders established and adopted under this chapter within reasonable time limits set by the council.

(13) The conducting of business or instructional services at any location not approved by the council.

(14) Failure on the part of an institution to comply with provisions of law or regulations governing sanitary conditions of that institution specified in Division 2 (commencing with Section 500) and Division 3 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Business and Professions Code.

If there is reasonable cause to believe that there has been a violation by a private postsecondary or vocational educational institution of the standards prescribed by this chapter, the council shall conduct an investigation of the institution.

(l) Proceedings in connection with the denial of an application to operate or the revocation of an approval to operate shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of the Government Code, and the council shall have all of the powers granted in that chapter. Any action by the council to place an institution on probation, shall be subject to appeal to the full council, and the council shall establish procedures which provide the institution with adequate notice and an opportunity to be heard and to present evidence as to why the action recommended by staff or by a visiting committee shall not be taken.

(m) Upon taking any action to suspend or revoke an institution's approval to operate, the council shall provide written notice to the Student Aid Commission and to any appropriate accrediting association.

(n) A college or university operating under paragraph (5) of subdivision (t) of Section 94302 shall annually file with the council evidence to demonstrate its status as a nonprofit religious corporation under the Corporations Code.

SEC. 13. The heading of Article 6 (commencing with Section 94331) of Chapter 3 of Part 59 of the Education Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 5. Fees

SEC. 13.5. Section 94331.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94331.5. Until the council establishes the fee schedule required by Section 94331, the following fee schedule shall govern the fees to be paid by private institutions operating under this chapter:

(a) For an approval to issue specified degrees pursuant to Section 94310:

(1) Four thousand five hundred dollars ($4,500) for an institution's original application.

(2) An amount not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for an institution's annual fee.

(3) Two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for an institution's additional degree title.

(4) Four thousand five hundred dollars ($4,500) for a change of ownership.

(5) Three hundred dollars ($300) for a change of location.

(b) For an approval to issue diplomas or offer courses pursuant to Section 94311:

(1) (A) One thousand dollars ($1,000) for a new institution.

(B) Five hundred dollars ($500) for a new institution of an administrative family.

(C) Four hundred twenty-five dollars ($425) for a new institution of a nonprofit public benefit corporation, organized pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, if that education is limited to instruction in employment and skill training and if it is offered at no charge to those persons receiving that education.

(2) One thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200) for an institution's annual fee if the institution does not participate in publicly funded student financial assistance programs and enrolls more than 150 students each year. Six hundred dollars ($600) for an institution's annual fee if the institution does not participate in publicly funded student financial assistance programs and enrolls 150 or fewer students each year. Two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for an institution's annual fee if the institution does participate in publicly funded student financial assistance programs and enrolls more than 150 students each year. One thousand six hundred dollars ($1,600) for an institution's annual fee if the institution does participate in publicly funded student financial assistance programs and enrolls 150 or fewer students each year.

(3) One thousand dollars ($1,000) for an institution's change of ownership.

(4) Two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for an institution's change of location.

(c) For a filing by an ownership to offer career-related education pursuant to Section 94315: seven hundred dollars ($700) for an original filing, and two hundred seventy dollars ($270) for an annual fee.

(d) For a private school agent's permit pursuant to Section 94333: one hundred dollars ($100) for an original application, and fifty-one dollars ($51) for an annual fee, per applicant.

(e) For agencies with three or fewer employees:

(1) Seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) for an original application.

(2) Five hundred dollars ($500) for the agency's annual fee.

(3) Five hundred dollars ($500) for the agency's change of ownership.

(f) For agencies with four or more employees:

(1) One thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) for an original application.

(2) One thousand dollars ($1,000) for the agency's annual fee.

(3) One thousand dollars ($1,000) for the agency's change of ownership.

(g) For purposes of this section, "administrative family" is a designation granted by the council to two or more institutions under common ownership, if the ownership maintains centralized administration, records, and reporting at one California location, and has at least a five-year history of private postsecondary education operations in California.

(h) For evaluation of an applicant for a certificate of authorization for service, issued pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 94311, the original and renewal applications for a three-year authorization shall be accompanied by a fifty-five dollar ($55) fee.

(i) Any institution more than 30 days delinquent in the payment of any fee may be assessed a penalty fee by the council. The council shall determine the penalty fees through regulations.

SEC. 14. Section 94333 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94333. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter concerning agents, the owner of at least 51 percent of the equitable interest in an institution shall be exempt from this section if the institution is approved to operate pursuant to Section 94310 or 94311.

No person may act as an agent, as defined by subdivision (d) of Section 94302, unless that person holds a valid permit issued by the council and maintains at all times a surety bond as described in paragraph (2). Administrators or faculty, or both, who make informational public appearances, but whose primary task is not to serve as a paid recruiter, are exempted from this section.

The application for a permit shall be furnished by the council and shall include the following:

(1) A statement signed by the applicant that he or she has read the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto.

(2) A surety bond issued by an admitted surety insurer in favor of the State of California for the indemnification of any person for any loss suffered as a result of the occurrence, during the period of coverage, of any fraud or misrepresentation used in connection with the solicitation for the sale or the sale of any course of study, or as a result of any violation of this chapter. The term of the bond shall extend over the period of the permit. The bond may be supplied by the institution or by the person for whom the issuance of the permit is sought and may extend to cover individuals separately or to provide blanket coverage for all persons to be engaged as representatives of the institution. The bond shall provide for liability in the penal sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each agent to whom coverage is extended by its terms. Neither the principal nor surety on a bond may terminate the coverage of the bond, except upon giving 30 days' prior written notice to the council, and contemporaneously surrendering the agent's permit. Liability on the bond may be enforced after a hearing before the council, after 30 days advance written notice to the principal and surety. The council shall adopt regulations establishing the procedure for administrative enforcement of liability. This paragraph supplements, but does not supplant, any other rights or remedies to enforce liability on the bond.

(3) A fee as required by Section 94331.

(b) An agent representing more than one institution shall obtain a separate agent's permit and bond for each institution represented.

(c) No person shall be issued a permit if he or she has been previously found in any judicial or administrative proceeding to have violated this chapter, or there exists any of the grounds for denial set forth in Section 480 of the Business and Professions Code.

(d) A permit shall be valid for the calendar year in which it is issued, unless sooner revoked or suspended by the council for fraud or misrepresentation in connection with the solicitation for the sale of any course of study, for any violation of this chapter, or for the existence of any condition in respect to the permittee or the school he or she represents which, if in existence at the time the permit was issued, would have been grounds for denial of the permit.

(e) The permittee shall carry the permit with him or her for identification purposes when engaged in the solicitation of sales and the selling of courses of study away from the premises of the school, and shall produce the permit for inspection upon the request of any person.

(f) Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code shall apply to any determination of the council made pursuant to this section.

(g) The issuance of a permit pursuant to this section shall not be interpreted as, and it shall be unlawful for any individual holding any permit to expressly or impliedly represent by any means whatever, that the council has made any evaluation, recognition, accreditation, or endorsement of any course of study being offered for sale by the individual.

(h) It shall be unlawful for any individual holding a permit under this section to expressly or impliedly represent, by any means whatsoever, that the issuance of the permit constitutes an assurance by the council that any course of study being offered for sale by the individual will provide and require of the student a course of education or training necessary to reach a professional, educational, or vocational objective, or will result in employment or personal earnings for the student.

(i) No agent shall make any untrue or misleading statement or engage in sales, collection, credit, or other practices of any type that are false, deceptive, misleading, or unfair.

(j) The council shall maintain records for five years of each application for a permit, each bond, and each issuance, denial, termination, suspension, and revocation of a temporary permit or permit.

(k) A student may bring an action for an agent's violation of this chapter or any fraud or misrepresentation and, upon prevailing, shall be entitled to the recovery of damages, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs. If a court finds that the violation was willfully committed, the court shall, in addition to the award of damages, award a civil penalty of up to two times the amount of damages sustained by the student.

(l) Any person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by both.

SEC. 15. Section 94334 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94334. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (g), any agency, as defined by subdivision (b) of Section 94302, shall be required to hold a valid authorization issued by the council. The application for an authorization shall include all of the following:

(1) A current financial statement prepared by a California licensed certified public accountant who is not an employee, officer, or director of the institution.

(2) Evidence of a surety bond issued in favor of the State of California by an admitted surety insurer making provision for indemnification of any person for any loss suffered as a result of the occurrence, during the period of coverage, of any fraud or misrepresentation used in connection with the solicitation for the sale or the sale of any course of study, or as a result of any violation of this chapter. The term of the bond shall extend over the period of the authorization. The bond shall provide for liability in the penal sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) for each agency to which coverage is extended by its terms. Neither the principal nor surety on a bond may terminate the coverage of the bond except upon giving 30 days' prior written notice to the council, and upon contemporaneously surrendering the agency's authorization to operate. Liability on the bond may be enforced after a hearing before the council, after 30 days advance written notice to the principal and surety. The council shall adopt regulations establishing the procedure for administrative enforcement of liability. This paragraph supplements, but does not supplant, any other rights or remedies to enforce liability on the bond.

(3) A copy of the student disclosure statement to be read and signed by all prospective students referred to institutions by an agency. The student disclosure statement shall include, but shall not be limited to, all of the following:

(A) A statement to the effect that no promise of employment has been made by the agency.

(B) A statement to the effect that repayment of any debt incurred by a student in connection with his or her education will be the sole responsibility of the student.

(C) The amount and terms of any fee to be paid by the student to the agency.

(D) A verbatim statement, as follows:

Any questions or problems concerning this agency should be directed to the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education, Sacramento, California 95814.

(E) A statement to the effect that the institution or institutions to which the prospective student is referred by the agency have the obligation to make available to the student a catalog or brochure containing information describing all of the following:

(i) The courses offered.

(ii) Program objectives.

(iii) Length of program.

(iv) The faculty and their qualifications.

(v) Schedule of tuition, fees, and all other charges and expenses necessary for the completion of the course of study.

(vi) Cancellation and refund policies.

(vii) Total cost of tuition over the period needed to complete the student's education.

(viii) For vocational training programs, placement data, including program completion rates, placement rates, and starting salaries.

(ix) Other material facts concerning the institution and the program or course of instruction that are reasonably likely to affect the decision of the student to enroll in the institution.

(4) Identification of all employees of the agency and their titles, and of all agents with whom the agency contracts.

(5) Identification of all owners and if the entity is a corporation of the identification of all persons possessing an interest equal to, or in excess, of 10 percent.

(6) Identification of all vendors of educational services for which the agency provides recruitment services.

(7) A signed statement by the applicant that all employees engaged in recruitment activities will be required to read Sections 94320 and 94321 and, if the institution for which the agency recruits is subject to Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 94316), Sections 94316.3 and 94316.4.

(b) Within 30 days of receipt of a completed application and prior to issuance of an authorization a representative of the council shall inspect the applicant agency and verify the application. Within 30 days of the inspection the council shall issue the authorization for a one-year period, subject to annual renewal at the end of that period, or deny the application. The council shall deny the authorization if the agency or any owner, officer, or director of the agency has previously been found in any judicial or administrative proceeding to have violated this chapter, or if there exists any of the grounds for denial set forth in Section 480 of the Business and Professions Code.

(c) Any employee of an authorized agency engaged in student recruitment activities of an authorized agency is exempt from the bond requirements of Section 94333.

(d) Neither the agency nor any of its employees shall make any untrue or misleading statement in the course of any solicitation or recruitment activity or engage in the sales, collection, credit, or other practices of any type that are false, deceptive, misleading, or unfair.

(e) An agency or an employee of an agency shall provide a prospective student with the disclosure statement described in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) and shall allow the prospective student a sufficient opportunity to read it before soliciting or recruiting him or her for enrollment or referring him or her to an institution. That disclosure statement shall be printed in 10-point type in English and, if the solicitation, recruitment, or referral is to be conducted in language other than English, in that other language.

(f) Any institution approved under this chapter shall cease any and all recruitment activities involving the agency upon action by the council to revoke or deny an agency authorization. Failure of the institution to do so upon presentation of notice of the council's action shall be cause to deny or revoke any approval held by that institution.

(g) This section shall not apply to any agency recruiting solely for institutions described in Section 94310.

(h) The council shall maintain records for five years of each application for an authorization, each verification by the council of an application, each bond, and each denial, issuance, and revocation of an authorization.

(i) A student may bring any action against any agency if the agency or an employee of the agency violates this chapter or commits any fraud or misrepresentation and, upon prevailing, shall be entitled to the recovery of damages, reasonable attorney's fees, and costs. If a court finds that the violation was willfully committed, the court shall, in addition to the award of damages, award a civil penalty of up to two times the amount of damages sustained by the student.

(j) Any person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by both.

SEC. 15.5. Section 94336 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94336. (a) Any person or business entity, regardless of the form of organization, that willfully violates Section 94312 or 94320 is guilty of a crime and shall be subject to separate punishment for each violation either by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both, or by imprisonment in the state prison, by a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or by both.

(b) Notwithstanding any other law, any prosecution under this section shall be commenced within three years of the discovery of the facts constituting grounds for commencing the prosecution.

(c) The penalties provided by this section supplement, but do not supplant, the remedies and penalties provided under other law.

SEC. 16. Section 94342 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94342. (a) The council shall establish and maintain a Student Tuition Recovery Fund, with a degree-granting postsecondary educational institution account and a vocational educational institution account, for the purpose of relieving or mitigating pecuniary losses suffered by any California resident who is a student of an approved institution and who meets either of the following conditions:

(1) The student was enrolled in an institution prior to the institution's closure, prepaid tuition, and suffered loss as a result of (A) the closure of the institution, (B) the institution's breach or anticipatory breach of the agreement for the course of instruction, or (C) a decline in the quality or value of the course of instruction within the 30-day period before the institution's closure or, if the decline began before that period, the period of decline determined by the council. For the purpose of this section "closure" includes closure of a branch or satellite campus, the termination of either the correspondence or residence portion of a home study or correspondence course, and the termination of a course of instruction for some or all of the students enrolled in the course before the time these students were originally scheduled to complete it, or before a student who has been continuously enrolled in a course of instruction has been permitted to complete all the educational services and classes that comprise the course.

(2) The student obtained a judgment against the institution for any violation of this chapter and the student certifies that the judgment cannot be collected after diligent collection efforts.

(b) Payments from the fund to any student shall be made from the appropriate account with the fund, as determined by the type of institution into which the student has paid his or her fees, and shall be subject to any regulations and conditions as the council shall prescribe.

(c) (1) The institution shall provide to the council at the time of the institution's closure the names and addresses of persons who were students of an institution within 60 days prior to its closure, and shall notify these students, within 30 days of the institution's closure, of their rights under the Student Tuition Recovery Fund and how to apply for payment. If the institution fails to comply with this subdivision, the council shall attempt to obtain the names and addresses of these students and shall notify them, within 90 days of the institution's closure, of their rights under the Student Tuition Recovery Fund and how to apply for payment.

The council shall develop a form in English and Spanish fully explaining a student's rights, which shall be used by the institution or the council to comply with this paragraph. The form shall include or be accompanied by a claim application and an explanation of how to complete the application.

(2) If an institution fails to comply with paragraph (1), the council shall order the institution, or any person responsible for the failure to provide notice as required by paragraph (1), to reimburse the council for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in notifying students as required in paragraph (1). In addition, the council may impose a penalty of up to five thousand dollars ($5,000) against the institution and any person found responsible for the failure to provide notice. The amount of the penalty shall be based on the degree of culpability and the ability to pay. Any order may impose joint and several liability. Before any order is made pursuant to this paragraph, the council shall provide written notice to the institution and any person from whom the council seeks recovery of the council's claim and of the right to request a hearing within 30 days of the service of the notice. If a hearing is not requested within 30 days of service of the notice, the council may order payment in the amount of the claim. If a hearing is requested, the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code apply, and the council shall have all of the powers therein-prescribed. Within 30 days after the effective date of the issuance of an order, the council may enforce the order in the same manner as if it were a money judgment pursuant to Title 9 (commencing with Section 680.010) of Part 1 of the Code of Civil Procedure. All penalties and reimbursements paid pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Private Postsecondary Education Administration Fund established pursuant to Section 94331 or any successor fund.

(d) (1) Students entitled to payment as provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) shall file with the council a verified application indicating each of the following:

(A) The student's name, address, telephone number, and social security number.

(B) If any portion of the tuition was paid from the proceeds of a loan, the name of the lender and any state or federal agency that guaranteed or reinsured the loan.

(C) The amount of the prepaid tuition, the amount and description of the student's economic loss, and the amount of the student's claim.

(D) The date the student started and ceased attending the institution.

(E) A description of the reasons the student ceased attending the institution.

(F) If the student ceased attending because of a breach or anticipatory breach or because of the decline in the quality or value of the course of instruction as described in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), a statement describing in detail the nature of the economic loss incurred. The application shall be filed within one year of the council's service on the student of the notice described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) or, if no notice is served, within four years of the institution's closure.

(2) Students entitled to payment as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall file with the council a verified application indicating the student's name, address, telephone number, and social security number, the amount of the judgment obtained against the institution, a statement that the judgment cannot be collected, and a description of the efforts attempted to enforce the judgment. The application shall be accompanied by a copy of the judgment and any other documents indicating the student's efforts made to enforce the judgment.

The application shall be filed within two years after the date upon which the judgment became final.

(3) The council may require additional information designed to facilitate payment to entitled students. The council shall relieve a student from the requirement to provide all of the information required by this subdivision if the council has the information or the information is not reasonably necessary for the resolution of a student's claim.

(e) Within 60 days of the council's receipt of a completed application for payment, the council shall pay the claim from the Student Tuition Recovery Fund or deny the claim. The council may, for good cause, extend the time period for up to an additional 90 days to investigate the accuracy of the claim.

(f) If the council pays the claim, the amount of the payment shall be the total amount of the student's economic loss, notwithstanding the amount of the refund to which the student would have been entitled after a voluntary withdrawal, although the amount of the payment shall in no event exceed the amount of the student's tuition and the cost of equipment and materials related to the course of instruction plus interest on all student loans used to pay for tuition, equipment, and materials. Upon payment of the claim, the council shall be subrogated to all of the student's rights against the institution to the extent of the amount of the payment.

(g) If the council denies the claim, the council shall notify the student of the denial and of the student's right to request a hearing within 60 days or any longer period permitted by the council. If a hearing is not requested within 60 days or any additional period reasonably requested by the student, the council's decision shall be final. If a hearing is requested, the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code shall apply.

It is the intent of the Legislature that, when a student is enrolled in an institution that closes prior to the completion of the student's program, the student shall have the option for a teach-out at another institution approved by the council. The council shall seek to promote teach-out opportunities wherever possible, with the student to be informed by the council that he or she has the option of either a payment from the fund or a teach-out.

(h) This section applies to all claims filed or pending after January 1, 1990.

SEC. 17. Section 94344 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94344. (a) The governing board or other governing authority of any private California postsecondary or vocational educational institution shall adopt regulations providing for the withholding of institutional services from students or former students who have been notified, in writing, at the student's or former student's last known address, that he or she is in default on a loan or loans under either of the following loan programs:

(1) The Stafford Student Loan program.

(2) The Supplemental Loans for Students program.

"Default," as used in this section, means the failure of a borrower to make an installment payment when due, or to meet other terms of the promissory note under circumstances where the guarantee agency finds it reasonable to conclude that the borrower no longer intends to honor the obligation to repay, provided that this failure persists for 180 days for a loan repayable in monthly installments, or 240 days for a loan repayable in less frequent installments.

(b) The regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) shall provide that the services withheld may be provided during a period when the facts are in dispute and when the student or former student demonstrates to either the governing board or other appropriate governing authority of the institution, or the Student Aid Commission and the appropriate entity or its designee, that reasonable progress has been made to repay the loan or that there exists a reasonable justification for the delay as determined by the institution. The regulations shall specify the services to be withheld from the student and may include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) The provision of grades.

(2) The provision of transcripts.

(3) The provision of diplomas.

The adopted regulations shall not include the withholding of registration privileges.

(c) When it has been determined that an individual is in default on a loan or loans under either of the loan programs specified in subdivision (a), the Student Aid Commission shall give notice of the default to all institutions through which that individual acquired the loan or loans.

(d) Guarantors, or those who act as their agents or act under their control, who provide information to institutions pursuant to this section, shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the governing board or other governing authority of the institutions from action resulting from compliance with this section when the action arises as a result of incorrect, misleading, or untimely information provided to the institution by the guarantors, their agents, or those acting under the control of the guarantors.

SEC. 18. Section 94346 is added to the Education Code, to read:

94346. (a) Commencing on January 31, 1992, and on or before January 31 of each calendar year thereafter, the council shall submit a written report to the Legislature and to the California Postsecondary Education Commission summarizing its activities of the previous calendar year.

(b) Annual reports prepared pursuant to this section shall include, but shall not necessarily be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Timely information relating to the enforcement activities of the council pursuant to this chapter.

(2) Statistics providing a composite picture of the private postsecondary educational community, including data on how many schools, as classified by subject matter, and how many students there are, within the scope of the activities of the council.

SEC. 19. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates certain amendments to Section 94302 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989 proposed by both this bill and SB 2424. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted before January 1, 1991, (2) each bill amends Section 94302 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 2424, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1480

An act to amend Section 94302 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, relating to postsecondary education.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 94302 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94302. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Accredited" means that an institution has been recognized or approved as meeting the standards established by an accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education, or the Committee of Bar Examiners for the State of California. It shall not include those institutions that have applied for accreditation, or are identified by accrediting associations as candidates for accreditation or have provisional accreditation.

(b) "Agency" means a business entity established for the purpose of recruiting students for enrollment in a private postsecondary or vocational school, as defined in this chapter, and any other business entity engaged in that activity with the exception of the educational institution itself.

(c) "Agency approval" means a written document issued by the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education authorizing a business entity or an institution to engage in the recruitment of students for enrollment in private postsecondary and vocational institutions approved under this chapter.

(d) "Agent" means any person who, at a place away from the institution's premises or site of instruction, for consideration, solicits, promotes, advertises, offers, or attempts to secure enrollment for an institution, refers any person to an institution either for enrollment or to receive a solicitation for enrollment, or accepts application fees or admissions fees for education in an institution. Administrators and faculty who make informational public appearances, but whose primary task does not include service as a paid recruiter, are exempted from this definition.

(e) "Agent's permit" means a nontransferable written document issued to an agent pursuant to the provisions of this chapter by the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education.

(f) "Applicant" means a new institution that has submitted an application but has not been evaluated by the council. An applicant institution shall not enroll students or offer educational services.

(g) "Approval" or "approval to operate" means that the council has determined and certified that an institution meets minimum standards established by the council for integrity, financial stability, and educational quality, including the offering of bona fide instruction by qualified faculty and the appropriate assessment of students' achievement prior to, during, and at the end of its program. It is the intent of the Legislature that the minimum standards for approval for degree granting institutions established by the council shall not exceed the accreditation standards adopted by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

(h) "Branch campus" means any campus, satellite facility, extension classroom, office, or location affiliated with an educational institution, other than the main campus or primary administrative location of the institution, in which students complete, while in residence, all or any part of a program of instruction.

(i) "Candidate" or "candidate for approval" means that a new college or university has been evaluated by the council and is found to comply with the council's minimum standards.

(j) "Certificate of authorization for service" means a written, nontransferable document issued by the council authorizing an individual to be an instructor or administrator in any private vocational educational institution in California which is approved under subdivision (a) of Section 94311.

(k) "Correspondence school" or "home study school" means any institution that provides correspondence lessons for study and completion by a student at a location separate from the institution, including those institutions which offer that instruction by correspondence in combination with in-residence instruction.

(l) "Council" means the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education established pursuant to Section 94304.

(m) "Degree" means any "academic degree" or "honorary degree" or title of any designation, mark, appellation, series of letters or words such as, but not limited to, associate, bachelor, master, doctor, or fellow which signifies, purports, or is generally taken to signify satisfactory completion of the requirements of an academic, educational, technological, or professional program of study beyond the secondary school level or is an honorary title conferred for recognition of some meritorious achievement.

(n) "Diploma" means any "diploma," "certificate," "transcript," "document," or other writing in any language other than a degree which signifies, purports, or is generally taken to signify satisfactory completion of the requirements of an academic, educational, technological, or professional program of study beyond the secondary school level.

(o) "Education," or "education services," or "educational program" includes, but is not limited to, any class, course, or programs of training, instruction, or study.

(p) "Institutional approval" means an institution that has been evaluated by the council and has been found to be in compliance with the council's standards.

(q) "Instruction" includes any specific, formal arrangement by an institution or its enrollees to participate in learning experiences in which the institution's faculty or contracted instructors present a planned curriculum appropriate to the enrollee's educational program.

(r) "Out-of-state school" means any private postsecondary or vocational educational institution offering career or job training programs, including both an in-residence institution and a home study institution which has its place of instruction or its principal location outside the boundaries of the state, or which offers or conducts courses of instruction or subjects on premises maintained by the school outside the boundaries of the state, or which provides correspondence or home study lesson materials from a location outside the boundaries of this state, or which evaluates completed lesson materials or otherwise conducts its evaluation service from a location outside the boundaries of this state, or which otherwise offers or provides California students with courses of instruction or subjects through activities engaged in or conducted outside the boundaries of the state.

(s) "Private postsecondary educational institution" or "institution" means any person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation doing business in California by offering to the public for a tuition, fee, or other charge, instructional or educational services or training in any academic, technical, professional, mechanical, business, or industrial occupation, either in the recipient's home, at a designated location, or by mail.

(t) "Private vocational educational institution" means any person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation doing business in California by offering to the public, for a tuition fee, or other charge, career or job training programs in any technical, professional, mechanical, business, or industrial occupation, and issuing diplomas or certificates to individuals who complete that program. The following are not considered to be private postsecondary or vocational educational institutions under this chapter:

(1) Institutions exclusively offering instruction at any or all levels from preschool through the 12th grade.

(2) Education solely avocational or recreational in nature, and institutions offering this education exclusively.

(3) Education sponsored by a bona fide trade, business, professional, or fraternal organization, solely for that organization's membership.

(4) Postsecondary or vocational educational institutions established, operated, and governed by the federal government or by this state, or its political subdivisions.

(5) A nonprofit institution owned, controlled, and operated and maintained by a bona fide church or religious denomination, lawfully operating as a nonprofit religious corporation pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 9110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, if the education is limited to instructions in the principles of that church or denomination, or to courses offered pursuant to Section 2789 of the Business and Professions Code, and the diploma or degree is limited to evidence of completion of that education, and the meritorious recognition upon which any honorary degree is conferred is limited to the principles of that church or denomination. Institutions operating under the provisions of this paragraph shall offer degrees and diplomas only in the beliefs and practices of the denomination, church, or religion. The enactment of this paragraph expresses legislative intent that the state shall not involve itself in the content of degree programs awarded by any institution operating under the provisions of this paragraph, as long as the institution awards degrees and diplomas only in areas specified in the previous sentence. Institutions operating under the provisions of this paragraph shall not award degrees in any area of physical science. Any degree or diploma granted in any area of study under these provisions must contain on its face, in the written description of the title of the degree being conferred, a reference to the theological or religious aspect of the degree's subject area. The enactment of this paragraph is intended to prevent any entity claiming to be a nonprofit institution owned, controlled, and operated and maintained by a bona fide church or religious denomination, lawfully operating as a nonprofit religious corporation pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 9110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, from marketing and granting degrees or diplomas which are represented as being linked to their church or denomination but which, in reality, are degrees in secular areas of study.

(u) "To offer" includes, in addition to its usual meanings, advertising, publicizing, soliciting, or encouraging any person, directly or indirectly, in any form, to perform the act described.

(v) "To operate" an educational institution, or like term, means to establish, keep, or maintain any facility or location in this state where, or from or through which, educational services are offered or educational degrees or diplomas are offered or granted.

SEC. 1.5. Section 94302 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

94302. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Accredited" means that an institution has been recognized or approved as meeting the standards established by an accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education, or the Committee of Bar Examiners for the State of California. It shall not include those institutions that have applied for accreditation, or are identified by accrediting associations as candidates for accreditation or have provisional accreditation.

(b) "Agency" means any person or business entity regardless of the form of organization, that employs or in any manner contracts with one or more agents. "Agency" does not include an institution.

(c) "Agency approval" means a written document issued by the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education authorizing a business entity or an institution to engage in the recruitment of students for enrollment in private postsecondary and vocational institutions approved under this chapter.

(d) "Agent" means any person who, at a place away from the institution's premises or site of instruction, for consideration, solicits, promotes, advertises, offers, or attempts to secure enrollment for an institution, refers any person to an institution either for enrollment or to receive a solicitation for enrollment, or accepts application fees or admissions fees for education in an institution. Administrators and faculty who make informational public appearances, but whose primary task does not include service as a paid recruiter, are exempted from this definition.

(e) "Agent's permit" means a nontransferable written document issued to an agent pursuant to the provisions of this chapter by the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education.

(f) "Applicant" means a new institution that has submitted an application but has not been evaluated by the council. An applicant institution shall not enroll students or offer educational services.

(g) "Approval" or "approval to operate" means that the council has determined and certified that an institution meets minimum standards established by the council for integrity, financial stability, and educational quality, including the offering of bona fide instruction by qualified faculty and the appropriate assessment of students' achievement prior to, during, and at the end of its program.

(h) "Branch campus" means any campus, satellite facility, extension classroom, office, or location affiliated with an educational institution, other than the main campus or primary administrative location of the institution, in which students complete, while in physical residence, all or any part of a program of instruction.

(i) "Certificate of authorization for service" means a written, nontransferable document issued by the council authorizing an individual to be an instructor or administrator in any private vocational postsecondary educational institution in California which is approved under subdivision (a) of Section 94311.

(j) "Correspondence school" or "home study school" means any institution that provides correspondence lessons for study and completion by a student at a location separate from the institution, including those institutions which offer that instruction by correspondence in combination with in-residence instruction.

(k) "Council" means the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education established pursuant to Section 94304.

(l) "Course of study" means either a single course or a set of related courses for which a student enrolls.

(m) "Degree" means any "academic degree" or "honorary degree" or title of any designation, mark, appellation, series of letters or words such as, but not limited to, associate, bachelor, master, doctor, or fellow which signifies, purports, or is generally taken to signify satisfactory completion of the requirements of an academic, educational, technological, or professional program of study beyond the secondary school level or is an honorary title conferred for recognition of some meritorious achievement.

(n) "Diploma" means any "diploma," "certificate," "transcript," "document," or other writing in any language other than a degree which signifies, purports, or is generally taken to signify satisfactory completion of the requirements of an academic, educational, technological, or professional program of study beyond the secondary school level.

(o) "Education," or "education services," or "educational program" includes, but is not limited to, any class, course, or programs of training, instruction, or study.

(p) "Institution" means any private postsecondary educational institution.

(q) "Institutional approval" means an institution that has been evaluated by the council and has been found to be in compliance with the council's standards pursuant to this chapter.

(r) "Instruction" includes any specific, formal arrangement by an institution or its enrollees to participate in learning experiences in which the institution's faculty or contracted instructors present a planned curriculum appropriate to the enrollee's educational program.

(s) "Out-of-state school" means any private postsecondary or vocational educational institution offering career or job training programs, including both an in-residence institution and a home study institution which has its place of instruction or its principal location outside the boundaries of the state, or which offers or conducts courses of instruction or subjects on premises maintained by the school outside the boundaries of the state, or which provides correspondence or home study lesson materials from a location outside the boundaries of this state, or which evaluates completed lesson materials or otherwise conducts its evaluation service from a location outside the boundaries of this state, or which otherwise offers or provides California students with courses of instruction or subjects through activities engaged in or conducted outside the boundaries of the state.

(t) "Private postsecondary educational institution" means any person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation doing business in California by awarding degrees or by diplomas or offering to the public for a tuition, fee, or other charge, (1) instructional or educational services or training in any academic, technical, professional, mechanical, business, or industrial occupation, either in the recipient's home, at a designated location, or by mail, or (2) career or job training programs in any technical, professional, mechanical, business, or industrial occupation. The following are not considered to be private postsecondary educational institutions under this chapter:

(1) Institutions exclusively offering instruction at any or all levels from preschool through the 12th grade.

(2) Education solely avocational or recreational in nature, and institutions offering this education exclusively.

(3) Education sponsored by a bona fide trade, business, professional, or fraternal organization, solely for that organization's membership.

(4) Postsecondary or vocational educational institutions established, operated, and governed by the federal government or by this state, or its political subdivisions.

(5) A nonprofit institution owned, controlled, and operated and maintained by a bona fide church or religious denomination, lawfully operating as a nonprofit religious corporation pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 9110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, if the education is limited to instructions in the principles of that church or denomination, or to courses offered pursuant to Section 2789 of the Business and Professions Code, and the diploma or degree is limited to evidence of completion of that education, and the meritorious recognition upon which any honorary degree is conferred is limited to the principles of that church or denomination. Institutions operating under the provisions of this paragraph shall offer degrees and diplomas only in the beliefs and practices of the denomination, church, or religion. The enactment of this paragraph expresses legislative intent that the state shall not involve itself in the content of degree programs awarded by any institution operating under the provisions of this paragraph, as long as the institution awards degrees and diplomas only in areas specified in the previous sentence. Institutions operating under the provisions of this paragraph shall not award degrees in any area of physical science. Any degree or diploma granted in any area of study under these provisions must contain on its face, in the written description of the title of the degree being conferred, a reference to the theological or religious aspect of the degree's subject area. The enactment of this paragraph is intended to prevent any entity claiming to be a nonprofit institution owned, controlled, and operated and maintained by a bona fide church or religious denomination, lawfully operating as a nonprofit religious corporation pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 9110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, from marketing and granting degrees or diplomas which are represented as being linked to their church or denomination but which, in reality, are degrees in secular areas of study.

(u) "To offer" includes, in addition to its usual meanings, advertising, publicizing, soliciting, or encouraging any person, directly or indirectly, in any form, to perform the act described.

(v) "To operate" an educational institution, or like term, means to establish, keep, or maintain any facility or location in this state where, or from or through which, educational services are offered or educational degrees or diplomas are offered or granted.

SEC. 2. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates certain amendments to Section 94302 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989 proposed by both this bill and SB 194. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted before January 1, 1991, (2) each bill amends Section 94302 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1307 of the Statutes of 1989, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 194, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

An act to amend Sections 19533, 19549.4, 19567, 19605.7, 19605.71, 19605.73, 19606, 19612, 19612.1, 19612.2, and 19614.2 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19533 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19533. (a) Any license granted to an association other than a fair shall be only for one type of racing, thoroughbred, harness, or quarter horse racing as the case may be, except that the board may, by regulation, authorize the entering of thoroughbred and Appaloosa horses in quarter horse races at a distance not exceeding five furlongs at quarter horse meetings, mixed breed meetings, and fair meetings.

(b) If the board adopts regulations authorizing the entering of thoroughbred and Appaloosa horses in quarter horse races, the regulations shall provide that the association which conducts the meeting shall, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 19613, pay to the horsemen's organization representing thoroughbred horsemen an amount for administrative expense and services rendered to horsemen equivalent to 1.5 percent of the amount available to thoroughbred horses for purses, and an amount for a pension plan for backstretch personnel to be administered by that horsemen's organization equivalent to an additional 1 percent of the amount available to thoroughbred horses for purses. The remainder of the portion shall be distributed as purses. The regulations shall also provide that any redistributable money paid to the board pursuant to Section 19641 which is paid to a welfare fund established by a horsemen's organization from races with both thoroughbred and quarter horses be divided pro rata between the two welfare funds based on the number of thoroughbreds and quarter horses in the race. The regulations shall also provide that minor breeds of horses shall make up more than half the number of horses in the race.

SEC. 1.5. Section 19549.4 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 273 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

19549.4. Notwithstanding Section 19414.5, the board may allocate racing weeks consisting of fewer than five days to an association conducting a meeting pursuant to Section 19549.2, 19549.6, or 19549.9, if the association and the organization representing the horsemen participating in the meeting agree to the allocation.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 19567 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19567. (a) Since the purpose of this chapter is to encourage agriculture and the breeding of horses in this state, a sum equal to 10 percent of the first money of every purse won by a California-bred horse at a horserace meeting shall be paid by the licensee conducting the meeting to the breeder of the horse. This section applies to any California-bred standardbred horse that is foaled on or after November 1, 1977, for all races, except the California standardbred sires stakes races.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a sum equal to 10 percent of the first and second place money of every purse won by a California-bred Appaloosa or Arabian horse for first or second place at a horserace meeting shall be paid by the licensee conducting the meeting to the breeder of the horse.

(c) This section does not apply to thoroughbred horses or thoroughbred racing.

SEC. 3. Section 19605.7 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Chapter 131 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

19605.7. The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities in the northern zone shall be the same as the deductions for wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section until January 1, 1992. Amounts deducted under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(a) For thoroughbred meetings, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2, and four-tenths of 1 percent deposited with the official registering agency of California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(b) For harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, Arabian, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, and the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2. In addition, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6; in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas; in the case of Arabians, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Arabians; in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619; in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency of California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617; and one-tenth of 1 percent shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(c) In addition to the distributions specified in subdivision (a) or (b), for thoroughbred and fair meetings only, six-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the facility for promotion of that meeting's program. For harness, quarter horse, and mixed breed meetings, 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities.

(d) In addition to the distributions specified in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), for thoroughbred meetings, four-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled at each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the association providing the racing program to reimburse it for any costs of offsite stabling and vanning which are required pursuant to Section 19535. The amount of the reimbursement payable to an association for offsite stabling shall not exceed the actual cost to the association of maintaining stalls at its racetrack plus the actual costs incurred by the association to provide vanning and transportation of racehorses from offsite stabling facilities to its racetrack.

(e) In addition to the distributions specified in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), for fair meetings, four-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled at each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the organization representing racing fairs to reimburse fairs for the actual cost of providing offsite stabling required by the board pursuant to Section 19535. If fairs contract with associations to provide offsite stabling during fair meetings, the cost incurred by fairs shall not exceed the actual cost to the association of maintaining the stalls or the amount of reimbursement funds made available pursuant to this subdivision, whichever is less. In the event of a disagreement between an association and the organization representing racing fairs or the organization representing the majority of horsemen participating at the meeting with respect to the actual cost of maintaining stalls, the board, at the request of the association or the organization representing racing fairs or the organization representing the majority of horsemen participating at the meeting, shall determine within 60 days the amount of actual costs incurred. For purposes of this subdivision, "actual cost" does not include fixed overhead or administrative expenses which would be incurred by the association in the absence of an agreement to provide offsite stabling during fair meetings.

(f) Any of the promotional funds distributed pursuant to subdivision (c) that are not expended in the year in which they are collected may be expended in the following year. If promotion funds expended in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds expended in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount.

(g) Any of the stabling and vanning reimbursement funds distributed pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) that are not expended within 90 days of the end of the meeting at which they are collected shall be reallocated for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities, as provided in subdivision (c).

(h) Additionally, for thoroughbred, harness, quarter horse, mixed breed, and fair meetings, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 19605.71 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Chapter 131 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

19605.71. The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities in the central and southern zone shall be the same as the percentage deducted from wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section until January 1, 1992. Amounts deducted by a satellite wagering facility under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(a) For thoroughbred meetings, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2, and four-tenths of 1 percent deposited with the official registering agency for California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(b) For harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, Arabian, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, and the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2. In addition, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6; in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas; in the case of Arabians, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Arabians; in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619; in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency for California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617; and one-tenth of 1 percent shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(c) In addition, for thoroughbred meetings and harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1 percent shall be distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities. Any of the promotion funds that are not distributed in the year in which they are collected may be distributed in the following year. If promotion funds distributed in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds distributed in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount. Additionally, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5. Section 19605.73 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Chapter 131 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

19605.73. Commencing on January 1, 1992, the total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities in all zones shall be the same as the percentage deducted from wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted by a satellite wagering facility under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(a) For thoroughbred meetings, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2, and four-tenths of 1 percent deposited with the official registering agency of California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617, and one-tenth of 1 percent distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(b) For harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, Arabian, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, and 6 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2. In addition, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6; in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas; in the case of Arabians, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Arabians; in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619; in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency of California-bred thoroughbred racehorses for distribution pursuant to Section 19617; and one-tenth of 1 percent shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(c) In addition to the distributions specified in subdivisions (a) and (b), for thoroughbred meetings and harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities. Any of the promotion funds that are not distributed in the year in which they are collected may be distributed in the following year. If promotion funds distributed in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds distributed in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount. Additionally, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(d) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1992.

SEC. 6. Section 19606 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Chapter 131 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

19606. For harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, Arabian, mixed breed, and fair meetings, the funds remaining after the distribution of the amounts set forth in Sections 19605.7, 19605.71, and 19605.73 shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent to the horsemen participating in the racing meeting in the form of purses. However, owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

SEC. 7. Section 19612 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19612. (a) Except as otherwise provided, every association which conducts a quarter horse race meeting shall pay a daily license fee at the following rates based upon its daily conventional and exotic parimutuel handle, excluding wagering at a satellite wagering facility:

Daily Handle	License Fee Rate
$1,000,000 or less	1.5 percent of handle.
$1,000,001 and more	$15,000 plus 10.7 percent of the handle in excess of $1,000,001.

In addition, every association subject to this subdivision shall pay an additional license fee at the rate of 0.75 percent of its daily exotic parimutuel handle, excluding wagering at a satellite wagering facility. However, any harness association or its successor in interest which conducts a harness meeting on a track of one mile or longer shall retain that 0.75 percent as an additional commission. Except as provided in Section 19610.5, no such association shall pay a license fee in excess of 3.04 percent of the daily conventional parimutuel handle and 3.79 percent of the daily exotic parimutuel handle, excluding wagering at a satellite wagering facility.

(b) With respect to quarter horse meetings, all funds remaining from the deductions provided in Sections 19491, 19491.5, and 19610 after distribution of the applicable license fee, shall be distributed 55 percent as commissions and 45 percent as purses. With respect to harness meetings, except for meetings conducted pursuant to Section 19549.2, the funds remaining from deductions provided in Section 19610, after distribution of the applicable license fee, shall be distributed 59.5 percent as commissions and 40.5 percent as purses. For meetings conducted pursuant to Section 19549.2, the funds remaining from deductions provided in Section 19610, after distribution of the applicable license fee, shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions and 50 percent as purses.

(c) Except as otherwise provided, every association which conducts a harness horse race meeting shall pay a daily license fee at the following rates based upon its daily conventional and exotic parimutuel handle, excluding wagering at a satellite wagering facility:

Daily Handle	License Fee Rate
$550,000 or less	2.5 percent of handle.
$550,001 to $750,000	$13,750 plus 5.5 percent of the handle in excess of $550,001.
$750,001 and more	$24,750 plus 4.7 percent of the handle in excess of $750,001.

In addition, every association subject to this subdivision shall pay an additional license fee at the rate of 0.75 percent of its daily exotic parimutuel handle, excluding wagering at a satellite wagering facility. However, any harness association or its successor in interest which conducts a harness meeting on a track of one mile or longer shall retain that 0.75 percent as an additional commission. Except as provided in Section 19610.5, no association shall pay a license fee in excess of 3.8 percent of the daily conventional parimutuel handle, excluding wagering at a satellite wagering facility, and 4.55 percent of the daily exotic parimutuel handle, excluding wagering at a satellite wagering facility.

(d) Every harness association or any transferee or successor or subsequent transferee or successor of the business or assets of the association which: (1) conducts its racing meeting at the facilities of a county fair or a district agricultural association or (2) conducted its racing meeting in a single continuous period prior to January 1, 1979, and thereafter conducts a split racing meeting, shall pay a daily license fee based upon its daily conventional and exotic parimutuel handle, excluding wagering at a satellite wagering facility, in accordance with the following schedule:

Daily Handle	License Fee Rate
$1,000,000 or less	1.5 percent of handle.
$1,000,001 and more	$15,000 plus 10.7 percent of the handle in excess of $1,000,001.

In addition, every such association shall pay an additional license fee at the rate of 0.75 percent of its daily exotic parimutuel handle, excluding wagering at a satellite wagering facility. Except as provided in Section 19610 5, no such association shall pay a license fee in excess of 3.04 percent of its daily conventional parimutuel handle and 3.79 percent of its daily exotic parimutuel handle, excluding wagering at a satellite wagering facility.

(e) Every association which conducted a quarter horse or Arabian horseracing meeting in the southern zone during the daytime prior to January 1, 1979, and thereafter conducts the meeting at night, shall be entitled to the following license fee adjustment:

For each 1 percent that the association's average daily handle in the 1981 year, during the period from the commencement of the meeting to December 25, falls below its 1980 average daily handle during the same period, the amount of the applicable license fee as set forth in subdivision (a) shall be reduced by 2 percent.

(f) Any association qualified to operate its meetings pursuant to Section 19612.6 shall be entitled to continue to distribute license fees, commissions, and purses as provided by that section.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), for every association which conducts a quarter horse meeting in the northern zone, the amount remaining after deduction of the state license fee shall be distributed between commissions and purses as agreed to by the association conducting the meeting and the organization representing the horsemen participating at the meeting. Every association conducting a quarter horse meeting in the northern zone may deduct an additional amount up to 1 percent of its conventional and exotic parimutuel pools to be distributed as commissions. The association may also deduct an additional 1 percent from the exotic parimutuel pools to be distributed as commissions and purses as agreed to by the association conducting the meeting and the organization representing the horsemen participating at the meeting.

SEC. 8. Section 19612.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19612.1. (a) In addition to the amounts otherwise deducted pursuant to this chapter, every association with an average daily handle of more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) which conducts a harness, quarter, Arabian, or Appaloosa horse meeting may deduct from the total amount handled in daily double, quiniela, exacta, and other multiple wagering pools approved by the board up to 3 percent thereof to be distributed as additional commissions and purses in the following percentage ratio: to the association as additional commission, 59.5 percent; to the horsemen as additional purses, 40.5 percent.

(b) From the amount deducted for quarter horse purses under subdivision (a), a sum equal to 25 percent thereof shall be held by the association to be paid as owners' premiums for California breds winning or placing second at the meeting. The premiums shall be distributed within 30 days of the date on which the funds are received by the officially recognized organization designated to administer this subdivision on a prorated percentage basis of first and second moneys earned to persons owning California-bred quarter horses at the time of their wins or places in races having a total purse value equal to or in excess of the average purse value for races, other than stakes races, won by California-bred horses during the previous year. Except for fair meetings, the maximum award made to an owner in any one race shall not exceed 15 percent of the total awards fund.

The board shall designate the officially recognized organizations representing quarter horse horsemen to administer this subdivision and to distribute premiums. The organizations may, with the approval of the board, make a deduction for expenses not to exceed 10 percent of the total awards fund.

(c) From the amount deducted for Appaloosa and Arabian horse purses under subdivision (a), a sum equal to 13.33 percent thereof shall be held by the association to be paid as owners' premiums for California-bred Appaloosa or Arabian horses winning or placing at the meeting. The premiums shall be distributed within 30 days of the close of the meeting on a prorated percentage basis of first money earned to persons owning California-bred Appaloosa or Arabian horses at the time of their wins or places in races having a total purse value in excess of the average purse value for races, other than stakes races, won by California-bred Appaloosa or Arabian horses during the previous year. Except for fair meetings, the maximum award made to an owner in any one race shall not exceed 15 percent of the total awards fund. The board shall designate the officially recognized organization representing Appaloosa or Arabian horsemen to administer this subdivision and to distribute premiums. The organization may, with the approval of the board, make a deduction for expenses not to exceed 5 percent of the total awards fund.

(d) At least 30 days prior to the commencement of its meeting, the association shall file with the board a statement of the additional deduction to be made pursuant to subdivision (a). Except with the consent of the board, the amount of the deduction shall not be changed during the course of the meeting.

(e) In addition to the amounts otherwise deducted pursuant to this section, every harness racing association shall deduct an additional 2 percent of its exotic parimutuel pools to be distributed equally as commissions and purses.

SEC. 9. Section 19612.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19612.2. (a) In addition to the amounts otherwise deducted pursuant to this chapter, every association with an average daily handle of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) or less, except an association subject to Section 19614.2, which conducts a harness, quarter, Arabian, or Appaloosa horse meeting may deduct from the total amount handled in its daily exotic parimutuel pool up to 3 percent thereof to be distributed as additional commissions and purses as follows:

(1) For quarter horse meetings conducted other than pursuant to Section 19612.6 and for Appaloosa horse meetings, as agreed to by the association conducting the meeting and the organization representing the horsemen participating at the meeting.

(2) For harness and quarter horse meetings conducted pursuant to Section 19612.6, 50 percent as commissions and 50 percent as purses.

(b) From the amount deducted for quarter horse purses under subdivision (a), a sum equal to 25 percent thereof shall be held by the association to be paid as owners' premiums for California breds winning or placing second at the meeting. The premiums shall be distributed within 30 days of the date on which the funds are received by the officially recognized organization designated to administer this subdivision on a prorated percentage basis of first and second moneys earned to persons owning California-bred quarter horses at the time of their wins or places in races having a total purse value equal to or in excess of the average purse value for races, other than stakes races, won by California-bred horses during the previous year. Except for fair meetings, the maximum award made to an owner in any one race shall not exceed 15 percent of the total awards fund.

The board shall designate the officially recognized organizations representing quarter horse horsemen to administer this subdivision and to distribute premiums. The organizations may, with the approval of the board, make a deduction for expenses not to exceed 10 percent of the total awards fund.

(c) From the amount deducted for Appaloosa and Arabian horse purses under subdivision (a), a sum equal to 13.33 percent thereof shall be held by the association to be paid as owners' premiums for California-bred Appaloosa or Arabian horses winning or placing at the meeting. The premiums shall be distributed within 30 days of the close of the meeting on a prorated percentage basis of first money earned to persons owning California-bred Appaloosa or Arabian horses at the time of their wins or places in races having a total purse value in excess of the average purse value for races, other than stakes races, won by California-bred Appaloosa or Arabian horses during the previous year. Except for fair meetings, the maximum award made to an owner in any one race shall not exceed 15 percent of the total awards fund. The board shall designate the officially recognized organization representing Appaloosa or Arabian horsemen to administer this subdivision and to distribute premiums. The organization may, with the approval of the board, make a deduction for expenses not to exceed 5 percent of the total awards fund.

(d) At least 30 days prior to the commencement of its meeting, the association shall file with the board a statement of the additional deduction to be made pursuant to subdivision (a) and its distribution between commissions and purses. Except with the consent of the board, the amount of the deduction and its distribution shall not be changed during the course of the meeting.

(e) In addition to any deductions pursuant to this section, every harness racing association shall also deduct an additional 2 percent of its daily exotic parimutuel pool to be distributed equally as commissions and purses.

SEC. 10. Section 19614.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19614.2. (a) In addition to the amounts otherwise deducted pursuant to this chapter, the California Exposition and State Fair, or a district or county fair, or an association conducting its meeting pursuant to Section 19549.1, may deduct from the total amount handled in daily double, quiniela, exacta, and other multiple wagering pools approved by the board up to 3 percent thereof to be distributed as additional commissions and purses in the current year of the fair meet. Of the amount deducted, if any, 52 percent shall be distributed as additional purses and 48 percent shall be distributed as additional commissions. For racing meetings conducted pursuant to Section 19549.3, of the amounts deducted, if any, 50 percent shall be distributed as purses and 50 percent shall be distributed as commissions.

(b) At least 30 days prior to the commencement of its meeting, the association shall file with the board a statement of the additional deduction to be made pursuant to subdivision (a). Except with the consent of the board, the amount of the deduction shall not be changed during the course of the meeting.

(c) From the amount deducted for thoroughbred purses under subdivision (a), a sum equal to 13.33 percent thereof shall be held by the association to be deposited with the official registering agency pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19617.2, and shall thereafter be distributed in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section

(d) From the amount deducted for quarter horse purses under subdivision (a), a sum equal to 25 percent thereof shall be held by the association to be paid as owners' premiums for California-breds winning or placing at the meeting. The premiums shall be distributed within 30 days of the date on which the funds are received by the officially recognized organization designated to administer this subdivision on a prorated percentage basis of first and second place moneys earned to persons owning California-bred quarter horses at the time of their wins or places in races having a total purse value equal to or in excess of the average purse value for races, other than stakes races, won by California-bred horses during the previous year.

The board shall designate the officially recognized organizations representing quarter horse horsemen to administer this subdivision and to distribute premiums.

The organization may, with the approval of the board, make a deduction for expenses not to exceed 10 percent of the total awards fund.

(e) From the amount deducted for Appaloosa and Arabian horse purses under subdivision (a), a sum equal to 13.33 percent thereof shall be held by the association to be paid as owner's premiums for California-breds winning or placing at the meeting. The premiums shall be distributed within 30 days of the close of the meeting on a prorated percentage basis of first moneys earned to persons owning California-bred Appaloosa and Arabian horses at the time of their wins or places in races having a total purse value in excess of the average purse value for races, other than stakes races, won by California-bred Appaloosa or Arabian horses during the previous year. The board shall designate the officially recognized organization representing Appaloosa and Arabian horsemen to administer this subdivision and to distribute premiums. The organization may, with the approval of the board, make a deduction for expenses not to exceed 10 percent of the total awards fund.

SEC. 11. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that this act take effect and apply during the current racing season, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1482

An act to amend Sections 19621, 19627, 19627.1, and 19630 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to fairs, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19621 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19621. (a) Not more than 5 percent of the Fair and Exposition Fund may be used during the 1989–90, 1990–91, or 1991–92 fiscal years to augment the budget of the Department of Food and Agriculture to provide services to fairs and to implement Sections 19627, 19627.1, and 19627.2.

(b) The Director of Food and Agriculture shall annually project the available revenues from this source and submit a recommendation to the Governor for the additional staff and contracts necessary to carry out those sections.

(c) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1992, and, as of January 1, 1993, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends the date on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 19627 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19627. (a) Six million five hundred forty-five thousand dollars ($6,545,000) of the first balance of the fund is hereby annually appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for the encouragement of county, district, or combined county and district fairs exclusive of the California Exposition and State Fair, the Los Angeles County Fair, 1-A District Agricultural Association, the Sixth District Agricultural Association, known and designated as the California Museum of Science and Industry, and citrus fruit fairs referred to in subdivision (a) of Section 19626, to be apportioned by and expended under the supervision of the Department of Food and Agriculture in the manner and for the purpose prescribed by Part 4 (commencing with Section 4401) of Division 3 of the Food and Agricultural Code and other applicable provisions of law including this section.

(b) Each county, district, or combined county and district fair shall receive an annual apportionment of eighty-five thousand dollars ($85,000).

(c) Each county, district, or combined county and district agricultural fair shall, pursuant to a format established by the Director of Food and Agriculture, after consulting with the managers and boards of directors of those fairs, do all of the following:

(1) File an annual statement of operations with the department.

(2) Have an annual budget approved by the department.

(3) Conduct an annual fair which includes agriculture exhibits and competitions.

(d) Funds not allocated pursuant to this section shall be allocated pursuant to Section 19630.

SEC. 3. Section 19627.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19627.1. (a) Three million four hundred sixty-five thousand dollars ($3,465,000) of the first balance of the fund is hereby annually appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for the encouragement of county, district, or combined county and district fairs which receive funds under Section 19627.

(b) Each county, district, or combined county and district fair shall be eligible to receive an additional grant not exceeding forty-five thousand dollars ($45,000) from the department.

(c) Each county, district, or combined county and district fair shall, pursuant to guidelines established by the Director of Food and Agriculture, after consulting with the managers and boards of directors of those fairs, in addition to meeting the requirements of Section 19627, do both of the following:

(1) Comply with the management and fiscal directives of the department.

(2) Submit an annual maintenance program for approval by the department.

(d) Funds not allocated pursuant to this section shall be allocated pursuant to Section 19630.

SEC. 4. Section 19630 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19630. (a) Any unallocated balance from subdivision (a) of Section 19620 or Section 19627 or 19627.1 is hereby appropriated without regard to fiscal years, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, for allocation by the Director of Food and Agriculture for capital outlay to county, district, combined county and district, or citrus fruit fairs for fair projects involving public health and safety, for fair projects involving major and deferred maintenance, for fair projects necessary due to any emergency, for projects that are required by physical changes to the fair site, for projects that are required to protect the fair property or installation, such as fencing and flood protection, and for the acquisition or improvement of any property or facility that will serve to enhance the operation of the fair.

It is the intent of the Legislature that these moneys be used primarily for those fairs whose sources of revenue may be limited for purposes described in this section.

(b) Any money subject to allocation pursuant to subdivision (a) may be allocated by the Director of Food and Agriculture to county, district, or combined county and district fairs for general operational support purposes. The limitations as to the maximum amount of apportionment provided for in Section 19627 are not applicable to such an allocation.

SEC. 5. The amendments to Section 19627.1 of the Business and Professions Code made by Section 3 of this act during the 1990 portion of the 1989–90 Regular Session shall become operative on July 1, 1990.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to properly control the allocation of money from the Fair and Exposition Fund to county, district, and combined county and district fairs, commencing with allocations made during the 1990–91 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1483

An act to add Section 1363.2. to the Civil Code, relating to common interest developments.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1363.2 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1363.2. (a) A managing agent of a common interest development who accepts or receives funds belonging to the association shall deposit all such funds which are not placed into an escrow account with a bank, savings association, or credit union or into an account under the control of the association, into a trust fund account maintained by the managing agent in a bank, savings association, or credit union in this state. All funds deposited by the managing agent in the trust fund account shall be kept in this state in a financial institution, as defined in Section 31041 of the Financial Code, which is insured by the federal government, and shall be maintained there until disbursed in accordance with written instructions from the association entitled to the funds.

(b) At the written request of the board of directors of the association, the funds the managing agent accepts or receives on behalf of the association shall be deposited into an interest-bearing account in a bank, savings association, or credit union in this state, provided all of the following requirements are met:

(1) The account is in the name of the managing agent as trustee for the association or in the name of the association.

(2) All of the funds in the account are covered by insurance provided by an agency of the federal government.

(3) The funds in the account are kept separate, distinct, and apart from the funds belonging to the managing agent or to any other person or entity for whom the managing agent holds funds in trust except that the funds of various associations may be commingled as permitted pursuant to subdivision (d).

(4) The managing agent discloses to the board of directors of the association the nature of the account, how interest will be calculated and paid, whether service charges will be paid to the depository and by whom, and any notice requirements or penalties for withdrawal of funds from the account.

(5) No interest earned on funds in the account shall inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of the managing agent or his or her employees.

(c) The managing agent shall maintain a separate record of the receipt and disposition of all funds described in this section, including any interest earned on the funds.

(d) The managing agent shall not comingle the funds of the association with his or her own money or with the money of others which he or she receives or accepts, unless all of the following requirements are met:

(1) The managing agent commingled the funds of various associations on or before February 26, 1990, and has obtained a written agreement with the board of directors of each association that he or she will maintain a fidelity and surety bond in an amount that provides adequate protection to the associations as agreed upon by the managing agent and the board of directors of each association.

(2) The managing agent discloses in the written agreement whether he or she is deriving benefits from the commingled account or the bank, credit union, or savings institution where the moneys will be on deposit.

(3) The written agreement provided pursuant to this subdivision includes, but is not limited to, the name and address of the bonding companies, the amount of the bonds, and the expiration dates of the bonds.

(4) If there are any changes in the bond coverage or the companies providing the coverage, the managing agent discloses that fact to the board of directors of each affected association as soon as practical, but in no event more than 10 days after the change.

(5) The bonds assure the protection of the association and provide the association at least 10 days' notice prior to cancellation.

(6) Completed payments on the behalf of the association are deposited within 24 hours or the next business day and do not remain commingled for more than 10 calendar days.

(e) The prevailing party in an action to enforce this section shall be entitled to recover reasonable legal fees and court costs.

(f) As used in this section, a "managing agent" is a person or entity, who for compensation or, in expectation of compensation, exercises control over the assets of the association. However, a "managing agent" does not include a full-time employee of the association or a regulated financial institution operating within the normal course of business, or an attorney at law acting withnin the scope of his or her license.

(g) As used in this section, "completed payment" means funds received which clearly identify the account to which the funds are to be credited.

CHAPTER 1484

An act to amend, repeal, and add Section 18802.6 of, and to add Section 26135 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to amend Section 11713 of the Vehicle Code, relating to money laundering.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18802.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18802.6. (a) The Franchise Tax Board may require a copy of the federal information return to be filed with the Franchise Tax Board if a federal information return was required under any of the following:

(1) Section 6050H of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to mortgage interest received in trade or business from individuals.

(2) Section 6050J of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to foreclosures and abandonments of security.

(3) Section 6050K of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to exchanges of certain partnership interests.

(4) Section 6050L of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain dispositions of donated property.

(5) Section 6050N of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to returns regarding payments of royalties.

(6) Section 6039C of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to returns with respect to foreign persons holding direct investments in United States real property interests, if that person holds a direct investment in a California real property interest as defined in Section 18805.

(b) Every person required to make a return under subdivision (a) shall also furnish a statement to each person whose name is required to be set forth in the return, as required to do so by the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) A transferor of a partnership interest shall be required to notify the partnership of that exchange in accordance with Section 6050K(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) The Franchise Tax Board shall require a copy of the federal information return to be filed with the Franchise Tax Board if a federal information return was required under Section 6050I of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to cash received in trade or business.

(e) (1) The Attorney General shall, upon court order following a showing ex parte to a magistrate of an articulable suspicion that an individual or entity has committed a felony offense to which a federal information return is related, be provided a copy of a federal information return filed with the Franchise Tax Board under subdivision (d). The Attorney General may make a return or information therefrom available to a district attorney subject to regulations promulgated by the Attorney General. The regulations shall require the district attorney seeking the return or information to specify in writing the specific reasons for believing that a felony offense has been committed to which the return or information is related.

(2) Any information or return obtained by the Attorney General or a district attorney pursuant to this section shall be confidential and used only for investigative or prosecutorial purposes.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 18802.6 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18802.6. (a) The Franchise Tax Board may require a copy of the federal information return to be filed with the Franchise Tax Board if a federal information return was required under any of the following:

(1) Section 6050H of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to mortgage interest received in trade or business from individuals.

(2) Section 6050I of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to cash received in trade or business.

(3) Section 6050J of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to foreclosures and abandonments of security.

(4) Section 6050K of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to exchanges of certain partnership interests.

(5) Section 6050L of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain dispositions of donated property.

(6) Section 6050N of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to returns regarding payments of royalties.

(7) Section 6039C of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to returns with respect to foreign persons holding direct investments in United States real property interests, if that person holds a direct investment in a California real property interest as defined in Section 18805.

(b) Every person required to make a return under subdivision (a) shall also furnish a statement to each person whose name is required to be set forth in the return, as required to do so by the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) A transferor of a partnership interest shall be required to notify the partnership of that exchange in accordance with Section

6050K(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1994.

SEC. 3. Section 26135 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

26135. (a) The Franchise Tax Board shall require a copy of the federal information return to be filed with the Franchise Tax Board if a federal information return was required under Section 6050I of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to cash received in trade or business.

(b) The penalty for failure to file an information return required by this section shall be determined in accordance with Section 6721 of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 4. Section 11713 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Chapter 89 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

11713. It is unlawful and a violation of this code for the holder of any license issued under this article to do any of the following:

(a) To make or disseminate, or cause to be made or disseminated, before the public in this state, in any newspaper or other publication, or any advertising device, or by public outcry or proclamation, or in any other manner or means whatever, any statement which is untrue or misleading, and which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue or misleading; or to so make or disseminate, or cause to be so disseminated, any such statement as part of a plan or scheme with the intent not to sell any vehicle or service so advertised at the price stated therein, or as so advertised.

(b) To advertise or offer for sale or exchange in any manner, any vehicle not actually for sale at the premises of the dealer or available to the dealer from the manufacturer or distributor of the vehicle at the time of the advertisement or offer. However, a dealer not franchised to sell new motor vehicles of a particular line-make, may advertise that it has the ability to purchase for resale, vehicles available from franchised dealers provided that any such advertisement or offer clearly and conspicuously states: "Dealer is not franchised to sell or service new vehicles. All vehicles purchased directly from dealer must be purchased as used and are subject to availability from a franchised dealer."

(c) To fail, within 48 hours, in writing to withdraw any advertisement of a vehicle that has been sold or withdrawn from sale.

(d) To advertise or represent a vehicle as a new vehicle if the vehicle falls within the purview of Section 665.

(e) To engage in the business for which the licensee is licensed without having in force and effect a bond as required by this article.

(f) For any licensed dealer to engage in the business for which the dealer is licensed without at all times maintaining an established place of business as required by this code.

(g) To include, as an added cost to the selling price of a vehicle, an amount for licensing or transfer of title of the vehicle, which amount is not due to the state unless, prior to the sale, that amount has been paid by a dealer to the state in order to avoid penalties that would have accrued because of late payment of the fees. However, a dealer may collect from the second purchaser of a vehicle a prorated fee based upon the number of months remaining in the registration year for that vehicle, if the vehicle had been previously sold by the dealer and the sale was subsequently rescinded and all the fees that were paid, as required by this code and Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10751) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, were returned to the first purchaser of the vehicle.

(h) To employ any person as a salesperson who has not been licensed pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 11800), and whose license is not displayed on the premises of the dealer as required by Section 11812, or to fail to willfully notify the department by mail within 10 days of the employment or termination of employment of a salesperson.

(i) To deliver, following sale, a vehicle for operation on California highways, if the vehicle does not meet all of the equipment requirements of Division 12 (commencing with Section 24000).

(j) To use, or permit the use of, the special plates assigned to him or her for any purpose other than as permitted by Section 11715.

(k) To advertise or otherwise represent, or knowingly to allow to be advertised or represented on behalf of, or at the place of business of, the licenseholder that no downpayment is required in connection with the sale of a vehicle when a downpayment is in fact required and the buyer is advised or induced to finance the downpayment by a loan in addition to any other loan financing the remainder of the purchase price of the vehicle.

(l) To participate in the sale of a vehicle reported to the Department of Motor Vehicles under Section 5900 or 5901 without making the return and payment of any sales tax due and required by Section 6451 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(m) To permit the use of the dealer's license, supplies, or books by any other person for the purpose of permitting that person to engage in the sale of vehicles required to be registered under this code, or to permit the use of the dealer's license, supplies, or books to operate a branch location to be used by any other person, whether or not the licensee has any financial or equitable interest or investment in the vehicles sold by, or the business of, or branch location used by, the other person.

(n) To violate any provisions of Article 10 (commencing with Section 28050) of Chapter 5 of Division 12.

(o) To sell a previously unregistered vehicle without disclosing in writing to the purchaser the date on which any manufacturer's or distributor's warranty commenced.

(p) To accept a purchase deposit relative to the sale of a vehicle, unless the vehicle is present at the premises of the dealer or available to the dealer directly from the manufacturer or distributor of the vehicle at the time the dealer accepts the deposit. A purchase deposit relative to the sale of a vehicle by a dealer not franchised to sell new motor vehicles of a particular line-make shall be subject to all of the following conditions: (i) there is a written purchase order; (ii) the deposit shall not exceed 2.5 percent of the total purchase price specified in the written purchase order; (iii) the deposit shall be deposited in a federally insured depository institution in a trust account held in favor of the purchaser; (iv) the deposit is entirely refundable upon written notice to the dealer; (v) the purchaser is advised in writing of his right to rescind the transaction prior to the delivery of the vehicle; and, (vi) each purchase agreement shall contain a provision for liquidated damages in the event of default under the purchase agreement, which shall not limit the dealer's right of offset against funds held in favor of the purchaser in the trust account.

