STATUTES OF CALIFORNIA

AND DIGESTS OF MEASURES

Constitution of 1879 as Amended

General Laws, Amendments to the Codes, and Resolutions passed by the California Legislature

1991–92 Regular Session

Compiled by BION M. GREGORY
Legislative Counsel

CHAPTER 339

An act to add Chapter 3.9 (commencing with Section 1040) to Part 3 of Division 2 of the Labor Code, relating to employees.

[Approved by Governor August 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 5, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) A substantial number of California workers are burdened by a problem of illiteracy that limits their productive capacity.

(b) Many of these workers are embarrassed to reveal their illiteracy and are hesitant to seek assistance from their employer for fear of losing their jobs.

(c) Most California employers are unaware of adult literacy education providers and thus are unable to respond to requests for assistance.

(d) By providing assistance, employers would be improving the productivity of the workplace and the economic well-being of the employee.

SEC. 2. Chapter 3.9 (commencing with Section 1040) is added to Part 3 of Division 2 of the Labor Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.9. EMPLOYEE LITERACY ASSISTANCE

1040. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Employee Literacy Education Assistance Act.

1041. (a) Every private employer regularly employing 25 or more employees shall reasonably accommodate and assist any employee who reveals a problem of illiteracy and requests employer assistance in enrolling in an adult literacy education program, provided that this reasonable accommodation does not impose an undue hardship on the employer.

(b) For purposes of this section, employer assistance includes, but is not limited to, providing the employee with the locations of local literacy education programs or arranging for a literacy education provider to visit the jobsite.

1042. The employer shall make reasonable efforts to safeguard the privacy of the employee as to the fact that he or she has a problem with illiteracy.

1043. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require an employer to provide time off with pay for an employee to enroll and participate in an adult literacy education program.

1044. An employee who reveals a problem of illiteracy and who satisfactorily performs his or her work shall not be subject to termination of employment because of the disclosure of illiteracy.

CHAPTER 340

An act to add Section 769.2 to the Insurance Code, relating to insurance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 5, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 769.2 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

769.2. Any insurer that makes a partial refund of premiums pursuant to Section 1861.01 of this code with respect to insurance issued prior to November 8, 1989, may not require an agent or broker to refund any portion of a commission which the insurer has claimed, and the commissioner has allowed, as an expense for purposes of the commissioner's determination of the insurer's actual return for the lines of insurance subject to Section 1861.01.

Nothing in this section or the application thereof shall alter the amount of any refund payable to policyholders pursuant to a decision of the commissioner in a rate-of-return hearing.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to clarify the application of refund requirements under Proposition 103 with respect to the commissions and fees of insurance agents and brokers without delay, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 341

An act to amend Section 1091 of the Government Code, relating to public employees, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State August 5, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1091 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1091. (a) An officer shall not be deemed to be interested in a contract entered into by a body or board of which the officer is a member within the meaning of this article if the officer has only a remote interest in the contract and if the fact of that interest is disclosed to the body of the board of which the officer is a member and noted in its official records, and thereafter the body or board authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract in good faith by a vote of its membership sufficient for the purpose without counting the vote or votes of the officer or member with the remote interest.

(b) As used in this article, "remote interest" means any of the following:

(1) That of an officer or employee of a nonprofit corporation, except as provided in paragraph (8) of subdivision (a) of Section 1091.5.

(2) That of an employee or agent of the contracting party, if the contracting party has 10 or more other employees and if the officer was an employee or agent of that contracting party for at least three years prior to the officer initially accepting his or her office.

For purposes of this paragraph, time of employment with the contracting party by the officer shall be counted in computing the three-year period specified in this paragraph even though the contracting party has been converted from one form of business organization to a different form of business organization within three years of the initial taking of office by the officer. Time of employment in that case shall be counted only if, after the transfer or change in organization, the real or ultimate ownership of the contracting party is the same or substantially similar to that which existed before the transfer or change in organization. For purposes of this paragraph, stockholders, bondholders, partners, or other persons holding an interest in the contracting party are regarded as having the "real or ultimate ownership" of the contracting party.

(3) That of an employee or agent of the contracting party, if all of the following conditions are met:

(A) The agency of which the person is an officer is a local public agency located in a county with a population of less than 4,000,000.

(B) The contract is competitively bid and is not for personal services.

(C) The employee or agent is not in a primary management capacity with the contracting party, is not an officer or director of the contracting party, and holds no ownership interest in the contracting party.

(D) The contracting party has 10 or more other employees.

(E) The employee or agent did not directly participate in formulating the bid of the contracting party.

(F) The contracting party is the lowest responsible bidder.

(4) That of a parent in the earnings of his or her minor child for personal services.

(5) That of a landlord or tenant of the contracting party.

(6) That of an attorney of the contracting party or that of an owner, officer, employee, or agent of a firm which renders, or has rendered, service to the contracting party in the capacity of stockbroker, insurance agent, insurance broker, real estate agent, or

real estate broker, if these individuals have not received and will not receive remuneration, consideration, or a commission as a result of the contract.

(7) That of a member of a nonprofit corporation formed under the Food and Agricultural Code or a nonprofit corporation formed under the Corporations Code for the sole purpose of engaging in the merchandising of agricultural products or the supplying of water.

(8) That of a supplier of goods or services when those goods or services have been supplied to the contracting party by the officer for at least five years prior to his or her election or appointment to office.

(9) That of a person subject to the provisions of Section 1090 in any contract or agreement entered into pursuant to the provisions of the California Land Conservation Act of 1965.

(10) That of an officer, director, or employee of a bank, bank holding company, or savings and loan association with which a party to the contract has the relationship of borrower or depositor, debtor or creditor.

(11) That of an engineer, geologist, or architect employed by a consulting engineering or architectural firm. This paragraph applies only to an employee of a consulting firm who does not serve in a primary management capacity, and does not apply to an officer or director of a consulting firm.

(12) That of an elected officer otherwise subject to Section 1090, in any housing assistance payment contract entered into pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f) as amended, provided that the housing assistance payment contract was in existence before Section 1090 became applicable to the officer and will be renewed or extended only as to the existing tenant, or, in a jurisdiction in which the rental vacancy rate is less than 5 percent, as to new tenants in a unit previously under a Section 8 contract. This section applies to any person who became a public official on or after November 1, 1986.

(13) That of an elected officer otherwise subject to Section 1090 who is also an elected director of a water replenishment district.

(c) This section is not applicable to any officer interested in a contract who influences or attempts to influence another member of the body or board of which he or she is a member to enter into the contract.

(d) The willful failure of an officer to disclose the fact of his or her interest in a contract pursuant to this section is punishable as provided in Section 1097. That violation does not void the contract unless the contracting party had knowledge of the fact of the remote interest of the officer at the time the contract was executed.

SEC. 2. Section 1091 of the Government Code is amended to read:

remote interest in the contract and if the fact of that interest is disclosed to the body of the board of which the officer is a member and noted in its official records, and thereafter the body or board authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract in good faith by a vote of its membership sufficient for the purpose without counting the vote or votes of the officer or member with the remote interest.

(b) As used in this article, "remote interest" means any of the following:

(1) That of an officer or employee of a nonprofit corporation, except as provided in paragraph (8) of subdivision (a) of Section 1091.5.

(2) That of an employee or agent of the contracting party, if the contracting party has 10 or more other employees and if the officer was an employee or agent of that contracting party for at least three years prior to the officer initially accepting his or her office.

For purposes of this paragraph, time of employment with the contracting party by the officer shall be counted in computing the three-year period specified in this paragraph even though the contracting party has been converted from one form of business organization to a different form of business organization within three years of the initial taking of office by the officer. Time of employment in that case shall be counted only if, after the transfer or change in organization, the real or ultimate ownership of the contracting party is the same or substantially similar to that which existed before the transfer or change in organization. For purposes of this paragraph, stockholders, bondholders, partners, or other persons holding an interest in the contracting party are regarded as having the "real or ultimate ownership" of the contracting party.

(3) That of an employee or agent of the contracting party, if all of the following conditions are met:

(A) The agency of which the person is an officer is a local public agency located in a county with a population of less than 4,000,000.

(B) The contract is competitively bid and is not for personal services.

(C) The employee or agent is not in a primary management capacity with the contracting party, is not an officer or director of the contracting party, and holds no ownership interest in the contracting party.

(D) The contracting party has 10 or more other employees.

(E) The employee or agent did not directly participate in formulating the bid of the contracting party.

(F) The contracting party is the lowest responsible bidder.

(4) That of a parent in the earnings of his or her minor child for personal services.

(5) That of a landlord or tenant of the contracting party.

(6) That of an attorney of the contracting party or that of an owner, officer, employee, or agent of a firm which renders, or has rendered, service to the contracting party in the capacity of stockbroker, insurance agent, insurance broker, real estate agent, or

real estate broker, if these individuals have not received and will not receive remuneration, consideration, or a commission as a result of the contract.

(7) That of a member of a nonprofit corporation formed under the Food and Agricultural Code or a nonprofit corporation formed under the Corporations Code for the sole purpose of engaging in the merchandising of agricultural products or the supplying of water.

(8) That of a supplier of goods or services when those goods or services have been supplied to the contracting party by the officer for at least five years prior to his or her election or appointment to office.

(9) That of a person subject to the provisions of Section 1090 in any contract or agreement entered into pursuant to the provisions of the California Land Conservation Act of 1965.

(10) That of an officer, director, or employee of a bank, bank holding company, or savings and loan association with which a party to the contract has the relationship of borrower or depositor, debtor or creditor.

(11) That of an engineer, geologist, or architect employed by a consulting engineering or architectural firm. This paragraph applies only to an employee of a consulting firm who does not serve in a primary management capacity, and does not apply to an officer or director of a consulting firm.

(12) That of an elected officer otherwise subject to Section 1090, in any housing assistance payment contract entered into pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1437f) as amended, provided that the housing assistance payment contract was in existence before Section 1090 became applicable to the officer and will be renewed or extended only as to the existing tenant, or, in a jurisdiction in which the rental vacancy rate is less than 5 percent, as to new tenants in a unit previously under a Section 8 contract. This section applies to any person who became a public official on or after November 1, 1986.

(c) This section is not applicable to any officer interested in a contract who influences or attempts to influence another member of the body or board of which he or she is a member to enter into the contract.

(d) The willful failure of an officer to disclose the fact of his or her interest in a contract pursuant to this section is punishable as provided in Section 1097. That violation does not void the contract unless the contracting party had knowledge of the fact of the remote interest of the officer at the time the contract was executed.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1091 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2231. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1992, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 1091 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2231, in which case Section 1091 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 1 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 2231, at which time Section 2 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to delete provisions inadvertently included in Section 1091 of the Government Code by Chapter 1593 of the Statutes of 1990 by the use of the incorrect last amended form of the section at the earliest possible time and to thereby avoid unnecessary confusion, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 342

An act to amend Sections 1, 2, and 3 of Chapter 1311 of the Statutes of 1988, relating to the Pasadena Unified School District.

[Approved by Governor August 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 5, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of Chapter 1311 of the Statutes of 1988 is amended to read:

Section 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The Pasadena Unified School District has operated a Tutoring and Homework Assistance Program since September 1985 through which pupils are able to receive appropriate homework or specialized tutorial assistance, or both, from trained personnel and volunteers after regular school hours at each of the district's 30 schools, at no cost to the pupil, and through which parents, teachers, and pupils receive information and referral services on the tutoring and homework support services available through the school district and other community organizations.

(b) The Tutoring and Homework Assistance Program has provided over 30,000 hours of assistance annually to over 1,000 pupils.

(c) Surveys completed by principals, site coordinators, classroom teachers, parents, and pupils have generated favorable responses to the program.

(d) The Tutoring and Homework Assistance Program is of educational benefit and provides a cost-effective means of reaching pupils, of supporting rather than replacing the role of parents, and of enabling pupils to succeed in school and, therefore, to be more likely to remain in school.

(e) The district has evaluated the program pursuant to the evaluation requirements of this act and has found that the program results in improved academic performance.

(f) The Tutoring and Homework Assistance Program has demonstrated success during the first two years of operation and should be continued on a statewide basis.

SEC. 2. Section 2 of Chapter 1311 of the Statutes of 1988 is amended to read:

Sec. 2. (a) The Pasadena Unified School District shall furnish, on or before July 1, 1992, to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, a copy of its Tutoring and Homework Assistance Program, as developed and implemented pursuant to Chapter 1311 of the Statutes of 1988.

SEC. 3. Section 3 of Chapter 1311 of the Statutes of 1988 is amended to read:

Sec. 3. Any school district that implements this program may credit towards its summer school apportionments, computed pursuant to Section 42239 of the Education Code, as amended by the annual Budget Act, hours of homework and tutorial assistance provided pursuant to Sections 1 and 2 of this act, if the instruction is in core academic areas specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 42239.

CHAPTER 343

An act to amend Section 5801 of, and to add and repeal Section 5801.1 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to interior designers.

[Became law without Governor's signature Filed with Secretary of State August 6, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5801 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5801. A certified interior designer may obtain a stamp from an interior design organization which shall include a number which uniquely identifies and bears the name of that certified interior designer. The stamp certifies that the interior designer has provided the interior design organization with evidence of passage of an interior design examination approved by that interior design organization and any of the following:

(b) He or she has completed a three-year accredited interior design certificate program, and has completed three years of diversified interior design experience.

(c) He or she has a combination of interior design education and diversified interior design experience for a total of eight years.

SEC. 2. Section 5801.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

5801.1. Any person who qualifies as a certified interior designer pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 5800 who applies for certification no later than December 31, 1992, and, pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 5801, has a combination of interior design education and diversified interior design experience for a total of eight years and provides evidence of passage of the 1990, or later, Building and Barrier Free Codes section of the National Council for Interior Design Qualification (NCIDQ) examination no later than December 31, 1993, may obtain a stamp as prescribed in Section 5801.

This section shall be operative until January 1, 1994, and as of that date, is repealed unless a later enacted statute deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 344

An act to amend Section 31498.3 of, and to add Section 31469.5 to, the Government Code, relating to the County Employees Retirement Law of 1937, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Became law without Governor's signature Filed with Secretary of State August 6, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31469.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

31469.5. (a) This section shall be applicable in the retirement system of any county of the 10th class, as defined by Sections 28020 and 28031, as amended by Chapter 1204 of the Statutes of 1971, if the board of supervisors executes a memorandum of understanding with the employee representatives and adopts, by majority vote, a resolution providing for safety status for probation officers, as provided in Section 31469.4.

(b) The purpose of this section is to provide optional safety status for probation officers employed on or before March 1, 1991. Notwithstanding Section 31558.6, that option shall be exercised within 120 days from the effective date of the implementation of Section 31469.4, together with the option to receive credit as a safety member for all or part of the time during which his or her duties would have made him or her eligible to become a safety member, if this section had then been in effect.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the retirement benefits of existing probation officers who elect to transfer from general membership in the county retirement system to safety membership shall be implemented pursuant to Section 31484.5, except that:

(1) The definition of final compensation in Section 31462.1 shall no longer apply to probation officers electing safety status; instead, the definition of final compensation in Section 31462 shall apply at the date of retirement to all credited safety service regardless of previous service under Section 31462.1.

(2) For employees entitled to a cost-of-living adjustment upon retirement, Article 16.5 (commencing with Section 31870) shall apply, except that the increase in the allowance shall not exceed a maximum amount of 3 percent in any given year credited as safety membership. An employee who elects safety retirement under Section 31469.4 and who thereby waives his or her entitlement to a higher cost-of-living allowance shall be deemed to have waived the higher cost-of-living allowance with regard to all previous service credited as safety service at the date of retirement, regardless of previous service under any other provision and shall be deemed to have relinquished any right to the higher cost-of-living allowance without refund of contributions therefor, except as determined by the board of supervisors.

(3) An employee who elects safety retirement under Section 31469.4 may elect to receive credit as a safety member for all or part of the time during which his or her duties would have made him or her eligible to become a safety member if this section had then been in effect as provided in Section 31639.7, except that an election to receive part credit may be exercised only in multiples of five years of service. A member who elects to receive credit for only a part of that county service shall elect that county service latest in time and may not receive credit for any portion of county service prior in time to any county service for which he or she does not elect to received credit.

(4) A member not previously within the safety membership category who elects to receive credit for all or part of the time during which the member's duties would have made him or her eligible to become a safety member if this section had then been in effect shall pay into the retirement system the amount that would have had to be contributed by the employer to fund the employer's liability for safety membership and an amount equal to the difference between the employee's contributions actually made during the time for which he or she claims credit and the contributions the member would have made during that period if he or she had been in safety status during that period.

(d) All probation officers in Tier III who elect to transfer from general membership in the county retirement system to safety membership pursuant to this section shall be placed in Tier II regardless of their status prior to selecting Tier III benefits.

(e) All persons hired after the effective date of implementation of Section 31469.4 shall, upon retirement, have his or her cost-of-living allowance and final compensation computed in accordance with this section.

SEC. 2. Section 31498.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31498.3. (a) General members may, within 180 days of the effective date of this article, elect to transfer to the retirement plan created by this article upon proper application executed by the member and filed with the board.

(b) The retirement benefits of the transferred members are governed and defined by this article.

(c) Transferring members relinquish and waive any and all previously available vested or accrued retirement, survivor, disability and death benefits. However, notwithstanding any other provision of this article, a transferring member shall receive credit for no more than 24 months of public service performed prior to December 31, 1969, including service with the employer, military service, and any other public service to which the member would otherwise be eligible under this chapter, except that member contributions shall not be collected.

(d) The transfer by the member is voluntary, and shall be irrevocable, unless the board of supervisors, by resolution, authorizes Retirement Plan 3 members to transfer to Retirement Plan 2, under terms and conditions specified in the resolution. These terms may include, but are not limited to, an eligibility provision based on the number of years in county service, a provision for crediting service in Retirement Plan 2 only for that service rendered after adoption of the resolution, or an eligibility provision allowing members to transfer to Retirement Plan 2 all county service rendered under Retirement Plan 3 provided the member deposits into the retirement fund within a specified time an amount equal to the contributions he or she would have made during that time, had he or she been a member of Retirement Plan 2, together with regular interest on that amount. The resolution may establish different conditions for different job classifications or groups, and for represented bargaining units, conditions mutually agreed upon by the employer and the employee representative. The board of supervisors may also establish any other conditions it deems necessary or desirable.

(e) Any member who has elected or transferred to the plan created by this article and who terminates his or her employment and is later reemployed shall not be entitled to change his or her election upon that reemployment, unless a resolution, enacted by the board of supervisors subsequent to the member's election to transfer to the new plan, so provides.

SEC. 3. This act shall be deemed to have become operative on March 1, 1991.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the California Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Representatives of San Mateo County probation and detention employees negotiated retirement benefits that require statutory clarification to implement a memorandum of understanding which takes effect on March 1, 1991. Therefore, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 345

An act to amend Section 19596.1 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19596.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19596.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may authorize an association conducting a race meeting to accept wagers on the results of out-of-state harness or quarter horse feature races or stake races, and, with the board's approval and with the concurrence of the horsemen's organization contracting with the association, other designated harness or quarter horse races during the period it is conducting the racing meeting, if the following conditions are met:

(a) The authorization complies with federal laws, including, but not limited to, Chapter 57 (commencing with Section 3001) of Title 15 of the United States Code.

(b) Wagering is offered only within the racing inclosure and only within 36 hours of the running of the out-of-state feature race.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to maximize needed state revenue from increased satellite wagering on racing meetings which can be conducted starting in 1991, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 346

An act to amend Section 8878.52 of the Government Code, relating to earthquake safety, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

8878.52. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Committee" means the Earthquake Safety and Public Buildings Rehabilitation Finance Committee created pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 8878.111.

(b) "Commission" means the Seismic Safety Commission.

(c) "Fund" means the Earthquake Safety and Public Buildings Rehabilitation Fund of 1990 created pursuant to Section 8878.55.

(d) "Local government" means any city, county, city and county, or special district.

(e) "Office" means the Office of Emergency Services.

(f) "Project" means a program of work to retrofit, reconstruct, repair, replace, or relocate, for local government-owned facilities only, a building, facility, or both, which is owned by any city, county, city and county, or special district and which is included in an application for a grant of funds.

(g) "State Architect" means the Office of the State Architect.

(h) "State building or facility" means any building or structure owned by a state agency, which is identified pursuant to Section 8878.60, except for vehicular bridges, roadways, highways, or any facilities or buildings owned by the University of California or the California State University.

(i) "Local government building or facility" means an existing essential services building, as defined in Section 16007 of the Health and Safety Code, or an emergency or public safety local building as identified in Section 8878.99, which is owned by a city, county, city and county, or special district.

(j) State or local government buildings shall not include those owned by private for profit or private nonprofit corporations, or those owned by any combination, consortium, or joint powers agreement that includes a private nonprofit corporation.

(k) "Retrofit" means to either strengthen the structure of a building or facility, or to provide the means necessary to reduce the seismic force level experienced by a building or facility during an earthquake, so as to significantly reduce hazards to life safety while concomitantly providing for the substantially safe egress of occupants during and immediately after such an earthquake.

SEC. 2. The sum of four hundred eighty-one thousand dollars ($481,000) is hereby appropriated from the Earthquake Safety and Public Buildings Rehabilitation Fund of 1990 to the Seismic Safety Commission for use during the 1991–92 and 1992–93 fiscal years for the purpose of the administration and disbursement of research funds for the purposes of the Earthquake Safety and Public Buildings Rehabilitation Bond Act of 1990 (Chapter 12.47 (commencing with Section 8878.50) of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code), and in accordance with subdivision (d) of Section 8878.55 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the immediate commencement of the Proposition 122 earthquake hazards research program to begin so that research can be completed prior to and applied to the seismic retrofit of state and local government buildings and facilities, this act must take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 347

An act to amend Section 25500 of, and to add Section 25503.24 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25500 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25500. (a) No manufacturer, winegrower, manufacturer's agent, rectifier, California winegrower's agent, distiller, bottler, importer, or wholesaler, or any officer, director, or agent of any such person shall:

(1) Hold the ownership, directly or indirectly, of any interest in any on-sale license.

(2) Furnish, give, or lend any money or other thing of value, directly or indirectly, to, or guarantee the repayment of any loan or the fulfillment of any financial obligation of, any person engaged in operating, owning, or maintaining any on-sale premises where alcoholic beverages are sold for consumption on the premises.

(3) Own any interest, directly or indirectly, in the business, furniture, fixtures, refrigeration equipment, signs, except signs for interior use mentioned in subdivision (g) of Section 25503, or lease in or of any premises operated or maintained under any on-sale license for the sale of alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises where sold; or own any interest, directly or indirectly, in realty acquired after June 13, 1935, upon which on-sale premises are maintained unless the holding of the interest is permitted in accordance with rules of the department.

(b) This section does not apply to the holding by one person of a wholesaler's license and an on-sale license in counties not to exceed 15,000 population.

(c) This section does not apply to the financial or representative relationship between a manufacturer, winegrower, manufacturer's agent, rectifier, California winegrower's agent, distiller, bottler, importer, or wholesaler, or any officer, director, or agent of such person, and a person holding only one of the following types of licenses:

(1) On-sale general license for a bona fide club.

(2) Club license issued under Article 4 (commencing with Section 23425) of Chapter 3.

(3) Veterans' club license issued under Article 5 (commencing with Section 23450) of Chapter 3.

(4) On-sale license for boats, trains, sleeping cars, or airplanes where the alcoholic beverages produced or sold by the manufacturer, winegrower, manufacturer's agent, rectifier, California winegrower's agent, bottler, importer, or wholesaler or any officer, director, or agent of the person are not sold, furnished, or given, directly or indirectly to the on-sale licensee.

(d) This section does not apply to an employee of a licensee referred to in subdivision (a) who is a nonadministrative and nonsupervisorial employee.

(e) Nothing in this division prohibits the holder of any retail on-sale or off-sale license from purchasing, for fair consideration, advertising in any publication published by any manufacturer, winegrower, manufacturer's agent, rectifier, California winegrower's agent, distiller, bottler, importer, or wholesaler, or any person who directly or indirectly holds the ownership of any interest in the premises of the retail licensee.

SEC. 2. Section 25503.24 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

25503.24. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any manufacturer, winegrower, rectifier, distiller, distilled spirits wholesaler, or any officer, director, agent, or representative of any of those entities, may conduct market research and, in connection with that research, the entity conducting the market research may purchase from licensed off-sale retailers data regarding purchases and sales of alcoholic beverage products at the customary rates that those retailers sell similar data for nonalcoholic beverage products subject to the following limitations:

(1) No licensed retailer shall be obligated to purchase or sell the alcoholic beverage products of that manufacturer, winegrower, rectifier, or distiller.

(2) No retail premises shall participate in more than one research project conducted by any single manufacturer, winegrower, rectifier, distiller, or distilled spirits wholesaler during a calendar year. A research project may involve multiple onsite surveys.

(3) Nothing in this section shall allow a licensed retailer to require a manufacturer, winegrower, rectifier, distiller, or distilled spirits wholesaler to conduct any market research as a condition for selling alcoholic beverage products to that licensed retailer.

(b) Any holder of a beer manufacturer's license or winegrower's license who, through coercion or other illegal means, induces a holder of a beer or wine wholesaler's license to fulfill obligations entered into pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine in any amount equal to the entire value of the market research or time involved in the project, plus ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both imprisonment and fine. The person shall also be subject to license revocation pursuant to Section 24200.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Section 19829 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to building permits, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19829 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

19829. (a) Notwithstanding Section 35441 of the Government Code, if an application for a building permit is filed with a county prior to the vote on the incorporation of a new city, and a building permit is subsequently issued by the county prior to the effective date of the incorporation, and the property for which the building permit was issued is within the newly incorporated city limits, the building permit shall remain valid for a period of 180 days from the date of issuance of the building permit. If a local ordinance enacted by a county prior to the date of the incorporation vote provides that building permits are valid for a shorter or longer period than 180 days from the date of issuance, or the county ordinance authorizes the extension of those building permits, that local ordinance applies to any building permit applied for prior to the date of the incorporation vote.

If the effective date of the incorporation is more than 90 days after the incorporation vote, the county may receive applications for, and issue, building permits for construction on property to be included within the corporate boundaries of the newly incorporated city. These building permits shall remain valid for a period of 180 days from the date of issuance.

(b) A building permit issued by a county for construction on real property subsequently annexed to a city shall remain valid for the life of the building permit, as issued. This subdivision does not apply to any city which has, by ordinance, expressly made this subdivision inapplicable to territory annexed to that city, unless the city initiated the annexation.

(c) The city of which the affected territory became a part may extend the life of a building permit as provided by this section. The city of which the affected territory became a part shall be responsible for the continuing enforcement of the county ordinance.

(d) All rights accorded the permittee by a building permit affected by this section may be exercised by the permittee or the successor in interest thereto in accordance with the applicable rules, regulations, and ordinances of the issuing agency which were in effect at the time the building permit was issued.

(e) This section does not apply to any incorporation or annexation which became effective prior to January 1, 1985.

(f) The section does not apply to any building permit which is suspended or revoked pursuant to any moratorium ordinance, or extension thereof, adopted under Section 65858 of the Government Code prior to the effective date of this section enacted at the 1991 portion of the 1991–92 Regular Session.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to permit orderly development during the pendancy of incorporation actions of new cities at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 349

An act to add and repeal Section 2705.6 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to water supplies, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2705.6 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

2705.6. (a) A mobilehome park which provides water service only to its tenants from water supplies and facilities which it owns, not otherwise dedicated to public service, is not a water corporation. However, that mobilehome park is subject to the jurisdiction of the commission to the extent that, if a tenant complains about the water rates charged or service provided by the mobilehome park, the commission shall determine, based on all the facts and circumstances, whether the rates charged are just and reasonable and whether the service provided is adequate.

(b) Complaints filed pursuant to subdivision (a) are subject to the provisions of this code and to the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the commission governing complaints and commission investigations.

(c) The commission may afford rate relief or may order the mobilehome park to improve its water supply, facilities, and services on those terms that it finds just and reasonable, or both.

(d) The public adviser created pursuant to Section 321 and necessary staff of the commission shall assist the complainant.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. The sum of sixty-six thousand five hundred dollars ($66,500) is hereby appropriated from the Public Utilities Commission Utilities Reimbursement Account in the General Fund to the Public Utilities Commission for expenditure in the 1991–92 fiscal year for the purposes of Section 2705.6 of the Public Utilities Code.

CHAPTER 350

An act to amend Section 8726 of, and to add Section 8774.5 to Article 5 (commencing with Section 8760) of Chapter 15 of Division 3 of, the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Section 66466 of the Government Code, relating to surveys.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8726 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8726. A person, including any person employed by the state or by a city, county, or city and county within the state, practices land surveying within the meaning of this chapter who, either in a public or private capacity, does or offers to do any one or more of the following:

(a) Locates, relocates, establishes, reestablishes, or retraces the alignment or elevation for any of the fixed works embraced within the practice of civil engineering, as described in Section 6731.

(b) Determines the configuration or contour of the earth's surface, or the position of fixed objects thereon or related thereto, by means of measuring lines and angles, and applying the principles of mathematics or photogrammetry.

(c) Locates, relocates, establishes, reestablishes, or retraces any property line or boundary of any parcel of land, right-of-way, easement, or alignment of those lines or boundaries.

(d) Makes any survey for the subdivision or resubdivision of any tract of land. For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "subdivision" or "resubdivision" shall be defined to include, but not limited to, the definition in the Subdivision Map Act (Division 2 (commencing with Section 66410) of Title 7 of the Government Code) or the Subdivided Lands Law (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 11000) of Part 2 of Division 4 of this code).

(e) By the use of the principles of land surveying determines the position for any monument or reference point which marks a property line, boundary, or corner, or sets, resets, or replaces any such monument or reference point.

(f) Geodetic or cadastral surveying.

(g) Determines the information shown or to be shown on any map or document prepared or furnished in connection with any one or more of the functions described in subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f).

(h) Indicates, in any capacity or in any manner, by the use of the title "land surveyor" or by any other title or by any other representation that he or she practices or offers to practice land surveying in any of its branches.

(i) Procures or offers to procure land surveying work for himself, herself, or others.

(j) Manages, or conducts as manager, proprietor, or agent, any place of business from which land surveying work is solicited, performed, or practiced.

(k) Coordinates the work of professional, technical, or special consultants in connection with the activities authorized by this chapter.

(l) Determines the information shown or to be shown within the description of any deed, trust deed, or other title document prepared for the purpose of describing the limit of real property in connection with any one or more of the functions described in subdivisions (a) to (f), inclusive.

(m) Creates, prepares, or modifies electronic or computerized data in the performance of the activities described in subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (k), and (l).

Any department or agency of the state or any city, county, or city and county which has an unregistered person in responsible charge of land surveying work on January 1, 1986, shall be exempt from the requirement that the person be licensed as a land surveyor until such time as the person currently in responsible charge is replaced.

The review, approval, or examination by a governmental entity of documents prepared or performed pursuant to this section shall be done by, or under the direct supervision of, a person authorized to practice land surveying.

SEC. 2. Section 8774.5 is added to Article 5 (commencing with Section 8760) of Chapter 15 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

8774.5. (a) Upon the filing of a record of survey, amended record of survey, or certificate of correction for recordation pursuant to this chapter, the surveyor or engineer who prepared the document shall transmit a copy of the document, including all recording information, to the county surveyor, who shall maintain an index, by geographic location, of the documents.

(b) The county surveyor may charge a fee equal to the fee charged for recording the documents specified in subdivision (a), for purposes of financing the costs of maintaining the index of those documents.

(c) The requirements of this section shall not apply to any county which requires the documents specified in subdivision (a) to be transmitted to the county surveyor and requires that official to maintain an index of those documents.

SEC. 3. Section 66466 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66466. (a) The county recorder shall have not more than 10 days within which to examine a final or parcel map and either accept or reject it for filing.

(b) If the county recorder rejects a final or parcel map for filing, the county recorder shall, within 10 days thereafter, mail notice to the subdivider and the city engineer if the map is within a city, or the county surveyor if the map is within the unincorporated area, that the map has been rejected for filing, giving the reasons therefor, and that the map is being returned to the city clerk if the map is within a city, or to the clerk of the board if the map is within the unincorporated area, for action by the legislative body. Upon receipt of the map, the clerk shall place the map on the agenda of the next regular meeting of the legislative body and the legislative body shall, within 15 days thereafter, rescind its approval of the map and return the map to the subdivider unless the subdivider presents evidence that the basis for the rejection by the county recorder has been removed. The subdivider may consent to a continuance of the matter; however, the prior approval of the legislative body shall be deemed rescinded during any period of continuance. If a map is returned to the county recorder, the county recorder shall have a new 10-day period to examine the map and either accept or reject it for filing.

(c) If the county recorder accepts the map for filing, the acceptance shall be certified on the face thereof. The map shall be securely fastened in a book of subdivision maps, in a book of parcel maps, or in a book of cities and towns which shall be kept for that purpose, or in any other manner as will assure that the maps will be kept together. The map shall become a part of the official records of the county recorder upon its acceptance by the county recorder for filing.

(d) The fee for filing and indexing the map is as prescribed in Section 27372 of the Government Code.

(e) The original map shall be stored for safekeeping in a reproducible condition. The county recorder may maintain for public reference a set of counter maps that are prints of the original maps and produce the original maps for comparison upon demand.

(f) Upon the filing of any map, including amended maps and certificates of correction for recordation pursuant to this section or any record of survey pursuant to the Professional Land Surveyors' Act (Chapter 15 (commencing with Section 8700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code), the surveyor or engineer who prepared the document shall transmit a copy of the document, including all recording information, to the county surveyor, who shall maintain an index, by geographic location, of the documents. The county surveyor may charge a fee not to exceed the fee charged for recording the document, for purposes of financing the costs of maintaining the index of the documents.

The requirements of this subdivision shall not apply to any county which requires a document filed pursuant to this section to be transmitted to the county surveyor and requires that official to maintain an index of those documents.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 351

An act to amend Section 4804 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to motor transportation brokers.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4804 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

4804. As used in this chapter, "brokerage" or "brokerage service" means the act of arranging , for compensation, the transportation of property by a motor carrier over the highways of this state for or on behalf of a shipper, a consignor, or a consignee.

CHAPTER 352

An act to amend Sections 2815, 2815.1, 2815.5, 2831, and 2833 of, and to add Sections 2815.7 and 2830.7 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to nurses, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2815 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2815. Subject to the provisions of Section 128.5, the amount of the fees prescribed by this chapter in connection with the issuance of licenses for registered nurses under its provisions is that fixed by the following schedule:

(a) The fee to be paid upon the filing of an application for a licensure by examination shall be fixed by the board at not less than seventy-five dollars ($75) nor more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(b) The fee to be paid for taking each examination shall be the actual cost to purchase an examination from a vendor approved by the board.

(c) The fee to be paid for application for licensure by endorsement shall be fixed by the board at not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(d) The biennial fee to be paid upon the filing of an application for renewal of the license shall be not less than seventy-five dollars ($75) nor more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150). In addition, an assessment of five dollars ($5) shall be collected and credited to the Registered Nurse Education Fund, pursuant to Section 2815.1.

(e) The penalty fee for failure to renew a license within the prescribed time shall be fixed by the board at not more than 50 percent of the regular renewal fee, but not less than thirty-seven dollars ($37) nor more than seventy-five dollars ($75).

(f) The fee to be paid for approval of a continuing education provider shall be fixed by the board at not less than two hundred dollars ($200) nor more than three hundred dollars ($300).

(g) The biennial fee to be paid upon the filing of an application for renewal of provider approval shall be fixed by the board at not less than two hundred dollars ($200) nor more than three hundred dollars ($300).

(h) The penalty fee for failure to renew provider approval within the prescribed time shall be fixed at not more than 50 percent of the regular renewal fee, but not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(i) The penalty for submitting insufficient funds or fictitious check, draft or order on any bank or depository for payment of any fee to the board shall be fixed at not less than fifteen dollars ($15) nor more than thirty dollars ($30).

(j) The fee to be paid for an interim permit shall be fixed by the board at not less than thirty dollars ($30) nor more than fifty dollars ($50).

(k) The fee to be paid for a temporary license shall be fixed by the board at not less than thirty dollars ($30) nor more than fifty dollars ($50).

(l) The fee to be paid for processing endorsement papers to other states shall be fixed by the board at not less than sixty dollars ($60) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(m) The fee to be paid for a certified copy of a school transcript shall be fixed by the board at not less than thirty dollars ($30) nor more than fifty dollars ($50).

(n) The fee to be paid for a duplicate license shall be fixed by the board at not less than thirty dollars ($30) nor more than fifty dollars ($50).

(o) The fee to be paid by a registered nurse for an evaluation of his or her qualifications to use the title "nurse practitioner" shall be fixed by the board at not less than seventy-five dollars ($75) nor more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

No further fee shall be required for a license or a renewal thereof other than as prescribed by this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 2815.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2815.1. As provided in subdivision (d) of Section 2815, the Board of Registered Nursing shall collect an additional five dollar ($5) assessment at the time of the biennial licensure renewal. This amount shall be credited to the Registered Nurse Education Fund. This assessment is separate from those fees prescribed in Section 2815.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2000, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 2815.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2815.5. The amount of the fees prescribed by this chapter in connection with the issuance of certificates as nurse-midwives is that fixed by the following schedule:

(a) The fee to be paid upon the filing of an application for a certificate shall be fixed by the board at not less than seventy-five dollars ($75) nor more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(b) The biennial fee to be paid upon the application for a renewal of a certificate shall be fixed by the board at not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(c) The penalty fee for failure to renew a certificate within the prescribed time shall be 50 percent of the renewal fee in effect on the date of the renewal of the license, but not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than fifty dollars ($50).

(d) The fee to be paid upon the filing of an application for the nurse-midwife equivalency examination shall be fixed by the board at not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200).

SEC. 4. Section 2815.7 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2815.7. The board shall report to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of each house of the Legislature whenever the board proposes or adopts an increase in any fee imposed pursuant to this chapter. The board shall specify the reasons for each fee increase and shall identify the percentage of the funds derived from an increase in any fee that will be used for investigational or enforcement related activities by the board.

SEC. 4.5. Section 2830.7 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2830.7. The amount of the fees prescribed by this chapter in connection with the issuance of certificates as nurse anesthetists is that fixed by the following schedule:

(a) The fee to be paid upon the filing of an application for a certificate shall be fixed by the board at not less than seventy-five dollars ($75) nor more than one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(b) The biennial fee to be paid upon the application for a renewal of a certificate shall be fixed by the board at not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100).

(c) The penalty fee for failure to renew a certificate within the prescribed time shall be 50 percent of the renewal fee in effect on the date of the renewal of the license, but not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than fifty dollars ($50).

SEC. 5. Section 2831 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2831. An applicant for certification pursuant to this article shall submit a written application in the form prescribed by the board, accompanied by the fee prescribed by Section 2830.7 which shall also apply to the issuance of a certificate under the provisions of this article.

SEC. 6. Section 2833 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2833. Each certificate issued pursuant to this article shall be renewable biennially, and each person holding a certificate under this article shall apply for a renewal of his or her certificate and pay the biennial renewal fee required by Section 2830.7 every two years on or before the last day of the month following the month in which his or her birthday occurs, beginning with the second birthday following the date on which the certificate was issued, whereupon the board shall renew the certificate.

Each certificate not renewed in accordance with this section shall expire but may within a period of eight years thereafter be reinstated upon payment of the biennial renewal fee and penalty fee required by Section 2830.7 and upon submission of such proof of the applicant's qualifications as may be required by the board, except that during that eight-year period no examination shall be required as a condition for the reinstatement of any expired certificate which has lapsed solely by reason of nonpayment of the renewable fee. After the expiration of the eight-year period the board may require as a condition of reinstatement that the applicant pass an examination as it deems necessary to determine his or her present fitness to resume the practice of nurse anesthesia.

SEC. 7. The Board of Registered Nursing shall report to the Legislature on the condition of the Board of Registered Nursing Fund on or before July 1, 1992. The report shall include the fees increased by this act, the fund surplus created by the fee increases authorized by this act, and a projection of when fees will be required to be increased again.

CHAPTER 353

An act to amend Sections 60001 and 60200 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 60001 of the Education Code is amended to read:

60001. For the purposes of any provision of the California Constitution that requires the adoption of textbooks for use in the elementary schools, the state board, subject to the provisions of this division, shall adopt at least five separate series of textbooks or instructional materials systems for any of the several courses offered in the elementary schools, or for any combination of those courses. For these purposes the term "elementary schools" shall have the meaning prescribed by Section 60024.

SEC. 2. Section 60200 of the Education Code is amended to read:

60200. The state board shall adopt basic instructional materials for use in kindergarten and grades 1 to 8, inclusive, for governing boards, subject to the following provisions:

(a) The state board shall adopt at least five basic instructional materials for all applicable grade levels in each of the following categories:

(1) Language arts.

(2) Mathematics.

(3) Reading.

(4) Science.

(5) Social science.

(6) Bilingual or bicultural subjects.

(7) Any other subject, discipline, or interdisciplinary areas for which the state board determines the adoption of instructional materials to be necessary or desirable.

(b) The state board shall adopt any of the following for basic instructional materials in each subject in each grade:

(1) Instructional materials.

(2) Instructional materials systems.

(3) Instructional materials sets.

(4) A combination of instructional materials, instructional materials systems, and instructional materials sets, as the state board may select.

(c) The state board shall adopt procedures for the submission of basic instructional materials in order to comply with each of the following:

(1) Instructional materials may be submitted for adoption in any of the subject areas pursuant to subdivision (a) at least every two years so that there will be submissions in each subject consistent with the framework cycles established by the state board. The state board may prescribe reasonable conditions to restrict the resubmission of materials that have been previously rejected if those resubmitted materials have no substantive changes.

(2) Submitted instructional materials shall be adopted or rejected within six months of the submission date of the materials pursuant to paragraph (1), unless the state board determines that a longer period of time, not to exceed an additional three months, is necessary due to the estimated volume or complexity of the materials for that subject in that year, or due to other circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the state board.

(d) In reviewing and adopting or recommending for adoption submitted basic instructional materials, the state board and its appropriate advisers and advisory groups shall use, and ensure that, in its judgment, all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The submitted basic instructional materials are consistent with the criteria and the standards of quality prescribed in the state board's adopted curriculum framework. In making this determination, the state board shall consider both the framework and the submitted instructional materials as a whole.

(2) The submitted basic instructional materials comply with the requirements of Sections 60040, 60041, 60042, 60043, 60044, 60200.5, and 60200.6, and the state board's guidelines for social content.

(3) The submitted instructional materials are factually accurate and incorporate principals of instruction reflective of current and confirmed research.

(4) The submitted instructional materials adequately cover the subject area for the grade level or levels for which they are submitted.

(5) The submitted instructional materials meet other criteria as are established by the state board as being necessary to accomplish the intent of Section 7.5 of Article IX of the California Constitution and of Section 1 of this act, provided that the criteria are approved by resolution at the time the resolution adopting the framework for the current adoption is approved, or at least 30 months prior to the date that the materials are to be approved for adoption.

(e) If basic instructional materials are rejected, the state board shall provide a specific, written explanation of the reasons why the submitted materials were not adopted, based upon one or more of the criteria established under subdivision (d). In providing this explanation, the state board may use, in whole or in part, materials written by the commission or any other advisers to the state board.

(f) The state board may adopt fewer than five basic instructional materials in each subject area for each grade level if either of the following occurs:

(1) Fewer than five basic instructional materials are submitted.

(2) The state board specifically finds that fewer than five basic instructional materials meet the criteria prescribed by paragraphs

(g) Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the state board to adopt materials that are not basic instructional materials.

(h) In the event that a district board establishes to the satisfaction of the state board that the state-adopted instructional materials do not promote the maximum efficiency of pupil learning in the district, the state board shall authorize that district board to use its instructional materials allowances to purchase materials as specified by the state board, in accordance with standards and procedures established by the state board.

(i) Consistent with the quality criteria for the state board's adopted curriculum framework, the state board shall prescribe procedures to provide the most open and flexible materials submission system and ensure that the adopted materials in each subject, taken as a whole, provide for the educational needs of the diverse pupil populations in the public schools, provide collections of instructional materials that illustrate diverse points of view, represent cultural pluralism, and provide a broad spectrum of knowledge, information, and media to meet the goals of the program and the needs of pupils.

(j) Upon making an adoption, the state board shall make available to listed publishers and manufacturers and all school interests a listing of instructional materials, including the most current unit cost of those materials as computed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 60222 and Section 60223. Items placed upon lists shall remain thereon, and be available for procurement through the state's systems of financing, for a period beginning with the date of the adoption of the item and ending on a date established by the state board as being not less than 30 months after the state board's approval of the curriculum framework that will succeed the framework on which the current adoption is based. All previous adoptions shall be integrated on lists and made available by subject and grade level. The lists shall terminate and shall no longer be effective on the date prescribed by the state board pursuant to this subdivision.

(k) The state board may approve multiple lists of instructional materials, without designating a grade or subject, and the state board may designate more than one grade or subject whenever it determines that a single subject designation or a single grade designation would not promote the maximum efficiency of pupil learning. Any materials so designated may be placed on single grade or single subject lists, or multigrade or interdisciplinary lists, or may be placed on separate lists including other materials with similar grade or subject designations.

(l) A composite listing in the format of an order form may be used to meet the requirements of this section.

(m) The lists maintained pursuant to this section shall not be deemed to control the use period by any local district.

(n) Upon making an adoption, the state board shall establish the date upon which those adopted materials shall initially be available for use by schools.

SEC. 2.5. Section 60200 of the Education Code is amended to read:

60200. The state board shall adopt basic instructional materials for use in kindergarten and grades 1 to 8, inclusive, for governing boards, subject to the following provisions:

(a) The state board shall adopt at least five basic instructional materials for all applicable grade levels in each of the following categories:

(1) Language arts.

(2) Mathematics.

(3) Reading.

(4) Science.

(5) Social science.

(6) Bilingual or bicultural subjects.

(7) Any other subject, discipline, or interdisciplinary areas for which the state board determines the adoption of instructional materials to be necessary or desirable.

(b) The state board shall adopt any of the following for basic instructional materials in each subject in each grade:

(1) Instructional materials.

(2) Instructional materials systems.

(3) Instructional materials sets.

(4) A combination of instructional materials, instructional materials systems, and instructional materials sets, as the state board may select.

(c) The state board shall adopt procedures for the submission of basic instructional materials in order to comply with each of the following:

(2) Submitted instructional materials shall be adopted or rejected within six months of the submission date of the materials pursuant to paragraph (1), unless the state board determines that a longer period of time, not to exceed an additional three months, is necessary due to the estimated volume or complexity of the materials for that subject in that year, or due to other circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the state board.

(d) In reviewing and adopting or recommending for adoption submitted basic instructional materials, the state board and its appropriate advisers and advisory groups shall use, and ensure that, in its judgment, all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The submitted basic instructional materials are consistent with the criteria and the standards of quality prescribed in the state board's adopted curriculum framework. In making this determination, the state board shall consider both the framework and the submitted instructional materials as a whole.

(2) The submitted basic instructional materials comply with the requirements of Sections 60040, 60041, 60042, 60043, 60044, 60200.5, and 60200.6, and the state board's guidelines for social content.

(3) The submitted instructional materials are factually accurate and incorporate principals of instruction reflective of current and confirmed research.

(4) The submitted instructional materials adequately cover the subject area for the grade level or levels for which they are submitted.

(5) The submitted instructional materials meet other criteria as are established by the state board as being necessary to accomplish the intent of Section 7.5 of Article IX of the California Constitution and of Section 1 of this act, provided that the criteria are approved by resolution at the time the resolution adopting the framework for the current adoption is approved, or at least 30 months prior to the date that the materials are to be approved for adoption.

(e) If basic instructional materials are rejected, the state board shall provide a specific, written explanation of the reasons why the submitted materials were not adopted, based upon one or more of the criteria established under subdivision (d). In providing this explanation, the state board may use, in whole or in part, materials written by the commission or any other advisers to the state board.

(f) The state board may adopt fewer than five basic instructional materials in each subject area for each grade level if either of the following occurs:

(1) Fewer than five basic instructional materials are submitted.

(2) The state board specifically finds that fewer than five basic instructional materials meet the criteria prescribed by paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, of subdivision (d) , or the materials fail to meet the state board's adopted curriculum framework. In the event that the state board adopts fewer than five basic instructional materials in any subject for any grade level, the state board shall conduct a review of the degree to which the criteria and procedures used to evaluate the submitted materials for that adoption were consistent with the state board's adopted curriculum framework.

(g) Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the state board to adopt materials that are not basic instructional materials.

(h) In the event that a district board establishes to the satisfaction of the state board that the state-adopted instructional materials do not promote the maximum efficiency of pupil learning in the district, the state board shall authorize that district board to use its instructional materials allowances to purchase materials as specified by the state board, in accordance with standards and procedures established by the state board.

(i) Consistent with the quality criteria for the state board's adopted curriculum framework, the state board shall prescribe procedures to provide the most open and flexible materials submission system and ensure that the adopted materials in each subject, taken as a whole, provide for the educational needs of the diverse pupil populations in the public schools, provide collections of instructional materials that illustrate diverse points of view, represent cultural pluralism, and provide a broad spectrum of knowledge, information, and technology-based materials to meet the goals of the program and the needs of pupils.

(j) Upon making an adoption, the state board shall make available to listed publishers and manufacturers and all school interests a listing of instructional materials, including the most current unit cost of those materials as computed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 60222 and Section 60223. Items placed upon lists shall remain thereon, and be available for procurement through the state's systems of financing, for a period beginning with the date of the adoption of the item and ending on a date established by the state board as being not less than 30 months after the state board's approval of the curriculum framework that will succeed the framework on which the current adoption is based. All previous adoptions shall be integrated on lists and made available by subject and grade level. The lists shall terminate and shall no longer be effective on the date prescribed by the state board pursuant to this subdivision.

(k) The state board may approve multiple lists of instructional materials, without designating a grade or subject, and the state board may designate more than one grade or subject whenever it determines that a single subject designation or a single grade designation would not promote the maximum efficiency of pupil learning. Any materials so designated may be placed on single grade or single subject lists, or multigrade or interdisciplinary lists, or may be placed on separate lists including other materials with similar grade or subject designations.

(l) A composite listing in the format of an order form may be used to meet the requirements of this section.

(m) The lists maintained pursuant to this section shall not be deemed to control the use period by any local district.

(n) Upon making an adoption, the state board shall establish the date upon which those adopted materials shall initially be available for use by schools.

SEC. 3. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 60200 of the Education Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1008. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 60200 of the Education Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1008, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 354

An act to amend and repeal Section 66413.5 of the Government Code, relating to subdivisions.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 66413.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66413.5. (a) When any area in a subdivision or proposed subdivision as to which a tentative map meeting the criteria of this section has been approved by a board of supervisors is incorporated into a newly incorporated city, the newly incorporated city shall approve the final map if it meets all of the conditions of the tentative map, meets the requirements and conditions for approval of the final map as provided in Article 4 (commencing with Section 66456) of Chapter 3, other requirements of this division, and the county's subdivision ordinance.

(b) When any area in a subdivision or proposed subdivision as to which a vesting tentative map meeting the criteria of this section has been approved by a board of supervisors is incorporated into a newly incorporated city, the newly incorporated city shall approve the final map and shall give effect to the vesting tentative map as provided in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 66498.1) if the final map meets all of the conditions of the vesting tentative map, meets the requirements and conditions for approval of the final map as provided in Article 4 (commencing with Section 66456) of Chapter 3, Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 66498.1), other requirements of this division, and the county's subdivision ordinance.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), the newly incorporated city may condition or deny a permit, approval, or extension, or entitlement if it determines any of the following:

(1) A failure to do so would place the residents of the subdivision or the immediate community, or both, in a condition dangerous to their health or safety, or both.

(2) The condition or denial is required, in order to comply with state or federal law.

(d) The rights conferred by this section shall expire if a final map is not approved prior to the expiration of the tentative map or of the vesting tentative map. If the final map is approved, the rights conferred by this section shall be subject to the periods of time set forth in Section 66452.6, but shall not exceed eight years from the date of incorporation unless an applicant and the newly incorporated city mutually agree to a longer period provided by this division.

(e) An approved tentative map or vesting tentative map shall not limit a newly incorporated city from imposing reasonable conditions on subsequent required approvals or permits necessary for the development, and authorized by the ordinances, policies, and standards described in Section 66474.2.

(f) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (g) or (h), this section applies to any approved tentative map or approved vesting tentative map which meets both of the following requirements:

(1) The application for the tentative map or the vesting tentative map is submitted prior to the date that the first signature was affixed to the petition for incorporation pursuant to Section 56704, regardless of the validity of the first signature, or the adoption of the resolution pursuant to Section 56800, whichever occurs first.

(2) The county approves the tentative map or the vesting tentative map prior to the date of the election on the question of incorporation.

(g) This section does not apply to any territory for which the effective date of the incorporation is prior to January 1, 1989.

(h) This section does not apply to any subdivision subject to Section 66427.1 and it is not the intent of the Legislature to influence or affect any litigation pending on December 31, 1988.

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before that date, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 355

An act to amend Sections 1365.5 and 1366 of the Civil Code, relating to common interest developments.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1365.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1365.5. (a) Unless the governing documents impose more stringent standards, the board of directors of the association shall do all of the following:

(1) Review a current reconciliation of the association's operating accounts on at least a quarterly basis.

(2) Review a current reconciliation of the association's reserve accounts on at least a quarterly basis.

(3) Review, on at least a quarterly basis, the current year's actual reserve revenues and expenses compared to the current year's budget.

(4) Review the latest account statements prepared by the financial institutions where the association has its operating and reserve accounts.

(5) Review an income and expense statement for the association's operating and reserve accounts on at least a quarterly basis.

(b) The signatures of at least two persons, who shall be members of the association's board of directors, or one officer who is not a member of the board of directors and a member of the board of directors, shall be required for the withdrawal of moneys from the association's reserve accounts.

(c) The board of directors shall not expend funds designated as reserve funds for any purpose other than the repair, restoration, replacement, or maintenance of, or litigation involving the repair, restoration, replacement, or maintenance of, major components which the association is obligated to repair, restore, replace, or maintain and for which the reserve fund was established. However, the board may authorize the temporary transfer of money from a reserve fund to the association's general operating fund to meet short-term cash-flow requirements or other expenses. The transferred funds shall be restored to the reserve fund within three years of the date of the initial transfer, except that the board may, upon making a finding supported by documentation that a delay would be in the best interests of the common interest development, delay the restoration until the time which the board reasonably determines to be necessary. The board shall exercise prudent fiscal management in delaying restoration of these funds and in restoring the expended funds to the reserve account, and shall, if necessary, levy a special assessment to recover the full amount of the expended funds within the time limits required by this section. This special assessment is not subject to the limitation imposed by Section 1366.

(d) At least once every three years the board of directors shall cause a study of the reserve account requirements of the common interest development to be conducted if the current replacement value of the major components which the association is obligated to repair, replace, restore, or maintain is equal to or greater than one-half of the gross budget of the association for any fiscal year. The board shall review this study annually and shall consider and implement necessary adjustments to the board's analysis of the reserve account requirements as a result of that review.

The study required by this subdivision shall at a minimum include:

(1) Identification of the major components which the association is obligated to repair, replace, restore, or maintain which, as of the date of the study, have a remaining useful life of less than 30 years.

(2) Identification of the probable remaining useful life of the components identified in paragraph (1) as of the date of the study.

(3) An estimate of the cost of repair, replacement, restoration, or maintenance of each major component identified in paragraph (1) during and at the end of its useful life.

(4) An estimate of the total annual contribution necessary to defray the cost to repair, replace, restore, or maintain each major component during and at the end of its useful life, after subtracting total reserve funds as of the date of the study.

(e) As used in this section, "reserve accounts" means moneys that the association's board of directors has identified for use to defray the future repair or replacement of, or additions to, those major components which the association is obligated to maintain.

(f) As used in this section, "reserve account requirements" means the estimated funds which the association's board of directors has determined are required to be available at a specified point in time to repair, replace, or restore those major components which the association is obligated to maintain.

(g) This section does not apply to an association that does not have a "common area" as defined in Section 1351.

SEC. 2. Section 1366 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1366. (a) Except as provided in this section, the association shall levy regular and special assessments sufficient to perform its obligations under the governing documents and this title. However, annual increases in regular assessments for any fiscal year, as authorized by subdivision (b), shall not be imposed unless the board has complied with subdivision (a) of Section 1365 with respect to that fiscal year, or has obtained the approval of owners, constituting a quorum, casting a majority of the votes at a meeting or election of the association conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 7510) of Part 3 of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code and Section 7613 of the Corporations Code. For the purposes of this section, "quorum" means more than 50 percent of the owners of an association.

(b) Notwithstanding more restrictive limitations placed on the board by the governing documents, the board of directors may not impose a regular assessment that is more than 20 percent greater than the regular assessment for the association's preceding fiscal year, or impose special assessments which in the aggregate exceed 5 percent of the budgeted gross expenses of the association for that fiscal year without the approval of owners, constituting a quorum, casting a majority of the votes at a meeting or election of the association conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 7510) of Part 3 of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code and Section 7613 of the Corporations Code. A special assessment imposed pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 1365.5 is not subject to the 5 percent limitation imposed pursuant to this subdivision. For the purposes of this section, quorum means more than 50 percent of the owners of an association. This section does not limit assessment increases necessary for emergency situations. For purposes of this section, an emergency situation is any one of the following:

(1) An extraordinary expense required by an order of a court.

(2) An extraordinary expense necessary to repair or maintain the common interest development or any part of it for which the association is responsible where a threat to personal safety on the property is discovered.

(3) An extraordinary expense necessary to repair or maintain the common interest development or any part of it for which the association is responsible that could not have been reasonably foreseen by the board in preparing and distributing the pro forma operating budget under Section 1365. However, prior to the imposition or collection of an assessment under this subdivision, the board shall pass a resolution containing written findings as to the necessity of the extraordinary expense involved and why the expense was not or could not have been reasonably foreseen in the budgeting process, and the resolution shall be distributed to the members with the notice of assessment.

(c) Regular and special assessments levied pursuant to the governing documents are delinquent 15 days after they become due. If an assessment is delinquent the association may recover all of the following:

(1) Reasonable costs incurred in collecting the delinquent assessment, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) A late charge not exceeding 10 percent of the delinquent assessment or ten dollars ($10), whichever is greater, unless the declaration specifies a late charge in a smaller amount, in which case any late charge imposed shall not exceed the amount specified in the declaration.

(3) Interest on all sums imposed in accordance with this section, including the delinquent assessment, reasonable costs of collection, and late charges, at an annual percentage rate not to exceed 12 percent interest, commencing 30 days after the assessment becomes due.

(d) Associations are hereby exempted from interest rate limitations imposed by Article XV of the California Constitution, subject to the limitations of this section.

CHAPTER 356

An act to amend Section 5694.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to mental health.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5694.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5694.7. When the director of mental health in a county is notified pursuant to Section 319.1 or 635.1, or Section 7572.5 of the Government Code about a specific case, the county mental health director shall assign the responsibility either directly or through contract with a private provider, to review the information and assess whether or not the child is seriously emotionally disturbed as well as to determine the level of involvement in the case needed to assure access to appropriate mental health treatment services and whether appropriate treatment is available through the minor's own resources, those of the family or another private party, including a third-party payer, or through another agency, and to ensure access to services available within the county's program. This determination shall be submitted in writing to the notifying agency within 30 days. If in the course of evaluating the minor, the county mental health director determines that the minor may be dangerous, the county mental health director may request the court to direct counsel not to reveal information to the minor relating to the name and address of the person who prepared the subject report. If appropriate treatment is not available within the county's Bronzan-McCorquodale program, nothing in this section shall prevent the court from ordering treatment directly or through a family's private resources.

CHAPTER 357

An act to add Section 14036.6 to the Government Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14036.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14036.6. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) Rail passes offering unlimited travel on certain passenger rail and associated transit services for a specified period of time and a fixed price have been a success in Europe, Canada, and Alaska.

(2) A "California Pass," valid on state-funded intercity and commuter rail lines, state-funded feeder buses, and major local transit systems would be a major benefit to tourism, while at the same time providing a package of transportation options which do not worsen highway congestion.

(3) Use of a single payment mechanism makes existing mass transportation services easier to use, by eliminating the need for familiarity with multiple complex tariffs and the need for correct change.

(b) The department shall investigate, and if feasible implement, a "California Pass" which would be valid, to the extent possible, for all of the following transportation services:

(1) State-funded intercity rail services in the San Diego-Los Angeles, Los Angeles-Santa Barbara, Los Angeles-Fresno-bay area/Sacramento, and Sacramento-bay area rail corridors.

(2) State-funded feeder buses operated in conjunction with the intercity rail services, including, but not limited to, the service operated between Merced and Yosemite National Park for the San Joaquin trains.

(3) Commuter rail services.

(4) Public transit services.

(5) Other transportation services.

(c) The department shall consider offering passes valid for travel over a specified consecutive number of days, as well as so-called "flexi-passes" valid for a specified number of days within a longer period of time. In addition, the department shall develop a procedure for distributing pass revenues to each participating operating entity, and for marketing the pass to prospective users.

(d) Prior to implementing a "California Pass" program, the department shall consult with each participating operating entity. The department shall not adopt procedures for the distribution of pass revenues without first submitting the proposed procedures to each affected operating entity.

(e) The department shall submit a report to the Legislature by April 1, 1992, on its activities pursuant to this section.

(f) Nothing in this section precludes the department from implementing, as an interim measure, any marketing device to increase ridership on state-funded rail and bus services.

CHAPTER 358

An act to amend Section 5110 of, and to add Section 5101.4 to the Vehicle Code, relating to, vehicles.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5101.4 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

5101.4. (a) Any person otherwise eligible under this article who is a recipient of the Army Medal of Honor, Navy Medal of Honor, Air Force Medal of Honor, Army Distinguished Service Cross, Navy Cross, or Air Force Cross may apply for special license plates for the vehicle under this article.

(b) The applicant shall, by conclusive evidence, show that the applicant is a recipient of the nation's highest decoration for valor, as specified in subdivision (a).

(c) The special plates issued under this section shall contain the words "Legion of Valor" and shall run in a regular numerical series. An adhesive sticker denoting which of the nation's highest decorations for valor, as specified in subdivision (a), held by the applicant shall be affixed in a recess provided for it on the plates.

(d) (1) A fee of thirty-five dollars ($35) shall be charged for the initial issuance of the special plates. These plates shall be permanent and shall not be required to be replaced.

(2) If the plates become damaged or unserviceable, replacement of the plates may be obtained from the department upon proper application and payment of a fee of thirty-five dollars ($35).

(3) A vehicle bearing special plates issued under this section is subject to the same annual registration fees as are other vehicles.

(4) The fee for the replacement of an adhesive sticker which has become damaged or unserviceable is seven dollars ($7).

(5) A fee of fifteen dollars ($15) shall be charged for the transfer of the plates to another vehicle qualifying as a vehicle owned by the holder of the nation's highest decoration for valor, as specified in subdivision (a).

SEC. 2. Section 5110 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

5110. (a) The director may adopt rules and regulations as necessary to carry out the purposes of this article.

(b) Whenever two or more separate series of special plates are authorized under this article in a period of one year, the director shall coordinate the administrative and technical procedures for preparation and issuance of the plates in order to control costs to the maximum extent.

An act to amend Sections 101, 130, 154.5, 656, 800, 801, 805, 805.1, 805.5, 2064.1, 2099.5, 2154, 2275, 2360, 2361, 2368, 2401, 2413, 2450, 2451, 2452, 2454, 2455, 2456, 2457, 2458, 2459, 2545, 3535, 3600, 4033, 4047.7, and 4051 of the Business and Professions Code, to amend Sections 44873 and 87356 of the Education Code, to amend Sections 11501 and 26509 of the Government Code, to amend Sections 7187 and 32128 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend an initiative act entitled "An act to establish a board of osteopathic examiners, to provide for their appointment, and to prescribe their powers and duties; to regulate the examination of applicants, who are graduates of osteopathic schools, for any form of certificate to treat disease, injuries, deformities, or other physical or mental conditions; to regulate the practice of those so licensed, who are graduates of osteopathic schools; to impose upon said board of osteopathic examiners all duties and functions, relating to graduates of osteopathic schools, holding or applying for any form of certificate or license, heretofore exercised and performed by the board of medical examiners of the State of California under the provisions of the state medical practice act, approved June 2, 1913, and acts amendatory thereof" approved by electors November 7, 1922, by amending Sections 1, 1.5, 2, 3, and 5 thereof, relating to osteopathic medicine.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 101 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

101. The department is composed of:

SEC. 3. Section 154.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

154.5. If a person, not a regular employee of a board under this code, including the Board of Chiropractic Examiners and the Osteopathic Medical Board of California, is hired or under contract to provide expertise to the board in the evaluation of an applicant or the conduct of a licensee, and that person is named as a defendant in a civil action arising out of the evaluation or any opinions rendered, statements made, or testimony given to the board or its representatives, the board shall provide for representation required to defend the defendant in that civil action. The board shall not be liable for any judgment rendered against the person. The Attorney General shall be utilized in the action and his or her services shall be a charge against the board.

SEC. 4. Section 656 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

656. Whenever any person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any acts or practices which constitute, or will constitute, a violation of this article, the superior court in and for the county wherein the acts or practices take place, or are about to take place, may issue an injunction, or other appropriate order, restraining the conduct on application of the State Board of Optometry, the Medical Board of California, the Osteopathic Medical Board of California, the Attorney General, or the district attorney of the county.

The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 5. Section 800 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

800. (a) The Board of Medical Quality Assurance, the Board of Dental Examiners, the Osteopathic Medical Board of California, the Board of Chiropractic Examiners, the California Board of Registered Nursing, the Board of Vocational Nurse and Psychiatric Technician Examiners, the State Board of Optometry, the Board of Examiners in Veterinary Medicine, and the State Board of Pharmacy shall each separately create and maintain a central file of the names of all persons who hold a license, certificate, or similar authority from such board. Each central file shall be created and maintained as to provide an individual historical record for each licensee with respect to (1) any conviction of a crime in this or any other state which constitutes unprofessional conduct pursuant to the reporting requirements of Section 803; (2) any judgment or settlement requiring the licensee or his or her insurer, to pay any amount of damages in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) with respect to any claim that injury or death was proximately caused by the licensee's negligence, error or omission in practice, or rendering of unauthorized professional services, pursuant to the reporting requirements of Section 801 or 802; (3) any public complaints for which provision is hereinafter made, pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section; (4) disciplinary information reported pursuant to Section 805.

(b) Each board shall prescribe and promulgate forms on which members of the public and other licensees or certificate holders may file written complaints to the board alleging any act of misconduct in, or connected with, the performance of professional services by the licensee.

If a board, or division thereof, a committee, or a panel has failed to act upon a complaint or report within five years, or has found that the complaint or report is without merit, the central file shall be purged of information relating to the complaint or report.

(c) The contents of any central file which are not public records under any other provision of law shall be confidential except that the licensee involved, or his or her counsel or representative, shall have the right to inspect and have copies made of his or her complete file except for the provision that may disclose the identity of an information source. For the purposes of this section, a board may protect an information source by providing a copy of the text of the material with only those deletions as are necessary to protect the identity of the source or by providing a comprehensive summary of the substance of the material. Whichever method is used, the board shall ensure that full disclosure is made to the subject of any personal information that could reasonably in any way reflect or convey anything detrimental, disparaging, or threatening to a licensee's reputation, rights, benefits, privileges, or qualifications, or be used by a board to make a determination that would affect a licensee's rights, benefits, privileges, or qualifications.

The licensee may, but is not required to, submit any additional exculpatory or explanatory statement or other information which the board shall include in the central file.

Each board may permit any law enforcement or regulatory agency when required for an investigation of unlawful activity or for licensing, certification, or regulatory purposes to inspect and have copies made of that licensee's file, unless the disclosure is otherwise prohibited by law.

These disclosures shall effect no change in the confidential status of these records.

SEC. 6. Section 801 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

801. (a) Every insurer providing professional liability insurance to a person who holds a license, certificate or similar authority from or under any agency mentioned in subdivision (a) of Section 800 (except a person licensed pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1200) or Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2) or the Osteopathic Initiative Act shall send a complete report to that agency as to any settlement or arbitration award over three thousand dollars ($3,000) of a claim or action for damages for death or personal injury caused by that person's negligence, error or omission in practice, or rendering of unauthorized professional services. The report shall be sent within 30 days after the written settlement agreement has been reduced to writing and signed by all parties thereto or within 30 days after service of the arbitration award on the parties.

(b) Every insurer providing professional liability insurance to a physician and surgeon licensed pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2 or the Osteopathic Initiative Act shall send a complete report to the Board of Medical Quality Assurance or the Osteopathic Medical Board of California, as appropriate, as to any settlement or arbitration award over thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) of a claim or action for damages for death or personal injury caused by that person's negligence, error or omission in practice, or rendering of unauthorized professional services. The report shall be sent within 30 days after the written settlement agreement has been reduced to writing and signed by all parties thereto or within 30 days after service of the arbitration award on the parties.

(c) Every insurer providing professional liability insurance to a person licensed pursuant to Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 4980) or Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 4990) shall send a complete report to the Board of Behavioral Science Examiners as to any settlement or arbitration award over ten thousand dollars ($10,000) of a claim or action for damages for death or personal injury caused by that person's negligence, error, or omission in practice, or rendering of unauthorized professional services. The report shall be sent within 30 days after the written settlement agreement has been reduced to writing and signed by all parties thereto or within 30 days after service of the arbitration award on the parties.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no insurer shall enter into such a settlement without the written consent of the insured, except that this prohibition shall not void any settlement entered into without that written consent. The requirement of written consent shall only be waived by both the insured and the insurer. This section shall only apply to a settlement on a policy of insurance executed or renewed on or after January 1, 1971.

SEC. 7. Section 805 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

805. (a) As used in this section, the following terms have the following definitions:

(1) "Peer review body" includes:

(A) A medical or professional staff of any licensed health care facility licensed under Division 2 (commencing with Section 1200) of the Health and Safety Code or of a facility certified to participate in the federal Medicare program as an ambulatory surgical center.

(B) A health care service plan registered under Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code or a nonprofit hospital service plan regulated under Chapter 11a (commencing with Section 11491) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code.

(C) Any medical, psychological, dental, or podiatric professional society having as members at least 25 percent of the eligible licentiates in the area in which it functions (which must include at least one county), which is not organized for profit and which has been determined to be exempt from taxes pursuant to Section 23701 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(D) A committee organized by any entity consisting of or employing more than 25 licentiates of the same class which functions for the purpose of reviewing the quality of professional care provided by members or employees of that entity.

(2) "Licentiate" means a physician and surgeon, podiatrist, clinical psychologist, or dentist.

(3) "Agency" means the relevant state licensing agency having regulatory jurisdiction over the licentiates listed in paragraph (2).

(4) "Staff privileges" means any arrangement under which a licentiate is allowed to practice in or provide care for patients in a health facility. Those arrangements shall include, but are not limited to, full staff privileges, active staff privileges, limited staff privileges, auxiliary staff privileges, provisional staff privileges, temporary staff privileges, courtesy staff privileges, locum tenens arrangements, and contractual arrangements to provide professional services, including, but not limited to, arrangements to provide outpatient services.

(5) "Denial or termination of staff privileges, membership, or employment" includes failure or refusal to renew a contract or to renew, extend, or reestablish any staff privileges, when the action is based on medical disciplinary cause or reason.

(6) "Medical disciplinary cause or reason" means that aspect of a licentiate's competence or professional conduct which is reasonably likely to be detrimental to patient safety or to the delivery of patient care.

(7) "805 report" means the written report required under subdivision (b).

(b) The chief of staff of a medical or professional staff or other chief executive officer, medical director, or administrator of any peer review body and the chief executive officer or administrator of any health care facility shall file an 805 report with the relevant agency whenever any of the following actions are taken as a result of a determination of a peer review body:

(1) A licentiate's application for staff privileges or membership is denied or rejected for a medical disciplinary cause or reason.

(2) A licentiate's membership, staff privileges, or employment is terminated or revoked for a medical disciplinary cause or reason.

(3) Restrictions are imposed, or voluntarily accepted, on staff privileges, membership, or employment for a cumulative total of 30 days or more for any 12-month period, for a medical disciplinary cause or reason.

In addition to the duty to report as set forth in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3), the peer review body also has a duty to report under this section a licentiate's resignation or leave of absence from membership, staff, or employment following notice of an impending investigation based on information indicating medical disciplinary cause or reason.

The 805 report shall be filed within 30 days after the effective date of the denial, termination, restriction, resignation, or leave of absence or after the exhaustion of administrative procedures, without regard to any filing for judicial review.

An 805 report shall also be filed within 30 days following the imposition of summary suspension of staff privileges, membership, or employment, if the summary suspension remains in effect for a period in excess of 14 days.

A copy of the 805 report, and a notice advising the licentiate of his or her right to submit additional statements or other information pursuant to Section 800, shall be sent by the peer review body to the licentiate named in the report.

The information to be reported in an 805 report shall include the name of the licentiate involved, a description of the facts and circumstances of the medical disciplinary cause or reason, and any other relevant information deemed appropriate by the reporter.

A supplemental report shall also be made within 30 days following the date the licentiate is deemed to have satisfied any terms, conditions, or sanctions imposed as disciplinary action by the reporting peer review body. In performing its dissemination functions required by Section 805.5, the agency shall include a copy of a supplemental report, if any, whenever it furnishes a copy of the original 805 report.

In those instances where another peer review body is required to file an 805 report, a health care service plan or nonprofit hospital service plan is not required to file a separate report with respect to action attributable to the same medical disciplinary cause or reason.

(c) The reporting required herein shall not act as a waiver of confidentiality of medical records and committee reports. The information reported or disclosed shall be kept confidential except as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 800, provided that a copy of the report containing the information required by this section may be disclosed as required by Section 805.5 with respect to reports received on or after January 1, 1976. The Medical Board of California, the Osteopathic Medical Board of California, and the Board of Dental Examiners shall disclose reports as required by Section 805.5.

An 805 report shall be maintained by an agency for dissemination purposes for a period of three years after receipt.

(d) No person shall incur any civil or criminal liability as the result of making any report required by this section.

(e) An intentional failure to make a report pursuant to this section is a public offense punishable by a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(f) A failure by the administrator of any peer review body or the chief executive officer or administrator of any health care facility who is designated to transmit a report pursuant to this section whether or not the failure is intentional is punishable by a civil penalty not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000) per violation payable to the board with jurisdiction over the licensee in any action brought by the Attorney General.

SEC. 8. Section 805.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

805.1. (a) The Medical Board of California, the Osteopathic Medical Board of California, and the Board of Dental Examiners shall be entitled to inspect and copy the following documents in the record of any disciplinary proceeding resulting in action which is required to be reported pursuant to Section 805:

(1) Any statement of charges.

(2) Any document, medical chart, or exhibits in evidence.

(3) Any opinion, findings, or conclusions.

(b) The information so disclosed shall be kept confidential and not subject to discovery, in accordance with Section 800, except that it may be reviewed, as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 800, and may be disclosed in any subsequent disciplinary hearing conducted pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code).

SEC. 9. Section 805.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

805.5. (a) Prior to granting or renewing staff privileges for any physician and surgeon, clinical psychologist, podiatrist, or dentist, any health facility licensed pursuant to Division 2 (commencing with Section 1200) of the Health and Safety Code, or any health care service plan or medical care foundation, or the medical staff of any such institution, shall request a report from the Medical Board of California, the Osteopathic Medical Board of California, or the Board of Dental Examiners to determine if any report has been made pursuant to Section 805 indicating that the applying physician and surgeon, clinical psychologist, podiatrist, or dentist has been denied staff privileges, been removed from a medical staff, or had his or her staff privileges restricted as provided in Section 805. The request shall include the name and California license number of the physician and surgeon, clinical psychologist, podiatrist, or dentist. Furnishing of a copy of the 805 report shall not cause the 805 report to be a public record.

(b) Upon a request made by, or on behalf of, an institution described in subdivision (a) or its medical staff, which is received on or after January 1, 1980, the board shall furnish a copy of any report made pursuant to Section 805. However, the board shall not send a copy of a report (1) where the denial, removal, or restriction was imposed solely because of the failure to complete medical records, (2) where the board has found the information reported is without merit, or (3) where a period of three years has elapsed since the report was submitted.

In the event that the board fails to advise the institution within 30 working days following its request for a report required by this section, the institution may grant or renew staff privileges for the physician and surgeon, clinical psychologist, podiatrist, or dentist.

(c) Any institution described in subdivision (a) or its medical staff which violates subdivision (a) is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars ($200) nor more than one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200).

SEC. 10. Section 2064.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2064.1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2064 or any other provisions of this chapter, a regularly matriculated student undertaking a course of professional instruction in a medical school approved by the American Osteopathic Association or the Osteopathic Medical Board of California is eligible for enrollment in elective clerkships or preceptorships in any medical school or clinical training program in this state.

SEC. 11. Section 2099.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2099.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an originating license for an osteopathic physician's and surgeon's certificate issued by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California shall require the following:

(a) A written examination, as specified or approved by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California which includes osteopathic principles and practices and all applicable provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 2080). An applicant shall receive a minimum grade of 75 percent on the written examination.

The board may utilize the National Board of Osteopathic Examiners' examination for the written examination required by this subdivision and may make such arrangements with organizations furnishing examination material as it may deem desirable.

(b) An oral and practical examination administered by the board in which the applicant shall receive a minimum grade of 75 percent.

SEC. 11.3. Section 2099.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2099.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an originating license for an osteopathic physician's and surgeon's certificate issued by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California shall require the following:

(a) A written examination, as prepared by the National Board of Osteopathic Examiners or by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California which includes osteopathic principles and practices and all applicable provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 2080). The board may utilize an examination prepared by the Federation of State Medical Boards until December 31, 1993. An applicant shall successfully complete the written examination, as determined by the board.

(b) An oral, clinical, and practical examination administered by the board which the applicant shall successfully complete, as determined by the board.

SEC. 11.5. Section 2154 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2154. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the Osteopathic Medical Board of California shall issue a osteopathic physician's and surgeon's certificate on reciprocity to an applicant providing he or she meets the following requirements:

(a) The applicant holds an unrestricted license to engage in the practice of osteopathic medicine in another state whose written licensing examination is recognized and approved by the board. In lieu of a board approved and recognized state written license examination, the board may require the applicant to successfully complete a special examination in general medicine and osteopathic principles as prepared by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners, the Osteopathic Medical Board of California, or the Federation of State Medical Boards.

(b) The board determines that no disciplinary action has been taken against the applicant by any medical licensing authority and that the applicant has not been the subject of adverse judgments or settlements resulting from the practice of medicine which the board determines constitutes evidence of a pattern of negligence or incompetence.

(c) The applicant takes and passes an oral and comprehensive clinical examination.

SEC. 11.6. Section 2154 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2154. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the Osteopathic Medical Board of California shall issue a osteopathic physician's and surgeon's certificate on reciprocity to an applicant providing he or she meets the following requirements:

(a) The applicant holds an unlimited license to engage in the practice of osteopathic medicine in another state whose written licensing examination is recognized and approved by the board to be equivalent in content to that administered in California. For the purposes of this section, the board may recognize and approve as equivalent an examination prepared by the Federation of State Medical Boards if an applicant had been licensed in another state as a result of the successful completion, prior to December 31, 1993, of that examination. In lieu of a board recognized and approved state written license examination, the board may require the applicant to successfully complete a special examination in general medicine and osteopathic principles as prepared by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or the Osteopathic Medical Board of California. The board may utilize an examination prepared by the Federation of State Medical Boards until December 31, 1993.

(b) The board determines that no disciplinary action has been taken against the applicant by any medical licensing authority and that the applicant has not been the subject of adverse judgments or settlements resulting from the practice of medicine which the board determines constitutes evidence of a pattern of negligence or incompetence.

(c) The applicant successfully completes an oral, clinical, and practical examination, as determined by the board.

SEC. 11.7. Section 2275 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2275. Any person who held a physician's and surgeon's certificate under the jurisdiction of the Osteopathic Medical Board of California and a degree of doctor of medicine issued by a medical school located in the state at any time prior to September 30, 1962, and approved by either the Osteopathic Medical Board of California or the Medical Board of California at the time such degree was issued, who applied in writing to the Medical Board of California for permission to utilize his or her degree of doctor of medicine, shall be authorized to use the term or suffix "M.D." and the use shall not constitute unprofessional conduct, so long as the person advised both boards, in writing, that he or she has elected to use the term or suffix "M.D."

and further has elected not to use the term or suffix "D.O." In the event of such election, the use of the term or suffix "D.O." constitutes unprofessional conduct within the meaning of this chapter.

SEC. 12. Section 2360 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2360. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Osteopathic Medical Board of California seek ways and means to identify and rehabilitate osteopathic physicians and surgeons whose competency may be impaired due to abuse of dangerous drugs and alcohol, so that osteopathic physicians and surgeons so afflicted may be treated and returned to the practice of medicine in a manner which will not endanger the public health and safety. It is also the intent of the Legislature that the Osteopathic Medical Board of California shall implement this legislation by establishing a diversion program as a voluntary alternative approach to traditional disciplinary actions.

SEC. 13. Section 2361 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2361. As used in this article:

(a) "Board" means the Osteopathic Medical Board of California.

(b) "Diversion program" means a treatment program created by this article for osteopathic physicians and surgeons whose competency may be threatened or diminished due to abuse of drugs or alcohol.

(c) "Committee" means a diversion evaluation committee created by this article.

(d) "Participant" means a California licensed osteopathic physician and surgeon.

SEC. 14. Section 2368 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2368. An administrative fee to be established by the board, may be charged for participation in the program; all costs of treatment shall be paid by the participant. These fees shall be deposited into the Contingent Fund of the Osteopathic Medical Board of California.

SEC. 15. Section 2401 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2401. Notwithstanding Section 2400, a clinic operated primarily for the purpose of medical education by a public or private nonprofit university medical school, which is approved by the Division of Licensing or the Osteopathic Medical Board of California, may charge for professional services rendered to teaching patients by licensees who hold academic appointments on the faculty of the university, if the charges are approved by the physician and surgeon in whose name the charges are made.

SEC. 16. Section 2413 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2413. This article shall apply to medical corporations which have physicians and surgeons licensed by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California as shareholders, officers, and directors only to the extent that this article is not in conflict with or inconsistent with Section

SEC. 17. Section 2450 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2450. There is a Board of Osteopathic Examiners of the State of California, established by the Osteopathic Act, which shall be known as the Osteopathic Medical Board of California which enforces this chapter relating to persons holding or applying for physician's and surgeon's certificates issued by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California under the Osteopathic Act.

Persons who elect to practice using the term of suffix "M.D.," as provided in Section 2275, shall not be subject to this article, and the Medical Board of California shall enforce the provisions of this chapter relating to persons who made the election.

SEC. 18. Section 2451 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2451. The words "Medical Board of California," the term "board," or any reference to a division of the Medical Board of California as used in this chapter shall be deemed to mean the Osteopathic Medical Board of California, where that board exercises the functions granted to it by the Osteopathic Act.

SEC. 19. Section 2452 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2452. This chapter applies to the Osteopathic Medical Board of California so far as consistent with the Osteopathic Act. Unless otherwise provided, this article is administered by the board.

SEC. 20. Section 2454 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2454. A medical corporation which has physicians and surgeons licensed by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California as shareholders, officers, and directors shall comply with the provisions of this section and the provisions of Article 18 (commencing with Section 2400) which are not in conflict with or inconsistent with this section. "Board" as used in this section means the Osteopathic Medical Board of California.

A medical corporation is a corporation which is registered with the board with reference to corporations rendering professional services as osteopathic physicians and surgeons and has a currently effective certificate of registration from the board as set forth in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act (Section 13400 et seq. of the Corporations Code) and this section. Subject to all applicable statutes and regulations, a medical corporation is entitled to practice medicine. With respect to medical corporations rendering the professional services of osteopathic physicians and surgeons, the governmental agency referred to in subdivision (b) of Section 13401 of the Corporations Code is the Osteopathic Medical Board of California.

(b) An applicant for registration as a medical corporation consisting of osteopathic physicians and surgeons under this section shall supply to the board all necessary and pertinent documents and information requested by the board concerning the applicant's plan of operation, including, but not limited to, a copy of its articles of incorporation, certified by the Secretary of State, a copy of its bylaws, certified by the secretary of the corporation, the name and address of the corporation, the names and addresses of its shareholders, directors and officers and employees who will render professional services as osteopathic physicians and surgeons, the address of each office and an applicant for any fictitious name or names under which the corporation intends to render professional services. The board may provide forms of application. The application shall be signed and verified by an officer of the corporation. If the board finds that the corporation is in compliance with the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act, Article 17, and this section, and any regulations adopted pursuant thereto, and that from the application it appears the affairs of the corporation will be conducted in compliance with those laws and regulations, the board shall upon payment of the registration fee in an amount as it may determine, issue a certificate of registration.

(c) Within such time as the board may by regulation provide, a medical corporation issued a certificate under this section shall report in writing to the board any changes in share ownership, directors, officers, professional employees rendering medical services and the name of the corporation or any name under which it may render professional services and any change of address and any amendments to its articles of incorporation or bylaws.

(d) Each medical corporation issued a certificate under this section shall file annually with the board at a time set forth in its regulations a report containing information pertaining to the qualification and compliance with the statutes and regulations referred to in this section. The board may provide forms for filing the report. All reports shall be signed and verified by an officer of the corporation. The fee for filing the report shall be fixed by the board.

(e) The board may adopt and enforce regulations to carry out the purposes and objectives of this article and the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act including regulations requiring (a) that the bylaws of a medical corporation shall include a provision whereby the capital stock of the corporation owned by a disqualified person, as defined in Section 13401 of the Corporations Code, or a deceased person, shall be sold to the corporation or to the remaining shareholders of the corporation within the time as the regulations may provide, and (b) that a medical corporation shall provide adequate security by insurance or otherwise for claims against it by its patients arising out of the rendering of professional services.

(f) The board may delegate to its executive officer, or other official or employee of the board, its authority to review and approve applications filed under this section and Section 2415 for fictitious name permits and to issue certificates of registration to medical corporations described in this section and to issue such fictitious name permits to corporations and physicians and surgeons who qualify therefor.

SEC. 21. Section 2455 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2455. The amount of fees and refunds is that fixed by the following schedule for any certificate issued by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California. All other fees and refunds for any certificate issued by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California which are not prescribed in this schedule, are prescribed in Section 2456.

(a) Each applicant for an original or reciprocity Physicians and Surgeons Certificate shall pay an application fee in a sum not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200) at the time his or her application is filed. If the applicant's credentials are insufficient, or if he or she does not take the examination, the board may retain a sum equal to the actual cost of processing the application, not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150) and the remainder of the fee is returnable upon application.

(b) The oral and practical examination fee shall not exceed two hundred dollars ($200) nor be less than fifty dollars ($50).

(c) The annual tax and registration fee, unless otherwise provided, shall be set by the board on or before November 1 of each year for the ensuing calendar year at a sum as the board determines necessary to defray the expenses of administering this chapter, under the Osteopathic Act, relating to the issuance of certificates to those applicants, which sum, however, shall, not exceed two hundred dollars ($200) nor be less than twenty-five dollars ($25).

(d) The board shall set an annual tax and registration fee in an amount less than that levied pursuant to subdivision (c) which shall be paid by any applicant who indicates to the board in writing that he or she does not intend to practice under the Osteopathic Act during the renewal period covered by that annual tax and registration fee.

(e) The fee for failure to pay the annual tax and registration fee shall be 50 percent of the renewal fee but not more than one hundred dollars ($100).

SEC. 22. Section 2456 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2456. (a) Each person holding a certificate issued by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California residing in or out of California shall pay to the secretary-treasurer of the board an annual tax and registration fee.

(b) Fictitious name permits issued by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California as provided in Section 2415 shall expire on December 31 of each year. The initial permit fee shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100) and the renewal permit fee shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100).

SEC. 23. Section 2457 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2457. The failure of any person holding a certificate issued by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California to pay the annual tax and registration fee during the time his or her certificate remains in force, shall automatically work a forfeiture of his or her certificate after a period of 60 days from the date of expiration.

The certificate shall not be restored except upon written application and the payment to the Osteopathic Medical Board of California of the fee provided by this article. No examination shall be required for the reissuance of a certificate that was forfeited under the provisions of this section.

SEC. 24. Section 2458 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2458. When the prosecution for a violation of this chapter is initiated by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California, 75 percent of all fines and forfeitures of bail shall be paid upon the collection by the proper officer of the court to the board to be deposited by it to the credit of the contingent fund of the Osteopathic Medical Board of California.

The payment to the board shall be made without placing the fine or forfeiture of bail in any special, contingent, or general fund in any city, county, or city and county.

SEC. 25. Section 2459 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2459. The Osteopathic Medical Board of California shall not issue any drugless practitioner's certificates under this chapter or any other law.

All persons holding drugless practitioner's certificates may continue to practice under the authorization of their certificates and may renew them, subject to this chapter.

SEC. 26. Section 2545 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2545. Whenever any person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any acts or practices which constitute, or will constitute, an offense against this chapter, the superior court in and for the county wherein the acts or practices take place, or are about to take place, may issue an injunction, or other appropriate order, restraining the conduct on application of the State Board of Optometry, the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California, the Osteopathic Medical Board of California, the Attorney General, or the district attorney of the county.

The proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 27. Section 3535 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3535. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, physicians and surgeons licensed by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California may employ physician's assistants provided:

(a) Each physician's assistant so employed is a graduate of an approved program and is licensed by the Physician's Assistant Examining Committee.

(b) The scope of practice of the physician's assistant shall be the same as that which is approved by the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California for physicians and surgeons supervising physician's assistants in the same or a similar specialty.

(c) The supervising physician and surgeon is approved by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California. The Osteopathic Medical Board of California may deny an application, or suspend or revoke or impose probationary conditions upon any osteopathic physician and surgeon approved to supervise any physician's assistant in any decision made after a hearing as provided in Section 3528.

(d) Any physician's assistant licensed by the committee shall be eligible for employment by any physician and surgeon approved by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California; except that no physician and surgeon shall supervise more than two physician's assistants. The Osteopathic Medical Board of California may restrict physicians and surgeons to supervising specific types of physician's assistants including, but not limited to, restricting physicians and surgeons from supervising physician's assistants outside of the physician's and surgeon's field of specialty.

(e) Each physician and surgeon desiring to supervise a physician's assistant under this section shall file a separate application. The fees to be paid to the Osteopathic Medical Board of California for approval to supervise a physician's assistant are to be set as follows: An application fee not to exceed fifty dollars ($50) shall be charged to each physician and surgeon applicant. An approval fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) shall be charged to each physician and surgeon upon approval of an application to supervise a physician's assistant. If the approval will expire less than one year after its issuance, the fee shall be 50 percent of the initial approval fee currently in effect. The Osteopathic Medical Board of California shall renew approval to supervise physician's assistants upon application for that renewal. A biennial renewal fee not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150) shall be paid for the renewal of that approval. The delinquency fee is twenty-five dollars ($25). The duplicate license fee is ten dollars ($10). The fees collected by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the Osteopathic Medical Board of California Contingent Fund.

(f) Any person who violates subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d) of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by both.

SEC. 28. Section 3600 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3600. The law governing licentiates of the Osteopathic Medical Board of California is found in the Osteopathic Act and in Chapter 5 of Division 2, relating to medicine.

SEC. 29. Section 4033 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4033. "Physicians," "dentists," "pharmacists," "podiatrists," "veterinarians," "veterinary surgeons," "registered nurses," and "physician's assistants" are persons authorized by a currently valid and unrevoked license to practice their respective professions in this state. "Physicians" means and includes any person holding a valid and unrevoked physician's and surgeon's certificate or certificate to practice medicine and surgery, issued by the Medical Board of California or the Osteopathic Medical Board of California, and includes an unlicensed person lawfully practicing medicine pursuant to Section 2147.5, when acting within the scope of that section.

SEC. 30. Section 4047.7 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4047.7. (a) The Director of Health Services shall establish by regulation a formulary of generic drug types and drug products which the Director of Health Services determines demonstrate clinically significant biological or therapeutic inequivalence and which, if substituted under Section 4047.6, would pose a threat to the health and safety of patients receiving prescription medication.

(b) The drug formulary established pursuant to this section shall include generic drug types and manufactured brand drug products, including, where applicable, drug products differentiated by dosage form or strength. In compiling the generic drug types and drug products for inclusion on the formulary, the Director of Health Services may rely on drug product research, testing, information, and formularies compiled by other states, the United States Department of Health and Human Services, and any other source which the Director of Health Services deems reliable.

(c) Regulations establishing the drug formulary shall be adopted within 120 days of the effective date of this section. The formulary shall be added to or deleted from as the Director of Health Services deems appropriate. Regulations shall be adopted in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. Any person who requests that the Director of Health Services make any inclusion, addition, or deletion, of a generic drug type or drug product to the formulary shall have the burden of proof to show cause why the inclusion, addition, or deletion, should be made by the Director of Health Services.

(d) Upon adoption of the formulary, and upon each addition, deletion, or modification to the formulary, the Director of Health Services shall mail a copy to each pharmacist licensed by the State Board of Pharmacy and to each physician and surgeon licensed to practice in the state by the Medical Board of California and each person licensed by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California. No pharmacist shall dispense a generically equivalent drug product pursuant to Section 4047.6 if the drug product and its generic drug type is included in the formulary.

SEC. 31. Section 4051 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4051. (a) No prescriber shall dispense drugs or dangerous devices to patients in his or her office or place of practice unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The drugs or dangerous devices are dispensed to the prescriber's own patient and the drugs or dangerous devices are not furnished by a nurse or attendant.

(2) The drugs or dangerous devices are necessary in the treatment of the condition for which the prescriber is attending the patient.

(3) The prescriber does not keep a pharmacy, open shop, drugstore, advertised or otherwise, for the retailing of drugs or dangerous devices or poisons.

(4) The prescriber fulfills all of the labeling requirements imposed upon pharmacists by Section 4047.5, all of the recordkeeping requirements of this chapter, and all of the packaging requirements of good pharmaceutical practice, including the use of child-proof containers.

(5) The prescriber does not use a dispensing device unless he or she personally owns the device and the contents of it and personally dispenses the drugs or dangerous devices to the patient packaged, labeled, and recorded in accordance with paragraph (4).

(b) The Medical Board of California and the Osteopathic Medical Board of California shall have authority with the Board of Pharmacy to assure compliance with this section, and those boards are specifically charged with the enforcement of this chapter with respect to their respective licensees.

(c) "Prescriber," as used in this section, means a person, who holds a physician's and surgeon's certificate or a certificate to practice podiatry, and who is duly registered as such by the Medical Board of California or the Osteopathic Medical Board of California.

(d) This section shall not prohibit the furnishing of a limited quantity of samples by a prescriber, if the prescriber dispenses the samples to the patient in the package provided by the manufacturer, no charge is made to the patient therefor, and an appropriate record is entered in the patient's chart.

(e) This section shall not apply to clinics, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1204 or subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 1206 of the Health and Safety Code, to veterinarians furnishing drugs for the treatment of animals, to programs licensed pursuant to Sections 11876, 11877, and 11877.5 of the Health and Safety Code, or to a prescriber dispensing parenteral chemotherapeutic agents, biologicals, or delivery systems used in the treatment of cancer.

SEC. 32. Section 44873 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44873. The qualifications for a physician and surgeon employed to serve on a half-time or greater than half-time basis shall be a valid certificate to practice medicine and surgery issued by the Medical Board of California or Osteopathic Medical Board of California and either a services credential with a specialization in health or a valid credential issued prior to November 23, 1970. The qualifications for a physician and surgeon employed for less than half time shall be a valid certificate to practice medicine and surgery issued by the Medical Board of California. Any school district may employ and compensate physicians and surgeons meeting the foregoing qualifications for the performance of medical services for that district and shall provide liability insurance coverage for the period of his or her employment.

As used in this section "medical services" includes, but is not limited to, any medical services required to be performed while required to be in attendance at high school athletic contests or meets.

SEC. 33. Section 87356 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87356. (a) The board of governors shall adopt regulations to establish and maintain the minimum qualifications for service as a faculty member teaching credit instruction, a faculty member teaching noncredit instruction, a librarian, a counselor, an educational administrator, an extended opportunity programs and services worker, a disabled students programs and services worker, an apprenticeship instructor, and as a supervisor of health.

(b) Unless and until amended by the board of governors, the regulations shall establish the minimum qualifications for service as a supervisor of health as the following:

(1) The qualifications for a physician and surgeon employed to serve on a halftime or greater than halftime basis shall be a valid certificate to practice medicine and surgery issued by the Medical Board of California or Osteopathic Medical Board of California.

(2) The qualifications for a physician and surgeon employed for less than halftime shall be a valid certificate to practice medicine and surgery issued by the Medical Board of California.

(3) The qualifications for a psychologist or social worker shall be a valid certificate issued by the appropriate California agency authorized by law to certify these persons.

(4) The qualifications for a dentist shall be a valid certificate issued by the Board of Dental Examiners of California.

(5) The qualifications for a dental hygienist shall be a valid certificate issued by the Board of Dental Examiners of California.

(6) The qualifications for a nurse shall be a valid certificate of registration issued by the Board of Nurse Examiners of the State of California or the California Board of Nursing Education and Nurse Registration.

(7) The qualifications for an optometrist shall be a valid certificate issued by the State Board of Optometry.

(8) The qualifications for an audiometrist working under the direction of health services personnel shall be a valid certificate or license issued by, or valid registration with, the California state agency authorized to issue the certificate or license, or to effect the registration required for the performance of the service.

(c) The Legislature finds and declares that this section does not create a state-mandated local program cost because compensation of faculty will continue to be determined through the collective bargaining process or meet and confer sessions.

SEC. 34. Section 11501 of the Government Code is amended to read:

SEC. 35. Section 26509 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26509. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including any provision making such records confidential, and including Title 1.8 (commencing with Section 1798) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, the district attorney shall be given access to, and may make copies of, any complaint against a person subject to regulation by a consumer-oriented state agency and any investigation of the person made by the agency, where that person is being investigated by the district attorney regarding possible consumer fraud.

(b) Where the district attorney does not take action with respect to the complaint or investigation, the material shall remain confidential.

(c) Where the release of the material would jeopardize an investigation or other duties of a consumer-oriented state agency, the agency shall have discretion to delay the release of the information.

(d) As used in this section, a consumer-oriented state agency is any state agency which regulates the licensure, certification, or qualification of persons to practice a profession or business within the state, where the regulation is for the protection of consumers who deal with the professionals or businesses. It includes, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(1) The Board of Dental Examiners of California.
(2) The Medical Board of California.
(3) The State Board of Optometry.
(4) The California State Board of Pharmacy.
(5) The Board of Examiners in Veterinary Medicine.

(32) The State Board of Examiners of Nursing Home Administrators.
(33) The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control.
(34) The Department of Insurance.
(35) The Public Utilities Commission.
(36) The State Department of Health Services.
(37) The New Motor Vehicle Board.

SEC. 36. Section 7187 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7187. The following definitions shall govern the construction of this chapter:

(a) "Attending physician" means the physician selected by, or assigned to, the patient who has primary responsibility for the treatment and care of the patient.

(b) "Directive" means a written document voluntarily executed by the declarant in accordance with the requirements of Section 7188. The directive, or a copy of the directive, shall be made part of the patient's medical records.

(c) "Life-sustaining procedure" means any medical procedure or intervention which utilizes mechanical or other artificial means to sustain, restore, or supplant a vital function, which, when applied to a qualified patient, would serve only to artificially prolong the moment of death and where, in the judgment of the attending physician, death is imminent whether or not such procedures are utilized. "Life-sustaining procedure" shall not include the administration of medication or the performance of any medical procedure deemed necessary to alleviate pain.

(d) "Physician" means a physician and surgeon licensed by the Medical Board of California or the Osteopathic Medical Board of California.

(e) "Qualified patient" means a patient diagnosed and certified in writing to be afflicted with a terminal condition by two physicians, one of whom shall be the attending physician, who have personally examined the patient.

(f) "Terminal condition" means an incurable condition caused by injury, disease, or illness, which, regardless of the application of life-sustaining procedures, would, within reasonable medical judgment, produce death, and where the application of life-sustaining procedures serve only to postpone the moment of death of the patient.

SEC. 37. Section 32128 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

32128. (a) The rules of the hospital, established by the board of directors pursuant to this article, shall include all of the following:

(1) Provision for the organization of physicians and surgeons, podiatrists, and dentists licensed to practice in this state who are permitted to practice in the hospital into a formal medical staff, with appropriate officers and bylaws and with staff appointments on an annual or biennial basis.

(2) Provision for a procedure for appointment and reappointment of medical staff as provided by the standards of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations.

(3) Provisions that the medical staff shall be self-governing with respect to the professional work performed in the hospital; that the medical staff shall meet in accordance with the minimum requirements of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations; and that the medical records of the patients shall be the basis for such review and analysis.

(4) Provision that accurate and complete medical records be prepared and maintained for all patients.

For purposes of this paragraph medical records include, but are not limited to, identification data, personal and family history, history of present illness, physical examination, special examinations, professional or working diagnoses, treatment, gross and microscopic pathological findings, progress notes, final diagnosis, condition on discharge, and other matters as the medical staff shall determine.

(5) Limitations with respect to the practice of medicine and surgery in the hospital as the board of directors may find to be in the best interests of the public health and welfare, including appropriate provision for proof of ability to respond in damages by applicants for staff membership, as long as no duly licensed physician and surgeon is excluded from staff membership solely because he or she is licensed by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California.

(b) The rules of the hospital shall, insofar as consistent with this article, be in accord with and contain minimum standards not less than the rules and standards of private or voluntary hospitals. Unless specifically prohibited by law, the board of directors may adopt other rules which could be lawfully adopted by private or voluntary hospitals.

SEC. 38. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that there is a need for a more continuous rotation of appointments of osteopathic physician and surgeon members and public members on the Osteopathic Medical Board of California. The Legislature further finds and declares that this can best be accomplished by restricting an appointment to the board to no more than three consecutive terms, thereby limiting the amount of time of service on the board.

(b) It is the intention of the Legislature that accomplishing the term limitation of appointments to the board will enhance the efficacy of the board and further serve the public good.

SEC. 39. Section 1 of the act cited in the title is amended to read:

Section. 1. A self-sustaining Osteopathic Medical Board of California to consist of five members and to be known as the "Osteopathic Medical Board of California" is hereby created and established. The Governor shall appoint the members of the board, each of whom shall have been a citizen of this state and in active practice for at least five years next preceding his or her appointment. Each of the members shall be appointed from among persons who are graduates of osteopathic schools who hold unrevoked physician's and surgeon's D.O. licenses or certificates to practice in this state. No one residing or practicing outside of this state may be appointed to, or sit as a member of, the board. The Governor shall fill by appointment all vacancies on the board for the unexpired term. The term of office of each member shall be three years; provided, that of the first board appointed, one shall be appointed for one year, two for two years, and two for three years, and that thereafter all appointments shall be for three years, except that appointments to fill vacancies shall be for the unexpired term only. No member shall serve for more than three full consecutive terms. The Governor shall have power to remove from office any member of the board for neglect of duty required by the Osteopathic Act or Medical Practice Act, for no longer complying with the residency or practice requirements of this section, for incompetency, or for unprofessional conduct. Each member of the board shall, before entering upon the duties of his or her office, take the constitutional oath of office. All fees collected on behalf of the Osteopathic Medical Board of California and all receipts of every kind and nature, shall be reported at the beginning of each month for the month preceding, to the Controller and at the same time the entire amount must be paid into the State Treasury and shall be credited to a fund to be known as the Osteopathic Medical Board of California Contingent Fund, which fund is hereby created. The contingent fund shall be for the use of the Osteopathic Medical Board of California and out of it and not otherwise shall be paid all expenses of the board. Each member of the board shall receive a per diem and expenses as provided in Section 103, provided the fees and other receipts of the board are sufficient to meet this expense.

The Governor shall appoint the members of the board within 30 days after this act takes effect. The board shall be organized within 60 days after the appointment of its members by the Governor by electing from its number a president, vice president, and a secretary who shall also be the treasurer, who shall hold their respective positions during the pleasure of the board. The board shall hold one meeting during the first quarter of each calendar year at a time and place designated by the board with power of adjournment from time to time until its business is concluded. Special meetings of the board may be held at such time and place as the board may designate. Notice of each regular or special meeting shall be given twice a week for two weeks next preceding each meeting in one daily paper published in the City of San Francisco, one published in the City of Sacramento, and one published in the City of Los Angeles which notice shall also specify the time and place of holding the examination of applicants. The secretary of the board upon an authorization from the president of the board, or the chairperson of the committee may call meetings of any duly appointed committee of the board at a specified time and place and it shall not be necessary to advertise those committee meetings. The board shall receive through its secretary applications for certificates to be issued by the board and shall, on or before the first day of January in each year transmit to the Governor a full report of all its proceedings together with a report of its receipts and disbursements.

The office of the board shall be in the City of Sacramento. Suboffices may be established in Los Angeles and San Francisco and records as may be necessary may be transferred temporarily to those suboffices. Legal proceedings against the board may be instituted in any one of the three cities.

The board may from time to time adopt rules as may be necessary to enable it to carry into effect the provisions of this act. It shall require the affirmative vote of three members of the board to carry any motion or resolution, to adopt any rules, pass any measure or to authorize the issuance or the revocation of any certificate. Any member of the board may administer oaths in all matters pertaining to the duties of the board and the board shall have authority to take evidence in any matter cognizable by it. The board shall keep an official record of its proceedings, a part of which record shall consist of a register of all applicants for certificates under this act together with the action of the board upon each application.

The board shall have the power to employ legal counsel to advise and assist it in connection with all matters cognizable by the board or in connection with any litigation or legal proceedings instituted by or against the board and may also employ clerical assistance as it may deem necessary to carry into effect this act. The board may fix the compensation to be paid for those services and may incur other expense as it may deem necessary; provided, however, that all of that expense shall be payable only from the fund hereinbefore provided for and to be known as the Osteopathic Medical Board of California Contingent Fund.

SEC. 40. Section 1.5 of the act cited in the title is amended to read:

Sec. 1.5. In addition to the five members of the Osteopathic Medical Board of California as provided for in Section 1, there shall be two public members on the board. The public members shall not be a licensee of any board in Division 2 (commencing with Section 500) of the Business and Professions Code nor of any initiative act referred to in that division. The public members shall be appointed by the Governor for a term of three years and shall not serve for more than three full consecutive terms.

SEC. 41. Section 2 of the act cited in the title is amended to read:

Sec. 2. The Osteopathic Medical Board of California shall enforce those portions of the Medical Practice Act identified as Article 12 (commencing with Section 2220), of Chapter 5 of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code, as now existing or hereafter amended, as to persons who hold certificates subject to the jurisdiction of the Osteopathic Medical Board of California, however, persons who elect to practice using the term or suffix "M.D." as provided in Section 2275 of the Business and Professions Code, as now existing or hereafter amended, shall not be subject to this section, and the Medical Board of California shall enforce the provisions of the article as to persons who make the election. After making the election, each person so electing shall apply for renewal of his or her certificate to the Medical Board of California, and the Medical Board of California shall issue renewal certificates in the same manner as other renewal certificates are issued by it.

SEC. 42. Section 3 of the act cited in the title is amended to read:

Sec. 3. This act, as amended, may be further amended or modified by the Legislature. In addition to the power to amend or modify, the Legislature shall have the power to repeal this act, as amended, in its entirety, and transfer any or all of its functions to the Medical Board of California, in the event that the number of persons who are subject to the jurisdiction of the Osteopathic Medical Board of California reaches 40 or fewer. The Legislature shall, from time to time, appropriate to the Medical Board of California, and in particular for the contingent fund of the board, any sums as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of carrying out its functions and duties.

SEC. 43. Section 5 of the act cited in the title is amended to read:

Sec. 5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, on and after the effective date of this section, a graduate of an osteopathic medical school shall apply for a physician's and surgeon's certificate from the Osteopathic Medical Board of California, which has the sole power to issue a physician's and surgeon's certificate to an osteopathic-trained physician and surgeon.

It shall be unprofessional conduct for a physician and surgeon licensed by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California to apply for a physician's and surgeon's certificate from a board other than the Osteopathic Medical Board of California.

This section shall not prohibit the renewal of a physician's and surgeon's certificate which was issued by a board other than the Osteopathic Medical Board of California prior to the effective date of this section.

SEC. 44. Section 11.3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 2099.5 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 437. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 2099.5 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 437, in which case Section 11 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 45. Section 11.6 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 2154 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 437. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 2154 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 437, in which case Section 11.5 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 360

An act to amend Section 12240 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to weights and measures.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12240 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

12240. (a) The board of supervisors may, by ordinance, charge an annual device registration fee to recover the costs of inspecting or testing weighing and measuring devices required of the county sealer pursuant to Section 12210, except as provided in subdivision (d). The fee shall not exceed the county's total cost of actually inspecting or testing the devices, as required by law, or the amount prescribed in the Table of Maximum Annual Charges set forth in subdivision (e), except that the county may collect the fees biennially, in which case they shall not exceed twice the amount of an annual fee. The ordinance shall be adopted pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 2 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(b) Retail gasoline pump meters, for which the above fees are assessed, shall be inspected as frequently as required by regulations, but not less than once every two years.

(c) Livestock scales, animal scales, and scales used primarily for weighing feed and seed, for which the above fees are assessed, shall be inspected as frequently as required by regulations.

(d) This section does not apply to farm milk tanks.

(e) Table of Maximum Annual Charges:

Number of Devices	1 to 3	4 to 9	Over 9
Charge Per Location	$20	$40	$60

CHAPTER 361

An act to amend Sections 20151, 21283.5, 21285, 21286, 21288, 21288.5, 21289, 21290.5, 21561, 21563, and 21563.5 of, to add Sections 21051.4, 21069, and 21281.5 to, to repeal Section 21287 of, and to repeal and add Section 21283 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to cattle, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20151 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

20151. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that this division is enacted in the exercise of the police power of this state for the purpose of protecting the cattle industry of this state from losses of livestock by theft and straying.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that the protection should be afforded through a system of brand inspection of cattle as the cattle are moved and marketed within this state, and that, to the extent that adequate funding is made available, an investigative unit be maintained within the department for the purpose of assisting local law enforcement agencies in combating cattle theft in this state.

(c) The department shall develop a surveillance patrol program, to the extent that adequate funding is made available, to assist in the detection and apprehension of persons involved in cattle theft.

SEC. 2. Section 21051.4 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

21051.4. (a) In addition to any other penalty provided by this chapter, the director may levy a civil penalty against any person who violates this chapter of an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation.

(b) Before a civil penalty is levied, the person who is charged with a violation shall be provided a notice of the violation, shall have an opportunity to be heard, and shall have the right to review the evidence and to present evidence on his or her behalf.

(c) The decision of the director may be reviewed pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(d) The director shall deposit the funds collected pursuant to this section in the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund for expenditure as authorized by this division.

SEC. 3. Section 21069 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

21069. (a) The director may issue an annual release permit to allow cattle to be transported into another state without brand inspection if all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The state of destination is contiguous to California and it has entered into an inspection agreement with California.

(2) The shipping point is not more than 50 miles from the destination.

(3) The cattle are transported to a public posted stockyard or saleyard.

(4) The cattle are accompanied by a permit document issued by the director.

(b) The director may charge a fee to cover the cost of issuing or renewing the permit in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100).

(c) The director may, at any time, revoke the permit and require brand inspection if the director determines that this action is necessary to carry out the enforcement of this chapter.

SEC. 4. Section 21281.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

21281.5. In addition to other applicable fees, as provided by this chapter, the director may impose a service charge in an amount not to exceed ten dollars ($10) for each site at which an inspection is performed.

SEC. 5. Section 21283 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 21283 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

21283. (a) Unless otherwise provided in this article, inspection fees shall be paid at the point of inspection.

(b) The fee for inspection is ninety cents ($0.90) for each animal which is inspected, except as follows:

(1) The fee for inspection at a registered feedlot, as defined in Section 20015, is forty-five cents ($0.45) for each animal which is inspected.

(2) The fee for inspecting any animal which originated in another state and was shipped into this state for feeding direct to a registered feedlot is thirty cents ($0.30) for each animal which is inspected.

(3) The fee for inspecting an animal which was inspected at a posted stockyard or posted saleyard in this state and shipped direct to a registered feedlot is thirty cents ($0.30) for each animal which is inspected.

SEC. 7. Section 21283.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

21283.5. Except as otherwise provided in this article, on all private treaty transaction inspections, as defined in Section 20026, regardless of destination, the fee of ninety cents ($0.90) shall be paid at the point of inspection for each animal which is inspected.

SEC. 8. Section 21285 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

21285. The fee is ninety cents ($0.90) for the inspection before sale of each animal at a public saleyard which is posted by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or at a public saleyard if the animal originated in another state and it was shipped to this state, consigned to that public stockyard or public saleyard.

SEC. 9. Section 21286 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

21286. The fee is ninety cents ($0.90) for the inspection of each animal which originated in another state and was shipped to this state for slaughter, if the animal is unloaded in an enclosure which is used exclusively by the slaughterer that is located within one mile of the slaughterhouse and the cattle are driven, not transported, from the enclosure to the slaughterhouse.

SEC. 10. Section 21287 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 21288 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

21288. In a modified point-of-origin inspection area, as provided in Section 21111, the fee for the inspection of cattle, other than suckling calves which are accompanying their mothers, is ninety cents ($0.90) per head if the cattle are transported out of the area for purposes other than sale or slaughter and no change of ownership is involved.

SEC. 12. Section 21288.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

21288.5. For cattle, other than suckling calves accompanying their mothers, transported out of the state for purposes other than sale or slaughter and where no change of ownership is involved the inspection fee is ninety cents ($0.90) per head.

SEC. 13. Section 21289 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

21289. The fee for the inspection of cattle which originated in any county or geographical area where a full point-of-origin inspection is maintained pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 21141) shall be established by the director, upon recommendation of the Livestock Identification Advisory Board, in an amount sufficient to cover the actual costs incurred by the bureau in performing the inspection. A fee shall not be charged for any suckling calves which are accompanying their mothers if they are not shipped for sale or slaughter and no change of ownership is involved. Cattle moving out of a full point-of-origin area to a destination inspection point are exempt from the destination inspection fee. However, these cattle are subject to further inspection.

SEC. 14. Section 21290.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

21290.5. Any person who receives cattle from any cattle sale market, either public or private, including any public stockyard where sales of cattle are held, may, upon request and upon payment of a fee of seventy cents ($0.70) per head before accepting delivery of any cattle from that market or stockyard, have a reinspection of the cattle.

SEC. 15. Section 21561 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

21561. All brand inspection fees are due and payable at the time of the inspection. The amount which is due for all inspections that are made shall be paid to the inspector within 30 days after the issuance of the brand inspection certificates for the hides or carcasses which were inspected unless there is on deposit with the bureau a bond in an amount and form which is approved by the chief or a cash deposit to cover the payment of those fees.

SEC. 16. Section 21563 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

21563. Except as otherwise provided in this article, the fee shall be paid at the point of inspection and is one dollar and twenty cents ($1.20) for each carcass or hide which is inspected.

SEC. 17. Section 21563.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

21563.5. The fee for the inspection of each carcass or hide shall be one dollar and twenty cents ($1.20) for each carcass and hide originating in those counties or geographical areas where a point-of-origin inspection is maintained pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 21141) of Chapter 6.

SEC. 18. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The drought conditions in California have impacted range cattle operations and have reduced revenues collected from cattle inspection fees. In order for this act to take effect and apply during the early portion of the 1991–92 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 362

An act to amend Sections 4604, 9553, and 9706 of, to add Section 4604.2 to and to repeal and add Section 9407 of, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4604 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4604. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (d), prior to the expiration of the registration of a vehicle, if that registration is not to be renewed prior to its expiration, the owner of the vehicle shall file, under penalty of perjury, a certification that the vehicle will not be operated, moved, or left standing upon any highway during the subsequent registration year without first making an application for registration of the vehicle, including full payment of all fees. The certification is valid only for the following registration year for the vehicle, but may be renewed annually prior to its expiration.

(b) Each certification filed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be accompanied by a filing fee of five dollars ($5).

(c) An application for renewal of registration, whether or not accompanied by an application for transfer of title to, or any interest in, the vehicle, shall be submitted to the department with payment of the required fees for the current registration year and without penalty for delinquent payment of fees imposed under this code or under Part 5 (commencing with Section 10701) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code if the department receives the application within 20 days after the date the vehicle is first operated, moved, or left standing upon any highway during the current registration year and the certification required pursuant to subdivision (a) was timely filed with the department.

(d) A certification is not required to be filed pursuant to subdivision (a) for any of the following:

(1) A vehicle on which the registration expires while being held as inventory by a dealer or lessor-retailer or while being held pending a lien sale by the keeper of a garage or operator of a towing service.

(2) A vehicle registered pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 8050) of Chapter 4 of Division 3.

(3) A vehicle described in Section 5004, 5004.5, 5004.6, or 5052, as provided in Section 4604.2. However, the registered owner may file a certificate of nonoperation in lieu of the certification specified in subdivision (a).

SEC. 2. Section 4604.2 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

4604.2. (a) When the registration of a vehicle registered on a partial year basis has expired and the vehicle is not thereafter operated, moved, or left standing upon any highway, and the vehicle is in compliance with subdivision (d) of Section 9706 applying to vehicles registered on a partial year basis, any application for renewal made subsequent to that expiration shall be accompanied by a certificate of nonoperation.

(b) An application for registration or renewal of registration of a vehicle described in Section 5004, 5004.5, or 5004.6 that has not been operated, moved, or left standing upon any highway shall be accompanied by a certificate of nonoperation for the period during which the vehicle was not registered.

(c) A certificate of nonoperation may be accepted for a vehicle registered pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 8050) of Chapter 4 solely for the purpose of waiver of penalties.

(d) The application for registration or renewal of registration of vehicles specified in subdivisions (a) and (b), whether or not accompanied by an application for transfer of title, shall be accepted by the department upon payment of the proper fees for the current registration year without the payment of delinquent fees imposed under this code or Part 5 (commencing with Section 10701) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code if the department receives the application and certificate of nonoperation prior to the date the vehicle is first operated, moved, or left standing upon any highway during the current registration year.

SEC. 3. Section 9407 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 9407 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

9407. The fee required under Section 9400 shall be reduced proportionately for each month which has elapsed since the expiration of the last issued registration certificate if either of the following applies:

(a) Application for registration is made after the first month of any registration year and a certification was filed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 4604.

(b) Application for registration of a vehicle registered on a partial year basis is made after the first month following expiration and a certification was filed pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 9706.

SEC. 5. Section 9553 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

9553. (a) A penalty shall be added upon any application for renewal of registration or any application for renewal of special license plates made after midnight of the expiration date of the registration or special plates, except as provided in Section 4604 or 9706, or in subdivision (b).

(b) When renewal fee penalties have not accrued with respect to a vehicle and the vehicle is transferred, the transferee has 20 days from the date of the transfer to pay the registration fees which become due without payment of any penalties that would otherwise be required under subdivision (a) or to file a certification pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 4604 if the vehicle will not be operated, moved, or left standing upon any highway during the subsequent registration year without first making application for registration of the vehicle, including full payment of all fees.

(c) If the fee specified in Sections 9255 and 9257 is not paid within 20 days after it becomes delinquent, a penalty shall be added thereto.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in this section, if any fee is not paid within 20 days after it becomes delinquent, a penalty shall be added thereto.

SEC. 6. Section 9706 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

9706. (a) Application for partial year registration in conjunction with an application for original California registration shall be made by the owner within 20 days of the date the vehicle first becomes subject to California registration. Any application for partial year registration submitted after that 20-day period shall be denied registration for a partial year, and the vehicle shall be subject to payment of the fees for the entire registration year. In addition to the fee for the registration year, a penalty, as specified in Section 9554, shall be added to the fee for registration.

(b) Any application to renew registration for a part of the remainder of the registration year or for the entire remainder of the registration year shall be made prior to midnight of the expiration date of the last issued registration certificate. Application shall be made upon presentation of the last issued registration card or of a potential registration issued by the department for use at the time of renewal and by payment of the required partial year fees, or, if renewal is for the remainder of the registration year, by payment of the annual fee required by Section 9400, as reduced pursuant to Section 9407. Any application submitted after the expiration date of the last issued registration certificate for which a certification of nonoperation has not been filed pursuant to subdivision (d), shall be refused partial year registration and shall be subject to payment of the full fees for the registration year or remainder thereof. In addition to the fee for the registration year or remainder thereof, a penalty as specified in Section 9554 shall be added to the fee for renewal of registration.

(c) In order to obtain partial year registration or renewal of partial year registration for a period of less than three months, the application shall be made prior to the date the vehicle is first operated, moved, or left standing on the highways. Partial year registration, or renewal of partial year registration, may be obtained for a minimum of three months if application is made within 20 days of the date the vehicle is first operated, moved, or left standing on the highways.

(d) In order to retain the partial year privilege, owners of vehicles registered on that basis shall, by December 31 of the following calendar year, either pay all past due fees, if any, and current partial year renewal fees or file a certification pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 4604 and pay the filing fee.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), the owner of any vehicle being moved or operated for the purpose of providing support to firefighting operations while the vehicle or owner is under contract to the United States Forestry Service, the United States Department of the Interior, the Bureau of Land Management, the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection, or the Office of Emergency Services may obtain partial year registration if application is made within 20 days of the date the vehicle is first operated, moved, or left standing on the highway and the owner has obtained a letter of authorization from the department prior to the date that the vehicle is first operated, moved, or left standing on the highway.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order, as quickly as possible, to relieve hardships imposed upon owners of historical vehicles, antique motorcycles, street rod vehicles, and certain other vehicles due to the recent imposition of certification of nonoperation requirements, since those persons do not contribute to the problem of the operation of unregistered vehicles on the highways, which problem is addressed by those new requirements, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 363

An act to amend Section 19627.2 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19627.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19627.2. The funds made available pursuant to both subdivision (c) of Section 19614 and subdivision (b) of Section 19614.1 shall be allocated by the Director of Food and Agriculture for all of the following activities:

(a) For purposes specified in Section 4401.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(b) For purposes specified in Section 51004 of the Education Code to support student organization activities, approved by an appropriate local educational agency, in the fields of agricultural and vocational education. The Director of Food and Agriculture shall annually invite school districts, the Vocational Education Unit of the State Department of Education, and California fairs to which this article applies, together and cooperatively, to apply for funding for the purposes specified in Section 51004 of the Education Code.

(c) The Director of Food and Agriculture shall allocate not less than three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) annually for the purposes specified in subdivision (b).

(d) For the support of live horseracing at fairs, including, but not limited to, safety-related improvements, general facility improvements, and general operational support of the live race meeting.

(e) The Director of Food and Agriculture may allocate up to 33 percent of the funds derived annually by each racing fair pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 19614 and subdivision (b) of Section 19614.1 to that fair for the purposes specified in subdivision (d) that are identified by the fair in an annual application for funding to be submitted to, and approved by, the director.

(f) Funds not allocated pursuant to this section shall be allocated pursuant to Section 19630.

CHAPTER 364

An act to add Article 10.7 (commencing with Section 25217) to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor August 29, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State August 30, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 10.7 (commencing with Section 25217) is added to Chapter 6.5 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 10.7. Recyclable Latex Paint

25217. For the purposes of this article, "recyclable latex paint" means any water-based latex paint, still in liquid form, that is transferred for the purposes of being recycled.

25217.1. No person shall dispose of, or attempt to dispose of, liquid latex paint in the land or into the waters of the state unless authorized by applicable provisions of law.

25217.2. (a) Recyclable latex paint may be accepted at any location if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The location manages the recyclable latex paint in accordance with all applicable latex paint product management procedures specified by federal, state, or local law or regulation which include, at a minimum, that the recyclable latex paint is stored and handled in a manner that minimizes the chance of exposing the handler and the environment to potentially hazardous constituents that may be in, or have been incidentally added to, the recyclable latex paint.

(2) Any latex paint that is accepted as recyclable by the location and which is later discovered to be nonrecyclable shall be deemed to be a waste generated at the location where this discovery is made and this latex paint shall be managed as a waste in accordance with this chapter.

(3) The owner or operator of the location has a business plan that meets the requirements of Section 25504, if required by the administrating agency, including, but not limited to, emergency response plans and procedures, as described in subdivision (b) of Section 25504. The plans and procedures shall specifically address recyclable latex paint or meet the department's emergency response and contingency requirements which are applicable to generators of hazardous waste.

(4) If the recyclable latex paint is not excluded or exempted from regulation under Chapter I (commencing with Section 1.1) of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations, the location meets all applicable federal requirements.

25217.3. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 25160 and 25163, a person may transport recyclable latex paint without the use of a manifest or obtaining registration as a hazardous waste hauler if the transporter complies with this article.

(b) A person transporting recyclable latex paint shall use a bill of lading to document the transportation of recyclable latex paint from collection locations, or any interim locations, to a recycling facility, whenever the transportation involves a change in ownership of the recyclable latex paint. A copy of the bill of lading shall be kept by the originating location, transporter, and destination of the recyclable latex paint for a period of at least three years and shall include all of the following information:

(1) The name, address, and telephone number of the originating location, the transporter, and the destination of the recyclable latex paint.

(2) The quantity of the recyclable latex paint being transported.

(3) The date on which the transporter accepts the recyclable latex paint from the originating location.

(4) The signatures of the transporter and a representative of the originating location.

25217.4. A person may recycle recyclable latex paint at a facility which is not authorized by the department pursuant to the applicable hazardous waste facilities permit requirements of Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) if the person complies with Section 25217.2.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 365

An act to amend Section 39363 of, and to add Section 39363.2 to, the Education Code, relating to school districts.

[Approved by Governor August 30, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 3, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39363 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39363. The funds derived from the sale of surplus property shall be used for capital outlay or for costs of maintenance of school district property that the governing board of the school district determines will not recur within a five-year period. Proceeds from a lease of school district property with an option to purchase may be deposited into a restricted fund for the routine repair of district facilities, as defined by the State Allocation Board, for up to a five-year period. In addition, the proceeds may be deposited in the general fund of the district for any general fund purpose if the school district governing board and the State Allocation Board have determined that the district has no anticipated need for additional sites or building construction for the five-year period following the sale or lease, and the district has no major deferred maintenance requirements. A school district that sold or leased real property pursuant to Section 39360 and that deposited the interest earned on those proceeds in the general fund of the school district in the 1986–87 or the 1987–88 fiscal years, may continue to deposit the interest into the general fund for operating expenses through June 30, 1991. In the 1991–92 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter for five fiscal years, the school district shall reduce the deposit of interest by 20 percent and shall use the reduction in interest for capital outlay or for costs of deferred maintenance of school district property. The State Allocation Board may grant a school district permission to change the five-year and 20-percent requirement to 10 years and 10 percent, if the State

Allocation Board determines that the individual circumstances of the district warrants the change.

The proceeds may also be deposited into a special reserve fund for capital outlay, for costs of maintenance of school district property that the governing board determines will not recur within a five-year period, or for the future maintenance and renovation of schoolsites if the district governing board and the State Allocation Board have determined that the district has no anticipated need for schoolsites or building construction or major deferred maintenance projects for a five-year period following the sale or lease. Proceeds deposited in the special reserve fund shall not be available for general operating expenses as provided in Section 42842.

SEC. 2. Section 39363.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

39363.2. Notwithstanding Section 39363, a school district having an average daily attendance of less than 10,001 in any fiscal year may deposit any and all interest earned on the funds derived from the sale in that fiscal year of surplus property into the general fund of the district for any general fund purpose, subject to the following conditions:

(b) Prior to the decision to place that interest money into the district's general fund, the governing board of the school district shall consider the extent to which it is necessary or appropriate to expend that money to meet the district's needs relative to capital outlay, facilities, modernization, and deferred maintenance. In addition, as to any interest money deposited into the district's general fund pursuant to this section, the governing board shall consider the extent to which it is necessary or appropriate to expend the money to meet the district's needs relative to ongoing maintenance prior to expending that money for any other purpose.

(c) A school district that deposits interest into its general fund pursuant to the authority set forth in this section shall not be eligible during the 10-year period described in subdivision (a) for funding or other assistance under Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 17700) or Chapter 25 (commencing with Section 17785) of Part 10, Sections 39618 to 39621, inclusive, or any other state school facilities funding program.

(d) If a school district seeks state funding pursuant to Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 17700), Chapter 25 (commencing with Section 17785) of Part 10, Sections 39618 to 39621, inclusive, or any other state school facilities funding program, on or after the expiration of the 10-year period specified in subdivision (c), any state funding received by the district from such a program shall be reduced by any remaining funds derived from the sale of that surplus property by the district and any unencumbered interest earned on those funds.

CHAPTER 366

An act to add Section 8589.6 to the Government Code, relating to emergency services.

[Approved by Governor August 30, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 3, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8589.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

8589.6. (a) The Office of Emergency Services shall develop model guidelines for local government agencies and community-based organizations planning to develop a disaster registry program. Adoption of the model guidelines shall be voluntary. Local governmental agencies or community-based organizations wishing to establish a disaster registry program may consult with the Office of Emergency Services for further guidance.

(b) The guidelines required by subdivision (a) shall address, at a minimum, all of the following issues:

(1) A purpose statement specifying that the intent of the registry is not to provide immediate assistance during a local, state, or national disaster, to those who are registered, but to encourage that those registered will receive a phone call or visit from neighborhood disaster volunteers or other organizations specified in the final local plan as soon as possible after the disaster in order to check on their well-being and ask if they need assistance. This statement shall also specify that persons registered should be prepared to be self-sufficient for at least 72 hours.

(2) A list of persons eligible for the registry. This list shall include, but not be limited to, disabled persons, including those with developmental disabilities, the elderly, those for whom English is not a first language, persons who are unskilled or deficient in the English language, long-term health care facilities, residential community care facilities, and residential care facilities for the elderly.

(3) A statement specifying that the party responsible for responding to those registered will not be held liable for not responding.

(4) A plan for ensuring that hard data is available if computers shut down.

(5) A recommendation for those persons or organizations that would be appropriate to respond to persons on the disaster registry, and a plan for training the responsible party.

(6) A plan for community outreach to encourage those eligible to participate.

(7) A plan for distribution of preparedness materials to those eligible to participate in the disaster registry.

(8) Recommendations and assistance for obtaining federal and state moneys to establish a disaster registry.

(9) A recommendation that organizations currently providing services to persons who are eligible for the disaster registry program be encouraged to alter their information form to include a space on the form where the person has the option of registering for the program. By checking the box and giving approval to be registered for the program the person waives confidentiality rights. Despite this waiver of confidentiality rights, local government agencies and community-based organizations planning to develop a disaster registry are encouraged to do everything possible to maintain the confidentiality of their registries. Organizations that currently have lists of people who would be eligible to register for the program should be encouraged to share this information with persons establishing a disaster registry.

CHAPTER 367

An act to amend Section 2435 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to healing arts, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor August 30, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 3, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2435 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2435. The following fees apply to physician's and surgeon's certificates, certificates of drugless practitioners, and certificates to practice midwifery:

(a) Each applicant for a certificate based upon a national board diplomate certificate, and each applicant for a certificate based on reciprocity, and each applicant for a certificate based upon written examination, shall pay a nonrefundable application and processing fee, as set forth in subdivision (b), at the time the application is filed.

(b) The application and processing fee shall be fixed by the Division of Licensing by May 1 of each year, to become effective on July 1 of that year. The fee shall be fixed at an amount necessary to recover the actual costs of the licensing program as projected for the fiscal year commencing on the date the fees become effective.

(c) Each applicant for a certificate by written examination, unless otherwise provided by this chapter, shall pay an examination fee fixed by the board, which shall equal the actual cost to the board of the purchase of the written examination furnished by the organization pursuant to Section 2176, plus the actual cost to the board of administering the written examination. The actual cost to the board of administering the written examination that shall be charged to the applicant shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100). The board may charge the examination fee provided for in this section for any subsequent reexamination of the applicant.

(d) Each applicant who qualifies for a certificate, as a condition precedent to its issuance, in addition to other fees required herein, shall pay an initial license fee, if any. The initial license fee shall be fixed by the board at an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), in accordance with paragraph (2) of subdivision (e). Any applicant enrolled in an approved postgraduate training program shall be required to pay only 50 percent of the initial license fee.

(e) (1) The biennial renewal fee shall be fixed by the board at an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), in accordance with paragraph (2).

(2) The board shall fix the biennial renewal fee and the initial license fee so that, together with the amounts from other revenues, the reserve balance in the board's contingent fund shall be equal to approximately two months of annual authorized expenditures. Any change in the renewal and initial license fees shall be effective upon a determination by the board, by emergency regulations adopted pursuant to Section 2436, that changes in the amounts are necessary to maintain a reserve balance in the board's contingent fund equal to two months of annual authorized expenditures in the state fiscal year in which the expenditures are to occur.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 163.5, the delinquency fee is 10 percent of the biennial renewal fee.

(g) The duplicate certificate and endorsement fees shall each be fifty dollars ($50), and the certification and letter of good standing fees shall each be ten dollars ($10).

(h) It is the intent of the Legislature that, in setting fees pursuant to this section, the board shall seek to maintain a reserve in the Contingent Fund of the Medical Board of California equal to approximately two months' operating expenditures.

(i) The board shall report to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of each house of the Legislature whenever the board proposes or approves a fee increase pursuant to this section. The board shall specify the reasons for each increase and identify the percentage of funds to be derived from an increase in the fees that will be used for investigation or enforcement related activities by the board.

CHAPTER 368

An act to add Section 3260.1 to the Civil Code, relating to contracts.

[Approved by Governor August 30, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 3, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3260.1 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

3260.1. (a) This section is applicable with respect to all contracts entered into on or after January 1, 1992, relating to the construction of any private work of improvement.

(b) Except as otherwise agreed in writing, the owner shall pay to the contractor, within 30 days following receipt of a demand for payment in accordance with the contract, any progress payment due thereunder as to which there is no good faith dispute between the parties. In the event of a dispute between the owner and the contractor, the owner may withhold from the progress payment an amount not to exceed 150 percent of the disputed amount. If any amount is wrongfully withheld in violation of this subdivision, the contractor shall be entitled to the penalty specified in subdivision (f) of Section 3260.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to supersede any requirement of Section 3260 respecting the withholding of retention proceeds.

CHAPTER 369

An act to add Sections 7251.05, 7251.3, and 7285.8 to, and to add and repeal Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 7286.1) of Part 1.7 of Division 2 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to repeal Section 3 of Chapter 1257 of the Statutes of 1987, relating to schools, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 4, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 5, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7251.05 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

7251.05. Notwithstanding Section 7251.1, the combined rate of all taxes imposed pursuant to this part in the City and County of San Francisco shall not exceed 1.25 percent. No tax shall be considered in accordance with this part if, upon its adoption, the combined rate will exceed 1.25 percent.

SEC. 2. Section 7251.3 is added to the Revenue and Taxation

Code, to read:

7251.3. Notwithstanding Section 7251.1, the combined rate of all taxes imposed pursuant to this part in the County of San Mateo shall not exceed a rate that is 0.5 percent in excess of the maximum rate otherwise allowed under Section 7251.1, where revenues equal to the amount derived from that portion of the combined tax rate in excess of the maximum combined rate otherwise allowed under Section 7251.1 are allocated for the support of public elementary and secondary education in that county. Revenues from that excess tax rate shall not be expended in any manner that increases any entitlement to state funding on the part of any local educational agency.

SEC. 3. Section 7285.8 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

7285.8. (a) In addition to any authority established pursuant to Section 7285.5, the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo may establish an authority for the support of public elementary and secondary education in that county. Any authority so established may impose a transactions and use tax at a rate of 0.5 percent for the support of public elementary and secondary education in the County of San Mateo, if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) The ordinance proposing that tax is approved by a two-thirds vote of the governing board of the authority, and is subject to any otherwise applicable voter approval requirement.

(2) The ordinance proposing that tax requires that revenues derived from the tax be allocated only for purposes of public elementary and secondary education within the County of San Mateo. Revenues from the tax, to the extent the tax exceeds the rate authorized under Section 7251.1, shall not be expended in any manner that increases any entitlement to state funding on the part of any local educational agency.

(3) The transactions and use tax conforms to Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251).

(b) (1) Revenues from any tax imposed pursuant to this section shall not be considered "allocated local proceeds of taxes" pursuant to Section 41202 of the Education Code or paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution.

(2) Revenues from any tax imposed pursuant to this section shall supplement, and shall not be offset against, the allocations made pursuant to Section 2558 or 42238 of the Education Code.

SEC. 4. Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 7286.1) is added to Part 1.7 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2.5. LOCAL EDUCATION FINANCE

7286.1. (a) Upon the adoption of a resolution as specified by Section 7286.2 by the governing boards of the San Francisco Unified School District and the San Francisco Community College District, there shall be established in the City and County of San Francisco an educational financing authority in accordance with that resolution. Any authority so established may adopt an ordinance imposing for the authority's general purpose a transactions and use tax at a rate of 0.25 percent, if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) The ordinance proposing that tax is approved by a two-thirds vote of the board of directors of the authority and by a majority of the qualified voters of the county voting on the measure, or any otherwise applicable voter requirement.

(2) The ordinance requires that the tax conform with Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251).

(3) The ordinance provides, upon the approval of a majority the qualified voters of the city and county voting on the approval of the ordinance, for an increase in the appropriations limit established pursuant to Article XIII B of the California Constitution for each school district within the city and county in an amount equal to, or greater than, the revenues derived from any transactions and use tax imposed pursuant to the ordinance that are allocated and received by that entity each fiscal year.

(4) The ordinance provides that the increases in appropriations limits shall terminate no later than four years after the effective date of the ordinance, and may be continued for successive periods not to exceed four years each upon the approval of a majority of the qualified voters of the school district voting on each continuation.

(b) With respect to the approval by the voters of an ordinance specified in subdivision (a), the city and county shall, if the ordinance so requests, call a special election for that purpose, to be held on a date specified by the ordinance, not less than 60 nor more than 103 days after the ordinance is adopted by the governing board of the educational finance authority.

7286.2. (a) A resolution establishing an educational financing authority pursuant to Section 7286.1 shall provide for the establishment of an educational finance authority for the general purpose of providing financial assistance to each school district within the city and county. The resolution shall require that the authority be governed by a board of directors. The board of directors of the authority shall consist of the members of the governing boards of the unified school district and the community college district. The resolution shall designate the president of the unified school district governing board as the chairperson of the board of directors.

(b) The resolution shall require the authority to allocate revenues derived from a transactions and use tax imposed pursuant to Section 7286.1 directly to each school district within the city and county on the basis of an equal amount for each unit of average daily attendance, as defined by law.

(c) The resolution shall authorize the authority to exercise all powers necessary to perform collection, administration, and allocation duties with respect to the transactions and use tax, in a manner consistent with Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251).

(d) The resolution shall provide that the educational finance authority shall cease to exist 90 days after the expiration of any transactions and use tax imposed by that authority.

7286.3. (a) Revenues from any transactions and use tax imposed pursuant to Section 7286.1 shall not be considered "allocated local proceeds of taxes" pursuant to Section 41202 of the Education Code or paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution.

(b) Revenues derived from any transactions and use tax imposed pursuant to Section 7286.1 shall supplement, and shall not be offset against, the allocations made pursuant to Section 2558 or 42238 of the Education Code.

7286.4. The city and county shall be reimbursed for all costs of conducting elections for purposes of imposing a transactions and use tax pursuant to this chapter. In the event the ordinance imposing the tax is approved by the voters, the costs of conducting the election shall be reimbursed by the educational financing authority from the proceeds of the tax. In the event the ordinance imposing the tax is not approved by the voters, the costs of conducting the election shall be reimbursed by the school districts in proportion to the amount of tax revenues each agency would have received had the ordinance been approved.

7286.5. (a) Unless the ordinance imposing the tax specifies an earlier date, any transactions and use tax imposed pursuant to this chapter shall be repealed on the later of the following dates:

(1) On January 1, 1993.

(2) The date that subdivision (a) of Section 6051.5 and subdivision (a) of Section 6201.5 cease to be operative pursuant to those sections.

(b) This chapter shall remain in effect only until the later of the following dates, and as of that date is repealed:

(1) On January 1, 1993.

(2) The date that subdivision (a) of Section 6051.5 and subdivision (a) of Section 6201.5 cease to be operative pursuant to those sections.

7286.6. For purposes of this chapter, a "school district" includes a community college district.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the imposition and collection of any tax approved by the voters at an election held pursuant to Section 4 of this act prior to January 1, 1992, shall commence the first day of the first calendar month commencing more than 40 days after the election results are certified by the county registrar.

SEC. 6. Section 3 of Chapter 1257 of the Statutes of 1987 is repealed.

SEC. 7. The Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution due to unique circumstances with respect to the needs of, and funding sources for, elementary and secondary schools in the County of San Mateo.

SEC. 8. The Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution due to unique fiscal needs and limitations with respect to the provision of educational services in the City and County of San Francisco.

SEC. 9. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide authority for schools to obtain essential additional revenues at the earliest possible time, including during the entire 1991–92 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 370

An act to add Section 5097.991 to the Public Resources Code, relating to Native Americans.

[Approved by Governor September 6, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Numerous agencies and organizations of the state, as well as private museums and universities, have in their possession the skeletal remains and associated grave artifacts of Native Americans.

(b) Some of these remains and artifacts are easily traceable to tribal origin and, in other instances, tribal origin can be inferred with reasonable certainty.

(c) Many in the Native American community have expressed a strong interest in acquiring these skeletal remains and associated grave artifacts for purposes of reinterment or other disposition consistent with tribal religious or cultural practices.

(d) Many believe keeping these remains in institutional collections objectifies Native Americans and fosters the notion that these remains are collectibles.

(e) A method is needed to ensure the respectful return of these skeletal remains and associated grave artifacts.

SEC. 2. Section 5097.991 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5097.991. It is the policy of the state that Native American remains and associated grave artifacts shall be repatriated.

CHAPTER 371

An act to amend Sections 4902 and 4903 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to game, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4902 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

4902. (a) The commission may adopt all regulations necessary to provide for biologically sound management of Nelson bighorn sheep (subspecies Ovis canadensis nelsoni).

(b) After the plans developed by the department pursuant to Section 4901 for the management units have been submitted, the commission may authorize sport hunting of mature Nelson bighorn rams. Prior to authorizing the sport hunting, the commission shall take into account the Nelson bighorn sheep population statewide, including the population in the management units designated for hunting.

Notwithstanding Section 219, the commission shall not, however, adopt regulations authorizing the sport hunting in a single year of more than 15 percent of the mature Nelson bighorn rams in a single management unit, as determined by the department by an annual count conducted in each management unit designated for sport hunting.

(c) The fee for a license tag to take a Nelson bighorn ram may be determined by the commission, but shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500).

(d) The commission shall annually direct the department to authorize not more than three of the license tags available for issuance that year to take Nelson bighorn rams for the purpose of raising funds for programs and projects to benefit bighorn sheep.

These license tags may be sold at auction or by other method and shall not be subject to the fee limitation prescribed in subdivision (c). Commencing in 1992, and not less than every other year thereafter, the department shall designate a nonprofit organization organized pursuant to the laws of this state, or the California chapter of a nonprofit organization organized pursuant to the laws of another state, as the seller of these tags. If the commission has authorized the sale of more than one tag, the department may designate a nonprofit organization, which is neither organized pursuant to the laws of this state nor the California chapter of a nonprofit organization organized pursuant to the laws of this state, as the seller of one of the tags. The number of tags authorized for the purpose of raising funds pursuant to this subdivision, if more than one, shall not exceed 15 percent of the total number of tags authorized pursuant to subdivision (b).

(e) All tags sold by the department pursuant to this section shall be offered for sale only within this state. However, nonresidents may purchase tags offered for sale pursuant to subdivision (d).

(f) No license tag issued pursuant to this section shall be valid unless and until the licensee has successfully completed a prehunt hunter familiarization and orientation and has demonstrated to the department that he or she is familiar with the requisite equipment for participating in the hunting of bighorn rams, as determined by the commission. The orientation shall be conducted by the department at convenient locations and times preceding each season, as determined by the commission.

SEC. 2. Section 4903 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

4903. Revenue from the fees authorized by this chapter shall be deposited in the Fish and Game Preservation Fund and shall be expended solely for purposes of the bighorn sheep program. Notwithstanding Sections 711 and 13004, this revenue, upon appropriation by the Legislature, shall be available for expenditure by the department solely for programs and projects to benefit bighorn sheep and for the direct costs and administrative overhead incurred solely in carrying out the department's bighorn sheep activities. Administrative overhead shall be limited to the reasonable costs associated with the direct administration of the program. These funds shall be used to augment, and not to replace, moneys appropriated from existing funds available to the department for the preservation, restoration, utilization, and management of bighorn sheep. The department shall maintain internal accountability necessary to ensure that all restrictions on the expenditure of these funds are met.

CHAPTER 372

An act to amend Sections 221.30 and 232 of the Civil Code, relating to adoption, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 221.30 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

221.30. All forms adopted by the department authorizing the release of an infant from a health facility to the custody of persons other than the person entitled to custody of the child pursuant to Section 197 and authorizing these other persons to obtain medical care for the infant shall contain a statement in boldface type delineating the various types of adoptions available, the birth parents' rights with regard thereto, including, but not limited to, rights with regard to revocation of consent to adoption, and a statement of Section 232 regarding the authority of the court to declare the child abandoned by the birth parent or parents.

SEC. 2. Section 232 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

232. (a) An action may be brought for the purpose of having any child under the age of 18 years declared free from the custody and control of either or both of his or her parents when the child comes within any of the following descriptions:

(1) The child has been left without provision for the child's identification by his or her parent or parents or by others or has been left by both of his or her parents or his or her sole parent in the care and custody of another for a period of six months or by one parent in the care and custody of the other parent for a period of one year without any provision for the child's support, or without communication from the parent or parents, with the intent on the part of the parent or parents to abandon the child. The failure to provide identification, failure to provide support, or failure to communicate shall be presumptive evidence of the intent to abandon. If the parent or parents have made only token efforts to support or communicate with the child, the court may declare the child abandoned by the parent or parents. In those cases in which the child has been left without provision for the child's identification and the whereabouts of the parents are unknown, a petition may be filed after the 120th day following the discovery of the child and citation by publication may be commenced. The petition may not be heard until after the 180th day following the discovery of the child.

If the parent has placed the child for adoption and has not refused to give the required consent to adoption, evidence of the adoptive placement shall not in itself preclude the court from finding an intent on the part of that parent to abandon the child. If the parent has placed the child for adoption and has refused to give the required consent to adoption but has not taken reasonable action to obtain custody of the child, evidence of the adoptive placement shall not in itself preclude the court from finding an intent on the part of that parent to abandon the child.

(2) Who has been neglected or cruelly treated by either or both parents, if the child has been a dependent child of the juvenile court under any subdivision of Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and the parent or parents have been deprived of the child's custody for one year prior to the filing of a petition pursuant to this section. Physical custody by the parent or parents for insubstantial periods of time shall not serve to interrupt the running of the one-year period.

(3) Whose parent or parents suffer a disability because of the habitual use of alcohol, or any of the controlled substances specified in Schedules I to V, inclusive, of Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code, except when these controlled substances are used as part of a medically prescribed plan, or are morally depraved, if the child has been a dependent child of the juvenile court, and the parent or parents have been deprived of the child's custody continuously for one year immediately prior to the filing of a petition pursuant to this section. As used in this subdivision, "disability" means any physical or mental incapacity which renders the parent or parents unable to adequately care for and control the child. Physical custody by the parent or parents for insubstantial periods of time shall not interrupt the running of the one-year period.

(4) Whose parent or parents are convicted of a felony, if the facts of the crime of which the parent or parents were convicted are of a nature so as to prove the unfitness of the parent or parents to have the future custody and control of the child.

(6) Whose parent or parents are mentally disabled and are likely to remain so in the foreseeable future. As used in this subdivision, "mentally disabled" means that a parent or parents suffer any mental incapacity or disorder which renders the parent or parents unable to adequately care for and control the child. The evidence of any two experts, each of whom shall be either a physician and surgeon, certified either by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology or under Section 6750 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or a licensed psychologist who has a doctoral degree in psychology and at least five years of postgraduate experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders, shall be required to support a finding under this subdivision. If, however, the parent or parents reside in another state or in a foreign country, the evidence required by this subdivision may be supplied by the affidavits of two experts, each of whom shall be either a physician and surgeon who is a resident of that state or foreign country, and who has been certified by a medical organization or society of that state or foreign country to practice psychiatric or neurological medicine, or by a licensed psychologist who has a doctoral degree in psychology and at least five years of postgraduate experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders and who is licensed in that state or authorized to practice in that country. If the rights of any parent are sought to be terminated pursuant to this subdivision, and the parent has no attorney, the court shall appoint an attorney for the parent pursuant to Section 237.5, whether or not a request for the appointment is made by the parent.

(7) Who has been in out-of-home placement under the supervision of the juvenile court, the county welfare department, or other public or private licensed child-placing agency for a one-year period, if the court finds that return of the child to the child's parent or parents would be detrimental to the child and that the parent or parents have failed during that period, and are likely to fail in the future, to maintain an adequate parental relationship with the child, which includes providing both a home and care and control for the child.

If the minor has been adjudged a dependent child of the juvenile court and placed in out-of-home placement pursuant to Section 361 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the one-year period shall be calculated from the date of the dispositional hearing at which the child was placed in out-of-home placement pursuant to that section. If the minor is in placement under the supervision of a county welfare department or other public or private licensed child-placing agency, pursuant to a voluntary placement, as described in Section 16507.4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the one-year period shall be calculated from the date the minor entered out-of-home placement.

The court shall make a determination that reasonable services have been provided or offered to the parents which were designed to aid the parents to overcome the problems which led to the deprivation or continued loss of custody and that despite the availability of these services, return of the child to the parents would be detrimental to the child. The probation officer or social worker currently assigned to the case of the child shall appear at the termination proceedings.

If the minor has been adjudged to be a dependent child of the court pursuant to Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the court shall review and consider the contents of the juvenile court file in determining if the services offered were reasonable under the circumstances.

Trial placement of the child in the physical custody of the parent or visitation of the child with the parent during the one-year period, when the trial placement or visitation does not result in permanent placement of the child with the parent, shall not serve to interrupt the running of the one-year period.

(8) A minor who has been found to be a dependent child of the juvenile court and the juvenile court has determined, pursuant to paragraph (3), (4), or (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 361.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, that reunification services shall not be provided to the minor's parent or guardian.

(b) At all termination proceedings, the court shall consider the wishes of the child and shall act in the best interests of the child.

The testimony of the minor may be taken in chambers and outside the presence of the minor's parent or parents if the minor's parent or parents are represented by counsel, the counsel is present, and any of the following circumstances exist:

(1) The court determines that testimony in chambers is necessary to ensure truthful testimony.

(2) The minor is likely to be intimidated by a formal courtroom setting.

(3) The minor is afraid to testify in front of his or her parent or parents.

After testimony in chambers, the parent or parents of the minor may elect to have the court reporter read back the testimony or have the testimony summarized by counsel for the parent or parents.

The testimony of a minor also may be taken in chambers and outside the presence of the guardian or guardians of a minor under the circumstances specified in this subdivision.

(c) A finding pursuant to this section shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

(d) Sections 4600 and 5158 shall not apply to proceedings pursuant to this section.

(e) This section does not apply to minors adjudged dependent children of the juvenile court pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 360 of the Welfare and Institutions Code on and after January 1, 1989, during the period in which the minor is a dependent child of the court. For those minors, Section 366.26 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and Sections 221.20, 222.10, and 7017 of this code provide the exclusive means for the termination of parental rights.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide courts with the authority to declare that a child has been abandoned under specified circumstances at the earliest possible time, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

CHAPTER 373

An act to amend Section 324.2 of, and to add Section 324.3 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to child health.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 324.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

324.2. (a) In cooperation with the county child health and disability prevention program, the governing body of every school district or private school which has children enrolled in kindergarten shall provide information to the parents or guardians of all children enrolled in kindergarten of the provisions of this article. Every school district or private school which has children enrolled in the first grade shall report by January 15 of each year to the county child health and disability prevention program, the State Department of Health Services, and the State Department of Education the following information:

(1) The total number of children enrolled in first grade.

(2) The number of children who have had a health screening examination, as evidenced by the certificate required by Section 323.5.

(3) The number of children whose parents or guardian have given written waiver pursuant to Section 323.5 that they do not want their child to receive a health screening examination.