(q) To consign for sale to another dealer a new vehicle.

CHAPTER 1485

An act to amend Sections 17058 and 23610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17058 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 166 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

17058. (a) (1) There shall be allowed as a credit against the amount of net tax (as defined in Section 17039) a state low-income housing credit in an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (c), computed in accordance with the provisions of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, including the amendments contained in the Technical and Miscellaneous Revenue Act of 1988 and in the federal Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1989, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) "Taxpayer" for purposes of this section means the sole owner in the case of an individual, the partners in the case of a partnership, and the shareholders in the case of an S corporation.

(3) "Housing sponsor" for purposes of this section means the sole owner in the case of an individual, the partnership in the case of a partnership, and the S corporation in the case of an S corporation.

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allocated to any housing sponsor shall be authorized by the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee, or any successor thereof, based on a project's need for the credit for economic feasibility in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(A) The low-income housing project shall be located in California and shall meet either of the following requirements:

(i) The project's housing sponsor shall have been allocated by the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee a credit for federal income tax purposes under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) It shall qualify for a credit under Section 42(h)(4)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not require fees for the credit under this section in addition to those fees required for applications for the tax credit pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code. The committee may require a fee if the application for the credit under this section is submitted in a calendar year after the year the application is submitted for the federal tax credit.

(2) (A) The Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall certify to the housing sponsor the amount of tax credit under this section allocated to the housing sponsor for each credit period.

(B) In the case of a partnership or an S corporation, the housing sponsor shall provide a copy of the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee certification to the taxpayer.

(C) The taxpayer shall attach a copy of the certification to any return upon which a tax credit is claimed under this section.

(D) In the case of a failure to attach a copy of the certification for the year to the return in which a tax credit is claimed under this section, no credit under this section shall be allowed for that year until a copy of that certification is provided.

(E) All elections made by the taxpayer pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to this section.

(F) No credit shall be allocated under this section to buildings located in a difficult development area or a qualified census tract as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code for which the eligible basis of a new building or the rehabilitation expenditure of an existing building is 130 percent of that amount pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (5) of subsection (d) of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the committee reduces the amount of federal credit, with the approval of the applicant, so that the combined amount of federal and state credit shall not exceed the total credit allowable pursuant to this section and Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, computed without regard to Section 42(d)(5)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) In the case of any qualified low-income building placed in service by the housing sponsor during 1987, the term "applicable percentage" means 9 percent for each of the first three years and 3 percent for the fourth year for new buildings (whether or not the building is federally subsidized) and for existing buildings.

(2) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and is a new building not federally subsidized, the term "applicable percentage" means either of the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings which are not federally subsidized for the taxable year, determined in accordance with the requirements of Section 42(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, in lieu of the percentage prescribed in Section 42(b)(1)(A).

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 30 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(3) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and that is a new building which is federally subsidized or that is an existing building that is "at risk of conversion," the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings which are federally subsidized for the taxable year.

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 13 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(4) For purposes of this section, the term "at risk of conversion," with respect to an existing building means a building which satisfies all of the following criteria:

(A) The building is presently owned by a housing sponsor other than a qualified nonprofit organization.

(B) The building is a federally assisted building for which the low-income use restrictions will terminate or the mortgage on the building is eligible for prepayment under Subtitle 13 of the Emergency Low Income Housing Preservation Act of 1987 or under Section 502(c) of the Housing Act of 1949, anytime in the three calendar years after the year of application to the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee.

(C) The person acquiring the building enters into a regulatory agreement that requires the building to be operated in accordance with the requirements of this section for a period equal to the greater of 55 years or the life of the building.

(D) The building satisfies the requirements of Section 42(e) of the Internal Revenue Code regarding rehabilitation expenditures, except that the provisions of Section 42(e)(3)(A)(ii)(I) shall not apply.

(d) The term "qualified low-income housing project" as defined in Section 42(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by adding the following requirements:

(1) The taxpayer shall be entitled to receive a cash distribution from the operations of the project, after funding required reserves, which, at the election of the taxpayer, is equal to:

(A) An amount not to exceed 8 percent of the lesser of:

(i) The owner equity which shall include the amount of the capital contributions actually paid to the housing sponsor and shall not include any amounts until they are paid on an investor note; or

(ii) Twenty percent of the adjusted basis of the building as of the close of the first taxable year of the credit period; or

(B) The amount of the cash flow from those units in the building that are not low-income units. For purposes of computing cash flow under this subparagraph, operating costs shall be allocated to the low-income units using the "floor space fraction," as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(C) Any amount allowed to be distributed under subparagraph (A) that is not available for distribution during the first five years of the compliance period may be accumulated and distributed any time during the first 15 years of the compliance period but not thereafter.

(2) The limitation on return shall apply in the aggregate to the partners if the housing sponsor is a partnership and in the aggregate to the shareholders if the housing sponsor is an S corporation.

(3) The housing sponsor shall apply any cash available for distribution in excess of the amount eligible to be distributed under paragraph (1) to reduce the rent on rent-restricted units or to increase the number of rent-restricted units subject to the tests of Section 42(g)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) The provisions of Section 42(f) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) The term "credit period" as defined in Section 42(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "four taxable years" for "10 taxable years."

(2) The special rule for the first taxable year of the credit period under Section 42(f)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to the tax credit under this section.

(3) Section 42(f)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read:

If, as of the close of any taxable year in the compliance period, after the first year of the credit period, the qualified basis of any building exceeds the qualified basis of that building as of the close of the first year of the credit period, the housing sponsor, to the extent of its tax credit allocation, shall be eligible for a credit on the excess in an amount equal to the applicable percentage determined pursuant to subdivision (c) for the four-year period beginning with the taxable year in which the increase in qualified basis occurs.

(f) The provisions of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 42(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and instead the following provisions shall be applicable:

The total amount for the four-year period of the housing credit dollars allocated in a calendar year to any building shall reduce the aggregate housing credit dollar amount of the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee for the calendar year in which the allocation is made.

(2) Paragraphs (3), (4), (6), (7), and (8) of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable to this section.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (m), the aggregate housing credit dollar amount which may be allocated annually by the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee pursuant to this section and Section 23610.5 shall be an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(1) Thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

(2) The unused housing credit ceiling, if any, for the preceding calendar years; and

(3) The amount of housing credit ceiling returned in the calendar year. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of housing credit dollar amount returned in the calendar year equals the housing credit dollar amount previously allocated to any project that does not become a qualified low-income housing project within the period required by this section or to any project with respect to which an allocation is canceled by mutual consent of the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the allocation recipient.

(h) (1) The term "compliance period" as defined in Section 42(i)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to mean, with respect to any building, the period of 30 consecutive taxable years beginning with the first taxable year of the credit period with respect thereto, subject to the limitation in paragraph (2).

(2) If, after the first 18 years of the compliance period, a qualified low-income housing project is not economically feasible, the housing sponsor shall be entitled to remove one or more low-income units from the set-aside and rent requirements of Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code as is necessary for the project to become economically feasible, provided that once a project is again economically feasible, the housing sponsor designates the net available units as low-income units subject to the set-aside and rent requirements, up to the number of low-income units necessary to arrive at the original applicable fraction, while keeping the project economically feasible.

(3) For purposes of paragraph (2), "economically feasible" means that project revenue equals or exceeds project operating expenses excluding any return on investment.

(4) For purposes of paragraph (3), "operating expenses" means the reasonable expenses necessary to operate and maintain the project in habitable condition, debt service, taxes, and reasonable reserves. For purposes of this paragraph, debt service shall not include that portion of payments of principal and interest attributable to any excess refinanced principal over the outstanding principal of the loan that was refinanced, except to the extent the excess was used for the rehabilitation of the project.

(i) Section 42(j) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and the following requirements of this section shall be set forth in a regulatory agreement between the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the housing sponsor, which agreement shall be subordinated, when required, to any lien or encumbrance of any banks or other institutional lenders to the project. The regulatory agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 50199.14 of the Health and Safety Code shall apply, providing the agreement includes all of the following provisions:

(1) A term not less than the compliance period.

(2) A requirement that the agreement be filed in the official records of the county in which the qualified low-income housing project is located.

(3) A provision stating which state and local agencies can enforce the regulatory agreement in the event the housing sponsor fails to satisfy any of the requirements of this section.

(4) A provision that the regulatory agreement shall be deemed a contract enforceable by tenants as third-party beneficiaries thereto and which allows individuals, whether prospective, present, or former occupants of the building, who meet the income limitation applicable to the building, the right to enforce the regulatory agreement in any state court.

(5) A provision incorporating the requirements of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code as modified by this section.

(6) A requirement that the housing sponsor provide the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee and the local agency that can enforce the regulatory agreement with advance notice if the housing sponsor intends to reduce the number of low-income units to make a project economically feasible.

(7) A requirement that the housing sponsor notify the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee and the local agency that can enforce the regulatory agreement if there is a determination by the Internal Revenue Service that the project is not in compliance with Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(8) A requirement that the housing sponsor, as security for the performance of the housing sponsor's obligations under the regulatory agreement, assign the housing sponsor's interest in rents which it receives from the project, provided that until there is a default under the regulatory agreement, the housing sponsor is entitled to collect and retain the rents.

(9) The remedies available in the event of a default under the regulatory agreement that is not cured within a reasonable cure period, include, but are not limited to, allowing any of the parties designated to enforce the regulatory agreement to collect all rents with respect to the project; taking possession of the project and operating the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement until the enforcer determines the housing sponsor is in a position to operate the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement; applying to any court for specific performance; securing the appointment of a receiver to operate the project; or any other relief as may be appropriate.

(j) (1) The committee shall allocate the housing credit on a regular basis consisting of not less than three periods in each calendar year during which applications may be filed and considered. The committee shall establish application filing deadlines, the maximum percentage of federal and state low-income housing tax credit ceiling which may be allocated by the committee in that period, and the approximate date on which allocations shall be made. If the enactment of federal or state law, the adoption of rules or regulations or other similar events prevent the use of three allocation periods, the committee may reduce the number of periods and adjust the filing deadlines, maximum percentage of credit allocated, and the allocation dates.

(2) The committee shall adopt a qualified allocation plan, as provided in paragraph (1) of subsection (m) of Section 42 of Title 26 of the United States Code. In adopting this plan, the committee shall comply with the provisions of subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph (1) of subsection (m) of Section 42 of Title 26 of the United States Code.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (m) of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall allocate housing credits in accordance with the qualified allocation plan and regulations, which shall include the following provisions:

(A) All housing sponsors, as defined by paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), shall demonstrate at the time the application is filed with the committee that the project meets the following threshold requirements:

(i) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate there is a need for low-income housing in the community or region for which it is proposed.

(ii) The project's proposed financing, including tax credit proceeds, shall be sufficient to complete the project and shall be adequate to operate the project for the extended use period.

(iii) The project shall have enforceable financing commitments, either construction or permanent financing, for at least 50 percent of the total estimated financing of the project.

(iv) The housing sponsor shall have and maintain control of the site for the project.

(v) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project complies with all applicable local land use and zoning ordinances.

(vi) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project development team has the experience and the financial capacity to ensure project completion and operation for the compliance period.

(vii) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate the amount of tax credit that is necessary for the financial feasibility of the project and its viability as a qualified low-income housing project throughout the extended use period, taking into account operating expenses, a supportable debt service, reserves, funds set aside for rental subsidies, and required equity, for the low-income units, and a development fee that does not exceed a specified percentage of the qualified basis of the project prior to inclusion of the development fee in the qualified basis, as determined by the committee.

(B) The committee shall give a preference to those projects satisfying all of the threshold requirements of subparagraph (A) if:

(i) The project serves the lowest income tenants at rents affordable to those tenants; or

(ii) The project is obligated to serve qualified tenants for the longest period.

(C) In addition to the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B), the committee shall use the following criteria in allocating housing credits:

(i) Projects serving large families in which the greatest percentage of total square feet of all residential units is comprised of low-income units with three or more bedrooms.

(ii) Projects providing single room occupancy units serving very low income tenants.

(iii) Existing projects that are "at risk of conversion," as defined by paragraph (4) of subdivision (c).

(iv) Projects for which a public agency provides direct or indirect long-term financial support for at least 15 percent of the total project development costs or projects for which the owner's equity constitutes at least 30 percent of the total project development costs.

(v) Projects that provide tenant amenities not generally available to residents of low-income housing projects.

(vi) Projects located within a "difficult to develop area" or a "qualified census tract" as defined in Section 42(d) (5) (C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) For purposes of allocating credits pursuant to this section, the committee shall not give preference to any project by virtue of the date of submission of its application.

(5) Not less than 20 percent of the low-income housing tax credits available annually under this section and Section 23610.5 shall be set aside for allocation to rural areas as defined in Section 50199.21 of the Health and Safety Code. Any amount of credit set aside for rural areas remaining on or after October 31 of any calendar year shall be available for allocation to any eligible project. No amount of credit set aside for rural areas shall be considered available for any eligible project so long as there are eligible rural applications pending on October 31.

(k) Section 42(l) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

The term "secretary" shall be replaced by the term "Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee."

(l) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the net tax, the excess credit may be carried over to reduce the net tax in the following year, and succeeding taxable years, if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(m) The aggregate amount of tax credits granted pursuant to this section and Section 23610.5 shall not exceed thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) per year. The Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not authorize any credit if the total amount of credits authorized in any year under the Personal Income Tax Law and the Bank and Corporation Tax Law exceeds thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

The aggregate amount of credit granted pursuant to this section and Section 23610.5 in 1989 may exceed thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) by an amount equal to the unallocated credit from 1987 and 1988.

(n) A project that received an allocation of a 1989 federal housing credit dollar amount shall be eligible to receive an allocation of 1990 a state housing credit dollar amount, subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The project was not placed in service prior to 1990.

(2) To the extent the amendments made to this section by the Statutes of 1990 conflict with any provisions existing in this section prior to those amendments, the prior provisions of law shall prevail.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), a project applying for an allocation under this subdivision shall be subject to the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (j).

(o) The credit period with respect to an allocation of credit in 1989 by the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee of which any amount is attributable to unallocated credit from 1987 or 1988 shall not begin until after December 31, 1989.

(p) (1) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1990, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (l), until the credit has been exhausted.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), this section shall remain in effect on and after December 1, 1990, for as long as Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code pertaining to low-income housing credits remains in effect.

SEC. 2. Section 17058 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 166 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

17058. (a) (1) There shall be allowed as a credit against the amount of net tax (as defined in Section 17039) a state low-income housing credit in an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (c), computed in accordance with the provisions of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code , except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) "Taxpayer" for purposes of this section means the sole owner in the case of an individual, the partners in the case of a partnership, and the shareholders in the case of an S corporation.

(3) "Housing sponsor" for purposes of this section means the sole owner in the case of an individual, the partnership in the case of a partnership, and the S corporation in the case of an S corporation.

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allocated to any housing sponsor shall be authorized by the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee, or any successor thereof, based on a project's need for the credit for economic feasibility in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(A) The low-income housing project shall be located in California and shall meet either of the following requirements:

(i) The project's housing sponsor shall have been allocated by the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee a credit for federal income tax purposes under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) It shall qualify for a credit under Section 42(h)(4)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not require fees for the credit under this section in addition to those fees required for applications for the tax credit pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code. The committee may require a fee if the application for the credit under this section is submitted in a calendar year after the year the application is submitted for the federal tax credit.

(2) (A) The Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall certify to the housing sponsor the amount of tax credit under this section allocated to the housing sponsor for each credit period.

(B) In the case of a partnership or an S corporation, the housing sponsor shall provide a copy of the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee certification to the taxpayer.

(C) The taxpayer shall attach a copy of the certification to any return upon which a tax credit is claimed under this section.

(D) In the case of a failure to attach a copy of the certification for the year to the return in which a tax credit is claimed under this section, no credit under this section shall be allowed for that year until a copy of that certification is provided.

(E) All elections made by the taxpayer pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to this section.

(F) No credit shall be allocated under this section to buildings located in a difficult development area or a qualified census tract as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code for which the eligible basis of a new building or the rehabilitation expenditure of an existing building is 130 percent of that amount pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (5) of subsection (d) of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the committee reduces the amount of federal credit, with the approval of the applicant, so that the combined amount of federal and state credit shall not exceed the total credit allowable pursuant to this section and Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, computed without regard to Section 42(d)(5)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) In the case of any qualified low-income building placed in service by the housing sponsor during 1987, the term "applicable percentage" means 9 percent for each of the first three years and 3 percent for the fourth year for new buildings (whether or not the building is federally subsidized) and for existing buildings.

(2) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and is a new building not federally subsidized, the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings which are not federally subsidized for the taxable year, determined in accordance with the requirements of Section 42(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, in lieu of the percentage prescribed in Section 42(b)(1)(A).

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 30 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(3) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and that is a new building which is federally subsidized or that is an existing building that is "at risk of conversion," the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings which are federally subsidized for the taxable year.

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 13 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(4) For purposes of this section, the term "at risk of conversion," with respect to an existing building means a building which satisfies all of the following criteria:

(A) The building is presently owned by a housing sponsor other than a qualified nonprofit organization.

(B) The building is a federally assisted building for which the low-income use restrictions will terminate or the mortgage on the building is eligible for prepayment under Subtitle 13 of the Emergency Low Income Housing Preservation Act of 1987 or under Section 502(c) of the Housing Act of 1949, anytime in the three calendar years after the year of application to the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee.

(C) The person acquiring the building enters into a regulatory agreement that requires the building to be operated in accordance with the requirements of this section for a period equal to the greater of 55 years or the life of the building.

(D) The building satisfies the requirements of Section 42(e) of the Internal Revenue Code regarding rehabilitation expenditures, except that the provisions of Section 42(e)(3)(A)(ii)(I) shall not apply.

(d) The term "qualified low-income housing project" as defined in Section 42(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by adding the following requirements:

(1) The taxpayer shall be entitled to receive a cash distribution from the operations of the project, after funding required reserves, which, at the election of the taxpayer, is equal to:

(A) An amount not to exceed 8 percent of the lesser of:

(i) The owner equity which shall include the amount of the capital contributions actually paid to the housing sponsor and shall not include any amounts until they are paid on an investor note; or

(ii) Twenty percent of the adjusted basis of the building as of the close of the first taxable year of the credit period; or

(B) The amount of the cash flow from those units in the building that are not low-income units. For purposes of computing cash flow under this subparagraph, operating costs shall be allocated to the low-income units using the "floor space fraction," as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(C) Any amount allowed to be distributed under subparagraph (A) that is not available for distribution during the first five years of the compliance period may be accumulated and distributed any time during the first 15 years of the compliance period but not thereafter.

(2) The limitation on return shall apply in the aggregate to the partners if the housing sponsor is a partnership and in the aggregate to the shareholders if the housing sponsor is an S corporation.

(3) The housing sponsor shall apply any cash available for distribution in excess of the amount eligible to be distributed under paragraph (1) to reduce the rent on rent-restricted units or to increase the number of rent-restricted units subject to the tests of Section 42(g)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) The provisions of Section 42(f) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) The term "credit period" as defined in Section 42(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "four taxable years" for "10 taxable years."

(2) The special rule for the first taxable year of the credit period under Section 42(f)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to the tax credit under this section.

(3) Section 42(f)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read:

If, as of the close of any taxable year in the compliance period, after the first year of the credit period, the qualified basis of any building exceeds the qualified basis of that building as of the close of the first year of the credit period, the housing sponsor, to the extent of its tax credit allocation, shall be eligible for a credit on the excess in an amount equal to the applicable percentage determined pursuant to subdivision (c) for the four-year period beginning with the taxable year in which the increase in qualified basis occurs.

(f) The provisions of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 42(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and instead the following provisions shall be applicable:

The total amount for the four-year period of the housing credit dollars allocated in a calendar year to any building shall reduce the aggregate housing credit dollar amount of the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee for the calendar year in which the allocation is made.

(2) Paragraphs (3), (4), (6), (7), and (8) of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable to this section.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (m), the aggregate housing credit dollar amount which may be allocated annually by the

Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee pursuant to this section and Section 23610.5 shall be an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(1) Thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

(2) The unused housing credit ceiling, if any, for the preceding calendar years; and

(3) The amount of housing credit ceiling returned in the calendar year. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of housing credit dollar amount returned in the calendar year equals the housing credit dollar amount previously allocated to any project that does not become a qualified low-income housing project within the period required by this section or to any project with respect to which an allocation is canceled by mutual consent of the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the allocation recipient.

(h) (1) The term "compliance period" as defined in Section 42(i)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to mean, with respect to any building, the period of 30 consecutive taxable years beginning with the first taxable year of the credit period with respect thereto, subject to the limitation in paragraph (2).

(2) If, after the first 18 years of the compliance period, a qualified low-income housing project is not economically feasible, the housing sponsor shall be entitled to remove one or more low-income units from the set-aside and rent requirements of Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code as is necessary for the project to become economically feasible, provided that once a project is again economically feasible, the housing sponsor designates the net available units as low-income units subject to the set-aside and rent requirements, up to the number of low-income units necessary to arrive at the original applicable fraction, while keeping the project economically feasible.

(3) For purposes of paragraph (2), "economically feasible" means that project revenue equals or exceeds project operating expenses excluding any return on investment.

(4) For purposes of paragraph (3), "operating expenses" means the reasonable expenses necessary to operate and maintain the project in habitable condition, debt service, taxes, and reasonable reserves. For purposes of this paragraph, debt service shall not include that portion of payments of principal and interest attributable to any excess refinanced principal over the outstanding principal of the loan that was refinanced, except to the extent the excess was used for the rehabilitation of the project.

(i) Section 42(j) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and the following requirements of this section shall be set forth in a regulatory agreement between the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the housing sponsor, which agreement shall be subordinated, when required, to any lien or encumbrance of any banks or other institutional lenders to the project. The regulatory agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 50199.14 of the Health and Safety Code shall apply, providing the agreement includes all of the following provisions:

(1) A term not less than the compliance period.

(2) A requirement that the agreement be filed in the official records of the county in which the qualified low-income housing project is located.

(3) A provision stating which state and local agencies can enforce the regulatory agreement in the event the housing sponsor fails to satisfy any of the requirements of this section.

(4) A provision that the regulatory agreement shall be deemed a contract enforceable by tenants as third-party beneficiaries thereto and which allows individuals, whether prospective, present, or former occupants of the building, who meet the income limitation applicable to the building, the right to enforce the regulatory agreement in any state court.

(5) A provision incorporating the requirements of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code as modified by this section.

(6) A requirement that the housing sponsor provide the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee and the local agency that can enforce the regulatory agreement with advance notice if the housing sponsor intends to reduce the number of low-income units to make a project economically feasible.

(7) A requirement that the housing sponsor notify the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee and the local agency that can enforce the regulatory agreement if there is a determination by the Internal Revenue Service that the project is not in compliance with Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(8) A requirement that the housing sponsor, as security for the performance of the housing sponsor's obligations under the regulatory agreement, assign the housing sponsor's interest in rents which it receives from the project, provided that until there is a default under the regulatory agreement, the housing sponsor is entitled to collect and retain the rents.

(9) The remedies available in the event of a default under the regulatory agreement that is not cured within a reasonable cure period, include, but are not limited to, allowing any of the parties designated to enforce the regulatory agreement to collect all rents with respect to the project; taking possession of the project and operating the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement until the enforcer determines the housing sponsor is in a position to operate the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement; applying to any court for specific performance; securing the appointment of a receiver to operate the project; or any other relief as may be appropriate.

(j) (1) The committee shall allocate the housing credit on a regular basis consisting of not less than three periods in each calendar year during which applications may be filed and considered. The committee shall establish application filing deadlines, the maximum percentage of federal and state low-income housing tax credit ceiling which may be allocated by the committee in that period, and the approximate date on which allocations shall be made. If the enactment of federal or state law, the adoption of rules or regulations or other similar events prevent the use of three allocation periods, the committee may reduce the number of periods and adjust the filing deadlines, maximum percentage of credit allocated, and the allocation dates.

(2) The committee shall adopt a qualified allocation plan, as provided in paragraph (1) of subsection (m) of Section 42 of Title 26 of the United States Code. In adopting this plan, the committee shall comply with the provisions of subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph (1) of subsection (m) of Section 42 of Title 26 of the United States Code.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (m) of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall allocate housing credits in accordance with the qualified allocation plan and regulations, which shall include the following provisions:

(A) All housing sponsors, as defined by paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), shall demonstrate at the time the application is filed with the committee that the project meets the following threshold requirements:

(i) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate there is a need for low-income housing in the community or region for which it is proposed.

(ii) The project's proposed financing, including tax credit proceeds, shall be sufficient to complete the project and shall be adequate to operate the project for the extended use period.

(iii) The project shall have enforceable financing commitments, either construction or permanent financing, for at least 50 percent of the total estimated financing of the project.

(iv) The housing sponsor shall have and maintain control of the site for the project.

(v) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project complies with all applicable local land use and zoning ordinances.

(vi) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project development team has the experience and the financial capacity to ensure project completion and operation for the extended use period.

(vii) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate the amount of tax credit that is necessary for the financial feasibility of the project and its viability as a qualified low-income housing project throughout the extended use period, taking into account operating expenses, a supportable debt service, reserves, funds set aside for rental subsidies. and required equity, for the low-income units, and a development fee that does not exceed a specified percentage of the qualified basis of the project prior to inclusion of the development fee in the qualified basis, as determined by the committee.

(B) The committee shall give a preference to those projects

satisfying all of the threshold requirements of subparagraph (A) if:

(i) The project serves the lowest income tenants at rents affordable to those tenants; or

(ii) The project is obligated to serve qualified tenants for the longest period.

(C) In addition to the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B), the committee shall use the following criteria in allocating housing credits:

(i) Projects serving large families in which the greatest percentage of total square feet of all residential units is comprised of low-income units with three or more bedrooms.

(ii) Projects providing single room occupancy units serving very low income tenants.

(iii) Existing projects that are "at risk of conversion," as defined by paragraph (4) of subdivision (c).

(iv) Projects for which a public agency provides direct or indirect long-term financial support for at least 15 percent of the total project development costs or projects for which the owner's equity constitutes at least 30 percent of the total project development costs.

(v) Projects that provide tenant amenities not generally available to residents of low-income housing projects.

(vi) Projects located within a "difficult to develop area" or a "qualified census tract" as defined in Section 42(d) (5) (C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) For purposes of allocating credits pursuant to this section, the committee shall not give preference to any project by virtue of the date of submission of its application.

(5) Not less than 20 percent of the low-income housing tax credits available annually under this section and Section 23610.5 shall be set aside for allocation to rural areas as defined in Section 50199.21 of the Health and Safety Code. Any amount of credit set aside for rural areas remaining on or after October 31 of any calendar year shall be available for allocation to any eligible project. No amount of credit set aside for rural areas shall be considered available for any eligible project so long as there are eligible rural applications pending on October 31.

(k) Section 42(l) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

The term "secretary" shall be replaced by the term "Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee."

(l) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the net tax, the excess credit may be carried over to reduce the net tax in the following year, and succeeding taxable years, if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(m) The aggregate amount of tax credits granted pursuant to this section and Section 23610.5 shall not exceed thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) per year. The Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not authorize any credit if the total amount of credits authorized in any year under the Personal Income Tax Law and the Bank and Corporation Tax Law exceeds thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

The aggregate amount of credit granted pursuant to this section and Section 23610.5 in 1989 may exceed thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) by an amount equal to the unallocated credit from 1987 and 1988.

(n) A project that received an allocation of a 1989 federal housing credit dollar amount shall be eligible to receive an allocation of 1990 a state housing credit dollar amount, subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The project was not placed in service prior to 1990.

(2) To the extent the amendments made to this section by the Statutes of 1990 conflict with any provisions existing in this section prior to those amendments, the prior provisions of law shall prevail.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), a project applying for an allocation under this subdivision shall be subject to the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (j).

(o) The credit period with respect to an allocation of credit in 1989 by the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee of which any amount is attributable to unallocated credit from 1987 or 1988 shall not begin until after December 31, 1989.

(p) (1) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1990, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (l), until the credit has been exhausted.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), this section shall remain in effect on and after December 1, 1990, for as long as Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code pertaining to low-income housing credits remains in effect.

SEC. 3. Section 23610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 166 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

23610.5. (a) (1) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) a state low-income housing tax credit in an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (c), computed in accordance with Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, including the amendments contained in the Technical and Miscellaneous Revenue Act of 1988 and the federal Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1989, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) "Taxpayer," for purposes of this section, means the sole owner in the case of a C corporation, the partners in the case of a partnership, and the shareholders in the case of an S corporation.

(3) "Housing sponsor," for purposes of this section, means the sole owner in the case of a C corporation, the partnership in the case of a partnership, and the S corporation in the case of an S corporation.

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allocated to any housing sponsor shall be authorized by the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee, or any successor thereof, based on a project's need for the credit for economic feasibility in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(A) The low-income housing project shall be located in California and shall meet either of the following requirements:

(i) The project's housing sponsor shall have been allocated by the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee a credit for federal income tax purposes under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) It shall qualify for a credit under Section 42(h)(4)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not require fees for the credit under this section in addition to those fees required for applications for the tax credit pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code. The committee may require a fee if the application for the credit under this section is submitted in a calendar year after the year the application is submitted for the federal tax credit.

(2) (A) The Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall certify to the housing sponsor the amount of tax credit under this section allocated to the housing sponsor for each credit period.

(B) In the case of a partnership or an S corporation, the housing sponsor shall provide a copy of the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee certification to the taxpayer.

(C) The taxpayer shall attach a copy of the certification to any return upon which a tax credit is claimed under this section.

(D) In the case of a failure to attach a copy of the certification for the year to the return in which a tax credit is claimed under this section, no credit under this section shall be allowed for that year until a copy of that certification is provided.

(E) All elections made by the taxpayer pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to this section.

(F) No credit shall be allocated under this section to buildings located in a difficult development area or a qualified census tract as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code for which the eligible basis of a new building or the rehabilitation expenditure of an existing building is 130 percent of that amount pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (5) of subsection (d) of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the committee reduces the amount of federal credit, with the approval of the applicant, so that the combined amount of federal and state credit shall not exceed the total credit allowable pursuant to this section and Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, computed without regard to Section 42(d)(5)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) In the case of any qualified low-income building placed in service by the housing sponsor during 1987, the term "applicable percentage" means 9 percent for each of the first three years and 3 percent for the fourth year for new buildings (whether or not the building is federally subsidized) and for existing buildings.

(2) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and is a new building not federally subsidized, the term "applicable percentage" means either of the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings which are not federally subsidized for the taxable year, determined in accordance with the requirements of Section 42(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, in lieu of the percentage prescribed in Section 42(b)(1)(A).

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 30 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(3) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and that is a new building which is federally subsidized or that is an existing building that is "at risk of conversion," the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings which are federally subsidized for the taxable year.

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 13 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(4) For purposes of this section, the term "at risk of conversion," with respect to an existing building means a building which satisfies all of the following criteria:

(A) The building is presently owned by a housing sponsor other than a qualified nonprofit organization.

(B) The building is a federally assisted building for which the low-income use restrictions will terminate or the mortgage on the building is eligible for prepayment under Subtitle 13 of the Emergency Low Income Housing Assistance Act of 1987 or under Section 502(c) of the Housing Act of 1949, anytime in the three calendar years after the year of application to the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee.

(C) The person acquiring the building enters into a regulatory agreement that requires the building to be operated in accordance with the requirements of this section for a period equal to the greater of 55 years or the life of the building.

(D) The building satisfies the requirements of Section 42(e) of the Internal Revenue Code regarding rehabilitation expenditures, except that the provisions of Section 42(e)(3)(A)(ii)(I) shall not apply.

(d) The term "qualified low-income housing project" as defined in Section 42(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by adding the following requirements:

(1) The taxpayer shall be entitled to receive a cash distribution from the operations of the project, after funding required reserves, which, at the election of the taxpayer, is equal to:

(A) An amount not to exceed 8 percent of the lesser of:

(i) The owner equity which shall include the amount of the capital contributions actually paid to the housing sponsor and shall not include any amounts until they are paid on an investor note; or

(ii) Twenty percent of the adjusted basis of the building as of the close of the first taxable year of the credit period; or

(B) The amount of the cash-flow from those units in the building that are not low-income units. For purposes of computing cash-flow under this subparagraph, operating costs shall be allocated to the low-income units using the "floor space fraction," as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(C) Any amount allowed to be distributed under subparagraph (A) that is not available for distribution during the first five years of the compliance period may accumulate and be distributed any time during the first 15 years of the compliance period but not thereafter.

(2) The limitation on return shall apply in the aggregate to the partners if the housing sponsor is a partnership and in the aggregate to the shareholders if the housing sponsor is an S corporation.

(3) The housing sponsor shall apply any cash available for distribution in excess of the amount eligible to be distributed under paragraph (1) to reduce the rent on rent-restricted units or to increase the number of rent-restricted units subject to the tests of Section 42(g)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) The provisions of Section 42(f) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) The term "credit period" as defined in Section 42(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "four income years" for "10 taxable years."

(2) The special rule for the first taxable year of the credit period under Section 42(f)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to the tax credit under this section.

(3) Section 42(f)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read:

If, as of the close of any income year in the compliance period, after the first year of the credit period, the qualified basis of any building exceeds the qualified basis of that building as of the close of the first year of the credit period, the housing sponsor, to the extent of its tax credit allocation, shall be eligible for a credit on the excess in an amount equal to the applicable percentage determined pursuant to subdivision (c) for the four-year period beginning with the later of the income years in which the increase in qualified basis occurs.

(f) The provisions of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 42(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and instead the following provisions shall be applicable:

The total amount for the four-year credit period of the housing credit dollars allocated in a calendar year to any building shall reduce the aggregate housing credit dollar amount of the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee for the calendar year in which the allocation is made.

(2) Paragraphs (3), (4), (6), (7), and (8) of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (m), the aggregate housing credit dollar amount which may be allocated annually by the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee pursuant to this section and Section 17058 shall be an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(1) Thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

(2) The unused housing credit ceiling, if any, for the preceding calendar years; and

(3) The amount of housing credit ceiling returned in the calendar year. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of housing credit dollar amount returned in the calendar year equals the housing credit dollar amount previously allocated to any project that does not become a qualified low-income housing project within the period required by this section or to any project with respect to which an allocation is canceled by mutual consent of the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the allocation recipient.

(h) (1) The term "compliance period" as defined in Section 42(i)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to mean, with respect to any building, the period of 30-consecutive income years beginning with the first income year of the credit period with respect thereto, subject to the limitation in paragraph (2).

(2) If, after the first 18 years of the compliance period, a qualified low-income housing project is not economically feasible, the housing sponsor shall be entitled to remove one or more low-income units from the set-aside and rent requirements of Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code as is necessary for the project to become economically feasible, provided that once a project is again economically feasible, the housing sponsor designates the next available units as low-income units subject to the set-aside and rent requirements, up to the number of low-income units necessary to arrive at the original applicable fraction, while keeping the project economically feasible.

(3) For purposes of paragraph (2), "economically feasible" means that project revenue equals or exceeds project operating expenses excluding any return on investment.

(4) For purposes of paragraph (3), "operating expenses" means the reasonable expenses necessary to operate and maintain the project in habitable condition, debt service, taxes, and reasonable reserves. For purposes of this paragraph, debt service shall not include that portion of payments of principal and interest attributable to any excess refinanced principal over the outstanding principal of the loan that was refinanced, except to the extent the excess was used for the rehabilitation of the project.

(i) Section 42(j) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and the following shall be substituted in its place:

(1) The requirements of this section shall be set forth in a regulatory agreement between the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the housing sponsor, which agreement shall be subordinated, when required, to any lien or encumbrance of any banks or other institutional lenders to the project. The regulatory agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 50199.14 of the Health and Safety Code, shall apply, providing the agreement includes all of the following provisions:

(A) A term not less than the compliance period.

(B) A requirement that the agreement be filed in the official records of the county in which the qualified low-income housing project is located.

(C) A provision stating which state and local agencies can enforce the regulatory agreement in the event the housing sponsor fails to satisfy any of the requirements of this section.

(D) A provision that the regulatory agreement shall be deemed a contract enforceable by tenants as third-party beneficiaries thereto and which allows individuals, whether prospective, present, or former occupants of the building, who meet the income limitation applicable to the building, the right to enforce the regulatory agreement in any state court.

(E) A provision incorporating the requirements of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code as modified by this section.

(F) A requirement that the housing sponsor provide the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee and the local agency that can enforce the regulatory agreement with advance notice if the housing sponsor intends to reduce the number of low-income units to make a project economically feasible.

(G) A requirement that the housing sponsor notify the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee and the local agency that can enforce the regulatory agreement if there is a determination by the Internal Revenue Service that the project is not in compliance with Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(H) A requirement that the housing sponsor, as security for the performance of the housing sponsor's obligations under the regulatory agreement, assign the housing sponsor's interest in rents which it receives from the project, provided that until there is a default under the regulatory agreement, the housing sponsor is entitled to collect and retain the rents.

(I) The remedies available in the event of a default under the regulatory agreement that is not cured within a reasonable cure period, include, but are not limited to, allowing any of the parties designated to enforce the regulatory agreement to collect all rents with respect to the project; taking possession of the project and operating the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement until the enforcer determines the housing sponsor is in a position to operate the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement; applying to any court for specific performance; securing the appointment of a receiver to operate the project; or any other relief as may be appropriate.

(j) (1) The committee shall allocate the housing credit on a regular basis consisting of not less than three periods in each calendar year during which applications may be filed and considered. The committee shall establish application filing deadlines, the maximum percentage of federal and state low-income housing tax credit ceiling which may be allocated by the committee in that period, and the approximate date on which allocations shall be made. If the enactment of federal or state law, the adoption of rules or regulations, or other similar events prevent the use of three allocation periods, the committee may reduce the number of periods and adjust the filing deadlines, maximum percentage of credit allocated, and the allocation dates.

(2) The committee shall adopt a qualified allocation plan, as provided in paragraph (1) of subsection (m) of Section 42 of Title 26 of the United States Code. In adopting this plan, the committee shall comply with the provisions of subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph (1) of subsection (m) of Section 42 of Title 26 of the United States Code.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (m) of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall allocate housing credits in accordance with the qualified allocation plan and regulations, which shall include the following provisions:

(A) All housing sponsors, as defined by paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 17058, shall demonstrate that the project meets the following threshold requirements:

(i) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate there is a need for low-income housing in the community or region for which it is proposed.

(ii) The project's proposed financing, including tax credit proceeds, shall be sufficient to complete the project and shall be adequate to operate the project for the extended use period.

(iii) The project shall have enforceable financing commitments, either construction or permanent financing, for at least 50 percent of the total estimated financing of the project.

(iv) The housing sponsor shall have and maintain control of the site for the project.

(v) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project complies with all applicable local land use and zoning ordinances.

(vi) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project development team has the experience and the financial capacity to ensure project completion and operation for the compliance period.

(vii) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate the amount of tax credit that is necessary for the financial feasibility of the project and its viability as a qualified low-income housing project throughout the extended use period, taking into account operating expenses, a supportable debt service, reserves, funds set aside for rental subsidies, and required equity, for the low-income units, and a development fee that does not exceed a specified percentage of the qualified basis of the project prior to inclusion of the development fee in the qualified basis, as determined by the committee.

(B) The committee shall give a preference to those projects

satisfying all of the threshold requirements of subparagraph (A) if:

(i) The project serves the lowest income tenants at rents affordable to those tenants; or

(ii) The project is obligated to serve qualified tenants for the longest period.

(C) In addition to the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B), the committee shall use the following criteria in allocating housing credits:

(i) Projects serving large families in which the greatest percentage of total square feet of all residential units is comprised of low-income units with three or more bedrooms.

(ii) Projects providing single room occupancy units serving very low income tenants.

(iii) Existing projects that are "at risk of conversion," as defined by paragraph (4) of subdivision (c).

(iv) Projects for which a public agency provides direct or indirect long-term financial support for at least 15 percent of the total project development costs or projects for which the owner's equity constitutes at least 30 percent of the total project development costs.

(v) Projects that provide tenant amenities not generally available to residents of low-income housing projects.

(vi) Projects located within a "difficult to develop area" or a "qualified census tract" as defined in Section 42(d) (5) (C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) For purposes of allocating credits pursuant to this section, the committee shall not give preference to any project by virtue of the date of submission of its application except to break a tie when two or more of the projects have an equal rating.

(5) Not less than 20 percent of the low-income housing tax credits available annually under this section and Section 17058 shall be set aside for allocation to rural areas as defined in Section 50199.21 of the Health and Safety Code. Any amount of credit set aside for rural areas remaining on or after October 31 of any calendar year shall be available for allocation to any eligible project. No amount of credit set aside for rural areas shall be considered available for any eligible project so long as there are eligible rural applications pending on October 31.

(k) Section 42(l) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

The term "secretary" shall be replaced by the term "Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee."

(l) In the case where the state credit allowed under this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(m) The aggregate amount of tax credits granted pursuant to this section and Section 17058 shall not exceed thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) per year. The Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not authorize any credit if the total amount of credits authorized in any year under the Personal Income Tax Law and the Bank and Corporation Tax Law exceeds thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

The aggregate amount of credit granted pursuant to this section and Section 17058 in 1989 may exceed thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) by an amount equal to the unallocated credit from 1987 and 1988.

(n) A project that received an allocation of a 1989 federal housing credit dollar amount shall be eligible to receive an allocation of a 1990 state housing credit dollar amount, subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The project was not placed in service prior to 1990.

(2) To the extent the amendments made to this section by the Statutes of 1990 conflict with any provisions existing in this section prior to those amendments, the prior provisions of law shall prevail.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), a project applying for an allocation under this subdivision shall be subject to the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (j).

(o) The credit period with respect to an allocation of credit in 1989 by the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee of which any amount is attributable to unallocated credit from 1987 or 1988 shall not begin until after December 31, 1989.

(p) (1) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1990, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (l), until the credit has been exhausted.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), this section shall remain in effect on or after December 1, 1990, for as long as Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, pertaining to low-income housing credits, remains in effect.

SEC. 4. Section 23610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 166 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

23610.5. (a) (1) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) a state low-income housing tax credit in an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (c), computed in accordance with Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) "Taxpayer," for purposes of this section, means the sole owner in the case of a C corporation, the partners in the case of a partnership, and the shareholders in the case of an S corporation.

(3) "Housing sponsor," for purposes of this section, means the sole owner in the case of a C corporation, the partnership in the case of a partnership, and the S corporation in the case of an S corporation.

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allocated to any housing sponsor shall be authorized by the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee, or any successor thereof, based on a project's need for the credit for economic feasibility in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(A) The low-income housing project shall be located in California and shall meet either of the following requirements:

(i) The project's housing sponsor shall have been allocated by the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee a credit for federal income tax purposes under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) It shall qualify for a credit under Section 42(h)(4)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not require fees for the credit under this section in addition to those fees required for applications for the tax credit pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code. The committee may require a fee if the application for the credit under this section is submitted in a calendar year after the year the application is submitted for the federal tax credit.

(2) (A) The Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall certify to the housing sponsor the amount of tax credit under this section allocated to the housing sponsor for each credit period.

(B) In the case of a partnership or an S corporation, the housing sponsor shall provide a copy of the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee certification to the taxpayer.

(C) The taxpayer shall attach a copy of the certification to any return upon which a tax credit is claimed under this section.

(D) In the case of a failure to attach a copy of the certification for the year to the return in which a tax credit is claimed under this section, no credit under this section shall be allowed for that year until a copy of that certification is provided.

(E) All elections made by the taxpayer pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to this section.

(F) No credit shall be allocated under this section to buildings located in a difficult development area or a qualified census tract as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code for which the eligible basis of a new building or the rehabilitation expenditure of an existing building is 130 percent of that amount pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (5) of subsection (d) of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the committee reduces the amount of federal credit, with the approval of the applicant, so that the combined amount of federal and state credit shall not exceed the total credit allowable pursuant to this section and Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, computed without regard to Section 42(d)(5)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) In the case of any qualified low-income building placed in service by the housing sponsor during 1987, the term "applicable percentage" means 9 percent for each of the first three years and 3 percent for the fourth year for new buildings (whether or not the building is federally subsidized) and for existing buildings.

(2) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and is a new building not federally subsidized, the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings which are not federally subsidized for the taxable year, determined in accordance with the requirements of Section 42(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, in lieu of the percentage prescribed in Section 42(b)(1)(A).

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 30 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(3) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and that is a new building which is federally subsidized or that is an existing building that is "at risk of conversion," the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings which are federally subsidized for the taxable year.

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 13 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(4) For purposes of this section, the term "at risk of conversion," with respect to an existing building means a building which satisfies all of the following criteria:

(A) The building is presently owned by a housing sponsor other than a qualified nonprofit organization.

(B) The building is a federally assisted building for which the low-income use restrictions will terminate or the mortgage on the building is eligible for prepayment under Subtitle 13 of the Emergency Low Income Housing Assistance Act of 1987 or under Section 502(c) of the Housing Act of 1949, anytime in the three calendar years after the year of application to the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee.

(C) The person acquiring the building enters into a regulatory agreement that requires the building to be operated in accordance with the requirements of this section for a period equal to the greater of 55 years or the life of the building.

(D) The building satisfies the requirements of Section 42(e) of the Internal Revenue Code regarding rehabilitation expenditures, except that the provisions of Section 42(e)(3)(A)(ii)(I) shall not apply.

(d) The term "qualified low-income housing project" as defined in Section 42(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by adding the following requirements:

(1) The taxpayer shall be entitled to receive a cash distribution from the operations of the project, after funding required reserves, which, at the election of the taxpayer, is equal to:

(A) An amount not to exceed 8 percent of the lesser of:

(i) The owner equity which shall include the amount of the capital contributions actually paid to the housing sponsor and shall not include any amounts until they are paid on an investor note; or

(ii) Twenty percent of the adjusted basis of the building as of the close of the first taxable year of the credit period; or

(B) The amount of the cash-flow from those units in the building that are not low-income units. For purposes of computing cash-flow under this subparagraph, operating costs shall be allocated to the low-income units using the "floor space fraction," as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(C) Any amount allowed to be distributed under subparagraph (A) that is not available for distribution during the first five years of the compliance period may accumulate and be distributed any time during the first 15 years of the compliance period but not thereafter.

(2) The limitation on return shall apply in the aggregate to the partners if the housing sponsor is a partnership and in the aggregate to the shareholders if the housing sponsor is an S corporation.

(3) The housing sponsor shall apply any cash available for distribution in excess of the amount eligible to be distributed under paragraph (1) to reduce the rent on rent-restricted units or to increase the number of rent-restricted units subject to the tests of Section 42(g)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) The provisions of Section 42(f) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) The term "credit period" as defined in Section 42(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "four income years" for "10 taxable years."

(2) The special rule for the first taxable year of the credit period under Section 42(f)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to the tax credit under this section.

(3) Section 42(f)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read:

If, as of the close of any income year in the compliance period, after the first year of the credit period, the qualified basis of any building exceeds the qualified basis of that building as of the close of the first year of the credit period, the housing sponsor, to the extent of its tax credit allocation, shall be eligible for a credit on the excess in an amount equal to the applicable percentage determined pursuant to subdivision (c) for the four-year period beginning with the later of the income years in which the increase in qualified basis occurs.

(f) The provisions of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 42(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and instead the following provisions shall be applicable:

The total amount for the four-year credit period of the housing credit dollars allocated in a calendar year to any building shall reduce the aggregate housing credit dollar amount of the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee for the calendar year in which the allocation is made.

(2) Paragraphs (3), (4), (6), (7), and (8) of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (m), the aggregate housing credit dollar amount which may be allocated annually by the

Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee pursuant to this section and Section 17058 shall be an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(1) Thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

(2) The unused housing credit ceiling, if any, for the preceding calendar years; and

(3) The amount of housing credit ceiling returned in the calendar year. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of housing credit dollar amount returned in the calendar year equals the housing credit dollar amount previously allocated to any project that does not become a qualified low-income housing project within the period required by this section or to any project with respect to which an allocation is canceled by mutual consent of the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the allocation recipient.

(h) (1) The term "compliance period" as defined in Section 42(i)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to mean, with respect to any building, the period of 30-consecutive income years beginning with the first income year of the credit period with respect thereto, subject to the limitation in paragraph (2).

(2) If, after the first 18 years of the compliance period, a qualified low-income housing project is not economically feasible, the housing sponsor shall be entitled to remove one or more low-income units from the set-aside and rent requirements of Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code as is necessary for the project to become economically feasible, provided that once a project is again economically feasible, the housing sponsor designates the next available units as low-income units subject to the set-aside and rent requirements, up to the number of low-income units necessary to arrive at the original applicable fraction, while keeping the project economically feasible.

(3) For purposes of paragraph (2), "economically feasible" means that project revenue equals or exceeds project operating expenses excluding any return on investment.

(4) For purposes of paragraph (3), "operating expenses" means the reasonable expenses necessary to operate and maintain the project in habitable condition, debt service, taxes, and reasonable reserves. For purposes of this paragraph, debt service shall not include that portion of payments of principal and interest attributable to any excess refinanced principal over the outstanding principal of the loan that was refinanced, except to the extent the excess was used for the rehabilitation of the project.

(i) Section 42(j) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and the following shall be substituted in its place:

(1) The requirements of this section shall be set forth in a regulatory agreement between the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the housing sponsor, which agreement shall be subordinated, when required, to any lien or encumbrance of any banks or other institutional lenders to the project. The regulatory agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section

50199.14 of the Health and Safety Code, shall apply, providing the agreement includes all of the following provisions:

(A) A term not less than the compliance period.

(B) A requirement that the agreement be filed in the official records of the county in which the qualified low-income housing project is located.

(C) A provision stating which state and local agencies can enforce the regulatory agreement in the event the housing sponsor fails to satisfy any of the requirements of this section.

(D) A provision that the regulatory agreement shall be deemed a contract enforceable by tenants as third-party beneficiaries thereto and which allows individuals, whether prospective, present, or former occupants of the building, who meet the income limitation applicable to the building, the right to enforce the regulatory agreement in any state court.

(E) A provision incorporating the requirements of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code as modified by this section.

(F) A requirement that the housing sponsor provide the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee and the local agency that can enforce the regulatory agreement with advance notice if the housing sponsor intends to reduce the number of low-income units to make a project economically feasible.

(G) A requirement that the housing sponsor notify the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee and the local agency that can enforce the regulatory agreement if there is a determination by the Internal Revenue Service that the project is not in compliance with Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(H) A requirement that the housing sponsor, as security for the performance of the housing sponsor's obligations under the regulatory agreement, assign the housing sponsor's interest in rents which it receives from the project, provided that until there is a default under the regulatory agreement, the housing sponsor is entitled to collect and retain the rents.

(I) The remedies available in the event of a default under the regulatory agreement that is not cured within a reasonable cure period, include, but are not limited to, allowing any of the parties designated to enforce the regulatory agreement to collect all rents with respect to the project; taking possession of the project and operating the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement until the enforcer determines the housing sponsor is in a position to operate the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement; applying to any court for specific performance; securing the appointment of a receiver to operate the project; or any other relief as may be appropriate.

(j) (1) The committee shall allocate the housing credit on a regular basis consisting of not less than three periods in each calendar year during which applications may be filed and considered. The committee shall establish application filing deadlines, the maximum percentage of federal and state low-income housing tax credit ceiling which may be allocated by the committee in that period, and the approximate date on which allocations shall be made. If the enactment of federal or state law, the adoption of rules or regulations, or other similar events prevent the use of three allocation periods, the committee may reduce the number of periods and adjust the filing deadlines, maximum percentage of credit allocated, and the allocation dates.

(2) The committee shall adopt a qualified allocation plan, as provided in paragraph (1) of subsection (m) of Section 42 of Title 26 of the United States Code. In adopting this plan, the committee shall comply with the provisions of subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph (1) of subsection (m) of Section 42 of Title 26 of the United States Code.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (m) of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall allocate housing credits in accordance with the qualified allocation plan and regulations, which shall include the following provisions:

(A) All housing sponsors, as defined by paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 17058, shall demonstrate at the time the application is filed with the committee that the project meets the following threshold requirements:

(i) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate there is a need for low-income housing in the community or region for which it is proposed.

(ii) The project's proposed financing, including tax credit proceeds, shall be sufficient to complete the project and shall be adequate to operate the project for the extended use period.

(iii) The project shall have enforceable financing commitments, either construction or permanent financing, for at least 50 percent of the total estimated financing of the project.

(iv) The housing sponsor shall have and maintain control of the site for the project.

(v) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project complies with all applicable local land use and zoning ordinances.

(vi) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project development team has the experience and the financial capacity to ensure project completion and operation for the extended use period.

(vii) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate the amount of tax credit that is necessary for the financial feasibility of the project and its viability as a qualified low-income housing project throughout the extended use period, taking into account operating expenses, a supportable debt service, reserves, funds set aside for rental subsidies, and required equity, for the low-income units, and a development fee that does not exceed a specified percentage of the qualified basis of the project prior to inclusion of the development fee in the qualified basis, as determined by the committee.

(B) The committee shall give a preference to those projects

satisfying all of the threshold requirements of subparagraph (A) if:

(i) The project serves the lowest income tenants at rents affordable to those tenants; or

(ii) The project is obligated to serve qualified tenants for the longest period.

(C) In addition to the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B), the committee shall use the following criteria in allocating housing credits:

(i) Projects serving large families in which the greatest percentage of total square feet of all residential units is comprised of low-income units with three or more bedrooms.

(ii) Projects providing single room occupancy units serving very low income tenants.

(iii) Existing projects that are "at risk of conversion," as defined by paragraph (4) of subdivision (c).

(iv) Projects for which a public agency provides direct or indirect long-term financial support for at least 15 percent of the total project development costs or projects for which the owner's equity constitutes at least 30 percent of the total project development costs.

(v) Projects that provide tenant amenities not generally available to residents of low-income housing projects.

(vi) Projects located within a "difficult to develop area" or a "qualified census tract" as defined in Section 42(d) (5) (C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) For purposes of allocating credits pursuant to this section, the committee shall not give preference to any project by virtue of the date of submission of its application except to break a tie when two or more of the projects have an equal rating.

(5) Not less than 20 percent of the low-income housing tax credits available annually under this section and Section 17058 shall be set aside for allocation to rural areas as defined in Section 50199.21 of the Health and Safety Code. Any amount of credit set aside for rural areas remaining on or after October 31 of any calendar year shall be available for allocation to any eligible project. No amount of credit set aside for rural areas shall be considered available for any eligible project so long as there are eligible rural applications pending on October 31.

(k) Section 42(l) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

The term "secretary" shall be replaced by the term "Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee."

(l) In the case where the state credit allowed under this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(m) The aggregate amount of tax credits granted pursuant to this section and Section 17058 shall not exceed thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) per year. The Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not authorize any credit if the total amount of credits authorized in any year under the Personal Income Tax Law and the Bank and Corporation Tax Law exceeds thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

The aggregate amount of credit granted pursuant to this section and Section 17058 in 1989 may exceed thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) by an amount equal to the unallocated credit from 1987 and 1988.

(n) A project that received an allocation of a 1989 federal housing credit dollar amount shall be eligible to receive an allocation of a 1990 state housing credit dollar amount, subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The project was not placed in service prior to 1990.

(2) To the extent the amendments made to this section by the Statutes of 1990 conflict with any provisions existing in this section prior to those amendments, the prior provisions of law shall prevail.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), a project applying for an allocation under this subdivision shall be subject to the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (j).

(o) The credit period with respect to an allocation of credit in 1989 by the Mortgage Bond and Tax Credit Allocation Committee of which any amount is attributable to unallocated credit from 1987 or 1988 shall not begin until after December 31, 1989.

(p) (1) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1990, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (l), until the credit has been exhausted.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), this section shall remain in effect on or after December 1, 1990, for as long as Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, pertaining to low-income housing credits, remains in effect.

SEC. 5. Sections 2 and 4 of this bill incorporate amendments to Sections 17058 and 23610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1925. They shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1991, (2) each bill amends Sections 17058 and 23610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1925, in which case Sections 1 and 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 6. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1486

An act to amend Sections 68540, 68541, and 70045.9 of, and to add Section 68541.5 to, the Government Code, relating to courts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 68540 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68540. (a) Whenever a judge of a superior court is assigned by the Chairperson of the Judicial Council to sit in a superior court in another county, the receiving county shall pay the state 50 percent of the judge's full salary for the time the judge served the receiving court and the state shall reimburse the lending county 10 percent of the judge's salary. If the county is an option county, as defined in Section 77004, the amounts due shall be paid and credited as provided in Section 77205.3.

(b) The state shall pay the additional compensation of a judge of a municipal or justice court, assigned to a superior court. If the judge is assigned to a county other than that in which he or she was elected or appointed, the receiving county shall pay the state 50 percent of a superior court judge's full salary for the time the judge served the receiving court and the state shall reimburse the lending county 10 percent of the judge's salary, except as provided in Section 68541. If the county is an option county, as defined in Section 77004, the amounts due shall be paid and credited as provided in Section 77205.3.

SEC. 2. Section 68541 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68541. (a) The compensation of a judge of a justice court who receives a part-time salary and who is assigned by the Chairperson of the Judicial Council to serve in a court in a county other than that in which he or she was elected or appointed shall be paid by the state, and the receiving county shall pay the state 50 percent of the full salary of a judge of the court to which he or she was elected or appointed for the time the judge served the receiving court. If the county is an option county, as defined by Section 77004, the amount due shall be paid as provided in Section 77205.3.

(b) If a justice court judge is assigned to another justice court, except for exchange assignments as defined by rules adopted by the Judicial Council, the salary of the office to which he or she is assigned shall, for purposes of Section 68540.7, be deemed to be equivalent to the salary paid a justice court judge certified pursuant to Section 68202.5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. Section 68541.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

68541.5. Notwithstanding Section 68540, 68540.5, 68541, or 68543.5, a receiving county is not required to pay the state, and the state shall not reimburse the lending county any part of a judge's salary if any of the following occurs:

(a) The judge is designated as a member of a superior court appellate department pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 77 of the Code of Civil Procedure in a county other than that in which he or she was elected or appointed.

(b) The judge is serving pursuant to a reciprocal agreement or exchange assignment, as defined in rules adopted by the Judicial Council, in a county other than that in which he or she was elected or appointed.

(c) The judge is selected to decide a question of disqualification, pursuant to Section 170.3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, concerning a judge in a county other than that in which the selected judge was elected or appointed.

(d) When all of the judges of a court have been disqualified or recused, and a judge is assigned pursuant to Section 170.8 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to a county other than that in which he or she was elected or appointed.

(e) The judge is assigned to serve in a court as a result of a criminal case transferred to that court pursuant to a change of venue order.

(f) The judge is assigned to hear a coordinated proceeding pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 404) of Title 4 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure in the county to which the judge is assigned.

SEC. 4. Section 70045.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:

70045.9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the provisions of this section shall apply to the official court reporters in Shasta County:

(a) The regular full-time official court reporters shall perform the following duties:

(1) Report all criminal proceedings in superior court.

(2) Report all juvenile proceedings other than those heard by juvenile court referee or traffic hearing officer.

(3) Report all civil jury trials in superior court, unless the court determines it is not required.

(4) Report any other proceeding in the superior court at the request of the judge of the superior court.

(5) Report any superior court proceeding when a party requests a court reporter in accordance with the rules of court.

(6) Report all criminal investigations of the grand jury, when requested by the foreman, or by the district attorney.

(7) Report the preliminary examination of those accused of crime before magistrates or municipal court judges within Shasta County, or before both.

(8) Report coroner's inquests, when requested by the coroner.

(9) Report hearings of the Board of Equalization of the County of Shasta, as requested by that board.

(10) Other reporting or related services, as directed by the judges of the superior court.

(11) When not occupied with the above duties, and upon request of the board of supervisors and approval of the presiding judge of the superior court, he or she shall report matters before the board of supervisors.

(b) Each regular full-time court reporter shall be paid a monthly salary of one thousand four hundred seventy dollars ($1,470), unless the Board of Supervisors of Shasta County provides for compensation in excess of that amount, in which event the amount set shall apply. The salary is for compensation for reporting services set forth under subdivision (a). For all transcriptions incident to reporting services, each reporter shall receive the fees provided for in Article 9 (commencing with Section 69941).

The regular full-time official court reporters shall be entitled to the same privileges with respect to retirement, vacation (upon approval of judge to whom assigned), sick leave, and group insurance, which either now or hereafter may be provided by ordinance or resolution to other comparable employees of the County of Shasta.

(c) When the regular full-time official court reporters are occupied in the performance of their duties and services pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (a), the judge or judges of the superior court may appoint as many additional official court reporters, who shall be known as official reporters pro tempore, as the business of the courts may require in order that the judicial business of the court may be carried on without delay. In the event the board of supervisors has entered into a contract for supplemental reporter services with a qualified person or persons first approved by the presiding judge of the superior court, the person or persons shall be appointed as reporter pro tempore. However, if the person or persons are not reasonably available, the judge may appoint any qualified person. Notwithstanding other provisions of this section, when an assignment of a pro tempore reporter is made to proceedings in the superior court, the assignment shall be deemed to run to the completion of the proceeding.

Reporters pro tempore shall be paid in accordance with the contract with the board of supervisors or, in absence thereof, with the per diem, transcription, and other fee provisions of Article 9 (commencing with Section 69941). Such per diem, traveling and other expenses, and the fees chargeable to the county under the terms of these provisions shall be a proper county charge.

(d) During the hours during which the court is open as prescribed by the Shasta County Superior Court for the transaction of judicial business, official court reporters shall devote full time to the performance of the duties required of them by law and shall not engage or solicit to engage in any other employment in their professional capacity.

(e) In addition to any fee otherwise required, in civil trials that last longer than one judicial day, a fee equal to the per diem rate for official court reporters pro tempore shall be charged per day of service to the parties, on a pro rata basis, for the services of an official court reporter for the second and each succeeding day a court reporter is required.

Each party shall deposit his or her pro rata share of such fee with the clerk at the beginning of the second and each succeeding day's court session.

In addition to any fee otherwise required, in civil cases in which the court orders a daily transcript necessitating the services of two court reporters, the party requesting the daily transcript shall pay a fee equal to the per diem rate for court reporters pro tempore for each day of service rendered by the second court reporter.

This fee shall be taxed as costs in favor of any party paying the same and to whom costs are awarded by the judgment of the court.

(f) Court reporters pro tempore serving in the superior and municipal courts shall receive a per diem equal to the base wage of the official court reporter for an eight-hour day, excluding benefits. This fee shall be adjusted by the same, general across-the-board salary adjustment enacted by the county in any salary ordinance applicable to official court reporters. For services of less than four hours in any day, the pro tempore reporter will receive a per diem equal to 65 percent of the base wage.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide for adequate court reporter services in Shasta County, and to permit counties to receive appropriate block grants for the first quarter of the fiscal year where judges have been assigned for the purposes described in this bill, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1487

An act to amend Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 481 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base-year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value which is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base-year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(2) Notwithstanding the limitation in paragraph (1) requiring that the original property and the replacement dwelling be located in the same county, this limitation shall not apply in any county in which the county board of supervisors, after consultation with local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county, adopts an ordinance making the provisions of paragraph (1) also applicable to situations in which replacement dwellings are located in that county and the original properties are located in another county within this state. The authorization contained in this paragraph shall be applicable in a county only if the ordinance adopted by the board of supervisors complies with the following requirements:

(A) It is adopted only after consultation between the board of supervisors and all other local affected agencies within the county's boundaries.

(B) It requires that all claims for transfers of base-year value from original property located in another county be granted if the claims meet the applicable requirements of both subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and this section.

(C) It requires that all base-year valuations of original property located in another county and determined by its assessor be accepted in connection with the granting of claims for transfers of base-year value.

(D) The ordinance provides that its provisions shall remain operative for a period of not less than five years.

(E) The ordinance specifies the date on and after which its provisions shall be applicable. However, the date specified shall not be earlier than November 9, 1988. The specified applicable date may be a date earlier than the date the county adopts the ordinance.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) (A) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of the land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the county.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted the property tax relief provided by this section. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data-processing media or other media and in a format which is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base-year value of the mobilehome or the base-year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base-year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base-year value determined in accordance with this section because the property qualifies as a replacement dwelling.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form which the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of the claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who was a record owner of the original property at the time of its sale or is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age. In the absence of available proof, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property and, if the original property is located within another county, the name of the county or counties and, if applicable, city or cities in which the original property is located.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

(6) If the original property and the replacement dwelling are located in different counties, the base-year value of the original property determined by the assessor of the county in which the original property is located.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base-year value of the original property" means its base-year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base-year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base-year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base-year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if either of the following conditions are met:

(i) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(ii) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986, and on or before January 1, 1988, and within two years of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (h), if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base-year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief days after completion.

(B) The fair market value of the new construction on the date of completion, plus the full cash value of the replacement dwelling on the date of acquisition, is not more than the full cash value of the original property as determined pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) for purposes of granting the original claim.

(i) (1) With respect to the transfer of base-year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in the same county, this section shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base-year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in different counties, this section shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after the date specified in accordance with subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) in the ordinance of the county in which the replacement dwelling is located, but shall not apply to any replacement dwelling which was purchased or newly constructed before November 9, 1988.

(j) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision, and the amendments to this section during the 1989 portion of the 1989–90 Regular Session of the Legislature, shall remain operative only until January 1, 1999, and on that date are repealed.

SEC. 1.3. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 481 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base-year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value which is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base-year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(2) Notwithstanding the limitation in paragraph (1) requiring that the original property and the replacement dwelling be located in the same county, this limitation shall not apply in any county in which the county board of supervisors, after consultation with local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county, adopts an ordinance making the provisions of paragraph (1) also applicable to situations in which replacement dwellings are located in that county and the original properties are located in another county within this state. The authorization contained in this paragraph shall be applicable in a county only if the ordinance adopted by the board of supervisors complies with the following requirements:

(A) It is adopted only after consultation between the board of supervisors and all other local affected agencies within the county's boundaries.

(B) It requires that all claims for transfers of base-year value from original property located in another county be granted if the claims meet the applicable requirements of both subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and this section.

(C) It requires that all base-year valuations of original property located in another county and determined by its assessor be accepted in connection with the granting of claims for transfers of base-year value.

(D) The ordinance provides that its provisions shall remain operative for a period of not less than five years.

(E) The ordinance specifies the date on and after which its provisions shall be applicable. However, the date specified shall not be earlier than November 9, 1988. The specified applicable date may be a date earlier than the date the county adopts the ordinance.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) (A) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of the land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the county.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted, as a claimant, the property tax relief provided by this section. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors and all claimants who have thereby received relief. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data-processing media or other media and in a format which is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years of age, shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them is eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base-year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base-year value determined in accordance with this section because the property qualifies as a replacement dwelling.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form which the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of each claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age. In the absence of available proof the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property, and, if the original property is located within another county, the name of the county or counties and, if applicable, city or cities in which the original property is located.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

(6) If the original property and the replacement dwelling are located in different counties, the base-year value of the original property determined by the assessor of the county in which the original property is located.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base-year value of the original property" means its base-year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base-year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base-year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base-year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if either of the following conditions are met:

(i) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(ii) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986, and on or before January 1, 1988, and within two years of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (h), if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base-year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the replacement dwelling, the spouse shall also be deemed a claimant for purposes of determining whether the condition of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has been met.

(10) "Property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property which is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) "Consultation" means a noticed hearing conducted by a county board of supervisors concerning the adoption of an ordinance described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) and with respect to which all local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county are provided with reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing and a reasonable opportunity to appear and participate at the hearing.

(12) "Local affected agency" means any city, special district, school district, or community college district which receives an annual property tax revenue allocation.

(13) "Person" means any individual, but does not include any firm, partnership, association, corporation, company, or other legal entity or organization of any kind.

(h) (1) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base-year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(A) The date the original property is sold.

(B) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(C) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

(2) Any taxes which were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base-year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount which would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base-year value.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base-year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(4) In the case where a claim under this section has been timely filed and granted, and new construction is performed upon the replacement dwelling subsequent to the transfer of base-year value, the property tax relief provided by this section also shall apply to the replacement dwelling, as improved, and thus there shall be no reassessment upon completion of the new construction if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The new construction is completed within two years of the date of the sale of the original property and the owner notifies the assessor in writing of completion of the new construction within 30 days after completion.

(B) The fair market value of the new construction on the date of completion, plus the full cash value of the replacement dwelling on the date of acquisition, is not more that the full cash value of the original property as determined pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) for purposes of granting the original claim.

(i) Any claimant may rescind a claim for the property tax relief provided by this section and shall not be considered to have received that relief for purposes of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b), if a written notice of rescission is delivered to the office of the assessor in which the original claim was filed and all of the following have occurred:

(1) The notice is signed by the original filing claimant or claimants.

(2) The notice is delivered to the office of the assessor before the date that the county first issues, as a result of relief granted under this section, a refund check for property taxes imposed upon the replacement dwelling. If granting relief will not result in a refund of property taxes, then the notice shall be delivered before payment is first made of any property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling consistent with relief granted under this section. If payment of the taxes is not made, then notice shall be delivered before the first date that those property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling, consistent with relief granted under this section, are delinquent.

(3) The notice is accompanied by the payment of a fee as the assessor may require, provided that the fee shall not exceed an amount reasonably related to the estimated cost of processing a rescission claim, including both direct costs and developmental and indirect costs, such costs for overhead, personnel, supplies, materials, office space, and computers.

(j) (1) With respect to the transfer of base-year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in the same county, this section shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base-year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in different counties, this section shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after the date specified in accordance with subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) in the ordinance of the county in which the replacement dwelling is located, but shall not apply to any replacement dwelling which was purchased or newly constructed before November 9, 1988.

(k) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision, and the amendments to this section during the 1989 portion of the 1989–90 Regular Session of the Legislature, shall remain operative only until January 1, 1999, and on that date are repealed.

SEC. 1.5. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 481 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years, or any severely and permanently disabled person, who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base-year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value which is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base-year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(2) Notwithstanding the limitation in paragraph (1) requiring that the original property and the replacement dwelling be located in the same county, this limitation shall not apply in any county in which the county board of supervisors, after consultation with local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county, adopts an ordinance making the provisions of paragraph (1) also applicable to situations in which replacement dwellings are located in that county and the original properties are located in another county within this state. The authorization contained in this paragraph shall be applicable in a county only if the ordinance adopted by the board of supervisors complies with the following requirements:

(A) It is adopted only after consultation between the board of supervisors and all other local affected agencies within the county's boundaries.

(B) It requires that all claims for transfers of base-year value from original property located in another county be granted if the claims meet the applicable requirements of both subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and this section.

(C) It requires that all base-year valuations of original property located in another county and determined by its assessor be accepted in connection with the granting of claims for transfers of base-year value.

(D) The ordinance provides that its provisions shall remain operative for a period of not less than five years.

(E) The ordinance specifies the date on and after which its provisions shall be applicable. However, the date specified shall not be earlier than November 9, 1988. The specified applicable date may be a date earlier than the date the county adopts the ordinance.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age, or is severely and permanently disabled.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) (A) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of the land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the county.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted the property tax relief provided by this section. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data-processing media or other media and in a format which is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base-year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base-year value of the mobilehome or the base-year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years, or is severely and permanently disabled, shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base-year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base-year value determined in accordance with this section because the property qualifies as a replacement dwelling.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form which the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of the claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who was a record owner of the original property at the time of its sale or is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age or severely and permanently disabled. Proof of severe and permanent disability shall be considered a certification, signed by a licensed physician and surgeon of appropriate specialty, attesting to the claimant's severely and permanently disabled condition. In the absence of available proof that a person is over 55 years of age, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met. In the case of a severely and permanently disabled claimant either of the following shall be submitted:

(A) A certification, signed by a licensed physician or surgeon of appropriate specialty which identifies specific reasons why the disability necessitates a move to the replacement dwelling and the disability-related requirements, including any locational requirements, of a replacement dwelling. The claimant shall substantiate that the replacement dwelling meets disability-related requirements so identified and that the primary reason for the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy those requirements. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under the penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy identified disability-related requirements.

(B) The claimant's substantiation that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to alleviate financial burdens caused by the disability. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move is to alleviate the financial burdens caused by the disability.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property and, if the original property is located within another county, the name of the county or counties and, if applicable, city or cities in which the original property is located.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

(6) If the original property and the replacement dwelling are located in different counties, the base-year value of the original property determined by the assessor of the county in which the original property is located.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base-year value of the original property" means its base-year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article

XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base-year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base-year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base-year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if either of the following conditions are met:

(i) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(ii) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986, and on or before January 1, 1988, and within two years of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (h), if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base-year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the original property or the replacement dwelling, whether or not that spouse joined in the claim, the spouse shall also be deemed a claimant for purposes of determining whether in any future claim filed by the spouse under this section the condition of eligibility specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has or has not been met by the spouse.

(10) "Property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property which is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) "Consultation" means a noticed hearing conducted by a county board of supervisors concerning the adoption of an ordinance described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) and with respect to which all local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county are provided with reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing and a reasonable opportunity to appear and participate at the hearing.

(12) "Local affected agency" means any city, special district, school district, or community college district which receives an annual property tax revenue allocation.

(13) "Severely and permanently disabled person" means and person described in subdivision (b) of Section 74.3.

(h) (1) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base-year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(A) The date the original property is sold.

(B) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(C) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

(2) Any taxes which were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base-year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount which would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base-year value.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base-year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(4) In the case where a claim under this section has been timely filed and granted, and new construction is performed upon the replacement dwelling subsequent to the transfer of base-year value, the property tax relief provided by this section also shall apply to the replacement dwelling, as improved, and thus there shall be no reassessment upon completion of the new construction if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The new construction is completed within two years of the date of the sale of the original property and the owner notifies the assessor in writing of completion of the new construction within 30 days after completion.

(B) The fair market value of the new construction on the date of completion, plus the full cash value of the replacement dwelling on the date of acquisition, is not more that the full cash value of the original property as determined pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) for purposes of granting the original claim.

(i) (1) With respect to the transfer of base-year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in the same county, this section, except as provided in paragraph (3), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base-year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in different counties, this section, except as provided in paragraph (3), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after the date specified in accordance with subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) in the ordinance of the county in which the replacement dwelling is located, but shall not apply to any replacement dwelling which was purchased or newly constructed before November 9, 1988.

(3) With respect to the transfer of base-year value by a severely and permanently disabled person, this section shall apply only to replacement dwellings which are purchased or newly constructed on or after June 6, 1990.

(j) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision, and the amendments to this section during the 1989 portion of the 1989–90 Regular Session of the Legislature, shall remain operative only until January 1, 1999, and on that date are repealed.

SEC. 1.7. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 481 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years, or any severely and permanently disabled person, who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base-year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value which is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base-year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(2) Notwithstanding the limitation in paragraph (1) requiring that the original property and the replacement dwelling be located in the same county, this limitation shall not apply in any county in which the county board of supervisors, after consultation with local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county, adopts an ordinance making the provisions of paragraph (1) also applicable to situations in which replacement dwellings are located in that county and the original properties are located in another county within this state. The authorization contained in this paragraph shall be applicable in a county only if the ordinance adopted by the board of supervisors complies with the following requirements:

(A) It is adopted only after consultation between the board of supervisors and all other local affected agencies within the county's boundaries.

(B) It requires that all claims for transfers of base-year value from original property located in another county be granted if the claims meet the applicable requirements of both subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and this section.

(C) It requires that all base-year valuations of original property located in another county and determined by its assessor be accepted in connection with the granting of claims for transfers of base-year value.

(D) The ordinance provides that its provisions shall remain operative for a period of not less than five years.

(E) The ordinance specifies the date on and after which its provisions shall be applicable. However, the date specified shall not be earlier than November 9, 1988. The specified applicable date may be a date earlier than the date the county adopts the ordinance.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age, or is severely and permanently disabled.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) (A) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of the land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the county.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted, as a claimant, the property tax relief provided by this section. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors and all claimants who have thereby received relief. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data-processing media or other media and in a format which is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base-year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base-year value of the mobilehome or the base-year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years, or severely and permanently disabled, shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base-year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base-year value determined in accordance with this section because the property qualifies as a replacement dwelling.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form which the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of each claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age or severely and permanently disabled. Proof of severe and permanent disability shall be considered a certification, signed by a licensed physician and surgeon of appropriate specialty, attesting to the claimant's severely and permanently disabled condition. In the absence of available proof that a person is over 55 years of age, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met. In the case of a severely and permanently disabled claimant either of the following shall be submitted:

(A) A certification, signed by a licensed physician or surgeon of appropriate specialty which identifies specific reasons why the disability necessitates a move to the replacement dwelling and the disability-related requirements, including any locational requirements, of a replacement dwelling. The claimant shall substantiate that the replacement dwelling meets disability-related requirements so identified and that the primary reason for the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy those requirements. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under the penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy identified disability-related requirements.

(B) The claimant's substantiation that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to alleviate financial burdens caused by the disability. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move is to alleviate the financial burdens caused by the disability.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property, and, if the original property is located within another county, the name of the county or counties and, if applicable, city or cities in which the original property is located.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

(6) If the original property and the replacement dwelling are located in different counties, the base-year value of the original property determined by the assessor of the county in which the original property is located.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base-year value of the original property" means its base-year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base-year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base-year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base-year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if either of the following conditions are met:

(i) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(ii) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986, and on or before January 1, 1988, and within two years of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (h), if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base-year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the replacement dwelling, the spouse shall also be deemed a claimant for purposes of determining whether the condition of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has been met.

(10) "Property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property which is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) "Consultation" means a noticed hearing conducted by a county board of supervisors concerning the adoption of an ordinance described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) and with respect to which all local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county are provided with reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing and a reasonable opportunity to appear and participate at the hearing.

(12) "Local affected agency" means any city, special district, school district, or community college district which receives an annual property tax revenue allocation.

(13) "Person" means any individual, but does not include any firm, partnership, association, corporation, company, or other legal entity or organization of any kind.

(14) "Severely and permanently disabled person" means any person described in subdivision (b) of Section 74.3.

(h) (1) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base-year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(A) The date the original property is sold.

(B) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(C) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

(2) Any taxes which were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base-year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount which would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base-year value.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base-year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(4) In the case where a claim under this section has been timely filed and granted, and new construction is performed upon the replacement dwelling subsequent to the transfer of base-year value, the property tax relief provided by this section also shall apply to the replacement dwelling, as improved, and thus there shall be no reassessment upon completion of the new construction if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The new construction is completed within two years of the date of the sale of the original property and the owner notifies the assessor in writing of completion of the new construction within 30 days after completion.

(B) The fair market value of the new construction on the date of completion, plus the full cash value of the replacement dwelling on the date of acquisition, is not more than the full cash value of the original property as determined pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) for purposes of granting the original claim.

(i) Any claimant may rescind a claim for the property tax relief provided by this section and shall not be considered to have received that relief for purposes of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b), if a written notice of rescission is delivered to the office of the assessor in which the original claim was filed and all of the following have occurred:

(1) The notice is signed by the original filing claimant or claimants.

(2) The notice is delivered to the office of the assessor before the date that the county first issues, as a result of relief granted under this section, a refund check for property taxes imposed upon the replacement dwelling. If granting relief will not result in a refund of property taxes, then the notice shall be delivered before payment is first made of any property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling consistent with relief granted under this section. If payment of the taxes is not made, then notice shall be delivered before the first date that those property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling, consistent with relief granted under this section, are delinquent.

(3) The notice is accompanied by the payment of a fee as the assessor may require, provided that the fee shall not exceed an amount reasonably related to the estimated cost of processing a rescission claim, including both direct costs and developmental and indirect costs, such as costs for overhead, personnel, supplies, materials, office space, and computers.

(j) (1) With respect to the transfer of base-year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in the same county, this section, except as provided in paragraph (3), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base-year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in different counties, this section, except as provided in paragraph (3), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after the date specified in accordance with subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) in the ordinance of the county in which the replacement dwelling is located, but shall not apply to any replacement dwelling which was purchased or newly constructed before November 9, 1988.

(3) With respect to the transfer of base-year value by a severely and permanently disabled person, this section shall apply only to replacement dwellings which are purchased or newly constructed on or after June 6, 1990.

(k) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision, and the amendments to this section during the 1989 portion of the 1989–90 Regular Session of the Legislature, shall remain operative only until January 1, 1999, and on that date are repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1271 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base-year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value which is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base-year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) The replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted the property tax relief provided by this section. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data processing media or other media and in a format which is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base-year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base-year value of the mobilehome or the base-year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

attained the age of 55 years shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them is eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base-year value determined in accordance with this section because the property qualifies as a replacement dwelling.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form which the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of the claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who was a record owner of the original property at the time of its sale or is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age. In the absence of available proof, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base-year value of the original property" means its base-year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base-year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base-year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base-year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (h), if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base-year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the original property or the replacement dwelling, whether or not that spouse joined in the claim, the spouse is also a claimant for purposes of determining whether in any future claim filed by the spouse under this section the condition of eligibility specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has or has not been met by the spouse.

(10) "Property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property which is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(h) (1) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base-year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(A) The date the original property is sold.

(B) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(C) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

(2) Any taxes which were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base-year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount which would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base-year value.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(4) In the case where a claim under this section has been timely filed and granted, and new construction is performed upon the replacement dwelling subsequent to the transfer of base-year value, the property tax relief provided by this section shall also apply to the replacement dwelling, as improved, and thus there shall be no reassessment upon completion of the new construction if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The new construction is completed within two years of the date of the sale of the original property and the owner notifies the assessor in writing of completion of the new construction within 30 days after completion.

(B) The fair market value of the new construction on the date of completion, plus the full cash value of the replacement dwelling on the date of acquisition, is not more than the full cash value of the original property as determined pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) for purposes of granting the original claim.

(i) This section shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 6, 1986.

(j) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision shall become operative on January 1, 1999.

SEC. 2.3. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1271 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base-year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value which is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base-year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) The replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted, as a claimant, the property tax relief provided by this section. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors and all claimants who have thereby received relief. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data processing media or other media and in a format which is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base-year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base-year value of the mobilehome or the base-year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them is eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base-year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base-year value determined in accordance with this section because the property qualifies as a replacement dwelling.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form which the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of each claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who was a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age. In the absence of available proof, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base-year value of the original property" means its base-year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section

110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base-year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base-year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base-year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (h), if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base-year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the replacement dwelling, the spouse is also a claimant for purposes of determining whether the condition of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has been met.

(10) "Property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property which is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) "Person" means any individual, but does not include any firm, partnership, association, corporation, company, or other legal entity or organization of any kind.

(h) (1) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base-year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(A) The date the original property is sold.

(B) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(C) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

(2) Any taxes which were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base-year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount which would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base-year value.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base-year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(4) In the case where a claim under this section has been timely filed and granted, and new construction is performed upon the replacement dwelling subsequent to the transfer of base-year value, the property tax relief provided by this section shall also apply to the replacement dwelling, as improved, and thus there shall be no reassessment upon completion of the new construction if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The new construction is completed within two years of the date of the sale of the original property and the owner notifies the assessor in writing of completion of the new construction within 30 days after completion.

(B) The fair market value of the new construction on the date of completion, plus the full cash value of the replacement dwelling on the date of acquisition, is not more than the full cash value of the original property as determined pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) for purposes of granting the original claim.

(i) Any claimant may rescind a claim for the property tax relief provided by this section and shall not be considered to have received that relief for purposes of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b), if a written notice of rescission is delivered to the office of the assessor in which the original claim was filed and all of the following have occurred:

(1) The notice is signed by the original filing claimant or claimants.

(2) The notice is delivered to the office of the assessor before the date that the county first issues, as a result of relief granted under this section, a refund check for property taxes imposed upon the replacement dwelling. If granting relief will not result in a refund of property taxes, then the notice shall be delivered before payment is first made of any property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling consistent with relief granted under this section. If payment of the taxes is not made, then notice shall be delivered before the first date that those property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling, consistent with relief granted under this section, are delinquent.

(3) The notice is accompanied by the payment of a fee as the assessor may require, provided that the fee shall not exceed an amount reasonably related to the estimated cost of processing a rescission claim, including both direct costs and developmental and indirect costs, such as costs for overhead, personnel, supplies, materials, office space, and computers.

(j) This section shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 6, 1986.

(k) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision shall become operative on January 1, 1999.

SEC. 2.5. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1271 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years, or any severely and permanently disabled person, who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base-year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value which is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base-year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age, or is severely and permanently disabled.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) The replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted the property tax relief provided by this section. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data processing media or other media and in a format which is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base-year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base-year value of the mobilehome or the base-year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years, or is severely and permanently disabled, shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them is eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base-year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base-year value determined in accordance with this section because the property qualifies as a replacement dwelling.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form which the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of the claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who was a record owner of the original property at the time of its sale or is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age, or severely and permanently disabled. Proof of severe and permanent disability shall be considered a certification, signed by a licensed physician and surgeon of appropriate specialty, attesting to the claimant's severely and permanently disabled condition. In the absence of available proof that a person is over 55 years of age, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met. In the case of a severely and permanently disabled claimant either of the following shall be submitted:

(A) A certification, signed by a licensed physician or surgeon of appropriate specialty which identifies specific reasons why the disability necessitates a move to the replacement dwelling and the disability-related requirements, including any locational requirements, of a replacement dwelling. The claimant shall substantiate that the replacement dwelling meets disability-related requirements so identified and that the primary reason for the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy those requirements. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under the penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy identified disability-related requirements.

(B) The claimant's substantiation that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to alleviate financial burdens caused by the disability. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move is to alleviate the financial burdens caused by the disability.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base-year value of the original property" means its base-year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base-year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base-year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base-year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (h), if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base-year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the original property or the replacement dwelling, whether or not that spouse joined in the claim, the spouse is also a claimant for purposes of determining whether in any future claim filed by the spouse under this section the condition of eligibility specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has or has not been met by the spouse.

(10) "Property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property which is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) "Severely and permanently disabled" means any person described in subdivision (b) of Section 74.3.

(h) (1) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base-year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(A) The date the original property is sold.

(B) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(C) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

(2) Any taxes which were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base-year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount which would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base-year value.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base-year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(4) In the case where a claim under this section has been timely filed and granted, and new construction is performed upon the replacement dwelling subsequent to the transfer of base-year value, the property tax relief provided by this section also shall apply to the replacement dwelling, as improved, and thus there shall be no reassessment upon completion of the new construction if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The new construction is completed within two years of the date of the sale of the original property and the owner notifies the assessor in writing of completion of the new construction within 30 days after completion.

(B) The fair market value of the new construction on the date of completion, plus the full cash value of the replacement dwelling on the date of acquisition, is not more that the full cash value of the original property as determined pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) for purposes of granting the original claim.

(i) (1) This section shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 6, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base-year value by a severely and permanently disabled person, this section shall apply only to replacement dwellings which are purchased or newly constructed on or after June 6, 1990.

(j) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision shall become operative on January 1, 1999.

SEC. 2.7. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1271 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years, or any severely and permanently disabled person, who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base-year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value which is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base-year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age, or is severely and permanently disabled.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) The replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted, as a claimant, the property tax relief provided by this section. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors and all claimants who have thereby received relief. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data processing media or other media and in a format which is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base-year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base-year value of the mobilehome or the base-year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years, or is severely and permanently disabled, shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them is eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base-year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base-year value determined in accordance with this section because the property qualifies as a replacement dwelling.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form which the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of each claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who was a record owner of the original property at the time of its sale or is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age, or severely and permanently disabled. Proof of severe and permanent disability shall be considered a certification, signed by a licensed physician and surgeon of appropriate specialty, attesting to the claimant's severely and permanently disabled condition. In the absence of available proof that a person is over 55 years of age, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met. In the case of a severely and permanently disabled claimant either of the following shall be submitted:

(A) A certification, signed by a licensed physician or surgeon of appropriate specialty which identifies specific reasons why the disability necessitates a move to the replacement dwelling and the disability-related requirements, including any locational requirements, of a replacement dwelling. The claimant shall substantiate that the replacement dwelling meets disability-related requirements so identified and that the primary reason for the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy those requirements. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under the penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy identified disability-related requirements.

(B) The claimant's substantiation that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to alleviate financial burdens caused by the disability. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move is to alleviate the financial burdens caused by the disability.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base-year value of the original property" means its base-year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base-year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base-year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base-year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (h), if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base-year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the replacement dwelling, the spouse is also a claimant for purposes of determining whether in any future claim filed by the spouse under this section the condition of eligibility specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has been met.

(10) "Property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property which is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) "Person" means any individual, but does not include any firm, partnership, association, corporation, company, or other legal entity or organization of any kind.

(12) "Severely and permanently disabled" means any person described in subdivision (b) of Section 74.3.

(h) (1) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base-year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(A) The date the original property is sold.

(B) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(C) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

(2) Any taxes which were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base-year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount which would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base-year value.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base-year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(4) In the case where a claim under this section has been timely filed and granted, and new construction is performed upon the replacement dwelling subsequent to the transfer of base-year value, the property tax relief provided by this section also shall apply to the replacement dwelling, as improved, and thus there shall be no reassessment upon completion of the new construction if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The new construction is completed within two years of the date of the sale of the original property and the owner notifies the assessor in writing of completion of the new construction within 30 days after completion.

(B) The fair market value of the new construction on the date of completion, plus the full cash value of the replacement dwelling on the date of acquisition, is not more that the full cash value of the original property as determined pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) for purposes of granting the original claim.

(i) Any claimant may rescind a claim for the property tax relief provided by this section and shall not be considered to have received that relief for purposes of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b), if a written notice of rescission is delivered to the office of the assessor in which the original claim was filed and all of the following have occurred:

(1) The notice is signed by the original filing claimant or claimants.

(2) The notice is delivered to the office of the assessor before the date that the county first issues, as a result of relief granted under this section, a refund check for property taxes imposed upon the replacement dwelling. If granting relief will not result in a refund of property taxes, then the notice shall be delivered before payment is first made of any property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling consistent with relief granted under this section. If payment of the taxes is not made, then notice shall be delivered before the first date that those property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling, consistent with relief granted under this section, are delinquent.

(3) The notice is accompanied by the payment of a fee as the assessor may require, provided that the fee shall not exceed an amount reasonably related to the estimated cost of processing a rescission claim, including both direct costs and developmental and indirect costs, such as costs for overhead, personnel, supplies, materials, office space, and computers.

(j) (1) This section, except as provided in paragraph (2), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 6, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base-year value by a severely and permanently disabled person, this section shall apply only to replacement dwellings which are purchased or newly constructed on or after June 6, 1990.

(k) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision shall become operative on January 1, 1999.

SEC. 3. The amendments to Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code made by the act adding this section with respect to new construction performed upon a replacement dwelling subsequent to the transfer of base-year value to that dwelling shall only apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after January 1, 1991.

SEC. 4. (a) Sections 1.3 and 2.3 of this bill incorporate amendments to Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3723. They shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1991, (2) each bill amends Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, (3) AB 3843 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 3723, in which case Sections 1, 1.5, 1.7, 2, 2.5, and 2.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Sections 1.5 and 2.5 of this bill incorporate amendments to Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3843. They shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1991, (2) each bill amends Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, (3)

AB 3723 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 3843 in which case Sections 1, 1.3, 1.7, 2, 2.3, and 2.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Sections 1.7 and 2.7 of this bill incorporate amendments to Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by this bill, AB 3723, and AB 3843. They shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1991, (2) all three bills amend Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3723 and AB 3843, in which case Sections 1, 1.3, 1.5, 2, 2.3, and 2.5 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act were expressly included in a ballot measure approved by the voters in a statewide election. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 1547, 1569.485, and 1596.891 of, and to add Sections 1551.5, 1569.515, and 1596.8875 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to care facilities.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1547 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1547. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any person who violates Section 1503.5 or 1508, or both, may be assessed by the department an immediate civil penalty in the amount of two hundred dollars ($200) per day of the violation.

(b) The civil penalty authorized in subdivision (a) shall be imposed if an unlicensed facility is operated and the operator refuses to seek licensure or the operator seeks licensure and the licensure application is denied and the operator continues to operate the unlicensed facility, unless other remedies available to the department, including criminal prosecution, are deemed more effective by the department.

(c) An operator may appeal the assessment to the director. The department shall adopt regulations setting forth the appeal procedure.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1551.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code,

to read:

1551.5. Notwithstanding Section 11510 of the Government Code, witnesses subpoenaed at the request of the department for a hearing conducted pursuant to this article who attend a hearing may be paid by the department witness fees and mileage as provided by Section 68093 of the Government Code. In addition, the department may pay actual, necessary, and reasonable expenses in an amount not to exceed the per diem allowance payable to a nonrepresented state employee on travel status. The department may pay witness expenses pursuant to this section in advance of the hearing.

SEC. 2. Section 1569.485 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1569.485. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any person who violates Section 1569.10 or 1569.44, or both, shall be assessed by the department an immediate civil penalty in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) per resident for each day of the violation, unless other remedies available to the department, including criminal prosecution, are deemed more effective by the department.

(b) The civil penalty authorized in subdivision (a) shall be doubled if an unlicensed facility is operated and the operator refuses to seek licensure or the operator seeks licensure and the licensure application is denied and the operator continues to operate the unlicensed facility, unless other remedies available to the department, including criminal prosecution, are deemed more effective by the department.

(c) An operator may appeal the assessment to the director. The department shall adopt regulations setting forth the appeal procedure.

SEC. 2.5. Section 1569.515 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 1569.51, to read:

1569.515. Notwithstanding Section 11510 of the Government Code, witnesses subpoenaed at the request of the department for a hearing conducted pursuant to this article who attend a hearing may be paid by the department witness fees and mileage as provided by Section 68093 of the Government Code. In addition, the department may pay actual, necessary, and reasonable expenses in an amount not to exceed the per diem allowance payable to a nonrepresented state employee on travel status. The department may pay witness expenses pursuant to this section in advance of the hearing.

SEC. 3. Section 1596.8875 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 1596.887, to read:

1596.8875. Notwithstanding Section 11510 of the Government Code, witnesses subpoenaed at the request of the department for a hearing conducted pursuant to this article who attend a hearing may be paid by the department witness fees and mileage as provided by Section 68093 of the Government Code. In addition, the department may pay actual, necessary, and reasonable expenses in an amount not to exceed the per diem allowance payable to a nonrepresented state employee on travel status. The department may pay witness expenses pursuant to this section in advance of the hearing.

SEC. 4. Section 1596.891 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1596.891. (a) A person who violates Section 1596.80 may be liable for an immediate assessment of civil penalties in the amount of two hundred dollars ($200) per day.

(b) The penalty specified in subdivision (a) shall be imposed if the operator of an unlicensed facility refuses to seek licensure or the operator seeks licensure and is denied but continues to operate, unless other remedies available to the department, including criminal prosecution, are deemed more effective by the department.

(c) The operator may appeal the assessment to the director. The department shall adopt regulations setting forth the appeals procedure.

(d) The operator shall be exempt from the civil penalty specified in subdivision (a) if a lack of liability insurance is the sole reason for nonlicensure and the reason for operating without liability insurance is not due to any fault on the part of the operator.

CHAPTER 1489

An act to add and repeal Article 8.1 (commencing with Section 11517) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to aid to families with dependent children.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Prenatal care is essential to the health of pregnant women and their babies.

(b) Some pregnant women, particularly young pregnant women, are not obtaining that health care.

(c) Parents benefit from learning about health care, parenting techniques, and family planning.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature to provide a resource directory of medical providers and educational programs to pregnant women so that they may have access to prenatal and life skill services.

SEC. 3. Article 8.1 (commencing with Section 11517) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 8.1. Supportive Resources for Pregnant Women: Demonstration Project

11517. (a) The department, upon request of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles, shall permit the Los Angeles County Department of Social Services to establish a demonstration project, in a selected region or regions of Los Angeles County, to provide, on a volunteer basis, any eligible recipient, as defined in subdivision (b), with supportive and accessible perinatal resources.

(b) For purposes of this article, "eligible recipient" means any eligible pregnant recipient of benefits under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200).

11517.05. (a) The Los Angeles County Department of Social Services, in consultation with the Los Angeles County Department of Health Services, shall compile a directory of prenatal and life skills resources, and provide a copy of that directory to any eligible recipient.

(b) (1) The participating county department of social services shall compile a directory of resources that reflects the linguistic and cultural demographics of the client profile of the selected region or regions.

(2) The participating county department of social services shall, to the extent possible, identify resources that are geographically accessible and affordable to eligible pregnant recipients.

(3) The directory required by this section shall include all of the following resources:

(A) A list of public and private obstetrical providers who accept Medi-Cal reimbursement for the provision of medical services.

(B) A list of schools or organizations that provide prenatal education and life skills classes which include, but are not limited to, all of the following subjects:

(i) Prenatal and postpartum care.

(ii) Perinatal nutrition.

(iii) Infant care and development.

(iv) Parenting techniques.

(v) Family planning.

(C) Other resources, as identified by the participating county department of social services.

11517.10. (a) (1) The participating county department of social services, in consultation with the county health department, shall assess and monitor the usage of the resource directory.

(2) The participating county department of social services shall submit a report on the results of the assessment required by paragraph (1) to the appropriate committees of the Legislature three years after the inception of the project, but not later than July 1, 1995.

(b) The report required pursuant to this section shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) The number of women who received a list of resources under this article.

(2) The number of women who did not use the resources.

(3) The reasons the resources contained in the list were not used.

(4) The kinds of additional services needed to enable pregnant women to use those resources.

11517.15. The County of Los Angeles shall be responsible for the costs of implementation of this article.

11517.2. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 1490

An act to amend Sections 14036 and 14007.1 of, to amend and renumber Section 14039 of, and to add Sections 14036.3 and 14036.5 to, the Government Code, to amend Sections 99318, 99318.2, and 130554 of, and to add Sections 99317.8 and 99319 to, the Public Utilities Code, and to add Section 7251.2 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds that the consolidation of future commuter and intercity maintenance facilities in Santa Clara County at the terminous of two major rail corridors will promote efficiency and avoid duplication of facilities.

SEC. 2. Section 14007.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14007.1. (a) There is in the Department of Transportation the Division of Rail, which is responsible for the development of a comprehensive rail passenger system and the preparation of the rail passenger development plan required pursuant to Section 14036.

(b) An undersecretary of the agency shall be assigned to give attention to rail matters to ensure that the rail passenger system and plan are carried out.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the commission give high priority to the implementation of the rail passenger system and plan.

SEC. 3. Section 14036 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14036. The department shall prepare a rail passenger development plan biennially for submission to the Legislature, the Governor, the Public Utilities Commission, and the California Transportation Commission. The plan shall be submitted to the commission by April 1, 1991, and each odd-numbered year thereafter, for its advice and consent, and to the Legislature, the Governor, and the Public Utilities Commission by the following July 1. The plan shall consist of all of the following:

(a) For capital and operating subsidies, all actual encumbrances for the prior two fiscal years; and for state operations, all actual expenditures for the prior two fiscal years. All revenues shall be identified by source.

(b) For capital and operating subsidies, estimated encumbrances and revenues for the current year; and for state operations, estimated expenditures for the current year. The department shall use the same format as is required for prior year expenditures pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) For the budget year and the four following fiscal years, proposed encumbrances for capital and operating subsidies shall be reported in the same format as is required for prior year's expenditures. For state operations, proposed expenditures for the budget year shall be reported.

(d) The identification and cost of capital facilities necessary to enhance competitiveness of rail passenger services, including, for each intercity route, a list of at least the three highest priority capital improvement projects, with cost estimates and a funding plan.

(e) A performance evaluation of all services in operation, including performance trends, potential for efficiency and effectiveness, possible improvements, and strategies to achieve that potential.

(f) A recommendation of a level of and program for services over a five-year period, including a list of service enhancements on existing and additional routes, with funding and priority recommendations.

(g) An evaluation of reports by regional planning agencies and county transportation commissions on commuter service alternatives in their regions, including presentation of their recommendations.

(h) A map showing all existing intercity and commuter passenger rail routes and services, all proposed intercity and commuter passenger rail routes and services, and all intercity and commuter passenger rail routes and services that are the subject of feasibility studies.

(i) A report on the expenditure of marketing activities funds for purchases of media advertising of rail passenger services.

This report shall be prepared in consultation with the Public Utilities Commission and the National Rail Passenger Corporation. The department may consult with other agencies, organizations, and persons with expertise. The department shall employ realistic assumptions, using Public Utilities Commission cost data whenever possible, with respect to the level of services it can provide and the cost of these services when developing the plan.

SEC. 4. Section 14036.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14036.3. The department shall consider and estimate the cost of each of the following types of service improvements to the San Joaquin Amtrak route, and report its findings in the rail passenger development plan submitted in 1991 pursuant to Section 14036:

(a) Checked baggage service:

In order to better serve the elderly, disabled, and passengers traveling with small children, the department shall investigate the possibility of Amtrak offering this type of passenger convenience on at least one of the three daily roundtrips, including the least patronized roundtrip where enroute delays due to baggage handling would be most absorbable. Particular consideration should be given to offering baggage service to major stations, including off-line staffed Amtrak stations served by feeder buses, if service to all staffed stations cannot be implemented immediately. The department shall also consider funding capital needs at stations necessary to offer baggage service from funds available pursuant to Section 14037.

(b) Custom class service:

In order to provide a higher level of service to passengers desiring a guaranteed, reserved seat, the department shall investigate implementation of custom class service on the San Joaquin route, similar to the enhanced service offered as an option on the Amtrak San Diegan route. If custom class service is offered, due consideration should be given to similar higher levels of service on major feeder bus routes, as warranted. The department shall also investigate the potential availability of cellular telephone service on this route.

(c) Dining service:

The department shall investigate steps that may need to be taken to restore quality dining car service, offering full, hot meals, substantially similar to the service offered on this route prior to the removal of high-level cars in December of 1989.

SEC. 5. Section 14036.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14036.5. (a) As part of its marketing activities in support of intercity rail services and associated feeder bus services, the department shall provide for complete train and bus schedule information, for services funded or otherwise coordinated by the department, to be published in existing, comprehensive nationwide transportation schedule publications for bus and rail services. The department is not required to provide for publication of the schedule information specified in subdivision (a) if complete bus and train schedules are published by the National Railroad Passenger Corporation (Amtrak) in its nationwide timetable (Form A) in addition to the department's own California timetable.

SEC. 5.5. Section 14039 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

14036.4. The department shall report in the rail passenger development plan prepared pursuant to Section 14036 on the amount of funds available to the state under the federal rail-highway crossings program (23 U.S.C. Sec. 130), including the cash balance, funds encumbered during the last year, and amounts anticipated to be received during the subsequent year. The plan shall also discuss any issues relating to the department's ability to spend these federal funds on a timely basis.

SEC. 6. Section 99317.8 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

99317.8. (a) A public agency which has received an allocation for funding of an intermodal transfer station pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 99317 shall provide for maintaining the station and its appurtenances, including, but not limited to, restroom facilities, in good condition and repair, and in accordance with high standards of cleanliness. As part of its duties in monitoring state-funded rail and bus services, the department shall, at least annually, conduct an unannounced inspection of each facility and make recommendations, if any, to the operating agency. Results of the department's inspections shall be included in the rail passenger development plan required pursuant to Section 14036 of the Government Code. If appropriate remedial action is not taken, the department may recommend to the commission that future applications for transit capital funding be denied.

(b) The Legislature finds and declares that regular inspections of intermodal stations are necessary to protect the state's capital investment in these essential transportation facilities and to avoid the problems resulting from deferred maintenance.

SEC. 7. Section 99318 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99318. (a) The department and other public entities may submit applications to the department for allocations for transit capital improvement projects specified in Section 99317 from funds made available pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 99315 or for allocations for exclusive public mass transit guideways from funds available pursuant to Sections 199 and 199.1 of the Streets and Highways Code.

(b) The department shall evaluate the applications in accordance with criteria and procedures adopted by the commission and shall submit the applications and its recommendations thereon to the commission not later than February 1.

(c) The commission shall adopt criteria and procedures to be followed by the department in evaluating the applications.

(d) An application shall be considered timely if submitted by January 1 for a guideway project in a county that became eligible for those funds at an election held pursuant to Section 4 of Article XIX of the California Constitution during or prior to the immediately preceding November.

SEC. 8. Section 99318.2 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99318.2. (a) Not later than March 1, the commission shall hold public hearings on the applications received from the department.

(b) Not later than April 1, the commission shall adopt a priority list of those applications it approves and submit that list, and recommend the amount necessary to fund that list pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 99315, to the Legislature.

(c) Allocations to fund the applications shall be made on the basis of the adopted priority list.

SEC. 9. Section 99319 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

99319. (a) If a rail capital improvement project proposed for funding by the department or a local agency includes as an element the addition or improvement of rail passenger service boarding platforms, those platforms shall be constructed in conformity with applicable rules and orders of the Public Utilities Commission and in such a manner that the top of each platform is not less than eight inches above the adjacent rails, unless the department makes a finding that the circumstances in a particular case warrant otherwise and obtains approval from the Public Utilities Commission for any deviation from its applicable rules and orders.

(b) The requirements of this section apply to all passenger service boarding platforms constructed with funds made available pursuant to Section 14031.6 of the Government Code, Sections 99234.5, 99234.9 and 99317 of this code, Section 199 of the Streets and Highways Code, and funds made available from the proceeds of state general obligation bonds issued for the purposes of rail capital improvements.

SEC. 10. Section 130554 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

130554. (a) The commission shall give priority to construction of the overall transit system authorized in Los Angeles County Transportation Commission Ordinance No. 16. No more than 30 percent of the cost of the initial segment of the Los Angeles Metro Rail project shall be obtained from rail transit revenues to be obtained from revenue sources authorized in Los Angeles County Transportation Commission Ordinance No. 16. Furthermore, the commission shall not issue bonds in excess of one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) to fund the Los Angeles Metro Rail project prior to December 31, 1986. The bonds shall be repaid from commission rail transit revenues. In the event that any bond proceeds are used for the system authorized by Los Angeles County Transportation Commission Ordinance No. 16, the Los Angeles County Transportation Commission and the Southern California Rapid Transit District shall report to the Legislature by December 31, 1986, on the status and funding of the Los Angeles Metro Rail project, including cost overruns, federal commitments and pledges for future funding, and local revenue sources.

No additional bonds shall be issued pursuant to this chapter after January 1, 1988, to finance portions of the Metro Rail project unless authorized by subsequent legislation.

(b) The commission may issue, pursuant to Los Angeles County

Transportation Commission Ordinance No. 49, if that ordinance is adopted by the voters at the November 6, 1990, general election, bonds payable from the proceeds of the tax imposed by that ordinance.

SEC. 11. Section 7251.2 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

7251.2. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the case where the local transactions and use tax measures specified in subdivision (b) are both approved by the voters of the County of Los Angeles at the November 6, 1990, general election, and both measures are otherwise valid, the rate of each tax thereby imposed shall be set, for purposes of compliance with the 1 percent limitation of Section 7251.1, at one-fourth of 1 percent. If the limitation of Section 7251.1 is increased, the amount of the increase shall, on the date the increase is operative, be equally apportioned to increase the rate of each tax imposed by the measures specified in subdivision (b), up to a rate not to exceed one-half of 1 percent for each tax.

(b) This section shall apply only to the local transactions and use tax measures, to be submitted to the voters of the County of Los Angeles at the November 6, 1990, general election and popularly known as the following:

(1) "Los Angeles County Transportation Commission 1990 Fast-Track Anti-Gridlock Transit Improvement Proposition."

(2) "Local Communities Safety Act—Los Angeles County Regional Justice Facilities Financing Agency."

CHAPTER 1491

An act to amend Sections 47, 1812.203, and 1812.214 of the Civil Code, to amend Sections 409.1, 473.5, 484.060, 1005, 1141.24, 1255.010, 1255.020, 1255.070, and 2025 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Section 12311 of the Corporations Code, to amend Section 703.5 of the Evidence Code, to amend Section 5432 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to amend Sections 1363, 6159, 71007.1, 72190, 72190.1, and 72190.2 of, to amend and repeal Section 71180.5 of, the Government Code, and to repeal Section 2 of Chapter 1313 of the Statutes of 1986, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 47 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

47. A privileged publication or broadcast is one made:

(a) In the proper discharge of an official duty.

(b) In any (1) legislative or (2) judicial proceeding, or (3) in any other official proceeding authorized by law, or (4) in the initiation or course of any other proceeding authorized by law and reviewable pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1084) of Title 1 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure; provided, that an allegation or averment contained in any pleading or affidavit filed in an action for marital dissolution or legal separation made of or concerning a person by or against whom no affirmative relief is prayed in the action shall not be a privileged publication or broadcast as to the person making the allegation or averment within the meaning of this section unless the pleading is verified or affidavit sworn to, and is made without malice, by one having reasonable and probable cause for believing the truth of the allegation or averment and unless the allegation or averment is material and relevant to the issues in the action.

(c) In a communication, without malice, to a person interested therein, (1) by one who is also interested, or (2) by one who stands in such a relation to the person interested as to afford a reasonable ground for supposing the motive for the communication to be innocent, or (3) who is requested by the person interested to give the information.

(d) By a fair and true report in a public journal, of (1) a judicial, (2) legislative, or (3) other public official proceeding, or (4) of anything said in the course thereof, or (5) of a verified charge or complaint made by any person to a public official, upon which complaint a warrant has been issued.

(e) By a fair and true report of (1) the proceedings of a public meeting, if the meeting was lawfully convened for a lawful purpose and open to the public, or (2) the publication of the matter complained of was for the public benefit.

SEC. 2. Section 1812.203 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1812.203. (a) The seller of any seller assisted marketing plan shall pay an annual fee in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) and annually file with the Attorney General a copy of the disclosure statements required under Sections 1812.205 and 1812.206, as well as a list of the names and resident addresses of those individuals who sell the seller assisted marketing plan on behalf of the seller. The first filing shall be made at least 30 days prior to placing any advertisement or making any other representations to prospective purchasers. The first filing shall not be deemed to be effective until a notice of filing has been issued by the Attorney General. The disclosure statements on file shall be updated through a new filing and payment of a fee in the amount of thirty dollars ($30), whenever material changes occur during the year following the annual filing and the updated filing shall include all disclosure statements required by Sections 1812.205 and 1812.206 and a list of the names and resident addresses of all current salespersons and all salespersons who have acted on behalf of the seller since the previous filing, whether the annual filing or an updated filing, indicating which salespersons are still active and which no longer act on behalf of the seller. Each seller of a seller assisted marketing plan shall file the annual renewal filing, whether or not any update filings have been made, at least 10 days before one year has elapsed from the date of the notice of filing issued by the Attorney General, and at least 10 days before the same date every year thereafter. The annual renewal filing shall include all disclosure statements required by Sections 1812.205 and 1812.206 and a list of the names and addresses of the residences of all current salespersons and all salespersons who have acted on behalf of the seller since the previous filing (whether the annual filing or an updated filing), indicating which salespersons are still active and which no longer act on behalf of the seller. The annual renewal filing fee shall be one hundred dollars ($100). If an annual renewal filing is not filed as required, the previous filing shall be deemed to have lapsed and the seller shall be prohibited from placing any seller assisted marketing plan advertisements or making any other representations to prospective purchasers of seller assisted marketing plan until a new annual filing is made and a new notice of filing has been issued by the Attorney General.

(b) The Attorney General may send by certified mail to the address set forth in the seller assisted marketing plan filing an intent to issue a stop order denying the effectiveness of or suspending or revoking the effectiveness of any filing if he or she finds the following:

(1) That there has been a failure to comply with any of the provisions of this title.

(2) That the offer or sale of the seller assisted marketing plan would constitute a misrepresentation to, or deceit of, or fraud on, the purchaser.

(3) That any person identified in the filing has been convicted of an offense under paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 1812.206, or is subject to an order or has had a civil judgment entered against him or her as described in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 1812.206, and the involvement of that person in the sale or management of the seller assisted marketing plan creates an unreasonable risk to prospective purchasers.

(c) The notice referred to shall include facts supporting a suspension or revocation. If the seller assisted marketing plan does not submit to the Attorney General, under penalties of perjury signed by an owner or officer of the seller assisted marketing plan, within 10 days of receipt of the intent to issue a stop order, a refutation of each and every supporting fact set forth in the notice, and each such fact not refuted shall be deemed, for purposes of issuance of the order, an admission that the fact is true. If, in the opinion of the Attorney General, and based upon supporting facts not refuted by the seller assisted marketing plan, the plan is offered to the public without compliance with this title, the Attorney General may order the seller to desist and refrain from the further sale or attempted sale of the seller assisted marketing plan unless and until a notice of filing has been issued pursuant to this section. Until that time, the registration shall be void. The order shall be in effect until and unless the seller assisted marketing plan files a proceeding in superior court pursuant to Section 1085 or 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure or seeks other judicial relief and serves a copy of the proceeding upon the Attorney General.

SEC. 3. Section 1812.214 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1812.214. (a) Every seller of seller-assisted marketing plans other than a California corporation shall file with the Attorney General an irrevocable consent appointing the Secretary of State or successor in office to act as the seller's attorney to receive service or any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action or proceeding against the seller or the seller's successor, executor or administrator, which may arise under this title. When service is made upon the Secretary of State, it shall have the same force and validity as if served personally on the seller. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the Secretary of State, but it shall not be effective unless:

(1) The plaintiff forthwith sends by first-class mail a notice of the service upon the Secretary of State and a copy of the process to the defendant or respondent at the last address on file with the Attorney General; and

(2) The plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this section is filed in the case on or before the return date of the process, if any, or within such further time as the court allows.

(b) If, pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 1812.204, a seller must obtain a surety bond or establish a trust account, the following procedures apply:

(1) If a bond is obtained, a copy of it shall be filed with the Attorney General; if a trust account is established, notification of the depository, the trustee and the account number shall be filed with the Attorney General.

(2) The bond or trust account required shall be in favor of the rson claiming against the trust account for a violation of this title may maintain an action at law against the seller and the trustee. The surety or trustee shall be liable only for actual damages and not the punitive damages permitted under Section 1812.218. The aggregate liability of the trustee to all persons damaged by a seller's violation of this title shall in no event exceed the amount of the trust account.

(4) The bond or the trust account shall be in an amount equal to the total amount of the "initial payment" section of all seller-assisted marketing plan contracts the seller has entered into during the previous year or three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000), whichever is less, but in no case shall the amount be less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). The amount required shall be adjusted twice a year, no later than the tenth day of the first month of the seller's fiscal year and no later than the tenth day of the seventh month of the seller's fiscal year. A seller need only establish a bond or trust account in the amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) at the commencement of business and during the first six months the seller is in business. By the tenth day of the seller's seventh month in business, the amount of the bond or trust account shall be established as provided for herein as if the seller had been in business for a year.

(c) If, pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1812.210, a seller utilizes an escrow account to receive those portions of the downpayment in excess of 20 percent of the initial payment before delivery to the purchaser of the equipment, supplies or products or services to be furnished under the terms of the contract, the following procedures shall apply:

(1) The holder of the escrow account shall be independent of the seller, and the seller shall not have any authority to direct disbursements from the escrow account by the holder except upon written notification by the purchaser to the holder of the escrow account of the delivery of the equipment, supplies, or products as required by and within the time limits set forth in the seller assisted marketing plan contract.

(2) The name and address of the escrow account holder, the name of the institution, the branch and account number of the escrow account shall be reported to the Attorney General by the seller.

(3) Any person claiming against the escrow account for a violation of this title may maintain an action at law against the seller and the escrow account holder. The escrow account holder shall be liable only for actual damages and not the punitive damages permitted under Section 1812.218. The aggregate liability of the escrow account holder to all persons damaged by a seller's violation of this title shall in no event exceed the amount of the escrow account.

SEC. 4. Section 409.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

409.1. At any time after notice of pendency of an action has been recorded pursuant to Section 409 or other law, the court in which the action is pending shall, upon motion of a party to the action supported by affidavit, order that the notice be expunged, unless the party filing the notice shows to the satisfaction of the court, by a preponderance of the evidence, that:

(a) The action does affect title to or right of possession of the real property described in the notice; and

(b) Insofar as the action affects title to or right of possession of the real property described in the notice, the party recording the notice has commenced or prosecuted the action for a proper purpose and in good faith. Notice of motion to expunge shall be served in the same manner, and at the same times, prescribed by subdivision (b) of Section 1005. The court shall determine the matter on the affidavits and counteraffidavits on file and upon such other proof as the court may permit. Upon recordation of a certified copy of the order expunging a notice of pendency of the action in the office of the county recorder in which the notice of the pendency of the action was recorded neither the notice of the pendency of the action nor any information derived therefrom, prior to the recording of a certified copy of the judgment or decree issued therein, shall constitute constructive or actual notice of any of the matters contained therein, or of any of the matters relating to the action, or create any duty of inquiry in any person thereafter dealing with the property described therein.

The court, as a condition of granting or denying the motion to expunge, may require that the party prevailing upon the motion give the other party an undertaking of the nature, and in the amount as shall be fixed by the court, the undertaking to be to the effect that the prevailing party will indemnify the other party for all damages which he or she may incur if he or she ultimately prevails in the action.

SEC. 5. Section 473.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

473.5. (a) When service of a summons has not resulted in actual notice to a party in time to defend the action and a default or default judgment has been entered against him or her in the action, he or she may serve and file a notice of motion to set aside the default or default judgment and for leave to defend the action. The notice of motion shall be served and filed within a reasonable time, but in no event exceeding the earlier of: (i) two years after entry of a default judgment against him or her; or (ii) 180 days after service on him or her of a written notice that the default or default judgment has been entered.

(b) A notice of motion to set aside a default or default judgment and for leave to defend the action shall designate as the time for making the motion a date prescribed by subdivision (b) of Section 1005, and it shall be accompanied by an affidavit showing under oath that the party's lack of actual notice in time to defend the action was not caused by his or her avoidance of service or inexcusable neglect. The party shall serve and file with the notice a copy of the answer, motion, or other pleading proposed to be filed in the action.

(c) Upon a finding by the court that the motion was made within the period permitted by subdivision (a) and that his or her lack of actual notice in time to defend the action was not caused by his or her avoidance of service or inexcusable neglect, it may set aside the default or default judgment on whatever terms as may be just and allow the party to defend the action.

SEC. 6. Section 484.060 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

484.060. (a) If the defendant desires to oppose the issuance of the right to attach order sought by plaintiff or objects to the amount sought to be secured by the attachment, the defendant shall file and serve upon the plaintiff no later than five court days prior to the date set for the hearing a notice of opposition. The notice shall state the grounds on which the defendant opposes the issuance of the order or objects to the amount sought to be secured by the attachment and shall be accompanied by an affidavit supporting any factual issues raised and points and authorities supporting any legal issues raised. If the defendant fails to file a notice of opposition within the time prescribed, the defendant shall not be permitted to oppose the issuance of the order.

(b) If a defendant filing a notice of opposition desires to make any claim of exemption as provided in Section 484.070, the defendant may include that claim in the notice of opposition filed pursuant to this section.

(c) The plaintiff may file and serve upon the opposing party a reply two court days prior to the date set for the hearing.

SEC. 7. Section 1005 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1005. (a) Written notice shall be given, as prescribed in subdivision (b), for the following motions:

(1) Notice of Application and Hearing for Writ of Attachment under Section 484.040.

(2) Notice of Application and Hearing for Claim and Delivery under Section 512.030.

(3) Notice of Hearing for Claim of Exemption under Section 706.105.

(4) Motion to Quash Summons pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 418.10.

(5) Motion for Determination of Good Faith Settlement pursuant to Section 877.6.

(6) Hearing for Discovery of Peace Officer Personnel Records pursuant to Section 1043 of the Evidence Code.

(7) Notice of Hearing of Third-Party Claim pursuant to Section 720.320.

(8) Motion for an Order to Attend Deposition more than 150 miles from deponent's residence pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 2025.

(9) Notice of Hearing of Application for Relief pursuant to Section 946.6 of the Government Code.

(10) Motion to Set Aside Default or Default Judgment and for Leave to Defend Actions pursuant to Section 473.5.

(11) Motion to Expunge Notice of Pendency of Action pursuant to Section 409.1.

(12) Any other proceeding under this code in which notice is required and no other time or method is prescribed by law or by court or judge.

(b) Unless otherwise ordered or specifically provided by law, all moving and supporting papers shall be served and filed at least 15 calendar days before the time appointed for the hearing. However, if the notice is served by mail, the required 15-day period of notice before the time appointed for the hearing shall be increased by five days if the place of mailing and the place of address are within the State of California, 10 days if either the place of mailing or the place of address is outside the State of California but within the United States, and 20 days if either the place of mailing or the place of address is outside the United States. Subdivision (a) of Section 1013, which extends the time within which a right may be exercised or an act may be done, does not apply to a notice of motion governed by this section. All papers opposing a motion so noticed shall be filed with the court and served on each party at least five court days, and all reply papers at least two court days before the time appointed for the hearing.

The court, or a judge thereof, may prescribe a shorter time.

SEC. 8. Section 1141.24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1141.24. In cases ordered to arbitration pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1141.16, absent a stipulation to the contrary, no discovery other than that permitted by Section 2034 is permissible after an arbitration award except by leave of court upon a showing of good cause.

SEC. 9. Section 1255.010 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1255.010. (a) At any time before entry of judgment, the plaintiff may deposit with the State Treasury the probable amount of compensation, based on an appraisal, that will be awarded in the proceeding. The appraisal upon which the deposit is based shall be one that satisfies the requirements of subdivision (b). The deposit may be made whether or not the plaintiff applies for an order for possession or intends to do so.

(b) Before making a deposit under this section, the plaintiff shall have an expert qualified to express an opinion as to the value of the property (1) make an appraisal of the property and (2) prepare a written statement of, or summary of the basis for, the appraisal.

(c) On noticed motion, or upon ex parte application in an emergency, the court may permit the plaintiff to make a deposit without prior compliance with subdivision (b) if the plaintiff presents facts by affidavit showing that (1) good cause exists for permitting an immediate deposit to be made, (2) an adequate appraisal has not been completed and cannot reasonably be prepared before making the deposit, and (3) the amount of the deposit to be made is not less than the probable amount of compensation that the plaintiff, in good faith, estimates will be awarded in the proceeding. In its order, the court shall require that the plaintiff comply with subdivision (b) within a reasonable time, to be specified in the order, and also that any additional amount of compensation shown by the appraisal required by subdivision (b) be deposited within that time.

SEC. 10. Section 1255.020 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1255.020. (a) On making a deposit pursuant to Section 1255.010, the plaintiff shall serve a notice of deposit on all parties who have appeared in the proceeding and file with the court a proof of service together with the notice of deposit. The plaintiff shall so serve parties who appear thereafter on their appearance. The notice of deposit shall state that a deposit has been made and the date and the amount of the deposit. Service of the notice of deposit shall be made in the manner provided in Section 1255.450 for service of an order for possession.

(b) The notice of deposit shall be accompanied by a written statement or summary of the basis for the appraisal referred to in Section 1255.010.

(c) If the plaintiff has obtained an order under Section 1255.010 deferring completion of the written statement or summary, the plaintiff:

(1) On making the deposit, shall comply with subdivision (a) and include with the notice a copy of all affidavits on which the order was based.

(2) Upon completion of the written statement or summary, shall comply with subdivision (b).

SEC. 11. Section 1255.070 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1255.070. In lieu of depositing the money with the State Treasury as provided in Section 1255.010, upon written request of the plaintiff, the court shall order the money be deposited in the county treasury. If money is deposited in the State Treasury pursuant to Section 1255.010, it shall be held, invested, deposited, and disbursed in the manner specified in Article 10 (commencing with Section 16429) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and interest earned or other increment derived from its investment shall be apportioned and disbursed in the manner specified in that article. As between the parties to the proceeding, money deposited pursuant to this article shall remain at the risk of the plaintiff until paid or made payable to the defendant by order of the court.

SEC. 11.5. Section 2025 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

2025. (a) Any party may obtain discovery within the scope delimited by Section 2017, and subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2019, by taking in California the oral deposition of any person, including any party to the action. The person deposed may be a natural person, an organization such as a public or private corporation, a partnership, an association, or a governmental agency.

(b) Subject to subdivisions (f) and (t), an oral deposition may be taken as follows:

(1) The defendant may serve a deposition notice without leave of court at any time after that defendant has been served or has appeared in the action, whichever occurs first.

(2) The plaintiff may serve a deposition notice without leave of court on any date that is 20 days after the service of the summons on, or appearance by, any defendant. However, on motion with or without notice, the court, for good cause shown, may grant to a plaintiff leave to serve a deposition notice on an earlier date.

(c) A party desiring to take the oral deposition of any person shall give notice in writing in the manner set forth in subdivision (d). However, where under subdivision (d) of Section 2020 only the production by a nonparty of business records for copying is desired, a copy of the deposition subpoena shall serve as the notice of deposition. The notice of deposition shall be given to every other party who has appeared in the action. The deposition notice, or the accompanying proof of service, shall list all the parties or attorneys for parties on whom it is served.

Where, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1985.3, the party giving notice of the deposition is a subpoenaing party, and the deponent is a witness commanded by a deposition subpoena to produce personal records of a consumer, the subpoenaing party shall serve on that consumer (1) a notice of the deposition, (2) the notice of privacy rights specified in subdivision (e) of Section 1985.3, and (3) a copy of the deposition subpoena.

(d) The deposition notice shall state all of the following:

(1) The address where the deposition will be taken.

(2) The date of the deposition, selected under subdivision (f), and the time it will commence.

(3) The name of each deponent, and the address and telephone number, if known, of any deponent who is not a party to the action. If the name of the deponent is not known, the deposition notice shall set forth instead a general description sufficient to identify the person or particular class to which the person belongs.

(4) The specification with reasonable particularity of any materials or category of materials to be produced by the deponent.

(5) Any intention to record the testimony by audio tape or video tape, in addition to recording the testimony by the stenographic method as required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (l).

(6) Any intention to reserve the right to use at trial a video tape deposition of a treating or consulting physician or of any expert witness under paragraph (4) of subdivision (u). In this event, the operator of the video tape camera shall be a person who is authorized to administer an oath, and shall not be financially interested in the action or be a relative or employee of any attorney of any of the parties.

If the deponent named is not a natural person, the deposition notice shall describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. In that event, the deponent shall designate and produce at the deposition those of its officers, directors, managing agents, employees, or agents who are most qualified to testify on its behalf as to those matters to the extent of any information known or reasonably available to the deponent. A deposition subpoena shall advise a nonparty deponent of its duty to make this designation, and shall describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested.

If the attendance of the deponent is to be compelled by service of a deposition subpoena under Section 2020, an identical copy of that subpoena shall be served with the deposition notice.

(e) (1) The deposition of a natural person, whether or not a party to the action, shall be taken at a place that is, at the option of the party giving notice of the deposition, either within 75 miles of the deponent's residence, or within the county where the action is pending and within 150 miles of the deponent's residence, unless the court orders otherwise under paragraph (3).

(2) The deposition of an organization that is a party to the action shall be taken at a place that is, at the option of the party giving notice of the deposition, either within 75 miles of the organization's principal executive or business office in California, or within the county where the action is pending and within 150 miles of that office. The deposition of any other organization shall be taken within 75 miles of the organization's principal executive or business office in California, unless the organization consents to a more distant place. If the organization has not designated a principal executive or business office in California, the deposition shall be taken at a place that is, at the option of the party giving notice of the deposition, either within the county where the action is pending, or within 75 miles of any executive or business office in California of the organization.

(3) A party desiring to take the deposition of a natural person who is a party to the action or an officer, director, managing agent, or employee of a party may make a motion for an order that the deponent attend for deposition at a place that is more distant than that permitted under paragraph (1). This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

In exercising its discretion to grant or deny this motion, the court shall take into consideration any factor tending to show whether the interests of justice will be served by requiring the deponent's attendance at that more distant place, including, but not limited to, the following:

(A) Whether the moving party selected the forum.

(B) Whether the deponent will be present to testify at the trial of the action.

(C) The convenience of the deponent.

(D) The feasibility of conducting the deposition by written questions under Section 2028, or of using a discovery method other than a deposition.

(E) The number of depositions sought to be taken at a place more distant than that permitted under paragraph (1).

(F) The expense to the parties of requiring the deposition to be taken within the distance permitted under paragraph (1).

(G) The whereabouts of the deponent at the time for which the deposition is scheduled.

The order may be conditioned on the advancement by the moving party of the reasonable expenses and costs to the deponent for travel to the place of deposition.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to increase travel limits for party-deponent, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(f) An oral deposition shall be scheduled for a date at least 10 days after service of the deposition notice or, in unlawful detainer actions, not later than five days before trial, whichever is sooner. If, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1985.3, the party giving notice of the deposition is a subpoenaing party, and the deponent is a witness commanded by a deposition subpoena to produce personal records of a consumer, the deposition shall be scheduled for a date at least 20 days after issuance of that subpoena.

On motion or ex parte application of any party or deponent, for good cause shown, the court may shorten or extend the time for scheduling a deposition, or may stay its taking until the determination of a motion for a protective order under subdivision (i).

(g) Any party served with a deposition notice that does not comply with subdivisions (b) to (f), inclusive, waives any error or irregularity unless that party promptly serves a written objection specifying that error or irregularity at least three calendar days prior to the date for which the deposition is scheduled, on the party seeking to take the deposition and any other attorney or party on whom the deposition notice was served. If an objection is made three calendar days before the deposition date, the objecting party shall make personal service of that objection pursuant to Section 1011 on the party who gave notice of the deposition. Any deposition taken after the service of a written objection shall not be used against the objecting party under subdivision (u) if the party did not attend the deposition and if the court determines that the objection was a valid one.

In addition to serving this written objection, a party may also move for an order staying the taking of the deposition and quashing the deposition notice. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion. The taking of the deposition is stayed pending the determination of this motion.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to quash a deposition notice, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(h) (1) The service of a deposition notice under subdivision (c) is effective to require any deponent who is a party to the action or an officer, director, managing agent, or employee of a party to attend and to testify, as well as to produce any document or tangible thing for inspection and copying.

(2) The attendance and testimony of any other deponent, as well as the production by the deponent of any document or tangible thing for inspection and copying, requires the service on the deponent of a deposition subpoena under Section 2020.

(i) Before, during, or after a deposition, any party, any deponent, or any other affected natural person or organization may promptly move for a protective order. The motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion.

The court, for good cause shown, may make any order that justice requires to protect any party, deponent, or other natural person or organization from unwarranted annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression, or undue burden and expense. This protective order may include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following directions:

(1) That the deposition not be taken at all.

(2) That the deposition be taken at a different time.

(3) That a video tape deposition of a treating or consulting physician or of any expert witness, intended for possible use at trial under paragraph (4) of subdivision (u), be postponed until the moving party has had an adequate opportunity to prepare, by discovery deposition of the deponent, or other means, for cross-examination.

(4) That the deposition be taken at a place other than that specified in the deposition notice, if it is within a distance permitted by subdivision (e).

(5) That the deposition be taken only on certain specified terms and conditions.

(6) That the deponent's testimony be taken by written, instead of oral, examination.

(7) That the method of discovery be interrogatories to a party instead of an oral deposition.

(8) That the testimony be recorded in a manner different from that specified in the deposition notice.

(9) That certain matters not be inquired into.

(10) That the scope of the examination be limited to certain matters.

(11) That all or certain of the writings or tangible things designated in the deposition notice not be produced, inspected, or copied.

(12) That designated persons, other than the parties to the action and their officers and counsel, be excluded from attending the deposition.

(13) That a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be disclosed or be disclosed only to specified persons or only in a specified way.

(14) That the parties simultaneously file specified documents enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the court.

(15) That the deposition be sealed and thereafter opened only on order of the court.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may order that the deponent provide or permit the discovery against which protection was sought on those terms and conditions that are just.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion for a protective order, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(j) (1) If the party giving notice of a deposition fails to attend or proceed with it, the court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against that party, or the attorney for that party, or both, and in favor of any party attending in person or by attorney, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(2) If a deponent does not appear for a deposition because the party giving notice of the deposition failed to serve a required deposition subpoena, the court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against that party, or the attorney for that party, or both, in favor of any other party who, in person or by attorney, attended at the time and place specified in the deposition notice in the expectation that the deponent's testimony would be taken, unless the court finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

If a deponent on whom a deposition subpoena has been served fails to attend a deposition or refuses to be sworn as a witness, the court may impose on the deponent the sanctions described in subdivision (h) of Section 2020.

(3) If, after service of a deposition notice, a party to the action or an officer, director, managing agent, or employee of a party, or a person designated by an organization that is a party under subdivision (d), without having served a valid objection under subdivision (g), fails to appear for examination, or to proceed with it, or to produce for inspection any document or tangible thing described in the deposition notice, the party giving the notice may move for an order compelling the deponent's attendance and testimony, and the production for inspection of any document or tangible thing described in the deposition notice. This motion (A) shall set forth specific facts showing good cause justifying the production for inspection of any document or tangible thing described in the deposition notice, and (B) shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by it. If this motion is granted, the court shall also impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against the deponent or the party with whom the deponent is affiliated, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust. On motion of any other party who, in person or by attorney, attended at the time and place specified in the deposition notice in the expectation that the deponent's testimony would be taken, the court shall also impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

If that party or party-affiliated deponent then fails to obey an order compelling attendance, testimony, and production, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023 against that party deponent or against the party with whom the deponent is affiliated. In lieu of or in addition to this sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against that deponent or against the party with whom that party deponent is affiliated, and in favor of any party who, in person or by attorney, attended in the expectation that the deponent's testimony would be taken pursuant to that order.

(k) Except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) of Section 2020, the deposition shall be conducted under the supervision of an officer who is authorized to administer an oath. This officer shall not be financially interested in the action and shall not be a relative or employee of any attorney of any of the parties. Any objection to the qualifications of the deposition officer is waived unless made before the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the ground for that objection becomes known or could be discovered by reasonable diligence.