(b) Each county child health and disability prevention program shall reimburse school districts for information provided pursuant to this section. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may withhold state average daily attendance funds to any school district for any child for whom a certification or parental waiver is not obtained.

SEC. 2. Section 324.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

324.3. (a) This section shall be known and may be cited as the Hughes Children's Health Enforcement Act.

(b) The Legislature recognizes the importance of health to learning and to a successful academic career. The Legislature also recognizes the important role of schools in ensuring the health of pupils through health education and maintenance of minimal health standards among the pupil population. Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature that schools ensure that pupils receive a health screening before the end of the first grade.

(c) The State Department of Health Services shall compile district information and report to the Legislature the percentage levels of compliance by school districts with Section 324.2 on an annual basis commencing January 1, 1994, utilizing data from the 1990–91 school year.

(d) The governing board of each school district shall exclude from school, upon enrollment, any first grade pupil, for up to five days, that lacks a health screening or waiver as specified in Section 323.5, unless the parent or guardian accomplishes one of the following:

(1) Supplies evidence that the child has obtained a health screening.

(2) Produces evidence of an appointment to obtain a health screening within 14 days, and subsequently supplies evidence that a health screening was conducted within three months of enrollment.

(3) Signs a waiver for the health screening.

(e) School districts may waive the exclusion pursuant to subdivision (d) if the district has contacted the parent or guardian at least twice and the parent or guardian refuses to either obtain a health screening, or sign a waiver.

(f) The number of waivers granted by a school district for exclusions required by subdivision (d) may not exceed 5 percent of a school district's first grade enrollment. It is the intent of the Legislature that waivers of exclusion be used in extraordinary circumstances, including, but not limited to, family situations of great dysfunction or disruption, such as substance abuse by parents or guardians, child abuse, or child neglect. For the purposes of calculating this 5 percent maximum, refusal to obtain a health screening or sign a waiver by a parent or guardian pursuant to subdivision (e) shall not constitute a waiver pursuant to subdivision (d).

(g) It is the intent of the Legislature that the governing board of each school district notify parents upon enrollment of the child in kindergarten or first grade of the obligation of parents to comply with subdivision (d) and inform parents or guardians of the availability for low-income children of free health screening for up to 18 months prior to entry into first grade through the Child Health Disabilities Prevention Program, pursuant to Section 24165.3.

(h) It is the intent of the Legislature that school districts provide information to parents regarding the health screening requirement within the same notification of immunization requirements. Moreover, the Legislature intends that the information sent to parents, should encourage parents to obtain health screenings simultaneously with immunizations.

SEC. 2.5. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 374

An act to add Section 10262.3 to the Public Contract Code, relating to state contracts.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10262.3 is added to the Public Contract Code, to read:

10262.3. To facilitate enforcement of Section 10262, the Department of General Services shall publish in the California State Contracts Register notice of progress payments made to prime contractors.

CHAPTER 375

An act to add Section 44832 to the Education Code, relating to teachers.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44832 is added to the Education Code, to read:

44832. (a) Notwithstanding Section 44842, and except for employees who are notified pursuant to Section 44955, each classroom teacher shall, by May 15 of each year, inform the employing school district whether he or she intends to return to a teaching position for the following school year.

(b) The school district and the exclusive bargaining representative may agree to include provisions regarding the requirements of subdivision (a) in any collective bargaining agreement applying to classroom teachers.

(c) This section shall apply only to teachers in school districts having an average daily attendance of less than 2,500.

CHAPTER 376

An act to amend Section 7299.4 of, and to add Section 7299.1 to, the Government Code, relating to public services.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7299.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

7299.1. State agencies may, utilizing existing funds, contract for telephone based interpretation services in addition to employing bilingual persons in public contact positions.

SEC. 2. Section 7299.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7299.4. Each state agency shall conduct a survey of each of its local offices every two years to determine all of the following:

(a) The number of public contact positions in each local office.

(b) The number of bilingual employees in public contact positions, and the languages they speak, other than English.

(c) The number and percentage of non-English-speaking people served by each local office, broken down by native language.

(d) The number of anticipated vacancies in public contact positions.

(e) Whether the use of contracted telephone based interpretation services in addition to bilingual persons in public contact positions is serving the language needs of the people served by the agency.

(f) Any other relevant information requested by the State Personnel Board.

Each agency shall calculate the percentage of non-English-speaking people served by each local office by rounding the percentage arrived at to the nearest whole percentage point.

The survey results shall be reported on forms provided by the State Personnel Board, and delivered to the board not later than March 31 of every even-numbered year beginning with 1992.

CHAPTER 377

An act to amend Section 1203.1h of the Penal Code, relating to sexual assault.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1203.1h of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.1h. (a) In addition to any other costs which a court is authorized to require a defendant to pay, upon conviction of any offense involving child abuse or neglect, the court may require that the defendant pay to a law enforcement agency incurring the cost, the cost of any medical examinations conducted on the victim in order to determine the nature or extent of the abuse or neglect. If the court determines that the defendant has the ability to pay all or part of the medical examination costs, the court may set the amount to be reimbursed and order the defendant to pay that sum to the law enforcement agency in the manner in which the court believes reasonable and compatible with the defendant's financial ability. In making a determination of whether a defendant has the ability to pay, the court shall take into account the amount of any fine imposed upon the defendant and any amount the defendant has been ordered to pay in restitution.

(b) In addition to any other costs which a court is authorized to require a defendant to pay, upon conviction of any offense involving sexual assault or attempted sexual assault, including child molestation, the court may require that the defendant pay, to the law enforcement agency, county, or local governmental agency incurring the cost, the cost of any medical examinations conducted on the victim for the collection and preservation of evidence. If the court determines that the defendant has the ability to pay all or part of the cost of the medical examination, the court may set the amount to be reimbursed and order the defendant to pay that sum to the law enforcement agency, county, or local governmental agency, in the manner in which the court believes reasonable and compatible with the defendant's financial ability. In making the determination of whether a defendant has the ability to pay, the court shall take into account the amount of any fine imposed upon the defendant and any amount the defendant has been ordered to pay in restitution. In no event shall a court penalize an indigent defendant by imposing an additional period of imprisonment in lieu of payment.

An act to amend Section 11041 of the Government Code, relating to legal services.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11041 of the Government Code is amended to read:

11041. (a) Sections 11042 and 11043 do not apply to the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University, Legal Division of the Department of Public Works, Division of Labor Standards Enforcement of the Department of Industrial Relations, Workers' Compensation Appeals Board, Public Utilities Commission, State Compensation Insurance Fund, Legislative Counsel Bureau, Inheritance Tax Department, Secretary of State, State Lands Commission, Alcoholic Beverage Control Appeals Board (except when the board affirms the decision of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control), State Department of Education, and Treasurer with respect to bonds, nor to any other state agency which, by law enacted after Chapter 213 of the Statutes of 1933, is authorized to employ legal counsel.

(b) The Trustees of the California State University shall pay the cost of employing legal counsel from their existing resources.

CHAPTER 379

An act to amend Sections 31104, 31115, and 31500 of the Corporations Code, relating to franchises.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31104 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

31104. There shall be exempted from the provisions of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 31110) of this part the offer and sale of a franchise if the franchisor:

(a) Is a petroleum corporation or distributor who is a wholesale distributor or marketer of petroleum products; doing business continuously for the past five years and who does not require an advance of funds in the nature of a fee or lease for such franchise agreements; not engaged in the production or the refining of petroleum; and

(b) Complies with the provisions of subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 31101.

(c) For the purposes of subdivision (a) of this section:

(1) A "wholesale distributor" or "marketer" means any entity which, for wholesale, purchases or receives through transfer, or otherwise obtains, by consignment or otherwise, refined petroleum products and resells or otherwise transfers such products, without substantially changing their form, to other purchasers.

(2) An "advance of funds" means (A) a fee or lease for a franchise agreement, and (B) does not mean rent for the possession or use, or both, of premises or property, the purchase of inventory for resale or supplies, utility deposits, and other consideration or expenditures for the formation or operation, or both, of a wholesale distributor or marketer entity.

SEC. 2. Section 31115 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

31115. The commissioner may summarily issue a stop order denying the effectiveness of or suspending or revoking effectiveness of any registration if the commissioner finds:

(a) That there has been a failure to comply with any of the provisions of this law or the rules of the commissioner pertaining thereto.

(b) That the offer or sale of the franchise would constitute misrepresentation to, or deceit or fraud of the purchasers, or that, in the case of a franchise other than a subfranchise, a major inducement to prospective franchisees is fees or other compensation from participation in the sale of additional franchises.

(c) That the applicant has failed to comply with any rule or order of the commissioner issued pursuant to Section 31113.

(d) That any person identified in the application or any officer or director of the franchisor, whether or not identified in the application, meets one or more of the following conditions, and the involvement of this person in the sale or management of the franchise creates an unreasonable risk to prospective franchisees:

(1) Has been convicted of a felony, or pleaded nolo contendere to a felony charge, or held liable in a civil action by final judgment if the felony or civil action involved fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, or misappropriation of property.

(2) Is subject to any currently effective order of the Securities and Exchange Commission or the securities administrator of any state denying registration to or revoking or suspending the registration of the person as a securities broker or dealer or investment adviser or is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange (as defined in the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934) suspending or expelling the person from membership in the association or exchange.

(3) Is subject to any currently effective order or ruling of the Federal Trade Commission.

(4) Is subject to any currently effective injunctive or restrictive order relating to business activity as a result of an action brought by any public agency or department, including, without limitation, actions affecting a license as a real estate broker or sales person.

SEC. 3. Section 31500 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

31500. (a) The commissioner shall charge and collect the fees fixed by this section. All fees and charges collected under this section shall be transmitted to the Treasurer at least weekly, accompanied by a detailed statement thereof and shall be credited to the General Fund.

(b) The fee for filing an application for registration of the offer of franchises under Section 31111 is six hundred seventy-five dollars ($675).

(c) The fee for filing an application for renewal of a registration under Section 31121 is four hundred fifty dollars ($450).

(d) The fee for filing an amendment to the application filed under Section 31111 or 31121 after the effective date of the registration of the offer of franchises, is fifty dollars ($50).

(e) The fee for filing an application for material modification under Section 31125 is fifty dollars ($50), whether or not it accompanies an application under Section 31111 or 31121.

(f) The fee for filing the initial notice of exemption under Section 31101 is four hundred fifty dollars ($450) and the fee for filing each consecutive subsequent notice of exemption under these provisions is one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(g) The fee for filing an application for approval of a written notice of violation under Section 31303 or 31304 is six hundred seventy-five dollars ($675).

CHAPTER 380

An act to amend Sections 1871.3, 10509, 10509.2, 10509.3, 10509.4, 10509.6, 10509.8, and 10509.9 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1871.3 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1871.3. (a) In the case of any claim arising from the theft of an insured vehicle, prior to the settlement of the claim, the insurer shall secure from the insured a claim form which shall contain, among other things, the following:

(1) A warning that false representations made on the signed claim form by the insured subject the insured to a penalty of perjury.

(2) A detailed description of the insured vehicle including the interior, exterior, and any special equipment.

(3) The purchase location of the insured vehicle, the purchase date, and the name of the seller.

(4) A detailed statement of the circumstances surrounding the theft.

(5) The current driver's license number of the insured, except where the vehicle is owned by a person that is not a natural person, or the claimant is a financial institution and the vehicle is insured pursuant to an insurance policy issued to the financial institution to protect vehicles that are collateral securing any loan made by the financial institution. A financial institution shall provide, to the extent it has the information, the current driver's license number of the registered owner of the vehicle or the debtor who has obtained the loan.

(b) For purposes of complying with the requirements of subdivision (a), the insured shall do either of the following:

(1) Sign the claim form in the presence of the insurance agent, broker, adjuster, or other claims representative, who shall verify the driver's license number of the insured who is signing the claim form.

(2) Submit a claim form with a notarized signature.

(c) The claim form shall be signed under penalty of perjury.

(d) The insurer shall retain the following for at least three years:

(1) All settlement checks in settlement of the theft of an automobile.

(2) The original claim form provided for in subdivision (a).

(3) A legible copy of the police report of the vehicle theft.

SEC. 1.5. Section 10509 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10509. The purpose of this article is the following:

(a) To regulate the activities of insurers and agents with respect to the replacement of existing life insurance and annuities.

(b) To protect the interests of life insurance and annuity purchasers by establishing minimum standards of conduct to be observed in replacement transactions by the following:

(1) Assuring that the purchaser receives information with which a decision can be made in his or her own best interest.

(2) Reducing the opportunity for misrepresentation and incomplete disclosures.

(3) Establishing penalties for failure to comply with the requirements of this article.

SEC. 2. Section 10509.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10509.2. (a) "Replacement" means any transaction in which new life insurance or a new annuity is to be purchased, and it is known or should be known to the proposing agent, or to the proposing insurer if there is no agent, that by reason of that transaction, the existing life insurance or annuity has been or is to be any of the following:

(1) Lapsed, forfeited, surrendered, or otherwise terminated.

(2) Converted to reduced paid-up insurance, continued as extended term insurance, or otherwise reduced in value by the use of nonforfeiture benefits or other policy values.

(3) Amended so as to effect either a reduction in benefits or in the term for which coverage would otherwise remain in force or for which benefits would be paid.

(4) Reissued with any reduction in cash value.

(5) Pledged as collateral or subjected to borrowing, whether in a single loan or under a schedule of borrowing over a period of time for amounts in the aggregate exceeding 25 percent of the loan value set forth in the policy.

(b) "Conservation" means any attempt by the existing insurer or its agent to dissuade a policyowner from the replacement of existing life insurance or annuity. Conservation does not include routine administrative procedures such as late payment reminders, late payment offers, or reinstatement offers.

(c) "Direct-response sales" means any sale of life insurance or annuity where the insurer does not utilize an agent in the sale or delivery of the policy.

(d) "Existing insurer" means the insurer whose policy is or will be changed or terminated in such a manner as described within the definition of "replacement."

(e) "Existing life insurance or annuity" means any life insurance or annuity in force including life insurance under a binding or conditional receipt or a life insurance policy that is within an unconditional refund period.

(f) "Replacing insurer" means the insurer that issues a new policy which is a replacement of existing life insurance or annuity.

(g) "Registered contract" means variable annuities, investment annuities, variable life insurance under which the death benefits and cash values vary in accordance with unit values of investments held in a separate account, or any other contracts issued by life insurers which are registered with the Federal Securities and Exchange Commission.

SEC. 3. Section 10509.3 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10509.3. (a) Unless otherwise specifically included, this article does not apply to the following:

(1) Credit life insurance.

(2) Group life insurance or group annuities.

(3) An application to the existing insurer that issued the existing life insurance when a contractual change or a conversion privilege is being exercised.

(4) Proposed life insurance that is to replace life insurance under a binding or conditional receipt issued by the same insurer.

(5) Transactions where the replacing insurer and the existing insurer are the same; provided, however, that agents proposing replacement shall:

(A) Comply with the requirements of subdivisions (a) and (d) of Section 10509.4.

(B) Provide and leave with the applicant a written statement containing information relating to premiums, cash values, death benefits, and outstanding indebtedness, and dividends and dividend accumulations, if any, for the existing policy, both immediately before and after replacement, and for the proposed life insurance or annuity.

(b) Registered contracts shall be exempt from the requirements of paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 10509.6 requiring provision of policy summary or ledger statement information; however, premium or contract contribution amounts and identification of the appropriate prospectus or offering circular shall be required in lieu thereof.

SEC. 4. Section 10509.4 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10509.4. (a) Each agent who accepts an application shall submit to the insurer with which an application for life insurance or annuity is presented, or as part of each application, both of the following:

(1) A statement signed by the applicant as to whether replacement of existing life insurance or annuity is involved in the transaction.

(2) A signed statement as to whether or not the agent knows replacement is or may be involved in the transaction.

(b) Where a replacement is involved, the agent shall do all of the following:

(1) Present to the applicant, not later than at the time of taking the application, a "Notice Regarding Replacement of Life Insurance" in the form as described in subdivision (d). The notice shall be signed by both the applicant and the agent and left with the applicant. Obtain with or as part of each application a list of all existing life insurance or annuities to be replaced and properly identified by name of insurer, the insured and contract number. If a contract number has not been assigned by the existing insurer, alternative identification, such as an application or receipt number, shall be listed.

(2) Leave with the applicant the original or a copy of all printed communications used for presentation to the applicant.

(3) Submit to the replacing insurer with the application a copy of the replacement notice.

(c) Every agent who uses written or printed communications in conservation shall leave with the applicant the originals of any materials used.

(d) Each agent or broker shall present to an applicant the following notice:

NOTICE REGARDING REPLACEMENT

REPLACING YOUR LIFE INSURANCE POLICY OR ANNUITY?

Are you thinking about buying a new life insurance policy or annuity and discontinuing or changing an existing one? If you are, your decision could be a good one—or a mistake. You will not know for sure unless you make a careful comparison of your existing benefits and the proposed benefits.

Make sure you understand the facts. You should ask the company or agent that sold you your existing policy to give you information about it.

Hear both sides before you decide. This way you can be sure you are making a decision that is in your best interest.

We are required by law to notify your existing company that you may be replacing their policy.

(applicant)	(agent)	(date)

SEC. 5. Section 10509.6 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10509.6. Every life insurer that uses an agent in a life insurance or annuity sale shall do the following:

(a) Require with, or as part of each completed application for life insurance or annuity, a statement signed by the agent as to whether he or she knows replacement is or may be involved in the transaction.

(b) Where a replacement is involved:

(1) Require from the agent with the application for life insurance or annuity: (i) a list of all of the applicant's existing life insurance or annuity to be replaced, and (ii) a copy of the replacement notice provided the applicant pursuant to Section 10509.4. The existing life insurance or annuity shall be identified by name of insurer, insured, and contract number. If a number has not been assigned by the existing insurer, alternative identification, such as an application or receipt number shall be listed.

(2) Send to each existing life insurer a written communication advising of the replacement or proposed replacement and the identification information obtained pursuant to this section and a policy summary, contract summary, or ledger statement containing policy data on the proposed life insurance or annuity. Cost indices and equivalent level annual dividend figures need not be included in the policy summary or ledger statement. This written communication shall be made within three working days of the date the application is received in the replacing insurer's home or regional office, or the date the proposed policy or contract is issued, whichever is sooner.

(3) Every existing life insurer or the insurer's agent that undertakes a conservation shall, within 20 days from the date the written communication plus the materials required in subdivisions (1) and (2) are received by the existing insurer, furnish the policyowner with a policy summary for the existing life insurance or ledger statement containing policy data on the existing policy or annuity. Information relating to premiums, cash values, death benefits, and dividends, if any, shall be computed from the current policy year of the existing life insurance. The policy summary or ledger statement shall include the amount of any outstanding indebtedness, the sum of any dividend accumulations or additions, and may include any other information that is not in violation of any regulation or statute. Cost indices and equivalent level annual dividend figures need not be included. When annuities are involved, the disclosure information shall be that in the contract summary.

The replacing insurer may request the existing insurer to furnish it with a copy of the summaries or ledger statement, which shall be within five working days of the receipt of the request.

(c) The replacing insurer shall maintain evidence of the "notice regarding replacement," the policy summary, the contract summary and any ledger statements used, and a replacement register, cross-indexed by replacing agent and existing insurer to be replaced. The existing insurer shall maintain evidence of policy summaries, contract summaries, or ledger statements used in any conservation. Evidence that all requirements were met shall be maintained for at least three years.

(d) The replacing insurer shall provide in its policy or in a separate written notice which is delivered with the policy that the applicant has a right to an unconditional refund of all premiums paid which right may be exercised within a period of 20 days commencing from the date of delivery of the policy.

SEC. 6. Section 10509.8 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10509.8. (a) A violation of this article shall occur if an agent or insurer recommends the replacement or conservation of an existing policy by use of a materially inaccurate presentation or comparison of an existing contract's premiums and benefits or dividends and values, if any.

(b) Patterns of action by policyowners who purchase replacement policies from the same agent after indicating on applications that replacement is not involved, shall constitute a rebuttable presumption of the agent's knowledge that replacement was intended in connection with the sale of those policies, and such patterns of action shall constitute a rebuttable presumption of the agent's intent to violate this article.

(c) This article does not prohibit the use of additional material other than that which is required that is not in violation of this article or any other statute or regulation.

SEC. 7. Section 10509.9 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10509.9. (a) Any agent or other person or entity engaged in the business of insurance, other than an insurer, who violates this article is liable for administrative penalties of no less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for the first violation.

(b) Any agent or other person or entity engaged in the business of insurance, other than an insurer, who engages in practices prohibited by this chapter a second or subsequent time or who commits a knowing violation of this article, is liable for administrative penalties of no less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and no more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each violation.

(c) Any insurer who violates this article is liable for administrative penalties of no less than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for the first violation.

(d) Any insurer who violates this article with a frequency as to indicate a general business practice or commits a knowing violation of this article, is liable for administrative penalties of no less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) and no more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for each violation.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect any other authority provided by law to the commissioner.

CHAPTER 381

An act to amend Section 48000 of the Education Code, relating to kindergarten.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 48000 of the Education Code is amended to read:

48000. (a) A child shall be admitted to a kindergarten at the beginning of a school year, or at any later time in the same year if the child will have his or her fifth birthday on or before December 2 of that school year.

A child who will have his or her fifth birthday on or before December 2 may be admitted to the prekindergarten summer program maintained by the school district for pupils who will be enrolling in kindergarten in September.

(b) The governing board of any school district maintaining one or more kindergartens may, on a case-by-case basis, admit to a kindergarten a child having attained the age of five years at any time during the school year with the approval of the parent or guardian, subject to the following conditions:

(1) The governing board determines that the admittance is in the best interests of the child.

(2) The parent or guardian is given information regarding the advantages and disadvantages and any other explanatory information about the effect of this early admittance.

CHAPTER 382

An act to amend Section 1091.5 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 14030 of the Public Contract Code, relating to public officials.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1091.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1091.5. (a) An officer or employee shall not be deemed to be interested in a contract if his or her interest is any of the following:

(1) The ownership of less than 3 percent of the shares of a corporation for profit, provided the total annual income to him or her from dividends, including the value of stock dividends, from the corporation does not exceed 5 percent of his or her total annual income, and any other payments made to him or her by the corporation do not exceed 5 percent of his or her total annual income.

(2) That of an officer in being reimbursed for his or her actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duty.

(3) That of a recipient of public services generally provided by the public body or board of which he or she is a member, on the same terms and conditions as if he or she were not a member of the board.

(4) That of a landlord or tenant of the contracting party if such contracting party is the federal government or any federal department or agency, this state or an adjoining state, any department or agency of this state or an adjoining state, any county or city of this state or an adjoining state, or any public corporation or special, judicial, or other public district of this state or an adjoining state unless the subject matter of such contract is the property in which such officer or employee has such interest as landlord or tenant in which event his or her interest shall be deemed a remote interest within the meaning of, and subject to, the provisions of Section 1091.

(5) That of a tenant in a public housing authority created pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 34200) of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code in which he or she serves as a member of the board of commissioners of the authority or of a community development commission created pursuant to Part 1.7 (commencing with Section 34100) of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code.

(6) That of a spouse of an officer or employee of a public agency in his or her spouse's employment or officeholding if his or her spouse's employment or officeholding has existed for at least one year prior to his or her election or appointment.

(7) That of a nonsalaried member of a nonprofit corporation, provided that such interest is disclosed to the body or board at the time of the first consideration of the contract, and provided further that such interest is noted in its official records.

(8) That of a noncompensated officer of a nonprofit, tax-exempt corporation, which, as one of its primary purposes, supports the functions of the body or board or to which the body or board has a legal obligation to give particular consideration, and provided further that such interest is noted in its official records.

For purposes of this paragraph an officer is "noncompensated" even though he or she receives reimbursement from the nonprofit, tax-exempt corporation for necessary travel and other actual expenses incurred in performing duties of his or her office.

(9) That of compensation for employment with a governmental agency, other than the governmental agency that employs the officer or employee, provided that the interest is disclosed to the body or board at the time of consideration of the contract, and provided further that the interest is noted in its official record.

(b) An officer or employee shall not be deemed to be interested in a contract made pursuant to competitive bidding under a procedure established by law if his or her sole interest is that of an officer, director, or employee of a bank or savings and loan association with which a party to the contract has the relationship of borrower or depositor, debtor or creditor.

SEC. 2. Section 10430 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

10430. This chapter does not apply to any of the following:

(a) The Regents of the University of California.

(b) Transactions covered under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12100).

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, any entity exempted from the provisions of Section 10295. However, the Trustees of the California State University shall be governed by this chapter except with regard to transactions covered under the California State University and Colleges Contract Law, and except as provided in Sections 10295, 10335, 10356, and 10389.

(d) Transactions covered under Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 4525) of Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(e) Except as provided for in subdivision (c), members of boards or commissions who receive no payment other than payment of each meeting of the board or commission, payment for preparatory time, and payment for per diem.

(f) The emergency purchase of protective vests for correctional peace officers whose duties require routine contact with state prison inmates. This subdivision shall remain operative only until January 1, 1987.

(g) Spouses of state officers or employees and individuals and entities that employ spouses of state officers and employees, that are vendored to provide services to regional center clients pursuant to Section 4648 of the Welfare and Institutions Code; provided, however, that the vendor of services, in that capacity, does not receive any material financial benefit, distinguishable from the benefit to the public generally, from any governmental decision made by the state officer or employee.

CHAPTER 383

An act to amend Section 14529.11 of the Government Code, relating to highways.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14529.11 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14529.11. The following conditions apply to projects in the state highway system which are financed, in whole or in part, from retail transactions and use taxes as part of an identified expenditure plan or those projects to which the department has determined that subdivision (b) of Section 14529.12 is applicable.

(a) A local jurisdiction which chooses to provide its own financing for the construction or improvement of a state highway shall be responsible for determining the priority and delivery schedule of locally funded projects. The jurisdiction shall consult with the department in determining the schedules.

(b) The local jurisdiction shall request that the department, as the state agency responsible for determining the final concept and location of projects in the state highway system, prepare, or cause to be prepared, initial project reports in conjunction with the local jurisdiction. The request shall accompany or be predicated on a strategic plan developed by the local jurisdiction which includes information on the description, priority, and delivery schedule of all projects proposed by the local jurisdiction to be financed by retail transactions and use taxes. The department shall review the strategic plan to assess the department's long-term resource capabilities, and shall develop and submit a recommendation to the local jurisdiction for the management and conduct of all phases of the work to meet the priorities established by the local jurisdiction.

(c) The department shall use the initial project report prepared pursuant to subdivision (b) to determine and obtain initial agreements with the local jurisdiction on feasibility, concept, estimates, staging, limits, environmental considerations, and schedules. The department shall prepare the initial project report at state expense and within a timeframe established jointly by the local jurisdiction and the department. The local jurisdiction shall provide, at its expense, appropriate existing technical and financial information that may be needed to prepare the initial project report and may, at its option, provide other data to expedite preparation and approval, including draft initial project reports prepared with the approval of the department. After the department and the local jurisdiction have provided their initial approval, any change in project scope that causes any change in cost estimates or schedule shall be agreed upon by the local jurisdiction, the department and, where appropriate, the Federal Highway Administration.

(d) Upon completion of the initial project report, or at a time deemed appropriate by the local jurisdiction, the department shall respond within 30 days to a request from the local jurisdiction to prepare, or cause to be prepared, all project development work through environmental clearance for those projects financed by retail transactions and use taxes. The local jurisdiction's request shall include the local jurisdiction's final determination of the priority and delivery schedule of proposed projects. The determination may, but is not required to, match the initial agreements reached in the initial project report. If the department determines that it is able to comply with the request, the state shall pay for the project development work through environmental clearance. If the department determines it is unable to comply with the request, the local jurisdiction may proceed with project development pursuant to Section 14529.12. If the department and the local jurisdiction concur, the local jurisdiction may undertake project development work through environmental clearance at its own expense, under the oversight of the department. The cost of oversight shall be borne by the department.

(e) A local jurisdiction which has determined to utilize its own retail transactions and use taxes and any other local resources to fund the construction or improvement of a state highway project may, if the department is unable to comply with the request specified in subdivision (d), request the department to furnish the local jurisdiction with all information and assistance necessary to enable the local jurisdiction to proceed with the planning, design, right-of-way acquisition, and construction of the project. A local jurisdiction which chooses to proceed with project development work through environmental clearance pursuant to this section, is responsible for all the costs associated with the work. The department, however, shall provide the required oversight at state expense.

Upon receiving sufficient assurances that adequate local funding for the project will be made available by the local jurisdiction, the department shall move expeditiously to furnish that information and assistance to the local jurisdiction within 90 days of the department's determination that it cannot comply with the request specified in subdivision (d). This information shall be made available only after the department has had the opportunity to determine whether it will be able to comply with the request specified in subdivision (d).

The project shall be designed, right-of-way acquired, and the environmental documents prepared in accordance with the department's practices for planning, design, right-of-way acquisition, and construction. The department shall prescribe these practices in policy and procedural memoranda within the 90-day period.

(f) The detailed application of the conditions prescribed by this section shall be set forth in an agreement between the department and the local jurisdiction.

(g) All work done on the state highway system under this section shall be done in conformance with Section 14529.13.

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 384

An act to add Part 3 (commencing with Section 55800) to Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, relating to transactions and use taxes, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Part 3 (commencing with Section 55800) is added to Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, to read:

PART 3. AUTHORITIES

CHAPTER 1. COUNTIES TRANSACTION AND USE TAX

55800. (a) (1) As part of the ballot proposition to approve the imposition of a retail transactions and use tax pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7285) of Part 1.7 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, an authority established pursuant to Section 7285.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code may seek authorization to issue bonds payable from the proceeds of the tax to finance capital outlay expenditures as may be provided for in the expenditure plan adopted pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 7285.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(2) If an authority established pursuant to Section 7285.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code has obtained voter approval prior to the effective date of this chapter for the imposition of a retail transactions and use tax pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7285) of Part 1.7 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and the issuance of bonds payable from the proceeds of the tax, that authority may issue bonds, refunding bonds, and bond anticipation notes pursuant to this chapter to finance capital outlay expenditures as may be provided for in the expenditure plan adopted pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 7285.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(3) If an authority established pursuant to Section 7285.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code has obtained voter approval prior to the effective date of this chapter only for the imposition of a retail transactions and use tax pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7285) of Part 1.7 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, that authority may seek authorization to issue bonds pursuant to this chapter payable from the proceeds of the tax to finance capital outlay expenditures as may be provided for in the expenditure plan adopted pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 7285.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code only if a resolution is adopted by two-thirds vote of the governing body of the authority and approved by a majority of the voters.

(b) The maximum indebtedness which may be outstanding at any one time shall be an amount equal to the sum of the principal of, and interest on, the bonds, but not to exceed the estimated proceeds of the tax, as determined by the plan. The amount of bonds outstanding at any one time does not include the amount of bonds, refunding bonds, or bond anticipation notes for which funds necessary for the payment thereof have been set aside for that purpose in a trust or escrow account.

55802. (a) The bonds authorized by the voters pursuant to Section 55800 may be issued at any time by the authority and shall be payable from the proceeds of the tax. The bonds shall be referred to as "limited tax bonds." The bonds may be secured by a pledge of revenues from the proceeds of the tax, including income from the investment of those proceeds.

(b) The pledge of the retail transactions and use tax revenues for the limited tax bonds authorized under this chapter shall have priority over the use of any of the tax revenues for "pay-as-you-go" financing, or any other purposes except to the extent that that priority is expressly restricted in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

55803. Limited tax bonds issued under this chapter may be used only for the following purposes:

(a) To finance the capital outlay expenditures to carry out the purposes of the retail transactions and use tax imposed by the authority.

(b) To pay costs incurred in the issuance of the limited tax bonds.

(c) To fund a reserve fund for the limited tax bonds.

55804. Limited tax bonds shall be issued pursuant to a resolution adopted at any time, and from time to time, by a two-thirds vote of the governing board of the authority, provided voter approval authorizing the issuance of bonds by the authority has been obtained by a majority vote, except as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 55800. Each resolution shall provide for the issuance of bonds in the amounts as may be necessary, until the full amount of bonds authorized have been issued. The full amount of bonds may be divided into two or more series and different dates of payment fixed for the bonds of each series. A bond need not mature on its anniversary date.

55805. (a) A resolution providing for the issuance of bonds pursuant to this chapter shall state all of the following:

(2) The estimated costs of accomplishing those purposes.

(3) The amount of the principal of the indebtedness.

(4) The maximum term the bonds proposed to be issued shall run before maturity, which shall not be beyond the date of termination of the imposition of the retail transactions and use tax.

(5) The maximum rate of interest to be paid, which shall not exceed the maximum rate allowed by Section 53531, payable at intervals determined by the authority.

(6) The denomination or denominations of the bonds, which shall not be less than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(7) The form of the bonds, including, without limitation, registered bonds and coupon bonds, to the extent permitted by federal law, and the form of any coupons to be attached thereto, the registration, conversion, and exchange privileges, if any, pertaining thereto, and the time when all, or any part, of the principal becomes due and payable.

(b) The resolution may also contain any other matters authorized by this chapter or any other law.

55806. The authority may provide for the limited tax bonds to bear a variable or fixed interest rate, for the manner and intervals in which the rate shall vary, and for the dates on which the interest shall be payable.

55807. (a) In the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds, the authority may also provide for the call and redemption of the bonds prior to maturity at the times and prices and upon other terms as specified.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), no bond is subject to call or redemption prior to maturity, unless it contains a recital to that effect or unless a statement to that effect is printed therein.

55808. The principal of, and interest on, the bonds, shall be payable in lawful money of the United States at the office of the treasurer or auditor-controller of the authority, or at other places as may be designated, or at both the office and other places at the option of the holders of the bonds.

(b) The interest coupons, if any, of the bonds shall be signed by the treasurer or auditor-controller of the authority. All of the signatures and the seal may be printed, lithographed, photocopied, or mechanically reproduced. However, the bonds shall not be valid or become obligatory for any purpose until manually signed by an authenticating agent or trustee duly appointed by the authority or its authorized designee.

(c) If any officer whose signature appears on the bonds or coupons ceases to be that officer before the delivery of the bonds, the officer's signature is as effective as if the officer had remained in office.

55810. The bonds may be sold as the authority determines by resolution, and the bonds may be sold at a price above or below par, whether by negotiated or public sale.

55812. All accrued interest and premiums received on the sale of the bonds shall be placed in the fund to be used for the payment of the principal of, and interest on, the bonds, and the remainder of the proceeds of the bonds shall be placed in the treasury of the authority or deposited with a bond trustee and applied to secure the bonds or for the purposes for which the debt was incurred. However, when the purposes have been accomplished, any money remaining shall be either (a) transferred to the fund to be used for the payment of principal of, and interest or redemption premium on, the bonds or (b) placed in a fund to be used for the purchase of the outstanding bonds in the open market at prices and in the manner, either at public or private sale or otherwise, as determined by the authority. Bonds so purchased shall be canceled immediately.

55813. (a) The authority may provide for the issuance, sale, or exchange of refunding bonds to redeem or retire any bonds issued by the authority upon the terms, at the times and in the manner which it determines.

(b) The proceeds of any bonds issued for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonds may, in the discretion of the authority, be applied to the purchase or retirement at maturity or redemption of outstanding bonds either on their earliest or any subsequent redemption date or upon the purchase or retirement at the maturity thereof and may, pending that application, be placed in escrow to be applied to the purchase or retirement at maturity or redemption on the date as may be determined by the authority.

(c) Pending that use, the escrowed proceeds may be invested and reinvested by the authority or its trustee in obligations of, or guaranteed by, the United States, or in certificates of deposits or time deposits secured by obligations of, or guaranteed by, the United States, maturing at a time or times appropriate to ensure the prompt payment of principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of the outstanding bonds to be so refunded. The interest, income, and profits, if any, earned or realized on the investment may also be applied to the payment of the outstanding bonds to be so refunded. After the terms of the escrow have been fully satisfied and carried out, any balance of the proceeds and interest, income, and profits, if any, earned or realized on the investment thereof may be returned to the authority for use by it in any lawful manner.

55814. Refunding bonds may be issued in a principal amount sufficient to pay all, or any part of, the principal of the outstanding bonds, the premiums, if any, due upon call and redemption thereof prior to maturity, all expenses of the refunding, and either of the following:

(a) The interest upon the refunding bonds from the date of sale thereof to the date of payment of the bonds to be refunded out of the proceeds of the sale of the refunding bonds or to the date upon which the bonds to be refunded will be paid pursuant to call or agreement with the holder of the bonds.

(b) The interest upon the bonds to be refunded from the date of sale of the refunding bonds to the date of payment of the bonds to be refunded or to the date upon which the bonds to be refunded will be paid pursuant to call or agreement with the holder of the bonds.

55815. (a) The authority may borrow money in anticipation of the sale of bonds which have been authorized pursuant to this chapter, but which have not been sold or delivered, and may issue negotiable bond anticipation notes therefor and may renew the bond anticipation notes from time to time. However, the maximum maturity of any bond anticipation notes, including the renewals thereof, shall not exceed five years from the date of delivery of the original bond anticipation notes.

(b) The bond anticipation notes, and the interest thereon, may be paid from any money of the authority available therefor, including the revenues from the retail transactions and use tax. If not previously otherwise paid, the bond anticipation notes, or any portion thereof, or the interest thereon, shall be paid from the proceeds of the next sale of the bonds of the authority in anticipation of which the notes were issued.

(c) The bond anticipation notes shall not be issued in any amount in excess of the aggregate amount of the bonds which the authority has been authorized to issue, less the amount of any bonds of the authorized issue previously sold, and also less the amount of other bond anticipation notes therefor issued and then outstanding. The bond anticipation notes shall be issued and sold in the same manner as the bonds.

(d) The bond anticipation notes and the resolutions authorizing them may contain any provisions, conditions, or limitations which a resolution of the authority may contain.

55816. Any limited tax bonds issued pursuant to this chapter are a legal investment for all trust funds, for the funds of insurance companies, commercial and savings banks, and trust companies, and for state school funds. Whenever any money or funds may, by any law now or hereafter enacted, be invested in bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts, or other districts within the state, that money or funds may be invested in the bonds issued pursuant to this chapter. Whenever bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts, or other districts within this state may, by any law now or hereafter enacted, be used as security for the performance of any act or the deposit of any public moneys, the bonds issued pursuant to this chapter may be so used. The provisions of this chapter are in addition to all other laws relating to legal investments and shall be controlling as the latest expression of the Legislature with respect thereto.

55817. Notwithstanding any other provision of law:

(a) The authority and its revenues are exempt from all taxes on, or measured by, income.

(b) Bonds issued by the authority are exempt from all property taxation, and the interest on the bonds is exempt from all taxes on income.

(c) All property owned by the agency is exempt from property taxes, assessments, and other public charges secured by liens.

55818. (a) Bonds issued pursuant to this chapter do not constitute a debt or liability of the state or of any other public agency, other than the authority issuing the bonds, or a pledge of the faith and credit of the state or of any other public agency, other than the issuing authority, but shall be payable solely from the funds provided therefor. All of the bonds shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the following effect:

"Neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the State of California or any public agency, other than the (name of the issuing authority), is pledged to the payment of the principal of or interest on this bond."

(b) The issuance of bonds pursuant to this chapter does not in any manner obligate the state or any other public agency thereof to levy, or to pledge, any form of taxation therefor or to make any appropriation for their payment.

55819. Any action or proceeding wherein the validity of the adoption of the retail transactions and use tax ordinance provided for in this chapter or the issuance of any bonds thereunder or any of the proceedings in relation thereto is contested, questioned, or denied, shall be commenced pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 860) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure within six months from the date of the election at which the ordinance is approved or, in the case of any ordinance approved prior to the effective date of this section, six months from the effective date of this section. Otherwise, the bonds and all proceedings in relation thereto, including the adoption and approval of the ordinance and the retail transactions and use tax provided for therein, shall be held to be valid and in every respect legal and incontestable.

55820. The authority has no power to impose any tax other than the transactions and use tax imposed upon approval of the voters in accordance with this chapter.

55821. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Since legislation has been enacted that permits counties to establish an authority to impose a transactions and use tax if approved at an election, there has been ambiguity about whether and how an authority may borrow for the purposes for which it was established and use the transactions and use tax to repay the borrowing. Thus, in order to establish the means and requirements for this borrowing to enable these authorities to accomplish their purpose and avoid unnecessary cost and uncertainty in the public market for their bonds, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 385

An act to amend Section 58654 of, to add Sections 58608.1 and 58741.1 to, and to add and repeal Section 58993.1 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 9, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 58608.1 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

58608.1. "Educational program," unless otherwise defined in this chapter, means a program established by the director pursuant to this chapter that provides for the planning and implementation of activities designed to inform the general public of the processes of producing agricultural commodities and designed to foster cooperation and understanding between urban and rural sectors of society.

SEC. 2. Section 58654 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

58654. The purposes of this chapter are to do the following:

(a) Enable producers of this state, with the aid of the state, to correlate more effectively the marketing of their commodities with market demands for those commodities.

(b) Establish orderly marketing of commodities.

(c) Provide for uniform grading and proper preparation of commodities for market.

(d) Provide methods and means for the maintenance of present markets, or for the development of new or larger markets, for commodities that are grown within this state or for the prevention, modification, or elimination of trade barriers that obstruct the free flow of those commodities to market.

(e) Eliminate or reduce economic waste in the marketing of commodities.

(f) Restore and maintain adequate purchasing power for the producers of this state.

(g) Inform the general public of the processes of producing agricultural commodities.

(h) Foster cooperation and understanding between urban and rural sectors of society.

SEC. 3. Section 58741.1 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

58741.1. Subject to Section 58993.1, the director may establish an educational program, as defined in Section 58608.1, directly affecting producers of all commodities produced in this state. If established, the educational program shall be created with all the powers, rights, and duties set forth in this chapter, except that it shall not be subject to Section 58749 or 58993.

SEC. 4. Section 58993.1 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

58993.1. (a) An educational program established pursuant to Section 58741.1 shall provide for a referendum among producers directly affected within two years of the date of implementation of the educational program to determine whether it should continue in operation. The director may provide a procedure for individual refunds of assessments paid prior to the referendum. The director shall approve continuation of the program if the director finds either of the following:

(1) If the producers that cast ballots in the referendum in favor of the program represent not less than 65 percent of the total number of producers that cast ballots in the referendum and marketed not less than 51 percent of the total quantity of the commodities which were marketed in the immediately preceding marketing season by all of the producers that cast ballots in the referendum.

(2) If the producers that cast ballots in the referendum in favor of the program represent not less than 51 percent of the total number of producers that cast ballots in the referendum and marketed not less than 65 percent of the total quantity of the commodities which were marketed in the immediately preceding marketing season by all of the producers who cast ballots in the referendum.

A referendum for the continuation of that program shall be conducted every five years thereafter.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 386

An act to amend Sections 9880.1 and 9886.3 of the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Sections 44017.3, 44020, 44031.5, 44033, 44037, 44050, 44053, and 44055 of, to add Article 7 (commencing with Section 44072) to Chapter 5 of Part 5 of Division 26 of, and to add and repeal Section 44023 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 10, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9880.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9880.1. The following terms as used in this chapter have the meaning expressed in this section:

(a) "Automotive repair dealer" means a person who, for compensation, engages in the business of repairing or diagnosing malfunctions of motor vehicles.

(b) "Board" means the Advisory Board, Bureau of Automotive Repair.

(c) "Chief" means the Chief of the Bureau of Automotive Repair.

(d) "Bureau" means the Bureau of Automotive Repair.

(e) "Motor vehicle" means a passenger vehicle required to be registered with the Department of Motor Vehicles and all motorcycles whether or not required to be registered by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

(f) "Repair of motor vehicles" means all maintenance of and repairs to motor vehicles performed by an automotive repair dealer, but excluding those repairs made pursuant to a commercial business agreement and also excluding repairing tires, changing tires, lubricating vehicles, installing light bulbs, batteries, windshield wiper blades and other minor accessories, cleaning, adjusting, and replacing spark plugs, replacing fan belts, oil, and air filters, and other minor services, which the director, by regulation, determines are customarily performed by gasoline service stations.

No service shall be designated as minor, for purposes of this section, if the director finds that performance of the service requires mechanical expertise, has given rise to a high incidence of fraud or deceptive practices, or involves a part of the vehicle essential to its safe operation.

(g) "Person" includes firm, partnership, association, or corporation.

(h) A "mechanic" is an employee of an automotive repair dealer or is that dealer, if the employer or dealer repairs motor vehicles and who for salary or wage performs maintenance, repair, removal, or installation of any integral component parts of an engine, driveline, chassis or body of any vehicle, but excluding repairing tires, changing tires, lubricating vehicles, installing light bulbs, batteries, windshield wiper blades, and other minor accessories; cleaning, replacing fan belts, oil and air filters; and other minor services which the director, by regulation, determines are customarily performed by a gasoline service station.

(i) "Director" means the Director of Consumer Affairs.

(j) "Commercial business agreement" means an agreement, whether in writing or oral, entered into between a business or commercial enterprise and an automobile repair dealer, prior to the repair which is requested being made, which agreement contemplates a continuing business arrangement under which the automobile repair dealer is to repair any vehicle covered by the agreement, but does not mean any warranty or extended service agreement normally given by an automobile repair facility to its customers.

SEC. 2. Section 9886.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9886.3. The fees prescribed by this chapter shall be set by the director in an amount estimated to provide for the administration of this chapter within the limits of the following schedule:

(a) The automotive repair dealer registration fee is not more than two hundred dollars ($200), for each place of business in this state.

(b) The annual renewal fee for an automotive repair dealer registration shall not be more than two hundred dollars ($200) for each place of business in this state, if renewed prior to its expiration date.

(c) The renewal fee for a registration that is not renewed prior to its expiration date shall be 1½ times the renewal fee required for a registration renewal prior to its expiration date, but not more than the renewal fee plus fifty dollars ($50).

SEC. 3. Section 44017.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44017.3. (a) Each smog check station shall have posted conspicuously in an area frequented by customers a list of price ranges indicating the maximum amounts established by law to be spent on repairs required to cause an automobile to pass a smog check. The signs shall be required in all stations where smog check inspections are performed. In stations where licensed smog check mechanic repairs are not performed, the station shall have posted conspicuously in an area frequented by customers a statement that mechanics are not available and repairs are not performed.

(b) The sign dimensions and letter typeface and point size shall be established by regulation by the Bureau of Automotive Repair and shall be similar to other posted signs required by the bureau.

(c) The sign shall read:

"Notice

Under California law, the following amounts are the maximum you are required to spend in repairing the engine and exhaust systems to bring your automobile into compliance with emission control system standards:

Year of Auto	Maximum Amount
'55 - '71	$ 50.00
'72 - '74	$ 90.00
'75 - '79	$125.00
'80 - '89	$175.00
'90 - On	$300.00

These amounts do not include the replacement costs for replacing missing, modified, or disconnected emission control system parts.

If your repair estimate exceeds the above amounts, you may elect to pay that amount and have the repairs completed, or call the referee at the toll-free number provided by this station."

(d) The specific amounts enumerated in the sign shall be in compliance with Section 44017. The adjustments in the repair cost limitations authorized in subdivision (b) of that section shall also be reflected in the sign.

SEC. 4. Section 44020 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44020. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the department may license any owner of a fleet of 10 or more motor vehicles subject to this chapter, who so elects, to implement and conduct the tests and to perform necessary service and adjustment on the fleet's vehicles under this chapter, subject to all of the following conditions:

(a) The owner's facilities or personnel, or both, or a designated contractor of the owner, shall be licensed by the department as a fleet smog check station, and the test and repair system shall conform, in the department's determination, with all provisions of this chapter and all rules and regulations adopted by the department.

The regulations shall provide for adequate onsite inspection by the department.

(b) A license issued under this section is subject to Sections 44035 and 44050 and may be suspended or revoked by the department whenever the department determines, on the basis of random spot checks of the owner's inspection system and fleet vehicles, that the system fails to conform or that certificates of compliance have been issued by the owner in violation of regulations adopted by the department. Any person licensed to conduct tests and service and adjustments under this section is deemed to have consented to provide the department with whatever access, information, and other cooperation the department reasonably determines are necessary to facilitate the random spot checks.

(c) A fleet owner licensed to conduct tests or make repairs pursuant to this chapter shall issue certificates of compliance for motor vehicles which comply with the requirements of this chapter. The cost limitations in Section 44017 shall not apply to any motor vehicle owned by a fleet owner licensed pursuant to this section.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), certificates of compliance or noncompliance prepared solely for the disposal or sale of motor vehicles owned by a fleet owner licensed pursuant to this section shall be subject to the cost limitations in Section 44017.

(e) The department shall establish initial and renewal license fees, which shall not exceed the reasonable costs of administering this section.

SEC. 4.5. Section 44023 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

44023. (a) The state board, in cooperation with the department, shall report to the Legislature on or before April 30, 1992, on technologies, including, but not limited to, remote sensing, which would improve detection of high-emitting vehicles through the vehicle inspection program.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5. Section 44031.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44031.5. (a) No smog check mechanic may perform tests or make repairs required by this chapter, for compensation, unless qualified by the department for the class and category of vehicle being tested or repaired. To qualify, smog check mechanics shall pass a qualification test administered by the department in addition to meeting minimum experience and training criteria established by the department. Passage of the qualification test shall also be required upon each biennial renewal of the smog check mechanic's license.

(b) No person may perform the duties of a licensed inspector, including, but not limited to, the signing of certificates, unless that person is licensed and has met the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 44031. This subdivision applies to every licensed inspector upon the first renewal of the inspector's license after January 1, 1988, and upon each renewal thereafter.

(c) The department shall prescribe training and periodic retraining courses for licensed inspectors and for smog check mechanics.

(d) Whenever the department determines, through investigation, that a previously qualified smog check mechanic may lack the skills to reliably and accurately perform the test or repair functions within the required qualification, it may prescribe for the mechanic one or more retraining courses which have been certified by the department. The smog check mechanic may request and be granted a hearing, pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, on the department's determination. The request for a hearing shall be submitted within 30 days of the department's notification of its determination. A failure to complete the prescribed retraining course within the time designated by the department, or to request a hearing within 30 days of the department's notification of its determination, shall result in loss of qualification. Upon a later completion of the prescribed department certified retraining course, the department may reinstate the smog check mechanic's qualification.

(e) Smog check mechanics shall have the option to do hands-on work in lieu of written work in order to successfully complete the department certified training and retraining courses. The institution administering the department certified training or retraining courses shall issue a certificate of completion to each person successfully completing the certified courses. The certificate shall be valid for two years.

(f) There is hereby created a training course advisory board to assist and advise the department in recommending the form and content of training courses. The advisory board shall consist of five members appointed by the director, of whom two shall represent smog check station owners or managers, two shall represent smog check mechanics, and one shall be a public member. The director may establish, by regulation, the term of office of the members. The members of the advisory board shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses in performing their duties under this subdivision.

SEC. 6. Section 44033 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44033. (a) Any facility meeting the requirements established by the department pursuant to this chapter may be licensed as a smog check station. A licensed smog check station shall display an identifying sign prescribed by the department in a manner conspicuous to the public.

(b) No licensed smog check station shall require, as a condition of performing the test, that any needed repairs or adjustment be done by the person, or at the facility of the person, performing the test.

(c) If a motor vehicle, including a commercial vehicle, is tested at a facility licensed to perform tests and repairs pursuant to this chapter, the facility shall provide the customer with a written estimate pursuant to Section 9884.9 of the Business and Professions Code. The written estimate shall contain a notice to the customer stating that the customer may choose another smog check station to perform needed repairs, installations, adjustments, or subsequent tests.

(d) Charges for testing or repair, or both, shall be separately stated.

(e) The department shall require the posting of station licenses, inspector licenses, and qualified mechanics certificates prominently in each place of business so as to be readily visible to the public.

SEC. 7. Section 44037 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44037. The department shall compile and maintain records, using the sampling methodology necessary to ensure their scientific validity and reliability, of tests and repairs performed by qualified smog check mechanics at licensed smog check stations pursuant to this chapter on all of the following information:

(a) The motor vehicle identification information and the test data collected at the station.

(b) The number of maintenance and repair operations performed on motor vehicles which fail to pass a test conducted pursuant to this chapter.

(c) The correlation between maintenance and repairs recommended by the department pursuant to Section 44016 and maintenance and repairs performed.

(d) The charges assessed for the service and repairs.

(e) Any other information deemed essential by the department.

A written summary of all the above information shall be available annually for the mechanics and smog check stations in each district and to the public upon request.

SEC. 8. Section 44050 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44050. (a) If, upon investigation, the department has probable cause to believe that a licensed smog check station, a licensed inspector, or a fleet owner licensed under Section 44020 has violated this chapter, or any regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter, the department may issue a citation to the licensee or fleet owner. The citation shall specify the nature of the violation and may specify a civil penalty assessed by the department pursuant to Section 44051 or 44051.5.

(b) If, upon investigation, the department has probable cause to believe that a qualified smog check mechanic has violated Section 44012, 44015, 44016, or 44032, or any regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter, the department may issue a citation to the mechanic. The citation shall specify the nature of the violation and, in addition, whichever of the following applies:

(1) For a first citation, the smog check mechanic shall successfully complete one or more retraining courses prescribed by the department pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 44031.5.

(2) For a second citation, the smog check mechanic shall successfully complete one or more retraining courses prescribed by the department pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 44031.5 and the mechanic shall perform no inspection or repair pursuant to this chapter until that completion.

(3) For a third citation, the smog check mechanic shall successfully complete an advanced retraining course prescribed by the department and shall perform no inspection or repair pursuant to this chapter until that completion.

(4) For a fourth citation, the smog check mechanic's qualification may be permanently revoked.

(c) The citation shall be served pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 11505 of the Government Code.

SEC. 9. Section 44053 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44053. (a) Any person issued a citation pursuant to Section 44050 may request a hearing in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. A request for a hearing shall be submitted in writing within 30 days of service of the citation, and shall be delivered to the office of the department in Sacramento. Hearings and related procedures under this section shall be conducted in the same manner as proceedings for adjudication of an accusation under that Chapter 5, except as otherwise specified in this article.

(b) If, within 30 days from service of the citation, the licensee or fleet owner licensed pursuant to Section 44020 or qualified mechanic fails to request a hearing, the citation shall be deemed the final order of the department.

(c) As it applies to this article, the service required in Section 11505 of the Government Code includes service personally, by registered mail, or by courier with receipt of delivery.

SEC. 10. Section 44055 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44055. (a) Any failure by an applicant for a license or for the renewal of a license, or by any partner, officer, or director thereof, to comply with the final order of the department for the payment of civil penalties, or to pay the amount specified in a settlement executed by the applicant and the Director of the Department of Consumer Affairs, shall result in denial of a license or of the renewal of the license. The department shall not allow the issuance of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance by a licensee until all civil penalties which have become final, or amounts agreed to in a settlement, have been paid by the licensee.

(b) The department may deny an application for the renewal of a test station or repair station license if the applicant, or any partner, officer, or director thereof, has failed to pay any civil penalty in accordance with this article.

SEC. 11. Article 7 (commencing with Section 44072) is added to Chapter 5 of Part 5 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 7. Denial, Suspension, and Revocation

44072. Any license issued under this chapter and the regulations adopted pursuant to it may be suspended or revoked by the director. The director may refuse to issue a license to any applicant for the reasons set forth in Section 44072.1. The proceedings under this article shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the director shall have all the powers granted therein.

44072.1. The director may deny a license if the applicant, or any partner, officer, or director thereof, does any of the following:

(a) Fails to meet the qualifications established by the bureau pursuant to Articles 2 (commencing with Section 44010) and 3 (commencing with Section 44030) and the regulations adopted for the issuance of the license applied for.

(b) Was previously the holder of a license issued under this chapter, which license has been revoked and never reissued or which license was suspended and the terms of the suspension have not been fulfilled.

(c) Has committed any act which, if committed by any licensee, would be grounds for the suspension or revocation of a license issued pursuant to this chapter.

(d) Has committed any act involving dishonesty, fraud, or deceit whereby another is injured or whereby the applicant has benefited.

(e) Has acted in the capacity of a licensed person or firm under this chapter without having a license therefor.

(f) Has entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to, or been found guilty of, or been convicted of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of the licenseholder in question, and the time for appeal has elapsed or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal, irrespective of an order granting probation following the conviction, suspending the imposition of sentence, or of a subsequent order under Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code allowing the person to withdraw a plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the plea or verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation or information.

44072.2. The director may suspend, revoke, or take other disciplinary action against a license as provided in this article if the licensee, or any partner, officer, or director thereof, does any of the following:

(a) Violates any section of this chapter and the regulations adopted pursuant to it, which related to the licensed activities.

(b) Is convicted of any crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of the licenseholder in question.

(c) Violates any of the regulations adopted by the director pursuant to this chapter.

(d) Commits any act involving dishonesty, fraud, or deceit whereby another is injured.

(e) Has misrepresented a material fact in obtaining a license.

(f) Aids or abets unlicensed persons to evade the provisions of this chapter.

(g) Fails to make and keep records showing his or her transactions as a licensee, or fails to have those records available for inspection by the director or his or her duly authorized representative for a period of not less than three years after completion of any transaction to which the records refer, or refuses to comply with a written request of the director to make the records available for inspection.

(h) Violates or attempts to violate the provisions of this chapter relating to the particular activity for which he or she is licensed.

44072.3. A plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere is a conviction within the meaning of this article. The director may order the license suspended or revoked or may decline to issue a license, when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal, or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence irrespective of a subsequent order under Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code allowing the person to withdraw a plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment.

44072.4. The director may take disciplinary action against any licensee after a hearing as provided in this article by any of the following:

(a) Imposing probation upon terms and conditions to be set forth by the director.

(b) Suspending the license.

(c) Revoking the license.

44072.5. Upon the effective date of any order of suspension or revocation of any license governed by this chapter, the licensee shall surrender the license to the director.

44072.7. All accusations against licensees shall be filed within three years after the act or omission alleged as the ground for disciplinary action, except that with respect to an accusation alleging a violation of subdivision (f) of Section 44072.2, the accusation may be filed within two years after the discovery by the bureau of the alleged facts constituting the fraud or misrepresentation prohibited by that section.

44072.8. When a license has been revoked or suspended following a hearing under this article, any additional license issued under this chapter in the name of the licensee may be likewise revoked or suspended by the director.

44072.9. After suspension of the license upon any of the grounds set forth in this article, the director may reinstate the license upon proof of compliance by the applicant with all provisions of the decision as to reinstatement. After revocation of a license upon any of the grounds set forth in this article, the license shall not be reinstated or reissued within a period of one year after the effective date of revocation.

SEC. 12. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 9880.1 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to automotive repair.

[Approved by Governor September 8, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 10, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9880.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9880.1. The following terms as used in this chapter have the meaning expressed in this section.

(a) "Automotive repair dealer" means a person who, for compensation, engages in the business of repairing or diagnosing malfunctions of motor vehicles.

(b) "Board" means the Advisory Board, Bureau of Automotive Repair.

(c) "Chief" means the Chief of the Bureau of Automotive Repair.

(d) "Bureau" means the Bureau of Automotive Repair.

(e) "Motor vehicle" means a passenger vehicle or a commercial vehicle with a gross vehicle weight of less than 10,000 pounds, required to be registered with the Department of Motor Vehicles and all motorcycles whether or not required to be registered by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

(f) "Repair of motor vehicles" means all maintenance of and repairs to motor vehicles performed by an automotive repair dealer including automotive body repair work, but excluding those repairs made pursuant to a commercial business agreement and also excluding repairing tires, changing tires, lubricating vehicles, installing light bulbs, batteries, windshield wiper blades and other minor accessories, cleaning, adjusting, and replacing spark plugs, replacing fan belts, oil, and air filters, and other minor services, which the director, by regulation, determines are customarily performed by gasoline service stations.

No service shall be designated as minor, for purposes of this section, if the director finds that performance of the service requires mechanical expertise, has given rise to a high incidence of fraud or deceptive practices, or involves a part of the vehicle essential to its safe operation.

(g) "Person" includes firm, partnership, association, or corporation.

(h) A "mechanic" is an employee of an automotive repair dealer or is such dealer, if the employer or dealer repairs motor vehicles and who for salary or wage performs maintenance, repair, removal, or installation of any integral component parts of an engine, driveline, chassis or body of any vehicle, but excluding repairing tires, changing tires, lubricating vehicles, installing light bulbs, batteries, windshield wiper blades, and other minor accessories; cleaning, replacing fan belts, oil and air filters; and other minor services which the director, by regulation, determines are customarily performed by a gasoline service station.

(i) "Director" means the Director of Consumer Affairs.

(j) "Commercial business agreement" means an agreement, whether in writing or oral, entered into between a business or commercial enterprise and an automobile repair dealer, prior to the repair which is requested being made, which agreement contemplates a continuing business arrangement under which the automobile repair dealer is to repair any vehicle covered by the agreement, but does not mean any warranty or extended service agreement normally given by an automobile repair facility to its customers.

SEC. 1.5. Section 9880.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9880.1. The following terms as used in this chapter have the meaning expressed in this section.

(a) "Automotive repair dealer" means a person who, for compensation, engages in the business of repairing or diagnosing malfunctions of motor vehicles.

(b) "Board" means the Advisory Board, Bureau of Automotive Repair.

(c) "Chief" means the Chief of the Bureau of Automotive Repair.

(d) "Bureau" means the Bureau of Automotive Repair.

(e) "Motor vehicle" means a passenger vehicle required to be registered with the Department of Motor Vehicles and all motorcycles whether or not required to be registered by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

(f) "Repair of motor vehicles" means all maintenance of and repairs to motor vehicles performed by an automotive repair dealer including automotive body repair work, but excluding those repairs made pursuant to a commercial business agreement and also excluding repairing tires, changing tires, lubricating vehicles, installing light bulbs, batteries, windshield wiper blades and other minor accessories, cleaning, adjusting, and replacing spark plugs, replacing fan belts, oil, and air filters, and other minor services, which the director, by regulation, determines are customarily performed by gasoline service stations.

No service shall be designated as minor, for purposes of this section, if the director finds that performance of the service requires mechanical expertise, has given rise to a high incidence of fraud or deceptive practices, or involves a part of the vehicle essential to its safe operation.

(g) "Person" includes firm, partnership, association, or corporation.

(h) A "mechanic" is an employee of an automotive repair dealer or is that dealer, if the employer or dealer repairs motor vehicles and who for salary or wage performs maintenance, repair, removal, or installation of any integral component parts of an engine, driveline, chassis or body of any vehicle, but excluding repairing tires, changing tires, lubricating vehicles, installing light bulbs, batteries, windshield wiper blades, and other minor accessories; cleaning, replacing fan belts, oil and air filters; and other minor services which the director, by regulation, determines are customarily performed by a gasoline service station.

(i) "Director" means the Director of Consumer Affairs.

(j) "Commercial business agreement" means an agreement, whether in writing or oral, entered into between a business or commercial enterprise and an automobile repair dealer, prior to the repair which is requested being made, which agreement contemplates a continuing business arrangement under which the automobile repair dealer is to repair any vehicle covered by the agreement, but does not mean any warranty or extended service agreement normally given by an automobile repair facility to its customers.

SEC. 2. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 9880.1 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and SB 290. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 9880.1 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 290, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 388

An act to amend Section 68565 of the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor September 11, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 11, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 68565 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68565. Subject to Section 68562, all persons who interpret, in or for use in a trial court proceeding, in any of the following languages shall be certified to the trial courts by the State Personnel Board as qualified court interpreters: Spanish, Portuguese, Arabic, Chinese, Vietnamese, Japanese, Korean, Tagalog and any other language designated by the State Personnel Board. The examination procedure to certify the list of qualified interpreters in all languages shall be the same as that previously established by the State Personnel Board for Spanish Language Court Interpreters. Interpreters who have passed the federal court interpreter certification examination and who have been certified under Title 28 of the United States Code shall be deemed qualified court interpreters without further examination by the State Personnel Board.

CHAPTER 389

An act to amend Section 8880.26 of the Government Code, relating to the State Lottery, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 11, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 11, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8880.26 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.26. (a) The provisions of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 are not applicable to any rule or regulation promulgated by the commission.

(b) Section 2889 of the Public Utilities Code shall not be applicable to any live, recorded, or recorded-interactive audio text access telephone service under contract to the commission, as of the effective date of the act adding this subdivision, that provides the public with lottery game draw results.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that this act furthers the purpose of the California State Lottery Act of 1984.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to prevent the loss of vitally needed revenue for the support of public education, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 390

An act to amend Sections 25100.1 and 25117 of the Corporations Code, relating to corporations.

[Approved by Governor September 11, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 11, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25100.1 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25100.1. Before the interdealer quotation system of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. is certified pursuant to subdivision (o) of Section 25100, the commissioner shall determine and conclude that the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. has adopted and obtained Securities and Exchange Commission approval of corporate governance standards, including voting rights, which are substantially similar to the corporate governance standards, including voting rights, in effect on the date of application by the association for either the American Stock Exchange or the New York Stock Exchange or, in the case of voting rights, Rule 19c-4 of the Securities and Exchange Commission as proposed on June 22, 1987.

The certification of the interdealer quotation system of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., pursuant to subdivision (o) of Section 25100, ordered by the commissioner on September 22, 1989, shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, subject to applicable decertification proceedings.

SEC. 2. Section 25117 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25117. (a) An evidence of indebtedness, and the purchasers thereof, shall be exempt from the usury provisions of Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution if (1) the evidence of indebtedness is rated or provisionally rated by Standard & Poor's Corporation as AAA, AA, A, BBB, or investment grade commercial paper, or by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. as Aaa, Aa, A, Baa, or investment grade commercial paper, including any such ratings with

"+" or "–" designation or other variations that occur within these ratings, or has a rating or a provisional rating by another nationally recognized rating agency or system, which rating and agency or system have been certified by rule or order of the commissioner, or (2) the issuer thereof either (A) has any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on a national securities exchange or designated or approved for designation upon notice of issuance as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, if the exchange or interdealer quotation system has been certified by the commissioner, pursuant to subdivision (o) of Section 25100, or (B) meets each of the following requirements:

(i) The issuer is a corporation which is subject to Section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

(b) This section creates and authorizes a class of persons pursuant to Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 391

An act to amend Sections 86103 and 86109 of the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974.

[Approved by Governor September 11, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 11, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 86103 of the Government Code is amended to read:

86103. A lobbyist certification shall include:

(a) A recent black and white photograph of the lobbyist, the size of which shall be prescribed by the Secretary of State.

(b) The lobbyist's full name, business address, and telephone number.

(c) A statement that the lobbyist has read and understands the prohibitions contained in Sections 86203 and 86205.

(d) (1) Beginning with the 1991–92 Regular Session of the Legislature, a statement that the lobbyist has completed, within the previous 24 months, the course described in subdivision (b) of Section 8956. For the 1991–92 Regular Session, however, all renewal certifications shall be treated as new lobbyist certifications under paragraph (2) for the purposes of this subdivision.

(2) If, in the case of a new lobbyist certification, the lobbyist has not completed the course within the previous 24 months, the lobbyist certification shall include a statement that the lobbyist will complete a scheduled course within a reasonable period of time, and the lobbyist certification shall be accepted on a conditional basis. Within a reasonable time following the lobbyist's completion of the ethics course, the lobbyist shall file a new lobbyist certification with the Secretary of State which shall replace the conditional lobbyist certification previously filed.

(e) Any other information required by the commission consistent with the purposes and provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 86109 of the Government Code is amended to read:

86109. Within 140 days after the commencement of each regular session of the Legislature, the Secretary of State shall publish a directory of registered individual lobbyists, lobbying firms, and lobbyist employers. The Secretary of State shall publish, from time to time, such supplements to the directory as may be necessary.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 392

An act to amend Section 34501.3 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 11, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 11, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 34501.3 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

34501.3. (a) No motor carrier shall schedule a run or permit or require the operation of any motor vehicle subject to this division between points within a period of time which would do either of the following:

(1) Necessitate the vehicle being operated at speeds greater than those prescribed by this code.

(2) Require the driver of the vehicle to exceed the applicable maximum hours of service.

(b) A logbook of a driver, which reflects a trip or trips between points within a period of time which would have necessitated excessive speed to complete, shall give rise to a rebuttable presumption that the driver exceeded the lawful speed limit.

(c) For a violation of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), a first offense is punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), a second offense by a fine of not more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), and a third or subsequent offense by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 705, 1006.3, 1103, 1631, 2520, 3519, 3706, 6312, 10015, 10211, 14005, 14221, 17121, 22934, 25002, 25500, 27032, and 27036 of, to repeal Section 1512 of, and to repeal and add Article 10 (commencing with Section 6365) of Chapter 4 of Division 6 of, the Elections Code, and to amend Sections 8211 and 57146 of, and to add and repeal Section 36512.5 of, the Government Code, relating to elections, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 11, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 705 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

705. On completion of the canvass of the returns for each election, the elections official shall compare the absent voters list with the roster of voters in each precinct to determine if any voter cast more than one ballot at that election.

SEC. 2. Section 1006.3 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

1006.3. (a) Any individual, organization, or group that distributes applications for absent voter ballots and receives completed application forms shall return the forms to the appropriate elections official within 36 hours of receiving the completed forms, or before the deadline for application, whichever is sooner. The name of any organization that authorizes the distribution of the applications shall be included on the application.

(b) Any application for an absent voter's ballot that is sent by an individual, group, or organization to a voter shall be nonforwardable. Any absent voter's ballot that is returned to an elections official as undeliverable shall not be forwarded by the elections official.

SEC. 3. Section 1103 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

1103. The envelope into which a new resident is to place the ballot shall bear upon its face the name and official title of the county elections official and upon the other side a printed affidavit in substantially the following form:

State of California }
County of _____ } ss.

I, _____, declare that I am a citizen of the United States, that on the day of the next election for federal offices shall be at least 18 years of age, a resident of this state prior to the election, and am a resident of the City or Town of _____, County of _____, State of California; I have not voted, nor shall I cast a vote on a ballot from the state from which I have removed.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

SEC. 4. Section 1512 of the Elections Code is repealed.

SEC. 4.5. Section 1631 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

1631. The composition of the precinct board shall be determined by the elections official based on election precinct size. The precinct board shall consist of a minimum of one inspector and two clerks. Additional clerk positions may be allocated in proportion to the number of registered voters within the precinct.

SEC. 5. Section 2520 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

2520. Except as provided in Sections 2604 and 23509.5, no election shall be held on any day other than a Tuesday, nor shall any election be held on the day before, the day of, or the day after a state holiday.

SEC. 6. Section 3519 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

3519. (a) Each section shall have attached thereto the declaration of the person soliciting the signatures setting forth the information required by Section 44 and stating that the circulator is a registered voter of the state.

(b) The circulator shall certify to the content of the declaration as to its truth and correctness, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California, with the signature of his or her name at length, including given name, middle name or initial. The circulator shall state the date and the place of execution on the declaration immediately preceding his or her signature.

No other declaration thereto shall be required.

Petitions so verified shall be prima facie evidence that the signatures thereon are genuine and that the persons signing are qualified voters. Unless and until it be otherwise proven upon official investigation, it shall be presumed that the petition presented contains the signatures of the requisite number of qualified voters.

SEC. 7. Section 3706 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

3706. The petition shall be filed by the proponents, or by any person or persons authorized, in writing, by the proponents. All sections of the petition shall be filed at one time. Any sections of the petition not so filed shall be void for all purposes. Once filed, no petition section shall be amended except by order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

When the petition is filed, the county clerk shall determine the total number of signatures affixed to the petition. If, from this examination, the clerk determines that the number of signatures, prima facie, equals or is in excess of the minimum number of signatures required, the county clerk shall examine the petition in accordance with Section 3707 or 3708. If, from this examination, the clerk determines that the number of signatures, prima facie, does not equal or exceed the minimum number of signatures required, no further action shall be taken.

SEC. 8. Section 6312 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

6312. When the Secretary of State decides to place the name of a candidate on the ballot pursuant to Section 6311, he or she shall notify the candidate that the candidate's name will appear on the ballot of this state in the presidential primary election.

The secretary shall also notify the candidate that the candidate may withdraw his or her name from the list of recognized candidates by filing with the Secretary of State an affidavit pursuant to Section 6313 no later than the 64th day before the presidential primary election.

SEC. 9. Article 10 (commencing with Section 6365) of Chapter 4 of Division 6 of the Elections Code is repealed.

SEC. 10. Article 10 (commencing with Section 6365) is added to Chapter 4 of Division 6 of the Elections Code, to read:

Article 10. Selection of Delegates and Alternates

6365. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, this article governs the selection of district level delegates and alternates, unpledged delegates, pledged party leaders and elected official delegates, and at-large delegates and alternates.

6365.5. (a) District level delegate positions shall be allocated to presidential preferences through a primary proportional representation system.

(b) The 227 district-level delegates and 38 alternates shall be elected by preprimary caucuses to slate delegates followed by a presidential preference primary.

(1) The preprimary caucuses shall be conducted on Sunday, April 26, 1992, at 3 p.m.

(2) The presidential preference primary shall be conducted on Tuesday, June 2, 1992.

(c) The 227 delegates and 38 alternates shall be apportioned to districts as follows:

CD #1 - #_____ delegates, #_____ alternates

CD #2 - #_____ delegates, #_____ alternates

CD #3 - #_____ delegates, #_____ alternates

CD #4 - #_____ delegates, #_____ alternates

This apportionment shall be based on a formula giving equal weight to the average vote for the Democratic candidates in the 1984 and 1988 presidential elections and to Democratic Party registration.

Inasmuch as California anticipates the addition of seven new congressional districts, this apportionment shall be recomputed upon the establishment of the new districts. In the event the Legislature fails to enact new districts, the districts existing on the date of adoption of this plan shall be used.

(d) An individual may qualify as a candidate for district-level delegate or alternate to the 1992 Democratic National Convention by filing a statement of candidacy and pledge of support with the state chair at the party office at 2424 K Street, Sacramento, California 95816. Statements can be requested from the state party beginning Monday, February 3, 1992. Candidacy statements can be returned beginning March 2, 1992, and must be postmarked no later than 5 p.m., Thursday, April 9, 1992.

(1) All delegate candidates shall be identified as to presidential preference, uncommitted or unpledged status at all levels which determine presidential preference.

(2) Candidates for delegate or alternate positions shall file a statement of candidacy designating their presidential or uncommitted preference and a signed pledge of support for the presidential candidate (including uncommitted status) with the state party by 5 p.m., April 9, 1992.

(e) The California primary election is a "binding" primary. Accordingly, delegate and alternate positions shall be allocated so as to fairly reflect the expressed presidential or uncommitted status of the primary voters in each district. Therefore, the national convention delegates elected at the district level shall be allocated in proportion to the percentage of the primary vote won in that district by each preference, except that preferences falling below a 15-percent threshold shall not be awarded any delegates or alternates.

(f) If no presidential preference reaches a 15-percent threshold, the threshold shall be the percentage of the vote received at each level of the delegate selection process by the front-runner minus 10 percent.

(g) Presidential candidates shall certify their authorized representatives to the state party chair no later than 5 p.m., March 9, 1992. The state party chair shall convey to the presidential candidate, or that candidate's authorized representative or representatives, not later than Tuesday, April 14, 1992, at 5 p.m., a list of all persons who have filed for delegate or alternate pledged to that presidential candidate. Each presidential candidate, or that candidate's authorized representative or representatives, shall file with the state party chair by Tuesday, April 21, 1992, at 5 p.m., a list of all the candidates he or she has approved, provided that approval is given to at least three times the number of candidates for delegate and three times the number of candidates for alternates to be selected. Failure to respond shall be deemed approval of all delegate and alternate candidates submitted to the presidential candidate unless the presidential candidate, or the candidate's authorized representative or representatives, signifies otherwise in writing to the state party chair no later than Tuesday, April 21, 1992, at 5 p.m.

(h) On Sunday, April 26, 1992, candidate and uncommitted caucuses shall be held to elect a slate of potential delegates equal to at least the number of delegates plus alternates allocated to the congressional district. The California delegation shall be equally divided between delegate men and delegate women, and alternate men and alternate women. These goals apply to the California delegation as a whole. Delegates and alternates shall be considered separate groups for purposes of achieving equal division.

Provisions for achieving equal division at the district level shall be as follows: Each candidate and uncommitted caucus shall elect a slate of potential delegates equal to at least the number of delegates plus alternates allocated to that congressional district. Potential delegates shall be ranked on the basis of votes received at the caucus, alternating by sex, with the sex of the top ranked potential delegate determined by the top vote getter. After the delegates are selected, the alternates shall then be selected, using the next highest vote getters in the process described above. Following the primary, delegate and alternate positions allocated to a presidential candidate or uncommitted delegation shall be filled from the list of ranked potential delegates in the order in which they are ranked.

(i) The State Democratic Chair shall certify in writing to the Secretary of the Democratic National Committee (DNC) the election of the state's district level delegates and alternates to the Democratic National Convention within three days after their election.

6366. (a) The following individuals shall constitute the unpledged delegate positions:

(1) Members of the DNC who legally reside in the state.

(2) The Governor if he or she is a Democrat.

(3) All former Democratic Presidents, Democratic Vice Presidents, Democratic Majority Leaders of the United States Senate, and Democratic Speakers of the United States House of Representatives who legally reside in the state.

(4) The delegates chosen from California by the Democratic Caucus of the United States House of Representatives and the Democratic Conference of the United States Senate.

(5) Five add-on delegates.

(b) The procedures to be used in selecting the five add-on unpledged delegates shall be as follows:

(1) The add-on delegates shall be nominated by the state party chair and elected at the meeting of district level delegates on Saturday, June 13, 1992. These delegates shall be selected prior to the selection of the pledged party and elected official delegates.

(2) The equal division and affirmative action provisions of Rule 9A of the Delegate Selection Rules for the 1992 Democratic National Convention apply to the selection of these add-on unpledged delegates.

(3) The list from which the selecting body chooses the add-on unpledged delegates shall, at a minimum, contain three names for every unpledged add-on position to be filled.

(c) The process for certification of the unpledged delegates is as follows:

(1) Members of the DNC, the Governor if he or she is a Democrat, and distinguished former elected leaders.

(A) Not later than March 1, 1992, the Secretary of the DNC shall officially confirm to the state party chair the following unpledged delegates who legally reside in California:

(i) The individuals recognized as members of the DNC.

(ii) The Governor if he or she is a Democrat.

(iii) All former Democratic Presidents, Democratic Vice Presidents, Democratic Majority Leaders of the United States Senate, and Democratic Speakers of the United States House of Representatives.

(B) This official confirmation by the secretary shall constitute verification of the unpledged delegates from the categories indicated above. In cases where California DNC membership changes following the secretary's official confirmation, but prior to the commencement of the 1992 Democratic National Convention, acknowledgement by the Secretary of the DNC of member certification shall constitute verification of the corresponding change of unpledged delegates.

(2) Members of Congress.

(A) The delegates chosen by the Democratic Caucus of the United States House of Representatives and the Democratic Conference of the United States Senate shall become part of the California unpledged delegation. The total number selected shall be added to the total number of unpledged delegates from this state.

(B) The Secretary of the DNC shall officially notify the State Democratic Chair of any name or names of delegates from California that are selected by the Democratic Caucus of the United States House of Representatives and the Democratic Conference of the United States Senate.

(3) Add-on unpledged delegates, selected pursuant to the Call for the 1992 Democratic National Convention, shall be certified in writing to the Secretary of the DNC within three days after their selection.

6367. (a) California is allotted 45 pledged party leader and elected official delegates.

(b) Individuals shall be eligible for the pledged party leader and elected official positions according to the following priority: big city mayors and statewide elected officials (to be given equal consideration), state legislative leaders, state legislators, Members of Congress not previously selected, and other state, county, and local elected officials and party leaders.

(c) These delegates shall be selected by a committee consisting of all the district-level delegates.

(d) Selection of these delegates shall occur on Saturday, June 13, 1992, at a site and time to be determined by the state party chair. The selection of these delegates shall be after the election of district delegates and alternates and the unpledged add-on delegates and prior to the selection of at-large delegates and alternates.

(e) An individual may qualify as a candidate for a position as a pledged party leader and elected official delegate by filing a statement of candidacy and pledge of support with the state party chair that includes all the provisions included in the statement of candidacy and pledge of support required of district level candidates. An individual may or may not previously have filed a statement of candidacy and still be eligible to file under this category. Statements shall be available at the state party beginning March 23, 1992. Statements shall be accepted beginning April 20, 1992, and ending June 4, 1992, at 5 p.m.

(f) These pledged party leader and elected official slots shall be allocated among presidential preferences on the same basis as the at-large delegates.

(g) Delegate candidates shall be identified as to presidential or uncommitted status at the pledged party and elected official level. If persons eligible for pledged party and elected official delegate positions have not made known their presidential preference as candidates for district level or at-large delegate positions, their preference shall be ascertained through the aforementioned required qualification statement.

(h) The state party chair shall convey to the presidential candidate, or that candidate's authorized representative or representatives, not later than June 5, 1992, a list of all persons who have filed for a party and elected official delegate pledged to that presidential candidate. Each presidential candidate, or that candidate's authorized representative or representatives, shall then file with the state party chair, by June 10, 1992, a list of all the candidates he or she has approved, provided that approval is given to at least three times the number of candidates for delegate to be selected. Failure to respond shall be deemed approval of all delegate candidates submitted to the presidential candidate unless the presidential candidate, or the candidate's authorized representative or representatives, signifies otherwise in writing to the state party chair no later than 5 p.m. on June 10, 1992.

(i) Alternates are not selected at the pledged party leader and elected official level. These alternates are combined with the at-large alternates and selected as one unit.

(j) The state party chair shall certify in writing to the Secretary of the DNC the election of the state's pledged party leader and elected official delegates and alternates to the Democratic National Convention within three days after their election.

6368. (a) The State of California is allotted 76 at-large delegates and 21 at-large alternates.

(b) These delegates and alternates shall be selected by a committee consisting of all the district-level delegates on Saturday, June 13, 1992. The selection shall occur after all unpledged delegates and pledged party leader and elected official delegates have been selected.

(c) At-large delegate and alternate positions shall be allocated among presidential preferences according to the statewide primary vote. Preferences which have not attained a 15-percent threshold on a statewide basis shall not be entitled to any at-large delegates.

If a given presidential preference is entitled to one or more delegate positions but would not otherwise be entitled to an alternate position, that preference shall be allotted one at-large alternate position.

(d) In the selection of the at-large delegation, priority of consideration shall be given to African Americans, Hispanics, Native Americans, Asian/Pacific Americans, the disabled, and women. The election of at-large delegates and alternates shall be used, if necessary, to achieve the equal division of positions between men and women, and may be used to achieve the representation goals established in the State Democratic party's affirmative action plan. Delegates and alternates are to be considered separate groups for this purpose.

(e) Persons desiring to seek these at-large delegate or alternate positions may file a statement of candidacy designating their presidential or uncommitted preference and a signed pledge of support for the presidential candidates (including uncommitted status) with the state party beginning Monday, April 20, 1992, and ending at 5 p.m., June 4, 1992. The state party chair shall convey to the presidential candidate, or that candidate's authorized representative or representatives, not later than June 5, 1992, a list of all persons who have filed for delegate or alternate pledged to that presidential candidate. Each presidential candidate, or that candidate's authorized representative or representatives, shall then file with the state party chair, by June 10, 1992, a list of all the candidates he or she has approved, provided that approval is given to at least three times the number of candidates for delegate and three times the number of candidates for alternate to be selected. Failure to respond shall be deemed approval of all delegate candidates submitted to the presidential candidate unless the presidential candidate, or the candidate's authorized representative or representatives, signifies otherwise in writing to the state party chair no later than 5 p.m., June 10, 1992.

(f) The statement of candidacy for at-large delegates and for at-large alternates shall be the same. After the at-large delegates are elected by the district level delegates, those persons not chosen shall then be considered candidates for at-large alternate positions unless they specify otherwise when filing.

(g) If a presidential candidate is no longer a candidate at the time of selection of the at-large delegates, those at-large slots that would have been allocated to the candidate shall be proportionally divided among the remaining preferences entitled to an allocation.

(h) The state party chair shall certify in writing to the Secretary of the DNC the election of the state's at-large delegates and alternates to the Democratic National Convention within three days after their election.

SEC. 11. Section 10015 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

10015. (a) (1) Any voter may seek a writ of mandate alleging that an error or omission has occurred or is about to occur in the placing of any name on, or in the printing of, a ballot, sample ballot, voter pamphlet or other official matter, or that any neglect of duty has occurred or is about to occur.

(2) A peremptory writ of mandate shall issue only upon proof that the error, omission, or neglect is in violation of this code or the Constitution and that issuance of the writ will not substantially interfere with the conduct of the election.

(3) The action or appeal shall have priority over all other civil matters.

(b) Venue for a proceeding under this section shall be exclusively in Sacramento County in any of the following cases:

(1) The Secretary of State is named as a real party in interest or as a respondent.

(2) A candidate for statewide elective office is named as a party.

(3) A statewide measure that is to be placed on the ballot is the subject of the proceeding.

SEC. 12. Section 10211 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

10211. (a) With the exception of candidates for Justice of the State Supreme Court or court of appeal, immediately under the name of each candidate, and not separated from the name by any line, may appear at the option of the candidate only one of the following designations:

(1) Words designating the elective city, county, district, state, or federal office which the candidate holds at the time of filing the nomination documents to which he or she was elected by vote of the people, or to which he or she was appointed, in the case of a superior, municipal, or justice court judge.

(2) The word "incumbent" if the candidate is a candidate for the same office which he or she holds at the time of filing the nomination papers, and was elected to that office by a vote of the people, or, in the case of a superior, municipal, or justice court judge, was appointed to that office.

(3) No more than three words designating the principal professions, vocations, or occupations of the candidate. For purposes of this section, all California geographical names shall be considered to be one word.

(4) The phrase "appointed incumbent" if the candidate holds an office other than a judicial office by virtue of appointment, and the candidate is a candidate for election to the same office, or, if the candidate is a candidate for election to the same office or to some other office, the word "appointed" and the title of the office. In either instance, the candidate may not use the unmodified word "incumbent" or any words designating the office unmodified by the word "appointed." However, the phrase "appointed incumbent" shall not be required of a candidate who seeks reelection to an office which he or she holds and to which he or she was appointed, as a nominated candidate, in lieu of an election, pursuant to Sections 5326 and 5328 of the Education Code or Section 8873, 9373, 9723, 22843.5, 22844, or 23520 of the Elections Code.

(b) Neither the Secretary of State nor any other election official shall accept a designation that:

(1) Would mislead the voter.

(2) Would suggest an evaluation of a candidate, such as outstanding, leading, expert, virtuous, or eminent.

(3) Abbreviates the word "retired" or places it following any word or words which it modifies.

(4) Uses a word or prefix, such as "former" or "ex-," which means a prior status. The only exception is the use of the word "retired."

(5) Uses the name of any political party, whether or not it has qualified for the ballot.

(6) Uses a word or words referring to a racial, religious, or ethnic group.

(7) Refers to any activity, which activity is prohibited by law.

(c) If, upon checking the nomination documents, the election official finds the designation to be in violation of any of the restrictions set forth in this section, the election official shall notify the candidate by registered or certified mail return receipt requested, addressed to the mailing address appearing on the candidate's nomination documents.

(1) The candidate shall, within three days from the date of receipt of the notice, appear before the election officer or, in the case of the Secretary of State, notify the Secretary of State by telephone, and provide an alternate designation.

(2) In the event the candidate fails to provide an alternate designation, no designation shall appear after the candidate's name.

(d) No designation given by a candidate shall be changed by the candidate after the final date for filing nomination documents, except as specifically requested by the election official as specified in subdivision (c) or as provided in subdivision (e).

(e) The designation shall remain the same for all purposes of both primary and general elections, unless the candidate, at least 83 days prior to the general election, requests in writing a different designation that the candidate is entitled to use at the time of the request.

(f) In all cases words so used shall be printed in 8-point roman uppercase and lowercase type except that if the designation selected is so long that it would conflict with the space requirements of Sections 10207 and 10221, the election official shall use a type size for the designation for each candidate for that office sufficiently smaller to meet these requirements.

(g) Whenever a foreign language translation of a candidate's designation is required under the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 U.S.C.A. Sec. 1971) to appear on the ballot in addition to the English language version, it shall be as short as possible, as consistent as is practicable with the provisions of this section, and shall employ abbreviations and initials wherever possible in order to avoid undue length.

SEC. 12.5. Section 10211 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

10211. (a) With the exception of candidates for Justice of the State Supreme Court or court of appeal, immediately under the name of each candidate, and not separated from the name by any line, may appear at the option of the candidate only one of the following designations:

(1) Words designating the elective city, county, district, state, or federal office which the candidate holds at the time of filing the nomination documents to which he or she was elected by vote of the people, or to which he or she was appointed, in the case of a superior, municipal, or justice court judge.

(3) No more than three words designating either the current principal profession, vocation, or occupation of the candidate, or the principal profession, vocation, or occupation of the candidate during the calendar year immediately preceding the filing of nomination documents. For purposes of this section, all California geographical names shall be considered to be one word.

(4) The phrase "appointed incumbent" if the candidate holds an office other than a judicial office by virtue of appointment, and the candidate is a candidate for election to the same office, or, if the candidate is a candidate for election to the same office or to some other office, the word "appointed" and the title of the office. In either instance, the candidate may not use the unmodified word "incumbent" or any words designating the office unmodified by the word "appointed." However, the phrase "appointed incumbent" shall not be required of a candidate who seeks reelection to an office which he or she holds and to which he or she was appointed, as a nominated candidate, in lieu of an election, pursuant to Sections 5326 and 5328 of the Education Code or Section 8873, 9373, 9723, 22843.5, 22844, or 23520 of the Elections Code.

(b) Neither the Secretary of State nor any other election official shall accept a designation that:

(1) Would mislead the voter.

(2) Would suggest an evaluation of a candidate, such as outstanding, leading, expert, virtuous, or eminent.

(3) Abbreviates the word "retired" or places it following any word or words which it modifies.

(4) Uses a word or prefix, such as "former" or "ex-," which means a prior status. The only exception is the use of the word "retired."

(5) Uses the name of any political party, whether or not it has qualified for the ballot.

(6) Uses a word or words referring to a racial, religious, or ethnic group.

(7) Refers to any activity, which activity is prohibited by law.

(c) If, upon checking the nomination documents, the election official finds the designation to be in violation of any of the restrictions set forth in this section, the election official shall notify the candidate by registered or certified mail return receipt requested, addressed to the mailing address appearing on the candidate's nomination documents.

(1) The candidate shall, within three days from the date of receipt of the notice, appear before the election officer or, in the case of the Secretary of State, notify the Secretary of State by telephone, and provide an alternate designation.

(2) In the event the candidate fails to provide an alternate designation, no designation shall appear after the candidate's name.

(d) No designation given by a candidate shall be changed by the candidate after the final date for filing nomination documents, except as specifically requested by the elections official as specified in subdivision (c) or as provided in subdivision (e).

(e) The designation shall remain the same for all purposes of both primary and general elections, unless the candidate, at least 83 days prior to the general election, requests in writing a different designation which the candidate is entitled to use at the time of the request.

(f) In all cases words so used shall be printed in 8-point roman uppercase and lowercase type except that if the designation selected is so long that it would conflict with the space requirements of Sections 10207 and 10221, the elections official shall use a type size for the designation for each candidate for that office sufficiently smaller to meet these requirements.

(g) Whenever a foreign language translation of a candidate's designation is required under the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 U.S.C.A. Sec. 1971) to appear on the ballot in addition to the English language version, it shall be as short as possible, as consistent as is practicable with this section, and shall employ abbreviations and initials wherever possible in order to avoid undue length.

SEC. 13. Section 14005 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

14005. The clerk shall furnish to the precinct officers:

(a) Printed copies of the indexes.

(b) Necessary printed blanks for the roster, tally sheets, lists of voters, declarations and returns.

(c) Envelopes in which to enclose returns.

(d) Not less than six nor more than 12 instruction cards to each precinct for the guidance of voters in obtaining and marking their ballots. On each card shall be printed necessary instructions and the provisions of Sections 14231, 14232, 14241, 14244, 14249, 14403, 17001, 17004, 17005, 17009, 17010, 17011, 29470, 29480, 29506, 29644, and 29649.

(e) A digest of the election laws with any further instructions the county clerk may desire to make.

(f) An American flag of sufficient size to adequately assist the voter in identifying the polling place. The flag is to be erected at or near the polling place on election day.

(g) A ballot container, properly marked on the outside indicating its contents.

(h) When it is necessary to supply additional ballot containers, these additional containers shall also be marked on the outside, indicating their contents.

(i) Sufficient ink pads and stamps for each booth. The stamps shall be one solid piece and shall be made so that a cross (+) may be made with either end. If ballots are to be counted by vote tabulating equipment, an adequate supply of other approved voting devices shall be furnished. All voting stamps or voting devices shall be maintained in good usable condition.

(j) When a candidate or candidates have qualified to have his or her or their names counted pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 17100) of Division 12, a sufficient number of ink pens or pencils in the voting booths for the purpose of writing in on the ballot the name of the candidate or candidates.

(k) A sufficient number of cards to each polling place containing the telephone number of the office to which a voter may call to obtain information about his or her precinct location. The card shall state that the voter may call collect during polling hours.

(l) An identifying badge or insignia for each member of the precinct board. The member shall print his or her name and the precinct number thereon and shall wear the badge or insignia at all times in the performance of duties, so as to be readily identified as a member of the precinct board by all persons entering the polling place.

(m) Facsimile copies of the ballot containing ballot measures and ballot instructions printed in Spanish or other languages as provided in Section 14203.

(n) Sufficient copies of the notices to be posted on the indexes used at the polls. The notice shall read as follows: "This index shall not be marked in any manner except by a member of the precinct board acting pursuant to Section 14251 of the Elections Code. Any person who removes, tears, marks, or otherwise defaces this index with the intent to falsify or prevent others from readily ascertaining the name, address, or political affiliation of any voter, or the fact that a voter has or has not voted, is guilty of a misdemeanor."

(o) A roster of voters for each precinct in the form prescribed in Section 14005.5.

(p) In addition, the clerk may, with the approval of the board of supervisors, furnish the original books of affidavits of registration or other material necessary to verify signatures to the precinct officers.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1990.

SEC. 14. Section 14221 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

14221. If the challenge is on the ground that the person challenged has already cast a ballot for this election, a member of the precinct board shall tender to the person challenged this oath:

"You do swear (or affirm) that you have not previously voted in this election, either by absentee ballot or at a polling place."

SEC. 15. Section 17121 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

17121. (a) Except as to presidential electors, the Secretary of State shall compile the returns for:

(1) All candidates for statewide office.

(2) All candidates for Assembly, State Senate, Congress, State Board of Equalization, and judicial offices, except judges of an inferior court.

(3) All statewide measures.

(b) The Secretary of State shall make out, certify, and file a statement of the vote from the compiled returns no later than the 39th day after the election.

SEC. 16. Section 22934 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

22934. The city clerk shall immediately sign and deliver to each person elected a certificate of election. He or she shall also administer to each person elected the oath of office prescribed in the California Constitution.

SEC. 17. Section 25002 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

25002. On the 39th day after the election, or as soon within that time as the returns have been received from the entire state or a congressional district, as the case may be, the Secretary of State shall determine the votes cast for candidates for Senator and Representative and certify to the persons having the highest number of votes for the respective offices as duly elected.

SEC. 18. Section 25500 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

25500. (a) Each candidate for a party nomination for the office of State Senator or Member of the Assembly, or for any state constitutional office, or for Insurance Commissioner, at the direct primary election shall file a written and signed declaration of his or her intention to become a candidate for his or her party's nomination for that office. The declaration of intention shall be filed with either the Secretary of State or the clerk of the county in which the candidate is a resident. The declaration of intention shall be filed, on a form to be supplied by the county elections official, not more than 14 nor less than five days prior to the first day on which nomination papers may be presented for filing. However, if the incumbent fails to file a declaration of intention by the end of that period, persons other than the incumbent may file declarations of intention no later than the first day for filing nomination papers. The declaration of intention provided for in this section shall be in substantially the following form:

I hereby declare my intention to become a candidate for the _____ Party's nomination (Name of political party) for the office of _____ (Name of office and district, if any) at the direct primary election.

(Address of candidate)

(b) No person may be a candidate nor have his or her name printed upon any ballot as a candidate for a party nomination for the office of State Senator or Member of the Assembly, or for any state constitutional office, or for Insurance Commissioner at the direct primary election unless he or she has filed the declaration of intention provided for in this section. However, if the incumbent of the office who is affiliated with any qualified political party files a declaration of intention, but for any reason fails to qualify for nomination for the office by the last day prescribed for the filing of nomination papers, an additional five days shall be allowed for the filing of nomination papers for the office, and any person, other than the incumbent if otherwise qualified, may file nomination papers for the office during the extended period, notwithstanding that he or she has not filed a written and signed declaration of intention to become a candidate for the office as provided in subdivision (a).

SEC. 19. Section 27032 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

27032. (a) The petition sections shall be designed so that each signer shall personally affix his or her:

(1) Signature.

(2) Printed name.

(3) Residence address, giving street and number, or if no street or number exists, adequate designation of residence so that the location may be readily ascertained.

(4) Name of incorporated city or unincorporated community.

(c) A space, at least one inch wide, shall be left blank after each name for the use of the clerk in verifying the petition.

SEC. 20. Section 27036 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

27036. Each section of the petition shall have attached to it a declaration signed by the circulator of that section of the petition, setting forth all of the following:

(a) The printed name of the circulator.

(b) The residence address of the circulator, giving street and number, or if no street or number exists, adequate designation of residence so that the location may be readily ascertained.

(c) That the circulator circulated that section and witnessed the appended signatures being written.

(d) That according to the best information and belief of the circulator, each signature is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be.

(e) That the circulator is a registered voter of the electoral jurisdiction of the officer sought to be recalled.

(f) The dates between which all the signatures to the petition section were obtained.

(g) The circulator shall certify to the content of the declaration as to its truth and correctness, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California, with the signature of his or her name at length, including given name, middle name or initial, or initial and middle name. The circulator shall state the date and the place of execution on the declaration immediately preceding the circulator's signature.

SEC. 21. Section 8211 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8211. Fees charged by a notary public for the following services shall not exceed the fees prescribed by this section.

(a) For taking an acknowledgment or proof of a deed, or other instrument, to include the seal and the writing of the certificate, the sum of five dollars ($5) for each signature.

(b) For administering an oath or affirmation to one person and executing the jurat, including the seal, the sum of five dollars ($5).

(c) For all services rendered in connection with the taking of any deposition, the sum of ten dollars ($10), and in addition thereto, the sum of two dollars ($2) for administering the oath to the witness and the sum of two dollars ($2) for the certificate to such deposition.

(d) For every protest for the nonpayment of a promissory note or for the nonpayment or nonacceptance of a bill of exchange, draft, or check, the sum of four dollars ($4).

(e) For serving every notice of nonpayment of a promissory note or of nonpayment or nonacceptance of a bill of exchange, order, draft, or check, the sum of two dollars ($2).

(f) For recording every protest, the sum of two dollars ($2).

(g) No fee shall be charged to notarize signatures on absentee ballot identification envelopes or other voting materials.

SEC. 22. Section 36512.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

36512.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 36512, or any other provision of law, the City of Milpitas may hold a special election on December 10, 1991, to fill the vacancy in the city council created as a result of the resignation by a council member.

(b) The Legislature finds that, because of the unique circumstances applicable to the holding of a special election in the City of Milpitas to fill the existing council vacancy, a statute of general applicability cannot be enacted within the meaning of subdivision (b) of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1992, and on that date is repealed.

SEC. 23. Section 57146 of the Government Code is amended to read:

57146. (a) On the basis of the time reasonably necessary to prepare and print the arguments, analysis, and sample ballots for the election, the clerk of the conducting authority shall fix and determine a reasonable date prior to the election after which no arguments for or against the measure may be submitted for printing and distribution to the voters. Notice of the date fixed shall be published in accordance with Section 56153 in a newspaper of general circulation which is circulated in the affected territory. Arguments may be changed until and including the date fixed by the clerk.

(b) The notice shall contain all of the following information:

(1) A statement of the proposition to be voted on and a general description of the boundaries of the affected territory.

(2) An invitation to any registered voter or association of citizens entitled to vote on the proposal to submit and file with the clerk for printing and distribution in the ballot pamphlet, an argument for or an argument against the proposal.

(3) The date of the election.

(4) A statement that only one argument for and one argument against will be selected and printed in the ballot pamphlet.

(5) A statement that arguments shall not exceed 300 words in length and shall be accompanied by not more than five signatures.

SEC. 24. Section 12.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 10211 of the Elections Code proposed by both this bill and SB 70. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1992, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 10211 of the Elections Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 70, in which case Section 10211 of the Elections Code, as amended by Section 12 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of SB 70, at which time Section 12.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 25. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to achieve the purposes of this act at the earliest opportunity, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 394

An act to amend Sections 1689.6, 1689.7, and 1722 of the Civil Code, relating to contracts.

[Approved by Governor September 11, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1689.6 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1689.6. (a) In addition to any other right to revoke an offer, the buyer has the right to cancel a home solicitation contract or offer until midnight of the third business day after the day on which the buyer signs an agreement or offer to purchase which complies with Section 1689.7.

(b) In addition to any other right to revoke an offer, any buyer has the right to cancel a home solicitation contract or offer for the purchase of a personal emergency response unit until midnight of the seventh business day after the day on which the buyer signs an agreement or offer to purchase which complies with Section 1689.7.

(c) Cancellation occurs when the buyer gives written notice of cancellation to the seller at the address specified in the agreement or offer.

(d) Notice of cancellation, if given by mail, is effective when deposited in the mail properly addressed with postage prepaid.

(e) Notice of cancellation given by the buyer need not take the particular form as provided with the contract or offer to purchase and, however expressed, is effective if it indicates the intention of the buyer not to be bound by the home solicitation contract or offer.

(f) "Personal emergency response unit," for purposes of this section, means an in-home radio transmitter device or two-way radio device generally, but not exclusively, worn on a neckchain, wrist strap , or clipped to clothing, and connected to a telephone line through which a monitoring station is alerted of an emergency and emergency assistance is summoned.

SEC. 2. Section 1689.7 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1689.7. (a) (1) In a home solicitation contract or offer the buyer's agreement or offer to purchase shall be written in the same language, e.g., Spanish, as principally used in the oral sales presentation, shall be dated, signed by the buyer, and except as provided in paragraph (2), shall contain in immediate proximity to the space reserved for his or her signature a conspicuous statement in a size equal to at least 10-point bold type, as follows: "You, the buyer, may cancel this transaction at any time prior to midnight of the third business day after the date of this transaction. See the attached notice of cancellation form for an explanation of this right."

(2) The statement required pursuant to this subdivision for a home solicitation contract or offer for the purchase of a personal emergency response unit, as defined in Section 1689.6, is as follows: "You, the buyer, may cancel this transaction at any time prior to midnight of the seventh business day after the date of this transaction. See the attached notice of cancellation form for an explanation of this right."

(b) The agreement or offer to purchase shall contain on the first page, in a type size no smaller than that generally used in the body of the document, the following: (1) the name and address of the seller to which the notice is to be mailed, and (2) the date the buyer signed the agreement or offer to purchase.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (d), the agreement or offer to purchase shall be accompanied by a completed form in duplicate, captioned "Notice of Cancellation" which shall be attached to the agreement or offer to purchase and be easily detachable, and which shall contain in type of at least 10-point the following statement written in the same language, e.g., Spanish, as used in the contract:

"Notice of Cancellation"

/enter date of transaction/

(Date)

You may cancel this transaction, without any penalty or obligation, within three business days from the above date.

If you cancel, any property traded in, any payments made by you under the contract or sale, and any negotiable instrument executed by you will be returned within 10 days following receipt by the seller of your cancellation notice, and any security interest arising out of the transaction will be canceled.

If you cancel, you must make available to the seller at your residence, in substantially as good condition as when received, any goods delivered to you under this contract or sale, or you may, if you wish, comply with the instructions of the seller regarding the return shipment of the goods at the seller's expense and risk.

If you do make the goods available to the seller and the seller does not pick them up within 20 days of the date of your notice of cancellation, you may retain or dispose of the goods without any further obligation. If you fail to make the goods available to the seller, or if you agree to return the goods to the seller and fail to do so, then you remain liable for performance of all obligations under the contract.

To cancel this transaction, mail or deliver a signed and dated copy of this cancellation notice, or any other written notice, or send a telegram

/name of seller/

at _____ /address of sellers place of business/not later than midnight of _____ (Date)

I hereby cancel this transaction _____
(Date)

(Buyer's signature)

(d) Any agreement or offer to purchase a personal emergency response unit, as defined in Section 1689.6, shall be subject to the requirements of subdivision (c), and shall be accompanied by the "Notice of Cancellation" required by subdivision (c), except that the first paragraph of that notice shall be deleted and replaced with the following paragraph:

You may cancel this transaction, without any penalty or obligation, within seven business days from the above date.

(e) The seller shall provide the buyer with a copy of the contract or offer to purchase and the attached notice of cancellation, and shall inform the buyer orally of his or her right to cancel and the requirement that cancellation be in writing, at the time the home solicitation contract or offer is executed.

(f) Until the seller has complied with this section the buyer may cancel the home solicitation contract or offer.

(g) "Contract or sale" as used in subdivision (c) means "home solicitation contract or offer" as defined by Section 1689.5.

SEC. 3. Section 1722 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1722. (a) (1) Whenever a contract is entered into between a consumer and a retailer with 25 or more employees relating to the sale of merchandise which is to be delivered by the retailer or the retailer's agent to the consumer at a later date, and the parties have agreed that the presence of the consumer is required at the time of delivery, the retailer shall specify either at the time of the sale or at a later date a four-hour time period within which any delivery shall be made. Whenever a contract is entered into between a consumer and a retailer with 25 or more employees for service or repair ofmerchandise, whether or not the merchandise was sold by the retailer to the consumer, and the parties have agreed that the presence of the consumer is required at the time of service or repair, upon receipt of a request for service or repair under the contract, the retailer shall specify a four-hour period within which the service or repair shall be commenced. Once a delivery, service, or repair time is established, the retailer or the retailer's agent shall deliver the merchandise to the consumer, or commence service or repair of the merchandise, within that four-hour period.

(2) If the merchandise is not delivered, or service or repair are not commenced, within the specified four-hour period, except for delays caused by unforeseen or unavoidable occurrences beyond the control of the retailer, the consumer may bring an action in small claims court against the retailer for lost wages, expenses actually incurred, or other actual damages not exceeding a total of five hundred dollars ($500).

(3) No action shall be considered valid if the consumer was not present at the time, within the specified period, when the retailer or the retailer's agent attempted to make the delivery, service, or repairs or made a diligent attempt to notify the consumer of its inability to do so because of unforeseen or unavoidable occurrences beyond its control.

(4) In any small claims action, logs and other business records maintained by the retailer or the retailer's agent in the ordinary course of business shall be prima facie evidence of the time period specified for the delivery, service, or repairs and of the time when the merchandise was delivered, or of a diligent attempt by the retailer or the retailer's agent to notify the consumer of delay caused by unforeseen or unavoidable occurrences.

(5) It shall be a defense to the action if a diligent attempt was made to notify the consumer of the delay caused by unforeseen or unavoidable occurrences beyond the control of the retailer or the retailer's agent, or the retailer or the retailer's agent was unable to notify the consumer of the delay because of the consumer's absence or unavailability during the four-hour period, and, in either instance, the retailer or the retailer's agent makes the delivery, service, or repairs within two hours of a newly agreed upon time or, if the consumer unreasonably declines to arrange a new time for the delivery, service, or repairs.

(b) (1) Cable television companies shall inform their subscribers of their right to service connection or repair within a four-hour period, if the presence of the subscriber is required, by offering the four-hour period at the time the subscriber calls for service connection or repair, or by notifying their subscribers by mail three times a year of this service. Whenever a subscriber contracts with a cable television company for a service connection or repair, and the parties have agreed that the presence of the subscriber is required, the cable company shall specify the time for the commencement of the service connection or repair within the four-hour period if the subscriber requests.

(2) If the service connection or repair is not commenced within the specified four-hour period, except for delays caused by unforeseen or unavoidable occurrences beyond the control of the company, the subscriber may bring an action in small claims court against the company for lost wages, expenses actually incurred or other actual damages not exceeding a total of five hundred dollars ($500).

(4) In any small claims action, logs and other business records maintained by the company or its agents in the ordinary course of business shall be prima facie evidence of the time period specified for the commencement of the service connection or repair and the time that the company or its agents attempted to make the service connection or repair, or of a diligent attempt by the company to notify the subscriber of a delay caused by unforeseen or unavoidable occurrences.

(5) It shall be a defense to the action if a diligent attempt was made to notify the subscriber of delay caused by unforeseen or unavoidable occurrences beyond the control of the company or its agents, or the company or its agents were unable to notify the subscriber because of the subscriber's absence or unavailability during the four-hour period, and, in either instance, the cable television company commenced service or repairs within a newly agreed upon two-hour period.

(6) No action shall be considered valid against a cable television company pursuant to this section when the franchise or any local ordinance provides the subscriber with a remedy for a delay in commencement of a service connection or repair and the subscriber has elected to pursue that remedy. If a subscriber elects to pursue his or her remedies against a cable television company under this section, the franchising or state or local licensing authority shall be barred from imposing any fine, penalty, or other sanction against the company, arising out of the same incident.

(c) (1) Utilities shall inform their subscribers of their right to service connection or repair within a four-hour period, if the presence of the subscriber is required, by offering the four-hour period at the time the subscriber calls for service connection or repair, or by notifying the subscriber by mail three times a year of this service. Whenever a subscriber contracts with the utility for a service connection or repair, and the parties have agreed that the presence of the subscriber is required, the utility shall specify the time for the commencement of the service connection or repair within the four-hour period if the subscriber requests.

(2) If the service connection or repair is not commenced within the specified four-hour period, except for delays caused by unforeseen or unavoidable circumstances beyond the control of the utility, the subscriber may bring an action in small claims court against the utility for lost wages, expenses actually incurred, or other actual damages not exceeding a total of five hundred dollars ($500).

(3) No action shall be considered valid if the subscriber was not present at the time, within the specified period, that the utility attempted to make the service connection or repair.

(4) In any small claims action, logs and other business records maintained by the utility or its agents in the ordinary course of business shall be prima facie evidence of the time period specified for the commencement of the service connection or repair and of the time that the utility attempted to make the service connection or repair, or of a diligent attempt by a utility to notify the subscriber of delay caused by unforeseen or unavoidable occurrences.

(5) It shall be a defense to the action if a diligent attempt was made by the utility to notify the subscriber of delay caused by unforeseen or unavoidable occurrences beyond the control of the utility, and the utility commenced service within a newly agreed upon two-hour period.

(d) Any provision of a delivery, service, or repair contract in which the consumer or subscriber agrees to modify or waive any of the rights afforded by this section shall be void as contrary to public policy.

CHAPTER 395

An act to amend Sections 51011, 51013.5, and 51019.1 of the Government Code, relating to pipelines.

[Approved by Governor September 11, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 51011 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51011. The State Fire Marshal shall adopt hazardous liquid pipeline safety regulations in compliance with the federal law relating to hazardous liquid pipeline safety, including, but not limited to, compliance orders, penalties, and inspection and maintenance provisions, and including amendments to those laws and regulations which may be hereafter enacted and adopted. Regulations adopting the minimum standards for hazardous liquid pipelines contained in the Federal Hazardous Liquid Pipeline Safety Act, 49 U.S.C. Sec. 2001 et seq., and Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, by the State Fire Marshal are exempt from the procedures specified in Article 5 (commencing with Section 11346) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, except that those regulations shall be submitted to the Office of Administrative Law for filing with the Secretary of State and publication in the California Code of Regulations.

The State Fire Marshal may exempt the application of regulations adopted pursuant to this section to any pipeline, or portion thereof, when it is determined that the risk to public safety is slight and the probability of injury or damage remote.

Notification of exemptions shall be written, and shall include a discussion of those factors which the State Fire Marshal considers significant to the granting of the exemption.

SEC. 2. Section 51013.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51013.5. (a) Every newly constructed pipeline, existing pipeline, or part of a pipeline system that has been relocated or replaced, and every pipeline that transports a hazardous liquid substance or highly volatile liquid substance, shall be tested in accordance with Subpart E (commencing with Section 195.300) of Part 195 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(b) Every pipeline not provided with properly sized automatic pressure relief devices or properly designed pressure limiting devices shall be hydrostatically tested annually.

(c) Every pipeline over 10 years of age and not provided with effective cathodic protection shall be hydrostatically tested every three years, except for those on the State Fire Marshal's list of higher risk pipelines, which shall be hydrostatically tested annually.

(d) Every pipeline over 10 years of age and provided with effective cathodic protection shall be hydrostatically tested every five years, except for those on the State Fire Marshal's list of higher risk pipelines which shall be hydrostatically tested every two years.

(e) Piping within a refined products bulk loading facility served by pipeline shall be tested hydrostatically at 125 percent of maximum allowable operating pressure utilizing the product ordinarily transported in that piping if that piping is operated at a stress level of 20 percent or less of the specified minimum yield strength of the pipe. The frequency for pressure testing these pipelines shall be every five years for those pipelines with effective cathodic protection and every three years for those pipelines without effective cathodic protection. If that piping is observable, visual inspection may be the method of testing.

(f) Beginning on July 1, 1990, and continuing until the regulations adopted by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to subdivision (g) take effect, each pipeline within the State Fire Marshal's jurisdiction which satisfies any of the following sets of criteria shall be placed on the State Fire Marshal's list of higher risk pipelines until five years pass without a reportable leak due to corrosion or defect on that pipeline. Initially, pipelines on that list shall be tested by the next scheduled test date, or within two years of being placed on the list, whichever is first. On July 1, 1990, pipeline operators shall provide the State Fire Marshal with a list of all their pipelines which satisfy the criteria in this subdivision as of July 1, 1990. If any pipeline becomes eligible for the list of higher risk pipelines after that date, the pipeline company shall report that fact to the State Fire Marshal within 30 days, and the pipeline shall be placed on the list retroactively to the date on which it became eligible for listing. Pipelines which are found to belong on the list, but are not so reported by the operator to the State Fire Marshal, shall be placed on the list retroactively. Operators failing to properly report their pipelines shall be subject to penalties under Section 51018.6. Pipelines not covered under the risk criteria developed pursuant to subdivision (g) shall be deleted from the list when regulations are adopted pursuant to that subdivision. For purposes of this subdivision, a leak which is traceable to an external force, but for which corrosion is partly responsible, shall be deemed caused by corrosion, "defect" refers to manufacturing or construction defects, and "leak" or "reportable leak" means a rupture required to be reported pursuant to Section 51018. As long as all pipelines are tested in their entirety at least as frequently as standard risk pipelines under subdivisions (c) and (d), it shall suffice for additional tests on higher risk pipelines to cover 20 pipeline miles in all directions along an operator's pipeline from the position of the leak or leaks which led to the inclusion or retention of that pipeline on the higher risk list. The interim list shall include pipelines which meet any of the following criteria:

(1) Have suffered two or more reportable leaks, not including leaks during a certified hydrostatic pressure test, due to corrosion or defect in the prior three years.

(2) Have suffered three or more reportable leaks, not including leaks during a certified hydrostatic pressure test, due to corrosion, defects, or external forces, but not all due to external forces, in the prior three years.

(3) Have suffered a reportable leak, except during a certified hydrostatic pressure test, due to corrosion or defect of more than 50,000 gallons, or 10,000 gallons in a standard metropolitan statistical area, in the prior three years; or have suffered a leak due to corrosion or defect which the State Fire Marshal finds has resulted in more than 42 gallons of a hazardous liquid within the State Fire Marshal's jurisdiction entering a waterway in the prior three years; or have suffered a reportable leak of a hazardous liquid with a flashpoint of less than 140 degrees Fahrenheit, or 60 degrees centigrade, in the prior three years.

(4) Are less than 50 miles long, and have experienced a reportable leak, except during a certified hydrostatic pressure test, due to corrosion or a defect in the prior three years. For the purposes of this paragraph, the length of a pipeline with more than two termini shall be the longest distance between two termini along the pipeline.

(5) Have experienced a reportable leak in the prior five years due to corrosion or defect, except during a certified hydrostatic pressure test, on a section of pipe more than 50 years old. For pipelines which fall in this category, and no other category of higher risk pipeline, additional tests required by this subdivision shall be required only on segments of the pipe more than 50 years old as long as all pipe more than 50 years old which is within 20 pipeline miles from the leak in all directions along an operator's pipeline is tested.

(g) The State Fire Marshal shall study indicators and precursors of serious pipeline accidents, and, in consultation with the Pipeline Safety Advisory Committee, shall develop criteria for identifying which hazardous liquid pipelines pose the greatest risk to people and the environment due to the likelihood of, and likely seriousness of, an accident due to corrosion or defect. The study shall give due consideration to research done by the industry, the federal government, academia, and to any other information which the State Fire Marshal shall deem relevant, including, but not limited to, recent leak history, pipeline location, and materials transported. Beginning January 1, 1992, using the criteria identified in that study, the State Fire Marshal shall maintain a list of higher risk pipelines, which exceed a standard of risk to be determined by the State Fire Marshal, and which shall be tested as required in subdivisions (c) and (d) as long as they remain on the list. By January 1, 1992, after public hearings, the State Fire Marshal shall adopt regulations to implement this subdivision.

(h) In addition to the requirements of subdivisions (a) to (e), inclusive, the State Fire Marshal may require any pipeline subject to this chapter to be subjected to a pressure test, or any other test or inspection, at any time, in the interest of public safety.

(i) Test methods other than the hydrostatic tests required by subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e), including inspection by instrumented internal inspection devices, may be approved by the State Fire Marshal on an individual basis. If the State Fire Marshal approves an alternative to a pressure test in an individual case, the State Fire Marshal may require that the alternative test be given more frequently than the testing frequencies specified in subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e).

(j) The State Fire Marshal shall adopt regulations before January 1, 1992, to establish what the State Fire Marshal deems to be an appropriate frequency for tests and inspections, including instrumented internal inspections, which, when permitted as a substitute for tests required under subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), do not damage pipelines or require them to be shut down for the testing period. That testing shall in no event be less frequent than is required by subdivisions (b), (c), and (d). Each time one of these tests is required on a pipeline, it shall be approved on the same individual basis as under subdivision (i). If it is not approved, a hydrostatic test shall be carried out at the time the alternative test would have been carried out, and subsequent tests shall be carried out in accordance with the time intervals prescribed by subdivision (b), (c), or (d), as applicable.

SEC. 3. Section 51019.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

51019.1. (a) There is hereby created the California Hazardous Liquid Pipeline Safety Fund, consisting of the Local Training Account and the Pipeline Operations Account.

(b) All fees collected pursuant to Sections 51019 and 51019.05 shall be deposited in the Pipeline Operations Account. The money in the account is available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, to the State Fire Marshal for the purpose of carrying out this chapter.

CHAPTER 396

An act to amend Section 25503.6 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor September 11, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25503.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25503.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the holder of a beer manufacturer's or winegrower's license may purchase advertising space and time from, or on behalf of, an on-sale retail licensee subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The on-sale licensee is the owner of an outdoor stadium or a fully enclosed arena with a fixed seating capacity in excess of 10,000 seats located within a county of the eighth class, as defined in Section 28029 of the Government Code.

(2) The outdoor stadium or fully enclosed arena described in paragraph (1) is not owned by a community college district.

(3) The advertising space or time is purchased only in connection with events to be held on the premises of the stadium or arena owned by the on-sale licensee.

(4) The on-sale licensee serves other brands of beer or wine in addition to the brand manufactured by the beer manufacturer or produced by the winegrower purchasing the advertising space or time.

(b) Any purchase of advertising space or time pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be conducted pursuant to a written contract entered into by the holder of the beer manufacturer's or winegrower's license and the on-sale licensee.

(c) Any holder of a beer manufacturer's or winegrower's license who, through coercion or other illegal means, induces a holder of a beer or wine wholesaler's license to fulfill those contractual obligations entered into pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine in an amount equal to the entire value of the advertising space or time involved in the contract, plus ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both imprisonment and fine. The person shall also be subject to license revocation pursuant to Section 24200.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds that it is necessary that the exception established by this act to the general prohibition against a manufacturer compensating a retailer in any way in connection with the advertising of alcoholic beverages be limited to the express terms of the exception so as not to undermine the general prohibition, and intends that this act be construed accordingly.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 397

An act to amend Sections 44548, 44549, and 44552.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to pollution control financing.

[Approved by Governor September 11, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 12, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44548 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44548. (a) Subject to any prior contractual obligations to any of its bondholders, the authority may establish one or more small business assistance funds in order to assist small businesses to achieve financing of pollution control facilities. For the purpose of establishing and maintaining small business assistance funds as it determines to be necessary or desirable to secure its bonds or any issuance thereof or for other authorized purposes, the authority, pursuant to its contracts with participating parties, may levy fees or other charges on, or require deposits from, participating parties receiving financing for a project under this division. The total amount of these fees, charges, and deposits with respect to a single issue of bonds shall not exceed 3 percent of the principal amount of that issue of bonds. Prior to levying any fees or charges or requiring deposits, the authority shall adopt regulations for the operation of the small business assistance funds, the amounts and any payment schedule for the fees, charges, or deposits, eligibility standards for small businesses desiring to use or benefit from the small business assistance funds, and any other matters the authority determines to be necessary for the establishment and maintenance of small business assistance funds. The regulations may provide for differential fees from participating parties based upon the size of a project financed by the authority or other factors determined to be relevant by the authority, and the regulations may restrict any benefits to those eligible small businesses as may be specified in the regulations. The authority may transfer any funds available to it or set aside for its administrative expenses to any small business assistance fund established under this section.

(b) The total amount of financial assistance, as described in subdivision (c), including the maximum liability on any pledge or guarantee, to be provided from any small business assistance fund with respect to any single project financed or assisted by the authority may not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000).

(c) The forms of financial assistance which the authority may provide under this section include, but are not limited to, payments to reduce, but not eliminate, the interest rate on loans; payments of part or all of the cost of acquiring letters of credit, insurance, guarantees, or other forms of credit support; and payment of part or all of the authority's expenses in issuing revenue bonds or providing other assistance. The authority may pledge any small business assistance fund, not to exceed the limit specified in subdivision (b), on an individual or pooled basis, to repay the principal of, or interest or premium on, any issue of bonds of the authority or any loan made or acquired pursuant to this section. In addition to other purposes set forth in this section, the authority may use moneys in a small business assistance fund to make or acquire loans to participating parties eligible for assistance from those funds. Any moneys repaid or returned to the authority in connection with or as a result of any loan or financial assistance made pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the small business assistance fund from which the loan or assistance was originally provided. The authority may contract with qualified financial institutions, including, but not limited to, banks, investment and mortgage bankers, insurance companies, sureties, and guarantors, to provide any necessary assistance in the granting of credit for these purposes.

(d) Each small business assistance fund established pursuant to this section shall be deposited in a special account which the Controller shall create. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and subject to any requirements of federal tax law or regulations relative to maintaining the tax-exempt status of the obligations of the authority, all interest or other gains earned by investment or deposit of money in the special account pursuant to any provision of Part 2 (commencing with Section 16300) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code or pursuant to any other provision of law shall be credited to, and deposited in, the account.

(e) In carrying out this section, the authority shall participate with the South Coast Air Quality Management District in providing financial assistance in its lending programs.

SEC. 2. Section 44549 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44549. Any funds of the authority, including proceeds from the sale of bonds or notes issued after the effective date of this section, money set aside for the authority's administrative expenses, and small business assistance funds created under Section 44548, may be invested in any obligations of any state or local government meeting the requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. Sec. 103 (a)) including mutual funds, trusts, and similar instruments representing a pool of obligations. The Treasurer may adopt regulations providing appropriate investment standards for these investments. If the Treasurer determines it to be necessary to assure compliance with federal tax laws or regulations, the authority may, notwithstanding any other provision of law, deposit funds received as fees from the issuance of its obligations, including small business assistance funds, with a bank or trust company acting on behalf of the authority. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the authority may also make investments of moneys set aside for the authority's administrative expenses or in any small business assistance funds by making or purchasing interest-bearing loans to qualified small businesses which are to be assisted pursuant to Section 44548, or under terms and with such security as the authority determines to be appropriate.

SEC. 3. Section 44552.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44533 for the purchase of loans of small businesses eligible for assistance pursuant to Section 44548.

(c) Section 44550 shall not apply to projects constructed with moneys loaned pursuant to this section.

CHAPTER 398

An act to validate the organization, boundaries, acts, proceedings, and bonds of public bodies, and to provide limitations of time within which actions may be commenced, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

The term "public body" and the plural thereof, as used in this act, shall include only those entities which are specifically enumerated in this section.

(b) "Bonds" means all instruments evidencing an indebtedness of a public body incurred or to be incurred for any public purpose, all leases, installment purchase agreements, or similar agreements in which the obligor is one or more public bodies, all instruments evidencing the borrowing of money in anticipation of taxes, revenues, or other income of such body, all instruments payable from revenues or special funds of such public bodies, all certificates of participation evidencing interests in the leases, installment purchase agreements, or similar agreements, and all instruments funding, refunding, replacing, or amending any thereof or any indebtedness.

(c) "Hereafter" means any time subsequent to the effective date of this act.

(d) "Heretofore" means any time prior to the effective date of this act.

(e) "Now" means the effective date of this act.

SEC. 3. All public bodies heretofore organized or existing under, or under color of, any law are hereby declared to have been legally organized and to be legally functioning as such public body. Every such public body shall have all the rights, powers, and privileges, and be subject to all the duties and obligations, of such a public body regularly formed pursuant to law.

SEC. 4. The boundaries of every public body as heretofore established, defined, or recorded, or as heretofore actually shown on maps or plats used by the assessor, are hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally established.

SEC. 5. All acts and proceedings heretofore taken by any public body or bodies under any law, or under color of any law, for the annexation or inclusion of territory into any such public body or for the annexation of any such public body to any other such public body or for the withdrawal or exclusion of territory from any such public body or for the consolidation, merger, or dissolution of any public bodies are hereby confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective. This shall include all acts and proceedings of the governing board of any such public body and of any person, public officer, board, or agency heretofore done or taken upon the question of the annexation or inclusion or of the withdrawal or exclusion of such territory or the consolidation, merger, or dissolution of such public bodies.

SEC. 6. All acts and proceedings heretofore taken by or on behalf of any public body under any law, or under color of any law, for, or in connection with, the authorization, issuance, sale, execution, delivery, or exchange of bonds of any such public body for any public purpose are hereby authorized, confirmed, validated, and declared legally effective. This shall include all acts and proceedings of the governing board of such public body and of any person, public officer, board, or agency heretofore done or taken upon the question of the authorization, issuance, sale, execution, delivery, or exchange of such bonds.

All bonds of, or relating to, any public body heretofore issued shall be, in the form and manner in which issued and delivered, the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body. All bonds of, or relating to, any public body heretofore awarded and sold to a purchaser and hereafter issued and delivered in accordance with the contract of sale and other proceedings for the award and sale shall be the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body. All bonds of, or relating to, any public body heretofore authorized to be issued by ordinance, resolution, order, or other action adopted or taken by or on behalf of the public body and hereafter issued and delivered in accordance with such authorization shall be the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body. All bonds of, or relating to, any public body heretofore authorized to be issued at an election and hereafter issued and delivered in accordance with such authorization shall be the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body. Whenever an election has heretofore been called for the purpose of submitting to the voters of any public body the question of issuing bonds for any public purpose, such bonds, if hereafter authorized by the required vote and in accordance with the proceedings heretofore taken, and issued and delivered in accordance with such authorization, shall be the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the public body.

SEC. 7. (a) This act shall operate to supply such legislative authorization as may be necessary to authorize, confirm, and validate any such acts and proceedings heretofore taken which the Legislature could have supplied or provided for in the law under which such acts or proceedings were taken.

(b) This act shall be limited to the validation of acts and proceedings to the extent to which the same can be effectuated under the State and Federal Constitutions.

(c) This act shall not operate to authorize, confirm, validate, or legalize any act, proceeding, or other matter the legality of which is being contested or inquired into in any legal proceeding now pending and undetermined or which is pending and undetermined during the period of 30 days from and after the effective date of this act, and shall not operate to authorize, confirm, validate, or legalize any act, proceeding, or other matter which has heretofore been determined in any legal proceeding to be illegal, void, or ineffective.

(d) This act shall not operate to authorize, confirm, validate, or legalize a contract between any public body and the United States.

SEC. 8. Any action or proceeding contesting the validity of any action or proceeding heretofore taken under any law, or under color of any law, for the formation, organization, or incorporation of any public body, or for any annexation thereto, exclusion therefrom, or other change of boundaries thereof, or for the consolidation, merger, or dissolution of any public bodies, or for, or in connection with, the authorization, issuance, sale, execution, delivery, or exchange of bonds thereof upon any ground involving any alleged defect or illegality not effectively validated by the prior provisions of this act and not otherwise barred by any statute of limitations or by laches shall be commenced within six months of the effective date of this act; otherwise each and all of such matters shall be held to be valid and in every respect legal and incontestable. This act shall not extend the period in which any action may be brought beyond the period in which it would be barred by any presently existing valid statute of limitations.

SEC. 9. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to render the creation of any city or district, or any change in the boundaries of any city or district, effective for purposes of assessment or taxation unless the statement, together with the map or plat, required to be filed under Sections 54900 to 54904, inclusive, of the Government Code, is filed within the time and substantially in the manner required by those sections.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

To validate the organization, boundaries, acts, proceedings, and bonds of public bodies as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 399

An act to validate the organization, boundaries, acts, proceedings, and bonds of public bodies, and to provide limitations of time within which actions may be commenced.

SEC. 9. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to render the creation of any city or district, or any change in the boundaries of any city or district, effective for purposes of assessment or taxation unless the statement, together with the map or plat, required to be filed under Sections 54900 to 54904, inclusive, of the Government Code, is filed within the time and substantially in the manner required by those sections.

CHAPTER 400

An act to amend Sections 277 and 1387 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 277 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

277. In the absence of a court order determining rights of custody or visitation to a minor child, every person having a right of custody of the child who maliciously takes, detains, conceals, or entices away that child within or without the state, without good cause, and with the intent to deprive the custody right of another person or a public agency also having a custody right to that child, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than one year, a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both, or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years, a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or both.

A subsequently obtained court order for custody or visitation shall not affect the application of this section.

As used in this section, "good cause" means a good faith and reasonable belief that the taking, detaining, concealing, or enticing away of the child is necessary to protect the child from immediate bodily injury or emotional harm. "Good cause" also includes the good faith and reasonable belief by a person with a right of custody of the child who has been the victim of domestic violence by another person with a right of custody of the child, that the child, if left with the other person, will suffer immediate bodily injury or emotional harm. The person who takes, detains, or conceals the child shall file a report with the district attorney's office of his or her action, and shall file a request for custody, within a reasonable time in the jurisdiction where the child had been living, setting forth the basis for the immediate bodily injury or emotional harm to the child. The address of the parent, or a person who has been granted access to the minor child by a court order, who takes, detains, or conceals the child, with good cause, shall remain confidential until released by court order.

As used in this section:

(a) "Domestic violence" means abuse perpetrated against any of the following persons:

(1) A spouse, former spouse, cohabitant, former cohabitant, any other adult person related by consanguinity or affinity within the second degree, or a person with whom the respondent has had a dating or engagement relationship.

(2) A person who is the parent of a child and the presumption applies that the male parent is the father of any child of the female parent pursuant to the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 7 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 4 of the Civil Code).

(b) "Emotional harm" includes having a parent who has committed domestic violence against the parent who is taking and concealing the child.

SEC. 2. Section 1387 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1387. (a) An order terminating an action pursuant to this chapter, or Section 859b, 861, 871, or 995, is a bar to any other prosecution for the same offense if it is a felony or if it is a misdemeanor charged together with a felony and the action has been previously terminated pursuant to this chapter, or Section 859b, 861, 871, or 995, or if it is a misdemeanor not charged together with a felony, except in those felony cases, or those cases where a misdemeanor is charged with a felony, where subsequent to the dismissal of the felony or misdemeanor the judge or magistrate finds any of the following:

(1) That substantial new evidence has been discovered by the prosecution which would not have been known through the exercise of due diligence at, or prior to, the time of termination of the action.

(2) That the termination of the action was the result of the direct intimidation of a material witness, as shown by a preponderance of the evidence.

(3) That the termination of the action was the result of the failure to appear by the complaining witness, who had been personally subpoenaed in a prosecution arising under subdivision (e) of Section 243 or Section 262, 273.5, or 273.6. This paragraph shall apply only within six months of the original dismissal of the action, and may be invoked only once in each action. Nothing in this section shall preclude a defendant from being eligible for diversion.

(b) An order terminating an action is not a bar to prosecution if a complaint is dismissed before the commencement of a preliminary hearing in favor of an indictment filed pursuant to Section 944 and the indictment is based upon the same subject matter as charged in the dismissed complaint, information, or indictment.

However, if the previous termination was pursuant to Section 859b, 861, 871, or 995, the subsequent order terminating an action is not a bar to prosecution if:

(1) Good cause is shown why the preliminary examination was not held within 60 days from the date of arraignment or plea.

(2) The motion pursuant to Section 995 was granted because of any of the following reasons:

(A) Present insanity of the defendant.

(B) A lack of counsel after the defendant elected to represent himself or herself rather than being represented by appointed counsel.

(C) Ineffective assistance of counsel.

(D) Conflict of interest of defense counsel.

(E) Violation of time deadlines based upon unavailability of defense counsel.

(F) Defendant's motion to withdraw a waiver of the preliminary examination.

(3) The motion pursuant to Section 995 was granted after dismissal by the magistrate of the action pursuant to Section 871 and was recharged pursuant to Section 739.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 401

An act to add Article 8.5 (commencing with Section 19580) to Chapter 4 of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 8.5 (commencing with Section 19580) is added to Chapter 4 of Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

Article 8.5. Equine Medication

19580. (a) The board shall adopt regulations to establish policies, guidelines, and penalties relating to equine medication in order to preserve and enhance the integrity of horseracing in the state. Those policies, guidelines, and penalties shall include, at a minimum, the provisions set forth in this article.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that the board, in its testing efforts to determine illegal or excessive use of substances, recognize the greater importance of conducting complete and thorough testing of a lesser number of samples in preference to conducting less thorough testing on a greater number of samples.

19581. No substance of any kind shall be administered by any means to a horse after it has been entered to race in a horserace , unless the board has, by regulation, specifically authorized the use of the substance and the quantity and composition thereof. The board may require that the official veterinarian approve, in writing, the administration of those substances in accordance with the regulations of the board.

19582. A first violation of Section 19581 is punishable by a civil penalty of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000). For any second or subsequent violation of Section 19581, the board shall convene a hearing to determine whether to revoke the license of a person who violates that section.

The penalties provided by this section are in addition to any other civil, criminal, and administrative penalties or sanctions provided by law, and do not supplant, but are cumulative to, other penalties or sanctions.

CHAPTER 402

An act to amend Sections 6596 and 7087 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6596 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6596. (a) If the board finds that a person's failure to make a timely return or payment is due to the person's reasonable reliance on written advice from the board, the person may be relieved of the taxes imposed by Sections 6051 and 6201 and any penalty or interest added thereto.

(b) For the purpose of this section, a person's failure to make a timely return or payment shall be considered to be due to reasonable reliance on written advice from the board, only if the board finds that all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The person requested in writing that the board advise him or her whether a particular activity or transaction is subject to tax under this part. The specific facts and circumstances of the activity or transaction shall be fully described in the request.

(2) The board responded in writing to the person regarding the written request for advice, stating whether or not the described activity or transaction is subject to tax, or stating the conditions under which the activity or transaction is subject to tax.

(3) In reasonable reliance on the board's written advice, the person did not do either of the following:

(A) Charge or collect from his or her customers amounts designated as sales tax reimbursement or use tax for the described activity or transaction.

(B) Pay a use tax on the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of tangible personal property.

(4) The liability for taxes applied to a particular activity or transaction which occurred before either of the following:

(A) Before the board rescinded or modified the advice so given, by sending written notice to the person of the rescinded or modified advice.

(B) Before a change in statutory or constitutional law, a change in the board's regulations, or a final decision of a court, which renders the board's earlier written advice no longer valid.

(c) Any person seeking relief under this section shall file with the board:

(1) A copy of the person's written request to the board and a copy of the board's written advice.

(2) A statement under penalty of perjury setting forth the facts on which the claim for relief is based.

(3) Any other information which the board may require.

(d) Only the person making the written request shall be entitled to rely on the board's written advice to that person.

SEC. 2. Section 7087 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

7087. (a) The total amount of revenue collected or assessed pursuant to this part shall not be used for any of the following:

(1) To evaluate individual officers or employees.

(2) To impose or suggest revenue quotas or goals, other than quotas or goals with respect to accounts receivable.

(b) The board shall certify in its annual report submitted pursuant to Section 15616 of the Government Code that revenue collected or assessed is not used in a manner prohibited by subdivision (a).

(c) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the setting of goals and the evaluation of performance with respect to productivity and the efficient use of time.

CHAPTER 403

An act to amend Section 84305.5 of the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 84305.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

84305.5. (a) No slate mailer organization shall send a slate mailer unless:

(1) The name, street address, and city of the slate mailer organization are shown on the outside of each piece of slate mail and on at least one of the inserts included with each piece of slate mail in no less than 8-point roman type which shall be in a color or print which contrasts with the background so as to be easily legible. A post office box may be stated in lieu of a street address if the organization's street address is a matter of public record with the Secretary of State's Political Reform Division.

(2) At the top or bottom of the front side or surface of at least one insert or at the top or bottom of one side or surface of a postcard or other self-mailer, there is a notice in at least 8-point roman boldface type, which shall be in a color or print which contrasts with the background so as to be easily legible, and in a printed or drawn box and set apart from any other printed matter. The notice shall consist of the following statement:

> NOTICE TO VOTERS
> THIS DOCUMENT WAS PREPARED BY (name of slate mailer organization), NOT AN OFFICIAL POLITICAL PARTY ORGANIZATION. Appearance in this mailer does not necessarily imply endorsement of others in this mailer. Appearance is paid for and authorized by each candidate and ballot measure which is designated by an *.

(3) The name, street address, and city of the slate mailer organization as required by paragraph (1) and the notice required by paragraph (2) may appear on the same side or surface of an insert.

(4) Each candidate and each ballot measure which has paid to appear in the slate mailer is designated by an *. Any candidate or ballot measure which has not paid to appear in the slate mailer is not designated by an *.

The * required by this subdivision shall be of the same type size, type style, color or contrast, and legibility as is used for the name of the candidate or the ballot measure name or number and position advocated to which the * designation applies except that in no case shall the * be required to be larger than 10-point boldface type. The designation shall immediately follow the name of the candidate, or the name or number and position advocated on the ballot measure where the designation appears in the slate of candidates and measures. If there is no slate listing, the designation shall appear at least once in at least 8-point boldface type, immediately following the name of the candidate, or the name or number and position advocated on the ballot measure.

(5) The name of any candidate appearing in the slate mailer who is a member of a political party differing from the political party which the mailer appears by representation or indicia to represent is accompanied, immediately below the name, by the party designation of the candidate, in no less than 9-point roman type which shall be in a color or print which contrasts with the background so as to be easily legible. The designation shall not be required in the case of candidates for nonpartisan office.

(b) For purposes of the designations required by paragraph (4) of subdivision (a), the payment of any sum made reportable by the provisions of subdivision (c) of Section 84219 by or at the behest of a candidate or committee, whose name or position appears in the mailer, to the slate mailer organization, shall constitute a payment to appear, requiring the * designation. Such payment shall also be deemed to constitute authorization to appear in the mailer.

(c) A slate mailer which complies with the requirements of this section shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of Sections 11703 and 11704 of the Elections Code.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 404

An act to amend Section 20009.1 of, and to add Section 20009.13 to, the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20009.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20009.1. "Public agency" also includes the following:

(a) The Commandant, Veterans Home of California, with respect to employees of the post exchange and other post fund activities whose compensation is paid from the post fund of the Veterans Home of California.

(b) Any auxiliary organization operating pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 89900) of Part 55 of the Education Code and in conformity with regulations adopted by the Trustees of the California State University and any auxiliary organization operating pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 72670) of Chapter 6 of Part 45 of the Education Code and in conformity with regulations adopted by the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges.

(c) Any student body or nonprofit organization composed exclusively of students of the California State University or community college or of members of the faculty of the California State University or community college, or both, and established for the purpose of providing essential activities related to, but not normally included as a part of, the regular instructional program of the California State University or community college.

(d) A state organization of governing boards of school districts, the primary purpose of which is the advancing of public education through research and investigation.

(e) Any nonprofit corporation whose membership is confined to public agencies as defined in Section 20009.

(f) A section of the California Interscholastic Federation.

(g) Any credit union incorporated under Division 5 (commencing with Section 14000) of the Financial Code, or incorporated pursuant to federal law, with 95 percent of its membership limited to employees who are members of or retired members of the Public Employees' Retirement System or the State Teachers' Retirement System, and their immediate families, and employees of any such credit union. For the purposes of this subdivision, "immediate family" means those persons related by blood or marriage who reside in the household of a member of the credit union who is a member of or retired member of the Public Employees' Retirement System or the State Teachers' Retirement System. The credit union shall pay any costs that are in addition to the normal charges required to enter into a contract with the board. All such payments made by the credit union which are in addition to the normal charges required shall be added to the total amount appropriated by the Budget Act for the administrative expense of the system. For purposes of this subdivision, a credit union shall not be deemed to be a public agency unless it has entered into a contract with the board pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 20450) of this part prior to January 1, 1988. After January 1, 1988, the board shall not enter into a contract with any credit union as a public agency.

(h) Any county superintendent of schools which was a contracting agency on July 1, 1983, and any school district or community college district which was a contracting agency with respect to local policemen, as defined in Section 20020.8, on July 1, 1983.

(i) Any school district or community college district which has established a police department, pursuant to Section 39670 or 72330 of the Education Code, and has entered into a contract with the board on or after January 1, 1990, for school safety members, as defined in Section 20019.6.

SEC. 2. Section 20009.13 is added to the Government Code, to read:

20009.13. A nonprofit corporation or association conducting an agricultural fair pursuant to Section 25905 may enter into a contract with the board for the participation of its employees as members of the system, upon obtaining a written advisory opinion from the United States Department of Labor that the participation of the officers and employees of the nonprofit corporation or association in the system would not affect the system exemption as a governmental plan under the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. The nonprofit corporation or association shall be deemed a "public agency" only for that purpose.

CHAPTER 405

An act to amend Section 4670 of, and to add Sections 4671 and 4672 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to for-hire vessels.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4670 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

4670. Following an administrative hearing, the commission may impose a penalty of not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) upon any for-hire vessel owner or operator who violates any provision of this article or who fails to obey, observe, or comply with any rule established by the commission pursuant to Section 4668. For purposes of this section, Section 4671, and Section 4672, "owner" means the corporation or person who is registered as the owner of the vessel or who has a legal right to operate the vessel pursuant to a lease or rental agreement. For purposes of this section, Section 4671, and Section 4672, "operator" means the "for-hire vessel operator" as defined in Section 4660.

SEC. 2. Section 4671 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

4671. (a) Upon filing of the evidence of liability protection pursuant to Section 4663, the commission shall provide a certificate of filing to the for-hire vessel owner or operator. The certificate shall be no larger than 8½ by 11 inches in size. The for-hire vessel owner or operator shall post the certificate of filing on the vessel in a prominent location which is visible to the passengers.

(b) No certificate that has been canceled, suspended, or revoked, or that is not valid shall be posted on a vessel.

SEC. 3. Section 4672 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

4672. Upon receiving notification of impending cancellation of liability protection pertaining to a for-hire vessel owner or operator, the commission shall, effective upon the date of the cancellation, revoke the certificate provided to the owner or operator pursuant to Section 4671 and shall notify the owner or operator of this revocation. The owner or operator shall return the revoked certificate to the commission.

CHAPTER 406

An act to amend Section 1717.5 of the Civil Code, relating to contracts.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1717.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1717.5. Except as otherwise provided by law or where waived by the parties to an agreement, in any action on a contract based on a book account, as defined in Section 337a of the Code of Civil Procedure, entered into on or after January 1, 1987, which does not provide for attorney's fees and costs as provided in Section 1717, the party who is determined to be the party prevailing on the contract shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees in addition to other costs.

Reasonable attorney's fees awarded pursuant to this section shall be fixed by the court in an amount that shall not exceed the lesser of six hundred sixty dollars ($660) or 25 percent of the principal obligation owing under the contract. If a party is found to have no obligation owing on a book account, the court shall award that party reasonable attorney's fees not to exceed six hundred sixty dollars ($660). These attorney's fees shall be an element of the costs of the suit.

If there is a written agreement between the parties signed by the person to be charged, the fees provided by this section shall not be imposed unless that agreement contains a statement that the prevailing party in any action between the parties is entitled to the fees provided by this section.

This section does not apply to any action in which an insurance company is a party, nor shall an insurance company, surety, or guarantor be liable under this section, in the absence of a specific contractual provision, for the attorney's fees and costs awarded a prevailing party against its insured.

This section does not apply to any action in which a bank, a savings association, a federal association, or a state or federal credit union, or a subsidiary, affiliate, or holding company of any of those entities, is a party.

CHAPTER 407

An act to add Section 110 to, and to add Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 500) to Division 1 of, the Water Code, relating to water service.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 110 is added to the Water Code, to read:

110. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, every water purveyor who sells, leases, rents, furnishes, or delivers water service to any person shall require, as a condition of new water service on and after January 1, 1992, that a suitable water meter to measure the water service shall be installed on the water service facilities in accordance with Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 500). The cost of installation of the meter shall be paid by the user of the water, and any water purveyor may impose and collect charges for those costs.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), "water purveyor," "person," "water service," and "water meter" have the same meaning as defined in Article 2 (commencing with Section 510) of Chapter 8.

(c) Subdivision (a) applies only to potable water.

(d) Subdivision (a) does not apply to a community water system which serves less than 15 service connections used by yearlong residents or regularly serves less than 25 yearlong residents, or a single well which services the water supply of a single family residential home.

SEC. 2. Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 500) is added to Division 1 of the Water Code, to read:

CHAPTER 8. WATER MEASUREMENT

Article 1. Short Title

500. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Water Measurement Law.

Article 2. Definitions

510. Unless the context otherwise requires, the provisions of this article govern the construction of this chapter.

511. The definition of a word applies to any of its variants.

512. "Water purveyor" means any person who furnishes water service to another person.

513. "Person" means any individual, firm, association, partnership, corporation, or public entity of any kind.

514. "Public entity" includes a city, county, city and county, whether general law or chartered, a district, board, commission, bureau, authority, agency, department, division, section, any other political subdivision of the state of any kind, or the state.

515. "Water service" means the sale, lease, rental, furnishing, or delivery of water for beneficial use, and includes, but is not limited to, contracting for that sale, lease, rental, furnishing, or delivery of water, except bottled water.

516. "Water meter" includes any suitable water measuring device or facility which measures or determines the volumetric flow of water.

Article 3. Declaration of Policy

520. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that, pursuant to the primary interest of the people of the state to put the limited available supplies of water in this state to beneficial use to the fullest extent of which they are capable, and to prevent waste, unreasonable use, or unreasonable method of use, it is necessary to determine the quantities of water in use throughout the state to the maximum extent that is reasonable to do so.

521. The Legislature further finds and declares that water furnished or used without any method of determination of the quantities of water used by the person to whom the water is furnished has caused, and will continue to cause, waste and unreasonable use of water, and that this waste and unreasonable use should be identified, isolated, and eliminated.

522. The Legislature further finds and declares that waste or unreasonable use of water imposes unnecessary and wasteful consumption of energy to deliver or furnish the water, and it is necessary, therefore, to determine the quantities of water in use throughout the state to the maximum extent that it is reasonable to do so in order to reduce that energy consumption.

523. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the California goal for measurement of water use is the achievement by January 1, 1992, of the installation of water meters on all new water service connections after that date to systems and facilities owned, operated, or under the management or control of a water purveyor, which meters will measure the quantity of water furnished or delivered through each system or facility to each new user of the water.

Article 4. Standards

530. Domestic cold water meters shall be in compliance with relevant standards of the American Water Works Association and shall be of the type approved by the Director of Food and Agriculture pursuant to Section 12500.5 of the Business and Professions Code.

CHAPTER 408

An act to amend Section 4715 of the Public Resources Code, relating to forests.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4715 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

4715. The department, in accordance with policy established by the board, may enter into agreements with any owner and with any agency of government, including the federal government, for the purpose of controlling or eradicating forest insects or plant diseases damaging or threatening destruction to timber or forest growth, and it may make expenditures for that purpose.

CHAPTER 409

An act to amend Sections 1909, 35565, 39670, and 72330 of the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1909 of the Education Code is amended to read:

1909. From funds appropriated for allocation pursuant to Sections 2558 and 41841.5, for each county superintendent of schools who maintained schools or classes for prisoners in the 1981–82 fiscal year pursuant to Section 1906, and who continues to maintain those schools or classes in each fiscal year thereafter, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall allow in the 1982–83 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, an amount equal to the actual current expenses of the programs, but not to exceed an amount determined as follows:

(a) Compute the prior year statewide average revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for adults, increased by the amount specified in Section 52616 for the current fiscal year.

(b) Multiply the amount computed in paragraph (1) by the average daily attendance of the schools or classes in the current fiscal year.

(c) Multiply the product determined in subdivision (b) for each fiscal year by 0.8.

SEC. 2. Section 35565 of the Education Code is amended to read:

35565. If a dispute arises between the governing boards of the districts concerning the division of funds, property, or obligations, a board of arbitrators shall be appointed which shall resolve the dispute. The board shall consist of one person selected by each district from which territory is withdrawn pursuant to a reorganization action under this chapter, one person selected by each district of which territory has become a part pursuant to that reorganization action, and either one or two persons, such that the board of arbitrators contains an odd number of persons, appointed by the county superintendent of schools of the county in which the districts are located. The districts involved may mutually agree that a person appointed as arbitrator by the county superintendent of schools may act as sole arbitrator of the matters to be submitted to arbitration. The necessary expenses and compensation of the arbitrators shall be divided equally between the districts, and the payment of the portion of the expenses is a legal charge against the funds of the school districts. The arbitrator or arbitrators shall make a written finding on the matter submitted to arbitration. The written finding and determination of a majority of the board of arbitrators is final and binding upon the school districts submitting the question to the board of arbitration.

SEC. 3. Section 39670 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39670. (a) The governing board of any school district may establish a security department under the supervision of a chief of security or a police department under the supervision of a chief of police, as designated by, and under the direction of, the superintendent of the school district and, in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 45100) of Part 25, may employ personnel as necessary to ensure the safety of school district personnel and pupils and the security of the real and personal property of the school district. It is the intention of the Legislature in enacting this section that a school district police or security department shall be supplementary to city and county law enforcement agencies and shall under no circumstances be vested with general police powers.

(b) The governing board of a school district that establishes a security department or a police department shall set minimum qualifications of employment for the chief of security or chief of police, respectively, including, but not limited to, prior employment as a peace officer or completion of any peace officer training course approved by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training. A chief of security or chief of police shall be required to comply with the prior employment or training requirement set forth in this subdivision as of January 1, 1993, or a date one year subsequent to the initial employment of the chief of security or chief of police by the school district, whichever occurs later. This subdivision shall not be construed to require the employment by a school district of any additional personnel.

SEC. 4. Section 72330 of the Education Code is amended to read:

72330. (a) The governing board of a community college district may establish a community college police department under the supervision of a community college chief of police and, in accordance with Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 88000) of Part 51, may employ personnel as necessary to enforce the law on or near the campus of the community college and on or near other grounds or properties owned, operated, controlled, or administered by the community college or by the state acting on behalf of the community college. Each campus of a multicampus community college district may designate a chief of police.

(b) Persons employed and compensated as members of a community college police department, when so appointed and duly sworn, are peace officers as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code.

(c) The governing board of a community college district that establishes a community college police department shall set minimum qualifications of employment for the community college chief of police, including, but not limited to, prior employment as a peace officer or completion of any peace officer training course approved by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training. A chief of security or chief of police shall be required to comply with the prior employment or training requirement set forth in this subdivision as of January 1, 1993, or a date one year subsequent to the initial employment of the chief of security or chief of police by the community college district, whichever occurs later. This subdivision shall not be construed to require the employment by a community college district of any additional personnel.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 4602, 4607, 4607.2, and 4608.1 of the Civil Code, relating to family law.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4602 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4602. In any proceeding under this part, when so directed by the court, the probation officer, domestic relations investigator, or court appointed evaluator shall conduct a custody investigation and file a written confidential report on it. The report may be considered by the court and shall be made available only to the parties or their attorneys at least 10 days before any hearing regarding the custody of a child. The report may be received in evidence upon stipulation of all interested parties.

Where there has been a history of domestic violence between the parties, as domestic violence is defined in subdivision (b) of Section 542 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or where an order is in effect pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 4359, Section 4516, or paragraph (1) or (2) or subdivision (a) of Section 7020 of this code, or Section 546 of the Code of Civil Procedure, at the request of a party alleging domestic violence in a written declaration under penalty of perjury or at the request of a party who is protected by the order, the parties shall meet with the probation officer, domestic relations investigator, or court appointed evaluator separately at separate times.

When the probation officer, domestic relations investigator, or court appointed evaluator is directed by the court to conduct a custody investigation or to undertake visitation work, including necessary evaluation, supervision, and reporting, the court shall make inquiry into the financial condition of the parent, guardian, or such other person charged with the support and maintenance of the minor, and if the court finds the parent, guardian, or other person able, in whole or in part, to pay the expense of the investigation, report, and recommendation, the court may make an order requiring that parent, guardian, or other person to repay to the county that part, or all, of the expense of investigation, report, and recommendation as, in the opinion of the court, is proper. The repayment shall be made to the county officer designated by the board of supervisors, who shall keep suitable accounts of these expenses and repayments and shall deposit these collections in the county treasury.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit the probation officer, domestic relations investigator, or court appointed evaluator from recommending to the court that counsel be appointed pursuant to Section 4606 to represent the minor child or children. In making any recommendation, the probation officer, domestic relations investigator, or court appointed evaluator shall inform the court of the reasons why it would be in the best interests of the minor child or children to have counsel appointed.

SEC. 2. Section 4607 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4607. (a) In any proceeding where there is at issue the custody of or visitation with a minor child, and where it appears on the face of the petition or other application for an order or modification of an order for the custody or visitation of a child or children that either or both such issues are contested, as provided in Section 4600, 4600.1, or 4601, the matter shall be set for mediation of the contested issues prior to or concurrent with the setting of the matter for hearing. Upon the adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors authorizing the procedure, a petition also may be filed pursuant to this section for the mediation of a dispute relating to any existing order for custody or visitation; the mediation of a dispute concerning an existing order shall be set not later than 60 days after the filing of the petition. The purpose of the mediation proceeding shall be to reduce acrimony which may exist between the parties and to develop an agreement, assuring the child or children close and continuing contact with both parents that is in the best interests of the child or children. The mediator shall use his or her best efforts to effect a settlement of the custody or visitation dispute that is in the best interests of the child or children, consistent with the considerations required by Section 4608. Mediation shall not be denied to the parties on the basis that paternity is an issue in a proceeding before the court.

(b) Each superior court shall make available a mediator. The mediator may be a member of the professional staff of a family conciliation court, probation department, or mental health services agency, or may be any other person or agency designated by the court. In order to provide mediation services, the court shall not be required to institute a family conciliation court. The mediator shall meet the minimum qualifications required of a counselor of conciliation as provided in Section 1745 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) Mediation proceedings shall be held in private and shall be confidential, and all communications, verbal or written, from the parties to the mediator made in a proceeding pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be official information within the meaning of Section 1040 of the Evidence Code.

(d) The mediator shall have the authority to exclude counsel from participation in the mediation proceedings where, in the discretion of the mediator, exclusion of counsel is deemed by the mediator to be appropriate or necessary. The mediator shall have the duty to assess the needs and interests of the child or children involved in the controversy and shall be entitled to interview the child or children when the mediator deems the interview appropriate or necessary. The mediator shall have the authority to meet with the parties separately when a request for separate mediation is made by one of the parties in any proceeding where there has been a history of domestic violence between the parties, as domestic violence is defined in subdivision (b) of Section 542 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(e) The mediator may, consistent with local rules, render a recommendation to the court as to the custody or visitation of the child or children. The mediator may, in cases where the parties have not reached agreement as a result of the mediation proceeding, recommend to the court that an investigation be conducted pursuant to Section 4602, or that other action be taken to assist the parties to effect a resolution of the controversy prior to any hearing on the issues. The mediator may, in appropriate cases, recommend that restraining orders be issued, pending determination of the controversy, to protect the well-being of the children involved in the controversy. Any agreement reached by the parties as a result of mediation shall be reported to counsel for the parties by the mediator on the day set for mediation or as soon thereafter as practical, but prior to its being reported to the court. The agreement shall be limited to the resolution of issues relating to parenting plans, custody, or visitation, or any combination thereof. No agreement shall be confirmed or otherwise incorporated in an order of the court unless each party, in person or by his or her counsel of record, has affirmed and assented to the agreement in open court or by written stipulation. An agreement also may be so confirmed or incorporated if a party fails to appear at a noticed hearing on the issue involved in the agreement. All such custody or visitation agreements may be modified at any time at the discretion of the court, subject to Sections 4600, 4600.5, and 4601.

(f) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the mediator from recommending to the court that counsel be appointed pursuant to Section 4606 to represent the minor child or children. In making any recommendation, the mediator shall inform the court of the reasons why it would be in the best interests of the minor child or children to have counsel appointed.

(g) Courts shall develop local rules to respond to requests for a change of mediators or to general problems relating to mediation.

SEC. 3. Section 4607.2 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4607.2. (a) Notwithstanding Section 4607, in any proceeding in which mediation is required pursuant to Section 4607, where there has been a history of domestic violence between the parties, as domestic violence is defined in subdivision (b) of Section 542 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or where an order is in effect pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 4359, Section 4516, or paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 7020 of this code, or Section 546 of the Code of Civil Procedure, at the request of the party alleging domestic violence or protected by the order the parties shall meet with the mediator appointed pursuant to Section 4607 separately at separate times.

(b) Any intake form that an agency charged with providing family court services may require the parties to complete prior to the commencement of mediation shall include a provision which indicates that at the request of a party alleging domestic violence in a written declaration under penalty of perjury or at the request of a party who is protected by the order, the parties shall meet with the mediator appointed pursuant to Section 4607 separately at separate times.

SEC. 4. Section 4608.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4608.1. (a) In any proceeding under this part where custody of, or visitation with, a minor child is at issue, the court may require the parents of the child who are involved in the custody or visitation dispute, and the minor child to participate in outpatient counseling with a licensed mental health professional, or through other community programs and services that provide appropriate counseling, including, but not limited to, mental health or substance abuse services, for not more than six months if the court finds that the dispute between the parents or between a parent and the child poses a substantial danger to the best interests of the child and that the counseling is in the best interests of the minor child. The court shall fix the cost and shall order the entire cost of the services to be borne by the parties in the proportion as the court deems reasonable. The court, in its finding, shall set forth reasons why it has found the dispute poses a substantial danger to the best interests of the child and the counseling is in the best interest of the minor child, and that the financial burden created by the court order for counseling does not otherwise jeopardize a party's other financial obligations. The court shall not order the parties to return to court upon the completion of counseling. Either party may file a new order to show cause or motion after counseling has been completed, and the court may again order counseling consistent with this section.

The counseling shall be specifically designed to facilitate communication between the parties regarding their minor child's best interest, to reduce conflict regarding visitation or custody, and to improve the quality of parenting skills of each parent.

(b) In any proceeding in which counseling is ordered pursuant to subdivision (a), where there has been a history of domestic violence between the parties, as domestic violence is defined in subdivision (b) of Section 542 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or where an order is in effect pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 4359, Section 4516, or paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 7020, or Section 546 of the Code of Civil Procedure, at the request of a party alleging domestic violence in a written declaration under penalty of perjury or at the request of a party who is protected by the order, the parties shall meet with the mental health professional, or attend other community programs or services, separately at separate times.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to repeal Section 11205 of, to add and repeal Section 11205 of, and to add Section 11205 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11205 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1091 of the Statutes of 1990, is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 11205 of the Vehicle Code, as added by Section 3 of Chapter 1091 of the Statutes of 1990, is repealed.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this bill to regulate the naming of licensed traffic violator schools to prevent the use of names which are undesirable from a public safety perspective and are devised only to attract students.

The Department of Motor Vehicles regulates all traffic violator schools, but has not established guidelines for the naming of those schools. In the absence of guidelines for the naming of licensed traffic violator schools, many schools have adopted names that are undignified to the point of fostering a negative image, undermining the intent of the traffic safety training program, and constituting an embarrassment to the members of the public, judges, the courts, and the traffic school industry. This act is intended to eliminate the abusive practice of the use of inappropriate traffic school names.

This act defines the responsibilities of the department with respect to what is required to be included on the court referral list and traffic school owners' list, and how frequently those lists are to be printed and distributed.

SEC. 4. Section 11205 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

11205. (a) The department shall publish a traffic violator school referral list of all the approved locations of traffic violator school classes, by school name, to be transmitted to each municipal and justice court in the state in sufficient quantity to allow the courts to provide a copy to each person referred to traffic violator school. The list shall be revised at least twice annually and transmitted to the courts by the first day of January and the first day of July. It shall include all of the following:

(1) The name of each traffic violator school or, pursuant to subdivision (d), the general term "traffic violator school" followed by its traffic violator school license number.

(2) A phone number used for student information.

(3) The county and the judicial district.

(4) The cities where classes are available.

(b) Each traffic violator school owner shall be permitted one school name in a judicial district.

(c) The list shall be organized alphabetically in sections for each county and subsections for each judicial district within the county. The order of the names within each judicial district shall be random pursuant to a drawing or lottery conducted by the department.

(d) On the list prepared by the department under subdivision (c), each traffic violator school shall appear by name unless a court determines, pursuant to subdivision (e), that a name is inappropriate and directs the department to delete the name and instead list the school by the term "traffic violator school" followed by its license number. The deletion of the name of a school from the list for a judicial district shall not affect whether that school appears by name on the list for any other judicial district within the state. In making a determination under this subdivision regarding the deletion of a name from the list, the court shall use as its criteria whether the name is misleading to the public, undignified, or implies that the school offers inducements or premiums which derogate or distort the instructional intent of the traffic safety program.

(e) When the department transmits any referral list to each municipal and justice court pursuant to subdivision (a), each municipal and justice court shall do all of the following:

(1) Within 30 days of receipt of the list, notify the school owner of any school name that the court intends to remove from the referral list.

(2) Within 60 days of receipt of the list, make every effort to schedule, conduct, and complete a hearing for the school owner, or a representative, if requested, at which the sole issue shall be whether the name violates the standards set forth in subdivision (d). A substitute name may be submitted to the court at the conclusion of the hearing, pursuant to subdivision (h).

(3) Within 10 days of the completion of that hearing, notify the department and school owner of any school names it intends to remove from the referral list.

(f) In order for a court action to delete a school name from the next referral list published by the department, the department shall receive court notification no later than 90 days prior to publication of the next referral list and, absent a direct order by a superior court or court of higher jurisdiction, the department shall not fail to publish a referral list on the grounds that there exists pending litigation or appeals concerning the lists.

(h) When a court informs a school owner, pursuant to subdivision (e), of its decision to delete the name of a traffic violator school from that judicial district's subsection of the department's traffic violator school referral list, the owner may, on a form approved by the department, submit a substitute name to the court and request approval of that name. The court shall, within 30 days of receipt of the request for approval of the substitute name, inform the department and the school owner, on a form approved by the department, of its approval or rejection of the substitute name. The school owner may continue this appeal process for approval of a substitute name until the court determines that the name does not violate the standard set forth in subdivision (d). A name approval in a judicial district shall not affect the school's name or listing in any other district in the state. The department shall not impose any fee or license requirement under this subdivision.

(i) If a court fails to act within 30 days on a request of a traffic violator school owner, pursuant to subdivision (h), the proposed substitute name shall be deemed approved by the court for the purposes of the traffic violator school referral list.

(j) (1) Every application filed with the department on and after June 1, 1991, for an original license by a traffic school owner or for approval to conduct classes in a judicial district not previously approved, shall be accompanied by the approval of the court in each judicial district proposed for those operations of the name of the school, on a form approved by the department for that purpose. For the approved name to be included in the traffic violator school referral list, the form shall be received by the department no later than 90 days prior to publication.

(2) When a court disapproves a school name pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall notify the school owner within 30 days of its disapproval and schedule a hearing for that school owner, or a representative, if requested, at which the sole issue shall be whether the name violates the standards set forth in subdivision (d). A substitute name may be submitted to the court at the conclusion of the hearing, pursuant to subdivision (h).

(3) The court shall make every effort to schedule, conduct, and complete a hearing within 60 days of receipt of the school owner's request for a school name approval. A name approval in a judicial district shall not affect the school's name or listing in any other district in the state. A change in physical location by a school within a judicial district shall not require approval pursuant to this subdivision.

(k) The department shall publish a list of the owners of traffic violator schools. One copy shall be provided to each municipal and justice court in the state. This list shall be revised at least twice annually and transmitted to the courts by the first day of January and the first day of July. This list shall include all of the following:

(1) The name of each school, grouped by owner.

(2) The business office address.

(3) The business office telephone number.

(4) The license number.

(5) The owner's name.

(6) The operator's name.

(l) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (d) of Section 42005, the court shall use either the current list of traffic violator schools published by the department when it orders a person to attend a traffic violator school pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 42005 or, when a court utilizing a nonprofit agency for traffic violator school administration and monitoring services in which all traffic violator schools licensed by the department are allowed the opportunity to participate, a statewide referral list may be published by the nonprofit agency and distributed by the court. The agency shall monitor each classroom location represented on its referral list at least once every 90 days with reports forwarded to the department and the respective courts on a monthly basis.

(m) If any provision of subdivision (d) or (e), as added by Section 4 of Assembly Bill 185 of the 1991–92 Regular Session, or the application thereof to any person, is held to be unconstitutional, this section is repealed on the date the decision of the court so holding becomes final.

SEC. 5. Section 11205 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

11205. (a) The department shall publish semiannually, or more often as necessary to serve the purposes of this act, a list of all traffic violator schools which are licensed pursuant to this section. The list shall identify classroom facilities within a judicial district that are at a different location from a licensed school's principal facility. The department shall transmit the list to each municipal and justice court with a sufficient number of copies to allow the courts to provide one copy to each person referred to a licensed traffic violator school. The department shall, at least semiannually, revise the list to ensure that each court has a current list of all licensed traffic violator schools.

(b) Each licensed traffic violator school owner shall be permitted one school name per judicial district.

(c) The referral list shall be organized alphabetically, in sections for each county, and contain subsections for each judicial district within the county. The order of the names within each judicial district shall be random pursuant to a drawing or lottery conducted by the department.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (d) of Section 42005, the court shall use either the current referral list of traffic violator schools published by the department when it orders a person to attend a traffic violator school pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 42005 or, when a court utilizing a nonprofit agency for traffic violator school administration and monitoring services in which all traffic violator schools licensed by the department are allowed the opportunity to participate, a statewide referral list may be published by the nonprofit agency and distributed by the court. The agency shall monitor each classroom location represented on its referral list at least once every 90 days with reports forwarded to the department and the respective courts on a monthly basis.

(e) If any provision of subdivision (d) or (e) of Section 11205, as added by Section 4 of Assembly Bill 185 of the 1991–92 Regular Session, or the application thereof to any person, is held to be unconstitutional, that Section 11205 is repealed on the date the decision of the court so holding becomes final, and on that date, this section shall become operative.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) and any other provisions of law. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to protect the motoring public and enhance the effectiveness of traffic violator schools at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 412

An act to amend Sections 1365, 1366, and 1368 of the Civil Code, relating to common interest developments.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1365 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1365. Unless the declaration imposes more stringent standards, the association shall prepare and distribute to all its members the following documents:

(a) A pro forma operating budget, which shall include all of the following:

(1) The estimated revenue and expenses on an accrual basis.

(2) A summary of the association's reserves based upon the most recent review or study conducted pursuant to Section 1365.5, which shall be printed in bold type and include all of the following:

(A) The current estimated replacement cost, estimated remaining life, and estimated useful life of each major component.

(B) As of the end of the fiscal year for which the study is prepared:

(i) The current estimate of the amount of cash reserves necessary to repair, replace, restore, or maintain the major components.

(ii) The current amount of accumulated cash reserves actually set aside to repair, replace, restore, or maintain major components.

(C) The percentage that the amount determined for purposes of clause (ii) of subparagraph (B) is of the amount determined for purposes of clause (i) of subparagraph (B).

(3) A statement as to whether the board of directors of the association has determined or anticipates that the levy of one or more special assessments will be required to repair, replace, or restore any major component or to provide adequate reserves therefor.

(4) A general statement addressing the procedures used for the calculation and establishment of those reserves to defray the future repair, replacement, or additions to those major components that the association is obligated to maintain.

The summary of the association's reserves disclosed pursuant to paragraph (2) shall not be admissible in evidence to show improper financial management of an association, provided that other relevant and competent evidence of the financial condition of the association is not made inadmissible by this provision.

A copy of the operating budget shall be annually distributed not less than 45 days nor more than 60 days prior to the beginning of the association's fiscal year.

(b) A review of the financial statement of the association shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles by a licensee of the California State Board of Accountancy for any fiscal year in which the gross income to the association exceeds seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000). A copy of the review of the financial statement shall be distributed within 120 days after the close of each fiscal year.

(c) In lieu of the distribution of the pro forma operating budget required by subdivision (a), the board of directors may elect to distribute a summary of the pro forma operating budget to all its members with a written notice that the pro forma operating budget is available at the business office of the association or at another suitable location within the boundaries of the development and that copies will be provided upon request and at the expense of the association. If any member requests that a copy of the pro forma operating budget required by subdivision (a) be mailed to the member, the association shall provide the copy to the member by first-class United States mail at the expense of the association and delivered within five days. The written notice that is distributed to each of the association members shall be in at least 10-point bold type on the front page of the summary of the budget.

(d) A statement describing the association's policies and practices in enforcing lien rights or other legal remedies for default in payment of its assessments against its members shall be annually delivered to the members during the 60-day period immediately preceding the beginning of the association's fiscal year.

SEC. 2. Section 1366 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1366. (a) Except as provided in this section, the association shall levy regular and special assessments sufficient to perform its obligations under the governing documents and this title. However, annual increases in regular assessments for any fiscal year, as authorized by subdivision (b), shall not be imposed unless the board has complied with subdivision (a) of Section 1365 with respect to that fiscal year, or has obtained the approval of owners, constituting a quorum, casting a majority of the votes at a meeting or election of the association conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 7510) of Part 3 of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code and Section 7613 of the Corporations Code. For the purposes of this section, "quorum" means more than 50 percent of the owners of an association.

(b) Notwithstanding more restrictive limitations placed on the board by the governing documents, the board of directors may not impose a regular assessment that is more than 20 percent greater than the regular assessment for the association's preceding fiscal year or impose special assessments which in the aggregate exceed 5 percent of the budgeted gross expenses of the association for that fiscal year without the approval of owners, constituting a quorum, casting a majority of the votes at a meeting or election of the association conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 7510) of Part 3 of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code and Section 7613 of the Corporations Code. For the purposes of this section, quorum means more than 50 percent of the owners of an association. This section does not limit assessment increases necessary for emergency situations. For purposes of this section, an emergency situation is any one of the following:

(1) An extraordinary expense required by an order of a court.

(2) An extraordinary expense necessary to repair or maintain the common interest development or any part of it for which the association is responsible where a threat to personal safety on the property is discovered.

(3) An extraordinary expense necessary to repair or maintain the common interest development or any part of it for which the association is responsible that could not have been reasonably foreseen by the board in preparing and distributing the pro forma operating budget under Section 1365. However, prior to the imposition or collection of an assessment under this subdivision, the board shall pass a resolution containing written findings as to the necessity of the extraordinary expense involved and why the expense was not or could not have been reasonably foreseen in the budgeting process, and the resolution shall be distributed to the members with the notice of assessment.

(c) The association shall provide notice by first-class mail to the owners of the separate interests of any increase in the regular or special assessments of the association, not less than 30 nor more than 60 days prior to the increased assessment becoming due.

(d) Regular and special assessments levied pursuant to the governing documents are delinquent 15 days after they become due. If an assessment is delinquent the association may recover all of the following:

(1) Reasonable costs incurred in collecting the delinquent assessment, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) A late charge not exceeding 10 percent of the delinquent assessment or ten dollars ($10), whichever is greater, unless the declaration specifies a late charge in a smaller amount, in which case any late charge imposed shall not exceed the amount specified in the declaration.

(3) Interest on all sums imposed in accordance with this section, including the delinquent assessment, reasonable costs of collection, and late charges, at an annual percentage rate not to exceed 12 percent interest, commencing 30 days after the assessment becomes due.

(e) Associations are hereby exempted from interest-rate limitations imposed by Article XV of the California Constitution, subject to the limitations of this section.

SEC. 3. Section 1368 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1368. (a) The owner of a separate interest, other than an owner subject to the requirements of Section 11018.6 of the Business and Professions Code, shall, as soon as practicable before transfer of title to the separate interest or execution of a real property sales contract therefor, as defined in Section 2985, provide the following to the prospective purchaser:

(1) A copy of the governing documents of the common interest development.

(2) If there is a restriction in the governing documents limiting the occupancy, residency, or use of a separate interest on the basis of age in a manner different from that provided in Section 51.3, a statement that the restriction is only enforceable to the extent permitted by Section 51.3 and a statement specifying the applicable provisions of Section 51.3.

(3) A copy of the most recent financial statement distributed pursuant to Section 1365.

(4) A true statement in writing from an authorized representative of the association as to the amount of the association's current regular and special assessments and fees, as well as any assessments levied upon the owner's interest in the common interest development which are unpaid on the date of the statement. The statement shall also include true information on late charges, interest, and costs of collection which, as of the date of the statement, are or may be made a lien upon the owner's interest in a common interest development pursuant to Section 1367.

(b) Upon written request, an association shall, within 10 days of the mailing or delivery of the request, provide the owner of a separate interest with a copy of the requested items specified in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), and (4) of subdivision (a). The association may charge a fee for this service, which shall not exceed the association's reasonable cost to prepare and reproduce the requested items.

(c) An association shall not impose or collect any assessment, penalty, or fee in connection with a transfer of title or any other interest except the association's actual costs to change its records and that authorized by subdivision (b).

(d) Any person or entity who willfully violates this section shall be liable to the purchaser of a separate interest which is subject to this section for actual damages occasioned thereby and, in addition, shall pay a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500). In an action to enforce this liability, the prevailing party shall be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees.

(e) Nothing in this section affects the validity of title to real property transferred in violation of this section.

(f) In addition to the requirements of this section, an owner transferring title to a separate interest shall comply with applicable requirements of Sections 1133 and 1134.

CHAPTER 413

An act to amend Sections 3412, 3413, and 3611 of the Probate Code, relating to estates.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3412 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3412. If the minor has a guardian of the estate and the sole asset of the guardianship estate is money, the court may order that the guardianship of the estate be terminated and, if the court so orders, the court in its discretion shall also order any one or more of the following:

(a) That the money be deposited with the county treasurer, provided that (1) the county treasurer has been authorized by the county board of supervisors to handle the deposits, (2) the county treasurer shall receive and safely keep all money deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to this subdivision, shall pay the money out only upon the order of the court, and shall credit each estate with the interest earned by the funds deposited less the county treasurer's actual cost authorized to be recovered under Section 27013 of the Government Code, (3) the county treasurer and sureties on the official bond of the county treasurer are responsible for the safekeeping and payment of the money, (4) the county treasurer shall ensure that the money deposited is to earn interest or dividends, or both, at the highest rate which the county can reasonably obtain as a prudent investor, and (5) funds so deposited with the county treasurer shall only be invested or deposited in compliance with the provisions governing the investment or deposit of state funds set forth in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16640) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, the investment or deposit of county funds set forth in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 53600) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, or as authorized under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 2400) of Part 4 of this code; or in an insured account in a financial institution in this state, or in a single-premium deferred annuity, subject to withdrawal only upon authorization of the court.

(b) That all or any part of the money be transferred to a custodian for the benefit of the minor under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, Part 9 (commencing with Section 3900).

(c) If the money of the guardianship estate does not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), that the money be held on such other conditions as the court in its discretion determines to be in the best interests of the minor.

(d) If the money of the guardianship estate does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), that all or any part of the money be paid to a parent of the minor, without bond, upon the terms and under the conditions specified in Article 1 (commencing with Section 3400).

SEC. 2. Section 3413 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

(a) That the money be deposited with the county treasurer, provided that (1) the county treasurer has been authorized by the county board of supervisors to handle the deposits, (2) the county treasurer shall receive and safely keep all money deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to this subdivision, shall pay the money out only upon the order of the court, and shall credit each estate with the interest earned by the funds deposited less the county treasurer's actual cost authorized to be recovered under Section 27013 of the Government Code, (3) the county treasurer and sureties on the official bond of the county treasurer are responsible for the safekeeping and payment of the money, (4) the county treasurer shall ensure that the money deposited is to earn interest or dividends, or both, at the highest rate which the county can reasonably obtain as a prudent investor, and (5) funds so deposited with the county treasurer shall only be invested or deposited in compliance with the provisions governing the investment or deposit of state funds set forth in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16640) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, the investment or deposit of county funds set forth in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 53600) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, or as authorized under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 2400) of Part 4 of this code; or in an insured account in a financial institution in this state, or in a single-premium deferred annuity, subject to withdrawal only upon authorization of the court.

(b) That all or any part of the money be transferred to a custodian for the benefit of the minor under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, Part 9 (commencing with Section 3900).

(c) If the money belonging to the minor does not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), that the money be held on such other conditions as the court in its discretion determines to be in the best interests of the minor.

(d) If the money belonging to the minor does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), that all or any part of the money be paid to a parent of the minor, without bond, upon the terms and under the conditions specified in Article 1 (commencing with Section 3400).

SEC. 3. Section 3611 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3611. In any case described in Section 3610, the court making the order or giving the judgment referred to in Section 3600 shall order any one or more of the following:

(a) That a guardian of the estate or conservator of the estate be appointed and that the remaining balance of the money and other property be paid or delivered to the person so appointed.

(b) That the remaining balance of any money paid or to be paid be deposited with the county treasurer, provided that (1) the county treasurer has been authorized by the county board of supervisors to handle the deposits, (2) the county treasurer shall receive and safely keep all money deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to this subdivision, shall pay the money out only upon the order of the court, and shall credit each estate with the interest earned by the funds deposited less the county treasurer's actual cost authorized to be recovered under Section 27013 of the Government Code, (3) the county treasurer and sureties on the official bond of the county treasurer are responsible for the safekeeping and payment of the money, (4) the county treasurer shall ensure that the money deposited is to earn interest or dividends, or both, at the highest rate which the county can reasonably obtain as a prudent investor, and (5) funds so deposited with the county treasurer shall only be invested or deposited in compliance with the provisions governing the investment or deposit of state funds set forth in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16640) of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, the investment or deposit of county funds set forth in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 53600) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, or as authorized under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 2400) of Part 4 of this code; or in an insured account in a financial institution in this state, or in a single-premium deferred annuity, subject to withdrawal only upon the authorization of the court, and that the remaining balance of any other property delivered or to be delivered be held on such conditions as the court determines to be in the best interest of the minor or incompetent person.

(d) If the remaining balance of the money and other property to be paid or delivered does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) in value and is to be paid or delivered for the benefit of a minor, that all or any part of the money and the other property be paid or delivered to a parent of the minor, without bond, upon the terms and under the conditions specified in Article 1 (commencing with Section 3400) of Chapter 2.

(e) If the remaining balance of the money or other property to be paid or delivered is to be paid or delivered for the benefit of the minor, that all or any part of the money and other property be transferred to a custodian for the benefit of the minor under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, Part 9 (commencing with Section 3900).

CHAPTER 414

An act to amend Sections 89725 and 89900 of, to add Sections 89049.1 and 89759 to, and to add Article 3 (commencing with Section 90520) to Chapter 11 of Part 55 of, the Education Code, and to amend Section 20009.1 of the Government Code, relating to postsecondary education.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 89049.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

89049.1. Notwithstanding Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 16360) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, money received by the state from the United States for distribution by the trustees for student financial aid purposes shall not be remitted to the Federal Trust Fund, but shall only be reported to the Director of Finance for accounting purposes.

SEC. 2. Section 89725 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89725. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, grants, revenues, and funds of any nature received by the trustees for research, workshops, conferences, institutes, and special projects from the state, federal government, local government, or private persons, may be transmitted to the Treasurer and, if transmitted, shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the California State University Special Projects Fund, which fund is hereby created.

All such grants, revenues, and funds are hereby appropriated without regard to fiscal years to the trustees for the operation, support, and development of research, workshops, conferences, institutes, and special projects in the California State University.

Provision shall be made by the trustees for reimbursements to the General Fund for the cost of space and services furnished to projects funded by the California State University Special Projects Fund.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, the trustees shall have authority to establish the rules and procedures under which the fund shall operate. All expenditures shall be made in accordance with the rules and procedures, without prior approval of the Department of General Services or the Department of Finance. All expenditures shall receive an annual postaudit by the Audits Division of the Department of Finance. This requirement for an annual postaudit shall be effective until July 1, 1992. On and after July 1, 1992, the expenditures from the fund shall be audited as frequently as the Audits Division deems appropriate.

Moneys in the California State University Special Projects Fund may be invested by the Treasurer, upon approval of the trustees in those eligible securities listed in Section 16430 of the Government Code. All interest or other earnings received pursuant to those investments shall be collected by the Treasurer and shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the California State University Special Projects Fund.

SEC. 3. Section 89759 is added to the Education Code, to read:

89759. Notwithstanding Sections 935.6, 948, 965, and 965.2 of the Government Code, or any other provision of law to the contrary, the Controller shall draw a warrant for the payment of any claim, settlement, or judgment against a special fund or a trust fund administered by the trustees if the trustees certify that sufficient moneys for the payment of the claim, settlement, or judgment exist within the special fund or trust fund. Records regarding the payments are subject to post audit by the Director of Finance.

SEC. 4. Section 89900 of the Education Code is amended to read:

89900. (a) A certified public accountant shall be selected by each auxiliary organization described in Section 89901. The office of the chancellor, in cooperation with the Department of Finance, shall develop and forward the applicable auditing and reporting procedures to each auxiliary organization for distribution to the selected certified public accountant. In accordance with procedures prescribed by the chancellor, the certified public accountant shall annually audit any and all state university auxiliary funds. The auxiliary organizations shall contract for and receive the audit annually, and shall submit the audit to the trustees. Auxiliary organizations shall annually publish an audited statement of their financial condition, which statement shall be disseminated as widely as feasible and be available to any person on request. In the case of an auxiliary organization primarily serving a single campus of the California State University, publication in the campus student newspaper shall be deemed compliance with this requirement. In the case of an auxiliary organization serving the Trustees of the California State University, distribution of the published audited statement of its financial condition at a regularly scheduled meeting of the trustees shall be deemed compliance with this requirement.

(b) In the case of an auxiliary organization primarily serving a single campus of the California State University, the president of that state university shall be responsible for ascertaining that all expenditures are in accordance with policies of the trustees, the propriety of all expenditures, and the integrity of the financial reporting, made by auxiliary organizations.

(c) The operation of auxiliary organizations shall be conducted in conformity with regulations established by the trustees. The regulations shall include provisions requiring the governing board of each auxiliary organization to provide salaries, working conditions, and benefits for the full-time employees of each auxiliary organization that are comparable to those provided California State University employees performing similar services. However, the regulations may permit retirement benefits or permanent status benefits, or both, to be withheld from temporary and executive employees of each auxiliary organization. In addition, the regulations may exempt from the requirement of providing retirement benefits any auxiliary organization that is funded primarily by mandatory student fees collected by the trustees. For the purposes of this subdivision, a temporary employee is (a) an employee employed for a research project, workshop, institute, or other special project funded by any grant, contract or gift; or (b) an employee whose contract of employment is for a fixed term not exceeding three years. For the purposes of this subdivision, an executive employee is any management employee with responsibility for the development and execution of auxiliary organization policy and includes, but is not limited to, general managers, business managers, directors, and the like. For purposes of this subdivision, "full-time employee" means a person who is employed in a permanent position for 40 hours per week or for the required number of hours of a particular work shift, whichever is the lesser. Persons employed on a temporary, intermittent, irregular time base, or on a limited term basis are not "full-time employees," unless those employees are engaged on a continuing 10-month or academic year basis and are employed for 40 hours per week or for the required number of hours of a particular work shift, whichever is the lesser. For those full-time employees whose duties are not comparable to classes in California State University employment, the salaries established shall be at least equal to the salaries prevailing in other educational institutions in the area or commercial operations of like nature. This requirement shall apply to full-time employees of auxiliary organizations even if there are no California State University employees performing similar services.

(d) Retirement benefits may be provided by other than the Public Employees' Retirement System. A contract for participation in the Public Employees' Retirement System in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Public Employees' Retirement Law shall be deemed to satisfy fully the requirements of subdivision (c) with respect to retirement.

Notwithstanding anything in subdivision (c) to the contrary, the regulations established by the trustees may exempt the governing board of any newly created auxiliary organization from the requirement of providing retirement benefits for a period not to exceed three years from the date that the auxiliary organization is established.

SEC. 5. Article 3 (commencing with Section 90520) is added to Chapter 11 of Part 55 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 3. State Police Services

90520. The trustees shall not be charged or otherwise assessed for state police services to the chancellor's office or any state facility under the control of the chancellor's office, except for those police services requested by the trustees.

SEC. 6. Section 20009.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20009.1. "Public agency" also includes the following:

(a) The Commandant, Veterans Home of California, with respect to employees of the post exchange and other post fund activities whose compensation is paid from the post fund of the Veterans Home of California.

(b) Any auxiliary organization operating pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 89900) of Part 55 of the Education Code and in conformity with regulations adopted by the Trustees of the California State University and any auxiliary organization operating pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 72670) of Chapter 6 of Part 45 of the Education Code and in conformity with regulations adopted by the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges.

(c) Any student body or nonprofit organization composed exclusively of students of the California State University or community college or of members of the faculty of the California State University or community college, or both, and established for the purpose of providing essential activities related to, but not normally included as a part of, the regular instructional program of the California State University or community college.

(d) A state organization of governing boards of school districts, the primary purpose of which is the advancing of public education through research and investigation.

(e) Any nonprofit corporation whose membership is confined to public agencies as defined in Section 20009.

(f) A section of the California Interscholastic Federation.

(g) Any credit union incorporated under Division 5 (commencing with Section 14000) of the Financial Code, or incorporated pursuant to federal law, with 95 percent of its membership limited to employees who are members of or retired members of the Public Employees' Retirement System or the State Teachers' Retirement System, and their immediate families, and employees of any such credit union. For the purposes of this subdivision, "immediate family" means those persons related by blood or marriage who reside in the household of a member of the credit union who is a member of or retired member of the Public Employees' Retirement System or the State Teachers' Retirement System. The credit union shall pay any costs that are in addition to the normal charges required to enter into a contract with the board.

All the payments made by the credit union that are in addition to the normal charges required shall be added to the total amount appropriated by the Budget Act for the administrative expense of the system. For purposes of this subdivision, a credit union shall not be deemed to be a public agency unless it has entered into a contract with the board pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 20450) prior to January 1, 1988. After January 1, 1988, the board shall not enter into a contract with any credit union as a public agency.

(h) Any county superintendent of schools that was a contracting agency on July 1, 1983, and any school district or community college district that was a contracting agency with respect to local policemen, as defined in Section 20020.8, on July 1, 1983.

(i) Any school district or community college district that has established a police department, pursuant to Section 39670 or 72330 of the Education Code, and has entered into a contract with the board on or after January 1, 1990, for school safety members, as defined in Section 20019.6.

CHAPTER 415

An act to add Section 13135 to the Health Safety Code, relating to fire safety.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13135 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

13135. The State Fire Marshal shall adopt regulations for alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facilities, as defined in Section 11834.11, based on whether the residents or patients of the facilities are nonambulatory, as defined in Section 13131, and not based on the age of residents or patients of the facilities.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 416

An act to add Sections 45164 and 88035.5 to the Education Code, relating to school employees, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 45164 is added to the Education Code, to read:

45164. (a) In addition to the benefits provided pursuant to Sections 395.01 and 395.02 of the Military and Veterans Code, any classified employee of a school district who, as a member of the California National Guard or a United States Military Reserve organization, was called into active military duty as a result of the Iraq-Kuwait crisis, shall have the benefits provided for in subdivision (b).

(b) Any classified employee to which subdivision (a) applies, while on active duty, shall, with respect to any active military duty served on or after August 2, 1990, receive from the school employer, for a period not to exceed 180 calendar days, as part of his or her compensation, all of the following:

(1) The difference between the amount of his or her military pay and allowances and the amount the employee would have received as a classified employee, including any merit raises that would otherwise have been granted during the time the individual was on active military duty.

(c) Any individual receiving compensation pursuant to subdivision (b) who does not return to the service of that school district within 60 days after being released from active duty shall have that compensation treated as a loan payable with interest at the rate earned on the Pooled Money Investment Account. This subdivision shall not apply to compensation received pursuant to Section 19775 of the Government Code or Section 395.02 of the Military and Veterans Code.

(d) This section shall not apply to any active military duty served voluntarily after the close of the Iraq-Kuwait crisis.

SEC. 2. Section 88035.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

88035.5. (a) In addition to the benefits provided pursuant to Sections 395.01 and 395.02 of the Military and Veterans Code, any classified employee of a community college district who, as a member of the California National Guard or a United States Military Reserve organization, was called into active military duty as a result of the Iraq-Kuwait crisis, shall have the benefits provided for in subdivision (b).

(b) Any classified employee to which subdivision (a) applies, while on active duty, shall, with respect to any active military duty served on or after August 2, 1990, receive from the community college employer, for a period not to exceed 180 calendar days, as part of his or her compensation, all of the following:

(1) The difference between the amount of his or her military pay and allowances and the amount the employee would have received as a classified employee, including any merit raises that would otherwise have been granted during the time the individual was on active military duty.

(c) Any individual receiving compensation pursuant to subdivision (b) who does not return to the service of that community college district within 60 days after being released from active duty shall have that compensation treated as a loan payable with interest at the rate earned on the Pooled Money Investment Account. This subdivision shall not apply to compensation received pursuant to Section 19775 of the Government Code or Section 395.02 of the Military and Veterans Code.

(d) This section shall not apply to any active military duty served voluntarily after the close of the Iraq-Kuwait crisis.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that classified employees of school districts and community college districts who have been called to active duty due to the Iraq-Kuwait crisis are provided with compensation for time served prior to January 1, 1991, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 417

An act to add Section 4563 to the Government Code, relating to transit.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4563 is added to the Government Code, to read:

4563. (a) Sections 4560, 4561, and 4562 are not applicable to any state-owned transit facility.

(b) Space at a state-owned transit facility may be leased by competitive bid, taking into consideration affordability and quality of care, to a child care operator whose child care program is currently accredited by the National Association for the Education of Young Children. Within 18 months after initiation of a child care program at a state-owned transit facility, the child care operator shall obtain National Association for the Education of Young Children accreditation for the child care program at the transit facility. First priority for child care services provided by the center shall be given to children of state employees who work at the transit facility and second priority shall be given to children of the users of the transit facility.

(c) No state funds shall be provided to any child care operator pursuant to this section unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The child care facility is open to children without regard to any child's religious beliefs or any other factor related to religion.

(2) No religious instruction is included in the child care program.

(3) The space in which the child care program is operated is not utilized in any manner to foster religion during the time it is used for child care.

(d) The Legislature finds and declares that the use of public property or facilities for the purpose of furnishing child care services for the benefit of persons using public transit is in the public interest and serves a public purpose.

CHAPTER 418

An act to amend Sections 11836, 11836.10, 11836.12, 11837, 11837.5, and 11838.4 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to driving offenses.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11836 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11836. The department shall have the sole authority to license drinking driver programs. As used in this chapter "program" means any firm, partnership, association, corporation, local governmental entity, agency or place which has been recommended by the county board of supervisors and which is licensed by the department to provide alcohol or drug recovery services to persons convicted of Section 23152 or 23153 of the Vehicle Code and referred to a program pursuant to Section 13352, 13353.4, 23161, 23166, 23171, 23176, 23181, 23186, or 23191 of the Vehicle Code.

SEC. 2. Section 11836.10 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11836.10. No person, firm, partnership, association, corporation, or local governmental entity shall operate, establish, manage, conduct, or maintain a drinking driver program in this state without a current and valid license issued pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 11836.12 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11836.12. Criteria for licensure of new or existing programs shall include all of the following:

(a) Completion of a written application containing necessary and pertinent information describing the applicant program.

(b) Demonstration by the applicant that it possesses adequate administrative, fiscal, and operational capability to operate a drinking driver program.

(c) Onsite review of the program by department staff determines that the program is clean, safe, free of alcohol or illicit drug use, and that the program adheres to applicable statutes and regulations.

(d) The program has paid all licensing fees.

SEC. 4. Section 11837 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11837. (a) Pursuant to the provisions of law relating to suspension of a person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle upon conviction for driving while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage or under the combined influence of an alcoholic beverage and any drug, as set forth in paragraph (3) or (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 13352 of the Vehicle Code, the Department of Motor Vehicles shall restrict the driving privilege pursuant to Section 13352.5 of the Vehicle Code, if the court has notified the department pursuant to Section 13352.5 of the Vehicle Code that the person convicted of that offense has consented to participate for at least 18 months in a program designed to offer alcohol services to problem drinkers that is licensed pursuant to this chapter.

(b) In determining whether to refer a person, who is ordered to participate in a program pursuant to Section 23161 in a licensed alcohol or drug education and counseling services program or pursuant to Section 23166, 23171, 23176, 23181, 23186, or 23191 of the Vehicle Code, to a licensed 18-month or 30-month program, the court may consider any relevant information about the person made available pursuant to a presentence investigation, which is permitted but not required under Section 23205 of the Vehicle Code, or other screening procedure. That information shall not be furnished, however, by any person who also provides services in a privately operated, licensed program or who has any direct interest in a privately operated, licensed program. In addition, the court shall obtain from the Department of Motor Vehicles a copy of the person's driving record to determine whether the person is eligible to participate in a licensed 18-month or 30-month program pursuant to this chapter.

(c) The court may, as a condition of probation, refer a first offender to a licensed multiple offender program pursuant to this chapter to attend all of the education, group counseling, and interview sessions described in Title 9 of the California Code of Regulations if ordered to participate in six, nine, or 12 months of program activities. Notwithstanding Section 13352.5 of the Vehicle Code, if a first offender is referred to a licensed program pursuant to Section 23161 or 23181 of the Vehicle Code, that person may participate in a program if convicted of another offense punishable under Section 23165 or 23185 of the Vehicle Code.

(d) The court may, subject to Sections 11837.2 and 11838.2, and subject to Section 13352.5 of the Vehicle Code, and as a condition of probation, refer a person to a licensed program, even though the person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle is restricted, suspended, or revoked. An 18-month program described in Section 23166 or 23186 of the Vehicle Code or a 30-month program described in Section 23171, 23176, or 23191 of the Vehicle Code may include treatment of family members and significant other persons related to the convicted person with the consent of those family members and others as described in Title 9 of the California Code of Regulations, if there is no increase in the costs of the program to the convicted person.

SEC. 5. Section 11837.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11837.5. (a) No person may participate in any program that has not been licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter.

(b) The department shall charge reasonable fees for licensing drinking driver programs. The department shall set the fees in an amount sufficient to cover all administrative costs incurred by the department and to reimburse the Department of Motor Vehicles for the costs of the evaluation and report required by Section 9 of Senate Bill 1344 of the 1989–90 Regular Session.

(c) The department may fine a provider who is delinquent in the payment of licensing fees. The department shall deposit fines collected from delinquent providers in the Drinking Driver Program Licensing Trust Fund, and the revenues from the fines shall be used, upon appropriation, to offset costs incurred by the department in the administration of the program and to reimburse the Department of Motor Vehicles for the costs of the evaluation and report required by Section 9 of Senate Bill 1344 of the 1989–90 Regular Session.

(d) If a program fails to pay licensing fees or assessed fines, the department may deny an initial license or revoke an existing license.

(e) There is established in the State Treasury a Drinking Driver Program Licensing Trust Fund. All fees , fines, and penalties collected from drinking driver programs shall be deposited in this fund. The money in the fund shall be available when appropriated by the Legislature.

(f) The department shall prepare an annual report on the assets, liabilities, and balance in the Drinking Driver Program Licensing Trust Fund. The report shall also include an itemized statement of income and expenses for the trust fund since the last report. The department shall submit the report to the Legislature and shall furnish a copy of the report, upon request, to any provider of a drinking driver program.

(g) Licensing fees shall be evaluated annually and based on the department's projected costs for the forthcoming fiscal year. Any excess fees remaining in the Drinking Driver Program Licensing Trust Fund at the close of the fiscal year shall be carried forward and taken into consideration in establishment of fees for the subsequent fiscal year. If the department proposes to increase the licensing fees, the department shall justify the increase to the Legislature by showing that sufficient assets are not currently available in the Drinking Driver Program Licensing Trust Fund and that current licensing fee collections are not sufficient to support current or planned expenses of the department for drinking driver program licensing activities.

(h) Licensing fee collection procedures, which include the assessment of fines for delinquent fee payments, shall be defined in regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 6. Section 11838.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11838.4. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, any person who violates Section 11836.10 may be assessed by the department an immediate civil penalty in the amount of two hundred dollars ($200) per day of the violation. The civil penalty shall be imposed if an unlicensed program is operated and the operator refuses to seek licensure or the operator's licensure application is denied and the operator continues to operate the unlicensed program.

(b) In addition to suspension or revocation of a license issued under this chapter, the department may levy a civil penalty against any program provider who is not in compliance with statutes and regulations.

(1) The amount of the civil penalty shall not be less than twenty-five dollars ($25) or more than fifty dollars ($50) per day for each violation of this chapter except where the nature or seriousness of the violation or the frequency of the violation warrants a higher penalty or an immediate civil penalty assessment, or both, as determined by the department. In no event, shall the civil penalty assessment for noncompliance exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per day, or a total of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(2) Prior to the assessment of any civil penalty other than a civil penalty specified in paragraph (1) or (3), the program provider shall have a minimum of 30 days to correct the deficiency.

(3) Any program provider that is cited for repeating the same violation of this chapter within a 12-month period is subject to an immediate civil penalty of one hundred fifty dollars ($150) and fifty dollars ($50) for each day the violation continues until the deficiency is corrected. In no event shall the total fine exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(4) The suspension, revocation, forfeiture, or surrender of a license issued by the department shall not deprive the department of its authority to institute or continue a disciplinary proceeding against a licensee upon any grounds provided for in law or to enter and order suspending or revoking the license or otherwise taking disciplinary action against the licensee.

(c) An operator may appeal the assessment to the director, and if the matter is unresolved at that stage, the operator may appeal the director's decision in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 7. The State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs shall develop emergency regulations needed to implement, interpret, and make specific the provisions of this act. The regulations shall take effect immediately upon filing with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 11346.1 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 419

An act to amend Section 1564 of the Financial Code, relating to financial institutions.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1564 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1564. (a) For purposes of this section, two or more trust companies shall be deemed to be affiliated if they are members of the same affiliated group, within the meaning of Section 1504 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Any trust company may establish and administer common trust funds composed of property permitted by law for the investment of trust funds, for the purpose of furnishing investments to any one or more of the following: (1) itself, as fiduciary; (2) itself and others, as cofiduciaries; (3) any affiliated trust company including, without limitation, any foreign (other state) affiliated trust company, as fiduciary; and (4) any affiliated trust company including, without limitation, any foreign (other state) affiliated trust company and others, as cofiduciaries. Any trust company may as such fiduciary or cofiduciary invest funds which it lawfully holds for investment in interests in common trust funds administered by itself or by any affiliated trust company including, without limitation, any foreign (other state) affiliated trust company, if such investment is not prohibited by the instrument, judgment, decree, order, or statute creating or governing such fiduciary relationship, and if, in the case of cofiduciaries, the trust company procures the consent of its cofiduciaries to such investment.

(c) Each common trust fund established hereunder shall be treated as an entity separate and distinct from the fiduciary relationships participating therein. No fiduciary in administering a participating fiduciary relationship shall be required to make any apportionment or allocation between the principal and income of this relationship different from that made for the common trust fund. No participating fiduciary relationship, nor any person having an interest in that relationship, shall have or be deemed to have any ownership in any particular property of the common trust fund, but each participating fiduciary relationship shall have a proportionate undivided interest in the fund and its income; and the ownership of all property of the common trust fund shall be in the trustee of the fund.

(d) This section shall apply to fiduciary relationships now in existence or hereafter established, whether the same be revocable or irrevocable. The superintendent, at his direction, may make an examination of any common trust fund established hereunder at the times and to the extent as he may deem advisable. The provisions of the Corporate Securities Law shall not apply to the creation, administration, or termination of common trust funds, nor to participation therein.

CHAPTER 420

An act to amend Sections 41950, 41953, and 41954 of the Public Resources Code, relating to solid waste.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 41950 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

41950. (a) No person, other than the authorized recycling agent of the city or county, shall remove paper, glass, cardboard, plastic, used motor oil, ferrous metal, aluminum, or other recyclable materials which have been segregated from solid waste materials and placed at a designated collection location for residential curbside collection programs authorized by a city, county, or local agency for the purposes of collection and recycling.

(b) No person shall be subject to an action for a violation of this section, unless the person knows, or reasonably should know, that the materials would otherwise be collected by the authorized recycling agent for residential curbside collection programs authorized by a city, county, or local agency for the purpose of recycling the materials.

(c) From the time the recyclable materials specified in subdivision (a) are placed for collection at curbside, for a residential curbside collection program authorized by a city, county, or local agency, the recyclable materials are the property of the authorized recycling agent.

SEC. 2. Section 41953 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

41953. In any civil action by a recycling agent against a person alleged to have violated Section 41950, the court may either allow treble damages, as measured by the value of the material removed, or award a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), whichever is greater, for each unauthorized removal, against the unauthorized person removing the recyclable material.

SEC. 3. Section 41954 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

41954. Nothing in this article limits the authority of a local agency to adopt or enforce regulations or ordinances on the same matters of this article. However, any ordinance which imposes civil penalties shall be approved by a majority vote of the governing board which has proposed adoption of the ordinance.

CHAPTER 421

An act to amend Section 1018 of the Penal Code, relating to criminal procedure.

[Approved by Governor September 16, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 17, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1018 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1018. Unless otherwise provided by law, every plea shall be entered or withdrawn by the defendant himself or herself in open court. No plea of guilty of a felony for which the maximum punishment is death, or life imprisonment without the possibility of parole, shall be received from a defendant who does not appear with counsel, nor shall that plea be received without the consent of the defendant's counsel. No plea of guilty of a felony for which the maximum punishment is not death or life imprisonment without the possibility of parole shall be accepted from any defendant who does not appear with counsel unless the court shall first fully inform him or her of the right to counsel and unless the court shall find that the defendant understands the right to counsel and freely waives it, and then only if the defendant has expressly stated in open court, to the court, that he or she does not wish to be represented by counsel. On application of the defendant at any time before judgment or within six months after an order granting probation is made if entry of judgment is suspended, the court may, and in case of a defendant who appeared without counsel at the time of the plea the court shall, for a good cause shown, permit the plea of guilty to be withdrawn and a plea of not guilty substituted. Upon indictment or information against a corporation a plea of guilty may be put in by counsel. This section shall be liberally construed to effect these objects and to promote justice.

CHAPTER 422

An act to amend Sections 1356, 1377, and 1394.7 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health care.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1356 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1356. (a) Each plan applying for licensure under this chapter shall pay to the commissioner a nonrefundable application fee in the amount of four thousand dollars ($4,000) or, if the applicant is to offer only one type of specialized plan contract, two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) at the time of submission of the application.

(b) In addition to other fees and reimbursements required to be paid under this chapter, each licensed plan and each nonprofit hospital service plan described in paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) of Section 1343, shall pay to the commissioner on or before the 15th day of December of each year, as a reimbursement of its share of all costs and expenses, including overhead, reasonably incurred in the administration of this chapter and not otherwise recovered by the commissioner under this chapter or from the General Fund, an amount as estimated by the commissioner for the ensuing year. The amount paid by each plan shall be two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) plus an amount up to but not exceeding twenty-seven cents ($0.27) for each family unit enrolled in its plan in this state as of the preceding June 30th, and shall be fixed by the commissioner by notice to all licensed plans and nonprofit hospital service plans on or before October 15th of each year. However, the amount paid by each nonprofit hospital service plan shall be two thousand dollars ($2,000) plus an amount up to, but not exceeding, one cent ($0.01) for each family unit and shall be for the purpose of reimbursing its share of all costs and expenses, including overhead, reasonably incurred in administering the changes made by Chapter 1043 of the Statutes of 1990, which included nonprofit hospital service plans within the scope of some parts of this chapter. In determining the amount assessed, the commissioner shall consider all appropriations from the General Fund for the support of this chapter and all reimbursements provided for in this chapter. For the purpose of this section, a family unit is a household composed of one or more individuals. The increase in the assessment authority made by Chapter 1043 of the Statutes of 1990 is to fund the administration of the provisions enacted by that statute. The department shall use the increased assessment authority provided under this section only to the extent that it reasonably anticipates costs associated with administering Sections 1394.7 and 1394.8.

(c) The expense of requiring nonprofit hospital service plans described in paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) of Section 1343 to comply with the financial requirements of this chapter shall be charged against each nonprofit hospital service plan. The amount charged shall be the actual cost associated with regulating a nonprofit hospital service plan described in paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) of Section 1343, including the actual salaries or compensation paid to the persons conducting the administration and enforcement, the expenses incurred in the course thereof, and overhead costs in connection therewith as fixed by the commissioner. In determining the cost of the administration or enforcement, the commissioner shall use the estimated average hourly cost for all persons of similar classification performing administration or enforcement for the fiscal year. The amounts charged shall be billed not more frequently than monthly and shall be remitted by the nonprofit hospital service plan to the commissioner within 30 days.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until April 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before April 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 1377 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1377. (a) Every plan which reimburses providers of health care services that do not contract in writing with the plan to provide health care services, or which reimburses its subscribers or enrollees for costs incurred in having received health care services from providers that do not contract in writing with the plan, in an amount which exceeds 10 percent of its total costs for health care services for the immediately preceding six months, shall comply with the requirements set forth in either paragraph (1) or (2):

(1) (A) Place with the commissioner, or with any organization or trustee acceptable to the commissioner through which a custodial or controlled account is maintained, a noncontracting provider insolvency deposit consisting of cash or securities that are acceptable to the commissioner that at all times have a fair market value in an amount at least equal to 120 percent of the sum of the following:

(i) All claims for noncontracting provider services received for reimbursement, but not yet processed.

(ii) All claims for noncontracting provider services denied for reimbursement during the previous 45 days.

(iii) All claims for noncontracting provider services approved for reimbursement, but not yet paid.

(iv) An estimate of claims for noncontracting provider services incurred, but not reported.

(B) Each plan licensed pursuant to this chapter prior to January 1, 1991, shall, upon that date, make a deposit of 50 percent of the amount required by subparagraph (A), and shall maintain additional cash or cash equivalents as defined by rule of the commissioner, in the amount of 50 percent of the amount required by subparagraph

(A), and shall make a deposit of 100 percent of the amount required by subparagraph (A) by January 1, 1992.

(C) The amount of the deposit shall be reasonably estimated as of the first day of the month and maintained for the remainder of the month.

(D) The deposit required by this paragraph is in addition to the deposit that may be required by rule of the commissioner and is an allowable asset of the plan in the determination of tangible net equity as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1300.76 of Title 10 of the California Code of Regulations. All income from the deposit shall be an asset of the plan and may be withdrawn by the plan at any time.

(E) A health care service plan that has made a deposit may withdraw that deposit or any part of the deposit if (i) a substitute deposit of cash or securities of equal amount and value is made, (ii) the fair market value exceeds the amount of the required deposit, or (iii) the required deposit under this paragraph is reduced or eliminated. Deposits, substitutions, or withdrawals may be made only with the prior written approval of the commissioner, but approval shall not be required for the withdrawal of earned income.

(F) The deposit required under this section is in trust and may be used only as provided by this section. The commissioner or, if a receiver has been appointed, the receiver shall use the deposit of an insolvent health care service plan, as defined in Sections 1394.7 and 1394.8, for payment of covered claims for services rendered by noncontracting providers under circumstances covered by the plan. All claims determined by the commissioner or receiver, in his or her discretion, to be eligible for reimbursement under this section shall be paid on a pro rata basis based on assets available from the deposit to pay the ultimate liability for incurred expenditures. Partial distribution may be made pending final distribution. Any amount of the deposit remaining shall be paid into the liquidation or receivership of the health care service plan. The commissioner may also use the deposit of an insolvent health care service plan for payment of any administrative costs associated with the administration of this section. The department, the commissioner, and any employee of the department shall not be liable, as provided by Section 820.2 of the Government Code, for an injury resulting from an exercise of discretion pursuant to this section. Nothing in this section shall be construed to provide immunity for the acts of a receiver, except when the commissioner is acting as a receiver.

(G) The commissioner may, by regulation, prescribe the time, manner, and form for filing claims.

(H) The commissioner may permit a plan to meet a portion of this requirement by a deposit of tangible assets acceptable to the commissioner, the fair market value of which shall be determined on at least an annual basis by the commissioner. The plan shall bear the cost of any appraisal or valuations required hereunder by the commissioner.

(2) Maintain adequate insurance, or a guaranty arrangement approved in writing by the commissioner, to pay for any loss to providers, subscribers, or enrollees claiming reimbursement due to the insolvency of the plan.

(b) Whenever the reimbursements described in this section exceed 10 percent of the plan's total costs for health care services over the immediately preceding six months, the plan shall file a written report with the commissioner containing the information necessary to determine compliance with subdivision (a) no later than 30 business days from the first day of the month. Upon an adequate showing by the plan that the requirements of this section should be waived or reduced, the commissioner may waive or reduce these requirements to an amount as the commissioner deems sufficient to protect subscribers and enrollees of the plan consistent with the intent and purpose of this chapter.

(c) Every plan which reimburses providers of health care service on a fee-for-services basis; or which directly reimburses its subscribers or enrollees, to an extent exceeding 10 percent of its total payments for health care services, shall estimate and record in the books of account a liability for incurred and unreported claims. Upon a determination by the commissioner that the estimate is inadequate, the commissioner may require the plan to increase its estimate of incurred and unreported claims. Every plan shall promptly report to the commissioner whenever these reimbursables exceed 10 percent of its total expenditures for health care services.

As used herein, the term "fee-for-services" refers to the situation where the amount of reimbursement paid by the plan to providers of service is determined by the amount and type of service rendered by the provider of service.

(d) In the event an insolvent plan covered by this section fails to pay a noncontracting provider sums for covered services owed, the provider shall first look to the uncovered expenditures insolvency deposit or the insurance or guaranty arrangement maintained by the plan for payment. When a plan becomes insolvent, in no event shall a noncontracting provider, or agent, trustee, or assignee thereof, attempt to collect from the subscriber or enrollee sums owed for covered services by the plan or maintain any action at law against a subscriber or enrollee to collect sums owed by the plan for covered services without having first attempted to obtain reimbursement from the plan.

SEC. 3. Section 1394.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1394.7. (a) As used in this section the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Health care service plan" means any plan as defined in Section 1345, but this section does not apply to specialized health care service contracts.

(2) "Carrier" means a health care service plan, an insurer issuing group disability coverage which covers hospital, medical, or surgical expenses, a nonprofit hospital service plan, or any other entity responsible for either the payment of benefits or the provision of hospital, medical, and surgical benefits under a group contract.

(3) "Insolvency" means that the commissioner has determined that the health care service plan is not financially able to provide health care services to its enrollees and (A) the commissioner has taken an action pursuant to Section 1386, 1391, or 1399, or (B) an order requested by the commissioner or the Attorney General has been issued by the superior court under Section 1392, 1393, or 1394.1.

(b) In the event of the insolvency of a health care service plan and upon order of the commissioner, any health care service plan which the commissioner determines to have sufficient health care delivery resources and sufficient financial and administrative capacity and that participated in the enrollment process with the insolvent health care service plan at the last regular open enrollment period of a group shall offer enrollees of the group in the insolvent health care service plan a 30-day enrollment period commencing upon the date specified by the commissioner. Each health care service plan shall offer enrollees of the group in the insolvent health care service plan the same coverages and rates that it offered to enrollees of the group at the last regular open enrollment period of the group. Coverage shall be effective upon receipt by the successor plan of an application for enrollment by or on behalf of a subscriber or enrollee of the insolvent plan. The commissioner shall send a notice of the insolvency of a health care service plan to the Insurance Commissioner.

(c) If no other carrier had been offered to groups enrolled in the insolvent health care service plan, or if the commissioner determines that the other carriers do not include a sufficient number of health care service plans that have adequate health care delivery resources or the financial or administrative capacity to assure that health care services will be available and accessible to all of the group enrollees of the insolvent health care service plan, then the commissioner shall allocate equitably the insolvent health care service plan's group contracts for the groups, except for Medi-Cal contracts made pursuant to Section 14200 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, among all health care service plans which operate within at least a portion of the service area of the insolvent health care service plan, taking into consideration the health care delivery resources and the financial and administrative capacity of each health care service plan. The commissioner shall also have the authority to allocate equitably enrollees, except Medi-Cal enrollees, if he or she has been unable to successfully place them through the open enrollment procedure in subdivision (b). The commissioner shall make every reasonable effort to allocate enrollees within 30 days of the insolvency of the plan, but not later than 45 days after insolvency. Each health care service plan to which a group or groups are so allocated shall offer the group or groups the health care service plan's coverage which is most similar to each group's coverage with the insolvent health care service plan, as determined by the commissioner, at rates determined in accordance with the successor health care service plan's existing rating methodology. Coverage shall be effective upon the date specified by the commissioner. Further, except to the extent benefits for any condition would have been reduced or excluded under the insolvent health care service plan's contract or policy, no provision in a successor health care service plan's contract of coverage that would operate to reduce or exclude benefits on the basis that the condition giving rise to benefits preexisted on the effective date of the enrollee's assignment to the succeeding health care service plan shall be applied with respect to those enrollees validly covered under the insolvent health care service plan's contract or policy on the date of the assignment.

The State Department of Health Services shall have the authority to allocate Medi-Cal enrollees to other carriers with valid Medi-Cal contracts, which operate within the same service area of an insolvent Medi-Cal contractor and that have sufficient capacity to absorb the Medi-Cal enrollees allocated to them.

(d) The commissioner shall also allocate equitably the insolvent health care service plan's nongroup enrollees among all health care service plans which operate within at least a portion of the service area of the insolvent health care service plan, taking into consideration the health care delivery resources or the financial and administrative capacity of each health care service plan. Each health care service plan to which nongroup enrollees are allocated shall offer the nongroup enrollees the health care service plan's most similar coverage for individual or conversion coverage, as determined by the commissioner, taking into consideration his or her type of coverage in the insolvent health care service plan, at rates determined in accordance with the successor health care service plan's existing rating methodology. Coverage shall be effective upon the date specified by the commissioner. Further, except to the extent benefits for any condition would have been reduced or excluded under the insolvent health care service plan's contract or policy, no provision in a successor health care service plan's contract of coverage that would operate to reduce or exclude benefits on the basis that the condition giving rise to benefits preexisted on the effective date of the enrollee's assignment to the succeeding health care service plan shall be applied with respect to those enrollees validly covered under the insolvent health care service plan's contract or policy on the date of the assignment. Successor health care service plans which do not offer direct nongroup enrollment may aggregate all allocated nongroup enrollees into one group for rating and coverage purposes.

(e) Contracting providers shall continue to provide services to enrollees of an insolvent plan until the effective date of an enrollee's coverage in a successor plan selected pursuant to either open enrollment or the allocation process but in no event for the period exceeding that required by their contract or 45 days in the case of allocation, whichever is greater; or for a period exceeding that required by their contract or 30 days in the case of open enrollment, whichever is greater.

(f) The failure to comply with an order under this section shall constitute a violation of this section.

CHAPTER 423

An act to add and repeal Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 54685) of Chapter 9 of Part 29 of the Education Code, relating to education, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 54685) is added to Chapter 9 of Part 29 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 4.5. The Early Intervention For School Success Program

54685. (a) The Legislature finds that many public school pupils enrolled in prekindergarten, kindergarten, and grade one do not have the developmental prerequisites to succeed in the mainstream of a traditional school program.

(b) The Legislature also finds and declares that there is a need to do all of the following:

(1) To establish a system to identify pupils of the ages of four to seven years, inclusive, who lack these developmental prerequisites.

(2) To implement appropriate instructional programs to reduce the frequency and severity of learning problems for these pupils in later years.

(3) To reduce the likelihood that these pupils eventually will need to be placed in remedial programs with higher costs.

(4) To help schools adjust curriculum and instruction to meet the needs of these pupils.

(c) The Legislature further finds and declares that the Early Prevention of School Failure Program, validated by the Federal Joint Dissemination Review Panel as a proven educational practice, is a model capable of providing a comprehensive range of materials and services to identify developmental levels and increase school success in pupils of the ages of four to seven years, inclusive, by helping schools provide individually and developmentally appropriate instruction.

54685.1. It is the intent of the Legislature to do all of the following:

(a) To continue the Early Intervention for School Success

Program which is an adaptation of the Early Prevention of School Failure Program.

(b) To implement the program at 200 public schoolsites within the state between July 1, 1991, and July 1, 1994.

(c) To enable school personnel to acquire the skills necessary to determine developmental levels and learning styles of pupils based on an initial assessment, validated and supported by using authentic assessment techniques, and the necessary knowledge, techniques, and materials to provide age-appropriate and individual appropriate instruction. Authentic assessments are defined as teacher observations, anecdotal records, and portfolios of work samples collected over time as children are engaged in age-appropriate classroom activities.

(d) To develop and identify model demonstration sites.

(e) To provide for the certification of school personnel as trainers assigned to each demonstration site.

(f) To conduct an independent evaluation of the program.

54685.2. The Orange County Superintendent of Schools, having been selected by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, shall continue to manage the implementation of the Early Intervention for School Success Program.

54685.3. The management plan required by Section 54685.2 shall include the following activities:

(a) The dissemination of program information.

(b) The awarding of incentive grants to schools representative of the ethnic, socioeconomic, and geographic diversity of the public school system.

(c) Provisions for training, materials, and technical assistance.

(d) An adaptation of the Early Prevention of School Failure Program to meet local school needs, including identification of existing materials and development of new materials, if needed.

(e) Selection of successful sites as demonstration models for additional implementation of the plan.

(f) Certification of one primary teacher for each demonstration site to serve as a local trainer.

(g) Provision for an annual program progress report and program evaluation by the Orange County Superintendent of Schools to be submitted to the State Department of Education.

54685.6. The selection of participating sites shall be based on a written application by the school district and the criteria listed in Section 54685.7. The criteria shall be verified by the school district's governing board prior to submission of the written application.

54685.7. The criteria to be used in selecting schoolsites as participants shall be based on the extent to which the school demonstrates all of the following:

(a) A need for the program.

(b) The ability and commitment to disseminate the model program, to serve as a model site, to release a teacher certified as a trainer in the program, to collect evaluation data, and to demonstrate an interest to continue to employ successful programs after termination of state funding.

54685.8. The school district or schoolsites selected may accept or reject, at their option, designation as demonstration models.

54685.9. The techniques of the Early Prevention of School Failure Model Program which shall be included in the Early Intervention for School Success Program include all of the following:

(a) The use of a child study team approach for the initial assessment validated and supported through authentic assessment techniques of the preacademic learning needs of children of the ages of four to seven years, inclusive, as appropriate.

The child study team, when appropriate, shall use the home language of the pupil to assess the pupil's developmental levels. The results of these observations and assessments shall not be used to deny or delay school admissions or to track pupils.

(b) The selection and application of educational materials and instructional strategies that will be appropriate to pupils' developmental levels and individual learning needs. These materials and strategies will be selected with the purpose of providing an active and experiential learning environment.

54686. Training received by a teacher in techniques for the Early Intervention for School Success Program shall apply toward the requirement of professional growth, as required by subdivision (b) of Section 44277.

54686.2. This article shall become inoperative on July 1, 1994, and as of January 1, 1995, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to continue during the entire 1991–92 school year the Early Intervention for School Success Program that was repealed on July 1, 1991, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 424

An act to amend Sections 19488, 19531, 19549.4, 19605, 19605.6, 19605.7, 19605.71, 19605.9, 19606.1, 19606.3, 19612, 19612.6, and 19612.8 of, to add Sections 19446, 19481, and 19610.7 to, to repeal Sections 19446, 19481, 19486, 19549.4, 19605.5, 19605.73, 19606.2, and 19612.7 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19446 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Chapter 310 of the Statutes of 1991, is repealed.

SEC. 1.1. Section 19446 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19446. In performing its responsibilities, the board shall do all of the following:

(a) Establish standards governing the uniformity and content of the track base and racing surface, inner and outer rails, gates and gaps, turf, access and egress to the track, lighting for night racing, equipment for horse and rider, drainage, communication, veterinary, medical and ambulance service, and other track facilities in order to improve the safety of horses, riders, and workers in the racing inclosure. The board shall establish these standards by January 1, 1993.

(b) Designate a steward at all horseracing meetings to be responsible for maintaining safety standards.

SEC. 1.2. Section 19481 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Chapter 310 of the Statutes of 1991, is repealed.

SEC. 1.3. Section 19481 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

(b) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 1.5. Section 19488 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19488. (a) Every license issued under this article shall specify the following:

(1) The name of the person to whom it is issued.

(2) The track where the horseracing meeting to which it relates is to be held or conducted.

(3) The days and hours of the day when the meeting will be permitted.

(4) The number and types of races to be run on each day of the meeting.

(5) The number of usable stalls available for the meeting.

(6) The name of the person responsible for supervising the maintenance of racetrack safety standards. This paragraph shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

(b) The license shall also recite the payment to, and receipt by, the board of the deposit to secure payment of the license fee required by this article.

SEC. 1.7. Section 19486 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 19531 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19531. The board shall make allocations of racing weeks, including simultaneous racing between zones, as it deems appropriate. The maximum number of racing weeks which may be allocated for horseracing other than at the California Exposition and State Fair, or county or district agricultural association fairs, shall be as follows:

(a) For thoroughbred racing: 44 weeks per year in the northern zone; 42 weeks per year in the central zone; and seven weeks per year in the southern zone.

(b) For harness racing: 25 weeks per year in the northern zone.

(c) For quarter horse racing: 25 weeks per year in the northern zone.

(d) For harness racing and quarter horse racing: a total of 77 weeks per year in the combined central and southern zones.

(e) In its written application for a license, an applicant shall state the time of day, consistent with Section 19571, during which it will conduct its racing meeting, and particularly the first race starting time for the various racing days. After receiving a license, a licensee shall not change the first race starting time without securing prior approval of the board.

(f) Notwithstanding this section or any other provision in this chapter, the board shall not allocate dates to a thoroughbred association in the central zone for the purpose of conducting racing during daytime hours if a thoroughbred racing association is conducting racing in the southern zone on the same date during daytime hours.

(g) An association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the southern zone may operate a satellite wagering facility at a location approved by the board pursuant to Section 19485 if the location is eligible to be used as a satellite wagering facility during any of the following periods:

(1) The first and second year in which the board allocates racing weeks to the location.

(2) The third year in which the board allocates racing weeks to the location only if at least 12 weeks of racing are allocated to the location during that year.

(3) The fourth year and any subsequent year in which the board allocates racing weeks to the location only if at least 12 weeks of racing are allocated to the location during each year, and only if the association actually conducted at least 12 weeks of racing at the location during the prior year, unless the failure to race these 12 weeks during any year is caused by a decision of the board to prohibit the overlap of night racing or a decision of the board to issue a competing application to another facility.

SEC. 2.3. Section 19549.4 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 1481 of the Statutes of 1990, is repealed.

SEC. 2.5. Section 19549.4 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Chapter 273 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

19549.4. Notwithstanding Section 19414.5, the board may allocate racing weeks consisting of fewer than five days to an association conducting harness or quarter horse racing meetings if the association and the organization representing the horsemen participating in the meeting agree to the allocation.

SEC. 3. Section 19605 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19605. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may authorize an association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the northern zone to operate a satellite wagering facility for wagering on races conducted in the northern zone at its racetrack inclosure subject to all of the conditions specified in Section 19605.3, and may authorize an association licensed to conduct a racing meeting in the central or southern zone to operate a satellite wagering facility for wagering on races conducted in the central or southern zone at its racetrack inclosure subject to the conditions specified in subdivisions (a) to (e), inclusive, of Section 19605.3 and the conditions and limitations set forth in Section 19605.6.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no satellite wagering facility, except a facility that is located at a track where live racing is conducted, shall be located within 20 miles of any existing satellite wagering facility or any track where a racing association conducts a live racing meeting. This subdivision does not apply to an association described in subdivision (g) of Section 19531.

SEC. 3.5. Section 19605.5 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 21 of the Statutes of 1991, is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 19605.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19605.6. (a) In addition to satellite wagering facilities authorized pursuant to Sections 19605, 19605.1, and 19605.2, the board, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, may authorize any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair in the County of Kern or Santa Barbara, eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, to operate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds even though the fair is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting, and the fair may operate the facilities except for those functions to be performed by an organization described in Section 19608.2. Except as otherwise provided in this section, Sections 19605, 19605.3, 19605.4, 19605.7, 19605.8, 19606, 19606.1, 19606.3, and 19606.4 apply to satellite wagering facilities authorized pursuant to this section. A satellite wagering facility in the County of Kern, Fresno, Tulare, Santa Barbara, or Ventura, may receive the audiovisual signal from the northern, central, or southern zone, or from more than one of these zones at the same time.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that, prior to extending the termination date in subdivision (d), the Legislature shall find that the multisignal authorized by this section is successful.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the board provide, when feasible, for periods of at least 10 minutes between post times at the satellite wagering facilities operating under this section.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4.5. Section 19605.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19605.6. (a) In addition to satellite wagering facilities authorized pursuant to Sections 19605, 19605.1, and 19605.2, the board, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, may authorize any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair in the County of Kern or Santa Barbara, eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, to operate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds even though the fair is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting, and the fair may operate the facilities except for those functions to be performed by an organization described in Section 19608.2. Except as otherwise provided in this section, Sections 19605, 19605.3, 19605.4, 19605.7, 19605.71, 19605.8, 19606, 19606.1, 19606.3, and 19606.4 apply to satellite wagering facilities authorized pursuant to this section. A satellite wagering facility in the County of Kern, Fresno, Tulare, Santa Barbara, or Ventura, may receive the audiovisual signal from the northern, central, or southern zone, or from more than one of these zones at the same time.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that, prior to extending the termination date in subdivision (d), the Legislature shall find that the multisignal authorized by this section is successful.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the board provide, when feasible, for periods of at least 10 minutes between post times at the satellite wagering facilities operating under this section.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5. Section 19605.7 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 317 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

19605.7. The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities in the northern zone shall be the same as the deductions for wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted under this section shall be distributed as follows:

by the board, whichever is less, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2, and four-tenths of 1 percent deposited with the official registering agency pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19617.2 and shall thereafter be distributed in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 19617.2, and one-tenth of 1 percent distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(b) For harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, Arabian, or mixed breed meetings, 1 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 1 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the racing association for payment to the state as a license fee, for fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the racing association for payment to the state as a license fee, 2 percent retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, and 6 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2. In addition, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6; in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas; in the case of Arabians, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Arabians; in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619; in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19617.2 and shall thereafter be distributed in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 19617.2; and one-tenth of 1 percent shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(c) In addition to the distributions specified in subdivision (a) or (b), for thoroughbred and fair meetings only, six-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the facility for promotion of that meeting's program. For harness, quarter horse, and mixed breed meetings, 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities.

(d) In addition to the distributions specified in subdivisions (a),

(b), and (c), for thoroughbred meetings, four-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled at each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the association providing the racing program to reimburse it for any costs of offsite stabling and vanning which are required pursuant to Section 19535. The amount of the reimbursement payable to an association for offsite stabling shall not exceed the actual cost to the association of maintaining stalls at its racetrack plus the actual costs incurred by the association to provide vanning and transportation of racehorses from offsite stabling facilities to its racetrack.

(e) In addition to the distributions specified in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), for fair meetings, four-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled at each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the organization representing racing fairs to reimburse fairs for the actual cost of providing offsite stabling required by the board pursuant to Section 19535. If fairs contract with associations to provide offsite stabling during fair meetings, the cost incurred by fairs shall not exceed the actual cost to the association of maintaining the stalls or the amount of reimbursement funds made available pursuant to this subdivision, whichever is less. In the event of a disagreement between an association and the organization representing racing fairs or the organization representing the majority of horsemen participating at the meeting with respect to the actual cost of maintaining stalls, the board, at the request of the association or the organization representing racing fairs or the organization representing the majority of horsemen participating at the meeting, shall determine within 60 days the amount of actual costs incurred. For purposes of this subdivision, "actual cost" does not include fixed overhead or administrative expenses which would be incurred by the association in the absence of an agreement to provide offsite stabling during fair meetings.

(f) Any of the promotional funds distributed pursuant to subdivision (c) that are not expended in the year in which they are collected may be expended in the following year. If promotion funds expended in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds expended in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount.

(g) Any of the stabling and vanning reimbursement funds distributed pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) that are not expended within 90 days of the end of the meeting at which they are collected shall be reallocated for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities, as provided in subdivision (c).

(h) Additionally, for thoroughbred, harness, quarter horse, mixed breed, and fair meetings, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a racing association is responsible for the payment of the state license fee as required by this section.

SEC. 6. Section 19605.71 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 317 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

19605.71. The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities in the central and southern zone shall be the same as the percentage deducted from wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted by a satellite wagering facility under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(b) For harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, Arabian, or mixed breed meetings, 1 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 1 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the racing association for payment to the state as a license fee, for fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the racing association for payment to the state as a license fee, 2 percent retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, and 6 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2. In addition, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6; in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas; in the case of Arabians, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Arabians; in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619; in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19617.2 and shall thereafter be distributed in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 19617.2; and one-tenth of 1 percent shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(c) In addition, for thoroughbred meetings and harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1 percent shall be distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities. Any of the promotion funds that are not distributed in the year in which they are collected may be distributed in the following year. If promotion funds distributed in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds distributed in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount. Additionally, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a racing association is responsible for the payment of the state license fee as required by this section.

SEC. 7. Section 19605.73 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 317 of the Statutes of 1991, is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 19605.9 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19605.9. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), in the central and southern zones, all of the funds distributed for purses from satellite wagering facilities shall go to the purse program of the association conducting the racing meeting.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), all funds for distribution as purses at satellite wagering facilities which are racing fairs in the County of Los Angeles from wagering on thoroughbred horseracing conducted at the 22nd District Agricultural Association Fairgrounds shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, are hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for supplementing purses at fair meetings in Los Angeles and Orange Counties. The department shall distribute these funds on an equal basis to each racing fair in these counties for distribution in all nonstakes races and among all breeds. Commencing January 1, 1992, the funds distributed for purses from satellite wagering facilities pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed the amount distributed during the 1990 calendar year. Any funds in excess of this amount shall be distributed as purses at the racing meeting conducted by the association.

SEC. 9. Section 19606.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19606.1. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 19606.3, all revenues distributed to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities shall be deposited in a separate account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, are continuously appropriated from that account to the Department of Food and Agriculture, for allocation by the Director of Food and Agriculture, in his or her discretion, for the following purposes, except that the concurrence of the Director of Finance shall be required for allocations pursuant to paragraphs (1), (2), and (3):

(1) For the repayment of the principal of, interest on, and costs of issuance of, and as security, including any coverage factor, pledged to the payment of, bonds issued or to be issued by a joint powers agency or other debt service or expense, including repayment of any advances made or security required by any provider of credit enhancement or liquidity for those bonds or other indebtedness or expenses of maintaining that credit enhancement or liquidity, incurred for the purpose of constructing or acquiring improvements at a fair's racetrack inclosure, satellite wagering facilities at fairs, health and safety repair projects, or handicapped access compliance projects at fairs or for the purpose of refunding bonds or other indebtedness incurred for those purposes. As used in this paragraph, "coverage factor" means revenues in excess of the amount necessary to pay debt service on the bonds or other indebtedness, up to an amount equal to 100 percent more than the amount of that debt service, which a joint powers agency, pursuant to the resolution or indenture under which the bonds or other indebtedness are or will be issued, pledges as additional security for the payment of that debt service or is required to have or maintain as a condition to the issuance of additional bonds or other indebtedness. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the department may also commit any funds available for allocation under Article 10 (commencing with Section 19620) to complete projects funded under this paragraph in the priority described in this paragraph.

(2) For payment to the State Race Track Leasing Commission to be pledged for the repayment of debt necessary to construct a racetrack grandstand at the 22nd District Agricultural Association fairgrounds. This payment shall be made only if the Director of Food and Agriculture determines, annually, that all other pledged revenues have been applied to the repayment of that debt and have been determined by the director to be inadequate for that purpose.

(3) For the payment of expenses incurred in establishing and operating satellite wagering facilities at fairs.

(4) For health and safety repair projects at fairs, which includes fire and life safety improvement projects, California Code of Regulations compliance projects, and long-term deferred maintenance projects.

(5) For support of fairs generally.

(b) The Director of Food and Agriculture may not make an allocation for purposes of paragraphs (2) to (5), inclusive, of subdivision (a) until the payments required in any fiscal year pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) have been funded.

(c) The payments required in any fiscal year for the purposes of paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, of subdivision (a) shall be funded before any transfer is made pursuant to subdivision (d).

(d) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (c), when the revenues deposited in the separate account exceed eleven million dollars ($11,000,000) in any fiscal year, 98 percent of the amount in excess of eleven million dollars ($11,000,000) shall be transferred to the General Fund.

(e) All of the costs of administering the accounts created by subdivision (a) and Section 19606.3 shall be charged to the respective accounts.

SEC. 10. Section 19606.2 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 19610.7 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19610.7. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, if the total revenues distributed to the state as license fees for deposit in the General Fund for the 1992–93 fiscal year in the central and southern zones, as determined by the board, do not equal or exceed the amount of total revenues distributed to the state as license fees for deposit in the General Fund for the 1990–91 fiscal year in the central and southern zones, the license fees in the central and southern zones shall be increased by one-quarter of 1 percent for meetings in the central and southern zones commencing during the following fiscal year.

SEC. 12. Section 19606.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19606.3. Up to 10 percent of all revenues distributed to racing associations for payment to the state as license fees from satellite wagering facilities located at fairs in the northern zone shall be deposited in a special account in the fund and, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, are hereby continuously appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture for supplementing purses at fair meetings to achieve the purposes of Section 19606.4. The department shall annually determine the percentage of revenues payable to the special account under this section based on the amount necessary to achieve the purposes of Section 19606.4.

SEC. 13. Section 19612 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19612. (a) Except as otherwise provided, every association which conducts a quarter horse race meeting or a harness horse race meeting shall pay a daily license fee at the rate of 1 percent of its daily conventional and exotic parimutuel handle.

(b) With respect to quarter horse meetings, all funds remaining from the deductions provided in Sections 19491, 19491.5, and 19610 after distribution of the license fee, shall be distributed 55 percent as commissions and 45 percent as purses. With respect to harness meetings, except for meetings conducted pursuant to Section 19549.2, the funds remaining from deductions provided in Section 19610, after distribution of the license fee, shall be distributed 59.5 percent as commissions and 40.5 percent as purses. For meetings conducted pursuant to Section 19549.2, the funds remaining from deductions provided in Section 19610, after distribution of the license fee, shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions and 50 percent as purses.

(c) Every association which conducted a quarter horse or Arabian horseracing meeting in the southern zone during the daytime prior to January 1, 1979, and thereafter conducts the meeting at night, shall be entitled to the following license fee adjustment:

For each 1 percent that the association's average daily handle in the 1981 year, during the period from the commencement of the meeting to December 25, falls below its 1980 average daily handle during the same period, the amount of the license fee as set forth in subdivision (a) shall be reduced by 2 percent.

(d) Any association qualified to operate its meetings pursuant to Section 19612.6 shall be entitled to continue to distribute license fees, commissions, and purses as provided by that section.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), for every association which conducts a quarter horse meeting in the northern zone, the amount remaining after deduction of the state license fee shall be distributed between commissions and purses as agreed to by the association conducting the meeting and the organization representing the horsemen participating at the meeting. Every association conducting a quarter horse meeting in the northern zone may deduct an additional amount up to 1 percent of its conventional and exotic parimutuel pools to be distributed as commissions. The association may also deduct an additional 1 percent from the exotic parimutuel pools to be distributed as commissions and purses as agreed to by the association conducting the meeting and the organization representing the horsemen participating at the meeting.

SEC. 14. Section 19612.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19612.6. (a) (1) For harness and mixed meetings, the amount remaining after deduction of the state license fee shall be distributed equally between commissions and purses. For quarter horse, Appaloosa, Appaloosa invitational, and muleracing meetings, the amount remaining after deduction of the state license fee pursuant to Section 19612 shall be distributed between commissions and purses as agreed to by the association conducting the meeting and the organization representing the horsemen or mulemen participating in the meeting. For fair meetings conducted pursuant to Section 19549, the amount remaining after deduction of the state license fee pursuant to Section 19612 shall be distributed 48 percent to commissions and 52 percent to purses.

(2) Every association which conducts a racing meeting pursuant to Section 19549 shall, in addition, deduct from its parimutuel pools the amount specified in subdivision (d) of Section 19614.

(b) If an association qualified to operate its meeting pursuant to this section conducts two separate programs of racing on any day, each such program shall be considered a separate racing day for purposes of determining the daily handle and computing the distribution of license fees, commissions, and purses thereon. For the purposes of this subdivision, a program shall consist of at least nine races.

(c) In addition to any deductions pursuant to this section, every association conducting a racing meeting pursuant to Section 19549.1 shall also deduct an additional 1 percent of its parimutuel pools to be distributed as commissions.

(d) In addition to any deductions pursuant to this section, every association conducting a racing meeting pursuant to Section 19549.1 shall also deduct an additional 2 percent of its exotic parimutuel pools to be distributed equally as commissions and purses.

SEC. 15. Section 19612.7 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 16. Section 19612.8 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19612.8. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any association conducting a racing meeting shall pay not less than the actual amount necessary to cover the costs for compensation, including any fringe benefits, to stewards and official veterinarians and to cover the costs for that racing meeting, as provided by the board under Section 19442.

SEC. 17. Section 4.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 19605.6 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 669. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1992, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 19605.6 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 669, in which case Section 19605.6 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Section 4 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 669, at which time Section 4.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 18. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to minimize reductions in state license fees, purses to horsemen, and revenues to racing associations resulting from declining attendance and handle occurring at horseracing meets in southern California, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 425

An act to amend and renumber Section 13202.7 of, and to add Section 13202.7 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to driving privileges.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13202.7 of the Vehicle Code is amended and renumbered to read:

13202.8. The restrictions specified in Section 13202.5 for the violations specified in that section may include, but are not limited to, the installation and maintenance of a certified ignition interlock device pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 23235) of Chapter 12 of Division 11. Any restriction is subject to the provisions of Section 13202.5 relating to restrictions.

SEC. 2. Section 13202.7 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

13202.7. (a) Any minor under the age of 18 years, but 13 years of age or older, who is an habitual truant within the meaning of Section 48262 of the Education Code, and is adjudged by the juvenile court to be a ward of the court under subdivision (b) of Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, may have his or her driving privilege suspended for one year by the court. If the minor does not yet have the privilege to drive, the court may order the department to delay issuing the privilege to drive for one year subsequent to the time the person becomes legally eligible to drive. However, if there is no further truancy in the 12-month period, the court, upon petition of the person affected, may modify the order imposing the delay of the driving privilege. For each successive time the minor is found to be an habitual truant, the court may suspend the minor's driving privilege for a minor possessing a driver's license, or delay the eligibility for the driving privilege for those not in possession of a driver's license, for one additional year.

(b) Whenever the juvenile court suspends a minor's driving privilege pursuant to subdivision (a), the court may require all driver's licenses held by the minor to be surrendered to the court. The court shall, within 10 days following the surrender of the license, transmit a certified abstract of the findings, together with any driver's licenses surrendered, to the department.

(c) When the juvenile court is considering suspending or delaying a minor's driving privilege pursuant to subdivision (a), the court shall consider whether a personal or family hardship exists that requires the minor to have a driver's license for his or her own, or a member of his or her family's, employment or for medically related purposes.

(d) The suspension, restriction, or delay of a minor's driving privilege pursuant to this section shall be in addition to any other penalty imposed by law on the minor.

CHAPTER 426

An act to add and repeal Sections 8396 and 8397 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8396 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

8396. (a) Any person taking sea cucumbers for commercial purposes shall obtain a sea cucumber permit and shall be in possession of the permit when engaged in those activities.

(b) The department shall issue permits to the owner or operator of a currently registered commercial fishing vessel who has qualified pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) To qualify for a permit an applicant shall meet both of the following criteria:

(1) Prove to the director's satisfaction that as the owner or operator of a legally registered commercial fishing vessel, he or she landed a minimum of 50 pounds of sea cucumbers during any calendar year, or portion thereof, from January 1, 1988, to June 30, 1991, inclusive.

(2) Landings used to qualify applicants for sea cucumber permits shall have been reported to the department as required by Section 8043, with the name of the applicant shown on the receipt.

(d) In order to renew a sea cucumber permit, an applicant shall have been issued a sea cucumber permit in the immediately preceding year and be able to demonstrate that he or she landed a minimum of 100 pounds of sea cucumbers from April 1 through March 31 during one of the three years immediately preceding the permit year.

(e) Permits are nontransferable. Not more than one permit shall be issued to any person.

(f) The fee for sea cucumber permits shall be two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(g) Sea cucumber permits shall be valid from April 1 through March 31 of the following year, or if issued after the beginning of such term, for the remainder thereof.

(h) Each permittee shall complete and submit an accurate record of all sea cucumber fishing activities on forms provided by the department.

(i) Permitholders, their agents, employees, or those acting under their direction or control, shall comply with all applicable provisions of this code relating to commercial fishing and any regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 8397 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

8397. (a) Any person taking hagfish for commercial purposes shall obtain a hagfish permit and shall be in possession of the permit when engaged in those activities.

(b) The department shall issue permits to the owner or operator of a currently registered commercial fishing vessel who has qualified pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) To qualify for a permit an applicant shall meet both of the following criteria:

(1) Prove to the director's satisfaction that as the owner or operator of a legally registered commercial fishing vessel, he or she landed a minimum of 500 pounds of hagfish during the 1988, 1989, or 1990 calendar year.

(2) Landings used to qualify applicants for hagfish permits shall have been reported to the department as required by Section 8043, with the name of the applicant shown on the receipt.

(d) In order to renew a hagfish permit, an applicant shall have been issued a hagfish permit in the immediately preceding year and be able to demonstrate that he or she landed a minimum of 500 pounds of hagfish from April 1 through March 31 during one of the two years immediately preceding the permit year.

(e) Permits are nontransferable. Not more than one permit shall be issued to any person.

(f) The fee for hagfish permits shall be two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(g) Hagfish permits shall be valid from April 1 through March 31 of the following year, or if issued after the beginning of such term, for the remainder thereof.

(h) Each permittee shall complete and submit an accurate record of all hagfish fishing activities on forms provided by the department.

(i) Hagfish may only be taken with traps, subject to Article 1 (commencing with Section 9000) of Chapter 4 except that a hagfish fisherman operating under a hagfish permit is not required to possess a general trap permit pursuant to Section 9001.

(2) The number of traps that may be possessed aboard and used by any fishing vessel operating under a hagfish permit shall not exceed 1,200 Korean traps or 300 of any other type of trap. No fishing vessel operating under a hagfish permit may possess both Korean traps and other types of traps aboard the vessel at the same time. As used in this paragraph, "Korean trap" means a molded plastic cylinder, not exceeding 6 inches in diameter and 24 inches in length.

(i) Permitholders, their agents or employees, or those acting under their direction or control, shall comply with all applicable provisions of this code relating to commercial fishing, and any regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 427

An act to add and repeal Section 4010.75 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to public water systems, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4010.75 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

4010.75. For public water systems with less than 200 service connections, except as provided in Section 4010.9, the local health officer shall be responsible for the enforcement of this chapter. For the purposes of this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, and whenever enforcement activities involve public water systems with less than 200 service connections, the local health officer shall act for the department, except that variances and exemptions may only be granted or revoked by the local health officer following the procedures as provided in Sections 4027.5 and 4031 subject to the approval of the department.

Annual permit fees may be prescribed by the local governing body in accord with Section 510 to pay the reasonable expenses of the local health officer in carrying out this chapter and regulations adopted thereunder.

This section does not apply to state small water systems regulated by Section 4010.8.

This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1992, and, as of January 1, 1993, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure local enforcement of water standards for public water systems with less than 200 service connections until the State Department of Health Services assumes that responsibility July 1, 1992, it is necessary that this bill take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 428

An act relating to the Public Utilities Commission, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Public Utilities Commission, in coordination with the Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, shall conduct an investigation, including workshops, on propane service, rates and safety, and on the use of propane as a clean transportation fuel. The commission shall report the results of the workshops and its recommendations regarding regulation of propane service, rates, and safety, and the use of propane as a clean transportation fuel, to the Legislature on or before December 31, 1992.

SEC. 2. The sum of sixty-four thousand dollars ($64,000) is appropriated from the Public Utilities Commission Reimbursement Account to the Public Utilities Commission for the purposes of this act.

CHAPTER 429

An act to add Section 14132.36 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14132.36 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14132.36. (a) To the extent that federal financial participation becomes available, residential care for alcohol and drug exposed pregnant women and women in the postpartum perinatal period is a covered service under this chapter, subject to utilization controls.

(b) For purposes of this section, "residential care" shall consist of those services specified in the interagency agreement between the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs and the State Department of Health Services.

(c) The State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs shall be the agency responsible for establishing the residential care programs. The department shall, for the purposes of this section, provide funds from the department's budget for the purpose of obtaining federal matching funds under Title XIX of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1396, and following) for the residential care programs.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure delivery of alcohol and drug recovery services to pregnant women and women in the postpartum perinatal period at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 430

An act to amend Section 1465.5 of the Penal Code, relating to assessments, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1465.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1465.5. An assessment of two dollars ($2) for every ten dollars ($10) or fraction thereof, for every fine, forfeiture, or parking penalty imposed and collected pursuant to Section 42001.5 of the Vehicle Code for violation of Section 22507.8 of the Vehicle Code, may be imposed by each county upon the adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors. An assessment imposed by this section shall be collected and disbursed as provided in Section 9394.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

To offset budget reductions to linkages and prevent premature and inappropriate institutionalization of frail elderly and functionally impaired adults, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 431

An act to amend Sections 2099.5 and 2154 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to osteopathic physicians and surgeons.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2099.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2099.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an originating license for an osteopathic physician's and surgeon's certificate issued by the Board of Osteopathic Examiners shall require the following:

(a) A written examination, as prepared by the National Board of Osteopathic Examiners or by the Board of Osteopathic Examiners which includes osteopathic principles and practices and all applicable provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 2080). The board may utilize an examination prepared by the Federation of State Medical Boards until December 31, 1993. An applicant shall successfully complete the written examination, as determined by the board.

(b) An oral, clinical, and practical examination administered by the board which the applicant shall successfully complete, as determined by the board.

SEC. 1.5. Section 2099.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2099.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an originating license for an osteopathic physician's and surgeon's certificate issued by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California shall require the following:

(a) A written examination, as prepared by the National Board of Osteopathic Examiners or by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California which includes osteopathic principles and practices and all applicable provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 2080). The board may utilize an examination prepared by the Federation of State Medical Boards until December 31, 1993. An applicant shall successfully complete the written examination, as determined by the board.

(b) An oral, clinical, and practical examination administered by the board which the applicant shall successfully complete, as determined by the board.

SEC. 2. Section 2154 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2154. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the Board of Osteopathic Examiners shall issue an osteopathic physician's and surgeon's certificate on reciprocity to an applicant providing he or she meets the following requirements:

(a) The applicant holds an unlimited license to engage in the practice of osteopathic medicine in another state whose written licensing examination is recognized and approved by the board to be equivalent in content to that administered in California. For the purposes of this section, the board may recognize and approve as equivalent an examination prepared by the Federation of State Medical Boards if an applicant had been licensed in another state as a result of the successful completion, prior to December 31, 1993, of that examination. In lieu of a board recognized and approved state written license examination, the board may require the applicant to successfully complete a special examination in general medicine and osteopathic principles as prepared by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or the Board of Osteopathic Examiners. The board may utilize an examination prepared by the Federation of State Medical Boards until December 31, 1993.

(b) The board determines that no disciplinary action has been taken against the applicant by any medical licensing authority and that the applicant has not been the subject of adverse judgments or settlements resulting from the practice of medicine which the board determines constitutes evidence of a pattern of negligence or incompetence.

(c) The applicant successfully completes an oral, clinical, and practical examination, as determined by the board.

SEC. 2.5. Section 2154 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2154. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the Osteopathic Medical Board of California shall issue a osteopathic physician's and surgeon's certificate on reciprocity to an applicant providing he or she meets the following requirements:

(a) The applicant holds an unlimited license to engage in the practice of osteopathic medicine in another state whose written licensing examination is recognized and approved by the board to be equivalent in content to that administered in California. For the purposes of this section, the board may recognize and approve as equivalent an examination prepared by the Federation of State Medical Boards if an applicant had been licensed in another state as a result of the successful completion, prior to December 31, 1993, of that examination. In lieu of a board recognized and approved state written license examination, the board may require the applicant to successfully complete a special examination in general medicine and osteopathic principles as prepared by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners, or the Osteopathic Medical Board of California. The board may utilize an examination prepared by the Federation of State Medical Boards until December 31, 1993.

(b) The board determines that no disciplinary action has been taken against the applicant by any medical licensing authority and that the applicant has not been the subject of adverse judgments or settlements resulting from the practice of medicine which the board determines constitutes evidence of a pattern of negligence or incompetence.

(c) The applicant successfully completes an oral, clinical, and practical examination, as determined by the board.

SEC. 3. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 2099.5 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1332. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 2099.5 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1332, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 2154 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1332. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 2154 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1332, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 432

An act to amend Section 47 of the Civil Code, relating to privilege.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 47 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

47. A privileged publication or broadcast is one made:

(a) In the proper discharge of an official duty.

(b) In any (1) legislative or (2) judicial proceeding, or (3) in any other official proceeding authorized by law, or (4) in the initiation or course of any other proceeding authorized by law and reviewable pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1084) of Title 1 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except as follows:

(1) An allegation or averment contained in any pleading or affidavit filed in an action for marital dissolution or legal separation made of or concerning a person by or against whom no affirmative relief is prayed in the action shall not be a privileged publication or broadcast as to the person making the allegation or averment within the meaning of this section unless the pleading is verified or affidavit sworn to, and is made without malice, by one having reasonable and probable cause for believing the truth of the allegation or averment and unless the allegation or averment is material and relevant to the issues in the action.

(2) This subdivision does not make privileged any communication made in furtherance of an act of intentional destruction or alteration of physical evidence undertaken for the purpose of depriving a party to litigation of the use of that evidence, whether or not the content of the communication is the subject of a subsequent publication or broadcast which is privileged pursuant to this section. As used in this paragraph, "physical evidence" means evidence specified in Section 250 of the Evidence Code or evidence that is property of any type specified in Section 2031 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) In a communication, without malice, to a person interested therein, (1) by one who is also interested, or (2) by one who stands in such a relation to the person interested as to afford a reasonable ground for supposing the motive for the communication to be innocent, or (3) who is requested by the person interested to give the information.

(d) By a fair and true report in a public journal, of (1) a judicial, (2) legislative, or (3) other public official proceeding, or (4) of anything said in the course thereof, or (5) of a verified charge or complaint made by any person to a public official, upon which complaint a warrant has been issued.

(e) By a fair and true report of (1) the proceedings of a public meeting, if the meeting was lawfully convened for a lawful purpose and open to the public, or (2) the publication of the matter complained of was for the public benefit.

CHAPTER 433

An act to add Section 3562.1 to the Government Code, relating to employees.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3562.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

3562.1. The California State University may meet and confer with the employee organization selected as the exclusive representative of appropriate units at the university on the establishment of flexible benefit plans. Any agreement between the university and an employee organization which requires the expenditure of funds for a flexible benefit program is not subject to legislative approval if funds otherwise appropriated to the California State University for employee compensation are sufficient to finance the flexible benefit plan.

CHAPTER 434

An act to amend Section 14021.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14021.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14021.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, rates for reimbursing Short-Doyle mental health and drug services allowable under the Medi-Cal program and rendered to Medi-Cal beneficiaries under the Short-Doyle program shall continue to be based on the upper limits allowable under federal law and regulations for services provided prior to July 1, 1980, on the lower of reasonable cost and customary charges for services provided July 1, 1980, through June 30, 1982, and on the lowest of reasonable cost, customary charges, and rates paid by the Short-Doyle program for services provided July 1, 1982, through June 30, 1984.

(b) The Legislature hereby states and declares that this section does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, existing law and that rates for reimbursing Short-Doyle mental health and drug services to Medi-Cal beneficiaries under the Short-Doyle program in previous fiscal years were based upon the lower of reasonable costs or customary charges.

(c) The State Department of Health Services, after consulting with the State Department of Mental Health and the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs, in regard to their respective programs, shall promulgate emergency regulations relating to claims submission and establishing rates and a ratesetting methodology for determining reimbursement of Short-Doyle mental health and drug services allowable under the Medi-Cal program and rendered to Medi-Cal beneficiaries under the State Department of Mental Health and the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs' programs respectively. The methodology and rates shall reflect the most recently completed cost reports and shall be effective commencing July 1, 1984.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, rates for reimbursing Short-Doyle mental health services allowable under the Medi-Cal program and rendered to Medi-Cal beneficiaries under the programs administered by the State Department of Mental Health shall be effective from July 1 through June 30 of the fiscal year in which these rates are established.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, rates for reimbursing drug services allowable under the Medi-Cal program and rendered to Medi-Cal beneficiaries under the programs administered by the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs shall be effective from July 1 through June 30 of the fiscal year in which these rates are established.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to avoid delay in the provision of treatment for mentally disabled clients, and to ensure continuity and adequacy of treatment for these clients, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 435

An act to amend Sections 1605, 2962, 2964, 2970, and 2976 of the Penal Code, and to amend Section 4117 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to prisoners.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1605 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1605. (a) In accordance with Section 1615 of this code and Section 5709.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the State Department of Mental Health shall be responsible for the supervision of persons placed on outpatient status under this title. The State Department of Mental Health shall designate, for each county or region comprised of two or more counties, a community program director who shall be responsible for administering the community treatment programs for persons committed from that county or region under the provisions specified in Section 1600.

(b) The State Department of Mental Health shall notify in writing the superior court, the district attorney, the county public defender or public defense agency, and the county mental health director of each county as to the person designated to be the community program director for that county, and timely written notice shall be given whenever a new community program director is to be designated.

(c) The community program director shall be the outpatient treatment supervisor of persons placed on outpatient status under this title. The community program director may delegate the outpatient treatment supervision responsibility to a designee.

(d) The outpatient treatment supervisor shall, at 90-day intervals following the beginning of outpatient treatment, submit to the court, the prosecutor and defense counsel, and to the community program director, where appropriate, a report setting forth the status and progress of the defendant.

SEC. 2. Section 2962 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2962. As a condition of parole, a prisoner who meets the following criteria shall be required to be treated by the State Department of Mental Health, and the State Department of Mental Health shall provide the necessary treatment:

(a) The prisoner has a severe mental disorder that is not in remission or cannot be kept in remission without treatment.

The term "severe mental disorder" means an illness or disease or condition that substantially impairs the person's thought, perception of reality, emotional process, or judgment; or which grossly impairs behavior; or that demonstrates evidence of an acute brain syndrome for which prompt remission, in the absence of treatment, is unlikely.

The term "severe mental disorder" as used in this section does not include a personality or adjustment disorder, epilepsy, mental retardation or other developmental disabilities, or addiction to or abuse of intoxicating substances.

The term "remission" means a finding that the overt signs and symptoms of the severe mental disorder are controlled either by psychotropic medication or psychosocial support. A person "cannot be kept in remission without treatment" if during the year prior to the question being before the Board of Prison Terms or a trial court, he or she has been in remission and he or she has been physically violent, except in self-defense, or he or she has made a serious threat of substantial physical harm upon the person of another so as to cause the target of the threat to reasonably fear for his or her safety or the safety of his or her immediate family, or he or she has intentionally caused property damage, or he or she has not voluntarily followed the treatment plan. In determining if a person has voluntarily followed the treatment plan, the standard shall be whether the person has acted as a reasonable person would in following the treatment plan.

(b) The severe mental disorder was one of the causes of or was an aggravating factor in the commission of a crime for which the prisoner was sentenced to prison.

(c) The prisoner has been in treatment for the severe mental disorder for 90 days or more within the year prior to the prisoner's parole or release.

(d) (1) Prior to release on parole, the person in charge of treating the prisoner and a practicing psychiatrist or psychologist from the State Department of Mental Health have evaluated the prisoner at a facility of the Department of Corrections, and a chief psychiatrist of the Department of Corrections has certified to the Board of Prison Terms that the prisoner has a severe mental disorder, that the disorder is not in remission, or cannot be kept in remission without treatment, that the severe mental disorder was one of the causes or was an aggravating factor in the prisoner's criminal behavior, that the prisoner has been in treatment for the severe mental disorder for 90 days or more within the year prior to his or her parole release day, that the prisoner used force or violence or caused serious bodily injury in committing the crime referred to in subdivision (b), and that by reason of his or her severe mental disorder the prisoner represents a substantial danger of physical harm to others. For prisoners being treated by the State Department of Mental Health pursuant to Section 2684, the certification shall be by a chief psychiatrist of the Department of Corrections, and the evaluation shall be done at a state hospital by the person at the state hospital in charge of treating the prisoner and a practicing psychiatrist or psychologist from the Department of Corrections.

be kept in remission without treatment, or (3) that the severe mental disorder was a cause of, or aggravated, the prisoner's criminal behavior, and a chief psychiatrist has certified the prisoner to the Board of Prison Terms pursuant to this paragraph, then the Board of Prison Terms shall order a further examination by two independent professionals, as provided for in Section 2978.

(3) Only if both independent professionals who evaluate the prisoner pursuant to paragraph (2) concur with the chief psychiatrist's certification of the issues described in paragraph (2), shall this subdivision be applicable to the prisoner. The professionals appointed pursuant to Section 2978 shall inform the prisoner that the purpose of their examination is not treatment but to determine if the prisoner meets certain criteria to be involuntarily treated as a mentally disordered offender. It is not required that the prisoner appreciate or understand that information.

(e) The crime referred to in subdivision (b) was a crime in which the prisoner used force or violence, or caused serious bodily injury as defined in paragraph (5) of subdivision (f) of Section 243.

(f) As used in this chapter, "substantial danger of physical harm" does not require proof of a recent overt act.

SEC. 3. Section 2964 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2964. (a) The treatment required by Section 2962 shall be inpatient unless the State Department of Mental Health certifies to the Board of Prison Terms that there is reasonable cause to believe the parolee can be safely and effectively treated on an outpatient basis, in which case the Board of Prison Terms shall permit the State Department of Mental Health to place the parolee in an outpatient treatment program specified by the State Department of Mental Health. Any prisoner who is to be required to accept treatment pursuant to Section 2962 shall be informed in writing of his or her right to request a hearing pursuant to Section 2966. Prior to placing a parolee in a local outpatient program, the State Department of Mental Health shall consult with the local outpatient program as to the appropriate treatment plan. Notwithstanding any other law, a parolee ordered to have outpatient treatment pursuant to this section may be placed in an outpatient treatment program used to provide outpatient treatment under Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2, but the procedural provisions of Title 15 shall not apply. The community program director or a designee of an outpatient program used to provide treatment under Title 15 in which a parolee is placed, may place the parolee, or cause the parolee to be placed, in a secure mental health facility if the parolee can no longer be safely or effectively treated in the outpatient program, and until the parolee can be safely and effectively treated in the program. Upon the request of the community program director or a designee, a peace officer shall take the parolee into custody and transport the parolee, or cause the parolee to be taken into custody and transported, to a facility designated by the community program director, or a designee, for confinement under this section. Within 15 days after placement in a secure facility the State Department of Mental Health shall conduct a hearing on whether the parolee can be safely and effectively treated in the program unless the patient or the patient's attorney agrees to a continuance, or unless good cause exists that prevents the State Department of Mental Health from conducting the hearing within that period of time. If good cause exists, the hearing shall be held within 21 days after placement in a secure facility. For purposes of this section, "good cause" means the inability to secure counsel, an interpreter, or witnesses for the hearing within the 15-day time period. Before deciding to seek revocation of the parole of a parolee receiving mental health treatment pursuant to Section 2962, and return him or her to prison, the parole officer shall consult with the director of the parolee's outpatient program. Nothing in this section shall prevent hospitalization pursuant to Section 5150, 5250, or 5353 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(b) If the State Department of Mental Health has not placed a parolee on outpatient treatment within 60 days after receiving custody of the parolee or after parole is continued pursuant to Section 3001, the parolee may request a hearing before the Board of Prison Terms, and the board shall conduct a hearing to determine whether the prisoner shall be treated as an inpatient or an outpatient. At the hearing, the burden shall be on the State Department of Mental Health to establish that the prisoner requires inpatient treatment as described in this subdivision. If the prisoner or any person appearing on his or her behalf at the hearing requests it, the board shall appoint two independent professionals as provided for in Section 2978.

SEC. 4. Section 2970 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2970. Not later than 180 days prior to the termination of parole, or release from prison if the prisoner refused to agree to treatment as a condition of parole as required by Section 2962, unless good cause is shown for the reduction of that 180-day period, if the prisoner's severe mental disorder is not in remission or cannot be kept in remission without treatment, the medical director of the state hospital which is treating the parolee, or the community program director in charge of the parolee's outpatient program, or the Director of Corrections, shall submit to the district attorney of the county in which the parolee is receiving outpatient treatment, or for those in prison or in a state mental hospital, the district attorney of the county of commitment, his or her written evaluation on remission. If requested by the district attorney, the written evaluation shall be accompanied by supporting affidavits.

The district attorney may then file a petition with the superior court for continued involuntary treatment for one year. The petition shall be accompanied by affidavits specifying that treatment, while the prisoner was released from prison on parole, has been continuously provided by the State Department of Mental Health either in a state hospital or in an outpatient program. The petition shall also specify that the prisoner has a severe mental disorder, that the severe mental disorder is not in remission or cannot be kept in remission if the person's treatment is not continued, and that, by reason of his or her severe mental disorder, the prisoner represents a substantial danger of physical harm to others.

SEC. 5. Section 2976 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2976. (a) The cost of inpatient or outpatient treatment under Section 2962 or 2972 shall be a state expense while the person is under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections or the State Department of Mental Health.

(b) Any person placed outside of a facility of the Department of Corrections for the purposes of inpatient treatment under this article shall not be deemed to be released from imprisonment or from the custody of the Department of Corrections prior to the expiration of the maximum term of imprisonment of the person.

SEC. 6. Section 4117 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4117. (a) Whenever a trial is had of any person charged with escape or attempt to escape from a state hospital, whenever a hearing is had on the return of a writ of habeas corpus prosecuted by or on behalf of any person confined in a state hospital except in a proceeding to which Section 5110 applies, whenever a hearing is had on a petition under Section 1026.2, subdivision (b) of Section 1026.5, Section 2972 of the Penal Code, Section 7361 of this code, or former Section 6316.2 of this code for the release of a person confined in a state hospital, and whenever a person confined in a state hospital is tried for any crime committed therein, the county clerk of the county in which the trial or hearing is had shall make out a statement of all mental health treatment costs and shall make out a separate statement of all nontreatment costs incurred by the county for investigation and other preparation for the trial or hearing, and the actual trial or hearing, all costs of maintaining custody of the patient and transporting him or her to and from the hospital, and costs of appeal, which statements shall be properly certified by a judge of the superior court of that county and the statement of mental treatment costs shall be sent to the State Department of Mental Health and the statement of all nontreatment costs shall be sent to the Controller for approval. After approval, the department shall cause the amount of mental health costs incurred on or after July 1, 1987, to be paid to the county mental health director or his or her designee where the trial or hearing was held out of the money appropriated for this purpose by the Legislature. In addition the Controller shall cause the amount of all nontreatment costs incurred on and after July 1, 1987, to be paid out of the money appropriated by the Legislature, to the county treasurer of the county where the trial or hearing was had.

(b) Whenever a hearing is held pursuant to Section 1604, 1608, or 1609 of the Penal Code, all transportation costs to and from a state hospital or a facility designated by the community program director during the hearing shall be paid by the Controller as provided in this subdivision. The county clerk of the county in which a hearing is held shall make out a statement of all transportation costs incurred by the county which statement shall be properly certified by a judge of the superior court of that county and sent to the Controller for approval. The Controller shall cause the amount of transportation costs incurred on and after July 1, 1987, to be paid to the county treasurer of the county where the hearing was had out of the money appropriated by the Legislature.

As used in this subdivision the community program director is the person designated pursuant to Section 1605 of the Penal Code.

CHAPTER 436

An act to amend Section 2884.2 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to telephones, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2884.2 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

2884.2. (a) Except as specified in subdivision (b), the billing and collection practices of a telephone corporation for services rendered to or for an information service which contains harmful matter, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 313 of the Penal Code, are not subject to the jurisdiction and control of the commission, notwithstanding Section 2884, but are a matter for contractual arrangement between the telephone corporation and the information provider.

(b) Nothing in subdivision (a) affects the commission's jurisdiction over billing and collection for any other information service.

(c) The commission may, on complaint or on its own motion, after a hearing, find and determine that circumstances including, but not limited to, anticompetitive results, require the exercise of jurisdiction and control by it over those matters removed from its jurisdiction and control by subdivision (a), and may then exercise that jurisdiction and control.

(d) Subdivision (a) applies only to that class of information-access telephone service furnished within or between service areas, as defined in Section 230.3, through the use of either a "976" prefix or a "900" access code telephone number, and applies only to billing and collection services in that class of service.

(e) The commission shall prepare and submit to the Legislature, on or before January 1, 1990, and annually thereafter, a report on all of the following:

(1) Any anticompetitive effects it finds and determines to have resulted from the implementation of this section.

(2) Any significant proposals for further deregulation made to the commission based on this section.

(3) The commission's findings and recommendations concerning the effectiveness and continuing need for this section.

(f) The commission may investigate and consider, for purposes of establishing telephone rates, revenues and expenses related to any billing or collection services rendered by a telephone corporation to or for an information provider.

(g) A telephone corporation shall, before refusing to provide billing and collection services for any information service, give the information provider of that service and the commission not less than 30 days' advance notice.

(h) If a telephone corporation elects to enter into a contractual arrangement to provide billing and collection services to an information provider, the telephone corporation shall provide those services to the information provider under the same terms, conditions, and rates that the service is offered to all other information providers contracting for the services. The telephone corporation shall provide copies of the contracts to the commission and, on request, to any other interested party.

(i) Notwithstanding Section 17024 of the Business and Professions Code, billing and collection services described in subdivision (a) are services subject to Part 2 (commencing with Section 16600) of Division 7 of that code. A person or firm claiming a violation of Section 17045 of that code, with respect to those services, may proceed in accordance with Article 4 (commencing with Section 17070) of Chapter 4 of Part 2 of Division 7 of that code, or pursue any other remedy available under law.

(j) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1993, and, as of January 1, 1994, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to continue the operation of Section 2884.2 of the Public Utilities Code, and thereby continue in operation a statute governing essential telephone services, without interruption, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 437

An act to amend, repeal, and add Sections 1203.1f, 1208.5, and 2900.5 of, to add and repeal Sections 1208.2 and 1208.3 of, and to repeal and add Section 1203.1e to, the Penal Code, relating to alternative sentencing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1203.1e of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 1203.1e is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1203.1e. (a) In any case in which a defendant is ordered to serve a period of confinement in a county jail or other local detention facility, and the defendant is eligible to be released on parole by the county board of parole commissioners, the court shall, after a hearing, make a determination of the ability of the person to pay all or a portion of the reasonable cost of providing parole supervision. The reasonable cost of those services shall not exceed the amount determined to be the actual average cost of providing parole supervision.

(b) If the court determines that the person has the ability to pay all or part of the costs, the court may set the amount to be reimbursed and order the person to pay that sum to the county in the manner in which the court believes reasonable and compatible with the person's financial ability. In making a determination of whether a person has the ability to pay, the court shall take into account the amount of any fine imposed upon the person and any amount the person has been ordered to pay in restitution.

If practicable, the court shall order payments to be made on a monthly basis as directed by the court. Execution may be issued on the order in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action. The order to pay all or part of the costs shall not be enforced by contempt.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "ability to pay" means the overall capability of the person to reimburse the costs, or a portion of the costs, of providing parole supervision and shall include, but shall not be limited to, consideration of all of the following factors:

(1) Present financial position.

(2) Reasonably discernible future financial position. In no event shall the board consider a period of more than six months from the date of the hearing for purposes of determining reasonably discernible future financial position.

(3) Likelihood that the person shall be able to obtain employment within the six-month period from the date of the hearing.

(4) Any other factor or factors which may bear upon the person's financial capability to reimburse the county for the costs.

(d) At any time during the pendency of the order made under this section, a person against whom an order has been made may petition the court to modify or vacate its previous order on the grounds of a change of circumstances with regard to the person's ability to pay. The court shall advise the person of this right at the time of making the order.

(e) All sums paid by any person pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the general fund of the county.

(f) The parole of any person shall not be denied or revoked in whole or in part based upon the inability or failure to pay under this section.

(g) The county board of parole commissioners shall not have access to offender financial data prior to the rendering of any parole decision.

(h) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1995.

SEC. 3. Section 1203.1f of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.1f. If practicable, the court shall consolidate the ability to pay determination hearings authorized pursuant to Sections 987.8, 1203.1b, and 1203.1c into one proceeding, and the determination of ability to pay made at the consolidated hearing may be used for all purposes relating to these listed sections.

This section shall remain operative until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 1203.1f is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1203.1f. If practicable, the court shall consolidate the ability to pay determination hearings authorized pursuant to Sections 987.8, 1203.1b, 1203.1c, and 1203.1e into one proceeding, and the determination of ability to pay made at the consolidated hearing may be used for all purposes relating to these listed sections.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1995.

SEC. 5. Section 1208.2 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1208.2. (a) (1) This section shall apply to individuals authorized to participate in a work furlough program pursuant to Section 1208, or to individuals authorized to participate in an electronic home detention program pursuant to Section 1208.1, or to individuals authorized to participate in a county parole program pursuant to Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 3074) of Chapter 8 of Title 1 of Part 3.

(2) As used in this section, as appropriate, "administrator" means the work furlough administrator, county corrections administrator, county electronic home detention administrator, county board of parole commissioners, or county parole administrator.

(b) A board of supervisors which implements programs identified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), may prescribe a program administrative fee and an application fee, that together do not exceed the pro rata cost of the program to which the prisoner is accepted, including both equipment and supervision costs.

(c) The administrator, or his or her designee, shall not consider a prisoner's ability or inability to pay all or a portion of the program fee for the purposes of granting or denying participation in any of the programs, and shall not have access to the prisoner's financial data prior to rendering a decision.

(d) For purposes of this section, "ability to pay" means the overall capability of the person to reimburse the costs, or a portion of the costs, of providing supervision and shall include, but shall not be limited to, consideration of all of the following factors:

(1) Present financial position.

(2) Reasonably discernible future financial position. In no event shall the administrator, or his or her designee, consider a period of more than six months from the date of acceptance into the program for purposes of determining reasonably discernible future financial position.

(3) Likelihood that the prisoner shall be able to obtain employment within the six-month period from the date of acceptance into the program.

(4) Any other factor that may bear upon the prisoner's financial capability to reimburse the county for the fees fixed pursuant to subdivision (b).

(e) The administrator, or his or her designee, may charge a prisoner the fee set by the board of supervisors or any portion of the fee, based on the prisoner's ability to pay, and may determine the method and frequency of payment. The administrator, or his or her designee, shall have the option to waive the fees for program supervision when deemed necessary, justified, or in the interests of justice. The fees charged for program supervision may be modified or waived at any time based on the changing financial position of the prisoner. All fees paid by prisoners for program supervision shall be deposited into the general fund of the county.

(f) No prisoner shall be denied consideration for, or be removed from, participation in any of the programs to which this section applies because of an inability to pay all or a portion of the program supervision fees. At any time during a prisoner's sentence, the prisoner may request that the administrator, or his or her designee, modify or suspend the payment of fees on the grounds of a change in circumstances with regard to the prisoner's ability to pay.

(g) If the prisoner and the administrator, or his or her designee, are unable to come to an agreement regarding the prisoner's ability to pay, or the amount which is to be paid, or the method and frequency with which payment is to be made, the administrator, or his or her designee, shall advise the appropriate court of the fact that the prisoner and administrator, or his or her designee, have not been able to reach agreement and the court shall then resolve the disagreement by determining the prisoner's ability to pay, the amount which is to be paid, and the method and frequency with which payment is to be made.

(h) At the time a prisoner is approved for any of the programs to which this section applies, the administrator, or his or her designee, shall furnish the prisoner a written statement of the prisoner's rights in regard to the program for which the prisoner has been approved, including, but not limited to, both of the following:

(1) The fact that the prisoner cannot be denied consideration for or removed from participation in the program because of an inability to pay.

(2) The fact that if the prisoner is unable to reach agreement with the administrator, or his or her designee, regarding the prisoner's ability to pay, the amount which is to be paid, or the manner and frequency with which payment is to be made, that the matter shall be referred to the court to resolve the differences.

(i) This section shall remain operative until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 1208.3 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1208.3. The administrator is not prohibited by subdivision (c) of Section 1208.2 from verifying any of the following:

(a) That the prisoner is receiving wages at a rate of pay not less than the prevailing minimum wage requirement as provided for in subdivision (c) of Section 1208.

(b) That the prisoner is working a specified minimum number of required hours.

(c) That the prisoner is covered under an appropriate or suitable workers' compensation insurance plan as may otherwise be required by law.

The purpose of the verification shall be solely to insure that the prisoner's employment rights are being protected, that the prisoner is not being taken advantage of, that the job is suitable for the prisoner, and that the prisoner is making every reasonable effort to make a productive contribution to the community.

(d) This section shall remain operative until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 1208.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1208.5. The boards of supervisors of two or more counties having work furlough programs established pursuant to Section 1208, home detention programs established pursuant to Section 1208.1, or county parole programs established pursuant to Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 3074) of Chapter 8 of Title 1 of Part 3, may enter into agreements whereby a person sentenced to, or imprisoned in, the jail of one county, but regularly residing in another county or regularly employed in another county, may be transferred from the custody of the sheriff, administrator, as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 1208.2, or their designees, of the county in which he or she is confined, to the custody of the appropriate administrator of the county in which he or she resides or is employed, in order that he or she may be enabled to continue in his or her regular employment or education in the other county through that county's work furlough program, home detention program, or county parole program. These agreements may make provision for the support of transferred persons by the county from which they are transferred. The board of supervisors of any county may, by ordinance, delegate the authority to enter into these agreements to the work furlough administrator, corrections administrator, county home detention program administrator, county board of parole commissioners, county parole administrator, or their designees.

This section shall remain operative until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 1208.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1995.

SEC. 9. Section 2900.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2900.5. (a) In all felony and misdemeanor convictions, either by plea or by verdict, when the defendant has been in custody, including, but not limited to, any time spent in a jail, camp, work furlough facility, halfway house, rehabilitation facility, hospital, prison, juvenile detention facility, similar residential institution, or home detention program, all days of custody of the defendant, including days served as a condition of probation in compliance with a court order, and including days credited to the period of confinement pursuant to Section 4019, shall be credited upon his or her term of imprisonment, or credited to any fine which may be imposed, at the rate of not less than thirty dollars ($30) per day, or more, in the discretion of the court imposing the sentence. If the total number of days in custody exceeds the number of days of the term of imprisonment to be imposed, the entire term of imprisonment shall be deemed to have been served. In any case where the court has imposed both a prison or jail term of imprisonment and a fine, any days to be credited to the defendant shall first be applied to the term of imprisonment imposed, and thereafter the remaining days, if any, shall be applied to the fine.

(b) For the purposes of this section, credit shall be given only where the custody to be credited is attributable to proceedings related to the same conduct for which the defendant has been convicted. Credit shall be given only once for a single period of custody attributable to multiple offenses for which a consecutive sentence is imposed.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "term of imprisonment" includes any period of imprisonment imposed as a condition of probation or otherwise ordered by a court in imposing or suspending the imposition of any sentence, and also includes any term of imprisonment, including any period of imprisonment prior to release on parole and any period of imprisonment and parole, prior to discharge, whether established or fixed by statute, by any court, or by any duly authorized administrative agency.

(d) It shall be the duty of the court imposing the sentence to determine the date or dates of any admission to and release from custody prior to sentencing, and the total number of days to be credited pursuant to this section. The total number of days to be credited shall be contained in the abstract of judgment provided for in Section 1213.

(e) It shall be the duty of any agency to which a person is committed to apply the credit provided for in this section for the period between the date of sentencing and the date the person is delivered to the agency.

(f) If a defendant serves time in a camp, work furlough facility, halfway house, rehabilitation facility, hospital, juvenile detention facility, similar residential facility, or home detention program in lieu of imprisonment in county jail, and the statute under which the defendant is sentenced requires a mandatory minimum period of time in jail, the time spent in these facilities or programs shall qualify as mandatory time in jail.

(g) This section shall remain operative until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 2900.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

2900.5. (a) In all felony and misdemeanor convictions, either by plea or by verdict, when the defendant has been in custody, including but not limited to any time spent in a jail, camp, work furlough facility, halfway house, rehabilitation facility, hospital, prison, juvenile detention facility, or similar residential institution, all days of custody of the defendant, including days served as a condition of probation in compliance with a court order, and including days credited to the period of confinement pursuant to Section 4019, shall be credited upon his or her term of imprisonment, or credited to any fine which may be imposed, at the rate of not less than thirty dollars ($30) per day, or more, in the discretion of the court imposing the sentence. If the total number of days in custody exceeds the number of days of the term of imprisonment to be imposed, the entire term of imprisonment shall be deemed to have been served. In any case where the court has imposed both a prison or jail term of imprisonment and a fine, any days to be credited to the defendant shall first be applied to the term of imprisonment imposed, and thereafter the remaining days, if any, shall be applied to the fine.

(b) For the purposes of this section, credit shall be given only where the custody to be credited is attributable to proceedings related to the same conduct for which the defendant has been convicted. Credit shall be given only once for a single period of custody attributable to multiple offenses for which a consecutive sentence is imposed.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "term of imprisonment" includes any period of imprisonment imposed as a condition of probation or otherwise ordered by a court in imposing or suspending the imposition of any sentence, and also includes any term of imprisonment, including any period of imprisonment prior to release on parole and any period of imprisonment and parole, prior to discharge, whether established or fixed by statute, by any court, or by any duly authorized administrative agency.

(d) It shall be the duty of the court imposing the sentence to determine the date or dates of any admission to, and release from, custody prior to sentencing and the total number of days to be credited pursuant to this section. The total number of days to be credited shall be contained in the abstract of judgment provided for in Section 1213.

(e) It shall be the duty of any agency to which a person is committed to apply the credit provided for in this section for the period between the date of sentencing and the date the person is delivered to the agency.

(f) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1995.

SEC. 11. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Because of increasing court congestion and the need for effective and timely imposition of fees for parole supervision, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 438

An act to add Section 12829 to the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to economic poisons.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12829 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

12829. If a person has a research authorization for an economic poison issued pursuant to Section 6260 of Title 3 of the California Code of Regulations for the purpose of testing the economic poison, and the produce on which the economic poison was tested is required to be destroyed, any actual costs incurred by the commissioner to investigate and confirm the destruction of the produce shall be paid for by the person who has the research authorization. The costs charged by the commissioner shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) per testsite. The board of supervisors of each county may adopt a fee schedule to cover the commissioner's costs under this section.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 439

An act to add Section 56326.5 to the Government Code, relating to local agency formation commissions.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 56326.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

56326.5. In Sacramento County, the commission shall consist of seven members, selected as follows:

(a) Two representing the county, appointed by the board of supervisors from their own membership. The board of supervisors shall appoint a third supervisor who shall serve as an alternate member of the commission. The alternate member may serve and vote in place of any supervisor on the commission who is absent or who disqualifies himself or herself from participating in a meeting of the commission. If the office of the regular county member becomes vacant, the alternate member may serve and vote in place of the former regular county member until the appointment and qualification of a regular county member to fill the vacancy.

(b) One representing the City of Sacramento who is a member of the city council, appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the city council. The mayor shall also appoint, subject to confirmation by the council, an alternate member who is a member of the city council. The alternate member may serve and vote in place of the regular city member if the city member is absent or disqualifies himself or herself from participating in a meeting of the commission. If the office of the regular city member becomes vacant, the alternate member may serve and vote in place of the former regular city member until the appointment and qualification of a regular city member to fill the vacancy.

(c) One representing the cities in the county, who is a city officer appointed by the city selection committee. The city selection committee shall also designate one alternate member who shall be appointed and serve pursuant to Section 56335.

(d) Two representing special districts selected by an independent special district selection committee pursuant to Section 56332. The independent special district selection committee shall also designate one alternate member who shall be appointed and serve pursuant to Section 56332.

(e) One representing the general public, appointed by the other six members of the commission. The commission may also appoint an alternate public member who may serve and vote in the place of the regular public member if the regular public member is absent or disqualifies himself or herself from participating in a meeting of the commission. If the office of the regular public member becomes vacant, the alternate member may serve and vote in place of the former regular public member until the appointment and qualification of a regular public member to fill the vacancy.

The member initially selected to serve pursuant to subdivision (b) shall commence serving on or after January 1, 1992, on a date determined by the Mayor of the City of Sacramento, and shall serve for the remainder of the term of, and in place of, a member to be designated by the mayor, appointed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 56325.

SEC. 2. The City of Sacramento has the largest population of any city in the County of Sacramento, creating a unique set of circumstances which affects its role in the growth and development of urban areas. Due to these unique facts and circumstances applicable only to the County of Sacramento, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution. Special legislation is, therefore, necessary to be applicable only to the County of Sacramento.

CHAPTER 440

An act to amend Section 22790 of the Government Code, relating to retirement.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 19, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22790 of the Government Code, as amended by Chapter 199 of the Statutes of 1986, is amended to read:

22790. (a) The board may contract with carriers for health benefits plans for employees and annuitants and major medical plans or approve health benefit plans offered by employee organizations, provided that the carriers have operated successfully in the prepaid hospital and medical care field prior to the contracting for or approval thereof. The plans may include hospital benefits, surgical benefits, in-hospital medical benefits, outpatient benefits, and obstetrical benefits, and benefits offered by a bona fide church, sect, denomination or organization whose principles include healing entirely by prayer or spiritual means. The board shall contract with a sufficient number of carriers and plans that provide chiropractic services so that every employee and annuitant shall have a reasonable opportunity to enroll in a plan that provides chiropractic services without prior referral by a physician. The board may contract with health maintenance organizations approved under Title XIII of the federal Public Health Services Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 201 et seq.).

(c) The board shall approve any employee association health benefits plan which was approved by the board in the 1987–88 contract year or any year prior to that date, provided the plan continues to meet the minimum standards prescribed by the board.

SEC. 2. Section 22790 of the Government Code, as amended by Chapter 1677 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

services so that every employee and annuitant shall have a reasonable opportunity to enroll in a plan that provides chiropractic services without prior referral by a physician. The board may contract with health maintenance organizations approved under Title XIII of the federal Public Health Services Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 201 et seq.).

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, the board also may contract with health plans offering unique or specialized health services. The board shall contract with one or more carriers or plans in order that state annuitants may have vision care benefits comparable to those provided state employees under plans contracted for by the Department of Personnel Administration. The vision care benefit plans shall each contain a proven nationwide network of providers in order to meet the needs of annuitants. The vision care benefit plans may only vary from the vision care benefit plan provided to state employees in the areas of deductibles and frequency of service.

CHAPTER 441

An act to amend Sections 75.55 and 155.20 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to property taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 75.55 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

75.55. (a) A county board of supervisors may, by ordinance, provide for the cancellation of any supplemental tax bill in which the amount of taxes to be billed is less than the cost of administration. In no event shall any supplemental tax bill be canceled pursuant to this subdivision if the amount of taxes on that bill exceeds twenty dollars ($20), or fifty dollars ($50) in the case of eligible mobilehome accessories.

(b) Except where a county board of supervisors has adopted an ordinance pursuant to subdivision (a), a county board of supervisors may, by ordinance, provide for the cancellation by the assessor of any supplemental assessment where that assessment would result in an amount of taxes due which is less than the cost of assessing and collecting those taxes. In no event shall any supplemental assessment be canceled pursuant to this subdivision if the amount of taxes resulting from that supplemental assessment would exceed twenty dollars ($20), or fifty dollars ($50) in the case of eligible mobilehome accessories.

(c) Notwithstanding this section, no taxable real property shall be exempt from property taxes assessed on the lien date, as provided in Section 2192, unless the property is otherwise exempt under this division.

(d) For purposes of this section, "eligible mobilehome accessories" means mobilehome accessories, as defined in Section 18008.5 of the Health and Safety Code, with a base year value or full value of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or less, that are installed on or added to mobilehomes purchased prior to July 1, 1980, and subject to vehicle license fees pursuant to Part 5 (commencing with Section 10701) of Division 2.

SEC. 2. Section 155.20 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

155.20. A county board of supervisors may exempt from property tax all real property with a base year value (as determined pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 50) of Part 0.5, and personal property with a full value so low that, if not exempt, the total taxes, special assessments and applicable subventions on the property would amount to less than the cost of assessing and collecting them.

The board shall have no authority to exempt property with a base year value or full value of more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), except mobilehome accessories, as defined in Section 18008.5 of the Health and Safety Code, with a base year value or full value of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or less, that are installed on or added to mobilehomes that were purchased prior to July 1, 1980, and are subject to vehicle license fees pursuant to Part 5 (commencing with Section 10701) of Division 2.

In determining the level of the exemption, the board of supervisors shall determine at what level of exemption the costs of assessing the property and collecting taxes, assessments and subventions on such property exceeds the proceeds to be collected. The board shall establish the exemption level uniformly for classes of property. In making this determination, the board may consider the total taxes, special assessments and applicable subventions for the year of assessment only or for the year of assessment and succeeding years where cumulative revenues will not exceed the cost of assessments and collections.

This section does not apply to those real or personal properties enumerated in Section 52.

The exemption authorized by this section shall be adopted by the board on or before the lien date for the fiscal year to which the exemption is to apply and may, at the option of the board, continue in effect for succeeding fiscal years. Any revision or rescission of the exemption shall be adopted by the board on or before the lien date for the fiscal year to which that revision or rescission is to apply.

Nothing in this section shall authorize a county board of supervisors to exempt new construction of two thousand dollars ($2,000) or less, unless the new base year value of the property, including this new construction, is two thousand dollars ($2,000) or less.

Nothing in this section shall authorize an assessor to exempt or not to enroll any property of any value, unless specifically authorized by a county board of supervisors, pursuant to this section.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2229 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the requirements of that section relating to any exemption of property for more than five years or for more than 75 percent of the value thereof, shall not apply to any exemption made by this act. In addition, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any property tax revenues lost by it pursuant to this act.

CHAPTER 442

An act to amend Sections 62.1 and 62.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to mobilehomes, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 62.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

62.1. Change in ownership shall not include either of the following:

(a) Any transfer, on or after January 1, 1985, of a mobilehome park to a nonprofit corporation, stock cooperative corporation, limited equity stock cooperative, or other entity formed by the tenants of a mobilehome park, for the purpose of purchasing the mobilehome park, provided that, with respect to any transfer of a mobilehome park on or after January 1, 1989, subject to this subdivision, the individual tenants who were renting at least 51 percent of the spaces in the mobilehome park prior to the transfer participate in the transaction through the ownership of an aggregate of at least 51 percent of the voting stock of, or other ownership or membership interests in, the entity which acquires the park.

(b) Any transfer or transfers on or after January 1, 1985, and before January 1, 1994, of rental spaces in a mobilehome park to the individual tenants of the rental spaces, provided that (1) at least 51 percent of the rental spaces are purchased by individual tenants renting their spaces prior to purchase, and (2) the individual tenants of these spaces form, within one year after the first purchase of a rental space by an individual tenant, a resident organization as described in subdivision (k) of Section 50781 of the Health and Safety Code, to operate and maintain the park. If, on or after January 1, 1985, and before January 1, 1994, an individual tenant or tenants notify the county assessor of the intention to comply with the conditions set forth in the preceding sentence, any mobilehome park rental space which is purchased by an individual tenant in that mobilehome park during that period shall not be reappraised by the assessor. However, if all of the conditions set forth in the first sentence of this subdivision are not satisfied, the county assessor shall thereafter levy escape assessments for the spaces so transferred. This subdivision shall apply only to those rental mobilehome parks which have been in operation for five years or more.

(c) (1) If the transfer of a mobilehome park has been excluded from a change in ownership pursuant to subdivision (a) and the park has not been converted to condominium, stock cooperative ownership, or limited equity cooperative ownership, any transfer on or after January 1, 1989, of shares of the voting stock of, or other ownership or membership interests in, the entity which acquired the park in accordance with subdivision (a) shall be a change in ownership of a pro rata portion of the real property of the park unless the transfer is for the purpose of converting the park to condominium, stock cooperative ownership, or limited equity cooperative ownership or is excluded from change in ownership by the provisions of Section 62, 63, or 63.1.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision, "pro rata portion of the real property" means the total real property of the mobilehome park multiplied by a fraction consisting of the number of shares of voting stock, or other ownership or membership interests, transferred divided by the total number of outstanding issued or unissued shares of voting stock of, or other ownership or membership interests in, the entity which acquired the park in accordance with subdivision (a).

(3) Any pro rata portion or portions of real property which changed ownership pursuant to this subdivision may be separately assessed as provided in Section 2188.10.

(d) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall remain operative only until January 1, 1994.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature that, in order to facilitate affordable conversions of mobilehome parks to tenant ownership, subdivision (a) apply to all bona fide transfers of rental mobilehome parks to tenant ownership, including, but not limited to, those parks converted to tenant ownership as a nonprofit corporation made on or after January 1, 1985, and before the termination date of subdivision (a).

SEC. 1.5. Section 62.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

62.1. Change in ownership shall not include either of the following:

(a) Any transfer, on or after January 1, 1985, of a mobilehome park to a nonprofit corporation, stock cooperative corporation, limited equity stock cooperative, or other entity formed by the tenants of a mobilehome park, for the purpose of purchasing the mobilehome park, provided that, with respect to any transfer of a mobilehome park on or after January 1, 1989, subject to this subdivision, the individual tenants who were renting at least 51 percent of the spaces in the mobilehome park prior to the transfer participate in the transaction through the ownership of an aggregate of at least 51 percent of the voting stock of, or other ownership or membership interests in, the entity which acquires the park.

(b) Any transfer or transfers on or after January 1, 1985, and before January 1, 1994, of rental spaces in a mobilehome park to the individual tenants of the rental spaces, provided that (1) at least 51 percent of the rental spaces are purchased by individual tenants renting their spaces prior to purchase, and (2) the individual tenants of these spaces form, within one year after the first purchase of a rental space by an individual tenant, a resident organization, as described in subdivision (k) of Section 50781 of the Health and Safety Code, to operate and maintain the park. If, on or after January 1, 1985, and before January 1, 1994, an individual tenant or tenants or mobilehome park owner notifies the county assessor of the intention to comply with the conditions set forth in the preceding sentence, any mobilehome park rental space which is purchased by an individual tenant in that mobilehome park during that period shall not be reappraised by the assessor. However, if all of the conditions set forth in the first sentence of this subdivision are not satisfied, the county assessor shall thereafter levy escape assessments for the spaces so transferred.

(c) (1) If the transfer of a mobilehome park has been excluded from a change in ownership pursuant to subdivision (a) and the park has not been converted to condominium, stock cooperative ownership, or limited equity cooperative ownership, any transfer on or after January 1, 1989, of shares of the voting stock of, or other ownership or membership interests in, the entity which acquired the park in accordance with subdivision (a) shall be a change in ownership of a pro rata portion of the real property of the park unless the transfer is for the purpose of converting the park to condominium, stock cooperative ownership, or limited equity cooperative ownership or is excluded from change in ownership by the provisions of Section 62, 63, or 63.1.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision, "pro rata portion of the real property" means the total real property of the mobilehome park multiplied by a fraction consisting of the number of shares of voting stock, or other ownership or membership interests, transferred divided by the total number of outstanding issued or unissued shares of voting stock of, or other ownership or membership interests in, the entity which acquired the park in accordance with subdivision (a).

(3) Any pro rata portion or portions of real property which changed ownership pursuant to this subdivision may be separately assessed as provided in Section 2188.10.

(d) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall remain operative only until January 1, 1994.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature that, in order to facilitate affordable conversions of mobilehome parks to tenant ownership, subdivision (a) apply to all bona fide transfers of rental mobilehome parks to tenant ownership, including, but not limited to, those parks converted to tenant ownership as a nonprofit corporation made on or after January 1, 1985, and before the termination date of subdivision (a).

SEC. 2. Section 62.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

62.2. Change in ownership shall not include any transfer on or after January 1, 1989, of a mobilehome park to a nonprofit corporation, stock cooperative corporation, or other entity, including a governmental entity, if, within one year after the transfer, the mobilehome park is transferred by that corporation or other entity, including a governmental entity, to a nonprofit corporation, stock cooperative corporation, or other entity formed by the tenants of the mobilehome park in a transaction which is excluded from change in ownership by subdivision (a) of Section 62.1, or at least 51 percent of the mobilehome park rental spaces are transferred to the individual tenants of those spaces in a transaction excluded from change in ownership by subdivision (b) of Section 62.1. With respect to any transfer of any mobilehome park on or after January 1, 1989, subject to this section, the individual tenants who are renting at least a majority of the spaces in the mobilehome park prior to the transfer to the entity formed by the tenants for the acquisition of the park shall participate in the transaction through the ownership of an aggregate of at least a majority of voting stock of, or other ownership or membership interest in, that entity. This section shall not apply if any fees charged the mobilehome park tenants in connection with either the first or second transfer exceed 15 percent of the total consideration paid for the mobilehome park in the first transfer, plus any accrued interest and taxes. If the assessor is notified in writing at the time the transferee files the change in ownership statement that the transferee intends to qualify the transfer under this section, the mobilehome park shall not be reappraised pending satisfaction of the above conditions. If the transferee fails to satisfy those conditions, the assessor shall reappraise the mobilehome park and levy escape assessments or supplemental assessments, as appropriate.

SEC. 2.5. Section 62.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

62.2. (a) Change in ownership shall not include any transfer on or after January 1, 1989, of a mobilehome park to a nonprofit corporation, stock cooperative corporation, or other entity, including a governmental entity, if, within one year after the transfer, the mobilehome park is transferred by that corporation or other entity, including a governmental entity, to a nonprofit corporation, stock cooperative corporation, or other entity formed by the tenants of the mobilehome park in a transaction which is excluded from change in ownership by subdivision (a) of Section 62.1, or at least 51 percent of the mobilehome park rental spaces are transferred to the individual tenants of those spaces in a transaction excluded from change in ownership by subdivision (b) of Section 62.1.

(b) With respect to any transfer of any mobilehome park on or after January 1, 1989, subject to this section and excluded pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 62.1, the individual tenants who are renting at least a majority of the spaces in the mobilehome park prior to the transfer to the entity formed by the tenants for the acquisition of the park shall participate in the transaction through the ownership of an aggregate of at least a majority of voting stock of, or other ownership or membership interest in, the corporation or other entity.

(c) With respect to any transfer of any mobilehome park rental spaces on or after January 1, 1989, subject to this section and excluded pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 62.1, the individual tenants renting at least 51 percent of the spaces in the mobilehome park prior to purchase shall participate in the transaction through the purchase of at least 51 percent of the individual spaces.

(d) This section shall not apply if any fees charged the mobilehome park tenants in connection with either the first or second transfer exceed 15 percent of the total consideration paid for the mobilehome park in the first transfer, plus any accrued interest and taxes. No governmentally mandated or required improvements or fees shall be considered in applying the limitation of this subdivision.

(e) If the assessor is notified in writing at the time the transferee files the change in ownership statement that the transferee intends to qualify the transfer under this section, the mobilehome park shall not be reappraised pending satisfaction of the above conditions. If the transferee fails to satisfy those conditions, the assessor shall reappraise the mobilehome park and levy escape assessments or supplemental assessments, as appropriate.

SEC. 3. Sections 1.5 and 2.5 of this bill incorporate amendments to Sections 62.1 and 62.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2045. Those sections shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1992, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Sections 62.1 and 62.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2045, in which case Sections 62.1 and 62.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Sections 1 and 2 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 2045, at which time Sections 1.5 and 2.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to avoid the adverse impact of the reassessment of mobilehome parks purchased by local governments in connection with the conversion of those parks to ownership by low- and moderate-income resident-tenants for the purpose of preserving badly needed affordable housing, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 443

An act to amend Section 739 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 739 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

739. (a) The commission shall designate a baseline quantity of gas and electricity which is necessary to supply a significant portion of the reasonable energy needs of the average residential customer. In estimating those quantities, the commission shall take into account differentials in energy needs between customers whose residential energy needs are currently supplied by electricity alone or by both electricity and gas. The commission shall develop a separate baseline quantity for all-electric residential customers. For these purposes, "all-electric residential customers" are residential customers having electrical service only or whose space heating is provided by electricity, or both. The commission shall also take into account differentials in energy use by climatic zone and season.

(b) (1) The commission shall establish a standard limited allowance which shall be in addition to the baseline quantity of gas and electricity for residential customers dependent on life-support equipment, including, but not limited to, emphysema and pulmonary patients. A residential customer dependent on life-support equipment shall be given a higher energy allocation than the average residential customer.

(2) "Life-support equipment" means that equipment which utilizes mechanical or artificial means to sustain, restore, or supplant a vital function, or mechanical equipment which is relied upon for mobility both within and outside of buildings. "Life-support equipment," as used in this subdivision, includes all of the following: all types of respirators, iron lungs, hemodialysis machines, suction machines, electric nerve stimulators, pressure pads and pumps, aerosol tents, electrostatic and ultrasonic nebulizers, compressors, IPPB machines, and motorized wheelchairs.

(3) The limited additional allowance shall also be made available to paraplegic and quadriplegic persons in consideration of the increased heating and cooling needs of those persons.

(4) The limited additional allowance shall also be made available to multiple sclerosis patients in consideration of the increased heating and cooling needs of those persons.

(5) The limited additional allowance shall also be made available to scleroderma patients in consideration of the increased heating needs of those persons.

(c) (1) The commission shall require that every electrical and gas corporation file a schedule of rates and charges providing baseline rates. The baseline rates shall apply to the first or lowest block of an increasing block rate structure which shall be the baseline quantity and shall be established for the residential consumption of gas and electricity. In establishing these rates, the commission shall avoid excessive rate increases for residential customers, and shall establish an appropriate gradual differential between the rates for the respective blocks of usage.

(2) In establishing residential electric and gas rates, including baseline rates, the commission shall assure that the rates are sufficient to enable the electrical corporation or gas corporation to recover a just and reasonable amount of revenue from residential customers as a class, while observing the principle that electricity and gas services are necessities, for which a low affordable rate is desirable.

(d) As used in this section:

(1) "Baseline quantity" means a quantity of electricity or gas for residential customers to be established by the commission based on from 50 to 60 percent of average residential consumption of these commodities, except that, for residential gas customers and for all-electric residential customers, the baseline quantity shall be established at from 60 to 70 percent of average residential consumption during the winter heating season. In establishing the baseline quantities, the commission shall take into account climatic and seasonal variations in consumption and the availability of gas service. The commission shall review and revise baseline quantities as average consumption patterns change in order to maintain these ratios.

(2) "Residential customer" means those customers receiving electrical or gas service pursuant to a domestic rate schedule and excludes industrial, commercial, and every other category of customer.

(e) Wholesale electrical or gas purchases, and the rates charged therefor, are exempt from this section.

(f) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit experimentation with alternative gas or electrical rate schedules for the purpose of achieving energy conservation.

(g) (1) The commission shall establish a program of assistance to low-income electric and gas customers, the cost of which shall not be borne solely by any single class of customer.

(2) The commission's program of assistance to low-income electric and gas customers shall, as soon as practicable, include nonprofit group living facilities specified by the commission, if the commission finds that the residents in these facilities substantially meet the commission's low-income eligibility requirements and there is a feasible process for certifying that the assistance shall be used for the direct benefit, such as improved quality of care or improved food service, of the low-income residents in the facilities.

CHAPTER 444

An act to amend Section 2105 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to transportation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2105 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

2105. In addition to the apportionments prescribed by Sections 2104, 2106, and 2107, from the revenues derived from a per gallon tax imposed pursuant to Section 7351 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and a per gallon tax imposed pursuant to Section 8651 of that code, the following apportionments shall be made:

(a) A sum equal to the net revenue from a tax of 11.5 percent of any per gallon tax in excess of nine cents ($0.09) per gallon under Section 7351 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and 11.5 percent of any per gallon tax in excess of nine cents ($0.09) per gallon under Section 8651 of that code, shall be apportioned among the counties, including a city and county.

The amount of apportionment to each county, including a city and county, during a fiscal year shall be calculated as follows:

(1) One million dollars ($1,000,000) for apportionment to all counties, including a city and county, in proportion to each county's receipts during the prior fiscal year under Sections 2104 and 2106.

(2) One million dollars ($1,000,000) for apportionment to all counties, including a city and county, as follows:

(A) Seventy-five percent in the proportion that the number of fee-paid and exempt vehicles which are registered in the county bears to the number of fee-paid and exempt vehicles registered in the state.

(B) Twenty-five percent in the proportion that the number of miles of maintained county roads in the county bears to the miles of maintained county roads in the state.

(3) For each county, determine its factor which is the higher amount calculated pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) divided by the sum of the higher amounts for all of the counties.

(4) The amount to be apportioned to each county is equal to its factor multiplied by the amount available for apportionment.

(b) A sum equal to the net revenue from a tax of 11.5 percent of any per gallon tax in excess of nine cents ($0.09) per gallon under Section 7351 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and 11.5 percent of any per gallon tax in excess of nine cents ($0.09) per gallon under Section 8651 of that code, shall be apportioned to cities, including a city and county, in the proportion that the total population of the city bears to the total population of all the cities in the state.

(c) In order to receive any allocation pursuant to this section, the city or county, as the case may be, shall annually expend from its general fund for street and highway purposes an amount not less than the annual average of its expenditures from its general fund during the 1987–88, 1988–89, and 1989–90 fiscal years, as reported to the Controller pursuant to Section 2151. For purposes of this subdivision, in calculating a city's or county's annual general fund expenditures and its average general fund expenditures for the 1987–88, 1988–89, and 1989–90 fiscal years, any unrestricted funds which the city or county may expend at its discretion, including vehicle in-lieu tax revenues and revenues from fines and forfeitures, expended for street and highway purposes are expenditures from the general fund.

(d) The Controller may request fiscal data from cities and counties, in addition to data provided pursuant to Section 2151, for the 1987–88, 1988–89, and 1989–90 fiscal years. Each city and county shall furnish the data to the Controller not later than 120 days after receiving the request. The Controller may withhold payment to cities and counties that do not comply with the request for information or provide incomplete data.

(e) At the conclusion of each fiscal year during which a city or county receives funds under this section, the Controller shall verify the city's or county's compliance with subdivision (c). Any city or county which has not complied with this requirement shall reimburse the state for the funds it received during that fiscal year. The Controller shall offset payments pursuant to Sections 2104, 2105, 2106, and 2107 to any city or county which has not complied with subdivision (c) until the state is reimbursed for the subventions under this section during the fiscal year when the city or county did not comply.

(f) For any city incorporated after July 1, 1987, the Controller shall calculate the annual average of expenditures pursuant to subdivision (c) for the period between July 1, 1987, and June 30, 1990, that the city was incorporated.