(l) (1) The deposition officer shall put the deponent under oath. Unless the parties agree or the court orders otherwise, the testimony, as well as any stated objections, shall be taken stenographically. The party noticing the deposition may also record the testimony by audio tape or video tape if the notice of deposition stated an intention also to record the testimony by either of those methods, or if all the parties agree that the testimony may also be recorded by either of those methods. Any other party, at that party's expense, may make a simultaneous audio tape or video tape record of the deposition, provided that other party promptly, and in no event less than three calendar days before the date for which the deposition is scheduled, serves a written notice of this intention to audio tape or video tape the deposition testimony on the party or attorney who noticed the deposition, on all other parties or attorneys on whom the deposition notice was served under subdivision (c), and on any deponent whose attendance is being compelled by a deposition subpoena under Section 2020. If this notice is given three calendar days before the deposition date, it shall be made by personal service under Section 1011. Examination and cross-examination of the deponent shall proceed as permitted at trial under the provisions of the Evidence

Code.

(2) If the deposition is being recorded by means of audio tape or video tape, the following procedure shall be observed:

(A) The area used for recording the deponent's oral testimony shall be suitably large, adequately lighted, and reasonably quiet.

(B) The operator of the recording equipment shall be competent to set up, operate, and monitor the equipment in the manner prescribed in this subdivision. The operator may be an employee of the attorney taking the deposition unless the operator is also the deposition officer. However, if a video tape of deposition testimony is to be used under paragraph (4) of subdivision (u), the operator of the recording equipment shall be a person who is authorized to administer an oath, and shall not be financially interested in the action or be a relative or employee of any attorney of any of the parties, unless all parties attending the deposition agree on the record to waive these qualifications and restrictions.

(C) The operator shall not distort the appearance or the demeanor of participants in the deposition by the use of camera or sound recording techniques.

(D) The deposition shall begin with an oral or written statement on camera or on the audio tape that includes the operator's name and business address, the name and business address of the operator's employer, the date, time, and place of the deposition, the caption of the case, the name of the deponent, a specification of the party on whose behalf the deposition is being taken, and any stipulations by the parties.

(E) Counsel for the parties shall identify themselves on camera or on the audio tape.

(F) The oath shall be administered to the deponent on camera or on the audio tape.

(G) If the length of a deposition requires the use of more than one unit of tape, the end of each unit and the beginning of each succeeding unit shall be announced on camera or on the audio tape.

(H) At the conclusion of a deposition, a statement shall be made on camera or on the audio tape that the deposition is ended and shall set forth any stipulations made by counsel concerning the custody of the audio tape or video tape recording and the exhibits, or concerning other pertinent matters.

(I) A party intending to offer an audio taped or video taped recording of a deposition in evidence under subdivision (u) shall notify the court and all parties in writing of that intent and of the parts of the deposition to be offered within sufficient time for objections to be made and ruled on by the judge to whom the case is assigned for trial or hearing, and for any editing of the tape. Objections to all or part of the deposition shall be made in writing. The court may permit further designations of testimony and objections as justice may require. With respect to those portions of an audio taped or video taped deposition that are not designated by any party or that are ruled to be objectionable, the court may order that the party offering the recording of the deposition at the trial or hearing suppress those portions, or that an edited version of the deposition tape be prepared for use at the trial or hearing. The original audio tape or video tape of the deposition shall be preserved unaltered. If no stenographic record of the deposition testimony has previously been made, the party offering a video tape or an audio tape recording of that testimony under subdivision (u) shall accompany that offer with a stenographic transcript prepared from that recording.

(3) In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties may transmit written questions in a sealed envelope to the party taking the deposition for delivery to the deposition officer, who shall unseal the envelope and propound them to the deponent after the oral examination has been completed.

(m) (1) The protection of information from discovery on the ground that it is privileged or that it is protected work product under Section 2018 is waived unless a specific objection to its disclosure is timely made during the deposition.

(2) Errors and irregularities of any kind occurring at the oral examination that might be cured if promptly presented are waived unless a specific objection to them is timely made during the deposition. These errors and irregularities include, but are not limited to, those relating to the manner of taking the deposition, to the oath or affirmation administered, to the conduct of a party, attorney, deponent, or deposition officer, or to the form of any question or answer. Unless the objecting party demands that the taking of the deposition be suspended to permit a motion for a protective order under subdivision (n), the deposition shall proceed subject to the objection.

(3) Objections to the competency of the deponent, or to the relevancy, materiality, or admissibility at trial of the testimony or of the materials produced are unnecessary and are not waived by failure to make them before or during the deposition.

(4) If a deponent fails to answer any question or to produce any document or tangible thing under the deponent's control that is specified in the deposition notice or a deposition subpoena, the party seeking that answer or production may adjourn the deposition or complete the examination on other matters without waiving the right at a later time to move for an order compelling that answer or production under subdivision (o).

(n) On demand of any party or the deponent, the deposition officer shall suspend the taking of testimony to enable that party or deponent to move for a protective order on the ground that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in a manner that unreasonably annoys, embarrasses, or oppresses that deponent or party. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion. The court, for good cause shown, may terminate the examination or may limit the scope and manner of taking the deposition as provided in subdivision (i). If the order terminates the examination, the deposition shall not thereafter be resumed, except on order of the court.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion for this protective order, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(o) If a deponent fails to answer any question or to produce any document or tangible thing under the deponent's control that is specified in the deposition notice or a deposition subpoena, the party seeking discovery may move the court for an order compelling that answer or production. This motion shall be made no later than 60 days after the completion of the record of the deposition, and shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion. Notice of this motion shall be given to all parties, and to the deponent either orally at the examination, or by subsequent service in writing. If the notice of the motion is given orally, the deposition officer shall direct the deponent to attend a session of the court at the time specified in the notice. Not less than five days prior to the hearing on this motion, the moving party shall lodge with the court a certified copy of any parts of the stenographic transcript of the deposition that are relevant to the motion. If a deposition is recorded by audio tape or video tape, the moving party is required to lodge a certified copy of a transcript of any parts of the deposition that are relevant to the motion. If the court determines that the answer or production sought is subject to discovery, it shall order that the answer be given or the production be made on the resumption of the deposition.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to compel answer or production, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

If a deponent fails to obey an order entered under this subdivision, the failure may be considered a contempt of court. In addition, if the disobedient deponent is a party to the action or an officer, director, managing agent, or employee of a party, the court may make those orders that are just against the disobedient party, or against the party with whom the disobedient deponent is affiliated, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023. In lieu of or in addition to this sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against that party deponent or against any party with whom the deponent is affiliated.

(p) Unless the parties agree otherwise, the testimony at any deposition recorded by stenographic means shall be transcribed. The party noticing the deposition shall bear the cost of that transcription, unless the court, on motion and for good cause shown, orders that the cost be borne or shared by another party. Any other party, at that party's expense, may obtain a copy of the transcript. At the request of any other party to the action, including a party who did not attend the taking of the deposition testimony, any party who records or causes the recording of that testimony by means of audio tape or video tape shall promptly (1) permit that other party to hear the audio tape or to view the video tape, and (2) furnish a copy of the audio tape or video tape to that other party on receipt of payment of the reasonable cost of making that copy of the tape.

If the testimony at the deposition is recorded both stenographically, and by audio tape or video tape, the stenographic transcript is the official record of that testimony for the purpose of the trial and any subsequent hearing or appeal.

(q) (1) If the deposition testimony is stenographically recorded, the deposition officer shall send written notice to the deponent and to all parties attending the deposition when the original transcript of the testimony is available for reading, correcting, and signing, unless the deponent and the attending parties agree on the record to waive the reading, correcting, and signing of the transcript of the testimony. For 30 days following this notice, the deponent may change the form or the substance of the answer to any question, and may either approve the transcript of the deposition by signing it, or refuse to approve the transcript by not signing it.

Alternatively, within this same 30-day period, the deponent may change the form or the substance of the answer to any question and may approve or refuse to approve the transcript by means of a letter to the deposition officer signed by the deponent which is mailed by certified or registered mail with return receipt requested. A copy of that letter shall be sent by first-class mail to all parties attending the deposition. For good cause shown, the court may shorten the 30-day period for making changes, approving, or refusing to approve the transcript.

The deposition officer shall indicate on the original of the transcript, if the deponent has not already done so at the office of the deposition officer, any action taken by the deponent and indicate on the original of the transcript, the deponent's approval of, or failure or refusal to approve, the transcript. The deposition officer shall also notify in writing the parties attending the deposition of any changes which the deponent timely made in person. If the deponent fails or refuses to approve the transcript within the allotted period, the deposition shall be given the same effect as though it had been approved, subject to any changes timely made by the deponent. However, on a seasonable motion to suppress the deposition, accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion, the court may determine that the reasons given for the failure or refusal to approve the transcript require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to suppress a deposition, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(2) If there is no stenographic transcription of the deposition, the deposition officer shall send written notice to the deponent and to all parties attending the deposition that the recording is available for review, unless the deponent and all these parties agree on the record to waive the hearing or viewing of an audio tape or video tape recording of the testimony. For 30 days following this notice the deponent, either in person or by signed letter to the deposition officer, may change the substance of the answer to any question.

The deposition officer shall set forth in a writing to accompany the recording any changes made by the deponent, as well as either the deponent's signature identifying the deposition as his or her own, or a statement of the deponent's failure to supply such signature, or to contact the officer within the allotted period. When a deponent fails to contact the officer within the allotted period, or expressly refuses by a signature to identify the deposition as his or her own, the deposition shall be given the same effect as though signed. However, on a seasonable motion to suppress the deposition, accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion, the court may determine that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to suppress a deposition, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(r) The deposition officer shall certify on the transcript of the deposition, or in the writing accompanying an audio taped or video taped deposition as described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (q), that the deponent was duly sworn and that the transcript or recording is a true record of the testimony given and of any changes made by the deponent.

(s) (1) The certified transcript of a deposition shall not be filed with the court. Instead, the deposition officer shall securely seal that transcript in an envelope or package endorsed with the title of the action and marked: "Deposition of (here insert name of deponent)", and shall promptly transmit it to the attorney for the party who noticed the deposition. This attorney shall store it under conditions that will protect it against loss, destruction, or tampering.

The attorney to whom the transcript of a deposition is transmitted shall retain custody of it until six months after final disposition of the action. At that time, the transcript may be destroyed, unless the court, on motion of any party and for good cause shown, orders that the transcript be preserved for a longer period.

(2) An audio tape or video tape record of deposition testimony, including a certified tape made by an operator qualified under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (l), shall not be filed with the court. Instead, the operator shall retain custody of that record and shall store it under conditions that will protect it against loss, destruction, or tampering, and preserve as far as practicable the quality of the tape and the integrity of the testimony and images it contains.

At the request of any party to the action, including a party who did not attend the taking of the deposition testimony, or at the request of the deponent, that operator shall promptly (A) permit the one making the request to hear or to view the tape on receipt of payment of a reasonable charge for providing the facilities for hearing or viewing the tape, and (B) furnish a copy of the audio tape or the video tape recording to the one making the request on receipt of payment of the reasonable cost of making that copy of the tape.

The attorney or operator who has custody of an audio tape or video tape record of deposition testimony shall retain custody of it until six months after final disposition of the action. At that time, the audio tape or video tape may be destroyed or erased, unless the court, on motion of any party and for good cause shown, orders that the tape be preserved for a longer period.

(t) Once any party has taken the deposition of any natural person, including that of a party to the action, neither the party who gave, nor any other party who received, notice of the deposition may take a subsequent deposition of that deponent. However, for good cause shown, the court may grant leave to take a subsequent deposition, and the parties, with the consent of any deponent who is not a party, may stipulate that a subsequent deposition be taken. This subdivision does not preclude taking one subsequent deposition of a natural person who has previously been examined as a result of that person's designation to testify on behalf of an organization under subdivision (d).

(u) At the trial or any other hearing in the action, any part or all of a deposition may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition, or who had due notice of the deposition and did not serve a valid objection under subdivision (g), so far as admissible under the rules of evidence applied as though the deponent were then present and testifying as a witness, in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) Any party may use a deposition for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of the deponent as a witness, or for any other purpose permitted by the Evidence Code.

(2) An adverse party may use for any purpose, a deposition of a party to the action, or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director, managing agent, employee, agent, or designee under subdivision (d) of a party. It is not ground for objection to the use of a deposition of a party under this paragraph by an adverse party that the deponent is available to testify, has testified, or will testify at the trial or other hearing.

(3) Any party may use for any purpose the deposition of any person or organization, including that of any party to the action, if the court finds any of the following:

(A) The deponent resides more than 150 miles from the place of the trial or other hearing.

(B) The deponent, without the procurement or wrongdoing of the proponent of the deposition for the purpose of preventing testimony in open court, is (i) exempted or precluded on the ground of privilege from testifying concerning the matter to which the deponent's testimony is relevant, (ii) disqualified from testifying, (iii) dead or unable to attend or testify because of existing physical or mental illness or infirmity, (iv) absent from the trial or other hearing and the court is unable to compel the deponent's attendance by its process, or (v) absent from the trial or other hearing and the proponent of the deposition has exercised reasonable diligence but has been unable to procure the deponent's attendance by the court's process.

(C) Exceptional circumstances exist that make it desirable to allow the use of any deposition in the interests of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witnesses orally in open court.

(4) Any party may use a video tape deposition of a treating or consulting physician or of any expert witness even though the deponent is available to testify if the deposition notice under subdivision (d) reserved the right to use the deposition at trial, and if that party has complied with subparagraph (I) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (l).

(5) Subject to the requirements of this section, a party may offer in evidence all or any part of a deposition, and if the party introduces only part of the deposition, any other party may introduce any other parts that are relevant to the parts introduced.

(6) Substitution of parties does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken.

(7) When an action has been brought in any court of the United States or of any state, and another action involving the same subject matter is subsequently brought between the same parties or their representatives or successors in interest, all depositions lawfully taken and duly filed in the initial action may be used in the subsequent action as if originally taken in that subsequent action. A deposition previously taken may also be used as permitted by the Evidence Code.

SEC. 12. Section 12311 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

12311. (a) The names of all corporations formed under this part shall include "cooperative." No corporation shall be formed under this part unless there is affixed or prefixed to its name some word or abbreviation which will indicate that it is a corporation, as distinguished from a natural person, a firm, or an unincorporated association.

(b) No person shall adopt or use the word "cooperative" or any abbreviation or derivation thereof, or any word similar thereto, as part of the name or designation under which it does business in this state, unless incorporated as provided in this part or unless incorporated as a nonprofit cooperative association under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code, as a stock cooperative, as defined in Section 11003.2 of the Business and Professions Code, as a limited-equity housing cooperative, as defined in Section 33007.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as a credit union or organization owned for the mutual benefit of credit unions, or under some other law of this state enabling it to do so. However, the foregoing prohibition shall be inapplicable to any credit union or organization owned for the mutual benefit of credit unions, any housing cooperative, the financing of which is insured, guaranteed, or provided, in whole or in part, by a public or statutorily chartered entity pursuant to a program created for housing cooperatives, a nonprofit corporation, a majority of whose membership is composed of cooperative corporations, or an academic institution that serves cooperative corporations.

(c) A domestic or foreign corporation or association which did business in this state under a name or designation including the word "cooperative" prior to September 19, 1939, and which conducts business on a cooperative basis substantially as set forth in this part, may continue to do business under that name or designation.

(d) Any person, firm, individual, partnership, trust, domestic corporation, foreign corporation, or association which did business in this state under a name or designation including the word "cooperative" prior to September 19, 1939, but which does not conduct business on a cooperative basis as contemplated by Section 12201 of this part, may continue to do business under that name or designation if the words "not organized under the law relating to cooperative corporations" are always placed immediately after the name or designation wherever it is used.

(e) Any foreign corporation, organized under and complying with the cooperative law of the state or other jurisdiction of its creation, may use the term "cooperative" in this state if it has complied with the laws of this state applicable to foreign corporations, insofar as those laws are applicable to it, and if it is doing business on a cooperative basis as contemplated by Section 12201.

SEC. 13. Section 703.5 of the Evidence Code is amended to read:

703.5. No person presiding at any judicial or quasi-judicial proceeding, and no arbitrator, shall be competent to testify, in any subsequent civil proceeding, as to any statement, conduct, decision or ruling, occurring at or in conjunction with the prior proceeding, except as to a statement or conduct that could (a) give rise to civil or criminal contempt, (b) constitute a crime, (c) be the subject of investigation by the State Bar or Commission on Judicial Performance, or (d) give rise to disqualification proceedings under paragraph (1) or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 170.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 13.2. Section 5432 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

5432. If a copy of the notice to abate a public nuisance, as described in Section 5401, is recorded and a copy is served upon or mailed to the holder of any encumbrance of record pursuant to this article, the lien is superior to all encumbrances, existing and future, except liens for taxes and assessments.

SEC. 13.4. Section 1363 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1363. (a) Unless otherwise provided, every oath of office certified by the officer before whom it was taken shall be filed within the time required as follows:

(1) The oath of all officers whose authority is not limited to any particular county, in the office of the Secretary of State.

(2) The oath of all officers elected or appointed for any county, and, except as provided in paragraph (4), of all officers whose duties are local, or whose residence in any particular county is prescribed by law, in the office of the county clerk of their respective counties.

(3) Each judge of a superior court, the county clerk, the executive officer or court administrator of the superior court, and the recorder shall file a copy of his or her official oath, signed with his or her own proper signature, in the office of the Secretary of State as soon as he or she has taken and subscribed his or her oath.

(4) The oath of all officers for any independent special district, as defined in Section 56044, in the office of the clerk or secretary of that district.

(b) Every oath of office filed pursuant to this section with the Secretary of State shall include the expiration date of the officer's term of office, if any. In the case of an oath of office for an appointed officer, if there is no expiration date set forth in the oath, or the officer leaves office before the expiration date, the appointing authority shall report in writing to the Secretary of State the officer's date of departure from office.

SEC. 13.6. Section 6159 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6159. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Credit card" means any card, plate, coupon book, or other credit device existing for the purpose of being used from time to time upon presentation to obtain money, property, labor, or services on credit.

(2) "Card issuer" means any person who issues a credit card and purchases credit card drafts or the agent of such person for such purposes with respect to such card.

(3) "Cardholder" means any person to whom a credit card is issued or any person who has agreed with the card issuer to pay obligations arising from the issuance of a credit card to another person.

(4) "Draft purchaser" means any person who purchases credit card drafts.

(b) Subject to the provisions of subdivision (c), a court, city, or other public agency may authorize the acceptance of a credit card for payment for the deposit of bail or for any fine for any offense not declared to be a felony, for payment of a filing fee or other court fee, or for payment of any towage or storage costs for a vehicle which has been removed from a highway, or from public or private property, as a result of parking violations, or for payment for services rendered by any city, county, or city and county.

(c) A court desiring to authorize the use of a credit card pursuant to subdivision (b) shall obtain the approval of its county board of supervisors. A city desiring to authorize the use of a credit card pursuant to subdivision (b) shall obtain the approval of its city council. Any other public agency desiring to authorize the use of a credit card pursuant to subdivision (b) shall obtain the approval of the governing body which has fiscal responsibility for such agency. After approval is obtained, a contract may be executed with one or more credit card issuers or draft purchasers. The contract shall provide for:

(1) The respective rights and duties of the court, city, county, city and county, or other public agency and card issuer or draft purchaser regarding the presentment, acceptability and payment of credit card drafts.

(2) The establishment of a reasonable means by which to facilitate payment settlements.

(3) The payment to the card issuer or draft purchaser of a reasonable fee or discount.

(4) Such other matters appropriately included in contracts with respect to the purchase of credit card drafts as may be agreed upon by the parties to the contract.

(d) The honoring of a credit card pursuant to subdivision (b) hereof constitutes payment of the amount owing to the court, city, county, city and county, or other public agency as of the date the credit card is honored provided the credit card draft is paid following its due presentment to a card issuer or draft purchaser.

(e) If any credit card draft is not paid following due presentment to a card issuer or draft purchaser or is charged back to the court, city, county, city and county, or other public agency for any reason, any record of payment made by the court, city, or other public agency honoring the credit card shall be void. Any receipt issued in acknowledgment of payment shall also be void. The obligation of the cardholder shall continue as an outstanding obligation as though no payment had been attempted.

(f) Fees or discounts provided for under paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) shall be deducted or accounted for prior to any statutory or other distribution of funds received from the card issuer or draft purchaser.

SEC. 14. Section 71007.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

71007.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the clerk of the municipal or justice court may record, at any time, on microform as defined in Section 69503, including electronic imaging equipment, pleadings, motions, instruments, books, depositions, transcripts, minute orders, complaints, dockets, registers of action, and any other records which are part of the court file or lodged with the municipal or justice court. A duplicate copy of any record reproduced on electronic and certified by the clerk of the court, which is in compliance with standards developed by the National Institute of Standards and Technology, shall be deemed an original. No additions, deletions, or changes to an original record stored on microform, including electronic imaging equipment are permitted.

(b) Upon making reproductions of court records in instances where the records reproduced do not constitute the docket or register of actions, the originals may be destroyed. The reproduction shall be deemed to be an original record.

(c) The originals of all papers and records copied as provided in subdivision (a) may be destroyed in comformity with Section 71008. The reproduced copies shall be deemed to be the original records of the court.

SEC. 15. Section 71180.5 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 2.5 of Chapter 481 of the Statutes of 1984, is amended to read:

71180.5. Upon the appointment, election, death, removal, or resignation of a judge of a municipal or justice court, the clerk or administrator of that municipal or justice court shall immediately give the Judges' Retirement System written notice thereof.

SEC. 16. Section 71180.5 of the Government Code, as amended by Chapter 395 of the Statutes of 1983, is repealed.

SEC. 17. Section 72190 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72190. Within the jurisdiction of the court and under the direction of the judges, commissioners of municipal courts or justice courts shall exercise all the powers and perform all of the duties authorized by law to be performed by commissioners of superior courts and such additional powers and duties as may be prescribed by law. At the direction of the judges, commissioners may have the same jurisdiction and exercise the same powers and duties as the judges of the court with respect to any infraction or small claims action. The commissioners of municipal courts or justice courts shall possess the same qualifications the law requires of a judge and shall hold office during the pleasure of the court appointing them and shall not engage in the private practice of law. They shall be ex officio deputy clerks.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a commissioner of a municipal court or a justice court of any judicial district in Los Angeles County, San Diego County, San Bernardino County, Orange County, or Monterey County who has been duly appointed and has thereafter been retired for service, or a commissioner of a superior court in this state who has been duly appointed and has thereafter been retired for service, may be assigned by the presiding judge or sole judge of a municipal court or a justice court to serve as a court commissioner of such court for such periods of time as he or she is needed for the prompt and efficient discharge of the business of that court. While so serving, he or she shall be paid the full compensation of a court commissioner, payable as follows: He or she shall continue to receive his or her retirement allowance, and in addition the county shall pay him or her the amount equal to the difference between the retirement allowance and full compensation. That employment shall not operate to reinstate him or her as a member of the county retirement system or to terminate or suspend his or her retirement rights or allowance, and no deductions shall be made from his or her compensation as contributions to the retirement system.

SEC. 18. Section 72190.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72190.1. A commissioner of a municipal court or a justice court may conduct arraignment proceedings in the court if directed to perform those duties by the presiding or sole judge of the court, including the issuance and signing of bench warrants.

SEC. 19. Section 72190.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72190.2. If directed to perform such duties by the presiding judge or sole judge of the court, a commissioner of the municipal court or the justice court may issue and sign a bench warrant for the arrest of a defendant who fails to appear in court when required to appear by law or who fails to perform any act required by court order.

SEC. 20. Section 2 of Chapter 1313 of the Statutes of 1986 is repealed.

SEC. 21. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because counties have elected to and will receive funding through the 1990–91 fiscal year under the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act in lieu of such reimbursement. If any county or counties elect not to receive that funding in 1991–92, then funding to reimburse their costs of complying with this act will be provided in the Budget Act of 1991.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1492

An act to amend Section 273 of the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 273 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

273. (a) It is a misdemeanor for any person or agency to offer to pay money or anything of value, or to pay money or anything of value, to a parent for the placement for adoption, for the consent to an adoption, or for cooperation in the completion of an adoption of his or her child.

(b) This section does not make it unlawful to pay the maternity-connected medical or hospital and necessary living expenses of the mother preceding and during confinement as an act of charity, as long as the payment is not contingent upon placement of the child for adoption, consent to the adoption, or cooperation in the completion of the adoption.

(c) It is a misdemeanor punishable by incarceration in the county jail for six months or a fine not exceeding two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for any parent to obtain the financial benefits set forth in subdivision (b) with the intent to receive those financial benefits where there is an intent to do either of the following:

(1) Not complete the adoption.

(2) Not consent to the adoption.

(d) It is a misdemeanor punishable by incarceration in the county jail for six months or a fine not exceeding two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for any parent to obtain the financial benefits set forth in subdivision (b) from two or more prospective adopting families or persons if either parent does both of the following:

(1) Knowingly fails to disclose to those families or persons that there are other prospective adopting families or persons interested in adopting the child, with knowledge that there is an obligation to disclose that information.

(2) Knowingly accepts the financial benefits set forth in subdivision (b) if the aggregate amount exceeds the reasonable maternity-connected medical or hospital and necessary living expenses of the mother preceding and during the pregnancy.

(e) Any person who has been previously convicted of an offense described in subdivision (c) or (d), who is separately tried and convicted of a subsequent violation of subdivision (c) or (d), is guilty of a public offense punishable by imprisonment in the county jail or in state prison.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 4353, 4550, 4700.10, 4701.1 and 5165 of, to amend, repeal, and add Sections 196, 4700, 4720, 4721, 4722, 4723, 4724, 4725, 4727, 4728, 4728.5, and 7010 of, to add Section 4366 to, and to add and repeal Section 4720.1 of, the Civil Code, to amend Sections 706.011 and 708.780 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to add and repeal Section 68514 of the Government Code, to amend Section 10125.5 of, to amend and repeal Section 10125.6 of, and to amend, repeal, and add Section 10061 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 11489 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to family law.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 196 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

196. (a) The father and mother of a child have an equal responsibility to support and educate their child in the manner suitable to the child's circumstances, taking into consideration the respective earnings or earning capacities of the parents.

(b) A judgment or order for support may, in appropriate circumstances, based on all relevant facts, require one parent to pay to the other parent a reasonable amount for the cost of the support of the child for the shortest of the following periods prior to the filing of the action:

(1) Three years.

(2) The date of the mailing of the birth certificate or the mailing of the written notification by the custodial parent, pursuant to subdivision (c).

(3) The date of separation of the parties until the date of the filing of the action.

This subdivision shall only apply to a child born on or after January 1, 1989.

(c) In circumstances where paternity has not been legally established or the parties were married but separated before the date of the child's date of birth, the court shall not award child support under subdivision (b), under any circumstances, unless the father has received a copy of the birth certificate as provided in Section 10061 of the Health and Safety Code, or the custodial parent has provided written notification by first-class mail, with return receipt requested, to the father of his paternity and of his obligation to support the child. In determining whether the judgment or order may be awarded, the court shall consider the diligence on the part of the custodial parent in bringing the action for support. Any support ordered pursuant to subdivision (b) shall not be in an amount that reduces a parent's ability to provide appropriate support for any other child for whom a duty of support is owed if the support is actually being paid. The court shall review the incomes and expenses of the parents each year, or other relevant period of time, for which support is being requested and may apply its guidelines and the child support laws in effect for each period. This subdivision shall only apply to a child born on or after January 1, 1989.

(d) As used in this section, "relevant facts" has the meaning given in subdivision (d) of Section 7010.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 196 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

196. (a) The father and mother of a child have an equal responsibility to support and educate their child in the manner suitable to the child's circumstances, taking into consideration the respective earnings or earning capacities of the parents.

(b) This section shall become operative January 1, 1993.

SEC. 3. Section 4353 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4353. In any action for legal separation or dissolution or annulment of a marriage, the court has continuing jurisdiction to award community property or community debts to the parties that has not been previously adjudicated by a judgment therein. A party may file a postjudgment motion or order to show cause in the proceeding in order to obtain adjudication of any community asset or debt omitted or not adjudicated by the judgment. In these cases, the court shall equally divide the omitted or unadjudicated community asset or debt, unless the court finds upon good cause shown that the interests of justice require an unequal division of the asset or debt.

SEC. 4. Section 4366 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4366. (a) Upon filing of a petition for dissolution of marriage, nullity of marriage, or for legal separation, or at any time during the proceeding, a party may transmit to, or the court may order transmittal to, a health, life, or disability insurance carrier or plan the following notice in substantially the following form:

"YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED, PURSUANT TO A PENDING PROCEEDING, IN RE MARRIAGE OF _____, CASE NUMBER _____, FILED IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF _____, THAT OWNERSHIP OF, OR BENEFITS PAYABLE UNDER, A POLICY OF HEALTH, LIFE, OR DISABILITY INSURANCE WHICH YOU HAVE ISSUED TO ONE OF THE PARTIES TO THIS PROCEEDING, POLICY NO. _____, IS AT ISSUE OR MAY BE AT ISSUE IN THE PROCEEDING.

YOU ARE HEREBY INSTRUCTED TO MAINTAIN THE NAMED BENEFICIARIES OR COVERED DEPENDENTS UNDER THE POLICY, UNLESS THE TERMS OF THE POLICY OR OTHER PROVISIONS OF LAW REQUIRE OTHERWISE, OR UNTIL RECEIPT OF A COURT ORDER, JUDGMENT, OR STIPULATION BETWEEN THE PARTIES PROVIDING OTHER INSTRUCTIONS.

YOU ARE FURTHER INSTRUCTED TO SEND NOTICE TO THE NAMED BENEFICIARIES, COVERED DEPENDENTS, OR OTHER SPECIFIED PERSONS UPON CANCELLATION, LAPSE, OR CHANGE OF THE COVERAGE, OR CHANGE OF DESIGNATED BENEFICIARIES UNDER THE POLICY."

(b) Upon the entry of an order or judgment in an action for dissolution of marriage, nullity of marriage, or for legal separation requiring a party to maintain existing health, life, or disability insurance coverage for a spouse or children or after an order or judgment in one of those proceedings requiring a party to purchase life or disability insurance and name the spouse or children as beneficiaries and upon receipt of the name, title, and address of the insurer, or the name of the plan's trustee, administrator, or agent for service of process, a party may transmit to, or the court may order transmittal to, the insurer or plan a copy of the order or judgment endorsed by the court, together with the following notice in substantially the following form:

"PURSUANT TO A PROCEEDING, IN RE MARRIAGE OF _____, CASE NUMBER _____, IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF _____, YOUR INSURED, _____, HAS BEEN ORDERED TO MAINTAIN THE EXISTING (HEALTH) (LIFE) (DISABILITY) INSURANCE COVERAGE, POLICY NO. _____, IN FORCE FOR THE NAMED BENEFICIARIES OR COVERED DEPENDENTS AS SPECIFIED IN THE ATTACHED ORDER OR JUDGMENT.

THE ATTACHED ORDER OR JUDGMENT REQUIRES YOU TO MAINTAIN THE NAMED BENEFICIARIES UNDER THE POLICY AS IRREVOCABLE BENEFICIARIES OR COVERED DEPENDENTS OF THE POLICY AND YOU MUST ADMINISTER THE COVERAGE ACCORDINGLY, UNTIL THE DATE SPECIFIED, IF ANY, IN THE ORDER OR JUDGMENT, OR UNTIL THE RECEIPT OF A COURT ORDER, JUDGMENT, OR STIPULATION PROVIDING OTHER INSTRUCTIONS.

YOU ARE FURTHER INSTRUCTED TO SEND NOTICE TO THE NAMED BENEFICIARIES, COVERED DEPENDENTS, OR OTHER SPECIFIED PERSONS UPON ANY CANCELLATION, LAPSE, OR CHANGE OF COVERAGE, OR CHANGE OF DESIGNATED BENEFICIARIES UNDER THIS POLICY."

(c) Notice pursuant to this section may be sent by regular mail, postage prepaid, to the last known address of the covered dependents, named beneficiaries, or other specified persons who have requested receipt of notification.

(d) The insured or policyholder who is a party to the proceeding shall furnish to the other party the name, title, and address of the insurer or the insurer's agent for service of process.

SEC. 5. Section 4550 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4550. A marriage may be dissolved by the summary dissolution procedure specified in this chapter when all of the following conditions exist at the time the proceeding is commenced:

(a) Either party has met the jurisdictional requirements of Sections 4530 and 4531 with regard to dissolution of marriage.

(b) Irreconcilable differences have caused the irremediable breakdown of the marriage and the marriage should be dissolved.

(c) There are no children of the relationship of the parties born before or during the marriage or adopted by the parties during the marriage, and the wife, to her knowledge, is not pregnant.

(d) The marriage is not more than five years in duration at the time the petition is filed.

(e) Neither party has any interest in real property wheresoever situated, with the exception of the lease of a residence occupied by either party, if it does not include an option to purchase, and if it terminates within one year from the date of the filing of the petition.

(f) There are no unpaid obligations in excess of four thousand dollars ($4,000) incurred by either or both of the parties after the date of their marriage, excluding the amount of any unpaid obligation with respect to an automobile.

(g) The total fair market value of community property assets, excluding all encumbrances and automobiles, including any deferred compensation or retirement plan, is less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) and neither party has separate property assets, excluding all encumbrances and automobiles, in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

(h) The parties have executed an agreement setting forth the division of assets and the assumption of liabilities of the community, and have duly executed any documents, title certificates, bills of sale, or other evidence of transfer necessary to effectuate the agreement.

(i) The parties waive any rights to spousal support.

(j) The parties, upon entry of final judgment of dissolution of marriage, irrevocably waive their respective rights to appeal and their rights to move for a new trial.

(k) The parties have read and understand the summary dissolution brochure provided for in Section 4556.

(l) The parties desire that the court dissolve the marriage.

On January 1, 1985, and on January 1 of each odd-numbered year thereafter, the amounts in subdivision (f) shall be adjusted to reflect any change in the value of the dollar. On January 1, 1993, and on January 1 of each odd-numbered year thereafter, the amounts in subdivision (g) shall be adjusted to reflect any change in the value of the dollar. The adjustments shall be made by multiplying the base amounts by the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index as compiled by the Department of Industrial Relations, with the result rounded to the nearest thousand dollars. The Judicial Council shall compute and publish the amounts.

SEC. 6. Section 4700 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4700. (a) (1) In any proceeding where there is at issue the support of a minor child or a child for whom support is authorized under Section 206, the court may order either or both parents to pay any amount necessary for the support, maintenance, and education of the child. At the request of either party, the court shall make appropriate findings with respect to the circumstances on which the order for the support of a minor child is based. Upon a showing of good cause, the court may order the parent or parents required to make the payment of support to give reasonable security therefor. All payments of support shall be made by the person owing the support payment prior to the payment of any debts owing to creditors. Any order for child support may be modified or revoked as the court may deem necessary, except as to any amount that may have accrued prior to the date of the filing of the notice of motion or order to show cause to modify or revoke. Any order for child support, as well as any order of modification or revocation of such an order, may be made retroactive to the date of the filing of the notice of motion or order to show cause therefor, or to any subsequent date, except as provided by federal law (42 U.S.C. Sec. 666(a)(9)). An order of modification or revocation may include an award of attorney fees and court costs to the prevailing party.

(2) A judgment or order for support may, in appropriate circumstances, based on all relevant facts, require one parent to pay to the other parent a reasonable amount for the cost of the support of the child for the shortest of the following periods prior to the filing of the action:

(A) Three years.

(B) The date of the mailing of the birth certificate or the mailing of the written notification by the custodial parent, pursuant to paragraph (3).

(C) The date of separation of the parties until the date of the filing of the action.

This paragraph shall only apply to a child born on or after January 1, 1989.

(3) In circumstances where paternity has not been established or the parties were married but separated before the child's date of birth, the court shall not award child support under paragraph (2), under any circumstances, unless the father has received a copy of the birth certificate as provided in Section 10061 of the Health and Safety Code, or the custodial parent has provided written notification by first-class mail, with return receipt requested, to the father of his paternity and of his obligation to support the child. In determining whether the judgment or order may be awarded, the court shall consider the diligence on the part of the custodial parent in bringing the action for support. Any support ordered pursuant to paragraph (2) shall not be in an amount that reduces a parent's ability to provide appropriate support for any other child for whom a duty of support is owed if the support is actually being paid. The court shall review the incomes and expenses of the parents each year, or other relevant period of time, for which support is being requested and may apply its guidelines and the child support law in effect for each period. This paragraph shall only apply to a child born on or after January 1, 1989.

As used in this paragraph, "relevant facts" has the meaning given in subdivision (d) of Section 7010.

(b) The court may order financial compensation for periods when a parent fails to assume the caretaker responsibility, or when a parent has been thwarted by the other parent when attempting to exercise visitation or custody rights, contemplated by a custody or visitation order entered pursuant to this part, including, but not limited to, an order for joint physical custody or by a written or oral agreement between the parents. The compensation shall be limited to (1) the reasonable expenses incurred for, or on behalf of, a child, resulting from the other parent's failure to assume his or her caretaker responsibility or (2) reasonable expenses incurred by a parent for, or on behalf of, a child resulting from the other parent's thwarting his or her efforts to exercise visitation or custody rights. These expenses may include the value of caretaker services, but are not limited to the cost of services provided by a third party during the relevant period.

The compensation may be requested by noticed motion or an order to show cause and shall allege, under penalty of perjury, a minimum of one hundred dollars ($100) of expenses so incurred or, at least three occurrences of failure to exercise visitation or custody rights or at least three occurrences of the thwarting of efforts to exercise visitation or custody rights within the six months prior to filing of the motion or order.

Attorney's fees shall be awarded to the prevailing party, upon a showing of the nonprevailing party's ability to pay.

(c) When a court orders a person to make specified payments for support of a child during the child's minority, or until the child is married or otherwise emancipated, or until the death of, or the occurrence of a specified event as to, a child for whom support is authorized under Section 206, the liability of the person ordered to pay support terminates upon the happening of the contingency. If the custodial parent or other person having physical custody of the child, to whom payments are to be made, fails to notify the person ordered to make those payments, or the attorney of record of the person ordered to pay support, of the happening of the contingency, and continues to accept support payments, the person shall refund any and all moneys received which accrued after the happening of the contingency, except that the overpayments shall first be applied to any and all support payments which are then in default. The court may, in the original order for support, order the custodial parent or other person to whom payments are to be made to notify the person ordered to make the payments, or his or her attorney of record, of the happening of the contingency.

(d) In the event obligations for support of a child are discharged in bankruptcy, the court may make all proper orders for the support, maintenance, and education of the child, as the court may deem just.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6.5. Section 4700 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4700. (a) (1) In any proceeding where there is at issue the support of a minor child or a child for whom support is authorized under Section 196, 196.5, or 206, the court may order either or both parents to pay any amount necessary for the support, maintenance, and education of the child. At the request of either party, the court shall make appropriate findings with respect to the circumstances on which the order for the support of a minor child is based. Upon a showing of good cause, the court may order the parent or parents required to make the payment of support to give reasonable security therefor. All payments of support shall be made by the person owing the support payment prior to the payment of any debts owing to creditors. Any order for child support may be modified or revoked as the court may deem necessary, except as to any amount that may have accrued prior to the date of the filing of the notice of motion or order to show cause to modify or revoke. Any order for child support, as well as any order of modification or revocation of such an order, may be made retroactive to the date of the filing of the notice of motion or order to show cause therefor, or to any subsequent date, except as provided by federal law (42 U.S.C. Sec. 666(a)(9)). An order of modification or revocation may include an award of attorney fees and court costs to the prevailing party.

(2) A judgment or order for support may, in appropriate circumstances, based on all relevant facts, require one parent to pay to the other parent a reasonable amount for the cost of the support of the child for the shortest of the following periods prior to the filing of the action:

(A) Three years.

(B) The date of the mailing of the birth certificate or the mailing of the written notification by the custodial parent, pursuant to paragraph (3).

(C) The date of separation of the parties until the date of the filing of the action.

This paragraph shall only apply to a child born on or after January 1, 1989.

(3) In circumstances where paternity has not been established or the parties were married but separated before the child's date of birth, the court shall not award child support under paragraph (2), under any circumstances, unless the father has received a copy of the birth certificate as provided in Section 10061 of the Health and Safety Code, or the custodial parent has provided written notification by first-class mail, with return receipt requested, to the father of his paternity and of his obligation to support the child. In determining whether the judgment or order may be awarded, the court shall consider the diligence on the part of the custodial parent in bringing the action for support. Any support ordered pursuant to paragraph (2) shall not be in an amount that reduces a parent's ability to provide appropriate support for any other child for whom a duty of support is owed if the support is actually being paid. The court shall review the incomes and expenses of the parents each year, or other relevant period of time, for which support is being requested and may apply its guidelines and the child support law in effect for each period. This paragraph shall only apply to a child born on or after January 1, 1989.

As used in this paragraph, "relevant facts" has the meaning given in subdivision (d) of Section 7010.

(b) The court may order financial compensation for periods when a parent fails to assume the caretaker responsibility, or when a parent has been thwarted by the other parent when attempting to exercise visitation or custody rights, contemplated by a custody or visitation order entered pursuant to this part, including, but not limited to, an order for joint physical custody or by a written or oral agreement between the parents. The compensation shall be limited to (1) the reasonable expenses incurred for, or on behalf of, a child, resulting from the other parent's failure to assume his or her caretaker responsibility or (2) reasonable expenses incurred by a parent for, or on behalf of, a child resulting from the other parent's thwarting his or her efforts to exercise visitation or custody rights. These expenses may include the value of caretaker services, but are not limited to the cost of services provided by a third party during the relevant period.

The compensation may be requested by noticed motion or an order to show cause and shall allege, under penalty of perjury, a minimum of one hundred dollars ($100) of expenses so incurred or, at least three occurrences of failure to exercise visitation or custody rights or at least three occurrences of the thwarting of efforts to exercise visitation or custody rights within the six months prior to filing of the motion or order.

Attorney's fees shall be awarded to the prevailing party, upon a showing of the nonprevailing party's ability to pay.

(c) When a court orders a person to make specified payments for support of a child during the child's minority, or until the child is married or otherwise emancipated, or until the death of, or the occurrence of a specified event as to, a child for whom support is authorized under Section 196, 196.5, or 206, the liability of the person ordered to pay support terminates upon the happening of the contingency. If the custodial parent or other person having physical custody of the child, to whom payments are to be made, fails to notify the person ordered to make those payments, or the attorney of record of the person ordered to pay support, of the happening of the contingency, and continues to accept support payments, the person shall refund any and all moneys received which accrued after the happening of the contingency, except that the overpayments shall first be applied to any and all support payments which are then in default. The court may, in the original order for support, order the custodial parent or other person to whom payments are to be made to notify the person ordered to make the payments, or his or her attorney of record, of the happening of the contingency.

(d) In the event obligations for support of a child are discharged in bankruptcy, the court may make all proper orders for the support, maintenance, and education of the child, as the court may deem just.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 7. Section 4700 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4700. (a) In any proceeding where there is at issue the support of a minor child or a child for whom support is authorized under Section 206, the court may order either or both parents to pay any amount necessary for the support, maintenance, and education of the child. At the request of either party, the court shall make appropriate findings with respect to the circumstances on which the order for the support of a minor child is based. Upon a showing of good cause, the court may order the parent or parents required to make the payment of support to give reasonable security therefor. Any order for child support, as well as any order of modification or revocation of such an order, may be made retroactive to the date of the filing of the notice of motion or order to show cause therefor, or to any subsequent date, except as may otherwise be prescribed by federal law (42 U.S.C. Sec. 666(a)(9)). An order of modification or revocation may include an award of attorney fees and court costs to the prevailing party.

(b) The court may order financial compensation for periods when a parent fails to assume the caretaker responsibility, or when a parent has been thwarted by the other parent when attempting to exercise visitation or custody rights, contemplated by a custody or visitation order entered pursuant to this part, including, but not limited to, an order for joint physical custody or by a written or oral agreement between the parents. The compensation shall be limited to (1) the reasonable expenses incurred for, or on behalf of, a child, resulting from the other parent's failure to assume his or her caretaker responsibility or (2) reasonable expenses incurred by a parent for or on behalf of a child resulting from the other parent's thwarting his or her efforts to exercise visitation or custody rights. These expenses may include the value of caretaker services, but are not limited to the cost of services provided by a third party during the relevant period.

The compensation may be requested by noticed motion or an order to show cause and shall allege, under penalty of perjury, a minimum of one hundred dollars ($100) of expenses so incurred or, at least three occurrences of failure to exercise visitation or custody rights or at least three occurrences of the thwarting of efforts to exercise visitation or custody rights within the six months prior to filing of the motion or order.

Attorney's fees shall be awarded to the prevailing party, upon a showing of the nonprevailing party's ability to pay.

(c) When a court orders a person to make specified payments for support of a child during the child's minority, or until the child is married or otherwise emancipated, or until the death of, or the occurrence of a specified event as to, a child for whom support is authorized under Section 206, the liability of the person ordered to pay support terminates upon the happening of the contingency. The court may, in the original order for support, order the custodial parent or other person to whom payments are to be made to notify the person ordered to make the payments, or his or her attorney of record, of the happening of the contingency.

(d) In the event obligations for support of a child are discharged in bankruptcy, the court may make all proper orders for the support, maintenance and education of the child, as the court may deem just.

(e) This section shall become operative January 1, 1993.

SEC. 8. Section 4700.10 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4700.10. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Custodial parent" means a party awarded physical custody of a child.

(2) "Deferred sale of home order" means an order that temporarily delays the sale and awards the temporary exclusive use and possession of the family home to a custodial parent of minor children, or children for whom support is authorized under Section 196 or 206, whether or not the custodial parent has sole or joint custody, in order to minimize the adverse impact of dissolution or legal separation on the welfare of the children.

(3) "Resident parent" means a party who has requested or who has already been awarded a deferred sale of home order.

(b) In any case in which one of the parties has requested a deferred sale of home order pursuant to this section, the court shall first determine whether it is economically feasible to maintain the payments of any note secured by a deed of trust, property taxes, insurance for the home during the period the sale of the home is deferred, and the condition of the home comparable to that at the time of trial. In making this determination, the court shall consider the resident parent's income, the availability of spousal support, child support, or both spousal and child support, and any other sources of funds available to make those payments. In requiring this determination, it is the intent of the Legislature to avoid the likelihood of possible defaults on the payments of notes and resulting foreclosures, to avoid inadequate insurance coverage, to prevent deterioration of the condition of the family home, and to prevent any other circumstance which would jeopardize both parents' equity in the home. After making this determination that it is economically feasible to consider ordering a deferred sale of the family home, the court in exercising its discretion to grant or deny a deferred sale of home order, shall consider all of the following:

(1) The length of time the child has resided in the home.

(2) The child's placement or grade in school.

(3) The accessibility and convenience of the home to the child's school and other services or facilities used by and available to the child, including child care.

(4) Whether the home has been adapted or modified to accommodate any physical disabilities of a child or a resident parent in a manner such that a change in residence may adversely affect the ability of the resident parent to meet the needs of the child.

(5) The emotional detriment to the child associated with a change in residence.

(6) The extent to which the location of the home permits the resident parent to continue his or her employment.

(7) The financial ability of each parent to obtain suitable housing.

(8) The tax consequences to the parents.

(9) The economic detriment to the nonresident parent in the event of a deferred sale of home order.

(10) Any other factors the court deems just and equitable.

(c) Upon a determination pursuant to subdivision (b) that a deferred sale of home order is necessary in order to minimize the adverse impact of dissolution or legal separation on the child, the court may make such an order to a custodial parent. The order shall include the duration of the order; may include the legal description and assessor's parcel number of the real property which is subject to the order; and may be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the real property is located. Such an order may be considered to constitute additional child support pursuant to Section 4728.5.

(d) The court may make an order specifying the parties' respective responsibilities for the payment of the costs of routine maintenance and capital improvements.

(e) Except as otherwise agreed to by the parties in writing, the following shall apply:

(1) A deferred sale of home order may be modified or terminated at any time at the discretion of the court.

(2) If the party awarded the deferred sale of home order remarries, or if there is otherwise a change in circumstances affecting the determinations made pursuant to subdivision (b) or affecting the economic status of the parties or the children on which the award is based, a rebuttable presumption, affecting the burden of proof, is created that further deferral of the sale is no longer an equitable method of minimizing the adverse impact of the dissolution or legal separation on the children.

(f) In making an order pursuant to this section, the court shall reserve jurisdiction to determine any and all issues that arise with respect to the deferred sale of home order including, but not limited to, the maintenance of the home and the tax consequences to each party.

(g) This section is applicable regardless of whether the deferred sale of home order is made before or after January 1, 1989.

SEC. 8.5. Section 4701.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4701.1. (a) (1) Subject to subdivisions (b) and (c), in any proceeding where the court has ordered either or both parents to pay any amount for the support of a minor child, upon an order to show cause or notice of motion, application, and declaration signed under penalty of perjury by the person or county officer to whom support has been ordered to have been paid stating that the parent or parents so ordered is in arrears in payment in a sum equal to the amount of 60 days of payments, the court shall issue to the parent or parents ordered to pay support, following notice and opportunity for a hearing, an order requiring that the parent or parents deposit assets to secure future support payments with the district attorney, other county officer, or any other trustee designated by the court. Upon request of any party the court may also issue an ex parte restraining order as specified in subdivision (d). Upon deposit of any asset which is not readily convertible into money, the court may, not less than 20 days after serving the obligor-parent or parents with written notice and a hearing, order the sale of that asset or assets and the deposit of the proceeds with the person designated under this subdivision. For purposes of Section 701.545 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the date of the issuance of the order to deposit assets shall be construed as the date notice of levy on an interest in real property was served on the judgment debtor. When the asset ordered to be deposited is real property, the order shall be certified as an abstract of judgment in accordance with Section 674 of the Code of Civil Procedure. A deposit of real property is made effective by recordation of the certified abstract with the county recorder. The deposited real property and the rights, benefits, and liabilities attached to that property shall continue in the possession of the legal owner.

(2) Upon an obligor-parent's failure, within the time specified by the court, to make reasonable efforts to cure the default in child support payments or to comply with a court-approved payment plan, if payments continue in the arrears, the district attorney, county officer, or trustee designated by the court shall, not less than 25 days after providing the obligor-parent or parents with a written notice served personally or with return receipt requested, unless a motion or order to show cause has been filed to stop the use or sale, use the money or sell or otherwise process the deposited assets for an amount sufficient to pay the arrearage and the amount ordered by the court for the support, maintenance, and education of the minor child currently due.

Assets which have been deposited pursuant to an order issued in accordance with paragraph (1) shall be construed as being assets subject to levy pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 701.510) of Chapter 3 of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The sale of assets shall be conducted in accordance with Article 6 (commencing with Section 701.510) and Article 7 (commencing with Section 701.810) of Chapter 3 of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(3) The district attorney, county officer, or trustee designated by the court may deduct from the deposited money the sum of one dollar ($1) for each payment made pursuant to paragraph (2).

(4) An obligor-parent alleged to be in arrears under this section may employ any of the following grounds as a defense to the motion filed pursuant to paragraph (1) or as a basis for filing a motion to stop a sale or use of assets under paragraph (2):

(A) Child support payments are not in arrears.

(B) Laches.

(C) There has been a change in the custody of the children.

(D) There is a pending motion for reduction in support due to a reduction in income.

(E) Illness or disability.

(F) Unemployment.

(G) Serious adverse impact on the immediate family of the obligor-parent residing with the obligor-parent, that outweighs the impact of denial of the motion or stopping the sale on obligee.

(H) Serious impairment of the ability of the obligor-parent to generate income.

(I) Other emergency conditions.

An obligor-parent must rebut the presumptions that nonpayment of child support was willful, without good faith, and that the obligor had the ability to pay the support.

An obligor-parent may file a motion to stop the use of the money or the sale of the asset pursuant to paragraph (2) within 15 days after service of notice on him or her pursuant to paragraph (2). The clerk of the court shall set the motion for hearing not less than 20 days after service on the person or county officer to whom support has been ordered to have been paid.

(b) The court shall issue an order pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) upon a determination that one or more of the following conditions exists:

(1) The obligor-parent is not receiving salary or wages subject to an assignment pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 4390) of Title 1.5 and there is reason to believe that he or she has earned income from some source of employment.

(2) An assignment of a portion of salary or wages pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 4390) of Title 1.5, would not be sufficient to meet the amount of the support obligation, for reasons other than a change of circumstances which would qualify for a reduction in the amount of child support ordered.

(3) The job history of the obligor-parent shows that an assignment of a portion of salary or wages pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 4390) of Title 1.5, would be difficult to enforce or would not be a practical means for securing the payment of the support obligation, due to circumstances including, but not limited to, multiple concurrent or consecutive employers.

(c) The designation of assets subject to an order pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) shall be based upon concern for maximizing the liquidity and ready conversion into cash of the deposited asset. In all instances, the assets shall include a sum of money up to or equal in value to one year of support payments or six thousand dollars ($6,000), whichever is less, or any other assets, personal or real, designated by the court which equal in value up to one year of payments for support of the minor child, or six thousand dollars ($6,000), whichever is less, subject to Section 703.070 of the Code of Civil Procedure. In lieu of depositing cash or other assets as provided above, the obligor-parent may, if approved by the court, provide a performance bond secured by any real property or other assets of the parent and equal in value to one year of payments.

(d) During the pendency of any proceeding pursuant to this section, and upon the application of either party in the manner provided by Section 527 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the court may, without a hearing, issue ex parte orders restraining any person from transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, quasi-community, or separate, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life, and if the order is directed against a party, requiring him or her to notify the other party of any proposed extraordinary expenditures and to account to the court for all such extraordinary expenditures. The matter shall be made returnable not later than 20 days, or if good cause appears to the court, 25 days from the date of the order at which time the ex parte order shall expire. Any order issued pursuant to this section shall state on its face the date of expiration of the order, which shall expire in one year or upon deposit of assets or money pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), whichever first occurs. The court, at the hearing, shall determine for which property the obligor-parent shall be required to report extraordinary expenditures and shall specify what is deemed an extraordinary expenditure for purposes of this subdivision.

(e) Any district attorney, county officer, or trustee designated by the court pursuant to subdivision (a) who is responsible for any money or property and for any disbursements under this section shall not be held liable for any action undertaken in good faith and in conformance with this section.

(f) The district attorney, county officer, or trustee designated by the court shall return all assets subject to court order under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) to the obligor-parent or parents when both of the following occur:

(1) One year has elapsed since the court issued the order described under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(2) The obligor-parent or parents have made all support payments on time during that one-year period.

When the above criteria have been satisfied and when the deposited asset was real property, the district attorney, county officer, or trustee designated by the court shall prepare a release in accordance with Section 697.370 of the Code of Civil Procedure and shall request the clerk of the court where the order to deposit assets was rendered to certify the release and record it in the office of the county recorder.

(g) The district attorney, county officer, or trustee shall, if requested by an obligor-parent, prepare a statement setting forth disbursements and receipts made under this section.

(h) If the district attorney, county officer, trustee, or person designated under subdivision (a) incurs fees or costs under this section which are not compensated by the deduction under paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), including, but not limited to, fees or costs incurred in any sale of assets pursuant to subdivision (a) and in the preparation of a statement pursuant to subdivision (g), the court shall, hear not less than 20 days after service upon the obligor-parent of the notice of motion or order to show cause by the district attorney, county officer, trustee, or person designated under subdivision (a) incurring the fees or costs, and order the obligor-parent or parents to pay reasonable fees and costs. Fees and costs ordered to be paid by the court under this subdivision shall be in addition to any deposit made under subdivision (a), but shall not exceed 5 percent of one year's child support obligation or the total amount ordered deposited under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), whichever is less.

(i) The purpose of this section is to provide an extraordinary remedy for cases of bad faith failure to pay child support obligations.

SEC. 9. Section 4720 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4720. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that:

(a) The State of California has no single standard to promote equitable, adequate child support awards.

(b) The current method of setting child support awards has led to substantial variation in these awards among families with similiar circumstances and resources.

(c) In situations where a parent fails to meet his or her child support obligations, or where the award levels are inadequate, the state may ultimately be required to bear the financial responsibility for the child.

(d) The Aid to Families with Dependent Children program (hereinafter referred to as AFDC) established by the Burton-Miller Act (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code) is the state program most likely to be affected by the failures and inadequacies of child support awards, and is the program by which the cost of maintaining those children adversely affected by these failures and inadequacies would otherwise be provided. Furthermore, the minimum amounts necessary for the support, maintenance, and care of children have been established by the Legislature in the monthly needs standards set forth in the AFDC program. Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature that a system of standards and procedures shall be established which provide for a uniform determination of child support awards throughout the state, and which assures that, dependent upon the financial ability of each parent to do so, no child receives a support award less than would otherwise be established as the need for that child under the AFDC program.

The level of child support resulting from the application of the formula established by this chapter shall be treated as the minimum award for support. It is the intention of the Legislature that the court shall use the guidelines in use in its county to establish the child support award. However, in no event shall the court award less than the mandatory minimum child support allowable pursuant to this chapter. In setting an award higher than the mandatory minimum, the court shall be guided by the criteria set forth in applicable statutes, relevant case law, and state and local guidelines, so long as they are not in conflict with this chapter.

(e) It is the intention of the Legislature that the courts shall adhere to the principles set forth in this chapter and shall depart from them only in exceptional circumstances. A parent's first and principal obligation is to support his or her minor children according to the parent's circumstances and station in life. In this regard, the Legislature recognizes that a parent's circumstances and station in life are dependent upon a variety of factors, including his or her earned and unearned income; earning capacity; assets; and the income of his or her subsequent spouse or nonmarital partner, to the extent that the obligated parent's basic living expenses are met by the spouse or other person, thus increasing the parent's disposable income and therefore his or her ability to pay more than the mandatory minimum child support award established by this chapter. The court shall take into consideration the needs of the supported child or children in determining whether circumstances give rise to an increase or decrease in a child support award.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until the operative date of the rules of court incorporating the guidelines specified in Section 4720.1, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before that date, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 10. Section 4720 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4720. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that:

(a) The State of California has no single standard to promote equitable, adequate child support awards.

(b) The current method of setting child support awards has led to substantial variation in these awards among families with similiar circumstances and resources.

(c) In situations where a parent fails to meet his or her child support obligations, or where the award levels are inadequate, the state may ultimately be required to bear the financial responsibility for the child.

This section shall become operative on the operative date of the rules of court incorporating the guidelines specified in Section 4720.1, and shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 11. Section 4720 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

(b) The current method of setting child support awards has led to substantial variation in these awards among families with similiar circumstances and resources.

The court shall take into consideration the needs of the supported child or children in determining whether circumstances give rise to an increase or decrease in a child support award.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 12. Section 4720.1 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4720.1. (a) (1) It is the intention of the Legislature to ensure that the State of California remains in compliance with federal regulations for child support guidelines. Due to the urgency of ensuring compliance with these regulations, the Legislature hereby directs the Judicial Council to adopt rules of court incorporating statewide guidelines that comply with applicable federal regulations at the earliest date possible, but no later than 60 days after the effective date of the act that adds this section. Except as necessary to meet new federal regulations or to address the findings of the study on guidelines commissioned by the Judicial Council in 1989, the initial guidelines to be established shall be those promulgated by the Judicial Council pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 4724. Except as necessary to meet new federal regulations or to address the findings of the study on guidelines commissioned by the Judicial Council in 1989, the initial guidelines shall retain the intent of Sections 4721, 4723, 4727, 4728, and 4728.5. This legislative directive shall not be construed to mean that the State of California is not currently in compliance with the child support guideline requirements contained in Section 667 of Title 42 of the United States Code. Any guidelines proposed or adopted by the Judicial Council shall not result in child support awards less than the current mandatory minimum child support awards as established by the Agnos Child Support Standards Act of 1984.

(2) It is the intention of the Legislature that the courts shall adhere to the guidelines adopted by the Judicial Council pursuant to this section and shall depart from them only in exceptional circumstances. A parent's first and principal obligation is to support his or her minor children according to the parent's circumstances and station in life. In this regard, the Legislature recognizes that a parent's circumstances and station in life are dependent upon a variety of factors, including his or her earned and unearned income; earning capacity; assets; and the income of his or her subsequent spouse or nonmarital partner, to the extent that the obligated parent's basic living expenses are met by the spouse or other person, thus increasing the parent's disposable income.

(3) In setting levels of child support, the judicial council shall be guided by the legislative intent that children share in their parents' standard of living.

(b) The Judicial Council shall study and submit a report to the Legislature on or before December 1, 1991, which shall include a proposal for legislation, regarding a system of permanent child support guidelines to comply with federal law. This report shall address the respective continuing roles of the Judicial Council and the Legislature in maintaining, amending, or otherwise managing the statewide child support guidelines.

(c) In developing guidelines, the Judicial Council shall consult with a broad cross-section of groups involved in child support issues, including, but not limited to, the following: custodial and noncustodial parents; representatives of established women's rights and fathers' rights groups; representatives of established organizations which advocate for the economic well-being of children; members of the judiciary, district attorney's offices, the Attorney General's office, and the State Department of Social Services; certified family law specialists; academicians specializing in family law; persons representing low-income parents; and, persons representing recipients of Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) seeking child support services. The advisory committee shall be balanced by gender and geographic representation, to the extent possible.

(d) In developing the initial guidelines, the Judicial Council is encouraged to seek public comment on the proposed initial guidelines. In developing the recommendations for the permanent guidelines, the Judicial Council shall seek public comment on the permanent guidelines.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 13. Section 4721 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4721. (a) In determining the ability of parents to pay the mandatory minimum child support award and to calculate the actual monthly payments to be made by each parent, all of the following provisions apply:

(1) The annual gross income of each parent shall be determined and then adjusted to obtain the annual net disposable income. To determine and apportion the mandatory minimum child support award, as defined in Section 4722, the court shall also consider, to the extent consistent with the best interests of the child or children, the earning capacity of either or both parents. The annual gross income means income from whatever source derived, except as specified in paragraph (2), and includes, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(A) Income such as commissions, salaries, royalties, wages, bonuses, rents, dividends, pensions, interest, trust income, annuities, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, disability insurance benefits, and spousal support actually received from a person not a party to the order.

(B) Income from the proprietorship of a business, such as gross receipts from the business reduced by expenditures required for the operation of the business.

(C) To the extent that income derived from subparagraphs (A) and (B) is insufficient to produce a mandatory minimum child support award at the AFDC standard for the same number of children, upon the request of either party, the court may consider investment assets of either or both parties which could be liquidated. To determine and apportion the mandatory minimum child support award at the AFDC level, the court shall also consider, to the extent consistent with the best interests of all of the children, the earning capacity of either or both parents.

(2) Annual gross income shall not include any income derived from child support payments actually received and income derived from any public assistance program, eligibility for which is based on a determination of need.

(3) The annual net disposable income of each parent shall be computed by deducting from his or her annual gross income the actual amounts attributable only to the following items, after which the remainder shall be adjusted to reflect the monthly net disposable income of each parent:

(A) The state and federal income taxes attributed to the parent. Federal and state income tax deductions shall bear an accurate relationship to the tax status of the parties (that is, single, married, married filing separately, or head of household) and number of dependents.

(B) Deductions attributed to the employee's contribution or the self-employed worker's contribution pursuant to the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA), or an amount not to exceed that allowed under FICA for persons not subject to FICA, provided that the deducted amount is used to secure retirement or disability benefits for the parent.

(C) Deductions for mandatory union dues and retirement benefits, provided that they are required as a condition of employment.

(D) Deductions for health insurance premiums and state disability insurance premiums.

(E) Any child or spousal support actually being paid by the parent pursuant to a court order, to or for the benefit of any person who is not a subject of the award to be established by the court. In the absence of a court order, any child support actually being paid, not to exceed the amount established by the county support guidelines applicable in the county of the child's residence, for a natural or adopted child or children of the parent not residing in that parent's home, who is not the subject of the award to be established by the court, and for whom the parent has a duty of support.

(4) For the purposes of verifying total gross income and amounts allowed for deductions, copies of the parents' federal and state income tax returns for the previous two years, copies of present wage stubs, and any other relevant documents shall be subject to discovery by the parties. Further, the court may require copies of the parents' federal and state tax returns for the previous two years, copies of present wage stubs, and such other documentation as it may deem necessary, including a current income and expense declaration in the form prescribed by the Judicial Council for family law matters.

(5) For the purpose of determining the parent's annual gross income, in calculating the mandatory minimum child support award, the court shall not include any portion of the earned income and income derived from the separate property of the current spouse or the nonmarital partner of either parent. This requirement does not apply to a child support obligation arising from the marriage between the obligated parents.

(6) The court shall inquire of each party as to the total number of minor children he or she is legally obligated to support.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the operative date of the rules of court incorporating the guidelines specified in Section 4720.1, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before that date, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 14. Section 4721 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4721. (a) In determining the ability of parents to pay the mandatory minimum child support award and to calculate the actual monthly payments to be made by each parent, all of the following provisions apply:

(1) The annual gross income of each parent shall be determined and then adjusted to obtain the annual net disposable income. To determine and apportion the mandatory minimum child support award, as defined in Section 4722, the court shall also consider, to the extent consistent with the best interests of the child or children, the earning capacity of either or both parents. The annual gross income means income from whatever source derived, except as specified in paragraph (2), and includes, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(A) Income such as commissions, salaries, royalties, wages, bonuses, rents, dividends, pensions, interest, trust income, annuities, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, disability insurance benefits, and spousal support actually received from a person not a party to the order.

(B) Income from the proprietorship of a business, such as gross receipts from the business reduced by expenditures required for the operation of the business.

(C) To the extent that income derived from subparagraphs (A) and (B) is insufficient to produce a mandatory minimum child support award at the AFDC standard for the same number of children, upon the request of either party, the court may consider investment assets of either or both parties which could be liquidated. To determine and apportion the mandatory minimum child support award at the AFDC level, the court shall also consider, to the extent consistent with the best interests of all of the children, the earning capacity of either or both parents.

(2) Annual gross income shall not include any income derived from child support payments actually received and income derived from any public assistance program, eligibility for which is based on a determination of need.

(3) The annual net disposable income of each parent shall be computed by deducting from his or her annual gross income the actual amounts attributable only to the following items, after which the remainder shall be adjusted to reflect the monthly net disposable income of each parent:

(A) The state and federal income taxes attributed to the parent. Federal and state income tax deductions shall bear an accurate relationship to the tax status of the parties (that is, single, married, married filing separately, or head of household) and number of dependents.

(B) Deductions attributed to the employee's contribution or the self-employed worker's contribution pursuant to the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA), or an amount not to exceed that allowed under FICA for persons not subject to FICA, provided that the deducted amount is used to secure retirement or disability benefits for the parent.

(C) Deductions for mandatory union dues and retirement benefits, provided that they are required as a condition of employment.

(D) Deductions for health insurance premiums and state disability insurance premiums.

(E) Any child or spousal support actually being paid by the parent pursuant to a court order, to or for the benefit of any person who is not a subject of the award to be established by the court. In the absence of a court order, any child support actually being paid, not to exceed the amount established by the county support guidelines applicable in the county of the child's residence, for a natural or adopted child or children of the parent not residing in that parent's home, who is not the subject of the award to be established by the court, and for whom the parent has a duty of support.

(4) For the purposes of verifying total gross income and amounts allowed for deductions, copies of the parents' federal and state income tax returns for the previous two years, copies of present wage stubs, and any other relevant documents shall be subject to discovery by the parties. Further, the court may require copies of the parents' federal and state tax returns for the previous two years, copies of present wage stubs, and such other documentation as it may deem necessary, including a current income and expense declaration in the form prescribed by the Judicial Council for family law matters.

(5) For the purpose of determining the parent's annual gross income, in calculating the mandatory minimum child support award, the court shall not include any portion of the earned income and income derived from the separate property of the current spouse or the nonmarital partner of either parent. This requirement does not apply to a child support obligation arising from the marriage between the obligated parents.

(6) The court shall inquire of each party as to the total number of minor children he or she is legally obligated to support.

(b) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 15. Section 4722 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4722. (a) The standard established pursuant to Section 11452 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as adjusted by Section 11453 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, establishes a minimum family support level based on the number of eligible needy persons in the family.

(b) Each parent's ability to pay a minimum mandatory amount of child support, whether for a temporary or a permanent order, shall be determined in accord with the standards established by Section 11452 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and prior to the computation of the spousal support liability, as follows:

(1) The combined monthly net disposable income of both parents shall be multiplied by the following percentage factors: 18 percent for one child; 27 percent for two children; 36 percent for three children; 40 percent for four children; and an additional four percent for each child thereafter, up to a total of 10 children.

(2) If the resulting amount is less than the AFDC standard for the number of children involved, the court shall find that the parents are unable to pay at the level of the children's portion of the AFDC standard and shall set a minimum award according to the actual combined net income and the percentages set forth above.

(3) If the resulting amount is at, or greater than, the AFDC standard for the same number of children, the court shall order a minimum award that equals the AFDC standard.

(c) The AFDC standard for the number of children to be supported shall be the minimum basic standard of adequate care specified in Section 11452 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as in effect July 21, 1983, annually adjusted pursuant to Section 11453 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, for the number of children to be supported.

(d) The amount each parent shall contribute to the mandatory minimum award shall be determined by multiplying the minimum award by the proportionate share of each parent's contribution to their combined net disposable income.

(e) If more than 10 minor children are to be supported, the minimum award shall be the same as for 10 children.

(f) The award set pursuant to this chapter is the mandatory minimum child support award.

(g) The formula established by this section is represented algebraically as follows:

WHERE:

MB = Minimum base

P = percent = $\frac{NCN}{NCN+CN}$

NCN = noncustodial spouse net income

CN = custodial spouse net income

F = factor (.18 for one child, .27 for two, .36 for three, and .04 for each additional child over three children)

S = the AFDC needs standard for the appropriate number of children to be supported by this order

Y = yield

Then calculation of the minimum support is as follows:

Step 1: F x (CN+NCN) = Y

Step 2: If $Y \geq S$, MB = S

If $Y < S$, MB = Y

Step 3: MB x P = portion of award to be paid by noncustodial spouse.

(h) The formula delineated in this section shall be used only for calculations made under this section for the establishment of a minimum level of child support. Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the duty or ability of any public agency pursuant to any other provision of law to secure or bring suit for reimbursement of AFDC public assistance paid to a family unit, eligible therefor under the applicable provisions of law, in an amount not to exceed the total amount of aid actually paid.

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until the operative date of the rules of court incorporating the guidelines specified in Section 4720.1, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before that date, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 16. Section 4722 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4722. (a) The standard established pursuant to Section 11452 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as adjusted by Section 11453 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, establishes a minimum family support level based on the number of eligible needy persons in the family.

(i) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 17. Section 4723 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4723. (a) The mandatory minimum child support award established pursuant to this chapter is intended to assure adequate basic living expenses, including food, shelter, and clothing, for the supported children. The court shall not assume that any other costs related to the rearing of children are provided within the mandatory minimum award. Child care expenses, special educational expenses, expenses for special medical, dental, or mental health needs, and expenses related to any other special needs of the children are not provided for in the mandatory minimum child support award. These expenses shall be considered by the court in making an award in addition to the child support obligation determined pursuant to Section 4722 or pursuant to the discretionary guidelines in use in the county if those guidelines meet the criteria specified in subdivision (a) of Section 4724. These additional awards may be made in separate orders by the court.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the operative date of the rules of court incorporating the guidelines specified in Section 4720.1, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before that date, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 18. Section 4723 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4723. (a) The mandatory minimum child support award established pursuant to this chapter is intended to assure adequate basic living expenses, including food, shelter, and clothing, for the supported children. The court shall not assume that any other costs related to the rearing of children are provided within the mandatory minimum award. Child care expenses, special educational expenses, expenses for special medical, dental, or mental health needs, and expenses related to any other special needs of the children are not provided for in the mandatory minimum child support award. These expenses shall be considered by the court in making an award in addition to the child support obligation determined pursuant to Section 4722 or pursuant to the discretionary guidelines in use in the county if those guidelines meet the criteria specified in subdivision (a) of Section 4724. These additional awards may be made in separate orders by the court.

(b) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 19. Section 4724 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4724. Upon the request of either party, the court may award and, when appropriate, is hereby urged to award a higher amount of child support than the mandatory minimum child support award.

(a) In setting a higher level of child support, the court shall be guided by the criteria set forth in applicable statutes, relevant case law, state and local child support guidelines not in conflict with the mandatory minimum award established by this chapter, and the legislative intent that children share in their parents' standard of living as set forth in this chapter.

(b) The Judicial Council shall, in accord with the legislative intent set forth in subdivision (e) of Section 4720, develop schedules for discretionary child support awards above the mandatory minimum child support awards as determined pursuant to this chapter for use by those counties without child support schedules. The Judicial Council shall provide these schedules to the counties by July 1, 1986.

(c) The courts shall review the guidelines in use in their counties prior to the implementation of this chapter to assure they do not authorize awards less than the mandatory minimum award.

(d) In setting a level of child support below the applicable level in the discretionary guideline in use in a county the court shall state its reasons on the record, citing the documentation of any underlying facts and circumstances for the award.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until the operative date of the rules of court incorporating the guidelines specified in Section 4720.1, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before that date, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 20. Section 4724 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4724. Upon the request of either party, the court may award and, when appropriate, is hereby urged to award a higher amount of child support than the mandatory minimum child support award.

(a) In setting a higher level of child support, the court shall be guided by the criteria set forth in applicable statutes, relevant case law, state and local child support guidelines not in conflict with the mandatory minimum award established by this chapter, and the legislative intent that children share in their parents' standard of living as set forth in this chapter.

(b) The Judicial Council shall, in accord with the legislative intent set forth in subdivision (e) of Section 4720, develop schedules for discretionary child support awards above the mandatory minimum child support awards as determined pursuant to this chapter for use by those counties without child support schedules. The Judicial Council shall provide these schedules to the counties by July 1, 1986.

(c) The courts shall review the guidelines in use in their counties prior to the implementation of this chapter to assure they do not authorize awards less than the mandatory minimum award.

(d) In setting a level of child support below the applicable level in the discretionary guideline in use in a county the court shall state its reasons on the record, citing the documentation of any underlying facts and circumstances for the award.

(e) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 21. Section 4725 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4725. In the event that a parent is experiencing extreme financial hardship due to justifiable expenses resulting from the circumstances enumerated in this section, upon the request of a party, the court may allow such income deductions as may be necessary to accommodate those circumstances, in addition to the deductions specified in subdivision (c) of Section 4721.

(a) Circumstances evidencing hardship include the extraordinary health expenses for which the parent is financially responsible, and uninsured catastrophic losses.

(b) Circumstances evidencing hardship also include the minimum basic living expenses of either parent's natural or adopted children for whom the parent has the obligation to support from other marriages or relationships who reside with the parent. The court, upon its own motion or upon the request of a party, may allow such income deductions as are necessary to accommodate these expenses after making the deductions allowable under subdivision (a) of this section. Unless there are exceptional circumstances as provided under subdivision (e) of Section 4720 or as otherwise provided in this subdivision, when the court makes a child support award in accordance with the mandatory minimum amount of child support provided under this act, the maximum hardship deduction for each child who resides with the parent may equal, but shall not exceed, the support awarded each child subject to the order and shall be calculated as follows:

N_o = Obligated parent's net income prior to the deduction for hardship.
F = The factor as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 4722 as applied to the child or children for whom support is being awarded.
H_c = Number of children for whom a hardship deduction is being given.
S_c = Number of children for whom support is being awarded.
D = Maximum deduction per child.

$$D = \frac{(F)\ (N_o)}{S_c + (F)\ (H_c)}$$

The Judicial Council shall develop tables in accordance with the above formula to reflect the maximum hardship deduction taking into consideration the obligated parent's net income before the hardship deduction, the number of children for whom the hardship deduction is being given, and the number of children for whom the support award is being made. The Judicial Council shall provide these tables to the counties by January 1, 1989.

Counties may, but are not required to, adopt a formula for use by the court in establishing the maximum hardship deduction for each child who resides with the parent and which provides a deduction that may equal, but shall not exceed, the support awarded each child subject to the order when the court makes a child support award in accordance with local support guidelines.

(c) If deductions for hardship expenses are allowed, the court shall state on the record the reasons supporting the deductions, cite the documentation of the underlying facts and circumstances, and specify the amount of deductions allowed. Whenever possible, the court shall specify the duration that any deduction shall be in effect.

(d) Upon considering whether to allow a deduction under this section, and in determining the amount of any such deduction, the court shall be guided by the goals set forth in the expression of legislative intent set forth in this chapter.

(e) The court shall not order a child support award that would reduce a parent's net income to an amount less than that established for the needs of one person by Section 11452 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as annually adjusted by Section 11453 of that code.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until the operative date of the rules of court incorporating the guidelines specified in Section 4720.1, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before that date, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 22. Section 4725 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4725. In the event that a parent is experiencing extreme financial hardship due to justifiable expenses resulting from the circumstances enumerated in this section, upon the request of a party, the court may allow such income deductions as may be necessary to accommodate those circumstances, in addition to the deductions

N_o = Obligated parent's net income prior to the deduction for hardship.

F = The factor as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 4722 as applied to the child or children for whom support is being awarded.

H_c = Number of children for whom a hardship deduction is being given.

S_c = Number of children for whom support is being awarded.

D = Maximum deduction per child.

$$D = \frac{(F)\ (N_o)}{S_c + (F)\ (H_c)}$$

The Judicial Council shall develop tables in accordance with the above formula to reflect the maximum hardship deduction taking into consideration the obligated parent's net income before the hardship deduction, the number of children for whom the hardship deduction is being given, and the number of children for whom the support award is being made. The Judicial Council shall provide these tables to the counties by January 1, 1989.

specify the amount of deductions allowed. Whenever possible, the court shall specify the duration that any deduction shall be in effect.

(d) Upon considering whether to allow a deduction under this section, and in determining the amount of any such deduction, the court shall be guided by the goals set forth in the expression of legislative intent set forth in this chapter.

(e) The court shall not order a child support award that would reduce a parent's net income to an amount less than that established for the needs of one person by Section 11452 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as annually adjusted by Section 11453 of that code.

(f) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 23. Section 4727 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4727. (a) Except when a child or children are receiving an AFDC grant, upon request, the court may take into consideration expenses incurred and savings resulting from shared physical custody arrangements in determining the pro rata share of the mandatory minimum child support award to be allocated to each parent. For the purpose of this chapter, "shared physical custody" means an arrangement in which the parents share physical custody so that both have custody of the child or children more than 30 percent of a 365-day period.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the operative date of the rules of court incorporating the guidelines specified in Section 4720.1, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before that date, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 23.5. Section 4727 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4727. (a) Except when a child or children are receiving an AFDC grant, upon request, the court may take into consideration expenses incurred and savings resulting from shared physical custody arrangements in determining the pro rata share of the mandatory minimum child support award to be allocated to each parent. For the purpose of this chapter, "shared physical custody" means an arrangement in which the parents share physical custody so that both have custody of the child or children more than 30 percent of a 365-day period.

(b) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 24. Section 4728 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4728. (a) This act shall not be construed to impair the right of parties to enter stipulated agreements, except that the court shall not approve a stipulated agreement for a child support award unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The parties acknowledge that they are fully informed of their rights pursuant to this chapter and that the award is being agreed to without coercion or duress.

(2) The parties declare that their children's needs will be adequately met.

(3) The right to support has not been assigned to the county pursuant to Section 11477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and no public assistance application is pending.

(b) If the parties to a stipulated agreement stipulate to a child support award below the mandatory minimum level, no change of circumstance need be demonstrated to obtain a modification of the child support award to the applicable mandatory minimum level or above.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until the operative date of the rules of court incorporating the guidelines specified in Section 4720.1, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before that date, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 25. Section 4728 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4728. (a) This act shall not be construed to impair the right of parties to enter stipulated agreements, except that the court shall not approve a stipulated agreement for a child support award unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The parties acknowledge that they are fully informed of their rights pursuant this chapter and that the award is being agreed to without coercion or duress.

(2) The parties declare that their children's needs will be adequately met.

(3) The right to support has not been assigned to the county pursuant to Section 11477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and no public assistance application is pending.

(b) If the parties to a stipulated agreement stipulate to a child support award below the mandatory minimum level, no change of circumstance need be demonstrated to obtain a modification of the child support award to the applicable mandatory minimum level or above.

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 26. Section 4728.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4728.5. (a) In ordering payment of the temporary or permanent awards determined under this chapter, the court may consider as payment a portion of the rental value of the family residence in which the children for the support of whom the award was made are allowed to reside, to the extent that it exceeds the mortgage payments, homeowner's insurance, and property taxes.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until the operative date of the rules of court incorporating the guidelines specified in Section 4720.1, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before that date, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 27. Section 4728.5 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4728.5. (a) In ordering payment of the temporary or permanent awards determined under this chapter, the court may consider as payment a portion of the rental value of the family residence in which the children for the support of whom the award was made are allowed to reside, to the extent that it exceeds the mortgage payments, homeowner's insurance, and property taxes.

(b) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 28. Section 5165 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

5165. The clerk of each superior court shall maintain a registry in which he or she shall enter all of the following:

(a) Certified copies of custody decrees of other states received for filing.

(b) Communications as to the pendency of custody proceedings in other states.

(c) Communications concerning a finding of inconvenient forum by a court of another state.

(d) Other communications or documents concerning custody proceedings in another state which may affect the jurisdiction of a court of this state or the disposition to be made by it in a custody proceeding.

(e) Any custody agreement for which an order is requested regarding a child or children who are not the subject of another order. The parties shall submit the affidavit required by Section 5158, on the form developed by the Judicial Council for use with Section 5158.

SEC. 29. Section 7010 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

7010. (a) The judgment or order of the court determining the existence or nonexistence of the parent and child relationship is determinative for all purposes except for actions brought pursuant to Section 270 of the Penal Code.

(b) If the judgment or order of the court is at variance with the child's birth certificate, the court shall order that a new birth certificate be issued as prescribed in Article 6 (commencing with Section 10450) of Chapter 8 of Division 9 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) (1) The judgment or order may contain any other provision directed against the appropriate party to the proceeding, concerning the duty of support, the custody and guardianship of the child, visitation privileges with the child, the furnishing of bond or other security for the payment of the judgment, or any other matter in the best interest of the child. The judgment or order may direct the father to pay the reasonable expenses of the mother's pregnancy and confinement.

(2) The judgment or order may, in appropriate circumstances, based on all relevant facts, require one parent to pay to the other parent a reasonable amount for the cost of the support of the child for the shortest of the following periods prior to the filing of the action:

(A) Three years.

(B) The date of the mailing of the birth certificate or the mailing of the written notification by the custodial parent, pursuant to paragraph (3).

(C) The date of separation of the parties until the date of the filing of the action.

This paragraph shall only apply to a child born on or after January 1, 1989.

(3) In circumstances where paternity has not been legally established or the parties were married but separated before the child's date of birth, the court shall not award child support under paragraph (2), under any circumstances, unless the father has received a copy of the birth certificate as provided in Section 10061 of the Health and Safety Code, or the custodial parent has provided written notification by first-class mail, with return receipt requested, to the father of his paternity and of his obligation to support the child. In determining whether the judgment or order may be awarded, the court shall consider the diligence on the part of the custodial parent in bringing the action for support. Any support ordered pursuant to paragraph (2) shall not be in an amount that reduces a parent's ability to provide appropriate support for any other child for whom a duty of support is owed if the support is actually being paid. The court shall review the incomes and expenses of the parents each year, or other relevant period of time, for which support is being requested and may apply its guidelines and the child support laws in effect for each period. This paragraph shall only apply to a child born on or after January 1, 1989.

(d) In determining the amount to be paid by a parent for support of the child and the period during which the duty of support is owed, a court enforcing the obligation of support shall consider all relevant facts, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Any agreements made between the parents before the date of the filing of the action.

(2) Any previous payments made for the support of the child by the parent from whom support is sought.

(3) Any bad faith on the part of either parent.

(4) Any undue delay in seeking to establish an order for child support; the reasons for the undue delay; and whether either parent has been prejudiced as a result of the delay.

(5) Any other factors deemed relevant by the court.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 30. Section 7010 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

7010. (a) The judgment or order of the court determining the existence or nonexistence of the parent and child relationship is determinative for all purposes except for actions brought pursuant to Section 270 of the Penal Code.

(b) If the judgment or order of the court is at variance with the child's birth certificate, the court shall order that a new birth certificate be issued as prescribed in Article 6 (commencing with Section 10450) of Chapter 8, of Division 9 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) The judgment or order may contain any other provision directed against the appropriate party to the proceeding, concerning the duty of support, the custody and guardianship of the child, visitation privileges with the child, the furnishing of bond or other security for the payment of the judgment, or any other matter in the best interest of the child. The judgment or order may direct the father to pay the reasonable expenses of the mother's pregnancy and confinement.

(d) In determining the amount to be paid by a parent for support of the child and the period during which the duty of support is owed, a court enforcing the obligation of support shall consider all relevant facts.

(e) This section shall become operative January 1, 1993.

SEC. 30.5. Section 706.011 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

706.011. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Earnings" means compensation payable by an employer to an employee for personal services performed by such employee, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise.

(b) "Employee" means a public officer and any individual who performs services subject to the right of the employer to control both what shall be done and how it shall be done.

(c) "Employer" means a person for whom an individual performs services as an employee.

(d) "Judgment creditor," as applied to the state, means the specific state agency seeking to collect a judgment or tax liability.

(e) "Judgment debtor" includes a person from whom the state is seeking to collect a tax liability under Article 4 (commencing with Section 706.070), whether or not a judgment has been obtained on such tax liability.

(f) "Person" includes an individual, a corporation, a partnership or other unincorporated association, and a public entity.

(g) "Wage assignment for support" means an order, made pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 4390) of Title 1.5 of Part 5 of Division 4 of the Civil Code or Section 3088 of the Probate Code, which requires an employer to withhold earnings for support.

SEC. 31. Section 708.780 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

708.780. (a) Filing of the abstract or certified copy of the judgment and the affidavit pursuant to this article creates a lien on the money owing and unpaid to the judgment debtor by the public entity in an amount equal to that which may properly be applied to the satisfaction of the money judgment under this article.

(b) When an affidavit is filed pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 708.730, it shall apply to all claims for refund from the Franchise Tax Board under the Personal Income Tax Law, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, or the Bank and Corporation Tax Law, Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, which the judgment debtor subsequently claims during a period one year after filing of the affidavit, or October 1 of the year following the filing of the affidavit, whichever occurs later, the same as if claims for these overpayments were filed by the judgment debtor with the appropriate state agency on the date the affidavit was filed.

(c) When a request is filed pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 708.730 with the court, the clerk of the court shall issue a Notice of Support Arrearage. The clerk of the court shall issue the notice 30 days after the request was filed pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 708.730 without a hearing if no objection has been raised by the judgment debtor pursuant to this subdivision. If an objection has been raised, the notice shall not be ordered until after a hearing. The notice shall contain the name of the person ordered to pay support and his or her social security number; the amount of the arrearage determined by the court; whether the arrearage is for child, spousal, or family support and the specific combination thereof; a statement of how the recipient may challenge the statement of arrearage; and the name, address, and social security number of the person to whom the arrearage is owed. Upon the clerk of the court issuing the Notice of Support Arrearage, a copy of the request, the affidavit, and the notice shall be served by the party who requested the court to issue the Notice of Support Arrearage upon the person ordered to pay support and the Controller. Service may be personal, in accordance with Section 1011, or by mail, in accordance with Section 1013. Service upon the Controller shall be at the Controller's office in Sacramento.

The judgment debtor may object to the request or affidavit upon any of the following grounds: (1) there is an error in the amount of the arrearage stated in the affidavit; (2) the alleged judgment debtor is not the judgment debtor from whom the support is due; (3) the amount to be intercepted exceeds that allowable under federal law; (4) a default in payment of the support for 30 days has not occurred; or (5) other necessary factual allegations contained in the affidavit are erroneous.

Upon receipt of the Notice of Support Arrearage, the Controller shall take reasonable measures to deduct from any personal income tax refunds and lottery winnings owed and processed for payment to the judgment debtor and deposit with the court a warrant, subject to Sections 708.770 and 708.775, with service of a copy of the warrant upon the district attorney of the county in which the support judgment is entered, payable to the court, the amount due the judgment creditor (after deducting an amount sufficient to reimburse the state for any amounts advanced to the judgment debtor or owed by the judgment debtor to the state) required to satisfy the money judgment as shown by the affidavit in full or to the greatest extent, and pay the balance thereof, if any, to the judgment debtor. At any hearing pursuant to Section 708.770, the judgment debtor may challenge the distribution of these funds on exemption or other grounds, including, but not limited to, an allegation that the judgment has been satisfied or that service was improper. The notice shall not apply to any money which is exempt by law from execution. The Controller shall determine the cost of enforcing the notice and may establish a notice filing fee not to exceed five dollars ($5).

Service of the Notice of Support Arrearage and of the request and affidavit pursuant to this subdivision creates a lien on the money owing and unpaid to the judgment debtor which shall become effective 30 days following service upon the Controller. This notice shall remain in effect for four years from the date of its issuance or until the arrearage for which the notice was issued is satisfied, whichever occurs first.

Any person who files a request with the court to issue a Notice of Support Arrearage pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 708.730 shall notify the court and the Controller of any satisfaction of the arrearage after the Notice of Support Arrearage has been issued by the clerk of the court. The notice to the court and the Controller shall be filed with the court and the Controller and served upon the district attorney of the county in which the support judgment is entered within 30 days of the satisfaction or discharge and shall show a partial or full satisfaction of the arrearage or any other resolution of the arrearage.

Upon filing and service, the Notice of Support Arrearage shall be of no force and effect.

This subdivision shall be operative only until January 1, 1994.

(d) For purposes of this section, "support" means an obligation owing on behalf of a child, spouse, or family, or combination thereof.

SEC. 32. Section 68514 is added to the Government Code, to read:

68514. (a) The Judicial Council shall include as part of the Council's Annual Report of the Administrative Office of the California Courts the total number of Order to Show Cause and Notices of Motions filed seeking retroactive child support pursuant to Sections 196, 4700, and 7010 of the Civil Code, and the total number of orders granting retroactive support pursuant to these sections.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 33. Section 10061 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

10061. (a) The local registrar of births and deaths shall transmit each week to the State Registrar all original certificates accepted for registration by him or her during the preceding week.

(b) The local registrar shall only mail a certified copy of a public portion of the certificate to the father identified in the certificate upon the written or in-person request of the mother. A mother requesting such a mailing shall provide the local registrar with the mailing address of the father and shall be charged the statutory fee for a certified copy plus an administrative handling fee of three dollars ($3) and the actual cost for the mailing by first-class, restricted delivery, return receipt requested, mail.

(c) The local registrar shall provide to the State Registrar the number of mailings requested under subdivision (b). The State Registrar shall make this information available to the Legislature.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 34. Section 10061 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

10061. (a) The local registrar of births and deaths shall transmit each week to the State Registrar all original certificates accepted for registration by him or her during the preceding week.

(b) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 35. Section 10125.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

10125.5. (a) The second section of the certificate of live birth as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 10125 shall be confidential. Access to such portion of any certificate of live birth shall be limited to the following:

(1) State Department of Health Services staff.

(2) Local registrar's staff and local health department staff when approved by the local registrar or local health officer, respectively.

(3) Persons with a valid scientific interest as determined by the State Registrar, who are engaged in demographic, epidemiological or other similar studies related to health, and who agree to maintain confidentiality as prescribed by this division and by regulation of the State Registrar.

(4) The parent who signed the certificate or, if no parent signed the certificate, the mother.

(5) The person named on the certificate.

(6) Any person who has petitioned to adopt the person named on the certificate, subject to Section 10439 of the Health and Safety Code and Section 227 of the Civil Code.

(b) The State Department of Health Services shall maintain an accurate record of all persons who are given access to the confidential portion of the certificate. The record shall include: the name of the person authorizing access; name, title, and organizational affiliation of persons given access; dates of access; and specific purpose for which information is to be used. The record of access shall be open to public inspection during normal operating hours of the State Department of Health Services.

(c) All research proposed to be conducted using the confidential medical and social information on the birth certificate shall first be reviewed by the appropriate committee constituted for the protection of human subjects which is approved by the federal Department of Health and Human Services and has a general assurance pursuant to Part 46 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations. No information shall be released until the request for information has been reviewed by the Vital Statistics Advisory Committee and the committee has recommended to the State Registrar that such information shall be released.

SEC. 35.5. Section 10125.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

10125.5. (a) The second section of the certificate of live birth as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 10125 shall be confidential. Access to such portion of any certificate of live birth shall be limited to the following:

(1) State Department of Health Services staff.

(2) Local registrar's staff and local health department staff when approved by the local registrar or local health officer, respectively.

(3) Persons with a valid scientific interest as determined by the State Registrar, who are engaged in demographic, epidemiological or other similar studies related to health, and who agree to maintain confidentiality as prescribed by this division and by regulation of the State Registrar.

(4) The parent who signed the certificate or, if no parent signed the certificate, the mother.

(5) The person named on the certificate.

(6) Any person who has petitioned to adopt the person named on the certificate, subject to Section 10439 of the Health and Safety Code and Sections 229.10 and 229.40 of the Civil Code.

(b) The State Department of Health Services shall maintain an accurate record of all persons who are given access to the confidential portion of the certificate. The record shall include: the name of the person authorizing access; name, title, and organizational affiliation of persons given access; dates of access; and specific purpose for which information is to be used. The record of access shall be open to public inspection during normal operating hours of the State Department of Health Services.

(c) All research proposed to be conducted using the confidential medical and social information on the birth certificate shall first be reviewed by the appropriate committee constituted for the protection of human subjects which is approved by the federal Department of Health and Human Services and has a general assurance pursuant to Part 46 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations. No information shall be released until the request for information has been reviewed by the Vital Statistics Advisory Committee and the committee has recommended to the State Registrar that the information shall be released.

SEC. 36 Section 10125.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

10125.6. (a) The State Department of Health Services and the State Department of Social Services shall cooperatively develop an informational notice which advises the mother of a newborn child of her right to retroactive child support as provided by Sections 196, 4700, and 7010 of the Civil Code. The notice shall also advise the mother of her right to have a certified copy of the public portion of the certificate of birth mailed to the father pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 10061.

(b) The State Department of Health Services and the State Department of Social Services shall distribute copies of the notice formulated pursuant to subdivision (a) to each health facility that provides maternity services. Each such health facility shall provide a copy of the notice to each pregnant woman admitted for delivery of a child.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 37. Section 11489 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11489. After judgment in any court action brought to enforce the support obligation of an absent parent pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, the court may order an assignment of earnings pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 4390) of Title 1.5 of Part 5 of Division 4 of the Civil Code.

SEC. 38. Section 6.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 4700 of the Civil Code proposed by both this bill and SB 215. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1991, (2) each bill amends Sections 4700 of the Civil Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 215, in which case Section 6 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 39. Section 35.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 10125.5 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3532. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1991, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 10125.5 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3532, in which case Section 10125.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 35 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 3532, at which time Section 35.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 40. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1494

An act to amend Sections 63.1, 69.5, and 75.55 of, and to add Section 74.3 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to property taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 63.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

63.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a change in ownership shall not include either of the following purchases or transfers for which a claim is filed pursuant to this section:

(1) The purchase or transfer of real property which is the principal residence of an eligible transferor in the case of a purchase or transfer between parents and their children.

(2) The purchase or transfer of the first one million dollars ($1,000,000) of full cash value of all other real property of an eligible transferor in the case of a purchase or transfer between parents and their children.

(b) (1) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), "principal residence" means a dwelling for which a homeowner's exemption or a disabled veteran's residence exemption has been granted in the name of the eligible transferor. "Principal residence" includes only that portion of the land underlying the principal residence which consists of an area of reasonable size which is used as a site for the residence.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the one million dollar ($1,000,000) exclusion shall apply separately to each eligible transferor with respect to all purchases by and transfers to eligible transferees on and after November 6, 1986, of real property, other than the principal residence, of that eligible transferor. The exclusion shall not apply to any property in which the eligible transferor's interest was received through a transfer, or transfers, excluded from change in ownership by the provisions of either subdivision (f) of Section 62 or subdivision (b) of Section 65, unless the transferor qualifies as an original transferor under subdivision (b) of Section 65. In the case of any purchase or transfer subject to this paragraph involving two or more eligible transferors, the transferors may elect to combine their separate one million dollar ($1,000,000) exclusions and, upon making that election, the combined amount of their separate exclusions shall apply to any property jointly sold or transferred by the electing transferors, provided that in no case shall the amount of full cash value of real property of any one eligible transferor excluded under this election exceed the amount of the transferor's separate unused exclusion on the date of the joint sale or transfer.

(c) As used in this section:

(1) "Purchase or transfer between parents and their children" means either a transfer from a parent or parents to a child or children of the parent or parents or a transfer from a child or children to a parent or parents of the child or children.

(2) "Children" means any of the following:

(A) Any child born of the parent or parents, except a child, as defined in subparagraph (D), who has been adopted by another person or persons.

(B) Any stepchild of the parent or parents and the spouse of that stepchild while the relationship of stepparent and stepchild exists. For purposes of this paragraph, the relationship of stepparent and stepchild shall be deemed to exist until the marriage on which the relationship is based is terminated by divorce, or, if the relationship is terminated by death, until the remarriage of the surviving stepparent.

(C) Any son-in-law or daughter-in-law of the parent or parents. For the purposes of this paragraph, the relationship of parent and son-in-law or daughter-in-law shall be deemed to exist until the marriage on which the relationship is based is terminated by divorce or, if the relationship is terminated by death, until the remarriage of the surviving son-in-law or daughter-in-law.

(D) Any child adopted by the parent or parents pursuant to statute, other than an individual adopted after reaching the age of 18 years.

(3) "Full cash value" means full cash value, as defined in Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, with any adjustments authorized by those sections, and the full value of any new construction in progress, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date of a purchase by or transfer to an eligible transferee of real property subject to this section.

(4) "Eligible transferor" means a parent or child of an eligible transferee.

(5) "Eligible transferee" means a parent or child of an eligible transferor.

(6) "Real property" means real property as defined in Section 104. Real property does not include any interest in a legal entity.

(7) "Transfer" includes, and is not limited to, any transfer of the present beneficial ownership of property from an eligible transferor to an eligible transferee through the medium of an inter vivos or testamentary trust.

(d) The exclusions provided for in subdivision (a) shall not be allowed unless the eligible transferee files a claim with the assessor for the exclusion sought and furnishes to the assessor each of the following:

(1) A written certification by the transferee made under penalty of perjury that the transferee is a parent or child of the transferor.

(2) A copy of a written certification by the transferor, the transferor's legal representative, or the executor or administrator of the transferor's estate made under penalty of perjury that the transferor is a parent or child of the transferee. The written certification shall also include either or both of the following:

(A) If the purchase or transfer of real property includes the purchase or transfer of residential real property, a certification that the residential real property is or is not the transferor's principal residence.

(B) If the purchase or transfer of real property includes the purchase or transfer of real property other than the transferor's principal residence, a certification that other real property of the transferor which is subject to this section has or has not been previously sold or transferred to an eligible transferee, the total amount of full cash value, as defined in subdivision (c), of any real property subject to this section that has been previously sold or transferred by that transferor to eligible transferees, the location of that real property, and the names of the eligible transferees of that property.

(C) If the full cash value of the real property purchased by or transferred to the transferee exceeds the permissible exclusion of the transferor or the combined permissible exclusion of the transferors, in the case of a purchase or transfer from two or more joint transferors, taking into account any previous purchases by or transfers to an eligible transferee of the same transferor or transferors, the transferee shall specify in his or her claim the amount and the allocation of the exclusion he or she is seeking. Within any appraisal unit, as determined in accordance with subdivision (e) of Section 51 by the assessor of the county in which the real property is located, the exclusion shall be applied only on a pro rata basis, however, and shall not be applied to a selected portion or portions of the appraisal unit.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility. Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years after the date of the purchase or transfer of real property for which the claim is filed, or prior to transfer of the real property to a third party, whichever is earlier.

The assessor shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization all purchases or transfers, other than purchases or transfers involving a principal residence, for which a claim for exclusion is made pursuant to this subdivision. Each report shall contain the assessor's parcel number for each parcel for which the exclusion is claimed, the amount of each exclusion claimed, the tax identification number of each eligible transferor, and any other information as the board shall require in order to monitor the one million dollar ($1,000,000) limitation in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(e) This section shall apply to both voluntary transfers and transfers resulting from a court order or judicial decree.

(f) This section shall apply to purchases and transfers of real property completed on or after November 6, 1986, and shall not be effective for any change in ownership, including a change in ownership arising on the date of a decedent's death, which occurred prior to that date.

SEC. 1.5. Section 63.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

63.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a change in ownership shall not include either of the following purchases or transfers for which a claim is filed pursuant to this section:

(1) The purchase or transfer of real property which is the principal residence of an eligible transferor in the case of a purchase or transfer between parents and their children.

(2) The purchase or transfer of the first one million dollars ($1,000,000) of full cash value of all other real property of an eligible transferor in the case of a purchase or transfer between parents and their children.

(b) (1) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), "principal residence" means a dwelling for which a homeowner's exemption or a disabled veteran's residence exemption has been granted in the name of the eligible transferor. "Principal residence" includes only that portion of the land underlying the principal residence which consists of an area of reasonable size which is used as a site for the residence.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the one million dollar ($1,000,000) exclusion shall apply separately to each eligible transferor with respect to all purchases by and transfers to eligible transferees on and after November 6, 1986, of real property, other than the principal residence, of that eligible transferor. The exclusion shall not apply to any property in which the eligible transferor's interest was received through a transfer, or transfers, excluded from change in ownership by the provisions of either subdivision (f) of Section 62 or subdivision (b) of Section 65, unless the transferor qualifies as an original transferor under subdivision (b) of Section 65. In the case of any purchase or transfer subject to this paragraph involving two or more eligible transferors, the transferors may elect to combine their separate one million dollar ($1,000,000) exclusions and, upon making that election, the combined amount of their separate exclusions shall apply to any property jointly sold or transferred by the electing transferors, provided that in no case shall the amount of full cash value of real property of any one eligible transferor excluded under this election exceed the amount of the transferor's separate unused exclusion on the date of the joint sale or transfer.

(c) As used in this section:

(1) "Purchase or transfer between parents and their children" means either a transfer from a parent or parents to a child or children of the parent or parents or a transfer from a child or children to a parent or parents of the child or children.

(2) "Children" means any of the following:

(A) Any child born of the parent or parents, except a child, as defined in subparagraph (D), who has been adopted by another person or persons.

(B) Any stepchild of the parent or parents and the spouse of that stepchild while the relationship of stepparent and stepchild exists. For purposes of this paragraph, the relationship of stepparent and stepchild shall be deemed to exist until the marriage on which the relationship is based is terminated by divorce, or, if the relationship is terminated by death, until the remarriage of the surviving stepparent.

(C) Any son-in-law or daughter-in-law of the parent or parents. For the purposes of this paragraph, the relationship of parent and son-in-law or daughter-in-law shall be deemed to exist until the marriage on which the relationship is based is terminated by divorce or, if the relationship is terminated by death, until the remarriage of the surviving son-in-law or daughter-in-law.

(D) Any child adopted by the parent or parents pursuant to statute, other than an individual adopted after reaching the age of 18 years.

(3) "Full cash value" means full cash value, as defined in Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, with any adjustments authorized by those sections, and the full value of any new construction in progress, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date of a purchase by or transfer to an eligible transferee of real property subject to this section.

(4) "Eligible transferor" means a parent or child of an eligible transferee.

(5) "Eligible transferee" means a parent or child of an eligible transferor.

(6) "Real property" means real property as defined in Section 104. Real property does not include any interest in a legal entity.

(7) "Transfer" includes, and is not limited to, any transfer of the present beneficial ownership of property from an eligible transferor to an eligible transferee through the medium of an inter vivos or testamentary trust.

(d) The exclusions provided for in subdivision (a) shall not be allowed unless the eligible transferee files a claim with the assessor for the exclusion sought and furnishes to the assessor each of the following:

(1) A written certification by the transferee made under penalty of perjury that the transferee is a parent or child of the transferor.

(2) A copy of a written certification by the transferor, the transferor's legal representative, or the executor or administrator of the transferor's estate made under penalty of perjury that the transferor is a parent or child of the transferee. The written certification shall also include either or both of the following:

(A) If the purchase or transfer of real property includes the purchase or transfer of residential real property, a certification that the residential real property is or is not the transferor's principal residence.

(B) If the purchase or transfer of real property includes the purchase or transfer of real property other than the transferor's principal residence, a certification that other real property of the transferor which is subject to this section has or has not been previously sold or transferred to an eligible transferee, the total amount of full cash value, as defined in subdivision (c), of any real property subject to this section that has been previously sold or transferred by that transferor to eligible transferees, the location of that real property, the Social Security number of each eligible transferor, and the names of the eligible transferees of that property.

(C) If the full cash value of the real property purchased by or transferred to the transferee exceeds the permissible exclusion of the transferor or the combined permissible exclusion of the transferors, in the case of a purchase or transfer from two or more joint transferors, taking into account any previous purchases by or transfers to an eligible transferee of the same transferor or transferors, the transferee shall specify in his or her claim the amount and the allocation of the exclusion he or she is seeking. Within any appraisal unit, as determined in accordance with subdivision (e) of Section 51 by the assessor of the county in which the real property is located, the exclusion shall be applied only on a pro rata basis, however, and shall not be applied to a selected portion or portions of the appraisal unit.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility. Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years after the date of the purchase or transfer of real property for which the claim is filed, or prior to transfer of the real property to a third party, whichever is earlier.

The assessor shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization all purchases or transfers, other than purchases or transfers involving a principal residence, for which a claim for exclusion is made pursuant to this subdivision. Each report shall contain the assessor's parcel number for each parcel for which the exclusion is claimed, the amount of each exclusion claimed, the Social Security number of each eligible transferor, and any other information as the board shall require in order to monitor the one million dollar ($1,000,000) limitation in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(e) This section shall apply to both voluntary transfers and transfers resulting from a court order or judicial decree.

(f) This section shall apply to purchases and transfers of real property completed on or after November 6, 1986, and shall not be effective for any change in ownership, including a change in ownership arising on the date of a decedent's death, which occurred prior to that date.

SEC. 2. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 481 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years, or any severely and permanently disabled person, who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base-year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value which is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base-year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(2) Notwithstanding the limitation in paragraph (1) requiring that the original property and the replacement dwelling be located in the same county, this limitation shall not apply in any county in which the county board of supervisors, after consultation with local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county, adopts an ordinance making the provisions of paragraph (1) also applicable to situations in which replacement dwellings are located in that county and the original properties are located in another county within this state. The authorization contained in this paragraph shall be applicable in a county only if the ordinance adopted by the board of supervisors complies with the following requirements:

(A) It is adopted only after consultation between the board of supervisors and all other local affected agencies within the county's boundaries.

(B) It requires that all claims for transfers of base-year value from original property located in another county be granted if the claims meet the applicable requirements of both subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and this section.

(C) It requires that all base-year valuations of original property located in another county and determined by its assessor be accepted in connection with the granting of claims for transfers of base-year value.

(D) The ordinance provides that its provisions shall remain operative for a period of not less than five years.

(E) The ordinance specifies the date on and after which its provisions shall be applicable. However, the date specified shall not be earlier than November 9, 1988. The specified applicable date may be a date earlier than the date the county adopts the ordinance.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age, or is severely and permanently disabled.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) (A) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of the land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the county.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted the property tax relief provided by this section. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data-processing media or other media and in a format which is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base-year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base-year value of the mobilehome or the base-year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years, or is severely and permanently disabled, shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base-year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5303 or (2) results in a base-year value determined in accordance with this section because the property qualifies as a replacement dwelling.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form which the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of the claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who was a record owner of the original property at the time of its sale or is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age or severely and permanently disabled. Proof of severe and permanent disability shall be considered a certification, signed by a licensed physician or surgeon of appropriate specialty, attesting to the claimant's severely and permanently disabled condition. In the absence of available proof that a person is over 55 years of age, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met. In the case of a severely and permanently disabled claimant either of the following shall be submitted:

(A) A certification, signed by a licensed physician or surgeon of appropriate specialty which identifies specific reasons why the disability necessitates a move to the replacement dwelling and the disability-related requirements, including any locational requirements, of a replacement dwelling. The claimant shall substantiate that the replacement dwelling meets disability-related requirements so identified and that the primary reason for the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy those requirements. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy identified disability-related requirements.

(B) The claimant's substantiation that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to alleviate financial burdens caused by the disability. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move is to alleviate the financial burdens caused by the disability.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property and, if the original property is located within another county, the name of the county or counties and, if applicable, city or cities in which the original property is located.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

(6) If the original property and the replacement dwelling are located in different counties, the base-year value of the original property determined by the assessor of the county in which the original property is located.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) " Base-year value of the original property" means its base-year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, " base-year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the " base-year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base-year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if either of the following conditions are met:

(i) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(ii) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986, and on or before January 1, 1988, and within two years of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the original property or the replacement dwelling, whether or not that spouse joined in the claim, the spouse shall also be deemed a claimant for purposes of determining whether in any future claim filed by the spouse under this section the condition of eligibility specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has or has not been met by the spouse.

(10) "Property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property which is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) "Consultation" means a noticed hearing conducted by a county board of supervisors concerning the adoption of an ordinance described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) and with respect to which all local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county are provided with reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing and a reasonable opportunity to appear and participate at the hearing.

(12) "Local affected agency" means any city, special district, school district, or community college district which receives an annual property tax revenue allocation.

(13) "Severely and permanently disabled person" means any person described in subdivision (b) of Section 74.3.

(h) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base-year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(1) The date the original property is sold.

(2) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(3) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

Any taxes which were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base-year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount which would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base-year value.

Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base-year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(i) (1) With respect to the transfer of base-year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in the same county, this section, except as provided in paragraph (3), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base-year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in different counties, this section, except as provided in paragraph (3), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after the date specified in accordance with subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) in the ordinance of the county in which the replacement dwelling is located, but shall not apply to any replacement dwelling which was purchased or newly constructed before November 9, 1988.

(3) With respect to the transfer of base year value by a severely and permanently disabled person, this section shall apply only to replacement dwellings which are purchased or newly constructed on or after June 6, 1990.

(j) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision, and the amendments to this section during the 1989 portion of the 1989–90 Regular Session of the Legislature, shall remain operative only until January 1, 1999, and on that date are repealed.

SEC. 2.3. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 481 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years, or any severely and permanently disabled person, who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base-year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value which is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base-year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(2) Notwithstanding the limitation in paragraph (1) requiring that the original property and the replacement dwelling be located in the same county, this limitation shall not apply in any county in which the county board of supervisors, after consultation with local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county, adopts an ordinance making the provisions of paragraph (1) also applicable to situations in which replacement dwellings are located in that county and the original properties are located in another county within this state. The authorization contained in this paragraph shall be applicable in a county only if the ordinance adopted by the board of supervisors complies with the following requirements:

(A) It is adopted only after consultation between the board of supervisors and all other local affected agencies within the county's boundaries.

(B) It requires that all claims for transfers of base-year value from original property located in another county be granted if the claims meet the applicable requirements of both subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and this section.

(C) It requires that all base-year valuations of original property located in another county and determined by its assessor be accepted in connection with the granting of claims for transfers of base-year value.

(D) The ordinance provides that its provisions shall remain operative for a period of not less than five years.

(E) The ordinance specifies the date on and after which its provisions shall be applicable. However, the date specified shall not be earlier than November 9, 1988. The specified applicable date may be a date earlier than the date the county adopts the ordinance.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age, or is severely and permanently disabled.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) (A) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of the land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the county.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted the property tax relief provided by this section. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data-processing media or other media and in a format which is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base-year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base-year value of the mobilehome or the base-year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years, or is severely and permanently disabled, shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base-year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base-year value determined in accordance with this section because the property qualifies as a replacement dwelling.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form which the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of the claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who was a record owner of the original property at the time of its sale or is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age or severely and permanently disabled. Proof of severe and permanent disability shall be considered a certification, signed by a licensed physician and surgeon of appropriate specialty, attesting to the claimant's severely and permanently disabled condition. In the absence of available proof that a person is over 55 years of age, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met. In the case of a severely and permanently disabled claimant either of the following shall be submitted:

(A) A certification, signed by a licensed physician or surgeon of appropriate specialty which identifies specific reasons why the disability necessitates a move to the replacement dwelling and the disability-related requirements, including any locational requirements, of a replacement dwelling. The claimant shall substantiate that the replacement dwelling meets disability-related requirements so identified and that the primary reason for the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy those requirements. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy identified disability-related requirements.

(B) The claimant's substantiation that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to alleviate financial burdens caused by the disability. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move is to alleviate the financial burdens caused by the disability.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property and, if the original property is located within another county, the name of the county or counties and, if applicable, city or cities in which the original property is located.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

(6) If the original property and the replacement dwelling are located in different counties, the base-year value of the original property determined by the assessor of the county in which the original property is located.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base-year value of the original property" means its base-year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base-year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base-year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base-year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling.

described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if either of the following conditions are met:

(i) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(ii) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986, and on or before January 1, 1988, and within two years of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (h), if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base-year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the original property or the replacement dwelling, whether or not that spouse joined in the claim, the spouse shall also be deemed a claimant for purposes of determining whether in any future claim filed by the spouse under this section the condition of eligibility specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has or has not been met by the spouse.

(10) "Property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property which is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) "Consultation" means a noticed hearing conducted by a county board of supervisors concerning the adoption of an ordinance described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) and with respect to which all local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county are provided with reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing and a reasonable opportunity to appear and participate at the hearing.

(12) "Local affected agency" means any city, special district, school district, or community college district which receives an annual property tax revenue allocation.

(13) "Severely and permanently disabled person" means any person described in subdivision (b) of Section 74.3.

(h) (1) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base-year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(A) The date the original property is sold.

(B) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(C) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

(2) Any taxes which were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base-year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount which would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base-year value.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base-year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(4) In the case where a claim under this section has been timely filed and granted, and new construction is performed upon the replacement dwelling subsequent to the transfer of base-year value, the property tax relief provided by this section also shall apply to the replacement dwelling, as improved, and thus there shall be no reassessment upon completion of the new construction if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The new construction is completed within two years of the date of the sale of the original property and the owner notifies the assessor in writing of completion of the new construction within 30 days after completion.

(B) The fair market value of the new construction on the date of completion, plus the full cash value of the replacement dwelling on the date of acquisition, is not more than the full cash value of the original property as determined pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) for purposes of granting the original claim.

(i) (1) With respect to the transfer of base-year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in the same county, this section, except as provided in paragraph (3), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base-year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in different counties, this section, except as provided in paragraph (3), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after the date specified in accordance with subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) in the ordinance of the county in which the replacement dwelling is located, but shall not apply to any replacement dwelling which was purchased or newly constructed before November 9, 1988.

(3) With respect to the transfer of base-year value by a severely and permanently disabled person, this section shall apply only to replacement dwellings which are purchased or newly constructed on or after June 6, 1990.

(j) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision, and the amendments to this section during the 1989 portion of the 1989–90 Regular Session of the Legislature, shall remain operative only until January 1, 1999, and on that date are repealed.

SEC. 2.5. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 1 of the Chapter 481 of the Statutes or 1989, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years, or any severely and permanently disabled person, who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base-year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value which is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base-year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(2) Notwithstanding the limitation in paragraph (1) requiring that the original property and the replacement dwelling be located in the same county, this limitation shall not apply in any county in which the county board of supervisors, after consultation with local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county, adopts an ordinance making the provisions of paragraph (1) also applicable to situations in which replacement dwellings are located in that county and the original properties are located in another county within this state. The authorization contained in this paragraph shall be applicable in a county only if the ordinance adopted by the board of supervisors complies with the following requirements:

(A) It is adopted only after consultation between the board of supervisors and all other local affected agencies within the county's boundaries.

(B) It requires that all claims for transfers of base-year value from original property located in another county be granted if the claims meet the applicable requirements of both subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and this section.

(C) It requires that all base-year valuations of original property located in another county and determined by its assessor be accepted in connection with the granting of claims for transfers of base-year value.

(D) The ordinance provides that its provisions shall remain operative for a period of not less than five years.

(E) The ordinance specifies the date on and after which its provisions shall be applicable. However, the date specified shall not be earlier than November 9, 1988. The specified applicable date may be a date earlier than the date the county adopts the ordinance.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age, or is severely and permanently disabled.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) (A) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of the land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the county.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted, as a claimant, the property tax relief provided by this section. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors and all claimants who have thereby received relief. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data-processing media or other media and in a format which is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base-year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base-year value of the mobilehome or the base-year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years, or is severely and permanently disabled, shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them is eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base-year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base-year value determined in accordance with this section because the property qualifies as a replacement dwelling.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form which the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of each claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age or severely and permanently disabled. Proof of severe and permanent disability shall be considered a certification, signed by a licensed physician and surgeon of appropriate specialty, attesting to the claimant's severely and permanently disabled condition. In the absence of available proof that a person is over 55 years of age, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met. In the case of a severely and permanently disabled claimant either of the following shall be submitted:

(A) A certification, signed by a licensed physician or surgeon of appropriate specialty which identifies specific reasons why the disability necessitates a move to the replacement dwelling and the disability-related requirements, including any locational requirements, of a replacement dwelling. The claimant shall substantiate that the replacement dwelling meets disability-related requirements so identified and that the primary reason for the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy those requirements. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy identified disability-related requirements.

(B) The claimant's substantiation that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to alleviate financial burdens caused by the disability. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move is to alleviate the financial burdens caused by the disability.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property and, if the original property is located within another county, the name of the county or counties and, if applicable, city or cities in which the original property is located.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

(6) If the original property and the replacement dwelling are located in different counties, the base-year value of the original property determined by the assessor of the county in which the original property is located.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base-year value of the original property" means its base-year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base-year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base-year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base-year or years of any property to which that base-year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if either of the following conditions are met:

(i) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(ii) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986, and on or before January 1, 1988, and within two years of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base-year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the replacement dwelling, the spouse shall also be deemed a claimant for purposes of determining whether the condition of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has or has not been met.

(10) "Property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property which is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) "Consultation" means a noticed hearing conducted by a county board of supervisors concerning the adoption of an ordinance described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) and with respect to which all local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county are provided with reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing and a reasonable opportunity to appear and participate at the hearing.

(12) "Local affected agency" means any city, special district, school district, or community college district which receives an annual property tax revenue allocation.

(13) "Person" means any individual, but does not include any firm, partnership, association, corporation, company, or other legal entity or organization of any kind.

(14) "Severely and permanently disabled person" means any person described in subdivision (b) of Section 74.3.

(h) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base-year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(1) The date the original property is sold.

(2) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(3) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

Any taxes which were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base-year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount which would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base-year value.

Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base-year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(i) Any claimant may rescind a claim for the property tax relief provided by this section and shall not be considered to have received that relief for purposes of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b), if a written notice of rescission is delivered to the office of the assessor in which the original claim was filed and all of the following have occurred:

(1) The notice is signed by the original filing claimant or claimants.

(2) The notice is delivered to the office of the assessor before the date that the county first issues, as a result of relief granted under this section, a refund check for property taxes imposed upon the replacement dwelling. If granting relief will not result in a refund of property taxes, then the notice shall be delivered before payment is first made of any property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling consistent with relief granted under this section. If payment of the taxes is not made, then notice shall be delivered before the first date that those property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling, consistent with relief granted under this section, are delinquent.

(3) The notice is accompanied by the payment of a fee as the assessor may require, provided that the fee shall not exceed an amount reasonably related to the estimated cost of processing a rescission claim, including both direct costs and developmental and indirect costs, such as costs for overhead, personnel, supplies, materials, office space, and computers.

(j) (1) With respect to the transfer of base year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in the same county, this section, except as provided in paragraph (3), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base-year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in different counties, this section, except as provided in paragraph (3), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after the date specified in accordance with subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) in the ordinance of the county in which the replacement dwelling is located, but shall not apply to any replacement dwelling which was purchased or newly constructed before November 9, 1988.

(3) With respect to the transfer of base-year value by a severely and permanently disabled person, this section shall apply only to replacement dwellings which are purchased or newly constructed on or after June 6, 1990.

(k) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision, and the amendments to this section during the 1989 portion of the 1989–90 Regular Session of the Legislature, shall remain operative only until January 1, 1999, and on that date are repealed.

SEC. 2.7. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 481 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years, or any severely and permanently disabled person, who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base-year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value which is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base-year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(2) Notwithstanding the limitation in paragraph (1) requiring that the original property and the replacement dwelling be located in the same county, this limitation shall not apply in any county in which the county board of supervisors, after consultation with local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county, adopts an ordinance making the provisions of paragraph (1) also applicable to situations in which replacement dwellings are located in that county and the original properties are located in another county within this state. The authorization contained in this paragraph shall be applicable in a county only if the ordinance adopted by the board of supervisors complies with the following requirements:

(A) It is adopted only after consultation between the board of supervisors and all other local affected agencies within the county's boundaries.

(B) It requires that all claims for transfers of base-year value from original property located in another county be granted if the claims meet the applicable requirements of both subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and this section.

(C) It requires that all base-year valuations of original property located in another county and determined by its assessor be accepted in connection with the granting of claims for transfers of base-year value.

(D) The ordinance provides that its provisions shall remain operative for a period of not less than five years.

(E) The ordinance specifies the date on and after which its provisions shall be applicable. However, the date specified shall not be earlier than November 9, 1988. The specified applicable date may be a date earlier than the date the county adopts the ordinance.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age, or is severely and permanently disabled.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) (A) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the replacement dwelling, including that portion of the land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the county.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted, as a claimant, the property tax relief provided by this section. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors and all claimants who have thereby received relief. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data-processing media or other media and in a format which is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base-year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base-year value of the mobilehome or the base-year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years, or is severely and permanently disabled, shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base-year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base-year value determined in accordance with this section because the property qualifies as a replacement dwelling.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form which the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of each claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age or severely and permanently disabled. Proof of severe and permanent disability shall be considered a certification, signed by a licensed physician and surgeon of appropriate specialty, attesting to the claimant's severely and permanently disabled condition. In the absence of available proof that a person is over 55 years of age, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met. In the case of a severely and permanently disabled claimant either of the following shall be submitted:

(A) A certification, signed by a licensed physician or surgeon of appropriate specialty which identifies specific reasons why the disability necessitates a move to the replacement dwelling and the disability-related requirements, including any locational requirements, of a replacement dwelling. The claimant shall substantiate that the replacement dwelling meets disability-related requirements so identified and that the primary reason for the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy those requirements. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy identified disability-related requirements.

(B) The claimant's substantiation that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to alleviate financial burdens caused by the disability. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move is to alleviate the financial burdens caused by the disability.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property, and, if the original property is located within another county, the name of the county or counties and, if applicable, city or cities in which the original property is located.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

(6) If the original property and the replacement dwelling are located in different counties, the base-year value of the original property determined by the assessor of the county in which the original property is located.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base-year value of the original property" means its base-year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base-year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base-year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base-year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if either of the following conditions are met:

(i) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(ii) The replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986, and on or before January 1, 1988, and within two years of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (h), if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base-year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the replacement dwelling, the spouse shall also be deemed a claimant for purposes of determining whether the condition of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has been met.

(10) "Property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property which is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) "Consultation" means a noticed hearing conducted by a county board of supervisors concerning the adoption of an ordinance described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) and with respect to which all local affected agencies within the boundaries of the county are provided with reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing and a reasonable opportunity to appear and participate at the hearing.

(12) "Local affected agency" means any city, special district, school district, or community college district which receives an annual property tax revenue allocation.

(13) "Person" means any individual, but does not include any firm, partnership, association, corporation, company, or other legal entity or organization of any kind.

(14) "Severely and permanently disabled person" means any person described in subdivision (b) of Section 74.3.

(h) (1) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base-year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(A) The date the original property is sold.

(B) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(C) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

(2) Any taxes which were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base-year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount which would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base-year value.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base-year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(4) In the case where a claim under this section has been timely filed and granted, and new construction is performed upon the replacement dwelling subsequent to the transfer of base-year value, the property tax relief provided by this section also shall apply to the replacement dwelling, as improved, and thus there shall be no reassessment upon completion of the new construction if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The new construction is completed within two years of the date of the sale of the original property and the owner notifies the assessor in writing of completion of the new construction within 30 days after completion.

(B) The fair market value of the new construction on the date of completion, plus the full cash value of the replacement dwelling on the date of acquisition, is not more than the full cash value of the original property as determined pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) for purposes of granting the original claim.

(i) Any claimant may rescind a claim for the property tax relief provided by this section and shall not be considered to have received that relief for purposes of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b), if a written notice of rescission is delivered to the office of the assessor in which the original claim was filed and all of the following have occurred:

(1) The notice is signed by the original filing claimant or claimants.

(2) The notice is delivered to the office of the assessor before the date that the county first issues, as a result of relief granted under this section, a refund check for property taxes imposed upon the replacement dwelling. If granting relief will not result in a refund of property taxes, then the notice shall be delivered before payment is first made of any property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling consistent with relief granted under this section. If payment of the taxes is not made, then notice shall be delivered before the first date that those property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling, consistent with relief granted under this section, are delinquent.

(3) The notice is accompanied by the payment of a fee as the assessor may require, provided that the fee shall not exceed an amount reasonably related to the estimated cost of processing a rescission claim, including both direct costs and developmental and indirect costs, such as costs for overhead, personnel, supplies, materials, office space, and computers.

(j) (1) With respect to the transfer of base-year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in the same county, this section, except as provided in paragraph (3), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 5, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base-year value of original properties to replacement dwellings located in different counties, this section, except as provided in paragraph (3), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after the date specified in accordance with subparagraph (E) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) in the ordinance of the county in which the replacement dwelling is located, but shall not apply to any replacement dwelling which was purchased or newly constructed before November 9, 1988.

(3) With respect to the transfer of base-year value by a severely and permanently disabled person, this section shall apply only to replacement dwellings which are purchased or newly constructed on or after June 6, 1990.

(k) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision, and the amendments to this section during the 1989 portion of the 1989–90 Regular Session of the Legislature, shall remain operative only until January 1, 1999, and on that date are repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1271 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years, or any severely and permanently disabled person, who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base-year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value which is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base-year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age, or is severely and permanently disabled.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) The replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted the property tax relief provided by this section. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data processing media or other media and in a format which is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base-year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base-year value of the mobilehome or the base-year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years, or is severely and permanently disabled, shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them is eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base-year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base-year value determined in accordance with this section because the property qualifies as a replacement dwelling.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form which the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of the claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who was a record owner of the original property at the time of its sale or is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age or severely and permanently disabled. Proof of severe and permanent disability shall be considered a certification, signed by a licensed physician and surgeon of appropriate specialty, attesting to the claimant's severely and permanently disabled condition. In the absence of available proof that a person is over 55 years of age, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met. In the case of a severely and permanently disabled claimant either of the following shall be submitted:

(A) A certification, signed by a licensed physician or surgeon of appropriate specialty which identifies specific reasons why the disability necessitates a move to the replacement dwelling and the disability-related requirements, including any locational requirements, of a replacement dwelling. The claimant shall substantiate that the replacement dwelling meets disability-related requirements so identified and that the primary reason for the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy those requirements. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy identified disability-related requirements.

(B) The claimant's substantiation that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to alleviate financial burdens caused by the disability. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move is to alleviate the financial burdens caused by the disability.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base-year value of the original property" means its base-year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base-year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base-year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base-year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base-year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the original property or the replacement dwelling, whether or not that spouse joined in the claim, the spouse is also a claimant for purposes of determining whether in any future claim filed by the spouse under this section the condition of eligibility specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has or has not been met by the spouse.

(10) "Property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property which is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) "Severely and permanently disabled" means any person described in subdivision (b) of Section 74.3.

(h) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base-year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(1) The date the original property is sold.

(2) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(3) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

Any taxes which were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base-year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount which would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base-year value.

Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base-year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(i) (1) This section, except as provided in paragraph (2), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 6, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base-year value by a severely and permanently disabled person, this section shall apply only to replacement dwellings which are purchased or newly constructed on or after June 6, 1990.

(j) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision shall become operative on the effective date of this act unless Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 1 of the 1987–88 Regular Session is approved by the voters. In that event, the amendments shall not become operative until January 1, 1999.

SEC. 3.3. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1271 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years, or any severely and permanently disabled person, who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base-year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value which is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base-year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age, or is severely and permanently disabled.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) The replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted the property tax relief provided by this section. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data processing media or other media and in a format which is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base-year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base-year value of the mobilehome or the base-year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years, or is severely and permanently disabled, shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them is eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base-year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base-year value determined in accordance with this section because the property qualifies as a replacement dwelling.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form which the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of the claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who was a record owner of the original property at the time of its sale or is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age, or severely and permanently disabled. Proof of severe and permanent disability shall be considered a certification, signed by a licensed physician and surgeon of appropriate specialty, attesting to the claimant's severely and permanently disabled condition. In the absence of available proof, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met. In the case of a severely and permanently disabled claimant either of the following shall be submitted:

(A) A certification, signed by a licensed physician or surgeon of appropriate specialty which identifies specific reasons why the disability necessitates a move to the replacement dwelling and the disability-related requirements, including any locational requirements, of a replacement dwelling. The claimant shall substantiate that the replacement dwelling meets disability-related requirements so identified and that the primary reason for the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy those requirements. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy identified disability-related requirements.

(B) The claimant's substantiation that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to alleviate financial burdens caused by the disability. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move is to alleviate the financial burdens caused by the disability.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base-year value of the original property" means its base-year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base-year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base-year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base-year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (h), if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base-year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the original property or the replacement dwelling, whether or not that spouse joined in the claim, the spouse is also a claimant for purposes of determining whether in any future claim filed by the spouse under this section the condition of eligibility specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has or has not been met by the spouse.

(10) "Property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property which is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) "Severely and permanently disabled" means any person described in subdivision (b) of Section 74.3.

(h) (1) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base-year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(A) The date the original property is sold.

(B) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(C) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

(2) Any taxes which were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base-year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount which would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base-year value.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base-year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(4) In the case where a claim under this section has been timely filed and granted, and new construction is performed upon the replacement dwelling subsequent to the transfer of base-year value, the property tax relief provided by this section also shall apply to the replacement dwelling, as improved, and thus there shall be no reassessment upon completion of the new construction if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The new construction is completed within two years of the date of the sale of the original property and the owner notifies the assessor in writing of completion of the new construction within 30 days after completion.

(B) The fair market value of the new construction on the date of completion, plus the full cash value of the replacement dwelling on the date of acquisition, is not more that the full cash value of the original property as determined pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) for purposes of granting the original claim.

(i) (1) This section, except as provided in paragraph (2), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 6, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base-year value by a severely and permanently disabled person, this section shall apply only to replacement dwellings which are purchased or newly constructed on or after June 6, 1990.

(j) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision shall become operative on January 1, 1999.

Section 3.5. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1271 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years, or any severely and permanently disabled person, who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base-year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value which is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base-year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age, or severely and permanently disabled.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) The replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted as a claimant, the property tax relief provided by this section. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors and all claimants who have thereby received relief. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data processing media or other media and in a format which is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base-year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base-year value of the mobilehome or the base-year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years, or is severely and permanently disabled, shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them is eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base-year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base-year value determined in accordance with this section because the property qualifies as a replacement dwelling.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form which the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of each claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age, or severely and permanently disabled. Proof of severe and permanent disability shall be considered a certification, signed by a licensed physician and surgeon of appropriate specialty, attesting to the claimant's severely and permanently disabled condition. In the absence of available proof that a person is over 55 years of age, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met. In the case of a severely and permanently disabled claimant, either of the following shall be submitted:

(A) A certification, signed by a licensed physician or surgeon of appropriate specialty which identifies specific reasons why the disability necessitates a move to the replacement dwelling and the disability-related requirements, including any locational requirements, of a replacement dwelling. The claimant shall substantiate that the replacement dwelling meets disability-related requirements so identified and that the primary reason for the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy those requirements. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under the penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy identified disability-related requirements.

(B) The claimant's substantiation that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to alleviate financial burdens caused by the disability. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move is to alleviate the financial burdens caused by the disability.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base-year value of the original property" means its base-year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base-year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base-year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base-year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base-year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the replacement dwelling, the spouse is also a claimant for purposes of determining whether the condition of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has been met.

(10) "Property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property which is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) "Person" means any individual, but does not include any firm, partnership, association, corporation, company, or other legal entity or organization of any kind.

(12) "Severely and permanently disabled" means any person described in subdivision (b) of Section 74.3.

(h) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base-year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(1) The date the original property is sold.

(2) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(3) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

Any taxes which were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base-year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount which would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base-year value.

Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base-year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(i) Any claimant may rescind a claim for the property tax relief provided by this section and shall not be considered to have received that relief for purposes of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b), if a written notice of rescission is delivered to the office of the assessor in which the original claim was filed and all of the following have occurred:

(1) The notice is signed by the original filing claimant or claimants.

(2) The notice is delivered to the office of the assessor before the date that the county first issues, as a result of relief granted under this section, a refund check for property taxes imposed upon the replacement dwelling. If granting relief will not result in a refund of property taxes, then the notice shall be delivered before payment is first made of any property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling consistent with relief granted under this section. If payment of the taxes is not made, then notice shall be delivered before the first date that those property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling, consistent with relief granted under this section, are delinquent.

(3) The notice is accompanied by the payment of a fee as the assessor may require, provided that the fee shall not exceed an amount reasonably related to the estimated cost of processing a rescission claim, including both direct costs and developmental and indirect costs, such as costs for overhead, personnel, supplies, materials, office space, and computers.

(j) (1) This section, except as provided in paragraph (2), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 6, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base-year value by a severely and permanently disabled person, this section shall apply only to replacement dwellings which are purchased or newly constructed on or after June 6, 1990.

(k) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision shall become operative on the effective date of this act unless Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 1 of the 1987–88 Regular Session is approved by the voters. In that event, the amendments shall not become operative until January 1, 1999.