(g) Any funds that are returned to the state as a result of noncompliance with subdivision (c) shall be added to the base and redistributed among cities and counties for the fiscal year during which it is returned.

(h) The Controller shall determine the average amount of unrestricted revenues, which a city or county may expend at its discretion, received from fines and forfeitures, federal general revenue sharing, and the proceeds from the sale of real property or bonds during the 1987–88, 1988–89, and 1989–90 fiscal years, and the amount of each of those sources expended for street and highway purposes for those fiscal years, which latter amount shall be included in the calculation of general fund expenditures pursuant to subdivision (c). If the amount of revenues received by a city or county from any of those sources during a subsequent fiscal year is less than the average revenues from the same source as determined by the Controller in accordance with this subdivision, the city's or county's expenditure requirements pursuant to subdivision (c) from that source shall be reduced in the same proportion as the reduced revenue bears to the average revenue from the same source. The reduction in the city's or county's expenditure requirements may only be granted upon submittal to and review by the Controller of financial information.

(i) If a city or county fails to comply with the requirements of subdivision (c) in a particular fiscal year, the city or county may expend during that fiscal year and the following fiscal year, a total amount which is not less than the total amount required to be expended for those years for purposes of complying with subdivision (c), as adjusted pursuant to subdivision (h). For cities and counties that fail to comply with subdivision (c) using the two-year period, the Controller shall begin withholding funds pursuant to subdivision (e) at the end of the two-year period.

(j) Revenues from any fee imposed by a city or county on or after January 1, 1990, which are used on or after July 1, 1990, by that city or county for maintenance purposes on its streets or highways shall be considered as general fund expenditures for the purpose of subdivision (c).

(k) A city or county shall provide all necessary information requested by the Controller if the city or county requests an adjustment to its average base year or annual expenditures that are the result of any amendment of this section after January 1, 1991. The Controller shall not make any change to the average base year or annual expenditure until the Controller has received and verified the accuracy of the necessary data.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Prior to the end of the 1991 calendar year, the Controller will begin auditing cities and counties to determine compliance with their transportation maintenance of effort prior to the end of the 1991 calendar year. In order to provide cities and counties the ability to use a two fiscal year transportation maintenance of effort program to enable them to receive motor vehicle fuel tax revenues for streets and highways, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 445

An act relating to highways.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that highway general service signs identifying food, fuel, lodging, and camping facilities provide motorists with a valuable service which enables them to better plan their travel and stops and contributes to the enjoyment of their visit to an area. The Legislature also finds and declares that there are differences between motorist services in rural areas and those in urban areas and that criteria for the placement of signs in the two areas should be determined differently.

The Legislature further finds and declares that it should be the policy and practice of the state, through the Department of Transportation, to adopt separate rules and regulations for placing general service signs on rural highways.

SEC. 2. (a) The Department of Transportation shall, as a pilot program in the Counties of Butte and Lake, develop specific criteria for determining the need and eligibility for general service signs on rural highways indicating to motorists the availability of food, fuel, lodging, and camping services. In developing and applying its criteria, the department shall recognize the unique conditions and differences inherent in rural service facilities' location, size, and operation from those in urbanized areas.

(b) In addition to any other criteria, the department's rural sign criteria shall recognize and award points to the following:

(1) Food establishments or combinations of establishments which are open to serve breakfast, lunch, and dinner; or one establishment which serves at least two of those three meals per day.

(2) Food and lodging establishments up to five miles from the highway exit, with the maximum point total awarded to establishments up to one mile from the exit.

(3) Lodging facilities with at least two rooms with private baths, with the maximum point total awarded to facilities with 30 or more such rooms.

(4) Camper facilities, or a combination of facilities, equipped to handle a minimum of 25 travel trailers, campers, and other recreational vehicles.

(5) Service stations open at least 12 hours a day.

(c) The department shall, on or before January 1, 1994, prepare and submit to the Legislature a report on the pilot program conducted under this section which shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) An evaluation of the effect of general service signs on motorists traveling in the Counties of Butte and Lake.

(2) An evaluation of the effect of this additional signage in assisting motorists by making food, fuel, lodging, and camping services in rural areas in these counties more accessible to motorists.

(3) The department's findings, conclusions, and recommendations regarding the continuation, expansion, or termination of the pilot program.

CHAPTER 446

An act to amend Section 5090.61 of the Public Resources Code, relating to off-highway vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5090.61 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

5090.61. Moneys in the fund shall be available for appropriation in accordance with the following allocation:

(a) An amount, not to exceed 50 percent of the revenues from the special fee required by subdivision (b) of Section 38225 of the Vehicle Code, the revenues transferred from the Motor Vehicle Fuel Account, and revenue received from interest, is available for local assistance grants pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 5090.50). Any portion of this amount not granted to local public agencies shall be available to the division for cooperative agreements with agencies of the United States pursuant to Section 5090.55.

(b) The remainder of the revenues from the special fee required by subdivision (b) of Section 38225 of the Vehicle Code and the remainder of the revenues transferred from the Motor Vehicle Fuel Account, together with all other moneys in the fund, shall be available for the support of the division in implementing the program and for the planning, acquisition, development, construction, maintenance, administration, operation, and conservation of lands in the system. As used in this subdivision, "support of the division" includes functions performed outside the division by others on behalf of the division, including costs incurred on behalf of the division for personnel management and training, accounting and fiscal analysis, records, purchasing, public information activities, consultation of professional scientists and reclamation experts for purposes of Section 5090.35, and legal services. "Support of the division" does not include any costs incurred by, or attributable to, the director or the director's immediate staff or their salaries.

CHAPTER 447

An act to amend Section 3 of Chapter 1428 of the Statutes of 1985, relating to hazardous substances, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3 of Chapter 1428 of the Statutes of 1985 is amended to read:

Sec. 3. The sum of twenty-one million four hundred thousand dollars ($21,400,000) is hereby appropriated from the contingency reserve for economic uncertainties in the General Fund, as provided in Section 12.30 of the Budget Act of 1985 (Chapter 111, Statutes of 1985), as follows:

(a) Sixteen million dollars ($16,000,000) to State Department of Health Services for expenditure at the Stringfellow Acid Pits without regard to fiscal years in accordance with the following schedule:

Schedule:

(1) To provide a permanent alternative water supply to residents in Glen Avon who now receive bottled water from the state	$ 1,600,000
(2) To conduct a comprehensive health study of former and current residents near the Stringfellow Acid Pits to identify and assess both acute and chronic health problems that may be linked to contaminants from the Stringfellow site	$ 800,000

(3)	To establish a Special Stringfellow Reserve Account to be used by the department to fund special investigations and remedial or emergency actions that are necessary to fully protect the health of the residents near Stringfellow if the department determines that funds are not available from other sources including the federal Environmental Protection Agency, the responsible parties, the Hazardous Substance Account, and the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund	$13,600,000

(b) Three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) to the State Department of Health Services for expenditure without regard to fiscal years for the design, purchase, and installation of activated carbon adsorption water treatment systems for the Rurban Homes and Richwood Mutual Water Companies and the expansion of the existing carbon treatment system for the Hemlock Mutual Water Company. The department shall maximize the use of federal funds and shall enter into a written agreement with the Environmental Protection Agency in which the department agrees to reimburse the agency for expenditures which exceed the agency's portion of design, purchase, and installation costs pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9601 et seq.).

Any funds remaining following the installation of water treatment systems pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the subaccount for site operation and maintenance established pursuant to Section 4 of Chapter 1428 of the Statutes of 1985.

(c) One million one hundred thousand dollars ($1,100,000) to the State Department of Health Services for expenditure without regard to fiscal years for the design, purchase, and installation of a water treatment system for the Valley County Water District in Baldwin Park, and for associated operation and maintenance costs.

Pursuant to Section 25358.3 of the Health and Safety Code, in expending funds pursuant to this subdivision, the department shall contract with the Valley County Water District or other appropriate public agency for the design, purchase, and installation of a treatment facility to address volatile organic compound (VOC) contamination affecting the Valley County Water District's wells, and for associated operation and maintenance costs. The location of this treatment facility shall be consistent with the recommendations of the Environmental Protection Agency Basinwide Technical Plan for the San Gabriel Basin regarding the placement of potential operable units, and with the overall goal of minimizing the spread of the plume of contaminated groundwater which underlies the Baldwin Park area into uncontaminated areas.

Expenditures made pursuant to this subdivision shall not affect any subsequent recovery actions pursuant to Section 25360 of the Health and Safety Code.

Any funds remaining following the installation of a water treatment system at the Valley County Water District pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in a special account designated for subsequent actions determined to be necessary to contain and reduce groundwater contamination within the San Gabriel Basin, including costs associated with the design, purchase, and installation of treatment facilities, and operation and maintenance costs associated with those treatment facilities.

All expenditures of funds pursuant to this subdivision shall be for actions which are determined by the department to be consistent with the objectives, as defined by the Environmental Protection Agency Basinwide Technical Plan for the San Gabriel Basin, for the containment of the plumes of contamination and the reduction of volatile organic compound (VOC) contamination in the San Gabriel Basin.

(d) Four million dollars ($4,000,000) to be transferred by the Controller to the Emergency Clean Water Grant Fund. This amount is available to the State Department of Health Services without regard to fiscal years, pursuant to Section 4030.9 of the Health and Safety Code, to take remedial action to ensure safe water supplies at public water systems where there is an imminent threat to public health due to contamination of the public water supply and for which the department determines that the situation would not otherwise be adequately addressed through an action funded by any other private, local, state, or federal agency or funding source, including the Hazardous Substance Account and the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund. Four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) shall be used to design, purchase, and install water filtration systems for nitrate removal for the McFarland Mutual Water Company.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that grave threats to public health and safety and the environment caused by spreading groundwater contamination can be alleviated without further delay, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 448

An act to amend Section 27315 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27315 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

27315. (a) The Legislature finds that a mandatory seatbelt law will contribute to reducing highway deaths and injuries by encouraging greater usage of existing manual seatbelts, that automatic crash protection systems which require no action by vehicle occupants offer the best hope of reducing deaths and injuries, and that encouraging the use of manual safety belts is only a partial remedy for addressing this major cause of death and injury. The Legislature declares that the enactment of this section is intended to be compatible with support for federal safety standards requiring automatic crash protection systems and should not be used in any manner to rescind federal requirements for installation of automatic restraints in new cars.

(b) This section shall be known and may be cited as the Private Passenger Motor Vehicle Safety Act.

(c) As used in this section, "private passenger motor vehicle" means any passenger vehicle as defined in Section 465 and any motortruck as defined in Section 410 of less than 6,001 pounds unladen weight, but "private passenger motor vehicle" does not include a motorcycle as defined in Section 400.

(d) (1) No person shall operate a private passenger motor vehicle on a highway unless that person and all passengers four years of age or over are restrained by a safety belt. This paragraph shall not apply to the operator of a taxicab, as defined in Section 27908, when the taxicab is driven on a city street.

(2) The operator of a limousine for hire or the operator of an authorized emergency vehicle, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 165, shall not operate the limousine for hire or authorized emergency vehicle unless the operator and any passengers four years of age or over in the front seat are restrained by a safety belt.

(3) The operator of a taxicab shall not operate the taxicab unless any passengers four years of age and over in the front seat are restrained by a safety belt.

(e) No person 16 years of age or over shall be a passenger in a private passenger motor vehicle on a highway unless that person is restrained by a safety belt.

(f) Every owner of a private passenger motor vehicle, including every owner or operator of a taxicab, as defined in Section 27908, or a limousine for hire, operated on a highway shall maintain safety belts in good working order for the use of occupants of the vehicle. The safety belts shall conform to motor vehicle safety standards established by the United States Department of Transportation. This subdivision does not, however, require installation or maintenance of safety belts where not required by the laws of the United States applicable to the vehicle at the time of its initial sale.

(g) This section does not apply to a passenger or operator with a physically disabling condition or medical condition which would prevent appropriate restraint in a safety belt, if the condition is duly certified by a licensed physician and surgeon or by a licensed chiropractor who shall state the nature of the condition, as well as the reason the restraint is inappropriate. This section also does not apply to a peace officer, as defined in Section 830 of the Penal Code, when in an authorized emergency vehicle as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 165, or to any passenger in any seat behind the front seat of an authorized emergency vehicle as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 165 operated by the peace officer, unless required by the agency employing the peace officer.

(h) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 42001, any violation of subdivision (d), (e), or (f) is an infraction punishable by a fine, including all penalty assessments and court costs imposed on the convicted person, of not more than twenty dollars ($20) for a first offense, and a fine, including all penalty assessments and court costs imposed on the convicted person, of not more than fifty dollars ($50) for each subsequent offense. In lieu of the fine and any penalty assessment or court costs, the court, pursuant to Section 42005, may order that a person convicted of a first offense attend a school for traffic violators or a driving school in which the use of safety belts is demonstrated.

(i) For any violation of subdivision (d), (e), or (f), in addition to the fines provided for pursuant to subdivision (h) and the penalty assessments provided for pursuant to Section 1464 of the Penal Code, an additional penalty assessment of two dollars ($2) shall be levied for any first offense, and an additional penalty assessment of five dollars ($5) shall be levied for any subsequent offense.

All moneys collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be utilized in accordance with Section 1464 of the Penal Code.

(j) In any civil action, a violation of subdivision (d), (e), or (f) or information of a violation of subdivision (h) shall not establish negligence as a matter of law or negligence per se for comparative fault purposes, but negligence may be proven as a fact without regard to the violation.

(k) Notwithstanding Section 40300 or any other provision of law, a peace officer shall not stop or seize a person for a violation of subdivision (d), (e), or (f), nor arrest or issue a notice to appear or notice to correct for a violation of those subdivisions if the officer has no other cause to stop or seize the person other than a violation of subdivision (d), (e), or (f).

(l) If the United States Secretary of Transportation fails to promulgate safety standards for manual safety belt systems by September 1, 1989, no private passenger motor vehicle manufactured after that date for sale or sold in this state shall be registered unless it contains a manual safety belt system which meets the performance standards applicable to automatic crash protection devices promulgated by the Secretary of Transportation pursuant to Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 208 (49 C.F.R. 571.208) as in effect on January 1, 1985.

(m) Each private passenger motor vehicle offered for original sale in this state which has been manufactured on or after September 1, 1989, shall comply with the automatic restraint requirements of Section S4.1.2.1 of Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 208 (49 C.F.R. 571.208), as published in Volume 49 of the Federal Register, No. 138, page 29009. Any automobile manufacturer who sells or delivers a private passenger motor vehicle subject to the requirements of this subdivision who fails to comply with this subdivision shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each sale or delivery of a noncomplying private passenger motor vehicle.

(n) Compliance with subdivision (l) or (m) by a manufacturer shall be made by self-certification in the same manner as self-certification is accomplished under federal law.

(o) This section does not apply to a person actually engaged in delivery of newspapers to customers along the person's route if the person is restrained by a safety belt prior to commencing and subsequent to completing delivery on the route.

(p) This section does not apply to a person actually engaged in collection and delivery activities as a rural delivery carrier for the United States Postal Service if the person is restrained by a safety belt prior to stopping at the first box and subsequent to stopping at the last box on the route.

(q) Subdivisions (d), (e), (f), (g), and (h) shall become inoperative immediately upon the date that the Secretary of the United States Department of Transportation, or his or her delegate, determines to rescind the portion of the Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 208 (49 C.F.R. 571.208) which requires the installation of automatic restraints in new private passenger motor vehicles; provided, however, that those subdivisions shall not become inoperative if the secretary's decision to rescind that Standard No. 208 is not based, in any respect, on the enactment or continued operation of those subdivisions.

CHAPTER 449

An act to amend Section 69561 of the Education Code, relating to postsecondary education.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 69561 of the Education Code is amended to read:

69561. The Student Opportunity and Access Program is administered by the Student Aid Commission, which shall apportion funds for the support of projects designed to increase the accessibility of postsecondary educational opportunities to low-income and ethnic minority elementary and secondary school students. These projects shall primarily (1) increase the availability of information for low-income and ethnic minority students on the existence of postsecondary schooling and work opportunities, and (2) raise the achievement levels of low-income and ethnic minority students so as to increase the number of high school graduates eligible to pursue postsecondary learning opportunities. Projects may also assist low-income and ethnic minority community college students in transferring to four-year institutions, to the extent that project resources are available. In addition, projects may provide assistance to low-income fifth and sixth grade students and their parents in order to implement outreach efforts designed to use the future availability of financial assistance as a means of motivating students to stay in school and complete college preparatory courses. Projects supported by the commission shall also meet all of the following criteria:

(a) Each project shall be proposed and operated through a consortium that involves at least one secondary school district office and one community college and two of the following educational agencies: nonprofit educational, counseling, or community agencies; the University of California; the California State University; the California Maritime Academy; independent colleges and universities, or eligible private vocational or technical schools. As used in this article, eligible private vocational or technical schools shall include schools accredited by a national, state, or regional accrediting association recognized by the United States Department of Education. The commission, in awarding initial project grants, shall give priority to proposals developed by more than three eligible agencies. Projects shall be located throughout the state in order to provide access to program services in rural, urban, and suburban areas.

(b) The governing board of each project, comprising at least one representative from each entity in the consortium, shall establish management policy, provide direction to the project director, set priorities for budgetary decisions that reflect the specific needs of the project, and assume responsibility for maintaining the required level of matching funds, including solicitations from the private sector and corporate sources.

(c) Prior to receiving a project grant, each consortium shall conduct a planning process and submit a comprehensive project proposal to include, but not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The agencies participating in the project.

(2) The students to be served by the project.

(3) The ways in which the project will reduce duplication and related costs.

(4) The methods for assessing the project's impact.

(d) Each project shall include the direct involvement of secondary school staff in the daily operations of the project, with preference in funding to those projects that effectively integrate the objectives of the Student Opportunity and Access Program with those of the school district in providing services that are essential to the target student population in preparation for postsecondary education.

(e) Each project shall maintain within the project headquarters a comprehensive student-specific information system on low-income and ethnic minority students in grades 11 and 12 at secondary schools within the participating districts. This information shall be maintained in a manner consistent with the law relating to pupil records.

(f) At least 30 percent of each project grant shall be allocated for stipends to peer advisers and tutors who meet all of the following criteria:

(1) Work with low-income and ethnic minority secondary school students.

(2) Are currently enrolled in a college or other postsecondary school as an undergraduate or graduate student.

(3) Have demonstrated financial need for the stipend.

(g) Each project should work cooperatively with other projects in the program and with the commission to establish viable student services and sound administrative procedures and to ensure coordination of the activities of the project with existing educational opportunity programs. The Student Aid Commission may develop additional regulations regarding the awarding of project grants and criteria for evaluating the effectiveness of the individual projects.

CHAPTER 450

An act relating to the Hemet Unified School District.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the Hemet Unified School District is a large district that serves pupils from a wide and varied geographic area. Within the Hemet Unified School District, Hamilton School maintains kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, in one school. At present, grades 9 to 12, inclusive, have a population of 219 pupils. Pupils who presently attend Hamilton School in those grades would have to travel long distances over hazardous terrain to attend other high schools within Hemet Unified School District.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, Hemet Unified School District, regardless of the number of units of average daily attendance for the district, may establish the Hamilton School for grades 9 to 12, inclusive, as a small necessary high school for purposes of receiving apportionments pursuant to the schedule and criteria for each high school set forth in Section 42284.

SEC. 2.5. Section 1 and Section 2 of this act shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before June 30, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Due to the unique circumstances of the Hamilton School in the Hemet Unified School District set forth in Section 1 of this act, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution.

CHAPTER 451

An act to amend Section 667.5 of the Penal Code, relating to sentencing.

[Approved by Governor September 25, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 26, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 667.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

667.5. Enhancement of prison terms for new offenses because of prior prison terms shall be imposed as follows:

specified in subdivision (c), in addition and consecutive to any other prison terms therefor, the court shall impose a three-year term for each prior separate prison term served by the defendant where the prior was one of the violent felonies specified in subdivision (c). However, no additional term shall be imposed under this subdivision for any prison term served prior to a period of 10 years in which the defendant remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction.

(b) Except where subdivision (a) applies, where the new offense is any felony for which a prison sentence is imposed, in addition and consecutive to any other prison terms therefor, the court shall impose a one-year term for each prior separate prison term served for any felony; provided that no additional term shall be imposed under this subdivision for any prison term served prior to a period of five years in which the defendant remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction.

(c) For the purpose of this section, "violent felony" shall mean any of the following:

(1) Murder or voluntary manslaughter.

(2) Mayhem.

(3) Rape as defined in subdivision (2) of Section 261.

(4) Sodomy by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person.

(5) Oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person.

(6) Lewd acts on a child under the age of 14 years as defined in Section 288.

(7) Any felony punishable by death or imprisonment in the state prison for life.

(8) Any felony in which the defendant inflicts great bodily injury on any person other than an accomplice which has been charged and proved as provided for in Section 12022.7 or 12022.9 on or after July 1, 1977, or as specified prior to July 1, 1977, in Sections 213, 264, and 461, or any felony in which the defendant uses a firearm which use has been charged and proved as provided in Section 12022.5 or 12022.55.

(9) Any robbery perpetrated in an inhabited dwelling house, vessel, as defined in Section 21 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, which is inhabited and designed for habitation, inhabited trailer coach, as defined in the Vehicle Code, or in the inhabited portion of any other building, wherein it is charged and proved that the defendant personally used a deadly or dangerous weapon, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 12022, in the commission of that robbery.

(10) Arson, in violation of subdivision (a) of Section 451.

(11) The offense defined in subdivision (a) of Section 289 where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person.

(12) Attempted murder.

(13) A violation of Section 12308.

(14) Kidnapping, in violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207.

(15) Continuous sexual abuse of a child, in violation of Section 288.5.

The Legislature finds and declares that these specified crimes merit special consideration when imposing a sentence to display society's condemnation for such extraordinary crimes of violence against the person.

(d) For the purposes of this section the defendant shall be deemed to remain in prison custody for an offense until the official discharge from custody or until release on parole whichever first occurs including any time during which the defendant remains subject to reimprisonment for escape from custody or is reimprisoned on revocation of parole. The additional penalties provided for prior prison terms shall not be imposed unless they are charged and admitted or found true in the action for the new offense.

(e) The additional penalties provided for prior prison terms shall not be imposed for any felony for which the defendant did not serve a prior separate term in state prison.

(f) A prior conviction of a felony shall include a conviction in another jurisdiction for an offense which if committed in California is punishable by imprisonment in state prison if the defendant served one year or more in prison for the offense in the other jurisdiction. A prior conviction of a particular felony shall include a conviction in another jurisdiction for an offense which includes all of the elements of the particular felony as defined under California law if the defendant served one year or more in prison for the offense in the other jurisdiction.

(g) A prior separate prison term for the purposes of this section shall mean a continuous completed period of prison incarceration imposed for the particular offense alone or in combination with concurrent or consecutive sentences for other crimes, including any reimprisonment on revocation of parole which is not accompanied by a new commitment to prison, and including any reimprisonment after an escape from incarceration.

(h) Serving a prison term includes any confinement time in any state prison or federal penal institution as punishment for commission of an offense, including confinement in a hospital or other institution or facility credited as service of prison time in the jurisdiction of the confinement.

(i) For the purposes of this section, a commitment to the State Department of Health as a mentally disordered sex offender following a conviction of a felony, which commitment exceeds one year in duration, shall be deemed a prior prison term.

(j) For the purposes of this section, when a person subject to the custody, control, and discipline of the Director of Corrections is incarcerated at a facility operated by the Youth Authority, that incarceration shall be deemed to be a term served in state prison.

(k) Notwithstanding subdivisions (d) and (g) or any other provision of law, where one of the new offenses is committed while the defendant is temporarily removed from prison pursuant to Section 2690 or while the defendant is transferred to a community facility pursuant to Section 3416, 6253, or 6263, or while the defendant is on furlough pursuant to Section 6254, the defendant shall be subject to the full enhancements provided for in this section.

This subdivision shall not apply when a full, separate, and consecutive term is imposed pursuant to any other provision of law.

CHAPTER 452

An act to amend Section 26227 of the Government Code, relating to local government, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26227 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26227. The board of supervisors of any county may appropriate and expend money from the general fund of the county to establish county programs or to fund other programs deemed by the board of supervisors to be necessary to meet the social needs of the population of the county, including but not limited to, the areas of health, law enforcement, public safety, rehabilitation, welfare, education, and legal services, and the needs of physically, mentally and financially handicapped persons and aged persons.

The board of supervisors may contract with other public agencies or private agencies or individuals to operate those programs which the board of supervisors determines will serve public purposes. In the furtherance of those programs, the board of supervisors may make available to a public agency, nonprofit corporation, or nonprofit association any real property of the county which is not and, during the time of possession, will not be needed for county purposes, to be used to carry out the programs, upon terms and conditions determined by the board of supervisors to be in the best interests of the county and the general public, and the board of supervisors may finance or assist in the financing of the acquisition or improvement of real property and furnishings to be owned or operated by any public agency, nonprofit corporation, or nonprofit association to carry out the programs, through a lease, installment sale, or other transaction, in either case without complying with any other provisions of this code relating to acquiring, improving, leasing, or granting the use of or otherwise disposing of county property.

A program may consist of a community support program including a charitable fund drive conducted in cooperation with one or more nonprofit charitable organizations if the board of supervisors deems a program will assist in meeting the social needs of the population of the county. If the board establishes a program, the officers and employees of the county shall have the authority to carry out the program, using county funds and property if authorized by the board. During working hours, a program may include direct solicitation by county officers and employees and the assignment of officers and employees to attend or assist in the administration of program activities if authorized by the board.

SEC. 2. In enacting this act, the Legislature does not intend to increase or decrease the authority of public agencies, other than counties, regarding community support programs, including charitable fund drives conducted in cooperation with one or more nonprofit charitable organizations.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the benefits of charitable fund raising among public employees can accrue to employees and nonprofit charitable organizations as soon as possible, this act must take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 453

An act to amend Section 853.6 of the Penal Code, relating to criminal procedure.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 853.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

853.6. (a) In any case in which a person is arrested for an offense declared to be a misdemeanor, including a violation of any city or county ordinance, and does not demand to be taken before a magistrate, that person shall, instead of being taken before a magistrate, be released according to the procedures set forth by this chapter. If the person is released, the officer or superior shall prepare in duplicate a written notice to appear in court, containing the name and address of the person, the offense charged, and the time when,

and place where, the person shall appear in court. If, pursuant to subdivision (i), the person is not released prior to being booked and the officer in charge of the booking or his or her superior determines that the person should be released, the officer or superior shall prepare a written notice to appear in a court.

In any case in which a person is arrested for a misdemeanor violation of a protective court order involving domestic violence, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 13700, the person shall be taken before a magistrate instead of being released according to the procedures set forth in this chapter, unless the arresting officer determines that there is not a reasonable likelihood that the offense will continue or resume or that the safety of persons or property would be imminently endangered by release of the person arrested.

Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to affect a defendant's ability to be released on bail or on his or her own recognizance.

(b) Unless waived by the person, the time specified in the notice to appear shall be at least 10 days after arrest if the duplicate notice is to be filed by the officer with the magistrate.

(c) The place specified in the notice shall be the court of the magistrate before whom the person would be taken if the requirement of taking an arrested person before a magistrate were complied with, or shall be an officer authorized by that court to receive a deposit of bail.

(d) The officer shall deliver one copy of the notice to appear to the arrested person, and the arrested person, in order to secure release, shall give his or her written promise to appear in court as specified in the notice by signing the duplicate notice which shall be retained by the officer. Upon the signing of the duplicate notice, the arresting officer shall immediately release the person arrested from custody.

(e) The officer shall, as soon as practicable, file the duplicate notice, as follows:

(1) It shall be filed with the magistrate if the offense charged is an infraction.

(2) It shall be filed with the magistrate if the prosecuting attorney has previously directed the officer to do so.

(3) The duplicate notice and underlying police reports in support of the charge or charges shall be filed with the prosecuting attorney in cases other than those specified in paragraphs (1) and (2).

If the duplicate notice is filed with the prosecuting attorney, he or she, within his or her discretion, may initiate prosecution by filing the notice or a formal complaint with the magistrate specified in the duplicate notice within 25 days from the time of arrest. If the prosecution is not to be initiated, the prosecutor shall send notice to the person arrested at the address on the notice to appear. The failure by the prosecutor to file the notice or formal complaint within 25 days of the time of the arrest shall not bar further prosecution of the misdemeanor charged in the notice to appear. However, any further prosecution shall be preceded by a new and separate citation or an arrest warrant.

Upon the filing of the notice with the magistrate by the officer, or the filing of the notice or formal complaint by the prosecutor, the magistrate may fix the amount of bail which in his or her judgment, in accordance with Section 1275, is reasonable and sufficient for the appearance of the defendant and shall indorse upon the notice a statement signed by him or her in the form set forth in Section 815a. The defendant may, prior to the date upon which he or she promised to appear in court, deposit with the magistrate the amount of bail set by the magistrate. At the time the case is called for arraignment before the magistrate, if the defendant does not appear, either in person or by counsel, the magistrate may declare the bail forfeited, and may, in his or her discretion, order that no further proceedings shall be had in the case, unless the defendant has been charged with violation of Section 374.3 or 374.7 of this code or of Section 11357, 11360, or 13002 of the Health and Safety Code, or a violation punishable under Section 5008.7 of the Public Resources Code, and he or she has previously been convicted of a violation of that section or a violation which is punishable under that section, except in cases where the magistrate finds that undue hardship will be imposed upon the defendant by requiring him or her to appear, the magistrate may declare the bail forfeited and order that no further proceedings be had in the case.

Upon the making of the order that no further proceedings be had, all sums deposited as bail shall immediately be paid into the county treasury for distribution pursuant to Section 1463.

(f) No warrant shall be issued for the arrest of a person who has given a written promise to appear in court, unless and until he or she has violated that promise or has failed to deposit bail, to appear for arraignment, trial, or judgment or to comply with the terms and provisions of the judgment, as required by law.

(g) The officer may either book the arrested person prior to release or indicate on the citation that the arrested person shall be booked. If it is indicated on the citation that the arrested person is to be booked, the magistrate shall, before the proceedings are finally concluded, order the defendant to be booked by the arresting agency.

(h) A peace officer shall use the written notice to appear procedure set forth in this section for any misdemeanor offense in which the officer has arrested a person without a warrant pursuant to Section 836 or in which he or she has taken custody of a person pursuant to Section 847.

(i) Whenever any person is arrested by a peace officer for a misdemeanor, that person shall be released according to the procedures set forth by this chapter unless one of the following is a reason for nonrelease, in which case the arresting officer may release the person, or the arresting officer shall indicate, on a form to be established by his or her employing law enforcement agency, which of the following was a reason for the nonrelease:

(1) The person arrested was so intoxicated that he or she could have been a danger to himself or herself or to others.

(2) The person arrested required medical examination or medical care or was otherwise unable to care for his or her own safety.

(3) The person was arrested under one or more of the circumstances listed in Sections 40302 and 40303 of the Vehicle Code.

(4) There were one or more outstanding arrest warrants for the person.

(5) The person could not provide satisfactory evidence of personal identification.

(6) The prosecution of the offense or offenses for which the person was arrested, or the prosecution of any other offense or offenses, would be jeopardized by immediate release of the person arrested.

(7) There was a reasonable likelihood that the offense or offenses would continue or resume, or that the safety of persons or property would be imminently endangered by release of the person arrested.

(8) The person arrested demanded to be taken before a magistrate or refused to sign the notice to appear.

(9) There is reason to believe that the person would not appear at the time and place specified in the notice. The basis for this determination shall be specifically stated.

The form shall be filed with the arresting agency as soon as practicable and shall be made available to any party having custody of the arrested person, subsequent to the arresting officer, and to any person authorized by law to release him or her for custody before trial.

(j) Once the arresting officer has prepared the written notice to appear and has delivered a copy to the person arrested, the officer shall deliver the remaining original and all copies as provided by subdivision (e).

Any person, including the arresting officer and any member of the officer's department or agency, or any peace officer, who alters, conceals, modifies, nullifies, or destroys, or causes to be altered, concealed, modified, nullified, or destroyed, the face side of the remaining original or any copy of a citation that was retained by the officer, for any reason, before it is filed with the magistrate or with a person authorized by the magistrate to receive deposit of bail, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

If, after an arrested person has signed and received a copy of a notice to appear, the arresting officer determines that, in the interest of justice, the citation or notice should be dismissed, the arresting agency may recommend, in writing, to the magistrate that the charges be dismissed. The recommendation shall cite the reasons for the recommendation and shall be filed with the court.

If the magistrate makes a finding that there are grounds for dismissal, the finding shall be entered in the record and the charges dismissed.

Under no circumstances shall a personal relationship with any officer, public official, or law enforcement agency be grounds for dismissal.

CHAPTER 454

An act to add Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 61850) to Part 7 of Division 3 of Title 6 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 22438, 30540, 30541, 30542, 30543, 30545, and 30582 of the Water Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 61850) is added to Part 7 of Division 3 of Title 6 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2. TRANSFER OF ASSETS

61850. Notwithstanding Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 23701), Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 24341), Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 24451), Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 24501), Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 24521), and Chapter 15 (commencing with Section 24901) of, Part 11 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the transfer of the assets of the Stonehouse Mutual Water Company, including its lands, easements, rights and obligations to act as sole agent of the stockholders in exercising the riparian rights of the stockholders, and rights relating to the ownership, operation, and maintenance of water and sewer facilities serving the customers of the company, to the Hidden Valley Lake Community Services District, is not a transfer subject to taxes imposed by Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code if both of the following requirements are met:

(a) The consideration for the transfer of all or substantially all of the assets is the assumption by the district of the company's liability to provide service to the company's stockholders.

(b) The legal or beneficial title to all or substantially all of the company's assets is vested in the district on or before January 1, 1995.

(c) For the one-year period immediately prior to commencement of the transfer and continuing until the transfer is completed, 85 percent or more of the company's income consists of amounts collected from stockholders for the sole purpose of meeting losses and expenses.

SEC. 2. Section 22438 of the Water Code is amended to read:

22438. (a) A district which is the owner of an easement for an open canal or other water conveyance facility for the transportation of water across lands not owned by the district, other than an easement evidenced by a written grant or judgment providing a legal description of the easement, has a secondary easement on each side of the open canal or other water conveyance facility for the maintenance, repair, cleaning, operation, and control of the open canal or other water conveyance facility and other use as may reasonably be required by the district in exercising those rights and in the maintenance, repair, cleaning, and operation of that easement and open canal or other water conveyance facility with equipment owned by, or available to, the district for that use at the time the rights are exercised. The duration of the secondary easement shall be for as long as the district, or its successors or assigns, continues to own the open canal or other water conveyance facility easement regardless of what use has or has not been made of the secondary easement.

(b) The owner or any lessee of the land upon which a secondary easement is located may use the surface of the land upon which the secondary easement is located for his or her own purposes to the extent that use does not unreasonably interfere with the district's ownership or use of the secondary easement or the open canal or other water conveyance facility easement. Any encroachment or obstruction placed or permitted upon the secondary easement by the owner or any lessee of the land, which unreasonably interferes with the secondary easement or the open canal or other water conveyance facility easement, may be removed by the district at the owner's or lessee's expense, or by legal action filed by the district.

(c) This section shall not be construed to limit the right of a district or of any person to acquire any easement by prescription or condemnation or to enter into a written agreement concerning an easement or secondary easement upon terms agreed to by the parties.

SEC. 3. Section 30540 of the Water Code is amended to read:

30540. (a) The board shall, at its first meeting or as soon thereafter as practicable, appoint by a majority vote a general manager and a secretary.

(b) The board shall also, by majority vote, do either of the following:

(1) Appoint an auditor or treasurer to carry out the duties required by Section 30582 and other duties required by the board.

(2) Retain an auditor as an independent contractor to conduct an annual audit of the district's books, records, and financial affairs.

SEC. 4. Section 30541 of the Water Code is amended to read:

30541. A director shall not be the general manager, secretary, treasurer, or auditor.

SEC. 5. Section 30542 of the Water Code is amended to read:

30542. The general manager, secretary, treasurer, and auditor shall each receive the compensation determined by the board and shall serve at its pleasure.

SEC. 6. Section 30543 of the Water Code is amended to read:

30543. The same person may serve as general manager and secretary, secretary and auditor, or secretary and treasurer.

SEC. 7. Section 30545 of the Water Code is amended to read:

30545. The general manager, secretary, auditor, treasurer, and other employees or assistants of the district, as required by the board, shall each give a bond to the district conditioned for the faithful performance of his or her duties as the board may provide.

SEC. 8. Section 30582 of the Water Code is amended to read:

30582. If the board appoints an auditor or treasurer pursuant to Section 30540, the auditor or treasurer shall install and maintain a system of auditing and accounting that shall completely and at all times show the financial condition of the district.

SEC. 9. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 455

An act to amend Section 68076 of the Education Code, relating to postsecondary education.

[Approved by Governor September 26, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 68076 of the Education Code is amended to read:

68076. (a) Notwithstanding Section 68062, a student who (1) has not been an adult resident of California for more than one year and (2) is either the dependent child of a California resident who has had residence in California for more than one year prior to the residence determination date, or has a parent who has both contributed court-ordered support for the student on a continuous basis and has been a California resident for a minimum of one year, shall be entitled to resident classification. This exception shall continue until the student has resided in the state the minimum time necessary to become a resident, so long as continuous attendance is maintained at an institution.

(b) No provision of this section shall apply to the University of California unless the Regents of the University of California adopt a resolution to that effect.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 456

An act relating to postsecondary education, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares, based upon geological investigations, that part of the Inglewood/Newport fault line passes directly under portions of the two main instructional classroom buildings at Los Angeles Southwest Community College. According to qualified structural engineers, this recently discovered fault line presents a serious earthquake safety hazard to students and faculty. Engineers predict the possibility of a major structural failure of the buildings if an earthquake produces a rupture of the fault line.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that sufficient funds, as determined by the Department of Finance, contained in the June 1990 Higher Education Capital Outlay Bond Fund, created pursuant to Section 67346 of the Education Code, immediately be made available to the Los Angeles Southwest Community College to enable the district to undertake a seismic hazard reduction project to accomplish the following:

(a) Relocate classes from the main instructional buildings to temporary facilities.

(b) Commence partial demolition of the main instructional buildings.

(c) Plan for construction of permanent replacement buildings to provide for ultimate relocation of the students and faculty.

SEC. 3. The sum of two million five hundred seventy-two thousand dollars ($2,572,000) is hereby appropriated from the June 1990 Higher Education Capital Outlay Bond Fund created pursuant to Section 67346 of the Education Code, to the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges for allocation to the Los Angeles Community College District for the purpose of a seismic reduction project at the Los Angeles Southwest Community College. The project shall include all of the following:

(a) Soils studies, preliminary plans, working drawings and construction for site development and infrastructure for location of temporary instructional buildings, including moving costs, and partial demolition of the two main instructional buildings.

(b) The planning necessary to revise the campus master plan and develop capital outlay budget change proposals for construction of permanent instructional buildings that provide for the ultimate replacement of portions of the main education buildings that are to be demolished.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the seismic reduction project at the Los Angeles Southwest Community College may be undertaken as soon as possible, thereby reducing the risk of injury to faculty and students, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 457

An act relating to school facilities, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 27, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 27, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of four hundred twenty-eight thousand dollars ($428,000) is hereby reappropriated from Item 6870-103-001 of the Budget Act of 1990 to the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges to lease relocatable classrooms for use at Los Angeles Southwest College in response to a condition which is threatening the health and safety of students as a result of a newly discovered surface seismic fault under the college's only instructional classroom building.

CHAPTER 458

An act to amend Section 6050 of the Financial Code, relating to financial institutions.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6050 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

6050. (a) The register of stockholders or members, the books of account, and the minutes of an association shall be subject to inspection upon the written demand of any stockholder or member or group of stockholders or members at any reasonable time during usual business hours, for a proper purpose reasonably related to the stockholder's or member's interest. The right of inspection is limited to a stockholder, or member, or group of stockholders or members, who hold of record voting shares having a cost of not less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), or who hold of record voting shares constituting not less than 1 percent of the outstanding voting shares, provided in either case, the stockholder, member, or group of stockholders or members, have been holders of record of the voting shares for at least six months before making the written demand. The right of inspection created by this subdivision shall extend to the records of each subsidiary of an association subject to this subdivision and includes the right to make extracts.

(b) Notwithstanding the right of inspection granted in subdivision (a), no stockholder, member, or group of stockholders or members, shall have the right to inspect or make extracts of any portion of any register, book, or minutes of an association containing any of the following:

(1) A list of depositors in or borrowers from the association.

(2) The addresses of depositors or borrowers from the association.

(3) Individual deposit or loan balances or records. "Records" for the purposes of this paragraph means confidential facts pertaining to personal financial information about an individual, including, but not limited to, an individual's credit file and any loan application.

(4) Any data from which any of the information described in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, could be reasonably constructed.

(c) Each association director shall have the right at any reasonable time to inspect all books, records, documents of every kind, and the physical properties of that association. The inspection may be made in person or by agent or attorney, and the right of inspection includes the right to make extracts. In the case of foreign associations the right of inspection extends only to books, records, documents, and property located in this state.

(d) Savings accountholders who are not stockholders, members, or directors of an association shall have no right of inspection under this section.

CHAPTER 459

An act to amend Section 40803 of, and to amend and repeal Section 40802 of, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40802 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 833 of the Statutes of 1986, is amended to read:

40802. A "speed trap" is either of the following:

(a) A particular section of a highway measured as to distance and with boundaries marked, designated, or otherwise determined in order that the speed of a vehicle may be calculated by securing the time it takes the vehicle to travel the known distance.

(b) A particular section of a highway with a prima facie speed limit provided by this code or by local ordinance pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 22352, or established pursuant to Section 22354, 22357, 22358, or 22358.3, which speed limit is not justified by an engineering and traffic survey conducted within five years prior to the date of the alleged violation, and where enforcement involves the use of radar or other electronic devices which measure the speed of moving objects. This subdivision does not apply to local streets and roads.

For purposes of this section, local streets and roads shall be defined by the latest functional usage and federal-aid system maps as submitted to the Federal Highway Administration. When these maps have not been submitted, the following definition shall be used: A local street or road primarily provides access to abutting residential property and shall meet the following three conditions:

(1) Roadway width of not more than 40 feet.

(2) Not more than one-half mile of uninterrupted length. Interruptions shall include official traffic control devices as defined in Section 445.

(3) Not more than one traffic lane in each direction.

SEC. 2. Section 40802 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 833 of the Statutes of 1986, is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 40803 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

40803. (a) No evidence as to the speed of a vehicle upon a highway shall be admitted in any court upon the trial of any person for an alleged violation of this code when the evidence is based upon or obtained from or by the maintenance or use of a speed trap.

(b) In any prosecution under this code of a charge involving the speed of a vehicle, where enforcement involves the use of radar or other electronic devices which measure the speed of moving objects, the prosecution shall establish, as part of its prima facie case, that the evidence or testimony presented is not based upon a speed trap as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 40802.

(c) When a traffic and engineering survey is required pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 40802, evidence that a traffic and engineering survey has been conducted within five years of the date of the alleged violation or evidence that the offense was committed on a local street or road as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 40802 shall constitute a prima facie case that the evidence or testimony is not based upon a speed trap as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 40802.

CHAPTER 460

An act to amend Items 3940-001-001 and 3940-001-193 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1991, relating to water, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Item 3940-001-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1991 is amended to read:

Provisions:

1. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, upon approval and order of the Director of Finance, the State Water Resources Control Board may borrow sufficient funds, from special funds which otherwise provide support for the board, for cash purposes. Any such loans are to be repaid with interest at the Pooled Money Investment Account rate.
2. It is the intent of the Legislature that revenues to support the activities of the State Water Resources Control Board be derived, in part or in full, from various fees which the board is, or will be, authorized to collect. These fees may include a new or increased water rights fee.

SEC. 2. Item 3940-001-193 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1991 is amended to read:

3940-001-193—For support of State Water Resources Control Board, for payment to Item 3940-001-001, payable from the Waste Discharge Permit Fund.. 7,350,000

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to help ensure that California water resources are protected and to avoid endangerment of regulatory water quality and water rights programs, it is essential that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 461

An act to add Sections 6362.7 and 6362.8 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 1, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6362.7 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6362.7. There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part, the gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state, of tangible personal property which becomes an ingredient or component part of any newspaper or periodical that is distributed without charge and regularly issued at average intervals not exceeding three months, and any such newspaper or periodical.

SEC. 2. Section 6362.8 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6362.8. (a) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part, the gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption in this state, of tangible personal property that becomes an ingredient or component part of any newspaper or periodical, or any such newspaper or periodical.

(b) This section shall apply only with respect to any of the following:

(1) Any newspaper or periodical published or purchased by an organization that qualifies for tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and to which any of the following apply:

(A) Distribution is to the members of the organization in consideration of payment of the organization's membership fee, or to the organization's contributors.

(B) The publication does not receive revenue from, or accept, any commercial advertising.

(2) Any newspaper or periodical distributed by a nonprofit organization for which both of the following apply:

(A) Distribution is to any member of the nonprofit organization in consideration, in whole or in part, of payment of the organization's membership fee.

(B) The amount paid or incurred by the nonprofit organization for the cost of printing the newspaper or periodical is less than 10 percent of the membership fee attributable to the period for which the newspaper or periodical is distributed.

SEC. 3. The State Board of Equalization may adopt emergency regulations, regarding any change made by this act, in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act, and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 5. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the first day of the first month after the effective date of this act.

CHAPTER 462

An act to add Sections 12945.2 and 19702.3 to the Government Code, relating to employment.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 1, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known, and may be cited as, the Family Rights Act of 1991.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The United States is the only industrialized country that does not have a mandated policy on child care leave.

(b) There is a shortage of out-of-home child care, particularly for infants.

(c) More than 60 percent of the women of childbearing age in the United States are in the work force and 40 percent of these women have children under three years of age.

(d) Because of the changing roles of men and women in the work force and the family, and the need to promote stability and economic security in families, both men and women should have the option of taking leave for child-rearing purposes.

(e) Close contact between parent and child is in the best interest of the child, particularly during the child's infancy and early years, and this contact promotes family stability.

SEC. 3. The Legislature further finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The percentage of adults who care for their parents due to physical and mental disabilities is growing. Surveys indicate that about one-quarter of all workers must provide elder care support, and that 64 percent of senior Californians live with relatives.

(b) Independent living situations are generally preferable to institutionalization as physical caretaking and emotional support are best performed by families.

(c) The current trends towards home care, while providing for the health and well-being of families, adds to the tension between work demands and family needs.

(d) Due to a lack of available and affordable care for elder persons, particularly in rural areas, and limited alternative housing arrangements, there is a need for care to be provided for elder persons by family members.

(e) In the past, care for aged parents was provided principally by daughters. Today, a majority of women are in the work force and jeopardize their employment and career opportunities to provide this care.

(f) The state, like the rest of the country, is experiencing dramatic demographic changes. Among the most significant of these changes is the growing number of elderly in our society. On the national level, more than 2.2 million family members provide unpaid help to ailing relatives, the most common caregivers being a child or spouse. About 38 percent of those caring for elderly relatives are children, and 35 percent are spouses.

(g) One-fifth of Americans 65 years of age and older must receive home care or be confined to hospitals or nursing homes. Facilitating care for them at home can present economic savings to the health system, seniors, care givers, and employers.

(h) The need for elder care is expected to increase as the demographic trends indicate an increasingly aging society.

SEC. 4. Section 12945.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

12945.2. (a) It shall be an unlawful employment practice for any employer of 50 or more employees to refuse to grant a request by any employee with more than one year of continuous service with the employer, who meets all requirements of this section, and who is eligible for other benefits to take up to a total of four months in a 24-month period for family care leave. Family care leave requested pursuant to this subdivision shall not be deemed to have been granted unless the employer provides the employee, upon granting the leave request, a guarantee of employment in the same or a comparable position upon the termination of the leave. The commission shall adopt a regulation specifying the elements of a reasonable request.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Child" means a biological, adopted, or foster child, a stepchild, a legal ward, or a child of a person standing in loco parentis who is either of the following:

(A) Under 18 years of age.

(B) An adult dependent child.

(2) "Employer" means any person who directly employs 50 or more persons to perform services for a wage or salary.

(3) "Family care leave" means either of the following:

(A) Leave for reason of the birth of a child of the employee, the placement of a child with an employee in connection with the adoption of the child by the employee, or the serious illness of a child of the employee .

(B) Leave to care for a parent or a spouse who has a serious health condition.

(4) "Employment in the same or a comparable position" means employment in a position that has the same or similar duties and pay which can be performed at the same or similar geographic location as the position held prior to the leave.

(5) "Health care provider" means an individual holding either a physician's and surgeon's certificate issued pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 2080) of Chapter 5 of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code or an osteopathic physician's and surgeon's certificate issued pursuant to Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 2099.5) of Chapter 5 of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code.

(6) "Parent" means a biological, foster, or adoptive parent, a stepparent, or a legal guardian.

(7) "Serious health condition" means an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition which warrants the participation of a family member to provide care during a period of the treatment or supervision and involves either of the following:

(A) Inpatient care in a hospital, hospice, or residential health care facility.

(B) Continuing treatment or continuing supervision by a health care provider.

(c) An employer shall not be required to pay an employee for any leave taken pursuant to subdivision (a), except as required by subdivision (d).

(d) An employee taking a leave permitted by subdivision (a) may elect, or an employer may require the employee, to substitute for leave allowed under subdivision (a), any of the employee's accrued vacation leave or other accrued time off during this period or any other paid or unpaid time off negotiated with the employer. However, an employee shall not use sick leave during the period of the family care leave unless mutually agreed to by the employer and the employee.

(e) Any employee taking leave pursuant to subdivision (a) shall continue to be entitled to participate in health plans, pension and retirement plans, and supplemental unemployment benefit plans to the same extent and under the same conditions as apply to an unpaid leave taken for any purpose other than family care. In the absence of these conditions, an employee shall continue to be entitled to participate in these plans, and in the case of health and welfare employee benefit plans, including group medical, life, short-term or long-term disability or accident insurance, or other similar plans, the employer may, at his or her discretion, require the employee to pay premiums, at the group rate, during the period of leave not covered by any accrued vacation leave, or other accrued time off, or any other paid or unpaid time off negotiated with the employer, as a condition of continued coverage during the leave period. However, the nonpayment of premiums by an employee shall not constitute a break in service, for purposes of longevity, seniority under any collective bargaining agreement, or any employee benefit plan.

For purposes of pension and retirement plans, an employer shall not be required to make plan payments for an employee during the leave period, and the leave period shall not be required to be counted for purposes of time accrued under the plan. However, an employee covered by a pension plan may continue to make contributions in accordance with the terms of the plan during the period of the leave.

(f) During a family care leave period, the employee shall retain employee status with the employer, and the leave shall not constitute a break in service, for purposes of longevity, seniority under any collective bargaining agreement, or any employee benefit plan. An employee returning from leave shall return with no less seniority than the employee had when the leave commenced, for purposes of layoff, recall, promotion, job assignment, and seniority-related benefits such as vacation.

(g) If the employee's need for a leave pursuant to this section is foreseeable, the employee shall provide the employer with reasonable advance notice of the need for the leave.

(h) If the employee's need for leave pursuant to this section is foreseeable due to a planned medical treatment or supervision, the employee shall make a reasonable effort to schedule the treatment or supervision to avoid disruption to the operations of the employer, subject to the approval of the health care provider of the individual requiring the treatment or supervision.

(i) (1) An employer may require that an employee's request for leave to care for a child, a spouse, or a parent who has a serious health condition be supported by a certification issued by the health care provider of the individual requiring care. That certification shall be sufficient if it includes all of the following:

(A) The date on which the serious health condition commenced.

(B) The probable duration of the condition.

(C) An estimate of the amount of time that the health care provider believes the employee needs to care for the individual requiring the care.

(D) A statement that the serious health condition warrants the participation of a family member to provide care during a period of the treatment or supervision of the individual requiring care.

(2) Upon expiration of the time estimated by the health care provider in subparagraph (C), the employer may require the employee to obtain recertification in accordance with the procedure provided in paragraph (1), if additional leave is required.

(j) It shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employer to refuse to hire, or to discharge, fine, suspend, expel, or discriminate against, any individual because of any of the following:

(1) An individual's exercise of the right to family care leave provided by subdivision (a).

(2) An individual's giving information or testimony as to his or her own family care leave, or another person's family care leave, in any inquiry or proceeding related to rights guaranteed under this section.

(k) This section shall not be construed to require any changes in existing collective bargaining agreements during the life of the contract, or until January 1, 1993, whichever occurs first.

(l) The provisions of this section shall be construed as separate and distinct from those of Section 12945. However, leave taken pursuant to this section shall be no more than one month when used in conjunction with the maximum leave under Section 12945, unless the employer and employee agree otherwise.

(m) This section shall not entitle the employee to receive disability benefits under Part 1 (commencing with Section 3200) of Division 4 of the Labor Code.

(n) Leave provided for pursuant to this section may be taken in one or more periods but shall not exceed a total of four months within a 24-month period from the date the leave commenced unless otherwise agreed to by the employee and the employer.

(o) An employer shall not be required to grant an employee family care leave which would allow the employee and the other parent of the child family care leave totaling more than the amount specified in subdivision (a), nor to grant an employee family care leave for any period of time in which the child's other parent is also taking family care leave from employment or is unemployed.

(p) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an employer may refuse to grant a request for family care leave made by an employee if this refusal is necessary to prevent undue hardship to the employer's operations.

(q) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an employer may refuse to grant a request for family care leave made by a salaried employee who, on the date the request for family care leave is made, is either one of the five highest paid employees, or is among the top 10 percent of the employees in terms of gross salary, whichever group encompasses the greater number of persons, employed by the employer at the same location.

SEC. 5. Section 19702.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

19702.3. (a) An appointing authority shall not refuse to hire, and shall not discharge, suspend, expel, or discriminate against, any individual because of any of the following:

(1) An individual's exercise of the right to family care leave provided by subdivision (a) of Section 12945.2.

(2) An individual's giving information or testimony as to his or her own family care leave, or another person's family care leave, in any inquiry or proceeding related to rights guaranteed under Section 12945.2.

(b) This section shall not be construed to require any changes in existing collective bargaining agreements during the life of the contract, or until January 1, 1993, whichever occurs first.

(c) An appointing authority's obligation to provide family care leave, other than for birth or adoption of a child, resulting in costs incurred by the state shall be contingent upon provision in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 6. In adopting the regulations required by Section 12945.2 of the Government Code, as contained in Section 4 of this act, the Fair Employment and Housing Commission shall consider and specify all of the following:

(a) The length of time necessary for appropriate advance notice for a leave request submitted pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12945.2 of the Government Code.

(b) The appropriate minimum duration of family care leave. This paragraph shall not be construed as permitting an employer to deny a reasonable family care leave request for a period in excess of the appropriate minimum duration for family care leaves.

(c) What would constitute undue hardship for denial or deferral of family care leave.

(d) What accommodation of the employee's family care rights short of granting a leave would be reasonable.

SEC. 7. Within two years of the effective date of this act, the Legislative Analyst, in consultation with the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, shall report to the Governor and the Legislature on the impact, if any, of the requirements of this act, including the costs, benefits, and impact on productivity, of family care leave on employers.

SEC. 8. It is the intent of the Legislature that this act shall not affect any rights of state employees under Section 19991.6 of the Government Code or Section 89519 of the Education Code.

CHAPTER 463

An act to amend Section 6920 of, and to add Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 6810) to Chapter 6 of Division 6 of, the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor September 30, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 1, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 6810) is added to Chapter 6 of Division 6 of the Elections Code, to read:

Article 1.5. Declaration of Intention

6810. (a) A candidate shall file a written and signed declaration of his or her intention to become a candidate for elective office. The declaration shall be left with the officer with whom his or her nomination papers are required to be left, on a form to be supplied by the county elections official, not more than 14 nor less than five days prior to the first day on which nomination papers may be presented by a candidate seeking a party nomination for that office. The declaration shall be substantially in the following form:

"I hereby declare my intention to become a candidate for the office of _____ (name of office and district, if any) at the November _____, 19__, general election."

(b) No person may be a candidate nor have his or her name printed upon any ballot as a candidate for elective office unless he or she has filed a declaration of intention pursuant to this section.

SEC. 2. Section 6920 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

6920. Each candidate, at least 88 days prior to the election, shall leave with the officer with whom his or her nomination papers are required to be left a declaration of candidacy which states all of the following:

(a) The candidate's residence, with street and number, if any.

(b) That the candidate is a voter in the precinct in which he or she resides.

(c) The name of the office for which he or she is a candidate.

(d) That the candidate will not withdraw as a candidate before the election.

(e) That, if elected, the candidate will qualify for the office.

(f) That the candidate is not, and was not at any time during the 13 months preceding the general election at which a candidate for the office mentioned in the declaration of candidacy shall be elected, registered as affiliated with a political party qualified under Section 6430.

The name of a candidate shall not be placed on the ballot unless the declaration of candidacy provided for in this section has been properly filed.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 464

An act to amend Section 904.6 of, and to repeal Sections 904.5, 904.7, 904.8, and 904.9 of, the Penal Code, relating to grand juries, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 904.5 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 904.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

904.6. (a) In any county or city and county, the presiding judge of the superior court may order and direct the impanelment, at any time, of one additional grand jury pursuant to this section.

(b) The presiding judge shall select persons, at random, from the list of trial jurors in civil and criminal cases and shall examine them to determine if they are competent to serve as grand jurors. When a sufficient number of competent persons have been selected, they shall constitute the additional grand jury.

(c) Any additional grand jury which is impaneled pursuant to this section may serve for a period of one year from the date of impanelment, but may be discharged at any time within the one-year period by order of the presiding judge. In no event shall more than one additional grand jury be impaneled pursuant to this section at the same time.

(d) Whenever an additional grand jury is impaneled pursuant to this section, it may inquire into any matters which are subject to grand jury inquiry and shall have the sole and exclusive jurisdiction to return indictments, except for any matters which the regular grand jury is inquiring into at the time of its impanelment.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature that all persons qualified for jury service shall have an equal opportunity to be considered for service as criminal grand jurors in the county in which they reside, and that they have an obligation to serve, when summoned for that purpose. All persons selected for the additional criminal grand jury shall be selected at random from a source or sources reasonably representative of a cross section of the population which is eligible for jury service in the county.

SEC. 3. Section 904.7 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 904.8 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 904.9 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to enable counties which need to establish separate grand juries to handle criminal cases as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 465

An act to amend Section 98.9 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to property taxation.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 98.9 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

98.9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, commencing with the 1988–89 fiscal year, property tax assessed value attributable to unitary and operating nonunitary property, as defined in Section 723, and Section 723.1, which is assessed by the State Board of Equalization shall be allocated by county as provided in Section 756, and the assessed value and revenues attributable to that allocation shall be allocated within each county as follows:

(a) Each county shall establish one countywide tax rate area. The assessed value of all unitary and operating nonunitary property shall be assigned to this tax rate area. No other property shall be assigned to this tax rate area.

(b) Property assigned to the tax rate area created by subdivision (a) shall be taxed at a rate equal to the sum of the following two rates:

(1) A rate determined by dividing the county's total ad valorem tax levies for the secured roll, including levies made pursuant to Section 100, for the prior year, exclusive of levies for debt service, by the county's total ad valorem secured roll assessed value for the prior year.

(2) A rate determined as follows:

(A) By dividing the county's total ad valorem tax levies for unitary and operating nonunitary property for the prior year debt service only by the county's total unitary and operating nonunitary assessed value for the prior year.

(B) Beginning with the 1989–90 fiscal year, adjusting the rate determined pursuant to subparagraph (A) by the percentage change between the two preceding fiscal years in the county's ad valorem debt service levy for the secured roll, not including unitary and operating nonunitary debt service.

(c) The property tax revenue derived from the assessed value assigned to the countywide tax rate area pursuant to subdivision (a) by the use of the tax rate determined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) shall be allocated as follows:

(1) For the 1988–89 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, each taxing jurisdiction shall be allocated an amount of property tax revenue equal to 102 percent of the amount of the aggregate property tax revenue it received from all unitary and operating nonunitary property in the prior fiscal year, exclusive of revenue attributable to levies for debt service.

(2) If the amount of property tax revenue available for allocation in the current fiscal year is insufficient to make the allocations required by paragraph (1), the amount of revenue to be allocated to each taxing jurisdiction shall be prorated based on a factor determined by dividing the total amount of property tax revenue available to all taxing jurisdictions from unitary and operating nonunitary property in the current year, exclusive of revenue attributable to levies for debt service, by the total amount of property tax revenue received by all taxing jurisdictions from unitary and operating nonunitary property in the prior fiscal year, exclusive of revenue attributable to levies for debt service.

(3) If the amount of property tax revenue available for allocation to all taxing jurisdictions in the current fiscal year from unitary and operating nonunitary property, exclusive of revenue attributable to levies for debt service, exceeds 102 percent of the property tax revenue received by all taxing jurisdictions from all unitary and operating nonunitary property in the prior fiscal year, exclusive of revenue attributable to levies for debt service, the amount of revenue in excess of 102 percent shall be allocated to all taxing jurisdictions in the county by a ratio determined by dividing each taxing jurisdiction's share of the county's total ad valorem tax levies for the secured roll for the prior year, exclusive of levies for debt service, by the county's total ad valorem tax levies for the secured roll for the prior year, exclusive of levies for debt service.

(d) The property tax revenue derived from the assessed value assigned to the countywide tax rate area pursuant to subdivision (a) by the use of the tax rate determined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) shall be allocated as follows:

(1) An amount shall be computed for each taxing jurisdiction which shall be determined by multiplying the amounts required in the current year pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (c) of Section 93 by that percentage which shall be determined by dividing the amount of property tax revenue the jurisdiction received in the prior year from unitary property and operating nonunitary property by the total amount of property tax revenue the jurisdiction received in the prior year from all property.

(2) The amount of property tax revenue available for allocation pursuant to this subdivision shall be allocated among taxing jurisdictions in the proportion that the amount computed for each taxing jurisdiction pursuant to paragraph (1) bears to the total amount computed pursuant to paragraph (1) for all taxing jurisdictions.

(3) If a taxing jurisdiction is levying a tax rate for debt service for the first time in the current fiscal year, for purposes of determining the percentage specified in paragraph (1), that percentage shall be the percentage determined by dividing the amount of property tax revenue received by that taxing jurisdiction in the prior year pursuant to subdivision (c) from unitary and operating nonunitary property by the total amount of property tax revenue received by that taxing jurisdiction in the prior year from all property within the taxing jurisdiction.

(e) For purposes of this section:

(1) "The county's total ad valorem tax levies for the secured roll" means all ad valorem tax levies for the county's secured roll, including the general tax levy, levies for debt service (including land only and land and improvement rates), and levies for redevelopment agencies.

(2) "The county's total ad valorem secured roll" means the county's local roll, after all exemptions except the homeowner's exemption, and the county's utility roll.

(3) "Taxing jurisdiction" includes a redevelopment agency, and a Special District Augmentation Fund created pursuant to Section 98.6.

(f) The assessed value of the unitary and operating nonunitary property shall be kept separate for each state assessee throughout the allocation process.

(g) Each state assessee shall be issued only one tax bill for all unitary and operating nonunitary property within the county.

(h) This section does not apply to unitary property of regulated railway companies.

(i) This section does not apply to property which on July 1, 1987, was undeveloped and owned by a utility and which is located within a city, county, or city and county which adopts a resolution stating that the property is subject to a development plan or agreement and that this section shall not apply to that property, and the city, county, or city and county transmits a copy of that resolution, including a legal description of the property, to the State Board of Equalization and the county's auditor-controller prior to January 1, 1988.

(j) (1) For property that on July 1, 1990, was undeveloped and owned by a utility and that is located within a city, county, or city and county that adopts a resolution stating that the property is subject to a development plan or agreement and that this subdivision applies to that property, and the city, county, or city and county transmits a copy of that resolution, including a legal description of the property, to the county auditor prior to August 1, 1991, the allocation of property tax revenues derived with respect to that property pursuant to Sections 97, 97.35, 97.36, 97.41, 97.5, and 97.65, shall be subject to the allocation required by paragraph (2).

(2) The county auditor shall annually allocate to a city, county, or city and county, that has adopted and transmitted a resolution pursuant to paragraph (1), the amount of property tax revenues derived with respect to the property described in paragraph (1) that would be allocated to that city, county, or city and county if that property were subject to assessment by the county assessor. In order to provide the allocations required by this paragraph, the county auditor shall make any necessary pro rata reductions in allocations to local agencies other than that city, county, or city and county adopting and transmitting a resolution pursuant to paragraph (1), of property tax revenues derived with respect to the property described in paragraph (1).

CHAPTER 466

An act to amend Section 53313.5 of the Government Code, relating to community facilities districts.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53313.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53313.5. A community facilities district may also finance the purchase, construction, expansion, improvement, or rehabilitation of any real or other tangible property with an estimated useful life of five years or longer or may finance planning and design work which is directly related to the purchase, construction, expansion, or rehabilitation of any real or tangible property. The facilities need not be physically located within the district. A district may not lease out facilities which it has financed except pursuant to a lease agreement or annexation agreement entered into prior to January 1, 1988. A district may only finance the purchase of facilities whose construction has been completed, as determined by the legislative body, before the resolution of formation to establish the district is adopted pursuant to Section 53325.1, except that a district may finance the purchase of facilities completed after the adoption of the resolution of formation if the facility was constructed as if it had been constructed under the direction and supervision, or under the authority of, the local agency. For example, a community facilities district may finance facilities, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Local park, recreation, parkway, and open-space facilities.

(b) Elementary and secondary schoolsites and structures provided that the facilities meet the building area and cost standards established by the State Allocation Board.

(c) Libraries.

(d) Child care facilities, including costs of insuring the facilities against loss, liability insurance in connection with the operation of the facility, and other insurance costs relating to the operation of the facilities, but excluding all other operational costs. However, the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to this chapter shall not be used to pay these insurance costs.

(e) The district may also finance the construction or undergrounding of natural gas pipeline facilities, telephone lines, facilities for the transmission or distribution of electrical energy, and cable television lines to provide access to those services to customers who do not have access to those services or to mitigate existing visual blight. The district may enter into an agreement with a public utility to utilize those facilities to provide a particular service and for the conveyance of those facilities to the public utility. If the facilities are conveyed to the public utility, the agreement shall provide for a refund by the public utility to the district or improvement area thereof for the cost of the facilities. Any reimbursement made to the district shall be utilized to reduce or minimize the special tax levied within the district or improvement area, or to construct or acquire additional facilities within the district or improvement area, as specified in the resolution of formation.

(f) The district may also pay in full all amounts necessary to eliminate any fixed special assessment liens or to repay or defease any indebtedness secured by any tax, fee, charge, or assessment levied within the area of a community facilities district or may pay debt service on that indebtedness.

(g) Any other governmental facilities which the legislative body creating the community facilities district is authorized by law to contribute revenue to, or construct, own, or operate. However, the district shall not operate or maintain or, except as otherwise provided in subdivision (d), have any ownership interest in any facilities for the transmission or distribution of natural gas, telephone service, or electrical energy.

(h) (1) A district may also pay for the following:

(A) Work deemed necessary to bring buildings, including privately owned buildings, into compliance with seismic safety standards or regulations. Only work certified as necessary to comply with seismic safety standards or regulations by local building officials may be financed. No project involving the dismantling of an existing building and its replacement by a new building, nor the construction of a new or substantially new building may be financed pursuant to this subparagraph. Work on qualified historical buildings or structures shall be done in accordance with the State Historical Building Code (Part 2.7 (commencing with Section 18950) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code).

(B) In addition, within counties designated by the President of the United States as disaster areas, a district may also pay for any work deemed necessary to reconstruct, repair, shore up, or replace any building damaged or destroyed by the earthquake which occurred on October 17, 1989, or by its aftershocks. Work may be financed pursuant to this subparagraph only on buildings identified in a resolution of intention to establish a community facilities district adopted prior to October 17, 1994.

(2) Work on privately owned buildings, including reconstruction or replacement of privately owned buildings pursuant to this subdivision, may only be financed by a tax levy if all of the votes cast on the question of levying the tax, vote in favor of levying the tax. Any district created to finance seismic safety work on privately owned buildings, including reconstruction or replacement of privately owned buildings pursuant to this subdivision, shall consist only of lots or parcels on which the legislative body finds that the buildings to be worked on, reconstructed, or replaced, pursuant to this subdivision, are located or were located before being damaged or destroyed by the October 17, 1989, earthquake or its aftershocks.

(i) (1) A district may also pay for the following:

(A) Work deemed necessary to repair and abate damage caused to privately owned buildings and structures by soil deterioration. "Soil deterioration" means a chemical reaction by soils that causes structural damage or defects in construction materials including concrete, steel, and ductile or cast iron. Only work certified as necessary by local building officials may be financed. No project involving the dismantling of an existing building or structure and its replacement by a new building or structure, nor the construction of a new or substantially new building or structure may be financed pursuant to this subparagraph.

(B) Work on privately owned buildings and structures pursuant to this subdivision, including reconstruction, repair, and abatement of damage caused by soil deterioration, may only be financed by a tax levy if all of the votes cast on the question of levying the tax vote in favor of levying the tax. Any district created to finance the work on privately owned buildings or structures, including reconstruction, repair, and abatement of damage caused by soil deterioration, shall consist only of lots or parcels on which the legislative body finds that the buildings or structures to be worked on pursuant to this subdivision suffer from soil deterioration.

CHAPTER 467

An act to add Sections 1568.23, 1568.24, and 1568.25 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to Alzheimer's respite care.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Alzheimer's disease and related disorders afflict nearly 600,000 people in California.

(b) The need for respite care for caregivers has grown proportionately with the growth of the disease.

(c) The responsibility for care and treatment for Alzheimer's disease and related disorders is spread among four agencies, and, therefore, a more coordinated and holistic approach to providing respite care services is necessary.

(d) The complete identification, description, and inventory of all respite care services presently offered in California can be done before expanding and coordinating respite care opportunities.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this act, to expand respite care opportunities identified through this study, wherever possible, at no additional costs to the General Fund.

SEC. 2. Section 1568.23 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1568.23. The Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency shall conduct the following activities and report to the Legislature by April 1, 1992:

(a) Identify and determine the projected costs to complete the activities described in Section 1568.24.

(b) Identify categories of services and, if available, compile all statutory and regulatory authority and definitions for "in-home" and "out-of-home" respite care which are provided for the benefit of persons with Alzheimer's disease and related disorders and other disabilities which are the responsibility of the state departments under the jurisdiction of the Health and Welfare Agency.

(c) Obtain information on the characteristics, nature, and availability of respite care services within the state for those with Alzheimer's disease and related disorders.

SEC. 3. Section 1568.24 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1568.24. The Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency shall, contingent upon the availability of funds, conduct the following activities and report to the Legislature by July 1, 1993:

(a) Inventory and copy materials used in the preceding five years from January 1, 1992, for all formal and informal training provided to paid staff and volunteers of services identified in subdivision (b) of Section 1568.23.

(b) Identify barriers to Alzheimer's disease and related disorders respite care opportunities in the private and public sectors, including, but not limited to, conflicting regulations, inefficient admissions procedures, lack of specialized training, and estimate the costs, if any, associated with alleviating these barriers.

(c) Detail the differences, if any, in services, programs, and activities provided to persons with Alzheimer's disease and related disorders as compared to other types of respite care services, programs, and activities using a selected sample of respite services currently available from departments within the Health and Welfare Agency and other selected sites.

(d) Include descriptions of any innovative, creative, cost-effective Alzheimer's respite care programs identified in the activities described in this section.

(e) Make recommendations to the Legislature on the need for special training, or other requirements of the providers of respite care services which would better meet the needs of persons with Alzheimer's disease and related disorders and their families.

(f) Make recommendations on expanding the availability of respite care services, improving respite care services, and enhancing the state role in providing and encouraging the development of respite care services.

SEC. 4. Section 1568.25 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1568.25. (a) The Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency may designate a lead department within the agency which shall be responsible for the activities specified in Section 1568.24.

(b) The secretary shall consult with the Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders Advisory Committee and other persons, including, but not limited to, the Statewide Resources Consultant acting pursuant to Section 4334 of the Welfare and Institutions Code during the course of these activities.

CHAPTER 468

An act to add Section 41960.6 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to fuel.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The State Air Resources Board has determined that there are noteworthy health benefits to be gained from the use of hold open latches on gasoline dispensing nozzles which allow consumers to move away from escaping vapors.

(b) The state board estimates that persons refueling vehicles can virtually eliminate their personal exposure to benzene, a potent carcinogen and, since 1985, an identified toxic air contaminant, at pumps not currently equipped with Phase II vapor recovery systems, and at pumps which are currently equipped with these systems, which are designed to reduce vapor emissions by 90 percent, the state board estimates that personal exposure to benzene can be additionally reduced by an average of 75 percent, if hold open latches are installed, maintained, and used on gasoline nozzles.

(c) Hold open latches on automatic nozzles are a cost-effective means of reducing further potential cancer cases due to benzene exposure. The initial implementation cost to an average service station with several nozzles, including the cost of instructional signs and retrofit of latches, has been estimated at fifty-five dollars ($55). This compares favorably with that of other airborne toxic control measures that have been brought to the state board to date.

SEC. 2. Section 41960.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41960.6. (a) No retailer, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 20999 of the Business and Professions Code, shall, on or after July 1, 1992, allow the operation of a pump, including any pump owned or operated by the state, or any county, city and county, or city, equipped with a nozzle from which gasoline or diesel fuel is dispensed, unless the nozzle is equipped with an operating hold open latch. Any hold open latch determined to be inoperative by the local fire marshal or district official shall be repaired or replaced by the retailer, within 48 hours after notification to the retailer of that determination, to avoid any applicable penalty or fine.

(b) For purposes of this section, a "hold open latch" means any device which is an integral part of the nozzle and is manufactured specifically for the purpose of dispensing fuel without requiring the consumer's physical contact with the nozzle.

(c) Subdivision (a) does not apply to nozzles at facilities which are primarily in operation to refuel marine vessels or aircraft.

(d) Nothing in this section shall affect the current authority of any local fire marshal to establish and maintain fire safety provisions for his or her jurisdiction.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 469

An act to amend Section 11370.1 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 1000 of the Penal Code, relating to controlled substances.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11370.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11370.1. (a) Notwithstanding Section 11350 or 11377 or any other provision of law, every person who unlawfully possesses any amount of a substance containing cocaine base, a substance containing cocaine, a substance containing heroin, a substance containing methamphetamine, a crystalline substance containing phencyclidine, a liquid substance containing phencyclidine, plant material containing phencyclidine, or a hand-rolled cigarette treated with phencyclidine while armed with a loaded, operable firearm is guilty of a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years.

As used in this subdivision, "armed with" means having available for immediate offensive or defensive use.

(b) Except as provided in Section 1000 of the Penal Code, any person who is convicted under this section shall be ineligible for diversion under Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 1000) of Title 6 of Part 2 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 2. Section 1000 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1000. (a) This chapter shall apply whenever a case is before any court upon an accusatory pleading for a violation of Section 11350, 11357, 11364, 11365, 11377, or 11550 of the Health and Safety Code, or Section 11358 of the Health and Safety Code if the marijuana planted, cultivated, harvested, dried, or processed is for personal use, or Section 11368 of the Health and Safety Code if the narcotic drug was secured by a fictitious prescription and is for the personal use of the defendant and was not sold or furnished to another, or Section 11370.1 of the Health and Safety Code if the amount possessed is one-half gram or less of a substance containing cocaine base, one gram or less of a substance containing cocaine, one gram or less of a substance containing heroin, one gram or less of a substance containing methamphetamine, one-eighth gram or less of a crystalline substance containing phencyclidine, one milliliter or less of a liquid substance containing phencyclidine, one-half gram or less of plant material containing phencyclidine, or one hand-rolled cigarette treated with phencyclidine, or subdivision (d) of Section 653f if the solicitation was for acts directed to personal use only, or Section 381 or subdivision (f) of Section 647 of the Penal Code, if for being under the influence of a controlled substance, or Section 4230 of the Business and Professions Code, and it appears to the district attorney that, except as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 11357 of the Health and Safety Code, all of the following apply to the defendant:

(1) The defendant has no conviction for any offense involving controlled substances prior to the alleged commission of the charged divertible offense.

(2) The offense charged did not involve a crime of violence or threatened violence.

(3) There is no evidence of a violation relating to narcotics or restricted dangerous drugs other than a violation of the sections listed in this subdivision.

(4) The defendant's record does not indicate that probation or parole has ever been revoked without thereafter being completed.

(5) The defendant's record does not indicate that he or she has been diverted pursuant to this chapter within five years prior to the alleged commission of the charged divertible offense.

(6) The defendant has no prior felony conviction within five years prior to the alleged commission of the charged divertible offense.

(b) The district attorney shall review his or her file to determine whether or not paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (a) are applicable to the defendant. Upon the agreement of the district attorney, law enforcement, the public defender, the presiding judge of the criminal division of the municipal court or a judge designated by the presiding judge, and the probation department of each county, this procedure shall be completed as soon as possible after the initial filing of the charges. If the defendant is found eligible, the district attorney shall file with the court a declaration in writing or state for the record the grounds upon which the determination is based, and shall make this information available to the defendant and his or her attorney. This procedure is intended to allow the court to set the diversion hearing at the arraignment. If the defendant is found ineligible, the district attorney shall file with the court a declaration in writing or state for the record the grounds upon which the determination is based, and shall make this information available to the defendant and his or her attorney. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to affect the obligation of a probation department to conduct an investigation and make a report to the court, pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1000.1 and Section 1000.2.

(c) Successful completion of diversion for a violation of Section 11368 of the Health and Safety Code shall not prohibit any administrative agency from taking disciplinary action against a licensee or from denying a license. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to expand or restrict the provisions of Section 1000.5.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 470

An act to amend Sections 11515 and 11540 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11515 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11515. (a) Whenever an insurance company makes a total loss settlement on a total loss salvage vehicle, the insurance company, an occupational licensee of the department authorized by the insurance company, or a salvage pool authorized by the insurance company, shall, within 10 days from the settlement of the loss, forward the properly endorsed certificate of ownership or other evidence of ownership acceptable to the department, the license plates, and a three dollar ($3) fee, to the department. An occupational licensee of the department may submit a certificate of license plate destruction in lieu of the actual license plate. The department, upon receipt of the certificate of ownership or other evidence of title, the license plates, and the three dollar ($3) fee, shall issue a salvage certificate for the vehicle.

(b) Whenever the owner of a total loss salvage vehicle retains possession of the vehicle, the insurance company shall notify the department of the retention on a form prescribed by the department. The insurance company shall also notify the insured or owner of the insured's or owner's responsibility to comply with this subdivision. The owner shall, within 10 days from the settlement of the loss, forward the properly endorsed certificate of ownership or other evidence of ownership acceptable to the department, the license plates, and a three dollar ($3) fee to the department. The department, upon receipt of the certificate of ownership or other evidence of title, the license plates, and the three dollar ($3) fee, shall issue a salvage certificate for the vehicle.

(c) Whenever a total loss salvage vehicle is not the subject of an insurance settlement, the owner shall, within 10 days from the loss, forward the properly endorsed certificate of ownership or other evidence of ownership acceptable to the department, the license plates, and a three dollar ($3) fee to the department.

(d) Whenever a total loss salvage vehicle is not the subject of an insurance settlement, a self-insurer, as defined in Section 16052, shall, within 10 days of the loss, forward the properly endorsed certificate of ownership or other evidence of ownership acceptable to the department, the license plates, and a three dollar ($3) fee to the department.

(e) Prior to sale or disposal of a total loss salvage vehicle, the owner, owner's agent, or salvage pool, shall obtain a properly endorsed salvage certificate and deliver it to the purchaser within 10 days after payment in full for the salvage vehicle and shall also comply with Section 5900. The department shall accept the endorsed salvage certificate in lieu of the certificate of ownership or other evidence of ownership when accompanied by an application and other documents and fees, including, but not limited to, the fees required by Section 9265, as may be required by the department.

(f) This section does not apply to a vehicle which has been driven or taken without the consent of the owner thereof, until the vehicle has been recovered by the owner and only if the vehicle is a total loss salvage vehicle.

(g) A violation of subdivision (a), (b), (d), or (e) is a misdemeanor, pursuant to Section 40000.11. Notwithstanding Section 40000.11, a violation of subdivision (c) is an infraction, except that, if committed with intent to defraud, a violation of subdivision (c) is a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. Section 11540 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11540. (a) A salvage pool shall maintain an accurate record of every vehicle it acquires and every vehicle it disposes of, and shall notify the department of the disposition of any vehicle pursuant to Section 5900.

(b) Whenever a salvage pool acquires a total loss salvage vehicle or recovered stolen vehicle and the license plates on the vehicle have not been removed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 11515 or any other provision of law, the salvage pool shall, prior to disposing of that vehicle, remove and submit the license plates to the department. The salvage pool shall maintain an accurate record of every license plate it acquires and disposes of, which records shall be maintained for two years and be open for inspection by any peace officer during the regular business hours of that salvage pool.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1992.

CHAPTER 471

An act to add Section 27100.1 to the Government Code, relating to deposits in county treasuries, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27100.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

27100.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when any public entity or any public official acting in a fiduciary capacity, who is required or authorized by law to deposit funds in the county treasury, makes a deposit, those funds shall be deemed to be held in trust by the county treasurer on behalf of the depositing entity or public official. The funds shall not be deemed funds or assets of the county and the relationship of the depositing entity or public official and the county shall not be one of creditor-debtor.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the California Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The status of funds which a county treasurer holds in trust in the county treasury is not clear should the county file for bankruptcy. A federal bankruptcy court might regard these funds as the property of a county. In order to specify clearly as soon as possible that the relationship of the depositing entity or public official and the county shall not be one of creditor-debtor, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 472

An act to amend Sections 17034, 17037, 17039, 17052.13, 17052.14, 17053.6, 17053.8, 17053.9, 17053.11, 17054, 17054.5, 17054.7, 17073.5, 17207, 17733, 19062, 19062.11, 20506, 23058, 23060, 23612, 23612.5, 23622, 23623, 23624, 24347.5, 24359.1, 24363, 24377, 24434, 25555, and 25954.3 of, to amend and renumber Section 25940 of, and to repeal Sections 17251, 17641, and 24372 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17034 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17034. Unless otherwise specifically provided therein, the provisions of any act:

(a) Which affect the imposition or computation of taxes, additions to tax other than Section 18682, penalties, or the allowance of credits against the tax, shall be applied to taxable years beginning on or after January 1 of the year in which the act takes effect.

(b) Which change the provisions of Section 18682 (relating to underpayment of estimated tax) shall be applied to taxable years beginning on or after January 1 of the year immediately after the year in which the act takes effect.

(c) Which otherwise affect the provisions of this part shall be applied on and after the date the act takes effect.

SEC. 2. Section 17037 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17037. Provisions in other codes or general law statutes which are related to this part include all of the following:

(a) Chapter 20.6 (commencing with Section 9891) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to tax preparers.

(b) Part 10.5 (commencing with Section 20501) of this division, relating to the Property Tax Assistance and Postponement Law.

(c) Part 10.7 (commencing with Section 21001) of this division, relating to the Taxpayers' Bill of Rights.

(d) Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) of this division, relating to the Bank and Corporation Tax Law.

(e) Government Code Sections 15700 to 15702.1, inclusive, relating to the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 3. Section 17039 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17039. (a) Notwithstanding any provision in this part to the contrary, for the purposes of computing tax credits, the term "net tax" means the tax imposed under either Section 17041 or 17048 plus the tax imposed under Section 17504 (relating to lump-sum distributions) less the credits allowed by Section 17054 (relating to personal exemption credits) and any amount imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) and paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 17560. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, the "net tax" shall not be less than the tax imposed under Section 17504 (relating to the separate tax on lump-sum distributions), if any. Credits shall be allowed against "net tax" in the following order:

(1) Credits which do not contain carryover or refundable provisions, except those described in paragraphs (4), (5), and (6), and the credit allowed by Section 17053.14 (relating to the credit for political contributions).

(2) Credits which contain carryover provisions but do not contain refundable provisions.

(3) Credits which contain both carryover and refundable provisions.

(4) The minimum tax credit allowed by Section 17063 (relating to the alternative minimum tax).

(5) Credits for taxes paid to other states allowed by Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 18001).

(6) The low-income tax credit allowed by Section 17069.

(7) Credits which contain refundable provisions but do not contain carryover provisions.

The order within each paragraph shall be determined by the Franchise Tax Board.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 17053.5 (relating to the renter's credit), 17061 (relating to refunds pursuant to the Unemployment Insurance Code), and 18551.1 (relating to tax withholding), the credits provided in those sections shall be allowed in the order provided in paragraph (7) of subdivision (a).

(c) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, no tax credit shall reduce the tax imposed under Section 17041 or 17048 plus the tax imposed under Section 17504 (relating to the separate tax on lump-sum distributions) below the tentative minimum tax. as defined by Section 17062, except the following credits, but only after allowance of the credit allowed by Section 17063—

(A) The credit allowed by former Section 17052.4 (relating to solar energy).

(B) The credit allowed by former Section 17052.5 (relating to solar energy).

(C) The credit allowed by Section 17052.5 (relating to solar energy).

(D) The credit allowed by Section 17052.12 (relating to research expenses).

(E) The credit allowed by Section 17053.5 (relating to the renter's credit).

(F) The credit allowed by Section 17057 (relating to clinical testing expenses).

(G) The credit allowed by Section 17058 (relating to low-income housing).

(H) The credit allowed by Section 17061 (relating to refunds pursuant to the Unemployment Insurance Code).

(I) Credits for taxes paid to other states allowed by Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 18001).

(J) The credit allowed by Section 18551.1 (relating to tax withholding).

(2) Any credit which is partially or totally denied under paragraph (1) shall be allowed to be carried over and applied to the net tax in succeeding taxable years, if the provisions relating to that credit include a provision to allow a carryover when that credit exceeds the net tax.

(d) Unless otherwise provided, any remaining carryover of a credit allowed by a section which has been repealed or made inoperative shall continue to be allowed to be carried over and applied against the "net tax" until the credit has been exhausted.

(e) (1) Unless otherwise provided, if two or more taxpayers (other than husband and wife) share in costs that would be eligible for a tax credit allowed under this part, each taxpayer shall be eligible to receive the tax credit in proportion to his or her respective share of the costs paid or incurred.

(2) In the case of a partnership, the credit may be divided among the partners pursuant to a written partnership agreement in accordance with Section 704 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to partner's distributive share.

(3) In the case of a husband and wife who file separate returns, the credit may be taken by either or equally divided between them.

SEC. 4. Section 17052.13 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17052.13. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) for the taxable year the amount equal to the sales or use tax paid or incurred by the taxpayer in connection with the purchase of qualified property.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Taxpayer" means either of the following:

(A) A qualified business as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code.

(B) A person or entity engaged in a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Section 7073 of the Government Code.

(2) "Qualified property" means machinery and machinery parts used for fabricating, processing, assembling, and manufacturing, and machinery and machinery parts used for the production of renewable energy resources or air or water pollution control mechanisms, up to a value of one million dollars ($1,000,000), which, in the case of a taxpayer described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1), is used exclusively in a program area, and, in the case of a taxpayer described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1), is used exclusively in an enterprise zone.

(c) If the taxpayer has purchased property upon which a use tax has been paid or incurred, the credit provided under subdivision (a) shall be allowed only if qualified property of a comparable quality and price is not timely available for purchase in this state.

(d) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit which exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over to the "net tax" in succeeding taxable years, until the credit is used. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest years possible.

(e) Any taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to increase the basis of the property as otherwise required by Section 164(a) of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to sales or use tax paid or incurred in connection with the purchase of qualified property.

(f) In the case of a taxpayer described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), the amount of the credit allowed by this section in any taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the income attributed to business activities of the taxpayer within the program area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code) as if that attributed income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part. The amount of that attributed income shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(1) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the program area by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(2) "The program area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(g) In the case of a taxpayer described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), the amount of the credit allowed by this section in any taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the income attributed to business activities of the taxpayer within an enterprise zone (designated pursuant to Section 7073 of the Government Code) as if that attributed income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part. The amount of that attributed income shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(1) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the enterprise zone by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(2) "The enterprise zone" shall be substituted for "this state."

SEC. 5. Section 17052.14 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17052.14. (a) (1) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1989, and before January 1, 1994, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039), an amount equal to 40 percent of the cost of qualified property purchased and placed in service on or after January 1, 1989, and before January 1, 1994. The amount of the allowable credit shall be claimed as provided in subdivision (c).

(2) Notwithstanding the total cost of the qualified property, the amount of cost which may be taken into account for purposes of claiming the credit allowed under this section and Section 23612.5 shall not exceed six hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($625,000) per facility during the five-year credit period.

(3) The basis of any qualified property, as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d), for which a credit is allowed shall be reduced by the amount of the credit. The basis adjustment shall be made for the taxable year for which the credit is allowed.

(b) The credit shall only be allowed by this section if:

(1) The total adjusted basis of all qualified property owned on the last day of the taxable year exceeds the largest total adjusted basis of all qualified property owned at any one time during the base year.

(2) The total capacity of qualified property to use recycled materials on the last day of the taxable year exceeds the largest total capacity of qualified property at any one time during the base year. If a qualified property owned in the base year is replaced by qualified property of larger capacity, the eligible costs shall be proportional to the increase in capacity.

(c) The amount of the allowable credit shall be claimed as follows:

(1) Twenty percent of the cost, as limited by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), shall be allowed for the taxable year the qualified property is placed in service.

(2) Fifteen percent of the cost, as limited by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), shall be allowed for the taxable year immediately succeeding the taxable year the qualified property is placed in service.

(3) Five percent of the cost, as limited by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), shall be allowed for the taxable year immediately succeeding the taxable year specified in paragraph (2).

(d) (1) "Qualified property" means machinery or equipment located within California, which has not previously been certified and is used by the taxpayer exclusively to manufacture finished products composed of at least 50 percent secondary waste material with at least 10 percent of which is composed of postconsumer waste generated from within California. "Qualified property" may include manufacturing equipment which utilizes 100 percent secondary waste, including at least 80 percent postconsumer waste where all of that material is contained within a finished product regardless of the finished product's percent postconsumer content. "Qualified property" includes, but is not limited to, deinking equipment utilized in the production of fine quality paper and equipment utilized to reclaim plastic which is used either as a raw material by a manufacturer or is sold to a manufacturer for use in the manufacture or fabrication of finished products.

(2) "Postconsumer waste" is only those products generated within California by a business or consumer which have served their intended end uses and would normally be disposed of as solid waste, having completed their life cycle as a consumer item.

(3) "Secondary waste" means fragments of products or finished products of a manufacturing process generated within California, which has converted a virgin resource into a commodity of real economic value, and includes postconsumer waste, but does not include mill broke, wood slabs, chips, sawdust, or other wood residue from a manufacturing process.

(4) "Finished product" means a marketable product or component thereof that has an economic value to a consumer and is ready to be used without the requirement of further alteration of its form.

(5) "Base year" is the taxable year immediately preceding the taxable year for which the credit allowed by this section is claimed.

(e) The California Integrated Waste Management Board shall do all of the following:

(1) Certify that the qualified property is purchased and used by the taxpayer as specified in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4), and (5) of subdivision (d).

(2) Provide an annual listing to the Franchise Tax Board, (preferably on magnetic tape or other machine-readable form, and in a form and manner agreed upon by the Franchise Tax Board and the California Integrated Waste Management Board), of the qualified taxpayers who were issued the certification.

(3) Provide the taxpayer with a copy of the certification to retain for his or her records.

(f) The taxpayer shall do all of the following:

(1) Provide the California Integrated Waste Management Board with documents, as deemed necessary by the California Integrated Waste Management Board, verifying the purchase of the qualified property and that the machinery or equipment meets the recycling requirements specified in this section.

(2) Retain for his or her records a copy of the certificate issued by the California Integrated Waste Management Board specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e).

(g) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the "net tax," for any taxable year for which a credit is allowed by subdivision (c), the excess may be carried over to reduce the "net tax," in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit is exhausted.

(h) If a taxpayer disposes of or no longer uses the qualified property as defined in subdivision (d), then any amount that would have been otherwise allowed as a credit for the taxable year of disposition or nonuse shall not be allowed.

(i) With the exception of a husband and wife, if two or more taxpayers share in the expenses eligible for the credit provided by this section, each taxpayer shall be eligible to receive the tax credit in proportion to his or her respective share of the expenses paid or incurred. In the case of a partnership, the tax credit may be divided between the partners pursuant to a written partnership agreement in accordance with Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 17851), which includes Section 704 of the Internal Revenue Code concerning substantial economic effect, relating to a partner's distributive share. In the case of a husband and wife who file separate returns, the credit may be taken by either or equally divided between them.

(j) The California Integrated Waste Management Board shall, no later than March 1, 1994, submit a report to the Legislature evaluating the impact of the tax expenditure in this section. The report shall include information about the number of taxpayers claiming the credit, the total dollar amount of credit allocated, and the equipment for which the credit was used. The report shall also determine to what extent, if any, the tax expenditure authorized by this section increased recycling activities in California. The California Integrated Waste Management Board shall work cooperatively with the Franchise Tax Board to determine the relevant tax return data necessary to complete the report and the time the data is required. The Franchise Tax Board shall be responsible for providing the data to the California Integrated Waste Management Board.

(k) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before December 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (g), until the credit has been exhausted.

SEC. 6. Section 17053.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053.6. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined by Section 17039) an amount equal to 10 percent of the amount of wages paid or incurred during the taxable year to each prisoner who is employed in a joint venture program established pursuant to Article 1.5 of Chapter 5 of Title 1 of Part 3 of the Penal Code, through agreement with the Director of Corrections.

(b) The Department of Corrections shall forward annually to the Franchise Tax Board a list of all employers certified by the Department of Corrections as active participants in a joint venture program pursuant to Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 2717.1) of Chapter 5 of Title 1 of Part 3 of the Penal Code. The list shall include the certified participant's federal employer identification number.

SEC. 7. Section 17053.8 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053.8. (a) There shall be allowed as credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) for the taxable year an amount equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent for qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent for qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent for qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent for qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent for qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means the wages paid or incurred by the employer during the taxable year to qualified disadvantaged individuals. "Qualified wages" means that portion of hourly wages which does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(2) "Qualified years one through five wages" means, with respect to any individual, qualified wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the individual commences employment within an enterprise zone.

(3) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(c) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified disadvantaged individual" means an individual—

(A) Who is a qualified employee within the meaning of subdivision (d).

(B) Who is hired by the employer after the designation of the area in which services were performed as an enterprise zone (under Section 7073 of the Government Code).

(C) Who is any of the following:

(i) An individual who has been determined eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.) and who is receiving subsidized employment, training, or services funded by the federal Job Training Partnership Act, except for an individual who only receives outreach, intake, or assessment services or a combination thereof.

(ii) Any voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 provided for pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(iii) Any individual who has been certified eligible by the California Employment Development Department under the federal Targeted Jobs Tax Credit Program as long as that program is in effect.

(d) For purposes of this section: "qualified employee" means an individual—

(1) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the taxable year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in an enterprise zone, and

(2) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the taxable year in an enterprise zone.

(e) (1) For purposes of this section:

(A) All employees of trades or businesses (which are not incorporated) which are under common control shall be treated as employed by a single employer, and

(B) The credit (if any) allowable by this section with respect to each trade or business shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit.

The regulations prescribed under this paragraph shall be based on principles similar to the principles which apply in the case of controlled groups of corporations as specified in subdivision (e) of Section 23622.

(2) If an employer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (f)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between an employee and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(f) (1) If the employment of any employee, with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount (determined under those regulations) equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that taxable year and all prior taxable years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of an employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of an individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(iii) A termination of employment of an individual, if it is determined under the applicable employment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(iv) A termination of employment of an individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of an individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and an employee shall not be treated as terminated by reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(g) In the case of an estate or trust—

(1) The qualified wages for any taxable year shall be apportioned between the estate or trust and the beneficiaries on the basis of the income of the estate or trust allocable to each, and

(2) Any beneficiary to whom any qualified wages have been apportioned under paragraph (1) shall be treated (for purposes of this part) as the employer with respect to those wages.

(h) For purposes of this section, "enterprise zone" means an area for which designation as an enterprise zone is in effect under Section 7073 of the Government Code.

(i) The credit shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Section 17053.7. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit.

(j) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the net tax for the taxable year, that portion of the credit which exceeds the net tax may be carried over to the net tax in succeeding taxable years for the number of taxable years in which the designation of an enterprise zone under Section 7073 of the Government Code is operative, or 15 taxable years, if longer, until the credit is used. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(k) The amount of the credit allowed by this section in any taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the income attributed to business activities of the taxpayer within the enterprise zone (as defined in Section 7073 of the Government Code) as if that attributed income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part. The amount of that attributed income shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(1) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the enterprise zone by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(2) "The enterprise zone" shall be substituted for "this state."

SEC. 8. Section 17053.9 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053.9. (a) In the case of a qualified employee, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined by Section 17039) for the taxable year an amount equal to 5 percent of the qualified wages for the taxable year.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified employee" means an individual—

(A) Who is described in subdivision (d) of Section 17053.8.

(B) Who is not an employee of the federal government or of this state or of any political subdivision of this state.

(2) (A) "Qualified wages" has the meaning given to the term "wages" under subsection (b) of Section 3306 of the Internal Revenue Code, attributable to services performed for an employer with respect to whom the employee is a qualified employee, in an amount which does not exceed one and one-half times the dollar limitation specified in that subsection.

(B) "Qualified wages" does not include any compensation received from the federal government or this state or any political subdivision of this state.

(3) "Enterprise zone" means any area with respect to which a designation as an enterprise zone is in effect under Section 7073 of the Government Code.

(c) For each dollar of income received by the taxpayer in excess of qualified wages, as defined in this section, the credit shall be reduced by nine cents ($0.09).

(d) The amount of the credit allowed by this section in any taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the income of the employee attributable to employment within the enterprise zone as if that income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

SEC. 9. Section 17053.11 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053.11. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) for the taxable year the amount determined in subdivisions (c) and (d) for a qualified business which hires a qualified employee.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified business" means either (A) a qualified business, as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code, or (B) a qualified business, as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code, except that the percentage requirements with respect to employment of residents of a high-density unemployment area shall be applicable only to those employees hired within the 12 months immediately preceding the date that the business seeks certification from the Department of Commerce and not to the entire workforce of the business. A business that qualifies under clause (B) shall be a qualified business only for the purposes of this section, provided that the Department of Commerce certifies that the business meets the standards set forth in this paragraph.

(2) "Qualified employee" means an employee who has been an unemployed resident of a high-density unemployment area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code) prior to being employed by the qualified business. For the purposes of this section, participation by a prospective employee in a state or federally funded job training or work demonstration program shall not constitute employment, or effect the eligibility of an otherwise qualified employee. Qualified employee includes an otherwise qualified employee who is employed by a qualified business in the 90 days prior to its certification by the Department of Commerce as a qualified business for the purpose of becoming eligible for that certification.

(c) The credit provided for each qualified employee who has been unemployed for at least six months prior to being employed pursuant to subdivision (a), shall be an amount equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent for qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent for qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent for qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent for qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent for qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(d) The credit provided for each qualified employee who has been unemployed for at least three months but less than six months prior to being employed shall be 25 percent of qualified wages for the first year of employment; however, the credit for the second year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), the credit for the third year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), the credit for the fourth year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (c), and the credit for the fifth year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (5) of subdivision (c).

(e) For purposes of this section, "qualified wages" means that portion of wages not in excess of 150 percent of the minimum hourly wage paid or incurred by the qualified business during the taxable year to the qualified employee.

(f) (1) If the employment of any employee with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (c) or (d) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that taxable year and all prior taxable years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(A) A termination of employment of an employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(B) A termination of employment of an individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(C) A termination of employment of an individual, if it is determined under the applicable unemployment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(D) A termination of employment of an individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer other than regularly occurring seasonal reductions.

(E) A termination of employment of an individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both number of employees and hours of employment.

(F) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and an employee shall not be treated as terminated by reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retained a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(g) In the case of an estate or trust—

(1) The qualified wages for any taxable year shall be apportioned between the estate or trust and the beneficiaries on the basis of the income of the estate or trust allocable to each, and

(2) Any beneficiary to whom any qualified wages have been apportioned under paragraph (1) shall be treated (for purposes of this part) as the employer with respect to those wages.

(h) The credit shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Section 17053.7. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit.

(i) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit which exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over to the "net tax" in succeeding taxable years until the credit is used. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(j) The amount of the credit allowed by this section for any taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the income attributed to business activities of the taxpayer within the program area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code) as if that attributed income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part. The amount of that attributed income shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(1) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the program area by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(2) "The program area" shall be substituted for "this state."

SEC. 10. Section 17054 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17054. In the case of individuals, the following credits for personal exemption may be deducted from the tax imposed under Section 17041 or 17048, less any increases imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) or paragraph (1) of subdivision (e), or both, of Section 17560.

(a) In the case of a single individual, a head of household, or a married individual making a separate return, a credit of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988.

(b) In the case of a surviving spouse (as defined in Section 17046), or a husband and wife making a joint return, a credit of one hundred two dollars ($102) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and one hundred four dollars ($104) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988. If one spouse was a resident for the entire taxable year and the other spouse was a nonresident for all or any portion of the taxable year, the personal exemption shall be divided equally.

(c) In addition to any other credit provided in this section, in the case of an individual who is 65 years of age or over by the end of the taxable year a credit of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988.

(d) Except as provided in paragraph (2), a credit of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, for each dependent (as defined in Section 17056)—

(1) For whom an exemption is allowable under Section 151 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to additional exemption for dependents).

(2) No credit for a dependent shall be allowed to a noncustodial parent if both of the following apply:

(A) A credit for the dependent would not be allowed except for the provisions of Section 152(e)(2) or 152(e)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to exemptions claimed by noncustodial parents.

(B) The custodial parent files a return as head of household for the same taxable year.

(e) A credit for personal exemption of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, for the taxpayer if he or she is blind at the end of his or her taxable year.

(f) A credit for personal exemption of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, for the spouse of the taxpayer if a separate return is made by the taxpayer, and if the spouse is blind and, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, has no gross income and is not the dependent of another taxpayer.

(g) For the purposes of this section, an individual is blind only if either: his or her central visual acuity does not exceed 20/200 in the better eye with correcting lenses, or his or her visual acuity is greater than 20/200 but is accompanied by a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees.

(h) In the case of an individual with respect to whom a credit under this section is allowable to another taxpayer for a taxable year beginning in the calendar year in which the individual's taxable year begins, the credit amount applicable to that individual for that individual's taxable year shall be zero.

(i) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1989, the Franchise Tax Board shall compute the credits prescribed in this section. That computation shall be made as follows:

(1) The California Department of Industrial Relations shall transmit annually to the Franchise Tax Board the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index as modified for rental equivalent homeownership for all items from June of the prior calendar year to June of the current calendar year, no later than August 1 of the current calendar year.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board shall add 100 percent to the percentage change figure which is furnished to them pursuant to paragraph (1), and divide the result by 100.

(3) The Franchise Tax Board shall multiply the immediately preceding taxable year credits by the inflation adjustment factor determined in paragraph (2), and round off the resulting products to the nearest one dollar ($1).

(4) In computing the credits pursuant to this subdivision, the credit provided in subdivision (b) shall be twice the credit provided in subdivision (a).

(j) The amendments made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall be applied only in the computation of taxes for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1990.

SEC. 11. Section 17054.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17054.5. (a) (1) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) of a qualified individual an amount equal to 30 percent of the net tax.

(2) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, a qualified individual means a qualified joint custody head of household as defined in subdivision (c).

(3) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, a qualified individual means either of the following:

(A) A "qualified joint custody head of household" as defined in subdivision (c).

(B) A "qualified taxpayer" as defined in subdivision (e).

(4) The amount of the credit under this section shall not exceed two hundred dollars ($200) for any taxable year.

(b) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1988, the Franchise Tax Board shall recompute the maximum credit prescribed in subdivision (a). That computation shall be made as follows:

(1) The California Department of Industrial Relations shall transmit annually to the Franchise Tax Board the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index as modified for rental equivalent homeownership for all items from June of the prior calendar year to June of the current calendar year, no later than August 1 of the current calendar year.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board shall add 100 percent to the percentage change figure which is furnished to them pursuant to paragraph (1) and divide the result by 100.

(3) The Franchise Tax Board shall multiply the immediately preceding taxable year credit by the inflation adjustment factor determined in paragraph (2), and round off the resulting product to the nearest one dollar ($1).

(c) "Qualified joint custody head of household" means an individual who meets all of the following:

(1) Is not married at the close of the taxable year, or files a separate return and does not have his or her spouse as a member of his or her household during the entire taxable year.

(2) Maintains as his or her home a household which constitutes for the taxable year the principal place of abode for a qualifying child, as defined in subdivision (d), for no less than 146 days of the taxable year but no more than 219 days of the taxable year, under a decree of dissolution or separate maintenance, or under a written agreement between the parents prior to the issuance of a decree of dissolution or separate maintenance where the proceedings have been initiated.

(3) Furnishes over one-half the cost of maintaining the household during the taxable year.

(4) Does not qualify as a head of household under Section 17042 or as a surviving spouse under Section 17046.

(d) For purposes of this section, a "qualifying child" means a son, stepson, daughter, or stepdaughter of the taxpayer or a descendant of a son or daughter of the taxpayer, but if that son, stepson, daughter, stepdaughter, or descendant is married at the close of the taxpayer's taxable year, only if the taxpayer is entitled to a credit for the taxable year for that person under Section 17054.

(e) "Qualified taxpayer" means an individual who meets all of the following:

(1) Is married and files a separate return.

(2) During the last six months of the taxable year the taxpayer's spouse was not a member of the taxpayer's household.

(3) Maintains a household, whether or not the taxpayer's home, which constitutes the principal place of abode of a dependent mother or father of the taxpayer for the taxable year.

(4) Furnishes over one-half of the cost of maintaining the household during the taxable year.

SEC. 12. Section 17054.7 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17054.7. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) for a "qualified senior head of household" (as defined in subdivision (c)) an amount equal to 2 percent of the taxable income. The amount of the credit under this section shall not exceed seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) for any taxable year.

(b) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, the Franchise Tax Board shall recompute the maximum credit prescribed in subdivision (a) and the adjusted gross income specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c). Those computations shall be made as follows:

(1) The California Department of Industrial Relations shall transmit annually to the Franchise Tax Board the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index as modified for rental equivalent home ownership for all items from June of the prior calendar year to June of the current calendar year, no later than August 1 of the current calendar year.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board shall add 100 percent to the percentage change figure which is furnished pursuant to paragraph (1) and divide the result by 100.

(3) The Franchise Tax Board shall multiply the amounts for the immediately preceding taxable year for the maximum credit specified in subdivision (a) and the adjusted gross income limitation specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) by the inflation adjustment factor determined in paragraph (2), and round off the resulting product to the nearest one dollar ($1).

(c) "Qualified senior head of household" means an individual who meets all of the following:

(1) Attained the age of 65 before the close of the taxable year.

(2) Qualified as the head of household in accordance with Section 17042 for either of the two taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year by providing a household for a qualifying individual who died during either of the two taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year.

(3) Whose adjusted gross income for the taxable year does not exceed thirty-seven thousand five hundred dollars ($37,500).

SEC. 13. Section 17073.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17073.5. (a) A taxpayer may elect to take a standard deduction as follows:

(1) In the case of a taxpayer, other than a head of a household or a surviving spouse (as defined in Section 17046) or a married couple filing a joint return, the standard deduction shall be one thousand eight hundred eighty dollars ($1,880).

(2) In the case of a head of household or a surviving spouse (as defined in Section 17046) or a married couple filing a joint return, the standard deduction shall be three thousand seven hundred sixty dollars ($3,760).

(b) The standard deduction provided for in subdivision (a) shall be in lieu of all deductions other than those which are to be subtracted from gross income in computing adjusted gross income under Section 17072.

(c) (1) The provisions of this section shall be applied in lieu of the provisions of Sections 63(c), 63(f), and 63(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to standard deductions.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), Section 63(c)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to limitations on the standard deduction of certain dependents, and Section 63(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain individuals not eligible for the standard deduction, shall apply. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount specified in Section 63(c)(5)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be adjusted for inflation in accordance with the provisions of Section 63(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1988, the Franchise Tax Board shall recompute the standard deduction amounts prescribed in subdivision (a). That computation shall be made as follows:

(1) The California Department of Industrial Relations shall transmit annually to the Franchise Tax Board the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index for all items from June of the prior calendar year to June of the current calendar year, no later than August 1 of the current calendar year.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board shall compute an inflation adjustment factor by adding 100 percent to that portion of the percentage change figure which is furnished pursuant to paragraph (1) and dividing the result by 100.

(3) The Franchise Tax Board shall multiply the standard deduction amounts in the preceding taxable year by the inflation adjustment factor determined in paragraph (2), and round off the resulting products to the nearest one dollar ($1).

(4) In computing the standard deduction amounts pursuant to this subdivision, the amount provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall be twice the amount provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

SEC. 14. Section 17207 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 15 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

17207. (a) For disaster losses resulting from (1) forest fire or any other related casualty occurring in 1985 in California, (2) from storm, flooding, or any other related casualty occurring in 1986 in California, (3) any loss sustained during 1987 as a result of a forest fire or any other related casualty, (4) from earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty occurring in 1987 in California, (5) from earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty occurring in 1989 in California, or (6) any loss sustained during 1990 as a result of fire or any other related casualty in California, which qualify for treatment under Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code, to the extent that those losses, as computed pursuant to Section 165(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, exceed the adjusted taxable income of the year of loss or, if the election under Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code is made, the adjusted taxable income of the year preceding the loss, then that "excess loss", at the election of the taxpayer, may be carried to other taxable years as provided in subdivision (b).

(b) For losses covered by Sections 165(c)(1) and 165(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to trade or business losses, losses resulting from transactions entered into for profit, and for losses covered by Section 165(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to personal casualty losses, the "excess loss" may be carried forward to each of the five taxable years following the year the loss is claimed. However, if there is any "excess loss" remaining after the five-year period, then 50 percent of that "excess loss" may be carried forward to each of the next 10 taxable years.

(c) The entire amount of any "excess loss" as defined in subdivision (a) shall be carried to the earliest of the taxable years to which, by reason of subdivision (b), the loss may be carried. The portion of the loss which shall be carried to each of the other taxable years shall be the excess, if any, of the amount of "excess loss" over the sum of the adjusted taxable income for each of the prior taxable years to which that "excess loss" may be carried.

(d) The provisions of this section and Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applicable to any of the following losses sustained in any county or city in this state which was proclaimed by the Governor to be in a state of disaster:

(1) Any loss sustained during February 1986 as a result of storm, flooding, or any other related casualty.

(2) Any loss sustained during 1987 as a result of forest fire or any other related casualty.

(3) Any loss sustained during October 1987 as the result of earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty.

(4) Any loss resulting from the earthquake which occurred in October 1989, aftershock, or any other related casualty.

(5) Any loss sustained during 1990 as the result of fire in the County of Santa Barbara.

(e) Losses described in this section may not be taken into account in computing a net operating loss deduction under Section 17201, as modified by Sections 17276, 17276.1, and 17276.2.

(f) For purposes of this section, "adjusted taxable income" shall be defined by Section 1212(b)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 15. Section 17251 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 16. Section 17641 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 17. Section 17733 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17733. (a) An estate shall be allowed a credit of ten dollars ($10) against the tax imposed under Section 17041, less any amounts imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) or paragraph (1) of subdivision (e), or both, of Section 17560.

(b) A trust shall be allowed a credit of one dollar ($1) against the tax imposed under Section 17041, less any amounts imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) or paragraph (1) of subdivision (e), or both, of Section 17560.

(c) The credits allowed by this section shall be in lieu of the credits allowed under Section 17054 (relating to credit for personal exemption).

SEC. 18. Section 19062 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19062. Interest shall be allowed and paid on any overpayment in respect of any tax, at the adjusted annual rate established pursuant to Section 19269 as follows:

(a) In the case of a credit, from the date of the overpayment to the due date of the amount for which the credit is allowed. Any interest allowed on any credit shall first be credited on any taxes due from the taxpayer under this part.

(b) In the case of a refund, including a refund in excess of tax liability as prescribed in subdivision (i) of Section 17053.5, from the date of the overpayment to a date preceding the date of the refund warrant by not more than 30 days, the date to be determined by the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 19. Section 19062.11 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19062.11. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), if any overpayment of tax imposed by this part is refunded or credited within 90 days after the return is filed, or within 90 days after the last day prescribed for filing the return of tax (determined without regard to any extension of time for filing the return), whichever is later, no interest shall be allowed under Section 19062 on the overpayment.

For the purposes of this section, "overpayment of tax" includes a refund in excess of tax liability as prescribed in subdivision (i) of Section 17053.5.

(b) In the case of returns which set forth no determination or amount of tax liability, or credits other than that allowed under Section 17053.5, and which are filed solely for the purpose of claiming the renter credit, no interest shall be allowed on refunds made within 90 days from the date on which the return is filed, or within 90 days after the last day prescribed for filing the return, whichever is later. This subdivision applies only when communication with the claimant or other verification is necessary to determine entitlement to the claimed credit.

(c) For the 1982 taxable year and each taxable year thereafter, the 90-day time periods specified in subdivision (a) shall be 45 days.

(d) In the case of a return of tax which is filed after the last date prescribed for filing the return (determined with regard to extensions), no interest shall be allowed or paid for any day before the date on which the return is filed.

SEC. 20. Section 20506 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

20506. In the case of an owner-claimant, "household" includes the claimant and all other persons, except bona fide renters, minors, or students (as defined by Section 151(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code), whose principal place of residence is the residential dwelling of the claimant. In the case of a renter-claimant, "household" includes the claimant, his or her spouse, and all other persons who reside on the premises, except renters, minors, or students (as defined by Section 151(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code), and owners of the same principal place of residence.

SEC. 21. Section 23058 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23058. Unless otherwise specifically provided therein, the provisions of any act:

(a) Which affect the imposition or computation of taxes, additions to tax other than Sections 25951 to 25954.5, inclusive, penalties, or the allowance of credits against the tax, shall be applied to income years beginning on or after January 1 of the year in which the act takes effect.

(b) Which change the provisions of Sections 25561 to 25563, inclusive, (relating to payment of estimated tax) or Sections 25951 to 25954.5, inclusive, (relating to underpayment of estimated tax) shall be applied to income years beginning on or after January 1 of the year immediately following the year in which the act takes effect.

(c) Which otherwise affect the provisions of this part shall be applied on and after the date the act takes effect.

SEC. 22. Section 23060 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23060. Provisions in other codes or General Law Statutes which are related to this part include all of the following:

(a) Chapter 20.6 (commencing with Section 9891) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to tax preparers.

(b) Sections 1502, and 2204 to 2206, inclusive, of the Corporations Code, relating to the corporation officer statement penalty.

(c) Section 2104 of the Corporations Code, that prevents the application of any provision of this part against any foreign lending institution whose activities in this state are limited to those described in Section 191(d) of the Corporations Code.

(d) Sections 15700 to 15702.1, inclusive, of the Government Code, relating to the Franchise Tax Board.

(e) Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), relating to the Personal Income Tax Law.

(f) Part 10.7 (commencing with Section 21001), relating to the Taxpayers' Bill of Rights.

(g) Part 18 (commencing with Section 38001), relating to the Multistate Tax Compact.

SEC. 23. Section 23612 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23612. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) an amount equal to the sales or use tax paid or incurred by the taxpayer in connection with the purchase of qualified property.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Taxpayer" means either of the following:

(A) A qualified business as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code.

(B) A bank or corporation engaged in a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Section 7073 of the Government Code.

(2) "Qualified property" means machinery and machinery parts used for fabricating, processing, assembling, and manufacturing and machinery and machinery parts used for the production of renewable energy resources or air or water pollution control mechanisms, up to a value of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), which, in the case of a taxpayer described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1), is used exclusively in a program area, and, in the case of a taxpayer described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1), is used exclusively in an enterprise zone.

(c) If the taxpayer has purchased property upon which a use tax has been paid or incurred, the credit provided under subdivision (a) shall be allowed only if qualified property of a comparable quality and price is not timely available for purchase in this state.

(d) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(e) Any taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to increase the basis of the property as otherwise required by Section 164(a) of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to sales or use tax paid or incurred in connection with the purchase of qualified property.

(f) In the case of a taxpayer described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), the amount of the credit allowed by this section shall not in any year exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the income attributed to business activities of the taxpayer within the program area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code). The amount of that attributed income shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(1) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the program area by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(2) "The program area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(g) In the case of a taxpayer described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), the amount of the credit allowed by this section in any year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the income attributed to business activities of the taxpayer within the enterprise zone (designated pursuant to Section 7073 of the Government Code). The amount of that attributed income shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(1) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the enterprise zone by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(2) "The enterprise zone" shall be substituted for "this state."

SEC. 24. Section 23612.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23612.5. (a) (1) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1989, and before January 1, 1994, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined in Section 23036), an amount equal to 40 percent of the cost of qualified property purchased and placed in service on or after January 1, 1989, and before January 1, 1994. The amount of the allowable credit shall be claimed as provided in subdivision (c).

(2) Notwithstanding the total cost of the qualified property, the amount of cost which may be taken into account for purposes of claiming the credit allowed under this section and Section 17052.14 shall not exceed six hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($625,000) per facility during the five-year credit period.

(3) The basis of any qualified property, as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d), for which a credit is allowed shall be reduced by the amount of the credit. The basis adjustment shall be made for the income year for which the credit is allowed.

(b) The credit shall only be allowed by this section if:

(1) The total adjusted basis of all qualified property owned on the last day of the income year exceeds the largest total adjusted basis of all qualified property owned at any one time during the base year.

(2) The total capacity of qualified property to use recycled materials on the last day of the income year exceeds the largest total capacity of qualified property any one time during the base year. If a qualified property owned in the base year is replaced by qualified property of larger capacity, the eligible costs shall be proportional to the increase in capacity.

(c) The amount of the allowable credit shall be claimed as follows:

(1) Twenty percent of the cost, as limited by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), shall be allowed for the income year the qualified property is placed in service.

(2) Fifteen percent of the cost, as limited by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), shall be allowed for the income year immediately succeeding the income year the qualified property is placed in service.

(3) Five percent of the cost, as limited by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), shall be allowed for the income year immediately succeeding the income year specified in paragraph (2).

(d) (1) "Qualified property" means machinery or equipment located within California, which has not previously been certified and is used by the taxpayer exclusively to manufacture finished products composed of at least 50 percent secondary waste material with at least 10 percent of which is composed of postconsumer waste generated from within California. "Qualified property" may include manufacturing equipment which utilizes 100 percent secondary waste, including at least 80 percent postconsumer waste where all of that material is contained within a finished product regardless of the finished product's percent postconsumer content. "Qualified property" includes, but is not limited to, deinking equipment utilized in the production of fine quality paper and equipment utilized to reclaim plastic which is used either as a raw material by a manufacturer or is sold to a manufacturer for use in the manufacture or fabrication of finished products.

(2) "Postconsumer waste" is only those products generated within California by a business or consumer which have served their intended end uses and would normally be disposed of as solid waste, having completed their life cycle as a consumer item.

(3) "Secondary waste" means fragments of products or finished products of a manufacturing process generated within California, which has converted a virgin resource into a commodity of real economic value, and includes postconsumer waste, but does not include mill broke, wood slabs, chips, sawdust, or other wood residue from a manufacturing process.

(4) "Finished product" means a marketable product or component thereof that has an economic value to a consumer and is ready to be used without the requirement of further alteration of its form.

(5) "Base year" is the income year immediately preceding the income year for which the credit allowed by this section is claimed.

(e) The California Integrated Waste Management Board shall do all of the following:

(1) Certify that the qualified property is purchased and used by the taxpayer as specified in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4), and (5) of subdivision (d).

(2) Provide an annual listing to the Franchise Tax Board, (preferably on magnetic tape or other machine-readable form, and in a form and manner agreed upon by the Franchise Tax Board and the California Integrated Waste Management Board), of the qualified taxpayers who were issued the certification.

(3) Provide the taxpayer with a copy of the certification to retain for its records.

(f) The taxpayer shall do all of the following:

(1) Provide the California Integrated Waste Management Board with documents, as deemed necessary by the California Integrated Waste Management Board, verifying the purchase of the qualified property and that the machinery or equipment meets the recycling requirements specified in this section.

(2) Retain for its records a copy of the certificate issued by the California Integrated Waste Management Board specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e).

(g) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the "tax," for any income year for which a credit is allowed by subdivision (c), the excess may be carried over to reduce that "tax," in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit is used.

(h) If a taxpayer disposes of or no longer uses the qualified property as defined in subdivision (d), then any amount that would have been otherwise allowed as a credit for the income year of disposition or nonuse shall not be allowed.

(i) If two or more taxpayers share in the expenses eligible for the credit provided by this section, each taxpayer shall be eligible to receive the tax credit in proportion to its respective share of the expenses paid or incurred. In the case of a partnership, the tax credit may be divided between the partners pursuant to a written partnership agreement in accordance with Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 17851), which includes Section 704 of the Internal Revenue Code concerning substantial economic effect, relating to a partner's distributive share.

(j) The California Integrated Waste Management Board shall, no later than March 1, 1994, submit a report to the Legislature evaluating the impact of the tax expenditure in this section. The report shall include information about the number of taxpayers claiming the credit, the total dollar amount of credit allocated, and the equipment for which the credit was used. The report shall also determine to what extent, if any, the tax expenditure authorized by this section increased recycling activities in California. The California Integrated Waste Management Board shall work cooperatively with the Franchise Tax Board to determine the relevant tax return data necessary to complete the report and the time the data is required. The Franchise Tax Board shall be responsible for providing the data to the California Integrated Waste Management Board.

(k) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before December 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (g), until the credit has been exhausted.

SEC. 25. Section 23622 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23622. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) an amount equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent for qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent for qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent for qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent for qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent for qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means the wages paid or incurred by the employer during the income year to qualified disadvantaged individuals. "Qualified wages" means that portion of hourly wages which does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(2) "Qualified years one through five wages" means, with respect to any individual, qualified wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the individual commences employment within an enterprise zone.

(3) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(c) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified disadvantaged individual" means an individual—

(A) Who is a qualified employee within the meaning of subdivision (d).

(B) Who is hired by the employer after the designation of the area in which services were performed as an enterprise zone (under Section 7073 of the Government Code).

(C) Who is any of the following:

(i) An individual who has been determined eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.) and who is receiving subsidized employment, training, or services funded by the federal Job Training Partnership Act, except for an individual who only receives outreach, intake, or assessment services or a combination thereof.

(ii) Any voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 provided for pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(iii) Any individual who has been certified eligible by the California Employment Development Department under the federal Targeted Jobs Tax Credit Program as long as that program is in effect.

(d) For purposes of this section, "qualified employee" means an individual—

(1) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the income year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in an enterprise zone.

(2) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the income year in an enterprise zone.

(e) (1) For purposes of this section, all employees of all corporations which are members of the same controlled group of corporations shall be treated as employed by a single employer. In any such case, the credit (if any) allowable by this section to each member shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit. For purposes of this subdivision, "controlled group of corporations" has the meaning given to that term by Section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that—

(A) "More than 50 percent" shall be substituted for "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in Section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The determination shall be made without regard to subsections (a)(4) and (e)(3)(C) of Section 1563 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) If an employer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (f)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between an employee and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(f) (1) If the employment of any employee with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the income year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that income year and all prior income years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of an employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of an individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(iii) A termination of employment of an individual, if it is determined under the applicable unemployment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(iv) A termination of employment of an individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of an individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and an employee shall not be treated as terminated—

(i) By a transaction to which Section 381(a) of the Internal Revenue Code applies, if the employee continues to be employed by the acquiring corporation, or

(ii) By reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(g) In the case of—

(1) An organization to which Section 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, and

(2) A regulated investment company or a real estate investment trust subject to taxation under this part rules similar to the rules provided in subsections (e) and (h) of Section 46 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply.

(h) For purposes of this section, "enterprise zone" means an area for which designation as an enterprise zone is in effect under Section 7073 of the Government Code.

(i) The credit shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Section 23621. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit.

(j) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, for the number of years in which the designation of an enterprise zone under Section 7073 of the Government Code is operative, or 15 income years, if longer, until the credit has been exhausted.

(k) The amount of the credit allowed by this section shall not in any year exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the income attributed to business activities of the taxpayer within the enterprise zone (as defined in Section 7073 of the Government Code). The amount of that attributed income shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(1) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the enterprise zone by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(2) "The enterprise zone" shall be substituted for "this state."

SEC. 26. Section 23623 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23623. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) the amount determined in subdivisions (c) and (d) for a qualified business which hires a qualified employee.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified business" means either (A) a qualified business, as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code, or (B) a qualified business, as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code, except that the percentage requirements with respect to employment of residents of a high-density unemployment area shall be applicable only to those employees hired within the 12 months immediately preceding the date that the business seeks certification from the Department of Commerce and not to the entire workforce of the business. A business that qualifies under clause (B) shall be a qualified business only for the purposes of this section, provided that the Department of Commerce certifies that the business meets the standards set forth in this paragraph.

(2) "Qualified employee" means an employee who has been an unemployed resident of a high-density unemployment area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code) prior to being employed by the qualified business. For the purposes of this section, participation by a prospective employee in a state or federally funded job training or work demonstration program shall not constitute employment, or effect the eligibility of an otherwise qualified employee. Qualified employee includes an otherwise qualified employee who is employed by a qualified business in the 90 days prior to its certification by the Department of Commerce as a qualified business for the purpose of becoming eligible for that certification.

(c) The credit provided for each qualified employee who has been unemployed for at least six months prior to being employed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be an amount equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent for qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent for qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent for qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent for qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent for qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(d) The credit provided for each qualified employee who has been unemployed for at least three months but less than six months prior to being employed shall be 25 percent of qualified wages for the first year of employment; however, the credit for the second year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), the credit for the third year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), the credit for the fourth year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (c), and the credit for the fifth year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (5) of subdivision (c).

(e) For purposes of this section, "qualified wages" means that portion of wages not in excess of 150 percent of the minimum hourly wage paid or incurred by the qualified business during the income year to the qualified employee.

(f) (1) If the employment of any employee with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (c) or (d) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the income year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that income year and all prior income years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(A) A termination of employment of an employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(B) A termination of employment of an individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(C) A termination of employment of an individual, if it is determined under the applicable unemployment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(D) A termination of employment of an individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer other than regularly occurring seasonal reductions.

(E) A termination of employment of an individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both number of employees and hours of employment.

(F) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and an employee shall not be treated as terminated by reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retained a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(g) The credit shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Section 23621. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit.

(h) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(i) The amount of the credit allowed by this section for any year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the income attributed to business activities of the taxpayer within the program area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code) as if that attributed income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part. The amount of that attributed income shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(1) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the program area by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(2) "The program area" shall be substituted for "this state."

SEC. 27. Section 23624 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23624. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) an amount equal to 10 percent of the amount of wages paid or incurred during the income year to each prisoner who is employed in a joint venture program established pursuant to Article 1.5 of Chapter 5 of Title 1 of Part 3 of the Penal Code, through agreement with the Director of Corrections.

(b) The Department of Corrections shall forward annually to the Franchise Tax Board a list of all employers certified by the Department of Corrections as active participants in a joint venture program pursuant to Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 2717.1) of Chapter 5 of Title 1 of Part 3 of the Penal Code. The list shall include the certified participant's federal employer identification number.

SEC. 28. Section 24347.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 15 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

24347.5. (a) In lieu of Section 24347, for disaster losses resulting (1) from forest fire or any other related casualty occurring in 1985 in California, (2) from storm, flooding, or any other related casualty occurring in 1986 in California, (3) any loss sustained during 1987 as a result of a forest fire or any other related casualty, (4) from earthquake, aftershock, any other related casualty occurring in October 1987, in California, (5) from earthquake, aftershock, or any related casualty occurring in October 1989, in California, or (6) any loss sustained during 1990 as a result of fire or any other related casualty in California, a deduction is allowed pursuant to Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) To the extent that losses under subdivision (a) exceed the net income of the year of loss or, if the election under Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code is made, the net income of the year preceding the loss, then that "excess loss," at the election of the taxpayer, may be carried forward to each of the five income years following the income year the loss is claimed. However, if there is any "excess loss" remaining after the five-year period, then 50 percent of that "excess loss" may be carried forward to each of the next 10 income years.

(c) The entire amount of any "excess loss" as defined in subdivision (b) shall be carried to the earliest of the income years to which, by reason of subdivision (b), the loss may be carried. The portion of the loss which shall be carried to each of the other income years shall be the excess, if any, of the amount of "excess loss" over the sum of the net income for each of the prior income years to which that "excess loss" may be carried.

(d) The provisions of this section and Section 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applicable to any of the following losses sustained in any county or city in this state which was proclaimed by the Governor to be in a state of disaster:

(1) Any loss sustained during February 1986, as a result of storm, flooding, or any other related casualty.

(2) Any loss sustained during 1987 as a result of forest fire or any other related casualty.

(3) Any loss sustained during October 1987, as the result of earthquake, aftershock, or any other related casualty.

(4) Any loss resulting from the earthquake which occurred in October 1989, aftershock, or any other related casualty.

(5) Any loss sustained during 1990 as the result of fire in the County of Santa Barbara.

(e) Any corporation subject to the provisions of Section 25101 or 25101.15 that has disaster losses pursuant to this section, shall determine the "excess loss" to be carried to other income years under the principles specified in Section 25108 relating to net operating losses.

(f) Losses described in this section may not be taken into account in computing a net operating loss deduction under Section 24416 or 24416.1.

SEC. 29. Section 24359.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24359.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any credit or deduction allowed by Section 23606 or 24357.8 shall not be disallowed on the basis that the contribution is made for the primary or incidental purpose of benefiting the donor in any of the following ways:

(a) Encouraging institutions to interest and train students to use a computer, scientific equipment, or apparatus, thereby enlarging the future potential market by developing prospective purchases.

(b) Developing and maintaining a favorable public image.

SEC. 30. Section 24363 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24363. For purposes of Sections 24360 to 24363.5, inclusive, the term "bond" means any bond, debenture, note, or certificate or other evidence of indebtedness, but does not include any such obligation which constitutes stock in trade of the taxpayer or any such obligation of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the income year, or any such obligation held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of its trade or business.

SEC. 31. Section 24372 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 32. Section 24377 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24377. (a) A taxpayer engaged in the business of farming may elect to treat as expenses which are not chargeable to capital account expenditures (otherwise chargeable to capital account) which are paid or incurred by it during the income year for the purchase or acquisition of fertilizer, lime, ground limestone, marl, or other materials to enrich, neutralize, or condition land used in farming, or for the application of such materials to such land. The expenditures so treated shall be allowed as a deduction.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), the term "land used in farming" means land used (before or simultaneously with the expenditures described in subdivision (a)) by the taxpayer or its tenant for the production of crops, fruits, or other agricultural products or for the sustenance of livestock.

(c) The election under subdivision (a) for any income year shall be made within the time prescribed by law (including extensions thereof) for filing the return for that income year. The election shall be made in the form and manner as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe. The election may not be revoked except with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 33. Section 24434 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 117 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

24434. (a) In the case of a taxpayer (other than a bank as defined in Section 23039) no deduction shall be allowed under Section 24347 or 24348 by reason of the worthlessness of any debt owed by a political party.

(b) (1) For purposes of subdivision (a), the term "political party" means any of the following:

(A) A political party.

(B) A national, state, or local committee of a political party.

(C) A committee, association, or organization which accepts contributions or makes expenditures for the purpose of influencing or attempting to influence the election of presidential or vice presidential electors or of any individual whose name is presented for election to any federal, state, or local elective public office, whether or not such individual is elected.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1) (C), the term "contributions" includes a gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit, of money, or anything of value, and includes a contract, promise, or agreement to make a contribution, whether or not legally enforceable.

(3) For purposes of paragraph (1) (C), the term "expenditures" includes a payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift, of money, or anything of value, and includes a contract, promise, or agreement to make an expenditure, whether or not legally enforceable.

(c) In the case of a taxpayer who uses an accrual method of accounting, subdivision (a) shall not apply to a debt which accrued as a receivable on a bona fide sale of goods or services in the ordinary course of a taxpayer's trade or business if both of the following apply:

(1) For the income year in which the receivable accrued, more than 30 percent of all receivables which accrued in the ordinary course of the trades or businesses of the taxpayer were due from political parties.

(2) The taxpayer made substantial continuing efforts to collect on the debt.

SEC. 34. Section 25555 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25555. (a) In the case of taxpayers subject to the tax imposed by this part the tax, and any interest and penalties thereon, shall be paid to the Franchise Tax Board. Remittances may be in the form of a check, payable to the Franchise Tax Board, during that period and under those regulations as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe. If a check is not paid by the bank on which it is drawn, the taxpayer tendering the check shall remain liable for the payment of the tax, and all interest and penalties, as if the check had not been tendered.

(b) Notwithstanding Title 1.3 (commencing with Section 1747) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, the Franchise Tax Board may allow remittances to be in the form of a credit account number and authorization to draw upon a specified credit account, at that time and under those conditions as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe. Remittances in the form of an authorization to draw upon a specified credit account shall include an amount, not to exceed 1 and one-half percent of the balance otherwise due, for purposes of paying the discount rate associated with drawing upon the credit account.

(c) Remittances made pursuant to subdivision (b) may be drawn on an account with a financial institution which agrees to add the discount rate associated with the use of the credit account number to the credit card holder's billing. Remittances drawn as described in this subdivision shall not include an amount for purposes of paying the discount rate associated with drawing upon the credit account.

SEC. 35. Section 25940 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Section 1 of Chapter 1513 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

25941. Whenever any foreign corporation which fails to qualify to do business in this state or whose powers, rights, and privileges have been forfeited, or any domestic corporation which has been suspended, and which is doing business in this state, within the meaning of Section 23101, fails to make and file a return as required by this part, the Franchise Tax Board shall impose a penalty of two thousand dollars ($2,000) per income year, unless the failure to file is due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect. The penalty shall be in addition to any other penalty which may be due under this part. The penalty shall be imposed if the return is not filed within 60 days after the Franchise Tax Board sends the taxpayer a notice and demand to file the required tax return.

SEC. 36. Section 25954.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25954.3. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, if the amount of estimated tax due and payable under Section 25563 is only the minimum franchise tax imposed by Section 23153, then the addition to the tax with respect to any underpayment of any installment imposed by Section 25951 shall be calculated only on the basis of the amount of the minimum franchise tax.

(b) This section shall not apply to a large corporation or a large worldwide corporation as defined in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 25954.

(c) This section shall apply to income years beginning on and after January 1, 1986.

SEC. 37. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Title IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 473

An act to amend Sections 6454, 6472, 6592, and 25555 of, to add Article 1.2 (commencing with Section 6479.3) to Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 2 of, and to add Section 25555.5 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to amend Sections 1110, 1112, and 13021 of, and to add Section 13021.5 to, the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to taxation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that it is in the best interests of the State of California to implement efficient and effective procedures for the collection of tax revenues from taxpayers and employers. Accordingly, it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act that the State Board of Equalization, Franchise Tax Board, and Employment Development Department, in cooperation with the Treasurer's office, the Controller's office, and any other necessary state agency, establish a program for the collection of the following taxes, where they exceed designated amounts, through the use of electronic funds transfer transactions:

(a) Sales and use taxes.

(b) Bank and corporation taxes.

(c) Disability insurance and personal income taxes withheld by employers.

SEC. 2. Section 6454 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6454. Except as provided in Section 6479.3, a person required to file the return shall deliver the return together with a remittance of the amount of the tax due to the office of the board.

SEC. 3. Section 6472 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6472. Except in the case of persons required to remit amounts due in accordance with Article 1.2 (commencing with Section 6479.3), for purposes of Section 6471, prepayment shall be accompanied by a report of the amount of the prepayment in a form prescribed by the board and shall be made to the board as follows:

(a) In the first, third, and fourth calendar quarters, on or before the 24th day next following the end of each of the first two monthly periods of each quarterly period.

(b) In the second calendar quarter as follows:

(1) The first prepayment on or before the 24th day next following the end of the first monthly period of each quarterly period.

(2) The second prepayment on or before the 23rd day of the third monthly period of each quarterly period for the second monthly period and the first 15 days of the third monthly period of each quarterly period.

SEC. 4. Article 1.2 (commencing with Section 6479.3) is added to Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 1.2. Payment by Electronic Funds Transfer

6479.3. (a) For purposes of payments pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 6451) and prepayments pursuant to Article 1.1 (commencing with Section 6470), any person whose estimated tax liability under this part averages fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more per month, as determined by the board pursuant to methods of calculation prescribed by the board, shall remit amounts due by an electronic funds transfer under procedures prescribed by the board.

(b) Any person whose estimated tax liability under this part averages less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per month may voluntarily remit amounts due by electronic funds transfer with the approval of the board.

(c) Any person remitting amounts due pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall perform electronic funds transfers in compliance with the due dates set forth in Article 1 (commencing with Section 6451) and Article 1.1 (commencing with Section 6470). Payment is deemed complete on the date the electronic funds transfer is initiated, if settlement to the state's demand account occurs on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated. If settlement to the state's demand account does not occur on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated, payment is deemed to occur on the date settlement occurs.

(d) Any person required to remit taxes pursuant to this section shall, on or before the last day of the month following each quarter, file a return for the preceding quarter in the form and manner prescribed by the board. Any person who fails to timely file the return required by this subdivision shall be assessed a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of taxes, exclusive of prepayments, with respect to the quarter for which the return is required.

(e) Any person required to remit taxes pursuant to this article who remits those amounts by means other than appropriate electronic funds transfers in accordance with board procedures shall be assessed a penalty of 10 percent of the taxes due at the time of the payment.

(f) In determining whether a person's estimated tax liability averages fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more per month for purposes of this section, the board may consider tax returns filed pursuant to this part, in addition to any information which is in, or may come into, the board's possession.

(g) The board shall promulgate regulations pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code for purposes of implementing this section.

(h) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993. On or before September 30, 1992, the board shall notify those persons subject to this section of this section's requirements.

(i) This section shall be effective until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed.

6479.3. (a) For purposes of payments pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 6451) and prepayments pursuant to Article 1.1 (commencing with Section 6470), any person whose estimated tax liability under this part averages twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or more per month, as determined by the board pursuant to methods of calculation prescribed by the board, shall remit amounts due by an electronic funds transfer under procedures prescribed by the board.

(b) Any person whose estimated tax liability under this part averages less than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) per month may voluntarily remit amounts due by electronic funds transfer with the approval of the board.

(c) Any person remitting amounts due pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) shall perform electronic funds transfer in compliance with the due dates set forth in Article 1 (commencing with Section 6451) and Article 1.1 (commencing with Section 6470). Payment is deemed complete on the date the electronic funds transfer is initiated, if settlement to the state's demand account occurs on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated. If settlement to the state's demand account does not occur on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated, payment is deemed to occur on the date settlement occurs.

(d) Any person required to remit taxes pursuant to this section shall, on or before the last day of the month following each quarter, file a return for the preceding quarter in the form and manner prescribed by the board. Any person who fails to timely file the return required by this subdivision shall be assessed a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of taxes, exclusive of prepayments, with respect to the quarter for which the return is required.

(e) Any person required to remit taxes pursuant to this article who remits those amounts by means other than appropriate electronic funds transfers in accordance with the board procedures shall be assessed a penalty of 10 percent of taxes due at the time of payment.

(f) In determining whether a person's estimated tax liability averages twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or more per month for purposes of this section, the board may consider tax returns filed pursuant to this part, in addition to any information that is in, or may come into, the board's possession.

(g) The board shall promulgate regulations pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code for purposes of implementing this section.

(h) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1995.

6479.5. (a) "Electronic funds transfer" means any transfer of funds, other than a transaction originated by check, draft, or similar paper instrument, that is initiated through an electronic terminal, telephonic instrument, or computer or magnetic tape, so as to order, instruct, or authorize a financial institution to debit or credit an account. Electronic funds transfers shall be accomplished by an automated clearinghouse debit, an automated clearinghouse credit, or by Federal Reserve Wire Transfer (Fedwire).

(b) "Automated clearinghouse" means any federal reserve bank, or an organization established in agreement with the National Automated Clearing House Association, that operates as a clearinghouse for transmitting or receiving entries between banks or bank accounts and which authorizes an electronic transfer of funds between these banks or bank accounts.

(c) "Automated clearinghouse debit" means a transaction in which the state, through its designated depository bank, originates an automated clearinghouse transaction debiting the person's bank account and crediting the state's bank account for the amount of tax. Banking costs incurred for the automated clearinghouse debit transaction shall be paid by the state.

(d) "Automated clearinghouse credit" means an automated clearinghouse transaction in which the person through his or her own bank, originates an entry crediting the state's bank account and debiting his or her own bank account. Banking costs incurred for the automated clearinghouse credit transaction charged to the state shall be paid by the person originating the credit.

(e) "Fedwire transfer" means any transaction originated by a person and utilizing the national electronic payment system to transfer funds through the federal reserve banks, when that person debits his or her own bank account and credits the state's bank account. Electronic funds transfers pursuant to Section 6479.3 may be made by Fedwire only if payment cannot, for good cause, be made according to subdivision (a), and the use of Fedwire is preapproved by the board. Banking costs incurred for the Fedwire transaction charged to the person and to the state shall be paid by the person originating the transaction.

SEC. 5. Section 6592 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6592. If the board finds that a person's failure to make a timely return or payment is due to reasonable cause and circumstances beyond the person's control, and occurred notwithstanding the exercise of ordinary care and the absence of willful neglect, the person shall be relieved of the penalties provided by Sections 6476, 6477, 6480.4, 6480.8, 6511, 6565, 6591, 7051.2, and subdivisions (d) and (e) of Section 6479.3.

Any person seeking to be relieved of the penalty shall file with the board a statement under penalty of perjury setting forth the facts upon which he or she bases his or her claim for relief.

SEC. 6. Section 25555 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25555. (a) In the case of taxpayers subject to the tax imposed by this part the tax, and any interest and penalties thereon, shall be paid to the Franchise Tax Board. Except as provided in Section 25555.5, remittances may be in the form of a check, payable to the Franchise Tax Board, at the time and in the manner as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe. If a check is not paid by the bank on which it is drawn, the taxpayer tendering the check shall remain liable for the payment of the tax, and all interest and penalties, as if the check had not been tendered.

(b) Notwithstanding Title 1.3 (commencing with Section 1747) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, the Franchise Tax Board may allow remittances to be in the form of a credit account number and authorization to draw upon a specified credit account, at that time and under those conditions as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe. Remittances in the form of an authorization to draw upon a specified credit account shall include an amount, not to exceed 2 percent of the balance otherwise due, for purposes of paying the discount rate associated with drawing upon the credit account.

(c) Remittances made pursuant to subdivision (b) may be drawn on an account with a financial institution which agrees to add the discount rate associated with the use of the credit account number to the credit card holder's billing. Remittances drawn as described in this subdivision shall not include an amount for purposes of paying the discount rate associated with drawing upon the credit account.

SEC. 7. Section 25555.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

25555.5. (a) All payments required under this part shall be remitted to the Franchise Tax Board by electronic funds transfer pursuant to Division 11 (commencing with Section 11101) of the Commercial Code, if any of the following conditions exist with respect to any taxpayer:

(1) The estimated tax payment averages fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more per payment in any tax year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, or twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or more per payment in any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995.

(2) The total tax liability for any income year beginning on and after January 1, 1991, was in excess of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), or eighty thousand dollars ($80,000) or more in any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995.

(b) Any taxpayer required to remit payment by electronic funds transfer pursuant to this section who makes payment by other means shall pay a penalty of 10 percent of the amount paid, unless it is shown that the failure to make payment as required was for reasonable cause and was not the result of willful neglect.

(c) Any taxpayer not required to remit payments to the Franchise Tax Board by electronic funds transfer may submit a request to the Franchise Tax Board for permission to voluntarily make electronic funds transfers.

(d) Any taxpayer required to remit payments by electronic funds transfer pursuant to this section may request a waiver of those requirements from the Franchise Tax Board. The Franchise Tax Board may grant a waiver only if it determines that the particular amounts paid in excess of the threshold amounts established in this section were not representative of the taxpayer's tax liability. If a taxpayer is granted a waiver, subsequent remittances by electronic funds transfer shall be required only on those terms set forth in the waiver.

(e) The Franchise Tax Board shall accept remittances by electronic funds transfer pursuant to this section no later than January 1, 1993. Electronic funds transfer procedures, in addition to those described in subdivision (f), shall be as prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board. Payment is deemed complete on the date the electronic funds transfer is initiated, if settlement to the state's demand account occurs on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated. If settlement to the state's demand account does not occur on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated, payment is deemed to occur on the date settlement occurs.

(f) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Electronic funds transfer" means any transfer of funds, other than a transaction originated by check, draft, or similar paper instrument, that is initiated through an electronic terminal, telephonic instrument, or computer or magnetic tape, so as to order, instruct, or authorize a financial institution to debit or credit an account. Electronic funds transfer shall be accomplished by an automated clearinghouse debit, automated clearinghouse credit, or by Federal Reserve Wire Transfer (Fedwire).

(2) "Automated clearinghouse" means any federal reserve bank, or an organization established by agreement with the National Automated Clearing House Association, that operates as a clearinghouse for transmitting or receiving entries between banks or bank accounts and that authorizes an electronic transfer of funds between those banks or bank accounts.

(3) "Automated clearinghouse debit" means a transaction in which any department of the state, through its designated depository bank, originates an automated clearinghouse transaction debiting the taxpayer's bank account and crediting the state's bank account for the amount of tax. Banking costs incurred for the automated clearinghouse debit transaction by the taxpayer shall be paid by the state.

(4) "Automated clearinghouse credit" means an automated clearinghouse transaction in which the taxpayer, through its own bank, originates an entry crediting the state's bank account and debiting its own bank account. Banking costs incurred by the state for the automated clearinghouse credit transaction shall be paid by the taxpayer.

(5) "Fedwire" means any transaction originated by the taxpayer and utilizing the national electronic payment system to transfer funds through federal reserve banks, pursuant to which the taxpayer debits its own bank account and credits the state's bank account. Electronic funds transfers may be made by Fedwire only if prior approval is obtained from the Franchise Tax Board and the taxpayer is unable, for reasonable cause, to make payments pursuant to paragraph (3) or (4). Banking costs charged to the taxpayer and to the state shall be paid by the taxpayer.

(6) In determining whether a payment or total tax liability exceeds the amounts established in subdivision (a), all taxpayers whose income derived from, or attributable to, sources within this state is required to be determined by a combined report shall be aggregated and the total aggregate amount shall be considered to be the payment or total tax liability of a single taxpayer.

(g) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 8. Section 1110 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1110. (a) Employer contributions required under Sections 976 and 976.6, the amount of benefits received by any individual pursuant to this part that is deducted from an award or settlement made by the employer under the provisions of Section 1382, and, except as provided by subdivision (b) of this section, worker contributions required under Section 984 are due and payable on the first day of the calendar month following the close of each calendar quarter and shall become delinquent if not paid on or before the last day of that month.

(b) Workers' contributions required under Section 984 are due and payable at the same time and by the same method as amounts required to be withheld under Section 13020 are paid to the department pursuant to Section 13021, regardless of the amount of accumulated unpaid liability for workers' contributions.

(c) Employer contributions submitted pursuant to Section 976.5 shall be paid on or before the last working day of March of the calendar year to which the reduced contribution rate would be applicable.

SEC. 9. Section 1112 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1112. Any employer who without good cause fails to pay any contributions required of him or her or of his or her workers, except amounts assessed under Article 8 of this chapter, within the time and by the method of payment required shall pay a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of those contributions.

SEC. 10. Section 13021 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

13021. (a) Every employer required to withhold any tax under Section 13020 shall for each calendar quarter, whether or not wages or payments are paid in the quarter, file a withholding return in a form prescribed by the department, and pay over the taxes so required to be withheld. Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c) of this section, the employer shall file a withholding return and remit the total amount of income taxes withheld during the calendar quarter on or before the last day of the month following the close of the calendar quarter.

(b) Whenever an employer is required, for federal income tax purposes, to remit the total amount of withheld federal income tax in accordance with Section 6302 of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations thereunder, and the accumulated amount of state income tax withheld is more than seventy-five dollars ($75), the employer shall remit the total amount of income tax withheld for state income tax purposes within the number of banking days as specified for withheld federal income taxes by Section 6302 of the Internal Revenue Code, and regulations thereunder.

(c) (1) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), for calendar years beginning prior to January 1, 1995, if in the 12-month period ending June 30 of the prior year the cumulative average payment made pursuant to this division or Section 1110, for eighth monthly periods, as defined under Section 6302 of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations thereunder, was fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more, the employer shall remit the total amount of income tax withheld within three banking days following the close of each eighth monthly period. For purposes of this subdivision, payment shall be made by electronic funds transfer in accordance with Section 13021.5, for one calendar year beginning on January 1. Payment is deemed complete on the date the electronic funds transfer is initiated, if settlement to the state's demand account occurs on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated. If settlement to the state's demand account does not occur on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated, payment is deemed to occur on the date settlement occurs. The department shall, on or before October 31 of the prior year, notify all employers required to make payment by electronic funds transfer of these requirements.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), for calendar years beginning on or after January 1, 1995, if in the 12-month period ending June 30 of the prior year, the cumulative average payment made pursuant to this division or Section 1110 for eighth monthly periods, as defined under Section 6302 of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations thereunder, was twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or more, the employer shall remit the total amount of income tax withheld within three banking days following the close of each eighth monthly period. For purposes of this subdivision, payment shall be made by electronic funds transfer in accordance with Section 13021.5, for one calendar year beginning on January 1. Payment is deemed complete on the date the electronic funds transfer is initiated, if settlement to the state's demand account occurs on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated. If settlement to the state's demand account does not occur on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated, payment is deemed to occur on the date settlement occurs. The department shall, on or before October 31 of the prior year, notify all employers required by this paragraph to make payments by electronic funds transfer of these requirements.

(d) Any employer not required to make payment pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section may elect to make payment by electronic funds transfer in accordance with Section 13021.5 under the following conditions:

(1) The election shall be made in a form, and shall contain information, as prescribed by the director, and shall be subject to approval by the department.

(2) The election shall be made by October 31 and, if approved, shall be operative on January 1 of the following year.

(3) The election shall be operative for one calendar year.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 1112, no interest or penalties shall be assessed against any employer who remits at least 95 percent of the amount required by subdivision (b) or (c), provided that the failure to remit the full amount is not willful and any remaining amount due is paid with the next payment. The director may allow any employer to submit the amounts due from multiple locations upon a showing that those submissions are necessary to comply with the provisions of subdivision (b) or (c).

(f) The department may, if it believes that action is necessary, require any employer to make the return required by this section and pay to it the tax deducted and withheld at any time, or from time to time but no less frequently than provided for in subdivision (a).

(g) Any employer required to withhold any tax and who is not required to make payment under subdivision (b) shall remit the total amount of income tax withheld during each month of each calendar quarter, on or before the 15th day of the subsequent month if the income tax withheld for any of the three months or, cumulatively for two or more months, is three hundred fifty dollars ($350) or more.

(h) For purposes of subdivisions (a), (b), and (g), payment is deemed complete when it is placed in a properly addressed envelope, bearing the correct postage, and it is deposited in the United States mail. For purposes of subdivision (c), payment is deemed complete on the date the electronic funds transfer is initiated, if settlement to the state's demand account occurs on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated. If settlement to the state's demand account does not occur on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated, payment is deemed to occur on the date settlement occurs.

SEC. 11. Section 13021.5 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

13021.5. (a) "Electronic funds transfer" means any transfer of funds, other than a transaction originated by check, draft, or similar paper instrument, that is initiated through an electronic terminal, telephonic instrument, or computer or magnetic tape, so as to order, instruct, or authorize a financial institution to debit or credit an account. Electronic funds transfers shall be accomplished by an automated clearinghouse debit, an automated clearinghouse credit, Fedwire, or by other specific electronic funds transfer methods approved in advance by the department.

(b) "Automated clearinghouse" means any federal reserve bank, or an organization established in agreement with the National Automated Clearing House Association, that operates as a clearinghouse for transmitting or receiving entries between banks and/or bank accounts and which authorizes an electronic transfer of funds between those banks or bank accounts.

(c) "Automated clearinghouse debit" means a transaction in which the state, through its designated depository bank, originates an automated clearinghouse transaction debiting the employer's bank account and crediting the state's bank account for the amount of tax. Banking costs incurred for the automated clearinghouse debit transaction shall be paid by the state.

(d) "Automated clearinghouse credit" means an automated clearinghouse transaction in which the employer through its own bank, originates an entry crediting the state's bank account and debiting its own bank account. Banking costs incurred for the automated clearinghouse credit transaction charged to the employer and to the state shall be paid by the employer.

(e) "Fedwire" means any transaction originated by the employer and utilizing the national electronic payment system to transfer funds through the federal reserve banks, pursuant to which the employer debits its own bank account and credits the state's bank account. Electronic funds transfer payments may be made by Fedwire only if prior approval is obtained from the department and payment cannot, for good cause, be made pursuant to subdivision (a). Banking costs incurred for the Fedwire transaction charged to the employer and to the state shall be paid by the employer.

SEC. 12. For purposes of implementing this act in the 1991–92 fiscal year, the sum of three hundred ninety thousand nine hundred fifty-two dollars ($390,952) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Controller for allocation as follows:

(a) The sum of two hundred twenty-four thousand one hundred dollars ($224,100) to the State Board of Equalization in augmentation of Item 0860-001-001 of Section 2 of the Budget Act of 1991 (Ch. 118, Stats. 1991).

(b) The sum of sixty-seven thousand one hundred and fifty-two dollars ($67,152) to the Employment Development Department in augmentation of Item 5100-001-001 of Section 2 of the Budget Act of 1991 (Ch. 118, Stats. 1991).

(c) The sum of ninety-nine thousand seven hundred dollars ($99,700) to the Franchise Tax Board in augmentation of Item 1730-001-001 of Section 2 of the Budget Act of 1991 (Ch. 118, Stats. 1991).

Funds to implement this act for the 1992–93 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter, shall be provided for in the annual Budget Act.

CHAPTER 474

An act to amend Sections 10753.8, 17024.5, 17041, 17054.1, 17077, 17276, 17276.3, 23701t, 24416, 24416.2, 24416.3, and 25954 of, to add Section 10753.9 to, to amend and renumber Section 10753.5 of, and to repeal Section 17047 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to amend Section 13043 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10753.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Section 12.5 of Chapter 117 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended and renumbered to read:

17053.5. (a) In the case of qualified renters, there shall be allowed credits against their "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039). The credit shall be in the amount of one hundred twenty dollars ($120) for married couples filing joint returns, heads of household and surviving spouses (as defined in Section 17046), and sixty dollars ($60) for other individuals.

Except as provided in subdivision (b), a husband and wife shall receive but one credit under this section. If the husband and wife file separate returns, the credit may be taken by either or equally divided between them, except as follows:

(1) If one spouse was a resident for the entire taxable year and the other spouse was a nonresident for part or all of the taxable year, the resident spouse shall be allowed one-half the credit allowed to married persons and the nonresident spouse shall be permitted one-half the credit allowed to married persons, prorated as provided in subdivision (e).

(2) If both spouses were nonresidents for part of the taxable year, the credit allowed to married persons shall be divided equally between them subject to the proration provided in subdivision (e).

(b) In the case of a husband and wife, if each spouse maintained a separate place of residence and resided in this state during the entire taxable year, each spouse will be allowed one-half the full credit allowed to married persons provided in subdivision (a).

(c) For purposes of this section, a "qualified renter" means an individual who:

(1) Was a resident of this state, as defined in Section 17014, and

(2) Rented and occupied premises in this state which constituted his or her principal place of residence during at least 50 percent of the taxable year.

(d) The term "qualified renter" does not include any of the following:

(2) An individual whose principal place of residence for more than 50 percent of the taxable year is with any other person who claimed such individual as a dependent for income tax purposes.

(3) An individual who has been granted or whose spouse has been granted the homeowners' property tax exemption during the taxable year. This paragraph shall not apply in the case of an individual whose spouse has been granted the homeowners' property tax exemption if each spouse maintained a separate residence for the entire taxable year.

(e) Any otherwise qualified renter who is a nonresident for any portion of the taxable year shall claim the credits set forth in subdivision (a) at the rate of one-twelfth of those credits for each full month that individual resided within this state during the taxable year.

(f) Every person claiming the credit provided in this section shall, as part of that claim, and under penalty of perjury, furnish that information as the Franchise Tax Board prescribes on a form supplied by the board.

(g) The credit provided in this section shall be claimed on returns in the form as the Franchise Tax Board may from time to time prescribe.

(h) For the purposes of this section, the term "premises" means a house or a dwelling unit used to provide living accommodations in a building or structure and the land incidental thereto, but does not include land only, except in the case where the dwelling unit is a mobilehome. The credit shall not be allowed for any taxable year for the rental of land upon which a mobilehome is located if the mobilehome has been granted a homeowners' exemption under Section 218 in that year.

(i) In the case of qualified renters whose credits provided in this section exceed their tax liability computed under this part the excess shall be credited against other amounts due, if any, from the qualified renter and the balance, if any, shall be refunded to the qualified renter.

(j) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1996, and shall apply to any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1996.

SEC. 2. Section 10753.8 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 87 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

10753.8. (a) In addition to the license fee for any vehicle calculated pursuant to Section 10752, a surcharge in an amount equal to 2.2 percent of the fee under Section 10752 shall be added to that fee for any initial or original registration of any vehicle never before registered in this state for which the fees become due on or after August 1, 1991, and before August 1, 1992, and for any renewal of registration with an expiration date on or after August 1, 1991, and before August 1, 1992.

(b) This section shall cease to be operative on the first day of the month following the month in which the Department of Motor Vehicles is notified by the Department of Finance of a final judicial determination by the California Supreme Court or any California court of appeal of either of the following:

(1) The allocation of funds from the Vehicle License Fee Account or the Vehicle License Fee Growth Account of the Local Revenue Fund established during the 1991–92 Regular Session is in violation of Section 15 of Article XI of the California Constitution.

(2) The state is obligated to reimburse counties for costs of providing medical services to medically indigent adults pursuant to Chapters 328 and 1594 of the Statutes of 1982.

SEC. 3. Section 10753.9 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

10753.9. (a) After determining the cost price to the purchaser, as provided in this article, the department shall classify or reclassify every vehicle in its proper class according to the classification plan set forth in this section.

(b) For the purpose of this part, a classification plan is established consisting of the following classes: a class from no dollars ($0) to and including forty-nine dollars and ninety-nine cents ($49.99); a class from fifty dollars ($50) to and including one hundred ninety-nine dollars and ninety-nine cents ($199.99); and thereafter a series of classes successively set up in brackets having a spread of two hundred dollars ($200), consisting of that number of classes as will permit classification of all vehicles.

(c) The market value of a vehicle for each registration year, starting with the year the vehicle was first sold to a consumer as a new vehicle, or the year the vehicle was first purchased or assembled by the person applying for original registration in this state, or the year ownership of a used vehicle was sold or transferred to the current registered owner, shall be as follows: for the first year, 85 percent of a sum equal to the middle point between the extremes of its class as established in subdivision (b); for the second year, 85 percent of that sum; for the third year, 70 percent of that sum; for the fourth year, 55 percent of that sum; for the fifth year, 40 percent of that sum; for the sixth year, 30 percent of that sum; for the seventh year, 25 percent of that sum; for the eighth year, 15 percent of that sum; for the ninth year, 10 percent of that sum; for the 10th year and each succeeding year, 5 percent of that sum; provided, however, that the minimum tax shall be the sum of one dollar ($1). Notwithstanding this subdivision, the market value of a trailer coach first sold on and after January 1, 1966, which is required to be moved under permit as authorized in Section 35790 of the Vehicle Code, shall be determined by the schedule in Section 10753.3.

(d) This section shall become operative and shall apply to both of the following:

(1) Initial or original registration of any vehicle never before registered in this state for which fees become due on July 15, 1991, and on or before July 31, 1991.

(2) Renewal of registration of any vehicle whose registration expires on or before July 31, 1991.

SEC. 4. Section 17024.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 117 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

17024.5. (a) (1) Unless otherwise specifically provided, the terms "Internal Revenue Code," "Internal Revenue Code of 1954," or "Internal Revenue Code of 1986," for purposes of this part, mean Title 26 of the United States Code, including all amendments thereto as enacted on the specified date for the applicable taxable year as follows:

Taxable Year	Specified Date of Internal Revenue Code Sections
(A) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1983, and on or before December 31, 1983	January 15, 1983
(B) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1984, and on or before December 31, 1984	January 1, 1984
(C) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1985, and on or before December 31, 1985	January 1, 1985

(D) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1986, and on or before December 31, 1986	January 1, 1986
(E) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and on or before December 31, 1988	January 1, 1987
(F) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1989, and on or before December 31, 1989	January 1, 1989
(G) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1990, and on or before December 31, 1990	January 1, 1990
(H) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1991	January 1, 1991

(2) For purposes of subparagraphs (C) and (D) of paragraph (1), the following applies:

(A) The provisions contained in Sections 41–44, inclusive, and 172 of the Tax Reform Act of 1984 (Public Law 98-369), relating to treatment of debt instruments, shall not be applicable.

(B) The provisions contained in Public Law 99-121, relating to the treatment of debt instruments, shall not be applicable.

(3) For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1987, the provisions referred to by subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (2) shall be applicable for purposes of this part in the same manner and with respect to the same obligations as the federal provisions, except as otherwise provided in this part.

(4) Unless otherwise specifically provided, the following shall apply:

(A) Any provision of the Internal Revenue Code which is operative on or after the specified date for that taxable year shall also be operative on the same date for purposes of this part.

(B) Any provision of the Internal Revenue Code which is inoperative on or after the specified date for that taxable year shall also be inoperative on the same date for purposes of this part.

(5) Unless otherwise specifically provided, for federal laws enacted on or after January 1, 1987, and on or before the specified date for the taxable year, uncodified provisions that relate to provisions of the Internal Revenue Code that are incorporated for purposes of this part shall be applicable to the same taxable years as the incorporated provisions.

(6) Subtitle G (Tax Technical Corrections) and Part I of Subtitle H (Repeal of Expired or Obsolete Provisions) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-508) modified numerous provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and provisions of prior federal acts, some of which are incorporated by reference into this part. Unless otherwise provided, the provisions described in the preceding sentence, to the extent that they modify provisions that are incorporated into this part, are declaratory of existing law and shall be applied in the same manner and for the same periods as specified in the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1990.

(b) Unless otherwise specifically provided, when applying any section of the Internal Revenue Code for purposes of this part, any provision that refers to any of the following shall not be applicable for purposes of this part:

(1) Except as provided in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 23800) of Part 11 of Division 2, an electing small business corporation, as defined in Section 1361(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) Domestic international sales corporations (DISC), as defined in Section 992(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) A personal holding company, as defined in Section 542 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) A foreign personal holding company, as defined in Section 552 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(5) A foreign investment company, as defined in Section 1246(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(6) A foreign trust, as defined in Section 679 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(7) Foreign income taxes and foreign tax credits.

(8) Section 911 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to United States citizens living abroad.

(9) A foreign corporation, except that Section 367 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applicable.

(10) Federal tax credits and carryovers of federal tax credits, except as provided in Section 162(l)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to coordination with medical deduction, etc., and Section 213(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to coordination with health insurance credit under Section 32 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(11) Nonresident aliens.

(12) Deduction for personal exemptions, as provided in Section 151 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(13) The tax on generation-skipping transfers imposed by Section 2601 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(14) The tax, relating to estates, imposed by Section 2001 or 2101 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) When applying the Internal Revenue Code for purposes of this part, any reference to regulations prescribed by "the secretary" shall not be applicable if the Franchise Tax Board has adopted and issued regulations. In the absence of regulations issued by the Franchise Tax Board, regulations issued by "the secretary" in effect as of the specified effective date of the Internal Revenue Code sections referred to in subdivision (a) shall be applicable to the extent that they do not conflict with this part.

(d) Whenever this part allows a taxpayer to make an election, the following rules shall apply:

(1) A proper election filed in accordance with the Internal Revenue Code or regulations issued by "the secretary" shall be deemed to be a proper election for purposes of this part, unless otherwise provided in this part or in regulations issued by the Franchise Tax Board.

(2) A copy of that election shall be furnished to the Franchise Tax Board upon request.

(3) To obtain treatment other than that elected for federal purposes, a separate election shall be filed with the Franchise Tax Board.

(e) Whenever this part allows or requires a taxpayer to file an application or seek consent, the rules set forth in subdivision (d) shall be applicable with respect to any such application or consent.

(f) When applying the Internal Revenue Code for purposes of determining the statute of limitations under this part, any reference to a period of three years shall be modified to read four years for purposes of this part.

(g) Unless otherwise specifically provided, when applying any section of the Internal Revenue Code for purposes of this part, any reference to the "secretary" shall mean the "Franchise Tax Board."

(h) When applying any section of the Internal Revenue Code for purposes of this part—

(1) References to "adjusted gross income" shall mean the amount computed in accordance with Section 17072, except as provided in paragraph (2).

(2) References to "adjusted gross income" for purposes of computing limitations based upon adjusted gross income, shall mean the amount required to be shown as adjusted gross income on the federal tax return for the same taxable year.

(3) References to "chapter" shall mean Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(i) Unless otherwise specifically provided, when applying the Internal Revenue Code for purposes of this part, any reference to a specific provision of the Internal Revenue Code shall include modifications of that provision, if any, in this part.

SEC. 5. Section 17041 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 117 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

17041. (a) (1) There shall be imposed for each taxable year upon the entire taxable income of every resident of this state, except the head of a household as defined in Section 17042, taxes in the following amounts and at the following rates upon the amount of taxable income:

If the taxable income is:	The tax is:
Not over $3,650	1% of the taxable income
Over $3,650 but not over $8,650	$36.50 plus 2% of the excess over $3,650
Over $8,650 but not over $13,650	$136.50 plus 4% of the excess over $8,650

Over $13,650 but not over $18,950	$336.50 plus 6% of the excess over $13,650
Over $18,950 but not over $23,950	$654.50 plus 8% of the excess over $18,950
Over $23,950	$1,054.50 plus 9.3% of the excess over $23,950

(2) (A) For any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and before January 1, 1996, the income tax brackets and rates set forth in paragraph (1) shall be modified by each of the following:

(i) For that portion of taxable income that is over one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) but not over two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), the tax rate is 10 percent of the excess over one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

(ii) For that portion of taxable income that is over two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), the tax rate is 11 percent of the excess over two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000).

(B) The income tax brackets specified in this paragraph shall be recomputed, as otherwise provided in subdivision (h), only for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1992.

(b) There shall be imposed for each taxable year upon the entire taxable income of every nonresident or part-year resident which is derived from sources in this state, except the head of a household as defined in Section 17042, a tax which shall be equal to the tax computed under subdivision (a) as if the nonresident or part-year resident were a resident multiplied by the ratio of California adjusted gross income to total adjusted gross income from all sources. For purposes of computing the tax under subdivision (a) and gross income from all sources, the net operating loss deduction provided in Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 17276, shall be computed as if the taxpayer was a resident for all prior years.

(c) (1) There shall be imposed for each taxable year upon the entire taxable income of every resident of this state, when such resident is the head of a household, as defined in Section 17042, taxes in the following amounts and at the following rates upon the amount of taxable income:

If the taxable income is:	The tax is:
Not over $7,300	1% of the taxable income
Over $7,300 but not over $17,300	$73 plus 2% of the excess over $7,300
Over $17,300 but not over $22,300	$273 plus 4% of the excess over $17,300

Over $22,300 but not over $27,600	$473 plus 6% of the excess over $22,300
Over $27,600 but not over $32,600	$791 plus 8% of the excess over $27,600
Over $32,600	$1,191 plus 9.3% of the excess over $32,600

(2) (A) For any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and before January 1, 1996, the income tax brackets and rates set forth in paragraph (1) shall be modified by each of the following:

(i) For that portion of taxable income that is over one hundred thirty-six thousand one hundred fifteen dollars ($136,115) but not over two hundred seventy-two thousand two hundred thirty dollars ($272,230), the tax rate is 10 percent of the excess over one hundred thirty-six thousand one hundred fifteen dollars ($136,115).

(ii) For that portion of taxable income that is over two hundred seventy-two thousand two hundred thirty dollars ($272,230), the tax rate is 11 percent of the excess over two hundred seventy-two thousand two hundred thirty dollars ($272,230).

(B) The income tax brackets specified in this paragraph shall be recomputed, as otherwise provided in subdivision (h), only for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1992.

(d) There shall be imposed for each taxable year upon the entire taxable income of every nonresident or part-year resident which is derived from sources within this state when such nonresident or part-year resident is the head of a household, as defined in Section 17042, a tax which shall be equal to the tax computed under subdivision (c) as if the nonresident or part-year resident were a resident multiplied by the ratio of California adjusted gross income to total adjusted gross income from all sources. For purposes of computing the tax under subdivision (c) and gross income from all sources, the net operating loss deduction provided in Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 17276, shall be computed as if the taxpayer was a resident for all prior years.

(e) There shall be imposed for each taxable year upon the taxable income of every estate, trust, or common trust fund taxes equal to the amount computed under subdivision (a) for an individual having the same amount of taxable income.

(f) The tax imposed by this part is not a surtax.

(g) (1) For purposes of this section, the taxation of the unearned income of a minor child who has not attained age 14 before the close of the taxable year and who has a parent living at the close of the taxable year shall be determined in accordance with Section 1 (g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain unearned income of minor children taxed as if the parent's income.

(2) Section 1(g)(7)(B)(ii)(II) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to income included on parent's return, is modified, for purposes of this part, by substituting "five dollars ($5)" for "seventy-five dollars ($75)" and "1 percent" for "15 percent."

(3) Paragraph (1) shall not apply if both of the following are true:

(A) The adjusted gross income of the minor child does not exceed the maximum amount for which the percentage of credit is 100 percent under subdivision (b) of Section 17069 (as adjusted by subdivision (g) of Section 17069).

(B) The minor child is qualified for the low-income tax credit allowed by Section 17069.

(h) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1988, the Franchise Tax Board shall recompute the income tax brackets prescribed in subdivisions (a) and (c). That computation shall be made as follows:

(1) The California Department of Industrial Relations shall transmit annually to the Franchise Tax Board the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index for all items from June of the prior calendar year to June of the current calendar year, no later than August 1 of the current calendar year.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board shall do both of the following:

(A) Compute an inflation adjustment factor by adding 100 percent to the percentage change figure that is furnished pursuant to paragraph (1) and dividing the result by 100.

(B) Multiply the preceding taxable year income tax brackets by the inflation adjustment factor determined in subparagraph (A) and round off the resulting products to the nearest one dollar ($1).

(i) (1) For purposes of this section, the term "California adjusted gross income" includes each of the following:

(A) For any part of the taxable year during which the taxpayer was a resident of this state (as defined by Section 17014), all items of adjusted gross income, regardless of source.

(B) For any part of the taxable year during which the taxpayer was not a resident of this state, only those items of adjusted gross income which were derived from sources within this state, determined in accordance with Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 17951).

(2) For purposes of computing "California adjusted gross income" under paragraph (1), the amount of any net operating loss sustained in any taxable year during any part of which the taxpayer was not a resident of this state shall be limited to the sum of the following:

(A) The amount of the loss attributable to the part of the taxable year in which the taxpayer was a resident.

(B) The amount of the loss which, during the part of the taxable year the taxpayer is not a resident, is attributable to California source income and deductions allowable in arriving at adjusted gross income.

SEC. 6. Section 17047 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 17054.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 117 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

17054.1. (a) (1) In the case of any taxpayer whose federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year exceeds the threshold amount, each credit to which this section applies shall be reduced by six dollars ($6) for each two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), or fraction thereof, by which the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income exceeds the threshold amount.

(2) In the case of credit allowed by subdivision (b) of Section 17054 (relating to joint returns and surviving spouses), the "six dollars ($6)" referred to in paragraph (1) shall be applied by substituting "twelve dollars ($12)."

(3) In the case of a married individual filing a separate return, the "two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500)" referred to in paragraph (1) shall be applied by substituting "one thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($1,250)."

(4) Under no circumstances shall any credit reduced by paragraph (1) be reduced below zero.

(b) For purposes of this section, "threshold amount" means the following:

(1) Two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) in the case of a joint return or a surviving spouse, as defined by Section 17046.

(2) One hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) in the case of a head of a household, as defined by Section 17042.

(3) One hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) in the case of an individual who is not married and who is not a surviving spouse or head of a household.

(4) One hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) in the case of a married individual filing a separate return.

(c) This section shall apply to the following credits:

(1) Each of the credits allowed by Section 17054.

(2) The credit allowed by Section 17054.6.

(d) In the case of a taxpayer filing a nonresident or part-year resident return, the reduction of exemption credits, as provided by this section, shall be applicable prior to proration of those credits as provided by Section 17055.

(e) For purposes of this section, marital status shall be determined under Section 17021.5.

(f) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1992, the threshold amounts specified in subdivision (b) shall be recomputed annually in the same manner as the recomputation of income tax brackets under subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

(g) This section shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1991.

SEC. 8. Section 17077 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 117 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

17077. The provisions of Section 68 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to overall limitation on itemized deductions, shall apply with the following modifications:

(a) "Six percent" shall be substituted for "3 percent" in Section 68(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) For purposes of this section, "applicable amount" means one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) in the case of a single individual or a married individual making a separate return, one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) in the case of a head of household, and two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) in the case of a surviving spouse or a husband and wife making a joint return.

(c) Section 68(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to inflation adjustments, shall not apply. However, for any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, the applicable amounts specified in subdivision (b) shall be recomputed annually in the same manner as the recomputation of income tax brackets under subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

(d) Section 68(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to termination, shall not apply.

SEC. 9. Section 17276 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 117 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

17276. Except as provided in Sections 17276.1 and 17276.2, the deduction provided by Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to a net operating loss deduction, shall be modified as follows:

(a) (1) Net operating losses attributable to taxable years beginning before January 1, 1987, and beginning on or after January 1, 1997, shall not be allowed.

(2) A net operating loss shall not be carried forward to any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1987.

(b) The provisions of Section 172(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the amount of carryovers, shall be modified so that 50 percent of the entire amount of the net operating loss for any taxable year shall not be eligible for carryover to any subsequent taxable year.

(c) Net operating loss carrybacks shall not be allowed.

(d) Notwithstanding any provisions of this section, a deduction shall be allowed to a "qualified taxpayer" as provided in Sections 17276.1 and 17276.2.

SEC. 10. Section 17276.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 117 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

17276.3. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 17276, 17276.1, and 17276.2, and Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, no net operating loss deduction shall be allowed for all taxable years beginning in the 1991 and 1992 calendar years.

(b) For any carryover of a net operating loss for which a deduction is denied by subdivision (a), the carryover period under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be extended as follows:

(1) By one year, for losses sustained in taxable years beginning in 1991.

(2) By two years, for losses sustained in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1991.

SEC. 11. Section 23701t of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23701t. (a) A homeowners' association organized and operated to provide for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance, and care of residential association property if:

(1) Sixty percent or more of the gross income of such organization for the taxable year consists solely of amounts received as membership dues, fees and assessments from tenant-stockholders or owners of residential units, residences or lots;

(2) Ninety percent or more of the expenditures of the organization for the taxable year are expenditures for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance, and care of association property;

(3) No part of the net earnings inures (other than by providing management, maintenance and care of association property or by a rebate of excess membership dues, fees or assessments) to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual; and

(4) Amounts received as membership dues, fees and assessments not expended for association purposes during the taxable year are transferred to and held in trust to provide for the management, maintenance, and care of association property and common areas.

(b) The term "association property" means—

(1) Property held by the organization,

(2) Property held in common by the members of the organization, and

(3) Property within the organization privately held by the members of the organization.

(c) A homeowners association shall be subject to tax under this part with respect to its "homeowners association taxable income," and such income shall be subject to tax as provided by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501) of this part.

(1) For purposes of this section, the term "homeowners association taxable income" of any organization for any taxable year means an amount equal to the excess over one hundred dollars ($100) (if any) of—

(A) The gross income for the taxable year (excluding any exempt function income), over

(B) The deductions allowed by this part which are directly connected with the production of the gross income (excluding exempt function income).

(2) For purposes of this section, the term "exempt function income" means any amount received as membership fees, dues and assessments from tenant-shareholders or owners of residential units, residences or lots.

(d) The term "homeowners' association" includes a condominium management association, a residential real estate management association, and a cooperative housing corporation.

(e) "Cooperative housing corporation" includes, but is not limited to, a limited-equity housing cooperative, as defined in Section 33007.5 of the Health and Safety Code, organized either as a nonprofit public benefit corporation pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, or a nonprofit mutual benefit corporation pursuant to Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 12. Section 24416 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 117 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

24416. Except as provided in Sections 24416.1 and 24416.2, a net operating loss deduction shall be allowed in computing net income under Section 24341 and shall be determined in accordance with Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise provided.

(a) (1) Net operating losses attributable to income years beginning before January 1, 1987, and beginning on or after January 1, 1997, shall not be allowed, except for losses allowed by this section (as amended by Chapter 159 of the Statutes of 1985) and former Section 24417 (as amended by Chapter 158 of the Statutes of 1986).

(2) A net operating loss shall not be carried forward to any income year beginning before January 1, 1987.

(b) The provisions of Section 172(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the amount of carryovers, shall be modified so that 50 percent of the entire amount of the net operating loss for any income year shall not be eligible for carryover to any subsequent income year.

(c) For any income year in which the taxpayer has in effect a water's edge election under Section 25110, the deduction of a net operating loss carryover shall be denied to the extent that such net operating loss carryover was determined by taking into account the income and factors of an affiliated bank or corporation in a combined report whose income and apportionment factors would not have been taken into account if a water's edge election under Section 25110 had been in effect for the income year in which the loss was incurred.

(d) Net operating loss carrybacks shall not be allowed.

(e) For purposes of corporations whose net income is determined under Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), both of the following shall apply:

(1) The amount of net operating loss incurred in any income year which may be carried forward to another income year.

(2) The amount of any loss carryforward which may be deducted in any income year, shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 25108.

(f) The provisions of Section 172(b)(1)(K) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to bad debt losses of commercial banks, shall not be applicable.

SEC. 13. Section 24416.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24416.2. The term "qualified taxpayer" as used in Section 24416.1 means either of the following:

(a) A taxpayer engaged in the conduct of a qualified business within a program area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code).

(1) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date that the taxpayer becomes a qualified business shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 24416.1, attributable to the business activities of the taxpayer within the program area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code). That attributed loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(i) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, loss shall be apportioned to the program area by multiplying total loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The program area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to income attributed to the business activities of the taxpayer within the program area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(i) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the program area by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The program area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(b) A taxpayer who is engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Section 7073 of the Government Code on or after that designation.

(1) (A) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback to any income year and, except as provided in subparagraph (B), a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date that the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated an enterprise zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following income year that ends before the expiration or revocation of the designation of the enterprise zone under Section 7073 of the Government Code or to each of 15 income years following the income year of loss, if longer.

(B) In the case of a financial institution to which Section 585, 586, or 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1984, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five income years following the income year of the loss. Subdivision (b) of Section 24416.1 shall not apply.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 24416.1, attributable to the business activities of the taxpayer within the enterprise zone (as defined in Section 7073 of the Government Code). The attributed loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(i) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, loss shall be apportioned to the enterprise zone by multiplying total loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The enterprise zone" shall be substituted for "this state."

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to income attributed to the business activities of the taxpayer within the enterprise zone (as defined in Section 7073 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(i) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the enterprise zone by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The enterprise zone" shall be substituted for "this state."

(c) A taxpayer who qualifies as a "qualified taxpayer" shall, for the income year of the net operating loss and any income year to which that net operating loss may be carried, designate on the return filed for each year the subdivision of this section which applies to that taxpayer with respect to that net operating loss. If the taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section, the designation is to be made after taking into account subdivision (d).

(d) If a taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section as a "qualified taxpayer," with respect to a net operating loss in an income year, the taxpayer shall designate which subdivision of this section is to apply to the taxpayer.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 24416, the amount of the loss determined under Section 24416.1 shall be the only net operating loss allowed to be carried over from that income year and the designation under subdivision (c) shall be included in the election under Section 24416.1.

SEC. 14. Section 24416.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 117 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

24416.3. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 24416, 24416.1, and 24416.2, and Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, no net operating loss deduction shall be allowed for all income years beginning in the 1991 and 1992 calendar years.

(b) For any carryover of a net operating loss for which a deduction is denied by subdivision (a), the carryover period under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be be extended as follows:

(1) By one year, for losses sustained in income years beginning in 1991.

(2) By two years, for losses sustained in income years beginning prior to January 1, 1991.

SEC. 15. Section 25954 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 117 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

25954. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding sections of this article, the addition to the tax with respect to any underpayment of any installment shall not be imposed if the total amount of all payments of estimated tax paid on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of such installment equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required to be paid on or before such date if the estimated tax were whichever of the following is the lesser—

(1) (A) The tax shown on the return of the taxpayer for the preceding income year if a return showing a liability for tax was filed by the taxpayer for the preceding year and such preceding year was a year of 12 months. The tax shown on the return, in the case of the tax imposed by Article 3 (commencing with Section 23181) of Chapter 2, means the amount of tax shown on the return for the income year as prescribed in Section 25553.

(B) In the case of a large corporation, subparagraph (A) shall not apply, except as provided in clauses (i) and (ii).

(i) Subparagraph (A) shall apply for purposes of determining the amount of the first required installment for any income year.

(ii) Any reduction in the first required installment by reason of clause (i) shall be recaptured by increasing the amount of the next required installment by the amount of that reduction.

(C) In the case of a large worldwide corporation, each of the following shall apply:

(i) Subparagraph (A) shall apply, however, except as provided in clause (ii), the amount determined under subparagraph (A) shall not be less than 70 percent of the tax shown on the return for the current income year, or if no return was filed, 70 percent of the tax for that year.

(ii) With respect to the first required installment for any income year, subparagraph (A) shall apply without the limitation specified in clause (i). However, any reduction in the first required installment by reason of this clause shall be recaptured by increasing the amount of the next required installment by the amount of that reduction.

(2) (A) An amount equal to 90 percent of the tax for the income year computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income:

(i) For the first three months of the income year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the fourth month,

(ii) For the first three months or for the first five months of the income year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the sixth month,

(iii) For the first six months or for the first eight months of the income year in the case of the installment required to be paid in the ninth month, and

(iv) For the first nine months or for the first 11 months of the income year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the 12th month of the taxable year.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, the taxable income shall be placed on an annualized basis by—

(i) Multiplying by 12 the taxable income referred to in subparagraph (A), and

(ii) Dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the income year referred to in subparagraph (A).

"Taxable income" as used in this paragraph means "net income" (as defined by Section 24341) or alternative minimum taxable income (as defined by Section 23455).

(C) In the case of any corporation which is subject to the tax imposed under Section 23731, each of the following shall apply:

(i) Any reference to taxable income shall be treated as including a reference to unrelated business taxable income.

(ii) Clauses (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting "two months" for "three months."

(iii) Clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting "four months" for "five months."

(iv) Clause (iii) of subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting "seven months" for "eight months."

(v) Clause (iv) of subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting "ten months" for "eleven months."

(b) (1) For purposes of this section, the term "large corporation" means any corporation or bank if that corporation or bank (or any predecessor corporation or bank) had taxable income (computed without regard to the deductions allowed by Sections 24416 and 24416.1) of one million dollars ($1,000,000) or more for any income year during the testing period.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "testing period" means the three income years immediately preceding the income year involved.

(c) (1) For purposes of this section, the term "large worldwide corporation" means any corporation or bank if that corporation or bank (or any predecessor corporation or bank)—(A) had taxable income (computed without regard to the deductions allowed by Sections 24416 and 24416.1) of one million dollars ($1,000,000) or more for any income year during the testing period, and (B) included during the testing period, for purposes of the tax imposed by this part, income and apportionment factors of one or more banks or corporations which derive all of their income from sources outside the United States which are not subject to the income taxes imposed by Subtitle A of the United States Internal Revenue Code.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "testing period" means the three income years immediately preceding the income year involved.

SEC. 16. Section 13043 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, as amended by Chapter 117 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

13043. (a) The amount to be deducted and withheld under this division shall be prescribed pursuant to Section 18806 of the Revenue and Taxation Code when a payment of wages is made to an employee by an employer in any of the following cases:

(1) With respect to a payroll period or other period, any part of which is included in a payroll period or other period with respect to which wages are also paid to the employee by the employer.

(2) Without regard to any payroll period or other period, but on or prior to the expiration of a payroll period or other period with respect to which wages are also paid to the employee by the employer.

(3) With respect to a period beginning in one and ending in another calendar year.

(4) Through an agent, fiduciary, or other person who also has the control, receipt, custody, or disposal of, or pays, the wages payable by another employer to the employee.

(b) For purposes of this section, an employee's remuneration may consist of wages paid for a payroll period and supplemental wages.

Supplemental wages include, but are not limited to, bonus payments, overtime payments, commissions, sales awards, back pay including retroactive wage increases, and reimbursements for nondeductible moving expenses that are paid for the same or different period, or without regard to a particular period.

(c) When any supplemental wages are paid subsequent to the payment of regular wages, the employer may determine the personal income tax to be withheld from supplemental wages paid by (1) using a flat percentage rate pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 18806 of the Revenue and Taxation Code without allowance for exemptions and credits and without reference to any regular payment of wages, or (2) adding the supplemental wages to the regular wages paid the employee and computing the personal income tax to be withheld on the whole amount (the computed tax minus the tax withheld from the regular wages shall be withheld from the supplemental wages). Where supplemental wages are paid at the same time as regular wages, the personal income tax to be withheld shall be computed on the total of the supplemental and regular wages and shall be determined as if the total of the supplemental wages and the regular wages constituted a single wage payment for the regular payroll period.

SEC. 17. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 475

An act to amend Section 17131.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to amend Section 13028 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, and to amend Section 11021 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to insurance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17131.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17131.5. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, gross income does not include any amounts received by a person owning a life insurance policy (whether in a single sum or otherwise) under any policy of life or endowment insurance or contract supplemental thereto, if the amounts are paid pursuant to Section 10113.1 of the Insurance Code or any policy of life or endowment insurance or contract supplemental thereto, that may provide for the acceleration of life or endowment benefits in advance of the time otherwise payable, upon the occurrence of a catastrophic or life-threatening illness or condition, as may be specified in the policy or contract.

SEC. 2. Section 13028 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

13028. (a) (1) For purposes of this division (and so much of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code as relates to this division) pensions, annuities, and other deferred income, as described in Section 3405 of the Internal Revenue Code, are wages and subject to withholding under this division.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), amounts excluded from gross income by Section 17131.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code are not wages and are not subject to withholding under this division.

(b) If an individual makes an election under Section 3405(a) (2) or Section 3405(b) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code not to have tax withheld, that election shall apply to withholding under this division, unless the individual elects, with the consent of the payer, to have those payments subject to withholding under this division. If an individual has not made an election under Section 3405(a) (2) or Section 3405(b) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, that individual may elect to exclude those payments from withholding under this division. Elections provided in this subdivision shall be made pursuant to regulations of the director.

(c) Where Section 3405 of the Internal Revenue Code provides that tables or other computational procedures shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, for the purposes of this division, any of the following amounts may be withheld, upon election of the payer:

(1) An amount determined by the method prescribed under Section 13020.

(2) A designated dollar amount as requested by the payee.

(3) Ten percent of the amount of federal withholding computed pursuant to Section 3405 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) Where the amount of withholding computed pursuant to subdivision (c) is less than ten dollars ($10) per month, the payer shall not be required to withhold that amount.

(e) This section shall not apply to pensions, annuities, and other deferred income of payees with addresses outside this state, as shown on the most current records of the payer.

(f) The department shall, in consultation with the affected payers and payees, issue regulations to implement this section.

Those regulations shall provide for delay (but not beyond July 1, 1987) of the application of this section with respect to any payer or class of payers until such time as the payers are able to comply without undue hardship with the requirements of this section. In that case, no retroactive compliance shall be required.

SEC. 3. Section 11021 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11021. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no individual who is an applicant for, or recipient of, aid or assistance under a state plan approved under Title IV, X, XIV, XVI, or XIX of the federal Social Security Act; assistance funded by payments under Title V or XX of the federal Social Security Act; or of benefits under the Supplemental Security Income program established by Title XVI of the federal Social Security Act shall:

(a) Be required as a condition of eligibility for or of continuing to receive that aid, assistance, or benefit, to make an election to receive funds according to Section 10113.1 of the Insurance Code, or to receive funds under an accelerated death benefit under a policy of life insurance.

(b) By reason of failure to make such an election, be denied or suffer a reduction in the amount of aid, assistance, or benefits, unless that individual would thereby exceed federal eligibility limits under Title IV, X, XIV, XVI, or XIX of the federal Social Security Act, assistance funded by payments under Title V or XX of the federal Social Security Act, or of benefits under the Supplemental Security Income program established by Title XVI of the federal Social Security Act.

For purposes of this section, "accelerated death benefit" means any payment made by the life insurer under the terms of a life insurance policy while the insured individual is alive as a result of a recalculation of the insured individual's life expectancy by the life insurer.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to make clarifying and supplemental changes to the law relating to proceeds from insurance, and to clarify a related law regarding certain social services by correcting a technical error, as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 476

An act to amend Sections 17052.17, 17052.18, 23617, and 23617.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17052.17 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17052.17. (a) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, and before January 1, 1995, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined by Section 17039) an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (b).

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allowed by this section shall be 30 percent of either or both of the following:

(A) The cost paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after September 23, 1988, for the startup expenses of establishing a child care program or constructing a child care facility in California, to be used primarily by the children of the taxpayer's employees.

(B) The cost paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after September 23, 1988, for contributions to California child care information and referral services such as those which identify local child care services, offer information describing these resources to employees, and make referrals of employees to child care services where there are vacancies.

In the case of a child care facility established by two or more taxpayers, the credit shall be allowed to each taxpayer if the facility is to be used primarily by the children of the employees of each of the taxpayers.

(2) The amount of the credit allowed by this section shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for any taxable year.

(c) For purposes of this section, "startup expenses" include, but are not limited to, feasibility studies, site preparation, and construction, renovation or acquisition of facilities for purposes of establishing or expanding onsite or nearsite centers by one or more employers.

(d) With the exception of a husband and wife, if two or more taxpayers share in the costs eligible for the credit provided by this section, each taxpayer shall be eligible to receive a tax credit with respect to his, her, or its respective share of the costs paid or incurred. In the case of a husband or wife who files a separate return, the credit may be taken by either or equally divided between them.

(e) (1) In the case where the credit allowed under subdivision (b) exceeds the "net tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "net tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(2) If the credit carryovers from preceding taxable years allowed under paragraph (1) plus the credit allowed for the taxable year under subdivision (b) would exceed an aggregate total of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), then the credit allowed to reduce the "net tax" under this section for the taxable year shall be limited to fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) and the amount in excess of the fifty thousand dollar ($50,000) limit may be carried over and applied against the "net tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, in an amount which, when added to the credit allowed under subdivision (b) for that succeeding taxable year, does not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(f) No deduction shall be allowed as otherwise provided in this part for that portion of expenses paid or incurred for the taxable year which is equal to the amount of the credit allowed under this section attributable to those expenses.

(g) In lieu of claiming the tax credit provided by this section, the taxpayer may elect to take depreciation pursuant to Section 17250. In addition, the taxpayer may take depreciation pursuant to that section for the cost of a facility in excess of the amount of the tax credit claimed under this section.

(h) The basis for any child care facility for which a credit is allowed shall be reduced by the amount of the credit attributable to the facility. The basis adjustment shall be made for the taxable year for which the credit is allowed.

(i) (1) In order to be eligible for the credit allowed under subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), the taxpayer shall submit to the Franchise Tax Board upon request a statement certifying that the costs for which the credit is claimed are incurred with respect to the startup expenses of establishing a child care program or constructing a child care facility in California to be used primarily by the children of the taxpayer's employees and which will be in operation for at least 60 consecutive months after completion.

(2) If the child care center for which a credit is claimed pursuant to this section is disposed of or ceases to operate within 60 months after completion, that portion of the credit claimed which represents the remaining portion of the 60-month period shall be added to the taxpayer's tax liability in the taxable year of that disposition or nonuse.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (e), until the credit has been exhausted.

SEC. 2. Section 17052.18 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17052.18. (a) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, and before January 1, 1995, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined by Section 17039) an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (b).

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allowed by this section shall be 50 percent of the cost paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after September 23, 1988, for contributions to a qualified care plan made on behalf of any dependent of the taxpayer's California employee who is under the age of 15.

(2) The amount of the credit allowed by this section in any taxable year shall not exceed six hundred dollars ($600) for contributions to a full-time qualified care plan or to a part-time qualified care plan made on behalf of the employee's dependents.

(c) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified care plan" includes, but is not limited to, onsite service, center-based service, in-home care or home-provider care, and a dependent care center as defined by Section 21 (b) (2) (D) of the Internal Revenue Code which is a specialized center with respect to short-term illnesses of an employee's dependents, provided the facility is located in this state and is operated under the authority of a license when required by state law.

(2) "Specialized center" means a facility which provides care to mildly ill children and which may do all of the following:

(A) Be staffed by pediatric nurses and day care workers.

(B) Admit children suffering from common childhood ailments (including colds, flu, and chickenpox).

(C) Make special arrangements for well children with minor problems associated with diabetes, asthma, breaks or sprains, and recuperation from surgery.

(D) Separate children according to their illness and symptoms in order to protect them from cross-infection.

(3) "Full-time qualified care plan" means an average of eight or more hours of dependent care per day for at least 42 weeks per year in a qualified care plan.

(4) "Part-time qualified care plan" means an average of two to eight hours of dependent care per day for at least 42 weeks per year in a qualified care plan.

(5) "Contributions" include employer reimbursements to employees for the employee's qualified care plan expenses, or direct payments to child care programs or providers, or both.

(6) The term "employee" includes, for any year, an individual who is an employee within the meaning of Section 401 (c) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to self-employed individuals).

(d) In the case where an employer makes contributions to a qualified care plan and also collects fees from parents to support a child care facility owned and operated by the employer, no credit shall be allowed under this section for contributions in the amount, if any, by which the sum of the contributions and fees exceed the total cost of providing care. The Franchise Tax Board may require information about fees collected from parents of children.

(e) In the case where the child care received is of less than 42-week duration, the employer shall claim a prorated portion of the allowable credit. The employer shall prorate the credit using the ratio of the number of weeks of care received divided by 42 weeks.

(f) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the "net tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "net tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary until the credit has been exhausted.

(g) The credit shall not be available to an employer if the care provided on behalf of an employee is provided by an individual who:

(1) Qualifies as a dependent of that employee or that employee's spouse under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 17054.

(2) Is (within the meaning of Section 17056) a son, stepson, daughter, or stepdaughter of that employee under the age of 19 at the close of that taxable year.

(h) The contributions to a qualified care plan shall not discriminate in favor of employees who are officers, owners, or highly compensated, or their dependents.

(i) No deduction shall be allowed as otherwise provided in this part for that portion of expenses paid or incurred for the taxable year which is equal to the amount of the credit allowed under this section.

(j) In the case where the credit is taken by an employer for contributions to a qualified care plan which is used at a facility owned by the employer, the basis of that facility shall be reduced by the amount of the credit. The basis adjustment shall be made for the taxable year for which the credit is allowed.

(k) With the exception of a husband and wife, if two or more taxpayers share in the costs eligible for the credit provided by this section, each taxpayer shall be eligible to receive a tax credit with respect to his, her, or its respective share of the costs paid or incurred. In the case of a husband and wife who file a separate return, the credit may be taken by either or equally divided between them.

(l) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (f), until the credit has been exhausted.

SEC. 3. Section 23617 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23617. (a) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, and before January 1, 1995, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (b).

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allowed by this section shall be 30 percent of either or both of the following:

(A) The cost paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after September 23, 1988, for the startup expenses of establishing a child care program or constructing a child care facility in California, to be used primarily by the children of the taxpayer's employees.

(B) The cost paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after September 23, 1988, for contributions to California child care information and referral services such as those which identify local child care services, offer information describing these resources to employees, and make referrals of employees to child care services where there are vacancies.

In the case of a child care facility established by two or more taxpayers, the credit shall be allowed if the facility is to be used primarily by the children of the employees of each of the taxpayers.

(2) The amount of the credit allowed by this section shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for any income year.

(c) For purposes of this section, "startup expenses" include, but are not limited to, feasibility studies, site preparation, and construction, renovation, or acquisition of facilities for purposes of establishing or expanding onsite or nearsite centers by one or more employers.

(d) If two or more taxpayers share in the costs eligible for the credit provided by this section, each taxpayer shall be eligible to receive a tax credit with respect to its respective share of the costs paid or incurred.

(e) (1) In the case where the credit allowed under subdivision (b) for the income year exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(2) If the credit carryovers from preceding income years allowed under paragraph (1) plus the credit allowed for the income year under subdivision (b) would exceed an aggregate total of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), then the credit allowed to reduce the "tax" under this section for the income year shall be limited to fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) and the amount in excess of the fifty thousand dollar ($50,000) limit may be carried over and applied against the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, in an amount which, when added to the credit allowed under subdivision (b) for that succeeding income year, does not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(f) No deduction shall be allowed as otherwise provided in this part for that portion of expenses paid or incurred for the income year which is equal to the amount of the credit allowed under this section attributable to those expenses.

(g) In lieu of claiming the tax credit provided by this section, the taxpayer may elect to take depreciation pursuant to Section 24371.5. In addition, the taxpayer may take depreciation pursuant to that section for the cost of a facility in excess of the amount of the tax credit claimed under this section.

(h) The basis for any child care facility for which a credit is allowed shall be reduced by the amount of the credit attributable to the facility. The basis adjustment shall be made for the taxable year for which the credit is allowed.

(i) (1) In order to be eligible for the credit allowed under subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), the taxpayer shall submit to the Franchise Tax Board upon request a statement certifying that the costs for which the credit is claimed are incurred with respect to the startup expenses of establishing a child care program or constructing a child care facility in California to be used primarily by the children of the taxpayer's employees and which will be in operation for at least 60 consecutive months after completion.

(2) If the child care center for which a credit is claimed pursuant to this section is disposed of or ceases to operate within 60 months after completion, that portion of the credit claimed which represents the remaining portion of the 60-month period shall be added to the taxpayer's tax liability in the income year of that disposition or nonuse.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (e), until the credit has been exhausted.

SEC. 4. Section 23617.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23617.5. (a) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, and before January 1, 1995, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (b).

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allowed by this section shall be 50 percent of the cost paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after September 23, 1988, for contributions to a qualified care plan made on behalf of any dependent of the taxpayer's California employee who is under the age of 15.

(2) The amount of the credit allowed by this section in any income year shall not exceed six hundred dollars ($600) for contributions to a full-time qualified care plan or a part-time qualified care plan made on behalf of the employee's dependent.

(c) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified care plan" includes, but is not limited to, onsite service, center-based service, in-home care or home-provider care, and a dependent care center as defined by Section 21(b)(2)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code which is a specialized center with respect to short-term illnesses of an employee's dependents, provided the facility is located in this state and is operated under the authority of a license when required by state law.

(2) "Specialized center" means a facility which provides care to mildly ill children and which may do all of the following:

(A) Be staffed by pediatric nurses and day care workers.

(B) Admit children suffering from common childhood ailments (including colds, flu, and chickenpox).

(C) Make special arrangements for well children with minor problems associated with diabetes, asthma, breaks or sprains, and recuperation from surgery.

(D) Separate children according to their illness and symptoms in order to protect them from cross-infection.

(3) "Full-time qualified care plan" means an average of eight or more hours of dependent care per day for at least 42 weeks per year in a qualified care plan.

(4) "Part-time qualified care plan" means an average of two to eight hours of dependent care per day for at least 42 weeks per year in a qualified care plan.

(5) "Contributions" include employer reimbursements to employees for the employee's qualified care plan expenses, or direct payments to child care programs or providers, or both.

(6) The term "employee" includes, for any year, an individual who is an employee within the meaning of Section 401 (c) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to self-employed individuals).

(d) In the case where an employer makes contributions to a qualified care plan and also collects fees from parents to support a child care facility owned and operated by the employer, no credit shall be allowed under this section for contributions in the amount, if any, by which the sum of the contributions and fees exceed the total cost of providing care. The Franchise Tax Board may require information about fees collected from parents of children served in the facility from taxpayers claiming credits under this section.

(e) In the case where the child care received is of less than 42-week duration, the employer shall claim a prorated portion of the allowable credit. The employer shall prorate the credit using the ratio of the number of weeks of care received divided by 42 weeks.

(f) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(g) The credit shall not be available to an employer if the care provided on behalf of an employee is provided by an individual who:

(1) Qualifies as a dependent of that employee or that employee's spouse under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 17054.

(2) Is (within the meaning of Section 17056) a son, stepson, daughter, or stepdaughter of that employee under the age of 19 at the close of that taxable year.

(h) The contributions to a qualified care plan shall not discriminate in favor of employees who are officers, owners, or highly compensated, or their dependents.

(i) No deduction shall be allowed as otherwise provided in this part for that portion of expenses paid or incurred for the income year which is equal to the amount of the credit allowed under this section.

(j) In the case where the credit is taken by an employer for contributions to a qualified care plan which is used at a facility owned by the employer, the basis of that facility shall be reduced by the amount of the credit. The basis adjustment shall be made for the income year for which the credit is allowed.

(k) If two or more taxpayers share in the costs eligible for the credit provided by this section, each taxpayer shall be eligible to receive a tax credit with respect to its respective share of the costs paid or incurred.

(l) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (f), until the credit has been exhausted.

SEC. 5. The Child Development Programs Advisory Committee established pursuant to Section 8286 of the Education Code shall coordinate outreach efforts to inform employers about the availability of the child care tax credits provided by this act.

SEC. 6. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the California Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, unless otherwise specifically provided, the provisions of this act shall be applied in the computation of taxes for taxable or income years beginning on or after January 1, 1991.

CHAPTER 477

An act to amend Sections 18504, 18512, 18513, 18525, 18545, and 18765 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18504 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18504. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), or the adjusted amount specified in subdivision (c), as may be applicable, then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) For each calendar year, beginning with calendar year 1992, the Franchise Tax Board shall adjust, on or before September 1 of that calendar year, the minimum estimated contribution amount specified in subdivision (b) as follows:

(1) The minimum estimated contribution amount for the calendar year shall be an amount equal to the product of the minimum estimated contribution amount for the prior September 1 multiplied by the inflation factor adjustment as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041, rounded off to the nearest dollar.

(2) The inflation factor adjustment used for the calendar year shall be based on the figures for the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index received on or before August 1 of the calendar year pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

(d) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 2. Section 18512 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18512. (a) All money transferred to the California Fund for Senior Citizens pursuant to Section 18511, upon appropriation by the Legislature, shall be allocated as follows:

(1) To the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller for reimbursement of all costs incurred by the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller in connection with their duties under this article.

(2) To the California Commission on Aging for allocation as follows:

(A) To the California Senior Legislature, in the 1988–89 fiscal year, and each succeeding fiscal year thereafter, the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000), or the balance of the fund if less than that amount remains in the fund, for the conduct of sessions of the California Senior Legislature.

(B) The balance, if any, but not to exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), to the California Senior Legislature for its ongoing activities on behalf of older persons.

Thirty-three thousand dollars ($33,000) of the balance allocated under this subparagraph, or the entire balance allocated under this subparagraph if the balance is less than thirty-three thousand dollars ($33,000), shall be specifically allocated annually for the conduct of elections of members of the California Senior Legislature. That amount may be carried over from fiscal years in which there are no elections and accumulated, in an amount not to exceed sixty-six thousand dollars ($66,000), for use in election years, and any portion of that amount not used in an election year shall be reallocated pursuant to subparagraph (C).

(C) The balance, if any, to the commission for senior citizen direct service programs through contracts with the Department of Aging and Long-Term Care.

(b) All moneys allocated pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) may be carried over from the year in which they were received and encumbered in any following year.

(c) The amount allocated pursuant to subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) may be adjusted annually, as determined by the Department of Finance, to reflect changes in salary adjustments, price increases, and travel reimbursement adjustments included for all state agencies in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 3. Section 18513 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18513. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), or the adjusted amount specified in subdivision (c), as may be applicable, then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) For each calendar year, beginning with calendar year 1992, the Franchise Tax Board shall adjust, on or before September 1 of that calendar year, the minimum estimated contribution amount specified in subdivision (b) as follows:

(1) The minimum estimated contribution amount for the calendar year shall be an amount equal to the product of the minimum estimated contribution amount for the prior September 1 multiplied by the inflation factor adjustment as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041, rounded off to the nearest dollar.

(2) The inflation factor adjustment used for the calendar year shall be based on the figures for the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index received on or before August 1 of the calendar year pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

(d) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 4. Section 18525 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18525. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), or the adjusted amount specified in subdivision (c), as may be applicable, then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) For each calendar year, beginning with calendar year 1992, the Franchise Tax Board shall adjust, on or before September 1 of that calendar year, the minimum estimated contribution amount specified in subdivision (b) as follows:

(1) The minimum estimated contribution amount for the calendar year shall be an amount equal to the product of the minimum estimated contribution amount for the prior September 1 multiplied by the inflation factor adjustment as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041, rounded off to the nearest dollar.

(2) The inflation factor adjustment used for the calendar year shall be based on the figures for the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index received on or before August 1 of the calendar year pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

(d) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 5. Section 18545 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18545. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date, is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), or the adjusted amount specified in subdivision (c), as may be applicable, then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) For each calendar year, beginning with calendar year 1992, the Franchise Tax Board shall adjust, on or before September 1 of that calendar year, the minimum estimated contribution amount specified in subdivision (b) as follows:

(1) The minimum estimated contribution amount for the calendar year shall be an amount equal to the product of the minimum estimated contribution amount for the prior September 1 multiplied by the inflation factor adjustment as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041, rounded off to the nearest dollar.

(2) The inflation factor adjustment used for the calendar year shall be based on the figures for the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index received on or before August 1 of the calendar year pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

(d) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 6. Section 18765 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18765. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 478

An act to amend Sections 18594, 19059, 19062.3, 25667, 26077, and 26080.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18594 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18594. Two copies of the appeal and two copies of any supporting documents shall be addressed and mailed to the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, California. Upon receipt of the appeal, the board shall provide one copy of the appeal and one copy of any supporting documents to the Franchise Tax Board at Sacramento, California.

SEC. 2. Section 19059 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19059. Two copies of the appeal and two copies of any supporting documents shall be addressed and mailed to the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, California. Upon receipt of the appeal, the board shall provide one copy of the appeal and one copy of any supporting documents to the Franchise Tax Board at Sacramento, California.

SEC. 3. Section 19062.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19062.3. Two copies of the appeal and two copies of any supporting documents shall be addressed and mailed to the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, California. Upon receipt of the appeal, the board shall provide one copy of the appeal and one copy of any supporting documents to the Franchise Tax Board at Sacramento, California.

SEC. 4. Section 25667 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25667. Two copies of the appeal and two copies of any supporting documents shall be addressed and mailed to the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, California. Upon receipt of the appeal, the board shall provide one copy of the appeal and one copy of any supporting documents to the Franchise Tax Board at Sacramento, California. The board shall hear and determine the appeal and forthwith notify the taxpayer and the Franchise Tax Board of its determination and the reasons therefor. The board's determination shall be final upon the expiration of 30 days from the time of the determination unless within the 30-day period the taxpayer or the Franchise Tax Board files a petition for rehearing with the board. In that event the board's determination shall not become final until the expiration of 30 days from the time the board issues its opinion on the petition.

SEC. 5. Section 26077 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

26077. Two copies of the appeal and two copies of any supporting documents shall be addressed and mailed to the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, California. Upon receipt of the appeal, the board shall provide one copy of the appeal and one copy of any supporting documents to the Franchise Tax Board at Sacramento, California. The board shall hear and determine the appeal and thereafter notify the taxpayer and the Franchise Tax Board of its determination and the reasons therefor. The board's determination shall be final upon the expiration of 30 days from the time of the determination unless the taxpayer or the Franchise Tax Board files a petition for rehearing with the board within the 30-day period. In that event the board's determination shall not become final until the expiration of 30 days from the date the board issues its opinion on the petition.

SEC. 6. Section 26080.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

26080.1. (a) If the Franchise Tax Board disallows interest on any claim for refund, it shall notify the taxpayer accordingly. At the expiration of 90 days from the mailing of the notice, the Franchise Tax Board's action upon the disallowance of the interest shall be final unless within such 90-day period, the taxpayer appeals in writing from the action of the Franchise Tax Board to the State Board of Equalization. Two copies of the appeal and two copies of any supporting documents shall be addressed and mailed to the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, California. Upon receipt of the appeal, the board shall provide one copy of the appeal and one copy of any supporting documents to the Franchise Tax Board at Sacramento, California. The board shall hear and determine the appeal and thereafter notify the taxpayer and the Franchise Tax Board of its determination and the reasons therefor. The determination shall be final upon the expiration of 30 days from the time of the determination unless within the 30-day period the taxpayer or the Franchise Tax Board files a petition for rehearing with the board. In that event, the board's determination shall not become final until the expiration of 30 days from the time the board issues its opinion on the petition.

(b) Within 90 days after the mailing of the notice of the Franchise Tax Board's action disallowing interest upon any refund claim, or in the case of an appeal to the State Board of Equalization from the disallowance of interest on any refund claim, within 90 days after the mailing of the notice of the board's determination of the appeal the taxpayer may bring an action against the Franchise Tax Board on the grounds set forth for interest in the claim for the recovery of the interest.

If the Franchise Tax Board fails to mail notice of action of disallowance of interest on any refund claim within six months after the interest was claimed, the taxpayer may, prior to mailing of notice of action of disallowance of interest on the refund claim, consider the interest disallowed and bring an action against the Franchise Tax Board on the grounds set forth for interest in the claim for the recovery of the interest.

CHAPTER 479

An act to amend Sections 7056, 18433, and 21022 of, and to add Section 18470.1 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7056 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 236 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

7056. (a) (1) Excepting the information set forth on permits issued under Article 2 (commencing with Section 6066) of Chapter 2, the information set forth on certificates of registration issued pursuant to Section 6226, and the terms of any settlement made pursuant to Section 7093, it is unlawful for the board, any person having an administrative duty under this part or any person who obtains access to information contained in, or derived from, sales or transactions and use tax records of the board pursuant to subdivision (b), to make known in any manner whatever the business affairs, operations, or any other information pertaining to any retailer or any other person required to report to the board or pay a tax pursuant to this part, or the amount or source of income, profits, losses, expenditures, or any particular thereof, set forth or disclosed in any return, or to permit any return or copy thereof or any book containing any abstract or particulars thereof to be seen or examined by any person.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1) and (2), the Governor may, by general or special order, authorize examination by other state officers, by tax officers of another state, by the federal government, if a reciprocal arrangement exists, or by any other person of the records maintained by the board under this part. The information so obtained pursuant to the order of the Governor shall not be made public except to the extent and in the manner that the order may authorize that it be made public.

(b) When requested by resolution of the legislative body of any county, city and county, city, or district, the board shall permit any duly authorized officer or employee of the county, city and county, city, or district, or other person designated by that resolution, to examine all of the sales or transactions and use tax records of the board pertaining to sales or transactions and use taxes collected for the county, city and county, city, or district by the board pursuant to contract entered into between the board and the county, city and county, city, or district under the Bradley-Burns Uniform Local Sales and Use Tax Law (Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 7200)) or the Transactions and Use Tax Law (Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251)).

(1) The resolution shall certify that any person designated by the resolution, other than an officer or employee, meets all of the following conditions:

(A) Has an existing contract with the county, city and county, city, or district to examine those sales and use tax records.

(B) Is required by that contract to disclose information contained in, or derived from, those sales or transactions and use tax records only to an officer or employee of the county, city and county, city, or district who is authorized by the resolution to examine the information.

(C) Is prohibited by that contract from performing consulting services for a retailer during the term of that contract.

(D) Is prohibited by that contract from retaining the information contained in, or derived from, those sales or transactions and use tax records, after that contract has expired.

(2) Information obtained by examination of board records as permitted in this subdivision shall be used only for purposes related to the collection of local sales or transactions and use taxes by the board pursuant to the contract, or for purposes related to other governmental functions of the county, city and county, city, or district set forth in the resolution.

(c) If the board believes that any information obtained pursuant to subdivision (b) has been disclosed to any person not authorized or designated by the resolution of the legislative body of the county, city and county, city, or district, or has been used for purposes not permitted by subdivision (b), then notwithstanding subdivision (b), the board may impose conditions on access to its sales and use tax records which the board considers reasonable, in order to protect the confidentiality of those records.

(d) Predecessors, successors, receivers, trustees, executors, administrators, assignees, and guarantors, if directly interested, may be given information as to the items included in the measure and amounts of any unpaid tax or amounts of tax required to be collected, interest, and penalties.

SEC. 2. Section 18433 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18433. (a) The Franchise Tax Board may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing any return, declaration, statement, or other document required by this part in the manner and form as the Franchise Tax Board may determine. Except for a taxpayer residing or traveling abroad, no extension shall be for more than six months. In the case of a taxpayer residing or traveling abroad, returns shall be filed no later than the 15th day of the sixth month following the close of the taxable year, unless the requirements for extension have been fulfilled on or before that date.

(b) An extension of time granted pursuant to this section or Section 21022 is not an extension of time for payment of tax required to be paid on or before the due date of the return without regard to extension. Underpayment of tax penalties shall be imposed as provided by law without regard to any extension granted under this section or Section 21022.

(c) A reasonable extension for payment of tax required by this part may be granted by the Franchise Tax Board whenever in its judgment good cause exists.

(d) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to returns required to be filed on or after April 15, 1992.

SEC. 3. Section 18470.1 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18470.1. (a) The individuals described in Sections 18434 and 18470 shall include those described in Section 7508 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by Section 1 of Public Law 102-2.

(b) For purposes of determining interest on overpayments and refunds to which the benefits of Sections 18434 and 18470 apply, Section 7508(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by Section 1 of Public Law 102-2, shall apply.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 17034, this section shall be operative without regard to taxable years and shall be operative with respect to any actions specified in Sections 18434 and 18470 that are required or permitted to be taken on or after August 2, 1990.

SEC. 4. Section 21022 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

21022. (a) A taxpayer shall be granted an extension of time for filing a return pursuant to Section 18433 if the taxpayer qualified for a federal extension.

(b) An extension of time granted pursuant to this section or Section 18433 is not an extension of time for payment of tax required to be paid on or before the due date of the return without regard to extension. Underpayment of tax penalties shall be imposed as provided by law without regard to any extension granted under this section or Section 18433.

(c) This section shall apply to returns required to be filed on or after April 15, 1992.

SEC. 5. The Legislature finds and declares that Section 3 of this act serves a public purpose as follows:

(a) The operative date of Section 2 is intended to conform to the operative date of Public Law 102-2, approved by the President on January 31, 1991, which is entitled, "An act to extend the time for performing certain acts under the internal revenue laws for individuals performing services as part of the Desert Shield Operation."

(b) The service provided by individuals performing Desert Shield service benefits the entire citizenry of the state.

(c) Failure to conform to the provisions of subsection (d) of Section 1 of Public Law 102-2 may cause undue hardship to individuals performing Desert Shield service.

(d) Failure to conform to the provisions of subsection (d) of Section 1 of Public Law 102-2, which provide that the amendments made by that law shall take effect on August 2, 1990, may result in increased administrative costs to the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that state taxes are properly and fairly imposed and administered as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 480

An act to amend Sections 18504, 18512, 18513, 18514, 18525, 18545, and 18765 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18504 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18504. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), or the adjusted amount specified in subdivision (c), as may be applicable, then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) For each calendar year, beginning with calendar year 1992, the Franchise Tax Board shall adjust, on or before September 1 of that calendar year, the minimum estimated contribution amount specified in subdivision (b) as follows:

(1) The minimum estimated contribution amount for the calendar year shall be an amount equal to the product of the minimum estimated contribution amount for the prior September 1 multiplied by the inflation factor adjustment as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041, rounded off to the nearest dollar.

(2) The inflation factor adjustment used for the calendar year shall be based on the figures for the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index received on or before August 1 of the calendar year pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

(d) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 2. Section 18512 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18512. (a) All money transferred to the California Fund for Senior Citizens pursuant to Section 18511, upon appropriation by the Legislature, shall be allocated as follows:

(1) To the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller for reimbursement of all costs incurred by the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller in connection with their duties under this article.

(2) To the California Commission on Aging for allocation as follows:

(A) To the California Senior Legislature, in the 1988–89 fiscal year, and each succeeding fiscal year thereafter, the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000), or the balance of the fund if less than that amount remains in the fund, for the conduct of sessions of the California Senior Legislature.

(B) The balance, if any, but not to exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), to the California Senior Legislature for its ongoing activities on behalf of older persons.

Thirty-three thousand dollars ($33,000) of the balance allocated under this subparagraph, or the entire balance allocated under this subparagraph if the balance is less than thirty-three thousand dollars ($33,000), shall be specifically allocated annually for the conduct of elections of members of the California Senior Legislature. That amount may be carried over from fiscal years in which there are no elections and accumulated, in an amount not to exceed sixty-six thousand dollars ($66,000), for use in election years, and any portion of that amount not used in an election year shall be reallocated pursuant to subparagraph (C).

(C) The balance, if any, to the commission for senior citizen direct service programs through contracts with the Department of Aging and Long-Term Care.

(b) All moneys allocated pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision

(a) may be carried over from the year in which they were received and encumbered in any following year.

(c) The amount allocated pursuant to subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) may be adjusted annually, as determined by the Department of Finance, to reflect changes in salary adjustments, price increases, and travel reimbursement adjustments included for all state agencies in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 3. Section 18513 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18513. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), or the adjusted amount specified in subdivision (c), as may be applicable, then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) For each calendar year, beginning with calendar year 1992, the Franchise Tax Board shall adjust, on or before September 1 of that calendar year, the minimum estimated contribution amount specified in subdivision (b) as follows:

(1) The minimum estimated contribution amount for the calendar year shall be an amount equal to the product of the minimum estimated contribution amount for the prior September 1 multiplied by the inflation factor adjustment as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041, rounded off to the nearest dollar.

(2) The inflation factor adjustment used for the calendar year shall be based on the figures for the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index received on or before August 1 of the calendar year pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

(d) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 4. Section 18514 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18514. (a) Any taxpayer who is allowed the credit under subdivision (c) of Section 17054 may designate on the tax return that a contribution is being made in an amount not to exceed the amount of the credit which is to be paid to the California Seniors Special Fund.

(b) The contribution may be made individually by each eligible signatory on the joint return who is allowed the credit under subdivision (c) of Section 17054.

(c) The taxpayer's return shall be treated as if no designation is made under this article if either of the following apply:

(1) Credits reported on the return are insufficient to cover the amount of the contribution.

(2) The payments received from the taxpayer are insufficient to cover the amount of tax owed plus the contribution.

(d) A designation under subdivision (a) shall be made for any taxable year on the initial return for that taxable year, and once made shall be irrevocable.

(e) The Franchise Tax Board shall revise the forms of the return to allow for the designation permitted under subdivision (a).

(f) A deduction shall be allowed under Article 6 (commencing with Section 17201) of Chapter 3 for any contribution made pursuant to subdivision (a).

SEC. 5. Section 18525 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18525. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), or the adjusted amount specified in subdivision (c), as may be applicable, then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) For each calendar year, beginning with calendar year 1992, the Franchise Tax Board shall adjust, on or before September 1 of that calendar year, the minimum estimated contribution amount specified in subdivision (b) as follows:

(1) The minimum estimated contribution amount for the calendar year shall be an amount equal to the product of the minimum estimated contribution amount for the prior September 1 multiplied by the inflation factor adjustment as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041, rounded off to the nearest dollar.

(2) The inflation factor adjustment used for the calendar year shall be based on the figures for the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index received on or before August 1 of the calendar year pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

(d) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 6. Section 18545 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18545. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date, is repealed unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), or the adjusted amount specified in subdivision (c), as may be applicable, then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) For each calendar year, beginning with calendar year 1992, the Franchise Tax Board shall adjust, on or before September 1 of that calendar year, the minimum estimated contribution amount specified in subdivision (b) as follows:

(1) The minimum estimated contribution amount for the calendar year shall be an amount equal to the product of the minimum estimated contribution amount for the prior September 1 multiplied by the inflation factor adjustment as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041, rounded off to the nearest dollar.

(2) The inflation factor adjustment used for the calendar year shall be based on the figures for the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index received on or before August 1 of the calendar year pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

(d) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 7. Section 18765 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18765. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 481

An act to amend Sections 18513 and 18765 of, and to add and repeal Article 6.8 (commencing with Section 18516) of Chapter 17 of Part 10 of Division 2 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 2, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the state personal income tax check-off for the California Vietnam Veterans Memorial was an effective method to provide funds for its construction and maintenance. It is the intent of the Legislature to provide a similar opportunity for taxpayers to contribute to the construction of a memorial to all veterans, that will be located on the State Capitol grounds. The goal of this act is to raise an estimated two million dollars ($2,000,000) to enable the California Veterans Memorial Commission to construct that memorial.

SEC. 2. Section 18513 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18513. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), or the adjusted amount specified in subdivision (c), as may be applicable, then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) For each calendar year, beginning with calendar year 1992, the Franchise Tax Board shall adjust, on or before September 1 of that calendar year, the minimum estimated contribution amount specified in subdivision (b) as follows:

(1) The minimum estimated contribution amount for the calendar year shall be an amount equal to the product of the minimum estimated contribution amount for the prior September 1 multiplied by the inflation factor adjustment as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041, rounded off to the nearest dollar.

(2) The inflation factor adjustment used for the calendar year shall be based on the figures for the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index received on or before August 1 of the calendar year pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

(d) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 3. Article 6.8 (commencing with Section 18516) is added to Chapter 17 of Part 10 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 6.8. Designations for the Veterans Memorial Account

18516. (a) Any taxpayer may designate on the tax return that a contribution in excess of the tax liability, if any, be made to the Veterans Memorial Account in the General Fund, as established pursuant to Section 1316 of the Military and Veterans Code.

(b) The contribution shall be in full dollar amounts and may be made individually by each signatory on the joint return.

(c) A designation under subdivision (a) shall be made for any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and before January 1, 1997, on the initial return for that taxable year, and once made shall be irrevocable.

In the event that payments and credits reported on the return, together with any other credits associated with the taxpayer's account, do not exceed the tax liability, if any, shown thereupon, the return shall be treated as though no designation had been made.

If the amount designated exceeds the amount actually available for designation, the amount designated shall be adjusted to correspond to the amount actually available for designation.

(d) In the event a taxpayer designates a contribution to more than one account, and the amount available is insufficient to satisfy the total amount designated, the contribution shall be allocated among the designees on a pro rata basis.

(e) The Franchise Tax Board shall revise the forms of the return to include a space labeled the Veterans Memorial Account to allow for the designation permitted under subdivision (a). The forms shall also include in the instructions the information that the contribution may be in the amount of one dollar ($1) or more and that the contribution shall be used to build a memorial to California veterans.

(f) A deduction shall be allowed under Article 6 (commencing with Section 17201) of Chapter 3 for any contribution made pursuant to subdivision (a).

18516.1. The Franchise Tax Board shall determine annually the total amount designated pursuant to this article and shall notify the Controller of that amount.

The Controller shall transfer from the Personal Income Tax Fund to the Veterans Memorial Account in the General Fund an amount equal to the total amount designated by individuals pursuant to Section 18516 for payment into that account.

18516.2. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all money transferred to the Veterans Memorial Account in the General Fund pursuant to Section 18516.1 is hereby continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal years, for allocation as follows:

(a) To the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller for reimbursement of all costs incurred by the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller in connection with their duties under this article.

(b) (1) To the Veterans Memorial Commission established pursuant to Section 1310 of the Military and Veterans Code for use in the construction, maintenance, and operation of a suitable memorial to veterans at the State Capitol, including the amount of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for purposes of repair of the memorial. Any modifications or alterations of, or addition to, the Veterans Memorial shall be performed in accordance with criteria established by the Veterans Memorial Commission.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, "operation" includes, but is not limited to, developing and publishing informational brochures for the memorial, producing an information film about the memorial, and conducting tours of the memorial.

(c) If moneys in the account exceed the amount required to construct, improve, maintain, or repair a Veterans Memorial, the balance shall be allocated by the Veterans Memorial Commission to be used for the construction, improvement, or repair of other veterans' memorials as designated by that commission.

(d) Any moneys allocated to the Veterans Memorial Commission pursuant to subdivision (c) may be deposited by that commission in a trust account in a private financial institution.

(e) Those moneys identified in subdivision (b) for the purpose of the repair of the Veterans Memorial may be deposited in a separate special account to be disbursed as required by the Director of Veterans Affairs.

18516.3. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes that date, in which event subdivision (b) shall apply.

(b) If the repeal date specified in subdivision (a) has been deleted and if, thereafter, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), or the adjusted amount specified in subdivision (c), as may be applicable, then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. If necessary, for years after the repeal date in subdivision (a) is deleted, the Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) For each calendar year, beginning with calendar year 1992, the Franchise Tax Board shall adjust, on or before September 1 of that calendar year, the minimum estimated contribution amount specified in subdivision (b) as follows:

(1) The minimum estimated contribution amount for the calendar year shall be an amount equal to the product of the minimum estimated contribution amount for the prior September 1 multiplied by the inflation factor adjustment as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041, rounded off to the nearest dollar.

(2) The inflation factor adjustment used for the calendar year shall be based on the figures for the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index received on or before August 1 of the calendar year pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

(d) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 4. Section 18765 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18765. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 482

An act to amend Section 741 of, and to add Section 729.11 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 3, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 4, 1991.]

I am deleting the $1,500,000 Federal fund appropriation contained in Section 4 of Assembly Bill No. 124

The Budget Act of 1991 appropriates $1 5 million for the Juvenile Offender Substance Abuse Treatment Program. The appropriation in this bill, therefore, is unnecessary

With the above deletion, I hereby approve Assembly Bill No. 124.

PETE WILSON, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) National and state surveys have determined that over 75 percent of all youthful offenders taken into custody abuse drugs, alcohol, or both, or are in imminent danger of becoming drug or alcohol dependent.

(b) Inadequate resources exist for county probation departments throughout the state to plan or respond with effective substance abuse intervention strategies for the thousands of youths detained in juvenile halls annually.

(c) Federal or state funds are essential to permit chief probation officers to initiate individual substance abuse assessment profiles that would enable them to refer youth to appropriate community-based or targeted juvenile justice system treatment programs.

(d) Federal or state funds are essential for county juvenile facilities such as camps and ranches to ensure effective substance intervention treatment strategies for incarcerated youth at the local level, rather than allowing substance abuse dependence to be the basis for continued criminality and incarceration.

SEC. 2. Section 729.11 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

729.11. (a) There is hereby established within the Office of Criminal Justice Planning, a demonstration program known as the "Juvenile Offender Substance Abuse Treatment Program." The goal of the demonstration program shall be to provide substance abuse intervention options for the juvenile courts.

(b) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall establish a county probation department demonstration project in at least three counties which shall be selected from among those counties submitting applications to the office. The demonstration projects shall be limited to the treatment of delinquent youth who have been assessed to be substance dependent or in imminent danger of substance dependence. Eligible youth will be those over which the juvenile court has retained jurisdiction pursuant to Section 602.

(c) The goals and functions of each demonstration project shall include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Development of substance assessment screening instruments at each project to be used at intake to classify the juvenile for possible placement in the program.

(2) Intensive in-custody substance abuse programs, including drug and alcohol education, individual and group counseling, family counseling, job training, self-esteem and personal motivation, life skills, and a volunteer mentor support network.

(d) Wards placed in custody shall be assigned to substance intervention team staff trained in program elements based on a reduced caseload.

(e) All wards who complete an in-custody substance abuse program or those placed directly on probation by the courts who require substance abuse intervention shall be transferred to an intensive aftercare or maximum supervision probation caseload. Wards assigned to these intensive caseloads may be required to meet intensive surveillance standards, including antidrug testing, day reporting, frequent contact with the probation officer, frequent contact with a therapist, and participation in designated community service substance prevention work projects for selected youth.

During this period of supervision, program elements, similar to those provided within juvenile custodial facilities, shall be established in the community for individual probationers, and their families, by designated intervention team staff. The "intervention team staff" shall include a probation officer, a treatment counselor, an educator, and job counselor.

(f) The development of the programs specified in subdivisions (c), (d), and (e) shall be in consultation with the county drug and alcohol administrator to assure appropriate program standards and to assure that the program is not duplicative, and that it is coordinated with California's Drug and Alcohol Abuse Master Plan, as specified in Section 11998.1 of the Health and Safety Code.

(g) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall submit a final evaluation of the demonstration projects to the Legislature within six months after the completion of the two-year demonstration project. The selected demonstration projects shall cooperate with the Office of Criminal Justice Planning in the writing of the final evaluation.

(h) The demonstration program shall be a two-year program and is contingent upon the availability and receipt of federal Anti-Drug Abuse Act funding. The first-year funding of the program shall be appropriated from moneys received by the Office of Criminal Justice Planning pursuant to the federal Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988 (Public Law 100-690). The second year of funding the program shall be provided by the selected demonstration program projects.

SEC. 3. Section 741 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

741. The juvenile court may, in any case before it in which a petition has been filed as provided in Article 16 (commencing with Section 650), order that the probation officer obtain the services of such psychiatrists, psychologists, physicians and surgeons, dentists, optometrists, audiologists, or other clinical experts as may be required to assist in determining the appropriate treatment of the minor and as may be required in the conduct or implementation of the treatment. Payment for the services shall be a charge against the county.

Whenever diagnosis or treatment pursuant to this section is due to, or related to, drug or alcohol use, the cost thereof shall be considered for the use of funds made available to the county from state or federal sources for the purpose of providing care and treatment for drug- and alcohol-related illness or for drug or alcohol abuse.

SEC. 4. The sum of one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) is hereby appropriated from moneys received by the Office of Criminal Justice Planning through the 1991–92 Budget Act from moneys received pursuant to the federal Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988 (Public Law 100-690) to fund the first year of demonstration projects pursuant to Section 729.11 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and to defray the costs of the Office of Criminal Justice Planning in evaluating these projects pursuant to that section. The demonstration projects that are selected shall provide the funding for the second year of this program.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide urgently needed drug treatment and rehabilitation programs to juvenile offenders and their families, it is necessary that this act take effect at the earliest possible time.

CHAPTER 483

An act to add and repeal Section 273.88 of the Penal Code, relating to domestic violence.

[Approved by Governor October 3, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 4, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 273.88 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

273.88. (a) It is the Legislature's intent that the Office of Criminal Justice Planning conduct a pilot project to collect statistics on domestic violence prosecution from three counties which have established a vertical prosecution program for spousal abusers pursuant to this chapter.

(b) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall establish a pilot project, pursuant to this section, to operate in the Counties of Sacramento, Los Angeles, and Humboldt.

(c) Each law enforcement agency in the Counties of Sacramento and Humboldt shall submit to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning, on a quarterly basis, the following information:

(1) Number of domestic violence reports made and written.

(2) Total number of domestic violence felony and misdemeanor arrests.

(3) Number of domestic violence calls which involved a restraining order.

(4) Number of referrals made by law enforcement relating to domestic violence.

(5) Number of domestic violence training programs law enforcement participates in, including, but not limited to, training of domestic violence counselors at local shelters and attendance and participation in Office of Criminal Justice Planning, Department of Justice, and Peace Officer Standards and Training statewide training conferences.

(d) With regard to Los Angeles County, the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office shall identify three stations that are representative of the county's ethnic and socioeconomic breakdown of the population and the crime ratio for domestic violence for the purposes of this section. The Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office shall submit to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning, on a quarterly basis, the information outlined in subdivision (c), as obtained with regard to the three stations identified as representative pursuant to this subdivision.

(e) Each district attorney's office or city attorney's office having misdemeanor jurisdiction in the counties specified in subdivision (b) shall submit to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning, on a quarterly basis, the following information:

(1) Number of spousal abuse cases referred to that office for possible filing.

(2) Number of spousal abuse cases filed for felony prosecution.

(3) Number of spousal abuse cases filed for misdemeanor prosecution.

(4) Number of spousal abuse cases sent to diversion.

(5) Number of spousal abuse cases tried which were dismissed and number of defendants acquitted.

(6) Number of spousal abuse cases resulting in conviction.

(7) Number of repeat spousal abuse offenders.

(8) Number of protective order violations where the protective order was the result of a spousal abuse case.

(9) Number of homicides where the victim was a spouse, cohabitant, girlfriend, ex-spouse, ex-cohabitant, or ex-girlfriend.

(10) Number of homicides where the victim had a protective order against the defendant.

(11) Number of referrals by that office to local victim counseling centers, spousal abuse programs, and victim witness assistance programs.

(12) Number of domestic violence training programs in which that office participates, including, but not limited to, training of domestic violence counselors at local shelters and attendance and participation in Office of Criminal Justice Planning, Department of Justice, and Peace Officer Standards and Training statewide training conferences.

(f) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall work with the counties specified in subdivision (b) to develop a format to collect the information required pursuant to subdivisions (c) and (d).

(g) The Office of Criminal Justice Planning shall submit a report to the Legislature regarding the accomplishments of the pilot project. The report shall include, but not be limited to, a program evaluation and recommendations on the vertical prosecution program for spousal abusers pursuant to this chapter. The program evaluation shall include specific data on the number of domestic violence reports received and written, number of domestic violence felony and misdemeanor arrests, and prosecutions and convictions for those crimes as measured by the pilot project. The project shall be considered to have met its objectives if the arrest and conviction rate has increased 10 percent in one year. A statewide analysis and needs assessment shall be part of the report. The report shall be submitted on or before January 1, 1993.

(h) This section shall remain in effect until January 30, 1993, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. The mandate prescribed by this act shall become operative when financial resources become available to the Office of Criminal Justice Planning.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 484

An act to amend Sections 19535, 19605.6, 19605.7, 19605.71, 19605.8, 19606, and 19608.9 of, and to repeal Sections 19535 and 19605.73 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing.

[Approved by Governor October 3, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 4, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19535 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 970 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

19535. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, at the time the board allocates racing weeks, it shall determine the number of usable stalls that each association or fair shall make available and maintain in order to conduct the racing meeting. The minimum number of stalls may be at the site of the racing meeting or at board-approved offsite locations.

(b) With respect to racing meetings conducted in the northern zone, the association or fair conducting the meeting shall provide all stabling required by the board pursuant to subdivision (a) without cost to participating horsemen. Offsite stabling shall be at a board approved facility or facilities selected by the association or fair, with the agreement of the organization representing horsemen participating at the meeting. If there is a disagreement between the association or fair and the organization representing the majority of horsemen participating at the meeting with respect to the selection of offsite stabling facilities, the board, at the request of the association or fair or the organization representing the majority of horsemen participating at the meeting, shall promptly determine the board-approved facility or facilities at which offsite stabling shall be made available. The organization representing horsemen participating at the meeting and the association or fair shall mutually agree on the criteria and selection of horses that may use stalls required pursuant to this section. With respect to northern zone thoroughbred meetings only, the association shall also provide, at the option of the horse owner, vanning of participating racehorses from any board-approved offsite stabling facility in the northern zone.

(c) With respect to racing meetings conducted in the central or southern zones, all costs associated with the maintenance of the usable stalls for the racing meeting shall be borne by the association or fair conducting the meeting, and, with respect to usable stalls at an offsite location, the association or fair may be required, by order of the board, to bear the costs of vanning from the offsite location to the racing meeting. However, with respect to any racing association in the central or southern zone that conducted a racing meeting in 1986, if the number of usable stalls made available onsite by a racing association during a racing meeting is less than 95 percent of the number of usable stalls made available onsite by that racing association during its 1986 racing meeting, the racing association shall reimburse the facility providing offsite stabling for the difference in cost between the actual number of usable stalls made available and 95 percent of the usable stalls made available in 1986.

The racing association shall, in addition, reimburse the owner for vanning to the onsite location with respect to those horses stabled at an offsite location necessitated by the failure of a racing association to maintain 95 percent of the usable stalls made available by that racing association during its 1986 racing meeting.

SEC. 2. Section 19535 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Section 2 of Chapter 970 of the Statutes of 1989, is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 19605.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19605.6. (a) In addition to satellite wagering facilities authorized pursuant to Sections 19605, 19605.1, and 19605.2, the board, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, may authorize any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair in the County of Kern or Santa Barbara, eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, to operate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds even though the fair is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting, and the fair may operate the facilities except for those functions to be performed by an organization described in Section 19608.2. Except as otherwise provided in this section, Sections 19605, 19605.3, 19605.4, 19605.7, 19605.71, 19605.8, 19606, 19606.1, 19606.2, 19606.3, and 19606.4 apply to satellite wagering facilities authorized pursuant to this section. A satellite wagering facility in the County of Kern or Santa Barbara may receive the audiovisual signal from the northern, central, or southern zone, or from more than one of these zones at the same time.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that, prior to extending the termination date in subdivision (d), the Legislature shall find that the multisignal authorized by this section is successful.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the board provide, when feasible, for periods of at least 10 minutes between post times at the satellite wagering facilities operating under this section.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3.5. Section 19605.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19605.6. (a) In addition to satellite wagering facilities authorized pursuant to Sections 19605, 19605.1, and 19605.2, the board, with the approval of the Department of Food and Agriculture, may authorize any county fair, district agricultural association fair, or citrus fruit fair in the County of Kern or Santa Barbara, eligible for an allocation of racing days pursuant to Section 19549, to operate a satellite wagering facility at its fairgrounds even though the fair is not licensed to conduct a racing meeting, and the fair may operate the facilities except for those functions to be performed by an organization described in Section 19608.2. Except as otherwise provided in this section, Sections 19605, 19605.3, 19605.4, 19605.7, 19605.71, 19605.8, 19606, 19606.1, 19606.3, and 19606.4 apply to satellite wagering facilities authorized pursuant to this section. A satellite wagering facility in the County of Kern, Fresno, Tulare, Santa Barbara, or Ventura, may receive the audiovisual signal from the northern, central, or southern zone, or from more than one of these zones at the same time.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that, prior to extending the termination date in subdivision (d), the Legislature shall find that the multisignal authorized by this section is successful.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that the board provide, when feasible, for periods of at least 10 minutes between post times at the satellite wagering facilities operating under this section.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 19605.7 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 317 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

19605.7. The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities in the northern zone shall be the same as the deductions for wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(a) For thoroughbred meetings, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2, and four-tenths of 1 percent deposited with the official registering agency pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19617.2 and shall thereafter be distributed in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 19617.2, and one-tenth of 1 percent distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(b) For harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, Arabian, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, and the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2. In addition, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6; in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas; in the case of Arabians, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Arabians; in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619; in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19617.2 and shall thereafter be distributed in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 19617.2; and one-tenth of 1 percent shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(c) In addition to the distributions specified in subdivision (a) or (b), for thoroughbred and fair meetings only, six-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the facility for promotion of that meeting's program. For harness, quarter horse, and mixed breed meetings, 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities.

(d) In addition to the distributions specified in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), for thoroughbred meetings, four-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled at each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the association providing the racing program to reimburse it for any costs of offsite stabling and vanning which are required pursuant to Section 19535. The amount of the reimbursement payable to an association for offsite stabling shall not exceed the actual cost to the association of maintaining stalls at its racetrack plus the actual costs incurred by the association to provide vanning and transportation of racehorses from offsite stabling facilities to its racetrack.

(e) In addition to the distributions specified in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), for fair meetings, four-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled at each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the organization representing racing fairs to reimburse fairs for the actual cost of providing offsite stabling required by the board pursuant to Section 19535. If fairs contract with associations to provide offsite stabling during fair meetings, the cost incurred by fairs shall not exceed the actual cost to the association of maintaining the stalls or the amount of reimbursement funds made available pursuant to this subdivision, whichever is less. In the event of a disagreement between an association and the organization representing racing fairs or the organization representing the majority of horsemen participating at the meeting with respect to the actual cost of maintaining stalls, the board, at the request of the association or the organization representing racing fairs or the organization representing the majority of horsemen participating at the meeting, shall determine within 60 days the amount of actual costs incurred. For purposes of this subdivision, "actual cost" does not include fixed overhead or administrative expenses which would be incurred by the association in the absence of an agreement to provide offsite stabling during fair meetings.

(f) Any of the promotional funds distributed pursuant to subdivision (c) that are not expended in the year in which they are collected may be expended in the following year. If promotion funds expended in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds expended in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount.

(g) Any of the stabling and vanning reimbursement funds distributed pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) that are not expended within 90 days of the end of the meeting at which they are collected shall be reallocated for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities, as provided in subdivision (c).

(h) Additionally, for thoroughbred, harness, quarter horse, mixed breed, and fair meetings, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

SEC. 4.5. Section 19605.7 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 317 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

19605.7. The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities in the northern zone shall be the same as the deductions for wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(a) For thoroughbred meetings, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the racing association for payment to the state as a license fee, 2 percent retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2, and four-tenths of 1 percent deposited with the official registering agency pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19617.2 and shall thereafter be distributed in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 19617.2, and one-tenth of 1 percent distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(b) For harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, Arabian, or mixed breed meetings, 1 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 1 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the racing association for payment to the state as a license fee, for fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the racing association for payment to the state as a license fee, 2 percent retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, and 6 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2. In addition, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6; in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas; in the case of Arabians, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Arabians; in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619; in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19617.2 and shall thereafter be distributed in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 19617.2; and one-tenth of 1 percent shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(c) In addition to the distributions specified in subdivision (a) or (b), for thoroughbred and fair meetings only, six-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the facility for promotion of that meeting's program. For harness, quarter horse, and mixed breed meetings, 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities.

(d) In addition to the distributions specified in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), for thoroughbred meetings, four-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled at each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the association providing the racing program to reimburse it for any costs of offsite stabling and vanning which are required pursuant to Section 19535. The amount of the reimbursement payable to an association for offsite stabling shall not exceed the actual cost to the association of maintaining stalls at its racetrack plus the actual costs incurred by the association to provide vanning and transportation of racehorses from offsite stabling facilities to its racetrack.

(e) In addition to the distributions specified in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), for fair meetings, four-tenths of 1 percent of the total amount handled at each satellite wagering facility shall be allocated to the organization representing racing fairs to reimburse fairs for the actual cost of providing offsite stabling required by the board pursuant to Section 19535. If fairs contract with associations to provide offsite stabling during fair meetings, the cost incurred by fairs shall not exceed the actual cost to the association of maintaining the stalls or the amount of reimbursement funds made available pursuant to this subdivision, whichever is less. In the event of a disagreement between an association and the organization representing racing fairs or the organization representing the majority of horsemen participating at the meeting with respect to the actual cost of maintaining stalls, the board, at the request of the association or the organization representing racing fairs or the organization representing the majority of horsemen participating at the meeting, shall determine within 60 days the amount of actual costs incurred. For purposes of this subdivision, "actual cost" does not include fixed overhead or administrative expenses which would be incurred by the association in the absence of an agreement to provide offsite stabling during fair meetings.

(f) Any of the promotional funds distributed pursuant to subdivision (c) that are not expended in the year in which they are collected may be expended in the following year. If promotion funds expended in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds expended in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount.

(g) Any of the stabling and vanning reimbursement funds distributed pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) that are not expended within 90 days of the end of the meeting at which they are collected shall be reallocated for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities, as provided in subdivision (c).

(h) Additionally, for thoroughbred, harness, quarter horse, mixed breed, and fair meetings, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by each satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a racing association is responsible for the payment of the state license fee as required by this section.

SEC. 5. Section 19605.71 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 317 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

19605.71. The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities in the central and southern zone shall be the same as the percentage deducted from wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted by a satellite wagering facility under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(a) For thoroughbred meetings, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2, and four-tenths of 1 percent deposited with the official registering agency pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19617.2 and shall thereafter be distributed in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 19617.2, and one-tenth of 1 percent distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(b) For harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, Arabian, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the state as a license fee, 2 percent retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, and the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2. In addition, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6; in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas; in the case of Arabians, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Arabians; in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619; in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency pursuant to subdivision

(a) of Section 19617.2 and shall thereafter be distributed in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 19617.2; and one-tenth of 1 percent shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(c) In addition, for thoroughbred meetings and harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1 percent shall be distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities. Any of the promotion funds that are not distributed in the year in which they are collected may be distributed in the following year. If promotion funds distributed in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds distributed in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount. Additionally, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

SEC. 5.5. Section 19605.71 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Chapter 317 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

19605.71. The total percentage deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities in the central and southern zone shall be the same as the percentage deducted from wagers at the racetrack where the racing meeting is being conducted and shall be distributed as set forth in this section. Amounts deducted by a satellite wagering facility under this section shall be distributed as follows:

(a) For thoroughbred meetings, 2.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 4 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the racing association for payment to the state as a license fee, 2 percent retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, 2.5 percent or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2, and four-tenths of 1 percent deposited with the official registering agency pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19617.2 and shall thereafter be distributed in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 19617.2, and one-tenth of 1 percent distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(b) For harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, Arabian, or mixed breed meetings, 1 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 1 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the racing association for payment to the state as a license fee, for fair meetings, 1.5 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility on conventional wagers and 3 percent on exotic wagers shall be distributed to the racing association for payment to the state as a license fee, 2 percent retained by the satellite wagering facility as a commission, and 6 percent of the amount handled by the satellite wagering facility or the amount of actual operating expenses, as determined by the board, whichever is less, distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2. In addition, in the case of quarter horses, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of quarter horses pursuant to Section 19617.6; in the case of Appaloosas, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Appaloosas; in the case of Arabians, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed as breeders' awards to breeders of Arabians; in the case of standardbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be distributed for the California Standardbred Sires Stakes Program pursuant to Section 19619; in the case of thoroughbreds, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19617.2 and shall thereafter be distributed in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 19617.2; and one-tenth of 1 percent shall be distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory, School of Veterinary Medicine, University of California at Davis. It is the intent of the Legislature that the one-tenth of 1 percent of funds distributed to the Equine Research Laboratory shall supplement, and not supplant, other funding sources.

(c) In addition, for thoroughbred meetings and harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, mixed breed, or fair meetings, 1 percent shall be distributed to an organization described in Section 19608.2 for promotion of the program at satellite wagering facilities. Any of the promotion funds that are not distributed in the year in which they are collected may be distributed in the following year. If promotion funds distributed in any year exceed the amount collected for that year, the funds distributed in the following year shall be reduced by the excess amount. Additionally, thirty-three hundredths of 1 percent of the total amount handled by the satellite wagering facility shall be paid to the city or county in which the satellite wagering facility is located pursuant to Section 19610.3 or 19610.4.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a racing association is responsible for the payment of the state license fee as required by this section.

SEC. 6. Section 19605.73 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 19605.8 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19605.8. For thoroughbred meetings, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in Sections 19605.7 and 19605.71 shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent as purses to the horsemen participating in the racing meeting.

SEC. 8. Section 19606 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19606. For harness, quarter horse, Appaloosa, Arabian, mixed breed, and fair meetings, the funds remaining after the distribution of the amounts set forth in Sections 19605.7 and 19605.71 shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent to the horsemen participating in the racing meeting in the form of purses. However, owners' premiums shall be paid from the amount distributed for purses in the same relative percentage as owners' premiums are paid at the racing meeting.

SEC. 9. Section 19608.9 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19608.9. (a) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 19605.7, subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 19605.71, or any other provision of law, of the amounts deducted from wagers at satellite wagering facilities pursuant to Sections 19605.7 and 19605.71 for thoroughbred meetings or thoroughbred races at mixed breed or fair meetings, four-tenths of 1 percent shall be deposited with the official registering agency for distribution pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19617.2, and shall thereafter be distributed in accordance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 19617.2.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 19605.8 or 19606 on thoroughbred meetings or thoroughbred races at mixed breed or fair meetings, the funds remaining after distribution of the amounts set forth in Sections 19605.7 and 19605.71 shall be distributed 50 percent as commissions to the racing association which conducts the racing meeting and 50 percent as purses to the horsemen participating in the racing meeting, but from the purses an amount in the same relative percentage as that set aside pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 19611.5 and subdivision (c) of Section 19614.2, shall be deposited with the official registering agency pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 19617.2 and shall, thereafter, be distributed pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 19617.2.

SEC. 10. Section 3.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 19605.6 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and SB 944. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 19605.6 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 944, in which case Section 19605.6 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by SB 944, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 3.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 11. Section 4.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 19605.7 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and SB 944. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 19605.7 of the Business and Professions

Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 944, in which case Section 19605.7 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by SB 944, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 4.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 12. Section 5.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 19605.71 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and SB 944. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 19605.71 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 944, in which case Section 19605.71 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by SB 944, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 5.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 5 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 485

An act to amend Sections 7925, 8043, 8234, 8688, 9029, 12002.6, and 12002.8 of, and to amend and renumber Section 12002.3 of, the Fish and Game Code, relating to fishing, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 3, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 4, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7925 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

7925. (a) If a vessel is licensed under this article and is used to take salmon or has salmon aboard in ocean waters north of Point Arguello, there shall be on board that vessel, a total number of commercial fishing salmon stamps sufficient to have at least one for the operator and one for each crewmember required by United States Coast Guard regulations, excepting an operator or a crewmember who is exempt from the requirement under subdivision (b) of Section 7860. The commercial fishing salmon stamps shall be affixed to either the commercial fishing licenses of the operator and the crewmembers or, pursuant to subdivision (b), to the commercial passenger fishing license. No person shall operate, or cause to be operated, any vessel licensed under this article in violation of this subdivision. Vessels permitted as commercial salmon fishing vessels pursuant to Section 8234 are exempt from the requirements of this subdivision.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 1053, the department may issue to the owner or operator of a vessel licensed pursuant to this article, upon application and payment of the fees prescribed in subdivision (c) of Section 7860, one commercial fishing salmon stamp for the operator and not more than one additional commercial salmon stamp for each crewmember required by the United States Coast Guard regulations. The commercial fishing salmon stamps issued under this subdivision shall be affixed to the vessel's commercial passenger fishing boat license issued pursuant to this article.

SEC. 2. Section 8043 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8043. Every commercial fisherman who sells or delivers fish that he or she has taken to any person who is not licensed under Article 7 (commencing with Section 8030), and every person who is required to be licensed under Article 7 (commencing with Section 8030) to conduct the activities of a fish receiver, as described in Section 8033, shall make a legible record in the form of a landing receipt on forms to be furnished by the department.

The landing receipt shall show all of the following:

(a) The weight of the species of fish received, as designated pursuant to Section 8045. Sablefish may be reported in dressed weight, and if so reported, shall have the round weights computed, for purposes of management quotas, by multiplying 1.6 times the reported dressed weight.

(b) The name of the fisherman.

(c) The department registration number of the boat.

(d) The name of the recipient.

(e) The date of receipt.

(f) The price paid.

(g) The department origin block number where the fish were caught.

(h) The type of gear used.

(i) Any other statistical information as the department may prescribe.

SEC. 3. Section 8234 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8234. (a) The department shall not issue a permit under this article unless one of the following first occurs:

(1) The applicant presents to the department a commercial fishing salmon stamp issued to the owner or an agent of the owner. No commercial fishing salmon stamp shall be presented or accepted by the department to authorize issuance of a permit under this section for more than one vessel.

(2) The applicant obtains a commercial fishing salmon stamp and pays the fees for the stamp if required by and as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 7852.3 and subdivision (a) of Section 7860.

(3) On or before April 1 of the current license year, the owner is 70 years of age.

(b) The first commercial fishing salmon stamp issued to an owner, or to that owner's agent, shall be affixed to the commercial fishing license of that owner or agent. Any additional commercial fishing salmon stamps issued to the owner or the owner's agent pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) for purposes of obtaining permits for use of additional commercial salmon fishing vessels shall be affixed to each additional vessel's registration issued pursuant to Section 7890.

SEC. 4. Section 8688 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8688. In Districts 11, 12, and 13, gill nets may be used to take only herring, subject to Article 15 (commencing with Section 8550) of Chapter 2. No gill net may be possessed on any boat in Districts 11, 12, and 13, except by persons possessing a valid permit aboard boats specifically authorized to take herring during the open seasons established by the commission.

SEC. 5. Section 9029 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

9029. (a) Notwithstanding Section 9028, a fishing line which is anchored to the ocean bottom at one end and attached at the surface to a fishing vessel or a buoy may be used in Districts 6, 7, 10, 17, 18, and 19.

(b) A fishing line otherwise permitted pursuant to subdivision (a), may not be used under any of the following circumstances:

(1) To take shortfin mako (bonito) sharks, thresher sharks, swordfish, or marlin.

(2) If the fishing line exceeds 3,000 feet in length from the anchor to the surface vessel or buoy.

(3) If any hooks are attached to the upper one-third of the line.

(c) A buoy attached to the surface end of a fishing line used pursuant to subdivision (a) shall display above its waterline, in numerals at least two inches high, the fisherman's identification number. For purposes of this section and Section 8601.5, "fisherman's identification number" means the number of the person's commercial fishing license issued pursuant to Section 7850.

SEC. 6. Section 12002.3 of the Fish and Game Code, as amended by Chapter 1360 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended and renumbered to read:

12002.4. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 12000, 12001, and 12002, a commercial boat registration may be revoked or suspended by the commission, when requested by the department, for a period not to exceed one year, upon conviction of the registrant, or the registrant's agent, servant, employee, or any other person acting under the registrant's direction or control, for a violation of Section 7121 or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto, if the violation in question involved a vessel licensed pursuant to Section 7920.

(b) Notwithstanding Sections 12000, 12001, and 12002, a commercial boat registration of a vessel licensed pursuant to Section 7920 may be revoked or suspended by the commission, when requested by the department, for a period not to exceed one year, upon conviction of any other person for a violation of Section 7121, if the fish or amphibia involved in the violation were taken from the vessel and that person committed a prior violation of Section 7121 within three years on the vessel.

(c) The commercial boat registration shall not be revoked under this section for a violation which is unrelated to the vessel for which the commercial boat registration is to be revoked. Any violation committed without the knowledge of the master, or an agent or employee of the registrant, is unrelated to the vessel.

SEC. 7. Section 12002.6 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

12002.6. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 12000, 12001, and 12002, a commercial boat registration may be revoked or suspended by the commission, when requested by the department, for a period not to exceed one year, upon the second conviction in three years of the registrant, or the registrant's agent, servant, employee, or any other person acting under the registrant's direction or control, for a violation of any of the following provisions or regulations adopted pursuant thereto:

(1) Article 2 (commencing with Section 8150), Article 3 (commencing with Section 8180), Article 4 (commencing with Section 8210), Article 5 (commencing with Section 8250), Article 6 (commencing with Section 8275), Article 7 (commencing with Section 8300), Article 9 (commencing with Section 8370), Article 13 (commencing with Section 8495), and Article 15 (commencing with Section 8550) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 6.

(2) Article 1 (commencing with Section 8601), Article 2 (commencing with Section 8620), Article 4 (commencing with Section 8660), Article 5 (commencing with Section 8685), Article 6 (commencing with Section 8720), Article 7 (commencing with Section 8750), Article 8 (commencing with Section 8780), and Article 10 (commencing with Section 8830) of Chapter 3 of Part 3 of Division 6.

(3) Article 1 (commencing with Section 9000) of Chapter 4 of Part 3 of Division 6.

(b) The commercial boat registration shall not be revoked unless both the first and second convictions are related to the boat for which the commercial boat registration is to be revoked, and are for violations which occurred when the person convicted was the registrant or the registrant's agent, servant, employee, or acting under the registrant's direction or control.

SEC. 8. Section 12002.8 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

12002.8. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 12000, 12001, and 12002, the commercial fishing license of the master of a vessel may be revoked or suspended by the commission, when requested by the department, for a period not to exceed one year, upon the second conviction in three years of the master or the master's agent, servant, employee, or any other person acting under the master's direction or control, for a violation of any of the following provisions or regulations adopted pursuant thereto:

(1) Article 2 (commencing with Section 8150), Article 3 (commencing with Section 8180), Article 4 (commencing with Section 8210), Article 5 (commencing with Section 8250), Article 6 (commencing with Section 8275), Article 7 (commencing with Section 8300), Article 9 (commencing with Section 8370), Article 13 (commencing with Section 8495), and Article 15 (commencing with Section 8550) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 6.

(2) Article 1 (commencing with Section 8601), Article 2 (commencing with Section 8620), Article 4 (commencing with Section 8660), Article 5 (commencing with Section 8685), Article 6 (commencing with Section 8720), Article 7 (commencing with Section 8750), Article 8 (commencing with Section 8780), and Article 10 (commencing with Section 8830) of Chapter 3 of Part 3 of Division 6.

(3) Article 1 (commencing with Section 9000) of Chapter 4 of Part 3 of Division 6.

(b) A master's license shall not be revoked unless both the first and second convictions are for a violation by the master or a violation occurring when the person convicted was acting as the master's agent, servant, employee, or acting under the master's direction or control.

(c) The master of a vessel is the person on board the vessel who is in charge of the vessel.

SEC. 9. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that commercial salmon fishermen have suffered terrible economic hardships in 1989 and 1990 as a result of four years of drought and highly restrictive federal fishing regulations; those who have suffered the most have been those individuals whose salmon fishery has been limited to the waters of the Klamath Management Zone. The situation in 1991 is expected to worsen. In order to provide some measure of economic relief to these fishermen, it is the policy of the state that those persons not engaging in California's commercial salmon fishery in 1991 or otherwise engaged in its commercial fishery shall be entitled to a refund of any fees paid in 1991 for a commercial fishing salmon stamp.

(b) The Department of Fish and Game shall refund the fee paid for a commercial fishing salmon stamp in 1991 by a person meeting the criteria set forth in subdivision (c).

(c) In order to qualify for the refund provided in subdivision (b), the person shall satisfy all of the following criteria:

(1) He or she held a commercial fishing license in 1990.

(2) In 1990, he or she landed and delivered salmon solely within the area known as the Klamath Management Zone.

(3) In 1991 he or she made no commercial landings and deliveries of salmon within the state.

(d) Applications for the refunds shall be made on such forms, together with such reasonable proof that the applicant satisfies the criteria set forth in subdivision (c) as the department may require. Applications for the refunds shall be made between October 1, 1991, or the last day of the commercial salmon season, whichever is earlier, and November 30, 1991.

(e) If an application for a refund has been filed pursuant to this section, the commercial fishing salmon stamp shall not be valid for the balance of the term. However, an application for a refund shall not affect the validity of the commercial salmon vessel permit or its renewal for any year subsequent to 1991.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to lessen the economic hardships on the commercial salmon fishery and to revise other provisions relating to fishing at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 486

An act to amend Sections 1367.6, 1704.5, 25817, and 25817.1 of, and to add Section 25660.1 to, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 10123.8 and 11512.10 of the Insurance Code, relating to breast cancer.

[Approved by Governor October 4, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1367.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1367.6. Every health care service plan contract which provides for the surgical procedure known as a mastectomy and which is issued, amended, delivered or renewed in this state on or after July 1, 1980, shall include coverage for prosthetic devices or reconstructive surgery to restore and achieve symmetry for the patient incident to the mastectomy. Coverage for prosthetic devices and reconstructive surgery shall be subject to the deductible and coinsurance conditions applied to the mastectomy and all other terms and conditions applicable to other benefits. As used in this section, "mastectomy" means the removal of all or part of the breast for medically necessary reasons, as determined by a licensed physician and surgeon.

Any provision in any contract issued, amended, delivered or renewed in this state on or after July 1, 1980, which is in conflict with this section shall be of no force or effect.

As used in this section, "prosthetic devices" means and includes the provision of initial and subsequent prosthetic devices pursuant to an order of the patient's physician and surgeon.

SEC. 2. Section 1704.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1704.5. The failure of a physician and surgeon to inform a patient by means of a standardized written summary, as developed by the department on the recommendation of the Cancer Advisory Council, in layman's language and in a language understood by the patient of alternative efficacious methods of treatment which may be medically viable, including surgical, radiological, or chemotherapeutic treatments or combinations thereof, when the patient is being treated for any form of breast cancer constitutes unprofessional conduct within the meaning of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code.

A standardized written summary in layman's language and in a language understood by the patient, to be developed by the department on the recommendation of the Cancer Advisory Council and printed and made available by the Medical Board of California to physicians and surgeons, informing the patient of the advantages, disadvantages, risks and descriptions of the procedures with regard to medically viable and efficacious alternative methods of treatment, which is given to the patient shall constitute compliance with the requirements of this section.

The department shall review the written summary at least once every five years and shall revise the written summary if the department determines that new or revised information should be included in the written summary.

At the next revision of the standardized written summary required by this section, information regarding methods of treatment for breast cancer that are in the investigational or clinical trial stage and are recognized for treatment by the Physician's Data Query of the National Cancer Institute shall be included in the summary. The department shall also provide available reference numbers, including, but not limited to, the "800" telephone numbers for the National Cancer Institute and the American Cancer Society, in order for breast cancer patients to obtain the most recent information.

Prior to performance of a biopsy, the physician and surgeon shall note on the patient's chart that he or she has given the patient the written summary required by this section.

SEC. 3. Section 25660.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25660.1. The Legislature finds and declares that the public health interest requires that increased steps be taken to ensure the accuracy of mammograms, including increased inspections and calibration of equipment, competency requirements for radiologic technologists, accreditation of mammography facilities, and the use of computers to read mammograms.

SEC. 4. Section 25817 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25817. (a) The department shall provide by regulation a ranking of priority for inspection, as determined by the degree of potentially damaging exposure of persons by ionizing radiation and the requirements of Section 25817.1, and a schedule of fees, based upon that priority ranking, which shall be paid by persons possessing sources of ionizing radiation which are subject to registration in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 25815, and regulations adopted pursuant thereto. The revenues derived from the fees shall be used, together with other funds made available therefor, for the purpose of carrying out any inspections of the sources of ionizing radiation required by this chapter or regulations adopted pursuant thereto. The fees shall, together with any other funds made available to the department, be sufficient to cover the costs of administering this chapter, and shall be set in amounts intended to cover the costs of administering this chapter for each priority source of ionizing radiation. Revenues generated by the fees shall not offset any general funds appropriated for the support of the radiologic programs authorized pursuant to Chapter 7.4 (commencing with Section 25660) and Chapter 7.6 (commencing with Section 25800) of this division. Persons who pay fees shall not be required to pay, directly or indirectly, for the share of the costs of administering this chapter of those persons for whom fees are waived.

(b) A local agency participating in a negotiated agreement pursuant to Section 25810 shall be fully reimbursed for direct and indirect costs based upon activities governed by Section 25817.1. With respect to these agreements, any salaries, benefits, and other indirect costs shall not exceed comparable costs of the department. Any changes in the frequency of inspections or the level of reimbursement to local agencies made by this section or Section 25817.1 during the 1985–86 Regular Session shall not affect ongoing contracts.

(c) The fees paid by persons possessing sources of ionizing radiation shall be adjusted annually pursuant to Section 113.

SEC. 5. Section 25817.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25817.1. The average inspection frequency for ionizing radiation machines shall be once each year for mammography X-ray units, once every three years for high priority sources of ionizing radiation, and once every four and one-quarter years for medium-priority sources. Sources of ionizing radiation used in dentistry shall be screened for defects by mail or other offsite methodology not less frequently than once every five years, with physical inspection of the 50 percent, determined by the department to be most in need of inspection, to average at least once every six years.

SEC. 6. Section 10123.8 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10123.8. Every group policy of disability insurance or self-insured employee welfare benefit plan which provides for the surgical procedure known as a mastectomy and which is issued, amended, delivered or renewed in this state on or after July 1, 1980, shall include coverage for prosthetic devices or reconstructive surgery to restore and achieve symmetry for the patient incident to the mastectomy. Coverage for prosthetic devices and reconstructive surgery shall be subject to the deductible and coinsurance conditions applied to the mastectomy, and all other terms and conditions applicable to other benefits. As used in this section, "mastectomy" means the removal of all or part of the breast for medically necessary reasons, as determined by a licensed physician and surgeon.

Any provision in any contract issued, amended, delivered or renewed in this state on or after July 1, 1980, which is in conflict with this section shall be of no force or effect.

As used in this section, "prosthetic devices" means and includes the provision of initial and subsequent prosthetic devices pursuant to an order of the patient's physician and surgeon.

SEC. 7. Section 11512.10 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11512.10. Every nonprofit hospital service contract which provides for the surgical procedure known as a mastectomy and which is issued, amended, delivered or renewed in this state on or after July 1, 1980, shall include coverage for prosthetic devices or reconstructive surgery to restore and achieve symmetry for the patient incident to the mastectomy. Coverage for prosthetic devices and reconstructive surgery shall be subject to the deductible and coinsurance conditions applied to the mastectomy, and all other terms and conditions applicable to other benefits. As used in this section, "mastectomy" means the removal of all or part of the breast for medically necessary reasons, as determined by a licensed physician and surgeon.

Any provision in any contract issued, amended, delivered or renewed in this state on or after July 1, 1980, which is in conflict with this section shall be of no force or effect.

SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 487

An act relating to education, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 4, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) In 1986, in hopes of discovering some possible causes and cures of California's most pressing social concerns, the Governor and the Legislature of California created the California Task Force to Promote Self-Esteem, and Personal and Social Responsibility.

(b) The task force consisted of 25 Californians who were diverse as to sex, age, race, ethnicity, religion, occupation, inclination, demography, and political affiliation and who were all volunteers except four; the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Secretary of the Health and Welfare Agency, the Secretary of the Youth and Adult Correctional Agency, and the Attorney General.

(c) The task force was charged with three primary missions:

(1) To compile the latest, best knowledge indicating whether self-esteem is a causal factor in any, or in all, of California's six most pressing social concerns: crime and violence, alcohol and other drug abuse, teen pregnancy, child abuse, chronic welfare dependency, and educational failure.

(2) If self-esteem was found to be a causal factor, to compile the latest, best knowledge indicating how healthy self-esteem is developed, how it is hurt or lost, and how it is rehabilitated or regained.

(3) To identify model programs for the development of self-esteem and personal and social responsibility.

(d) During its 40 months of existence, the task force:

(1) Conducted extensive public hearings across California.

(2) Engaged the University of California, its researchers, and the University of California Press in compiling the latest academic research regarding self-esteem and its causal implications.

(3) Convened panels of experts, diverse as to race and gender, from across the United States to further advise the task force regarding the implications of self-esteem.

(4) Reviewed extensive literature on self-esteem and its causal implications.

(e) On January 23, 1990, the task force published its final report entitled "Toward a State of Esteem. The Final Report." The report:

(1) Defined self-esteem as "appreciating my own worth and importance and having the character to be accountable for myself and to act responsibly toward others."

(2) Identified self-esteem as a "social vaccine" that serves to strengthen humans to be less vulnerable to dysfunctional behavior and, therefore, more able and likely to lead responsible lives.

(3) Recommended the development of healthy self-esteem especially in persons in the family, school, workplace, community, and programs for persons in distress.

(4) Provided principles for the development of healthy self-esteem and personal and social responsibility.

(5) Provided particular recommendations for the development of healthy self-esteem and personal and social responsibility in each of those environments.

(6) Identified model programs for the development of healthy self-esteem and personal and social responsibility.

(f) The task force report especially made a comprehensive series of recommendations for the development of healthy self-esteem and personal and social responsibility within our educational systems, including, but not limited to, recommendations to do the following:

(1) Adopt in every school district in California the promotion of self-esteem and personal and social responsibility as a clearly stated goal, integrate self-esteem in its total curriculum, and inform all persons of its policies and operations.

(2) Require coursework in self-esteem for credentials and as a part of ongoing in-service training for all educators.

(3) Weave self-esteem and responsibility into the total educational program.

(4) Educate every educator in self-esteem and responsibility through preservice and in-service training.

(5) Give students opportunities to do community service.

(6) Formulate a real life skills curriculum.

(7) Promote more parental involvement.

(8) Be sensitive to the needs of students at risk of failure.

(9) Use the arts to help develop self-esteem and responsibility.

(10) Expand counseling and peer counseling services for students.

(11) Provide cooperative learning opportunities.

(12) Reduce class size or student to adult ratios.

(13) Implement programs to counteract bigotry and prejudice.

(g) It is incumbent, and valuable, that we now undertake a systematic and comprehensive effort to implement those recommendations in our public education system.

SEC. 2. The Legislature hereby intends to establish a systematic and comprehensive effort to implement the recommendations regarding our public educational system, as set forth in "Toward a State of Esteem," of the California Task Force to Promote Self-Esteem, and Personal and Social Responsibility.

SEC. 3. (a) The Commission on Teacher Credentialing, in conjunction with the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the State Board of Education, shall convene an advisory committee for the purposes of performing an indepth study of "Toward a State of Esteem" and its recommendations and of presenting to the Legislature proposed strategic plans for implementing the education recommendations of the report.

(b) Each entity shall appoint five members to the advisory committee. The committee shall:

(1) Be diverse as to gender and race.

(2) Be comprised of a majority of credentialed educators.

(3) Each appointing agency shall select at least one member of the California Task Force to Promote Self-Esteem, and Personal and Social Responsibility.

(c) The advisory committee shall serve until January 1, 1993, at which time the advisory committee's existence shall terminate.

SEC. 4. The advisory committee shall:

(a) Make recommendations for the implementation of the report within the jurisdiction of their respective agency.

(b) Address, in particular, the report's primary recommendation that every teacher, prospective and already credentialed, should be experientially educated in the development of his or her own healthy self-esteem.

(c) Seek to incorporate that education and preparation into the regular operations of the respective programs, instead of having them presented as some add-on operations.

(d) Include an analysis of the cost of implementing the plan.

SEC. 5. The advisory committee shall consider the following:

(a) Whether to provide education courses in the nature and development of healthy self-esteem in one's self and in one's students.

(b) How the concept of self-esteem is:

(1) Presented and ascertained in the process of preparing one's self for obtaining the teaching credential.

(2) Effectively undertaken and accomplished during in-service training.

(c) Whether and how to require self-esteem:

(1) In the seeking of a teaching credential.

(2) In the completion of the professional development courses required to maintain one's credential.

(d) Whether to make the concept of self-esteem eligible as a factor, or require it as a course, that serves to qualify a teacher for advancement upon the district teacher salary schedule.

(e) Whether and how to provide training for day care and preschool teachers and staff regarding the strategies and techniques of self-esteem enhancement.

(f) How to develop a self-esteem curriculum appropriate for kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, that includes child rearing instruction and that is culturally sensitive and age appropriate.

(g) How to promote responsible citizenship in the coursework.

(h) How to nurture existing local efforts and encourage new efforts to grow.

SEC. 6. The advisory committee shall report to the Legislature, the Commission on Teacher Credentialing, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and the State Board of Education by January 1, 1993, regarding the indepth study of the report, "Toward a State of Esteem."

SEC. 7. The Superintendent of Public Instruction and the State Board of Education shall use funds from any existing resources available for their respective use, and not from any funds appropriated pursuant to this act, to accomplish the provisions of this act for which the superintendent or the state board is responsible.

SEC. 8. The sum of forty thousand dollars ($40,000) is hereby appropriated from the Teacher Credentials Fund to the Commission on Teacher Credentialing for the costs of funding the advisory panel and preparing the report required by Section 6 of this act.

CHAPTER 488

An act to amend Sections 1808.1, 2424, and 40000.11 of, to add Sections 12520, 13377, 13378, and 40000.65 to, and to add Article 3.3 (commencing with Section 2430) and Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 2435) to Chapter 2 of Division 2 of, the Vehicle Code, relating to emergency road service.

[Approved by Governor October 4, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1808.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

1808.1. (a) The prospective employer of a driver who drives a vehicle requiring a class 1, class 2, class A, or class B driver's license, class C license with an endorsement issued pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 15278 or a certificate issued pursuant to Section 2512, 12517, 12519, 12520, 12523, or 12523.5, shall obtain a report showing the driver's current public record as recorded by the department.

(b) The employer of a driver who drives a vehicle requiring a class 1, class 2, class A, or class B driver's license, class C license with an endorsement issued pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 15278, or a certificate issued pursuant to Section 2512, 12517, 12519, 12523, or 12523.5, shall make a request to the department to participate in a pull notice system, which is a process for the purpose of providing the employer with a report showing the driver's current public record as recorded by the department, and any subsequent convictions, failures to appear, accidents, driver's license suspensions, driver's license revocations, or any other actions taken against the driving privilege or certificate, added to the driver's record while the employer's notification request remains valid and uncanceled.

(c) The employer of a driver of a vehicle requiring a class 1, class 2, or class 3 driver's license requiring a certificate issued pursuant to Section 2512, 12517, 12519, 12523, or 12523.5 or class A, class B, or class C driver's license with a hazardous material endorsement, shall, additionally, obtain a periodic report from the department at least every six months, except that an employer who employs more than 500 drivers shall obtain a report not less than annually. The employer shall verify that each employee's driver's license has not been suspended or revoked, the employee's traffic violation point count, and whether the employee has been convicted of a violation of Section 23152 or 23153. The report shall be signed and dated by the employer and maintained at the employer's principal place of business. The reports shall be presented upon demand to any authorized representative of the Department of the California Highway Patrol during regular business hours.

(d) Upon the termination of a driver's employment, the employer may notify the department to cancel any reports required by this section.

(e) For the purposes of the pull notice system and periodic report process required by subdivisions (b) and (c), owners, other than owner-operators as defined in Section 3557 of the Public Utilities Code, and employers who drive vehicles described in subdivisions (b) and (c), shall be enrolled as if they were employees. Family members and volunteer drivers who drive vehicles described in subdivisions (b) and (c) shall also be enrolled as if they were employees.

(f) An employer who, after receiving any driving record pursuant to this section, employs or continues to employ as a driver any person against whom a disqualifying action has been taken regarding his or her driving privilege or required driver's certificate, is guilty of a public offense, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(g) As part of its inspection of bus maintenance facilities and terminals required at least once every 13 months pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 34501, the Department of the California Highway Patrol shall determine whether each transit operator, as defined in Section 99210 of the Public Utilities Code, is then in compliance with this section and Section 12804.6, and shall certify each operator found to be in compliance. No funds shall be allocated under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 99200) of Part 11 of Division 10 of the Public Utilities Code to a transit operator which the Department of the California Highway Patrol has not certified under this section.

(h) A request to participate in the pull notice system established by this section shall be accompanied by a fee determined by the department to be sufficient to defray the entire actual cost to the department for the notification service. For the receipt of subsequent reports, the employer shall also be charged a fee established by the department pursuant to Section 1811. Any employer who qualifies under Section 1812 shall be exempt from any fee required under this section. Failure to pay the fee shall result in automatic cancellation of the employer's participation in the notification services.

(i) The department, as soon as feasible, may establish an automatic procedure to provide the periodic reports in subdivision (c) to employers on a regular basis without the need for individual requests.

(j) This section shall not be construed to change the definition of "employer," "employee," or "independent contractor" for any other purpose.

(k) The employer of a driver who is employed as a casual driver is not required to enter that driver's name in the pull notice system, as otherwise required by subdivision (a). However, the employer of a casual driver shall be in possession of a report of the driver's current public record as recorded by the department, prior to allowing a casual driver to drive a vehicle requiring a class 1, class 2, class A, class B, or class C driver's license with a hazardous materials endorsement, or a certificate issued pursuant to Section 2512, 12517, 12519, 12523, or 12523.5. A report is current if it was issued less than six months prior to the date the employer employs the driver. As used in this subdivision, a driver is employed as a casual driver when the employer has employed the driver less than 30 days during the preceding six months. For purposes of this subdivision, "casual driver" does not include any driver who operates a vehicle that requires a passenger transportation endorsement.

SEC. 2. Section 2424 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

2424. (a) The Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol may enter into agreements with providers of towing, emergency road, and storage services for the purpose of determining which providers shall be summoned by the department when those services are necessary for public assistance or to carry out the duties and responsibilities of the department. Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code shall not apply to the agreements. The department shall confer with the towing industry, as necessary, to reach agreements mutually beneficial to the public, the towing industry, and the department.

(b) This section does not prohibit a member of the public from selecting any vehicle towing, emergency road service, or storage provider, except when towing or storage is ordered by a member of the department under the provisions of law.

(c) These agreements shall be implemented in cooperation with representatives of the towing industry, and shall include, but not be limited to, the following subjects: liability insurance requirements, towing, emergency road service, and storage fees, inspection of business and storage facilities and equipment, recordkeeping, minimum equipment requirements, and the establishment of tow districts.

(d) Failure of a towing, emergency road service, or storage provider to comply with the provisions of the agreement may result in the suspension or termination of the agreement. In the event of suspension or termination of the agreement, and at the request of the towing, emergency road service, or storage provider, the department shall provide a hearing and appeal process to the provider.

(e) Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code does not apply to the hearing and appeal process specified in subdivision (d).

SEC. 3. Article 3.3 (commencing with Section 2430) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 2 of the Vehicle Code, to read:

Article 3.3. Tow Truck Drivers

2430. (a) The Legislature hereby creates a pilot project to develop recommendations for requiring emergency road service organizations and their specified employees, within the state, to be certified and receive specified training in the interest of public safety. The project shall be limited to freeway service patrol operations for major urban areas. The project includes, but is not limited to, the issuance of tow truck driver certificates to employees and employers involved in freeway service patrol operations, criminal history checks for convictions of specified crimes, and training for enhancement of public safety. The purpose of the project shall be to develop recommendations for requiring all emergency road service organizations and specified employees, within the state, to be certified and receive specified training in the interest of public safety.

(b) This project shall be for a period of two years commencing on July 1, 1992. The department shall submit a report to the Legislature not later than September 1, 1994. The report shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) The number of criminal history checks processed by the department.

(2) The number of specified tow truck driver certificates issued.

(3) The number of persons rejected for freeway service patrol operations as a result of the criminal history checks.

(4) The names of participating emergency road service organizations.

(5) An accounting of the number of certified persons who were subsequently disqualified for convictions of specified crimes, including the number of certified persons subsequently disqualified for convictions of specified crimes against those receiving service.

(6) The training received by specified personnel.

(7) Recommendations developed by the Emergency Roadside Assistance Advisory Committee regarding training, as specified in Section 2438, and guidelines for motorist safety, as specified in Section 2439.

(8) Information compiled from reports submitted by highway service organizations pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 2440.

(9) Recommendations for extending the requirements of this article and Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 2435) to all highway service organizations and their specified employees within the state.

(c) The Legislature declares that it is important to the public safety that tow truck drivers, who perform freeway service patrol operations under agreement with any specified public transportation planning entity, do not have criminal records which include violent crimes against persons.

2430.1. As used in this article and Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 2435):

(a) "Tow truck driver" means a person who operates a tow truck, who renders towing service or emergency road service to motorists while involved in freeway service patrol operations, pursuant to an agreement with a regional or local entity, and who has or will have direct and personal contact with the individuals being transported or assisted. As used in this subdivision, "towing service" and "emergency road service" have the same meaning as defined in Section 2436.

(b) "Employer" means any person or organization which employs those persons defined in subdivision (a), or who is an owner-operator who performs the activity specified in subdivision (a), and who is involved in freeway service patrol operations pursuant to an agreement or contract with a regional or local entity.

(c) "Regional or local entity" means any public organization established as a public transportation planning entity pursuant to Title 7.1 (commencing with Section 66500) of the Government Code or Section 130050 of the Public Utilities Code.

2430.3. Every tow truck driver shall notify each of his or her employers and prospective employers of an arrest or conviction of any crime specified in paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 13377 prior to beginning the next workshift for that employer.

2430.5. (a) Every employer intending to hire a tow truck driver on or after July 1, 1992, shall require the applicant for employment to submit to them a temporary tow truck driver certificate issued by the department or a permanent tow truck driver certificate issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles. The employer shall review the certificate and obtain a copy to be maintained as required by subdivision (c). The employer shall not hire any tow truck driver in any freeway service patrol operations who does not provide a temporary tow truck driver certificate issued by the department or a permanent tow truck driver certificate issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles. The employer shall not allow a tow truck driver who is not certified to participate in any freeway service patrol operations. If the issuance date on the certificate is more than 90 days from the proposed date of hire, the employer shall contact the department to reverify eligibility.

(b) On or after July 1, 1992, every employer, whose currently employed tow truck drivers are required to obtain a tow truck driver certificate pursuant to Sections 2430.7 and 12520, shall require the employees to submit to the employer a temporary tow truck driver certificate issued by the department or a permanent tow truck driver certificate issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles. The employer shall review the certificate and obtain a copy to be maintained as required by subdivision (c).

(c) Every employer shall maintain a tow truck driver certificate file for all tow truck drivers hired on or after July 1, 1992, or all currently employed tow truck drivers who are required to obtain a tow truck driver certificate pursuant to Section 12520. The employer shall retain employee rosters and copies of tow truck driver certificates for all tow truck drivers. The roster shall be comprised of the following two lists:

(1) Drivers who have valid tow truck driver certificates.

(2) Drivers who would be prohibited, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 13377, from involvement in any freeway service patrol operation.

Every employer shall make available for inspection by the department at the employer's primary place of business in this state. In addition, the employer shall maintain a personnel roster, also available for inspection, of all current tow truck drivers and their date of hire by the employer.

(d) Upon notification that a tow truck driver has been arrested for, or convicted of, any crime specified in paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 13377, the employer shall remove that tow truck driver from any position involving freeway service patrol operations.

(e) A violation of this section by an employer is a misdemeanor.

2431. (a) For the purposes of conducting criminal history and driver history screening of tow truck drivers and employers, the commissioner shall do all of the following:

(1) Utilize the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS) to conduct preliminary criminal history checks.

(2) Obtain fingerprints from tow truck drivers and employers. The fingerprint cards will be submitted to the Department of Justice for criminal history checks.

(3) Obtain a second set of fingerprints from applicants who have not continuously resided in the state for the previous seven years, and submit that card to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for out-of-state criminal history checks. The department may charge a fee sufficient to cover the additional expense of processing the fingerprint cards through the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(4) Verify that the tow truck driver or employer, or both, have a valid California driver's license, through the use of the automated records system.

(b) On and after July 1, 1992, all tow truck drivers shall submit an application for the issuance of a tow truck driver certificate with the department and pay an application fee of fifty dollars ($50). Applicants for the renewal of an expired tow truck driver certificate shall submit an application for issuance of a new tow truck driver certificate to the Department of Motor Vehicles and pay an application fee of twelve dollars ($12).

All fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund. An amount equal to the fees paid shall be made available, upon appropriation, to the Department of Motor Vehicles for its administrative costs, for the cost of criminal history checks to be conducted by the Department of Justice, and to the department for its administrative costs. In no case shall the fees collected exceed the costs of administering this section.

(c) Applicants for an original tow truck driver certificate shall be fingerprinted by the department, on a form issued by the department, for submission to the Department of Justice for the purpose of determining whether the applicant has been convicted for a violation of any crime specified in paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 13377.

(d) Information released to the department or the Department of Motor Vehicles shall be related to their inquiry and shall remain confidential.

(e) The department shall issue a temporary tow truck driver certificate, provided by the Department of Motor Vehicles, to applicants who have cleared the specified criminal history check through CLETS and the driver history check through the automated records system, and who meet all other applicable provisions of this code. The term of the temporary tow truck driver's certificate shall be for a period of 90 days from the date of issuance.

2432. (a) It is unlawful for a tow truck driver to knowingly provide false information on the application prepared and submitted to the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 2430.7.

(b) It is unlawful for a tow truck driver to fail to comply with the notification requirements in Section 2430.3.

(c) A violation of this section is punishable as a misdemeanor.

2432.1. (a) If the commissioner determines that an employer has failed to comply with the requirements of this article or Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 2435), the commissioner may, after a hearing, suspend the highway safety carrier's identification number issued pursuant to Section 2436.3 for a period not to exceed two years.

(b) If the commissioner determines that an employer has failed to comply with the requirements of this article or Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 2435) twice within a period of 24 consecutive months, the commissioner may, after a hearing, prohibit the employer from participating in any freeway service patrol operation for two years.

(c) Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code does not apply to the hearing specified in subdivision (a) or (b).

2432.3. (a) This article does not preempt the authority of any city, city and county, or county to regulate, pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 21100, any of the matters covered by this article.

(b) (1) For the purposes of verifying the criminal history of individuals involved in the operation of tow truck services, law enforcement agencies of any city, city and county, or county may conduct criminal history checks for all of the following:

(A) Applicants for employment to drive tow trucks.

(B) Those who drive tow trucks.

(C) Tow truck owners-operators.

(2) The law enforcement agency may obtain the fingerprints of the individuals on a form approved by the Department of Justice and provided by the agency. The fingerprint samples shall be submitted to the Department of Justice for the purpose of determining whether the individual has been convicted of any violation, including, but not limited to, Section 220, subdivision (1), (2), (3), or (4) of Section 261, or Section 264.1, 267, 288, or 289 of the Penal Code, or any felony or three misdemeanors which are crimes of violence, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 11105.3 of the Penal Code.

(3) For purposes of conducting criminal history screening of tow truck driver applicants, employees, and employers who have not resided continuously in the state for the previous seven years, the law enforcement agency of any city, city and county, or county, may obtain a second set of fingerprints, when necessary, and may submit that card to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for out-of-state criminal history checks.

(c) The law enforcement agency of any city, city and county, or county may charge a fee sufficient to cover the cost of obtaining and processing the fingerprint cards through the Department of Justice.

(d) For the purposes of conducting driver history screening of applicants to drive tow trucks, employees, and owners-operators, the law enforcement agency of any city, city and county, or county may verify that the applicant or owner-operator, as the case may be, has a valid California driver's license of the proper class, through the use of the automated records system.

(e) The Department of Justice shall develop a procedure whereby it will notify the requesting law enforcement agency if the person fingerprinted has been convicted of any of the specified crimes or is convicted of a specified crime subsequent to employment or beginning operation of a tow service. The Department of Justice shall release the requested information to the requesting agency.

(f) Information released to the requesting agency may be utilized for licensing and regulating procedures established pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 21100.

(g) Information released to the requesting agency shall be related to its inquiry, shall remain confidential, and shall not be made public.

SEC. 4. Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 2435) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 2 of the Vehicle Code, to read:

Article 3.5. Emergency Roadside Assistance

2435. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the emergency roadside assistance provided by highway service organizations is a valuable service which benefits millions of California motorists. The Legislature further finds and declares that emergency roadside assistance is provided statewide, in cooperation with, and shares resources with, public safety agencies. The Legislature also finds that the Department of the California Highway Patrol, in cooperation with the Department of Transportation, is responsible for the rapid removal of impediments to traffic on highways within the state and that the Department of the California Highway Patrol may enter into agreements with employers for freeway service patrol operations under an agreement or contract with a regional or local entity. The Legislature declares that it is in the public interest to establish minimum standards for the emergency roadside assistance provided, or contracted for, by highway service organizations or operated under an agreement with a regional or local entity. The Legislature also declares that it is necessary to increase the public input into the development of minimum standards, and for that reason is creating an Advisory Committee to provide advice on the standards. The Legislature declares that it is important to the public safety that drivers who provide emergency roadside service not have criminal records which include violent crimes against persons.

(b) The Legislature also declares that the Department of the California Highway Patrol, in cooperation with the Department of Transportation, shall be responsible for establishing the minimum training standards for highway service organization employees and employers who participate in freeway service patrol operations pursuant to an agreement or contract with a regional or local entity.

2436. For the purposes of this article:

(a) "Committee" means the Emergency Roadside Assistance Advisory Committee.

(b) "Emergency road service" is the adjustment, repair, or replacement by a highway service organization of the equipment, tires, or mechanical parts of a motor vehicle so as to permit it to be operated under its own power. "Towing service" is the drafting or moving by a highway service organization of a motor vehicle from one place to another under power other than its own.

(c) "Emergency roadside assistance" means towing service or emergency road service.

(d) "Highway service organization" means a motor club, as defined by Section 12142 of the Insurance Code and, in addition, includes any person or organization which operates or directs the operation of highway service vehicles to provide emergency roadside assistance to motorists, or any person or organization which is reimbursed or reimburses others for the cost of providing emergency roadside assistance, and any employer and include any person or organization which directly or indirectly, with or without compensation, provides emergency roadside assistance.

2436.3. (a) On and after July 1, 1992, every employer shall obtain from the department a carrier identification number. Application for a carrier identification number shall be on forms furnished by the department. The number shall be displayed on both sides of each tow truck utilized in any freeway service patrol operation, in accordance with Section 27907.

(b) No employer shall operate a tow truck in any freeway service patrol operation if the carrier identification number issued pursuant to subdivision (a) has been suspended by the commissioner pursuant to Section 2432.1.

(c) The carrier identification number shall be removed before sale, transfer, or other disposal of the vehicle, or upon termination of an agreement or contract for freeway service patrol operations.

(d) A violation of this section is a misdemeanor.

2436.5. (a) The department, in cooperation with the Department of Transportation, shall provide training, pursuant to a reimbursable agreement or contract with a regional or local entity, for all employers and tow truck drivers who are involved in freeway service patrol operations pursuant to an agreement or contract with the regional or local entity. Dispatchers for freeway service patrol operations shall be employees of the department or the Department of Transportation.

(b) The training shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Tow truck driver and motorist safety.

(2) Patrol responsibility.

(3) Vehicle operation.

(4) Traffic control and scene management.

(5) Communication procedures.

(6) Demeanor and courtesy.

2436.7. (a) Every tow truck driver and employer, involved in a freeway service patrol operation under an agreement or contract with a regional or local entity, shall attend the training specified in subdivision (b) of Section 2436.5.

(b) Upon successful completion of the training, each trainee shall be issued a certificate of completion. The certificate shall state the name of the training organization, the name and signature of the trainer, the name of the trainee, and the date of completion of the training.

(c) The trainee shall provide a copy of the certificate of training to the employer. The employer shall maintain this information in the tow truck driver files established pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 2430.5.

(d) Every employer shall make the file available for inspection by the department at the employer's primary place of business in this state.

2437. (a) The committee is hereby created. The committee shall comprise 10 members which reflect the ethnic and cultural diversity of California, and shall be appointed as follows:

(1) The commissioner shall appoint one person representing law enforcement agencies who shall serve as the committee chairperson and the person who is the Chairperson of the California Service Authority for Freeway Emergencies Committee.

(2) The Governor, or his or her designee, shall appoint four persons representing the general public, one person representing highway service organizations, and one person representing towing service organizations.

(3) The Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint one person representing the general public.

(4) The Senate Committee on Rules shall appoint one person representing the general public.

(b) The committee shall function during the two-year period of the project and shall submit its recommendations to the commissioner on or before July 1, 1994. Those recommendations shall be included in the report submitted to the Legislature pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 2430. The meetings of the committee shall be public and shall be noticed.

(c) The existence of the committee shall terminate on July 1, 1994, at which time the commissioner shall succeed to the powers and duties of the committee.

2438. (a) The committee shall recommend standards of training to be provided to each tow service or emergency road service dispatcher and tow service employee providing emergency roadside assistance employed by, or under contract with, a highway service organization.

(b) Training shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Call evaluation.

(2) Courtesy.

(3) Dealing with panic.

(4) Special populations, such as the young, the elderly, and handicapped persons.

(5) Evaluation of motorist safety.

(6) Use of the "911" emergency telephone number.

(c) Training, other than that required by Section 2436.5, may be conducted by emergency roadside assistance organizations or their trade organizations or local law enforcement agencies.

2439. The committee shall recommend guidelines for the enhancement of motorist safety setting forth procedures for telephone dispatchers, tow truck drivers, and highway service organizations that reimburse service recipients for emergency roadside assistance. The guidelines shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) Enumeration of the order of response priority for dispatching emergency roadside assistance to various types of roadside emergencies requiring either towing service or emergency road service.

(b) Time frame response guidelines for highway service organizations for responding to various categories of assistance requests, including those emanating from freeways, rural areas, and unsafe areas.

(c) A process for highway service organizations to establish a series of safe "pickup points" in appropriate locations, such as parking lots and structures. The process shall include soliciting the recommendations of local law enforcement agencies.

(d) A requirement that, when giving instructions to motorists, the safety of the motorist shall be of primary consideration.

(e) Guidelines for emergency roadside assistance services for which reimbursement is provided.

2440. Not later than May 15, 1993, and each May 15 thereafter, every highway service organization and employer shall submit a report to the commissioner showing, for the preceding year, the number of calls for emergency roadside assistance received and responded to, the range of response times, and a summary of the types and numbers of safety-related complaints received from motorists regarding their employees response to, or failure to respond to, motorist's requests for emergency roadside assistance during freeway service patrol operations.

SEC. 5. Section 12520 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

12520. (a) On and after July 1, 1992, no person employed as a tow truck driver, as defined in Section 2430.1, shall operate a tow truck unless that person has, in his or her immediate possession, a valid California driver's license of an appropriate class for the vehicle to be driven, and a tow truck driver certificate issued by the department or a temporary tow truck driver certificate issued by the Department of the California Highway Patrol, to permit the operation of the tow truck.

(b) When notified that the applicant has been cleared through the Department of Justice or the Federal Bureau of Investigation, or both, and if the applicant meets all other applicable provisions of this code, the department shall issue a permanent tow truck driver certificate. The permanent tow truck driver certificate shall be valid for a maximum of four years and shall expire on the same date as that of the applicant's driver's license.

SEC. 6. Section 13377 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

13377. (a) The department shall not issue or renew, or shall revoke, the tow truck driver certificate of an applicant or holder for any of the following causes:

(1) The tow truck driver certificate applicant or holder has been convicted of a violation of Section 220 of the Penal Code.

(2) The tow truck driver certificate applicant or holder has been convicted of a violation of subdivision (1), (2), (3), or (4) of Section

261 of the Penal Code.

(3) The tow truck driver certificate applicant or holder has been convicted of a violation of Section 264.1, 267, 288, or 289 of the Penal Code.

(4) The tow truck driver certificate applicant or holder has been convicted of any felony or three misdemeanors which are crimes of violence, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 11105.3 of the Penal Code.

(5) The tow truck driver certificate applicant's or holder's driving privilege has been suspended or revoked in accordance with any provisions of this code.

(b) For purposes of this section, a conviction means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. For purposes of this section, the record of a conviction, or a copy thereof certified by the clerk of the court or by a judge of the court in which the conviction occurred, is conclusive evidence of the conviction.

(c) Whenever the department receives information from the Department of Justice, or the Federal Bureau of Investigation, that a tow truck driver has been convicted of an offense specified in paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) of subdivision (a), the department shall immediately notify the employer and the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

(d) An applicant or holder of a tow truck driver certificate, whose certificate was denied or revoked, may reapply for a certificate whenever the applicable felony or misdemeanor conviction is reversed or dismissed. If the cause for the denial or revocation was based on the suspension or revocation of the applicant's or holder's driving privilege, he or she may reapply for a certificate upon restoration of his or her driving privilege. A termination of probation and dismissal of charges pursuant to Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code or a dismissal of charges pursuant to 1203.4(a) of the Penal Code is not a dismissal for purposes of this section.

SEC. 7. Section 13378 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

13378. (a) Any applicant for, or holder of, a tow truck driver certificate who has received a notice of denial or revocation, may, within 15 days of the mailing of the notice, submit to the department a written request for a hearing. Failure to request a hearing, in writing, within 15 days is a waiver of the right to a hearing.

(b) Upon receipt by the department of the hearing request, the department may stay the action until a hearing is conducted and the final decision is made by the hearing officer. The department shall not stay the action when there is reasonable cause to believe that the stay would pose a threat to a member of the motoring public who may require the services of the tow truck driver in question.

(c) An applicant for, or a holder of, a tow truck driver certificate, whose certificate has been denied or revoked, is not entitled to a hearing whenever the action by the department is made mandatory by this article or any other applicable law or regulation.

(d) Upon receipt of a request for a hearing, and when the requesting party is entitled to a hearing under this article, the department shall appoint a hearing officer to conduct a hearing in accordance with Sections 14107, 14109, 14110, and 14111.

SEC. 8. Section 40000.11 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

40000.11. A violation of any of the following provisions is a misdemeanor, and not an infraction:

(a) Division 5 (commencing with Section 11100), relating to occupational licensing and business regulations.

(b) Section 12500, subdivision (a), relating to unlicensed drivers.

(c) Section 12515, subdivision (b), relating to persons under 21 years of age driving, and the employment of those persons to drive, vehicles engaged in interstate commerce or transporting hazardous substances or wastes.

(d) Section 12517, relating to a special driver's certificate to operate a schoolbus or school pupil activity bus.

(e) Section 12519, subdivision (a), relating to a special driver's certificate to operate a farm labor vehicle.

(f) Section 12520, relating to a special driver's certificate to operate a tow truck.

(g) Section 12804, subdivision (d), relating to medical certificates.

(h) Section 12951, subdivision (b), relating to refusal to display license.

(i) Section 13004, relating to unlawful use of identification card.

(j) Section 13004.1, relating to identification documents.

(k) Section 14601, relating to driving when suspended.

(l) Section 14601.1, relating to driving when suspended.

(m) Section 14601.2, relating to driving when suspended.

(n) Section 14610, relating to unlawful use of driver's license.

(o) Section 14610.1, relating to identification documents.

(p) Section 15501, relating to use of false or fraudulent license by a minor.

SEC. 9. Section 40000.65 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

40000.65. A violation of Section 2430.5 or 2432, relating to emergency road service, is a misdemeanor and not an infraction.

SEC. 10. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 11. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 489

An act to add Article 3 (commencing with Section 5951) to Chapter 9 of Part 1 of Division 4 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to pest control, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 4, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 3 (commencing with Section 5951) is added to Chapter 9 of Part 1 of Division 4 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 3. Sterile Mexican Fruit Fly Production Facility

5951. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The introduction of Mexican fruit flies into California presents a serious threat to California's economy.

(b) The use of alternative methods for pest control is generally preferred to the aerial application of pesticides over urban areas.

(c) The use of sterile flies has proven to be one of the most effective nonchemical procedures in the successful control and eradication of Mexican fruit flies.

(d) California does not have a reliable source of sterile Mexican fruit flies that may be used to control future infestations of this pest.

(e) The federal government, other states, the agricultural industry, and the country of Mexico would all benefit from a reliable source of sterile Mexican fruit flies.

5952. The director may establish and operate a facility outside of this state to produce sterile Mexican fruit flies or enter into an agreement with any other public or private entity to jointly establish and operate the facility.

5953. Any contract entered into by the department to determine the appropriate location, select a suitable facility, or prepare preliminary plans and working drawings is exempt from the Public Contract Code.

SEC. 2. The sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) is hereby appropriated to the Department of Food and Agriculture from the Department of Agriculture Building Fund, created pursuant to Section 621 of the Food and Agricultural Code, for expenditure by the director to determine the appropriate location, select a suitable facility, and prepare preliminary plans and working drawings necessary to establish the facility described in Section 5952 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to alleviate the threat of future infestations of Mexican fruit flies and the need to expedite the establishment of a sterile fruit fly production facility, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 490

An act to add Section 9703 to the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 487g of the Penal Code, relating to animals.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9703 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

9703. (a) A pet cemetery owner may dispose of the remains of any pet which has been left for more than seven days at the pet cemetery if arrangements have not been made with the pet cemetery owner for the disposition of the pet.

(b) A pet cemetery owner shall post a notice conspicuous to the public on the cemetery site stating that the remains of any pet which has been left for more than seven days at the pet cemetery may be disposed of if arrangements have not been made with the cemetery owner for the disposition of the pet.

SEC. 2. Section 487g of the Penal Code is amended to read:

487g. Every person who steals or maliciously takes or carries away any animal of another for purposes of sale, medical research, or other commercial uses, or who knowingly, by any false representation or pretense, defrauds another person of any animal for purposes of medical research or slaughter, is guilty of a public offense punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year or in the state prison.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 491

An act to amend Section 3570 of, and to add Section 3569.5 to, the Elections Code, and to amend Sections 82002, 87304, 87306, and 88001 of the Government Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3569.5 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

3569.5. If the ballot contains a question as to the confirmation of a justice of the Supreme Court or a court of appeal, the Secretary of State shall include in the state ballot pamphlet a written explanation of the electoral procedure for justices of the Supreme Court and the courts of appeal. The explanation shall state as follows:

Under the California Constitution, justices of the Supreme Court and the courts of appeal are subject to confirmation by the voters. The public votes "yes" or "no" on whether to retain each justice.

These judicial offices are nonpartisan.

Before a person can become an appellate justice, the Governor must submit the candidate's name to the Judicial Nominees Evaluation Commission, made up of public members and lawyers. The commission conducts a thorough review of the candidate's background and qualifications, with community input, and then forwards its evaluation of the candidate to the Governor.

The Governor then officially nominates the candidate, whose qualifications are subject to public comment before examination and review by the Commission on Judicial Appointments. That commission consists of the Chief Justice of California, the Attorney General of California, and a senior Presiding Justice of the Courts of Appeal. The Commission on Judicial Appointments must then confirm or reject the nomination. Only if confirmed does the nominee become a justice.

Following confirmation, the justice is sworn into office and is subject to voter approval at the next gubernatorial election, and thereafter at the conclusion of each term.

SEC. 2. Section 3570 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

3570. The ballot pamphlet shall contain all of the following:

(a) A complete copy of each state measure.

(b) A copy of the specific constitutional or statutory provision, if any, which would be repealed or revised by each state measure.

(c) A copy of the arguments and rebuttals for and against each state measure.

(d) A copy of the analysis of each state measure.

(e) Tables of contents, indexes, art work, graphics and other materials which the Secretary of State determines will make the ballot pamphlet easier to understand or more useful for the average voter.

(f) A notice, conspicuously printed on the cover of the ballot pamphlet, indicating that additional copies of the ballot pamphlet will be mailed by the county clerk upon request.

(g) A written explanation of the judicial retention procedure as required by Section 3569.5.

SEC. 3. Section 82002 of the Government Code is amended to read:

82002. "Administrative action" means the proposal, drafting, development, consideration, amendment, enactment or defeat by any state agency of any rule, regulation or other action in any rate-making proceeding or any quasi-legislative proceeding, which shall include any proceeding governed by Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2.

SEC. 4. Section 87304 of the Government Code is amended to read:

87304. If any agency fails to submit a proposed conflict of interest code or amendments, or if any state agency fails to report amendments pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 87306 within the time limits prescribed pursuant to Section 87303 or 87306, the code reviewing body may issue any appropriate order directed to the agency or take any other appropriate action, including the adoption of a conflict of interest code for the agency. If the code reviewing body does not issue an appropriate order or take other action within 90 days of the deadline imposed on the agency as prescribed in Section 87303 or 87306, the commission may issue any appropriate order directed to the agency or take any other appropriate action, including the adoption of a conflict of interest code for the agency. The commission shall consult with the agency before ordering the adoption of a conflict of interest code for the agency.

SEC. 5. Section 87306 of the Government Code is amended to read:

87306. (a) Every agency shall amend its Conflict of Interest Code, subject to the provisions of Section 87303, when change is necessitated by changed circumstances, including the creation of new positions which must be designated pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 87302 and relevant changes in the duties assigned to existing positions. Amendments or revisions shall be submitted to the code reviewing body within 90 days after the changed circumstances necessitating the amendments have become apparent. If after nine months following the occurrence of those changes the Conflict of Interest Code has not been amended or revised, the superior court may issue any appropriate order in an action brought under the procedures set forth in Section 87305.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), every state agency shall submit to the code reviewing body a biennial report identifying changes in its code, including, but not limited to, all new positions designated pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 87302, changes in the list of reportable sources of income, and relevant changes in the duties assigned to existing positions. These reports shall be submitted no later than March 1 of each odd-numbered year.

SEC. 6. Section 88001 of the Government Code is amended to read:

88001. The ballot pamphlet shall contain all of the following:

(a) A complete copy of each state measure.

(b) A copy of the specific constitutional or statutory provision, if any, which would be repealed or revised by each state measure.

(c) A copy of the arguments and rebuttals for and against each state measure.

(d) A copy of the analysis of each state measure.

(e) Tables of contents, indexes, art work, graphics and other materials which the Secretary of State determines will make the ballot pamphlet easier to understand or more useful for the average voter.

(f) A notice, conspicuously printed on the cover of the ballot pamphlet, indicating that additional copies of the ballot pamphlet will be mailed by the county clerk upon request.

(g) A written explanation of the judicial retention procedure as required by Section 3569.5 of the Elections Code.