SEC. 3.7. Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1271 of the Statutes of 1988, is amended to read:

69.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, any person over the age of 55 years, or any severely and permanently disabled person, who resides in property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption under subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 218 may transfer, subject to the conditions and limitations provided in this section, the base-year value of that property to any replacement dwelling of equal or lesser value which is located within the same county and is purchased or newly constructed by that person as his or her principal residence within two years of the sale by that person of the original property, provided that the base-year value of the original property shall not be transferred to the replacement dwelling until the original property is sold.

(b) In addition to meeting the requirements of subdivision (a), any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section shall be eligible for that relief only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The claimant is an owner and a resident of the original property either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(2) The original property is eligible for the homeowner's exemption, as the result of the claimant's ownership and occupation of the property as his or her principal residence, either at the time of its sale or within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling.

(3) At the time of the sale of the original property, the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resides with the claimant is at least 55 years of age, or is severely and permanently disabled.

(4) At the time of claiming the property tax relief provided by subdivision (a), the claimant is an owner of a replacement dwelling and occupies it as his or her principal place of residence and, as a result thereof, the property is currently eligible for the homeowner's exemption or would be eligible for the exemption except that the property is already receiving the exemption because of an exemption claim filed by the previous owner.

(5) The original property of the claimant is sold by him or her within two years of the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling. For purposes of this paragraph, the purchase or new construction of the replacement dwelling includes the purchase of that portion of land on which the replacement building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode of the claimant will be situated and which, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (g), constitutes a part of the replacement dwelling.

(6) The replacement dwelling, including that portion of land on which it is situated which is specified in paragraph (5), is located entirely within the same county as the claimant's original property.

(7) The claimant has not previously been granted, as a claimant, the property tax relief provided by this section. In order to prevent duplication of claims under this section within this state, county assessors shall report quarterly to the State Board of Equalization that information from claims filed in accordance with subdivision (f) and from county records as is specified by the board necessary to identify fully all claims under this section allowed by assessors and all claimants who have thereby received relief. The board may specify that the information include all or a part of the names and social security numbers of claimants and their spouses and the identity and location of the replacement dwelling to which the claim applies. The information may be required in the form of data processing media or other media and in a format which is compatible with the recordkeeping processes of the counties and the auditing procedures of the state.

(c) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available if the original property or the replacement dwelling, or both, of the claimant, includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) A unit or lot within a cooperative housing corporation, a community apartment project, a condominium project, or a planned unit development. If the unit or lot constitutes the original property of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling only the base-year value of the claimant's unit or lot and his or her share in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot. If the unit or lot constitutes the replacement dwelling of the claimant, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property only to the unit or lot of the claimant and any share of the claimant in any common area reserved as an appurtenance of that unit or lot.

(2) A mobilehome or a mobilehome and any land owned by the claimant on which the mobilehome is situated. If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's original property, the assessor shall transfer to the claimant's replacement dwelling either the base-year value of the mobilehome or the base-year value of the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor of that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the original property, as provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (g). If the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated constitutes the claimant's replacement dwelling, the assessor shall transfer the base-year value of the claimant's original property either to the mobilehome or the mobilehome and the land on which it is situated, as appropriate. No transfer of base-year value shall be made by the assessor to that portion of land which does not constitute a part of the replacement dwelling, as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (g).

This subdivision shall be subject to the limitations specified in subdivision (d).

(d) The property tax relief provided by this section shall be available to a claimant who is the coowner of original property, as a joint tenant, a tenant in common, or a community property owner, subject to the following limitations:

(1) If a single replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed by all of the coowners and each coowner retains an interest in the replacement dwelling, the claimant shall be eligible under this section whether or not any or all of the remaining coowners would otherwise be eligible claimants.

(2) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately purchased or newly constructed by two or more coowners and more than one coowner would otherwise be an eligible claimant, only one coowner shall be eligible under this section. These coowners shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them shall be deemed eligible.

(3) If two or more replacement dwellings are separately

purchased or newly constructed by two coowners who held the original property as community property, only the coowner who has attained the age of 55 years, or is severely and permanently disabled, shall be eligible under this section. If both spouses are over 55 years of age, they shall determine by mutual agreement which one of them is eligible.

In the case of coowners whose original property is a multiunit dwelling, the limitations imposed by paragraphs (2) and (3) shall only apply to coowners who occupied the same dwelling unit within the original property at the time specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) Upon the sale of original property, the assessor shall determine a new base-year value for that property in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and Section 110.1, whether or not a replacement dwelling is subsequently purchased or newly constructed by the former owner or owners of the original property.

This section shall not apply unless the transfer of the original property is a change in ownership which either (1) subjects that property to reappraisal at its current fair market value in accordance with Section 110.1 or 5803 or (2) results in a base-year value determined in accordance with this section because the property qualifies as a replacement dwelling.

(f) A claimant shall not be eligible for the property tax relief provided by this section unless the claimant provides to the assessor, on a form which the assessor shall make available upon request, the following information:

(1) The name and social security number of each claimant and of any spouse of the claimant who was a record owner of the original property at the time of its sale or is a record owner of the replacement dwelling.

(2) Proof that the claimant or the claimant's spouse who resided on the original property with the claimant was, at the time of its sale, at least 55 years of age, or severely and permanently disabled. Proof of severe and permanent disability shall be considered a certification, signed by a licensed physician and surgeon of appropriate specialty, attesting to the claimant's severely and permanently disabled condition. In the absence of available proof that a person is over 55 years of age, the claimant shall certify under penalty of perjury that the age requirement is met. In the case of a severely and permanently disabled claimant either of the following shall be submitted:

(A) A certification, signed by a licensed physician or surgeon of appropriate specialty which identifies specific reasons why the disability necessitates a move to the replacement dwelling and the disability-related requirements, including any locational requirements, of a replacement dwelling. The claimant shall substantiate that the replacement dwelling meets disability-related requirements so identified and that the primary reason for the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy those requirements. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to satisfy identified disability-related requirements.

(B) The claimant's substantiation that the primary purpose of the move to the replacement dwelling is to alleviate financial burdens caused by the disability. If the claimant, or the claimant's spouse or guardian, so declares under penalty of perjury, it shall be rebuttably presumed that the primary purpose of the move is to alleviate the financial burdens caused by the disability.

(3) The address and, if known, the assessor's parcel number of the original property.

(4) The date of the claimant's sale of the original property and the date of the claimant's purchase or new construction of a replacement dwelling.

(5) A statement by the claimant that he or she occupied the replacement dwelling as his or her principal place of residence on the date of the filing of his or her claim.

The State Board of Equalization shall design the form for claiming eligibility.

Any claim under this section shall be filed within three years of the date the replacement dwelling was purchased or the new construction of the replacement dwelling was completed.

(g) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Person over the age of 55 years" means any person or the spouse of any person who has attained the age of 55 years or older at the time of the sale of original property.

(2) "Base-year value of the original property" means its base-year value, as determined in accordance with Section 110.1, with the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1, determined as of the date immediately prior to the date that the original property is sold by the claimant.

If the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed after the transfer of the original property, "base-year value of the original property" also includes any inflation factor adjustments permitted by subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period subsequent to the sale of the original property. The base year or years used to compute the "base-year value of the original property" shall be deemed to be the base year or years of any property to which that base-year value is transferred pursuant to this section.

(3) "Replacement dwelling" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of a replacement dwelling includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate replacement dwelling.

(4) "Original property" means a building, structure, or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, which is owned and occupied by a claimant as his or her principal place of residence, and any land owned by the claimant on which the building, structure, or other shelter is situated. For purposes of this paragraph, land constituting a part of original property includes only that area of reasonable size which is used as a site for a residence, and "land owned by the claimant" includes land for which the claimant either holds a leasehold interest described in subdivision (c) of Section 61 or a land purchase contract. Each unit of a multiunit dwelling shall be considered a separate original property.

(5) "Equal or lesser value" means that the amount of the full cash value of a replacement dwelling does not exceed one of the following:

(A) One hundred percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed prior to the date of the sale of the original property.

(B) One hundred and five percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the first year following the date of the sale of the original property.

(C) One hundred and ten percent of the amount of the full cash value of the original property if the replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed within the second year following the date of the sale of the original property.

For the purposes of this paragraph, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (h), if the replacement dwelling is, in part, purchased and, in part, newly constructed, the date the "replacement dwelling is purchased or newly constructed" is the date of purchase or the date of completion of construction, whichever is later.

(6) "Full cash value of the replacement dwelling" means its full cash value, determined in accordance with Section 110.1, as of the date on which it was purchased or new construction was completed, and after the purchase or the completion of new construction.

(7) "Full cash value of the original property" means its new base-year value, determined in accordance with subdivision (e), without the application of subdivision (h) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, plus the adjustments permitted by subdivision (b) of Section 2 of Article XIII A and subdivision (f) of Section 110.1 for the period from the date of its sale by the claimant to the date on which the replacement property was purchased or new construction was completed.

(8) "Sale" means any change in ownership of the original property for consideration.

(9) "Claimant" means any person claiming the property tax relief provided by this section. If a spouse of that person is a record owner of the replacement dwelling, the spouse is also a claimant for purposes of determining whether in any future claim filed by the spouse under this section the condition of eligibility specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (b) has been met.

(10) "Property which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption" includes property which is the principal place of residence of its owner and is entitled to exemption pursuant to Section 205.5.

(11) "Person" means any individual, but does not include any firm, partnership, association, corporation, company, or other legal entity or organization of any kind.

(12) "Severely and permanently disabled" means any person described in subdivision (b) of Section 74.3.

(h) (1) Upon the timely filing of a claim, the assessor shall adjust the new base-year value of the replacement dwelling in conformity with this section. This adjustment shall be made as of the latest of the following dates:

(A) The date the original property is sold.

(B) The date the replacement dwelling is purchased.

(C) The date the new construction of the replacement dwelling is completed.

(2) Any taxes which were levied on the replacement dwelling prior to the filing of the claim on the basis of the replacement dwelling's new base-year value, and any allowable annual adjustments thereto, shall be canceled or refunded to the claimant to the extent that the taxes exceed the amount which would be due when determined on the basis of the adjusted new base-year value.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 75.10, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75) shall be utilized for purposes of implementing this subdivision, including adjustments of the new base-year value of replacement dwellings acquired prior to the sale of the original property.

(4) In the case where a claim under this section has been timely filed and granted, and new construction is performed upon the replacement dwelling subsequent to the transfer of base-year value, the property tax relief provided by this section also shall apply to the replacement dwelling, as improved, and thus there shall be no reassessment upon completion of the new construction if both of the following conditions are met:

(A) The new construction is completed within two years of the date of the sale of the original property and the owner notifies the assessor in writing of completion of the new construction within 30 days after completion.

(B) The fair market value of the new construction on the date of completion, plus the full cash value of the replacement dwelling on the date of acquisition, is not more than the full cash value of the original property as determined pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) for purposes of granting the original claim.

(i) Any claimant may rescind a claim for the property tax relief provided by this section and shall not be considered to have received that relief for purposes of paragraph (7) of subdivision (b), if a written notice of rescission is delivered to the office of the assessor in which the original claim was filed and all of the following have occurred:

(1) The notice is signed by the original filing claimant or claimants.

(2) The notice is delivered to the office of the assessor before the date that the county first issues, as a result of relief granted under this section, a refund check for property taxes imposed upon the replacement dwelling. If granting relief will not result in a refund of property taxes, then the notice shall be delivered before payment is first made of any property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling consistent with relief granted under this section. If payment of the taxes is not made, then notice shall be delivered before the first date that those property taxes, or any portion thereof, imposed upon the replacement dwelling, consistent with relief granted under this section, are delinquent.

(3) The notice is accompanied by the payment of a fee as the assessor may require, provided that the fee shall not exceed an amount reasonably related to the estimated cost of processing a rescission claim, including both direct costs and developmental and indirect costs, such as costs for overhead, personnel, supplies, materials, office space, and computers.

(j) (1) This section, except as provided in paragraph (2), shall apply to any replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after November 6, 1986.

(2) With respect to the transfer of base-year value by a severely and permanently disabled person, this section shall apply only to replacement dwellings which are purchased or newly constructed on or after June 6, 1990.

(k) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision shall become operative on January 1, 1999.

SEC. 4. Section 74.3 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

74.3. (a) For purposes of subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, "newly constructed" does not include the construction, installation, or modification of any portion or structural component of an existing single- or multiple-family dwelling which is eligible for the homeowner's exemption as described in Section 218, if the construction, installation, or modification is for the purpose of making the dwelling more accessible to a severely and permanently disabled person who is a permanent resident of the dwelling.

(b) For purposes of this section, "a severely and permanently disabled person" is any person who has a physical disability or impairment, whether from birth or by reason of accident or disease, which results in a functional limitation as to employment or substantially limits one or more major life activity of that person, and which has been diagnosed as permanently affecting the person's ability to function, including, but not limited to, any disability or impairment which affects sight, speech, hearing, or the use of any limbs.

(c) For purposes of this section, "accessible" means that combination of elements with regard to any dwelling which provides for access to, circulation throughout, and the full use of, the dwelling and any fixture, facility, or item therein.

(d) The exclusion provided by this section shall apply only to those improvements or features that specially adapt a dwelling accessibility by a severely and permanently disabled person. The value of any improvement, addition, or modification excluded pursuant to this section shall not include any other functional improvement, addition, or modification to the property unless it is merely incidental to the qualified improvements or features.

(e) The exclusion provided by this section shall not apply to the construction of an entirely new dwelling.

(f) The construction, installation, or modification, with regard to an existing building, for purposes of making the structure more accessible to a disabled person, shall be eligible for exclusion pursuant to this section only if the disabled person, or his or her spouse or legal guardian, submits to the assessor both of the following:

(1) A statement signed by a licensed physician or surgeon, of appropriate specialty which certifies that the person is severely and permanently disabled as defined in subdivision (b), and identifies specific disability-related requirements necessitating accessibility improvements or features.

(2) A statement that identifies the construction, installation, or modification that was in fact necessary to make the structure more accessible to the disabled person.

(g) The assessor may charge a fee to the disabled person or his or her spouse or legal guardian sufficient to reimburse the assessor for the costs of processing and administering the statement required by subdivision (f).

(f) This section shall apply to construction, installations, or modifications completed on or after June 6, 1990.

SEC. 5. Section 75.55 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

75.55. (a) A county board of supervisors may, by ordinance, provide for the cancellation of any supplemental tax bill in which the amount of taxes to be billed is less than the cost of administration. In no event shall any supplemental tax bill be canceled pursuant to this subdivision if the amount of taxes on that bill exceeds twenty dollars ($20).

(b) Except where a county board of supervisors has adopted an ordinance pursuant to subdivision (a), a county board of supervisors may, by ordinance, provide for the cancellation by the assessor of any supplemental assessment where that assessment would result in an amount of taxes due which is less than the cost of assessing and collecting those taxes. In no event shall any supplemental assessment be canceled pursuant to this subdivision if the amount of taxes resulting from that supplemental assessment would exceed twenty dollars ($20).

(c) Notwithstanding this section, no taxable real property shall be exempt from property taxes assessed on the lien date, as provided in Section 2192, unless the property is otherwise exempt under this division.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act were expressly included in a ballot measure approved by the voters in a statewide election, and because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to fund the costs of the program or level of services mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 7. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 63.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 124. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1991, (2) each bill amends Section 63.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 124, in which case Section 63.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by SB 124, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 1.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 8. (a) Sections 2.3 and 3.3 of this bill incorporate amendments to Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2835. They shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1991, (2) each bill amends Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, (3) AB 3723 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 2835, in which case Sections 2, 2.5, 2.7, 3, 3.5, and 3.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Sections 2.5 and 3.5 of this bill incorporate amendments to Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3723. They shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1991, (2) each bill amends Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, (3) AB 2835 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 3723 in which case Sections 2, 2.3, 2.7, 3, 3.3, and 3.7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Sections 2.7 and 3.7 of this bill incorporate amendments to Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by this bill, AB 2835, and AB 3723. They shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1991, (2) all three bills amend Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2835 and AB 3723, in which case Sections 2, 2.3, 2.5, 3, 3.3, and 3.5 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 9. The amendments made by Sections 2.3, 2.7, 3.3, and 3.7 of this act to Section 69.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code with respect to new construction performed upon a replacement dwelling subsequent to the transfer of base-year value to that dwelling shall only apply with respect to a replacement dwelling which is purchased or newly constructed on or after January 1, 1991.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the property tax relief authorized by Proposition 110, which was approved by the voters at the June 5, 1990, primary election, may be implemented as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1495

An act to amend Sections 5070.3, and 5071.7 of, to add Section 5077.8 to, to repeal and add Section 5077.5 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to parks and recreation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5070.3 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5070.3. Unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions shall govern construction of this article:

(a) "Affirmative access area" means an area of already existing disability access improvements along a heritage corridor.

(b) "Committee" means the California Recreational Trails Committee.

(c) "Heritage corridor" means a regional, state, or nationwide alignment of historical, natural, or conservation education significance, with roads, state and other parks, greenways, or parallel recreational trails, intended to have guidebooks, signs, and other features to enable self-guiding tourism, and environmental conservation education along most of its length and of all or some of the facilities open to the public along its length, with an emphasis on facilities whose physical and interpretive accessibility meet "whole-access" goals.

(d) "Heritage corridors access map" means a 1:500,000 publicly distributed map combining listings and locations of parks, trails, museums, and roadside historical and natural access points, including disability and interpretive access data, along designated heritage corridors.

(e) "Plan" means the California Recreational Trails System Plan.

(f) "System" means the California Recreational Trails System.

(g) "Whole-access" means a general level of trail and human accessibility that includes not only disabled persons but all others making up the "easy-access" majority of the public. This level of accessibility may also benefit from amplified concepts of natural terrain accessibility and cooperation with volunteer and nonprofit accessibility groups.

SEC. 2. Section 5071.7 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5071.7. (a) (1) In planning the system, the director shall consult with and seek the assistance of the Department of Transportation. The Department of Transportation shall plan and design those trail routes that are in need of construction contiguous to state highways and serve both a transportation and a recreational need.

(2) The Department of Transportation shall install or supervise the installation of signs along heritage corridors consistent with the plan element developed pursuant to this section and Section 5073.1; provided, however, that it shall neither install nor supervise the installation of those signs until it determines that it has available to it adequate volunteers or funds, or a combination thereof, to install or supervise the installation of the signs, or until the Legislature appropriates sufficient funds for the installation or supervision of installation, whichever occurs first.

(b) The element of the plan relating to boating trails and other segments of the system which are oriented to waterways shall be prepared and maintained by the Department of Boating and Waterways pursuant to Article 2.6 (commencing with Section 68) of Chapter 2 of Division 1 of the Harbors and Navigation Code. Those segments shall be integrated with the California Protected Waterways Plan developed pursuant to Chapter 1273 of the Statutes of 1968, and shall be planned so as to be consistent with the preservation of rivers of the California Wild and Scenic Rivers System, as provided in Chapter 1.4 (commencing with Section 5093.50) of this division.

(c) Any element of the plan relating to trails and areas for the use of off/highway motor vehicles shall be prepared and maintained by the Division of Off/Highway Motor Vehicle Recreation pursuant to Chapter 1.25 (commencing with Section 5090.01).

(d) In planning the system, the director shall consult with and seek the assistance of the Department of Rehabilitation, representatives of its California Access Network volunteers, and nonprofit disability access groups to assure that adequate provision is made for publicizing the potential use of recreational trails, including heritage corridors by physically disabled persons.

SEC. 3. Section 5073.1 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 5077.5 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 5077.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5077.5. (a) Because of California's unique potential to encourage initial stages of a nationwide heritage network, the following northern California portions of an eventual nationwide heritage network are hereby designated as heritage corridors:

(1) The California Pioneer and Goldrush Heritage Corridor as the western end of the Transcontinental Historic Heritage Corridor, from San Francisco Bay via the North Lincoln Highway, Highway 40, and present Interstate 80 to Sacramento, Truckee, and the Nevada border.

(2) The Tahoe Pacific/Farms & Forests State Heritage Corridor, as the alternate western end of the Transcontinental Scenic Heritage Corridor, to extend from Fort Bragg to the Pacific Crest along Highway 20, Interstate 80, and south along Highway 89 to South Lake Tahoe and the Nevada border.

(3) The North Central California Coast Heritage Corridor from the San Mateo County Line to Patrick's Point State Park in Humboldt County.

(b) In order to assist establishment and public involvement with the heritage corridors established in subdivision (a), the director and affected state agencies shall work with nonprofit disability access groups in producing a heritage corridors access map, as defined in Section 5070.3, to be called the North Central California Heritage Corridor Trails and Disability Access Map.

SEC. 6. Section 5077.8 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5077.8. In order to promote disability access along the heritage corridors, the director shall recognize the South Yuba Independence Trail South Yuba Project as one of California's primary wheelchair wilderness and backpacking trails.

SEC. 7. (a) If funds are not appropriated in the 1990–91 Budget Act, there are hereby appropriated from the Public Resources Account in the Cigarette and Tobacco Products Surtax Fund to the Department of Parks and Recreation, for expenditures during the 1990–91 to 1993–94 fiscal years, inclusive, the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) to be expended as matching grants to a cooperating nonprofit disability access group with ten thousand dollars ($10,000) being for production of camera ready copy of the California Heritage Trails and Disability Access Map and ten thousand dollars ($10,000) being for the printing thereof. Portions of that amount, as determined by the Department of Parks and Recreation, shall be made available to the corridor group as soon as possible after a contract is signed with the department. The contract shall specify camera-ready map materials at 1:500,000 for the map front, informational data for the map back, and other conditions.

(b) There is hereby appropriated from the State Highway Account in the State Transportation Fund for expenditure in the 1990–91, 1991–92, and 1992–93 fiscal years the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) for matching grants to be made by the Department of Transportation to Placer and Nevada Counties for signing the North Lincoln Highway as it existed about 1930, from Roseville to Truckee along Taylor Road and other portions of old Highway 40. The signing shall consist of a new but historically appropriate Lincoln Highway sign, and also shall consist of signs to museums; historic landmarks; spur interest points such as the Highway 174/Bear River Bridge, Coloma, and the Donner Alder Creek Camp; vista points; roadside rests and overlooks; organized trails where appropriate; town historic districts; and with proper indication by blue signs to those facilities which include recognized disability access.

CHAPTER 1496

An act to amend Section 3123 of the Civil Code, relating to mechanics' liens.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3123 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3123. (a) The liens provided for in this chapter shall be direct liens, and shall be for the reasonable value of the labor, services, equipment, or materials furnished or for the price agreed upon by the claimant and the person with whom he or she contracted, whichever is less. The lien shall not be limited in amount by the price stated in the contract as defined in Section 3088, except as provided in Sections 3235 and 3236 and in subdivision (c) of this section.

(b) This section does not preclude the claimant from including in the lien any amount due for labor, services, equipment, or materials furnished based on a written modification of the contract or as a result of the rescission, abandonment, or breach of the contract. However, in the event of rescission, abandonment, or breach of the contract, the amount of the lien may not exceed the reasonable value of the labor, services, equipment, and materials furnished by the claimant.

(c) The owner shall notify the prime contractor and construction lenders of any changes in the contract if the change has the effect of increasing the price stated in the contract by 5 percent or more.

CHAPTER 1497

An act to amend Section 23186 of, and to add Section 23186.5 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23186 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23186. (a) For income years ending in 1987, the rate of tax on banks and financial corporations shall be a percentage equal to the percentage of the total amount of net income, allocable to this state, of every corporation taxable under Article 2 (commencing with Section 23151) of this chapter, other than public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act, for the next preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended during such calendar year, required to be paid to this state as franchise taxes according to or measured by such net income, and required to be paid to this state or its political subdivisions by such corporations as personal property taxes and business license taxes during the preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended in such calendar year; provided, however, that said rate of tax shall not exceed 11.7 percent. The percentage of the net income of every corporation taxable under Article 2 (commencing with Section 23151) of this chapter, other than public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act, required to be paid to this state or its political subdivisions in personal property taxes and business license taxes shall be determined by ascertaining the ratio which the total amount of such personal property taxes and business license taxes, less the rate prescribed in Section 23151, bears to the total amount of net income of such corporations allocable to California, increased by the amount of such personal property taxes and business license taxes; provided, however, that if any such corporation sustains a net loss allocable to California the personal property taxes and business license taxes required to be paid by such corporation to this state or its political subdivisions during the preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended during such calendar year shall be considered for the purpose of determining such ratio only to the extent which such personal property taxes and business license taxes exceed such net loss allocable to California. Total amounts of net income shall be determined without regard to deductions attributable to carryover or carryback of net operating losses (if any).

(b) For income years ending in 1988 and thereafter, the rate of tax on banks and financial corporations shall be the lesser of 11.7 percent or a percentage equal to the sum of:

(1) The rate of tax specified in Section 23151 (relating to tax on general corporations), and

(2) The "in-lieu" rate, as defined by subdivision (c).

(c) The "in-lieu" rate is defined as a fraction:

(1) The numerator of which is the total amount required to be paid to this state and its political subdivisions as personal property taxes and business license taxes; and

(2) The denominator of which is the total amount of net income allocated and apportioned to this state, by every corporation taxable under Article 2 (commencing with Section 23151) of this chapter, other than public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act, for the year preceding the income year.

(3) For purposes of computing the "in-lieu" rate:

(A) Personal property and business license taxes paid by corporations whose net income is a loss for the year shall be included in the numerator only to the extent that the amount of personal property and business license taxes exceed that loss.

(B) After applying subparagraph (A), the numerator shall be reduced by the amount of tax savings that are attributable to the deduction of those taxes under this part.

(C) The denominator shall be increased to the extent that personal property and business license taxes paid were deducted in arriving at net income, and to the extent of any net operating loss deductions.

(d) For income years ending in 1982 and thereafter, for the purposes of subdivision (c), the total amount of personal property taxes and business license taxes required to be paid during the income year shall be based on a statistical sample by the Franchise Tax Board, consisting of all of the following:

(1) Every corporation with a net income determined without regard to deductions attributable to carryover or carryback of net operating losses (if any) of more than five million dollars ($5,000,000) for the income year.

(2) Every corporation required to pay one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or more of personal property tax or business license tax, or a combination thereof, during the income year.

(3) Two percent or more of all other corporations on a random basis.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "corporation" means a corporation taxable under Article 2 (commencing with Section 23151), other than public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act.

(e) For the purpose of verifying local business license taxes reported by corporations taxable under Article 2 (commencing with Section 23151), other than public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act, the Franchise Tax Board is authorized to receive source information listings directly from the cities as to the amount of business license taxes paid and the date of payment for each taxpayer subject to the business license tax, notwithstanding any city ordinance prohibiting that disclosure.

(f) If, after notice and demand by the Franchise Tax Board, a taxpayer declines or refuses to furnish the Franchise Tax Board with information regarding personal property taxes, business license taxes, or net income required to determine the rate of tax on banks and financial corporations as provided by this section, then in that event, unless the failure is due to reasonable cause, the Franchise Tax Board shall disallow any deductions claimed by a taxpayer for the applicable period for personal property taxes and business license taxes and a penalty of five thousand dollars ($5,000) shall be assessed.

SEC. 2. Section 23186.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

23186.5. Notwithstanding Section 23186, for income years ending in 1990 and 1991, the rate of tax on banks and financial corporations shall be equal to the calculated rate that was determined for income years ending in 1989 pursuant to Section 23186.

SEC. 3. The Franchise Tax Board shall, with input from interested parties, submit a report to the Legislature no later than December 31, 1990, which recommends a methodology for calculating the rate of tax on banks and financial corporations without requiring business license tax and personal property tax information to be reported directly by taxpayers. The report shall also contain the projected revenue impact of the recommended methodology.

SEC. 4. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1498

An act to amend Section 66428 of the Government Code, relating to mobilehome parks.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66428 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66428. (a) Local ordinances may require a tentative map where a parcel map is required by this chapter. A parcel map shall be required for subdivisions as to which a final or parcel map is not otherwise required by this chapter, unless the preparation of the parcel map is waived by local ordinance as provided in this section. A parcel map shall not be required for: (1) subdivisions of a portion of the operating right-of-way of a railroad corporation defined by Section 230 of the Public Utilities Code, which are created by short-term leases (terminable by either party on not more than 30 days' notice in writing), or (2) land conveyed to or from a governmental agency, public entity, public utility, or for land conveyed to a subsidiary of a public utility for conveyance to that public utility for rights-of-way, unless a showing is made in individual cases, upon substantial evidence, that public policy necessitates a parcel map.

A local agency shall, by ordinance, provide a procedure for waiving the requirement for a parcel map, imposed by this division, including the requirements for a parcel map imposed by Section 66426. The procedure may include provisions for waiving the requirement for a tentative and final map for the construction of a condominium project on a single parcel. The ordinance shall require a finding by the legislative body or advisory agency, that the proposed division of land complies with such requirements as may have been established by this division or local ordinance enacted pursuant thereto as to area, improvement and design, floodwater drainage control, appropriate improved public roads, sanitary disposal facilities, water supply availability, environmental protection, and other requirements of this division or local ordinance enacted pursuant thereto. In any case, where the requirement for a parcel map is waived by local ordinance pursuant to provisions of this section, a tentative map may be required by local ordinance.

If a local ordinance does not require a tentative map where a parcel map is required by this division, the subdivider shall have the option of submitting a tentative map or if he or she desires to obtain the rights conferred by Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 66498.1), a vesting tentative map.

(b) When at least two-thirds of the owners of mobilehomes who are tenants in the mobilehome park sign a petition indicating their intent to purchase the mobilehome park for purposes of converting it to tenant-owned, condominium ownership interest, and a field survey is performed, the requirement for a parcel map or a tentative and final map specified by Section 66426, shall be waived unless any of the following exist:

(1) There are significant design or improvement requirements necessitated by health or safety concerns.

(2) Subsequent to recordation of the existing parcel or final map, there is an exterior boundary discrepancy that requires recordation of a new parcel or tentative and final map.

(3) The existing lot or lots were not created by a recorded parcel or final map.

(4) The conversion would result in the creation of additional parcels.

(c) The petition signed by owners of mobilehomes in a mobilehome park proposed for conversion to a tenant-owned, condominium ownership interest pursuant to subdivision (b) shall read as follow:

MOBILEHOME PARK PETITION AND DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

SIGNING THIS PETITION INDICATES YOUR SUPPORT FOR CONVERSION OF THIS MOBILEHOME PARK TO A CONDOMINIUM INTEREST PROJECT. THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT CONCERNS THE REAL PROPERTY SITUATED IN THE CITY OF _____, COUNTY OF _____, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, DESCRIBED AS _____. THE TOTAL COST FOR CONVERSION AND PURCHASE OF THE PARK IS $____ TO $_____, EXCLUDING FINANCING COSTS. THE TOTAL COST TO YOU FOR CONVERSION AND PURCHASE OF YOUR OWNERSHIP INTEREST IS $____ TO $_____, EXCLUDING FINANCING COSTS. IF TWO-THIRDS OF THE RESIDENTS IN THIS PARK SIGN THIS PETITION INDICATING THEIR INTENT TO PURCHASE THE MOBILEHOME PARK FOR PURPOSES OF CONVERTING IT TO A CONDOMINIUM INTEREST PROJECT, THEN THE REQUIREMENTS FOR A NEW PARCEL, OR TENTATIVE AND FINAL SUBDIVISION MAP IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE SUBDIVISION MAP ACT MUST BE WAIVED, WITH CERTAIN VERY LIMITED EXCEPTIONS. WAIVING THESE PROVISIONS OF LAW ELIMINATES NUMEROUS PROTECTIONS WHICH ARE AVAILABLE TO YOU.

_____ _____

Buyer, unit #, date Petitioner, date

After the waiver application is deemed complete pursuant to Section 65943, the local agency shall approve or deny the application within 60 days. The applicant shall have the right to appeal that decision to the governing body of the local agency.

If a tentative or parcel map is required, the local agency shall not impose any onsite or offsite design or improvement requirements unless necessary to mitigate an existing health or safety condition. No other dedications, improvements, or in-lieu fees shall be required by the local agency. In no case shall the mitigation of a health or safety condition have the effect of reducing the number or changing the location of existing mobilehome spaces.

If the local agency imposes requirements on an applicant to mitigate a health or safety condition, the applicant and the local agency shall enter into an unsecured improvement agreement. The local agency shall not require bonds or other security devices pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 66499) for the performance of that agreement. The applicant shall have a period of one year from the date the agreement was executed to complete those improvements.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1499

An act to add Section 10149 to the Business and Professions Code, to add Section 2079.8 to the Civil Code, relating to real estate transactions.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10149 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

10149. (a) On or before January 1, 1992, the Seismic Safety Commission shall develop, adopt, and publish a Homeowner's Guide to Earthquake Preparedness for distribution to licensees for purposes of Section 2079.8 of the Civil Code and, upon request, to any member of the general public.

(b) In developing the guide, the Seismic Safety Commission shall consult with the Office of Emergency Services, the Division of Mines and Geology of the Department of Conservation, the Department of Real Estate, and other interested agencies and persons.

(c) The commission shall, to the extent possible, rely on currently available data to develop the guide. To the extent necessary, the commission may contract for the development and production of the guide. The commission shall update the contents of the guide whenever it determines that information within the guide is sufficiently inaccurate or incomplete so as to reduce the effectiveness of the guide. The commission shall charge a fee to cover the costs of production, distribution, development, and updating the guide.

(d) The guide shall include, but need not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Maps and information on geologic and seismic hazard conditions for all areas of the state.

(2) Explanations of the related structural and nonstructural hazards.

(3) Recommendations for mitigating the hazards of an earthquake.

(4) A statement that there are no guarantees of safety or damage prevention that can be made with respect to a major earthquake and that only precautions, such as retrofitting, can be taken to reduce the risk of various types of eathquake damage. For purposes of preparing the statement, the department shall confer with insurers and design professional associations.

SEC. 2. Section 2079.8 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

2079.8. (a) If a Homeowner's Guide to Earthquake Preparedness described in Section 10149 of the Business and Professions Code is delivered to a transferee in connection with the transfer of real property, including property specified in Section 1102 or under Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 2621) of Division 2 of the Public Resources Code, a seller or broker is not required to provide additional information concerning, and the information shall be deemed to be adequate to inform the transferee regarding, geologic and seismic hazards, in general, as described in the guide, that may affect real property and mitigating measures that the transferee or seller might consider.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), nothing in this section increases or decreases the duties, if any, of sellers or brokers, including, but not limited to, the duties of a seller or broker under this article, Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 1102) of Chapter 2 of Title 4 of Part 4 of Division 2, or under Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 2621) of Division 2 of the Public Resources Code, or alters the duty of a seller or broker to disclose the existence of known hazards on or affecting the real property.

CHAPTER 1500

An act to amend Sections 76.3 and 76.6 of, and to add Sections 77 and 77.1 to, the Harbors and Navigation Code, relating to boating.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 76.3 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

76.3. (a) The department may make loans to private marina owners for construction costs, not including planning, design, and other similar expenses, to develop a recreational marina. Loan funds from the department shall be utilized for berthing facilities, dredging, parking, public access facilities, restrooms, vessel pumpout facilities, utilities, landscaping, and other incidental boating-related amenities.

(b) No loan made by the department to a private marina owner shall exceed 50 percent of the funds annually budgeted for purposes of this article.

(c) The department shall not make a loan to a recreational marina that restricts access or bars the public other than what is consistent with general commercial business practices.

(d) Any private marina owner who purchases facilities previously developed with a department loan is eligible to apply for a new construction loan from the department.

SEC. 1.5. Section 76.3 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

76.3. (a) The department may make loans to private marina owners for construction costs, not including planning, design, and other similar expenses, to develop a recreational marina. Loan funds from the department may be utilized for berthing facilities, dredging, parking, public access facilities, restrooms, vessel pumpout facilities, oil recycling facilities, utilities, landscaping, receptacles for the purpose of separating, reusing, or recycling all solid waste materials, and other incidental boating-related amenities.

(b) No loan made by the department to a private marina owner shall exceed 50 percent of the funds annually budgeted for purposes of this article.

(c) The department shall not make a loan to a recreational marina that restricts access or bars the public other than what is consistent with general commercial business practices.

(d) Any private marina owner who purchases facilities previously developed with a department loan is eligible to apply for a new construction loan from the department.

SEC. 2. Section 76.6 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

76.6. Loans made under this article shall include, but are not limited to, the following terms and conditions:

(a) The annual rate of interest charged by the department shall be a rate equal to 1 percent per annum plus the prevailing rate of interest existing in the marketplace for lending institutions' most creditworthy borrowers. For purposes of this article, the prevailing rate of interest existing in the marketplace for lending institutions' most creditworthy borrowers means the prime or base rate of interest.

(b) The department shall require collateral in the amount of 110 percent of the loan.

(c) The length of a loan shall not exceed 20 years, or be longer than the length of the borrower's leasehold estate, including renewal options, if the loan is based upon a leasehold estate of the borrower.

(d) All loans shall amortize the principal over the term of the loan. However, a loan shall become due and payable in full if the borrower sells or otherwise transfers the recreational marina developed with departmental funds, unless the transfer is, by reason of the death of the borrower, to the borrower's heirs, or the transfer is to another business entity controlled by the borrower in a transaction that does not result in a material change in control or ownership of the recreational marina.

(e) The department's loans shall not be subordinated to any future loans obtained by a private marina owner, except in those cases involving loans acquired for refinancing previous senior loans.

SEC. 3. Section 77 is added to the Harbors and Navigation Code, to read:

77. (a) The department, subject to the approval of the Director of Finance, may borrow funds from the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund when a borrower has defaulted from any financial obligation and funds are required to protect the security interest of the department with respect to any loan made under Section 76.3.

(b) The funds borrowed under this section shall be repaid within three years from the date of the approval of the Director of Finance. The repayment shall include the principal amount of the loan, plus interest equal to the rate of earnings of money deposited in the Surplus Money Investment Fund at the time the loan is approved by the Director of Finance.

(c) A maximum of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) per year may be used for purposes of this section.

(d) The borrowed funds may be used to do any of the following:

(1) Pay any administrative and legal expenses incurred in connection with those defaults.

(2) Acquire through negotiated purchase or bid at auction any property which serves as collateral for those defaulted loans.

(3) Pay any costs of operating and maintaining a recreational marina acquired as a result of a failed loan, until the marina is sold.

SEC. 4. Section 77.1 is added to the Harbors and Navigation Code, to read:

77.1. The department, upon whatever terms and conditions it deems proper, may sell or otherwise dispose of property serving as collateral for a defaulted loan made under Section 76.3 or may operate, contract to operate, or let property involved in the default. All proceeds from any action of the department pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund and credited towards the repayment of the defaulted loan.

SEC. 5. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 76.3 of the Harbors and Navigation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3559. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1991, (2) each bill amends Section 76.3 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3559, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1501

An act to add Sections 44227.7 and 56244 to the Education Code, relating to schools.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The National Institutes of Health states that 10 to 15 percent of our population have learning disabilities.

(b) In California, dyslexia is a specific language disability that often goes undetected in many children.

(c) Preservice and in-service programs for regular education and special education teachers in California need to provide more emphasis on recognizing characteristics of pupils with dyslexia and need updated teaching strategies for public school pupils with dyslexia and its related disorders.

(d) Regular education and special education teachers in California do not have state program guidelines available to them as a resource to assist them in identifying, assessing, planning, providing, evaluating, and improving educational services to pupils with dyslexia and its related disorders.

SEC. 2. (a) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall develop program guidelines for specific learning disabilities, including dyslexia and other related disorders, for use by regular and special educators and parents to assist them in identifying, assessing, planning, providing, evaluating, and improving educational services to pupils. The program guidelines shall include characteristics typical of pupils with dyslexia and related disorders and include strategies for their remediation. The superintendent shall consult with teachers, administrators, other education professionals, medical professionals, parents, and professionals involved in the identification and treatment of specific learning disabilities, including dyslexia and other related disorders. The program guidelines shall be completed in time for use no later than the beginning of the 1992–93 academic year. Once the program guidelines are completed, the superintendent shall disseminate them, and provide technical assistance regarding their use and implementation, to parents, teachers, administrators, and faculty members in teacher training programs of institutions of higher education.

(b) The State Department of Education shall use available discretionary federal funds for the purpose of developing program guidelines as required under subdivision (a).

SEC. 3. Section 44227.7 is added to the Education Code, to read:

44227.7. The Legislature encourages institutions of higher education to provide, in teacher training programs, increased emphasis on the recognition of, and teaching strategies for, specific learning disabilities, including dyslexia and related disorders. Experts in the field of these disabilities should be utilized for that purpose.

SEC. 4. Section 56244 is added to the Education Code, to read:

56244. The Legislature encourages the inclusion, in local in-service training programs for regular education teachers and special education teachers in school districts, special education local plan areas, and county offices of education, of a component on the recognition of, and teaching strategies for, specific learning disabilities, including dyslexia and related disorders.

CHAPTER 1502

An act to add Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 57501), Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 57551), and Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 57700) to Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agricultural liens.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 57501) is added to Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

CHAPTER 12. POULTRY AND FISH SUPPLY LIEN

Article 1. Definitions

57501. "Eggs or egg" means eggs or egg products as defined in Section 27512, 27513, or 27514.

57502. "Feed or materials" means commercial feed, grain, forage, feed ingredients, mineral feed, drugs, poultry or fish health products, customer-formula feed, any mixture or preparation for feeding poultry or fish, any of the constituent nutrients of a poultry or fish ration, or any other food which is used for the feeding of poultry or fish.

57503. "Fowl" means chickens, turkeys, ducks, geese, and other domesticated birds.

57504. "Poultry" means domesticated fowl and domesticated rabbit which is intended for use for human food.

57505. "Proceeds" means funds derived from the sale of eggs, poultry, fish, or other products derived from eggs, poultry, or fish payable to the lien debtor. "Proceeds" do not include any of the following:

(a) Deductions for taxes, fees, and assessments.

(b) Funds due or owing egg or poultry processing cooperative associations organized and operating pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001).

(c) Funds retained by the cooperative association.

(d) Deductions made pursuant to a court order.

57506. "Raising or maintaining of poultry or fish" means feeding, housing, caring for, and managing poultry or fish kept or raised for use or profit.

57507. "Reasonable or agreed charges" means the agreed price, if any, for the feed and materials sold to the lien debtor, at the lien debtor's request. If there is no agreed price or a method for determining price which is agreed upon, "reasonable or agreed charges" means the reasonable value of the feed or materials as of the date of delivery.

Article 2. Poultry and Fish Supply Lien

57510. A person who provides feed or materials to aid the raising or maintaining of poultry or fish or for the production of eggs has a lien upon the proceeds of the sale of the eggs, poultry, fish, or other products derived from eggs, poultry, or fish, for the reasonable or agreed charges for the feed or materials provided, and for the costs of enforcing the lien. However, the amount of charges secured by the lien shall not exceed an amount equal to the reasonable or agreed charges for feed or material provided within a 45-day period, and only two providers of feed or materials shall have an enforceable lien at any time according to the priority set forth in Section 57525.

57511. (a) The lien created pursuant to this chapter attaches to the proceeds.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the notice of claim of lien shall remain in effect, and no new notice of claim of lien shall be required in order to maintain the lien, as long as the person who provides feed or materials either (1) remains unpaid for amounts secured by the lien, or (2) continues to provide feed or materials on a regular basis to the lien debtor. For purposes of this section, providing feed or materials shall not be deemed to be made on a regular basis if a period of more than 30 days elapses between deliveries.

57512. The lien created by this chapter shall be perfected and shall be effective upon the filing of a notice of claim of lien with the Secretary of State pursuant to this article.

57513. Any person who provides feed or materials may, at any time, file in the manner and at the place set forth in this article, the notice of claim of lien.

57514. The notice of claim of lien shall contain all of the following information:

(a) The name and address of the lien claimant.

(b) The name and address of the lien debtor.

(c) The location of the property to which the feed and materials were delivered.

(d) That the lien claimant has a poultry or fish supply lien pursuant to Section 57510.

57515. The notice of claim of lien shall be signed by the lien claimant or by a person authorized to sign documents of a similar kind on behalf of the claimant.

57516. The notice of claim of lien shall be filed on a form which is the standard form of original financing statement prescribed by the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 9403 of the Commercial Code. The standard form shall be completed with the following changes:

(a) The lien claimant may be identified either as a lien claimant or as a secured party.

(b) The form shall be signed by the lien claimant and need not be signed by the lien debtor.

(c) In the space for the description of the collateral there shall instead be entered the information specified in subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 57514.

57517. The notice of claim of lien shall be filed, indexed, and marked in the office of the Secretary of State in the same manner as a financing statement is filed, indexed, and marked pursuant to Section 9403 of the Commercial Code.

57518. The lien claimant shall provide written notice of the claim of lien to the lien debtor within 10 days of the date of the filing with the office of the Secretary of State.

57519. For the purpose of the Secretary of State's index pursuant to Section 9403 of the Commercial Code and for the purpose of the issuance of a certificate pursuant to Section 9407 or 9409 of the Commercial Code, the Secretary of State shall identify a notice pursuant to this article as a financing statement.

Article 3. Priority of Liens

57525. (a) The lien created by this chapter shall have the priority in accordance with the time the notice of claim of lien is filed.

(b) The lien created by this chapter shall have the same priority as a security interest perfected by the filing of a financing statement as of the date the notice of claim of lien was filed.

Article 4. Information Concerning Lien

57530. A member of the public may obtain a certificate identifying whether there is a lien on file and any notice of claim of lien naming a particular debtor, and if so, giving the date and time of filing of each notice, and the names and addresses of each lienholder therein. The fee for the certificate is the same as the fee for a certificate issued pursuant to Section 9407 of the Commercial

Code.

57531. A member of the public may obtain a copy of any notice of claim of lien filed pusuant to this chapter, including notices affecting the notices. The fee for these copies shall be the same as that prescribed in Section 9407 of the Commercial Code.

Article 5. Enforcement of Lien

57535. The lien claimant shall provide written notice to secured creditors at least 30 days prior to enforcing a claim of lien. For the purposes of this section, "secured creditors" means those creditors having a perfected security interest in poultry, eggs, poultry products, fish, fish products, or the proceeds thereof, as of the date the notice of claim of lien is filed with the Secretary of State.

57536. The lien claimant shall foreclose on a lien created by this chapter only in an action to recover the reasonable or agreed charges for feed and materials provided. The final judgment shall be enforced pursuant to Title 9 (commencing with Section 680.010) of the Code of Civil Procedure.

57537. (a) When a lien claimant receives payment for the total amounts secured by the lien and the lien claimant has not provided feed for materials for a period of 30 consecutive days, the lien claimant shall, on written demand by the debtor, send the debtor a statement that he or she no longer claims a security interest under the statement, which shall be identified by the date, names of parties thereto, and file number. If the affected lienholder of record fails to send the termination statement within 10 days after proper demand therefor, he or she is liable to the debtor for actual damages suffered by the debtor by reason of this failure, and, if the failure is in bad faith, for a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100).

(b) The filing officer shall mark each termination statement with the date and time of filing and shall index the statement under the name of the lien debtor and under the file number of the original lien. If the filing officer has a microfilm or other photographic record of the lien and related filings, he or she may remove and destroy the originals from the files at any time after receipt of the termination statement. If the filing officer does not have the record, he or she may remove and destroy the originals from the files at any time after one year after receipt of the termination statement.

Article 6. Assignment of Lien

57540. A lien created pursuant to this chapter is assignable or transferable by the holder of the lien, with full rights of enforcement. The lienholder shall file a statement of assignment or transfer with the Secretary of State in the same manner as a secured party's statement of assignment or transfer as prescribed in Section 9406 of the Commercial Code.

57541. Except to the extent specifically set forth in this chapter, the lien created by this chapter is subject to Division 9 (commencing with Section 9101) of the Commercial Code.

Article 7. Miscellaneous

57545. The Secretary of State may adopt any regulations necessary to carry our his or her duties pursuant to this chapter, including prescribing necessary forms.

SEC. 2. Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 57551) is added to Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

CHAPTER 13. AGRICULTURAL CHEMICAL AND SEED LIEN

Article 1. Definitions

57551. "Agricultural chemical" means fertilizers, fertilizer material, lime, chemical compounds, pesticides, pesticide chemicals, plant regulators, plant amendments, plant food, soil amendments, herbicides, fungicides, and agricultural chemicals that are applied to crops or to land that is used for the raising of crops.

57552. "Agricultural seed" means the seed of any domesticated grass or cereal, of any vegetable, flower, or propagated plant, and of any legume or other plant which is grown as turf, cover crop, forage crop, fiber crop, or field crop, and mixtures of the seed.

57553. "Labor" means labor or service performed in the application, delivery, or preparation of an agricultural chemical or agricultural seed provided by the seller of the agricultural chemical or agricultural seed.

57554. "Proceeds" means funds received by the lien debtor from the sale of the crop on which the agricultural chemical was applied or for which the agricultural seed was used. "Proceeds" do not include any of the following:

(a) Deductions for taxes, fees, and assessments.

(b) Funds due or owing to a cooperative association organized and operating pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001).

(c) Funds retained by the cooperative association.

(d) Deductions made pursuant to a court order.

57555. "Reasonable or agreed charges" means the agreed price, if any, for agricultural chemicals or agricultural seeds sold to the lien debtor, at the lien debtor's request, and for labor. If there is no agreed price or a method for determining price which is agreed upon, "reasonable or agreed charges" means the reasonable value of the agricultural chemicals and labor or agricultural seeds and labor as of the date of application, delivery, or preparation.

Article 2. Agricultural Chemical and Seed Lien

57561. (a) A person who provides agricultural chemical or agricultural seed is not entitled to establish a lien pursuant to this chapter, unless that person has first sent to the lien debtor a written notice, by certified mail, which states all of the following:

(1) The payment of the reasonable or agreed charges is more than 30 days overdue. This requirement does not apply to deliveries of agricultural chemicals and seed and related labor that are made subsequent to deliveries which are overdue.

(2) The amount of reasonable or agreed charges that are overdue.

(3) The lien debtor has the following three alternatives:

(A) Allow the lien to be filed.

(B) Enter into a consensual security interest in the proceeds, pursuant to the Commercial Code.

(C) Pay the reasonable or agreed charges that are overdue.

(4) In 10-point type or bolder, notify the lien debtor that he or she has 10 days from receipt of the notice to select an alternative, notify the lien claimant of the alternative selected, and satisfy all the requirements of the selected alternative, and that the lien claimant may file the notice of claim of lien pursuant to this chapter at any time thereafter if the lien debtor does not comply with the requirements of this section.

(b) A person who provides agricultural chemical or agricultural seed, and has complied with subdivision (a), has a lien upon the proceeds of the crop for the reasonable or agreed charges and for the costs of enforcing the lien.

(c) The lien established pursuant to this chapter attaches to the proceeds of the following:

(1) The crops that existed at the time of application upon the land where the agricultural chemical was applied.

(2) If crops are not planted, the next production crop on that land following the last date on which the agricultural chemical was applied.

(3) The crops produced from the agricultural seed.

(d) The amount of charges secured by the lien shall not exceed an amount equal to the reasonable or agreed charges for agricultural chemicals furnished within a 60-day period and for agricultural seeds furnished within a 45-day period.

57562. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the notice of claim of lien shall remain in effect, and no new notice of claim of lien shall be required in order to maintain the lien, as long as the person who provides the agricultural chemicals and labor or agricultural seeds and labor either (1) remains unpaid for the amounts secured by the lien; or (2) continues to provide agricultural chemicals and labor or agricultural seeds and labor on a regular basis to the lien debtor. For purposes of this section, providing agricultural chemicals and labor or agricultural seeds and labor shall not be deemed to be made on a regular basis if a period of more than 45 days elapses between applications, deliveries, or preparations.

57563. The lien created by this chapter shall be perfected and shall be effective upon the filing of a notice of claim of lien with the Secretary of State pursuant to this article.

57564. Any person who provides agricultural chemicals or agricultural seeds may file in the manner and at the place set forth in Section 57568, the notice of claim of lien. The lien claimant may not file a notice of claim of lien upon the proceeds of crops for agricultural seeds and labor furnished by the lien claimant if an investigation of a dispute between the lien claimant and the lien debtor is pending pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 52332. The lien claimant may not file a notice of claim of lien upon the proceeds of crops for agricultural chemicals and labor furnished by the lien claimant, if the settlement of a dispute between the lien claimant and the lien debtor is pending, or has not been resolved pursuant to Section 57564.5.

57564.5. (a) The director shall, by regulation, establish methods and procedures for the settlement of a dispute between a lien claimant supplying agricultural chemicals and labor and a lien debtor, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Time requirements for submitting the dispute to the department.

(2) Time requirements within which a notice of the dispute shall be submitted to each party.

(3) A process for evaluating the dispute.

(b) Each party to the dispute is equally liable for the reasonable costs incurred by the department in carrying out this section.

57565. The notice of claim of lien shall contain all of the following information:

(a) The name and address of the lien claimant.

(b) The name and address of the lien debtor.

(c) The location of the property to which the agricultural chemicals and labor or agricultural seeds and labor were provided.

(d) A statement that the payment of the reasonable or agreed charges is more than 30 days overdue.

(e) The amount of the reasonable or agreed charges that are overdue.

(f) A statement, signed under penalty of perjury, that the lien claimant sent to the lien debtor the notice required pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 57561, that more than 10 days have elapsed since the notice was received by the lien debtor, and that the lien debtor has not complied with the requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 57561.

(g) That the lien claimant has an agricultural chemical and agricultural seed lien pursuant to Section 57561.

57566. The notice of claim of lien shall be signed by the lien claimant or by a person authorized to sign documents of a similar kind on behalf of the claimant.

57567. The notice of claim of lien shall be filed on a form which is the standard form of original financing statement prescribed by the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 9403 of the Commercial Code. The standard form shall be completed with the following changes:

(a) The lien claimant may be identified either as a lien claimant or as a secured party.

(b) The form shall be signed by the lien claimant and need not be signed by the lien debtor.

(c) In the space for the description of the collateral there shall instead be entered the information specified in subdivisions (c) to (g), inclusive, of Section 57565.

(d) Attached to the form shall be a separately signed statement containing the information specified in subdivision (f) of Section 57565.

57568. The notice of claim of lien shall be filed, indexed, and marked in the office of the Secretary of State in the same manner as a financing statement is filed, indexed, and marked pursuant to Section 9403 of the Commercial Code.

57569. The lien claimant shall provide written notice of the claim of lien to the lien debtor within 10 days of the date of the filing with the office of the Secretary of State.

57570. For the purpose of the Secretary of State's index pursuant to Section 9403 of the Commercial Code and for the purpose of the issuance of a certificate pursuant to Section 9407 or 9409 of the Commercial Code, the Secretary of State shall identify a notice pursuant to this article as a financing statement.

Article 3. Priority of Lien

57575. (a) The lien created pursuant to this chapter shall have the priority in accordance with the time the notice of claim of lien is filed.

(b) The lien created pursuant to this chapter shall have the same priority as a security interest perfected by the filing of a financing statement as of the date the notice of claim of lien was filed.

(c) The lien created pursuant to this chapter shall not have priority over labor claims for wages and salaries for personal services which are provided by any employee to any lien debtor in connection with the production of agricultural products, the proceeds of which are subject to the lien.

Article 4. Information Concerning Lien

57581. A member of the public may obtain a certificate identifying whether there is a lien on file and any notice of claim of lien naming a particular debtor, and if so, giving the date and time of filing of each notice, and the names and addresses of each lienholder in the certificate. The fee for the certificate is the same as the fee for a certificate issued pursuant to Section 9407 of the Commercial Code.

57582. A member of the public may obtain a copy of any notice of an agricultural chemical or seed lien filed, including notices affecting the notices. The fee for these copies shall be the same as that prescribed in Section 9407 of the Commercial Code.

Article 5. Enforcement of Lien

57585. The lien claimant shall provide written notice to secured creditors at least 30 days prior to enforcing a claim of lien. For purposes of this section, "secured creditors" means any entity named as a secured party in a financing statement filed with regard to the debtor and which covers crops subject to the lien, crops growing or grown on the land, or the next production crops to be grown on the land if the crops are not planted, where the agricultural chemical or agricultural seed was provided or applied, farm products, or accounts.

57586. The lien claimant shall foreclose on a lien created by this chapter only in an action to recover the reasonable or agreed charges. The final judgment shall be enforced pursuant to Title 9 (commencing with Section 680.010) of the Code of Civil Procedure.

57587. (a) When a lien claimant receives payment for the total amounts secured by the lien and the lien claimant has not furnished agricultural chemicals or seeds for a period of 45 consecutive days, the lien claimant shall send the lien debtor a statement that he or she no longer claims a security interest under the notice of claim of lien, which shall be identified by the date, names of parties thereto, and file number. If the affected lienholder of record fails to send the termination statement within 10 days, he or she is liable to the debtor for all actual damages suffered by the debtor by reason of this failure, and if the failure is in bad faith, for a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100).

(b) The filing officer shall mark each termination statement with the date and time of filing and shall index the statement under the name of the lien debtor and under the file number of the original lien. If the filing officer has a microfilm or other photographic record of the lien and related filings, he or she may remove and destroy the originals from the files at any time after receipt of the termination statement. If the filing officer does not have the record, he or she may remove and destroy the originals from the files at any time after one year after receipt of the termination statement.

Article 6. Assignment of Lien

57590. (a) A lien created pursuant to this chapter is assignable or transferable by the holder of the lien, with full rights of enforcement.

(b) The lienholder shall file a statement of assignment or transfer with the office of the Secretary of State in the same manner that a statement is filed pursuant to Section 9406 of the Commercial Code.

57591. Except to the extent specifically set forth in this chapter, the lien created by this chapter is subject to Division 9 (commencing with Section 9101) of the Commercial Code.

Article 7. Miscellaneous

57595. The Secretary of State may adopt any regulations necessary to carry out his or her duties pursuant to this chapter, including prescribing necessary forms.

SEC. 3. Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 57700) is added to Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

CHAPTER 14. LIMITATION ON NONCONSENSUAL SUPPLIER LIENS

57700. No more than two liens filed pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 57501) and Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 57551) shall be enforceable against any one lien debtor, even if filed by different lien claimants.

CHAPTER 1503

An act to amend Sections 14543, 14571, 14583, and 14611 of, and to add Sections 14546 and 14586 to, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to fertilizing materials, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14543 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

14543. The board shall be advisory to the director and may make recommendations on all matters pertaining to this chapter, including, but not limited to, the inspection and enforcement program, research and education, the annual budget, necessary fees to provide adequate inspection services, and regulations required to accomplish the purposes of this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 14546 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

14546. The director shall accept the recommendations of the advisory board pertaining to subdivision (b) of Section 14571 if he or she finds them to be practicable and in the interests of the fertilizer industry and the public. If the director does not accept the recommendations of the advisory board, or any part thereof, the director shall provide the board with a written statement within 15 working days of making his or her decision stating the reasons for not accepting the recommendations, or any part thereof.

SEC. 3. Section 14571 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

14571. (a) Each manufacturer, label guarantor, or registrant, whose name appears on the label, shall pay to the director an assessment not to exceed two mills ($0.002) per dollar of sales, for all sales of commercial fertilizers, agricultural minerals, or auxiliary soil and plant substance products. Each person licensed in accordance with Article 4 (commencing with Section 14551) shall pay to the director an assessment not to exceed two mills ($0.002) per dollar of sales, for all sales of bulk commercial fertilizers, agricultural minerals, or auxiliary soil and plant substance products to unlicensed purchasers in this state if the assessment was not paid pursuant to any other requirements of this section. A mill tax assessment for packaged soil amendments shall be one-half of the rate established for commercial fertilizer, agricultural minerals, or auxiliary soil and plant substance products. The director may, based on the finding and recommendation of the board, reduce the mill tax assessment rate to a lower rate which provides sufficient revenue to carry out this chapter.

(b) In addition to the assessment provided in subdivision (a), the director may impose an assessment in an amount not to exceed one mill ($0.001) per dollar of sales on the fertilizers, minerals, and other products described in subdivision (a), to provide funding for research and education regarding the use and handling of commercial and organic fertilizers, including, but not limited to, any environmental effects.

SEC. 4. Section 14583 of the Food and Agricultural Code, as added by Senate Bill 2049 of the 1989–90 Regular Session, is amended to read:

14583. The board shall be advisory to the director and may make recommendations on all matters pertaining to this chapter including, but not limited to, the inspection and enforcement program, research and education, the annual budget, necessary fees to provide adequate inspection services, and regulations required to accomplish the purposes of this chapter.

SEC. 5. Section 14586 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

14586. The director shall accept the recommendations of the advisory board pertaining to subdivision (b) of Section 14611 if he or she finds them to be practicable and in the interests of the fertilizer industry and the public. If the director does not accept the recommendations of the advisory board, or any part thereof, the director shall provide the board with a written statement within 15 working days of making his or her decision stating the reasons for not accepting the recommendations, or any part thereof.

SEC. 6. Section 14611 of the Food and Agricultural Code, as added by Senate Bill 2049 of the 1989–90 Regular Session, is amended to read:

14611. (a) Each manufacturer, label guarantor, or registrant, whose name appears on the label, shall pay to the director an assessment not to exceed two mills ($0.002) per dollar of sales, for all sales of fertilizing materials. Each person licensed pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 14591) shall pay to the director an assessment not to exceed two mills ($0.002) per dollar of sales, for all sales of bulk commercial fertilizers, agricultural minerals, or auxiliary soil and plant substance products to unlicensed purchasers in this state if the assessment was not paid pursuant to any other requirements of this section. The director may, based on the finding and recommendation of the board, reduce the mill tax assessment rate to a lower rate which provides sufficient revenue to carry out this chapter.

(b) In addition to the assessment provided in subdivision (a), the director may impose an assessment in an amount not to exceed one mill ($0.001) per dollar of sales on the fertilizers, minerals, and other products described in subdivision (a), to provide funding for research and education regarding the use and handling of commercial and organic fertilizers, including, but not limited to, any environmental effects.

SEC. 7. Sections 4, 5, and 6 of this act shall only become operative if Senate Bill 2049 of the 1989–90 Regular Session is also chaptered, in which case Sections 1, 2, and 3 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1504

An act to amend Section 199.59 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to AIDS, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 199.59 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

199.59. (a) The recipients of the grants shall use the moneys of the grant to develop an AIDS vaccine until the Federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA) approves the clinical testing of an AIDS vaccine on humans. Any grant funds not encumbered or expended at the time of the FDA approval of the clinical testing of an AIDS vaccine on humans shall not be used by the recipients until the state department authorizes further expenditure or requires the funds to be returned to the AIDS Vaccine Research and Development Grant Fund pursuant to subdivision (b).

(b) If an AIDS vaccine which has received FDA approval for clinical testing on humans has been developed by a grant recipient pursuant to this chapter, then any funds which have been granted to, but not expended or encumbered by, the grant recipient, after approval by the state department, shall be expended for the clinical testing of the vaccine on humans in accordance with the FDA protocol, the continued research and development of the vaccine, or both, for the purpose of optimizing the efficacy of the vaccine during clinical testing.

With respect to the other grant recipients, or when none of the recipients have received the FDA approval for the vaccine they are developing, the committee shall meet to consider whether the grant recipient has a good chance of developing a vaccine which will receive FDA approval for clinical testing on humans and shall make recommendations to the state department. If the state department, taking into consideration the committee's recommendations, determines that the grant recipient has a good chance of developing an FDA approved vaccine, it shall inform the grant recipient in writing to continue expending its grant funds for the development of an AIDS vaccine.

If the state department, taking into consideration the committee's recommendations, determines that the grant recipient does not have a good chance of developing a vaccine which will receive FDA approval for clinical testing on humans, it shall inform the recipient in writing that the funds not encumbered or expended, as described in subdivision (a), shall be returned to the state department for deposit in the AIDS Vaccine Research and Development Grant Fund.

Any funds remaining in the AIDS Vaccine Research and Development Grant Fund after the state department's determinations pursuant to this subdivision, shall, in the state department's discretion, either be expended for (1) further support of the clinical trials of a vaccine developed in whole or in part by a grant recipient or for (2) further research and development of a vaccine by a grant recipient who has been permitted, in accordance with this subdivision, to continue expending grant funds for development of a vaccine, or be expended for (3) both purposes. If no grant recipient is conducting clinical trials or developing a vaccine pursuant to this subdivision, then the moneys in the AIDS Vaccine Research and Development Grant Fund shall revert to the General Fund.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the state department may make grants to applicants even after approval has been given by the federal Food and Drug Administration to conduct clinical testing of an AIDS vaccine on humans.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Funds necessary to continue research for an AIDS vaccine during clinical trials will be lost in the absence of the passage of this act and therefore in order to avoid an end to critically needed research, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1505

An act to add Chapter 2.7 (commencing with Section 800) to Title 2 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Civil Code, relating to floating homes.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 2.7 (commencing with Section 800) is added to Title 2 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Civil Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2.7. FLOATING HOME RESIDENCY LAW

Article 1. General Provisions

800. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Floating Home Residency Law.

800.1. Unless the provisions or context otherwise requires, the following definitions shall govern the construction of this chapter.

800.2. "Management" means the owner of a floating home marina or an agent or representative authorized to act on his or her behalf in connection with matters relating to a tenancy in the floating home marina.

800.3. "Floating home" has the same meaning as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 18075.55 of the Health and Safety Code.

800.4. "Floating home marina" means an area where five or more floating home berths are rented, or held out for rent, to accommodate floating homes, but does not include a marina where 10 percent or fewer of the berths are leased or held out to lease to floating homes.

800.5. "Rental agreement" means an agreement between the management and the homeowner establishing the terms and conditions of a tenancy. A lease is a rental agreement.

800.6. "Homeowner" means a person who owns or resides in a floating home which is in a floating home marina pursuant to a rental agreement with management.

800.7. "Change of use" means a use of the floating home marina for a purpose other than the rental, or the holding out for rent, of five or more floating home berths, and does not mean the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a floating home marina rule or regulation. A change of use may affect an entire floating home marina or any portion thereof. "Change of use" includes, but is not limited to, a change of the floating home marina or any portion thereof to a condominium, stock cooperative, or any form of ownership wherein spaces within the floating home marina are to be sold.

800.8. "Resident" means a homeowner or other person who lawfully occupies a floating home.

800.9. "Tenancy" means the right of a homeowner to the use of a berth within a floating home marina on which to locate, maintain, and occupy a floating home, and accessory structures or vessels, including the use of the services and facilities of the floating home marina.

Article 2. Rental Agreement

800.20. Unless otherwise provided, the management shall make available to floating homeowners, upon request, copies of all notices required by this article and Article 3 (commencing with Section 800.30).

800.21. The rental agreement shall be in writing and shall contain, in addition to the provisions otherwise required by law to be included, all of the following:

(a) The term of the tenancy and the rent therefor.

(b) The rules and regulations of the floating home marina.

(c) A reference to this chapter and a statement that a copy of it is available from the marina upon request.

(d) A provision specifying that it is the responsibility of the management to provide and maintain physical improvements in the common facilities in good working order and condition.

(e) A description of the physical improvements to be provided the homeowner during his or her tenancy.

(f) A provision listing those services which will be provided at the time the rental agreement is executed and will continue to be offered for the term of tenancy and the fees, if any, to be charged for those services.

(g) All other provisions governing the tenancy.

800.22. The rental agreement may include other provisions permitted by law, but need not include specific language contained in state or local laws not a part of this chapter.

800.23. (a) A homeowner shall be offered a rental agreement for (1) a term of 12 months, (2) a lesser period as mutually agreed upon by both the homeowner and the management, (3) a longer period as mutually agreed upon by both the homeowner and the management, or (4) a longer period as necessary to secure financing from a conventional lending institution.

(b) Rental agreements for a prescribed term shall not contain any terms or conditions with respect to charges for rent, utilities, or incidental reasonable service charges that would be different during the first 12 months of the agreement from the corresponding terms or conditions that would be offered to the homeowner or homeowners on a month-to-month basis.

800.24. No rental agreement for a floating home berth shall contain a provision by which the homeowner waives his or her rights under any of the provisions of this chapter. Any waiver of these rights shall be deemed contrary to public policy and void.

800.25. Membership in any private club or organization which is a condition for tenancy in a floating home marina shall not be denied on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, or marital status.

800.26. On or before March 12, 1991, the management shall notify all floating homeowners, in writing, that a copy of the Floating Home Residency Law is available to them, upon request, from the management.

Article 3. Rules and Regulations

800.30. Each common area facility shall be open or available to residents at all reasonable hours, and the hours of the common area facility shall be posted at the facility.

800.31. A rule or regulation of the floating home marina may be amended at any time with the consent of a homeowner, or without his or her consent upon written notice to him or her of not less than six months. Written notice to a new homeowner, whose tenancy commences within the required period of notice, of a proposed amendment shall constitute compliance with this section where the written notice is given to him or her before the inception of his or her tenancy.

800.32. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), and notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the ownership or management of a floating home marina, cooperative, or condominium for floating homes shall have no right of entry to a floating home without the prior written consent of the resident. This consent may be revoked in writing by the resident at any time. The ownership or management shall have a right of entry into the berth in which a floating home is situated for correction of what management determines to be a hazardous condition at any time, or for maintenance of utilities, docks, and common areas at any reasonable time, but not in a manner or at a time which would interfere with the resident's quiet enjoyment.

(b) The ownership or management of a floating home marina, cooperative, or condominium may enter a floating home without the prior written consent of the resident in case of an emergency or when the resident has abandoned the floating home.

800.33. (a) The management shall give written notice to all homeowners and prospective homeowners concerning the following matters: (1) the nature of the zoning or use permit under which the floating home marina operates, (2) if the floating home marina is operating pursuant to a permit subject to a renewal or expiration date, the relevant information and dates shall be included in the notice, and (3) the duration of any lease of the floating home marina, or any portion thereof, in which the management is a lessee.

(b) If a change occurs concerning the zoning or use permit under which the floating home marina operates, a change occurs to the lease under which the management is a lessee and that change could affect the homeowner, including the termination of the lease, litigation occurs regarding termination of the lease, or expiration of a use permit occurs, all homeowners shall be given written notice at least 30 days prior to the effective date of the change. Notification regarding the change of use of the floating home marina, or any portion thereof, shall be governed by subdivision (f) of Section 800.71. A prospective homeowner shall be notified prior to the inception of the tenancy.

800.34. The management of a floating home marina shall disclose, in writing, the name and address of the floating home marina owner upon the request of a homeowner.

Article 4. Fees and Charges

800.40. The management shall give a homeowner written notice of any increase in his or her rent at least 30 days before the date of the increase.

800.41. A homeowner shall not be charged a fee for other than rent, utilities, and incidental reasonable charges for services actually rendered.

A homeowner shall not be charged a fee for obtaining a rental agreement on a floating home berth for (1) a term of 12 months, or (2) a lesser period as mutually agreed upon by both the homeowner and the management. A fee may be charged for a rental agreement of more than one year if the fee is mutually agreed upon by both the homeowner and management.

800.42. A homeowner shall not be charged a fee for services actually rendered which are not listed in the rental agreement unless he or she has been given written notice thereof by the management, at least 60 days before imposition of the charge.

800.43. A homeowner shall not be charged a fee for keeping a pet in the floating home marina unless the management actually provides special facilities or services for pets. If special pet facilities are maintained by the management, the fee charged shall reasonably relate to the cost of maintenance of the facilities or services and the number of pets kept in the floating home marina.

800.44. (a) A homeowner shall not be charged a fee for a guest who does not stay with him or her for more than a total of 20 consecutive days or a total of 30 days in a calendar year. Such a guest shall not be required to register with the management.

(b) A homeowner who is living alone and who wishes to share his or her floating home with one person may do so, and a fee shall not be imposed by management for that person. The person shall be considered a guest of the homeowner and any agreement between the homeowner and the person shall not change the terms and conditions of the rental agreement between management and the homeowner. The guest shall comply with the provisions of the rules and regulations of the floating home marina.

800.45. A homeowner shall not be charged a fee based on the number of members in his or her immediate family. As used in this section, the "immediate family" includes the homeowner and his or her spouse, their parents, and their children.

800.46. A homeowner shall not be charged a fee for the enforcement of any of the rules and regulations of the floating home marina.

800.47. Unless the homeowner specifically requests the service in writing from the management, a homeowner shall not be charged a fee for the entry, installation, hookup, or landscaping as a condition of tenancy except for an actual fee or cost imposed by a local governmental ordinance or requirement directly related to the occupancy of the specific berth where the floating home is located and not incurred as a portion of the development of the floating home marina as a whole. However, reasonable landscaping and maintenance requirements may be included in the floating home marina rules and regulations. The management shall not require a homeowner or prospective homeowner to purchase, rent, or lease goods or services for landscaping from any person, company, or corporation.

800.48. Where the management provides both master meter and submeter service of utilities to a homeowner, for each billing period the cost of the charges for the period shall be separately stated along with the opening and closing readings for his or her meter. The management shall post in a conspicuous place, the prevailing residential utilities rate schedule as published by the serving utility.

800.49. (a) The management may only demand a security deposit on or before initial occupancy and the security deposit may not be in an amount or value in excess of an amount equal to two months' rent that is charged at the inception of the tenancy, in addition to any rent for the first month. In no event shall additional security deposits be demanded of a homeowner following initial occupancy.

(b) After the homeowner has promptly paid to the management within five days of the date the amount is due, all of the rent, utilities, and reasonable service charges for any 12-consecutive-month period subsequent to the collection of the security deposit by the management, or upon resale of the floating home, whichever occurs earlier, the management shall, upon the receipt of a written request from the homeowner, refund to the homeowner the amount of the security deposit within 30 days following the end of the 12-consecutive-month period of prompt payment or the date of the resale of the floating home.

(c) In the event that the interest in the floating home marina is transferred to any other party or entity, the successor in interest shall have the same obligations of management contained in this section with respect to the security deposit.

(d) The management shall not be required to place any security deposit collected in an interest-bearing account or to provide a homeowner with any interest on the security deposit collected.

(e) This section applies to all security deposits collected on or after January 1, 1991. However, any security deposit collected on other than initial occupancy from a homeowner on or before December 31, 1990, shall be refunded on or before January 31, 1991, or within 12 months of having been collected, whichever is later, providing the original term of the rental agreement has been completed.

800.50. The management shall not acquire a lien or security interest, other than an interest arising by reason of process issued to enforce a judgment of any court, in a floating home located in the floating home marina unless it is mutually agreed upon by both the homeowner and management. Any billing and payment upon the obligation shall be kept separate from current rent.

Article 5. Homeowner Meetings

800.60. The management shall permit meetings by homeowners or residents of a floating home in the marina, or any or all of them, relating to floating home living or social or educational purposes, including forums for or speeches of public officials or candidates for public office, to be held in any community facility if the meeting is held at reasonable hours and when the facility is not otherwise in use. The management's private office is not to be considered a community facility unless so designated by the management.

800.61. The management shall meet and consult with the homeowners, upon written request, within 30 days of the request, either individually, collectively, or with representatives of a group of homeowners who have signed a request to be so represented on the following matters:

(a) Amendments to floating home marina rules and regulations.

(b) Standards for maintenance or physical improvements in the floating home marina.

(c) Addition, alteration, or deletion of services, equipment or physical improvements.

(d) Rental agreements offered pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 800.20).

Any collective meeting shall be conducted only after notice thereof has been given to all the requesting homeowners 10 days or more before the meeting.

Article 6. Termination of Tenancy

800.70. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that, because of the high cost of moving floating homes, the potential for damage resulting therefrom, the requirements relating to the installation of floating homes, and current government policy limiting the availability of floating home berths, it is necessary that the owners of floating homes within floating home marinas be provided with the unique protection from actual or constructive eviction afforded by the provisions of this chapter.

(b) The management shall not terminate or refuse to renew a tenancy, except for a reason specified in this article and upon the giving of written notice to the homeowner in the manner prescribed by Section 1162 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to remove the floating home from the floating home marina within a period of not less than 60 days, which period shall be specified in the notice. A copy of this notice shall be sent to the legal owner, as defined in Section 18005.8 of the Health and Safety Code, each junior lienholder, as defined in Section 18005.3 of the Health and Safety Code, and the registered owner of the floating home, if other than the homeowner, by United States mail within 10 days after notice to the homeowner, addressed to the legal owner, each junior lienholder, and the registered owner at their addresses, as set forth in the registration card specified in Section 18091.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

800.71. A tenancy shall be terminated by the management only for one or more of the following reasons:

(a) Failure of the homeowner or resident to comply with a local ordinance or state law or regulation relating to floating homes within a reasonable time after the homeowner receives a notice of noncompliance from the appropriate governmental agency.

(b) Conduct by the homeowner or resident, upon the floating home marina premises, which constitutes a substantial annoyance to other homeowners or residents.

(c) Failure of the homeowner or resident to comply with a reasonable rule or regulation of the floating home marina as set forth in the rental agreement or any amendment thereto. The management may not impose unreasonable restrictions on the right of the homeowner to sublet his or her floating home.

No act or omission of the homeowner or resident shall constitute a failure to comply with a reasonable rule or regulation unless and until the management has given the homeowner written notice of the alleged rule or regulation violation and the homeowner or resident has failed to adhere to the rule or regulation within seven days. However, if a homeowner has been given a written notice of an alleged violation of the same rule or regulation on three or more occasions within a 12-month period after the homeowner or resident has violated that rule or regulation, no written notice shall be required for a subsequent violation of the same rule or regulation.

Nothing in this subdivision shall relieve the management from its obligation to demonstrate that a rule or regulation has in fact been violated.

(d) (1) Nonpayment of rent, utility charges, or reasonable incidental service charges; if the amount due has been unpaid for a period of at least five days from its due date, and provided, that the homeowner shall be given a three-day written notice subsequent to that five-day period to pay the amount due or to vacate the tenancy. The three-day written notice shall be given to the homeowner in the manner prescribed by Section 1162 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The notice may be given at the same time as the 60 days' notice required for termination of the tenancy.

Payment by the homeowner prior to the expiration of the three-day notice period shall cure a default under this subdivision.

(2) However, if a homeowner has been given a three-day notice to pay the amount due or to vacate the tenancy on three or more occasions within the preceding 12-month period, no written three-day notice shall be required for a subsequent nonpayment of rent, utility charges, or reasonable incidental service charges.

(3) Payment by the legal owner, any junior lienholder, or the registered owner, if other than the homeowner, on behalf of the homeowner prior to the expiration of 30 calendar days following the mailing of the notice to the legal owner, each junior lienholder, and the registered owner provided in subdivision (b) of Section 800.70, shall cure a default under this subdivision with respect to that payment.

(4) The homeowner shall remain liable for all payments due up until the time the tenancy is vacated.

(5) Cure of a default of rent, utility charges, or reasonable incidental service charges by the legal owner, any junior lienholder, or the registered owner, if other than the homeowner, as provided by this subdivision, may not be exercised more than twice during a 12-month period.

(e) Condemnation of the floating home marina.

(f) Change of use of the floating home marina or any portion thereof, provided:

(1) The management gives the homeowners at least 60 days' written notice that the management will be appearing before a local governmental board, commission, or body to request permits for a change of use of the floating home marina.

(2) After all required permits requesting a change of use have been approved by the local governmental board, commission, or body, the management shall give the homeowners six months' or more written notice of termination of tenancy.

If the change of use requires no local governmental permits, then notice shall be given 12 months or more prior to the management's determination that a change of use will occur. The management in the notice shall disclose and describe in detail the nature of the change of use.

(3) The management gives each proposed homeowner written notice thereof prior to the inception of his or her tenancy that the management is requesting a change of use before local governmental bodies or that a change of use request has been granted.

(4) The notice requirements for termination of tenancy set forth in this section and Section 800.72 shall be followed if the proposed change actually occurs.

(5) The requirements for a notice of a proposed change of use imposed by this subdivision shall be governed by the law in effect at the time the notice was given.

800.72. The management shall set forth in a notice of termination the reason relied upon for the termination with specific facts to permit determination of the date, place, witnesses, and circumstances concerning that reason. Neither reference to the section number or a subdivision thereof nor a recital of the language of this article constitutes compliance with this section.

800.73. No tenancy shall be terminated for the purpose of making a homeowner's berth available for a person who purchases a floating home from the owner of the floating home marina or his or her agent.

800.74. A homeowner shall give written notice to the management of not less than 60 days before vacating his or her tenancy.

800.75. The provisions of this article shall not affect any rights or proceedings set forth in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1159) of Title 3 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure except as otherwise provided in those sections.

Article 7. Transfer of a Floating Home

800.80. A homeowner or his or her agent may advertise the sale or exchange of his or her floating home, or, if not prohibited by the terms of an agreement with the management, may advertise the rental of his or her floating home, by displaying a sign in the window of the floating home, or by a sign posted on the side of the floating home facing the dock or water or both, stating that the floating home is for sale or exchange or, if not prohibited, for rent by the owner of the floating home or his or her agent. The sign shall state the name, address, and telephone number of the owner of the floating home or his or her agent and may be at least 24 inches in width and 18 inches in height.

800.82. (a) The management shall not show or list for sale a floating home without first obtaining the owner's written authorization. The authorization shall specify the terms and conditions regarding the showing or listing.

(b) The management shall prohibit neither the listing nor the sale of a floating home within the floating home marina by the homeowner, or an agent of the homeowner to authorize the management to act as the agent in the sale of a floating home as a condition of management's approval of buyer or prospective homeowner for residency in the floating home marina.

800.83. (a) The management shall not charge a homeowner, or his or her agent a transfer or selling fee as a condition of a sale of his or her floating home within a floating home marina unless the management performs a service in the sale. The management shall not perform any such service in connection with the sale unless so requested in writing, by the homeowner or his or her agent.

(b) The management shall not charge a prospective homeowner or his or her agent, upon purchase of a floating home, a fee as a condition of approval for residency in a floating home marina unless the management performs a specific service in the sale. The management shall not impose a fee, other than for a credit check in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 800.85, for an interview of a prospective homeowner.

800.84. The management shall not require the removal of a floating home from the floating home marina in the event of its sale to a third party during the term of the homeowner's rental agreement.

800.85. (a) The management may require the right of prior approval of a purchaser of a floating home that will remain in the floating home marina and that the selling homeowner or his or her agent give notice of the sale to the management before the close of the sale. Approval cannot be withheld if the purchaser has the financial ability to pay the rent and charges of the floating home marina unless the management reasonably determines that, based on the purchaser's prior tenancies, he or she will not comply with the rules and regulations of the floating home marina. In determining whether the purchaser has the financial ability to pay the rent and charges of the floating home marina, the management shall not require the purchaser to submit copies of any personal income tax returns in order to obtain approval for residency in the floating home marina. However, management may require the purchaser to document the amount and source of his or her gross monthly income or means of financial support. If the ownership or management rejects a purchaser as a prospective homeowner, the ownership or management shall inform the selling homeowner in writing of its reasons for the rejection. If the approval of a purchaser is withheld for any reason other than those stated in this article, the management or owner may be held liable for all damages proximately resulting therefrom.

(b) If the management collects a fee or charge from a prospective purchaser of a floating home in order to obtain a financial report or credit rating, the full amount of the fee or charge shall be credited toward payment of the first month's rent for that floating home purchaser. If, for whatever reason, the prospective purchaser is rejected by the management, the management shall refund to the prospective purchaser the full amount of that fee or charge within 30 days from the date of rejection. If the prospective purchaser is approved by the management, but, for whatever reason, the prospective purchaser elects not to purchase the floating home, the management may retain the fee, or a portion thereof, to defray its administrative costs under this section.

800.86. (a) An escrow, sale, or transfer agreement involving a floating home located in the floating home marina at the time of sale, where the floating home is to remain in the floating home marina, shall contain a provision signed by the purchaser stating that by his or her signature he or she has agreed to the terms of a rental agreement. A copy of a fully executed rental agreement signed by both the purchaser and floating home marina management will satisfy the requirements of this section.

(b) In the event the purchaser fails to execute the rental agreement, the purchaser shall not have any rights of tenancy.

(c) In the event that an occupant of a floating home has no rights of tenancy and is not otherwise entitled to occupy the floating home pursuant to this chapter, the occupant shall be considered an unlawful occupant if, after a demand is made for the surrender of the floating home marina berth, for a period of five days, the occupant has refused to surrender the berth to the floating home marina management. In the event the unlawful occupant fails to comply with the demand, the unlawful occupant shall be subject to the proceedings set forth in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1159) of Title 3 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(d) The occupant of the floating home shall not be considered an unlawful occupant and shall not be subject to the provisions of subdivision (c) if all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The occupant is the registered owner of the floating home.

(2) The management has determined that the occupant has the financial ability to pay the rent and charges of the floating home marina, will comply with the rules and regulations of the floating home marina, based on the occupant's prior tenancies, and will comply with this article.

(3) The management failed or refused to offer the occupant a rental agreement.

800.87. No rental or sale agreement shall contain a provision by which the purchaser or homeowner waives his or her rights under this article. Any waiver thereof shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable.

800.88. (a) An heir or joint tenant who gains ownership of a floating home in the floating home marina through the death of the owner of the floating home who is a homeowner shall have the right to sell the floating home to a third party in accordance with of this article, but only if all the homeowner's responsibilities and liabilities to the management regarding rent, utilities, and reasonable maintenance of the floating home and its premises which have arisen after the transfer of ownership to the heir or joint tenant have been satisfied up until the date the floating home is resold.

800.89. Any legal owner or junior lienholder who forecloses on his or her security interest in a floating home located in a floating home marina shall have the right to sell the floating home within the floating home marina to a third party in accordance with the provisions of this article, but only if all the homeowner's responsibilities and liabilities to the management regarding rent, utilities, and reasonable maintenance of a floating home and it's premises are satisfied by the foreclosing creditor through the date the floating home is resold.

800.90. The management (1) shall not prohibit the listing or sale of a used floating home within the floating home marina by the homeowner, or an agent of the homeowner other than the management, (2) nor require the selling homeowner to authorize the management to act as the agent in the sale of a floating home as a condition of approval of the buyer or prospective homeowner for residency in the floating home marina.

800.91. (a) No action based upon the management's alleged failure to maintain the physical improvements in the common facilities in good working order or condition or alleged reduction of service may be commenced by a homeowner unless the management has been given at least 30 days' prior notice of the intention to commence the action.

(b) The notice shall be in writing, signed by the homeowner or homeowners making the allegations, and shall notify the management of the basis of the claim, the specific allegations, and the remedies requested. A notice by one homeowner shall be deemed to be sufficient notice of the specific allegation to the management of the floating home marina by all of the homeowners in the floating home marina.

(c) The notice may be served in the manner prescribed in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Title 14 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(d) For purposes of this section, management shall be deemed to be notified of an alleged failure to maintain the physical improvements in the common facilities in good working order or condition or of an alleged reduction of services upon substantial compliance by the homeowner or homeowners with the provisions of subdivisions (b) and (c), or when management has been notified of the alleged failure to maintain or the alleged reduction of services by a state or local agency.

(e) If the notice is served within 30 days of the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations, the time for the commencement of the action shall be extended 30 days from the service of the notice.

(f) This section does not apply to actions for personal injury or wrongful death.

Article 8. Transfer of a Floating Home Marina

800.100. (a) When the owner of a floating home marina enters into a written listing agreement with a licensed real estate broker, as defined in Article 1 (commencing with Section 10130) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code, for the sale of the marina or offers to sell the marina to any party, the owner shall provide written notice by first-class mail or by personal delivery to the president, secretary, and treasurer of the resident organization, not less than 30 days but no more than one year prior to entering into any written listing agreement for the sale of the marina, or making any offer to sell the marina to any party. An offer to sell a marina shall not be construed as an offer under this subdivision unless it is initiated by the park owner or his or her agent.

(b) An owner of a floating home marina is not required to comply with subdivision (a) unless the following conditions are met:

(1) The resident organization has first furnished the park owner or park manager a written notice of the name and address of the president, secretary, and treasurer of the resident organization to whom the notice of sale shall be given.

(2) The resident organization has first notified the marina owner or manager in writing that the park residents are interested in purchasing the marina. The initial notice by the resident organization shall be made prior to a written listing or offer to sell the marina by the marina owner, and the resident organization shall give subsequent notice once each year thereafter that the marina residents are interested in purchasing the marina.

(3) The resident organization has furnished the marina owner or marina manager a written notice, within five days, of any change in the name or address of the officers of the resident organization to whom the notice of sale shall be given.

(c) Nothing in this section affects the validity of title to real property transferred in violation of this section, although a violation shall subject the seller to civil action pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 800.200) by homeowner residents of the park or by the resident organization.

(d) Nothing in this section affects the ability of a licensed real estate broker to collect a commission pursuant to an executed contract between the broker and the floating home marina owner.

(e) This section does not apply to any of the following:

(1) Any sale or other transfer by a marina owner who is a natural person to any relation specified in Section 6401 or 6402 of the Probate Code.

(2) Any transfer by gift, devise, or operation of law.

(3) Any transfer by a corporation to an affiliate. As used in this paragraph, "affiliate" means any shareholder of the transferring corporation, any corporation or entity owner or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the transferring corporation, or any other corporation or entity controlled, directly or indirectly, by any shareholder of the transferring corporation.

(4) Any transfer by a partnership to any of its partners.

(5) Any conveyance resulting from the judicial or nonjudicial foreclosure of a mortgage or deed of trust encumbering a floating home marina or any deed given in lieu of such a foreclosure.

(6) Any sale or transfer between or among joint tenants or tenants in common owning a floating home marina.

(7) The purchase of a floating home marina by a governmental entity under its powers of eminent domain.

Article 9. Actions, Proceedings, and Penalties

800.200. In any action arising out of the provisions of this chapter the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs. A party shall be deemed a prevailing party for the purposes of this section if the judgment is rendered in his or her favor or where the litigation is dismissed in his or her favor prior to or during the trial, unless the parties otherwise agree in the settlement or compromise.

In the event a homeowner or former homeowner of a floating home marina is the prevailing party in a civil action against the management to enforce his or her rights under the provisions of this chapter, the homeowner, in addition to damages afforded by law, may, in the discretion of the court, be awarded an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) for each willful violation of those provisions by the management.

800.201. (a) The substantial failure of the management to provide and maintain physical improvements in the common facilities in good working order and condition shall be deemed a public nuisance. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3491, such a nuisance only may be remedied by a civil action or abatement.

(b) The substantial violation of a floating home marina rule shall be deemed a public nuisance. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3491, such a nuisance only may be remedied by a civil action or abatement.

Article 10. Cooperatives and Condominiums

800.300. As used in this article:

(a) "Ownership or management" means the ownership or management of a cooperative or condominium for floating homes.

(b) "Resident" means a person who maintains a residence in a cooperative or condominium for floating homes.

800.301. A resident may advertise the sale or exchange of his or her floating home or, if not prohibited by the terms of an agreement with the management or ownership, may advertise the rental of his or her floating home by displaying a sign in the window of his or her floating home stating that the floating home is for sale or exchange or, if not prohibited, for rent by the owner of the floating home or his or her agent. The sign shall state the name, address, and telephone number of the owner of the floating home or his or her agent, and may be at least 12 inches in width and 12 inches in length.

800.302. The ownership or management shall not show or list for sale a floating home owned by a resident without first obtaining the resident's written authorization. The authorization shall specify the terms and conditions regarding the showing or listing.

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to affect the provisions of the Health and Safety Code governing the licensing of floating home salespersons or dealers.

800.303. The ownership or management shall not require the removal of a floating home from a cooperative or condominium in the event of its sale to a third party.

800.304. The ownership or management may require the right to prior approval of the purchaser of a floating home that will remain in the cooperative or condominium for floating homes and that the selling resident or his or her agent give notice of the sale to the ownership or management before the close of the sale. Approval cannot be withheld if the purchaser has the financial ability to pay the fees and charges of the cooperative or condominium unless the ownership or management reasonably determines that, based on the purchaser's prior residences, he or she will not comply with the rules and regulations of the cooperative or condominium.

800.305. No agreement shall contain any provision by which the purchaser waives his or her rights under this article. Any waiver thereof shall be deemed contrary to public policy and void and unenforceable.

800.306. This chapter applies only to the relationship between the management and the homeowners and residents of floating home marinas. Nothing in this chapter affects residential use of tide and submerged lands, including the public trust doctrine or any legislative grant of tide and submerged lands to a public entity, or the administration of these lands by the State Lands Commission or a legislative grantee. In addition, this chapter does not supplant, lessen, modify, or otherwise affect past or future regulation of floating homes or floating home marinas by the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission pursuant to the McAteer-Petris Act.

CHAPTER 1506

An act to add Chapter 31 (commencing with Section 7595) to Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, relating to state government.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 31 (commencing with Section 7595) is added to Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 31. PUBLIC OFFICES HOURS

7595. All state agencies which provide over-the-counter information and services directly to the public shall provide those services during the customary lunch hours of 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

on those days that the offices are open to the public. This section shall not apply to any state office which has three or less full-time employees who are not peace officers at an office on any single day.

CHAPTER 1507

An act to add Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 7160) to Part 1 of Division 7 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to organ and tissue transplants.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) There is no more priceless gift than a life-saving organ. In addition to prolonging the life of a human being, the donation of an organ can help a family find a sense of solace in the tragic loss of a loved one.

(b) Organ transplantation is one of the more remarkable achievements of modern science and is undergoing radically improved changes as a result of new developments in medical diagnosis and treatment.

(c) As the success rate of donor operations and the number of potential donor recipients have increased, so has the need for organs and severe shortages have resulted.

(d) Nationally, over 20,000 persons are in need of organ transplants. In California, approximately 2,000 people await donations of organs, such as hearts, kidneys, or livers.

(e) There is no mechanism in place to evaluate the success of current donor programs. The State of California mails over one million donor-consent cards each year with Department of Motor Vehicle license-renewal forms, but has no followup system to track the use of the cards. There are no statistics available to indicate hospital compliance with current requirements to approach family members concerning organ donations at or near the time of death.

(f) The absence of a coordinated effective public information program has forced most patients and their families to resort to public appeals through the mass media in order to obtain the organs needed for a transplant.

SEC. 2. Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 7160) is added to Part 1 of Division 7 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.6. ORGAN TRANSPLANTS

7160. (a) The State Department of Health Services shall consult with the Legislature on or before December 31, 1991, to evaluate and make recommendations to improve the effectiveness of organ transplantation for the general public and in minority communities and low-income communities in California.

Data to be considered may include, but not be limited to:

(1) The number of persons waiting for organ transplants.

(2) The number of available organ donors.

(3) The number of hospitals performing transplants and type of transplants.

(4) The percentage of medically insured transplant recipients.

(5) The percentage of Medi-Cal funded transplant recipients.

(6) The waiting time for transplantation.

(7) Factors used to determine eligibility for organ transplantation.

(8) Referral rates of patients to transplant centers.

(9) The number of persons accepted by transplant centers.

(10) The cost of recovery, processing, and distribution of the donated organs.

(11) The cost of transplantation operations.

(12) The financial impact of an organ donation upon the donor and the donor's family.

(13) Survival rates of patients receiving organ transplants.

(14) Hospital compliance with Section 7184.

(b) In compiling data, the department may utilize various sources, including, but not limited to, the local organ procurement organizations, the United Network for Organ Sharing, and the Association of Organ Procurement Organizations.

CHAPTER 1508

An act to amend Section 682 of, and to repeal Section 700.5 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 682 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

682. (a) To continue any hearing relating to proceedings pursuant to Section 601 or 602 beyond the time limit within which the hearing is otherwise required to be heard, a written notice shall be filed and served on all parties to the proceeding at least two court days before the hearing sought to be continued, together with affidavits or declarations detailing specific facts showing good cause for the continuance.

(b) A continuance shall be granted only upon a showing of good cause and only for that period of time shown to be necessary by the moving party at the hearing on the motion. Neither stipulation of the parties nor convenience of the parties is, in and of itself, good cause. Whenever any continuance is granted, the facts which require the continuance shall be entered into the minutes.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a party may make a motion for a continuance without complying with the requirements of that subdivision. However, unless the moving party shows good cause for failure to comply with those requirements, the court shall deny the motion.

(d) In any case in which the minor is represented by counsel and no objection is made to an order continuing any such hearing beyond the time limit within which the hearing is otherwise required to be held, the absence of such an objection shall be deemed a consent to the continuance.

SEC. 2. Section 700.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 1509

An act to amend Sections 50668.5 and 50714 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50668.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50668.5. For the purpose of providing financial assistance pursuant to this chapter utilizing bond proceeds transferred to the Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 53130 and paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 53130 and Sections 8878.20 and 8878.21 of the Government Code, deferred payment loans made with these funds shall be subject to all of the following special provisions, which shall prevail over conflicting provisions of this chapter:

(a) (1) Applications for fund commitments shall be accepted by the department at any time. Fund commitments shall be based on a ranking of applications, which shall occur at least once every three months until there are insufficient funds available to commit according to this ranking. In making this ranking for rental housing developments, priority shall be given to those projects which (A) serve the greater number of eligible households as defined in Section

50105 with the lowest incomes, (B) provide the greater number of units with three or more bedrooms, (C) are located in areas where the housing need is great as determined by the department, taking into consideration, among other factors, low vacancy rates, high market rents, long waiting lists for subsidized housing, the stock of substandard housing, and the potential loss of subsidized rental housing to market-rate housing through demolition, foreclosure, or subsidy termination, (D) complement the implementation of an existing housing program, (E) maximize private local and other funding sources, and (F) maximize long-term benefits for eligible households, as defined in Sections 50079.5 and 50105. Subparagraph (B) above shall not apply to applications for fund commitments submitted pursuant to Section 50670 or to any application for residential hotels and motels. In making this ranking for owner-occupied housing, priority shall be given to those applications which (A) serve the greater number of eligible households, as defined in Section 50105, with the lowest income, (B) provide the greater number of units with three or more bedrooms, (C) are located in areas where the need for rehabilitation is great as determined by the department, taking into consideration, among other factors, the amount of substandard owner-occupied housing, low vacancy rates, and limited availability of affordable housing, (D) complement the implementation of an existing housing program, and (E) maximize available and appropriate private, local, and other funding sources. The department shall also evaluate the capability of the sponsor to rehabilitate, own, and manage the rental housing development or the capability of the applicant for funding for owner-occupied housing to implement the proposed program.

(2) Loans for rental housing developments may be reviewed, approved, and funded by the department directly to the sponsor. In these cases, the department shall ensure that the sponsor notifies the local legislative body of the sponsor's loan application prior to a funding award. Loans to owner-occupants may be made by local public entities or nonprofit corporations which have received fund commitments from the department. The department shall ensure that the local public entity or nonprofit corporation applying for fund commitments for loans to owner-occupants notifies the local legislative body of the application prior to a funding award. When the department certifies a local public entity or nonprofit corporation as being capable of making these loans, the department shall delegate responsibility for reviewing and approving these loans to the local public entity or nonprofit corporation. If it is determined by the department that the local public entity or nonprofit corporation is no longer capable of making or managing these loans, the department may, at its sole discretion, revoke that delegation of responsibility or cancel the funding commitment to the local public entity or nonprofit corporation, or both. The department's regulations shall include procedures and standards for certification and decertification.

(3) A sponsor may apply for loans for one or more rental housing developments.

(b) (1) A housing development may utilize any combination of federal, state, local, and private financial resources necessary to make the development affordable, for the term of the state's regulatory agreement, to the eligible households. Notwithstanding the requirements of Section 50663, rental housing developments and owner-occupied units assisted by the program may be located anywhere in the state.

(2) In the case of nonprofit sponsors, loans for rental housing developments, when combined with other indebtedness against the property shall not exceed 100 percent of the after-rehabilitation value of the property, as determined by an appraisal of the property conducted pursuant to guidelines established in regulations of the department.

(3) The maximum loan amounts per unit established in regulations pursuant to Section 50670 shall also apply to rental housing developments rehabilitated or acquired and rehabilitated pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 50661, except that there shall not be a maximum loan amount established per project. These dollar limitations may be increased by the department, as necessary, in high-cost areas of the state or where the correction of severe health and safety defects or the provisions of handicapped accessibility standards necessitate greater assistance. The department, by regulation, may specify unit loan limits for loans made for owner-occupied housing and the circumstances under which it may grant exceptions to, or variances from, these limits.

(4) (A) Loans made to sponsors of rental housing developments for acquisition and rehabilitation shall be for terms of not less than 30 years. Loans made to sponsors of rental housing developments for rehabilitation only shall be for terms of not less than 20 years. However, the term shall not exceed the useful life of the rental housing development for which the loan is made. The sponsor may elect to begin to repay the loan at any time in accordance with the prepayment plan established in accordance with paragraph (6), if it is determined by the department, that the sponsors can continue to maintain the rents at levels affordable to eligible households.

(B) The term of the loan and the time for repayment may be extended by the department for additional 10-year terms as long as the rental housing development is operated in a manner consistent with the regulatory agreement and the sponsor requires an extension in order to continue to operate in a manner consistent with this chapter.

(5) (A) In the case of loans made for rental housing developments, eligible costs shall include those costs relating to (i) real property acquisition, including refinancing of existing debt to the extent necessary to reduce debt service to a level consistent with the provision of affordable rents and the fiscal integrity of the project; (ii) rehabilitation or reconstruction, including the conversion of nonresidential structures to residential use; (iii) general property improvements which are necessary to correct unsafe, unhealthy, or unsanitary conditions, including renovations and remodeling, including, but not limited to, remodeling of kitchens and bathrooms, installation of new appliances, landscaping, and purchase or installation of central air conditioning; (iv) necessary and related onsite improvements; (v) reasonable administrative expenses in connection with the planning and execution of the project, as determined by the department; (vi) reasonable consulting costs; (vii) rent-up costs; (viii) seismic rehabilitation improvements; and (ix) any other costs of rehabilitation authorized by the department. "Rent-up costs," as used in this section, means costs incurred while a unit is on the housing market but not rented to its first tenant. "Seismic rehabilitation improvements," as used in this section, means improvements which are designed to increase seismic structural safety in accordance with a plan developed by a civil engineer, a structural engineer, or an architect for a particular building that has been identified as hazardous by the city or county in which the building is located in accordance with the criteria established by the Seismic Safety Commission pursuant to Section 8875.1 of the Government Code or in accordance with a previously adopted city or county seismic safety ordinance adopted pursuant to Section 19163.

(B) In the case of loans made for owner-occupied housing, eligible costs shall include those costs relating to (i) rehabilitation work expenses; (ii) cost of room additions necessary to alleviate overcrowding; (iii) costs of general property improvements including renovations and remodeling, including, but not limited to, remodeling of kitchens and bathrooms, installation of new appliances, landscaping and purchase or installation of central air conditioning, to the extent that they are necessary to correct unsafe, unhealthy, or unsanitary conditions; (iv) costs related to necessary architectural, engineering, and other technical consultants; (v) costs of preliminary reports, title policies, credit reports, appraisal reports, and fees for recording documents related to the department's loans; (vi) costs of building permits and other government fees; and (vii) if in conjunction with other rehabilitation work, costs for improvements related to making the housing accessible to the handicapped.

(C) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 53130 which limit the use of allocated proceeds with respect to project operating costs, and Sections 53131 and 53133, the department may set aside or use any amounts available in the fund to establish a rental housing development default reserve for the purpose of curing or avoiding a sponsor's defaults on the terms of any loan or other obligation which jeopardizes the financial integrity of a rental housing development or the department's security in the rental housing development. The payment or advance of funds by the department pursuant to this subparagraph shall be solely within the discretion of the department and no sponsor shall be entitled to or have any right to payment of these funds. Funds advanced pursuant to this subparagraph shall be added to the loan amount secured by the deed of trust and shall be payable to the department upon demand.

(D) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 53130 which limit the use of allocated proceeds with respect to project operating cost, or Sections 53131 and 53133, the department may set aside or use proceeds in the fund in an amount not to exceed 3 percent of the amount of encumbrances for loans for owner-occupied housing to establish an owner-occupied housing default reserve for the purpose of curing or avoiding an owner's default on the terms of any loan or other obligation which jeopardizes the department's security in the owner-occupied housing. The payment or advance of funds by the department pursuant to this subparagraph shall be solely within the discretion of the department, and no homeowner shall be entitled to, or have any right to payment of, these funds. Funds advanced pursuant to this subparagraph shall be added to the loan amount secured by the deed of trust and shall be payable to the department upon demand. Interest payments from loans for owner-occupied housing shall be allocated by the department into this reserve to replace the allocated proceeds until the percent established by the department is achieved solely with interest payments.

(6) Upon request of the sponsor, the department may permit repayment of a sponsor's loan on the basis of net cash flow. The department shall develop a prepayment plan in conjunction with the sponsor which will ensure the maintenance of affordable rents and the fiscal integrity of the rental housing development. As an incentive to encourage the prepayment of loans, the department may permit the sponsor to retain one-half of the net cash flow. The department shall determine the method for calculating net cash flow, which may include a factor for excess debt service coverage or a return on cash investment to the sponsor.

(7) If a loan is made pursuant to this chapter for both seismic rehabilitation improvements and other eligible rehabilitation costs, only those costs related to the seismic rehabilitation improvements shall be counted and included for purposes of the fund reservation made by Section 8878.20 of the Government Code.

(c) Principal and accumulated interest is due and payable upon completion of the term of the loan.

(1) "Maintain affordable rent levels," as used in this section, means rents may be automatically increased by the sponsor on an annual basis pursuant to an inflation index to be determined by the department. The inflation index shall reflect anticipated annual changes in rental housing development operating costs from a base year when the rents are initially established. Any sponsor may appeal to the department for a greater adjustment in rents necessary to ensure the fiscal integrity of the rental housing development. If the department does not respond within 60 days, the request shall be deemed approved. A 30-day written notice shall be given to each eligible household prior to an adjustment in the amount of rent.

(2) Upon prior written approval by the department, a sponsor may set income limits for incoming tenants at a level below the limit specified in Section 50079.5. If a tenant's income exceeds this income limit established by the sponsor, but does not exceed the limit specified in Section 50079.5, that fact alone shall neither constitute cause for the tenant's eviction, nor be a violation of the sponsor's loan agreement. If a tenant's income exceeds the income limit for a household specified in Section 50079.5, the tenant shall be required to vacate the assisted unit within six months from the date of income recertification or notice to the sponsor of an increase in income over the permissible income level. That period may be extended by the sponsor for an additional six-month period in high cost rental areas with low vacancy rates, as determined by the department. Any vacant units shall be rented to eligible households until the required residency by eligible households is attained.

In the case of limited equity housing cooperatives, the provisions of this paragraph shall apply, except that tenants whose incomes, upon recertification, exceed the limit specified in Section 50079.5 shall not be required to vacate their units. Instead, and upon six months' notice, these tenants shall be required to pay rent in an amount equal to the market rate rent for comparable units, as determined by the department. When a tenant's income exceeds the limit specified in Section 50079.5, the next available membership share for occupancy in a comparable unit shall be sold to a household with an income at or below this limit.

(3) When operating income as defined by the department is greater than operating expenses, debt service, deposits required for reserve accounts, payments pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (b) if elected by the sponsor, approved annual distributions, and any other disbursements approved by the department, these excess funds shall be paid into an account established in the fund. Funds in this account shall be appropriated to the department for use to assist rental housing developments funded pursuant to this section with proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to Chapter 27 of the Statutes of 1988, Chapter 30 of the Statutes of 1988, or Chapter 48 of the Statutes of 1988, subject to the following requirements:

(i) Excess funds in the account shall be allocated first into the rental housing development default reserve established pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (5) of subdivision (b). The balance of this default reserve shall not exceed the maximum level of funding established by regulations adopted by the department.

(ii) After the rental housing development default reserve is fully funded with these excess funds, the department shall use all additional excess funds in the account for payment of either unforeseen capital improvements, the cost of which would jeopardize the fiscal integrity and affordability of a rental housing development, or to further reduce rents in a rental housing development. The department may adopt regulations which specify the procedures and standards for application for, and use of, these funds. Those payments used for capital improvements shall be added to the loan amount secured by the deed of trust and shall be payable to the department upon demand.

(d) Prior to disbursement of any funds for loans to rental housing developments made pursuant to this section, the department shall enter into a regulatory agreement with the sponsor in accordance with subdivision (d) of Section 50670, except that (1) the term of the regulatory agreement shall be for the original term of the loan and the agreement shall be binding upon the sponsor and successors in interest upon sale or transfer of the rental housing development or prepayment of the loan and (2) a nonprofit sponsor, other than a governmental agency, may maintain a debt service coverage ratio of 115 percent and distribute earnings in an amount no greater than 8 percent of the nonprofit sponsor's actual investment. The regulatory agreement also shall contain provisions requiring annual inspections and review of year-end fiscal audits and related reports by the department and provisions to maintain affordable rent levels to serve eligible households.

(e) Where loans will be used in conjunction with federal or other housing assistance or tax credits and a conflict exists between the other state or federal program requirements and those of this chapter with respect to the calculation of rents, the requirements of the Deferred Payment Rehabilitation Loan Program and the Special User Housing Rehabilitation Program may be waived only to the extent necessary to permit federal or other state financial participation or eligibility for tax credits.

(f) "Sponsor," for purposes of this section, has the same meaning as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 50669.

(g) The department shall adopt emergency regulations to implement this chapter and to amend the maximum loan amounts per unit established in regulations adopted pursuant to Section 50670, with respect to loans made with funding subject to this section. The regulations shall be conclusively presumed to be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety, or general welfare within the meaning or purposes of Section 11346.1 of the Government Code.

Notwithstanding conflicting provisions of this chapter, the department may elect to make these regulations additionally applicable until December 31, 1992, to all other deferred payment loan programs authorized by this chapter, except the programs specified in Sections 50662.5 and 50671, if the department determines that the uniformity achieved thereby will avoid significant additional administrative costs.

(h) For purposes of this section, "rental housing development" means a single family house or a multifamily structure or structures containing two or more dwelling units, including efficiency units. One or more of the dwelling units in a rental housing development shall be rented or leased or otherwise occupied as a primary residence by a person or household who is not the owner of the structure or structures. For the purposes of this section, motels operated pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 50669, residential hotels, group or congregate homes, and limited equity housing cooperatives are rental housing developments. Except for motels, the limitations concerning types of residents and minimum number of units set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 50669 shall not apply.

(i) "Affordable rent" for the purposes of this section shall be established by the department in the regulations authorized by subdivision (g). However, the initial rents shall be established by the department based on a designated family size for each unit size, and those initial rents shall not exceed 30 percent of 50 percent of the area median income adjusted by that designated family size for units restricted to occupancy by very low income households; or 30 percent of 60 percent of area median income adjusted by that designated family size for units restricted to occupancy by low-income households. In establishing affordable rent levels, the department shall make provision in its regulations for projects serving the physically and mentally handicapped persons.

SEC. 2. Section 50714 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50714. (a) The San Diego County Farmworker Housing Account is hereby established, to be administered by the Department of Housing and Community Development, through its Office of Migrant Services pursuant to the authority granted in Sections 50406 and 50710, to assist in the financing, development, and operation of up to 500 family housing units for year-round use by migrant or nonmigrant farm labor employees and their families. The sponsor shall seek federal, state, and local financial and in-kind assistance in the development of this housing, but the lack of that assistance shall not be a prerequisite for obtaining financing under this section for the development and operation of family housing units.

(b) The department shall ensure that the housing is operated on the same basis as other state-financed housing assisted pursuant to this chapter, except that there shall be no limitation set on the term of tenancy if the project is operated for nonmigrant farmworkers.

(c) The department shall award funds pursuant to this section to project sponsors who demonstrate that they are capable of effectively serving the housing needs of migrant or other farmworkers in San Diego County. The year-round use required by subdivision (a) for migrant centers may be interrupted as necessary to close the housing for maintenance purposes and to allow new migrant farmworker families to obtain housing. The project sponsor shall also demonstrate his or her capability of ensuring the project's fiscal integrity and maintaining the project in a decent, safe, and sanitary manner for at least 25 years.

(d) The department shall use funds appropriated by the Legislature for purposes of this section. The appropriated funds may be used for the costs permitted by, or pursuant to, subdivisions (b) to (e), inclusive, of Section 50712.5. For purposes of soliciting and awarding funds pursuant to this section, the department is not required to promulgate regulations.

(e) To be eligible for funding, a project sponsor shall make a contribution to the housing assisted under this section. However, if the housing sponsor can demonstrate that it does not have the capability to make that contribution, no contribution shall be required. A contribution, for purposes of this subdivision, may be in the form of a writedown of land costs, fee waiver, direct equivalent financial contribution, or any other incentives of financial value.

(f) The department shall accept proposals from project sponsors commencing November 15, 1989, and until all funds reappropriated for the purpose of this section are awarded. The department shall award grants to project sponsors commencing September 1, 1990.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Because existing law allows the Department of Housing and Community Development to administer housing rehabilitation programs funded with nonbond funds in conformity with the requirements of the programs financed with bond proceeds authorized by Propositions 77 and 84 only until July 1, 1990, it is, therefore, necessary that this act take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1510

An act to amend Sections 8680.4, 8685, and 8690.4 of the Government Code, relating to natural disaster assistance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8680.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8680.4. "Project" means the repair or restoration, or both, other than normal maintenance, or the replacement of, real property of a local agency used for essential governmental services, including, but not limited to, buildings, levees, flood control works, channels, irrigation works, city streets, county roads, bridges, and other public works, that are damaged or destroyed by a natural disaster. "Project" also includes those activities and expenses allowed under subdivisions (a), (c), (d), and (e) of Section 8685. Except as provided in Section 8686.3, the completion of all or part of a project prior to application for funds pursuant to this chapter shall not disqualify the project or any part thereof.

SEC. 2. Section 8685 of the Government Code, is amended to read:

8685. From any money appropriated for that purpose, and subject to the conditions specified in this article, the Director of Emergency Services shall allocate funds to meet the cost of any one or more projects as defined in Section 8680.4. Applications by school districts shall be submitted to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for review and approval, in accordance with instructions or regulations developed by the Office of Emergency Services, prior to the allocation of funds by the Director of Emergency Services.

Moneys appropriated for the purposes of this chapter may be used to provide financial assistance for the following local agency and state costs:

(a) Local agency personnel regular hourly wage and overtime costs, equipment costs, and the cost of supplies and materials used during disaster response activities, incurred as a result of a state of emergency proclaimed by the Governor, excluding the normal hourly wage costs of regularly assigned emergency services and public safety personnel.

(b) To repair, restore, reconstruct, or replace facilities belonging to local agencies damaged as a result of natural disasters as defined in Section 8680.3.

(c) Matching fund assistance for cost sharing required under federal public assistance programs.

(d) Indirect costs defined as eligible by the Office of Emergency Services and in accordance with the federal Office of Management and Budget Circular No. A-87, or its successors, and any other assistance deemed necessary by the Director of Emergency Services.

(e) Necessary and required site preparation costs for mobilehomes, travel trailers, and other manufactured housing units provided by the federal temporary housing assistance program operated by the Federal Emergency Management Agency.

SEC. 3. Section 8690.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8690.4. The Controller shall establish the following four special accounts in the Natural Disaster Assistance Fund:

(a) The Public Facilities and Local Agency Disaster Response Account, into which shall be paid all moneys appropriated by the Legislature for allocation for (1) the repair, restoration, reconstruction, or replacement of facilities belonging to local agencies damaged as a result of natural disasters, (2) matching fund assistance for cost sharing required under federal disaster assistance programs, as specified in subdivisions (b) (c), and (e) of Section 8685, and (3) local agency personnel overtime costs and supplies used during eligible disaster response and recovery activities, including the cost of administering those activities, as specified in subdivisions (a) and (d) of Section 8685.

(b) The Street and Highway Account, into which shall be paid all resources transferred from the Street and Highway Disaster Fund, any money received from the federal government as reimbursement to any city or county for expenditures from funds allocated, transferred or expended pursuant to this chapter for a street and highway project, any money hereafter appropriated by the Legislature for allocation for street and highway projects, and any income from investment of moneys in the account and payments by local agencies in reimbursement of moneys disbursed from the account including deferred payments with charges, pursuant to Section 8686.8.

(c) The Office of Emergency Services Disaster Administration Support Account, into which shall be paid all moneys appropriated by the Legislature for allocation for state administrative and engineering support required to respond to a specific disaster in accordance with the state disaster assistance program authorized under this chapter.

(d) The Earthquake Emergency Investigations Account, into which shall be paid all moneys appropriated by the Legislature to the Seismic Safety Commission for allocation for the purpose of enabling immediate investigation of damaging earthquakes. Allocations may be made by the commission to assist organizations which have incurred expenses in the course of conducting earthquake investigations. Allocations may be made to cover the following expenses:

(1) Travel, meals, and lodging.

(2) Publishing of findings.

(3) Contractor assistance in the investigation.

(4) Other expenses which the commission may allow as necessary to assist the investigation.

The unpredictable nature of earthquakes necessitates immediate access to funds for investigative purposes. For this reason, notwithstanding any other provision of law, funds in the Earthquake Emergency Investigations Account shall be available for expenditure without regard to fiscal years.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Public Facilities and Local Agency Disaster Response Account, the Street and Highway Account, and the Office of Emergency Services Administration Support Account each have an unencumbered balance of one million dollars ($1,000,000) at the beginning of each fiscal year.

In the event that any of these three accounts require additional moneys to meet claims against the account, the Director of Finance may transfer moneys from the Special Fund for Economic Uncertainties to the account in that amount sufficient to pay the amount of the claims that exceed the unencumbered balance in the account, provided that the transfer is not made prior to notification in writing to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee of the reason and amount of transfer.

CHAPTER 1511

An act to add Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 16600) to Division 12.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to educational institutions' buildings.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 16600) is added to Division 12.5 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4. PUBLIC POSTSECONDARY BUILDINGS

16600. (a) The State Architect and the State Building Standards Commission, in consultation with, and with the concurrence of, the University of California, the California State University, the Structural Engineers Association of California, and the Seismic Safety Commission, shall develop and adopt building seismic retrofit guidelines for state buildings, including those owned by the University of California and by the California State University, by January 1, 1993.

(b) Building seismic retrofit guidelines shall include provisions for the abatement of falling hazards that are structural or nonstructural components of buildings and that pose serious threats to life, including, but not limited to, parapets, appendages, cornices, hanging objects, and building cladding.

(c) Building seismic retrofit guidelines shall include provisions for the strengthening of structures of buildings, or the means necessary to reduce the response of a building to ground shaking during an earthquake, so as to significantly reduce the hazards to life, while concomitantly providing for safe egress of occupants during and immediately after an earthquake.

(d) Building seismic retrofit guidelines shall be consistent with the state Historical Building Code (Part 2.7 (commencing with Section 18950), Division 13) and shall include provisions for the preservation of historical buildings.

(e) Building seismic retrofit guidelines shall incorporate building seismic retrofit standards developed pursuant to Sections 8875.5 and 8879.5 of the Government Code.

(f) The State Architect and the State Building Standards Commission, in cooperation with the University of California, the California State University, the Structural Engineers Association of California, and the Seismic Safety Commission, shall develop and adopt seismic retrofit building standards for state buildings, including those owned by the University of California and by the California State University by July 1, 1996. The standards for state buildings owned by the University of California and the California State University shall not be more stringent than the standards for other state buildings.

(g) The State Architect and the State Building Standards Commission, in cooperation with the Structural Engineers Association of California, shall submit the regulations, findings, and data developed according to this chapter to model code writing agencies and organizations for review and development into code format for consideration and adoption into future model codes, as defined in Section 18916, by August 1, 1997.

16601. (a) The State Building Standards Commission shall review and approve the guidelines adopted by the State Architect and the State Building Standards Commission pursuant to Section 16600 by January 1, 1994, and take administrative actions to make the guidelines applicable to all state buildings, including those owned by the University of California or the California State University.

(b) The State Building Standards Commission shall review and approve the seismic retrofit building standards as developed by the State Architect and the State Building Standards Commission pursuant to Section 16600 by July 1, 1997, and take administrative actions to make the standards applicable to all state buildings, including those owned by the University of California or the California State University.

16603. No provision of this chapter shall apply to the University of California except to the extent that the Regents of the University of California, by resolution, make that provision applicable.

16604. It is the intent of the Legislature that funds to carry out the provisions of this chapter in the amount of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) be provided as follows:

(a) The sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) from the June 1990 Higher Education Capital Outlay Bond Fund pursuant to Chapter 14.4 (commencing with Section 67345) of Part 40 of the Education Code, known as the Higher Education Bond Act of June 1990.

(b) The sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) from the Earthquake Safety and Public Buildings Rehabilitation Fund of 1990 pursuant to Chapter 12.47 (commencing with Section 8878.50) of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code, known as the Earthquake Safety and Public Buildings Rehabilitation Bond Act of 1990.

CHAPTER 1512

An act to amend Section 533.5 of the Insurance Code, relating to indemnity.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 533.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

533.5. (a) No policy of insurance shall provide, or be construed to provide, any coverage or indemnity for the payment of any fine, penalty, or restitution in any criminal action or proceeding or in any action or proceeding brought pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17200) of Part 2 of, or Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 17500) of Part 3 of, Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code by the Attorney General, any district attorney, or any city prosecutor, notwithstanding whether the exclusion or exception regarding this type of coverage or indemnity is expressly stated in the policy.

(b) No policy of insurance shall provide, or be construed to provide, any duty to defend, as defined in subdivision (c), any claim in any criminal action or proceeding or in any action or proceeding brought pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17200) of Part 2 of, or Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 17500) of Part 3 of, Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code in which the recovery of a fine, penalty, or restitution is sought by the Attorney General, any district attorney, or any city prosecutor, notwithstanding whether the exclusion or exception regarding the duty to defend this type of claim is expressly stated in the policy.

(c) For the purpose of this section, "duty to defend" means the insurer's right or obligation to investigate, contest, defend, control the defense of, compromise, settle, negotiate the compromise or settlement of, or indemnify for the cost of any aspect of defending any claim in any criminal action or proceeding or in any action or proceeding brought pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17200) of Part 2 of, or Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 17500) of Part 3 of, Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code in which the insured expects or contends that (1) the insurer is liable or is potentially liable to make any payment on behalf of the insured or (2) the insurer will provide a defense for a claim even though the insurer is precluded by law from indemnifying that claim.

(d) Any provision in a policy of insurance which is in violation of subdivision (a) or (b) is contrary to public policy and void.

SEC. 2. The amendments made by this act are intended to clarify the Legislature's intent relative to the enactment of Chapter 489 of the Statutes of 1988, and do not constitute a change in, but are declaratory of, existing law.

The intent of the Legislature in enacting Chapter 489 of the Statutes of 1988 was:

(a) Section 533.5 of the Insurance Code shall be applicable to insurance coverage and to the duty to defend only in criminal actions and in actions or proceedings brought by the Attorney General, any district attorney, or any city prosecutor, pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17200) of Part 2 of, or Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 17500) of Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code.

(b) Not to affect the existence, or nonexistence, of insurance coverage, or the duty to defend in actions such as, but not limited to, actions brought by any entity pursuant to Section 25360 of the Health and Safety Code, Section 13304 of the Water Code, or any similar federal law.

CHAPTER 1513

An act to add Section 25940 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25940 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

25940. Whenever any foreign corporation which fails to qualify to do business in this state or whose powers, rights, and privileges have been forfeited, or any domestic corporation which has been suspended, and which is doing business in this state, within the meaning of Section 23101, fails to make and file a return as required by this part, the Franchise Tax Board shall impose a penalty of two thousand dollars ($2,000) per income year, unless the failure to file is due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect. The penalty shall be in addition to any other penalty which may be due under this part. The penalty shall be imposed if the return is not filed within 60 days after the Franchise Tax Board sends the taxpayer a notice and demand to file the required tax return.

CHAPTER 1514

An act to add Section 25696.5 to the Public Resources Code, relating to energy.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25696.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

25696.5. (a) Every California-based energy technology and energy conservation firm awarded direct financial assistance pursuant to Section 25696 shall reimburse the commission for that assistance, when both of the following conditions have been met:

(1) The assistance was substantial and essential for the completion of a specific identifiable project.

(2) The resulting project is producing revenues.

(b) All moneys appropriated for purposes of this chapter and all moneys received by the commission as reimbursement under this section shall be deposited in the Energy Resources Programs Account and shall be available, when appropriated by the Legislature, for the purposes of this chapter.

CHAPTER 1515

An act to amend, repeal, and add Section 22655.5 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22655.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22655.5. (a) A peace officer, as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code, may remove a motor vehicle from the highway or from public or private property within the territorial limits in which the officer may act, if the peace officer has probable cause to believe either of the following:

(1) That the vehicle was used in the commission of a public offense.

(2) That the vehicle is itself evidence which tends to show that a crime has been committed or that the vehicle contains evidence, which cannot readily be removed, which tends to show that a crime has been committed.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 3068 of the Civil Code or Section 22851 of this code, the following apply with respect to a vehicle removed pursuant to this section:

(1) The owner of the vehicle is not liable for any resulting towing and storage fees unless the vehicle was used by the alleged perpetrator of the crime with the express or implied permission of the owner of the vehicle.

(2) The owner of a stolen vehicle that is removed and held for investigatory or prosecution purposes, or for use as an exhibit in a judicial proceeding, is not liable for any resulting towing and storage fees.

(3) Any towing and storage charges for a vehicle for which the owner is not liable pursuant to paragraph (2) shall be paid by the public agency employer of the peace officer who ordered the removal and storage of the vehicle or the prosecuting agency which ordered the storage of the vehicle.

(c) In any prosecution of the crime for which a vehicle was impounded pursuant to this section, the prosecutor may request, and the court may order, the perpetrator of the crime, if convicted, to pay the costs of towing and storage of the vehicle.

(d) Nothing in this section exempts the public agency whose employee ordered the removal of the vehicle pursuant to subdivision (a) from the notification requirements of Section 22852.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 22655.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

22655.5. A peace officer, as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code, may remove a motor vehicle from the highway or from public or private property within the territorial limits in which the officer may act under the following circumstances:

(a) When any vehicle is found upon a highway or public or private property and a peace officer has probable cause to believe that the vehicle was used as the means of committing a public offense.

(b) When any vehicle is found upon a highway or public or private property and a peace officer has probable cause to believe that the vehicle is itself evidence which tends to show that a crime has been committed or that the vehicle contains evidence, which cannot readily be removed, which tends to show that a crime has been committed.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 3068 of the Civil Code or Section 22851 of this code, no lien shall attach to a vehicle removed under this section unless the vehicle was used by the alleged perpetrator of the crime with the express or implied permission of the owner of the vehicle.

(d) In any prosecution of the crime for which a vehicle was impounded pursuant to this section, the prosecutor may request, and the court may order, the perpetrator of the crime, if convicted, to pay the costs of towing and storage of the vehicle.

(e) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 3. The Legislative Analyst shall determine the aggregate amount of claims submitted by local agencies to the Commission on State Mandates during the 1991 calendar year for reimbursement of costs incurred pursuant to Section 1 of this act, and report that amount to the Legislature on or before January 31, 1992.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1516

An act to amend Section 14496 of, and to add and repeal Section 14088.18 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to increase the availability of alternative forms of access to Medi-Cal beneficiaries and to establish additional nonprofit primary care case management plans in areas which are not currently being served.

SEC. 2. Section 14088.18 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14088.18. (a) In order to increase the number of nonprofit providers under this article, the department may enter into contracts each fiscal year under this section with up to three eligible nonprofit organizations to provide a one-time interest-bearing loan, repayable at the Pooled Money Investment Account rate, to that eligible organization.

(b) Contracts entered into pursuant to this section shall be limited to contracts within those counties where the department does not have contracts authorized by this article on the effective date of this section.

(c) (1) Any loan entered into pursuant to this section shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

(d) The department shall adopt standards and procedures for loan applications and repayment of the loans made pursuant to this section.

(e) The department shall make no loan pursuant to this section until the department has made savings payments to contractors who have entered into contracts under this article on or before the effective date of this section.

(f) For purposes of this section, "eligible nonprofit organization" means any organization which meets all of the following requirements:

(1) The organization is exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the federal Internal Revenue Code.

(2) The organization is organized to provide health care to the medically underserved and to provide services in service areas.

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 14496 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14496. (a) Alternate methods of payment for a pilot program may include, but shall not be limited to, a prospectively negotiated reimbursement rate, fee-for-service, retainer, capitation, or other basis.

(b) In order to implement expeditiously the budgeting decisions of the Legislature, the director shall, to the extent permitted by federal law, adopt regulations setting rates payable to providers which reflect such decisions 30 days after the enactment of the Budget Act and of any other appropriation which changes the level of funding for Medi-Cal services. The proposed regulations shall be submitted to the Department of Finance five days prior to the date of adoption. With the written approval of the Department of Finance, the director shall adopt such regulations as emergency regulations in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340), Part 1, Division 3, Title 2 of the Government Code). For purposes of such act, the adoption of such regulations shall be deemed an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety or general welfare.

(c) In order to implement expeditiously the budgeting decisions of the Legislature, the director and the contractor shall, to the extent permitted by federal law, amend the pilot project contract to reflect such decisions 60 days after the enactment of the Budget Act and of any other appropriation which changes the level of funding for Medi-Cal services. Any approvals, ratifications, reviews, or analyses of such amendments required to be undertaken by any state agency or state department shall be completed within the 60-day period specified in this subdivision.

SEC. 4. The State Department of Health Services shall adopt emergency regulations pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to implement this act. The adoption of regulations shall be deemed to be an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety. These regulations shall become effective immediately upon filing with the Secretary of State.

SEC. 5. The repeal of Section 14088.18 of the Welfare and Institutions Code on January 1, 1995, shall not result in the cancellation of any outstanding loan entered into under that section prior to January 1, 1995, and which is in effect on that date.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide timely funding for the implementation of programs pursuant to this act, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1517

An act to amend Sections 714, 1354, and 1366 of the Civil Code, relating to common interest developments.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to promote the economic installation and efficient operation of solar energy systems in common interest developments, consistent with covenants, conditions, and restrictions that do not significantly increase the cost of the energy system or significantly decrease the efficiency of the energy system.

The Legislature hereby requests that meetings of interested parties be convened for the purpose of drafting standards or guidelines to define the "reasonableness" of these restrictions in clear terms, and to make recommendations to the Legislature in this regard on or before July 1, 1991.

SEC. 2. Section 714 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

714. Any covenant, restriction, or condition contained in any deed, contract, security instrument, or other instrument affecting the transfer or sale of, or any interest in, real property which effectively prohibits or restricts the installation or use of a solar energy system is void and unenforceable.

This section shall not apply to provisions which impose reasonable restrictions on solar energy systems. However, it is the policy of the state to promote and encourage the use of solar energy systems and to remove obstacles thereto. Accordingly, reasonable restrictions on a solar energy system are those restrictions which do not significantly increase the cost of the system or significantly decrease its efficiency or specified performance, or which allow for an alternative system of comparable cost, efficiency, and energy conservation benefits.

For the purposes of this section, "solar energy system" has the same meaning as defined in Section 801.5.

SEC. 3. Section 1354 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1354. The covenants and restrictions in the declaration shall be enforceable equitable servitudes, unless unreasonable, and shall inure to the benefit of and bind all owners of separate interests in the development. Unless the declaration states otherwise, these servitudes may be enforced by any owner of a separate interest or by the association, or by both. In any action to enforce the declaration, the prevailing party shall be awarded reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

SEC. 4. Section 1366 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1366. (a) Except as provided in this section, the association shall levy regular and special assessments sufficient to perform its obligations under the governing documents and this title. However, annual increases in regular assessments for any fiscal year, as authorized by subdivision (b), shall not be imposed unless the board has complied with subdivision (a) of Section 1365 with respect to that fiscal year, or has obtained the approval of owners, constituting a quorum, casting a majority of the votes at a meeting or election of the association conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 7510) of Part 3 of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code and Section 7613 of the Corporations Code. For the purposes of this section, "quorum" means more than 50 percent of the owners of an association.

(b) Notwithstanding more restrictive limitations placed on the board by the governing documents, the board of directors may not impose a regular assessment that is more than 20 percent greater than the regular assessment for the association's preceding fiscal year or impose special assessments which in the aggregate exceed 5 percent of the budgeted gross expenses of the association for that fiscal year without the approval of owners, constituting a quorum, casting a majority of the votes at a meeting or election of the association conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 7510) of Part 3 of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code and Section 7613 of the Corporations Code. For the purposes of this section, quorum means more than 50 percent of the owners of an association. This section does not limit assessment increases necessary for emergency situations. For purposes of this section, an emergency situation is any one of the following:

(1) An extraordinary expense required by an order of a court.

(2) An extraordinary expense necessary to repair or maintain the common interest development or any part of it for which the association is responsible where a threat to personal safety on the property is discovered.

(3) An extraordinary expense necessary to repair or maintain the common interest development or any part of it for which the association is responsible that could not have been reasonably foreseen by the board in preparing and distributing the proforma operating budget under Section 1365. However, prior to the imposition or collection of an assessment under this subdivision, the board shall pass a resolution containing written findings as to the necessity of the extraordinary expense involved and why the expense was not or could not have been reasonably foreseen in the budgeting process, and the resolution shall be distributed to the members with the notice of assessment.

(c) Regular and special assessments levied pursuant to the governing documents are delinquent 15 days after they become due. If an assessment is delinquent the association may recover all of the following:

(1) Reasonable costs incurred in collecting the delinquent assessment, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) A late charge not exceeding 10 percent of the delinquent assessment or ten dollars ($10), whichever is greater, unless the declaration specifies a late charge in a smaller amount, in which case any late charge imposed shall not exceed the amount specified in the declaration.

(3) Interest on all sums imposed in accordance with this section, including the delinquent assessment, reasonable costs of collection, and late charges, at an annual percentage rate not to exceed 12 percent interest, commencing 30 days after the assessment becomes due.

(d) Associations are hereby exempted from interest-rate limitations imposed by Article XV of the California Constitution, subject to the limitations of this section.

SEC. 5. Sections 2, 3, and 4 of this act shall not become operative until July 1, 1991.

CHAPTER 1518

An act to amend Section 53066.1 of the Government Code, relating to cable television.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53066.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53066.1. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 53066, any cable television system which meets all of the following criteria:

(1) Has a capacity of 20 or more video channels.

(2) Receives television signals from a satellite-earth receiving station.

(3) (A) Has a subscriber penetration ratio of less than 70 percent in the entire franchise area which is located in a county or portion of a county which has available three significantly viewed television stations, or two significantly viewed television stations and an educational television station; or (B) has a subscriber penetration ratio of 70 percent or greater in a franchise area which is located in a county or a portion of a county which has available five significantly viewed television stations, or four significantly viewed television stations and an educational television station.