SEC. 7. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 492

An act to amend Section 11366 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to controlled substances.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11366 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11366. Every person who opens or maintains any place for the purpose of unlawfully selling, giving away, or using any controlled substance which is (1) specified in subdivision (b), (c), or (e), or paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 11054, specified in paragraph (13), (14), (15), or (20) of subdivision (d) of Section 11054, or specified in subdivision (b), (c), paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (d), or paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 11055, or (2) which is a narcotic drug classified in Schedule III, IV, or V, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than one year or the state prison.

SEC. 2. Section 11366 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11366. Every person who opens or maintains any place for the purpose of unlawfully selling, giving away, or using any controlled substance which is (1) specified in subdivision (b), (c), or (e), or paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 11054, specified in paragraph (13), (14), (15), or (20) of subdivision (d) of Section 11054, or specified in subdivision (b) , (c), paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (d), or paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 11055, or (2) which is a narcotic drug classified in Schedule III, IV, or V is guilty of a misdemeanor or a Schedule E felony, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or in the state prison.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 11366 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and Senate Bill 25. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1992, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 11366 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after Senate Bill 25, in which case Section 11366 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 1 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of Senate Bill 25, at which time Section 2 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 493

An act to amend Sections 256 and 257 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 256 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

256. Subject to the orders of the juvenile court, a traffic hearing officer may hear and dispose of (1) any case in which a minor under the age of 18 years as of the date of the alleged offense is charged with any violation of the Vehicle Code not declared to be a felony, (2) a violation of subdivision (m) of Section 602 of the Penal Code, (3) a violation of the Fish and Game Code not declared to be a felony, (4) a violation of any of the equipment and registration provisions of the Harbors and Navigation Code, (5) a violation of any provision of an ordinance of a city, county, or local agency relating to traffic offenses, or to nontraffic offenses regarding loitering or curfew, (6) a violation of Section 126 or 27176 of the Streets and Highways Code, (7) a violation of any provision of an ordinance of a city, county, or local agency relating to evasion of fares on a public transportation system, as defined by Section 99211 of the Public Utilities Code, (8) a violation of Section 640 or 640a of the Penal Code, (9) a violation of the rules and regulations established pursuant to Sections 5003 and 5008 of the Public Resources Code, (10) a violation of Section 33211.6 of the Public Resources Code, (11) a violation of Section 25658, 25658.5, 25661, or 25662 of the Business and Professions Code, (12) a violation of subdivision (f) of Section 647 of the Penal Code, or (13) a misdemeanor violation of Section 594 of the Penal Code involving defacing property with paint or any other liquid.

SEC. 2. Section 257 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

257. With the consent of the minor, a hearing before a traffic hearing officer, or a hearing before a referee or a judge of the juvenile court, where the minor is charged with a traffic offense or a nontraffic offense as specified in this section, may be conducted upon an exact legible copy of a written notice given pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 40500) of Chapter 2 of Division 17 or Section 41103 of the Vehicle Code, or an exact legible copy of a written notice given pursuant to Chapter 5C (commencing with Section 853.6) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code when the offense charged is a violation of the Fish and Game Code not declared to be a felony, a violation of subdivision (m) of Section 602 of the Penal Code, a violation of a provision of an ordinance of a city, county, or local agency relating to loitering, curfew, or fare evasion on a public transportation system, as defined by Section 99211 of the Public Utilities Code, a violation of Section 640 or 640a of the Penal Code, a violation of the rules and regulations established pursuant to Sections 5003 and 5008 of the Public Resources Code, a violation of Section 33211.6 of the Public Resources Code, a violation of Section 25658, 25658.5, 25661, or 25662 of the Business and Professions Code, a violation of subdivision (f) of Section 647 of the Penal Code, or a misdemeanor violation of Section 594 of the Penal Code involving defacing property with paint or any other liquid. in lieu of a petition as provided in Article 16 (commencing with Section 650).

CHAPTER 494

An act to amend Sections 3900, 3901, and 3915 of the Public Resources Code, relating to mining claims.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3900 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3900. Any person, who is a citizen of the United States or who has declared his or her intention to become a citizen, and who discovers a vein or lode of quartz, or other rock in place, bearing gold, silver, cinnabar, lead, tin, copper, or any other valuable deposit, may locate a claim upon the vein or lode, by defining the boundaries of the claim, in the manner specified in this chapter, by erecting at the point of discovery a monument as defined in Section 3915, and by posting in or on the monument a notice of the location. The notice shall contain all of the following:

(a) The name of the lode or claim.

(b) The name, current mailing address or current residence address, of the locator.

(c) The number of linear feet claimed in length along the course of the vein, each way from the point of discovery, with the width on each side of the center of the claim, and the general course of the vein or lode, as near as may be.

(d) The date of location, which shall be the date of posting the notice.

(e) A description of the type of monuments used for the discovery and corner monuments.

(f) A description of the claim by reference to some natural object, or permanent monument, as will identify the claim located.

SEC. 2. Section 3901 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3901. The locator of any lode mining claim shall define the boundaries of the claim so that they may be readily traced, but in no case shall the claim extend more than 1,500 feet along the course of the vein or lode, or more than 300 feet on either side thereof as measured from the centerline of the vein at the surface. Within 60 days after the date of location of any lode mining claim located, the locator shall erect at each corner of the claim, a monument as defined in Section 3915. Each corner monument so erected shall bear or contain markings sufficient to appropriately designate the corner of the mining claim and the name of the claim to which it pertains.

SEC. 3. Section 3915 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3915. (a) The following are the only monuments which may be used pursuant to this chapter:

(1) A wooden post not less than 1½ inches in diameter projecting at least two feet above the ground.

(2) A mound of stone projecting at least two feet above the ground.

(3) A nonperforated, capped metal post or solid metal rod, not less than one inch in diameter and projecting at least two feet above the ground.

(b) Where, by reason of precipitous ground, it is impractical or dangerous to place a monument in its true position, a witness monument may be erected as near thereto as the nature of the ground will permit and marked so as to identify the true position.

(c) Where, by reason of working the claim, it is impractical or dangerous to maintain a monument in its true position, a witness monument shall be erected as near thereto as the nature of the ground will permit and marked so as to identify the true position.

(d) Any person using on January 1, 1992, or who has previously erected, any monument or object other than those defined in this section for the purposes of this chapter shall have until January 1, 1995, to comply with this section or remove those monuments which are not in compliance.

(e) Within 180 days of abandonment, relinquishment, or loss of a claim, in effect on January 1, 1992, all monuments pertaining to that claim shall be permanently removed by the locator. A person who violates this subdivision shall be subject to a fine of not more than fifty dollars ($50) for each monument which is not removed and additionally liable for any cost incurred by the federal, state, or county government agency which removes any monument or has it removed.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 495

An act to amend Sections 1674, 1680, and 1698.2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and to add Section 11478.2 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to social services.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that the support enforcement program supervised by the state and administered by local district attorneys have the highest level of importance. To this end, it is the intent of the Legislature that prosecuting attorneys make support enforcement efforts one of their highest priorities and that support enforcement cases be pursued with diligence to enable families to be self-supporting and to avoid welfare dependency.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that to maximize the effectiveness of the support enforcement program, when establishing paternity and establishing, modifying, and enforcing support orders and judgments, prosecuting attorneys take all reasonable steps to consult with custodial parents, to inform recipients of available support enforcement services, and to provide recipients with information on all orders obtained by prosecuting attorneys on their behalf.

(c) It is further the intent of the Legislature that the people of the state should expect support enforcement cases to be considered among the most important cases in the prosecuting attorneys' offices.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1674 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1674. If this state is acting as an initiating state, the prosecuting attorney, upon the request of the court or the obligee, shall initiate proceedings under this title. If the prosecuting attorney neglects or refuses to initiate proceedings, the Attorney General may order the prosecuting attorney to comply with the request of the court, or may undertake the initiation of proceedings.

SEC. 2. Section 1680 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1680. (a) After the responding court receives copies of the complaint, certificate and act from the initiating court, the clerk of the court shall docket the case and notify the prosecuting attorney of his or her action. Claims received by this state from an initiating agency shall be forwarded to the district attorney for preparation and filing of appropriate pleadings.

(b) The prosecuting attorney shall prosecute the case diligently. He or she shall take all action necessary to enable the court to obtain jurisdiction over the obligor or the obligor's property in accordance with law. He or she shall, upon being notified that the cause has been docketed, either (1) request the court to issue a citation requiring the defendant to appear personally at a specified time and place to show cause why an order should not be issued on the basis of the complaint on file, and cause a copy of the complaint and of the citation to be served upon the obligor at least 10 days prior to the hearing, or (2) request the issuance of a summons and cause a copy of the complaint and summons to be served upon the obligor.

(c) If the prosecuting attorney neglects or refuses to prosecute the case pursuant to this chapter, the Attorney General may order the prosecuting attorney to prosecute the case, or may undertake the prosecution.

SEC. 3. Section 1698.2 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1698.2. If this state is acting either as a rendering or a registering state, the prosecuting attorney shall represent the public interest in enforcing support obligations in proceedings under this part.

If the prosecuting attorney neglects or refuses to represent the public interest in enforcing support obligations, the Attorney General may order the prosecuting attorney to represent the public interest or may undertake the representation.

SEC. 4. Section 11478.2 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11478.2. (a) In all actions involving paternity or support, including, but not limited to, proceedings under Title 3 (commencing with Section 241) of Part 3 of Division 1 of the Civil Code, under Part 5 (commencing with Section 4000) of Division 4 of the Civil Code, under Part 7 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 4 of the Civil Code, under Title 10a (commencing with Section 1650) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and under this division, the district attorney and Attorney General represent the public interest in establishing, modifying, and enforcing support obligations. No attorney-client relationship shall be deemed to have been created between the district attorney or Attorney General and any person by virtue of the action of the district attorney or the Attorney General in carrying out these statutory duties.

(b) The provisions of subdivision (a) are declarative of existing law.

(c) In all requests for services of the district attorney or Attorney General pursuant to Section 11475.1 relating to actions involving paternity or support, not later than the same day an individual makes a request for these services in person, and not later than five working days after either (1) a case is referred for services from the county welfare department, (2) receipt of a request by mail for an application for services, or (3) an individual makes a request for services by telephone, the district attorney or Attorney General shall give notice to the individual requesting services or on whose behalf services have been requested that the district attorney or Attorney General does not represent the individual or the children who are the subject of the case, that no attorney-client relationship exists between the district attorney or Attorney General and those persons, and that no such representation or relationship shall arise if the district attorney or Attorney General provides the services requested. Notice shall be in bold print and in plain English and shall be translated into the language understandable by the recipient when reasonable. The notice shall include the advice that the absence of an attorney-client relationship means that communications from the recipient are not privileged and that the district attorney or Attorney General may provide support enforcement services to the other parent in the future.

(d) The district attorney or Attorney General shall give the notice required pursuant to subdivision (c) to all recipients of services under Section 11475.1 who have not otherwise been provided that notice, not later than the date of the next annual notice required under Section 11476.2. This notice shall include notification to the recipient of services under Section 11475.1 that the recipient may inspect the clerk's file at the county clerk's office, and that, upon request, the district attorney, or, if appropriate, the Attorney General, will furnish a copy of the most recent order entered in the case.

(e) The district attorney, or, if appropriate, the Attorney General, shall provide to recipients of support services under Section 11475.1, not later than 30 calendar days after the filing of a complaint for paternity or support, or both, information sufficient to identify the cases, including the case name and docket number and address of the court where the complaint has been filed. In this initial notice, the district attorney or Attorney General shall inform the recipient that the district attorney or Attorney General may enter into a stipulated order resolving the complaint, and that if the recipient wishes to assist the prosecuting attorney, he or she should send all information on the noncustodial parent's earnings and assets to the prosecuting attorney.

(f) The district attorney or Attorney General shall give reasonable notice to recipients of services under Section 11475.1 of the initial date and time, and purpose of every hearing in a civil action for paternity or support. The district attorney or Attorney General shall make reasonable efforts to ensure that the district attorney or Attorney General has current addresses for recipients of support enforcement services. The notice shall be made no later than seven calendar days prior to the hearing, or within two days of the receipt of notice of the hearing by the district attorney or Attorney General, if notice is received less than seven calendar days prior to the hearing. The failure of the district attorney or Attorney General to comply with this subdivision shall not affect the validity of any order.

(g) The district attorney or Attorney General shall give notice to recipients of services under Section 11475.1 of every order obtained by the district attorney or Attorney General that establishes or modifies the support obligation for the recipient or the children who are the subject of the order, by sending a copy of the order to the recipient. The notice shall be made within 30 calendar days after the order has been filed. The district attorney or Attorney General shall also give notice to these recipients of every order obtained in any other jurisdiction, that establishes or modifies the support obligation for the recipient or the children who are the subject of the order, and which is received by the district attorney or Attorney General, by sending a copy of the order to the recipient within 30 calendar days after the district attorney or Attorney General has received a copy of the order. In any action enforced under Title 10a (commencing with Section 1650) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the notice shall be made in compliance with the requirements of that section. The failure of the district attorney or Attorney General to comply with this subdivision shall not affect the validity of any order.

(h) The district attorney or Attorney General shall give notice to the noncustodial parent against whom a civil action is filed that the district attorney or Attorney General is not the attorney representing any individual, including, but not limited to, the custodial parent, the child, or the noncustodial parent.

(i) Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude any person who is receiving services under Section 11475.1 from filing and prosecuting an independent action to establish, modify, and enforce an order for current support on behalf of himself or herself or a child if that person is not receiving public assistance.

(j) A person who is receiving services under Section 11475.1 but who is not currently receiving public assistance on his or her own behalf or on behalf of a child shall be asked to execute, or consent to, any stipulation establishing or modifying a support order in any action in which that person is named as a party, before the stipulation is filed. The district attorney or Attorney General shall not submit to the court for approval a stipulation to establish or modify a support order in such an action without first obtaining the signatures of all parties to the action, their attorneys of record, or persons authorized to act on their behalf.

(k) The district attorney or Attorney General shall not enter into a stipulation which reduces the amount of past due support, including interest and penalties accrued pursuant to an order of current support, on behalf of a person who is receiving support enforcement services under Section 11475.1 and who is owed support arrearages that exceed unreimbursed public assistance paid to the recipient of the support enforcement services, without first obtaining the consent of the person who is receiving services under Section 11475.1 on his or her own behalf or on behalf of the child.

(1) In all cases in which the person receiving services under Section 11475.1 resides in California, notice shall be provided by mailing the item by first-class mail to the last known address of, or personally delivering the item to, that person.

(2) In all actions enforced under Title 10a (commencing with Section 1650) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, unless otherwise specified, notice shall be provided by mailing the item by first-class mail to the initiating court.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 496

An act to add Section 43806 to the Health and Safety Code, and to add Sections 28113 and 28114 to the Vehicle Code, relating to public transportation.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(a) In many areas of the state, motor vehicles with conventional gasoline and diesel combustion engines are responsible for more air pollution than any other single source.

(b) Improved technology has made the use of low-emission vehicles feasible for use in the state.

(c) It is in the best interest of California to require the use of low-emission vehicles for public transportation because their use will result in a decrease in vehicular air pollution.

(d) It is in the best interest of the state that a variety of both alternative fueled vehicles and electric vehicles be available to the people of California in order to promote the most efficient use of available energy and help reduce air pollution.

SEC. 2. Section 43806 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

43806. On or before January 1, 1993, the state board shall adopt emission standards and procedures applicable to new engines used in publicly owned and privately owned public transit buses, and shall make the standards and procedures effective on or before January 1, 1996. The standards shall consider the engine and fuel as a system and shall reflect the use of the best emission control technologies expected to be available at the time the standards and procedures become effective. In adopting standards, the state board shall consider the projected costs and availability of cleaner burning alternative fuels and low-emission vehicles compared with other air pollution control measures.

SEC. 3. Section 28113 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

28113. (a) Every light-duty and medium-duty motor vehicle operated for compensation to transport persons in an air quality management district or air pollution control district, which does not meet all applicable state ambient air quality standards, shall be a low-emission vehicle, as defined by regulation of the State Air Resources Board. If the vehicle is capable of operating on more than one fuel, it shall be operated within any nonattainment area to the maximum extent practicable either on the designated clean fuel on which the low-emission vehicle was certified or on any other fuel designated by the State Air Resources Board as a substitute fuel for the designated clean fuel. Any air quality management district or air pollution control district may adopt regulations for the enforcement of this section which are consistent with regulations of the State Air Resources Board.

(b) As used in this section, "motor vehicle operated for compensation to transport persons" includes a taxi cab, bus, airport shuttle vehicle, transit authority or transit district vehicle, or a vehicle owned by a private entity providing transit service under contract with a transit district or transportation authority.

(c) As used in this section, "light-duty" has the same meaning as defined in Section 39035 of the Health and Safety Code.

(d) As used in this section, "medium-duty" has the same meaning as defined in Section 39037.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(e) This section applies to all new light-duty motor vehicles purchased on or after January 1, 1997, and to all new medium-duty vehicles purchased on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 4. Section 28114 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

28114. (a) Every heavy-duty vehicle operated by a transit authority or transit district, or owned by a private entity providing transit service under contract with a transit district or transportation authority, and used to transport persons for compensation shall meet the emission standards adopted by the State Air Resources Board pursuant to Section 43806 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) As used in this section, "heavy-duty" has the same meaning as defined in Section 39033 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) This section applies to all new heavy-duty motor vehicles purchased on or after January 1, 1996, and all new or replacement engines purchased on or after January 1, 1996, for use in heavy-duty vehicles.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 497

An act to amend Sections 70047, 73344, 73348, 73349, and 73354 of, and to repeal and add Sections 73353 and 73353.2 of, the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 70047 of the Government Code is amended to read:

70047. (a) In Contra Costa County, the annual salary of each regular official reporter shall be based on a four-step salary plan as established by joint action and approval of the board of supervisors and a majority of the judges of the court. The step of entry shall be step one. However, the judges of the court may appoint any such reporter to a duly allocated exempt position at a higher step if, in the opinion of the appointing judge, an individual to be appointed has the experience and qualifications to entitle that individual to a higher initial step, but in no case may the initial salary be above the third step of the salary range. Official reporters shall advance to the next higher step on the salary plan annually, upon affirmative approval of the appointing authority. The compensation of each official reporter pro tempore shall be an amount which is equivalent to 1.05 times the daily wage of the fourth step in the salary range for full-time official reporters in Contra Costa County for each day the reporter is on duty under order of the court. Additional official reporters pro tempore may also be appointed on a half-day basis as the business of the court requires. Those reporters shall be compensated at a rate which is 55 percent of the daily wage of an official reporter pro tempore for each period up to four hours that the reporter is on duty under the order of the court.

(b) During the hours which the court is open for the transaction of judicial business, the regular official reporter shall perform the duties required by law. When not engaged in the performance of any other duty imposed upon him or her by law, he or she shall render stenographic or clerical assistance to the judge of the court to which he or she is assigned as that judge may direct.

(c) The board of supervisors shall adjust the salary of regular official reporters as part of its regular review of county employee compensation. The adjustment shall be to that salary level closest to the average percentage adjustment in basic salaries of the county classes of superior court clerk, legal clerk, secretary, and clerk (experienced level), and shall be effective on the same date.

(d) In addition to any fee otherwise required, in civil trials that last longer than one judicial day, a fee equal to the per diem rate for official reporters pro tempore shall be charged per day of service to the parties, on a pro rata basis, for the services of an official reporter for the second and each succeeding day a reporter is required.

(e) In addition to any fee otherwise required, in civil cases in which the court orders a daily transcript necessitating the services of two phonographic reporters, the party requesting the daily transcript shall pay a fee equal to the per diem rate for official reporters pro tempore for each day of service rendered by the second reporter, for the first and each successive day of trial.

(f) All parties shall deposit their pro rata share of those fees with the clerk at the beginning of the second and each succeeding day's court session.

(g) The fees shall be taxed as costs in favor of any party paying the same and to whom costs are awarded by the judgment of the court. The fee is not subject to Section 6103.

SEC. 2. Section 73344 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73344. (a) Pursuant to Section 72194, the judges of the court may appoint as many additional reporters as the business of the court requires, who shall be known as official reporters pro tempore. They shall serve without salary but shall receive as compensation a fee which shall be an amount equivalent to 1.05 times the daily wage of the fourth step in the salary range for full-time official reporters in Contra Costa County as provided for by Section 73348 for each day that reporter is on duty under order of the court.

(b) Additional official reporters pro tempore may also be appointed on a half-day basis as the business of the court requires. Those reporters shall serve without salary but shall receive as compensation a fee which shall be 55 percent of the daily wage of an official reporter pro tempore for each period up to four hours that the reporter is on duty under order of the court.

SEC. 3. Section 73348 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73348. (a) In Contra Costa County, the annual salary of each regular official reporter shall be based on a four-step salary plan with one-year increments. Effective January 1, 1991, the four salary steps are as follows:

Step 1. Forty-two thousand nine hundred sixty dollars ($42,960).

Step 2. Forty-five thousand one hundred eight dollars ($45,108).

Step 3. Forty-seven thousand three hundred sixty-four dollars ($47,364).

Step 4. Forty-nine thousand seven hundred twenty-eight dollars ($49,728).

The step of entry to the above schedule shall be Step 1. However, the judges of the court may appoint a court reporter to a duly allocated exempt position at a higher step if, in the opinion of the appointing judge, an individual to be appointed has the experience and qualifications to entitle that individual to the higher initial step, and if the higher initial salary has the approval of the presiding judge of the court and the board of supervisors, but in no case may the initial salary be above the third step of the salary range. Except as provided below, official reporters shall advance to the next higher step on the salary plan annually. The compensation of each official reporter pro tempore shall be an amount which is equivalent to 1.05 times the daily wage of the fourth step in the salary range for full-time official reporters in Contra Costa County for each day the reporter actually is on duty under order of the court which per diem rate shall apply when an official reporter is appointed pursuant to Section 869 of the Penal Code.

Irrespective of the step of the salary range to which initially appointed, an official court reporter shall be eligible for advancement to the next higher step in the salary range after six months' service, and thereafter shall advance on the salary range based on annual reviews.

(b) During the hours which the court is open for the transaction of judicial business, the regular official reporter shall perform the duties required by law. When not engaged in the performance of any other duty imposed upon him or her by law, he or she shall render stenographic or clerical assistance to the judge of the court to which he or she is assigned as the judge may direct.

(c) The board of supervisors shall adjust the salary of regular official reporters as part of its regular review of county employee compensation. The adjustment shall be to that salary level closest to the average percentage adjustment in basic salaries of the county classes of superior court clerk, legal clerk, secretary, and clerk (experienced level). The reporter salary adjustment shall be effective on the same day as the effective date of the board's action as to all of the aforesaid county classifications, but for official reporters of each municipal court district shall be effective only until January 1 of the second year following the calendar year in which the adjustment is made. The compensation of each official reporter pro tempore shall remain at the rate specified in subdivision (a) for the days he or she actually is on duty until changed by the board of supervisors at the same time and on the same basis as regular official reporters.

SEC. 4. Section 73349 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73349. Except as otherwise provided in this article, all paid employments of any municipal court now established or which may subsequently be established in Contra Costa County shall be under the merit system established in the county. The merit board of the county shall exercise the same jurisdiction over municipal court employments as it exercises over other county employments in the same manner as they apply to other merit system employments in the Contra Costa County service. In addition, all paid employments of any municipal court shall be subject to all provisions of the County Personnel Management Regulations and of the County Salary Regulations except as otherwise may be provided in this article.

In the event that one or more eligibles are not certified to a vacancy within six months of the date the position became vacant, or of the date of receipt of an examination request, whichever is later, the appointing authority may fill the vacancy by appointing any candidate who meets the minimum qualifications for the class as set forth in the class specification. The appointee shall thereby obtain merit system status as described above.

SEC. 5. Section 73353 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 73353 is added to the Government Code, to read:

73353. Effective January 1, 1991, classes of positions provided in Section 73351 are allocated to the salary schedule as follows:

Class Title	Salary Schedule	Pay Level
Deputy Clerk-Beginning Level	C5-1159	1448-1760
Deputy Clerk-Experienced Level	C5-1304	1673-2034

SEC. 7. Section 73353.2 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 73353.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

73353.2. The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors may adopt a resolution establishing a pay-for-performance bonus as defined in subdivision (d). Such a resolution shall state that the bonus program shall be funded by the county solely out of county funds, that the compensation is not a "court operation" for purposes of Sections 77003 and 77204, that the payment of the compensation shall not be a state obligation under the Brown-Presley Trial Court Funding Act, the Trial Court Realignment and Efficiency Act of 1991, or any other related measure, and that the county agrees not to seek funding from the state for the payment of the authorized compensation. If such a resolution is adopted:

(a) At six-month intervals, on January 1 and July 1 of each calendar year, the County Municipal Court Administrator shall conduct assessments of all permanent employees in the classes of Assistant County Municipal Administrator, District Court Manager C, Court Operations Coordinator A, Court Operations Coordinator B, and Deputy Clerk-Division Supervisor, for the purpose of determining eligibility for receipt of a pay-for-performance bonus.

(b) The appointing authority for the position of Municipal Court Administrator shall conduct an assessment on each January 1 and July 1 for the purpose of determining eligibility for receipt of a pay-for-performance bonus.

(c) The employees described in subdivisions (a) and (b) who are determined eligible for a pay-for-performance bonus at the semiannual review may be awarded that bonus. No pay-for-performance bonus may be awarded for a period longer than six months from the date of the semiannual review. Performance must be reevaluated each six months and reauthorization approved pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) for any bonus to continue.

(d) "Pay-for-performance bonus," as used in this section, means a monthly bonus, based on performance, equal to either 2.5 percent or 5 percent of the employee's monthly base pay as of the date of the semiannual review, to be awarded for up to a six-month period.

SEC. 9. Section 73354 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73354. Certain classifications in the municipal courts are deemed to be equivalent in job and salary level to certain classifications in the service of Contra Costa County and whenever the salary of a classification in the service of Contra Costa County is adjusted by the board of supervisors, the salary of the comparable classification in the municipal courts shall be adjusted a commensurate number of levels on the salary schedule. The adjustment shall be effective on the same day as the effective date of the action by the board of supervisors as it applies to the county classifications, but the adjustment shall be effective only until January 1 of the second year following the calendar year in which the adjustment is made.

(a) The individual court class and equivalent county class or relationship are as follows:

Court Class	Equivalent County Class
Deputy Clerk-Beginning	Clerk-Beginning
Deputy Clerk-Experienced	Clerk-Experienced
Deputy Clerk-Senior	Clerk-Senior
Deputy Clerk-Specialist	Clerk-Specialist
Deputy Clerk-DEO I	Data Entry Operator I
Deputy Clerk-DEO II	Data Entry Operator II
Deputy Clerk-Senior DEO	7.5% above Data Entry Operator II
Municipal Court Reporter	Superior Court Reporter
Deputy Clerk-Courtroom Clerk	17.8% above Clerk-Specialist

(b) The municipal court classes listed below are designated management classes and are eligible for all of the compensation and benefit considerations that the board of supervisors may extend to county management employees. Whenever the board of supervisors adopts a general salary adjustment for county management classes, the respective salary schedules of municipal court management classes shall be adjusted by an equivalent percentage amount. In no event shall the salary of Deputy Clerk-Division Supervisor be less than 2.5 percent above the salary of Deputy Clerk-Courtroom Clerk.

Management Positions:

Deputy Clerk-Division Supervisor
Court Operations Coordinator B or A District Court Manager-A District Court Manager-B
District Court Manager-C
Executive Secretary
Municipal Court Training Officer
Municipal Court Management Analyst
Municipal Court Systems Manager
Municipal Court Fiscal Officer
Assistant County Municipal Court Administrator
County Municipal Court Administrator

(c) For commissioners appointed prior to July 1, 1985, the class of court commissioner shall be allocated to a five-step salary schedule, in five percent incremental steps with the fifth step equivalent to 85 percent of the salary of a superior court judge in the County of Contra Costa. For commissioners appointed on and subsequent to July 1, 1985, the class of court commissioner shall be allocated to a three-step salary schedule, in 5 percent incremental steps with the third step equivalent to 85 percent of the salary of a municipal court judge in the County of Contra Costa. Upon appointment, a new court commissioner shall be allocated to the first step of the schedule, except that an appointee with exceptionally high qualifications and experience may be appointed at a higher step with the board of supervisors' approval.

SEC. 10. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 498

An act to amend Sections 253.8, 263.2, 301, and 401 of, to add Sections 72 and 401.1 to, and to repeal Section 616 of, the Streets and Highways Code, relating to highways.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 72 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

72. (a) The department shall do all of the following with respect to Route 480 in the City and County of San Francisco, commonly known as the Embarcadero Freeway, if approval for the use of federal emergency relief funds for that purpose is received from the appropriate federal agency:

(1) Remove the earthquake-damaged structure as quickly as possible.

(2) Retain that portion of the right-of-way that is necessary for new ramps and transfer to the City and County of San Francisco the remaining portions of the Route 480 right-of-way.

(3) Jointly agree with the City and County of San Francisco on a system of ramps and city streets that would essentially provide motorists with accessibility comparable to that provided by Route 480.

(b) The City and County of San Francisco shall do both of the following:

(1) Construct the system of ramps and city streets and utilize the Route 480 right-of-way or the proceeds from sales of that right-of-way for the sole purpose of constructing an alternate system of local streets pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a).

(2) Upon the transfer of that right-of-way pursuant to this section, accept all obligations and liabilities associated with that right-of-way.

(c) The total amount of state and federal funds to be expended by the state for the purposes of this section shall not exceed the amount of state and federal funds which would have been expended to repair and reopen the segment to traffic as a state highway.

(d) Nothing in this section or Section 253.8 shall be construed to prohibit the selection, development, and operation of a project pursuant to Section 143.

SEC. 2. Section 253.8 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

253.8. The California freeway and expressway system shall also include:

Route 227 from Route 1 south of Oceano to Route 101 near Arroyo Grande.

Route 244 from Route 80 to Auburn Boulevard.

Route 299 from:

(a) Route 101 near Arcata to Route 5 at Redding.

(b) Route 5 at Redding to Route 395 at Alturas.

Route 395 from:

(a) Route 15 near Cajon Pass to the Nevada state line.

(b) Nevada state line northwest of Reno to Route 36 near Johnstonville.

(c) Route 36 near Termo to the Oregon state line.

Route 905 from Route 5 near the south end of San Diego Bay to the international boundary southerly of Brown Field.

SEC. 3. Section 263.2 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

263.2. The state scenic highway system shall also include:

Route 1 from:

(a) Route 5 south of San Juan Capistrano to Route 19 near Long Beach.

(b) Route 187 near Santa Monica to Route 101 near El Rio.

(c) Route 101 at Las Cruces to Route 246 near Lompoc.

(d) Route 227 south of Oceano to Route 101 near Pismo Beach.

(e) Route 101 near San Luis Obispo to Route 35 near Daly City.

(f) Route 35 in San Francisco to Route 101 near the approach to the Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco.

(g) Route 101 near Marin City to Route 101 near Leggett.

Route 2 from Route 210 in La Canada Flintridge to Route 138 via Wrightwood.

Route 3 from:

(a) Route 36 near Peanut to Route 299 near Douglas City.

(b) Route 299 near Weaverville to Montague.

Route 4 from:

(a) Route 160 near Antioch to Route 84 near Brentwood.

(b) Route 49 near Angels Camp to Route 89.

SEC. 4. Section 301 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

301. Route 1 is from:

(a) Route 5 south of San Juan Capistrano to Route 101 near El Rio.

(b) Route 101 at Emma Wood State Park, 1.3 miles north of Route 33, to Route 101, 2.8 miles south of the Ventura-Santa Barbara county line at Mobil Pier Undercrossing.

(c) Route 101 near Las Cruces to Route 101 near Pismo Beach via the vicinity of Lompoc and Guadalupe.

(d) Route 101 near San Luis Obispo to Route 280 south of San Francisco along the coast via Cambria, San Simeon, and Santa Cruz.

(e) Route 280 near the south boundary of the City and County of San Francisco to Route 101 near the approach to the Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco.

(f) Route 101 near the southerly end of Marin Peninsula to Route 101 near Leggett via the coast route through Jenner and Westport.

SEC. 5. Section 401 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

401. Route 101 is from:

(a) Route 5 near Seventh Street in Los Angeles to Route 80 near Division Street in San Francisco, passing near Ford Road south of San Jose.

(b) Route 80 near Division Street in San Francisco to the junction of Route 1, Funston approach, and the approach to the Golden Gate Bridge in the Presidio of San Francisco passing near the intersections of Lombard Street and Van Ness Avenue.

(c) A point in Marin County opposite San Francisco to the Oregon state line via Crescent City.

SEC. 6. Section 401.1 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

401.1. (a) The department, in consultation with the City and County of San Francisco, shall identify reasonable and practical alternatives for repairing the existing portions of Route 101 in the City and County of San Francisco that were damaged during the 1989 Loma Prieta earthquake and which were closed to traffic. The department shall identify and evaluate the costs and benefits of each alternative, including, but not limited to, the air quality and noise impacts.

(b) The department shall hold at least two public meetings in the development of the alternatives.

(c) Upon completion of the evaluation of the alternatives, the department may proceed with the repair or replacement of the damaged portions, if the selected alternative is approved by a resolution of the city and county.

(d) The total amount of state and federal funds to be expended by the department for the repair or replacement of the damaged portions approved by the city and county pursuant to this section shall not exceed the amount of state and federal funds which would have otherwise been expended by the department to restore the damaged portions to their previous capacity.

SEC. 7. Section 616 of the Streets and Highways Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 499

An act to add Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 21610) to Part 3 of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 21610) is added to Part 3 of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 12. COMPLEMENTARY HEALTH PREMIUM PROGRAM FOR RETIRED MEMBERS

21610. As used in this part, "complementary health premium" means the additional premium paid by retired members whose health insurance premiums are paid under Section 20135 and whose allowances fall below the premium required to continue the health benefits plan coverage provided by their employers.

21611. (a) Any retired member whose health insurance premium is paid under Section 20135 and whose allowance is not sufficient to pay his or her contributions for the health benefits plan coverage provided by his or her employer may continue that coverage by paying to the board the balance of the premium owed plus the related administrative costs, as determined by the board.

(b) The retired member shall pay the complementary health premium by remitting to the board quarterly payments in advance.

(c) The board has no duty to identify, locate, or notify any retired member who may be eligible for programs established by this chapter.

(d) All moneys received pursuant to this chapter shall be deposited in the Public Employees' Contingency Reserve Fund established by Section 22840.

21612. (a) Due to the required administrative services necessary for the implementation of this chapter, permanent staff positions shall be sought through the normal budgetary process.

(b) The board shall charge each participating retired member who elects to pay the complementary health premium a one-time setup charge and a monthly maintenance charge, in amounts sufficient to ensure the ongoing support of the program.

(c) All development and administrative costs of the program shall be paid by the participating retired members.

SEC. 2. (a) The Board of Administration of the Public Employees' Retirement System may administratively establish through the normal budgetary process the limited-term positions necessary to carry out this act for the 1991–92 fiscal year.

(b) There is hereby appropriated from the Public Employees' Contingency Reserve Fund to the board, for the 1991–92 fiscal year, the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) for salary and benefits, equipment, and other operating costs necessary to carry out this act.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that health benefits may be maintained for certain retired school members of the Public Employees' Retirement System, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 500

An act to amend Section 4370 of the Civil Code, and to amend Section 110 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to judicial proceedings.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4370 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4370. (a) During the pendency of any proceeding under this part, the court may order any party, and based upon (1) determining an ability to pay and (2) consideration of the respective incomes and needs of the parties in order to ensure that each party has access to legal representation to preserve all of his or her rights, except a governmental entity, to pay such amount as may be reasonably necessary for the cost of maintaining or defending the proceeding and for attorney's fees. From time to time and before entry of judgment, the court may augment or modify the original award for costs and attorney's fees as may be reasonably necessary for the prosecution or defense of the proceeding or any proceeding related thereto, including after any appeal has been concluded. In respect to services rendered or costs incurred after the entry of judgment, the court may award such costs and attorney's fees as may be reasonably necessary to maintain or defend any subsequent proceeding, and may augment or modify any award so made, including after any appeal has been concluded. Attorney's fees and costs within the provisions of this subdivision may be awarded for legal services rendered or costs incurred prior, as well as subsequent, to the commencement of the proceeding. Any order requiring a party who is not the husband or wife of another party to the proceedings to pay attorney's fees or costs shall be limited to an amount reasonably necessary to maintain or defend the action on the issues relating to that party.

(b) During the pendency of any proceeding under this part, an application for a temporary order making, augmenting, or modifying an award of attorney's fees or costs or both shall be made by motion on notice or by an order to show cause, except that it may be made without notice by an oral motion in open court in either of the following cases:

(1) At the time of the hearing of the cause on the merits.

(2) At any time prior to entry of judgment against a party whose default has been entered pursuant to Section 585 or 586 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, absent good cause to the contrary, the court, upon (1) determining an ability to pay and (2) consideration of the respective incomes and needs of the parties in order to ensure that each party has access to legal representation to preserve all of his or her rights, shall award reasonable attorney's fees to a custodial parent or other person to whom payments should be made in any action to enforce an existing order for child support.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, absent good cause to the contrary, the court, upon (1) determining an ability to pay and (2) consideration of the respective incomes and needs of the parties in order to ensure that each party has access to legal representation to preserve all of his or her rights, shall award reasonable attorney's fees to a supported spouse in any action to enforce an existing order for spousal support.

SEC. 2. Section 110 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

110. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 501

An act to add Section 2938 to the Civil Code, relating to real property.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2938 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

2938. (a) A written assignment of interest in rents, issues, and profits of real property made in connection with a loan secured by real property, stating that it is absolute, shall be deemed to constitute a present transfer of the assignor's interest in existing and future rents, issues, and profits of that real property effective upon the execution and delivery of the assignment by the assignor.

(b) An assignment of an interest in rents, issues, and profits of real property, as described in subdivision (a), may be recorded in the records of the county recorder in which the real property is located in the same manner as any other conveyance of an interest in real property, whether the assignment is in a separate document or part of a mortgage or deed of trust, and when so duly recorded in accordance with the methods, procedures, and requirements for recordation of conveyances of other interests in real property, (1) the assignment shall be deemed to give constructive notice of the content and effect of the assignment with the same force and effect as any other duly recorded conveyance of an interest in real property, and (2) the interest granted by the assignment shall be deemed perfected as of the date of recordation, notwithstanding any provision of the assignment or of any other provision of law that would otherwise preclude or defer enforcement of the rights granted the assignee under the assignment until the occurrence of a subsequent event, including, but not limited to, a subsequent default of the assignor.

SEC. 2. The provisions of this act are declaratory of existing law.

CHAPTER 502

An act to amend Section 57379 of the Government Code, relating to incorporation.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 57379 of the Government Code is amended to read:

57379. If the first general municipal election following an incorporation election will occur less than one year after the effective date of incorporation, or occurred on or after November 1, 1987, and less than one year after the incorporation election, of the five elected members of the city council, the three receiving the lowest number of votes shall hold office until the second general municipal election following the incorporation election and until their successors are elected and qualified, and the two receiving the highest number of votes shall hold office until the third general municipal election following the incorporation election and until their successors are elected and qualified.

The first general municipal election following the incorporation election shall not be held unless either a proposition is to be voted upon or offices other than city council member offices are to be filled.

In the event that, pursuant to Section 56852.5, the first election for city council members was held after the election on the incorporation proposal, the term "incorporation election" in this section means the first election for city council members.

CHAPTER 503

An act to amend Section 148.1 of the Penal Code, relating to bombs.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 148.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

148.1. (a) Any person who reports to any peace officer listed in Section 830.1 or 830.2, employee of a fire department or fire service, district attorney, newspaper, radio station, television station, deputy district attorney, employees of the Department of Justice, employees of an airline, employees of an airport, employees of a railroad or busline, an employee of a telephone company, occupants of a building or a news reporter in the employ of a newspaper or radio or television station, that a bomb or other explosive has been or will be placed or secreted in any public or private place knowing that the report is false, is guilty of a crime punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year.

(b) Any person who reports to any other peace officer defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 that a bomb or other explosive has been or will be placed or secreted in any public or private place, knowing that the report is false, is guilty of a crime punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or in the county jail not to exceed one year if (1) the false information is given while the peace officer is engaged in the performance of his or her duties as a peace officer, and (2) the person providing the false information knows or should have known that the person receiving the information is a peace officer.

(c) Any person who maliciously informs any other person that a bomb or other explosive has been or will be placed or secreted in any public or private place, knowing that the information is false, is guilty of a crime punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year.

(d) Any person who maliciously gives, mails, sends, or causes to be sent any false or facsimile bomb to another person, or places, causes to be placed, or maliciously possesses any false or facsimile bomb, with the intent to cause another to fear for his or her personal safety or the safety of others, is guilty of a crime punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 504

An act to amend Section 216 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to highways.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 216 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

216. (a) The noise level produced by the traffic on, or by the construction of, a state freeway shall be measured in the classrooms, libraries, multipurpose rooms, and spaces used for pupil personnel services of a public or private elementary or secondary school if the rooms or spaces are being used for the purpose for which they were constructed and they were constructed under any of the following circumstances:

(1) Prior to the award of the initial construction contract for the freeway route and prior to January 1, 1974.

(2) After December 31, 1973, and prior to the issuance of a statement of present and projected noise levels of the freeway route by the department pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 65302 of the Government Code.

(3) Subsequent to the construction of the freeway but prior to any alteration or expansion of the freeway which results in a significant and perceptible increase in ambient noise levels in the rooms or spaces.

(b) The measurements shall be made at appropriate times during regular school hours and shall not include noise from sources that exceed the maximum permitted by law.

(c) If the noise level produced from the freeway traffic, or the construction of the freeway, exceeds 55dBA, L10, or 52dBA, Leq., the department shall undertake a noise abatement program in any such classroom, library, multipurpose room, or space used for pupil personnel services to reduce the freeway traffic noise level therein to 55dBA, L10, or 52dBA, Leq., or less, by, measures including, but not limited to, installing acoustical materials, eliminating windows, installing air conditioning, or constructing sound baffle structures.

(d) If the department determines that the construction of the freeway will result in a noise level exceeding 55dBA, L10, or 52dBA, Leq., the department shall complete the temporary or permanent noise abatement program prior to commencing that construction, or as soon as practicable thereafter.

(e) If it becomes necessary to convert the classrooms, libraries, multipurpose rooms, or spaces used for pupil personnel services to other school-related purposes because the freeway traffic noise level therein exceeds 55dBA, L10, or 52dBA, Leq., the department shall pay the cost of the conversions.

(f) If the noise level generated from sources within and without the classrooms, libraries, multipurpose rooms, or spaces used for pupil personnel services exceeds 55dBA, L10, or 52dBA, Leq. prior to construction of the freeway or completion of the alteration or expansion of the freeway, as the case may be, and the noise from the freeway, or its construction , alteration, or expansion, also exceeds 55dBA, L10, or 52dBA, Leq., the department shall undertake a noise abatement program that will reduce the noise to its preconstruction, prealteration, or preexpansion level.

(g) Priority for noise abatement programs shall be given to those public and private elementary and secondary classrooms, libraries, multipurpose rooms, and spaces used for pupil personnel services constructed in conformance with Article 3 (commencing with Section 39140) of Chapter 2 of Part 23 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Education Code or subject to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a).

(h) As used in this section, dBA means decibels measured by the "A" weighting described in Section 3.1 of the American National Standard specification for sound level meters, S1.4-1971, approved

April 27, 1971, and published by the American National Standards Institute. L10 is the sound level that is exceeded 10 percent of the time for the period under consideration and is a value which is an indicator of both the magnitude and frequency of occurrence of the loudest noise events. Leq. is the equivalent steady state sound which in a stated period of time would contain the same acoustic energy as the time-varying sound level during the same time period.

CHAPTER 505

An act to amend Section 84200.5 of the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 84200.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

84200.5. In addition to the campaign statements required by Section 84200, elected officers, candidates, and committees shall file preelection statements as follows:

(a) During an even-numbered year all candidates for elective state office being voted upon on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November, their controlled committees, and committees primarily formed to support or oppose an elected state officer or a state candidate being voted upon on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November and all elected state officers who, during the reporting periods covered by Section 84200.7, contribute to any committee required to report receipts, expenditures, or contributions pursuant to this title, or make an independent expenditure, shall file the preelection statements specified in Section 84200.7. However, a candidate who is not being voted upon in the November election, his or her controlled committee, and any committee primarily formed to support or oppose that candidate is not required to file statements in connection with the November election pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 84200.7, unless, during the reporting periods covered by Section 84200.7, the candidate, his or her controlled committee, or any committee primarily formed to support or oppose that candidate contributes to any committee required to report receipts, expenditures, or contributions pursuant to this title or makes independent expenditures.

(b) During an even-numbered year, all candidates not specified in subdivision (a) who are being voted upon on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November, their controlled committees, and committees primarily formed to support or oppose those candidates or a measure being voted upon on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November of an even-numbered year shall file the preelection statements specified in subdivision (a) of Section 84200.7 in the case of a June election, or subdivision (b) of Section 84200.7 in the case of a November election.

(c) All candidates being voted upon on a date other than the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November of an even-numbered year, their controlled committees, and committees primarily formed to support or oppose a candidate or a measure being voted upon on a date other than the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November of an even-numbered year shall file the preelection statements specified in Section 84200.8.

(d) During an even-numbered year, state and county general purpose committees formed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 82013 shall file the statements specified in Section 84200.7 if they make contributions or independent expenditures totaling five hundred dollars ($500) or more during the period covered by the preelection statement. State and county general purpose committees formed pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 82013 are not required to file the statements specified in Section 84200.7.

(e) City general purpose committees shall file statements as follows:

(1) City general purpose committees in a city which has an election on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November of an even-numbered year shall file the statements specified in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 84200.7 for the six-month period in which the city election is held, if they make contributions or independent expenditures totaling five hundred dollars ($500) or more during the period covered by the preelection statement.

(2) City general purpose committees in a city which has an election on a date other than the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November of an even-numbered year shall file the preelection statements specified in Section 84200.8 if they make contributions or independent expenditures totaling five hundred dollars ($500) or more during the period covered by the preelection statement.

(f) Committees formed or existing primarily to support or oppose the qualification of a ballot measure and proponents of a state ballot measure who control a committee formed or existing primarily to support the qualification of a measure shall file a campaign statement 21 days after any petitions are filed, or 21 days after the deadline for filing petitions, whichever is earlier. The closing date for the period covered by this statement shall be seven days prior to the deadline for filing the statement.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 506

An act to amend Sections 18050.7, 18060, 18065, 18066, 18116.1, 18300, 18504, and 18613.7 of, and to add Section 18013.2 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to mobilehomes, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18013.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

18013.2. "Third-party entity" or "third party," as used in this part, means an entity which is all of the following:

(a) In the business of inspecting equipment, systems, and assemblies and monitoring quality assurance programs, or analyzing plans, designs, specifications, and engineering calculations supporting design concepts.

(b) Not under the control or jurisdiction of any manufacturer or supplier for any affected industry except by contract as required and approved by the department.

(c) Making available specific information as required by the department.

(d) Approved by the department.

SEC. 2. Section 18050.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18050.7. In addition to any other requirements imposed by this part or regulations of the department, the department shall not grant an initial dealer's license to any applicant who has not satisfied all of the education and experience requirements contained in this section. If the applicant for a dealer's license is a partnership, corporation, or other business entity, each person designated to participate in the direction, control, or management of the sales operation of the entity shall meet all of the education and experience requirements contained in this section prior to issuance of a dealer's license by the department.

(a) The applicant either shall have held a valid salesperson's license for at least two years within the five-year period immediately preceding the application for an initial dealer's license, or shall meet any of the following criteria:

(1) Has acquired a four-year degree from an accredited college or university.

(2) Has held a valid salesperson's license for one year in the past three years and acquired an associate of arts or associate of science degree from an accredited college.

(3) Has been the officer of the corporation, owner or partner of, or has held a management position relating to finance, marketing, administration, or general management with, a manufacturer of manufactured housing in any state for two years within the five years immediately preceding application for an initial dealer's license.

(4) Holds a management position with a housing authority, redevelopment agency, or nonprofit housing corporation which is developing individual lots, a subdivision, or a park for the placement of manufactured homes or mobilehomes.

(5) Has been an escrow, title, or loan officer of a land title company, bank, savings and loan association, or mortgage company in a capacity directly related to financing or conveying title to manufactured housing for two years within the five years immediately preceding application for an initial dealer's license.

(6) Has been a subdivider, developer, or contractor in any state during which time the applicant developed or sold 10 lots or the equivalent, for two years within the five years immediately preceding application for an initial dealer's license.

(7) Has been the officer of a corporation, the owner or partner of a mobilehome park or mobilehome park management company in any state for at least two years within the five years immediately preceding the application for an initial dealer's license.

(8) Has held a dealer's license from a state other than California for at least four years within the five years immediately preceding the application for an initial dealer's license, and has completed 24 hours of continuing education class in California, in addition to the continuing education requirement of subdivision (b).

(b) The applicant shall have met the applicable preliminary education requirements for the salesperson's license under paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 18056.2.

(c) The department may adopt regulations, as necessary, to implement this section.

SEC. 3. Section 18060 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18060. With respect to business operations, it is unlawful to do any of the following:

(a) Make, or knowingly or negligently permit, any illegal use of any special permits, transportation decals, or report of sales books issued to or in favor of a licensee or transporter.

(b) Submit a check, draft, or money order to the department for any obligation or fee due the department which is thereafter dishonored or refused payment upon presentation.

(c) Fail to notify the department, within 10 days, of any change in the ownership or corporate structure of the licensee, or of the employment or termination of a mobilehome or commercial coach salesperson.

SEC. 4. Section 18065 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18065. The licenses or permits provided for in this part shall be automatically canceled upon any of the following events:

(a) The abandonment of the established place of business of the licensee or the change thereof without notice to the department as provided in this part.

(b) The voluntary or involuntary surrender for any cause by the licensee of the license. However, the surrender or cessation of business by the licensee, or the suspension of the corporate charter of the licensee by the state, shall not prevent the filing of an accusation for revocation or suspension of the surrendered license as provided in Section 18058 or the department's decision that the license should be suspended or revoked. Furthermore, this determination may be considered in granting or refusing to grant any subsequent license authorized by this part to the licensee, copartner, or any officer, director, or stockholder of the prior licensee.

(c) Notification that the person designated as licensee has changed.

(d) Suspension or cancellation of the corporate charter of the licensee by the state.

(e) Failure of a licensee to file an application for renewal for the license or permit before the date of expiration of the current license or permit.

(f) Submittal of a check, draft, or money order to the department for a license or license renewal fees due the department which is thereafter dishonored or refused payment upon presentation and which fees and penalty are not thereafter paid by cash, money order, or cashier's check prior to the expiration of the license.

SEC. 5. Section 18066 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18066. The suspension, expiration, or cancellation of a license provided for in this part shall not prevent the filing of an accusation for the revocation or suspension of the suspended, expired, or canceled license as provided in Section 18058, and the department's decision that the license should be suspended or revoked. This determination may be considered in granting or refusing to grant any subsequent license authorized by this part to the licensee.

SEC. 6. Section 18116.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18116.1. (a) Nonpayment of the fees and penalties provided for in Sections 18114, 18114.1, and 18115, and in subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d) of Section 18116 that are due on a mobilehome, manufactured home, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home shall constitute a lien in favor of the State of California in the amount owing.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the lien provided for in subdivision (a) shall include all fees and penalties due and unpaid beginning with the fees for original registration that became delinquent for 120 days or more and continue to accrue to include all fees and penalties that subsequently become due and remain unpaid.

(c) Until the amount of a lien provided for in subdivision (a) or (b) is paid to the department, the department shall not do either of the following:

(1) Amend the permanent title record of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home which is the subject of the lien for the purpose of transferring any ownership interest or transferring or creating any security interest in the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home.

(2) Issue any duplicate, substitute, or new certificate of title, registration card, or copy of a registration card with respect to the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home which is the subject of the lien.

SEC. 7. Section 18300 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18300. (a) This part applies to all parts of the state and supersedes any ordinance enacted by any city, county, or city and county, whether general law or chartered, applicable to this part. Except as provided in Section 18930, the department may adopt regulations to interpret and make specific this part and, when adopted, the regulations shall apply to all parts of the state.

(b) Upon 30 days' written notice from the governing body to the department, any city, county, or city and county may assume the responsibility for the enforcement of this part and the regulations adopted pursuant to this part following approval by the department for the assumption.

(c) The department shall adopt regulations which set forth the conditions for assumption and may include required qualifications of local enforcement agencies. The conditions set forth and the qualifications required in the regulations which set forth the conditions for assumption shall relate solely to the ability of local agencies to enforce properly this part and the regulations adopted pursuant to this part. The regulations which set forth the conditions for assumption shall not set requirements for local agencies different than those which the state maintains for its own enforcement program. When assumption is approved, the department shall transfer the responsibility for enforcement to the city, county, or city and county, together with all records of parks within the jurisdiction of the city, county, or city and county.

(d) (1) In the event of nonenforcement of this part or the regulations adopted pursuant to this part by a city, county, or city and county, the department shall enforce this part and the regulations adopted pursuant to this part in the city, county, or city and county, after the department has given written notice to the governing body of the city, county, or city and county, setting forth in what respects the city, county, or city and county has failed to discharge its responsibility, and the city, county, or city and county has failed to initiate corrective measures to carry out its responsibility within 30 days of the notice.

(2) Where the department determines that the local enforcement agency is not properly enforcing this part, the local enforcement agency shall have the right to appeal the decision to the director of the department.

(e) Any city, city and county, or county, upon written notice from the governing body to the department, may cancel its assumption of responsibility for the enforcement of this part. The department, upon receipt of the notice, shall assume responsibility within 30 days.

(f) Every city, county, or city and county, within its jurisdiction, shall enforce this part and the regulations adopted pursuant to this part, as they relate to manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or recreational vehicles and to accessory buildings or structures located in both of the following areas:

(1) Inside of parks while the city, county, or city and county has assumed responsibility for enforcement of this part.

(2) Outside of parks.

(g) This part shall not prevent local authorities of any city, county, or city and county, within the reasonable exercise of their police powers, from doing any of the following:

(1) From establishing, subject to the requirements of Sections 65852.3 and 65852.7 of the Government Code, certain zones for manufactured homes, mobilehomes, mobilehome parks, and special occupancy parks within the city, county, or city and county, or establishing types of uses and locations, including family mobilehome parks, senior mobilehome parks, mobilehome condominiums, mobilehome subdivisions, or mobilehome planned unit developments within the city, county, or city and county, as defined in the zoning ordinance, or from adopting rules and regulations by ordinance or resolution prescribing park perimeter walls or enclosures on public street frontage, signs, access, and vehicle parking or from prescribing the prohibition of certain uses for mobilehome parks or special occupancy parks.

(2) From regulating the construction and use of equipment and facilities located outside of a manufactured home, mobilehome, or recreational vehicle used to supply gas, water, or electricity thereto, except facilities owned, operated, and maintained by a public utility, or to dispose of sewage or other waste therefrom when the facilities are located outside a park for which a permit is required by this part or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(3) From requiring a permit to use a manufactured home, mobilehome, or recreational vehicle outside a park for which a permit is required by this part or by regulations adopted pursuant thereto, and require a fee therefor by local ordinance commensurate with the cost of enforcing this part and local ordinance with reference to the use of manufactured homes, mobilehomes, and recreational vehicles, which permit may be refused or revoked if the use violates this part or Part 2 (commencing with Section 18000), any regulations adopted pursuant thereto, or any local ordinance applicable to that use.

(4) From requiring a local building permit to construct an accessory structure for a manufactured home or mobilehome when the manufactured home or mobilehome is located outside a mobilehome park, recreational vehicle park, or temporary recreational vehicle park, under circumstances which the provisions of this part or Part 2 (commencing with Section 18000) and the regulations adopted pursuant thereto do not require the issuance of a permit therefor by the department.

(5) From authorizing the creation, movement, shifting, or alteration of mobilehome park lot lines as specified in Section 18610.5.

(h) (1) A city, including a charter city, county, or city and county, shall not require the average density in a new park to be less than that permitted by the applicable zoning ordinance, plus any density bonus, as defined in Section 65915 of the Government Code, for other affordable housing forms.

(2) A city, including a charter city, county, or city and county, shall not require a new park to include a clubhouse. Recreational facilities, recreational areas, accessory structures, or improvements may be required only to the extent that the facilities or improvements are required in other types of residential developments containing a like number of residential dwelling units.

(i) The department may, at the department's sole option, enforce plan review activities associated with this part and the rules and regulations adopted thereunder through department-approved plan checking agencies. The department shall adopt regulations for approving and monitoring plan checking agencies, including, but not limited to, all of the following criteria:

(1) Freedom of any conflict of interest.

(2) Qualifications of personnel.

(3) A prohibition against collusive or fraudulent actions related to the performance of activities required by this part.

(4) Establishment of a schedule of fees to offset the department's cost of administering the approval and monitoring activities.

(5) Establishment of procedures for reimbursement to plan checking agencies for plan review services rendered.

(6) Establishment of a schedule of citations and administrative fines issued by the department upon finding a violation of this subdivision on the part of a plan checking agency.

(7) Any other conditions of operation the department may reasonably require.

(j) (1) The department may, by regulation, provide for the qualification of plan checking agencies to perform reviews of plans and specifications for the construction of mobilehome parks and to perform reviews of plans and specifications for the construction of additional buildings or lots, the alteration of buildings, lots, or other installations, in an existing mobilehome park, in areas in which the department is the enforcement agency. The regulations shall specify that all approved plan checking agencies shall employ at least one architect or engineer, licensed by the State of California, and that the architect or engineer shall be responsible for all plan review activity specified in this part. Plans approved by department-approved agencies shall be deemed the equivalent of department approval of those plans.

(2) No agency approved to serve as a plan checking agency pursuant to this subdivision shall have a financial interest in any mobilehome park, with any owner, developer, or contractor of a mobilehome park, or in any entity used by the department for the purpose of performing oversight of the performance of plan checking agencies.

SEC. 8. Section 18300 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18300. (a) This part applies to all parts of the state and supersedes any ordinance enacted by any city, county, or city and county, whether general law or chartered, applicable to this part. Except as provided in Section 18303 or 18930, the department may adopt regulations to interpret and make specific this part and, when adopted, the regulations shall apply to all parts of the state.

(b) Upon 30 days' written notice from the governing body to the department, any city, county, or city and county may assume the responsibility for the enforcement of this part and the regulations adopted pursuant to this part following approval by the department for the assumption.

(c) The department shall adopt regulations which set forth the conditions for assumption and may include required qualifications of local enforcement agencies. The conditions set forth and the qualifications required in the regulations which set forth the conditions for assumption shall relate solely to the ability of local agencies to enforce properly this part and the regulations adopted pursuant to this part. The regulations which set forth the conditions for assumption shall not set requirements for local agencies different than those which the state maintains for its own enforcement program. When assumption is approved, the department shall transfer the responsibility for enforcement to the city, county, or city and county, together with all records of communities within the jurisdiction of the city, county, or city and county.

(d) (1) In the event of nonenforcement of this part or the regulations adopted pursuant to this part by a city, county, or city and county, the department shall enforce this part and the regulations adopted pursuant to this part in the city, county, or city and county, after the department has given written notice to the governing body of the city, county, or city and county, setting forth in what respects the city, county, or city and county has failed to discharge its responsibility, and the city, county, or city and county has failed to initiate corrective measures to carry out its responsibility within 30 days of the notice.

(2) If the department determines that the local enforcement agency is not properly enforcing this part, the local enforcement agency may appeal the decision to the director of the department.

(e) Any city, city and county, or county, upon written notice from the governing body to the department, may cancel its assumption of responsibility for the enforcement of this part. The department, upon receipt of the notice, shall assume responsibility for enforcement of this part in that city, city and county, or county within 30 days.

(f) Every city, county, or city and county, within its jurisdiction, shall enforce this part and the regulations adopted pursuant to this part, as they relate to manufactured homes, mobilehomes, or recreational vehicles and to accessory buildings or structures located in both of the following areas:

(1) Inside of parks while the city, county, or city and county has assumed responsibility for enforcement of the park.

(2) Outside of communities.

(g) This part shall not prevent local authorities of any city, county, or city and county, within the reasonable exercise of their police powers, from doing any of the following:

(1) (A) From establishing, subject to the requirements of Sections 65852.3 and 65852.7 of the Government Code, certain zones for manufactured homes, mobilehomes, manufactured housing communities, and special occupancy parks within the city, county, or city and county, or establishing types of uses and locations, including family manufactured housing communities, senior manufactured housing communities, mobilehome condominiums, mobilehome subdivisions, or mobilehome planned unit developments within the city, county, or city and county, as defined in the zoning ordinance.

(B) From adopting rules and regulations by ordinance or resolution prescribing community perimeter walls or enclosures on public street frontage, signs, access, and vehicle parking.

(C) From prescribing the prohibition of certain uses for manufactured housing communities or special occupancy parks.

(2) From regulating the construction and use of equipment and facilities located outside of a manufactured home, mobilehome, or recreational vehicle used to supply gas, water, or electricity thereto, except facilities owned, operated, and maintained by a public utility, or to dispose of sewage or other waste therefrom when the facilities are located outside a community for which a permit is required by this part or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(3) From requiring a permit to use a manufactured home, mobilehome, or recreational vehicle outside a community for which a permit is required by this part or by regulations adopted pursuant thereto, and from requiring a fee therefor by local ordinance commensurate with the cost of enforcing this part and local ordinance with reference to the use of manufactured homes, mobilehomes, and recreational vehicles, which permit may be refused or revoked if the use violates this part or Part 2 (commencing with Section 18000), any regulations adopted pursuant thereto, or any local ordinance applicable to that use.

(4) From requiring a local building permit to construct an accessory structure for a manufactured home or mobilehome when the manufactured home or mobilehome is located outside a manufactured housing community, recreational vehicle park, or temporary recreational vehicle park, under circumstances which this part or Part 2 (commencing with Section 18000) or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto do not require the issuance of a permit therefor by the department.

(5) From authorizing the creation, movement, shifting, or alteration of mobilehome park lot lines as specified in Section 18610.5.

(h) (1) A city, including a charter city, county, or city and county, shall not require the average density in a new community to be less than that permitted by the applicable zoning ordinance, plus any density bonus, as defined in Section 65915 of the Government Code, for other forms of affordable housing.

(2) A city, including a charter city, county, or city and county, shall not require a new community to include a clubhouse. Recreational facilities, recreational areas, accessory structures, or improvements may be required only to the extent that the facilities or improvements are required in other types of residential developments containing a like number of residential dwelling units.

(i) The department may, at the department's sole option, enforce plan review activities associated with this part and the rules and regulations adopted thereunder through department-approved plan checking agencies. The department shall adopt regulations for approving and monitoring plan checking agencies, including, but not limited to, all of the following criteria:

(1) Freedom of any conflict of interest.

(2) Qualifications of personnel.

(3) A prohibition against collusive or fraudulent actions related to the performance of activities required by this part.

(4) Establishment of a schedule of fees to offset the department's cost of administering the approval and monitoring activities.

(5) Establishment of procedures for reimbursement to plan checking agencies for plan review services rendered.

(6) Establishment of a schedule of citations and administrative fines issued by the department upon finding a violation of this subdivision on the part of a plan checking agency.

(7) Any other conditions of operation the department may reasonably require.

(j) (1) The department may, by regulation, provide for the qualification of plan checking agencies to perform reviews of plans and specifications for the construction of manufactured housing communities and to perform reviews of plans and specifications for the construction of additional buildings or lots, the alteration of buildings, lots, or other installations, in an existing manufactured housing community, in areas in which the department is the enforcement agency. The regulations shall specify that all approved plan checking agencies shall employ at least one architect or engineer, licensed by the State of California, and that the architect or engineer shall be responsible for all plan review activity specified in this part. Plans approved by department-approved agencies shall be deemed the equivalent of department approval of those plans.

(2) No agency approved to serve as a plan checking agency pursuant to this subdivision shall have a financial interest in any manufactured housing community, with any owner, developer, or contractor of a manufactured housing community, or in any entity used by the department for the purpose of performing oversight of the performance of plan checking agencies.

SEC. 9. Section 18504 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18504. Any person responsible for obtaining any of the permits required by this chapter, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 18600), or the regulations adopted pursuant to either of these chapters, who fails to obtain those permits, shall pay double the fees prescribed in this chapter, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 18600), or the regulations adopted pursuant to either of these chapters, as applicable.

SEC. 10. Section 18613.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18613.7. A permit shall be obtained by the installer from the enforcement agency each time an earthquake resistant bracing system is installed on any manufactured home or mobilehome. The enforcement agency shall inspect the installation of these bracing systems to ensure compliance with the regulations adopted by the department.

The department shall adopt regulations governing the installation of these bracing systems. The enforcement agency shall adopt a fee schedule which shall not exceed the costs of the issuance of the permit and inspection required by this section.

SEC. 11. Section 8 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 18300 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and Assembly Bill 1537. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 18300 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after Assembly Bill 1537, in which case Section 7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Two municipal court branch administrators II on range 315.
(d) Nineteen judicial office assistants on range 204.
(e) Three judicial services supervisors on range 264.
(f) Seven judicial courtroom assistants on range 245.
(g) One senior accounting clerk on range 207.
(h) Two senior judicial office assistants on range 225.

(i) One executive secretary I on range 257.
(j) One administrative services officer on range 334.

SEC. 6. Section 74143 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74143. In the Three Lakes Judicial District, the salary of the clerk/administrator—Three Lakes Judicial District shall be on range 378, and the clerk/administrator may appoint:

(a) One municipal court branch administrator II on range 280.
(b) Eighteen judicial office assistants on range 204.
(c) Three judicial services supervisors on range 264.
(d) Four judicial courtroom assistants on range 245.
(e) One senior judicial office assistant on range 225.
(f) One senior judicial courtroom assistant on range 260.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 509

An act to amend Sections 830.6 and 832 of the Penal Code, relating to peace officers.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 830.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.6. (a) (1) Whenever any qualified person is deputized or appointed by the proper authority as a reserve or auxiliary sheriff or city police officer, a reserve deputy sheriff, a reserve police officer of a regional park district or of a transit district, a reserve deputy of the Department of Fish and Game, a reserve special agent of the Department of Justice, a reserve officer of a community service district which is authorized under subdivision (h) of Section 61600 of the Government Code to maintain a police department or other police protection, or a reserve officer of a police protection district formed under Part 1 (commencing with Section 20000) of Division 14 of the Health and Safety Code, and is assigned specific police functions by that authority, the person is a peace officer; provided, the person qualifies as set forth in Section 832.6, and provided further, that the authority of the person as a peace officer shall extend only for the duration of the person's specific assignment. A transit district reserve officer may carry firearms only if authorized by, and under those terms and conditions as are specified by, his or her employing agency.

(2) Whenever any qualified person is deputized or appointed by the proper authority as a reserve or auxiliary sheriff or city police officer, a reserve deputy sheriff, or a reserve police officer of a regional park district or of a transit district, and is so designated by local ordinance or, if the local agency is not authorized to act by ordinance, by resolution, either individually or by class, and is assigned to the prevention and detection of crime and the general enforcement of the laws of this state by that authority, the person is a peace officer; provided the person qualifies as set forth in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 832.6, and provided further, that the authority of the person shall include the full powers and duties of a peace officer as provided by Section 830.1, or in the case of a transit district reserve police officer, the powers and duties which are authorized in Section 830.33.

(b) Whenever any person is summoned to the aid of any uniformed peace officer, the summoned person shall be vested with the powers of a peace officer as are expressly delegated to him or her by the summoning officer or as are otherwise reasonably necessary to properly assist the officer.

SEC. 2. Section 832 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

832. (a) Every person described in this chapter as a peace officer shall satisfactorily complete an introductory course of training prescribed by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training. On or after July 1, 1989, satisfactory completion of the course shall be demonstrated by passage of an appropriate examination developed or approved by the commission. Training in the carrying and use of firearms shall not be required of any peace officer whose employing agency prohibits the use of firearms.

(b) (1) Every peace officer described in this chapter, prior to the exercise of the powers of a peace officer, shall have satisfactorily completed the course of training described in subdivision (a).

(2) Every peace officer described in Section 13510 or in subdivision (a) of Section 830.2 may satisfactorily complete the training required by this section as part of the training prescribed pursuant to Section 13510.

(c) Persons described in this chapter as peace officers who have not satisfactorily completed the course described in subdivision (a), as specified in subdivision (b), shall not have the powers of a peace officer until they satisfactorily complete the course.

(d) Any peace officer who, on March 4, 1972, possesses or is qualified to possess the basic certificate as awarded by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training shall be exempted from this section.

(e) (1) Any person completing the training described in subdivision (a) who does not become employed as a peace officer within three years from the date of passing the examination described in subdivision (a), or who has a three-year or longer break in service as a peace officer, shall pass the examination described in subdivision (a) prior to the exercise of the powers of a peace officer, except for any person described in paragraph (2).

(2) The requirement in paragraph (1) does not apply to any person who meets any of the following requirements:

(A) Is returning to a management position that is at the second level of supervision or higher.

(B) Has successfully requalified for a basic course through the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training.

(C) Has maintained proficiency through teaching the course described in subdivision (a).

(D) During the break in California service, was continuously employed as a peace officer in another state or at the federal level.

(f) The commission may charge appropriate fees for the examination required by subdivision (e), not to exceed actual costs.

CHAPTER 510

An act to amend Section 72 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to property taxation.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 72 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

72. (a) A copy of any building permit issued by any city, county, or city and county shall be transmitted by each such entity to the county assessor as soon as possible after the date of issuance.

(b) A copy of any certificate of occupancy or other document showing date of completion of new construction issued or finalized by any city, county, or city and county, shall be transmitted by each entity to the county assessor within 30 days after the date of issuance or finalization.

(c) At the time an assessee files, or causes to be filed, an approved set of building plans with the city, county, or city and county, a scale copy of the floor plans and exterior dimensions of the building designated for the county assessor shall be filed by the assessee or his or her designee. The scale copy shall be in sufficient detail to allow the assessor to determine the square footage of the building and, in the case of a residential building, the intended use of each room. An assessee, or his or her designee, where multiple units are to be constructed from the same set of building plans, may file only one scale copy of floor plans and exterior dimensions, so long as each application for a building permit with respect to those building plans specifically identifies the scale copy filed pursuant to this section. However, where the square footage of any one of the multiple units is altered, an assessee, or his or her designee, shall file a scale copy of the floor plan and exterior dimensions that specifically identifies the alteration from the previously filed scale copy. The receiving authority shall transmit that copy to the county assessor as soon as possible after the final plans are approved.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 511

An act to amend Section 16991 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to health services, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 16991 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

16991. (a) The sum of twenty-six million five hundred ninety-seven thousand dollars ($26,597,000) is appropriated from the General Fund to the department, for the 1989–90 fiscal year, to be allocated to each county receiving funds pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 16703. Each county's maximum allocation under this section shall be determined as follows:

(1) The sum of one hundred twenty-six million five hundred ninety-seven thousand dollars ($126,597,000) shall be multiplied by each county's percentage determined by subdivision (d) of Section 16703.

(2) For each county, the percentage of persons newly legalized under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 (IRCA) who are residents of that county divided by the total of all IRCA newly legalized persons for all counties eligible to receive funds pursuant to this section shall be determined. The department shall utilize the most recent data from the federal Department of Health and Human Services for this purpose.

(3) Each county's percentage determined in paragraph (2) shall then be multiplied by one hundred twenty-six million five hundred ninety-seven thousand dollars ($126,597,000).

(4) For each county, the amount determined in paragraph (3) shall be subtracted from the amount determined in paragraph (1). If the resulting amount is negative, no funds shall be allocated to that county. If the resulting amount is positive, that amount shall be the county's maximum allocation and shall be made available to that county in the same manner and according to the same procedures and requirements that govern funds made available pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 16703, except that the department shall make the payment of each county's allocation as determined above in one lump sum on or before January 1, 1990.

(5) For purposes of computing fiscal year 1989–90 reimbursements under this section, if the sum of funding that a county received from its allocation pursuant to Section 16703, the amount of reimbursement it received from federal State Legalization Impact Assistance Grant funding for indigent care, and its share of funding provided in this section is less than the amount of funding the county received pursuant to Section 16703 in fiscal year 1988–89 the state shall reimburse the county for the amount of the difference. For purposes of computing reimbursements under this section, if the sum of funding that a county received from its fiscal year 1990–91 allocation pursuant to Section 16703, and the amount received from State Legalization Impact Assistance Grant funds, plus the amount of the reductions made pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1 of Chapter 1323 of the Statutes of 1990 and Chapter 467 of the Statutes of 1990, is less than the amount of funding a county received pursuant to Section 16703 in the 1988–89 fiscal year, the state shall reimburse the difference. If the department determines that the county has not made reasonable efforts to document and claim federal SLIAG funding for indigent care, the department shall deny the reimbursement.

(6) The calculations specified in paragraph (5) shall be performed after the end of the fiscal year after all claims from a county for that fiscal year have been adjudicated. For fiscal year 1989–90, claims for funding pursuant to this section shall be submitted no later than April 30, 1992, and, if approved by the department, shall be reimbursed no later than June 30, 1992. For fiscal year 1990–91, claims for funding pursuant to this section shall be submitted no later than April 30, 1993, and, if approved by the department, shall be reimbursed no later than June 30, 1993.

(7) If a county submits additional claims for services provided in a specific year and has received funds under paragraph (5) for that year, the department shall reimburse the General Fund up to amount received under paragraph (5) from federal State Legalization Impact Assistance Grant funds otherwise payable to the county based upon the additional claims.

(b) In determining if a county has made reasonable efforts to document and claim federal State Legalization Impact Assistance Grant funding, the department may require a county to utilize statistically valid sampling methods or to utilize the federal Cost Documentation System for Social Security matching.

(c) To the extent allowed by federal law, the department shall make quarterly prospective payments of federal State Legalization Impact Assistance Grant funds to counties for the 1988–89, 1989–90, and 1990–91 fiscal years SLIAG claims for indigent health services. Prospective payments shall not exceed the total amount of a county's 1987–88 fiscal year claim, as adjusted by the department, on an annualized basis. As a condition of receiving a prospective payment, the county shall certify that it intends to submit claims exceeding the amount of the payments. A county shall be liable for any overpayments or federal sanctions in the event of an excess drawdown of federal State Legalization Impact Assistance Grant funds.

(d) A county may apply for, and the Department of Finance may approve, a state General Fund loan in the 1989–90 fiscal year to meet anticipated shortfalls in its Medically Indigent Services Program. In order to receive funds, the county shall demonstrate to the Department of Finance that the county will not submit 1989–90 fiscal year claims totaling more than 50 percent of its estimated SLIAG amount as determined by its percentage of the newly legalized population multiplied by the amount of total SLIAG funds available. The county shall also demonstrate that the county has made reasonable efforts to document and claim federal SLIAG funds as defined in paragraph (7) of subdivision (a). In no event shall the loan amount exceed 50 percent of a county's percentage of the newly legalized population multiplied by the amount of total SLIAG funds available, or exceed the amount to which the county is entitled pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (a). The loan shall be issued to the county, as soon as possible after the enactment of Assembly Bill 1154 of the 1989–90 Regular Session of the Legislature, but no later than June 30, 1990. The loan balance shall be credited in the amount of funds provided pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) upon receipt of the funds. Repayment shall include interest calculated at the rate earned by the Pooled Money Investment Account.

SEC. 2. The sum of fifteen million eight hundred thousand dollars ($15,800,000) is appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Health Services for payment of fiscal year 1989–90 claims for funding pursuant to Section 16991 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. This appropriation shall be available for expenditure until June 30, 1992.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to continue the orderly administration of the medically indigent services program funded in whole or in part through the allocations authorized pursuant to Section 16703 of the Welfare and Institutions Code in a timely manner, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 512

An act to amend Section 12022.3 of the Penal Code, relating to sentence enhancements.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12022.3 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12022.3. For each violation of Section 261, 262, 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, or 289, and in addition to the sentence provided, any person shall receive the following:

(a) A three-, four-, or five-year enhancement if the person uses a firearm or any other deadly weapon in the commission of the violation.

(b) A one-, two-, or three-year enhancement if the person is armed with a firearm or any other deadly weapon. The court shall order the middle term unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation. The court shall state the reasons for its enhancement choice on the record at the time of the sentence.

CHAPTER 513

An act to amend Section 5306 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to pest control.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5306 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

5306. (a) It is unlawful for any person to refuse to comply with any quarantine regulation which is established by the director pursuant to this division.

(b) It is unlawful for any person to possess, propagate, plant, process, sell, or take any other action with regard to a plant or thing subject to a quarantine which has been imported or moved in violation of the quarantine.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 5309, any violation of this section is a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 514

An act to add Section 13404 to the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Section 216 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13404 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

13404. The sale of compressed natural gas by persons who sell compressed natural gas at retail to the public for use only as a motor vehicle fuel, and who are exempted from public utility status by subdivision (f) of Section 216 of the Public Utilities Code, is a sale of a motor fuel for the purposes of this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 216 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

216. (a) "Public utility" includes every common carrier, toll bridge corporation, pipeline corporation, gas corporation, electrical corporation, telephone corporation, telegraph corporation, water corporation, sewer system corporation, and heat corporation, where the service is performed for, or the commodity is delivered to, the public or any portion thereof.

(b) Whenever any common carrier, toll bridge corporation, pipeline corporation, gas corporation, electrical corporation, telephone corporation, telegraph corporation, water corporation, sewer system corporation, or heat corporation performs a service for, or delivers a commodity to, the public or any portion thereof for which any compensation or payment whatsoever is received, that common carrier, toll bridge corporation, pipeline corporation, gas corporation, electrical corporation, telephone corporation, telegraph corporation, water corporation, sewer system corporation, or heat corporation, is a public utility subject to the jurisdiction, control, and regulation of the commission and the provisions of this part.

(c) When any person or corporation performs any service for, or delivers any commodity to, any person, private corporation, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state, which in turn either directly or indirectly, mediately or immediately, performs that service for, or delivers that commodity to, the public or any portion thereof, that person or corporation is a public utility subject to the jurisdiction, control, and regulation of the commission and the provisions of this part.

(d) Ownership or operation of a facility which employs cogeneration technology or produces power from other than a conventional power source or the ownership or operation of a facility which employs landfill gas technology does not make a corporation or person a public utility within the meaning of this section solely because of the ownership or operation of such a facility.

(e) Any corporation or person engaged directly or indirectly in developing, producing, transmitting, distributing, delivering, or selling any form of heat derived from geothermal or solar resources or from cogeneration technology to any privately owned or publicly owned public utility, or to the public or any portion thereof, is not a public utility within the meaning of this section solely by reason of engaging in any of those activities.

(f) The ownership or operation of a facility which sells compressed natural gas at retail to the public for use only as a motor vehicle fuel, and the selling of compressed natural gas at retail from such a facility to the public for use only as a motor vehicle fuel, does not make the corporation or person a public utility within the meaning of this section solely because of that ownership, operation, or sale.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Legislation which exempts from public utility regulation the sale for resale of compressed natural gas to fuel motor vehicles and, instead, regulates the selling of that gas in the same manner as other motor fuels is needed immediately to accelerate the introduction into the California market of natural gas fueled vehicles and to comply with the California Air Resources Board regulations concerning the use of low-emission transportation fuels, including compressed natural gas. Therefore, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 515

An act to amend Section 636.5 of the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 636.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

636.5. Any person not authorized by the sender, who intercepts any police radio service communication, by use of a scanner or any other means, for the purpose of using that communication to assist in the commission of a criminal offense or to avoid or escape arrest, trial, conviction, or punishment or who divulges to any person he or she knows to be a suspect in the commission of any criminal offense, the existence, contents, substance, purport, effect or meaning of that communication concerning the offense with the intent that the suspect may avoid or escape from arrest, trial, conviction, or punishment is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Nothing in this section shall preclude prosecution of any person under Section 31 or 32.

As used in this section "police radio service communication" means a communication authorized by the Federal Communications Commission to be transmitted by a station in the police radio service.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 516

An act to amend Sections 73566, 73567, and 73568 of the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 73566 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73566. The number of positions within each job classification which may be filled by appointment by the municipal court administrator, and the salary which constitutes the compensation for each job classification, are as follows; provided, however, that the board of supervisors may adjust the monthly salary pursuant to Section 73568, and may adjust the number and classification of positions pursuant to Section 73569:

Number	Classification	Monthly salary
2	Assistant Municipal Court Clerk/ Administrator	$3,688
1	Administrative Services Officer	$2,901–$3,594

1	Secretary	$1,701–$2,107
2	Senior Data Entry Operator	$1,618–$2,005

SEC. 2. Section 73567 of the Government Code is amended to read:

Section 73568.

SEC. 3. Section 73568 of the Government Code is amended to read:

73568. Certain classes of positions prescribed in this article are deemed to be equivalent in job and salary level to certain classes of positions of Monterey County. In order to maintain parity of compensation and employee benefits between attachés of the municipal court and county employees having commensurate duties and responsibilities and to provide appropriate salary adjustments and employee benefits for related classes of court positions this section shall govern salary adjustments and employee benefits for attachés of the municipal court in Monterey County.

On the effective date of any amendment to a resolution adjusting the salary of a county employee classification listed in the table of positions set forth in this section, the salary of the equivalent court position listed opposite thereto shall be adjusted an equivalent amount.

Any adjustments made pursuant to this section shall be effective on the operative date of the county salary and benefits resolution and shall remain in effect only until January 1, of the second year following the year in which the change is made, unless subsequently ratified by the Legislature.

Whenever reference is made to a number of salary ranges in any section of this article, that reference shall be to ranges listed in the salary and benefits resolution of the County of Monterey in effect January 1, 1988.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 517

An act to amend Sections 7502.1, 7502.2, 7503, 7503.10, 7504, 7506.9, 7506.10, 7507.9, 7507.10, 7511, 7550.10, and 7599.54 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to repossessors.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7502.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7502.1. (a) Any person who violates any provision of this chapter, or who conspires with another person to violate any provision of this chapter, or who knowingly engages a nonexempt unlicensed person to repossess personal property on his or her behalf after being duly notified by the bureau in writing of the nonexempt unlicensed person's unlicensed status with the bureau, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and is punishable by a fine of five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) A proceeding to impose the penalties specified in subdivision (a) may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction in the name of the people of the State of California by the Attorney General or by any district attorney or city attorney, or with the consent of the district attorney, by the city prosecutor in any city or city and county having a full-time city prosecutor, for the jurisdiction in which the violation occurred. If the action is brought by a district attorney, the penalty collected shall be paid to the treasurer of the county in which the judgment is entered. If the action is brought by a city attorney or city prosecutor, one-half of the penalty collected shall be paid to the treasurer of the city in which the judgment was entered and one-half to the treasurer of the county in which the judgment was entered. If the action is brought by the Attorney General, all of the penalty collected shall be deposited in the Private Investigator Fund.

SEC. 2. Section 7502.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7502.2. Any financial institution that knowingly engages a nonexempt unlicensed person to repossess personal property on its behalf, after being duly notified by the bureau in writing of the nonexempt unlicensed person's unlicensed status with the bureau, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and is punishable by a fine of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(b) A proceeding to impose the fine specified in subdivision (a) may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction in the name of the people of the State of California by the Attorney General or by any district attorney or city attorney, or with the consent of the district attorney, by the city prosecutor in any city or city and county having a full-time city prosecutor, for the jurisdiction in which the violation occurred. If the action is brought by a district attorney, the penalty collected shall be paid to the treasurer of the county in which the judgment is entered. If the action is brought by a city attorney or city prosecutor, one-half of the penalty collected shall be paid to the treasurer of the city in which the judgment was entered and one-half to the treasurer of the county in which the judgment was entered. If the action is brought by the Attorney General, all of the penalty collected shall be deposited in the Private Investigator Fund.

SEC. 3. Section 7503 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7503. An application for a repossession agency license shall be made in writing to, and filed with, the bureau in the form that may be required by the director and shall be accompanied by the original license fee prescribed by this chapter. The director may require the submission of any other pertinent information, evidence, statements, or documents.

Every application for a repossession agency license shall state, among other things that may be required, the name of the applicant and the name under which the applicant will do business, the location by number and street and city of the office of the business for which the license is sought, and the usual business hours the business will maintain. The applicant's residence address, residence telephone number, and driver's license number, if requested, shall be confidential pursuant to the Information Practices Act of 1977 (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1798) of Title 1.8 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code) and shall not be released to the public.

No license shall be issued in any fictitious name which may be confused with or which is similar to any federal, state, county, or municipal governmental function or agency, or in any name which may tend to describe any business function or enterprise not actually engaged in by the applicant, or in any name which is the same as or so similar to that of any existing licensee as would tend to deceive the public, or in any name which would otherwise tend to be deceptive or misleading.

SEC. 4. Section 7503.10 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7503.10. All repossession agency licenses which expire on or after January 1, 1985, shall be placed on a cyclical renewal and shall expire one year following the date of issuance or assigned renewal date. In order to implement the cyclical renewal, the population of licensees shall be divided into 12 equal groups, the licenses of those in each group to expire on the last day of each successive month. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the bureau shall have authority to extend or shorten the first term of licensure following January 1, 1985, and to prorate the required license fee in order to implement this cyclical renewal. At least 60 days prior to the expiration of the license, the bureau shall mail to the licensee a renewal form prescribed by the director. To renew an unexpired license, the licensee shall complete and mail the renewal form to the bureau, pay any and all fines assessed pursuant to Section 7501.7 and resolved in accordance with the provisions of that section, and pay the renewal fee prescribed by this chapter.

Upon the issuance of the initial license or renewal license, the bureau shall issue to the licensee a suitable pocket identification card which includes a photograph of the licensee. The photograph shall be of a size prescribed by the bureau. The card shall contain the name of the licensee's company.

SEC. 5. Section 7504 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7504. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, an applicant for a qualification certificate shall comply with all of the following:

(1) Be at least 18 years of age.

(2) Have been, for at least two years of lawful experience, during the five years preceding the date on which his or her application is filed, an employee of a licensed repossession agency within this state, or have had two years of lawful experience in recovering personal property sold under a security agreement within this state. Lawful experience shall mean experience in recovering personal property sold under a security agreement as a registrant pursuant to this chapter or as a salaried employee of a financial institution or vehicle dealer.

Two years' experience shall consist of not less than 4,000 hours of actual compensated work performed by the applicant preceding the filing of an application.

An applicant shall substantiate the claimed hours of qualifying experience and the exact details as to the character and nature thereof by written certifications from the employer, subject to independent verification by the director as he or she may determine. In the event of inability of an applicant to supply the written certifications from the employer in whole or in part, applicants may offer other written certifications from persons other than employers substantiating employment for consideration by the director.

(3) Complete and forward to the bureau a qualified certificate holder application which shall be on a form prescribed by the director. The application shall be accompanied by two recent photographs of the applicant, of a type prescribed by the director, and two classifiable sets of his or her fingerprints. The applicant's residence address, residence telephone number, and driver's license number, if requested, shall be confidential pursuant to the Information Practices Act of 1977 (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1798) of Title 1.8 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code) and shall not be released to the public.

(4) Pass the required examination.

(5) Pay the required application and examination fees to the bureau.

The amendments made to this section during the 1990 portion of the 1989–90 Regular Session shall only apply to applications filed on or after January 1, 1992.

(b) Upon the issuance of the initial qualification certificate or renewal qualification certificate, the bureau shall issue to the certificate holder a suitable pocket identification card which includes a photograph of the certificate holder. The photograph shall be of a size prescribed by the bureau. The card shall contain the name of the licensee with whom the certificate holder is employed.

SEC. 6. Section 7506.9 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7506.9. (a) Upon the issuance of the initial registration or reregistration, the chief shall issue to the registered employee a suitable pocket identification card which includes a photograph of the registrant. The photograph shall be of a size prescribed by the bureau. The card shall contain the name of the licensee with whom the registrant is employed.

(b) Until the registration certificate is issued or denied, an employee may be assigned to work with a temporary registration which has been embossed by the bureau with the state seal for a period not to exceed 90 days from the date employment commenced.

(c) Until the registration certificate is issued or denied, an employee who was a registrant of the licensed agency within the past 30 days may return to the agency and be assigned to work with a temporary registration which has been issued by the qualified certificate holder for a period not to exceed 30 days, provided the employee signs a declaration under penalty of perjury that he or she has not been convicted of a felony or any other act constituting grounds for denial of a registration pursuant to Section 7506.8, and that he or she has read and understands the provisions of this chapter.

(d) No employee of a licensee shall perform the duties of a repossessor employee for a licensee unless the employee has in his or her possession a valid repossessor employee registration card or evidence of a valid temporary registration as described in subdivision (b) or (c).

SEC. 7. Section 7506.10 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7506.10. (a) Every registration which expires on or after January 1, 1985, shall be placed on a cyclical renewal and shall expire one year following the date of issuance or assigned renewal date. In order to implement cyclical renewal, the population of registrants shall be divided into 12 equal groups, the licenses of those in each group to expire on the last day of each successive month.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the bureau shall have authority to extend or shorten the first term of licensure following January 1, 1985, and to prorate the required license fee in order to implement this cyclical renewal.

(b) All registrations issued on or before the effective date of this section shall expire on December 31, 1984, and every year thereafter, unless renewed as provided in this section, except for those registrations issued on or after January 1, 1984, which shall expire on December 31, 1985, and every year thereafter, unless renewed as provided in this section.

(c) At least 60 days prior to the expiration, the bureau shall mail a renewal form to the registrant at the licensee's place of business. A registrant who desires to renew his or her registration shall forward to the bureau for each registration the properly completed renewal form obtained from the bureau, with the renewal fee prescribed by this chapter, for renewal of his or her registration.

(d) A licensee shall provide to his or her employees information regarding procedures for renewal of registration.

(e) A registration that is not renewed within one year after its expiration may not be renewed. The renewal fee for a renewal after expiration shall be the same as a renewal fee and any applicable penalties. Registrants working with expired registrations shall pay all accrued fees and penalties prior to renewal or reregistration.

(f) Upon renewal, evidence of renewal, as the director may prescribe, shall be issued to the registrant. If evidence of renewal has not been delivered to the registrant prior to the date of expiration, the registrant may present evidence of renewal to substantiate continued registration for a period not to exceed 60 days after the date of expiration.

(g) A registration shall not be renewed until any and all fines assessed pursuant to this chapter and not resolved in accordance with this chapter have been paid.

SEC. 8. Section 7507.9 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7507.9. If personal effects or other personal property, not covered by a security agreement, are contained in or on personal property at the time it is recovered, the effects shall be removed from the property subject to the security interest, a complete and accurate inventory shall be made, and the personal effects shall be stored in a labeled container by the licensee at the location of the licensed agency as reflected in the records of the bureau for a minimum of 60 days in a secure manner, except those personal effects removed by or in the presence of the registered owner at the time the personal property was being repossessed.

(a) The date and time the inventory is made shall be indicated and shall be signed by the repossession agency employee who performs the inventory.

(b) The following items of personal effects are items determined to present a danger or health hazard when recovered by the licensee and shall be disposed of in the following manner:

(1) Deadly weapons and dangerous drugs shall be turned over to a local law enforcement agency for retention. These items shall be entered on the inventory and a notation shall be made as to the date and the time and the place the deadly weapon or dangerous drug was turned over to the law enforcement agency, and a receipt from the law enforcement agency shall be maintained in the records of the repossession agency.

(2) Combustibles shall be inventoried and noted as "disposed of, dangerous combustible," and the item shall be disposed of in a reasonable and safe manner.

(3) Food and other health hazard items shall be inventoried and noted as "disposed of, health hazard," and disposed of in a reasonable and safe manner.

(c) Personal effects may be disposed of after being held for at least 60 days. The inventory, and adequate information as to how, when, and to whom the personal effects were disposed of, shall be filed in the permanent records of the licensee.

(d) The inventory shall include the name, address, business hours, and phone number of the person at the repossession agency to contact for recovering the personal effects and an itemization of all personal effect storage charges that will be made by the repossession agency. The inventory shall also include the following statement: "Please be advised that the property listed on this inventory will be disposed of by the repossession agency after being held for 60 days from the date of this notice IF UNCLAIMED."

(e) The inventory shall be provided to a consumer not later than 48 hours after the recovery of personal property, except that if:

(1) The 48-hour period encompasses a Saturday, Sunday, or postal holiday, the inventory shall be provided no later than 72 hours after the recovery of personal property.

(2) The 48-hour period encompasses a Saturday or Sunday and a postal holiday, the inventory shall be provided no later than 96 hours after the recovery of personal property.

(3) Inventory resulting from repossession of a yacht, motor home, or travel trailer is such that it shall take at least four hours to inventory, then the inventory shall be provided no later than 96 hours after the recovery of personal property. When the 96-hour period encompasses a Saturday, Sunday, or postal holiday, the inventory shall be provided no later than 120 hours after the recovery of personal property.

(f) The notice may be given by regular mail addressed to the last known address of the consumer or by personal service at the option of the repossession agency.

SEC. 9. Section 7507.10 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7507.10. Each licensee shall serve a consumer with a notice of seizure as soon as possible after the recovery of personal property and not later than 48 hours, except that if the 48-hour period encompasses a Saturday, Sunday, or postal holiday, the notice of seizure shall be provided not later than 72 hours or, if the 48-hour period encompasses a Saturday or Sunday and a postal holiday, the notice of seizure shall be provided not later than 96 hours, after the repossession of personal property, which notice shall include all of the following:

(a) The name, address, and phone number of the representative of the legal owner to be contacted regarding the repossession.

(b) The name, address, and phone number of the representative of the repossession agency to be contacted regarding the repossession.

(c) A statement printed on the notice containing the following: "Repossessors are regulated by the Bureau of Collection and Investigative Services, Department of Consumer Affairs, Sacramento, CA 95814. Repossessors are required to provide you, not later than 48 hours after the recovery of personal property, with an inventory of personal effects or personal property recovered during repossession unless the 48-hour period encompasses a Saturday, Sunday, or a postal holiday, then the inventory shall be provided no later than 96 hours after the recovery of personal property."

(d) A disclosure that "Damage to a vehicle during or subsequent to a repossession and only while the vehicle is in possession of the repossession agency and which is caused by the repossession agency is the liability of the repossession agency. A mechanical failure shall not be the responsibility of the repossession agency unless the failure is due to the negligence of the repossession agency."

The notice may be given by regular mail addressed to the last known address of the consumer or by personal service at the option of the repossession agency.

SEC. 10. Section 7511 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7511. The fees prescribed by this chapter are as follows:

(a) The application fee for an original repossession agency license is seven hundred fifty dollars ($750).

(b) The application fee for an original qualification certificate is two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(c) The renewal fee for a repossession agency license is four hundred fifty dollars ($450) annually.

(d) The renewal fee for a license as a qualified certificate holder is two hundred dollars ($200) annually.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 163.5, the reinstatement fee for a repossession agency license required pursuant to Sections 7503.11 and 7505.3 is the amount equal to the renewal fee plus a penalty of 50 percent.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 163.5, the reinstatement fee for a license as a qualified certificate holder required pursuant to Sections 7504.7 and 7503.11 is the amount equal to the renewal fee plus a penalty of 50 percent.

(g) The fee for reexamination of an applicant or the applicant's qualified certificate holder is ten dollars ($10).

(h) An initial repossessor employee registration fee is fifty-five dollars ($55), a repossessor employee reregistration fee is thirty dollars ($30), and a repossessor employee annual renewal fee is thirty dollars ($30) per registration. Notwithstanding Section 163.5 and this subdivision, the reregistration fee for a repossessor employee whose registration expired more than one year prior to the filing of the application for reregistration shall be fifty-five dollars ($55).

(i) The fingerprint processing fee is that amount charged the bureau by the Department of Justice.

(j) The director shall furnish one copy of any issue or edition of the licensing law and rules and regulations to any applicant or licensee without charge. The director shall charge and collect a fee of three dollars ($3) plus sales tax for each additional copy which may be furnished on request to any applicant or licensee, and for each copy furnished on request to any other person.

All fees, except any sales tax, received pursuant to this chapter shall be deposited in the Private Investigator Fund.

SEC. 11. Section 7550.10 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7550.10. A protection dog operator shall furnish a statement containing the following to any person who in any way obtains a protection dog from the licensee: "Protection dog operators are regulated by the Bureau of Collection and Investigative Services, Department of Consumer Affairs, Sacramento, CA 95814."

SEC. 12. Section 7599.54 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7599.54. Every agreement, including all labor, services, and materials to be provided for the installation of an alarm system, shall be in writing. All amendments subject to the provisions of this section to an initial agreement shall be in writing. Each initial agreement shall contain, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) The name, business address, business telephone number, and license number of the licensed alarm company operator and the registration number of any alarm agent who solicited or negotiated the agreement.

(b) The approximate dates when the work will begin and be substantially completed.

(c) A description of the work to be done, a description of the materials to be used, and the agreed consideration for the work.

(d) A disclosure that alarm company operators are licensed and regulated by the Bureau of Collection and Investigative Services, Department of Consumer Affairs, Sacramento, CA, 95814.

(e) A description of the alarm system including the major components thereof and services to be provided to the purchaser once the alarm is installed, including response or monitoring services, if any.

(f) Other matters agreed to by the parties of the contract. The agreement shall be legible and shall be in such form as to clearly describe any other document which is to be incorporated into the contract, and, before any work is done, the client shall be furnished with a copy of the written agreement signed by the licensee.

(g) A statement setting forth that upon completion of the installation of the alarm system, the alarm company shall thoroughly instruct the purchaser in the proper use of the alarm system.

(h) In the event a mechanic's lien is to be utilized, a notice-to-owner statement which shall describe, in nontechnical language and in a clear and coherent manner using words with common and everyday meaning, the pertinent provisions of this state's mechanics' lien laws and the rights and responsibilities of an owner of property and a contractor thereunder, including the provisions relating to the filing of a contract concerning a work of improvement with the county recorder and the recording in the office of a contractor's payment bond for private work.

(i) In addition to the above, every initial residential sales agreement, the total cost which over the time period fixed by the agreement exceeds two hundred fifty dollars ($250), including the cost of all labor, service, or material to be provided by the licensee for the installation, shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) A schedule of payments showing the amount of each payment as a sum in dollars and cents. This schedule of payments shall be referenced to the amount of work for services to be performed or to any materials or equipment to be supplied.

(2) If the payment schedule contained in the agreement provides for a down payment to be paid to the licensee by the owner or the tenant before commencement of the work, that down payment shall not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) or 10 percent of the contract price, excluding finance charges, whichever is the lesser.

(3) In no event shall the payment schedule provide that the licensee receive, nor shall the licensee actually receive, payment in excess of 100 percent of the value of the work performed on the project at any time, excluding finance charges, except that the licensee may receive an initial down payment authorized by paragraph (2). A failure by the licensee, without legal excuse, to substantially commence work within 20 days of the approximate date specified in the contract when work is to commence, shall postpone the next succeeding payment to the licensee for that period of time equivalent to the time between when substantial commencement was to have occurred and when it did occur.

(4) A notice-to-owner statement which shall describe, in nontechnical language and in a clear and coherent manner using words with common and everyday meaning, the pertinent provisions of this state's mechanics' lien laws and the rights and responsibilities of an owner of property and a contractor thereunder, including the provisions relating to the filing of a contract concerning a work of improvement with the county recorder and the recording in the office of a contractor's payment bond for private work.

(5) A description of what constitutes substantial commencement of work pursuant to the contract.

(6) A disclosure that failure by the licensee, without legal excuse, to substantially commence work within 20 days from the approximate date specified in the agreement when the work will begin is a violation of the Alarm Company Act.

(7) This section shall not be construed to prohibit the parties to a residential alarm system sale contract from agreeing to a contract or account subject to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1801) of Title 2 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code.

A violation of this section or failure to commence work pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (h) may result in a fine of one hundred dollars ($100) for the first violation and a five hundred dollar ($500) fine for each subsequent violation.

SEC. 13. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 518

An act to amend Sections 50783 and 50784 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to mobilehomes, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50783 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50783. (a) The department may make loans from the fund to resident organizations for the purpose of financing mobilehome park conversion costs, as defined in this chapter.

(b) Loans provided pursuant to this section shall be for a term of no more than three years and shall bear interest at a rate of 3 percent per annum.

(c) Loans provided pursuant to this section shall be for the minimum amount necessary to enable a resident organization to acquire and convert the mobilehome park in which its members reside. To the extent possible, the loan amount shall not exceed 50 percent of the approved conversion costs. However, the loan amount may be for up to 95 percent of the approved conversion costs attributable to the low-income households in the park when approved by the department.

(d) The department may grant approval to exceed 50 percent of the approved conversion costs only where both of the following are demonstrated:

(1) That the applicant has made an effort to secure additional funds from other sources and these funds are not available.

(2) That the project would not be feasible, as determined by the department, without a waiver of the 50 percent financing limitation.

(e) The total secured debt in a superior position to the department's loan plus the department's loan shall not exceed the value of the collateral securing the loan.

SEC. 2. Section 50784 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50784. (a) The department may make loans from the fund to low-income residents of mobilehome parks converted to resident ownership or to resident organizations which have converted or plan to convert a mobilehome park to resident ownership. The purpose of providing loans pursuant to this section is to reduce the monthly housing costs for low-income residents to an affordable level.

(b) Loans provided pursuant to this section shall be for a term of no more than 30 years and shall bear interest at a rate of 3 percent per annum.

(c) The department may establish flexible repayment terms for loans provided pursuant to this section if the terms are necessary to reduce the monthly housing costs for low-income residents to an affordable level, and do not represent an unacceptable risk to the security of the fund. Flexible repayment terms may include, but are not limited to, graduated payment schedules with negative amortization.

(d) Loans provided to low-income residents pursuant to this section shall be for the minimum amount necessary to reduce the borrower's monthly housing costs to an affordable level. All of the following shall apply to loans to finance individual interests pursuant to this section:

(1) To the extent possible, loan amounts shall not exceed 50 percent of the acquisition costs of the individual interests in the mobilehome parks. However, the loan amounts may be for up to 95 percent of the acquisition costs of the individual interests in the mobilehome parks when approved by the department.

(2) The department may grant approval to exceed 50 percent of the acquisition costs of the individual interests only where both of the following are demonstrated:

(A) That the low-income resident has made an effort to secure additional funding from other sources and these funds are not available.

(B) That the low-income resident would be unable to purchase an individual interest without a waiver of the 50 percent financing limitation.

(3) The total indebtedness upon individual interests may not exceed 95 percent of the value of the collateral securing the loan.

(e) Loans provided to resident organizations pursuant to this section shall be for the minimum amount necessary to reduce the monthly housing costs of low-income residents to an affordable level. All of the following shall apply to loans made to resident organizations pursuant to this section:

(1) To the extent possible, loan amounts shall not exceed 50 percent of the conversion costs attributable to the low-income spaces. However, the loan amounts may be for up to 95 percent of the conversion costs attributable to the low-income spaces when approved by the department.

(2) The department may grant approval to exceed 50 percent of the conversion costs attributable to low-income spaces only where both of the following are demonstrated:

(A) That the applicant has made an effort to secure additional funds from other sources and these funds are not available.

(B) That the project would not be feasible as determined by the department without a waiver of the 50 percent financing limitation.

(3) The total secured debt in a superior position to the department's loan plus the department's loan shall not exceed the value of the collateral securing the loan.

(f) Funds provided pursuant to this section shall not be used to assist residents who are not of low income, or to reduce monthly housing costs for low-income residents to less than 30 percent of their monthly income.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

This act makes necessary changes to the Mobilehome Park Resident Ownership Program to facilitate making loans to otherwise qualified resident organizations for the purchase of mobilehome parks for conversion to resident ownership. This program fulfills immediate and critical housing needs throughout California by preserving mobilehome parks as affordable housing. It is therefore necessary that this statute take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 519

An act to repeal Articles 4 (commencing with Section 990), 5A (commencing with Section 993), 5B (commencing with Section 995.01), 5c (commencing with Section 996), 5e (commencing with Section 996.25), 5f (commencing with Section 996.45), 5g (commencing with Section 996.60), 5h (commencing with Section 996.75), and 5i (commencing with Section 996.87) of Chapter 6 of Division 4 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to bond acts.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 4 (commencing with Section 990) of Chapter 6 of Division 4 of the Military and Veterans Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Article 5A (commencing with Section 993) of Chapter 6 of Division 4 of the Military and Veterans Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Article 5B (commencing with Section 995.01) of Chapter 6 of Division 4 of the Military and Veterans Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Article 5c (commencing with Section 996) of Chapter 6 of Division 4 of the Military and Veterans Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Article 5e (commencing with Section 996.25) of Chapter 6 of Division 4 of the Military and Veterans Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Article 5f (commencing with Section 996.45) of Chapter 6 of Division 4 of the Military and Veterans Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Article 5g (commencing with Section 996.60) of Chapter 6 of Division 4 of the Military and Veterans Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Article 5h (commencing with Section 996.75) of Chapter 6 of Division 4 of the Military and Veterans Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Article 5i (commencing with Section 996.87) of Chapter 6 of Division 4 of the Military and Veterans Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 520

An act to amend Sections 3822 and 3823 of, to add Sections 3827 and 6898.5 to, and to repeal and add Section 3822.1 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to mineral resources, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3822 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3822. (a) Thirty percent of the revenues received and deposited in the Geothermal Resources Development Account shall be available for expenditure by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission as grants or loans to local jurisdictions or private entities without regard to fiscal years. These revenues shall be held by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission in the Local Government Geothermal Resources Revolving Subaccount, which is hereby created within the Geothermal Resources Development Account. Loan repayments shall be deposited in the subaccount and shall be used for making additional grants and loans pursuant to Section 3823.

(b) No local jurisdiction shall be eligible to apply for a grant or loan pursuant to this section unless its governing body approves the application by resolution.

(c) Each recipient of a grant or loan made pursuant to this section shall establish for deposit of the revenues an account or fund separate from the other accounts and funds of the recipient and may expend the revenues only for the purposes specified in this chapter.

(d) The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall make grants and loans pursuant to this section irrespective of whether a local jurisdiction is a county of origin.

(e) Any of the revenues that are not disbursed as grants or loans pursuant to this section during the fiscal year received shall be retained in the subaccount and may be disbursed as grants or loans pursuant to this section in succeeding fiscal years.

(f) Any loan made under this section shall (1) not exceed 80 percent of the local jurisdiction's costs, (2) bear an interest rate no greater than 8 percent per year, and (3) be repayed together with interest within 20 years from receipt of the loan funds.

(g) Any loan or grant made to a private entity under this section shall (1) be matched with at least an equal investment by the recipient, (2) provide tangible benefits, as determined by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, to a local jurisdiction, and (3) be approved by the city, county, or Indian reservation within which the project is to be located.

SEC. 2. Section 3822.1 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 3822.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

3822.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, commencing with the 1984–85 fiscal year and in each fiscal year thereafter, any revenues not granted pursuant to Section 3822 remaining in the Geothermal Resources Development Account and any revenues expected to be received and disbursed during the 1984–85 fiscal year and in each fiscal year thereafter shall be made a part of the Governor's Budget. Projects approved by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission under this chapter shall be submitted for review and comment to the Department of Finance, the Legislative Analyst, and the Joint Legislative Budget Committee when the Legislature is in session. After a 30-day period, the commission shall execute the funding agreements. The commission shall submit to the Legislature by April 1 of each year, a list of projects, in priority order, selected and approved during the previous year.

SEC. 4. Section 3823 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3823. Revenues disbursed to counties of origin pursuant to Section 3821 and grants or loans made to local jurisdictions or private entities pursuant to Section 3822 shall be expended by the recipient for the following purposes:

(a) Undertaking research and development projects relating to geothermal resource assessment and exploration, and direct-use and electric generation technology.

(b) Local and regional planning and policy development and implementation necessary for compliance with programs required by local, state, or federal laws and regulations.

(c) Identification of feasible measures that will mitigate the adverse impacts of the development of geothermal resources and the adoption of ordinances, regulations, and guidelines to implement those measures.

(d) Collecting baseline data and conducting environmental monitoring.

(e) Preparation or revision of geothermal resource elements, or geothermal components of energy elements, for inclusion in the local general plan, zoning and other ordinances, and related planning and environmental documents.

(f) Administrative costs incurred by the local jurisdiction that are attributable to the development or production of geothermal resources.

(g) Monitoring and inspecting geothermal facilities and related activities to assure compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and ordinances.

(h) Identifying, researching, and implementing feasible measures that will mitigate the adverse impacts of that development or production.

(i) Planning, constructing, providing, operating, and maintaining those public services and facilities that are necessitated by and result from the development or production.

(j) Undertaking projects demonstrating the technical and economic feasibility of geothermal direct heat and electrical generation applications.

(k) Undertaking projects for the enhancement, restoration, or preservation of natural resources, including, but not limited to, water development, water quality improvement, fisheries enhancement, and park and recreation facilities and areas.

SEC. 5. Section 3827 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

3827. If federal geothermal lease lands are transferred to the state for any reason, the lease revenues shall continue to be deposited into the accounts specified pursuant to Section 3826.

SEC. 6. Section 6898.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

6898.5. Notwithstanding Section 6898, any lease in effect on July 1, 1991, of lands, within the bed of Owens Lake for the development of minerals other than oil and gas and geothermal resources may be immediately extended by the commission for an additional 20 years beyond its current expiration date, with the subsequent lease renewal in accordance with Section 6898.

CHAPTER 521

An act to amend Section 125.9 of, to add Section 1611.5 to, and to repeal Section 1704 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to dentistry, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 125.9 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

125.9. (a) Except with respect to persons regulated under Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 6850), Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 7500), Chapter 11.5 (commencing with Section 7512), and Chapter 11.6 (commencing with Section 7590) of Division 3, or a person holding a license specified in paragraph (1), (6), or (7) of subdivision (b) of Section 9941, any board, bureau, or commission within the department may establish, by regulation, a system for the issuance to a licensee of a citation which may contain an order of abatement or an order to pay an administrative fine assessed by the board, bureau, or commission where the licensee is in violation of the applicable licensing act or any regulation adopted pursuant thereto.

(b) The system shall contain the following provisions:

(1) Citations shall be in writing and shall describe with particularity the nature of the violation, including specific reference to the provision of law determined to have been violated.

(2) Where appropriate, the citation shall contain an order of abatement fixing a reasonable time for abatement of the violation.

(3) In no event shall the administrative fine assessed by the board, bureau, or commission exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for each inspection or each investigation made with respect to the violation. In assessing a fine, the board, bureau, or commission shall give due consideration to the appropriateness of the amount of the fine with respect to such factors as the gravity of the violation, the good faith of the licensee, and the history of previous violations.

(4) A citation or fine assessment issued pursuant to a citation shall inform the licensee that if he or she desires a hearing to contest the finding of a violation, that hearing shall be requested by written notice to the board, bureau, or commission within 30 days of the date of issuance of the citation or assessment. If a hearing is not requested pursuant to this section, payment of any fine shall not constitute an admission of the violation charged. Hearings shall be held pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(5) Failure of a licensee to pay a fine within 30 days of the date of assessment, unless the citation is being appealed, may result in disciplinary action being taken by the board, bureau, or commission. Where a citation is not contested and a fine is not paid, the full amount of the assessed fine shall be added to the fee for renewal of the license. A license shall not be renewed without payment of the renewal fee and fine.

(c) The system may contain the following provisions:

(1) A citation may be issued without the assessment of an administrative fine.

(2) Assessment of administrative fines may be limited to only particular violations of the applicable licensing act.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, where a fine is paid to satisfy an assessment based on the finding of a violation, payment of the fine shall be represented as satisfactory resolution of the matter for purposes of public disclosure.

(e) This section does not apply to any board, bureau, or commission within the department with existing authority to establish, by regulation, a system for the issuance, to a licensee, of a citation which may include an order of abatement or an order to pay an administrative fine, even if the system of citation does not affect or apply to all activities engaged in by a licensee. Nothing in this section expands or limits that authority.

(f) Administrative fines collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the special fund of the particular board, bureau, or commission.

SEC. 2. Section 1611.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

1611.5. The board may inspect the books, records, and premises of any dentist licensed under this chapter in response to a complaint that a licensee has violated any law or regulation that constitutes grounds for disciplinary action by the board, and may employ inspectors for this purpose.

A licensee's failure to allow an inspection or any part thereof shall be grounds for suspension or revocation of the license in accordance with Section 1670.

SEC. 3. Section 1704 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 522

An act to amend Section 611.1 of the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 611.1 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

611.1. The elections official shall compile an index, list, or file, by precinct, of all persons who voted in the previous statewide general election. This information shall be compiled in conjunction with the purge of voter registration files conducted pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 800).

Information compiled pursuant to this section shall include that information which is required to appear in the index as set forth in Section 600.

Any person, candidate, or committee who is entitled to obtain a copy of any information contained in this article shall, upon written request to the elections official, be entitled to obtain the index, list, or file compiled pursuant to this section. The elections official shall inform any recipient of this information as to whether the index, list, or file includes a voting history of absent voters. The elections official may require the payment of a fee not to exceed the cost of duplicating the information or providing the tape as a condition to furnishing the information contained in this section.

If the elections official uses data-processing equipment, he or she shall make the index available on a data-processing tape file on request. The elections official shall be required to retain this file until the next November general election in an even-numbered year has been conducted.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 523

An act to amend Section 38631 of the Government Code, relating to police protection.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 38631 of the Government Code is amended to read:

38631. The legislative body of a city may delegate to either the chief of police of the city or the city manager the authority to:

(a) Appoint one or more police officers.

(b) Appoint additional police officers when he or she deems it necessary for the preservation of the public order.

CHAPTER 524

An act to amend Sections 5484, 5485, and 5486 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to outdoor advertising.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5484 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5484. (a) The license fee is two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for an original license and for each annual renewal thereof for any applicant maintaining six or less sign or structure permits, or both, except where the applicant has engaged in the business of outdoor advertising without a valid, unrevoked and unexpired license, the fee for any issuance of the first license thereafter is three hundred fifty dollars ($350), one hundred dollars ($100) of which is the penalty.

(b) The license fee is five hundred dollars ($500) for an original license and for each annual renewal for any applicant maintaining seven or more sign or structure permits, or both, except where the applicant has engaged in the business of outdoor advertising without a valid, unrevoked and unexpired license, the fee for any issuance of the first license thereafter is six hundred dollars ($600), one hundred dollars ($100) of which is the penalty.

SEC. 2. Section 5485 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5485. (a) The permit fee for each advertising sign is twenty dollars ($20) for an original permit and for each annual renewal thereof, except where the applicant has placed or maintained the sign without a valid, unrevoked, and unexpired permit therefor, the fee for any issuance of the first permit thereafter is ninety-five dollars ($95), seventy-five dollars ($75) of which is the penalty.

(b) The permit fee for an advertising structure for the original permit and for each annual renewal thereof is twenty dollars ($20), except where the applicant has placed or maintained the structure without a valid, unrevoked, and unexpired permit therefor, the fee for any issuance of the first permit thereafter is ninety-five dollars ($95), seventy-five dollars ($75) of which is the penalty.

SEC. 3. Section 5486 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5486. In addition to the fees set forth in Section 5485, no application for an original permit to place an advertising structure shall be accepted by the department unless it is also accompanied by an application fee of three hundred dollars ($300). The application fee shall be retained by the department whether or not a permit is issued.

An applicant may request a preliminary determination as to whether a proposed structure and location would be legally eligible for a state permit upon submission of a fee of two hundred dollars ($200), one hundred dollars ($100) of which shall be credited toward an application fee for an original permit at this location if a permit is applied for within one year of the response to the request for preliminary determination.

CHAPTER 525

An act to add Section 4990.17 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to the Board of Behavioral Science Examiners, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4990.17 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4990.17. (a) In any order issued in resolution of a disciplinary proceeding before the board, the board may request the administrative law judge to direct any registrant or licensee found to have violated or be in violation of Section 4982, 4986.70, or 4992.3, to pay to the board a sum not to exceed the actual and reasonable costs of the investigation and prosecution of the case.

(b) The costs to be assessed shall be fixed only by the administrative law judge and shall not be fixed or increased by the board. A certification by the board's executive officer of the costs incurred for investigation and prosecution of the case shall be conclusive proof of those costs. If the board does not adopt a proposed decision the board shall not increase the amount of any assessed costs specified in the proposed decision.

(c) Nothing in subdivision (a) or (b) shall preclude the board from seeking recovery of costs in an order made pursuant to an agreement entered into between the board and the registrant or licensee.

(d) Where an order for recovery of costs is made and timely payment is not made as directed in the board's decision, the board may enforce the order for payment in any appropriate court. This right of enforcement shall be in addition to any other rights the board may have as to any registrant or licensee directed to pay costs.

(e) In any action for recovery of costs, proof of the board's decision shall be conclusive proof of the validity of the order of payment and the terms for payment.

(f) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the board shall not renew or reinstate the license or registration of, nor shall the board accept any petition for reinstatement or modification of probation from, any licensee or registrant who has failed to pay all of the costs ordered under this section.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), the board may, in its discretion, conditionally renew or reinstate for a maximum of two years the registration or license of any registrant or licensee who demonstrates financial hardship and who enters into a formal agreement with the board to reimburse the board within that one-year period for those unpaid costs.

(g) All costs recovered under this section shall be deposited into the Behavioral Science Examiners Fund.

CHAPTER 526

An act to amend Section 14105.31 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14105.31 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14105.31. For purposes of the Medi-Cal contract drug list, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) "Single-source drug" means a drug which is produced and distributed under an original New Drug Application approved by the federal Food and Drug Administration. This shall include a drug marketed by the innovator manufacturer and any cross-licensed producers or distributors operating under the New Drug Application, and shall also include a biological product, except for vaccines, marketed by the innovator manufacturer and any cross-licensed producers or distributors licensed by the federal Food and Drug Administration pursuant to Section 262 of Title 42 of the United States Code. A drug ceases to be a single-source drug when the same drug in the same dosage form and strength manufactured by another manufacturer is approved by the federal Food and Drug Administration under the provisions for an Abbreviated New Drug Application.

(b) "Best price" means the negotiated price, or the manufacturer's lowest price available to any class of trade organization or entity, including, but not limited to, wholesalers, retailers, hospitals, repackagers, providers, or governmental entities within the United States, which contracts with a manufacturer for a specified price for drugs, inclusive of cash discounts, free goods, volume discounts, rebates, and on- or off-invoice discounts or credits shall be based upon the manufacturer's commonly used retail package sizes for the drug sold by wholesalers to retail pharmacies.

(c) "Equalization payment amount" means the amount negotiated between the manufacturer and the department for reimbursement by the manufacturer, as specified in the contract. The equalization payment amount shall be based on the difference between the manufacturer's direct catalog price charged to wholesalers and the manufacturer's best price, as defined in subdivision (b).

(d) "Manufacturer" means any person, partnership, corporation, or other institution or entity which is engaged in the production, preparation, propagation, compounding, conversion, or processing of drugs, either directly or indirectly by extraction from substances of natural origin, or independently by means of chemical synthesis, or by a combination of extraction and chemical synthesis, or in the packaging, repackaging, labeling, relabeling, and distribution of drugs.

(e) "Price escalator" means a mutually agreed upon price specified in the contract, to cover anticipated cost increases over the life of the contract.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 527

An act to amend Sections 77226, 77230, 77251, 77260, 77331, 77332, 77371, and 77372 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to the California Pepper Commission.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 77226 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

77226. (a) "Handler" means any person engaged in marketing of peppers which the person has produced, purchased, or acquired from a producer, or is marketing on behalf of a producer whether as owner, agent, employee, broker, or otherwise. "Handler" does not include any person who handles less than 100 tons of fresh peppers, or the equivalent in dehydrated peppers or pepper seed, in a marketing year.

(b) "Handle" means to engage in the business of a handler.

SEC. 2. Section 77230 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

77230. "Producer" means any person in this state who grows peppers for market and who, upon request, provides proof of commodity sale. "Producer" does not include any person who grows less than 10 acres of peppers, or produces less than 100 tons of fresh peppers, or the equivalent in dry peppers or pepper seed, in the current marketing year.

SEC. 3. Section 77251 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

77251. (a) There is in the state government the California Pepper Commission. The commission shall be composed of five pepper producers, five pepper handlers, and shall include one public member.

(b) Five producers, one from each district, shall be elected by and from producers within the respective districts. Five handlers, including one primarily engaged in processing frozen or dehydrated bell peppers; one primarily engaged in processing frozen or dehydrated chili peppers; one primarily engaged in packing fresh market peppers; one primarily engaged in processing peppers, other than frozen or dehydrated; and one representing a handler of pepper seed, shall be elected by and from other qualified handlers engaged in the same activity.

(c) The public member shall be appointed to the commission by the director from nominees recommended by the commission.

(d) The director and other appropriate individuals as determined by the commission shall be ex officio members of the commission.

SEC. 4. Section 77260 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

77260. Any handler member and his or her alternate member on the commission shall have a financial interest in handling peppers for market, or be an employee of a firm which handles peppers.

SEC. 5. Section 77331 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

77331. (a) The commission shall establish the assessment for the following marketing year not later than May 1 of each year, or as soon thereafter as is possible.

(b) The assessment for the 1989–90 marketing year shall not exceed twenty-five cents ($0.25) per ton for producers and twenty-five cents ($0.25) per ton for handlers on all peppers grown and shipped on a wet pound or ton basis by producers and handled by handlers. Thereafter, the assessment shall not exceed one dollar ($1) per ton for producers and one dollar ($1) per ton for handlers.

(c) The assessment for the 1989–90 marketing year shall not exceed $0.00065 per pound for producers and $0.00065 per pound for handlers on all peppers grown and shipped on a dry pound basis by producers and handled by handlers. Thereafter, the assessment shall not exceed a maximum of $0.0026 per pound for producers and $0.0026 per pound for handlers.

(d) The assessment for the 1989–90 marketing year shall not exceed two cents ($0.02) per pound for producers and two cents ($0.02) per pound for handlers on all planting seed grown by producers and handled by handlers. Thereafter, the assessment shall not exceed a maximum of eight cents ($0.08) per pound for producers and eight cents ($0.08) per pound for handlers.

(e) The handler shall deduct the producer assessment from amounts paid by him or her to the producer and shall be a trustee of these funds and the assessment owed by the handler until they are paid to the commission at the time and in the manner prescribed by the commission.

(f) A fee greater than the amount provided in this section may not be charged unless and until a greater fee is approved pursuant to the procedures specified in Section 77312.

SEC. 6. Section 77332 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

77332. (a) This chapter does not apply to persons who grow peppers only for the producer's home use or who grow less than 10 acres of peppers or produce less than 100 tons of fresh peppers, or the equivalent in dry peppers or pepper seed, in the current marketing year. However, any such person who markets peppers shall file an affidavit with the commission establishing that the person grows less than 10 acres of peppers or produces less than 100 tons of fresh peppers, or the equivalent in dry peppers or pepper seed. The commission shall then determine whether the affidavit should be approved.

(b) This chapter does not apply to any person who handles less than 100 tons of fresh peppers, or the equivalent in dehydrated peppers or pepper seed, in the current marketing year. However, any person who is handling peppers shall file an affidavit with the commission specifying that the person handles less than 100 tons of peppers. The commission shall, upon receipt of the affidavit, determine whether this chapter applies to that person.

SEC. 7. Section 77371 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

77371. Between May 1, 1993, and April 30, 1994, the commission shall cause a referendum to be conducted among producers and handlers to determine whether the operations of this chapter shall be approved and continued in effect. A favorable vote under this chapter shall be found if the director determines from the referendum that a majority of the eligible producers and handlers voting in the referendum voted in favor of continuing the operations of this chapter. If the director finds that a favorable vote has been given, the director shall so certify and this chapter shall remain effective. If the director finds that a favorable vote has not been given, the director shall so certify and declare the operations of this chapter suspended upon expiration of the marketing season ending April 30, 1994. Thereupon, the operation of the commission shall be concluded and funds distributed in the manner provided in Section 77375. No bond or security shall be required for any such referendum.

SEC. 8. Section 77372 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

77372. Following a favorable referendum conducted prior to April 30, 1994, a referendum shall be conducted by the commission every fifth year thereafter unless a referendum is conducted as the result of a petition pursuant to this article. In that case, the referendum shall be every fifth year following the industry petitioned referendum following the procedures provided in Section 77371.

CHAPTER 528

An act to amend Section 10302.5 of, and to add Section 10302.6 to, the Public Contract Code, relating to public contracts.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10302.5 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

10302.5. All product specifications that the Department of General Services or any other state agency prepares for goods for any contract entered into by any state agency for the purchase of goods under Section 10295 are not subject to the review and adoption procedure under Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. Unless extended by the Legislature, this exemption shall expire on January 1, 1995.

SEC. 2. Section 10302.6 is added to the Public Contract Code, to read:

10302.6. Product specifications as prepared by the Department of General Services or any other state agency shall not be written with the intent of excluding goods manufactured, produced, grown, or otherwise originating in California.

CHAPTER 529

An act to amend Sections 60011, 60200, and 60242 of, and to add Section 60017.1 to, the Education Code, relating to instructional materials.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 60011 of the Education Code is amended to read:

60011. "Instructional material" means all materials that are designed for use by pupils and their teachers as a learning resource and help pupils to acquire facts, skills, or opinions or to develop cognitive processes. Instructional materials may be printed or nonprinted, and may include textbooks, technology-based materials, other educational materials, and tests.

SEC. 1.5. Section 60017.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

60017.1. "Technology-based materials" means those basic or supplemental instructional materials that are designed for use by pupils and teachers as learning resources and that require the availability of electronic equipment in order to be used as a learning resource. Technology-based materials include, but are not limited to, software programs, video disks, compact disks, optical disks, video and audio tapes, lesson plans, and databases. Technology-based materials do not include the equipment required to make use of those materials.

SEC. 2. Section 60200 of the Education Code is amended to read:

60200. The state board shall adopt basic instructional materials for use in kindergarten and grades 1 to 8, inclusive, for governing boards, subject to the following provisions:

(a) The state board shall adopt basic instructional materials for all applicable grade levels in each of the following categories:

(1) Language arts.

(2) Mathematics.

(3) Reading.

(4) Science.

(5) Social Science.

(6) Bilingual or bicultural subjects.

(7) Any other subject, discipline, or interdisciplinary areas for which the state board determines the adoption of instructional materials to be necessary or desirable.

(b) The state board shall adopt any of the following for basic instructional materials in each subject in each grade:

(1) Instructional materials.

(2) Instructional materials systems.

(3) Instructional materials sets.

(4) A combination of instructional materials, instructional materials systems, and instructional materials sets, as the state board may select.

(c) The state board shall adopt procedures for the submission of basic instructional materials in order to comply with each of the following:

(1) Instructional materials may be submitted for adoption in any of the subject areas pursuant to subdivision (a) at least every two years so that there will be submissions in each subject consistent with the framework cycles established by the state board. The state board may prescribe reasonable conditions to restrict the resubmission of materials that have been previously rejected if those resubmitted materials have no substantive changes.

(2) Submitted instructional materials shall be adopted or rejected within six months of the submission date of the materials pursuant to paragraph (1), unless the state board determines that a longer period of time, not to exceed an additional three months, is necessary due to the estimated volume or complexity of the materials for that subject in that year, or due to other circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the state board.

(d) In reviewing and adopting or recommending for adoption submitted basic instructional materials, the state board and its appropriate advisors and advisory groups shall use, and ensure that, in its judgment, all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The submitted basic instructional materials are consistent with the criteria and the standards of quality prescribed in the state board's adopted curriculum framework. In making this determination, the state board shall consider both the framework and the submitted instructional materials as a whole.

(2) The submitted basic instructional materials comply with the requirements of Sections 60040, 60041, 60042, 60043, 60044, 60200.5, and 60200.6, and the state board's guidelines for social content.

(3) The submitted instructional materials are factually accurate and incorporate principals of instruction reflective of current and confirmed research.

(4) The submitted instructional materials adequately cover the subject area for the grade level or levels for which they are submitted.

(5) The submitted instructional materials meet other criteria as are established by the state board as being necessary to accomplish the intent of Section 7.5 of Article IX of the California Constitution and of Section 1 of this act, provided that the criteria are approved by resolution at the time the resolution adopting the framework for the current adoption is approved, or at least 30 months prior to the date that the materials are to be approved for adoption.

(e) If basic instructional materials are rejected, the state board shall provide a specific, written explanation of the reasons why the submitted materials were not adopted, based upon one or more of the criteria established under subdivision (d). In providing this explanation, the state board may use, in whole or in part, materials written by the commission or any other advisors to the state board.

(f) The state board may adopt fewer than five basic instructional materials in each subject area for each grade level if either of the following occurs:

(1) Fewer than five basic instructional materials are submitted.

(2) The state board specifically finds that fewer than five basic instructional materials meet the criteria prescribed by paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, of subdivision (d), or the materials fail to meet the state board's adopted curriculum framework. In the event that the state board adopts fewer than five basic instructional materials in any subject for any grade level, the state board shall conduct a review of the degree to which the criteria and procedures used to evaluate the submitted materials for that adoption were consistent with the state board's adopted curriculum framework.

(g) Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the state board to adopt materials that are not basic instructional materials.

(h) In the event that a district board establishes to the satisfaction of the state board that the state-adopted instructional materials do not promote the maximum efficiency of pupil learning in the district, the state board shall authorize that district board to use its instructional materials allowances to purchase materials as specified by the state board, in accordance with standards and procedures established by the state board.

(i) Consistent with the quality criteria for the state board's adopted curriculum framework, the state board shall prescribe procedures to provide the most open and flexible materials submission system and ensure that the adopted materials in each subject, taken as a whole, provide for the educational needs of the diverse pupil populations in the public schools, provide collections of instructional materials that illustrate diverse points of view, represent cultural pluralism, and provide a broad spectrum of knowledge, information, and technology-based materials to meet the goals of the program and the needs of pupils.

(j) Upon making an adoption, the state board shall make available to listed publishers and manufacturers and all school interests a listing of instructional materials, including the most current unit cost of those materials as computed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 60222 and Section 60223. Items placed upon lists shall remain thereon, and be available for procurement through the state's systems of financing, for a period beginning with the date of the adoption of the item and ending on a date established by the state board as being not less than 30 months after the state board's approval of the curriculum framework that will succeed the framework on which the current adoption is based. All previous adoptions shall be integrated on lists and made available by subject and grade level. The lists shall terminate and shall no longer be effective on the date prescribed by the state board pursuant to this subdivision.

(k) The state board may approve multiple lists of instructional materials, without designating a grade or subject, and the state board may designate more than one grade or subject whenever it determines that a single subject designation or a single grade designation would not promote the maximum efficiency of pupil learning. Any materials so designated may be placed on single grade or single subject lists, or multigrade or interdisciplinary lists, or may be placed on separate lists including other materials with similar grade or subject designations.

(l) A composite listing in the format of an order form may be used to meet the requirements of this section.

(m) The lists maintained pursuant to this section shall not be deemed to control the use period by any local district.

(n) Upon making an adoption, the state board shall establish the date upon which those adopted materials shall initially be available for use by schools.

SEC. 2.5. Section 60200 of the Education Code is amended to read:

60200. The state board shall adopt basic instructional materials for use in kindergarten and grades 1 to 8, inclusive, for governing boards, subject to the following provisions:

(a) The state board shall adopt at least five basic instructional materials for all applicable grade levels in each of the following categories:

(1) Language arts.

(2) Mathematics.

(3) Reading.

(4) Science.

(5) Social Science.

(6) Bilingual or bicultural subjects.

(7) Any other subject, discipline, or interdisciplinary areas for which the state board determines the adoption of instructional materials to be necessary or desirable.

(b) The state board shall adopt any of the following for basic instructional materials in each subject in each grade:

(1) Instructional materials.

(2) Instructional materials systems.

(3) Instructional materials sets.

(4) A combination of instructional materials, instructional materials systems, and instructional materials sets, as the state board may select.

(c) The state board shall adopt procedures for the submission of basic instructional materials in order to comply with each of the following:

(1) Instructional materials may be submitted for adoption in any of the subject areas pursuant to subdivision (a) at least every two years so that there will be submissions in each subject consistent with the framework cycles established by the state board. The state board may prescribe reasonable conditions to restrict the resubmission of materials that have been previously rejected if those resubmitted materials have no substantive changes.

(2) Submitted instructional materials shall be adopted or rejected within six months of the submission date of the materials pursuant to paragraph (1), unless the state board determines that a longer period of time, not to exceed an additional three months, is necessary due to the estimated volume or complexity of the materials for that subject in that year, or due to other circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the state board.

(d) In reviewing and adopting or recommending for adoption submitted basic instructional materials, the state board and its appropriate advisors and advisory groups shall use, and ensure that, in its judgment, all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The submitted basic instructional materials are consistent with the criteria and the standards of quality prescribed in the state board's adopted curriculum framework. In making this determination, the state board shall consider both the framework and the submitted instructional materials as a whole.

(2) The submitted basic instructional materials comply with the requirements of Sections 60040, 60041, 60042, 60043, 60044, 60200.5, and 60200.6, and the state board's guidelines for social content.

(3) The submitted instructional materials are factually accurate and incorporate principals of instruction reflective of current and confirmed research.

(4) The submitted instructional materials adequately cover the subject area for the grade level or levels for which they are submitted.

(5) The submitted instructional materials meet other criteria as are established by the state board as being necessary to accomplish the intent of Section 7.5 of Article IX of the California Constitution and of Section 1 of this act, provided that the criteria are approved by resolution at the time the resolution adopting the framework for the current adoption is approved, or at least 30 months prior to the date that the materials are to be approved for adoption.

(e) If basic instructional materials are rejected, the state board shall provide a specific, written explanation of the reasons why the submitted materials were not adopted, based upon one or more of the criteria established under subdivision (d). In providing this explanation, the state board may use, in whole or in part, materials written by the commission or any other advisors to the state board.

(f) The state board may adopt fewer than five basic instructional materials in each subject area for each grade level if either of the following occurs:

(1) Fewer than five basic instructional materials are submitted.

(2) The state board specifically finds that fewer than five basic instructional materials meet the criteria prescribed by paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, of subdivision (d), or the materials fail to meet the state board's adopted curriculum framework. In the event that the state board adopts fewer than five basic instructional materials in any subject for any grade level, the state board shall conduct a review of the degree to which the criteria and procedures used to evaluate the submitted materials for that adoption were consistent with the state board's adopted curriculum framework.

(g) Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the state board to adopt materials that are not basic instructional materials.

(h) In the event that a district board establishes to the satisfaction of the state board that the state-adopted instructional materials do not promote the maximum efficiency of pupil learning in the district, the state board shall authorize that district board to use its instructional materials allowances to purchase materials as specified by the state board, in accordance with standards and procedures established by the state board.

(i) Consistent with the quality criteria for the state board's adopted curriculum framework, the state board shall prescribe procedures to provide the most open and flexible materials submission system and ensure that the adopted materials in each subject, taken as a whole, provide for the educational needs of the diverse pupil populations in the public schools, provide collections of instructional materials that illustrate diverse points of view, represent cultural pluralism, and provide a broad spectrum of knowledge, information, and technology-based materials to meet the goals of the program and the needs of pupils.

(j) Upon making an adoption, the state board shall make available to listed publishers and manufacturers and all school interests a listing of instructional materials, including the most current unit cost of those materials as computed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 60222 and Section 60223. Items placed upon lists shall remain thereon, and be available for procurement through the state's systems of financing, for a period beginning with the date of the adoption of the item and ending on a date established by the state board as being not less than 30 months after the state board's approval of the curriculum framework that will succeed the framework on which the current adoption is based. All previous adoptions shall be integrated on lists and made available by subject and grade level. The lists shall terminate and shall no longer be effective on the date prescribed by the state board pursuant to this subdivision.

(k) The state board may approve multiple lists of instructional materials, without designating a grade or subject, and the state board may designate more than one grade or subject whenever it determines that a single subject designation or a single grade designation would not promote the maximum efficiency of pupil learning. Any materials so designated may be placed on single grade or single subject lists, or multigrade or interdisciplinary lists, or may be placed on separate lists including other materials with similar grade or subject designations.

(l) A composite listing in the format of an order form may be used to meet the requirements of this section.

(m) The lists maintained pursuant to this section shall not be deemed to control the use period by any local district.

(n) Upon making an adoption, the state board shall establish the date upon which those adopted materials shall initially be available for use by schools.

SEC. 3. Section 60242 of the Education Code is amended to read:

60242. After the application of Section 60241, the state board shall encumber the balance of the fund for the purpose of:

(a) Establishing credits and cash allotments as follows:

(1) The state board shall establish a credit for each district governing board with which instructional materials adopted by the state board may be ordered by districts that choose to order materials through the state.

(2) The state board shall establish a cash allotment in an amount determined by the state board for use in purchasing instructional materials from any source, or for the purchase of tests or in-service training pursuant to Sections 60224 and 60225.

The state board shall specify the percentage of a district governing board's credit authorized to be used for each of the above purposes.

(b) Establishing an allowance for each district governing board, which the district governing board may use for the following purposes:

(1) To purchase instructional materials adopted by the state board.

(2) To purchase instructional materials, including, but not limited to, technology-based materials, from any source.

(3) To purchase tests or in-service training pursuant to Sections 60224 and 60225.

The state board shall specify the percentage of a district governing board's allowance authorized to be used for each of the above purposes.

Allowances established for school districts pursuant to this section shall be apportioned to districts as part of the special purpose apportionment in accordance with paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 14041.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction may establish a date each fiscal year by which districts shall notify the State Department of Education if they wish to operate under a different subdivision during the next fiscal year.

(c) Obtaining instructional materials in subsequent fiscal years.

SEC. 4. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 60200 of the Education Code proposed by both this bill and AB 588. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 60200 of the Education Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 588, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 530

An act to add Chapter 14.7 (commencing with Section 25996.950) to Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to dog pedigree registries.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) There is increasing evidence that many of the dogs sold in California with the claim of affiliation with, or of eligibility for, a dog breed registry suffer from poor health and genetic defects.

(b) Consumers often mistakenly rely on breed registration as an indicator of a dog's quality, health, and temperament.

(c) California consumers are willing to spend large sums of money for registered dogs. This has made California one of the largest markets for puppies bred under unsanitary and unhealthy conditions at mass breeding facilities.

(d) Approximately one-half of the 17 million dogs in this country listed or eligible to be listed with the largest dog registry are commercially bred. However, their lineage claims and the conditions under which they are bred cannot be verified due, in part, to the small number of registry staff investigators.

(e) There is a need to inform prospective dog purchasers of the limited meaning of dog registries and of the limited accuracy of registry records.

SEC. 2. Chapter 14.7 (commencing with Section 25996.950) is added to Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 14.7. DOG PEDIGREE REGISTRIES

25996.950. For purposes of this chapter:

(a) "Dog dealer" means any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other association which engages in the acquisition of dogs for retail sale to the public. "Dog dealer" does not include duly incorporated nonprofit humane societies dedicated to the care of unwanted animals which make animals available for adoption, whether or not a fee for the adoption is charged, or pet dealers who do not in the normal course of business sell dogs, but who sometimes exhibit dogs for adoption.

(b) "Dog breeder" means any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other association which breeds and sells dogs at wholesale or retail.

(c) "Dog pedigree registry" means any of various private agencies that serve to keep track of the breed, lineage, physical characteristics, and historical data regarding dogs which are registered with the agency.

25996.951. Every dog dealer that sells registered dogs or that claims that the dogs being sold are registered or are registerable with a dog pedigree registry shall post conspicuously within close proximity to the dogs offered for sale, a notice containing the following language in at least 100-point type:

"Pedigree registration does not assure proper breeding conditions, health, quality, or claims to lineage."

25996.952. (a) For every dog sold by a dog dealer or dog breeder which is sold with any representation that the dog is registered or registerable with a dog pedigree registry, the following fully completed disclosure shall be made, orally and in writing on a separate sheet from any other statements, including, but not limited to, the name of the dog dealer or breeder and the name of the relevant dog pedigree registry:

"Disclosure by

DOG PEDIGREE REGISTRATION DISCLOSURE

Description of dog: _____

The dog you are purchasing is registered/registerable [circle one with the _____ [enter name of registry].

Registration means only that _____ [enter name of registry] maintains information regarding the parentage and identity of this dog, it does not guarantee the quality or health of this dog, and it does not guarantee quality lineage. Since dog pedigree registries depend in large part on the honesty and accuracy of persons registering dogs, registration does not guarantee the accuracy of the lineage recorded nor that this dog is purebred.

Acknowledged: _____ _____ "
Retail purchaser's signature Date

(b) The disclosure in subdivision (a) shall be signed and dated by the retail purchaser of the dog acknowledging receipt of a copy of the statement and the dog dealer or dog breeder shall retain a copy.

25996.953. (a) Any dog dealer or dog breeder who fails to comply with the disclosure requirements in Section 25996.951 or 25996.952, as the case may be, shall be liable to the retail purchaser for civil damages in an amount equal to three times the cost of the dog. Claim for payment under this section shall be made within one year from the date of purchase of the dog.

(b) The remedies provided in this section shall be in addition to any other remedies or penalties authorized by other provisions of law.

CHAPTER 531

An act to add Sections 57329 and 57385 to the Government Code, and to amend Sections 989 and 1806 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to streets.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 57329 is added to the Government Code, to read:

57329. (a) If unincorporated territory was, or is hereafter, annexed to a city, all roads and highways or portions of a road or highway in the territory which had been accepted into the county road system pursuant to Section 941 of the Streets and Highways Code are, or shall become, as the case may be, city streets on the effective date of the annexation.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to a road or highway which had been accepted into the county road system pursuant to Section 941 of the Streets and Highways Code after the date of the first signature on a petition for annexation or incorporation, the adoption of a resolution of application by an affected local agency, or a date mutually agreed upon by the city and the county.

(c) Nothing in subdivision (a) requires a city to improve the affected road or highway to city standards.

SEC. 2. Section 57385 is added to the Government Code, to read:

57385. (a) If unincorporated territory was, or hereafter becomes, incorporated, all roads and highways or portions of a road or highway in the territory which had been accepted into the county road system pursuant to Section 941 of the Streets and Highways Code are, or shall become, as the case may be, city streets on the effective date of the incorporation.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to a road or highway which had been accepted into the county road system pursuant to Section 941 of the Streets and Highways Code after the date of the first signature on a petition for annexation or incorporation, the adoption of a resolution of application by an affected local agency, or a date mutually agreed upon by the city and the county.

(c) Nothing in subdivision (a) requires a city to improve the affected road or highway to city standards.

SEC. 3. Section 989 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

989. (a) (1) Upon the incorporation of a city or upon the annexation of territory to a city, all right, title, and interest of the county, including the underlying fee where owned by the county, in and to any county highway within the territory involved, which had been accepted into the county road system pursuant to Section 941 shall vest in the city and shall thereupon constitute a city street.

(2) All right, title, and interest of a county in and to any county highway included within territory heretofore incorporated as a city or annexed to a city is hereby determined to have vested in the city as a city street.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to a road or highway which had been accepted into the county road system pursuant to Section 941 after the date of the first signature on a petition for annexation or incorporation, the adoption of a resolution of application by an affected local agency, or a date mutually agreed upon by the city and county.

(c) Nothing in subdivision (a) requires a city to improve the affected road or highway to city standards.

SEC. 4. Section 1806 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

1806. Except as provided by Section 989, or by Section 57329 or 57385 of the Government Code, no public or private street or road shall become a city street or road until the governing body, by resolution, has caused the street or road to be accepted into the city street system; nor shall any city be held liable for failure to maintain any road until it has been accepted into the city street system by resolution of the governing body.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature to abrogate the holding of the Court of Appeal in Rink v. City of Cupertino, 216 Cal. App. 3d 1362, to the extent that the holding would cause a road or highway which was part of a county road system to remain within the county road system after the territory in which the road or highway is situated becomes the territory of a city through annexation or incorporation proceedings. It is, and always has been, the intent of the Legislature that roads or highways which have been accepted into a county road system pursuant to Section 941 of the Streets and Highways Code, and which are situated in an area which is subsequently incorporated or annexed to a city, be included within the city street system upon that incorporation or annexation. Accordingly, Sections 1 to 4, inclusive, of this act are intended to clarify existing law without substantive change.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 532

An act to amend Section 6105 of the Commercial Code, and to amend Sections 75.41, 1604, 2188.8, 2188.9, 2188.10, 2191.3, 2505, 2617, 2618, 2619, 2704, 2705, 2705.5, 2759, 2760, 2761, 2762, 2763, 2768, 2821, 2922, 2922.5, 2963, 3101, 3103, 3107, 3351, 3362, 3365, 4217, 4377, 4673.1, 4831, 4832.1, 4834, 4834.5, 4836.5, 4837.5, 4840, 4985, 4985.2, 4986, 4986.8, 5089, 5096, 5096.5, and 5097.2 of, and to add Sections 2503.1, 2503.2, and 3007 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to property taxation.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6105 of the Commercial Code is amended to read:

6105. In order to comply with subdivision (b) of Section 6104 each of the following shall be satisfied:

(a) The notice shall comply with each of the following:

(1) State that a bulk sale is about to be made.

(2) State the name and business address of the seller together with any other business name and address listed by the seller (subdivision

(a) of Section 6104) and the name and business address of the buyer.

(3) State the location and general description of the assets.

(4) State the place and the anticipated date of the bulk sale.

(5) State whether or not the bulk sale is subject to Section 6106.2 and, if so subject, the matters required by subdivision (f) of Section 6106.2.

(b) At least 12 business days before the date of the bulk sale, the notice shall be:

(1) Recorded in the office of the county recorder in the county or counties in this state in which the tangible assets are located and, if different, in the county in which the seller is located (paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 6103).

(2) Published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation published in the judicial district in this state in which the tangible assets are located and in the judicial district, if different, in which the seller is located (paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 6103), if in either case there is one, and if there is none, then in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the judicial district is located.

(3) Delivered or sent by registered or certified mail to the county tax collector in the county or counties in this state in which the tangible assets are located. If delivered during the period from March 1 to the last Friday in May, inclusive, the notice shall be accompanied by a completed business property statement with respect to property involved in the bulk sale pursuant to Section 441 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

If the tangible assets are located in more than one judicial district in this state, the publication required in paragraph (2) shall be in a newspaper of general circulation published in the judicial district in this state in which a greater portion of the tangible assets are located, on the date the notice is published, than in any other judicial district in this state and, if different, in the judicial district in which the seller is located (paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 6103). As used in this subdivision, "business day" means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday, or day observed as a holiday by the state government.

SEC. 2. Section 75.41 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

75.41. (a) The auditor shall apply the current year's tax rate, as defined in Section 75.4, to the supplemental assessment or assessments, computing the amount of taxes that would be due for a full year. If the tax rate for the "roll being prepared" is known, the rate shall be used with respect to the fiscal year to which it applies, rather than the current year's tax rate as defined in Section 75.4. For property on the supplemental roll, the taxes due shall be computed in two equal installments.

(b) The taxes due shall be adjusted by a proration factor to reflect the portion of the tax year remaining as determined by the date on which the change in ownership occurred or the new construction was completed. In computing the portion of the tax year remaining, the change in ownership or completion of new construction shall be presumed to have occurred on the first day of the month following the date on which change in ownership or completion of new construction occurred.

(c) (1) If the presumed date specified in subdivision (b) is April 1, the taxes on the supplemental assessment for the current roll shall be multiplied by 0.25; and the taxes on the supplemental assessment for the roll being prepared shall be multiplied by 1.00.

(2) If the presumed date specified in subdivision (b) is May 1, the taxes on the supplemental assessment for the current roll shall be multiplied by 0.17; and the taxes on the supplemental assessment for the roll being prepared shall be multiplied by 1.00.

(3) If the presumed date specified in subdivision (b) is June 1, the taxes on the supplemental assessment for the current roll shall be multiplied by 0.08; and the taxes on the supplemental assessment for the roll being prepared shall be multiplied by 1.00.

(4) If the presumed date specified in subdivision (b) is July 1, no supplemental assessment shall be made on the current roll, and the taxes on the supplemental assessment for the roll being prepared shall be multiplied by 1.00.

(5) If the presumed date specified in subdivision (b) is on or after August 1, and on or before March 1, the following table of factors shall be used:

If the presumed date is:	The taxes on the supplemental assessment on the current roll shall be multiplied by:
August 1	.92
September 1	.83
October 1	.75
November 1	.67
December 1	.58
January 1	.50
February 1	.42
March 1	.33

(d) After computing the supplemental taxes due, if the total is twenty dollars ($20) or less, the auditor may cancel the amount as provided by Section 4986.8.

(e) If the supplemental assessment is a negative amount, the auditor shall follow the procedures of this section to determine the amount of refund to which the assessee may be entitled.

SEC. 4. Section 1604 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

1604. (a) In counties of the first class, annually, on the fourth Monday in September, the county board shall meet to equalize the assessment of property on the local roll. The board shall continue to meet for that purpose, from time to time, until the business of equalization is disposed of.

(b) In all other counties, annually, on the third Monday in July, the county board shall meet to equalize the assessment of property on the local roll. It shall continue to meet for that purpose, from time to time, until the business of equalization is disposed of.

Any taxpayer may petition the board for a reduction in an assessment and a proportionate reduction or refund of the taxes extended thereon by filing an application pursuant to Section 1603 or Section 5097.

The county board shall have no power to receive or hear any petition for a reduction in an escaped assessment made pursuant to Section 531.1 nor a penal assessment levied in respect thereto, nor to reduce those assessments.

(c) If the county assessment appeals board fails to hear evidence and fails to make a final determination on the application for reduction in assessment of property within two years of the timely filing of the application, the taxpayer's opinion of market value as reflected on the application for reduction in assessment shall be the value upon which taxes are to be levied for the tax year covered by the application, unless either of the following occurs:

(1) The taxpayer and the county assessment appeals board mutually agree in writing to an extension of time for the hearing.

(2) The application for reduction is consolidated for hearing with another application by the same taxpayer with respect to which an extension of time for the hearing has been granted pursuant to paragraph (1).

The reduction in assessment reflecting the taxpayer's opinion of market value shall not be made, however, until two years after the close of the filing period during which the timely application was filed. Further, this subdivision shall not apply to applications for reductions in assessments of property where the taxpayer has failed to provide full and complete information as required by law or where litigation is pending directly relating to the issues involved in the application. This subdivision is only applicable to applications filed on or after January 1, 1983.

(d) If, pursuant to subdivision (c), the applicant's opinion of value has been placed on the assessment roll, that value shall remain on the roll until the county board makes a final determination on the application. The value so determined by the county board, plus appropriate adjustments for the inflation factor, shall be entered on the assessment roll for the fiscal year in which the value is determined. No increased or escape taxes other than those required by a purchase, change in ownership, or new construction, or resulting from application of the inflation factor to the applicant's opinion of value shall be levied for the tax years during which the county board failed to act.

SEC. 4.5. Section 2188.8 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2188.8. (a) Whenever the assessor receives a written request for separate assessment of timeshare estates in a timeshare project, as defined in Section 11003.5 of the Business and Professions Code and as specified in subdivision (h) of this section, the assessor shall, on the first lien date which occurs more than 60 days following the request, and on each lien date thereafter, separately assess each timeshare estate in the project if the assessor determines that the conditions specified in subdivision (c) have been met. Whenever estates in a timeshare project are separately assessed, they shall continue to be separately assessed in subsequent fiscal years and once a request for separate assessment is made with respect to a project, it is binding on all future timeshare estate owners.

(b) The interest that is to be separately assessed is the value of the right of recurrent, exclusive use or occupancy of real property, annually or on some other periodic basis, for a specific period of time that has been, or will be, allotted from the use or occupancy periods into which the project has been divided.

(c) The separate assessment of a timeshare estate may not be made by the assessor unless:

(1) The person making the request certifies that the request for separate assessment has been approved in the manner provided in the organizational documents of the organization involved for approval of matters affecting the affairs of the organization generally; and

(2) A diagrammatic floor plan of the improvements, a copy of the documents setting forth the procedures for scheduling time and units to each timeshare estate owner, and a list of every timeshare estate owner, with a date notation thereon showing when, according to the organization's records, each timeshare estate was acquired, have been filed with the assessor. A plot map of the land showing the location of the improvements on the land need not be filed unless requested by the assessor. The organization shall file an annual statement for each succeeding assessment year, on or before April 1, with the assessor setting forth any changes to such required information known to the organization. The list or other information provided pursuant to this section is not a public document and shall not be open to public inspection, except as provided in Section 408.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (c), this section shall not be construed to require any person making a request for separate assessment to meet the requirements of the Subdivision Map Act, nor shall the approval of any governmental agency be required for separate assessment.

(e) The tax on a timeshare estate that is separately assessed pursuant to this section shall be a lien solely on the timeshare estate and shall be entered on and be subject to all provisions of law applicable to taxes on the secured roll.

(f) The assessor shall provide to the principal office of each timeshare project within the taxing jurisdiction, at such time and in such manner as he deems appropriate, adequate notice of the provisions of this section and other pertinent information relative to the implementation thereof.

(g) The county may charge a fee for processing an application for separate assessment and for the initial and the on-going costs, not to exceed the actual cost, of the separate assessment and billing, and mailings, with respect to a timeshare project. This fee shall be subject to Chapter 12.5 (commencing with Section 54985) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, and shall be proportionately allocated to each of the timeshare estate owners. This fee may be collected commencing with the initial separate tax bills, and on subsequent tax bills, and deposited in the county's general fund.

(h) For purposes of this section, "timeshare estate" applies to timeshare estates, as defined in Section 11003.5 of the Business and Professions Code, which include a fee simple interest in the underlying property involved. However, "timeshare estate" does not include timeshare estates that are coupled with a leasehold interest or an estate for years.

SEC. 5. Section 2188.9 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2188.9. (a) Whenever the assessor receives a written request for separate assessment of a timeshare project, as defined in Section 11003.5 of the Business and Professions Code, the assessor shall, on the first lien date which occurs more than 60 days following the request, and on each lien date thereafter, separately assess the individual interests in the project described in subdivision (b) if the conditions specified in subdivision (c) have been met. Whenever a timeshare project becomes subject to separate assessment, it shall continue to be so subject in subsequent fiscal years and once a request for separate assessment is made, it is binding on all future owners and occupants of the project.

(b) The interest in a timeshare project that is to be separately assessed is the value of the right of recurrent, exclusive use or occupancy of real property, annually or on some other periodic basis, for a period of time that has been, or will be, allotted from the use or occupancy periods into which the project has been divided.

(c) A separate assessment may not be made by the assessor under this section unless:

(2) A diagrammatic floor plan of the improvements, a copy of the documents setting forth the procedures for scheduling time and units to each timeshare interest owner, and a list of every timeshare interest owner, with a date notation thereon showing when, according to the organization's records, each interest was acquired, have been filed with the assessor. A plot map of the land showing the location of the improvements on the land need not be filed unless requested by the assessor. The organization shall file an annual statement for each succeeding assessment year, on or before April 1, with the assessor, setting forth any changes to the required information known to the organization. The list or other information provided pursuant to this section is not a public document and shall not be open to public inspection, except as provided in Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (c), this section shall not be construed to require applicants for separate assessments to meet the requirements of the Subdivision Map Act, nor shall the approval of any governmental agency be required for separate assessment except for the assessor's approval.

(e) The assessor shall cumulate all the separate assessments in a timeshare project and enter the total assessment on the secured roll in the name of the organization or timeshare owners' association. The assessor shall notify each owner of a timeshare interest subject to separate assessment under this section of the amount of an increased assessment pursuant to Section 619.

(f) The tax on the total assessment with respect to a timeshare project shall be a lien on the entire timeshare project and shall be subject to all provisions of law applicable to taxes on the secured roll.

(g) The tax collector shall send a single tax bill, with an itemized breakdown detailing the taxes applicable to each separate assessment, to the timeshare project organization or owners' association.

(h) The assessor shall provide to the principal office of each timeshare project within the taxing jurisdiction, at that time and in that manner as he or she deems appropriate, adequate notice of the provisions of this section and other pertinent information relative to the implementation thereof.

(i) The county may charge a fee for processing the application for separate assessment and for the initial and ongoing costs of separate assessment and implementing subdivision (g), not to exceed the actual costs. Fees shall be subject to Chapter 12.5 (commencing with Section 54985) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, and may be collected commencing with the initial separate tax bills, and on subsequent tax bills, and shall be deposited in the county's general fund.

(j) This section shall not apply to timeshare estates or to timeshare projects that are subject to the provisions of Section 2188.8.

SEC. 6. Section 2188.10 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2188.10. (a) Whenever the assessor receives a written request for separate assessment of a pro rata portion of the real property of a mobilehome park which changed ownership pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 62.1 as the result of the transfer of a share or shares of voting stock or other ownership or membership interest or interests, the assessor shall, on the first lien date which occurs more than 60 days following the request, and on each lien date thereafter, separately assess the portion or portions of real property described in subdivision (b) if the conditions specified in subdivision (c) have been met. Whenever a portion of the real property of a mobilehome park becomes subject to separate assessment, it shall continue to be subject to separate assessment in subsequent fiscal years and once a request for separate assessment is made, it is binding on all future owners of the voting stock or other ownership or membership interests in the entity which owns the park.

(b) The interest that is to be separately assessed is the value of the pro rata portion of the real property of the mobilehome park which changed ownership pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 62.1.

(c) A separate assessment may not be made by the assessor under this section unless the following conditions are met:

(1) The governing board of the mobilehome park makes the request for separate assessment and certifies that the request has been approved in the manner provided in the organizational documents of the entity owning the mobilehome park.

(2) Information is filed with the assessor listing all of the following:

(A) The total number of outstanding shares of voting stock of, or other ownership or membership interests in, the entity which owns the mobilehome park.

(B) The number of shares of voting stock, or other ownership or membership interests, which have been transferred and resulted in the change in ownership of portions of the real property of the park pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 62.1, together with the names and addresses of the owners of the transferred voting stock or other ownership or membership interests.

(C) Any other information as the assessor may require.

The entity owning the mobilehome park shall file an annual statement for each succeeding assessment year, on or before April 1, with the assessor, setting forth any changes to the required information known to the entity. The information provided pursuant to this section is not a public document and shall not be open to public inspection, except as provided in Section 408.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require applicants for separate assessments to meet the requirements of the Subdivision Map Act, nor shall the approval of any governmental agency be required for separate assessment except for the assessor's approval.

(e) The assessor shall cumulate all the separate assessments in a mobilehome park and enter the total assessment on the secured roll in the name of the entity which owns the park. The assessor shall notify each owner of a portion of the real property of the park subject to separate assessment under this section of the amount of an increased assessment pursuant to Section 619.

(f) The tax on the total assessment of the mobilehome park shall be a lien on the real property of the park and shall be subject to all provisions of law applicable to taxes on the secured roll.

(g) The tax collector shall send a single tax bill, with an itemized breakdown detailing the taxes and the allocated portion of any fee imposed pursuant to subdivision (i) applicable to each separate assessment, to the entity owning the mobilehome park.

(h) The assessor shall provide to owners of voting stock or other ownership or membership interest in a mobilehome park entity subject to subdivision (c) of Section 62.1, and to the governing board of the park, at that time and in that manner as the assessor deems appropriate, adequate notice of the provisions of this section and other pertinent information relative to the implementation thereof.

(i) The county may charge a fee for processing the application for separate assessment, and for the initial and ongoing costs of separate assessment and implementing subdivision (g), not to exceed actual costs. This fee shall be subject to Chapter 12.5 (commencing with Section 54985) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, and shall be allocated to each owner of a share of voting stock or other ownership or membership interest for which a separate assessment has been made. The fee may be collected commencing with the initial separate tax bills, and on subsequent tax bills, and shall be deposited in the county's general fund.

(j) The governing board of the entity which owns the mobilehome park shall collect the allocated portion of any fee charged pursuant to subdivision (i) and any itemized taxes applicable to a separate assessment from the owner of the voting stock or other ownership or membership interest whose acquisition of the interest resulted in the separate assessment. The fees and taxes resulting from separate assessment shall be deducted from the proportional cost of the fees and taxes collected from the remaining owners or members.

SEC. 7. Section 2191.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2191.3. (a) The tax collector may make the filing specified in subdivision (b) where either of the following occurs:

(1) There is a tax on a possessory interest secured only by a lien on that taxed possessory interest, or on goods in transit, not secured by any lien on real property, improvement that have been assessed pursuant to Section 2188.2, off-roll taxes on escape assessments where the error was not the fault of the assessee and the escape taxes are being paid pursuant to the provisions of Section 4837.5, or on unsecured property not secured by a lien on any real property, and where the tax has become delinquent, or on unsecured property not secured by a lien on any real property, and the tax has become delinquent.

(2) A tax has been entered on the unsecured roll pursuant to Section 482, 531.2, or 4836.5, or transferred to the unsecured roll pursuant to any provision of law.

(b) A filing for record without fee in the office of the county recorder of any county of a certificate specifying the amount due, the name, federal social security number, if known, and last known address of the assessee liable for the amount, and comp iance with all provisions of this division with respect to the computation and levy of the tax if compliance has in fact occurred. The procedure authorized by this section is cumulative to the procedure provided by Sections 2951 and 3003.

SEC. 8. Section 2503.1 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

2503.1. As used in this chapter, "electronic fund transfer" means any transfer of funds, other than a transaction originated by check, draft, or similar paper instrument, which is initiated through an electronic terminal, telephonic instrument, or computer or magnetic tape so as to order, instruct, or authorize a financial institution to credit or debit an account.

SEC. 8.3. Section 2503.2 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

2503.2. (a) The tax collector or treasurer for any city, county, or city and county may, in his or her discretion, accept electronic fund transfers in payment of any tax or assessment, or on a redemption. An electronic fund transfer pursuant to this section shall be made to the county's bank account designated by the tax collector.

(b) Any costs incurred by the tax collector as a result of the acceptance of electronic fund transfers pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be considered administrative costs of tax collection, except that if for any reason the electronic fund transfer is not completed, those costs shall be recovered as provided in subdivision (e).

(c) The acceptance of an electronic fund transfer shall constitute payment of a tax, assessment, or redemption as of the date of acceptance when, but not before, the transfer has been completed. An electronic fund transfer is completed by acceptance by the bank designated by the tax collector of the payment specified by the originator's payment order.

(d) If an electronic fund transfer is not accepted for any reason, any record of payment entered on any official record indicating the acceptance of that transfer shall be canceled, and the tax or assessment shall be a lien as if no payment has been attempted. When a cancellation of a record of payment is made, the canceling officer shall record the cancellation on the record which contained the notation of payment, and shall immediately cause a written notice of cancellation to be sent to the person attempting the electronic fund transfer.

(e) Upon notice of nonacceptance of an electronic fund transfer, the tax collector may charge the person who attempted the electronic fund transfer a fee not to exceed the costs of processing the transfer, providing notice of nonacceptance to that person, and making required cancellations on the tax roll. The amount of the fee shall be set by the board of supervisors pursuant to Section 54986 of the Government Code, and may be added to the tax bill and collected in the same manner as costs recovered pursuant to Section 2621.

SEC. 8.5. Section 2505 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2505. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the tax collector or treasurer for any city or county may in his or her discretion accept negotiable paper in payment of any tax, or assessment, or on a redemption.

(b) The tax collector of a county shall accept a certificate of eligibility to pay all or any part of any ad valorem property tax, special assessment, or other charge or user fee appearing on the county tax bill. The tax collector, treasurer, or other official charged with the duty of collecting taxes for a chartered city which levies and collects its own property taxes shall accept a certificate of eligibility to pay all or any part of any ad valorem property tax, special assessment, or other charge or user fee appearing on the tax bill of such city. A certificate for partial payment shall not be accepted unless accompanied by an amount sufficient to fully pay the remaining ad valorem property taxes, special assessment, or other charge or fee appearing on the respective tax bill installment.

(c) Except as provided in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 20581), Chapter 3.3 (commencing with Section 20639), Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 20640), or Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 20641) of Part 10.5 of Division 2, a certificate of eligibility shall not be used to pay any delinquent taxes, assessments, penalties, costs, fees, or interest, or any redemption charges.

(d) For the 1978–79 fiscal year and thereafter, except as to those amounts which can be paid by a certificate pursuant to subdivision (c), the tax collector shall not accept a certificate of eligibility to pay all or part of any installment if tendered after the delinquency date thereof, unless accompanied by an amount sufficient to fully pay any delinquent taxes, assessments, costs, penalties, interest, fees or other charges resulting from the delinquency or delinquencies.

(e) In no event shall a certificate of eligibility be accepted later than the expiration date designated thereon.

SEC. 9. Section 2617 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2617. All taxes due November 1, if unpaid, are delinquent at 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on December 10, and thereafter a delinquent penalty of 10 percent attaches to them.

SEC. 10. Section 2618 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2618. The second half of taxes on real property, if unpaid, is delinquent at 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on April 10, and thereafter a delinquent penalty of 10 percent attaches to it.

SEC. 11. Section 2619 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2619. If December 10 or April 10 falls on Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday, the time of delinquency is at 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on the next business day.

SEC. 12. Section 2704 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2704. All taxes due November 1, if unpaid, are delinquent at 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on December 10, and thereafter a delinquent penalty of 10 percent attaches to them.

SEC. 13. Section 2705 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2705. The second half of taxes on the secured roll, if unpaid, is delinquent at 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on April 10, and thereafter a delinquent penalty of 10 percent attaches to it.

SEC. 14. Section 2705.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2705.5. If December 10 or April 10 falls on Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday, the time of delinquency is at 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on the next business day.

SEC. 15. Section 2759 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2759. The first installment of one-fourth of the taxes on real and personal property on the secured roll, if not paid, is delinquent at 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on October 10, and thereafter a delinquent penalty of 10 percent attaches to it.

SEC. 16. Section 2760 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2760. The second installment of one-fourth of the taxes on real and personal property on the secured roll, if not paid, is delinquent at 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on January 10, and thereafter a delinquent penalty of 10 percent attaches to it.

SEC. 17. Section 2761 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2761. The third installment of one-fourth of the taxes on real and personal property on the secured roll, if not paid, is delinquent at 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on March 10, and thereafter a delinquent penalty of 10 percent attaches to it.

SEC. 18. Section 2762 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2762. The fourth installment of one-fourth of the taxes on real and personal property on the secured roll, if not paid, is delinquent at 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on May 10, and thereafter a delinquent penalty of 10 percent attaches to it.

SEC. 19. Section 2763 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2763. If October 10, January 10, March 10 or May 10 falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, the time of delinquency is at 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on the next business day.

SEC. 20. Section 2768 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2768. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 2756, 2759 and 2763, the board of supervisors of any county which has adopted a resolution pursuant to this chapter may by resolution provide that taxes on the secured roll are due and payable October 1, and the first installment shall be delinquent at the close of business on October 25. Thereafter, a delinquent penalty of 10 percent attaches to the installment. If October 25 falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the time of delinquency is at 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on the next business day.

A resolution adopted pursuant to this section shall provide that the auditor shall have to and including October 1 in which to deliver the secured roll to the tax collector as required by Section 2754.

SEC. 21. Section 2821 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2821. Any person filing an affidavit of interest may apply to the tax collector to have any parcel separately valued on the current roll for the purpose of paying taxes. A county may, upon approval of the board of supervisors, require that the applicant notify the property owner.

The application shall be made during the current fiscal year, and shall set forth the fact that a duly executed and recorded deed, purchase contract, deed of trust, mortgage, or final decree of court describes the parcel sought to be separately valued. A county may, upon approval of the board of supervisors, prohibit these applications during the 10 working days preceding each tax installment delinquency date and during the 10 working days preceding June 30 of each year.

The application may request that the tax created by the assessment of personal property, or leasehold improvements, or possessory interests on the whole assessment be allowed to remain as a lien on the parcel sought to be separately valued.

If any lien not determined by the application of a tax rate on a valuation of property has been levied or placed on the whole assessment, the application may be accompanied by the certification of the taxing agency or revenue district authorized by law to levy or place the lien, setting forth the specific amount of that portion of the lien levied or placed on the whole assessment which is to continue to be levied or placed on the parcel sought to be separately valued.

The board of supervisors may provide that a parcel with a lien against it and other property, pursuant to the Improvement Act of 1911 (Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Streets and Highways Code) or the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 (Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code) will not be separately valued unless a request has been made to the agency levying the bond lien for a division of land and bond. A copy of the requested division of land and bond shall accompany the request for separate property tax valuation.

Any separations of property pursuant to this section are for valuing property for tax purposes only, and are not intended to create a legal building site or to supersede requirements pursuant to zoning, building, lot split or subdivision ordinances.

Once created, an individual interest parcel may be entered as a separate assessment on subsequent assessment rolls until the time that ownership of the interest is conveyed or until the original applicant or his or her agent requests that the parcel be recombined.

Upon authorization by ordinance by the board of supervisors, the county may charge a fee for actual costs incurred for the processing of an application for separate assessment, and the initial and ongoing costs of separate assessment, billings, and mailings. Fees shall be subject to Chapter 12.5 (commencing with Section 54985) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, and may be billed separately or prior to initial separate tax bills, or both, or collected on subsequent tax bills, and shall be deposited in the county's general fund.

SEC. 22. Section 2922 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2922. (a) Taxes on the unsecured roll as of July 31, if unpaid, are delinquent at 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on August 31 and thereafter subject to a delinquent penalty of 10 percent.

(b) Taxes added to the unsecured roll after July 31, if unpaid are delinquent and subject to a penalty of 10 percent at at 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on the last day of the month succeeding the month of enrollment.

(c) Taxes transferred to the unsecured roll pursuant to any provision of law and already subject to penalties also transferred, shall be subject only to the additional penalties and costs prescribed in subdivisions (d) and (e), which shall attach beginning July 1 and on the first day of each month thereafter.

(d) Unsecured taxes remaining unpaid at 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on the last day of the second month after the 10-percent penalty attaches shall be subject to an additional penalty of 1½ percent attaching on the first day of each succeeding month on the amount of the original tax. The additional penalties shall continue to attach until the time of payment or until the time a court judgment is entered for the amount of unpaid taxes and penalties, whichever occurs first.

(e) In addition to the penalties imposed by this section, the tax collector may collect actual costs of collection incurred by the county up to the time the delinquency is paid.

(f) When the last day of a month falls on Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday, any penalty to which the tax becomes subject on that date shall not attach if the tax collector receives payment in full by 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on the next business day.

SEC. 23. Section 2922.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2922.5. Notwithstanding Section 2922, with respect to taxes on the unsecured roll where an application for reduction in assessment has been filed pursuant to Section 1607 and the board reduces the assessment in dispute, Section 4985 shall apply.

If a taxpayer does not pay by the delinquency date established by Section 2922 and indicated on the unsecured assessment roll, interest at the rate of 1 percent per month on the unpaid tax shall be charged from that date to the date of correction. Taxes unpaid by 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on the date established by Section 4985 are delinquent and thereafter a delinquent penalty of 10 percent attaches to them.

If taxes are not paid by 5 p.m., or the close of business, whichever is later, on the last day of the second succeeding month after the 10-percent penalty attaches, an additional penalty of 1½ percent attaches to them on the first day of each month thereafter until the time of payment or until the time a court judgment is entered for the amount of the unpaid taxes and penalties, whichever occurs first.

This section is not applicable to assessments made pursuant to Section 501, or to assessments made pursuant to Section 531.2 where the escape is the result of an act or omission of the assessee and to assessments made pursuant to Sections 531.3, 531.4, and 531.5.

SEC. 24. Section 2963 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2963. Property shall not be seized and sold for taxes on the unsecured roll after three years from the date taxes due become delinquent. The limitation period shall be tolled for any period during which collection actions are prohibited by bankruptcy laws or rules, or by court order.

SEC. 25. Section 3007 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

3007. Civil actions for delinquent taxes or assessments pursuant to Section 3003 shall be commenced within three years of the date upon which unsecured taxes became delinquent. The limitation period of this section shall be tolled for any and all periods during which a civil action described by this section is prohibited by federal bankruptcy laws or rules, or by a court order.

SEC. 26. Section 3101 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3101. If any unsecured tax, interest, or penalty imposed under this part is not paid by the last day of the month succeeding the delinquency date, the official collecting taxes on the unsecured roll may file, no sooner than 10 days after the mailing of the notice required in subdivision (b), in the office of the county clerk, without fee, a certificate specifying as follows:

(a) The fact that a notice of intent to file the certificate had been sent, by registered mail, to the assessee, at his or her last known address, not less than 10 days prior to the date of the certificate.

(b) The fact that the notice required in subdivision (a) set forth the following information:

(1) The name of the assessee.

(2) The description of the property assessed.

(3) The assessed value of the property.

(4) The fact that judgment will be sought in the amount of the tax, penalty, and interest that is unpaid at the time of the filing of the certificate.

(5) The fact that, upon the issuance and recordation of that judgment, additional penalties will continue to accrue at the rate prescribed by law, and that any bond premium posted or other costs to enforce the judgment shall be an added charge.

(6) The fact that a recording fee in the amount set forth in Section 27361.3 of the Government Code will be required to be paid for the purpose of the recordation of any satisfaction of the judgment lien.

(c) The name of the assessee.

(d) The amount for which judgment is to be entered.

(e) The fact that the county has complied with all provisions of this part in the computation and the levy of the tax, penalty, and interest.

(f) The fact that a request is therein made for the issuance and entry of judgment against the assessee.

SEC. 27. Section 3103 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3103. An abstract or a copy of the judgment with respect to unsecured taxes shall be recorded, without fee, in the office of the county recorder of any county. From the time of the recording, the amount of the tax, penalty, and interest set forth constitutes a lien upon all property of the assessee in the county, owned by him or her or afterward, and before the lien expires, acquired by him or her. The lien has the force, effect, and priority of a judgment lien and continues for 10 years from the date of the recording unless sooner released or otherwise discharged. The lien imposed by this section shall not be valid insofar as personal property is concerned as against a purchaser for value without actual knowledge of the lien.

SEC. 28. Section 3107 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3107. (a) The judgment is satisfied and the lien removed when, but not before, the satisfaction of the judgment is recorded in the office of the county recorder. In addition to the judgment amount, and any additional penalty authorized by this part, the tax collector may collect the recording fee in the amount required by Section 27361.3 of the Government Code and transmit the amount of that fee to the county recorder together with the documents for release or discharge.

(b) The judgment is also satisfied and the lien removed when, but not before the tax is legally canceled and a satisfaction of judgment lien is recorded in the office of the county recorder. A recording under this subdivision shall be made without fee.

SEC. 29. Section 3351 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3351. Annually, on or before June 8, the tax collector shall publish a notice of impending default for failure to pay taxes on real property, except tax-defaulted property and possessory interests, the taxes, assessments, penalties, and costs on which will have not been fully paid by the close of business on the last business day of the fiscal year.

SEC. 30. Section 3362 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3362. The published notice shall show:

(a) The date of the notice.

(b) That on July 1, five years or more will have elapsed since the property became tax defaulted.

(c) That, unless sooner redeemed or an installment plan of redemption is initiated, the property will be sold.

(d) That the power to sell for nonpayment of taxes arises if the property remains tax defaulted at 8 a.m. on July 1.

(e) That if the property is sold for nonpayment of taxes the right of redemption will terminate.

(f) The official who will furnish all information concerning redemption.

(g) The fiscal year for which the defaulted taxes were levied.

(h) A description of the property. The assessments contained in this notice shall be numbered in ascending numerical order.

(i) The amount of taxes originally declared in default opposite the description of the property.

(j) The name of the assessee on the current roll.

(k) The street address of the property, if any, shown on the county assessment records.

SEC. 31. Section 3365 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3365. After the first publication of the notice and not less than 21 days nor more than 35 days before July 1, the tax collector shall send by registered mail to the last assessee of the tax-defaulted property at his or her last known address a notice of default and power to sell the property for nonpayment of taxes. The tax collector shall make a reasonable effort to ascertain the address of the last assessee of the tax-defaulted property, including, but not limited to, an examination of the assessment of this property on the rolls beginning with the year of delinquency to and including that of the last equalized roll, an examination of the most recent telephone books in the county in which the tax-defaulted property is located, and an examination of the telephone book covering the area of the last known address of the last assessee.

Any failure of the tax collector to make a reasonable effort to ascertain the address of the last assessee as required by this section shall not affect the validity of any subsequent sale to satisfy the lien of unpaid taxes.

SEC. 32. Section 4217 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4217. Any person may elect to pay delinquent taxes in installments under this article at any time prior to 5 p.m. on June 30 of the fifth year after the property became tax defaulted, except that if payment of delinquent taxes in installments is started under this article and the amount required to be paid in any fiscal year is not paid as required by this article, payments on property which, but for the installment redemption plan, would have been subject to a power of sale pursuant to Section 3691 during the calendar year in which default on the redemption plan occurs may not again be started under this article. All other payments may be started on or after July 1 of the fiscal year commencing after the fiscal year in which default occurred.

Persons electing to pay delinquent taxes in installments may be subject to a fee for processing their request.

The fee for payment of delinquent taxes in installments to the tax collector may be established by ordinance by the board of supervisors. The fee shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 12.5 (commencing with Section 54985) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code and may be collected on the tax bill.

SEC. 33. Section 4377 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4377. Any delinquent tax roll and original secured roll on which it is based containing the information set forth in the abstract list may be destroyed by the county officer or officers in possession of the rolls if (a) the destruction, in all cases, has first been approved by order of the board of supervisors of the county, (b) the abstract list has first been certified as correct and complete by the county auditor, and (c) a certified, permanent record on a substitute media has been prepared in accordance with Section 26205 of the Government Code and the substitute media will be retained for at least 12 years from the date of the creation of the original document. The substitute media may also be destroyed following the expiration of the 12-year retention period.

The abstract list prepared under Section 4373, or any photographic record thereof, shall be retained by the tax collector for at least two years after the time the lien has been removed.

SEC. 34. Section 4673.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4673.1. After satisfaction of the amount specified in Sections 4672, 4672.1, and 4673, the proceeds shall be distributed as follows:

(a) An amount of the proceeds up to but no greater than the amount required, at the time of sale, to redeem the property from tax default and the sale to any taxing agency entitled to share in the proceeds shall be distributed as follows:

(1) A pro rata share shall be distributed to each assessment fund in an amount bearing the same proportion as the assessment due each fund bears to the total amount of taxes and assessments necessary to redeem the property at the time of sale.

(2) The remaining balance of the proceeds to be distributed under this section shall be distributed to each tax fund in an amount bearing the same proportion to the balance remaining as the tax rate for each fund bears to the total tax rate applicable to the property for the fiscal year preceding that in which the property was sold.

(b) After satisfaction of the amounts specified in subdivision (a), an amount of the proceeds necessary to satisfy current taxes and assessments and applicable penalties and costs thereon for the fiscal year in which the tax sale is held shall be distributed as provided in Chapter 1a (commencing with Section 4653) of this part. Current taxes and assessments referred to herein include taxes and assessments which would have been levied on the property if the property were not tax-deeded to any taxing agency and remains subject to sale by, or redemption from, the taxing agency.

SEC. 35. Section 4831 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4831. (a) Any error resulting in incorrect entries on the roll may be corrected under this article. The correction may be made at any time after the roll is delivered to the auditor but shall be made within four years after the making of the assessment which is being corrected. This section does not apply to either of the following:

(1) Errors involving the exercise of value judgments.

(2) Escape assessments caused by the assessee's failure to report the information required by Article 2 (commencing with Section 441) of Chapter 3 of Part 2.

If any error referred to in this subdivision is discovered as the result of an audit of a taxpayer's books and records, that error may be corrected at any time prior to the expiration of six months after the completion of the audit.

(b) Taxes which are not a lien or charge on the property assessed may be transferred from the secured roll to the unsecured roll of the corresponding year by the county auditor. These taxes shall be collected in the same manner as other delinquent taxes on the unsecured roll and shall be subject to delinquent penalties in the same manner as taxes transferred to the unsecured roll under Section 5090. The statute of limitations for the collection of those taxes shall commence to run from the date of transfer.

SEC. 36. Section 4832.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4832.1. If the amount of any tax or special assessment is understated on the roll by five dollars ($5) or less due to clerical error of the auditor, the amount by which such tax or special assessment is understated may be canceled by the auditor. After cancellation by the auditor, the amount appearing on the roll shall in each instance be deemed the correct amount of that tax or special assessment for all purposes and upon payment of that amount the tax collector shall show the tax or special assessment as paid in full. The auditor need not note the cancellation on the roll. Whenever a portion of the rate of any tax or special assessment is canceled in the manner provided by this section, written consent of any city attorney shall not be required.

SEC. 37. Section 4834 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4834. Corrections authorized under this article shall be made by the auditor.

SEC. 38. Section 4834.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4834.5. Clerical errors on the delinquent roll may be corrected by the tax collector at any time before the county has disposed of the property. This section shall be construed as an additional procedure to that set forth in Sections 4946 to 4948, inclusive.

SEC. 39. Section 4836.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4836.5. In the event any correction authorized under this article has the effect of increasing the assessment, the auditor shall apply a tax rate to that increase at whatever tax rate was in existence in the year in which the error was made and shall apply the assessment ratio that was in existence in the year in which the error was made. All increased amounts of taxes shall be entered on the roll prepared or being prepared for the current assessment year and shall thereafter be treated and collected like other taxes on the roll. However, if the correction affects taxes on the secured roll for any year and subsequent to the entry of the original assessment but prior to the date of the correction the real property on which the taxes constitute a lien has been transferred or conveyed to a bona fide purchaser for value or becomes subject to a bona fide encumbrance for value, the increased amount of taxes shall not create, impose or constitute a lien on the real property and shall be entered on the unsecured roll in the name of the assessee at the time the error was made and shall thereafter be treated and collected like other taxes on the roll.

The entry on the unsecured roll shall be followed with "Correction to account or Parcel Number _____ for the 19__-__ assessment year pursuant to Section(s) _____ of the Revenue and Taxation Code." The foregoing entry may be made on a document separate from the roll if reference is made on the roll to the document wherein the entry is made.

SEC. 40. Section 4837.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4837.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, taxes due, whether secured or unsecured, on escape assessments for prior fiscal years, where the error causing the escape assessment was not that of the assessee, or taxes due because of the correction of any assessor's error for prior fiscal years under this article, where that error was made without fault on the part of the assessee, may be paid over a four-year period at the option of the assessee if: (1) the additional tax is over five hundred dollars ($500), and (2) a written request for installment payment is filed by the assessee with the tax collector prior to the time the second installment of taxes on the secured roll becomes delinquent, or by the last day of the month following the month in which the tax bill is mailed, whichever is later. The tax collector shall include with the property tax bill a notice of the payment provisions of this section. For unsecured taxes, the written request for installment payment shall be filed with the tax collector prior to the date on which those taxes become delinquent.

If payment by installments is requested, 20 percent or more of the tax shall be paid no later than the deadline for filing the written request. The current taxes and prior year taxes with penalties and costs thereon shall be paid with or prior to the initial installment payment. In each succeeding fiscal year, the assessee shall pay, before the delinquency date of the second installment of current taxes on the secured roll, all current year taxes, and a sum at least sufficient to reduce the outstanding balance of the tax by 20 percent of the original amount. In the case of unsecured taxes, the required annual installment shall be paid on or before August 31.

No penalties shall be charged so long as installment payments are made timely; and, in the case of secured taxes, so long as all payments are made timely, an affidavit regarding the property shall not be published pursuant to Section 3371.

If any installment is not paid timely, or if the property on the secured roll becomes tax defaulted, or if the property changes ownership, or if taxes for the property on the unsecured roll are not paid before becoming delinquent, the balance of the tax remaining to be paid shall immediately become due and payable, and no further installment payments for that escape assessment or correction shall be authorized. The tax collector shall inform the auditor of the defaulted, off-roll installment plan and of the delinquent amount remaining unpaid.

The auditor shall add the unpaid balance, plus penalties and costs thereon, to the current roll, adjust the tax collector's charge accordingly, and the remaining balance of the tax shall become subject to all of the provisions of this division applicable to delinquent taxes.

The tax collector shall maintain records listing the current status of all the installment accounts authorized under this section. The status of each installment account shall be entered on the current roll and the tax collector may file for record with the county recorder a certificate pursuant to Section 2191.3.

When the installment account is paid in full before 5 p.m. on June 30 of the year in which the account has become defaulted and the tax collector has filed for record a certificate of lien, the tax collector shall also file for record a release of that lien. Where the account is not paid in full until after June 30 of the year in which the account became defaulted, the filings of the certificates of lien and release of lien shall be subject to recording fees charged to the taxpayer.

SEC. 41. Section 4840 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4840. On receipt of satisfactory, verified, written evidence that taxes have been entered on the secured roll as a lien on real property on which they are not legally a lien, the assessor shall transmit the evidence and his or her cancellation to the auditor. On direction of the board of supervisors, the auditor shall cancel the entry as a lien on that real property and reenter such taxes as follows:

(a) If the assessee has real property sufficient, in the assessor's opinion, to secure the payment of the taxes, as a lien on real property.

(b) Where there is not sufficient real property to secure the taxes:

(1) If it is state-assessed property, on the secured roll.

(2) In all other cases, on the unsecured roll.

SEC. 42. Section 4985 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4985. Any delinquent penalty, cost, redemption penalty, interest, or redemption fee, heretofore or hereafter attached, shall upon satisfactory proof submitted by the tax collector, the auditor, or the assessor, be canceled by the auditor upon a showing that the delinquent penalty, cost, redemption penalty, interest, or redemption fee has attached because of an error of the tax collector, the auditor, or the assessor, or because of their inability to complete valid procedures initiated prior to the delinquency date, and upon the further showing that payment of the corrected or additional amount was made within 30 days from the date that the correction was entered on the roll or abstract record.

SEC. 43. Section 4985.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4985.2. Any penalty, costs, or other charges resulting from tax delinquency may be canceled by the auditor or the tax collector upon a finding of any of the following:

(a) Failure to make a timely payment is due to reasonable cause and circumstances beyond the taxpayer's control, and occurred notwithstanding the exercise of ordinary care in the absence of willful neglect, provided the principal payment for the proper amount of the tax due is made no later than June 30 of the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the tax became delinquent.

(b) There was an inadvertent error in the amount of payment made by the taxpayer, provided the principal payment for the proper amount of the tax due is made within 10 days after the notice of shortage is mailed by the tax collector.

(c) The cancellation was ordered by a local, state, or federal court.

SEC. 44. Section 4986 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4986. (a) All or any portion of any tax, penalty, or costs, heretofore or hereafter levied, shall, on satisfactory proof, be canceled by the auditor if it was levied or charged:

(1) More than once.

(2) Erroneously or illegally.

(3) On the canceled portion of an assessment that has been decreased pursuant to a correction authorized by Article 2 (commencing with Section 4876) of Chapter 2.

(4) On property which did not exist on the lien date.

(5) On property annexed after the lien date by the public entity owning it.

(6) On property acquired by the United States, the state, or by any county, city, school district or other public entity, to the extent provided in Article 5 (commencing with Section 5081).

(7) On that portion of an assessment in excess of the value of the property as determined by the assessor pursuant to Section 469.

(b) No cancellation under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall be made in respect of all or any portion of any tax, or penalties or costs attached thereto, collectible by county officers on behalf of a city without the written consent of the city attorney or other officer designated by the city council unless the city council has authorized the cancellation by county officers. The resolution shall remain effective until rescinded by the city council.

SEC. 45. Section 4986.8 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4986.8. (a) On recommendation of the tax collector, the auditor may cancel any tax assessment, special district tax, or special assessment if the amount is so small as not to justify the cost of collection.

(b) The total amount which may be canceled pursuant to this section shall not exceed twenty dollars ($20) per parcel.

(c) Any penalties, costs, or fees that are the result of nonpayment of any tax which is canceled pursuant to this section may also be canceled.

SEC. 46. Section 5089 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

5089. The board of supervisors of a county may prescribe that, where the amount of unpaid taxes, penalties, and costs to be transferred to the unsecured roll pursuant to this article is less than twenty dollars ($20) with respect to a given fiscal year, the unpaid taxes, penalties, and costs shall be canceled rather than transferred to the unsecured roll.

SEC. 47. Section 5096 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

5096. Any taxes paid before or after delinquency shall be refunded if they were:

(a) Paid more than once.

(b) Erroneously or illegally collected.

(c) Illegally assessed or levied.

(d) Paid on an assessment in excess of the ratio of assessed value to the full value of the property as provided in Section 401 by reason of the assessor's clerical error or excessive or improper assessments attributable to erroneous property information supplied by assessee.

(e) Paid on an assessment of improvements when the improvements did not exist on the lien date.

(f) Paid on an assessment in excess of the equalized value of the property as determined pursuant to Section 1613 by the county board of equalization.

(g) Paid on an assessment in excess of the value of the property as determined by the assessor pursuant to Section 469.

SEC. 48. Section 5096.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

5096.5. Any taxes paid which were not erroneously or illegally collected under the law as it existed at the time of collection, but for which an exemption is provided by a retroactive constitutional amendment, shall be refunded after compliance with the provisions of this article, except that the claim for refund may be filed at any time within four years after the date such amendment became effective, or the date that this section became effective, whichever is later.

SEC. 49. Section 5097.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

5097.2. Notwithstanding Sections 5096 and 5097, any taxes paid before or after delinquency may be refunded by the county tax collector or the county auditor, within four years after the date of payment, if:

(a) Paid more than once.

(b) The amount paid exceeds the amount due on the property as shown on the roll.

(c) The amount paid exceeds the amount due on the property as the result of corrections to the roll or cancellations after those taxes were paid.

(d) In any other case, where the claim for refund is made under penalty of perjury and is for an amount less than ten dollars ($10).

(e) The amount paid exceeds the amount due on the property as the result of a reduction attributable to a hearing before an assessment appeals board or an assessment hearing officer.

CHAPTER 533

An act to authorize, by ordinance, the creation of the Odessa Water District, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Odessa Water District Act.

PART 1. INTRODUCTORY PROVISIONS

CHAPTER 1. LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS

Sec. 101. The Legislature finds and declares that water undersupply problems in the Barstow area require the development of water resources in cooperation with the Mojave Water Agency and that the enactment of this act is necessary for the conservation, development, control, and use of water for the public good, consistent with the Mojave Water Agency's plans, policies, standards, and water management plan criteria, and in compliance with the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985.

CHAPTER 2. DEFINITIONS

Sec. 201. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions of this chapter govern the construction of this act.

Sec. 202. "Odessa Water District" or "district" means the Odessa Water District established under this act.

Sec. 203. "Board of directors" or "board" means the directors designated pursuant to Section 501.

Sec. 204. "Public agency" means any city, county, municipal water district, municipal utility district, public utility district, county water district, or county water authority.

Sec. 205. "County water district" means any county water district incorporated under the County Water District Law (Division 12 (commencing with Section 30000) of the Water Code).

Sec. 206. "City" means the City of Barstow, California.

Sec. 207. "Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985" means Division 3 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 5 of the Government Code.

PART 2. FORMATION

CHAPTER 1. CREATION AND BOUNDARIES

Sec. 401. The district is organized for the purpose of developing, storing, and distributing water to distributors and domestic purveyors in the district for all beneficial purposes in cooperation with the Mojave Water Agency, consistent with that agency's plans, policies, standards, and water management plan criteria, and in compliance with the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985. The water shall augment the existing water supply for distribution within the district.

Sec. 402. The boundaries of the district are the corporate boundaries of the City of Barstow, California. The district may include territory outside these boundaries, as established by this act.

CHAPTER 2. ORDINANCE OF INCORPORATION

Sec. 403. The City Council of the City of Barstow may adopt an ordinance declaring that the public convenience and necessity require the creation of the district. The ordinance shall state that it is proposed to create the district under this act.

CHAPTER 3. FORMATION ELECTION

Sec. 404. Within 120 days after approval by the local agency formation commission, the city clerk shall call and provide for the holding of a special election at which the proposition of the incorporation of the district shall be submitted to the electors residing within the city for ratification or rejection. The election may be held separately or may be consolidated or held concurrently with any other election or elections authorized by law at which the electors residing in the city are entitled to vote.

CHAPTER 4. ESTABLISHMENT OF DISTRICT

Sec. 405. If the vote is in favor of establishment of the district, the city council shall certify to the local agency formation commission that a majority of the electors voting upon the proposition have voted affirmatively.

PART 3. INTERNAL ORGANIZATION

CHAPTER 1. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Sec. 501. The board shall consist of the members of the City Council of the City of Barstow. The board is hereby authorized to adopt reasonable rules and regulations to facilitate the exercise of its powers and duties. If territory is annexed to the district, two additional members residing in the annexed territory shall be elected to the board.

Sec. 502. Each member of the board shall serve without additional compensation, except each member shall be allowed his or her actual, necessary, and reasonable traveling expenses.

Sec. 503. The board shall elect a chairperson annually who shall preside at all meetings of the board and, in case of his or her absence or inability to act, the members present shall, by an order entered in their records, select one of its members to act as chairperson pro tempore.

Sec. 504. A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and no act of the board shall be valid or binding unless a majority of those members of the board present and voting concur in the act.

CHAPTER 2. OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

Sec. 505. The city manager, city clerk, city treasurer, city engineer, city planning director, city attorney, and their assistants, deputies, clerks, and employees shall perform the ex officio duties required by the board to carry out this act and shall perform these duties, unless otherwise provided by the board, without additional compensation.

CHAPTER 3. FUNDS AND ACCOUNTS

Sec. 506. The treasurer may deposit funds of the district in banks in the manner provided by law for the deposit of moneys of a municipality or other public or municipal corporation.

Sec. 507. The board may require and fix the amount of all official bonds necessary for the protection of the funds and property of the district.

CHAPTER 4. SELECTION OF PROJECTS

Sec. 508. The district shall determine which projects or works of improvement shall be carried out and shall determine, as to each project or work of improvement, that it is one of the following:

(a) For the common benefit of the district as a whole.

(b) For the common benefit of participating territories, as added to the district by this act.

Sec. 509. Any project or works of improvement shall be in cooperation with the Mojave Water Agency and shall be consistent with that agency's plans, policies, standards, and water management plan criteria.

Sec. 510. The board shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed project, engineering estimates of the cost of the project, and fixing a time and place for a public hearing relating to the proposed project. Notice of the hearing shall be by publication once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the hearing. The last publication of the notice shall be at least seven days before the hearing in a newspaper of general circulation designated by the board.

PART 4. PURPOSES AND POWERS

CHAPTER 1. POWERS GENERALLY

Sec. 601. The district may exercise powers which are expressly granted by this act, together with powers which are reasonably implied from the act and necessary and proper to carry out the purposes of the district.

Sec. 602. The district shall have perpetual succession. The district shall adopt a corporate seal and may alter the seal at pleasure.

Sec. 603. The district may enter into contracts and employ and retain personal services.

Sec. 604. The district may create, establish, and maintain offices and positions which are necessary and convenient for the transaction of the business of the district.

Sec. 605. The district may appoint and employ officers, attorneys, agents, and employees whom the board determines to be necessary and convenient.

Sec. 606. The district may borrow money and incur indebtedness and issue bonds or other evidence of indebtedness.

CHAPTER 2. WATER

Sec. 608. The district may do all of the following in cooperation with the Mojave Water Agency, consistent with the Mojave Water Agency's plans, policies, standards, and water management plan criteria, and in compliance with the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985:

(a) Acquire water and water rights within or without the state.

(b) Develop, store, and transport water.

(c) Provide, sell, and deliver water for all beneficial purposes.

(d) Fix the rates for water, and the amount of water standby or availability service charge or assessment.

(e) Acquire, construct, operate, and maintain any and all works, facilities, improvements, and property necessary or convenient to the exercise of the powers granted by this act.

Sec. 609. (a) The district may, by contract, provide, sell, and deliver water and water service in cooperation with the Mojave Water Agency, consistent with the Mojave Water Agency's plans, policies, standards, and water management plan criteria, and in compliance with the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985. The contract may be for permanent service, but shall provide for the furnishing of the water or water service upon terms and conditions and at rates which will apportion an equitable share of the capital cost and operating expense of the district's works to the contractee. Every contract shall provide that at the end of three years from the date of its execution, and every three years thereafter, there shall be a readjustment of the contract, upon the demand of either party to the contract, either upward or downward as to rates, as the board may find to be just and reasonable in order to effectuate the equitable apportionment of the capital costs and operating expense.

(b) The district may provide, sell, and deliver water and water service, by a contract not to exceed 25 years, to any private corporation or public agency. Every contract shall provide that agricultural wastewater, brackish groundwater, or other water not suitable for domestic, municipal, or agricultural purposes shall be utilized for powerplant cooling to the extent available, if the water meets reasonable water quality requirements for the powerplant facility. The wastewater or brackish water shall be considered as a replacement of fresh water used for this purpose.

(c) No contract shall be entered into pursuant to this act to provide, sell, and deliver water and water service for use outside the district boundaries within the service area of any agency which has a contract with a state water supply contractor under the State Water Resources Development System without the prior written consent of the state water supply contractor and the Director of Water Resources.

(d) All water contracted for under this section shall be deemed not to be surplus water available for sale pursuant to Section 610.

Sec. 610. The district may provide, sell, and deliver surplus water not needed or required for all beneficial purposes within the district, but shall give preference to uses within the district. The supplying of the surplus water shall in every case be subject to the paramount right of the district to discontinue the supply in whole or in part, and to take and hold or to provide, sell and deliver, the water for all beneficial purposes within the district, upon one year's written notice to the purchaser or user of the surplus water. The notice shall be given by the board if the board determines and declares, by resolution, adopted by a four-fifths vote, that the water is needed or required for all beneficial purposes within the district.

Sec. 611. (a) The board shall fix the rate or rates at which water shall be sold. The rates, in the discretion of the board, may differ with reference to the different sources from which water is obtained by the district.

(b) Prior to either approving an increase in an existing rate or rates or initially imposing a new rate, the board shall hold at least one public meeting at which oral or written presentations may be made. Notice of the time and place of the meeting, including a general explanation of the matter to be considered, and a statement that the information regarding the rates is available, shall be published in a paper of general circulation designated by the board, 14 days prior to the meeting. Notice shall also be mailed at least seven days prior to the meeting to any interested party who files a written request with the clerk of the board for mailed notice of the meeting on new or increased rates. Any written request for such mailed notices shall be valid for one year from the date on which it is filed unless a renewal request is filed. The board may establish a reasonable annual charge for sending those notices based on the estimated cost of providing the service.

(c) At least 10 days prior to the meeting the board shall make available to the public data indicating the rate and information as specified in Section 612.

Sec. 612. (a) The board, so far as practicable, shall fix the rate or rates for water that will result in revenue which, together with revenue from any water standby or availability service charge or assessment, will do all of the following:

(1) Pay the operating expenses of the district.

(2) Provide for repairs and maintenance.

(3) Provide for the payment of the purchase price or other charges for property or services or other rights acquired by the district.

(4) Provide for the payment of the interest and principal of the bonded debt subject to the applicable provisions of this act authorizing the issuance and retirement of bonds.

(b) The rates, subject to the provisions of this chapter, shall be uniform for like classes of service throughout the district.

Sec. 613. The board may, from time to time, impose a water standby or availability charge pursuant to the Uniform Standby Charge Procedures Act (Chapter 12.4, (commencing with Section 54984) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code). The board shall determine the amount of revenue to be raised by the service charge. Factors that may be considered include, but are not limited to, historical water deliveries by the district, projected water service demands by the proposed development or project, contracted demands of the district, service connection capacity, acreage, property parcels, population, and assessed valuation.

CHAPTER 3. PROPERTY

Sec. 614. The district may take by grant, purchase, bequest, devise, or lease, and may hold, enjoy, lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of, any and all real and personal property of any kind within or without the district and within and without the state necessary or convenient to the full exercise of its powers. The district may acquire, construct or operate, control, and use any and all works, facilities and means necessary or convenient to the exercise of its powers, both within and without the district and within and without the state, and may do and perform any and all things necessary or convenient to carry out any powers of the district.

Sec. 615. The district may, within or outside the district within the state, acquire by purchase condemnation, or other legal means all property or rights in property necessary or proper for district works or purposes of the district. Eminent domain proceedings may be brought by the district for these purposes pursuant to Title 7 (commencing with Section 1230.010) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Sec. 616. The district may construct and maintain works and establish and maintain facilities across or along any public street or highway and in, upon, or over any vacant public lands which are the property of the district. The district may construct works and establish and maintain facilities across any stream of water or water course. The district shall promptly restore any street or highway to its former state of usefulness and shall not use the street or highway in a manner which completely or unnecessarily impairs its usefulness.

PART 5. FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

CHAPTER 1. FUNDS AND ACCOUNTS

Sec. 701. Any funds of the district may be deposited in the city treasury subject to disbursement as city funds are disbursed, except that the disbursal shall be pursuant to the provisions of this act, under the direction of the city auditor or other fiscal officer as is appointed by the board.

Sec. 702. The district may establish and maintain any separate funds and accounts as necessary to carry out this act.

Sec. 703. The district may make any transfers, for the purposes of a loan, from one fund to another fund of the district, upon terms and conditions as the board may determine appropriate and to the extent permitted by law.

Sec. 704. The city auditor or other fiscal officer appointed by the board may invest any funds of the district in any security, debenture, bond, or deposit permitted and allowed by law for the investment of funds of a political subdivision of the state.

CHAPTER 2. IMPROVEMENT BONDS

Sec. 705. The district may issue improvement bonds pursuant to the Improvement Act of 1911 (Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Streets and Highways Code), the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 (Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code), the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 (Division 12 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Streets and Highways Code), or the Refunding Assessment Bond Act of 1935 (Chapter 732 of the Statutes of 1935).

CHAPTER 3. SPECIAL BENEFIT BONDS

Sec. 706. The board may determine that a bonded indebtedness should be incurred to pay the cost of any project which will confer a special benefit on the district. The principal and interest on the special benefit bonds shall be paid by revenue derived from an annual benefit assessment levied on the land benefited by the project for which the bonds were issued. Before adopting a resolution issuing special benefit bonds, the board shall adopt a resolution of intention stating the intention to issue the special benefit bonds, the proposed amount of the bonds, the proposed denomination and maximum rate of interest of the bonds, a description of the proposed project for which the bonds shall be issued, and a description of the area to receive a special benefit from the proposed project and in which special benefits shall be levied to pay the principal and interest on the bonds. The resolution shall also state the time and place for a hearing by the board on the proposal, at which time any interested person may appear and be heard.

Sec. 707. Notice of the hearing shall be given by publishing a copy of the resolution of intention in a newspaper of general circulation, designated by the board pursuant to Section 6066 of the Government Code, the first publication to be at least 14 days prior to the time fixed for the hearing. The hearing may be consolidated with a hearing on any other proposal affecting the same area. At the time and place so fixed, or at any time or place to which the hearing is continued, the board shall hold the hearing provided for by the resolution, at which time any interested person may appear and be heard concerning a matter set forth in the resolution or any matter material to the resolution. Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the board may abandon the proposal, or order the election on the proposal within the area affected, unless prior to the conclusion of the hearing, or any continued hearing, written protest against the proposal signed by a majority in number of the eligible voters within the affected area are filed with the board, in which event further proceedings relating to the proposal shall be suspended for not less than six months following the date of the conclusion of the hearing. If there is no majority protest, the board shall not proceed with the proposal before holding an election within the affected area. A majority of the votes cast at the election shall be required to approve the proposal to issue the bonds.

Sec. 709. The board shall, pursuant to the provisions of this act, prescribe by resolution the form of the bonds, which shall include a designation of the district, and of the interest coupons attached to the bonds. The bonds shall be payable annually or semiannually at the discretion of the board each and every year on a day and date at a place or places to be fixed by the board and designated in the bonds, together with interest on all sums unpaid on that date until the whole of the indebtedness shall be paid.

Sec. 710. The board may divide the principal amount of any issue into two or more series and fix different dates for the bonds of each series. The bonds of one series may be made payable at different times from those of another series. The maturity of each series shall comply with this section. The board may fix a date not more than two years from the date of issuance for the earliest maturity of each issue of series.

Sec. 711. The bonds shall be issued in the denomination determined by the board.

Sec. 712. The bonds shall be payable on the date and at the place fixed in the bonds, and at the interest rate specified in the bonds, and shall be made payable annually or semiannually.

Sec. 713. The bonds shall be numbered consecutively and shall be signed by the chairperson of the board and countersigned by the auditor or other fiscal officer of the district, and the seal of the district shall be affixed to the bonds. Either or both signatures may be printed, engraved, or lithographed.

Sec. 714. The interest coupons, if any, of the bonds shall be numbered consecutively and signed by the auditor or other fiscal officer, or the officer's printed, engraved, or lithographed signature.

Sec. 715. The proceeds from the sale of bonds shall be paid into the district treasury to the credit of the project funds, and expended only for the purpose for which the indebtedness was created. In the alternative, the proceeds of the sale of the bonds may be placed in the treasury of the city to the credit of the district, and the proper record of the transaction shall be placed upon the books of the city treasurer, and the bond funds shall be applied exclusively to the purposes mentioned in the resolution calling for the special bond election, subject to the provisions of this act. Payments from bond funds shall be made upon demands prepared, presented, allowed, and audited in the same manner as demands upon the funds of the district. District revenue may be invested in any manner permitted by law for district investments, and any interest earned on the bond proceeds shall be credited to the project fund and expended only for the purpose for which the indebtedness was created.

Sec. 716. Any bonds issued under this chapter, and the interest thereon, shall be paid solely by revenue derived from annual benefit assessments levied as provided in this act.

Sec. 717. Whenever bonds have been authorized by the district, and the proceeds of the sale of the bonds have been expended as authorized, and the board by resolution determines that additional bonds shall be issued for carrying out any of the purposes of this act, the board may proceed as provided in this chapter for the issuance of bonds.

Sec. 718. The board may, by resolution, determine that new bonds should be issued for the purpose of refunding any or all of the bonds outstanding of the district. The procedure shall be the same as the procedure upon an original issue of bonds. The refunding bonds may be issued and sold in the manner and form prescribed for an original issue of bonds, and may, if the holders of bonds of an original issue and the board agree, be exchanged for the original bonds if the face value of the refunding bonds exchanged do not exceed the face value of the original bonds. The board may raise money to pay principal and interest of the refunding bonds in the same manner as prescribed for the payment of bonds of an original issue.

Sec. 719. Any bonds, original or refunding, may be made callable by resolution of the board adopted at, or prior to, the time of issuing the bonds, and providing for the calling and redemption of the bonds, in numerical order, or by lot, on any interest payment date prior to their fixed maturity, at a premium not exceeding 6 percent above the par value of the bonds and accrued interest. If any bonds are so made callable, a statement to that effect shall be set forth on the face of the bond. Notice of any redemption shall be published in the district pursuant to Section 6063 of the Government Code. The first publication of the notice shall be not less than 30 nor more than 90 days prior to the date fixed for the redemption. After the date fixed for the redemption, if the district has provided funds available for payment of the principal and interest of the bonds so called, interest on the bonds shall thereafter cease.

Sec. 720. (a) The bonds shall be sold at a public sale to the lowest bidder, after notice of the sale has been given by publication in the district, pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code, at least one week prior to the sale and after any other notice which the board may determine is proper.

(b) The board shall determine the manner of making, submitting, and opening bids, and conducting the sale, and the terms of the bids. The board may reject any and all bids which in the judgment of the board are not in the best interest of the district. If no bids are received, or if all bids are rejected, the board may either readvertise or sell the bonds at private sale.

Sec. 721. If a proposition for issuing bonds submitted at any election under this chapter fails to receive the requisite number of votes of the eligible voters voting at the election to incur the indebtedness for the purpose specified, the board shall not for six months after the election call or order another election in the same area for incurring indebtedness and issuing bonds under this chapter for the same purposes.

Sec. 722. The interest on the bonds is exempt from taxes as income.

Sec. 723. Any bond issued under this chapter shall be legal investments for all trust funds, and for the funds of all insurance companies, commercial and savings banks, trust companies, and state schools. If any money may by law be invested in bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts, or municipalities in the state, the money may be invested in bonds of the district, issued pursuant to this act. If bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts, or municipalities may by law be used as security for the performance of any act, the bonds of the district may be used as security.

Sec. 724. The repeal or amendment of this act, or the dissolution or change in the boundaries of the district, shall not in any way affect or release any of the land in the district from the district's liability relating to the obligations of any outstanding bonds or indebtedness or contracts for which the land is in any way security, until all bonds and outstanding indebtedness and contracts have been fully paid or discharged.

Sec. 725. This chapter shall apply only to the issuance of special benefit bonds issued pursuant to this chapter.

CHAPTER 4. REVENUE BONDS

Sec. 726. If the board, by resolution, determines that a bonded indebtedness to pay for the acquisition or construction of any project or work for any purposes of the district, or for refunding any outstanding bonds, should be incurred and can be repaid and liquidated as to both principal and interest from revenues designated by the board, the district may define the project or work as an "enterprise" consistent with the definition in Section 54309 of the Government Code, and may issue revenue bonds pursuant to the Revenue Bond Law of 1941 (Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code), and for that purpose the district shall be considered a "local agency," as defined in Section 54307 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 5. SHORT-TERM BORROWING

Sec. 727. The district may borrow money and incur indebtedness in the manner set forth in this chapter by action of the board and without the necessity of calling and holding an election in the district.

Sec. 728. Indebtedness may be incurred pursuant to this chapter for any purpose for which the district is authorized to expend funds.

Sec. 729. Indebtedness incurred under this chapter shall be evidenced by warrants of the district payable not to exceed five years from their date and bearing interest at a rate not to exceed the maximum interest permitted for the sale of bonds of the district.

Sec. 730. The warrants shall be issued by the district after the adoption by a four-fifths vote of all of the members of the board of a resolution setting forth the form of the warrant, the maturity date or dates of the warrant, and the manner of execution of the warrant.

Sec. 731. The board may in its resolution require that the warrant be subject to call and redemption prior to maturity, at the option of the district, at prices fixed in the resolution, not exceeding a premium of 6 percent of the par value of the warrants subject to redemption. The resolution shall fix a method of giving notice of redemption to the holders of warrants to be redeemed and the price at which the warrants shall be subject to redemption. Warrants subject to call and redemption prior to maturity shall contain a recital to that effect on their face.

Sec. 732. The warrants issued shall be offered for public sale upon notice inviting sealed bids. The notice shall be given by publication once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county and the sale shall not be held before 10 days after the publication. The board may reject all bids received on public sale and either readvertise or sell the warrants at private sale. The district may sell the warrants at a price below par value not to exceed 6 percent of the par value.

CHAPTER 6. CITY FUNDING

Sec. 733. For the purpose of supplementing the general operating revenues of the district, upon request made by the board, the city council may grant funds from the city general fund to the district without reimbursement from the district, for use for any purpose of the district for which the city may itself expend funds, including, but not limited to, expenses incurred or estimated to be incurred during the next fiscal year for each of the following:

(a) The formation and administration of the district.

(b) The preparation of a comprehensive water resources and drainage management plan for the district for coordinating and managing the supply and distribution of water for all beneficial uses within the district and for coordinating and managing the control and disposal of drain, flood, and storm water within the district, and the formation of zones within the district for those purposes.

(c) The acquisition, development, distribution, and sale of water to the inhabitants of the district for all beneficial uses, including the acquisition of water rights by purchase or condemnation, and the acquisition, construction, repair, operation, and maintenance of works.

(d) The acquisition, construction, repair, operation, and maintenance of works for control and disposal of drain, storm, and flood water within the district.

(e) Proceeds of assessments may be used to reimburse the city for the actual costs of the services and facilities.

Sec. 734. The district shall keep any city funds in a separate account and, upon demand of the city, demonstrate that expenditures made from the account were used only for the purposes enumerated in this chapter.

CHAPTER 7. MAXIMUM INTEREST AND DISCOUNT RATES

Sec. 735. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a bond or evidence of indebtedness of the district may bear interest at a rate or rates as determined by the board of directors in its discretion, but not to exceed 12 percent per year, unless some higher rate is permitted by law.

Sec. 736. In addition to interest paid on a bond or evidence of indebtedness of the district, the board in its discretion may sell the bond or evidence of indebtedness at less than its par or face value not to exceed 6 percent of the par or face value, unless a higher rate is otherwise permitted by law.

PART 6. MISCELLANEOUS

Sec. 801. The Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985 (Division 3 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 5 of the Government Code) applies to the formation of the district. The district shall be a "district," as that term is defined in the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985.

Sec. 803. (a) Any judicial action or proceeding to attack, review, set aside, void, annul, or challenge the validity or legality of the formation of a zone or improvement district, any contract entered into by the district or improvement district, any bond or evidence of indebtedness of the district or improvement district, or any assessment, rate, or charge of the district or a zone or improvement district shall be commenced within 60 days of the effective date thereof.

(b) Any action or proceeding shall be brought pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 860) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) The district may bring an action pursuant to those provisions to determine the validity of any of the matters referred to in this section.

Sec. 804. Claims for money or damages against the district are governed by Part 3 (commencing with Section 900) of, and Part 4 (commencing with Section 940) of, Division 3.6 of Title 1 of the Government Code. Claims not governed by those parts, or by other statutes, ordinances, or regulations authorized by law and expressly applicable to the claims, shall be prepared and presented to the board.

Sec. 805. This act does not change the authority of the Mojave Water Agency or any other entity. The Mojave Water Agency shall continue to be the water management entity and state water contractor for the district.

SEC. 2. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that this act, which is applicable only to the Odessa Water District, is necessary because of the unique and special water undersupply problems in the area included in the district. It is, therefore, hereby declared that a general law cannot be made applicable to the district and that the enactment of this special law is necessary for the conservation, development, control, and use of that water in cooperation with the Mojave Water Agency, consistent with the Mojave Water Agency's plans, policies, standards, and water management plan criteria, and in compliance with the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985 (Division 3 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 5 of the Government Code) for the public good and for the protection of life and property therein.

CHAPTER 534

An act to add Section 1798.24b to the Civil Code, to amend Sections 4514, 4520, and 5328 of, to add Sections 4514.3 and 5328.06 to, and to add Division 4.7 (commencing with Section 4900) to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to protection and advocacy.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds that persons with developmental disabilities and persons with mental illness are vulnerable to abuse and serious injury and are subject to neglect, including lack of treatment, adequate nutrition, clothing, health care, and adequate discharge planning. The intent of this act is to bring state law into compliance with current federal requirements in relation to the authority of the federally mandated protection and advocacy agency designated in this state by the Governor and to acknowledge the authority of the protection and advocacy agency to investigate incidents of abuse and neglect and to pursue legal, administrative, and other appropriate remedies on behalf of persons with developmental disabilities and persons with mental illness. It is not the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to supplant or replace other protection and advocacy services performed by other entities nor to limit the authority of these entities from carrying out their responsibilities for the protection and advocacy of the rights of persons with mental illness and persons with developmental disabilities. It is not the intent of the Legislature to establish an agency or other entity by the enactment of this act. The Legislature recognizes that this act will need to be amended periodically to reflect subsequent changes in federal law, but also recognizes the immediate need to have state law reflect current federal requirements in relation to the authority of the federally mandated protection and advocacy agency designated in this state.

SEC. 2. Section 1798.24b is added to the Civil Code, to read:

1798.24b. (a) Notwithstanding Section 1798.24, except the last paragraph thereof, information may be disclosed to the protection and advocacy agency designated by the Governor in this state pursuant to federal law to protect and advocate the rights of persons with developmental disabilities and persons with mental illness, as described in Division 4.7 (commencing with Section 4900) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(b) Information that may be disclosed pursuant to this section includes all of the following information:

(1) Name.

(2) Address.

(3) Telephone number.

(4) Any other information necessary to identify that person whose consent is necessary for either of the following purposes:

(A) To enable the protection and advocacy agency to exercise its authority and investigate incidents of abuse or neglect of persons with developmental disabilities or persons with mental illness.

(B) To obtain access to records pursuant to Section 4903 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 3. Section 4514.3 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

4514.3. (a) Notwithstanding Section 4514, information and records may be disclosed to the protection and advocacy agency designated by the Governor in this state to fulfill the requirements and assurances of the federal Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act, contained in Chapter 75 (commencing with Section 6000) of Title 42 of the United States Code, for the protection and advocacy of the rights of persons with developmental disabilities, as defined in Section 6001 (5) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(b) Access to information and records to which subdivision (a) applies shall be in accord with Division 4.7 (commencing with Section 4900).

SEC. 4. Section 4514 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4514. All information and records obtained in the course of providing intake, assessment, and services under Division 4.1 (commencing with Section 4400), Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 4500), Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000), or Division 7 (commencing with Section 7100) to persons with developmental disabilities shall be confidential. Information and records obtained in the course of providing similar services to either voluntary or involuntary recipients prior to 1969 shall also be confidential. Information and records shall be disclosed only in any of the following cases:

(a) In communications between qualified professional persons, whether employed by a regional center or state developmental center, or not, in the provision of intake, assessment, and services or appropriate referrals. The consent of the person with a developmental disability, or his or her guardian or conservator, shall be obtained before information or records may be disclosed by regional center or state developmental center personnel to a professional not employed by the regional center or state developmental center, or a program not vendored by a regional center or state developmental center.

(b) When the person with a developmental disability, who has the capacity to give informed consent, designates individuals to whom information or records may be released, except that nothing in this article shall be construed to compel a physician, psychologist, social worker, marriage, family, and child counselor, nurse, attorney, or other professional to reveal information which has been given to him or her in confidence by a family member of the person unless a valid release has been executed by that family member.

(c) To the extent necessary for a claim, or for a claim or application to be made on behalf of a person with a developmental disability for aid, insurance, government benefit, or medical assistance to which he or she may be entitled.

(d) If the person with a developmental disability is a minor, ward, or conservatee, and his or her parent, guardian, conservator, or limited conservator with access to confidential records, designates, in writing, persons to whom records or information may be disclosed, except that nothing in this article shall be construed to compel a physician, psychologist, social worker, marriage, family, and child counselor, nurse, attorney, or other professional to reveal information which has been given to him or her in confidence by a family member of the person unless a valid release has been executed by that family member.

(e) For research, provided that the Director of Developmental Services designates by regulation rules for the conduct of research and requires the research to be first reviewed by the appropriate institutional review board or boards. These rules shall include, but need not be limited to, the requirement that all researchers shall sign an oath of confidentiality as follows:

"_____
Date

As a condition of doing research concerning persons with developmental disabilities who have received services from _____ (fill in the facility, agency or person), I, _____, agree to obtain the prior informed consent of persons who have received services to the maximum degree possible as determined by the appropriate institutional review board or boards for protection of human subjects reviewing my research, or the person's parent, guardian, or conservator, and I further agree not to divulge any information obtained in the course of the research to unauthorized persons, and not to publish or otherwise make public any information regarding persons who have received services so those persons who received services are identifiable.

I recognize that the unauthorized release of confidential information may make me subject to a civil action under provisions of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

_____ "
Signed

(f) To the courts, as necessary to the administration of justice.

(g) To governmental law enforcement agencies as needed for the protection of federal and state elective constitutional officers and their families.

(h) To the Senate Rules Committee or the Assembly Rules Committee for the purposes of legislative investigation authorized by the committee.

(i) To the courts and designated parties as part of a regional center report or assessment in compliance with a statutory or regulatory requirement, including, but not limited to, Section 1827.5 of the Probate Code, Sections 1370.1 and 1001.22 of the Penal Code, Section 6502 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and Section 56557 of Title 17 of the California Code of Regulations.

(j) To the attorney for the person with a developmental disability in any and all proceedings upon presentation of a release of information signed by the person, except that when the person lacks the capacity to give informed consent, the regional center or state developmental center director or designee, upon satisfying himself or herself of the identity of the attorney, and of the fact that the attorney represents the person, shall release all information and records relating to the person except that nothing in this article shall be construed to compel a physician, psychologist, social worker, marriage, family, and child counselor, nurse, attorney, or other professional to reveal information which has been given to him or her in confidence by a family member of the person unless a valid release has been executed by that family member.

(k) Upon written consent by a person with a developmental disability previously or presently receiving services from a regional center or state developmental center, the director of the regional center or state developmental center, or his or her designee, may release any information, except information which has been given in confidence by members of the family of the person with developmental disabilities, requested by a probation officer charged with the evaluation of the person after his or her conviction of a crime if the regional center or state developmental center director or designee determines that the information is relevant to the evaluation. The consent shall only be operative until sentence is passed on the crime of which the person was convicted. The confidential information released pursuant to this subdivision shall be transmitted to the court separately from the probation report and shall not be placed in the probation report. The confidential information shall remain confidential except for purposes of sentencing. After sentencing, the confidential information shall be sealed.

(l) Between persons who are trained and qualified to serve on "multidisciplinary personnel" teams pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 18951. The information and records sought to be disclosed shall be relevant to the prevention, identification, management, or treatment of an abused child and his or her parents pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 18950) of Part 6 of Division 9.

(m) When a person with a developmental disability dies from any cause, natural or otherwise, while hospitalized in a state developmental center, the State Department of Developmental Services, the physician in charge of the client, or the professional in charge of the facility or his or her designee, shall release information and records to the coroner. The State Department of Developmental Services, the physician in charge of the client, or the professional in charge of the facility or his or her designee, shall not release any notes, summaries, transcripts, tapes, or records of conversations between the resident and health professional personnel of the hospital relating to the personal life of the resident which is not related to the diagnosis and treatment of the resident's physical condition. Any information released to the coroner pursuant to this section shall remain confidential and shall be sealed and shall not be made part of the public record.

(n) To authorized licensing personnel who are employed by, or who are authorized representatives of, the State Department of Health Services, and who are licensed or registered health professionals, and to authorized legal staff or special investigators who are peace officers who are employed by, or who are authorized representatives of, the State Department of Social Services, as necessary to the performance of their duties to inspect, license, and investigate health facilities and community care facilities, and to ensure that the standards of care and services provided in such facilities are adequate and appropriate and to ascertain compliance with the rules and regulations to which the facility is subject. The confidential information shall remain confidential except for purposes of inspection, licensing, or investigation pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, or a criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding in relation thereto. The confidential information may be used by the State Department of Health Services or the State Department of Social Services in a criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding. The confidential information shall be available only to the judge or hearing officer and to the parties to the case. Names which are confidential shall be listed in attachments separate to the general pleadings. The confidential information shall be sealed after the conclusion of the criminal, civil, or administrative hearings, and shall not subsequently be released except in accordance with this subdivision. If the confidential information does not result in a criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, it shall be sealed after the State Department of Health Services or the State Department of Social Services decides that no further action will be taken in the matter of suspected licensing violations. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, confidential information in the possession of the State Department of Health Services or the State Department of Social Services shall not contain the name of the person with a developmental disability.

(o) To any board which licenses and certifies professionals in the fields of mental health and developmental disabilities pursuant to state law, when the Director of Developmental Services has reasonable cause to believe that there has occurred a violation of any provision of law subject to the jurisdiction of a board and the records are relevant to the violation. The information shall be sealed after a decision is reached in the matter of the suspected violation, and shall not subsequently be released except in accordance with this subdivision. Confidential information in the possession of the board shall not contain the name of the person with a developmental disability.

(p) To governmental law enforcement agencies by the director of a regional center or state developmental center, or his or her designee, when (1) the person with a developmental disability has been reported lost or missing; or (2) there is probable cause to believe that a person with a developmental disability has committed, or has been the victim of, murder, manslaughter, mayhem, aggravated mayhem, kidnapping, robbery, assault with the intent to commit a felony, arson, extortion, rape, forcible sodomy, forcible oral copulation, assault or battery, or unlawful possession of a weapon, as provided in Section 12020 of the Penal Code.

This subdivision shall be limited solely to information directly relating to the factual circumstances of the commission of the enumerated offenses and shall not include any information relating to the mental state of the patient or the circumstances of his or her treatment unless relevant to the crime involved.

This subdivision shall not be construed as an exception to, or in any other way affecting, the provisions of Article 7 (commencing with Section 1010) of Chapter 4 of Division 8 of the Evidence Code, or Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 15600) and Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 15750) of Part 3 of Division 9.

(q) To the Youth Authority and Adult Correctional Agency or any component thereof, as necessary to the administration of justice.

(r) To an agency mandated to investigate a report of abuse filed pursuant to either Section 11164 of the Penal Code or Section 15630 of the Welfare and Institutions Code for the purposes of either a mandated or voluntary report or when those agencies request information in the course of conducting their investigation.

(s) When a person with developmental disabilities, or the parent, guardian, or conservator of a person with developmental disabilities who lacks capacity to consent, fails to grant or deny a request by a regional center or state developmental center to release information or records relating to the person with developmental disabilities within a reasonable period of time, the director of the regional or developmental center, or his or her designee, may release information or records on behalf of that person provided both of the following conditions are met:

(1) Release of the information or records is deemed necessary to protect the person's health, safety, or welfare.

(2) The person, or the person's parent, guardian, or conservator, has been advised annually in writing of the policy of the regional center or state developmental center for release of confidential client information or records when the person with developmental disabilities, or the person's parent, guardian, or conservator, fails to respond to a request for release of the information or records within a reasonable period of time. A statement of policy contained in the client's individual program plan shall be deemed to comply with the notice requirement of this paragraph.

SEC. 5. Section 4520 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4520. (a) The Legislature finds that services for persons with developmental disabilities constitute a major expenditure of public funds, that these programs are provided by hundreds of public and private state and local agencies, that the legal, civil, and service rights of persons with developmental disabilities are frequently denied, and that there is no effective method for planning and coordinating the state's resources to assure these rights. Therefore, a State Council on Developmental Disabilities with authority independent of any single state service agency is needed and is hereby created.

(b) Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4520), Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4560), and Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4570), and Division 4.7 (commencing with Section 4900), are intended by the Legislature to secure full compliance with the requirements of the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act of 1975 (Public Law 94-103), as amended and extended, which provides federal funds to assist the state in planning, coordinating, monitoring, and evaluating services for persons with developmental disabilities and in establishing a system to protect and advocate the legal and civil rights of persons with developmental disabilities.

SEC. 6. Section 5328 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5328. All information and records obtained in the course of providing services under Division 4 (commencing with Section 4000), Division 4.1 (commencing with Section 4400), Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 4500), Division 5 (commencing with Section 5000), Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000), or Division 7 (commencing with Section 7100), to either voluntary or involuntary recipients of services shall be confidential. Information and records obtained in the course of providing similar services to either voluntary or involuntary recipients prior to 1969 shall also be confidential. Information and records shall be disclosed only in any of the following cases:

(a) In communications between qualified professional persons in the provision of services or appropriate referrals, or in the course of conservatorship proceedings. The consent of the patient, or his or her guardian or conservator shall be obtained before information or records may be disclosed by a professional person employed by a facility to a professional person not employed by the facility who does not have the medical or psychological responsibility for the patient's care.

(b) When the patient, with the approval of the physician, licensed psychologist, or social worker with a master's degree in social work, who is in charge of the patient, designates persons to whom information or records may be released, except that nothing in this article shall be construed to compel a physician, psychologist, social worker, nurse, attorney, or other professional person to reveal information which has been given to him or her in confidence by members of a patient's family.

(c) To the extent necessary for a recipient to make a claim, or for a claim to be made on behalf of a recipient for aid, insurance, or medical assistance to which he or she may be entitled.

(d) If the recipient of services is a minor, ward, or conservatee, and his or her parent, guardian, guardian ad litem, or conservator designates, in writing, persons to whom records or information may be disclosed, except that nothing in this article shall be construed to compel a physician, psychologist, social worker, nurse, attorney, or other professional person to reveal information which has been given to him or her in confidence by members of a patient's family.

(e) For research, provided that the Director of Mental Health or the Director of Developmental Services designates by regulation, rules for the conduct of research and requires such research to be first reviewed by the appropriate institutional review board or boards. The rules shall include, but need not be limited to, the requirement that all researchers shall sign an oath of confidentiality as follows:

Date

As a condition of doing research concerning persons who have received services from _____ (fill in the facility, agency or person), I, _____, agree to obtain the prior informed consent of such persons who have received services to the maximum degree possible as determined by the appropriate institutional review board or boards for protection of human subjects reviewing my research, and I further agree not to divulge any information obtained in the course of such research to unauthorized persons, and not to publish or otherwise make public any information regarding persons who have received services such that the person who received services is identifiable.

I recognize that the unauthorized release of confidential information may make me subject to a civil action under provisions of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(f) To the courts, as necessary to the administration of justice.

(g) To governmental law enforcement agencies as needed for the protection of federal and state elective constitutional officers and their families.

(h) To the Senate Rules Committee or the Assembly Rules Committee for the purposes of legislative investigation authorized by such committee.

(i) If the recipient of services who applies for life or disability insurance designates in writing the insurer to which records or information may be disclosed.

(j) To the attorney for the patient in any and all proceedings upon presentation of a release of information signed by the patient, except that when the patient is unable to sign such release, the staff of the facility, upon satisfying itself of the identity of the attorney, and of the fact that the attorney does represent the interests of the patient, may release all information and records relating to the patient except that nothing in this article shall be construed to compel a physician, psychologist, social worker, nurse, attorney, or other professional person to reveal information which has been given to him or her in confidence by members of a patient's family.

(k) Upon written agreement by a person previously confined in or otherwise treated by a facility, the professional person in charge of the facility or his or her designee may release any information, except information which has been given in confidence by members of the person's family, requested by a probation officer charged with the evaluation of the person after his or her conviction of a crime if the professional person in charge of the facility determines that such information is relevant to the evaluation. The agreement shall only be operative until sentence is passed on the crime of which the person was convicted. The confidential information released pursuant to this subdivision shall be transmitted to the court separately from the probation report and shall not be placed in the probation report. The confidential information shall remain confidential except for purposes of sentencing. After sentencing, the confidential information shall be sealed.

(l) Between persons who are trained and qualified to serve on "multidisciplinary personnel" teams pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 18951. The information and records sought to be disclosed shall be relevant to the prevention, identification, management, or treatment of an abused child and his or her parents pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 18950) of Part 6 of Division 9.

(m) To county patients' rights advocates who have been given knowing voluntary authorization by a client or a guardian ad litem. The client or guardian ad litem, whoever entered into the agreement, may revoke such authorization at any time, either in writing or by oral declaration to an approved advocate.

(n) To a committee established in compliance with Sections 4070 and 5624.

(o) In providing information as described in Section 7325.5. Nothing in this subdivision shall permit the release of any information other than that described in Section 7325.5.

(p) To the county mental health director or the director's designee, or to a law enforcement officer, or to the person designated by a law enforcement agency, pursuant to Sections 5152.1 and 5250.1.

(q) If the patient gives his or her consent, information specifically pertaining to the existence of genetically handicapping conditions, as defined in Section 341.5 of the Health and Safety Code, may be released to qualified professional persons for purposes of genetic counseling for blood relatives upon request of the blood relative. For purposes of this subdivision, "qualified professional persons" means those persons with the qualifications necessary to carry out the genetic counseling duties under this subdivision as determined by the genetic disease unit established in the State Department of Health Services under Section 309 of the Health and Safety Code. If the patient does not respond or cannot respond to a request for permission to release information pursuant to this subdivision after reasonable attempts have been made over a two-week period to get a response, the information may be released upon request of the blood relative.

(r) When the patient, in the opinion of his or her psychotherapist, presents a serious danger of violence to a reasonably foreseeable victim or victims, then any of the information or records specified in this section may be released to that person or persons and to law enforcement agencies as the psychotherapist determines is needed for the protection of that person or persons. For purposes of this subdivision, "psychotherapist" means anyone so defined within Section 1010 of the Evidence Code.

(s) To persons serving on an interagency case management council established in compliance with Section 5606.6 to the extent necessary to perform its duties. This council shall attempt to obtain the consent of the client. If this consent is not given by the client, the council shall justify in the client's chart why these records are necessary for the work of the council.

The amendment of subdivision (d) enacted at the 1970 Regular Session of the Legislature does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, the preexisting law.

SEC. 7. Division 4.7 (commencing with Section 4900) is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

DIVISION 4.7. PROTECTION AND ADVOCACY AGENCY

CHAPTER 1. DEFINITIONS

4900. (a) The definitions contained in this section shall govern the construction of this division, unless the context requires otherwise.

(b) "Abuse" means any act or failure to act that would constitute abuse as that term is defined in subdivision (g) of Section 15610 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or Section 11165.6 of the Penal Code.

(c) "Developmental disability" means the same as defined in Section 6001(5) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(d) "Facility" or "program" means any facility or program providing care or treatment to persons with developmental disabilities or persons with mental illness. The term includes any facility licensed under Division 2 (commencing with Section 1200) of the Health and Safety Code and any facility that is unlicensed but is not exempt from licensure. The term also includes public or private schools and other institutions or programs providing education, training, habilitation, therapeutic, or residential services to persons with developmental disabilities or persons with mental illness.

(e) "Neglect" means any act or failure to act that would constitute neglect as that term is defined in subdivision (d) of Section 15610 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or Section 11165.2 of the Penal Code.

(f) "Persons with mental illness" means the same as mentally ill individuals, as defined in Section 10802(3) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(g) "Probable cause" to believe that an individual has been subject to abuse or neglect exists when the protection and advocacy agency determines that it is objectively reasonable for a person to entertain such a belief, based upon facts that could cause a reasonable person in a like position, drawing when appropriate upon his or her training and experience, to suspect abuse or neglect.

(h) "Protection and advocacy agency" means the private nonprofit corporation designated by the Governor in this state pursuant to federal law for the protection and advocacy of the rights of the following persons:

(1) Persons with developmental disabilities, as authorized under the federal Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act, as amended, contained in Chapter 75 (commencing with Section 6000) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(2) Persons with mental illness, including mentally ill individuals, as authorized under the federal Protection and Advocacy for Mentally Ill Individuals Act of 1986, as amended, contained in Chapter 114 (commencing with Section 10801) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

4901. (a) The protection and advocacy agency, for purposes of this division, shall be a private nonprofit corporation and shall meet all of the requirements of federal law applicable to protection and advocacy systems, including, but not limited to, the requirement that it establish a grievance procedure for clients or prospective clients of the system to ensure that persons with developmental disabilities and persons with mental illness have full access to services of the system.

(b) State officers and employees, in taking any action relating to the protection and advocacy agency, shall meet the requirements of federal law applicable to protection and advocacy systems.

4902. (a) The protection and advocacy agency, in protecting and advocating the rights of persons who have developmental disabilities and persons with mental illness, pursuant to the federal mandate, may do all of the following:

(1) Investigate any incident of abuse and neglect of persons with developmental disabilities and persons with mental illness if the incident is reported to the protection and advocacy agency or if the protection and advocacy agency determines there is probable cause to believe the incident occurred. This authority shall include reasonable access to the facility and authority to examine all relevant records and interview any facility service recipient, employee, or other person who might have knowledge of the alleged abuse or neglect.

(2) Pursue administrative, legal, and other appropriate remedies or approaches to ensure the protection of the rights of persons with developmental disabilities.

(3) Pursue administrative, legal, and other appropriate remedies or approaches to ensure the protection of the rights of individuals with mental illness who are in facilities providing care and treatment, or who have been discharged from such a facility, with respect to matters that occur within 90 days after discharge.

(4) Provide information and training on, and referral to, programs and services addressing the needs of persons with developmental disabilities and persons with mental illness, including information and training about individual rights and the services available from the protection and advocacy agency.

(b) The protection and advocacy agency shall, in addition, have reasonable access to facilities or programs in the state which provide care and treatment to persons who have developmental disabilities and persons with mental illness, and access to those persons. The protection and advocacy agency shall have reasonable access to facilities, programs, and services, and recipients of services therein, at all times as are necessary to investigate incidents of abuse and neglect in accord with paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), and shall have access during normal working hours and visiting hours for other advocacy services in accord with paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of subdivision (a). In the case of information and training services, access shall be at times mutually agreeable to the protection and advocacy agency and facility management.

4903. (a) The protection and advocacy agency shall have access to the records of any of the following persons with developmental disabilities and persons with mental illness:

(1) Any person who is a client of the agency if that person, or the legal guardian, conservator, or other legal representative of that person, has authorized the protection and advocacy agency to have access to the records and information.

(2) Any person, including any individual who is deceased or cannot be located, to whom all of the following conditions apply:

(A) The individual, due to his or her mental or physical condition, is unable to authorize the protection and advocacy agency to have access to his or her records.

(B) The individual does not have a legal guardian, conservator, or other legal representative, or the individual's representative is a public entity, including the state.

(C) The protection and advocacy agency has received a complaint that the individual has been subject to abuse or neglect, or has determined that probable cause exists to believe that the individual has been subject to abuse or neglect.

(3) Any person who has a legal guardian, conservator, or other legal representative with respect to whom a complaint has been received by the protection and advocacy agency, or with respect to whom the protection and advocacy agency has determined that probable cause exists to believe the health or safety of the individual is in serious and immediate jeopardy, whenever all of the following conditions exist:

(A) The representative has been contacted by the protection and advocacy agency upon receipt of the representative's name and address.

(B) The protection and advocacy agency has offered assistance to the representatives to resolve the situation.

(C) The representative has failed or refused to act on behalf of the person.

(b) Information and records which shall be available to the protection and advocacy agency under this section shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following information and records obtained in the course of providing intake, assessment, and services:

(1) Information and records obtained in the course of providing intake, assessment, and services, including reports prepared by any member of the staff of a facility or program rendering care and treatment.

(2) Reports prepared by an agency charged with investigating reports of incidents of abuse, neglect, or injury occurring at the facility that describe any or all of the following:

(A) Abuse, neglect, or injury occurring at the facility.

(B) The steps taken to investigate the incidents.

(3) Discharge planning records.

(c) The authority of the protection and advocacy agency to have access to records does not supersede any prohibition on discovery specified in Sections 1157 and 1157.6 of the Evidence Code.

(d) Confidential information kept or obtained by the protection and advocacy agency shall remain confidential and shall not be subject to disclosure. This subdivision shall not, however, prevent the protection and advocacy agency from doing any of the following:

(1) Sharing the information with the individual client who is the subject of the record or report or other document, or with his or her legally authorized representative.

(2) Issuing a public report of the results of an investigation which maintains the confidentiality of individual service recipients.

(3) Reporting the results of an investigation to responsible investigative or enforcement agencies should an investigation reveal information concerning the facility, its staff, or employees warranting possible sanctions or corrective action. This information may be reported to agencies that are responsible for facility licensing or accreditation, employee discipline, employee licensing or certification suspension or revocation, or criminal prosecution.

(4) Pursuing alternative remedies, including the initiation of legal action.

4904. (a) The protection and advocacy agency, its employees, and designated agents, shall not be liable for an injury resulting from an employee's or agent's act or omission where the act or omission was the result of the exercise, in good faith, of the discretion vested in him or her.

(b) The protection and advocacy agency, its employees, and designated agents, shall not be liable for damages awarded under Section 3294 of the Civil Code or other damages imposed primarily for the sake of example and by way of punishing the defendant.

(c) The protection and advocacy agency, its employees, and designated agents, when participating in filing a complaint or providing information pursuant to this division or participating in a judicial proceeding resulting therefrom shall be presumed to be acting in good faith and unless the presumption is rebutted, shall be immune from any liability, civil or criminal, and shall be immune from any penalty, sanction, or restriction that might be incurred or imposed.

4905. (a) No employee or agent of a facility or program shall subject a person with developmental disabilities or a person with mental illness to reprisal or harassment or directly or indirectly take or threaten to take any actions which prevent the person, his or her legally authorized representative, or family member from reporting or otherwise bringing to the attention of the protection and advocacy agency any facts or information relative to suspected abuse, neglect, or other violations of his or her rights.

(b) Any attempt to involuntarily remove from a facility or program, or to deny privileges or rights without good cause to a person with developmental disabilities or person with mental illness by whom or for whom a complaint has been made to the protection and advocacy agency within 60 days after the date the complaint is made or within 60 days after the conclusion of any proceeding resulting from the complaint shall raise a presumption that the action was taken in retaliation for the filing of the complaint.

SEC. 5. Section 5328.06 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5328.06. (a) Notwithstanding Section 5328, information and records may be disclosed to the protection and advocacy agency established in this state to fulfill the requirements and assurances of the federal Protection and Advocacy for the Mentally Ill Individuals Act of 1986, as amended, contained in Chapter 114 (commencing with Section 10801) of Title 42 of the United States Code, for the protection and advocacy of the rights of individuals identified as mentally ill, as defined in Section 10802(3) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(b) Access to information and records to which subdivision (a) applies shall be in accord with Division 4.7 (commencing with Section 4900).

CHAPTER 535

An act to amend Section 30263 of, and to add Section 30600.7 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to coastal resources.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30263 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30263. (a) New or expanded refineries or petrochemical facilities not otherwise consistent with the provisions of this division shall be permitted if (1) alternative locations are not feasible or are more environmentally damaging; (2) adverse environmental effects are mitigated to the maximum extent feasible; (3) it is found that not permitting such development would adversely affect the public welfare; (4) the facility is not located in a highly scenic or seismically hazardous area, on any of the Channel Islands, or within or contiguous to environmentally sensitive areas; and (5) the facility is sited so as to provide a sufficient buffer area to minimize adverse impacts on surrounding property.

(b) New or expanded refineries or petrochemical facilities shall minimize the need for once-through cooling by using air cooling to the maximum extent feasible and by using treated waste waters from inplant processes where feasible.

SEC. 2. Section 30600.7 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

30600.7. Where, prior to delegation of coastal permit authority pursuant to Section 30519, a modification of a refinery facility or petrochemical facility is necessary to comply with a goal, policy, or requirement of an air pollution control district, the State Air Resources Board, or the Environmental Protection Agency to provide for reformulated or alternative fuels, that modification shall require a coastal development permit from the commission only, notwithstanding the option afforded local governments under subdivision (b) of Section 30600.

CHAPTER 536

An act to amend Section 65995.1 of the Government Code, relating to migrant worker housing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65995.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65995.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, as to any development project for the construction of senior citizen housing, as described in Section 51.3 of the Civil Code, a residential care facility for the elderly as described in subdivision (k) of Section 1569.2 of the Health and Safety Code, or a multilevel facility for the elderly as described in paragraph (9) of subdivision (d) of Section 15432, any fee, charge, dedication, or other form of requirement that is levied under Section 53080 may be applied only to new construction, and is subject to the limits and conditions applicable under subdivision (b) of Section 65995 in the case of commercial or industrial development.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, as to any development project for the construction of agricultural migrant worker housing financed in whole or part pursuant to Chapter 8.5 (commencing with Section 50710) of Part 2 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code, no fees, charges, dedications, or other forms of requirements that are levied under Section 53080 shall be applied to new construction, reconstruction, or rehabilitation of this housing. The exemption provided by this subdivision shall be applicable only to that agricultural migrant worker housing which is owned by the state and which is subject to a contract ensuring compliance with the requirements of Chapter 8.5 (commencing with Section 50710) of Part 2 of Division 31 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) Any development project against which school facilities fees or other requirements have been levied or waived in accordance with the limit or exemption set forth in subdivision (a) or (b) may be converted to any use other than those uses described in the statutes cited in that subdivision only with the approval of the city or county that issued the building permit for the project. That approval shall not be granted absent certification by the appropriate school district that payment has been made on the part of the development project at the rate of the school facilities fee, charge, dedication, or other form of requirement applied by the district under Section 53080 to residential development as of the date of conversion, less the amount of any school facilities fees or other requirements paid on the part of the project in accordance with the limits set forth in subdivision (a) or (b).

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to address serious problems regarding the provision and funding of migrant agricultural worker housing, it is necessary that this act take effect immediate effect.

CHAPTER 537

An act to amend Sections 1063.1 and 1063.2 of, and to add Section 1063.15 to, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1063.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1063.1. As used in this article:

(a) "Member insurer" means an insurer required to be a member of the association in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 1063, except and to the extent that the insurer is participating in an insolvency program adopted by the United States government.

(b) "Insolvent insurer" means a member insurer for which a domiciliary or ancillary liquidator has been appointed in this state after the effective date of this article.

(c) (1) "Covered claims" means the obligations of an insolvent insurer, including the obligation for unearned premiums, (i) imposed by law and within the coverage of an insurance policy of the insolvent insurer; (ii) which were unpaid by the insolvent insurer; (iii) which are presented as a claim to the liquidator in this state or to the association on or before the last date fixed for the filing of claims in the domiciliary liquidating proceedings; (iv) which were incurred prior to the date coverage under the policy terminated and prior to, on, or within 30 days after the date the liquidator was appointed; (v) for which the assets of the insolvent insurer are insufficient to discharge in full; (vi) in the case of a policy of workers' compensation insurance, to provide workers' compensation benefits under the workers' compensation law of this state; and (vii) in the case of other classes of insurance if the claimant or insured is a resident of this state at the time of the insured occurrence, or the property from which the claim arises is permanently located in this state.

(2) "Covered claims" shall not include any obligations arising from the following:

(i) Life, annuity, health, or disability insurance.

(ii) Mortgage guaranty, financial guaranty, or other forms of insurance offering protection against investment risks.

(iii) Fidelity or surety insurance including fidelity or surety bonds, or any other bonding obligations.

(iv) Credit insurance.

(v) Title insurance.

(vi) Ocean marine insurance or ocean marine coverage under any insurance policy including claims arising from the following: the Jones Act (46 U.S.C.A. Sec. 688), the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act (33 U.S.C.A. Sec. 901 et seq.), or any other similar federal statutory enactment, or any endorsement or policy affording protection and indemnity coverage.

(vii) Any claims servicing agreement or insurance policy providing retroactive insurance of a known loss or losses, except a special excess workers' compensation policy issued pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 3702.8 of the Labor Code which cover all or any part of workers' compensation liabilities of an employer that was previously issued a certificate of consent to self-insure pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 3700 of the Labor Code.

(3) "Covered claims" shall not include any obligations of the insolvent insurer arising out of any reinsurance contracts, nor any obligations incurred after the expiration date of the insurance policy or after the insurance policy has been replaced by the insured or canceled at the insured's request or after the insurance policy has been canceled by the association as provided in this chapter, or after the insurance policy has been canceled by the liquidator, nor any obligations to any state or to the federal government.

(4) "Covered claims" shall not include any obligations to insurers, insurance pools, or underwriting associations, nor their claims for contribution, indemnity, or subrogation, equitable or otherwise, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

No insurer, insurance pool, or underwriting association may maintain, in its own name or in the name of its insured, any claim or legal action against the insured of the insolvent insurer for contribution, indemnity or by way of subrogation, except insofar as, and to the extent only, that the claim exceeds the policy limits of the insolvent insurer's policy. In those claims or legal actions, the insured of the insolvent insurer shall be entitled to a credit or setoff in the amount of the policy limits of the insolvent insurer's policy, or in the amount of such limits remaining, where those limits have been diminished by the payment of other claims.

(5) "Covered claims," except in cases involving a claim for workers' compensation benefits or for unearned premiums, shall not include any claim in an amount of one hundred dollars ($100) or less, nor the first one hundred dollars ($100) of any claim in excess of one hundred dollars ($100), nor that portion of any claim which is in excess of any applicable limits provided in the insurance policy issued by the insolvent insurer.

(6) "Covered claims" shall not include that portion of any claim, other than a claim for workers' compensation benefits, which is in excess of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(7) "Covered claims" shall not include any amount sought as a return of a premium under any policy providing retroactive insurance of a known loss or losses.

(8) "Covered claims" shall not include any amount awarded as punitive or exemplary damages.

(9) "Covered claims" shall not include (i) any claim to the extent it is covered by any other insurance of a class covered by the provisions of this article available to the claimant or insured nor (ii) any claim by any person other than the original claimant under the insurance policy in his or her own name, his or her executor, administrator, guardian or other personal representative or trustee in bankruptcy and shall not include any claim asserted by an assignee or one claiming by right of subrogation, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

(10) "Covered claims" shall not include any obligations arising out of the issuance of an insurance policy written by the separate division of the State Compensation Insurance Fund pursuant to the provisions of Sections 11802 and 11803.

(11) "Covered claims" shall not include any obligations of the insolvent insurer arising from any policy or contract of insurance issued or renewed prior to the insolvent insurer's admission to transact insurance in the State of California.

(12) "Covered claims" shall not include surplus deposits of subscribers as defined in Section 1374.1.

(d) "Admitted to transact insurance in this state" means an insurer possessing a valid certificate of authority issued by the California Department of Insurance.

(e) "Affiliate" means a person who directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with an insolvent insurer on December 31 of the year next preceding the date the insurer becomes an insolvent insurer.

(f) "Control" means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract other than a commercial contract for goods or nonmanagement services, or otherwise, unless the power is the result of an official position with or corporate office held by the person. Control shall be presumed to exist if any person, directly or indirectly, owns, controls, holds with the power to vote, or holds proxies representing, 10 percent or more of the voting securities of any other person. This presumption may be rebutted by showing that control does not in fact exist.

(g) "Claimant" means any insured making a first party claim or any person instituting a liability claim; provided that no person who is an affiliate of the insolvent insurer may be a claimant.

SEC. 2. Section 1063.15 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1063.15. In any workers' compensation matter the association shall have the same period of time within which to act or to exercise a right as is accorded to the insurer by the Labor Code, and those time periods shall be tolled against the association until 45 days after the appointment of a domiciliary or receiver.

SEC. 3. Section 1063.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1063.2. (a) The association shall pay and discharge covered claims and in connection therewith pay for or furnish loss adjustment services and defenses of claimants when required by policy provisions. It may do so either directly by itself or through a servicing facility or through a contract for reinsurance and assumption of liabilities by one or more member insurers or through a contract with the liquidator, upon terms satisfactory to the association and to the liquidator, under which payments on covered claims would be made by the liquidator using funds provided by the association.

(b) The association shall be a party in interest in all proceedings involving a covered claim, and shall have the same rights as the insolvent insurer would have had if not in liquidation, including, but not limited to, the right to: (1) appear, defend, and appeal a claim in a court of competent jurisdiction; (2) receive notice of, investigate, adjust, compromise, settle, and pay a covered claim; and (3) investigate, handle, and deny a noncovered claim. The association shall have no cause of action against the insureds of the insolvent insurer for any sums it has paid out, except as provided by this article.

(c) (1) If damages against uninsured motorists are recoverable by the claimant from his or her own insurer, the applicable limits of the uninsured motorists coverage shall be a credit against a covered claim payable under this article. Any person having a claim which may be recovered under more than one insurance guaranty association or its equivalent shall seek recovery first from the association of the place of residence of the insured, except that if it is a first-party claim for damage to property with a permanent location, he or she shall seek recovery first from the association of the location of the property, and if it is a workers' compensation claim, he or she shall seek recovery first from the association of the residence of the claimant. Any recovery under this article shall be reduced by the amount of recovery from any other insurance guaranty association or its equivalent. A member insurer may recover in subrogation from the association only one-half of any amount paid by such insurer under uninsured motorist coverage for bodily injury or wrongful death (and nothing for a payment for anything else), in those cases where the injured person insured by such an insurer has proceeded under his or her uninsured motorist coverage on the ground that the tortfeasor is uninsured as a result of the insolvency of his or her liability insurer (an insolvent insurer as defined in this article), provided that such member insurer shall waive all rights of subrogation against such tortfeasor. Any amount paid a claimant in excess of the amount authorized by this section may be recovered by action brought by the association.

(2) Any claimant having collision coverage on a loss which is covered by the insolvent company's liability policy shall first proceed against his or her collision carrier. Neither that claimant nor the collision carrier, if it is a member of the association, shall have the right to sue or continue a suit against the insured of the insolvent insurance company for such collision damage.

(d) The association shall have the right to recover from any person who is an affiliate of the insolvent insurer and whose liability obligations to other persons are satisfied in whole or in part by payments made under this article the amount of any covered claim and allocated claims expense paid on behalf of that person pursuant to this article.

(e) Any person having a claim or legal right of recovery under any governmental insurance or guaranty program which is also a covered claim, shall be required to first exhaust his or her right under the program. Any amount payable on a covered claim shall be reduced by the amount of any recovery under the program.

(f) The association shall continue coverage for covered claims under all insurance policies of the insolvent insurer that were in force on the date the liquidator was appointed until the insurance policy has expired in accordance with its terms, or has been replaced by the insured, or canceled at the insured's request, or has been canceled by the association as provided in this article, or has been canceled by the liquidator.

(g) The association shall have authority to cancel insurance policies of the insolvent insurer by mailing or delivering to the insured at the last known address within this state a written notice of cancellation at least 10 days prior to the effective date of such cancellation, notwithstanding any statute or policy provision to the contrary.

(h) "Covered claims" shall not include any judgments against or obligations or liabilities of the insolvent insurer or the commissioner, as liquidator, or otherwise resulting from alleged or proven torts, nor shall any default judgment or stipulated judgment against the insolvent insurer, or against the insured of the insolvent insurer, be binding against the association.

(i) "Covered claims" shall not include any loss adjustment expenses, including adjustment fees and expenses, attorney fees and expenses, court costs, interest, and bond premiums, incurred prior to the appointment of a liquidator. The deductible provided for in paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 1063.1 shall apply to each person for each accident for which he or she makes a claim.

CHAPTER 538

An act to amend Section 25244.19 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25244.19 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25244.19. (a) On or before September 1, 1991, and every four years thereafter, each generator shall conduct a source reduction evaluation review and plan and a source reduction evaluation review and plan summary pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c).

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (d), the source reduction evaluation review and plan required by subdivision (a) shall be conducted and completed for each site pursuant to the format adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25244.16 and shall include, at a minimum, all of the following:

(1) The name and location of the site.

(2) The SIC Code of the site.

(3) Identification of all routinely generated hazardous waste streams which result from ongoing processes or operations that have a yearly volume exceeding 5 percent of the total yearly volume of hazardous waste generated at the site, or, for extremely hazardous waste, 5 percent of the total yearly volume generated at the site. For purposes of this paragraph, a hazardous waste exceeds 5 percent of the total yearly volume, and is subject to this article, if it is routinely generated on an ongoing basis and meets either of the following criteria:

(A) It is a hazardous waste stream processed in a wastewater treatment unit which discharges to a publicly owned treatment works or under a national pollutant discharge elimination system (NPDES) permit, as specified in the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended (33 U.S.C. Sec. 1251 and following), and its weight before treatment exceeds 5 percent of the weight of the total yearly volume at the site.

(B) It is a hazardous waste stream which is not processed in a wastewater treatment unit and its weight exceeds 5 percent of the weight of the total yearly volume at the site, less the weight of any hazardous waste stream identified in subparagraph (A).

(4) For each hazardous waste stream identified in paragraph (3), the review and plan shall include all of the following information:

(A) An estimate of the quantity of hazardous waste generated.

(B) An evaluation of source reduction approaches available to the generator which are potentially viable. The evaluation shall consider at least all of the following source reduction approaches:

(i) Input change.

(ii) Operational improvement.

(iii) Production process change.

(iv) Product reformulation.

(5) A specification of, and a rationale for, the technically feasible and economically practicable source reduction measures which will be taken by the generator with respect to each hazardous waste stream identified in paragraph (3). The review and plan shall fully document any statement explaining the generator's rationale for rejecting any available source reduction approach identified in paragraph (4).

(6) An evaluation, and, to the extent practicable, a quantification, of the effects of the chosen source reduction method on emissions and discharges to air, water, or land.

(7) A timetable for making reasonable and measurable progress towards implementation of the selected source reduction measures specified in paragraph (5).

(8) Certification pursuant to subdivision (e).

(c) The source reduction evaluation review and plan summary required by subdivision (a) shall be completed in accordance with the format adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25244.19 and shall include the information specified in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), and (6) of subdivision (b) and a summary of the information required pursuant to paragraphs (4) and (5) of subdivision (b).

(d) If a generator owns or operates multiple sites with similar processes, operations, and waste streams, the generator may prepare a single multisite review and plan and plan summary addressing all of these sites.

(e) Every review and plan and plan summary conducted pursuant to this section shall be submitted by the generator for review and certification by an engineer who is registered as a professional engineer pursuant to Section 6762 of the Business and Professions Code and who has demonstrated expertise in hazardous waste management, by an individual who is responsible for the processes and operations of the site, or by an environmental assessor who is registered pursuant to Section 25570.3 and who has demonstrated expertise in hazardous waste management. The engineer, individual, or environmental assessor shall certify the review and plan and plan summary only if the review and plan and plan summary meet all of the following requirements:

(1) The review and plan addresses each hazardous waste stream identified pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (b).

(2) The review and plan addresses the source reduction approaches specified in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b).

(3) The review and plan clearly sets forth the measures to be taken with respect to each hazardous waste stream for which source reduction has been found to be technically feasible and economically practicable, with timetables for making reasonable and measurable progress, and properly documents the rationale for rejecting available source reduction measures.

(4) The plan summary meets the requirements of subdivision (c).

(5) The review and plan and plan summary does not merely shift hazardous waste from one environmental medium to another environmental medium by increasing emissions or discharges to air, water, or land.

(f) At the time a review and plan or a plan summary is submitted to the department, the generator shall certify that the generator has implemented, is implementing, or will be implementing, the source reduction measures identified in the review and plan or the plan summary according to the implementation schedule contained in the review and plan or the plan summary. A generator may determine not to implement a measure selected in paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) only if the generator determines, upon conducting further analysis or due to unexpected circumstances, that the selected measure is not technically feasible or economically practicable, or if attempts to implement that measure reveal that the measure would result in, or has resulted in, any of the following:

(1) An increase in the generation of hazardous waste.

(2) An increase in the release of hazardous chemicals to other environmental media.

(3) Adverse impacts on product quality.

(4) A significant increase in the risk of an adverse impact to human health or the environment.

(g) If the generator elects not to implement the review and plan or plan summary, including, but not limited to, a selected measure pursuant to subdivision (f), the generator shall amend its review and plan and plan summary to reflect this rejection and include in the review and plan and plan summary proper documentation identifying the rationale for this rejection.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Since existing law requires the State Department of Health Services to adopt regulations pursuant to the Hazardous Waste Source Reduction Program by September 1, 1991, and this act would clarify an important component of these regulations relating to the definition of routinely generated hazardous waste, thereby protecting public health and safety and the environment, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 539

An act to amend Sections 1153, 1182, 1192, 1192.5, 1194.6, 1194.8, 1194.95, and 1197 of, to add Sections 1194.81, 1194.82, 1194.86, 1194.87, 1194.88, and 1196.1 to, and to repeal Sections 1150, 1151, 1151.6, 1176, 1176.1, and 1176.7 of, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1150 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 1151 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 1151.6 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 1153 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1153. An insurer shall not be admitted within three years from and after the time when it commences business as an insurer, nor within three years from and after the time when it is first incorporated, unless assets equal to the sum of its liabilities and the minimum capital and surplus required for admission are maintained in cash or one or more of the following:

(a) Securities specified in Sections 1170 to 1175, inclusive.

(b) Premiums which are in the course of collection, or agents' balances representing premiums, on policies effected not more than 90 days prior to the date on which these premiums or balances are valued for the purpose of this section, and earned service fees receivable, not over 90 days due, and evidences of debt representing such assets.

(c) In the case of a life insurer, the amount of current deferred premiums receivable, after deducting therefrom the amount of the loading.

(d) Interest accrued and dividends declared, receivable on any of the assets specified in subdivisions (a) to (c), inclusive, no part of which interest or dividends has been due in excess of one year.

(e) Amount of reinsurance recoverable from admitted insurers.

SEC. 5. Section 1176 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 1176.1 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 1176.7 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 1182 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1182. Domestic incorporated insurers may invest in an account or accounts in one or more banks or savings and loan associations to the extent the account or accounts are insured by an agency or instrumentality of the federal government. As used in this section, an account may include a certificate of deposit.

SEC. 9. Section 1192 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1192. Excess funds investments may be made in:

(a) Interest-bearing obligations issued by a nonaffiliate institution, as defined in paragraph (5) of subdivision (f) of Section 1196.1, organized under the laws of any state, or of the United States, or of the District of Columbia, or of the Dominion of Canada or of any province of the Dominion of Canada, or interest-bearing obligations registered with the Securities Exchange Commission and publicly traded issued by an affiliate corporation organized under the laws of any state, or of the United States, or of the District of Columbia, or of the Dominion of Canada or of any province of the Dominion of Canada, or interest-bearing obligations issued by an authority established pursuant to the California Industrial Development Financing Act provided for in Title 10 (commencing with Section 91500) of the Government Code, to which the corporation is obligated with respect to payment, or

(b) Equipment trust obligations or certificates, or other adequately secured instruments, evidencing an interest in or lien upon transportation equipment used or to be used by a common carrier or common carriers and a right to receive determined portions of fixed obligatory payments for the use or purchase of this equipment, when the obligations, certificates or instruments are issued by a corporation specified in paragraph (a) or are unconditionally guaranteed or assumed by the corporation as to principal and as to interest or dividends and as to the payment of the fixed obligatory payments or the payment of the determined portions thereof.

SEC. 10. Section 1192.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1192.5. Excess funds investments may be made in all deposits and debt obligations of banks or savings and loan associations whose accounts are insured by an agency or instrumentality of the federal government including accounts or certificates of deposit not subject to Section 1182, bankers' acceptances, and commercial paper.

SEC. 11. Section 1194.6 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1194.6. (a) Excess funds investments may be made by an insurer in bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness payable in United States dollars, and issued by a corporation incorporated under the laws of an alien government provided all of the following conditions are met:

(1) All the stock of the corporation is owned and ultimately controlled by a domestic corporation.

(2) Payment in full of any bond, note, or other evidence of indebtedness is guaranteed by the domestic corporation.

(3) Any bond, note, or other evidence of indebtedness is evaluated by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners as a bond which may be carried at amortized cost.

(b) Excess fund investments may be made by a life insurer in bonds, notes, or other evidence of indebtedness payable in a currency other than United States dollars and issued by a corporation incorporated under the laws of an alien government provided all the following conditions are met:

(1) All of the stock of the corporation is owned and ultimately controlled by a domestic corporation.

(2) Payment in full of any bond, note, or other evidence of indebtedness is guaranteed by the domestic corporation.

(3) Any bond, note, or other evidence of indebtedness is evaluated by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners as a bond which may be carried at amortized cost.

(4) The life insurer shall, prior to or within five business days after purchase, enter into a contract with a qualified bank pursuant to which the bank agrees to exchange the payments made on the nondollar denominated investment for the full term to maturity of the investment for United States currency at a rate approximating the prevailing exchange rate at the time of the purchase. For purposes of this subdivision, a qualified bank means a bank the accounts of which are insured by an agency or instrumentality of the federal government or which is a member of the Federal Reserve System and a bank that has a net worth equal to or in excess of two hundred fifty million dollars ($250,000,000) as shown on its most recently published financial statements.

(c) "Domestic," as used in this section, means organized under the laws of any state, or of the United States or of the District of Columbia.

SEC. 12. Section 1194.8 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1194.8. (a) Excess fund investments may be made by a domestic insurer in real estate and leases thereof and in making improvements thereon for business or residential purposes as an investment for the production of income. The phrase "business or residential purposes" shall not include real estate or leases primarily intended for use or valued as agricultural, horticultural, farm, ranch or mineral property. Any such investment may be made by admitted insurers having admitted assets aggregating in value not less than twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000).

Domestic insurers, other than life, title, mortgage and mortgage guaranty insurers, having admitted assets aggregating in value less than twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000) but not less than ten million dollars ($10,000,000) may also qualify to make such investments for a period of 12 months with the prior approval of the commissioner. Real estate and leases acquired and improvements made thereon under this section shall not exceed in the aggregate an amount equal to 10 percent of the insurer's admitted assets. Real estate and leases acquired under this section shall be in addition to that which is authorized to be acquired under the provisions of paragraphs (a) to (h), inclusive, of Section 1194.86. Except upon the prior approval in writing of the commissioner, an investment may not be made under the authority of this section if at the time of the making of the investment it would result in the insurer then owning real estate and leases thereof, other than of the kind and for the purposes described in paragraphs (a), (b), and (f) of Section 1194.86, in an amount exceeding 10 percent of the insurer's admitted assets. Any investment in a single parcel of real estate or in a single leasehold including improvements thereon made under the authority of this section shall not be made in an amount in excess of 1 percent of the insurer's admitted assets or 10 percent of the aggregate of the insurer's capital paid-up and unassigned surplus, whichever amount is larger. A lease eligible for purchase hereunder shall be for a term which at the date of purchase shall not expire for at least 24 years. Percentage or dollar value of assets and capital paid-up and unassigned surplus as provided herein shall be determined by the insurer's last preceding annual statement of conditions and affairs made as of the December 31st last preceding and which has been filed with the commissioner pursuant to law.

(b) In computing the value of real estate held by a domestic insurer for the purpose of complying with the asset standards or percentage of asset standards, the insurer shall add the net equity of the real estate owned by the insured to the amount of encumbrances and liens against the property for which the insurer could be held liable for any deficiency in the event of foreclosure or other action to realize the value of the liens. "Net equity" as used in this section means book value less the value of liens and encumbrances.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) or Section 1100, excess fund investments may be made by a domestic life insurer as an investment for the production of income in interests in publicly traded limited partnerships, limited partnerships in which the life insurer is the general partner, general partnerships, or in shares of beneficial interests in trusts substantially all the assets of which are real estate or leases thereof or improvements thereon for business or residential purposes. "Business or residential purposes" does not include real estate or leases primarily intended for use or valued as agricultural, horticultural, farm, ranch, or mineral property. Any investment authorized by this subdivision may be made by domestic life insurers having admitted assets aggregating in value not less than one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000).

Investments acquired pursuant to this subdivision shall be in addition to investments authorized to be acquired under subdivisions (a) to (h), inclusive, of Section 1194.86. Except upon the prior approval in writing of the commissioner, an investment may not be made under the authority of this subdivision in a general partnership or a nonpublicly traded trust if at the time of the making of the investment it would result in the life insurer owning aggregate interests in those investments in an amount exceeding 3 percent of the life insurer's admitted assets. Except upon the prior approval in writing of the commissioner, an investment may not be made if at the time it would result in the life insurer owning interests in general or limited partnerships or in shares of beneficial interests in trusts in an amount exceeding 10 percent of the life insurer's admitted assets.

An investment in a single partnership or shares of beneficial interest in a single trust made pursuant to this subdivision shall not be made in an amount in excess of 1 percent of the life insurer's admitted assets or 10 percent of the aggregate of the life insurer's capital paid-up and unassigned surplus, whichever is larger. Percentage or dollar value of assets and capital paid-up and unassigned surplus as provided herein shall be determined by the life insurer's last preceding annual statement of conditions and affairs made as of the December 31st last preceding and which has been filed with the commissioner pursuant to applicable provisions of law.

For purposes of this subdivision, "publicly traded" means securities of a limited partnership or trust listed and traded on a securities exchange subject to regulation, supervision, or control under a statute of the United States or listed on the NASDAQ system.

(d) Investments made pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (c) shall not exceed in the aggregate an amount equal to 10 percent of the insurer's admitted assets and shall produce sufficient cash-flow to amortize any mortgage, except with the prior written consent of the commissioner.

SEC. 13. Section 1194.81 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1194.81. Domestic incorporated insurers may invest in notes or bonds secured by a mortgage or other first lien upon unencumbered real property meeting the criteria of subdivision (e), if the secured obligation meets the conditions of subdivisions (a) and (b), as follows:

(a) There exists no condition or right of reentry or of forfeiture under which the lien can be cut off, subordinated, or otherwise disturbed.

(b) The secured obligation satisfies the conditions of paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4), as follows:

(1) The principal so loaned or the entire note or bond issue so secured, plus the amount of the liens of any public bond, assessment, or tax assessed upon the property loaned upon, does not exceed 80 percent of the market value of that real property, together with improvements which are taken as security at the date of investment.

(2) Where the loan is insured by an admitted mortgage guaranty insurer conforming to the provisions of Chapter 2A (commencing with Section 12640.01) of Part 6 of Division 2, the unguaranteed portion of the loan, plus the amount of the liens of any public bond, assessment, or tax assessed upon the property loaned upon, does not exceed 80 percent of the market value of that real property, together with improvements which are taken as security at the date of investment.

(3) Where the loan is made or the notes or bonds are issued for a building loan on real property, the principal so loaned, or the entire outstanding notes or bonds so issued, plus the amount of the lien of any public bond, assessment, or tax assessed upon the property loaned upon, at no time exceeds 80 percent of the market value of the real property together with the actual cost of the improvements thereon taken as security.

(4) Where the loan is secured by a first mortgage or other first lien upon real property primarily improved with a residential building, or buildings, which for the purposes of this paragraph includes a condominium unit, designed for occupancy by not more than four families, the terms of the loan provide for monthly payments of principal and interest sufficient to effect full repayment of the loan within the remaining useful life of the building as estimated in the appraisal for the loan, or 40 years, whichever is less, and the principal so loaned or the entire note or bond issue so secured, plus the amount of the liens of any public bond, assessment, or tax assessed upon the property loaned, does not exceed 90 percent of the market value of that real property, or of that real property together with improvements which are taken as security on the date of investment.

(c) Real property is not encumbered within the meaning of this section if subject only to one or more of the following:

(1) The lien of taxes and assessments not delinquent at the time of investment.

(2) The lien for delinquent taxes or assessments delinquent at the time of investment, which are being contested by any legal proceedings, if indemnity has been given pursuant to the indenture under which the bonds and notes are issued, or otherwise, for the payment of any amount which may be found to be due upon the final adjudication of that contest.

(3) The lien of taxes and assessments becoming delinquent subsequent to the time of investment.

(4) Outstanding mineral, oil or timber rights.

(5) Easements or rights-of-way.

(6) Sewer rights.

(7) Rights in walls.

(8) Building restrictions or other restrictive covenants, or conditions or regulations of use, or leases under which rents or profits are reserved to the owner.

(d) For the purposes of this section, delinquent taxes funded on any deferred payment plan shall be deemed delinquent.

(e) Only real property meeting the following criteria of paragraph (1), (2), or (3) may secure notes or bonds eligible for investment under this section:

(1) There is an improvement on the real property with a value that is substantial in relation to the total value of the property.

(2) There is no improvement on the real property, but the funds loaned on account of the secured obligation, which meets the criteria of paragraph (3) of subdivision (b), are used to construct an improvement on real property and the value of the improvement constructed on the real property is at all times substantial in relation to the amount of the construction loan funds advanced by the insurer and drawn down by or on account of the borrower.

(3) There is no improvement on the real property, but the property is revenue producing and is used primarily as agricultural, horticultural, farm, or ranch property.

(4) There is no improvement on the real property, but the note or bond secured by that real property is held in conjunction with another note or bond held by the insurer that is secured by other real property on which there exists a substantial improvement. However, the value of the unimproved real property may not exceed 20 percent of the total value of all real property taken as security for all those notes or bonds.

SEC. 14. Section 1194.82 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1194.82. (a) An insurer may invest in notes or bonds secured by second mortgages or other second liens, including all inclusive or wraparound mortgages or liens, upon real property encumbered only by a first mortgage or lien which meets the requirements set forth in Section 1194.81, subject to either of the following conditions:

(1) The insurer also owns the note or bond secured by the prior first mortgage or lien and the aggregate value of both loans does not exceed the loan to market value ratio requirements of Section 1194.81.

(2) The note or bond is secured by an "all-inclusive" or "wraparound" lien or mortgage which conforms to the requirements specified in subdivision (b), provided that the aggregate value of the resulting loan does not exceed the loan to market value ratio requirements of Section 1194.81.

(b) The terms "wraparound" and "all-inclusive" lien or mortgage refer to a loan made by an insurer to a borrower on the security of a mortgage or lien on real property other than property containing a residence of one to four units or upon which a residence of one to four units is to be constructed, where the real property is encumbered by a first mortgage or lien and which loan is subject to all of the following:

(1) There is no more than one preexisting mortgage or lien on the real property.

(2) The total amount of the obligation of the borrower to the insurer under the loan is not less than the sum of the amount disbursed by the insurer on account of the loan and the outstanding balance of the obligation secured by the preexisting lien or mortgage.

(3) The instrument evidencing the lien or mortgage by which the obligation of the borrower to the insurer under the loan is secured, is recorded, and the lien is insured under a policy of title insurance in an amount not less than the total amount of the obligation of the borrower to the insurer under the loan.

(4) The insurer either (A) pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 2924 of the Civil Code, files for record in the office of the recorder of the county in which the real property is located a duly acknowledged request for a copy of any notice of default or of sale under the preexisting lien, (B) otherwise arranges with the recorder of any county in which the real property is located to be advised in case of the filing for record of any notice of default or of sale with respect to any obligation secured by the preexisting lien, or (C) is entitled under applicable law to receive notice of default, sale, and foreclosure of the preexisting lien.

(5) The amount disbursed by an insurer under any single wraparound or all-inclusive loan made pursuant to this section shall not exceed the greater of 1 percent of the insurer's admitted assets or 10 percent of the aggregate of the insurer's capital paid-up and unassigned surplus.

SEC. 15. Section 1194.86 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1194.86. Every admitted incorporated insurer may purchase, hold, or convey real estate only for the following purposes and in the following manner:

(a) The building in which it has its principal office and the land upon which that building stands.

(b) Real estate requisite for its accommodation in the convenient transaction of its business.

(c) Real estate acquired by it, or by any person for it, to secure the payment of loans previously contracted or for moneys due.

(d) Real estate purchased at sales upon deeds of trust or upon judgments or decrees obtained for those loans or debts.

(e) Real estate conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its dealings.

(f) Real estate acquired by gift or devise.

(g) Real estate acquired in part payment of the consideration of the sale of real property owned by it, if each such transaction shall not effect an increase in its investment in such real property.

(h) Upon the written approval of the Insurance Commissioner, real estate requisite or desirable for the protection or enhancement of the value of other real or personal property owned by the insurers.

(i) Real estate and improvements thereon which domestic insurers are permitted to invest pursuant to the provisions and subject to the conditions and limitations of Section 1194.8 or Section 1210.

SEC. 16. Section 1194.87 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1194.87. If, after a hearing, the commissioner is satisfied that an insurer is carrying upon its books any parcel or parcels of real estate at values exceeding the sound market value thereof, he or she may order the insurer to:

(a) Create an adequate contingency reserve against the book value of the parcel or parcels, or

(b) Reduce the book value of the parcel or parcels by a corresponding amount.

In case of real estate, not of a character described in subdivisions (a), (b), (h), or (i) of Section 1194.86 which has been held by the insurer for more than five years, the commissioner may order the insurer to dispose of the real estate within six months if, after a hearing, the commissioner is satisfied that:

(1) The insurer has refused reasonable offers for the sale of the real estate, or

(2) The real estate may be disposed of without undue hardship to the insurer.

For the purpose of enabling him or her to determine upon the issuance of an order pursuant to this section, the commissioner, if he or she is not satisfied with the appraisal furnished at his or her request by the insurer, may appraise the real estate at the expense of the insurer.

The commissioner may suspend or revoke the certificate of authority of an insurer failing to comply with any order issued under the provisions of this section.

SEC. 17. Section 1194.88 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1194.88. Every admitted incorporated insurer may, for the protection or enhancement of the value of real property acquired under the provisions of Section 1194.86, use its funds in the manner as it shall deem proper to repair, alter, remodel, rehabilitate, demolish, purchase furnishings or other personal property for use in or otherwise to improve the real estate.

SEC. 18. Section 1194.95 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1194.95. Excess funds investments may be made in an electronic computer or data processing machine or system to be used in connection with the business of the insurer; provided, however, that this machine or system shall have an original cost of at least two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) and shall be amortized in full over a period not to exceed four full calendar years.

SEC. 19. Section 1196.1 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1196.1. (a) No domestic insurer shall acquire, directly or indirectly, any medium grade or lower grade obligation of any institution if, after giving effect to any such acquisition, the aggregate amount of all medium grade and lower grade obligations then held by the domestic insurer would exceed 20 percent of its admitted assets, provided that, (1) no more than 10 percent of its admitted assets consists of obligations rated four, five, or six by the Securities Valuation Office; (2) no more than 3 percent of its admitted assets consist of obligations rated five or six by the Securities Valuation

Office; and (3) no more than 1 percent of its admitted assets consists of obligations rated six by the Securities Valuation Office. Attaining or exceeding the limit of any one category shall not preclude an insurer from acquiring obligations in other categories subject to the specific and multicategory limits.

(b) No domestic insurer may invest more than an aggregate of 1 percent of its admitted assets in medium grade obligations issued, guaranteed, or insured by any one institution nor may it invest more than one-half of 1 percent of its admitted assets in lower grade obligations issued, guaranteed, or insured by any one institution. In no event, however, may a domestic insurer invest more than 1 percent of its admitted assets in any medium or lower grade obligations issued, guaranteed, or insured by any one institution.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) or (b), a domestic insurer may acquire an obligation of an institution in which the insurer already has one or more obligations if the obligation is acquired in order to protect an investment previously made in the obligations of the institution; provided that all of those acquired obligations shall not exceed one-half of 1 percent of the insurer's admitted assets.

(d) Nothing contained in this section; (1) shall prohibit a domestic insurer from acquiring an obligation as a result of a restructuring of a medium or lower grade obligation already held; or (2) shall require a domestic insurer to sell or otherwise dispose of any obligation legally acquired prior to the effective date of this section.

(e) The board of directors of any domestic insurer that acquires or invests, directly or indirectly, more than 2 percent of its admitted assets in medium grade and lower grade obligations, shall adopt a written plan for the making of that investment. The plan, in addition to guidelines with respect to the quality of the issues invested in, shall contain diversification standards including, but not limited to, standards for issuers, industry duration, liquidity, and geographic location.

(f) As used in this section:

(1) "Medium grade obligations" means obligations which are rated three by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners.

(2) "Lower grade obligations" means obligations which are rated four, five, or six by the Securities Valuation Office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners.

(3) "Admitted assets" means the amount shown as of the last day of the most recently concluded annual statement year, computed in the manner prescribed by the commissioner.

(4) "Aggregate amount of medium grade and lower grade obligations" means the aggregate statutory statement value of the obligation.

(5) "Institution" means (A) any corporation, business trust, or limited partnership organized under the laws of any state of the United States, District of Columbia, the Dominion of Canada, any province of the Dominion of Canada or (B) an authority established pursuant to the California Industrial Development Financing Act, Title 10 (commencing with Section 91500) of the Government Code.

SEC. 20. Section 1197 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1197. Excess funds investments shall not be made in a loan to any one borrower in an amount exceeding 10 percent of the capital stock and surplus of the lending insurer.

CHAPTER 540

An act to amend Sections 4353, 4356, 4358, 4359, and 4360 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to district agricultural associations.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4353 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

4353. The State Race Track Leasing Commission may enter into leases or other agreements for the use of the Del Mar Race Track and any other property owned or controlled by the 22nd District Agricultural Association which the commission shall deem necessary to provide horseracing at Del Mar Race Track. Any such lease or agreement shall be on behalf of the 22nd District Agricultural Association, and the district shall continue in control of its property, subject to the conditions and terms of that lease or agreement.

SEC. 2. Section 4356 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

4356. The California Horse Racing Board shall, at the request of the commission, certify the eligibility of any prospective lessee or user of the property to be licensed to conduct horseracing at the Del Mar Race Track.

SEC. 3. Section 4358 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

4358. The commission shall follow the same procedures, insofar as appropriate, in leasing, or entering into agreements for the use of, the Del Mar Race Track as the Department of General Services follows in leasing or entering into agreements for other state real property. The commission shall, prior to awarding a lease of, or entering into an agreement for the use of, the Del Mar Race Track, consider all the factors concerning appropriate capital improvement of that racetrack, the financing of the racetrack, additional racing opportunities, and any use of new or additional properties or facilities, including, but not limited to, a grandstand, which factors shall be considered in the award of the lease or entering into the agreement. The commission shall also consult with any affected local governing bodies, prior to awarding the lease or entering into the agreement.

SEC. 4. Section 4359 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

4359. If the commission makes a determination pursuant to this chapter as to the action it proposes to take in awarding the Del Mar Race Track lease or entering into the agreement, it shall report to the Legislature, setting forth the procedures followed by the commission in reaching its determination and the reasons the proposed award or agreement is in the best interests of the state. The commission shall also make recommendations regarding any additional legislation which it deems necessary. However, no legislative action is required to make effective and operative any lease awarded, or agreement entered into, by the commission. The commission shall also make a similar report to the Legislature upon the master plan when that plan is completed.

SEC. 5. Section 4360 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

4360. After the award of a lease or entering into an agreement for the use of the Del Mar Race Track, the commission shall meet from time to time to review the operation of the lease or agreement, and the master plan, and any other related matters. It shall also make such recommendations as it deems proper to the Legislature, other state agencies, including, but not limited to, the 22nd District Agricultural Association, and to the lessee or user of the property.

SEC. 6. The State Race Track Leasing Commission may convert the lease for the use of the Del Mar Race Track, which was executed on December 19, 1989, to an agreement having substantially the same provisions, as determined by the commission, without complying with Sections 4358 and 4359 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

CHAPTER 541

An act to add Section 21117 to the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21117 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

21117. (a) Local authorities may, notwithstanding Section 21101 or 21101.6, by written agreement approved by their legislative bodies, transfer among themselves the responsibility for maintaining, operating, or controlling public access to any highway under their respective jurisdictions located in or adjacent to an ecological reserve or an environmentally sensitive area within their respective jurisdictions.

(b) An agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (a) may authorize the local authority having responsibility for the highway under the agreement to do all of the following:

(1) Limit access by motor vehicles to the highway during certain hours of the day or certain days of the week.

(2) Prohibit access by motor vehicles during certain hours of the day or certain days of the week.

(3) Provide for the construction or erection of barricades or other devices designed or intended to separate pedestrians from vehicles or motor vehicles.

(4) Establish and operate a program by which vehicular access is permitted only in conjunction with specified educational programs or for disabled persons, or both.

(5) Issue temporary permits for special events valid for less than one day.

(c) As used in this section, the term "ecological reserve" has the same meaning as defined in Section 1584 of the Fish and Game Code, and "environmentally sensitive area" has the same meaning as defined in Section 30107.5 of the Public Resources Code.

CHAPTER 542

An act to amend Sections 30 and 31 of, and to add Section 29.5 to, the Business and Professions Code, to amend Sections 4390.16 and 4720.2 of the Civil Code, and to amend Sections 11350.1, 11478.5, and 11478.8 of, and to amend and repeal Section 11350.6 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to family law.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 29.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

29.5. In addition to other qualifications for licensure prescribed by the various acts of boards under the department, applicants for licensure and licensees renewing their licenses shall also comply with Section 11350.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 2. Section 30 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

30. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any board, as defined in Section 22, and the State Bar and the Department of Real Estate (hereinafter referred to as licensing board) shall at the time of issuance or renewal of the license require that any licensee provide its federal employer identification number (if the licensee is a partnership) or his or her social security number (for all others).

(b) Any licensee failing to provide the federal identification number or social security number shall be reported by the licensing board to the Franchise Tax Board and, if failing to provide after notification pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 19276 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, shall be subject to the penalty provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 19276 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(c) A licensing board shall, upon request of the Franchise Tax Board, furnish to the Franchise Tax Board the following information with respect to every licensee:

(1) Name.

(2) Address or addresses of record.

(3) Federal employer identification number (if the entity is a partnership) or social security number (for all others).

(4) Type of license.

(5) Effective date of license or renewal.

(6) Expiration date of license.

(7) Whether license is active or inactive, if known.

(8) Whether license is new or renewal.

(d) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Licensee" means any entity, other than a corporation, authorized by a license, certificate, registration, or other means to engage in a business or profession regulated by this code or referred to in Section 1000 or 3600.

(2) "License" includes a certificate, registration, or any other authorization needed to engage in a business or profession regulated by this code or referred to in Section 1000 or 3600.

(e) The reports required under this section shall be filed on magnetic media or in other machine-readable form, according to standards furnished by the Franchise Tax Board.

(f) Licensing boards shall begin providing to the Franchise Tax Board the information required by this section as soon as economically feasible but no later than July 1, 1987. The information shall be furnished at a time which the Franchise Tax Board may require.

(g) Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the social security number and federal employer identification number furnished pursuant to this section shall not be deemed to be a public record and shall not be open to the public for inspection.

(h) Any deputy, agent, clerk, officer, or employee of any licensing board described in subdivision (a), or any former officer or employee or other individual who in the course of his or her employment or duty has or has had access to the information required to be furnished under this section, shall not disclose or make known in any manner that information, except as provided in this section to the Franchise Tax Board.

(i) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to utilize the social security account number or federal employer identification number for the purpose of establishing the identification of persons affected by state tax laws and for purposes of compliance with Section 11350.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and, to that end, the information furnished pursuant to this section shall be used exclusively for those purposes.

SEC. 3. Section 31 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Senate Bill 101 of the 1991–92 Regular Session, is amended to read:

31. (a) As used in this section, "board" means any entity listed in Section 101, the entities referred to in Sections 1000 and 3600, the State Bar, the Department of Real Estate, and any other state agency that issues a license, certificate, or registration authorizing a person to engage in a business or profession.

(b) Each applicant for the issuance or renewal of a license, certificate, registration, or other means to engage in a business or profession regulated by a board who is not in compliance with a judgment or order for support shall be subject to Section 11350.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(c) "Compliance with a judgment or order for support," has the meaning given in paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 11350.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 4. Section 4390.16 of the Civil Code, as amended by Senate Bill 101 of the 1991–92 Regular Session, is amended to read:

4390.16. (a) Upon receipt of a written request from a district attorney enforcing the obligation of parents to support their children pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, every employer shall cooperate with and provide relevant employment and income information which the employer has in its possession, to the district attorney for the purpose of establishing, modifying, or enforcing the support obligation. No employer shall incur any liability for providing this information to the district attorney.

Relevant employment and income information shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Whether a named person has or has not been employed by an employer.

(2) The full name of the employee or the first and middle initial and last name of the employee.

(3) The employee's last known residence address.

(4) The employee's date of birth.

(5) The employee's social security number.

(6) The dates of employment.

(7) All earnings paid to the employee and reported as W-2 compensation in the prior tax year and the employee's current basic rate of pay.

(8) Whether dependent health insurance coverage is available to the employee through employment.

The district attorney shall notify the employer of the district attorney case file number in making a request pursuant to this section. The written request shall include at least three of the following elements regarding the person who is the subject of the inquiry: (A) first and last name and middle initial, if known; (B) social security number; (C) driver's license number; (D) birth date; (E) last known address; or (F) spouse's name.

The district attorney shall send a notice that a request for this information has been made to the last known address of the person who is the subject of the inquiry.

(b) The state agency or the local agency, designated to enforce support obligations as required by federal law, shall allow employers to simplify the process of wage withholding by forwarding, as ordered by the court, the amounts of support withheld under more than one court order in a consolidated check, accompanied by an itemized accounting providing names, social security number or other identifying number, and the amount attributable to each obligor.

(c) An employer which fails to provide relevant employment information to the district attorney within 30 days of receiving a request pursuant to subdivision (a) may be assessed a civil penalty of a maximum of five hundred dollars ($500), plus attorneys' fees and costs. Proceedings to impose the civil penalty shall be commenced by the filing and service of an order to show cause.

SEC. 4.5. Section 4720.2 of the Civil Code, as added by Senate Bill 101 of the 1991–92 Regular Session, is amended to read:

4720.2. (a) The statewide uniform guideline for determining child support awards is as follows: CS = K (NCN).

(b) (1) The components of the formula are as follows:

CS = child support amount.

K = adjustment factor for different levels of income.

NCN = noncustodial parent's net monthly disposable income.

TN = total net monthly disposable income of parties.

(2) To compute net disposable income, see paragraph (4) of subdivision (g).

(3) K changes as combined net monthly disposable income changes as follows:

Total Net Disposable Income Per Month	K
$0– 1,667	K = .26
$1,668– 4,999	K = .20 + 100/TN
$5,000–10,000	K = .16 + 300/TN
Over $10,000	K = .12 + 700/TN

(4) For more than one child, multiply CS by:

2 children	1.5
3 children	2
4 children	2.25
5 children	2.5
6 children	2.625
7 children	2.75
8 children	2.813
9 children	2.844
10 children	2.86

(c) The court shall state on the record the net monthly disposable income of each parent.

(d) There shall be a rebuttable presumption affecting the burden of proof that 100 percent of the amount of child support established by the formula set forth in subdivision (a) is the correct amount of child support to be awarded subject to subdivision (e).

(e) The presumption of subdivision (d) may be rebutted by facts showing that application of the guideline would be unjust or inappropriate in a particular case because one or more of the following factors is found to be applicable by a preponderance of the evidence and the revised amount is in the best interests of the child or children:

(1) The parties have stipulated to a different amount of child support under subdivision (k).

(2) The rental value of the family residence in which the children for whose support the award is made are allowed to reside exceeds the mortgage payments, homeowner's insurance, and property taxes. The amount of any adjustment pursuant to this paragraph shall not be greater than the excess amount and shall be made pursuant to former Section 4728.5, prior to its repeal by Chapter 1493 of the Statutes of 1990, and applicable published appellate court decisions.

(3) A parent's subsequent spouse or nonmarital partner has income which helps meet that parent's basic living expenses, thus increasing the parent's disposable income.

(4) The child or children subject to the order are not receiving Aid to Families with Dependent Children and the custodial parent has a higher income than the noncustodial parent. In such a case the court may order the custodial parent to pay support to the noncustodial parent or the court may reduce the amount of support paid by the noncustodial parent.

(5) The child or children subject to the order are not receiving Aid to Families with Dependent Children and the noncustodial parent has parenting time that results in substantial expenses to the noncustodial parent and substantial savings to the custodial parent. In such a case the court may reduce the amount of support paid by the noncustodial parent.

(6) The parent being ordered to pay child support has an extraordinarily high income and the amount determined under the formula would exceed the needs of the child or children.

(7) Application of the guideline would be unjust or inappropriate due to special circumstances in the particular case. The court shall state on the record the facts constituting the special circumstances.

(f) If the court determines that the presumption provided for in subdivision (d) is rebutted by factors stated in subdivision (e), the court shall state its determination, and any factual basis therefore, in writing or on the record, including, but not limited to, the amount of support that would have been received under the guidelines and including a justification of why the order varies from the guidelines. The court shall make any other findings required by federal law.

(g) (1) The annual gross income of each parent means income from whatever source derived, except as specified in subparagraph (C) and includes, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(A) Income such as commissions, salaries, royalties, wages, bonuses, rents, dividends, pensions, interest, trust income, annuities, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, disability insurance benefits, and spousal support actually received from a person not a party to the order.

(B) Income from the proprietorship of a business, such as gross receipts from the business reduced by expenditures required for the operation of the business.

(C) In the discretion of the court, employee benefits or self-employment benefits, taking into consideration the benefit to the employee, any corresponding reduction in living expenses, and other relevant facts.

(2) The court may, in its discretion, consider the earning capacity of a parent in lieu of that parent's income, consistent with the best interests of the child.

(3) Annual gross income shall not include any income derived from child support payments actually received and income derived from any public assistance program, eligibility for which is based on a determination of need.

(4) The annual net disposable income of each parent shall be computed by deducting from his or her annual gross income the actual amounts attributable to the following items or other items permitted by this section:

(A) The state and federal income taxes attributed to the parent. Federal and state income tax deductions shall bear an accurate relationship to the tax status of the parties (that is, single, married, married filing separately, or head of household) and number of dependents. State and federal income taxes shall be those actually payable (not necessarily current withholding) after considering appropriate filing status, all available exclusions, deductions, and credits, and the actual tax effects of any deductible support in the present case.

(B) Deductions attributed to the employee's contribution or the self-employed worker's contribution pursuant to the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA), or an amount not to exceed that allowed under FICA for persons not subject to FICA, provided that the deducted amount is used to secure retirement or disability benefits for the parent.

(C) Deductions for mandatory union dues and retirement benefits, provided that they are required as a condition of employment.

(D) Deductions for health insurance premiums for the parent and for any children the parent has an obligation to support and state disability insurance premiums.

(E) Any child or spousal support actually being paid by the parent pursuant to a court order, to or for the benefit of any person who is not a subject of the award to be established by the court. In the absence of a court order, any child support actually being paid, not to exceed the amount established by these guidelines, for a natural or adopted child or children of the parent not residing in that parent's home, who is not the subject of the award to be established by the court, and of whom the parent has a duty of support.

(F) Job related expenses, if allowed by the court after consideration of whether the expenses are necessary, the benefit to the employee, and any other relevant facts.

(G) A hardship, as defined by former Section 4725, prior to its repeal by Chapter 1493 of the Statutes of 1990, and applicable published appellate court decisions exists. In the event a hardship exists, the amount of the hardship shall not be deducted from the amount of child support but shall be deducted from the income of the party to whom it applies. In applying any hardship under former subdivision (b) of Section 4725, the court shall use the formula provided for in that section and not any local formula in order to provide equity between competing child support orders.

(5) The annual net disposable income shall be divided by 12 to reflect the monthly net disposable income. The court may modify the monthly net disposable income figure thus obtained to reflect the actual or prospective earnings of the parties at the time the determination of support is made.

(h) Unless contrary to federal law, in the event the amount of support calculated by this section is less than the minimum amount mandated by the Agnos Child Support Standards Act of 1984, the amount mandated by that act shall be used. As used in this section, the Agnos Child Support Standards Act of 1984 means the provisions of that act in effect immediately before the changes made by Chapter 1493 of the Statutes of 1990.

(i) The amounts in this subdivision, if ordered to be paid, are considered support.

(1) For the purposes of this subdivision, the net income of the parent paying child support shall be reduced by the amount of any child support paid by that parent under this section. The net income of the parent receiving child support shall not be increased by any amount of child support received under this section.

(2) The following expenses shall be added to the amount of child support calculated under subdivision (a):

(A) Child care costs, after any applicable tax credits, related to employment shared in accordance with the net income of the parties.

(B) Absent good cause to the contrary, health care and health insurance costs for the children not deducted from gross income under subdivision (g) and health care costs for the children shared in accordance with the net income of the parties.

(3) The following expenses may be added to the amount of child support calculated under subdivision (a):

(A) In the court's discretion and subject to the paying parent's ability to pay, costs related to the special educational or other needs of a child.

(B) Child care costs related to reasonably necessary education or training for employment skills shared in accordance with the net income of the parties.

(C) Travel expenses for visitation shared in accordance with the net income of the parties, unless this creates an unreasonable hardship on one parent. The court shall find on the record or make a written finding of any unreasonable hardship.

(4) Except where there is an assignment of rights pursuant to Section 11477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, any payment ordered pursuant to this subdivision may be ordered paid directly to a provider of services.

(j) The court may adjust the child support award as appropriate to accommodate seasonal or fluctuating income of either parent.

(k) Unless applicable federal law prohibits, this section shall not impair the right of parties to enter stipulated agreements, except that the court shall not approve a stipulated agreement for a child support award unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The parties acknowledge that they are fully informed of their rights pursuant to this title and that the award is being agreed to without coercion or duress.

(2) The parties declare that (A) the agreement is in the best interests of the children involved and (B) their children's needs will be adequately met by the stipulated amount.

(3) The right to support has not been assigned to the county pursuant to Section 11477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and no public assistance application is pending.

(l) If the parties to a stipulated agreement stipulate to a child award below the amount established by this section, no change of circumstances need be demonstrated to obtain a modification of the child support award to the applicable guideline level or above.

(m) Orders and stipulations otherwise in compliance with this guideline may designate as "family support" an unallocated total sum for support of the spouse and any children without specifically labeling all or any portion as "child support" so long as the amount is adjusted to reflect the effect of additional deductibility. The amount of the order shall be adjusted to maximize the tax benefits for both parents.

(n) It is the intent of the Legislature that the uniform guidelines provided by this section shall be reviewed by the Legislature at least every four years and revised as appropriate to ensure that its application results in the determination of appropriate child support award amounts. The review shall include consideration of changes necessitated by applicable federal laws and regulations. It is the intent of the Legislature that it shall establish the procedure for the initial review of the guidelines no later than October 1, 1994.

SEC. 4.7. Section 11350.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11350.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other statute, in any action brought by the district attorney for child support of a minor child or children, the action may be prosecuted in the name of the county on behalf of the child, children, or caretaker parent. The caretaker parent shall not be a necessary party in the action but may be subpoenaed as a witness. In an action under this section there shall be no joinder of actions, or coordination of actions, or cross-complaints, and the issues shall be limited strictly to the question of paternity, if applicable, and child support, including an order for medical support. A final determination of parentage may be made in any action under this section as an incident to obtaining an order for support. An action for support or paternity pursuant to this section shall not be delayed or stayed because of the pendency of any other action between the parties. Judgment in an action brought pursuant to this section, and in an action brought pursuant to Section 11350, if at issue, may be rendered pursuant to a noticed motion, which shall inform the defendant that in order to exercise his or her right to trial, he or she must appear at the hearing on the motion.

If the defendant appears at the hearing on the motion, the court shall inquire of him or her if he or she desires to subpoena evidence and witnesses, if paternity is at issue and blood tests have not already been conducted whether he or she desires blood tests, and if he or she desires a trial. If his or her answer is in the affirmative, a continuance shall be granted to allow him or her to exercise those rights. Unless the case is determined to be complex as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) of Section 11475.1, the continuance shall not postpone the hearing to more than 75 days from the date of service of the summons and complaint. In the event that a continuance is granted, the court may make an order for temporary support without prejudice to the right of the court to make an order for temporary support as otherwise allowed by law.

(b) In any action to enforce a spousal support order the action may be pled in the name of the county in the same manner as an action to establish a child support obligation. The same restrictions on joinder of actions, coordination of actions, and cross-complaints, and delay because of the pendency of any other action as relates to actions to establish a child support obligation shall also apply to actions to enforce a spousal support order. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prevent the parties from bringing an independent action under the Family Law Act (Part 5 (commencing with Section 4000) of Division 4 of the Civil Code) or otherwise, and litigating the issue of support. In that event, the court in those proceedings shall make an independent determination on the issue of support which shall supersede the support order made pursuant to this section.

SEC. 5. Section 11350.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Senate Bill 101 of the 1991–92 Regular Session, is amended to read:

11350.6. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Board" means any entity specified in Section 101 of the Business and Professions Code, the entities referred to in Sections 1000 and 3600 of the Business and Professions Code, the State Bar of California, the Department of Real Estate, and any other state agency that issues a license, certificate, or registration authorizing a person to engage in a business or profession.

(2) "Licensee" means any individual holding a license, certificate, permit, or registration issued by a state agency to engage in a business or profession.

(3) "License" includes a certificate, permit, registration, or any other authorization to engage in a business or a profession.

(4) "Compliance with a judgment or order for support" means that the obligor is no more than 30 days in arrears in making payments in full for current support, in making periodic payments on a support arrearage, or in making periodic payments on a reimbursement for public assistance, as set forth in a judgment or order for support.

(b) The following actions may be taken to enforce support obligations which are not being met. Whenever a support judgment or order has been rendered by, or registered in, a court of this state, the district attorney may file a certification of support judgment or support order with the State Department of Social Services, verifying under penalty of perjury that there is or has been a judgment or an order for support and that the obligor is not in compliance with the judgment or order for support. The certification shall contain the name, social security number, and last known address of the support obligor. The district attorney, on a monthly basis, shall update this information and submit it to the State Department of Social Services.

(c) The State Department of Social Services shall consolidate the lists received from the various district attorney offices and, subject to subdivisions (e), (f), and (g), within 30 calendar days, shall notify any board which is responsible for the regulating of business or professional licenses, certificates, or registrations of individuals certified as owing support obligations.

(d) Promptly after receiving the certification pursuant to subdivision (b), the State Department of Social Services shall serve notice of the filing on the support obligor. Service shall be made personally or by mail. The notice shall inform the support obligor of the intent to submit his or her name to any appropriate board. The notice shall inform the obligor that any failure to respond to the notice in writing within 60 days from the date of the mailing of the notice shall result in the submission of his or her name to any appropriate board. The notice shall include the address and phone number of the district attorney's office that submitted the certification of support judgment or order, and a statement of the necessity of obtaining a release from that district attorney's office. The response shall be sent to the district attorney's office which submitted the obligor's name to the State Department of Social Services.

(e) Any district attorney who files a certification pursuant to this section shall establish procedures to allow a support obligor to object to the submission of his or her name to any board, to have the underlying debt and any relevant defenses investigated, and to receive information on the process of obtaining a modification of a support order or assistance in the establishment of a payment schedule on arrearages if the circumstances so warrant.

(f) A support obligor who has requested and obtained a review by the district attorney pursuant to subdivision (e) may petition the superior court in the county of the submitting district attorney for a judicial review of the decision to certify his or her name pursuant to this section. The time for filing of the petition for judicial review shall be within 30 days of the mailing of the notice of the results of the review by the district attorney to the support obligor. The judicial review shall be limited to a determination of the following issues:

(1) Whether there is a support judgment or order.

(2) Whether the petitioner is the obligor covered by the support judgment or order.

(3) Whether the support obligor is or is not in compliance with the judgment or order for support.

(4) Whether the support judgment or order should be modified.

(g) No name shall be submitted by the State Department of Social Services to any board until after the time period for the obligor's response to the notice provided for in subdivision (d) has lapsed and the district attorney has notified the State Department of Social Services that the obligor has failed to respond, or, if the obligor has availed himself or herself of the procedures provided in subdivisions (e) and (f), until after judgment on the petition for judicial review is entered. If an obligor uses the procedures provided in subdivision (e), but does not file a petition for judicial review pursuant to subdivision (f), his or her name may be submitted to any board after the time for filing a petition for judicial review has lapsed.

(h) On or before July 1, 1992, or as soon as economically feasible, and at least annually thereafter, all licensing boards subject to this section, and the Division of Technology of the Department of Consumer Affairs, shall provide to the State Department of Social Services specified information, on magnetic media or in other machine-readable form according to standards established by the State Department of Social Services, about applicants for licensure and all current licensees. The information to be provided shall include all of the following information concerning the licensee:

(1) Name.

(2) Address of record.

(3) Federal employer identification number or social security number.

(4) Type of license.

(5) Effective date of license or renewal.

(6) Expiration date of license.

(7) Active or inactive status.

(i) The State Department of Social Services, upon receipt of the licensee information, shall identify and notify each board and the Division of Technology of the Department of Consumer Affairs, of the names of any of its licensees who are support obligors subject to this section. The notice shall include name, address, and telephone number of each local agency that submitted information on support obligors to the State Department of Social Services. The notice shall include a certification by the State Department of Social Services that it has verified that the licensee is a support obligor subject to this section. The board shall not issue or renew such a license, certificate, or registration to any person whose name is on the most recent monthly list until the board receives a copy of the release specified in subdivision (k).

(j) The board shall notify an applicant subject to subdivision (h), by first-class mail return receipt requested, that his or her application for the issuance or renewal of a license, certificate, or registration will not be granted because the applicant's name appears on the monthly list.

(k) The State Department of Social Services shall prescribe and furnish release forms for use by the boards. When the obligor is in compliance with the judgment or order for support, the district attorney or local responsible agency shall issue to the obligor a release stating that the person is in compliance with the judgment or order of support for which certification was provided under subdivision (b). If any dispute relating to compliance exists, the relevant procedures provided in subdivisions (e) and (f) shall be applicable.

The issuance of a release shall operate to remove the name of the support obligor from the certified list as specified in subdivision (c), unless a district attorney, pursuant to subdivision (a), certifies subsequent to the issuance of a release that the support obligor is once again not in compliance with a judgment or order for support.

(l) The board, upon request of the person applying for the registration, license, or certification whose name appears on the certified list prepared by the State Department of Social Services, may issue to that applicant a temporary registration, license, or certification valid for a period not to exceed 120 days. If, upon the expiration of the temporary registration, license, or certification, the applicant is in compliance with all judgments or orders for support for which certification has been filed pursuant to subdivision (b), the board shall issue the title, license, certification, or permit to the applicant.

(m) The State Department of Social Services shall adopt regulations necessary to implement the requirements of this section. Those regulations shall include provisions for the State Department of Social Services to identify the applicants whose names have been certified by the district attorneys and to report that information to the appropriate board.

(n) The State Department of Social Services may enter into any agreements with the boards necessary to carry out this section, to the extent that the department has determined that it is cost-effective.

(o) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit the filing by a support obligor of a petition for an order to show cause to modify a support judgment or order or to fix a payment schedule on arrearages accruing under a support judgment or order.

(p) The procedures specified in the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code) are not applicable to the denial or failure to renew a license, certificate, or registration pursuant to this section.

(q) In furtherance of the public policy of increasing child support enforcement and collections, the State Department of Social Services shall report on July 1, 1995, to the Legislature and the Governor on all of the following:

(1) The number of delinquent obligors certified by the district attorneys under this section.

(2) The number of support obligors who also were licensees subject to this section.

(3) The number of new licenses and renewals that were delayed and temporary licenses issued subject to this section, and the number of license renewals granted following board receipts of district attorney's releases as provided by the Department of Consumer Affairs by May 1, 1993.

(4) The costs incurred in the implementation and enforcement of this section.

(r) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. Section 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Senate Bill 101 of the 1991–92 Regular Session, is amended to read:

11478.5. (a) There is in the Department of Justice the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry which shall collect and disseminate all of the following, with respect to any parent who has deserted or abandoned any child, spouse, or former spouse, and with respect to any parent who has abducted any child:

(1) The full and true name of such parent together with any known aliases.

(2) Date and place of birth.

(3) Physical description.

(4) Social security number.

(5) Employment history and earnings.

(6) Military status and Veterans Administration or military service serial number.

(7) Last known address, telephone number, and date thereof.

(8) Driver's license number, driving record, and vehicle registration information.