(4) Complies, upon the filing of a statement pursuant to subdivision (d), with the community services channel requirements set forth in subdivision (f), shall, upon written notice to the franchisor, and upon publication of that notice in a newspaper of general circulation within the cable television system's franchise area, be exempt from control by that franchisor or any other authority as to rates, charges, and rate structures. However, the notice may not be given prior to the expiration of two years following the completion and activation of 80 percent of the plant miles required to be constructed by the franchisee pursuant to the original terms of its franchise.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 53066, any cable television system which is unable to meet all of the requirements of subdivision (a), whose franchise area is located in a county or portion of a county which has available three significantly viewed television stations, or two significantly viewed television stations and an educational television station, and which meets one of the following criteria:

(1) Has a subscriber penetration ratio of 70 percent or more in its franchise area and meets all requirements of subdivision (a), except clause (B) of paragraph (3).

(2) Has a capacity of at least 12 video channels in a franchise area with fewer than 3,500 subscribers in a community of less than 20,000 in population, and otherwise meets the requirements of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a), may, upon written notice to the franchisor, and upon publication of that notice in a newspaper of general circulation within the cable television system's franchise area, thereafter adjust those rates, charges, and rate structures previously subject to control, at any time, without the approval of the franchisor or other authority, by an amount not to exceed 75 percent of the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index for the period since the date of the last previous adjustment, or December 31, 1975, if there have been no adjustments since December 31, 1975.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 53066, a cable television system which satisfies the requirements of subdivision (b), and which, prior to January 1, 1980, had a capacity of less than 20 video channels, and subsequently rebuilds its system to a capacity of 20 or more video channels, may initially raise those rates, charges, and rate structures, previously subject to control, without the approval of the franchisor or other authority, to a level not to exceed the statewide average rates for those cable television systems having a capacity of 20 or more video channels, and subsequently thereafter adjust those rates, charges, and rate structures at any time without the approval of the franchisor or other authority, by an amount not to exceed 75 percent of the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index for the period since the date of the last previous adjustment. The statewide average rates for those cable television systems in California having a capacity of 20 or more video channels shall be determined by the Department of Consumer Affairs on the basis of information as to the respective rates, charges, and rate structures of the cable television systems submitted to the Department of Consumer Affairs by March 1 of each year that this section is in effect. The average rates shall be determined by multiplying each applicable cable television system's rates by the number of its subscribers, adding together that figure for all applicable cable television systems, and dividing that total by the total number of applicable subscribers. The Department of Consumer Affairs shall determine the statewide average rates by July 1 of each year that this section is in effect. If a rate adjustment pursuant to this subdivision occurs one year or more after the date used by the Department of Consumer Affairs for its most recent determination of statewide average rates, the adjustment may include an additional rate increase equal to the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index occurring since the date of the department's most recent determination of statewide average rates.

(d) Within 15 working days of the issuance of the written notice to the franchisor under subdivision (a) or (b), the cable television system shall submit to the franchisor a statement, certified pursuant to Section 2015.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, setting forth each of the following:

(1) The name under which the cable television system is doing business.

(2) The mailing address and telephone number of the system.

(3) The video channel capacity of the system.

(4) The subscriber penetration ratio of the system computed within 60 days prior to issuance of the notice to the franchisor.

(5) The method by which the system receives television signals from a satellite-to-earth receiving station.

(6) An identification of the significantly viewed television stations within the county in which the system operates.

(7) The facts demonstrating timely compliance with the community service channel requirement set forth in subdivision (f).

(e) Neither party to a franchise agreement or prospective franchise agreement, or any renewal thereof, shall request, demand, propose, or agree to any provision which by its terms or effect waives any right to which either party is entitled under this section. Any such provision shall be void. This provision is not intended to either validate or invalidate any action by a party to a franchise agreement, prospective franchise agreement or any renewal thereof entered into prior to January 1, 1983, which would otherwise be prohibited by its terms.

(f) A cable television system shall be deemed to be offering a community service channel program if the system does all of the following:

(1) (A) Provides, for those systems which have a capacity of not more than 20 video channels, one channel or its equivalent for use by local members of the public and government entities; or (B) provides for those systems which have a capacity of more than 20 video channels, a second such channel if the first channel is in use during 80 percent of the weekdays for 80 percent of the time during any consecutive 13-hour period for 10 consecutive weeks; or (C) provides, if the system has a capacity of more than 30 video channels, a third such composite channel if the second channel is in use during 80 percent of the weekdays for 80 percent of the time during any consecutive 13-hour period for 10 consecutive weeks.

Upon written request of the franchisor, for those systems which have a capacity of 20 or more channels, the first of those channels shall, if possible, consistent with the requirements of federal law, and reserving three additional channels for programming by the system, be provided as part of the basic service of the system.

(2) Provides, if requested, to individuals, groups and entities using community service channels, technical advice by local program staff and reasonable access to local studio and earth station receiving facilities, if those facilities and staff are part of the local system.

(3) Notifies secondary schools and community colleges located within the franchise area which furnish training in the uses of community service channels of the availability of the system's community service channels.

(4) Has available for use without charge tape playback facilities for entrance into the system.

(5) Provides, by display information on the community service channels, written notice to subscribers, or published notice, information to potential users of the opportunity to have access to community service channels.

(6) Provides, upon election to deregulate and thereafter, as requested, the name, address, and telephone number of the system, the name of the system manager, and the status and utilization of the community service channels, to the foundation for community service channels.

(g) (1) If, at the time of a cable television system's election under subdivision (a), (b), or (c), the franchisor contends that the system is not in compliance with the capacity, satellite-earth receiving station, or penetration ratio requirements thereof, or is not in substantial compliance with the material provisions of its franchise, excluding the performance of any term or condition which the system is or has been excused or prevented from performing or which is, in whole or in part, in the control of a third party, or which is, in whole or in part, invalid, the franchisor may, within 90 days of receipt of the written notice of the system's election, notify the system in writing of the alleged noncompliance, setting forth in detail the grounds therefor. Within 90 days of receipt of the notice from the franchisor, the system shall correct the alleged noncompliance and so notify the franchisor in writing, or shall respond in writing to the allegations set forth in the notice. The franchisor shall have 30 days from the receipt of the system's response within which to renew in writing all or part of its earlier allegations and shall notice a hearing for the purpose of reviewing the system's alleged noncompliance. The hearing shall be commenced not less than 20 or more than 30 days from the end of the 30-day period, and shall be concluded within 30 days of its commencement. If the franchisor does not provide written notice within the 30-day period, it shall be barred, in any proceedings to determine the right to deregulate under this section, from alleging that the system has failed to correct any of the items of noncompliance alleged in the original notice given by the franchisor to the system.

(2) If, as a result of the hearing pursuant to paragraph (1), the franchisor determines that the cable television system was not in compliance at the time of its election and has failed to correct its noncompliance and that no good cause exists for the failure to so comply, the franchisor may file an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to set aside the election. The action shall be filed within 120 days of the conclusion of the hearing or is forever barred. All factual and legal issues in any such action shall be determined de novo in accordance with the rules of civil procedure and evidence applicable to breach of contract actions between private parties. If it is judicially determined that the system was not in compliance and did not timely correct its noncompliance and that no good cause exists for the failure to so comply, the remedy therefor shall be a refund in the form of a monthly credit to the subscribers. The amount of the refund shall bear a reasonable relation to the nature and extent of the system's noncompliance, but in no event shall be greater than any increase in rates obtained under this section. The maximum number of monthly credits to subscribers shall be limited to the number of months during which the system was in noncompliance. At the franchisor's option, this remedy may be utilized in lieu of any remedies provided for in the franchise. A judicial determination setting aside a system's election hereunder shall not preclude a subsequent election by the system when it has cured its noncompliance. The court shall reserve jurisdiction to determine whether the system has so complied and the date of compliance.

(3) The alleged breaches of the material provisions of the franchise which may be considered in determining eligibility to deregulate shall be limited to those which (A) the franchisor has notified the franchisee of in writing within the one-year period immediately preceding the date of the election, (B) the franchisor has orally notified the franchisee of during the six months immediately preceding the date of the election, or (C) occurred within the 90 days immediately preceding the election to deregulate, if discovered within 20 days following the election to deregulate.

(h) (1) If at any time after a cable television system's election under subdivision (a), (b), or (c), the franchisor contends that the system is not in compliance with subdivision (f), the franchisor may notify the system in writing of the alleged noncompliance, setting forth in detail the grounds therefor. Within 90 days of receipt of the notice from the franchisor, the system shall correct the alleged noncompliance and so notify the franchisor in writing or shall respond in writing to the allegations set forth in the notice. The franchisor shall have 30 days from the receipt of the system's response within which to renew in writing all or part of its earlier allegations and shall notice a hearing for the purpose of reviewing the system's alleged noncompliance. The hearing shall be commenced not less than 20 nor more than 30 days from the end of the 30-day period, and shall be concluded within 30 days of its commencement. If the franchisor does not provide written notice within the 30-day period, it shall be barred, in any proceedings to determine the system's compliance with subdivision (f), from alleging that the system has failed to correct any of the items of noncompliance alleged in the original notice given by the franchisor to the system.

(2) If, as a result of the hearing pursuant to paragraph (1), the franchisor determines that the cable television system was not in compliance at the time of the franchisor's original notice pursuant to paragraph (1) and has failed to correct its noncompliance and that no good cause exists for the failure to comply, the franchisor's sole remedy shall be an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to set aside any increase in rates obtained under this section. The action shall be filed within 120 days of the conclusion of the hearing or is forever barred. All factual and legal issues in any such action shall be determined de novo in accordance with the rules of civil procedure and evidence applicable to breach of contract actions between private parties. If it is judicially determined that the system was not in compliance and did not timely correct its noncompliance and that no good cause exists for the failure to so comply, the sole remedy therefor shall be a refund in the form of a monthly credit to the subscribers. The amount of the refund shall bear a reasonable relation to the nature and extent of the system's noncompliance, but in no event shall it be greater than any increase in rates obtained under this section for the number of months which elapsed from the date of the franchisor's original notice pursuant to paragraph (1) to the date the noncompliance was corrected. The maximum number of monthly credits to subscribers shall be limited to that same number of months. In no event, however, shall the refund reduce the cable system's rates to a confiscatory level below that which will enable the cable system to earn a reasonable rate of return on its investment.

(i) The franchisee may utilize any community service channel which is not used for community service programming if community service programming is given scheduling priority.

(j) The franchisor may elect to act as public trustee of the community service channel, to ensure the use of the channel or channels as community service channels.

(k) Neither the franchisor nor the franchisee shall be liable for acts arising from the use of the channel or channels by persons other than the franchisee. The franchisee shall establish regulations governing the use of those channels which provide uniform and nondiscriminatory standards, ensure adequate opportunity for participation by local nongovernmental users and incorporate restrictions on libelous, slanderous, or illegal programs.

(l) No cable television system which has made an election under subdivision (a), (b), or (c) shall discriminate as to its rates, charges, and rate structures against any portion of a franchise area because that portion of the franchise area has poor broadcast television signal reception.

(m) For purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Basic service" means the lowest level of service offered by the system to individual household subscribers.

(2) "Cable television system" means a community antenna television system, under common ownership and control, serving a franchise area or two or more contiguous or electronically connected franchise areas.

(3) "Capacity" means the number of video channels capable of being carried by a cable television system, including optional services, irrespective of programming or lack thereof, or authority to carry any programming.

(4) "Consumer Price Index" means the most recently issued Consumer Price Index published by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics for the area in which the cable television system is located or the nearest area for which such index is published.

(5) "Franchise" means any franchise or license granted pursuant to Section 53066, or any other authority, for the construction or operation of a cable television system.

(6) "Franchisor" means any city, county, or city and county, including any chartered city, county, or city and county, granting a franchise.

(7) "Satellite-earth receiving station" means any structure or device utilized to receive signals from a satellite.

(8) "Significantly viewed television station" means each station which: (A) is designated as such for the area by the Federal Communications Commission in its 1972 listing or any future such listings; or (B) satisfies the Federal Communications Commission requirements as to significantly viewed signals for the area as contained in the most recent Arbitron study; or (C) has sufficient signal strength in the geographic area served by the cable television system to meet the grade B contour testing procedures outlined in Section 73.683, et seq., of Title 47 of the Code of Federal Regulations (particularly subsection (c) of Section 73.686, "collection of field strength data to determine television service in specific communities") from the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission. However, the test in clause (C) may be utilized only for deregulation pursuant to clause (B) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a). In the event that the cable television system utilized clause (A) or clause (B) for qualifying for deregulation pursuant to clause (B) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), the franchisor may require the system to submit the results of a test demonstrating that a minimum of five stations have sufficient signal strength to meet the requirements of clause (C). That request by the franchisor shall be made within 30 days from receipt of the statement provided for in subdivision (d).

(9) "Subscriber penetration ratio" means the number of subscribing residences divided by the total number of residences having cable available. For the purposes of this definition, a "residence" is a single-family dwelling unit which is or would be billed directly by the cable television system on an individual subscriber basis.

(n) In the absence of like provisions in the franchise, if a franchisee elects deregulation pursuant to this section, the franchisor may institute the use of any of the following mechanisms:

(1) The legislative body or bodies having jurisdiction over the franchise area may establish procedures, by ordinance, providing for resolution of individual consumer complaints. Those procedures may include mediation procedures, arbitration procedures, procedures to deposit in an escrow account the disputed portion of the individual consumer's monthly service payments during pendency of the dispute, and prohibiting service disconnection of the complaining consumer during pendency of the dispute if the moneys are paid into the escrow accounts. The ordinance shall provide procedures for administrative hearings and appeals. The legislative body or bodies may appoint mediators, arbitrators, or other persons or bodies to resolve disputes. The ordinance may contain a schedule of penalties for consumer complaints, but the penalty for an individual complaint shall not exceed two hundred dollars ($200). Prior to enacting such an ordinance, the legislative body or bodies shall give the franchisee 15 days or more written notice of the franchisor's intent to enact the ordinance, together with an outline of the intended provisions or a copy of the proposed ordinance. If requested by the franchisee, the ordinance shall provide for three-person arbitration boards, with one arbitrator chosen by the franchisor, one by the franchisee, and the third arbitrator chosen by the first two arbitrators.

(2) The legislative body may, by ordinance, provide a schedule of penalties for violations of the material terms of the franchise, not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) for each occurrence or series of related occurrences. Prior to enacting such an ordinance, the legislative body or bodies shall give the franchisee 15 days or more written notice of the franchisor's intent to enact the ordinance, together with an outline of the intended provisions or a copy of the proposed ordinance. Those penalties may be levied if the franchisor gives written notice to the franchisee to correct the breach, and the franchisee fails to correct the problem within a reasonable period of time after delivery of the notice. The franchisor may not levy a penalty more than one year after the date it notifies the franchisee of the alleged franchise breach. The ordinance shall provide that if the franchisee objects to the penalty, in writing, to the franchisor, the franchisee and franchisor shall submit the dispute to arbitration in a manner mutually agreed upon, or in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final. The ordinance shall provide a limit on the time the franchisee has to object to a penalty, but the time limit may not be less than 60 days. The franchisor may require the franchisee to post a bond within 90 days of the franchisee's election to deregulate and require maintenance of the bond as a condition to continuing deregulation under this section. The bond may not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each 5,000 subscribers or fraction thereof in the franchise area, with a maximum limit of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(3) The franchisor may require in the ordinance that the franchisee provide written notice to each subscriber at intervals of not more than one year, of the consumer protection sanctions and procedures enacted pursuant to paragraph (1). The telephone number and address of the franchisee and franchisor to whom complaints may be directed shall be included in the notice.

(o) The Director of Consumer Affairs may, pursuant to the director's authority under Section 321 of the Business and Professions Code, receive and act upon subscriber complaints regarding cable television service, and may initiate action thereon as authorized by that section.

(p) While the development and the regulation of cable television is a matter of statewide concern, the Legislature finds and directs that the exercise of the police power of the State of California concerning cable television should, except as otherwise directed by the Legislature, remain in the cities, counties, or cities and counties; and that the cable television companies and the cities, counties, or cities and counties should remain able, subject to the proper limits of that police power, to contract one with the other pursuant to the ordinary rules of, and subject to the ordinary remedies of, contract law. However, neither a cable television system nor a franchisor may, with respect to any franchise agreement awarded or renewed on or after January 1, 1983, raise the defense of impairment of contract in any case where the due and proper exercise of police power, or the limits thereof, is at issue, and a provision to this effect shall be deemed to be incorporated in any such franchise agreements.

(q) This section shall establish the state's preemption, under the terms and conditions prescribed herein, of the control and regulation of cable television subscriber rates, charges, and rate structures heretofore or hereinafter established by any franchisor pursuant to Section 53066, to the extent that such control or regulation is inconsistent with this section.

(r) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends that date. However, the rates, charges, and rate structures in effect on January 1, 1992, shall not be subject to reduction by a franchisor having rate reduction authority.

CHAPTER 1519

An act to amend Section 394 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to state military service.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 394 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

394. (a) No person shall discriminate against any officer, warrant officer or enlisted member of the military or naval forces of the state or of the United States because of that membership. No member of the military forces shall be prejudiced or injured by any person, employer, or officer or agent of any corporation, company, or firm with respect to that member's employment, position or status or be denied or disqualified for employment by virtue of membership or service in the military forces of this state or of the United States.

(b) No officer or employee of the state, or of any county, city and county, municipal corporation, or district shall discriminate against any officer, warrant officer or enlisted member of the military or naval forces of the state or of the United States because of that membership. No member of the military forces shall be prejudiced or injured by any officer or employee of the state, or of any county, city and county, municipal corporation, or district with respect to that member's employment, appointment, position or status or be denied or disqualified for or discharged from that employment or position by virtue of membership or service in the military forces of this state or of the United States.

(c) No person shall prohibit or refuse entrance to any officer or enlisted member of the Army or Navy of the United States or of the military or naval forces of this state into any public entertainment or place of amusement or into any of the places described in Sections 51 and 52 of the Civil Code because that member wears the uniform of the organization to which he or she belongs.

(d) No employer or officer or agent of any corporation, company, or firm, or other person, shall discharge any person from employment because of the performance of any ordered military duty or training or by reason of being an officer, warrant officer, or enlisted member of the military or naval forces of this state, or hinder or prevent that person from performing any military service or from attending any military encampment or place of drill or instruction he or she may be called upon to perform or attend by proper authority; prejudice or harm him or her in any manner in his or her employment, position, or status by reason of performance of military service or duty or attendance at military encampments or places of drill or instruction; or dissuade, prevent, or stop any person from enlistment or accepting a warrant or commission in the California National Guard or Naval Militia by threat or injury to him or her in respect to his or her employment, position, status, trade, or business because of enlistment or acceptance of a warrant or commission.

(e) (1) No private employer or officer or agent of any corporation, company, or firm, or other person, shall restrict or terminate any collateral benefit for employees by reason of an employee's temporary incapacitation incident to duty in the National Guard or Naval Militia. As used in this subdivision, "temporary incapacitation" means any period of incapacitation of 52 weeks or less.

(2) As used in this subdivision, "benefit" includes, but is not limited to, health care which may be continued at the employee's expense, life insurance, disability insurance, and seniority status.

(f) Any person violating this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1520

An act to amend Section 8730 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to land surveying.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8730 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8730. The following are not required to be licensed under this chapter:

(a) Officers and employees of the United States of America, practicing solely as those officers or employees, except when surveying the exterior boundaries of federal lands in this state.

(b) Insofar as he or she acts in the following capacity:

(1) Any state, county, city, or district employee directly responsible to a licensed land surveyor or registered civil engineer.

(2) Any subordinate to a land surveyor or civil engineer licensed or registered as required by the laws of this state in so far as he or she acts as a subordinate.

(c) Any officer or employee of an electric, gas, or telephone corporation, as defined in Sections 218, 222, and 234, respectively, of the Public Utilities Code, with annual revenues of twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000) or more, whenever he or she prepares a legal description of an easement for utility distribution lines and service facilities, provided the following conditions are met:

(1) Each description identifies the corporation that prepared the description and states that it was prepared pursuant to this exemption.

(2) Each corporation has in its employ, or on contract, an individual authorized to practice land surveying who shall be responsible for establishing criteria for determining the qualifications of technical specialists preparing those legal descriptions, specifying the format and information to be shown on maps or documents containing those descriptions, and capable of answering questions regarding the preparation of those descriptions.

CHAPTER 1521

An act to add Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 125) to Part 1 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code, relating to liability, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 125) is added to Part 1 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.5. RISK RETENTION

125. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the California Risk Retention Act of 1990.

126. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this chapter are for the purpose of providing a means for a bona fide for-profit or nonprofit association or individual business to insure against liability and those obligations imposed by statute.

127. Unless the context otherwise requires, the general provisions hereinafter set forth shall govern the application of this chapter and supersede any other provisions of law in conflict.

128. The purposes of this chapter are as follows:

(a) To regulate the formation and operation of risk retention groups and purchasing groups in this state formed pursuant to the federal Liability Risk Retention Act of 1986, to the extent permitted by that law.

(b) To promote the formation and operation of risk retention groups and purchasing groups in this state. Californians who are experiencing difficulty in obtaining liability coverage are encouraged to form and operate risk retention and purchasing groups in this state.

(c) To authorize the formation of a risk retention group for directors and officers of corporations, whether for profit or nonprofit, who are engaged in the same line of business with respect to the liability risks faced by those officers and directors within the meaning of the federal Liability Risk Retention Act of 1986.

130. The following definitions govern this chapter:

(a) "Commissioner" means the Insurance Commissioner of this state or the commissioner, director, or superintendent of insurance of any other state.

(b) "Domicile," for purposes of determining the state in which a purchasing group is domiciled, means the following:

(1) For a corporation, the state in which the purchasing group is incorporated.

(2) For an unincorporated entity, the state of its principal place of business.

(c) "Hazardous financial condition" means that, based on its present or reasonably anticipated financial condition, a risk retention group is unlikely to be able to do either of the following:

(1) Meet obligations to policyholders with respect to known claims and reasonably anticipated claims.

(2) Pay other obligations in the normal course of business.

(d) "Insurance" means primary insurance, excess insurance, reinsurance, surplus lines insurance, and any other arrangement for shifting and distributing risk that is determined to be insurance under the laws of this state.

(e) (1) "Liability" means legal liability for damages including costs of defense, legal costs and fees, and other claims expenses because of injuries to other persons, damage to their property, or other damage or loss to such other persons resulting from or arising out of any of the following:

(A) Any business, whether profit or nonprofit, trade, product, services, including professional services, premises, or operations.

(B) Any activity of any state or local government, or any agency or political subdivision thereof.

(2) "Liability" includes financial responsibility required by the state for any activity for which an individual shall be required to obtain a license or certificate to provide a service. For purposes of this subdivision, a state agency shall have discretion to accept or deny proof of financial responsibility.

(3) "Liability" does not include personal risk liability or an employer's liability with respect to its employees other than legal liability under the Federal Employers' Liability Act (45 U.S.C. Sec. 51 et seq.).

(f) "Personal risk liability" means liability for damages because of injury to any person, damage to property, or other loss or damage resulting from any personal, familial, or household responsibilities or activities, rather than from responsibilities or activities referred to in subdivision (f).

(g) "Plan of operation or a feasibility study" with respect to risk retention groups chartered in California, includes analysis which presents the expected activities and results of a risk retention group including, at a minimum, all of the following:

(1) Information to demonstrate that its members are engaged in businesses or activities similar or related with respect to the liability to which those members are exposed by virtue of any related, similar, or common business, trade, product, services, premises, or operations.

(2) For each state in which it intends to operate, the coverages, deductibles, coverage limits, rates, and rating classification systems for each line of insurance the group intends to offer.

(3) Historical and expected loss experience of the proposed members and national experience of similar exposures, to the extent that this experience is reasonably available.

(4) Pro forma financial statements and projections.

(5) Appropriate opinions by a qualified, independent casualty actuary, including a determination of minimum premium or participation levels required to commence operations and to prevent a hazardous financial condition.

(6) Identification of management, underwriting and claims procedures, marketing methods, managerial oversight methods, investment policies and reinsurance agreements.

(h) "Public entity" includes the state, the Regents of the University of California, a county, city, district, public authority, public agency, and any other political subdivision or public corporation in the state.

(i) "Purchasing group" means any group which does all of the following:

(1) Has as one of its purposes the purchase of liability insurance on a group basis.

(2) Purchases that insurance only for its group members and only to cover their similar or related liability exposure, as described in paragraph (3).

(3) Is composed of members whose businesses or activities are similar or related with respect to the liability to which members are exposed by virtue of any related, similar, or common business, trade, product, services, premises, or operations.

(4) Is domiciled in any state.

(j) "Risk Retention Administration Account" means an account within the Insurance Fund to be used as a depository of moneys received under this chapter or appropriated by the Legislature for the purpose of administering this chapter.

(k) "Risk retention group" means any corporation, public entity, or other limited liability association formed under the laws of any state, Bermuda, or the Cayman Islands that meets all of the following criteria:

(1) Whose primary activity consists of assuming and spreading all, or any portion, of the liability exposure of its group members.

(2) Which is organized for the primary purpose of conducting the activity described under paragraph (1).

(3) Which is either of the following:

(A) Chartered and licensed as a liability insurance company and authorized to engage in the business of insurance under the laws of any state.

(B) Before January 1, 1985, was chartered or licensed and authorized to engage in the business of insurance under the laws of Bermuda or the Cayman Islands and, before that date, has certified to the insurance commissioner of at least one state that it satisfied the capitalization requirements of that state, except that any such group shall be considered to be a risk retention group only if it has been engaged in business continuously since that date and only for the purpose of continuing to provide insurance to cover product liability or completed operations liability as those terms were defined in the Product Liability Risk Retention Act of 1981 before the date of the enactment of the federal Liability Risk Retention Act of 1986.

(4) Does not exclude any person from membership in the group solely to provide for members of the group a competitive advantage over that person.

(5) Has as its members only persons who comprise the membership of the risk retention group and as its owners only persons who comprise the membership of the risk retention group and who are provided insurance by that group.

(6) Whose members are engaged in businesses or activities similar or related with respect to the liability of which those members are exposed by virtue of any related, similar, or common business trade, product, services, premises, or operations.

(7) Whose activities do not include the provision of insurance other than for the following:

(A) Liability insurance for assuming and spreading all or any portion of the liability of its group members.

(B) Reinsurance with respect to the liability of any other risk retention group or any members of that other group which is engaged in businesses or activities so that such group or member meets the requirement described in paragraph (6) from membership in the risk retention group which provides that reinsurance.

(8) The name of which includes the phrase "risk retention group."

(l) "State" means any state of the United States or the District of Columbia.

131. (a) An entity seeking to be licensed in this state as a risk retention group shall be organized under the laws of this state and licensed as a liability insurance company pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 699) of Chapter 1 of Part 2.

(b) An entity that has not completed its chartering and licensing as a risk retention group in its domiciliary state is subject to the requirements of Article 8 (commencing with Section 820) of Chapter 1 of Part 2.

(c) In addition to the requirements of Article 3 (commencing with Section 699) of Chapter 1 of Part 2, a risk retention group licensed in this state shall submit to the commissioner a feasibility study or plan of operations and all other documentation required by the federal Liability Risk Retention Act of 1986 (15 U.S.C. Section 3901 et seq.) to be submitted by a risk retention group to a nonchartering state.

132. Risk retention groups chartered, incorporated, or licensed in states other than this state and seeking to do business as a risk retention group in this state shall file a notice of operation with the commissioner of its intention to do business in this state. The notice shall be filed with the commissioner within 60 days of the filing by the group of any notice filed with its chartering state of its intention to do business in this state, but in no event shall a notice of intended operation be filed with the commissioner less than 60 days prior to the group commencing business in this state. In doing business in this state the risk retention group shall observe and abide by the laws of this state including the following:

(a) A risk retention group shall submit to the commissioner all of the following:

(1) A statement identifying the state or states in which the risk retention group is chartered and licensed as a liability insurance company, date of chartering, its principal place of business, and such other information, including information on its membership, as the commissioner of this state may require to verify that the risk retention group is qualified under subdivision (m) of Section 130.

(2) A copy of its plan of operations or a feasibility study and revisions of the plan or study submitted to the state in which the risk retention group is chartered and licensed. However, the provision relating to the submission of a plan of operation or a feasibility study shall not apply with respect to any line or classification of liability insurance which (A) was defined in the Product Liability Risk Retention Act of 1981 before October 27, 1986, and (B) was offered before that date by any risk retention group which had been chartered and operating for not less than three years before that date.

(3) A statement of registration which designates the commissioner as its agent for the purpose of receiving service of legal documents or process.

(4) A registration filing fee shall accompany the statement of registration, which shall be deposited in the Risk Retention Administration Account, which is hereby created within the Insurance Fund. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, moneys in the account are continuously appropriated to the department for purposes of this chapter.

(b) Any risk retention group within this state shall submit to the commissioner all of the following:

(1) Upon commencement of business within this state and annually thereafter, a copy of the group's annual financial statement submitted to the state in which the risk retention group is chartered and licensed which shall be certified by an independent public accountant and contain a statement of opinion on loss and loss adjustment expense reserves made by a member of the American Academy of Actuaries or a qualified loss reserve specialist.

(2) Upon request by the commissioner, a copy of each examination of the risk retention group as certified by the commissioner or public official conducting the examination and all documentation received as part of the examination.

(3) Upon request by the commissioner, a copy of any outside audit performed with respect to the risk retention group.

(c) (1) As authorized under the federal Liability Risk Retention Act of 1986 (15 U.S.C. Sec. 3902 (a) (1) (B)), each risk retention group shall be liable for the payment of premium taxes and taxes on premiums for business done or located within this state, and shall report to the commissioner the net premiums written on business done within this state. The risk retention group shall be subject to taxation, and any applicable fines and nonconformance fees related thereto, on the same basis as a foreign admitted insurer. Nonconformance fees shall be paid to the department and deposited in the Risk Retention Administration Account within the Insurance Fund.

(2) To the extent licensed agents and brokers are utilized pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1760) of Part 2, they shall report to the commissioner the premiums for direct business for risks resident or located within this state which those licensees have placed with or on behalf of, a risk retention group not chartered in this state.

(d) Any risk retention group, its agents and representatives shall comply with Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 790) of Chapter 1 of Part 2.

(e) Any risk retention group shall comply with the laws of this state regarding deceptive, false, or fraudulent acts or practices. However, if the commissioner seeks an injunction regarding that conduct, the injunction shall be obtained from a court of competent jurisdiction.

(f) Any risk retention group shall submit to an examination upon request by the commissioner to determine its financial condition if the commissioner of the jurisdiction in which the group is chartered and licensed has not initiated an examination or does not initiate an examination within 60 days after a request by the commissioner of this state.

(g) Every application form for insurance from a risk retention group and every policy issued by a risk retention group shall contain in 10-point type on the front page and the declaration page, the following notice:

"NOTICE

This policy is issued by your risk retention group. Your risk retention group may not be subject to all of the insurance laws and regulations of your state. State insurance insolvency guaranty funds are not available for your risk retention group."

(h) The following acts by a risk retention group are hereby prohibited:

(1) The solicitation or sale of insurance by a risk retention group to any person who is not eligible for membership in that group.

(2) The solicitation or sale of insurance by, or operation of, a risk retention group that is in a hazardous financial condition.

(i) No risk retention group may offer insurance policy coverage prohibited by Section 533 or declared unlawful by the Supreme Court of California.

133. (a) No risk retention group shall be required or permitted to join or contribute financially to any insurance insolvency guaranty fund, or similar mechanism, in this state, nor shall any risk retention group, or its insureds or claimants against its insureds, receive any benefit from any such fund for claims arising under the insurance policies issued by that risk retention group.

(b) When a purchasing group obtains insurance covering its members' risks from an insurer not authorized in this state or a risk retention group, no such risks, wherever located, shall be covered by any insurance guaranty fund or similar mechanism in this state.

(c) When a purchasing group obtains insurance covering its members' risks from an authorized admitted insurer, only risks located in this state shall be covered by the state insurance guaranty fund.

(d) A risk retention group shall not participate in this state's joint underwriting associations, California Automobile Assigned Risk Plan, Fair Access to Insurance Requirements Plan, and market assistance plans.

134. (a) A purchasing group which intends to do business in this state shall, prior to doing business, furnish notice to the commissioner which shall do all of the following:

(1) Identify the state in which the group is domiciled.

(2) Specify the lines and classifications of liability insurance which the purchasing group intends to purchase.

(3) Identify the insurance company or companies from which the group intends to purchase its insurance and the domicile of that company.

(4) Specify the method by which, and the person or persons, if any, through whom insurance will be offered to its members whose risks are resident or located in this state.

(5) Identify the principal place of business of the group.

(6) Provide other information that may be required by the commissioner to verify that the purchasing group is qualified under subdivision (k) of Section 130.

(b) The purchasing group shall register with and designate the commissioner as its agent solely for the purpose of receiving service of legal documents or process, for which a filing fee in the amount of three hundred dollars ($300) shall be submitted to the commissioner for deposit in the Risk Retention Administration Account within the Insurance Fund, except that these requirements shall not apply in the case of a purchasing group which did all of the following:

(1) Was domiciled before April 1, 1986, and is domiciled on and after October 27, 1986, in any state of the United States.

(2) Before October 27, 1986, purchased insurance from an insurance carrier licensed in any state, and since October 27, 1986, purchased its insurance from an insurance carrier licensed in any state.

(3) Was a purchasing group under the requirements of the Product Liability Risk Retention Act of 1981 before October 27, 1986.

(4) Does not purchase insurance that was not authorized for purposes of an exemption under that act, as in effect before October 27, 1986.

(c) Any purchasing group which was doing business in this state prior to the enactment of this chapter shall, within 30 days after January 1, 1990, furnish notice to the commissioner pursuant to subdivision (a) and furnish information that may be required pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c).

(d) Each purchasing group which is required to give notice pursuant to subdivision (a) shall also furnish information as may be required by the commissioner to:

(1) Verify that the entity qualifies as a purchasing group.

(2) Determine where the purchasing group is located.

(3) Determine appropriate tax treatment.

135. (a) No purchasing group may offer insurance policy coverage prohibited by Section 533 or declared invalid by the Supreme Court of California.

(b) A purchasing group which obtains liability insurance from an insurer not admitted in this state or a risk retention group shall inform each of the members of the group which have a risk resident or located in this state all of the following:

(1) The risk is not protected by an insurance insolvency guaranty fund in this state.

(2) The risk retention group or such insurer may not be subject to all insurance laws and regulations of this state.

136. The powers authorized by this chapter shall only be exercised to the extent these powers are not preempted by the Product Liability Risk Retention Act of 1981, as amended by the Risk Retention Amendments of 1986.

137. (a) No person, firm, association, or corporation shall act or aid in any manner in soliciting, negotiating, or procuring liability insurance in this state from a risk retention group unless that person, firm, association, or corporation is licensed as an insurance agent or broker in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1621) of Part 2.

(b) No person, firm, association, or corporation shall act or aid in any manner in soliciting, negotiating, or procuring liability insurance from an insurer not authorized to do business in this state on behalf of a purchasing group located in this state unless that person, firm, association, or corporation is licensed as a surplus lines agent or excess line broker in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1621) of Part 2. A nonresident person may be licensed as a surplus lines broker for purposes of placing insurance on behalf of a purchasing group.

(c) Any person, firm, association, or corporation licensed pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1621) of Part 2, on business placed with risk retention groups or written through a purchasing group, shall inform each prospective insured of the provisions of the notice required by subdivision (g) of Section 132 in the case of a risk retention group and subdivision (c) of Section 135 in the case of a purchasing group.

138. There shall be no civil liability on the part of any agent or broker who places liability insurance coverage on behalf of any risk retention group which is incorporated and licensed in this state in the event of an insolvency by the risk retention group.

140. The commissioner shall enjoin the solicitation or sale of insurance by, or the operations of, a risk retention group or purchasing group whose officers, organizers, or directors have been determined to possess a restricted license or found guilty of criminal liability pursuant to the Evidence Code due to wrongful conduct within the previous five years under circumstances which create a likelihood that the conduct would be repeated. The commissioner shall have the authority to seek injunctive relief pursuant to this section, or any other law or regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

SEC. 2. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

CHAPTER 1522

An act to amend Sections 3513, 3515, and 3517.6 of, to repeal Sections 3517.8, 3522, 3522.1, 3522.2, 3522.3, 3522.4, 3522.5, 3522.6, 3522.65, 3522.7, 3522.8, and 3522.9 of, and to repeal and add Chapter 10.5 (commencing with Section 3525) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, relating to state employees.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3513 of the Government Code is amended to read:

3513. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Employee organization" means any organization which includes employees of the state and which has as one of its primary purposes representing these employees in their relations with the state.

(b) "Recognized employee organization" means an employee organization which has been recognized by the state as the exclusive representative of the employees in an appropriate unit.

(c) "State employee" means any civil service employee of the state, and the teaching staff of schools under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Education or the Superintendent of Public Instruction, except managerial employees, confidential employees, supervisory employees, employees of the Department of Personnel Administration, professional employees of the Department of Finance engaged in technical or analytical state budget preparation other than the auditing staff, professional employees in the Personnel/Payroll Services Division of the Controller's office engaged in technical or analytical duties in support of the state's personnel and payroll systems other than the training staff, employees of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, employees of the board, conciliators employed by the State Conciliation Service within the Department of Industrial Relations, and intermittent athletic inspectors who are employees of the State Athletic Commission.

(d) "Mediation" means effort by an impartial third party to assist in reconciling a dispute regarding wages, hours and other terms and conditions of employment between representatives of the public agency and the recognized employee organization or recognized employee organizations through interpretation, suggestion and advice.

(e) "Managerial employee" means any employee having significant responsibilities for formulating or administering agency or departmental policies and programs or administering an agency or department.

(f) "Confidential employee" means any employee who is required to develop or present management positions with respect to employer-employee relations or whose duties normally require access to confidential information contributing significantly to the development of management positions.

(g) "Supervisory employee" means any individual, regardless of the job description or title, having authority, in the interest of the employer, to hire, transfer, suspend, lay off, recall, promote, discharge, assign, reward, or discipline other employees, or responsibility to direct them, or to adjust their grievances, or effectively to recommend this action, if, in connection with the foregoing, the exercise of this authority is not of a merely routine or clerical nature, but requires the use of independent judgment. Employees whose duties are substantially similar to those of their subordinates shall not be considered to be supervisory employees.

(h) "Board" means the Public Employment Relations Board. The Educational Employment Relations Board established pursuant to Section 3541 shall be renamed the Public Employment Relations Board as provided in Section 3540. The powers and duties of the board described in Section 3541.3 shall also apply, as appropriate, to this chapter.

(i) "Maintenance of membership" means that all employees who voluntarily are, or who voluntarily become, members of a recognized employee organization shall remain members of such employee organization in good standing for a period as agreed to by the parties pursuant to a memorandum of understanding, commencing with the effective date of the memorandum of understanding. A maintenance of membership provision shall not apply to any employee who within 30 days prior to the expiration of the memorandum of understanding withdraws from the employee organization by sending a signed withdrawal letter to the employee organization and a copy to the State Controller's office.

(j) "State employer," or "employer," for the purposes of bargaining or meeting and conferring in good faith, means the Governor or his or her designated representatives.

(k) "Fair share fee" means the fee deducted by the state employer from the salary or wages of a state employee in an appropriate unit who does not become a member of and financially support the recognized employee organization. The fair share fee shall be used to defray the costs incurred by the recognized employee organization in fulfilling its duty to represent the employees in their employment relations with the state, and shall not exceed the standard initiation fee, membership dues, and general assessments of the recognized employee organization.

SEC. 2. Section 3515 of the Government Code is amended to read:

3515. Except as otherwise provided by the Legislature, state employees shall have the right to form, join, and participate in the activities of employee organizations of their own choosing for the purpose of representation on all matters of employer-employee relations. State employees also shall have the right to refuse to join or participate in the activities of employee organizations, except that nothing shall preclude the parties from agreeing to a maintenance of membership provision, as defined in subdivision (i) of Section 3513, or a fair share fee provision, as defined in subdivision (k) of Section 3513, pursuant to a memorandum of understanding. In any event, state employees shall have the right to represent themselves individually in their employment relations with the state.

SEC. 3. Section 3517.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

3517.6. In any case where the provisions of Section 70031 of the Education Code, or subdivision (i) of Section 3513, or Section 14876, 18714, 19080.5, 19100, 19143, 19261, 19818.16, 19819.1, 19820, 19822, 19824, 19826, 19827, 19828, 19829, 19830, 19831, 19832, 19833, 19834, 19835, 19836, 19837, 19838, 19839, 19840, 19841, 19842, 19843, 19844, 19845, 19846, 19847, 19848, 19849, 19849.1, 19849.4, 19850.1, 19850.2, 19850.3, 19850.4, 19850.5, 19850.6, 19851, 19853, 19854, 19856, 19856.1, 19858.1, 19858.2, 19859, 19860, 19861, 19862, 19862.1, 19863, 19863.1, 19864, 19866, 19869, 19870, 19871, 19871.1, 19872, 19873, 19874, 19875, 19876, 19877, 19877.1, 19878, 19879, 19880, 19880.1, 19881, 19882, 19883, 19884, 19885, 19887, 19887.1, 19887.2, 19888, 19990, 19991, 19991.1, 19991.2, 19991.3, 19991.4, 19991.5, 19991.6, 19991.7, 19992, 19992.1, 19992.2, 19992.3, 19992.4, 19993, 19994.1, 19994.2, 19994.3, 19994.4, 19995, 19995.1, 19995.2, 19995.3, 19996.1, 19996.2, 19998, 19998.1, 20750.11, 21400, 21402, 21404, 21405, 22825, or 22825.1 are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding, the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action. In any case where the provisions of Section 19997.2, 19997.3, 19997.8, 19997.9, 19997.10, 19997.11, 19997.12, 19997.13, or 19997.14 are in conflict with the provisions of a memorandum of understanding, the terms of the memorandum of understanding shall be controlling unless the State Personnel Board finds those terms to be inconsistent with merit employment principles as provided for by Article VII of the California Constitution. Where this finding is made, the provisions of the Government Code shall prevail until those affected sections of the memorandum of understanding are renegotiated to resolve the inconsistency. If any provision of the memorandum of understanding requires the expenditure of funds, those provisions of the memorandum of understanding shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act. If any provision of the memorandum of understanding requires legislative action to permit its implementation by amendment of any section not cited above, those provisions of the memorandum of understanding shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature.

SEC. 4. Section 3517.8 of the Government Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 10.5. EXCLUDED EMPLOYEES BILL OF RIGHTS

3525. This chapter shall be known, and may be cited, as the Bill of Rights for State Excluded Employees.

3526. The purpose of this chapter is to inform state supervisory, managerial, confidential, and employees otherwise excepted from coverage under the Ralph C. Dills Act by subdivision (c) of Section 3513 of their rights and terms and conditions of employment, and to inspire dedicated service and promote harmonious personnel relations among those representing state management in the conduct of state affairs.

3527. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Employee" means a civil service employee of the State of California. The "State of California" as used in this chapter includes such state agencies, boards, and commissions as may be designated by law that employ civil service employees, except the University of California, Hastings College of the Law, and the California State University.

(b) "Excluded employee," means all managerial employees, as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 3513, all confidential employees, as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 3513, and all supervisory employees, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 3513, and all civil service employees of the Department of Personnel Administration, professional employees of the Department of Finance engaged in technical or analytical state budget preparation other than the auditing staff, professional employees in the Personnel/Payroll Services Division of the Controller's office engaged in technical or analytical duties in support of the state's personnel and payroll systems other than the training staff, employees of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, employees of the Public Employment Relations Board, conciliators employed by the State Conciliation Service within the Department of Industrial Relations, and intermittent athletic inspectors who are employees of the State Athletic Commission.

(c) "Supervisory employee organization" means an organization which represents members who are supervisory employees under subdivision (g) of Section 3513.

(d) "Excluded employee organization," means an organization which includes excluded employees of the state, as defined in subdivision (b), and which has as one of its primary purposes representing its members in employer-employee relations. Excluded employee organization includes supervisory employee organizations.

(e) "State employer," or "employer," for purposes of meeting and conferring on matters relating to supervisory employer-employee relations, means the Governor or his or her designated representatives.

3528. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the rights and protections provided to excluded employees under this chapter constitute a matter of important concern. The Legislature further finds and declares that the efficient and effective administration of state programs depends upon the maintenance of high morale and the objective consideration of issues raised between excluded employees and their employer.

3529. (a) Except for supervisory employees as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 3513, excluded employees shall not hold any office in an employee organization which also represents nonexcluded employees.

(b) Excluded employees shall not participate in the handling of grievances on behalf of nonexcluded employees. Nonexcluded employees shall not participate in the handling of grievances on behalf of excluded employees.

(c) Excluded employees shall not participate in meet and confer sessions on behalf of nonexcluded employees. Nonexcluded employees shall not participate in meet and confer sessions on behalf of supervisory employees.

(d) The prohibition in subdivisions (b) and (c) shall not apply to the paid staff of an excluded or supervisory employee organization.

(e) Excluded employees shall not vote on questions of ratification or rejection of memoranda of understanding reached on behalf of nonexcluded employees.

3530. Excluded employee organizations shall have the right to represent their excluded members in their employment relations, including grievances, with the State of California. Excluded employee organizations may establish reasonable restrictions regarding who may join and may make reasonable provisions for the dismissal of excluded employees from membership. This section shall not prohibit any excluded employee from appearing on his or her own behalf or through his or her chosen representative in his or her employment relations and grievances with the State of California.

3531. Supervisory employees shall have the right to form, join, and participate in the activities of supervisory employee organizations of their own choosing for the purpose of representation on all matters of supervisory employer-employee relations, as set forth in Section 3532. Supervisory employees also shall have the right to refuse to join or participate in the activities of supervisory employee organizations and shall have the right to represent themselves individually in their employment relations with the public employer.

3532. The scope of representation for supervisory employees shall include all matters relating to employment conditions and supervisory employer-employee relations including wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment.

3533. Upon request, the state shall meet and confer with verified supervisory employee organizations representing supervisory employees. "Meet and confer" means that they shall consider as fully as the employer deems reasonable such presentations as are made by the verified supervisory employee organization on behalf of its supervisory members prior to arriving at a determination of policy or course of action.

3534. The state employer shall allow a reasonable number of supervisory public employee representatives of verified supervisory employee organizations reasonable time off without loss of compensation or other benefits when meeting and conferring with representatives of the state employer on matters within the scope of representation for supervisory employees.

3535. The Department of Personnel Administration may adopt rules and regulations for the administration of excluded employer-employee relations, including supervisory employer-employee relations, under these provisions. Such rules and regulations may include provisions for:

(a) Verifying that an excluded employee organization does in fact represent excluded employees.

(b) Verifying the official status of excluded employee organization officers and representatives.

(c) Access of excluded employee organization officers and representatives to work locations.

(d) Use of official bulletin boards and other means of communication by excluded employee organizations.

(e) Furnishing nonconfidential information pertaining to excluded employee relations to excluded employee organizations.

(f) Any other matters as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

3536. The state may adopt reasonable rules and regulations providing for designation of the management and confidential employees of the state and restricting these employees from representing any employee organization, which represents other employees of the state, on matters within the scope of representation. Except as specifically provided otherwise in this chapter, this section does not otherwise limit the right of excluded employees to be members of and to hold office in an excluded employee organization.

3537. Every excluded employee organization shall submit an annual registration statement on or before July 1 of each calendar year to the Department of Personnel Administration. The registration statement shall, at a minimum, list the name of the organization, its affiliations, headquarters, and other business addresses, its principal business telephone number, a list of principal officers and representatives, and a copy of its organization bylaws.

3538. The state employer and excluded employee organizations shall not interfere with, intimidate, restrain, coerce, or discriminate against supervisory employees because of their exercise of their rights under this article.

3539. The enactment of this chapter shall not make Section 923 of the Labor Code applicable to state employees.

3539.5. The Department of Personnel Administration may adopt or amend regulations to implement employee benfits for those state officers and employees excluded from, or not otherwise subject to, the Ralph C. Dills Act.

These regulations shall not be subject to the review and approval of the Office of Administrative Law pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2). These regulations shall become effective immediately upon filing with the Secretary of State.

CHAPTER 1523

An act to amend Sections 50052.5 and 50053 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to housing, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50052.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50052.5. (a) For any owner-occupied housing which receives assistance prior to January 1, 1991, and a condition of that assistance is compliance with this section, "affordable housing cost" with respect to lower income households shall not exceed 25 percent of gross income.

(b) For any owner-occupied housing which receives assistance on or after January 1, 1991, and a condition of that assistance is compliance with this section, "affordable housing cost" shall not exceed the following:

(1) For very low income households the product of 30 percent times 50 percent of the area median income adjusted for family size appropriate for the unit.

(2) For lower income households whose gross incomes exceed the maximum income for very low income households and do not exceed 70 percent of the area median income adjusted for family size, the product of 30 percent times 70 percent of the area median income adjusted for family size appropriate for the unit. In addition, for any lower income household that has a gross income that equals or exceeds 70 percent of the area median income adjusted for family size, it shall be optional for any state or local funding agency to require that affordable housing cost not exceed 30 percent of the gross income of the household.

(3) For moderate income households, affordable housing cost shall not be less than 28 percent of the gross income of the household, nor exceed the product of 35 percent times 110 percent of area median income adjusted for family size appropriate for the unit. In addition, for any moderate income household that has a gross income that exceeds 110 percent of the area median income adjusted for family size, it shall be optional for any state or local funding agency to require that affordable housing cost not exceed 35 percent of the gross income of the household.

(c) The department shall, by regulation, adopt criteria defining, and providing for determination of, gross income, adjustments for family size appropriate to the unit, and housing cost for purposes of determining affordable housing cost under this section. These regulations may provide alternative criteria, where necessary to be consistent with pertinent federal statutes and regulations governing federally assisted housing. The agency may, by regulation, adopt alternative criteria, and pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 50462, alternative percentages of income may be adopted for agency-assisted housing development.

With respect to moderate and lower income households who are tenants of rental housing developments and members or shareholders of cooperative housing developments, or limited equity cooperatives "affordable housing cost" has the same meaning as affordable rent, as defined in Section 50053.

Regulations of the department shall also include a method for determining the maximum construction cost, mortgage loan, or sales price that will make housing available to an income group at affordable housing cost.

For purposes of this section, "area median income" shall mean area median income as published by the department pursuant to Section 50093.

For purposes of this section, "moderate income household" shall have the same meaning as "persons and families of moderate income" as defined in Section 50093.

For purposes of this section, and provided there are no pertinent federal statutes applicable to a project or program, "adjusted for family size appropriate to the unit" shall mean for a household of one person in the case of a studio unit, two persons in the case of a one-bedroom unit, three persons in the case of a two-bedroom unit, four persons in the case of a three-bedroom unit, and five persons in the case of a four-bedroom unit.

SEC. 2. Section 50053 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50053. (a) For any rental housing development which receives assistance prior to January 1, 1991, and a condition of that assistance is compliance with this section, "affordable rent" with respect to lower income households shall not exceed the percentage of the gross income of the occupant person or household established by regulation of the department which shall not be less than 15 percent of gross income nor exceed 25 percent of gross income.

(b) For any rental housing development which receives assistance on or after January 1, 1991, and a condition of that assistance is compliance with this section, "affordable rent," including a reasonable utility allowance, shall not exceed:

(1) For very low income households, the product of 30 percent times 50 percent of the area median income adjusted for family size appropriate for the unit.

(2) For lower income households whose gross incomes exceed the maximum income for very low income households, the product of 30 percent times 60 percent of the area median income adjusted for family size appropriate for the unit. In addition, for those lower income households with gross incomes that exceed 60 percent of the area median income adjusted for family size, it shall be optional for any state or local funding agency to require that affordable rent be established at a level not to exceed 30 percent of gross income of the household.

(3) For moderate income households, the product of 30 percent times 110 percent of the area median income adjusted for family size appropriate for the unit. In addition, for those moderate income households whose gross incomes exceed 110 percent of the area median income adjusted for family size, it shall be optional for any state or local funding agency to require that affordable rent be established at a level not to exceed 30 percent of gross income of the household.

(c) The department's regulation shall permit alternative percentages of income for agency-assisted rental and cooperative housing developments pursuant to regulations adopted under subdivision (f) of Section 50462. The department shall, by regulation, adopt criteria defining and providing for determination of gross income, adjustments for family size appropriate to the unit, and rent for purposes of this section. These regulations may provide alternative criteria, where necessary, to be consistent with pertinent federal statutes and regulations governing federally assisted rental and cooperative housing. The agency may, by regulation, adopt alternative criteria, and pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 50462, alternative percentages of income may be adopted for agency-assisted housing developments.

For purposes of this section, "area median income," "adjustments for family size appropriate to the unit," and "moderate income household" shall have the same meaning as provided in Section 50052.5.

CHAPTER 1524

An act to amend Sections 444.5, 444.7, 444.9, and 444.11 of, and to add Section 444.12 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to health, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 444.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

444.5. As a condition of participation in the pilot program, each applicant shall agree to provide the statistical data and patient information that the office deems necessary for effective evaluation, at such times as the office requires. It is the intent of the Legislature that the office shall develop procedures to assure the confidentiality of patient information, and shall only disclose patient information, including names, as is necessary pursuant to this part or any other law.

The office may suspend or withdraw approval of pilot projects with notice but without hearing if the office determines that patient safety is or may be jeopardized. If a project is suspended or has approval withdrawn due in whole or in part to acts or omissions by persons licensed pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, the office shall send a notice of the action to the appropriate licensing agency including the name and license number of the licensee. A pilot project shall have the right to appeal a suspension to the director of the office, but shall not resume performing freestanding cardiac catheterization services pending a favorable outcome of the appeal.

The office may suspend or withdraw approval of pilot projects for reasons other than patient safety, including any violations of the agreement to participate in the pilot program, but in those instances, the office shall give notice to the pilot project director and afford an opportunity to be heard.

SEC. 2. Section 444.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

444.7. The office shall submit a report to the Legislature on the progress of the pilot program on or before July 1, 1993. The report shall include, but not be limited to, an evaluation of the cost, safety, and quality of care and quality of studies produced by the pilot projects. The report shall also include a recommendation as to whether freestanding cardiac catheterization should be continued, and if so, under what conditions. The report shall include a comparison of procedures in freestanding cardiac catheterization laboratories with those performed in general acute care hospitals.

SEC. 3. Section 444.9 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

444.9. Any regulations the office adopts to implement this part shall be adopted as emergency regulations in accordance with Section 11346.1 of the Government Code, except that the regulations shall be exempt from the requirements of subdivisions (e), (f), and (g) of that section. The regulations shall be deemed to be an emergency for the purposes of Section 11346.1 of the Government Code and shall remain in effect until January 1, 1994, unless amended or repealed by the office.

SEC. 4. Section 444.11 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

444.11. (a) This part shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, except as provided in subdivision (b), and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

(b) If the report submitted pursuant to Section 444.7 recommends creation of a permanent licensure category for freestanding cardiac catheterization laboratories, this part shall remain in effect only until legislation is enacted to create a supplemental service licensure category, or January 1, 1996, whichever occurs first.

SEC. 5. Section 444.12 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

444.12. If the report submitted pursuant to Section 444.7 recommends that a permanent licensure category should be created for freestanding cardiac catheterization laboratories, all designated pilot project sites shall continue in pilot project status under the authority of the office until legislation is enacted to create a supplemental service licensure category or January 1, 1996, whichever occurs first. All regulations of the office, reporting requirements, and monitoring procedures, including use of the technical advisory committee, shall remain in effect until legislation is enacted to create a supplemental service licensure category or January 1, 1996, whichever occurs first.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 2 of Chapter 1068 of the Statutes of 1986, the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development may approve additional applications for freestanding cardiac catheterization laboratories from those applications the office has on file that it deems to be current, or the office may accept additional applications using one or more informal, but competitive, requests for proposals. Nothing in this act shall be construed to authorize the office to approve more than seven freestanding cardiac catheterization laboratories for inclusion under the pilot program authorized by Part 1.85 (commencing with Section 444) of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development sufficient time to report on the progress of the pilot program to test the safety and cost-effectiveness of performing cardiac catheterization in freestanding cardiac catheterization laboratories and to consider additional applications for these laboratories at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1525

An act to add Sections 14037.5 and 14075 to the Corporations Code, and to add Section 13542 to the Government Code, relating to small business, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislatures finds and declares all of the following:

(a) California is subject to natural disasters, such as floods and earthquakes, that can have a devastating impact on the economies of affected local areas.

(b) Small businesses are the major source of jobs, innovation, and essential products and services for many local communities in the state.

(c) Small businesses often suffer disproportionate damages in these disasters because they are very sensitive to market conditions and changes in the costs of operating a business.

(d) Without immediate assistance, many viable businesses often have to cease or dramatically curtail their operations following a disaster.

(e) In many instances, federal assistance, such as Small Business Administration loans, is not made available in sufficient time to enable these businesses to continue operating and remain solvent.

(f) Without immediate interim financing and technical assistance many of these businesses will incur irreparable harm and ultimately fail.

(g) The failure of these businesses will have a deleterious effect on the economies of communities affected by the disaster and on the state's economy as a whole.

(h) Economic recovery from a natural disaster necessitates both short- and long-range programs, state assistance as well as local direction, and the effective use of existing public and private organizations dedicated to promoting job creation and economic development.

SEC. 2. Section 14037.5 is added to the Corporations Code, to read:

14037.5. The Director of Finance, with the approval of the Governor, may transfer moneys in the Special Fund for Economic Uncertainties to the Small Business Expansion Fund for use by the Office of Small Business in the Department of Commerce, in an amount necessary to make loan guarantees pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 14000) of Part 5 of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 3. Section 14075 is added to the Corporations Code, to read:

14075. (a) A corporation may, in an area designated as a disaster area by the Governor, provide loan guarantees from funds allocated in Section 14037.5 to small businesses, small farms, nurseries, and agriculture-related enterprises which have suffered actual physical damage or significant economic injury as a result of the disaster.

(b) The Department of Commerce shall develop regulations which include maximum loan amounts, maximum terms of the loan guarantee and eligibility requirements under subdivision (a).

(c) Allocations pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be deemed to be for extraordinary emergency or disaster response operations costs incurred by the Office of Small Business.

SEC. 4. Section 13542 is added to the Government Code, to read:

13542. (a) The department shall administer the California Emergency Grant Assistance Program. Under this program, the department may make grants from the California Economic Development Grant and Loan Fund to cities and counties, small business development corporations, and small business development centers.

(b) The department may make grants to entities specified in subdivision (a) for all of the following purposes:

(1) To provide loan packaging assistance to small businesses which are attempting to qualify for federal Small Business Administration loans, state loans, or private bank loans, for disaster relief.

(2) To provide counseling and technical assistance to small businesses in the areas of business planning and management, financial analyses, and cost recovery strategy.

(3) To provide bilingual services to business owners and their employees to ensure adequate access to all available disaster relief programs.

(4) To provide for the preparation of long-range economic development plans and revitalization strategies by communities which suffer substantial economic disruption.

(5) To provide assistance to communities to develop marketing plans and disseminate information about economic and business opportunities in the region, such as tourism promotion and available business sites.

(c) The Director of Finance, with the approval of the Governor, may transfer moneys from the Special Fund for Economic Uncertainties to the California Economic Development Grant and Loan Fund, for use by the Department of Commerce, in an amount necessary to implement this section.

CHAPTER 1526

An act to amend Section 10086.5 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10086.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10086.5. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the continued regulation of the business practices of insurers and their products is in the interest of the citizens of the state and that the control and limitation of unlawful nonrenewal, rejection, or cancellation of residential property insurance after an offer of earthquake coverage is accepted is an essential component of that regulation which is necessary to effectuate an adequate and complete system and regulation of insurer and producer business practices. The Legislature finds that this chapter continues to provide critical protection to insureds in this state from the numerous consequences that would occur in the absence of that regulation.

(b) An insurer shall not refuse to renew, reject, or cancel a policy of residential property insurance after an offer of earthquake coverage is accepted solely because the insured has accepted that offer of earthquake coverage, except in cases in which the policy is terminated by the named insured.

(c) Underwriting standards applicable to residential property insurance shall not be applied in a discriminatory fashion against any person who accepts or elects to continue earthquake coverage.

CHAPTER 1527

An act to amend Section 1270 of, and to add Section 646.9 to, the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 646.9 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

646.9. (a) Any person who willfully, maliciously, and repeatedly follows or harasses another person and who makes a credible threat with the intent to place that person in reasonable fear of death or great bodily injury is guilty of the crime of stalking, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(b) Any person who violates subdivision (a) when there is a temporary restraining order or an injunction, or both, in effect prohibiting the behavior described in subdivision (a) against the same party, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison.

(c) A second or subsequent conviction occurring within seven years of a prior conviction under subdivision (a) against the same victim, and involving an act of violence or "a credible threat" of violence, as defined in subdivision (e), is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "harasses" means a knowing and willful course of conduct directed at a specific person which seriously alarms, annoys, or harasses the person, and which serves no legitimate purpose. The course of conduct must be such as would cause a reasonable person to suffer substantial emotional distress, and must actually cause substantial emotional distress to the person. "Course of conduct" means a pattern of conduct composed of a series of acts over a period of time, however short, evidencing a continuity of purpose. Constitutionally protected activity is not included within the meaning of "course of conduct."

(e) For the purposes of this section, "a credible threat" means a threat made with the intent and the apparent ability to carry out the threat so as to cause the person who is the target of the threat to reasonably fear for his or her safety. The threat must be against the life of, or a threat to cause great bodily injury to, a person as defined in Section 12022.7.

This section shall not apply to conduct which occurs during labor picketing.

SEC. 2. Section 1270 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1270. (a) Any person, who has been arrested for, or charged with, an offense other than a capital offense may be released on his or her own recognizance by a court or magistrate who could release a defendant from custody upon the defendant giving bail, including a defendant arrested upon an out-of-county warrant, provided that a defendant who is in custody and is arraigned on a complaint alleging an offense which is a misdemeanor, and a defendant who appears before a court or magistrate upon an out-of-county warrant arising out of a case involving only misdemeanors, shall be entitled to an own recognizance release unless the court makes a finding upon the record that an own recognizance release will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required. In this event the court shall then set bail and specify the conditions, if any, whereunder the defendant shall be released. If the complaint or the out-of-county warrant arises out of a case alleging a misdemeanor offense in which the commission, attempted commission, or conspiracy to commit the offense involves the possession or use of a firearm, or in which there is a violation of Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 240) of Title 8 of Part 1, willful disobedience of any process or order lawfully issued by any court in violation of Section 166, or Section 186.22, 262, 273a, 273d, 273.5, 273.6, 368, 417, 422, 422.6, 646.9, 647.6, 653k, or 653m, Section 1275 shall apply in considering whether to grant or deny a release under this section.

(b) Article 9 (commencing with Section 1318) shall apply to any person who is released pursuant to this section.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1528

An act to amend Section 1656.1 of, and to repeal Section 1656.2 of, the Civil Code, and to amend Sections 6591.5, 6797, 7401, 7892, 8101, 8714, 8951, 9012, 11512, 32372, 38552, 43432, 45552, and 50129 of, and to add Section 8106.1 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1990. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1990]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1656.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1656.1. (a) Whether a retailer may add sales tax reimbursement to the sales price of the tangible personal property sold at retail to a purchaser depends solely upon the terms of the agreement of sale. It shall be presumed that the parties agreed to the addition of sales tax reimbursement to the sales price of tangible personal property sold at retail to a purchaser if:

(1) The agreement of sale expressly provides for such addition of sales tax reimbursement;

(2) Sales tax reimbursement is shown on the sales check or other proof of sale; or

(3) The retailer posts in his or her premises in a location visible to purchasers, or includes on a price tag or in an advertisement or other printed material directed to purchasers, a notice to the effect that reimbursement for sales tax will be added to the sales price of all items or certain items, whichever is applicable.

(b) It shall be presumed that the property, the gross receipts from the sale of which is subject to the sales tax, is sold at a price which includes tax reimbursement if the retailer posts in his or her premises, or includes on a price tag or in an advertisement (whichever is applicable) one of the following notices:

(1) "All prices of taxable items include sales tax reimbursement computed to the nearest mill."

(2) "The price of this item includes sales tax reimbursement computed to the nearest mill."

(c) (1) The State Board of Equalization shall prepare and make available for inspection and duplication or reproduction a sales tax reimbursement schedule which shall be identical with the following tables up to the amounts specified therein:

(2) Reimbursement on sales prices in excess of those shown in the schedules may be computed by applying the applicable tax rate to the sales price, rounded off to the nearest cent by eliminating any fraction less than one-half cent and increasing any fraction of one-half cent or over to the next higher cent.

(3) If sales tax reimbursement is added to the sales price of tangible personal property sold at retail, the retailer shall use a schedule provided by the board, or a schedule approved by the board.

(d) The presumptions created by this section are rebuttable presumptions.

SEC. 2. Section 1656.2 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 6591.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6591.5. (a) "Modified adjusted rate per annum" means the adjusted annual rate established pursuant to subdivision (c), plus three percentage points.

(b) "Modified adjusted rate per month, or fraction thereof" means the modified adjusted rate per annum divided by 12.

(c) The rate established under this section shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 6621 of the Internal Revenue Code, except that:

(1) The overpayment rate specified in Section 6621(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to be equal to the underpayment rate determined under Section 6621(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) The determination specified in Section 6621(b) shall be modified to be determined semiannually as follows:

(A) The rate for January shall apply for the following July 1 to December 31, inclusive.

(B) The rate for July shall apply for the following January 1 to June 30, inclusive.

(d) For purposes of this part, and any other provision of law referencing this method of computation, in computing the amount of any interest required to be paid by the state or by the taxpayer, or any other amount determined by reference to that amount of interest, that interest and that amount shall be computed as simple interest, not compound interest.

SEC. 4. Section 6797 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6797. Notice of the sale and the time and place thereof shall be given to the delinquent person and to all persons who have an interest of record in the property in writing at least 20 days before the date set for the sale in the following manner: The notice shall be personally served or enclosed in an envelope addressed to the person, in case of a sale for use taxes due, at his or her last known address or place of business, and, in case of a sale for sales taxes due, at his or her last known residence or place of business in this state. If not personally served, the notice shall be deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid. The notice shall be published pursuant to Section 6063 of the Government Code, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the city in which the property or a part thereof is situated if any part thereof is situated in a city or, if not, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the property or a part thereof is located. Notice shall also be posted in both of the following manners:

(a) One public place in the city in which the interest in property is to be sold if it is to be sold in a city or, if not to be sold in a city, one public place in the county in which the interest in the property is to be sold.

(b) One conspicuous place on the property.

The notice shall contain a description of the property to be sold, a statement of the amount due, including taxes, interest, penalties, and costs, the name of the delinquent, and the further statement that unless the amount due is paid on or before the time fixed in the notice for the sale, the property, or so much of it as may be necessary, will be sold in accordance with law and the notice.

SEC. 5. Section 7401 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

7401. (a) The provisions of this part requiring the payment of license taxes do not apply to any of the following:

(1) Natural gasoline distributed to a duly licensed distributor under such regulations as the board may prescribe.