(9) Criminal, licensing, and applicant records and information.

(10) (A) Any additional location, asset, and income information, including income tax return information obtained pursuant to Section 19285.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and the address, telephone number, and social security information obtained from a public utility that may be of assistance in locating the alleged abducting or absent parent, spouse, or former spouse, in establishing a parent and child relationship, in enforcing the child support liability of the absent parent, or enforcing the spousal support liability of the spouse or former spouse to the extent required by the state plan pursuant to Section 11475.2.

(B) For purposes of this subdivision "income tax return information" means all of the following regarding the taxpayer:

(i) Assets.

(ii) Credits.

(iii) Deductions.

(iv) Exemptions.

(v) Identity.

(vi) Liabilities.

(vii) Nature, source, and amount of income.

(viii) Net worth.

(ix) Payments.

(x) Receipts.

(xi) Address.

(xii) Social security number.

(b) To effectuate the purposes of this section, the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry shall, to the extent necessary, utilize the federal parent locator service, and may request and shall receive from all departments, boards, bureaus, or other agencies of the state, or any of its political subdivisions, and the same are authorized to provide that assistance and data which will enable the Department of Justice and public agencies to carry out their powers and duties to locate the parents, spouses, and former spouses, and to identify their assets, to establish a parent and child relationship, to enforce their liability for child or spousal support of their children, for any other obligations incurred on behalf of their children, and to locate and return abducted children to their parents.

(c) (1) To effectuate the purposes of this section, and notwithstanding any other provision of California law, regulation, or tariff, and to the extent permitted by federal law, the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry may request and shall receive from public utilities, as defined in Section 216 of the Public Utilities Code, customer service information, including the full name, address, telephone number, date of birth, and social security number of customers of the public utility, to the extent that this information is stored within the computer data base of the public utility.

(2) In order to protect the privacy of utility customers, a request to a public utility for customer service information pursuant to this section shall meet the following requirements:

(A) Be submitted to the public utility in writing, on a transmittal document prepared by the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry and approved by all of the public utilities.

(B) Have the signature of a representative authorized by the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry.

(C) Contain at least three of the following data elements regarding the person sought:

(i) First and last name, and middle initial, if known.

(ii) Social security number.

(iii) Driver's license number.

(iv) Birth date.

(v) Last known address.

(vi) Spouse's name.

(D) The California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry shall ensure that each public utility has at all times a current list of the names of persons authorized to request customer service information.

(E) The California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry shall ensure that customer service information supplied by a public utility is applicable to the person who is being sought before releasing the information pursuant to subdivision (d).

(3) The public utility may charge a fee to the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry for each search performed pursuant to this subdivision to cover the actual costs to the public utility for providing this information.

(4) No public utility, or official or employee thereof, shall be subject to criminal or civil liability for the release of customer service information as authorized by this subdivision.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 14202 of the Penal Code, any records established pursuant to this section shall be disseminated only to the Department of Justice, the central registry of this state and other states as defined by federal law and regulations, district attorneys, probation departments, locator services of other states, the federal parent locator service and official child support enforcement agencies, the county department administering aid to families with dependent children, and courts or local agencies having jurisdiction in support, custody, abduction, adoption, dependency, or abandonment proceedings or actions, or reimbursement proceedings for the support of juveniles who are in out-of-home placement for the purposes set out in Section 11478 and this section.

(e) (1) At no time shall any information received by the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry be disclosed to any person, agency, or other entity, other than those persons, agencies, and entities specified pursuant to Section 11478, this section, or any other provision of law.

(2) This subdivision shall not affect the right to discovery between parties in any action to establish, modify, or enforce child support, spousal support, or family support.

(f) (1) The Department of Justice, in consultation with the State Department of Social Services, shall promulgate rules and regulations to facilitate maximum and efficient use of the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry.

(2) The Department of Justice, in consultation with the State Department of Social Services and the Public Utilities Commission, shall develop procedures for obtaining the information described in subdivision (c) from public utilities, and for compensating the public utilities for providing that information.

(g) The State Department of Social Services and the Department of Justice shall implement the provisions of this section regarding public utilities, as defined by Section 216 of the Public Utilities Code, only where there is a reasonable likelihood that the costs of obtaining customer service information from public utilities pursuant to this section would be less than the additional collections obtained through use of that information.

(h) This section shall be construed in a manner consistent with the other provisions of this article.

SEC. 7. Section 11478.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Senate Bill 101 of the 1991–92 Regular Session, is amended to read:

11478.8. (a) Upon receipt of a written request from a district attorney enforcing the obligation of parents to support their children pursuant to Section 11475.1, every employer and labor organization shall cooperate with and provide relevant employment and income information which they have in their possession to the district attorney for the purpose of establishing, modifying, or enforcing the support obligation. No employer or labor organization shall incur any liability for providing this information to the district attorney.

Relevant employment and income information shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Whether a named person has or has not been employed by an employer or whether a named person has or has not been employed to the knowledge of the labor organization.

(2) The full name of the employee or member or the first and middle initial and last name of the employee or member.

(3) The employee's or member's last known residence address.

(4) The employee's or member's date of birth.

(5) The employee's or member's social security number.

(6) The dates of employment.

(7) All earnings paid to the employee or member and reported as W-2 compensation in the prior tax year and the employee's or member's current basic rate of pay.

(8) Whether the dependent health insurance coverage is available to the employee through employment or membership in the labor organization.

The district attorney shall notify the employer and labor organization of the district attorney case file number in making a request pursuant to this section. The written request shall include at least three of the following elements regarding the person who is the subject of the inquiry: (A) first and last name and middle initial, if known; (B) social security number; (C) driver's license number; (D) birth date; (E) last known address; or (F) spouse's name.

The district attorney shall send a notice that a request for this information has been made to the last known address of the person who is the subject of the inquiry.

(b) An employer or labor organization which fails to provide relevant employment information to the district attorney within 20 days of receiving a request pursuant to subdivision (a) may be assessed a civil penalty of a maximum of five hundred dollars ($500), plus attorneys' fees and costs. Proceedings to impose the civil penalty shall be commenced by the filing and service of an order to show cause.

(c) "Labor organization," for the purposes of this section means a labor organization as defined in Section 1117 of the Labor Code or any related benefit trust fund covered under the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (Chapter 18 (commencing with Section 1001) of Title 29 of the United States Code).

(d) Any reference to the district attorney in this section shall apply only when the district attorney is otherwise ordered or required to act pursuant to existing law. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to mandate additional enforcement or collection duties upon the district attorney beyond those imposed under existing law on the effective date of this section.

SEC. 8. Sections 11 and 12 of Senate Bill 101, of the 1990–91 Regular Session, shall become operative on July 1, 1992, except that the study required by subdivision (b) of Section 4720.1 of the Civil Code shall not be due until December 31, 1992.

SEC. 9. This act shall become operative only if Senate Bill 101 of the 1991–92 Regular Session is enacted and becomes operative.

CHAPTER 543

An act to amend Sections 22114, 22127.1, 22238, 22401.6, and 22909 of, to add Sections 22004.2 and 22403.1 to, and to repeal Section 22401.5 of, the Education Code, relating to the State Teachers' Retirement System, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22004.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

22004.2. (a) With respect to members with membership effective dates of December 31, 1989, and earlier, benefit enhancements due to a plan amendment enacted after October 14, 1987, are subject to the limitations imposed by Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) With respect to members with membership effective dates of January 1, 1990, and later, retirement benefits, including enhancements due to a plan amendment, are subject to the limitations imposed by Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 2. Section 22114 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22114. (a) "Compensation" and "salary" mean:

(1) Remuneration in cash payable by the employer to the member.

(2) Any member contributions paid by the employer pursuant to Sections 23000.1 and 23000.5.

(3) Any amount deducted from the member's salary for payment to one other than the member for the purpose of purchasing an annuity contract for the member under an annuity plan which meets the requirements of Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. Sec. 403(b)).

(4) Any amount deducted from a member's wages for participation in a deferred compensation plan established pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 19993) of Part 2.6 of Division 5 of Title 2, or pursuant to Article 1.1 (commencing with Section 53212) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5, of the Government Code.

(5) Any amount deducted from the member's salary for payment for participation in a voluntary tax-deferred retirement plan which meets the requirements of Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. Sec. 401(k)).

(6) Any other payments the board may determine to be "compensation" and "salary."

(b) "Compensation" and "salary" do not mean, and shall not include, any of the following:

(1) Job-related expenses.

(2) Money paid to the employee for overtime service on and after July 1, 1956.

(3) Compensatory damages and money paid to the member in excess of regular salary as a compromise settlement of a dispute arising from termination of a member's employment contract.

(4) Lump-sum payments for accumulated sick leave or accumulated vacation leave.

(5) Money paid for summer school employment.

(6) Money paid as a bonus; for purposes of this part, a bonus is a payment made only to a selected employee or employees and not to the entire class of employees on a systematic basis.

(7) Tax-sheltered annuity contributions which do not result in a reduction of the earned contract salary paid to the employee.

(8) Fringe benefits paid for by the employer in lieu of salary.

(9) Money not available for payment of salaries and which is applied by an employer for the purchase of annuity contracts or for other insurance programs, including those which meet the requirements of Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(10) Money not available for payment of salaries and which is applied by an employer for the purchase of a tax-deferred retirement plan which meets the requirements of Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(11) Money paid as a stipend to mentor teachers pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 44494.

(12) Any other payments the board may determine not to be "compensation" and "salary."

(c) Any moneys paid under paragraphs (1) to (12), inclusive, of subdivision (b), shall not be included as a part of the member's compensation subject to contributions reported to the system.

(d) The system may establish procedures to ensure that information reported by employers is in compliance with this section.

(e) The Legislature finds and declares that any person who willfully reports compensation in a manner inconsistent with the definitions set forth in this section may be subject to prosecution for fraud, theft, or embezzlement under the Penal Code.

SEC. 3. Section 22127.1 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22127.1. (a) Notwithstanding the first and second paragraphs of Section 22127, "final compensation" means the highest annual compensation earnable by a member who is a classroom teacher who retires, becomes disabled, or dies, after June 30, 1990, during any period of 12 consecutive months during his or her membership in the system. The last 12 consecutive months of employment shall be used by the system in determining final compensation unless designated to the contrary in writing by the member.

(b) Section 22127, except the first paragraph thereof, shall apply to classroom teachers who retire after June 30, 1990, and any statutory reference to Section 22127 or "final compensation" with respect to a classroom teacher who retires, becomes disabled, or dies, after June 30, 1990, shall be deemed to be a reference to this section.

(c) As used in this section, "classroom teacher" means:

(1) All teachers and substitute teachers in positions requiring certification qualifications who spend, during the last 10 years of their employment with the same employer which immediately precedes their retirement, 60 percent or more of their contract time each year providing direct instruction. For the purpose of determining continuity of employment within the meaning of this subdivision, an authorized leave of absence for sabbatical or illness, or other bargained or employer approved leaves shall not constitute a break in employment.

(2) Other certificated personnel who spend, during the last 10 years of their employment with the same employer which immediately precedes their retirement, 60 percent or more of their contract time each year providing direct services to pupils, including, but not limited to, librarians, counselors, nurses, speech therapists, resource specialists, audiologists, audiometrists, hygienists, optometrists, psychologists, driver safety instructors, and personnel on special assignment to perform school attendance and adjustment services.

(d) As used in this section, "classroom teacher" does not include:

(1) Certificated employees whose job descriptions require an administrative credential.

(2) Certificated employees whose job descriptions include responsibility for supervision of certificated staff.

(3) Certificated employees who serve as advisers, coordinators, consultants, or developers or planners of curricula, instructional materials, or programs, who spend, during the last 10 years of their employment with the same employer which immediately precedes their retirement, less than 60 percent of their contract time in direct instruction.

(4) Certificated employees whose job descriptions require provision of direct instruction or services, but who are functioning in nonteaching assignments.

(5) Classified employees.

(e) This section shall apply only to teachers employed by an employer which has, pursuant to Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 3540) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, entered into a written agreement with an exclusive representative, which makes this section applicable to all of its classroom teachers, as defined in subdivision (c).

(f) The written agreement shall include a mechanism to pay for all increases in benefits and allowances provided for by this section through employer contributions or employee contributions or both, which shall be collected and retained by the employer in a trust fund to be used solely and exclusively to pay the system for all increases in benefits and allowance provided by this section and related administrative costs, a mechanism for disposition of the employee's contributions if employment is terminated before retirement, and for the establishment of a trust fund board. The trust fund board shall administer the trust fund and shall be composed of an equal number of members representing classroom teachers and the employer. The members representing the classroom teachers shall be named by the bargaining agent. If the employer agrees to pay the total cost of the benefit improvement, the establishment of a trust fund and a trust fund board shall be optional to the employer. The employer, within 30 days of receiving an invoice from the system, shall reimburse the system the amount determined by the Teachers' Retirement Board to be equal to the actuarial equivalent of the difference between the allowance the member or beneficiary receives pursuant to this section and the allowance the member or beneficiary would have received if the member's final compensation had been computed under Section 22127 and the proportionate share of the cost to the system, as determined by the Teachers' Retirement Board, of administering this section. The payment shall include the cost of all increases in benefits and allowances provided for by this section for all years of service credited to the member as of the benefit effective date. Interest shall be charged at the regular interest rate for any payment not received within 30 days of the receipt of the invoice. Payments not received within 30 days after receipt of the invoice may be collected pursuant to Section 23007.

(g) Upon the execution of the agreement, the employer shall notify all certificated employees of the agreement and any certificated employee of the employer, who is in the Public Employees' Retirement System pursuant to Section 22608, that he or she may, within 90 days following the date of notification, elect to terminate his or her membership in the Public Employees' Retirement System and become a member of this system. However, only service credited under this system subsequent to the date of that election shall be subject to this section.

(h) An employer which agrees to become subject to this section, shall, on a form and within the timeframes prescribed by the system, certify the eligibility of an employee, upon retirement or eligibility for a disability or family allowance, pursuant to the criteria set forth in this section.

(i) For a nonmember spouse, final compensation shall be determined pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 22658. The employer, within 30 days of receiving an invoice from the system, shall reimburse the system pursuant to subdivision (f). Interest shall be charged at the regular interest rate for payment not received within the prescribed timeframe. Payments not received within 30 days of invoicing may be collected pursuant to Section 23007.

SEC. 4. Section 22238 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22238. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may, pursuant to Section 22222 and in conformance with its fiduciary duty as set forth in Section 22225.5, enter into correspondent agreements with private lending institutions in this state to utilize the retirement fund to assist system members currently employed in positions requiring or permitting membership in the system, inactive members, disabilitants, and retirants, through financing, to obtain homes in this state.

The terms and conditions of the correspondent agreements shall address all of the following:

(a) That home loans be made available to eligible currently employed members, inactive members, disabilitants, and retirants for the purchase of single-family dwellings, two-family dwellings, three-family dwellings, four-family dwellings, single-family cooperative apartments, and single-family condominiums.

(b) That the private lending institution shall originate and service these home loans.

(c) That the recipients of the loans occupy the homes as their permanent residences pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the board or as these terms are defined in the correspondent agreements.

(d) That home loans shall be available only for the purchase of homes in this state.

(e) That the amount and length of the loans shall include terms and conditions that set a loan to value ratio of: (1) for the first loan, except for three-family dwellings and four-family dwellings, a maximum of 95 percent of the first loan; (2) for the first loan on three-family dwellings and four-family dwellings, a maximum of 90 percent of the first loan; and (3) for each additional loan, a maximum of 80 percent of each additional loan. The portion of any loan exceeding 80 percent of value shall be insured by an admitted mortgage guaranty insurer conforming to the provisions of Chapter 2A (commencing with Section 12640.01) of Part 6 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code in an amount so that the unguaranteed portion of the loan does not exceed 75 percent of the market value of the property together with improvements thereon.

(f) That there may be prepayment penalties assessed on loans, the terms and conditions of which shall be set forth in the correspondent agreement.

(g) That the criteria and terms for loans shall provide the greatest benefit to eligible members, inactive members, disabilitants, and retirants consistent with the financial integrity of the program and the sound investment of the retirement fund.

(h) That loans shall not be made at a rate lower than the market rate.

(i) Any other terms and conditions as the parties to the correspondent agreement may deem appropriate.

(j) This section shall be known as, and may be cited as, the Dave Elder State Teachers' Retirement System Member Home Loan Program Act.

SEC. 5. Section 22401.5 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 22401.6 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22401.6. An application for a retirement allowance, an application for an election, change, or cancellation of a preretirement option, an application for the withdrawal of accumulated annuity deposit contributions, and an application for a refund of the member's accumulated contributions shall contain the signature of the spouse of the member, unless the member declares, in writing, under penalty of perjury, that either: (a) the member does not know, and has taken all reasonable steps to determine, the whereabouts of the spouse; (b) the spouse is incapable of executing the acknowledgement because of an incapacitating mental or physical condition; (c) the member and spouse have executed a marriage settlement agreement pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 5133) of Title 8 of Part 5 of Division 4 of the Civil Code which makes the community property law inapplicable to the marriage; (d) the member is not married; or (e) the current spouse has no identifiable community property interest in the benefit.

If a spouse refuses to sign an application, the member may bring an action in court to enforce the spousal signature requirement or to waive the spousal signature requirement. Either party may bring an action pursuant to Section 5125.1 of the Civil Code to determine the rights of the party.

The sole purpose of this section is to provide for spousal protection in the selection of specified benefits made by a member.

SEC. 7. Section 22403.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

22403.1. Each employing agency shall provide the system with copies of documents respecting the compensation to be paid to employees in that school year. The documents shall be submitted annually as determined by the board and may include, but shall not be limited to, employment contracts, salary schedules, and local board minutes.

SEC. 8. Section 22909 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22909. Notwithstanding Section 22225.5, 22225.52, or 22225.53, a member shall not be required to pay contributions to receive credit for service under Section 22907 in any of the following events:

(a) The service was performed after September 15, 1940, and the member returned to a position requiring membership in this system prior to March 19, 1948.

(b) The service was performed prior to January 1, 1950, and the member was continuously performing that service prior to that date and returned to a position requiring membership in this system within six months following the termination of that service.

(c) The service was performed prior to September 14, 1978, and the member entered that service after December 31, 1949, and returned to a position requiring membership in this system within six months following the termination of that service.

(d) The service was performed prior to January 1, 1992, and the member entered that service after August 1, 1990, and retired or returned to a position requiring membership in this system and earned additional service credit within six months following the termination of that service or within six months after the completion of any period of rehabilitation offered by the United States government, excluding rehabilitation solely for educational purposes. Notwithstanding Section 22225.5, 22225.51, or 22225.53, the school districts, community college districts, or other agencies employing those members shall not be required to make the contributions required by Chapter 15 (commencing with Section 23400) of this part.

SEC. 9. (a) The Teachers' Retirement Board may establish two full-time positions, as required, to implement Section 22403.1 of the Education Code.

(b) There is hereby appropriated the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) from the Teachers' Retirement Fund to the Teachers' Retirement Board for expenditure for the purposes of subdivision (a).

CHAPTER 544

An act to amend Sections 20013.6, 21100.5, 21251.14, and 21360 of, to add Sections 20954 and 21239 to, and to add Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 20960) to Chapter 8 of Part 3 of Division 5 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20013.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20013.6. Except as otherwise expressly provided, and notwithstanding Section 20035, state miscellaneous members participating in reduced worktime for partial service retirement pursuant to Article 1.7 (commencing with Section 19996.30) of Chapter 7 of Part 2.6 or local members participating in reduced worktime for partial service retirement pursuant to Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 20960) of Chapter 8 of this part, shall be considered members and shall not be considered retired, until they elect to become fully retired.

SEC. 2. Section 20954 is added to the Government Code, to read:

20954. A local member shall be partially retired for service upon his or her written application to the board if he or she has elected to participate in partial service retirement pursuant to Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 20960), provided, he or she is credited with (a) 20 years of state service with an attained age of 50 years or (b) the necessary years of service with the necessary attained age for retirement and the sum of his or her age, when added to his or her service, equals or exceeds 65 years.

This section shall not apply to a contracting agency or its employees unless and until the contracting agency elects to be subject to it by amendment to its contract made in a manner prescribed for approval of contracts or in the case of a new contract, by express provision of the contract. The operative date of this section with respect to a local member shall be the effective date of the amendment to his or her employer's contract electing to be subject to this section.

SEC. 3. Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 20960) is added to Chapter 8 of Part 3 of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 1.5. Reduced Worktime for Partial Service Retirement

20960. It is the intent of the Legislature that reduced worktime for partial service retirement may, at the discretion of a public agency employer, be made available to public agency employees eligible pursuant to Section 20961 who do not desire to work standard working hours on a full-time basis.

20961. Any public agency employee, who is a local member of the system working standard hours on a full-time basis, and who is eligible to retire pursuant to Section 20954 may elect to participate in reduced worktime for partial service retirement pursuant to this article.

20962. "Reduced worktime for partial service retirement" means any arrangement of worktime agreeable to both the public agency employer and the employee which aggregates no less, on a monthly basis, than a 20 percent reduction nor more than a 60 percent reduction from what would in that position be considered full-time employment, combined with the concurrent payment of proportionally reduced compensation and proportionally reduced retirement benefits.

20963. (a) A public agency employee who voluntarily reduces his or her worktime for partial service retirement pursuant to this article, and who subsequently returns to a full-time work schedule pursuant to the policy of the public agency employer, shall be ineligible for five years thereafter to again participate pursuant to this article. The public agency employer may require a participating employee to return to full-time employment only in the event of an emergency requiring his or her full-time service.

(b) A public agency employee who is participating pursuant to this article in reduced worktime for partial service retirement may: (1) elect only once in each fiscal year to further reduce his or her worktime; (2) elect only once in five years to increase his or her worktime to another less than full-time schedule.

20964. All persons employed in reduced worktime positions for partial service retirement pursuant to this article shall receive proportionally reduced compensation and, on a pro rata basis, all benefits customarily available to full-time employees of a public agency in similar classes or positions in accordance with the personnel policies of the public agency employer or pursuant to provisions of a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to the Meyers-Milias-Brown Act.

20965. A public agency employer may elect to make this article applicable to the agency and if it does so, the public agency employer shall establish such other personnel policies or guidelines as required for the administration of the reduced worktime for partial retirement program within the agency.

SEC. 4. Section 21100.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21100.5. A person who has been partially retired under this system pursuant to Article 1.7 (commencing with Section 19996.30) of Chapter 7 of Part 2.6 or pursuant to Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 20960) of Chapter 8 of this part may be reinstated from partial retirement by the board as provided in this article, and thereafter may continue to be employed on a full-time basis by the state, in the same manner as a person who has not been so retired.

SEC. 5. Section 21239 is added to the Government Code, to read:

21239. Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 21220) of Chapter 9 shall not apply to an employee who is participating in reduced worktime for partial service retirement.

SEC. 6. Section 21251.14 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21251.14. (a) A member who elects, pursuant to Article 1.7 (commencing with Section 19996.30) of Chapter 7 of Part 2.6 or pursuant to Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 20960) of Chapter 8 of this part, to participate in partial service retirement, while so participating, shall receive a reduced service retirement allowance. The reduced service retirement allowance shall be the amount of the service retirement allowance to which the employee would otherwise have been entitled had he or she fully retired on the effective date of the partial service retirement, reduced by the percentage of the employee's full-time work which the employee has elected to work while on partial service retirement.

(b) Article 4 (commencing with Section 21330) of Chapter 9 shall not apply to an employee who is participating in reduced worktime for partial service retirement.

(c) For a member who elects pursuant to Article 1.7 (commencing with Section 19996.30) of Chapter 7 of Part 2.6 or pursuant to Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 20960) of Chapter 8 of this part to become fully retired, the current service pension, or current and prior service pensions, as the case may be, upon his or her full service retirement shall be (1) the sum of a current service pension calculated on the basis of service rendered during participation in reduced worktime in accordance with the formula applicable to his or her current service pension, plus his or her current service pension, or current and prior service pensions, as the case may be, as it was prior to his or her full service retirement, provided, that full service retirement occurs before he or she renders, while participating in reduced worktime for partial service retirement, one year of state service credited under this system; or (2) if he or she has rendered one year or more of such state service while participating in reduced worktime for partial service retirement, a current service pension, or current and prior service pensions, as the case may be, based on the total years of service with which the member is entitled to be credited, calculated on the basis of the formula currently applicable to the employment in which the service was rendered. A member shall receive service credit for service during participation in reduced worktime for partial retirement and service credited at the time of the election to participate in reduced worktime for partial retirement.

SEC. 7. Section 21360 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21360. (a) This system is liable for either the basic or special death benefit upon the death of a member in the following circumstances:

(1) Before the effective date of retirement, and (A) while in state service, or (B) while absent on military service, provided the member has made contributions during the absence under Section 20892.5 or has had contributions made on his or her behalf under Section 20894.5, or (C) within four months after discontinuance of state service, or (D) while on an approved leave of absence, or (E) while physically or mentally incapacitated for the performance of duty, if such incapacity has been continuous from discontinuance of state service, or (F) while employed as a member of a retirement system established under the County Employees Retirement Law of 1937 (Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 31450) of Part 3 of Division 4 of Title 3); provided, such employment resulting in membership was begun on or after October 1, 1957, and within 90 days after discontinuance of state service; or

(2) While in state service in partial service retirement pursuant to Article 1.7 (commencing with Section 19996.30) of Chapter 7 of Part 2.6 or Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 20960) of Chapter 8 of this part; or

(3) On or after the effective date of retirement and before the mailing of a retirement allowance warrant and either within four months of discontinuance of state service or while physically or mentally incapacitated for the performance of duty if such incapacity has been continuous from discontinuance of state service, and providing all of the following conditions exist: (A) the retirement of the member was not compulsory under Article 2 (commencing with Section 20980) of Chapter 8, and (B) the member has not elected optional settlement 2 or 3 or an optional settlement 4 involving payment of an allowance throughout the life of a beneficiary under Article 4 (commencing with Section 21330) of Chapter 9, and (C) a partially continued allowance under Sections 21263 to 21263.6, inclusive, is not payable.

(b) This system is liable for a limited death benefit, which consists only of the accumulated contributions of the member payable to his or her beneficiary or estate, under the following circumstances:

(1) Upon the death of a member before the effective date of his or her retirement or, with respect to (A) any member whose retirement was not compulsory under Article 2 (commencing with Section 20980) of Chapter 8, and (B) any member who has not elected optional settlement 2 or 3 or an optional settlement 4 involving payment of an allowance throughout the life of a beneficiary under Article 4 (commencing with Section 21330) of Chapter 9, on or after that effective date and before the mailing of the first retirement allowance warrant, and

(2) Under those circumstances in which this system is not liable for either the basic or special death benefit provided in subdivision (a) of this section, and a partially continued allowance under Sections 21263 to 21263.6, inclusive, is not payable.

(c) Liability imposed on this system with respect to the death of a member while on approved leave of absence by amendment to this section enacted during the 1965 Regular Session shall extend to death of members occurring on or after July 1, 1964, and to any benefit for which there would have been liability with respect to the death had that amendment been effective on that date.

SEC. 8. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 545

An act to amend Section 2011 of the Corporations Code, relating to corporations.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2011 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

2011. (a) (1) Causes of action against a dissolved corporation, whether arising before or after the dissolution of the corporation, may be enforced against any of the following:

(A) Against the dissolved corporation, to the extent of its undistributed assets, including, without limitation, any insurance assets held by the corporation that may be available to satisfy claims.

(B) If any of the assets of the dissolved corporation have been distributed to shareholders, against shareholders of the dissolved corporation to the extent of their pro rata share of the claim or to the extent of the corporate assets distributed to them upon dissolution of the corporation, whichever is less.

A shareholder's total liability under this section may not exceed the total amount of assets of the dissolved corporation distributed to the shareholder upon dissolution of the corporation.

(2) Except as set forth in subdivision (c), all causes of action against a shareholder of a dissolved corporation arising under this section are extinguished unless the claimant commences a proceeding to enforce the cause of action against that shareholder of a dissolved corporation prior to the earlier of the following:

(A) The expiration of the statute of limitations applicable to the cause of action.

(B) Four years after the effective date of the dissolution of the corporation.

(3) As a matter of procedure only, and not for purposes of determining liability, shareholders of the dissolved corporation may be sued in the corporate name of the corporation upon any cause of action against the corporation. This section does not affect the rights of the corporation or its creditors under Section 2009, or the rights, if any, of creditors under the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, which may arise against the shareholders of a corporation.

(4) This subdivision applies to corporations dissolved on and after January 1, 1992. Corporations dissolved prior to that date are subject to the law in effect prior to that date.

(b) Summons or other process against such a corporation may be served by delivering a copy thereof to an officer, director or person having charge of its assets or, if no such person can be found, to any agent upon whom process might be served at the time of dissolution.

If none of such persons can be found with due diligence and it is so shown by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court, then the court may make an order that summons or other process be served upon the dissolved corporation by personally delivering a copy thereof, together with a copy of the order, to the Secretary of State or an assistant or deputy secretary of state. Service in this manner is deemed complete on the 10th day after delivery of the process to the Secretary of State.

(c) Every such corporation shall survive and continue to exist indefinitely for the purpose of being sued in any quiet title action. Any judgment rendered in any such action shall bind each and all of its shareholders or other persons having any equity or other interest in such corporation, to the extent of their interest therein, and such action shall have the same force and effect as an action brought under the provisions of Sections 410.50 and 410.60 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Service of summons or other process in any such action may be made as provided in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 413.10) of Title 5 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure or as provided in subdivision (b).

(d) Upon receipt of such process and the fee therefor, the Secretary of State forthwith shall give notice to the corporation as provided in Section 1702.

CHAPTER 546

An act to amend Sections 89511, 89513, 89514, 89515, 89516, 89517, 89518, and 89519 of, and to add Sections 89512.5 and 89522 to, the Government Code, relating to campaign funds.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 89511 of the Government Code is amended to read:

89511. (a) This article applies to campaign funds held by candidates for elective office, elected officers, controlled committees, ballot measure committees, committees opposed to a candidate or measure, and any committee which qualifies as a committee pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 82013.

(b) (1) For purposes of this chapter, "campaign funds" includes any contributions, cash, cash equivalents, and other assets received or possessed by a committee as defined by subdivision (a) of Section 82013.

(2) For purposes of this chapter, "committee" means a controlled committee, ballot measure committee, committee opposed to a candidate or measure, and any committee which qualifies as a committee pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 82013.

(3) For purposes of this chapter, "substantial personal benefit" means an expenditure of campaign funds which results in a direct personal benefit with a value of more than one hundred dollars ($100) to a candidate, elected officer, or any individual or individuals with authority to approve the expenditure of campaign funds held by a committee.

(4) For purposes of this article, "household" includes the candidate's or elected officer's spouse, dependent children, and parents who reside with the candidate or elected officer.

SEC. 2. Section 89512.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

89512.5. (a) Subject to the provisions of subdivision (b), any expenditure by a committee not subject to the trust imposed by subdivision (b) of Section 89510 shall be reasonably related to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose of the committee.

(b) Any expenditure by a committee that confers a substantial personal benefit on any individual or individuals with authority to approve the expenditure of campaign funds held by the committee, shall be directly related to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose of the committee.

SEC. 3. Section 89513 of the Government Code is amended to read:

89513. The following provisions govern the use of campaign funds for the specific expenditures set forth in this section. It is the intent of the Legislature that these provisions shall guide the interpretation of the standard imposed by Section 89512 as applied to other expenditures not specifically set forth below.

(a) Campaign funds shall not be used to pay or reimburse the candidate, the elected officer, or any individual or individuals with authority to approve the expenditure of campaign funds held by a committee, or employees or staff of the committee or the elected officer's governmental agency for travel expenses and necessary accommodations except when these expenditures are directly related to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose.

(1) For the purposes of this section, payments or reimbursements for travel and necessary accommodations shall be considered as directly related to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose if the payments would meet standards similar to the standards of the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to Sections 162 and 274 of the Internal Revenue Code for deductions of travel expenses under the federal income tax law.

(2) For the purposes of this section, payments or reimbursement for travel by the household of a candidate or elected officer when traveling to the same destination in order to accompany the candidate or elected officer shall be considered for the same purpose as the candidate's or elected officer's travel.

(3) Whenever campaign funds are used to pay or reimburse a candidate, elected officer, his or her representative, or a member of the candidate's household for travel expenses and necessary accommodations, the expenditure shall be reported as required by paragraph (7) of subdivision (j) of Section 84211.

(4) Whenever campaign funds are used to pay or reimburse for travel expenses and necessary accommodations, any mileage credit which is earned or awarded pursuant to an airline bonus mileage program shall be deemed personally earned by or awarded to the individual traveler. Neither the earning or awarding of mileage credit, nor the redeeming of credit for actual travel, shall be subject to reporting pursuant to Section 84211.

(b) Campaign funds shall not be used to pay for or reimburse the cost of professional services unless the services are directly related to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose.

(1) Expenditures by a committee to pay for professional services reasonably required by the committee to assist it in the performance of its administrative functions are directly related to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose.

(2) Campaign funds shall not be used to pay health-related expenses for a candidate, elected officer, or any individual or individuals with authority to approve the expenditure of campaign funds held by a committee, or members of his or her household. "Health-related expenses" include, but are not limited to, examinations by physicians, dentists, psychiatrists, psychologists, or counselors, expenses or medications, treatments or medical equipment, expenses for hospitalization, health club dues, and special dietary foods. However, campaign funds may be used to pay employer costs of health care benefits of a bona fide employee or independent contractor of the committee.

(c) Campaign funds shall not be used to pay or reimburse fines, penalties, judgments, or settlements, except those resulting from either of the following:

(1) Parking citations incurred in the performance of an activity which was directly related to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose.

(2) Any other action for which payment of attorney's fees from contributions would be permitted pursuant to this title.

(d) Campaign funds shall not be used for campaign, business, or casual clothing except specialty clothing that is not suitable for everyday use, including, but not limited to, formal wear, where this attire is to be worn by the candidate or elected officer and is directly related to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose.

(e) Except where otherwise prohibited by law, campaign funds may be used to purchase or reimburse for the costs of purchase of tickets to political fundraising events for the attendance of a candidate, elected officer, or his or her immediate family, or an officer, director, employee, or staff of the committee or the elected officer's governmental agency.

(1) Campaign funds shall not be used to pay for or reimburse for the costs of tickets for entertainment or sporting events for the candidate, elected officer, or members of his or her immediate family, or an officer, director, employee, or staff of the committee, unless their attendance at the event is directly related to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose.

(2) The purchase of tickets for entertainment or sporting events for the benefit of persons other than the candidate, elected officer, or his or her immediate family are governed by subdivision (f).

(f) (1) Campaign funds shall not be used to make personal gifts unless the gift is directly related to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose. The refund of a campaign contribution does not constitute the making of a gift.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit the use of campaign funds to reimburse or otherwise compensate a public employee for services rendered to a candidate or committee while on vacation, leave, or otherwise outside of compensated public time.

(2) An election victory celebration or similar campaign event, or gifts with a total cumulative value of less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) in a single year made to an individual employee, a committee worker, or an employee of the elected officer's agency, are considered to be directly related to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose. For purposes of this paragraph, a gift to a member of a person's immediate family shall be deemed to be a gift to that person.

(g) Campaign funds shall not be used to make loans other than to organizations pursuant to Section 89515, or, unless otherwise prohibited, to a candidate for elective office, political party, or committee.

SEC. 4. Section 89514 of the Government Code is amended to read:

89514. Expenditures of campaign funds for attorney's fees and other costs in connection with administrative, civil, or criminal litigation are not directly related to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose except where the litigation is directly related to activities of a committee that are consistent with its primary objectives or arises directly out of a committee's activities or out of a candidate's or elected officer's activities, duties, or status as a candidate or elected officer, including, but not limited to, an action to enjoin defamation, defense of an action to enjoin defamation, defense of an action brought for a violation of state or local campaign, disclosure, or election laws, and an action arising from an election contest or recount.

SEC. 5. Section 89515 of the Government Code is amended to read:

89515. Campaign funds may be used to make donations or loans to bona fide charitable, educational, civic, religious, or similar tax-exempt, nonprofit organizations, where no substantial part of the proceeds will have a material financial effect on the candidate, elected officer, campaign treasurer, or any individual or individuals with authority to approve the expenditure of campaign funds held by a committee, or member of his or her immediate family, and where the donation or loan bears a reasonable relation to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose.

SEC. 6. Section 89516 of the Government Code is amended to read:

89516. Notwithstanding Sections 89512 and 89513, this section governs the use of campaign funds for vehicle expenses.

(a) Campaign funds shall not be used to purchase a vehicle unless both of the following apply:

(1) Title to the vehicle is held by the committee and not the candidate, elected officer, campaign treasurer, or any other individual or individuals with authority to approve the expenditure of campaign funds held by a committee, or a member of his or her immediate family.

(2) The use of the vehicle is directly related to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose.

(b) Campaign funds shall not be used to lease a vehicle unless both of the following apply:

(1) The lessee is the committee, or a state or local government agency and not the candidate, elected officer, or a member of his or her immediate family; or the lessor is a state or local government agency.

(2) The use of the vehicle is directly related to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose.

(c) Campaign funds may be used to pay for or reimburse the operating costs, including, but not limited to, insurance, maintenance, and repairs, for any vehicle for which campaign funds may be spent pursuant to this section.

(d) Campaign funds may be used to reimburse a candidate, elected officer, his or her immediate family, or any individual or individuals with authority to approve the expenditure of campaign funds held by a committee, or an employee or member of the staff of the committee or of the elected officer's governmental agency, for the use of his or her vehicle at the rate approved by the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to Section 162 of the Internal Revenue Code in connection with deductible mileage expenses under the federal income tax law, if both of the following requirements are met:

(1) The vehicle use for which reimbursement is sought is directly related to political, governmental, or legislative purposes.

(2) The specific purpose and mileage in connection with each expenditure is documented in a manner approved by the Internal Revenue Service in connection with deductible mileage expenses.

(e) For the purposes of this section, use of a vehicle is considered to be directly related to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose as long as its use for other purposes is only incidental to its use for political, legislative, or governmental purposes.

SEC. 7. Section 89517 of the Government Code is amended to read:

89517. (a) Campaign funds shall not be used for payment or reimbursement for the lease of real property or for the purchase, lease, or refurbishment of any appliance or equipment, where the lessee or sublessor is, or the legal title resides, in whole or in part, in a candidate, elected officer, campaign treasurer, or any individual or individuals with authority to approve the expenditure of campaign funds, or member of his or her immediate family.

(b) Campaign funds shall not be used to purchase real property. Except as prohibited by subdivision (a), campaign funds may be used to lease real property for up to one year at a time where the use of that property is directly related to political, legislative, or governmental purposes.

(c) For the purposes of this section, real property, appliance, or equipment is considered to be directly related to a political, legislative, or governmental purpose as long as its use for other purposes is only incidental to its use for political, legislative, or governmental purposes.

SEC. 8. Section 89518 of the Government Code is amended to read:

89518. (a) Campaign funds shall not be used to compensate a candidate or elected officer for the performance of political, legislative, or governmental activities, except for reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses incurred for political, legislative, or governmental purposes.

(b) Campaign funds shall not be used to compensate any individual or individuals with authority to approve the expenditure of campaign funds for the performance of political, legislative, or governmental activities, except as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 89513 and for reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses incurred for political, legislative, or governmental purposes.

SEC. 9. Section 89519 of the Government Code is amended to read:

89519. Upon leaving any elected office, or at the end of the postelection reporting period following the defeat of a candidate for elective office, whichever occurs last, campaign funds raised after January 1, 1989, under the control of the former candidate or elected officer shall be considered surplus campaign funds and shall be disclosed pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 84100) and shall be used only for the following purposes:

(a) The payment of outstanding campaign debts or elected officer's expenses.

(b) The pro rata repayment of contributions.

(c) Donations to any bona fide charitable, educational, civic, religious, or similar tax-exempt, nonprofit organization, where no substantial part of the proceeds will have a material financial effect on the former candidate or elected officer, any member of his or her immediate family, or his or her campaign treasurer.

(d) Contributions to a political party or committee so long as the funds are not used to make contributions in support of or opposition to a candidate for elective office.

(e) Contributions to support or oppose any candidate for federal office, any candidate for elective office in a state other than California, or any ballot measure.

(f) The payment for professional services reasonably required by the committee to assist in the performance of its administrative functions, including payment for attorney's fees for litigation which arises directly out of a candidate's or elected officer's activities, duties, or status as a candidate or elected officer, including, but not limited to, an action to enjoin defamation, defense of an action brought of a violation of state or local campaign, disclosure, or election laws, and an action arising from an election contest or recount.

SEC. 10. Section 89522 is added to the Government Code, to read:

89522. This chapter shall not be construed to permit an expenditure of campaign funds prohibited by Section 29795 of the Elections Code.

SEC. 11. The Legislature finds and declares that this act furthers the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 547

An act to add Section 13975.1 to the Government Code, relating to the Commissioner of Corporations.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13975.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

13975.1. (a) This section applies to every action brought in the name of the people of the State of California by the Commissioner of Corporations before, on, or after the effective date of this section, when enforcing provisions of those laws administered by the Commissioner of Corporations which authorize the Commissioner of Corporations to seek a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandate, or the appointment of a receiver, monitor, conservator, or other designated fiduciary or officer of the court. Upon a proper showing, a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandate shall be granted and a receiver, monitor, conservator, or other designated fiduciary or officer of the court may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets, or any other ancillary relief may be granted as appropriate. The court may order that the expenses and fees of the receiver, monitor, conservator, or other designated fiduciary or officer of the court, be paid from the property held by the receiver, monitor, conservator, or other court designated fiduciary or officer, but neither the state, the Business, Transportation, and Housing Agency, nor the Department of Corporations shall be liable for any of those expenses and fees, unless expressly provided for by written contract.

(b) The receiver, monitor, conservator, or other designated fiduciary or officer of the court may do any of the following subject to the direction of the court:

(1) Sue for, collect, receive, and take into possession all the real and personal property derived by any unlawful means, including property with which that property or the proceeds thereof has been commingled if that property or the proceeds thereof cannot be identified in kind because of the commingling.

(2) Take possession of all books, records, and documents relating to any unlawfully obtained property and the proceeds thereof. In addition, they shall have the same right as a defendant to request, obtain, inspect, copy, and obtain copies of books, records, and documents maintained by third parties that relate to unlawfully obtained property and the proceeds thereof.

(3) Transfer, encumber, manage, control, and hold all property subject to the receivership, including the proceeds thereof, in the manner directed or ratified by the court.

(4) Avoid a transfer of any interest in any unlawfully obtained property including the proceeds thereof to any person who committed, aided or abetted, or participated in the commission of unlawful acts or who had knowledge that the property had been unlawfully obtained.

(5) Avoid a transfer of any interest in any unlawfully obtained property including the proceeds thereof made with the intent to hinder or delay the recovery of that property or any interest in it by the receiver or any person from whom the property was unlawfully obtained.

(6) Avoid a transfer of any interest in any unlawfully obtained property including the proceeds thereof that was made within one year before the date of the entry of the receivership order if less than a reasonably equivalent value was given in exchange for the transfer, except that a bona fide transferee for value and without notice that the property had been unlawfully obtained may retain the interest transferred until the value given in exchange for the transfer is returned to the transferee.

(7) Avoid a transfer of any interest in any unlawfully obtained property including the proceeds thereof made within 90 days before the date of the entry of the receivership order to a transferee from whom the defendant unlawfully obtained some property if (A) the receiver establishes that the avoidance of the transfer will promote a fair pro rata distribution of restitution among all people from whom defendants unlawfully obtained property and (B) the transferee cannot establish that the specific property transferred was the same property which had been unlawfully obtained from the transferee.

(8) Exercise any power authorized by statute or ordered by the court.

(c) No person with actual or constructive notice of the receivership shall interfere with the discharge of the receiver's duties.

(d) No person may file any action or enforce or create any lien, or cause to be issued, served, or levied any summons, subpoena, attachment, or writ of execution against the receiver or any property subject to the receivership without first obtaining prior court approval upon motion with notice to the receiver and the Commissioner of Corporations. Any legal procedure described in this subdivision commenced without prior court approval is void, except as to a bona fide purchaser or encumbrancer for value and without notice of the receivership. No person without notice of the receivership shall incur any liability for commencing or maintaining any legal procedure described by this subdivision.

(e) The court has jurisdiction of all questions arising in the receivership proceedings and may make any orders and judgments as may be required, including orders after noticed motion by the receiver to avoid transfers as provided in paragraphs (4), (5), (6), and (7) of subdivision (b).

(f) This section is cumulative to all other provisions of law.

(g) If any provision of this section or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this section which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this section are severable.

(h) The recordation of a copy of the receivership order imparts constructive notice of the receivership in connection with any matter involving real property located in the county in which the receivership order is recorded.

CHAPTER 548

An act to amend Sections 775, 775.5, and 782 of, and to repeal and add Section 780 of, the Harbors and Navigation Code, relating to vessels.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 775 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

775. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(1) Marine sanitation devices should be regulated pursuant to uniform standards and procedures, and California vessel owners should not be subject to any local or state regulation as to the type of marine sanitation devices installed on their vessels.

(2) The proper use of marine sanitation devices is critical to the protection of water quality throughout California, and use of marine sanitation devices is required to be in conformance with the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (33 U.S.C. Sec. 1321 et seq.).

(3) For proper utilization of retention-type marine sanitation devices installed in conformance with the federal Water Pollution Control Act and for the protection of the quality of the waters of this state, adequate vessel pumpout facilities are essential.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that every vessel with a toilet shall comply with federal standards for marine sanitation devices.

SEC. 2. Section 775.5 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

775.5. The definitions in this section govern the construction of this chapter:

(a) "Vessel terminal" means any private or public shoreside installation on any waters of this state which provides mooring, docking, berthing, and other facilities for the use of vessels.

(b) "Marine sanitation device" means any equipment on board a vessel which is designed to receive, retain, treat, or discharge sewage and any process to treat the sewage.

(c) "Promulgation date" means the date upon which the initial standards and regulations for marine sanitation devices are promulgated by an appropriate federal agency in accordance with Section 312 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended (33 U.S.C. Sec. 1322).

(d) "Sewage" means human body wastes and the wastes from toilets and other receptacles intended to receive or retain body waste.

(e) "Vessel" means every watercraft or other contrivance used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on the waters of the state, excepting foreign and domestic vessels engaged in interstate or foreign commerce upon the waters of the state.

(f) "State board" means the State Water Resources Control Board.

(g) "Regional board" means a California regional water quality control board.

(h) "Waters of this state" shall mean all waters of the state except waters beyond three nautical miles of any shore of the state.

(i) "Department" means the Department of Boating and Waterways.

(j) "No-discharge area" means a body of water designated as a no-discharge area under subsection (f) of Section 312 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (33 U.S.C. Sec. 1322 (f)).

(k) "Discharge" means spilling, leaking, pumping, pouring, emitting, emptying, or dumping.

(l) "Secured" means, for a marine sanitation device not approved for use in a no-discharge area, mechanically controlling valves or facilities in an identifiable manner to prevent any overboard discharge of sewage.

SEC. 3. Section 780 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 780 is added to the Harbors and Navigation Code, to read:

780. (a) No person shall disconnect, bypass, or operate a marine sanitation device so as to discharge sewage into the waters of this state, unless the particular discharge is expressly authorized or permitted pursuant to state or federal law or regulations. A violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor.

(b) The following prohibitions apply in no-discharge areas:

(1) No person shall disconnect, bypass, or operate a marine sanitation device so as to potentially discharge sewage.

(2) No person shall occupy or operate a vessel in which a marine sanitation device is installed unless the marine sanitation device is properly secured.

The first violation of this subdivision is an infraction. A second or subsequent violation of this subdivision by any one person is a misdemeanor.

SEC. 5. Section 782 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

782. (a) Excepting laws regulating the discharge of sewage into or upon the navigable waters of any lake, reservoir, or fresh water impoundment of this state, and notwithstanding the provisions of Section 660, no vessel, as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 775.5, shall be subject to any other state or local government law, ordinance, or regulation with respect to the design, manufacture, installation, or use within any vessel of any marine sanitation device.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, nothing in this chapter precludes or restricts a city, county, or other public agency from adopting rules and regulations with respect to the discharge of sewage from vessels.

(c) State and local peace officers may enforce state laws relating to marine sanitation devices and may inspect vessels if there is reasonable cause to suspect noncompliance with those laws.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 549

An act to amend Sections 2551, 2552, 2553, and 2556 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to highways, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2551 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

2551. (a) A service authority for freeway emergencies may be established in any county if the board of supervisors of the county and the city councils of a majority of the cities within the county having a majority of the population of cities within the county adopt resolutions providing for the establishment of the authority.

(b) The resolutions may designate the county transportation commission for the county, created pursuant to Division 12 (commencing with Section 130000) of the Public Utilities Code, as the service authority for freeway emergencies. The powers of a commission so designated are limited to those of the service authority.

(c) The Metropolitan Transportation Commission may function as the service authority for freeway emergencies in any or all of the Counties of Santa Clara, San Mateo, Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, Solano, Sonoma, Napa, and the City and County of San Francisco upon adoption of a resolution by the commission to act as a service authority and upon ratification of the commission's resolution in a particular county by the board of supervisors of the city and county or by the board of supervisors of the county and by the city councils of the cities within the county having a majority of the population of the cities within the county.

(d) The Sacramento Area Council of Governments may function as the service authority for freeway emergencies in any or all of the Counties of Sacramento, Yolo, Yuba, Sutter, and San Joaquin upon adoption of a resolution by the council to act as a service authority and upon ratification of the resolution in a particular county by the board of supervisors of the county and by the city councils of the cities within the county having a majority of the population of the cities within the county.

(e) As used in this chapter, "authority" and "service authority" mean a service authority for freeway emergencies created pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 1.5. Section 2551 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

2551. (a) A service authority for freeway emergencies may be established in any county if the board of supervisors of the county and the city councils of a majority of the cities within the county having a majority of the population of cities within the county adopt resolutions providing for the establishment of the authority.

(b) The resolutions may designate the county transportation commission for the county, created pursuant to Division 12 (commencing with Section 130000) of the Public Utilities Code or council of governments formed pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, as the service authority for freeway emergencies. The powers of a commission or council of governments so designated are limited to those of the service authority.

(c) The Metropolitan Transportation Commission may function as the service authority for freeway emergencies in any or all of the Counties of Santa Clara, San Mateo, Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, Solano, Sonoma, Napa, and the City and County of San Francisco upon adoption of a resolution by the commission to act as a service authority and upon ratification of the commission's resolution in a particular county by the board of supervisors of the city and county or by the board of supervisors of the county and by the city councils of the cities within the county having a majority of the population of the cities within the county.

(d) The Sacramento Area Council of Governments may function as the service authority for freeway emergencies in any or all of the Counties of Sacramento, Yolo, Yuba, Sutter, and San Joaquin upon adoption of a resolution by the council to act as a service authority and upon ratification of the resolution in a particular county by the board of supervisors of the county and by the city councils of the cities within the county having a majority of the population of the cities within the county.

(e) As used in this chapter, "authority" and "service authority" mean a service authority for freeway emergencies created pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 2552 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

2552. When the Metropolitan Transportation Commission or the Sacramento Area Council of Governments functions as the service authority for two or more counties, the revenues which it receives pursuant to Section 9250.10 of the Vehicle Code, after retention of amounts necessary to reimburse the commission or the council for its reasonable and necessary administrative costs, shall be expended for implementation, maintenance, and operation of a motorist aid system within those counties. The amount expended for each of those counties shall be in the same proportion as the revenues generated within the county bears to the total revenues received by the commission or the council. Expenditures may be made in a county in addition to revenues proportionately generated if the expenditures are approved by all of the donor county representatives on the service authority.

SEC. 3. Section 2553 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

2553. An authority, other than the Metropolitan Transportation Commission, the Sacramento Area Council of Governments, or a county transportation commission designated pursuant to Section 2551, shall have seven members, with two members selected by the board of supervisors and five members selected jointly by the city councils of cities within the county.

If the Metropolitan Transportation Commission functions as a service authority, it shall consist of all the members of the commission as set forth in Section 66503 of the Government Code.

If the Sacramento Area Council of Governments functions as a service authority, it shall consist of (a) all of the members of the board of directors of the council, as set forth in the Joint Powers Agreement of the Sacramento Area Council of Governments, dated October 21, 1980, pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, (b) one member representing San Joaquin County, and (c) one member representing the cities of San Joaquin County.

SEC. 3.5. Section 2553 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

2553. An authority, other than the Metropolitan Transportation Commission or a county transportation commission or a council of governments designated pursuant to Section 2551, shall have seven members, with two members selected by the board of supervisors and five members selected jointly by the city councils of cities within the county.

If the Metropolitan Transportation Commission functions as a service authority, it shall consist of all the members of the commission as set forth in Section 66503 of the Government Code.

If the Sacramento Area Council of Governments functions as a service authority, it shall consist of (a) all of the members of the board of directors of the council, as set forth in the Joint Powers Agreement of the Sacramento Area Council of Governments, dated October 21, 1980, pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, (b) one member representing San Joaquin County, and (c) one member representing the cities of San Joaquin County.

SEC. 4. Section 2556 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

2556. An existing service authority established by any of the counties or the city and county enumerated in subdivision (c) of Section 2551 may be merged into a service authority established by the Metropolitan Transportation Commission or by the Sacramento Area Council of Governments.

SEC. 5. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 2551 of the Streets and Highways Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1390. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1992, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 2551 of the Streets and Highways Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1390, in which case Section 2551 of the Streets and Highways Code, as amended by Section 1 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 1390, at which time Section 1.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 6. Section 3.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 2553 of the Streets and Highways Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1390. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1992, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 2553 of the Streets and Highways Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1390, in which case Section 2553 of the Streets and Highways Code, as amended by Section 3 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 1390, at which time Section 3.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that a service authority for freeway emergencies for the Counties of Sacramento, Yolo, Yuba, Sutter, and San Joaquin may begin functioning as soon as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 550

An act to amend Section 10149 of the Business and Professions Code, to amend Section 2079.8 of the Civil Code, and to amend Sections 2691, 2692, 2693, and 2705 of, and to add Sections 2692.1 and 2705.5 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to seismic safety.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10149 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

10149. (a) On or before January 1, 1992, the Seismic Safety Commission shall develop, adopt, and publish a Homeowner's Guide to Earthquake Safety for distribution to licensees for purposes of Section 2079.8 of the Civil Code and, upon request, to any member of the general public.

(b) In developing the guide, the Seismic Safety Commission shall consult with the Office of Emergency Services, the Division of Mines and Geology of the Department of Conservation, the Department of Real Estate, and other interested agencies and persons.

(c) The commission shall, to the extent possible, rely on currently available data to develop the guide. To the extent necessary, the commission may contract for the development and production of the guide. The commission shall update the contents of the guide whenever it determines that information within the guide is sufficiently inaccurate or incomplete so as to reduce the effectiveness of the guide. The commission shall charge a fee to cover the costs of production, distribution, development, and updating the guide.

(d) The guide shall include, but need not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Maps and information on geologic and seismic hazard conditions for all areas of the state.

(2) Explanations of the related structural and nonstructural hazards.

(3) Recommendations for mitigating the hazards of an earthquake.

(4) A statement that there are no guarantees of safety or damage prevention that can be made with respect to a major earthquake and that only precautions, such as retrofitting, can be taken to reduce the risk of various types of earthquake damage. For purposes of preparing the statement, the commission shall confer with insurers and design professional associations.

SEC. 2. Section 2079.8 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2079.8. (a) If a Homeowner's Guide to Earthquake Safety described in Section 10149 of the Business and Professions Code is delivered to a transferee in connection with the transfer of real property, including property specified in Section 1102 or under Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 2621) of Division 2 of the Public Resources Code, a seller or broker is not required to provide additional information concerning, and the information shall be deemed to be adequate to inform the transferee regarding, geologic and seismic hazards, in general, as described in the guide, that may affect real property and mitigating measures that the transferee or seller might consider.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), nothing in this section increases or decreases the duties, if any, of sellers or brokers, including, but not limited to, the duties of a seller or broker under this article, Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 1102) of Chapter 2 of Title 4 of Part 4 of Division 2, or under Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 2621) of Division 2 of the Public Resources Code, or alters the duty of a seller or broker to disclose the existence of known hazards on or affecting the real property.

SEC. 3. Section 2691 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

2691. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The effects of strong ground shaking, liquefaction, landslides, or other ground failure account for approximately 95 percent of economic losses caused by an earthquake.

(b) Areas subject to these processes during an earthquake have not been identified or mapped statewide, despite the fact that scientific techniques are available to do so.

(c) It is necessary to identify and map seismic hazard zones in order for cities and counties to adequately prepare the safety element of their general plans and to encourage land use management policies and regulations to reduce and mitigate those hazards to protect public health and safety.

SEC. 4. Section 2692 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

2692. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to provide for a statewide seismic hazard mapping and technical advisory program to assist cities and counties in fulfilling their responsibilities for protecting the public health and safety from the effects of strong ground shaking, liquefaction, landslides, or other ground failure and other seismic hazards caused by earthquakes.

(b) It is further the intent of the Legislature that maps and accompanying information provided pursuant to this chapter be made available to local governments for planning and development purposes.

(c) It is further the intent of the Legislature that the Division of Mines and Geology, in implementing this chapter, shall, to the extent possible, coordinate its activities with, and use existing information generated from, the special studies zones mapping program pursuant to Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 2621), the landslide hazard identification program pursuant to Chapter 7.7 (commencing with Section 2670), and the inundation maps prepared pursuant to Section 8589.5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 5. Section 2692.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

2692.1. The State Geologist may include in maps compiled pursuant to this chapter information on the potential effects of tsunami and seiche when information becomes available from other sources and the State Geologist determines the information is appropriate for use by local government. The State Geologist shall not be required to provide this information unless additional funding is provided both to make the determination and to distribute the tsunami and seiche information.

SEC. 6. Section 2693 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

2693. As used in this chapter:

(a) "City" and "county" includes the City and County of San Francisco.

(b) "Geotechnical report" means a report prepared by a certified engineering geologist or a civil engineer practicing within the area of his or her competence, which identifies seismic hazards and recommends mitigation measures to reduce the risk of seismic hazard to acceptable levels.

(c) "Mitigation" means those measures that are consistent with established practice and that will reduce seismic risk to acceptable levels.

(d) "Project" has the same meaning as in Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 2621), except as follows:

(1) A single-family dwelling otherwise qualifying as a project may be exempted by the city or county having jurisdiction of the project.

(2) "Project" does not include alterations or additions to any structure within a seismic hazard zone which do not exceed either 50 percent of the value of the structure or 50 percent of the existing floor area of the structure.

(e) "Commission" means the Seismic Safety Commission.

(f) "Board" means the State Mining and Geology Board.

SEC. 7. Section 2705 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

2705. (a) All counties and cities shall collect a fee from each applicant for a building permit. Each such fee shall be equal to a specific amount of the proposed building construction for which the building permit is issued as determined by the local building officials. The fee amount shall be assessed in the following way:

(1) Group R occupancies, as defined in the 1985 Uniform Building Code and adopted in Part 2 (commencing with Section 2-101) of Title 24 of the California Administrative Code, one to three stories in height, except hotels and motels, shall be assessed at the rate of ten dollars ($10) per one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), with appropriate fractions thereof. Of the amount assessed, three dollars ($3) per one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), with appropriate fractions thereof, shall be deposited in the Seismic Hazards Identification Fund.

(2) All other buildings shall be assessed at the rate of twenty-one dollars ($21) per one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), with appropriate fractions thereof. Of the amount assessed, six dollars ($6) per one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), with appropriate fractions thereof, shall be deposited in the Seismic Hazards Identification Fund.

(3) The fee shall be the amount assessed under paragraph (1) or (2), depending on building type, or fifty cents ($0.50), whichever is the higher.

(b) In lieu of the requirements of subdivision (a), a county or city may elect to include a rate of ten dollars ($10) per one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), with appropriate fractions thereof, in its basic building permit fee for any Group R occupancy defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), and a rate of twenty-one dollars ($21) per one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), with appropriate fractions thereof, for all other building types. If collection of the fee is made pursuant to this subdivision, the amount of the fees required to be deposited in the Strong-Motion Instrumentation Special Fund pursuant to Section 2706 shall be equal to the sum of 0.007 percent of the total valuation of any Group R occupancy defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), plus 0.015 percent of the total valuation of all other building types, for which building permits were issued during the accounting period. The remaining amount of fees shall be deposited in the Seismic Hazards Identification Fund pursuant to Section 2699.5. A county or city electing to collect the fee pursuant to this subdivision need not segregate the fees in a fund separate from any fund into which basic building permit fees are deposited.

"Building," for the purpose of this chapter, is any structure built for the support, shelter, or enclosure of persons, animals, chattels, or property of any kind.

(c) A city or county may retain up to 5 percent of the total amount it collects under subdivision (a) or (b) for data utilization and seismic education incorporating data interpretations from data of the strong-motion instrumentation program and the seismic hazards mapping program.

SEC. 8. Section 2705.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

2705.5. The Division of Mines and Geology shall advise all counties and cities as to that portion of the total fees charged pursuant to Section 2705 which is to be deposited in the Seismic Hazards Identification Fund, so that this information may be provided to building permit applicants.

CHAPTER 551

An act to amend Section 11365 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11365 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11365. (a) It is unlawful to visit or to be in any room or place where any controlled substances which are specified in subdivision (b), (c), or (e), or paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 11054, specified in paragraph (14), (15), or (20) of subdivision (d) of Section 11054, or specified in subdivision (b) or (c) or paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 11055, or which are narcotic drugs classified in Schedule III, IV, or V, are being unlawfully smoked or used with knowledge that such activity is occurring.

(b) This section shall apply only where the defendant aids, assists, or abets the perpetration of the unlawful smoking or use of a controlled substance specified in subdivision (a). This subdivision is declaratory of existing law as expressed in People v. Cressey (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 836.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 552

An act to add Section 1203.096 to the Penal Code, relating to sentencing.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1203.096 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1203.096. (a) Upon conviction of any felony in which the defendant is sentenced to state prison and in which the court makes the findings set forth in subdivision (b), a court shall, in addition to any other terms of imprisonment, fine, and conditions, recommend in writing that the defendant participate in a counseling or education program having a substance abuse component while imprisoned.

(b) The court shall make the recommendation specified in subdivision (a) if it finds that any of the following are true:

(1) That the defendant at the time of the commission of the offense was under the influence of any alcoholic beverages.

(2) That the defendant at the time of the commission of the offense was under the influence of any controlled substance.

(3) That the defendant has a demonstrated history of substance abuse.

(4) That the offense or offenses for which the defendant was convicted are drug related.

CHAPTER 553

An act to amend Sections 13550 and 13551 of, and to add Section 13552 to, the Water Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13550 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13550. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the use of potable domestic water for nonpotable uses, including, but not limited to, cemeteries, golf courses, parks, highway landscaped areas, and industrial and irrigation uses, is a waste or an unreasonable use of the water within the meaning of Section 2 of Article X of the California Constitution if reclaimed water is available which meets all of the following conditions, as determined by the state board, after notice to any person or entity who may be ordered to use reclaimed water or to cease using potable water and a hearing held pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 648) of Chapter 1.5 of Division 3 of Title 23 of the California Code of Regulations:

(1) The source of reclaimed water is of adequate quality for these uses and is available for these uses. In determining adequate quality, the state board shall consider all relevant factors, including, but not limited to, food and employee safety, and level and types of specific constituents in the reclaimed water affecting these uses, on a user-by-user basis. In addition, the state board shall consider the effect of the use of reclaimed water in lieu of potable water on the generation of hazardous waste and on the quality of wastewater discharges subject to regional, state, or federal permits.

(2) The reclaimed water may be furnished for these uses at a reasonable cost to the user. In determining reasonable cost, the state board shall consider all relevant factors, including, but not limited to, the present and projected costs of supplying , delivering, and treating potable domestic water for these uses and the present and projected costs of supplying and delivering reclaimed water for these uses, and shall find that the cost of supplying the treated reclaimed water is comparable to, or less than, the cost of supplying potable domestic water.

(3) After concurrence with the State Department of Health Services, the use of reclaimed water from the proposed source will not be detrimental to public health.

(4) The use of reclaimed water for these uses will not adversely affect downstream water rights, will not degrade water quality, and is determined not to be injurious to plantlife, fish, and wildlife.

(b) In making the determination pursuant to subdivision (a), the state board shall consider the impact of the cost and quality of the nonpotable water on each individual user.

(c) The state board may require a public agency or person subject to this article to furnish information which the state board determines to be relevant to making the determination required in subdivision (a).

SEC. 2. Section 13551 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13551. A person or public agency, including a state agency, city, county, city and county, district, or any other political subdivision of the state, shall not use water from any source of quality suitable for potable domestic use for nonpotable uses, including cemeteries, golf courses, parks, highway landscaped areas, and industrial and irrigation uses if suitable reclaimed water is available as provided in Section 13550; however, any use of reclaimed water in lieu of water suitable for potable domestic use shall, to the extent of the reclaimed water so used, be deemed to constitute a reasonable beneficial use of that water and the use of reclaimed water shall not cause any loss or diminution of any existing water right.

SEC. 3. Section 13552 is added to the Water Code, to read:

13552. The amendments to Sections 13550 and 13551 of the Water Code made during the first year of the 1991–92 Regular Session are not intended to alter any rights, remedies, or obligations which may exist prior to January 1, 1992, pursuant to, but not limited to, those sections or Chapter 8.5 (commencing with Section 1501) of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Public Utilities Code.

CHAPTER 554

An act making an appropriation for the payment of claims against the State of California, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to settle claims against the state and end hardship to claimants as quickly as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 555

An act to amend Section 19415.5 of, and to add Section 19442.2 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19415.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19415.5. "Split meeting" means a meeting having two periods of racing separated by at least 45 days, one period which is no more than 18 consecutive weeks in length and the other period which is no less than four consecutive weeks in length. The "short period" of a split meeting is the period of lesser duration.

SEC. 2. Section 19442.2 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19442.2. The board shall, if possible, designate at least one steward at each track where a horseracing meeting is conducted who is a former jockey or at least one steward at each track where a harness meeting is conducted who is a former driver.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the amendments made by this act to take effect during the 1991 racing season, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 556

An act to amend Section 640.5 of, and to add Section 640.6 to, the Penal Code, relating to graffiti.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 640.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

640.5. (a) Any person who writes, sprays, scratches, or otherwise affixes graffiti on or in the facilities or vehicles of a governmental entity, as defined by Section 811.2 of the Government Code, or on or in the facilities or vehicles of a public transportation system as defined by Section 99211 of the Public Utilities Code, or on or in the facilities of or vehicles operated by entities subsidized by, the Department of Transportation, or on or in any leased or rented facilities or vehicles for which any of the above entities incur costs of less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for cleanup, repair, or replacement is guilty of an infraction punishable by a fine not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) and by community service for a total time not to exceed 48 hours over a period not to exceed 30 days, during a time other than during his or her hours of school attendance or employment. This subdivision does not preclude application of Section 594.

(b) (1) Upon conviction of any person under subdivision (a), the court may, in addition to any punishment imposed pursuant to subdivision (a), at the victim's option, order the defendant to perform the necessary labor to clean up, repair, or replace the property damaged by that person, but shall not order the person to pay for any related costs incurred by the cleanup, repair, or replacement of the property.

(2) If a minor is personally unable to pay any fine levied for violating subdivision (a), the parent or legal guardian of the minor shall be liable for payment of the fine. A court may waive payment of the fine by the parent or legal guardian upon a finding of good cause.

(c) Any fine levied for a violation of subdivision (a) shall be credited by the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463.29 to the governmental entity having jurisdiction over, or responsibility for, the facility or vehicle involved, to be used for removal of the graffiti. Before crediting these fines to the appropriate governmental entity, the county may determine the administrative costs it has incurred pursuant to this section, and retain an amount equal to those costs.

Any community service which is required pursuant to subdivision (a) of a person under the age of 18 years may be performed in the presence, and under the direct supervision, of the person's parent or legal guardian.

(d) As used in this section, graffiti means any form of unauthorized painting, writing, or inscription regardless of the content or nature of the material used in the commission of the act.

SEC. 2. Section 640.6 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

640.6. (a) Except as provided in Section 640.5, any person who writes, sprays, scratches, or otherwise affixes graffiti on any real or personal property not his or her own is guilty of an infraction punishable by a fine not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) if the amount of the defacement, damage, or destruction is less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250). This subdivision does not preclude application of Section 594.

(b) (1) Upon conviction of any person under subdivision (a), the court may, in addition to any punishment imposed pursuant to subdivision (a), order the defendant to complete community service not to exceed 48 hours for the first conviction. Upon the second and subsequent conviction, the court may order the defendant to complete community service not to exceed 96 hours. A defendant shall be ordered to complete community service during a time other than during his or her hours of school attendance or employment.

(2) Upon conviction of any person under subdivision (a), the court may, in addition to any punishment imposed pursuant to subdivision (a), at the victim's option, order the defendant to perform the necessary labor to clean up, repair, or replace the property damaged by that person, but shall not order the person to pay for any related costs incurred by the cleanup, repair, or replacement of the property.

(3) If a minor is personally unable to pay any fine levied for violating subdivision (a), the parent or legal guardian of the minor shall be liable for payment of the fine. A court may waive payment of the fine by the parent or legal guardian upon a finding of good cause.

Any community service which is required pursuant to subdivision (b) of a person under the age of 18 years may be performed in the presence, and under the direct supervision, of the person's parent or legal guardian.

(4) As used in this section, graffiti means any form of unauthorized painting, writing, or inscription regardless of the content or nature of the material used in the commission of the act.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 557

An act to add Section 14669.5 to the Government Code, relating to state buildings, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14669.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14669.5. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the Director of General Services may enter into an additional amendment to the existing joint powers agreement with the Community Redevelopment Agency of the City of Los Angeles dated June 30, 1982, in connection with the financing, planning, acquisition, and construction of an additional office building and parking facilities in the City of Los Angeles in near proximity to the Ronald Reagan State Building and in connection therewith may enter into a lease-purchase agreement, an agreement for the appointment of a bond trustee, and an agreement for the Department of General Services to act as agent for acquisition, planning, and construction matters, each of which agreements shall be with the joint powers authority created under the joint powers agreement. The amendment to the existing joint powers agreement shall provide that any authorization under the joint powers agreement for the joint powers authority to acquire property by means of condemnation proceedings shall not include the power to condemn the property on which was located, as of January 1, 1991, that certain homeless women's housing and day care center commonly known as the Downtown Women's Center, which property is legally described as set forth below. The lease-purchase agreement may provide for space to be used for private commercial purposes. The director shall notify the chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee or his or her designee, and the chairpersons of the committees in each house which consider appropriations, of his or her intention to execute the lease-purchase agreement at least 20 days prior to its execution.

The property referred to above is legally described as follows:

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide, at the earliest possible time, necessary support services in conjunction with the state office building already constructed under the joint powers agreement dated June 30, 1982, entered into between the Community Redevelopment Agency of the City of Los Angeles and the Department of General Services, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 558

An act to amend Sections 7850, 7887, 7888, and 7890 of the Fish and Game Code, and to amend Sections 35062 and 35063 of the Public Resources Code, relating to fishing, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7850 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

7850. (a) Excepting persons expressly exempted under this code, no person shall use or operate, or assist in using or operating, any boat, aircraft, net, trap, line, or other appliance to take fish or amphibia for commercial purposes, and no person shall cause to be brought ashore, any fish or amphibia at any point in the state for the purpose of selling them in a fresh state or shall contribute materially to the activities on board the commercial fishing vessel, unless the person holds a commercial fishing license issued by the department.

(b) Any person not required under subdivision (a) to hold a commercial fishing license shall register his or her presence on board the commercial fishing vessel in a log maintained by the owner or operator of the vessel according to the requirements of the department.

(c) As used in this section, "person" does not include persons who are less than 16 years of age, a partnership, corporation, or association. Any person, partnership, corporation, or association may pay the fees for a license issued to any person.

(d) This article does not apply to the taking, transporting, or selling of live freshwater fish for bait by the holder of a live freshwater bait fish license issued pursuant to Section 8460.

SEC. 1.1. Section 7887 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

7887. Every person who owns or operates a vessel in public waters, or an aircraft in airspace above those waters, in connection with fishing operations for profit in this state, or bringing fish into this state, or who, for profit, permits persons to fish therefrom, shall file a registration statement with the department, on a form to be provided by the department.

This section does not apply to any boat which is rented without an operator, unless the boat is powered with an inboard motor, in which case a certificate of registration is required.

SEC. 1.2. Section 7888 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

7888. The statement shall include all information as prescribed by the department.

SEC. 1.3. Section 7890 of the Fish and Game Code, as added by Section 12 of Chapter 1703 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

7890. (a) Upon payment of a fee of one hundred sixty-five dollars ($165) and filing of the required statement by the owner or operator of the vessel or aircraft, the department shall issue a certificate of registration which is valid for the period April 1 to March 31 of the year following, or, if issued after the beginning of that term, for the remainder thereof. This certificate shall be carried aboard the vessel or aircraft at all times and posted in a conspicuous place.

(b) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1992.

SEC. 2. Section 35062 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

35062. (a) The secretary may grant funds appropriated for fishing vessels, safety, survey, and survival equipment to any commercial fisherman, licensed under Section 7850 or 7852 of the Fish and Game Code, who operates or owns a fishing vessel or support aircraft operated in areas off the coast of this state in which oil and gas exploration or development facilities or equipment were in use prior to August 1, 1985. The funds shall be used to extend the vessel's fishing range to reasonable limits by improving vessel, plane, and personnel safety and survival equipment, navigation and communications equipment, and operational practices and equipment, in order to reach areas beyond those impacted by the oil and gas activities. Grants under this subdivision shall be made only for vessels which have had safety surveys completed by certified vessel surveyors or United States Coast Guard inspectors, and shall not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each vessel or plane for reimbursement for safety and survival surveys and for any recommended modifications and additions resulting from the surveys.

(b) The secretary may also grant funds to individuals and state agencies, contract for services or research, or enter into interagency agreements to address impacts on California's commercial fishing industry from offshore oil and gas activities. Funds expended for this purpose may implement programs to address area, gear, and technology development; vessel and gear staging and repair space; fishing vessel safety, survey, and survival equipment; sea floor oil and gas debris cleanup; San Pedro purse seine fleet assistance for marketing, fuel conservation, and resource assessment; fisheries marketing assistance; and establishment of a fisheries development corporation.

(c) Procedures for the administration of grants under this chapter shall be adopted by the secretary only after providing adequate opportunity for public review and comment. However, those procedures are not subject to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. Section 35063 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

35063. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 559

An act to amend Sections 18554, 18838 and 26255 of, and to amend, repeal, and add Sections 18839 and 26256 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18554 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18554. (a) The tax, and any interest and penalties thereon, shall be paid to the Franchise Tax Board. Remittances may be in the form of a check, payable to the Franchise Tax Board, during that period and under those regulations as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe. If a check is not paid by the bank on which it is drawn, the taxpayer tendering the check remains liable for the payment of the tax, and all interest and penalties thereon, as if he or she had not tendered the check.

(b) Notwithstanding Title 1.3 (commencing with Section 1747) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, the Franchise Tax Board may allow remittances to be in the form of a credit account number and an authorization to draw upon a specified credit account, at that time and under those conditions as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe. Remittances in the form of an authorization to draw upon a specified credit account shall include an amount, not to exceed 2 percent of the balance otherwise due, for purposes of paying the discount rate associated with drawing upon the credit account.

(c) Remittances made pursuant to subdivision (b) may be drawn on an account with a financial institution which agrees to add the discount rate associated with the use of the credit account number to the credit card holder's billing. Remittances drawn as described in this subdivision shall not include an amount for purposes of paying the discount rate associated with drawing upon the credit account.

SEC. 2. Section 18838 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18838. (a) The Franchise Tax Board may enter into agreement with one or more persons for the purpose of collecting delinquent accounts with respect to amounts assessed or imposed under this part, provided the agreements do not cause the net displacement of civil service employees. The agreement may provide for the rate and manner of payment for the contracted collection services. However, the consideration payable by the Franchise Tax Board under the agreement shall not be included in the amounts to be collected from the tax debtor by the contractor providing collection services.

(b) For purposes of this section, "displacement" includes layoff, demotion, involuntary transfer to a new class, involuntary transfer to a new location requiring a change of residence, and time base reductions. "Displacement" does not include changes in shifts or days off, nor does it include reassignment to any other position within the same class and general location.

SEC. 3. Section 18839 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18839. (a) The Franchise Tax Board shall determine the total amount collected under Section 18838, and shall notify the Controller of the amount to be transferred to the Delinquent Tax Collection Fund, which is hereby created. In addition, the Franchise Tax Board shall determine the amount of each of the following:

(1) The costs of implementing and administering Section 18838.

(2) The contracting costs incurred under Section 18838.

The Franchise Tax Board shall notify the Controller of these amounts.

(b) The Controller shall transfer these amounts from the Delinquent Tax Collection Fund to the Franchise Tax Board for reimbursement of its implementation and administrative costs and for the contracting costs. The moneys remaining in the Delinquent Tax Collection Fund after disbursements shall be transferred to the Personal Income Tax Fund by the Controller upon notification by the Franchise Tax Board. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, the moneys transferred pursuant to this section are hereby continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal years.

(c) The funds generated through this section shall not be used in place of funds from other sources which are available for appropriation to the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 18839 is added to the Revenue and Taxation

Code, to read:

18839. (a) The Franchise Tax Board shall determine the amount of the contracting costs incurred under Section 18838 and notify the Controller of that amount which shall be transferred from the Personal Income Tax Fund to the Delinquent Tax Collection Fund, which is hereby created.

(b) The Controller shall transfer that amount determined pursuant to subdivision (a) from the Delinquent Tax Collection Fund to the Franchise Tax Board for reimbursement of its contracting costs. The moneys remaining in the Delinquent Tax Collection Fund after disbursements shall be transferred to the Personal Income Tax Fund by the Controller upon notification by the Franchise Tax Board. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, the moneys transferred pursuant to this section are hereby continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal years.

(c) The funds generated through this section shall not be used in place of funds from other sources that are available for appropriation to the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1993.

SEC. 5. Section 26255 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

26255. (a) The Franchise Tax Board may enter into agreement with one or more persons for the purpose of collecting delinquent accounts with respect to amounts assessed or imposed under this part, provided the agreements do not cause the net displacement of civil service employees. The agreements may provide for the rate and manner of payment for the contracted collection services. However, the consideration payable by the Franchise Tax Board under the agreement shall not be included in the amounts to be collected from the tax debtor by the contractor providing collection services.

(b) For purposes of this section, "displacement" includes layoff, demotion, involuntary transfer to a new class, involuntary transfer to a new location requiring a change of residence, and time base reductions. "Displacement" does not include changes in shifts or days off, nor does it include reassignment to any other position within the same class and general location.

SEC. 6. Section 26256 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

26256. (a) The Franchise Tax Board shall determine the total amount collected under Section 26255, and shall notify the Controller of the amount to be transferred to the Delinquent Tax Collection Fund, which is created pursuant to Section 18839. In addition, the Franchise Tax Board shall determine the amount of each of the following:

(1) The costs of implementing and administering Section 26255.

(2) The contracting costs incurred under Section 26255.

The Franchise Tax Board shall notify the Controller of these amounts.

(b) The Controller shall transfer these amounts from the Delinquent Tax Collection Fund to the Franchise Tax Board for reimbursement of its implementation and administrative costs and for the contracting costs. The moneys remaining in the Delinquent Tax Collection Fund after disbursements shall be transferred to the Bank and Corporation Tax Fund by the Controller upon notification by the Franchise Tax Board. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, the moneys transferred pursuant to this section are hereby continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal years.

(c) The funds generated through this section shall not be used in place of funds from other sources which are available for appropriation to the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 26256 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

26256. (a) The Franchise Tax Board shall determine the contracting costs incurred under Section 26255 and notify the Controller of that amount which shall be transferred from the Bank and Corporation Tax Fund to the Delinquent Tax Collection Fund, which is created pursuant to Section 18839.

(b) The Controller shall transfer that amount determined pursuant to subdivision (a) from the Delinquent Tax Collection Fund to the Franchise Tax Board for reimbursement of its contracting costs. The moneys remaining in the Delinquent Tax Collection Fund after disbursements shall be transferred to the Bank and Corporation Tax Fund by the Controller upon notification by the Franchise Tax Board. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, the moneys transferred pursuant to this section are hereby continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal years.

(c) The funds generated through this section shall not be used in place of funds from other sources which are available for appropriation to the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1993.

CHAPTER 560

An act to amend Sections 14124.88, 14125.2, 14171, 14171.5, and 14172 of, and to add Sections 14100.6, 14100.7, 14107.5, 14170.8, and 14171.6 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14100.6 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14100.6. The department, in cooperation with the Controller, shall establish a method of providing to the Controller, periodically, updated information regarding changes in the roster of Medi-Cal providers.

SEC. 2. Section 14100.7 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14100.7. (a) Any Medi-Cal provider of durable medical equipment or incontinence supplies shall provide, to the department, a bond, or other security satisfactory to the department, of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), pursuant to regulations adopted by the department.

(b) (1) After three years of continuous operation as a provider of durable medical equipment or incontinence supplies, a Medi-Cal provider may apply to the department for an exemption from the requirements of subdivision (a).

(2) The department shall adopt regulations establishing conditions for the approval or denial of applications for exemption pursuant to paragraph (1).

(c) For purposes of this section "durable medical equipment" means equipment prescribed by a licensed practitioner to meet medical equipment needs of the patient, and which is eligible for reimbursement pursuant to this chapter.

(d) This section does not apply to individuals who are licensed pursuant to Division 2 (commencing with Section 500) of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 3. Section 14107.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14107.5. (a) The department may, pursuant to regulations adopted pursuant to subdivision (b), rescind the privileges of a provider of durable medical equipment or incontinence supplies who fails to satisfy the requirements of this section to bill and receive payment for services provided under this chapter.

(b) The department shall adopt regulations to define the specific causes for which the authority of a Medi-Cal provider of durable medical equipment or incontinence supplies to bill and receive payment for services provided under this chapter may be rescinded for violation of this section.

(c) The department shall not rescind the authority of a Medi-Cal provider of durable medical equipment or incontinence supplies to bill and receive payment under this chapter without a prior hearing, unless any of the following conditions exist:

(1) The provider has failed to provide material information to the department pursuant to Section 14125.8.

(2) The provider has knowingly furnished false information on any application for provider enrollment.

(3) The provider has knowingly filed false claims for reimbursement under this chapter.

SEC. 4. Section 14124.88 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14124.88. (a) Subsequent to the expiration of the pilot project contract, the department, in its reasonable discretion, may execute a separate, additional agreement for the discovery and recovery of amounts which may be subject to claim pursuant to this article, subject to Sections 14124.81 to 14124.87, inclusive.

(b) The department, if it receives a competitive qualified offer of such services within the criteria set forth in Sections 14124.80 through 14124.87, shall separately contract for discovery and recovery of workers' compensation claims with one contract to cover areas of northern California and one to cover areas of southern California.

(c) (1) Priority and inclusion of claims shall be as set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 14124.82 and additionally shall include any matter on file with the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board for a period of more than 12 months unless the department has previously identified these claims and has filed the appropriate lien or liens.

(2) The contract may include, or may be subsequently amended to include, any or all previously identified claims and any other potential lien claims, identified or not, if the department determines that it will not otherwise be able to effectively process recovery. This paragraph shall cease to be operative on January 1, 1995.

(d) There shall be no cost to the contractor for claim detail reports provided by the fiscal intermediary. In all cases of workers' compensation appeals, payment shall be made directly to the state and a contractor shall not handle or have access to any moneys owing the state. In these cases a bond required by the state for collection agencies shall be sufficient. Contractor's files shall be subject to audit, pursuant to the contract, but shall remain the property of the contractor. At the request of the department, the contractor shall provide copies of any claims related to a particular recovery.

(e) The contract shall provide that the contractor, with the permission of the Attorney General, may appeal decisions of the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board.

SEC. 4.5. Section 14125.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14125.2. (a) (1) To qualify for Medi-Cal coverage a product shall be in general retail distribution, sold to the general public, and comply with any standards for products established by law or regulation. No product that is manufactured, distributed, or otherwise promoted for the exclusive use of beneficiaries of the Medi-Cal program shall be a Medi-Cal benefit.

(2) For purposes of this section, "product" means any product which is in general retail distribution.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, "general retail distribution" means either of the following:

(A) The product is included in a listing of approved products for purchase either by the federal or state government.

(B) The product is on display and available for purchase by customers for private payment at retail outlets which are open to the general public.

(b) In order to qualify as a Medi-Cal provider of incontinence medical supplies, a dealer shall have an established place of business that is readily identifiable as a medical supply business, be open to the general public at regularly established business hours, have incontinence supplies in stock on the premises or in a warehouse under the provider's direct control, and meet all local laws and ordinances regarding business licensing and operations. The department shall establish additional rules and regulations for participation in the Medi-Cal program as it deems necessary to ensure adequate safeguards to the integrity of the Medi-Cal program.

SEC. 5. Section 14170.8 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14170.8. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, principal labelers, and any other primary suppliers of goods and services to incontinence supplies providers, as defined in Section 14125.1, shall maintain accounting records to support the cost of goods and services provided to those incontinence supplies providers.

(b) Accounting records maintained pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be subject to audit or examination by the department or the Controller to determine the reasonableness of costs claimed by the providers.

SEC. 6. Section 14171 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14171. (a) The director shall establish administrative appeal processes to review grievances or complaints arising from the findings of an audit or examination made pursuant to Sections 10722 and 14170.

(b) Different administrative appeal processes may be established by the director for grievances or complaints arising from the determinations of a tentative or final settlement based on audit or examination findings made by or on behalf of the department pursuant to Sections 10722 and 14170, except that consistent with existing practice, no administrative appeal shall be available for tentative settlement of cost reports.

(c) The administrative appeal process established by the director for final settlements, including, in the case of hospitals, the application of Sections 51536, 51537, and 51539 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations shall include the procedural requirements of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The impartial hearing shall be conducted by an administrative law judge appointed by the director. The director may subcontract with the Office of Administrative Hearings to conduct hearings on cases involving complicated issues of fact or law, or to reduce the backlog of cases.

(d) The administrative appeal process established by the director for tentative settlements, including, in the case of hospitals, the application of Sections 51536, 51537, and 51539 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations shall be an informal process which, however, guarantees a provider the right to present any grievance or complaint to the department in writing. Any subsequent hearings shall be conducted in an informal manner and shall be held at the discretion of the department.

(e) The time limitations in subdivisions (f) and (g) for the impartial hearing and the final decisions are mandatory. If the department fails to conduct the hearing or to adopt a final decision thereon within the time limitations provided in subdivisions (f) and (g), the amount of any overpayment which is ultimately determined by the department to be due shall be reduced by 10 percent for each 30-day period, or portion thereof, that the hearing or the decision, or both, are delayed beyond the time limitations provided in subdivisions (f) and (g). However, the time period shall be extended by either of the following:

(1) Delay caused by a provider.

(2) Extensions of time granted a provider at its sole request or at the joint request of the provider and the department.

(f) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), the administrative appeal process established by the director shall commence with an informal conference with the provider, a representative of the department, and the administrative law judge. The informal conference shall be conducted no later than 90 days after the filing of a timely and specific statement of disputed issues by the provider. The administrative law judge, when appropriate, may assign the administrative appeal to an informal level of review where efforts could be made to resolve facts and issues in dispute in a fair and equitable manner, subject to the requirements of state and federal law. The review conducted at this informal level shall be completed no later than 180 days after the filing of a timely and specific statement of disputed issues by the provider.

(2) Nothing in this subdivision shall prohibit the provider from presenting any unresolved grievances or complaints at an impartial hearing pursuant to subdivision (c). The impartial hearing shall be conducted no later than 300 days after the filing of a timely and specific statement of disputed issues by the provider. For noninstitutional providers, a proposed decision shall be prepared and transmitted to the director and the parties within 60 days after the closure of the record of the impartial hearing. For institutional providers, a proposed decision shall be prepared and transmitted to the director and the parties within 180 days after the closure of the record of the impartial hearing.

(3) Subject to subdivision (g), a final decision in a noninstitutional provider appeal shall be adopted within 180 days after the closure of the record of the impartial hearing, and a final decision in an institutional provider appeal shall be adopted within 300 days after the closure of the record of the impartial hearing.

(g) In the event the director intends to modify a proposed decision, on or before the 180th day following the closure of the record of the hearing for noninstitutional providers or the 300th day following the closure of the record of the hearing for institutional providers, the director shall provide written notice of his or her intention to the parties and shall afford the parties an opportunity to present oral and written argument. Following this notice, on or before the 240th day following the closure of the record of the hearing for noninstitutional providers or the 420th day following closure of the record of the hearing for institutional providers, or within that additional time period as is granted pursuant to the sole request of a provider or at the joint request of the provider and the department, the director shall issue a modified decision.

(h) In the event recovery of a disallowed payment has been made by the department, a provider who prevails in an appeal of a disallowed payment shall be entitled to interest at the rate equal to the monthly average received on investments in the Surplus Money Investment Fund, commencing on the date the appeal is formally accepted by the department or the date payment is received by the department, whichever is later.

(i) Except as provided in subdivision (j), commencing 60 days after issuance of the first statement of account status or demand for repayment resulting from an audit or examination made pursuant to Sections 10722 and 14170, interest at the rate equal to the monthly average received on investments in the Surplus Money Investment Fund during the month the first statement of account status or demand for repayment was issued shall be assessed against any unrecovered overpayment due to the department.

(j) (1) Commencing on the day following the last day of the period covered by an audit or examination made pursuant to Sections 10722 and 14170, interest at the rate established under Section 19269 of the Revenue and Taxation Code which is in effect on the date of the commencement of that interest shall be assessed against any unrecovered overpayment due to the department by providers of durable medical equipment or incontinence supplies.

(2) Interest which accrues under this subdivision for recoupment of an overpayment based on the lack of medical necessity for a previously approved claim shall commence to accrue on the date of written demand by the department.

(k) The final decision of the director shall be reviewable in accordance with Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure within six months of the issuance of the director's final decision.

SEC. 7. Section 14171.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14171.5. Any institutional provider of health care services which obtained reimbursement under this chapter to which it is not entitled shall be subject to the following interest charges or penalties:

(a) When it is established upon audit that the provider has claimed payments under this chapter to which it is not entitled, the provider shall pay, in addition to the amount improperly received, interest at the rate specified by subdivision (i) of Section 14171.

(b) When it is established upon audit that the provider claimed payments related to services or costs which the department had previously notified the provider in an Audit Report that such costs or services were not reimbursable, the provider shall pay in addition to the amount improperly claimed, a penalty of 10 percent of the amount improperly claimed after this notice, plus the cost of the audit. In addition, interest shall be assessed at the rate specified in subdivision (i) of Section 14171. Providers who wish to preserve appeal rights or to challenge the department's positions regarding appeal issues, may claim such cost or services and not be reimbursed therefor, provided that they are identified and presented separately on the cost report.

(c) When it is established that the provider fraudulently claimed and received payments under this chapter, the provider shall pay a penalty of 25 percent of the amount improperly claimed, plus the cost of the audit, in addition to the amount thereof. In addition, interest will be assessed at the rate specified by subdivision (i) of Section 14171. A fraudulent claim is a claim upon which the provider has been convicted of fraud upon the program. Nothing in this section shall prevent the imposition of any other civil or criminal penalties to which the provider may be liable.

(d) Appeals to action taken in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) of Section 14171.5 above are subject to the administrative appeals process provided by Section 14171.

(e) Penalties paid by providers under subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) of Section 14171.5 are not reimbursable by the program.

(f) As used in this section, "the cost of the audit" includes actual hourly wages, travel, and incidental expenses at rates allowable by State Board of Control rules, and applicable overhead costs.

SEC. 8. Section 14171.6 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14171.6. (a) Any provider of durable medical equipment or incontinence supplies that obtains reimbursement under this chapter to which it is not entitled shall be subject to interest charges or penalties as specified in this section.

(b) When it is established upon audit that the provider has claimed payments under this chapter to which it is not entitled, the provider shall pay, in addition to the amount improperly received, interest at the rate specified by subdivision (j) of Section 14171.

(c) (1) When it is established upon audit that the provider claimed payments related to services or costs which the department had previously notified the provider in an Audit Report that the costs or services were not reimbursable, the provider shall pay, in addition to the amount improperly claimed, a penalty of 10 percent of the amount improperly claimed after receipt of the notice, plus the cost of the audit.

(2) In addition to the penalty and costs specified by paragraph (1), interest shall be assessed at the rate specified in subdivision (j) of Section 14171.

(3) Providers that wish to preserve appeal rights or to challenge the department's positions regarding appeal issues, may claim the costs or services and not be reimbursed therefor, provided that they are identified and presented separately on the cost report.

(d) (1) When it is established that the provider fraudulently claimed and received payments under this chapter, the provider shall pay, in addition to the amount improperly claimed, a penalty of 300 percent of the amount improperly claimed, plus the cost of the audit.

(2) In addition to the penalty and costs specified by paragraph (1), interest shall be assessed at the rate specified by subdivision (j) of Section 14171.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, a fraudulent claim is a claim upon which the provider has been convicted of fraud upon the Medi-Cal program.

(e) Nothing in this section shall prevent the imposition of any other civil or criminal penalties to which the provider may be liable.

(f) Any appeal to any action taken pursuant to subdivision (b), (c), or (d) is subject to the administrative appeals process provided by Section 14171.

(g) As used in this section, "cost of the audit" includes actual hourly wages, travel, and incidental expenses at rates allowable by rules adopted by the State Board of Control, and applicable overhead costs which are incurred by employees of the state in administering this chapter with respect to the performance of audits.

SEC. 9. Section 14172 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14172. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), if any amount is due and payable and unpaid as the result of an overpayment to a provider of health care services, durable medical equipment, or incontinence supplies identified through an audit or examination conducted by or on behalf of the director, and the findings of the audit or examination are completed and no appeal is taken or the director has issued a final decision on the appeal pursuant to Section 14171, and 90 days has elapsed from the completion of that audit or examination or issuance of that final decision on appeal, the director may, not later than three years after the payment became due and owing, file in the office of the County Clerk of Sacramento County, and with the county clerk of the county in which the provider has his principal place of business, a certificate containing the following:

(1) Interest, as prescribed by Section 14171.

(2) A statement that the director has complied with this article prior to the filing of the certificate.

(3) A request that judgment be entered against the provider in the amount set forth in the certificate.

The county clerk immediately upon the filing of the certificate shall enter a judgment for the State of California against the provider in the amount set forth in the certificate. The judgment may be filed by the county clerk in a looseleaf book entitled "Health Care

Overpayment Recovery Judgments."

(b) If the provider seeks judicial review of the final decision of the director pursuant to subdivision (k) of Section 14171 and notice of that action is properly served on the director within 90 days of the issuance of the final decision of the director, the director shall not file any certificate as provided in subdivision (a).

If the provider does not seek judicial review of the final decision of the director pursuant to subdivision (k) of Section 14171 and does not properly serve notice within 90 days from the date of the final decision of the director, the director may file the certificate provided in subdivision (a). If the provider seeks judicial review of the final decision of the director more than 90 days from the date of the decision in accordance with subdivision (k) of Section 14171, the director shall within 10 days after receiving notice of that action release any lien imposed pursuant to this article and any judgment entered is for all purposes null and void.

SEC. 10. The State Department of Health Services may adopt emergency regulations pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code to implement this act. The adoption of those regulations shall be deemed to be an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety. Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, emergency regulations adopted by the department in order to implement this act shall not be subject to the review and approval of the Office of Administrative Law. These regulations shall become effective immediately upon filing with the Secretary of State.

SEC. 11. The State Department of Health Services shall submit a report to the Legislature, on or before January 1, 1994, delineating the status of the contracting out of discovery and recovery of claims under paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 14124.88 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

CHAPTER 561

An act to amend Sections 13101 and 13103 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish and wildlife.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13101 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

13101. (a) The board of supervisors of any county may enter into a written agreement with the board of supervisors of one or more counties for the expenditure of any funds deposited in its fish and wildlife propagation fund pursuant to Section 13100 for any purpose authorized by Section 13103 in either, or any, of the counties for the joint benefit of both, or all, of the counties as the judgment of the boards of supervisors may direct. The purchase of real property necessary for that purpose is lawful and title thereto shall be taken in the joint names of each county which contributes funds therefor. The property may be deeded to the state upon the express condition that it shall be employed for the purposes of this chapter within the counties.

(b) The board of supervisors of one or more counties may enter into a written agreement with the department for the expenditure of any funds deposited in its fish and wildlife propagation fund pursuant to Section 13100 for any purpose authorized by Section 13103.

SEC. 2. Section 13103 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

13103. Expenditures from the fish and wildlife propagation fund of any county may be made only for the following purposes:

(a) Public education relating to the scientific principles of fish and wildlife conservation, consisting of supervised formal instruction carried out pursuant to a planned curriculum and aids to education such as literature, audio and video recordings, training models, and nature study facilities.

(b) Temporary emergency treatment and care of injured or orphaned wildlife.

(c) Temporary treatment and care of wildlife confiscated by the department as evidence.

(d) Breeding, raising, purchasing, or releasing fish or wildlife which are to be released upon approval of the department pursuant to Sections 6400 and 6401 onto land or into waters of local, state, or federal agencies or onto land or into waters open to the public.

(e) Improvement of fish and wildlife habitat, including, but not limited to, construction of fish screens, weirs, and ladders; drainage or other watershed improvements; gravel and rock removal or placement; construction of irrigation and water distribution systems; earthwork and grading; fencing; planting trees and other vegetation management; and removal of barriers to the migration of fish and wildlife.

(f) Construction, maintenance, and operation of public hatchery facilities.

(g) Purchase and maintain materials, supplies, or equipment for either the department's ownership and use or the department's use in the normal performance of the department's responsibilities.

(h) Predator control actions for the benefit of fish or wildlife following certification in writing by the department that the proposed actions will significantly benefit a particular wildlife species.

(i) Scientific fish and wildlife research conducted by institutions of higher learning, qualified researchers, or governmental agencies, if approved by the department.

(j) Reasonable administrative costs, excluding the costs of audits required by Section 13104, for secretarial service, travel, and postage by the county fish and wildlife commission when authorized by the county board of supervisors. For purposes of this subdivision, "reasonable cost" means an amount which does not exceed 3 percent of the average amount received by the fund during the previous three-year period, or three thousand dollars ($3,000) annually, whichever is greater, excluding any funds carried over from a previous fiscal year.

(k) Contributions to a secret witness program for the purpose of facilitating enforcement of this code and regulations adopted pursuant to this code.

(l) Costs incurred by the district attorney or city attorney in investigating and prosecuting civil and criminal actions for violations of this code, as approved by the department.

(m) Other expenditures, approved by the department, for the purpose of protecting, conserving, propagating, and preserving fish and wildlife.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 562

An act to amend Sections 26.1, 29.3, and 45 of the Castaic Lake Water Agency Law (Chapter 28 of the Statutes of 1962, First Extraordinary Session), relating to the Castaic Lake Water Agency.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26.1 of the Castaic Lake Water Agency Law (Chapter 28 of the Statutes of 1962, First Extraordinary Session) is amended to read:

Sec. 26.1. (a) In addition to the other powers provided in this act, the agency may establish and impose a charge referred to as a facility capacity fee, and which is in the nature of a connection fee, for the right to make a new retail connection to the water distribution system of any retail water distributor within the agency that obtains all, or any portion, of its water supplies from the agency. The necessity for the fee, and the amounts thereof, shall be determined, established, imposed, collected, and used in the manner provided in this section.

(b) If the board of directors determines that its existing water importation, transportation, and delivery facilities and other related works, property, and improvements are not adequate for the purpose of receiving, importing, transporting, and delivering additional needed quantities of water available from the State Water Resources Development System or from other sources, the board of directors may adopt and carry out a plan for any of the following purposes:

(1) To obtain additional facilities, works, property, improvements, and supplies of water.

(2) To increase or enlarge, as may be appropriate, its existing capacity and facilities for obtaining, importing, transporting, and delivering additional quantity of water to retail water distributors within the agency which are in need of additional water supplies.

(3) To finance or reimburse the agency for advancing the cost of acquiring facilities, works, property, improvements, and supplies of water and to allocate that cost among lands within water service areas of the agency which, by reason of new development or new construction thereon, will need new water service and will be benefited by making the additional supplies of agency water available for purchase by the retail water distributors that will supply those lands with water.

(c) (1) Prior to adopting any plans pursuant to subdivision (b), the board of directors shall hold at least one public hearing, at which oral or written presentations may be made, as part of a regularly scheduled meeting to establish water service areas within the agency.

(2) Notwithstanding any other notice requirements of this act, notice of the time and place of the hearing and meeting, including a general explanation of the matters to be considered, and a statement that the data required by this subdivision is available, shall be mailed at least 14 days prior to the hearing to any interested party who files a written request with the agency for mailed notice of the hearing on those plans and on allocation of the costs thereof. Any written request for that mailed notice shall be valid only for one year from the date on which it is filed with the agency unless a renewal request is filed. Renewal requests for the mailed notices shall be filed on or before April 1st of each year. The board of directors may establish a reasonable annual charge for sending the notices based on the agency's estimated cost of providing the service.

(3) At least 10 days prior to the hearing, the agency shall make available to the public data indicating the cost, or estimated cost, to acquire, construct, and provide the water importation, transportation, and delivery facilities and other works, property, and improvements necessary to obtain and provide the additional water to those retail water distributors who will serve water to the lands on which the new developments and new construction will be located, and the proposed method and basis for allocating the costs as among those lands.

(d) (1) Following the public hearing or hearings, the board of directors shall make both of the following determinations:

(A) The extent of the need for the additional property and supplies of water to be supplied by the agency.

(B) Whether existing facilities and other works and improvements of the agency are adequate to import, receive, transport, and deliver those additional quantities of water.

(2) If the board of directors determines that there is a need or that the agency's existing facilities, works, property, and improvements are inadequate to serve that water, or both, the board of directors shall adopt the plan or plans specified in subdivision (b).

(e) In making its determinations as to how to allocate the costs of the plan or plans within water service areas of the agency, the board of directors shall determine the amount of the facility capacity fee to be imposed for and upon each new connection to the delivery facilities of the retail water distributors that will supply those lands with imported or local water. The facility capacity fee shall be fixed and determined pursuant to a method and basis whereby the fee is as nearly as reasonably practicable an amount proportionate to the benefit to the land, including consideration of the volume of water to be delivered to the new retail connection.

(f) The board of directors may contract with the counties, or cities on or after January 1, 1992, in which the agency is located for the collection of the facility capacity fee along with building permit fees or other fees related to the improvement of property, or may contract for collection of the facility capacity fee by the retail water distributor.

(g) The proceeds of the facility capacity fee imposed and collected pursuant to this section shall be used exclusively by the board of directors for the annual capital budget of the agency, as described in Section 29.1, for purposes authorized by this section as specified in the plans adopted pursuant to subdivisions (b), (d), and (e).

(h) Any action taken by the board of directors pursuant to this section shall be taken only by resolution.

(i) Any judicial action or proceeding to attack, review, set aside, void, or annul any resolution imposing a facility capacity charge of the agency, or a resolution modifying or amending an existing charge imposed by the agency, shall be commenced within 120 days of the effective date of the resolution. Any action or proceeding shall be brought pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 860) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 2. Section 29.3 of the Castaic Lake Water Agency Law

(Chapter 28 of the Statutes of 1962, First Extraordinary Session) is amended to read:

Sec. 29.3. The board of directors shall annually hold the public hearing concerning its proposed water service areas only after not less than two weeks' notice of the hearing has been given by all of the following means:

(a) Publication of and notice once a week for two weeks, the publication to be seven days apart, in a newspaper of general circulation within the agency published in the county where the agency has its principal office, with the first notice to be published not less than 15 calendar days in advance of the hearing.

(b) Posting of the notice not less than 15 calendar days in advance of the hearing in one public place in each of the proposed water service areas.

(c) (1) Mailing of the notice by first-class mail, postage prepaid, not less than 21 calendar days in advance of the hearing, to each person or entity to whom land is assessed, as shown on the last equalized assessment roll, or the records of the county assessor or tax collector which contain more recent information than the assessment roll, of any county whose territory is within a proposed water service area, at the address shown on the assessment roll, or the records of the county assessor or tax collector which contain more recent information than the assessment roll, and also to each purveyor. Mailing of the notice to the person or entity to whom land is assessed is not required, however, with respect to any public hearing where the board of directors proposes in the resolution required by Section 29.2 to continue without change any water service area previously established.

(2) For the purpose of mailed notice requirements only, a water service area shall be deemed continued without change as previously established if the water service area is proposed to retain over 95 percent of its existing territory, with only such other territories as may be proposed to be included with or excluded from the water service area being subject to the mailed notice requirement.

(d) Notice which is published shall include the text of the agency resolution concerning water service areas. The published notice need not, however, include any exhibit to the resolution which sets forth or describes the legal boundary descriptions of water service areas if the resolution and published notice contain a map exhibit determined by the board of directors to reasonably notify the public of the location of the proposed water service areas. All other notices need only include (1) the date, time, and location for the public hearing, and (2) the charges, fees, assessments, and tax rates proposed to affect the specific property proposed to be included within a specific water service area.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in this act, no additional notice need be given on any adjournment or continuation of the public hearing.

SEC. 3. Section 45 of the Castaic Lake Water Agency Law

(Chapter 28 of the Statutes of 1962, First Extraordinary Session) is amended to read:

Sec. 45. (a) Nothing in this act shall be construed as repealing or amending the provisions of any other act relating to water or the supply of water to, or the acquisition thereof, by cities within this state.

(b) "City," as used in this act, means and includes any city, whether organized or functioning under a freeholders' charter or under the provisions of general law.

(c) "Agency" means, unless otherwise expressed or used, the Castaic Lake Water Agency formed under this act.

(d) "Board," "governing body," and "Board of Directors" mean the board of directors of the Castaic Lake Water Agency.

(e) "Voter," as used in this act, means voter as defined in Section 18 of the Elections Code.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 563

An act to amend Section 14105.33 of, and to add Section 14133.37 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14105.33 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14105.33. (a) The department may enter into contracts with manufacturers of single-source and multiple-source drugs, on a bid or nonbid basis, for drugs from each major therapeutic category, and shall maintain a list of those drugs for which contracts have been executed.

(b) (1) Contracts executed pursuant to this section shall be for the manufacturer's best price, as defined in Section 14105.31, which shall be specified in the contract, and subject to agreed upon price escalators, as defined in that section. In no event shall the department require a manufacturer to provide a price lower than its lowest price to any class of trade, organization, or entity. The contracts shall provide for an equalization payment amount, as defined in Section 14105.31, to be remitted to the department quarterly. The department shall submit an invoice to each manufacturer for the equalization payment amount, based on utilization data from the department's prescription drug paid claims tapes.

(2) The department shall provide for an annual audit of utilization data used to calculate the equalization amount to verify the accuracy of that data. The findings of the audit shall be documented in a written audit report to be made available to manufacturers within 90 days of receipt of the report from the auditor. Any manufacturer may receive a copy of the audit report upon written request. Contracts between the department and manufacturers shall provide for any equalization payment adjustments determined necessary pursuant to an audit.

(c) In order that Medi-Cal beneficiaries may have access to a comprehensive range of therapeutic agents, the department shall ensure that there is representation on the list of contract drugs in all major therapeutic categories. Except as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 14105.35, the department shall not be required to contract with all manufacturers who negotiate for a contract in a particular category. The department shall ensure that there is sufficient representation of single-source and multiple-source drugs, as appropriate, in each major therapeutic category.

(d) (1) The department shall select the therapeutic categories to be included on the list of contract drugs, and the order in which it seeks contracts for those categories. The department may establish different contracting schedules for single-source and multiple-source drugs within a given therapeutic category.

(2) The department shall make every attempt to complete the initial contracting process for each major therapeutic category by January 1, 1993.

(e) In order to achieve maximum cost savings, the Legislature declares that an expedited process for contracts under this section is necessary. Therefore, contracts entered into on a nonbid basis shall be exempt from Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10290) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.

(f) Contracts executed pursuant to this section shall be confidential and shall be exempt from disclosure under the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

(g) The department shall provide individual notice to Medi-Cal beneficiaries at least 60 calendar days prior to the effective date of the deletion or suspension of any drug from the list of contract drugs. The notice shall include a description of the beneficiary's right to a fair hearing and shall encourage the beneficiary to consult a physician to determine if an appropriate substitute medication is available from Medi-Cal.

(h) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 14133.37 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14133.37. For drugs covered under this chapter requiring prior authorization, the department shall ensure the timely and efficient processing of authorization requests by doing all of the following:

(a) Providing a response by telephone or other means of telecommunication within 24 hours of the receipt of an authorization request.

(b) To the extent permitted by federal law, providing for the dispensing of at least a 72-hour supply of a covered drug in an emergency situation, as defined by federal regulation.

CHAPTER 564

An act to amend Section 798.61 of the Civil Code, and to add Section 5903 to the Vehicle Code, relating to mobilehomes.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 798.61 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

798.61. (a) (1) As used in this section, "abandoned mobilehome" means a mobilehome about which all of the following are true:

(A) It is located in a mobilehome park on a site for which no rent has been paid to the management for the preceding 60 days.

(B) It is unoccupied.

(C) A reasonable person would believe it to be abandoned.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(A) "Mobilehome" shall include a trailer coach, as defined in Section 635 of the Vehicle Code, or a recreational vehicle, as defined in Section 18010 of the Health and Safety Code, if the trailer coach or recreational vehicle also satisfies the requirements of paragraph (1), including being located on any site within a mobilehome park, even if the site is in a separate designated section pursuant to Section 18215 of the Health and Safety Code.

(B) "Abandoned mobilehome" shall include a mobilehome which is uninhabitable because of its total or partial destruction which cannot be rehabilitated, if the mobilehome also satisfies the requirements of paragraph (1).

(b) After determining a mobilehome in a mobilehome park to be an abandoned mobilehome, the management shall post a notice of belief of abandonment on the mobilehome for not less than 30 days, and shall deposit copies of the notice in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the homeowner at the last known address and to any known registered owner, if different from the homeowner, and to any known holder of a security interest in the abandoned mobilehome. This notice shall be mailed by registered or certified mail with a return receipt requested.

(c) Thirty or more days following posting pursuant to subdivision (b), the management may file a petition in the municipal or justice court for the judicial district in which the mobilehome park is located for a judicial declaration of abandonment of the mobilehome. Copies of the petition shall be served upon the homeowner, any known registered owner, and any known person having a lien or security interest of record in the mobilehome by posting a copy on the mobilehome and mailing copies to those persons at their last known addresses by registered mail with a return receipt requested in the United States mail, postage prepaid.

(d) (1) Hearing on the petition shall be given precedence over other matters on the court's calendar.

(2) If, at the hearing, the petitioner shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the criteria for an abandoned mobilehome has been satisfied and no party establishes an interest therein at the hearing, the court shall enter a judgment of abandonment, determine the amount of charges to which the petitioner is entitled, and award attorney's fees and costs to the petitioner.

(3) A default may be entered by the court clerk upon request of the petitioner, and a default judgment shall be thereupon entered, if no responsive pleading is filed within 15 days after service of the petition by mail.

(e) (1) Within 10 days following a judgment of abandonment, the management shall enter the abandoned mobilehome and complete an inventory of the contents and submit the inventory to the court.

(2) During this period the management shall post and mail notice of intent to sell the abandoned mobilehome and its contents under this section, and announcing the date of sale, in the same manner as provided for the notice of determination of abandonment under subdivision (b).

(3) At any time prior to sale of a mobilehome under this section, any person having a right to possession of the mobilehome may recover and remove it from the premises upon payment to the management of all rent or other charges due, including reasonable costs of storage and other costs awarded by the court. Upon receipt of this payment and removal of the mobilehome from the premises pursuant to this paragraph, the management shall immediately file an acknowledgment of satisfaction of judgment pursuant to Section 724.030 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(f) Following the judgment of abandonment, but not less than 10 days following the notice of sale specified in subdivision (e), the management may conduct a public sale of the abandoned mobilehome and its contents. The management may bid at the sale and shall have the right to offset its bids to the extent of the total amount due it under this section. The proceeds of the sale shall be retained by the management, but any unclaimed amount thus retained over and above the amount to which the management is entitled under this section shall be deemed abandoned property and shall be paid into the treasury of the county in which the sale took place within 30 days of the date of the sale. The former homeowner or any other owner may claim any or all of that unclaimed amount within one year from the date of payment to the county by making application to the county treasurer or other official designated by the county. If the county pays any or all of that unclaimed amount to a claimant, neither the county nor any officer or employee of the county is liable to any other claimant as to the amount paid.

(g) Within 30 days of the date of the sale, the management shall submit to the court an accounting of the moneys received from the sale and the disposition of the money and the items contained in the inventory submitted to the court pursuant to subdivision (e).

(h) The management shall provide the purchaser at the sale with a copy of the judgment of abandonment and evidence of the sale, as shall be specified by the State Department of Housing and Community Development or the Department of Motor Vehicles, which shall register title in the abandoned mobilehome to the purchaser upon presentation thereof. The sale shall pass title to the purchaser free of any prior interest, including any security interest or lien, except the lien provided for in Section 18116.1 of the Health and Safety Code, in the abandoned mobilehome.

SEC. 2. Section 5903 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

5903. When the department receives a copy of the judgment of abandonment and evidence of sale as specified in Section 798.61 of the Civil Code, the department shall transfer the registration of the trailer coach or recreational vehicle which has been deemed abandoned pursuant to that section, or reregister the trailer coach or vehicle under a new registration number, and issue a new certificate of ownership and registration card to the person or persons presenting the copy of the judgment of abandonment and evidence of sale to the department.

CHAPTER 565

An act relating to insurance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Department of Insurance shall conduct a study on the amount of personal automobile insurance written in California by nonadmitted insurers, commonly known as surplus lines carriers.

(b) The study shall include, but need not be limited to, the following:

(1) The total number of policies written annually.

(2) The total premium written annually.

(3) Whether or not these policies comply with the requirements of Section 1763 of the Insurance Code.

(4) To what extent, if any, California Code of Regulations, Title 10, Section 2173, has impacted placement of any automobile bodily injury, property damage, liability, or medical payment insurance with nonadmitted insurers.

(c) The Insurance Commissioner may, as he or she deems appropriate, include recommendations on methods for increasing compliance of surplus lines personal automobile policies with the requirements of Section 1763 of the Insurance Code.

(d) The report shall be made to the Chairpersons of the Assembly Committee on Insurance and the Senate Committee on Insurance, Claims, and Corporations, no later than July 1, 1992.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Personal lines automobile insurance is being offered in California in satisfaction of the financial responsibility laws of the state. In order to assess the impact of this insurance at the earliest possible date, this act must take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 566

An act to amend Sections 5502, 5510, 5537.1, 5550.1, 5565, 5566, 5566.2, 5600.2, 5601, 5602, 5603, 5610, 5610.3, 5610.4, 5610.5, 5610.6, and 5610.7 of, and to repeal and add Section 5501 of, the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Section 13401 of the Corporations Code, relating to architecture.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5501 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 5501 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

5501. This chapter constitutes the chapter on professional architects. It shall be known and may be cited as the Architects Practice Act.

SEC. 3. Section 5502 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5502. As used in this chapter, board refers to the California Board of Architectural Examiners.

SEC. 4. Section 5510 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5510. There is in the Department of Consumer Affairs a California Board of Architectural Examiners which consists of 10 members.

SEC. 5. Section 5537.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5537.1. A structural engineer, defined as a registered civil engineer who has been authorized to use the title structural engineer under the provisions of Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 6700), insofar as he or she practices the profession for which he or she is registered, is exempt from the provisions of this chapter, except that a structural engineer may not use the title "architect," unless he or she holds a license as required in this chapter.

SEC. 6. Section 5550.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5550.1. An applicant for a license to practice architecture shall be required, as part of the examination for licensure, to demonstrate to the board's satisfaction his or her knowledge and understanding of and proficiency in exterior and interior barrier free design.

The board shall include questions regarding exterior and interior barrier free design as part of the examination. Those questions shall periodically be reviewed by the board in order to ensure that the examination reflects current regulations and the latest developments in barrier free design.

SEC. 7. Section 5565 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5565. The decision may:

(a) Provide for the immediate complete suspension by the holder of the license of all operations as an architect during the period fixed by the decision.

(b) Permit the holder of the license to complete any or all contracts for the performance of architectural services shown by evidence taken at the hearing to be then unfinished.

(c) Impose upon the holder of the license compliance with any specific conditions as may be just in connection with his or her operations as an architect disclosed at the hearing, and may further provide that until those conditions are complied with no application for restoration of the suspended or revoked license shall be accepted by the board.

(d) Assess a fine not in excess of five thousand dollars ($5,000) against the holder of a license for any of the causes specified in Section 5577. A fine may be assessed in lieu of, or in addition to, a suspension or revocation. All fines collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited to the credit of the California Board of Architectural Examiners Fund.

SEC. 8. Section 5566 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5566. If, upon completion of an investigation, the executive officer has probable cause to believe that a licensee or an unlicensed individual acting in the capacity of an architect has violated provisions of this chapter, he or she may issue a citation to the licensee or individual, as provided in this section. Each citation shall be in writing and shall describe with particularity the nature of the violation, including a reference to the provision of this chapter alleged to have been violated. In addition, each citation may contain an assessment of a civil penalty. The citation shall be served upon the licensee or unlicensed individual personally or through registered mail. Before any citation may be issued, the executive officer shall submit the alleged violation for review and investigation to at least one designee of the board who is a certificate holder or a staff architect. The review shall include attempts to contact the licensee or unlicensed individual to discuss and resolve the alleged violation. Upon conclusion of the board designee's review, the designee shall prepare a finding of fact and a recommendation. If the board designee concludes that probable cause exists that a licensee or unlicensed individual has violated any provisions of this chapter, a citation shall be issued to the licensee or unlicensed individual.

SEC. 9. Section 5566.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5566.2. (a) If a licensee or an unlicensed individual desires to contest a citation or the proposed assessment of a civil penalty therefor, he or she shall, within 10 business days after service of the citation, notify the executive officer in writing of his or her request for an informal conference with the executive officer or his or her designee. The executive officer or his or her designee shall hold, within 60 days from the receipt of the request, an informal conference. At the conclusion of the informal conference the executive officer may affirm, modify, or dismiss the citation or proposed assessment of a civil penalty, and he or she shall state with particularity in writing his or her reasons for the action, and shall immediately transmit a copy thereof to the board, the licensee or unlicensed individuals, and the person who submitted the verified complaint. If the licensee or unlicensed individual desires to contest a decision made after the informal conference, he or she shall inform the executive officer in writing within five business days after he or she receives the decision resulting from the informal conference.

If the licensee or unlicensed individual fails to notify the executive officer in writing that he or she intends to contest the citation or the proposed assessment of a civil penalty therefor or the decision made after an informal conference within the time specified in this subdivision, the citation or the proposed assessment of a civil penalty or the decision made after an informal conference shall be deemed a final order of the board and shall not be subject to further administrative review.

(b) A licensee or an unlicensed individual may, in lieu of contesting a citation pursuant to this section, transmit to the board the amount assessed in the citation as a civil penalty, within 10 business days after service of the citation.

(c) If a licensee or an unlicensed individual has notified the executive officer in a timely manner that he or she intends to contest the decision made after the informal conference, the executive officer shall arrange a hearing before the board. After the hearing, the board shall issue a decision, based on findings of fact, affirming, modifying, or vacating the citation, or directing other appropriate relief which shall include, but need not be limited to, a notice that the failure of a licensee or unlicensed individual to comply with any provision of the board's decision constitutes grounds for suspension, or denial of licensure, or both. The proceedings under this section shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the board shall have all the powers granted therein.

(d) After the exhaustion of the review procedures provided for in this section, the board may apply to the appropriate superior court for a judgment in the amount of the civil penalty and an order compelling the cited person to comply with the order of abatement. The application, which shall include a certified copy of the final order of the board, shall constitute a sufficient showing to warrant the issuance of the judgment and order.

(e) Failure of a licensee to pay a fine within 30 days of the date of assessment, unless the citation is being appealed, may result in disciplinary action being taken by the board. Where a citation is not contested and a fine is not paid, the full amount of the assessed fine shall be added to the fee for for renewal of the license. A license shall not be renewed without payment of the renewal fee and fine.

(f) Any civil penalties received under this chapter shall be deposited in the California Board of Architectural Examiners Fund.

SEC. 10. Section 5600.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5600.2. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a license which has expired may be renewed at any time within five years after its expiration on filing of application for renewal on a form prescribed by the board, and payment of all accrued and unpaid renewal fees. If a license is renewed more than 30 days after its expiration, the licenseholder, as a condition precedent to renewal, shall also pay the delinquency fee prescribed by this chapter. Renewal under this section shall be effective on the date on which the application is filed, on the date on which the renewal fee is paid, or on the date on which the delinquency fee, if any, is paid, whichever last occurs. If so renewed, the license shall continue in effect through the expiration date provided in this chapter which next occurs after the effective date of the renewal, when it shall expire if it is not again renewed.

SEC. 11. Section 5601 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5601. Within 10 days after the beginning of every month, all fees collected by the department for the month preceding, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be paid into the State Treasury to the credit of the California Board of Architectural Examiners Fund.

SEC. 12. Section 5602 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5602. The money paid into the California Board of Architectural Examiners Fund, which is hereby continued in existence, shall be used in the manner prescribed by law to defray the expenses of the board in carrying out and enforcing the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 13. Section 5603 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5603. The board shall maintain, publish, and distribute to local building departments, and others upon request, an official roster listing the name, license number, and address of all its licensees issued licenses pursuant to this chapter and who are in good standing. The roster shall be open to inspection by the public during office hours of the board. Except for local building departments, the board may charge a fee for the maintenance, publication, and distribution of the roster, not to exceed the actual cost thereof. All fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the California Board of Architectural Examiners Fund.

SEC. 14. Section 5610 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5610. A professional architectural corporation is a corporation which is authorized to render professional services, as defined in Section 13401 of the Corporations Code, so long as that corporation and its shareholders, officers, directors, and employees rendering professional services who are licensed architects, are in compliance with the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act (Part 4 (commencing with Section 13400) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code), this article, and all other statutes and regulations pertaining to the corporation and the conduct of its affairs. With respect to an architectural corporation, the governmental agency referred to in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act is the California Board of Architectural Examiners.

SEC. 15. Section 5610.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5610.3. The name of a professional architectural corporation and any name or names under which it may be rendering professional services shall contain and be restricted to the name or the last name of one or more of the present, prospective, or former shareholders, or of persons who were associated with a predecessor person, partnership, or other organization and whose name or names appeared in the name of the predecessor organization, and shall include either (1) the words "architectural corporation" or (2) the word "architect" or "architects" and wording or abbreviations denoting corporate existence.

SEC. 16. Section 5610.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5610.4. Except as provided in Section 13403 of the Corporations Code, each director, shareholder, and officer of a professional architectural corporation shall be a licensed person as defined in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act.

SEC. 17. Section 5610.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5610.5. The income of a professional architectural corporation attributable to professional services rendered while a shareholder is a disqualified person (as defined in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act) shall not in any manner accrue to the benefit of that shareholder or his or her shares in the professional architectural corporation.

SEC. 18. Section 5610.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5610.6. A professional architectural corporation shall not do or fail to do any act the doing of which or the failure to do which would constitute unprofessional conduct under any statute, rule, or regulation now or hereafter in effect. In the conduct of its practice, it shall observe and be bound by those statutes, rules, and regulations to the same extent as a person holding a license under Section 5551.

SEC. 19. Section 5610.7 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5610.7. The board may formulate and enforce rules and regulations to carry out the purposes and objectives of this article, including rules and regulations requiring (a) that the articles of incorporation or bylaws of an architectural corporation shall include a provision whereby the capital stock of the corporation owned by a disqualified person (as defined in the Moscone-Knox Professional Corporation Act), or a deceased person, shall be sold to the corporation or to the remaining shareholders of the corporation within the time as those rules and regulations may provide, and (b) that an architectural corporation shall provide adequate security by insurance or otherwise for claims against it by its clients arising out of the rendering of professional services.

SEC. 20. Section 13401 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

13401. As used in this part:

(a) "Professional services" means any type of professional services which may be lawfully rendered only pursuant to a license, certification, or registration authorized by the Business and Professions Code or the Chiropractic Act.

(b) "Professional corporation" means a corporation organized under the General Corporation Law which is engaged in rendering professional services in a single profession, except as otherwise authorized in Section 13401.5, pursuant to a certificate of registration issued by the governmental agency regulating the profession as herein provided and which in its practice or business designates itself as a professional or other corporation as may be required by statute. However, any professional corporation rendering professional services by persons duly licensed by the Medical Board of California or any examining committee under the jurisdiction of the board, the State Board of Pharmacy, the Board of Examiners in Veterinary Medicine, the Board of Architectural Examiners, or the Board of Registered Nursing shall not be required to obtain a certificate of registration in order to render those professional services.

(c) "Licensed person" means any natural person who is duly licensed under the provisions of the Business and Professions Code or the Chiropractic Act to render the same professional services as are or will be rendered by the professional corporation of which he or she is or intends to become, an officer, director, shareholder, or employee.

(d) "Disqualified person" means a licensed person who for any reason becomes legally disqualified (temporarily or permanently) to render the professional services which the particular professional corporation of which he or she is an officer, director, shareholder, or employee is or was rendering.

CHAPTER 567

An act to amend Sections 999, 999.2, and 1314 of, and to add Section 999.9 to, the Military and Veterans Code, relating to veterans, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the Korean conflict resulted in untold casualties, and our state and country does not have a completely negotiated peace treaty despite the passage of almost 40 years since the initial truce.

SEC. 2. Section 999 of the Military and Veterans Code, as amended by Chapter 291 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

999. As used in this article, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Administering agency" means the Treasurer in the case of contracts for professional bond services, and the Office of Small and Minority Business in the case of contracts governed by Section 999.2.

(b) "Awarding department" means any agency, department, constitutional officer, governmental entity, or other officer or entity of the state empowered by law to issue bonds or enter into contracts on behalf of the State of California.

(c) "Bonds" means bonds, notes, warrants, certificates of participation, and other evidences of indebtedness issued by or on behalf of the State of California.

(d) "Contract" includes any contract, agreement, or joint agreement to provide professional bond services to the State of California or an awarding department. "Contract" also includes any agreement or joint development agreement to provide labor, services, material, supplies, or equipment in the performance of a contract, franchise, concession, or lease granted, let, or awarded for and on behalf of the State of California.

(e) "Contractor" means any person or persons, firm, partnership, corporation, or combination thereof who submits a bid and enters into a contract with a representative of a state agency, department, governmental entity, or other officer empowered by law to enter into contracts on behalf of the State of California. "Contractor" includes any provider of professional bond services who enters into a contract with an awarding department.

(f) "Disabled veteran" means a veteran of the military, naval, or air service of the United States with a service-connected disability who is a resident of the State of California.

(g) "Disabled veteran business enterprise" means a business concern certified by the administering agency as meeting all of the following requirements:

(1) It is a sole proprietorship at least 51 percent owned by one or more disabled veterans or, in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51 percent of its stock is owned by one or more disabled veterans; a subsidiary which is wholly owned by a parent corporation, but only if at least 51 percent of the voting stock of the parent corporation is owned by one or more disabled veterans; or a joint venture in which at least 51 percent of the joint venture's management and control and earnings are held by one or more disabled veterans.

(2) The management and control of the daily business operations are by one or more disabled veterans. The disabled veterans who exercise management and control are not required to be the same disabled veterans as the owners of the business concern.

(3) It is a sole proprietorship, corporation, or partnership with its home office located in the United States, which is not a branch or subsidiary of a foreign corporation, foreign firm, or other foreign-based business.

(h) "Foreign corporation," "foreign firm," and "foreign-based business" means a business entity that is incorporated or has its principal headquarters located outside the United States of America.

(i) "Goal" means a numerically expressed objective that awarding departments are required to make efforts to achieve.

(j) "Management and control" means effective and demonstrable management of the business entity.

(k) "Professional bond services" include services as financial advisers, bond counsel, underwriters in negotiated transactions, underwriter's counsel, financial printers, feasibility consultants, and other professional services related to the issuance and sale of bonds.

SEC. 3. Section 999.2 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

999.2. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all contracts awarded by any state agency, department, officer, or other state governmental entity for construction, professional services (except those subject to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 16850) of Part 3 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code), materials, supplies, equipment, alteration, repair, or improvement shall have statewide participation goals of not less than 3 percent for disabled veteran business enterprises. These goals apply to the overall dollar amount expended each year by the awarding department. This article shall not apply to any contract that is subject to Section 10108.5 of the Public Contract Code.

(b) The awarding department may exempt from the statewide participation goals specified in subdivision (a), contracts for a dollar amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or less.

SEC. 4. Section 999.9 is added to the Military and Veterans Code, to read:

999.9. (a) It shall be unlawful for a person to:

(1) Knowingly and with intent to defraud, fraudulently obtain, retain, attempt to obtain or retain, or aid another in fraudulently obtaining or retaining or attempting to obtain or retain, certification as a disabled veteran business enterprise for the purpose of this article.

(2) Willfully and knowingly make a false statement with the intent to defraud, whether by affidavit, report, or other representation, to a state official or employee for the purpose of influencing the certification or denial of certification of any entity as a disabled veteran business enterprise.

(3) Willfully and knowingly obstruct, impede, or attempt to obstruct or impede, any state official or employee who is investigating the qualifications of a business entity which has requested certification as a disabled veteran business enterprise.

(4) Knowingly and with intent to defraud, fraudulently obtain, attempt to obtain, or aid another person in fraudulently obtaining or attempting to obtain, public moneys to which the person is not entitled under this article.

(b) Any person who violates any of the provisions of subdivision (a) shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for the first violation, and a civil penalty not to exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for each additional or subsequent violation.

(c) Any person who violates subdivision (a) shall, in addition to the penalties provided for in subdivision (b), be suspended from bidding on, or participating as either a contractor, subcontractor, or supplier in, any state contract or project for a period of not less than 30 days nor more than one year. However, for an additional or subsequent violation the period of suspension shall be extended for a period of up to three years. Any business or person who fails to satisfy the penalties imposed pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c) shall be prohibited from further contracting with the state until the penalties are satisfied.

(d) The awarding department shall report all alleged violations of this section to the Office of Small and Minority Business. The office shall subsequently report all alleged violations to the Attorney General who shall determine whether to bring a civil action against any person or firm for violation of this section.

(e) The office shall monitor the status of all reported violations and shall maintain and make available to all state departments a central listing of all firms and persons who have been determined to have committed violations resulting in suspension.

(f) No awarding department shall enter into any contract with any person suspended for violating this section during the period of the person's suspension. No awarding department shall award a contract to any contractor utilizing the services of any person as a subcontractor suspended for violating this section during the period of the person's suspension.

(g) The awarding department shall check the central listing provided by the office to verify that the person or contractor to whom the contract is being awarded, or any person being utilized as a subcontractor or supplier by that person or contractor, is not under suspension for violating this section.

SEC. 5. Section 1314 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

1314. With respect to the design and construction of the memorial, the commission may do all of the following:

(a) Establish a schedule for the design, construction, and dedication of the memorial. The design may reflect all United States military conflicts, including, but not limited to, conflicts of the 19th and 20th century. The memorial may emphasize wars and other periods in which Californians played a role, including, but not limited to, the Korean War.

(b) Implement procedures to solicit designs for the memorial and devise a selection process for the choice of the design.

(c) Select individuals or organizations to provide fundraising services and to construct the memorial.

(d) Review and monitor the design and construction of the memorial and establish a program for the dedication of the memorial.

(e) Report to the Legislature through the Assembly Committee on Governmental Organization and the Senate Committee on Veterans Affairs at least once per year on the progress of the memorial.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to implement the changes to the disabled veteran's preference requirements and to avoid fraud in state contracting relating thereto at the earliest time, and in order to implement the changes in the progress reports authorized by this act in this year's report concerning the veterans' memorial, and in order to change the design requirements for the veterans' memorial before that design begins, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 568

An act to amend Section 6547 of, and to add Section 6546.13 to, the Government Code, relating to joint powers authorities.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6546.13 is added to the Government Code, to read:

6546.13. (a) The Alameda Corridor Transportation Authority, or its successor organization, may issue revenue bonds pursuant to this article or bonds pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 6584), for the limited purpose of paying for acquiring the land, and designing, engineering, constructing, and improving that project, including all facilities and improvements of the consolidated transportation corridor, and including all associated financing costs. Ineligible expenses shall include any expenses for the maintenance, operations, and administration of the consolidated transportation corridor.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "consolidated transportation corridor" means a transportation corridor created to improve highway or rail access to the Ports of Long Beach and Los Angeles.

(c) Anticipated sources of revenue or other funds to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds authorized by this section may include a pledge or revenues from the Ports of Long Beach and Los Angeles, railroad use fees, truck fees, and pledges from other public and private sources.

(d) Any joint powers entity seeking authorization to issue revenue bonds pursuant to this section shall do so in compliance with Sections 6547 and 6547.5.

(e) Any joint powers entity under this section seeking to issue bonds pursuant to the Marks-Roos Local Bond Pooling Act of 1985 (Article 4 (commencing with Section 6584)) shall do so in compliance with all of the provisions under Article 4 (commencing with Section 6584).

(f) The authority to issue revenue bonds under this article or bonds under Article 4 (commencing with Section 6584) shall be of no further force and effect after December 31, 2015, unless (1) the joint powers authority has initially issued revenue bonds or bonds on or prior to December 31, 2015, or (2) the joint powers authority is unable to initially issue revenue bonds or bonds to accomplish the purpose of this section by reason of litigation relating to the initial issuance, in which case the authority to initially issue revenue bonds under this article and bonds under Article 4 (commencing with Section 6584) shall continue to be effective until the final determination of that litigation and for one year thereafter. If the joint powers authority has initially issued revenue bonds or bonds within either of the time periods permitted by this subdivision, the authority to issue subsequent issues of revenue bonds or bonds and to refund any issue of revenue bonds under this article or bonds under Article 4 (commencing with Section 6584) shall continue as long as initially issued revenue bonds or bonds remain outstanding and unpaid.

SEC. 2. Section 6547 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6547. The power of the entity to issue revenue bonds is additional to the powers common to the parties to the joint powers agreement, but shall not be exercised until authorized by the parties to that agreement. However, in the case of the issuance of revenue bonds by a fair and exhibition authority this authorization shall not be required. In the case of the issuance of revenue bonds by an entity created pursuant to this chapter to construct bridges and major thoroughfares, as referred to in Section 66484.3, the power of the entity to issue revenue bonds shall be exercised by a resolution adopted by a majority vote of the governing body of the entity. However, no member of the entity may vote on the question of bond issuance unless the member has been authorized to vote on that particular question by previous resolution of the public agency the member represents. In the case of the issuance of revenue bonds by an entity created pursuant to this chapter to carry out a consolidated transportation corridor project, as referred to in Section 6546.13, the power of the entity to issue revenue bonds shall be exercised by a resolution adopted by a majority vote of the governing body of the entity. In the case of a project for the generation or transmission of electric energy or a project for the disposal, treatment, or conversion to energy and reusable materials of solid waste, or a project for an intermodal container transfer facility, or a project for the construction of bridges and major thoroughfares pursuant to Section 66484.3, this power shall include the power to issue notes for the purpose of financing studies, the acquisition of options, permits, and other preliminary costs to be incurred prior to the undertaking of the construction or acquisition of a project, and for the purpose of providing temporary financing of costs of construction or acquisition of a project. These notes may be issued at public or private sale, and may be renewed from time to time, and the principal and interest with respect thereto may be made payable from the revenues of the entity unless paid from the proceeds of revenue bonds.

Every local agency shall make any authorization, as permitted under the first sentence of this section, by ordinance, unless otherwise prescribed in this section. Except as provided in this section, the ordinance shall describe in general terms the project, or projects, to be funded by the revenue bonds, the maximum amount of the bonds proposed to be issued, and the anticipated sources of revenue to redeem the bonds. In the case of a project for the generation or transmission of electric energy or a project for the disposal, treatment, or conversion to energy and reusable materials of solid waste, or a project for an intermodal container transfer facility, or a project for the construction of bridges and major thoroughfares pursuant to Section 66484.3, the ordinance shall describe in general terms the project or the studies or other preliminary costs therefor to be funded by the revenue bonds or notes, the estimate of the maximum amount of bonds to be issued for the project or the studies or other preliminary costs, and the anticipated sources of revenue or other funds to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds or notes. In the case of a project for a consolidated transportation corridor pursuant to Section 6546.13, the authorizing resolution shall describe in general terms, the project or projects to be funded by the revenue bonds, the maximum amount of bonds proposed to be issued for the project or projects, and the anticipated sources of revenue or other funds to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds. However, the statement of the estimated maximum amount of the bonds or notes shall not be deemed to prevent the authorization by the ordinance of the issuance of bonds or notes by the entity in amounts which may exceed the estimate without further authorization under the ordinance if and to the extent the additional bonds or notes shall be required to complete the financing of the project or the studies or other preliminary costs. Each such ordinance shall state that it is subject to the provisions for referendum prescribed by Section 3751.7 of the Elections Code.

A separate authorization shall be required for each separate bond issue proposed by the entity, except that, in the case of a project for the generation or transmission of electric energy or a project for the disposal, treatment, or conversion to energy and reusable materials of solid waste, or a project for an intermodal container transfer facility, or a project for the construction of bridges and major thoroughfares pursuant to Section 66484.3, a single authorization shall be sufficient for bonds which may be issued in installments from time to time for a project or the costs of studies or other preliminary costs therefor which shall be identified in the authorization.

The requirement of an ordinance and the right to referendum thereon shall not apply to the issuance of revenue bonds if, prior to March 4, 1971, one or more local or public agencies shall have taken formal action to implement any one or more projects to be acquired or constructed pursuant to a joint powers agreement. Formal action to implement any one or more projects shall include, but not be limited to, any of the following:

(a) The incurring of liability for a substantial portion of an architectural or engineering contract or other contract relating to a project.

(b) The acquisition of land or improvements for the project.

(c) The making of a substantial contribution toward the project.

Notwithstanding the requirement that parties to a joint powers agreement authorize the issuance of revenue bonds, in the case of a project which consists of the generation or transmission of electric energy financed in whole or in part by the issuance of revenue bonds, only those local agencies which contract to make payments to be applied to the payment of the revenue bonds shall be required to authorize the issuance of the revenue bonds.

Any authorizations required by this section for the issuance of revenue bonds to construct bridges and major thoroughfares projects pursuant to Section 50029 or 66484.3 may be by ordinance or resolution.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution, the Legislature hereby finds and declares that due to transportation problems unique to the area bounded by the Alameda Corridor Transportation Authority, a general statute cannot be made applicable to the area in question and it is therefore necessary to enact a special statute.

CHAPTER 569

An act to add Section 12599.5 to the Government Code, relating to fundraisers.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12599.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

12599.5. Each application for registration or renewal of registration under subdivision (b) of Section 12599 shall be accompanied by a cash deposit or by a bond issued by an admitted surety in favor of the State of California and in a form acceptable to the Attorney General. The cash deposit or bond shall be in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) and shall be for the benefit of any person damaged as a result of malfeasance or misfeasance in the conduct of the activities specified in subdivision (a) of Section 12599. The bond may be in the form of a rider to a larger blanket liability bond.

CHAPTER 570

An act to amend Section 44010 of the Education Code, relating to employees.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44010 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44010. "Sex offense," as used in Sections 44346, 44425, 44436, 44836, 45123, and 45304, means any one or more of the offenses listed below:

(a) Any offense defined in Section 261.5, 266, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 647.6, or former Section 647a, subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 243.4, subdivision 1, 2, 3, or 4 of Section 261, or subdivision (a) or (d) of Section 647 of the Penal Code.

(b) Any offense defined in former subdivision 5 of former Section 647 of the Penal Code repealed by Chapter 560 of the Statutes of 1961, or any offense defined in former subdivision 2 of former Section 311 of the Penal Code repealed by Chapter 2147 of the Statutes of 1961, if the offense defined in such sections was committed prior to September 15, 1961, to the same extent that an offense committed prior to that date was a sex offense for the purposes of this section prior to September 15, 1961.

(c) Any offense defined in Section 314 of the Penal Code committed on or after September 15, 1961.

(d) Any offense defined in former subdivision 1 of former Section 311 of the Penal Code repealed by Chapter 2147 of the Statutes of 1961 committed on or after September 7, 1955, and prior to September 15, 1961.

(e) Any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272 of the Penal Code committed on or after September 15, 1961.

(f) Any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under former Section 702 of the Welfare and Institutions Code repealed by Chapter 1616 of the Statutes of 1961, if that offense was committed prior to September 15, 1961, to the same extent that an offense committed prior to that date was a sex offense for the purposes of this section prior to September 15, 1961.

(g) Any offense defined in Section 286 or 288a of the Penal Code prior to the effective date of the amendment of either section enacted at the 1975–76 Regular Session of the Legislature committed prior to the effective date of the amendment.

(h) Any attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(i) Any offense committed or attempted in any other state which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the above-mentioned offenses.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 571

An act to amend Section 17510.3 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to charitable solicitations.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17510.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

17510.3. (a) Prior to any solicitation or sales solicitation for charitable purposes, the solicitor or seller shall exhibit to the prospective donor or purchaser a card entitled "Solicitation or Sale for Charitable Purposes Card." The card shall be signed and dated under penalty of perjury by an individual who is a principal, staff member, or officer of the soliciting organization. The card shall give the name and address of the soliciting organization or the person who signed the card and the name and business address of the paid individual who is doing the actual soliciting.

In lieu of exhibiting a card, the solicitor or seller may distribute during the course of the solicitation any printed material, such as a solicitation brochure, provided such material complies with the standards set forth below, and provided that the solicitor or seller informs the prospective donor or purchaser that the information as required below is contained in the printed material.

Information on the card or printed material shall be presented in at least 10-point type and shall include the following:

(1) The name and address of the combined campaign, each organization, or fund on behalf of which all or any part of the money collected will be utilized for charitable purposes.

(2) If there is no organization or fund, the manner in which the money collected will be utilized for charitable purposes.

(3) The amount, stated as a percentage of the total gift or purchase price, that will be used for charitable purposes.

(4) If paid fund raisers are paid a set fee rather than a percentage of the total amount raised, the card shall show the total cost that is estimated will be used for direct fundraising expenses.

(5) If the solicitation is not a sale solicitation, the card may state, in place of the amount of fundraising expenses, that an audited financial statement of such expenses may be obtained by contacting the organization at the address disclosed.

(6) The non-tax-exempt status of the organization or fund, if the organization or fund for which the money or funds are being solicited does not have a charitable tax exemption under both federal and state law.

(7) The percentage of the total gift or purchase price which may be deducted as a charitable contribution under both federal and state law. If no portion is so deductible the card shall state that "This contribution is not tax deductible."

(8) If the organization making the solicitation represents any nongovernmental organization by any name which includes, but is not limited to, the term "officer," "peace officer," "police," "law enforcement," "reserve officer," "deputy," "California Highway Patrol," "Highway Patrol," or "deputy sheriff," which would reasonably be understood to imply that the organization is composed of law enforcement personnel, the solicitor shall give the total number of members in the organization and the number of members working or living within the county where the solicitation is being made, and if the solicitation is for advertising, the statewide circulation of the publication in which the solicited ad will appear.

(9) If the organization making the solicitation represents any nongovernmental organization by any name which includes, but is not limited to, the term "veteran" or "veterans," which would reasonably be understood to imply that the organization is composed of veterans, the solicitor shall give the total number of members in the organization and the number of members working or living within the county where the solicitation is being made. This paragraph does not apply to federally chartered or state incorporated veterans' organizations with 200 or more dues paying members or to a thrift store operated or controlled by a federally chartered or state incorporated veterans' organization. This paragraph does not apply to any state incorporated community based organization that provides direct services to veterans and their families and qualifies as a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(19) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 23701d of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(b) Knowing and willful noncompliance by any individual volunteer who receives no compensation of any type from or in connection with a solicitation by any charitable organization shall subject the solicitor or seller to the penalties of the law.

(c) When the solicitation is not a sales solicitation, any individual volunteer who receives no compensation of any type from, or in connection with, a solicitation by any charitable organization may comply with the disclosure provisions by providing the name and address of the charitable organization on behalf of which all or any part of the money collected will be utilized for charitable purposes, by stating the charitable purposes for which the solicitation is made, and by stating to the person solicited that information about revenues and expenses of such organization, including its administration and fundraising costs, may be obtained by contacting the organization's office at the address disclosed. The organization shall provide this information to the person solicited within seven days after receipt of the request.

(d) A volunteer who receives no compensation of any type from, or in connection with, a solicitation or sales solicitation by a charitable organization which has qualified for a tax exemption under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and who is 18 years of age or younger, is not required to make any disclosures pursuant to this section.

SEC. 1.5. Section 17510.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

17510.3. (a) Prior to any solicitation or sales solicitation for charitable purposes, the solicitor or seller shall exhibit to the prospective donor or purchaser a card entitled "Solicitation or Sale for Charitable Purposes Card." The card shall be signed and dated under penalty of perjury by an individual who is a principal, staff member, or officer of the soliciting organization. The card shall give the name and address of the soliciting organization or the person who signed the card and the name and business address of the paid individual who is doing the actual soliciting.

In lieu of exhibiting a card, the solicitor or seller may distribute during the course of the solicitation any printed material, such as a solicitation brochure, provided such material complies with the standards set forth below, and provided that the solicitor or seller informs the prospective donor or purchaser that the information as required below is contained in the printed material.

Information on the card or printed material shall be presented in at least 10-point type and shall include the following:

(1) The name and address of the combined campaign, each organization, or fund on behalf of which all or any part of the money collected will be utilized for charitable purposes.

(2) If there is no organization or fund, the manner in which the money collected will be utilized for charitable purposes.

(3) The amount, stated as a percentage of the total gift or purchase price, that will be used for charitable purposes.

(4) If paid fundraisers are paid a set fee rather than a percentage of the total amount raised, the card shall show the total cost that is estimated will be used for direct fundraising expenses.

(5) If the solicitation is not a sale solicitation, the card may state, in place of the amount of fundraising expenses, that an audited financial statement of these expenses may be obtained by contacting the organization at the address disclosed.

(6) The nontax-exempt status of the organization or fund, if the organization or fund for which the money or funds are being solicited does not have a charitable tax exemption under both federal and state law.

(7) The percentage of the total gift or purchase price which may be deducted as a charitable contribution under both federal and state law. If no portion is so deductible the card shall state that "This contribution is not tax deductible."

(8) If the organization making the solicitation represents any nongovernmental organization by any name which includes, but is not limited to, the term "officer," "peace officer," "police," "law enforcement," "reserve officer," "deputy," "California Highway Patrol," "Highway Patrol," or "deputy sheriff," which would reasonably be understood to imply that the organization is composed of law enforcement personnel, the solicitor shall give the total number of members in the organization and the number of members working or living within the county where the solicitation is being made, and if the solicitation is for advertising, the statewide circulation of the publication in which the solicited ad will appear.

(9) If the organization making the solicitation represents any nongovernmental organization by any name which includes, but is not limited to, the term "veteran" or "veterans," which would reasonably be understood to imply that the organization is composed of veterans, the solicitor shall give the total number of members in the organization and the number of members working or living within the county where the solicitation is being made. This paragraph does not apply to federally chartered or state incorporated veterans' organizations with 200 or more dues paying members or to a thrift store operated or controlled by a federally chartered or state incorporated veterans' organization. This paragraph does not apply to any state incorporated community-based organization that provides direct services to veterans and their families and qualifies as a tax-exempt organization under Section 501 (c) (3) or 501 (c) (19) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 23701 d of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(b) Knowing and willful noncompliance by any individual volunteer who receives no compensation of any type from or in connection with a solicitation by any charitable organization shall subject the solicitor or seller to the penalties of the law.

(c) When the solicitation is not a sales solicitation, any individual volunteer who receives no compensation of any type from, or in connection with, a solicitation by any charitable organization may comply with the disclosure provisions by providing the name and address of the charitable organization on behalf of which all or any part of the money collected will be utilized for charitable purposes, by stating the charitable purposes for which the solicitation is made, and by stating to the person solicited that information about revenues and expenses of the organization, including its administration and fundraising costs, may be obtained by contacting the organization's office at the address disclosed. The organization shall provide this information to the person solicited within seven days after receipt of the request.

(d) A volunteer who receives no compensation of any type from, or in connection with, a solicitation or sales solicitation by a charitable organization which has qualified for a tax exemption under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and who is 18 years of age or younger, is not required to make any disclosures pursuant to this section.

(e) If any provision of this section or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this section which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this section are severable.

SEC. 2. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 17510.3 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2099. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 17510.3 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2099, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 572

An act to amend, repeal, and add Sections 11571 and 11581 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to controlled substances.

[Approved by Governor October 5, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 7, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11571 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11571. (a) Whenever there is reason to believe that a nuisance under Section 11570 is kept, maintained, or exists in any city, county, or city and county, the district attorney of the county, in the name of the people, the city attorney of any incorporated or charter city, or any citizen of the state residing in the city, county, or city and county, in his or her own name, may maintain an action to abate and prevent the nuisance and perpetually to enjoin the person conducting or maintaining it, and the owner, lessee, or agent of the building or place, in or upon which the nuisance exists, from directly or indirectly maintaining or permitting the nuisance.

(b) (1) In the case of a residential dwelling, residential building, or residential place, prior to bringing or maintaining an action to abate or prevent a nuisance as prescribed in subdivision (a), the district attorney or the city attorney shall give notice to the owner of the building as shown on the last equalized assessment roll where the nuisance is alleged to exist and shall request that the nuisance be abated within a reasonable time of the receipt of the notice.

(2) The notice shall contain as enclosures documentation to establish that a nuisance exists in or upon the dwelling, building, or place.

(3) The notice shall be served on the owner by personal service or by certified mail.

(4) "Reasonable time" shall mean at least 30 days, unless a shorter time period is agreed to by the owner and the agency issuing the notice.

(5) This subdivision shall apply only to an action brought or maintained by a district attorney or city attorney.

(6) This notice shall not be required prior to bringing or maintaining an action to abate or prevent a nuisance if any one of the following circumstances exist:

(A) There is a danger to the public.

(B) The notice would impede an investigation.

(C) The district attorney or city attorney determines there is good cause to forego the notice.

(D) For purposes of this paragraph, "good cause" includes, but is not limited to, when the owner is unavailable or is evading service of process.

(E) In reviewing whether a notice should have been given under this paragraph, the court shall presume that the determination made by the issuing agency is valid.

(c) (1) If the notice identifies a particular tenant as responsible for the nuisance activity, the issuing agency shall also serve a copy of the notice and supporting documentation on that tenant.

(2) The notice shall not be required if any of the following circumstances exist:

(A) The district attorney or city attorney determines that there is good cause to forego notice. For the purposes of this subparagraph, "good cause" includes, but is not limited to, when the tenant is unavailable or is evading service of process. In reviewing a determination of good cause, the court shall presume that a determination made by the issuing agency is valid.

(B) The issuing agency provides the tenant with sufficient information to obtain a copy of the notice and supporting documentation on that tenant, in lieu of serving a copy of the notice.

(3) The issuing agency shall provide the identified tenant with the opportunity to demonstrate to the agency that the notice was issued on insufficient grounds, that the tenant has been mistakenly identified as the cause of the nuisance activity, or that a nuisance does not exist and therefore no adverse action should be taken.

(d) The failure of a district attorney or city attorney to serve a notice as required by subdivision (b) or (c) shall not be a cause for the dismissal or delay of an action filed pursuant to subdivision (a). However, the failure to give that notice without good cause may be considered by a court as a mitigating factor in its assessment of any civil penalty under Section 11581.

(e) This section shall be repealed on January 1, 1996.

SEC. 2. Section 11571 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1996.

SEC. 3. Section 11581 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11581. (a) If the existence of the nuisance is established in the action, an order of abatement shall be entered as a part of the judgment, which order shall direct the removal from the dwelling, building, or place of all fixtures, musical instruments, and other movable property used in conducting, maintaining, aiding, or abetting the nuisance and shall direct their sale in the manner provided for the sale of chattels under execution.

(b) (1) The order shall provide for the effectual closing of the dwelling, building, or place against its use for any purpose and for keeping it closed for a period of one year. This subdivision is intended to give priority to closure. Any alternative to closure may be considered only as provided in this section.
